

New Zealand Administrative Divisions

- Region boundary
- ★ National capital
- Region capital

New Zealand's primary administrative structure consists of 16 regions (regional councils) and the Chatham Islands Territory. Hawke's Bay Region has two capitals.

Transverse Mercator Projection, CP 17200E/4100S

There is no separate administration for Antipodes Island Group, Auckland Islands, Bounty Islands, Campbell Island, Kermadec Islands, Snares Islands, Solander Island, or Three Kings Islands.

