238. HE EXPLAINS THAT the flame rose and was crowned by the Left COLUMN OF BINAH. And the drop, WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, rose and was crowned by the Right COLUMN OF BINAH. Then they became intertwined-THE RIGHT AND LEFT repeatedly exchanging places with each other. That which had descended now ascended and that which had ascended then descended.

239. BOTH COLUMNS-THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT OF BINAH-combined and a completed Ruach came forth. THIS REFERS TO ZEIR ANPIN, WHO IS CALLED RUACH AND EMANATE FROM THE UNION OF THE TWO COLUMNS. Two sides emerged as one, AND THE RUACH ITSELF was placed in the middle AS THE ASPECT OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. HENCE, THE RESULT WAS THREE COLUMNS. And they were crowned by one another-THAT IS, ALL THREE COLUMNS OF ZEIR ANPIN WERE CROWNED BY ONE ANOTHER. Then there was perfection above, IN BINAH, and perfection below, IN ZEIR ANPIN. The grade was established, AND THE GRADE OF THE MOCHIN OF ZEIR ANPIN WAS COMPLETED!

240. The FIRST Hei OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS BINAH, was crowned by the Vav, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. The Vav OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, in turn, was crowned by the Hei OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS BINAH. THEN the SECOND Hei OF THE YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN TO THE VAV OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, rose and became perfectly attached TO HIM, BY RECEIVING FROM HIM THE MOCHIN OF BINAH. Thus, "And Malki Tzedek king of Shalem (lit. 'perfect')"; and indeed he is a perfect king! THUS, IT IS WRITTEN ABOUT THE SECOND HEI, WHICH IS CALLED MALKI-TZEDEK: "AND MALKI TZEDEK, KING OF SHALEM," BECAUSE NOW IT IS ASSUREDLY A PERFECT KING. THIS MEANS a king who rules perfectly. He asks: When is THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN considered to be a perfect king? AND HE ANSWERS: On Yom Kippur, WHEN MALCHUT RISES UP AND ENCLOTHES BINAH, AND when all faces shine-EVEN THE FACE OF THE NUKVA SHINES LIKE THE FACE OF BINAH!

241. "And Malki Tzedek (lit. 'king of justice')" can also be explained as a reference to the last world, NAMELY THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, AND "King of Shalem" to the upper world, WHICH IS BINAH. They adorn one another, MEANING THAT THE LOWER WORLD WAS CROWNED BY THE UPPER WORLD, they are inseparable and the two worlds are as one. And even the lower world is entirely one WITH THE UPPER WORLD. WHY? BECAUSE AT THAT TIME THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN RISES TO CLOTHE BINAH, EVERY LOWER GRADE THAT RISES TO AN UPPER GRADE BECOMES COMPLETELY LIKE IT. THEREFORE, THESE TWO WORLDS, WHICH ARE THE NUKVA AND BINAH, BECOME AS IF THE SAME. "Brought forth bread and wine" indicates that both are included; BREAD ALLUDES TO THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM FROM THE RIGHT; WINE ALLUDES TO THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH FROM THE LEFT. THEREFORE HE "BROUGHT FORTH BREAD AND WINE" TO INFORM US THAT BOTH OF THESE ILLUMINATIONS EXIST NOW IN MALKI TZEDEK, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA AS SHE ENCLOTHES BINAH. "And he was the priest of the most high El," who served the world that corresponds to another world. "And he was the priest of the most high El" MEANS THAT THE LOWER WORLD SERVES THE UPPER WORLD WITH CHASSADIM. BECAUSE

"the priest" is the right, REFERRING TO THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM IN THE NUKVA, AND "the most high EI" is the upper world, NAMELY BINAH. The priests, therefore, desire to bless the world.

242. Come and behold: This lower world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, receives blessings when it is attached to the high priest, NAMELY TO THE RIGHT COLUMN OF BINAH THAT IS CALLED "THE HIGH PRIEST." Then, "And blessed him" MEANS THAT AFTER THE NUKVA HAD RECEIVED THE BLESSINGS FROM THE HIGH PRIEST, SHE BLESSED AVRAHAM. AS IT IS WRITTEN: "and he said: Blessed be Avram of the most high EI" (Bereshheet 14:19), as it is surely so! The same applies to the priest below IN THIS WORLD. HE SHOULD tie knots, NAMELY TO MEDITATE AS IS EXPLAINED HERE, so as to bless this place, NAMELY THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, so that SHE may be attached to CHASSADIM OF the right SIDE OF BINAH. Thus both worlds, THE NUKVA AND BINAH, are united as one!

243. "Blessed be Avram." The secret behind this is that this blessing contains the meditations that we are to have whenever we say a blessing. "Blessed be Avram" is similar to the words "Blessed are You," which we recite IN EVERY BLESSING; "of the most high EI," WHICH APPEARS HERE, IS SIMILAR TO WHAT WE RECITE IN EVERY BLESSING: "Hashem our Elohim"; "possessor of heaven and earth" IS SIMILAR TO WHAT WE RECITE IN EVERY BLESSING: "the king of the world." So this phrase is the secret of all the blessings. "And he blessed him, AND SAID: BLESSED BE AVRAM", WHICH IS THE DIRECTION OF THE MEDITATION from below upward. "Blessed be the most high EI, WHO HAD DELIVERED THE ENEMIES TO YOUR HANDS" IS THE DIRECTION OF THE MEDITATION from above downward. "And he gave him a tithe of everything" MEANS THAT HE GAVE THE NUKVA A TITHE in order to be attached to that place, where the tie has been made with the world below. THIS IS THE SECRET OF MALCHUT, WHICH FINISHES THE ILLUMINATION OF THE NUKVA, SO AS NOT TO GIVE HOLD TO THE EXTERNALS, AS THE SECRET OF THE TITHE IS THE CONCLUSION OF HER ILLUMINATION.

244. As they were walking, they met Rabbi Yesa and a Jew who was with him. The Jew quoted the verse, "Of David: To you, Hashem, do I lift up my soul" (Tehilim 25:1), AND HE ASKED WHY IS IT WRITTEN "Of David" rather than "A psalm of David" or "To David a psalm?"

245. AND HE ANSWERS: It is written 'Of David' because it was meant for his own grade. And the praise that he recited was for his own sake. "To you Hashem, do I lift up my soul" MEANS "To you, Hashem" upward. "My soul (Nefesh)." Who is meant by "my Nefesh?" David is meant. David is the first grade, as we have stated; NAMELY HE IS MALCHUT, WHICH IS THE FIRST GRADE FROM BELOW UPWARD. "do I lift up" MEANS to elevate, as it is written: "I will lift up my eyes to the hills" (Tehilim 121:1) Because during his entire life, David was always striving to raise his grade TO THAT OF BINAH-to adorn it BY BINAH above and to attach it there in a true and everlasting bond, as it should properly be!

246. Similarly, "Of David, bless Hashem, my soul (Nefesh)" (Tehilim 103:1) was also said for the sake of his own grade. And what did he say? "Bless Hashem, my soul (Nefesh)." In this case, the particle Et before "Hashem" MEANS to be attached with bonds to the upper GRADE-BINAH. And what is meant by "and all that is within me?" It refers to the other beasts of the fields, NAMELY THE SFIROT OF THE NUKVA, that are called "all that is within me (lit. 'entrails')." As it is written: "and my bowels yearned for him" (Shir Hashirim 5:5) Another explanation of the words "bless ...my soul" is that he said it for the sake of his own grade. "Hashem" is the full perfection of everything-the inclusion of everything. THIS MEANS THAT ET IS THE SECRET OF MALCHUT; HASHEM (YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI) IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN. SO ET HASHEM ALLUDES TO THE COMPLETE UNISON OF ZEIR ANPIN WITH HIS NUKVA.

247. Rabbi Elazar said to Rabbi Yesa: I see that you have come in company with the Shechinah. HE SAID THIS BECAUSE HE SAW THAT THE SHECHINAH RESTED UPON THE JEW. He said to him: Most certainly! I walked with him for three parasangs, and he has told me many goodly matters. And I have hired him to serve me for this day, and did not realize that he is such a shining light as I see now!"

248. Rabbi Elazar asked the Jew, "What is your name?" He answered, "Yoezer." Rabbi Elazar said: Let us sit together, AS OUR NAMES ARE SIMILAR. They sat beside a rock in that field. The Jew opened the discussion, by quoting, "I, even I, am he that blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and will not remember your sins" (Yeshayah 43:25). HE ASKED HIM, "What is the reason for saying 'I...I' twice?"

249. AND HE REPLIED THAT the first "I" was said at Mount Sinai and the second was said during the creation of the world. Thus, at Mount Sinai it is written: "I am Hashem your Elohim" (Shemot 20:2); and at the creation, it is written: "I have made the earth and created man upon it" (Yeshayah 45:12). This shows that there is no separation between above, BINAH, and below, MALCHUT.

250. HE ASKS: Why does it say "blots out" rather than "removes your transgressions?" AND HE REPLIES: So that they shall never appear again in the world. "For My own sake"--to reveal the compassion that emerges from Me. As it is written: "For Hashem your Elohim is a merciful El" (Devarim 4:31).

251. Come and behold: Another explanation of the words "blots out your transgressions for My own sake," is that the wicked of the world cause damage. For when their sins rise, mercy and the Supernal Light are lost and blessings cannot descend to this world. So this grade, NAMELY THE NUKVA WHICH IS NAMED "I," does not receive any blessings from above to pass on to the lower beings. THEREFORE, THIS IS CONSIDERED BY HER A DAMAGE, and so She says, "for my own sake," so that blessings will not be withheld from me, to be given to all.

246. כְּגוֹנוֹא דָא, לְדוֹד בְּרַכִּי נַפְשִׁי אֶת ה', בְּגִין דְּרַגְיָה קְאָמֵר, וּמְאִי אָמֵר, בְּרַכִּי נַפְשִׁי אֶת ה'. אֶת: לְאַתְקַשְׂרָא בְּקַשׁוּרָא לְעִילָא. וְכֹל קְרִבִּי, מֵאֵן קְרִבִּי. אֵלִין שָׂאֵר חֵיוֹן בְּרָא, דְּאֶקְרוּן קְרִבִּים, כְּדָא וּמְעִי הָמוּ עָלָיו דְּבַר אַחַר, בְּרַכִּי נַפְשִׁי, בְּגִינִיהָ קְאָמֵר. אֶת ה', דָּא שְׁלִימוּ דְכֻלָּא, אֶת ה' כְּלָלָא דְכֻלָּא.

249. אֵלָא, חַד בְּסִינַי. וְחַד בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְבְּרָא עֲלָמָא. דְּכִתְיִב, אֲנֹכִי ה' אֱלֹקֶיךָ, דָּא הוּא בְּסִינַי. וְחַד בְּדְּבַר בְּרָא עֲלָמָא, דְּכִתְיִב, אֲנֹכִי עָשִׂיתִי אֶרֶץ וְאָדָם עֲלֶיהָ בְּרָאתִי. הוּא בְּגִין לְאַחְזָאָה, דְּלֹא הוּי פְּרוּדָא בִּין עִילָא וְתַתָּא.

251. דְּבַר אַחַר, מוֹחָה פְּשְׁעֵיךָ לְמַעְנֵי. תָּא חֲזִי, חֲזִיבִי עֲלָמָא עַבְדִּין פְּגִימוּתָא לְעִילָא, דְּכַד אֵינּוֹן חוּבִין סְלָקִין, רַחְמִין, וְנִהִירוּ עֲלָאָה, וְיַנְיְקוּ דְּבִרְכָאֵן, לֹא נַחִית לְתַתָּא, וְהָאִי דְּרָגָא לֹא נָטוּל בְּרִכָּאֵן דְּלְעִילָא, לְיַנְקָא לְתַתָּא. וּבְגִין כְּרַלְמַעְנֵי, בְּגִין דְּלֹא יְתַמְנְעוּן בְּרִכָּאֵן לְיַנְקָא לְכֻלָּא.

252. The same applies to the verse, "See now that I, even I, am He..." (Devarim 32:39), IN WHICH THE FIRST "I" APPLIES TO BINAH AND THE SECOND "I" TO MALCHUT. THIS IS to show that no separation exists between BINAH above and MALCHUT below, as we have already explained.

253. Come and behold: Similarly, when there are righteous people in the world, blessings are sent down to all the worlds. As soon as Avraham arrived, the blessings were sent to the world. As it is written: "and I will bless you, and you shall be a blessing" (Bereshheet 12:2). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "And you shall be a blessing"? AND HE ANSWERS that because of his merit, blessings shall be abundant on high, IN THE UPPER WORLDS, and down below, IN THE LOWER WORLDS. As it is written: "And in you shall all the families of the earth be blessed," REFERRING TO THE LOWER BEINGS, and "I will bless them that bless you" REFERRING TO THE UPPER WORLDS. WHEN THEY CONVEY THE BLESSINGS DOWNWARD, THEY ARE BLESSED FIRST, AS IS KNOWN. THIS IS THE SECRET OF "I WILL BLESS THEM THAT BLESS YOU!"

254. Yitzchak arrived and informed everyone that there is judgment and there is a Judge above to punish the wicked. And he awakened judgment on the world, so that all would be in awe of the Holy One, blessed He. Ya'akov arrived, brought mercy on the world, and perfected the Faith in the world as proper. AVRAHAM DREW CHESED, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT COLUMN OF THE FAITH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. AND YITZCHAK DREW FOR HER THE JUDGMENT AND THE SFIRAH OF GVURAH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF HER LEFT COLUMN. YA'AKOV COMPLETED HER BY DRAWING DOWN MERCY, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN.

255. Thus, of the days of Avraham, it is written: "And Malki Tzedek king of Shalem," since the Throne, THE NUKVA, was crowned in its own place, IN BINAH. Then THE NUKVA, the "king of Shalem" (a perfect king), was completely flawless. THE NUKVA "brought forth bread and wine" to nourish all of the worlds as ought to be. The words "brought forth bread and wine" SHOW THAT the blessings were not withheld from any of the worlds. The words "brought forth" are similar to the phrase "Let the Earth bring forth," (Bereshheet 1:24) WHICH REFERS TO THE NUKVA, WHICH BROUGHT nourishment and blessings from the highest levels to all the worlds!

256. "And he was the priest of the most high El" (Bereshheet 14:68) MEANS THAT everything has reached full supernal perfection, as it ought to. THAT REFERS TO THE PERFECTION OF BINAH, WHICH IS CALLED "THE MOST HIGH EL." This teaches us that just as the sinners bring damage upon the world and prevent blessings FROM REACHING IT, so the righteous bring blessings to the world, and for their sake, all the people of the world are blessed as well.

252. בְּגוֹוֹנָא דָא, רָאוּ עֵתָה כִּי אָנִי אֲנִי הוּא, לְאַחֲזָא דְלָא הוּי פְּרוּדָא, בֵּין עֵילָא וְתַתָּא. כְּמָה דְאִתְמַר.

257. What is the meaning of "And he gave him a tithe of all" (Bereshheet 14:20), IT MEANS THAT MALKI TZEDEK GAVE HIM those blessings that issue from "all," WHICH IS YESOD. THIS MEANS THAT MALKI TZEDEK, WHO IS THE NUKVA, RECEIVED THE TITHE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE BLESSINGS, FROM YESOD, AND PASSED THEM ON TO AVRAHAM. WHY FROM THE YESOD? Because this is the place from which all blessings that reach the world originate. Another explanation of the words "And he gave him a tithe of all" is that it was the Holy One, blessed be He, who gave Avraham the tithe. And what is the tithe? It is a grade, where all the gates of faith and the blessings of the world are established, it is one out of ten, and ten out of a hundred, NAMELY MALCHUT, WHICH DURING HER IMATURE STATE, HAS NO OTHER SFIRAH BUT KETER. AND THIS SFIRAH IS BUT ONE OUT OF THE TEN SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN. BUT DURING HER STAGE OF MATURITY, MALCHUT HAS TEN COMPLETE SFIROT, AND THEN SHE IS "TEN OUT OF A HUNDRED" SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN. AND THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, GAVE THIS GRADE TO AVRAHAM. From this point on, Avraham's existence became firmly established from above, WHICH MEANS THAT HE MERITED FULL CONCEPTION FOREVER!" Rabbi Elazar said to him, "You have spoken well!"

258. Rabbi Elazar asked him, "What is your job?" He responded, "I teach children, back home. But when Rabbi Yosi of the village Chanin came to town, all the children were taken from me and passed on to him. NEVERTHELESS, the people of my town paid my salary, as they had when the children were with me. But I searched my soul and found it improper to benefit from doing nothing. So I offered my services to this wise man, NAMELY RABBI YESA." Rabbi Elazar said: Here, the blessings of my father-REFERRING TO RABBI SHIMON BAR YOCHAI-are required.

259. They went before Rabbi Shimon, and THE JEW would sit and study all day long before Rabbi Shimon. One day, as they were studying the laws concerning the washing of the hands, RABBI SHIMON said: Whoever does not wash his hands properly is punished from above and also below IN THIS WORLD. And what is his punishment below? He brings poverty upon himself. And just as he who washes his hands improperly is punished, so he who washes his hands properly is rewarded ABOVE AND BELOW, bringing the blessings of above on himself. Because the blessings OF ABOVE rest properly on his hands, he is blessed BELOW with wealth.

260. At a later time, Rabbi Shimon woke up in time to see the Jew washing his hands with a great quantity of water. Rabbi Shimon said: "Fill his hands with your blessings." And so it was from that day onward, because the Jew became rich and found a treasure, he studied Torah and gave food and nourishment to the poor every day, and was happy and kind to them. As a result, in reference to him, Rabbi Shimon quoted the verse, "And you shall rejoice in Hashem and shall glory in the Holy One of Yisrael" (Yeshayah 41:16).

26. "After these things"

In the material world, the Light of the Creator can only manifest through a physical medium or instrument, which Kabbalah refers to as a Vessel.

Just as sunlight requires physical matter to reveal its radiance, spiritual Light requires a Vessel in order to express itself. Though many spiritual traditions teach renunciation of material existence, Kabbalah takes a very different view. Rather than meditating on a mountaintop above the fray and fracas of our daily existence, we must embrace the chaos of life, using it as an opportunity, as a vessel to reveal Light. Spiritual Light ignites in that momentary flash-point of character transformation.

The Relevance of this Passage

Acknowledging and rooting out the negative, dark side of our nature when confronting chaos and conflict, give us the opportunity to effect character change. Moreover, we must initiate the physical actions necessary to transform ourselves, change our world, and reveal the spiritual Light of the Creator. Accordingly, this portion strengthens us so that we successfully confront and transform life's challenges.

261. "After these things, the word of Hashem came to Avram..." (Bereshet 15:1). Rabbi Yehuda opened the discourse by quoting, "I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me" (Shir Hashirim 7:11). As has been explained, this means that awakening below results in awakening above. There can be no awakening from above until there is awakening from below. In addition, blessings from above rest in a place of substance, not in an empty space.

262. How do we know this? We know this from the wife of Ovadyahu, to whom Elisha said: "Tell me, what have you in the house" (II Melachim 4:2). He asked this because blessings from above do not rest on an empty table, AS WILL BE EXPLAINED ABOUT THE SHEW-BREAD, nor in an empty place, AS IS TOLD OF THE WIFE OF OVADYAHU. "And she said: 'Your handmaid has nothing in the house but a pot of oil'" (Ibid.). AND HE ASKS: What is a pot? AND HE SAYS: There is only enough oil IN THE POT to smear the little finger.

263. ELISHA said: You have relieved me. Because I did not know how the blessings of above would rest in an empty place. But now that you have some oil, this is the place where the blessings shall rest. How do we know this? Because it is written: "It is like the precious ointment..." (Tehilim 133:2). And how does the verse end? With the words, "for there Hashem has commanded the blessing, even life for evermore" (Ibid.). SO in this place, NAMELY IN THE OIL, there are blessings.

263. אָמַר לָהּ, נַחֲמַתְנִי. דְהָא לֹא יָדַעְנָא, הֵיִאךְ יִשְׂרוּן בְרַכָּאן דְלְעִילָא, בְּדוּכְתָא רִיקְנִיָּא, אֲבָל הִשְׁתָּא דְאִית לָךְ שֶׁמֶן, דָּא הוּא אַתְר, לְאַשְׁתַּכְּחָא בֵּיה בְרַכָּאן. מְנַלְן דְכְּתִיב כְּשֶׁמֶן הַטּוֹב וְגו'. וְסִימָיָה מָה כְּתִיב, כִּי שֵׁם צִוָּה ה' אֶת הַבְּרָכָה חַיִּים עַד הָעוֹלָם. וּבְאַתְרָא דָּא שְׂרָאן בְרַכָּאן.

264. You might think that because in the words, "like the dew of Chermom descending upon the mountains of Tzion" (Ibid.), FOLLOWED BY THE WORDS "FOR THERE HASHEM HAS COMMANDED THE BLESSINGS," dew is mentioned rather than oil. DEW IS THEN THE PLACE FOR THE BLESSING AND NOT OIL. BUT, HE REPLIES: It is oil and it is dew, MEANING THAT THEY ARE THE SAME. BECAUSE this dew is what the Holy One, blessed be He, drew out of the supernal oil, which comes out of the right side.

264. וְאִי תִימָא כְּטַל חֶרְמוֹן שְׂוֹרֵד עַל הַרְרֵי צִיּוֹן, וְלֹא כְּתִיב שֶׁמֶן אֲלֵא טַל. אֲלֵא, אִיהוּ שֶׁמֶן, וְאִיהוּ טַל. הֵוּא טַל, אִיהוּ, דְאִטִּיל קְדָשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא מִמְשָׁחָא עֲלָאָה. דְהֵוּא שֶׁמֶן נִפְק לְסַטְרָא דִימִינָא.

265. These are two things-wine and oil-and they flow to two sides. Wine flows to the left and oil to the right. And from the right side all blessings come forth and descend to this world, and from there, the holy kingdom, WHICH REFERS TO THE KINGS OF YISRAEL, is anointed. Because oil is first prepared below, MEANING THAT SHE HAD THE POT OF OIL, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE AWAKENING FROM BELOW, then the oil was available from above, referring to the flowing of the blessings FROM ABOVE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE AWAKENING FROM ABOVE, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "UPON HER SONS, WHO BROUGHT THE VESSELS TO HER; AND SHE Poured OUT" (II MELACHIM 4:5).

266. Come and behold: From the awakening of this oil above, it was poured on David and Solomon, so that their sons would be blessed. How do we know this? It is in the verse, "And the oil stopped (lit. 'stood')" (II Melachim 4:6). THIS IS ANALOGOUS TO WHAT IS written elsewhere, "a root of Yishai, that stands for a banner of the people..." (Yeshayah 11:10). BECAUSE THIS VERSE ALLUDES TO DAVID, SOLOMON, AND THEIR DESCENDANTS, WHO ARE FROM THE ROOT OF YISHAI, THEN HERE AS WELL THE VERSE ALLUDES TO DAVID, SOLOMON, AND THEIR DESCENDANTS.

267. Come and behold: Just as the table of the shew-bread, from where all the blessings and replenishment of the world come, should not remain empty even for a moment, so that the blessings may not be removed from there, one should never recite blessings over an empty table. The blessings from above will not rest upon an empty table.

268. Come and behold, it is then written: "I am my beloved's, and his desire is towards me." First, "I am my beloved's," and then, "his desire is towards me." "I am my beloved's" to prepare a place for him at first BY THE AWAKENING FROM BELOW, and afterwards "his desire is towards me."

269. Another explanation for "I am my beloved's" is based on the understanding that the Shechinah does not reside among the wicked. As soon as a person desires to purify himself and come close to the Holy One, blessed be He, only then does the Shechinah rest upon him. Therefore it is written: "I am my beloved's" first, and then, "his desire is towards me." Because when a person comes to be purified, he is purified.

270. Come and behold: "After these things," after Avraham pursued the kings, and the Holy One, blessed be He, killed them off, Avraham was wondering if perhaps "I have lost all the reward from bringing people to repent and return to the Holy One, blessed be He, and holding on to them to draw them nearer to Him--since now people were killed by me!" Immediately, the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: "Fear not, Avram, I am your shield, your reward shall be exceedingly great." You are receiving a reward for them, BECAUSE THEY WERE KILLED, because none of them shall ever be able to improve their behavior.

266. תָּא חֲזִי, מֵאֲתַעְרוּתָא דְהָאֵי שְׁמֵן דְלַעִילָא, קָאֵי לְאַרְקָא עַל דְּיֹד וּשְׁלֵמָה, לְאַתְבָּרְכָא בְנוֹי מִנִּי, לְדַכְתִּיב, וַיַּעֲמֵד הַשֶּׁמֶן. כְּתִיב הִכָּא וַיַּעֲמֵד. וּכְתִיב הֵתָם שָׂרֵשׁ יִשָּׂי, אֲשֶׁר עִמַּד לְנֵס עַמּוּם.

269. דְּבַר אַחְרָאֵי לְדוֹדֵי. דְּהָא תְנִינָן שְׂכִינְתָא לֹא אֲשְׁתַּבַּחַת עִמְהוֹן דְּחַיִּיבֵינָא, בֵּין דְּאֲתִי בַר נֶשׁ לְאַתְדַּבְּרָא, וְלִמְקַרְבֵּי גַבֵּי דְקִדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, בְּדִין שְׂכִינְתָא שְׂרִיָּא עָלֵיהּ. הֵה"ד אֲנִי לְדוֹדֵי בְקִדְמִיתָא, וְעָלֵי תְשׁוּקָתוֹ לְבַתֵּר. אֲתִי בַר נֶשׁ לְאַתְדַּבְּרָא, מְדַבְּאִין לִיָּה.

27. "Hashem came to Avram in a vision"

The Zohar presents four complex ideas. The first concerns the mysteries of circumcision. Before we can begin to understand any ritual performed in our physical world, we must acquire some understanding of the structure of the Upper Worlds which are the foundation of our physical existence. The Zohar refers to ten dimensions that compose all creation. These dimensions are known as the Ten Sfirot, or Ten Emanations. The Sfirah of Yesod is a reservoir to which all the upper Sfirot pour their various energies. Yesod gathers all these elements, blends them, and transfers this great Light to the Sfirah of Malchut, which is our physical universe. Residing just above Malchut in the structure of the Ten Sfirot, Yesod acts as the portal through which the awesome forces of Light enter our realm. As the building blocks of all creation, the Ten Sfirot reflect themselves in our world. Thus, we have ten fingers, ten toes, and our numerical system functions on base ten. The Sfirah of Yesod correlates to the sexual organ, in which the greatest expression of Light manifests. This great Light is responsible for the miracle of procreation and the pleasure derived from it. The negative forces in our midst attach themselves to any gateway through which the greatest Light can shine. For this reason, these negative entities are found in the upper world realm of Yesod; in our physical realm, negative forces manifest in the human sexual organ. The purpose of the covenant of circumcision is to remove this negative influence from our lives as well as from the worlds above. Circumcision, performed properly with Kabbalistic mediation, removes all negativity from both the child and the world. The act of circumcision brings enormous spiritual benefits to the child, including boosting his immune system. Though small in size, the foreskin contains powerful negative forces, as if it were a nuclear warhead at the tip of a ballistic missile.

The Relevance of this Passage

These specific Aramaic texts emanate spiritual influences that help cleanse and purify the realm of Yesod within us, including any negative sexual thoughts, desires or actions. It is these blockages that can prevent us from receiving our full portion of the Light.

271. "The word of Hashem came to Avram in a vision, saying..." HE ASKS: What is meant by a vision? AND HE ANSWERS: This is the mirror, which is the grade in which all images appear. Rabbi Shimon said: Come and behold, before Avraham was circumcised, only one grade spoke to him. And which one was that? It was the 'vision,' NAMELY THE NUKVA. As it is written: "...seeing the vision of Shadai" (Bemidbar 24:16).

271. הָיָה דְבַר ה' אֶל אַבְרָם בַּמַּחְזָה לֵאמֹר. מֵאֵי בַמַּחְזָה. אֵלָּא, בַּהֲהוּא חֵיזוּ, דְרַגָּא רַבָּל דְיוֹקֵנִין אֲתַחְזִיין בֵּיה. אֲמַר רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן תָּא חֲזִי, עַד לָא אֲתַגְזֹר אַבְרָהָם, הוּא חַד דְרַגָּא מְלִיל עֲמִיָּה, וּמֵאֵן אִיהוּ, דָּא מַחְזָה, דְכִתִּיב מַחְזָה שְׂדֵי יַחֲזָה.

272. After Avraham was circumcised, all the grades rested upon that grade, WHICH IS CALLED THE VISION, and then He spoke to him. Hence, it is written: "And I appeared to Avraham," WHO IS THE SECRET OF CHESED, "to Yitzchak," WHO IS THE SECRET OF GVURAH, "and to Ya'akov," WHO IS THE SECRET OF TIFERET, "by the name of El Shadai" (Shemot 6:3), WHICH IS THE SECRET OF YESOD AND MALCHUT. ALL THE GRADES, FROM CHESED DOWNWARD, ILLUMINATE IN THE NUKVA. So, before he was circumcised, these grades did not yet speak to him, ONLY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE "VISION OF SHADAI" ALONE!

272. בֵּינָן דְאַתְגְזֹר, הוּוּ כְלָהוּ דְרַגִּין שְׂרָאן עַל הָאֵי דְרַגָּא, וּכְדִין מְלִיל עֲמִיָּה, הַה"ד, וְאֵרָא אֶל אַבְרָהָם אֶל יִצְחָק וְאֶל יַעֲקֹב בְּאֵל שְׂדֵי, וְעַד לָא אֲתַגְזֹר, לָא הוּוּ אֵינֻן דְרַגִּין שְׂרָאן עֲלוּי לְמַלְלָא.

273. You might say that it is already written: "And Hashem appeared to Avram," WHICH IS THE LEVEL OF NEFESH, AND "and Avram journeyed, going on still toward the south," WHICH IS RUACH; and "and there he built an altar," WHICH IS NESHAMAH. If here are the supernal grades THAT HE ATTAINED, how can we say that before he was circumcised, the supernal grades did not rest upon that certain grade, in order to speak to him?

274. AND HE REPLIES, Come and behold: In the beginning; BEFORE HE WAS CIRCUMCISED, the Holy One, blessed be He, gave wisdom to Avraham, NAMELY THE AFOREMENTIONED SUPERNAL GRADES, so that he would know wisdom and would cleave to THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. And Avraham did achieve the secret of Faith, but he could not speak to Him, only to the lower grade alone, NAMELY THE NUKVA AS SEEN "THROUGH THE VISION OF SHADAI." But after he was circumcised, then all the supernal grades rested upon this lower grade, in order to speak with him. And then Avraham ascended through all the grades, as has been explained.

274. תָּא חֲזִי, בְקַדְמִיתָא יְהִיב קַדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא חֲכָמָה לְאַבְרָהָם, לְמַנְדַּע חֲכָמָה לְאַתְדַּבְקָא בֵּיה, וַיִּדַּע רִזָּא דְמַהֲיִמְנוּתָא, אֲבָל לְמַלְלָא עֲמִיָּה, לָא הוּוּ, אֵלָּא הָאֵי דְרַגָּא תַתָּא בְלַחֲדוּדִין. בֵּינָן דְאַתְגְזֹר, כְּלָהוּ דְרַגִּין עֲלָאִין הוּוּ שְׂרָאן עַל הָאֵי דְרַגָּא תַתָּא, בְּגִין לְמַלְלָא עֲמִיָּה, וּכְדִין אֲסַתְלַק אַבְרָהָם בְּכֻלָּא. כְּמָה דְאַתְמַר.

275. Come and behold: As long as a man is not circumcised, he does not hold on to the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He. As soon as he is circumcised, he enters His Name and is attached to it. And if you say that Avraham was nevertheless attached to Him even before he was circumcised, the response is that he was indeed attached to Him, but not properly. Because of the sublime love that the Holy One, blessed be He, felt toward Avraham, He brought him closer to Himself, BUT IN SPITE OF ALL THIS, IT WAS NOT AS IT SHOULD PROPERLY BE.

276. After, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, commanded Avraham to circumcise himself, and presented him with the covenant, WHICH IS YESOD, which is the link to all the supernal grades. The covenant is the bond that links all the grades together, to be included within one another. The covenant is the bond that everything is bound to. And because of this, before Avraham was circumcised, He spoke with him only through the "vision," as we have stated. THE UPPER GRADES WERE MISSING FROM IT, BECAUSE THE COVENANT, WHICH LINKS ALL THE GRADES TOGETHER, WAS MISSING.

277. Come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He created it based on the covenant. It is written: "In the beginning (Heb. Beresheet) Elohim created (Heb. bara)" (Beresheet 1:1), WHERE SHEET (ARAM. SIX) refers to the covenant, because by relying upon the covenant, the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world. And it is also written: "If My covenant be not day and night, it were as if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth" (Yirmeyah 33:25). This is a unifying covenant, which ensures that day and night, WHICH ARE ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, may not be separated.

278. Rabbi Elazar said: "When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, it was on the condition that if Yisrael will come forth and receive Torah, all would be well. If Yisrael will not do so, then the world would be returned to chaos. So the world was not firmly established until Yisrael stood at Mount Sinai and received Torah. The second idea presented by the Zohar concerns the concept of soul mates. Our success in finding our true soul mate depends on the levels we reach in our spiritual work. If we attain the necessary level of growth, we may merit the appearance of our soul mate in our life.

The Relevance of this Passage

According to Kabbalah, soul mates are two halves of one soul. If two people are soul mates living on opposite ends of the world, circumstances will eventually arise that will lead them across vast continents and oceans in order that they may encounter one another and reunite. The Aramaic words expressing this spiritual truth, assists us towards that end.

279. From that day onward, the Holy One, blessed be He, has been creating worlds. And what are these worlds? They are the matings of human beings. Because ever since that day, the Holy One blessed be He, has been making marriages, by saying: "The daughter of so to so for so and so." These are the worlds He creates, BECAUSE EVERY UNION OF A COUPLE IS CONSIDERED TO BE A WORLD. Sitrei Torah (Concealed Torah)

280. "After these things." These are the words of Torah, just as "These words Hashem spoke to all your assembly" (Devarim 5:19) are the words of Torah. THE MEANING OF THE VERSE IS THAT "After" a person has been occupied in this world with "these things (lit. 'words')," then the Holy One, blessed be He, prepares good tidings for the soul and welcomes it. As it is written: "Fear not, Avram, I am your shield"; I shall shield you from all the evil aspects in Gehenom."

281. "And your reward shall be exceedingly great," because whoever studies Torah in this world shall merit and inherit a place in the world to come. As it is written: "That I may cause those that love Me to inherit substance" (Mishlei 8:21). "What is substance?" Substance is "the world to come," and "I will fill their treasures" in this world by riches and all goodness of the world. He who goes to the right shall merit a place in the world to come, and he who goes to the left shall merit the riches of this world.

The third idea explicated upon by the Zohar concerns the power associated with the study of Torah. Rabbi Aba helps his student, Rabbi Yosi, transform his Torah study from a selfish, self-seeking pursuit, to a process of learning that expresses caring and compassion for the rest of the world.

The benefits of learning Torah are not limited to the traditional concept of acquiring knowledge. Torah study is the sum and substance of spiritual energy itself, and therefore, it reveals enormous spiritual Light both individually and collectively. Our motivation for study should not be selfish desire for knowledge and scholarship. Our purpose should be to reveal and impart Light to others.

The Relevance of this Passage

It is tempting for man to wear the garment of pride as he begins to acquire the knowledge and the secrets of the universe. This discourse helps us accomplish our learning and perform our spiritual work with an intention of sharing combined with deep humility.

282. After Rabbi Aba returned from BABYLON, he declared that whoever desires to be rich and have a long life in the world to come should study Torah, and the whole world gathered around him TO STUDY TORAH. There was a bachelor in his neighborhood. One day he said to Rabbi Aba, "Rabbi, I wish to learn Torah so that I may be wealthy." Rabbi Aba responded, "Why of course, YOU SHALL MERIT MUCH WEALTH BY STUDYING TORAH." He asked, "What is your name?" The bachelor responded, "Yosi." Rabbi Aba told his pupils to call the bachelor "Yosi, a man of great wealth and glory." And Yosi delved to the study of Torah.

283. After a while, as the days passed, Yosi stood before Rabbi Aba and asked, "Rabbi, where is the wealth?" RABBI ABA responded, "I can see that he is not learning for the sake of heaven!" And then he went to his room TO CONSIDER WHAT TO DO WITH YOSI. He then heard a voice that said: Do not punish him, because he shall become a great man! He returned to him and said: Sit down, my son, sit down. And I shall give you wealth.

284. In the meantime, a man appeared with a vessel made of pure gold, He showed it to everyone, and its sparkle lit up the house. He said: Rabbi, I wish to merit Torah. Because I MYSELF have not merited THE UNDERSTANDING OF THE TORAH, I am searching for someone who can learn Torah for my sake. I inherited great wealth from my father, who used to set upon his table thirteen of these cups MADE OF PURE GOLD. I wish to achieve the merit of studying Torah, and I shall give my wealth to achieve it.

285. He said to the bachelor: Study Torah, and this man shall give you wealth! The man gave him the cup of gold. In relation to him, Rabbi ABA said out loud the verse, "Gold and crystal cannot equal it. And the exchange of it shall not be for vessels of fine gold" (Iyov 28:17). The bachelor then sat down and studied Torah, while the other man gave him wealth.

286. As days passed, the desire for the Torah entered his bowels. One day he sat down and cried. His Rabbi found him weeping and said to him, "Why are you weeping?" And he replied, "What am I leaving behind for this WEALTH? The life in the world to come! I do not want to learn anymore FOR THE SAKE OF THIS MAN. But rather merit Torah for myself." RABBI ABA said: So now I understand that he is doing it for the sake of heaven.

287. He called for that man and said to him, "Take your wealth back and share it with the poor and the orphans. I shall give you a bigger portion in the Torah, from all that we are learning!" Rabbi Yosi returned the cup of gold to him, and to this very day, the name "the son of gold (Heb. ben pazi)" has not been taken away from him or from his children. He became THE FAMOUS Rabbi, Yosi ben Pazi. And he and his sons merited a lot of Torah, because there is no greater reward in the world than to study Torah. AND A RECOMPENSE FOR IT IS NOT NECESSARY. AS IT IS WRITTEN: "GOLD AND CRYSTAL CANNOT EQUAL IT; AND THE EXCHANGE OF IT SHALL NOT BE FOR VESSELS OF FINE GOLD."

The fourth concept examined by the Zohar concerns the importance and power of the Zohar's Aramaic language. Aramaic is above any invisible negative influences, and this language provides a direct connection to the Creator. Accordingly, when the Creator reveals important wisdom that requires protection from potentially harmful angelic forces, the wisdom is expressed in Aramaic.

Kabbalistically, the Hebrew and Aramaic languages are not merely communication tools for mankind. This instrument of language has many other higher functions, including the direct expression of metaphysical forces in our material world.

The Relevance of this Passage

We live in a world of concealment, where metaphysical forces and spiritual influences remain obscured from the five senses. Inasmuch as mankind has been conditioned to accept only that which the eyes can see, raising our consciousness becomes a considerable and difficult task. The discussion pertaining to Aramaic reinforces our own conviction and connection to the language, elevating our consciousness so that the energy pouring out from the Aramaic letters fills our soul.

288. "After these things the word of Hashem came to Avram in a vision, saying, 'Fear not, Avram...'" Wherever the words "in a vision" appear in the Torah, it is the one that appeared to the Patriarchs. And what is it? It is Shadai, as it is written: "And I appeared to Avraham, to Yitzchak, and to Ya'akov by the name of El Shadai" (Shmot 6:3), and as you may read, "which saw the vision of Shadai" (Bemidbar 24:4). And this is the vision through which all supernal appearances are seen, just as a mirror OF GLASS in which all images are reflected. And vision (Heb. mar'eh) and the appearance (Heb. machazeh) are the same-one is in Aramaic and the other is in the holy tongue.

289. Rabbi Yosi said: There are many ARAMAIC WORDS in the Torah. Therefore, Onkelos had permission to translate the Torah to the same language that the Holy One, blessed be He, revealed in the Torah. But this language is not understood by the angels above, and they did not recognize it when THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, spoke to Avraham.

290. AND HE ASKS: What is the reason, THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED HE, SPOKE WITH AVRAHAM IN A LANGUAGE THAT WAS NOT RECOGNIZABLE BY THE ANGELS? AND HE REPLIES: Because Avraham was not circumcised; his foreskin still covered his flesh. Therefore THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SPOKE in the language of the translation, which is incomprehensible TO THE ANGELS. The same with Bilaam, as it is written: "who sees (Heb. yechezeh) the vision of Shadai." The word 'YECHZEZEH' is not comprehensible to the ministering angels. So that they have no excuse to complain that the Holy One, blessed be He, is talking with an uncircumcised and impure man. Because the holy angels have no use for the Aramaic translation, THEY WERE UNAWARE THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WAS SPEAKING WITH BILAAM!"

291. AND HE ASKS: You say that THE ANGELS do not understand THE LANGUAGE OF THE TRANSLATION, but Gavriel taught Yosef seventy languages and Aramaic was one of them. AND HE REPLIES: They do know the language, but have no use for it. WHICH MEANS THAT they do not care about it and do not pay attention to it, because they dislike this language more than any other language.

292. You may ask, "If it is despised by the angels above, why did Onkelos translate the Torah to that language, and Yonatan ben Uziel the Scriptures?" AND HE REPLIES: It was repulsive only to the angels. And so it should be, so that the angels of above should not envy Yisrael WHEN THEY SAY THE PRAYERS CALLED KEDUSHA DESIDRA. BUT TO US, IT IS NOT DESPICABLE. And this is why they translated Torah and the Scriptures TO THIS LANGUAGE. And it is not despised, because the Holy One, blessed be He, has written it in many places in the Torah USING THIS LANGUAGE.

293. Because this language is incomprehensible to the holy angels above, the Holy One, blessed be He, revealed Himself to Avraham in this concealed manner, so that the holy angels would not look upon him and have an excuse to accuse the Holy One, blessed be He, for appearing before an uncircumcised man.

294. HE ASKS: When did He openly reveal Himself to him, in front of the angels of above? AND HE RESPONDS: At the time when He gave him the sign of the Holy covenant. As it is written: "And Elohim talked with him saying..." (Beresheet 17:3). Elohim is a holy name. It is not written: "in a vision," BUT "ELOHIM," WHICH IS a revealed name.

295. AND HE ASKS: What is 'saying'?" AND HE REPLIES: "saying" MEANS to announce and declare in all languages, WHICH THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SPOKE WITH AVRAHAM, so that he was no longer concealed FROM THE ANGELS. He did not speak in any other language-REFERRING TO ARAMAIC-but in a language that all use, so that they were able to talk to each other, and no one would be able to blame or have any pretext. Therefore, "and Elohim talked with him, saying," 'Elohim' and not 'a vision,' as He has brought him to the holy covenant, close to Him.

295. לֵאמֹר. מֵאֵי לֵאמֹר, לֵאמֹר וּלְאַכְרֹזָא בְכָל לְשׁוֹן, דְּלֵא תְהֵא בְּאַתְבָּסְיָא, לְאוּ בְּלִישְׁנָא אַחְרָא, אֲלֵא בְּלִישְׁנָא דְכָלֵא מְשַׁתְּעִינן בְּהָ, דִּיכְלִי לְמִימְרֵי דָא לְדָא, וְלֵא יְכְלִי לְקַטְרְגָא וּלְמִימְרֵי פְטָרָא, וְעַל דָּא וַיְדַבֵּר אֲתוּ אֱלֹקִים לֵאמֹר. אֱלֹקִים, וְלֵא מַחְזָה. בְּגִין דְּהוּהּ מְעִיל לִיָּה בְּבְרִית קְיֻמָּא קְדִישָׁא, וְקָרִיב לִיָּה לְגַבְיָהּ.

296. Rabbi Yehuda said: According to this, the letter Hei, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH, was not given to him, until he was circumcised! Why? Because She is called the actual covenant. Therefore because he entered the covenant, he was given the letter Hei IN HIS NAME. As it is written: "As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. Neither shall your name any more be called Avram..." (Beresheet 17: 4-5).

296. ר' יְהוּדָה אָמַר, בְּגִין כְּרָאתָ ה' לֵא אֲתִיבָהּ לִיָּה עַד דְּאַתְגְּזֹר. מ"ט. דְּאִיְהִי מִמֶּשׁ בְּרִית אֲקָרִי. וְעַל דְּאֲבִיוֹן דְּעָאֵל בְּבְרִית, כְּדִין אֲתִיבָהּ לִיָּה אֲתָהּ ה"א. דְּכְתִיב, אֲנִי הֵנָּה בְּרִיתִי אֲתָךְ וְהָיִיתָ לְאָב הַמּוֹן גּוֹיִם וְלֵא יִקְרָא עוֹד שְׁמֶךָ אֲבָרָם וְגו'.

28. Rabbi Chiya went to visit Rabbi Elazar

The Zohar offers a story about the travels of Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Chagai to visit Rabbi Elazar, the son of Kabbalist Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, author of the Zohar. Kabbalistically, the concept of travelling really concerns a spiritual journey of the mind and soul between two sages. As the two mystics embark on their excursion, their discussion of various spiritual matters is intended to attract particular levels of energy into their lives, and ultimately, to raise them to the very spiritual levels they are discussing.

Rabbi Chiya is concerned that his colleague Rabbi Chagai may not be worthy to enter this higher realm, which is symbolized by the mention of Rabbi Elazar. As they begin to approach Rabbi Elazar, who represents the next dimension, Rabbi Chiya suddenly realizes that Rabbi Chagai is actually more worthy than himself. When the two sages reach Rabbi Elazar's home, he does not immediately let them in. He wants to appraise their level of spiritual consciousness. The sages, therefore, wait and sit in silence. After a while, Rabbi Elazar gets up and enters his room. While in his quarters, he hears a voice telling him that the sages are ready and that he should reveal to them all the mysteries and spiritual Light they seek. A study session ensues, and suddenly a great fire encircles Rabbi Elazar. The sages then leave, realizing they are not yet ready to receive the full revelation of spiritual energy that occupies the next realm.

The Relevance of this Passage

Each of us must prepare our own internal vessel in order to continue our growth and spiritual work. The words of this story assist in expanding our vessel and furthering our preparation.

297. "After these things...": On his way to visit Rabbi Elazar, Rabbi Chiya met Rabbi Chagai. He said to him: This route, which is set before you, sir, where does it lead to? He answered: IT LEADS to my visiting Rabbi Elazar. He said to him: I shall go along with you. He said: If you will be able to understand the wisdom and the reason behind what you will hear, then come along. But if not, then turn back! He said to him, sir, do not worry about this, because I have heard many secrets of Torah, and I was able to understand them.

298. Rabbi Chagai opened the discussion, saying: This is the meaning of 'My offering, the provision of my sacrifices made by fire...' (Bemidbar 28:2). "My offering" refers to an offering of flesh, which is given for atonement; blood OF THE SACRIFICE for the blood OF MAN; flesh OF THE SACRIFICE for the flesh OF MAN. All sacrifices are offered only for the flesh, THAT IS, to atone for the flesh.

299. And I heard thus: if a man sinned, what is the sin of the animal, that the Holy One, blessed be He, said: "If any man of you bring an offering to Hashem, of the cattle..." (Vayikra 1:2)? AND HE REPLIES: The Holy One, blessed be He, formed the spirit of men and the spirit of animals, and then separated them from each other. Therefore, "the spirit of man goes upwards, and the spirit of the beast goes downwards," (Kohelet 3:21) so they are definitely separated from each other!

300. Before Adam sinned, it is written: "And Elohim said: Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed..." (Beresheet 1:29) and "to you it shall be for food" and no more THAN THIS. SO HE WAS NOT PERMITTED TO EAT ANIMALS. But since he had sinned and the Evil Inclination was absorbed to his body and to all of his offspring, He passed His judgment over them; IN OTHER WORDS, HE BROUGHT THE GREAT FLOOD UPON THEM.

301. Later, Noach came and saw that the body is built by the Evil Inclination, so he offered a sacrifice as Adam did. And it is written: "And Hashem smelled a sweet savor...for the impulse of man's heart is evil from his youth." (Beresheet 8:21). The Holy One, blessed be He, said: "From here onward, because the body is already absorbed by that Evil Inclination, let the body enjoy itself as much as it wants and eat meat." HE SAID: "even as the green herb have I given you all" (Beresheet 9:3).

302. When man eats meat, the flesh of man receives pleasure from that flesh, and they mix together-THE FLESH OF MAN COMBINES WITH THE FLESH OF THE ANIMAL. And the body grows and is built by it. But as a result of the pleasure, WHICH MAN RECEIVED FROM EATING MEAT, his body commits many sins. The Holy One, blessed be He, said: "The meat," REFERRING TO THE MEAT OF THE OFFERING, "shall be atonement for the body". Because one had eaten flesh, and had grown flesh through it IN THE BODY, and by it one had sinned, therefore the meat OF THE OFFERING shall be atonement for the body. So the meat-NAMELY THE FLESH OF THE BODY-that eats meat forms the blood in the body. And because of this, the purpose of the blood that remains outside of the meat OF THE OFFERING is to atone for the blood OF MAN, which was formed by that same meat OF THE ANIMAL. As it is written: "for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul" (Vayikra 17:11).

303. It is written: "My offering" and "your offering," as it is written: "shall you bring your offering" (Vayikra 1:2). What is the difference between these two phrases? AND HE REPLIES: "My offering" is like peace-offerings that are brought for peace. "Your offering" is like sin or guilt offerings brought to ATONE for sin or guilt. Therefore, "My offering" is meat, "the provision" is bread and wine, "savor" is incense. "Sweet" (Heb. nichoach) is satisfaction (Heb. nachat) that the priest experiences when meditating on the Holy Name, WHICH HE UTTERS OUT LOUD DURING THE RITUAL OF THE SACRIFICE. And the Levites HAVE THE SAME EXPERIENCE when meditating during the songs and praises, WHICH THEY RECITE DURING THE SACRIFICE.

304. Of the verse, "shall you observe to offer to me in their (lit. 'its') due season," HE ASKS: What is meant by "due season?" If you say THAT THE MEANING IS TO OFFER A SACRIFICE every day-morning and evening-why then is it called "its due season?" AND HE REPLIES: "its due season" APPLIES to the desire that rules at that certain moment-NAMELY, THE MOMENT OF THE SACRIFICE. This is the desire that prevails above in that certain grade, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. And for this reason, it is written: 'its due season.'

305. When an offering is sacrificed, all the worlds receive a part of it, and the Klipot are scattered in all directions. The union OF THE MALE AND FEMALE grows closer and is completed, and the candles, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF THE UPPER GRADES, shine. And there is one desire and full companionship in all the worlds. And the Holy One, blessed be He, is in a state of the secret of unity as should properly be. Rabbi Chiya came forward, kissed him, and said: You are more worthy than I to go and see him, REFERRING TO RABBI ELAZAR.

306. They went along. When they reached RABBI ELAZAR, he saw them sitting beside the gate. He said to his attendant, Go and ask them what is the significance OF EACH of the three legs of this throne? They told him: Go and tell our master that it is not in vain that King David, who is the fourth LEG OF THE THRONE, said, "The stone which the builders rejected" (Tehilim 118:22). AND WITH THIS VERSE, THEY GAVE HIM A HINT ABOUT THE THREE COLUMNS THAT PRECEDE DAVID, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. He said to him, TO HIS ATTENDANT: Go and tell them, where David was 'rejected' BY THE BUILDERS, that he said, "The stone which the builders rejected?"

307. Rabbi Chiya turned to Rabbi Chagai and said: Have you heard anything about this? He said: I have heard about the verse that reads "my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards..." (Shir Hashirim 1:6), which King Solomon used to say. It speaks of King David when he was rejected by his brothers.

308. And furthermore, we have heard: What was the reason that the Holy One, blessed be He, gave the kingdom to Yehuda and not to any of the other brothers? AND HE REPLIES: Because the letters of His Holy name are engraved in him. BECAUSE YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI APPEAR IN THE NAME OF YEHUDA (YUD-HEI-VAV-DALET-HEI). So the Holy One, blessed be He, glorified his name. And this is why he inherited the kingdom. And I have also heard that the name Yehuda definitely contains the letters of His HOLY Name, but there is no letter Dalet IN YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. AND HE ASKS: Why? AND HE REPLIES: This LETTER DALET OF YEHUDA represents King David, who is attached to His Name more than all other people of the world. As it is written: "and seek Hashem their Elohim, and David their king" (Hoshea 3:5). So King David is actually attached to His HOLY Name. Furthermore, he is the knot of the Tfilin, AS KING DAVID IS THE SECRET OF THE KNOT OF THE TFILIN OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. AND THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. So certainly the letter Dalet IN YEHUDA is King David. And because of this David is attached to His HOLY Name. BECAUSE THE NAME YEHUDA INCLUDES YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH ALLUDE TO ZEIR ANPIN, AND THE LETTER DALET, WHICH ALLUDES TO KING DAVID, WHO IS THE SECRET OF NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN.

309. They entered. Once they were inside, they sat in front of him. Rabbi Elazar was silent, so they remained silent as well. Rabbi Elazar entered his room, he heard a certain voice there that said: 'Go and tell them what they want, because they are righteous men!' He then returned to them and said: If one of you has heard something, let him say it to me! They responded: We are waiting to shine by the purity of the upper candle, and let us grasp knowledge.

310. He opened the discussion with the verse: "But Hashem is in His holy chamber, let all the earth keep silence before Him" (Chavakuk 2:20). When the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO IS THE SECRET OF BINAH, desired to create the world, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN AND HIS NUKVA, THAT ARE CALLED THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH, He looked to the thought, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, the secret of the Torah, and took down records. THIS MEANS THAT HE RECORDED, AND DREW THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH TO MALE AND FEMALE, but the world was not able to exist. Then He created repentance, which is the sublime and inner chamber, and a guarded secret. And there, IN THE AFOREMENTIONED CHAMBER, the letters, WHICH ARE MALE AND FEMALE, are engraved, WHICH MEANS THAT THEY WERE PREPARED AND MADE WORTHY OF RECEIVING MOCHIN FROM THERE.

311. As THE CHAMBER was created, He looked to this chamber and drew figures, NAMELY THE MOCHIN that exists in the entire world. This is why it is written: "let all the earth keep silence before Him." He desired to create the heavens, WHICH ARE ZEIR ANPIN. What did He do? He looked upon the First Light, THE FIRST CHAMBER, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF ABA AND IMA, covered Himself with it, and created the heavens. As it is written: "Who covers himself with light as with a garment," and then, "Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain" (Tehilim 104:2).

312. He studied how to create the lower world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN THAT NEEDS THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS NOT RECEIVED FROM THE FIRST CHAMBER. So He created another chamber and entered to it. And from inside He looked out and drew in front of Himself all the worlds that are below; NAMELY ALL THE QUANTITY OF MOCHIN THAT THEY REQUIRE and created them. Therefore it is written: "But Hashem is in His holy chamber, let all the earth keep silence (Heb. has) before Him." Has (Hei-Samech) is recorded "before him," WHICH MEANS THAT THE NUMERICAL VALUE OF HEI-SAMECH IS DRAWN BEFORE HIM, WHICH IS THE NUMBER OF all the "points," WHICH ARE THE SFIROT that exist in every world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. And they are sixty-five points, a number equivalent to the numerical value of Hei-Samech. Sixty are THE SIX SFIROT-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, EACH OF WHICH INCLUDES TEN, and five are HALF OF MALCHUT; SHE LACKS THE LAST FIVE-THOSE FROM THE CHEST DOWNWARD. He recorded before Him these sixty-five "POINTS" OF THE NUKVA IN ORDER TO BESTOW ON HER HIS ABUNDANCE when He created the world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. For this reason, the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH, is destined only to those who know His ways and go along them -in a true manner, as is proper!

313. While he was talking with them, a fire encircled him, and they remained sitting outside. They heard a voice call out, 'O you holy man, "The king has brought me to his chambers"' (Shir Hashirim 1:4)-to all those chambers whose keys have been given to the favored and holy lad, NAMELY MATATRON, WHO IS CALLED "LAD." And all are ready for you and for those who achieve merit through you. And in your life, holy man, all the hosts of the heavens, "we will be glad and rejoice in you!" (Ibid). THIS WAS THE VOICE OF THE SHECHINAH.

314. When these two saw this, they trembled and were overtaken by a great fear. They said: We are not worthy of this. Let us get out of here and go on our way! They sat there that entire day but were unable to see him. Then they said: The Holy One, blessed be He, does not wish us to stay here. They left that place and went away.

29. "Bless Hashem, you angels of His"

After the awesome experience with Rabbi Elazar, Rabbi Chiya speaks about the giving of the Torah, and how, after the moment of revelation, power over the physical world was placed in the hands of mankind. Prior to the Revelation, the vast network of angels was in control of our physical realm. The Relevance of this Passage

Our individual deeds and behavior have an accumulated effect on the world as well as on our personal life. The universal responsibility for our actions is stirred within us by this portion.

315. As they were walking along, Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion, saying, "Bless Hashem, you angels of His, you mighty ones who perform His bidding..." (Tehilim 103:20). Happy are Yisrael of all the peoples of the world, because the Holy One, blessed be He, chose them from among all the other nations, and He made them His part and portion. This is why He gave them the Holy Torah, since they shared one desire on Mount Sinai. And their "doing" preceded their "hearing," AS THEY SAID, "WILL WE DO" AND THEN THEY SAID, "AND OBEY (LIT. 'HEAR')" (SHEMOT 24:7).

316. Because their "doing" preceded their "hearing," the Holy One, blessed be He, called upon His retinue, THE ANGELS; and said to them: 'Until now, you alone have stood before Me. But from now on, My children on earth are your companions in everything. You have no permission to sanctify My Name until Yisrael on earth joins you. And all of you together shall become colleagues to sanctify My Name.' Because they put "doing" before "hearing," just as the angels do in the heavens above, as it is written: "Bless Hashem, you angels of His, you mighty ones who perform His bidding, hearkening to the voice of His word." "Who perform his bidding" is first; only then is, "hearkening."

317. Another explanation of the verse "Bless Hashem, you angels of His" is that these are the righteous people on earth, who are important to the Holy One, blessed be He, as the supernal angels in heaven. They are "mighty ones," as they overcome their inclination like a mighty man who overcomes all his enemies, "hearkening to the voice of His word." This means that they have the merit of hearing a voice from heaven every day and every time they need to!

318. "Now, who is able to be among them-among all those holy and sublime beings? Happy are those who are able to stand before them; Happy are those who are able to save themselves from them. The Holy One, blessed be He, supervises them every day; how can we stand before them?" ALL THIS WAS SAID BY RABBI CHIYA IN PRAISE OF RABBI ELAZAR, WITH WHOM THEY COULD NOT STAY. Therefore it is written: "Blessed is the man whom You choose, and cause to approach to You, that he may dwell in your courts" (Tehilim 65:5), and also: "Blessed is the man whose strength is in you" (Tehilim. 84:6).

30. "And Avram said, Adonai Hashem Elohim, what will You give me?"

Avraham cries out to God, lamenting his inability to have children. The Creator explains that all people have certain judgments and decrees hanging over them. These decrees and judgments fall under the influence of the stars and planets. However, God tells Avraham that it is up to him to rise above planetary influences by transforming his very nature. When man changes his internal nature, nature mirrors that action and judgments can be removed. Herein lies the secret behind the name change of Avraham. While he is under the influence of the stars, he is called, Avram ??????. When he undergoes spiritual transformation, the Hebrew letter Hei ? is added to his name changing it from Avram to Avraham ?????.

The Relevance of this Passage

The profound Kabbalistic concept of altering a person's name alphabetically, can be compared to the science of genetic engineering, in which the genetic code of a person is altered in order to reduce predisposition to various diseases and ailments. Interestingly, all DNA is structured and consequently, classified alphabetically. The mysteries contained within this passage give us the power to alter our own spiritual DNA, thereby changing our destiny. By transforming the negative aspects of our nature, we rise above cosmic influences and remove judgments that may be hanging over us.

319. Come and behold: "I am your shield." "I" is the first grade, to which he cleaved at the beginning." "And Avram said, Adonai Elohim, what will You give me?" (Beresheet 16:2). YUD HEI VAV HEI IS SPELLED WITH THE VOWELS OF ELOHIM. Adonai is spelled Aleph-Dalet-Nun-Yud, FULLY SPELLED AS Aleph-Lamed-final Pe, Dalet-Lamed-Tav, Nun-Vav-Nun, Yud-Vav-Dalet, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA; AND YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI IS WRITTEN WITH THE SAME VOWELS AS Elohim, FULLY SPELLED Yud-Vav-Dalet, Hei-Yud, Vav-Aleph-Vav, Hei-Yud, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF BINAH. SO HE FOUND IT DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND WHY BOTH THESE NAMES ARE MENTIONED IN THE SAME VERSE. AND IN REFERENCE TO THIS HE SAYS: The secret is to unify both the lower and upper worlds. ADONAI IS THE LOWER WORLD, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, WHILE YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS WRITTEN WITH THE SAME VOWELS AS ELOHIM, IS THE UPPER WORLD, WHICH IS BINAH. AND IN THIS VERSE BOTH ARE COMBINED TO ONE.

319. תָּא חַזִּי, אֲנָכִי מִגֵּן לְךָ. אֲנָכִי, דָּא הוּא דְרַגְא קְדָמָא, דְּאַתְאַחִיד בֵּיהּ בְּקַדְמִיתָא. וַיֹּאמֶר אֲבָרָם, אֲדֹנָי ה' מַה תִּתֵּן לִי. אֲדֹנָי: אֵלֶּךָ דְּלֵת נֹון יוֹד. אֵלֶּקִים יוֹד הָא וַיּוֹ הָא. אֵלָא רְזָא דְמַלְהָ, חֲבוּרָא דְתֵרִין עֲלָמִין בְּחָדָא, עֲלָמָא תְתָא, וְעֲלָמָא עֲלָאָה.

320. "What will You give me, seeing I go childless" MEANS I have no child. As we have learned, he who has no child in this world is called childless, as it is written: "they shall be childless" (Vayikra 20:21). AND HE ASKS: But why then did Avraham say, 'what will You give me?' It is as if he had no faith in the Holy One, blessed be He!

321. The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, "I am your shield" in this world, "your reward will be very great" in the world to come. Immediately then, Avraham was infused with the secret of the Wisdom. He said: "What will You give me?" Because he knew that if a person has not fathered a son, he does not receive a reward when he reaches the world to come. Therefore he said: "What will You give me, seeing I go childless," as you shall not give me what I am not worthy of. And from this, WE LEARN that a person who is not worthy of having children in this world shall not be worthy in the world to come to be in the presence OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE!

322. And Avraham saw through astrology that he will not have a child. What is written: "And He brought him outside" (Bereshheet 15:5). The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, "Do not look to this-THE WISDOM OF THE STARS-but rather to the secret of My Name, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. "You shall father a son!" This is why it is written: "So (Heb. koh) shall your seed be" (Ibid.). KOH is the secret of the Holy Name, through which a son was born to him; HIS SON DID not COME from the Other Side, WHICH IS OF THE STARS AND CONSTELLATIONS.

323. Koh is the gate through which prayers are accepted, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. There the blessing abides; there a person shall fulfill his request! Koh is related to the side of Gvurah, WHICH IS AN ALLUSION TO THE NUKVA, WHICH IS BUILT FROM THE LEFT, WHICH IS GVURAH, because Yitzchak was born from the side of Gvurah. And the side of Gvurah is called Koh, because it produces all the seeds and fruits that come to the world; THEY COME not from the lower aspect of the stars and constellations.

324. Then it is written: "And he believed in Hashem," WHICH MEANS THAT he cleaved above and not below. He "believed in Hashem" and not in the stars and the constellations, he believed that his reward in the next world would be great, and he believed in Hashem that from the grade that was given to him, NAMELY KOH, he would be able to bring children to the world.

325. "And he counted it to him for righteousness" (Ibid. 6), he counted it to the name Koh as mercy, though it is of judgment. Another meaning of the verse, "and he counted it to him for righteousness," is that he bound the upper, WHICH IS BINAH, with the lower one, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and combined them as one.

326. Come and behold: It has been said that 'Avraham,' SPELLED WITH THE LETTER HEI, shall father a son, while 'Avram' shall not. If you say that he fathered Yishmael while he was still 'Avram,' THE RESPONSE IS THAT the son promised by the Holy One, blessed be He, was not born while he was 'Avram,' because as long as he was 'Avram' he begot only down below-REFERRING TO YISHMAEL. But once he was called 'Avraham' and entered the covenant, he begot above-IN HOLINESS. Therefore, 'Avram' begets only down below, while 'Avraham' begets in the upper world, as we have stated, because he was attached above to Yitzchak.

31. "For who is El...and who is a rock, save our Elohim"

Every human being is a microcosm of the entire universe. Just as every human cell of the body contains the entire genetic code, each of us contains the entire universe within our soul. We are all individual cells of the cosmos. Accordingly, our influence extends throughout the entire universe: Each part contains the whole, and therefore, each part affects the whole. When the Zohar tells us that Adam saw all the souls who would ever come into existence, we are meant to understand that each of us has a definite purpose and role in the world that was known from the moment of creation. The Relevance of this Passage

Each individual existence has unique importance and purpose in the overall design and development of the universe. Through these passages, true understanding of our power and influence in this world is aroused within us. We gain awareness of the value and magnitude of every action. Moreover, we connect ourselves to our personal mission that was set forth at the moment of creation.

327. "And when Avram was ninety nine years old..." (Beresheet 17:1). In discussing this verse, Rabbi Aba said: "For who is El, save Hashem? And who is a rock, save our Elohim?" (II Shmuel 22:32). King David said this verse, "For who is El, save Hashem?" meaning who is the governor or ruler over things, "save Hashem." EVERYONE DOES what the Holy One, blessed be He commands, as no one can stand on his own or does anything without Hashem. "And who is a rock"-who is strong enough to perform a mighty deed with his own strength-"save our Elohim?" Therefore, everyone is in the hands of the Holy One, blessed be He, and none can do anything without His permission.

328. According to another explanation of "For who is El, save Hashem?" everything lies in the hands of the Holy One, blessed be He, and not in what is seen in the stars and their signs. The stars may show a particular thing, but the Holy One, blessed be He, changes it to something else. The verse "And who is a rock (Heb. tzur), save our Elohim?" has been explained. There is no "portrayer" (Heb. tzayar) like the Holy One, blessed be He, who portrays an image within an image, REFERRING TO A FETUS WITHIN HIS MOTHER'S WOMB, completes that image in all its perfection, and inserts to it a heavenly soul that is similar to the Holy One, blessed be He. This is why there is no "portrayer" like the Holy One, blessed be He.

329. Come and behold: when a man and a woman desire each other and join as one, the sperm of man produces a child in whom both of their images are combined. For the Holy One, blessed be He created the child in an image that included both. This is why a person should sanctify himself, at that time, so that this image may be as perfect as should be!

330. Rabbi Chiya said, Come and behold: How great are the deeds that the Holy One, blessed be He, performs. Because He creates and portrays human beings in a similar way to THE ART AND PAINTING OF the world. THIS MEANS THAT EVERY HUMAN BEING REFLECTS THE ENTIRE WORLD WITHIN HIMSELF AND THUS IS CALLED A MICROCOSMOS. Every day, the Holy One, blessed be He, creates a world by mating couples, according to their worth. THROUGH THEM, HE CREATES WORLDS. And He forms the images of all offspring, before they come to the world.

331. Come and behold. Rabbi Shimon said that it is written: "This is the book of the generations of Adam" (Beresheet 5:1). AND HE INQUIRES, "Did he actually have a book?" AND HE REPLIES: This has been explained. The Holy One, blessed be He, showed Adam every generation and its leaders. But how did He show him ALL OF THEIR IMAGES? If you say that he saw through the Holy Spirit that they are destined to appear in the world, just like a person who sees through wisdom can tell the future of the world, it is not so! Rather, he saw them all with his eyes; he literally saw the image of their forms in the world with his eyes. AND HE ASKS: Why WAS HE ABLE TO SEE THEM ALL WITH HIS EYES? AND HE REPLIES: Because since the day the world was created, all the Souls that were to appear in future human beings stand before the Holy One, blessed be He, in the same image and form that they will have in the world.

332. In the same manner, after all these righteous people depart from this world, their souls rise, and the Holy One, blessed be He, creates for each of them another form in which to be clothed, just as they were clothed and covered while in this world. Therefore, all the souls stand before Him, and so Adam saw them, with his eyes!

333. You might say that after he had seen them, they ceased to exist and disappeared, but all that the Holy One, blessed be He, does, remains in existence. So they stand before Him until their time comes to go down to the world. And according to this, it is written: "But with him that stands here" (Devarim 29:14). And this has been explained -- all the human beings, who were destined to appear in the world in the future, were standing there.

334. This should be examined, because it is written: "and also with him that is not here..." which leads us to conclude that it refers only to those who will be born from those standing there. Therefore, it does not say, "standing with us this day," WHICH WOULD HAVE MEANT THAT THEY WERE STANDING THERE WITH THEM. Instead, it is written: "with us this day," WHICH MEANS THAT THEY ARE NOT WITH THEM! AND HE EXPLAINS, "Assuredly, everyone was standing there, but because they were not seen by the eye, the verse reads "with us this day", WHICH MEANS even though they are unseen. BECAUSE OF THIS, HE COULD NOT SAY "STANDING HERE WITH US THIS DAY."

335. You might say, "What is the reason that they were not seen here- ON MOUNT SINAI-just as they were seen by Adam's own eye. DURING THE GIVING OF THE TORAH, it would have been more proper FOR ALL FUTURE GENERATIONS to be seen?" AND HE REPLIES: Here, when the Torah was given to Yisrael, they were looking at a different mirror, in which they saw the supernal grades eye to eye. And they were craving to look upon the glory of their Master. Therefore they saw the supernal glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, Himself alone, and nothing else besides Him!

336. Accordingly, all human beings who shall appear in the future in the world stand before the Holy One, blessed be He, clothed in the actual images in which they shall eventually appear. Therefore, it is written: "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh: for in Your book all things are written..." (Tehilim 139:16). What is the reason THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAW HIS UNSHAPED FLESH?

"Because another supernal image THAT WAS STANDING BEFORE HIM-EVEN BEFORE THE WORLD WAS CREATED-was similar to this one. AND THIS IS WHY HE SAW IT. Thus, it is written: "and who is a rock (tzur), save our Elohim? IN OTHER WORDS, who is such a good "portrayer" (tzayar) that he is able to draw everything as does the Holy One, blessed be He!

337. Another explanation for "For who is Eloha," is the secret of the matter. THE NUKVA, WHICH IS CALLED EI, is inclusive, because it includes all the grades within it-THE GRADES OF THE RIGHT, WHICH ARE CHASSADIM, TOGETHER WITH THE GRADES OF THE LEFT, WHICH ARE GVUROT. You might say that the name EI represents a different grade-NOT THE ASPECT OF THE RIGHT-because it is written that, "and an EI who has indignation every day" (Tehilim 7:12). HE EXPLAINS, "Come and behold: "For who is EI, save Hashem" MEANS THAT THE NUKVA is not separate, BUT IS UNITED WITH YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI (HASHEM), WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, IN A UNISON THAT is never interrupted." This is described by the words, "For who is EI save Hashem, and who is a rock..." because "a rock," WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT OF THE NUKVA, is not alone, but everything is one, as it is written: "Know therefore this day, and consider it in your heart, that Hashem He is the Elohim ..." (Devarim 4:39).

32. The vision of Shadai-an ordinary vision

There are two different levels of connection to the infinite Light and spiritual energy of the Upper Worlds.

"The Vision" ??? -- the lower level

"Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei" ??? -- the higher level

Before he underwent the ritual of circumcision, Avraham could only connect to and experience the level of The vision. After circumcision, however, Avraham was able to attain the level of the Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei ????

The Relevance of this Passage

An ability to connect to a higher realm of Light--the level of Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei--is made available to us through forces that are unlocked in this mystical passage. We are drawing upon the purification power of circumcision and Avraham's elevated consciousness to ascend to this exalted realm.

338. Come and behold: As long as Avraham was not circumcised, the Holy One, blessed be He, spoke to him only through a "vision," WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA WHILE SHE IS AT HER PLACE AND IS DESCRIBED BY THE WORDS, "AND AN EL WHO HAS INDIGNATION EVERY DAY." As we have learned, it is written: "the word of Hashem came to Avram in a vision..." (Beresheet 15:1). The words "in a vision" ALLUDE TO the mirror, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS the grade where all the figures, REFERRING TO THE THREE COLUMNS, RIGHT, LEFT, AND CENTRAL, are seen. And this "vision" is the secret of the covenant of circumcision, NAMELY THE NUKVA IN WHICH THE COVENANT SHINES.

339. AND HE ASKS: How can you say that THE NUKVA is called a vision because it is a grade of a mirror in which all figures appear! Previously, you said that as long as Avraham was not circumcised, the Holy One, blessed be He, spoke to him through the grade OF THE VISION alone, upon which no other grade did dwell. Now you say that 'in a vision' refers to the mirror in which all supernal grades are reflected. And, before Avraham was circumcised, it says, "the word of Hashem came to Avram in a vision.

340. AND HE REPLIES: This grade, which is definitely the mirror of all the supernal grades, is completed by the mirror of all the supernal grades. Even before Avraham was circumcised, this grade mirrored all of the supernal grades and was completed by the colors OF THE SUPERNAL GRADES. AND ALSO the mirror made of these colors is below Her, BELOW THE NUKVA: white, CHESED, is to the right; red, GVURAH, is to the left; and a third color-GREEN, TIFERET-is composed of all remaining colors. AND TO THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED A VISION, all the supernal colors-WHITE, RED, AND GREEN-are built on this mirror. Therefore He was reflected in this mirror, which stood upon Avraham, and spoke with him, even though he was not circumcised. As soon as he was circumcised, it is written: 'Hashem appeared to Avram...' (Bereshheet 17:1). BECAUSE THE NAME OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI BECAME ATTACHED TO HER, MEANING THAT THE ESSENCE OF ALL SUPERNAL GRADES WERE INCLUDED WITHIN HER. THIS WAS NOT TRUE BEFORE AVRAHAM WAS CIRCUMCISED; AT THAT TIME, ONLY THE THREE COLORS WERE INCLUDED WITHIN HER.

341. Come and behold: In reference to Bilaam, it is written that he saw "the vision of Shadai" (Bemidbar 24:16), but with Avraham, it is written only "in a vision." AND HE ASKS: What is the difference between these two? AND HE REPLIES: The 'vision of the Shadai' refers to THE COLORS below THE NUKVA that are Her mirror. The ordinary 'vision' is the letter Hei OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, THE NUKVA, in which all the supernal figures, WHICH ARE THE THREE COLORS, appear. Because of this, it is written 'in a vision' only when referring to Avraham, in the 'vision of Shadai' when referring to Bilaam. HOWEVER, AS ALREADY EXPLAINED, SHE INCLUDES THE THREE COLORS-WHITE, RED, AND GREEN, AND ALSO THE MIRROR COMPOSED OF THESE COLORS UNDERNEATH HER.

342. Therefore, before Avraham was circumcised, he reached the grade THAT IS SIMPLY CALLED, "A VISION." Immediately after he was circumcised, however, "Hashem appeared to Avram..." So all the grades OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI appeared upon this grade, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, THE ESSENCE OF THESE GRADES. And the grade spoke to him properly, without reservation, BECAUSE THE NUKVA IS THE SECRET OF "SPEAKING." And Avraham clung on to one grade after the other until he became attached to the holy covenant in full perfection, as should properly be!

343. Come and behold: As Avraham was circumcised, he left THE KLIPAH OF the foreskin and entered to the holy covenant. He was adorned with the holy crown and entered the covenant upon which the world is based. Then the world was firmly established for his sake, as it is written: "If My covenant be not day and night, it were as if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth" (Yirmeyah 33:25). SO IT IS FOR THE SAKE OF CIRCUMCISION THAT THE WORLD EXISTS. And it is also written: "These are the generations of heaven and earth when they were created (Heb. behibar'am)" (Bereshheet 2:4). Behibar'am constitutes the letters of be-hei-bra'am (he created them with Hei). It can also be read beAvraham (lit. 'with Avraham'). Both are related to the same secret, WHICH IS CIRCUMCISION. THEREFORE THE WORLD WAS CREATED FOR AVRAHAM BECAUSE HE HAD ENTERED THE COVENANT OF CIRCUMCISION, WHICH IS REFERRED TO BY THE VERSE, "IF MY COVENANT BE NOT DAY AND NIGHT..."

344. When the Holy One, blessed be He, showed Adam all future generations of the world, he saw them one by one, one generation after the other, standing in the Garden of Eden in that same form that they would have in this world. So come and behold: We have learned that when he saw that David had no life of his own at all, he stood in wonder and then gave him 70 years of his own life. Because of this, Adam lived only nine hundred and thirty years; his remaining seventy years were given to David.

345. And this is the secret of Wisdom. The fact that David had only the 70 years given to him by Adam, is in keeping with the higher Wisdom, because everything that occurs below is in accordance with what happens above, IN THE UPPER WORLD.

345. וּמִלָּה דָּא רְזָא דְחֻכְמָתָא אִיהוּ, דְדוֹד לִית לִיה בַּר שְׁבַעִין שָׁנִין, מֵאָדָם קְדַמָּא, וְכֹלָא רְזָא דְחֻכְמָתָא אִיהוּ. וְכֹל מַה דְלִתְתָּא כְּלָא אִיהוּ בְרְזָא דְלַעִילָא.

33. The Holy One, blessed be He, matches couples together

A discourse on soul mates reveals the mysteries surrounding the male and female aspects of the soul, and the concept of soul mate relationships. When a complete soul enters this physical realm, it does so through the efforts of the angel Lailah. During the process of descent, the unified soul separates into male and female halves. If the two halves of the soul embark on a spiritual path during physical existence, they can merit reunification. While the angel Lailah is responsible for bringing souls into the physical dimension, it is the Creator Himself who reunites two halves of one soul when the time is right--for only the Creator knows with certainty who are true soul mates.

The Relevance of this Passage

Through this portion, we can merit the appearance of our soul mate in our life and/or strengthen the marital bond with our current partner.

346. Come and behold: All the souls that are destined to come to the world appear before Him, as couples, WHICH MEANS THAT EACH SOUL IS DIVIDED TO A MALE AND FEMALE. Afterward, as they arrive in this world, the Holy One, blessed be He, matches them together. Rabbi Yitzchak said: THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, says, 'the daughter of so-and-so to so-and-so.'

346. וְתָא חֲזִי, בְּכָל אֵינֹן דְיוֹקְנִין דְנִשְׁמַתִּין דְעֵלְמָא. כְּלָהוּ זְוֹגִין זְוֹגִין קַמֵּיה, לְבַתֵּר, כִּד אֲתִיִּין לְהֵאֵי עֵלְמָא, קְדַשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא מְזַוֵּג זְוֹגִין. אָמַר ר' יִצְחָק, קוֹדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא אָמַר בֵּת פְּלוֹנִי לְפְלוֹנִי.

347. Rabbi Yosi asked: What is the meaning of this? THAT IS, OF THE STATEMENT THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, ANNOUNCES WHO GOES WITH WHOM. HOW CAN THIS BE TRUE SINCE it is written: "and there is nothing new under the sun" (Kohelet 1:9), WHICH MEANS THAT EVERYTHING WAS SETTLED DURING THE CREATION OF THE WORLD. HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO WHAT YOU HAVE SAID, THE ACTION OF MATCHMAKING IS NEW EACH TIME, BECAUSE THE MATCHES MUST BE ANNOUNCED. Rabbi Yehuda said, it is written: "under the sun," yet "above THE SUN," NEW THINGS CAN TAKE PLACE. Rabbi Yosi asked, "Why does He have to make an announcement, since Rabbi Chizkiyah said that Rabbi Chiya said that "at exactly the time a man is born and emerges in the world, his spouse is assigned to him!"

347. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, מַאי קָא מַיִירִי, וְהָא כְּתוּב אֵין כָּל חֲדָשׁ תַּחַת הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ. אָמַר ר' יְהוּדָה, תַּחַת הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ כְּתוּב, שְׁאֵינִי לְעֵילָא. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, מַאי כְרוּזָא הֶכָּא, וְהָא אָמַר ר' חֲזַקְיָה אָמַר רַבִּי חִיָּיא, בְּהֵוּא שַׁעֲתָא מַמָּשׁ, דְנִפְסִיק בַּר נֶשׁ לְעֵלְמָא, בֵּת זְוֹגוּ אֲזַדְמַנַּת לוּ.

348. Rabbi Aba responded, "Happy are the righteous, whose souls are adorned as they appear before the Holy King, before coming to this world TO ENTER THE BODY. Because we have learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, sends the souls forth to the world, all of these spirits and souls include a male and a female joined together.

348. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, זְכָאִין אֵינֹן צְדִיקָאֵי, דְנִשְׁמַתְהוֹן מִתְעַטְרִין קַמֵּי מַלְכָּא קְדִישָׁא, עַד לָא יִיתוֹן לְעֵלְמָא, דְהֵכִי תַנִּינֵן, בְּהֵוּא שַׁעֲתָא דְאִפְסִיק קְדַשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא נִשְׁמַתִּין לְעֵלְמָא, כָּל אֵינֹן רוּחִין וְנִשְׁמַתִּין, כְּלָהוּ כְּלִילֵן דְכַר וְנוֹקְבָא, דְמִתְחַבְּרֵן כְּחָדָא.

349. They are handed over to a governor, who is an emissary in charge of human conception and whose name is Lailah (Eng. 'Night'). So when they descend to the world and are handed over to that governor, they are separated from each other. Sometimes one precedes the other in coming down and entering the body of a human being.

350. When their time to be married arrives, the Holy One, blessed be He, who knows THE MALES AND THE FEMALES OF these spirits and souls, joins them as they were BEFORE THEY CAME DOWN TO THE WORLD. And He announces, THE DAUGHTER OF SO-AND-SO TO SO-AND-SO. When they are joined together, they become one body and one soul-THEY ARE the right and left in proper unison. THE MALE IS THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE BODY AND SOUL; THE FEMALE IS THEIR LEFT SIDE. And because of this, "there is nothing new under the sun," MEANING EVEN THOUGH THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, ANNOUNCES, 'THE DAUGHTER OF SO-AND-SO TO SO-AND-SO', THIS IS NOTHING NEW BUT RATHER A RETURN TO HOW THEY WERE BEFORE COMING DOWN TO THIS WORLD. AND SINCE ONLY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, KNOWS THIS, HE THEREFORE ANNOUNCES REGARDING THEM.

351. You might say, "But we have learned that a man obtains a mate according to his deeds and ways of behavior!" It is assuredly so! If he is meritorious and his ways are correct, then he deserves his own SOULMATE-to join her AS THEY WERE JOINED when they left THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, BEFORE BONDING A BODY.

352. Rabbi Chiya asked, "Where should he who performs good deeds look for his soulmate?" He answered, "We have already learned that a man should even sell all his property to marry the daughter of a sage, because the deposit of the Holy One, blessed be He, is handed over to a sage." THEREFORE, HE SHALL SURELY FIND HIS MATE WITH HIM.

353. We have also learned that according to the secret of the Braita, the mating of all souls, which are reincarnated BUT HAVE NO SOULMATES can be performed before their time through mercy. THIS MEANS THAT HE MAY PRECEDE AND MARRY SOMEBODY ELSE'S SOULMATE. THIS IS THE MEANING OF THE WARNING, "WOMEN SHOULD NOT BE MARRIED ON A FEAST DAY, BUT THEY CAN BE BETHROTHED, BECAUSE ANOTHER MAN MAY PRECEDE HIM THROUGH MERCY." And what they said is right! The term "another man" is exact. This is the reason why "It is difficult for the Holy, blessed be He, to bring couples together" Above all, assuredly, "the ways of Hashem are right" (Hoshea 14:10), AND ALL THAT HE DOES IS GOOD AND RIGHT.

354. Rabbi Yehuda inquired of Rabbi Elazar, "I am aware of the secret of this subject. THEREFORE I ASK where do those souls that are reincarnated, BUT HAVE NO SOULMATES, find their spouses? He responded, "It is written: 'How shall we do for wives for them that remain?' (Shoftim 21:7), and "you shall catch every man his wife..." (Ibid. 21). Although this passage deals specifically with the sons of Binyamin, IT ACTUALLY DEALS WITH THE REINCARNATED SOULS, WHO MAY PRECEDE THEIR FRIENDS AND TAKE THEIR SOULMATES AWAY FROM THEM THROUGH MERCY. Therefore, as we have learned, "Lest another precede him with Mercy."

349. וְאֶתְמַסְרֵן בְּיַד דְּהוּא מְמַנָּא, שְׁלִיחָא דְּאֶתְפַקֵּד עַל עֲדוּאֵיהוֹן דְּבְנֵי נֶשָׂא, וְלִילָה שְׁמִיָּה. וּבְשַׁעֲתָא דְּנִחְתִּין וְאֶתְמַסְרֵן בְּיַדוּי, מִתְפַּרְשִׁין. וְלְזְמַנִּין דָּא אַקְדִּים מִן דָּא, וְאַחִית לְהוּ בְּבְנֵי נֶשָׂא.

355. Rabbi Yehuda said that this is definitely the meaning of "It is difficult for the Holy One, blessed be He, to bring couples together," BECAUSE HE IS OBLIGED TO TAKE FROM ONE AND GIVE TO THE OTHER. Happy is the portion of Yisrael, because the Torah teaches them the ways of conduct of the Holy One, blessed be He, as well as all His secrets and mysteries hidden before Him.

356. Indeed, it is written: "The Torah of Hashem is perfect" (Tehilim 19:8), BECAUSE EVERYTHING APPEARS IN IT. Happy is the portion of him, who studies Torah and is never separated from it. Because whoever abandons the Torah, even for one moment, is separated from eternal life. Therefore, it is written: "For it is your life and length of your days" (Devarim 30:20) and "For length of days and years of life and peace shall they add to you" (Mishlei 3:2).

34. Night and Midnight

Specific judgments come to our world when the sun sets and night descends. At the stroke of midnight, another transformation occurs as the awesome and compassionate Light of mercy appears in the cosmos. According to the wisdom of the Zohar, whoever delves into the study of Torah during this time of Mercy, after midnight, shall merit a portion in the world to come.

This mystery is conveyed through a story about Rabbi Aba and Rabbi Ya'akov. The two eminent mystics are traveling through a certain village and they take up lodging at an inn. The inn-keeper has built a complex apparatus that uses water, buckets, and scales to signal the arrival of midnight. These complexities and metaphors within this seemingly simple tale indicate the extreme importance of spiritual study after the stroke of midnight. The Relevance of this Passage

The compassionate Light of Mercy is aroused through the language that flows through this mystical text of Zohar. This Light helps us merit a share in the world to come.

357. "And when Avram was ninety nine years old..." (Beresheet 17:1). Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion by quoting, "Your people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land forever..." (Yeshayah 60:21). Happy is Yisrael above all other nations because the Holy One, blessed be He, called its people righteous. For we have learned that there are 125,000 winged creatures roaming the world ready to hear and receive the voice.

358. As we have learned, everything in the world has a voice, which floats and flies in the firmament, where those winged creatures catch it and carry it aloft TO MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) FOR MALE AND FEMALE, to be judged to good or to evil, as it is written: "For the bird of heaven shall carry the sound and that which has wings shall tell the matter" (Kohelet 10:20).

359. "When do they judge this voice?" IN OTHER WORDS, "WHEN IS THE VOICE CARRIED ALOFT AS MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) FOR MALE AND FEMALE." Rabbi Chiya answers: When a person goes to bed and sleeps, because at that time, the soul leaves him and testifies about him; that is when the voice is judged. THIS MEANS THAT IT IS ELEVATED TO MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) IF THE SOUL TESTIFIES IN HIS FAVOR! Therefore, it is written: "keep the doors of your mouth from her that lies in your bosom" (Michah 7:5). Why? Because it is she who testifies against the person. THE WORDS "FROM HER THAT LIES IN YOUR BOSOM" ALLUDE TO THE SOUL. As Rabbi Yehuda says: All that a person does during the day, his soul testifies on him at night.

355. אָמַר ר' יְהוּדָה הַאי הוּא וְדַאי, דְּקָשִׁין זְווגִין קָמֵי קִדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא. זְכָאָה חוּלְקָהוֹן דְּיִשְׂרָאֵל, דְּאוּרֵייתָא אוּלִיף לְהוּ אוּרְחוּי דְּקִדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְכָל טְמִירִין וְגַנְיָא דְּגַנְיָזִין קָמֵיהּ.

360. Rabbi Elazar said, as we have learned: At the beginning of the first hour at night, when the day is blown away and the sun goes down, the keeper of the keys, who is in charge of the sun-MATATRON, THE GOVERNOR OF THE WORLD, WHO DRAWS THE LIGHT OF THE SUN DOWN TO THE WORLD-enters the twelve gates that BELONG TO THE SUN. THESE GATES are open during the day, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE TWELVE HOURS OF DAYLIGHT. After he has passed through all TWELVE GATES, MEANING AFTER THE TWELFTH HOUR IS OVER, then all the gates are closed, MEANING THAT THE DOMINION OF THE DAY HAS ENDED AND THE TIME FOR THE DOMINION OF THE NIGHT HAS COME!

361. A herald then announces-BECAUSE EVERY CHANGE IS ACCOMPLISHED BY AN ANNOUNCEMENT. Someone rises, THE HERALD, THE ANGEL GAVRIEL, WHO holds on to their keys. DURING THE DAY, THE KEYS ARE IN THE HANDS OF MATATRON. THROUGH THESE KEYS, HE DRAWS THE DARKNESS, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT. After he completes the announcement, all the guardians of the world gather together and ascend FROM THE WORLD. Nobody remains to create an opening TO DRAW DOWN EVEN A TINY LIGHT, because they are all silenced. Then the lower Judgments are aroused. They start to roam the world, and the moon begins to shine.

362. And wailers WHICH ARE THE FORCES OF JUDGMENT THAT AROUSE WAILING AND HOWLING IN THE WORLD, cry out loud WITH THE BLOWING OF A TRUMPET. At the second blast, the angels begin to chant and sing before their Master. How many Guardians stand erect TO OFFER PROTECTION FROM JUDGMENTS, and Judgments are aroused in the world. Then as people sleep, their souls leave THEIR BODIES, give testimony, and are sentenced-BECAUSE THERE IS NO RIGHTEOUS PERSON ON EARTH WHO DOES NOT SIN. But the Holy One, blessed be He, deals mercifully with the human beings and allows the soul to return back IN THE MORNING.

363. At midnight, when the birds awaken, THAT IS, THE COCKS, a spirit (or wind) rises in the North. THIS REFERS TO THE LEFT COLUMN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM-THE SECRET OF THE UPPER THREE SFIROT OF RUACH. The scepter then rises in the South, NAMELY IN THE RIGHT COLUMN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM, and unites with that spirit OF THE LEFT COLUMN. THUS, THEY ARE INCLUDED WITHIN EACH OTHER, AND THE JUDGMENTS OF THE LEFT COLUMN subside and are mitigated BY CHASSADIM. And the Holy One, blessed be He, is awakened and, as is His wont, delights Himself with the righteous in the Garden of Eden.

364. Happy is he who awakens at that time to delight in the Torah, because the Holy One, blessed be He, together with all the righteous in the Garden of Eden listen attentively to his voice. This is why it is written: "You that dwell in the gardens, the companions hearken to your voice, cause me to hear it" (Shir Hashirim 8:13).

365. In addition, the Holy One, blessed be He, draws down upon him a thread of grace (Lit. 'chesed') which earns him protection in this world from both higher and lower beings. Therefore it is written: "Hashem will command His loving kindness (Heb. Chesed) in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me" (Tehilim 42:9).

366. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: Whoever delves to the study of Torah at that hour shall definitely have an eternal share in the world to come. Rabbi Yosi then asked: What is the meaning of 'eternal'? He answered: This is what I have learned. Every midnight, when the Holy One, blessed be He, enters the Garden of Eden, all the plants--NAMELY THE SFIROT, of the Garden of Eden, WHICH IS THE NUKVA--are watered most generously by the stream that is called the 'ancient stream' and also the 'stream of delight,' WHICH REFERS TO THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA, which waters never cease to flow; BECAUSE THE MATING OF ABA AND IMA NEVER STOPS. So, if a person awakens to study Torah, it is as if that stream is poured on his head and he is watered, together with the plants of the Garden of Eden. HE RECEIVES AN ETERNAL PORTION OF THE MOCHIN OF THE WORLD TO COME AS WELL.

367. Furthermore, because all the righteous in the Garden of Eden listen to him, they add another portion to that flow of the stream, WHICH ARE THE MOCHIN OF SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA. Therefore he has an eternal portion in the world to come, FOR THEY ARE INCLUDED IN THE MOCHIN OF ABA AND IMA.

368. Rabbi Aba was traveling from Tiberias to Tronya, where his father-in-law lived, accompanied by his son, Rabbi Ya'akov. When they decided to spend the night in the village of Tarsha, Rabbi Aba asked his landlord, "Is there a cock around here?" The landlord asked, "What do you need a cock for?" Rabbi Aba responded, "Because I awake at midnight exactly! AND I NEED A COCK TO WAKE ME UP.

369. THE LANDLORD then said: You do not need THE COCK. I have prepared a signal in the house that indicates midnight, the scales that are before my bed. For this purpose, I fill a vessel with water. The water drips out THROUGH A HOLE IN THE VESSEL so that it empties exactly at midnight. AT THAT MOMENT, ONE SCALE GOES UP WHILE THE OTHER swings downward and roars. IT MAKES NOISE AS IT FALLS. And the sound is heard throughout the house. The signal was created by an old man who once stayed with me and arose at exactly midnight to study Torah.

370. Rabbi Aba said: Blessed be HASHEM, the Merciful, who has sent me over here. At midnight, the scale made a noise as it swung down, waking Rabbi Aba and Rabbi Ya'akov. They heard their landlord, who was sitting in a corner of the house with his two sons, say, "It is written: 'Midnight I will rise to give thanks to You because of Your righteous judgments'" (Tehilim 119:62). AND HE ASKED, "What did David see that caused him to say 'Midnight...'" instead of "at midnight...?" AND HE REPLIES: Most certainly he was referring to the Holy One, blessed be He, CALLING HIM 'MIDNIGHT.'

371. AND HE ASKS: Is the Holy One, blessed be He, called so? HE ANSWERED: Yes! Because at midnight exactly, the Holy One, blessed be He, appears with His retinue, and enters the Garden of Eden to delight with the righteous.

372. Rabbi Aba said to Rabbi Ya'akov, "We shall surely join the Shechinah, so let us join THAT MAN AND HIS SONS." They came closer, sat with him, and said: Say whatever you have to say, for you have spoken well! THEY ASKED HIM: From where do you know all this? He responded: I have learned this from my grandfather.

373. And he continued: At the first hour of the night all the judgments down below are aroused, THE JUDGMENTS OF MALCHUT WHICH ARE NOT SWEETENED BY BINAH, and fly around the world. Exactly at midnight, however, when the Holy One, blessed be He, enters the Garden of Eden, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, these Judgments disappear and cease to exist.

374. And all the pathways of above-NAMELY THE WAYS BY WHICH BINAH SWEETENS THE NUKVA-only occur exactly at midnight. How do we know this? We know this from the verse about Avraham, "And he divided himself against them...(by) night" (Beresheet 14:15). But in Egypt, IT IS WRITTEN: "And it came to pass at midnight" (Shemot 12:29) BECAUSE THE NUKVA WAS THEN SWEETENED BY BINAH AND HER LIGHT WAS REVEALED. And David knew of this, WHICH IS WHY HE SAID: "MIDNIGHT."

375. AND HE ASKED, "How did DAVID know this?" AND HE ANSWERED, so said my grandfather. Because his Kingdom OF DAVID depended on this, ON THE ILLUMINATION OF THE MOCHIN OF MIDNIGHT, David therefore rose at midnight and chanted songs. And so he actually called the Holy One, blessed be He, "Midnight." He also said: "I will rise to give thanks to You..." Then, at that hour, all Judgments stem from here, MEANING ONLY FROM THE NUKVA WHICH IS SWEETENED AT MIDNIGHT, AS THE JUDGMENTS OF THE WORLD BELOW HAVE ALREADY DISAPPEARED. So the Judgments of Malchut are derived only from here, AND NOT FROM ITS UNSWEETENED ASPECT. Therefore, at that hour, David attached himself to it and rose up to chant songs' Rabbi Aba went forward and kissed him. He said: It is assuredly so! Blessed be the Merciful One, who has brought me here.

376. Come and behold: As we have already explained, "night" has always been the time of Judgment; it was discussed in the presence of Rabbi Shimon and is certainly so! The young son of the landlord then asked, "If so, then why is it written: 'Midnight'?" They explained to him, "It is as we have already stated, because the Kingdom of Heaven is awakened at midnight." The son said: I have heard that, but have another explanation! Rabbi Aba then said: Well then, speak up, my son! For your words shall be the voice of the candle, REFERRING TO THE VOICE OF RABBI SHIMON, WHO IS CALLED THE 'LUMINOUS LIGHT.'

377. THE YOUNG SON said: I heard that the night is the time when the Judgment of Malchut is in power. As a result, everywhere THE TERM 'NIGHT' APPEARS, it refers to Judgment. But when the term midnight appears, it is because Malchut is nourished from the two aspects-Judgment and Chesed. So, the first half of the night is the time of Judgment. During the second half, however, the face shines from the aspect of Chesed. This is why it is written: 'Midnight'-THE HALF OF CHESED.

378. Rabbi Aba stood up, placed his hands over his head, and blessed him. He said: I thought that Wisdom was found only among the righteous, who earned it THROUGH PIOUS DEEDS. But now I see that in the generation of Rabbi Shimon, even the young have merited the Supernal Wisdom because of him. Happy are you, Rabbi Shimon. Woe to the generation from which you shall depart. They sat until the morning studying Torah.

379. Rabbi Aba began the discussion with the verse: "Your people also shall be all righteous..." (Yeshayah 60:21). Our friends have already explained this passage. Why is it written: "Your people also shall be all righteous?" How can it be that all the nation of Yisrael is righteous, when there are many wicked people in Yisrael? Many are sinners and transgressors, who disobey the precepts of Torah!

380. But the meaning is found in the secret of the Mishnah. Happy are Yisrael, who voluntarily offer a sacrifice to the Holy One, blessed be He. The sacrifice is the circumcision of their sons eight days after birth. When they are circumcised, they take part in the good portion of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "The righteous is the foundation (Heb. yesod) of the world" (Mishlei 10: 25). As they enter to this portion of the righteous, AS A RESULT OF THEIR CIRCUMCISION, they are the called "righteous." Therefore they are certainly all righteous, BECAUSE NOW THEY ARE ALL CIRCUMCISED, EVEN THE WICKED AMONG THEM. THEREFORE IS WRITTEN: "YOUR PEOPLE ALSO SHALL BE ALL RIGHTEOUS..."

381. Therefore, "they shall inherit the land for ever" (Yeshayah 60:21). THIS ALLUDES TO THE SHECHINAH THAT IS CALLED "THE LAND." As it is written: "Open to me the gates of righteousness, I will go through them" (Tehilim 118:19) and "This is the gate of Hashem, through which the righteous shall enter" (Ibid. 20). These are those who are circumcised and are called "righteous." "The branch of my plantings" is a branch of the plantings that the Holy One, blessed be He, planted in the Garden of Eden. And this "land" is one of those plantings. THE "PLANTINGS" ARE THE TEN SFIROT OF THE GARDEN OF EDEN, AND MALCHUT OF THEM IS CALLED "THE LAND." Therefore, Yisrael have a goodly portion in the world to come. As it is written: "The righteous shall inherit the land" (Tehilim 37:29)-"they shall inherit the land forever." AND HE ASKED, "What is "forever?" AND HE SAID: Just as it is explained in our Mishnah and has been settled among the friends.

35. Small Hei and large Hei

The Zohar presents a very complex metaphysical process that involves the Hebrew letter Hei. Through its shape and sound, the creative powers of the letter Hei ? help determine and influence our physical world.

The Relevance of this Passage

We develop a greater appreciation of the mystical powers of the Hebrew letters simply by perusing these verses. A deeper appreciation automatically amplifies their influence and effectiveness in each passage of Zohar that we read, learn, or peruse over.

382. We have already learned the reason why the name Avraham first occurs only now. We explained that he was not called Avraham until he was circumcised, because that is when he became attached to the letter Hei, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH, and the Shechinah rested upon him. Therefore he was then called Avraham WITH HEI!

382. וְתֵאנָא, מֵאֵי קָא חָמָא קָרָא, דְּלֵא אַקְרִי אַבְרָהָם
עַד הַשְּׁתָּא. אֵלָא, הָכִי אֹקִימָנָא, דְּעַד הַשְּׁתָּא לֵא
אַתְגְּזֹר, וְכַד אַתְגְּזֹר, אַתְחַבֵּר בְּהַאי ה', וְשְׁכִינְתָּא
שְׂרִיָא בֵיה, וְכַדִּין אַקְרִי אַבְרָהָם.

383. Therefore it is written: "These are the generations of the heaven and of the earth when they were created (Heb. behibar'am)" (Bereshheet 2:4). As we have learned that "with the letter Hei" (Be-Hei) "they were created (Heb. bra'am)." We also learned about the word beAvraham (with Avraham), WHICH CONSISTS OF THE SAME LETTERS AS THE WORD BEHIBAR'AM. THIS TEACHES US THAT THE WORLD WAS CREATED FOR THE SAKE OF AVRAHAM. AND HE ASKED, "What are they saying?" IN OTHER WORDS, "WHY DO THEY DIFFER FROM EACH OTHER IN THE MEANING OF BEHIBAR'AM? AND HE REPLIED, "One refers to Chesed," SO THE ONE THAT SAYS THAT BEHIBAR'AM ALLUDES TO AVRAHAM, CHESED, MEANS THAT THE WORLD WAS CREATED BECAUSE OF CHESED. The other refers to the Shechinah, THE OTHER SAYS THAT BEHIBAR'AM, ALLUDES TO THE SHECHINAH BECAUSE THE LETTER HEI SIGNIFIES THE SHECHINAH. And there is no contradiction between the two, because they refer to the same meaning, FOR IF THE CHESED EXISTS IN THE WORLD, SO DOES THE SHECHINAH, AND VICE VERSA. THEREFORE, BOTH MEANINGS-CHESED AND THE SHECHINAH-ARE THE SAME. SO THE WORLD WAS CREATED because of the one, CHESED and because of the other, THE SHECHINAH.

383. וְהֵינּוּ דְכִתְיִב, אֵלֶּה תּוֹלְדוֹת הַשָּׁמַיִם וְהָאָרֶץ
בְּהִבְרָאָם. וְתֵאנָא בְּה' בְּרָאָם. וְתֵאנָא בְּאַבְרָהָם. מֵאֵי

בְּחֻדָּא, וְלֵא קְשִׁיָא מְלֵה, וְהַאי וְהַאי הִוּוּ.

384. Rabbi Ya'akov said to Rabbi Aba that the Hei in Behibaram is small, while the Hei in "Do you thus requite Hashem (Hala'Hashem)" (Devarim 32:6) is big! What is the difference between them? He said that the one, THE SMALL HEI, is Shmitah (Sabbatical year), NAMELY MALCHUT, while the other, THE LARGE HEI is Yovel (Jubilee), NAMELY BINAH. Because of this, there are times when the moon is full and times when it wanes. WHEN IT IS A GARMENT FOR BINAH, WHICH IS THE LARGE HEI, IT IS FULL. BUT BEFORE IT IS A GARMENT FOR BINAH, IT IS A SMALL HEI. So THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE SMALL AND LARGE HEI can be seen by the phases of the moon. So everything is now clear! This is the clarification of the matter.

36. Essays on circumcision

Rabbi Aba remains awake all night in anticipation of a circumcision that will take place in the town during the morning. He then accompanies all the townspeople and the family of the child to be circumcised. A lengthy discourse on all the complex secrets and mysteries surrounding circumcision occurs in the Zohar. Circumcision pertains to the purification of the Sfirah of Yesod and its counterpart in the physical world, the sexual organ.

The Relevance of this Passage

Circumcision is one of the most powerful cleansing actions available to us, and it is made available by learning these secrets and by meditating upon the words that comprise this portion.

385. Rabbi Aba said: Happy are Yisrael, that the Holy One, blessed be He, chose them from among all the other nations to receive the sign of the covenant. Because whoever retains this sign shall not go down to Gehenom as long as he preserves it properly, does not subject it to another power, REFERRING TO A MENSTRUATING WOMAN, A FEMALE SLAVE, A GENTILE WOMAN, OR A PROSTITUTE, and does not lie in the Name of the King. Because if one has lied IN THE NAME, BY THE SIGN OF THE COVENANT, it is as though he has lied in the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "They have dealt treacherously against Hashem, for they have begotten strange children" (Hoshea 5:7).

386. Rabbi Aba continued, "When a man brings his son forth to elevate and initiate him to the covenant, the Holy One, blessed be He, calls upon His retinue, THE ANGELS OF HEAVEN, and declares, 'See what a creature I have made in the world.' At that time, Eliyahu is invited, flies over the entire world in four crossings, and then appears there."

387. Therefore, we have learned that a man should prepare a chair in honor of Eliyahu, and should say, "This is the chair of Eliyahu." If he does not announce this, Eliyahu will not appear in that place nor ascend and testify about the circumcision before the Holy One, blessed be He.

388. Come and behold: It is written first, "What are you doing here, Eliyahu?" (I Melachim 19:13), and "I have been very jealous for Hashem ...because they have forsaken Your covenant..." (Ibid. 14). THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAID TO ELIYAHU, "As you live, you shall be present in every place that My sons shall imprint this holy sign on their flesh. And the mouth that testified that Yisrael had forsaken the covenant shall now testify that Yisrael observes it!" Thus, we have learned why Eliyahu was punished by the Holy One, blessed be He-because he accused His sons BY SAYING THAT THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL "HAVE FORSAKEN YOUR COVENANT."

389. By now, the light of day shone, and they were still studying Torah. As they stood to go, THE LANDLORD said to them, "Complete the subject that you were discussing during the night." They asked, "What subject?" He answered, "Tomorrow you can see the face of the guarantor of the covenant, ELIYAHU, because my wife begs you to stay for the celebration of the circumcision of our son." Rabbi Aba responded, "This is an invitation to participate in a commandment, so let us stay!"

385. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, זָכָאִין אֵינּוּן יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֲתַרְעֵי בְּהוֹן, מִכָּל שְׂאָר עַמִּין, וְיִהִיב לֹון אֶת קְוִימָא דָא, דְּכָל מָאן דְּאִית בֵּיה הָאִי אַת, לָא נְחִית לְגִיהֶנָם, אִי אִיהוּ נְטִיר לֵיה, בְּדָקָא יָאוּת, דְּלָא עֵייל לֵיה בְּרִשׁוּתָא אַחְרָא, וְלָא מְשַׁקֵּר בְּשִׁמְיֵה דְּמַלְכָא, דְּכָל מָאן דְּמְשַׁקֵּר בְּהָאִי, כְּמָאן דְּמְשַׁקֵּר בְּשִׁמְיֵה דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא. דְּכַתִּיב, בְּה' בְּגֵרוּ כִי בְּגִים זְרִים יִלְדוּ.

390. They waited all that day. At night, the landlord gathered all his friends together. They studied Torah all that night, and nobody slept. He said to them, "I ask of you all, that each person give a new explanation about the words of the Torah."

391. One man opened the discussion by saying that it is written: "In time of tumultuous strife (Heb. pra'ot) in Yisrael, when the people willingly offered themselves, praise Hashem" (Shoftim 5:2). AND HE ASKED, "Why did D'vorah and Barak open their poem with this phrase?" Because, as we have learned, the world cannot exist without this covenant. And it is written: "If My covenant be not day and night, it were as if I had not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth" (Yirmeyah 33:25), as heaven and earth are established upon it.

392. As a result, as long as Yisrael observe this covenant, the ordinances of heaven and earth continue to exist. But as soon as Yisrael do not heed to this covenant, then the covenant between the heavens and the earth ceases to exist, and no blessings appear in the world.

393. Come and behold: Other nations ruled over Yisrael only when Yisrael neglected this covenant. And what did they neglect? THEY PERFORMED THE CIRCUMCISION, BUT they did not uncover the corona (Heb. pri'a) and reveal the sacred flesh. This is why it is written: "And they forsook Hashem ..." (Shoftim 2:13) and so "He sold them to the hand of Sisra" (I Shmuel 12:9). THEREFORE, THE NATIONS DID NOT RULE OVER YISRAEL UNTIL THEY NEGLECTED THE COVENANT and they actually "forsook Hashem." Then Dvorah appeared and volunteered in the name of all Yisrael, for the cause, and then their enemies were subdued.

394. This refers to what we have learned about the Holy One, blessed be He, Who said to Yehoshua, "Yisrael are not circumcised because they did not uncover the sacred flesh. Therefore they do not uphold My covenant. Yet you plan on bringing them to the Land of Yisrael and overcoming their enemies. "Circumcise again the children of Yisrael a second time!" (Yehoshua 5:2). And before they uncovered the corona and this covenant was revealed, they did not enter to the Land of Yisrael and their enemies were not subdued. So here as well, when Yisrael volunteered to reveal the sign OF THIS COVENANT, their enemies were overcome and blessings returned to the world. Therefore it is written: "In time of tumultuous strife (also: an uncovering of flesh) in Yisrael, when the people willingly offered themselves, praise Hashem."

395. Another man stood up and said, as it is written: "And it came to pass on the way in the inn, that Hashem met him, and sought to kill him." (Shemot 4:24) . Whom HAD HE SOUGHT TO KILL? Moshe! The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, "You are about to go and bring Yisrael out of Egypt and overcome a great and powerful ruler, while you neglect a precept-your son is not yet circumcised! Immediately then He "sought to kill him."

396. We have learned that Gavriel came down in a flame of fire to burn him. He appeared as a burning serpent which sought to swallow him. AND HE ASKED, "Why a serpent?" AND HE REPLIED, "The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, 'You are going to slay a great and mighty serpent, REFERRING TO THE GREAT SEA CROCODILE THAT LIES IN THE RIVERS, WHO IS THE KING OF EGYPT, while your son is not yet circumcised.'" So immediately a serpent was given the intimation to kill MOSHE.

397. However, Tziporah understood and circumcised her son, as it is written: "And Tziporah took a flint" (Heb. tzor). And what is a tzor? TZOR also MEANS a remedy. And what was the remedy? To "cut off the foreskin of her son" (Ibid. 25). So because the Holy Spirit sparkled within her, MOSHE WAS SAVED FROM DEATH.

398. Another man stood and quoted, "And Yosef said to his brothers, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said..." (Bereshheet 45:4). AND HE ASKED, "Why did he have to call them, as they were close by?" AND HE REPLIED, "Because when he told them, 'I am Yosef your brother' they were astonished, because they saw him as elevated royalty. So Yosef told them, 'I gained this kingdom because of this-REFERRING TO CIRCUMCISION. 'Come near to me.'" They came nearer, and he showed them the sign of the covenant-the circumcision. He said: Because I have preserved the covenant, I have earned this kingdom.

399. From this we have learned that whoever keeps this sign of the covenant, the kingdom will be kept for him. And how do we know this? Another example is Boaz. As it is written: "as Hashem lives, lie down until the morning" (Rut 3:13). Because his lust was aroused and disturbed him until he took an oath-"AS HASHEM LIVES"-and preserved the sign of the covenant. As a result, his sons became kings and rulers over other kings, and the King Mashiach, who is called by the name of the Holy One, blessed be He. THEREFORE, KINGSHIP AWAITS HE WHO PRESERVES THE COVENANT FROM DEFILEMENT.

400. Another one then quoted, "Though a host should encamp against me..." (Tehilim 27:3). We have learned that "in this (Heb. zot) I trust" (Ibid.). What does 'zot (this)' refer to?" AND HE ANSWERED, "This is the sign of the covenant that always exists in a person and is hinted on high IN MALCHUT CALLED ZOT. Therefore, it is written as zot, just as it is also written: "This (Heb. zot) is the sign of the covenant" (Bereshheet 9:12) and "This (Heb. zot) is my covenant" (Yeshayah 59:21). All apply to the same grade. And we have learned, zeh (masc. this) and zot (fem. this) are both in the same grade and are not separated.

401. You might say, "If so, then the other people in the world are the same AS DAVID, AS THEY CAN SAY 'IN THIS (ZOT) I TRUST.' So why was David the only one to say so, and nobody else as well?" AND HE REPLIED, "Because THE GRADE OF ZOT is attached to DAVID and appears in him, MEANING THAT THE NAME OF DAVID ALLUDES TO MALCHUT and is the Crown of his kingdom.

402. Come and behold: Because King David did not preserve ZOT properly, the kingship was taken away from him during all that time THAT HE FOUGHT WITH AVSHALOM, HIS SON. And so we have learned that this Zot is hinted in the upper Kingdom and in the holy city of Jerusalem.

403. When David sinned WITH BAT-SHEVA, a voice went forth and said: 'David, You are to be disjoined-as you shall be banished from Jerusalem and the kingship shall be taken away from you-from that with which you were united, NAMELY ZOT, WHICH ALLUDES TO MALCHUT AND TO JERUSALEM.' How do we know this? From the verse, "Behold I will raise up evil against you out of your own house" (II Shmuel 12:11). Actually "your own house," HIS OWN HOUSE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF NUKVA THAT IS CALLED ZOT. AND THE "EVIL" MENTIONED IN THE VERSE REFERS TO HIS SEPARATION FROM HER. And so he was punished for having sinned. BECAUSE HE DID NOT PRESERVE THE GRADE OF ZOT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE COVENANT, HE WAS SEPARATED FROM HER. And if David was punished so, even more so the rest of the world!

404. Another continued the discussion with the verse, "Unless Hashem had been my help, my soul had soon dwelt in silence (Heb. Dumah)" (Tehilim 94:17). We have learned why Yisrael are saved from going down to Gehenom, unlike idol-worshipping nations, and are not handed over to the hands of Dumah, WHO IS THE GOVERNOR OF GEHENOM. They have merit because of the sign OF THE COVENANT.

405. Because we have learned that when a person passes from this world, hoards of Klipot fall upon him TO HURT HIM. But when they hold up their eyes and see this sign, which is the sacred covenant, they leave him and he is not handed over to the hands of Dumah to be taken down to Gehenom. Whoever is handed over to his hands shall definitely go down to Gehenom.

406. The upper and lower beings are afraid of this sign and do not inflict evil Judgments on the man who preserves it, because, by doing so, he becomes united with the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He.

401. ואי תימא, אי הכי הא שאר בני עלמא, הכי אמאי דוד בלחודוי, ולא אחרא. אלא, בגין דאחירא ביה, ואתרמיזא ביה, והוא כתרא דמלכותא.

402. תא חזי, בגין דהאי זאת, לא נטר ליה, דוד מלכא בדקא חזי, מלכותא אתעדי מניה, כל ההוא זמנא. והכי אוליפנא, האי זאת אתרמיזא במלכותא דלעילא, ואתרמיזא בירושלם קרתא קדישא.

403. בההוא שעתא דדוד עבר עליה, נמק קלא ואמר, דוד במה דאתקטרת השתרי. לך טרדין מירושלם, ומלכותא אתעדי מינך. מנ"ל, דכתיב הנני מקים עליך רעה מביתך. מביתך הייקא, והכי הוה, במה דעבר ביה אתענש, ומה דוד מלכא הכי, שאר בני עלמא על אחת כמה וכמה.

407. Because David did not preserve this sign of the covenant as he should have, kingship was taken away from him and he was banished from Jerusalem. He was afraid that he would immediately be brought down to be handed over to Dumah and that he would die in the World of Truth WITHOUT MERITING SPIRITUAL LIFE. Then he was given the good news. As it is written: "Hashem also has commuted your sin, you shall not die" (II Shmuel 12:13). At that very moment he exclaimed, "Unless Hashem had been my help, my soul had soon dwelt in silence (Dumah)," MEANING THAT HE WOULD HAVE BEEN HANDED OVER TO THE ANGEL DUMAH.

408. Another one continued the discussion by asking what is meant by the words of David, "and show me both him, and his habitation" (II Shmuel 15:25), for who is able to see the Holy One, blessed be He? AND HE REPLIES, "We have learned that at the moment when AVSHALOM decreed David's punishment, David knew that it was because BY SINING WITH BAT-SHEVA he did not preserve the sign, as he should have. So he was punished in this, IN HAVING HIS KINGDOM TAKEN AWAY FROM HIM, because everything is united as one and everything is alluded to in the sign, MALCHUT OF ABOVE AND JERUSALEM. And one is not a righteous man if he does not preserve the sign properly. For this reason, David prayed and said: "...and show me both him (Heb. oto), and his habitation."

409. What is oto? It is the sign of the holy covenant (Heb. ot), and David was afraid that he had lost it. Why DID HE THINK THAT HE HAD LOST THE SIGN OF THE COVENANT? Because these two-the kingdom and Jerusalem-are both attached TO THIS SIGN OF THE COVENANT. SO AS THE KINGSHIP WAS TAKEN AWAY FROM HIM AND HE WAS BANISHED FROM JERUSALEM, HE THOUGHT THAT THE SIGN OF THE COVENANT WAS ALSO TAKEN AWAY FROM HIM. Therefore in his prayer he linked "oto" and "His habitation" together, BECAUSE "OTO" ALLUDES TO THE SIGN THE COVENANT AND "HIS HABITATION" TO MALCHUT. So, he prayed that Malchut (Kingdom) which is attached to this sign (Heb. ot), may return to its place-and both subjects are actually the same.

410. Another one then continued with the text: "from my flesh shall I see Eloha" (Iyov 19:26). AND HE ASKS: What is "my flesh"? He should have said 'myself.' AND HE REPLIED THAT "from my flesh" is definitely correct, REFERRING TO YESOD WHICH IS CALLED FLESH, HE SAID: "...SHALL I SEE ELOHA." What is the meaning of "and the holy flesh is passed from you..." (Yirmeyah 11:15), WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE HOLY COVENANT, and: "and my covenant shall be in your flesh..." (Beresheet 17:13), WHICH APPLIES TO YESOD. We have learned that as long as a man is stamped by the holy imprint of this sign, THAT THIS SIGN OF THE COVENANT IS STAMPED IN HIM AND GUARDS HIM ALWAYS, then from within it he can actually see the Holy One, blessed be He, and the holy soul remains attached to him in the sign of the covenant.

411. But if he is not deserving, because he did not preserve this sign, what is written of him? IT IS WRITTEN: "By the breath (or, soul) of Eloha they perish..." (Iyov 4:9), because the imprint of the Holy One, blessed be He, has not been preserved. If he has the merit of preserving it, then the Shechinah shall never depart from him.

411. וְאֵי לֹא זָכִי, דְּלֹא נִטַר הָאֵי אֶת, מַה כְּתִיב מְנִשְׁמַת אֱלוֹהִי יֵאבְדוּ. דְּהָא רְשִׁימוֹ דְּקַדְּשָׁא בְּרִינְךָ הוּא לֹא אֲתַנְטִיר. וְאֵי זָכִי וְנִטַר לִיָּה, שְׁכִינְתָּא לֹא אֲתַמְרַשׁ מְנִיָּה.

412. AND HE ASKS: When does THE SHECHINAH reside within him? AND HE SAID: When he marries, and this sign enters to its place, TO THE SHECHINAH. Then they are attached together, THE MALE AND THE FEMALE, WHO ARE THE SIGN OF THE COVENANT AND THE SHECHINAH, and are called by one name, and supernal Chesed rests upon them. Where does CHESSED rest? It rests at the side of the male. And what is Chesed? It is Chesed IN THE NAME of El, that comes forth from the supernal Chochmah and adorns the male as a crown over his head. And by these CHASSADIM, the female is sweetened.

413. And we have learned further (IN EXPLANATION OF THE PREVIOUS PASSAGE) THAT the name Eloha (El-Vav-Hei) is interpreted as follows: El is the Light of Chochmah, Vav is the male, and Hei is the female. MALE AND FEMALE are attached together and are called BY ONE NAME, Eloha. So the holy soul clings to this place, and everything depends on the sign OF THE COVENANT.

414. Hence the words, "from my flesh shall I see Eloha," REFERRING TO THE NAME ELOHA, represent overall completion, because it is "from my flesh", my own-WHICH IS YESOD THAT IS CALLED FLESH-the actual sign of the covenant. Therefore, happy are the holy Yisrael who are united with the Holy One, blessed be He; happy is their portion in this world and the world to come. Of them, it is written: "You that cleave to Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day" (Devarim 4:4)."

415. Rabbi Aba said: You are all so wise, yet you sit here! They said to him: If birds are uprooted from their homes, they shall not know where to fly. As it is written: "As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place" (Mishlei 27:8).

416. So this place, WHERE WE LIVE, has given us the advantage of studying Torah, and also our habit to sleep half the night and to study Torah during the second half. When we rise in the morning, the smell of the fields and water streams illuminates the words of Torah, and they are instilled to our hearts.

417. This place was once punished from above, and many great scholars died because they neglected the study of Torah. Since then, our occupation is studying Torah, day and night, and this place helps us. So whoever leaves this place acts as if he were abandoning eternal life.

418. Rabbi Aba raised up his hands, and blessed them. They sat until daylight shone. And after daylight had shone, they told the children who sat in front of them, "Go out and see if day has come." And each one of you should give a new explanation of the Torah to this great man, A REFERENCE TO RABBI ABA!

419. They went outside and saw that day had come. One of them said: It is destined that a fire from above shall appear on this day! Another one added: And in this house! Another then said: An old man here is destined to be burned by this fire on this day! Rabbi Aba said: Let the Merciful One save us!

420. RABBI ABA was astonished and could not speak. Then he said: The secret of the supernal government is grasped on earth, BECAUSE EVEN THE CHILDREN KNOW HOW TO TELL THE FUTURE. And so it was! On that same day, the friends saw the face of the Shechinah and were surrounded by fire. And Rabbi Aba's face was aflame with the light of the fire from the joy of the Torah.

421. We have learned that all that day, they all did not leave the house, which was enveloped with fire and flame. And the words that were uttered brought happiness among them, as though they received Torah on that day from Mount Sinai. So that when they left that place, they did not know whether it was day or night. Rabbi Aba said: As long as we are here, each of us should say a new word of wisdom, in order to present a fitting return to the landlord, the host of the celebration.

422. One of them opened the discussion with the verse, "Blessed is the man whom You choose and cause to approach You, that he may dwell in Your courts...; we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, the holy place of Your temple" (Tehilim 65:5). THE VERSE first SAYS: "Your courts," then "Your house," and then "Your temple"-one within the other and one above the other. THIS MEANS THAT MALCHUT HAS THREE GRADES FROM BOTTOM TO TOP, EACH ONE HIGHER THAN THE OTHER. The first is "Your court," WHICH ALLUDES TO THE ASPECTS OF NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD THAT ARE OUTSIDE OF THE BODY AND ARE CALLED "YOUR COURTS." As it is written: "And is shall come to pass, that he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy" (Yeshayah 4:3). BECAUSE THE ESSENCE OF NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD IS YESOD. TZION IS THE INTERNAL ASPECT OF YESOD AND JERUSALEM ITS EXTERNAL ASPECT; BOTH ARE CALLED "COURTS."

423. The verse "We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house" comes next, MEANING THAT AFTER THE GRADE OF THE COURT IS COMPLETED, HE THEN MERITS THE GRADE OF THE HOUSE. It is written: "Through wisdom is a house built" (Mishlei 24:3); it is not written: "wisdom will build a house," which would have meant that the wisdom is called a house. Therefore, "Through wisdom is a house built" MEANS THAT WHEN MALCHUT RECEIVES CHOCHMAH, IT IS CALLED A HOUSE. This relates to the verse, "a river went out of Eden to water the garden" (Bereshheet 2:10), WHICH IS THE SECRET OF BINAH RETURNING TO CHOCHMAH, AND THE GARDEN IS MALCHUT.

424. Finally comes "the holy place of Your temple (Heb. heichal)," which is the completion of all. As we have learned, heichal (Hei Yud Caf Lamed) means Hei Kol (Hei Yud Caf Lamed). HE WHO MERITS THIS GRADE IS ASTONISHED AND EXCLAIMS, "HOW WAS ALL (HEB. KOL) THIS REVEALED!" And all here reaches completion, WHICH MEANS THAT EVERYTHING HAS NOW REACHED FULL PERFECTION.

425. What does the beginning of the verse teach us? The verse opens, "Blessed is the man whom You choose and cause to approach to You, that he may dwell in Your courts." THIS MEANS THAT whoever offers his son as a sacrifice before the Holy One, blessed be He, CIRCUMCISES HIM, gives something desirable to the Holy One, blessed be, Who then wants him and brings him closer to Himself. There he dwells in the two chambers OF YESOD, WHICH ARE TZION AND JERUSALEM. He clings to both of them, because they are joined as one, as it is written: "that he may dwell in Your courts," "courts" being two!

426. This is why the pious men who lived here in earlier days, the grandfathers of these people, when they offered their sons to this sacrifice OF CIRCUMCISION began by saying, "Blessed is the man whom You choose, and causes to approach to You, that he may dwell in Your courts." Those who were present there said: "We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, of the holy place of Your temple." After this, he would say the blessing, '...who sanctified us with His commandments and commanded us to initiate the child in the covenant of the patriarch Avraham.' And those present responded: 'Just as you have initiated him to the covenant...'

427. As we have learned, a person should first ask for mercy for himself, and then for another, as it is written: "and he shall make an atonement for himself" at first, and afterward "for all the congregation of Yisrael" (Vayikra 16:17). We have chosen this path, which is good and suitable for us. THEREFORE THE HOST OF THE CELEBRATION OF THE CIRCUMCISION SHOULD AT FIRST RECITE VERSES TO ASK FOR MERCY, AND THEN THOSE WHO ARE PRESENT RECITE AFTER HIM.

428. Rabbi Aba said: "This is definitely well said," REFERRING TO THE VERSE, "BLESSED IS THE MAN WHOM YOU CHOOSE..." He who does not recite this is excluded from under the ten canopies that the Holy One, blessed be He, shall prepare in the future for the righteous men in the world to come. And everyone should be attached to this VERSE! Therefore this verse contains ten words of faith, "Blessed is the man..." and from each word a canopy is prepared.

429. Happy are your portions in this world and in the world to come, as Torah is absorbed into your hearts, as if you were standing yourselves on Mount Sinai at the time when the Torah was given to Yisrael.

430. Another person began by saying, "An altar of earth you shall make for Me, and shall sacrifice thereon your burnt offerings and your peace offerings..." (Shemot 20:21). We have learned that whoever offers his son as a sacrifice THROUGH CIRCUMCISION is as deserving as one who has offered all the sacrifices in the world before the Holy One, blessed be He. It is as though he were building a perfect altar to Him!

431. Thus, the circumcision to this holy covenant should be performed over an altar prepared by using a vessel full of earth. It is considered before the Holy One, blessed be He, as if he had offered sacrifices of sheep and oxen upon the altar.

432. And it, THE CIRCUMCISION, pleases the Holy One, blessed be He, more than all THE OTHER SACRIFICES, as it is written: "and shall sacrifice thereon your burnt offerings and your peace offerings...in every place where I mention My name..." What do the words "I mention My name" mean? They refer to circumcision, as it is written: "The secret of Hashem is with them that fear Him, and He will reveal to them his covenant" (Tehilim 25:14). SO THE COVENANT APPEARS THERE!

433. This "altar of earth" is as I have stated. Next, it is written: "And if they make Me an altar of stones" (Shemot 20:22), which is an allusion to the proselyte who comes from a stiff-necked and stony-hearted people. This is what is referred to as an altar of stones.

434. What is the meaning of the verse, "you shall not build it of hewn stones?" (Ibid.) IT MEANS THAT the proselyte should enter to the service of the Holy One, blessed be He, but should not be circumcised until he has forgotten the idol worshipping that he practiced until then and the hardness is removed from his heart.

435. Because if he is circumcised before he removes the hardness from his heart in order to join in the holy service of the Holy One, blessed be He, he will be like a statue of stone that is hewn on all sides, but still remains a stone. Because of this, "You shall not build it of hewn stones," because if he still has harshness in his heart, then "you lift up your tool upon it, you have defiled it." This means that the circumcision performed on him serves no purpose.

436. Therefore happy is the fate of he who willingly and joyously offers the sacrifice to the Holy One, blessed be He. And one should rejoice with this person all day long, as it is written: "But let all those that put their trust in You rejoice, let them ever shout for joy, because You defend them, and let those who love Your name be joyful in You" (Tehilim 5:12).

437. Another one began by saying, "And when Avram was ninety nine years old (lit. 'ninety year and nine years'), Hashem appeared before Avram and said to him, I am El Shadai; walk before me, and be perfect" (Beresheet 17:1). This passage should be studied carefully, because in many ways it is difficult. Could it be saying that only now, when Avraham reached such an age, did the Holy One, blessed be He, appear for the first time to Avraham? -That "Hashem appeared to Avram", now and never before? But HOW CAN THIS BE, WHEN it has previously been written: "Now Hashem has said to Avram," (Beresheet 12:1) "And Hashem said to Avram," (Beresheet 13:14) "And He said to Avram, know surely..." (Beresheet 15:13). Yet now, as he is counting and calculating the days, it is written: "Hashem appeared to Avram..." which means that until now Hashem did not appear to him. Further, as it is written: "when Avram was ninety year and nine years," it first SAYS "year" and concludes with "years."

438. What is the reason that for all the days until now it was not written: "AND HASHEM appeared TO AVRAM?" We have learned that as long as he was uncircumcised and covered, the Holy One, blessed be He, did not appear to him properly. But now He did appear to him properly, as it is written: "And...appeared." For what purpose? To expose in him the sign of the covenant, which is the holy crown.

439. Furthermore, the Holy One, blessed be He, desired to bring forth holy seed from him, and this could not happen as long as Avraham remained with uncovered flesh. So the Holy One, blessed be He, said "Now, that he is ninety year and nine years old, and the time is close for the holy seed to issue from him, MEANING THAT HE IS ALMOST 100 YEARS OLD, let him first become holy, LET HIM FIRST CIRCUMCISE HIMSELF, and after that let the holy seed come forth." This is why his age was counted in this manner now, REFERRING TO THE "NINE YEARS," BECAUSE HE WAS NOW NEAR THE RIGHT AGE TO BEGET HIS CHILD IN COMPLETE PERFECTION, and not at any other time before, REFERRING TO THE OTHER NINETY YEARS, WHEN HE WAS STILL NOT READY TO BEGET HOLY DESCENDANTS. THEREFORE, THESE YEARS ARE DESCRIBED AS "NINETY YEAR" AND NOT "YEARS."

440. Furthermore, THE VERSE SAYS "ninety year" AND NOT YEARS because all the days before HIS CIRCUMCISION were not years. Rather, THEY WERE CONSIDERED AS one year. THIS IS because his days were not considered as days. Only now, as he reached these years, REFERRING TO THE 99TH YEAR, DURING WHICH HE WAS CIRCUMCISED, were they counted as years for him. Therefore they are not counted as a year, BUT RATHER, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "NINE YEARS."

441. Of the verse, "and He said to him, I am El Shadai," HE ASKS, "Why has not THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE said to him until now 'I am El Shadai'." AND HE REPLIES, "Because we have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, prepared DOWN BELOW lower Crowns, that are not holy. So all those who are uncircumcised are defiled by them."

442. And these LOWER CROWNS have marks! What are these marks? They are the letters Shin and Dalet; nothing else appears in them. THIS MEANING THAT THE YUD IN THE NAME SHADAI IS MISSING FROM THERE. This is why they are defiled by them, and cling on to them-TO THOSE LOWER CROWNS. After they are circumcised, they leave them-THOSE LOWER CROWNS-and enter under the wings of the Shechinah, and Yud, which is the mark of holiness, is revealed from within them. This is the regular, complete, and proper sign of the covenant. And the name Shadai is imprinted upon those who are circumcised and is completed in full perfection. Therefore, it is written ABOUT AVRAHAM; "I am El Shadai," WHICH WAS NOT WRITTEN BEFORE HE WAS COMMANDED TO PERFORM CIRCUMCISION.

443. In the verse, "walk before me, and be perfect" (Beresheet 17:1), "PERFECT" MEANS complete. Because until now the letter YUD was missing in the mark of Shin-Dalet. THEREFORE, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAID TO HIM, "Circumcise yourself, and be completed by the mark of the Yud," SO THE NAME SHADAI (SHIN-DALET-YUD) MAY REACH COMPLETION IN YOU. Because whoever is completed by this mark is worthy of being blessed by this Name, as it is written: "And El Shadai shall bless you..." (Beresheet 28:3).

444. AND HE ASKS, "What is the meaning of THE NAME 'El Shadai'?" AND HE ANSWERS, "This is THE NAME from which all the blessings issue. It controls all the lower crowns. And all are in awe and tremble from fear of it. Therefore, all those who are impure stay away from him who has been circumcised and have no control over him. In addition, he is not pulled down to Gehenom, as it is written: "Your people also shall be all righteous..." (Yeshayah 60: 21).

445. Rabbi Aba said: "Happy is your lot in this world and in the world to come. Happy is my fate that I have come here and heard these words from your mouths-all of you are holy. You are all the sons of the holy Elohim. Of you it is written: 'One shall say, I am Hashem's, and another shall call himself by the name of Ya'akov, and another shall subscribe with his hand to Hashem and surname himself by the name of Yisrael' (Yeshayah 44:5). Each of you clings to the holy supernal King and is attached to Him. And you are ruling governors with shields, from that land that is called the land of the living, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA THAT ENCLOSES THE UPPER IMA, where its governors feed on the manna of the sacred dew."

446. Another continued the discussion with "Blessed are you, O land, when your king is a free man and your princes eat in due season..." (Kohelet 10:17). Consider also the previous verse, "Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning" (Ibid. 16). These two verses do not seem to agree with each other. THE "LAND" REFERS TO THE NUKVA, BUT ONE VERSE SAYS "YOUR KING IS A FREE MAN"; THE OTHER THAT "YOUR KING IS A CHILD!" AND HE SAID: "Indeed they do not CONTRADICT EACH OTHER. "Blessed are you, land" refers to the land above, NAMELY THE NUKVA THAT ASCENDED UPWARD AND ENCLOSED BINAH, which governs all life on high-IN BINAH. For this reason, it is called the land of the living. Of this land it is written: "land which Hashem your Elohim cares for..." (Devarim 11:12) and "A land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack anything in it..." (Devarim 8:9). Exactly! "You shall not lack anything in it" MEANS THAT IT IS NOURISHED BY A NEVER-ENDING UNION. Wherefore all this? Because, as it is written: "your king is the son of a free man." This is the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, as you may read, "Yisrael is my son, My firstborn" (Shemot 4:22).

447. AND HE ASKED, "What is THE MEANING OF the son of a free man?" AND HE ANSWERED, "As you may read, 'For it is the Yovel (Jubilee), it shall be holy to you...'" (Vayikra 25:12). YOVEL (JUBILEE) ALLUDES TO BINAH. And it is further written: "and proclaim liberty throughout all the land..." (Ibid. 10). So all freedom is derived from Yovel (Jubilee), WHICH IS BINAH, Therefore, WHEN ZEIR ANPIN ATTAINS THE MOCHIN OF BINAH, HE IS THEN CALLED "a free man!" AND HE SAID: "You may ask why IS IT WRITTEN 'chorin (masc. a free man)' and not 'cherut (fem. Freedom)?" AND HE REPLIED, "Definitely, it should be 'a man of freedom!'"

448. IF SO, THEN WHY IS IT WRITTEN: "A FREE MAN?" We have learned the answer in our secret Mishnah. When the Yud and the Hei are united, it is written: "And a river went out of Eden, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, to water the garden" (Bereshheet 2:10). It does not say, "When they are united," but assuredly "they are united." Therefore, it is written: "the son of a free man." This, THEN, is the reason why the verse describes ZEIR ANPIN, "Blessed are you, land, when your king is a free man and your princes eat in due season," NAMELY with pleasure and contentment!

449. The verse "Woe to you, land, when your king is a child" refers to the land down below; NAMELY THE NUKVA THAT IS IN THE WORLD OF BRIYAH, WHO IS THE WIFE OF MATATRON. For we have learned that all the lands that belong to nations that worship the stars and constellations are ruled by the governors. And the highest of them all is he of whom it is written: "I have been young, and now am old" (Tehilim 37:25). And we have also learned that the verse was spoken by the governor of the world, NAMELY MATATRON, WHO IS CALLED "A LAD." Of him it is written: "Woe to the land, when the king is a child." Woe to the world that draws its nourishment from this aspect, NAMELY THE ASPECT OF MATATRON. But when Yisrael are in exile, they draw their nourishment from him, as one who feeds on a stranger BECAUSE YISRAEL ARE SUPPOSED TO DERIVE THEIR SUSTENANCE FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, AND NOT FROM MATATRON!

450. The verse says that "your princes eat in the morning" and not during the other hours of the day. The morning IS MENTIONED, and the other times of the day are not. We have learned that when the sun shines AND THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD bow to the sun, wrath hangs over the world, as it also does at the hour of the afternoon prayer, BECAUSE THAT IS THE TIME OF JUDGMENT. Why is this true? Because "your king is a lad"-he who is called "a lad," NAMELY MATATRON.

451. And you, truly pious and holy men of above, the sons of the Holy King, do not derive sustenance from that aspect OF MATATRON, but rather from that holy place on high, NAMELY THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN WHICH IS CALLED THE LAND OF THE LIVING. Of you it is written: "You that cleave to Hashem your Elohim are alive everyone of you this day" (Devarim 4:4).

451. ואתון זכאי קשוט, קדישי עליונין, בני מלכא קדישא, לא ינקין מהאי סטררא, אלא מההוא אתר קדישא דלעילא, עליוכו כתיב ואתם הדבקים בה' אלהיכם חיים כלכם היום.

452. Rabbi Aba then discoursed on the verse, "Now I will sing to my friend a song of my beloved for his vineyard...And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof..." (Yeshayah 5:1-2). These verses should be studied carefully. Why does it read, "a song" rather than "a reprimand?" BECAUSE THESE ARE WORDS OF REPROOF TO YISRAEL. AND FURTHERMORE, IT IS WRITTEN: "to my friend," when it should have been written: "to my beloved," just as it is written: "a song of my beloved!" IN ADDITION, IT IS WRITTEN: "My friend has a vineyard in a very fruitful hill (Heb. Keren Ben Shemen)" (Yeshayah 5:1-2). But I have searched the entire Torah and cannot find a place called "Keren Ben Shemen!"

453. AND HE REPLIED, "These verses are clarified by the friends in different ways, all of which are good and correct. Nevertheless, "Now will I sing to my friend," refers to Yitzchak, who was a "friend" and was named "friend" before he even came to this world. THUS WE SAY ABOUT HIM, "HE WHO HAS SANCTIFIED A FRIEND FROM THE WOMB."

454. AND HE ASKS, "Why WAS YITZCHAK CALLED "a friend?" AND HE ANSWERS, "Because we have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, bore a great love for Yitzchak, who was not conceived until Avraham, the patriarch, was circumcised and called 'perfect'." ONLY THEN WAS HE TOLD, "AND BE PERFECT." And the Hei was added TO HIS NAME for perfection, as well as to Sarah's name. THEN HE WAS CALLED AVRAHAM AND SHE SARAH!

455. This should be studied! The Hei THAT WAS GIVEN to Sarah is suitable, but why was Avraham given the Hei and not the Yud. The Yud should have been added to his name, because he is a male, AND THE ASPECT OF YUD BELONGS TO THE MALE, WHILE THE ASPECT OF THE HEI BELONGS TO THE FEMALE! AND HE REPLIES, "There is a sublime secret of a concealed aspect. Avraham rose up and took a secret from the upper Hei, BINAH, which is the world of the male. Because of the upper Hei and lower Hei OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, one relates to the male, NAMELY THE UPPER HEI, and one relates to the female, NAMELY THE LOWER HEI. SO THE HEI THAT AVRAHAM TOOK IS THE UPPER HEI, WHICH BELONGS TO THE MALE, NAMELY BINAH.

456. As it is written: "So (Heb. koh) shall your seed be" (Beresheet 15:5). And we have learned that "your seed" is actually "your seed!" THIS MEANS THAT KOH, WHICH IS MALCHUT, SHALL BE HIS ACTUAL SEED. He started to enter to this covenant, and whoever starts to enter, does actually enter to this covenant, WHICH IS MALCHUT THAT IS CALLED KOH. Therefore, a proselyte who is circumcised is called "a proselyte of righteousness," because he does not come from the "holy seed" that was circumcised AND HE STARTS TO ENTER TO THE COVENANT, AND WHOEVER STARTS ENTERS IN MALCHUT. So whoever enters this, NAMELY MALCHUT THAT IS CALLED "RIGHTEOUSNESS," is called by this name, A PROSELYTE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS.

453. אלא הני קראי הא אוקמוה חברינא בכמה גוונין, וכלהו שפיר והכי הוא. אבל אשירה נא לידידי, דא יצחק, דהוה ידיד, ואקרי ידיד עד לא יפוק לעלמא.

454. אמאי ידיד. דתנינן רחימו סגי הוה ליה לקדשא בריך הוא ביה, דלא אתעביד, עד דלא אתגזר אברהם אבה, ואקרי שלים, ואתוסף ליה ה"א לאשלמותא. וכן לשרה האי ה"א אתיהיבת לה.

457. This is why it is written of Avraham. "So (Koh) shall your seed be," which means "your seed" exactly. BECAUSE THE TERM KOH, WHICH IS THE LOWER HEI, NAMELY MALCHUT, SHALL ACTUALLY BE "YOUR SEED." Therefore he was given the Hei. AS HE CONTINUES TO EXPLAIN HOW MALCHUT BECOMES HIS "SEED," HE SAYS: The two Heis, WHICH ARE BINAH AND MALCHUT, are joined together. AFTER AVRAHAM ROSE TO THE FIRST HEI, THE LOWER HEI, MALCHUT, ROSE UP TO HIM, AND THE TWO JOINED TOGETHER. Then they gave birth up there IN BINAH. And what issues from those, AS THE LEFT COLUMN IS FORMED, is Yud. This is why Yud, WHICH IS THE ASPECT OF the male, is the first letter of the name of Yitzchak. From here, the male expands, BECAUSE FROM THE SECRET OF YUD THE MALE STARTS TO EXPAND. Because of this, it is written: "for in Yitzchak shall your seed be called" (Bereshheet 21:12). IT SAYS "in Yitzchak," and not in you. Yitzchak bore above, as it is written: "You will show truth to Ya'akov" (Michah 7:20), who completed everything.

458. You might claim, "But it was Avraham who was attached to this grade," WHO, IN OTHER WORDS, BECAME INCLUDED IN THE ASPECT OF THE LEFT COLUMN OF YITZCHAK, and no more! Yet it is written: "Kindness (Chesed) to Avraham" (Michah 7:20), SO HE IS ATTACHED TO THE RIGHT! AND HE REPLIED, "His portion is indeed so, NAMELY CHESED, because he showed kindness to the people of the world. But to beget children, he remained attached to this grade, MEANING THAT HE BECAME INCLUDED WITHIN THE LEFT COLUMN, and from here he begins, BECAUSE THERE IS NO BEGETTING WITHOUT THE ASPECT OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS ACHIEVED BY COMBINING THE RIGHT AND LEFT TOGETHER. AND THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE "IN YITZCHAK SHALL YOUR SEED BE CALLED," AND NOT IN YOU. This is why Avraham was not circumcised until the age of ninety nine years. And this secret is known and explained in our Mishnah.

459. For this, Yitzchak, who is harsh Judgment, AND IS THE LEFT COLUMN THAT WAS BLOCKED BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF CHASSADIM, came forth to complete his share and beget the CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS YA'AKOV and is called Chesed. THEN, RIGHT AND LEFT WERE INCLUDED IN EACH OTHER. This is how Ya'akov completed everything from this side, THE RIGHT SIDE, and from that side, THE LEFT SIDE, from the side where Avraham and Yitzchak were combined in their portion on high THROUGH YA'AKOV WHO IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN. AND BY THIS, THE CHASSADIM OF THE RIGHT WERE COMPLETED-this is ONE completion-OF YA'AKOV. And from the side that was given the ability to give birth and beget from below upward this is THE SECOND completion FOR YA'AKOV. Therefore it is written: "Yisrael, in whom I will be glorified" (Yeshayah 49:3), BECAUSE in him, IN YISRAEL, were the colors, NAMELY THE LIGHTS, completed from above and below!

460. This is why it is written "a song" in the verse "Now will I sing to my friend" AND NOT A REPROVAL. This is definitely a song, because he is called to beget a male. HIS MENTION OF "MY FRIEND" ALLUDES TO BEGETTING A MALE, WHO IS YITZCHAK, THE MOCHIN OF THE LEFT COLUMN OF BINAH, WHICH THE WORLD OF THE MALE. He was call a "friend" before he appeared in the world.

461. There are those who say that "Now will I sing to my friend" refers to Avraham, as it is written: "What has my friend to do in my house" (Yirmeyah 11:15), WHICH REFERS TO AVRAHAM. SO MY FRIEND HERE ALSO REFERS TO AVRAHAM. And Avraham inherited the portion of this field, WHICH IS MALCHUT THAT IS CALLED HERE "VINEYARD." AND HE RECITES A SONG OF MY BELOVED FOR HIS VINEYARD. "But," RABBI ABA SAID: "What I have said-that it is Yitzchak-is indeed so."

457. אַבְרָהָם, בְּגִין כְּרִכְתִּיב בֵּיהַּ כֹּה יִהְיֶה זְרַעְךָ, זְרַעַךְ מִמֶּשׁ, וְאֶתְמַסֵּר לִיהֵ ה"א. אֶתְחַבְּרוּ תְרִין הַהִי"ן בְּחֻדָּא, וְאוֹלִידוּ לְעִילָא, וּמֵאִי דְנִפְק מִנִּיּוּהוּ, הוּא יו"ד, בְּגִינֵי כֶךְ, יו"ד אֶת רִישָׁא דְיִצְחָק, דְּכֵר. מִכָּאן שְׁאֵרֵי דְכוּרָא לְאַתְפְּשֻׁטָא, וְעַל דְאַכְתִּיב בֵּי בִיּוֹצְחָק יִקְרָא לֶךְ זְרַע. בִּיּוֹצְחָק, וְלֹא בֶךְ. יִצְחָק אוֹלִיד לְעִילָא, דְכֵתִיב תַּתָּן אִמָּת לְיַעֲקֹב. יַעֲקֹב אֲשֵׁלִים כְּלָא.

462. In the verse "A song of my beloved for his vineyard," my beloved refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, who is called "my beloved," as it is written: "My beloved is white and ruddy" (Shir Hashirim 5:10). When my friend is united with my beloved, he is a male. AND THEN, from this WITH THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT COLUMN OF BINAH, he planted a vineyard, WHICH IS MALCHUT AND NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "My beloved has a vineyard" (Yeshayah 5:1), BECAUSE MALCHUT IS CONSTRUCTED BY THE LEFT COLUMN OF BINAH.

463. In discoursing on the verse "a very fruitful hill (Heb. Keren Ben Shemen)," HE ASKS, "What is Keren Ben Shemen? AND HE REPLIED, "This is TO TEACH US how the vineyard came to be and how it was planted!" So he repeated, "by keren!" And what is the keren? This is, as it is written: "with the ram's horn (lit. 'with the horn [keren] of Yovel [Jubilee])" (Yehoshua 6:5), WHICH ALLUDES TO MALCHUT THAT IS SWEETENED BY BINAH. BECAUSE KEREN IS MALCHUT, WHILE THE YOVEL IS BINAH. And this Keren THAT APPEARS HERE has joined this male that is called Ben Shemen (lit. 'the Son of Oil'), WHICH IS ALSO BINAH. THE VERSE TEACHES US, THAT THE EMERGENCE AND PLANTING OF THE VINEYARD, MALCHUT, WAS BROUGHT ABOUT BY ITS ASCENDING TO BINAH, WHICH IS MALE.

464. HE ASKED, "What is THE MEANING OF 'Ben Shemen' (the Son of Oil)?" AND HE RESPONDS, "This is the equivalent of the verse (Heb. ben or bar) a free man," WHICH MEANS BINAH. And both of them-BEN SHEMEN AND YOVEL-are the same thing, NAMELY BINAH. AND THIS IS CALLED Shemen (oil) because from there, BINAH, the oil and greatness is drawn for the purpose of lighting the candles. Thus, "the son of oil." And this Keren, WHICH IS MALCHUT, assembles them all, and this is ALSO CALLED, the Keren (horn) of the Yovel (Jubilee). Therefore, the kingship is anointed only by this horn, and the kingship of THE HOUSE OF David endures because he was anointed with the horn and was attached to it.

465. The verse continues with the words, "And he fenced it..." AND NOW HE EXPLAINS THIS VERSE, DESCRIBING HOW THE VINEYARD CAME FORTH AND WAS BORN BY KEREN BEN SHEMEN, OR, IN OTHER WORDS, BY ASCENDING TO BINAH. SO HE SAID: "And he fenced it," WHICH MEANS THAT HE RESTRICTED IT AND FENCED IT ALL AROUND, just like a ring that surrounds it from all directions. "And gathered out the stones thereof" MEANS THAT he removed all the great ones and all the governors and the lower crowns from his portion and his vineyard. Then He, NAMELY BINAH, took the vineyard to be his portion. THIS MEANS THAT IT CLUNG TO BINAH AND BECAME A PART OF BINAH, as it is written: "For Hashem's portion is His people; Ya'akov is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9). BECAUSE AS MALCHUT HAS BECOME A PART OF BINAH, SO YISRAEL HAS BECOME A PART OF BINAH, BECAUSE THEY ARE ATTACHED TO IT.

466. The verse, "and planted it with the choicest vine" is similar to the verse "I had planted you a noble vine, an entirely (Heb. kuloh) right seed..." (Yirmeyah 2:21). It is written kuloh with the letter Hei. SO IT IS AS THOUGH IT WERE WRITTEN: KOL (ALL) HEI, WHICH MEANS ALL OF HEI, WHICH IS MALCHUT. And from this stage Avraham started to beget YITZCHAK above. THEREFORE HE SAYS: "and from here the 'right seed' issued-definitely "an entirely right seed," BECAUSE THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH IS CALLED RIGHT OR TRUTH. And as it is written: "So (Koh) shall your seed be," BECAUSE WHEN THE LEFT COLUMN SHINES IN MALCHUT, IT IS CALLED KOH. Thus, they are the same: "THE CHOICEST VINE," "THE RIGHT SEED," THE FATHERING OF YITZCHAK, AND "KOH SHALL YOUR SEED BE." THEY ALL REFER TO THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT FROM BINAH. Happy is the lot of Yisrael, who receive such a great inheritance.

467. The verse continues, "and built a tower in the midst of it." AND HE ASKS, "What is a tower?" AND HE RESPONDS, "This is as it is written: 'The name of Hashem is a strong tower, the righteous runs to it, and is safe'" (Mishlei 18:10). Assuredly, "the righteous runs to it."

468. The text, "and also made a winepress therein" refers to the "gate of righteousness," as it is written: "Open to me the gates of righteousness..." (Tehilim 118:19). AND HE ASKS, "What is the meaning OF THE VERSE 'OPEN TO ME THE GATES OF RIGHTEOUSNESS'?" AND HE ANSWERS, "Each person among Yisrael who is circumcised enters and merits them both, THIS IS WHY DAVID PLEADED, "OPEN TO ME THE GATES OF RIGHTEOUSNESS" in order to merit them both.

469. He who offers his son for the sacrifice OF CIRCUMCISION brings his son to the Holy Name. And the heavens and earth are based upon this sign, as it is written: "If My covenant be not day and night, it were as if I had not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth" (Yirmeyah 33:25). So our host has merited all this, AND HE HAD THE PRIVILEGE to see the Holy One, blessed be He, face to face on this day.

470. Happy is our lot that we have merited this day, and happy is your lot together with ours. And upon this boy that is born to you, I pronounce, "Everyone that is called by my name...I have formed him: yea, I have made him" (Yeshayah 43:7), and "And all your children shall be taught of Hashem..." (Yeshayah 54:13). Then he accompanied Rabbi Aba for three miles.

471. They said to RABBI ABA, "The host who made the ceremony, the owner of your guest house, has merited all this because he performed a precept!" He asked, "What is the precept?" Then that man, THE OWNER OF THE GUESTHOUSE, said: "My wife was the wife of my brother, who died childless. So I married her. And this is the first child that I got from her, and I named him after my dead brother." He said to him, "From now on you shall call him Iddi. He is Iddi the son of Ya'akov!" Rabbi Aba then blessed them and went on his way.

472. When he arrived at his destination, he told everything to Rabbi Elazar, but he was afraid to tell it in front of Rabbi Shimon, WHO MIGHT PUNISH THEM FOR REVEALING THE SECRETS. One day, while with Rabbi Shimon, Rabbi Shimon said: "Why is it written: 'And Avram fell on his face and Elohim spoke with him, saying, as for Me, behold My covenant is with you'" (Beresheet 17:3-4). This means that as long as he was not circumcised, he fell on his face when He spoke with him. But after he was circumcised, he stood upright and was not afraid. "As for Me, behold My covenant is with you," MEANING THAT he found himself to be circumcised, AS THE WORDS OF HASHEM AFFECTED HIM AND HE BECAME CIRCUMCISED!

473. Rabbi Aba said to him, "I hope it will be pleasing in the eyes of my master for me to say a few of those good things that I have heard about this subject." He said to him: "Speak!" He said to him, "I am afraid that somebody might be punished because of me." Rabbi Shimon said: "Heaven forbid, 'He shall not be afraid of evil tidings, his heart is fixed, trusting in Hashem'" (Tehilim 112:7). Rabbi Aba then told him every thing that had happened.

474. Rabbi Shimon said: "Could it be that all these good things were hidden in you and you did not reveal them! I hereby bring a decree upon you that for the next 30 days you shall immediately forget everything you learn! Is it not written: "Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it" (Mishlei 13.27)? And so it came to be THAT HE FORGOT EVERYTHING HE LEARNED! He, RABBI SHIMON, said: "I bring a decree that they with their learnings; REFERRING TO THE OWNER OF THE GUESTHOUSE AND HIS FRIENDS, be banished to Babylon, where they will stay among the friends THAT LIVE THERE.

475. Rabbi Aba's mind became confused. One day, Rabbi Shimon saw him and said: "The reflection of your heart can be seen in your face." RABBI ABA responded, "I am not sorrowful for myself, but for them, AS RABBI SHIMON PUNISHED THEM TO EXILE IN BABYLON. RABBI SHIMON THEN said: "Heaven forbid, that they were punished. Rather, because the secrets were revealed among them so openly, I BROUGHT A DECREE UPON THEM, that they be banished and be among the friends IN BABYLON, where they will learn to conceal and hide the secrets among them. Because the secrets should be revealed only among us, as the Holy One, blessed be He, gave permission to us. So through us only should these things be revealed."

476. Rabbi Yosi said: It is written: "Then shall your light break forth as the morning..." (Yeshayah 58:8). The Holy One, blessed be He, shall in the future declare to His children, "Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your healing shall spring forth speedily, and your righteousness shall go before you and the glory of Hashem shall be your rearguard."

1. "And Hashem appeared to him"

There were numerous moments in history when the goal of eternal peace and unending happiness for all mankind was within reach. Both Adam and Noach had the opportunity to cause universal change and bring about endless fulfillment. The Zohar likens the path to permanent peace to the creation and care of a garden. Adam is compared to the force that causes rain water to fall upon and nourish the land, and Noah represents a person who manufactures the tools needed to tend the garden. The appearance of Avraham in our world corresponds to the force that influences the flowers to grow and blossom. Now that Avraham's name includes the additional letter Hei ?, signifying the ritual of circumcision, he is now prepared to receive the great Light of the Creator as expressed through the Tetragrammaton ????, one of the holy Names of the Creator that radiates His spiritual energy.

The Relevance of this Passage

The path to personal peace is an arduous process that each of us must endure. We can, however, accelerate this process through our connection to this portion. The Light of the Creator fills our soul through the merit and power of Avraham. The energy channeled through our Patriarch nurtures our soul, inspiring us to seek higher levels of spiritual growth. The strength to blossom in all our spiritual endeavors is revealed through the Light of these verses.

1. Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion: IT IS WRITTEN: "The flowers appeared on the earth, the time of the singing of the birds has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land" (Shir Hashirim 2:12). "The flowers appeared on the earth," MEANS THAT when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He endowed the earth with appropriate powers, so that everything was in the earth BUT it did not produce any fruit until Adam was created. As soon as Adam was created, everything in the earth became visible, that is, the earth began to reveal the powers and products that were implanted within it. AND THEN IT WAS SAID: "THE FLOWERS APPEAR ON THE EARTH."

2. Similarly, the heavens did not give any powers to the earth until humankind appeared, as it is written: "And no plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet grown, for Hashem Elohim had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground" (Beresheet 2:5). All the offspring and products were concealed in the earth. They did not appear, and the heavens were prevented from pouring rain on the earth because humankind did not yet exist. Because it had not yet been created, the revelation of all things was delayed. As soon as humankind appeared, however, "The flowers appeared on the earth," and all the hidden and concealed powers were now revealed.

3. "...the time of the singing of the birds has come" MEANS THAT a recital was composed of songs and praises to the Holy One, blessed be He. This was not done before humankind was created, "...and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land." This is the word of the Holy One, blessed be He, which did not exist in the world before humankind was created. But as soon as humankind appeared, everything appeared!

4. After Adam sinned, everything disappeared from the world, and the earth was cursed, as it is written: "cursed is the earth for your sake" (Beresheet 3:17), "When you till the ground, it shall not henceforth give its strength to you..." (Beresheet 4:12) and "thorns also and thistles it shall bring forth to you" (Beresheet 3:18).

1. רבי חייא פתח, הנצנים נראו בארץ עת הזמיר הגיע וקול התור נשמע בארצנו. הנצנים נראו בארץ, כד ברא קדשא ברין הואעלמא, יהב בארעא כל חילא דאתחזי לה. וכלא הוה בארעא, ולא אמיקת איבין בעלמא, עד דאתברי אדם, ביון דאתברי אדם, כלא אתחזי בעלמא, וארעא גליאת איבהא, וחילהא דאתפקרו בה.

2. כגוונא דא, שמים לא יהבו חילין לארעא, עד דאתא אדם. הה"ד, וכל שיח השדה טרם יהיה בארץ, וכל עשב השדה טרם יצמח, כי לא המטיר ה' אלקים על הארץ, ואדם אין לעבד את האדמה. אטמרו כל אינון תולדין ולא אתגלון, ושמיא אתעכבו, דלא אמטירו על ארעא, בגין דאדם אין, דלא אשתכח, ולא אתברי, וכלא אתעכב בגיניה, ביון דאתחזי אדם, מיד הנצנים נראו בארץ, וכל חילין דאתטמרו, אתגליאו ואתייבו בה.

3. עת הזמיר הגיע, דאתתקן תקונא דתושבין לזמרא קמי קדשא ברין הוא, מה דלא אשתכח עד לא אתברי אדם. וקול התור נשמע בארצנו. דא מלה דקדשא ברין הוא, דלא אשתכח בעלמא, עד דאתברי אדם, ביון דאשתכח אדם כללא אשתכח.

4. בתר דחטא, כללא אסתלק מעלמא, ואתלטיא ארעא. הה"ד ארורה האדמה בעבורך וגו'. וכתוב כי תעבד את האדמה לא תספ תת כחה לך וגו'. וכתוב וקוץ ודרדר תצמיח לך.

5. When Noah appeared in the world, he prepared spades and hoes, WHICH MEANS THAT HE PREPARED TOOLS TO TILL THE GROUND. THUS, IT IS WRITTEN OF HIM: "THIS ONE SHALL COMFORT US FROM OUR WORK AND THE TOIL OF OUR HANDS..." (BERESHEET 5: 29). HE SHALL GIVE US TOOLS, SO THAT WE MAY BE FREED FROM PRODUCTION USING OUR BARE HANDS, FOR WHICH WE HAD BEEN DESTINED UNTIL NOW! Afterwards, however, "he drank of the wine, and was drunk; and he was uncovered within his tent" (Beresheet 9: 21). And later, the people of the world sinned before the Holy One, blessed be He. And the powers of the earth disappeared again. THUS, ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS OF NOACH WERE LOST. And so it remained until Avraham appeared.

6. As soon as Avraham appeared: "the flowers appeared on the earth." THIS MEANS THAT the powers of the earth were amended and revealed. "The time of the singing of the birds (also: 'pruning') has come," REFERRING TO THE TIME when the Holy One, blessed be He, told him to circumcise himself. THE TERM 'PRUNING' ALLUDES TO THE REMOVAL OF THE FORESKIN. Thus, the time was ripe for the covenant to appear in Avraham, MEANING when he was circumcised. Only then was the verse, "THE FLOWERS APPEARED..." fulfilled through him, and the word of the Holy One, blessed be He, was revealed openly to him. as it is written: "And Hashem appeared to him," AFTER HE WAS CIRCUMCISED.

7. Rabbi Elazar began TO EXPLAIN THAT this verse refers to events after the circumcision of Avraham. Before the circumcision, the Holy One, blessed be He, spoke to him only through the lower grade--SPOKE THROUGH "A VISION," WHICH REFERS TO THE NUKVA WHILE IT IS STILL AT THE STAGE OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT SIDE. AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AFTER THESE THINGS THE WORD OF HASHEM CAME TO AVRAM IN A VISION..." The upper grades were not attached to this grade, WHICH MEANS THAT THE UPPER GRADES OF ZEIR ANPIN WERE NOT ATTACHED TO THE NUKVA. As soon as Avraham was circumcised, "the flowers appeared on the earth." These are the lower grades, brought forth and established by the lower grade THAT IS CALLED "A VISION," SO THAT THEY MAY BE UNITED WITH ALL THE UPPER GRADES.

8. "The time of the singing of the birds (also: 'pruning') has come..." ALLUDES TO THE TIME OF PRUNING AND CUTTING OF THE BAD BRANCHES, WHICH ARE the branches of the foreskin, BECAUSE THIS KLIPAH WAS IN CHARGE BEFORE HE WAS CIRCUMCISED. THIS IS ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "A WHISPERER SEPARATES CLOSE FRIENDS" (MISHLEI 16:28). "...and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land." This is the voice that comes from the innermost aspect of all. THE VOICE ALLUDES TO ZEIR ANPIN, AND THE INNERMOST ASPECT OF ALL IS IMA, FROM WHOM ZEIR ANPIN EMANATES AND COMES FORTH. So that voice, ZEIR ANPIN, is heard IN OUR LAND, WHICH IS THE NUKVA--MEANING THAT ZEIR ANPIN MATED WITH THE NUKVA BY THE MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) THAT WERE ELEVATED THROUGH THE PRECEPT OF CIRCUMCISION. And this is the voice that cuts the word into an utterance. THIS MEANS THAT IT HAS THE ABILITY TO ARTICULATE (LIT. 'CUT THE SPEECH'), thereby achieving its perfection.

9. Come and behold: as long as Avraham was not circumcised, only that grade dwelt upon him, as we explained--THAT IS, THE GRADE OF NUKVA WHILE SHE WAS CALLED "A VISION." But after he was circumcised, it is written: "And Hashem appeared to him!" But it is not mentioned to whom, because it is not written: 'And Hashem appeared to Avram'! AND HE ANSWERS: IF IT WERE WRITTEN, 'to Avram,' then what greater sort of praise would there be than that which existed before he was circumcised? Because even then it was written: "And Hashem appeared to Avram" (Beresheet 12: 7).

5. אַתָּא נַח וְתַקַּן קַרְדּוּמִין וּמְצִירֵי בְעֵלְמָא. וּלְבַתֵּר וַיִּשֶׁת מִן הַיַּיִן וַיִּשְׁכַּר וַיִּתְגַּל בְּתוֹךְ אֹהֶלָה. אַתּוּ בְנֵי עֵלְמָא וְחָבוּ קַמֵּיהּ דְקַדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, וְאַסְתַּלְקוּ חִילּוּן דְאַרְעָא בְּמַלְקַדְמִין, וְהוּוּ קַיִימֵי עַד דְאַתָּא אַבְרָהָם.

8. עַת הַזְמִיר הִגִּיעַ אֵלִין עַנְפוּי דְעַרְלָהּ. וְקוֹל הַתּוֹר נִשְׁמַע בְּאַרְצֵנוּ. דָּא קוֹל דְנִפְיָק מְגוּ הֵהוּא פְּנִימָאָה דְכֻלָּא, וְהֵהוּא קוֹל נִשְׁמַע, וְדָא קוֹל דְהַזְזֵר מְלָה לְמַלְלָא וְעֵבִיד לָהּ שְׁלִימוּ.

9. תָּא חֲזִי, דְעַד לֹא אַתְגַּזֵּר אַבְרָהָם, לֹא הוּוּ עֲלִיהּ, אֲלֹא הָאֵי דְרָגָא כְּדָאמְרָן, בֵּינָן דְאַתְגַּזֵּר, מַה כְּתִיב, וַיִּרְא אֱלֹהֵי ה'. לְמָאן, דְהָא לֹא כְתִיב, וַיִּרְא ה' אֵל אַבְרָם. דָּאֵי לְאַבְרָם, מֵאֵי שְׂבַחָא הֵכָא וַיִּתִּיר, מִבְּקַדְמִיתָא עַד לֹא אַתְגַּזֵּר, דְכְתִיב וַיִּרְא ה' אֵל אַבְרָם.

10. The words: "And Hashem appeared to him" contain a secret. THIS MEANS THAT HE APPEARED TO that grade that spoke to him. IN OTHER WORDS, ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, APPEARED TO HIM, NAMELY TO THE NUKVA. This had not happened before he was circumcised, WHEN THE NUKVA WAS STILL SEPARATED FROM ZEIR ANPIN. And now the voice THAT IS ZEIR ANPIN was revealed and was associated with speech, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, when He spoke with him. THUS, AVRAHAM BENEFITED FROM THE MATING OF MALE AND FEMALE, AND BECAME A CHARIOT FOR BOTH OF THEM. THEREFORE IT IS WRITTEN: "AND HASHEM APPEARED TO HIM," WHICH ALLUDES TO THE MATING OF MALE AND FEMALE.

11. The verse: "and he sat in the tent door" (Beresheet 18:1) says "and he," but does not identify "him." AND HE REPLIES: the verse reveals the wisdom that INDICATES THAT all the grades rested upon that lower grade after Avraham was circumcised. SO THE PHRASE TEACHES US THAT "AND HE," REFERRING TO THE NUKVA, "SAT IN THE TENT DOOR," AS SHE BECAME THE GATEWAY FOR ALL THE GRADES. Come and behold: "And Hashem appeared to him." This is the secret of the voice, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, that is heard and attached to the utterance (speech), NAMELY MALCHUT, and revealed through it.

12. In the verse: "and he sat in the tent door," THE WORDS, "AND HE" allude to the upper world, NAMELY IMA, that stands over him, REFERRING TO THE NUKVA, to shine upon him. THE NUKVA IS DESCRIBED AS "THE TENT DOOR," BECAUSE SHE HAS BECOME THE GATEWAY FOR THE LIGHTS. THE WORDS, "in the heat of the day," MEAN THAT the right side, WHICH IS CHESED, shone. This is the grade to which Avraham cleaved. Another explanation of "in the heat of the day" IS THAT IT REFERS TO the time when one grade approached another with great passion, AS ZEIR ANPIN APPROACHED THE NUKVA. THEN THEY WERE DESCRIBED BY THE WORDS: "IN THE HEAT OF THE DAY."

13. In explaining the words, "appeared to him," Rabbi Aba said that before Avraham was circumcised, he was blocked FROM RECEIVING THE SUPERNAL LIGHTS. As soon as he was circumcised, everything appeared, INCLUDING ALL THE LIGHTS, AS HIS COVER WAS REMOVED. And the Shechinah rested upon him in full perfection, as should properly be. Come and behold. IT IS WRITTEN: "and he sat in the tent door." "He" refers to the upper world, TO BINAH, that rests upon the lower world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. HE ASKS: When DOES BINAH REST UPON THE NUKVA? AND HE REPLIES: THIS IS WHY THE VERSE CONCLUDES WITH "in the heat of the day"--when the passion of a certain righteous, WHO IS THE YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, is aroused to rest IN THE LOWER WORLD, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. THAT IS, WHEN THERE IS A MATING BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE, THEN THE MOCHIN OF BINAH DWELL WITHIN THE NUKVA.

14. Immediately AFTER THE MATING OF MALE AND FEMALE WAS COMPLETED, IT IS WRITTEN: "And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, three men stood by him..." (Beresheet 18: 2) AND HE ASKS: Who are these three men? AND HE SAYS: They are Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov-- OR CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN THAT ARE NAMED AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, AND YA'AKOV. AND HE SAW THEM standing over that grade, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and from them the Nukva draws sustenance and nourishment.

10. אֵלָא, רָזָא סְתִימָא אִיהוּ, וַיֵּרָא אֵלָיו ה'. לְהֵהוּא דְרָגָא דְמַלְיִל עֲמִיָה, מַה דְלָא הוּהּ מְקַדְמַת דְנָא, עַד דְלָא אֲתַגְזֹר. דְהִשְתָּא, אֲתַגְלִי קוּל, וְאֲתַחְבֵּר בְּדַבְרוּ, כִּד מַלְיִל עֲמִיָה.

11. וְהוּא יוֹשֵׁב פֶּתַח הָאֵהָל. וְהוּא, וְלֹא גָלִי מֵאֵן. אֵלָא, הֵכָא גָלִי חֲכַמְתָּא, דְכֻלְהוּ דְרָגִין שָׂרוּ עַל הָאִי דְרָגָא תַתָּא, בְּתַר דְאֲתַגְזֹר אֲבָרְהָם. תָּא חֲזִי, וַיֵּרָא אֵלָיו ה'. דָּא הוּא רָזָא דְקוּל דְאֲשַׁתְּמַע, דְאֲתַחְבֵּר בְּדַבְרוּ, וְאֲתַגְלִי בֵיה.

12. וְהוּא יוֹשֵׁב פֶּתַח הָאֵהָל. דָּא עֲלָמָא עֲלָאָה, דְקָאִים לְאֲנַהְרָא עֲלֵיהּ. כְּחוּם הַיּוֹם. דְהָא אֲתַנְהִיר יְמִינָא, דְרָגָא דְאֲבָרְהָם אֲתַדְפֵּק בֵּיה. דְבַר אַחֲרֵכְחוּם הַיּוֹם. בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְאֲתַקְרִיב דְרָגָא לְדְרָגָא, בְּתִיאֻבְתָּא דְדָא לְקַבֵּל דָּא.

15. And then: "when he saw them, he ran to meet them," because the passionate desire of the lower grade, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is to cleave to CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. And Her joy is to be drawn toward them. SO, ACCORDINGLY, "HE RAN TO MEET THEM" IS SAID ABOUT THE NUKVA THAT WANTED TO CLING TO THEM. THE VERSE CONTINUES, "and bowed himself toward the ground," to become and be formed into a throne for them--SO THAT THE NUKVA BECOMES A THRONE FOR CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, SO THAT THEY MAY REST UPON HER, AS A PERSON SITS ON A CHAIR.

15. כְּדִין וַיֵּרָא וַיֵּרַץ לִקְרֹאתָם. דִּתְיֹאבֶתָא דִּהָאִי דִּרְגָא תִתְּאָה, לְאַתְחַבְרָא בְּהוּ, וְחֲדוּתָא דִּילָהּ, לְאַתְמַשְׁכָּא אֲבִתְרֵיהוּ. וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ אֶרְצָה. לְאַתְתַּקְנָא כְּרִסְיָא לְגַבְיֵיהוּ.

16. Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, made King David, WHO IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, one of the legs of the supernal throne, like the patriarchs. AND HE ASKS: Even though She is a throne for THE PATRIARCHS, HOW CAN IT BE SAID THAT SHE WAS SET AT THE SAME LEVEL WITH THE PATRIARCHS TO COMPLETE THE FOURTH LEG OF THE THRONE? AND HE ANSWERS: This is so only when She is united with them for the purpose of being a leg of the supernal throne. King David received the kingdom of Yisrael in Chevron for seven years for this reason--to be united with CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. This has already been explained.

Tosefta (addendum)

17. Of the verse, "And Hashem appeared to him by the terebinths of Mamre" (Beresheet 18:1), HE ASKS: Why by the terebinths of Mamre and not in any other place? AND HE REPLIES: Because Mamre gave him good advice about being circumcised. When the Holy One, blessed be He, told Avraham to circumcise himself, Avraham consulted his friends. Aner told him: You are more than 90 years old, and you shall pain yourself.

תּוֹסֶפֶתָא

18. Mamre, HOWEVER, said to him: Do not forget the day when the Chaldeans threw you into the furnace of fire and famine took over the world, as it is written: "And there was a famine in the land, and Avram went down into Egypt" (Beresheet 12: 10). And you smote all those kings that YOUR MEN pursued. And the Holy One, blessed be He, saved you from them all, so that nobody could do you any harm. So rise and fulfill the precept of your Master. The Holy One, blessed be He, said to MAMRE: You advised him to perform the circumcision. By your life! I shall reveal Myself to him only in your chamber. This is why it is written: "by the terebinths of Mamre."

18. אֲמַר לוֹמַמְרָא, דְּכִרְתָּ יוֹמָא דִּרְמוּ לָךְ בְּשַׁדְּאֵי בְּאַתּוֹן דְּנוּרָא. וְהוּא כַּפְנָא דְּעֵבֵר עַל עֲלִמָא, דְּכִתְיֵב וַיְהִי רַעַב בְּאֶרֶץ וַיֵּרֵד אֲבָרָם מִצְרִימָה. וְאִינוּן מְלָכִין דִּרְדְּפוּ בְּתַרְיֵהוּן, וּמַחִית יְתֵהוּן, וְקִדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא שְׁזַבְיֵנְךָ מְכֻלָּא, וְלֹא יָכִיל בַּר נֶשׁ לְמַעְבַּד לָךְ בִּישׁ. קוּם עֲבִיד פְּקוּדָא דְּמִרְךָ. אֲמַר לוֹקִדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא: מַמְרָא. אַנְתָּ יְהִבְתָּ לִּיהַ עֵיטָא לְמַגְזֵר, חֲוִיךָ, לִית אֲנָא מַתְגַּלִּי עֲלֵיהַ אֵלָא בְּמַלְטְרִין דִּילָךְ, הַה"ד בְּאֵלוֹנֵי מַמְרָא (עַד כְּאֵן).

2. The soul, when it rises from earth to heaven

The Zohar presents the spiritual significance behind the Torah story and speaks of Avraham sitting under a hot, blazing sun when three people come to visit him. The blazing sun is a metaphor for the immense Light of the Creator revealed through the divine instrument of the Tetragrammaton and correspondingly, through the words of the Zohar.

The Relevance of this Passage

The phrase blazing sun indicates that an extraordinary amount of spiritual Light is suddenly being revealed in this specific section of the Torah. This concept can be understood through the analogy of a light bulb. A bulb glows at a constant level of illumination. Just before the bulb burns out, however, there is a momentary burst of added light. The Zohar is our instrument to capture the intense spark of Light that is momentarily shining forth in this specific verse of the Torah.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

19. The sages began their interpretation of this passage WITH THE VERSE: "Your oils are fragrant. For your flowing oil you are renowned" (Shir Hashirim 1:3). Our sages have taught that when the soul of a human being rises from earth to heaven, REFERRING TO THE TIME WHEN A PERSON SLEEPS AT NIGHT, it stands in the Divine Illumination. The Holy One, blessed be He, visits it.

20. Come and listen: Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai said: When the soul of a righteous person stands in the place where the Shechinah of His blessed Glory rests--MEANING THAT IT IS WORTHY OF RECEIVING THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF 'STANDING UPRIGHT,' and is worthy of sitting by Her, TO RECEIVE THE GARMENT OF CHASSADIM, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF 'SITTING'--The Holy One, blessed be He, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, calls upon the patriarchs, WHO ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, HIS THREE COLUMNS. And He says to them: Go and visit so-and-so, the righteous person who has come, and welcome him in peace in My Name. THIS MEANS THAT THE THREE COLUMNS SHOULD PASS ON THE ILLUMINATION OF THE MATING, WHICH IS CALLED PEACE. THE WORDS "IN MY NAME" REFER TO THE NUKVA. And they claim it is not proper for a father to go and visit his child, but rather the child should seek after his father to see him.

21. The Holy One, blessed be He, then calls upon Ya'akov and says to him: You, who suffered the sorrow of RAISING children, go and welcome so-and-so, the righteous person who has come here, and I shall go along with you, as it is written: "those who seek your face Ya'akov, Selah" (Tehilim 24: 6). It does not say "seek" in the singular, but in the plural, BECAUSE IT REFERS TO THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS WHO YA'AKOV WELCOMES AS THEY SEEK HIS "WELCOME." Rabbi Chiya said: This we understand from the first part of the verse. as it is written: "This is the generation of them that seek him," WHICH TEACHES US THAT THE INTENTION OF THE VERSE ALLUDES TO THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS, THW SEEKERS NAMELY, THE LEADERS OF THE GENERATION.

22. Rabbi Ya'akov said in the name of Rabbi Chiya: Ya'akov, the patriarch, is the Throne of Glory. And the teachings of Eliyahu also state: Ya'akov the patriarch is a Throne by himself, as it is written: "Then will I remember my covenant with Ya'akov" (Vayikra 26: 42). The Holy One, blessed be He, established a covenant with Ya'akov alone, more than THE COVENANT HE ESTABLISHED with all his fathers. He made him a Throne of Glory FOR HIS DIVINE PRESENCE TO REST UPON, distinguishing him from his predecessors. AND THE REASON IS THAT HIS FOREFATHERS, WHO ARE AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, ARE NOT ABLE TO SHINE WITHOUT HIM. THEREFORE, HE IN HIMSELF INCLUDES THEIR LIGHTS AS WELL AS HIS OWN, AND THUS BECOMES A THRONE TO HIMSELF.

23. Rabbi Eliezer was sitting and studying Torah when Rabbi Akiva arrived. He said to him: Sir, what are you studying? He replied: The passage where it is written: "and to make them inherit the throne of glory" (I Shmuel 2:8) --what does "and to make them inherit the throne of glory" mean? This is Ya'akov, the patriarch for whom he made a Throne of Glory by himself that would receive Torah for the souls of the righteous.

24. And the Holy One, blessed be He, goes with YA'AKOV on the first day of every month. And when the soul sees the glory of the mirror, which is the Shechinah of ??? Master, THEN THE SOUL praises Him and bows down in front of the Holy One, blessed be He. This is THE MEANING OF "Bless Hashem, my soul..." (Tehilim 104:1)

25. Rabbi Akiva said: The Holy One, blessed be He, stands over THE SOUL. And the soul begins by saying: "Hashem my Elohim, You are very great...", continuing with all the verses to the end, as the passage reads, "Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth..." (Ibid. 35)

Rabbi Akiva continued: As well as this, it praises the Holy One, blessed be He, thanks Him for the body that is left in this world, and says: "Bless Hashem, my soul, and all that is within me, bless His Holy Name" (Tehilim 103: 1). THE WORDS, "ALL THAT IS WITHIN ME," ALLUDE TO THE BODY. AT FIRST, THE SOUL PRAISES AND THANKS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, FOR ITS OWN ACHIEVEMENTS. THEN IT SAYS: "BLESS HASHEM, MY SOUL! HASHEM MY ELOHIM, YOU ARE VERY GREAT." AND THEN IT PRAISES AND THANKS HIM FOR THE BODY, MEANING THAT THE SPLENDOR OF THE SOUL IS DRAWN DOWNWARD TO SHINE UPON THE BODY. AND THEN IT SAYS: "BLESS HASHEM, MY SOUL, AND ALL THAT IS WITHIN ME, BLESS HIS HOLY NAME." THESE PRAISES ARE OFFERED FOR THE LIGHT OF THE BODY.

26. And the Holy One, blessed by He, goes ALONG WITH YA'AKOV. How do we know this? From the passage where it is written: "And Hashem appeared to him by the terebinths of Mamre." This is Ya'akov, WHO IS CALLED MAMRE. SO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, DID INDEED GO WITH YA'AKOV. AND HE ASKS: Wherefore is the name Mamre? AND HE ANSWERS: Because Ya'akov inherited two hundred worlds in Eden, and he is the Throne BECAUSE HE BECAME THE THRONE OF GLORY. And Rabbi Yitzchak explains: The numerical value OF Mamre is 281. So there are the two hundred of Eden WHICH YA'AKOV ATTAINED, as it is written: "and those that guard the fruit thereof two hundred," (Shir Hashirim 8:12) and 81 is the numerical value of Kise ('throne'). THUS, MAMRE'S NUMERICAL VALUE OF 281 COMES FROM THE TWO HUNDRED WORLDS OF EDEN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH THAT IS CALLED EDEN, AND FROM THE THRONE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM THAT CLOTHE CHOCHMAH. For this reason IT IS SAID: "And Hashem appeared to him by the terebinths of Mamre." And for this reason, YA'AKOV is called Mamre. HE INCLUDES THE ASPECT OF EDEN AND THE ASPECT OF THE THRONE TOGETHER, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF MAMRE. HENCE "AND HASHEM APPEARED TO HIM."

27. Rabbi Yehuda asked: What is the meaning of: "by the terebinths" (Heb. elonei)? IF MAMRE IS YA'AKOV, WHY DOES IT SAY "THE TEREBINTHS OF MAMRE?" AND HE ANSWERS: It meant to say 'his might,' as it is written: "by the hands of the mighty one of Ya'akov" (Bereshheet 49:24). THUS, "THE TEREBINTHS OF MAMRE" BEARS RESEMBLANCE TO "THE MIGHTY YA'AKOV," BECAUSE ELONEI MEANS MIGHTY AND STRONG, AND MAMRE IS YA'AKOV. The verse, "and he sat in the tent door" is as it is written: "Hashem, who (Heb. mi) shall abide in Your tabernacle (or: 'tent')." (Tehilim 15:1) THIS MEANS THAT THE "TENT DOOR" IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE COVERED CHASSADIM. The verse, "in the heat of the day" is as written: "But to you that fear My name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings" (Malachi 3:20). THIS REFERS TO THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT COLUMN. AND THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM, WHICH IS DESCRIBED AS A 'SUN COMING OUT OF ITS SHEATH' BECAUSE THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH DOES NOT SHINE WITHOUT THE SHEATH OF CHASSADIM. AND WHEN IT DOES SHINE WITHOUT CHASSADIM, IT BURNS. ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "IN THE HEAT OF THE DAY," IS

24. וְקוֹדֵשׁ בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֲזוּל עִמּוֹה, בְּכֹל יוֹם יוֹרְחָא וְיִרְחָא. וְכַד חָמֵי נִשְׁמַתָּא, יְקַר אֶסְפְּקִלְרֵינָא שְׂכִינְתָּא דְמַאֲרִיָּה, מְבָרַכְתָּ וְסִגְרַת קַמֵּי קוֹדֵשׁ בְּרִיךְ הוּא, הַה"ד בְּרַכֵּי נַפְשִׁי וְגו'.

WHEN THE WICKED ARE CONDEMNED BY IT. BUT THE RIGHTEOUS ARE HEALED BY IT BECAUSE THEY ELEVATE THE MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) AND DRAW DOWN THE CHASSADIM IN ORDER TO CLOTHE CHOCHMAH.

28. Rabbi Yochanan ben Zakai said: At that time, WHEN THE SOUL IS AT THE STAGE OF "THE HEAT OF THE DAY," the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, SHARES HIS ABUNDANCE WITH THE SOUL. And when the patriarchs, Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov, heard the Holy One, blessed be He, REFERRING TO THE ENTIRETY OF ZEIR ANPIN, move towards THE SOUL--MEANING THAT THE PATRIARCHS WERE AWARE THAT THE SOUL WAS IN THE STATE OF "THE HEAT OF THE DAY," AND IN NEED OF THE "PLACE OF THE CLOTHING OF CHASSADIM"--they asked Ya'akov to go with them and welcome THE SOUL in peace.

29. And AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK stand over THE SOUL. THIS MEANS THAT AFTER YA'AKOV SHARED THE ABUNDANCE OF CHASSADIM BY WELCOMING IT WITH PEACE, THE TWO COLUMNS OF AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK SHONE UPON IT. As it is written: "And he lifted up his eyes and looked"-- REFERRING TO THE SOUL--"and lo, three men stood over him." The "three men" are the patriarchs, Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov, who stood by him, observing the soul and the good deeds it has performed. THIS MEANS THAT THEY EXAMINE THE MAYIN NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS') OF THE SOUL AND SHARE WITH IT THE MAYIN DUCHRIN ('MALE WATERS'). "...and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground," because he saw the Shechinah of His Blessed Glory with them. Hence, it is written: "...therefore do the young maidens love you" (Shir Hashirim 1:3).

30. Another explanation of: "And Hashem appeared to him by the terebinths of Mamre." The sages began with this verse that speaks of the time of one's demise. We learned that Rabbi Yehuda said that at the time of a person's death, which is the day of the Great Judgment when the soul is separated from the body, no one leaves the world before he sees the Shechinah, as it is written: "...for no man shall see me and live" (Shemot 33: 20). And three ministering angels accompany the Shechinah to welcome the soul of the righteous, as it is written: "And Hashem appeared to him...in the heat of the day." This is the Day of Judgment that burns like a furnace in order to separate the soul from the body.

29. וְאַיְנוּן קְוִימִין עֲלוּהִי. מִמָּאִי. דְּכִתְיִב, וַיִּשָׂא עֵינָיו וַיִּרְא וְהִנֵּה שְׁלֹשָׁה אַנְשִׁים נֹצְבִים עָלָיו. שְׁלֹשָׁה אַנְשִׁים: אֵלֶיךָ אַבְרָהָם, אַבְרָהָם יִצְחָק וַיַּעֲקֹב, דְּקְוִימִין עֲלוּהִי, וְחָמוּ עוֹבְדִין טָבִין דְּעַבְדִּין. וַיִּרְא וַיֵּרָץ לְקִרְאתָם מִפֶּתַח הָאֵהָל וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ אַרְצָה. מִשּׁוּם דְּחָמֵי שְׂכִינַת יְקָרָא עִמָּהוֹן. הֵה"ד, עַל כֵּן עֲלָמוֹת אַהֲבוּךָ.

3. The soul at the time of death

During sleep and upon death of a righteous individual, the soul travels a certain course as it ascends to the Upper Worlds. If the soul is righteous, it is welcomed to the Upper Worlds by the Patriarchs, specifically Ya'akov.

The Relevance of this Passage

The return of the soul to its original source is vital. It is through this process that the Creator absorbs the souls, which allows them to be born anew each morning. This otherworldly journey occurs each night, whether or not we are cognizant of it. An individual's degree of awareness, however, and their personal level of spirituality [righteousness] determines the particular course the soul travels and the heights it can attain. The higher the soul ascends is directly proportionate to the measure of Light it receives. This portion awakens a deeper awareness of the Light our soul can achieve if it is righteous, as well as the ability to ascend to greater heights and receive greater revelations of spiritual energy during sleep.

31. The verse, "and he lifted up his eyes, and looked, and lo, three men stood by him," refers to those who criticize his behavior and examine his deeds as he confesses them with his mouth. And because the soul sees all this, it leaves the body and reaches the gullet (pharynx), where it remains until it confesses and retells all that the body did together with it in this world. Then the soul of the righteous is happy with what it has done, and is happy with its deposit. We have learned that Rabbi Yitzchak said: The soul of the righteous feels great desire for the moment when it shall leave this world, which is worthless, so that it may enjoy itself in the world to come!

4. When Rabbi Eliezer became ill

The Zohar recounts the death of Rabbi Eliezer, the teacher and master of Rabbi Akiva. Rabbi Akiva was the teacher and master of Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, the author of The Zohar. When a righteous soul departs this world, he reveals his greatest amount of Light and energy. This Light is the total accumulation of his spiritual accomplishments during his lifetime. In addition, the Light that Rabbi Eliezer was unable to reveal during his lifetime, also became manifest at the moment of his passing. Sadly, Rabbi Akiva was not present when his Master left this world. The grief Rabbi Akiva endured was twofold: first for the physical loss of Rabbi Eliezer, and second, for the potential volume of Light that would not be revealed to mankind. It is this unrevealed Light that gives the force of darkness a stronger hold on the world. Rabbi Akiva's pain was for the repercussions of this increased darkness and the suffering mankind would inevitably endure. Kabbalistically, the pain experienced by a devout person serves as a Vessel to draw Light, a counterbalance that arouses the positive energy of the Creator in our physical world.

The Relevance of this Passage

All of our deeds and behavioral actions in this physical realm of existence, bear positive and negative repercussions, both personally and globally. By raising our consciousness towards the importance of positive deeds, and the potential of positive deeds left unfinished, this portion stimulates personal change in order to reveal greater spiritual Light. Our own vessel is expanded by connecting to Rabbi Akiva's pain for the lack of Light in our present world.

32. The sages discussed the time when the great Rabbi Eliezer became ill AND WAS ABOUT TO DIE. The day was Shabbat Eve, and Rabbi Eliezer made his son, Horkenos, sit to his right. He then revealed great and deep secrets to him. But HORKENOS'S mind was not ready to hear him AT FIRST, because he thought that his father's mind was not sufficiently clear. Only after he saw that his father's mind was completely clear did he receive 189 sublime secrets from him.

32. ת"ר, בְּשַׁחֲלָה רַבִּי אֱלִיעֶזֶר הַגָּדוֹל, הָיָה יוֹמָא ע"ש הוה, וְאוֹתִיב לִימִינֵיהּ הוֹרְקֵנוֹס בְּרִיהּ, וְהוּהּ מַגְלִי לִיהּ, עֲמִיקְתָּא וּמְסִתְרָתָא, וְהוּא לָא הוּהּ מְקַבֵּל בְּדַעְתֵּיהּ מִלִּינָא, דְּחָשִׁיב כַּמְטוֹרֶף בְּדַעְתֵּיהּ הוּהּ. כִּיּוֹן דְּחָמָא דְּדַעְתָּא דְּאָבוּי מִתְנִישְׁבָּא עָלוּי, קַבִּיל מְנִיָּהּ, מָאָה וְתַמְנִין וְתִשְׁעָה רִזִּין עֲלָאִין.

33. When he reached THE SECRET OF the marble stones that are mixed with the supernal Waters, Rabbi Eliezer wept and stopped talking. He said: Get up and go over there, my son! He asked him why. He replied: I see that I am soon to pass from the world. Go along and tell your mother that my Tfilin shall disappear and reach a higher place. IN OTHER WORDS, HE GAVE HER A HINT ABOUT HIS APPROACHING DEATH. And after I have departed from this world, I shall come to see them, THE MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY, but they should not cry. Because those above are near, not those below, though the human mind cannot grasp this.

34. As they were still sitting, the wise men of the generation came by to visit him. However, he cursed them for not coming to serve him. As we have learned, it is greater to serve the Torah than study it. In the meantime, Rabbi Akiva arrived. He asked: Akiva, Akiva, why have you not come to attend to me? He responded: Rabbi, I had no spare time. He was angry and said: Indeed, I wonder whether you shall die naturally. On that account, he placed a curse on him so that his death would be the worst of them all. THIS MEANS THAT HE PLACED A CURSE ON THE OTHER WISE MEN WHO DID NOT COME TO SERVE HIM, SO THAT THEY ALSO WOULD NOT DIE NATURALLY. AND HE SAID THAT THE DEATH OF RABBI AKIVA SHALL BE THE CRUELEST OF THEM ALL.

35. Rabbi Akiva wept and said to him: Rabbi, teach Torah to me! Rabbi Eliezer opened his mouth AND, AS HE SPOKE about the works of the divine Chariot, a fire surrounded them both. The wise men said: From this we learn that we are not worthy; nor do we have the privilege TO LISTEN TO THE WORDS OF HIS TEACHINGS. So they sat outside the gate. After everything was over, the fire disappeared.

36. And he taught THE SECRET of impure white spots (macula) as bright as the snow, 300 halachic rules, and 216 explanations of the verses of Shir Hashirim. Rabbi Akiva's eyes poured with tears like water. Then the fire reappeared AND SURROUNDED THEM BOTH again. When he reached the verse "stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples, for I am sick with love," (Shir Hashirim 2:5) Rabbi Akiva could not bear any more. He raised his voice and burst out bellowing LIKE A BULL. And he could not speak out of fear of the Shechinah that was there.

37. And he taught him all of the deep and sublime secrets that exist in Shir Hashirim, and made him solemnly swear that he would never use any of these verses. If he did, then Holy One, blessed be He, would destroy the world because of him, as it is not His desire that people use it, because of its supreme holiness. Afterward, Rabbi Akiva left and burst out crying, his eyes pouring with tears, and said: Woe my teacher, woe my teacher, for the world is to remain an orphan without you. All the other wise men entered and stood by him. They asked him questions about Torah and he answered.

38. Rabbi Eliezer felt confined. He raised both his arms and laid them on his heart. He said: Woe to the world. The upper world has again concealed and hidden all light and illumination from the lower WORLD, JUST AS IT WAS BEFORE HE CAME INTO THE WORLD. Woe to my two arms. Woe to the two parts of the Torah, as you shall be forgotten by the world on this day. AND THE ZOHAR STATES that Rabbi Yitzchak said: During the entire lifetime of Rabbi Eliezer, the Halacha would 'shine from his mouth' as on the day it was given on mount Sinai.

39. RABBI ELIEZER said: I have learned so much Torah, gaining wisdom and serving SAGES, that even if all the people of the world were to be writers, there would not be enough to write of it. And my pupils have no lack of my wisdom; only as a kohl-pencil (mascara) in the eye, AS MUCH AS A TEARDROP THAT IS SHED BY AN EYE WHEN A DROP OF KOHL ENTERS IT. And I lack very little of the wisdom of my teachers, perhaps only AS MUCH AS a person can drink from the sea. AND THE ZOHAR CONCLUDES that he said this only to show gratitude to his teachers and to hold them in more favor than himself. THIS MEANS THAT WHAT HE HAS OMITTED FROM HIS TEACHERS' WISDOM, WHICH IS AS MUCH AS A PERSON CAN DRINK FROM THE SEA, IS MORE THAN A DROP OF KOHL-PENCIL IN THE EYE, WHICH HE SAID OF HIS STUDENTS' OMISSIONS. THUS, HE SHOWS THAT HE FEELS GRATITUDE TO HIS TEACHERS AND IS GRATEFUL TO THEM MORE THAN TO HIMSELF.

40. And they were asking him THE LAW of footwear of Yibum (the levirate rite)--IF IT BECOMES DEFILED. As his soul left him, he announced: It is pure. Rabbi Akiva was not there WHEN HE DIED. As the day of Shabbat ended, Rabbi Akiva found him dead. As he ripped his clothes and tore his flesh, the blood started to roll over his beard. He wept and shouted as he stepped outside, and said: Heavens, O heavens, tell the sun and the moon that the light that shone more than they is darkened.

41. Rabbi Yehuda said: When the soul of a righteous person wishes to leave THE BODY, it feels happy, because the righteous is confident that he shall receive his reward as he dies. Therefore, it is written: "when he saw them, he ran to meet them," REFERRING TO THE THREE ANGELS THAT ACCOMPANIED THE SHECHINAH AS SHE CAME TO RECEIVE HIS SOUL with happiness, as he welcomed THE ANGELS. Where DOES HE WELCOME THEM? As we have learned, at "the tent door," where he "bowed himself toward the ground," toward the Shechinah. THIS MEANS THAT THE SOUL BOWED TO THE SHECHINAH THAT HAD COME TO IT, AS THE SHECHINAH IS CALLED EARTH.

42. Rabbi Yochanan then opened the discussion by quoting: "...until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away...Turn, my beloved, and be you like a roe or a young hart" (Shir Hashirim 2:17). "Until the day break" is a warning for a person who is still in this world; it is like the "blink of the eye." Come and behold: what does it say? "Even if he lived a thousand years twice," (Kohelet 6:6) on the day of his death, it all seems as one day to him.

43. Rabbi Shimon said: The soul of a person warns him and says, "Until the day break." And it shall seem to you as the blink of the eye while you are still in this world. The words, "and the shadows flee away" are equivalent to the verse that reads: "because our days upon earth are a shadow" (Iyov 8:9); so I beg of you, "Turn, my beloved, and be you like a roe or a young hart."

44. There is another explanation for: "Until the day break..." According to Rabbi Shimon ben Pazi, this is a warning for humankind, while still in this world, which is like the blink of the eye. Just as the roe is swift of leg, so you should be as swift as a "roe or a young hart" in performing your Master's wishes, so that you may inherit the world to come—which is mountains of spices, called "the mountain of Hashem," the mountain of Pleasure, the mountain of Delight.
End of Midrash Hane'elam

44. דָּבַר אַחֲרַי. עַד שִׁנְפוּחַ הַיּוֹם וּגו'. אָמַר רַבִּי שְׁמֵעוּנָבָן פְּזִי, זֶה אִזְהָרָה לְאָדָם, בְּעוֹרוֹ בְּעוֹלָם הַזֶּה, שֶׁהוּא כְּהַרְף עֵינַי. מֵהַ הַצְּבִי קַל בְּרַגְלָיו, אִף אֵתָהּ הִיָּה קַל בְּצַבִּי אוֹ בְּעוֹפֵר הָאֵילִים, לַעֲשׂוֹת רִצּוֹן בּוֹרְאֵן, כְּדֵי שֶׁתִּנְחַל הָעוֹלָם הַבָּא, שֶׁהוּא הָרִי בְּשָׁמַיִם, הַנִּקְרָא הַר ה', הַר הַתְּעוּגָה, הַהַר הַטּוֹב. (עַד כַּאֲן מִדְּרַשׁ הַנֶּעְלָם).

5. "And, lo, three men"

As the white light of the sun refracts into the seven colors of the rainbow, the spiritual Light of the Creator refracts into many "colors" that express all His various attributes. Kabbalistically, physical light is merely a lower frequency of the spiritual Light of the Creator. This infinite, all-inclusive Light of the Creator includes a variety of frequencies and spectrum of colors, ranging from the green blades of grass, to the purple hues of interstellar gases radiating from distant galaxies. Everything in the cosmos represents another color frequency in the spectrum of Creation, including the four kingdoms of inanimate, vegetable, animal, and mankind, as well as intangible forces, such as mercy, judgment, pleasure, truth, and fulfillment. Colors also manifest within angels. The angel Michael, who represents the positive Right Column Force of Sharing, radiates the color white. The angel Gavriel, who represents the Left Column Force of Receiving and the negative principle in our universe, radiates the color red. The angel Raphael represents the Central Column Energy of Balance and illuminates the color green. These three colors illustrate the unique function and role that each angel plays in the ongoing process of creation. Michael is the conduit for the energy of general blessings. Gavriel is the portal through which the force of judgment enters our world. Raphael channels the spiritual energy of healing.

The Relevance of this Passage

The awareness that the Creator manifests His attributes physically, inanimately, and as intangible forces, gives us the opportunity to connect to each of the spiritual frequencies spoken of in this portion. The influence of these forces in our personal life is augmented when we understand their purpose and relevance in the world.

Sitrei Torah (Concealed Torah)

45. The authority and will of the King, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH, appears in three colors, AND THESE ARE THE THREE COLORS OF THE EYE: WHITE, RED, AND GREEN. One color represents the eye's sight from afar. At this distance, the eye is unable to clearly visualize what it sees until it achieves partial vision by contracting itself. Thus, it is written: "Hashem has appeared from a far to me..." (Yirmeyah 31:2) THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, AS THERE CAN BE NO REVELATION OF THE LIGHTS WITHOUT IT!

סְתְרֵי תוֹרָה

45. הַיְרַמְנוּתָא דְּמַלְכָא, אֶתְחַזִּי בְּתֵלַת גּוּוּנִין, גּוּוּן חֵד, חִיזוּ דְּאֶתְחַזִּי לְעֵינָא מִרְחִיקָ, וְעֵינָא לֹא יָכִיל לְקַיִמָא בְּבְרִירוּ דְּחַזִּי, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ מִרְחוּק, עַד דְּנָטִיל עֵינָא, חִיזוּ זְעִיר, בְּקַמִּיטוּ דִּילִיָּהּ. וְעַל דְּאֶכְתִּיב מִרְחוּק ה' נִרְאָה לִי.

46. The second color represents the eye's sight when the eye is closed. This color is seen by the eye only through a slight shutting, and therefore it is not a clear vision. THE WAY TO SEE is by closing the eye and then opening it a little, to thereby receive this sight. BECAUSE THIS VISION IS NOT CLEAR, it requires interpretation in order to understand what the eye has perceived. Therefore, it is written: "What do you see" (Yirmeyah 1:13)? THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT COLUMN, WHEN THE LIGHTS ARE STOPPED BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF CHASSADIM.

47. The third color represents the brilliance of the mirror, which can be seen only when THE EYE is shut and it is rolled backward. As a result of this rolling, the shining mirror is seen. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT COLUMN. But THE EYE is able to absorb this THIRD color only by envisioning the illumination of the brilliance by shutting the eye, WHICH MEANS THE SECOND COLOR IS INCLUDED IN THE FIRST COLOR.

47. גּוּוּן תְּלִיתָאָה: הוּא זֶהֱר אֶסְפַּקְלַרְיָאָה, דְּלֹא אֶתְחַזִּי בִּיהּ כְּלָל, בְּרַ בְּגִלְגּוּלָא דְּעֵינָא, כְּדֵי אִיהוּ סְתִים בְּסִתְיֵמוּ. וּמַגְלִינִין לִיָּהּ בְּגִלְגּוּלָא, וְאֶתְחַזִּי בְּהָאֵי גִלְגּוּלָא, אֶסְפַּקְלַרְיָאָה דְּנִהְרָא. וְלֹא יָכִיל לְקַיִמָא בְּהוּא גּוּוּן, בְּרַ דְּחַזִּי זֶהֱר מְנַהְרָא בְּסִתְיֵמוּ דְּעֵינָא.

48. Therefore, it is written: "The hand of Hashem was upon me..." (Yechezkel 37:1) and "but the hand of Hashem was strong upon me" (Yechezkel 3:14). THIS ABILITY TO SEE BY SHUTTING THE EYE IS ACCOMPLISHED BY WILL POWER AND IS RELATED TO GVURAH. And all these are conceived by the true prophets, NAMELY THE FIRST TWO COLORS. And only Moshe, the most faithful, had the ability to see high above to the point at which THE BRILLIANCE is not seen at all. THIS REFERS TO THE THIRD COLOR, WHICH IS THE SHINING MIRROR. Of him it is written: "My servant Moshe is not so, who is faithful in all My house" (Bemidbar 12:7).

49. The words "appeared to him" mean that the Shechinah appeared to him through those grades that are attached to Her own aspects, referring to Michael on the right side, Gavriel on the left side, Refael to the front, and Uriel to the back. This is why the Shechinah appeared to him by the terebinths (lit. 'among those oak trees'), the shadows of the world, to show them the first circumcision--the Holy Imprint according to the secret of the Faith in the whole world.

50. Of the words "and he sat in the tent door," HE ASKS: Where is the tent door? AND HE ANSWERS: This is the place that is called the covenant, which is the secret of faith, NAMELY THE NUKVA. The phrase "in the heat of the day" refers to the secret to which Avraham cleaved, WHICH IS the might of the right side--his own grade.

51. The "tent door" is the secret of the 'gate of righteousness,' the gateway to the Faith, WHICH IS THE NUKVA AND THE SECRET OF THE JUDGMENTS OF THE NUKVA. AND IT IS CALLED THE GATEWAY because Avraham entered the Holy Imprint OF CIRCUMCISION there. WITHOUT THIS, HE WOULD NOT HAVE ENTERED THE COVENANT. THIS IS WHY IT IS CALLED A GATEWAY.

"In the heat of the day" refers to THE ASPECT OF the righteous, the grade of the 'United Oneness,' which is entered and joined by whoever is circumcised and is signed by the Holy Imprint. Because the foreskin has been removed from him, he enters into the illumination of these two grades, THE RIGHTEOUS AND RIGHTEOUSNESS, which are the secret of Faith.

52. The verse, "And, lo, three men," refers to the three angels--messengers who clothe themselves with air and come down to this world in a human image. And they were three, just as there are three above, NAMELY CHESD, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN. The rainbow, THE NUKVA, appears only in three colors, white, red, and green. This is exactly LIKE THE THREE COLORS OF CHESD, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN.

48. ועל דא כתיב היתה עלי יד ה'. ויד ה' עלי חזקה. וכלהו מתפרשן מנביאי קשוט. בר משה, מהימנא עלאה, דזכה לאסתכלא לעילא, במה דלא אתחזי כלל. עליה כתיב, לא כן עבדי משה וגו'.

50. והוא יושב פתח האהל. מאן פתח האהל. דא אתר דאקרי ברית, רזא דמהימנותא. כחום היום. דא רזא דאתדבק ביה אברהם, תוקפא דסטרא דימינא, דרגא דיליה.

52. והנה שלשה אנשים וגו'. אליו תלת מלאכין שליחן, דמתלבשן באורא, ונחתי להאי עלמא, בחיזו דבר נש. ותלת הוו, כגוונא דלעילא, בגין דקשת לא אתחזי, אלא בגוונין תלתא: חוור, וסומק, וירוק. והכי הוא ודאי.

53. And these three people are the three colors, white, red and green. The white color is Michael, because he is on the right side, AS HE COMES FROM CHESED OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS WHITE. The red color is Gavriel, who is on the left side, AS HE COMES FROM GVURAH OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS RED. The green color is Refael, WHO COMES FROM TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS GREEN. And these are the three colors of the rainbow. And the rainbow, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, does not appear and is not seen without them. Therefore, it is written: "appeared to him," BECAUSE the appearance of the Shechinah is SEEN by these three colors. IN OTHER WORDS, THE VERSE "AND, LO, THREE MEN STOOD BY HIM," EXPLAINS THE VERSE "AND HASHEM APPEARED TO HIM." SO, "AND HASHEM APPEARED" MEANS THAT THE SHECHINAH WAS REVEALED TO HIM. AND THIS REVELATION WAS MADE BY THE APPEARANCE OF THE THREE COLORS, OF WHICH THE VERSE CONCLUDES, "AND, LO, THREE MEN STOOD BY HIM"-- NAMELY MICHAEL, GAVRIEL, AND REFAEL.

54. And each OF THE THREE ANGELS served a different purpose. Rafael, who governs the power to heal, helped Avraham recover from the circumcision. Another, Michael, who came to inform Sarah that she shall bear a son, rules over the right side. All the abundance and the blessings of the right side are handed over to him.

55. And Gavriel, who came to overturn S'dom, rules over the left side and is responsible for all Judgments in the world, AS JUDGMENTS COME from the left side. And the execution is done by the Angel of Death, THE KING'S CHIEF BAKER, who executes THE SENTENCES THAT ARE PASSED UNDER GAVRIEL'S RULE.

56. Each and every angel accomplished his mission, as is proper. Gavriel goes on his mission to the holy Neshamah, while the Angel of Death goes on his mission to the Nefesh of the Evil Inclination. In spite of all this, the soul does not leave the body until it sees the Shechinah.

57. When AVRAHAM saw THE THREE ANGELS join one another, he saw the Shechinah in Her own colors. And he knelt, BECAUSE THE ANGELS ARE THE THREE COLORS OF ZEIR ANPIN IN WHICH THE SHECHINAH CLOTHES HERSELF, As it is written: "...and knelt himself toward the ground." This is similar to what is described of Ya'akov, of whom it is written: "...and Yisrael knelt himself upon the bed's head" (Bereshheet 47:31). THAT IS, HE BOWED to the Shechinah, WHICH IS CALLED THE BED'S HEAD. SO HERE, AS WELL, HE BOWED TO THE SHECHINAH.

58. And he addressed the Shechinah by the name "Adonai," AS HE SAID: "ADONAI ('MY LORDS') IF NOW I HAVE FOUND FAVOR..." (BERESHEET 18:3). IN THE SAME MANNER, the righteous is adressed, WHO IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, called Adon ('Master'). Then THE SHECHINAH is called 'ADON', "the lord of all the earth," (Yehoshua 3:11) because She is lit up by the righteous, WHO IS CALLED ADON ('MASTER'), and shines in Her colors. THE COLORS ARE DRAWN FROM THE THREE COLUMNS OF ZEIR ANPIN because She reaches perfection on high through them.

53. וְאֵלֶּיךָ אֵינּוֹן שְׁלֹשָׁה אַנְשִׁים, תִּלְתָּא גּוֹוִינִן, גּוֹוִן חוֹר, גּוֹוִן סוּמָק, גּוֹוִן יְרוּק. גּוֹוִן חוֹר: דָּא מִיכָאֵל, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ סְטְרָא דִּימִינָא. גּוֹוִן סוּמָק: דָּא גַבְרִיאֵל, סְטְרָא דְשִׁמְאֵלָא. גּוֹוִן יְרוּק: דָּא רִפְאֵל. וְהֵי אֵינּוֹן תִּלְתָּא גּוֹוִינִן דְקֶשֶׁת, דְקֶשֶׁת לָא אֲתַחְזִי אֲלָא עִמְהוֹן, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ, וִירָא אֲלֵינוּ, גְלוּי שְׁכִינָה, בְּתִלְתָּא גּוֹוִינִן אֲלֵינוּ.

59. From this we learn that the "mirror" of below, REFERRING TO THE SHECHINAH, is drawn from BINAH above. These colors, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF THE THREE ANGELS, acquire the power to draw of the Lights from above--from those supernal sources THAT ARE THE THREE COLUMNS OF BINAH ITSELF.

60. Because they accompany and support Her with everything, She is called Adonai. This name was revealed to AVRAHAM entirely through the secrets of the supernal ones--BY THE LIGHTS OF BINAH. And they appeared to him completely exposed, which did not happen before he was circumcised. Clearly, before he was circumcised, the Holy One, blessed be He, did not wish to issue a holy seed from him. However, as soon as he was circumcised, a holy seed immediately came forth. THAT SEED WAS YITZCHAK.

61. Because of this, BECAUSE OF HIS CIRCUMCISION, the Shechinah appeared to him in those holy grades, IN KEEPING WITH THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "And the wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament..." (Daniel 12:3) THE FIRST brightness is the brilliance that shines when it is lit up. THE SECOND brightness lights up, shines and sparkles in many directions.

62. The brightness moves up and then down, shines throughout all aspects, is drawn and comes forth, and never ceases to shine. And the brightness procreates.

63. This brightness, which is hidden and concealed, glows brighter than any sparkle, WHICH MEANS THAT ITS SPARKLE IS GREATER THAN ANY OTHER SPARKLE IN THE WORLDS. And all the grades are located within it. It goes forth and disappears, concealed yet exposed, sees yet does not see. This book, WHICH REFERS TO THE BORDER OR LIMITATION, AS THE HEBREW TERM MEANS BOTH BOOK AND BORDER, is the source of the well, WHICH IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. It comes out TO SHINE ONLY during the day, BECAUSE ZEIR ANPIN SHINES DURING THE DAY. And it disappears at night, WHEN HE DOES NOT SHINE. And He delights Himself at midnight WITH THE COMPANY OF THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS THAT ARE the offspring he issued, IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN.

64. The brightness shines and lights up the entire Torah, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, to all. This is seen, AS IT RECEIVES CHOCHMAH, because all the colors are concealed within it. It is called Adonai. The three colors are seen below it. And three colors are seen above it. Everything is received from the THREE above, AND STILL, they are not seen, BECAUSE THEY DO NOT RECEIVE CHOCHMAH DIRECTLY THEMSELVES. And it sparkles with twelve sparkles and lights that emanate from it. Altogether there are thirteen, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF 'ONENESS' THAT INCLUDES THEM ALL, by the secret of the Holy Name, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, within the secret of the Endless World (Heb. Ein-Sof). THAT WHICH INCLUDES THEM ALL is called Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHILE THE TWELVE GRADES OF THE NUKVA ARE CALLED ADONAI.

59. מֵהָכָּא, דְּחִיזוּ דְלִתְתָּא, מְשִׁיךְ מְשִׁיכוּ מְלַעֲיָלָא, דְּהָא גּוּוּנִין אֲלִין מְשִׁכִּין מְשִׁכָּא מְלַעֲיָלָא, מְאִינוּן מְקוּרִין עֲלָאִין. אֲדַרְנֵי מְשִׁכָּא מְלַעֲיָלָא, בְּאֲלִין תְּלַת גּוּוּנִין דְּאֲתְלַבֵּשׁ בְּהוּ, וּבְהוּ נְטֻלָּא כָּל מַה דְּנְטֻלֵי מְלַעֲיָלָא.

65. When the lower brightness, WHICH IS THE BRIGHTNESS OF THE TWELVE CALLED Adonai, joined the upper brightness, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, they formed one name through which the true prophets attain THEIR PROPHECIES and look into the supernal brightness. The NAME is Yud-Aleph-Hei-Dalet-Vav-Nun-Hei-Yud, WHICH IS A COMBINATION OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI AND ADONAI. THROUGH THIS COMBINED NAME, THEY ACHIEVE sublime visions, BECAUSE BY THIS NAME THE VISION OF THE HIDDEN SECRETS CAN BE ACHIEVED, as it is written: "and out of the midst of it, it were the color of electrum out of the midst of the fire" (Yechezkel 1:4).

66. Mishnah: To you who are supernal, great, and good, from the right side, THE FOLLOWING SECRET HAS BEEN SAID: the nine vowels that appear in the Torah are divided by the letters. These letters secretly take short trips. These nine rulers issue these letters, which then expand. The nine vowels remain intact as so as to have the letters. THE LETTERS move only after THE VOWELS appear.

67. These LETTERS are in accordance with the secret of Ein-Sof and are under its influence. The sealed letters travel ONLY as much as THE VOWELS travel. The hidden secrets upon which these letters rest, are both revealed and not revealed.

68. Nine names are engraved in ten; Ehe'yeh IS KETER; Yud-Hei IS CHOCHMAH; Ehe'yeh Asher Ehe'yeh IS BINAH; Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHOSE VOWELS ARE LIKE ELOHIM IS YISRAEL-SABA AND TEVUNAH; EI IS CHESED; Elohim IS GVURAH; Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei IS TIFERET; Tzva'ot IS NETZACH AND HOD; and Adon and Shadai BOTH REFER TO YESOD. ADON IS THE CROWN OF YESOD; SHADAI IS YESOD ITSELF.

69. These ten Names are each engraved according to its aspect. And all these Names were engraved and entered the Ark of the Covenant. Which one is it? It is Adonai, the one that was revealed and appeared AFTER THE CIRCUMCISION to Avraham. IN OTHER WORDS, THE NAME ADONAI IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA AFTER SHE HAD RECEIVED THE OTHER TEN NAMES, WHICH ARE ALL THE GRADES OF ATZILUT. BUT BEFORE HE WAS CIRCUMCISED, HE DID NOT ACHIEVE THE SECRET OF 'SEEING.' UNTIL THE CIRCUMCISION, HE SAW ONLY THROUGH THE NUKVA, WITHOUT HER BEING ATTACHED TO THE UPPER GRADES.

70. Michael is the name of the right, THAT IS, CHESED, which cleaves to the name ADONAI and serves It more than the other ANGELS. Wherever the secret of the name ADONAI appears, SO DOES Michael. If Michael disappears, so does Elohim, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, together with Shadai, WHICH IS YESOD.

68. תִּשְׁעֵי שְׁמֵהּ, גְּלִיפִן בְּעֶשֶׂר, וְאִינּוֹן: קְדַמָּאָה אֶהֱיָה. יוֹד ה"א. אֶהֱיָה אֲשֶׁר אֶהֱיָה. הוּיָהּ. אֵל. אֱלֹקִים. הוּיָהּ. צְבָאוֹת. אֲרוֹן. שְׂדֵי.

70. מִיכָאֵל שְׁמָא דִּימִינָא, דְּקָא אַחִיר וּמְשֻׁמָּשָׁא לְשְׁמָא דָּא, וְתִיר מֵאִינּוֹן אַחֲרָנִין, בְּכֹל אַתְר דְּרִזָּא דְּהֵאֵי שְׁמָא תְּמֵן, מִיכָאֵל תְּמֵן, אֶסְתְּלִיק הֵאֵי, מִיכָאֵל אֶסְתְּלִיק, אֱלֹקִים בְּהֵדִי שְׂדֵי.

71. In the beginning, there were three men who were dining while en clothed in an image of air. They most certainly ate, because their fire ate and consumed everything, thus bringing contentment to Avraham. AND HE CLARIFIES THAT they were truly fire. This fire was covered by an image of the air and was not seen. The food that they ate was a burning fire. And they ate it, and Avraham received pleasure from this.

71. בְּקִדְמֵיִתָּא שְׁלֶשָׁה אַנְשִׁים, וְאִגְלִימוּ בְּצִיּוּרָא דְאִוּרָא, וְהוּוּ אֶכְלִי, אֶכְלִי וְדָאִי, דְאִשָּׁא דְלֵהוּ אֶכְלִי וְשִׁצִי כְּלָא, וְאֶעֱבִיר נַחַת רוּחַ לְאַבְרָהָם. אֵינּוֹן אִשָּׁא וְדָאִי, וְהָהוּא אִשָּׁא אֶתְבְּסִי בְּצִיּוּרָא דְאִוּרָא, וְלֹא אֶתְחַזִּי, וְהָהוּא מִיכְלָא אִשָּׁא מְלֵהֲטָא, וְאֶכְלָא לֵיהּ, וְאַבְרָהָם מְקַבֵּל נַחַת רוּחַ מֵהָאִי.

72. As the Shechinah departed, it is written: "and Elohim went up from Avraham" (Bereshheet 17:22). So Michael immediately departed with Her, as it is written: "And there came two angels to S'dom..." (Bereshheet 19:1). At the beginning, it is written three, but now it reads "two angels." FROM THIS, WE CONCLUDE THAT THE ANGEL Michael, who is to the right, also departed as the Shechinah rose. AND ONLY TWO ANGELS REMAINED.

72. בֵּינּוֹן דְאֶסְתְּלֵק שְׁכִינְתָּא, מַה כְּתִיב, וַיַּעַל אֱלֹקִים מֵעַל אַבְרָהָם, מִיַּד מִסְתְּלֵק בְּהַרְיָה מִיכָאֵל, דְכְתִיב וַיָּבֹאוּ שְׁנֵי הַמְּלָאכִים סְדוֹמָה וְגו'. שְׁלֶשָׁה כְּתִיב בְּקִדְמֵיִתָּא, וְהִשְׁתָּא תְּרִין, אֶלָּא מִיכָאֵל דְאִיהוּ יְמִינָא, אֶסְתְּלִיק בְּהַרְיָ שְׁכִינְתָּא.

73. The angel seen by Manoach, who descended and was en clothed by air, is Uriel. He did not come with those angels of Avraham, but came down on his own to inform Manoach, who is a descendant of Dan, THAT HE SHALL HAVE A SON.

73. מְלָאךְ דְאֶתְחַזִּי לְמַנּוּחַ, נַחַת וְאִיגְלִים בְּאִוּרָא, וְאֶתְחַזִּי לֵיהּ, וְדָא אִיהוּ אִוּרִיאֵל. מַה דְלָא נַחַת בְּאֵלִין דְאַבְרָהָם, נַחַת הָכָא בְּלַחְדוּרֵי, לְבִשְׂרָא לְמַנּוּחַ, דְאֶתִּי מְדַן.

74. Because MANOACH is not as important a man as Avraham, it is not written that he (the angel) ate. Rather, it is written: "Though you detain me, I will not eat of your bread..." (Shoftim 13:16) and "For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven...that the angel of Hashem ascended in the flame of the altar..." (Ibid. 20). Here, however, it is written: "and Elohim went up from Avraham"; IT IS NOT WRITTEN THAT THE ANGELS DEPARTED FROM AVRAHAM. THIS IS because Micheal left WITH ELOHIM, while Refael and Gavriel remained.

74. וּבְגִין דְלָא חָשִׁיב כְּאַבְרָהָם, לֹא כְתִיב דְאֶכְלִי, דִּהָא כְּתִיב אִם תַּעֲצֹרְנִי לֹא אוֹכֵל בְּלַחְמֵךְ. וְכְתִיב וַיְהִי בַּעֲלוֹת הַלֵּהָב מֵעַל הַמִּזְבֵּחַ וַיַּעַל מְלָאךְ ה' בְּלֵהָב הַמִּזְבֵּחַ וְגו'. וְהָכָא וַיַּעַל אֱלֹקִים מֵעַל אַבְרָהָם. בְּגִין דְבֵיהּ אֶסְתְּלִיק מִיכָאֵל, וְאֶשְׁתְּאֵרוּ רְפָאֵל וְגַבְרִיאֵל.

75. Of them it is written: "And there came two angels to S'dom at evening." "...at evening..." when Judgment hovers above the world. And afterward, one angel departed, and Gavriel alone remained TO OVERTHROW S'DOM. Because of the merit of Avraham, Lot was saved. Therefore, he was also privileged to have the two angels come and visit him.
End of Sitrei Torah

75. וַעֲלִייהוּ כְּתִיב, שְׁנֵי הַמְּלָאכִים סְדוֹמָה. בְּעָרֵב בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְרִינָא תְּלִיא עַל עֲלָמָא. לְבַתָּר אֶסְתְּלֵק חַד, וְאֶשְׁתַּכַּח גַּבְרִיאֵל בְּלַחְדוּרֵיהּ. בְּזִכּוּתֵיהּ דְאַבְרָהָם אֶשְׁתְּזִיב לוֹט, וְאִיהוּ אוֹף הָכִי זְכִי בְּהוּ, וַעֲלֵ דְאֶתָּו לְגַבְיָהּ (ע"ר ס"ת).

6. "Who shall ascend into the mountain of Hashem"

When an individual strives to understand his purpose in life and seeks the truth of the Creator, his soul will seek to reunite with the Light of the Creator upon leaving this world. Unfortunately, the vast majority of mankind journeys through this physical world without any inkling of his true purpose, or understanding as to the meaning of his existence. Consequently, a man who directs no effort towards spiritual enlightenment and blindly pursues the material world, will automatically seek the path of negativity when it departs its physical existence. The paths of the spiritual world mirror the pathways we forge in the physical world.

The Relevance of this Passage

There are definite negative blockages within our consciousness that repress our intrinsic desire to seek the meaning of our existence and purpose in life. By helping to remove these impediments, the words and wisdom of this passage stimulate us to pursue the truth of our being. It is a well-known Kabbalistic principle that states, the more we seek to comprehend our purpose and the reality of the Creator, the more spiritual Light we receive.

76. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the text: "Who shall ascend into the mountain of Hashem? Or who shall stand in His holy place?" (Tehilim 24:3). Come and behold: no man is aware of the reason for his existence in the world. MEN DO NOT SEEK TO KNOW THE PURPOSE OF THEIR LIVES ON EARTH. As the days pass by WITH NO RETURN, they rise up and stand before the Holy One, blessed be He, as they were all created AND HAVE ACTUAL EXISTENCE OF THEIR OWN. How do we know that they were created? Because it is written: "The days were created" (Tehilim 139:16).

77. And when the days depart from this world, they all approach the Supernal King, as it is written: "And the days drew close for David to die," (I Melachim 2:1) "...and the days drew close for Ya'akov to die" (Beresheet 47:29).

78. When a person is in this world, he is not aware of nor does he look for the reason he was created. For him, every day is considered as if it passes by in emptiness. And when the soul leaves this world, it does not recognize the path through which it is elevated, because the path that leads up, to the place where the luminous sublime souls shine, WHICH IS THE GARDEN OF EDEN, is not shown to all souls. After it departs from him, THE SOUL follows the same way that person followed while in this world.

79. Come and behold: if a person is drawn after the Holy One, blessed be He, and longs for Him while in this world, then later, when he departs from this world, he also follows THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. And he is shown a path to climb that rises upward TO THE PLACE WHERE SOULS SHINE. IN OTHER WORDS, it follows and continues the same path that his desire followed and longed for each day while in this world.

80. Rabbi Aba said: One day, I came upon a town that belonged to the children of the East. They shared with me a part of the wisdom that they knew from antiquity. Then they searched for books of their own wisdom and gave me one.

81. Inside this book, it was written that according to the intention of a person's desire in this world, he draws a spirit from above upon himself similar to the desire that he clung to. If his desire is to achieve something holy and divine, then he draws the same from above and brings it down upon himself.

82. If he wishes to cleave to the Other Side, and is intent upon it, he draws the same from above down and brings it upon himself. They used to say THAT TO DRAW SOMETHING DOWN FROM ABOVE depends mainly on speech, deed, and the wish to cleave to it. This is how that certain side that he cleaves to is drawn down from above.

77. וכד מטאן יומין לאסתלקא מהאי עלמא, כלהו קריבין קמי מלכא עלאה, הה"ד ויקרבו ימי דוד למות. ויקרבו ימי ישראל למות.

80. אמר רביאבא, יומא חד אערענא בחד מתא, מאינון דהוו מן בני קדם, ואמרו לי מההיא חכמתא דהוו ידעין מיומי קדמאי, והוו אשכחן ספרין דחכמתא דלהון, וקריבו לי חד ספרא.

83. And I have found IN THAT BOOK all the rites and ceremonies for worshipping the stars and constellations, as well as what is required to worship them and how to direct one's will toward them in order to draw them closer.

84. In the same manner, for whoever desires to cling to the Holy Spirit above, it depends on the act, words, and the intent of the heart, so that he may succeed in drawing it down upon himself so that he may cling to it.

85. And they were saying: Whatever path a person follows in this world is the path along which he is drawn when he leaves this world. And whatever he clung to and pursued while in this world, he clings to in the World of Truth--if to holiness then to holiness; if to impurity then to impurity.

86. If to holiness, then he is drawn toward that same side OF HOLINESS. He clings to it above, and becomes a serving minister before the Holy One, blessed be He, among all the angels. And so he is attached to the supernal WORLD and stands among those holy beings, as it is written: "then I will give you access among these that stand by" (Zechariah 3:7).

87. And so, in the same manner, if HE HAS CLEAVED to impurity WHILE IN THIS WORLD, then he is drawn to the IMPURE side. He becomes one of them and is attached to them. And they are called the 'demons of people.' So when he departs from this world, they take him and cast him into Gehenom--into that place where the impure, who have defiled themselves and their spirits, are judged and punished. He then clings to them, becoming 'a demon', just like the demons of the world.

88. I said to them: My sons, the sayings of this book are close to the sayings of the Torah. But you should stay away from these books, so that you will not be attracted to those beliefs and all those aspects that are mentioned there. Otherwise, heaven forbid, you may abandon the service of the Holy One, blessed be He!

89. People are led astray because of these books. The people of the east were wise and inherited this wisdom from Avraham, who gave it to the sons of the concubines. As it is written: "But to the sons of the concubines, which Avraham had, Avraham gave gifts, and sent them away from his son, while he yet lived, eastward, to the east country" (Bereshheet 25:6). Afterward, they developed their wisdom in many directions.

90. But the seed of Yitzchak, the portion of Ya'akov, is not so. As it is written: "And Avraham gave all that he had to Yitzchak" (Ibid. 5). This is the holy portion of faith that Avraham cleaved to. And from this side and fate did Ya'akov come. What is written about him? It is written: "And, behold, Hashem stood above him," (Beresheet 28:13) and "But you, Yisrael, are my servant, Ya'akov..." (Yeshayah 41:8). For this reason, a person should be drawn after the Holy One, blessed be He, and cleave to Him always, as it is written: "and to Him shall you cleave..." (Devarim 10: 20).

90. אָבֶל זֶרְעָא דִּיִּצְחָק חוּלְקָא דִּיעֶקֶב, לֹא הָכִי דְכִתִּיב וַיִּתֵּן אַבְרָהָם אֶת כָּל אֲשֶׁר לוֹ לִיִּצְחָק. דָּא חוּלְקָא קְדִישָׁא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא, דְאַתְדַּבֵּק בֵּיה אַבְרָהָם. וְנִפְק מֵהוּא עַדְבָּא, וּמַהִיּוּא סְטְרָא יַעֲקֹב. מַה כְּתִיב בֵּיה וְהִנֵּה ה' נֹצֵב עָלָיו. וְכִתִּיב וְאַתָּה יַעֲקֹב עֲבָדִי וְגו'. בְּגִינֵי כֵךְ בְּעֵי לֵיה לְבַר נֶשׁ, לְאַתְמַשְׁכָּא בְּתַר קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וּלְאַתְדַּבֵּק בֵּיה תְדִיר, דְכִתִּיב וְבו תִּדְבֹק.

91. Come and behold. It is written: "Who shall ascend into the mountain of Hashem..." (Tehilim 24:3) And after this, he continues to explain that "he that has clean hands." THIS MEANS THAT he has not made an idol with his hands, and his hands did not hold what they should not have held. Furthermore, IT SHOULD BE EXPLAINED THAT THE PHRASE "CLEAN HANDS" MEANS HIS HANDS were not defiled, and he did not defile the body with them, as those who defile themselves with their hands and become impure. This is what "clean hands" means. A "pure heart" is the heart of someone who has not diverted his heart to the Other Side, but rather is drawn after the service of the Holy One, blessed be He!

91. תָּא חֲזִי מִי יַעֲלֶה בְּהַר ה' וְגו'. וּלְבַתַּר אַהֲרָר וּפִירֶשׁ. נְקִי כַפַּיִם. דְּלֹא עֲבִיד בִּידוּי טוּפְסָא, וְלֹא אֶתְתַּקֵּף בְּהוּ בְּמַה דְּלֹא אֶצְטְרִיךְ. וְתוּ, דְּלֹא אֶסְתָּאֵב בְּהוּ, וְלֹא סָאִיב בְּהוּ לְגוּפָא, כְּאִינוּן דְּמַסָּאֲבִין גְּרַמְיִיהוּ בִּידִין לְאַסְתָּאֵבָא, וְדָא הוּא נְקִי כַפַּיִם. וְכִי לְבָב, כְּגוּוֹנָא דָא דְּלֹא אֲמַשִּׁיךְ רַעוּתִיהּ וּלְבִיהּ, לְסְטְרָא אַחֲרָא, אֲלֵא לְאַתְמַשְׁכָּא בְּתַר פּוּלְחָנָא דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא.

92. Of the verse, "who has not lifted up his soul (Nefesh) in vain," observe that it is written "Nafsho" ('his soul'), but pronounced "Nafshi" ('my soul'). The explanation is that 'my soul' is the soul of David, the aspect of faith WHICH IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN; 'his soul' is actually the soul of a human being. THIS IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN WHAT IS WRITTEN AND HOW IT IS PRONOUNCED. Thus, when a person passes away from this world and his soul (Nefesh) leaves with proper deeds, he will have the privilege of being among all those holy ones, as it is written: "I will walk before Hashem in the land of the living" (Tehilim 116:9). THEREFORE HE SAYS: Because he "has not lifted up his soul in vain...He shall receive the blessing from Hashem..."

92. אֲשֶׁר לֹא נִשָּׂא לְשׂוֹא נַפְשִׁי. נַפְשׁוֹ כְּתִיב, נַפְשִׁי קְרִי, וְהָא אֲוִקְמוּהָ נַפְשִׁי דָא נַפְשׁ דְּדָוִד, סְטְרָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא. נַפְשׁוֹ דָא נַפְשׁ דְּבַר נֶשׁ מִמֶּשׁ. בְּגִין דְּכַד יְפוּק מֵהַאי עֲלֵמָא, וְנַפְשִׁיהּ יִסְתַּלַּק בְּעוֹבְדִין דְּכִשְׂרִין, עַל מַה דִּיתְקַיִים בְּהוּ, לְמִיּהָרְךָ בֵּין כָּל אִינוּן קְדִישִׁין, כְּד"א אֶתְהַלֵּךְ לִפְנֵי ה' בְּאַרְצוֹת הַחַיִּים. וּבְגִין דְּלֹא נִשָּׂא לְשׂוֹא נַפְשִׁי, יִשָּׂא בְּרַכָּה מֵאֵת ה' וְגו'.

7. "And, lo, three men...and they ate"

A discussion arises as to whether Avraham the Patriarch perceived the three angels, Michael, Gavriel, and Raphael as angelic entities or as physical beings. According to the Zohar, Avraham was able to perceive them as angels by virtue of his circumcision, which removed negativity and elevated his consciousness. The lesson being conveyed concerns the importance of a person's consciousness and its ability to influence perception.

The Relevance of this Passage

Two people often perceive a singular image or event differently because their individual consciousness are on two different levels. Both perceptions are indeed correct; however, one perspective is limited if it remains on a lower level of consciousness, and the other is far-reaching if it occupies a higher level. Achieving transcendence over this physical realm by raising our own consciousness is the intent of this portion. We achieve a heightened sense of awareness, perceiving the true spiritual reality during the day-to-day rigors of physical existence.

93. Come and behold: after Avraham had circumcised himself, he sat down and was in pain. The Holy One, blessed be He, sent him three visible angels to inquire of his well-being. You may wonder how they were visible, for who is able to see angels, as it is written: "Who makes his angels spirits (also, 'winds')" (Tehilim 104:4).

93. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּתַר דְּאַתְגְּזֹר אַבְרָהָם, הָוּה יְתִיב וְכְאִיב, וְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא שְׂדַר לְגַבִּיהַ תְּלַת מְלָאכִין בְּאַתְגְּלִיָּא, לְאַקְדַּמָּא לֵיה שְׁלָם. וְאִי תִימָא, דְּהָא בְּאַתְגְּלִיָּא, וְכִי מֵאן יְכִיל לְמַחְמֵי מְלָאכִין, וְהָא כְּתִיב עוֹשֶׂה מְלָאכֵיו רוּחוֹת וְגו'.

94. AND HE REPLIES: He certainly did see them because they came to earth in the image of men. And it should not be hard for you to understand because they are definitely holy spirits. But when they come down to this world, they enclothe themselves with the air and the elements of covering and enveloping, until they appear to people exactly in their image.

95. Come and behold: Avraham saw them in the image of men. And even though he was in pain because of the circumcision, he ran forth to greet them, so that he would not miss anything and would not behave differently than before his circumcision, WHEN HE ALWAYS ACCEPTED AND WELCOMED NEW GUESTS.

96. Rabbi Shimon said: He definitely did see them in the form of angels. THIS CAN BE UNDERSTOOD from the words: "And he said... my lords (Heb. adonai)" with the letters Aleph and Dalet. THESE LETTERS, WHICH FORM THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH, ARE THE FIRST TWO LETTERS OF THE NAME ADONAI. For it was the Shechinah that was approaching, and these angels were Her supports and throne. They are the three colors--WHITE, RED, AND GREEN--that are under THE SHECHINAH.

97. And he saw THAT THEY WERE ANGELS because after he was circumcised, he was able to see what he did not see before he was circumcised. At first, he thought they were human beings. Later, he realized that they were angels on a mission FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. THEY FULFILLED THIS MISSION when they said to him, "Where is Sarah, your wife," (Bereshheet 18:9) and informed him about Yitzchak.

98. In the word, "Elav ('to him')," WHICH APPEARS IN THE VERSE "AND THEY SAID TO HIM," the letters with dots are Aleph, Yud, and Vav. And this sign, ayo, alludes to what is above, implying the Holy One, blessed be He. AND THEY ASKED ABOUT HIM: AYO (LIT. 'WHERE IS HE')? And he replied: "Behold, in the tent." THIS MEANS THAT HE WAS ATTACHED TO THE SHECHINAH, BECAUSE here it is written: "in the tent," and there it is written: "a tabernacle (tent) that shall not be taken down..." (Yeshayah 33:20). THUS, IT REFERS TO THE SHECHINAH, JUST AS IN THE LATTER VERSE. Come and behold: Because ayo has dots already, why is it then written: ayeh (lit. 'where')? AND HE REPLIES: Because the secret of the Faith is the union of the male and female as one. THIS IS WHY THEY ASKED OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, "WHERE IS HE (AYO)?" AND THEY ASKED OF THE SHECHINAH, "WHERE IS SHE (AYEH)?" THIS MEANS THAT THEY AROUSED HIM TO FORM A UNION OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WITH HIS SHECHINAH. The verse continues, "And he said: Behold, in the tent," because therein lies the bond of everything--NAMELY THE NUKVA WHO IS CALLED "THE TENT" AND THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE.

94. אֵלָא וְדַאי חָמָא לֹון, דְּנַחְתִּי לְאַרְעָא, כְּגוּוּנָא דְבְנֵי נָשָׂא, וְלֹא יִקְשָׁה לְךָ הָאִי, דְּהָא וְדַאי אִינוּן רוּחִין קְדִישִׁין, וּבְשַׁעְתָּא דְּנַחְתִּי לְעֵלְמָא, מִתְלַבְּשִׁין בְּאֹיְרֵי וּבִיסוּדֵי דְגוּלְמִין, וְאַתְחִזּוּ לְבְנֵי נָשָׂא מִמֶּש, כְּחִיזוּ דִיוקְנָא דְלֵהוּן.

99. Of the question, "Where is she?" HE ASKS: Did the celestial angels not know that Sarah was in the tent? If so, why then is it written THAT THEY ASKED ABOUT HER SAYING, "Ayeh ('where?')?" AND HE REPLIES: THE ANGELS have no knowledge of this world, except what is given them to know. Come and behold: "For I will pass through the land of Egypt...I am Hashem" (Shemot 12:12). AND HE ASKS: The Holy One, blessed be He, has so many messengers and angels. WHY DID HE HAVE TO "PASS THROUGH THE LAND OF EGYPT" BY HIMSELF? AND HE REPLIES: Because THE ANGELS do not know how to distinguish between the sperm of a first born and that which is not. Only the Holy One, blessed be He, alone knows this.

100. This is similar to the text: "and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men..." (Yechezkel 9:4). Why do THE ANGELS need THIS MARK? Because THE ANGELS know only what they are informed of. For example, how do they know all that the Holy One, blessed be He, plans on doing in the world? They know because the Holy One, blessed be He, sends announcements throughout the heavens, informing them of what He is about to perform in the world. THE ANGELS HEAR THESE ANNOUNCEMENTS AND KNOW!

101. In the same way, when the Angel of Destruction roams the world, people should hide at home and not be seen at the marketplace. This will prevent the Angel of Destruction from destroying and hurting them. As it is written: "and none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning," (Shemot 12:22) because from them--FROM THE ANGELS--we can and should hide. But there is no need to hide from the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? Says Hashem" (Yirmeyah 23:24).

102. "Where is Sarah, your wife?" HE DID NOT UNDERSTAND WHY THEY ASKED ABOUT HER. WHEN THEY HEARD SHE WAS IN THE TENT, THEY DID NOT ENTER IT TO INFORM HER. INSTEAD, THEY REMAINED OUTSIDE WHILE THEY INFORMED AVRAHAM. AND HE ANSWERS: They did not want to announce THE GOOD NEWS in front of her. So immediately after he said, "Behold, in the tent," it is then written: "he said: I will return and definitely come back to you at this time next year, and, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son" (Beresheet 18:10). Come and behold: it was very polite and proper that they said nothing to Avraham before he invited them to eat. This way, it did not seem that he invited them to eat because of the good news they brought him. Therefore, only after the verse stated "and they ate," did they inform him about the good news.

103. HE ASKS: IT IS WRITTEN: "and they ate," but do celestial angels eat? AND HE REPLIES: For the sake of Avraham's honor, it seemed AS THOUGH THEY ATE. THIS MEANS THAT THEY MADE IT SEEM AS THOUGH THEY WERE EATING. Rabbi Elazar said: They did actually eat, because they are the "fire that consumes fire." And it is not as though THEY WERE EATING. So they ate everything Avraham offered them, because from the side of Avraham they ate on a supernal level. THIS MEANS THAT THE DRAWING DOWN OF CHASSADIM IS THE SECRET OF 'EATING ON A SUPERNAL LEVEL,' AND AVRAHAM IS THE SECRET OF CHESED. THEREFORE, EVERYTHING HE OFFERED THEM CAME FROM HIS OWN ATTRIBUTE, FROM THE ATTRIBUTE OF CHESED. AND THEY ATE, JUST AS THEY EAT ABOVE IN THE HEAVENS.

104. Come and behold: everything Avraham ate was according to the rites of purity. And because of this, he served it to the angels, who ate. In his home, he observed the rites of purity so strictly that an impure person could not serve at his home unless he (Avraham) immersed him in a ritual bath IF HE WAS SLIGHTLY IMPURE. Or he made him keep purity properly for seven days at his home, IF HE WAS SEVERELY IMPURE. AFTERWARD, HE IMMERSSED HIM.

105. Come and behold. It is written: "If there be among you any man who is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chances by night..." (Devarim 23:11) what should he do? The verse continues, "when evening comes on, he shall bathe himself in water..." (Ibid. 12) But if he becomes defiled through any other SEVERE cause, like gonorrhea or leprosy on the impurity of menstrual flow, which include two kinds of defilement, then the ritual immersion FOR CLEANSING HIMSELF FROM THE NOCTURNAL POLLUTION AT EVENING is not sufficient. UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, HE SHOULD KEEP PURITY FOR SEVEN DAYS. THEN HE SHOULD IMMERSSE AGAIN. THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HE WHO experienced nocturnal pollution before he was defiled with the other kind of defilement and he who was defiled only afterward. Avraham and Sarah dedicated their lives to help people make the transformation to a more positive and spiritual way of life. Avraham and Sarah's devotion to this objective aroused genuine miracles of nature.

The Relevance of this Passage

A miracle, a wonder of nature, is essentially a mirror reflecting a profound spiritual change within human nature. Because our natural inclination is self-indulgence at the expense of others, the Light of this passage gives us the strength to overpower our natural tendencies and apportion part of our life to the service of others, exemplified by Avraham and Sarah. When a person dedicates his life to sharing with others, the Creator causes great wonders to be revealed in order to help him toward this pursuit.

106. Avraham and Sarah prepared ritual baths for every person—he for the men and she for the women. And why was Avraham occupied in purifying other people? Because he is pure and is called pure, as it is written: "Who can bring a pure thing out of an impure? Not one," (Iyov 14:4) where "pure" applies to Avraham, who came out of Terach, WHO IS IMPURE.

107. Rabbi Shimon said: THIS IS WHY AVRAHAM ENGAGED IN RITUAL IMMERSION—to rectify Avraham's grade. And what is his grade? It is 'waters'-- NAMELY CHASSADIM, THAT ARE CALLED 'WATERS'. Because of this, he prepared people to be purified with water. And when he invited the angels, his first words were as it is written: "Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched..." (Beresheet 18:4)-- to strengthen himself with that grade which contains water, NAMELY CHESD.

108. This is how he purified people from all sins, including those from the Impure Side and idol worshiping. And just as he purified the men, so did she purify the women. Therefore, all those who came to him were completely purified FROM IDOL WORSHIPING AND DEFILEMENT.

108. וּבְגִינֵי כֶּךָ, הוּהּ מְדַבֵּי לְכָל בְּנֵי נִשְׂא מִכָּלְהוּ, מְדַבֵּי לֹון מְסֻטְרָא דְּע"ז, וּמְדַבֵּי לֹון מְסֻטְרָא דְּמִסְאָבָא, וְכַמְּה דְּאִיהוּ מְדַבֵּי לְגוּבְרִין, ה"ג שְׂרָה מְדַבַּת לְנָשִׁין, וְאַשְׁתַּכְּחוּ כְּלָהוּ דְּאַתְיִין לְגַבְיֵיהוּ דְּכִיּוּן מִכָּלְהוּ.

109. Come and behold: wherever Avraham lived, he planted a tree. But it did not grow properly in all the places; it only grew properly when he lived in Cna'an. And by this tree, he knew who was attached to the Holy One, blessed be He, and who worshiped idols.

110. For if a person cleaved to the Holy One, blessed be He, the tree spread out its branches, covered his head, and formed a pleasant shade for him. But if a person was attached to idolatry, the tree raised its branches high. Then Avraham knew THAT HE WORSHIPPED IDOLS. Avraham reprimanded him and did not let him go until he cleaved to faith in the Holy One, blessed be He!

111. In addition, whoever was pure was accepted by the tree. But whoever was impure was not accepted. Avraham then knew IF A PERSON WAS UNCLEAN. If this was the case, he purified him with water.

112. And there was a spring of water beneath the tree. If a person WHO WAS SLIGHTLY IMPURE needed an immersion, the water immediately rose and the branches of the tree ascended upward. Avraham thus knew that he was impure and had to be immersed in water immediately. But if a person did not need to be cleansed immediately, the spring dried up. Then Avraham knew that he was still impure and needed to wait for seven days.

113. Come and behold: even when he invited the angels, he told them to rest "yourselves under the tree," (Beresheet 18:4) in order to test them. In this way, he examined every person. And the secret is that he said this for the sake of the Holy One, blessed be He, who is THE SECRET OF the Tree of Life for everyone. This is why he TOLD THEM: "and rest yourselves under the tree," WHICH IS THE HOLY ONE BLESSED BE HE, and not under idol worshiping.

114. Come and behold: Adam sinned by eating from the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, as it is written: "But from the tree of knowledge of good and evil..." (Beresheet 2:17). But after he sinned, thereby bringing death upon the entire world, it is written: "and now lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever" (Beresheet 3:22). And when Avraham appeared, he ameliorated the world by using another tree, the Tree of Life, to introduce the proper faith to all peoples of the world.

The sacrifices that occurred inside the ancient temple and the incense that was burned were powerful tools that were used to remove forces of negativity and evil from the entire world. The absence of the physical Temple in our day prevents us from utilizing these instruments. The Zohar, however, explains that the words of the Torah that speak of the sacrifices and incense rouse those same forces of purification into being. Moreover, they transform prosecuting angels into entities that speak only good and favorable words about a person in the Supernal Courts.

The Relevance of this Passage

It was foreseen that a time would come when many physical tools of spirituality would be lost to the ages. The gift of the Torah, the Zohar, and specifically this passage, replenish the spiritual energy lost in the absence of such tools. Accordingly, we can purify negative influences in our own life and the world at large. In addition, we arouse the power to transform decrees of judgment into words of praise on our behalf.

109. תָּא חֲזִי, אֵילָנָא נִטַע אַבְרָהָם, בְּכָל אֶתְרַי דְּדִיּוּרִיָּה תַּמָּן, וְלֹא הוּוּ סְלִיק בְּכָל אֶתְרַי בְּדַקָּא יְאוּת, בַּר בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְּדִיּוּרִיָּה בְּאַרְעָא דְּכַנְעַן. וּבַהֲוֹא אֵילָנָא הוּוּ יָדַע מֵאֵן דְּאַתְאַחִיד בֵּיה בְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וּמֵאֵן דְּאַתְאַחִיד בְּע"ז.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

115. Rabbi Chiya said in the name of Rav: If we look into this passage, we should do so wisely. If THIS PASSAGE DISCUSSES matters of the soul, AS HE STARTED TO EXPLAIN, then there is no connection between the beginning and the end, nor between the end and the beginning. THIS MEANS THAT IT IS HARD TO EXPLAIN THE END OF THE PASSAGE IN RELATION TO THE SOUL, REFERRING TO THE WORDS, "LET A LITTLE WATER, I PRAY YOU, BE FETCHED..." THEREFORE, THE END IS NOT CONNECTED TO THE BEGINNING, AND VICE VERSA. But if THE PASSAGE DISCUSSES the departure of man from this world, let the whole passage deal with this. So either we explain the whole passage in this way or the other WE SHOULD CONTINUE TO EXPLAIN THE MEANING OF, "let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet..." AS WELL AS THE MEANING OF, "And I will fetch a morsel of bread...Avraham hastened into the tent, to Sarah...And Avraham ran to the herd...And he took butter, and milk" (Bereshheet 18:4-8).

116. When Rabbi Dimi arrived he said: The soul could have no use for the body were it not for the sacrifice-offering implied here THAT APPEAR IN THE VERSES "LET A LITTLE WATER," AND SO ON. Even when the offerings ceased, AS THE TEMPLE WAS DESTROYED, the Torah did not cease to exist. Thus, he can delve in study of the Torah, and it will help him even more than the sacrifices.

117. Rabbi Yochanan said: When the Holy One, blessed be He, described the sacrificial offerings in detail, Moshe said--Master of the universe, this is all right when the children of Yisrael live in their land, but what shall they do when they are exiled from their land? He replied: Moshe, let them study Torah, and I shall forgive them, for Its sake, more than for all other sacrifices in the world, as it is written: "This is the Torah of the burnt offering, of the meal offering..." (Vayikra 7:37) This means that the Torah is instead of the burnt offering, instead of the meal offering, instead of the sin offering, and instead of the guilt offering.

118. Rabbi Cruspedai said: For whoever utters the phrases of the sacrificial offerings in the synagogues and in academies for the study of Torah, and meditates on them, it is a sealed Covenant that all those angels who mention his sins in order to persecute him can only do him good.

119. And what proves this to be true? This passage: "And, lo, three men stood by him." What is meant by "stood by him?" It means to judge him and pronounce his sentence. As soon as the soul of the righteous saw this, it is written: "And Avraham hastened into the tent..." What is meant by "into the tent?" This refers to the academy for the study of Torah. And what does he say? He says: "Make ready quickly three measures..." This refers to offerings, to which the soul alludes, as it is written: "And Avraham ran to the herd..." Then they are pleased and appeased, and cannot do him any harm.

120. Rabbi Pinchas continued the discussion with the passages: "and, behold, the plague had begun among the people..." (Bemidbar 17:12); "Moshe said to Aharon, Take a censer..." (Ibid. 11); "the plague was stayed" (Ibid. 13). WE LEARN THIS THROUGH THE USE OF SIMILAR WORDS. It says here "quickly" IN THE VERSE "AND TAKE IT QUICKLY TO THE CONGREGATION." There it is written: "Make ready quickly three measures." As in the first verse, the word "quickly" here applies to a sacrificial offering as a means of salvation. THIS SUPPORTS THE EXPLANATION OF RABBI CRUSPEDAI.

121. Rabbi Pinchas then said: Once, while I was walking, I met Eliyahu and said to him--Sir, may you say to me something for the well-being of the people. He said to me: The Holy One, blessed be He, signed a covenant with this provision. If the angels who report the transgressions of man enter his presence while human beings simultaneously recite the sacrificial offerings that Moshe commanded, and say them with full intention and with all their hearts, then all THE ANGELS will mention their names for good.

122. ELIYAHU SAID TO ME: Further, there is a signed covenant stating that when there is a plague among people, He sends forth this announcement among all the hosts of the heavens. If the humans enter the synagogues and yeshivahs on earth and recite with all their heart and soul the paragraph of the incense that Yisrael once performed, the plague will stop.

123. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Come and behold. It is written: "And Moshe said to Aharon, take a censer and put fire in it from off the altar, and put on incense." Aharon asked him, "Why?" Moshe replied: "for the wrath has gone out from before Hashem..." It then says: "and he ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold, the plague had begun among the people...And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed." (Bemidbar 17:11-13) Hence, the Angel of Destruction lost his dominion and the "plague was stayed." THUS, IT IS STATED EXPRESSLY THAT THE INCENSE STOPPED THE PLAGUE.

123. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק בּוּא וְרָאָה, מַה כְּתִיב, וַיֹּאמֶר מֹשֶׁה אֶל אַהֲרֹן קַח אֶת הַמַּחְתָּה וְתֵן עָלֶיהָ אֵשׁ מִעַל הַמִּזְבֵּחַ וְשִׁים קִטְרֶת. אָמַר לוּ אַהֲרֹן לְמָהּ. אָמַר כִּי יֵצֵא הַקֶּצֶף מִלְּפָנֵי ה' וְגו'. מַה כְּתִיב וַיִּרַץ אֶל תּוֹךְ הַקֶּהֶל וְהִנֵּה הֵחֵל הַנֶּגֶף בְּעָם. וּכְתִיב וַיַּעֲמֵד בֵּין הַמֵּתִים וּבֵין הַחַיִּים וַתַּעֲצֵר הַמַּגֵּפָה. וְלֹא יִכִּיל מִלְּאַכָּא דְּמַחְבְּלָא, לְשִׁלְטָאָה וְנִתְבַּטְלָא מוֹתְנָא.

124. Rabbi Acha went to the village of Tarsha, where he stayed at an inn. The people of that village whispered about him, saying: A great man has arrived here; let us go to him. They said to him: Do you not have mercy on us because of the plague? He said to them: What plague? They replied: A plague struck the village seven days ago. And every day that passes, it becomes worse.

125. He responded: Let us go to the synagogue and plead for mercy in front of the Holy One, blessed be He. As they were on their way, people came up to them and told them the names of people who had died or were about to die. Rabbi Acha said to them: This is not the time to stand around talking, time presses.

126. Choose forty men from the worthiest among you and divide them into four groups. I shall be among you. Ten men should go to each of the four corners of the city. There, you shall recite, with the might of your souls, the phrases of the incense offering, which the Holy One, blessed be He, handed over to Moshe. And you should also recite the phrases of the sacrificial offerings.

127. And so they recited those phrases three times in each of the four corners of the city. He then told them: Let us visit those who are about to die. Choose from among you PEOPLE WHO MAY GO to their houses and recite WHAT WE HAVE SAID. When they finish, say these verses: "And Moshe said to Aharon, take a censer...And Aharon took...And he stood between the dead..." (Bemidbar 17:11-13) They followed these instructions, and then THE PLAGUE ceased.

128. They heard a voice that said: Secrets, primary secrets have been sweetened above; for the Judgment of heaven does not apply here, because people know how to cancel the Judgment! Rabbi Acha's heart became faint, and he fell asleep. He heard them say to him: As you have done this, go and tell them to repent, because they have sinned before Me! He woke up and made them repent and atone completely for their deeds. And they took it upon themselves never to cease studying Torah. And they changed the name of the village to Mata Machseya ('the village of Mercy'), BECAUSE THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SHOWED MERCY TOWARDS THE VILLAGE.

125. אמר להו, ניזיל לבי כנישתא, ונתבע רחמי מן קדם קודשא בריך הוא. עד דהו אזלי אתו ואמרו, פלוני ופלוני מיתו, ופלוני ופלוני נטו למות. אמר להו רבי אחא, לית עתא לקיימא הכי, דשעתא דחיקא.

129. Rabbi Yehuda said: It is not enough for the righteous to cancel the decree, they must bless them as well. And you should know that it is indeed so! Because the soul says to the body: "Make ready quickly three measures of a fine meal," and other phrases. And so it cancels the sentence of Judgment. And what is then written? And he said: "I will return and definitely come back to you at this time next year." Behold, this is the blessing.

130. Now what do the angels do after seeing that this person has taken good advice upon himself? They go to the wicked and examine their cases, in order to judge them, as it is written: "And the men rose up from there, and looked toward S'dom" (Bereshheet 18:16)--to the place of the wicked, in order to sentence them.

131. Rabbi Yehuda continued: This is the way of the righteous. As soon as he realizes that the angels are examining his case, he immediately repents, prays, and offers his fat and blood as a sacrifice before his Maker until the persecutors have gone!

132. After saying: "And he lifted up his eyes and looked and, lo, three men stood by him..."--what does it say about the soul? "And Avraham hastened into the tent, to Sarah." He went in a rush, without any delay, as the soul hastens to the body to bring it back to the right path and search for anything that may atone for its sins, until the prosecutors depart from it.

133. Rabbi Eliezer says: Why does it say, "Now Avraham and Sarah were old, advanced in days, and the manner of women ceased to be with Sarah" (Bereshheet 18:11)? Because the soul preserved its stature and the body remained on earth for all those years, "advanced in days." It is after many years and days that it ceases to come to and fro like other men and it is announced that the body shall be resurrected.

134. What does it say? "After I am grown old shall I have pleasure" (Ibid. 12). After being wasted in the dust for many years until this day, "shall I have pleasure" and be renewed. "...my lord being old also..." means that it has been many years since you left me, and you have not visited me since.

135. And the Holy One, blessed be He, said: "Is anything too hard for Hashem? At the time appointed..." (Ibid. 14). What is meant by "the time appointed?" This is the time that is known to me for the resurrection of the dead. "...and Sarah shall have a son," that is, it shall be revived as a three year old.

135. וְקוֹדֵשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אָמַר, הִיפְלֵא מֵה' דְּבַר לְמוֹעֵד. מֵהוּ לְמוֹעֵד. אוֹתוֹ הִידוּעַ אֶצְלֵי לְהַחֲיוֹת הַמֵּתִים. וְלְשָׂרָה בֵּן. מִלְּמַד שִׁיתְחַדֵּשׁ כְּבֵן שְׁלֹשׁ שָׁנִים.

136. Rabbi Yehuda, the son of Rabbi Simon, said: Because the soul is replenished by the splendor of above, the Holy One, blessed be He, tells the angel Dumah--Go and inform the body of such and such, that I shall resurrect it in the future, at the appointed time, when I shall resurrect the righteous. And it replies: "After I am grown old shall I have pleasure?" After I have waxed in the dust and have dwelt in the soil and worms have eaten my flesh, and I am a clot of earth, shall I be resurrected?

137. The Holy One, blessed be He, says to the soul, as it is written: "And Hashem said to Avraham...Is anything too hard for Hashem? At the time appointed..." (Beresheet 18:13-14) which is known to Me, I will resurrect the dead. I will return to you that same body which is sacred, renewed as before, because you are like the holy angels. And that day shall be merry before Me and I shall rejoice in them, as it is written: "May the glory of Hashem endure forever, let Hashem rejoice in his works..." (Tehilim 104:31).
End of Midrash Hane'elam

137. קוֹדֵשׁ אֲדָרָתָהּ הוּא אֹמֵר לְנִשְׁמָה, הֵה"ד וַיֹּאמֶר ה' אֵל אַבְרָהָם וְגו'. הַיִּפְלֵא מֵה' דְּבַר לְמוֹעֵד הַיָּדוּעַ אֲצֵלִי, לְהַחְיֹת אֶת הַמֵּתִים, אֲשׁוּב אֵלֶיךָ אוֹתוֹ הַגּוֹף שֶׁהוּא קְדוֹשׁ, מְחוּדָשׁ כְּבָרָאשׁוֹנָה, לְהַיּוֹתְכֶם מִלְּאֲכָמִים קְדוֹשִׁים. וְאוֹתוֹ הַיּוֹם עֲתִיד לִפְנֵי לְשִׂמְחָה בָּהֶם, הֵה"ד יְהִי כְבוֹד ה' לְעוֹלָם וְשִׂמְחָה ה' בְּמַעֲשָׁיו (ע"כ מדרה"ג).

8. "And he said I will certainly return to you"

The Creator informs Avraham, that though barren, his wife, Sarah, will be able to give birth to a child. The Zohar explains that only the Creator Himself possesses the key to childbirth.

The Relevance of this Passage

Whereas man has the power to affect many miracles over nature by changing his own nature, it is only the Creator who can bestow the gift of childbirth. The words that convey this truth allow us to receive and share the energy of childbirth with all of those in need of it.

138. "And he said, 'I will certainly return to you at this season...'" (Beresheet 18:10). Rabbi Yitzchak asked: Why is it written: "I will certainly return?" I should have said, 'He will certainly return,' as the key to impregnating barren women is in the hands of the Holy One, blessed be He, and not in the hands of any other messenger.

138. וַיֹּאמֶר שׁוּב אֲשׁוּב אֵלֶיךָ בְּעֵת חַיָּה. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, שׁוּב אֲשׁוּב, שׁוּב וְשׁוּב מִבְּעֵי לֵיה, דְּהָא מִפְּתָחָא דָּא לְמַפְקַד עֲקָרוֹת, בִּידָא דְקוֹדֵשׁ אֲדָרָתָהּ הוּא אִיהוּ, וְלֹא בִידָא דְשְׁלִיחָא אַחֲרָא.

139. As we have learned, there are three keys that were not handed over to any messenger: the keys of life, of the resurrection of the dead, and of the rains. As they were not handed over to any messenger, why is it written "I will certainly return," WHICH MEANS THAT THE ANGEL WILL RETURN "AT THIS TIME" AND VISIT HER? AND HE REPLIES: It is clear that the Holy One, blessed be He, who stood by them said this phrase. This is why it is written: "I will certainly return to you."

140. Come and behold: wherever it is merely written: "And he said" or "And he called," WITHOUT MENTIONING WHO SAID OR CALLED, it is a reference to the Angel of the Covenant, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH, and no other. "And he said..." appears in the verse "And he said, if you will diligently hearken to the voice..." (Shemot 15:26) but the verse does not mention who said this. It is also written in the verse "And he called upon Moshe..." (Vayikra 1:1) but again, it does not say who called. Again, it is written: "And to Moshe, he said..." (Shemot 24:1) but it does not say who. In all these places, it is the Angel of the Covenant, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH. And everything has been said in reference to the Holy One, blessed be He, BECAUSE THE SHECHINAH IS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. This is why it is written: "And he said, I will certainly return to you...and, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son." THUS, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO HAS THE KEY FOR IMPREGNATING BARREN WOMEN IN HIS HANDS, ALONE MAY SAY, "I WILL CERTAINLY RETURN..."

9. "And, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son"

When we do not pursue spiritual growth for the purpose of drawing close to The Creator, our true Father, we behave as disrespectful, uncaring children. Therefore, recognizing the Creator as our true Father should be motivation for spiritual growth and transformation.

The Relevance of this Passage

A child cannot truly grow and develop to its fullest without the tenderness, care, and nurturing that a loving parent provides. When we live life without appreciation or comprehension of the Creator, we cannot grow and develop spiritually. The influences of this passage arouse an awareness of the Creator, our true source and origin, along with all the other precious qualities found in children who seek security and comfort from a parent.

141. "And, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son" (Beresheet 18:10). HE ASKS: Why does the verse not read, 'And, lo, you shall have a son?' AND HE REPLIES: So that he may not assume that he will be born to Hagar as before. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion by saying: "A son honors his father, and a servant his master" (Malachi 1:6). The words "A son honors his father" refer to Yitzchak honoring Avraham.

142. When did he honor him? Yitzchak was 37 years old when Avraham bound him on the altar and offered him as a sacrifice. Avraham was so old that he could not have countered an attack from Yitzchak—not even a kick with one foot. But Yitzchak honored his father, who bound him like a lamb, AND SHOWED NO RESISTANCE, in order to fulfill his father's will.

143. An example of a servant honoring his master is Eliezer to Avraham, whom Avraham sent to Charan. There, Eliezer honored Avraham by fulfilling his wishes, as it is written: "And Hashem has blessed my master greatly..." (Beresheet 24:35), as well as "And he said, I am Avraham's servant" (Ibid. 34). He did all of this to show respect to Avraham.

144. Eliezer is a man who carried silver, gold, precious stones, and camels. He himself was good looking and impressive in appearance. Nevertheless, he did not say that he was a dear friend or a relative of Avraham. Instead, he said, "I am Avraham's servant," in order to raise the esteem of Avraham and make them respect him.

145. Therefore, the verse reads, "A son honors his father, and a servant his master,"-- but you Yisrael, my children, you are ashamed to say that I am your father or that you are My servants. So "...if then I am a father, where is my honor...?" (Malachi 1:6). Thus, it is written: "And, lo...a son." This is definitely the son, who unlike Yishmael properly honors his father.

146. "And, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son," as she died because of him, WHEN SHE HEARD OF HIM BEING BOUND UPON THE ALTAR. And because of him, she suffered anguish in her soul until she bore him. "And, lo, Sarah...shall have a son" MEANS THAT she was exalted on his account when the Holy One, blessed be He, sat in Judgment on the world--because at that time, ON ROSH HASHANAH, WHEN YITZCHAK WAS BORN, "Hashem visited Sarah..." Clearly, He remembered Sarah for the sake of Yitzchak. This is why "Sarah...shall have a son." ANOTHER EXPLANATION OF "And, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son" is that BECAUSE the woman receives the child from the man, THE FEMALE HAS THE CHILD. THEREFORE, THE VERSE SAYS, "AND, LO, SARAH...SHALL HAVE A SON."

147. "And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him" (Beresheet 18:10). AND HE ASKS: What do the words "which was behind him" mean? Should it not have been written: 'and she was behind him,' AS IF TO SAY THAT SHE WAS BEHIND THE INFORMING ANGEL? HE REPLIES: There is a secret here. "And Sarah heard it" REFERS TO the words "tent door," which correspond to the lower grade, that is, the gate of faith, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH. "...which was behind him..." MEANS THAT the upper grade, WHO IS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, confirmed the declaration. Ever since Sarah came into the world, she did not hear anything from the Holy One, blessed be He, save at that moment.

148. Yet another explanation is that Sarah sat at the "tent door" in order to listen to their words. And she heard the good news that Avraham received. THIS IS WHY IT IS WRITTEN: "AND SARAH HEARD IT IN THE TENT DOOR, which (he) was behind him." IT MEANS THAT Avraham sat behind the Shechinah.

149. "Now Avraham and Sarah were old, advanced in days (lit. 'coming with days')..." (Beresheet 18:11). AND HE ASKS: What is meant by 'coming with days'? AND HE REPLIES: THIS MEANS THAT THEY ARE 'COMING' to the end of their 'days.' Avraham was a hundred years old, and Sarah was ninety. They reached their fill of days, as is proper. 'Coming with days' can be read as 'for the day has come,' WHICH CAN MEAN THAT the day has ended. HERE, AS WELL, "COMING WITH THE DAYS" MEANS THAT THEIR DAYS WERE COMPLETED.

150. "...and the manner of women ceased to be with Sarah..." At that hour, she suddenly saw herself having "pleasure" again, AS THE "MANNER OF WOMEN" REVIVED WITHIN HER. Thus she said: "...my lord being old also..." meaning that Avraham was too old to be able to beget children. HOWEVER, SHE DID NOT SAY THAT SHE HERSELF WAS TOO OLD.

10. "Her husband is known in the gates"

Rabbi Yehuda reveals a powerful secret: The Light of the Creator manifests itself in direct proportion to a person's degree of certainty in the reality of the Creator. If we doubt the existence of the Creator, there is no God force in our personal life. It is our consciousness that creates our existence.

For this reason, it is only our absolute conviction and certainty that will bring forth the Creator's existence and influence in our lives, giving us an active role in the process of Creation.

The Relevance of this Passage

All of us are born into this world with varying degrees of doubt in the existence of the Creator. Moreover, the essence of spiritual work and the notion of free will involves removing these layers of uncertainty throughout our life. Doubt, however, is a formidable foe requiring a large measure of certitude and conviction in return. Certainty in the existence of the Creator emerges from this passage, combined with a recognition in the power of our consciousness to influence and shape our reality.

151. Rabbi Yehuda said: "Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land" (Mishlei 31:23). Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, was exalted in His glory, because He is hidden and greatly elevated. Since the creation of the world, nobody has ever been able to grasp and conceive His entire wisdom. Thus, no one is able to comprehend it.

152. He is concealed and exalted high above the reach of all the lower and supernal beings. He is so far above that they all proclaim: "Blessed be the glory of Hashem from His place" (Yechezkel 3:12). The people on earth say that THE SHECHINAH is high above, as it is written: "His glory is above the heavens," (Tehilim 113:4) but the supernal beings say that THE SHECHINAH is down below, as it is written: "His glory is over all the earth" (Tehilim 57:12). So that all the supernal and human beings declare: "Blessed be the glory of Hashem from His place," because He is unknowable, and no one is able to grasp Him. Thus, how does one explain the verse: "Her husband is known in the gates"?

153. Most certainly, "Her husband is known in the gates" refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, who is known and conceived according to what each one assumes in his mind and is able to grasp with the Spirit of Wisdom. Thus, he is able to understand according to what he is able to assume. Therefore, it is written: "Her husband is known in the gates (Heb. she'arim)," THAT IS, THOSE ASSUMPTIONS (HEB. SHI'URIM), WHICH EVERYONE FORMS ACCORDING TO HIS OWN MIND, even though full knowledge of Him is far beyond the reach of anyone.

154. Rabbi Shimon asks: "Her husband is known in the gates." What are the gates? They are the same as the gates mentioned in: "Lift up your heads, gates, and lifted them up, you everlasting doors" (Tehilim 24:9). It is through these gates, which are the supernal grades, that the Holy One, blessed be He, is known. For were it not FOR THESE GATES, no one would have been able to commune with Him.

154. רבי שמעון אמר, נודע בשערים בעלה. מאן שערים. בדבר אחרשאו שערים ראשיכם והנשאו פתחי עולם. ובגין אלו שערים, דאינון דרגין עלאין, בגינייהו אתיידע קודשא בריך הוא. ואי לא, לא יכלין לאתדבקא ביה.

155. Come and behold: even the soul of man cannot be understood directly. It is grasped only through the members of the body, which represent the grades THAT BELONG TO THEM, which reveal the actions of the soul. This is why THE SOUL is conceivable and at the same time inconceivable. IT IS CONCEIVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE BODY, BUT IS NOT CONCEIVABLE IN ITS OWN ESSENCE. In such a manner, the Holy One, blessed be He, is conceivable and inconceivable. He is the soul to the soul and the spirit to the spirit, hidden and concealed from all. But to he WHO MERITS those gates, NAMELY, THE SUPERNAL GRADES that are the openings of the soul, the Holy One, blessed be He, is made known. SO HE IS CONCEIVABLE BY THE SUPERNAL GRADES, WHICH ARE HIS DOINGS, BUT HE IS INCONCEIVABLE FROM THE ASPECT OF HIS OWN ESSENCE.

156. Come and behold: there is gate upon gate, grade upon grade, through which the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, is made known. This REFERS TO the "tent door," which is the gate of righteousness, WHICH IS MALCHUT. Thus, it is written: "Open to me the gates of righteousness" (Tehilim 118:19). And this is the first gate to enter. From this gate, all the other supernal gates can be seen. So whoever enters this gate knows the other gates as well, because they all rest on it.

157. But now, this LOWER gate, WHICH IS CALLED THE "TENT DOOR" AND THE "GATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS" is unknown, because the children of Yisrael are in exile. As a result, all the gates are gone from it. Thus, they are incapable of knowledge and conception. But when Yisrael shall return from exile, all the supernal grades will be destined to dwell upon this gate of righteousness, as should properly be.

158. Then, people will have knowledge of the supernal Wisdom, of which they previously knew nothing, as it is written: "And the spirit of Hashem shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of Hashem" (Yeshayah 11:2). In the future, all these shall rest upon this lower gate, which is the "tent door," NAMELY MALCHUT. And they shall all rest upon King Mashiach to judge the world, as it is written: "But with righteousness shall he judge the poor..." (Ibid. 4)

155. תָּא חֲזִי, דְּהָא נִשְׁמַתָּא דְּבַר נֶשׁ, לָאו אִיהוּ מֵאן דִּיכּוּל לְמַנְדַּע לֵהּ, אֲלֵא בְּגִין אֲלִין שׁוּיְמִין דְּגוּפָא, וְאִינוּן דְּרֵגִין דְּעֵבְדִין אֹמְנוּתָא דְּנִשְׁמַתָּא, בְּגִין כְּרַאתִידַע וְלֹא אֲתִידַע. כֶּךָ קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, אֲתִידַע וְלֹא אֲתִידַע. בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ נִשְׁמַתָּא לְנִשְׁמַתָּא, רוּחָא לְרוּחָא, גְּנִיז וְטְמִיר מְכֻלָּא, אֲבַל בְּאִינוּן שְׁעָרִים, דְּאִינוּן פְּתִיחִין לְנִשְׁמַתָּא אֲתִידַע קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא.

11. "And he said, 'I will certainly return to you'"

The Zohar expounds upon the Right Column aspect of Avraham and the Left Column aspect of Isaac in the metaphysical scheme of things. Both the Right and Left Columns of energy are basic building blocks in Creation, similar to the proton and the electron. This spiritual truth is conveyed through the biblical story where Avraham names his son Isaac as opposed to the tradition of the mother naming the child. The story is a metaphor, indicating the importance of the Right and Left Column--the desire to share and the desire to receive, respectively.

The Relevance of this Passage

Mankind's behavioral actions always embody a particular blend of the Right and Left columns of energy--our ego's desire to receive versus our soul's desire to share. We develop an awareness of the importance of the actions we take through the Right and Left Column pathways. This allows us to continually seek balance through the process of transforming our desire to receive for the self alone into actions of receiving for the sake of sharing with others.

159. Therefore, it was this grade, NAMELY THE "TENT DOOR," WHICH IS MALCHUT, that informed Avraham OF YITZCHAK'S BIRTH, as we have explained the words: "And he said, I will certainly return to you at this season..." Although it reads, "And he said," it does not say who said. So this is the "tent door," BECAUSE "AND HE SAID" REFERS TO THE SHECHINAH. And Sarah heard this grade, WHICH IS THE "TENT DOOR," from which she had heard nothing before, AS IT WAS SPEAKING WITH AVRAHAM, as it is written: "And Sarah heard it THE WORDS OF the tent door," which declared "I will certainly return to you at this season, and, lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son."

160. Come and behold: the love of the Holy One, blessed be He, for Avraham is so great that Yitzchak was not born until after Avraham was circumcised. And only after he was circumcised was he informed of Yitzchak, because only then was the seed holy; before he was circumcised, the seed was not holy. And then it became as it is written: "wherein is its seed after its kind," (Beresheet 1:12) WHICH REFERS TO A KIND AS HOLY AS AVRAHAM.

161. Come and behold: before Avraham was circumcised, his seed was not holy because it passed through the foreskin and clung to the lower foreskin. But after he was circumcised, his seed issued in holiness and it clung to the holiness of above, and he begot up above. Thus, Avraham clung to his grade, WHICH IS CHESED, properly. Come and behold: when Avraham begot Yitzchak, he was born holy, as should properly be. So these waters, WHICH ALLUDE TO AVRAHAM WHO IS CHESED, conceived and bore darkness. IN OTHER WORDS, YITZCHAK, WHO IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT COLUMN, WAS DARKNESS, BEFORE HE WAS CLOTHED WITH THE CHASSADIM OF AVRAHAM. AFTER HE ISSUED FROM AVRAHAM, HE WAS CLOTHED BY HIS CHASSADIM AND BECAME 'LIGHT.'

162. One day, Rabbi Elazar asked his father, Rabbi Shimon: Why did the Holy One, blessed be He, name him Yitzchak before he was born, as it is written: "and you shall call his name Yitzchak?" (Beresheet 17:19). AND WE SHOULD NOT SAY IT WAS BECAUSE SHE SAID "ELOHIM HAS MADE LAUGHTER (HEB. TZECHOK) FOR ME..." (BERESHEET 21:6). Because even before he came into the world, the Holy One, blessed be He, called him Yitzchak, BEFORE REASON WAS GIVEN FOR IT.

163. He replied: But we have learned that fire, WHICH IS THE LEFT ASPECT AND GVURAH, received water, WHICH IS THE RIGHT ASPECT AND CHESED, as water came from the aspect of Gvurah. THIS MEANS THAT THE LEFT AND RIGHT WERE COMBINED AND BECAME INCLUDED IN EACH OTHER. THUS, THE LEFT ASPECT BECAME THE ASPECT OF THE WINE THAT GLADDENS ELOHIM AND MAN. And it is required of the Levites, WHO ARE DRAWN FROM THE LEFT COLUMN, that they bring happiness to that side, NAMELY THE LEFT SIDE, with musical instruments and praising songs that correspond to that side. THIS MEANS THAT MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS AND PRAISING SONGS ARE ALSO DRAWN FROM THE LEFT SIDE. And this is why Yitzchak means laughter and enjoyment; he came from that side, THE LEFT SIDE, and clung to it.

163. אֲמַר לוֹ הָא אֲתַמַּר, דְאֲשָׁא נְטִל מִיָּא, דְהָא מִיָּא מְסֻטְרָא דְגְבוּרָה קָא אֲתִינִן. וְדָא שְׂאִיל, לְלוּאֵי דְאִינּוֹן בְּדִיחִין לְהוּא סְטְרָא, בְּמֵאֵי זִמְר וְתַשְׁבָּחִין, לְקַבִּיל הָאִי סְטְרָא, בְּגִין כְּרִיזְחָק אִיהוּ חֲדוּה, בְּגִין דְאֲתִי מֵהוּא סְטְרָא, וְאֲתַדְבֵּק בֵּיה.

164. Come and behold: Yitzchak himself is pleasure and laughter because he exchanged water for fire, and fire for water. THUS, THE LEFT AND RIGHT ARE INCLUDED IN EACH OTHER--BECAUSE YITZCHAK IS THE ASPECT OF THE LEFT, WHICH IS THE FIRE THAT BECAME INCLUDED WITHIN THE WATER, WHICH IS CHESED AND THE RIGHT ASPECT. THIS CAUSES ALL DELIGHT AND HAPPINESS TO BE DRAWN FROM THE LEFT SIDE. This is why the Holy One, blessed be He, named him YITZCHAK (LIT. 'HE WILL LAUGH') even before he came into the world, and announced it to Avraham.

165. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, allowed all children, EXCEPT YITZCHAK, to be named by their parents. Even women named their children. But here the Holy One, blessed be He, did not allow Yitzchak's mother to name him--only Avraham, as it is written: "and you shall call his name Yitzchak" (Bereshheet 17:19)--you and no one else, in order to exchange water with fire, and fire with water, WHICH REFERS TO THE INCLUSION OF THE LEFT WITH THE RIGHT AND THE RIGHT WITH THE LEFT, so that Yitzchak may be included within his side, THE RIGHT SIDE.

12. "And the men rose up from there"

Before any negative occurrence befalls an individual, the Creator always sends us a gift. This gift is an opportunity to perform a positive action so that we can protect ourselves from any judgments decreed against us. This principle is concealed in the Biblical story of Avraham. The three angels were sent to Avraham by the Creator. When Avraham invites these three angels into his home, it is an act of true kindness. Consider Avraham's situation: He was one hundred years old, it was the third day after his circumcision, which is the most painful day, and the weather was unbearably hot. Nevertheless, Avraham put aside his own self interest and welcomed the three strangers [angels] into his home where he bathed and fed them. This positive action saved the life of Avraham's nephew, Lot, when the cities of Sodom and Gomorra were destroyed.

The Relevance of this Passage

It is human nature to be governed by the primal instinct of self-survival. Yet, it is also uniquely human to put aside one's own needs in consideration of others, albeit, a much more difficult duty to perform. We are empowered with the strength to overcome our natural tendency to be self-absorbed in our own problems. We create the consciousness and awareness to recognize opportunities for sharing. In turn, our positive actions of sharing will give us the ability to overcome or circumvent difficult situations in life.

166. After Avraham was told about Yitzchak, it is written: "And the men rose up from there, and looked toward S'dom" (Bereshheet 18:16). Rabbi Elazar said: Come and behold. The Holy One, blessed be He, shows goodness to all beings, but especially to those who follow His path. And even when He decides to judge the world, He arranges for anyone who loves Him to perform a meritorious act before the world is punished.

167. This corresponds to what we have learned. When the Holy One, blessed be He, loves a person, He sends him a present. And what is THAT PRESENT? It is a poor man for whom he can perform a meritorious act. So now that he is meritorious and deserving, the Holy One, blessed be He, draws a cord of grace from the right side upon him. He winds the cord around his head and marks him, so that when Judgment falls on the world, the Angel of Destruction will take notice of him AND NOT HURT HIM. Because he raises his eyes and notices that mark, he avoids him. This is why the Holy One, blessed be He, arranged beforehand to make him meritorious.

164. תָּא חֲזִי, יִצְחָק בְּרִיחוּתָא, חֲדוּה דְאַחֲלָף מִיָּא בְּאִשָּׁא, וְאִשָּׁא בְּמִיָּא. וְעַד אֶקְרִי הֵבִי. וּבְגִין כְּקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא קְרִי לִיה הֵבִי, עַד לֹא יִפּוּק לְעֵלְמָא, שְׂמָא דָּא, וְאוּדַע לִיה לְאַבְרָהָם.

168. Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, planned to execute Judgment on S'dom, He prepared a meritorious act for Avraham by sending him a present, WHICH REFERS TO THE THREE ANGELS. Because of them, he became deserving. Thereby, he saved Lot, the son of his brother, from destruction. This is why it is written: "and Elohim remembered Avraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow," (Bereshheet 19:29) and not, 'and Elohim remembered Lot.' As a result of Avraham's meritorious act, he was saved. And "remembered" MEANS THAT He remembered the previous meritorious act that He performed with the three angels.

169. In the same manner, when harsh Judgment hangs over the world, the Holy One, blessed be He, remembers the charitable deeds that men performed. Every time a person performs a meritorious action, it is noted above. THEREFORE, even when there is harsh judgment on the world, the Holy One, blessed be He, remembers the good that a person has done and has merited through other people. As it is written: "but charity (righteousness) delivers from death" (Mishlei 11:4). According to this, the Holy One, blessed be He, arranged in advance that opportunity for Avraham to perform a meritorious act, so that by his merit Lot would be saved.

170. Come and behold: "And the men rose up from there, and looked toward S'dom." They rose from the meal that Avraham prepared for them, thereby performing a meritorious act. And even though they were angels, WHO DO NOT NEED A MEAL, he nevertheless attained merit because of them. And they purposely left no food over from the meal, so that Avraham would attain merit through the act, as it is written: "and they did eat," as by their fire the food was eaten and consumed.

171. You might say: But there were three angels: one of fire, one of water, and one of air. SINCE GAVRIEL IS MADE OF FIRE, MICHAEL IS MADE OF WATER, AND REFAEL OF AIR, ONLY GAVRIEL COULD HAVE CONSUMED THE FOOD WITH HIS FIRE. MICHAEL AND REFAEL WERE NOT ABLE TO DO SO, AS THEY ARE NOT MADE OF FIRE. AND HE REPLIES: Each and every one of them includes the others in himself. SO EACH ONE OF THEM WAS MADE OF FIRE, WATER, AND AIR. This is why IT IS WRITTEN ABOUT ALL OF THEM: "and they did eat"--THE FIRE IN EACH OF THEM CONSUMED THE FOOD. Similarly to this, "and they saw Elohim, and did eat and drink," (Shemot 24:11) MEANING that they were indeed nourished from THE SPLENDOR OF the Shechinah, WHICH IS CONSIDERED AS EATING. Thus, in this PASSAGE AS WELL, "and they did eat" MEANS THAT they nourished themselves, THROUGH THEIR EATING, from the side to which Avraham was attached, NAMELY THE RIGHT SIDE, WHICH IS CHASSADIM. And this is why they left nothing from what Avraham offered them--SO THAT THEY COULD DRAW DOWN AS MUCH CHASSADIM AS POSSIBLE.

172. On the same principle, one should drink from the cup of benediction, so that by his drinking he will merit the blessing of above. Hence, THE ANGELS also ate from what Avraham had prepared for them, in order to be nourished from the side of Avraham--NAMELY, FROM THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM, as the sustenance of all the angels above proceeds from that side.

173. The verse, "and looked toward..." ALLUDES TO the awakening of the quality of Mercy to save Lot. WE LEARN THIS BY COMPARING VERSES. It is written here, "and looked toward," and it is written elsewhere, "Look forth from your Holy habitation" (Devarim 26:15). Because THE LOOKING THERE ALLUDES to Mercy there, it does so here as well.

174. "And Avraham went with them to bring them on the way" (Beresheet 18:16), that is, he escorted them. Rabbi Yesa said: If Avraham knew that they were angels, why did he have to escort them? Rabbi Elazar responded: Even though he knew they were angels, he did for them what he was accustomed to do for people. Thus, he escorted them, because it behooves one to escort his guests, since everything depends on this. IN OTHER WORDS, THE PRECEPT OF INVITING GUESTS DEPENDS ON ESCORTING THEM, WHICH IS THE FINAL ACT. AND IT IS NOT CONSIDERED A PRECEPT UNTIL AFTER THE PERSON CONCLUDES IT.

175. As he was escorting them, the Holy One, blessed be He, appeared to him, as it is written: "And Hashem said: Shall I hide from Avraham that which I do?" (Ibid. 17) The phrase "And Hashem" APPLIES TO Him and His heavenly court, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, as the Holy One, blessed be He, accompanied them.

176. Come and behold: when a person escorts his friend, he draws the Shechinah to join him, and walks along with him to protect him. This is the reason why a person should escort his guest; he joins him with the Shechinah and draws the Shechinah to join him.

13. "Shall I hide from Avraham"

The Creator never allows any intense judgments to rain down upon Creation without first warning the righteous souls who dwell among mankind. This warning offers the righteous the opportunity to take the necessary positive measures to counteract decreed judgments. These righteous souls warn others and create opportunities for people to change their ways.

The Relevance of this Passage

According to the wisdom of Kabbalah, positive actions of sharing are not founded upon the vague concepts of morals, ethics, or codes of right and wrong. Rather, there is a direct dividend to the doer of good deeds. Our charitable actions and positive behavior serve our own spiritual interests, particularly during times of great judgment. We are given the ability to recognize opportunities for sharing and spiritual change when we are preoccupied with our own hardships. An appreciation for the righteous living among us is awakened within our soul, furnishing us with greater protection from any negative events that might be looming over the horizon.

177. Therefore, because of this, THAT IS, BECAUSE HE ESCORTED HIS GUESTS, HE WAS FULLY MERITORIOUS, "and Hashem said: 'Shall I hide from Avraham that which I do?'" Rabbi Chiya opened the discourse with the verse: "For Hashem Elohim will do nothing, until He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7). Blessed are the righteous of the world, that the Holy One, blessed be He, chose them. And all that He has done in the heavens and shall do in the world, He accomplishes through righteous people. And He never hides anything from them.

173. וַיִּשְׁקִיפוּ: אֲתַעְרוּתָא דְרַחֲמֵי לְשִׁיזְבָא לְלוֹט. כְּתִיב הֵבֵא וַיִּשְׁקִיפוּ, וּכְתִיב הִתְם הִשְׁקִיפָה מִמַּעוֹן קִדְשֶׁךָ. מֵה לְהֵלֵן לְרַחֲמֵי, אוֹף הֵבֵא לְרַחֲמֵי.

178. For the Holy One, blessed be He, wants the righteous to join Him. This is so that they may warn people and advise them to repent their iniquities so that they will not be punished by celestial punishment, and so that they will have no excuse to complain to Him, SAYING THAT HE DID NOT WARN THEM AND THEY DID NOT KNOW. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, reveals to them the secret that He is about to punish them. He does not want them to be able to claim that He is punishing them without a trial.

179. Rabbi Elazar said: Woe to the wicked who do not seek TO KNOW, and do not know how to refrain from sin. Hence, the Holy One, blessed be He, whose deeds are just and whose actions are right, never act before He reveals His plans to the righteous, so that other people will have no excuse to complain about Him. SIMILARLY, men should act in a way that prevents other people from uttering accusations against them. Therefore, it is written: "And you shall be clean before Hashem and before Yisrael" (Bemidbar 32:22).

180. And THE RIGHTEOUS should act accordingly, to prevent other people from complaining ABOUT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, and warn them that if they sin and do not guard themselves, the attribute of Judgment of the Holy One, blessed be He, might have a reason to ACCUSE them. And how may they ESCAPE THIS ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT? By repenting and performing good deeds.

181. Come and behold: "And Hashem said: 'Shall I hide from Avraham.'" Rabbi Yehuda said: The holy One, blessed be He, has given the entire land to Avraham, as an everlasting heritage, as it is written: "For all the land which you see, to you I give it..." (Beresheet 13:15) as well as, "lift up your eyes and see..." (Ibid. 14). Later, when the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted to uproot and destroy these places, NAMELY S'DOM AND AMORAH, He said: I have already given the land to Avraham, and he is the father of them all, as it is written: "for a father of a multitude of nations have I made you" (Beresheet 17:5). So it is not fitting for me to smite the children without informing their father whom I have called "Avraham my friend" (Yeshayah 41:8). Therefore, I must inform him. Thus, "And Hashem said: 'Shall I hide from Avraham that which I do?'"

182. Rabbi Aba said: Behold the humility of Avraham, even though the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: "Because the cry of S'dom and Amorah is great" (Beresheet 18:20). Although He delayed Himself by informing Avraham that He wanted to punish S'dom, he did not pray before Him to save Lot from punishment. Why? So that he did not ask for a reward for his deeds.

182. אמר רבי אבא, תא חזי, ענותנותא דאברהם, דאף על גבהאמר ליה קודשא בריך הוא, זעקת סדום ועמורה כי רבה. ועם כל דא דאוריך עמיה, ואודע ליה, דבעי למעבד דינא בסדום, לא בעא קמיה לשזבא ליה ללוט, ולא יעביד ביה דינא. מ"ט, בגין דלא למתבע אגרא מן עובדו.

183. Because of this, EVEN THOUGH HE DID NOT ASK FOR IT, the Holy One, blessed be He, sent for Lot and saved him for the sake of Avraham, as it is written: "And Elohim remembered Avraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow" (Bereshheet 19:29).

184. What is meant by "in which Lot dwelt?" WHY WERE THEY NAMED AFTER HIM? This has been explained; it is because they were all wicked and there was nobody among them who was good, save Lot. From this we learn that wherever the wicked stay, that place is doomed to be destroyed. FROM THE VERSE "IN WHICH LOT DWELT," WE LEARN THAT FOR ALL THE OTHER PEOPLE WHO DWELT THERE, IT WAS NOT CONSIDERED TO BE A DWELLING PLACE, BUT RATHER A PLACE OF DESTRUCTION AND DESOLATION UNFIT FOR HABITATION. AND THIS WAS BECAUSE THEY WERE WICKED PEOPLE.

185. Of the verse "the cities in which Lot dwelt," HE ASKS: Could it be that Lot lived in all of them? AND HE REPLIES: Because of his presence in those cities, they were not destroyed, and the people were able to dwell there. THIS IS WHY THEY ARE NAMED AFTER HIM. But if you say this was because of the merit of Lot, you are incorrect; it was because of the merit of Avraham.

186. Rabbi Shimon said: Come and behold. The service that a person does for the righteous protects him in this world. In addition, even if he is a sinful person, he will learn from the righteous person's behavior and emulate it.

187. Come and behold: as Lot accompanied Avraham, he did not learn all his ways, but he did learn how to show kindness to other people. Thus, as long as Lot dwelt there, the people settled in the cities, which continued to exist. THEREFORE, IT IS WRITTEN: "IN WHICH LOT DWELT."

188. Rabbi Shimon said: Behold how the Shechinah stayed with Avraham during the time that the Holy One, blessed be He, was with him. Rabbi Elazar said to him: But it was the Shechinah, Herself, that spoke to him, AND NOT ONLY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE ALONE. Because the Holy One, blessed be He, revealed Himself to Avraham through this grade, as it is written: "And I appeared to Avraham, to Yitzchak, and to Ya'akov, by the name of El Shadai," (Shemot 6:3) WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH. IF SO, THEN WHAT IS THE POINT OF NOTING THE FACT THAT THE SHECHINAH DID NOT LEAVE AVRAHAM DURING THE TIME WHEN THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WAS WITH HIM? RABBI SHIMON said: It is certainly so, AND YOU ARE DEFINITELY RIGHT.

189. Come and behold. It is written: "And Hashem said (lit. 'And said Hashem'): 'Because the cry of S'dom and Amorah is great...'" At first, IT IS WRITTEN: "And Hashem said," (Bereshheet 18:17) WHICH APPLIES TO HIM AND HIS HEAVENLY COURT, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH. And later, IT IS WRITTEN: "And said Hashem: Because the cry of S'dom and Amorah is great," WHICH DOES NOT REFER TO HASHEM ALONE, BUT RATHER TO the upper grade YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI that appeared to him over the lower grade, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

183. ועל דא שלח קודשא בריך הוא ללוט, ושויב ליה, בגינייה דאברהם. דכתוב ויזכר אלקים את אברהם וישלח את לוט מתוך ההפכה וגו'.

184. מאי אשר ישב בהן לוט. הא אתמר. אבל בגין דכלהו חייבין, ולא אשתכח מכלהו, דאית ליה מידי דזכו, בר לוט. מכאן אוליפנא, בכל אתר דדיירין ביה חייבין, חריב איהו.

185. אשר ישב בהן לוט. וכי בכלהו הוה יתיב לוט, אלא בגינייה הוה יתבי, דלא אתחרבו. ואי תימא בזכותיה, לא. אלא בזכותיה דאברהם.

186. אמר רבישמעון, תא חזי, דשמושא דעביד בר נש לזבאה, ההוא שמושא, אגין עליה בעלמא. ולא עוד, אלא דאף על גב דאיהו חייבא, אולוף מאורחוי ועביד לון.

190. "And Hashem said, Shall I hide from Avraham..." What is written before? "And the men rose up from there, and looked toward S'dom," in order to punish the wicked. And what is written after? "Shall I hide from Avraham."

191. Rabbi Chisda said: The Holy One, blessed be He, does not execute Judgment on the wicked until He has consulted the souls of the righteous. This is as it is written: "By the blast (also, 'soul') of Eloha they perish," (Iyov 4:9) and "Shall I hide from Avraham." The Holy One, blessed be He, said: How can I punish the wicked without consulting the souls of the righteous, telling them that the wicked have sinned before Me, and I am about to punish them. This is as it is written: "And Hashem said: 'because the cry of S'dom and Amorah is great, and because their sin is very grievous'."

192. Rabbi Abahu said: The soul remains standing in its place and is afraid to come nearer and say anything to Him until Matatron says he will present it. Then, it may say what it wants. This is as it is written: "And Avraham drew near, and said, 'will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?'" (Beresheet 18:23) "Far be it from You to do after this manner..." (Ibid. 25).

193. "Perhaps there are fifty righteous within the city..." (Ibid. 24) Hence, the soul starts by saying: Master of the universe, they may have learned the fifty portions of the Torah. And even though they did not learn the portions for its sake alone, they are still entitled to a reward in the world to come and should not be sent to Gehenom. After this, it is written: "And Hashem said: If I find in S'dom fifty just men within the city..." (Ibid. 26).

194. He commented: But there are more than fifty portions in the Torah, there are 53. But, as Rabbi Avahu said: Every one of the five books in the Torah includes the Ten Commandments, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF the Ten Divine injunctions (sayings) by which the world was created. Multiply by the five books and you have fifty.

195. The soul goes on, saying: Master of the universe, even though the people did not study the Torah, they may have already been punished for their sins in court and have been forgiven, as it is written: "Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed..." (Devarim 25:3). And if they have felt ashamed in front of them, this is sufficient for them to be pardoned and not be sent to Gehenom. The following verse says: "I will not do it for the forty's sake" (Beresheet 18:29).

190. וְה' אָמַר הַמִּכְסָּה אֲנִי מֵאַבְרָהָם וְגו'. מַה כָּתוּב לְמַעַלָּה, וַיִּקְוּמוּ מִשָּׁם הָאֲנָשִׁים וַיִּשְׁקְפוּ עַל פְּנֵי סְדֹם. לַעֲשׂוֹת דֵּין בְּרָשָׁעִים, מַה כָּתוּב אַחֲרָיו הַמִּכְסָּה אֲנִי מֵאַבְרָהָם.

194. וְהָא יִתִּיר אֵינּוֹן פְּרָשִׁיּוֹת, נ"ג הוּו. אֵלָא, אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּהוּ, חֲמִשָּׁה סְפָרִים הֵם בְּתוֹרָה, וּבְכָל אֶחָד וְאֶחָד גְּכַלְלִים עֲשֶׂרֶת הַדְּבָרוֹת, עֲשֶׂרֶת מֵאֲמֵרוֹת, שְׁבָהֶם גְּבֵרָא הָעוֹלָם, חָשׁוּב עֲשֶׂרֶה בְּכָל חַד מִנְהוֹן, הוּא חֲמִשִּׁים.

196. The verse continues: "Perhaps there shall be thirty found there" (Ibid. 30). Maybe there are righteous people among them who have achieved the thirty attributes indicated in the verse: "Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year," (Yechezkel 1:1) and that are included within the 32 paths, which are formed by the 22 Hebrew letters and the ten Sfirot. The latter, at times, are counted as eight.

196. עוד פותחת ואומרת, אולי יש שם שלשים, אולי יש ביניהם צדיקים, שהשיגו שלשים מעלות, הרמוזים בפסוק ויהי בשלשים שנה והם כלולים בל"ב נתיבות. שהם כ"ב אותיות, וי"ס. לפעמים הם כלולים לשמונה.

197. It speaks further: "Perhaps there shall be twenty found there..." (Beresheet 18:31) Perhaps they will raise sons to study the Torah, thereby receiving their reward of the Ten Commandments, twice every day. This is according to Rabbi Yitzchak, who said: He who educates his son in the Torah and takes him to the house of his Rabbi (teacher) in the morning and in the evening is described by the words of the Torah as though he has performed the entire Torah twice a day. What does it say? "And he said: "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake" (Ibid.).

198. It goes on: "Perhaps ten shall be found there..." (Ibid. 32). It says: Master of the universe, maybe they were among the first ten who arrived at the synagogue. If so, they have earned the reward of all the people who came in after them. Then, it is written: "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten."

198. עוד פותחת ואומרת, אולי ימצאון שם עשרה. אומרת רבוננו של עולם, שמא היו מאותם העשרה הראשונים של בית הכנסת, שנוטל שכר כנגד כולם, שבאים אחריהם, מה כתיב ויאמר לא אשחית בעבור העשרה.

199. The soul of the righteous has all this to say for the sinners. And because they have nothing, it is written: "And Hashem went His way, as soon as he left speaking to Avraham, and Avraham returned to his place" (Beresheet 18:33). What is "to his place?" It is the place of his well-known grade.

199. כל זה יש לנשמת הצדיק, לומר על הרשעים, ביון שלא נמצא בידם כלום, מה כתיב, וילך ה' כאשר בלה לדבר אל אברהם. ואברהם שב למקומו. מהו למקומו. למקום מעלתו הידועה.

200. Rabbi said: It is behooves for a person to pray for the sinners so that they may repent and not enter Gehenom, as it is written: "But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth..." (Tehilim 35:13). And Rabbi continued: A person should never pray that the sinners may leave the world. Because had the Holy One, blessed be He, taken Terach out of this world for worshipping idols, Avraham would have never come into the world; the tribes of Yisrael would not have existed, nor would King David or King Mashiach; the Torah would not have been given; and none of the righteous and pious men, with all the prophets, would have been in the world. Rabbi Yehuda said: Because the Holy One, blessed be He, sees that the sinners have nothing from all that was mentioned above, it is written: "And there came two angels to S'dom..." (Beresheet 19:1)

14. "I will go down now, and see"

The literal Torah story states that the Creator came down to see the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah before they were destroyed. Kabbalistically, these stories signify the energy of the Creator shifting from the frequency of mercy into one of judgment. The Creator Himself, however, never stands in judgment of us. It is our own actions that determine which frequency of energy we draw down upon ourselves. The analogy of electrical energy helps convey the Zohar's principle. We can utilize electrical energy to light and power entire cities, or we can place our finger in a wall socket and electrocute ourselves. The nature of the energy has never changed. It was our free will as to how we connected into this energy, that changed.

The Relevance of this Passage

We generate an awareness of the consequences attached to all our behavioral actions, along with the understanding that the Creator is not at fault for the hardships we endure in life. By knowing that all our actions influence the amount of Light we receive, we are inspired to seize control over how we interact with the World and, in turn, how the World interacts with us.

201. "I will go down, and see whether they have done (Heb. asu) altogether according to the cry of it, which has come to me... (Beresheet 18:21) HE ASKS: To whom did He, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, say: "YOU SHOULD DESTROY," BECAUSE THE ZOHAR EXPLAINS THIS VERSE AS IF ASU WAS IN THE IMPERATIVE MODE, THEREBY SAYING 'DESTROY!' If you say THAT HE ADDRESSED these angels by saying, 'DESTROY,' who has ever seen the like, that He spoke with AVRAHAM while commanding THE ANGELS? Rather, He addressed Avraham, saying, "DESTROY," because all those places were under his supervision. Another explanation IS THAT HE ADDRESSED those angels SAYING, "DESTROY."

201. אַרְדָּה נָא וְאֶרְאֶה הַבְּעֵקֶתָהּ הַבָּאָה אֵלַי עֲשׂוּ כָלָה. לְמֵאן קָאָמַר. אִי תִימָא לְאִינוּן מְלֹאכִין, מֵאן חָמָא מְלִיל עִם דָּא, וּפְקִיד לְדָא. אֱלֹא, לְאַבְרָהָם קָאָמַר, דְּבִרְשׁוּתֵיהּ קִימִין אִינוּן אֲתֵרֵי. דְּבַר אַחַר, לְאִינוּן מְלֹאכִין.

202. AND HE ASKS: If He addressed Avraham, SAYING, "DESTROY (ASU)," why IS IT WRITTEN IN THE PLURAL instead of the singular, namely, "destroy (aseh)." AND HE RESPONDS: HE SAID THIS BECAUSE HE ADDRESSED BOTH Avraham and the Shechinah that had never left him. THIS IS WHY HE SAID: "DESTROY (ASU)." HE THEN SAID THAT WE NEED TO CLARIFY what we said about His address to the angels, SAYING, "DESTROY." FOR IT LOOKS AS IF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, TALKED TO AVRAHAM WHILE COMMANDING THE ANGELS. AND HE EXPLAINED: THIS IS SO, because THE ANGELS stood by waiting to execute Judgment. And this is why HE SAID "destroy" in the plural.

202. מַה דְּאִתְמַר לְאַבְרָהָם, מַה טַּעְמָא עֲשׂוּ, עֲשֵׂה מִבְּעֵי לֵיהּ, מֵאִי עֲשׂוּ, אֱלֹא דָא אַבְרָהָם, וּשְׂכִינְתָא לֹא אַעֲרֵי מְנִיָּה. מַה דְּאִתְמַר לְמְלֹאכִין, בְּגִין דְּהוּוּ זְמִינִין תַּמָּן, וְהוּוּ מְשִׁתְּבְּחִין לְמַעַבְד דִּינָא, וְעַל דָּא עֲשׂוּ.

203. Another explanation of "asu" is, translated from the Aramaic, "they have worshipped," WHICH REFERS TO THE PEOPLE OF S'DOM. HE ASKS: But did not the Holy One, blessed be He, know, that He had to go down? Is not everything revealed before Him? AND HE RESPONDS: But "I will go down" MEANS to descend from the grade of Mercy to the grade of Judgment, and the phrase "And see" means to determine suitable punishments.

204. We have learned that there is seeing for good and seeing for evil. Seeing for the good is illustrated in the verse, "And Elohim looked upon the children of Yisrael..." (Shemot 2:25). Seeing for evil is illustrated in the verse, "I will go down now and see," in order to choose their punishments. This is what the Holy One blessed be He, meant by asking "Shall I hide from Avraham?"

204. אֲשַׁבְּחֵן רְאִיָּה לְטַב, וְאֲשַׁבְּחֵן רְאִיָּה לְבִישׁ. רְאִיָּה לְטַב: דְּכִתִּיב וַיֵּרָא אֱלֹקִים אֶת בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. וַיֵּדַע. רְאִיָּה לְבִישׁ: דְּכִתִּיב אַרְדָּה נָא וְאֶרְאֶה. לְאַשְׁגָּחָא עֲלֵיהוּ בְּדִינָא, וְעַל דָּא אָמַר קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, הַמְכַסֶּה אֲנִי מֵאַבְרָהָם.

15. "Avraham shall surely become"

In every generation there is a circle of righteous souls living among us. Through their spiritual actions and presence in this physical existence, they literally uphold and sustain our world. Their positive energy balances out all the negative actions committed by self-centered and unspiritual people among us. This prevents the scales of judgment from tipping too far over to the side of negativity, which would cause great destruction in the world. Interestingly, these great souls often conceal their true identity and appear to us as mirrors of ourselves in the form of difficult people in our lives. They reflect all the negative traits that we ourselves possess but fail to recognize.

The Relevance of this Passage

Protection from negative influences is bestowed upon us through the merit of righteous people, past and present. We achieve the self-restraint and judgment to consider difficult people in our lives as reflections of our own negative traits. The wisdom and inspiration to change ourselves, instead of always trying to change others, emerges through the letters that form this passage.

205. Of the verse, "Seeing that Avraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation..." (Beresheet 18:18) HE ASKS: Why does this blessing appear here? AND HE RESPONDS: To teach us that even when the Holy One, blessed be He, sits in Judgment on the world, He is unchanging. Because He displays Judgment to one and Mercy to the other. And all this happens simultaneously. SO WHILE HE DISPLAYED JUDGMENT TOWARD S'DOM, HE SHOWED MERCY TOWARDS AVRAHAM AND BLESSED HIM BY SAYING: "AVRAHAM SHALL SURELY BECOME A GREAT AND MIGHTY NATION."

206. Rabbi Yehuda then said: But it is written, "But as for me, my prayer is to You, Hashem, in an acceptable time" (Tehilim 69:14). THIS SHOWS THAT some times are acceptable, while other times are not. So there are times when He listens TO THE PRAYER and times when He does not; there are times when He is present, and times when He is not. This corresponds to what is written: "Seek Hashem while He may be found, call upon Him while he is near" (Yeshayah 55:6). THUS, WE CAN CONCLUDE THAT THERE ARE TIMES WHEN HE IS NOT PRESENT AND CANNOT BE FOUND, NAMELY, DURING THE TIME OF JUDGMENT. IF THIS IS TRUE, HOW CAN YOU SAY THAT WHILE HE SITS IN JUDGMENT ON ONE, HE SITS IN MERCY ON THE OTHER?

207. Rabbi Elazar said that the verses sometimes refer to individuals and sometimes refer to the entire community. FOR THE INDIVIDUAL IT CHANGES ACCORDING TO THE TIMES. FO THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY, HOWEVER, HE ALWAYS DISPLAYS MERCY, EVEN WHEN HE SITS IN JUDGMENT. Here it applies to one place, while there it applies to the whole world, TO WHICH HE ALWAYS SHOWS MERCY AND NEVER CHANGES. This is why He blessed Avraham AT THE TIME WHEN JUDGMENT WAS EXECUTED ON S'DOM. Avraham is considered as the whole world, because it is written: "These are the generations of the heaven and the earth when they were created (Heb. Behibar'am)" (Beresheet 2:4) and we have learned THAT BEHIBAR'AM CONTAINS THE LETTERS OF BeAvraham ('with Avraham'). THEREFORE, HE WAS CONSIDERED AS THE WHOLE WORLD.

208. The numerical value of the letters in yihyeh ('shall...become') is 30. And we have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, arranged for each generation to have thirty righteous men, just as Avraham had for his generation. THIS MEANS, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "THESE ARE THE GENERATIONS OF THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH WHEN THEY WERE CREATED (BEHIBAR'AM)," WHICH IS THE COMBINATION OF THE LETTERS BEAVRAHAM, FOR WHOSE SAKE THE WORLD WAS CREATED. AND HE SAYS: THERE ARE THIRTY RIGHTEOUS MEN IN EACH AND EVERY GENERATION, FOR WHOSE SAKE THE WORLD WAS CREATED, AS IT WAS CREATED FOR THE SAKE OF AVRAHAM.

209. He opened with the verse: "He was more honorable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three..." (Il Shmuel 23:23). "He was more honorable than the thirty" refers to the thirty righteous men whom the Holy One, blessed be He, had called upon to come into this world in every generation so the world will not remain without them. And of Bnayahu, the son of Yehoyada, it is written: "He was most honorable among the thirty," as he was one of them, "but he attained not to the first three" because he is not of equal importance as the first three, upon whom the world is established.

210. Thus, "but he attained not to the first three" MEANS THAT HE IS NOT EQUAL TO THE THREE UPON WHOM THE WORLD IS ESTABLISHED. He was not counted as one of them. He deserved to be included among the thirty righteous men, but he was not on a level with "the first three," and was not privileged to be associated with them as an equal. "Yihyeh ('shall...become')," as we have learned, is numerically equal to thirty, and for that the Holy One, blessed be He, blessed him so that HE COULD BECOME EQUAL TO ALL the 30 righteous people.

16. "Whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it"

The negativity and spiritual darkness that enveloped the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah was so intense that outsiders refused to step foot within the city boundaries. The wisdom being distilled concerns a self-awareness of the dark side of our own nature. When we associate with negative people, we inevitably fall into their negative sphere of influence, because our own negative side ignites and ultimately dominates us, leading us down a path of darkness. We are to avoid negative people out of concern for our own dark side. This kind of inner reflection and self-awareness is a prerequisite for spiritual development.

The Relevance of this Passage

Perhaps the greatest deception the angel Satan ever devised was convincing the rational mind that he doesn't really exist. This artful deception extends to the dark side of our own nature. An awareness of our own negative character traits begins to emerge in our consciousness so that we can uproot them and transform our nature. This self-recognition further helps to protect us from external negative influences.

211. Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, said to Avraham, "the cry of S'dom and Amorah is great," because their conduct towards other people has reached Me. As a result of this conduct, the whole world avoids setting foot in S'dom and Amorah. Thus, it is written: "he breaks open a water course in place far from inhabitants, forgotten by foot travellers; they are dried up, they are gone away from men" (Iyov 28:4). "He breaks open a water course in place far from inhabitants" MEANS THAT "the water course," WHICH ALLUDES TO S'DOM, "break open" for all the inhabitants of the world who entered there. Because if any of them saw somebody give food or drink to a stranger, they cast him into the deep river, along with the person who received the food and drink.

212. This is why all people of the world were "forgotten by foot travellers," that is, they avoided setting foot in there. And whoever did enter, "they are dried up, they are gone away," WHICH MEANS THAT they dried the STRENGTH OF THEIR bodies with hunger by not giving them anything to eat nor to drink. As a result, they no longer looked like human beings, as it is written: "they are dried up, they are gone away" (Iyov 28:4). Here, it is written: "they are gone away," and elsewhere it is written: "her paths wander" (Mishlei 5:6). IN BOTH VERSES, IT MEANS THAT "HER PATHS WANDER" AND CANNOT BE FOUND. "THEY ARE GONE" MEANS THAT they avoided the routes of convoys and other paths in order not to enter there. Even the birds in the sky stopped themselves from entering there, as it is written: "There is a path which no bird of prey knows..." (Iyov 28:7). And because of all this, the entire world cried out against S'dom and Amorah and against all the cities, which were considered all the same.

213. "The cry of S'dom and Amorah is great," Avraham asked the Holy One, blessed be He: Why? He answered: "because their sin is very grievous." And this is why "I will go down now, and see whether...according to the cry of it." AND HE SAID: It should have been said, 'according to the cry of them,' because it is written: "the cry of S'dom and Amorah." Thus, there were two cities. If so, why does it say, "the cry of it" IN THE SINGULAR? AND HE ANSWERED: "This has already been clarified."

213. זַעֲקַת סְדוֹם וְעִמּוֹרָה כִּי רַבָּה, אָמַר לוּ אַבְרָהָם, אֲמַאי. אָמַר לִיהּ, וְחֲטָאתֶם כִּי כְּבֹדָה מְאֹד. בְּגִינֵי כֶּךָ, אֲרַדָּה נָא וְאֶרְאֶה הַכְּצַעְקָתְהוּ. הַכְּצַעְקָתֶם מִבְּעֵי לִיהּ, דְּהָא כְּתִיב זַעֲקַת סְדוֹם וְעִמּוֹרָה, וְתַרְי קְרַתֵּי הוּוּ, אֲמַאי הַכְּצַעְקָתְהוּ. אֵלָּא הָא אֲקַמּוּהּ.

214. Come and behold: from the side underneath the sound of hailstones, all the tangles of the shoulder rise and are gathered into one drop, which then enters the holes of the great abyss, where five become one. When their voices are clear, they unite as one. Then, a voice from below enters among them and becomes one with them.

215. For that voice goes up and down, demanding that Judgment be drawn down. So when this voice rises to demand justice, the Holy One, blessed be He, reveals Himself to ensure justice is done.

216. Rabbi Shimon then said: IT IS WRITTEN, "according to the cry of it." To whom does this cry belong? AND HE REPLIED: This is the decree of Judgment that demands justice every day. SO THE PHRASE, "THE CRY OF IT" REFERS TO IT (judgment). As we have learned, for many years the Decree of Judgment demanded from the Holy One, blessed be He, THE PENALTY FOR what the brothers of Yosef had done when they sold him. The Decree of Judgment cried out aloud for justice TO BE REVEALED. This is why IT IS WRITTEN: "according to the cry of it, which has come to me." IT REFERS TO THE CRY OF THE DECREE OF JUDGMENT.

217. AND HE ASKS: What is MEANT BY THE PHRASE, "which has come to me?" AND HE RESPONDS: There is a secret here. As you may read, "In the evening she would return (lit. 'comes'), and in the morning she would return..." (Ester 2:14). The words "which has come to me" are written in the present tense to indicate a repeated action. Similarly the verse, "The end of all flesh has come before me" (Bereshheet 5:13) is also written in the present tense. The phrase "then destroy" has already been explained.

17. "Will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?"

A discussion takes place concerning Avraham, Noah, and Moses, specifically their role in protecting mankind. Three distinct levels of selfless love for others are exemplified through these three great spiritual leaders. Noah built the ark and did all that God had commanded of him, but his efforts and concern ended there, as he did not continue to fight and lobby on behalf of mankind. Avraham took the cause of his fellow man a step further when he argued with the Creator in an effort to save Sodom and Gomorrah. However, once Avraham realized that the argument was lost, he accepted it. Moses, on the other hand, never gave up the fight for his fellow man even when all hope was lost, offering his own life in exchange for saving the entire nation.

The Relevance of this Passage

Spiritual complacency can cause the noblest person to fall to lower levels of being. Therefore, spiritual evolvement may be compared to the endeavor of climbing up a downward moving escalator. One must constantly progress forward against opposing forces. The moment we stand still, anywhere along the journey, we immediately begin to regress. The Light of this passage inspires us to continually grow spiritually so that we evolve a consciousness of true caring, self-sacrifice, and unconditional love for others. Through selfless love we protect all mankind and ourselves.

218. "And Avraham drew near, and said: Will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?" (Bereshheet 18:23). Rabbi Yehuda said: Who has met a father as merciful as Avraham? Come and behold. In regard to Noah, it is written: "And Elohim said to Noah: The end of all flesh has come before Me...Make you an ark of gopher wood" (Bereshheet 6:13-14). And he remained silent and did not beg for mercy, while as soon as the Holy One, blessed be He, said to Avraham "the cry of S'dom and Amorah is great...I will go down now, and see," it is written: "And Avraham drew near, and said: Will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?"

219. Rabbi Elazar said: Even Avraham did not act perfectly, as he should have done, but Noah did nothing. HE DID NOT ASK FOR MERCY ON BEHALF OF THE RIGHTEOUS, AS AVRAHAM DID, OR ON BEHALF OF THE SINNERS, AS MOSHE DID. Avraham demanded a proper judgment so that the righteous would not perish with the sinners. He started with fifty righteous people and eventually descended to ten. Then, he stopped. He did not plead for Mercy in any case, WHETHER THERE WERE RIGHTEOUS PEOPLE OR NOT. This is because Avraham said: I do not want to demand any reward for my actions, MEANING THAT HE DID NOT BELIEVE THAT HE DESERVED ANY REWARD FOR ASKING TO FREE SINNERS FROM THEIR PUNISHMENT.

220. The one who acted perfectly was Moshe. Because as soon as the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, "they have turned aside quickly from the way...they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it," (Shemot 32:8) it is written: "And Moshe besought Hashem his Elohim..." (Ibid. 11) And the verse continues until he said, "Yet now, if You will forgive their sin-and if not, blot me, I pray You, out of Your book which You have written" (Ibid. 32). And even though they had all sinned, he did not budge from there until He told him: "I have pardoned according to your word" (Bemidbar 14:20). THERE IS A SECTION MISSING HERE THAT MUST HAVE BEEN OVERLOOKED AS THIS PASSAGE WAS COPIED. AND THIS IS THE CORRECT VERSION: We have discussed and learned that he did not budge from there until the Holy One, blessed be He, forgave Yisrael, as it is written: "And Hashem reconsidered the evil which he thought to do to his people," (Shemot 32:14) and "I have pardoned according to your word." THIS MUST BE THE CORRECT VERSION FOR IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE ZOHAR NOT TO MENTION THE PARDON FOR THE SIN OF THE CALF AND TO READ, "I HAVE PARDONED ACCORDING TO YOUR WORD" (BEMIDBAR 14:20), WHICH WAS SAID ABOUT THE SPIES.

221. But Avraham considered only whether there might have been any righteous among them. And because there were not ANY RIGHTEOUS AMONG THEM, he did not PRAY FOR ANY OF THEM. This is why there has never been a person in the world who protected his generation as has Moshe, the Faithful Shepherd.

222. "And Avraham drew near, and said..." means that he prepared himself before beseeching, "Perhaps there are fifty righteous..." He started with 50, which is the beginning of Knowledge, until he descended to ten, which is the number of the last of all grades.

223. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Avraham stopped at the number ten, which represents the ten days between between Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, DURING WHICH THE TEN SFIROT OF MALCHUT ARE PREPARED TO ASCEND TO BINAH. This is why he started TO PLEAD for the fifty, but stopped at ten. THESE SYMBOLIZE THE TEN SFIROT OF MALCHUT, WHICH ARE CORRECTED DURING THE TEN DAYS OF REPENTANCE. As he reached ten, he said: From here downward, MALCHUT IS NOT SWEETENED BY BINAH, WHICH IS ALSO CALLED 'REPENTANCE'. Therefore, he concluded that this was not a place for repentance, and he he did not CONTINUE IMPLORING AND reducing the number under ten.

18. "And the two angels came to S'dom"

During a discussion concerning the two angels who executed the decree of destruction upon the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, the Zohar expounds upon the protective power of the Torah through its study. The Torah is called the Tree of Life. Kabbalistically, the Tree of Life is a realm of pure order and serenity. It is the origin of all human happiness, well-being, and contentment. The Torah becomes the Tree of Life by virtue of our consciousness and certainty in its powers. Our awareness is the mechanism that activates the Tree of Life forces. The Relevance of this Passage

As a lamp requires electrical current before it can illuminate a darkened room, Kabbalistic tools, such as the Torah, are in need of spiritual current in order to become active. Spiritual current is the stuff of consciousness and certainty. We develop a true sense of appreciation and certitude in the power of the Torah and the Tree of Life energy that radiates through its verses.

224. "And the two angels came to S'dom at evening..." (Beresheet 19:1). Rabbi Yosi said, Come and behold: It is written: "And Hashem went His way, as soon as He had left speaking to Avraham..." (Beresheet 18:33). As the Shechinah had departed from Avraham, and Avraham returned to his place, then "the two angels came to S'dom at evening..." There were only two angels because one had departed with the Shechinah.

225. As Lot saw them, he ran after them. Why? He invited everyone who came to his city into his house and offered them food and drink. If so, then how come the people of his own town did not kill him, as they did his daughter.

225. בֵּינון דְּחָמָא לוֹט לֹון, רְהַט בְּתַרְיֵיהוּ. מָאִי טַעְמָא, וְכִי כָּל אִינוּן דְּהוּוּ אֲתֵיין, אִיהוּ אָעִיל לֹון לְבֵיתֵיהּ, וַיְהִיב לֹון לְמִיכַל וּלְמִשְׁתֵּי, וּבְנֵי מֵתָא הֵיךְ לֹא קִטְלִין לֵיהּ, דְּהָא לְבֵרְתֵיהּ עֶבְדוּ דִּינָא.

226. For what reason was she killed? The daughter of Lot offered a piece of bread to a poor man. As soon as the townspeople found out, they covered her with honey and put her on the roof until she was stung to death by bees.

226. וּמָאִי הוּא, דְּבֵרְתֵיהּ דְּלוֹט, יְהִבַת פֶּתָא דְּנֶהְמָא לְחָד עֲנָיָא, וַדְעוּ בֵּהּ, שְׁמוּהּ דּוּבְשָׂא, וְאוֹתְבוּהּ בְּרִישׁ אִיגְרָא, עַד דְּאֶכְלוּהּ צְרַעֵי.

227. AND HE REPLIES: Because it was at night, Lot thought that the townspeople would not see him. Nevertheless, as soon as they entered his house, the townspeople gathered and surrounded the house.

227. אֶלָּא בְּגִין דְּהוּוּ בְּלֵילֵיָא, חָשִׁיב דְּלֹא יִסְתַּכְּלוּן לֵיהּ בְּנֵי מֵתָא, וְעַם כָּל דָּא, בֵּינון דְּאָעֵלוּ לְבֵיתָא, אֲתַכְנְשׁוּ כְּלָהוּ, וְאַסְחָרוּ לְבֵיתָא.

228. Rabbi Yitzchak asked: Why did Lot run after the angels?, as it is written: "and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them..." Rabbi Chizkiyah or Rabbi Yesa, one responded that he saw the image of Avraham among them; the other said that he saw the Shechinah resting upon them. AND HE DREW AN ANALOGY. It is written here, "and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them," and elsewhere, "and when he saw them he ran to meet them from the tent door..." (Beresheet 18:2). So, just as he saw the Shechinah there, he saw the Shechinah here as well.

228. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, אָמָאִי רְהַט לוֹט אַבְתְּרֵיָיהוּ, דְּכְתִיב וַיֵּרָא לוֹט וַיֵּרֶץ לְקִרְאתֵם. ר' חֲזַקְיָה וְר' יֵיסָא. חָד אָמַר, דְּיוֹקְנָא דְּאַבְרָהָם חָמָא עֲמֵהוּן. וְחָד אָמַר שְׂכִינְתָא אֲתֵיָא עֲלֵיהוּ. כְּתִיב הֲכָא וַיֵּרָא לוֹט וַיֵּרֶץ לְקִרְאתֵם, וְכְתִיב הֲתֵם וַיֵּרֶץ לְקִרְאתֵם מִפֶּתַח הָאֵהָל. מָה לְהֵלֶן חָמָא שְׂכִינְתָא, אוּף הֲכָא חָמָא שְׂכִינְתָא.

229. This is the reason why "Lot seeing them run to meet them...And he said, 'Behold now, my lords (Heb. Adonai),' " spelled with Aleph, Dalet, Nun, and Yud, THAT IS, THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH. IN OUR SCRIPTURES IT IS NOT WRITTEN: 'AND HE RAN TO MEET THEM,' BUT RATHER, "ROSE UP TO MEET THEM." ACCORDING TO THE ZOHAR, THE WORDS "ROSE TO MEET THEM" MEAN THAT HE ROSE UP AND RAN TO MEET THEM. OTHERWISE, IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN WRITTEN: 'HE ROSE UP BEFORE THEM.' The verse continues, "turn in, I pray you." HE ASKS: WHY IS IT WRITTEN, "turn in, I pray you," when it should have been written, 'draw near, I pray you.' What is MEANT BY "turn in?" AND HE RESPONDS: He did not want them to enter the house in the regular way, so his townspeople would not see them. This is why HE SAID, "turn in, I pray you."

229. וְעַל דָּא, וַיֵּרָא לוֹט וַיֵּרֶץ לְקִרְאתֵם, וַיֹּאמֶר הִנֵּה נָא אֲדִנִּי בְּאֶלְפֵי דְּלִ"ת נו"ן יו"ד. סוּרוּ נָא, גָּשׁוּ נָא מִבְּעֵי לֵיהּ, מָאִי סוּרוּ נָא. אֶלָּא לְאַהֲרָא לֹון סַחְרָנִיָּה דְּבֵיתָא, בְּגִין דְּלֹא יַחְמוּן לֹון בְּנֵי מֵתָא, וְלֹא יַעֲלוּן בְּאוּרַח מִיִּשְׁרָא לְבֵיתָא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ, סוּרוּ נָא.

230. Rabbi Chizkiyah began the discussion by saying: IT IS WRITTEN, "For He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole heaven" (Iyov 28:24). How important it is for all human beings to observe the works of the Holy One, blessed be He, and to study Torah day and night. He who studies the Torah is glorified by the Holy One, blessed be He, on high and down below, because the Torah is the Tree of Life for all those who occupy themselves in it. It grants them life in this world and offers them life in the world to come.

231. Come and behold: IT IS WRITTEN, "For He looks to the end of the earth" in order to supply them with food and provide for their needs. THE "EARTH" IS MALCHUT; "ENDS OF THE EARTH" REFERS TO ALL THAT ISSUES FROM HER, because it is He who takes care of Her always. As it is written: "The eyes of Hashem your Elohim are always upon it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year" (Devarim 11:12).

232. It is written of this earth, NAMELY MALCHUT: "she brings her food from afar" (Mishlei 31:14). And then, "She" provides the beasts of the fields, WHICH ARE THE ANGELS OF THE WORLDS BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH, with food and sustenance, as it is written: "She rises also while it is yet night, and gives meat to her household and a portion to her maidens" (Ibid. 15).

233. This is why IT IS WRITTEN: "for He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole heaven," ALLUDING to all the people in the world, in order to supply them with food and provisions, each and every one according to his needs, as it is written: "You open your hand, and satisfy the desire of every living thing" (Tehilim 145:16).

234. There is another explanation OF THE VERSE: "for He looks to the ends of the earth," which IS THAT He observes the makings of man and watches closely over what people are doing in the world. He "sees under the whole heaven," which means that He watches and keeps an eye on each and every person.

235. Come and behold: as a result of the Holy One, blessed be He seeing the actions of S'dom and Amarah, He sent forth those angels to destroy S'dom. It is written: "and Lot seeing..." WHICH MEANS THAT he was "seeing" the Shechinah. AND HE ASKS: "But who can possibly see the Shechinah?" AND HE REPLIES: He saw a light shining and rising high above their heads. And then he said: "Behold now, Adonai (Eng. 'my master')," spelled with Aleph and Dalet WHICH IS THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH. Thus, for the sake of the Shechinah, NAMELY that certain illumination that shone UPON THEIR HEADS, he said, "turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house..."

232. בגין דארץ דא, מה כתיב בה, ממרחק תביא לחמה. ולבתר איהי יהבת מזונא וטרפא, לכל אינון חיון ברא, דכתיב ותקם בעוד לילה ותתן טרף לבייתה וחק לנערותיה.

233. ועל דאמי הוא לקצות הארץ יביט תחת כל השמים וראה. לכלהו בני עלמא, למיהב לון מזונא וספוקא, לכל מה דאצטריך כל חד וחד, דכתיב, פותח את ירך ומשביע לכל חי רצון.

234. דבר אחרכי הוא לקצות הארץ יביט. לאסתכלא עובדוי דבר נש, ולאשגחא בכל מה דעבדי בני נשא בעלמא. תחת כל השמים וראה. מסתכל וחמי לכל חד וחד.

236. The verse continues, "and sleep and wash your feet..." but Avraham did not do so. Rather, he said at first, "wash your feet," and only later, "And I will fetch a morsel of bread." Lot, however, said, "turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night," and then, "and wash your feet, and you may rise up early, and go your ways." And this was to prevent other people from knowing about them. IF OTHER PEOPLE HAPPENED TO KNOW ABOUT THEM AND APPROACHED THEM, THEY COULD CLAIM THAT THEY HAD JUST ARRIVED A SHORT WHILE AGO, AS THEY HAD NOT EVEN WASHED THEIR FEET FROM THE DUST OF THE JOURNEY.

237. "And they said, 'No, but we will abide in the street all night,' because that was the practice in these cities--GUESTS SLEPT IN THE STREET BECAUSE no person invited them to his house. This is why they said, "we will abide in the street." And then it is written: "and he pressed upon them greatly" (Bereshheet 19:3).

238. Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, executes Judgment on the world, one messenger performs it. But now, DURING THE OVERTHROW OF S'DOM, we see two messengers, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND TWO ANGELS CAME TO S'DOM." Is not one angel sufficient? AND HE REPLIES: "There indeed was only one; the scriptures mentions two because one came to save Lot, while the other came to overthrow the city and destroy the land. Therefore, there was only one assigned TO OVERTHROW S'DOM.

19. The Garden of Eden and Gehenom

Man is constantly tested by his own negative inclination in order to provide him with the opportunity to exercise free will. Man activates free will the moment he resists his natural selfish tendencies. The righteous people of this world are those who have conquered their negative natures and subjugated all Evil Inclinations. It is upon their merit that our physical world is sustained. A man who conquers his own negative nature and ego is far stronger and far greater than the man who conquers armies or builds empires.

The Zohar explains that the Garden of Eden and Hell exist both in our physical realm and in the Supernal Worlds. The true righteous dwell in the Garden of Eden above, while the most wicked of men dwell in the lower realm of Hell. There is a story in the Talmud that Hell on Earth was discovered and visited by a great sage some 2000 years ago. This sage stormed the gates of Hell and stole away the knife from the Angel of Death. The Creator explained to the sage that the system of Hell is a necessary process in order to help cleanse the souls of the wicked so that they, too, may be able to partake in the world-to-come. The Creator, therefore, called for the sage to return the knife.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Garden of Eden is not only a long sought-after paradise located in some remote island in the world-to-come, but it is also a state-of-mind that we experience in the here and now. We connect ourselves to the Garden of Eden on Earth, arousing tranquillity, happiness, and inner peace in our soul. We begin to sense and grasp the significance of the hardships that strike in our personal life. During difficult times, when life feels like Hell on Earth, afflictions have a cleansing effect on our soul. Awareness and acceptance of this spiritual truth accelerates the process, and trying times pass more quickly.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

239. Rabbi opened the discussion by quoting the verse: "Now these are the nations which Hashem left, to test Yisrael by them..." (Shoftim 3:1). Rabbi said: I have been looking into that world, NAMELY THE ETERNAL WORLD, and saw that the world can exist only because of righteous people who have control over the desire of their hearts. As it is written: "this he ordained in Yehosef for a testimony..." (Tehilim 81:6). Rabbi Yehuda then said: Why did Yosef merit that high grade and kingdom? The answer is because he overcame his lust. As we have learned, the heavenly Kingdom awaits he who overcomes his lustful desires.

240. As Rabbi Acha has said: The Holy One, blessed be He, has created the Evil Inclination solely for the purpose of trying humanity. And does the Holy One, blessed be He, intend on trying humanity? Yes. How do we know this? From the verse: "If there arise among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams...And the sign or the wonder came to pass...For Hashem your Elohim tests you..." (Devarim 13:1-3)

241. And why does He intend on trying it, as all the deeds of humankind are well known to Him? So as that humankind should have no excuse to complain. See what is written: "and Lot sat in the gate of S'dom," WHICH MEANS that he was sitting and reproving the people. Rabbi Yitzchak asked: What is the verse: "But the wicked are like the troubled sea..." (Yeshayah 57:20)? Even when the wicked is on trial, he shows insolence and confirms his guilt. As it is written: "But before they lay down..." (Beresheet 19:4).

242. Rabbi Yitzchak continued: Just as the Holy One, blessed be He, created the Garden of Eden upon earth, so did He create Gehenom as well. And just as He created the Garden of Eden above, so did He create Gehenom there. The earthly Garden of Eden is referred to in the verse: "And Hashem Elohim planted a garden eastward in Eden..." (Beresheet 2:8) and earthly Gehenom is referred to in the verse: "A land of gloom, as darkness itself..." (Iyov 10:22)

243. There is a Garden of Eden above, as is written: "but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with Hashem your Elohim..." (I Shmuel 25:29) and, "and the spirit shall return to Elohim who gave it" (Kohelet 12:7). And there is a Gehenom above, as it is written: "and the souls of your enemies, these shall he sling out, as out of the hollow of a sling" (I Shmuel 25:29).

244. The Garden of Eden below is as we have said. The Garden of Eden above is for the souls of the completely righteous, so that they may be replenished by the Great Light of above. Gehenom down below is for those wicked who refused to perform circumcision, did not believe in the Holy One, blessed be He, nor in His religion, and did not keep the Shabbat. And these are those who worship the stars and constellations, and who are condemned with fire. As it is written: "and they came out from fire, and fire shall devour them..." (Yechezkel 15:7) and, "And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men..." (Yeshayah 66:24)

245. The Gehenom above is for those sinners of Yisrael who have transgressed the precepts of Torah, and have not repented. They are rejected and stay outside until they are punished. And they wander around the whole world, as it is written: "The wicked walk on every side..." (Tehilim 12:9)

246. And they are sentenced to stay there for twelve months. Later, they reside with those who received their punishment at their death, each to a place according to what he deserves. The sinners who worship the stars and the constellations are constantly punished by fire and water, and they never emerge again, as it is written: "neither shall their fire be quenched" (Yeshayah 66:24).

246. וְשֵׁם נְדוּוֹנִים שְׁנַיִם עָשָׂר חֳדָשׁ לְאַחַר כֵּן, מְדוּרָם עִם אוֹתָם שֶׁקָּבְלוּ עָנָשׁ בְּמוֹתָם כֹּל אֶחָד וְאֶחָד כְּפִי הַמָּקוֹם הָרְאוּי לוֹ. וְהַרְשָׁעִים שֶׁל עֲכוּ"ם, נְדוּוֹנִים תְּמִיד בְּאֵשׁ וּבַמַּיִם, וְשׁוֹב אֵינָם עוֹלָיִם, שְׁנֵאמַר וְאִשָּׁם לֹא תִכְבֵּה.

247. The sinners are sentenced in Gehenom according to what is written: "Then Hashem rained upon S'dom and upon Amorah brimstone and fire..." (Beresheet 19:24). And they never emerged from there and shall not rise for the Day of Judgment, as it is written: "which Hashem overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath" (Devarim 29:22). "In His anger" refers to this world; "and in His wrath" refers to the world to come.

247. מִשֵּׁפֶט הַרְשָׁעִים בְּגֵיהֶנֶם, כְּמָה דִּכְתִּיב, וְהַ' הַמְטִיר עַל סֹדֶם וְעַל עֲמֹרָה גְפְרִית וְאֵשׁ וּגּו'. וְשׁוֹב אֵינָם עוֹלָיִם, וְלֹא יִקּוּמוּ לְיוֹם הַדִּין, שְׁנֵאמַר אֲשֶׁר הִפְךָ ה' בְּאִפּוֹ וּבַחֲמָתוֹ, בְּאִפּוֹ: בְּעוֹלָם הַזֶּה. וּבַחֲמָתוֹ: בְּעוֹלָם הַבָּא.

248. Rabbi Yitzchak said: In keeping with what I have explained, there is a Garden of Eden above and another below; there is a Gehenom below and another above. Rabbi Ya'akov said: The wicked who have defiled their circumcision, desecrated the Shabbat in public, desecrated the festivals, and have rejected the Torah, the resurrection of the dead, and so on, all shall enter Gehenom below. They shall be punished there and shall never rise up again.

248. אָמַר ר' יִצְחָק לְהָאֵי גֵוּוֹנָא אֵית גֵּן עַדָּן לְמַעְלָה, וְאֵית גֵּן עַדָּן לְמַטָּה. אֵית גֵּיהֶנֶם לְמַטָּה, וְאֵית גֵּיהֶנֶם לְמַעְלָה. אָמַר ר' יִצְחָק, הַרְשָׁעִים שֶׁקָּלְקְלוּ בְרִית מִילָה שְׁבָהֵם, וְחָלְלוּ שַׁבַּת בְּפִרְהֶסְיָא, וְחָלְלוּ אֶת הַמוֹעֲדוֹת, וְשִׁכְפְּרוּ בַתּוֹרָה, וְשִׁכְפְּרוּ בַתְּחִיַּית הַמֵּתִים, וְכִדּוּמָה לָהֶם, יוֹרְדִים לְגֵיהֶנֶם שְׁלֵמָטָה, וְנְדוּוֹנִים שָׁם וְשׁוֹב אֵינָם עוֹלָיִם.

249. But they shall rise on the Day of Judgment and for the resurrection of the dead. They are described by the words: "And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt" (Daniel 12:2). And they are also described by the words, "and they shall be abhorrent to all flesh" (Heb. dera'on) (Yeshayah 66:24). What is dera'on? Dai-Ra'on, WHICH MEANS that all shall say, Dai ('enough') - Ra'on ('of seeing them')--THEY SHALL HAVE HAD ENOUGH OF SEEING THEM. But of the righteous in Yisrael, it is said: "Your people shall also be all righteous..." (Yeshayah 60:21). End of Midrash Hane'elam

20. "And Hashem rained upon S'dom"

The various levels of judgment that occur in Hell are expounded upon by the sages of the Zohar. These judgments were expressed in our physical world during the time of Sodom and Gomorrah and the time of Noah and the flood. The implements of water, fire, and brimstone were used to bring about judgment during these times of intense negativity. The Zohar reveals that the 72 Names of G-d, along with the angels who are connected to each particular sequence of Hebrew Letters that form the 72 Names, were the conduits by which the force of judgment expressed itself in our physical realm.

The Relevance of this Passage

The 72 Names of God is an ancient formula encoded in the Torah passage that tells the story of the parting of the Red Sea. This instrument emits both merciful and judgmental forces into our world. Through this passage of Zohar we arouse the protection and positive aspects from the 72 Names and the corresponding angels, thereby removing negative elements and judgments from our life.

250. Next is the verse: "And Hashem rained upon S'dom and upon Amorah..." Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "Behold, the day of Hashem comes, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger..." (Yeshayah 13:9) "Behold, the day of Hashem comes" alludes to the earthly Courthouse, WHICH REFERS TO THE JUDGMENTS THAT ISSUE FROM MALCHUT, DURING THE TIME WHEN SHE IS AT THE STAGE OF ILLUMINATION FROM THE LEFT, BEFORE BEING COMBINED WITH THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS CALLED THE DECREE OF JUDGMENT. "Comes" is as explained IN REFERENCE TO THE PHRASE, "WHICH HAS COME TO ME," WHICH MEANS THAT SHE ALWAYS COMES AT THE BEGINNING OF EVERY UNION. "Which has come to me" is so because it does not execute Judgment before it enters and receives permission. The same is explained by the verse, "The end of all flesh has come before ?Me," WHICH MEANS THAT IT CAME TO ASK FOR PERMISSION.

251. Another explanation of "Behold, the day of Hashem comes" is that it refers to the Saboteur of Below, NAMELY THE ANGEL OF DEATH, when he takes the soul away. This is why THE VERSE CALLS HIM "cruel both with wrath...to lay the land desolate," ALLUDING TO S'dom and Amorah, WHICH WERE THROWN OVER AND DESERTED. The phrase, "and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it," REFERS TO those who inhabited that land.

252. After this, it is written: "For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof..." (Yeshayah 13:10) because it was from the heavens that He rained fire down on them and wiped them out of the world. Then, it is written: "I will make men more rare than fine gold..." (Ibid. 12). This is Avraham, whom the Holy One, blessed be He, raised up and cherished more than any other person in the world.

253. Rabbi Yehuda related these verses to the day when the Temple was destroyed. On that day, both the celestial and earthly beings darkened, along with the stars and heavens. Rabbi Elazar explained these verses as follows: The day on which the Holy One, blessed be He, shall raise the Congregation of Yisrael up from the dust, NAMELY AT THE TIME OF REDEMPTION, shall be known on high and down below. As it is written: "But it shall be one day which shall be known to Hashem..." (Zecharyah 14: 7) And on that day, the Holy One, blessed be He, shall take revenge on the idol worshippers.

254. So when the Holy One, blessed be He, takes revenge on the worshipers of the planets and constellations, it shall be said: "I will make men more rare than fine gold." This is King Mashiach, who shall rise up over all peoples of the world and be so honored that all of humanity will bow before him and obey him. This is as it is written: "They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him...the kings of Tarshish...shall bring presents..." (Tehilim 72:9-10).

250. וְהָיָה הַמָּטֵיר עַל סֹדֶם וְעַל עֲמֹרָה וּגְו', ר' חַיָּיא פִתַח, הִנֵּה יוֹם ה' בָּא אֲכֹרֵי וּגְו'. הִנֵּה יוֹם ה' בָּא, דָּא בֵי דִינָא לְתַתָּא. בָּא: כְּמָה דְאִתְמַר הַבָּאָה אֵלַי, בְּגִין דְלֹא עֵבִיד דִּינָא, עַד דְעָאֵל, וְנָטִיל רִשׁוֹ, כְּגִוּוּנָא דָּא, קִץ כָּל בֶּשָׂר בָּא לְפָנַי.

255. Come and behold: even though this prophecy--REFERRING TO THE VERSES THAT READ "BEHOLD, THE DAY OF HASHEM..." AND "I WILL MAKE MAN..."--was said specifically about Babylon AS WRITTEN, 'THE BURDEN OF BAVEL' (YESHAYAH 13:1), it is said NEVERTHELESS about everything. It is also written in this same passage: "For Hashem will have mercy on Ya'akov...And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place..." (Yeshayah 14:1-2). IT SEEMS THAT THE SAGES OF THE ZOHAR HAD A DIFFERENT SECTIONING OF THE BIBLE, BECAUSE IN OUR BOOKS, THESE VERSES APPEAR IN THE FOLLOWING CHAPTER.

256. The phrase, "Then Hashem rained upon S'dom," refers to the level of the earthly Courthouse, which is granted permission from above. Rabbi Yitzchak said that the Judgment was executed with Mercy, as it is written: "from Hashem out of heaven," FOR THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI IMPLIES MERCY. This is so that Judgment will be mixed with Mercy. You might ask: What Mercy is there here? HE REPLIES: As it is written: "And it came to pass, when Elohim destroyed the cities of the plain, that Elohim remembered Avraham..." (Bereshheet 19:29) And after this, two whole nations issued from LOT. And he had the honor of being the great ancestor of David and King Solomon.

257. See what is written: "And it came to pass, when they had brought them outside abroad, that he said: ESCAPE FOR YOUR LIFE" (Bereshheet 19:17). Come and behold: we have learned that when Judgment hangs over the world, people should not be at the marketplace. This is because when Judgment comes, it does not distinguish between the righteous and the wicked. Therefore, one should not be there. And it has been explained that this is why Noach hid in the ark and did not look upon the world as judgment was executed. And so it is written: "and none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning," (Shemot 12:22) THAT IS, until judgment is executed. And this is why it is written: "Escape for your life, look not behind you..."

258. As they were walking, Rabbi Yehuda said to Rabbi Yitzchak: The Judgment that the Holy One, blessed be He, executed at the Great Flood and the Judgment of S'dom were both Judgments of Gehenom, because the sinners in Gehenom are punished by water and fire.

259. Rabbi Yitzchak responded that S'dom was sentenced by the Judgment of Gehenom, as it is written: "Then Hashem rained upon S'dom and upon Amorah brimstone and fire from Hashem out of heaven." One was punished with the aspect of water; the other with the aspect of fire; and both are the punishments of Gehenom. The sinners in Gehenom are punished with both these aspects of Judgment BECAUSE THERE IS THE 'GEHENOM OF SNOW,' WHICH IS WATER, AND THERE IS THE 'GEHENOM OF FIRE.'

255. תָּא חֲזִי, אִף עַל גַּב דְּנִבּוּאָה דָּא, אֲתָמַר עַל בָּבֶל, בְּכֹלָא אֲתָמַר. דִּהּא חֲמִינָן בְּהַאי פְּרִשְׁתָּא, דְּכִתְיִב כִּי יִרְחַם ה' אֶת יַעֲקֹב. וְכִתְיִב וּלְקָחוּם עִמָּיִם וְהִבְיָאוּם אֶל מְקוֹמָם.

260. He said to him: The sinners are sentenced to twelve months in Gehenom, WHERE THEY ARE CLEANSED, THAT IS PURIFIED. LATER, the Holy One, blessed be He, raises them from Gehenom and makes them sit at its gates watching other sinners enter and receive punishment. And they ask for Mercy for them. And after this, the Holy One, blessed be He, is merciful to them. HE RAISES THEM UP AND AWAY FROM THE GATES OF GEHENOM, bringing them to the place required for them. From that day onward, the body rests in the dust while the soul inherits its appropriate place.

261. Come and behold: we have learned that even the generation of the Great Flood was punished with fire and water only. Cold water came down from above and boiling water from below, FROM THE BOTTOM OF THE EARTH, as fire. So they were punished by the two Judgments, because the Judgment of above is executed WITH TWO KINDS OF JUDGMENT: WATER AND FIIRE. And this is why there was brimstone and fire in S'dom--BECAUSE THE BRIMSTONE COMES FROM WATER, AS IS KNOWN.

262. He asked him: Will THE PEOPLE OF S'DOM rise IN THE FUTURE for the Day of Judgment? He responded: We have already learned this. Those PEOPLE of S'dom and Amarah will not rise FOR JUDGMENT IN THE FUTURE DURING THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD. This is proven by the verse: "And that the whole land there is of brimstone, and salt, and burning...which Hashem overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath" (Devarim 29:22). "Which Hashem overthrew" means in the present world; "in His anger" means in the world to come; and "in His wrath" means at the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, shall resurrect the dead.

263. He said to him: "Come and behold. Just as their land was destroyed forever, so were they destroyed forever. Behold, the Judgment of the Holy One, blessed be He, is Judgment for Judgment, NAMELY, A JUST RETRIBUTION. Just as they did not revive the soul of the poor with food or with drink, so in the same way, the Holy One, blessed be He, does not give their soul back to them in the world to come.

264. Come and behold: they refrained from giving charity, which is called life. Thus, the Holy One, blessed be He, withheld life from them in this world and in the world to come. And just as they blocked the pathways and routes for other people, so did the Holy One, blessed be He, block the pathways and routes of mercy from them, so that they could not receive Mercy in this world or in the world to come.

260. אָמַר לוֹ, דִּינָא דְחַיִּיבֵי דְגֵיהֶנּוּם, תְּרִיסַר יָרְחֵי, וְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא־סְלִיק לֹון מְגִיְהֶנּוּם, וְתַמְן מִתְּלַבְנִין, וְיִתְבִּין לְתַרְעָא דְגֵיהֶנּוּם וְחַמָּאן אִינוּן חַיִּיבִין דְעָאֲלִין, וְדִנִּין לֹון תַּמְן, וְאִינוּן תְּבַעֵי רַחֲמֵי עֲלֵיהוּ. וְלִבְתַּר, קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא־חַיִּיס עֲלֵיהוּ, וְאֵעִיל לֹון לְדוּכְתָא דְאַצְטְרִיךְ לֹון. מִהֵהוּא יוֹמָא וְלֵהֲלָאָה, גּוּפָא אֲשַׁתְּכַךְ בְּעַפְרָא, וְנִשְׁמַתָּא יִרְתָּא אַתְרָה בְּרַחֲוֵי לָהּ.

265. Rabbi Aba then said: All the people of the world will rise AT THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD and be judged. But of THE PEOPLE OF S'DOM, it is said: "and some to shame and everlasting contempt" (Daniel 12:2). Yet the Holy One, blessed be He, is merciful. Because He punished them in this world and they accepted His punishment, they shall not be punished in the future with all Judgments, BUT ONLY WITH A FEW OF THEM.

266. Rabbi Chiya said that it is written: "and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow..." AND HE ASKS: What is MEANT BY "when He overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt," SINCE HE DWELT ONLY IN ONE OF THEM? AND HE REPLIES: Lot did dwell in all of them. As it is written: "and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent toward S'dom" (Bereshheet 13:12). But nobody accepted him in S'dom, except for the King of S'dom, for the sake of Avraham, WHO RETURNED HIS PEOPLE AND THE GOODS THAT HE HAD LOST DURING THE WAR OF THE FOUR KINGS.

Sitrei Torah (Concealed Torah)

267. Tosefta (Addendum). Sublime Connections, NAMELY THOSE RIGHTEOUS PEOPLE WHOSE NEFESH, RUACH, AND NESHAMAH, ARE CONNECTED AND ATTACHED TO THE GREATNESS OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE: Governors who shatter THE POWERS OF THE OTHER SIDE, the Wise in understanding, look to know. The White Head, NAMELY ARICH ANPIN WHOSE HAIR IS LIKE PURE SHEAF, prepares the Throne, WHICH IS AN ALLUSION TO BINAH, and sets it upon pillars of precious stones and gems--WHICH IS A REFERENCE TO CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, WHICH ARE THE FOUR 'LEGS' OF THE THRONE, WHICH IS BINAH.

268. Among these stones, there is a particular gem. THIS IS A REFERENCE TO THE NUKVA OF ZEIR-ANPIN, which is beautiful and glamorous; it is the place where the smoke and fire gather and glow through seventy aspects. THIS REFERS TO THE DECREE OF JUDGMENT, WHICH IS THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT SIDE IN THE NUKVA, BEFORE IT IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT. THEN SHE IS A PLACE OF JUDGMENT ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF A 'BURNING FIRE AND HOT STEAM OF THE FURNACE.' These seventy aspects glow in all directions, THAT IS, TO ALL 'FOUR WINDS' (DIRECTIONS) OF THE WORLD, WHICH ARE NAMED CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT.

269. These seventy ASPECTS issue from the three colors, WHICH ARE WHITE, RED, AND GREEN, WHILE THE COLOR OF MALCHUT, WHICH IS BLACK, DOES NOT APPEAR THERE. These sparks ARE INCLUDED within the sparks that sparkle in the four directions of the world. A strong spark lies to the left side, which clings to the heavens, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN. The Judgments that are in these seventy aspects are modified, and the books are open, AS IF TO SAY THAT EVEN THOUGH THE BOOKS IN WHICH THE JUDGMENTS (OR 'SENTENCES') ARE WRITTEN ARE OPEN AND SEEN BY ALL, THE JUDGMENT IS NEVERTHELESS MODIFIED AND DOES NOT EXECUTE ANY PUNISHMENT.

270. From here the Arrows, Swords, Spears, and the Fire of the Tower go forth. And a strong Fire comes out of the heavens, ZEIR ANPIN clinging to it, NAMELY, TO THE NUKVA. Thus, when the upper Fire, NAMELY THE JUDGMENTS OF ZEIR ANPIN, clings to the lower Fire, NAMELY THE SEVENTY JUDGMENTS OF THE NUKVA, no one can cancel the wrath and Judgment THAT BELONG TO THE JUDGMENTS OF THE NUKVA.

265. ר' אבא אמר, כלהו בני עלמא יקומון, ויקומון לדינא. ועלייהו כתיב ואלה לחרפות ולדראון עולם. וקודשא בריך הוא מארי דרחמין איהו, בין דין להו בהאי עלמא, וקבילו דינא, לא אתדנו בכלהו דינין.

271. ZEIR ANPIN comes down to the world with the eyes glowing like the fiery flames of fire, THAT IS, WITH EYES GLOWING WITH FIRE, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "I WILL GO DOWN NOW, AND SEE..." Woe to he who shall run into Him when He is armed with Swords. THIS REFERS TO THE JUDGMENTS, WHICH ARE CALLED 'SWORDS.' He has a sharp Sword in His hand and has pity on neither the good nor the bad. The verdict of those seventy COLORS comes down by the left hand, with permission granted by the Unison to which that 'Side of the Heavens' is attached.

272. He changes into many kinds of Judgment. Every day He changes into many colors. THIS MEANS THAT THEY RECEIVE A DIFFERENT SHAPE EACH TIME. It happens when offensive speech is exalted and collected cheaply among the rulers of men. All sorts of Judgments appear in the 'Vessel of Wrath' of the Holy One, blessed be He. And THESE JUDGMENTS remain at the top of the world, while human beings, because of their ignorance, are not aware of them.

273. "Brimstone and fire" REFERS TO the waste of water and fire that have been drawn from the heavens, combined together, and released upon S'dom. Woe to the wicked, who do not pay attention for the glory of their Master.

274. Ten Names are engraved by the King's authority. THE TEN NAMES REFER TO THE TEN SFIROT; there are ten SFIROT, AS EXPLAINED IN SEFER YETZIRAH (THE BOOK OF FORMATION); TEN EXACTLY, NOT NINE OR ELEVEN. NEVERTHELESS, THEY ALSO add up to a greater number, WHICH IS A REFERENCE TO THE 72 NAMES. THIS CAN BE EXPLAINED FURTHER. These seventy colors that glow in all directions derive from these Names, THAT IS, FROM THE 72 NAMES. AND THESE SEVENTY COLORS WERE ENGRAVED and formed into the secret of the seventy Names of the angels, which are the secret of the heavens.

275. And they are Michael, Gavriel, Refael, Nuriel. Kamatz (a vowel): Kedumiel, Malkiel, Tzadkiel. Patach (a vowel): Pedael, Tumiel, Chasdiel. Tzere (a vowel): Tzuriel, Raziell, Yofiel. Segol (a vowel): Stuteriyah, Gazriel, Vatriel, Lamael. Chirik (a vowel): Chazkiel, Rehatiell, Kadshiel. Sheva (a vowel): Shemaell, Barchiel, Ahieil. Cholem (a vowel): Chanieil, Lahadieil, Machnieil. Shuruk (a vowel): Shamshieil, Rehavieil, Kamshieil. Shuruk (a vowel) called melafum. Shemar'el, Rehatiell, Karshieil.

271. עֵינָיו לְהִטִּין כְּטִיסִין דְּנוּרָא, נְחִית בְּהוּ לְעֵלְמָא. וְוִי מֵאן דְּאֶעְרַע בֵּיהּ, חָגִיר חֲרָבִין, אִיהוּ חֲרָבָא שְׁנָנָא בִּידֵיהּ, לֹא חִיִּיס עַל טַב וְעַל בִּישׁ, דְּהָא פְּסָקָא דְּאִינוּן שְׁבַעִין, בְּרִשׁוֹ דְּאֶתְאַחִיד הֵהוּא סְטְרָא דְּשְׁמַיָא, נְחִית בִּידָא שְׁמַאלָא.

277. Tefuriya, Shachniel, Renael, Kamriyah, Tzuriyah, Psisiyah, Iriel, Samchiel, Neriell, Madoniyah, Lasniyah, Kamsariyah, Yeriell, Tasmasiyah, Chaniel, Zachriell, Vadriell, Hinael, Denabael, Gadiell, Bedael, Adiriron. Adonai is above them all.

278. When they are all joined together as one, in one secret, by the power of the Almighty, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, then He is called Vav-Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHICH MEANS THAT all are united as one. THIS REFERS TO ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA TOGETHER WITH THE SEVENTY ANGELS BELOW HER. The phrase, "from Hashem out of heaven" REFERS TO the Holy Name that is engraved with the other seventy Names of the secret of the heavens--WHICH ALLUDE TO ZEIR-ANPIN, WHICH IS THE NAME OF 72 THAT ARE IN THE MOCHIN OF ZEIR-ANPIN, WHILE IN ESSENCE IT INCLUDES SEVENTY. So these are the seventy OF ZEIR ANPIN that control the seventy Judgments OF THE NUKVA THAT GLOW IN ALL DIRECTIONS. They are the secret of Vav-Yud-Vav-Hei-Hei. And these seventy names of holiness, NAMELY THE MOCHIN OF ZEIR ANPIN, ARE THE SECRET OF Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei WITHOUT THE LETTER VAV, CALLED the "heavens."

279. These SEVENTY JUDGMENTS WITHIN THE NUKVA receive from those SEVENTY NAMES OF ZEIR ANPIN. Vav-Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHICH INCLUDES SEVENTY JUDGMENTS, receives from Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE SEVENTY NAMES WITHIN ZEIR ANPIN, the one from the other. So these are dependent on those, WHICH MEANS THAT the lower ones, WHICH ARE THE SEVENTY JUDGMENTS, ARE DEPENDENT on the upper ones, WHICH ARE THE SEVENTY NAMES OF ZEIR ANPIN. They are all connected together AND THEY ALL SHINE SIMULTANEOUSLY. And thus, the Holy One, blessed be He, appears in His glory. AS WE HAVE STATED the heavens have a numerical value of seventy and the secret of Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei WITHOUT THE LETTER VAV is the secret of the 72 names derived from the three verses, "and he went... and he came...and he stretched out," (Shemot 14:19-21) WHICH APPEAR IN THE PORTION OF THE PARTING OF THE RED SEA.

280. Vav-Hei-Vav, Yud-Lamed-Yud, Samech-Yud-Tet, Ayin-Lamed-Mem, Mem-Hei-Shin, Lamed-Lamed-Hei, Aleph-Kaf-Aleph, Kaf-Hei-Tav, Hei-Zayin-Yud, Aleph-Lamed-Dalet, Lamed-Aleph-Vav, Hei-Hei-Ayin.

281. And these are the seventy names that control the seventy lower grades, WHICH ARE the secret of Vav-Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, TOGETHER WITH THE LETTER VAV. And these are the seventy names, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei WITHOUT THE LETTER VAV, ACCORDING TO the secret of the "heavens," NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN. There are seven firmaments, WHICH CORRESPOND TO THE SEVEN SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN THAT ARE CALLED THE "HEAVENS." EACH INCLUDES TEN, THEREBY adding up to the seventy names of the Holy Name YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI.

And this IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSES, "And Hashem (Vav-Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei) rained,"--WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE SEVENTY JUDGMENTS OF THE NUKVA, AND "from Hashem out of heaven"--WHICH IS THE SECRET THAT IS CALLED SEVENTY NAMES INCLUDED WITHIN THE HOLY NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI.

282. A very deep secret was passed on to the wise in relation to this name that is called 'the heavens.' From this secret, the sublime mystery that is called man was created, and the number of a person's body parts is 248.

283. The number of letters IN THE 72 NAMES adds up to 216. EACH NAME HAS THREE LETTERS; THREE TIMES 72 EQUALS 216. This Name OF THE 72 NAMES is the secret and most sublime mystery; it is the essence of the Torah. And IT IS INCLUDED in the 22 letters and the ten 'Sayings,' THEIR NUMERICAL VALUE IS 32, WHICH IS ALSO THE SECRET OF THE 32 PATHS OF WISDOM. Therefore, this name is composed of 216 letters and 32 pathways, which total 248 together. And these are the 248 parts of the body.

284. This is the secret OF WHY ZEIR ANPIN IS called 'Man', who rules over the Throne, WHICH IS the secret of the lower seventy, WHICH REFERS TO THE SEVENTY KINDS OF JUDGMENT AND THE SEVENTY ANGELS THAT ISSUE FROM THEM. THESE ARE CALLED THE 'THRONE.' And this is the secret of what is written: "and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it" (Yechezkel 1:26). THIS IS ZEIR ANPIN, WHO IS CALLED 'MAN'. HE IS ABOVE ON THE THRONE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA AND HER SEVENTY KINDS OF JUDGMENT. And this is the secret of what is written: "Then (And) Hashem rained upon S'dom," WHICH ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA AND HER SEVENTY KINDS OF JUDGMENT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE THRONE. The phrase, "from Hashem out of heaven" REFERS TO THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHO IS ABOVE UPON THE THRONE. And everything belongs to the same issue and the same secret. This has been passed on to those wise men at heart. Happy are they in this world and in the world to come.

285. As for S'dom, its people were punished because they refrained from giving charity. As it is written: "neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy" (Yechezkel 16:49). And this is why the Judgment upon them came solely from heaven--because "charity" and "heaven" are one. As it is written: "For your kindness is great above the heavens," (Tehilim 108:5) INDICATING THAT "CHARITY" AND "KINDNESS" ARE BOTH DRAWN FROM THE HEAVENS ABOVE. Because charity depends on the heavens, their Judgment is also drawn down from the heavens, as it is written: "from Hashem out of heaven."

286. The Judgment upon Yisrael comes from that place as well, REFERRING TO THE HEAVENS, as it is written: "For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of S'dom," (Eichah 4:6) where Jerusalem is called the 'Sister of S'dom'. As it is written: "Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister S'dom" (Yechezkel 16:49). And THIS IS WHY their Judgment came upon them from the heavens--the same Judgment as fell on S'dom--because they refused to give charity. The only difference is that one was overthrown, NAMELY S'DOM, while the other, JERUSALEM, was destroyed. The second shall be reconstructed, REFERRING TO JERUSALEM, while the other, S'DOM, shall not.

21. "But his wife looked back"

The Zohar divulges the spiritual significance of a Biblical story about Lot and his wife. In the literal story, Lot's wife is turned into a pillar of salt when she turns to look behind her husband. In reality, she looked into the face of the Angel of Destruction. The Angel of Destruction can only wreak havoc and devastation when we look him in the face.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our five senses restrict us to a narrow, limited view of reality. We journey through life wearing blinders. Consequently, we stumble into negative circumstances that create upheaval and turmoil. We receive assistance from the Creator, enlightening our consciousness to His spiritual direction. This assistance guides and protects us so that we never come face-to-face with destructive entities at anytime in our life.

287. Of the verse, "But his wife looked back from behind him," (Beresheet 19:26) he ASKED: Why is it written "from behind him" rather than 'From behind her,' namely, behind the Shechinah. AND Rabbi Yosi replied: "from behind him" MEANS from behind Lot, as the Angel of Destruction went behind him. AND HE ASKS: How could THE ANGEL OF DESTRUCTION have followed behind him after sending him away? AND HE REPLIES: The Angel of Destruction refrained from destroying any place where Lot went. But the Angel of Destruction overthrew the place from which he had departed.

287. וַתִּבֶּט אִשְׁתּוֹ מֵאַחֲרָיו, מֵאַחֲרֶיהָ מִבְּעֵי לֵיָּהּ,
אֲלֵא מִבְּתֵר שְׂכִינְתָּא, ר' יוֹסִי אָמַר, מִבְּתֵרִיהָ דְלוֹט,
דְּמִחְבְּלָא אָזִיל אֲבִתְרִיהָ, וְכִי אֲבִתְרִיהָ אָזִיל, וְהָא
הוּא שְׂדֵר לֵיָּהּ, אֲלֵא בְּכָל אֲתָר דְּהוּא אָזִיל לוֹט,
אֲתַעֲבֵב מִחְבְּלָא לְחִבְלָא, וְכָל אֲתָר דְּאָזִיל כְּבָר,
וְשִׁבִיק לְאַחֲרֵיהָ, הָיָה מֵהֲפֵךְ לֵיָּהּ מִחְבְּלָא.

288. This is why THE ANGEL OF DESTRUCTION said to him, "Look not behind you," because everything behind you I will destroy. Therefore, it is written: "But his wife looked from behind him," and saw the Angel of Destruction. As a result, "she became a pillar of salt." As long as the Angel of Destruction does not see a person's face, he does not destroy them. But as Lot's wife did turn her face back to look "from behind him," she immediately "became a pillar of salt."

288. וּבְגִין כֵּן, אָמַר לֵיָּהּ, אַל תִּבֶּט אַחֲרֶיךָ, דְּהָא

22. "A land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness"

The power emanating from the Land of Israel is the source of all spiritual energy for the entire world. Whenever we pray, our thoughts and consciousness should be directed towards the Land of Israel so that we connect ourselves to this fountainhead of spiritual nourishment.

The Relevance of this Passage

There are many regions on the planet that emit powerful spiritual forces. These geographical locations are the portals through which the Light of the Upper Worlds enters into the physical dimension. The Land of Israel is the energy centre and source for the entire world and for this reason, it has remained front and center on the world stage for millennia. This passage creates a powerful conduit, connecting our souls to the Land of Israel and ultimately, the Creator, the source of all spiritual nourishment.

289. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosi were standing one day and discussing this passage. Rabbi Elazar said: It is written, "A land in which (Lit. 'which in it') you shall eat bread without scarceness; you shall not lack anything in it..." (Devarim 8:9). Why are the words "in it" repeated twice? It has already been stated that the Holy One, blessed be He, divided all the peoples and the lands according to appointed Messengers. But the land of Yisrael has no angel or Governor controlling it, only THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE alone. This is why He brought the people over whom no one rules, EXCEPT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, to the land over which no one rules, EXCEPT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE.

290. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, supplied THE LAND OF YISRAEL with provisions and food first, and then to the rest of the world. So all the other nations that worship planets and constellations "eat in scarceness," while in the land of Yisrael it is not so--because the land of Yisrael is nourished first and only then the rest of the world, WHICH FEEDS ON THE LEFTOVERS.

291. This is why IT IS WRITTEN: "A land which in it you shall eat bread without scarceness," in which you shall eat in abundance. Thus, "in it you shall eat," but only "in it," and not in any other place. Thus, "in it" ALLUDES TO the holiness of the land; "in it" the supernal Faith resides, "in it" rests the blessing from above, but only "in it" and in no other place. HENCE, THE VERSE MENTIONS "IN IT" TWICE, ALLUDING TO ALL THAT IS DESCRIBED ABOVE.

292. Come and behold: it is written, "as the garden of Hashem, like the land of Egypt, AS YOU COME TO TZOAR" (Bereshheet 13:10). AND HE ASKS: It is still not clear FROM THE VERSE if Egypt or S'dom is "as the garden of Hashem," or if the "garden of Hashem" is the garden that is called the Garden of Eden? AND HE REPLIES: Actually, THE PHRASE "as the garden of Hashem," WHICH IS THE GARDEN OF EDEN AND which is full of abundance and pleasure for all, refers to S'dom and Egypt. Just as the garden of Hashem did not require irrigation, neither did Egypt, which was irrigated by the river Nile.

293. Come and behold: it is written, "And whosoever does not come up of all the families of the earth to Jerusalem..." (Zecharyah 14:17)--would be punished by having rain withheld. But "if the family of Egypt does not go up, and does not come Jerusalem," (Ibid. 18) it is not written that "upon them shall be no rain," because it usually does not rain in Egypt, and the people there are in no need of it. So what is their punishment? It is as the verse continues, "this shall be the plague, with which Hashem will smite the nations..." (Ibid.), since the Egyptians don't need rain. S'dom, as well, was "well watered everywhere..." (Bereshheet 13:10) WHICH MEANS THAT it had all the worldly pleasures and delights. For they did not want any other person to share these delights or receive these pleasures there, THE PEOPLE DID NOT RECEIVE ANY GUESTS.

294. Rabbi Chiya said: THE PEOPLE OF S'DOM were wicked because of themselves and their possessions AND NOT BECAUSE OF THEIR FERTILE LAND. THIS IS TRUE, BECAUSE THEY REFUSED TO GIVE CHARITY. A person who is stingy with the poor is not worthy of continued existence in the world. In addition, he has no life in the world to come. But whoever is goodhearted towards the needy is worthy of existence in the world, and the world exists because of his merit. He shall have life and longevity in the world to come.

23. "And Lot went up out of Tzoar"

There are no coincidences in life. No matter how accidental or random an event may appear to be, there is always an existing and underlying order and root cause. For example, Lot is taken advantage of by his daughters. He gets drunk with wine and his daughters engage in an incestuous relationship with their father. The Zohar explains that the wine corresponds to negative Left Column energy in this specific situation because it was used for immoral purposes. Remarkably, King David's ancestry is rooted in this incestuous relationship, and from the House of King David, will emerge the Messiah. A profound lesson of life is distilled through this controversial chain of events. Kabbalistically, the spiritual and physical worlds are perfectly balanced-the greater the force of negativity, the greater potential for revelation of a positive force. The Messiah is destined to generate the greatest possible spiritual Light in this world and therefore, the Messiah must emerge from the lowest and darkest realm. A union between Lot and his wife cannot be considered darkness, so this relationship could not plant the seed of the Messiah. Incest is considered the lowest and darkest form of union and therefore, it can also be transformed into the highest and brightest form of spiritual Light.

The Relevance of this Passage

The flaming light of a candle holds no genuine value or worth when measured against the brilliant radiance of the sun. Though, in a darkened room, a single flame assumes great importance and significance. We are born into a world of darkness so that our spiritual efforts achieve significance and illumination. Constant striving against our dark side bestows value and worth upon our positive attributes. Awareness and recognition of the importance of confronting our dark side and transforming our negative characteristics into positive attributes, arise through the words and wisdom of these verses.

295. "And Lot went up out of Tzoar, and dwelt in the mountain and his two daughters with him..." (Bereshheet 19:30). HE ASKS: Why DID HE GO UP OUT OF TZOAR? AND HE REPLIES: Because he noticed that Tzoar was close to S'dom. That is why he left there.

295. ויעל לוט מצוער וישב בהר הוא ושתי בנותיו עמו וגו'. מאי טעמא. בגין דחמא דהיה קריב לסדום, ואסתלק מתמן.

296. Rabbi Yitzchak then began the discussion by quoting: "And it is turned around and about by His counsels, that they may do whatsoever He commands them..." (Iyov 37:12). THIS MEANS THAT the Holy One, blessed be He, arranges events in the world and creates destructive lights to accomplish His actions. And afterward, He turns them around again and again in different ways.

296. רבי יצחק פתח והוא מסבות מתהפך בתחבולתו לפעלם וגו'. קודשא בריך הוא, מסבב סבובין דעלמא, ואייתי קומרין טהירין, למעבד עובדיו ולבתר מהפך לון, ועביר לון כגונא אחרא.

297. HE ASKS: And with what DOES HE TURN THEM AROUND? AND HE REPLIES: THIS IS DONE by His counsels, THAT IS, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, plans schemes and invents reasons to turn things around, so that they are completely changed and are not similar to what they seemed to be previously. "...that they may do..." refers to the doings of people and the ways in which they accomplish their deeds. This is how He turns things around AND CHANGES THE ACTIVITIES OF THE DESTRUCTIVE LIGHTS. And "whatsoever He commands them upon the face of the world in the earth" MEANS THAT events change because the activities of people change, thereby turning around those same activities that THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, commands them to accomplish upon earth. AND THEY ARE CHANGED INTO MANY DIFFERENT FORMS IN THE WORLD, ALL ACCORDING TO THE QUALITY OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE PEOPLE. WITH THESE WORDS, RABBI YITZCHAK BEGAN THE DISCUSSION TO UNDERSTAND THE ISSUE OF AMON AND MOAV, AND HOW THEY WERE FORMED AS A RESULT OF A CORRUPT ACTION, AND HOW ALL THE KINGS OF YEHUDA ISSUED FROM THEM, EVEN KING MASHIACH.

298. Rabbi Elazar said: "And it is turned around and about by His schemes..." This means that the Holy One, blessed be He, guides the course of events and causes certain actions to be performed in the world. As soon as the people are convinced that events are stable, the Holy One, blessed be He, turns them "around and about" and completely changes them again. HERE, RABBI ELAZAR DISAGREES WITH RABBI YITZCHAK'S EXPLANATION THAT IN THE BEGINNING THE ACTIVITIES WERE DISRUPTED BY DESTRUCTIVE LIGHTS, BUT LATER WERE TURNED "AROUND AND ABOUT" AND AMENDED BY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. RABBI ELAZAR EXPLAINS THAT IN THE BEGINNING THEY WERE GOOD AND WORTHY OF EXISTING IN THE WORLD, BUT WERE EVENTUALLY CORRUPTED BY THE DOINGS OF THE PEOPLE. AS A RESULT, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, TURNED THEM "AROUND AND ABOUT" FOR THE BETTER, IF THE PEOPLE REPENT AND ATONE FOR THEIR MISDOINGS.

299. The word, "by His counsels" is spelled without a Yud, WHICH INDICATES THE SINGULAR FORM, and could be compared to a potter who shapes vessels from clay. As long as the stone wheel is still revolving, he can fashion the pot according to his taste and even change its shape. This is possible only while the pots are still turning.

300. Similarly, the Holy One, blessed be He, turns His actions "around and about by His counsel(s)," minus the Yud, WHICH IS THE SINGULAR FORM. But what is "HIS COUNSEL?" His counsel is the lower court of Judgment, THAT IS, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, which corresponds to the pots of clay turning in front of the potter. And he changes them from one vessels to another.

301. And all is done to reflect people's actions. THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, CHANGES THE FORM OF THE VESSELS in accordance with the actions of people. If the people perform good deeds, the clay pots revolve to the right, WHICH IS CHESED. If their actions benefit humanity, CHASSADIM AND ALL GOODNESS WILL BE DRAWN DOWN INTO THE WORLD. As long as the stone wheel turns to the right, events will be positive. The world will revolve with it AND RECEIVE THE DOINGS AND ACTIONS FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN, WHICH IS CHESED.

302. But, if people intend to sin, then the Holy One, blessed be He will direct "His counsel," WHICH IS THE NUKVA that constantly moves and which was revolving to the right, to turn around and revolve to the left. And He turn the objects and the vessels, which were to the right, to the left.

303. As a result, the stone wheels change direction and become actions that will hurt humankind. And these stone wheels keep turning in that direction--TO THE LEFT--until people perform good deeds again. So the direction in which the stone wheels turn depends on the actions of humankind. THEREFORE, IT IS WRITTEN: "AND IT IS TURNED AROUND AND ABOUT BY HIS COUNSELS THAT THEY MAY DO WHATSOEVER HE COMMANDS THEM," because the "counsel," WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE STONE WHEELS, depends upon the actions OF HUMANKIND. And it never stands still; IT CONSTANTLY REVOLVES EITHER TO THE RIGHT OR TO THE LEFT.

304. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, has created all the events and actions necessary to accomplish everything properly. And everything comes down AND IS DRAWN INTO THE WORLD from the main source and root above. THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, brought Avraham to be close to Him. He then begot Yishmael, who was born before Avraham was circumcised. Thus, Yishmael was born down below and was not perfected by the sign of the Covenant.

305. Later on, the Holy One, blessed be He, guided the course of events by His counsel, and Avraham was circumcised and joined the Covenant. His name was completed, and he was called Avraham, WITH THE ADDITION OF THE HEI. So the first Hei OF THE HOLY NAME, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS BINAH, became his crown, according to the secret of deriving water from air.

306. As soon as this secret was perfected and Avraham was circumcised, Yitzchak was born to him. He was a "Holy Seed" and was attached up above according to the secret of deriving fire from water. And so it is written: "Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed..." (Yirmeyah 2:21). Hence, he was not related to the Other Side, WHICH REFERS TO THE LEFT SIDE ALONE. INSTEAD, HE WAS INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT SIDE.

307. Come and behold: two separate nations came forth from Lot and his daughters, which were attached to the side that was appropriate for them, NAMELY THE OTHER SIDE. This is why the Holy One, blessed be He, manipulates events and turns things around in the world; He wants everything to be well arranged and related to its place IN HOLINESS. THIS MEANS THAT EVERYTHING SHOULD BE CAREFULLY ARRANGED AND PROPERLY PLANNED TO ENSURE THE PROPER ISSUING OF THE KINGS OF YEHUDA AND KING MASHIACH. THIS IS THE MEANING OF THE VERSE, "AND IT IS TURNED AROUND AND ABOUT BY HIS COUNSEL(S) THAT THEY MAY DO WHATSOEVER HE COMMANDS THEM."

308. Come and behold: Lot was worthy of having the Holy One, blessed be He, produce these two nations from his union with his wife. But in order to attach them to their predestined place, HE PRODUCED THEM FROM HIS DAUGHTERS. AND THIS was achieved with the help of wine, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND THEY MADE THEIR FATHER DRINK WINE" (BERESHEET 19:33). This wine, which is the secret explanation of their actions, was prepared ESPECIALLY for them and was found on that specific night in the cave. IF THERE HAD BEEN NO WINE, THESE TWO NATIONS WOULD NOT HAVE COME INTO THE WORLD. Therefore, it is written: "And he drank of the wine, and was drunk," (Beresheet 9:21) and this has already been explained.

309. Come and behold: they called their sons Moav and Amon. SHE CALLED HIM Moav, BECAUSE HE WAS Me-av (lit. 'from father'). Rabbi Yosi said: The elder daughter cried out boldly--Mo-av, he is born from my father! "And the younger daughter also bore a son, whom she called Ben-Ami (lit. 'the son of my people')," in a cryptic way (Beresheet 19:38) but she did not declare who fathered him.

310. Come and behold. Of the elder daughter, it is written: "and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose" (Ibid. 33). The phrase, "when she arose" is spelled with a Vav with a dot above it. This indicates that there was help from above in performing that action, which was to ultimately result in the birth of Mashiach. Of the younger daughter, however, it is written: "nor when she arose," (Ibid. 35) without a Vav, because her issue was not for the sake of the Holy One, blessed be He. This is why when writing "when she arose," about the elder sister, there is a dot over the Vav. EVEN THOUGH THE YOUNGER DAUGHTER ALSO PRODUCED KINGS--NAAMAH THE AMMONITE WAS KING SOLOMON'S WIFE AND THE MOTHER OF REHAV'AM--NEVERTHELSS KING DAVID, CERTAINLY, IS THE MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, AS HE IS MASHIACH.

311. Rabbi Shimon then said: THE MEANING OF THE VERSE, "HE PERCEIVED NOT WHEN SHE LAY DOWN, NOR WHEN SHE AROSE" IS THAT he did not know that the Holy One, blessed be He, intended to raise from her King David and KING Solomon, and all the other kings, along with Mashiach. Furthermore, THE PHRASE, "when she arose" is ANALOGOUS TO what was said of Rut: "and she rose up before one could discern another" (Rut 3:14). And on that day, she certainly had an issue, because Boaz mated with her to preserve the name of the dead and his lineage. Thus, all these kings and all the noble men in Yisrael were raised through her. ACCORDING TO ANOTHER EXPLANATION, "and he perceived not when she lay down" RESEMBLES THE WORDS, "And she lay at his feet until the morning." It is written: "when she arose" and, "she rose up before one could discern another..." This is WHY "when she arose" IS SPELLED with a Vav with a dot above it. THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THIS EXPLANATION AND THE FIRST ONE IS THAT HERE HE EXPLAINED THE VERSE, "AND HE PERCEIVED NOT WHEN SHE LAY DOWN" AS WELL. IN THE FIRST EXPLANATION HE DID NOT EXPLAIN THIS VERSE.

312. Come and behold: see how modest Avraham was. From the beginning, when the Holy One, blessed be He, determined to execute His Judgment on S'dom, AVRAHAM PLEADED FOR MERCY, BUT he did not plead for Mercy for Lot. Later, when it is written: "and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace," (Bereshheet 19:28) Avraham still did not intercede for Lot and said nothing to the Holy One, blessed be He, in Lot's favor. And the Holy One, blessed be he, did not mention anything to him, so that Avraham would not think that the Holy One, blessed be He, had drawn on Avraham's merits BECAUSE OF THAT.

313. We know that Avraham cared about Lot because Avraham risked his life for Lot by waging war against four powerful kings. As it is written: "And when Avram heard that his brother was taken captive...And he divided himself against them...by night...And he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot, and his possessions" (Bereshheet 14:14-16). However, because of AVRAHAM'S love for the Holy One, blessed be He, and because he knew of Lot's misconduct, he did not ask that the Holy One, blessed be He, overlook Lot's actions. Thus, he did not plead for Mercy on Lot's account--neither in the beginning, nor in the end. Beginning with paragraph 314 and onward, we find what is known as midrash hane'elam--"hidden explanations." These hidden explanations of the Zohar appear primarily in the first few sections of Genesis. This particular section explains that the story of Lot and his daughters is a parable referring to man and his Evil Inclination. The Zohar explains how the Evil Inclination always catches us and how we can protect ourselves from it. Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

314. "And Lot went up out of Tzoar." Rabbi Avahu said: Behold what is written about the Evil Inclination. You should know that it will always exist in human beings until that time, of which it is written: "and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh" (Yechezkel 36:26). And even though it sees human beings punished in Gehenom, it returns again in people. This is as it is written: "And Lot went up out of Tzoar," that is, out of the agony (Heb. tza'ar) of Gehenom. From there, he goes up to seduce people.

315. Rabbi Yehuda said: There are three directing powers in people. One is the directing power of the mind and wisdom, which is the power of the Holy Neshamah. Next is the directing power of lust, which craves all kinds of evil desires. And finally, the directing power that controls human beings in their behavior and strengthens the body. This is called the Nefesh of the body, of which Rabbi Dimi said: This is the Maintaining Power.

316. Rabbi Yehuda said: Come and behold. The Evil Inclination has control over the last two powers. The lusting Nefesh always follows the Evil Inclination. We learn this from what is written: "And the firstborn said to the younger, Our father is old..." (Beresheet 19:31) The lusting Nefesh arouses the other and seduces it through the body to cleave to the Evil Inclination. And it says: "Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him." What is for us in the world to come? Let us pursue the Evil Inclination and the lustful pleasures of this world. So what did they do? They agreed to cling to it. Thus, it is written: "And they made their father drink wine." They feed ravenously in order to arouse themselves and reach the Evil Inclination through food and drink.

317. "...and the first born went in, and lay with her father" (Ibid. 33). When a person lies in bed at night, the lusting Nefesh arouses the Evil Inclination. It clings to it until he cling to every evil thought, and it conceives a little, which brings that evil thought into the heart of man. And it clings to it and remains in the heart without being fulfilled, until that lustful desire arouses the power of the body, as it did at first, to cling to the Evil Inclination. And then evil is achieved, as it is written: "Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father" (Ibid. 36).

318. Rabbi Yitzchak said: The Evil Inclination can be seduced only by eating and drinking, and by the merriment of wine. Then it controls humankind. As for the righteous, what is written of him? It is written: "The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul," (Mishlei 13:25) and never becomes drunk. As Rabbi Yehuda said: A Torah scholar who gets drunk is described as "A jewel of gold in a swine's snout" (Mishlei 11:22). And as well as that, he desecrates the Celestial Name. How do sinners behave? It is written: "And behold joy and gladness..." (Yeshayah 22:13). At this stage, wine takes over a person, "slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine" (Ibid.). Of them the Scriptures say: "Woe to them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink..." (Yeshayah 5:11) to arouse the Evil Inclination, as this inclination is not aroused without wine. Therefore, it is written: "And they made their father drink wine."

319. Rabbi Avahu then said: It is written that, "he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose." This means that the Evil Inclination is not aware of its lying down in this world, nor of its rising up to the world to come. It is aroused through the power of the body to accomplish its lustful desires in this world. As Rabbi Avahu said: When the sinners enter into Gehenom, the Evil Inclination is brought there to see them. As it is written: "when Lot entered into Tzoar (Heb. tza'ar, 'agony')," (Bereshheet 19:23) that is, into the agony of Gehenom. And from there it rises to seduce people. Therefore, it is written: "And Lot went up out of Tzoar," out of the agony of Gehenom.

320. "...and dwelt in the mountain..." (Ibid. 30) Rabbi Yitzchak said: What we learn from the words, "in the mountain" is that this is the dwelling place of Lot and his two daughters, who are the two forces mentioned before. In the mountain means in the body, which is as wasted as a mountain that has no goodness in it. Because "he feared to dwell in Tzoar," (Ibid. 30) fear and anxiety overtook him, as he saw the agony of Gehenom and the misery of the wicked. And it thinks it will be punished there. However, as soon as it realizes that it shall not be punished there, the Evil Inclination goes out and seeks to seduce human beings to follow it.

321. Rabbi Huna discussed this subject in an effort to warn people. He would say to them: My children, beware of the 'messenger from Gehenom'. And who is this messenger? It is the Evil Inclination, which is the 'messenger from Gehenom'.

322. Rabbi Aba then asked: Why is it written, "The leech has two daughters, crying: Give, give" (Mishlei 30:15)? These refer to the two daughters of Lot, who correspond to the lusting Nefesh and the Nefesh that takes part in the body and constantly pursues the Evil Inclination. Rabbi Yehoshua said: About Lot, it is written, "he feared to dwell in Tzoar." It is also written there that "the leech has two daughters, crying: Give, give." The numerical value of 'feared' equals that of 'leech.' Rabbi Yitzchak said: If he was afraid, why then does the Evil Inclination come to misguide people? But, this is indeed the way of the wicked. When he sees evil, his fear lasts only a moment. He then immediately returns to his wicked ways and fears nothing. Similarly, when the Evil Inclination sees the wicked being punished, it is afraid. But as soon as it leaves, it fears nothing."

323. Rabbi Aba said: In reference to the verse, "And the firstborn said to the younger, Our father is old..." what is "our father is old"? This alludes to the Evil Inclination, that is called 'old', as it is written: "an old and foolish king" (Kohelet 4:13). It is old because it is born together with person. As we have learned, Rabbi Yehuda said: Rabbi Yosi said that the lusting Nefesh says to the other one--Our father is old, so let us follow him and cling to him, like all the other wicked people in the world. "...and there is not a man in the earth to come to us" means that there is no righteous person upon earth, and there is no one who has control over his lustful desires. So there are many sinners in the world and we therefore will not be the only guilty ones. Let us do as all the people on earth do--let us sin, since until now this is the way all people on earth conduct themselves. "Let us make our father drink wine," let us be happy in this world by eating and drinking and getting drunk. We will then cling to our "father," namely the Evil Inclination, and "we will lie with him." And the Holy Spirit cries out loud and says: "But they also have erred through wine and through strong drink are out of the way..." (Yeshayah 28:7)

324. Rabbi Yehuda then said: Come and behold. It is written: "And they made their father drink wine" (Bereshheet 19:33). The way of the wicked is to go astray by drinking wine, to indulge the Evil Inclination with pleasures and arouse it until it rejoices in drunkenness and lies in its bed. Immediately then, "the firstborn went in and lay with her father"; she joins him and begins to imagine all kinds of bad thoughts. The Evil Inclination joins her and clings to her, and ceases to be aware of her or of what it does to her "when she lay down" in this world or, "when she arose" to the world to come. "...when she lay down..." in the world to come, she will account for her deeds and be judged for them. And "When she arose" for the Day of Judgment, it is written: "And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake" (Daniel 12:2). Here the Evil Inclination has no perception at all, so it clings to her, and she clings to it. Later, she arouses the other. Thus, after the great thought is attached to the Evil Inclination, the other one comes and clings to it.

325. "And they made their father drink wine," (Beresheet 19:35) to arouse the Evil Inclination and cling to it. And then they fulfilled their evil thoughts through action, and they both became pregnant to the Evil Inclination. As it is written: "Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father" (Idib. 36). Now that their deeds are done, each one "bears its evil." This is the way of the wicked. They interact with the Evil Inclination until it kills them, and then drags them down into Gehenom, where it leaves them. Afterward, it goes out to seduce more people, as has been explained. So he who recognizes its ways is saved from it and never joins it.

326. Rabbi Yitzchak said: This is similar to the example of a group of bandits that prepares ambushes along the roads to rob and kill people. They choose one person from among them, who knows how to deceive other men with soft words. What does he do? He first goes among the intended victims to welcome and serve them until the foolish among them trust him--his affection and his way of speech--and rejoice with him. He leads them on with his soothing words, so that they follow the route along which the other bandits are hiding. And as soon as they reach the hiding place, he is the first to kill them. The other bandits come, kill them, and take their money. While the victims shout and cry: Woe to us for listening to him, NAMELY TO THE EVIL INCLINATION, and to his soothing words. After they are killed, he emerges and goes to deceive other people, as before. What do those who are clever do? When they see him coming to seduce them, they recognize him as the one who ambushes their souls. So they kill him and travel a different route. This is the way of the Evil Inclination. It emerges from among the group of bandits, that is, it leaves Gehenom to welcome people and seduces them with its sweet tongue. As it is written: "And Lot went up out of Tzoar, and dwelt in the mountain," just like the bandits did, to prey on people. What does it do? It walks in front of them. And the fools have faith in it and in its love, through which it deceives them. It serves them as a slave who supplies them with beautiful, forbidden women. It allows people to be bad, and frees them from the commitments of Torah and the yoke of the Heavenly Kingdom. The fools see all this and trust in its love, accept its guidance, and follow it along the same path where the bandits are hidden, the path to Gehenom, along which there is no way of turning to the right or to the left. And as soon as it arrives with them at that place, it is the first to kill them and become the Angel of Death for them. Then it makes them enter Gehenom and brings them down to the Angels of Destruction. And they cry out, saying: Woe to us for listening to it--NAMELY, TO THE EVIL INCLINATION--but their cries serve no purpose. REPENTANCE AND REMORSE ARE ONLY EFFECTIVE DURING ONE'S LIFETIME, NOT AFTER DEATH. Afterward, the Evil Inclination leaves Gehenom and goes to seduce other people. The clever, who immediately recognize it, will overcome it until they have full control over it. Then they choose a different route to save themselves.

327. Rabbi Yosef traveled to Babylon where he saw young lads WHO WERE NOT YET MARRIED. They walked freely among beautiful women and did not commit any sin. He asked them: Are you not afraid of the Evil Inclination? They answered: We do not come from a mixture of good and bad, but were hewn out of the Holy of the Holies. THIS MEANS THAT THEIR PARENTS HAD NO EVIL THOUGHTS AT THE TIME OF THEIR MATING, WHEN THE YOUNG LADS WERE 'HEWN OUT' OF THEM. BECAUSE THEY HAD ONLY HOLY THOUGHTS, THE YOUNG LADS WERE NOT AFRAID OF THE EVIL INCLINATION. As Rabbi Yehuda said that Rav said: A person should sanctify himself during sexual intercourse in order to produce holy children, sons with holy attributes who have no fear of the Evil Inclination. This is according to the verse: "Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy" (Vayikra 20:7).

328. Rabbi Aba asked: What is MEANT BY THE VERSE: "And hallow My Shabbatot...(Heb. plural)" (Yechezkel 20:20)? THIS MEANS that the 'mating period' of the sages are timed every Shabbat. And he warns them that because sexual intercourse is a precept, 'hallow' means that you should sanctify yourselves during 'My Shabbatot (Heb. plural)' through the precept of mating. Rav Yehuda said that Rav said: Whoever arrives at a city and sees nice women should lower his eyes and say--Look how I have been 'hewn' from highly important parents. You dangerous obstacle--WHICH IS A REFERENCE TO THE KLIPAH THAT CAUSES THE THOUGHT OF WOMEN--get out, get out OF ME. As he is a 'holy fruit' of Shabbat, WHICH MEANS THAT HE WAS BORN FROM A MATING DURING SHABBAT, THE KLIPAH HAS NO CONTROL OVER HIM. SO HE ASKS: Why then SHOULD HE WHISPER THESE PHRASES AS HE ENTERS THE CITY? AND HE ANSWERS: BECAUSE the heat OF THE HARDSHIP of traveling overcomes him. So the Evil Inclination might also overcome him.
End of Midrash Hane'elam

24. Amon and Moav

The original Serpent in the Garden of Eden ate fruits from the tree, which is also interpreted as drinking wine. Through this action, two negative energy forces came into existence--[do not pronounce] malcon, and peor. The Zohar expounds upon these two negative forces and how they manifest into our world to influence man. The two children born from an incestuous relationship between Lot and his two daughters were the physical manifestation of these two forces. King David, who is a descendant of these offspring, used this tremendous negativity as a tool to take control over the two negative forces. According to the laws of spirituality, in order to attain genuine control over any situation or force, one must have some connection to it. It was destined that King David be seeded with this negativity because he was ingrained with the spiritual strength necessary to take control over it. The moment man seizes control over any negative aspect of his nature, for example, the trait of jealousy, he immediately influences and minimizes the force of jealousy in the entire world. The envy that lurks within in the hearts of all men is rooted in one source. This principle holds true for all negative qualities.

The Relevance of this Passage

Mankind's natural instinct is to treat multiple symptoms, as opposed to curing the one underlying and unseen cause. All of our negative traits are rooted in one source. We gain control over our own negativity and reactive impulses and their source and origin by virtue of this passage. Moreover, we connect ourselves to any negativity that we came into contact with at prior times in our life and take control over and diminish the root of these forces as well.

Sitrei Torah (Concealed Torah)

329. "And Lot went up out of Tzoar..." Because of the desire of the King, a bit of refuse, which bears an engraved image, is separated from the right side and clings to the refuse of the gold that comes from the left side. And it resides within the 'unholiness,' which was shaped into the image of the tree.

330. When Yitzchak, WHO IS THE LEFT COLUMN OF HOLINESS, wanted to rise up in the world, by the might of the harsh Judgment, he overcame the grades OF THE LEFT AND severed them from their sustenance. THIS IS HOW THE RIGHT COLUMN, CALLED Avraham, became strong. He therefore separated that figure from the Unholiness.

331. The primordial Serpent penetrated the fruits of that Tree, this being the wine that it drank. And it begot two grades that are interrelated and surround the side of Unholiness. One is called Malcom, and the other Peor.

332. One is a hidden advice. The other is an open advice. AND HE EXPLAINED THAT Peor is revealed, and all its actions, ITS DEEDS, are performed in the open. Malcom, in contrast, is hidden, and all its actions, ITS DEEDS, are secretive. These kinds of Unholy elements were separated and went forth, surrounding the Great Sea, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and each and every aspect of impurity turns towards its place.

333. In the same manner, WHAT OCCURS IN THE UPPER WORLDS HAPPENS WITH THE SOULS down below. Lot, WHO IS THE REFUSE OF THE RIGHT, separated himself from Avraham and dwelt among the people of S'dom, WHO ARE THE REFUSE OF THE GOLD THAT COMES FROM THE LEFT. AND HE ACHIEVED COMPLETION FROM THEM, AS IS EXPLAINED IN THE UPPER WORLDS. When the Judgment was aroused and they were overthrown, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, remembered Avraham, and saved LOT. Thus, Lot was separated from THE UNHOLINESS OF S'DOM AND RETURNED TO THE HOLY SIDE.

334. His daughters made him drink wine, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE PRIMORDIAL SERPENT, and they bore him two nations. One was named Amon, which is hidden, and the other Moav, which is revealed. The grade of Amon is THE IDOL Malcom, the adviser of concealment. The grade of Moav is Peor, which is completely revealed.

335. His daughters behaved similarly. One said, "Ben-Ami (lit. 'son of my people') I have a son from my nation," but she did not name the father. This is why he is related to the concealed aspect. The other daughter said, "Moav he came from my father (Me'av). I have borne a son from my father." Thus, this son's grade is Peor, the unconcealed aspect.

336. King David was attached to both AMON AND MOAV, because Rut issued from Moav and King David from her. And David was enthroned by the crown of Amon, which was a testimony to the seed of David. As it is written: "And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony" (II Melachim 11:12). This crown came from Malcom, which is the grade of the children of Amon, as it is written: "And he took their king's (Heb. malcam) crown" (II Shmuel 12:30).

337. Malcom is the grade of the children of Amon. As it is written: "and it was set on David's head" (II Shmuel 12:30). And from then on, it became an everlasting testimony for his sons after him. Through it, it became evident who are of the sons of David and worthy of kingship. IF HE WAS ABLE TO BEAR THE CROWN UPON HIS HEAD, then they said that he is certainly from the seed of David. Even on the day he was born, he was already able to bear the weight of the crown upon his head, though it was heavy with gold and a precious stone. Others, WHO WERE NOT FROM DAVID'S SEED, could not bear it. Therefore, it is written about Yoash: "and he put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony."

338. King David was attached to both of these grades. They are the might of his kingdom. Through them, he was able to overcome all other nations. If he had not been included within their aspects, he would not have been able to overcome them. So all the grades of all the other nations of the world were included within David, so that he could overcome them.

339. "And Lot went up out of Tzoar, and dwelt in the mountain." It is written: "The leech hath two daughters, crying: Give, give..." (Mishlei 30:15). These are the two daughters of the Evil Inclination who arouse the Evil Inclination to rule the body. One is the Nefesh that constantly grows within the body; the other is the Nefesh that lusts after evil desires of this world. The latter is the firstborn, while the former, THE FIRST ONE, is the younger.

340. The Evil Inclination always clings to both of these SOULS in order to seduce human beings and make them trust it, SO THAT IT MAY lead them to the place WHERE THEY ARE SHOT BY the 'Arrows of Death' and torn into shreds, as it is written: "Till a dart strike through his liver..." (Mishlei 7:23).

341. AND THIS IS SIMILAR to those thieving bandits in the mountains who hide in a frightening spot to which most people refrain from traveling. How do they bring people to that place? They choose from among them the one who has the sharpest tongue, one who knows how to tempt people. This one leaves them and travels on the main path TO THE PLACE through which all people pass. As soon as he arrives there and meets them, NAMELY, THE INHABITANTS OF THE WORLD, he joins them. HE PULLS THEM INTO HIS NET AND BRINGS THEM TO THAT EVIL SPOT WHERE THE OTHER BANDITS WAIT TO ROB AND MURDER THEM. THIS IS HOW THE EVIL INCLINATION WORKS. IT SEDUCES HUMAN BEINGS AND PERSUADES THEM TO HAVE FAITH IN IT, WHILE IT BRINGS THEM TO THE PLACE OF THE "ARROWS OF DEATH."

25. "She is my sister"

Before Avraham goes down into the land of Egypt, he attaches himself to the divine presence known as the Shechinah. The word Egypt is a code for negativity and darkness. The spiritual principle concealed in this story can be revealed by analogy. If a person lowers himself into a deep, darkened pit, filled with deadly snakes, to retrieve a great treasure, he first secures himself to a powerful rope to ensure a safe retreat. The rope becomes his lifeline as he enters into a dangerous environment. Avraham attached himself to the force called Shechinah before he entered into the pit of negativity [Egypt] so that he would maintain a lifeline to the Creator.

The Relevance of this Passage

There are moments in life when negative situations consume us. Without supernal assistance, we fall prey to the traps and lures set up by the forces of negativity. We are building for ourselves a secure lifeline to the Creator for those difficult moments in life when we stumble and fall into negativity.

342. "And Avraham journeyed from there toward the south country" (Beresheet 20:1). All of Avraham's journeys were to the south, WHICH IS CHESED, rather than in any other direction. He planned wisely, so that he would be attached to the south.

343. "And Avraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister..." (Beresheet 20:2). We have learned that a person should not rely on miracles. If the Holy One, blessed be He, performs a miracle for somebody, he should not rely on a miracle another time, because miracles do not simply occur at any given time.

344. A person who knowingly puts himself in danger may use up all of his merits, because, as it is written: "I am unworthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the trust..." (Beresheet 32:11). AND HE ASKS: If Avraham knew that his emergence from Egypt was a miracle, why did he put himself into difficulty again by saying, "She is my sister?"

345. AND HE REPLIES: Avraham did not rely on himself at all, but saw the Shechinah dwelling constantly in Sarah's residence, from which She never moved. And because THE SHECHINAH was there, Avraham relied on Her and said, "She is my sister," as it is written: "Say to Wisdom, You are my sister" (Mishlei 7:4). THIS MEANS THAT THE SHECHINAH IS ALSO CALLED WISDOM. Therefore he said, "She is my sister."

346. "But Elohim came to Avimelech..." HE ASKS: Could it be that the Holy One, blessed be He, visits the wicked, as it is written: "and Elohim came to Bilaam" (Bemidbar 22:9) and "Elohim came to Lavan" (Beresheet 31:24)? AND HE REPLIES: This was only a Governor, a messenger who was in charge over them, as EVERY NATION HAS A CELESTIAL GOVERNOR. When ANGELS complete their missions, WHICH THEY RECEIVE FROM HASHEM, they are called by the holy name ELOHIM, because they represented the aspect of Judgment AND THE NAME ELOHIM IS AN INDICATION OF JUDGMENT. This is why it is written: "But Elohim came to Avimelech, in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, you are but a dead man for the woman which you have taken," (Beresheet 20:3) REFERRING ONLY TO THE ANGEL THAT GOVERNS HIS NATION AND NOT TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE.

347. Rabbi Shimon opened the discourse with the verse: "The language of truth shall be established forever..." (Mishlei 12:19) This refers to Avraham, whose words were always truthful. The phrase, "but a lying tongue is but for a moment" (Ibid.), however, refers to Avimelech.

348. Of Avraham it is written: "And Avraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister." This is similar to what he said IN EGYPT, when he said to the Shechinah that accompanied Sarah, "She is my sister." SO TWICE AVRAHAM SAID, "SHE IS MY SISTER," AND REFERRED TO THE SHECHINAH WHEN HE SAID IT. And Avraham did EVERYTHING wisely.

349. HE ASKS: Why IS THE SHECHINAH CALLED SISTER? AND HE RESPONDS: Because Avraham is related to the right side, he said, "She is my sister." And the secret corresponds to what is written: "my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled" (Shir Hashirim 5:2). And Avraham always called Her "my sister" because he cleaved to Her and they were never separated.

350. In the end, it is written: "And yet indeed she is my sister, she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother" (Beresheet 20:12). SO HE ASKS: Was IT REALLY so? WAS SHE NOT THE DAUGHTER OF HARAN? AND HE REPLIES: Everything that he said was a reference to the Shechinah. "She is my sister," that he said in the beginning is similar to, "Say to Wisdom, You are my sister." And he concluded, "And yet indeed." What is MEANT BY "And"? It expands THE EXPLANATION with: "she is my sister, the daughter of my father," WHICH MEANS THAT THE SHECHINAH is a daughter of the supernal Chochmah, WHICH IS THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA, BOTH OF WHICH ARE CALLED ABA. This is why THE SHECHINAH is called his 'Sister' and 'Wisdom', but not, AS STATED IN THE PRECEDING PARAGRAPH, "the daughter of my mother." THIS MEANS THAT "MY MOTHER" IS DRAWN from the place where everything begins and where everything is concealed, WHICH IS ARICH ANPIN. FROM ARICH ANPIN, THE SECRET OF BINAH THAT RETURNS TO BECOME CHOCHMAH IS DRAWN. BINAH BECOMES ENCLOSED BY YISRAEL-SABA AND TENUVAH, COLLECTIVELY CALLED IMA. SO THE SHECHINAH HERE IS NOT A "DAUGHTER," BUT RATHER A "MOTHER" HERSELF, AS SHE ENCLOTHES HER. Therefore, BECAUSE SHE IS THE ASPECT OF THE LEFT, FROM THE SIDE OF THE MOTHER, "she became my wife" in fondness and affection as expressed in the verse, "and his right hand embraces me" (Shir Hashirim 8:3). SHE LONGS FOR THE CHASSADIM OF THE RIGHT, SO THAT HER CHOCHMAH MAY BE ENCLOSED BY THE CHASSADIM. All this is according to the secret of Wisdom.

351. Come and behold: when they first went down to Egypt, he said, "SHE IS MY SISTER" in order to cleave to the Faith. Therefore, he called Her "my sister," so that they would not be mistaken and follow those grades outside HOLINESS. So here as well, WITH AVIMELECH, he said, "my sister" in order not to be diverted from the proper Faith.

352. This is because Avimelech and all the inhabitants of the land followed idolatry, while AVRAHAM cleaved to the Faith. So when he entered there, he said OF THE SHECHINAH, "She is my sister." Just as a sister can never be separated from a brother, so here as well, AVRAHAM WAS ATTACHED TO THE SHECHINAH IN SUCH A MANNER THAT THEY COULD NEVER BE SEPARATED. Although a wife can be separated FROM HER HUSBAND, a sister can never be separated FROM HER BROTHER, because two siblings can never ever be separated.

350. לְסוּף מַה כְּתִיב, וְגַם אִמְנָה אַחֹתִי בֵּת אָבִי הוּא אֲךָ לֹא בֵּת אִמִּי. וְכִי הֲכִי הוּהוּ. אֶלָּא, כְּלָא בְּגִין שְׂכִינְתָא קְאָמַר, אַחֹתִי הִיא בְּקַדְמִיתָא, דְכְתִיב אָמַר לְחֻכְמָה אַחֹתִי אַתָּה. וְלִבְתֵּר וְגַם אִמְנָה. מֵאִי וְגַם, לְאַתּוּסְפָּא, עַל מַה דְקְאָמַר בְּקַדְמִיתָא. אַחֹתִי בֵּת אָבִי הִיא. בְּרַתִּיהּ דְחֻכְמָה עֲלָאָה, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ אִתְקַרֵּי אַחֹתִי, וְאִתְקַרֵּי חֻכְמָה. אֲךָ לֹא בֵּת אִמִּי. מֵאִתֵּר דְשִׁירוּתָא דְכְלָא, סְתִימָא עֲלָאָה. וְעַל דָּא, וְתַהִי לִי לְאִשָּׁה. בְּאַחֻזָּה בְּחִבְיּוּתָא, דְכְתִיב וַיִּמְיֵנוּ תְחַבְּקֵנוּ. וְכְלָא רָזָא דְחֻכְמַתָּא אִיהוּ.

353. Thus Avraham said, "She is my sister." Everybody was enthusiastic about running after and worshipping the lights of the stars and constellations, but Avraham cleaved to the Faith and said ABOUT THE SHECHINAH, "She is my sister," and we shall never be separated from each other. You may derive this FROM THE WORDS: "And for his sister a virgin," (Vayikra 21:3) which has been said about the priest, but signifies the place where Avraham, WHO IS THE RIGHT COLUMN AND CHESED, resides. THE SHECHINAH IS CALLED HIS "VIRGIN SISTER" BECAUSE, FROM THE ASPECT OF THE RIGHT SIDE, THE SHECHINAH IS CALLED BOTH A "SISTER" AND A "DAUGHTER."

354. It is written: "You shall fear Hashem your Elohim, Him you shall serve, and to Him you shall cleave, and swear by his Name" (Devarim 10:20). This phrase has already been explained, but nevertheless, come and behold. It is not written: 'Hashem (to Hashem) your Elohim you shall have fear,' USING THE DATIVE CASE, but only "fear (Heb. et) Hashem." So what does THE ACCUSATIVE PARTICLE Et mean? It refers to the first grade OF THE TEN SFIROT, COUNTING UPWARD, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS the region of fear of the Holy One, blessed be He. Therefore, it is written: "You shall fear," because there, IN THE NUKVA, a person should fear his Master, as She represents Judgment.

355. "And him (Heb. oto) you shall serve" alludes to the upper grade, NAMELY YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, which resides above this lower grade, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and they are never separated from each other. THESE TWO WORDS, Et ('the') and Oto ('him') cleave to each other and are never separated. SO HE ASKS: What does "Oto" mean? AND HE ANSWERS: This is the region of the Holy Covenant, an everlasting sign (Heb. ot) THAT REFERS TO YESOD, because no worshipping is done in Et ('the'), which does not pertain to service, but to fear. But service is above IN YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS NAMED OTO. And this is why IT IS WRITTEN: "him (Heb. oto) you shall serve."

356. The phrase, "and to Him you shall cleave" refers to the region where cleaving occurs, which is the center of the body, NAMELY IN THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS TIFERET AND LIES BETWEEN THE TWO ARMS, WHICH ARE CHESED AND GVURAH, WHO REPRESENT THE TWO COLUMNS—LEFT AND RIGHT. The words, "and swear (Heb. tishave'a) by His name" refer to the seventh (Heb. sheva) region among the grades, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS RELATED TO THE SECRET OF SHABBAT. And this is learned from the verse: "and David their king, whom I will raise up for them" (Yirmeyah 30:9).

357. This is how Avraham cleaved to the Faith. THIS IS AN ALLUSION TO THE SECRET OF THE SHECHINAH AT THE GRADE OF 'SISTER', when he went down to Egypt and when he went to the land of the Philistines. This is similar to a person who plans to descend into a deep pit, but is afraid that he may not be able to climb back out. What does he do? He fastens a rope high above the pit, and says to himself: Now that I have tied this knot, I will enter the pit. Similarly, before Avraham went to Egypt, he secured himself with the knot of Faith. Only after this was secure did he travel to Egypt.

358. And he did the same when he entered the land of the Philistines. This is why it is written: "The language of truth is established forever, but a lying tongue is but for a moment." (Mishlei 12:19) THIS APPLIES TO Avimelech, who said: "In the integrity of my heart and the innocency of my hands have I done this" (Beresheet 20:5). But ELOHIM answered him by saying: "I know that you did this in the simplicity of your heart" (Ibid. 6). He did not say, 'and innocency of your hands,' AS AVIMELECH CLAIMED. THUS, AVIMELECH LIED WHEN HE SAID, "AND THE INNOCENCY OF MY HANDS," AND THIS IS WHY IT IS WRITTEN OF HIM: "BUT A LYING TONGUE IS BUT FOR A MOMENT."

359. "Now, restore to the man his wife, for he is a prophet" (Beresheet 20:7). Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse, "He guards the feet of his pious ones (Heb. chasidav)..." (I Shmuel 2:9). Chasidav is spelled WITHOUT THE LETTER YUD, WHICH INDICATES THAT THE VERSE APPLIES to one PIOUS MAN. And this is Avraham, who is always protected by the Holy One, blessed be He, as He never removed His protection from over him. It is written, "He guards the feet" BECAUSE "THE FEET" allude to AVRAHAM'S wife, along with whom, in order to guard her, the Holy One, blessed be He, sent His Shechinah.

360. Another explanation of the verse: "He guards the feet of his pious ones" IS THAT CHASIDAV IS WRITTEN WITHOUT THE LETTER YUD, WHICH IMPLIES One. That one was Avraham, who was always accompanied by the Holy One, blessed be He, so that nobody could harm him. "...and the wicked shall be silent in darkness..." refers to the kings whom the Holy One, blessed be He, had slain during that night that Avraham pursued them.

361. Therefore, it is written: "shall be silent in darkness," WHICH MEANS the night, NAMELY THE NUKVA. Avraham pursued the kings, and the night, as it became united with the darkness, slew the kings. Thus, it is written: "And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night (lit. 'And the night divided upon them) and smote them" (Beresheet 14:15). Therefore, the phrase, "And the night divided upon them" refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, who separated Judgment from Mercy, in order to avenge Avraham. Thus, IT IS WRITTEN: "and the wicked shall be silent in darkness...and (he) smote them." It should have been written: 'and (they) smote them' IN THE PLURAL, BECAUSE AVRAHAM AND HIS SERVANTS SMOTE THEM. But of course, it was the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO REALLY SMOTE THEM, "for by strength shall no man prevail," (I Shmuel 2:9) as he was alone there with Eliezer. THE NUMERICAL VALUE OF ELIEZER IS 318 AND AVRAHAM HAD 318 SERVANTS, WHICH ARE MENTIONED IN THE SCRIPTURES.

362. Rabbi Yitzchak said: But we have learned that where harm is expected, a person should not depend on a miracle to save him. And there is no place more dangerous than that into which Avraham pursued the four kings to wage war against them. WHY, THEN, DID HE RELY ON A MIRACLE TO HAPPEN? Rabbi Yehuda responded: Avraham did not set out with the intention of waging war, nor did he rely on the occurrence of a miracle. Rather, he left his house because of the distress of Lot, whom he planned to ransom and free. And had he not been able to free him, he would have died with him in captivity. But as soon as he began his journey, he saw the Shechinah shining in front of him and armies OF ANGELS surrounding him. At that time, he started to pursue them while the Holy One, blessed be He, slew them. This is why it is written: "and the wicked shall be silent in darkness."

358. אוף הכי נמי, כד עאל לארעא דמלשתים. בגין כרשפת אמת תבון לעד. ועד ארגיעה לשון שקר, דא אבימלך, דאמר בתום לבבי ובנקיון כפי. וכד אהדרו ליה, מה כתיב, גם אנכי ידעתי כי בתם לבבך עשית זאת ולא כתיב נקיון כפיים.

360. דבר אחר רגלי חסידו ישמר. חד, דא אברהם, דקודשא בריך הוא אזיל עמיה תדיר, בגין דלא יוכלון לנזקא ליה. ורשעים בחשך ידמו. אלין אינון מלכין. דקטל קודשא בריך הוא בהוא ליליא, דרדה בתרייהו.

363. Rabbi Shimon said: There is a secret hidden in the verse, "He guards the feet of his pious," who is Avraham. When Avraham set out TO WAGE WAR ON THE KINGS, Yitzchak joined him. And they fell before him. If Yitzchak had not joined Avraham, he would not have been able to slay them, as it is written: "and the wicked shall be silent in darkness." "...by strength shall no man prevail." Even though strength always lies with the right, WHICH IS AVRAHAM, if THE RIGHT was not included within the left side, WHICH IS YITZCHAK, then THE KINGS would not have retreated before him.

363. ר' שמעון אמר, רזא איהו, רגלי חסידו ישמר, דא אברהם. וכד נמק אשתתף יצחק בהדיה, ונפלו קמיה, ואי לאו דאשתתף יצחק בהדיה דאברהם, לא אשתציאו, הה"ד ורשעים בחשך ידמו. כי לא בכח יגבר איש. אף על גבדחילא אשתכח תדיר בימינא, אי לא הוה בסטרא דשמאלא, לא אתדחין קמיה.

364. Another explanation of the verse, "He guards the feet of his pious ones" is that when a person loves the Holy One, blessed be He, the Holy One, blessed be He, returns that love by guarding all that he does and his journeys. As it is written: "Hashem shall preserve your going out and your coming in from this time forth and even for evermore" (Tehilim 121:8).

364. דבר אחר רגלי חסידו ישמר, בשעתא דבר נשרחים ליה לקודשא בריך הוא, קודשא בריך הוא רחים ליה, בכל מה דאיהו עביר, ונטיר ארחוי, כד"א יי' ישמר צאתך ובואך מעתה ועד עולם.

365. Come and behold: observe how much Avraham loved the Holy One, blessed be He. Wherever he went, he had no regard for his possessions at all. All his thoughts were directed toward cleaving to the Holy One, blessed be He, alone. Therefore, the verse "He guards the feet of his pious" alludes to his wife, BECAUSE HIS FEET ALLUDE TO HIS WIFE, about whom it is written: "Now Avimelech had not come near her," (Bereshheet 20:4) and also, "therefore I did not allow you to touch her" (Ibid. 6).

365. תא חזי כמה חביבותיה דאברהם, לגבי קודשא בריך הוא, דבכל אתר דהוה אזיל, לא הוה חייס על דיליה כלום, אלא, בגין לאתדבקא ביה בקודשא בריך הוא, ובגין כך רגלי חסידו ישמר. ודא היא אתתיה, דכתיב ואבימלך לא קרב אליה. וכתיב כי על פן לא נתתיך לנגע אליה.

366. About Pharaoh, it is written: "And Hashem plagued Pharaoh, and his house with great plagues" (Bereshheet 12:17). SARAH spoke out directly to the Holy One, blessed be He, ASKING HIM TO SMITE, and He smote. It is written: "He guards the feet of the pious (ones), and the wicked are silent in darkness," BECAUSE it was Pharaoh and Avimelech on whom the Holy One, blessed be He, inflicted Judgments at night--BY DARKNESS. Who is the "man" referred to in the verse: "for by strength shall no man prevail?" This man is Avraham, as it is written: "Now therefore, restore the man his wife..." (Bereshheet 20:7)

26. "And the Satan standing at his right to prosecute him"

The negative angel, Satan, stands on the right side of the High Priest Joshua, who has just been thrown into a pit of fire. Kabbalistically, the right side signifies the attribute of mercy, and fire signifies the concept of severe judgment. In this story, the angel Satan tells the Creator that if He is going to show mercy upon Joshua, then He should be obligated to save all the people who were with Joshua, even though they are unworthy. In other words, Satan is cleverly implying that the Creator cannot possibly save Joshua because of these special circumstances. Nonetheless, the Creator emancipates Joshua. The spiritual lesson of this story is as follows: During a time of intense judgment, the righteous can still be saved amidst all the upheaval and destruction. According to the Kabbalah, another example of the Creator performing the difficult task of concurrently emitting the forces of mercy and judgment, was during the splitting of the Red Sea, when the Israelites crossed over to safety while the Egyptians were drowning.

The Relevance of this Passage

Both wicked and righteous people dwell among us and their behavioral actions have an appropriate effect on the state of the world. By mending our own ways and choosing the path of spirituality, we are securely connected, by this section, to the Creator's attributes of mercy during times of severe judgment.

367. "And Hashem visited Sarah as He had said..." (Beresheet 21:1) Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "And he showed me Yehoshua the high priest standing before the angel of Hashem, and the Satan standing at his right to prosecute him" (Zecharyah 3:1). This passage should be studied carefully. "And he showed me Yehoshua the high priest" refers to Yehoshua, the son of Yehotzadak. In the phrase, "standing before the angel of Hashem," who is the "angel of Hashem"? It is the region THAT IS CALLED the Bundle, TO WHICH the soul of the righteous is attached. And all the souls of the righteous are there. This is the "angel of Hashem," WHICH IS MENTIONED IN THE VERSE.

368. The phrase, "and the Satan standing at his right to prosecute him" refers to the Evil Inclination, which roams the world snatching souls and taking spirits FROM HUMAN BEINGS by bringing accusations against humankind, above as well as below. This occurred when Nevuchadnetzar cast YEHOSHUA, THE HIGH PRIEST, into the fire, together with all the false prophets. At that time, the Satan brought accusations against him above, so that he would be burned with them.

369. This is the way OF THE SATAN, who shows his indictment at the hour of danger or when the world is in distress. At those times, he is allowed to prosecute and punish, even without justice, as it is written: "but sometimes ruin comes for want of judgment" (Mishlei 13:23). What is meant by "to prosecute him"? IN OTHER WORDS, WHAT DID HE ACCUSE HIM OF? He was asking that they all be saved or all be burned. When the Angel of Destruction is granted permission to destroy, the righteous are in as much danger as the wicked.

370. Therefore, when Judgment hangs over a city, a man should flee before he is captured there AND FALLS INTO THE HANDS OF THE DESTROYER. Once the Angel of Destruction resides IN A PLACE, he treats the righteous the same as the wicked. All the more so, as all three of them were together. THIS REFERS TO YEHOSHUA, THE HIGH PRIEST, AND THE OTHER TWO FALSE PROPHETS--ACHAV, THE SON OF KOLYAH, AND TZIDKIYAHU, THE SON OF MA'ASSIYAH. THE SATAN was demanded that all be burned or all be saved, because if a miracle is to occur, there cannot be half a miracle. It must be the same for all--either miracle or Judgment.

371. Rabbi Yosi said to him: That is not so. For when the Holy One, blessed be He, split the sea for Yisrael, He divided the sea only for those, NAMELY, THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL. They walked on dry land while the waters came together again and drowned the others, NAMELY, THE EGYPTIANS who perished. So there was a miracle on one side and judgment on the other, EVEN THOUGH they both occurred together.

370. וּבְגִין כֵּךְ בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְדִינָא שְׂרִינָא בְּמַתָּא, בְּעֵי בַר נֶשׁ לְעַרְקָא, עַד לֹא אֶתְפַּס תַּמָּן, דְהָא מַחְבְּלָא בֵּינָן דְשְׂרִי, הִכִּי נִמְי עֵבִיד לְזַכָּאָה כְּחִיבָא. וְכָל שְׂכָן דְהוּוּ תַלְתִּיהוּן כְּחַד, וְהוּוּ תְבַע דִּיתוּקֵדוּן כְּלֵהוּ, אוּ יִשְׁתַּזְבֹּן כְּלֵהוּ. בְּגִין דְכַד אֶתְעֵבִיד נִיסָא, לֹא אֶתְעֵבִיד פְּלִגּוּ נִיסָא, וּפְלִגּוּ דִינָא, אֶלָּא כְּלָא כְּחַדָּא, אוּ נִיסָא אוּ דִינָא.

371. אָמַר לוּ ר' יוֹסִי, וְלֹא, וְהָא בּוֹמְנָא דְבִקְעָה קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא יִמָּא לְיִשְׂרָאֵל, הוּוּ קָרַע יִמָּא לְאַלִּין, וְאַזְלוּן בְּנִיבְשַׁתָּא, וּמִיָּא הוּוּ תְבִין מְסַטְרָא אַחְרָא, וְטְבַעִין לְאַלִּין, וּמִתִּין, וְאַשְׁתַּכַּח נִיסָא הִכָּא, וְדִינָא הִכָּא כְּלָא כְּחַדָּא.

372. He said to him: This is why THE SPLITTING OF THE RED SEA was so difficult for Him. When the Holy One, blessed be He, simultaneously performs a miracle and executes His Judgment, it does not usually happen in the same place, nor even in the same house. If it occurs IN THE SAME PLACE, AS HAPPENED AT THE RED SEA, then it is difficult for Him. In Heaven, everything is done to perfection. EVERYTHING IS as one and at one place--either a miracle or doom, but not usually half and half, HALF MIRACLE AND HALF DOOM.

373. This is why the Holy One, blessed be He, does not punish the guilty until they have all filled their measure of sin. THIS WAY, HE DOES NOT HAVE TO SAVE ANY OF THEM FROM PUNISHMENT. As it is written: "for the iniquity of the Emori is not yet full," (Bereshet 15:16) and "You should punish it in exact measure" (Yeshayah 27:8). Therefore, THE SATAN demanded that Yehoshua be burned together with the rest, SO THERE WOULD NOT BE HALF MIRACLE HALF DOOM, until he said to him: "May Hashem rebuke you, Satan" (Zecharyah 3:2). AND HE ASKS: Who said to him, "May HASHEM REBUKE YOU, SATAN"? AND HE REPLIES: It was the Angel of Hashem WHO SAID SO.

374. You may say that since IT IS WRITTEN: "And Hashem said to the Satan, Hashem rebuke you, Satan," THEREFORE IT IS HASHEM WHO SAYS SO, AND NOT AN ANGEL. Come and behold: the same is true of Moshe in the bush, about which it is written: "And the angel of Hashem appeared to him in a flame of fire" (Shemot 3:2) and, "And when Hashem saw that he turned aside to see" (Ibid. 4). Sometimes IT IS WRITTEN: "the angel of Hashem," sometimes "an angel," and sometimes, "Hashem." THEREFORE, HERE AS BEFORE, "AND HASHEM SAID TO THE SATAN" MAY REFER TO AN ANGEL, AS WITH MOSHE. This is why he said to him: "May Hashem rebuke you, Satan" rather than 'I hereby rebuke you, Satan.' HAD IT BEEN HASHEM WHO HAD SAID THIS, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN WRITTEN: 'I HEREBY REBUKE YOU, SATAN.' THEREFORE, WE CONCLUDE THAT THE ONE WHO SAID THIS WAS AN ANGEL.

375. Come and behold: the same applies when Judgment hangs over the world, and the Holy One, blessed be He, sits upon the Throne of Judgment. Then the Satan, who accuses above and below, comes to destroy the world and snatch away the souls OF HUMAN BEINGS, BECAUSE THE SATAN IS ALSO THE ANGEL OF DEATH, AS IS ALREADY KNOWN.

27. "And the elders of that city shall break the heifer's neck in the ravine"

When someone is murdered and the killer is not brought to justice for whatever reason, the soul of the dead person remains in this realm as a negative force and influence upon the community. In ancient times, the Elders of the town performed a ritual slaughter on a Heifer [calf] to remove this negativity.

The Relevance of this Passage

Situations in life unexpectedly turn negative for no apparent reason. Whatever can possibly go wrong does so to the detriment of our well being. . There are no coincidences in life, no random events of chaos. It is our inability to perceive the metaphysical influences that manifest in our environment, that creates the illusion of disorder. The spiritual energy of this passage eliminates unseen negative forces and influences from our life.

376. While studying Torah, Rabbi Shimon examined the meaning of the verse: "And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a rough ravine...and shall break the heifer's neck in the ravine" (Devarim 21:4). According to the law, its head should be severed with a hatchet, THAT IS, WITH AN AX. Rabbi Elazar asked him why.

376. רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן הוּוּ יְתִיב וְלֵעִי בְּאוּרֵייתָא, וְהוּוּ מְשַׁתְּדֵל בְּהָאִי קָרָא. וְלִקְחוּ זִקְנֵי הָעִיר הַהִיא עֶגְלַת בְּקָר וְגו'. וְעָרְפוּ שָׁם אֶת הָעֶגְלָה בְּנַחַל. וְדִינָא אִיהוּ בְּקוּפִין לְעָרְפָא לָהּ. אָמַר לִיהּ רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר הָאִי לְמָאִי אֶצְטְרִיךְ.

377. Rabbi Shimon wept and said: Woe to the world that has been lured after this, REFERRING TO THE HEIFER. BECAUSE OF THIS, THEY HAVE TO BREAK ITS NECK. Ever since the day that Adam was enticed by that evil Serpent, it obtained control over Adam and all the people in the world. And so the Serpent persecutes humankind, who cannot evade its inflictions--NAMELY THE PUNISHMENT OF DEATH--until King Mashiach appears. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, will revive those who sleep in the dust, as it is written: "He will swallow up death for ever," (Yeshayah 25:8) and, "I will cause the unclean spirit to pass out of the land" (Zecharyah 13:2). But until then, He remains to seize the souls from all human beings WHO LIVE IN THIS WORLD.

378. Come and behold. It is written: "If a corpse is found slain..." (Devarim 21:1) The souls of all human beings are taken away by the Angel of Death. But if you say that the Angel of Death took away the soul of this person, WHO WAS FOUND SLAIN, you would be in error. He who killed him has taken his soul away before it was time for the Angel of Death to rule.

379. This is why it is written: "and the land cannot be cleansed" (Bemidbar 35:33). THE KILLERS are not satisfied that THE EVIL SERPENT inflicts punishments on the world without reason, and falsely accuses them constantly of sins so that they have to take away that which he is entitled to receive. But the Holy One, blessed be He, has Mercy on His children. This is why they sacrifice a heifer. In so doing, they correct TWO THINGS: (a) that the soul of the man was taken from him, REFERRING TO THE MAN FOUND SLAIN, AND (b) they prevent him from prosecuting the world.

380. We have here a deep and sublime secret, because a bull, a cow, calf, and a heifer all follow a supernal and secret pattern. Therefore, with the heifer, everything is properly atoned for. As it is written: "Our hands have not shed this blood..." (Devarim 21:7) Thus, we "have not shed" this blood, nor have we caused his death. As a result, they are free from any accusations. Thus, the Holy One, blessed be He, provides a solution for every problem in the world.

28. Rosh Hashanah and Yom Hakippurim

Through the Zohar, various mysteries about Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are revealed. The penetrating sound of the Shofar has the power to confuse the negative angel called Satan, who acts as prosecutor during these days of judgment and repentance. The ten days that fall between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are likened to a great gift. This time frame provides us with the chance to remove all the negativity and decrees of judgment that we have brought down upon ourselves through our wrongful actions over the prior year. The prerequisite for accomplishing this goal is accountability and genuine permanent change in our character.

The Relevance of this Passage

The act of repentance is a profound tool available to each of us anytime we truly choose to change our ways. The energy radiating from the verses revealing the hidden mysteries of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, allow us to continually draw upon the forces of purification throughout the entire year.

381. Come and behold: the same applies for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Hakippurim, when Judgment hovers over the world and the Satan is there to prosecute. The children of Yisrael should be aroused by the Shofar, to create a voice (also: 'sound') that is a combination of water, fire, and wind, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, which become one in it, and sound that voice from within the Shfar.

382. And this voice rises up to the Throne of Judgment, strikes it, and rises further. And after this voice has reached above, then the voice of Ya'akov is established on high and the Holy One, blessed be He, is aroused with Mercy. Just as Yisrael uses the Shofar to release a voice from below, which includes fire, water, and air, so a voice is released from on high from the supernal Shofar, WHICH IS BINAH. THE POWER TO BLOW THE SHOFAR IS FIRE, AND THE VOICE IS FORMED BY THE AIR. THE AIR IS MINGLED WITH SWEAT AND HOT BREATH, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF WATER, AND THESE AROUSE THE THREE UPPER COLUMNS OF BINAH, FROM WHERE THE MOCHIN ARE DRAWN DOWN TO ZEIR ANPIN AND MALCHUT. And this voice, which consists of fire, water, and air, AND HAS RISEN FROM BELOW; it is established and appears from below, and another appears from above. So the world, WHICH IS MALCHUT, is established and Mercy prevails.

383. Now the prosecutor is confused, because he thought that by executing Judgment, he would punish the world. But when he realizes that Mercy was aroused, he is perplexed, his strength fails, and he is unable to do anything. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, judges the world with Mercy. You may say that Judgment has been executed, but it is not so. Judgment and Mercy are joined, and the world is judged Mercifully.

384. Come and behold. It is written: "Blow the Shofar at the new moon, at the time appointed (lit. 'when the moon is covered') on our solemn feast day," (Tehilim 81:4) when the moon, WHICH IS MALCHUT, is covered, because at that time, AS A RESULT OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, that evil Serpent prevails and may bring harm to the world. But when Mercy is aroused BY BLOWING THE SHOFAR, the moon rises and moves away FROM THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT. THUS, THE SATAN is confused and loses control. Then he is removed FROM THE MOON and never comes near again. This is why on Rosh Hashanah (New Year), THE SATAN IS dumbfounded, as is a person who has just been awakened and is still half asleep.

385. On Yom Hakippurim, we should pacify and appease THE SATAN by offering him a scapegoat. BY SENDING IT TO THE DESERT, WHICH IS HIS PLACE, then he will become a defender for Yisrael. But on Rosh Hashanah, he is confused, and loses his abilities. He does not know, nor is he able to do anything, as he sees Mercy aroused from below and endowed from on high. And the moon, WHICH IS THE MALCHUT, rises in between them. This is when he is perplexed and no longer knows anything. Thus, he loses his power.

383. וְהֵהוּא מְקַטְרָגָא אֲעֲרַבְבֵי, דְּחֲשִׁיב לְשִׁלְטָאָה בְּדִינָא, וְלְקַטְרָגָא בְּעֵלְמָא, וְחֲמֵי דְּמִתְעֵרִי רַחֲמֵי, כְּדִין אֲעֲרַבְבֵי, וְאַתְשֵׁשׁ חִילִיָּהּ, וְלֹא יָכִיל לְמַעַבְדֵי מְדִי, וְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא דְּאִין עֵלְמָא בְּרַחֲמֵי, דְּאִי תִימָא דְּדִינָא אֲתֵעִבִיד, לֹאֵו הֵכִי, אֶלָּא אֲתַחְבְּרוּ רַחֲמֵי בְּדִינָא, וְעֵלְמָא אֲתֵדֵן בְּרַחֲמֵי.

385. בִּי"ה בְּעֵי לְנִיּוּחָא, וְלְמַעַבְדֵי לִיָּה נִיּוּחָא דְּרוּחָא, בְּשַׁעִיר דְּקִרְבִּין לִיָּה, וְכְדִין אֲתַהֲפֵךְ סְנִיגוּרִיא, עֲלִיּוּהוּ דְּיִשְׂרָאֵל, אֲבָל בְּיוֹמָא דְּר"ה, אֲתֵעֲרַבְבֵי, דְּלֹא יָדַע וְלֹא יָכִיל לְמַעַבְדֵי כְּלוּם. חֲמֵי אֲתֵעֲרוּתָא דְּרַחֲמֵי סְלֵקִין מִתְתָּא, וְרַחֲמֵי מְלֵעִילָא, וְסִיְהָרָא סְלֵקָא בִּינִיּוּהוּ, כְּדִין אֲתֵעֲרַבְבֵי וְלֹא יָדַע כְּלוּם, וְלֹא יָכִיל לְשִׁלְטָאָה.

386. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, judges Yisrael with Mercy. He has pity on the children of Yisrael and gives them time--the ten days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Hakippurim--to accept those who repent before Him, and atone for their sins. Then He raises them up to THE SANCTITY OF Yom Hakippurim.

386. וְקוֹדֵשׁ בְּרִיךְ הוּא הֵן לְהוֹ לְיִשְׂרָאֵל בְּרַחֲמֵי, וְחַיִּים עָלֵיהֶוּ, וְאַשְׁתַּכַּח לְהוֹ זְמַנָּא כֹּל אֵינּוֹן י' יוֹמִין, דְּבִין ר"ה לְיוֹם הַכַּפּוּרִים, לְקַבֵּל אֵינּוֹן דְּתִיבִין קַמִּיהוּ, וְלַכַּפֵּר לֹן מַחֲבִיבִיהוּ, וְסָלִיק לֹן לְיוֹמָא דְכַפּוּרִי.

387. From that day forward, to keep all in order, the Holy One, blessed be He, commanded Yisrael to perform the precept OF 'THE BLOWING OF THE SHOFAR' so that the Satan would not have dominion over them. THIS MEANS TO ABOLISH THE SATAN AND HIS PERSECUTION, so that Mercy, and not Judgment, will prevail, and so they will be worthy on earth OF THE MERCY OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, which is like the Mercy of a father towards his children. All this depends on THE AROUSAL OF THE LOWER BEINGS by action and words. And all this has already been explained.

387. וְעַל דָּא, בְּכֹל אֵי קוֹדֵשׁ בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֶפְקִיד לֹן לְיִשְׂרָאֵל, לְמַעַבְד עוֹבְדָא, בְּגִין דְּלֹא יִשְׁלוּט עָלֵיהֶוּ, מֵאֵן דְּלֹא אֶצְטְרִיךְ, וְלֹא יִשְׁלוּט עָלֵיהֶוּ דִּינָא, וְיִהוּן כְּלֵהוּן זְכַאִין בְּאַרְעָא, בְּרַחֲמֵיהוּ דְּאָבָא עַל בְּנִין, וְכֹל אֵי בְּעוֹבְדָא וּבְמִלִּין תְּלִין, וְהָא אֹקִימָנָא מְלִין.

29. "And Hashem visited Sarah"

A beautiful discussion takes place between the great sages concerning the mysteries of the resurrection of the dead and the events that will unfold at the End of Days. The End of Days will see the dawning of an abundance of spiritual energy, unprecedented in human history. The determining factor as to who will harness this energy and generate a radiance of Light and who will short-circuit and suffer, will be based upon one parameter: treating our fellow man with human dignity. Whereas in the past, the consequences of our intolerant behavior were delayed for years or even lifetimes, the End of Days will see the distance between cause and effect contract and the repercussions of our actions, positive or negative, will be felt immediately. Judgment and mercy will co-exist side-by-side.

The Relevance of this Passage

According to the wisdom of Kabbalah, it is the behavioral interactions of mankind that drive the cosmos, establishing the positive and negative conditions of our global and personal existence. We arouse compassion and mercy towards our fellow man in order to ensure that we connect to a positive manifestation of the End of Days.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

388. "And Hashem visited Sarah as He had said..." (Beresheet 21:1) Rabbi Yochanan opened the discussion with this verse: "Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple; the king is held in the galleries" (Shir Hashirim 7:6). The Holy One, blessed be He, placed governors on high and down below. When the Holy One, blessed be He, raises the governors on high, He grants the same elevation to the kings below. Thus, because He gave the governor of Babylon rise, Nevuchadnetzar the Wicked also received it, as it is written about him: "You are this head of gold" (Daniel 2:38). And the entire world was enslaved by him, by his son, and by the son of his son. It is written, "Your head upon you is like Carmel," which applies to Nevuchadnetzar. And it is also written: "the beasts of the field had shadow under it" (Daniel 4:9). The phrase, "and the hair of your head like purple" applies to Belshatzar, who said: "shall be clothed with scarlet (purple)" (Daniel 5:7). "The king is held in the galleries" refers to Evil Merodach (the king of Babylon), who was imprisoned until the death of his father, and then ruled in his place.

389. Rabbi Yehuda asked: Why does this description appear in the Song of Songs? Then he continued to explain that seven items were created before the creation of the universe. The first is the Throne of Glory, as it is written: "Your throne is established of old, You are from everlasting" (Tehilim 93:2) and "A glorious high throne from the beginning" (Yirmeyah 17:12). Hence, this was the beginning; it preceded everything else. And the Holy One, blessed be He, took the pure soul from the Throne of Glory, so it would shine on the body. This is as it is written: "Your head upon you is like Carmel," which refers to the Throne of Glory, which is the "head" over everything. And the phrase, "the hair of your head like purple" refers to the soul that is taken from it. "...the king is held in the galleries" is the body imprisoned in the grave and consumed in the dust. Nothing remains of it except for a scrap of rot, but from this, the entire body will be rebuilt. And when the Holy One, blessed be He, visits the body, He will tell the earth to cast it out, as it is written: "and the earth shall cast out the dead" (Yeshayah 26:19).

390. Rabbi Yochanan said: The dead of the land (of Yisrael) shall be the first to live, as it is written: "Your dead men shall live..." (Yeshayah 26:19); "dead bodies shall arise," refers to those who have died away from the land (of Yisrael). "Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust" refers to those who have died in the desert. As Rabbi Yochanan asked: Why did Moshe die away from the land (of Yisrael)? It was to show the entire world that just as the Holy One, blessed be He, shall resurrect Moshe in the future, so shall He resurrect his generation, who received the Torah. And of them it is written: "I remember in your favor, the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals, when you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown" (Yirmeyah 2:2).

391. Another explanation of the verse, "Awake and sing, you that dwell in dust" is that it refers to the Patriarchs. And the bodies of those who died away from the land (of Yisrael) will be rebuilt, and they shall roll under the ground until they reach the land of Yisrael. There, and not away from the land (of Yisrael), they shall receive their souls. As it is written: "Therefore prophecy, and say to them: Thus says Hashem Elohim, Behold, my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Yisrael" (Yechezkel 37:12), which is followed by: "And I shall put my spirit in you, and you shall live..." (Ibid. 14)

392. Rabbi Pinchas said: The soul is taken from the Throne of Glory, which is the "head," as it is written: "Your head upon you is like Carmel." "...and the hair of your head like purple" means the soul that is the hair of the head. Finally, "the king is held in the galleries" means the body that is held in the grave. This refers to the body, Sarah, and the King. So the Holy One, blessed be He, shall visit it at the appointed time, as it is written: "And Hashem visited Sarah as He had said." He shall visit the body at the appointed time, when He shall visit upon the righteous."

393. Rabbi Pinchas said: In the future, the Holy One, blessed be He, will make the bodies of the righteous as beautiful as Adam was when he entered the Garden of Eden, as it is written: "And Hashem shall guide you continually...and you shall be like a watered garden" (Yeshayah 58:11) Rabbi Levi then said: As long as the soul remains in its exalted position, it is nourished by the Light from above and is en clothed with It. And when it enters the body in the future, it shall enter with that same Light. Then the body will shine as the brightness of the firmament. This is as it is written: "And they that are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament..." (Daniel 12:3) And people will attain full knowledge, as it is written: "for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Hashem" (Yeshayah 11:9). How do we reach this conclusion? From the verse: "And Hashem shall guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought" (Yeshayah 58:11). This is the Light of above. "... and make fat your bones" is the visiting of the body, while "and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not" is the knowledge of the Blessed Creator. Then all creatures shall know of the soul that entered them--that it is the soul of Life, the soul of Delight, which has received all pleasures and delights for the body from above. And all are amazed by it, saying: "How fair and how pleasant are you, love, in delights," (Shir Hashirim 7:3) all of which refers to the soul.

394. Rabbi Yehuda said: Come and behold. It is indeed so. It is written: "the king is held in the galleries," and then, "How fair and how pleasant are you..." Rabbi Yehuda continued: At that time, the Holy One, blessed be He, will make His world happy, and rejoice in His created beings, as it is written, "Hashem shall rejoice in his works" (Tehilim 104:31). And then there will be laughter in the world, which we do not see now, as it is written: "Then will our mouth be filled with laughter..." (Tehilim 126:2) This is according to the verse: "And Sarah said, 'Elohim has made for me to laugh..." (Bereshheet 21:6). So at that time, people will chant songs, as it is a time of laughter. Rabbi Aba added that on the day when the Holy One, blessed be He, will rejoice together with His created beings, there will be joy such as has not existed since the world was created. And the righteous that remain in Jerusalem shall return no more to dust, as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy," (Yeshayah 4:3) precisely "he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem."

395. Rabbi Acha asked: Then there will only be a few? Rather, the rule that applies to Jerusalem and Tzion applies to all those who remained in the holy land of Yisrael. This teaches us that the whole land of Yisrael is included within Jerusalem, based on what is written: "And when you shall come into the land..." (Vayikra 19:23)--the entire land as a whole.

396. Rabbi Yehuda, the son of Rabbi Elazar, asked Rabbi Chizkiyah about the dead that the Holy One, blessed be He, shall resurrect: Why does He not give them back their souls in the places where they were buried and let them come to live in the land of Yisrael? Rabbi Chizkiyah responded: The Holy One, blessed be He, took an oath to build Jerusalem and to see that it shall never be destroyed. As Rabbi Yirmeyah said, The Holy One, blessed be He, shall renew His world, and build Jerusalem. He shall bring it down from above completely built, so that it may never be destroyed. And he took a solemn oath that the Congregation of Yisrael shall never be exiled again and that Jerusalem shall never be destroyed, as it is written: "You shall no more be termed Forsaken, neither shall your land any more be termed Desolate..." (Yeshayah 62:4). Everywhere you find a double negative, there is an oath, as it is written: "neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of the flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth" (Beresheet 9:11), and it is written: "for as I have sworn that the waters of Noach should no more go over the earth" (Yeshayah 54:9). From this we conclude that a double negative is a solemn oath, and from that negative, we can hear an affirmative. So the Holy One, blessed be He, shall reestablish His world in the future in such a manner that the Congregation of Yisrael shall never be exiled and the Temple will never be destroyed. Therefore, they shall not be given back their souls except in a place that is forever established, so that the soul will forever dwell in the body. Thus, it is written: "he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy."

397. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: Thus, He is holy, Jerusalem is holy, and he who remains in it is holy. He is holy, as it is written: "holy is Hashem Tzva'ot," (Yeshayah 6:3) and "the Holy One in your midst" (Hoshea 11:9); Jerusalem is holy, as is written: "had gone from the holy place" (Kohelet 8:10); and he that remains in it is holy, as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy" (Yeshayah 4:3). So as the first holy one is established, so are the other two holy ones.

398. Rabbi Yitzchak asked: What is meant by the verse: "Once again old men and old women will dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand because of old age" (Zechariah 8:4)? What is the good in phrasing it thus: "and every man with his staff"? Rabbi Yitzchak replied that the righteous shall revive the dead in the future as did Elisha the prophet, as it is written: "and take my staff in your hand, and go your way..." "and lay my staff upon the face of the child" (II Melachim 4:29). The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: 'What the righteous are to perform in the future which is to come, you wish to accomplish now.' And what is written? "...and he laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor sound." (Ibid. 31). But the righteous in the future shall succeed in accomplishing this promise, as it is written: "and every man with this staff in his hand" will use it to revive the dead, those who have converted from among the nations of the world, as it is written of him: "for the child shall die a hundred years old; and the sinner being a hundred years old shall be deemed cursed" (Yeshayah 65:20). Rabbi Yitzchak said that the end of this passage confirms this, as it is written: "because of old age."

399. A different explanation of the verse: "And Sarah said: Elohim has made for me to laugh," is that it is written: "Rejoice you with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you who love her, rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her" (Yeshayah 66:10). Rabbi Yehuda said that since the world was created, there is no greater joy for the Holy One, blessed be He, as the joy in rejoicing with the righteous in the future. Each and every one shall point his finger and say: "This is our Elohim: we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation" (Yeshayah 25:9), and "Sing to Hashem; for He has done wonders: this is known in all the earth" (Yeshayah 12:5).

400. Rabbi Yochanan said that we have not seen a person who has explained this term better than King David, who said: "You hide your face, they are troubled" (Tehilim 104:29). According to this, the Holy One, blessed be He, never harms anyone. But if He does not supervise a person, he simply dies on his own, as it is written: "You hide your face, they are troubled: You take away their breath (spirit), they die and return to their dust," (Ibid.) then, "You send forth Your spirit, they are created..." and finally, "The glory of Hashem shall endure for ever, Hashem shall rejoice in His works" (Ibid. 30-31). Then shall there be laughter in the world, as it is written: "Then will our mouth be filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing." This is as we read "And Sarah said: Elohim has made for me to laugh," to rejoice in his salvation.

401. Rabbi Chiya said: Come and behold. When the body exists in this world, it has not yet reached perfection. After it becomes righteous, walks the paths of honesty, and dies in its righteousness, then it is called 'Sarah' (lit. 'provided what is necessary'), as it has been perfected. When it reaches the Resurrection of the Dead, it is still called Sarah, so that nobody will say that the Holy One, blessed be He, has revived a different body. And after it becomes alive and rejoices with the Shechinah, and the Holy One, blessed be He, has wiped all distress from the world, as it is written: "He will swallow up death forever; and Hashem Elohim will wipe away tears from off all faces" (Yeshayah 25:8). Then it shall be called Yitzchak (lit. 'be laugh'), because of the laughter and happiness of the righteous in the future.

402. Rabbi Yehuda arrived at the village of Chanan, and all the inhabitants sent him a gift. Rabbi Aba came to him and asked: Sir, when are you leaving? He replied: I shall pay for what the people of the village have given me and be on my way. He said to him: Sir, do not feel troubled because of the gift. It was offered for (in honor of) the Torah, so they will not accept anything from you. He responded: Will they accept words of Torah? He said: Yes. All the people of the village came. Rabbi Yehuda said: Are they all Yeshivah deans? He then said: If there is anyone who does not attend the Yeshivah, let him get up and leave. Rabbi Aba stood up and separated ten men from them all to receive the leanings from Rabbi Yehuda. Rabbi Aba said to them: Be seated here you masters (teachers), while the rest of us will sit with him tomorrow and receive the learnings. They went, and the ten who stayed sat down. But he said nothing. They said to him: If it pleases Sir, let us welcome the Shechinah. He said to them: While Rabbi Aba is not here? So, they sent for him, and he came.

403. He opened the discussion with the verse: "And Hashem visited Sarah as He had said." Why is it written this way? It should have been written: 'And Hashem remembered Sarah,' as he said, "And Elohim remembered Rachel" (Bereshheet 30: 22). This is because there is no visiting unless it was previously mentioned, but it was previously written: "I will certainly return to you this season" (Bereshheet 18:10). And, in relation to this issue, it is now said that He visited. This we derive from the words, "as He had said," because had it not been said, "as He had said," it would have said 'He remembered'. So the visiting is connected to the phrase, "He said, 'At the time appointed I will return to you'" (Ibid. 14).

404. Afterward he said: The image of this righteous man, who has merited to be elevated up to that Glory on high, is engraved on the Throne of Glory. And each and every righteous person has his image above, IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN, just as it was down below IN THIS WORLD. This secures the holy soul AND ENSURES ITS RESURRECTION IN A BODY IN THIS WORLD.

404. לבתר אמר הכי, האי צדיק, דזכי למיסק, להווא יקר עלאה, דיוקניה מתפתח בכרסי יקרניה, וכן לכל צדיק וצדיק, דיוקניה לעילא, כד הוה לתתא, לאבטחא להווא נשמתא קדישא.

405. This is what Rabbi Yochanan said that the verse: "The sun and moon stood still in their habitation," (Chavakuk 3:11) TEACHES US that the body and the soul are in the Holy Supernal Chamber above, and shine in the same image there as they had on the earth in this world. And the sustenance of this image, OF THIS WORLD, comes from the pleasure of the soul. And it shall enter into this bone, WHICH IS CALLED LUZ that remains intact in the earth UNTIL THE DEAD SHALL RISE. The earth is conceived by it and throws out its refuse. This IMAGE is called 'Holy'.

406. So when this image OF THIS WORLD exists above, it then comes on every first day of the month to bow before the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another..." (Yeshayah 66:23). And He, THE HOLY KING, says to it: "At the time appointed I will return to you," REFERRING to the time when He shall resurrect the dead in the future, when it will be visited, as was promised. And this is why it is written: "And Hashem visited Sarah, as He had said." This is the day when the Holy One, blessed be He, shall rejoice with His creations, as it is written: "Hashem shall rejoice in His works" (Tehilim 104:31).

407. Rabbi Aba said to him, AS HE HEARD HIM BEGIN WITH THE VERSE, "HASHEM SHALL REJOICE IN HIS WORKS": May Sir speak and tell us his explanation of THE VERSES IN this portion, AND NOT OF THE VERSES OF TEHILIM. RABBI YEHUDA said to them: It is appropriate for you to open with this passage. He said: "And it came to pass after these things, that the Elohim did test Avraham...And He said, Take now your son, your only son, whom you love..." (Bereshheet 22:1-2). We should study this verse carefully. THIS IS SIMILAR TO a craftsman who takes silver from the earth. What does he do with it? First he puts the raw material into the burning fire until all the dirt of the earth is removed and only the silver remains. But even this is not yet pure silver. So what does he do next? He puts it into the fire again and extracts the dross, as we may read: "Take away the dross from the silver" (Mishlei 25:4). And then the silver is pure.

408. So does the Holy One, blessed be He, put the body under the ground until it is completely petrified and all the rotten defilement completely leaves it. And a handful of rot is all that is left. Then the body is rebuilt from this, but it is still an incomplete body.

408. כך הקודשא בריך הוא, מעייל האי גופא תחות ארעא, עד דמתרקב כוליה, ונפיק מניה כל זוהמא בישא, ואשתאר ההוא תרווד רקב, ואתבני גופא מניה, ועד כען הוא גופא לא שלים.

409. This is after that Great Day, as it is written: "But it shall be one day which shall be known to Hashem, not day nor night..." (Zecharyah 14:7). This is the day when everyone shall hide in the earth as they did in the beginning, THAT IS, AS THEY WERE IN THE GRAVE BEFORE THE RESURRECTION, because of the fear and the mighty power of the Holy One, blessed be He. As it is written: "And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of Hashem, and for the glory of His majesty..." (Yeshayah 2:19). And their souls shall leave and the handful of rot shall be digested there. The body that is rebuilt shall remain there as the light of the sun and the splendor of the firmament. As it is written: "And they who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament" (Daniel 12:3). And then the silver is pure, WHICH MEANS THAT the body is pure without any other mixture.

410. As Rabbi Ya'akov said, the Holy One, blessed be He, shall cast down a shining body from above, as it is written: "for your dew is as the dew (Heb. tal) of the herbs..." (Yeshayah 26:19) and, "Behold Hashem will carry you away (Heb. metaltelcha)" (Yeshayah 22:17). And then they shall be called Celestial Holy Ones, as it is written: "and he...shall be called holy" (Yeshayah 4:3). This is what is called the last resurrection of the dead, as they shall never taste death anymore, as it is written: "By Myself I have sworn, says Hashem, because you have done this thing...that I will exceedingly bless you..." (Bereshheet 22:16-17). During that period, the righteous pray that they may never experience this again.

411. What is then written? "And Avraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold behind him a ram..." (Bereshheet 22:13) WHICH ALLUDES TO the other wicked people of the world who are called 'rams,' as it is written: "the rams of Nevayot shall minister to you" (Yeshayah 60:7). And this PHRASE is translated INTO ARAMAIC as: "the high ranks (also: 'the proud people') of Nevayot...". "caught in a thicket..." This is as you may read: "All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off" (Tehilim 75:11). The phrase: "and Avraham went and took the ram," means that they are about to go through all kinds of bad experiences. But the righteous, in the future, shall remain as the holy supernal angels, to bring about the unison of His Name. Therefore it is written: "in that day Hashem shall be one, and His Name One" (Zecharyah 14:9).

412. Rabbi Yehuda said to him: From here on, open up the gate, WHICH MEANS THAT FROM NOW ON, WHOEVER WANTS TO ENTER MAY DO SO, BECAUSE HE HAS FINISHED REVEALING ALL THE MOST SUBLIME MYSTERIES. All the people of the village came to him. They said: May Sir tell us a few words of the Torah about the portion of the week that we read on the day of Shabbat, "and Hashem visited Sarah." He stood up between the pillars, opened, and said: "And Hashem visited Sarah..."--The Holy One, blessed be He, has three keys in His hands, which He did not hand over to any angel. They are: the Key of Life, the Key of Rain, and the Key of Resurrecting the Dead. Eliyahu came and took two: the one of rain and the one of resurrecting the dead. Rabbi Yochanan disagreed and said: Eliyahu was handed only one. Rabbi Yochanan explained: When Eliyahu wanted to revive the son of the woman of Tzarfat, the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: It is not proper for you to take two keys and hold them in your hands. So give Me the key of rain, and go and and revive the dead. This is as it is written: "Go, show yourself to Achav, and I will send rain upon the earth" (I Melachim 18:1). He did not say, 'and send rain,' but rather, "and I will send rain."

413. And then Elisha had to establish a double portion of Eliyahu's spirit. Nevertheless, the Holy Once, blessed be He, did not hand three of them over to any messenger. As Rabbi Simon said: Come and behold the might of the Holy One, blessed be He. Simultaneously He resurrects the dead, He "brings down to the grave and brings up," (I Shmuel 2:6), He makes the luminaries shine, brings down rain, "causes the grass to grow," (Tehilim 104:14) fertilizes the crop, visits barren women, supplies food, helps the needy, supports those who have fallen, makes those who are bent down stand erect, removes kings, and raises kings. He does all this at the same time and at the same moment, a task no messenger can ever accomplish.

413. וְהָא אֵלִישַׁע הוּוּ לֵיהּ. אֵינן. לְקִיָּים פִּי שָׁנִים בְּרוּחוֹ שֶׁל אֵלֵיהּ, אֲלֵא, שְׁלֹשֶׁתָם לֹא מִסֵּרָם הַקּוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בִּיד שְׁלִיחַ, דָּאָמַר רַבִּי סִימוֹן, בָּא וּרְאָה כַּחוֹ שֶׁל הַקּוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּפַעַם אַחַת מְחִיָּה מֵתִים, וּמוֹרִיד שְׂאוֹל וְיַעַל, מְזַרְיַח מְאוֹרוֹת, וּמוֹרִיד גְּשָׁמִים, מְצַמִּיחַ חֲצִיר, מְדַשֵּׁן יְבוּלִים, פּוֹקֵד עֲקָרוֹת, נוֹתֵן פְּרִנְסוֹת, עוֹזֵר דְּלִים, סוֹמֵךְ גּוֹפְלִים, זוֹקֵף כְּפוּפִים, מְהַעֲדָא מְלַכִּין, וּמְהַקֵּם מְלַכִּין, וְהַבֵּל בְּזָמַן אַחַד, וּבְרִגְעָא אַחַד, וּבְבֵת אַחַת, מַה שְׂאִין שְׁלִיחַ, לְעוֹלָם יְכוּל לַעֲשׂוֹתוֹ.

414. We have learned, as Rabbi Yosi said: All that the Holy One, blessed be He, does, He can do by a word. As soon as He says from the place of His Holiness 'let this be done', it immediately occurs. Behold the power of the Holy One, blessed be He, and His might, as it is written: "By the word of Hashem were the heavens made" (Tehilim 33:6). Rabbi Yochanan then asked: Why is it written: "For I will pass through the land of Egypt, I and not an angel" (Shemot 12:12)?

415. If so, it is a great honor for Egypt, because it is not the same to be caught by a king and as to be caught by a simple man. Even more so, as there is no nation that is as defiled with all sorts of impurity as Egypt, of which it is written: "whose flesh is as the flesh of asses," (Yechezkel 23:20) because they are suspected of sodomy. And they issue from Cham, who did what he did to his father, who then cursed him and his son Cna'an. Did not the Holy One, blessed be He, have an angel or a messenger to send to take revenge on Egypt, as he had done to Ashur who was the son of Shem, as it is written: "The children of Shem, Elam and Ashur..." (Bereshheet 10:22)? And Shem was a high priest who was blessed, as it is written: "Blessed be Hashem, the Elohim of Shem" (Bereshheet 9:26). Thus, Shem received blessings and attained superiority over his brothers. Of them, it is written: "Then the angel of Hashem went forth and smote in the camp of Ashur" (Yeshayah 37:36). So this revenge was accomplished by a messenger. So much more so with Egypt, the most impure of all nations. Nevertheless, He said, "I and not an angel."

416. Rabbi Yehuda said that from this we learn the great might of the Holy One, blessed be He, and His exaltedness, which is high above all. The Holy One, blessed be He, said: This nation of Egypt is impure and full of filth, so it is not proper to send an angel or anything holy among filthy, impure, and cursedly wicked people. So I will perform what cannot be done by an angel or a messenger or a saraph. From the place of My holiness I announce, Let this be done. And immediately what cannot be done by an angel is done. So the Holy One, blessed be He, from His place of holiness, announces: Let thus happen so! And all that He wanted done occurs immediately. Therefore, this revenge was not accomplished by an angel or a messenger, for the dishonor of the Egyptians, and to display the greatness of the Creator, who did not want anything holy to enter among them. According to this, it is written: "I and not an angel"; I alone am able to perform this.

417. Rabbi Yehuda continued by asking: Why is it written: "And Hashem spoke to the fish..." (Yonah 2:11)? How many righteous and pious men of Yisrael did the Holy One, blessed be He, never speak to, while He came to speak to the fish, who does not know or recognize Him? Rabbi Yehuda continued: Because Yonah's prayers reached to the Holy One, blessed be He, He spoke, from the place of His holiness, so that the fish would vomit Yonah out and cast him ashore. So why did He speak to the fish? Hashem spoke to the fish, so that Yonah would be thrown back to the shore. So from the place of His Holiness, the Holy One, blessed be He, said: Let this happen. And immediately it was done, something that no messenger was able to do.

418. We learned as Rabbi Shimon said: The key of Life is in the hands of the Holy One, blessed be He. So while the mother still lies in labor, the Holy One, blessed be He, examines the newborn. If he is worthy of emerging and coming into this world, then He opens the gates of her womb and he comes out. If not, then He shuts the gates and they both die. If so, an evil person will never come into the world. Rather we have learned that women die because of three transgressions. Rabbi Yitzchak asked: Why should any woman have a miscarriage and lose the fruit of her womb? Rabbi Yitzchak responded: The Holy One, blessed be He, examines that fetus that is not fit to come into the world and kills it while it is still in the womb of its mother, as it is written: "there were giants (Heb. nefilim) on the earth in those days..." (Bereshheet 6:4) Nefilim is spelled without the first Yud (Heb. nefalim or: 'miscarriages'). And why? Because later, "the sons of Elohim came onto the daughters of men, and they bore children to them," by prostitution. And so the number of bastards grew in the world.

419. "...they were the men of renown which were of old..." (Bereshheet 6:4) because there is no greater tyrant, robber, or mighty man than a bastard. They were recognized as "...men of renown (lit. 'men of the name')" by all, and called by that known brand, 'bastard'. Because they all see by his actions that he is a tyrant, a robber, and mighty man, they call him by that name. And Rabbi Shimon said that the Holy One, blessed be He examines the newborn. There is no wicked person in the world who is not examined by the Holy One, blessed be He. And He checks whether that person will ever beget a righteous son or save somebody from Yisrael from a cruel death or do even one good deed. And if the answer is yes, the Holy One, blessed be He, allows him to come out into the world.

420. In the days of Rabbi Yosi, there were bandits who robbed people in the mountains, along with bandits from other nations of the world. When they found someone, they seized him for the purpose of killing him. They said to him: What is your name? If he was a Jew, they accompanied him, bringing him out and away from the mountains. But if he was not a Jew, they killed him. Rabbi Yosi said: Nevertheless, they are yet suitable to enter the world to come and attain its life.

420. בְּיוֹמוֹי דְּרַבִּי יוֹסִי, הוּוּ אִינוּן פְּרִיזִי, דְּהוּוּ מְשַׁדְּדֵי בְּטוּרְיָא, עִם פְּרִיזִי אוּמוֹת הָעוֹלָם, וְכַד מְשַׁבְּחֵי בְּרַ נֶשׁ, וְתַפְשִׁי לִיהָ לְקַטְלִיהָ, הוּוּ אֲמַרִין לִיהָ, מַה שְׂמַךְ, אִי הוּוּ יוֹדָאֵי, הוּוּ אֲזִלִין עֲמִינָה, וּמִפְקִין לִיהָ מִן טוּרְיָא, וְאִי הוּוּ בְּרַ נֶשׁ אַחְרִינָא, קַטְלֵי לִיהָ, וְהוּוּ אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, אַתְחַזוּן אִינוּן, בְּכָל הָאֵי, לְמִיעַל לְעֵלְמָא דְּאֲתֵי.

421. The sages taught that the following three things do not come into the world except through voices: the voice of a woman giving birth, as it is written: "in sorrow shall you bring forth children," (Beresheet 3:16) and "and Elohim hearkened to her" (Beresheet 30:22); the voice of the rains, as it is written: "The voice of Hashem is upon the waters" (Tehilim 29:3) and, "a sound of the rumbling of the rainstorm" (I Melachim 18:41); the voice of the resurrection of the dead, as it is written: "A voice cries...in the wilderness" (Yeshayah 40:3). What is the purpose of the voice in the wilderness? Rabbi Zrika says this voice came to raise the dead of the wilderness. From this we derive that it is true for the whole world. Rabbi Yochanan says we learned that when a man enters the grave he does so with voices. And when they rise at the resurrection of the dead, should they not also rise with great voices?

422. Rabbi Ya'akov said that a divine voice will burst in the graveyards, saying: "Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust," (Yeshayah 26:19) and they will live by the dew of a great supernal light from above, as it is written: "for your dew is as the dew of the herbs ('lights'), and the earth shall cast out the dead" (Yeshayah 26:19). Amen, may it be so.
End of Midrash Hane'elam

423. "And Hashem visited Sarah, as He had said..." This is IN ACCORDANCE WITH what is written: "I will certainly return to you, at this season, and Sarah shall have a son." And we have learned in relation to "visited Sarah," that visitation is related to the female, while remembrance is related to the male. Therefore, IT IS WRITTEN ABOUT SARAH: "And Hashem visited Sarah." AND HASHEM (VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI) IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, NAMELY HIM AND HIS COURT OF JUDGMENT. The words, "as He had said" REFER TO WHAT is written: "As the time appointed I will return to you..." From this we learn THAT THE VERSE: "And he said: As the time appointed I will return to you..." IS WRITTEN AS "He said," in a general way. Thus, it was he, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHO "HAD SAID" and not any other messenger. OTHERWISE, HOW COULD IT BE WRITTEN HERE: "AND HASHEM (VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI) VISITED SARAH, AS HE HAD SAID." WHERE ELSE DID HE SAY THIS?

30. "And Hashem did to Sarah"

Children help their parents earn and enhance a connection to the Light of the Creator when they pursue a spiritual path in life.

The Relevance of this Passage

A spiritual umbilical cord between parent and child remains in place for all eternity. Hence, the actions of a parent influence the child, and the actions of the child bear spiritual consequences for the parents. We arouse and bestow tremendous Light upon our children that will help motivate and guide them towards a spiritual lifestyle and existence.

422. אמר רביינא, עתידה בת קול, להיות מתפוצצת, בבתי קברות, ואומרת, הקיצו ורננו שוכני עפר, ועתידים לחיות, בטל של אור גדול של מעלה, דכתיב כי טל אורות טלך וארץ רפאים תפיל, אכ"ר.
(ע"כ מדרש הנעלם).

423. ויי' פקד את שרה כאשר אמר, דכתיב, למועד אשוב אליך בעת חיה ולשרה בן. ותנינן פקד את שרה, פקידה לנוקבא, זכירה לדכורא ובגין כך, ויי' פקד את שרה כאשר אמר, דכתיב שוב אשוב אליך בעת חיה וגו', מהכא משמע דאמר, ויאמר שוב אשוב אליך, ויאמר סתם, דאיהו הוה, ולא שליחא אחרא.

424. "And Hashem did to Sarah..." (Beresheet 21:9). HE ASKS: It is said, "And Hashem visited Sarah." Why, then, DO WE ALSO NEED "And Hashem did to Sarah"? AND HE REPLIED: We have learned that the 'fruits' of the works of the Holy One, blessed be He, come from the river that flows and issues from Eden, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, and are the souls of the righteous. IN OTHER WORDS, HIS WORKS ARE THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS. And this is Mazal (lit. 'Flow') from where all the good blessings and blessed rains flow. And from there they issue, as it is written: "to water the garden," (Beresheet 2:10) as it flows and irrigates from above downward, because (bearing) children depends on Mazal and no other place.

425. So in reference to this, it is written: "And Hashem visited Sarah," IN WHICH "visit," only WHICH IS THE SECRET OF NUKVA, IS MENTIONED. In the phrase, "And Hashem did to Sarah," THIS 'doing,' WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHILDREN AND THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS, WHICH ARE THE FRUITS OF HIS HANDIWORK, is higher than the grade OF THE "VISIT," which depends on Mazal, as previously explained. This is why IT IS DESCRIBED here AS a "visit," WHICH IS RELATED TO THE NUKVA, and there as a 'doing,' WHICH IS RELATED TO ZEIR ANPIN. And therefore it is said, "And Hashem," and again, "And Hashem," both being the same. OF THE "VISIT," IT IS WRITTEN: "AND HASHEM (VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI) VISITED," WHICH IS THE SECRET OF HIM AND HIS COURT OF JUDGMENT, WHICH IS THE NUKVA--WHILE IN THE 'DOING,' IT IS WRITTEN: "HASHEM (YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI) DID," WHICH RELATES TO ZEIR ANPIN.

426. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "For children are the heritage of Hashem, and fruit of the womb is a reward" (Tehilim 127:3). "For children are the heritage of Hashem" MEANS "a heritage" by which one can cleave to Hashem and never turn away from Him, because a person who merits the virtue of having children in this world shall, as a result of those children, deserve to join the company OF THE HOLY ONCE, BLESSED BE HE, in the world to come. Thus, that child, whom that person merited and left behind in this world, shall in return bring him merit in the world to come. Thereby, he shall merit to enter the "heritage of Hashem."

427. HE ASKS: What is the "heritage of Hashem?" AND HE ANSWERS: This is the 'Land of the Living', NAMELY THE NUKVA. And King David called the land of Yisrael, which is the 'Land of the living,' also, the "heritage of Hashem," as it is written: "for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the heritage of Hashem, saying, Go, serve other Elohim" (I Shmuel 26:19). And this is why THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "For children are the heritage of Hashem." Who enables a person to inherit THE HERITAGE OF HASHEM? Children ENABLE HIM. So if he has the merit of BEGETTING CHILDREN in this world, "the fruit of the womb is a reward," because they are the reward and good portion in that ETERNAL world. So because of this "fruit of the womb," a person deserves to enter the Eternal World.

428. Come and behold: "For children are the heritage of Hashem." THIS REFERS TO the inheritance and heritage of the fruit of the handiwork of the Holy One, blessed be He--NAMELY, the 'Tree of Life', AS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, IS CALLED THE 'TREE OF LIFE', because a person merits his children from there. As it is written: "From me is your fruit found" (Hoshea 14:9). What is written? "Happy is the man that has his quiver full of them, they shall not be ashamed..." (Tehilim 127:5). Happy is he in this world, and happy is he in the world to come.

424. וַיַּעַשׂ יי' לְשָׂרָה וְגו'. בֵּינוֹן דְּאָמַר וַיִּי פֶקַד אֶת שָׂרָה, מֵהוּ וַיַּעַשׂ יי' לְשָׂרָה. אֶלֶּא הֲכִי תְנִינָן דְּאִיבָא דְּעוֹבְדוֹי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, מֵהוּא נְהַר דְּנִגְיָד וְנִפְיָק מֵעֵרְן אִיהוּ, וְאִיהוּ נִשְׁמַתְהוֹן דְּצִדִּיקֵינָא, וְאִיהוּ מְזֵלָא, דְּכָל בְּרַכָּאן טְבָאן, וְגִשְׁמֵי בְּרַכָּאן, נְזִלֵי מִנְיָה, וּמִתְמָן נִפְקִי, דְּכִתִּיב לְהִשְׁקוֹת אֶת הַגֶּן, דְּאִיהוּ מְזִיל, וּמִשְׁקָה מְעִילָא לְתַתָּא, בְּגִין דְּבָנֵי בְּהַאי מְזֵלָא תְלִינָן, וְלֹא בְּאַתְרַּא אַחְרָא.

429. Of the verse: "they shall not be ashamed when they shall speak with the enemies at the gate," (Ibid.) HE ASKS: Who are the 'enemies at the gate'? AND HE ANSWERS: These are the accusers, because when the soul departs from this world many accusers are standing ready before it, as it enters into its place. "The gate" is the gate through which it enters TO REACH ITS PLACE, AND THERE THEY WAIT. BUT IT IS SAVED FROM THEM, because he has left offspring in this world, REFERRING TO HIS CHILDREN. And because of them, he shall merit the world OF ETERNITY. This is why: "they shall not be ashamed when they shall speak with the enemies at the gate."

430. While walking together, Rabbi Yehuda said to Rabbi Yosi: Open your mouth and delve into the teachings of Torah, for the Shechinah dwells upon you. Whenever a person delves into the study of Torah, the Shechinah joins him, and even more so when walking along the road. Then the Shechinah comes and welcomes him and goes in front of those who have merited the Faith in the Holy One, blessed be He.

31. "Your wife shall be as a fruitful vine"

The importance of modesty and spiritual behavior for the wife of a man is examined through the teachings of the holy Zohar. A woman corresponds to the Sfirah of Malchut, which is the receptacle and vessel for the Light of the Creator in this physical realm. A woman plays the same role in the physical world of family, manifesting spiritual energy for the entire household. The more pure her vessel is, the more Light she generates for her loved ones.

The Relevance of this Passage

The letters that form these mystical texts arouse a greater sense of appreciation for the dynamic role that a woman's virtue plays in the family. This appreciation helps to purify a woman's vessel, making her a more effective channel of energy for her family.

431. Rabbi Yosi began the discussion with the verse: "Your wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of your house, your children like olive plants round about your table" (Tehilim 128:3). "Your wife shall be as a fruitful vine" MEANS THAT as long as the woman remains by the sides of the house and does not go outside, she is modest and worthy of bearing worthy children. "As a fruitful vine" means that just as a vine is always planted with its own kind, so shall an honorable wife never grow any sprouts, NAMELY CHILDREN, from another man. And just as a vine is never grafted with another kind of tree, so an honorable wife NEVER MATES WITH ANOTHER MAN.

432. What is her reward? It is "your children like olive plants." Just as the leaves of the olive plants never fall, but are attached to the tree all the time, so "the children like olive plants round about your table" SHALL ALWAYS BE ATTACHED TO YOU.

433. What is written next? "Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed, that fears Hashem" (Tehilim 128:4). AND HE ASKS: What is MEANT BY "Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed." SHOULD IT NOT BE WRITTEN: 'BEHOLD--THUS'? AND HE REPLIES: This is another issue that is learned from her. As long as the Shechinah was kept modestly in Her place, as is properly suited for Her, then it is as though "your children like olive plants." These are the children of Yisrael living in the land OF YISRAEL "round about your table," as they eat, drink, offer sacrifices, and rejoice before the Holy One, blessed be He. And the upper and lower beings are blessed because of them.

434. After the Shechinah departed FROM HER PLACE, the children of Yisrael were exiled from the table of their Father and dispersed among the nations. And they cry out all day long, but there is no one who takes heed except the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies..." (Vayikra 26:44) And we do see how many holy and saintly men did perish under harsh decrees, all this being a punishment of the Torah, which Yisrael did not observe when they lived in the Holy Land.

435. As it is written: "Because you do not serve Hashem your Elohim with joyfulness and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things" (Devarim 28:47). There is a secret in this verse. The verse "Because you serve not Hashem your Elohim with joyfulness" refers to when the priests offered sacrifices and burned offerings, which is done "...with joyfulness." "And with gladness of heart..." refers to the Levites. And "for the abundance of all things" refers to the Yisraelites, who are positioned in the middle, between THE PRIESTS AND THE LEVITES, and receive blessings from both sides--FROM THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT.

436. As it is written: "You have multiplied the nation, and increased its joy" (Yeshayah 9:2). This refers to the priests. "Yisrael rejoiced before You as the joy in harvest" refers to the Yisraelites, who are blessed by the Holy One, blessed be He, with the harvest OF the fields, as they offer a tenth of everything. "...and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil" refers to the Levites, who receive a tenth from the threshing floor.

437. A different meaning of "You have multiplied the nation" is that it refers to Yisrael, who properly keep Faith in the Holy One, blessed be He. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH INCLUDES THE RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS, AS WAS SAID BEFORE. The words "and increased its joy" mean the grade of the supernal Head, REFERRING TO CHESED THAT HAS BECOME CHOCHMAH, to which Avraham has cleaved, because it is called 'Great' and joyfulness can be found in it. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, WHICH IS CHESED.

438. "They rejoiced before You" refers to the time when they rose to cleave to You "as the joy in harvest," which is the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, which rejoiced in His harvest. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT COLUMN, BECAUSE THE REAPING OF THE CROP OF A FIELD COMES FROM THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT. AND THE "HARVEST" IS THE DESIRED RESULT OF WORKING THE FIELDS. SO WHEN IT IS SAID, "THE JOY IN HARVEST," THIS IS THE SECRET OF HER HUSBAND BEING CROWNED BY HER, WHILE SHE IN RETURN IS NOT CROWNED BY HER HUSBAND. "...as men rejoice when they divide the spoil" refers to rejoicing by the other hosts and Chariots, THOSE BENEATH THE NUKVA, while they divide among themselves the spoil and fall upon the prey before everyone else. THIS REFERS TO THE SUPERNAL HEAD, WHICH AVRAHAM CLEAVED TO AND WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, WHICH IS CHESED.

32. The reckoning of the Messianic era

The Zohar reveals two potential ways in which the Messiah will appear in our world: one is the path of mercy, the other is the path of harsh judgment. When we facilitate this process through our own proactive initiative towards self-transformation, we can usher in the age of Messiah through the path of mercy. If, however, [Heaven forbid] man remains in his self-indulgent ways, it will be through a path of judgment that the Messiah will appear.

The Relevance of this Passage

Kabbalistically, the Messiah is not a righteous individual who will emancipate the world, performing all the spiritual work on our behalf. Rather, the concept of Messiah refers to both a personal state of existence and a global happening. The toil of our own spiritual work will produce personal peace through a merciful path. Global turmoil will force change upon those who reject transformation. As people change, a critical mass will eventually be met and the global Messiah will appear to signify a new world. A proactive desire for self-transformation is awakened within us so that our spiritual development occurs within a framework of mercy and positivity.

439. Rabbi Yehuda opened with the verse: "It is time to work for Hashem, for they have made void Your Torah" (Tehilim 119:126). AND HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "It is time to work for Hashem"? AND HE REPLIES: This has already been explained. Nevertheless, "time" alludes to the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, which is called "time." As it is written: "that he come not at all times into the holy place" (Vayikra 16:2). And what is MEANT BY "that he come not at all times?" The meaning is similar to what is written: "That they may keep you from a strange woman" (Mishlei 7:5). And this also relates to the verse: "and offered strange fire before Hashem" (Vayikra 10:1). IN OTHER WORDS, THE NUKVA OF THE KLIPOT IS ALSO CALLED 'TIME', WHICH IS A STRANGE WOMAN, A STRANGE FIRE. THIS IS WHY IT IS WRITTEN: "THAT HE COME NOT AT ALL TIMES INTO THE HOLY PLACE," BUT ONLY AT THE TIMES OF HOLINESS. AND HE ASKS: Why is THE NUKVA CALLED 'Time'? AND HE REPLIES: Because there is a time and a period for everything. THIS REFERS TO THE 28 PERIODS OF TIME THAT APPEAR IN THE BOOK OF KOHELET IN ORDER to come closer to shine from and cleave TO ZEIR ANPIN properly, as it is written: "But as for me, my prayer is to You, Hashem, in an acceptable time" (Tehilim 69:14).

439. ר' יהודה פתח ואמר, עת לעשות ליי' הפרו תורתך. עת לעשות ליי' מהו אלא, הא אוקמוה. אבל עת: דא בנסת ישראל, דאקרי עת. במה דאת אמר, ואל יבא בכל עת אל הקדש. מאי ואל יבא בכל עת. במה דאת אמר, לשמרך מאשה זרה. ודא הוא ויקריבו לפני יי' אש זרה וגו'. מאי טעמא עת. בגין, דאית לה עת וזמן לכלא, לקרבא, לאתנהרא, לאתחברא בדקא נאות. כד"א ואני תפילתי לך יי' עת רצון.

440. "To work (or make) for Hashem" is similar to what is written: "and David made himself a name," (II Shmuel 8:13) WHICH MEANS THAT HE AMENDED THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED "A NAME." AND IN THE SAME MANNER, whoever studies Torah, it is as though he "made" and prepared the "time," WHICH IS THE NUKVA, to attach Her to the Holy One, blessed be He. And why do all that? WHY SHOULD ANYONE HAVE TO WORK AND PREPARE THE NUKVA? Because "they have made void Your Torah." Had they not "made void Your Torah," then there would not have ever been a separation of the Holy One, blessed be He, from Yisrael, BECAUSE THE UNION OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, AND HIS SHECHINAH WOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN INTERRUPTED.

441. Rabbi Yosi said that the same applies to the verse: "I Hashem will hasten it in its time" (Yeshayah 60:22). What does "in its time (Heb. itah)" mean? IT MEANS at the time (et) when Hei, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, shall rise up from Her dust--then I "will hasten it." IN OTHER WORDS, BY MY POWER, NOT BY HER OWN STRENGTH, SHE SHALL RISE FROM THE DUST OF EXILE. Rabbi Yosi said that in spite of all this, the Congregation of Yisrael lies only for one day in the dust OF EXILE, and no more. THIS REFERS TO THE ONE DAY OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHICH LASTS A THOUSAND YEARS, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "FOR A THOUSAND YEARS IN YOUR EYES ARE BUT AS YESTERDAY..." (TEHILIM 90:4) AND THIS ALLUDES TO THE FIFTH MILLENNIUM, AS IS FURTHER EXPLAINED, BECAUSE THE FOURTH MILLENNIUM WAS NOT FULL, AS IT LACKED 172 YEARS BECAUSE THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE OCCURRED IN THE YEAR 3828.

442. Rabbi Yehuda then said: So it has been said. Nevertheless, come and behold the secret that I learned. At the time when the Congregation of Yisrael was exiled from Her place, it was as if the letters of the Holy Name were separated from one another. Hei was separated from Vav IN THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. As a result of this separation, it is written: "I was dumb with stillness" (Tehilim 39:3). Because the Vav departed from the Hei, the voice disappeared. As a result, Speech was silenced.

443. And because of this, She lies in the dust OF EXILE during all that day of the Hei. And when is this? It is during the fifth millennium, even though She was exiled before it began--BECAUSE THE TEMPLE WAS DESTROYED DURING THE FOURTH MILLENNIUM, IT WAS NOT A FULL MILLENNIUM AND WE DO NOT COUNT IT.

444. And when the sixth millennium arrives, which is the secret of the Vav--NAMELY THE YESOD, SPELLED WITH THE VAV, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN--then the Vav shall elevate the Hei, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, at the time of "six multiplied by ten", as the Vav (= six) rises up to the Yud (= ten) OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH. AND THEN the Vav descends to the Hei, AND BRINGS TO IT ABUNDANCE.

445. And when the Vav, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, reaches completion by reaching sixty (by multiplying six times ten), THE NUKVA is raised from the dust. So every sixty years during the sixth millennium, the Hei is strengthened and rises up through its own grades to become firm. And in the year 600 of the sixth millennium, the gates of Wisdom of above and the fountains of Wisdom below shall be opened. And the world shall be prepared to enter the seventh MILLENNIUM, as a person who prepares himself on the sixth day (Friday), as the sun sets, to enter the Shabbat. And as a mnemonic for this, we take the verse: "in the six hundredth year of Noach's life...all the fountains of the great deep were broken open" (Bereshheet 7:11)

441. אָמַר ר' יוֹסִי, כְּגוֹזֵנָא דָא כְּתִיב, אֲנִי יוֹי בְעֵתָהּ אַחִישָׁנָה. מֵהוּ בְעֵתָהּ. בְּעֵת ה' דְּתְקוּם מֵעַפְרָא, כְּדִין אַחִישָׁנָה. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, וְעַם כָּל דָּא, יוֹמָא חַד, אִיהִי כְּנִסְתַּי יִשְׂרָאֵל, גּוֹ עַפְרָא וְלֹא יְתִיר.

446. Rabbi Yosi said to him: This is more time than the friends have said--the exile of the Congregation of Yisrael is only for one day and no more, as it is written: "he has made me desolate and faint all the day" (Eichah 1:13). THIS IS THE SECRET OF "ONE DAY" OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHICH IS 1000 YEARS, AS EXPLAINED ABOVE. He said to him: I have learned so from my father among the secrets of the letters of the holy name, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, and in the years of the world, and the days of Creation, all is one secret.

447. And then the rainbow will be seen in the clouds in shining colors, as a woman who adorns herself for her husband--BECAUSE THE RAINBOW IS THE MYSTERY OF THE NUKVA. As it is written: "and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant" (Beresheet 9:16). And this has already been carefully explained. HOWEVER, "and I will look upon it" MEANS in its shining colors, as should properly be.

448. And then IT SHALL BE SAID, "that I may remember the everlasting covenant." And what is the "everlasting covenant"? It is the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE COVENANT. And the Vav will join the Hei and raise it from the dust, as it is written: "and Elohim remembered his covenant" (Shemot 2:24). This is the Congregation of Yisrael, which is the covenant, as it is written: "and it shall be for a sign of a covenant" (Beresheet 9:13).

449. When the Vav, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, is aroused toward the Hei, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, then signs from above shall reach the world. The children of Reuven shall wage war throughout the world and the Holy One, blessed be He, shall remember the Congregation of Yisrael, and raise Her up and out from the dust of exile.

450. And the Holy One, blessed be He, shall be with Her in exile, DURING THE SIXTH MILLENNIUM, according to the count of Vav: Vav (six) times Yud (ten) EQUALS SIXTY, and ten (Yud) times sixty EQUALS 600, NAMELY, THE YEAR 600 OF THE SIXTH MILLENNIUM. And then He shall rise and visit the world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, to execute vengeance. And whoever is humble shall be elevated.

451. Rabbi Yosi said to him: You have spoken well, because YOU HAVE EXPLAINED the secret of the letters OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. And we should not delve into the other calculations and 'end of times,' WHICH ARE NOT RELATED TO THE SECRET OF THESE LETTERS, for we have found AN ESSAY SIMILAR IN CONTENT TO this calculation OF YOURS in the book of Rav Yeba Saba (the elder.) As it is written: "Then shall the land enjoy (or desire) HER SHABBATS" (Vayikra 26:34). And this is the secret of the Vav, WHICH MEANS THAT THIS DESIRE SHALL NOT BE REVEALED TO THE LAND, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, EXCEPT WHEN THE VAV HAS REACHED COMPLETION, AS RABBI YEHUDA HAS EXPLAINED. And it is written: "And I will remember My covenant with Ya'akov" (Vayikra 26:42). OBSERVE THAT YA'AKOV IS SPELLED WITH A VAV. This is Vav, fully spelled as Vav-Vav, BECAUSE WHEN THE LETTER VAV IS PRONOUNCED, WE HEAR ANOTHER VAV. THE FIRST VAV ALLUDES TO YA'AKOV, WHO IS TIFERET, AND THE SECOND VAV ALLUDES TO THE YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE VAV THAT APPEARS IN THE NAME YA'AKOV. And all is one, WHICH MEANS THAT IN THE NAME YA'AKOV SPELLED WITH VAV, TIFERET AND YESOD ARE UNITED AS ONE. And this is why the verse is written: "I will remember," and later, "I will remember the land," (Ibid.) which is the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA. "Enjoy" (or 'be appeased') MEANS THAT the land shall be appeased by the Holy

One, blessed be He, AS HE SHALL RAISE HER. ENJOY IS READ AS PASSIVE "BE APPEASED," FOR DESIRE DOES NOT DEPEND ON THE NUKVA HERSELF, BUT ON THE WILL OF ZEIR ANPIN.

452. As for that "one day," which our friends have mentioned IN RELATION TO THE TIME OF EXILE, it is certain that everything is hidden and concealed before the Holy One, blessed be He. And everything is revealed through the secret of the letters of the Holy Name. Thus the exile, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CONCEALMENT, has been revealed to us by Rabbi Yesa through these letters. And now, through these letters, THE SECRET OF REDEMPTION is revealed to us, WHICH MEANS THAT IT DEPENDS ON THE VAV OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI ACHIEVING COMPLETION.

453. He said to him: Come and behold. Even when Sarah was visited, she was not visited by this grade OF VISITATION, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, THE LOWER HEI OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, but by the secret of the Vav, as written: "And Hashem visited Sarah..."--BECAUSE "AND HASHEM (VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI)" REFERS TO HIM AND HIS COURT OF JUDGMENT. 'HIM' IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, NAMELY THE VAV, WHILE HIS COURT OF JUDGMENT IS THE NUKVA. THEREFORE, EVEN THE VISITATION OF SARAH WAS BY THE LETTER VAV OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, because everything is according to the secret of the Vav and everything is included within it. THAT IS, EVERYTHING IS CONCEALED WITHIN THE LETTER VAV and everything is revealed there as well. IN OTHER WORDS, EVERYTHING BECOMES REVEALED BY THE COMPLETION OF THE LETTER VAV. For everything that is concealed may reveal all that is concealed, but nothing that is revealed may come and reveal what is concealed.

454. Rabbi Yosi said: How long do we have to endure the exile until we reach that time? And the Holy One, blessed be He, made everything depend on whether they atone for their sins and repented, whether they merited REDEMPTION or not, WHETHER THEY REPENTED OR NOT. As it is written: "I Hashem will hasten it in its time" (Yeshayah 60:22). If they are worthy, THAT IS, IF THEY REPENT, "...will hasten it," but if they are unworthy, THAT IS, THEY DO NOT REPENT, then, "in its time."

455. As they walked on, Rabbi Yosi said: I have just remembered that I once sat in this place with my father. He said to me: My son, when you are sixty years old, you will find in this place a treasure of sublime Wisdom. And I have just reached this age, yet I have still found nothing. And I do not know if these new explanations are that Wisdom that he told me I SHALL FIND.

456. And he further said to me: When strikes of fire shall reach the palms of your hands, then the wisdom shall disappear from you. I said to him: My father, how do you know this? He replied: I know this by these two birds that have passed over your head.

458. As he opened the book, he saw 72 forms of letters that were handed down to Adam. By these letters, Adam knew the entire Wisdom of the Holy Supernal Beings and all the Klipot that abide "behind the millstones," which revolve around behind the veil THAT COVERS the supernal Lights, together with all the things that are destined to come upon the world until the day when a cloud will rise from the west and the world will be darkened.

459. He called to Rabbi Yehuda and they both started to study the book. After examining only two or three pages, they were already contemplating the supernal Wisdom. As soon as they read further and spoke with each other, a flame and a strong wind struck their hands, and the book vanished. Rabbi Yosi wept and said: It could be that we have sinned, or we are not worthy of knowing this.

460. When they told Rabbi Shimon the story, he said: Maybe you delved into those letters that deal with the Days of Mashiach? They answered: We do not know, because we have forgotten everything. Rabbi Shimon continued: The Holy One, blessed be He, does not wish that too much be revealed to the world. But when the Days of Mashiach are near, even infants in the world will discover the secrets of Wisdom and, through them, know how to calculate THE TIME OF THE REDEMPTION and figure the End of Days. At that time, it will be revealed to everyone. Therefore, it is written: "For then will I turn to the peoples a pure language..." (Tzefanyah 3:9). What is meant by "then"? It means at the time when the Congregation of Yisrael shall rise from the dust, and the Holy One, blessed be He, shall raise Her up. Then, "I will turn to the peoples a pure language that they may all call upon Hashem and serve Him with one consent" (Ibid.).

461. Come and behold. Even though it is written of Avraham: "And he journeyed still toward the south," (Bereshheet 12:9) and all his journeys were southward, WHICH IS THE RIGHT COLUMN, OR CHESED, to which he was attached, he did not rise to his proper place until Yitzchak was born. As soon as Yitzchak was born, he immediately rose to his place, THAT IS, TO THE NORTH, THE LEFT COLUMN. And Avraham joined him, and they became united. THROUGH THEIR JOINING AND INCLUSION IN EACH OTHER, THEY BOTH REACHED COMPLETION.

462. This is why AVRAHAM called him Yitzchak, and not any other NAME, so as to join fire with water, AS THE ATTRIBUTE OF AVRAHAM IS WATER AND THAT OF YITZCHAK IS FIRE, as it is written: "And Avraham called the name of his son that was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Yitzchak" (Bereshheet 21:3). AND HE ASKS: Why DOES THE VERSE EMPHASIZE "that was born to him?" AND HE REPLIES: Fire from water.

33. "The son of the Hagar the Egyptian"

Sarah, the wife of the patriarch Avraham, banishes one of her husband's concubines from her home, a woman called Hagar. Hagar is the mother of Yishmael, who signifies the force of negativity. The banishment of Hagar pertains to the removal of man's desire to receive for the self alone.

The Relevance of this Passage

The first step in transformation involves a recognition and admittance of our self-indulgent desires. This self-acknowledgment is 90% of the battle. The Light of the Creator is then free to enter and eradicate the dark recesses of our nature. Towards that end, this passage arouses self-awareness, thus banishing our own Evil Inclinations and negative attributes from our character.

463. "And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born to Avraham, mocking." (Beresheet 21:9) Rabbi Chiya said: From that day when Yitzchak was born, Yishmael was not mentioned by his name as long as he was still present in the house of Avraham. This is because in the presence of gold, refuse cannot be mentioned. Why is it written: "the son of Hagar the Egyptian" AND NOT "YISHMAEL THE SON OF HAGAR"? Because his name should not be mentioned in the presence of Yitzchak.

463 וַתֵּרָא שָׂרָה אֶת בֶּן הַגֵּר הַמִּצְרִית אֲשֶׁר יָלְדָה לְאַבְרָהָם מִצְחָק. אָמַר רַבִּי חֵינָא, מִיּוֹמָא דְאַתְיָלִיד יִצְחָק, וְהוּא יִשְׁמַעְאֵל בְּבֵיתָא דְאַבְרָהָם, לֹא אֶסְתַּלַּק יִשְׁמַעְאֵל בְּשֵׁמָא, בְּאַתְרֵי דְדִהְבָּא שְׂרִיָא, סוֹסְמִיתָא לֹא אֲדַבֵּר קַמֵּיהּ, וּבִגִּין כֵּן אֶת בֶּן הַגֵּר הַמִּצְרִית, גְּבַר דְלֹא יִתְחַזֵּי לְאַדְבָּרָא, קַמֵּיהּ דְיִצְחָק.

464. Rabbi Yitzchak said: "And Sarah saw." She looked at him disdainfully, as she did not look at him as the son of Avraham, but rather as the son of Hagar the Egyptian. Thus, it is written: "And Sarah saw," because only Sarah saw him this way, not Avraham. So with Avraham, it is not written: 'the son of Hagar,' but "his son."

464. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, וַתֵּרָא שָׂרָה, בְּעֵינָא דְקַלְנָא, חֲמַת לִיהּ שָׂרָה דְלֹא חֲמַת לִיהּ בְּעֵינָא, דְאִיהּוּ בְּרָא דְאַבְרָהָם, אֲלֵא דְאִיהּוּ בְּרָא, דְהִגֵּר הַמִּצְרִית, וּבִגִּין כֵּן וַתֵּרָא שָׂרָה: דְשָׂרָה חֲמַת לִיהּ בְּעֵינָא דֵא, וְלֹא אַבְרָהָם, דְאִילוּ בְּאַבְרָהָם, לֹא כְתִיב אֶת בֶּן הַגֵּר, אֲלֵא אֶת בְּנוֹ.

465. Come and behold. After this, it is written: "And the thing was very grievous in Avraham's eyes because of his son" (Beresheet 21:11). It is not written: 'because of the son of Hagar the Egyptian.' And in contrast to this, it is written: "And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian," as she did not see him as the 'son of Avraham.'

465. תָּא חֲזִי לְבַתֵּר מַה כְּתִיב, וַיֵּרַע הַדְּבָר מְאֹד בְּעֵינֵי אַבְרָהָם עַל אוֹדוֹת בְּנוֹ. וְלֹא כְתִיב, עַל אוֹדוֹת בֶּן הַגֵּר הַמִּצְרִית. בְּגִין כֵּן, וַתֵּרָא שָׂרָה אֶת בֶּן הַגֵּר הַמִּצְרִית. וְלֹא חֲמַת דְאִיהּוּ בְרִיהּ דְאַבְרָהָם.

466. Rabbi Shimon said: This passage shows that Sarah is praiseworthy. Because she saw him participating in idolatrous practices, she said: This boy is definitely not the son of Avraham, who shall follow the example of Avraham. Rather, he is the son of Hagar the Egyptian, as he has returned to his mother's way of life. Because of this, "she said to Avraham, 'Cast out this bondswoman and her son: for the son of this bondswoman shall not be heir with my son, with Yitzchak'" (Ibid. 10).

466. רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן אָמַר, הָאִי קָרָא, תּוֹשַׁבְחָתָא דְשָׂרָה אִיהּוּ, בְּגִין דְחֲמַת לִיהּ, דְקָא מִצְחָק לְכוּ"ם, אָמְרָה, וְהָאִי לֹאוּ בְּרָא דֵא, בְּרָא דְאַבְרָהָם, לְמַעַבְד עוֹבְדוֹי דְאַבְרָהָם, אֲלֵא בְרָא דְהִגֵּר הַמִּצְרִית אִיהּוּ, אֶהְדֵּר לְחוּלְקָא דְאִמִּיהּ, בְּגִין כֵּן, וַתֵּאמֶר לְאַבְרָהָם גֵּרֶשׁ הָאִמָּה הַזֹּאת וְאֶת בְּנָהּ כִּי לֹא יִירֶשׁ בֶּן הָאִמָּה הַזֹּאת עִם בְּנֵי עַם יִצְחָק.

467. Now Sarah was not jealous or envious of her or her son. If she were, the Holy One, blessed be He, would not have supported with the words, "in all that Sarah says to you, hearken to her voice" (Beresheet 21:12). In fact, it was only because she saw him indulging in idolatrous practices and his mother teaching him the laws of idol worshipping that she said, "for the son of this bondswoman shall not be heir." I know that he shall never inherit a portion of the Faith, and he shall have no share with my son, not in this world and not in the world to come. And this is why the Holy One, blessed be He, supported her.

468. And the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted the Holy Seed separated, for that was why He created the world. Yisrael was already in the mind of the Holy One, blessed be He, even before He created the world. This is why Avraham appeared in the world, which continued to exist because of him. So Avraham and Yitzchak remained insecurely in their places, until Ya'akov appeared in the world.

469. As soon as Ya'akov came into the world, Avraham and Yitzchak were established, as was the whole world. From there, FROM YA'AKOV, the Holy Nation was born in a holy way. This is why the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, "in all that Sarah says to you, hearken to her voice, for in Yitzchak shall your seed be called"--and not in Yishmael.

470. After this, it is written: "and she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beer Sheva" (Beresheet 21:14). It is written here, "and wandered (Heb. vateta) in the wilderness," and elsewhere it is written: "They are vanity, and the works of delusion (Heb. ta'atu'im)" (Yirmeyah 10:15). FROM THIS WE LEARN BY ANALOGY THAT BECAUSE IT REFERS TO IDOL WORSHIPPING IN THE LATTER VERSE, SO IT REFERS TO IDOL WORSHIPPING IN THE FORMER. And for the sake of Avraham, the Holy One, blessed be He, did not abandon her and her son, BUT SAVED THEM FROM THIRST, EVEN THOUGH SHE INDULGED IN IDOL WORSHIPPING.

471. Come and behold. In the beginning, when she ran away from Sarah, it is written: "because Hashem has heard your affliction" (Beresheet 16:11). Now, however, that she went astray and followed idolatrous practices, even though it is written: "and she lifted up her voice, and wept" (Beresheet 21:16), "Elohim heard the voice of the lad" (Ibid. 17), instead of: 'And Elohim heard your voice.'

472. The words, "where he is" (Ibid.) have already been explained. YISHMAEL was not yet punishable by the heavenly Court of Judgment. At the earthly Court of Judgment, a person can be punished after the age of thirteen, but at the heavenly Court of Judgment, a person must be at least twenty years of age to be punished. AS A RESULT, even though he was wicked, he was too young to be punished. This is why it is written: "where he is," WHICH MEANS THAT BECAUSE HE WAS YOUNGER THAN TWENTY YEARS OF AGE, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SPARED HIS LIFE.

473. Rabbi Elazar asked: If this is so, then why punish anyone before he reaches the age of twenty? Under the age of thirteen years, even though he is not yet punishable, he can be sentenced to death because of the sins of his father, BECAUSE HE IS UNDER HIS FATHER'S AUTHORITY. But after the age of thirteen, why does this happen? AS HE IS NO LONGER SUBJECT TO HIS FATHER'S AUTHORITY, COULD IT BE THAT HE IS PUNISHED AND SENTENCED TO DEATH WHILE HE IS STILL TOO YOUNG AND THEREFORE UNPUNISHABLE? He replied: The Holy One, blessed be He, has Mercy on him, so that he may die as a righteous person. And He gives him a good reward in the World OF ETERNITY, so that he may not die as a wicked person and be punished in that world. This has already been explained.

474. He said to him: If he is a wicked person who has not yet reached the age of twenty years, how is this resolved? If he departs from this world, where is he punished? YOU CAN NOT SAY THAT HE MAY DIE A RIGHTEOUS PERSON, BECAUSE HE IS A WICKED PERSON AND A NOT RIGHTEOUS ONE. He responded: In this case THE VERSE, "But sometimes ruin comes for want of judgment" (Mishlei 13:23) is fulfilled. HE IS PUNISHED WITHOUT JUDGMENT, because when a punishment descends into the world, he, REFERRING TO THE PERSON UNDER TWENTY YEARS OF AGE, meets the Angel of Destruction, WHO PUNISHES HIM without it being intended from above or below. THIS MEANS THAT WITHOUT ANY EXPRESS INTENTION FROM THE HEAVENLY COURT OF JUDGMENT above or EARTHLY COURT OF JUDGMENT below, he is punished, for the sole reason that he was not protected FROM THE ANGEL OF DESTRUCTION from above. ONCE HE MEETS THE ANGEL OF DESTRUCTION, HE NO LONGER DISTINGUISHES BETWEEN GOOD AND BAD.

475. Of him it is written: "His own iniquities shall trap the wicked man" (Mishlei 5:22). Here, the particle Et ('the') is written to include those who are not of punishable age. "His own iniquities shall trap the wicked man," and not the heavenly Court of Judgment; "and he shall be caught fast in the cords of his sins," and not by the earthly Court of Judgment. This is why it is written: "For Elohim has heard the voice of the lad where he is," AS HE WAS NOT YET OLD ENOUGH TO BE PUNISHED FOR HIS SINS. THEREFORE, ELOHIM HEARD HIS VOICE, EVEN THOUGH HE WAS EVIL.

34. The signs heralding Mashiach

There are various windows of opportunity during a 6000-year period of transformation where we can bring about world peace through a proactive change of our nature. The Zohar expounds upon these opportunities and the signs that signal their arrival.

The Relevance of this Passage

Often times, hardships and obstacles appear to provide us with an opportunity to grow and evolve spiritually. If we are not cognizant of this truth, our tendency is to react in despair and with distress. Consciousness creates our reality; therefore, our negative thoughts and doubts become akin to self-fulfilling prophecies. The Light of this passage helps us recognize and connect to positive transformational opportunities when they appear throughout our life. This ensures a life filled with meaning, as opposed to the illusion of random chaos.

476. Rabbi Shimon opened the discourse with the verse: "And I will remember my covenant with Ya'akov" (Vayikra 26:42). THE NAME YA'AKOV IS WRITTEN in full; it includes the Vav. HE ASKS: Why? AND HE ANSWERS: It appears from two sides. The first is the secret of Wisdom, NAMELY THE VAV, which is the secret of the grade of Chochmah where Ya'akov dwells. THE SECOND IS BECAUSE this passage refers to the exile of the children of Yisrael. While in captivity, they will be visited (also: 'redeemed') by the power of the letter Vav, which symbolizes the sixth millenium. Through the letter Vav, their exile is ended. THIS IS WHY YA'AKOV IS SPELLED WITH VAV. THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL SHALL BE REDEEMED FROM EXILE BY THE VAV (= SIX), WHICH REPRESENTS THE SIXTH MILLENNIUM.

477. And the visitation, according to the secret of the Vav, occurs at six and one half moments. After the sixtieth year to the bar on the door of the sixth millenium--THE VAV, NAMELY TIFERET, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE MIDDLE BAR (OF THE TABERNACLE) THAT RUNS THROUGH THE BOARDS FROM ONE END TO THE OTHER, AND IS THEREFORE DESCRIBED AS THE "BAR OF THE DOOR"--shall Elohim of heaven visit the "Daughter of Ya'akov." And after six and a half years have passed, she shall be remembered. THIS IS THE DURATION OF THE VISITATION. And from that time, another six years shall pass, WHICH IS THE DURATION OF THE REMEMBRANCE. This totals 72 and a half years.

478. In the year 66, the King Mashiach will appear in the land of Galilee, AND HE IS CALLED MASHIACH BEN YOSEF (MESSIAH, THE SON OF YOSEF) HE WILL THEREFORE APPEAR IN THE GALILEE, IN THE POSSESSION OF YOSEF. A star from the east will swallow up seven stars from the north, and a flame of black fire will be suspended from the heavens for sixty days. Wars will be begun in the world from the north, and two kings will fall in these wars.

479. And all the nations will be united against the Daughter of Ya'akov, in order to drive her out of this world. And of that time it is written: "And it is a time of trouble for Ya'akov, but out of it he shall be saved" (Yirmeyah 30:7). Then all the souls shall be gone from the body; they will have to come back and be renewed. And your proof is the verse: "All the souls of the house of Ya'akov that came into Egypt...were 66" (Bereshheet 46:26).

480. In the 73rd year, THAT IS, SEVEN YEARS AFTER MASHIACH BEN YOSEF WAS REVEALED, all the kings of the world shall assemble in the great city of Rome. And the Holy One, blessed be He, will shower fire and hail and meteoric stones upon them, until they are wiped out from the world. And only those kings who did not go to Rome will remain in the world. And they shall return and wage other wars. During this time, the King Mashiach will declare himself throughout the whole world, and many nations will gather around him together with many armies from all corners of the world. And all the children of Yisrael will assemble together in their places.

481. When the century is completed, the Vav will join the Hei. And "they shall bring all your brethren out of all the nations for an offering to Hashem" (Yeshayah 66:20). THIS IS WHEN THEY SHALL BE GATHERED FROM THE DIASPORA. The children of Yishmael--WHO ARE THE HEAD (ALSO: LEADERS) OF ALL THE FORCES OF THE KLIPAH FROM THE RIGHT, AS ROME IS FOR THE LEFT--shall join together at that time with all the nations of the world WHO HAVE NOT GONE TO ROME and come to Jerusalem to wage war, as it is written: "For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle" (Zecharyah 14:2); "The kings of the earth stand up and the rulers take counsel together, against Hashem and against his anointed" (Tehilim 2:2); and, "He that sits in heaven laughs, Hashem has them in derision" (Tehilim 2:4)

482. After ALL THE FORCES OF THE OTHER SIDE, THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, ARE WIPED OUT OF THE WORLD, the small Vav, WHICH IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, will join THE HEI and renew old souls--NAMESLY ALL THE SOULS THAT WERE IN A BODY SINCE THE CREATION OF THE WORLD--in order to renew the world, WHICH IS MALCHUT. As it is written: "let Hashem rejoice in His works," and: "May the glory of Hashem endure forever," (Tehilim 104:31) WHICH MEANS THAT in order FOR THE HEI to join THE VAV properly, "let Hashem rejoice in His works." Let Him bring HIS WORKS down, REFERRING TO THE RENEWED SOULS, into the world, so they all become new creatures and all the worlds are united.

483. Happy are all those who shall remain in the world at the end of the sixth millennium and enter the Shabbat, WHICH IS THE SEVENTH MILLENNIUM--Because that is a "day" for Hashem alone to join THE HEI properly, and cull new souls IN ORDER TO BRING THEM into the world. THIS REFERS TO THE SOULS THAT HAVE NOT YET COME INTO THE WORLD, together with THE RENEWED SOULS that have been there from the beginning, as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, everyone that is written for life in Jerusalem" (Yeshayah 4:3).

35. "And Elohim tested Avraham"

The Zohar explores the story of the binding of Isaac. The biblical character of Isaac is a code referring to the Left Column energy, our reactive, self-centered nature. Avraham corresponds to the Right Column, our positive sharing attributes. The story is a metaphor for man's spiritual work, which is to bind and transform his selfish, reactive desires into positive and sharing qualities that embody care and concern for others.

The Relevance of this Passage

Repeatedly, something in our nature provokes us to indulge in negative behavior, even though it goes against our very will. Likewise, we're compelled to forsake positive actions despite our best intentions to follow through. This uniquely human idiosyncrasy is a depiction of the ongoing conflict between the body's desire to receive and the soul's desire to share. We arouse the inner strength and willpower to bind our own Evil Inclination and negative impulses, known Kabbalistically, as the desire to receive for the self alone.

484. "And it came to pass after these things, that Elohim tested Avraham and said to him, 'Avraham,' and he replied, 'Behold, here I am'" (Beresheet 22:1). Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse: "You are my king, Elohim" (Tehilim 44:5). This symbolizes the complete unification of all the grades as one; they ARE ATTACHED to one another. THIS IS BECAUSE IN THIS VERSE ARE THE SFIROT--CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT--WHICH REPRESENT ALL THE GRADES, BECAUSE "YOU" ALLUDES TO CHESED, ACCORDING TO THE MYSTERY OF THE VERSE, "YOU ARE A PRIEST FOR EVER" (TEHILIM 110:4); "ELOHIM" IS GVURAH; "ARE" IS TIFERET; AND "MY KING" IS MALCHUT.

484. וַיְהִי אַחֲרֵי הַדְּבָרִים הָאֵלֶּה וְהָאֱלֹהִים נִסָּה אֶת אַבְרָהָם וַיֹּאמֶר אֵלָיו אַבְרָהָם וַיֹּאמֶר הִנְנִי. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה, פֶּתַח וְאָמַר, אֵתָּה הוּא מְלֻכִי וְגו' דָּא הוּא שְׁלִימו, דְּכָל דְּרִגִין כְּחֻדָּא, דָּא בְּדָא.

485. "...command deliverances for Ya'akov..." (Tehilim 44:5) MEANS THAT all the messengers who accomplish their missions in the world shall be from the side of Mercy and not from the side of Judgment. There are emissaries from both sides--some from the side of Mercy and some from the side of harsh Judgment. Those messengers who come from the side of Mercy never take on themselves a mission of Judgment in the world.

486. You might say: But we have learned that the angel that was revealed to Bilaam was a messenger of Mercy who changed to a messenger of Judgment, THEREBY SHOWING THAT A MESSENGER OF MERCY CAN EXECUTE JUDGMENT. HOWEVER, THE ANSWER IS no. He never changed TO EXECUTE JUDGMENT. Rather, he was a messenger of Mercy who came to protect Yisrael and to be in their favor. But toward Bila'am, he was a messenger of Judgment. So these are the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, when He does good to someone. We can see that this benefit to one person may be a punishment for another person. And so first, he was a messenger of Mercy for Yisrael. But for Bilaam he was a messenger of Judgment. Because of this, HE PLEADED, "Command deliverances for Ya'akov." Thus, David said, "Command this for the world so that when a messenger will be sent, he will be from the side of Mercy."

486. וְאִי תִימָא, הָא מְלֹאכָא, דְּאִתְגַּלִּי לִיהּ לְבַלְעָם, הָא תְּנִינָן, שְׁלִיחָא דְּרַחֲמֵי הוּא, וְאִתְהַפֵּךְ לְדִינָא. לֹא. לְעוֹלָם לֹא אִשְׁתַּנִּי, אֶלְא שְׁלִיחָא דְּרַחֲמֵי הוּא, לְאַגְנָא עֲלִייהוּ דִּישְׂרָאֵל, וּלְמַהוּי סְנִיגוּרִיא עֲלִייהוּ, וּלְקַבְּלִיהּ, הוּא דִּינָא, וְכֵן אֹרְחוּי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִין הוּא, כְּדֵ אֹטִיב לְדָא, הֵוּא טִיב, דִּינָא לְדָא. כֵּן הָא שְׁלִיחָא דְּרַחֲמֵי, הוּא לְהוּ לִישְׂרָאֵל, וּלְבַלְעָם אִתְהַפֵּךְ לְדִינָא. בְּגִין כֵּן צִוָּה יְשׁוּעוֹת יַעֲקֹב, אִמְר דוּד, פְּקִיד עַל עֵלְמָא, כְּדֵ יִשְׁתַּלְחוֹן שְׁלִיחָא, דִּי לְהוּיין מְסַטְרָא דְּרַחֲמֵי.

487. Rabbi Aba said: "command deliverances for Ya'akov" MEANS THAT HE PRAYED FOR YA'AKOV, prayed for those in exile, that they might receive salvation. Come and behold: Ya'akov was the glory of the Patriarchs. Had it not been for Yitzchak, Ya'akov would not have appeared in the world. For this reason, "command deliverances for Ya'akov" alludes to Yitzchak, WHO IS THE DELIVERER OF YA'AKOV, because when Yitzchak was saved DURING THE BINDING OF YITZCHAK, this was the deliverance of Ya'akov.

488. "And it came to pass after these things..." Rabbi Shimon said: We have learned that the words "And it came to pass (Heb. vayehi) in the days" are said concerning trouble. Thus, even though it is not written 'in the days of,' there is still a certain tinge of distress, as it says, "Vayehi." "And it came to pass after" MEANS that it happened after the lowest of the supernal grades OF ATZILUT. And what is it? IT IS "these things (Heb. d'varim)," NAMELY MALCHUT, as it is written: "I am not a man of words (Heb. d'varim)" (Shemot 4:10).

489. And what is "after" this grade, THAT IS, AFTER MALCHUT? THIS IS A REFERENCE TO THE WORDS, "that Elohim tested Avraham," which mean that the Evil Inclination came from there to lay accusations before the Holy One, blessed be He. THEREFORE, "ELOHIM TESTED AVRAHAM." This phrase should be studied carefully. It should have been written, 'tested Yitzchak,' because Yitzchak was already 37 years old and his father could no longer be punished for his sins. So if Yitzchak had said, 'I refuse to obey,' his father would not have been punished because of him. So then why is it written: "that Elohim tested Avraham," rather than, 'tested Yitzchak?'

490. AND HE REPLIES: IT SHOULD definitely BE WRITTEN: "tested Avraham," because he was supposed to be included within Judgment, as there was no judgment in Avraham previously--HE HAD CONSISTED ENTIRELY OF CHESED. Now water was mixed with fire; CHESED WAS MIXED WITH JUDGMENT. So Avraham did not achieve perfection until he crowned (prepared) himself to execute Judgment and establish it in its place.

491. So all his life, he did not reach perfection until now, until water mixed with fire--RIGHT MIXED WITH LEFT--and fire with water--LEFT WITH RIGHT. This is why: "Elohim tested Avraham" and not Yitzchak. Because THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, invited Avraham to be included with Judgment ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE LEFT. So when he performed THE ACT OF BINDING YITZCHAK, the fire entered the water, THAT IS, JUDGMENT ENTERED CHESED, and they were perfected by each other, AS WAS SAID BEFORE. This is what the act of Judgment accomplished: it included one within the other. This is also the reason why the Evil Inclination came and accused Avraham of not being properly perfected until he performed the act of Judgment by BINDING Yitzchak. THE PLACE of the Evil Inclination is "after" (beyond) these "things," WHICH ALLUDES TO MALCHUT ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "SIN CROUCHES AT THE DOOR" (BERESHEET 4:7). And so he came to persecute.

492. Come and behold: observe the mystery behind this issue. Even though it is written: "Avraham" and not Yitzchak, Yitzchak is still included in the passage. It is written: "Elohim tested (et) Avraham," rather than 'tested Avraham.' Instead of a dative particle, it uses Et. Et is accurate and ALLUDES TO Yitzchak, because at that time YITZCHAK resided in lower Gvurah, WHICH REFERS TO THE NUKVA. And as he was bound and underwent the trial of Judgment performed by Avraham, YITZCHAK was crowned in his place together with Avraham, and the fire combined with the water and rose upward. AND AVRAHAM WITH CHESED ROSE UP TO CHOCHMAH, AND YITZCHAK WITH GVURAH ROSE UP TO BINAH. Then the dispute was settled properly, BECAUSE THEY MADE PEACE BETWEEN THEMSELVES, AS fire and water WERE COMBINED AND BECAME INCLUSIVE OF EACH OTHER.

493. Who has ever seen a merciful father do a cruel thing TO HIS SON? It is only to settle the dispute and combine water with fire. THIS REFERS TO THE ATTRIBUTE OF CHESED OF AVRAHAM WITH THE FIRE OF YITZCHAK, and each one is properly crowned in its place. AND THIS REMAINED SO until Ya'akov appeared, WHO WAS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Then, everything was properly established, and all three Patriarchs achieved perfection, WHICH MEANS THAT THEY BECAME A CHARIOT FOR THE UPPER THREE COLUMNS, and so the upper and lower beings were properly established.

494. Of the verse, "And He said, Take now your son," (Beresheet 22:2) HE ASKS: How could Avraham HAVE TAKEN YITZCHAK, HIS SON, by force, when he was old? If you say THAT Yitzchak was still under his authority AND THEREFORE HAD TO OBEY HIS FATHER'S COMMANDMENTS, IT WOULD BE a good explanation. But this is similar to: "take Aharon and Elazar his son," (Bemidbar 20:25) WHERE THE MEANING IS only to convince them with words and remind them THAT THEY SHOULD FULFILL the will of the Holy One, blessed be He. So here as well, WITH AVRAHAM, THE MEANING IS to "take," by verbal persuasion, "your son, your only son, whom you love, Yitzchak, and go to the land of Moriah," as it is written: "I will go to the mountain of myrrh (Heb. mor)," (Shir Hashirim 4:6) to be established in a proper place.

36. "And he saw the place afar off"

As Avraham walks with Isaac to the place of sacrifice, Avraham is granted a crystal clear vision of his future grandson, Jacob, the predestined son of Isaac. Avraham perceives the important role that Jacob will play in the world; nonetheless, he remains true to his commitment to sacrifice his son, despite his compelling vision. Avraham surrenders total control, placing all his trust in the Creator's words.

The Relevance of this Passage

Man's nature is to succumb to the temptations of the material world, to give in to the lure of immediate gratification at the expense of long-term fulfillment. The wisdom and strength to place our trust in the spiritual laws of life and relinquish control to the Creator are granted to our soul. This portion allows the radiance of the Creator to enlighten and direct us along the darkened corridors of life.

495. "On the third day, Avraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off" (Beresheet 22:4). The meaning of "on the third day" has already been explained, but since it has already been stated: "and he rose up and went to the place of which the Elohim had told him," (Ibid. 3) ONE SHOULD ASK why does it then say, "On the third day...and he saw the place afar off"? WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM THIS REPETITION? HE REPLIES: It is written, "for in Yitzchak shall your seed be called," (Beresheet 21:12) because Ya'akov came from him. YITZCHAK IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT COLUMN, WHICH HAS NO EXISTENCE WITHOUT THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS YA'AKOV. And, he is called "the third day," BECAUSE AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, AND YA'AKOV ARE THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, WHICH ARE CALLED 'THREE DAYS.' THUS, YA'AKOV, WHO IS TIFERET, IS EQUIVALENT TO THE THIRD DAY. THIS IS WHY HE LOOKED FOR YA'AKOV, WHO IS THE CAUSE OF THE EXISTENCE OF YITZCHAK.

496. The words, "and saw the place afar off," are similar to: "from afar off has Hashem appeared to me," (Yirmeyah 31:3) WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. The phrase, "and he saw the place" refers to Ya'akov, of whom it is written: "and he took of the stones of that place" (Beresheet 28:11). SO Avraham looked into the "third day," which is the third grade, NAMELY TIFERET, and there he saw Ya'akov, who was to issue from him. BUT "afar off" MEANS at some distant time, as we have already explained, rather than in the near future.

497. Rabbi Elazar said to him: What is Avraham praised for, as he already saw that Ya'akov was destined to issue from him? Since he was on his way to sacrifice Yitzchak, this cannot be such a great praise for him. THIS IS PARTICULARLY TRUE BECAUSE THIS MUST HAVE BROUGHT SOME DOUBT INTO HIS MIND ABOUT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. IF HE IS ABOUT TO OFFER HIM AS A SACRIFICE, HOW THEN WILL YA'AKOV BE BORN?

498. He said to him: It is certain that he saw Ya'akov, because even before THE SACRIFICE, Avraham had knowledge of wisdom. THIS MEANS THAT HE HAD ALREADY ATTAINED THE SUPERNAL MOCHIN THAT FLOW OVER THE THREE COLUMNS, THE THIRD COLUMN OF WHICH IS YA'AKOV. So now he looked into the "third day," which is the third grade, TIFERET, to draw perfection from it—THAT IS, TO COMPLETE HIS MOCHIN, BECAUSE PERFECTION CANNOT BE REACHED EXCEPT THROUGH THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Then THE SCRIPTURES SAY THAT he saw Ya'akov, as it is written: "and he saw the place," MEANING HE SAW THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS CALLED YA'AKOV. But this still remained "afar off" from him, AS HE COULD NOT ACHIEVE IT NOW. He was on his way to bind Yitzchak and did not wish to have any doubts about the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO TOLD HIM TO OFFER YITZCHAK AS A SACRIFICE. AND THEREFORE, HE DID NOT ACHIEVE THE CENTRAL COLUMN COMPLETELY, AS IS FURTHER EXPLAINED.

499. The words "afar off" MEAN THAT he only saw him through a clouded mirror, which is why he did not see him clearly. If the illuminating mirror had been over the opaque mirror, then Avraham would have grasped him properly, BUT THIS WAS NOT THE CASE. THUS, AVRAHAM SAW HIM only from "afar off."

495. בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁלִישִׁי וַיִּשָּׂא אַבְרָהָם אֶת עֵינָיו וַיִּרְא אֶת הַמָּקוֹם מֵרְחוֹק. בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁלִישִׁי, הָא אֹקְמוּהָ, אֵלָא, בֵּינָן דְּאַתְמָר, וַיִּקָּם וַיֵּלֶךְ אֶל הַמָּקוֹם אֲשֶׁר אָמַר לוֹ הָאֱלֹהִים, מֵאֵי טַעְמָא, בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁלִישִׁי וַיִּרְא אֶת הַמָּקוֹם מֵרְחוֹק. אֵלָא, בְּגִין דְּכַתִּיב, כִּי בִיִּצְחָק יִקְרָא לְךָ זָרַע. וְדָא הוּא יַעֲקֹב, דְּנִפְק מִנֵּיהּ. וְהָאֵי הוּא בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁלִישִׁי.

500. AND HE ASKS: Why did the clear shining mirror disappear? AND HE REPLIES: Because this is the grade of Ya'akov, and as Ya'akov was not yet born, his aspect was not yet present over this grade. Furthermore, it disappeared so that Avraham could go AND BIND HIS SON and receive his reward. SO ACCORDINGLY, "he saw the place afar off" MEANS THAT HE SAW Ya'akov, as is explained, "afar off," MEANING THAT he did not reach him.

501. The verse: "And they came to the place which the Elohim had told him of" (Beresheet 22:9) implies that even though he had the ability to "see" Ya'akov, Avraham said that the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO TOLD HIM TO BIND YITZCHAK, certainly knows another way to achieve this end. So immediately, "Avraham built an altar there," WHICH MEANS THAT EVEN THOUGH HE SAW THAT YITZCHAK WOULD BEAR YA'AKOV, HE HAD NO DOUBTS ABOUT THE COMMANDS OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. AND BECAUSE OF HIS TRUST IN THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, HE BUILT AN ALTAR.

502. But before this, it is written: "And Yitzchak spoke to Avraham his father, and said, 'My father...'" (Ibid. 7) which has already been explained. But why did he not reply to him at all? AND HE REPLIED: Because Avraham ceased to have the mercy of a father towards his son. INSTEAD, THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT CAME UPON HIM. THIS IS THE REASON WHY HE DID NOT ANSWER HIM THE FIRST TIME. Thus, it is written: "Here I am, my son." "Here I am," AS IF TO SAY--the Mercy has gone and changed into Judgment.

503. Note that it is written: "And Avraham said," rather than 'And his father said.' This is because he was no longer like a father; but had become an adversary. Of the verse: "Elohim will provide himself a lamb," HE SAID: It should have been written, 'will provide us' and not "Himself." AND HE REPLIES THAT he said to him: Elohim will provide for His own needs at the time when He shall need it. But now my son, and not the lamb, IS THE OFFERING. Immediately, it is written: "they went both of them together," WHICH MEANS THAT YITZCHAK FOLLOWED THE WILL OF HIS FATHER.

504. Rabbi Shimon began with the verse: "Behold, the mighty ones shall cry outside, ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly" (Yeshayah 33:7). In this verse, "the mighty ones (also: 'angels')" are the celestial angels who cried out at the time WHEN YITZCHAK WAS BOUND UPON THE ALTAR and wanted the Holy One, blessed be He, to remember and fulfill the promise in the verse, "And He took him outside," (Beresheet 15:5) WHICH ALLUDES TO THE BLESSING OF HIS OFFSPRING. Therefore, they "shall cry outside" IS WRITTEN.

505. "...ambassadors of peace" are other angels, who were destined to walk in front of Ya'akov. For Ya'akov's sake, the Holy One, blessed be He, promised them perfection, as it is written: "And Ya'akov went on his way, and the angels of Elohim met him" (Beresheet 32:2). These are called the 'Angels of Peace,' and they all wept as they saw Avraham binding Yitzchak. The upper and lower beings trembled and shook for the sake of Yitzchak.

504. רבי שמעון, פתח ואמר, הן אראלם צעקו חוצה מלאכי שלום מר יבכיון. הן אראלם, אליו מלאכי עלאי. צעקו בההיא שעתא, ובעו לקוימא, על ההיא מלה, דכתיב, ויוצא אותו החוצה. בגין כך, צעקו חוצה.

37. "Avraham, Avraham"

During the binding of Yitzchak, an angel calls out the name of Avraham twice. Kabbalistically, Isaac corresponds to man's negative and selfish desire to receive, the root of all egotistic and self-centered behavior. Avraham is a metaphor for the positive sharing attributes of man. Avraham's willingness to sacrifice his son Isaac, is a code signifying the complete subjugation of Avraham's negative desire to receive. The second utterance of Avraham's name by the angel indicates the complete transformation of Avraham's nature into the desire to share.

The Relevance of this Passage

Avraham's extraordinary actions and faith created a reservoir of spiritual energy for all future generations to draw upon in their effort to completely transform their nature. The change in Avraham's name and its appearance in this text of Zohar is the portal through which the energy flows. These metaphysical forces arouse an awareness of our own negative attributes and generates the desire and strength to subjugate our ego, transforming all our wanton desires into positive attributes that embody care and compassion for others.

506. "And the angel of Hashem called to him...AVRAHAM, AVRAHAM" (Beresheet 22:11). There is a disjunctive mark between the two Avrahams, WHICH MEANS THAT the second "Avraham" is not the same as the first. Avraham AFTER THE BINDING has achieved perfection, BECAUSE HE HAS BEEN INCLUDED WITH YITZCHAK, while the first "AVRAHAM" HAS not yet achieved perfection, BECAUSE HE WAS NOT YET INCLUDED WITHIN YITZCHAK. Similarly, "Shmuel, Shmuel" (I Shmuel 3:10) ALSO HAS A DISJUNCTIVE MARK BETWEEN THE TWO NAMES, WHICH MEANS THAT the latter is perfected while the first is not. WHY? BECAUSE the latter was already a prophet, while the former had not yet achieved that grade. But in "Moshe Moshe," (Shemot 3:4) there is no pause BETWEEN THE NAMES, because ever since the day Moshe was born, the Shechinah never left him. THUS, THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE LATTER AND THE FORMER. "Avraham, Avraham," Rabbi Chiya said. The reason WHY HE CALLED HIS NAME TWICE was to arouse him with a different spirit, a different action, and a different heart.

507. Rabbi Yehuda said: Yitzchak was purified and elevated properly before the Holy One, blessed be He, BY BEING BOUND UPON THE ALTAR, like the odor of the incense of spices which the priests offered before Him twice a day. Thus, the sacrifice was perfected AS IF IT WERE OFFERED AND BURNED AS A SWEET SAVOR BEFORE HASHEM. Avraham felt sorry when he was told: "Lay not your hand upon the lad, neither do anything to him," (Beresheet 22:12) BECAUSE he thought it meant that his offering was not perfect--that all his preparations and the building of the altar were in vain. But immediately, it is written: "And Avraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket" (Ibid. 13); AND HE OFFERED IT INSTEAD OF YITZCHAK, AND SO ACHIEVED PERFECTION.

508. We have learned that this ram was the one that was created at twilight (on Friday of Creation). But he was one year old, as it is written: "one he-lamb a year old" (Bemidbar 7:63). It was required FOR HIM TO BE ONE YEAR OLD, JUST AS THE DAILY OFFERING. If so, how can you say that the ram was born at twilight? AND HE REPLIES: It was predestined THEN, AT TWILIGHT ON SHABBAT EVE, that the ram would be at hand for Avraham when he should be in need of it. SO IT WAS REALLY BORN AT TWILIGHT, AND WHEN IT WAS ONE YEAR OLD, IT CHANCED UPON AVRAHAM. It was like all the other things created on Shabbat eve at twilight, WHICH MEANS THAT THEY WERE predestined to actually appear at the time of need. And so was that ram, which was sacrificed instead of Yitzchak.

38. "In all their affliction He was afflicted"

In the same way that a parent suffers when his or her child is hurting, the Zohar reveals that the Creator equally suffers when anyone in this world undergoes pain.

The Relevance of this Passage

The conventional religious view of the Creator is of a deity who metes out punishments and rewards. In reality, the Creator is an infinite force of sharing whose essence is only goodness, whose sole desire is to bestow unending pleasure upon the souls of man. The Creator neither punishes nor rewards. It is man's actions that determine which path to endless fulfillment he will journey. The gifts of the Torah and the Zohar were revealed so that man could choose the path of mercy and fulfillment. When we suffer or hurt, it is the inherent nature of the Creator to feel and experience this pain along with us. Awareness of this profound truth connects our soul to the Creator helping to quickly dissipate any darkness that is causing pain in our life. We create the consciousness that the Creator is always with us, feeling our pain whenever we hurt.

509. He opened the discussion with the verse: "In all their affliction He was (Heb. lo) afflicted, and the angel of His presence saved them" (Yeshayah 63:9). Come and behold: during the time when Yisrael are afflicted with troubles, "lo ('not')" is spelled with the letter Aleph, but pronounced "LO ('HE WAS')" with the letter Vav, because the Holy One, blessed be He, is distressed by their affliction. So lo with an Aleph, WHICH MEANS THAT HE WAS NOT DISTRESSED, refers to a higher place. Even though there is no sorrow or grief up there at the place DESCRIBED BY THE WORDS, "STRENGTH AND GLADNESS ARE IN HIS PLACE," (I DIVREI HAYAMIM 16:27) NEVERTHELESS, the afflictions of Yisrael reach this high place. The term "lo" with an Aleph is used similarly in "it is He that has made us and not (Heb. lo) ourselves," (Tehilim 100:3) where "lo" is written with an Aleph, but pronounced with a Vav, WHICH LITERALLY MEANS 'AND WE BELONG TO HIM (Heb. LO).'

510. Of the verse, "and the angel of His presence saved them," (Yeshayah 63:9) HE ASKED: But He is together with them in their affliction, AS THE BEGINNING OF THE VERSE STATES. Now you are saying that He "saved them." IF HE IS STILL TOGETHER WITH THEM IN THEIR AFFLICTION, THEN HE HAS NOT YET "SAVED THEM." AND HE REPLIES: It is not written, 'saves them,' but "saved them," IN THE PAST TENSE, meaning that they had already been saved. THIS MEANS THAT HE "SAVED THEM" by staying together with them in the same affliction and suffering with them. Come and behold: every time the children of Yisrael are in exile, the Shechinah is with them; this has already been explained, as it is written: "Then Hashem your Elohim will return your captivity, and have compassion upon you" (Devarim 30:3). THE VERSE 'WILL RETURN YOUR CAPTIVITY,' LITERALLY MEANS 'WILL RETURN' USING THE INTRANSITIVE, MEANING TO INFORM US THAT THE SHECHINAH IS WITH THEM IN EXILE NAMLY 'WILL SIT'.

511. A different explanation of the verse: "and the angel of His presence saved them" is that it refers to the Shechinah, which is with them in exile, AS IS STATED IN THE BEGINNING OF THE VERSE. You claim that He "saved them," BUT IF HE IS TOGETHER WITH THEM IN EXILE, THEN HE HAS NOT YET "SAVED THEM." AND HE REPLIES: IT is certainly true that the residing places of the Holy One, blessed be He, in exile are WHEREVER THE AFFLICTIONS OF YISRAEL ARE--MEANING THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, IS PRESENT IN EVERY SINGLE AFFLICTION AND SORROW BROUGHT UPON YISRAEL. And because the Shechinah resides with them, the Holy One, blessed be He, remembers to benefit them and draw them out of exile, as it is first written: "and I have remembered my covenant," (Shemot 6:5) WHICH REFERS TO THE SHECHINAH. Later, it is written: "and now, behold, the cry of the children of Yisrael has come to me" (Shemot 3:9). SO HE ACTUALLY "SAVED THEM" BY BEING WITH THEM IN THEIR AFFLICTION. AND EVEN THOUGH THE FORMER VERSE APPEARS AFTER THE LATTER, THERE IS NO CONTRADICTION HERE, BECAUSE THERE IS NO CHRONOLOGICAL SEQUENCE IN THE TORAH.

512. The phrase, "moreover I have seen" includes another 'seeing,' which is the first among all, as it is written: "And Elohim remembered His covenant," (Shemot 2:24) which is the Shechinah. THIS VERSE APPEARS BEFORE THE VERSE: "AND I HAVE REMEMBERED MY COVENANT...with (et) Avraham." HE ASKS: It should have been written 'REMEMBERED HIS COVENANT for Avraham's sake'? AND HE ANSWERS: "with Avraham" alludes to the unison and joining OF THE SHECHINAH with the Patriarchs, BECAUSE THE PARTICLE "ET", WRITTEN BEFORE "AVRAHAM", IS THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH. SO "with Avraham" means the Southwest, THAT IS, THE "EMBRACING" OF THE RIGHT, BECAUSE THE SOUTH IS THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT AND OF CHESED, WHICH IS AVRAHAM. THE WEST IS THE SECRET OF THE SHECHINAH, WHICH IS CALLED ET AND WHICH AVRAHAM 'EMBRACES' WITH CHASSADIM. "...with Yitzchak..." refers to the Northwest, NAMELY THE 'EMBRACING' OF THE LEFT, BECAUSE THE NORTH IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT AND OF GVURAH, WHICH IS CALLED YITZCHAK. AND THE WEST IS THE SECRET OF THE SHECHINAH, WHICH IS CALLED "ET" AND WHICH YITZCHAK 'EMBRACES' WITH HIS GEVUROT. "...and with Ya'akov..." means One Union, One Whole--a perfect and complete union, as should properly be. THIS ALLUDES TO THE MATING OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS CALLED YA'AKOV, WITH THE SHECHINAH, WHICH IS CALLED "ET." AND THE MATING CANNOT BE COMPLETED WITHOUT THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS YA'AKOV. SO WITH AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, THERE WAS ONLY 'EMBRACING'. THEREFORE, IT IS WRITTEN OF YA'AKOV: ONE UNION. THUS THE PHRASE "AND WITH (HEB. VE-ET) YA'AKOV" CONSISTS OF THEM BOTH, AS ONE WHOLE. SO THE EXTRA LETTER VAV IN "VE-ET" ALLUDES TO THE PERFECTION OF THIS MATING, WHICH IS A PERFECT AND COMPLETE MATING.

513. Similarly, IT IS WRITTEN: "(et) the heavens" (Beresheet 1:1), which is the quality of the night, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, with day, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. "...and the (ve'et) earth..." refers to the union of the quality of the day with THE QUALITY OF the night as one. THIS REFERS TO THE INCLUSION OF ZEIR ANPIN IN THE NUKVA, BECAUSE THE LETTER VAV IN "VE'ET ('AND THE')" ALLUDES TO UNION OF THE MALE WITH THE FEMALE. So the term "et" ('the')" appears in them all, AS IN WITH (ET) AVRAHAM AND WITH (ET) YITZCHAK. However, in reference to Ya'akov it is written: "and with (ve-et)," WHICH SHOWS THAT they are in complete unison, for the Male and Female never depart from each other. And the Holy One, blessed be He, in the future shall make His voice heard and announce to all the world, "For He said, Surely, they are My people, children that will not deal falsely; so He was their savior" (Yeshayah 63:8).

Blessed be Hashem for evermore. Amen and Amen.

1. "So they took up Yonah, and cast him into the sea"

Here Rabbi Yosi explains the hidden meaning of the biblical story of Yonah and the whale, and the nature of the symbols used in the story. We learn that the soul is judged each night while we sleep, and that this judgment is twofold. People are not judged according to the evil that they are destined to commit, but rather for the good that they have done and will go on to do. The question of whether The Creator takes pleasure in punishing the wicked is then raised. In answer, it is pointed out that all human beings have a predetermined amount of evil they are allowed to commit. Once this limit passed, there is pleasure at their demise.

The Relevance of this Passage

The universal law of cause and effect is deeply embedded into our reality. For every negative action there is an equal negative reaction. The concept of time, however, creates a separation between cause and effect in our physical world. When man commits a negative deed, time delays the inevitable consequences. Repercussions from wrongful actions appear at a later date, creating the illusion that these repercussions are random events. Our negative inclination then tempts us to point the finger of blame at God because the original cause--our negative action--is forgotten and hidden somewhere in the past. A reading of this section makes us more keenly aware of our actions and the judgments they invariably bring, arousing a stronger intention to ardently walk the path of righteousness.

1. "And Sarah's life was a hundred year and twenty year and seven years" (Bereshheet 23:1). Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse, "So they took up Yonah, and cast him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging" (Yonah 1:15). We have to examine this text carefully. Why did the sea rage upon Yonah and not the earth, NAMELY THE NUKVA CALLED EARTH? He was leaving the land, so that the Shechinah would not hover above him. IN OTHER WORDS, HE WAS RUNNING AWAY FROM THE LAND OF YISRAEL-FROM THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. If so, why did the sea seize him when he went away, AND NOT THE LAND FROM WHICH HE RAN?

1. וַיְהִי חַיֵּי שָׂרָה מֵאָה שָׁנָה וְעֶשְׂרִים שָׁנָה וְשִׁבְעֵי שָׁנִים. רַבִּי יוֹסִי, פָּתַח וְאָמַר, וַיִּשְׂאוּ אֶת יוֹנָה וַיִּטְלֶהוּ אֶל הַיָּם וַיַּעֲמֵד הַיָּם מִזְעָפוֹ. הֲבֵיא אֵיךְ לְאַסְתֵּבְלָהּ, מִט, אֶרְעִישָׁת יָמָא, עֲלֶיהָ דִּיּוֹנָה, וְלֹא אֶרְעִישָׁת עֲלֶיהָ אֶרְעָא, בֵּינּוֹן דִּהוּה אַזִּיל, בְּגִין דְּלֹא תִּשְׂרִי עֲלֶיהָ שְׂכִינְתָא, יָמָא אַמְאֵי אַחִיד בֵּיהּ, כַּד הוּה אַזִּיל.

2. RABBI YOSI ANSWERS THAT the verse was accurate, for the sea resembles the firmament, and the firmament resembles the throne of glory. For that reason, the sea grabbed him and received him in its midst. He was fleeing from the sea, NAMELY FROM THE PROPHECY THAT IS DRAWN FROM THE MOCHIN OF THE NUKVA, WHICH IS AN ASPECT OF THE SEA. THUS, THE SEA RAGED UPON HIM, NOT THE LAND. HE WAS CAST INTO THE SEA TO RETURN HIM TO THE PROPHECY FROM WHICH HE WAS FLEEING.

2. אֵלָא, וְדֵאֵי מְלָה בְּאַתְרֵיהּ הוּה. יָם, תַּנּוּן, יָם דְּמֵיָא לְרַקִּיעַ, וְרַקִּיעַ לְכֶסֶף הַכְּבוֹד, וּבְגִין כֵּן, יָמָא אַחִיד בֵּיהּ וְנִטַּל לִיהּ, מִקְמֵי יָמָא עָרְק.

3. "So they took up Yonah, and cast him into the sea." We learned that when they cast him into the sea and immersed him to his knees, the sea calmed. When they lifted him, the sea raged. The deeper they immersed him, the calmer the sea became, until he said, "Take me up, and cast me into the sea" (Yonah 1:12). Immediately, "they took up Yonah, and cast him into the sea."

3. וַיִּשְׂאוּ אֶת יוֹנָה וַיִּטְלֶהוּ אֶל הַיָּם. אוֹלִיפְנָא, כַּד הוּה נִטְלֵי לִיהּ וְטַבְעֵי יָרְכוּי בֵּימָא, הוּה יָמָא שְׂכִיךְ, זְקַפִּין לִיהּ, אֶתְרַעִישׁ יָמָא, כַּל מַה דְּטַבְעֵי לִיהּ, הֲכִי אֶשְׁתַּכִּיךְ יָמָא, עַד דְּאִיהוּ אָמַר, שְׂאוּנִי וְהִטִּילְנִי אֶל הַיָּם, מִיָּד וַיִּשְׂאוּ אֶת יוֹנָה וַיִּטְלֶהוּ אֶל הַיָּם.

4. When he was thrown into the sea, his soul soared and ascended to the King's throne to be judged. When his soul was returned to him, he entered the mouth of that fish, which died and later came back to life.

4. בֵּינּוֹן דְּאַתְרֵמֵי בֵּינָם פְּרַחַה מְנִיָּה נִשְׁמַתִּיהּ וְסַלְקָא עַד בְּרִסְיָא דְּמַלְכָא, וְאַתְדַּנַּת קְמִיָּה, וְאַתְדַּרְת לִיהּ נִשְׁמַתִּיהּ, וְעָל בְּפּוּמָא דִּהוּא נּוֹנָא, וּמִית נּוֹנָא לְבַתֵּר אֶתְקִינִים הוּא נּוֹנָא, וְאוֹקְמוּהּ.

5. Come and behold: When a man goes to sleep each night, his soul leaves him to be judged before the King's court. If it merits life, his soul is returned to this world.

5. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְּבֵר נִשׁ סְלִיךְ בְּעַרְסִיָּה, כַּל לִילֵיא וְלִילֵיא נִשְׁמַתִּיהּ נִפְקַת מְנִיָּה, וְאַתְדַּנַּת קְמִי בֵּי דִינָא דְּמַלְכָא, אִי זְכָאָה לְאַתְקִינֵימָא, אֶתְהַדְרַת לְהֵאֵי עֲלֵמָא.

6. The judgement is twofold, for man is not judged for the evil he is destined to commit. "For Elohim has heard the voice of the lad where he is" (Beresheet 21:17) is written, NOT IN THE FUTURE TENSE. You should not say that man is judged only for the good he has already done, rather he is rewarded for his present good as was said above, and he is also judged for the good he will do in the future. He is saved for their sake, as they said, even though he is now wicked. The Holy One, blessed be He, does good with all people and does everything to benefit all, therefore He does not sentence man for the evil he is about to do. Hence, man is judged before the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO KNOWS THE FUTURE.

7. Come and behold. Once they cast Yonah into the sea, it is written: "And the sea ceased (lit. 'stood') from its raging." THIS IS the supernal sea, THE NUKVA. It stood where it was, for when anger calms down, it stands. When judgement is passed upon the world, that court, NAMELY THE NUKVA, is like a pregnant woman experiencing severe labor pains. When she gives birth, the panic ceases. Similarly, when judgement is passed upon the world, it does not calm or rest until justice is administered to the wicked. Then it rests, wholly standing in its place and perfectly maintained. This is what the verse meant by the words: "But when the wicked perish, there is jubilation" (Mishlei 11:10). This has already been explained.

8. HE THEN ASKS ABOUT THE VERSE, "But when the wicked perish, there is jubilation." Is it not written, "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die" (Yechezkel 18:23)? This would mean that there is no pleasure for the Holy One, blessed be He, when judgement is administered to the wicked. HE ANSWERS, Before their measure was filled, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, DID NOT HAVE PLEASURE THAT THE WICKED SHOULD DIE. But now, after the measure is full, "WHEN THE WICKED PERISH, THERE IS JUBILATION."

6. וְדִינָא הוּא בְּתָרִין גּוֹנוּן, דְּהָא לֹא דִינִין לִיה לְבַר נֶשׁ, עַל בּוֹשֵׁין דְּאִיהוּ עֲתִיד וְזִמִּין לְמַעְבַּד, דְּכִתּוּב בִּי שְׁמַע אֱלֹהִים וּגו' בְּאִשְׁרֵי הוּא שָׁם. וְלֹא תִימָא, דְּדִנִּין לִיה עַל טְבִין דְּעָבִיד לְחוּד, אֲלֵא לְאוֹטְבָא לִיה עַל אִינוּן טְבִין דְּהִשְׁתָּא, כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר, וְדִנִּין לִיה עַל זְכוּיִן דְּאִיהוּ זִמִּין לְמַעְבַּד, וּבְגִינִייהוּ אֲשִׁתְּזִיב, אַע"ג דְּאִיהוּ הִשְׁתָּא חַיִּיבָא. בְּגִין דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עָבִיד טִיבוּ, עִם כָּל בְּרִיין, וְכָל אֲרַחוּי דְּאִיהוּ עָבִיד, לְאוֹטְבָא לְכֻלָּא, וְלֹא דְאִין לְב"נ, עַל בּוֹשֵׁין דְּאִיהוּ זִמִּין לְמַעְבַּד, וּבְגִין כֶּן אִתְדִן בְּר נֶשׁ, קִמֵי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא.

7. תָּא חַזִי, כִּינִין דְּאִטְלוּ לִיה לִיוֹנָה בְּיָמָא, מַה כְּתִיב, וַיַּעֲמֵד הַיָּם מִזְעַפּוֹ. הַיָּם עֲלָא, מֵאִי וַיַּעֲמֵד, דְּקָאִים בְּקִיּוּמִיהּ, בְּדָקָא יָאוּת, בְּעַמִּידָהּ אִיהוּ, בְּדִינָא שְׂכִיךְ, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּדִינָא שְׂרִיא בְּעֵלְמָא, הַהוּא בִּי דִינָא, אִיהוּ כְּאִתְתָּא דְּמִתְעַבְרָא, וְקִשְׂיָא לְאוֹלְדָא, וְכִד אֹלִידַת שְׂכִיךְ רֹגְזָא. הֵכִי נְמִי, בְּדִינָא שְׂרִיא בְּעֵלְמָא לֹא שְׂכִיךְ וְלֹא נַח, עַד דְּאִתְעַבִּיד דִּינָא בְּחַיִּיבָא, כְּדִין הוּא נִיחָא דִּילִיה, לְמִיקָם בְּדוּכְתָא שְׁלִים, וְלְמִיקָם בְּקִיּוּמִיהּ, הַה"ד וּבְאַבְד רְשָׁעִים רְנָה. וְהָא אוֹקְמוּהּ.

8. בְּאַבְד רְשָׁעִים רְנָה. וְהִכְתִּיב הַחֲפֵץ אַחֲפֵץ מוֹת הַרְשָׁע. וְהָא לִית נִיחָא קִמֵי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּדִינָא אִתְעַבִּיד דִּינָא בְּרִשְׁוִיעֵינָא. אֲלֵא, כְּאִן קוּדְשָׁא דְּאִשְׁתְּלִים קִיסְטָא, כְּאִן לְבַתְר דְּאִשְׁתְּלִים קִיסְטָא.

2. And Dumah rises, and receives the reckoning

The Zohar describes disturbing details concerning the fate awaiting the wicked at the time of the Resurrection of the Dead, emphasizing the urgent need for all of us to replace our bad deeds with good ones immediately.

The Relevance of this Passage

Intellectual blockages in our consciousness prevent us from completely accepting and beholding the truth of the World To Come and the gravity of our erring actions. Though we might accept the notion of a Creator and other spiritual principles on a purely intellectual level, internalizing and living these truths is a much more difficult task, and the basis of our spiritual work. The intent of this passage is to remove impediments and doubts, opening our eyes to spiritual truths and stimulating greater awareness. As we become more devout in our pursuit of righteousness, replacing the bad we have done in this world becomes an intrinsic part of our nature. And this process is furthered by the Light emanating from this portion.

Tosefta (Addendum)

9. "And Sarah's life was..." The body of the Mishnah, NAMELY ITS ESSENCE, WAS LONG AND IS NOW ABRIDGED. We, WHO ARE VERSED IN THE MISHNAH, were close TO THE INNER SIDE OF THE GRADE and heard a voice that travels down from above and expands throughout the world. This voice uproots mountains and smashes strong rocks, NAMELY ITS ILLUMINATION UPROOTS AND SMASHES ALL THE KLIPOT. Great spirits rise, and ears are open.

10. As THE VOICE TRAVELS TO THREE PLACES, it says: cut off a portion, how the still ones, who are still sleeping, maintain their guard and stand in position. The king, NUKVA, guards the gates, as the ruler over many armies stands by his post.

11. Nobody notices or knows that the book is open, and is written in by a name, and Dumah rises to receive the reckoning. The dwellers of dust, NAMELY THE WICKED, go back outside. The good part, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, THAT IS YESOD, WHICH IS CALLED GOOD APPROCHES, to be counted among them, but they do not wish for rolling and reversing.

12. BECAUSE THEY DO NOT WANT THE ROLLING AND REVERSING, they fall and do not come back to life. THUS, the wicked are wiped from the book of Dumah. Who then shall claim them AT THE TIME OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD, AS IT IS SAID THAT AT THE TIME OF THE RESURRECTION, THE ANGEL MATATRON WILL RECEIVE A NOTE AT THE CEMETERIES FROM DUMAH. BUT WHO WILL CLAIM THOSE WICKED WHO ARE NOT ACCOUNTED FOR IN THE RECKONING OF DUMAH AT THE RESURRECTION? And who will care for their accounts? THIS ALLUDES TO THE HARSH KLIPAH NAMED "SICHON," WHO DOES THE RECKONING AND CORRESPONDS TO "DUMAH", FOR "DUMAH" MEANS SILENCE, WHILE "SICHON" MEANS CONVERSATION OR TALKING. Woe to them, woe to their lives, woe to their pains. For them, the verse says: "Let them be blotted out of the Book of the Living" (Tehilim 69:29).

3. "He who tills a field is a king"

There is a hidden meaning in the mention of Sarah's exact life span in the Torah, for such details are given for no other women--nor does any other woman have a portion of the scriptures devoted to her name, as Sarah does. The symbols employed by passages concerning Sarah are pointed out and explained, along with the meaning of various statements that cannot be unlocked without the key of Kabbalah. We learn that, like Avraham, Sarah did not in any way cling to negative inclinations. This earned supernal life for herself, her husband, and later, her son.

The Relevance of this Passage

Man, on his own, does not possess the inner power necessary to eradicate the dark side of his nature. Scriptural giants like Avraham and Sarah, however, are generators of such spiritual forces. Their existence in this physical realm and their presence in the Torah, serve as a wellspring of this energy, from which all generations can draw. Sarah's grace and godliness, together with the energy of supernal life, reach us through the medium of the Aramaic words comprising this passage.

13. "And Sarah's life was...": HE ASKS: Of all the women in the world, Why is Sarah the only one whose death is mentioned in Torah? Rabbi Chiya answered, This is not so, for it is written: "And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Efrat" (Bereshheet 35:19), "and Miriam died there" (Bemidbar 20:1), "and D'vorah, Rivkah's nurse, died" (Bereshheet 35:8), and "the daughter of Shua, Yehuda's wife died" (Bereshheet 38:12). THE DEATH OF MANY WOMEN IS MENTIONED IN THE TORAH.

13. ויהיו חיי שרה. מאי שנא הכא שרה, דכתיב מיתתה באורייתא, מכל נשי דעלמא, דלא כתיב הכי מיתתהון באורייתא. אמר רבי חייא, ולא, והכתיב ותמת רחל ותקבר בדרך אפרתה. וכתיב ותמת שם מרים וגו'. וכתיב, ותמת דבורה מינקת רבקה. וכתיב ותמת בת שוע אשת יהודה.

14. Rabbi Yosi responded: But it is not written of them as it is written of Sarah, of whom it is said, "And Sarah's life was a hundred and twenty seven years old: these were the years of Sarah's life" (Beresheet 23:1). No other woman's days and years were specified as they were for Sarah. Furthermore, none of them has a portion of the scriptures devoted to them, as does Sarah. There is an esoteric reason for this. IN THE SCRIPTURES, SARAH'S DAYS AND YEARS ARE SPECIFIED, but the secret is that the days and years of all men depend on this grade. THIS MEANS THAT THE MOCHIN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LIFE SPAN OF SARAH, IS ALLUDED TO IN THE NUMBER "127 YEARS." FROM THIS, THE LIFE SPAN OF MAN IS ALSO DRAWN.

15. He opened with the verse, "Moreover, land has an advantage for everyone: he who tills a field is a king" (Kohelet 5:8). "Moreover, land has an advantage" IS THE NUKVA "for everyone." Certainly, THIS IS THE SECRET OF YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED "All" (Heb. kol). Because FROM YESOD emanate spirits and souls and goods to the world. Of the verse, "He who tills a field is a king," IT IS ASKED, Who is the king? He is the Holy One, blessed be He, who "tills a field" when it is properly cultivated. The King is the supernal King, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, who is joined to the field when it is tilled. IT IS ASKED, What is the field? This is a field which Hashem has blessed, NAMELY THE NUKVA, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "Like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed" (Beresheet 27:27). For when it is tilled and cultivated properly, the supernal King, ZEIR ANPIN, unites with it.

16. Rabbi Elazar asks: How many mysteries are alluded to in the verse, "He who tills a field is a king"! A king is the Shechinah, which only dwells in a man's house when he is married and mates with his wife to beget children and bear fruit. And she, THE SHECHINAH, brings out souls to dwell in her, which is why THE SHECHINAH IS CONNECTED only to a tilled field.

17. Another explanation: A king is "a woman who fears Hashem," as it is written: "A woman who fears Hashem, she shall be praised" (Mishlei 31:30). THIS IS THE SHECHINAH. A tilled field is a strange woman, NAMELY THE OTHER SIDE, as it is written: "That they may keep you from the strange woman" (Mishlei 7:5). For there is a field, and there is a field. There is a field in which all blessings and holiness dwell, as it is written: "Like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed," NAMELY THE SHECHINAH. And there is a field, in which destruction and defilement, extinction, killings and war reside, NAMELY THE OTHER SIDE. This king, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH, sometimes tills the second field, THE OTHER SIDE, as it is written: "For three things the earth is disquieted...and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress" (Mishlei 30:21). IN THIS CASE, HEAVEN FORBID, THE FIELD OF THE OTHER SIDE INHERITS THE SHECHINAH, AND THE LIGHT OF THE SHECHINAH is covered and darkened until it is purified and joins ZEIR ANPIN above.

18. This is the purpose of offering the goat on the first day of the month, when no blessings dwell upon the second field, THE OTHER SIDE, as it is separated from the holy king, THE SHECHINAH. When that field is tilled FOR THE OTHER SIDE, then it is written: "For he found her in the field, AND THE BETROTHED MAIDEN CRIED OUT, BUT THERE WAS NONE TO SAVE HER" (Devarim 22:27), the field is THE OTHER SIDE, as has been explained.

19. Come and behold: Chavah came into the world and clung to the serpent. He injected impurities into her, and she brought death to the world and to her husband. Sarah then came and went down INTO THE PLACE OF THE OTHER SIDE, BUT she rose again without any KLIPOT clinging to her, as it is written: "And Avram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had" (Beresheet 13:1). When Noach came to the world, it is written that "he drank of the wine, and was drunk, and he was uncovered within his tent" (Beresheet 9:21).

20. Because Avraham and Sarah did not cling to THE OTHER SIDE, Sarah earned supernal life for herself, her husband, and her son after her. This is the meaning of the verse: "Look at the rock whence you are hewn [AVRAHAM], and to the hole of the pit from which you were dug out [SARAH]" (Yeshayah 51:1). Therefore, it is written: "And Sarah's life was..." , for she merited all THE YEARS. It is not so for the rest of the women, FOR IT IS NOT WRITTEN: "And Chavah's life was..." and so on. Sarah clung to life. Therefore, her life was her own.

4. He who is small and he who is great

The inner meaning of Sarah's age, as cited in the Torah, relates to the importance of approaching life with reverence and humility--for The Creator delights in those who transcend pride and self-interest, raising them in stature, whereas He diminishes those who inflate themselves with self-importance and vanity. Greatness in the world above is attained by behaving with humility and selflessness here in the physical realm.

The Relevance of this Passage

When people succumb to the demands of their ego, preoccupying themselves with affairs in the material world, they receive immediate, but short-lived gratification and rewards. Their self-love deepens and their hearts harden. In contrast, spiritual accomplishments do not gratify the ego. For this reason, humility and selflessness are more difficult to kindle, though their rewards are far greater and long-lasting. Kabbalah teaches that the eternal World To Come is not somewhere in the future, but is readily attainable here and now, according to our degree of spiritual transformation. A reading of this section helps us to resist pride and arrogance by raising our awareness of their consequences in the physical and spiritual realms. Tosefta (Addendum)

21. Happy is he who makes less of himself in this world. How great and high he is in the eternal world. The head of the Yeshivah spoke to that effect, saying that whoever is small IN THIS WORLD is great IN THE ETERNAL WORLD. He who is great IN THIS WORLD is small IN THE ETERNAL WORLD, as it is written: "And Sarah's life was a hundred year..." A hundred, which is a large number, is followed by the word "year", FOR IT IS LESSENER TO A YEAR. Seven, WHICH IS A SMALL NUMBER, was greatly increased, for it is followed by the word "years." Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, only makes greater the person who lessens himself. He diminishes only the person who makes himself great. Happy is he who diminishes himself in this world. How great he is above in the eternal world. End of Tosefta (Addendum)

. "And Sarah's life"

Sarah's life is connected to the Mochin [another term for Spiritual Light] and the secret of Ten Sfirot that are contained within the dimension of Binah. The number 37 appears frequently here. This was Yitzchak's age at the time of his binding, for example, and it was because of his binding that Sarah died. The Angel of Death appeared before Sarah and told her that Avraham was about to sacrifice their son. These events convey the various levels of spiritual Light that Sarah's life revealed in this world.

The Relevance of this Passage

The metaphysical forces embodied by Sarah are instilled within us through thoughtful meditation upon these verses.

23. "And Sarah's life was..." All this life is above IN BINAH. A hundred year REFERS TO KETER above. "Twenty year" IS CHOCHMAH AND BINAH above. The seven years ARE THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT above. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE FIRST THREE AND THE LOWER SEVEN SFIROT OF BINAH, WHERE SARAH RECEIVED LIFE, WHICH IS MOCHIN. Rabbi Shimon said, Come and look at the secret of all this. Why is the number seven followed by the word "years", while all other numbers are followed by the word "year"?

24. The "hundred year" includes everything, NAMELY KETER, WHICH INCLUDES ALL TEN SFIROT. EACH SFIRAH COMPRISES TEN, AND TOGETHER THEY COMPRISE ONE HUNDRED. For there is included the highest and most secret place of all, WHICH IS ARICH ANPIN, with the hundred daily benedictions, MEANING THAT IT DAILY GIVES THE ABUNDANCE OF A HUNDRED BENEDICTIONS UPON MALCHUT FROM THE HUNDRED SFIROT IN IT. ARICH ANPIN IS THE SECRET OF KETER OF ATZILUT. Also, the "twenty year," WHICH ARE CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, INCLUDE ARICH ANPIN, the most concealed of all. For that reason, it is written "year" IN THE SINGULAR, which is the secret of unison, for a thought and a jubilee (Heb. yovel). THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH AND BINAH never separate from each other, AS THE FIRST THREE SFIROT ARE JOINED TO EACH OTHER AS ONE.

24. אָלָא מֵאָה שְׁנָה, כְּלָלָא דְכֻלָּא תַּמּוֹן, דְאֵתְבַלְלִיל אַתְרַּ עֲלָאָה, כְּלָא בְּחֻדָּא, בְּרְזָא דְמֵאָה בְּרַכָּאָן, בְּכַל יוֹמָא. וְכֵן עֶשְׂרִים שְׁנָה, דְאֵתְבַלְלִיל עֲלָאָה סְתִימָא דְכָל סְתִימִין, וּבְגִין כֵּן כְּתִיב שְׁנָה רְזָא דִּיחֻדָּא, דְלֵא אֲתַפְרֵשׁ מַחֲשָׁבָה וְיֻבְלָא לְעֵלְמִין.

25. But the seven years, WHICH ARE THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT OF BINAH, are separated from each other and from that which is hidden above, ARICH ANPIN. Although everything is united and all are equal, THE LOWER SEVEN pertain to Judgement and Mercy in many aspects and paths. This is not so IN THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF BINAH, FOR ARICH ANPIN IS ENCLOSED IN THEM above THE CHEST, WHERE THERE IS NO JUDGEMENT AT ALL. For that reason, it is WRITTEN "SEVEN YEARS" AND NOT 'SEVEN year', AS WITH THE FIRST THREE SFIROT. THE WHOLE TEN SFIROT, THE FIRST THREE AND LOWER SEVEN, are called life. Therefore it is written: "And Sarah's life was...", for it existed. It was created substantively and existed above, IN THE TEN SFIROT OF BINAH.

25. שְׁבַע שְׁנִים: אֵלִין אֲתַפְרֵשׁ, וְנִפְקָאן מְכֻלָּא סְתִימָאָה דְלְעֵילָא. וְאַף עַל גְּבֻדְכֻלָּא יְחֻדָּא חֻדָּא, אֲבַל מִתַּפְרֵשׁ, בְּדִינָא וְרַחֲמִי, בְּכַמָּה סְטֵרִין וְאוּרְחִין, מַה דְלֵא הָוִי הֵכִי לְעֵילָא. וּבְגִין כֵּן כְּתִיב שְׁנָה, רְזָא דִּיחֻדָּא, דְלֵא אֲתַפְרֵשׁ לְעֵלְמִין. וְכֻלְהוּ אֶקְרוּן חַיִּים, וְיֵהִיו חַיִּי שְׁרָה, דְהוּוּ מִמֶּשׁ, דְאֵתְבַרְיָאוּ וְאֵתְקִימוּ לְעֵילָא.

26. Rabbi Chiya said that it has been explained WHY THE DEATH OF SARAH IS WRITTEN RATHER THAN THAT OF THE OTHER WOMEN. Yitzchak was 37 years old when he was bound, and because he was bound, Sarah died, as is written: "And Avraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her" (Beresheet 23:2). From where did he come? From mount Moriyah, where he was binding Yitzchak. The 37 years from the time that Yitzchak was born until the time he was bound were the life of Sarah, for "vayihyu (was)" is 37 years in numerical value--the years from Yitzchak's birth to his binding. IN ORDER TO MENTION THIS, SARAH'S DEATH IS MENTIONED IN THE TORAH.

26. אָמַר רַבִּי חִיָּיא, הָא אֻקְמוּהָ, דְהָא כִּד אֲתַעְקֵד יִצְחָק, בַּר תְּלַתִּין וְשִׁבְעַ שְׁנִין הוּהוּ, וְכִיּוֹן דְאֲתַעְקֵד יִצְחָק, מִיַּתַּת שָׂרָה, דְכָתִיב וַיָּבֵא אַבְרָהָם לְסַפֵּר לְשָׂרָה וּלְבַכְתָּהּ. מֵאִין בָּא, מֵהַר הַמּוֹרְיָה, בָּא מִלְמַעְקֵד לִיּוֹה לִיצְחָק, וְאִינּוֹן תְּלַתִּין וְשִׁבְעַ שְׁנִין, מִיּוֹמָא דְאֲתִיּוּלִיד יִצְחָק, עַד שְׁעֵתָא דְאֲתַעְקֵד, אִינּוֹן הוּוּ חִיָּי שָׂרָה וְדַאי, כְּחוּשְׁבָן וַיְהִי, בְּגִימְטְרִי"א תְּלַתִּין וְשִׁבְעַ שְׁנִין הוּוּ, כְּמָה דְאֲתַמַּר, מִדְּאֲתִיּוּלִיד יִצְחָק עַד דְאֲתַעְקֵד.

6. "And the cows took the straight way"

The meaning of this difficult scriptural passage is expounded by Rabbi Yosi. We learn that while they carried the Ark, the cows were able to sing--although this gift vanished as soon as they no longer performed this work. Rabbi Chiya explains that a psalm of David referring to a "new song", refers to a time when the psalm or Holy Spirit or Nukva--that is, our physical world, also known as Malchut--will glow with the light of the sun, which itself is a coded reference to the concept of Mashiach. It is after this that the Resurrection of the Dead takes place, a time when the world will be renewed and set free from death's rule.

The Relevance of this Passage

A cow is both a metaphor and physical expression of an intense desire to receive. In view of this, cows are seen as powerful tools for attracting spiritual energy. Thus, red meat is a recommended dish for the first meal of the Shabbat, since the internal energy of the meat serves to draw down the Light of the Creator. The Torah's parchment, which functions as an antenna to arouse metaphysical forces, is produced from the skin of a calf. The Zohar, therefore, uses the cow as a symbol for man's own insatiable desire to receive for the self alone--and the image of a singing cow reveals a creature rising above its inborn nature. This power emerged the moment the cows began transporting the Ark and the scrolls contained inside. Here the Zohar alludes to the Torah's ability to help overcome innate immoral tendencies and self-seeking desires. When mankind has completely removed all his Evil Inclinations, death will be removed from the landscape of human existence. World peace and fulfillment will be eternally achieved, signified by the Zohar's reference to the light of the sun, which represents Mashiach. An ability to hasten a personal and global redemption is awarded to us by means of these verses and their corresponding spiritual influences. We remove the force of death from our lives. Bear in mind the fact that "death" can refer to the demise of a business, the end of an important relationship, or the collapse of our emotional well-being.

27. Rabbi Yosi began with the verse, "A psalm, O sing (Heb. shiru) to Hashem a new song; for He has done marvelous things: His right hand, and his holy arm have gained Him the victory" (Tehilim 98:1). The friends explained that this was said by cows, as it is written: "And the cows took the straight way (Heb. vayisharnah)" (I Shmuel 6:12). The word "vayisharnah" also means that they sang (Heb. sharu) a new song. What new song? "A psalm. O sing to Hashem a new song."

27. רַבִּי יוֹסִי פָתַח, מִזְמוֹר שִׁירוּ לַה' שִׁיר חֲדָשׁ כִּי נִפְלְאוֹת עָשָׂה הוֹשִׁיעָה לּוֹ יְמִינוּ וְזִרְעֵ קִדְשׁוֹ. הָאִי קָרָא, אֻקְמוּהָ חֲבֵרִיא, דְּפִרוֹת אֲמַרְוּהָ. כְּמָה דְכָתִיב וַיִּשְׂרְנָה הַפָּרוֹת בְּדֶרֶךְ. מֵאִי וַיִּשְׂרְנָה, דְהוּוּ אֲמַרִי שִׁירְתָא חֲדָתָא. וְמֵאִי שִׁירָה אֲמַרוּ. מִזְמוֹר שִׁירוּ לַה' שִׁיר חֲדָשׁ כִּי נִפְלְאוֹת עָשָׂה.

28. We should examine this verse carefully. Everything that the Holy One, blessed be He, created in the world offers praises and songs to Him, either above or below. If you thus say THAT THE COWS sang this song, it is assuredly so, for there is a deep secret here. When they carried the Ark, they sang, but once the Ark was taken from them, they again behaved like other cows in the world and did not sing. Surely, the Ark above them made them sing.

28. הֵכָא אֵיִת לְאַסְתַּבְּלָא, דְכָל מַה דְבִרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא בְּעֵלְמָא, כְּלֵהוּ אֲמַרִי תּוֹשְׁבָחוֹן וְשִׁירְתָא קָמִיָה, בֵּין לְעֵילָא בֵּין לְתַתָּא, וְאִי תִימָא, דְאִינְהוּ מְגַרְמִיָהוּ אֲמַרִי שִׁירְתָא דָא, הֵכִי הוּא וְדַאי, דְרָזָא עֲלָאָה אִיְהוּ, אֲבַל הֵינִי, אַרְוֵנָא הוּהוּ עַל גְּבִיָהוּ, וְכִיּוֹן דְאַרְוֵנָא אֲשַׁתְּקִיל עֲלֵיָהוּ, וְשׁוּוּהָ לְעֵילָא, אִינּוֹן שְׁרִירוּ שִׁירְתָא, דְהָא בֵּין דְאֲתַנְטִיל מְנִיָהוּ אַרְוֵנָא, הוּוּ גַעְאֵן, כְּאֹרַח שְׁאָר פְּרוֹת דְעֵלְמָא, וְלֹא אֲמַרוּ שִׁירְתָא, וְדַאי אַרְוֵנָא דְעַל גְּבִיָהוּ עֲבִיד לוֹן לְזַמְרָא.

29. IT IS WRITTEN: "A psalm" unlike other places, where it is written: 'A psalm of David' or 'David's psalm.' Here David is not mentioned at all, just "a psalm." This is because the Holy Spirit is destined to sing it, when the Holy One, blessed be He, raises the children of Yisrael from the dust. THEREFORE, DAVID IS NOT MENTIONED HERE. Then "O sing to Hashem a new song", for this is a new song that has not been sung since the world was created.

30. Rabbi Chiya said that it is written: "There is nothing new under the sun" (Kohelet 1:9), but lo, this song is new and under the sun, for it will be under the sun. What is this NEW SONG? It is the moon, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. For then the moon will be new under the sun, MEANING THAT ITS LIGHT WILL BECOME AGAIN LIKE THE LIGHT OF THE SUN, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. What is meant by the phrase: "IT WILL BE NEW UNDER THE SUN?" IT IS THE MEANING OF THE VERSE: "For He has done marvelous things." What are these marvelous things? They are "His right hand, and His holy arm have gained Him the victory." THIS IS THE SECRET OF HIS RIGHT AND LEFT HANDS, CHESED AND GVURAH, "have gained Him the victory." For whom did they gain victory? For the grade that sang this song, THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. THE NUKVA was supported by right and left, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "HAVE GAINED HIM THE VICTORY." Therefore "His right hand...gained Him victory," the grade called psalm, NAMELY THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, WHOSE LIGHT WILL BE AS THE LIGHT OF THE SUN. When will that be? When the dead of the world rise from the dust, then what has not yet been done in the world will be new.

31. Rabbi Yosi said, When the Holy One, blessed be He, takes revenge on the world for Yisrael, He will sing this new song, NAMELY AT THE COMING OF MASHIACH, WHICH IS NOT THE TIME OF RESURRECTION. For after THE COMING OF MASHIACH, the dead of the world will rise from the dust and the world will be completely renewed. It will be different in that death will not rule the world, as it had since the serpent brought death to all, defiled the world, and darkened the faces of men.

7. "And I will put enmity between you and the woman"

This troublesome phrase, uttered by The Creator in the Garden of Eden, refers to the unbridgeable gulf between the godly and the godless of this world, which will never be made whole as long as the serpent of death retains his power. We also learn how seven of the Sfirot create and sustain the days of man. In spite of all the misery they cause, the wicked are ultimately erased, as if they never existed, while the righteous enjoy eternal life. The Relevance of this Passage

Without the Light of the Zohar, the inner meaning of the Torah remains obscured by confusion and misunderstanding. The work of deciphering the language of the Torah is itself a step toward spiritual growth. By endeavoring to comprehend the Torah's mysteries, we earn spiritual Light and fulfillment. In particular, the Zohar clarifies the significance of women in Torah, whose meaning is always spiritual and never merely literal. Thus, the term man refers to the upper spiritual realm and the desire to share, while woman denotes our physical realm and the desire to receive. Spiritual Light arising from the upper world can only illuminate our lower world when our Evil Inclination--termed 'the serpent of death'--is conquered and our character transformed. Man's evil tendencies are the lifeblood of the serpent. As long as our negative aspects remain within us, the Angel of Death will prevail over our physical existence. We must learn to loathe our Evil Inclination; to have enmity for our own desire to receive for the self alone. In this particular passage we acquire strength for building a deep aversion toward these negative traits.

32. Come and behold: It is written, "And I will put enmity between you and the woman..." (Beresheet 3:15). HE ASKS, What is enmity (Heb. eyvah)? He replied that it is as written: "They pass away with swift (Heb. eveh) ships" (Iyov 9:26), for among the ships sailing in the great sea, some, called enemy ships, are the ships of the serpent sailing amongst them.

29. מְזִמּוֹר. הָא אֹקִימָנָא וְאִתְמַר בְּכֻלָּא כְּתִיב, מְזִמּוֹר לְדוֹד, אוּ לְדוֹד מְזִמּוֹר, וְהִכָּא לֹא אָמַר דּוֹד בְּלָל, אֲלֵא מְזִמּוֹר. דְּרוּחַ קוּדְשָׁא, זְמִין לְזַמְרָא לֵיהּ לְזַמְנָא דְיוֹקִים קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְיִשְׂרָאֵל מַעְפְּרָא, וְכַדִּין שִׁירוּ לֵה' שִׁיר חֲדָשׁ, כְּדִין אִיהוּ חֲדָשׁ, דְּהָא שִׁירְתָּא כְּהָא, לֹא אִתְמַר מִיּוֹמָא דְאַתְבְּרִי עֲלֵמָא.

32. תָּא חֲזוּי, כְּתִיב וְאִיבָה אֲשִׁית בֵּינְךָ וּבֵין הָאֲשָׁה, מַאי וְאִיבָה, כְּדְכְּתִיב חֲלַפּוּ עִם אֲנִיּוֹת אָבָה. דְּהָא כְּמַה אַרְבִּין שְׁטָאן גּוֹ יְמָא רַבָּא, וְאִית אַרְבִּין וּסְפִינָן, מִתְפַּרְשֵׁן דָּא מִן דָּא, וְאֵינּוּן אַרְבִּין דְּהָאִי נְחָשׁ שְׂאֵט בְּגִוּוּיָהּ, אַקְרוּן אֲנִיּוֹת אָבָה.

33. The phrase "between you and the woman" refers to "the woman who fears Hashem" (Mishlei 31:30), MALCHUT. The words "and between your seed" refer to the rest of the heathen nations, THE SEED OF THE SERPENT, WHILE "and her seed", namely Yisrael, MEANS THE SEED OF MALCHUT. "He shall bruise your head" is a reference to the Holy One, blessed be He, who will remove the serpent from the world, as it is written: "He will destroy death forever" (Yeshayah: 25:8) and "also I will cause...the unclean spirit to pass out of the land" (Zecharyah 13:2).

34. The word "head" means in the future when the dead will live, for then the world will be maintained by the head. THAT MEANS THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, THE SUPERNAL WORLD, WILL SHINE UPON IT. "and you shall bruise his heel" means now in this world, before all is perfected. The world is not whole as long as the serpent bites the world and darkens the faces of the people.

35. Come and behold: The days of man were created and sustained by the supernal grades, NAMELY THE SEVEN SFIROT-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT. Once they do not exist by these grades, as it is written: "The days of our years are seventy" (Tehilim 90:10), there is no other grade by which to be maintained. THE NUMBER 70 CORRESPONDS TO THE SEVEN SFIROT, EACH COMPRISING TEN. For this reason, "their pride is but trouble and wretchedness" (Zecharyah 13:2.), and then it is as if they never existed.

36. But the days of the righteous are eternal. THEY LIVE LONGER THAN SEVENTY YEARS BECAUSE THEY RECEIVE FROM THE SUPERNAL MAZAL, WHICH ADDS LIFE OVER SEVENTY YEARS, AS MUCH AS THEY WANT. This is as written: "And Sarah's life was..." and "these are the days of the years of Avraham's life which he lived" (Bereshheet 25:7). If you say it is also written of Yishmael: "And these are the years of the life of Yishmael" (Zecharyah 13:17), ALTHOUGH HE WAS NOT RIGHTEOUS this is only because he repented. Therefore, it is written "these are" of his days AS OF AVRAHAM.

8. "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh"

Here we learn how the three prayers recited by a traveler can be embodied in one blessing. Then Rabbi Yehuda teaches that all of our deeds--good and bad--are recorded in a heavenly book. Knowing this reveals the importance of praying before embarking on any action. Rabbi Bo and Rabbi Yitzchak next debate the meaning of "unshaped flesh" and how this bestial state applies respectively to David and Adam. Unshaped flesh refers to the desire to receive for the self alone, which is akin to an animal's primal desires. We learn why no one was left who bore a resemblance, even vaguely, to the original Adam. Before the sin, Adam was a being of untold spiritual and physical beauty, which man later attempted to use for negative purposes.

Rabbi Yehuda goes on to explain that the gifts of The Creator are given solely to support spiritual goals. If a man takes pride in his wealth or his children, instead of using them in divine service, he will ultimately be destroyed by them. So it is with the beauty of Adam, which the Creator gives in order that a man can become still more devout and connected to the Law. Those who fail to keep pure what the Creator has given, are soon driven from the world. We are told that each night is divided into three 'shifts', when the soul of man leaves the 'unshaped flesh' of his body to be examined by the Holy One on three separate issues. If the soul fails this test, Rabbi Shimon is quoted by Rabbi Yehuda as saying, it is ejected from this divine realm. Great emphasis is placed on the fact that every single one of our actions is seen and recorded. Therefore, nothing should be done without due care for its consequences.

The Relevance of this Passage

Man's nature is to regard wealth and luxury as prized attributes. All of us are inclined to place more value on physical beauty and external appearances than on the intangible inner qualities of life. Intellectually, we might accept the ideal that the only possessions worth having are those that cannot be bought and sold. But living a life that truly embodies this ideal is a formidable task, for the ego holds sway over all our thoughts and actions. The spiritual intent of this segment is to keep our consciousness focused on the Light of Creator, even during sleep. The spiritual Light that emerges here makes us more cognizant of our actions and their repercussions, and helps us value and appreciate life's real treasures.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

37. "And...was" (Beresheet 23:1). Our sages began with the verse, "Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages" (Shir Hashirim 7:13). The sages have taught that a person who is traveling should recite three prayers: the obligatory daily prayer; the prayer for protection on the way; and a prayer to return home in peace. THE RECITATION OF THESE PRAYERS does not require three BENEDECTIONS, for it can be done in one BLESSING, as we have learned that everything a man asks can be included within the blessing: "Blessed are you, O Eternal, who hears our prayers."

38. Rabbi Yehuda said that all of man's deeds-both good and evil-are written in a book IN THE SUPERNAL WORLD, and that each man will be judged according to them. For we have learned from Rav Yehuda who quoted Rav that the verse suffices which reads, "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh" (Tehilim 139:16). It means that the shapeless flesh REFERS TO THE BODY, which does not care about the world to come. "Your eyes did see" everything it did, since You have looked carefully at it. "For in Your book all things are written" (Ibid.) to be judged in the world to come. Therefore, it behooves man to hasten to pray before he acts, which may bring him good.

39. Rabbi Yitzchak said that a man does not transgress; only he who is a shapeless matter and is not a man transgresses. This is a man who cares not for THE NEEDS OF the holy soul. He behaves like a beast, which does not care or know. Rabbi Bo asked RABBI YITZCHAK, Was David called a shapeless matter, NAMELY HE WHO CARES NOT FOR THE SOUL, BECAUSE it was he who wrote the verse? Rabbi Yitzchak replied that Adam said, "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh," FOR "UNSHAPED FLESH" MEANS MATTER WHOSE SHAPE IS NOT YET FINISHED. He said that before You gave me my soul, WHEN I WAS STILL UNSHAPED FLESH, Your eyes sought to create men in my image. "For in Your book all things are written," FOR IT WILL BE WRITTEN DOWN who they are IN NAME. "The days also in which they are to be fashioned" (Tehilim 139:16) means that they will be created in his image. The phrase: "And not one of them" means that none survived.

40. Rabbi Bo ASKS: Why WAS NO ONE LEFT OF THOSE WHO BORE A RESEMBLANCE TO THE IMAGE OF ADAM? He answers, Come and behold: Those who resembled Adam even slightly, THAT IS, VAGUELY, did not die a natural death. All were struck FOR RESEMBLING ADAM. SHIMSHON'S FORCE FAILED HIM, AS DID SHAUL'S NECK, AND SO ON. Come and behold: Rabbi Yehuda said that the image of Adam and his beauty were as the splendor of the supreme firmament above all the firmaments, as the light that the Holy One, blessed be He, saved for the righteous in the world to come. Therefore, all who had something of Adam's image were stricken by it and died, AS WILL BE EXPLAINED.

41. These are the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He. If He gives a man wealth, it is for the purpose of sustaining the world and performing His commandments. If man does not do so, but instead takes pride in his wealth, he will be destroyed by it, as it is written: "Riches kept for their owner to his hurt" (Kohelet 5:12). If the Holy One, blessed be He, gives him children, He gives them so they can learn the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, and to keep His commandments. It is written of Avraham: "For I have known him, that he shall command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of Hashem, to do justice and judgement" (Beresheet 18:19). If he does not do so, but instead takes pride in them, he is hurt by them, as it is written: "No great grandchild has he and no grandchild among his people" (Iyov 18:19). Similarly, when the Holy One, blessed be He, gives the good and supernal beauty of Adam, He gives it to them so they will keep His commandments and abide by His wishes. If they instead take pride in it, they will be hurt by the beauty with which they were blessed.

42. Rabbi Yehuda said that when the Holy One, blessed be He, first created Adam-while he still was unshaped flesh and had no soul-He said to the angel who was assigned over the images of men, "Look, and shape in this form six men: SHIMSHON, SHAUL, ASael, YOSHIYAHU, TZIDKIYAHU, AND AVSHALOM. This is the meaning of the verse: "And begot a son in his own likeness, after his image and called his name Shet" (Beresheet 5:3). The Aramaic word shet means six AND REFERS TO THE SIX PEOPLE MENTIONED.

43. Rabbi Yitzchak said that the Holy One, blessed be He, created these six men from the same dust that was used to create Adam. The words: "And called his name Shet" is derived from the Aramaic word "sheeta," which translates as six. IT MEANS THAT HE CREATED SIX MEN. This is the meaning of: "And begot...in his own likeness, after his image" (Ibid.)-from the same dough that his unshaped flesh was created. Therefore, it is written: "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh," WHICH MEANS that You looked well to create in his image. "For in Your book all are written" means that those who did not keep what the Holy One, blessed be He, gave them were driven from the world.

44. In relation to this, Rabbi Yehuda quoted Rav as saying that the night is divided into three shifts OF FOUR HOURS EACH. During each shift, the Holy One, blessed be He, has a special matter of interest with man. It is when the soul leaves him and the unshaped flesh, NAMELY THE BODY, remains asleep in his bed. The soul ascends each night before the Holy One, blessed be He, AND HE DEALS WITH IT EVERY SHIFT. Rabbi Yitzchak said those above are happy with it if it has merit; if not, it is pushed out.

9. "To mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her"

Through the rabbis' Kabbalistic discussion of the relationship between soul and body, we explore the allegorical nature of the Torah's stories and characters. For example, Avraham represents the righteous soul after it has departed this world, while Sarah represents the physical body left behind. Next we are informed of what occurs immediately after death: the soul usually revisits and mourns its body for seven days before ascending to the higher world. In the case of a wicked person, however, the soul may find itself bound to the earth and the discarded body for up to a year. But at the death of spiritually advanced people, such as Avraham, the holiness of the body itself merits special protection until the time when all the dead shall rise from their dust. This phenomenon, we discover, explains several otherwise baffling passages of scripture.

41. דְּכַךְ אֹרְחוֹי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, יְהִיב עוֹתְרָא לְבַר אִינִישׁ, לְמַה, לְמִיזֵן עֲנִיין, וּלְמַעַבְד פְּקוּדוֹי. לֹא עֵבִיד הָאִי, וְאַתְגָּאִי בְּהוּא עוֹתְרָא, בֵּיה יִלְקִי, דְּכִתִּיב עֶשֶׂר שְׁמוֹר לְכַעֲלוֹ לְרַעְתּוֹ. יְהִיב לִיה בְּנִין, לְמַה, לְמִילָף לְהוּ אֹרְחוֹי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וּלְמִיטְר פְּקוּדוֹי, כְּדָא מוֹר בְּאַבְרָהָם, כִּי יִדְעָתּוֹ לְמַעַן אֲשֶׁר יֵצֵה אֶת בְּנָיו וְאֶת בֵּיתוֹ אַחֲרָיו וְשְׁמָרוּ דְרַךְ ה' לְעִשׂוֹת צְדָקָה וְגו'. לֹא עֵבִיד הָאִי וּמִתְגָּאֵה בְּהוּ, בְּהוּ לְקִי, דְּכִתִּיב לֹא נִין לוֹ וְלֹא נִכְד בְּעַמּוֹ וְגו'. וְכֵן כְּהָאִי גּוֹנָא, כִּד יְהִיב קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, מְשִׁירוֹתָא טְבָא עֲלָאָה דְאֲדָם הֲרָאשׁוֹן לְהוּ, לְמַה, בְּגִין לְמִיטְר פְּקוּדוֹי, וּלְמַעַבְד רַעוּתִיה, לֹא עֵבְדוּ כְדִין, אֶלֶּא אֲתַגָּאוּ בֵּיה. בֵּיה לְקו, בְּהָאִי שְׁפִירוֹתָא.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Torah's message and the Zohar's mystical insights are intended for the here and now, so that our future may be peaceful and secure. By gathering the forces released through the name Avraham and these revered words of wisdom, we elevate our physical body to a higher level of spiritual purity.

45. Rav Yehuda stated that Rav asked, Why is it written, "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am sick with love" (Shir Hashirim 5:8)? Rabbi Pinchas said that Rabbi Yehuda responded, "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem" is what the soul says to the souls who are worthy of entering Jerusalem above. They are called daughters of Jerusalem for having the merit to enter. Therefore, the soul says to them, "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved", which is a reference to the Holy One, blessed be He. Rav said that this is the splendor of the upper mirror. Tell him that I am sick with love" to rejoice in His splendor and to sit often in His shadow. Rav Huna said, "I am sick with love" because of the passion, the longing I feel for everything in the world, therefore I am sick.

46. Rabbi Yehuda said that this is the love the soul has for the body. When the body dies, as when "Sarah's life was..." it is written: "And Avraham stood up from before his dead" (Beresheet 23:3). Rav Yehuda said that according to the Rav, it is written in the previous verse: "And Sarah died in Kiryat Arba, that is Chevron, in the land of Cna'an" (Ibid. 2).

47. Rabbi Yitzchak referred to Rabbi Yochanan as stating that the Holy One, blessed be He, created Adam and then inserted in him four things that are divided in the body. Rabbi Yehuda said, "That are connected to the body," while Rabbi Yitzchak said, "That are divided in the body. Each is separated to its element when man leaves this world." Rabbi Yehuda said, They are connected to the body during its life, namely as it is written: "And Sarah died", which refers to the body. "In Kiryat Arba (lit. 'city of the four')," these are the four elements. The words: "that is Chevron" mean that they were connected in the body during a person's lifetime (Chevron is derived from the word chibur, connected). "In the land of Cna'an" means in this world, the world in which man dwells for a short period of time.

48. "And Avraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her" (Beresheet 23:2.). We are taught that the soul of man visits the body for seven days and mourns for it. This is the meaning of: "Only when his flesh is upon him does he feel pain, and while his soul is within him does he mourn" (Iyov 14:22). Similarly, "Avraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her." "Avraham came" refers to the soul, while "to mourn for Sarah" refers to the body.

45. אָמַר רַב יְהוּדָה אָמַר רַב, מֵאֵי דְכִתְיִב הַשְּׁבַעְתִּי אֶתְכֶם בְּנוֹת יְרוּשָׁלַם אִם תִּמְצְאוּ אֶת דּוּדֵי מַה תִּגִּידוּ לוֹ שְׁחוּלַת אֶהְבֶּה אֲנִי. אָמַר רַבִּי פִּנְחָס אָמַר רַבִּי יְהוּדָה, הַשְּׁבַעְתִּי אֶתְכֶם בְּנוֹת יְרוּשָׁלַם, הַנְּשָׂמָה אוֹמֶרֶת לְאוֹתָם הַנְּשָׂמוֹת, הַזּוֹכוֹת לִיְבֻנָּס לִירוּשָׁלַם שֶׁל מַעְלָה, וְהֵם הַנִּקְרָאוֹת בְּנוֹת יְרוּשָׁלַם, עַל שְׁזוֹכוֹת לִיְבֻנָּס שָׁם, וּלְפִיכֵךְ הַנְּשָׂמָה אוֹמֶרֶת לָהֶם, הַשְּׁבַעְתִּי אֶתְכֶם בְּנוֹת יְרוּשָׁלַם אִם תִּמְצְאוּ אֶת דּוּדֵי, דָּא קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא. רַב אָמַר, זֶה זִיו אֶסְפְּקִלְרִינְיָה שֶׁל מַעְלָה. מַה תִּגִּידוּ לוֹ שְׁחוּלַת אֶהְבֶּה אֲנִי, לִיְהִנּוֹת מִזִּיו שְׁלוֹ, וְלִהְסְתוּפָה בְּצִלוֹ. רַב הוּנָא אָמַר, שְׁחוּלַת אֶהְבֶּה אֲנִי, אוֹתָהּ הַתְּשׁוּקָה, וְהַכְּסוּף שֶׁכְּסַפְתִּי בְּעוֹלָם עַל הַכֹּל, לְפִיכֵךְ אֲנִי חוֹלָה.

49. Rabbi Yitzchak said that the body rests in peace and lies in its grave when the soul has merit and rises to its high place. This is referred to in the verse: "He that walks in his uprightness shall enter in peace to them that rest in their graves" (Yeshayah 57:2). Who is it that "walks in his uprightness"? Rabbi Yitzchak says that it is the soul that goes upright to Eden that lies concealed in wait for it. What does this mean? Rabbi Yehuda says: This is why NECHOCHOH (his uprightness) is written with the letter Hei. If it has no merit and deserves punishment, it walks about desolately and visits the body and the grave daily.

50. Rabbi Yosi said that the hard bone, NAMELY THE FEMUR THAT WAS HIT AND DISLOCATED, moves here and there with its stench, coming and visiting its place for twelve months. So does the soul that is worthy of punishment. It goes out in the world, visiting its place in the world and the graveyard for twelve months.

51. Rabbi Yehuda said, Come and behold the verse: "And Avraham stood up from before his dead." Rabbi Aba raised A DIFFICULT POINT. We learned that when the soul is in supernal complement, NAMELY IN BINAH, the letter Hei joins it, and it is called Avraham in supernal wholeness. Now you hint that he is not that righteous, as it is written: "And Avraham stood up." You cause the one who sits in the great throne to come down to sit in the small and lower THRONE.

52. But I reach a decision WHEN I EXPLAIN THE VERSE: "And Avraham stood up from before his dead." As Rabbi Bo said, Rabbi Zrika said that the soul first protects the holy body from which it came when it is worthy of ascending to Eden. Then it ascends to its elevated place. This is the meaning of: "And Avraham stood up from before his dead," namely the body.

53. The phrase: "And spoke to the sons of Chet" (Yeshayah 57:2) refers to the rest of the bodies of the righteous, who are frightened and beaten in the world for the fear of their Possessor. They are afraid and in terror (Heb. chat) for being dwellers of the dust. HE ASKS: Why does THE SOUL need THE BODIES OF THE RIGHTEOUS? Rabbi Yehuda responded, Because they are all written down in the reckoning, THAT IS, THEY ARE PUT INTO THE ACCOUNTS AND ARE MADE TO COME OUT ACCORDING TO THE RECKONING AT THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD. THUS, THE SOUL SPOKE WITH THEM so that the body would be numbered in their lists. THIS IS THE MEANING OF: "AND SPOKE TO THE SONS OF CHET."

54. What did THE SOUL CALLED AVRAHAM say to them? It said in a conciliatory and respectful manner, "I am a stranger and a sojourner with you" (Bereshheet 23:3), MEANING this body will be counted with you in one quorum by this union. Rabbi said, Look at what is written: "And the children of Chet answered Avraham..." (Yeshayah 57:4). They also answered him in a respectful and conciliatory manner. This is the meaning of: "Hear us, my lord, you are a mighty prince among us."

54. ומהאמרלו, בדרך פיוס וברך כבוד, גר ותושב אנכי עמכם וגו', דהאי גופא, יהוי במנינא חד עמכון בחבורא דא. אמר רבי, ראה מה כתיב ויענו בני חת את אברהם וגו'. כמו כן, בדרך כבוד, בדרך פיוס דא הוא דכתיב שמענו אדוני נשיא אלהים אתה בתוכנו.

10. Dumah brings them into and out of reckoning

The role of Dumah, angel in charge of graveyards, is discussed. The rabbis agree that he is in charge of all bodies--good and wicked--sorting them into graves according to merit, until the Day of Reckoning. Torah interpretation tells us that Avraham's body was granted a special "treasure of peace and great rest." Also, according to various rabbis, those who have kept the Law, studied Torah, and performed acts of great piety, may inherit either 200 or 400 "worlds in the World to Come."

The Relevance of this Passage

A righteous person is not necessarily one who has attained the same level of spirituality and wisdom as the eminent sages of antiquity or the great Kabbalists cited in the Zohar. We are not expected to reach their level, but we are expected to at least strive for it. Therefore, an individual who consistently endeavors toward high spiritual goals is defined as righteous. More important than the level attained is the degree of change that we achieve through spiritual growth. Hence, we need to awaken loftier aspirations and goals. Moreover, we require inner strength and determination to pursue higher levels of righteousness. These qualities take root within us as we meditatively study this section of Zohar.

55. What is meant by the phrase: "You are a mighty prince (or: a prince of Elohim)" (Bereshheet 23:5)? Rabbi Pinchas responded that, before the righteous leave the world, a divine voice echoes every day among the righteous in the Garden of Eden to 'prepare a place for so-and-so who will come here'. Therefore, they say, from Elohim above, "You are a prince" every day among us: "in the choicest of our graves" (Ibid.): among the choicest company of the righteous he should be counted. No one will prevent fulfillment of the quorum, for we all rejoice in him and hasten to greet him.

56. Rabbi Yosi ben Pazi said, Come and behold: after the soul meets them, it is sentenced. It meets the angel appointed over them, the angel in charge of the graveyards, named Dumah. He announces among them, every day, the names of the righteous who are about to come among them. It immediately entreats him to lodge the body in tranquillity, safety, rest, and pleasure. This is the meaning of: "And he spoke to Efron" (Yeshayah 57:11).

57. Rabbi Yesa asked, Why is the angel Dumah called Efron? He responded, Because he is in charge over the dwellers of dust (Heb. afar). All the lists of the righteous and companies of the pious that dwell in the dust were given to him, and he will bring them out according to the reckoning.

57. אמר רבי ייסא, זה המלאך הנקרא דומה, ולמה נתבנה שמו עפרון, על שהוא ממונה על שוכני עפר, והופקדו בידו, כל פנקסי הצדיקים, וחבורות החסידים, השוכנים בעפר, והוא עתיד להוציאם בחשבון.

58. Rabbi Elazar said, When the Holy One, blessed be He, comes to raise the dead in the future, He shall call the angel named Dumah, who is appointed over the graves. He will ask him for an enumeration of all the dead, the righteous and the pious, and all the sincere proselytes killed for the sake of His name. He will bring them out according to the reckoning, the same as he put them into it. This is the meaning of the verse: "That brings out their host by number... not one is missing" (Yeshayah 40:26).

59. In the name of Rabbi Ya'akov, Rabbi Shmuel said that the souls of the evil are in the hands of the angel Dumah, who will send them to Gehenom to be sentenced. Once they are put in Dumah's hands, they do not return again before going to Gehenom. This is what David feared when he committed that sin, as it is written: "Unless Hashem had been my help, my soul had soon dwelt in Dumah" (Tehilim 94:17). Rabbi Yesa said, The soul entreats him to put the body with the bodies of the other righteous and be enumerated in their numbers. This is the meaning of: "And he spoke to Efron..."

60. Rabbi Tanchum added that the angel first addresses him. Look at what was written before the verse. It is: "And Efron dwelt among the children of Chet" (Beresheet 23:9), who were afraid of dwelling in the dust. He hastens to instruct Dumah to put that body in the reckoning of the righteous. Then the verse reads, "And Efron the Chitite answered Avraham in the ear of the children of Chet, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying" (Ibid.). Who went in at the gate of his city? Rabbi Nachman said, Those who were written in the list. As Rabbi Nachman said, and so is decreed, by the reckoning made by Dumah, they enter, the cemeteries. And by the reckoning he will take them out. And he is in charge of the dwellers of dust.

61. What is meant by: "The field I give you, and the cave, that is in it" (Beresheet 5:10)? Rabbi Yosi said that it is a treasure of peace and great rest. Rabbi Shalom ben Manyumi said, There is not one righteous of those who are occupied in Torah, who has not 200 bright worlds for the sake of Torah. It is written, "And those that keep its fruit 200" (Shir Hashirim 8:12), for they renounce themselves daily, as if they are killed to sanctify His name and His eternity. Whoever surrenders his soul to sanctify His name, the scripture says it is as if he were killed daily for His sake, as it is written: "But for your sake are we killed all the day long" (Tehilim 44:23). Rabbi Nachman said that whoever surrenders his soul according to this verse inherits 400 worlds in the world to come. Rabbi Yosef said, We were taught that there are 200. According to Rabbi Nachman, it is 200 for Torah and 200 for surrendering every day for the sake of the holiness of His name.

11. "And Sarah died in Kiryat Arba"

Here the Zohar explores the ways in which people's lives determine the quality and nature of their death. The rabbis also resume a discussion of Sarah's uniqueness among women, now comparing her with Miriam, whose age is not mentioned in scripture. Associated with water, Miriam's death is emblematic of the ancient sins of the children of Israel. They, it is explained, owe their happiness and stability solely to the Torah--which is a gift of the Holy One, intended to reveal the true nature and purpose of His creation. Rabbi Yehuda goes on to make an analogy between the effect of a weak king on his kingdom and that of an unrighteous man on his own life. The exploration finally circles back on itself with the assertion that death has no power over someone as pure as Sarah, who died in the place where David was united with the patriarchs. This spiritual locale is the point at which the physical world joins with the spiritual. David represents our material realm, known as Malchut, while the patriarchs signify the spiritual domain. Bridging these two worlds exemplifies the concept of perfection. In this way, the righteousness of the individual soul, the righteousness of the ruler and his people, and the holiness of the land itself, are shown to be one and the same. We learn that as long as a man's soul is nurtured by the Light--which is portrayed here as filtering through the seven lower Sfirot--both his life and his death will remain in harmony with the divine, for a righteous existence alone spares us defilement by the Angel of Death.

The Relevance of this Passage

In practical terms, the Upper World, or the patriarchs, refers to our soul and the desire to share. Our physical world of Malchut or David, refers to our material body and the desire to receive for the self alone. Our ultimate objective in life is to balance and enjoin these two worlds, creating a new dynamic, known in lay terms as the desire to receive for the sake of sharing. When we receive for the sake of imparting to others, we achieve perfect harmony with the sharing nature of the Creator. This assures a life and an afterlife filled with Light. Both the Torah and the Zohar serve to gradually sweeten the trait of receiving for the self into receiving for the purpose of sharing. Here, the Zohar invokes the 'energy of Sarah' to help achieve this effect, strengthening our resolve whenever the temptation to satisfy our own desires arises.

62. "And Sarah died in Kiryat Arba" (Beresheet 23:2). Rabbi Aba noted that, of all the women in the world, only for Sarah are the number of her days and years and the time of her life in the world mentioned, as well as the place in which she was buried. This shows that there was no other woman in the world like Sarah.

62. וְתַמַּת שָׂרָה בְּקִרְיַת אַרְבַּע. ר' אַבָּא אָמַר, כְּגוֹנוֹנָא דָא, לָא הוּוּ בְּכָל נָשִׁי עֲלֵמָא, דְּהָא אֲתַמַּר חוֹשְׁבֵן יוֹמָהָ, וְשָׁנָהָ, וְקִיּוּמָהָ בְּעֲלֵמָא, וְהָדוּא אֲתַר דְּאֲתַקְבַּרַת בֵּיהּ. אֲלֵא לְאַחְזָאָה, דְּלֵא הוּוּ כְּשָׂרָה, בְּכָל נָשִׁי עֲלֵמָא

63. If you say that it is written of Miriam: "And Miriam died there, and was buried there" (Bemidbar 20:1) AS IT IS WRITTEN OF SARAH, NOTE THAT THIS WAS WRITTEN only to show that Yisrael sinned, AS SAID IN THE NEXT VERSE: "AND THERE WAS NO WATER FOR THE CONGREGATION: AND THEY GATHERED THEMSELVES TOGETHER" (IBID. 2). Yisrael had no water there without Miriam, and HER DAYS AND YEARS were not specified when describing her death, as was done for Sarah.

63. וְאִי תִימָא הָא מַרְיָם, דְּכִתְיִב וְתַמַּת שֵׁם מַרְיָם וְתַקְבַּר שָׁם. בְּגִין לְאַחְזָאָה סְרַחְנָא דִּישְׂרָאֵל קָא אֲתַא, דְּהָא מִיּוּא לָא אֲזִילִי לְהוּ בִּישְׂרָאֵל, אֲלֵא בְּזִכּוּתָא דְּמַרְיָם. אֲבָל לָא אֲתַמַּר בְּמִיתַתָּהּ, כְּמָה דְּאֲתַמַּר בְּשָׂרָה.

64. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion saying, "Happy are you, O land, that your king is a man of freedom, and your princes eat in due season" (Kohelet 10:17). This verse was explained by the friends. Nevertheless, we have studied that the children of Yisrael are happy because the Holy One, blessed be He, gave them Torah with which to know the hidden ways and reveal the supreme mysteries.

65. "Happy are you, O land" refers to the land of the living, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH CLOTHES THE LIVING ELOHIM, IMA, because her king, ZEIR ANPIN, prepared for her all the blessings he had received from the supernal fathers--THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA. THAT KING IS the secret of the letter Vav, which is always in readiness to pour blessing over her. He is called "a man of freedom", the son of a Yovel (jubilee), WHICH IS BINAH, NAMELY YISRAEL-SABA, AND TEVUNAH, THE MOCHIN who liberates slaves and gives them freedom, THE MOCHIN OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH. He is also a son of the supernal world--THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA--who gives generously FROM THEIR EVERLASTING UNION all life and illumination, the oil of greatness, and honor. Thus it is written, "Yisrael is my son, my firstborn" (Shemot 4:22). Therefore, "Happy are you, O land."

65. וְהָא אֲתַמַּר, אֲשֶׁרִיךְ אֶרֶץ, דָּא אֶרֶץ הַחַיִּים, בְּגִין דְּמֵלְכָא דִּילָהּ, אֲזִמִּין לָהּ כָּל בְּרַכָּאן, דְּאֲתַבְּרָכָא מֵאַבְהֶן עֲלָאִין, רְזָא דּוּא"ו, דְּאֵיהּ קִיּוּמָא לְאַרְקָא עֲלֵה בְּרַכָּאן תְּדִיר, וְאֵיהּ בֶּן חוּרִין, בֶּן יוֹבְלָא, דְּאֵפִיק עֲבָדִין לְחִירוֹ, בְּרָא דְּעֲלֵמָא עֲלָאָה, דְּאֵפִיק תְּדִיר כָּל חַיִּין, וְכָל נְהִירוֹ, וְכָל מְשַׁח רְבוּת, וְכָל אֲנִיגֵד הָאִי בְּרָא בּוֹכְרָא, לְהָאִי אֶרֶץ, כַּד"א בְּנֵי בְּכָרֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ, אֲשֶׁרִיךְ אֶרֶץ.

66. The verse "Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child" (Kohelet 10:16) is explained as follows. This is the nether land, and the nether world draws nourishment from the uncircumcised foreskin alone. All is drawn down only from the king called child, NAMELY MATATRON, as was explained. Woe to the world that must nourish this way.

67. Come and behold this child, MATATRON, who has nothing of himself, but the blessings he receives FROM THE NUKVA at appointed times. Each time these blessings are withheld when the moon, NUKVA, is rendered defective and becomes dark. Woe to the world that depends on him for survival. Moreover, the world suffers many judgments before it draws nourishment from him, NAMELY FROM THE KLIPOT, for all is established and maintained through judgments, as has been explained.

68. The verse: "And Sarah died..." also contains a secret, which is that she did not die by the tortuous serpent, NAMELY THE ANGEL OF DEATH. It had no power over her, as it has over the people of the world. As a result of Adam's sin, all the people in the world die by the serpent except Moshe, Aharon, and Miriam, WHO DIED BY A KISS, as is written: "Upon the mouth of Hashem" (Bemidbar 33:38). In honor of the Shechinah, it is not mentioned of Miriam, "upon the mouth of Hashem," ALTHOUGH SHE, TOO, DIED BY A KISS.

69. Yet of Sarah it is written: "And Sarah died in Kiryat Arba" because she died in and by the hands of Kiryat Arba, and not by the serpent. She died by the hands of Kiryat Arba that is Chevron, where David was united with the patriarchs. Therefore she died not by another, but in Kiryat Arba.

70. Come and behold: When man's days are maintained by the supernal grades, NAMELY THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT-man thrives in the world. If he is not sustained by the supernal grades, MEANING HE HAS LIVED SEVENTY YEARS DRAWN FROM THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT-his days come out OF THE SFIROT and beneath THE SFIROT until they approach the level where death dwells. NAMELY, THE ANGEL OF DEATH UNDERNEATH MALCHUT, OF WHICH IT IS SAID, "SIN CROUCHES AT THE DOOR" (BERESHEET 4:7). Then the Angel of Death receives permission to take out the man's soul. He flies through the world in one flight, takes the soul and defiles the body, which remains defiled. Happy are the righteous who were not defiled by him, for no defilement remained in their bodies.

12. The serpent of the firmament

The stars of the Milky Way--called here 'the serpent of the firmament'--perform a special function in the lives of men, assisting both those who wish to be purified, and those who wish to defile themselves.

Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yosi discuss the evil man, Bila'am, the sorcerer. From their discussion we learn that the primordial serpent is the source of all enchantment and magic. It is in sorcery that the seeds of defilement lie. Those who wish to cast spells draw to themselves the unholy spirit, just as anyone wishing to do good will draw the Light.

understand their role: Electrical current can light entire cities. The same current, however, can also cause great destruction. The manner in which we employ the energy, determines its positive or destructive quality, but the nature of the energy never changes. Man was given free will to choose how to draw spiritual energy-via the desire to receive for the self alone, or the desire to receive for the sake of sharing. This passage summons up forces that awaken us to the dual nature of our desires, impelling us to seek purification rather than defilement.

71. Come and behold: In the middle of the firmament is a glowing trail. This is the serpent of the firmament THAT ASTRONOMERS CALL THE MILKY WAY. All the small stars are attached to it in groups, THAT IS, THEY ARE GATHERED AND STAND IN IT LIKE COUNTLESS MOUNTAINS. They are in charge of the secret deeds of the inhabitants of the world.

72. Similarly, there are bunches of lights of Klipot that come into the world from the supernal primordial serpent that seduced Adam. They are appointed to learn the secret deeds of the world. Therefore when a man wishes to be purified, he receives help from above, and the help of his Master encircles and protects him. He is then called 'holy'.

73. If a man wishes to be defiled, several groups of lights of Klipot are waiting for him. They all hover about and around him. They defile him, so he is called unholy. They go before him and proclaim, Unholy, unholy, as it is written: "And shall cry, 'Unclean, unclean'" (Vayikra 17:45). They are all connected to the primordial serpent and are hidden in the deeds of the people of the world.

74. Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yosi were walking from Tiberias to Lod. Rabbi Yitzchak said, I wonder about the evil man Bila'am. All he did was from the side of defilement. Here we learn a secret, which is that all kinds of sorcery and witchcraft of the world are connected and derive from the primordial serpent, which is the impure spirit of defilement. Therefore all enchantment (Heb. nechashim) is named AFTER THE PRIMORDIAL SERPENT (HEB. NACHASH). They all derive from that side, and anyone who is drawn to that MAGIC is defiled.

75. Moreover, one should be impure to cast a spell. One has to draw upon oneself that side of the unholy spirit. As man is aroused from below, he draws upon himself from above. If he is aroused below on the side of holiness, he draws upon himself the supernal holiness and is sanctified. If he is aroused below on the side of defilement, he draws upon himself the spirit of defilement and becomes unholy. Upon this, they said that whoever wishes to be defiled is defiled.

76. For that purpose, the wicked Bila'am defiled himself nightly by mating with his ass in order to draw upon himself the unholy spirit from the supernal serpent, thereby drawing on himself the spirit of unholiness. Then he cast his spells and enchantments.

77. First he took one of the serpents, tied it in front of him, split his head, and removed its tongue. Then he took certain herbs and burned them to incense. He took the serpent's head, cut it into four pieces, and made from it another incense offering.

78. He drew a circle round himself, uttered words, and performed other deeds until he drew to himself the spirits of defilement, who told him what he needed to know. He acted according to their information, which they knew from the side of that serpent in the firmament.

79. This is how he acquired his knowledge, enchantments, and spells. For that reason, it is written: "He went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments" (Bemidbar 24:1), which alludes to real snakes. As has already been explained, the essence and origin of defilement begins with the serpent.

13. All kinds of witchcraft and sorcery abide only in women

When the serpent came upon Eve it injected impurities into her. For this reason, women are more susceptible to the allure of magic and witchcraft than men. Rabbi Yosi asks why this is so, since the children of Israel were cleansed of impurities at Mount Sinai. Rabbi Yitzchak replies that the Torah was only given to males. Furthermore, since women are of the left side, it is more difficult for them to cleanse themselves of defilement. Various kinds of impurity are discussed, and we learn that anything attached to the world-as are unholy spirits - holds the potential to defile.

The Relevance of this Passage

The term woman is used as a metaphor for man's evil inclination. Kabbalistically, women are on a much higher level of spirituality, as evidenced by their great intuition and heightened sensitivity. Therefore, only the male is required to work at eradicating his Evil Inclination through Torah. When a woman, however, uses her natural gifts for negative purposes, it is referred to as witchcraft. A reading of this section helps men and women subjugate their negative desires.

80. Rabbi Yosi asked why all kinds of witchcraft and sorcery abide only in women. He said that when the serpent came upon Chavah, he injected impurities only into her and not into her husband. BECAUSE WITCHCRAFT RADIATES FROM THE POLLUTION OF THE SERPENT, WITCHCRAFT IS THEREFORE IN WOMEN. He said, Assuredly this is so. Rabbi Yosi kissed Rabbi Yitzchak and said, Many times have I asked upon this matter, but never deserved to understand it until now.

81. He asked, Where did Bila'am learn everything that he did, NAMELY ALL HIS SORCERY, and all that he knew? He answers, He learned it from his father. But in "the mountains of the east" (Bemidbar 23:7), in the land of the east, he learned MOST OF the enchantments and kinds of magic, for in these mountains abide the angels Aza and Azazel, whom the Holy One, blessed be He, caused to fall from heaven BECAUSE THEY DENOUNCED THE CREATION OF MAN. They are tied in chains of iron there and reveal spells to men. This is where Bila'am gained knowledge, as it is written: "Balak the king of Moav has led me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east" (Ibid.), WHERE AZA AND AZAZEL ARE.

82. He said, It is written: "He went not, as at other time, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness" (Bemidbar 24:1), WHICH MEANS THAT HE DID NOT ALWAYS LOOK FOR ENCHANTMENTS (ALSO: 'SNAKES'). Rabbi Yitzchak said that the lower side, which comes from the unholy spirit above, is the unholy spirit that ruled over the wilderness at the time when the children of Yisrael defiled themselves by committing the sin of the golden calf. THEREFORE, "HE SET HIS FACE TOWARD THE WILDERNESS." He cast his spells to all directions in order to uproot the children of Yisrael, but could not do so.

83. Rabbi Yosi said, When you earlier explained why witchcraft abides in women, you said that the serpent came upon Chavah and injected impurity into her. This is well, but we have learned that when Yisrael stood by Mount Sinai and received Torah, their impurities were cleansed. But the heathens who did not receive Torah remained impure, SO IMPURITY IS ALREADY GONE FROM WOMEN. THEREFORE, MY QUESTION IS STILL UNANSWERED, WHY IS WITCHCRAFT MOSTLY IN WOMEN?

84. He said to him, You spoke well. Nevertheless, come and behold: Torah was given to males only, as it is written: "And this is the Torah which Moshe set before the children (lit. 'sons') of Yisrael" (Devarim: 4:44). As women were exempt from the commandments of Torah, NAMELY FROM THE COMMANDMENTS VALID AT A FIXED TIME THEREFORE THEY REMAINED IMPURE AT THE GIVING OF TORAH. FOR THAT REASON, WITCHCRAFT, WHICH DERIVES FROM THE IMPURITY OF THE SERPENT, ABIDES MAINLY IN WOMEN.

85. Moreover, everyone became defiled again after the sin, EVEN THE MEN. It is more difficult for women to cleanse impurities from themselves than for men. Thus, women practice sorcery and abide in defilement more so than men. THE REASON WHY IT IS DIFFICULT FOR WOMEN TO BE CLEANSED FROM DEFILEMENT IS THAT women come from the left side and are attached to the strict Judgment OF THE LEFT. This side cleaves to them more than to men, because they come from strict Judgment. Everything is attached to and follows its own kind.

85. וְעוֹד, דְּאֵהֲדַרוּ בְּלָהוּ לְזוּהֵמַתָּן בְּקִדְמִיתָא, בְּתֵר דְחָטוּ, וְאֵתָתָא קְשִׁיא לְאַתְפָּרְשָׁא זוּהֵמָא מְנָה, יֵתִיר מְגַבְרָא, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ, אֲשִׁתְּכַחוּ נִשִּׁין בְּחֲרָשִׁיא, וּבְזוּהֵמָא דָּא יֵתִיר מְגוּבְרִין. דְּהָא נִשִּׁיא מְסֵטְרָא דְשְׁמָאֵלָא קָא אֵתִיין וְאֵתְדַבְּקוּ בְּדִינָא קְשִׁיא, וְסְטָרָא דָּא, אֵתְדַבְּק בְּהוּ, יֵתִיר מְגוּבְרִין, כְּמַה דְאֵתְמַר, בְּגִין דְּאֵתִיא מְסֵטְרָא דְדִינָא קְשִׁיא, וְכָלָא אֵתְדַבְּק וְאֵזִיל בְּתֵר זִינִיהָ.

86. Come and behold: As I have said, ENCHANTMENT COMES FROM THE DEFILEMENT OF THE SERPENT, for Bila'am used to defile himself first to draw upon him the unholy spirit. THEN HE PRACTICED SORCERY. Similarly, it behooves man to stay away from a woman during menstruation LEST HE TOUCH HER, because she is attached to the spirit of defilement. If she practices sorcery at that time, she will be more successful than at other times. Whatever she touches is therefore defiled, and all the more so whomever approaches her. Happy are the children of Yisrael, for the Holy One, blessed be He, gave them Torah, and told them, "Also you shall not approach to a woman in the impurity of her menstrual flow, to uncover her nakedness...I am Hashem" (Vayikra 18:19-21).

86. תָּא חֲזוּי, דְּהֵכִי הוּא, כְּמָה דְאִמְינָא, דְּבִלְעָם הוּא אֶסְתָּאב בְּקִדְמִיתָא, בְּגִין לְאִמְשָׁכָא עֲלֵיהּ רוּחַ מְסָאבָא. כְּגוּוּנָא דָא, אֶתְתָא בְיוֹמֵי דְמְסָאבוּ דִלְיָה, אִית לִיה לְבַר נֶשׁ לְאֶסְתְּמָרָא מְנָה, בְּגִין דְּבְרוּחַ מְסָאבָא אֶתְדַבְּקַת וּבִהוּא זְמָנָא, אִי אִיהִי תַעֲבִיד חֲרָשִׁין, אֶצְלָחוּ בִידְהָא, יִתִּיר מְזִמְנָא אַחֲרָא דְהָא רוּחַ מְסָאבָא שְׂרִיא עִמָּה, וְעַל דָּא, בְּכָל מַה דְקָרִיבַת אֶסְתָּאב, כָּל שְׂכָן מֵאֵן דְקָרִיב בְּהֵדָה. זְכָאִין אִינוּן יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, יְהִיב לֹון, אִוְרִייתָא, וְאִמַר לֹון, וְאֵל אִשָּׁה בְנִדַת טְמֵאתָה לֹא תִקְרַב לְגִלּוֹת עֶרְוַתָּה אֲנִי ה'.

87. He asks, Why is it called sorcery if someone uses the chirping of birds TO TELL THE FUTURE? It is because the unholy spirit abides in that bird, which is drawn from this side OF DEFILEMENT. That unholy spirit foretells events. Every defiled spirit, is attached to and comes to the world from the serpent and no one in this world is safe from it, because it is everywhere, until the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, will remove it from the world, as it is written: "He will destroy death for ever" (Yeshayah 25:8) and "I will also cause...the unclean spirit to pass out of the land" (Zecharyah 13:2).

14. The cave of Machpelah (Part One)

Rabbi Yehuda tells us how it was that Avraham recognized the significance of the cave of Machpelah, and that he deserved to be buried there. We learn that an ordinary man sees Adam at the moment of death. Yet Avraham saw him, along with a vision of the Garden of Eden, and still lived. This was because Avraham had been in Eden during his own lifetime, and thus looked upon something he was already merited to see when he was alive. He acquires the cave through spiritual wisdom, not through any form of self-centered desire.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our egocentric desires compel us to covet possessions that provide temporary satisfaction. But there is a downside: chaos and darkness appear when the thrill has ended. The soul, however, is in search of permanent fulfillment, and people who achieve that fulfillment are willing and able to forsake short-term, ego-based pleasures. Avraham exemplifies this principle in the story of the cave of Machpelah. By remaining true to a spiritual path, Avraham sought out the cave through his wisdom, not his ego, and therefore merited the greatest possible fulfillment: the Light of the Garden of Eden. The mystical words of the Zohar allow us to glimpse shards of Light gleaming in the Garden. During our lives, this Light helps us to fulfill the needs of our soul, instead of foolishly catering to our ego.

88. Rabbi Yehuda said, Avraham recognized a sign in that cave, NAMELY THE CAVE OF MACHPELAH, and his heart and desire were there. For he had entered it before and seen Adam and Chavah interred there. HE ASKS: How did he know it was they, FOR HE DID NOT KNOW THEM? HE ANSWERS, He saw the shape OF ADAM and looked at it. Then a door to the Garden of Eden opened before him AND HE UNDERSTOOD that this was the shape of Adam before him. HE UNDERSTOOD THAT HE DESERVED TO BE BURIED IN THE GATE OF THE GARDEN OF EDEN BECAUSE HE HAD BEEN IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN DURING HIS LIFETIME.

89. Come and behold: Whoever beholds the shape of Adam cannot escape death. THAT PERSON HAS TO DIE THAT INSTANT, for man sees Adam the moment that he dies and passes from the world. But Avraham looked at him, saw his shape, and lived. He saw a light shining from within the cave and a candle burning. Then he wanted to dwell in that cave, and his heart and desire were always there.

90. Come and behold: Avraham behaved wisely when he asked for a grave for Sarah, for he did not ask for the cave immediately or say that he wanted to be separated from them. Instead, he said, "Give me a possession of a burying place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight" (Bereshheet 23:3). HE DID NOT MENTION EITHER EFRON OR THE CAVE. If you say that Efron was not there, IT IS NOT SO. INDEED he was present, as it is written: "And Efron dwelt among the children of Chet" (Ibid. 9). NEVERTHELESS, Avraham said nothing to him for the time being.

91. He spoke with them further, as it is written: "And spoke to the sons of Chet" (Ibid. 3). Could you conceive that Avraham wanted to be buried among the defiled or that he wanted to join them, when he said, "Give me a possession of a burying place with you"? But he behaved wisely.

92. And we learn proper conduct from the way Avraham acted, because he desired and wished for that cave. Although Efron was there, he did not want to ask him immediately. He did not ask for the cave but rather for what he did not want, and asked another, not Efron, AS HE SAID TO THE SONS OF CHET: "GIVE ME A POSSESSION OF A BURYING PLACE WITH YOU..."

93. Once the sons of Chet said to him in the presence of Efron, "Hear us, my lord, you are a mighty prince among us" (Bereshheet 23:5), it is written: "And Efron dwelt (lit. 'dwells') among the children of Chet." 'Dwells' is written without vowels and can be conjugated as 'dwelt', which would mean that Efron was already there as they started talking. Then Avraham said, "Hear me, and entreat for me to Efron, the son of Tzochar, that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has" (Ibid. 8). If you say that since my honor is greater than yours I ASK FOR THE CAVE OF THE MACHPELAH FROM EFRON because I do not want to dwell among you, THIS IS NOT TRUE. But "with you" AND "AMONGST YOU" (IBID. 10)-IN OTHER WORDS, to be interred among you. THIS IS WHAT I MEANT, because I want you, so that I shall not be separated from you.

15. "Four hundred shekels"

The secret of what becomes of the body and soul at death, is explored by Rabbi Yosi bar Yehuda and Rabbi Chiya. When soul and body are parted, the angel Dumah becomes custodian of the body, which must show its worthiness to receive the reward of 400 worlds. According to the rabbis, this worthiness takes the form of a deep longing for purity and righteousness; desiring those qualities makes us worthy. Those who did not feel this yearning will not be resurrected on the Day of Reckoning.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Kabbalists have long taught that the Light of the Creator reveals itself only to genuine seekers of the truth. Through our desire for righteousness, we earn the Light and become active participants in the process of Creation. Many people turn to the Creator only when tragedy or hardship strikes. Longing for the Light is easily kindled during moments of adversity. But when times are good, we tend to forget our spiritual aspirations. And as desire for the Light ceases, periods of prosperity inevitably come to an end. This passage sustains and increases our yearning for the Light so that it illuminates our lives without end.

Tosefta (Addendum)

94. Rabbi Yosi, the son of Rabbi Yehuda, visited Rabbi Chiya and asked, Sir, have you heard how those who are versed in the Mishnah explained this portion of the scripture as concerning the subject of the soul, AVRAHAM BEING THE SOUL AND SARAH THE BODY? He said, Happy is the fate of the righteous in the world to come, for Torah in their hearts is like a great stream. Although they block it, the water breaks through and creates smaller streams in all directions.

95. Come and listen: Rabbi Yosi, you are beloved. I will tell you about this portion of the scripture. In the reckoning of the righteous, Dumah never enters a man's body after his demise until the soul shows him a letter as a sign that the Cherubs gave it in the Garden of Eden. Rabbi Yosi said, I heard that when the soul enters THE GARDEN OF EDEN it ascends to its place, TO BINAH, and does not descend TO MALCHUT. But before the soul ascends, Dumah makes it a custodian of the body. The soul then shows Dumah that the body is worthy to receive 400 worlds as a reward.

96. Rabbi Chiya argued, yet Rabbi Elazar said that Dumah knows THAT THE BODY IS WORTHY OF THE 400 WORLDS AS ITS REWARD before THE BODY SHOWS HIM, because it is announced in the Garden of Eden. But I have heard that when the soul is given the letter as a token, it returns to the body to enter it in the reckoning of the righteous at the hands of Dumah. It is written: "But if you will give it, I pray you, hear me: I will give you the price of the field, take it of me" (Beresheet 23:12). The price (Heb. kesef) of the field is the longing (Heb. kisuf) and desire for the 400 worlds given as an heirloom FOR THE BODY.

97. When he heard this explained by the heads of the Yeshivah, Rav Yosef said, Whoever is made of dust may merit all this, NAMELY THE 400 BRIGHT WORLDS? Who shall merit it? Who shall stand? It is written: "Who shall ascend into the mountain of Hashem or who shall stand in his holy place?" (Tehilim 24:3).

98. Rabbi Aba said, Come and behold, it is written: "And Avraham hearkened to Efron, and Avraham weighed to Efron the silver..." This is the longing for those desirable worlds. The "400 shekels of silver" are the 400 worlds of pleasure and desire. As Rabbi Nachman said, "Current money with the merchant" means that one may pass all the gates of heaven and Jerusalem the terrestrial with it, without being detained.

99. Come and behold: It is written, "And after this, Avraham buried Sarah his wife" (Bereshheet 18:19). THIS REFERS TO THE BODY, which was numbered in the company of the other righteous by a note of the chieftain Dumah. Rabbi Yitzchak said, So I have learned that all the bodies registered and visited by Dumah will be resurrected when THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, revives the dwellers of dust. Woe to the wicked who are not registered by him in writing, for they will be lost in Gehenom forever. Of this, it is said, "And at that time your people shall be delivered, every one who shall be found written in the book" (Daniel 12:1).
End of Tosefta (Addendum)

16. The cave of Machpelah (Part Two)

A discussion of the events surrounding Avraham's purchase of the Machpelah cave ensues. We learn that Avraham managed to purchase both the cave and the field it stood in for a reasonable price, because he neither outwardly displayed nor inwardly harbored a desire to own either one. He knew that they were his by right--by virtue of his spiritual effort--and this is something very different from a selfish desire for ownership. Indeed, it is Avraham's spiritual elevation that causes the property to seem like a burden to Efron, its original owner. Rabbi Shimon then recounts what transpired between Adam and Avraham in the cave. Adam at first believes that his original humiliation and sin will be compounded in comparison with Avraham's righteousness. But a remarkable truth is now brought to light, when Avraham agrees to pray for Adam. Both Adam and Eve are said to have lived for Avraham's sake, for he was the first man to become aware and cognizant of the Creator. This startling fact concerning Avraham's connection to Adam and Eve is further illuminated when Avraham restores Eve--for whose sin he has not prayed--to Adam's side, an event paralleled by the burial of Sarah. After questions from Rabbi Shimon's son, Rabbi Elazar, we are then taken deep into the secret of the difference between the field of Machpelah and the cave. This difference exists, ultimately, to show that the Holy One's actions in this world are simply intended to bring the Light and sweetness of the Upper Realms. The differences between the cave and the field is a code, referring to the different frequencies of spiritual Light that are present in the physical realm, like the colors of the spectrum.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section helps explain how right conduct and resistance to our avaricious impulses allow us to receive the infinite delight waiting to pour down from the heavenly realm. In turn, we draw the strength to triumph over these self-seeking whims.

100. Rabbi Elazar asks, How did Avraham enter the cave? WHY DID HE ENTER? HE RESPONDED, He was running after a calf, about which it is written: "And Avraham ran to the herd..." (Bereshheet 18:7). This calf ran to the cave. Avraham ran after it and saw what he saw.

101. Another REASON was that Avraham prayed every day. He came out to the field that was fragrant with heavenly perfumes, saw light coming out of the cave, and entered there to pray. There the Holy One, blessed be He, spoke with him. As a result, Avraham wanted the cave and always harbored a desire for it.

98. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבְרָהָם, הֵאָחֳזִי, מֵאֵי דְכִתְיִב, וַיִּשְׁמַע אַבְרָהָם אֶל עֶפְרוֹן וַיִּשְׁקַל אַבְרָהָם לְעֶפְרוֹן אֶת הַכֶּסֶף, דָּא הוּא כְּסוּפָא רַבְתָּא, דְּאִינוּן עֲלָמִין וְכְסוּפִין. אַרְבַּע מֵאוֹת שְׁקָל כֶּסֶף, אַרְבַּע מֵאוֹת עוֹלָמוֹת, וְהֵנְאוֹת, וְכְסוּפִין, עוֹבֵר לְסוֹחֵר. רַב נַחֲמָן אָמַר, שְׂיַעְבוּר כָּל שְׁעָרֵי שָׁמַיִם, וִירוּשָׁלַיִם שֶׁל מַעְלָה וְאִין מוֹחָה בִּידָה.

102. You may ask, why did he not seek to buy it until then? HE SAYS: Because he had no need for it, he was afraid that they would check it, UNDERSTAND HIS WISH AND THE IMPORTANCE OF THE CAVE, AND THEN ASK FOR MORE MONEY. OR THEY COULD REFUSE TO SELL IT ALTOGETHER. Now that he needed it, the time had come to ask for it.

103. Come and behold: If Efron had seen in the cave what Avraham saw, he would never have sold it. But because Efron saw nothing in it, as nothing is revealed except to its owner, it was revealed to Avraham only and not to Efron. It was revealed to Avraham because it was his, and not Efron's, for Efron had no share in it. Therefore Efron saw nothing of the cave. He saw only darkness and therefore, he sold it.

104. Moreover, he also sold him what Avraham did not ask him to sell, because Avraham said only, "That he may give me the cave of the Machpelah...for the full price he shall give it me" (Beresheet 23:8) and did not mention the field. And Efron said, "The field I give you, and the cave that is in it, I give it you" (Ibid. 10), for Efron knew not what it was and found it all loathsome. EVEN THE FIELD, IN WHICH THE CAVE WAS, WAS LOATHSOME TO HIM. THEREFORE HE SOLD THE FIELD TOO, ALTHOUGH AVRAHAM DID NOT ASK FOR IT.

105. Come and behold: When Avraham entered the cave for the first time, he saw a light. The dust was removed from before him, revealing two graves. Adam rose from his grave in his rightful form, saw Avraham, and laughed. By that, Avraham knew that he was destined to be buried there.

106. Avraham said to him, 'If you please, is there an unroofed castle here?' HE ASKED THIS BECAUSE THE CAVE OF THE MACHPELAH IS DERIVED FROM THE WORD DOUBLE, THAT IS, A CAVE WITHIN A CAVE. INSTEAD OF COMPLETE DARKNESS, HE SAW LIGHT THERE, AS ONE WOULD IN AN OPEN HOUSE WITH NO ROOF. ADAM answered him, 'The Holy One, blessed be He, hid me here. From then until now, I have been hidden as a fish in a ditch. Since you came into the world, from now on, I and the world are maintained for your sake.'

107. Look at what is written: "And the field, and the cave that is in it, were made over (also: 'raised') to" (Beresheet 18:20). The field was truly raised, which had not happened previously. By BEING IN AVRAHAM'S POSSESSION, THE FIELD GAINED IN IMPORTANCE. THEREFORE IT IS WRITTEN, "RAISED." Rabbi Aba said, "And he raised the field" means actual raising, as the field was raised and elevated by Avraham, for nothing was seen there until then. Now, IN THE POSSESSION OF AVRAHAM, all that was hidden was raised and elevated according to its worth, as it should be.

108. Rabbi Shimon said, When Avraham entered the cave and brought Sarah thither, Adam and Chavah rose and did not want Sarah to be buried there. They said, It is not enough for us that we are in disgrace in the world before the Holy One, blessed be He, because of the sin that we committed, but now we will further be put to shame because of your good deeds.

109. Avraham said, I am ready to pray for you before the Holy One, blessed be He, so you shall never be disgraced before Him, NAMELY SO HE WILL FORGIVE YOU COMPLETELY FOR YOUR SIN. "And after this, Avraham buried Sarah his wife" (Beresheet 18:19). What is the meaning of: "And after this"? IT MEANS after Avraham undertook TO PRAY FOR ADAM.

110. Adam returned to his place, but Chavah did not, AS SHE HAD MADE ADAM SIN, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "THE WOMAN WHOM YOU DID GIVE TO BE WITH ME" (BERESHEET 3:12). SHE WAS AFRAID THAT ADAM WOULD NOT RECEIVE HER. Then Avraham approached and put her with Adam, who received her for Avraham's sake. This is the meaning of: "And after this, Avraham buried Sarah his wife." The particle Et before "Sarah" is meant to add Chavah, WHOM AVRAHAM RETURNED TO THE GRAVE, AS WAS SAID. Then ADAM AND CHAVAH were properly settled in their places, as it is written: "These are the generations of the heaven and of the earth when they were created (Heb. behibar'am)" (Beresheet 2:4). We learned that behibar'am HAS THE SAME LETTERS AS beAvraham (lit. 'by Avraham'), WHICH INDICATES THAT THEY WERE CREATED FOR HIM. The generations of the heaven and the earth are Adam and Chavah. It is not written 'the heaven and the earth,' but "the generations of the heaven and of the earth", WHICH REFERS TO ADAM AND CHAVAH, WHO DWELT THERE. THE WORDS "BY AVRAHAM" MEAN FOR AVRAHAM. IT IS SHOWN THAT ADAM AND CHAVAH WERE SUSTAINED FOR AVRAHAM'S SAKE.

111. Rabbi Elazar asks Rabbi Shimon, his father, if the cave is really the Machpelah, for although it is written: "The cave of Machpelah" (Beresheet 23:8), it is later written "the cave of the field of Machpelah" (Ibid. 19). Thus, the field is called Machpelah AND NOT THE CAVE.

112. RABBI SHIMON replied that indeed it is called the cave of Machpelah, as it is written: "That he may give me the cave of Machpelah" (Beresheet 23:8), but neither the cave nor the field along is Machpelah. It refers instead to the field with the cave, TOGETHER they are called Machpelah. Only the field is of Machpelah, not the cave, WHICH MEANS THAT ONLY THE FIELD BEARS THE NAME OF THE MACHPELAH, NOT THE CAVE, because the cave is in the field, and the field is in something else, AS WILL BE DISCUSSED PRESENTLY.

113. Come and behold: The whole land of Yisrael is enfolded beneath Jerusalem, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF MALCHUT. It is above and below in the following manner. THERE IS the upper Jerusalem, WHICH IS BINAH, and there is the lower Jerusalem, WHICH IS MALCHUT, for it is held above and held below. The upper Jerusalem is held on two sides-above and below-and, therefore, it is doubled.

114. Thus, the field is of that Machpelah (lit. 'double'), WHICH IS MALCHUT, for it dwells there, as it is written: "See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed" (Bereshheet 27:27), WHICH IS MALCHUT. BECAUSE IT IS DOUBLE, above and below, it is written: "the field of Machpelah" and not "a double field", BECAUSE THIS WOULD ALLUDE TO THE DOUBLE MALCHUT CALLED FIELD.

115. Moreover, the secret of the matter relates to the field of Machpelah. What is the Machpelah (double)? It is the Hei of the holy name, which is double, FOR THERE ARE TWO HEIS IN THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, and both are as one. For that reason, the scriptures say vaguely the (=Hei) Machpelah, for this is the only double letter in the holy Name. AND THE WORD "THE MACHPELAH" WITH THE HEI ALLUDES TO THE DOUBLE HEI, NAMELY THE LOWER HEI OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF MALCHUT SWEETENED BY BINAH, THE FIRST HEI OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI.

116. Although the cave was indeed double, a cave within a cave, it is called the cave of the field of Machpelah for a different reason as we said, AFTER THE SWEETENING OF MALCHUT BY BINAH. Avraham knew that, and when he spoke to the sons of Chet, he concealed it by saying "that he may give me the cave of Machpelah," which was called by that name because it was double. HE DID NOT SAY THE FIELD OF MACHPELAH CALLED AFTER THE SWEETENING BY BINAH. In Torah, though, it is called the cave of the field of Machpelah, as it ought to be called, FOR THE SWEETENING OF MALCHUT BY BINAH WAS ONLY OVER THE FIELD AND NOT IN THE CAVE.

117. The Holy One, blessed be He, does everything so whatever is in this world, MALCHUT, will resemble what there in above, in BINAH. AS A RESULT, they are connected, and His glory is established above and below. Happy is the portions of the righteous that the Holy One, blessed be He, desires them in this world and in the world to come.

113. תָּא חֲזִי, יְרוּשָׁלַם כָּל אֶרְעָא דִּישְׂרָאֵל אֲתַכְפֵּל תַּחֲוֹתָהּ, וְאִיהִי קְיֻמָּא לְעִילָא וְתַתָּא, כְּגֻוְנָא דָא, יְרוּשָׁלַם לְעִילָא וְרוּשָׁלַם לְתַתָּא, אַחִידָא לְעִילָא, וְאַחִידָא לְתַתָּא, יְרוּשָׁלַם לְעִילָא אַחִידָת בְּתֵרִין סְטְרִין, לְעִילָא וְתַתָּא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ, כְּפַלְתָּא הִיא.

17. "And Avraham was old, advanced in age"

Using Avraham and David as examples, Rabbi Yehuda explains the difference between the righteousness and contrition. While the soul of a contrite person immediately enters the supernal realm, where it cleaves to the Holy One, merely righteous souls may take many years to acquire such a blessing. Even Avraham and David were unable to enter the world where the truly contrite are made welcome. Rabbi Yosi further adds that a contrite soul is closer to the Creator than all others, drawing down more Light from above, in proportion to its yearning and penitence.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Zohar values a spiritual state of mind far above a religious, dogmatic one. Some people observe the Law, but at the expense of hurting those around them. Righteousness turns to self-righteousness and negative action, all in the name of God. Uninterrupted humbleness and repentance for our misdeeds protects us from this fate. This passage helps us raise our consciousness so we can differentiate our desire for righteousness from our need for penitence. Concentrating on penitence hastens us into the Light, rather than merely flattering our egotistical pride.

118. "And Avraham was old, advanced in age (lit. 'coming with the days'), and Hashem blessed Avraham in all things" (Bereshheet 24:1). Rabbi Yehuda opened with the verse, "Happy is the man You choose, and cause to approach to You, that he may dwell in Your courts" (Tehilim 65:5). This verse has already been explained. Nevertheless, happy is the man whose ways are acceptable to the Holy One, blessed be He, who wants to bring himself nearer to Him.

119. Come and behold: Avraham came closer to THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. All his days, his desire was TO COME CLOSER TO HIM. Avraham did not come closer through one day or at one time, but his GOOD deeds brought him closer every day as he moved from one grade to another, until his grade was elevated.

120. When he was old, he entered the supernal grades as he deserved, as it is written: "And Avraham was old" and then "coming with the days." This refers to the supernal days, the days known by the secret of the faith. "And Hashem blessed Avraham in all," NAMELY BY YESOD OF THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA CALLED ALL, where blessings and every goodness come from, AS ITS PLENTY NEVER STOPS FLOWING.

121. Happy are the penitent, who in one hour, one day, one moment, get as close to the Holy One, blessed be He, as most righteous come to the Holy One, blessed be He, over several years. Avraham did not come into the supernal days until he was old, as has been explained. Neither did David, as it is written: "Now King David was old, advanced in years (lit. 'coming with the days')" (I Melachim 1:1). But a penitent comes right in and cleaves to the Holy One, blessed be He.

122. Rabbi Yosi said, We learned that the wholly righteous have no permission to be in that place where the contrite stand. They are closer to the King than everyone else and draw plenty from above with a more intent heart and greater force in order to come closer to the King.

18. There are many places for the righteous

The relationship of a man's good deeds to the place allotted to him in the World to Come is expounded by the rabbis. We learn that there are ultimately as many different places in upper world as there are varieties of good deeds in this one. Just as the wicked receive a judgment each night while they are asleep, so the righteous nightly receive a blessing, as their souls ascend to carve out their future path to the supernal realms. The righteous souls also enjoy a dialogue with the angels and saints, who in exchange for information from the lower world, confer gifts of wisdom. It was such wisdom, says Rabbi Chiya, that enabled Avraham to understand, locate, and avoid the sources from which unholy spirits bring defilement and negativity to the unwary and unrighteous in this world.

The Relevance of this Passage

In simplest terms, reality includes two basic realms--the upper world, and our existence in the physical dimension. The upper world is the source of our intuition and the force behind moments of mystical insight. When a dream comes true, for example, contact has been made with the upper worlds. When instinct impelled you to make an illogical decision that brought good fortune, this is another form of connection to the upper world. Unfortunately, these acute moments of insight and clarity are rare. We seem to have no control over how or when we make contact with the supernal realms. When we must make decisions and choices based on the evidence of our physical existence, the result is often turmoil and turbulence. The author of the Zohar understood this difficulty, and prescribed this portion as a remedy. A reading of this passage helps us utilize our sleep as a tool for spiritual enlightenment. The 'energy of Avraham' is summoned forth through these verses, strengthening our powers of judgment in matters that help or hinder the entrance of the Light into our world.

123. Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, has several places in that world. In them all, there are apartments for the righteous, each according to his deserved grade.

124. It is written, "Happy is the man whom You choose, and cause to approach You, that he may dwell in Your courts" (Tehilim 65:5). This verse refers to those whom the Holy One, blessed be He, causes to approach Him, as these are the souls that ascend to join the inheritance prepared for them. "That he may dwell in Your courts" alludes to the outer halls and the grades outside THE TEMPLE. To whom does it refer? The allusion here is as written: "Then I will give you free access among these who stand by..." (Zechariah 3:7). This is a specific grade assigned among the celestial holy beings.

125. All those who merit this grade are the messengers of the Master of the universe like the angels, FOR THOSE WHO STAND BY ARE MESSENGERS. They always do the errands according to their Master's wish, for they are forever in holiness and are never defiled.

126. Similarly, whoever is defiled in this world draws the spirit of unholiness to himself. When his soul leaves him, he is defiled BY THE OTHER SIDE, and his dwelling is with the unclean, with the fiends of the world. As a man draws upon himself in this world, his dwelling will likewise be determined IN THE ETERNAL WORLD. The defiled spirits defile him and bring him into Gehenom.

127. Come and behold: Whoever sanctifies himself and is on guard against defilement in this world will find his dwelling in the next world among the celestial holy beings who eternally carry forth the missions OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. They stand by in the court, as it is written: "The court of the tabernacle" (Shemot 27:9), UPON WHICH THE SCRIPTURES FURTHER STATE, "HAPPY IS HE... THAT HE MAY DWELL IN YOUR COURTS."

128. Others are in a more inner place, not in the court but in the house, as it is written: "We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your house" (Tehilim 65:5). David said, "We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your house." HE ASKS, if he said "that he may dwell in Your courts," why is it written: "We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your house"? Should it not have been written: 'He will be satisfied', as "he may dwell"? But we learned that sitting in the Temple court is solely for the kings of the house of David. THEREFORE HE SAID, AS SPEAKING FOR HIMSELF, "WE WILL BE SATISFIED WITH THE GOODNESS OF YOUR HOUSE" MEANING HIMSELF AND THE OTHER KINGS, WHO HAVE A PLACE IN THE TEMPLE COURT IN THE SECRET OF THE HOUSE, NAMELY THE TEMPLE.

123. תָּא חֲזִי, כִּמָּה אֲתָרִין מִתּוֹקֵנִין לִיָּה לְקוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּהוּא עֲלֵמָא, וּבְכֻלְהוּ בִּי מוֹתְבֵי לֹון לְצִדִּיקִים. כָּל חֵד וְחֵד לְמוֹם דְּרִגְיָה בְּדִקָּא חֲזִי לִיָּה.

129. There is a place for the most pious who receive EVEN MORE inward, TO THE ASPECT OF THE TEMPLE. Who are they? They are "those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, before the Tent of Meeting eastward, shall be Moshe and Aharon and his sons..." (Bemidbar 3:38). OF THEM, IT IS WRITTEN: "YOUR HOLY TEMPLE" (TEHILIM 65:5). Many compartments upon compartments, lights upon lights exist in that world, each different from the other, each feeling ashamed by its fellow's light. For as good deeds are different FROM EACH OTHER in this world, so the places FOR THE COMPARTMENTS and their lights are different in that world.

130. Come and behold: We have learned that even in this world when man is asleep in his bed and the soul comes out of his body to hover about the world, not every soul rises to see the glory of the face of Atik Yomin. His soul ascends as he generally draws upon himself, and according to his deeds.

131. When a defiled person sleeps, his soul leaves and the spirits of defilement seize it. It is attached to the lower grades that hover about the world and tell it things that will happen in the world in the future, THINGS THEY HEARD BEHIND THE CURTAIN. And sometimes they tell it false things and laugh at it, as has already been explained.

132. If the man has merit, then his soul ascends when he sleeps. It goes around and paves a way among the spirits of defilement. All say, Make way, make way, this one is not of our side. And it ascends among the saints, who tell accurate information to it.

133. And when the soul descends again, the mixed legions OF ANGELS, IN WHOM HOLINESS IS MINGLED WITH DEFILEMENT, want to approach the soul in order to learn the information it received. In return, they tell it other things. But what it learned from holy beings compares to what it learned from THE MIXED LEGIONS, as grain compares with straw and chaff. This is the most meritorious reward while one is still among the living-that is, while the soul is still in this world.

134. Similarly, when souls in this world leave their bodies, I.E. AFTER THEY DIE, they wish to ascend by passing through gates at which one finds harmful hordes that seize the souls of their own side and deliver them into the hands of Dumah, so that he may take them to Gehenom.

129. ואית אתר לחסידיו עליונן, דעוילי לגו, ומאי אינון, בדכתיב והחונים לפני המשכן קדמה לפני אהל מועד מזרחה משה ואהרן ובניו וגו'. וכמה מדורין על מדורין, ונהורין על נהורין, מתפרשן בהוא עלמא, וכל חד אכסיף מנהורא דחבריה, כמה דעובדין אתפרשן בהאי עלמא, הכי נמי, דוכתיב ונהורין, מתפרשן בהוא עלמא.

135. Later, as they ascend from Gehenom, the demons grab the souls and proclaim, These transgressed the precepts of their Master. Then, they travel throughout the world, bringing these souls back to Gehenom. THUS, THEY REPEATEDLY TAKE THE SOULS OUT OF GEHENOM, MAKE THEIR PROCLAMATIONS, AND AGAIN RETURN THEM TO GEHENOM for twelve months. After twelve months appeased, they are quieted and rise to the place that they deserve. Meritorious souls ascend and receive their places, as has already been explained.

136. Come and behold: Happy are the righteous, for much goodness is put aside for them in that world. The innermost place is reserved for the righteous, those who know the secret of their Master and cleave to Him every day. Of these, it is written: "Neither has the eye seen, that an Elohim, beside you, should do such a thing for him that waits for Him" (Yeshayah 64:3).

137. HE ASKS, What is meant by: "For him that waits for Him?" He replied that it is similar to the verse: "waited to speak to Iyov" (Iyov 32:4). This refers to those who are anxious TO FULLY UNDERSTAND some words of wisdom, thereby better understanding their Master. In them, the Master takes pride daily. They enter the upper gates and come among the supernal saints without meeting any obstacles. Happy is their portion in this world and the world to come.

138. Come and behold: Avraham thus entered to properly know and cleave to his Master. First he performed good deeds to merit the supernal days, and was therefore blessed by the place from where all the blessings derive, as it is written: "And Hashem had blessed Avraham in all" (Bereshheet 42:1). What is the meaning of "in all"? It means the dwelling place of the river, in which water never stops flowing, NAMELY YESOD OF THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA, WHOSE UNION IS ETERNAL.

139. Rabbi Chiya said, Come and behold that Avraham did not want to mix with the women of the world and cling to the heathen nations because the wives of the heathen nations defiled their husbands and those attached to them. Because Avraham had the knowledge of wisdom, he knew the essence and root of the place from which the unholy spirits come out to hover in the world. Therefore, he made his servant swear not to take a wife for his son from among the other nations.

19. Eden drips upon the garden

The rabbis display their profound and comprehensive knowledge of the scriptures and writings, in a complex discussion of an image in Yechezkel, "Behold one wheel upon the earth..." While replete with the arcane wisdom of gematria (numerology) and Kabbalah, and the profound mystical beauty of Solomon's great 'Song', this debate has a surprisingly straightforward resolution--one that echoes previous sections of the Zohar in its emphasis on the importance of a pure heart and good deeds in this world for bringing mercy and peace in the next. Rabbi Yitzchak concludes with a simple exposition of the reason for mentions of Avraham's age. Avraham, literally, "came into the days"; his soul had reached its high-allotted place, where its great longevity was assured.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Talmud reveals the difference between man and beast. A wild animal, according to Talmudic sages, instinctively knows to flee the raging fire. Man's nature, on the other hand, compels him to jump head first into the fiery blaze. Our natural tendency is to invite chaos and mayhem into our lives. We complicate and intellectualize life and its challenges, and we rationalize our responses to them. We refuse to heed the simple principles that create happiness--good deeds and persistent spiritual development. In reading this passage, we clear away the barriers to knowledge, and recognize that even the most complex mysteries arise from the same simple and eternal issues. Indeed, complexity itself is merely another excuse to avoid the quest to draw down Light. This excuse must be overcome like any other.

Midrash Hane'elam (Homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

140. "And Avraham was old, advanced in age" (Beresheet 24:1). We learned in the Mishnah: Rabbi Elazar said, In any case, this Mishnah well EXPLAINS THE VERSE: "Behold one ofan (wheel) upon the earth by the living creatures, with its four faces" (Yechezkel 1:15). It becomes a Neshamah as said in the earlier Mishnah. THUS, ALTHOUGH OFAN (WHEEL) IS ALWAYS A NAME OF THE NEFESH, THE MISHNAH STATES THAT THE OFAN IN THIS VERSE BECAME A NESHAMAH AGAIN. THERE IS NO QUESTION ABOUT THIS FACT, AND THE EXPLANATION IS ACCURATE, BUT THE MISHNAH DOES NOT EXPLAIN WHY.

141. Rabbi Aba responded, Tell us, sir, about this Mishnah. What is it? He replied: THE HIDDEN MEANING OF THE VERSE, "BEHOLD ONE WHEEL UPON THE EARTH," AS EXPLAINED IN THE MISHNAH, IS THAT THE OFAN BECOMES A NESHAMAH. This was also explained in another section--the one about the thirteen divine attributes of mercy. But here we have to explain THIS PORTION. He began with the verse: "My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother" (Shir Hashirim 6:9), FOR THIS VERSE ALLUDES TO THE NESHAMAH. Rabbi Elazar asked, Why do we refer to it here in Shir Hashirim as a female, NAMELY "MY DOVE, SHE...IS BUT ONE", but in the Torah we refer to it as male, NAMELY AVRAHAM?

142. Rabbi Elazar said, In Torah, THE SOUL is male in relation to the body because the body to the soul is like a woman to a man. In relation to a higher grade, the soul is as a female to a male. Each receives its grade according to the context. THEREFORE, IN THE SONG OF SONGS, WHEN THE KING THAT PEACE IS HIS TALKS OF THE SOUL, BEING OF A HIGHER GRADE, IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED AS A FEMALE AND CALLED, "MY DOVE, MY UNDEFILED..." BUT IN TORAH, THE SOUL IS IN ITSELF AND IS THEREFORE REFERRED TO AS A MALE, NAMELY AVRAHAM.

143. It was taught in the Mishnah that four times an hour every day, Eden drips upon the garden. The result of these drops is a river which separates into four branches. Each day, 48 drops fall on the seventy trees in the garden, as it is written: "The trees of Hashem have their fill" (Tehilim 104:15). Rabbi Tanchum said, It is written: "He waters the hills from His upper chambers" (Ibid. 13). What is his upper chamber? It is Eden. And where is Eden? Rabbi Yehuda said, It is above Aravot (sweet firmament). Rabbi Yosi said that it is in Aravot, where are treasures of good life, blessing and peace, and the souls of the righteous, as was taught. This is the upper chamber, while the Garden of Eden is lower, and an earthly garden is in apposition and draws from it daily.

144. Rabbi Abahu said that 48 prophets stood for Yisrael. Each one took his share, which was the essence of one drop from the drops of Eden. If every prophet who took one drop had the grade of the holy spirit, this was more true for Adam, who received the 48 drops. From this, you learn the scope of his wisdom.

145. Rabbi Bo said that Rabbi Kahana asked, Where did the prophets get these drops? We learned each drop that comes out of Eden includes the spirit of wisdom. Therefore, it was decreed that there is water that raises wise men and water that raises fools. This water that drops from Eden raises wise ones.

146. Rabbi Yosi said, So the water containing the drops comes from the most ancient of four rivers, as it is written: "The name of the first is Pishon" (Beresheet 2:11). Why is it written: "the name of the first is Pishon?" Pishon is different from the rest because it flows into the land of Egypt. Therefore, the wisdom of Egypt is greater than that of the rest of the world.

147. When it was decreed that the wisdom of Egypt was lost, the Holy One, blessed be He, took the drops and threw them across the garden into the river of the Garden of Eden, as it is written: "And a river went out of Eden to water the garden" (Beresheet 2:10). AND WHEN THE DROPS, WHICH REMAIN IN THE GARDEN, WERE TAKEN FROM EGYPT, WISDOM WAS GONE FROM EGYPT. It separated into four other rivers, of which the most special was Pishon. Wisdom was thus lost in Egypt when the drops were taken from Egypt and left in the garden.

148. Every prophet was sucking from that spirit that came out of Eden. This is the meaning of "walking in the garden in the breeze of the day" (Beresheet 3:8). It is stored in the Garden of Eden for the future. This is the river that Yechezkel saw in his prophecy. Therefore the scripture reads, "For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Hashem" (Yeshayah 11:9), as this water always causes the knowledge in the world to increase.

149. The sages said that the souls of all the righteous are above in Eden, and wisdom is strengthened in the world because of what descends from Eden. How much more so for every one of those who stand in it and take their fill of its pleasure and brightness.

150. Rabbi Yitzchak said, If the soul deserves to pass through the gates of the terrestrial Jerusalem, the great angel Michael hastens to greet and walk with it. The ministering angels wonder about this and ask, "Who is that, coming up from the wilderness" (Shir Hashirim 8:5). Who rises to be among the high ones from the destroyed body, which resembles a breath, as is written: "Man is like a breath" (Tehilim 144:4)? He answers by saying, "My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is distinguished she is the only one of her mother" (Shir Hashirim 6:9). Her mother is the throne of glory, a mother for the soul that gives it birth, for the soul is derived from her.

150. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק בֵּינּוֹן שֶׁהַנְּשָׁמָה זֹכָה, לִיכַנֵּס בְּשַׁעְרֵי יְרוּשָׁלַיִם שֶׁל מַעְלָה, מִיכָאֵל הַשָּׂר הַגָּדוֹל, הוֹלֵךְ עִמָּהּ, וּמְקַדִּים לָהּ שְׁלוֹם. מִלְּאֲכֵי הַשָּׂרֵת, תִּמְהָיִים בּוֹ, וְשׂוֹאֲלִים עָלֶיהָ, מִי זֹאת עוֹלָה מִן הַמִּדְבָּר. מִי זֹאת, עוֹלָה בֵּין הָעֲלִיוֹנִים, מִהַגּוֹף הַחָרֵב, שְׂדוּמָה לְהַבֵּל, הַכְּתִיב אֲדָם לְהַבֵּל דְּמָה. הוּא מְשִׁיב וְאוֹמֵר, אַחַת הִיא יוֹנְתִי תַמְתִּי, אַחַת הִיא מִיּוֹחַדָּת הִיא. אַחַת הִיא לְאֵמָה וְגו', לְאֵמָה. זֶה הִיא כֶּסֶף הַכְּבוֹד, שֶׁהִיא אִם לְנִשְׁמָה, וְיוֹלְדֵת לָהּ, שְׁנַגְזְרָה מִמֶּנָּה.

151. "The daughters saw her, and called her happy" (Ibid.). This refers to the other souls, whose rank is high and who are called the daughters of Jerusalem. According to Rabbi Yosi, they are called the daughters of Jerusalem while the other ones are called the daughters of Lot. "The daughters saw her, the rest of the souls praise it and say to it, Come in peace. "The queens and the concubines praised her" (Ibid.). The queens are the patriarchs that are queens. The concubines are the proselytes. They all praise and laud it until it enters above. Then the soul is in its ascended place, and longevity is maintained, as it is written: "And Avraham was old, advanced in age (lit. 'coming into the days')" (Beresheet 24:1), as he entered longevity in the world to come.

20. About the resurrection of the dead

In this long and complex section, the rabbis first discuss the nature of souls at the time of the Resurrection. They then examine Torah verses concerning difficult questions on the amount of Light souls will merit from the Throne of the Holy One, based upon the souls' deeds and the role of angels in the body's resurrection. We then hear an account of Rabbi Eliezer's visit to his rabbi, Yochanan ben Zakai, on the day of the new moon. They discuss the 'Secret of Ten'--ten dimensions composing reality--through which the primordial Light functions in this world. We learn that the Light of the soul is greater than the Light of angels. The friends then continue their study of Torah, uncovering hidden meanings in phrases concerning the relationship between soul and body in the story of Avraham.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light derived from the letters and lessons of this portion hastens the coming of the Resurrection in a merciful manner. The resolve to perform good deeds is also kindled in our hearts, enabling us to overcome the seductive lure of physical impulse, serve the true needs our souls, and merit a share in the world to come.

152. Rabbi Aba Saba (the elder) stood up and said, May peace and tranquillity come to you, Rabbi Shimon, the son of Yochai, for restoring the diadem to its former splendor. For we learned in the first Mishnah that since the soul is perfected in the supernal place, it does not return to the body. It remains in the same condition, but other souls are created and come out of it. Then Rabbi Shimon, the son of Yochai, taught that although this world is vanity and the body is a putrid drop of semen, yet the soul enters it. In the future, when everyone will be refined and the body will be more pure, sustained and complete, there will be no reason for the soul to enter it with all its completeness.

152. רַבִּי אַבָּא סָבָא, קָם עַל רִגְלוֹי, וְאָמַר, מִנּוּחָה וְשְׁלוֹם גְרָמִין יְהֵא לָךְ רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן בֶּן יוֹחָאי, דְּחֻזְרַת עֵטְרָה לְיוֹשְׁנָה. דְּתַנִּינָן בְּמִתְנִיחָא קְדָמָא, דְּכִיּוֹן שֶׁהַנְּשָׁמָה הִיא בְּתַשְׁלוּמָהּ, בְּאַתֵּר עֲלָא, לֹא תִבְאֵת לְגוּפָא אֲלֵא אֲתַבְרִיאָן מִנָּה, נִשְׁמִי אַחֲרֵינוּן, דְּנִפְקֵי מִנָּה, וְאִיהִי אֲשֵׁתְאֲרַת בְּקִיּוּמָא, עַד דְּאֲתָא רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן בֶּן יוֹחָאי וְדַרְשׁ, וּמָה אִם בְּעוֹלָם הַזֶּה, שֶׁהוּא הַבֵּל, וְהַגּוֹף שֶׁהוּא טֶפֶה סְרוּחָה, נִכְנַסְתָּ בּוֹ, אוֹתָהּ הַנְּשָׁמָה. לְעֵתִיד לָבֵא, שְׁיִצְרַפּוּ כּוֹלֵם, וַיְהִי הַגּוֹף מוּבָחַר, בְּקִיּוּם וְתַשְׁלוּם יוֹתֵר, אִינוּ דִין לְהַכְנִס אוֹתָהּ הַנְּשָׁמָה בּוֹ, בְּכֹל הַתַּשְׁלוּמִין, וְהַעֲלוּיִין שְׁבָה.

153. Rabbi Acha said, The Holy One, blessed be He, will give the very soul and very body existence in the future, but both will be whole and have completeness of knowledge so they can achieve what they did not achieve in this world.

154. "And Avraham was old, advanced in age (lit. 'coming with the days')." Rabbi Bo said that, according to Rabbi Yochanan, this refers to the world of days, NAMELY LIGHT, and not to that world which is night. Rabbi Ya'akov said, COMING WITH THE DAYS MEANS THAT HE CAME TO those worlds called days because of all the pleasures and the brightness that he inherits. RABBI YA'AKOV IS NOT DIFFERING FROM RABBI YOCHANAN, HE IS SIMPLY EXPLAINING THE VERSE MORE FULLY. "And Hashem had blessed Avraham in all" (Beresheet 24:1) refers to the office, NAMELY TO THE AUTHORITY that the Holy One, blessed be He, gave him of His name, which is the letter Hei by which the world was created.

155. We learned that Rabbi Yochanan said, Matatron, the great minister, is a boy, a servant whose Rabbi, his master, rules him. He is in charge of the soul and gives it daily of the light he was ordered TO GIVE IT. In the future, he will receive an account in writing from the cemetery, from Dumah FOR EACH BODY that he can show to his Master. He will turn that backbone into yeast TO BUILD THE BODY under the ground, to mend and wholly revive the body, AS IS PROPER FOR a body without a soul. Later, the Holy One, blessed be He, will send the soul to its place WITHIN THE BODY. THIS WILL BE AFTER IT COMES TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL.

156. Rabbi Yitzchak said, it is then written, "And Avraham said to the eldest servant of his house, that ruled..." (Beresheet 24:2). If we look at this from the aspect of wisdom, NAMELY AS IT CONCERNS THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD, what is THE MEANING OF THE WORDS, "his servant"? BECAUSE AVRAHAM IS THE SECRET OF THE SOUL "AND AVRAHAM SAID TO THE...SERVANT" REFERS TO THE SERVANT OF THE SOUL. HOW DO WE KNOW THAT THERE IS A SERVANT TO THE SOUL? Rabbi Nehorai responded, We need look only at the words "his servant" AND NOT CONNECT THEM TO AVRAHAM IN THE MEANING OF THE VERSE. THEN, THE MEANING IS the servant of Hashem, close to His worship. Who is he? He is Matatron, who will beatify the body in the grave, as we have said.

157. Thus the words, "And Avraham said to his eldest servant" refer to Matatron, the servant of Hashem. The phrase: "The eldest servant of his house" is the beginning of the creations of Hashem. "That ruled over all that he had" means that the Holy One, blessed be He, gave him power over all His hosts, NAMELY OVER THE UPPER ANGELS.

153. אָמַר רַבִּי אַחָא, אוֹתָהּ הַנְּשֵׁמָה מִמָּשׁ, וְאוֹתוֹ הַגּוּף מִמָּשׁ, עֲתִיד הַקּוֹדֵשׁ בְּרִיךְ הוּא, לְהַעֲמִידֵן בְּקִיּוּמָן לְעֲתִיד לָבָא, אֲבָל שְׁנֵיהֶם יִהְיוּ שְׁלֵמִים, בְּתִשְׁלוּם הַדַּעַת, לְהַשִּׁיג מַה שְּׁלֵא הִשִּׁיגוּ בְּעוֹלָם הַזֶּה.

158. We learned that Rabbi Shimon quoted Rabbi Yosi who quoted Rav saying that all the hosts of the servant receive light and delight in the splendor of the soul, as the light of the soul in the world to come is greater than the light of the throne, NAMELY THE THRONE OF GLORY. AND THE ANGELS RECEIVE THEIR LIGHT FROM THE THRONE, SO THE LIGHT OF THE SOUL IS GREATER THAN THAT OF THE THRONE. A DIFFICULT POINT IS THEN RAISED. It seems that the soul was taken from the throne, AND THE RECEIVER IS SMALLER THAN THE GIVER OF NECESSITY. THE EXPLANATION IS THAT each had according to what was appropriate for it. Rav Nachman added that it is actually greater than the light of the throne, as it is written: "The likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it" (Yechezkel 1:26), above it in splendor.

159. When he goes to perform the errand OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, all his hosts and his Chariot are nourished by that splendor OF THE SOUL. And the soul says to him, "Put...your hand"--namely, your escort, NAMELY THE HOSTS OF MATATRON--"under my thigh" (Bereshheet 24:2). This is the light that flows from the soul.

160. Rabbi Yehuda the son of Rabbi Shalom said that we have been taught that when he goes on an errand for the Holy One, blessed be He, He moves His upper hosts by one letter of His name, NAMELY BY THE LETTER YUD OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. HEI IS THE SECRET OF IMA AND ABA, THE ROOT OF THE SOUL'S LIGHT. Rabbi Huna said, Yerechi (my thigh) has the same numerical value as ram (lit. 'high'), which is what the soul says, that is, "Put...your hand," your escort, under the grade of the high and elevated, that rules over all. After the soul commanded the escort of high ones to be under Him, IT TOLD HIM, I make you swear a great oath.

161. Rabbi Yitzchak said, It is written: "Elohim of the heaven, and Elohim of the earth" (Yechezkel 1:26). Since he already mentioned Hashem, NAMELY "I WILL MAKE YOU SWEAR BY HASHEM," why add "Elohim of the heaven, AND ELOHIM OF THE EARTH"? HE ASKS RABBI YEHUDA, WHO SAID THAT HE MOVES ALL HIS HOSTS BY ONE LETTER OF HIS NAME WHEN HE GOES. Rabbi Yehuda said, IT IS WRITTEN: "ELOHIM OF THE HEAVEN, AND ELOHIM OF THE EARTH" to show that He is Master over everything simultaneously. In one instant, He moves everything, and everything is nothing compared to Him. THIS IS WHY HE MENTIONS HEAVEN AND EARTH IN THE OATH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LETTER YUD, WHICH INDICATES THAT THIS LIGHT GOVERNS ALL THE GRADES AND EVREYTHING IS AS NAUGHT COMPARED TO IT. Rabbi Yitzchak said that by two letters of His name HE MOVES HIS WHOLE HOSTS, WHEN MATATRON GOES TO DO HIS ERRAND. This is to show that He is all, and there is nothing save Him.

162. "And I will make you swear by Hashem, Elohim of the heaven..." Rabbi Huna said, If he had been with those versed in the Baraitha at the time that they revealed the secret of this verse, he would not have left them without knowing everything, for he saw great depth in their utterances. They revealed much, but man does not understand what they revealed. Come and behold: The soul causes to swear this oath of the covenant, as it is written: "That you shall not take a wife to my son" (Bereshheet 24:3)). AVRAHAM IS ALLUDING TO THE SOUL, AS HAS BEEN EXPLAINED.

163. Rabbi Yitzchak said, from here, it is understood THAT THE SOUL SAID TO MATATRON, Because you are going on this mission TO RESURRECT THE DEAD, "you shall not take a wife for my son." This means you shall not take a body for my son, BECAUSE THE BODY IN RELATION TO THE SOUL IS CALLED A WIFE. He cannot enter another body, an idolatrous body, a body not worthy of him, but only the body which is actually my own, the very one I came from. And this is what is meant by the verse: "But you shall go to my country, and to my kindred" (Ibid. 4).

164. Rabbi Yosi said, What is meant by the verse: "And take a wife to my son Yitzchak"? IF THIS REFERS TO THE ENCLOTHING OF THE SOUL, SHOULD IT NOT HAVE SAID AVRAHAM? Rabbi Yitzchak replied: The very body that suffered with me in that world and had no pleasure or content for fear of its Possessor IS A REFERENCE TO THE LUZ BONE, WHICH DOES NOT DELIGHT IN EATING AND DRINKING IN THIS WORLD. This very body shall you take to laugh with, in that rejoicing of the righteous, to take delight in it in the joy of the Holy One, blessed be He. Have pleasure with it, because it is time for laughter AT THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD, as it is written: "Then was our mouth filled with laughter" (Tehilim 126:2).

165. Rabbi Yehuda, the son of Rabbi Yitzchak, said, Come and listen: An angel does only one errand, not two at the same time. THERE ARE, HOWEVER, TWO ERRANDS TO PERFORM: TO RESURRECT THE BODY IN THE GRAVE AND TO MAKE IT RISE TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL, WHERE THE SOUL WILL BE ENCLOTHED IN IT. BUT ONE ANGEL DOES NOT PERFORM TWO ERRANDS. Rabbi Aba said, There is one angel with an inkstand at his waist. THIS IS GAVRIEL. He will put a mark on the brow of each, MEANING THAT HE WILL MEND THE BODY. Afterward, the great minister MATATRON will go and mend each one, preparing it to receive its soul. This is the meaning of the verse: "He shall send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife" (Bereshheet 24:7). What is meant by "before you"? It indicates that THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WILL SEND AN ANGEL TO MEND THE BODY before your errand. THEN MATATRON WILL BRING THE SOUL WITH WHICH MAN IS ENCLOTHED, AS NO ONE ANGEL DOES TWO ERRANDS.

166. Rabbi Eliezer went to see his Rabbi, Rabban Yochanan ben Zakai, on the first day of the month. When he arrived he told him, 'O Well for those who see, filled WITH DRAWN WATER, yet gushing more from its own source. What does it seek here?'

167. He answers, It behooves a man to greet his Rabbi ON THE DAY OF A NEW MOON. He said to him, Not for that reason I said, 'WHAT DOES IT SEEK HERE?' I see in your face that there is a new deep secret about which you are going to ask. THEREFORE I ASKED, WHAT DOES SOMEONE AS GREAT AS YOU WANT WITH ME?

168. He responded, I see that primordial light, THAT WAS IN USE AT THE TIME OF THE CREATION AND WAS THEN STORED FOR THE RIGHTEOUS IN THE FUTURE, travels by ten and conducts everything according to the secret of ten. We learned that there are ten writings, ten keys to the hospital in its hands. It takes these and ten notes in the Garden of Eden to mend the earth for the bodies of the righteous.

169. He said, Eliezer my son, you have seen more than a holy angel, FOR THE LIGHT OF THE SOUL IS GREATER THAN THE LIGHT OF ANGELS. BECAUSE RABBI ELIEZER EXPLAINED THE SECRET OF THE TEN ONLY BY THE UPPER THREE COLUMNS-CHOCHMAH, BINAH, AND DA'AT-RABBI YOCHANAN BEN ZAKAI IS GOING TO EXPLAIN THE SECRET OF THE TEN ALSO IN THE LOWER SEVEN SFIROT. HE SAYS: The world, MALCHUT, is created by ten, and it is conducted by ten. THIS IS YESOD THAT LEADS MALCHUT CALLED WORLD. The holy throne, NETZACH AND HOD CALLED THE LOWER THRONE, is according to ten. The Torah, THE SECRET OF TIFERET, is by ten. Its traveling, NAMELY GVURAH, is by ten. The supernal worlds, CHESED, WHICH IS SUPERIOR TO THE LOWER SEVEN, are by ten. And there is the supernal one above them all, blessed be He, NAMELY KETER, FROM WHICH EVERYTHING IS DRAWN, BOTH THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM ALLUDED TO IN THE SECRET OF TEN, AND THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH.

170. I will tell you something else. Those versed in the Mishnah put some thought into it, as it is written: "And the servant took ten camels" (Beresheet 42:10). RABBI ELIEZER said to him, Master, I know this verse, MEANING YOU DO NOT HAVE TO EXPLAIN IT TO ME, but what is the meaning of: "For all the goods of him master were in his hands" (Ibid.)? I DO NOT KNOW HOW TO EXPLAIN IT. HOW COULD IT BE THAT HE CARRIED ALL THE PROPERTY OF AVRAHAM IN HIS HANDS? He replied: This is the name of his Master, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH CALLED NAME, that went with him to bring him TO THE DESIRABLE PLACE and to protect him, SO THAT NOTHING WOULD HAPPEN TO HIM. RABBI ELIEZER SAID, Assuredly this is THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "For My name was in him" (Shemot 23:21).

171. Rabbi Abahu said, Come and behold: He who knows His name perfectly knows that He and his Name are one. The Holy One, blessed be He, and His Name, THE SHECHINAH, are one, as it is written: "Hashem shall be one, and his Name One" (Zecharyah 14:9). That is, the name, THE SHECHINAH, and He, ZEIR ANPIN, are one.

172. Rabbi Aba said, We should look at the verse, "And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water" (Beresheet: 24:11). According to Rabbi Aba, outside the city means in the cemetery. "By a well of water" refers, as we learnt, that those who are the first TO BE REVIVED FROM THE DEAD in the cemetery, are those who dealt in Torah. As we have learned, when a man comes into his grave, he is first asked if he set appointed times to study Torah, as it is written: "And he shall be the faith of your times" (Yeshayah 33:6). Without question, he who responds yes, is revived first.

173. Rabbi Aba said that "at the time of evening" (Beresheet 24:11) refers to Friday, Shabbat eve, the time of the resurrection of the dead. HE ASKS, What is the meaning OF THESE THINGS? HE RESPONDS: We have learned that the world exists for 6,000 years and that SHABBAT EVE is the 6th millennium, the ending of all. Thus "at the time of evening" means the time of ending for everything. The phrase: "At the time that the women go out to draw water" refers to the scholars of the Torah, who draw the water of Torah, the time to go out and shake off the dust, NAMELY THE TIME TO RESURRECT.

174. Rabbi Aba added that there is more to know, as we have learned that those occupied in knowing their Master in this world and their soul to perfection in the world to come, deserve to get out OF THE GRAVE by the oath of the soul MATATRON WAS MADE IT SWEAR. FOR MATATRON comes to know which is the soul's proper body, AS THE SOUL MADE HIM SWEAR, and it is written: "Behold, I stand here by the well of water" (Bereshheet 24:43). Although it is A BODY OF the scholar of the Torah, MATATRON GOES to look for perfection, as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that the maid who comes forth to draw, and I say to her, 'Give me, I pray you, a little water from your pitcher'" (Ibid. 44), which means 'tell me by hint, the knowledge of the name, from what you conceived'.

175. "And she says to me, 'Both drink you'" (Bereshheet 24:44). THIS MEANS THAT SHE LET HIM KNOW THREE THINGS: 1) You are a servant like me; 2) The knowledge of you does not compare with the knowledge of Hashem, blessed be He, AND 3) It behooves you to conceive that you are a creature like me AND, ALTHOUGH YOU ARE AN ANGEL, YOU ARE LIKE A CREATURE; NAMELY, THERE IS WANT IN YOU, AS THERE IS IN ME.

176. "I will draw water for your camels also" (Bereshheet 24:19) INDICATES THAT IT ALSO DREW FORTH FOR HIS ATTENDANTS FROM WHAT IT PERCEIVED. THE WORDS "YOUR CAMELS" MEANS "YOUR RETINUE." IN OTHER WORDS, my understanding is that: 1) Your retinue was not aware, THEY ARE UNABLE TO CONCEIVE HIM; 2) "I know that I have an advantage over you" I.E. FROM THE ASPECT OF BEING INCLUDED IN A POINT IN THIS WORLD, WHICH IS LACKING IN SUPERNAL ANGELS; AND 3) I know how you were created from the radiance that was placed with you. THAT IS, IT ALSO UNDERSTOOD THE SECRET OF HIS CREATION. IF THE BODY MENTIONS ALL THESE PERCEPTIONS, let this sign THAT WAS PRINTED ON ME be delivered to me. IF THE BODY SHALL SAY THESE THINGS AND NOT ONE SHALL BE MISSING, then I shall know she is the woman. She is the body from the same soul according to the oath it made me swear.

177. "And it came to pass, before he had done speaking" (Bereshheet 24:15). According to Rabbi Yitzchak, Rabbi Yehuda said while he was thinking of how to try the body, it is written: "Behold, Rivkah came out," which is the holy body that is occupied in Torah. It pounds the body for knowledge of the conception of his Possessor, "who was born to Betuel" (Ibid.) Rav Yehuda said she was the daughter (Heb. bat) of El, the "son of Milkah" (Ibid.), who is a son to the king (Heb. Malkah) of the universe. "The wife of Nachor, Avraham's brother" alludes to the company of the mind, the body attached to the mind, and is the brother of the soul, and the phrase: "With her pitcher upon her shoulder" alludes to the weight of wisdom upon it.

178. "And the servant ran to meet her" (Bereshheet 24:17) refers to Matatron. And said, "Let me, I pray you, drink a little water of your pitcher" give me a hint of the wisdom of the knowledge of your Maker that you dealt with in the world you left. Rabbi Aba said, We have explained that after that it is written: "And I put the ring upon her nose, and the bracelets upon her hands" (Ibid. 47). Rabbi Aba said that these are the bones that were scattered here and there. He puts them together and weighs them one upon the other, as is written: "And strengthen your bones" (Yeshayah 58:11).

176. וְגַם לְגַמְלִיךְ אֲשָׂאב, כְּלוֹמַר יַדִּיעַת הַשְּׁגָתִי, שְׁלֹא הַשִּׁיגוֹ סִיעַתְךָ וְיַדִּיעָתִי כִּי מַעֲלָה יֵשׁ לִי עֲלִיךָ, וְהֵיֵאָךְ נִבְרָא אֶתָּה מִזִּיּוֹ הַנְּתוּן אֶצְלְךָ. אִם הוּא אוֹמֵר סִימָן זֶה, יְהִי מְסוּר בְּיַדִּי, עַל כָּל הַדְּבָרִים אֵלַי, וְאִדַּע שֶׁהִיא הָאִשָּׁה, הוּא הַגּוֹף, מֵאוֹתָהּ הַנִּשְׁמָה הַשְּׁבוּעָה שֶׁהִשְׁבִּיעֵנִי.

179. Rabbi Aba said, At that time, the body stands in the land of Yisrael, where the soul enters it. Rabbi Yochanan asked, Who conducts the body to the land of Yisrael? Rabbi Zira said, The Holy One, blessed be He, digs caverns under the ground and they roll to the land of Yisrael. Hence it is written: "And the earth shall cast out the shades of the dead" (Yeshayah 26:19).

180. Rabbi Yitzchak said, Gavriel conducts them to the land of Yisrael. How do we know that? From the verse: "Will you go with this man?" (Bereshheet 24:58). Elsewhere, it is written: "The man Gavriel" (Daniel 9:21). Rabbi Yosi asked, Why is it written: "And Rivkah had a brother and his name was Lavan" (Ibid. 29)? Rabbi Yitzchak answered, The Evil Inclination does not pass away from the world, and though it is not entirely present, some of it is.

181. Come and behold: When it was in this world, it was called Lot. In the world to come, it will be partly canceled and called Lavan, it not as corrupt as before, but as one who washed the filth off of himself. HE ASKS, Why is there need of Lavan? NAMELY, WHY IS IT NEEDED? TO REMAIN IN THE WORLD Rabbi Shimon said, It is needed for being fruitful and multiply. If there is no Evil Inclination, nothing is fruitful or multiplies.

182. Come and listen: Since the body was constructed and established, why is it then written, "And they sent away Rivkah, their sister, and her nurse..." (Bereshheet 24:59). What does the phrase "and her nurse" imply? It is the power of movement. Rabbi Yitzchak further clarifies this by explaining that this is the power of the body.

183. Rabbi Abahu opened with the verse, "Come with me from Levanon, my bride, with me from Levanon..." (Shir Hashirim 4:8). Rabbi Abahu said, Once the body was built and established, it is brought to the land of Yisrael to receive its soul. The soul awaits it there and comes out to greet it, as is written: "And Yitzchak went out to meditate in the field" (Bereshheet 24:63). "Come with me from Levanon, my bride" is the soul, and "Look from the top of Amana" (Ibid.) corresponds to: "And he lifted his eyes and saw" (Ibid.).

184. Rabbi Yehuda said, If this is the soul, Avraham is satisfactory, as was said. What then is Yitzchak? Rabbi Abahu said, The friends said it is now called Yitzchak because of the increased joy in the world.

184. אָמַר ר' יְהוּדָה, אִם הוּא הַנִּשְׁמָה, תֵּינַח אַבְרָהָם כְּדִקְאָמְרֵן, אָבֵל יִצְחָק מֵהוּ. אָמַר ר' אַבְהוּ, הָא חֲבֵרִיאִי אָמְרוּ, דְּעִכְשָׁיו אֲתִקְרִי יִצְחָק, עַל שׁוּם חֲדוּתָא סְגִיָּא דְבַעֲלָמָא.

185. Rabbi Abahu said, First the soul was called Avraham and the body Sarah. Now the soul is called Yitzchak and the body Rivkah. Rabbi Shimon said, It was taught in the Mishnah that the soul awaited the body in the land of Yisrael forty years before the body existed. Where? At the Temple.

186. Rabbi Abahu said, Look at the verse: "And took Rivkah, and she became his wife, and he loved her; and Yitzchak was comforted after his mother's death" (Bereshheet 24:67). When he loves the body and is comforted by it, it is time for laughter and delight in the world.

187. Rabbi Yehuda said, Now this whole portion of the scripture is made clear, but I do not know the meaning of the verse: "Then again Avraham took a wife, and her name was Kturah" (Bereshheet 25:1). To a reasonable mind, this text is contradictory. IT CONTRADICTS THE EXPLANATION CONCERNING THE SOUL AND BODY AT THE TIME OF RESURRECTION.

188. Rav Dimi arrived and said, I have heard an explanation for this portion, but I do not remember it. They said that the high and strong, NAMELY THE UPPER GRADES, did not present it for revelation. What have we to say? Rabbi Yehuda stood up and said that the portion is revealed in the Yeshivah of our friends, the sages of the Mishnah.

189. They stood up and began walking, he, Rabbi Yesa, and Rabbi Chiya. They found Rabbi Elazar ben Rabbi Shimon, who was revealing the secret of Tfilin. They came before him and asked, Sir, what are you engaged in? He replied: I am recounting the reason for the Tfilin, for blessed is the man who dons Tfilin and knows the sense thereof.

190. They said, If it is well before you, Sir, may you tell us something. They said, We learned from your father that the Holy One, blessed be He, in His great love for the children of Yisrael, told them to build Him a tabernacle, reflecting the supernal high Chariot, so He might come and dwell among them. This is the meaning of: "And let them make Me a sanctuary: so that I may dwell among them" (Shemot 25:8). We learned from your father that the reason for the Tfilin was hidden in this verse.

191. He said to them, Come and behold: The Temple was made to reflect the upper one in THE SHAPES OF its holy Chariots. And then the Holy One, blessed be He, caused His Shechinah to dwell among them. In this manner, those versed in the Mishnah discussed the reason for the Tfilin. Any man WHO WEARS TFILIN will be patterned after the upper Chariots: the lower Chariot and the upper Chariot so that His kingdom will come and the Shechinah will dwell upon him.

192. We learned that there are deep secrets in THE TFILIN and its patterns. There are three Chariots within them, like the high and holy ones, reflecting the secrets of the three letters of His holy name, YUD-HEI-VAV. For these three Chariots ARE the three letters YUD-HEI-VAV. The four sections govern the four LETTERS OF HIS HOLY NAME. This is therefore the secret of the Shin of three crowns and Shin of four crowns, WHICH MEANS the three kings ruling over the body, CORRESPONDING TO THE SHIN WITH THREE HEADS and the Tfilin upon the Holy One, blessed be He, above the head Tfilin and the hand Tfilin, AMOUNTING TO four sections, WHICH CORRESPOND TO THE SHIN WITH FOUR HEADS.

193. Similarly, the heart rides as if on the lower Chariot, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. And the lower one, THE NUKVA is mounted. We have also learned that this Chariot of the arm, THE NUKVA, is below, NAMELY THE SECRET OF THE HAND TFILIN, CALLED THE ARM. The heart rides as if beneath. It was given to it to bring in all the heavenly hosts. So the heart rides down below and all the limbs of the body are given to it.

194. Above THE HEART are the four sections of the brain. The Holy One, blessed be He, is supreme ruler over them. He is King of all. And the secret of wisdom resembles the Temple, as it is written: "And make one Cherub on the one end, and the other Cherub on the other end" (Shemot 25:19). Above them is the King's Shechinah, within the four letters YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. YUD-HEI IS ON THE RIGHT CHERUB, AND VAV-HEI ON THE LEFT CHERUB. Within the two Chariots, THE UPPER CHARIOT IS ON THE RIGHT CHERUB AND THE LOWER CHARIOT IS ON THE LEFT CHERUB.

195. Similarly, the heart and the brain, THE HAND TFILIN AND THE HEAD TFILIN, the heart is on one side and the brain on the other side. Upon them is the King's Shechinah in four sections. Rabbi Elazar said, From now on, the secrets of the crowns of the letters, and the sections in their bodies, NAMELY THEIR COMPARTMENTS, and the straps are an ancient tradition that Moshe received in Sinai. They were already explained by allusion, NAMELY BY THE EXPLANATION BEFORE US, and the sense of all this is in the secret of the thirteen divine attributes OF MERCY.

196. Rabbi Yehuda said, Even if we came only for this secret, it would have sufficed. They said to him, Happy is your lot in the world to come, for no secret is withheld from you. They said to him, We came before you, Sir, to know the secret of the verse: "Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Kturah" (Beresheet 25:1).

197. He said, the explanation of this verse is revealed by the friends versed in the Mishnah. When the soul enters its holy body, these words, NAMELY "THEN AGAIN..." WILL BE SAID of the wicked, who will be resurrected and make better their deeds. And the soul will grant them its precious splendor, so they will know, repent and have full merit again.

198. When Solomon saw this, he wondered very much, and said, "And so I saw the wicked buried, and come to their rest...gone from the holy place" (Kohelet 8:10), WHICH MEANS THAT THEY WILL COME AND LIVE AT THE HOLY PLACE, NAMELY THEY WILL RISE AT THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD. Rabbi Aba quoted Rabbi Yochanan, saying it is written: "Can the Kushite change his skin, or the leopard his spots?" (Yirmeyah 13:23), similarly the wicked who did not deserve to repent in this world and offer good deeds as sacrifices will never burn sacrifices in the world to come. THOUGH THEY WILL RISE FROM THE DEAD, THEY WILL NOT BE ABLE TO DO GOOD DEEDS, BECAUSE THEY DID NOT LEAD MERITORIOUS LIVES. It is written: "Then again Avraham took a wife" and wanted to produce a soul for their bodies and bring them closer in repentance, as it is written: "And the souls that they had made in Charan" (Beresheet 12:5).

199. Rabbi Elazar said, Look at the verse: "And she bore him Zimran, and Yokshan" (Beresheet 25:2). They did many evil deeds, until they were driven from the world, as it is written: "And sent them away from his son Yitzchak" (Ibid.). Of them it is written, "And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake..." (Daniel 12:2). Of the others, it is written: "And they who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament" (Ibid. 3).

200. Rabbi Yehuda said, This is the meaning of the text indicating that it was called Avraham at one time, and is now called Yitzchak in his place, as it is written: "And it came to pass after the death of Avraham, that Elohim blessed his son Yitzchak; and Yitzchak dwelt by Be'er Lachai Roi (lit. 'the well of living and seeing')" (Beresheet 25:11). Through the knowledge of the living, the life of the world, he may know and conceive what he had not conceived in this world, as it is written: "For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Hashem" (Yeshayah 11:9). End of Midrash Hane'elam (homiletical interpretations on the obscure)

201. Rabbi Yitzchak opened with the verse: "And the dust returns to the earth as it was: and the spirit returns to Elohim who gave it" (Kohelet 12:7). Come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, created Adam, He took the dust from the place of the Temple and built his body from the four directions of the world, each of which gave him strength. Later, He poured the spirit of life upon him, as it is written: "And breathed into his nostrils the breath of life" (Beresheet 2:7). Then he stood up and knew that he comprised both high and low; he cleaved to Hashem and knew the supernal wisdom.

202. Similarly, all people in the world are included from the upper and the lower. When all those who know how to properly sanctify themselves in this world beget a child, they draw on it a holy spirit from that place where all that is holy originates. These are called children to the Holy One, blessed be He, because their bodies were properly made in sanctity. He is also given a spirit from the holy supernal place, as he deserves. This has already been explained.

203. Come and behold: When man is called to account for his deeds before leaving this world, there will be a day of reckoning, a day when both the soul and body give reckoning. The soul then LEAVES THE BODY AND is separated from it, while the body, WHICH WAS CREATED FROM DUST, returns to dust, and all returns to the place from which it was taken. It has already been explained that everything will be stored before the Holy One, blessed be He, until the time when He resurrects the dead.

204. The Holy One, blessed be He, will return that very body and that very soul to the world as before, and renew the face of the world. This is according to the verse: "The dead men of your people shall live, my dead body shall arise" (Yeshayah 26:19). The same soul is stored before the Holy One, blessed be He, as it returns to its proper place AFTER THE DEATH OF THAT PERSON, according to its deeds, as it is written: "And the spirit returns to Elohim who gave it." At that time, He will revive the dead and pour dew from His head upon them. All the bodies will be resurrected from the dust by that dew.

205. It is written: "For your dew is as the dew on herbs (lit. 'of lights')" (Yeshayah 26:19). HE ASKS, What is the dew of lights? AND HE ANSWERS, These are real lights, the Lights of above, by which He will pour life upon the world, because the Tree of Life, ZEIR ANPIN, will then provide never-ending life. For now, there is an end to life, since WHEN the evil serpent has its way, the moon is covered, NAMELY THE UNION OF THE SUPERNAL SUN AND MOON, ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, STOPS. For that reason, the water OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE TREE OF LIFE as it were, stops flowing. Therefore, life does not exist properly in the world.

206. At that time, the Evil Inclination, which is the wicked serpent, will be removed from the world, and the Holy One, blessed be He, will cause it to pass away, as written: "And I will cause...the unclean spirit to pass out of the land" (Zecharyah 13:2). After it passes from the world, the moon will no longer be covered and the sources of the river that flow out OF EDEN, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, will never stop flowing. Then, it is written: "The light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days" (Yeshayah 30:26).

207. Rabbi Chizkiyah said, If you say that all the bodies in the world will rise to life and wake up from the dust, it behooves us to ask about the bodies that were planted with the same soul, MEANING THAT ONE SOUL INCARNATED WITHIN SEVERAL BODIES, ONE AFTER THE OTHER, AS IS KNOWN. What will become of them? WILL ALL OF THEM RISE AT THE REVIVAL OF THE DEAD, OR ONLY THE LAST ONE? Rabbi Yosi said, It is as if the bodies, which did not have merit THROUGH GOOD DEEDS and did not succeed IN COMPLETING THE SOUL, never were. They are as a dried tree in that world, and so they will be at the time OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD. Only the last body that was planted and worthily received its SPIRITUAL roots will be revived AT THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD.

208. Of this, it is written: "For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters... and its leaf shall be green" (Yirmeyah 17:8), because it bore fruit, NAMELY GOOD DEEDS, and struck roots properly ABOVE IN THE UPPER WORLD. EACH PRECEPT CORRESPONDS TO A SPIRITUAL ROOT THAT IS REVEALED ABOVE, AS IS KNOWN. Of the earlier body that did not bear fruit or strike roots, it is written: "For he shall be like the juniper tree in the desert, and shall not see when good comes" (Ibid. 6). "When good comes" refers to the resurrection of the dead.

209. And the Light that will illuminate the righteous will shine. It has been stored before Him since the day that the world was created, as written: "And Elohim saw the light, that it was good" (Bereshheet 1:3). In the future, the Holy One, blessed be He, will revive the dead. It is written: "But to you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall arise, etc." (Malachi 3:20), for then good will have the upper hand in the world, and that which is called evil will pass away from the world, as we said, then, the bodies that preceded the last one will be as if they never existed.

210. Rabbi Yitzchak said, The Holy One, blessed be He, will pour other spirits upon the bodies THAT CAME BEFORE THE LAST ONE. They will be properly revived in the world if they merit the spirits BY FOLLOWING THE RIGHT PATH. If they do not, they will be ashes under the feet of the righteous, as it is written: "And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, etc." (Daniel 12:2). Everything was established and prepared before the Holy One, blessed be He, and all were numbered for the time of resurrection, as it is written: "That brings out their host by number, etc." (Yeshayah 40:26).

211. Come and behold: We have learned that all the dead in the land of Yisrael will be resurrected first, because the Holy One, blessed be He, will arouse them WITH A SPIRIT and revive them. Of them it is written: "The dead...shall live" (Yeshayah 26:19) This verse refers to those buried in the land of Yisrael. "My dead body shall arise" refers to those buried in other countries, for whom the term "restoration" is used in place of "resurrection." This is because the spirit of life dwells only in the Holy Land of Yisrael. Therefore, "The dead man of your people shall live" refers only to those buried in the land Yisrael. The bodies of those outside THE LAND OF YISRAEL will be created, but they will be resurrected as a body with no spirit. Thereafter, they will roll under the soil of the land until they reach the land of Yisrael, where they will receive a soul. They will not receive this soul under any other authority, so they will be well established in the world.

212. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosa were sitting one night, studying Torah. Rabbi Elazar said, Come and behold: In the future, when the Holy One, blessed be He, resurrects the dead, all the souls that will be aroused before Him will stand before Him in the very shape they had in this world. And the Holy One, blessed be He, will bring them down TO THEIR BODIES and call them by name, as written: "He calls them all by names" (Yeshayah 40:26). Each soul will enter its place IN THE BODY and be properly revived in the world. Then, the world will be perfected. Of that time it is written: "And the disgrace of his people shall He take away" (Yeshayah 25:8). What is "the disgrace of his people shall He take away"? It is the Evil Inclination THAT HE WILL REMOVE FROM THE WORLD, which darkens the faces of the people and rules over them.

213. Rabbi Yosi said, We see that whenever the spirit is in a man, he is not defiled. Once his soul leaves him, he is defiled. HE WANTED TO KNOW THE MEANING OF THIS. He said to him, Assuredly this is so. We have also learned that when the Evil Inclination, WHICH IS THE ANGEL OF DEATH, takes the spirit of man, he becomes defiled and the body remains unclean. FOR WITH THE STRENGTH OF POLLUTION OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, THIS STRENGTH BEING THE ROOT OF ALL DEFILEMENT, IT TAKES AWAY MAN'S SOUL. THE REVERSE IS TRUE for the heathen nations. They are unclean while they live because their souls are drawn from the side of defilement. Once their bodies are emptied of that defilement, NAMELY WHEN THEY DIE AND THE SOUL LEAVES, the body stays without unholiness AND THEREFORE DOES NOT CAUSE DEFILEMENT. RABBI SHIMON SAID THAT THE CANOPIED GRAVES OF THE HEATHEN DO NOT DEFILE.

214. For that reason, he who cleaves to a woman from the heathen nations is defiled, and the child that she bears him receives the spirit of defilement. You may ask, Is it not of Yisrael from the side of its father? If so, why should it receive the spirit of defilement? Come and behold: First its father was besmirched when he united with that tainted woman. All the more so, the child that she bears will receive the spirit of defilement upon it. Furthermore, he also transgressed the Torah, as it is written: "For you shall worship no other El; for Hashem whose name is jealous, is a jealous El" (Shemot 34:14), which means that He is zealous of the covenant, SO THAT IT WILL NOT BE TAINTED BY HEATHEN WOMEN.

21. "You shall not take a wife... of the daughters of the Canaanite"

The rabbis discuss the dangers of a man marrying a woman of the heathen nations, and Avraham's desire that Yitzchak remain in the Central Column, where he would learn the ways of the Holy One.

The Relevance of this Passage

This pertains to the importance of our relationships in life, including, their effect on the spiritual state of things. Marriage is the union of two halves of one soul, and is considered an important tool for drawing the Light of the upper worlds [husband] into the lower world [wife]. All our actions in this material realm, including marital transactions, are a microcosm of the ebb-and-flow relationship endlessly playing out between the physical and metaphysical worlds. To secure a personal connection to the macrocosmic level of reality, thus ensuring its positive influence in our life, we must surround ourselves with those in whom the love of The Creator burns strongly, rather than those whose godlessness seeks to infect us with unbelief. Consciousness creates reality. People who are not conscious of the Creator create for themselves a Godless reality devoid of spiritual Light. Whether in business, social, or marital relationships, the Zohar helps prevent us from becoming entangled with negative partners, and to attract like-minded, virtuous people into our life.

215. Rabbi Elazar said, Come and behold: We have learned that because Avraham had wisdom, he wanted to be separated from and not cleave to all other nations. Therefore it is written: "And I will make you swear by Hashem, the Elohim of heaven, and the Elohim of the earth, that you shall not take a wife to my son..." (Bereshheet 24:3). The phrase "of the daughters of the Cna'anite" (Ibid.) surely contains a secret, as it is written: "And has married the daughter of a strange El" (Malachi 2:11). In the phrase: "Among whom I dwell" (Bereshheet 24:3), the "I" is exactly the same as that mentioned in "I have made the earth" (Yeshayah 45:12). THE "I" IN THE FIRST CASE REFERS TO THE SHECHINAH AS IT IN THE SECOND CASE, BECAUSE SHE WAS IN EXILE. HE MADE HIM SWEAR all that so to prevent him from being defiled by them.

215. אָמַר רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר, תָּא חֲזִי, דְּהָא אֲתָמַר, דְּכִיּוֹן דִּידַע אַבְרָהָם אֲבִינוּ חֲכָמָתָא, בְּעָא לְהַתְפָּרְשָׁא מִכָּל שְׂאָר עַמִּין, וְלֹא לְאַתְדַּבְּקָא בְּהוּ, וּבְגִין כִּךְ כְּתִיב, וְאִשְׁבִּיעַךְ בַּה' אֱלֹקֵי הַשָּׁמַיִם וְאֱלֹקֵי הָאָרֶץ אֲשֶׁר לֹא תִקַּח אִשָּׁה לְבָנִי מִבְּנוֹת הַכְּנַעֲנִי וְגו', מִבְּנוֹת הַכְּנַעֲנִי וְדַאי רִזָּא אִיהוּ, בְּדַבְרֵי אַחַר וּבַעַל בַּת אֶל נֹכְרִי. אֲשֶׁר אֲנֹכִי יוֹשֵׁב בְּקִרְבּוֹ, אֲנֹכִי דְיִיקָא, כְּתִיב הֲכֵא אֲשֶׁר אֲנֹכִי, וּכְתִיב הֲתָם אֲנֹכִי עֲשִׂיתִי אָרֶץ. וְכָל דָּא, בְּגִין דְּלֹא לְאַסְתָּאבָא בְּהוּ.

216. Come and behold: Whoever puts the holy covenant in a woman of a heathen nation causes another place to be defiled; NAMELY, HE BLEMISHES THE SUPERNAL COVENANT AND CAUSES IT TO GIVE PLENTY TO THE HANDMAID. Thus, it is written: "For three things the earth is disquieted..." (Mishlei 30:21). And though he made him swear by the covenant, Avraham did not yet trust him, but prayed before the Holy One, blessed be He, saying "Hashem, Elohim of the heaven...He shall send his angel before you" (Bereshheet 24:7). His angel assuredly MEANS the angel of the covenant, whom He shall send so that the covenant will be kept and not defiled among the nations.

216. תָּא חֲזִי, הָאִי מֵאֵן דְּאֵעִיל הָאִי בְּרִית קְדִישָׁא, בְּהֵיא אֲתָתָא דְשְׂאָר עַמִּין עַעְכוּ"ם, גְּרִים לְאַסְתָּאבָא אַתְרֵי אַחְרָא, וְעַל דָּא כְּתִיב תַּחַת שְׁלֹשׁ רִגְזָה אָרֶץ וְגו'. וְאַף עַל גַּבְדָּאוּמֵי לִיה בְּהֵיא בְּרִית, לֹא אֲבִטַח בֵּיה אַבְרָהָם, עַד דְּצִלִי צְלוּתִיה קָמִי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְאָמַר ה' אֱלֹקֵי הַשָּׁמַיִם וְגו' הוּא יִשְׁלַח מַלְאָכוֹ, וְדַאי דָּא מִלְּאֲךָ הַבְּרִית, בְּגִין דִּיתְנַטִּיר הָאִי בְּרִית, וְלֹא יִתְחַלַּל בֵּין אִינוּן עַמִּין.

217. He asks the meaning of the verse: "Only bring not my son back there" (Bereshheet 24:8). HE RESPONDS that Avraham alone-and no one else IN HIS FAMILY-recognized the Holy One, blessed be He. Avraham did not want Yitzchak to dwell among the heathen nations, but wanted him to remain with him, where he would learn the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He. Avraham did not want Yitzchak to turn right or left, BUT RATHER TO REMAIN IN THE CENTRAL COLUMN. For that reason Avraham did not want Yitzchak's dwelling place to be among the heathen nations.

217. רַק אַתְּ בְּנִי לֹא תִשָּׁב שָׁמָּה. מ"ט, בְּגִין דִּידַע אַבְרָהָם, דְּהָא בְּכַלְהוּ, לֹא הוּהּ מֵאֵן דְּאִשְׁתַּמוּדַע לִיה לְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בַּר אִיהוּ בְּלַחוּדוּי, וְלֹא בְּעָא דְלַהוּ מְדוּרִיה דִּיצְחָק בִּינֵייהוּ, אֶלָּא דִּיהָא מְדוּרִיה עַמִּיָּה, וְיִצְחָק יוֹלִיף מִנֵּיהּ תְּדִיר אַרְחוּי דְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא וְלֹא יִסְטִי לִימִינָא וְלִשְׂמָאלָא. וְעַל דָּא לֹא בְּעָא אַבְרָהָם דְלַהוּ מְדוּרִיה דִּיצְחָק תַּמָּן.

218. Rabbi Yesa said, Assuredly the merit of Avraham was with the servant, for he arrived at the well that very day he went, as is written: "And I came this day to the well" (Bereshheet 24:42). This has already been explained.

22. In Torah is the whole life
 Rabbi Elazar, here, emphasizes the importance of Torah study, saying that the Angel of Death has no power over those who are diligent in their study of the scriptures. Rabbi Yesa asks why, if this is so, Moshe died. We learn that although Moshe did indeed die, his death was not caused by the Angel of Death; instead, he cleaved directly to the Shechinah, the Divine presence of the Creator, and went on to eternal life. All those who seek and approach The Creator, we're told, are called 'living.' Because of their diligent study of Torah, no reckoning is demanded of them in the World To Come.
 The Relevance of this Passage
 People regularly experience some form of death. We die a little bit each day, whether financially, emotionally, spiritually, or physically. The death of the body, the loss of an individual's sanity, or the end of one's career-are all likewise executed by one Angel of Death. The intent of these verses is to help ease these transitions from death to rebirth, from the end of one phase in our life, into a new phase filled with continuity and Light.

219. Rabbi Elazar opened with the verse, "Open you my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Torah" (Tehilim 119:17). How foolish men are, for they do not know, and do not seek to be occupied with, Torah. Torah is the whole life. All freedom and all goodness in this world and in the world to come are contained within it. HE EXPLAINED THAT it is life in this world; namely, they may merit full days in this world, as it is written: "The number of your days I will fulfill" (Shemot 23:26). And one will merit long days in the world to come, for this whole life is a life of joy, life without sadness, life that is real life, freedom in this world, freedom from everything, because other nations cannot rule over anyone who is engaged in the study of Torah.

220. You may say that there were those who were persecuted, NAMELY THE MARTYRS WHO WERE EXECUTED FOR STUDYING TORAH WHEN SUCH STUDY WAS FORBIDDEN. HE ANSWERS THAT this is a decree from above, such as the one for Rabbi Akiva and his companions, WHO WERE KILLED FOR STUDYING TORAH, and so it came to THE SUPREME mind WHEN THE WORLD WAS CREATED. BUT USUALLY, STUDYING TORAH MEANS freedom from the Angel of Death, who cannot have sway over him. Assuredly this is so. If Adam had cleaved to the Tree of Life, which is Torah, death would not have been brought upon him and the whole world. BUT BECAUSE HE FORSOOK THE TREE OF LIFE, WHICH IS TORAH, AND ATE FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, HE BROUGHT DEATH UPON HIMSELF AND THE WHOLE WORLD. It was "engraved upon the tablets" (Shemot 32:16) when the Holy One, blessed be He, gave Torah to Yisrael. This has already been explained. DO NOT PRONOUNCE IT "ENGRAVED" (HEB. CHARUT), BUT FREEDOM (HEB. CHERUT), BECAUSE THERE WAS FREEDOM FROM THE ANGEL OF DEATH. If it were not for THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL committing the sin OF THE CALF and leaving the Tree of Life, WHICH IS TORAH, they would not have brought death back to the world. And the Holy One, blessed be He, said, "I had said, 'You are angels, all of you sons of the most High'" (Tehilim 82:6), NAMELY AT THE GIVING OF TORAH. You defiled yourself BY SINNING, "therefore, you shall die like a man" (Ibid. 7). Therefore, the evil serpent which darkened the world cannot have power over anyone occupied in the study of Torah.

221. Rabbi Yesa said, If this is so, it should be true that he who does not sin will not die. If so, why then did Moshe die? He said to him, Moshe died, but THE ANGEL OF DEATH had no sway over him. He did not die by him, nor was he defiled by him. Therefore, it is considered that Moshe did not really die, but rather that he cleaved to the Shechinah and has gone on to life eternal.

222. As such, he is called "living", as we have explained in discussing the verse: "And Bnyahu, son of Yehoyada, the son of a valiant (lit. 'living') man" (II Shmuel 23:20). WHOEVER APPROACHES HASHEM IS CALLED LIVING. Thus, he who is occupied in studying Torah has freedom from everything, including freedom in this world from the enslavement of heathen nations and freedom in the world to come, for no reckoning will be demanded from him in that world at all.

222. והאי חי אקרי, כמה דאוקימנא, דכתיב, ובניהו בן יהודע בן איש חי וגו'. ועל דא, כל מאן דאשתדל באורייתא, חירו אית ליה מכלא, בעלמא דין, משעבודא דשאר עמין עעכו"ם, חירו בעלמא דאתי, בגין דלא יתבעון מניה דינא בהוא עלמא כלל.

223. Come and behold how many supernal mysteries exist in the Torah. For that reason, it is written: "She is more precious than pearls" (Mishlei 3:15). How many hidden treasures there are in it. For that reason, when David looked AT THE TORAH in the spirit of wisdom, he said, "Open you my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Torah."

23. "Behold, Rivkah came out"

The Zohar explains that although Rivkah was brought up in an evil town and an evil home, she was protected by her exceptional soul. Rivkah is preparing to marry Yitzchak. The Torah story shows that a connection existed between Yitzchak and Rivkah before they were married; this is indicated by her coming out at evening time. Here evening refers to the time of afternoon prayer, and we learn that Yitzchak was in fact performing his afternoon prayers. The phrase 'came out' also refers to Rivkah's liberation from the house of evil owing to the elevation of her soul.

The Relevance of this Passage

Man is born into this world with untamed desires and animal instincts. The will of a man's body is given dominion over his soul, so that man can work and strive toward spiritual transformation. The evil setting in which Rivkah was raised symbolizes the physical world and our self-indulgent desires. Each of us can 'come out' of our own 'house of evil'--that is, remove our own self-centered desires--through the energy of Rivkah's soul and the power of the patriarch Yitzchak. All this can be gained through a meditative reading of this passage.

224. Come and behold: "And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rivkah came out" (Beresheet 24:15). HE ASKS, WHY IS IT WRITTEN "came out"? It should have been written 'came', AS IT IS WRITTEN: "RACHEL CAME WITH HER FATHER'S SHEEP" (BERESHEET 29:6). Why is it written "came out"? HE RESPONDED, IT INDICATES that the Holy One, blessed be He, brought her away from the people of the town who were all evil. She was separated from THE TOWNSPEOPLE BECAUSE SHE WAS RIGHTEOUS. The verse: "And she went down to the well (Heb. ha'eynah)" (Beresheet 24:16) is spelled with a Hei. This is a secret because Miriam's well, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN SHINING BY THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, chanced before her there. For that reason "to the well" is written with a Hei, WHICH ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA, THE SECRET OF THE LOWER HEI OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. ALSO THE WORD HA'EYNAH IS DERIVED FROM THE WORD FOR EYES (HEB. EYNAYIM), WHICH IS A NAME OF CHOCHMAH. And the water rose toward Rivkah.

225. Another explanation is that in the verse: "And, behold, Rivkah came out," the words "came out" have a similar meaning to that in the verse "AND THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CITY come out to draw water" (Beresheet 24:13). Why is it written: "Come out", rather than 'go' or 'come'? This is an allusion to their proper conduct. They remained at home all day and came out at a specific time toward evening to draw water. Avraham's servant recognized her by this sign.

225. דְּבַר אַחַר, וְהִנֵּה רִבְקָה יוֹצֵאת, כַּמָּה דְּכְתִיב, יוֹצֵאוֹת לְשֹׂאבוּ מַיִם, אֲמַאי יוֹצֵאוֹת, וְלֹא הוֹלְכוֹת, וְלֹא בָאוֹת. אֶלָּא בְּגִין דְּטְמִירִין הוּוּ כָּל יוֹמָא, וּבְהִיא שַׁעְתָּא, נִפְקִין לְשֹׂאבָא מֵיָא, וְסִימְנָא נְקִיט בִּידֵיהּ.

226. Come and behold: When the servant reached Charan and found Rivkah "at the time of evening" (Beresheet 24:11), it was time for the afternoon prayer. At the exact time when Yitzchak said his afternoon prayer, the servant reached Rivkah. Rivkah came to him again at that time when he prayed Minchah. THIS IS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE VERSE: "AND YITZCHAK WENT OUT TO MEDITATE IN THE FIELD AT THE EVENING TIME" (IBID. 63). This happened so that everything would be in its proper place, as indicated by the supernal Wisdom. Therefore, the servant reached the well of water, which is the secret of the verse "a fountain of gardens, a well of living water, and streams from Levanon" (Shir Hashirim 4:15). We established everything to pertain to that secret.

24. Prayer, cry, tears

While walking to Tiberias, Rabbi Shimon and Rabbi Aba are approached by a Jew who has come to seek Rabbi Shimon's wisdom on the subject of prayer. As the great rabbi discourses on the threefold nature of prayer, the man asks why the prayers of the patriarchs, composed before the Temple existed, are still considered most important. He is told that these prayers are designed to unite Zeir Anpin [the upper world] with his fate, the Nukva [our lower world]. After this, all else is superfluous.

The Relevance of this Passage

Prayer is often misunderstood as an offering of thanks and praise to our Creator. Kabbalistically, an omnipotent Force of Creation has no need for thanks or praise. It is because of this misunderstanding that many prayers go unanswered. In truth, prayer creates a connection between the lower and upper worlds. Once the connection is established, the person 'praying' can draw from a wellspring of spiritual energy to remove unwanted traits and negative attributes from his own nature. It is our own negative qualities that prohibit us from attaining permanent fulfillment. By strengthening our connection to the upper worlds, reading this section endows our prayers with greater power.

227. Rabbi Shimon was walking to Tiberias with Rabbi Aba. Rabbi Shimon said, Let us go, because a man is about to come to us with new words of Torah. Rabbi Aba said, I already know that, wherever my master goes, the Holy One, blessed be He, sends flying angels to give him pleasure.

227. רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן הָוּה אֲתִי לְטַבְרִיָּה וְהוּה עֲמִיָּה רַבִּי אָבָא. אָמַר רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן לְרַבִּי אָבָא, נִזְיֹל, דְּהָא אָנִן חֲמִינָן, דְּבַר נֶשׁ חָד, יִמְטִי הַשְׁתָּא לְגַבָּן וּמְלִין חֲדָתִין בְּסוּמִיָּה, וְאִינוּן מְלִין דְּאוּרִייתָא. אָמַר רַבִּי אָבָא, הָא יִדְעָא, דְּבַכֵּל אֲתֵר דְּמַר אֲזִיל, קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא מְשַׁדֵּר לִיה מְלָאכִין, טָסִין בְּגַדְפִין לְאַשְׁתַּעֲשָׂא בֵּיה.

228. While they were traveling, Rabbi Shimon lifted up his eyes and saw a man who was running. They sat down TO WAIT FOR HIM. When he arrived, Rabbi Shimon asked him, Who are you? He responded, I am a Jew from the city of Cappadocia and I am going to the hiding place of the son of Yochai, THAT IS, TO HEAR HIDDEN MATTERS FROM HIM. The friends determined AND EXPLAINED certain things, and sent me to him TO KNOW WHETHER HE AGREES WITH THEM. Rabbi Shimon said to him, My son, talk. He asked, You are the son of Yochai? He told him, I am the son of Yochai.

229. The friends said that when a man prays nothing may come between him and the wall, as it is written: "Then Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall" (Yeshayah 38:2). When a man prays, no one may come within four cubits of him on every side. They said this means four cubits on every side except in front, AS IT IS FORBIDDEN TO COME BETWEEN HIM AND THE WALL. And they said that a man should not pray behind his Rabbi. They appointed me TO HEAR WHAT YOU HAVE TO SAY about these matters.

229. אָמַר לִיה הָא אוֹקִימָנָא דְּלָא יַפְסִיק בַּר נֶשׁ בְּצִלּוֹתֶיהָ, בֵּינִיה לְבֵין כּוּתְלָא, כְּמָה דְּכַתִּיב וַיִּסָּב חֲזַקְיָהוּ פָּנָיו אֶל הַקִּיר וְגו'. וּמָאן דְּצִלִּי, אָסִיר לְמַעַבְר אַרְבַּע אַמּוֹת סָמִיךְ לִיה, וְאוֹקְמוּהָ לְהַנִּי אַרְבַּע אַמּוֹת לְכָל סָטֵר, בַּר לְקַמִּיָּה. וְאוֹקְמוּהָ, דְּלָא יִצְלִי בַּר נֶשׁ, אַחוּרֵי רַבִּיָּה וְכו'. וְאֲתַמְנֹן בְּכָל הַנִּי מִלִּי.

230. THE JEW opened with the verse, "Hear my prayer, Hashem, and give ear to my cry; keep not silence at my tears" (Tehilim 39:13). HE ASKS, Why is it written "hear" (Heb. shim'ah) and not 'sh'ma'? AND WHY is it written in one place: "Hear (Heb. sh'ma), Hashem, and be gracious to me" (Tehilim 30:11), and in another place, 'shim'ah'? The reason is that it is written now Shma referring to the male, NAMELY TO ZEIR ANPIN, and now Shim'ah referring to the female, NAMELY TO THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. For example, shim'ah is used in "Hear the right, Hashem" (Tehilim 17:1), WHERE THE RIGHT (HEB. TZEDEK) IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. Sh'ma is used in "Hear (Heb. sh'ma) Hashem, and be gracious to me," AS HASHEM IS THE NAME OF ZEIR ANPIN. The masculine is also used in "Hear, Hashem" AS HASHEM IS THE NAME OF ZEIR ANPIN, "my son, hear (Heb. sh'ma) the instructions" (Mishlei 1:8) and "Take heed, and hearken (Heb. sh'ma)" (Devarim 27:9).

231. "Hear (Heb. shim'ah) my prayer, Hashem" REFERS TO THE NUKVA, which is the grade that receives all the prayers in the world. We learned that THE NUKVA creates a diadem from the prayers and puts in on the head of the Righteous the life of the world. This is the meaning of the verse: "Blessings are upon the head of the just" (Mishlei 10:6). Hence SCRIPTURE SAYS: "Hear (Heb. shim'ah) my prayer, Hashem."

232. "Hear my prayer, Hashem" refers to the silent prayer, NAMELY THE AMIDAH, WHICH WE WHISPER. IN CONTRAST, "And give ear to my cry" is a prayer cried out loud. A man raises his voice AND CRIES TO HASHEM in his trouble, as it is written: "And their cry rose up to the Elohim" (Shemot 2:23). What is the cry MENTIONED IN THE VERSE? It is the cry heard when one raises one's voice in prayer and lifts up one's eyes above, as it is written: "And a shouting to the mountains" (Yeshayah 22:5). This prayer breaks open all gates upon which he knocks to present his prayer BEFORE HASHEM. "Keep not silence at my tears," which enter before the King and cannot be stopped by any gate or turned away in vain.

233. There are three grades of prayer. They are prayer, cry, and tears, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "HEAR MY PRAYER...GIVE EAR TO MY CRY...KEEP NOT SILENCE AT MY TEARS." These correspond to three other grades mentioned at the end of the verse: "For I am a stranger with you," then "a sojourner," and then "all my fathers" (Tehilim 39:13), who were the main founders of the world. A STRANGER CORRESPONDS TO A PRAYER, A SOJOURNER TO A CRY, AND ALL MY FATHERS TO A TEAR.

234. Come and behold: A man's prayer is done standing up, for a man can pray in two ways, sitting down or standing up, which two are one, corresponding to the two grades of prayers, the hand Tfilin and the head Tfilin, also known as day and night. THEY CORRESPOND TO THE GRADE OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED HEAD TFILIN OR DAY, AND TO THE GRADE OF THE NUKVA, CALLED THE HAND TFILIN OR NIGHT, AND THEY ARE ONE IN THEIR UNION. A prayer said sitting down, NAMELY THE PRAYERS OF "WHO HAS FORMED THE LIGHT" BEFORE THE AMIDAH, is for the sake of the hand Tfilin, NAMELY, FOR THE NUKVA, to fix her as one prepares a bride and adorns her for the Chupah (marriage canopy). Thus, THE NUKVA is decorated in the secret of the Chariots and the troops ALLUDED TO IN THE WORDS: "Who formed ministering messengers, ministers who all do stand aloft" and "the Ofanim (wheels) and the holy living creatures." THESE ARE FOR THE ADORNMENT OF THE NUKVA.

235. After the prayer said sitting down, WHICH IS THE DECORATED NUKVA, enters the presence of the Supreme King, ZEIR ANPIN, NAMELY, DURING THE AMIDAH PRAYER, and he comes to receive her, we stand before the Supernal King, BECAUSE THEN ZEIR ANPIN IS UNITED WITH THE NUKVA. For this reason, it behooves us not to stop between "redemption" and the prayer, as the prayer sitting down and the prayer standing up should be joined.

236. When a man stands before the Supernal King, he needs four cubits for his prayer. This is the length of a rope in "who forms all." In all that pertains to the side of the male, it behooves a man to stand up. In the same way, whoever kneels, kneels when pronouncing 'blessed', WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. Whoever stands up does so WHEN PRONOUNCING THE WORD 'Name,' WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE MALE, to show the superiority of the male over the female.

237. Come and behold: A man must not pray behind his Rabbi's back, as it is written: "You shall fear Hashem your Elohim" (Devarim 6:13). The particle Et before "Hashem" indicates that he should fear his Rabbi as much as he fears the Shechinah, and the disciple fears his Rabbi. But at the time of prayer, he should place before himself only the fear of the Holy One, blessed be He, and not any other fear.

238. Come and behold: Yitzchak composed the afternoon prayer, as Avraham composed the morning prayer in relation to the grade to which he cleaved, NAMELY THE GRADE OF CHESED AND THE RIGHT COLUMN. So Yitzchak composed the afternoon prayer in relation to the grade to which he cleaved, THE GRADE OF GVURAH AND THE LEFT COLUMN. Therefore, THE TIME OF the afternoon prayer service is when the sun sets down with its grades to the west; NAMELY, IMMEDIATELY AFTER MIDDAY.

239. As long as the sun does not set toward the west, it is day-that is, from morning till noon-as it is written: "The kindness of El endures for all time (lit. 'all the day')" (Tehilim 52:3). You may say that it is considered day until dark. But come and study the verse: "Woe to us, for the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are lengthened" (Yirmeyah 6:4). "For the day declines" refers to the morning service, as it is written: "The kindness (Lit. 'Chesed') of El endures for all the day," for then the sun is to the east. Once the sun sets and declines toward the west, it is time for the afternoon prayer, because "the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are lengthened," and harsh Judgment is upon the world.

235. ועל דא צלותא מיושב בין דעאלת לגבי מלכא עלאה, ואיהו אתי לקבלא לה, כדין אנן קיימין קמי מלכא עלאה, דהא כדין דכורא אתחבר בנוקבא, ובגין כך לא יפסיק בין גאולה לתפלה.

240. "The day declines" refers to the grade of Chesed, while "the shadows of the evening are lengthened" refers to the grades of the harsh Judgment. Then the Temple was destroyed and the Holy of Holies burned. Therefore, it behooves a man to be careful to attend the afternoon prayer service, because it is the time when harsh Judgment hovers about the world.

241. Ya'akov composed the evening service, because he fixes THE NUKVA and nourishes her with whatever she needs. For the Vav OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH REPRESENTS TIFERET, corrects the Hei OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and the Hei is nourished by the Vav, as THE NUKVA has nothing of herself. SHE RECEIVES EVERYTHING FROM TIFERET, WHICH IS THE VAV OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI CALLED YA'AKOV.

242. The evening service is optional for this reason, for only as a continuation of the afternoon service does it shine. But now AT NIGHT, there is no time for that. And we have explained that daylight does not shine upon THE NUKVA, and she rules in the dark until midnight, when the Holy One, blessed be He, enjoys Himself with the righteous in the Garden of Eden. Then it is time for man to study Torah.

243. Come and behold: David came and said, There are three times for services, as it is written: "Evening, and morning, and at noon, I PRAY, AND CRY ALOUD, AND HE HEARS MY VOICE" (Tehilim 55:18). There are three times in all, but David prayed at only two of them, as is written: "I pray, and cry aloud" and no more. One is the morning service and the other the afternoon service. Therefore he said, "I pray, and cry aloud" because "I pray" suffices for the morning itself, the time of Chesed, but there is need for crying aloud during the afternoon, AS IT IS A TIME OF HARSH JUDGMENT. Therefore he added, "And cry aloud." BUT HE DID NOT PRAY AT THE EVENING SERVICE. At midnight, he would rise and sing chants and praises, as it is written: "And in the night His song shall be with me" (Tehilim 42:9). This has already been explained.

244. Rabbi Shimon rose and they traveled with that man until Tiberias. While they were walking, Rabbi Shimon said, Come and behold that prayers correspond to the daily offerings. This was established by the sages of the Great Assembly. There are two DAILY OFFERINGS, as it is written: "The one lamb shall you offer in the morning, and the other lamb shall you offer at evening" (Bemidbar 28:4), and they are offered at the same times each day, the times of prayer. THEY ESTABLISHED TWO ESSENTIAL PRAYERS, THE MORNING SERVICE AND THE AFTERNOON SERVICE. THE EVENING SERVICE IS OPTIONAL.

245. The man said, But the patriarchs composed these prayers before THE MEN OF THE GREAT ASSEMBLY DID, AND THEY DID NOT ADJUST THEM TO CORRESPOND TO THE DAILY OFFERINGS. Why is what Avraham and Yitzchak established more important? And why is that what Ya'akov, who is chosen among the patriarchs, composed is considered optional and not as essential as those?

246. Rabbi Shimon responded, this has already been explained, yet come and behold, the times for the morning and afternoon services are designed to unite Ya'akov, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, with his fate, THE NUKVA. Once they are united, we do not have to do anything else. AS THE NUKVA is put between the two arms-AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, WHICH CORRESPOND TO THE RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS-she is joined to the body, AS THE TORSO IS BUT THE INCLUSION OF THE TWO ARMS, and there is no more need to amend anything else. Thus, we should encourage the union of the two arms BY OBSERVING MORNING AND AFTERNOON PARYER SERVICES, because THE NUKVA was put between them. ONE NEEDS TO DRAW ILLUMINATION INTO THE NUKVA. After she is put between them, then the body, THE CENTRAL COLUMN CALLED YA'AKOV, and the Nukva whisper, so as not to mention THE ASPECT OF JUDGMENT IN HER.

246. אָמַר רַבִּי שִׁמּוֹן, הָא אֲתָמֵר. אָבֵל תָּא חֲזִי, הַנִּי תְּרִי זְמַנֵּי, דְּתֵרִי צְלוֹתֵי לָאו אִינוּן, אֶלָּא לְחַבְרָא לְיַעֲקֹב בְּעַדְבֵיהּ, בֵּינָן דְּאֲתַחְבְּרוּ דָא בְּדָא, אֲנָן לָא צְרִיכִין יְתִיר, דְּכֵינָן דְּאֲתִיְהִיבַת אֲתָתָא בֵּין תְּרִין דְּרוּעִין, וְאֲתַחְבְּרַת בְּגוּפָא, לָא אֲצַטְרִיךְ יְתִיר, וְעַל דָּא אֲנָן בְּעֵינָן לְאֲתַעְרָא תְּרִין דְּרוּעִין, בְּגִין דְּאֲתִיְהִיבַת בִּינֵיהוּ, בֵּינָן דְּאִיהִי בִּינֵיהוּ, גּוּפָא וְאֲתָתָא מְלִייהוּ בְּלַחֲשֵׁי, דְּלָא לְאֲדַכְרָא.

247. For that reason, THE WORDS ARE WHISPERED AND HER VOICE IS NOT HEARD, and Ya'akov serves up high. We learned the meaning of "up high" is as written in the verse: "And you, Hashem, are most high for evermore" (Tehilim 92:9). All this is a secret known to those who understand Judgment NAMELY FOR THOSE VERSED IN THE MYSTERIES OF THE TORAH. Rabbi Aba and the Jew came and kissed the hands of Rabbi Shimon. Rabbi Aba said, Until this day, I did not understand this matter. Only now do I comprehend its meaning. Blessed is my fate, that I deserved to hear it.

25. "And Yitzchak brought her into his mother Sarah's tent" As Rabbi Yosi opens the discussion of this difficult verse, we learn that the images of Yitzchak and Rivkah were exactly the same as the images of Avraham and Sarah, in both physical and spiritual terms. The rabbis then reveal the hidden meaning in the stories of the patriarchs. They, we are told, all lived by the secret of Zeir Anpin, and thus each had four wives representing the Sfirot of Chochmah, Binah, Tiferet, and Malchut of the Nukva of Zeir Anpin. The entire physical world of the patriarchs was designed to mirror the structure and form of the spiritual dimension, thereby creating affinity and attachment to the Light of the Creator. Finally, we hear Rabbi Shimon's succinct explanation of the secret of holiness, and how all mysteries are really one secret, included within the secret of the Nukva of Zeir Anpin alone.

The Relevance of this Passage
Succeeding generations of mankind are not on the same spiritual level as the patriarchs. Nevertheless, we can still create affinity and attachment to their world and its superior spiritual structure, through the mystical words that bespeak their wonders, a privilege afforded to us through a thoughtful reading of this passage. This attachment invokes the Light of Creator, removing darkness and iniquity from our existence.

248. "And Yitzchak brought her into his mother Sarah's tent" (Beresheet 24:67). Rabbi Yosi said that this is a difficult verse. It is literally written: "...to the tent, Sarah his mother," but it should have been written 'Sarah's tent.' What is the meaning of "to the tent"? He says that the Shechinah returned, THAT IS CALLED TENT. THEREFORE IT SAYS 'HA'OHELAH (TO THE TENT), WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH, for the Shechinah never left Sarah as long as she was in the world. And the candle burned in the tent all the days of the week, from Shabbat eve to Shabbat eve. After she died, the candle was extinguished. Since Rivkah came, the Shechinah returned and the candle burned again. "Sarah his mother" means that she resembled Sarah in everything she did.

248. וַיְבִיֵאֶה יִצְחָק הָאֵהֳלָה שָׂרָה אִמּוֹ. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, הָאִי קְרָא קְשׂוּאָה, הָאֵהֳלָה, לְאֵהֳלָה שָׂרָה אִמּוֹ מִבְּעֵי לֵיהּ, מֵאֵי הָאֵהֳלָה. דְּאֵהֳלָתָא תַּמָּן שְׂכִינְתָּא, בְּגִין דְּכָל זְמַנָּא דְּשָׂרָה קְוִימָא בְּעַלְמָא, שְׂכִינְתָּא לָא אַעֲדִי מִינָהּ, וְשָׂרְגָא הוּוּ דְּלִיקַת, מְעַרְבַּ שַׁבַּת לְעַרְבַּ שַׁבַּת, וְהוּוּ נְהִיר כָּל אִינוּן יוֹמֵי דְּשַׁבְּתָא, בְּתַר דְּמִיתַת, כְּבַתָּהּ הָיִיא שָׂרְגָא, בֵּינָן דְּאֵתָּה רַבְּקָה, אֵהֳלָתָא שְׂכִינְתָּא, וְשָׂרְגָא אֲדִלִיקַת. שָׂרָה אִמּוֹ: דְּדִמְיָא לְשָׂרָה בְּכָל עוֹבְדָהָ.

249. Rabbi Yehuda said, "SARAH HIS MOTHER" MEANS THAT because the image of Yitzchak was the same as the image of Avraham, whoever saw Yitzchak said it was Avraham. Of course, they knew that Avraham begot Yitzchak, so the image of Rivkah was exactly the same as the image of Sarah. For that reason it is written, "Sarah his mother." THE IMAGES OF YITZCHAK AND RIVKAH WERE EXACTLY THE SAME AS THE IMAGES OF AVRAHAM AND SARAH. IT WAS APPARENT THAT AVRAHAM BEGAT YITZCHAK AND SARAH BORE RIVKAH.

249. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה אָמַר כִּמְהָ דְּדִיוֹקְנֵיהּ דְּיִצְחָק, הוּוּ כְּדִיוֹקְנֵיהּ דְּאַבְרָהָם, וְכָל מֵאן דְּחָמֵי לְיִצְחָק, אָמַר דָּא אַבְרָהָם, וְדָאי, אַבְרָהָם הוּוּ לִידָא אֵת יִצְחָק, הַכִּי נְמִי רַבְּקָה, דִּיוֹקְנָהּ מִמֶּשׁ הוּוּ דִּיוֹקְנָא דְּשָׂרָה, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ שָׂרָה אִמּוֹ וְדָאי.

250. Rabbi Elazar said, This EXPLANATION is exactly right, but come and behold this secret. Although Sarah died, her image did not leave the house. It remained unseen from the day she died until Rivkah came. Once Rivkah came, the image of Sarah was seen again, as it is written: "And Yitzchak brought her into his mother Sarah's tent", but it was seen only by Yitzchak when he entered the tent. Therefore, "Yitzchak was comforted after his mother" (Bereshheet 24:67), because his mother was seen and chanced before him in the house. Therefore it is not written: 'After his mother's death', but rather "after his mother", BECAUSE SHE NEVER DIED FOR YITZCHAK.

251. Rabbi Shimon then discoursed on the difference in verse that is written of Yitzchak: "And took Rivkah, and she became his wife; and he loved her" (Bereshheet 24:67). Because it is written that "she became his wife", we should assume that he loved her as all the inhabitants of the world love their wives. What was different here, that made it necessary to add, "And he loved her"?

253. Come and behold: When Avraham, THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN, saw Sarah, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, he only embraced her, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND HIS RIGHT HAND EMBRACES ME" (SHIR HASHIRIM 8:3). But Yitzchak, THE LEFT COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN, her husband, took her and put his arm under her head, as it is written: "His left hand is under my head" (Ibid.). When Ya'akov, THE CENTRAL COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN, arrived afterward, he performed his marital duty and begot twelve tribes. All is as it should be.

254. Come and behold: The patriarchs all lived by one secret, NAMELY THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN. Therefore, they each had four wives REPRESENTING CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. Avraham also had four wives-Sarah, Hagar, and two concubines-as it is written: "But to the sons of the concubines, which Avraham had" (Bereshheet 25:6). IT IS WRITTEN concubines, WHICH MEANS two, AND TOGETHER WITH SARAH AND HAGAR, there were four.

255. Yitzchak also had four WIVES, all contained within Rivkah, as it is written: "And took Rivkah", which is one, "and she became his wife," which is two; "and he loved her," which is three "and Yitzchak was comforted after his mother," which is four. Correspondingly Ya'akov had four wives, and all of them, THE TWELVE WIVES, are one secret, NAMELY THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN ALONE, WHO CONTAINED ALL TWELVE ASPECTS.

255. יִצְחָק בְּרָזָא דְּאַרְבַּע, דְּסְטִירוֹ דְּרַבְּקָה, דְּכֶתִיב וַיִּקַּח אֶת רַבְּקָה חַד, וַתְּהִי לוֹ לְאִשָּׁה תְּרֵי, וַיֵּאָהֲבָהּ תְּלַת, וַיִּנְחָם יִצְחָק אַחֲרֵי אִמּוֹ הָא אַרְבַּע. לְקַבֵּל דָּא, הוּוּ לְיַעֲקֹב, אַרְבַּע נְשִׁין. וְכֻלָּא בְּרָזָא חֲדָא.

256. Rabbi Chiya said that Avraham and Yitzchak each performed their marital duties with one wife on the side of holiness, BECAUSE HAGAR AND THE CONCUBINES WERE NOT OF HOLINESS. Avraham did so with Sarah, and Yitzchak with Rivkah. In comparison, Ya'akov had four wives, two each REPRESENTING THE HOLY AND THE NOT HOLY. LEAH AND RACHEL REPRESENTED HOLINESS, BILHAH AND ZILPAH REPRESENTED THE NOT HOLY THAT HE CHANGED TO HOLY. Rabbi Shimon said that these matters have reached their proper place IN HOLINESS. EVEN HAGAR AND THE CONCUBINES WERE PART OF THE SECRET OF HOLINESS, AS RABBI SHIMON EXPLAINS THAT THE TWELVE WOMEN WERE BUT TWELVE ASPECTS OF THE NUKVA. For everything is done in the secret of holiness, and all is one secret; NAMELY, ALL OF THEM ARE INCLUDED WITHIN THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN ALONE.

256. רבי חייא אמר, אברהם ויצחק, שמשו כל חד באתתא חדא, ברזא דקודשא. אברהם בשרה, יצחק ברבקה, ולקבל תרווייהו, הוי ארבע נשין ליעקב, בתרין חולקין. רבי שמעון אמר סליקו מלין לאתרייהו. דהא בלא ברזא קדישא אתעבר, וכלא ברזא חדא.

26. "Then again Avraham took a wife"

Here we learn that Kturah, Avraham's wife, was really Hagar, who had atoned for her transgressions and had taken a new name reflecting this atonement. The rest of the discussion focuses on the meaning of Avraham's bequest to Yitzchak of "all that he had." We're told that the two patriarchs should be included one within the other, since they represent the Right and Left Columns in the secret of supernal faith, which is Binah. The Relevance of this Passage

Man is endowed with three unique forces of intelligence—the desire to receive, the desire to share, and the free will to choose and manage between the two. Desire to Share is termed 'Right Column' by the Zohar. Avraham is the embodiment of Right Column and its particular sharing intelligence. Desire to Receive is termed 'Left Column', and 'Yitzchak' is the vessel that expresses its energy of receiving. The absence of either Column creates an extreme imbalance. Thus, sharing without receiving quickly depletes our resources. If we pour water from a glass to share with others without replenishment, the glass will soon be empty. And receiving without sharing is like casting a dehydrated man into the middle of the sea. Though he is in desperate need of water, the overabundance eventually drowns him. Reading this section has a stabilizing effect on our spirituality and on the decisions we make. Intuitively, our choices begin to strike a delicate balance between knowing when to share and when to receive.

257. "Then again Avraham took a wife, and her name was Kturah" (Beresheet 25:1). Kturah is Hagar, for we learned that after Hagar separated from Avraham and whored after her father's idols, she repented and was associated with good deeds. For that reason, her name was changed to Kturah, which alludes to her good deeds, FOR KTURAH MEANS CONNECTED. Then Avraham sent and took her for a wife. From this, it is understood that changing a name atones for transgressions, because her name was changed TO KTURAH AFTER SHE ATONED FOR HER SINS.

258. In the phrase: "Then again Avraham", what is meant by "again (lit. 'he added')"? If you say that Avraham took another wife in addition to Sarah, this is not so. Rather, in the days of Sarah he had already mated once with Hagar and then drove her away because of the deeds of Yishmael, WHO MOCKED YITZCHAK. The word "again" MEANS that he TOOK her again, a second time, because she atoned for her evil deeds. As a result, her name was changed AND SHE WAS CALLED KTURAH.

258. ויוסף אברהם, מאי ויוסף, אי תימא דעל שרה איהו דאוסוף, לאו הכי. אלא ביומאה דשרה, אזדווג בהדה זמנא חדא, ולבתר תריך לה, על עסקי דישמעאל, ולבתר ויוסף כמלקדמין, זמנא אחרא, על מה דנסיב לה בקדמיתא. וכסום דשני עובדהא, הכי נמי שני שמה.

259. Come and behold: Rabbi Elazar said about the verse: "And Yitzchak brought her into his mother Sarah's tent" (Beresheet 24:67) that the image of Sarah was revealed WITH RIVKAH'S ARRIVAL, and Yitzchak was comforted by the image of his mother, which he saw every day. Although Avraham married, he did not enter Sarah's house, nor did he allow that woman to enter, because a handmaid cannot be heir to her mistress. No other woman was seen in Sarah's tent except for Rivkah.

260. And although Avraham knew that Sarah's image was revealed there, he left the tent to Yitzchak, so he could see the image of his mother daily. Yitzchak, not Avraham, SAW HER IMAGE. This is the meaning of the verse: "And Avraham gave all that he had to Yitzchak" (Beresheet 25:5). "All that he had" alludes precisely to the image of Sarah that was inside the tent, FOR HE GAVE IT TO YITZCHAK TO LOOK AT HER.

261. Another explanation of the verse: "And Avraham gave all that he had to Yitzchak," IS THAT HE GAVE HIM THE SECRET OF THE SUPERNAL FAITH, WHICH IS BINAH, so that Yitzchak would be attached to his appropriate grade. IF HE HAD NOT GIVEN HIM THE SECRET OF BINAH, HE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ABLE TO CLEAVE TO THE LEFT COLUMN. Come and behold: Fire, WHICH IS LEFT, is here included within water, WHICH IS RIGHT. Assuredly fire took water, AS LEFT INCLUDED RIGHT WITHIN IT. This is understood from the verse: "And Avraham gave all that he had to Yitzchak." This is water included within fire, AS AVRAHAM, WHO IS THE SECRET OF WATER, GAVE HIS ASPECT TO YITZCHAK, THE SECRET OF FIRE. At first, fire was included within water. When was that? When Avraham bound Yitzchak to execute judgement upon him, NAMELY TO SACRIFICE HIM. Then, fire was included within water. Now, water is included within fire, so that all will be in the secret of the supernal faith, WHICH IS BINAH. FOR THE TWO COLUMNS-RIGHT AND LEFT-IN BINAH WERE INCLUDED WITHIN EACH OTHER, THEN THEY REACHED PERFECTION. THEREFORE, BOTH AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, WHO ARE DRAWN FROM THE TWO COLUMNS IN BINAH, SHOULD ALSO BE INCLUDED WITHIN ONE ANOTHER. FIRST, THE LEFT WAS INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT AT THE TIME OF SACRIFICE. AND NOW, WHEN AVRAHAM GAVE ALL HE HAD TO YITZCHAK, THE RIGHT WAS INCLUDED WITHIN THE LEFT.

261. דְּבַר אַחַר, וַיִּתֵּן אַבְרָהָם אֶת כָּל אֲשֶׁר לוֹ לְיִצְחָק, רְזָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא עֲלָאָה, לְאַתְדַּבְּקָא, יִצְחָק בְּדִרְגָּא דְחוּלְקִיה בְּדָקָא יֹאֲוֵת. תָּא חַוִּי, הִכָּא אֲתַכְלִיל אֲשָׁא בְּמִיָּא וְדָאי, אֲשָׁא נְטִיל מִיָּא, מִשְׁמַע וַיִּתֵּן אַבְרָהָם אֶת כָּל אֲשֶׁר לוֹ לְיִצְחָק, דָּא מִיָּא דְאַתְכְּלִיל בְּאֲשָׁא, וּבְקַדְמִיתָא, אֲתַכְלִיל בְּחָדָא אֲשָׁא בְּמִיָּא. אִימְתִּי, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְעַקְדָּא לִיָּה לְיִצְחָק, לְמַעַבְדָּא בִּיָּה דִינָא, כְּדִין אֲתַכְלִיל אֲשָׁא בְּמִיָּא. וְהִשְׁתָּא אֲתַכְלִילוּ מִיָּא בְּאֲשָׁא, לְמַהוּי כְּלָא רְזָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא עֲלָאָה.

27. "But to the sons of the concubines...Avraham gave gifts"

This very brief passage discusses questions relating to the concubines of Avraham. Rabbi Chiya maintains that the term does not allude to Keturah, one of Avraham's wives, but there is no unanimous agreement. In section 26 of the Zohar, we're told that Avraham gave "all that he had" to his son Yitzchak. Here it is said that Avraham now "gave gifts" to the "sons of the concubines." It is speculated that these sons then went on to become great sorcerers and mystics living "in the east."

The Relevance of this Passage

This seemingly simple section of Zohar sheds light on the origins of spiritual disciplines found in the Far East. The Zohar tells us that Avraham gave everything he had to his son Yitzchak. Thereafter, the patriarch gave gifts to the sons of his concubines and sent them to live "in the east." Clearly, the Zohar is not referring to material items, for if Avraham gave away all his physical possessions to his son Yitzchak, there would be nothing left to give to the sons of his concubines. A candle flame provides an analogy: One candle can share its flame and light with countless others, without ever diminishing itself. The Zohar is referring to the light of wisdom when speaking of Abraham's possessions and gifts. The term "all that he had" pertains to the complete wisdom of Kabbalah, also known as the Three Column System. These Three Columns are the pillars of all spiritual wisdom. The "gifts" given to the sons of the concubines refer to other spiritual teachings that offered their own unique pathway to the Light of the Creator, described accordingly as One and Two Column spiritual systems. The sons of the concubines, we're told, were sent by Avraham to live "in the east" where, to this day, there exist spiritual doctrines that exemplify the Two Column system--such as the Ying/Yang principle of Taoist cosmology. A connection can be made between the name Avraham--or Abraham--and the Eastern religious concept of Brahman, which refers to the absolute reality or Self, as explained in the Hindu Upanishads. The words of wisdom portrayed in this passage strengthen our bond to the original seed of spiritual wisdom-Kabbalah-and its Three Column System of desire to share, desire to receive, and free will to choose and balance between the two. The wisdom to use our free will in a spiritually correct manner is instilled within us.

262. "But to the sons of the concubines, which Avraham had, Avraham gave gifts" (Beresheet 25:6). HE ASKS, What are these gifts? AND HE ANSWERS, These are all kinds of lower UNBALANCED grades OF UNHOLINESS, names of all sorts of impure spirits. HE GAVE THEM to perfect the grades, SO THAT THEY WOULD PURIFY THEM AND PERFECT THE GRADES OF HOLINESS. And Yitzchak was elevated above them all in the proper supernal faith, WHICH IS BINAH.

262. וּלְבָנֵי הַפְּיִלְגָּשִׁים אֲשֶׁר לְאַבְרָהָם נָתַן אַבְרָהָם מִתְּנוּת. מֵאי מִתְּנוּת. אֵלִין סְטֵרֵי דְרִגְוִין תַּתְּאִין, דְּאִינּוֹן שְׁמֵהֶן דְּסְטֵרֵי רוּחַ מְסַאבָּא, בְּגִין לְאַשְׁלֵמָא דְרִגְוִין, וְאַסְתַּלַּק יִצְחָק עַל כְּלָא, בְּמַהִימְנוּתָא עֲלָאָה בְּדָקָא חַוִּי.

263. "The sons of the concubines" are the children of Kturah, WHO IS CALLED CONCUBINES because she was a concubine before AVRAHAM SENT HER AWAY and was a concubine now THAT HE TOOK HER BACK AGAIN. Rabbi Chiya said that this alludes to actual concubines AND IN NO WAY DOES IT ALLUDE TO KTURAH. "And sent them away from his son, Yitzchak" (Ibid.), so that they would not have control over Yitzchak "while he yet lived", while Avraham was alive and well in this world. This way, they would not quarrel with him later, and Yitzchak would be strengthened and subjugate everyone before him. "Eastward, to the east country," (Ibid.) because one finds there all kinds of witchcraft.

264. Come and behold: It is written, "And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country" (I Melachim 5:10). These are the sons of the concubines of Avraham. It was said that those who teach sorcery to men are found in these east mountains. And from the east country came Lavan, Beor, his son Bila'am and all the sorcerers, as has already been explained.

28. "Who gave Ya'akov for a spoil"

Here the rabbis discuss the above verse and its various, intricate meanings, which relate both to the time of the Exile and the time of the Resurrection, when The Creator will rebuild the Temple. We learn that these stories are all really metaphors for the spiritual work of unification, which is always here and now.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Torah and Zohar are not books of recorded history or mystical fables of antiquity. Rather, both are links to the upper world which connect man to the fountainhead and primal source of spiritual Light. Each passage offers a particular blend of energy that can be put to use in the present moment. Here, the spiritual influence to hasten the final Redemption, quicken the Resurrection, and accelerate the process of rebuilding the Temple, is summoned forth through the letters forming these verses. All three happenings will occur both individually and globally. Thus, every individual has his own "rock" in the Temple, which becomes manifest through personal acts of spiritual elevation.

265. Rabbi Chizkiyah opened with the verse, "Who gave Ya'akov for a spoil, and Yisrael to the robbers? Did not Hashem..." (Yeshayah 42:24). Come and behold: From the time the Temple was destroyed, no blessings hovered about the world. They stopped, as if detained above IN THE UPPER WORLDS and below IN THE LOWER WORLDS. All these lower grades were strengthened and ruled over Yisrael, because Yisrael had brought it about by their transgression. THIS ABSENCE OF BLESSINGS IN THE UPPER WORLDS OCCURRED BECAUSE THE LOWER ONES WERE NOT WORTHY OF RECEIVING THEM, AND ALL THE ABUNDANCE THAT THEY SHOULD HAVE GIVEN TO THE LOWER WORLDS WAS WITHHELD, FOR THERE WAS NO ONE TO GIVE TO.

266. This verse contains a contradiction. It is written: "Who gave Ya'akov for a spoil, AND YISRAEL TO THE ROBBERS? DID NOT HASHEM, HE AGAINST WHOM WE HAVE SINNED." After it said, "Who gave Ya'akov for a spoil, and Yisrael", why does it continue with "we have sinned"? It should have said, "They sinned"; NAMELY, IT SHOULD HAVE USED THE THIRD PERSON AND NOT SPOKEN AS IF THEY WERE TALKING FOR THEMSELVES. Since it said, "We have sinned," NAMELY THEY REFER TO THEMSELVES, why does it continue with, "They would not walk" IN WHICH HE USES THE THIRD PERSON AGAIN, instead of saying, 'We would not walk', AS IF THEY WERE SPEAKING FOR THEMSELVES.

263. בְּנֵי הַפִּילִגְשִׁים אֵלֶיךָ הוּוּ בְּנֵי קְטוּרָה, פִּלְגָשִׁים בְּקִרְמִיתָא, וּפְלִגְשִׁים הִשְׁתָּא. ר' חִיָּיא אָמַר, פִּילְגְשִׁים מִמֶּשׁ. וַיִּשְׁלַח מֵעַל יִצְחָק בְּנוֹ, דְּלֹא לְשִׁלְטָא לְגַבִּיָּה דִּיצְחָק. בְּעוֹרְנוּ חֵי, בְּעוֹר דִּהוּ אַבְרָהָם חֵי וְקַיִם בְּעֵלְמָא, דְּלֹא יִקְטַרְגֵּן לִיה לְבַתְרָא, וּבְגִין דִּיתְתַּקֵּן יִצְחָק בְּסִטְרָא דִּינָא קְשִׁיא עֲלָאָה, לְאַתְתַּקְפָּא עַל כְּלָהוּ, וְכִלְהוּ אַתְבַּפְּיִין קַמִּיהָ. קְדָמָה אֶל אַרְץ קָדָם, בְּגִין דְּתַמְן אֵינוֹן סְטְרֵי חֲרָשֵׁי מְסָאֲבֵי.

267. HE ANSWERS THAT when the Temple was destroyed, the Holy of Holies burned and the people were exiled. The Shechinah wanted to move from Her place and go into exile with them. THE SHECHINAH said, I will first go and see my house and palace and visit the places of the priests and the Levites, who worshipped in my house.

268. Rabbi Elazar said that at the same time, the congregation of Yisrael, THE SHECHINAH, looked up and saw that Her husband, ZEIR ANPIN, had left Her and ascended up high. She went down, entered the Temple, and looked at places. SHE WEPT and the sound was heard up above IN HEAVEN and below ON EARTH. This is the meaning of the verse: "A voice was heard up high, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children" (Yirmeyah 31:14). This has been explained.

269. When She went into exile, She looked at the people and saw how they were pushed and trampled under the feet of other nations in exile. Then She said, "Who gave Ya'akov for a spoil..." And YISRAEL responded, "Did not Hashem, He against whom we have sinned." IN THIS IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT HE SPEAKS FOR HIMSELF. The Shechinah asked, "And in whose ways they would not walk, and to whose Torah they were not obedient?" (Yeshayah 42:24) THUS, THE QUESTION OF WHY IT IS WRITTEN IN THE THIRD PERSON IS AGAIN SETTLED.

270. When the Holy One, blessed be He, visits His people, the Congregation of Yisrael, TO TAKE THEM OUT OF EXILE, THE SHECHINAH will return first and go to the Temple, because the Temple will be built before THE GATHERING OF THE EXILES, WHERE THE DWELLING OF THE SHECHINAH RESTS. THEREFORE, THE SHECHINAH IS ALSO ANXIOUS TO GET OUT OF EXILE. And the Holy One, blessed be He, said to Her, "Rise from the dust." But the Shechinah responded, Whither do I go? My house is destroyed and my palace is burned. This will continue until the Holy One, blessed be He, will first rebuild the Temple, fix the palace, and establish the city of Jerusalem. Only then does He raise THE SHECHINAH from the dust, as it is written: "Hashem builds Jerusalem" (Tehilim 147:2). Then "He gathers together the outcasts of Yisrael" (Ibid.) and tells Her, "Shake yourself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem" (Yeshayah 42:2). Then He gathers the exiles of Yisrael. Thus it first says: "Hashem builds Jerusalem" and then "He gathers together the outcasts of Yisrael." Then: "He heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds" (Tehilim 147:3), which refers to the resurrection of the dead. And it is written: "And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to follow my statutes, and you shall keep my judgments, and do them" (Yechezkel 36:27). Blessed is Hashem for ever. Amen, amen.

1. "And these are the generations of Yitzchak"

Rabbi Chiya leads us to an understanding of the relationship between The Creator and the Torah. We learn how the world is maintained by Torah study, and why it is man's supreme duty to continue this study. Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yehuda explain the significance of the forms of blessing from Avraham to Yitzchak to Ya'akov, in whom all that has come before is manifested. We learn that true servants of The Creator are not only those from Yisrael, but anyone anywhere who studies the Torah.

The Relevance of this Passage

"The study of Torah" does not refer to a cerebral, academic approach to thousands of words on parchment. Through the eyes of the Kabbalists, the Torah is understood as the medium through which the energy of The Creator is expressed in our physical dimension of existence. The sinewy parchment, the coal black ink, and the primordial letters are all intricate components of a divine communication instrument serving one express purpose: to help willing students uproot all their character flaws, in order to attain similarity of nature and thus, closeness to the Light of The Creator. That said, Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov signify the Right, Left, and Central Column forces--that is, the desire to share, the desire to receive, and the free will to choose between and balance the two.

Ya'akov also corresponds to the Sfirah of Yesod, the gateway through which all the Light of the supernal realms enters our world. Essentially, the purpose of this passage is to ignite the primordial Light of the Torah. As we meditate upon the words, the emitted Light refines our imperfections. The strength of the patriarchs, and especially The Central Column Force of Ya'akov, enhances our ability to resist and triumph over our reactive, self-indulgent drives. Finally, the Light accumulated through our interaction with the Zohar shines universally, helping to awaken the world to the internal truths of the Torah and all that the Light of The Creator can offer us.

1. "And these are the generations of Yitzchak..." (Bereshheet 25:19). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "Who can utter the mighty acts of Hashem? Who can declare all His praise?" (Tehilim 106:2). Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, wished to create the world, He did so according to the Torah. And every act that the Holy One, blessed be He, used to create the world was done according to the Torah. This is the meaning of: "then I was by him, as a nursling: and I was daily his delight" (Mishlei 8:30). Do not pronounce it as "a nursling," (Heb. amon) but rather 'a craftsman' (Heb. oman), BECAUSE IT WAS A TOOL FOR HIS CRAFT.

1. וְאֵלֶּה תּוֹלְדוֹת יִצְחָק וְגו'. פֶּתַח ר' חַיִּיא וְאָמַר מִי יִמְלֵל גְּבוּרוֹת יְיָ וְשָׁמִיעַ כָּל תְּהִלָּתוֹ, תָּא חַיִּי, בְּעָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא וְסָלִיק בְּרַעוּתָא קַמִּיהּ לְמַבְרִי עֲלֵמָא, הוּהּ מְסַתְּבַל בְּאוּרֵייתָא, וּבְרָא לֵיהּ, וּבְכָל עוֹבְדָא וְעוֹבְדָא דְבְרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּעֲלֵמָא, הוּהּ מְסַתְּבַל בְּאוּרֵייתָא, וּבְרָא לֵיהּ, הָדָא הוּא דְכַתִּיב, וְאֵהִיָּה אֲצִלוֹ אֱמוּן וְאֵהִיָּה שְׁעִשׂוּעִים יוֹם אֶל תִּקְרִי אֱמוּן, אֶלָּא אוּמָן

2. When He wanted to create man, the Torah said to him: 'If man is created, he will sin, and you will punish him. Would not Your handwork then be in vain? After all, he will not be able to endure the punishment.' The Holy One, blessed be He, replied: 'I created repentance before I created the world. IF HE WILL SIN, HE WILL BE ABLE TO REPENT AND BE FORGIVEN.' When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world and created Adam, He said to it: 'World, world, you and your nature are based solely upon the Torah, and for that reason I created man in you, to be occupied with the study of the Torah. And if he does not STUDY THE TORAH, I will return you to chaos. Everything is for man.' This is the meaning of the verse: "I have made the earth, and created man upon it" (Yeshayah 45:12). The Torah proclaims to men to be occupied with and endeavor in the study of the Torah, but no one lends an ear.

2. כִּד בְּעָא לְמַבְרִי אָדָם אִמְרָה תּוֹרָה קַמִּיהּ, אִי בְר נָשׁ יִתְבְּרִי, וּלְבַתֵּר יַחְסִי, וְאַנְתָּ תִּיְדוֹן לֵיהּ, אִמָּא יְהוֹן עוֹבְדֵי יְדָךְ לְמַגְנָא, דְּהָא לָא יִיכּוֹל לְמַסְבֵּל דִּינָךְ, אִמַּר לֵה קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, הָא אֲתַקִּינַת תְּשׁוּבָה, עַד לָא בְּרָאתִי עֲלֵמָא, אִמַּר קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְעֲלֵמָא, בְּשַׁעֲתַע דְּעַבְד לֵיהּ, וּבְרָא לְאָדָם אִמַּר לוֹעֲלֵמָא עֲלֵמָא, אַנְתָּ וְנִימוּסָךְ, לָא קִיּוּמִין אֶלָּא עַל אוּרֵייתָא וּבְגִין כֶּךָ בְּרָאתִי לֵיהּ לְאָדָם בְּךָ, בְּגִין דִּיתַעֲסַק בֵּהּ. וְאִי לָאו, הָא אֲנָא אֶהְדֵּר לָךְ, לְתַהוּ וְכַהוּ וְכַלָּא בְּגִינִיָּה דְאָדָם קִיּוּמָא, הַה"ד אֲנֹכִי עֲשִׂיתִי אֶרֶץ וְאָדָם עָלֶיהָ בְּרָאתִי. וְאוּרֵייתָא קִיּוּמָא וּמְכַרְזָא קַמִּיָּהוּ דְבְנֵי נָשָׂא, בְּגִין דִּיתַעֲסָקוּ וְיִשְׁתַּדְּלוּ בֵּהּ וְלִית מֵאן דִּירְכִין אוּדְגִיָּה

3. Come and behold: whoever studies the Torah sustains the world and properly sustains every act in the world. There is no part within man that does not have a counterpart creature in the world. Just as the body of man is composed of levels of parts that act together to form a unified body, so is the world. All the creatures in the world are hierarchical parts that act on and react with each other, so they will actually be as one body. Everything, WHETHER IT BE MAN OR THE WORLD, resembles the Torah, because the Torah is made of different parts and sections that support each other. When they are all correct, they will become as one body. When David looked at this work, he said: "Hashem, how manifold are your works! In wisdom You have made them all: the earth is full of Your creatures" (Tehilim 104:24).

4. The Torah contains supernal, sealed mysteries, that man cannot grasp; it contains all supernal matters--those revealed and those not revealed. BECAUSE OF THEIR DEPTH, THEY ARE REVEALED TO THE SCHOLAR, BUT DISAPPEAR IMMEDIATELY ONLY TO BE REVEALED IN THE NEXT INSTANT AND DISAPPEAR AGAIN. AND SO IT CONTINUES FOR THOSE WHO STUDY THEM. The Torah contains all the matters above IN THE SUPERNAL WORLDS and below. Everything in this world and everything in the world to come is in the Torah, but there is no one to observe and understand them. Thus, it is written, "Who can utter the mighty acts of Hashem? Who can declare all His praise?" (Tehilim 106:2).

5. Come and behold: when Solomon unsuccessfully tried to understand the words and subtleties of the Torah, he said: "I said, 'I will be wise'; but it was far from me" (Kohelet 7:23). David said: "Open my eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Torah" (Tehilim 119:18). Come and behold: it is written of Solomon that he "spoke 3,000 proverbs, and his poems were a 1,005" (I Melachim 5:12). This is because there were 5,000 interpretations of each proverb he told. If this is true of the words of Solomon, who was flesh and blood, how many proverbs, chants, praises, mysteries, and wise thoughts are contained in the words of the Torah, as spoken by the Holy One, blessed be He? Therefore, it is written: "Who can utter the mighty acts of Hashem."

6. Come and behold: it is written, "Now these are the generations of Yishmael" (Bereshheet 25:12), and they are twelve princes. Then it is written: "And these are the generations of Yitzchak" (Ibid. 19). Is it possible that because it is written that Yishmael sired twelve princes and Yitzchak sired two, he (Yishmael) is more RIGHTEOUS THAN YITZCHAK? It is therefore written: "Who can utter the mighty (Heb. gvurot) acts of Hashem." This refers to Yitzchak--AS YITZCHAK IS GVURAH OF ZEIR ANPIN--for Yitzchak sired Ya'akov, who alone is more important than all of them, for he fathered the twelve tribes, and sustained the upper and the lower, while Yitzchak supported the higher in supernal holiness and Yishmael only below. Therefore the verse, "Who can utter the mighty acts of Hashem," REFERS TO YITZCHAK, AS EXPLAINED ABOVE. The words, "declare all His praises," refers to Ya'akov, BECAUSE YA'AKOV, REPRESENTING EXISTENCE BOTH ABOVE AND BELOW, CONTAINS ALL HIS PRAISES. When the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, connects with the moon, NUKVA, many stars shine from them. THEY ARE THE TWELVE TRIBES OF YAH, LIKENED TO THE STARS IN YOSEF'S DREAM.

7. "And these are the generations of Yitzchak, Avraham's son." Rabbi Yosi asks: What has changed? It did not say, "Avraham's son" previously. For although it is written, "Elohim blessed his son Yitzchak," (Bereshheet 25:11) Avraham is now dead; THAT IS, HE BLESSED AND RAISED THE LEVEL OF YITZCHAK, WHICH IS GVURAH, AFTER THE DEATH OF AVRAHAM. THUS, the image of Avraham was upon Yitzchak and stayed with him--WHICH MEANS THAT THE QUALITY OF AVRAHAM, WHICH IS CHESED, REMAINED WITHIN YITZCHAK--so that whoever saw Yitzchak said: "...this is surely Avraham," and pronounced that Avraham begot Yitzchak--WHO WAS INCLUDED IN AND CLOTHED WITH THE QUALITY OF AVRAHAM, WHICH IS CHESED. THEREFORE, THE SCRIPTURE HERE SPECIFICALLY READS, "AVRAHAM'S SON," AS WELL AS, "AVRAHAM BEGOT YITZCHAK."

8. Rabbi Yitzchak rose one night to study Torah, while Rabbi Yehuda, who was in the city of Caesarea, also rose at the same hour TO STUDY TORAH. Rabbi Yehuda said: I will walk to Rabbi Yitzchak and study Torah together with him. He went with his son, Chizkiyah, who was then a boy. When he approached the door, he heard Rabbi Yitzchak say, "And it came to pass after the death of Avraham, that Elohim blessed his son Yitzchak; and Yitzchak dwelt at Be'er Lachai Ro'i" (Bereshheet 25:11). HE THEN ASKS A DIFFICULT QUESTION: In this verse, the beginning does not fit the end and the end does not fit the beginning; IT BEGINS WITH THE DEATH OF AVRAHAM AND ENDS WITH THE BLESSING OF YITZCHAK, AND THERE IS NO CONNECTION BETWEEN THESE EVENTS. HE THEN POSED ANOTHER DIFFICULT QUESTION: Why this change? Why should the Holy One, blessed be He, bless Yitzchak AND NOT AVRAHAM? HE ANSWERS: Since Avraham did not bless Yitzchak, HASHEM BLESSED HIM AFTER HE DIED. THIS IS THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE BEGINNING AND END OF THE VERSE: "AND IT CAME TO PASS..." HE ASKS: Why did Avraham not bless him? AND HE REPLIED: So that Esav, HIS SON, would not be blessed with him--THAT IS, SO THAT ESAV WOULD NOT DRAW DOWN THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT AS IS HIS UNHOLY WONT. Therefore these blessings passed to the Holy One, blessed be He, AND THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, BLESSED YITZCHAK. Of the verse, "and Yitzchak dwelt at Be'er Lachai Ro'i," HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "Lachai Ro'i," AND ANSWERS that he was united with the Shechinah, as the Aramaic translation reads, "the well where the angel of the covenant was seen." THIS IS THE WELL, NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH, UPON WHICH THE ANGEL OF THE COVENANT, YESOD, WAS SEEN. Therefore He blessed him. BY THIS WE MAY UNDERSTAND THE CONNECTION OF THE THREE PARTS OF THIS VERSE: "AND IT CAME TO PASS AFTER THE DEATH OF AVRAHAM," WHO DID NOT BLESS YITZCHAK, "THAT ELOHIM BLESSED HIS SON YITZCHAK." WHY DID HE BLESS HIM? BECAUSE "YITZCHAK DWELT AT BE'ER LACHAI RO'I," FOR HE

9. In the meantime, Rabbi Yehuda knocked on the door, entered, and joined him. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Now the Shechinah is with us. Rabbi Yehuda said that this explanation concerning "Be'er Lachai Ro'i" is good, but there is more to be understood from the words. ONE SHOULD UNDERSTAND YOUR INTERPRETATION FROM THE WORDS THEMSELVES. He began with the verse: "a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Levanon" (Shir Hashirim 4:15). This verse was already explained: "a fountain of gardens" is Avraham; "a well of living waters" is Yitzchak; and "streams from the Levanon" is Ya'akov. HE EXPLAINED THAT "a well of living waters" is Yitzchak, as it is written: "and Yitzchak dwelt at Be'er Lachai Ro'i" (lit. 'a well of living and seeing'). What is 'a well'? It is the Shechinah, while 'living' is he who is the Life of the Worlds, namely, the Righteous--YESOD who is the Life of the Worlds--and they are not to be separated. He lives in both worlds--he lives above, in the higher world, NAMELY BINAH, and he lives in the lower world, WHICH IS MALCHUT. The lower world lives and shines from his strength.

10. Come and behold: the moon, NUKVA, shines only when she sees the sun, ZEIR ANPIN. When she sees him, she shines. Therefore this is called 'Be'er Lachai Ro'i,' for assuredly then she shines and stands filled with living water, "Lachai Ro'i," 'living and seeing', so as to be filled and illuminated by that which lives, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, AS MENTIONED.

11. Come and behold: it is written, "And Brayah the son of Yehoyada, the son of a valiant (lit. 'living') man" (II Shmuel 23:20). This means that he was righteous and illuminated his generation as the living one above, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, illuminates the world, NUKVA. Thus, the well, WHICH IS NUKVA, constantly looks to the living one, WHO IS YESOD, in order to be illuminated. "And Yitzchak dwelt by Be'er Lachai Ro'i." It is written, "When he took Rivkah," FOR THE WELL IS THE SECRET OF RIVKAH, NAMELY THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, and as he united with her, IT REPRESENTED the joining of darkness and night, as it is written: "his left hand is under my head" (Shir Hashirim 2:6) Come and behold: Yitzchak was in Kiryat Arba after Avraham died. HE ASKS: What about the verse that reads, "And Yitzchak dwelt by Be'er Lachai Ro'i?" THE RESPONSE IS THAT THIS DOES NOT NECESSARILY INDICATE HIS ABODE, BUT RATHER THE NAME OF THE NUKVA with which he joined and was united in that well, to stir up love, as we said.

12. Rabbi Yitzchak began the discussion with the verse: "The sun also rises and the sun goes down and hastens to its place where it rises again" (Kohelet 1:5). "The sun also rises," refers to the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, which shines on the moon, THE NUKVA. For when the sun is seen by her, she shines, AND THE SUN illuminates and shines from the supreme place that is above it, WHICH IS BINAH, from where IT RECEIVES HIS ILLUMINATION, AND it always rises. "And the sun goes down," means that when it comes to mate with the moon, NUKVA, it "goes towards the south," (Ibid. 6) which is the Right COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN, and there reposes its strength. THIS MEANS THAT ITS MAIN ILLUMINATION IS IN THE RIGHT, WHICH IS CHASSADIM, because its strength is in the right. As a result, all the strength of a man's body is in the right side, from which stems the strength of the body. Later IT READS, "and veers to the north," and shines upon this side, NAMELY, THE SOUTH, and shines upon that side, NAMELY, THE NORTH. "Round and round goes the wind" (Ibid.). HE ASKS: Why is it first written, "sun," and now IT IS CALLED "wind." HE RESPONDED THAT all is one secret, BECAUSE ZEIR ANPIN IS THE INNER MEANING OF THE LIGHT OF THE WIND,

AND IS CALLED 'SUN'. And all this happens--"ROUND AND ROUND GOES THE WIND"--so that the moon will illuminate by its light and the two will join.

13. Come and behold: when Avraham came into the world, he embraced the moon and brought her near. When Yitzchak came, he took her and held her and drew her lovingly, as it is written: "his left hand is under my head" (Shir Hashirim 2:6). When Ya'akov came, he united the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, with the moon, THE NUKVA, and THE NUKVA shone. So Ya'akov became whole in every aspect, and the moon shone, and was perfected by the twelve tribes.

14. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse: "Behold, bless Hashem, all you servants of Hashem..." (Tehilim 134:1). This verse was explained, yet come and behold: it is written, "Behold, bless Hashem." Who are those worthy of blessing the Holy One, blessed be He? THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "all you servants of Hashem." Although anyone from Yisrael is worthy of blessing the Holy One, blessed be He, NEVERTHELESS, who gives the blessings for the sake of the supernal and lower beings? THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "all you servants of Hashem," yet not everyone. Whose blessing is considered a blessing? THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, THOSE "who stand by night in the house of Hashem" (Ibid.); those who wake up at midnight to study Torah. These are those "who stand by night in the house of Hashem." ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURE, THEY MUST BE BOTH THE SERVANTS OF HASHEM AND ALSO RISE AT MIDNIGHT. For then the Holy One, blessed be He, comes to delight with the righteous in the Garden of Eden. And we are here awakened by the words of the Torah. Let us discuss Yitzchak, for we are on his level.

2. "And Yitzchak was forty years old"

We learn that Rivkah, because she was "like the lily among thorns", countervails the harsh judgments of Avraham and Yitzchak. Next, Rabbi Yitzchak teaches the inner meaning of the marriage of Yitzchak to Rivkah: how she represents his opposite, and how their union provides the balance that sweetens the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

"Thorns" signify the severe judgments that appear in our world. The "lily" represents the tenderness and beauty of life. Yitzchak [thorns] and Rivkah [the lily] are the vessels through which these spiritual forces are established. The key to any fulfilling relationship lies in a delicate balance between both qualities. A husband and wife bring their own particular attributes to a marriage. By harnessing the forces of Yitzchak and Rivkah, we create greater balance in all our human interactions, and particularly in our marital ties.

15. THE SCRIPTURE READS: "and Yitzchak was forty years old when he took Rivkah for a wife" (Beresheet 25:20). Why is Yitzchak's age given here? Why does it say he was forty years old when he married Rivkah? HE BEGAN HIS ANSWER BY SAYING THAT Yitzchak was included within north and south, which are fire and water, and was then forty years old when he took Rivkah. Further, the text, "As the appearance of the bow," (Yechezkel 1:28) means THAT RIVKAH HAD "THE APPEARANCE OF THE RAINBOW," WHICH IS green, white, and red, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH AND TIFERET OF NUKVA. She (the Nukva) was three years old when he seized it, when he took Rivkah, THAT IS, MARRIED HER. And he sired a son when he was sixty, WHICH WAS AFTER ATTAINING THE SIX SFIROT--CHESED TO YESOD--so that he would properly sire Ya'akov who, as the issue of a man of sixty years, held on to all THE SIX SFIROT and became a whole man.

16. Why are we told: "The daughter of Betu'el the Arammian of Paddan-aram, the sister to Lavan the Arammian?" Why should we care to know all this--it had already been written, "And Betu'el sired Rivkah," (Beresheet 22:23) and now she is described as "of Paddan-aram, the sister to Lavan the Arammian." HE ANSWERS THAT IT IS to teach us that ALTHOUGH she was born among the misled, she did not follow their ways. Therefore it is written that she was the daughter of Betu'el, of Paddan-aram, and the sister of Lavan, who were all wicked and evil doers; but she did good deeds and did not behave as they did.

17. Now we should study this further. If Rivkah was twenty years old, or at least thirteen, it would be considered praiseworthy that she did not do as they did. But since she was only three years old, how can she be praised for her actions? Rabbi Yehuda replied that although she was only three years old, she can be judged by how she behaved toward the servant. THIS MUST MEAN THAT SHE HAD THE WISDOM OF A TWENTY YEAR OLD, AND THEREFORE SHE MAY BE PRAISED FOR NOT LEARNING FROM WHAT THEY DID.

18. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Though she acted WISELY TOWARD THE SERVANT, I do not yet know if her behavior was right or not. Come and behold: it is written, "Like the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters" (Shir Hashirim 2:2). The lily is the congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, which is among the legions as a lily among the thorns. The hidden meaning is that Yitzchak came from the side of Avraham, supernal Chesed, who is kind to all creatures. And although he represented Severe Judgment, HE NEVERTHELESS DRAWS CHESED FROM AVRAHAM. Rivkah also came from the side of Harsh Judgment OF BETU'EL AND LAVAN. Although she was herself of Weak Judgment, IN THE SECRET OF THE REDNESS OF THE LILY, and a thread of Chesed was attached to her, IN THE SECRET OF THE WHITENESS OF THE LILY, nevertheless she came from Severe Judgment. Thus, because Yitzchak was severe in his judgment and Rivkah was softer in her Judgment, she was as a lily among the thorns. AND IF THE NUKVA were not of Weak Judgment, the world would not have been able to bear the Harsh Judgment of Yitzchak. In this manner, the Holy One, blessed be He, joins couples in the world--the severe with the weak. THUS YITZCHAK WAS OF SEVERE JUDGMENT AND RIVKAH OF SOFT JUDGMENT, so as to balance everything. THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO RECEIVE THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, and the world would be sweetened.

3. "And Yitzchak entreated..."

We are instructed in the prayer and spiritual actions practiced by Yitzchak in order for the child Ya'akov to be born. We see also how The Creator responded to Yitzchak's entreaties. This discussion enlightens us about the structure of prayer, and of how the prayers of the righteous allow the prayers of less good men to be heard. Next, the puzzling fact that Yitzchak loved Esav more than Ya'akov is explained in terms of its spiritual significance: the son of Avraham represents Left Column Energy, which expresses judgment. Esav, we're told, denotes this same negative force, which is an indication that Yitzchak has not yet learned to modify and balance the severity of his own judgment.

The Relevance of this Passage

This powerful passage influences many areas of life, including the miracle of childbirth.

Though our own prayers might not have wings to ascend to the highest worlds, we can still contact the Upper Realms through the updraft created by the prayers of the righteous. Finally, the text points out that our tendency is to welcome and embrace people into our lives whose nature is similar to our own. In contrast, we're quick to pass judgment and distance ourselves from those who differ from us. This negative predisposition is weakened and abated so that we can live according to the principle, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

19. Rabbi Yehuda continued with the verse: "And Yitzchak entreated Hashem for his wife" (Bereshheet 25:21). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "entreated?" AND HE REPLIED that he offered a sacrifice and prayed for her. What offering did he sacrifice? A burnt offering. IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT "ENTREATED" INDICATES THAT HE SACRIFICED by studying the verses "and Hashem was entreated of him" (Ibid.), and "So Hashem was entreated for the land" (II Shmuel 24:25). There it means that a sacrifice has been offered, SO here too it means, a sacrifice has been offered.

It is written: "And Yitzchak entreated," "and Hashem was entreated." IF "ENTREATED" INDICATE A SACRIFICE, WHAT IS THE MEANING OF, "AND HASHEM WAS ENTREATED"? HE REPLIED THAT THIS TOO REFERS TO AN OFFERING, a celestial fire that came to meet the lower fire. FOR TWO FIRES ARE NEEDED TO CONSUME THE OFFERING, THE FIRE OF A HOLY MAN AND THE FIRE OF A LAYMAN. THEREFORE "YITZCHAK ENTREATED," WHICH REFERS TO THE LOWER FIRE, AND "HASHEM WAS ENTREATED," WHICH CORRESPONDS TO THE UPPER FIRE.

19. פִּתַּח רַבִּי יְהוּדָה אֲבִתְרִיהּ וְאָמַר, וַיַּעֲתֵר יִצְחָק לַיְי' לְנֹכַח אֲשֶׁתּוֹ. מֵהוּ וַיַּעֲתֵר, דְּקָרִיב לִיָּה קִרְבָּנָא, וַצִּלֵּי עֲלָהּ. וּמַה קִּרְבָּנָא קָרִיב. עוֹלָה קָרִיב, דְּכְתִיב וַיַּעֲתֵר לוֹ יי', כְּתִיב הֵתֵם וַיַּעֲתֵר אֱלֹהִים לְאַרְץ וְגו', מַה לְהֵלֵן קִרְבָּן, אֵף כָּאן קִרְבָּן. כְּתִיב וַיַּעֲתֵר יִצְחָק, וְכְתִיב וַיַּעֲתֵר לוֹ, דְּנִמְק אֲשָׁא מְלַעִילָא, לְקַבֵּלָא אֲשָׁא דְלִתְתָא

20. Another explanation for, "And Yitzchak entreated," is that by his prayer he hollowed out a passage that reached above to Mazal that bestows children. It is upon that place--IN MAZAL, WHICH IS THE DIKNA OF ARICH ANPIN--that giving birth to children depends, as it is written, "and she prayed to (lit. 'above') Hashem," (I Shmuel 1:10) WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. "...ABOVE HASHEM..." REFERS TO DIKNA OF ARICH ANPIN, WHICH ENCIRCLES ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'MAZAL'. Then, "Hashem was entreated of him." Do not pronounce it "entreated," (Heb. vaye'ater) but "hollowed out" (Heb. vayechater). For the Holy One, blessed be He, cleared the way and accepted the prayer. Then, "Rivkah his wife conceived."

21. Come and behold: Yitzchak was with his wife for twenty years, but she did not give birth until he had said his prayer This is because the Holy One, blessed be He, desires the prayer of the righteous, when they ask Him in prayer for their needs. Why? Because the anointing oil will be increased by the prayer of the righteous for all those in need of it. FOR THE RIGHTEOUS IN THEIR PRAYER OPEN THE SUPERNAL CHANNEL, AND THEN EVEN THE PRAYERS OF THE UNWORTHY ARE ANSWERED.

22. Come and behold: Avraham did not pray before the Holy One, blessed be He, so that He would give him sons, even though Sarah was barren. And although it may be said that he prayed, saying, "Behold, to me You gave no seed," (Beresheet 15:3) it is not a prayer, but simply a statement to his Master. But Yitzchak prayed for his wife because he knew that his wife, and not he, was sterile. And although Yitzchak knew by the inner meaning of wisdom that Ya'akov was bound to come from him and produce the twelve tribes, he did not know whether this would be from this wife or from another. Therefore the scripture reads, "for his wife" (Beresheet 25:21), and not specifically "for Rivkah."

23. Rabbi Yehuda's son asks: Why then did not Yitzchak love Ya'akov as he loved Esav, if he knew that he would sire the twelve tribes? He replied: Well said. HE LOVED ESAV BETTER BECAUSE everyone loves and is attracted to his own kind.

24. Come and behold: Esav was born all red, as it is written, "And the first came out red all over" (Beresheet 25:25). Thus, he is the same as Yitzchak, who is of Harsh Judgment above, IN HOLINESS, and Esav, who issued from him, is the Harsh Judgment below. ESAV'S HEAD WAS IN THE HOLY SYSTEM, BUT HIS BODY WAS NOT. THEREFORE, he resembled Yitzchak. And because each is drawn to his own kind, Yitzchak loved Esav more than Ya'akov, as it is written, "And Yitzchak loved Esav, he relished his venison" (Ibid. 28), WHICH MEANS THAT HIS HEAD IS IN THE HOLY SYSTEM. Here it is written, "For he relished his venison," which is similar to, "wherefore it is said, 'like Nimrod the mighty hunter before Hashem'" (Beresheet 10:9). IN BOTH PLACES, HUNTING REFERS TO HARSH JUDGMENT, AND THE SCRIPTURES TELL US THAT HE LOVED HIM BECAUSE THEY WERE BOTH OF SEVERE JUDGMENT.

4. "And the children struggled together within her" (A)

Here we explore the relationship of Ya'akov to Esav. We are shown Esau's identification with the serpent, and the necessity of Ya'akov to deal with this evil in order transform Holy Yisrael into the chosen part and portion of The Creator. Ya'akov's battles with Esav are a metaphor denoting the establishment of a spiritual system that expresses the paradigm of good versus evil in human existence. We see more clearly how the naming of Ya'akov signifies his special role, and his difference from Avraham and Yitzchak. The importance of the struggle of Ya'akov with Esav for the future is also explained, along with the methods used in this ongoing battle with evil.

The Relevance of this Passage

Ya'akov and Esav were born together in the womb of Rivkah. On a macrocosmic level, Ya'akov represents the forces of good, Esav, the forces of evil, and the womb of Rivkah symbolizes our physical world. On the micro-level, this dynamic represents the positive and negative aspects of our own nature. This portion of Zohar gives us power over our dark side, so that we can overcome our internal demons.

25. Rabbi Yitzchak said: It is written, "And the children struggled together within her; and she said, 'if it be so, why am I thus?' And she went to inquire of Hashem" (Beresheet 25:22). Where did she go? To the academy of Shem and Ever. "...the children struggled together within her," because the wicked Esav was warring against Ya'akov there. The term 'struggle' (Heb. vayitrotzatzu) is similar to the expression 'to break' (Heb. ratzatz) one's head, for they struggled and were divided. Come and behold: ESAV was of the side of he who rides the serpent, SAMAEL, while YA'AKOV was of the side who rides the perfect Holy Throne, of the side of the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, that is united with the moon, THE NUKVA.

26. Come and behold: since Esav followed on the serpent, Ya'akov dealt with him slyly, as the serpent was cunning and had crooked ways. As it is written, "the serpent was craftier" (Beresheet 3:1), which means that he was cunning AND SLY. What Ya'akov did with Esav was serpent-like. This was as it ought to have been; by making Esav go after that serpent, so that he would be separated from Ya'akov, and thus share nothing with him in this world or in the world to come. Thus we learn, "he who comes to kill you, hasten to kill him first." It is written: "in the womb he took his brother by the (Hoshea 12:4), which means that he lowered him down by the heel, THAT IS, SEPARATED HIM FROM HOLINESS AND LOWERED HIM INTO THE SIDE OF DEFILEMENT CALLED 'HEEL', WHICH WAS AT THE END OF HOLINESS. This is the meaning of, "and his hand took hold of Esav's heel" (Beresheet 25:26), for he put his hands on the heel to subjugate him TO HOLINESS.

27. Another explanation of the verse, "and his hand took hold..." is that Ya'akov could not be separated from him entirely, so his hand held the heel of Esav. His hand is the moon, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, CALLED THE 'HAND OF TIFERET', WHICH IS YA'AKOV, whose light was darkened because he held Esav's heel. Therefore, Ya'akov needed to be clever with him, to push him down, so he would cleave to his place IN THE OTHER SIDE AND BE COMPLETELY SEVERED FROM HOLINESS.

28. "And he called his name Ya'akov," MEANS THAT the Holy One, blessed be He, assuredly called him 'Ya'akov'. Come and behold: it is written, "and he called his name 'Ya'akov'" (Beresheet 27:36), and not, 'and his name was called Ya'akov'. But "Did he not rightly call him 'Ya'akov?' for he has supplanted me (Heb. ya'akveni)?" (Ibid.) THIS REFERS TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO CALLED HIM 'YA'AKOV'. Surely the Holy One, blessed be He, saw that the primordial serpent was wise in an evil way. When Ya'akov came, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, said that he must be wiser than the serpent. Therefore He called him 'Ya'akov', WHO BECAME KNOWN FOR HIS WISDOM. HE KNEW HOW TO DECEIVE THE SERPENT AND TO SEPARATE HIM FROM ALL THINGS HOLY.

29. We have already explained that wherever it is written, "He called," WITHOUT ALLUDING TO WHO CALLED, it is the lower grade, THE NUKVA, as it is written: "And ...called Moshe" (Vayikra 1:1). IT IS THE NUKVA, WHO CALLED TO MOSHE. And here it is written, "and he called his name 'Ya'akov'" (Bereshheet 25:26). HERE, TOO, IT IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN WHO CALLED HIS NAME 'YA'AKOV'. For no man even named Ya'akov, as it is written elsewhere, "And called it (lit. 'him') El the Elohim Yisrael" (Bereshheet 33:20). This is the Holy One, blessed be He, who called Ya'akov 'El'. He said to him: 'I am El among the upper, and you are El among the lower.' THIS IS TO SHOW THAT HE WAS NOT NAMED BY FLESH AND BLOOD, BUT BY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE.

30. Come and behold: Ya'akov knew that Esav had to cleave to the tortuous serpent. As a result, in all that Esav did, he acted as slyly and crookedly, just like another tortuous serpent. This is as it ought to be. This agrees with the words of Rabbi Shimon, "And Elohim created the great crocodiles," which refer to Ya'akov and Esav, "and every living creature that moves" (Bereshheet 1:21), refers to the levels between them. FOR YA'AKOV AND ESAV ARE CALLED 'CROCODILES', THAT IS, 'SERPENTS', AS HAS BEEN EXPLAINED. ESAV WAS THE TORTUOUS SERPENT, AND YA'AKOV DREW AGAINST HIMSELF A KIND OF TORTUOUS SERPENT. By necessity, Ya'akov needed to behave wisely TO STAND against the other serpent. This is as it must be.

31. For that reason, one he goat is sacrificed monthly, to draw the serpent to his place so that he will be separated from the moon, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHOSE LIGHT WAS COVERED BY ESAV'S HEEL. In addition, a he goat should be sacrificed on Yom Kippur. This is done with wisdom, so as to control the serpent, so that he can not do evil. This is the meaning of the verse: "and the goat (Heb. sa'ir) shall bear upon it all their iniquities..." (Vayikra 16:22). This refers to Esav, who is hairy (Heb. sa'ir). All of this was done wisely and cleverly. Why? Because it is written: "and with the perverse you will show yourself subtle" (Tehilim 18:27). This is the evil serpent, the tortuous spirit, wise in wickedness, who accuses above and incites below.

32. For this reason, the children of Yisrael hasten to treat him with sly wisdom, so he will not be able to cause evil and rule. Therefore Ya'akov, who is imbued with the true Faith, treated Esav in all that he did so that there would be no place for that serpent to defile the Temple, or approach it and thereby rule the world. Thus, Avraham did not need to behave slyly, and neither did Yitzchak. For Esav, who was on the side of the serpent, had not yet come into the world. But Ya'akov, the landlord, THE HUSBAND OF THE SHECHINAH, had to stand against that serpent to prevent him from ruling and defiling the Temple of Ya'akov, THE NUKVA. Therefore, Ya'akov had to FIGHT HIM more CLEVERLY than the rest of the people in the world. Hence, BECAUSE YA'AKOV FOUGHT WITH HIM SLYLY AND BOUGHT HIS BIRTHRIGHT AND BLESSINGS FROM HIM, Holy Yisrael were chosen to be the part and portion of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written, "For Hashem's portion is His people; Ya'akov is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9).

5. The feast of the righteous in the future to come

Here the Rabbis discuss the shape of things to come—the time when The Creator will raise the dead. The discussion first centers on the physical nature of this event, then explores the question of the soul's place in heaven, along with its movement into a new body no longer made of dust. The feast that The Creator will prepare for His people is described in all its many levels of meaning, from mundane food and drink, to the meal of supernal splendor. This meal, we're told, includes no physical food or drink, and is the kind of meal that was eaten by Moses during his forty days and forty nights with The Creator. We learn, too, about who will partake of each kind of meal and what comprises the meals. The passage concludes with an inspiring vision of the future, which is described as begetting laughter and joy in the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

As usual, the wisdom of the Zohar pertains to both cosmic and personal realms. The supernal feast of joy that awaits us in the future can be tasted today through a reflective reading of this passage. Moreover, our interaction with these holy verses helps hasten the universal redemption.

Midrash Hane'elam (The Obscure Commentary)

33. "And these are the generations of Yitzchak, Avraham's son: Avraham begot Yitzchak" (Beresheet 25:19). Rabbi Yitzchak began the discussion with the verse: "The mandrakes give a fragrance..." (Shir Hashirim 7:14). The sages taught that in the future, the Holy One, blessed be He, will raise the dead and shake the dust off them. As a result, they will no longer be made of dust, as they were when first created from dust, which does not endure, as it is written, "And Hashem Elohim formed man of the dust of the ground" (Beresheet 2:7).

34. The instant they shake the dust from their bodily frames, they will have enduring frames, as it is written: "Shake yourself from the dust; arise, and sit down, Jerusalem" (Yeshayah 52:2). They will endure and rise from beneath the ground to receive their souls in the land of Yisrael. At that time, the Holy One, blessed be He, will pour upon them all the kinds of fragrances that are in the Garden of Eden, as it is written, "The mandrakes give a fragrance."

35. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Do not pronounce it dudaim ('mandrakes'), but rather dodim ('lovers'). They are the body and the soul, who are lovers and friends to each other. Rav Nachman said: They are real mandrakes. As the mandrakes bring love into the world, so they create love in the world. And they give off a fragrance, which is how they know and recognize their Creator.

36. The verse: "And at our gates..." (Shir Hashirim 7:14) refers to the gates of heaven, which are open to bring down souls for cadavers. "...all manner of choice fruits..." refers to the souls; "new and old" refers to those whose souls left them years ago and those whose souls left them only a few days ago. They merited, by their skillful deeds, to enter the world to come. All of them are destined to descend simultaneously to enter the bodies that are prepared for them.

37. Rabbi Acha bar Ya'akov, said that a divine voice resounded, saying: "new and old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved" (Shir Hashirim 7:14). "I have laid up for you"--in these same worlds. "...for you..." means because of you, because you are a holy and clean body. Another explanation is that these mandrakes are the Angels of Peace. "...give a fragrance..." refers to souls, the fragrance of the world; "give" means to allow, as it is written: "and Sichon would not allow Yisrael" (Bemidbar 21:23).

38. Rabbi Yehuda said that three classes of ministering angels appear at the beginning of every month and on every Shabbat to escort the soul to its place of ascension. What does the verse, "And at our gates are all manner of choice fruits," refer to? Rabbi Yehuda said: These are bodies standing at the openings of the graves to receive their souls. And Dumah offers a note of reckoning, and proclaims: Master of the Universe, "old and new," those who were buried long ago, and those buried not so long ago, all these "I have laid up for you," to take them into account.

39. In the name of the Rav, Rabbi Yehuda said that in the future, the Holy One, blessed be He, will rejoice with the righteous, and will let His Shechinah dwell among them. Everybody will rejoice in that joy, as it is written: "let Hashem rejoice in His works" (Tehilim 104:31). Rabbi Yehuda said that at that time the righteous will create worlds and raise the dead. Rabbi Yosi said to him: We have learned that "there is nothing new under the sun" (Kohelet 1:9). Rabbi Yehuda responded: Come and hearken. While the wicked are in the world and multiply, the whole world does not endure, but when the Righteous are in the world, it does endure. And in the future they will raise the dead, as it is written: "Old men and old women shall yet again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age" (Zechariah 8:4).

40. At that time, the Righteous will attain complete knowledge, for as Rabbi Yosi said: When "Hashem rejoices in His works," then the Righteous are destined to grasp the Holy One, blessed be He, in their hearts. And wisdom will abound in their hearts, as if they are seeing Him with their eyes. This is the meaning of the verse: "And it shall be said on that day, this is our Elohim" (Yeshayah 25:9). And for their existence together, the soul shall delight in the body more than anything, and that they shall have knowledge and perception of their Master, and shall have the enjoyment of the splendor of the Shechinah. This is the goodness hidden for the Righteous in the future to come. Thus, "And these are the generations of Yitzchak, Avraham's son," refers to the generations of gladness and laughter that will exist at that time. Avraham's son is the soul worthy of it and is perfect in its ascent; "Avraham begot Yitzchak," means that the soul sires joy and laughter in the world.

40. באותו זמן, ושיגו הצדיקים דעת שלמה, דאמר רבי יוסי, ביומא היחדי קודשא בריך הוא בעובדוי, זמינן אינון צדיקאי, למנדע ליה בלבהון, וכדין יסגי סכלתנו בלבהון, כאילו חזו ליה בעינא, הדא הוא דכתיב, ואמר ביום ההוא הנה אלהינו זה וגו'. ושמחת הנשמה בגוף, יתר מכולם, על שהיו שניהם קיימים, וידעו ושיגו את בוראם, ויהנו מזיו השכינה, וזהו הטוב הגנוז לצדיקים לעתיד לבא. הה"ד, ואלה תולדות יצחק בן אברהם, אלו הם תולדות השמחה, והשחוק, שיהא בעולם באותו זמן. בן אברהם, היא הנשמה הזוכה לכך, ולהיות שלימה במעלתה. אברהם הוליד את יצחק, הנשמה מולידה השמחה והשחוק הזה בעולם.

41. Rabbi Yehuda said to Rabbi Chiya: We have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, will prepare a feast for the righteous in the future. What is this feast? He replied: Before you went before these holy angels, the sages of the Mishnah, I heard what Rabbi Elazar said. It set my heart at peace. For Rabbi Elazar said that the feast of the Righteous in the future is as it is written: "and they beheld the Elohim, and did eat and drink" (Shemot 24:11). Here it is written, "eat," but Rabbi Elazar noted that in one place it is explained as, "enjoy" and in another, "eat." What is the difference? He responded: Woe to the Righteous who do not have as much merit; they enjoy the splendor, though they do not understand everything. However, the Righteous who merit the divine splendor eat until they grasp it fully. Food and drink refers to this feast and eating alone. From whom do we know this? From Moshe, as it is written: "he did neither eat bread, nor drink water" (Shemot 34:28). Why so? Because he ate another meal, which is the supernal splendor. The meal of the Righteous in the future will be in that manner.

42. Rabbi Yehuda said that the feast of the Righteous in the future is to partake of His joy, according to the verse: "the humble shall hear of it, and be glad" (Tehilim 34:3). Rav Huna said that it is understood from the verse: "But let all those that put their trust in You rejoice: let them ever shout for joy" (Tehilim 5:12). Rabbi Yitzchak said: Both will occur in the future. We were taught by Rabbi Yosi that cellared wine with its grapes, from the six days of Creation, contains the ancient matters that were not revealed to man from the day the world was created. These are destined to be revealed to the Righteous in the future; this is assuredly their food and drink.

43. In the name of Rabbi Shalom, Rabbi Yehuda said that if that is true, what about the Livyatan and the bull, as it is written: "Surely the mountains bring him forth food" (Iyov 40:20). Rabbi Yosi said that it is also written: "On that day, Hashem with His sore and great and strong sword will punish Livyatan the flying serpent, and the Livyatan that crooked serpent; and He will slay the crocodile that is in the sea" (Yeshayah 27:1). This was said thrice, to hint at the kingdom. Rabbi Tanchum added that there is nothing to reveal in addition to what the wise men said. This is assuredly so.

44. Rabbi Yitzchak said: I was present before Rabbi Yehoshua and asked him about this. I said that this feast of the Righteous that will be held in the future WAS SAID TO CONSIST OF THE LIVYATAN AND THE WILD BULL. If this is so, there is a contradiction, because Rabbi Elazar said that the feast of the Righteous in the future will be as it is written in the verse: "and they beheld the Elohim, and did eat and drink." Rabbi Yehoshua said that Rabbi Elazar was correct.

45. Rabbi Yehoshua further stated the belief that the sages communicated to most of the people: that they are invited to this meal of the Livyatan and the wild bull, where they will drink of the good CELLARED wine preserved from the time of the Creation. They came upon this verse: "and you shall eat your bread to the full" (Vayikra 26:5), and interpreted it thus. Rabbi Zira said: The Holy One, blessed be He, used all kinds of enticements to encourage the children of Yisrael to return to the good path. The greatest of them all was when He said to them, "and you shall eat your bread to the full," or among the curses, the worst is: "and you shall eat, and not be satisfied" (Ibid. 26). Why so? Because it is written: "Would we had died by the hand of Hashem in the land of Egypt" (Shemot 16:3). Rabbi Zira said: This teaches us that for the sake of eating, sacrificed their lives to die by their hands. When the Holy One, blessed be He, noticed their lust, He said to them: "If you will hearken to keep the commandments, you shall eat your bread to the full", in order to appease their minds. In this manner, the wise men saw that the exile would continue. They relied on the verses in the Torah, and said that they would eat and be merry at the great feast that the Holy One, blessed be He, will hold for them. Therefore, most of the people in the world suffer this exile for the sake of that feast.

43. אָמַר רַבִּי יְהוּדָה בְּרַבִּי שְׁלום, א"כ מֵהוּ לְוִיתָן, וּמֵהוּ הַשּׁוֹר, דְּכָתִיב, כִּי בּוֹל הָרִים יִשְׂאוּ לוֹ. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, וְהָא כְּתִיב בְּעַת הַהִיא יִפְקֹד ה' בַּחֲרָבוֹ הַקָּשָׁה וְהַגְּדוּלָּה וְהַחֲזָקָה עַל לְוִיתָן נַחֵשׁ בְּרִיחַ וְעַל לְוִיתָן נַחֵשׁ עֵקְלָתוֹן וְהָרַג אֶת הַתַּנִּינִן אֲשֶׁר בַּיָּם. הָא הֵכָא תִּלְתָּא, אֲלֵא רַמְזוּ הוּא, דְּקָא רַמְזוּ עַל מַלְכוּתָא. אָמַר רַבִּי תַנְחוּם לִית לְמִימַר, עַל מַה דְּאָמְרוּ רַבָּנָן, וְדָאי כֶּךָ הִיא

46. Rabbi Yochanan said that we should not contradict this belief, but support the idea THAT THE FEAST CONSISTS OF EATING AND DRINKING, because the Torah bears witness to it IN THE VERSE: "AND YOU SHALL EAT YOUR BREAD TO THE FULL" (VAYIKRA 26:5). We already know the Faith of the Righteous and their desire from the verses: "we will be glad and rejoice in You" (Shir Hashirim 1:4), and not in eating, and "we will praise you love more than wine" (Vayikra 26:5), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE WINE OF THE TORAH. That feast, that they--MOST OF THE PEOPLE IN THE WORLD--are destined for, FOR EATING AND DRINKING, we will partake of it too. This is the part of joy and laughter. "And these are the generations of Yitzchak (lit. 'will laugh')," for the righteous will laugh in the future. "Avraham begot Yitzchak," as it is the virtue of the soul that begets that laughter and joy in the world.

6. The combining of the attribute of Mercy with Judgment

The discussion continues to explore the uniting of Ya'akov and Rivkah. It evolves toward a more complete understanding, explaining the more subtle meanings that arise from this combination of Malchut (an aspect of judgment) and Binah (an aspect of mercy). The Rabbis also discuss the role of the Evil Inclination, explaining how this, too, derives from The Creator. They describe how evil is placed in the human heart, discuss its formidably enduring nature, and explain its role in reproduction. The creation of the Evil Inclination actually denotes the Creation of the Desire to Receive.

This Desire to Receive is a vital and necessary component in man, for without it, The Creator cannot share His infinite beneficence. There must be a willing recipient in order for sharing to take place. The angel Satan, however, manipulates this vital desire to receive into a desire to receive for the self alone. This additional aspect of receiving in a selfish manner is the "root of all evil." Man's spiritual work is to negate the Satan's influence and to express our desire to receive through sharing.

The Relevance of this Passage

A story is told of an arrogant tycoon who tosses a few gold coins to a poverty-stricken man in the streets. The poor man is of high principles and refuses the condescending handout. The tycoon is taken aback and insists that the pauper accept his gift. The poor man refuses. Initially, the tycoon was indifferent to the plight of the poor man. His charity was more an act of haughty self-regard, but now the tycoon is overcome with guilt and embarrassment. He pleads with the poor man to accept the gift. Seeing how much distress and anxiety his refusal is causing the wealthy man, the poor man decides to accept the gold coins so that his benefactor will feel better about himself. Kabbalistically, the poor man's receiving has taken the form of sharing.

A reading of this section helps us transform our selfish desires into actions that embody the principle of receiving for the sake of sharing.

47. "And Yitzchak was forty years old." Rabbi Bo began in the name of Rabbi Yosi with the verse: "Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth..." (Shir Hashirim 1:2). With how many GOOD qualities was the world created? We have learned that Rabbi Acha bar Ya'akov said that everything the Holy One, blessed be He, created in His worlds, outside of Himself, was in collaboration--THAT IS, THE COMBINING OF MALCHUT, AN ASPECT OF JUDGMENT, WITH BINAH, AN ASPECT OF MERCY. IT IS FROM THESE PARTNERSHIPS THAT MANY QUALITIES ARE FOUND IN THE WORLD. ONE THOUGHT THIS PARTNERSHIP OF GOOD AND EVIL APPLIES TO CREATURES, SO HE RAISED A QUESTION. Rabbi Acha asks: Is that so? Heaven forbid, for this will add dissension in the world, FOR EVERYBODY WHO HEARS HIM WILL DISAGREE. For if you say that it means that the angels, created as the Holy Spirit itself, have a blend OF GOOD AND EVIL in them, then their faces and ours are the same--THAT IS, ANGELS AND MEN ARE EQUAL.

48. Rabbi Aba said THAT IT IS TRUE, and through this, dissension will increase in the world. For we learned in the Mishnah that all that the Holy One, blessed be He, did, He made as body and soul. THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, JOINED TOGETHER THE BODY FROM MALCHUT AND THE SOUL FROM BINAH. THIS IS THE SECRET OF JOINING JUDGMENT WITH MERCY. One may argue that the angels have no bodies and cannot perform actions until the Holy Soul, THE LIGHT OF BINAH, joins them which is help from above.

48. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, בְּמַלְהָ דָּא יִסְגִי פְּלוּגְתָּא בְּעֵלְמָא, דְּהָא תַנּוּן בְּמִתְנִיתִין דִּידָן, דְּכָל דְּעֵבַד קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, עֵבַד כְּגוֹן גּוּפָא וְנִשְׁמַתָּא, וְאִי תִימָא דְהָא לִית גּוּפָא לְמַלְאכִים, כְּךָ הוּא, אֲבָל לִית אִינוּן יְכַלִּין לְמַעַבְד עֲבִידַתָּא, עַד שְׂיִשְׁתַּתֵּף בָּהּ הִיא נִשְׁמַתָּא קְדִישָׁא, דְּהִיא סִיעוּתָא דְלַעֲוִילָא, וּבְהָאִי גּוּוֹנֵי כָּל מָאִי דְעֵבִיד אֶצְטְרִיךְ לְהֵיָא סִיעוּתָא דְלַעֲוִילָא מִנֵּיהּ

49. Rabbi Yosi said that the instant the Holy One blessed be He, resurrects the dead, all troubles will end, on the fortieth year FOLLOWING THE GATHERING OF THE EXILES. It has been resolved by law "Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed" (Devarim 25:3). The journey of Yisrael in the desert WAS COMPLETED in the fortieth year. Forty years before the body is resurrected, the soul awaits it in the land of Yisrael. IT APPEARS THEN that in the fortieth year OF THE WAITING OF THE SOUL IN THE LAND OF YISRAEL, the bodies will rise from the dust. After forty days the rain stopped, this is the meaning of the verses "And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights" (Beresheet 7:12), and "it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noach opened" (Beresheet 8:6). Also, the time of the Redemption of Yisrael is during the fortieth year. During the fiftieth year the world, which is Yovel (Jubilee), will be populated. The return of the soul to the body occurs after forty years of waiting in the land of Yisrael. This is the meaning of, "and Yitzchak was forty years old." That is, he was waiting for the body. "When he took Rivkah," who was put in the body prepared for him. Their passion and longing at that moment was for the splendor of the Shechinah only and to nourish of Her splendor. This is the meaning of the verse, "Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth." Rabbi Aba said: "Let him kiss me" means let him nourish me. Their sole nourishment is the enjoyment and sustenance of the supernal splendor. Rabbi Yosi said that this is proven by the end of the verse, which reads: "for your love is better than wine" (Shir Hashirim 1:2).

50. "The daughter of Betu'el" means the daughter (Heb. bat) of El. Rav Huna disagreed with this. He said that BETU'EL is not ONE OF MALCHUT'S NAMES. I have been to distant lands, and heard there that this is the name of the bone of the spine. Of all the bones this one remains in the grave, AND DOES NOT ROT. It is called 'Betu'el the deceitful', THAT IS, THE 'SCOUNDREL'. I asked about it, ABOUT ITS NATURE, and they said that its shape resembles a head of a serpent, which is deceitful. And that more than any other bone in the body, this bone is deceitful.

51. For we have learned that Rabbi Shimon asks: Why does this bone endure longer than the other bones? This is because it is deceitful and does not bear the taste of human food like the other bones. For that reason, it is stronger than all the other bones. And at the resurrection of the dead, the body will be built on this root. This is the meaning of the verse, "the daughter of Betu'el the Arammian."

49. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, בְּהֵיכָא שְׁעָתָא דְּזַמִּין קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְאַחֵיא מִתַּיָא, וְהָא סוּפָא כָּל עֲקָתִין, בְּאַרְבַּעִים לַהּוּי. וְגַזַּר קַיָּים, אַרְבַּעִים יִכְנוּ לֹא יוֹסִיף. סוּף הַלִּיכְתָּם שֶׁל יִשְׂרָאֵל בְּמַדְבָּר, בְּשָׁנַת הָאַרְבַּעִים. אַרְבַּעִים שָׁנָה, קוּדְם תְּחִיית הַגּוּף, מִמִּתְנַת לוֹ הַנְּשֵׁמָה בְּאַרְץ יִשְׂרָאֵל. בְּשָׁנַת הָאַרְבַּעִים יְקוּמוּן הַגּוּפוֹת מֵעַמְרָא. בְּאַרְבַּעִים נִכְלָא הַגֶּשֶׁם, הַה"ד וַיְהִי הַגֶּשֶׁם עַל הָאָרֶץ אַרְבַּעִים יוֹם, וְכָתִיב וַיְהִי מִקֵּץ אַרְבַּעִים יוֹם וַיִּפְתַּח נֹחַ. זָמַן גְּאוּלְתָּם שֶׁל יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּשָׁנַת הָאַרְבַּעִים הוּא. וּבְחַמְשִׁים אֶתָּא יֵשׁוּב עַלְמָא, דְּהִיא הַיּוֹבֵל. הַחֲזֵרַת הַנְּשֵׁמָה לַגּוּף, בְּשָׁנַת הָאַרְבַּעִים, שְׁהִמְתִּינָה לוֹ בְּאַרְץ יִשְׂרָאֵל, הֲדָא הוּא דְכָתִיב וַיְהִי יִצְחָק בֶּן אַרְבַּעִים שָׁנָה, שְׁהִמְתִּין לַגּוּף. בְּקַחְתּוּ אֶת רִבְקָה, בְּהַכְנָסְתָּהּ בְּגוּף הַמְּזוּמָן לוֹ. בְּאוֹתָהּ שְׁעָה, בְּהַכְנָסְתָּהּ בּוֹ, אִין תְּאוֹתָם וְכִסּוּפָם, אֵלֹא לִיהֲנוֹת מִזֵּיו הַשְּׂכִינָה, וְלִיזוּן מִזֵּיוֹה, הַה"ד יִשְׁקֵנִי מִנְּשִׁיקוֹת פִּיהּ. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, יִשְׁקֵנִי יִפְרִסְנִי, שְׂאִין פְּרִנְסְתָן אֵלֹא לִיהֲנוֹת וְלִיזוּן מִזֵּיוֹה שֶׁל מַעְלָה. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי סוּפִיָּה דְּקָרָא מוֹכַח דְּכָתִיב כִּי טוֹבִים דוֹדִיךְ מִיַּיִן

52. We learned that Rabbi Shimon said: It, THE BONE OF THE SPINE, is deceitful, and IT CAME from a deceitful world, NAMELY, FROM PADDAN-ARAM. Also, deceitful is the Evil Inclination, WHICH IS THE HEAD OF THE SERPENT, WHICH IS THE EVIL INCLINATION, THE ANGEL OF DEATH. This is the meaning of the verse: "the daughter of Betu'el the Arammian," who is the deceitful bone of the spine. The words, "of Paddan-Aram," WHICH MEANS THAT HE CAME FROM A DECEITFUL (HEB. RAMAI) WORLD, represent two deceivers, as we have learned that Paddana means a 'couple'. The two deceivers are "the sister of Lavan," NAMELY, the sister of the deceitful Evil Inclination. At first, when it was corrupted by sins in this world, it was called 'Lot'. In the future, when it will no longer be as corrupted, IT WILL BE as someone who has washed and was cleansed of his impurities, and it will be called 'Lavan' (lit. 'white'). Nevertheless, the Evil Inclination is not eliminated from the world.

53. Come and hearken: we learned from the Mishnah that the two daughters of Lot symbolize the two forces of the body that arouse the Evil Inclination. Because it has bathed and is no longer so impure, it is called 'Lavan'. And the two daughters are not completely negated, as it is written, "And Lavan had two daughters" (Beresheet 29:16). Rabbi Yosi asks: Why are they there referred to as the firstborn and the younger, and here the elder and the younger?

54. Rabbi Yosi said that they no longer have the power to do evil or arouse the Evil Inclination. This is understood from the verse, "the name of the elder (lit. 'bigger') was Leah," (Beresheet 29:16) for she was weary (Heb. Leah) from her wickedness and evil, while Rachel, "the younger (lit. 'smaller')," did not have the power to incite. As it is written, "and as a sheep (lit. 'Rachel') before her shearers is dumb" (Yeshayah 53:7). Rav Huna said: This is the Evil Inclination. Its two daughters are different than they were at first. First it was Lot, cursed and corrupted; now it is Lavan (lit. 'white'), who has been cleansed, not as cursed and corrupted as it was before. First its two daughters were strong; each had her individual strength. Now the name of the elder was Leah--weary ('Leah') without power; weary without strength; Leah, fatigued from her former deeds. And the name of the younger was Rachel, as we have said, not as they were at first.

55. Rabbi Acha bar Ya'akov, said: Come and behold. It is written, "And Yitzchak entreated Hashem for his wife, because she was barren" (Beresheet 25:21). Rabbi Acha asks: Why is she barren? Because the Evil Inclination does not have its full strength in the world, the only fruition and multiplying comes through prayer. It is then written: "and Hashem was entreated by him, and Rivkah his wife conceived." Once the Evil Inclination is aroused, there is procreation!

56. Rabbi Yosi asks: What then is the difference between this world and the world at that time; WILL THERE BE EVIL INCLINATION TOO? The scripture also says, "AND HASHEM WAS ENTREATED BY HIM, AND RIVKAH HIS WIFE CONCEIVED," WHICH MEANS that the Holy One, blessed be He, does it Himself, AND AWAKENS THE EVIL INCLINATION AT THAT TIME, WHICH IS ALSO PUZZLING. Rabbi Acha said: It is so. The Holy One, blessed be He, arouses THE EVIL INCLINATION for the specific purpose of mating, but not all the time, so that the Evil Inclination may be with men always, and they sin because of it. But it is aroused only for mating, and the arousal OF THE EVIL INCLINATION AT THE TIME OF UNION will be caused by the Holy One, blessed be He. This is the meaning of the verse: "and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh" (Yechezkel 36:26). What is a heart of flesh? Rabbi Yehuda replied: It is a heart that would issue flesh and nothing else, AS, FOR EXAMPLE, A HEART THAT WOULD ONLY BEGET CHILDREN. THEREFORE IT IS WRITTEN, "AND I WILL GIVE YOU," FOR THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WILL HIMSELF AROUSE THE EVIL INCLINATION AT THE TIME OF MATING.

57. Rabbi Yitzchak, the son of Rabbi Yosi, traveled from Cappadocia to Lod, where he met Rabbi Yehuda. Rabbi Yitzchak asks him: Why are the companions, the sages of the Mishnah, not aroused in this matter of removing the Evil Inclination from the world, except at the time of mating? He replied: Upon your life! The world needs the Evil Inclination as much as it needs rain, because without the Evil Inclination there would not be the joy of study in the world. But it also would not be as corrupted as it was before, which caused sinning. This is the meaning of the verse: "They shall not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain" (Yeshayah 11:9). Rabbi Shimon said: "MY HOLY MOUNTAIN" is the heart," the dwelling place of the Evil Inclination. Rabbi Eliezer said: A good heart is the foundation of the body and soul. For that reason, it is written: "And you shall love Hashem your Elohim with all your heart," (Devarim 6:5) for the heart is the essence of all!

7. "And the children struggled together within her" (B)

The story of Esav and Ya'akov is illuminated using an analogy with man's body and internal organs. The "children struggling together within her" refers to the brain and heart. Their struggle for primacy between these two is metaphorically expressed in Esav's selling his birthright to Ya'akov in exchange for porridge, which signifies the world. We also learn that the heart and liver are the most important organs. Next, the Rabbis more deeply explore the nature of life after the Resurrection, identifying the elements of our prior existence that will still be present after the Final Redemption

The Relevance of this Passage

Man is inclined to sacrifice long-term fulfillment and well-being for immediate ego gratification. This is the true significance of Esav selling his birthright to his brother. We settle for bowls of porridge every day, blinded by the moment, carrying only for our self-interest at the expense of our loved ones. Moreover, we delude ourselves with the belief that our selfish actions are really for the sake of our families. This delusion is fabricated by the dark side of our nature. This passage removes the veils of illusion, giving us the strength and foresight not to sell our souls when temptation for self-indulgence arises.

58. When Rav Kahana arrived, he said that this was said in the name of those versed in the Mishnah. The body is built upon the liver and the heart. As Rabbi Yehuda said, the heart and the liver are the leaders of the various organs of the body. The leaders of the head is the brain, but there are two leaders in the body. The first is the liver and the second is the heart. This is the meaning of the verse: "And the children struggled together within her." These are the two foundations of the body: THE BRAIN AND THE HEART.

59. HE ASKS: Why did THE HEART AND THE LIVER struggle? AND HE REPLIED: Because the Evil Inclination was abolished from the heart. HE THEN WONDERED WHY, IF THE EVIL INCLINATION WAS ABOLISHED, IT IS WRITTEN, "struggled." It should have been written, 'And they were at peace'. Rav Huna explained that "struggled" means that the strength and vigor OF THE HEART AND LIVER, THE LEADERS OF THE BODY, were broken, BECAUSE THE EVIL INCLINATION WAS REMOVED. Rabbi Yehuda asks: What does the body say then? The body asks: 'If it be so, why am I thus?' and 'Why was I created?' Immediately, "she went to inquire of Hashem" (Beresheet 25:22).

60. "And Hashem said to her, 'Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples...'" (Beresheet 25:23). These are the two proud ones, the liver and the heart. Rabbi Yosi said that these are the brain and the heart, but Rabbi Yehuda said: The brain is not included in this, for it is written, "in your womb (lit. 'belly')," and the brain is not in the belly, but in the head. "And two peoples...from your bowels...and the elder (lit. 'great') shall serve the younger." This is the liver, which is great and big, and which serves the heart, as Rabbi Yehuda said: The liver receives the blood, and serves it to the heart!

61. "And the first came out red" (Beresheet 25:21). Rav Kahana explained that the liver is the first and is red. Why is it red? Because it is first to swallow the blood. Rabbi Eliezer asks: Why is it called 'first'? Because it is the first to swallow the blood from all the food; the first in blood but not in creation. And why is it that "the great shall serve the younger?" Because despite its being greater and bigger in size than the heart, it serves the heart. Rabbi Aba then asks: What is the purpose of this text if not to teach the people in the world that though there will be perfection upon earth, the path and nature of the world will not change? Rabbi Yisa said: Come and behold. The liver hunts and has venison in its mouth, while the heart contemplates and is "dwelling in tents" (Ibid. 27). As it is written, "And Ya'akov cooked pottage," (Ibid. 29) while thinking deep thoughts and occupying himself with the Torah.

62. "And Ya'akov cooked pottage." In the name of Rabbi Acha, Rabbi Bo said that the nature of the world never changes. Come and behold: it is written, "And Ya'akov cooked pottage (Heb. nazid)," as in the verse "they dealt (Heb. zadu)," (Shemot 18.11) which was translated into Aramaic as "they thought." It means that the heart thinks of and contemplates Torah, which represents the knowledge of its Creator. Thus, it is written: "and Esav came from the field, and he was faint" (Beresheet 25:29). It is the nature of the liver to go out hunting and swallow with its mouth. If it does not find any prey, it becomes tired and says to the heart: 'Before you think of the words of Torah, think of eating and drinking to nourish your body.' This is the meaning of the verse, "and Esav said to Ya'akov 'Give me to swallow, I pray you, of that red pottage,'" for it is my way to swallow the blood and transmit it to the other parts; "for I am faint," without food and drink. And the heart replies: 'Give me the first and choicest of whatever you swallow, give me your birthright,' this is the meaning of "Sell me this day your birthright" (Ibid. 31). That is, swear by your desire. As the heart contemplates food, the liver swallows. If it were not for the heart, longing and thinking about food, the liver and other organs would not be able to swallow. As Rabbi Yosi said: This is the way of slaves, who do not to eat before their master.

63. Rabbi Yosi said: It is later written, "Then Ya'akov gave Esav bread and pottage of lentils" (Beresheet 25:34). What are these lentils? HE ANSWERS: They are round as a circle, and as the circle which revolves around the world does not deviate from its path, so man in that time will never deviate from his. Although there will yet be all that is good and precious and perfect, with all that, the worldly habit of eating and drinking will not change.

63. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, כְּתִיב לְאַחַר כֵּן, וַיַּעֲקֹב נָתַן לְעֲשׂוֹ לֶחֶם וְנִזְיָד עֲדָשִׁים, מַהוּ עֲדָשִׁים, סְגֻלָּגְלִין כְּגֻלְגֻלְתָּא, וְגֻלְגֻלָּא סְבִיב בְּעֵלְמָא, כְּלוּמַר, דְּלֹא אֲתַנְשִׁי מְאַרְחִיָּה. כֵּךְ הוּא בְּרַ נֶשׁ, בְּהֵוּא זְמַנָּא אִף עַל גַּב דְּכָל הוּוּא טִיבוּ, וַיִּקַּר וּשְׁלִימוּתָא לִיהוּי, אֲרַחֲיָה דְעֵלְמָא לְמִיכַל וּלְמִשְׁתִּי לֹא יִתְנַשִּׁי

64. We learned in the Mishnah that four winds blow in the world, and the Holy One, blessed be He, will raise one spirit to establish the body to include four spirits, as it is written: "Come from the four winds, O breath" (or: spirit) (Yechezkel 37:9). It is not written, 'in the four,' but, "from the four winds," for it will be composed of the four of them. We learned that this spirit (or: wind) is the wind that procreates, the wind that eats and drinks. And there is no difference between this world and the days of Mashiach's coming, save the delivery from servitude to the empires alone, and there is no difference between this world and the resurrection of the dead, save cleanliness and the attainment of knowledge. Rav Nachman added longevity.

64. מִתְנִיתִין, תָּנִן אַרְבַּע רוּחוֹת הָעוֹלָם מִנְשָׁבָן, וְעֵתִיד קוֹדֶשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא לְהַתְעוֹרֵר רוּחַ אַחַד, לְקִיּוּם הַגּוֹף, שִׁיָּהָא כְּלוּל מִד' רוּחוֹת, הַה"ד מְאַרְבַּע רוּחוֹת בְּאֵי הָרוּחַ, בְּאַרְבַּע לֹא כְתִיב, אֲלֵא מְאַרְבַּע רוּחוֹת הָעוֹלָם, שִׁיָּהָא כְּלוּל מְאַרְבַּעַתָּם. וְתַאנָּא, אוֹתוּ הָרוּחַ, הוּא רוּחַ הַמּוֹלִיד, הוּא הָרוּחַ הָאוֹכֵל וְשׁוֹתָה וְאֵין בֵּין הָעוֹלָם הַזֶּה לְיָמֵי הַמְּשִׁיחַ, אֲלֵא שְׁעִבוּר מְלַכְיוֹת בְּלָבָד, וְאֵין בֵּין עוֹלָם הַזֶּה, לְתַחֲיוֹת הַמֵּתִים, אֲלֵא נְקִיּוֹת וְהַשְׁגַּת יְדִיעָה. רַב נַחֲמָן אָמַר וְאַרְיִכוּת יָמִים

8. The gathering of the exiles and the resurrection of the dead

The Rabbis, here, discuss the timing of the Resurrection after the coming of Mashiach. Using Torah verses, they demonstrate that it is possible to tell the difference between the timing of the Resurrection of the righteous from that of the good. We're told that the evil people of our world will not experience Resurrection. Rabbi Elazar expresses his sorrow at the thought that the vast majority of mankind will have to wait longer than the righteous--although those who repent during their lives help advance the time of their own Resurrection.

The Relevance of this Passage

Evolving a consciousness of repentance is the first step in hastening our own redemption and eventual Resurrection after the arrival of the Mashiach. The Light of this passage stimulates feelings of repentance and helps hasten the arrival of the Mashiach, and thus, Resurrection for the entire world.

65. Rav Yosef asks if the days of Mashiach's coming and the resurrection of the dead are the same. He responded: No, as we have learned that the building of the Temple precedes the gathering of the exiles, which precedes the resurrection of the dead. The resurrection of the dead is the last act of all. We know this from the verse, "Hashem builds Jerusalem: He gathers together the outcasts of Yisrael. He heals the broken-hearted, and binds up their wounds" (Tehilim 147:2-3). This refers to the resurrection of the dead, which is the healing of the brokenhearted and their dead. First He builds Jerusalem; then He gathers the outcasts of Yisrael; last of all, He heals the brokenhearted.

66. We have learned that the gathering of the exiles preceded the raising of the dead by forty years, as it is written: "And Yitzchak was forty years old." What is to be made of these forty years? According to Rav Kahana, Rabbi Broka said: How many troubles, how many wars waged against the children of Yisrael will there be from the gathering of the exiles until the resurrection of the dead. He who escapes them is happy, as it is written, "and at that time your people shall be delivered, every one who shall be found written in the book" (Daniel 12:1). Rabbi Yehuda said that this teaches us, "Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be tried" (Ibid. 10). Rabbi Yitzchak added, "and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried" (Zechariah. 13:9). During these very days, there will be days when people will say, "I have no pleasure in them" (Kohelet 12:1). And from the time the troubles disappear until the resurrection of the dead there will be forty years.

67. Rav Huna said: Come and behold. "For the children of Yisrael walked forty years in the wilderness...because they obeyed not the voice of Hashem" (Yehoshua 5:6). In this verse, it is the same. Rabbi Yosef said: Everything that was said is the same, but for one thing. At the end of forty years, when the troubles pass away and the wicked are exterminated, the dead, the dwellers of the dust, shall live. Why? Because it is written: "affliction shall not rise up the second time" (Nechemyah 1:9). They had their fill with what they had. After the resurrection of the dead, the world will be settled, as it is written, "on that day Hashem shall be One and His Name One" (Zechariah 14:9).

68. Rabbi Elazar was sitting and was exceedingly sad. Rabbi Yehoshua came before him and asks why the appearance of the candlelight of the world had become dark. He said: Great fear entered me, for I see how the companions versed in the Mishnah have responded on whom the spirit of saints dwells. They said that redemption will be in the sixth millennium. This was well said, but I see a longer time for the dwellers of the dust, who shall wait until the four hundred and eighth year of the sixth millennium, when they will rise. For this reason, the companions were stimulated by the verse that referred to THE DWELLERS OF DUST as the children of Chet, for Chet alludes to their rising after four hundred and eight (Heb. Chet Tav) years. As it is written, "In the year of this Yovel ('Jubilee') you shall return every man to his possession," (Vayikra 25:13) when this (Heb. hazot) shall be finished. The numerical value of Hazot is 5,408, AS THE HEI OF HAZOT ALLUDES TO THE HEI (FIVE) THOUSANDS; AND ZOT IS 408 IN NUMERICAL VALUE. Then, "you shall return every man to his possession," means that THE BODY will return to its soul, which is its possession and lot.

69. Rabbi Yehoshua said: This LENGTH OF TIME should not be difficult for you, as we have learned that there are three classes: the Completely Righteous, the Completely Wicked, and the Average. The completely righteous will rise with the resurrection of the dead of the land of Yisrael a few years earlier THAN THE FOUR HUNDRED AND EIGHTH YEAR, namely, at the fortieth year after the gathering of the exiles. In the end, everybody will rise at the four hundred and eighth year of the sixth millennium. Who will merit this length of time? He who will keep the precepts at that time. For that reason, I am sad.

70. He said to him: Rabbi, we have studied the verse, "Let there be light," (Bereshheet 1:2) which means let there be secret, BECAUSE LIGHT IS THE SECRET OF REDEMPTION. AND THE NUMERICAL VALUE OF OR ('LIGHT') IS RAZ ('SECRET'). THUS, THE VERSE, "LET THERE BE LIGHT," HINTS THAT THE TIME OF REDEMPTION WILL BE A SECRET UNKNOWN TO ALL MEN. RABBI ELAZAR BEN ARACH HINTED THAT HE DISAGREED WITH THIS LONG PERIOD. Again, he said that through repentance everyone will RISE FROM THE DEAD early. Rabbi Yehoshua said: Unless you said so, we would not have left an opening for those waiting daily for redemption, as it is written, "a store of salvation" (Yeshayah 33:6). What is this "salvation"? It alludes to those who seek salvation daily. IF REDEMPTION IS TIED TO A SPECIFIC TIME, HOW CAN IT BE EXPECTED DAILY? THIS ASSUREDLY DEPENDS UPON REPENTANCE. WHEN THEY REPENT, THEY WILL BE REDEEMED. AND FORTY YEARS AFTER REDEMPTION THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD WILL COME, AS WAS SAID.

70. אמר ליה, רבי, הא תנינן, יהי אור, יהי ר"ז. חזר ואמר, בתשובה יתקדם כלא. אמר רבי יהושע, אי לא דאמרת הכי, אחסימנא פומין, למצפי פורקנא כל יומא, דכתיב חסן ישועות, מהו ישועות, אלו המצפים ישועות בכל יום

71. HE ASKS HIM: What is the opinion of Rabbi Elazar, WHO SAID THAT IT DEPENDED ON REPENTANCE? HOW DID HE KNOW THIS? HE ANSWERS: From the verse, "And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake" (Daniel 12:2). It is understood by, "those who sleep," THAT ONLY SOME WILL RISE; these are the Righteous WHO REPENTED while they were alive, who will rise early. FOR THROUGH REPENTANCE, THEY SHALL RISE A FEW YEARS EARLY. HE ASKS: By how many years do they precede other people? Rabbi Yehuda replied: By two hundred and ten years. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Resh Dalet Yud ('210') years, as it is written, "Out of Ya'akov shall come (Heb. Yerd, Yud Resh Dalet) a ruler" (Bemidbar 24:19). This indicates that the Righteous precede other men by two hundred and ten years. Rav Nachman said: Precedence depends on how much the body is worn in the dust, THAT IS, THE SOONER THE BODY WEARS OUT IN THE DUST, THE SOONER IT RISES. Rabbi Yosi said to him: If this be true, then there are many resurrections, FOR EACH BODY HAS ITS OWN RESURRECTION ACCORDING TO ITS WEARING OUT IN THE DUST. HE ANSWERS: All revivals will occur at the same time, as was said in the vision: "and the word was true, and for a long period ahead" (Daniel 10:1).

72. "And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Avraham" (Beresheet 26:1). Rabbi Abahu opened the discussion with the verse: "While the king was reclining at his board, my spike nard sent forth its fragrance" (Shir Hashirim 1:12). We learned that the righteous will pass through four eras and four times, each different from the other. During the first, knowledge will increase in the world, and the righteous will conceive what they have not conceived in this world. As we have learned from Rabbi Pinchas, in the future, the perception of the righteous will be greater than that of the ministering angels, as it is written, "as the waters cover the sea" (Yeshayah 11:9). During the second time, you shall be occupied.
(End of Midrash Hane'elam)

9. "And the boys grew...for he relished his venison"

The discussion moves to a more profound understanding of the metaphor of Esav as a hunter. Even in the womb, Ya'akov was drawn to The Creator, while Esav was drawn to idolatry. As a cunning hunter, Esav stole the minds of men and led them astray so that they would rebel against The Creator. As the Rabbis probe the issue of why Yitzchak did not know these things about his son, we discover that the Shechinah wanted only Ya'akov to be blessed with the spirit of The Creator, which is precisely what transpired.

The Relevance of this Passage

The verses pertaining to Esav's coercing men into idolatry, function as a kind of spiritual homeopathy. Just as the cure for a deadly snake bite resides within the venom of the snake, the remedy for strengthening our consciousness against temptations of the material world resides within the verses that speak these matters. We also draw the Light of the Shechinah into our lives through the merit of Ya'akov.

73. "And the boys grew..." (Beresheet 25:27). This refers to the side of Avraham, THE RIGHT SIDE, WHICH IS CHASSADIM AND which caused them to grow. His merit supported them, for he was teaching them the precepts, as it is written: "For I know him, that he will command (Et) his children" (Beresheet 18:19). THE PARTICLE ET means that Ya'akov and Esav are included AMONG HIS SONS. Therefore, the explanation of, "And the boys grew," IS THAT THEY GREW IN HOLINESS, ONLY AFTERWARDS ESAV BECAME CORRUPTED. Rabbi Elazar disagreed. HE BELIEVES THAT each went his own way --one toward s faith, and the other towards idolatry.

73. ויגדלו הנערים. סטרא דאברהם גרים לון לאתגדלא, וזכותיה סיע לון, הוא הוה מחנך לון במצות, דכתיב, כי ידעתיו למען אשר יצוה את בניו וגו', לאסגאה יעקב ועשו. ויגדלו הנערים ויהי עשו איש יודע ציד וגו'. אמר רבי אלעזר, כל חד וחד, אתפרשלארחה דא לסטרא דמהימנותא, ודא לסטרא דעבודה זרה

74. So it was. While still in Rivkah's womb, each went toward his own side. When she was performing good deeds or passing near a place that is favorable to the precepts of Torah, Ya'akov was glad and struggled to come out. And when she walked past a place of idolatry, the wicked one struggled to come out. This has already been explained. For that reason, when they were born into the world, each was drawn to the place he deserved. Therefore it is written, "And the boys grew: and Esav was a cunning hunter..." WHICH MEANS THAT HE LED PEOPLE ASTRAY TO REBEL AGAINST HASHEM.

75. "And Yitzchak loved Esav, for he relished his venison" (Beresheet 24:28). This verse has been explained. Here, it is written: "a cunning hunter, a man of the field," while elsewhere it is written, "he was a mighty hunter" (Beresheet 10:9). THERE IT MEANS THAT HE DELUDED MEN AND LED THEM ASTRAY TO REBEL AGAINST HASHEM; HERE, IT MEANS THE SAME. THUS, "a man of the field" is one who robbed and murdered people. And ESAV said HE WENT TO THE FIELD to pray, AS IT IS WRITTEN OF YITZCHAK: "AND YITZCHAK WENT OUT TO MEDITATE IN THE FIELD" (BERESHEET 24:63). He hunted AND CHEATED YITZCHAK through his mouth, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "HE RELISHED HIS VENISON (LIT. THERE WAS VENISON IN HIS MOUTH)." HE WAS CALLED "a man of the field," because his lot was not in a populated place, but in a desolate place, in the open wilderness, in the field. Thus, he was called "a man of the field."

76. You may ask why Yitzchak did not know of all the wicked deeds of Esav, as the Shechinah was with him AND HE SHOULD HAVE KNOWN IT THROUGH THE HOLY SPIRIT. For without the Shechinah, how could he have blessed Ya'akov when he did? Assuredly, the Shechinah dwelt in his house and was with him always. But the Shechinah did not inform him of that, because Ya'akov was to be blessed only with the knowledge of the Holy One, blessed be He. And so it had to be. For when Ya'akov came before his father, the Shechinah came with him, and then Yitzchak saw in his mind that Ya'akov was worthy of being blessed and that he would be blessed by the approval of the Shechinah.

10. "And Ya'akov cooked a pottage..."

Rabbi Shimon discourses on the character of Ya'akov, and the fact that Esav despised his birthright. The Torah tells us that Yitzchak bestowed numerous blessings upon his son Ya'akov, all the while thinking it was Esav. Although Yitzchak did not know Esav's evil side, this was in order to preserve the purity of his blessing of Ya'akov. However, Ya'akov did know about Esav, and he dealt with his brother in a manner that enabled him to avoid defilement. The discussion also describes the exact manner in which Ya'akov embodied judgment, mercy, and subtlety.

The Relevance of this Passage

Despite his highly spiritual nature, Ya'akov was cunning enough to receive his father's blessing--for he was fully aware of the enemy he confronted in his brother Esav. The dark side of our nature is cunning and sly, endlessly deceiving us into making wrong choices. We must be as cunning and clever as our Evil Inclination. If we remain passive and complacent, our negative traits will control us. Summoning the shrewdness of Ya'akov through the spiritual influences of this passage, imbues us with artful and deft intellectual power to outwit the Other Side.

77. Come and behold: Rabbi Shimon was sitting with the other friends, when his son, Rabbi Elazar, appeared. The friend said to Rabbi Shimon: We have an important question to ask you concerning Ya'akov and Esav. Why was Ya'akov unwilling to give Esav a pottage of lentils unless he sold him his birthright? In addition, Esav said to Yitzchak, his father, "for he has supplanted me these two times" (Beresheet 27:36). HOW CAN YA'AKOV DECEIVE ESAV?

78. He responded: Now you deserve a whipping, because you believed Esav and lied about Ya'akov's words. The scripture bears witness that "Ya'akov was a plain man" (Beresheet 25:27), WHICH MEANS THAT HE CAN NOT CHEAT. Also, it is written: "You will show truth to Ya'akov" (Michah 7:20). This was the situation concerning Ya'akov and Esav. Even before, Esav detested his birthright, and he asked Ya'akov to take the birthright without payment! Thus, it is as written: "and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esav despised the birthright" (Beresheet 25:34).

79. Of the verse, "And Ya'akov cooked a pottage: and Esav came from the field, and he was faint," Rabbi Elazar explained that, "And Ya'akov cooked," refers to the mourning for Avraham, WHO HAD DIED ON THAT DAY. AND YA'AKOV COOKED ROUND LENTILS, WHICH HAVE NO MOUTH. THIS ALLUDES TO THE MOURNERS, WHO ARE WITHOUT A MOUTH. HE ASKS: But should not it have been written, 'And Yitzchak cooked a pottage,' SINCE HE, AND NOT YA'AKOV, WAS THE MOURNER? HE ANSWERS: "Ya'akov cooked a pottage," because Ya'akov knew the origin of Esav and the side he cleaved to. Therefore, he cooked red dishes, namely, red lentils, for this dish breaks the power and might of the red blood, AND CAN BREAK THE POWER AND MIGHT OF ESAV, WHO IS THE SECRET OF THE RED BLOOD, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND THE FIRST CAME OUT RED" (BERESHEET 25:25).

80. For that dish, by selling Ya'akov his birthright, Esav became a slave. Instantly, Ya'akov knew that for the one goat that the children of Yisrael sacrificed on Yom Kippur to his level--NAMELY, "TO AZAZEL INTO THE WILDERNESS," (VAYIKRA 16:10) THE SECRET OF THE SAMAEL, THE MINISTER OF ESAV--he becomes a slave to his descendants and will not accuse them. And because of the level of wisdom of Esav, Ya'akov dealt wisely with Esav everywhere, so that Esav was unable to rule and was submissive. Ya'akov was not defiled by him, but ruled over him.

77. תָּא חֲזוּ זְמַנָּא חֲדָא, הוּהּ יְתִיבְרַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן, וְשָׂאֵר חֲבֵרָיִיא, עָאֵל קַמֵּיהּ רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר בְּרִיהּ, אָמְרוּ לֵיהּ לְרִי שְׁמַעוֹן, מַלְתָּא רַבְתָּא בְּעִינֵן לְמַבְעֵי קַמָּךְ, בְּעַנְיֵינָא דִיעֶקֶב וְעָשׂו, אִיךְ לֹא בַעָא יַעֲקֹב, לְמִיּהֵב לְעָשׂו, תְּבַשִּׁיל דְטְלוּפְחִין, עַד דְזַבִּין לֵיהּ בְּכִירוּתָא דִילֵיהּ, וְעוֹד דְאָמַר עָשׂו לִיצְחָק אָבוּהִי, וַיַּעֲקֹבֵנִי זֶה פְעַמִּים

81. We do not accept this paragraph, for it does not belong in the discussion.

81. וַיֹּאמֶר עֲשׂוּ אֶל יַעֲקֹב הַלְעִיטְנִי נָא מִן הָאָדָם הָאָדָם הַזֶּה, אֲמַאי כְּתִיב תְּרִי זְמַנִּי הָאָדָם, אֶלֹא, בְּגִין דְּכָל מַה דְּאִית בֵּיה אָדָם, כְּדָבָר אַחַר וַיֵּצֵא הָרֵאשׁוֹן אֲדַמּוֹנִי. וְתַבְשִׁילוֹ אָדָם, דְּכְתִיב מִן הָאָדָם הָאָדָם הַזֶּה, וְאַרְעָא דִּילִיָּה אָדוּמָה, דְּכְתִיב אַרְעָא שְׁעִיר שָׂדֵה אָדָם, וְגוֹבְרִין דִּילִיָּה אָדוּמִין, דְּכְתִיב הוּא עֲשׂוּ אֲבִי אָדָם, וּמֵאן דְּזָמִין לְאַתְפְּרֵעָא מְנִיָּה אָדָם, דְּכְתִיב דּוּדֵי צַח וְאָדָם, וּלְבוּשִׁיָּה אָדָם, דְּכְתִיב מְדוּעַ אָדָם לְלְבוּשֶׁךָ, וְכְתִיב מִי זֶה בֶּא מְאָדָם

82. Rabbi Yehuda said that this should have been true of Lavan as well, because he was also a sorcerer, as it is written: "I have learned by signs that Hashem has blessed me for your sake" (Beresheet 30:27). THEREFORE YA'AKOV WAS DECEITFUL TOWARD HIM. And although Ya'akov was a plain and whole man, he was merciful with whomever he had to be merciful with. He was strict in judgment and deceitful when necessary. For he consisted of two parts, CHESED AND JUDGMENT, FOR YA'AKOV IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH COMPRISES THE TWO COLUMNS, CHESED AND GVURAH. It is written of him: "With the merciful you will show yourself merciful; ...and with the perverse you will show yourself subtle" (Tehilim 18:26), which means that with the merciful HE DEALT on the side of Chesed, and with the perverse on the side of Strict Judgment, all as it ought to be.

82. אָמַר רַבִּי יְהוּדָה, וְכֵן בְּלָבָן אֲתַחֲזִי הֵכִי, בְּגִין דְּהָא אִיהוּ חֲרָשָׁא הוּא, כְּמַה דְּכְתִיב נַחֲשֵׁתִי וַיְבַרְכֵנִי יי' בְּגִלְלֶךָ, וְאַף עַל גַּב דְּיַעֲקֹב אֶקְרִי גִבְרַת שְׁלִים, בְּגִין כֵּן הוּא שְׁלִים, עִם מֵאן דְּאַצְטְרִיךְ לִיָּה לְמִיָּהָר עֲמִיָּה בְּרַחֲמֵי הוּא אֲזִיל, וְעִם מֵאן דְּאַצְטְרִיךְ לְמִיָּהָר עֲמִיָּה בְּדִינָא קְשִׁיא, וּבְעֵקִימוֹ, הוּא אֲזִיל, בְּגִין דְּתְרִי חוּלְקֵי הוּוּ בֵּיה, וְעֵלִיָּה כְּתִיב עִם חֲסִיד תַּתְּחַסֵּד, וְעִם עֲקֵשׁ תַּתְּפַל. עִם חֲסִיד בְּסִטְרָא דְּחֲסִיד, וְעִם עֲקֵשׁ בְּסִטְרָא דְּדִינָא קְשִׁיא, כֵּלָא כְּדָקָא יָאוּת

11. "And there was a famine in the land..."

The Rabbis discuss The Creator's testing of the righteous, and His treatment of the wicked. There is a delay in executing judgment against the wicked in order to give them time to repent. The Creator, we're told, tests the righteous in order to help them lift up their heads. The discussion shows how this applies to Adam, Avraham, Noach, and Yitzchak; then Rabbi Shimon expounds on the need for an understanding of the relationship between soul, body, and the Shechinah. We learn that it is only when the soul is reunited with Shechinah that is truly worthy.

The Relevance of this Passage

A child learns to walk by falling down and standing up again. Measured against a lifetime of walking, this period of continual stumbling is relatively short. Similarly, the hardships and afflictions in our lives are learning opportunities. They are sent to us to help us learn to walk in the ways of The Creator. When we understand our afflictions in this way, their duration is brief compared to a lifetime of spiritual fulfillment. Conversely, when life appears strangely calm and placid, The Creator may be delaying judgments against us for self-centered behavior. We should be wary of our connection to the Light during these moments and begin to reflect with humility and repentance.

83. "And there was a famine in the land..." (Beresheet 26:1). Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse: "Hashem tries the righteous: but the wicked and him who loves violence His soul hates" (Tehilim 11:5). How orderly and right are the deeds of the Holy One, blessed be He, and all He does is according to justice and truth, as it is written, "He is the Rock, His work is perfect..." (Devarim 32:4).

83. וַיְהִי רָעַב בְּאֶרֶץ מִלְכָד הָרָעַב הָרֵאשׁוֹן וְגו'. ר' יְהוּדָה פָּתַח וַאֲמַר, יי' צְדִיק יִבְחֵן וְרָשָׁע וְאוֹהֵב חַמְסָא שְׂנֵאָה נַפְשׁוֹ. כְּמַה עוֹבְדוֹי דְּקוֹדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא מִתְתַקְנָן, וְכָל מַה דְּאִיהוּ עֲבִיד, כֵּלָא עַל דִּינָא וְקִשׁוּט, כְּמַה דְּכְתִיב הַצּוֹר תְּמִים פָּעִלוּ כִּי כָל דְּרָכָיו מִשְׁפָּט אֶל אֲמוֹנָה וְאִין עוֹל צְדִיק וַיִּשֶׁר הוּא

84. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, did not judge Adam before He commanded him for his own good not to let his heart and will stray in another direction--THAT IS, NOT TO EAT FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE--so that he would not be defiled. But he was not careful, and transgressed the precepts of his Master BY EATING FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, judged him.

85. Even then, the Holy One, blessed be He, did not judge him as harshly as he deserved, THAT IS, ACCORDING TO THE VERSE: "FOR ON THE DAY THAT YOU EAT OF IT YOU SHALL SURELY DIE" (BERESHEET 2:17). He refrained from wrath and let him be among the living for one day, THAT IS, THE DAY OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, which is one thousand years, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "FOR A THOUSAND YEARS IN YOUR SIGHT ARE BUT LIKE YESTERDAY WHEN IT IS PAST" (TEHILIM 90:4), minus the seventy years that he gave to king David, who had no life of his own. THEREFORE HE LIVED 930 YEARS, NAMELY, ONE THOUSAND YEARS MINUS SEVENTY.

86. Similarly, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, does not judge man according to his evil deeds, which he continually does, for if He did so, the world would not have survived. But the Holy One, blessed be He, refrains from wrath with the Righteous and the wicked. With the wicked, HE IS EVEN more FORBEARING than with the righteous, so that they may repent completely and exist in this world and in the world to come. As it is written: "'As I live,' says Adonai Elohim. 'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live,'" (Yechezkel 33:11) WHICH MEANS to live in this world and in the world to come. For that reason, He is always forbearing. Another reason is that good stock may issue from them, as Avraham was begotten of Terach, who issued good stock and good origin and portion in the world.

87. But the Holy One, blessed be He, is always strict with the Righteous in every deed they do. Because He knows they will not turn away, neither to the right nor the left, He constantly tests them. Not for His own sake DOES THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, TEST THEM, as He knows their desire and the firmness of their faith and has no need of trying them. He tries them only to lift up their heads, to give them confidence as they earn their merits through these EXPERIENCES.

88. THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, behaved similarly toward Avraham, as it is written: "that the Elohim did test Avraham" (Bereshheet 22:1). What is meant by "test (Heb. nisah)?" It means the raising of the banner (Heb. nes), as it is written: "lift up a standard," (Yeshayah 62:10) and "set up the standard" (Yirmeyah 4:6). He raised his standard over the whole world. And for this, FOR THE TEST AT THE SACRIFICE, the Holy One, blessed be He, raised the banner of Avraham before everybody's eyes, as it is written: "did test Avraham." Thus the Holy One, blessed be He, in order to lift the standard of the righteous, tries them, so they will lift up their heads throughout the world.

85. ועם כל דא, לא דן ליה, בדקא חזי ליה, ואוריך עמיה רוגזיה, ואתקיים יומא חד, דאיהו אלף שנין, בר אינון שבועים שנים, דמסר ליה לדוד מלכא, דלא הוה ליה מגרמיה בלום

88. כגוונא דא, עבד ליה לאברהם, דכתיב והאלהים נסה את אברהם, מאי נסה, הרמת נס, כמה דאת אמר הרימו נס, שאו נס, ארים דגלא דיליה בכל עלמא, ואף על גב דהא אתמר, בגין דא קודשא בריך הוא ארים דגלא דאברהם, בעיניהון דכלא, דהא הוא דכתיב נסה את אברהם, אוף הכי קודשא בריך הוא, בגין לארמא דגלא דצדיקא, איהו בחין לון, לארמא רישיהו בכל עלמא

89. "...tries the Righteous..." (Tehilim 11:5): What is the reason thereof? According to Rabbi Shimon, it is because the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes for the Righteous. As it is written, "But it pleased Hashem to crush him by disease" (Yeshayah 53:10). This has already been explained. The Holy One, blessed be He, wishes for the soul and not the body, because the soul resembles the supernal soul, NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH, and the body is not worthy of being united WITH THE SHECHINAH above. Thus, although the shape of the body is in the image of the supernal secret, THAT IS, ALTHOUGH THE BODY IS DRAWN FROM THE SHECHINAH, NAMELY MALCHUT, NEVERTHELESS IT IS NOT WORTHY OF BEING UNITED WITH HER.

90. Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes to illuminate the soul of a man, He crushes the body so that the soul will govern. As long as the soul is with the body, THEY ARE EQUAL, AND the soul can not rule. After the body is crushed, the soul becomes powerful. What is the meaning of the verse: "...tries the righteous..." (Tehilim 11:5)? It is as is written: "...a tried stone..." (Yeshayah 28:16); in the same way He "tries the righteous," which means that He strengthens him by this "tried stone," which is a precious cornerstone. So does He try the righteous!

91. "but the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates" (Tehilim 11:5). What is the meaning of "his soul (lit. Nefesh) hates"? COULD IT POSSIBLY BE THAT IT ALLUDES TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHOSE NEFESH HATES THE WICKED? FOR THE WORD NEFESH IS NOT APPROPRIATE FOR THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. The explanation is that the very level upon which all souls depend, MALCHUT, hates the Nefesh of that wicked man. For it does not want it [this soul] TO CLEAVE TO IT in this world or in the world to come. For that reason, it is written, "but the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates." Another explanation of, "His soul hates," is as it is written: "Adonai Elohim has sworn by His Nefesh," (Amos 6:8) WHICH MEANS THAT THE WORD NEFESH IS USED IN RELATION TO HASHEM. IF SO, THEN THE EXPLANATION IS SIMPLY THAT THE SOUL OF HASHEM HATES THE WICKED AND HIM WHO LOVES VIOLENCE. For that reason He "tries the Righteous," for He loves him.

92. Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created Adam, He commanded him NOT TO EAT OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, in order to benefit him. He gave him wisdom, so he would ascend through the grades TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. When he descended, he saw the desires of the Evil Inclination and clung to it, thereby forgetting all that he beheld of the Supernal Glory of his Master.

93. Of Noach, it is first written: "Noach was a just man and perfect" (Beresheet 6:9). Then he descended and saw strong wine that was one day old and not clear, AS IT WAS FULL OF DREGS. He drank from it, became drunk, and was uncovered, as it is written: "and he drank of the wine, and was drunk; and he was uncovered within his tent" (Beresheet 9:21).

93. אַתָּא נַח, בְּקַדְמִיתָא כְּתִיב נַח אִישׁ צְדִיק תְּמִים הִיָּה, וּלְבַתֵּר נַחַת לְתַתָּא, וְחָמָא חֲמָרָא תְּקִיף, דְּלֹא צְלִיל, מִחַד יוּמָא, וְאֲשֵׁתֵי מְנִיָּה, וְאֲשֵׁתְכֶר וְאַתְגְּלוּ, כְּמַה דְּכְתִיב, וַיִּשְׁתֵּי מִן הַיַּיִן וַיִּשְׁכָּרוּ וַיִּתְגַּל בְּתוֹךְ אֹהֶלָה

94. Then Avraham was elevated with wisdom and beheld the glory of his Master. Subsequently, it is written, "And there was famine in the land: and Avram went down to Egypt" (Beresheet 12:10), and "And Avram went up out of Egypt..." (Beresheet 13:1) and was elevated to the grade he had at the beginning. He came in peace and went in peace.

94. אַתָּא אַבְרָהָם, אֶסְתַּלַּק בְּחִכְמָתָא, וְאֶסְתַּבֵּל בִּיקְרָא דְמֵאֲרִיָּה, לְבַתְרָא וַיְהִי רָעַב בְּאֶרֶץ וַיֵּרַד אַבְרָם מִצְרֵימָה לְגֹר שָׁם כִּי כָבֵד הָרָעַב בְּאֶרֶץ וְגו', לְבַתְרָא מַה כְּתִיב, וַיַּעַל אַבְרָם מִמִּצְרַיִם הוּא וְאִשְׁתּוֹ וְכָל אֲשֶׁר לוֹ וְלוֹט עִמּוֹ הַנְּגַבָּה, וְאֶסְתַּלַּק לְדִרְגָּיָה קְדָמָא, דְּהוּא בֵּיהּ בְּקִדְמִיתָא, וְעָאֵל בְּשָׁלָם, וְנִמְק בְּשָׁלָם

95. And then Yitzchak, of whom it is written: "And there was a famine in the land..." (Beresheet 26:1). And Yitzchak went TO GERAR. From there, he later ascended peacefully. And so all the Righteous are tested by the Holy One, blessed be He, to raise their heads in this world and in the world to come.

95. אַתָּא יִצְחָק, מַה כְּתִיב, וַיְהִי רָעַב בְּאֶרֶץ, מִלְּבַד הָרָעַב הָרֵאשׁוֹן וְגו'. וְאִזְל יִצְחָק וְאֶסְתַּלַּק מִתַּמָּן לְבַתְרָא בְּשָׁלָם, וְכִלְהוּ צְדִיקָיָא, כִּלְהוּ בְּחִין לֹן קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּגִין לְאַרְמָא רִישׁוּיָהּ, בְּעֵלְמָא דִּין וּבְעֵלְמָא דְאַתִּי

12. "And he said, 'She is my sister'"

Here the discussion explains why Avraham and Yitzchak replied as above when they were asked about their wives. This episode is linked to the Shechinah, the Divine Presence of Creator in the physical realm. The dual meaning of the word sister is revealed as an allusion to the patriarchs own connection to the Shechinah, which is the source of human happiness and protection. The Rabbis further discuss the nature and whereabouts of the dwelling place of the Shechinah, which resides both in their wives and in the Holy Land.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Shechinah can only dwell within us, offering protection and fulfillment, when we are in an appreciative and joyful state of mind. The moment a person feels depressed, negative, or victimized, the Shechinah departs. A positive state of mind and appreciation is summoned forth in this passage, thus drawing the Shechinah into our lives. This Light also serves to enrich our marital relationships.

96. "And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, 'She is my sister' (Beresheet 26:7), that is, just like Avraham said, "SHE IS MY SISTER," REFERRING TO THE SHECHINAH. For the Shechinah was with Yitzchak and his wife, and he said of the Shechinah, "SHE IS MY SISTER," as it is written, "Say to wisdom: 'you are my sister'" (Mishlei 7:4). Thus, he was strengthened BY THE SHECHINAH and said, "She is my sister." Avraham and Yitzchak deserved TO SAY OF THE SHECHINAH, "SHE IS MY SISTER." This is assuredly so because of the verse IN WHICH ZEIR ANPIN SAID TO THE SHECHINAH, "My sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled" (Shir Hashirim 5:2). AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK WERE A CHARIOT TO ZEIR ANPIN and were therefore worthy, LIKE ZEIR ANPIN, of saying ABOUT THE SHECHINAH, "She is my sister." Thus, the Righteous were strengthened by the Holy One, blessed be He, THAT IS, THEY BECAME A CHARIOT TO HIM.

96. וַיִּשְׁאֲלוּ אַנְשֵׁי הַמָּקוֹם לְאִשְׁתּוֹ וַיֹּאמֶר אַחֹתִי הִיא, כְּמָה דְאָמַר אַבְרָהָם, בְּגִין דְשְׂכִינְתָא הוּא עִמָּיה, וְעַם אֲתִתִּיהּ, וּבְגִין שְׂכִינְתָא קְאָמַר, דְכְתִיב אָמַר לְחִכְמָה אַחֹתִי אַתְּ, וְעַל דָּא אֲתַתְּקַף, וְאָמַר אַחֹתִי הִיא. תו, אַבְרָהָם וַיִּצְחָק, הִכִּי אֲתַחֲזִי, דְוַדְאִי בְּגִין קְרָא דְכְתִיב אַחֹתִי רַעִיתִי יוֹנְתִי תַמְתִּי, וּבְגִין כֶּן וַדְאִי, אֲתַחֲזִי לֹן לֹמַר, אַחֹתִי הִיא, וְעַד אֲתַתְּקַפוּ צְדִיקָיָא בֵּיהּ בְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא

97. "And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time...with Rivkah his wife" (Beresheet 26:8): IT IS SAID "with (Heb. et) Rivkah his wife," precisely, which alludes to the Shechinah that was with Rivkah, BECAUSE ET ("WITH"), AS WE KNOW, IS THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH. Another explanation asks if we could possibly conceive of Yitzchak performing his marital duties during the daytime. We have learned that the children of Yisrael are holy and abstain from cohabitation in the daytime. Therefore, how could Yitzchak, who was holy, cohabit during the day?

97. וַיְהִי כִּי אָרְכוּ לוֹ שָׁם הַיָּמִים וְגו'. אֶת רִבְקָה אִשְׁתּוֹ דְיִיקָא, דָּא שְׂכִינְתָא, דְהוּת עִמָּה דְרִבְקָה. דְבַר אַחַר, וְכִי ס"ד דִּיצְחָק הוּא מְשַׁמֵּשׂ עַרְסִיָּה בִּימָמָא, דְהָא תְּנִינָן יִשְׂרָאֵל קְדִישִׁין אֵינּוּן, וְלֹא מְשַׁמְשֵׁי עַרְסִיָּהּ בִּימָמָא, וַיִּצְחָק דְהוּא קְדִישׁ הוּא מְשַׁמֵּשׂ עַרְסִיָּה בִּימָמָא

98. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly Avimelech was wise and looked at the wisdom of the stars, that is called a 'window', as it is written here, "out at a window" (Beresheet 26:8), and elsewhere, "The mother of Sisra looked out at a window" (Shoftim 5:28). As THE WINDOW there REFERS TO astrology, so THE WINDOW here REFERS to astrology. And he saw there that it was not as Yitzchak said, but that he surely was sporting with her, and she was his wife. Then, "Avimelech called Yitzchak..." (Beresheet 26:9) Rabbi Yosi said that it would have befitted Avimelech to do this to Yitzchak AND TAKE HIS WIFE, as he did to Avraham, were it not for the Holy One, blessed be He, who reproved him earlier FOR WHAT HE DID TO AVRAHAM, SAYING "BEHOLD, YOU ARE A DEAD MAN, BECAUSE OF THE WOMAN..." (BERESHEET 20:3).

99. Come and behold: it is written, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of Elohim is not in this place'" (Beresheet 20:11). According to Rabbi Aba, this is the reason why he said, "She is my sister." He wanted to cleave to the Shechinah, as it is written, "Say to wisdom: [NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH] you are my sister." Why? Because they had no faith in them, for if they had faith, he would not have needed that. But because they had no faith, he said, 'SHE IS MY SISTER'. He therefore said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of Elohim is not in this place.'" The fear of Elohim is Faith.

100. Rabbi Elazar said that this is because the Shechinah does not live outside the Holy Land. Therefore, there is no fear of Elohim in this place, AS FEAR MEANS THE SHECHINAH. This is not Her place, and She does not dwell here. And Yitzchak was strengthened by the faith, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH, when he saw the Shechinah dwelling in his wife.

13. "And Avimelech charged"

We learn how the actions and conduct of the righteous people, such as the patriarch Yitzchak, help to build and strengthen our physical dimension of Malchut. These acts of the righteous are mirrored in our own spiritually significant actions, as in the laying of Tfilin and the donning of Tzitzit.

The Relevance of this Passage

By drawing on the metaphysical power of righteous personages such as Yitzchak, and also on the spiritual forces released by laying Tfilin and wearing Tzitzit, we build and strengthen our souls. In this way, we ensure that our sojourn in this physical existence will be filled with spiritual growth and enlightenment.

101. "And Avimelech charged all his people, saying, 'He that touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death'" (Beresheet 26:11). Come and behold: how long had the Holy One, blessed be He, refrained from avenging the wicked, for as a result of the good Avimelech did with the first patriarchs, the children of Yisrael did not rule over the Philistines until generations later. Avimelech did well to act properly toward Yitzchak, as he said TO AVRAHAM, "Behold, my land is before you: dwell where it pleases you" (Beresheet 20:15). THIS SAYING ALSO ENCOMPASSES THE DESCENDANTS OF AVRAHAM. THIS IS WHY HE KEPT HIS WORD WITH YITZCHAK AS WELL, AND RABBI ELAZAR PRAISES HIM FOR KEEPING HIS PROMISE.

101. וַיִּצֹו אַבְימֶלֶךְ אֶת כָּל הָעָם לֵאמֹר הַנּוֹגֵעַ בְּאִישׁ הַזֶּה וּבְאִשְׁתּוֹ מוֹת יוּמָת. תָּא חֲזִי, כְּמַה אוֹרִיךְ לְהוּ קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, לְרִשְׁיַעֲיָא, בְּגִין הֵהוּא טִיבוּ דְּעַבְד עִם אַבְהֵן קְמָאִי, דְּהָא בְּגִין דָּא לֹא שְׁלִיטוּ בְּהוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל, עַד לְבַתַּר דְּרִין בְּתְרָאִין, יְאוֹת עַבְד אַבְימֶלֶךְ, דְּעַבְד טִיבוּ עִם יִצְחָק, דְּאָמַר לוֹ הִנֵּה אֶרְצִי לְפָנֶיךָ בְּטוֹב בְּעֵינֶיךָ שֶׁב

102. Rabbi Yehuda said: Woe to the wicked, whose generosity is not complete. Come and behold: Efron first said, "my lord, hear me: the field I give you, and the cave that is in it" (Bereshheet 23:11). Later he said, "four hundred shekels" (Ibid. 14), and then, "and Avraham weighed to Efron...current money with the merchant" (Ibid. 16). Here too, it is written at first WHAT HE SAID TO AVRAHAM, "Behold, my land is before you," WHICH INCLUDES YITZCHAK. Then he said TO YITZCHAK, "Go from us; for you are much mightier than we" (Bereshheet 26:16). Rabbi Elazar said to him: This is the benevolence Avimelech had for Yitzchak. He took nothing from him and sent him away with his money and possessions. Then, he went after him to make a covenant with him.

102. רבי יהודה אמר, חבל עליהו דרשועינא, דטיבותא דלהון לאו איהו שלים, תא חזי, עפרון בקדמיתא אמר, אדוני שמעני השדה נתתי לך והמערה אשר בו לך נתתיה וגו'. ולבתר אמר, ארץ ארבע מאות שקל כסף וגו', וכתיב וישקול אברהם לעפרון וגו', עובר לסוחר. אוף הכא, כתיב בקדמיתא, הנה ארצי לפניך וגו'. ולבתר אמר לו, לך מעמנו כי עצמת ממנו מאד. אמר ליה רבי אלעזר, דא הוא טיבו דעבד עמיה, דלא נסיב מדיליה אבימלך כלום, ושדריה בכל ממוניה, ולבתר אזל בתריה, למגזר עמיה קנים

103. And Rabbi Elazar said that Yitzchak did well because he knew the secret of wisdom. He strove and dug a well of water, THAT IS, HE FIXED THE NUKVA CALLED A 'WELL OF WATER', so as to be properly invigorated by Faith, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. Avraham also strove and dug a well of water. Ya'akov found it completed and settled by it. Everybody went after it and strove by it, so as to be strengthened by the true Faith, as is proper.

103. ואמר רבי אלעזר, יאות עבד יצחק, דהא בגין דידיע רזא דחכמתא, אשתדל וחרר בירא דמיין, בגין לאתתקפא במהימנותא בדקא יאות, וכן אברהם, אשתדל וחרר בירא דמיא, יעקב אשבח ליה מתתקן, ויטיב עליה וכלהו אזלו בתריה, ואשתדלו, בגין לאתתקפא במהימנותא שלימתא בדקא יאות

104. Presently, the children of Yisrael are strengthened by THE WELL OF WATER, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, according to the secret of keeping the commandments of the Torah; NAMELY, every day a man is strengthened and enveloped by the commandment of the Tzitzit ('fringes'), as he also is by the Tefilin he puts on his head and arm. This is as it should be, for they are the supernal mystery. For the Holy One, blessed be He, dwells with the man who is crowned by Tefilin and clothed with the fringes. All is in the secret of high Faith, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, MEANING THAT SHE IS AMENDED BY THE PRECEPTS A MAN FOLLOWS.

104. והשתא ישראל, אתתקפו ביה ברזי דפקודי אורייתא, כגון דכל יומא ויומא אתתקף בר נש בציצית, דאיהו מצוה, ובר נש אתעטף ביה. הכי נמי בתפלי, דמנח ארישיה ובדרועיה, דאינון רזא עלאה, בדקא חזי, בגין דקודשא בריך הוא אשתכח ביה בבר נש, דאתעטר ביה בתפלו, ואתעטף בציצית, וכלא רזא דמהימנותא עלאה

105. Therefore, whoever does not wear the fringes and is not invigorated by the Tefilin daily, appears as if faith does not dwell with him. The fear of his Master is removed from him, and his prayer is no proper prayer. For this reason, the fathers were strengthened by the supreme faith, since within the supernal well dwells whole faith, NAMELY, THE CORRECTED NUKVA.

105. ועל דא, מאן דלא אתעטף בהאי, ולא אתעטר לאתתקפא בתפלי בכל יומא, דמי ליה דלא שריא עמיה מהימנותא, ואתעדי מניה דחילו דמאריה, וצלותיה לאו צלותא בדקא יאות. ובגין כך אבהן הוה מתתקפי גו מהימנותא עלאה, בגין דבירא עלאה דרזא דמהימנותא שלימתא, שריא ביה

14. "And he called the name of it Rechovot"

Here, the Rabbis expound meaning of the Sfirot through a discussion of the World To Come. It is said that the Torah's more mundane verses possess hidden meanings pertaining to the spiritual processes that the patriarchs endured in Upper Worlds. With this insight, we see that the deeds of the righteous are performed in order to preserve our world. This is why they are able to draw down the Shechinah into our lower realm.

The Relevance of this Passage

If we are unaware of the meaning and metaphysical power concealed in the Torah's seemingly uninteresting verses, we are prevented from deriving immense Light and strength from Torah study. This passage offers us the opportunity to ignite sparks of Light by connecting to these veiled meanings. In so doing, we tilt our own actions towards the side of righteousness, thus helping to sustain this world by our very existence.

106. "And he removed from there, and dug another well..." (Beresheet 26:22). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse, "and Hashem shall guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought, and make strong your bones" (Yeshayah 58:11). This verse had already been explained, but by this verse the faithful were strengthened, for it promises them the world to come. "And Hashem shall guide you continually" in this world and the world to come.

"And Hashem shall guide you." HE ASKS: Because he said, "And Hashem shall guide you," why add the word "continually (Heb. tamid)?" For this hints at the daily offering (lit. 'continue') made at dusk that receives its strength from underneath Yitzchak's arm, AS IT CORRESPONDS TO THE SERVICE OF MINCHAH, THAT YITZCHAK COMPOSED, WHO IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT.

It is the portion of the world to come, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, THAT RECEIVES THE PORTION OF CHOCHMAH FROM YISRAEL-SABA AND TEVUNAH, CALLED 'THE WORLD TO COME'. How do we know that "HASHEM SHALL GUIDE YOU CONTINUALLY" REFERS TO THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT? From David, as it is written, "He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake" (Tehilim 23:3). JUST AS THE WORD "LEADS," SPOKEN BY DAVID, MEANS THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS," WHICH IS A NAME OF THE NUKVA WHEN SHE SHINES FROM THE LEFT, HERE TOO WHEN IT SAYS "GUIDE," IT ALLUDES TO THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT.

107. "And satisfy your soul in drought (also: brightness)" (Yeshayah 58:11) refers to the shining lamp, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT, THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM, that all the souls delight in and take pleasure in beholding. The verse ends, "and make strong your bones" (Ibid.). The end does not suit the beginning, for if the soul of the righteous IS SATISFIED, AS SAID BEFORE "AND SATISFY YOUR SOUL IN BRIGHTNESS," WHICH SPEAKS ABOUT THE NEFESH AND NESHAMAH OF THE RIGHTEOUS, why does it now say "and make strong your bones," WHICH TALKS ABOUT THE BONES OF THE BODY? BUT HE ANSWERS that this has already been explained. It refers to the resurrection of the dead, the fact that the Holy One blessed be He, will revive the dead and fix man's bones as they were at first, in a whole body. And Light will be added from the shining lamp so the soul will be illuminated together with the body in a complete whole. THIS WAY, IT REFERS TO THE SOUL OF THE RIGHTEOUS, TO WHICH THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WILL GIVE A WHOLE BODY IN WHICH TO BE CLOTHED FOR ETERNITY.

108. For this reason, it is written, "you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water" (Yeshayah 58:11). HE ASKS: What is this watered garden? AND HE ANSWERS: Its supernal water, THAT IS, THE ABUNDANT YIELD OF BINAH, never ceases its eternal flow. This garden, MALCHUT, always slakes its thirst from it. "a spring of water" refers to that river, which emerges and flows out of Eden, which waters never cease flowing.

109. HE THEN EXPLAINED THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE WATERED GARDEN AND THE SPRING OF WATER. Come and behold: A well of living water is the supreme secret, WHICH IS BINAH, within the faith, WHICH IS MALCHUT. THEN SHE IS a cistern, from where the spring of water, and a cistern that is filled by that spring of water. These two grades are one, namely, male and female properly as one.

106. וַיֵּתֶק מִשָּׁם וַיַּחְפֹּר בְּאֵר אַחֶרֶת וּגּוֹ', רַבִּי חֵיָא פָתַח וְאָמַר וְנַחֲךָ יִי תְמִיד וְהִשְׁבִּיעַ בְּצַחְצְחוֹת נַפְשְׁךָ וְעֲצַמְתֶּיךָ יַחְלִיץ וּגּוֹ'. הָאֵי קָרָא אוֹקְמוּהָ וְאִתְמַר. אֲבָל בְּהָאֵי קָרָא, בִּיה אִתְתַּקְפוּ מְאִרֵי מְהֵימְנוּתָא, דְּאֲבִטַח לֹון לְעֵלְמָא דְאַתִּי. וְנַחֲךָ יִי תְמִיד, בְּהָאֵי עֵלְמָא, וּבְעֵלְמָא דְאַתִּי. וְנַחֲךָ יִי, כִּיּוֹן דְאָמַר וְנַחֲךָ יִי, אֲמַאי תְמִיד. אֶלָּא דָא תְמִיד דְבִין הָעֵרְבִים, דְאִיהוּ אִתְתַּקַּף תַּחוּת דְרוּעִיה דְיִצְחָק, וְדָא הוּא חוֹלְקָא לְעֵלְמָא דְאַתִּי, מְנַלְן מְדוּד דְכִתִּיב יַנְחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְלֵי צְדָק לְמַעַן שְׁמוּ

110. Come and behold: This spring of water and the cistern are one. Together they are called 'a well'. FOR THE SPRING IS DERIVES FROM ALEPH, AND MALCHUT IS A CISTERN (HEB. BOR). TOGETHER THEY FORM THE WELL (HEB. BE'ER). For this spring flows INTO MALCHUT and never ceases, so the cistern is always filled. And whoever looks at the well, NAMELY, AT MALCHUT, looks on the supernal mystery of faith, NAMELY, BINAH. And this is the reasoning behind THE LABOR OF the patriarchs, who strove to dig a well of water in the supernal secret, BINAH. There must be no division between the source, WHICH IS THE SPRING OF WATER, and the cistern itself, for all is one.

111. THEN, "and he called the name of it Rechovot" (Bereshheet 26:22). For this reason, its springs will spread on all sides, THAT IS, TO THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, WHICH ARE CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM, as it is written, "So will your spring be dispersed abroad, and streams of water will flow in the broad places (Heb. rechovot)" (Mishlei 5:16). For this reason, "he called the name of it Rechovot."

112. Rabbi Shimon began with the verse, "Wisdoms cry aloud in the streets; she utters her voice in the squares (Heb. rechovot)" (Mishlei 1:20). This verse contains a deep mystery. Why IS IT WRITTEN IN THE PLURAL, THAT IS, "wisdoms," AND NOT WISDOM? HE SAID: They are the upper wisdom, CHOCHMAH OF ARICH ANPIN, and the lower wisdom that is included and dwells within the upper one, THE LOWER CHOCHMAH, NAMELY, THE NUKVA

113. "Cry aloud in the streets": Come and behold: The upper Chochmah OF ARICH ANPIN is the most concealed of all. It is not to be known or revealed, as it is written, "Man cannot know its price" (Iyov 28:13), for when it was diffused in order to illuminate, it shone on the secret of the world to come. This world to come was created from it, ARICH ANPIN, as we learned, that the world to come was created by the Yud, in which Chochmah was covered. And they became one WITH THE HEAD OF ARICH ANPIN, when everything was adorned with the secret of the world to come. Everything then is joyfully luminous, everything is silent, never heard outside.

114. It wanted to illuminate further. Thus, from this place came fire, water, and wind, as we have learned. And they became one voice that went out and was heard. From then on, it assumed the aspect of "out." For inside it is silent, SOUNDLESS, never to be heard. Now that the secret is heard, it is called "out." From here on, it behooves a man to improve his deeds and ask, NAMELY TO PRAY AND ELEVATE FEMALE WATER AND DRAW CHOCHMAH. THIS IS LIKE ASKING FOR RAIN.

115. "In the squares (Heb. rechovot)." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of squares? HE REPLIED, this is the firmament where all the stars are shining, YESOD OF BINAH IN WHICH ARE SUSPENDED THE ENTIRE MOCHIN OF MALE AND FEMALE, AND THE SOULS, WHICH ARE CALLED 'STARS'. It is a spring "whose waters fail not" (Yeshayah 58:11), as it is written, "And a river went out of Eden to water the garden" (Beresheet 2:10). It is called 'Rechovot'. There "she utters her voice," the upper, BINAH, and the lower, MALCHUT. And all is one.

116. For that reason Solomon said, "Prepare your work outside, and make it fit for yourself in the field" (Mishlei 24: 27). "Prepare... outside" MEANS, as it is written, "cry aloud in the streets," FOR CHOCHMAH IS NOT REVEALED UNTIL IT IS REMOVED FROM INSIDE OUT. For here, IN ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'OUTSIDE', work, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, can be corrected. And this may be sought, as it is written, "For ask now of the days that are past...and from the one side of heaven to the other" (Devarim 4:32).

117. "And make it fit for yourself in the field." This is THE NUKVA CALLED "a field which Hashem has blessed" (Beresheet 27: 27). After learning the mystery of wisdom and perfecting himself therein, it is then written, "and afterwards build your house" (Mishlei 24: 27). A HOUSE IS a man's soul, that he will then fix within his body, to become a whole man. Therefore, when Yitzchak dug and formed the well peacefully, he called that "peace" Rechovot. And all was properly done. Happy are the Righteous, whose deeds before the Holy One, blessed be He, are to preserve the world, THAT IS, TO BUILD AND MAINTAIN THE NUKVA CALLED 'WORLD', as it is written, "For the upright shall dwell in the land" (Mishlei 2:21), which should be read as, 'cause to dwell' WHICH MEANS THAT THEY WILL DRAW THE SHECHINAH CALLED 'LAND', UPON THE LOWER BEINGS, as was already explained.

15. "his eyes were dim, so that he could not see"

Rabbi Shimon and his son Rabbi Elazar discuss differences in the eyesight of Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov as they grow older, and the significance of this for our realm of Malchut and the supernal mysteries. The patriarchs were connected to Left Column, which denotes judgement and darkness. This is the secret meaning behind the concept of blindness in the Torah. Yitzchak embodied a complete connection to the Left Column; therefore, were are told that he is totally blind. Ya'akov's connection to both the Right and Left Columns is indicated by his only partial blindness.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our physical bodies are directly affected by our connection to the Light during our lives. These effects can be both positive and negative. Illness and health are merely expressions of how we balance the Right and Left Columns--sharing and receiving-- throughout our lives. We are often judgmental [Left Column] during moments when we should be merciful [Right Column] and vice-versa. The wisdom to balance these two Columns is awakened within us.

118. "And it came to pass, that when Yitzchak was old" (Beresheet 27:1). Rabbi Shimon said: It is written, "And Elohim called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night" (Beresheet 1:5). This verse had already been explained; nevertheless come and behold: All the actions that the Holy One, blessed be He, performs, are true, and in the secret of the upper world. And all the words of the Torah are words of faith, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, and supernal mysteries, WHICH ILLUMINATE IT as they should.

119. Come and behold: Yitzchak did not have the merit of Avraham, whose eyes were not blinded or dimmed. Here, however, is a supernal secret, the secret of faith. For we have learned that "And Elohim called the light Day" refers to Avraham, the light of day, THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, whose light grows stronger as the day advances, THE SECRET OF THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM.

120. Thus, it is written, "And Avraham was old, advanced in age" (Beresheet 24:1), that is, in the shining lights OF CHASSADIM. And he is old, as it is written, "that shines ever more brightly until the height of noonday" (Mishlei 4:18). Therefore IT IS WRITTEN OF HIM, "And Elohim called the light Day." "And the darkness he called Night." This is Yitzchak, who is dark, and gets DARKER to receive the night within him. Therefore, when he grew older, it is written, "And it came to pass, that when Yitzchak was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see" (Beresheet 27:1). FOR HE BECAME COMPLETELY DARK. Assuredly he had to be COMPLETELY dark, to cleave well to his grade.

121. Rabbi Elazar, his son, kissed his hands and said: This is well. Avraham shines on the side of his grade, and Yitzchak is darkened on the side of his grade. But why did Ya'akov GROW DARKER, as it is written, "Now the eyes of Yisrael were dim (lit. 'heavy') from age" (Beresheet 48:10). He answers: Assuredly it is AS I SAID, for it is written, "heavy", and not dim, AS WAS WRITTEN OF YITZCHAK; It is written "from age", not 'his age'. "from age" is to be interpreted as the age of Yitzchak, FOR HE INCLUDED BOTH AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. THEREFORE on the side OF YITZCHAK his eyes "were heavy...so that he could not see" (Ibid.), not properly, but he was not absolutely blind. But Yitzchak's eyes were completely dim, and it became darkness, for night, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, clove to him and it was fulfilled, "and the darkness he called Night."

119. וְתָא חוּזִי, לֹא זָכָה יִצְחָק כְּאַבְרָהָם, דְּלֹא סְמוּ עֵינָיו, וְלֹא כְהוּ. אָבֵל רָזָא עֲלָאָה אִיהוּ הֵבָא, רָזָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא, כְּמַה דְאַתְמָר, דְכְתִיב וַיִּקְרָא אֱלֹהִים לְאוֹר יוֹם, דָּא אַבְרָהָם, דְאִיהוּ נְהוּרָא דִימְמָא, וְנְהוּרָא דִילִיָּה אֲזִיל וְנְהִיר, וְאַתְתַּקַּף בְּתַקּוּנָא דִיוּמָא

16. "And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death"

The events leading to Yitzchak's 'mistaken-identity' blessing of Ya'akov are discussed by Rabbi Elazar, as he expounds upon the significance of trust in the story of the fiery furnace. In the story, three righteous people are tossed into a fire. The men possess unshakable trust in The Creator, and have no regard for their survival or destruction. For this reason, these righteous men miraculously avoid injury.

Through this story, Rabbi Elazar shows, in great depth, that only complete trust in the Light of The Creator can bring forth Divine assistance. There must be no expectation or desire for a specific result--as is written, "according to his need." We're told of the importance of being prepared, and of dwelling on the Name of The Creator, and of how these qualities are intricately related to Torah study. Such study, we learn, requires a profound intention to extol The Creator. Our efforts must be for the sake of the whole world, not for ourselves, so the earth shall be full of the Knowledge of The Creator. The Rabbis then return to the story of the blessing, its significance for future generations, and its relation to both the Shechinah and this mundane realm of Malchut.

The Relevance of this Passage

People may unknowingly embark on a spiritual path for selfish reasons. They have hidden expectations of self-serving gain. Though this is not always their conscious intention, it's the reality. We can know if our desires and efforts are pure when we ask the Light for what we need and not just what we want. We then trust in the spiritual path, regardless of any tests and obstacles we encounter. These verses increase our level of trust in The Creator. They invoke certainty in times of distress, strength during times of strife. We can embrace whatever life brings, certain of the spiritual purpose behind it.

122. "He called Esav his eldest son..." This means that he was included within strict Judgment, WHICH IS THE ASPECT OF ESAV. THEREFORE HE CALLED ESAV. "And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death." Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse, "Happy is the man, whose strength is in You..." (Tehilim 84:6), happy is the man who is strengthened by the Holy One, blessed be He, and puts his trust in Him.

123. This trust could be interpreted as the trust that Chananyah, Mishael, and Azaryah put in Him when they said, "Behold, our Elohim whom we serve is able to deliver us; He can deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and out of your hand, king..." (Daniel 3:17), MEANING, THAT THEY TRUSTED THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WOULD SURELY SAVE THEM FROM THE FIERY FURNACE. HE SAYS THAT THIS IS NOT SO, ONLY come and see, if He would not save them and be with them, it would come to pass that the name of the Holy One, blessed be He, would not be sanctified before the eyes of everyone, as they said. But when they realized they did not speak properly, they spoke again, saying "But if He does not, be it known to you, king..." (Ibid. 18), THAT IS, whether He will save them or not, let it be known to you that we will not worship an image. It was made known to them by Yechezkel, whom they heard and believed, that the Holy One, blessed be He, would not be with them, TO SAVE THEM. AND HE TOLD THEM THAT, so that they would SURRENDER THEIR SOULS AND be rewarded. Then they spoke again, saying, "be it known to you, King..."

124. A man should not assume and think, the Holy One, blessed be He, will save us, or, that the Holy One, blessed be He, will do such and such for me. However, it behooves man to place his trust in the Holy One, blessed be He, to help him ACCORDING TO HIS NEED, as long as he strives to keep the precepts of Torah and to walk the path of truth. When a man wishes to be purified, he is surely helped, and he should trust the Holy One, blessed be He, to help him in this. And he should put his trust in Him, and not in another. Therefore, it is written, "whose strength is in you." "In whose heart are your highways" (Tehilim 84:6) MEANS that it behooves him to prepare his heart as fit, so that no strange thoughts will come into it, but to be as a mended way to pass through, where ever one needs to, EITHER RIGHT OR LEFT. THUS WHETHER THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, DOES GOOD FOR HIM OR NOT, HIS HEART SHOULD BE READY AND PREPARED, AND NOT HARBOR STRANGE THOUGHTS IN ANY CASE WHATSOEVER.

125. Another explanation for, "Happy is the man, whose strength is in You." Strength as in "Hashem gives strength to His people" (Tehilim 29:11), MEANS THE TORAH. AND "WHOSE STRENGTH IS IN YOU" MEANS that it is incumbent on a man to be occupied in studying Torah for the name (sake) of the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH, THAT IS CALLED 'NAME'. For whoever is occupied in the Torah, but does not care for its name, would have been better never born. What is meant by the verse, "in whose heart are Your highways (Heb. mesilot)?" It is as in the verse, "extol (Heb. solu) Him who rides upon the clouds; Yah is His name" (Tehilim 68:5), WHICH REFERS BOTH TO EXTOLLING THE RIDER ON THE CLOUDS AND THE HIGHWAYS IN THEIR HEARTS. THIS MEANS that when he studies the Torah, HE SHOULD BE INTENT UPON extolling the Holy One, blessed be He, and glorifying and extolling Him throughout the world. THUS STUDYING TORAH FOR ITS OWN SAKE (NAME) IS FOR THOSE "IN WHOSE HEART ARE YOUR HIGHWAYS." THIS MEANS THAT ONE MUST BE INTENT WHEN STUDYING TORAH TO DRAW THE BOUNTY OF KNOWLEDGE FOR ONE AND FOR THE WHOLE WORLD, SO THAT THE NAME OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WILL GROW IN THE WORLD, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "FOR THE EARTH SHALL BE FULL OF THE KNOWLEDGE OF HASHEM" (YESHAYAH 11:9) AND "HASHEM SHALL BE KING OVER ALL THE EARTH" (ZECHARYAH 14:9).

126. Come and behold: Ya'akov, all that he did was for the sake of the Holy One, blessed be He, and for that reason the Holy One, blessed be He, was with him always, by that the Shechinah never moved from him. For when Yitzchak called for Esav, his son, Ya'akov was not there. The Shechinah told this to Rivkah, who informed Ya'akov.

127. Rabbi Yosi said, come and behold: If, heaven forbid, Esav would have been blessed at that time, Ya'akov would not have ruled over the world, BUT STAYED, HEAVEN FORBID, IN EXILE ALWAYS. But it was decreed by the Holy One, blessed be He, THAT YA'AKOV WILL BE BLESSED, and everything happened as it should. Come and behold: It is written, "but Rivkah loved Ya'akov" (Beresheet 25:28), as has been explained. Therefore, she sent for Ya'akov and said to him "Behold, I heard your father speak to Esav your brother" (Beresheet 27:6).

128. "Now therefore, my son, obey my voice..." (Beresheet 27:8): It was then Pesach (Passover) eve, and the Evil Inclination had to be exterminated from the world, and the moon, the secret of faith, NUKVA, had to govern. Therefore, Rivkah cooked two dishes.

129. Rabbi Yehuda said that this alludes to the descendants of Ya'akov, who in the future offered two goats on Yom Kippur, one for Hashem and one to Azazel. For this reason, Rivkah offered "two kids of the goats," one for the supernal grade and one to subjugate the grade of Esav, so he would not rule over Ya'akov. Thus, there were two kids of the goats. From both, Yitzchak tasted and ate.

130. It is written, "and he brought him wine, and he drank" (Beresheet 27: 25), AND NOT, "AND HE SERVED HIM WINE." By this he hints that he served him wine from afar. According to Rabbi Elazar, this means that he brought him wine in which there is complete joy, THAT IS, THE WINE "WHICH CHEERS ELOHIM AND MAN" (SHOFTIM 9:13), to gladden Yitzchak, for he needed cheering, as the side of the Levites needs cheering, TO WIT, THE LEFT SIDE. FOR SINCE JUDGMENTS TAKE HOLD OF THE LEFT SIDE, THEREFORE, SADNESS DWELLS IN IT, AND THERE IS NEED OF HEARTENING ALL THOSE WHO ARE DRAWN FROM IT: THE LEVITES AND YITZCHAK AS WELL. Therefore, "he brought him wine, and he drank."

17. "The best clothes of her eldest son Esav"

In this section the Rabbis continue their analysis of events leading to Yitzchak's "mistaken" blessing of Ya'akov. They explain the origin of Esav's clothing, which was given by Rivkah to Ya'akov. In truth, Yitzchak was not deceived into believing Ya'akov was actually Esav. Ya'akov's clothing radiated a scent direct from the Garden of Eden. Yitzchak blessed Ya'akov because the garments emitted this holy aroma--not because he was deceived. Yitzchak realized that this fragrance could only accompany someone worthy of the blessing. Thus, we learn that Ya'akov embodied the power and soul of Adam. Rabbi Elazar describes the relationship of Ya'akov to Adam in terms of Ya'akov's beauty. This also illuminates his relationship to the realm of Binah.

The Relevance of this Passage

Adam originally wore the garments mentioned above in the Garden of Eden, thus, the garments' Divine scent when Ya'akov wore them. Ya'akov, we are told, is the embodiment of Adam, and his original clothes are returned to him by Rivkah. The Zohar is evolving a lesson concerning a natural law: all things eventually return to their rightful owners. Nothing that truly belongs to us can ever really leave us. Whatever we lose, we never really had. This enlightened view of life is awakened within us. The scent of the Garden of Eden is infused within us, so that we emit this fragrance [Light] in our lives, wherever we go. People around us will sense this Light.

131. "And Rivkah took the best clothes of her eldest son Esav" (Bereshheet 27:15). These are the garments Esav took from Nimrod. They are the precious garments from Adam, which came to the hands of Nimrod, who used them when he hunted, as it is written, "He was a mighty hunter before Hashem" (Bereshheet 10:9). And Esav went into the field, where he fought with and killed Nimrod, removing the garments from him. This is the meaning of "and Esav came the field, and he was faint" (Bereshheet 25:29). It has already been explained why it is here written, "and he was faint," and elsewhere, "for my soul faints before the slayers" (Yirmeyah 4:31). THESE ARE ANALOGOUS. THERE IT IS WRITTEN "FAINT" TO REFER TO KILLING. HERE TOO, THERE IS KILLING, BECAUSE ESAV MURDERED NIMROD.

132. Esav hid these garments with Rivkah and wore them when he went hunting. On the day, WHEN YITZCHAK SENT FOR HIM TO RECEIVE THE BLESSINGS, he did not take them to the field and was therefore late. When Esav wore them, they put forth no scent at all, but when Ya'akov wore them, the lost object was restored AS THEY RETURNED TO THE ASPECT OF ADAM. For the beauty of Ya'akov was the beauty of Adam. They therefore returned to their place and emitted fragrance.

133. Rabbi Yosi said: YOU SAY THAT Ya'akov's beauty was the beauty of Adam. How could this be? We learned that the apple of Adam's heel eclipsed the orb of the sun. Could you say that for Ya'akov? Rabbi Elazar replied, assuredly before Adam sinned no creature could behold his beauty. But after he sinned, his beauty changed, his stature diminished, and he was a hundred cubits high. BUT BEFORE THE SIN, HIS HEIGHT WAS FROM EARTH TO HEAVEN. THE BEAUTY OF YA'AKOV WAS LIKE THE BEAUTY OF ADAM AFTER HE SINNED. Come and behold: Adam's beauty is a mystery on which supernal faith, BINAH, stems. THAT IS, HE ACHIEVED THE LIGHT OF BINAH AND THERE ATTAINED THIS BEAUTY. Of this, the scripture says "And let the beauty of Adonai our Elohim be upon us" (Tehilim 90:17), AS THE LIGHT OF BINAH IS CALLED 'BEAUTY'. It is also written, "to behold the beauty of Hashem" (Tehilim 27:4). This is, assuredly, the beauty of Ya'akov, THAT IS, HE ACHIEVED THE LIGHT OF BINAH, AS DID ADAM. And all is in the supernal mystery.

134. "And he smelled the smell of his garments, and blessed him" (Beresheet 27:27). Come and behold: It is not written, "and he smelled the smell of the garments" but "the smell of his garments." This is according to the verse, "Who covers Himself with light as with a garment: who stretches out the heavens like a curtain" (Tehilim 104:2). Another explanation is that once Ya'akov wore them, they emitted an aroma. As long as Yitzchak did not smell the aroma of the garments, he did not bless him. But then, WHEN THEY EMITTED AN AROMA, he knew that the wearer was worthy of being blessed. For if he did not deserve to be blessed, no holy aroma would be put forth. This is the meaning of the verse "and he smelled the smell of his garments, and blessed him."

135. "And said, See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed" (Beresheet 27:27). The meaning of "and said" is not clear, FOR IT IS NOT KNOWN WHO SAID IT. Some say it is the Shechinah; some say it was Yitzchak who said "like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed." HE ASKS: What is this field? AND HE ANSWERS: This is a field of apple trees, NAMELY, THE NUKVA CALLED 'THE FIELD OF HOLY APPLES', which the supernal patriarchs, CHESED, GVURAH AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN support and cultivate.

18. "In my distress I cried to Hashem, and He heard me"

We learn why Ya'akov's cunning in receiving Yitzchak's blessing was actually necessary to save the world from the same serpent that had earlier caused the fall of Adam. The Rabbis next give counsel on the meaning for all Yisrael of the multiple blessings given to Ya'akov and those given to Esav, both for the present and for the time of the coming of Mashiach. The blessings given to Ya'akov are explained with respect to their meaning throughout history. These blessings act as portals through which particular blends of energy flow to mankind at the appropriate periods. We also learn the central meaning of Ya'akov for Yisrael in a spiritual, historical context. Ya'akov, as the embodiment of Adam, encompasses the entire story of man. Ya'akov represents the complete drama of human existence, represented by the Sfirah of Tiferet. Specifically, this refers to the bringing together, in one place, of all that has happened and that will happen from the time of Adam, to the final coming of the Mashiach. The section concludes with an apportioning of the blessings, each one in its appropriate time, in relation to the history of Yisrael and the coming of the end of the Correction of the souls of man.

The Relevance of this Passage

Through the story of the children of Yisrael, we learn that the threads of the Torah are spiritually woven into the history of the world. We secure a powerful connection to Ya'akov, and in turn, to the ancient and timeless blessings that we presently need in order to hasten the final redemption. We awaken our awareness of the role and significance our lives play in the overall spiritual plan.

136. "Therefore the Elohim give you of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine" (Beresheet 27:28). Rabbi Aba said: This verse has already been explained. Nevertheless, come and look at the verse, "A song of ascent. In my distress I cried to Hashem, and He heard me" (Tehilim 120:1). How many songs and praises did David say before the Holy One, blessed be He, all in order to fix his grade, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, and to make himself a name, NAMELY, TO DRAW MOCHIN UPON IT, as it is written, "And David got him a name" (II Shmuel 8:13). This song he said when he saw what Ya'akov accomplished, THAT HE WAS ANSWERED AND RECEIVED THE BLESSINGS. HE SAID: "IN MY DISTRESS I CRIED TO HASHEM, AND HE HEARD ME." IF IT WERE NOT FOR YA'AKOV, WHO RECEIVED THE BLESSINGS, THE SECRET OF THE WHOLE MOCHIN TO CONSTRUCT THE NUKVA, DAVID COULD NOT HAVE MADE HER A NAME.

137. Rabbi Elazar said: It was Ya'akov who sang this song, when his father said to him, "Come near, I pray you, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esav or not" (Beresheet 27:21). Then was Ya'akov in great distress, for he feared that his father will recognize and know him. Then it is written, "and he recognized him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esav's hands: so he blessed him" (Beresheet 27: 23). So he said: "In my distress I cried to Hashem, and He heard me."

137. רְבִי אֶלְעָזָר אָמַר, יַעֲקֹב אָמַר שִׁירָתָא דָא, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְאָמַר לִיה אָבוּי, גָּשָׁה נָא וְאִמְשַׁךְ בְּנֵי הָאֵתָה זֶה בְּנֵי עֵשׂוֹ אִם לֹא, כְּדִין הוּא יַעֲקֹב בְּעֵאקוּ סָגִי, דְדָחִיל דְאָבוּי יָדַע לִיה, וְאִשְׁתַּמּוּדַע קַמִּיה. מַה כְּתִיב וְלֹא הִכִּירוּ כִּי הָיוּ יָדָיו כְּיָדֵי עֵשׂוֹ אָחִיו שְׁעִירוֹת וַיְבָרְכֵהוּ. כְּדִין אָמַר, אֵל יִי בְצָרְתָה לִי קָרָאתִי וַיַּעֲנֵנִי

138. "Deliver my soul, Hashem, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue" (Tehilim 120:2). This is the portion where Esav is, NAMELY, THE SERPENT, who has lying lips. What are the lying lips OF HIS GRADE? When the serpent brought curses upon the world, BY INCITING ADAM TO EAT OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, he brought them deceitfully and crookedly.

138. יִי הַצִּילָה נַפְשִׁי מִשִּׁפְתַי שֶׁקֶר מִלְשׁוֹן רַמְיָה, דָּא הוּא דְרָגָא, דְעֵשׂוֹ שְׂרִיָא בֵיה, דְאִיהוּ שִׁפְתַי שֶׁקֶר. שִׁפְתַי שֶׁקֶר, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְאִיִּתִי הוּא חוּיָא, לוֹוֹטִין עַל עֲלָמָא, וּבְעַקְיָמוֹ, אִיִּתִי לוֹוֹטִין, דְאִתְלַטֵּיא עֲלָמָא

19. The Blessings

The Zohar expounds upon the blessings that were originally intended for Esav but deceitfully appropriated by Ya'akov.

Like all stories in scripture, this one is imbued with deeper meaning. In truth, the episode of "The Blessings" concerns the establishment of the universal spiritual system that mankind would utilize in its quest for transformation. The patriarchs represent the various spiritual components that comprise the system. At this particular point in its development, a critical moment is at hand. The battle for dominion over the dimension of physicality is being determined. Thus, we learn that Ya'akov's "stealing" of the blessing away from his brother Esav, signifies the victory of the Light over the forces of darkness.

The Zohar then explicates upon the secret behind the blessing: Some blessings are to be utilized in the age before the End of Days, while other blessings are designated for the Final Redemption.

The Relevance of this Passage

The power to triumph over dark forces within us, and those in our midst, is given to us through the Light of the Blessings that shine in the verses, revealing deeper, mystical truths.

139. Come and behold: When Yitzchak said to Esav "and go out to the field, and catch me some venison (Heb. tzeidah)" (Beresheet 27:3), with a Hei, INSTEAD OF USING TZAYID, WITHOUT A HEI. This has already been explained. And Esav went HUNTING to be blessed by Yitzchak, who said to him "and bless you before Hashem" (Ibid. 7). It would have been well to say just "and I will bless you," but since he added "before Hashem," the throne of glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, then trembled and said: Could it be, that the serpent is freed from these curses, and Ya'akov remains subject to them?

139. תָּא חוּי, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְאָמַר יִצְחָק לְעֵשׂוֹ, וְצִא הַשָּׂדֶה וְצִוְדָה לִי צִוְדָה, בְּה"א, וְאִקְמוּה, וּנְפֹק עֵשׂוֹ, בְּגִין דִּיתְבַּרְךְ מִיִּצְחָק, דְקָאֵמַר לִיה, וְאִבְרַכְכָּה לְפָנֵי יִי, דְאֵלוֹ אָמַר וְאִבְרַכְכָּה, וְלֹא יִתִיר, יֵאוּת. כִּינּוֹן דְאָמַר לְפָנֵי יִי, בְּהֵיא שַׁעֲתָא, אִזְדַּעַז עַרְסֵי יִקְרָא דְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, אָמְרָה, וּמַה דִּיפּוֹק חוּיָא מֵאִינוֹן לוֹוֹטִין, וַיִּשְׁתָּאֵר יַעֲקֹב בְּהוּ

140. At that time Michael came before Ya'akov with the Shechinah. Yitzchak knew that and saw that the Garden of Eden is with Ya'akov, so he blessed him. When Esav entered, Gehenom entered with him. Therefore: "And Yitzchak trembled very much" (Beresheet 27:33), because he had previously thought that Esav was not of that side. Therefore he said "AND HAVE BLESSED HIM? Moreover, he shall be blessed."

140. בְּהֵיא שַׁעֲתָא, אִזְדַּמֵּן מִיכָאֵל, וְאֵתָא קַמִּיה דְיַעֲקֹב, וּשְׂכִינְתָא בְּהַדִּיָה, וַיִּדַע יִצְחָק, וְחָמָא לְגִן עֵדֶן, בְּהַדִּיָה דְיַעֲקֹב, וּבְרַכִּיָה קַמִּיה, וְכַד עָאֵל עֵשׂוֹ, עָאֵל בְּהַדִּיָה גִיְהוֹם, וְעַל דָּא וַיַּחֲרַד יִצְחָק חֲרָדָה גְדוֹלָה עַד מְאֹד, דְחָשַׁב דְלֹא הוּא עֵשׂוֹ בְּהוּא סְטְרָא, פְּתַח וְאָמַר, גַּם בְּרוּךְ יִהְיֶה

141. For that reason Ya'akov behaved with cunning and guile, and brought blessings on Ya'akov, who resembled Adam, that were taken from the serpent of the lying lips, who talked and acted deceitfully, in order to incite ADAM TO EAT FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE and bring curses upon the world. For that reason, Ya'akov behaved with cunning and misled his father, so as to bring blessings upon the world and snatch from the serpent what he withheld from the world, THAT IS, THE BLESSINGS HE WITHHELD FROM THE WORLD. This was measure for measure, of which it is written, "For he loved cursing, and it came to him: and he delighted not in blessings, and it was far from him" (Tehilim 109:17). About him, the verse reads, "you are cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field" (Beresheet 3:14). He stayed accursed forever more, and Ya'akov came and took the blessings from him.

142. From the time of Adam, Ya'akov was destined to take from the serpent all these blessings, and the serpent was to remain accursed, NEVER to be released from them. And David, inspired by the Holy Spirit, asked, "What shall be given to you? Or what shall be done to you, you false tongue? Sharp arrows of the mighty" (Tehilim 120:3-4). What causes this evil serpent to bring curses upon the world, when he is, as they said, a serpent that bites and kills, but draws no pleasure from it?

143. "...False tongue." For the serpent deceived Adam and his wife and brought evil on him and the world. Then came Ya'akov, who took the blessings that were his own. "Sharp arrows of the mighty" refers to Esav, who harbored hatred toward Ya'akov on account of the blessings, as it is written, "and Esav hated Ya'akov because of the blessing" (Beresheet 27:41).

144. "Therefore the Elohim gives you of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth" (Beresheet 27:28), NAMELY, from above and below, ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, joined together, AS HEAVEN IS ZEIR ANPIN AND THE EARTH IS THE NUKVA. "...and plenty of corn and wine" (Ibid.) has already been explained. It is similar to the verse, "yet I have not seen a just man forsaken, and his seed begging bread" (Tehilim 37:25). Come and behold: "I have been young, and now am old" (Ibid.). This verse was said by the minister of the world, NAMELY, MATATRON. And therefore he said "and plenty of corn and wine."

145. "Let peoples serve you" (Beresheet 27:29). THIS WAS when king Solomon reigned in Jerusalem, as it is written, "And all the kings of the earth...brought every man his present" (II Divrei Hayamim 9:23-24). "...and nations bow down to you" at the advent of Mashiach, according to the verse, "And may all Kings fall down before him." Rabbi Yehuda said: all this will occur with the coming of the King Mashiach, as written: "And may all kings fall down before him; all nations serve him" (Tehilim 72:11).

146. "Be lord over your brethren" (Beresheet 27:29). HE ASKS: WHY DOES SCRIPTURE USE Heveh (be), instead of the more accepted Heyeh or Tih'yeh? HE ANSWERS: This is a supernal mystery of faith, for these letters, HEI-VAV-HEI are mysteries of faith. The upper Hei above IS BINAH, Vav in the middle IS TIFERET, and the last Hei IS MALCHUT. Therefore he said "Heveh (be) a lord over your brethren," rule over them, and govern them BY THE POWER OF THESE LETTERS, when king David will appear. Rabbi Yosi said that all that will happen when Mashiach will come, THAT IS, ALL THESE BLESSINGS ALLUDE TO THE TIME OF THE END OF CORRECTION AND AFTER THE ADVENT OF MASHIACH, AND NOT BEFORE. For AS LONG AS Yisrael transgress the words of the Torah, then, IT IS WRITTEN, "you shall break his yoke from off your neck" (Ibid. 40). THEREFORE, BLESSINGS WILL PREVAIL ONLY AFTER THE ADVENT OF MASHIACH, WHEN THEY WILL REPENT AND SIN NO MORE.

147. "Therefore the Elohim give you" (Beresheet 27:28). Rabbi Yosi said that all these blessings on the side of Ya'akov's portion were his, and he took his own. And Yitzchak wanted to bestow the blessings THAT BELONGED TO YA'AKOV upon Esav. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, caused them to revert to Ya'akov, that he may take that which is his own.

148. Come and behold: Of the time when the serpent brought curses upon the world, and the land was accursed, it is written, "And to the man he said: Because you have hearkened to the voice of your wife... cursed is the ground for your sake" (Beresheet 3:17), for it will not produce fruit nor vegetation in a proper measure. Correspondingly YA'AKOV WAS GIVEN BLESSINGS FOR THE TIME AFTER THE ADVENT OF MASHIACH, WHEN THE SIN OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE WILL HAVE BEEN ATONED FOR: "...and the fatness of the earth" MEANS THAT THE EARTH WILL BE WHOLE AGAIN; AGAINST THE CURSE "in sorrow shall you eat of it" (Ibid.), HE WAS BLESSED "of the dew of heaven"; CORRESPONDING TO THE CURSE "thorns and thistles shall it bring forth to you," HE WAS BLESSED accordingly with "plenty of corn and wine." In opposition to THE CURSE "in the sweat of your face shall you eat bread," HE WAS BLESSED, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you," as they will cultivate the land and till the field, as it is written, "and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers" (Yeshayah 61:5). Ya'akov took it all measure for measure, EACH BLESSING CORRESPONDING TO ONE CURSE OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, and of his own he took. The Holy One, blessed be He, caused Ya'akov to receive these blessings and cleave to his place and portion, while Esav cleaved to his own place and portion. RABBI YOSI SUPPORTS WHAT WAS SAID, THAT THE BLESSINGS WERE VALID FOR THE END OF CORRECTION, BY SAYING THAT THEN WILL THE SIN OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE BE ATONED FOR, AND IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE TO MERIT A BLESSING INSTEAD OF A CURSE, WHICH WAS NOT TRUE BEFORE ATONING FOR THE SIN OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE.

149. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: We see that the fatness of the earth and the dew of heaven were the blessing Esav later received, as it is written, "of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above" (Beresheet 27:39). CAN YOU SAY THAT THESE CORRESPOND TO THE CURSES OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE AFTER THE PENITENCE AT THE ADVENT OF MASHIACH?

146. הוּה גְבִיר לְאַחֶיךָ, הוּה, וְלֹא אָמַר הִיּה, או תְּהִיּה. אֵלֶּא דָּא רְזָא עֲלָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא, דְּאֵלִין אֲתוּן אֲנוּן רְזִי דְמַהִימְנוּתָא, ה' לְעִילָא, וְאִ"ו בְּאַמְצְעִיתָא, ה' לְבִתְרָא. וּבְגִין כֵּן אָמַר, הוּה גְבִיר לְאַחֶיךָ, לְשִׁלְטָא עֲלֵיהוּ, וּלְרִדָּא לֹון, בְּזִמְנָא דְאַתָּא דוּד מְלָכָא. רַבִּי יוֹסִי אָמַר, כֹּלֹא אִיהוּ בְּזִמְנָא דִּינִיתִי מְלָכָא מְשִׁיחָא, דְּהָא בְּגִין דְּעִבְרוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל עַל פְּתִגְמֵי אוּרִייתָא, כְּדִין וּפְרַקְתָּ עֵלּוּ מֵעַל צוּאֲרַךְ.

150. Rabbi Shimon said: The one is not like the other; ESAV IS NOT LIKE YA'AKOV, and this does not resemble that. THE BLESSING OF ESAV DOES NOT RESEMBLE THE BLESSING OF YA'AKOV. How different are the grades! of Ya'akov, it is written, "Therefore the Elohim give you." And of Esav, it is written, "YOUR DWELLING shall be." ELOHIM IS NOT MENTIONED IN THIS BLESSING, SO IT WILL NOT COMPRISE HOLINESS. It is written of Ya'akov, "of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth," and of Esav, "of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven," WITH THE EARTH PRECEDING HEAVEN, for there is no resemblance between them.

151. Their grades differ considerably from each other. It is written of Ya'akov, "Therefore the Elohim give you of the dew of heaven" (Beresheet 27:28). This is the supernal dew drawn from Atik Yomin, which is called 'the dew of heaven', THAT IS, THE DEW FROM ABOVE, drawn from the grade called 'heaven', ZEIR ANPIN, from which it flows into the field of holy apple trees, MALCHUT, ABOUT WHICH IT IS THEN WRITTEN, "of the fatness of the earth." The earth refers to the land of the living above, THAT IS, MALCHUT, WHILE ATTIRING THE SFIRAH BINAH CALLED 'LIVING ELOHIM', IS THEN CALLED 'THE LAND OF THE LIVING'. And Ya'akov inherited THE BLESSING in the upper earth, MALCHUT, and upper heaven. THE BLESSING OF Esav was in the lower land here and in the lower heaven here IN THIS WORLD. Ya'akov WAS BLESSED high above, IN THE HEAVEN AND EARTH OF ATZILUT, and Esav down below, IN THE HEAVEN AND EARTH OF THIS WORLD.

152. Also, Ya'akov WAS BLESSED above and below IN THE UPPER HEAVEN AND EARTH, AND IN THIS WORLD AT THE ADVENT OF MASHIACH. And Esav only below IN HEAVEN AND EARTH OF THIS WORLD. And though it is written, "and it shall come to pass when you shall have the dominion, that you shall break his yoke from off your neck" (Beresheet 27:40), WHICH MEANS THAT IF YISRAEL WILL SIN, THE BLESSINGS WILL BE ANNULLED, this was SAID CONCERNING HEAVEN AND EARTH here IN THIS WORLD, but up above, nothing IS CANCELED, as it is written, "For Hashem's portion is his people: Ya'akov is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9). Come and behold: When Ya'akov and Esav started to avail themselves of the blessings, Ya'akov received his share from above, and Esav took his share below.

153. Rabbi Yosi, the son of Rabbi Shimon, son of Lakunia, asked Rabbi Elazar, has your father explained why the blessings with which Yitzchak blessed Ya'akov did not prevail, while the blessings Yitzchak bestowed on Esav all did?

154. He replied that all these blessings prevailed, along with other blessings that the Holy One, blessed be He, gave to Ya'akov. But at first, Ya'akov received ALL HIS BLESSINGS above only, FROM THE UPPER HEAVEN AND EARTH. THEY WERE THEREFORE INCOMPLETE, UNTIL HE ALSO RECEIVED THE BLESSINGS FROM BELOW. And Esav received below. After King Mashiach will arise, Ya'akov will receive above and below, THAT IS, FROM THE LOWER HEAVEN AND EARTH AS WELL, and Esav will lose everything. He will have no portion and inheritance or remembrance in the world. This is the meaning of the verse, "And the house of Ya'akov shall be fire, and the house of Yosef flame, and the house of Esav for stubble" (Ovadyah 1:8), for Esav will lose everything, and Ya'akov will inherit both worlds, this world, NAMELY, THE LOWER HEAVEN AND EARTH, and the world to come, NAMELY, THE UPPER HEAVEN AND EARTH. IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING THAT EVEN BEFORE THE ADVENT OF MASHIACH, YA'AKOV RECEIVES BLESSINGS FROM THE LOWER HEAVEN AND EARTH, THAT IS, WHEN THE TEMPLE EXISTED, ON SHABBATOT AND HOLIDAYS AND ALSO THROUGH PRAYERS. BUT BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT CONSTANT, IT IS NOT CONSIDERED RECEIVING. BUT IN THE FUTURE IT SHALL BE PERMANENT.

155. At that point, it is written, "And liberators shall ascend upon mount Tzion to judge the mountain of Esav; and the kingdom shall be Hashem's" (Ibid.). The kingdom that Esav received in this world shall be for the Holy One, blessed be He, alone. HE ASKS IF this kingdom did not already belong to the Holy One, blessed be He? AND HE ANSWERS: Although the Holy One, blessed be He, rules above and below, He lets other peoples rule, giving each a part and inheritance in this world for their use. At that time He will take the kingdom from them all, and it will be solely His, as it is written, "And Hashem shall be king over all the earth: on that day Hashem shall be one, and His name One" (Zecharyah 14:9).

156. "And Ya'akov was scarce gone out (lit. 'went out going')" (Bereshheet 27:30): Rabbi Shimon said: "...went out, going" refers to two goings out. Why? Because one is of the Shechinah and one of Ya'akov. For when Ya'akov entered, the Shechinah came in with him, and he was blessed before the Shechinah. Yitzchak said the blessings and the Shechinah approved. Therefore, when Ya'akov went out, the Shechinah went out with him. This is the hidden meaning of the phrase "and Ya'akov went out going," which mentions two goings out together.

157. "Esav his brother came in from his hunting" (Ibid.): HE ASKS: Why is it written "his hunting", and not "the hunting." HE SAYS THAT THIS INDICATES THAT it is Esav's hunting that contains no blessing. And the holy spirit cried out, "Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye" (Mishlei 23:6).

158. "And he also had made savory food...Let my father arise" (Bereshheet 27:31). His speech was impertinent, rough, and impolite. Come and behold the difference between Ya'akov and Esav. Ya'akov talked to his father humbly, with humility. It is written, "And he came to his father, and said, My father" (Ibid. 18). The difference between the language of Esav and Ya'akov is that Ya'akov did not want to frighten him. Thus, he spoke humbly, saying "arise, I pray you, sit and eat of my venison." Esav, however, said "Let my father arise," as if he was not speaking to him, BUT TO HIMSELF.

159. Come and behold: When Esav entered, Gehenom came with him, and Yitzchak trembled with fear, as it is written, "And Yitzchak trembled very much" (Bereshheet 27:33). HE ASKS: Why is "very much" used to describe "trembled." HE SAID: Yitzchak never felt such fear and terror during his life. Even when he was strapped upon the altar and saw the knife, he did not tremble as when Esav entered and brought Gehenom with him. Then he said: "before you came, and have blessed him? moreover, he shall be blessed." For I saw the Shechinah approving those blessings.

160. There is another explanation: Yitzchak said, "and have blessed him." A voice came forth, saying "moreover, he shall be blessed." Yitzchak wanted to curse Ya'akov, but the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, Yitzchak, it is you whom you curse, for you have said to him "cursed be those that curse you, and blessed be those that bless you" (Bereshheet 27:29).

161. Come and behold: Everyone acknowledged these blessings, the upper and lower, and even he, NAMELY, SAMAEL, THE MINISTER OF ESAV, the part and portion of Esav, acknowledged them. And he blessed him and approved of the blessings, and raised him above his head, THAT IS, HE WAS SUBMISSIVE TO HIM.

162. From where do we know this? From the verse, "And he said, Let me go, for the day breaks. And he said, I will not let you go, unless you bless me" (Bereshheet 32:27). It is written, "And he said, Let me go" because Ya'akov had seized him. HE ASKS: How can a man, flesh and blood, take hold of an angel, which is pure spirit, as it is written, "who makes the winds His messengers; the flames of fire His ministers" (Tehilim 104:4)?

163. HE ANSWERS: It is understood from this that when angels, the messengers of the Holy One, blessed be He, descend into this world, they are clothed in a body in the likeness of this world, for it is not seemly to deviate from the custom of the place one visits.

159. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּעָאֵל עֵשׂוֹ, עָאֵל עֲמִיָּה גִיְהֵנָם, אֲזִדְעִזַּע יִצְחָק, וּדְחִיל. דְּכִתְיִב וַיִּחַרְדּוּ יִצְחָק חֲרָדָה גְּדוּלָה עַד מְאֹד. בֵּינָן דְּכִתְיִב וַיִּחַרְדּוּ יִצְחָק חֲרָדָה גְּדוּלָה דִּי מְהוּ עַד מְאֹד. אֱלֹא, דְּלֵא הוּוּ דְּחִילוֹ וַאֲיַמְתָּא. דְּנִפְלַל עֲלֵיהּ דִּיִּצְחָק, רַבְתָּא, מִיּוּמֵי דְּאַתְבְּרִי, וְאַפִּי בְּהֵיאֵא שַׁעֲתָא, דְּאַתְעַקֵּד יִצְחָק עַל גְּבִי מִדְּבַחָא, וְחָמָא סְכִינָא עֲלֵיהּ, לֹא אֲזִדְעִזַּע, כְּהֵיאֵא שַׁעֲתָא, דְּעָאֵל עֵשׂוֹ, וְחָמָא גִיְהֵנָם דְּעָאֵל עֲמִיָּה, כְּדִין אָמַר, בְּטָרַם תְּבֵא וְאַבְרַכְהוּ גַם בְּרוּךְ יִהְיֶה, בְּגִין דְּחֲמִית שְׂכִינְתָא דְּאוּרֵי עַל אֵינוֹן בְּרַכָּאן

164. We have learned that when Moshe went up, "he was there with Hashem forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water" (Shemot 34:28) in order not to deviate from the custom of the place he went to. And of the angels, WHO VISITED AVRAHAM when they descended, it is written, "and he stood by them under the tree, and they ate" (Bereshit 18:8). Here also, the descending angel could not struggle with Ya'akov unless clothed in a body, as is done in this world. Therefore Ya'akov wrestled with him the whole night. But if he were not clothed (in human form), Ya'akov could not have wrestled with him.

165. Come and behold: Because this those OF THE OTHER SIDE dominate only during the night, assuredly this is why Esav rules only in exile, which is night, WHEN IT IS DARK FOR US. Hence, THE ANGEL wrestled and struggled with Ya'akov during the night. But when morning came, the strength of the angel failed, and he did not prevail. Then Ya'akov got stronger, as the dominion of Ya'akov is during the day.

166. Therefore, it is written, "The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Se'ir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?" (Yeshayah 21:11), for the dominion of Esav, who is called 'Se'ir', is during the night. Therefore the angel weakened when morning came, and then "he said, Let me go, for the day breaks."

167. "And he said, I will not let you go, unless you bless me" (Beresheet 32:27). HE COMMENTED, IT IS WRITTEN, "Unless you bless me," but it should have been "unless you will bless me", IN THE FUTURE TENSE. Why, therefore, is it written literally, "unless you have blessed me" IN THE PAST TENSE? THE REASON IS THAT HE TOLD HIM if you will acknowledge the blessings my father gave to me and not denounce me for them, THEN I WILL LET YOU GO. FOR THAT REASON, IT IS WRITTEN, "UNLESS YOU HAVE BLESSED ME" IN THE PAST TENSE, FOR IT REFERS TO THE BLESSINGS OF YITZCHAK. It is also written, "And he said, Your name shall be called no more 'Ya'akov', but Yisrael" (Beresheet 32:29). HE ASKS: Why did he call him Yisrael? AND HE ANSWERS that he told him, we are compelled to serve you, for through your exceeding might, you have been crowned above, in the highest grade. THEREFORE your name shall surely be Yisrael.

168. "For you have striven with Elohim." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of the phrase "with Elohim?" Could it be that he referred to himself WHEN HE SAID "FOR YOU HAVE STRIVEN WITH ELOHIM?" HE ANSWERS "have striven" to be joined and united "with Elohim," THE SHECHINAH, as the union of the sun and moon, WHICH ARE ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA. Hence it is not written "against Elohim," but rather "with Elohim," WHICH INDICATES JOINING TOGETHER WITH ELOHIM in a union.

168. כִּי שְׂרִית עִם אֱלֹהִים, מָאִי עִם אֱלֹהִים, ס"ד דְּעִלְיָה הוּא אֲמַר, אֲלֵא אֲמַר לִיה, שְׂרִית לְאֲתַחְבְּרָא וְלֹא זְדוּוּגָא עִם אֱלֹהִים בְּחַבּוּרָא, בְּזוּוּגָא דְּשִׁמְשָׁא וְסִיְהָרָא, וְע"ד לֹא כְּתִיב אֵת אֱלֹהִים, אֲלֵא עִם אֱלֹהִים, בְּחַבּוּרָא וְזוּוּגָא חֲדָא

169. Another explanation of "And he said" has the same meaning as "and He said, If you will diligently hearken to the voice of Hashem your Elohim" (Shemot 15:26). AS "AND HE SAID" REFERS TO THE AWAKENING TO STRIVE TO HEarken TO THE VOICE OF HASHEM. Here too "And he said" MEANS THAT HE WOKE HIM AND SAID "Your name shall be called no more 'Ya'akov', but Yisrael." Then was Ya'akov crowned by his grade, FOR HE STROVE TO AND ROSE TO THE GRADE OF THE NAME YISRAEL, WHICH IS THE MOCHIN OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, YISRAEL BEING COMPOSED OF THE LETTERS OF 'LI ROSH (LIT. 'I HAVE A HEAD'), by which he will include all the patriarchs, THAT IS, BE THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH INCLUDES THE LEFT AND RIGHT COLUMNS, THE SECRET OF THE PATRIARCHS AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. It is written, "And he blessed him there" (Bereshheet 32:30). WHY IS THE CONTENT OF THE BLESSING NOT SPECIFIED? HE ANSWERS: It means that he acknowledged all the blessings with which his father blessed him.

170. Rabbi Shimon began the discourse with the verse, "When a man's ways please Hashem, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him" (Mishlei 16:7). Come and behold: Man has much to do if he wants to improve his behavior toward the Holy One, blessed be He, by keeping the precepts of the Torah. For we have learned that assuredly man has two angels, who are messengers that join him from above. One is on his right and the other on his left. They observe man in everything he does. They are called 'the Good Inclination' and 'the Evil Inclination'.

171. When a man wishes to be purified and strives to observe the precepts of the Torah, the Good Inclination that joined him overpowers the Evil Inclination and makes peace with it. As a result, the Evil Inclination becomes a slave to the Good Inclination. When a man wishes to be defiled, the Evil Inclination is strengthened and overpowers the Good Inclination. This has already been explained. Assuredly, when man wishes to be purified, he has much to overcome. When the Good Inclination is strengthened, then "He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him." For the Evil Inclination, WHICH IS HIS ENEMY, is submissive to the Good Inclination. Of this Solomon said: "Better is he that is lightly esteemed, and has a servant" (Mishlei 12:9). The servant is the Evil Inclination, WHICH BECOMES A SERVANT TO THE GOOD INCLINATION. Then, when a man walks by the precepts of the Torah, "he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him," including the Evil Inclination and its escorts.

172. Come and behold: Because Ya'akov put his trust in the Holy One, blessed be He, and all that he did was for His sake, his enemies made peace with him: specifically Samael, who is the strength and might of Esav, made peace with Ya'akov. Because Samael made peace with Ya'akov and acknowledged all his blessings, Esav made peace with Ya'akov. Yet, as long as Ya'akov did not make peace with SAMAEL, the minister in charge of Esav, then Esav did not have made peace with him. This is because strength below always depends on strength above. As long as the strength of the ministers in charge over them is not weakened above, it is not possible to weaken the strength in this world.

173. "And Yitzchak trembled very much, and said, Who then (Heb. eifoh) is he" (Bereshheet 27:33). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "Who then?" It should have been "Who is it?" FOR 'EIFOH' LITERALLY MEANS WHERE. HE ANSWERS: "Who then" is correct because the Shechinah stood there when Yitzchak blessed Ya'akov! Thus he said "Who then," WHICH MEANS where is he who stood here and approved the blessings, whom I blessed. Assuredly "he shall be blessed," for the Holy One, blessed be He, approved these blessings.

174. Rabbi Yehuda said that for this trembling that Ya'akov brought upon Yitzchak his father, Ya'akov was punished by THE SELLING OF Yosef, and he trembled when they said to him "This we have found" (Bereshheet 37:32). Yitzchak said "Who then (Heb. eifoh)." And by "eifoh," Ya'akov was punished. And although the Holy One, blessed be He, approved all the blessings, nevertheless he was punished by "eifoh" as it is written, "where (eifoh) they feed their flock" (Bereshheet 37:6), where Yosef was lost to him, and he was thereby punished.

175. "...and Yitzchak trembled very much (lit. 'trembled very great trembling')." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of the word "great" as used in the scripture? AND HE ANSWERS: It is written "great" here and elsewhere, as in "and this great fire" (Devarim 18:16). IN BOTH VERSES, IT REFERS TO A GREAT FIRE, MEANING that Gehenom entered with him. HE THEN ASKS: What does "very" mean? AND HE ANSWERS: It is written "very" here and elsewhere, as in "and, behold, it was very good" (Bereshheet 1:31). AGAIN, BOTH REFER TO the Angel of Death; IN THIS CASE, IT IS AN ALLUSION TO THE ANGEL OF DEATH, WHO CAME IN WITH ESAV. He then said "Who then...MOREOVER, HE SHALL BE BLESSED" (Bereshheet 27:33), WHEN HE UNDERSTOOD THAT THE BLESSINGS BELONGED TO YA'AKOV AND NOT ESAV.

176. "And when Esav heard the words of his father..." (Bereshheet 27:34). Rabbi Chiya said: These tears brought so much evil UPON YISRAEL, that Esav cried to be blessed before his father, whose words were very important to him. BECAUSE OF THEM, ACCUSATIONS WERE MADE THAT YISRAEL DID NOT HONOR THEIR FATHERS AS HE DID. "Is not he rightly named Ya'akov" (Ibid. 36) means, So He named him, He who did so," NAMELY, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. He uttered this as if spitting, to degrade HE WHO CALLED HIM 'YA'AKOV'. It is not written, "Is not he rightly named," but literally "Did not He rightly named him." THIS INDICATES THAT HE DID NOT MEAN TO DEGRADE YA'AKOV, BUT HE WHO NAMED HIM YA'AKOV.

173. וַיִּחַרְדַּד יִצְחָק חֲרָדָה גְּדוֹלָה עַד מְאֹד וַיֹּאמֶר מִי אֵיפֹה. מִי אֵיפֹה: מֵאִי מִי אֵיפֹה, מִי הוּא זֶה מִבְּעֵי לִיָּה, אֲלֵא מִי אֵיפֹה, דְּקִיּוּמָא שְׂכִינְתָא תַּמָּן, כַּד בְּרִיךְ לִיָּה יִצְחָק לְיַעֲקֹב, וְעַל דָּא אָמַר, מִי אֵיפֹה, מֵאֵן הוּא דְּקָאִים הָכָא, וְאוּדֵי עַל אֵינֹן בְּרַכְאן, דְּבְרִכִּית לִיָּה, וְדֵאִי גַם בְּרוּךְ יְהִיָּה. דְּהָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֶסְתַּבֵּם בְּאֵינֹן בְּרַכְאן

177. "For he has supplanted these (Heb. zeh; lit. 'this') two times." HE ASKS: Why ADD THE WORD Zeh to modify "supplanted two times?" HE ANSWERS: It means two matters are contained in one. The word bechorati (my birthright) became at another time birchati (my blessing), FOR THEY CONSIST OF THE SAME LETTERS two times, WHICH INDICATES THAT THE SAME MATTER WAS REPEATED TWICE. FOR THE BIRTHRIGHT BELONGS TO THE FIRSTBORN, AND BECAUSE HE TOOK HIS BIRTHRIGHT, HE ALSO TOOK HIS BLESSING. THUS, THE TWO DECEPTIONS ARE ONE. In the same manner, the verse "surely now we had returned this (Heb. zeh) second time" (Bereshheet 43:10) MEANS that two matters are in one: 1) we would have returned (Heb. shavnu) by now and not be put to shame (Heb. boshnu) by that man, and 2) LITERALLY, we would have been back already. THE HEBREW LETTERS OF SHAVNU ARE THE SAME AS OF BOSHNU.

178. Similarly, Iyov said, "and hold me for Your enemy" (Iyov 13:24). THE LETTER COMBINATION Iyov turned into oyev (enemy). This was explained according to the verse, "For He crushes me with a tempest" (Iyov 9:17). He said before Him, Master of the universe, "perhaps a tempest stormed at You," AND IYOV TURNED INTO YOUR ENEMY. Here also, "he took away my birthright" (Heb. bechorati), and the combination turned INTO "MY BLESSING (HEB. BIRCHATI), as in "he has taken away my blessing."

179. "Behold, I have made him your lord...and what shall I do now for you, my son" (Bereshheet 27:37). This means that there is no one present who gives consent THAT YOU WILL RECEIVE BLESSINGS. THEREFORE IT IS WRITTEN, "what shall I do now for you, my son." He then blessed him in this world. He looked at his grade and said to him "and by your sword shall you live," for it is fitting of you to shed blood and wage wars, SINCE YOU CLEAVE TO THE LEFT, WHICH IS OF JUDGMENTS. Therefore he said: "what shall I do now for you, my son," AS YOUR GRADE MERITS NO BLESSING.

180. Rabbi Elazar discussed the verse, "what shall I do now for you." Why add "my son?" This is because he asked him "what shall I do now for you?" I have seen you in judgment, sword, and blood. And I have seen your brother walking the path of peace. He added "my son," for surely I brought all this upon you, as you are my son. Therefore "by your sword shall you live, and you shall serve your brother." This has not yet happened, for Esav is not yet a servant of Ya'akov. This is because Ya'akov has no need for him now. And he repeatedly called Esav "my master," because Ya'akov looked far ahead and saved it to the end of days, as we said above.

177. וַיַּעֲקֹבֵנִי זֶה פַעַמִּים. זֶה. מֵהוּ זֶה, וַיַּעֲקֹבֵנִי פַעַמִּים מִבְּעֵי לִיָּהּ. אֶלֵּא, מִלֵּה חֵד הוּי תְּרִי זְמַנִּי, בְּכוֹרְתִי, אֶהְדֵּר לִיָּהּ זְמַנָּא אַחְרָא בְּרִכְתִּי, זֶה הוּא תְּרִי זְמַנִּין. כְּגוּוֹנָא דָא, כִּי עֵתָה שְׁבַנּוּ זֶה פַעַמִּים, מִלֵּה חֵד, תְּרִין זְמַנִּין. חֵד דִּהָא אֶהְדֵּרְנָא לִיָּהּ, וְלֵא נִהוּי בְּכִסּוּפָא קַמִּיָּה דִּהוּוּא בְּרִ נֶשׁ. שְׁבַנּוּ: בְּשַׁנּוּ. אֲנִן בְּכִסּוּפָא מַנִּיָּה, וּכְבֵר אֶהְדֵּרְנָא

181. As Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Yosi were walking together, they noticed that Rabbi Yosi Saba was behind them. They sat down until he caught up to them. When he did, he said: 'now the path is readied before us,' and they went on. Rabbi Chiya quoted the verse, "It is time to act for Hashem" (Tehilim 119:126), while Rabbi Yosi began with the verse, "She opened her mouth with wisdom; and on her tongue is a Torah of steadfast love" (Tehilim 31:6). "She opened her mouth with wisdom" alludes to the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH; "and on her tongue is a Torah of steadfast love" refers to Yisrael, who are the tongue of the Torah, which is on their lips day and night.

182. "She opened her mouth with wisdom." This is the letter Bet of Beresheet (Eng. 'In the beginning'). IT IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, CALLED 'HOUSE' (HEB. BAYIT). "And on her tongue is a Torah of steadfast love (lit. 'Chesed')" refers to Avraham, THE SECRET OF THE COLUMN OF CHESED, with which He created the world, and he speaks always OF THE TORAH, WHICH IS THE DRAWING DOWN OF CHESED. THEREFORE, IT IS SAID "AND ON HER TONGUE IS A TORAH OF CHESED." HE FURTHER EXPLAINS THAT the letter Bet is closed on one side and open on the other. It is closed on one side, as it is written, "and you shall see My back" (Shemot 33:23). On the other side Bet is open, so that its face will shine upward TOWARD ZEIR ANPIN. It is also open to receive from ZEIR ANPIN above, AS WIDE OPEN as a foyer to receive BRIGHT LIGHT. FOR A FOYER RECEIVES MORE SUNSHINE THAN A HOUSE. For that reason, THE LETTER BET stands at the beginning of the Torah. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "SHE OPENED HER MOUTH WITH WISDOM," and later was filled WITH ALL THE WORDS OF THE TORAH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF "AND ON HER TONGUE IS A TORAH OF STEADFAST LOVE."

Another explanation for the verse, "She opened her mouth with wisdom," IS THAT IT ALLUDES TO THE TORAH, which assuredly opens with wisdom, as it is written, "In the beginning Elohim created" (Beresheet 1:1), FOR "IN THE BEGINNING" IS 'WISDOM' in the Aramaic translation. Of the verse, "And on her tongue is a Torah of steadfast love (lit. Chesed)," the Torah later reads, "And Elohim said, Let there be light, and there was light" (Ibid. 3), WHICH IS THE LIGHT OF CHESED. ANOTHER EXPLANATION FOR THE VERSE, "She opened her mouth with wisdom," is that it is the first Hei of the holy name YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS BINAH, in which everything is contained. It is concealed and revealed, comprising both what is above and below!

183. "She opened her mouth with wisdom" because it is concealed and utterly unrevealed, as it is written, "Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the sky" (Iyov 28:21). When BINAH started to spread together with Chochmah that cleaved to it and was clothed in it, NAMELY, IN THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "SHE OPENED HER MOUTH WITH WISDOM." IT COULD NOT SPREAD UNTIL it issued a sound, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, which is "a Torah of Chesed," OF WHICH IT IS WRITTEN, "AND ON HER TONGUE IS A TORAH OF CHESED."

183. פִּיָּה פִּתְחָה בְּחַכְמָה, בְּגִין דְּאִיהִי סְתִימָא דְּלֵא אֲתִיידַע כְּלָל, דְּכַתִּיב וְנִעְלָמָה מֵעֵינֵי כָל חַי וּמְעוֹף הַשָּׁמַיִם נִסְתַּרָה. וְכַד שָׂאֵרֵי לְאַתְפְּשָׁטָא, בְּחַכְמָה דְּאַתְדַּבֵּק בֵּהּ, וְאִיהִי בְּגוּוּהָ, אֲפִיקַת קְלָא, דְּאִיהִי תוֹרַת חֶסֶד

184. STILL ANOTHER EXPLANATION OF THE VERSE, "She opened her mouth with wisdom" is that the last Hei OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, refers to speech, which depends on wisdom. THIS MEANS THAT THERE IS NO SPEECH WITHOUT WISDOM AND THOUGHT. THEREFORE IT IS SAID OF THE NUKVA, "SHE OPENED HER MOUTH WITH WISDOM." THE VERSE, "and on her tongue is a Torah of Chesed" alludes to the voice, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN, which controls and conducts speech, THE NUKVA. A FURTHER EXPLANATION OF "A Torah of Chesed love" is Ya'akov, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'TORAH', AND CHESED. He is "on her tongue," OVER THE SPEECH, to guide the word and be united with it, for there is no speech without sound.

185. Rabbi Chiya then quoted the verse, "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and find knowledge in crafty schemes" (Mishlei 8:12). "I, wisdom" refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, CALLED 'THE LOWER CHOCHMAH'; "dwell with prudence" is Ya'akov, who is prudent BECAUSE HE TOOK THE BLESSINGS PRUDENTLY AND WITH CUNNING; AND "find knowledge in crafty schemes" alludes to Yitzchak, who used knowledge and stratagems to bless Esav. Wisdom, THE SHECHINAH CALLED 'WISDOM', was joined with Ya'akov, who dealt with prudence. Therefore Ya'akov WAS TO "find knowledge in crafty devices," by which he was blessed by his father, WHO HAD KNOWLEDGE OF STRATAGEMS TO BLESS ESAV, and all the blessings rested upon him and prevailed upon him and his descendents forever.

186. Some have prevailed in this world, and all will prevail at the advent of King Mashiach, when Yisrael will be "one nation in the land" (Yechezkel 37:22), one nation before the Holy One, blessed be He. This is the meaning of the verse "and I will make them one nation in the land," and they will reign above and below, as it is written, "and, behold, one like a son of man came with the clouds of heaven" (Daniel 7:13). This is King Mashiach, as it is written, "And in the days of these kings shall the Elohim of heaven set up a kingdom..." (Daniel 2:44). Therefore, Ya'akov wanted his blessings to be postponed and did not take them at once.

187. Rabbi Yosi then quoted the verse, "But fear not, O My servant Ya'akov, and be not dismayed, Yisrael" (Yirmeyah 46:27). This verse has already been explained. Nevertheless, after Ya'akov had received his father's blessings, he searched himself and said: I want these very blessings to be postponed for the time, so they will last. He was frightened LEST THE BLESSINGS DWELL UPON HIM NOW, FOR THEY MIGHT BE NEGATED IF YISRAEL SINNED. A voice resounded, saying "Fear not, O Ya'akov My servant, says Hashem: for I am with you" (Ibid. 28), and I will never leave you, for, "behold, I will save you from afar" (Ibid. 27) at the time for which the blessings were reserved.

188. The verse, "and your seed from the land of their captivity," means that although Esav now took the blessings and HIS CHILDREN will enslave your children, I will free them from his hands. Then, your children will enslave him. Then, "Ya'akov shall return," MEANING RETURN to these blessings, TO THE SHECHINAH THAT WILL BE WITH YA'AKOV AGAIN. "And Ya'akov will return" assuredly "and be quiet and at ease," as has been explained THAT HE WILL HAVE REST from the kingdoms of Babylon, Media, Greece, and Edom, which were enslaving Yisrael." And none shall make him afraid" for ever and ever.

189. As they continued walking, Rabbi Yosi said: Assuredly, whatever the Holy One, blessed be He, does in the world is in the secret of wisdom. It is intended to teach the greatest wisdom to mankind, so man will learn from those acts the secrets of wisdom. And everything is as it should be. His works are all the ways of Torah, since the ways of Torah are the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He. And even in the smallest thing, there are ways and paths and secrets of high wisdom.

190. Come and behold: Rabbi Yochanan ben Zakai used to say that 300 legal decisions are derived from the verse, "and his wife's name was Mehetav'el, daughter of Matred, daughter of Mey-zahav" (Bereshheet 36:39). This he revealed only to Rabbi Eliezer, who was with him. That shows how many secrets of the Torah are in every deed in the Torah. In each word, there is wisdom and true doctrine. Therefore the words of the Torah are holy words, by which to conceive wondrous things, as it is written, "Open you my eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of Your Torah" (Tehilim 119:18).

191. Come and behold: When the serpent deceived Adam and his wife, when he approached her and injected impurity into her, Adam succumbed to temptation. Then the world was defiled and the land became accursed because of him. He brought death to the world. And the world was punished because of him, until the Tree of Life came, atoned for Adam, and subjugated the serpent, so that his seed will never rule the seed of Ya'akov.

192. For when Yisrael offered a goat, the serpent was subdued and became a slave OF YISRAEL as we learned. Therefore, Ya'akov served his father two goats (Heb. se'irim), one with which to subjugate Esav, who is hairy (Heb. sa'ir), and the other for the grade upon which Esav depended and to which he cleaved. THIS WAS SAMAEL, THE MINISTER OF ESAV.

193. Therefore the world is accursed until a woman comes, who resembles Chavah, and a man, who resembles Adam. They will deceive and beguile the serpent and the one ruling him, NAMELY, SAMAEL. We have already learned this.

194. He opened the discussion with the verse, "and Esav was a cunning hunter, a man of the field: and Ya'akov was a plain man, dwelling in tents" (Beresheet 25:27). The phrase "a plain man" MEANS a whole man, according to the Aramaic translation, AS ILLUSTRATED BY THE FACT THAT HE WAS "dwelling in tents." He was plain because he dwelt in tents, WHICH MEANS THAT he held fast the two sides, RIGHT AND LEFT, WHICH ARE Avraham and Yitzchak, AND HE WAS FOUND WHOLE BOTH ON THE RIGHT, THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM, AND THE LEFT, THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH. Because HE COMPRISES OF BOTH SIDES, Ya'akov came to Esav from the side of Yitzchak THAT WAS INCLUDED IN HIM. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE TWO HE GOATS HE SERVED YITZCHAK, WHICH CAME FROM THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, THE ASPECT OF YITZCHAK. As we learned from the verse, "With the merciful you will show yourself merciful...and with the perverse you will show yourself subtle" (Tehilim 18:26-27). When he came to receive the blessings, he came with support of Avraham and Yitzchak from above, NAMELY, SUPPORT FROM BOTH THE RIGHT AND LIEFT SIDES, and so all was done wisely.

195. Come and behold: When Ya'akov arose against Samael, the grade of Esav, Samael fought and wrestled with him, but Ya'akov overpowered him in several ways. He conquered the serpent with cunning and subtlety, but he was only overpowered by the goat, THAT IS, BY THE TWO HE GOATS HE SERVED TO YITZCHAK HIS FATHER. WITH THESE, HE CONQUERED ESAV, THE GRADE OF THE SERPENT, AS HAS BEEN SAID. And though all is one, NAMELY, THE SERPENT AND SAMAEL, nevertheless he also conquered and overpowered Samael in another battle. This is derived from the verse, "and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. And when he saw that he did not prevail against him" (Beresheet 32:25-26).

196. Come and behold: The merit of Ya'akov was such, that he, SAMAEL, wanted to exterminate Ya'akov from the world. That night was the night when the moon was created, THAT IS, WEDNESDAY EVE, A TIME OF DANGER. And Ya'akov stayed alone, and no one was with him, as we have learned that a man must not venture out alone at night. This is even more true on the night when the luminaries were created, for then the moon is defective, as it is written, "Let there be lights (Heb. me'orot)" (Beresheet 1:14), and the word Me'orot is spelled without THE LETTER VAV, WHICH IS A SIGN OF A CURSE. Because Ya'akov remained alone that night, HE WAS IN GREAT DANGER, because when the moon is defective, the evil serpent is strengthened and rules. Then Samael came and denounced Ya'akov and wanted him to perish from the world.

192. דְּהָא בְּזִמְנָא דְאֶקְרִיבוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל שְׂעִיר, הוּא אֲתַכְמִיָּא הֵוּא נַחֵשׁ וְאֲתַהֲפֵךְ לְעֵבְרָא, כְּמָה דְאֲתַמְר. וְעַד אֶקְרִיב יַעֲקֹב לְאֲבוּי, תְּרִין שְׂעִירִין חַד, לְאֲכַמְיָא לְעֵשׂו, דְאִיהוּ שְׂעִיר, וְחַד, בְּגִין דְרָגָא דְהוּא תְּלִי בִיה עֵשׂו וְאֲתַרְבֵּק בִּיה וְאֲתַמְר.

197. But Ya'akov was strong on all sides, on the side of Yitzchak and the side of Avraham. SAMAEL came to the right and saw Avraham strong with the vigor of day, namely, the right side, which is Chesed. He came to the left, and saw Yitzchak powerful with the strength of rigorous judgment. He came to the body, NAMELY, TO THE CENTRAL COLUMN, and saw Ya'akov strong on these two sides. AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK surrounded him, one from here and one from there. Then "when he saw that he did not prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh" (Beresheet 32:26), a place outside the body, the one pillar of the body ON WHICH THE WHOLE BODY IS SUPPORTED, NAMELY, NETZACH, THE PILLAR OF TIFERET, CALLED 'BODY'. Then "and the hollow of Ya'akov's thigh was put out of joint, as he wrestled with him..." (Ibid.).

198. Once day broke and night departed, Ya'akov was strengthened, and the power of Samael diminished. Then he said: "Let me go" (Ibid. 27), for it was his time to say the morning hymns and he had to leave. He confirmed his blessings and added a blessing of his own, as it is written, "And he blessed him there" (Ibid. 30).

199. Come and behold how many were the blessings Ya'akov received. The one from his father he earned through cunning, and that gained him all these many blessings; the one of the Shechinah he received from the Holy One, blessed be He, when he returned from Lavan, as it is written, "And Elohim...blessed him" (Beresheet 35:9). He was given one by the minister of Esav and one from his father when he went to Paddan-Aram, as it is written, "And El Shadai bless you..." (Beresheet 28:3).

200. At the time when Ya'akov saw himself with all these blessings, he said, Which shall I use now? He decided to use the weakest blessing of all. And which is that? It is the last blessing from his father. And although this too is a powerful blessing, it is not as strong for having power over the world as the first ones.

201. Ya'akov said: I will avail myself of this blessing and use it. The others I will reserve until the time when I and my children after me will need them. When WILL THIS BE? At the time the nations gather to exterminate my children from the world, as it is written, "All nations compassed me about: but in the name of Hashem I cut them off. They compassed me about; indeed, they compassed me...They compassed me about like bees..." (Tehilim 118:10-12). There are three VERSES that correspond to the three blessings THAT HE DID NOT USE. The one is the blessing from his father; the second is the blessing from the Holy One, blessed be He; and the third is the blessing he was given by the angel.

202. Ya'akov said: At that time, I will need ALL THE BLESSINGS TO PROTECT ME from the kings and all the nations in the world THAT WILL SURROUND ME. THEREFORE, I will reserve these blessings for that time. And now, for Esav, this blessing should suffice, TO WIT, THE SECOND BLESSING HIS FATHER GAVE HIM. This is like a king, who had several battalions of mighty warriors and several qualified ministers of war capable of engaging in warfare against mighty kings. In the meantime, when he learned about a great robber, he sent his gatekeepers TO FIGHT HIM. When HIS SERVANTS asked him, why did you choose to send the gatekeepers when you have such strong battalions available, the king replied, these will suffice to cope with this robber. I will reserve the battalions and ministers for war against the mighty kings, so they will be available when I need them.

203. Ya'akov said the same: To cope with Esav, these blessings HE RECEIVED FROM HIS FATHER WHEN HE WENT TO PADDAN-ARAM, will suffice. But THE REST OF THE BLESSINGS, I shall reserve for that time when my children will need them to fight the kings and rulers in the world, who will rise against them.

204. When that time arrives, all the blessings will be aroused on all sides TOWARDS YISRAEL, and the world will be properly established. From that day on, this kingdom shall rise, THAT IS, THE SUPERNAL KINGDOM, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, above all the other kingdoms, as was explained when discoursing on the verse, "but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever" (Daniel 2:44). This is the stone that was cut out of the mountain and not by man, WHICH WAS MENTIONED IN THE SCRIPTURE, as it is written, "from thence from the shepherd, the Stone of Yisrael" (Beresheet 49:24). What is this stone? It is the congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, as written, "and this stone, which I have set for a pillar..." (Beresheet 28:22), WHICH IS THE NUKVA.

205. Rabbi Chiya said that from this IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE REST OF THE BLESSINGS OF YA'AKOV REMAIN FOR YISRAEL TO USE IN THE FUTURE, as it is written, "A remnant shall return, even the remnant of Ya'akov" (Yeshayah 10:21). About these remaining blessings, IT HAS BEEN WRITTEN, "A REMNANT SHALL RETURN," MEANING THAT THEY WILL RETURN TO YISRAEL. It is also written, "And the remnant of Ya'akov shall be in the midst of many peoples" (Michah 5:6), THAT IS, among all the nations, not Esav alone, FOR THEN THE REST OF THE BLESSINGS WILL BE AROUSED, as it is written, "And the remnant...like dew from Hashem."

206. Rabbi Yisa quoted the verse, "A son honors his father, and a servant his master" (Malachi 1:6). "A son" refers to Esav, for in the whole world there was no man who respected his father as Esav did; the homage he paid him made him ruler of the world.

207. "...and a servant his master" refers to Eliezer, the servant of Avraham. This has been explained. The man came to Charan with great wealth and camels loaded with many gifts to lavish, yet he did not say to Betu'el and Lavan, that he is Avraham's friend, or any other man, who came at Avraham's request, but when he started his speech, it is written, "And he said, I am Avraham's servant" (Beresheet 24:34). Later, he repeated SEVERAL TIMES, 'my master'. Because he respected Avraham with honor and kindness, they were patient with him for some time.

208. By right of that honor that he showed to his father, the Holy One, blessed be He, was forbearing with him when he ruled this world. And these are the tears that Yisrael shed under his yoke, until Yisrael will return to the Holy One, blessed be He, with crying in tears and weeping, as it is written, "They shall come with weeping..." (Yirmeyah 31:8) and then, "And liberators shall ascend upon mount Tzion to judge the mountain of Esav; and the kingdom shall be Hashem's" (Ovadyah. 1:21).
Blessed be Hashem for ever and ever. Amen and Amen.

1. "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva..."

In this section of secret Torah teachings, Rabbi Chiya discusses the symbolism and meaning of Ecclesiastes' resonant verse, "The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens to its place where it rises again." The verse refers to Ya'akov, when he was in Be'er Sheva and went to Charan, where Beresheet tells us he "tarried...all night, for the sun was set." The solar directions, north and south, indicate the Left Column and the Right Columns of energy, or, respectively, the negative and positive forces. Rabbi Ashlag's commentary further clarifies the word "place" as referring to Malchut, our physical world. Both Ya'akov and "the sun" represent Zeir Anpin--the Upper World, the source of our spiritual Light. We learn that the divine emanation alluded to in the text--"And Ya'akov went out"--is a complete one, combining the secrets of Chochmah and Chassadim; that is, both the Right and Left Columns. Rabbi Chiya explains Ya'akov's journey in terms of the Light of Zeir Anpin descending into the material world of darkness, the Malchut; and Rabbi Yosi further elucidates the journey of Ya'akov in relation to the Exile of the Jews. These explanations are used to explore the nature of The Creator's more awesome aspect, His "fierce indignation..." The Rabbis proceed into a brief discussion of the Tefilin, which are emblems of the divine presence as well as antennae-like instruments for evoking the Light, which is present even in the most seemingly dark and demonic situations. The reader comes to understand that such stories from Torah are really mullet-layered allegories, revealing the structures of reality and both the inner and the outer universe, as well as the essential harmony of God's Creation. Lastly, in the secret of 22, it is shown that the driving force of the universe on every scale comprises the desire for union between Zeir Anpin, the Upper World, and the Nukva, the Malchut, our lower physical dimension. This includes such seemingly opposed aspects of the divine as male and female, darkness and light, anger and mercy. The rabbis then state that this duality that also lies at the root of our own confusion, fear, rage, and loneliness--everything that prevents us from attaining transcendence and union with the One.

The Relevance of this Passage

The patriarch Ya'akov is the living embodiment of the Central Column force, known in lay terms as Restriction or Resistance. While the Right and Left Columns correspond to the positive and negative poles of an incandescent light bulb, the Central Column correlates to the filament, which creates light through resistance. Spiritual Light operates under the same principle. We draw Light from the Upper World of Zeir Anpin into our physical world of Malchut when we apply the concept of Restriction in our own life. This is achieved by resisting our impulsive, self-centered desires. Tefilin also assists us towards that end. Tefilin is bound upon the left arm, which denotes the negative power of the Left Column. Binding and restricting the power of the left arm weakens our own Left Column, the source of our selfish, wanton desires. The forces released through our visual connection to the Hebrew letters helps strengthen our connection to the Light, so that we may resolve the inner conflicts that cause our sense of separation from the Eternal. By invoking the power of Ya'akov and Tefilin through our attention to these passages, we receive the emotional strength, willpower, and foresight to rise above the power of impulse, creating union between ourselves and the Light of the Creator.

1. "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva, and went toward Charan" (Beresheet 28:10). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens to its place where it rises again" (Kohelet 1:5). This verse has been explained. The phrase, "the sun also rises," refers to Ya'akov, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, when he was in Be'er Sheva, WHICH IS BINAH. The phrase, "and the sun goes down," refers to Ya'akov when he went to Charan, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "and tarried there all night, for the sun was set" (Beresheet 28:11). The passage: "and hastens to its place where it rises again," is similar to the verse: "and lay down in that place to sleep" (Ibid. 11). THIS REFERS TO THE NUKVA, CALLED 'PLACE', WHERE THE SUN HASTENS TO SHINE.

1. וַיֵּצֵא יַעֲקֹב מִבְּאֵר שֶׁבַע וַיֵּלֶךְ חָרָנָה. ר' חַיִּיא פְתַח וְאָמַר, וְזֶרַח הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ וּבֵא הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ וְאֵל מְקוֹמוֹ שׁוֹאֵף זֶרַח הוּא שֶׁם, הָאִי קָרָא אִוְקְמוּהָ. אֲבָל וְזֶרַח הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ, דָּא יַעֲקֹב, כַּד הוּהּ בְּבֵאֵר שֶׁבַע. וּבֵא הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ, כַּד אֵזֵל לְחָרָן, דְּכִתְיִב וַיֵּלֶךְ שֶׁם כִּי בֵּא הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ. וְאֵל מְקוֹמוֹ שׁוֹאֵף זֶרַח, דְּכִתְיִב וַיִּשְׁכֵּב בְּמָקוֹם הַהוּא.

2. Come and behold: although the sun illuminates the whole world, it travels in only two directions, as it is written: "goes towards the south, and veers to the north," (Kohelet 1:6) for south is the Right COLUMN and north is the Left COLUMN. And the sun rises every day from the east side, FROM ITS OWN ASPECT, TIFERET, and travels toward the south side, TO THE RIGHT COLUMN, CHESED. It then veers to the north side, TO THE LEFT COLUMN, GVURAH. THAT IS, IT EVENTUALLY COMBINES THE ILLUMINATION FROM BOTH COLUMNS. And from the north it veers toward the west, THE NUKVA. Then the sun moves to the west, where it sets. HE EXPLAINED THAT the sun rises in the east, as it is written: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva," WHEN THE TWO COLUMNS, SOUTH AND NORTH, WERE COMBINED IN HIM. The sun goes west TO THE NUKVA, as it is written: "and went toward Charan." THIS TEACHES US THAT THE ILLUMINATION ALLUDED TO IN THE TEXT, "AND YA'AKOV WENT OUT," IS A COMPLETE ILLUMINATION COMPRISING THE TWO COLUMNS, RIGHT AND LEFT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM COMBINED.

2 וְתָא חַיִּיא, שְׁמֵשׁ אֵף עַל גַּב דְּנִהִיר לְכָל עֲלָמָא, מְטַלְנוּי בְּתֵרִין סְטֵרִין אִינוּן, כַּד"א הוּלֵךְ אֵל דְּרוּם וְסוּבָב אֵל צִפּוֹן, בְּגִין דְּדָא יְמִינָא, וְדָא שְׂמָאלָא. וְנִגִּיד וְנִפִּיק כָּל יוֹמָא מִסְטֵרָא דְּמִזְרַח, וְאֵזֵל לְסְטֵרָא דְּדְרוּם, וְלִבְתֵּר לְסְטֵרָא דְּצִפּוֹן וּמִסְטֵרָא דְּצִפּוֹן, לְסְטֵרָא דְּמַעְרָב, וְכַדִּין שְׁמֵשׁ אֲתַכְנִישׁ, וְאֵזֵל לְגַבֵּי מַעְרָב. נִפִּיק מִמִּזְרַח: דְּכִתְיִב וַיֵּצֵא יַעֲקֹב מִבְּאֵר שֶׁבַע. וְאֵזֵל לְמַעְרָב: דְּכִתְיִב וַיֵּלֶךְ חָרָנָה.

3. Rabbi Shimon said that Ya'akov went out of the ambit of the land of Yisrael, as it is written: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva," WHICH IS THE NUKVA IN ITS ENTIRETY, CALLED 'BE'ER SHEVA', AND CALLED THE 'LAND OF YISRAEL'. And he went to another domain, as it is written: "and went toward Charan," OUTSIDE THE LAND OF YISRAEL, WHERE THE OTHER SIDE RULES. THUS, Ya'akov came from the east, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN THAT COMPRISES THE RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS, as it is written: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva." This means that during the Shmitah, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, Ya'akov took the shining light from the supernal depth, BINAH, and traveled west. THAT IS, HE TOOK THE LIGHT WHICH SETS IN THE WEST, THE LEFT COLUMN WITHOUT THE RIGHT, "and went toward Charan," a place of Judgment and wrath (Heb. charon), WHICH IS THE DOMAIN OF THE OTHER SIDE.

4. According to Rabbi Yosi, this verse refers to the exile. For at first, the light descended from the supernal depth, WHICH IS BINAH, and Ya'akov, ZEIR ANPIN, took it with him and went to POUR IT on Be'er Sheva. THIS IS THE SECRET OF: "the well that the princes dug out" (Bemidbar 21:18). IT IS THE NUKVA, BUILT OF ABA AND IMA THAT ARE CALLED 'PRINCES', FROM where Ya'akov received his illumination, and perfected the well (Heb. be'er) in all its wholeness. During the days of exile, he wanders from Be'er Sheva to Charan, as written: "and went toward Charan"--that is, to fierce indignation (Heb. Charon). What is the fierce indignation of the Holy One, blessed be He? It is the evil grade, the land of the dominion of another, NAMELY, MALCHUT OF THE KLIPOT.

5. Rabbi Chiya said that when the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, goes west, THE NUKVA, the west, represents the throne of the sun, the place upon which the sun dwells. This is the meaning of the verse, "and hastens to its place where it rises again," for it goes to that place to shine upon it. It takes all the lights FROM THE RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS and gathers them to itself, THAT IS, IT BESTOWS THEM UPON THE NUKVA.

6. So we have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN, puts on Tefilin which means He takes all the supernal crowns when he. What are they? They are the secret of the supernal ABA and supernal IMA; THEY ARE THE MOCHIN OF CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, THE SECRET OF THE TWO PASSAGES: "KADESH (SANCTIFY TO ME)" (DEVARIM 11:13) AND "VEHAYAH KI YEVIACHA (AND IT SHALL BE WHEN HASHEM SHALL BRING YOU)" (SHMOT 13:11-16). KADESH IS THE MOCHIN OF THE SUPERNAL ABA, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH. VEHAYAH KI YEVIACHA IS THE MOCHIN OF THE SUPERNAL IMA, BINAH. They are the head Tefilin, THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF THE TEFILIN, THE SECRET OF YUD-HEI, CALLED 'HEAD'. Thus, we have learned that the High Priest takes the first (lit. 'in the head'), WHICH MEANS HE TAKES THE FIRST THREE SFIROT. After he took THE MOCHIN OF ABA and IMA, YUD-HEI, he received from the right and left OF THE MOACH OF DA'AT THE MYSTERY OF THE TWO PASSAGES, "SH'MA (HEAR, O YISRAEL)" (DEVARIM 6:4) AND "VEHAYAH IM SHAMOA (AND IT SHALL COME TO PASS, IF YOU HEARKEN)" (DEVARIM 11:13), THE SECRET OF VAV-HEI. So it is found that ZEIR ANPIN took all THE MOCHIN, THE CHOCHMAH, BINAH, CHESED, AND GVURAH, THE SECRET OF THE FOUR PASSAGES CALLED THE 'TEFILIN OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE.'

3. רבי שמעון אמר, נפיק מכללא דארעא דישראל, דכתיב ויצא ועקב מבאר שבע. ואזל לרשו אחרא, דכתיב וילך חרנה. נפיק ממזרח, דכתיב ויצא ועקב מבאר שבע, דא שמשא, דנטיל מעומקא עלאה, נהירו דנהיר, ואזיל למערב, דכתיב וילך חרנה, אתר דינא ורוגזא תמן.

4. ר' יוסי, מוקי האי קרא, בגלותא, בקדמיתא הוה נחית נהירו מעומקא עלאה ועקב הוה נטיל ליה, ואזיל לגבי באר שבע, באר דחפרוה שרים, דהוה נהיר מתמן, ואשלים להווא באר בכל שלימו. וביומי דגלותא, נטיל מהאי באר שבע, ואזיל לגבי חרנה, דכתיב וילך חרנה, כלומר חרון אף, ומאי היא חרון אפו דקודשא בריך הוא, דרגא בישא, ארעא דרשו אחרא.

7. Rabbi Elazar SUPPORTS RABBI CHIYA by saying: The "splendor (Tiferet) of Yisrael," ZEIR ANPIN, takes all THE FOUR MOCHIN: CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. And when the Congregation of Yisrael is drawn upward TOWARDS BINAH, it too takes them all, LIKE ZEIR ANPIN, AND COMPRISES the male world of the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY BINAH, and the female world of the Holy One, blessed be He, ITS OWN ASPECT. And just as all the lights are emitted from this world OF BINAH, the world OF THE NUKVA ALSO absorbs them all. For the worlds are equal, THAT IS, BINAH IS NOW EQUAL TO THE NUKVA, SINCE THE LATTER WENT UP TO CLOTHE IT, AND THE LOWER THAT ASCENDS TO THE UPPER ASSUMS ITS IMAGE. Therefore, Be'er Sheva is a Yovel (Jubilee year,) WHICH IS BINAH, and Be'er Sheva is the Sabbatical (Heb. Shmitah) year, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. THIS MEANS THAT THE LIGHTS OF BINAH AND THE NUKVA ARE EQUAL, AND BOTH ARE CALLED 'BE'ER SHEVA'. Because this sun illuminates only from the Yovel the scripture reads: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva," WHICH IS BINAH, ALSO CALLED 'BE'ER SHEVA', "and went toward Charan," the west, which is the Shmitah, NAMELY, THE NUKVA.

8. Rabbi Shimon said: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva" is the west, the Shmitah year, NAMELY, THE NUKVA; "and went toward Charan" is the year of orlah. For as he fled from his brother, he went out from the sacred domain into another domain. And when he reached Bet-El, which is a sacred domain, it is written: "And he alighted on a certain place" (Bereshheet 28:11).

9. HE ASKS: What is this place THAT SCRIPTURE MENTIONS? Rabbi Chiya said: This is the place OF ZEIR ANPIN, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, as it is written: "and hastens to its place," "and tarried there all night, because the sun was set," as is written: "and hastens to its place where it rises again," for he came there to shine upon it.

10. Notice that it is written: "and he took of the stones of that place," and not, 'the stones of the place'. THIS MEANS THAT HE CHOSE CERTAIN STONES FROM THERE. HE SAYS: These are precious stones, the twelve supernal pearls, as written: "twelve stones," (I Melachim 18:31) underneath which are twelve thousands and tens of thousands of polished stones, all of which are called stones. Therefore, the scripture reads, "of the stones," and not, 'the stones'. The place is the place mentioned, NAMELY, THE NUKVA.

11. Of the phrase, "and put them under his head (lit. 'heads')," HE ASKS: Whose head? AND HE ANSWERS: The heads of that place, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "heads"? It is not, as may be said, someone who puts something under his head, but rather alludes to the four heads of the universe. THESE ARE THE FOUR WINDS: SOUTH, NORTH, EAST, WEST--THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. THIS IS DERIVED FROM THE VERSE: "AND FROM THENCE IT WAS PARTED, AND BRANCHED INTO FOUR STREAMS (LIT. 'HEADS'))" (BERESHEET 2:10). HE GAVE three stones to the north wind, three to the west wind, three to the south wind, and three to the east wind. And that place is above them, to be established by them. THAT IS, THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "HE MADE A SEA" (II DIVREI HAYAMIM 4:2); "IT STOOD UPON TWELVE OXEN, THREE LOOKING TOWARDS THE NORTH, AND THREE LOOKING TOWARDS THE WEST, AND THREE LOOKING TOWARDS THE SOUTH, AND THREE LOOKING TOWARDS THE EAST" (IBID. 4).

8. רבי שמעון אמר, ויצא יעקב מבאר שבע, דא מערב, שנת השמטה. וילך חרנה, דא שנת ערלה, בגין דנפק מרשו קדישא לרשו אחרא, דהוה עריק מאחוי, כמה דאתמר. וכד מטא לבית אל, דאיהו ברשו קדישא, מה כתיב ויפגע במקום.

9. מאן מקום. רבי חייא אמר, דא הוא מקומו דקאמרן, דכתיב ואל מקומו שואף. וילן שם כי בא השמש. כד"א שואף זורח הוא שם, דהא בגין לאנהרא ליה קאתיא.

10. ויקח מאבני המקום. אבני המקום לא כתיב, אלא מאבני המקום, אליו אינון אבני יקר, מרגלאן טבאן, דאינון תריסר אבנין עלאין, כמה דכתיב שתים עשרה אבנים, ותחות אליו, תריסר אלה, ורבוון, אבני פסילן, וכלהו אקרון אבנין, בגין כך מאבני המקום, ולא אבני המקום דא הוא מקום דקאמר.

12. In the phrase, "and he lay down (Heb. vayishkav) in that place," the word vayishkav CONTAINS THE WORDS VEYESH CAF BET ('AND THERE IS 22'). THESE REPRESENT THE TWELVE LOWER PEARLS UPON WHICH THE NUKVA RESTS. IT REFERS TO CHOCHMAH IN IT. And all the grades over this place, WHICH ARE THE TEN SFIROT, THEIR NUMBER REPRESENT THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM IN IT. Together, there are twenty-two, WHICH MEANS THAT IT IS MADE WHOLE FROM BOTH CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM. Once the couch was prepared, IN THE SECRET OF THE 22, he lay down in it. HE ASKS: Who lay down in it? AND HE ANSWERS: The sun, ZEIR ANPIN, DID. Therefore, it is written of Ya'akov, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN: "and sat upon the bed" (Beresheet 48:2). It was proper for him, and for no other, FOR IT IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. And therefore, "he lay down on that place," of which scripture says, "And the sun also rises, and the sun goes down."

12. וְכִדִּין וַיִּשְׁכַּב בַּמָּקוֹם הַהוּא. וַיִּשְׁכַּב, מְרַגְלָאן לְתַתָּא, וְכָל אֵינֹן דְּרִגְיִן דְּאֵינֹן עַל הָאֵי מָקוֹם הָאֵי אֵינֹן כ"ב, בֵּינֹן דְּאֵתְתִקֵּן עֲרֵסָא, שְׂכִיב בֵּיהּ, מֵאֵן שְׂכִיב בֵּיהּ, שְׂמַשָּׁא. וְע"ד כְּתִיב בְּיַעֲקֹב, וַיֵּשֶׁב עַל הַמֶּטֶה, דְּהָא לִיהּ אֲתַחְזִי, וְלֹא לְאַחְרָא, וְע"ד וַיִּשְׁכַּב בַּמָּקוֹם הַהוּא. וּבְגִין כֶּךָ כְּתִיב, וַזְרַח הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ וּבָא הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ.

2. Seven vanities

The hidden meaning of Ecclesiastes' maxim, "Vanity of vanities, vanity of vanities, all is vanity" is revealed here. Rabbi Elazar comments that the apparent frustrations and disappointments of life are in fact blessings in disguise. He calls them "holy and necessary," because they establish the limits within which Man can find authentic happiness. "The Sun Also Rises and The Sun Goes Down," refers to the negative aspect of the seven vanities. In its dark midnight or sundown aspect, the inescapable vanity of human existence is compared to a man "Trying To Catch The Wind"--a futile and useless activity that is harmful to the spirit, and thus evil. Such habits or vices must be left behind.

The Relevance of this Passage

The spiritual influences radiating through this section help us overcome inner weaknesses that impede our progress toward the Light. These positive forces foster deeper awareness of the aspects of life that can bring us lasting happiness and true fulfillment.

Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

13. "And the sun also rises, and the sun goes down" (Kohelet 1:5). HE ASKS: Why did King Solomon begin his book of wisdom with this SECRET OF THE RISING AND SETTING OF THE SUN? Rabbi Elazar said that King Solomon based his book upon the seven Vanities upon which the world is established. The pillars and foundations that sustain the world are called 'vanities', for just as the body cannot endure without vanity (also: 'breath'), so the world cannot endure without these vanities mentioned by King Solomon. And these are seven, as it is written: "Vanity of vanities, says Kohelet, vanity of vanities; all is vanity" (Ibid. 2). Altogether, there are seven VANITIES IN THE VERSE: VANITY IS ONE; VANITIES IS IN THE PLURAL, AND SINCE THE PLURAL MEANS AT LEAST TWO, THAT MAKES TWO VANITIES; TOGETHER THERE ARE THREE VANITIES. AND AGAIN HE SAYS, "VANITY OF VANITIES," WHICH MAKES SIX IN TOTAL. AND IF WE ADD, "ALL IS VANITY," AT THE END, THERE ARE SEVEN VANITIES.

סְתְרֵי תוֹרָה

13. וַזְרַח הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ וּבָא הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ. מֵאֵי קָא חֲמָא שְׁלֵמָה מְלַכָּא, דְּשִׁירוּתָא דְּסַפְרָא דְּחֻכְמָתָא דִּילִיָּהּ מֵהֲכָא אִיהוּ. אֶלָּא אָמַר ר' אֲלֵעָזָר, שְׁלֵמָה מְלַכָּא, הָאֵי סַפְרָא, אֹקִים לִיהּ עַל שְׁבַע הַבְּלִים, וְעֲלֵמָא קֵאִים עֲלִיָּהּ. וְאֵינֹן עֲמוּדִין וְסַמְכִין, קִיּוּמָא דְּעֲלֵמָא. דְּבִג"כ אֶקְרוּן הַבְּלִים, מֵה גּוֹפָא, לֹא אֲתַקִּים בְּלֹא הַבֵּל, אֹף הָכִי עֲלֵמָא, לֹא אֲתַקִּים אֶלָּא עַל הַבְּלִים, דְּאָמַר שְׁלֵמָה מְלַכָּא. וְאֵינֹן שְׁבַע, דְּכְתִיב: הַבֵּל הַבְּלִים אָמַר קִהְלַת הַבֵּל הַבְּלִים הַבֵּל הַבֵּל, הָא שְׁבַע.

14. You may say that if this be so, the world is sustained on precious pearls. Yet elsewhere it is written of evil vanities that cause the destruction of the universe, as in: "this is vanity and an evil disease," (Kohelet 6:2) and "This...is vanity and harmful spirit" (Ibid. 4). HE ANSWERS THAT assuredly this is so. Although these seven vanities are holy and necessary for the existence of the world, there are corresponding vanities from which every judgment in the world radiates. These other vanities punish men and correct them, so they will walk the path of righteousness. They are called 'a vanity in which there is evil disease', and 'a vanity which is striving after wind'. And they maintain the world because they ensure that men tread the path of righteousness in fear of the Holy One, blessed be He. Therefore, there are many EVIL vanities that spread from these seven HOLY VANITIES, FOR THEY ARE ALSO THE SUSTENANCE OF THE UNIVERSE.

14. וְאֵי תִימָא, אֵי הָכִי דְּאֵינֹן מְרַגְלָאן טְבָאן דְּעֲלֵמָא קִיּוּמָא עֲלִיָּהּ, הָא בְּאַתְרָא אַחְרָא כְּתִיב הַבְּלִים בִּישׁוּן, וְאֵינֹן סְתִירוּ דְּעֲלֵמָא, כְּגוֹן זֶה הַבֵּל וְחֲלוּ רַע הוּא. זֶה הַבֵּל וְרַעוּת רֹחַ. אֶלָּא וְדָאֵי אָף עַל גַּב דְּהֵנִי שְׁבַע הַבְּלִים, דְּאֵינֹן קְדִישׁוּן קִיּוּמָא דְּעֲלֵמָא, אֵינֹן לְקַבֵּל הֵנִי ז' הַבְּלִים דְּכָל דִּינִין דְּעֲלֵמָא נִמְקִין, וּמְנִיָּהּ מִתְּפַשְׁטִין. וְאֶקְרוּן הַבְּלִים אַחְרָנִין, לְאַלְקָא בְּנֵי נֶשָׁא, וְלֹאֲתַקְנָא לֹון, דִּיהִכּוּן בְּאַרְח מִיִּשְׂרָאֵל, וְאֶקְרוּן הַבֵּל דְּשִׁרְיָא בְּהוּ חֲלוּ רַע, הַבֵּל דְּאִיהוּ רַעוּת רֹחַ. וְאֵינֹן קִיּוּמָא, דְּבִגְיָנִיהוּ בְּנֵי נֶשָׁא אֲזֵלִין בְּאַרְח מִיִּשְׂרָאֵל, וְדִחִילוּ מְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְעַל דָּא סְגִיאִין אֵינֹן הַבְּלִים דְּמִתְּפַשְׁטִי מֵהֵנִי שְׁבַע.

15. The reason he began with the mystery of the sun, THAT IS, HE BEGAN HIS BOOK WITH THE VERSE, "AND THE SUN ALSO RISES, AND THE SUN GOES DOWN," IS THAT it is a vanity that sustains the world—a secret for bringing man to the supernal faith of the Holy One, blessed be He, SO THAT HE WILL MERIT THE SUPERNAL MOCHIN OF BINAH, CALLED THE 'SUPERNAL FAITH OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE'. Therefore, whatever is beneath this grade, THAT IS, UNDERNEATH THE SUN, is not the secret of the faith AND DOES NOT PERTAIN TO HOLINESS. Therefore it is written: "and there was no profit under the sun" (Kohelet 2:11), and, "in any thing that is done under the sun," (Kohelet. 9:6) for we should not cleave underneath it.

16. And the sun is within the moon, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN IS UNITED WITH THE NUKVA. They are one without separation, and although the moon is under the sun, AS THE NUKVA IS UNDER THE GRADE OF ZEIR ANPIN, AT THE TIME OF UNION everything becomes the sun. THAT IS, EVEN THE MOON IS THEN CONSIDERED PART OF THE SUN, BECAUSE THE SPIRITUAL CLINGING MEANS SIMILARITY OF FORM. THEN THE MOON MAY RECEIVE CHOCHMAH FROM THE SUN, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, without being considered under the sun. And everything under this is harmful spirit. IF CHOCHMAH IS DRAWN BENEATH THE SUN TO ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, IT BECOMES A VANITY THAT STRIVES AFTER WIND, THAT IS, IT BECOMES A KLIPAH AND A FIEND, and it is forbidden to cleave to it.

3. The splendor of the shining mirror

This section discusses the true nature of the patriarch Ya'akov. "As the Color Purple includes all the colors, So the shining mirror comprises all the lights." Just as the mirror includes all the lights, Ya'akov springs from the same mystical source as the Fathers who preceded him, from Adam and Noah to Abraham and Yitzchak. Like the earlier patriarchs, Ya'akov's potent self and soul are forged by the fires of sexuality, the union of opposites whose power the Other Side finds irresistibly attractive. Just as Adam was tempted by the serpent, Jacob had to "bring a gift to the other side;" that is, he had to survive a similar trial of darkness and desire. Although there were differences in the formative ordeals of the five patriarchs, we are told that they were essentially alike in nature. Thus, they produced similarly potent identities in the men who survived them. After Ya'akov endured his own trial-by-desire, he was given the name of the descendants who would share the identity he had gained for them--"Israel."

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light arising from these verses cleanses negativity created through previous impure sexual thoughts and behavior. We become more enlightened to the power and potency of sexual union, and are inspired to keep the act free from the influences of the Other Side that always attend it. The Hebrew letters summon forth the might of the five patriarchs to help us conquer the obstacles and temptations employed by the devious evil inclination dwelling both within us and around us.

17. "And Ya'akov went out" of the closed labyrinth; and from the closed mystery emerges the splendor of the shining mirror, which is composed of two colors joined together. Because they are included within one another, all the colors are visible in it. All the appearing lights are included in the color purple. THAT IS, AS THE COLOR PURPLE INCLUDES ALL THE COLORS, SO THE SPLENDOR OF THE SHINING MIRROR COMPRISES ALL THE LIGHTS. These lights run and return, FOR THEY RUN FROM THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT TO THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT TO BE INCLUDED IN IT. BUT THEN THEY IMMEDIATELY RETURN TO THEIR PLACE IN THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT. And they do not stop to see--THAT IS, TO DRAW OUT CHOCHMAH--BUT IMMEDIATELY RETURN TO THEIR PLACE. THE ILLUMINATIONS OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT are joined within that splendor, BRINGING BOTH TO THE RIGHT IN THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM. AND THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT IS NOT SEEN AT ALL, BUT IS NEAGTED AND INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT.

18. In that splendor dwells whoever dwells, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS THE FIRST THREE SFIROT. This is a name that describes something closed and utterly unknown. THAT IS, THE NAME DWELLS ON THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT, WHOSE LABYRINTH IS NOT YET OPENED OR KNOWN. IT DOES NOT DWELL ON THE LEFT, WHOSE LABYRINTH WAS OPENED AND ITS EXISTENCE BECAME KNOWN. THIS SPLENDOR is called the 'voice of Ya'akov', NOT 'A GREAT VOICE'. In this SPLENDOR, THE LIGHT OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF BINAH, CALLED 'the Whole Faith', is seen. THESE CHASSADIM ARE ALSO CONSIDERED PART OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, AS THE CHASSADIM OF THE FIRST THREE OF BINAH. And within this closed LABYRINTH OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT, which is utterly unknown, the Name of Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei dwells. It is whole on all sides, for the upper and the lower, BINAH AND THE NUKVA, are here INCLUDED WITHIN THIS SPLENDOR. Therefore, Ya'akov was selected to be the chosen among the Fathers, for he is included in all sides. This splendor OF YA'AKOV'S GRADE, AS A RESULT OF THE purification of his name, WHICH REACHED MALCHUT, IS CALLED 'THE CHOSEN AMONG THE FATHERS', as it is written: "Ya'akov whom I have chosen" (Yeshayah 41:8). He is called by two names: Ya'akov and Yisrael. First, HE WAS CALLED 'Ya'akov'. AT THAT TIME, HE LET THE RIGHT RULE. After HE ESTABLISHED THE ILLUMINATION OF BOTH LEFT AND RIGHT, FOR CHOCHMAH SHINES ONLY AFTER IT IS INCLUDED WITHIN CHASSADIM, HE WAS CALLED 'Yisrael'.

19. This is a great mystery, for the beginning, BEFORE HE WENT TO CHARAN, he was at the end of this thought, which is the explanation of the Written Torah, called the 'Oral Torah', WHICH IS THE NUKVA. THOUGHT MEANS BINAH; THE END OF THOUGHT IS THE NUKVA WHEN SWEETENED BY BINAH. It is therefore called a 'well' (Heb. be'er), as it is written: "Moshe began to declare (Heb. be'er) this Torah" (Devarim 1:5). For it is a well, which is an explanation (heb. be'ur) of that which is referred to as seven (Heb. sheva), BINAH, WHICH EXPLAINS AND REVEALS THE CHOCHMAH IN IT, as it is written: "So was he seven years in building it" (I Melachim 6:38). AND THE FIRST TEMPLE IS THE SECRET OF BINAH, which is a great voice. AND WHEN THE NUKVA RECEIVES CHOCHMAH FROM BINAH, IT IS CONSIDERED TO HAVE A GREAT VOICE, NOT YA'AKOV'S VOICE, SINCE IT IS CHASSADIM.

20. The end of this thought occurs in Be'er Sheva where Ya'akov attained the top of his faith, THAT IS, HE ATTAINED THE FIRST THREE SFIROT FROM THE ASPECT OF CHASSADIM WHICH ARE CALLED 'THE TOP OF FAITH'. Because YA'AKOV cleaved to this faith, THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF CHASSADIM, he has to be tried in the same place his fathers were tried, the place where they came and whence they left in peace.

21. Adam was tried first: HE WAS TEMPTED BY THE SERPENT. Because he was not careful, he was seduced, and he sinned with "a wife of harlotry," (Hoshea 1:2) the primordial serpent. Noach was tried, but did not take heed. He was seduced BY A WIFE OF HARLOTRY and sinned, as it was written: "and he drank of the wine, and was drunk; and he was uncovered within his tent" (Bereshheet 9:21). Avraham went in and departed, as it is written: "And Avram went down to Egypt," (Bereshheet 12:10) and, "And Avram went up out of Egypt" (Bereshheet 13:1). Yitzchak went in and departed, as it is written: "And Yitzchak went to Avimelech, king of the Philistines," (Bereshheet 26:1) and, "And he went up from there to Be'er Sheva" (Ibid. 23).

22. After Ya'akov entered the grade of faith, WHICH WAS THE DOMINION OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT--he had to bring a gift to that side--THAT IS, TO THE RULER OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, BY SURVIVING A TRIAL. For whoever survives THE TRIAL is beloved of and chosen by the Holy One, blessed be He. It is written: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva," from the side of faith, FROM THE RIGHT SIDE, "and went toward Charan," which is the LEFT side, where a wife of harlotry TAKES HOLD, a fornicating wife. AND ALTHOUGH THERE ARE MANY DIFFERENCES AMONG THESE FIVE TRIALS--THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, THE HEADY WINE, EGYPT, THE PHILISTINES, AND CHARAN, WHICH WERE THE TRIALS OF ADAM, NOACH, AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, AND YA'AKOV--NEVERTHELESS, THEY HAVE THE SAME ROOT, NAMELY, THE DRAWING OF CHOCHMAH ONLY FROM DOWN UPWARDS, WHICH IS CALLED A 'WIFE OF HARLOTRY'.

4. Samael and the wife of harlotry

This is a discussion of the dual nature of evil, as revealed by Ya'akov's story. The Klipot, or 'shells' of negativity, have both male and female aspects. The text personifies the softer, female aspect of evil as a whore - "the wife of harlotry"- dressed up in her finery to seduce men. A foolish man is seduced by evil's glittering facade and by distracting displays of false affection. After an individual has consorted with evil, its illusion of softness melts away, replaced by the hard and punitive male aspect, [do not pronounce this name] Samael, who is an avenger and a killer. Ya'akov, a wise man, is tempted by the evil's feminine charms, and is almost seduced by the Other Side--but at the last moment, he sees its true nature and turns away. Samael is so vexed at losing a victim that he fights Ya'akov, as it is written: "and there wrestled a man with him..." Ya'akov is strong enough to defeat Samael, yet he is also forever scarred by the struggle when the demon "touched the hollow of his thigh." This mark is his badge of honor.

The Relevance of this Passage
Far too frequently, we fall prey to the illusions of our material existence, and this is never without cost. Our egos may be seduced by flattery and opportunities for gaining prestige and honor. Pride and social pressures make true spiritual growth and fulfillment almost impossible to achieve, setting the stage for perhaps the greatest of all metaphysical battles: the struggle with our own ego. The sages understood this challenge, and gave us the ability to invoke the might of Ya'akov through the Hebrew letters that compose this passage. As we are strengthened in the face of evil, we gain the power to see through its attractive faade, and to overcome the temptations that hinder our journey towards the Light.

23. A deep mystery is found in the strength of Yitzchak's light OF HOLINESS, and from the dregs of wine, WHICH ARE KLIPOT. One shape emerged FROM BOTH, made of GOOD AND EVIL, male and female, as one. It is red as a rose and extends to many sides and paths, HAVING MANY ASPECTS. The male is called 'Samael' and the female is always included within him. As on the side of holiness, ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA ARE ALWAYS INCLUDED ONE WITHIN THE OTHER; so it is on the Other Side, a male and female are included within one another. The female of Samael is called a 'serpent', "a wife of harlotry," "The end of all flesh," (Bereshheet 6:13) and the end of days.

24. Two evil spirits cling together. THE ILLUMINATION OF the spirit of the male is a thin light, NAMELY, ONLY THE SIX EXTREMITIES WITHOUT THE HEAD. And the spirit of the female materializes in many ways and paths, BEING AN ENTIRE PARTZUF, HEAD, AND BODY, FOR IN THE KLIPAH, THE FEMALE IS LARGER THAN THE MALE. She cleaves to the spirit of the male, wearing ample jewelry like an abominable whore standing on main roads and pathways to seduce men. THIS TEACHES US THAT SHE VALUES ONLY THOSE WHO START WALKING THE PATH OF HASHEM AND ARE APT TO FALL INTO HER TRAP. THEREFORE, SHE IS VIEWED AS STANDING AT THE MAIN (LIT. 'START OF') ROAD TO HASHEM'S DEVOTION. BUT FOR THOSE WHO ARE ACCUSTOMED TO THE WAYS OF HASHEM, THE WHORE IS SEPARATED FROM THEM AND HAS NO POWER OVER THEM.

25. When a fool approaches her, she holds and kisses him, and she pours him wine full of dregs and snake's venom. After he drinks, he whores after her. When she sees him whoring after her and turning from the path of truth, she removes all the decorations she put on for that fool, AS WILL BE EXPLAINED.

26. Her seductive features include her hair, which is red as a rose, and her face, which is white and red. In her ears there are six earrings of Egyptian fabric. On her neck hang all the powers of Eastern lands. Her mouth is decorated by a small slit of a comely shape; her tongue is sharp as a sword; her speech as smooth as oil; and her lips as beautiful and red as a rose. Wearing purple and having forty decorations less one, she is sweeter than all that is sweet in the world.

27. The fool follows her, drinks of her wine, and fornicates with her. What does she do? She leaves him sleeping in his bed, goes up to denounce him, and receives permission TO KILL HIM. She then descends ON HIM. The fool awakes thinking of lusting after her, as before. At this point, she has taken off the decorations and has become a mighty oppressor who wears a garment of burning fire that causes great horror and frightens the body and soul. That oppressor has horrible eyes and a sharp sword on which there are bitter drops. The oppressor kills the fool and throws him into Gehenom.

28. Ya'akov went down to her, TO THE WIFE OF HARLOTRY, and went to her place, as it is written: "and went toward Charan," A PLACE OF WRATH AND JUDGMENTS. He saw all the decoration of her house there and was saved from her, AND SO HE RETURNED TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL. Her male, Samael, was vexed THAT HE WAS SAVED FROM HER. He came down to fight with him but to no avail, as it is written: "and there wrestled a man with him..." (Bereshheet 32:25). Then was he saved from them all, completely perfected, and raised by a whole grade. And he was named Yisrael, WHICH CONSISTS OF THE LETTERS LI-ROSH (LIT. 'IT IS MY HEAD'). Wholly perfected, he became the middle pillar, of which it is written: "And the middle bar..." (Shemot 26:28).

29. What is meant by: "he touched the hollow of his thigh" (Bereshheet 32:26)? He could not prevail against him, so he touched the hollow of his thigh, denoting Nadav and Avihu, who came from Aharon's thighs. And of Ya'akov it is written: "and the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end." (We do not consider this paragraph part of the article.)

5. "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva," part two

In an addendum to the previous section, an analogy is made between the pattern of Ya'akov's physical movements and the structure of the Tree of Life, which is Kabbalah's great symbol for the attributes of God. The Tree of Life is also spoken of as the Ten Sfirot, or ten dimensions. The rabbis discuss some of the relationships between the various attributes of the Tree, such as "the 32 paths" which are woven into the structure of the Ten Sfirot. An anecdote concerning Rabbi Yitzchak further explains the powerful attraction among the three pillars or columns which comprise the 'trunk' of the Tree of Life. From these grow the branches that represent the complex interconnection of all aspects of Creation.

The Relevance of this Passage

All events that transpire throughout the cosmos, from the budding of a seed in the forest to the birth of a new star in a distant galaxy, are reflections of creative processes unfolding in the Upper World, through the agency of the Ten Sfirot. Our world is a reflection--a branch automatically responding to influences that emanate from the seed that is the Upper Reality. Physical existence can be likened to a marionette, whose strings are manipulated from dimensions on high. There is, however, one exception to this metaphor--man. Man has the power to influence and control the Upper World and the Ten Sfirot through his own conduct. Prayer, meditation, rituals, and most importantly, actions are the mechanism through which we exert control over the Sfirot. Thus, we determine which influences will rebound into our realm. The spiritual forces arising from this passage help us exert positive influence upon the Tree of Life through the actions of Ya'akov. This brings more Light in our lives and diminishes the presence of darkness and evil in the world as a whole.

Tosefta (Addendum)

30. People of the world, beloved of the High One, chosen of the government: THE TOSEFTA INVITES THOSE WHO ATTAINED THE ILLUMINATION OF THE THREE COLUMNS. ON THE SIDE OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, THEY ARE CALLED 'THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD', BECAUSE ZEIR ANPIN, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, IS CALLED 'WORLD', AND ON THE SIDE OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, THEY ARE CALLED 'BELOVED' BY THE HIGH ONE. ON THE SIDE OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT COLUMN, THEY ARE CALLED 'CHOSEN OF THE GOVERNMENT', WHICH MEANS THAT THEY WERE CHOSEN TO RULE THE WORLD, AS THE POWER TO RULE COMES FROM THE LEFT COLUMN. Draw near and listen: whoever is wise among you, of intelligent eyes--NAMELY, WHOEVER IS VERSED IN CHOCHMAH OF TEVUNAH, FOR 'EYES' IS A DESCRIPTIVE NAME OF CHOCHMAH, TO BRING OUT CHOCHMAH OF STRAIGHT LIGHT--let him come and know that when the 'White Head', ATIKA KADISHA, took and engraved the three letters Aleph, Yud, and a final Nun, then was engraved Ayin (nothingness, Aleph Yud Nun). For Aleph is the head, high above all, the most hidden of all, NAMELY, THE HEAD OF ARICH ANPIN. Yud is the rising of desire, constructed from the head up, THE HEAD OF ARICH ANPIN. IT CAME AFTER ITS CONSTRUCTION, TO MALE AND FEMALE. HE EXPLAINED THAT it came down FROM THE HEAD OF ARICH ANPIN and resulted in 32 paths, WHEN IT AGAIN ENTERED THE HEAD OF ARICH ANPIN, until they were engraved between precious burning stones. These were connected with the final Nun, AND THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE JOINING OF male and female, two lovers, with strong contact between them, and the Holy Name, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, is connected to them. From them nourishment is drawn for all, and the worlds, ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, are constructed.

31. THE ZOHAR REPEATS AND FURTHER EXPLAINS THESE WORDS, SAYING: Therefore, the vertically extended straight, final Nun was engraved, FOR IT REPRESENTS the union OF MALE AND FEMALE, ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA. For the bent Nun represents the Nukva alone, WITHOUT A MALE. The letter Yud--'desire', BINAH, which produced 32 paths--struck between the letters, NAMELY, THE 22 LETTERS, WHICH ARE MALE AND FEMALE, and formed the firmament, which is Ya'akov, NAMELY, THE CENTRAL COLUMN between the two winds: THE SOUTH AND NORTH, RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS. It then joined the pieces. Then Ya'akov descended toward the bent Nun, THE NUKVA, and HIS RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS north and south, were joined in It as one. BY THIS, THE NUKVA IS BUILT AND BECOMES READY FOR UNION. Then YA'AKOV AND THE NUKVA were joined as one, AND BECAME A STRAIGHT, FINAL NUN, WHICH INCLUDES YA'AKOV AND THE NUKVA. This bent Nun, WHICH IS THE NUKVA AND INCLUDES THE STRAIGHT, FINAL NUN, is called 'Be'er Sheva' and is filled by Ya'akov to water the flocks of sheep, NAMELY, TO GIVE PLENTY TO THE LOWER BEINGS. As it is written: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva, and went toward Charan." Further, "from Be'er Sheva" MEANS above, NAMELY, IN BINAH. For he came out of it AND

THERE RECEIVED PLENTY. THEREFORE, IT IS WRITTEN: "AND YA'AKOV WENT OUT FROM BE'ER SHEVA." Then he went to water Charan, the lower well, THAT IS, THE NUKVA, WHERE THERE ARE JUDGMENTS CALLED the 'Wrath of Hashem', and the 'Sword of Hashem', IN WHICH LIES the judgment of the court house named Elohim. THEREFORE, SCRIPTURE MENTIONS THE NAME OF Elohim, as in: "Elohim, heathen nations have come into Your inheritance" (Tehilim 79:1).

32. Rabbi Yitzchak was sitting one day by the cave of Apikuta. A man passed with his two sons, one of whom said that the vigor of the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, is from the south side, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT, CHASSADIM. And the world, THE NUKVA, does not exist save by wind, WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, because the wind represents existence and perfection on all sides. THIS IS BECAUSE THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS THE WIND, INCLUDES THE SOUTH AND NORTH SIDES, WHICH ARE RIGHT AND LEFT, THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM. If it were not complete, the world, THE NUKVA, would not have been able to survive.

32. רבי יצחק הוה יתיב יומא חד, קמי מערתא דאפיקותא, אעבר חד בר נש, ותרין בנין עמיה, והוה אמר חד לחד, דא תוקפא דשמשא, מסטרא דדרום איהו, ועלמא לא אתקיים אלא על רוח, בגין דרוח, איהו קיומא שלימו דכל סטרין, ואלמלא דאיהו קיומא בשלימו, לא יכיל עלמא לאתקיימא.

33. The younger brother said that if it were not for Ya'akov, the world would not have existed. Come and behold: whenever his children proclaim the unity of the supernal union saying, "Hear Yisrael; Hashem our Elohim; Hashem is one," (Devarim 6:4) which is the perfection of the High One, FROM ABA AND IMA, SO AS TO BE joined in one unison, Ya'akov their father, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, TIFERET, then joins and takes possession of his house, THE NUKVA, SECRET OF THE LOWER UNION. And he sits in it united with the fathers, THE RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS, so as to join male and female as one. BECAUSE THERE IS NO UNION OF MALE AND FEMALE BEFORE THE CENTRAL COLUMN, YA'AKOV, MEDIATES AND ATTACHES THE TWO COLUMNS, RIGHT AND LEFT, WHO ARE AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK.

33. אמרלו אחוה זעירע, אלמלא יעקב, לא אתקיים עלמא. תא חזי, בשעתא דייחדו בנוי יחודא דלעילא, ואמרו שמע ישראל יי אלהינו יי אחד, דא הוא שלימו עלאה, לאתיחדא ביחודא חד, כרי אתחבר יעקב אבוהון, ונטיל ביתיה, ויתוב ביה בחבורא חדא עם אבהן, לאתחברא דכר ונוקבא כחדא.

6. "Arise, Hashem"

This section continues the anecdote concerning Rabbi Yitzchak, in which the secret meaning of the phrase "arise The Creator," is debated. Both Moshe and David uttered the phrase; the text focuses on David's meaning, which concerns the intermingling of wisdom and laughter--the jesting "Levites" of the Right Column and the priests of the Left. The Creator recognizes that in David's kingdom on earth, truth often expresses itself in humorous form.

The Relevance of this Passage

Laughter denotes the Left Column energy of receiving, for laughter arouses immediate and direct pleasure. The name Yitzchak, the patriarch and father of Ya'akov, also means laughter. We access the wisdom of Yitzchak through these verses, thereby strengthening our trust in the Creator and bringing true happiness and laughter into our life. In addition, we gain strength to laugh in the face of hardship. Laughter during spiritual tests ensures that hardships pass quickly and easily. We regain control of our own happiness, rather than surrendering to external circumstances.

34. Rabbi Yitzchak said to himself: I shall join them and hear what they say. He went with them. The man opened the discussion with the verse: "Arise, Hashem, to Your resting place; You, and the ark of Your strength" (Tehilim 132:8). "Arise, Hashem, to Your resting place" MEANS may the King rise to His house of rest, to His abode.

34. אמר רבי יצחק, אשתתף בהדייהו, ואשמע מאי קאמרי, אזל בהדייהו. פתח ההוא בר נש ואמר, קומה יי למנוחתך אתה וארון עזך. קומה יי למנוחתך, במאן דאמר, יקום מלפא, לבי ניוחא דמשכניה.

35. Two men said, "Arise, Hashem," Moshe and David, Moshe said: "Arise, Hashem, and let Your enemies be scattered" (Bemidbar 10:35). David said: "Arise, Hashem, to Your resting place." What is the difference between them? Moshe, THE HUSBAND OF THE QUEEN, said it as if commanding his household. He ordered his wife to engage in warfare with his enemies. David invited him to repose, as a man who invites his sovereign TO HIS HOUSE. He invited the King and His consort with Him. This is the meaning of the verse: "Arise, Hashem, to Your resting place; You, and the ark of Your strength"--You, THE KING, and the ark of Your strength, THE NUKVA, so as not to separate them.

36. "Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness; and let Your pious ones shout for joy" (Tehilim 132:9). From this we learn that whoever invites the King should change his customs to bring joy to the King. If the King wants to be entertained by common jesters, he should arrange before him worthy jesters and great ministers. Unless he does so, he will not make the King happy.

37. Come and behold: David invited the King and His consort to repose, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "ARISE, HASHEM, TO YOUR RESTING PLACE..." How did he do this? By changing the King's jesters into distinguished ministers, who are, as it is written: "Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness; and let Your pious ones shout for joy." It is written: "and let Your pious ones shout for joy," but it should have been, 'and let Your Levites shout for joy', for the Levites are the King's jesters. But when David invited the King to rest, he ordered the priests and the pious ones, not the Levites, to be the King's jesters.

38. The Holy One, blessed be He, said TO DAVID: David, I do not wish to trouble them, THE PRIESTS AND THE PIOUS ONES TO DRAW THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT. THEY ARE THE MYSTERY BEHIND THE VERSE: "BECAUSE HE DELIGHTS IN MERCY" (MICHAH 7:18). David answered: Master, when You are in Your palace, You do as You please. THAT IS SIMILAR TO MOSHE WHO SAID, "ARISE, HASHEM, AND LET YOUR ENEMIES BE SCATTERED," WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT WHEN ON ITS OWN. THEN ONLY THE LEVITES, AND NOT THE PRIESTS OR THE PIOUS ONES, ARE THE JESTERS OF THE KING. Now that I have invited You, my wish is to bring before You those of a higher order TO BE YOUR JESTERS, NAMELY THE PRIESTS AND PIOUS ONES, even though it is not their custom, AS THEY PERTAIN TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "BECAUSE HE DELIGHTS IN MERCY."

39. From here we learn that a man may arrange things as he pleases in his own house, but when invited somewhere else, it behooves him to follow the customs of his host. For when David replaced the Levites with the priests, the Holy One, blessed be He, accepted it according to his wishes.

7. "And Ya'akov went out," part three

Rabbi Yitzchak discusses the meaning of "And Ya'akov went out..." This text refers to the exile of the Jews, the children of Ya'akov, and their need to accommodate themselves to the customs of the lands of exile--just as the Holy One Creator adjusts Himself to changes taking place in the Eternal Female, the feminine principle or Malchut. Israel must accomplish this adjustment in order to spread the message of Torah, and to nourish the world with spiritual Light. It was for this task that Israel was chosen, and for nothing else.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Hebrew term for 'Chosen People' is Am Segulah, which is derived from the Hebrew word Segol. Segol is the name of a particular Hebrew vowel whose shape illuminates the hidden significance of "Chosen People."

The vowel Segol includes three dots, as follows: These three dots signify the Right, Left and Central Column forces. The three Columns correlate to the positive and negative poles in a light bulb, and to the resisting function of the filament. A bulb without a filament immediately short circuits, producing momentary sparks followed by sudden darkness. "Chosen People" refers to the spiritual concept of Restriction or Resistance as it applies to human behavior. The children of Israel throughout all generations represent the filament; they are therefore responsible for bringing Light to the peoples of the world. This is achieved when we, as individuals, begin to resist our self-serving aspirations. Living life in a reactive manner causes a spiritual short-circuit, leaving the rest of world empty and dark--which, according to Zoharic wisdom, is the root of anti-Semitism. A truly spiritual person seeks to exemplify the sharing principle, resisting social pressures and subjugating the ego. This passage imbues us with the fortitude to apply Resistance to rash and intolerant behavior, so that we become beacons of Light to everyone we meet.

40. David said: "For Your servant David's sake do not turn away the face of Your anointed" (Tehilim 132:10). The way I ordered things may not be changed back, THAT IS, REPEALED. The Holy One, blessed be He, responded: David, upon your life, I shall not even use My own vessels; I shall use yours. And the Holy one, blessed be He, was not gone before He lavished gifts and presents on him, as it is written: "Hashem has sworn in truth to David; He will not turn from it; One of the sons of your body will I set upon your throne" (Tehilim 132:11). Rabbi Yitzchak kissed him and said: Had I come this all way only to learn this, it is enough.

41. One son OF THIS MAN opened the discussion with the verse: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva, and went toward Charan." This resembles the verse: "Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and cleave to his wife" (Bereshheet 2:24). FOR YA'AKOV WENT OUT FROM BE'ER SHEVA, LEAVING HIS FATHER AND MOTHER BEHIND, TO GO TO CHARAN AND TAKE A WIFE. Another explanation of: "And Ya'akov went..." is that it alludes to the children of Yisrael who left the Temple and were exiled among the nations, as it is written: "And from the daughter of Tzion all her splendor is departed," (Eichah 1:6) and "Yehuda is gone into exile because of affliction..." (Ibid. 3)

41. פֶּתַח חַד בְּרִיה וְאָמַר, וַיֵּצֵא יַעֲקֹב מִבְּעַר שֶׁבַע וַיֵּלֶךְ חָרָנָה, הֵינֵנו דְּכִתִּיב עַל כֵּן יַעֲזֹב אִישׁ אֶת אָבִיו וְאֶת אִמּוֹ וְדָבַק בְּאִשְׁתּוֹ. דְּבַר אַחַר וַיֵּצֵא יַעֲקֹב מִבְּעַר שֶׁבַע וַיֵּלֶךְ חָרָנָה, רִמּוֹז כַּד נִפְקוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל מִבְּי מִקְדָּשָׁא, וְאַתְּגַלוּ בֵּינֵי עַמְמֵי, כַּד"א וַיֵּצֵא מִן בֵּית צִיּוֹן כָּל הַדְּרָה, וְכִתִּיב גַּלְתָּה יְהוּדָה מִעוֹנֵי וְגו'.

42. The other, younger son began with the verse: "And he lighted upon the place and tarried there" (Bereshheet 28:11). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of the phrase, "And he lighted upon the place"? IT IS SIMILAR to the king who goes to the house of the consort. He needs to gain her favor and please her with substantial things so as to treat her with respect. Even if the king has His own gold bed with artistically embroidered covers and bedding, if she prepares him a bed of rocks on the ground in a room of fodder, he will neglect his own place and sleep in hers to please her, to harmonize their desires without coercion. As we have learned, as soon as YA'AKOV went to her, it is written: "And he took of the stones of that place, and put them under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep," THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, to give her pleasure, so that even building stones were pleasant to tarry on.

43. Rabbi Yitzchak wept and rejoiced. He said: These pearls are in your hands. How can I not follow you? They replied: You shall go your own way, and we shall enter the city to attend the marriage feast of my son. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Now I must go my way--FOR HE SAW THAT THEY DID NOT WANT HIM TO WALK FURTHER WITH THEM. He set their words before Rabbi Shimon, who said: Assuredly they have spoken well. And everything THAT WAS SAID OF YA'AKOV was spoken of the Holy One, blessed be He. RABBI SHIMON said: These words are from the descendants of Rabbi Tzadok, the invalid. Why was he called an invalid? Because he fasted for forty years for Jerusalem, so that it would not be destroyed during his life. He used to find supernal secrets in every word of the Torah, and he paved in them a path on which the children of the world may live according to its teachings.

44. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Not many days passed before I met that man and his younger son. I asked--where is your other son? He replied: I wed him, and now he stays with his wife. He recognized me and therefore said: Truly, I did not invite you to the marriage celebration of my son for three reasons. One is that I neither knew nor recognized you, and a man is invited according to his honor. I thought that perhaps you were a dignified man, and I might slight your honor. Another is that you may have been hurrying on your way, and I did not wish to inconvenience you. And the last was so that you would not be put to shame by the members of the party, for it is our custom that all who eat at the table of a bride and groom, lavish gifts and presents on them. I responded: May the Holy One, blessed be He, judge you kindly. I asked: What is your name? He said: Tzadok the Little. At that time, I learned thirteen supernal secrets of the Torah from him. And from his son I learned three secrets, one pertaining to prophecy and one to dreams--WHICH MEANS HE LEARNED FROM HIM THREE SECRETS ABOUT THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PROPHECY AND DREAM.

8. Prophecy vision, dream

In this extremely important and mysterious section of the Zohar, the rabbis make complex and subtle distinctions concerning the nature of prophecy, visions, and dreams. They then apply their conclusions to the role of the Jews in exile. Rabbi Yitzchak continues his discussion with Tzadok the Little, his companion of the previous verses. Although dreams, prophecies, and visions are all sent by the Angel Gabriel, we learn that dreams are a relatively inferior means of enlightenment. Visions and dreams may dramatically vary in nature, according to the level of consciousness of those who receive them, and of those who are able-or unable--to interpret them. Moreover, a dream can sometimes be used to explain the meaning of a waking vision. The rabbis use the powerful symbolism of the story of Ya'akov's Ladder to explain how dreams and visions link human consciousness to the upper realms. When the children of Israel are sinful, their sin expresses itself partly through The Creator's turning away from them and granting the gift of His inspiration to great leaders in other lands, who may one day become the enemies of Israel. Similarly, when King Solomon falls into sin, he is denied the level of vision that had once inspired him to build Jerusalem's Temple; henceforth he must rely only on dreams for inspiration. This culminates in the sad decline into paganism, and the political and financial ruin that the king and his kingdom suffered in later years. Finally, we are told that as a man ages, his inner vision dims as much as his outer vision or eyesight.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light released through the Hebrew letters inspires us to foster and follow the guidance of visions and dreams on both conscious and subconscious levels. During sleep, our dreams ascend to the higher levels of the spiritual realms, where we are assisted, in subtle ways, by the wisdom and supernal Light of the Creator in all our endeavors.

45. He asks: What is the difference between a prophecy and a dream? 1) A prophecy is part of the world of the male, and a dream is part of the world of the female, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. Between them are six grades, AS PROPHECY IS PART OF NETZACH AND HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, AND DREAM IS PART OF HOD OF THE NUKVA. BETWEEN THEM IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN AND CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, AND HOD OF THE NUKVA, WHICH CONSTITUTE SIX GRADES. 2) A prophecy is in right and left, THAT IS, NETZACH AND HOD, and dream is in the left, NAMELY, IN HOD. (3) A dream emanates downward a few grades TO THE ANGEL GAVRIEL, FROM WHOM MEN RECEIVE THE ILLUMINATION OF DREAMS. Therefore, dreams abide everywhere in the world, EVEN OUTSIDE YISRAEL. Nevertheless, a man sees according to his grade, and according to the man, so is his grade. THIS MEANS THAT IT IS NOT THE SAME FOR EVERY MAN. But prophecy does not emanate DOWNWARD FROM MALCHUT OF ATZILUT, but shines where it is, IN THE NUKVA, THE PLACE OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LAND OF YISRAEL, AND THE PROPHETS THAT ARE INSPIRED FROM IT.

46. Come and see, it is written: "And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of Elohim ascending and descending on it" (Beresheet 28:12). He opened the discussion with the verse: "the word of Hashem came (Heb. hayoh hayah,) to Yechezkel the son of Buzi, in the land of Casdim, by the river K'var, and the hand of Hashem was there upon him" (Yechezkel 1:3). The words hayoh hayah (lit. 'being, was') INDICATE THAT this prophecy was specific to that time, for it was needed to strengthen those in exile in order to let them know the Shechinah had gone into exile with them. Therefore, Yechezkel saw what he saw, which applied to that time only. And although the place was not worthy of it, FOR PLACES OUTSIDE YISRAEL ARE NOT WORTHY OF PROPHECY, THE SCRIPTURE READS hayoh hayah, WHICH MEANS THAT THERE IS SOMETHING NEW HERE, THAT PROPHECY LIVES OUTSIDE YISRAEL. HE ASKS: Why DOES THE SCRIPTURE SAY TWICE, hayo hayah? HE ANSWERS: One is above IN ZEIR ANPIN, and one is below IN THE NUKVA, as it is written: "a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven," WHICH MEANS THAT it receives THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM above IN HEAVEN, ZEIR ANPIN, and receives below, FROM THE NUKVA CALLED 'EARTH', THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH. So in Hayo Hayah, one MEANS THE BEING OF CHASSADIM above, and the other MEANS THE BEING OF CHOCHMAH below.

47. Come and behold: this ladder was strengthened by two worlds, above IN ZEIR ANPIN and below IN THE NUKVA. THUS: "in the land of Casdim by the river K'var" (Yechezkel 1:3). The land of Casdim is the place of exile, NAMELY, THE LAND OUTSIDE YISRAEL. Nevertheless, it is "by the river K'var." What is the river K'var? IT MEANS THAT She was already (Heb. K'var) there; the Shechinah dwelt upon it before that, as it is written: "And a river went out of Eden to water the garden," (Beresheet 2:10) THE RIVER BEING THE SECRET OF BINAH. AND THE RIVER K'VAR IS one of the four rivers THAT FLOWED FROM THE RIVER THAT BEGAN IN EDEN, THE RIVER OF EUPHRATES IN BABYLON. Because it dwelt upon him before and was upon it already (k'var), now too it dwells upon it and was revealed to Yechezkel.

45. וְאָמַר מֶה בֵּין נְבוּאָה לְחֵלְמָא. נְבוּאָה בְּעֵלְמָא דְדְכוּרָא אִיהוּ, וְחֵלְמָא בְּעֵלְמָא דְנוּקְבָא, וּמֵהָא לְהָא, כְּשִׁיתָא דְרִגְיִן נְחָתָא. נְבוּאָה בִּימִינָא וּבְשִׁמְאַלָא, וְחֵלְמָא בְּשִׁמְאַלָא. וְחֵלְמָא מִתְפָּרְשָׁא לְכַמְהָ דְרִגְיִן לְתַתָּא, בְּגִין כֶּךָ חֵלְמָא אִיהוּ בְּכָל עֵלְמָא, אֲבָל כְּפֹסֵם דְרִגְיָה, הֲכִי חֲמִי, כְּפֹסֵם בְּרִנְשׁ, הֲכִי דְרִגְיָה, נְבוּאָה לֹא אֶתְפָּשְׁטָא אֱלָא בְּאַתְרֵיהּ.

47. תָּא חֲזִי, הָאִי סֻלָּם בְּתַרֵּי עֵלְמִין אֶתְתַּקַּף, בְּעֵילָא וְתַתָּא. בְּאֶרֶץ כַּשְׂדִּים עַל נְהַר כְּבַר. בְּאֶרֶץ כַּשְׂדִּים: בְּאַתְר דְּגְלוּתָא שְׂרִיָּא בֵּיהּ, וְעַכְ"ד עַל נְהַר כְּבַר. מֵאִי נְהַר כְּבַר. אֱלָא דְהוּא כְּבַר, מְקַדְמַת דְנָא, דְשְׁכִינְתָא שְׂרִיָּא עָלָיו, דְכְתִיב וְנְהַר יוֹצֵא מֵעַדֵּן לְהַשְׁקוֹת אֶת הַגֶּן וְגו'. וְדָא הוּא נְהַרָא חֵד, מֵאִינוֹן אַרְבַּע נְהַרִין, וּבְגִין דְשְׂרִיָּא עָלָיו מְקַדְמַת דְנָא, וְהוּא עָלָיו כְּבַר, שְׂרִיָּא בֵּיהּ הַשְׁתָּא, וְאַתְגְּלוּ לִיהּ לִיחְזְקָאֵל.

48. Come and behold: "And he dreamed." HE ASKS: How could it be that to holy Ya'akov, the chosen of the patriarchs, Hashem was revealed in a dream; and in such a sacred place, BET-EL, WHICH IS PART OF YISRAEL, A PLACE WORTHY OF THE DWELLING OF THE SHECHINAH, he saw HASHEM only in a dream? HE ANSWERS: Ya'akov was not yet married, AND WAS THEREFORE INCOMPLETE IN HIS BODY. Also, Yitzchak was still alive AND THE TIME OF HIS ASCENDANCY HAD NOT YET ARRIVED. THEREFORE, IT IS WRITTEN THAT HE DREAMED AND NOT THAT HE SAW A VISION WHILE AWAKE. You may wonder why, after he was married, it is written: "I...saw in a dream" (Beresheet 31:10). This was because he was outside Yisrael IN PADDAN ARAM, and Yitzchak was yet alive. Therefore it is written that he dreamed.

49. Afterwards, when he came to the Holy Land with the tribes and "the barren woman" was perfected with them: "and be a joyful mother of children" (Tehilim 113:9), AND HE WAS NOW WHOLE WITH HIS SPOUSE AND WAS IN THE LAND OF YISRAEL, it is written: "And Elohim appeared to Ya'akov," (Beresheet 35:9) "And Elohim spoke to Yisrael in the vision of the night" (Beresheet 46:2). No dream was mentioned here because he was of another, superior grade, WORTHY OF BEHOLDING A VISION WHILE AWAKE.

50. Come and behold: a dream comes from Gavriel, and A DREAM is six grades lower than a prophecy. THIS MEANS THAT GAVRIEL RECEIVES THE DREAM FROM HOD OF THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE SIXTH GRADE FROM PROPHECY, AND PEOPLE RECEIVE IT THROUGH GAVRIEL. A vision IS RECEIVED from the grade of the living creature, which rules by night. BECAUSE VISION IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN IN HER ACTUAL PLACE, ABOUT WHICH IS SAID: "AND SHE RISES ALSO WHILE IT IS YET NIGHT," (MISHLEI 31:15) IT IS THEREFORE A VISION WHILE AWAKE, AND NOT A DREAM. You may contend that it is written: "and said, Gavriel, make this man understand the vision (Heb. mar'ah)," (Daniel 8:16) AND THEREFORE, ONE COULD CONCLUDE THAT A VISION IS ALSO RECEIVED FROM GAVRIEL. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly this is so, but a vision is unclear and a dream is more precise. Therefore, a dream explains that which is not clear in the vision. Thus, Gavriel, WHO IS IN CHARGE OF DREAMS, was chosen to explain the vague words of the vision.

51. Therefore, it is written: "in the vision (mar'eh)," WHICH IS DERIVED FROM THE SAME ROOT AS "AND HE LOOKED (HEB. VA'ERA)" AND "AND I SAW (HEB. VA'ERA)." The reason is that the mirror is like a mirror (Heb. mar'ah) OF POLISHED GLASS, in which all the shapes IN FRONT OF IT are seen. Therefore, it is written of it: "and I appeared (va'era) TO AVRAHAM... BY THE NAME OF EL SHADAI," (Shemot 6:3) FOR THE MIRROR, THE NUKVA, SAID: I have shown the image OF HASHEM by El Shadai. For this is the mirror in which the images of others and all the shapes of the supernal GRADES are seen.

48. תָּא חֲזִי וַיְחַלּוֹם, וְכִי יַעֲקֹב קִדְּוִשָׁא, דְּאִיהוּ שְׁלִימָא דְאַבְהֵן, בְּחַלְמָא אֲתַגְּלִי עֲלוּי, וּבְאַתְרֵי דְא קִדְּוִשָׁא לֹא חֲמָא אֲלָא בְּחַלְמָא. אֲלָא יַעֲקֹב בְּהוּוּא זְמַנָּא, לֹא הוּוּ נְסִיב, וַיִּצְחָק הוּוּ קַיָּים. וְאִי תִימָא וְהָא לְבַתֵּר דְּאַתְנַסִּיב בְּתִיב וְאַרְא בְּחַלּוֹם. תַּמָּן אַתְר גְּרִים, וַיִּצְחָק הוּוּ קַיָּים, וְעַל דָּא בְּתִיב בִּיה חַלּוֹם.

50. תָּא חֲזִי, חַלְמָא אִיהוּ ע"י דְּגַבְרִיאֵל, דְּאִיהוּ לְתַתָּא, בְּדַרְגָּא שְׁתִּיתָאָה מְנַבּוּאָה. מְרָאָה: עַל יְדָא דְּהוּוּא דְּרַגָּא, דְּהוּוּא חַיָּה, דְּשִׁלְטָא בְּלֵילִיא. וְאִי תִימָא, הָא כְּתִיב גַּבְרִיאֵל הִבֵּן לְהַלּוֹז אֶת הַמְרָאָה. הֲכִי הוּוּ וְדָאִי, דְּמְרָאָה מְלוּי סְתִימִין יְתִיר, וּבְחַלְמָא פְּרִישׁ יְתִיר, וּפְרִישׁ סְתִימִין דְּמְרָאָה, וְע"ד אֲתַפְקֵד גַּבְרִיאֵל, דִּיפְרֵשׁ מְלוּי דְּמְרָאָה, דְּאִיהוּ סְתִים יְתִיר.

52. Therefore, at the time BEFORE YA'AKOV WED, it is written of him: "And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth" (Bereshheet 28:12). What is this ladder? It is a grade from which all other grades stem, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, THE GATE OF ALL GRADES, "and the top of it reached to heaven." It does reach up to connect to heaven. HE ASKS: What top? HE ANSWERS: The top of the ladder. And what is that? That of which it is written: "the top (lit. 'head') of the couch," (Bereshheet 47:31) NAMELY, YESOD, THE HEAD OF THE NUKVA CALLED 'COUCH'. AND YESOD IS 'THE HEAD OF THE COUCH' because it is at the head of the couch, THE NUKVA, who shines with its light FROM YESOD. IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED HER HEAD. And "reached to heaven," because it is the final part of the body, TIFERET, CALLED 'HEAVEN'. FOR YESOD IS ATTACHED UNDERNEATH TIFERET, situated between the higher, ZEIR ANPIN and the lower, NUKVA, as the member of the Covenant, the final part of the body, lies between the thighs and the body. Therefore, THE SCRIPTURE READS, "reached to heaven," FOR THE TOP OF THE LADDER, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, REACHES HEAVEN, AS IT CLEAVES TO ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'HEAVEN'.

53. "...and behold the angels of Elohim ascending and descending on it..." (Bereshheet 28:12). These are the ministers of all the nations who ascend and descend this ladder. When the children of Yisrael are sinful, the ladder is lowered and the ministers rise. When the children of Yisrael improve their deeds, the ladder is raised; all the ministers descend and their government is annulled. All depends on this ladder. Here, Ya'akov saw Esav's government and that of the rest of the nations in his dream.

54. Another explanation of the verse, "and behold the angels of Elohim ascending and descending on it," is that the ladder is used to ascend and descend through its top. For when the top, YESOD, is removed, the ladder gives in and all the ministers rule again. When the top is attached again, it is elevated and they all lose their power to govern. All this is one matter, AND BOTH EXPLANATIONS ARE ESSENTIALLY IN AGREEMENT.

55. It is written: "Hashem appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and Elohim said, ask what I shall give you" (I Melachim 3:5). HE ASKS: One may wonder why it was a dream, THAT IS, WHY IT WAS RECEIVED THROUGH GAVRIEL. What right does the grade of a dream have TO SAY TO HIM, SINCE HE IS BUT AN ANGEL: "ASK WHAT I SHALL GIVE YOU"? HE ANSWERS: Here a grade was included within a grade; the supernal grade, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE ROOT OF THE DREAM, WAS INCLUDED WITHIN AND CLOTHED by the grade down below, NAMELY, THE GRADE OF GAVRIEL. THE NUKVA SAID TO HIM, "ASK WHAT I SHALL GIVE YOU," BECAUSE IT IS WRITTEN: "AND ELOHIM SAID," WHICH IS ONE NAME OF THE NUKVA. THE REASON HE APPEARS TO HIM ONLY IN A DREAM IS THAT until then Solomon was not complete. Once he was perfected, it is written: "And Hashem gave Solomon wisdom" (I Melachim 5:26) and "Solomon's wisdom excelled," (Ibid. 10) for the moon, THE NUKVA, was then full and the Temple was built. Only then did Solomon see wisdom while awake; he had no further need of dreams.

56. After he sinned, however, he had to resort to dreams again. Therefore, it is written: "who had twice appeared to him" (I Melachim 11:9). IT APPEARS PROBLEMATIC THAT He was seen to him twice only, but THE EXPLANATION IS THAT from the side of the grade of a dream, He was seen to him only twice.

55. כְּתִיב נִרְאָה ה' אֵל שְׁלֹמֹה בְּחֵלֹם הַלַּיְלָה וַיֹּאמֶר אֱלֹהִים שְׂאֵל מָה אֶתֶן לְךָ. וְאִי תִיּוּמָא הִכָּא בְּחֵלֹם, וְכִי מָה רְשׁוֹ אִית לִיהַ לְחֵלֹם בְּהָאִי. אֲלָא הִכָּא אִתְכַּלִּיל דְרָגָא בְּרָגָא, דְרָגָא עֵלְמָה בְּרָגָא תַתָּא, בְּגִין דְעַד כְּעַן, שְׁלֹמָה לָא הוּהוּ שְׁלִים, בִּיּוֹן דְאִשְׁתַּלִּים, כְּתִיב וְה' נָתַן חֲכֵמָה לְשְׁלֹמֹה. וְכְתִיב וַתִּרְבַּ חֲכֵמַת שְׁלֹמֹה. דְקִיּוּמָא סִיְהֵרָא בְּאִשְׁלֻמוּתָא, וְכִי מְקַדְשָׁא אִתְבְּנִי. וְכִדִּין, הוּהוּ חֲמִי שְׁלֹמָה, עִינָא בְּעִינָא חֲכֵמַתָּא, וְלֹא אֶצְטְרִיךְ לְחֵלְמָא.

56. לְבַתֵּר דְחֲטָא, אֶצְטְרִיךְ לִיהַ לְחֵלְמָא בְּקַדְמִיתָא, וְעַל דָּא כְּתִיב הַנִּרְאָה אֵלָיו פְּעַמִּים, וְכִי פְּעַמִּים הוּהוּ וְלֹא יִתִּיר. אֲלָא סְטְרָא דְחֵלְמָא הוּהוּ לִיהַ פְּעַמִּים, סְטְרָא דְחֲכֵמַתָּא כִּל יוּמָא הוּהוּ.

57. With all that, the dream grade of Solomon was greater than the dream grade of all other men; including one grade within another grade, VISION WHEN AWAKE, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, WAS INCLUDED within vision IN A DREAM, WHICH IS THE GRADE OF GAVRIEL. At the end of his days, the dream grade was considerably darkened. THEREFORE, SCRIPTURE REMINDS HIM OF THE TWO DREAMS THAT USED TO SHINE UPON HIM, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "ELOHIM OF YISRAEL WHO HAD TWICE APPEARED TO HIM." This happened because he sinned, and the moon, THE NUKVA, began to wane, because he did not keep the Holy Covenant and pursued foreign women. This is the condition the Holy One, blessed be He, gave to David, as it is written: "If your children will keep my covenant...their children shall also sit upon your throne for evermore" (Tehilim 132:12).

58. What is the meaning of "for evermore?" This is as it is written: "as the days of heaven upon the earth" (Devarim 11:21). Because Solomon did not keep the Covenant as he ought to have done, the moon began to wane. At the end, he had to resort to dreams again. This was also true of Ya'akov, BECAUSE HE WAS NOT COMPLETE, as we mentioned before.

9. "And, behold, Hashem stood above it"

This passage further explicates Ya'akov's vision of the Ladder. It clarifies his special role amongst the Chosen People and his position among the other patriarchs in the Tree of Life.

The Relevance of this Passage

Ya'akov represents the Central Column force of Free Will and/or Resistance, which brings about the subjugation of the ego. Of the three patriarchs, Ya'akov embodies the delicate balance between the will of the soul-sharing and the primal urges of the body-receiving for the self. The Ladder in Ya'akov's vision corresponds to the Ten Sfirot and the array of spiritual Lights that radiates from each respective realm. Because we as individuals do not possess the strength to triumph over our egos and our selfish drives, the Zohar provides us with the additional power of the patriarch Ya'akov, whose strength is instilled within us through the Light that that radiates from this passage. We also achieve a connection to the Lights of the Sfirot, which brightens our lives and the world with tranquility and joy.

59. "And, behold, Hashem stood above it" (Beresheet 28:13) means that Ya'akov saw here, IN THE LADDER, the Knot of Faith, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, BINDING ALL THE SFIROT as one. "...stood (Heb. nitzav) above it..." as "a pillar (Heb. netziv) of salt" (Beresheet 19:26) ALLUDES TO a mound, for all the grades are as one on that ladder, THE NUKVA, so that all will be connected into one knot. For this ladder was put between the two sides, and this is the meaning of the verse: "and said, I am Hashem the Elohim of Avraham your father, and the Elohim of Yitzchak..." These are the two sides, right and left-- AVRAHAM IS RIGHT AND YITZCHAK IS LEFT.

60. Another explanation of the verse, "And, behold, Hashem stood above it," IS THAT IT DOES NOT MEAN THAT HE STOOD UPON THE LADDER, BUT RATHER THAT HE STOOD on Ya'akov, so that a holy Chariot would be made. Then, between the right and left is Ya'akov, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, and the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, will be tied with them. This is the meaning of, "Hashem the Elohim of Avraham your father, and the Elohim of Yitzchak." How do we know that Ya'akov is in the middle OF AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK? We know from the verse, "Hashem the Elohim of Avraham your father, and the Elohim of Yitzchak." Note that it is not written 'the Elohim of Yitzchak your father', WHICH WOULD MAKE HIM THIRD AMONG THE FATHERS, NAMELY, THE SON OF YITZCHAK. FROM THIS WE LEARN THAT because he was connected to Avraham, AND WAS CONSIDERED HIS SON, HE WAS FOUND TO BE BEFORE YITZCHAK. THEREFORE, HE IS IN THE MIDDLE, BETWEEN AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. FOR THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE CHARIOT: AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK ARE RIGHT AND LEFT, AND YA'AKOV IS BETWEEN THEM. Then, it is written: "the land on which you lie," WHICH IS THE NUKVA. This makes all,

THAT IS, THE THREE COLUMNS WITH THE NUKVA, into one holy Chariot. Here, Ya'akov saw that he would be the chosen of the fathers.

61. Come and behold: "Hashem the Elohim of Avraham your father." Because He said, "Avraham your father," assuredly he is in between AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. And "the Elohim of Yitzchak" alludes to the fact that Ya'akov was bound to the two sides--RIGHT AND LEFT--and was part of them. He is tied on the one side TO THE RIGHT, as it is written: "Hashem the Elohim of Avraham your father"; and on the other side he is tied TO THE LEFT, as it is written: "and the Elohim of Yitzchak." In the latter case, the letter Vav ('and') is added TO "AND THE ELOHIM," when Yitzchak is mentioned. This indicates that Ya'akov seized both sides, FOR VAV ALLUDES TO TIFERET, WHICH IS YA'AKOV, ATTACHED TO THE ELOHIM OF YITZCHAK, THE SECRET OF THE LEFT. THE SCRIPTURE CONNECTS HIM TO AVRAHAM BY CALLING HIM "YOUR FATHER," AND CONNECTS HIM TO "THE ELOHIM OF YITZCHAK" VIA THE VAV.

62. As long as Ya'akov was not married, this was not said of him openly, AS WAS SAID HERE, FOR IT IS NOT SPECIFICALLY WRITTEN: "THE ELOHIM OF YA'AKOV," AS IT WAS OF AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. It is only said openly of he who knows the ways of the Torah. THIS MEANS THAT HE WILL BECOME A CHARIOT OF THE TWO WAYS, THE RIGHT AND LEFT, AFTER HE IS MARRIED. UNTIL THEN, HE CAN BE A CHARIOT ONLY OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT, AND NOT OF THE NUKVA, THE SECRET OF THE LEFT. After he married and begot children, it was said of him openly, as is written in the verse: "And he erected there an altar, and called it El Elohei ('the Elohim of') Yisrael" (Bereshheet 33:20). Thus, we learn that whoever is not perfected below, AS MALE AND FEMALE THAT IS, WHOEVER IS NOT MARRIED, cannot be perfected above. This is not so for Ya'akov, who was perfected above and below EVEN BEFORE HE MARRIED. However, it was not proclaimed openly, BECAUSE HE DID NOT YET PROFESS HIS UNITY OVER HIM.

63. You may wonder how he was completely perfected BEFORE HE WAS MARRIED. This is not actually accurate. He was not perfected, but saw that he would eventually be perfected. If you say that it is written: "And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you wherever you go" (Bereshheet 28:15), WHICH MEANS THAT HE WAS COMPLETELY PERFECTED, IT WOULD BE INACCURATE. Rather, the explanation is that the keeping of the Holy One, blessed be He, and His protection will never leave Ya'akov without whatever he needs in this world. But in the upper world, he can not have true perception until he is perfected, NAMELY, MARRIES.

10. "And Ya'akov awoke...How dreadful is this place"

The patriarch Ya'akov awakens at the future site of the Temple. As Ya'akov recognizes the power of the sacred ground, great spiritual Light is revealed to him.

The Relevance of this Passage

Sometimes a simple observation conveys more than many words can describe. Such is the case with this passage. Suffice it to say that our souls tread the sacred ground upon which Ya'akov slept, and upon which the Temple stood.

64. "And Ya'akov awoke out of his sleep, and he said: Surely Hashem is in this place; and I knew it not" (Bereshheet 28:16). HE ASKS: It is a wonder that he did not conceive such great knowledge. HE ANSWERS: The meaning of "and I (Heb. anochi) knew it not" is similar to the meaning of the verse: "and I have not made supplications to Hashem" (I Shmuel 13:12). THAT IS, "I KNEW IT NOT" ARE WORDS OF UNION AND DEVOTION, AS ARE THE WORDS, "I HAVE NOT MADE SUPPLICATION." Ya'akov said: This was all revealed to me, though I have not attentively searched to know THE HOLY NAME Anochi ('I'), WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH, and come under the wings of the Shechinah to become a whole man.

63. וְאִי תִימָא דְּאֶשְׁתְּלִים בְּהֵיּא שְׁעָתָא, לֹא. אֶלָּא חֶמָא דִּישְׁתְּלִים לְבִתְר זְמַנָּא. וְאִי תִימָא הָא כְּתִיב וְהִגַּה אֲנֹכִי עִמָּךְ וְשִׁמְרְתִיךָ בְּכָל אֲשֶׁר תֵּלֵךְ. אֶלָּא, אֶשְׁחַחֲתָא דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְנִטְרוּ דִּילִיָּה, לֹא אֶשְׁתְּבִיק מְנִיָּה דִּיעֶקֶב לְעֵלְמִין, בְּכָל מַה דְּאַצְטְרִיךְ לִיָּה, בְּהָאֵי עֵלְמָא, אֲבַל בְּעֵלְמָא עֵלְאָה עַד דְּאֶשְׁתְּלִים.

65. Come and behold. It is written: "and she said, If it be so, why am I (anochi) thus" (Beresheet 25:22). Rivkah beheld the light of the Shechinah daily because the Shechinah was in her tent where she prayed. When Rivkah began to experience the pains of childbirth, it is written: "And she went to inquire of Hashem (Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei)" (Beresheet 25:22). She went from the grade of Anochi ('I') to the other grade of Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei. SO ANOCHI IS A NAME OF THE SHECHINAH. Therefore, Ya'akov said: 'I have seen so much, yet did not know I...' (anochi). This is because he was not married and did not yet come under the wings of the Shechinah.

66. Next, it is written: "And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place." "...place..." has two meanings reflecting the two sides. "How dreadful is this place," refers to the place he mentioned before, THE SHECHINAH, and to the sign of the Holy Covenant, which must not be annulled.

67. Although these are two aspects, YESOD AND MALCHUT, they are actually the same. He said, "this is none other than the house of Elohim." 'This', WHICH IS YESOD CALLED 'THIS', must not be neglected; "this" should not be left alone. Its existence is no other than the house of Elohim, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, with which it unites to produce offspring and to pour blessings upon her from all the organs of the body. For this, WHICH IS YESOD, is the gate to the entire body, WHICH IS TIFERET, as the scripture reads: "and this is the gate of heaven" (Beresheet 28:17). THAT IS, TIFERET IS CALLED BOTH 'BODY' AND 'HEAVEN'. Assuredly, this is the gate to the body by which blessings flow down TO THE NUKVA. It is attached above TO HEAVEN, WHICH IS TIFERET, and attached below TO THE NUKVA, WHICH IS CALLED 'PLACE', AND ALSO 'THE HOUSE OF ELOHIM'. HE EXPLAINED: It is attached above, as it is written: "and this is the gate of heaven," AS YESOD IS THE GATE OF TIFERET, WHICH IS CALLED 'HEAVEN'. It is attached below, as it is written: "this is no other than the house of Elohim," WHICH MEANS THAT THIS, YESOD, IS FOUND ONLY IN THE HOUSE OF ELOHIM, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. Therefore, "he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place." THE PLACE IS THE NUKVA, AND "THIS" IS YESOD. But men disregard the preciousness OF YESOD, of being perfected through it. The father of the young man went to him and kissed him.

68. Rabbi Yitzchak said: When I heard these words from his mouth, I wept. I said, blessed be the Merciful One for not letting high wisdom disappear from the world. I traveled with them three parasangs and entered the city with them. Shortly after they had arrived, the man affianced his son. I said to him: Your words have not been in vain, FOR AFTER DISCUSSING THE PERFECTION THAT COMES WITH MARRIAGE, HE TOLD HIM THAT HIS WORDS WOULD PREVAIL.

69. Rabbi Shimon said that the words CONCERNING THE LADDER contain secrets of wisdom and have hidden meaning. When I presented these matters to Rabbi Shimon, he said: These are not the words of a youth, but rather descriptions of supernal mysteries. They all bear the mark of wisdom.

65. תָּא חֲזִי, כְּתִיב וְתֹאמַר אִם כֵּן לְמָה זֶה אֲנֹכִי, כָּל יוֹמָא וְיוֹמָא, חֲמַאת רַבְקָה נְהוּרָא דְשְׂכִינְתָא, דְּהוּא שְׂכִינְתָא בְּמִשְׁכְּנָהּ, וְצִלְיָתָא תַּמָּן. בֵּינון דְּחַמַּאת עֲאִקוּ דִּילָהּ בְּמַעְהָא, מַה כְּתִיב וְתִלְךְ לְדַרְשׁ אֶת ה', נִפְקַת מִדְּרַגָּא דָּא, לְדְרַגָּא אַחְרָא, דְּאִיהוּ הוּי"ה. בְּגִינֵי כֵךְ אָמַר יַעֲקֹב, וְכִי כָל כֵּךְ חֲמִינָא, וְאֲנֹכִי לֹא יִדְעָמִי, בְּגִין דְּהוּא בְּלַחֲדוּי, וְלֹא עָאל תַּחוּת גְּדַפֵּי דְשְׂכִינְתָא.

11. "and behold a ladder set up on the earth"

The Zohar describes Ya'akov's dream of the ladder, in which he sees his children receiving the Torah on Mount Sinai. The passage explicates the secret meaning of the reception of the Torah: that is, the Torah as the key to mastery of the world through the Angel Matatron, who is in effect a gatekeeper for the angelic messengers of wisdom.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Torah is the divine instrument that imbues the children of Israel with the strength to gradually eliminate the Evil Inclination from their nature. This process takes place both in our physical world and in the supernal worlds above. We connect ourselves to the primordial spiritual Light that shone on Sinai during Revelation. This sacred emanation was so intense that all forms of darkness were eradicated, including death and decay. Through these verses we further arouse the forces of immortality and bring renewal, restoration, and rebirth to our lives.

Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

70. "And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven" (Bereshheet 28:12). It is six grades up from the level of a dream, HOD OF THE NUKVA, to the two grades of prophecy, NETZACH AND HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. The six grades are YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, AND HOD OF THE NUKVA. Therefore, a dream is one part out of sixty of prophecy, FOR EACH OF THESE SIX SFIROT INCLUDES TEN SFIROT, AND TEN TIMES SIX IS SIXTY. AND A DREAM, WHICH IS THE LOWEST, CONTAINS ONE OUT OF SIXTY. The ladder alludes to him seeing his children receive the Torah on Mount Sinai in the future, because the ladder represents Sinai, for MOUNT SINAI, AS SCRIPTURE READS, "is on the ground," "and its top," NAMELY, ITS HIGHEST POINT, reaches heaven. And all the Chariots and troops of the High Angels descended there with the Holy One, blessed be He, when he gave them the Torah, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "THE ANGELS OF ELOHIM ASCENDING AND DESCENDING ON IT."

71. YA'AKOV saw all this IN HIS DREAM. He saw THE ANGEL Matatron, the elder in the house OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, ruling over what is His and governing the world by THE STRENGTH OF his mastery of the name Shadai. He rises above with the ascension of his Master's name, Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, which is the place in which Ya'akov was perfected. Afterward, the beginning of the name Shadai, which is the letter Yud, reaches heaven. After this letter rises to this place, NAMELY, TO HEAVEN, THE ANGEL MATATRON is perfected and is given his Master's name, Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei.

72. The verse: "and behold the angels of Elohim ascending and descending on it" (Bereshheet 28:12) refers to holy angels close to Malchut who ascend BY WAY OF MATATRON. The other angels who are not close TO MALCHUT, THAT IS, THOSE THAT COME FROM THE OTHER SIDE, descend, AND THERE IS NO RECOVERY FOR THEM.

73. Moreover, through him, THE ANGEL MATATRON, they ascend and descend. When he rises, THE ANGELS OF ELOHIM rise with him, and when he descends, THE ANGELS OF ELOHIM go down with him. These angels are the twelve precious pearls, known as Michael, Kadmiel, Pedael, Gavriel, Tzadkiel, Chasdiel, Refael, Raziel, S'turiyah, Nuriel, Yofiel, and Anael. They are "thousands upon thousands (Heb. Shin'an)" (Tehilim 68:18). They are the letters Shin'an (Shin, Nun, Aleph, final Nun) which consist of the initials of an ox (shor), an eagle (neshar), and a lion (aryeh); the final Nun alludes to a man who includes male and female. They rise when MATATRON rises, and descend when he descends.

74. And moreover, those who dominate in this world do so through him, MATATRON. And those who are prevented from ruling fall through him. They all are dependent on this ladder, MATATRON. Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei dominates them all. As it is written: "And, behold, Hashem stood above it." When he awoke, it is written: "this is no other than the house of Elohim, and this is the gate of heaven." Assuredly, MATATRON is the House of Elohim, the gate through which one passes to come within, as it is written: "Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go in to them, and I will praise Yah (Yud-Hei)" (Tehilim 118:19). And "this is the gate to Hashem (Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei)" (Tehilim 118:20) is the gate of heaven. And all is one, WHICH MEANS THAT THE GATES OF RIGHTEOUSNESS--THE GATE OF HASHEM AND THE GATE OF HEAVEN--ARE ONE, AND THAT ONE IS MATATRON.

12. "And Ya'akov vowed a vow"

This passage explicates the story of Jacob in terms of the Sfirot and their interactions. Rabbi Chiya gives an interpretation concerning King David and his fear of the wickedness of the world: "the place where the books of the wicked are opened." Other rabbis add that the pillar of the left, Judgment, is necessary for the subjugation of the Klipot.

The Relevance of this Passage

Ya'akov corresponds to the Central Column, the Sfirah of Tiferet, whose position is squarely in the middle of the Tree of Life. Ya'akov is the balancing force between the Right Column energy of Mercy and the Left Column force of Judgment. Through the Sfirot, the attributes of mercy and judgment are carefully mingled, balanced, and disseminated in the physical realm, in accordance with the interactions of human beings to one another. In our world-signified by King David-wicked forces incite us to inflict judgment upon one another. Through the light of Ya'akov's soul we can temper our judgment, sweeten it with mercy, and therefore treat one another with compassion and kindness. Doing so produces the same effect in the Upper World, and the Sfirot shower our physical domain with an equal measure of mercy. Reading these passages with a pure heart will set this light in motion.

75. "And Ya'akov vowed a vow, saying, If Elohim will be with me..." (Bereshheet 28:20). Rabbi Yehuda said: Although the Holy One, blessed be He, promised him all that WHEN HE SAID TO HIM, "AND, BEHOLD, I AM WITH YOU, AND WILL KEEP YOU" (BERESHEET 28:15), why did Ya'akov not believe this? Rather, he questioned, "If Elohim will be with me...?" HE REPLIED: Only Ya'akov said, I have dreamed a dream, and some dreams are true, and some are not. If the events in the dream come to pass, then I shall know that the dream is true. Therefore, he said, "If Elohim will be with me," as I dreamed, "then Hashem shall be to me for Elohim" (Ibid. 21); I will draw blessings from the source of the spring of life, BINAH, to the place called 'Elohim'.

76. Come and behold: Yisrael, NAMELY, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, who is in the middle of everything, receives plenty first from the source of life, BINAH. What he receives, he draws to the place, THE NUKVA. This is understood from the verse that begins, "then Hashem shall be to me"--WHICH MEANS THAT HE IS THE FIRST TO RECEIVE--and continues, "for Elohim," WHICH IS THE NUKVA. THIS MEANS THAT HE WILL THEN PASS IT TO THE NUKVA. As Elohim will preserve me and do all this kindness by me, so will I draw from my place, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN, all these blessings, and the general connection, YESOD, will be tied to it. When will that be? In time, "so that I come back to my father's house in peace" (Bereshheet 28:21), which means when I will be perfect in my grade, TIFERET, and perfect in the grade of peace, YESOD, to correct "my father's house," WHICH IS THE NUKVA, CALLED 'HOUSE'. "I come back...in peace" is precise, ALLUDING TO YESOD; "Then Hashem shall be to me for Elohim."

77. Another explanation for: "So that I come back to my father's house in peace." There, IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE, is the Holy Land, where I will be perfected and "Hashem shall be to me for Elohim." In that place I will properly rise from this grade to another, where I will worship Him.

78. Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, You shall purge them away" (Tehilim 65:4). This verse is difficult to understand because its two halves do not fit together--IT STARTS IN THE SINGULAR AND ENDS IN THE PLURAL. Only David asked forgiveness first for himself, and then for everyone else. "Iniquities prevail against me," means that David said: I know I myself have sinned, but some wicked in the world have sins more grievous than mine. For that reason, I AM AFRAID AND ask first for me and then for them: "as for our transgressions, You shall purge them away."

79. THE REASON DAVID WAS AFRAID OF THE MANY SINS OF THE WICKED OF THE WORLD IS AS FOLLOWS. Come and behold: when there are many in the world who are wicked, they rise up to the place where the books of the wicked are opened. THIS IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'BOOK', as it is written: "they sat in judgment and the books were opened" (Daniel 7:10). Then judgment rests upon that book, THE NUKVA, WHICH IS FLAWED BECAUSE OF JUDGMENTS. THEREFORE, DAVID WAS AFRAID LEST OUR TRANSGRESSIONS FLAW THE NUKVA, AND HE ASKED TO BE PARDONED, saying, "Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, You shall purge them away."

80. Similarly, Ya'akov TOO WAS AFRAID THAT HE MIGHT SIN, AND THAT BECAUSE OF THE MANY WICKED IN THE WORLD, THE FLAW WOULD REACH THE NUKVA. Therefore, he did not trust THE PROMISE OF HASHEM THAT WAS GIVEN HIM. However, do not say that he did not trust the Holy One, blessed be He. It is not so. He simply did not believe in himself, and he was afraid that he might sin AND THAT HIS SIN, TOGETHER WITH THE OTHER SINS IN THE WORLD, would prevent him from returning home in peace. And as a result, the keeping would be removed from him. Therefore, he did not trust himself. "And Hashem will be to me for Elohim" means when I will return in peace, I will put even mercy before judgment, so I will worship Him always.

81. Rabbi Acha EXPLAINED THE MATTER BY saying that Ya'akov said: Now I have no need of Judgment, ONLY CHESED, AS IT IS THE GRADE OF YA'AKOV. When I return to my father's house, I will include Judgment also--THAT IS, THE RIGHT WILL INCLUDE THE LEFT--and I will be connected TO THE LEFT AS I AM TO THE RIGHT, THAT IS, THE GRADE OF YISRAEL, THE CENTRAL PILLAR. Rabbi Yosi said: This is not so. He said, "If Elohim will be with me," AND THE NAME ELOHIM IS JUDGMENT, I NOW HAVE NEED OF Judgment to keep me until I return in peace to my father's house. FOR SUBJUGATION OF THE KLIPTOT REQUIRES THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, WHICH IS JUDGMENT. But once I have safely returned, I will include Mercy within Judgment, THAT IS, THE RIGHT WILL BE INCLUDED WITHIN THE LEFT, AND LEFT WITHIN THE RIGHT. And I will be bound in the tie of faith to make all THE SFIROT as one. "...and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be Elohim's house..." because then, AFTER THE RIGHT AND LEFT ARE INCLUDED WITHIN EACH OTHER, all will become one. And this stone, THE NUKVA, will be blessed from right and left, CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, from above and below, TIFERET AND MALCHUT. Therefore, I will give a tenth from all. THAT IS, THE TENTH, THE NUKVA, WHICH IS ONE OUT OF TEN, WILL INCLUDE OF ALL TEN SFIROT FROM SOUTH AND NORTH, FROM ABOVE AND BELOW,

WHICH ARE CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT.

82. Rabbi ABA said: It is written, "and he took of the stones of that place." THESE ARE THE TWELVE STONES ON WHICH THE NUKVA RESTS; THEY ARE NOT THE NUKVA HERSELF. It may be said that the stone he took is superior to all the other stones HE TOOK for his place of abode to rest on, THIS BEING THE NUKVA ABOVE THE TWELVE STONES. BUT THIS IS NOT SO, as it is written: "and this stone, which I have set for a pillar." He should have said 'the upper' ACCORDING TO WHAT YOU SAY. HE ANSWERS: This is because he said, "this is no other than the house of Elohim." Here he lifted the supernal pillar, for he put all the praise OF THIS, YESOD, on THE UPPER STONE, saying, "this is" able to provide, NAMELY TO PASS MOCHIN, "to no other than the house of Elohim," TO THE STONE ABOVE, WHICH IS THE HOUSE OF ELOHIM. And this is well. Therefore, it is written: "which I have set for a pillar," AND NOT 'THE UPPER'.

83. The phrase, "shall be Elohim's house," MEANS forever, SO THAT PLENTY WILL UNCEASINGLY POUR ON HER FROM YESOD. HE ASKS: WHY DOES THE SCRIPTURE SAY, "Elohim's house," when it should have read 'Hashem's house', as it is written: "and build the house of Hashem," (Ezra 1:3) and "Let us go into the house of Hashem" (Tehilim 122:1). HE REPLIES: THE NUKVA IS a court, A PLACE OF JUDGMENTS, from two supernal sides on the side of the Jubilee (Heb. yoval), YISRAEL-SABA, AND TEVUNAH, called 'Living Elohim', FOR THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT OF BINAH, YISRAEL-SABA, AND TEVUNAH ARE ALSO CALLED 'ELOHIM' AFTER CHOCHMAH--THAT IS, 'GIVING PLENTY--AND ARE CALLED 'LIFE' (LIT. 'LIVING'). On the side of Yitzchak, THE SECRET OF GVURAH OF ZEIR ANPIN, it is ALSO CALLED 'Elohim'. THEREFORE, THE SCRIPTURE SAYS OF THE NUKVA, "ELOHIM'S HOUSE," WHICH IS JUDGMENT, AND NOT 'HASHEM'S HOUSE', WHICH IS MERCY.

84. Rabbi Elazar said that the Jubilee--YISRAEL-SABA, AND TEVUNAH, WHICH IS BINAH--is full of mercy, even though judgments will arise from it. Every joy comes out of it. It is the joy of all. THEREFORE, IT IS NOT TO BE SAID, AS RABBI ABA DID, THAT THE NUKVA IS CALLED "ELOHIM'S HOUSE," BECAUSE SHE RECEIVES JUDGMENTS FROM THE JUBILEE. Rather, "Elohim's house," BY ITS NAME, INDICATES that it is of the side of severe judgment, GVURAH OF ZEIR ANPIN, ITS LEFT. It is either for good, as the love OF UNION is from the left, it is written: "His left hand is under my head" (Shir Hahirim 2:6); or it is for evil, as severe judgment is aroused from the left, it is written: "Out of the north shall evil break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land" (Yirmeyah 1:14). It is THEREFORE assuredly CALLED "Elohim's house." Rabbi Shimon said: "Elohim's house" is, as written: "the city of the great king" (Tehilim 48:3). THE NUKVA IS THE CITY OF BINAH, CALLED 'GREAT KING'. HERE ALSO, THE NUKVA IS "ELOHIM'S HOUSE," WHICH IS BINAH. For there is a 'plain king', THE NUKVA, and there is a 'great king'. Assuredly, the supernal world is BINAH, CALLED 'great king'. And A 'PLAIN KING' is the city of the 'great king', BINAH.

13. Rabbi Chiya sees Eliyahu

In a dream of Rabbi Chiya's, the prophet Elijah announces the imminent destruction of the holy city within if men cease to study Torah. When Rabbi Chiya wakes and discusses his dream with the sages, Rabbi Yesa comments that although the wisdom of Torah watches over those who study it, the same is not true of "men who are strong in this world"--that is, who manifest the energy of the Left Column. Thus, the Holy City, in its external aspect, is doomed to destruction over and over again.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Talmud teaches us that the Temple was destroyed, not for lack of academic study of the Torah, but because of hatred and intolerance among the children of Israel for no reason. The spiritual meaning of "Torah study" concerns character transformation, not scholarship. Torah study is a means to an end--learning to love thy neighbor as thyself. Everything else, according to the sage Hillel, is merely commentary. Negative forces attempt to focus our attention on the study itself, arousing self-righteousness and self-importance. When this happens, the sages warn us, the Torah actually becomes poison to the body and soul. If we hold to our intolerant ways, the Temple will be destroyed repeatedly. Moreover, each year the Temple is not rebuilt represents the spiritual equivalent of its destruction. The Light activated as we read these verses hastens the rebuilding of the Temple and the final redemption.

85. Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Chizkiyah were sitting underneath the trees in the field of Ono. Rabbi Chiya dozed and saw Eliyahu. RABBI CHIYA said TO ELIJAHU: Because of my master showing the way, the field, THE NUKVA, is shining. ELIJAHU said: I have come to announce that Jerusalem, together with the cities where the sages dwell, is about to be destroyed. For Jerusalem, THE NUKVA, is judgment and is established upon it, and judgment now calls for its destruction. And Samael has already been given power over it and over the powerful men of the world. I have come to let the wise men know so they can try to extend Jerusalem's years SO IT SHALL NOT BE DESTROYED; for as long as the Torah, which is the Tree of Life on which everything is maintained, dwells in it, it remains standing. Thus, as long as the Torah is awakened from below AND MEN ARE OCCUPIED IN ITS STUDY, the Tree of Life, ZEIR ANPIN, does not leave the celestial JERUSALEM. When the Torah is no longer studied below, WHEN MEN ARE NOT OCCUPIED IN ITS STUDY, the Tree of Life, ZEIR ANPIN, is gone from the world, THE NUKVA, CALLED 'WORLD', AND ALSO JERUSALEM. THIS DOES NOT REFER TO TERRESTRIAL JERUSALEM SINCE THESE SAGES LIVED LONG AFTER THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM.

86. Therefore, as long as sages are happy in their study of the Torah, Samael cannot prevail against them, as it is written: "the voice is Ya'akov's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esav" (Beresheet 27:22). This is the supernal Torah, ZEIR ANPIN, called 'Ya'akov's Voice'. As long as the voice does not stop, speech rules and reigns, and study of the Torah can continue. Rabbi Chiya awoke. They went and told WHAT THEY HAD HEARD FROM ELIJAHU to the sages.

87. Rabbi Yesa said, that everybody knew WHAT ELIJAHU SAID. IT WAS REVEALED TO THE SAGES THAT WHOEVER TURNS TOWARD THE LEFT DESTROYS THE NUKVA. This is so, as it is written: "unless Hashem keeps the city, the watchman stays awake in vain" (Tehilim 127:1). The Holy City, THE NUKVA, is maintained by those who study the Torah, WHO CLEAVE TO THE CENTRAL COLUMN CALLED 'TORAH'. THEN, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, PRESERVES THE CITY, and not by men who are strong in this world, THAT IS, WHO CLEAVE TO THE LEFT. This is as it is written: "unless Hashem (THE CENTRAL COLUMN) keeps the city, the watchman stays awake in vain," FOR IT IS DESTINED TO BE DESTROYED, AS HAS BEEN EXPLAINED.

14. "And he looked, and behold a well in the field"

Here the Zohar reveals the regenerative power of love tempered by justice. It explains how King David fled from his son Avshalom, and was comforted by the notion that his predecessors Jacob and Moses had also fled. Like them, he was consoled by the power of unconditional love, or the Eternal Female, "Nukva" or Malchut. This is symbolized by the phrase, "the well in the field." Protecting this well is a stone, which represents the rigor of severe judgment. When the spirit is regenerated by love, the stone of judgment is rolled back into place because it is necessary to protect the "waters" from the wicked. In its negative aspect, this stone of severe judgment is evil. "The other side is forever present at the well's mouth." Here once again the Zohar defines evil as judgment without mercy.

The Relevance of this Passage

Just as hatred for no reason is the singular cause of the destruction of the Temple and the resulting spiritual darkness, unconditional love has the power to remove even the most severe judgments decreed against mankind. Love is awakened in our hearts by this section—a love for others, particularly our enemies, that sweetens and removes looming judgments.

88. "And he looked, and behold a well in the field" (Beresheet 29:2). Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion and said: "A psalm of David, when he fled from Avshalom his son" (Tehilim 3:1). This verse was known to the friends, WHO HAVE ALREADY DISCUSSED AND EXPLAINED IT. Yet "a psalm of David" IS PERPLEXING, FOR why did he sing? Perhaps it is because his son, and not a stranger, rose against him, AND HIS SON WOULD HAVE PITY ON HIM AND A STRANGER WOULD NOT. BUT THIS INTERPRETATION WOULD NOT BE TRUE because this was supposed to be a greater lament for him. A man grieves more over a small hurt from his kin than a great hurt from others. HE ANSWERS: "A psalm of David" means that he sang because it was David's wish. At first he thought that the Holy One, blessed be He, would punish him for his sins in the world to come. When he saw that He would take revenge in this world, he rejoiced AND SANG.

89. Another reason is that DAVID saw that men of greater importance in this world fled alone. Ya'akov fled, as it is written: "And Ya'akov fled into the country of Aram" (Hoshea 12:13), and he fled alone. Moshe fled, as it is written: "But Moshe fled from before Pharaoh" (Shemot 2:15), and he was alone. When David fled, all the rulers of the land, the valiant men of the country and the chiefs of Yisrael, all fled with him, surrounding him from right and left to guard him on all sides. When he thus saw himself valued, he sang.

90. Rabbi Yehuda said that the others all passed by this well, THE NUKVA, WHILE THEY WERE FLEEING. HE ASKS: Why was David an exception? HE ANSWERS: David was then considered to be its foe BECAUSE IT PUNISHED HIM FOR THE SIN OF BAT-SHEVA, and therefore he did not come across it. But the well gladly accepted Ya'akov and Moshe, and wished to approach them. Therefore, when the well saw them, the water rose before them, as a wife happy with her husband.

91. You may wonder why, when Eliyahu ran away, he did not come across THE WELL? HE ANSWERS: Eliyahu is beneath the well, BEING THE CHARIOT TO THE NUKVA CALLED 'WELL', and not above the well, as were Moshe and Ya'akov. Therefore, ELIYAHU was a messenger performing the errands OF THE NUKVA, while Ya'akov and Moshe were above the well, BEING A CHARIOT TO ZEIR ANPIN. THEREFORE, the well rejoiced to see them and the water rose to receive them. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE ASCENSION OF THE FEMALE WATERS TOWARD THE MALE WATERS, as a wife rejoices to see and welcome her husband.

88. וַיֵּרָא וְהִנֵּה בְּאֵר בְּשָׂדֶה וּגְו'. ר' יְהוּדָה פָּתַח וְאָמַר, מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד בְּבְרַחוֹ מִפְּנֵי אַבְשָׁלוֹם בְּנֹו. הָאִי קָרָא אֶתְעָרוּ בֵּיהַ חֲבֵרָיָא. אֲבָל מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד, אֲמַאי קָאֵמַר שִׁירָה, אִי בְּגִין דְּבְרִיָּה אִיהוּ דְּקָם עֲלֵיהַ, קִינָה יִתִּיר מִפְּעֵי לֵיהַ, דְּהָא אֲבָאִישׁ עֲלוּי דְּבַר נֶשׁ זַעִיר מִקְרִיבֹוי, מִדְּאֲחָרָא סָגִי. אֲלָא, מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד, אֲמַר שִׁירָה, וְהָכִי בְּעֵי דָוִד, דְּחָשִׁיב דְּקוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא סְלִיק לֵיהַ חוּבֹוי, לְהֵוּא עֲלֵמָא, בִּיּוֹן דְּחָמָא, דְּהָכָא בְּהָאֵי עֲלֵמָא, בְּעֵי לְמַגְבִּיָּה מְנִיָּה, חֲדִי.

92. The verse, "And he looked, and behold a well in the field," contains a secret. For he saw that the upper well, THE NUKVA, resembled THE LOWER OTHER WELL, WHICH WAS IN TUNE TO IT. As it is written: "and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it" (Beresheet 29:2). THIS MEANS THAT THE THREE FLOCKS OF SHEEP ARE CONSTANTLY AT THE MOUTH OF THE WELL. HE ASKS: If there are three, why is it later written: "And there all the flocks gathered," WHICH MEANS THAT THERE ARE MORE HERDS? HE ANSWERS: There are three AND NO MORE: south, east, and north--NAMELY, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. South is on the RIGHT side, north on the LEFT side, and east is THE CENTRAL COLUMN between them. And those who stand on this well and join it, fill it. Why DO THEY WATER IT? Because, "for out of that well they watered the flocks," THAT IS, THE LOWER SOULS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, ASIYAH, as it is written: "they give drink to every wild beast" (Tehilim 104:11), WHICH ARE THE SOULS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, ASIYAH. IN THAT WAY, HE EXPLAINS THE VERSE, "AND THERE WERE ALL THE FLOCKS GATHERED," WHICH MEANS ALL THE SOULS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, ASIYAH. BUT ONLY THREE WATER THE WELL--THE THREE COLUMNS CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET.

93. The verse, "And there were all the flocks gathered," is similar to the verse, "All the rivers run into the sea" (Kohelet 1:7). AS THE RIVERS ARE SOULS, SO ARE THE HERDS. "...and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth..." MEANS THAT they remove from THE WELL the vigor of severe Judgment, which was congealed and frozen as a stone, thereby preventing the water from coming out. And when these rivers run to the sea, THE NUKVA, south--which is Right, CHESED--is strengthened, and north, GVURAH, cannot freeze the water. Thus, the water of the river remains abundant and does not congeal as in a river of little water.

94. Therefore, when these rivers run, south, which is the Right COLUMN, is strengthened. And the water thaws so that it can flow and water the herds, THE SOULS, as we have already said, "they give drink to every wild beast," WHICH ARE THE SOULS. "...and put the stone back upon the well's mouth in its place..." because the world needs the judgments OF THE NUKVA. There must be Judgment in order to reprimand the wicked. THEREFORE, THEY RETURN THE STONE TO ITS PLACE SO THAT THE NUKVA SHINES ONLY AT THE TIME OF UNION, WHEN SOULS RAISE FEMALE WATERS. AFTER THE UNION IS ACHIEVED, IT IS CLOSED AGAIN.

95. Come and behold: when Ya'akov, who sat upon the well, saw the water rising up to him, he knew he would meet his wife there. After Moshe, who also sat upon the well, saw the water rising toward him, he too knew his wife would come there. And so it was that Ya'akov met his wife there, as it is written: "And while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep...And it came to pass, when Ya'akov saw Rachel..." It is also written of Moshe: "And the shepherds came and drove them away..." (Shemot 22:17). And there he met Tziporah, his wife. This well caused all of this BECAUSE THE WELL IS THE SECRET OF THE SUPERNAL NUKVA. THUS, THEY MET THE NUKVA OF THIS WORLD.

92. וַיֵּרָא וְהִנֵּה בְּאֵר בַּשָּׂדֶה, רְאָא אִיהוּ, דְּחַמָּא הָאֵי בְּאֵר לְעֵילָא, דָּא כְּגֻוּנָא דָּא, כְּתִיב שְׁלֹשָׁה עֲדָרֵי צֹאן רֹבְצִים עָלֶיהָ, אִי אִינוּן שְׁלֹשָׁה, אִמְאֵי כְּתִיב, וְנֶאֱסָפוּ שָׁמָּה כָּל הָעֲדָרִים. אֶלָּא, אִינוּן שְׁלֹשָׁה: דְּרוּם, מְזֻרְחָ, צְפוּן. דְּרוּם מֵהָאֵי סְטְרָא, וְצְפוּן מֵהָאֵי סְטְרָא, וּמְזֻרְחָ בִּינְיֵיהוּ, וְאֶלִּין קְיֻימִין עַל הָאֵי בְּאֵר, וְאֶחֱדָן לִיהָ, וּמְלִיִּין לִיהָ, מֵאֵי טַעְמָא, בְּגִין, כִּי מִן הַבְּאֵר הָאֵי יִשְׁקוּ הָעֲדָרִים. הֵיִינוּ דְּכְתִיב, יִשְׁקוּ כָּל חֵיתוֹ שְׂדֵי.

96. Come and behold: this well is mentioned in this text seven times because seven IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF SEVEN, WHICH INCLUDES SEVEN SFIROT. It also alludes to Be'er Sheva (lit. 'a well of seven'). HE EXPLAINED THAT this well is mentioned seven times in this text, as it is written: "And he looked, and behold a well in the field...for out of that well...and a great stone was upon the well's mount...and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth...and put the stone back upon the well's mouth...and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth...and rolled the stone from the well's mouth." There are seven mentions. Assuredly this is so, because it includes seven grades.

97. In the text about Moshe, THE WELL is mentioned only once, as it is written: "and dwelt in the land of Midyan: and he sat down upon a well" (Shemot 2:15). This is because Moshe renounced his house below. Ya'akov, HOWEVER, did not renounce his house below at all. Therefore, a well is mentioned only once in regard to Moshe, as it is written: "My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother" (Shir Hashirim 6:9). Therefore, Moshe is the owner of the house, AS HIS ROOT IS ABOVE THE LOWER NUKVA CALLED 'HOUSE' and he rose above it. Therefore, it is written of Moshe, "and he sat down upon a well," THAT IS, ABOVE THE WELL. Of Ya'akov it is written: "And he looked, and behold a well in the field," and not "and he sat down upon a well."
Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

98. In the verse, "And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it" (Bereshheet 29:2) the well is a grade called the 'Master of all the Earth'. HE EXPLAINED: "the field" means the field of holy apple trees, NAMELY, THE NUKVA FROM THE CHEST BELOW. The "three flocks of sheep" are the three supernal holy grades that are set on that well. They are Netzach, Hod, and Yesod of the world. And these draw water, NAMELY, PLENTY, from above, ZEIR ANPIN, and fill the well.

99. This is because this source, the foundation (Yesod) of the world, dwells inside that well, producing fruits and forever flowing. And the well is filled by it, MEANING THAT YESOD POURS INTO THE WELL, THE NUKVA, TWO KINDS OF PLENTY FOR THE PURPOSES OF: 1) PRODUCING SOULS, WHICH ARE FRUITS AND 2) SUSTAINING THE LOWER BEINGS. Because the well is filled WITH PLENTY, assuredly, "out of that well they watered the flocks," which are the multitude of souls and holy armies that drink from that well, each according to its merit.

100. "...and a great stone was upon the well's mouth..." alludes to a stone upon which stumble people in the world, "a stone of stumbling and...a rock of offense" (Yeshayah 8:14). THE OTHER SIDE is forever present at the well's mouth, THAT IS, BY ITS COMMAND, to seek justice from the entire world, so that no sustenance and goodness shall descend upon the world. THIS OCCURS WHEN THE NUKVA RECEIVES FROM THE LEFT, BUT NOT THE RIGHT, AND THEN PUNISHES AND DEMANDS JUSTICE.

100. וְהָאֵבֶן גְּדוֹלָה עַל פִּי הַבְּאֵר. דָּא אֵבֶן, דְּמִינָהּ כְּשִׁלֵּי בְּנֵי עֲלָמָא, אֵבֶן נְגַף וְצוּר מְכַשֵּׁל, דְּקִיּוּמָא תְּדִיר עַל פִּי הָאֵי בְּאֵר, עַל מִימְרֵיהָ, לְמַתְבַּע דִּינָא דְכָל עֲלָמָא, דְּלֹא יַחֲזִית מְזוּנָא וְטֵב לְעֲלָמָא.

101. Of the verse, "And there were all the flocks gathered," HE ASKS: why is it not written: 'And there were the flocks gathered', INSTEAD OF "ALL THE FLOCKS"? WHAT DOES "ALL" MEAN? All these flocks are the holy troops above, THE ANGELS, and the holy troops below, THE RIGHTEOUS. By singing and praising above and by prayers and petitions below, they immediately "rolled the stone from the well's mouth." They roll it and remove it from holiness; THE WELL is then separated from the Judgment, CALLED 'STONE'. Then "they watered the sheep," the supernal angels received above, and Yisrael below.

102. Then the words, "and put the stone back," mean that according to the command of the well THEY PUT THE STONE BACK IN ITS PLACE so it will be ready to demand judgment from the world--to act according to Judgment. And so it ought to be, for the world needs judgment to survive, to ensure that all will be done according to Truth and Righteousness.

103. After Ya'akov was perfected, WHEN HE FOUND HIS SPOUSE, RACHEL, he had no further need of that stone. It is then written: "and rolled the stone from the well's mouth." HE ASKS: Why is it written: "and (he) rolled," and "they rolled," instead of 'he removed', and 'they removed'? Because "they rolled" is the rolling of the Satan, for they roll everything upon him and shake him so he cannot accuse.

104. And Ya'akov alone ROLLED THE STONE and needed help from no one. For Ya'akov was the chosen of the fathers, THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Because he prevailed against Esav in this world, he could prevail above. In everything, there is need first of an action BELOW.

105. Ya'akov inherited two worlds, the Revealed World and the Hidden World. Accordingly, from the Hidden World, FROM LEAH, the six tribes were issued. And from the Revealed world, FROM RACHEL, the other two tribes were issued. Also, the Hidden world, LEAH, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, issued six ends, and the Revealed world, RACHEL, issued two. They are the two Cherubs, Matatron and Sandalfon. And Ya'akov was located between the two worlds, THE REVEALED AND THE HIDDEN, in their very shape. Therefore, all Leah said was covered, and all that Rachel said was in the open.

עד כאן סתרי תורה

106. "And he looked, and behold a well is in the field." Rabbi Elazar said: It is written, "Hearken to me, you that follow after Righteousness" (Yeshayah 51:1), MEANING THOSE WHO FOLLOW THE NUKVA, THAT IS CALLED 'RIGHTEOUSNESS', TO AMEND IT; those who claim the secret of the faith AND THEREBY THE JUDGMENT TO CORRECT THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT COLUMN; those who cleave to the bond of the faith, THE SECRET OF THE BOND IN THE RIGHT COLUMN; AND those who know the ways of the Supernal King, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. THE ADDENDUM HEREBY INVITES THOSE WHO ATTAINED THE THREE COLUMNS, WHO FOLLOW THE NUKVA, TO AMEND HER, TO HEarken TO THESE WORDS.

107. When the two COLUMNS move toward the one COLUMN, they receive it between their arms. Thus, two COLUMNS travel with the third between them. The first two are the seat of the prophets, from which they derive sustenance. The one in the middle is attached to both of them, and receives from AND INCLUDES them all.

108. The holy well is beneath them. It is THEN CALLED a 'field of holy apple trees', "for out of that well they watered the flocks," which are the Chariots of the winged ANGELS. Three are found lying upon the well. And this well is filled by them. This is the meaning of the verse: "for out of that well they watered the flocks." It is called 'Adonai', as it is written: "Adonai Elohim, You have begun" (Devarim 3:24), and, "and cause Your face to shine upon Your sanctuary that is desolate, for Adonai's sake" (Daniel 9:17). IT IS CALLED the 'Master (Heb. adon) of all the Earth', as it is written: "Behold, the Ark of the Covenant, (of) the Master of all the earth" (Yehoshua 3:11).

15. "And Ya'akov went out of Be'er Sheva," part two

Rabbi Aba explains the verse by citing another: "Happy are they who maintain justice and do Righteousness at all times." Those who study Torah and follow God's ways are freed from ruin--that is, "the power of death." Those unrighteous, on the other hand, are abandoned by the Shekinah and become vulnerable to the Evil Inclination, the temptation to do harm. This temptation is a powerful force in the world. One verse explains the other, Rabbi Elazar replies to Rabbi Aba, the sense that Ya'akov's leaving of the land of Israel symbolizes departure from a holy way of life.

The Relevance of this Passage

Ya'akov's departure from the Land of Israel is a metaphor for a man's departure from a pure and positive existence. Throughout life, we are lured by the material world where short-lived achievements are based on egocentric drives and ambitions. Spiritual achievements-which are eternal-come about through struggle to remain on the path of spiritual development. Here, we arouse the divine presence of the Shechinah, which protects us from seductions of the external world and the compelling impulses ignited by our Evil Inclination.

109. There is another explanation OF THE VERSE: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva, and went toward Charan." Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse: "Happy are they who maintain justice, and do righteousness at all times" (Tehilim 106:3). "Happy are they who maintain justice," happy are the children of Yisrael to whom the Holy One, blessed be He, gave the true Torah to study day and night. And whoever is occupied in studying the Torah attains freedom from everything, but especially freedom from death, which has no power over him. He who studies the Torah and attaches himself to it, holds the Tree of Life. If he relaxes his hold on the Tree of Life, the Tree of Death dwells upon him and seizes him. This is the meaning of the verse: "If you relax in the day of adversity, your strength is narrow" (Mishlei 24:10). The word "relax" means relaxing one's hold on the Torah.

109. דְּבַר אַחַר וַיֵּצֵא יַעֲקֹב מִבְּאֵר שֶׁבַע וַיִּלְךְ חֲרָנָה, רַבִּי אָבָא פָתַח וַאֲמַר, אֲשֶׁרִי שׁוֹמְרֵי מִשְׁפָּט עֲשֵׂה צְדָקָה בְּכָל עֵת. אֲשֶׁרִי שׁוֹמְרֵי מִשְׁפָּט, זָכָאִין אִינוּן יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְּקוּדְשָׁא בִּיהּ יְהֵב לֹון אֹרְיִיתָא דְקָשׁוּט, לְאִשְׁתַּדְּלָא בְּהּ יַמְמָא וְלִילִי, דְּהָא כָּל מָאן דְּאִשְׁתַּדְּלָא בְּאֹרְיִיתָא, אֵית לִיהּ חִירוּ מְכֻלָּא, חִירוּ מִן מוֹתָא, דְּלֹא יִכְלָא לְשַׁלְטָאָה עֲלֵיהּ, וְהָא אֹקְמוּהּ, בְּגִין דְּכָל מָאן דְּאִשְׁתַּדְּלָא בְּאֹרְיִיתָא, וְאִתְאַחֵיד בְּהּ, אִתְאַחֵיד בְּאִלְנָא דְחַיִּי, וְאִי אֲרַפִּי גְרַמִּיהּ מְאִילְנָא דְחַיִּי, הָא אִילְנָא דְמוֹתָא שְׂרִיא עֲלוּי, וְאִתְאַחֵיד בִּיהּ, הַהִ"ד, הִתְרַפִּית בְּיוֹם צָרָה צָר כַּחֲכָה. הִתְרַפִּית: אִי אֲרַפִּי יְדוּי מְאֹרְיִיתָא.

110. "...in the day of adversity, your strength (Heb. kochechah) is narrow." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "your strength is narrow?" AND HE ANSWERS: The strength (ko'ach) of koh, WHICH TWO SEGMENTS CONSTITUTE KOCHECHAH, is narrow. IF HE RELAXES HIS HOLD ON THE TORAH, THEN THE STRENGTH OF THE SHECHINAH, CALLED 'KOH', IS NARROW, AND SHE DOES NOT PROTECT HIM. This is because THE SHECHINAH is always within the right, and always protects man when he walks the paths of the Torah. She pushes the evil out so it will not come near the man to denounce him. But when a man deviates from the ways of the Torah and relaxes his hold on it, then the strength of koh, THE SHECHINAH, is narrow, because the evil, the left, has power over that man and pushes koh, THE SHECHINAH, out until the place becomes narrow with hardship.

111. Another explanation of the verse, "your strength is narrow," is that when a man holds on to the ways of the Torah, he is beloved above and below. He becomes the beloved of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "and Hashem loved him" (II Shmuel 2:24). But when a man deviates from the ways of the Torah, then the strength is narrow (Heb. tzar) of koh, THE SHECHINAH. SHE becomes his enemy (Heb. tzar), and he becomes hers. And that evil, THE EVIL INCLINATION, rules over him and becomes his accuser in this world and the world to come.

112. Come and behold: this evil, the Evil Inclination, reigns in the world in many ways and has much power in the world. It is the tyrant serpent by which Adam sinned and by which people in the world fail. They draw it upon themselves, until it takes their souls from them.

113. Come and behold: when that EVIL INCLINATION reigns, it reigns over the body, because as soon as it takes control over the body, the soul leaves it. For once the body is defiled, the soul leaves it and ascends. But the Evil Inclination has no power TO REMOVE A MAN'S SOUL until it receives permission to do so. Many that come from the side OF THE EVIL INCLINATION rule over the world. We learned that all the deeds done in the world rule over them THROUGH TEMPTATIONS. It has ministers and servants whose service pertains to worldly deeds, WHO TEMPT MEN TO DO EVIL.

114. Therefore, it is the end of the left. It has been explained that there is the end of the right and the end of the left. This end of the left is "the end of all flesh," (Bereshheet 6:13) and not the end of all spirit. The secret IS THAT THERE ARE TWO ENDS. One is the end of all flesh, NAMELY, THE ONE IN CHARGE OF THE BODY. The other is the end of all spirit, THE ONE IN CHARGE OVER A MAN'S SPIRIT. Therefore, THE END OF ALL SPIRIT is internal AND THE END OF ALL FLESH is external. The INTERNAL one is holy and the EXTERNAL one is defiled. This has already been explained.

115. Come and behold: WITHIN THE RIGHT SIDE, THE SOUTH, there is a deep mystery of the faith, the mystery of the male world, ZEIR ANPIN, and the female world, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. And the holiest and deepest secrets of the faith, THE NUKVA, come from here. All life and freedom, goodness and lights are from here. All benedictions and spreading of alms and loving love--everything comes from this side, THE RIGHT SIDE. This is the secret of the south.

116. From the north side, the grades spread until the dross of gold reaches down TO BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH of the unholy side. The unholy filth grasps THE MALE above and THE FEMALE below. Here, male and female join together. They are the rider ON THE SERPENT and the serpent, which is the secret of the male and female. This is the secret of Azazel, WHICH INCLUDES THE MALE AND FEMALE OF DEFILEMENT.

117. From here the grades are divided, and several aspects come into the world. They emanate from here and rule over the world. All of them are aspects of defilement and are ministers in charge of the world. Come and behold: when Esav was born into the world, he was red as a rose--AS THE RED COLOR ALLUDES TO THE LEFT--and hairy as a goat--WHICH ALLUDES TO DEFILEMENT, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND GOATS SHALL HOP ABOUT THERE" (YESHAYAH 13:21). From here came all the chiefs and powerful officials who rule over the world. This has already been explained.

118. Come and behold: "happy are they who maintain justice" (Tehilim 106:3). THAT IS, happy are those who preserve the faith of the Holy One, blessed be He, because He is called 'Justice', and it behooves man to maintain justice and keep himself from turning the other way. This is because the Holy One, blessed be He, is Justice, and all His ways are just.

119. "...and do righteousness at all times..." (Ibid.). HE ASKS: Can a man possibly do righteous deeds at all times? HE ANSWERS: He who walks in the path of the Torah and performs righteous deeds for those who need them IS JUDGED TO BE PERFORMING RIGHTEOUSNESS AT ALL TIMES. For whoever is charitable to the poor, increases righteousness, NAMELY, THE NUKVA CALLED 'RIGHTEOUSNESS', above and below, BY BRINGING ABOUT A UNION OF MALE AND FEMALE ABOVE AND THE POURING OF PLENTY OF BLESSINGS DOWNWARD.

120. Come and behold: when whoever is striving to perform righteousness does so, that righteousness rises and reaches that place of Ya'akov, the upper Chariot, THE NUKVA CALLED 'PLACE', and draws blessings on that place from the source of all springs, FROM BINAH, FROM WHICH COME ALL MOCHIN. From that righteousness, THE NUKVA, AFTER RECEIVING BLESSINGS FROM BINAH, he blesses the lower ones and all the Chariots OF THE ANGELS and the supernal armies. All are blessed, and the lights are properly added. All THE LOWER BEINGS AND THE ANGELS are called "time," BECAUSE THEY ARE DRAWN FROM THE NUKVA CALLED 'TIME'. Therefore, it is written: "and do righteousness at all times," WHICH MEANS THEY INCREASES ABUNDANTLY FOR ALL THE INHABITANTS OF THE THREE WORLDS--BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH--THAT EMANATE FROM THE NUKVA, AND ARE CALLED 'TIME,' LIKE THE NUKVA.

121. Come and behold: when the children of Yisrael were in the Holy Land, they drew blessings downward. When the children of Yisrael left the Holy Land and came under the dominion of another, blessings were withheld from the world.

122. Come and behold: Ya'akov was under the Holy Government IN THE LAND OF YISRAEL. After he left the land, he came under another dominion, WHICH IS NOT HOLY. Before he came under another dominion, the Holy One, blessed be He, was revealed to him in a dream. He saw what he saw, and the holy angels walked with him until he sat upon the well. After he sat on the well, the water rose toward him. So it was with Moshe because there his wife chanced to meet him. The secret OF THE RISING WATER of the well is that it only rises when it sees its union, NAMELY, ITS SPOUSE to be joined with him.

123. Rabbi Aba said that all these verses contradict each other. First, it is written: "And Ya'akov went out from Be'er Sheva, and went toward Charan," and Lavan dwelt in Charan. IF IT BE SO, why then did Ya'akov leave Charan, as it is written: "Then Ya'akov lifted up his feet, and went to the land of the people of the east" (Bereshheet 29:1)? How do we know that Lavan dwelt in Charan? Because it is written: "And Ya'akov said to them, 'My brethren, where are you from?' And they said, 'of Charan are we.' And he said to them, 'Do you know Lavan the son of Nachor?' And they said, 'We know'" (Ibid. 4-5). This teaches us that Lavan then lived in Charan. WHY DID YA'AKOV TRAVEL TO THE LAND OF THE PEOPLE OF THE EAST?

119. עוֹשֶׂה צְדָקָה בְּכֹל עֵת, וְכִי בְּכֹל עֵת, יָכִיל בְּרֵנֶשׁ, לְמַעַבְד צְדָקָה. אֲלֵא, מֵאֵן דִּישְׁתַּדֵּל בְּאוֹרְחוֹי דְּאוֹרֵייתָא, וְעֵבִיד צְדָקָה, עִם אֵינוֹן דְּאַצְטְרִיכוּ לָהּ, דְּכָל מֵאֵן דְּעֵבִיד צְדָקָה עִם מִסְכְּנָא, אֲסָגִי הָהִיא צְדָקָה לְעֵילָא וְתַתָּא.

124. Only Ya'akov thought: I want to join the Shechinah, THE SECRET OF THE WELL, because I want to take a wife. My father, when he was to be married, sent a servant to find a source of water where a wife chanced to be found for my father. But in this place, CHARAN, I did not find a source, a well, or water. Immediately, therefore, "Ya'akov lifted up his feet, and went to the land of the people of the east," where he chanced upon the well and met his wife, as we have said.

124. אֵלָא, יַעֲקֹב אָמַר, אֲנִי בַעֲיִנָא לְמִיעַל בְּשִׁכְיִנְתָּא, בְּגִין דְּבַעֲיִנָא לְאַזְדוּגָא. אָבָא בְּדִ אֲתַנְסִיב, וְשָׂדֵר לְעַבְדָּא, אֲשַׁכַּח עֵינָא דְמִיָּא, וְכַדִּין אֲזַדְמַנַּת לִיהּ לְאַבָּא אֲתַתָּא, וְהָא בְּאַתְרֵי דָא, לָא אֲשַׁכְחָנָא, לָא עֵינָא, וְלָא בִירָא, וְלָא מִיָּא, וּמִיָּד וַיִּשָּׂא יַעֲקֹב רַגְלָיו וַיֵּלֶךְ אֶרְצָה בְּנֵי קֶדֶם, וַתִּמְן אֲזַדְמַנַּת לִיהּ בִירָא, בְּדַקְאֲמָרָן, וְאֲזַדְמַנַּת לִיהּ אֲתַתִּיהּ.

125. Rabbi Elazar said: Assuredly, YA'AKOV was in Charan, WHICH IS THE LAND OF THE EAST. And this well was in the jurisdiction OF CHARAN. If this be so, why is it written: "and she ran and told her father" (Bereshheet 29:12)? This is because it was close to the town.

125. רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר אָמַר, חֶרֶן, תִּמְנָן הוּא וְדָאִי, וְהָאִי בִירָא בְּחַקְלָא הוּא, דָּאִי לָאוּ הֵכִי, אֲמַאי כְּתִיב וַתֵּרֶץ וַתַּגֵּד לְאָבִיהָ, אֵלָא בְּגִין דְּהוּא סְמִיךְ לְמַתָּא.

126. Rabbi Elazar mused that if a wife chanced to Ya'akov by the well, why not Leah? She gave to Ya'akov all those tribes. HE ANSWERS: The Holy One, blessed be He, did not want to unite her with Ya'akov openly, as it is written: "And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah," (Bereshheet 29:25) but this was not revealed earlier, FOR THIS WAS THE WILL OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE.

127. Another reason WHY RACHEL WAS SEEN AND NOT LEAH was so that Rachel's beauty would catch the eye and heart of Ya'akov, so he would establish his dwelling there. Because of her, Leah too was united with him, and gave birth to all those tribes. HE ASKS: How did Ya'akov recognize Rachel, AS HE KNEW HER NOT? The shepherds told him, as it is written: "and behold, Rachel his daughter comes with the sheep" (Bereshheet 29:6).

127. וְתוּ, בְּגִין לְאַמְשַׁכָּא עֵינָא וְלָבָא דְיַעֲקֹב, בְּשִׁמְרוֹ דְּרַחֵל, לְמַעַבְדֵי דִּיזוּרִיָּה תִמְנָן, וּבְגִינְהָ אֲזַדְוּגַת לִיהּ לְאַה, וְאוֹקִימַת כָּל אֵינֻן שְׁבַטִין. בְּמָה יֵרַע יַעֲקֹב מֵאֵן הִיא רַחֵל. אֵלָא דְּאֵינֻן רַעִיָּין אֲמָרוּ לִיהּ, דְּכְתִיב וַהֲנִהּ רַחֵל בָּתוּ בְּאֵה עִם הַצֹּאן.

16. "I will serve you seven years"

This mysterious passage interprets the seven years Ya'akov served Lavan to win Rachel's hand as symbolizing the seven Sfirot. The secret in the matter is in the phrase, "and they seemed to him but a few days"--since they were served in the hidden or unrevealed world.

The Relevance of this Passage

A man cannot win the hand of his soulmate until he merits her through his own spiritual growth and transformation. Ya'akov's seven years of service corresponds to the years, or lifetimes, that we must endure before the reunification of two halves can take place. When this spiritual truth is ingrained in our consciousness, and if we are proactive in the removal of our negative traits, we can hasten the arrival of our true soulmate.

128. Come and behold. It is written: "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter" (Bereshheet 29:18). HE ASKS: Why did Ya'akov say "seven years" instead of ten months or one year? HE ANSWERS: Ya'akov acted wisely so that people would not say that he lusted after Rachel's beauty, but WOULD KNOW that he acted wisely. For the moon, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, is seven years old, MEANING IT NEEDS TO BE BUILT BY THE SEVEN SFIROT--CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD AND MALCHUT. And all the seven upper years--CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD YESOD AND MALCHUT OF BINAH--rested on Ya'akov before he married Rachel so that they would suit her properly, THAT IS, GIVE OF THE SEVEN SFIROT OF BINAH TO HER SEVEN SFIROT. For at first Ya'akov took everything FROM BINAH and then he came to her, so that he should be CONSIDERED AS ZEIR ANPIN, the heaven, and she should be CONSIDERED THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, the earth.

129. The secret of the matter is in the phrase, "and they seemed to him but a few days." HE ASKS: What is "a few (Heb. achadim) days?" HE ANSWERED that he considered all seven years as the SEVEN upper YEARS FROM BINAH, which are united (Heb. achadot) BY ONE UNION and never separated. They are bound to each other. "...for the love he had to her..." MEANS THAT HE LOVED HER, because she is to him as the supernal UNION WITHIN BINAH.

130. Come and behold: even Lavan hinted at these seven SFIROT--although he did not know what he was saying, for he opened the discussion with the words, "It is better (lit. 'good') that I give her to you..." Rabbi Aba said: Surely this is so. He worked seven years, WHICH ARE THE SEVEN SFIROT, to be united with the Shmitah (Sabbatical year,) NAMELY, TO PASS THE SEVEN SFIROT TO THE NUKVA, RACHEL CALLED 'SABBATICAL YEAR'. Rabbi Elazar said: Come and behold. Everywhere the Jubilee is undisclosed, while the Shmitah is disclosed.

131. Come and behold: when Ya'akov served the first seven years, a voice resounded, saying, "from the world to the world" (Tehilim 106:48). THIS MEANS THAT THERE IS A DRAWING FROM THE HIDDEN WORLD, LEAH, TO THE DISCLOSED WORLD, RACHEL. The undisclosed world above, which is jubilee, NAMELY LEAH, is the starting point, AND NOT THE REVEALED WORLD, WHICH IS RACHEL. And these GRADES, which are undisclosed and not revealed to us, are from the Jubilee and were therefore hidden from Ya'akov, who did not even know THAT THEY WERE FOR LEAH, THE JUBILEE. He thought they were for the Shmitah, THAT IS, FOR RACHEL. ANOTHER REASON WAS to make him start from the supernal world, LEAH, it was hidden from him THAT THEY BELONGED TO LEAH, because the Jubilee is undisclosed. BEING CLOSED AND COVERED BY CHOCHMAH, HE DID NOT WANT TO START AND DRAW FROM IT, UNLESS HE THOUGHT THEY BELONGED TO THE DISCLOSED WORLD. Later, when the seven undisclosed years of the Jubilee were over, Ya'akov served the seven disclosed Shmitah FOR RACHEL, and YA'AKOV was adorned in both worlds, THE UNDISCLOSED AND THE DISCLOSED WORLD, and was united with them.

17. Upper Righteous and lower Righteous

This passage concerns the hidden significance of Ya'akov's sons with Leah and Rachel, especially the righteous Yosef and Benjamin. The Zohar is again employing the language of metaphor to trace the flow of Light through the complex structure of the spiritual worlds. The Zohar intricately describes a perfect and exact system--a science of the supernal worlds, a physics of spiritual Light.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section connects the reader to the metaphysical infrastructure of reality, the source of our soul, our light, and, ultimately, our happiness and fulfillment.

132. Come and behold: Leah gave birth to six sons and one daughter, and so it should be, because six directions are established upon her, THAT IS YA'AKOV, WHO IS TIFERET, INCLUDING CHESD, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD. These six and the one daughter came out according to a supernal mystery. THE SIX SONS CORRESPOND TO THE SIX EXTREMITIES, CHESD, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD OF YA'AKOV, AND THE ONE DAUGHTER CORRESPONDS TO MALCHUT.

132. תָּא חֲזִי, לֵאָה אוֹלִידַת שֵׁית בְּנִין וּבִרְתָּא חַדָּא. וְהִכִּי אֲתַחֲזִי, דְּהָא שֵׁית סְטֵרִין, קִימִין עֲלֵהּ וְאֵלִין שֵׁית, וּבִרְתָּא חַדָּא, בְּרָזָא עֲלָהּ נִפְקָא.

133. Rachel bore two righteous sons, and so it should be, BECAUSE RACHEL is THE SECRET OF the Shmitah that sits forever between two righteous ones, as it is written: "The righteous shall inherit the land" (Tehilim 37:29). These are the righteous above IN ZEIR ANPIN, and the righteous below IN THE NUKVA. From the righteous above, the supernal waters are drawn, THE SECRET OF DIRECT LIGHT FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD, and from the righteous below, the Nukva wells up water to the male, THE SECRET OF REFLECTED LIGHT FROM BELOW UPWARD, in complete passion. AND SO IT COMES TO PASS THAT SHE HAS the righteous ones on both sides. As the supernal male, ZEIR ANPIN is situated between two females, BINAH AND NUKVA, so the lower female--MEANING THE NUKVA OF THE CHEST AND BELOW ZEIR ANPIN--is situated between two righteous ones, YOSEF AND BINYAMIN.

134. Therefore Yosef and Binyamin are both righteous. Yosef merited to be the righteous above, IN ZEIR ANPIN, because he kept the sign of the Covenant. Binyamin is the righteous below, IN THE NUKVA HERSELF, so that the Sabbatical year, THE NUKVA, shall be adorned between the two righteous ones, Yosef, and Binyamin.

135. HE ASKS: Was Binyamin righteous? AND HE ANSWERS: Yes, because never in his life did he transgress in regard to the sign of the Covenant, although he was not tried by deeds as was Yosef. HE ASKS: If this be so, why is he called 'Righteous' IF HE WAS NEVER CONFRONTED BY TEMPTATION? THERE ARE MANY WHO KEEP THE COVENANT ALL THEIR LIVES, BUT THEY ARE NOT CALLED 'RIGHTEOUS' UNLESS THEY ARE TRIED. HE ANSWERS: All the days Ya'akov was in mourning for Yosef, he did not perform his marital duty. FOR THAT, HE DESERVED TO BE CALLED 'RIGHTEOUS'. You may say that when Yosef was taken from Ya'akov, Binyamin was a mere child and not married. HE ANSWERS: Even when he married later, he did not want to perform his marital duty.

136. HE INSISTED AGAIN, YET we learned that when Yosef asked Binyamin "have you a wife?", he answers: "yes." He asked him, "have you sons?" He said, "yes." He then said to him, "what are their names." He replied, "they are named after my brothers, Gera and Na'aman..." as it is written: "And the sons of Binyamin were Bela and Becher..." (Bereshheet 46:21). But you say he did not have conjugal intercourse.

137. He said to him: I do. At that time, he did not yet have sons. HE THUS DISAGREES WITH THAT AGGADAH. And if you say IT IS EXPLICIT FROM THE VERSE, "And the sons of Binyamin were Bela and Becher," when they came to Egypt, this is surely so, FOR HE ALREADY HAD SONS. Yet as long as Ya'akov mourned for Yosef, Binyamin did not perform his marital duty or beget any children. Binyamin said: My brother Yosef was the sign of the Covenant of my Father, AS YA'AKOV IS TIFERET, WHICH INCLUDES CHESOD, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD, AND YOSEF IS YESOD OF YA'AKOV, because the Covenant, YESOD, is the final part of the body, TIFERET. Because he is lost, I will guard my brother's place, THAT IS, I WILL BE THE ASPECT OF THE RIGHTEOUS YESOD, THE ENDING OF TIFERET, LIKE YOSEF.

138. You may say that when Yosef was lost, he was not yet righteous, because one cannot be righteous before one is tried, AND AT THAT TIME HE WAS NOT YET TEMPTED. HE ANSWERS: Everybody knew it from Ya'akov, who knew that Yosef would inherit this place, MEANING THAT HE KNEW FROM THE HOLY SPIRIT THAT HE WOULD BE TRIED BY THE WIFE OF POTIFAR AND WOULD MERIT TO BE CALLED 'RIGHTEOUS'. Therefore, he stopped a long time at the house of Lavan AND DID NOT RETURN HOME before the body was perfected. And the final part of the body is the Covenant, NAMELY, YOSEF. Therefore it is written: "And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Yosef, THAT YA'AKOV SAID TO LAVAN, SEND ME AWAY..." (Bereshheet 30:25). He said: Now THAT YOSEF, YESOD, IS BORN, surely the body, TIFERET, is perfected. Because the body is perfected, I desire to go "TO MY OWN PLACE, AND TO MY COUNTRY," AS YA'AKOV KNEW FROM THE HOLY SPIRIT THAT YOSEF IS OF THE ASPECT OF YESOD, AND FROM HIM EVERYONE ELSE KNEW AS WELL. Therefore, Binyamin knew and guarded his brother's way, THAT IS, HE BECAME THE RIGHTEOUS, YESOD, FOR HIS FATHER, INSTEAD YOSEF, AFTER HE WAS LOST.

139. When he came to Yosef, and he was found, NAMELY MADE HIMSELF KNOWN TO HIS BROTHERS, Binyamin returned home and performed his marital duty and begot children. Therefore the Holy One, blessed be He, made him Righteous below IN THE NUKVA, as Yosef was Righteous above IN ZEIR ANPIN. Thus did Rachel bear two sons, and Leah six sons and a daughter.

140. Therefore, the first seven years were undisclosed, because Ya'akov did not know THEY WERE FOR LEAH, as they stem from the Jubilee year, WHICH IS BINAH, THE SECRET OF THE HIDDEN WORLD. And the SEVEN YEARS of the Sabbatical year, THE DISCLOSED WORLD, were revealed, AS HE KNEW HE WAS SERVING FOR RACHEL. Because of the Sabbatical year, the Disclosed WORLD, he ACTUALLY served for the Jubilee year, the Hidden WORLD. THAT IS, HE THOUGHT HE SERVED FOR RACHEL, THE SECRET OF THE SABBATICAL YEAR, BUT ACTUALLY HE SERVED FOR LEAH, THE SECRET OF THE JUBILEE YEAR, as it is written: "And Ya'akov served seven years for Rachel." He served seven undisclosed years--NAMELY, FROM THE ASPECT OF THE HIDDEN WORLD, LEAH--for Rachel, and served the supernal seven years, THE SEVEN SFIROT OF LEAH, and so became attached through them to the two worlds. WHILE HE THOUGHT HE SERVED FOR THE DISCLOSED WORLD, HE WAS SERVING FOR THE HIDDEN WORLD. From this we learn that from the disclosed, a man reaches that which is hidden.

141. You may say that he served the first seven years for the Jubilee, WHICH IS LEAH, and it is written of the Jubilee, "seven times seven years" (Vayikra 25:8). There are seven years, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND HE SERVED SEVEN YEARS," BUT what happened to seven times SEVEN? DID HE HAVE TO WORK 49 YEARS, THE NUMBER OF THE YEARS OF THE JUBILEE? HE ANSWERS: These are the seven days he kept at the feast of Leah, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND FULFILLED HER WEEK" (BERESHEET 29:28)--which amounts TO 49, because each day represents one SEVEN, as it is written: "Seven times a day I praise You because of Your righteous Judgments" (Tehilim 119:164). THUS, there are seven in each day called one, seven times seven AMOUNTS TO 49, THE NUMBER OF THE YEARS OF THE JUBILEE.

141. ואי תימא, אי הכי דשנין קדמאי מיובלא אינון, הא ביובלא כתיב שבע שנים, שבע פעמים, שבע שנים שכיחי, שבע פעמים אן אינון. אלא, אינון שבעה יומין דנטר בהלולא דלאה אשלימו חושבנא, דהא כל יומא פעם אחת אקרי, דכתיב שבע ביום הללתיוך על משפטי צדקך. וכל שבעה אשתלים בשבעה יומין, ד בכל יומא, דאקרי פעם אחת.

142. In regards to Rachel it was not so, for he did not keep the seven days OF HER FEAST, but seven years only after HER MARRIAGE. You may say, if this be so, he should have served first the years of the Shmitah and then joined the Sabbatical year, RACHEL. FOR HE HAD TO DRAW FIRST THE SFIROT FOR HER, AS HE DID FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR, LEAH. HE ANSWERS THAT because he was intent upon serving, it was considered as if he already did serve, AND IMMEDIATELY THE SEVEN SFIROT FOR RACHEL WERE DRAWN TO HIM. Rabbi Aba came to him and kissed him. He said: Blessed be the Merciful One, that I merited an understanding of this verse. It is written of this place--FROM THE CHEST AND DOWN OF ZEIR ANPIN, NAMELY THE DISCLOSED WORLD, RACHEL--"Hashem was well pleased for his Righteousness' sake, to magnify Torah, and to make it glorious" (Yeshayah 42:21).

142. וּבְרַחֵל לֹא הָיָה כֵן, דְּלֹא נָטַר ז' יוֹמִין, אֲלָא שִׁבְעַת שָׁנִין דְּפָלַח לְבִתְרָא. וְאִי תִימָא, אִי הָכִי, שְׁנֵין דְּשִׁמְטָה הָיָה לִיהּ לְמַפְלַח קוּרְסָא, וּלְבִתְרָא לְאַזְדְּוּגָא בְּשִׁמְטָה. אֲלָא בֵּין דְּקָבִיל עֲלֵיהּ לְמַפְלַח, בְּאִילּוּ פָּלַח לֹון. אֲתָא רַבִּי אַבְא וּנְשָׁקִיה. אָמַר בְּרִיךְ רַחֲמֵנָא דְּזִכְיָנָא לְהָאִי קְרָא, עַל הָהוּא אֲתֵר כְּתִיב ה' חֲפֵץ לְמַעַן צְדָקוֹ יַגְדִּיל תּוֹרָה וַיֵּאדָּוֶר.

18. Four joints

This passage seems to assign lesser importance to the four sons that Ya'akov had with the handmaidens of Leah and Rachel. However, the Zohar reveals that the spiritual system and supernal structure of reality is perfect, complete, and includes all components, no matter how irrelevant they might appear. Though the four children are not present among the Sfirot, they are included in the symbolic body of Adam Kadmon as the joints of his arms and legs.

The Relevance of this Passage

A good computer system depends on a powerful microprocessor. If a tiny, "insignificant" wire is absent or defective, the entire system is rendered inoperable. All the elements are, in a manner of speaking, equally important. Similarly, everyone in this world is as important as the most righteous sage, including those we might consider to be on a lower level of spirituality than ourselves. It behooves us to stop judging others, and to recognize that every person plays a vital role in the spiritual structure of humanity. This passage instills this wisdom in our consciousness, so that we may begin living it every day.

143. Rabbi Elazar continued the discussion: We have learned that Leah surely bore six sons and one daughter, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD AND MALCHUT. And Rachel bore two sons, THE TWO UPPER AND LOWER RIGHTEOUS ONES. This is also so. But what of the four sons of the handmaids? What is their connection? AS IN THE SONS OF RACHEL AND LEAH THERE ARE ALREADY ALL THE SFIROT. HE ANSWERS: They are the four knots called 'hinder parts', of whom it is written: "and all their hinder parts were inward" (I Melachim 7:25).

143. תּוֹ אָמַר רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר, הָא דְּאֲתָמַר, לֵאָה אוֹלִידַת שֵׁית בְּנֵין וּבִרְתָא חֲדָא, הָכִי הוּא וְדָאִי, רַחֵל תְּרֵי בְנֵין וְדָאִי, בְּנֵי שְׁפָחוֹת אַרְבַּעָה, תְּקוּנָא דְּלֵהוֹן הֵיךְ קִיּוּמֵי. אֲלָא אֵינּוּן אַרְבַּע קְשָׁרִים דְּאֶקְרוּן אַחֲוִירִים, דְּכְתִיב וְכֹל אַחֲוִירֵיהֶם בִּיתָה.

144. In the right arm, CHESED, there are three joints, AS THE ARM IS DIVIDED INTO THREE PARTS--THE BICEPS, THE ARM, AND THE HAND. THE PARTS ARE CONNECTED BY THREE JOINTS. However the joint in the middle is bigger than the others and is CONSIDERED AS a hinder part protruding outward. Similarly, there is ONE MIDDLE JOINT OF THE THREE JOINTS in the left arm; one OF THE THREE JOINTS in the right leg; and one OF THE THREE JOINTS in the left leg. When everything is properly arranged, all four hind joints COME inside THE BODY, in keeping with the verse, "and all their hinder parts were inward."

144. דְּהָא בְּדְרוּעָא יְמִינָא, תְּלַת קְשָׁרִין אֲבַל קְשָׁרָא חַד בְּאֲמֻצְעֵיתָא דְּאִיהוּ רַב וְאִיהוּ אַחֲוֹר, דְּאֲשַׁתָּאָר לְבַר. וְכֵן חַד בְּדְרוּעָא שְׂמָאלָא, וְכֵן חַד בִּירְכָא יְמִינָא, וְכֵן חַד בִּירְכָא שְׂמָאלָא, וְכֵן אֲתַתְּקֵן בְּלָא, אֲשַׁתְּבַחוּ בְּלֵהוּ בִּיתָה, לְקִיּוּמָא קְרָא דְּכְתִיב וְכֹל אַחֲוִירֵיהֶם בִּיתָה.

145. All the other joints, EXCEPT FOR THESE FOUR, are on the same plane WITH THE MEMBERS OF THE BODY; only these four protrude out of the arms and legs to indicate the sons of the handmaids. For although they are of the twelve TRIBES, they are not of the same rank as the sons of Leah and Rachel. Therefore, they protrude out OF THE ARMS AND LEGS.

145. כֹּל שְׂאָר קְשָׁרִין, בְּלֵהוּ אֲתַחְזִיין בְּמִישַׁר וְאֵלִין נְפִקִין, לְבַר מְדְרוּעֵין, וּלְבַר מִירְכִין, לְאַתְחַזָּא בְּבֵין הַשְּׁפָחוֹת, דְּאֵף עַל גַּב דְּאֵינּוּן בְּמַנְיָנָא, לֹא חֲשִׁיבֵי כְּבֵין רַחֵל וְלֵאָה. וּבְגִינֵי כֵן נְפִקֵי לְבַר.

146. Another explanation is that these SONS OF THE HANDMAIDS are the four JOINTS which force all the other joints to move; these four knots carry the others. Rabbi Aba said: Surely this is so, and therefore they are all connected as one.

146. דְּבַר אַחַר אֵלִין אֵינּוּן אַרְבַּע, דְּכֹל שְׂאָר קְשָׁרִין נְטִלֵי בְּגִינֵיהוּ, וְאֵלִין נְטִלֵי לֹון. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבְא, הָכִי הוּא וְדָאִי, וְעַד בְּלָא מִתְתַּקֵּן בְּחֲדָא.

19. "And Hashem saw that Leah was hated"

The Zohar reflects on the symbolic importance of Ya'akov's relations with Leah, whom he hated in public but loved in private, and who bore him six sons and one daughter. Ya'akov was unaware that his true relationship with Leah was hidden. She had a direct relation to the Eternal Mother, and therefore most of Ya'akov's sons came from her. In this same way, God's true intentions hidden from us.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our perceptions often deceive us, as hidden truths lurk behind the physical existence. Though it appeared that Ya'akov hated Leah, a profound spiritual love existed on a deeper level. The lives of many of us are like that. Hence, the Light of this passage instills within us a keen awareness and desire to probe to hidden levels of the relationships and events that life presents us.

147. "And Hashem saw that Leah was hated" (Beresheet 29:31). Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "He makes the barren woman to keep house, and be a joyful mother of sons, Haleluyah" (Tehilim 113:9). The verse, "He makes the barren woman (also: 'the principal part') to keep house," refers to Rachel, the principal part of the house, and "a joyful mother of sons" refers to Leah, WHO BORE SIX SONS AND ONE DAUGHTER.

148. According to another explanation, "He makes the barren woman to keep house," refers to the Sabbatical year, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, which is the principal part, because the whole world is guided by her. "...a joyful mother of sons..." refers to the Jubilee year, BINAH, on which all joy and bliss in all the worlds OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH depend. FOR THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN HAS NOTHING OF HERSELF EXCEPT WHAT ZEIR ANPIN RECEIVES FROM BINAH AND PASSES ON TO HER. THEN SHE PASSES IT ON TO ALL THE WORLDS. THUS, ALL JOY IN THE WORLDS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH COMES FROM BINAH. This verse comprises everything, because it includes all in the secrets of Holiness, NAMELY, THE HIDDEN WORLD AND THE DISCLOSED WORLD. Therefore, the verse ends with Halleluyah, WHICH IS THE HIGHEST OF ALL PRAISES IN THE BOOK OF TEHILIM.

149. "And Hashem saw that Leah was hated." HE ASKS: Why was she hated? The sons of a hated wife cannot be decent sons, yet we see that all the good sons came from Leah. Now you say that Leah was hated. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly, the Jubilee year is always the Hidden World, and its words are never revealed. Therefore, all its acts were hidden from Ya'akov. THAT MEANS THAT SHE WAS LOVED BY HIM IN PRIVATE, BUT IN PUBLIC IT SEEMED AS IF SHE WAS HATED.

150. Come and behold: the lower world, WHICH IS RACHEL, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, is revealed; it is the beginning of the ascension of the grades. The supernal Chochmah OF ARICH ANPIN is the starting point for everything FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD, as the lower world is Chochmah, the starting point FROM BELOW UPWARD. Therefore, it is called "You," because it is a Sabbatical year and therefore disclosed.

151. And the supernal world is the Jubilee year, NAMELY, LEAH WHO IS DRAWN FROM IMA, and we call it "he," because all of its words are hidden. FOR THE WORD "HE" ALLUDES TO THE HIDDEN WORLD. The secret is as it is written of Leah: "And he lay with her that night (lit. 'that night he')" (Beresheet 30:16). It is therefore written: "And the Levite shall serve he," (Bemidbar 18:23) WHICH MEANS THAT THE LEVITE SERVES in order to draw blessings from "he" to all THE WORLDS. "He" is ever the supernal secret world, and Ya'akov willingly cleaved only to what was revealed. This is the secret of the verse: "and cleave to his wife" (Beresheet 2:24).

150. תָּא חֻזִי, עֲלֵמָא תְּתָאָה בְּאֶתְגְּלִיא אִיהוּ, וְהוּא שִׁירוּתָא דְּכֻלָּא, לְסַלְקָא בְּדִרְגוֹנֵי, בְּמָה דְּחֻכְמָה עֲלָאָה, הוּא שִׁירוּתָא דְּכֻלָּא, הִכִּי נִמִּי עֲלֵמָא תְּתָאָה, חֻכְמָה אִיהוּ, וְהִיא שִׁירוּתָא דְּכֻלָּא, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ, קְרִינֵן אֶתָּה, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ שְׂמֵחָה, וְאֶתְגְּלִיא.

151. וְעֲלֵמָא עֲלָאָה, דְּאִיהוּ יוֹבֵלָא, קְרִינָא, הוּא, דְּכָל מִלּוּי בְּאֶתְכַסִּיא אֵינֻן. וְרִזָּא דְּמִלְּה דְּלְאָה, דְּכֻתִּיב וַיִּשְׁכַּב עִמָּה בַּלַּיְלָה הוּא. וְע"ד כְּתִיב וְעַבְד הִלּוּי הוּא. בְּגִין לְאִמְשָׁכָא מִנִּיהּ בְּרַכָּאן לְכֻלָּא. הוּא: עֲלֵמָא עֲלָאָה דְּאֶתְכַסִּיא תְּדִיר, וְיַעֲקֹב בְּמָה דְּאֶתְכַסִּיא, לֹא אֶתְדַבֵּק בְּרַעוּתֶיהָ, אֲלָא בְּמָה דְּאֶתְגְּלִיא, וְרִזָּא דָּא דְּכֻתִּיב וְדָבַק בְּאִשְׁתּוֹ.

152. "And Hashem saw that Leah was hated," BECAUSE SHE IS DRAWN FROM IMA. From here it is understood that man has an aversion toward incest with his mother, BECAUSE HIS MOTHER IS THE SECRET OF THE HIDDEN WORLD, OF WHICH IT IS SAID, "THEREFORE SHALL A MAN LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER." Moreover, a man may stay alone with his mother anywhere, and not fear OF BEING ALONE WITH HER. Thus, all was unknown to Ya'akov, because the supernal world, LEAH DRAWN FROM IMA, is completely undisclosed.

152. וַיִּרְא ה' כִּי שְׂנוֹאָה לֵאָה. מֵהֶכָּא, דְּסָאנִי בְּרִי נִשְׁעָרִין דְּאִמִּיהָ, וַיִּתְיַחַדְבֵּר נֶשׁ עִם אִמִּיהָ בְּכָל אֶתְרָא, וְלֹא יִתְחַשֵּׁשׁ, וְהָא אֶתְעָרוּ, בֵּין מִתְיַחַד עִם אִמּוֹ. וְכֹלֵא אֶתְכִסִּי מִיַּעֲקֹב, דְּעֵלְמָא עֵלְאָה לֹא אֶתְגְּלִיא בְּלָל.

20. The tribes

The Zohar reflects that civilization as we know it started with Ya'akov. Before him, civilizations rose and fell without a trace. The sons of Ya'akov commence the twelve tribes of Israel. This too has a hidden significance.

The Relevance of this Passage

The twelve tribes correspond to the celestial influences emanating from the twelve constellations. The power of Ya'akov and the patriarchs is in their ability to rise above any negative influences streaming down from the heavens. Using the mystic secrets of the Torah, they took control over the signs and captained their own destiny. This governing power over the stars is bequeathed to the reader of this passage.

153. Come and behold: the world perseveres for Ya'akov's sake. It may be said that it does so for Avraham's sake, as it is written: "THESE ARE THE GENERATIONS OF THE HEAVEN AND OF THE EARTH when they were created (Heb. behibar'am)" (Beresheet 2:4); the Hebrew word contains the letters of the name of Avraham. THIS MEANS THAT THE GENERATIONS OF THE HEAVEN AND OF THE EARTH EXISTED DUE TO AVRAHAM. HE ANSWERS: Yet Avraham existed for the sake of Ya'akov, as it is written: "Therefore thus says Hashem, concerning the house of Ya'akov, who redeemed Avraham" (Yeshayah 29:22). Before that, the Holy One, blessed be He, used to build and destroy worlds. After Ya'akov came, the worlds were constructed from him and were not destroyed as before. This is the meaning of the verse: "thus says Hashem that created you, Ya'akov, and He that formed you, Yisrael..." (Yeshayah 43:1)

153. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּגִינִיהָ דְיַעֲקֹב, אֶתְקִיִּים עֵלְמָא, וְאִי תִימָא הָא בְּגִינִיהָ דְאַבְרָהָם, כַּד"א בְּהַבְרָאָם, אֶל תְּקִרִי בְּהַבְרָאָם אֶלֶּא בְּאַבְרָהָם. אֶלֶּא בְּגִינִיהָ דְיַעֲקֹב אֶתְקִיִּים אַבְרָהָם, דְּכִתִּיב כֹּה אָמַר ה' אֶל בֵּית יַעֲקֹב אֲשֶׁר פָּדָה אֶת אַבְרָהָם. וּמִקְדַּמַּת דְּנָא, הוּא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּנֵי עֵלְמִין וְחָרִיב לֹון, בֵּינָן דְּאֵתָא יַעֲקֹב מִנִּיהָ אֲשֶׁתְּכַלְלוּ עֵלְמִין, וְלֹא אֶתְחַרְבוּ בְּקַדְמֵיתָא, הֲדָא הוּא דְכִתִּיב, כֹּה אָמַר ה' בְּרַאךְ יַעֲקֹב וַיַּצְרַךְ יִשְׂרָאֵל וְגו'.

154. Come and behold. It is written: "Yisrael is My son, My firstborn... Let My son go, that he may serve me" (Shemot 4:22-23). For Yisrael is called 'a son to the Holy One, blessed be He,' because he cleaved to him, as it is written: "and what is his son's name, if you can tell" (Mishlei 30:4).

154. תָּא חֲזִי מַה כְּתִיב, בְּנֵי בְּכוֹרֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְכִתִּיב שְׁלַח אֶת בְּנֵי וַיַּעֲבֹדֵנִי, יִשְׂרָאֵל אֶקְרִי בֵּן לְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּגִין דְּאֶתְדַבֵּק בֵּיהּ, כְּמַה דְּאֵתָא אָמַר מַה שְּׁמוֹ וּמַה שְּׁם בְּנוֹ כִּי תִדַע.

155. When Leah bore Reuven, it is written: "and she called his name Reuven," (Beresheet 29:32) simply Reuven (lit. 'see, a son'), WITHOUT FURTHER EXPLANATION, AS SHE GAVE FOR SHIMON, SAYING "BECAUSE HASHEM HAS HEARD..." AND AS SHE GAVE FOR HER OTHER SONS. BECAUSE HE IS OF THE ASPECT OF CHESED, WHY DID SHE NOT CALL HIM BINYAMIN (LIT. 'SON OF THE RIGHT')? HE ANSWERS: This is because he was included within the three Columns which join to become one, THAT IS, WITH Shimon and Levi, THE LEFT AND THE CENTRAL COLUMNS. Why then DID SHE CALL THE THIRD SON Levi? The name Levi means accompaniment, which indicates the joining of all the aspects.

155. לֵאָה, כַּד אֹולִידַת לְרֵאוּבֵן מַה כְּתִיב, וְתִקְרָא אֶת שְׁמוֹ רֵאוּבֵן, רֵאוּבֵן סֵתָם, בְּגִין דְּאֶתְכַלִּיל בְּתַלְתָּ סֵטְרִין מִתְחַבְרִין כְּחָדָא שְׁמַעוֹן וְלוֹי. מֵאִי טַעְמָא לוֹי, כַּד"א לִיּוֹת, חֲבוּרָא דְכָל סֵטְרִין.

156. Rabbi Yehuda said that from this it is understood THAT HE COMPRISES THE THREE COLUMNS, as it is written: "the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power" (Beresheet 49:3). The translation into Aramaic is as follows: Birthright, THE CENTRAL COLUMN; Priesthood, THE RIGHT COLUMN; AND Kingdom, THE LEFT COLUMN," because Malchut is on the side of Gvurah. Therefore she simply called him Reuven, 'see, a son', TO SHOW THAT HE COMPRISES THE THREE COLUMNS.

157. Rabbi Aba said THAT SHE simply SAID: "see, a son," AND NOT, 'SON OF THE RIGHT', because he was included with Shimon and Levi. Thus, Leah reasoned, INCLUDING HIM WITHIN THE TWO OTHER SONS, as it is written: "Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have born him three sons," (Bereshheet 29:34) which indicates that there are three united as one, SO THAT EACH INCLUDES ALL THREE. SHE COULD THEREFORE NOT CALL HIM BINYAMIN ('SON OF THE RIGHT'), BECAUSE HE ALSO INCLUDED THE LEFT.

158. Come and behold: this is so, because the supernal Chariot comprises the fathers: AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, YA'AKOV, and King David, who joined them. And all these four supernal Chariots are the secret of the Holy Name, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. THE YUD-HEI-VAV ARE THE FATHERS, NAMELY THE THREE COLUMNS, AND THE LAST HEI IS THE SECRET OF KING DAVID, NAMELY, THE NUKVA. According TO THE SAME SECRET, Reuven, Shimon, and Levi ARE THE THREE COLUMNS, YUD-HEI-VAV, and Yehuda, who inherited the kingdom (Malchut,) IS THE SECRET OF THE LAST HEI OF THE NAME OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. Therefore, they are all in this place, THAT IS, IN THE MYSTERY OF THE CHARIOT. AS EACH OF THE THREE COLUMNS IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE CHARIOT, SO EACH OF THE TRIBES INCLUDES THE THREE COLUMNS.

159. It is written: "Now will I praise Hashem...and she left off (lit. 'stood from') bearing." This is because in here, YEHUDA, were completed the four legs OF THE THRONE, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT. REUVEN IS THE SECRET OF CHESED; SHIMON OF GVURAH; LEVI OF TIFERET; AND YEHUDA OF MALCHUT. HE ASKS: IN THE VERSE, "Now will I praise Hashem," why did she say OF THIS SON, "Now will I praise Hashem," why she did not say it OF THE REST OF THE SONS? HE ANSWERS: It is understood that as long as the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY, MALCHUT, was in exile, the Holy Name was not complete. Come and behold: although she had three sons before she bore Yehuda, WHO ARE CHESED, GVURAH AND TIFERET, the throne was not perfected. ONLY WITH YEHUDA'S BIRTH, MALCHUT, WAS THE THRONE PERFECTED. She therefore said, "Now will I praise Hashem," ONLY IN REGARD TO YEHUDA and not in regard to all of them. Therefore, "she stood off bearing." What is the meaning of this verse? It is that the chair stood on its legs, FOR WITH YEHUDA, THE FOUR LEGS OF THE THRONE, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT WERE COMPLETED.

160. "And she stood" NEEDS FURTHER EXPLANATION. Until now, MEANING UNTIL YEHUDA, WHO IS MALCHUT, she stood united. From here and down, NAMELY, BELOW MALCHUT OF ATZILUT, the World of Separation, IN THE THREE WORLDS, BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASYAH OF SEPARATION. It may be said that the two sons she bore after YEHUDA, YISASCHAR AND ZVULUN, are of this aspect, NAMELY, OF SEPARATION, BECAUSE THEY WERE BORN AFTER MALCHUT, YEHUDA. HE ANSWERS: No. These two sons, YISASCHAR AND ZVULUN, were joined TO REUVEN, SHIMON, AND LEVI, because the six directions of the worlds are as one.

158. וְתָא חֲזִי, דְּהִכָּא הוּא, דְּהָא רְתִיבָא עֲלָאָה, אַבְהָן וְדוֹד מְלָכָא דְאַתְחַבְרָ בְּהוּ, וְכִלְהוּ אַרְבַּע אֵינֻן רְתִיבִין עֲלָאִין, רְזָא דְשִׁמְאָ קְדִישָׁא, וְעַל דָּא, רְאוּבֵן שִׁמְעוֹן לְוִי, לְבַתֵּר יְהוּדָה דִּנְרִית מְלָכוֹ, וְעַל דָּא, כִּלְהוּ בְּאַתֵּר דָּא.

160. וְתַעֲמַד, דְּהָא עַד הִכָּא, וְתַעֲמַד בִּיחּוּדָא חַד, מִכָּאן וְלַתְתָּא עֲלֵמָא דְפְרוּדָא אִיהוּ. וְאִי תִימָא אֵינֻן תְּרִין בְּנִין דְּאוּלִּידַת לְבַתֵּר, כְּגוּוֹנָא דָּא. לָא, דְּהָא אֵינֻן תְּרִין בְּאֵלִין אֲתַחְבְּרוּ, בְּגִין דְּשִׁית סְטְרִין דְּעֲלָמָא כַּחְדָּא אֵינֻן.

161. Come and behold: all twelve tribes are the essential parts of the congregation of Yisrael in this world. They properly strengthen the supernal black light. FOR THIS IS THE PERFECTION OF THE LEFT, BECAUSE CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM IS A BLACK LIGHT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF the DARKNESS OF IMA. They also restore the foundation to its place, FOR THE SECRET OF CORRECTING THE RIGHT IS TO ALLOW CHASSADIM TO RULE. CHASSADIM ARE THE FOUNDATION; WITHOUT THEM, THERE IS NO ILLUMINATION THROUGHOUT THE WORLDS, BECAUSE EVEN THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT IS BLACK AND DARK WITHOUT IT. All the worlds are identical; WHATEVER IS IN THE UPPER WORLD IS ALSO IN THE LOWER. Through this--NAMELY, THE TWELVE--the lower world, THE NUKVA, was constructed according to the supernal world, BINAH.

162. Yisaschar and Zvulun ARE NETZACH AND HOD. Now there are six sons who represent the six directions of the world. REUVEN, SHIMON, LEVI, AND YEHUDA ARE CHESED, GEVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT; YISASCHAR AND ZVULUN ARE NETZACH AND HOD. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE PERFECTION OF THE RIGHT, THE SIX EXTREMITIES OF CHASSADIM. Similarly, there are the four sons of the handmaids, who are joined WITH THE SIX EXTREMITIES. The four sons are the four joints that are attached to them, THE TWO JOINTS OF CHESED AND GVURAH AND THE TWO JOINTS OF NETZACH AND HOD. THEY ARE THE PERFECTION OF THE LEFT. BECAUSE THEY WERE CONNECTED TO THE RIGHT, it is written: "and their hinder parts inward" (I Melachim 7:25), SO THAT THE HINDER PARTS CAME TO BE INNER PARTS. Though they are the sons of the handmaids, OF THE ASPECT OF DARKNESS AND HINDER PARTS, YET they are inward.

163. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: If this be so, we have learned that whatever the lower world, THE NUKVA AT THE END OF ATZILUT, begets is separated, as it is written: "and from thence it was parted" (Bereshheet 2:10). What would you say, then, about Yosef and Binyamin? If you say that they are of one world, OF THE ASPECT OF UNION OF THE WORLD OF ATZILUT, this is not so, for they did not come from the upper world. So it is found that whatever the lower world begets, it begets below, MEANING THAT ITS GENERATIONS ARE BENEATH THE BOTTOM OF ATZILUT, and not above. If it is so, they are separated--THAT IS, THEY ARE OF THE WORLD OF BRIYAH OF SEPARATION.

164. Rabbi Aba went to him and kissed him. He said: This matter is difficult because the upper world is perfected by the twelve that are its own. Yet come and behold: the Righteous constantly leaves and enters the lower world. He is therefore built in this place. Thus, he is of importance above and below, but constantly in the lower world, as it is written: "And it came to pass, as her soul was departing, for she died" (Bereshheet 35:18).

165. Come and behold: the Righteous both enters and leaves the lower world, THE NUKVA. When he enters, he is in the secret of Yosef the Righteous, and when he leaves, he is in the secret of Binyamin THE RIGHTEOUS. This is the meaning of the verse: "And it came to pass, as her soul (Nefesh) was departing, for she died." HE ASKS: What is her Nefesh? HE ANSWERS: This is the Righteous, who came out from it.

161. ותא חזי, בלהו תריסר שבטין, תקוני דכנסת ישראל בהאי עלמא ניהו: לאתקנא נהורא עלאה אוכמא במה דאתחזי, ולא תבא עקרא דכלא לאתריה. בלהו עלמין בגוונא חד קיימי, ובהאי אשתכליל עלמא תתאה בגוונא דעלמא דלעילא.

162. וששכר זבולון, הכא אשתכללו שית בנין, שית סטרין דעלמא. בגוונא דא, בני השפחות אינון ארבע, ואתחברו באלין, ואלין ארבע קשרין דמתחברן בהו, ואוקמוה, ועל דא כתיב וכל אחריהם ביתה, אף על גב דבני שפחות ניהו, ביתה.

165. תא חזי בהאי עלמא תתאה, צדיק ביה עייל, ומניה נפיק, כד עייל, איהו ברזא דיוסף הצדיק, כד נפיק ברזא דבנימין הה"ד, ויהי בצאת נפשה כי מתה, מאן נפשה, דא צדיק דנפיק מנה.

166. Therefore, Binyamin was called "the son of my sorrow" (Beresheet 25:18), because she thought she bore him beneath ATZILUT, in the World of Separation, so that there remained eleven within the supernal TRIBES, NAMELY, IN ATZILUT. Yet it is written: "but his father called him Binyamin," WHICH MEANS 'Son of the Right', because he had gone up to the supernal world; for when Yosef was lost, Binyamin took his place. Therefore, the righteous enters and leaves the lower world. And so Yosef and Binyamin, and all the twelve tribes, are in the image of the supernal TWELVE united together. THE SIX SONS OF LEAH ARE THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD; THE FOUR SONS OF THE HANDMAIDS ARE THE SECRET OF THE FOUR JOINTS; THE TWO SONS OF RACHEL ARE THE SECRET OF THE TWO RIGHTEOUS ONES.

166. וְדָא בְּנִימִין, נִקְרָא בֶן אוֹנִי, דְּחֻשִׁיבַת דְּאוֹלִיכְתָּ לְתַתָּא, בְּעֵלְמָא דְּמִרוּדָא, וְאַשְׁתָּארוּ חַד סְרִי בְּאִינוּן לְעֵילָא, מַה כְּתִיב וְאָבִיו קָרָא לוֹ בְּנִימִין בֶּן יַמִּין, דְּהָא אֶסְתַּלֵּק לְעֵילָא, בְּעֵלְמָא עֲלָאָה, דְּכַד אֶתְאַבִּיד יוֹסֵף, בְּנִימִין אֲשֵׁלִים אֶתְרִיהּ. וְעַד צְדִיק בְּעֵלְמָא תַתָּאָה עֵייל וְנִפְק, בְּגִין כֶּךָ יוֹסֵף וּבְנִימִין וּכְלָהוּ תְרִיסֵר, כְּגוּוּנָא דְּלְעֵילָא בִּיחְדָא חַד.

21. "Now I will praise...And she called his name Yehuda"

Here the Zohar relates a discussion between Rabbis Shimon, Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Yosi concerning the secrets of the name "Yehuda." Once again, the unity of all things is stressed in the verse, "I will praise The Creator with my whole heart." Both the good and evil in one's soul must be brought to God in prayer--that is, with total honesty. "Yehuda embraces all sides."

The Relevance of this Passage

Kabbalah's unique perspective on the evil that men do is revealed in this section. The ultimate objective of spirituality is not to remove the existence of evil or humanity's negative traits. Instead, we must confront and transform these dark forces, for it is only through the struggle of transformation that we ignite the spark of divinity within us. The name "Yehuda" expresses this profound kabbalistic notion, and our connection to this name invokes in us the courage to confront and triumph over our evil tendencies.

167. "Now will I praise Hashem..." Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion with the verse: "I will praise Hashem with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation" (Tehilim 111:1). HE ASKS: Why is it written: "with my whole heart (Heb. levav)," instead of THE MORE COMMON lev? HE ANSWERS: David, in the supernal secret of the Holy Name, YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, wanted to praise the Holy One, blessed be He. "I will praise Hashem with my whole heart," MEANS with both the Good Inclination and the Evil Inclination, THE TWO HEARTS, THAT IS, THE TWO INCLINATIONS THAT DWELL IN THE HEART, the two sides, right and left.

167. הַפֶּעַם אוֹדָה אֶת ה', רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן פָּתַח וְאָמַר, אוֹדָה ה' בְּכָל לֵב בְּסוּד יִשְׂרָיִם וְעַדָּה, בְּכָל לֵב, בְּכָל לֵב מִבְּעֵי לֵיהּ. אֵלָא, דוּד בְּרוּזָא עֲלָאָה דְּשִׁמְא קְדִישָׁא, קָא בְּעֵי לֵיהּ לְאוֹדָאָה לֵיהּ לְקוֹדֶשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, אוֹדָה ה' בְּכָל לֵב בִּיצֵר טוֹב וּבִיצֵר רַע, וְאֵלִין תְּרִין סְטְרִין, חַד יְמִינָא וְחַד שְׁמָאֲלָא.

168. "...in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation..." refers to the other aspects of this world, THE NUKVA, for the whole heart resembles south and north, CHESED AND GVURAH. "In the assembly of the upright," are the other sides, which are altogether six EXTREMITIES formed in the likeness of above, THAT IS, IN THE IMAGE OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD. They abide "in the assembly of the upright," NAMELY, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD, "and in the congregation (Heb. edah)," which refers to the place of Yehuda, NAMELY, MALCHUT. It is also written: "and my Testimony (Heb. edoti) that I shall teach them" (Tehilim 132:12), WHICH REFERS TO THE ORAL TORAH, MALCHUT.

168. בְּסוּד יִשְׂרָיִם וְעַדָּה, אֵלִין אִינוּן שְׁאָר סְטְרִין, דְּהָא עֲלָמָא, דְּהָא לֵב, כְּגוּוּנָא דְּרוּם וְצִפּוֹן. בְּסוּד יִשְׂרָיִם: אֵלִין אִינוּן שְׁאָר סְטְרֵי עֲלָמָא, דְּאִינוּן שִׁית כְּגוּוּנָא דְּלְעֵילָא. וְעַדָּה: דָּא הוּא אֶתְר דִּיהוּדָה, וּכְתִיב וְעַדוֹתַי זֹו אֶלְמַדִּים.

169. It is written: "Yehuda still rules (Heb. rad) with EI" (Hoshea 12:1). THIS MEANS THAT YEHUDA--MALCHUT CONNECTED TO YUD-HEI-VAV- HEI--WENT DOWN (HEB. YARAD) FROM THE SIX-SIDED NAME OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI TO THE NAME EI, A NAME OF MALCHUT, IN THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "AND AN EI WHO HAS INDIGNATION EVERY DAY" (TEHILIM 7:12). It is also written: "I will praise You with my whole heart: before princes (lit. 'Elohim') I will sing praise to You" (Tehilim 138:1), TO THE NAME ELOHIM, AND NOT THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, because he praised this grade OF MALCHUT, CALLED 'ELOHIM', in order to unite it with the right side OF CHASSADIM. THEREFORE, IT IS WRITTEN HERE: "I WILL PRAISE YOU WITH MY WHOLE HEART (HEB. LIBI)," AND NOT LEVAVI, BECAUSE HE PRAISED ONE PLACE ONLY, THAT IS, MALCHUT OF THE LEFT, WHICH DOES NOT CLEAVE TO THE NAME OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI.

169. וּכְתִיב וַיְהוּדָה עוֹד רָד עִם אֵל וְגו'. כְּתִיב אוֹרְךָ בְּכָל לְבָבִי נִגַד אֱלֹהִים אֲזַמְרֵךְ, הֵכָא בְּאֶתְר חַד קְאָמַר, דְּכְתִיב נִגַד אֱלֹהִים אֲזַמְרֵךְ. דְּהָא לְגַבִּי הָאִי דְּרָגָא קְאָמַר שִׁירְתָּא, לְחַפְרָא לֵיהּ בִּימִינָא.

170. Come and behold: THE NAME Yehuda is attached all sides. It is attached to the south and the east because YEHUDA comes from the left side. It starts in the north and holds to the south. From there it goes to the right side, CHESED, and takes hold of the body, TIFERET. AND SO IT HOLDS ALL THE SIDES. Therefore, it is written: "Now will I praise Hashem," WHICH INDICATES THAT IT INCLUDES ALL THE SIDES. In the phrase, "and she left off (lit. 'stood from') bearing," 'stood' means that she stood firm, stood properly, FOR NOW THAT SHE HAS BORN FOUR SONS, REUVEN, SHIMON, LEVI, AND YEHUDA--CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT--the entire holy Chariot is fixed, WHICH IS CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT.

171. Rabbi Shimon went to the country, where he chanced to meet Rabbi Aba, Rabbi Chiya, and Rabbi Yosi. When he saw them, he said: It behooves us to hear new expositions of the Torah. The three sat with him. When Rabbi Shimon turned to leave, each of them opened the discussion with a verse IN HONOR OF RABBI SHIMON.

172. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse: "And Hashem said to Avram, after Lot was separated from him: Lift up now your eyes, and look" (Bereshheet 13:14). HE ASKS: Is Avraham to inherit land according to his range of vision? For how far can a man see--three, four, or five parasangs? And the scripture says: "for all the land which you see..." (Ibid. 15).

173. HE ANSWERS: Because he saw the four winds of the world, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "NORTHWARD, AND SOUTHWARD, AND EASTWARD, AND WESTWARD," he saw the whole land. For the four winds of the world comprise the whole world. Another explanation is that the Holy One, blessed be He, lifted him above the land of Yisrael, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, and showed him that it is connected to the winds of the world, THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE CHARIOT. Then he saw everything. Similarly, whoever sees Rabbi Shimon sees the whole world, BECAUSE HE, TOO, COMPRISES THE WHOLE WORLD. He is the joy of high and low.

174. Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "the land on which you lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed" (Bereshheet 28:13). HE ASKS: Did the Holy One, blessed be He, promise him only this place, a mere four or five cubits, and no more? HE ANSWERS: At that time the Holy One, blessed be He, folded the whole land of Yisrael underneath him, so that this place included the whole land. If this place included the whole land, then Rabbi Shimon, the lamp of the whole land, is of equal value with the whole world.

173. אָלָא, בִּיּוֹן דְּאַרְבַּע סְטְרִין דְּעֵלְמָא חֲמֵי, כָּל אַרְעָא חֲמֵי, דְּהָא אַרְבַּע סְטְרֵי דְּעֵלְמָא, כְּלָלָא דְּכָל עֵלְמָא. תּוּ, זִקְף לִיה קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עַל אַרְעָא דְּיִשְׂרָאֵל, וְאַחֲמֵי לִיה, דְּאִיהוּ קְשִׁירָא בְּסְטְרֵי דְּעֵלְמָא, וְהוּהוּ חֲמֵי כְּלָא. בְּגוּזוּנָא דָּא, מֵאֵן דְּחֲמֵי לִיה, לְרַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן, כָּל עֵלְמָא חֲמֵי, חֲדוּתָא דְּעִילָא וְתַתָּא.

175. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse: "Now will I praise Hashem." HE ASKS: Did it not behoove her to praise the Holy One, blessed be He, for each of the sons she bore and not only this son? HE ANSWERS: Yehuda is the fourth son of the throne, BEING MALCHUT, THE FOURTH LEG, and he completed the throne. Therefore, Yehuda alone perfects the throne; he is the pillar that supports all the other pillars, BECAUSE HE COMPLETES THE THRONE. How many lights shine because of Rabbi Shimon, who illuminates the world much more with the Torah, BEING THE PILLAR OF ALL PILLARS.

22. His thought was with Rachel

Ya'akov thought of Rachel while making love with Leah. This act cost Reuven his patrimony. This is a very important and insightful passage that illuminates the relation of thought to action. Wisdom can be seen on a man's face and in his eyes. On the other hand, whoever indulges in evil contemplation lives in lies, or false consciousness. Such a person is not to be able to see good when it comes. Accordingly, bad acts follow bad contemplation.

The Relevance of this Passage

Consciousness creates reality. For this reason, the Other Side attempts to raise doubts, create uncertainties, and induce immoral and negative thinking. The great gift of contemplation and consciousness even has the power to determine the grade of soul that is drawn to an unborn child at the moment of conception. The spiritual influences of this passage help us abolish doubts and negative thoughts, particularly during moments of intimacy and times of adversity. It is then that we are most vulnerable, and it is then that the Other Side unleashes a mindstorm of negativity.

Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

176. Mishnah. Children of the High One, supernal sages, Blessed of the World, of the inner part of the nut, gather and know: a bird descends every day, and is awakened in the garden with a flame of fire in her wings and three shovels in her left hand as sharp as a sword, and the keys to the treasures in her right hand.

סְתְרֵי תוֹרָה
176. מִתְנִיתִין. בְּנֵי עֲלִיּוֹן, קְדִישֵׁי עֲלִיּוֹנִין, בְּרִיכָן דְּעֵלְמָא, מוּחָא דְּאֶגּוּזָא, כְּנָשׁוּ לְמַנְדַּע, הָא צְפָרָא נְחִית בְּכָל יוּמָא, אֲתַעַר בְּגַנְתָּא. שְׁלֵהוּבָא דְּנוּרָא, בְּגַדְפָּהָא. בִּידָהָא, תִּלְתָּא מְגֻרּוּפִיין שְׁנִינָן כְּחַרְבָּא. מִפְתָּחַן גְּנִיזִין, בִּידָא יְמִינָא.

177. She cries out loud, saying TO THE RIGHTEOUS IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN: Whoever among you has a shining face--THAT IS, WHO MERITED WISDOM, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "A MAN'S WISDOM MAKES HIS FACE SHINE" (KOHLELET 8:1)--who entered, left and was strengthened by the Tree of Life. THAT IS, WHOEVER ENTERED BY MEANS OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, LEFT BY MEANS OF THE LEFT COLUMN, AND WAS STRENGTHENED BY THE TREE OF LIFE, THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Whoever touched its branches--CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD, INCLUDED WITHIN ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE TREE OF LIFE--whoever grasped the roots, THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN; whoever eats from its fruits which are sweeter than honey, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF ITS FRUITS. IT IS SWEET, ACCORDING TO THE MYSTERY IN THE VERSE: "TRULY THE LIGHT IS SWEET...FOR THE EYES" (KOHLELET 11:7), AND THE EYES ARE THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, who revives the soul and heals the body.

177. קְרִי בַחִיל וְאָמַר, מֵאֵן מְנַכּוֹן דִּי נְהִירוֹ אֲנַפּוּי, דִּי עָאֵל וְנַפֵּק וְאַתְתְּקִיף בְּאֵילָנָא דְּחַיִּי, מְטָא בְּעַנְפּוּי, אַחִיד בְּשֶׁרֶשׁוּי, אֲכִיל מְאִיבִיהַּ מְתִיק מְדוּבָשָׂא, יְהִיב חַיִּין לְנַפְשָׂא, אֲסוּתָא לְגַרְמִיָּה.

178. SHE ANNOUNCES THAT WHOEVER MERITS ALL THAT IS the one who is kept from the evil contemplation that defiles the Tree of Life; from CONTEMPLATION that defiles the river and the spring, which is the source of Yisrael; and from CONTEMPLATION that results in death to the soul and breaking of oneself, so that he has no existence.

178. אֲסַתְמַר, מְהִרְהוּרָא בִישָׂא, מְהִרְהוּרָא דְּמִשְׁקַר בְּאֵילָנָא דְּחַיִּי, מְסָאִיב נְהָרָא וְנַחְלָא מְקוּרָא דְּיִשְׂרָאֵל, דִּיהִיב מוּתָא לְנַפְשָׂא, וְתַבִּירוֹ לְגַרְמִיָּה לִית לִיהַּ קִיּוּמָא כְּלָל.

179. The contemplation, which defiles the source OF THE TREE OF LIFE, ZEIR ANPIN, produces a tree of lies because that contemplation rises and exchanges one soul for another, THAT IS, THE SOUL (NEFESH) OF THE LIGHTS OF THE OTHER SIDE IS EXCHANGED FOR THE SOUL (NEFESH) OF THE LIGHTS OF HOLINESS. FOR BECAUSE OF THAT CONTEMPLATION, the Tree of Life is gone and the Tree of Death, from which he draws his soul, clings to him.

180. Woe to him who, because of that contemplation, is uprooted from the Tree of Life and attached to the Tree of Death, which has no branches. THIS MEANS THAT ITS LIGHT NO LONGER ILLUMINATES. He who clings to it never sees goodness. He is dry, without moisture OF LIGHT, his fruits as bitter as wormwood. Of him it is said: "For he shall be like the juniper tree in the desert, and shall not see when good comes" (Yirmeyah 17:6).

181. But good contemplation ascends and seizes the Tree of Life, WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, embracing its branches and eating its fruits. All that is holy and all blessings come from it. He inherits life for his soul and healing for himself. Of him it is said: "For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, and that spreads out its roots by the river..." (Ibid. 8)

182. Every act in the world follows thought and contemplation. Of this the scripture reads: "you shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy" (Vayikra 11:44), because sanctities in the world are manifested and drawn by means of good contemplation.

183. He who is defiled by the evil contemplation of thinking about another woman while inseminating his wife, will confuse the supernal high grades BY SWITCHING the Holy grade with the grade of Defilement. As he changes his thoughts from his wife to another woman, so he causes change above.

184. As the body of the son he begets is called a 'changed son', so his soul is also called 'changed son', as his contemplation was not drawn from holiness, and his soul was thus changed into another grade, NAMELY, A GRADE FROM THE OTHER SIDE.

185. It was revealed before the Holy One, blessed be He, that all Ya'akov, the perfect one, did was true, and that he harbored thoughts of Truth. The night he had intercourse with Leah, his thoughts were of Rachel. He was with Leah and thought of Rachel, and his issue came from that thought.

179. הַרְהוּרָא דְמַסְאִיב הֵוּא מְקוּרָא דִּילִיָּה, עֲבִיד אֵילָנָא דְשְׁקָרָא, בְּגִין דִּהוּא הַרְהוּרָא סְלֵקָא, וְאַחֲלָף נַפְשָׁא תַּחוּת נַפְשָׁא. אֵילָנָא דְחַיִּי אֶסְתַּלֵּק, וְאֵילָנָא דְמוֹתָא אֶתְתַּקִּיף בֵּיהּ, נַפְשָׁא מִתְמָן מְשִׁיךְ.

182. כֹּל מְלִין דְעֵלְמָא, אֲזִלִּין בְּתַר מַחְשְׁבָה וְהַרְהוּרָא, וְע"ד וְהַתְקַדְשָׁתֶם וְהֵייתֶם קְדוּשִׁים, בְּגִין דְכֹל קְדוּשִׁין דְעֵלְמָא אִפִּיק וּמְשִׁיךְ בְּהַרְהוּרָא טְבָא.

186. Unknowingly HE DID THIS, because he did not know IT WAS LEAH. Therefore Reuven was not given a proper name. Yet the Holy One, blessed be He, knew IT WAS LEAH, and He showed him, and said: See, a son is born into the world. It is therefore written: "Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him?" (Yirmeyah 23:24) Do not read er'enu ('see him'), but ar'enu ('show him'). It was known before the Holy One, blessed be He, that it was not intentional and that Ya'akov wished to contemplate the way of Truth. Thus, Reuven was not disqualified as a member of the holy tribes; THAT IS, HE WAS NOT CONSIDERED A CHANGED SON. If it were not so, he would have been disqualified.

187. Because contemplation is so important and translates into action, the Holy One, blessed be He, who knew the place to which that contemplation clung during THE INSEMINATION OF the first drop, kept the birthright FOR THAT PLACE--as it is written: "for he was the firstborn; but since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to Yosef" (I Divrei Hayamim 5:1). For to the place to which contemplation followed at the time of insemination of the first drop, the birthright was taken from Reuven and given to the place he thought of. He thought of Rachel and the desire clung to her; thus, the birthright was attached to Rachel, and everything followed thought and contemplation.

188. In the same manner, WE FOUND THAT contemplation and thought result in deeds and draw from what man secretly attaches himself to, as it is written: "the wife of the dead shall not marry abroad to a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in to her" (Devarim 25:5). Here, his thought and desire should cleave TO THE SOUL OF HIS DEAD BROTHER, and by that desire and thought he draws and does his duty, so that the dead man's name shall not be erased from the world.

189. This is the secret of the verse: "If he set his heart upon man, if he gather to himself his spirit and his breath (Ruach and Neshamah)" (Iyov 34:14). Assuredly this is so. Will and thought produce flowing and perform action in everything needed. Therefore in prayer, we need to desire and contemplate upon it. Thus, in every service of the Holy One, blessed be He, contemplation and thought act and are drawn to that which is in need of them.

עד כאן סתרי תורה

23. "and found mandrakes in the field"

This is a lengthy and mysterious passage concerning birth and Creation. It is an explanation of the phrase "the world was formed by word and spirit together, Male and Female." The hidden world is male, this one female. The Zohar reflects on the allegorical importance of the mandrake root, whose magical properties allowed Rachel to conceive. The Rabbis Chiya and Rabbi Yosi continue their discussion with a person called The Man of Arka, connecting the passage concerning the mandrakes, Rachel, and the birth of Reuven with the secret meaning of matzoh in the Passover story. "Out of the earth comes bread." That is, the birth of a child is like the creation of worlds.

The Relevance of this Passage

The creation of the cosmos is the same creative process that unfolds with the birth of each new child in this world. Each of us, therefore, is a supernal world, imbued with the divine Light of the Creator. Along with this comes the responsibility of recognizing the Godliness within and around us. Evolving this awareness constitutes the work of spiritual development.

190. "And Reuven went in the days of the wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field" (Beresheet 30:14). Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion with the verse: "how manifold are Your works, Hashem, in wisdom have You made them all: the earth is full of Your creatures" (Tehilim 104:24). This verse has already been explained in several places. Yet who can count the works of the Holy One, blessed be He? For there are many different armies and legions OF GRADES AND ANGELS. They are countless, AS IS INDICATED IN THE VERSE, "HOW MANIFOLD ARE YOUR WORKS." THIS SHOWS THAT THEY ARE WITHOUT NUMBER, WHICH IS AN ALLUSION TO MOCHIN OF CHASSADIM. THE PHRASE, "IN WISDOM HAVE YOU MADE THEM ALL," REFERS TO MOCHIN OF NUMBER, CHOCHMAH. HE SAYS THAT ALTHOUGH THEY DIFFER FROM ONE ANOTHER, they were created together. Just as a hammer striking a stone or a red hot iron produces sparks on all sides simultaneously, the Holy One, blessed be He, brought forth countless, different kinds of legions all at once.

191. Come and behold. The world was formed by word and spirit together, MALE AND FEMALE, as it is written: "By the word of Hashem were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath (spirit) of His mouth" (Tehilim 33:6). Thus, "the word of Hashem" is speech, THE NUKVA, WHICH SHINES WITH CHOCHMAH, and "the breath of His mouth" is the spirit, ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH SHINES WITH CHASSADIM. The one cannot exist without the other, and so they are included within each other, and several armies upon armies, legions upon legions were issued all at once, DIFFERING FROM EACH OTHER IN THEIR ILLUMINATION, THE ONE WITH CHOCHMAH AND THE OTHER WITH CHASSADIM.

192. Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, wished to create the worlds, He produced one closed Light, THE LIGHT OF BINAH, BY INSERTING THE LETTER YUD WITHIN THE LIGHT (OR: ALEPH, VAV, RESH) AND PRODUCING AIR (AVIR: ALEPH, VAV, YUD, RESH). From that light, all the revealed lights radiated, THAT IS, BY TAKING OUT THE YUD FROM AVIR, THE AIR BECAME LIGHT AGAIN. From that light, all other lights radiated. This is the supernal world, BINAH.

193. That Supernal Light, BINAH, spread further, and from it the artist, THE EMANATOR, created a light that does not illuminate. Thus, He made the lower world, THE NUKVA. Because this light does not shine, it needs to be attached above and below. Through the attachment below, it is connected so as to illumine through the connection above.

194. This light that does not shine, NAMELY, THE LEFT COLUMN of the connection OF THE THREE COLUMNS above IN BINAH produces all the different armies and legions--THOSE IN CHOCHMAH AND THOSE IN CHASSADIM. This is the meaning of, "how manifold are Your works, Hashem in wisdom have You made them all."

190. וַיֵּלֶךְ רְאוּבֵן בְּיָמֵי קְצִיר חֲטִים וַיִּמְצָא דוּרְאִים בְּשָׂדֵה. רַבִּי יִצְחָק פֶּתַח וַאֲמַר, מָה רַבּוּ מַעֲשֵׂיךָ ה' כָּלֵם בְּחֻכְמָה עֲשִׂית מְלֵאָה הָאָרֶץ קִנְיָנְךָ. הַאִי קָרָא אוֹקְמוּהָ, בְּכֻמָּה אֶתְר. אֶלָּא, מֵאֵן יִכּוּל לְמַמְנֵי עוֹבְדוֹי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא. דְּהָא כְּמָה חִילִין וּמִשְׁרִיין, מְשַׁנְיִין דָּא מִן דָּא, דְּלִית לֹון חוֹשְׁבְּנָא, וְכֻלְהוּ בְּזִמְנָא חֲדָא, כְּמַרְזָפָא דְּאִפִּיק זִיקִין לְכָל סְטְרִין, בְּזִמְנָא חֲדָא, כְּךָ קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, אִפִּיק כְּמָה זִינִין וּמִשְׁרִיין, מְשַׁנְיִין דָּא מִן דָּא, דְּלִית לֹון חוֹשְׁבְּנָא וְכֻלְהוּ בְּזִמְנָא חֲדָא.

195. Whatever exists down on earth also exists above. There is nothing in this world, IN THE NUKVA, be it ever so small, which does not depend on something appointed over it above, IN BINAH. WHAT EXISTS IN THE NUKVA IS WHAT SHE RECEIVES FROM BINAH. THEREFORE, THERE IS NOTHING IN THE NUKVA THAT DOES NOT HAVE ITS ROOT IN BINAH. Thus, when something is aroused below IN THE NUKVA, ITS ORIGIN, appointed over it from above IN BINAH, is aroused because everything is united.

196. Come and behold: "Give me, I pray you, of your son's mandrakes" (Bereshheet 30:14). This does not mean THAT the mandrakes caused Rachel to bear children, BUT RATHER that the Holy One, blessed be He, arranged for the birth of Yisaschar, who was destined to observe the Torah more than the other tribes, just as Rachel held fast to Ya'akov and did not let him go to Leah. This is the meaning of the verse: "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? ...Therefore he shall lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."

197. The mandrakes caused Yisaschar to come into the world so that the fragrance of the Torah ascended before the Holy One, blessed be He. Thus scripture reads, "The mandrakes give a fragrance" (Shir Hashirim 7:14), BECAUSE YISASCHAR HELD FAST TO THE TORAH MORE THAN THE OTHER TRIBES. It is written: "And he lay with her that night (lit. 'that night he')" (Bereshheet 30:16). Assuredly, it is "he," AND NOT 'THAT HE'. It has already been explained that the supernal world is called "he," because it is neither disclosed nor revealed. Because the Torah came out from the supernal world, WHICH IS UNDISCLOSED AND NOT REVEALED, THE UNION THAT RESULTED IN YISASCHAR WAS ALLUDED TO IN THE WORDS: "AND HE LAY WITH HER THAT NIGHT HE"--BECAUSE YISASCHAR IS A CHARIOT TO THE TORAH, AS HAS BEEN SAID.

198. The supernal world is uniformly called "he" because it is undisclosed, as it is written: "But the Levite shall serve he," (Bemidbar 18:23) WHICH MEANS THAT HE SERVES THE SUPERNAL WORLD CALLED "HE," in order to draw from there blessings on all the worlds. And Yisaschar held TO THE SUPERNAL WORLD. Therefore, we call ZEIR ANPIN the Tree of Life, as it is a tree THAT COMES from the supernal life OF THE SUPERNAL HIDDEN WORLD, called "he," and not 'you', AS THE PRONOUN 'YOU' INDICATES THE KNOWN, AND THE PRONOUN "HE," THE HIDDEN.

199. It may be said that the mandrakes opened Rachel's womb. This is not so, as it is written: "and Elohim hearkened to her and opened her womb" (Bereshheet 30:22). Thus the Holy One, blessed be He, OPENED HER WOMB, and nothing else. As for the mandrakes, although they have the power of action above, it is not in their power to give children, because children depend upon Mazal, and nothing else.

195. וְכָל מָה דִּי בְּאַרְעָא, הִכִּי נִמְי לְעֵילָא. וְלִית לָךְ מְלָה זְעִירָא, בְּהָאֵי עֲלֵמָא, דְּלֵא תְלִינָא בְּמֵלָה אַחְרָא עֲלָא דְאַתְפְּקֵדָא עֲלֵיהּ לְעֵילָא, בְּגִין דְּכַד אַתְעַר הָאֵי לְתַתָּא, אַתְעַר הֵהוּא דְאַתְפְּקֵדָא עֲלֵיהּ לְעֵילָא, דְּכֻלָּא אַתְאַחַד דָּא בְּרָא.

200. It may be said that the mandrakes were created for nothing, NAMELY, THAT THEY HAVE NO POWER TO ACT. This is not so. THEY HAVE A SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITY even concerning this BEARING OF CHILDREN. They help those who are slow to give birth but are not barren, although it was decreed that they give birth through Mazal. THIS MEANS THAT IF THIS WAS DECREED IN THE SECRET OF MAZAL, BUT THEY ARE DETAINED FOR SOME REASON, THE MANDRAKES HELP.
Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

201. "And Reuven went in the days of the wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field." We have learned that the cup of blessings-- THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA IN HER ASPECT OF ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH THAT SHINES IN THE SECRET OF, "WINE THAT CAUSES TO REJOICE ELOHIM AND MEN" (TEHILIM 104:15)--is blessed only on the right side, CHASSADIM, AS CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM IS DARKNESS. Therefore, while the right awakens TO POUR to the cup of blessing, THE NUKVA, the left, is unsupported because within the cup the right found a cause for its arousal toward the supernal world, WHICH IS CHASSADIM COVERED BY CHOCHMAH.

202. This is the secret of: "And Reuven went." Reuven is the south side, NAMELY, THE RIGHT COLUMN, CHASSADIM. Because of this, his standard faces south, which is the head and beginning of the twelve borders. THE SECRET OF THE TWELVE BORDERS IS THE SECRET OF THE FOUR DIRECTIONS, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT. EACH HAS THREE COLUMNS, SO CHESED IS THE BEGINNING OF THE TWELVE BORDERS. The desire of the south side is to find a reason for and to give a present to the Matron, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, so as to bless her.

203. It is written: "and found mandrakes in the field." He searched the treasures OF THE NUKVA and found the mandrakes in the field, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. The scripture reads, "The mandrakes give a fragrance" (Shir Hashirim 7:14). These are the two Cherubs, the emendation OF THE NUKVA, who are awakened by the arousal above TOWARD BINAH. Because of all the amendments in that field, only the Cherubs aroused BINAH.

204. When is the south side, CHESED, aroused toward her? When does it find a reason to bless her, THAT IS, TO DRAW CHASSADIM UPON HER? In the days of the wheat harvest, MEANING, the spoils are divided among her armies, THAT IS, THE ANGELS--ACCORDING TO THE MYSTERY IN THE VERSE, "SHE RISES ALSO WHILE IT IS YET NIGHT, AND GIVES FOOD TO HER HOUSEHOLD" (MISHLEI 31:15)--and given to all the reapers of the field, THAT IS, THE SOULS WHO MERIT TO RECEIVE THE FRUITS OF THE NUKVA CALLED 'FIELD'. He immediately "brought them to his mother Leah," WHICH MEANS THAT he elevated their fragrance and desire to the covered supernal world, CALLED 'LEAH', to bring blessings on the lower world, RACHEL.

205. When the mandrakes are blessed, THAT IS, CLOTHED IN CHASSADIM, they receive and give to all the worlds, as it is written: "And the mandrakes give a fragrance..." When they give a fragrance, NAMELY, WHEN THEY SHINE UPWARD WITH CHOCHMAH FROM BELOW, WHICH IS CONSIDERED FRAGRANCE, that fragrance receives the south side, CHESED, and uses it to raise it towards the supernal world, THAT IS, TO ILLUMINE UPWARD FROM BELOW. Immediately, it is written: "and at our gates are all manner of choice fruits" (Shir Hashirim 7:14), and no goodness is absent from the world.

206. The lower world is not awakened toward the supernal world, TO RECEIVE MOCHIN FROM IT, except when the mandrakes give a fragrance to the right. Once they do and the right is aroused toward the supernal world, the lower world is immediately aroused to ask for whatever it needs. Thus, it is written: "Then Rachel said to Leah, 'Give me, I pray you, of your son's mandrakes'," WHICH MEANS: give me blessings from the arousal of the mandrakes which were aroused to be included within the right side, THAT IS, TO BE CLOTHED IN CHASSADIM OF THE RIGHT.

207. Then the supernal world answers pleasantly and joyfully, saying, "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband?"--as a mother who is DELIGHTED WITH her daughter, AND IS NOT REPRIMANDING HER. HE ASKS: If this is so, then IT SOUNDS AS IF the husband of the upper world, BINAH, is Ya'akov, AS SHE SAID CONCERNING YA'AKOV, "IS IT A SMALL MATTER THAT YOU HAVE TAKEN MY HUSBAND?" YET CHOCHMAH IS THE HUSBAND OF BINAH. HE ANSWERS: This is not so. The love of the father, CHOCHMAH, is always toward the daughter, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, because he loves his daughter always, for she is an only daughter among the six sons, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD. To all six sons he gave portions, delights, and presents, but to her he dealt nothing, and she inherits nothing BECAUSE THE NUKVA HAS NOTHING FROM HERSELF EXCEPT WHAT HER HUSBAND ZEIR ANPIN--THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD, THE SIX SONS--GIVES HER. Therefore, he regards her with more love and friendship than all of them.

208. In his love he called her 'daughter'. As this did not suffice, he called her 'sister'. As this did not suffice, he called her 'mother', after his own mother. As this did not suffice, he called her by his name, as it is written: "But where shall wisdom be found" (Iyov 28:12), and thus he did surely call her Chochmah. Thus the upper world, BINAH, IMA ('MOTHER'), said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband?"--CHOCHMAH, NAMELY, ABA ('FATHER'), for all his love is drawn toward you. Thus, the mother talked to the daughter fondly, with love.

209. HE INSISTED: IF THE MOTHER DID NOT SPEAK HARSHLY WHEN SHE SAID, "IS IT A SMALL MATTER THAT YOU HAVE TAKEN MY HUSBAND?" Why then did RACHEL respond, "Therefore he shall lie with you tonight?" HE ANSWERS: Wherever the word "therefore" is used, it is an oath. HE ASKS: In the verse, "he shall lay..." what is the meaning of the word "lay"? HE ANSWERS: Any mention of the word "lay" refers to the amendment of the Nukva by the male, who will insert into her the shapes of all the letters. Yishcav (lit. 'he shall lay') contains Yesh ('there is'), Caf Bet (= 22). Yesh is the upper world, BINAH, THAT CAME TO BE CHOCHMAH AGAIN; Caf Bet is the secret of the Torah, ZEIR ANPIN, a hidden point, where the twenty-two letters are aroused. This is the meaning of Yesh Caf Bet ('there are twenty-two'). Thus, Yesh is the world to come, as it is written: "That I may cause those who love me to inherit substance (yesh)" (Mishlei 8:21). (Yesh) Caf Bet is the supernal point that brings forth all the twenty-two letters, the secret of the whole Torah.

210. This is the meaning of, "he shall lay." It is PLAINLY written: "he shall lay with you," instead of, "Ya'akov shall lay with you." This ALLUDES TO the hidden one, NAMELY, THE SUPERNAL ABA, who is worthy of joining you.

211. "And Ya'akov came out of the field in the evening." "And Ya'akov came," refers to the holy Tiferet, ZEIR ANPIN, who came from the field that embraces all the blessings, of which the scripture reads: "which Hashem has blessed" (Beresheet 27:27), THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. Why is it written: "in the evening?" HE ANSWERS: It is as it is written: "And Yitzchak went out to meditate in the field at the evening time" (Beresheet 24:63); THAT IS, WHEN THE NUKVA RECEIVES THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT WITHOUT THE RIGHT, THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM, IT IS DARKENED AND CALLED 'EVENING'. This is when Yitzchak, his father, used to be aroused toward this field and hold it, for Yitzchak is not aroused toward this field, SINCE IT BELONGS TO YA'AKOV, THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN. Only in the evening after Ya'akov had gone, BECAUSE THE DAY DECLINED, THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM, AND IT BECAME DARK, he left the field to Yitzchak his father, THE SECRET OF THE LEFT SIDE. Ya'akov then ascended TO BINAH.

212. It is written: "and Leah went out to meet him" (Beresheet 30:16), that is, the supernal mother, BINAH, went out to meet her only son, ZEIR ANPIN. "...and said, 'You must come in to me'," which means, under my wings, so I can bless and satiate you with pleasures and supernal joys. Now is a time of goodwill and delight, a time to give you much satisfaction, for that field, THE NUKVA, before it is burned because of the Judgment of Yitzchak, THE LEFT COLUMN, WHICH ILLUMINATES WITHOUT CHASSADIM OF THE RIGHT, AND IS THEN CONSIDERED TO BE A BURNING FIRE.

213. Because she receives Ya'akov under her wings, "he lay with her that night (lit. 'that night he')." "IT IS NOT WRITTEN "THAT ONE" BUT RATHER HE" THAT REFERS TO THE HIDDEN, the most undisclosed "he"; "he" from which all blessings and sanctities derive. THIS IS THE SUPERNAL ABA. It is not written: 'and Ya'akov lay', but rather, "and he lay," which refers to he who is worthy of being united with her, THAT IS, THE SUPERNAL ABA, WHO GIVES PLENTY TO BINAH.

214. Before YA'AKOV, who receives the sanctities and blessings, came under its wings OF BINAH, the supernal world was not filled with blessings and sanctities from the undisclosed point. Therefore mandrakes rouse everything, and everything is in the likeness of the supernal secret, WHICH MEANS THAT ALL THIS REFERS TO THE SUPERNAL SECRET. What is Reuven? THAT IS, WHO NAMED HIM SO AND SAID OF HIM, 'REU-BEN' (LIT. SEE, A SON)? HE ANSWERS, the Holy One, blessed be He, gave names (Heb. shemot) in the land, THAT IS, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, CALLED HIM REUVEN, as written, "Come, behold the works of Hashem, who has made desolations (Heb. shamot) in the earth" (Tehilim 46:9).

215. "...and Leah went out to meet him, and said, 'You must come in to me...'" HE WONDERED IF the phrase, "YOU MUST COME IN TO ME," is impertinent. HE ANSWERS: No. Rather, THE OPPOSITE, for here we learn of Leah's modesty. She did not say it in the presence of her sister, but hastened to the road, and whispered to him to let him know that she had obtained Rachel's permission, as it is written: "for indeed I have hired you" (Beresheet 30:16). From Rachel, I obtained permission. In order that Rachel should not be displeased by it, she said it to him outside and not at home.

216. Moreover, Leah's tent faced the road, and she let Ya'akov in through the outside entrance before he entered Rachel's tent. Why? So that she would not have to say anything in the presence of Rachel and sound bold. Also, Leah said: If Ya'akov enters Rachel's tent, it is not right to make him leave it. Therefore, she hastened to meet him outside.

217. HE ASKS: What is the purpose of all this? HE ANSWERS: The Holy Spirit stirred within Leah, and she knew that all the Supernal Holy Tribes would come from her. She hastened to do it for love of the Holy One, blessed be He. For that reason, THAT SHE MERITED THE HOLY SPIRIT; she KNEW HOW TO name them according to the secret of wisdom.

218. While walking together, Rabbi Yosi said to Rabbi Chiya: Each time we discuss the Torah, the Holy One, blessed be He, performs miracles before us. The way before us is long. Therefore, let us study the Torah, and the Holy One, blessed be He, will join us.

219. Rabbi Chiya began the discussion with the verses: "In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, shall you eat unleavened bread," (Shemot 12:18) and "seven days shall you eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction (lit. 'of poverty')" (Devarim 16:3). Note that "bread of poverty (Heb. oni)" is spelled WITHOUT THE LETTER VAV. The friends were already engaged on this account. But come and behold: when Yisrael were in Egypt, they were under an alien power. When the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted to bring them near to Him, He gave them the grade of the bread of poverty. HE ASKS: Who is the poor referred to in, "bread of poverty?" HE ANSWERS: He is King David, of whom it is written: "for I am poor and needy" (Tehilim 86:1).

220. This bread of poverty is called Matzah, WITHOUT THE LETTER VAV, ZEIR ANPIN, because the female without the male is poor. First, YISRAEL approached the ASPECT OF Matzah, BEING THE FIRST GRADE. Afterward, the Holy One, blessed be He, raised them to higher grades and the male joined the female, THAT IS, SHE WAS UNITED WITH ZEIR ANPIN, AND RECEIVED CHASSADIM FROM HIM. Then, when Matzah was united with the male, it was called 'precept' (mitzvah), with the letter Vav, FOR IT ALLUDES TO ZEIR ANPIN. This is the meaning of the verse, "For this commandment" (Devarim 30:11). Therefore, in its first GRADE, it is called Matzah; later, IN HIGHER GRADES, it becomes a precept.

221. While they were walking, they heard a voice say: A group of murderers lurk in wait for you on the way. Therefore, turn upward and do not descend through the unroofed castle below. Rabbi Yosi said: One may derive from this that the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes to guard our way. They ascended a mountain located between strong rocks. They said: Since the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes us to take this path, we should expect to behold something noteworthy, perhaps a miracle.

222. They sat down by a cleft in a rock and were surprised when a man appeared before them. Rabbi Yosi asked: Who are you? The man replied: I am from the people of Arka. When asked: Are there people there? He said: Yes, and they sew and reap. Some are of a strange shape that is different from my own; THEY HAVE TWO HEADS. I came up to you to learn the name of the land in which you dwell.

223. He said: It is called the 'earth' (Heb. eretz), because it is the land of the living, as it is written: "As for earth (eretz), out of it comes bread" (Iyov 28:5). Bread comes from this earth. Other lands do not have bread or, if they do, it is not of the seven kinds. He returned to his place. They wondered and said: Assuredly, the Holy One, blessed be He, desires to awaken us by this.

224. Rabbi Chiya said: Assuredly, it happened because of the verse you quoted. I remember learning about a supernal matter concerning Pesach from my grandfather. The Holy One, blessed be He, gave Yisrael this bread from the land of the living, NAMELY, THE NUKVA CALLED 'MATZAH'. Later, this bread became bread from the heaven, NAMELY, FROM ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'HEAVEN'. This has already been explained.

220. וְהָאֵי לֶחֶם עָנִי אֶקְרִי מַצָּה, נּוֹקְבָא בְּלֹא דְכוּרָא, מְסַכְּנוֹתָא הֵי, אֶתְקְרִיבוּ לְגַבֵּי מַצָּה בְּקַדְמִיתָא, בֵּינָן דְּקְרִיבוּ לֹון יִתִיר, עֵייל לֹון קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּדַרְגִּין אַחֲרָנִין, וְאַתְחַבֵּר דְּכוּרָא בְּנוֹקְבָא. וּכְדִין, מַצָּה כַּד אֶתְחַבְּרַת בְּדְכוּרָא, אֶקְרִי מַצָּה, בְּתוֹסַפַּת וְא"ו, הַה"ד כִּי הַמַּצָּה הַזֹּאת, בְּגִינֵי כֶךְ, מַצָּה בְּקַדְמִיתָא, וּלְבַתֵּר מַצָּה.

225. He also said that when a man comes into this world, he knows nothing before he tastes bread. After he does, he is motivated to know and perceive. So when Yisrael went out from Egypt, they knew nothing until the Holy One, blessed be He, gave them bread from this land, THE NUKVA, CALLED 'MATZAH', as it is written: "As for earth, out of it comes bread." Then Yisrael came to know and conceive the Holy One, blessed be He, like a baby who knows or conceives nothing before he tastes the bread of this world.

226. The children of Yisrael had no knowledge or conception of higher matters, UPPER GRADES, until they ate of the supernal bread, WHICH IS DRAWN FROM ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'HEAVEN'. BEFORE THEY ATE OF THE SUPERNAL BREAD, they knew and conceived only that place, THE NUKVA, AND NO MORE. The Holy One, blessed be He, desired that the children of Yisrael should know more of the place, which is worthy of this land--THAT IS, THE UPPER GRADES THAT SHINE FROM THE PLACE OF ZEIR ANPIN TO THE NUKVA--but they could not until they tasted bread of that SUPERNAL place. What is that? That which is called 'heaven', NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you" (Shemot 16:4). Then did they know and conceive that SUPERNAL place. But before that, they knew nothing and had no conception OF THAT SUPERNAL PLACE, ZEIR ANPIN.

227. Rabbi Yosi came to him and kissed him. He said: Assuredly this is why the Holy One, blessed be He, aroused us TO SPEAK WITH THE MAN OF THE PEOPLE OF ARKA, FOR BECAUSE OF HIM WE CAME TO DISCUSS THIS VERSE. Therefore, the beginning of the knowledge of Yisrael was bread, NAMELY, THE BREAD OF AFFLICTION. They stood to go. While they were walking, they saw two Damascene plum trees, a male and a female. Rabbi Yosi said: There is nothing in the world that is not male and female. Moreover, whatever is on earth, exists also in the sea.

228. Rabbi Yosi began with the verse: "And Ya'akov came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him." HE ASKS: How did she know HE WAS COMING? HE ANSWERS: They said his ass was braying, so Leah knew and went toward him. Thus, the ass caused Yisaschar to come from Leah. This is the meaning of the verse: "Yisaschar is a strong (Heb. garem) ass" (Bereshheet 49:14). Do not read garem, but rather garam, meaning 'caused', BECAUSE the ass caused him TO BE BORN. Leah said: Surely I know that if Ya'akov enters Rachel's tent, I cannot make him leave. Therefore, I shall wait for him here, and he shall come into my tent.

229. "...for indeed I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." HE ASKS: Why did she say, "with my son's mandrakes?" WAS NOT IT ENOUGH TO SAY, 'WITH MANDRAKES'? HE ANSWERS: So that Ya'akov will draw satisfaction from their help in childbirth. Yet Ya'akov knew that this matter did not depend on the mandrakes, but on above, ON MAZAL.

230. He began by quoting: "He makes the barren woman to keep house, and be a joyful mother of children. Haleluyah" (Tehilim 113:9). Rabbi Chiya said: The holy spirit said, "He makes the barren woman to keep house," refers to Rachel, and "a joyful mother of children," refers to Leah. HE EXPLAINED FURTHER THAT "He makes the barren woman to keep house," refers to the lower world, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'RACHEL', AND "a joyful mother of children," refers to the upper world, BINAH, CALLED 'LEAH'. Therefore, Haleluyah CONTAINS THE LETTERS OF HALLELU ('PRAISE'), YUD-HEI, BECAUSE THE UPPER WORLD WAS CREATED BY THE YUD, AND THE LOWER WORLD CREATED BY THE HEI.

231. Rabbi Yehuda said that all the tribes are the result of correcting down below, NAMELY, OF THE NUKVA; they were all amended to resemble above, BINAH. "For I have hired you" to take from him a body. And what is it? It is the Torah. "...for indeed I have hired you..." MEANS you, your own body. "I have hired you" to bear your very shape.

232. From this we understand that whoever studies the Torah inherits the world to come, THE MOCHIN OF BINAH, and the portion of Ya'akov, THE MOCHIN OF THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA, as it is written: "Yisaschar"--which contains the letters of Yesh sachar ('there is a reward'), as in: "for your work shall be rewarded (sachar)" (Yirmeyah 31:15). THE WORK IS THE STUDY OF THE TORAH, as it is written: "That I may cause those who love me to inherit substance (Heb. yesh); and I will fill their treasures" (Mishlei 8:21).

233. "...because I have born him six sons..." Rabbi Chizkiyah said: They are above and below, NETZACH AND HOD, and to the four winds of the world, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET AND YESOD. Whoever prolongs the "one" IN KRIAT SH'MA should claim the sovereignty of the Holy One, blessed be He, above and below, and on the four directions of the world, namely, one.

234. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: It is written: "mountains of separation" (Shir Hashirim 2:17) and, "mountains of spices" (Shir Hashirim 8:14). HE ASKS: What are the mountains of spices? HE ANSWERS: They are the six sons of Leah, who include the other six, YOSEF, BINYAMIN, AND THE SONS OF THE HANDMAIDS. Together they are twelve and six, WHICH MEANS THAT THEY MAY BE COUNTED AS EITHER TWELVE OR SIX, because they include each other. IF YOU COUNT THE MAIN ONES, THEY ARE SIX, BUT IF YOU ALSO COUNT THOSE INCLUDED WITHIN THEM, THEY ARE TWELVE. And Leah presides over them, to fulfill the verse, "a joyful mother of sons. Haleluyah."

235. It is therefore written: "you shall not take the mother bird together with the young," (Devarim 22:6) because she is of the hidden world which is not revealed, BECAUSE THE LOWER BEINGS HAVE NO CONCEPTION OF IT. Therefore, "you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young to you" (Ibid. 7), because the dam is of the hidden world, which is never revealed.

236. "...and take the young to you..." This resembles the verse: "For ask now of the days that are past...and from one side of the heaven to the other" (Devarim 4:32)--FROM CHESED, THE SIDE OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'HEAVEN', TO YESOD, THE OTHER SIDE OF ZEIR ANPIN, THAT IS, THE SIX EXTREMITIES CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED THE 'SIX SONS OF LEAH'. They are all called "the mountains of spices." From there downward, BENEATH MALCHUT OF ATZILUT, they are called "mountains of separation," as it is written: "and from thence it was parted, and branched into four streams" (Bereshheet 2:10).

237. Rabbi Yesa said: The sons of the handmaids tied knots, the four knots that need correcting. Rabbi Elazar said: Therefore the knots (joints) protrude from the body. And although they are all one, NAMELY, EVEN THOUGH THEY WERE CORRECTED IN THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "AND ALL THEIR HINDER PARTS WERE INWARD" (I MELACHIM 7:25), THEY NEVERTHELESS PROTRUDE FROM THE BODY, BEING AT FIRST, BEFORE THE UNION, EMPTY WITHOUT LIGHT. THIS MEANS THAT THE OTHER JOINTS are all on one plane, AND DO NOT PROTRUDE OUT OF THE BODY. Therefore, all the tribes ascend as testimony above, as it is written: "there the tribes used to go up, the tribes of Yah, as a testimony to Yisrael, to give thanks to the name of Hashem" (Tehilim 122:4).

24. "And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Yosef"

This is an enigmatic passage in which the rabbis comment on the symbolic and mystical importance of Ya'akov's leaving his father-in-law, Lavan, and going into the land of Israel, once Yosef has been born and Benyamin has been conceived. For these commentators, Leah symbolizes the upper world, or all that is mysterious in life.

The Relevance of this Passage

Ya'akov's ability to evolve spiritually was limited during his stay with his Lavan. His going into the Land of Israel is a metaphor for his readiness to ascend to the level of the Upper World. The lesson for the reader is this: our physical location is a mirror of where we are spiritually. This passage awakens us to the importance of constant forward motion, both physically and spiritually, in order to continue the evolution of our souls, which is the very purpose of our life. Moreover, the act of meditating upon these verses helps our soul ascend to higher levels.

238. Rabbi Elazar quoted the verse: "And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Yosef" (Bereshheet 30:25). HE ASKS: Why did Ya'akov ask to leave only after Yosef was born? Before Yosef was born, he did not ask to leave. HE ANSWERS: As it was explained, he saw that the adversary of Esav was born, as YOSEF WOULD BE THE ADVERSARY OF ESAV, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND THE HOUSE OF YA'AKOV SHALL BE FIRE, AND THE HOUSE OF YOSEF FLAME, AND THE HOUSE OF ESAV FOR STUBBLE" (OVADYAH 1:18).

239. Come and behold: Yosef perfected the place OF YA'AKOV after him, BEING THE SFIRAH OF YESOD, THE LAST SFIRAH OF YA'AKOV. Also, Yosef deserved to be called 'Righteous', NAMELY, YESOD, where the ending of the body is, THE LAST SFIRAH. After Ya'akov saw that the body was perfected WITH THE BIRTH OF YOSEF, the body asked to leave. The final part of the body is the member of the Covenant, NAMELY, YOSEF. With all that, Binyamin completed the number, because with him the number twelve was reached.

240. One may wonder if Ya'akov knew that until this time the number of the tribes was not yet complete, even though Yosef had been born. Why, then, did he not wait for Binyamin to be born and the tribes to reach completion? HE ANSWERS: Ya'akov acted wisely, and he did know THAT THE TRIBES WERE NOT YET COMPLETED. He said: Surely if the tribes are completed here, then perfection will be achieved here; yet I do not want them to be perfected in this country--only in the Holy Land.

241. Come and behold: the twelve tribes are the perfection of the lower world, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN FROM THE CHEST DOWNWARD. After Binyamin was born, AND THE TWELVE TRIBES WERE COMPLETED, Rachel died, and the lower world, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, assumed its place and was perfected through them. Therefore, Binyamin was born only in the Holy Land. This is the meaning of the verse: "And as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me in the land of Cna'an on the way" (Bereshheet 48:7). Rachel died there, and was replaced by the lower world, which received a house in which to dwell. As long as Rachel was alive, the lower world was not yet perfected BY THE TWELVE TRIBES. Rachel died, BECAME ONE WITH THE UPPER NUKVA, and received a completed house.

242. HE ASKS: You may wonder why Leah did not die at the same time, WHEN THE TWELVE TRIBES WERE COMPLETED. HE ANSWERS: This is because the house is in the lower world, IN THE NUKVA FROM THE CHEST DOWNWARD, CALLED 'RACHEL'. And it behooves all to be perfected by it, WHICH MEANS THAT THE PERFECTION OF ALL THE LOWER BEINGS, IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH, DEPEND ON IT and not on the upper world. Therefore, Leah did not die at the same time. All that concerns Leah is hidden, as the upper world is covered and not discovered. Therefore, Leah did not die at that time, AS SHE WAS NOT ANNULLED.

243. Come and behold: this is assuredly so. All that pertains to the upper world, LEAH, is hidden, and all that pertains to the lower world is revealed. Therefore, Leah was hidden and buried in the cave of the Machpelah, and Rachel was buried by the open road. The one is hidden, and the other is open. Thus, the upper world excels in secrecy, as it is written: "And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher" (Bereshheet 30: 13).

240. ואי תימא, וכי לא הוה ידע יעקב, דעד בען לא אשתלימו שבטין, אף על גב דאתיליד יוסף, מאי טעמא לא אוריך עד דיתיליד בנימין, וישתלימו שבטין. אלא, יעקב בחכמתא עבד, ומלה ידע, אמר, ודאי אי אשתלימו הכא בלהו שבטין, הא ידענא, דתקנא דלעילא שריא עליהו כדקא יאות, ובארעא דא, לא ליבעי דישתלימו, אלא בארעא קדישא.

244. Thus, all became one, because all comes from the upper world. This is true everywhere, BOTH WHEN ALL IS PERFECT AND WHEN ALL IS NOT PERFECT. There are two worlds: the one disclosed and the other hidden. We bless the Holy One, blessed be He, only through both worlds, as it is written: "Blessed be Hashem the Elohim of Yisrael from the world to the world" (Tehilim 106:48). We therefore call the upper world "he," IN THE THIRD, HIDDEN PERSON, and the lower world "you," IN THE SECOND, PRESENT PERSON. And because He is blessed from the upper world by the Righteous, it is written: "Blessed be Hashem out of Tzion, He who dwells at Jerusalem" (Tehilim 135:21). BECAUSE THE LOWER WORLD IS BLESSED BY CHASSADIM FROM THE UPPER WORLD, IT IS REVEALED TO US. This is so because it is from Tzion, YESOD OF THE UPPER WORLD, that it is blessed. THEREFORE, THE UPPER WORLD SHOULD ALWAYS EXIST IN THIS ASPECT.

245. Come and behold: "Hashem, Hashem," AT THE BEGINNING OF THE THIRTEEN ATTRIBUTES, refers to the two worlds, the revealed and the hidden. Therefore, there is a comma between the two. But in, "from the world to the world," all is one, BECAUSE THE DISCLOSED WORLD HAS NOTHING OF ITS OWN. EVERYTHING IT HAS IS GIVEN FROM THE HIDDEN WORLD.

246. "And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Yosef." Rabbi Yehuda said: Come and behold the perfection of Ya'akov, who did not wish to leave without Lavan's permission. It may be said that at another time he did not take his leave, but rather fled from him. HE ANSWERS: This was because Ya'akov was afraid that Lavan would not let him go; then the twelve tribes would have been completed in a foreign land. Therefore, after Ya'akov saw that the time has come for Binyamin to be born, he fled, as it is written: "So he fled with all that he had" (Beresheet 31:21).

247. This was because after Binyamin was born, the Shechinah attached herself to all the tribes and lived with them. Ya'akov, who understood the mystery of wisdom, saw that once the twelve tribes were perfected, the Shechinah would be adorned and attached to them, Rachel would die, and the Shechinah would receive the house.

248. Come and behold: we have learned as much. The lower world, THE SHECHINAH, was worthy of being united with Ya'akov, as it was worthy of Moshe. However, it could not achieve union until there were twelve tribes in the house for her to be connected with. When the twelve tribes were completed, Rachel was removed, and THE SHECHINAH received the house containing the twelve tribes and became its foundation (Heb. ikar). Then, it was written: "He makes the barren (Heb. akarah) woman to keep house" (Tehilim 113:9).

249. Ya'akov said: The time has come FOR BINYAMIN TO BE BORN, AND for the twelve tribes to be completed. Surely the world above descended to the house to be connected with them--and for this poor woman, RACHEL, to be removed from before it. If she dies here, I shall never leave. Moreover, this land is not worthy of completing the house, ONLY THE HOLY LAND IS WORTHY. Therefore, "And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Yosef," means before the tribes were completed.

250. Rabbi Shimon heard. He said: All Rabbi Yehuda's words were correct, but the last surpasses them all. You may wonder why he did not leave immediately, BUT RATHER STAYED AND WORKED SIX YEARS WITH LAVAN'S CATTLE. This was because as long as Rachel was not yet pregnant with Binyamin, he was delayed. Once the time had come AND SHE WAS PREGNANT with Binyamin, he fled. And he did not request his leave FROM LAVAN so that he would not be detained, and so that Ya'akov would be connected with all the tribes in the proper place IN THE HOLY LAND.

251. Rabbi Aba began with the verse: "And Moshe went and returned to Yeter his father in law" (Shemot 4:18). Come and behold: Moshe was a shepherd for the cattle of Yitro, his father-in-law, and dwelled with him. When he desired to leave, he first obtained Yitro's permission. But why did not Ya'akov, who was a perfect man and dwelled constantly with Lavan, ask permission AS MOSHE DID? HE ANSWERS: We have learned THAT YA'AKOV DID NOT ASK LAVAN'S PERMISSION BECAUSE HE WAS AFRAID Lavan would find excuses to make him stay. Once before he had told Lavan HE WISHED TO GO HOME. Immediately Lavan found excuses, and he stayed. Therefore, since he was afraid of him, HE DID NOT ASK HIS LEAVE.

252. But Yitro did not oppose Moshe as Lavan, who was a sorcerer, opposed Ya'akov. Lavan used sorcery in everything he did against Ya'akov. Now Ya'akov did not desire to be delayed, because the Holy One, blessed be He, told him, "Return to the land of your fathers" (Beresheet 31:3). He therefore did not wish to be delayed and forsake the command of his Master. HE THEREFORE DID NOT ASK HIS PERMISSION.

25. "A song to Alamot"

The Friends discuss the mystical meaning of angels or 'messengers', who are grouped in ranks of three in the heavens, singing to the "Alamot," or the maidens of song. We learn that true spiritual songs are songs of the soul, connecting us to the supernal realm of the angels, and drawing their positive influences into our lives.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we connect our souls to the realms where angels reside, and where they serve as a metaphysical interface between the mortal and the Divine. The sacred Light received through this bonding attunes us to the positive influences of these angelic forces, so that we hear their whispers and melodies over the distractions of everyday life.

253. Come and behold. It is written: "And Elohim remembered Rachel..." (Beresheet 30: 22) He began by quoting the verse: "To the chief musician for the sons of Korach, A song to Alamot" (Tehilim 46:1). We need to study this verse because it contains the secret of wisdom. All the songs and praises that the sons of Korach uttered WERE NOT NEW. RATHER, THEY WERE OLD songs and praises sung anew. The songs and praises David sang with his followers, WHO ARE MENTIONED IN THE BEGINNING OF WITH PSALMS IN TEHILIM, were part of the secret of the upper one, BINAH, in the secret of Chochmah.

250. שָׁמַע רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן, אָמַר, וְדָאֵי כָּל מְלוֹי דְרַבִּי יְהוּדָה שְׁפִיר, וְדָא סְלִיק עַל כֻּלָּא. וְאֵי תִימָא אֲמַאי לָא אֶזְל לִיה לְאוּרְחִיָּה מִיַּד, אֲלֵא, כָּל זְמַן דְרַחֵל לָא מִתְעַבְרָא מִבְּנֵימִין, אֲתַעֲבַב תַּמָּן, כִּיּוֹן דְמִטָּא זְמַנָּא דְבְּנֵימִין, עָרַק, וְלֹא בְעָא רְשׁוּתָא, בְּגִין דְלֹא יִתְעַבַּב תַּמָּן, וְיִתְחַבֵּר יַעֲקֹב בְּכוּלְהוּ שְׁבֻטִין, בְּאַתְרָא דְאַצְטְרִיךְ.

254. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, formed the lower world, THE NUKVA, so that it resembled the upper world, BINAH, AS IT RECEIVES FROM IT. And all that David, his son Solomon, and the true prophets arranged, they arranged IN THE LOWER WORLD in the image of above, BINAH.

254. תָּא חֲזִי עֶבֶר קֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עֲלֵמָא תַתָּא
בְּגוּוֹנָא דְעֲלֵמָא עֲלָאָה, וְכַל אֵינּוֹן סְדֵרִין דְסֵדְרוּ דְיֹד
וְשִׁלְמָה בְרִיָּה, וְכַל אֵינּוֹן נְבִיאֵי קְשׁוּט בְּלָהוּ סְדְרוּ
בְּגוּוֹנָא דְלַעִילָא.

255. Come and behold: as there are watches on earth, AND THE TWELVE HOURS OF THE NIGHT ARE DIVIDED INTO THREE TIMES FOUR, so it is that in the firmament THERE ARE THREE GROUPS OF ANGELS chanting to their Master, singing always. They stand one above the other ACCORDING TO THEIR RANK, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "FOR THERE IS A HIGH ONE WHO WATCHES OVER HIM THAT IS HIGH; AND THERE ARE YET HIGHER ONES OVER THEM" (KOHLELET 5:7). They sing and praise standing in rows, EACH GROUP CHANTING ACCORDING TO ITS RANK. This has already been explained by the friends.

255. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּגוּוֹנָא דְאִיכָא מְשֻׁמְרוֹת בְּאַרְעָא, הֵכִי
נְמִי בְּרַקִיעָא, דְמִזְמְרֵי לְמַרְיָהוּ, וְאַמְרֵי שִׁירְתָּא

דְּשִׁירִין וְתוֹשְׁבָחָן, וְהָא אוֹקְמוּהָ חֲבַרְיָא.

256. HE ASKS: WHAT is the meaning of "A song to Alamot? (lit. 'maidens')" HE ANSWERS: It is similar to the verse, "There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines and young maidens without number" (Shir Hashirim 6:8). The "young maidens without number" are the same as in the verse, "Is there any number to His armies" (Iyov 25:3). As they are countless, it is written: "and young maidens without number."

256. עֲלָמוֹת שִׁיר, מְאֵי עֲלָמוֹת שִׁיר. אֵלָא בְּמָה דְאִתְּ

אֵין מְסַפֵּר.

257. They are arranged in rows facing each other, singing and praising their Master. These is "A song to Alamot (lit. 'maidens')," in the verse, for there are maidens who do not sing as these do. Thus, these are called 'maidens of song'.

257. וְכַלְהוּ שׁוּרִין שׁוּרִין, מְסַחְרָן סְדֵרִין, אֵלִין

26. Every order is by three

The Zohar explains how relations between letter and number, earth and heaven, and male and female are structured in the form of a three part structure, or triad.

The Relevance of this Passage

Before the creation of our universe, the infinite Light of the Creator shared its untold fulfillment with the infinite Vessel: Sharing and Receiving; Two Columns. The birth of our universe occurred when the primordial Vessel-composed of all the souls of humanity-purposely stopped receiving the Light of the Creator for the chance to create its own Light, and thus become the cause of its own fulfillment through spiritual development. This act brought into being a third force: Resistance. These three Columns--sharing, receiving, and resistance--are present throughout every scale of reality. In our own lives, we must use our free will as the force of resistance to control impulsive and self-serving drives. As a light bulb glows brightly when the filament performs resistance, our lives shine brilliantly when we apply restraining force. Life then has true circuitry. The strength and consciousness to live in accord with the three Columns is imbued into our nature by these passages.

258. There are three orders divided among the four directions of the universe. Every order in each direction contains three other orders, SO THAT the first order of the eastern wind comprises three orders which are actually nine. In this way, every order contains three other orders. Thus, the three orders of each direction are actually nine orders. Underneath them, there are thousands and myriads of angels.

258. תֵּלַת סְדֵרִין מִתְפָּרְשֵׁן לְכָל סֵטֵר, לְד' סֵטְרֵי

259. These nine orders all follow CERTAIN engraved letters, and each order constantly looks up SO AS TO RECEIVE PLENTY from these engraved letters WHICH PERTAIN TO IT. When these letters soar in the air of the spirit, which is assigned over everything, they travel. One letter below is struck, and it travels up and down, the two letters soaring above it. The letter below elevates the lower order and joins THE TWO SOARING LETTERS to become three letters, similar to the letters Yud-Hei-Vav, which are the three of the shining mirror, ZEIR ANPIN. These letters, YUD-HEI-VAV, divide into three orders--the two letters and the letter that joins them to form a trio.

260. Come and behold: the two supernal letters that ascend in the air, THE RIGHT LETTER AND THE LEFT LETTER, are included within each other, as Mercy is included within Judgment. FOR THE RIGHT LETTER IS THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM AND MERCY, AND THE LEFT LETTER IS CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM AND JUDGMENT. BECAUSE OF THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THEM, they are considered two. They are of the supernal world, the secret of the male. The letter that ascends to join them, NAMELY, THE MIDDLE LETTER, is a female and is included within both of them. THIS MEANS THAT THE RIGHT AND LEFT LETTERS ARE UNITED WITH THE MIDDLE LETTER, WHICH TURNS INTO THREE LETTERS OF THE RIGHT, LEFT, AND MIDDLE. As the Nukva in her entirety comprises both the right and left sides--WHICH SHE RECEIVES FROM ZEIR ANPIN IN THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "HIS LEFT HAND IS UNDER MY HEAD, AND HIS RIGHT HAND EMBRACES ME" (SHIR HASHIRIM 8:3)--and joins them, so does the MIDDLE letter, the Nukva, join the other two letters. And they TURN WITHIN THE MIDDLE LETTER into the RIGHT AND LEFT sides. THE TWO LETTERS IN IT become supernal, and it stands below them. All three letters become one, male and female IN THE SECRET OF THE UNION, LIKE A MALE AND A FEMALE--TWO UPPER ONES ARE MALE AND THE MIDDLE ONE FEMALE. For when the world was created, the two letters from the supernal world issued all the deeds below in their very shape--BUT NOT THE CENTRAL COLUMN. HENCE, THESE TWO LETTERS ARE CONSIDERED MALE. Therefore, whoever conceives them and is careful of them is beloved above and below.

261. Rabbi Shimon said that all the letters, THE 27 LETTERS OF THE ALPHABET, are males and females included within each other as one. THE LETTERS OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT ARE MALES; THOSE OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN ARE FEMALES--in the secret of the supernal and female waters. THE MALE LETTERS POUR SUPERNAL WATERS AND THE FEMALE LETTERS RAISE FEMALE WATERS. All is joined and becomes one. This is the complete union. Therefore, whoever knows of these UNIONS and is careful IN MEDITATION upon them will have a happy lot in this world and the world to come. For the main part of the properly perfected union contains groups of threes, AS THE LETTERS ARE DIVIDED INTO GROUPS OF THREE: TWO MALES ABOVE AND ONE FEMALE BELOW, on this side and that side in one unity--WHICH MEANS THAT RIGHT AND LEFT WILL BE PROPERLY UNITED BY THE MIDDLE ONE, the perfection of all. Everything is in the secret of the high order, which is in the likeness of above, IN BINAH, which is arranged by groups of threes in the secret of one.

262. After explaining the nine orders in the first arrangement towards the east, Tiferet, he now explains that the second order is of the southern wind, CHESED. There are three orders in that direction, and each is further divided into three orders. Thus, there are nine orders, as was explained IN RELATION TO THE SOUTHERN WIND. They all emerge from the order of the patriarchs, the three Columns above IN BINAH, CALLED 'AVRAHAM', 'YITZCHAK', AND 'YA'AKOV', according to the arrangement of the letters Yud-Hei-Vav of the Holy Name, as has been explained. These nine orders follow certain letters, THAT IS, THE THREE GROUPS OF THE THREE LETTERS THAT ARE RIGHT, LEFT, AND MIDDLE. They travel after them, and armies and myriads of angels below IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH travel and follow that order OF THE SOUTHERN DIRECTION.

262. סִדְרָא תְּנִינָא, דְּלִסְטֵר דְּרוּם, תְּלַת סְדְרִין אִינוּן לְהוּא סְטְרָא, וְכָל סְדְרָא וְסְדְרָא תְּלַת תְּלַת, וְאִינוּן תְּשַׁע, כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר. וְאִתּוּן אֲתַפְּלְגוּ הַכִּי. לְכָל סְטְרִי, לְאֲתַחְבְּרָא בְּלֹא בְּחַד, בְּגִין דְּאִית אֲתוּן בְּרִזָּא דְּנוּקְבָא, וְאֲתוּן בְּרִזָּא דְּרְכוּרָא, וְאֲתַחְבְּרוּ בְּלֹהוּ בְּחַדָּא, וְהוּוּ חַד, בְּרִזָּא דְּשִׁמְא קְדִישָׁא שְׁלִים, וְלִגְבִייהוּ סְדְרִין מִמֶּנּוּ, תְּלַת תְּלַת, כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר. וְכָלֹא נִמְקָא מִסְדְרָא דְּאַבְהֵן דְּלַעִילָא, בְּסְדְרָא דְּאֲתַתְקְנָא אֲתוּן דְּשִׁמְא קְדִישָׁא יְהוּ, כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר. הֵנִי סְדְרִין בְּלֹהוּ, מִתְנַהֲגִי בְּאַלִין אֲתוּן יְדִיעֵן, וְנִטְלִי בְּהוּ, וְכְמָה חִילִין וְרַבּוּן כְּלֹהוּ לְתַתָּא, דְּנִטְלִי וְאֲתַנְהֲגִי בְּסְדְרָא דָּא.

263. The third order is of the northern wind, GVURAH. There are three orders of that direction, each of which contains three orders. These nine orders are of the three sides--RIGHT, LEFT, AND MIDDLE, as has been explained.

263. סִדְרָא תְּלִיתָאָה, דְּלִסְטֵר צְפוֹן, בְּתַלַּת סְדְרִין אִינוּן לְהוּא סְטְרָא, וְאִינוּן תְּשַׁע, וּבְתַלַּת סְטְרִין תְּלַת תְּלַת לְכָל סְטְרִי, אִינוּן תְּשַׁע, וְאִינוּן סְדְרִין מִתְלַת סְטְרִין כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר.

264. The 27 ORDERS are the secret of the 27 letters. Although there are only 22 letters, the entire alphabet, TOGETHER WITH THE FINAL LETTERS MEM, NUN, TZADIK, PEI, CAF, comprises 27 LETTERS. So does this order. There are 27 orders DIVIDED into three orders for each wind: THREE TO THE EAST WIND, THREE TO THE SOUTH WIND, AND THREE TO THE NORTH WIND. BECAUSE EACH OF THE THREE IN EACH DIRECTION INCLUDES THE OTHERS, the three of each direction become nine. Altogether, there are 27 LETTERS.

264. שְׁבַעָה וְעֶשְׂרִים, בְּרִזָּא דְּאִתּוּן דְּאִינוּן שְׁבַעָה וְעֶשְׂרִין. וְאַף עַל גַּב דְּאִינוּן תְּרִין וְעֶשְׂרִין, שְׁלִימוּ דְּאִתּוּן אִינוּן שְׁבַעָה וְעֶשְׂרִין. וְהַכִּי סְדוּרָא דְּסְדְרִין אִלִין, שְׁבַעָה וְעֶשְׂרִין, לְתַלַּת תְּלַת סְדְרִין לְכָל סְטְרִי, וְאֲשַׁתְּכּוּ אִלִין ג' מֵהָאֵי סְטְרָא דְּאִינוּן ט', וְאִלִין תְּלַת מֵהָאֵי סְטְרָא דְּאִינוּן תְּשַׁע, וְאִלִין תְּלַת דְּהָאֵי סְטְרָא דְּאִינוּן תְּשַׁע. אֲשַׁתְּכּוּ כְּלֹהוּ שְׁבַעָה וְעֶשְׂרִין.

265. The secret is that these 27 are the secret of the nine female letters that are united with the other 18 orders in the secret of the males. All is as it is ought to be.

265. וְרִזָּא דְּאַלִין שְׁבַעָה וְעֶשְׂרִין, אִינוּן תְּשַׁעָה אֲתוּן דְּאִינוּן בְּרִזָּא דְּנוּקְבִי, לְאֲתַחְבְּרָא בְּהוּ נּוּקְבָא, עִם אִינוּן תְּמַנִי סְרִי סְטְרִי אַחְרָנִין, בְּרִזָּא דְּדְכָר, וְכָלֹא אִיהוּ בְּדְקָא חֲזִי.

266. Come and behold: resembling the letters in the supernal world, IN BINAH, there are other letters below, IN THE NUKVA. The supernal letters IN BINAH are big, and the lower letters IN THE NUKVA are small. Each resembles the other, and whatever is true for the LETTERS IN BINAH is true for the LETTERS IN THE NUKVA. The secrets within the mystery of male and female within the letters also apply to them, and all is perfected, WHICH MEANS THAT WHATEVER APPLIES TO THE SUPERNAL WORLD ALSO APPLIES TO THE LOWER WORLD.

266. תָּא חֲזִי, כְּגוּוּנָא דְּאִינוּן אֲתוּן עַלְאִין דְּעַלְמָא עַלְאָה, הַכִּי נִמְי אֲתוּן אַחְרָנִין לְתַתָּא, אֲתוּן עַלְאִין רְבִרְבִין, וְאֲתוּן תְּתַאִין זְעִירִין, וְכָלֹא דָּא כְּגוּוּנָא דָּא, וְכָל הֵנִי רִזִין, בְּרִזָּא דְּדְכָר וְנוּקְבָא, בְּלֹא חַד בְּשְׁלִימוּ.

27. To remember and to visit

Here the friends discuss the nature of luck in terms of remembrance in the upper world and the resulting effects in the world below. Good luck attends those without sin. Bad luck originates in remembrance on the other side, followed by a visit from its messengers, who are known as The Accusers. Their visit results in punishment and misfortune. The Relevance of this Passage

As with many of the Zohar's discourses, inner meanings are often obscured by the literal text. Good and bad luck are not authentic concepts. They are simply codes for the principle of cause and effect. We create our own luck through our behavior and interactions with other people. Actions that are selfish, abusive, or inconsiderate propagates misfortune in our lives which we mistakenly interpret as bad luck. The wisdom of this truth is awakened in our souls so that we may see the future consequences of our present actions.

267. "And Elohim remembered Rachel." This is because CHILD BEARING depends on Mazal, THE SECRET OF THE RIVER THAT FLOWS OUT OF EDEN AND WATERS THE GARDEN, THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN. Therefore the term "remembering" is used. IT IS DERIVED FROM THE WORD "REMEMBER," WHICH IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHILE VISITATION IS DERIVED FROM THE NUKVA. HE ASKS: Does the verse, "And Hashem visited Sarah" (Bereshheet 21:1), not come from Mazal, AS THE TERM "REMEMBER" IS NOT MENTIONED? It may be said that childbearing does depend on Mazal and not on a lower place, THE NUKVA. So here, there was no Mazal ('luck') for Sarah. HE ANSWERS: There is Vav-Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND THE HASHEM (IN THE TEXT: VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI) VISITED....," which comprises all in one. FOR VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI ALLUDES TO HIM AND HIS COURT OF LAW, ZEIR ANPIN TOGETHER WITH THE NUKVA. THUS, REMEMBRANCE FROM ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF MAZAL, IS ALSO MENTIONED IN CONNECTION WITH SARAH.

268. HE ASKS: If it be true THAT VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI ('AND HASHEM') INCLUDES BOTH ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, THE SECRET OF REMEMBERING AND VISITING, why then is the term "visiting" used? VAV-YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI ALSO INCLUDES "VISITING". HE ANSWERS: Because remembrance had already occurred, and the key FOR CHILDREN was delivered downward, as it is written: "But My covenant will I establish with Yitzchak, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this time..." (Bereshheet 17:21). Afterward, it is similarly written: "AND HASHEM SAID...I WILL RETURN TO YOU, AT THIS SEASON, AND SARAH SHALL HAVE A SON" (BERESHEET 18:13-14). Because remembrance has already been mentioned in the secret of above, OF ZEIR ANPIN--AS WRITTEN: "MY COVENANT," WHICH IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN--it was said in the secret of visiting, the Nukva, so that all will be united into one, and both REMEMBRANCE AND VISITATION will be together for her.

269. "And Elohim remembered Rachel." Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Yisrael, kept in bondage by Egypt; and I have remembered My covenant" (Shemot 6:5). "I have remembered" refers to remembrance (Heb. zachor), for it is above IN ZEIR ANPIN, because Mazal, which abides above in the male (Heb. zachar), comes upon visitation, the Nukva below, while she is in exile, TO REDEEM HER. It is similarly written: "And Elohim remembered Rachel," which has the same meaning as, "and I have remembered My covenant."

270. Come and see: It is written: "I have surely visited you" (Shemot 3:16). HE ASKS: COULD THE SCRIPTURE USE THE WORD "visited," while visitation was in the Nukva, who was in exile at the time? How could she say, "I have surely visited," WHEN SHE WAS IN EXILE? HE ANSWERS: Here we should look at the mystery of wisdom, AND ASK: 1) Since she was in exile, how was she revealed to Moshe, and 2) how could she say, "I have surely visited?"

267. וַיִּזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים אֶת רָחֵל, דְּהָא בְּמִזְלָא תְּלִיא, וּבְגִין כִּךְ כְּתִיב בְּהָ זְכִירָה. וְהָ פֶקֶד אֶת שָׂרָה, לְאוּ מִמִּזְלָא הוּהוּ, וְאִי תִימָא דְהָא בְּגִין בְּמִזְלָא תְּלִיין, וְלֹא לְתַתָּא, הִכָּא בְּשָׂרָה לְאוּ בְּמִזְלָא הוּהוּ. אֲלֵא וְהָ כְּתִיב, כֹּלָא כְּחֻדָּא.

271. HE ANSWERS: We have learned that when the sun shines, it is in heaven, and its power and strength everywhere on earth. Similarly, it was said OF HASHEM that "the whole earth is full of His glory," while the Temple was in existence. This verse refers to the Holy Land, NAMELY, THE NUKVA. THE SHECHINAH IS THEN WONT TO BE REVEALED. Now when Yisrael are in exile, THE SHECHINAH is above YET her power IS DRAWN TOWARD THE EARTH LIKE THE SUN, WHICH HIDES IN THE SKY, YET ITS POWER AND STRENGTH FILL THE EARTH. SHE encircles Yisrael to protect them, although they are IN EXILE in a different land.

272. HE FURTHER EXPLAINED: Come and behold. There is the Shechinah below and above THE CHEST OF ZEIR ANPIN. The Shechinah above abides in the twelve borders of the holy Chariots and the twelve supernal living creatures. The Shechinah below abides in the twelve holy tribes. The Shechinah includes of above and below and they all shine simultaneously. AND THEN, "THE WHOLE EARTH IS FULL OF HIS GLORY" (YESHAYAH 6:3), AND THE SHECHINAH IS REVEALED BELOW IN THIS WORLD. When the children of Yisrael were in exile, the Shechinah was not perfected below or above. This is because the Shechinah is in exile with them.

273. HE ASKS: How is the Shechinah amended DURING HER EXILE SO AS TO BE REVEALED BELOW? HE SAID: This is like a king whose son died. What did he do? He even turned down his bed for the mourning, and did not make it, but threw thorns and thistles under it and lay on them. So did the Holy One, blessed be He, behave when Yisrael went into exile, and the Temple was destroyed. He put thorns and thistles underneath Him. This is the meaning of the verse: "And the angel of Hashem appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush" (Shemot 3:2). HE DID THIS because Yisrael were in exile. THIS EXPLAINS HOW THE SHECHINAH WAS REVEALED TO MOSHE IN EXILE. SHE APPEARS TO MOSHE IN A THORNBUSH, WHICH IS UNPERFECT AND FULL OF JUDGMENT, FOR SHE CAN APPEAR IN THIS MANNER EVEN IN EXILE.

274. "I have surely visited you." HE RETURNED TO THE OTHER QUESTION: whom can a person who is not in his own domain, BUT IS IN EXILE, visit? What can he do? HOW COULD THE SHECHINAH SAY, "I HAVE SURELY VISITED YOU (LIT. 'VISIT I HAVE VISITED YOU')," WHEN SHE WAS IN EXILE? HE ANSWERS: "visit" means from above, ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF REMEMBRANCE, and "visited" is below IN THE NUKVA. He did not mention the word "remember," because remembrance has been over Her earlier, as it is written: "and I have remembered My covenant." Once it was written: "and I have remembered," remembrance had been inserted into Her. Therefore she later said, "Visit I have visited you," THE WORD "VISIT" ALLUDING TO THE REMEMBRANCE ALREADY GIVEN HER, because She held to that sign--IN THE WORDS "VISIT, I HAVE VISITED YOU," beforehand. The same applies to Sarah, as it is written: "And Hashem visited Sarah." As for Rachel, who was not remembered before, the term "visiting" is not used. Rather, "remembrance" is used. Everything that pertains to "remembrance" is in the secret meaning of Mazal.

275. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Chizkiyah were going from Cappadocia to Lod. Rabbi Yehuda was riding, and Rabbi Chizkiyah was on foot. As they traveled, Rabbi Yehuda dismounted FROM THE ASS and said: From now on let us be occupied with the Torah, as it is written: "ascribe greatness to our Elohim" (Devarim 32:3).

276. He said to him: It would be better if there were three of us, because one would speak and the other two would respond. He replied: This is true only for benedictions, when one mentions the name of the Holy One, blessed be He, and two respond, as it is written: "because I will call on the name of Hashem: ascribe greatness to our Elohim." "...because I will call on the name of Hashem..." is the one WHO UTTERS THE NAME; "ascribe greatness to our Elohim," refers to the two WHO RESPOND. But in regard to the Torah, even two who sit AND STUDY THE TORAH ascribe greatness, might, and the splendor of the Torah to the Holy One, blessed be He.

277. Rabbi Chizkiyah asked: In regard to the benedictions, why do we need three? He replied: This has already been explained, concerning the verse, "ascribe greatness to our Elohim," WHICH MEANS THAT TWO NEED TO RESPOND. The secret of the benedictions is that one blesses and two answer in order to raise the praise of the Holy One, blessed be He, by the secret of three--THE SECRET OF THE THREE COLUMNS: the one who blesses IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH REVEALS THE LIGHT; the two who affirm AND SUSTAIN THE BLESSINGS ARE THE LEFT AND RIGHT COLUMNS, WHICH EMBRACE THE CENTRAL COLUMN AND SHINE WITH ITS POWER. Thus, the benedictions are sustained to be fitting in the supernal secret and according to the secret of three, as explained.

278. While they were walking, Rabbi Yehuda said: We learned that there is a remembering for good and a remembering for evil; there is a visiting for good and a visiting for evil. HE EXPLAINS: The remembering for good is as it is written: "But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors" (Vayikra 26:45); "And Elohim remembered Noach" (Beresheet 8:1); "And Elohim remembered His covenant" (Shemot 2:24). There is a remembering for evil, as it is written: "For He remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passes away, and comes not again" (Tehilim 78:39). There is a visiting for good, as it is written: "I have surely visited you" (Shemot 3:16), and there is a visiting for evil, as it is written: "then I will punish (lit. 'visit') their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with strokes" (Tehilim 89:33). All these are deep mysteries.

275. רבי יהודה ורבי חזקיה, הוו אזלי מקפוטקיא ללוד, והוה רבי יהודה רכיב, ורבי חזקיה על רגליו, אדהכי נחת רבי יהודה, אמר מכאן ולהלאה נתעסק באורייתא, כמה דכתיב הבו גדל לאלהינו.

279. All the remembering and visiting for good represent specific grades of the mystery of the faith. Remembering and visiting symbolize the male and female of one mystery; REMEMBERING IS THE SECRET OF THE MALE AND VISITING OF THE FEMALE. Both are for good. The remembering and visiting for evil are the mystery of the Other Side, which is in the secret of strange Elohim, both male and female, as one. The remembering is FROM THE MALE, and visiting FROM THE FEMALE. They are always intent upon evil. Their sides correspond to each other. THE MALE AND FEMALE OF THE OTHER SIDE STAND IN OPPOSITION TO THE MALE AND FEMALE OF HOLINESS. From THE REMEMBERING AND VISITING OF HOLINESS come all the mysteries of the faith and all the holy upper GRADES, as has been explained. From THE REMEMBERING AND VISITING OF THE OTHER SIDE come out all sorts of evil, all kinds of deaths and aspects of wickedness in the world. It was explained that THE OTHER SIDE is in opposition TO HOLINESS.

280. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: This is surely so. Happy is he whose lot is with the good side. He turns not to the Other Side, but escapes it. Rabbi Yehuda answered: Assuredly this is so; happy is he who can be saved from that side, and happy are the Righteous who escape it and wage war against that side. Rabbi Chizkiyah said to him: How DO THEY WAGE WAR? His answer began with the quotation, "For by wise counsel you shall make war..." (Mishlei 24:6) What war is that? The war that a man must fight against the evil side in order to escape it.

281. Come and behold: this is what Ya'akov did to SUBDUE, deceive, and outwit Esav when it was needed in order to rule over him in the beginning and the end, so that all will be as it ought to be. The beginning and the end were as one, each resembling the other, as it is written: IN THE BEGINNING "my birthright" (bechorati, Bet Caf Resh Tav Yud), and in the end "my blessing" birchati (Bet Resh Caf Tav Yud) (Bereshheet 27:36). THEY ARE WRITTEN USING THE SAME LETTERS, BECAUSE the beginning and the end were one and the same. The purpose of all this was to dominate him by the right means as befits him. Thus, happy is he who escapes THE OTHER SIDE and can govern it.

282. Come and behold: remembrance and visiting are for good, that is, when they are as one in the mystery of the faith, THE NUKVA--NAMESLY, WHEN ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF REMEMBERING, AND THE NUKVA, THE SECRET OF VISITING, ARE UNITED. Happy is he who strives to be worthy of the faith, as it is written: "They shall walk after Hashem, Who shall roar like a lion..." (Hoshea 11:10) Rabbi Chizkiyah said: This is surely so.

282. תָּא חֲזִי, זְכוּרָה וּמְקִידָה לְטֹב, אֵינֹן כְּחֲדָא בְּרָזָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא, וְזְכָאָה אִיהוּ מֵאֵן דְּאֲשַׁתַּדֵּל בְּתַר מַהִימְנוּתָא, כְּד"א אַחְרֵי ה' יִלְכוּ כְּאַרְיֵה וְיִשָּׂאגּוּ. אָמַר רַבִּי חִזְקִיָּה הֵכִי הוּא וְדָאִי.

283. Come and behold: when a man says his prayer, he should refrain from asking, "remember me and visit me," for himself, because there is remembering and visiting for good, and remembering and visiting for evil. The accusers might receive the words, "REMEMBER ME" AND "VISIT ME," from his mouth, and then recall his sins and punish him. THIS MEANS THEY WILL BRING UPON HIM REMEMBERING AND VISITING FOR EVIL, unless he is absolutely righteous; in that case, the remembering and visiting for evil, THE MALE AND THE FEMALE OF THE KLIPAH, will look for his sins, but will not find any. ONLY THEN MAY HE SAY, "REMEMBER ME," "VISIT ME," as did Ezra, who said, "Remember me, O my Elohim, for good" (Nechemyah 13:31).

284. Whenever a man prays, it behooves him to include himself within the multitude, among the crowd. Come and behold: Elisha said to the Shunamitess, "Would you be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?" (II Melachim 4:13). "Would you be spoken for to the king" means that it was the holiday of Rosh Hashanah, when the kingdom of heaven sits in judgment on the world. The Holy One, blessed be He, is then called "the King of Judgment." Therefore, he asked her, "Would you be spoken for to the king?" THIS IS A REFERENCE TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, AS A KING.

285. It is written: "And she answered, I dwell among my own people" (Ibid.). HE ASKS: WHAT did she say? WHAT DID SHE MEAN BY THAT? HE ANSWERS: SHE SAID, I do not wish to be distinguished above as extraordinary, but rather to be one of many. Thus, it behooves a man to be included within the crowd and not be singled out, so that THE ACCUSERS shall not look at him and remember his sins.

28. Death and the shadow of death

The rabbis discuss death and how it may be escaped. God does not kill humankind. Men die when they walk in the shadow of the Angel of Death. When God's wisdom prevails on Earth, death will vanish forever.

The Relevance of this Passage

Death is an illusion of this physical world. It helps correct the soul when the accumulation of negativity in the body becomes too great a task to correct in the present lifetime. Negativity is aroused when behavior is rooted in Evil Inclination. When mankind has fully abolished this aspect of his nature, immortality will become the new reality. This can be hastened by a concentrated, meditative connection to the Hebrew texts that distill this wisdom.

286. Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse: "have the gates of death been opened to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?" (Iyov 38:17). The Holy One, blessed be He, said this to Iyov, who was aggravated by the judgments of the Holy One, blessed be He. Come and behold: Iyov said, "Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him (Heb. lo)" (Iyov 13:15). It is written "lo (Lamed Aleph)," (lit.'not'), but read as with lo (Lamed Vav) ('in him')". Thus, it includes everything, AND ALSO SAYS THAT THOUGH HE SLAYS HIM, HE WILL NOT TRUST IN HIM.

283. וְתָא חֲזִי, בַּר נֶשׁ כַּד צִלִּי צְלוֹתִיה, לֹא יוֹמָא עֲלִיה זְכַרְנִי וּמְקַרְנִי. בְּגִין דְּאִיפֵא זְכִירָה וּמְקִירָה לְטַב, וּזְכִירָה וּמְקִירָה לְבִישׁ, וּזְמִינִין לְנִטְלָא מִלְּה מִן פּוֹמָא, וְאַתִּינִין לְאַדְכְּרָא חוּבוֹי דְּבַר נֶשׁ וְלַעֲנָשָׁא לִיה. בַּר אִי אִיהוּ זְכָאָה שְׁלִים, דְּכַד בְּדַקִּי חוּבוֹי הֵיִיא זְכִירָה וּמְקִירָה לְבִישׁ, לֹא יִשְׁכַּחוּן לּוֹן, בְּגִין עֲזָרָא דְּאָמַר זְכָרָה לִי אֱלֹהֵי לְטוֹבָה.

287. The Holy One, blessed be He, asked him: 'Do I kill people?' "... have the gates of death been opened to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?" How many gates are open on that side THROUGH WHICH YOU CAN ESCAPE DEATH? BUT EVERYWHERE death controls them, because the gates are not opened to men who do not know of them. IN THE FUTURE, HOWEVER, WHEN THE VERSE IS FULFILLED, "FOR THE EARTH SHALL BE FULL OF THE KNOWLEDGE OF HASHEM" (YESHAYAH 11:9), THEN, "HE WILL DESTROY DEATH FOR EVER" (YESHAYAH 25:8). THUS, THEY DIE BECAUSE THEY DO NOT KNOW HOW TO BE GUARDED, AND NOT BECAUSE THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, KILLS THEM.

288. "Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death." HE ASKS: What are the gates of death, and what are the gates of the shadow of death? HE ANSWERS: They are as one, joined together LIKE MALE AND FEMALE ARE JOINED TO BE ONE. We learned that "death" means the Angel of Death. It has already been explained TO BE THE SECRET OF THE SERPENT, WHICH IS FEMALE. The shadow of death is he who rides upon death, NAMELY, SAMAEL WHO RIDES UPON THE SERPENT. It is its shadow and gives it the power to be united into one bond. And so they are one.

289. All the grades issued by them are connected TO THE MALE AND THE FEMALE OF THE KLIPOT; THEY are their gates. It is the same above, IN HOLINESS, as it is written: "Lift up your heads, O gates" (Tehilim 24:7). They are called 'rivers and springs', THAT IS, THE FOUNDATIONS OF the six ends of the world, THE MALE AND THE FEMALE OF HOLINESS. Here also, there are gates of death and gates of the shadow of death of the Other Side. They are grades that rule over the world. The gates of death and the gates of the shadow of death are male and female, clinging together.

290. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, addressed these words to Iyov: "As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away: so he who goes down to the grave shall come up no more" (Iyov 7:8). together with, "have the gates of death been opened to you?" Thus he may know that they are all under My authority, and in the future they will be removed from the world, as it is written: "He will destroy death forever."

287. אָמַר לוֹ קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְכִי אֲנִי קָטוּל בְּנֵי נֶשָׂא, הִנְגְלוּ לְךָ שַׁעְרֵי מוֹת וְשַׁעְרֵי צְלָמוֹת תְּרָאָה, כְּמֵה תִרְעִין אֵינּוֹן פְּתִיחֵן בְּהוּא סְטְרָא. וּמוֹתָא שְׁלֵטָא עֲלֵיהוּ, וּכְלֵהוּ סְתִימִין מִבְּנֵי נֶשָׂא, וְלֹא יִדְעִין אֵינּוֹן שַׁעְרִים.

29. And Elohim remembered Rachel

The Zohar discusses the ability of Rachel to give birth to Binyamen, which came about through the spiritual level of Mazal. This spiritual realm is where all child-bearing originates.

The Relevance of this Passage

Though it may be a person's destiny to be unable to bear children as a result of a prior incarnation, spiritual transformation of character gives one the power to rise above destiny-the stars and planets in the heavens-and experience in the miracle of childbirth.

We can reach this spiritual level, which lies above the plane of the planets, through the Light that shines in Rachel's soul. Our connection to the matriarch's soul is made through this passage and we can share her energy with people who are struggling to bear children.

291. Come and behold: "And Elohim remembered Rachel, and Elohim hearkened to her, and opened her womb" (Bereshheet 30:22). HE ASKS: Why is Elohim mentioned twice? WOULD IT NOT BE ENOUGH TO SAY, 'AND HE HEARKENED TO HER AND OPENED HER WOMB?' HE ANSWERS: This is because one is from the world of the male, NAMELY, BINAH, WHICH IS CALLED 'ELOHIM'; and one is from the world of the female, NAMELY, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, ALSO CALLED 'ELOHIM'. For it depends upon Mazal, WHICH IS OF THE MALE WORLD, AS IT HAS ALREADY BEEN EXPLAINED THAT CHILDBEARING DEPENDS ON MAZAL.

292. When Rachel was inspired by the name OF BINYAMIN, as it is written: "Hashem shall add (Heb. yosef) to me another son" (Bereshheet 30:23), Ya'akov knew that it would be so because she is worthy of increasing the number of the tribes TO TWELVE. He also knew THAT AFTER THAT, she would no longer live in the world. That is why he wanted to go TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL: SO THAT THE TRIBES WOULD BE COMPLETED IN THE LAND OF YISRAEL AND RACHEL SHOULD NOT DIE OUTSIDE OF YISRAEL. He could not go BECAUSE LAVAN DETAINED HIM. So when Binyamin was due, NAMELY, AFTER SHE CONCEIVED HIM, he ran away so that the House would not be perfected BY THE TWELVE TRIBES, and the Holy World, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, would not be attached to it in a foreign country.

293. This is the meaning of the verse: "And Hashem said to Ya'akov, 'Return to the land of your fathers, and to your kindred; and I will be with you'" (Bereshheet 31:3). HE ASKS: What is THE MEANING OF, "and I will be with you?" HE ANSWERS: THE Holy One, blessed be He, said to him--Until now Rachel, the foundation of the house, was with you. From now on, I shall be with you and take the House, NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH, with you by the twelve tribes. This is what is meant by the verse: "And as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me" (Bereshheet 48:7). It was because of me that Rachel was removed, and another tenant, NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH, came in and dwelt with me in the House.

30. "Appoint me your wages"

The rabbis comment on Ya'akov's payment by his father-in-law, Lavan. Because Ya'akov was whole-hearted and sincere in his relations with Lavan, God rescued him and took him into the Holy Land, even though Lavan dealt with him unfairly. Through his honesty, Ya'akov was testing his luck—a necessary precaution before he could take the next step out of exile. This verse teaches us to deal honestly even with those who exploit us. Time will bring our reward.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our rewards in life are often delayed by time, to test the authenticity of our virtuous behavior. The delay may create the illusion that honest behavior goes unrewarded, and that the wicked prosper from their negative deeds. This severely limited view of life only generates affliction and judgment at a later point in our lives. Here the ability to perceive the cause and effect principle that governs the cosmos is aroused in our consciousness.

294. "Appoint me your wages, and I will give it" (Bereshheet 30:28). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "Appoint?" Rabbi Yitzchak said: The wicked one said—I see that Ya'akov has eyes only for females, therefore he shall serve me. He then said: "Appoint (Heb. nokvah) me your wages," a female (Heb. nekevah) shall be your wages, as before. "...and I will give it..." means 'tell me what woman you have cast your eyes on, and you shall serve me for her.'

291. תא חזי, ויזכר אלהים את רחל וישמע אליה אלהים ויפתח את רחמה. תרי זמנין, אלהים אלהים, אמאי, אלא, חד מעלמא דרכורא, וחד מעלמא דנוקבא, בגין דבמזלא תלויא מלתא.

295. "And Ya'akov said, 'You shall not give me anything'" (Beresheet 30:31). Ya'akov said, heaven forbid! whatever I did, I did for the glory of the holy King AND NOT FOR MY PASSIONS. Therefore, "You shall not give me anything," because it was NEVER my intention but, "if you will do this thing for me..."

296. "And he removed that day the he goats" (Beresheet 30:35). Rabbi Elazar began the discussion with the verse: "Hashem, who shall abide in Your tent" (Tehilim 15:1) This was explained by the friends. "He that walks in perfection" is Avraham, for when he was circumcised, he became perfect; "works Righteousness" refers to Yitzchak; and he who "speaks truth" is Ya'akov. Assuredly, Ya'akov cleaved to the attribute of Truth, why did he behave as he did with Lavan, NAMELY, WHEN PEELING THE RODS?

297. HE ANSWERS: Ya'akov was testing his luck BY WHAT HE DID. It is permissible for a man to see if fortune is with him before he returns to his country. If his luck stands by him, all is well; if it does not, he shall not set foot to go until the time is favorable.

298. Come and see: It is written: "So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come..." (Beresheet 30:33) for he did not attempt to obtain something from Lavan for nothing, but did everything truthfully and wholeheartedly. Moreover, he received permission from Lavan to do this. Thus, it is written THAT HE ANSWERS HIM: "I have learned by signs that Hashem has blessed me for your sake" (Ibid. 27). Lavan used magic and sorcery and tested his luck to find out WHETHER HE SUCCEEDED because of Ya'akov. He found that every month he added a hundred sheep, a hundred lambs, and a hundred male goats to his flocks because of Ya'akov, AND THEREFORE GAVE HIM PERMISSION.

299. Rabbi Aba said: Ya'akov used to bring an additional thousand cattle, thousand lambs, and thousand male goats every month. This is what is meant by the verse: "For the little which you had before I came is now increased to a multitude; and Hashem has blessed you since my coming" (Beresheet 30:30). Blessing from above does not dwell on less than a thousand of each kind. So there were a thousand sheep, a thousand lambs, and a thousand male goats, since blessing from above does not dwell on a lesser number. Thus, Ya'akov brought Lavan great wealth.

300. When Ya'akov asked for his wages, he found only ten of each kind, yet he thought it generous. He saw THE DIFFERENCE between the small amount he received from Lavan and what Lavan received as a result of his efforts. And what Ya'akov received was given reluctantly, as a result of the rods he placed against the cattle.

301. Come and behold: how much did the perfect Ya'akov toil for Lavan? It is written: "And he set three days' journey between himself and Ya'akov" (Beresheet 30:36), and he brought him much wealth. Yet because Lavan did not want to pay Ya'akov's wages, he gave Ya'akov ten of this kind and ten of that kind, and said to him: Take these, and if they issue as you said, SPECKLED AND SPOTTED, they will be your wages. THIS MEANS HE MAY TAKE TEN OF EACH. This is the meaning of the verse, "and changed my wages ten times (Heb. monim)," (Beresheet 31:7) that is, ten of (Heb. min) this and ten of (Heb. min) that. It is written: "And your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times." By these ten, he strove after the Holy One, blessed be He, and blessed Him. With all his conditions, Lavan went back on his words and took everything from Ya'akov, until the Holy One, blessed be He, took pity on him and took from Lavan by force.

31. The rods

In this passage the rabbis discuss the allegorical meaning of the rods, or peeled branches of poplar, that Jacob used to separate his flocks from those of Laban at the drinking troughs. These rods represent the power of judgment, or the ability to make distinctions. Rabbi Elazar says, "All these verses instruct us wisely," even the most trivial.

The Relevance of this Passage

In our material existence, the differences between good and evil, and truth and falsehood, are often blurred. This makes our spiritual efforts very challenging, and thus very rewarding also. The power of discernment is instilled in our consciousness, so that our choices in life keep us secure in our spiritual path.

302. Rabbi Elazar said: All these verses instruct us wisdom. We have learned that in supernal matters, some depend on actions, SUCH AS TEFILIN AND THE TZIZIT (FRINGES); some depend on speech, LIKE THE RECITAL OF THE SH'MA AND PRAYER; and some on devotion, SUCH AS LOVE AND FEAR. Whoever wishes to receive blessings should do so through prayer, speech, and devotion. Yet some are not DRAWN through prayer, but depend on actions.

302. אָמַר רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר כָּל הַנִּי קְרָאֵי, לְאַחְזָאָה חֲכָמְתָא קָא אֲתִיין, דְּתַנִּינֵן מְלִין דְּלֵעִילָא, מְנַהוּן תְּלִיין בְּעוֹבְדָא, וּמְנַהוּן בְּמִלּוּלָא, וּמְנַהוּן בְּרַעוּתָא דְּלָבָא. וּמֵאֵן דְּבַעֵי לְאַמְשַׁכָּא בְּרַכָּאן, בְּצִלוּתָא, בְּמִלּוּלָא, וּרְעוּתָא. וּמְנַהוּן דְּלֹא בְּצִלוּתָא, אֲלֵא בְּעוֹבְדָא תְּלִיין.

303. Come and behold: all that honest Ya'akov did was wise. It is written: "And he set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs" (Beresheet 30:38). All this he did in wisdom, to draw blessings from the source of all to the supernal grades, which are his lot.

303. תָּא חֲזִי יַעֲקֹב שְׁלִים, כָּל מָה דְּעֵבַד, בְּחֲכָמְתָא עֵבִיד, כְּתִיב וַיִּצַּג אֶת הַמְּקָלוֹת אֲשֶׁר פָּצַל בְּרֵהֻטִים בְּשִׁקְתוֹת הַמַּיִם, כֹּלָא בְּחֲכָמְתָא, לְאַמְשַׁכָּא בְּרַכָּאן, מִמְּבוּעָא דְּכֹלָא, לְכַלְהוּ דְּרֵגִין עֲלָאִין, דְּאִינוּן חוּלְקִיָּה וְעַדְבִּיָּה.

304. HE ASKS: What are "the rods?" AND HE ANSWERS: They are the grades of Judgment, "which he had peeled," NAMELY, from which he removed Judgment; "in the gutters" (Heb. rehatim) is similar to the verse, "a king is caught in its tresses (Heb. rehatim)" (Shir Hashirim 7:6), because from that king, THE SUPERNAL KING, blessings come to all the worlds.

304. אֶת הַמְּקָלוֹת. מֵאֵן מְקָלוֹת, אֲלִין דְּרֵגִין דְּאִינוּן בֵּי דִּינָא. אֲשֶׁר פָּצַל, דְּאֵעֵבַר מְנַהוּן דִּינָא. בְּרֵהֻטִים: הֵינֵנו דְּכִתְיִב מֶלֶךְ אֲסוּר בְּרֵהֻטִים, דְּהָא מֵהוּא מֶלֶךְ, אֲתִיין בְּרַכָּאן לְכַלְהוּ עֲלָמִין.

305. Another explanation for the verse, "a king is caught in its tresses," is that this King, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, is bound and tied to the supernal gutters through which everything is watered by the high King. "...in the watering troughs..." refers to the rivers that run until they come to the place where they gather. "...when the flocks came to drink..." is similar to the verse, "they give drink to every wild beast: the wild asses quench their thirst" (Tehilim 104:11), which refers to the place where the water gathers, THE NUKVA, and everyone, THE INHABITANTS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH, comes to drink of it.

306. And they were heated." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of this verse? HE ANSWERS: When the north wind blows UPON THE NUKVA, NAMELY THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM, water, which is plenty, congeals and does not flow. When the south wind, THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT, CHASSADIM, RISES, the water is heated, the ice breaks, and it flows TO THE THREE WORLDS: BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH. Then everyone drinks, because the heat from the south breaks THE FROZEN WATER. Everyone is heated and drinks with joy, because the coldness of the north HAS PASSED. This is the meaning of the verse, "And they were heated." HE ASKS: Why is it written IN THE FEMININE, WHEN 'CATTLE' IS MASCULINE? HE ANSWERS: Because they are all females.

32. "And he took a fresh poplar rod"

This verse continues the discussion of the secret meaning of the rods Ya'akov used to separate his animals from those of Lavan. Rabbi Elazar comments that God selected Ya'akov as his Chosen, and that Ya'akov also chose God. Typically, the Zohar here conflates cause and effect as one: that is, God choosing Ya'akov and Ya'akov choosing God are one and the same, indicating interrelated nature of creation. In Rabbi Elazar's interpretation, "Man is the measure of all things." God not only chooses his flock, but each of us has the power to choose God as well.

The Relevance of this Passage

The power of the spiritual truths throughout this section awakens a realization of the power of choice God has bestowed upon us. We begin to recognize the daily opportunities to choose the Light of God over the evil of Darkness.

307. Ya'akov meant to perform the following act wisely, NAMELY, TO DIRECT HIS ACTIONS ACCORDING TO SUPERNAL GRADES, as it is written: "And Ya'akov took him rods of fresh poplar" (Bereshheet 30:37). Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "For Yah has chosen Ya'akov to Himself, Yisrael for His peculiar possession" (Tehilim 135:4). Come and behold: we do not know from the verse, "For Yah has chosen Ya'akov to Himself," who chose whom. Did the Holy One, blessed be He, choose Ya'akov, or did Ya'akov choose the Holy One, blessed be He. IN HEBREW, IT CAN BE INTERPRETED BOTH WAYS. HE ANSWERS: From what the scripture tells us, I know that the Holy One, blessed be He, took Ya'akov for Himself as His portion. As it is written: "For Hashem's portion is His people; Ya'akov is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9).

309. "...and peeled white streaks in them..." He removed the Judgment FROM THE ALMOND AND THE PLANE TREE THAT ARE OF THE LEFT, and connected them to the right. He himself, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, came between them and brought them together so that they became one with two colors. With all that, he "made the white appear" IN SUCH A MANNER that the white dominated the red. Why should he do that? To pour blessings on his portion, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, from the universal source, and to perfect this grade by the three COLUMNS, so the three COLUMNS shall become as one.

310. We already explained the verse, "in the gutters in the watering troughs." By this wise act, BY THE PERFECTION OF THE THREE COLUMNS, blessings flow downward; all the worlds are watered, and blessings dwell on them, as was explained when discussing the verses, "in the morning he shall devour the prey" (Beresheet 49:27), and, then "at night he shall divide the spoil" (Ibid.). Then all the worlds below will be blessed, THE THREE WORLDS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH. And Ya'akov took his portion from the blessings which dwell on him below, because it is the lot of the Holy One, blessed be He.

Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

311. "And Ya'akov took him rods of fresh poplar..." The intention of this act was for the bonds of Faith--TO DRAW THREE KNOTS, THE THREE COLUMNS, ON THE NUKVA, CALLED 'FAITH'. The sound of sounds was brought from above downward, and our eyes opened. HE EXPLAINED: The wheel turned a few times and the melodious sound was heard. Those who slumber and sleep, who have sleep in their eye sockets, awake! They do not know, or look, or see, for they shut their ears, heavy hearted, asleep without knowledge. The Torah is before them, yet they pay not attention, nor know what they look at. They see, yet do not see. The Torah raises sounds. Behold, fools, open your eyes, and know. But there is no one to notice, no one to lend an ear. How long will you be in darkness because of your evil desires? Look to know, and the shining light shall be revealed to you.

312. As a result of his problems in a foreign country and rule with strange grades, INSTEAD OF IN THE HOLY LAND, honest Ya'akov rejected them all and chose as his inheritance--NAMELY, WITHIN THE CENTRAL COLUMN--a light out of darkness, THE RIGHT COLUMN, and wisdom out of stupidity, THE LEFT COLUMN. He honored his Master while still under foreign rule IN PADDAN ARAM, HE BEING THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Then it was said of him:

"Ya'akov shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now grow pale" (Yeshayah 29:22).

313. The pure knot rose in the innermost place. Before it found an inhabited place, that place did not exist; it was lost to all, and ruin was everywhere. Ruin alludes to the male, Samael, who was created from the impurities of the might of Yitzchak. Death is its female, the primordial serpent called a 'wife of harlotry', about whom it is written: "Her feet go down to death" (Mishlei 5:5). These two, Ruin and Death, heard the strong commandment of the King.

314. There is a deeply held mystery, undisclosed and not revealed, that is, hidden more than any thought. From it came the letter Yud, the supernal point from which everything else develops. THE YUD drew and issued the letter Hei, the supernal mother, who waters all. From this Hei comes the letter Vav, the secret of the six SFIROT, which unites all the sides. It is " the rods of fresh poplar and almond and plane tree."

315. It contains two arms. THE ARMS come out and are included within the last Hei, to bind the tabernacle into one. Then the thirteen attributes of Mercy become one, AS THE NUMERICAL VALUE OF ECHAD ('ONE') IS THIRTEEN. White was engraved on the colors and predominates, as it is written: "white appear." Then it reads, "Hashem shall be one and His name One" (Zecharyah 14:9) and "Hashem is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures: He leads me in the paths of Righteousness" (Tehilim 23:1).
End of Tosefta (Addendum)
Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

316. "And Ya'akov took him," means that he chose his lot and portion. "The rod of fresh (also: 'moist') poplar," is the Right COLUMN, the white color. It is moist, FROM THE ASPECT of water, CHASSADIM. The almond is the Left COLUMN, red as a rose, and the plane tree combines them together, BEING THE RIGHT COLUMN, WHICH CAUSES THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT TO BE INCLUDED WITHIN EACH OTHER. Right embraces and overpowers them through its WHITE color, as it is written: "white appears." THIS INDICATES THAT THOUGH ZEIR ANPIN, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, is connected to the two Columns, RIGHT AND LEFT, its lot is with the Right Column. It engraved THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT on both COLUMNS. He was then called a 'perfect man', complete in every respect.

316. וַיִּקַּח לוֹ יַעֲקֹב, בְּרִיר לִיָּה לְחוּלְקִיָּה לְעַדְבִּיָּה, מַקְל לְבָנָה לַח, סְטְרָא דִימִינָא, גּוּוֹן חַוּוּר, לַח: סְטְרָא אִיְהוּ דְמִינִים. וְלֹז: דָּא סְטְרָא דְשְׁמָאֲלָא, סוּמְקָא כּוּוּרְדָּא. וְעֶרְמוֹן: כְּלִיל דָּא בְּדָא. וְכְלָהוּ אֲחִיד יְמִינָא חַוְרָא בְּגוּוּנִיָּה, וְסַלְקָא בְּהוּ. דְכְּתִיב מַחְשֵׁף הַלְבָן, דְאֵף עַל גַּב דְאֲחִיד לְתִרִין סְטְרִין, נְטַל חוּלְקִיָּה לְסְטֵר יְמִינָא, וְאִגְלִיף בְּכְלָא, בְּהַאי סְטְרָא וּבְהַאי סְטְרָא, כְּדִין אֶקְרִי גְבַר שְׁלִים, שְׁלִים בְּכְלָא.

317. It is written in the scriptures: "And it came to pass, whenever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Ya'akov laid the rods..." This mystery of mysteries was transmitted to those who were wise of heart. Within the legions of High Angels, there are grades and higher grades. Some are internal and some external. The internal are attached to the Holy King, ZEIR ANPIN, and are attached to Yisrael, the holy children of the Holy One, blessed be He. They are called "the stronger (also: 'attached') cattle," NAMELY, the troops OF ANGELS attached above TO THE RIGHT SIDE and TO THE CENTRAL COLUMN below.

318. When the passion of the angels is for the supernal splendor of above, the middle pillar, the perfected Ya'akov, takes the rods, THE PORTIONS OF the head Tefilin, AND PUTS THEM in the gutters, the place and receptacle of the Tefilin. From this place, all the supernal armies and battalions, which are attached above TO THE RIGHT COLUMN and below TO THE CENTRAL COLUMN, NAMELY, THE STRONGER CATTLE, receive light and resplendence. IN THE SAME MANNER, once they receive illumination from the gutters and the troughs of water, they become springs and sources which flow down ON BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH generously.

319. For this reason, Ya'akov distinguished between the supernal holy grades and the other grades of the rest of the nations, as it is written: "and he put his own flocks by themselves and put them not to Lavan's cattle." He separated cattle for himself so that his portion would not be like that of the other nations. In the same manner, Ya'akov separated the grades of faith above. HE SEPARATED THE STRONGER CATTLE, BORN OF THE NUKVA CALLED 'FAITH', FROM THE EXTERNAL TROOPS DRAWN FROM THE LEFT. He also had to separate the grades of the holy armies below--THE HEALTHY LAMBS BORN TO THE CATTLE WERE SEPARATED FROM THE FEEBLE ONES BORN TO THE EXTERNAL ARMIES--to attach them to the palaces of the Queen, THE NUKVA.

320. All bear the mark of the High King, ZEIR ANPIN, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, because as the children of Yisrael are marked AND DISTINGUISHED among the nations, so are the grades of the supernal troops of HOLY angels distinguished as the portion of the Holy One, blessed be He, from the other armies and legions of angels, WHICH ARE NOT OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Therefore, Ya'akov chose for his lot and portion the secret of the Faith, THE NUKVA. And the Holy One, blessed be He, chose Ya'akov from among the other armies and legions of the world.

321. The supernal legions are divided among themselves, because when the brightness of the fire within the illumination of the Shechinah is revealed, all the other grades, DRAWN FROM THE LEFT, are ashamed and enfeebled; THAT IS, THEY ARE WEAK IN THEIR PASSION for the splendor they can not approach. But the holy grades are all perfected BY THE CENTRAL COLUMN, YA'AKOV. When the splendor is revealed, they joyously ascend to approach it and cling to it. And the splendor is thus improved because of them. This is the secret of, "so the feebler were Lavan's," BECAUSE THEY ARE DRAWN FROM THE LEFT AND THEY ARE ENFEEBLED WHEN THE SPLENDOR IS REVEALED. "...and the stronger Ya'akov's..." ARE THOSE WHO ARE PURIFIED AND CAN BE ATTACHED TO IT.

322. Ya'akov had to choose and divide the STRONGER holy grades as his portion, from the FEEBLE grades of other nations. Ya'akov had to do all this. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, wrote in the Torah about the faithfulness AND RIGHTEOUSNESS of Ya'akov in these secret words. Happy is his portion. End of Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

33. "Blessings are upon the head of the righteous"

Rabbi Shimon explains the verse "Blessings are upon the head of the righteous." When blessings flow into this world, they emanate from those people who read Torah and keep God's commandments.

The Relevance of this Passage

The truly righteous souls in our world uphold and sustain its existence. Their souls are worth far more than the souls of millions of wicked human beings. The deeds of the few outweigh the abundance of negative deeds performed by the multitudes. We gain the power of the righteous to help to counter any negative deeds that we have committed.

323. Rabbi Yesa Junior frequently visited Rabbi Shimon. He said to him: It is written, "Blessings are upon the head of the righteous" (Mishlei 10:6), when it should have been written: 'upon the righteous'. Why, then, is it written: "head of the righteous?" He replied: The "head of the Righteous" is the holy crown, THE CROWN OF YESOD. This has already been explained. Moreover, Ya'akov is the head of the righteous. He is TIFERET, AND THE BODY, AND IS CALLED THE "HEAD OF THE RIGHTEOUS" because he receives blessings and showers them on the righteous, NAMELY, ON YESOD, CALLED 'RIGHTEOUS', from where they flow in every direction, THAT IS, RIGHT AND LEFT OF MALCHUT. Thus, all the worlds are blessed.

324. We also explained that the verse, "Blessings are upon the head of the righteous," refers to the place, which is the covenant, called 'righteous', from which rivers flow. As the mouth of the pitcher, from which the wine is poured, is at the top, so is the head of the righteous. The place from which springs gush into the Nukva is called the 'head of the Righteous'. The righteous is the head because all the blessings dwell therein AND FLOW FROM THERE.

322. ואצטריך לבררא ולא תפרשא דרגין קדישין דחולקיה. מאינון דרגין דשאר עמין, ובכללא אצטריך יעקב קדישא וע"ד קודשא ברין הוא כתיב באורייתא, מהימנותא דיליה, בגו סתרי מלין אלין. זכאה חולקיה. (ער כאן סתרי תורה)

323. רבי ייסא זוטא, הוה שכיח קמיה דרבי שמעון, אמר ליה, האי דכתיב ברכות לראש צדיק, לצדיק מבעי ליה, מאי לראש צדיק. אמר ליה, ראש צדיק: דא היא עטרה קדישא, ואוקמוה. תו, ראש צדיק, דא יעקב, דאיהו נטיל ברכאן, ונגיד לון לצדיק, ומתמן אזדריקו לכל עיבר, ומתברכן כלהו עלמין.

325. We should further explain that a man who succeeded in keeping the sign of the Covenant and observing the precepts of the Torah is called 'righteous', and is considered righteous from head to feet. OF HIM THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "BLESSINGS ARE UPON THE HEAD OF THE RIGHTEOUS." For when blessings flow into the world, they dwell on his head, and it is because of him that blessings abide in the world--through the holy, righteous children that are his issue.

326. Rabbi Yesa further said: It is written, "I have been young, and now am old..." (Tehilim 37:24). This verse was said to have been uttered by the Minister of the World. He said it with greater wisdom than most people think. HE THEREFORE WISHED TO UNDERSTAND ITS MEANING. Rabbi Shimon said: My son, indeed THIS VERSE WAS WRITTEN WITH GREAT WISDOM, because the words, "I have been young, and now am old," refer to the holy union.

34. "I have not seen a just man forsaken"

This verse refers to the fact that a righteous person, even in exile, cannot be abandoned by the eternal Light of the Creator, regardless of the changes that are taking place in the supernal world.

The Relevance of this Passage

Sometimes, the presence of negativity in our environment is so intense, it can attach itself to even the most spiritual of people, even though it's unwarranted. However, through the Light of this passage, we can connect ourselves to a higher spiritual level where the negative vibrations of the physical environment are unable to exert any form of influence.

327. The verse, "yet I have not seen a just (lit. 'righteous') man forsaken" (Tehilim 37:24), praises the union OF ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA. THIS TEACHES US THAT there is no day, ZEIR ANPIN, without night, THE NUKVA. For night always clings to day, ZEIR ANPIN TO THE NUKVA. The Righteous, YESOD, is attached above TO ZEIR ANPIN, DAY, and below TO THE NUKVA, NIGHT. THIS IS THE SECRET OF JOINING TOGETHER IN UNENDING UNITY.

328. What is the meaning of the verse: "and his seed begging bread" (Tehilim 37:24)? HE SAID: As long as his seed flows, he claims and asks not for the Nukva, because she is with him in a never ending union. She is then ready for him, because the seed is not ejaculated until the female is ready. Their passion is as one, in unending devotion. Therefore, he does not have to ask for her.

329. He said to him: This is not so in exile. ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA ARE IN AN UNENDING UNION ONLY WHEN THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL ARE IN THEIR LAND AND THE TEMPLE STANDS, NOT DURING THE TIME OF EXILE. HE ANSWERS: It is written, "his seed BEGGING BREAD," rather than, 'he BEGGING BREAD'. When is THE SEED ejaculated? When the female is united with the male. It may be said that the scripture also reads, "yet I have not seen a just man forsaken," WHICH REFERS TO THE MALE HIMSELF. YOU MAY FURTHER ASK how it is in exile, WHEN A JUST MAN IS FORSAKEN AND NOT UNITED WITH THE NUKVA?

325. תו, ההוא בר נש, דזכי למנטר את קיימא קדישא, ועביר פקודי דאורייתא, צדיק אקרי, ומרישיה ועד רגלוי הכי אקרי. וכד ברכאן נגדין לעלמא, שריון על רישיה, ומניה קיימי ברכאן לעלמא, בבנין קדישין זכאין דאוקים.

327. והכי הוא. ולא ראיתי צדיק נעזב, דא הוא שבחא דיחודא, דלא אשתבח יום בלא לילה, דהא לילה ביה אשתבח תדירא, וצדיק אחיד לעילא, ואחיד לתתא.

329. אמר ליה, ובזמנא דגלותא לאו הכי. אמר לו זרעו בתיב, ולא איהו, אימתי נפיק, כד נוקבא בדבוקא חד עם דכורא. ואי תימא לא ראיתי צדיק נעזב, בזמנא דגלותא מאי היא.

330. HE ANSWERS THAT even during THE TIME OF EXILE, he is attached above TO ZEIR ANPIN, who never forsakes him. THEREFORE, THE SCRIPTURE READS, "YET I HAVE NOT SEEN A JUST MAN FORSAKEN," EVEN IN EXILE. At another time, AS LONG AS THE TEMPLE STANDS, the righteous are never forsaken by the Nukva. He is then attached above TO ZEIR ANPIN and below TO THE NUKVA. We therefore find that at the time of exile, he is attached above TO ZEIR ANPIN, and at another time, he is attached to both sides, above and below, ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA. In either case, he is never left alone.

330. אֵלָא, הָא אַחִיד לְעִילָא. וְלֹא נַעֲזֹב לְעַלְמִין, בְּזִמְנָא אַחְרָא, לֹא נַעֲזֹב מִנוּקְבָא, אַחִיד לְעִילָא, וְאַחִיד לְתַתָּא, אַחִיד לְעִילָא, בְּזִמְנָא דְגְלוּתָא. בְּזִמְנָא אַחְרָא, אַחִיד לְתַרִּין סְטְרִין, לְעִילָא וְתַתָּא, וְלְעוֹלָם אֵינוּ נַעֲזֹב.

35. "And He set them in the firmament of heaven"

This paradoxical passage locates "the firmament of heaven" in the "final" or most earthy part of the human body, the genitals. The end is the beginning; the lowest is most high.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our physical world is the lowest of all dimensions. Yet, because the desires implanted within physical human beings are the most intense, the physical world has the power to reveal the greatest amount of spiritual Light. When we transform our most extreme desires from negative to positive, we create Light for all the worlds. Our most powerful instinctive desires are our sexual impulses. When these desires are tamed and directed towards spiritual endeavors-sharing love with your spouse, bringing down positive energy from above, bringing forth new life-the Light aroused is of untold luminance. Thus, the wisdom and strength to utilize our sexual desires for positive purposes is instilled within us.

331. It is written: "And Elohim set them in the firmament of heaven" (Beresheet 1:17). This is the Righteous, NAMELY, YESOD, even though it says, "in the firmament of heaven," AND THE HEAVEN IS ZEIR ANPIN, NOT YESOD. But it is assuredly called "the firmament of heaven," being the final part of the body.

331. כְּתִיב וַיִּתֵּן אֱלֹהִים בְּרִקִיעַ הַשָּׁמַיִם, הָא צְדִיק, וְאֵף עַל גַּב דְּאִתְמַר בְּרִקִיעַ הַשָּׁמַיִם, אֵלָא בְּרִקִיעַ הַשָּׁמַיִם וְדָא, דְּאִיהוּ סִיּוּמָא דְּגּוֹפָא.

36. "Two firmaments: beginning and end"

This verse expands on the ideas introduced in article number 35. It asserts that the highest, starry firmament of the heavens is identical to the lowest, or 'the river'. Both are endless and eternal.

The Relevance of this Passage

The lowest world is furthest from the Light of the Endless. Thus, it feels the greatest emptiness. This painful void also creates the greatest longing for Light. When this longing and desire is used in a spiritual manner, Light is drawn in equal measure to desire. Thus, the full radiance of Light in the uppermost realm can shine forth in the darkest realm--when desire to receive the Light exists for the purpose of sharing it with others. Then both worlds, the Upper and Lower shine with equal intensity. When we transform negative desires into actions of sharing, we in turn draw the greatest amount of Light into our own lives. The ability to control and transform our most intense longings is awarded to us through the Light of wisdom emanating from these Hebrew words.

332. Come and behold: there are two firmaments, the beginning and the end, created in the same pattern. The beginning is the eighth firmament, where all the stars, great and small, are set. This is the upper, undisclosed firmament, which creates and sustains everything. It is the eighth one, counting from below, the beginning from which everything emerges.

333. The eighth firmament from above follows the same pattern. In it, all the beginnings, all the lights and candles are set. It receives all, because it represents the end. The UPPER eighth firmament is the starting point of everything, that on which all the lights depend. It receives everything FROM ABOVE, and everything emerges from it. Similarly, the LOWER eighth firmament receives the lights from its superiors and it releases the lights into all the worlds.

333. כִּן אִיהוּ רְקִיעָא תְּמִינָאָה מֵעִילָא לְתַתָּא, דְּבִיה שְׁקִיעֵין כָּל כְּכַבֵּי, כָּל נְהוּרִין וּבּוֹצִינִין. וְהוּא נְטִיל כָּלָא וְדָא סִיּוּמָא דְּכָלָא. כְּמָה דְּהוּא רְקִיעָא תְּמִינָאָה, דְּאִיהוּ שִׁירוּתָא דְּכָלָא, תְּלִינ בִּיה כָּל נְהוּרִין, וְנְטִיל לֹון, וּמְנִיָּה נְפִיק, הֵכִי נְמִי הָאִי, אִיהוּ רְקִיעָא תְּמִינָאָה, תְּלִינ בִּיה כָּל נְהוּרִין, וְנְטִיל לֹון, וּמְנִיָּה נְפִיקוּ לְכָלְהוּ עַלְמִין.

334. The beginning and the end, THE TWO FIRMAMENTS, are alike, and therefore THE LOWER FIRMAMENT is the river from which water comes out and never stops flowing. The purpose is to pattern the end after the beginning. Therefore, "Elohim set them in the firmament of heaven" (Bereshheet 1:17), THE LOWER FIRMAMENT. They are there to shine on the earth, WHICH IS THE NUKVA AND BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH.

335. Although THE UPPER AND LOWER FIRMAMENTS clearly resemble each other, THERE MUST BE a difference between them. IT BEHOOVES US TO ASK what it is. HE ANSWERS: THE UPPER FIRMAMENT nourishes and sustains the supernal aspects, and THE LOWER FIRMAMENT nourishes and sustains the lower world, THE NUKVA and all the lower aspects OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH.

336. It may be asked, What is the upper world? For the eighth upper, undisclosed firmament is itself the upper world, and is so called, for there are only two worlds, as we have already learned. HOW CAN IT BE SAID, THEN, THAT IT NOURISHES THE UPPER WORLD, WHICH MEANS THAT IT IS BUT ONE ASPECT OF THE UPPER WORLD? HE ANSWERS: THE UPPER FIRMAMENT itself is the upper world, and all the grades issued from it are named after it, NAMELY, THE UPPER WORLD. The one and the other, THE UPPER AND LOWER FIRMAMENTS, are all one. Blessed be He, forever and ever.

37. "The trees of Hashem have their fill"

In this passage the Zohar explains the dual nature of Binah. Although it is female because it is reflective Mind, Binah is also male--that is, active--because it gives understanding. Unlike the dark and sorrowing Malkut, which is located on a lower level of existence, Binah is all Light, and therefore full of gladness.

The Relevance of this Passage

Kabbalistically, the realm of Binah is a cosmic repository of spiritual Light. Touching this realm awakens the full Light of the Creator in our lives, producing great gladness in our hearts and souls. Connection to Binah is established when we make visual connection to the words that tell of these supernal wonders. Thus, the Light of Gladness and Happiness fills our souls, especially if we meditate to share the Light with others as we peruse these verses.

337. Come and behold, it is written: "The trees of Hashem have their fill; the cedars of Levanon which He has planted" (Tehilim 104:16). What does "Levanon" mean? As has already been explained, IT IS THE SECRET OF BINAH RETURNED TO CHOCHMAH. THE WORD LEVANON CONTAINS THE LETTERS LEV ("HEART"), WHICH HAS A NUMERICAL VALUE OF 32, AND NUN, WHICH HAS A NUMERICAL VALUE OF FIFTY. THUS, THE WORD LEVANON MEANS THERE ARE 32 PATHS OF WISDOM AND FIFTY GATES OF BINAH. They also discussed the verse: "where the birds make their nests" (Ibid. 17). Where does this happen? HE ANSWERS: In Levanon, THE SUPERNAL BINAH OF ARICH ANPIN RETURNED TO CHOCHMAH. These are the two birds mentioned in several places, THAT IS, THE TWO NUKVAS, LEAH AND RACHEL. From them several other birds come out, IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, ASIYAH. But these two birds are supernal IN ATZILUT. They come from Levanon above. This is the secret meaning of the verse: "And Lavan had two daughters" (Bereshheet 29:16). THESE ARE THE TWO BIRDS LEAH AND RACHEL. LAVAN IS THE SECRET OF LEVANON, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE MALE, WHILE LEVANON IS THE MALE JOINED WITH THE FEMALE.

334. שִׁירוֹתָא וְסִיּוּמָא, כְּגוּוּנָא חַד קִיּוּמִי, וְעַל דָּא, אִיהוּ נְהַר דְּנִגִּיד וְנַפְיָא, וְלֹא פְסָקִי מִיּוּמוֹ לְעֵלְמִין, כֹּלָּא לְמַהּוּי סִיּוּמָא כְּשִׁירוֹתָא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ וַיִּתֵּן אֶתֶם אֱלֹהִים בְּרִקִיעַ הַשָּׁמַיִם, וְלִמָּה, לְהַאִיר עַל הָאָרֶץ.

338. "...as for the stork, the cypress trees are her house..." (Tehilim 104:17). This refers to the six supernal sons, THE SIX ENDS OF THE WORLD, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD. It has been explained THAT THEY EMERGE FROM THE SUPERNAL WORLD, BINAH, AND ARE CONSIDERED TO BE ITS HOUSE. Why is BINAH called a 'stork'? HE ANSWERS: Because this supernal world, although it is female, NAMELY BINAH, is referred to as male, because when goodness and lights issue, it is from her that it appears and expands. AND, WHATEVER GIVES IS REFERRED TO AS MALE.

339. Because BINAH is a 'stork' (Heb. chasidah), the light of Chesed emanates from Her--the primordial light, about which the scripture reads, "And Elohim said, Let there be light" (Bereshheet 1:3). Therefore, it is written: "the cypress trees are her house." "Broshim" ('cypress trees') should be read "Berashim" ('in the heads'), BECAUSE BINAH IS THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, AND HER HOUSE IS HER SIX ENDS, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD. AND THESE ARE IN HER HEAD, THAT IS, IN THE ASPECT OF HEAD AND THE FIRST THREE SFIROT. But the LOWER world, THE NUKVA, lives in the lower beings, AND NOT IN THE HEADS. She is called the 'Law Court of the World'. Sometimes THE LOWER WORLD, THE NUKVA, is named as the upper world, BINAH, by all its names. THIS IS WHEN THE NUKVA RISES AND CLOTHES BINAH.

340. Of this place, THE NUKVA, the scripture says, "And Hashem repented...and it grieved Him at His heart" (Bereshheet 6:6). This is because judgments and sadness are from this place. But above, IN BINAH, all is light and full of life. From this we derive that there is no sadness before Hashem; 'before' is precise, INDICATING THE INNER PART, BINAH. ONLY THERE, NO SADNESS ABIDES. IN THE OUTER PLACE, THE NUKVA, THERE IS SADNESS. It is therefore written: "Serve Hashem with gladness: come before His presence with singing" (Tehilim 100:2). The first part corresponds to the supernal world; the second part to the lower world. Happy are the children of Yisrael in this world and in the world to come. Thus, the scripture says, "Happy are you, O Yisrael: Who is like to you? O people saved by Hashem, the shield of your help, and the sword of your excellence..." (Devarim 33:29)

38. The rods
Rabbi Elazar further speculates on the secret meaning of Ya'akov's rods. He reflects on the verse; "If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; and if you scorn, you alone shall bear it." A man benefits from the wisdom of the Torah; if he fails to understand it, it is he who languishes in ignorance; the Torah itself is not diminished at all. Rabbi Aba adds that when Ya'akov in his wisdom separated his flocks from those of Lavan, he created the singular nation of Israel, which was set off from the heathen peoples.
The Relevance of this Passage
The most critical part of spiritual work is learning how to identify and thus separate good from evil; to distinguish the whims of the ego from the longings of the soul. This passage raises our consciousness so that we can begin to differentiate darkness from Light when the temptations of the physical world and the seductive drives of our ego attempt to blur the lines.

341. "And he set the rods..." Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "If you are wise, you are wise for yourself: and if you scorn, you alone shall bear it" (Mishlei 9:12). Come and behold: woe to the wicked of the world, who do not know or look at the words of the Torah. And if they do, as they have no intelligence, the words of the Torah seem empty and useless to them. This is because they themselves are empty of knowledge and intelligence. But all the words of the Torah are high and precious, each of its words is dearer than pearls, "and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it" (Mishlei 8:11).

342. When all those stout-hearted fools see the words of the Torah, they fail to understand and say things of no value. Woe to them, at the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, will exact from them the shame of the Torah, and they will be punished for rebelling against their Master.

343. It is written in the Torah: "For it is not an empty thing for you" (Devarim 32:47), for the whole Torah is full of precious stones and pearls and all the goodness in the world. This is as it is written: "and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it." How can they say the Torah is empty?

344. King Solomon said: "If you are wise, you are wise for yourself." When a man is wise in understanding the Torah, he benefits from that wisdom. HIS WISDOM DOES NOT BENEFIT THE TORAH, because he can not add even one letter. It is further written: "and if you scorn, you alone shall bear it," because the value of the Torah shall not be diminished one wit, and his jesting is his alone. He dwells in it, and it causes him to perish from this world and the world to come.

345. Come and behold: when the supernal letters, THE GRADES OF BINAH, are attached to this grade, the ending of all the holy, supernal grades, THE NUKVA, it is filled from them and blessed by the supernal world, BINAH. This grade then waters all the flocks, each according to its worth. Each one of them is watered by Judgment and Mercy.

341. וַיַּצַּג אֶת הַמַּקְלוֹת אֲשֶׁר פָּצַל בְּרֹהֲטִים וְגו'. פָּתַח ר' אֱלֶעָזָר וְאָמַר, אִם חֲכַמַּת חֲכַמַּת לָךְ וּלְצַת לְבַדְךָ תִּשָּׂא. אִם חֲכַמַּת חֲכַמַּת לָךְ, תָּא חֲזִי, וְוִי לְאִינוֹן חֲזִיבֵי עֲלָמָא, דְּלֹא יִדְעִין, וְלֹא מִשְׁגִּיחִין, בְּמִלֵּי דְאֹרִייתָא. וְכֵד אִינוֹן מִשְׁגִּיחִין בֵּהּ, בְּגִין דְּלִית לֹון סְכֻלְתָּנִי, מְלִין דְּאֹרִייתָא דְּמִיִּין בְּעִינֵיהוּ, כְּאִילוּ כְּלֵהוּ מְלֵי רִיקְנִיא, וְלִית בֵּהּ תוֹעֵלְתָא, וְכֻלָּא בְּגִין דְּאִינוֹן רִקְנִין מִדְּעֵתָא וְסְכֻלְתָּנִי. דְּהָא כֻלָּא מִלֵּי דְּאֹרִייתָא, כְּלֵהוּ מְלִין עֲלָיִן וְיִקְרִין, וְכֻלָּא מְלֵה וְמְלֵה בְּתִיב בֵּהּ יִקְרָה הִיא מִפְּנִינִים, וְכֻלָּא חֲפְצִים לֹא יִשׁוּ בֵּהּ.

346. Come and behold, it is written: "And he set the rods." Ya'akov wanted to compose the evening prayer, WHICH THE LEFT SIDE, THE NUKVA, WHICH IS DARK, and to shine on the moon, THE NUKVA OF THE NIGHT, to water her and bless her on all sides, RIGHT AND LEFT. As it is written: "And he set the rods," the judgments OF MALCHUT, and the Gvurot from the supernal Gvurah, THE LEFT COLUMN OF BINAH.

347. When Ya'akov wanted to amend this grade, THE NUKVA, he removed all Judgments and Gvurot from the rods OF WHOSE JUDGMENTS IT IS SAID, "AND MADE THE WHITE APPEAR." He set THE RODS in the gutters, the four gutters WHICH ARE THE FOUR VESSELS OF CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT, abiding underneath, "the well that the princes dug out" (Bemidbar 21:18). THE NUKVA, CALLED 'WELL', IS AMENDED BY CHESD, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF BINAH, CALLED 'PRINCES', COMPRISING THE FOUR VESSELS OF CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT CALLED 'GUTTERS'. When it is filled by the higher rivers and sources, THE SFIROT OF BINAH, the water flows from that holy well, and the four VESSELS take it all. They are therefore called 'gutters', where THE ANGELS AND SOULS come to drink.

348. These judgments and Gvurot, WHICH HE REMOVED FROM THE RODS, stand IN THE GUTTERS, so that each will receive its proper share. In the verse, "when the flocks came to drink...and the flocks conceived before the rods," THE TWO USES OF THE WORD 'FLOCK' correspond the ones to the others--THE GRADES WORTHY OF RECEIVING CHASSADIM AND THE GRADES WORTHY OF RECEIVING JUDGMENTS AND GVUROT. He asks: What is the meaning of "heat" in the verse, "that they should conceive (lit. 'heat')"? HE ANSWERS: When THE ANGELS, THE FLOCKS, are crowned by CHASSADIM AND RECEIVE Judgment, they are heated by that Judgment, BECAUSE RECEIVING JUDGMENT IS CALLED 'HEATING'. They then roam the world inspecting the ways of men for either good or evil, IN ORDER TO REWARD OR PUNISH THEM, BECAUSE THEY INCLUDE CHASSADIM AND JUDGMENTS.

349. Come and behold, it is next written: "And the flocks conceived before (lit. 'were heated against') the rods." This is because these rods, JUDGMENTS AND GVUROT, were heated, and they are now in charge of the Judgments in the world. People are judged by them, as it is written: "This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the sentence by the word of the holy ones..." (Daniel 4:14).

350. Rabbi Chiya began the discussion with the verse: "My soul clings to You: Your right hand upholds me" (Tehilim 63:9). We have to study this verse carefully. It reads, "My soul clings to You." David himself always cleaved to the Holy One, blessed be He. He cared not for other, WORLDLY matters, but cleaved to the Holy One, blessed be He, with his heart and soul. Because his only wish was to cleave to Him, the Holy One, blessed be He, supported him and never left him, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "YOUR RIGHT HAND UPHOLDS ME." From this we understand that when a man cleaves to the Holy One, blessed be He, He upholds him and never leaves him.

351. Another explanation for: "My soul clings to You." This David does so that his grade may be crowned above. For when his grade is attached to the supernal grades and rises to them, the right, CHASSADIM, embraces him, raises him, and joins him WITH THE RIGHT into a worthy union. This is echoed in the verses, "and Your right hand shall hold me," (Tehilim 139:10) and, "His right hand embraces me" (Shir Hashirim 8:3). Therefore, the scripture reads, "Your right hand upholds me."

352. When he cleaves to the Holy One, blessed be He, it is written: "His left hand is under my head, and His right hand embraces me." This is his union with THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. When he joins HIM in a union, his grade is filled and blessed.

353. When all the gutters are filled on all four sides of the world, all the flocks are given water, each according to its grade, FROM THE FOUR ASPECTS OF CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. When Ya'akov came to purify this grade, THE NUKVA, he chose the right side, which was worthy of him. The Other Side, which was not worthy, was separated from him, as it is written: "and he put his own flocks apart and put them not to Lavan's cattle." He was "apart," on his own, and did not worship strange Elohim from the other sides. Happy is the portion of Yisrael, of whom it is written: "For you are a holy people to Hashem your Elohim, and Hashem has chosen you..." (Devarim 14:2).

354. Come and behold: Ya'akov, the chosen of the fathers, includes all of them, BECAUSE THE CENTRAL COLUMN, YA'AKOV, INCLUDES THE RIGHT AND LEFT COLUMNS, AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. He includes them all and thus strives to shine upon the moon, THE NUKVA, since it is for Ya'akov to compose the evening service, THE NUKVA.

355. He made all the preparations correctly and installed all the holy aspects with his aspect OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. He thus separated his share from that of the other nations OF THE LEFT. Those were the holy, supernal grades of high holiness; the others were the grades defiled with the fifth of impurity.

356. We have already explained that the verse, "and he put his own flocks apart," means that he established for the faith, THE NUKVA, alone, according to the verse: "For you are a holy people to the Hashem your Elohim and Hashem has chosen you" (Devarim 14:2). "...and put them not to Lavan's cattle..." because he did not share his lot and portion with them.

357. Therefore Ya'akov, the chosen among the fathers, established the mystery of faith and separated his lot and portion from that of other nations. Of this the scripture reads, "But you that did cleave to Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day" (Devarim 4:4).

358. Rabbi Aba said: Happy is the portion of Yisrael who are superior to the heathen nations, because their grade is high AND THEY RECEIVE THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT FROM BELOW. The grades of the heathen nations are below, BECAUSE THEY DRAW THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT FROM ABOVE. The first, those of the right, are on the side of Holiness. The second, those on the left, on the side of Defilement.

359. After the destruction of the Temple, it is written: "He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy" (Eichah 2:3). It is also written: "save with Your right hand, and answer me" (Tehilim 60:7), because as the left becomes stronger, the impure are strengthened. This will continue until the Holy One, blessed be He, rebuilds the Temple and establishes and amends the world properly. Then everything shall be set aright again, and the side of Defilement will pass from the world. We have learned this from the verses, "and...I will cause the...unclean spirit to pass out of the land" (Zecharyah 13:2, and, "He will destroy death for ever" (Yeshayah 25:8).

360. The Holy One, blessed be He, alone shall remain, as it is written: "And the idols shall utterly be abolished," (Yeshayah 2:18) and, "Hashem alone shall be exalted on that day," (Yeshayah 2:17) because "there was no strange El with him" (Devarim 32:12). For the force of defilement will be annihilated from the world, and there will be no one left above and below except the Holy One, blessed be He. And the children of Yisrael, His Holy Nation which serves Him, shall be called 'holy', as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, every one in Jerusalem that is written to life" (Yeshayah 4:3). Then there will be one King above and below, and one people to serve Him, as it is written: "And who is like Your people Yisrael, a singular nation on earth" (I Divrei Hayamim 17:21).

357. ועל דא יעקב שלימו דאבהן, אתקין רזא דמהימנותא, ואפריש חולקיה וערביה, מחולקא וערבא דשאר עמין. ועל דא כתיב, ואתם הדבקים ביי' אלהיכם חיים כלכם היום.

358. רבי אבא אמר, זבאה חולקהון הישראל, דאינון עלאין על עמין עכו"ם, בגין דרגא דלהון לעילא, ודרגין דעמין עכו"ם לתתא, אלין בסטרא דקדושה, ואלין בסטרא דמסאבא, אלין לימינא, ואלין לשמאלא.

39. "Hashem lives; and blessed is my rock"

Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yesa assert that the Holy Spirit attaches itself to travelers such as themselves, especially when they discuss Torah. On the road, Rabbi Yitzchak speculates on the verse "The Creator lives; and blessed is my rock." For the Righteous, the Lord is a living presence. When united with the Malchut of Zeir Anpin, the Eternal Female or Rock, blessings of abundance flow.

The Relevance of this Passage

When two sages are said to be traveling, it refers to the spiritual travels of their souls in the Upper Worlds. Our constant physical trek in this material existence, directly influences and guides the journey of our souls in the Upper World. Thus, our travels through the darkened corridors of life can be divinely illuminated when we connect to the Light of the Torah. This is accomplished through the study of the spiritual wisdom of the Torah-The Kabbalah-and by the application of its wisdom to our lives. For instance, when we are busy helping others, the Light of the Creator will in turn help and attend to us. The consciousness to think of others before ourselves is stirred within us through these passages.

361. Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yesa were walking along the road. Rabbi Yesa said: The Shechinah is with us, BECAUSE SHE ATTACHES HERSELF TO TRAVELERS ON THE ROAD TO PROTECT THEM. Let us study the words of the Torah, for whoever studies the Torah and shines in her draws the Shechinah nearer, AS HE DRAWS ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE TORAH. THEN ZEIR ANPIN AND HIS FEMALE, THE SHECHNAH, WILL BE JOINTLY CONNECTED TO THEM.

361. רבי יצחק ור' ייסא, הוו אזלי בארְחא, אַמר רבי ייסא, הָא שְׁכִינְתָא לְגַבְנָן נְתַעֲסַק בְּמַלְי דְּאֹרִייתָא, דְּכָל מָאן דְּעָסִיק בְּמַלְי דְּאֹרִייתָא וְיִשְׁתַּדַּל בָּהּ, זְכוּ לְאַמְשַׁכָּא לִיהּ בְּהַדְיָהּ.

362. Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion with the verse: "Hashem lives; and blessed is my rock; and let the Elohim of my salvation be exalted" (Tehilim 18:47). This verse contains a mystery. It is written: "Hashem lives". Do I not know that the Holy One, blessed be He, lives? HE ANSWERS: Even the righteous, YESOD, is referred to as "living (Heb. chay)," BECAUSE THE RIGHTEOUS DRAWS THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, CALLED THE 'LIGHT OF CHAYAH', AND IS THEREFORE CALLED "CHAY." "Living" refers to the righteous above and below-his ZEIR ANPIN, ABOVE, AND HIS YESOD, BELOW, ARE BOTH REFERRED TO AS "LIVING". The Holy One, blessed be He, above, ZEIR ANPIN, is called "living," AS IT IS WRITTEN: "HASHEM LIVES." And the righteous below is called "living," NAMELY, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "And Bnayahu the son of Yehoyada, the son of a living man" (II Shmuel. 23:20), WHICH ALLUDES TO YESOD. Why is THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, called "living?" Because He is Righteous, BECAUSE HE INCLUDES THE ASPECT OF THE RIGHTEOUS, YESOD, AS WELL, and the righteous is called "the life of the worlds." The phrase, "and blessed is my rock," has a similar meaning. These are all one because the living and the blessed are never separated. THE LIVING MEANS THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, AND THE BLESSED REFERS TO THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM. THEY HAVE TO BE CLOTHED BY EACH OTHER BECAUSE CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM IS DARKNESS. "HASHEM LIVES; AND BLESSED IS MY ROCK," ALLUDES TO CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM TOGETHER; "MY ROCK" IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. When "HASHEM LIVES; AND BLESSED BE MY ROCK" are joined together, THE ROCK becomes a well of living water. The water flows from the inside OF THE WELL, NAMELY, FROM THE LIVING AND THE BLESSED, and fills THE ROCK, WHICH IS THE WELL.

362. פֶּתַח רַבִּי יִצְחָק וְאָמַר, חֵי יי' וּבְרוּךְ צוּרִי וְיִרוּם אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׁעֵי, הָאִי קָרָא אִיהוּ רְזָא. חֵי יי', וְכוּי לָא יִדְעָנָא דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֶקְרִי חֵי, אֶלָּא אֲמִילוּ צַדִּיק, אִיהוּ אֶקְרִי חֵי, דְּהָא חֵי, צַדִּיק אִיהוּ לְעִילָא, וְצַדִּיק אִיהוּ לְתַתָּא. לְעִילָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֶקְרִי חֵי. לְתַתָּא צַדִּיק אֶקְרִי חֵי, דְּכִתְיִב וּבְנֵיהוּ בֶן יְהוּדָע בֶּן אִישׁ חֵי, אֲמַאי אֶקְרִי חֵי בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ צַדִּיק, דְּהָא צַדִּיק חֵי אֶקְרִי, חֵי הַעוֹלָמִים. וּבְרוּךְ צוּרִי, כִּלְא חַד, חֵי וּבְרוּךְ, דְּלָא מִתְפָּרְשִׁי מֵהַדְרִי, דְּכַד מִתְחַבְרִין כְּחַדָּא, אֶקְרִי בְּאֵר מִים חַיִּים. דָּא נְבִיעַ לְגוּ, וְדָא אֲתַמְלִיזָא מְנִיָּה.

363. The verse, "and let the Elohim of my salvation be exalted," refers to the supernal world, BINAH, which is exalted and uplifted. Everything is issued from it, and every spring that fills the well IS DERIVED FROM IT. THE NUKVA is blessed from there and shines upon all those beneath ATZILUT. When everyone is filled WITH PLENTY from her, then "the Elohim of my salvation be exalted," BECAUSE IT IS EXALTED AND UPLIFTED BY THE WEALTH IT SHOWERS ON THE LOWER BEINGES.

363. וְיִרוּם אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׁעֵי, דָּא עֲלֵמָא עֲלָאָה, דְּאִיהוּ רֶם וְנִשְׂא, רֶם עַל כִּלְאָ, דְּהָא מְיֻנְיָה נְפִיק כִּלְאָ, וְכָל נְבִיעוּ דְּנְבִיעַ, לְאַתְמִלְיָא בִּירָא, כְּדָקָא יְאוּת, וּמִתְמַן אֲתַבְרַכָּא, לְאַנְהָרָא לְכָל אִינוּן דְּלִתְתָּא, וְכַד אֲתַמְלִיזָא, כִּלְאָ כְּדָקָא יְאוּת, בְּדִין וְיִרוּם אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׁעֵי.

40. "He withdraws not his eyes from the righteous"

As the rabbis travel, the discussion continues. Quoting scripture, Rabbi Yesa asserts that the wicked will perish and the righteous will prevail. They meet a man with a child on his shoulders, fleeing the wicked. The man says people can achieve merit by giving him alms. The rabbis give him alms and food to eat.

The Relevance of this Passage

Actions of charity have the power to remove decrees of death against us. Often, before a judgment is executed against us, the Light will send us an opportunity to share and truly go outside of ourselves so that we can sweeten the judgment. The Evil Inclination, however, blinds us to these opportunities and we remain in our selfish, uncaring ways. The wisdom and foresight to recognize opportunities to give charity is aroused in our consciousness. Moreover, the strength to take the initiative and perform charitable contributions is also stirred within our souls. We just have to listen to the whispers arising from words of this portion.

364. Rabbi Yesa opened the discussion with the verse: "He withdraws not His eyes from the Righteous: but with kings on He throne the establishes them for ever, and they are exalted" (Iyov 36:7). Come and behold: when the wicked lose their power and perish from the world, the Righteous then rules the world. This is the meaning of the verse: "He preserves not the life of the wicked: but gives to the poor their right" (Ibid. 6), THAT IS, THE WICKED WILL PERISH FROM THE WORLD. It is then written: "He withdraws not His eyes from the Righteous," which is similar to the verse, "The eyes of Hashem are towards the Righteous" (Tehilim 34:16).

365. The verse, "but with kings on the throne," refers to the ruling kings, settled upon the throne; "He establishes them for ever" means that they sit upon their throne firmly; and "they are exalted" in order to rule the world and so that the throne shall be established on its supports. Another explanation for the phrase, "and they are exalted," is that they take the throne, THE NUKVA, place it up high, IN THE PLACE OF BINAH, and put it in its proper place.

366. While they were walking, they saw a man with a child riding on his shoulders. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Surely this man is Jewish and has come to help people attain merit, THAT IS, HE IS COMING TO RECEIVE CHARITY AND ALLOW PEOPLE TO MERIT THE WORLD TO COME. Rabbi Yesa said: Let us be the first to merit by him.

367. When he reached them, Rabbi Yesa asked: Where is YOUR bag of food? RABBI YESA SAW THAT THE MAN CARRIED NOTHING SAVE THE CHILD ON HIS SHOULDERS. He replied: I HAVE NOTHING, so that people can achieve merit BY GIVING ALMS TO ME. I had two sons, but the army came into town and took them captive. Now I am walking to afford people the opportunity to earn merit BY GIVING RANSOM MONEY. And they did, by giving him ALMS AND food TO EAT.

41. "My offering, the provision of my sacrifices made by fire"

The man the Rabbis meet on the road enlightens them to the hidden benefits of giving charity.

The Relevance of this Passage

The wisdom and insight to recognize opportunities for sharing, combined with the motivation to give beyond our comfort zones is instilled within the reader. We must, however, be cognizant of the importance of concealed blessings. When one gives to receive honor and acclaim for his philanthropy, it is not considered true sharing. Thus, the prudence to give anonymously is also awakened in our souls.

368. The Jew then opened the discussion with the verse: "My offering, the provision of my sacrifices made by fire" (Bemidbar 28:2). The daily sacrifice of the Holy One, blessed be He, sustains the world and gives nourishment above and below. Because there is stirring below AS A RESULT OF THE DAILY OFFERING, THE POURING OF PLENTY is bestirred above, and all are adequately sustained.

364. פתח רבי ייסא ואמר, לא יגרע מצדיק עיניו ואת מלכים לכסא וישיבם לנצח ויגבהו, תא חזי, כד חויבויא לא שלטין בעלמא, ואתאבידו מיניה, כדין צדק איהו שליט בעלמא, הה"ד לא יחיה רשע ומשפט עניים יתן, מה כתיב בתריה, לא יגרע מצדיק עיניו, מהו עיניו, כד"א עיניו יי' אל צדיקים.

365. ואת מלכים לכסא, אלין אינון מלכין שליטין, דאתאחדן לכסא, וישיבם לנצח, דאתקיימו בכרסויא, בקיומא שלים. ויגבהו, אמאי ויגבהו, לשלטאה בעלמא, ויתקיים, כרסויא על סמכוהי. דבר אחר ויגבהו, דנטלי כרסויא, וחקמין לה לעילא, לאתאחדא באתריה כדקא נאות, וכדין כלא יחודא חדא.

369. "My offering, the provision of my sacrifices" corresponds with the verse, "I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk" (Shir Hashirim 5:1); THEY BOTH ALLUDE TO SUSTENANCE. The words "made by fire," like, "Eat, O friends" (Ibid.) ALLUDE TO NOURISHMENT. The Holy One, blessed be He, provides that nourishment from above to pour down sustenance to the lower world from that nourishment ABOVE. How much more blessed is a man who gives food TO THE POOR, to sustain his soul; the Holy One, blessed be He, blesses him and showers on him supernal nourishment, and the world is blessed for him.

370. Rabbi Yitzchak said: HE EXPLAINED this mystery very well indeed. Rabbi Yesa replied: Surely this is why it has been said that a man should refrain from contempt toward any one, BECAUSE THOUGH AT FIRST THEY THOUGHT HIM BOORISH AND WERE CLOSE TO SHOWING HIM DISRESPECT, I twice attained merit through this man.

371. The man discoursed on the following verse, as discussed by Rabbi Elazar: "My offering, the provisions of my sacrifices made by fire." "...an offering..." is the secret of the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA. The particle 'et' BEFORE "MY OFFERING" REFERS TO THE NUKVA. "...my offering (Heb. korban)..." is derived from proximity (Heb. kirvah) and attachment. IT ATTACHES AND CONNECTS THE NUKVA WITH ZEIR ANPIN. "...the provision..." is the nourishment flowing from above, bestirred from below BY THE DAILY OFFERING. "...made by fire..." comes to include the other angels that are nourished here, each according to his rank. "...for a sweet savour to me..." is the desire and union caused by the secret of the supernal world, BINAH.

372. "...shall you observe to offer to Me in their due season..." (Bemidbar 28:2). HE ASKS: What is their season? HE ANSWERS: THE time when Avraham awoke to carry out the wishes OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, as it is written: "And Avraham rose early in the morning" (Beresheet 22:3); THE TIME OF THE MORNING OFFERING; the time when Yitzchak was bound to the altar; was at sunset, THE TIME FOR THE EVENTIDE DAILY OFFERING. Rabbi Yesa asked: Why, if there are two seasons, is it written "in their season" in the singular, instead of in the plural, SEEING AS THERE ARE TWO SEASONS? He replied: At the time OF THE OFFERING, fire was included within water, and water within fire, THE ATTRIBUTE OF AVRAHAM, WATER, WAS INCLUDED WITHIN THE ATTRIBUTE OF YITZCHAK, FIRE, AND VICE VERSA. It is therefore written: "in their season," in the singular, FOR THEY BECAME ONE.

373. Come and behold, of no offering is it written: "observe," as it is here in the phrase, "shall you observe to offer to Me." This is because "observe" is the secret of "keep," THE NUKVA, which needs to be summoned up TO ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "shall you observe to offer to Me," TO OFFER THE NUKVA "in their season," by right and left OF ZEIR ANPIN. These were explained above to be Avraham and Yitzchak. All this is in accordance with the supernal mystery.

369. אֶת קִרְבָּנִי לַחֲמִי, הֲדָא הוּא דְכִתְיִב, אֶכְלֵתִי וְעָרִי עִם דְּבָשִׁי שְׁתִּיתִי וַיְנִי עִם חֲלָבִי. לְאִשִּׁי: הֲדָא הוּא דְכִתְיִב, אֶכְלוּ רַעִים וְגו', וּמָה קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא פְּקִיד לְאַתְעָרָא מְזוֹנָא לְעֵילָא בְּגִין לְאַתְעָרָא מְזוֹנָא לְתַתָּא מֵהוּא מְזוֹנָא, מֵאן דִּיהִיב מְזוֹנָא לְקִיּוּמָא נִמְשָׂא, עַל אַחַת כַּמָּה וְכַמָּה, דְּקוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּרִיךְ לִיה, וַיִּתְעַר לִיה מְזוֹנָא דְלְעֵילָא, וַיִּתְבַּרַךְ עֲלֵמָא בְּגִינֵיהּ.

374. Rabbi Yesa said: Had I come only to hear these words, it was worth my while. Happy are the children of Yisrael in this world and in the world to come. Of this, the scripture says: "Your people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever; they shall be the branch of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified" (Yeshayah 60:21).

374. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסֵא לֹא אֶתִינָא הֶכָּא, אֶלָּא לְמִשְׁמַע מַלְיָן אֲלִין, דִּינִי זְכָאִין אִינוּן יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּעֵלְמָא דִּין, וּבְעֵלְמָא דְאִתִּי. עַל דָּא כְּתִיב וְעִמְךָ כָּלֵם צְדִיקִים לְעוֹלָם יִרְשׁוּ אֶרֶץ נִצְר מִטְעֵי מַעֲשֵׂה יְדֵי לְהִתְפָּאֵר.

42. The images

In this verse, the rabbis comment wryly on the low nature of Lavan's idols or "images." Lavan communicated with the statues representing his gods, and thus was able to make black magic. Rachel took these images when she and Ya'akov fled, and hid them under her skirts in order to cure her father of idolatry and also to prevent him from successful pursuit.

The Relevance of this Passage

The negative forces who dwell in our midst have the power to help us achieve many objectives in life, but there is a price to be paid at a later date. The rewards are short-lived and they leave a residue that creates chaos and turmoil somewhere in our lives. Idols do not refer only to statues depicting Gods. Anything that is ego-based--such as money, power, prestige and material possessions--is considered to be an Idol if it holds sway over our thoughts and behavior. Through the spiritual power of Rachel and Ya'akov, we are now rising above the temptations and trappings of physical existence in order to discover the true and eternal treasures of life.

375. "And Lavan went to shear his sheep..." (Beresheet 31:19). Rabbi Yosi asked: What are the images? HE REPLIED: They pertain to idolatry. They were called Terafim in offensive language, after the place of the toref, A WOMAN'S PUDENDA. How do we know they pertained to idolatry? From the verses: "yet why have you stolen my Elohim" (Ibid. 30), and "Anyone with whom you find your Elohim" (Ibid. 32). Lavan was the greatest sorcerer in the world, and by means OF THE IMAGES he knew whatever he needed to know.

375. וְלָבָן הֵלַךְ לְגַזֹּז אֶת צֹאנֹו וּגְוֹ. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסֵי מֵאַן תְּרַפִּים, אֶלָּא ע"ז הוּו, וְאַמְאֵי אֶקְרִי תְרַפִּים, לְגַנְאֵי הוּו, כְּמָה דְתַנִּינָן בְּמִקּוּם הַתּוֹרָה. וּמְנַלָּן דַּע"ז הוּו, דְכְתִיב לְמָה גִּנְבַת אֶת אֱלֹהֵי. וְכְתִיב עִם אֲשֶׁר תִּמְצָא אֶת אֱלֹהֶיךָ וּגְוֹ. וְלָבָן חֲרָשָׁא דְכָל חֲרָשִׁין דְעֵלְמָא הוּו, וּבְהֵאֵי הוּו יָדַע בְּכָל מֵאַן דְבַעֵי לְמַנְדַּע.

376. Rabbi Chiya said that the images were created through magic; Rabbi Yosi said that it was by means of divination. Rabbi Yehuda said: They are made only at certain times. They were called Terafim, because one must know when to shape them and when to wait, as it is written: "stay (Heb. here) now your hand" (Il Shmuel 24:16). BECAUSE ONE HAS TO RELAX ONE'S HAND AT CERTAIN HOURS, THEY ARE CALLED TERAFIG.

376. אָמַר רַבִּי חִיָּיא, בְּקָסָם אֶתְעַבִּיד. רַבִּי יוֹסֵי אוֹמַר בְּנַחֲשׁ. אָמַר רַבִּי יְהוּדָה, לֹא אֶתְעַבִּידוּ, אֶלָּא בְשַׁעֲתֵי יָדֵיעָן. וְאַמְאֵי אֶקְרִי תְרַפִּים. בְּגִין דְבִטְשֵׁי הָאֵי שַׁעֲתָא, וְהָאֵי שַׁעֲתָא אֶרְפִּי יָדָא, כְּמָה דָּאֵת אָמַר רַב עֵתָה הֲרָף יָדְךָ.

377. When the craftsman makes it, a man who knows the moments and hours, WHO KNOWS WHEN TO STRIKE AND WHEN TO STAY, stands by him, telling him when to act and when to rest. There is no other action that needs holding off AT A CERTAIN HOUR as that of THE IMAGES. The image constantly speaks and gives advice on how to harm a man's soul.

377. אוּמְנָא כַּד עֵבִיד לֵיה, הָהוּא דִינְדַע רְגֵיעֵי וְשַׁעֲתֵי קָאִים עֲלֵיה, וְאַמַר, הַשַּׁתָּא אֶרְפִּי, וְהַשַּׁתָּא עֵבִיד. וְלֹא תִשְׁכַּח עֵבִידתָא דְאַצְטְרִיךְ דִּירְפוֹן מִינָה אֶלָּא הָאֵי. וְאִיהוּ מְלִיל תְדִיר, וְיְהִיב עֵיטוֹן בִּישִׁין לְאַבְאָשָׁא לְנַפְשֵׁיה דְבַר נֶשׁ.

378. Rachel feared lest the images would give counsel on how to harm Ya'akov. She placed them under her to show disrespect to the idolatry, so that they would not be able to speak. For when one prepares them to talk he sweeps and cleans before them, to show them respect. But now it is written: "and she sat upon them" (Beresheet 31:34), BECAUSE SHE SHAMED THEM INTO NOT TALKING. THE IMAGES were male and female, and much prayer was needed to encourage them to speak. Because THE IMAGES WERE NOT IN HIS POSSESSION, Lavan was held for three days, as he did not know Ya'akov had fled. As it is written: "And it was told Lavan on the third day that Ya'akov was fled."

378. וְרַחֵל דְחִילתָּ, בְּגִין דְיְהִיב עֵיטָא לְאַבְאָשָׁא לֵיה לְיַעֲקֹב, וּבְגִין בְּזִיוְנָא דַּע"ז, שְׂוֵי לֹון תַּחוּתָהּ, עַד דְלֹא יָכִיל לְמַלְלָא. דְהָא כַּד אִיהוּ מִתְתַּקֵּן לְמַלְלָא, מְכַבְּרִין וּמְרַבִּיצִין קַמֵּיה, וְהַשַּׁתָּא מַה כְּתִיב, וְתִשָּׁב עֲלֵיהֶם. דְכַר וְנוֹקְבָא הוּו, וּפּוֹלְחָנִין סְגִיאִין קַא עֵבִידִין, עַד לֹא מְמַלְלָן. וּבְגִינֵי כֵךְ, אֶתְעַכֵּב לָבָן תְּלַת יוֹמִין, דְלֹא יָדַע דַּעֲרַק יַעֲקֹב, דְכְתִיב וַיִּגַּד לְלָבָן בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁלִישִׁי כִּי בָרַח יַעֲקֹב.

379. Rabbi Yehuda said that he prepared himself in two ways: by gathering together all the magic he had and all the weapons he had in order to destroy YA'AKOV, as it is written: "An Arammian was going to destroy my father" (Devarim 26:5). When the Holy One, blessed be He, saw that he wanted to destroy Ya'akov, it is written: "Take heed that you speak not to Ya'akov either good or bad." This is because, "It is in the power of my hand to hurt you" (Beresheet 31:29). HE ASKS: What made him so sure of himself? HE ANSWERS: He trusted the magic means he had.

380. Come and behold: Lavan covered in one day the same distance that Ya'akov needed seven days to walk. He did this to destroy YA'AKOV, first because Ya'akov fled, and second, because of the images, WHICH WERE STOLEN FROM HIM. And although Rachel did this to wean her father from idolatry, she was punished in spite of her good intentions by not bringing up Binyamin or spending even a single hour in this world with him, due to her father's sorrow.

381. Rabbi Yitzchak said: All the reproof Ya'akov administered to Lavan caused him to repent and acknowledge the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "see, Elohim is witness between me and you" (Beresheet 31:50), THUS MENTIONING THE NAME OF ELOHIM. Yet come and behold. It is written: "The Elohim of Avraham, and the Elohim of Nahor judge between us," because he returned to his evil ways, saying "the Elohim of Avraham," WHO IS HOLY, and then mentioning "the Elohim of Nahor," WHO IS IDOLATROUS.

382. "And Ya'akov swore by the Fear of his father Ya'akov". HE ASKS: Why did Yitzchak swear by the Fear of Yitzchak and not by the Elohim of Avraham?" HE ANSWERS: Because he did not want to lean heavily on the right, AVRAHAM, and draw it to Lavan. HE THEREFORE DID NOT SWEAR BY THE ELOHIM OF AVRAHAM, THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT. Moreover, a man should not swear by a lofty place at all times, even though he is telling the truth.

383. Rabbi Yosi said: Assuredly, Ya'akov swore to further emphasize his oath, NAMELY, HE MEANT TO STRENGTHEN HIS OATH BY MENTIONING THE FEAR OF HIS FATHER YITZCHAK. This ought to be so. Ya'akov also studied it carefully, and said: Lavan already mentioned the Elohim of Avraham, but not my father YITZCHAK. I shall complete it. Immediately, "Ya'akov swore by the Fear of his father Yitzchak." Another explanation is that he meant to be included within Judgment, to be firm against Lavan.

43. "and angels of Elohim met him"

This last passage of the section reiterates some of the first principles of Kabbalah: the existence in all things of an eternal male and female. This reflects the underlying duality of God's creation--which paradoxically also contains the idea of an eternal reality where 'all is one'.

The Relevance of this Passage

The terms "male" and "female" are code words denoting two basic traits of humanity, desire to share and the desire to receive, respectively. Balancing these two traits is critical if we are to achieve fulfillment and Light in our lives. The wisdom to manage our sharing and receiving attributes is stimulated within us so that we can reconcile and unify these opposite qualities for the purpose of reuniting with the Light of the Creator.

384. "And Ya'akov went on his way, and angels of Elohim met him..." (Beresheet 32:2). Rabbi Aba began with the verse: "male and female He created them" (Beresheet 5:2). How much it behooves us to look into the words of the Torah, THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Woe to all the hard hearted and blindfolded, WHO CLEAVE TO THE LEFT COLUMN, BLOCKED FROM CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS 'EYES', AND FROM BINAH, CALLED 'HEART'. For the Torah, WHICH IS OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, calls to them: "Come, eat of my bread (WHICH IS DRAWN FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN OF THE TORAH), and drink of the wine which I have mingled (WHICH IS DRAWN FROM THE LEFT COLUMN OF THE TORAH)" (Mishlei 9:5). "Whoever is simple, WHOEVER CLINGS TO THE LEFT, let him turn in here: as for him that lacks understanding, she says to him" (Mishlei 9:4). But there is no one to pay attention to her.

385. Come and behold: "MALE AND FEMALE HE CREATED THEM," for it contains deep mysteries. It alludes inwardly TO THE MALE AND FEMALE and outwardly TO ADAM AND CHAVAH. THIS MEANS THAT THERE IS A CONNECTION BETWEEN THE INNER MALE AND FEMALE, IN GREATNESS, AND A CONNECTION BETWEEN THE OUTER MALE AND FEMALE, IN SMALLNESS. It may be understood in this INNER manner, and that OUTER manner. One way to understand this is that the sun and moon, MALE AND FEMALE, are bound as one, about which it is written: "He created them," and "The sun and moon stood still in her habitation" (Chavakuk 3:11). THEY ARE THE SECRET OF THE INNER MALE AND FEMALE. It is also understood FROM THIS VERSE that Adam and Chavah were created AND COME from the union OF THE SUPERNAL, OUTER MALE AND FEMALE. Once they were joined as one, Elohim "blessed them" (Beresheet 5:2). This is because blessing dwells only where male and female are found.

386. Come and behold: when Ya'akov turned to go toward Charan, he was unmarried. It is written: "and he lighted on a certain place" (Beresheet 28:11). Then he was answered only in a dream. After he was married and came to all the tribes, the supernal camps met him and entreated him, as it is written: "and angels of Elohim met (also: 'entreated') him." Now they came to meet him, NAMELY, TO ENTREAT HIM. First he WAS BEGGING, as it is written: "and he lighted (Heb. vayifga) on a certain place." Now they BEGGED, AS IT IS WRITTEN "and angels of Elohim met (Heb. vayifgeu) him."

387. The reason is that Ya'akov and the tribes were given water from the great sea, THE PLENTY OF THE NUKVA AT TIME OF GREATNESS, THEN CALLED THE 'GREAT SEA'. THEY THEREFORE ENTREATED HIM TO DRAW PLENTY ON THEM. Also, at first, he saw them at night in a dream, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND HE DREAMED... AND BEHOLD THE ANGELS OF ELOHIM ASCENDING AND DESCENDING ON IT." Now he saw them with his eyes during the daytime, as it is written: "And when Ya'akov saw them, he said: This is Elohim's camp" (Beresheet 32:2).

388. HE ASKS: How did he recognize them TO BE ANGELS OF ELOHIM? HE ANSWERS: He saw they were the same angels as in his dream. He therefore called them "Machanayim (lit. 'two camps')," THAT IS, AFTER THE VERSE, "AND BEHOLD THE ANGELS OF ELOHIM ASCENDING AND DESCENDING ON IT," WHOM HE SAW IN HIS DREAM. Those who were seen above and below FORMED TWO CAMPS.

384. וַיַּעֲקֹב הֵלֵךְ לְדַרְכּוֹ וַיִּפְגְּעוּ בּוֹ מַלְאֲכֵי אֱלֹהִים. רַבִּי אָבָא פָתַח וַאֲמַר זָכַר וּנְקֵבָה בְּרֵאִם וְגו', כַּמָּה אֵיךְ לֵן לְאַסְתַּכְלָא בְּמַלְי דְּאוּרִייתָא, וְוִי לֹון, לְאִינוּן אֲטִימִי לְבָא, וְסַתִּימִין עֵינִין, הָא אוּרִייתָא קִאֲרִי קַמִּייהוּ, לְכוּ לְחַמוּ בְּלַחְמִי וּשְׁתוּ בֵּינָן מִסְכַּתִּי. מִי פְתִי יִסוּר הִנֵּה חֶסֶר לֵב אִמְרָה לוֹ, וְלִית מֵאֵן דִּישְׁגַּח.

389. HE ASKS: Why were THE ANGELS now revealed to him to entreat him? HE ANSWERS: The Shechinah went to take Ya'akov his house, SO AS TO HAVE THE WHOLE HOUSEHOLD OF YA'AKOV. THE SHECHINAH waited for Binyamin to take the house together with Ya'akov properly, NAMELY, WITH ALL THE TWELVE TRIBES. THE ANGELS WERE THEN REVEALED TO HIM, TO COMPLETE HIM. Then scripture reads, "And Ya'akov shall return, and be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid" (Yirmeyah 46:27). Blessed be Hashem forever and ever. Amen and amen. Sitrei Torah (Secrets of the Torah)

390. "And Ya'akov went on his way, and angels of Elohim met him." Mishen: The shields of the ministers are standing upright, and the bright blade of the revolving sword is appointed over all the armies and camps.

391. That bright, revolving sword is a red sword, about which it is written: "The sword of Hashem is filled with blood" (Yeshayah 34:6). On this sword the revolving OF THE ANGELS WHO ARE now men, now women, depends. From this ASPECT several other aspects of grades are derived.

392. From the side of the Tree of Life come those who are joined by the union of the bond. These holy ones are always filled by the dew of the heaven. THEY ARE CALLED THE 'DEW OF HEAVEN'. The name of Elohim is perfected through them. By the four winds of the world, THE MOCHIN WERE MADE for the legs of the throne. They are all pearls, limbs and pillars, and are never divided from that name. They are tied to Ya'akov, who chose them as his portion, and was perfected with this name. They all issued from Ya'akov.

393. When Ya'akov went on his way, the four sides, the four corners of the world, surrounded and guarded him. Only for a short time did the supernal place stir in order to maintain the tree below. Then "And Ya'akov said, when he saw them 'this is a camp (Heb. machaneh) of Elohim'" then "he called the place Machanaim." (Bereshheet 32:3).

1. "And Ya'akov sent messengers"

Rabbi Yehuda begins with a discussion of the Good Inclination and the Evil Inclination, two angels that constantly abide by man. When man is virtuous, the Good Inclination gains dominion over the Evil Inclination, and the right side prevails over the left. Rabbi Elazar then speaks of the Shechinah and the legions of holy angels who protected David from the King of Gat, and Ya'akov when he was delivered from Lavan. In the ensuing dialogue, the rabbis analyze when and why Ya'akov was "left alone" by the angels and how he managed to prevail over Esav's minister. Finally, Rabbi Shimon explains Ya'akov's actions in sending a band of angels to Esav in order to bring about a reconciliation, in fulfillment of the verse, "Better is one lightly esteemed..."

The Relevance of this Passage

When we know that a specific action is positive and in our best interests, another voice inside inevitably talks us out of it. When we know that a particular behavior or action is negative, something impels us to engage in it anyway, even though we don't really want to. These are the Good and Evil Inclinations at work. We must recognize these two urges as distinct voices battling for control over our behavior. The moment we recognize the Evil Inclination as our true enemy, we can begin to remove its influence over us. The spiritual forces arising from this section reveal this metaphysical truth, endowing us with the strength to resist and overcome our negative tendencies.

1. "And Ya'akov sent messengers..." (Beresheet 32:4). Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse: "For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways" (Tehilim 91:11). This verse has already been explained by the friends. When man is born, the Evil Inclination enters with him and constantly denounces him, as it is written, "sin crouches at the door" (Beresheet 4:7). What is meant by "sin crouches"? It refers to the Evil Inclination. "...AT THE DOOR" MEANS AT THE OPENING OF THE WOMB--AT A PERSON'S BIRTH.

1. וַיִּשְׁלַח יַעֲקֹב מַלְאָכִים וְגו'. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה פָּתַח, כִּי מַלְאָכָיו יֵצְאוּ לָךְ לְשֹׁמְרֶיךָ בְּכָל דְּרָכֶיךָ, הָאֵי קָרָא אוֹקְמוּהָ חֲבֵרָיוֹא, דְּהָא בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּבַר נֶשׁ אֲתִי לְעֵלְמָא, מִיָּד אֲזַדְמֵן בְּהַדְיָה יֵצֵר הָרַע, דְּאִיהוּ מְקַטְרַג לִיָּה לְבַר נֶשׁ תְּדִיר, כַּד"א לְפִתְחָ חֲטָאת רֹבֵץ. מֵאֵי חֲטָאת רֹבֵץ, דָּא יֵצֵר הָרַע.

2. David also called THE EVIL INCLINATION BY THE NAME 'sin', as it is written, "and my sin is ever before me" (Tehilim 51:5). This is because it tempts man every day to sin before his Master. The Evil Inclination never leaves man, from the day of his birth. The Good Inclination comes to man only when he seeks purity.

2. וְדוֹד הָכֵי נִמְי קְרִינָה חֲטָאת, דְּכָתִיב וְחֲטָאתִי נִגְדִי תָמִיד, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ עֵבִיר לִיָּה לְבַר נֶשׁ כָּל יוֹמָא לְמַחְטִי קָמִי מְרִיָּה, וַיֵּצֵר הָרַע דָּא, לֹא אֲתַעֲדִי מִבְּר נֶשׁ, מִיּוֹמָא דְּאֲתִילִיד בְּר נֶשׁ לְעֵלְמִין. וַיֵּצֵר הַטּוֹב אֲתִי לְבַר נֶשׁ, מִיּוֹמָא דְּאֲתִי לְאֲתַדְכָּאָה.

3. And when does man seek purity? On his thirteenth birthday, man joins with the Good Inclination on the right and the Evil Inclination on the left. They are literally two appointed angels found constantly with man.

3. וְאִימְתִי אֲתִי בְר נֶשׁ לְאֲתַדְכָּאָה, כַּד אִיהוּ בְר תְּלִיסַר שָׁנִין, כְּדִין אֲזַדְוּג בְּר נֶשׁ בְּתַרְוּוּיָהּ, חַד מִיּוֹמָא, וְחַד מִשְׁמַאלָא, יֵצֵר טוֹב לִיּוֹמָא, וַיֵּצֵר רַע לְשְׁמַאלָא. וְאֵלִין אֵינּוֹן תְּרִין מַלְאָכִין מִמֶּשׁ, מִמֶּנָּן, וְאֵינּוֹן מִשְׁתַּבְּחִין תְּדִיר בְּהַדְיָה דְּבַר נֶשׁ.

4. When man seeks to be purified, the Evil Inclination is humbled before him, and the right rules over the left. And both--THE GOOD INCLINATION AND THE EVIL INCLINATION--watch over man whichever way he travels. This is the essence of the verse: "For He shall give His angels charge over you to keep you all your ways" (Tehilim 91:11).

4. אֲתִי בְר נֶשׁ לְאֲתַדְכָּאָה, הֵהוּא יֵצֵר הָרַע אֲתַכְפִּיָּא קָמִיָּה, וְשְׁלִיט יְמִינָא עַל שְׁמַאלָא, וְתַרְוּוּיָהּ מְזַדְוּגִין, לְנִטְרָא לִיָּה לְבַר נֶשׁ, בְּכָל אֲרָחוּי דְּהוּא עֵבִיר, דְּדָא הוּא דְּכָתִיב כִּי מַלְאָכָיו יֵצְאוּ לָךְ לְשֹׁמְרֶיךָ בְּכָל דְּרָכֶיךָ.

5. Rabbi Elazar applies this verse to Ya'akov. As the Holy One, blessed be He, surrounded Ya'akov with legions of angels, because he came complete with the supernal tribes, who were in a state of perfection. As it is written: "And Ya'akov continued on his way, and angels of Elohim met him" (Beresheet 32:2). It has been explained that after being saved from Lavan, and departing from him, the Shechinah joined Ya'akov, and legions of saintly angels surrounded him. At that point "Ya'akov said when he saw them" (Ibid. 3). From these angels, he sent a group to Esav. This is the meaning of the verse: "And Ya'akov sent messengers (also angels)." Surely these were real angels.

6. Rabbi Yitzchak said: It is written, "The angel of Hashem encamps round about those who fear Him, and he delivers them" (Tehilim 34:8). This verse has already been explained. But in another place, it is written, "For He shall give His angels charge over you," NAMELY, many angels, whereas here ONLY one is mentioned, as it is written, "The angel of Hashem encamps." HE ANSWERS: The verse, "For He shall give His angels charge over you," refers to angels in general, but THE VERSE, "The angel of Hashem," refers to the Shechinah, as it is written: "And the angel of Hashem appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush" (Shemot 3:2). JUST AS IT REFERS TO THE SHECHINAH IN THE FIRST VERSE, SO THE ANGEL MENTIONED HERE ALSO POINTS TO THE SHECHINAH. And so, "the angel of Hashem encamps round about those who fear Him," to encircle them in every direction so as to deliver them. And when the Shechinah resides inside man, all the holy hosts come there.

7. Come and behold. When King David was saved from Achish, King of Gat, he said: "THE ANGEL OF HASHEM ENCAMPS..." For the Shechinah surrounded him and saved him from Achish, his people, and those who attacked him. As it is written, "Vayitholel (Eng. 'feigned himself mad') in their hands" (I Shmuel 21:14). HE ASKS: Why is it written "Vayitholel" rather than 'Vayishtage'a', as it is written, "you have brought this fellow to play the mad man (Heb. lehishtage'a) in my presence?" (I Shmuel 21:16).

8. HE ANSWERS: THIS VERSE refers to what David said earlier. As it is written: "For I was envious of the Holelim ('madmen')..." (Tehilim 73:3). So the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: Upon your life, you shall be in need of that yet. And when he came to the house of Achish and was attacked, it is written, "He feigned himself mad in their hands," like those Holelim ('madmen') he first envied WHEN HE SAID, "FOR I WAS ENVIOUS OF THE MADMEN." Only then did the Shechinah come and protect him. She dwelt there, around David.

9. You may ask, if the Shechinah resides only in Her own place, which is the Holy Land, WHY WAS THE SHECHINAH UPON HIM IN GAT, WHICH IS OUTSIDE THE HOLY LAND? HE ANSWERS: She certainly does not dwell outside the land of Yisrael for people to draw PLENTY from Her, but can dwell OUTSIDE to rescue men. Thus, when Ya'akov arrived from the house of Lavan, all the holy camps encircled him and did not leave him alone.

7. תא חזי, כד דוד מלכא אשתזיב מאכיש מלך גת, כדיון אמר האי, בגין דשכנתא סחרא ליה, ואשתזיב מנייהו, מאכיש ומעמיה, כל אינון דאתקיפו ביה, מה בתיב, ויתהולל בידם, אמאי ויתהולל, וישתגע מבעי ליה, כדבר אחר כי הבאתם את זה להשתגע עלי.

8. אלא, אהדר על ההוא מלה דאמר דוד בקדמיתא, דכתיב כי קנאתי בהוללים וגו'. אמרלו קודשא בריך הוא, חייך, עדיין אנת אצטריך להאי, כיון דעאל לבי אכיש, ואתקיפו ביה, מה בתיב, ויתהולל בידם, כאינון הוללים דקנו בקדמיתא, וכדיון אתיא שכנתא, ושריא סחרגיה דרוד.

9. ואי תימא שכנתא לא שריא אלא באחסנתיה, דאיהו ארעא קדישא. ודאי לא שריא, בגין לינקא מנה, אבל לאגנא שריא. והכא כד אתא יעקב מבי לכן, בלהו משריין קדישין סחרן ליה, ולא אשתאר בלחודיו.

10. Rabbi Chizkiyah asked: If this is so, why is it written, "And Ya'akov remained alone" (Bereshheet 32:35)? WHERE WERE THE LEGIONS OF ANGELS WHO ENCIRCLED HIM AND CAME WITH HIM? Rabbi Yehuda replied: Because he led himself into danger BY REMAINING ALONE AT NIGHT and saw clearly the danger he was in, the angels deserted him, FOR THEY CAME TO GUARD HIM ONLY FROM UNSEEN DANGERS. Then, BEFORE ENTERING INTO DANGER, he stated: "I am unworthy of the least of all the mercies and all the truth, which You have shown Your servant" (Ibid. 11). WITH THIS, he referred to the holy camps OF ANGELS WHO USUALLY ENCIRCLED HIM, BUT HAD left him BECAUSE HE HAD LED HIMSELF TO A VISIBLE DANGER.

11. Rabbi Yitzchak said: THEREFORE, THE ANGELS left him alone with the officer appointed for Esav, who arrived with heavenly approval. At just that time, the others left to sing before the Holy One, blessed be He, as was required at that precise moment. Later, they returned to him. This is the meaning of the verse, "I am unworthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth...and now I have become two camps." The camp of the Shechinah and his own household, however, CONSIST OF ONE CAMP, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "THIS IS ELOHIM'S CAMP" (IBID. 3). THEREFORE, WHY IS IT WRITTEN "two camps"? IT IS TO TEACH THAT he was perfect in both aspects; from the white and red, DENOTING CHASSADIM AND CHOCHMAH, FROM RIGHT AND LEFT. HENCE HE SAYS, "TWO CAMPS."

12. Rabbi Elazar said: We have learned, night was under the control of Esav, MEANING THE LEFT SIDE WITHOUT THE RIGHT. At that time, it is written, "Let there be lights (Heb. me'orot)" (Bereshheet 1:14), written without the letter Vav, BEING WEDNESDAY EVE, WHICH COULD NOT GIVE LIGHT WITHOUT CHASSADIM. For this reason, "Ya'akov remained alone," as Ya'akov, representing the sun, DENOTING ZEIR ANPIN, remained alone WITHOUT THE NUKVA, as the moon, THE NUKVA was concealed from the sun, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'YA'AKOV'. Yet, the Holy One, blessed be He, continued to guard Ya'akov enough so that Esav's officer could not overcome him, as it is written: "He saw that he did not prevail against him" (Bereshheet 32:25).

13. HE EXPLAINED WHY HE COULD NOT PREVAIL AGAINST HIM. THE ANGEL looked to the right OF YA'AKOV and saw Avraham, THE PERFECTION OF THE RIGHT COLUMN; he looked to the left OF YA'AKOV and saw Yitzchak, THE PERFECTION OF THE LEFT COLUMN. He looked at the body OF YA'AKOV and saw it was comprised of parts of both THE RIGHT AND LEFT SIDES, BEING THE PERFECTION OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. SINCE THE OTHER SIDE CAN HAVE NO HOLD ON PERFECTION, ONLY ON IMPERFECTION, HE COULD NOT OVERCOME HIM. Then, "he touched the hollow of his thigh," the one pillar nearest to the body, but somewhat removed from it. THUS, IT POSSESSES AN ASPECT OF IMPERFECTION AND THE ANGEL SEIZED IT, AND "THE HOLLOW OF YA'AKOV'S THIGH WAS PUT OUT OF JOINT."

14. For this reason it is written, "The angel of Hashem encamps round about those who fear Him, and he delivers them." He circled him on all sides in order to save him FROM THE OFFICER OF ESAV. And when the Shechinah resided with him, numerous camps of angels accompanied him. From these angels, Ya'akov sent some to Esav.

10. אָמַר רַבִּי חִזְקִיָּה, אִי הָכִי, אֲמַאי כְּתִיב, וַיּוֹתֵר יַעֲקֹב לְבַדּוֹ וְגו'. אָמַר רַבִּי יְהוּדָה, בְּגִין דְּאֵעִיל גְּרַמִּיה לְסַכְּנָה, וְהוּה חָמִי לְהֵיכָא סַכְּנָה בְּעֵינָיו, אֵינּוֹן אֲתַפְּרְשׁוּ מִנִּיה, וְכַדִּין אָמַר קְטַנְתִּי מִכָּל הַחֲסָדִים וּמִכָּל הָאֱמֶת, אֵלִין אֵינּוֹן מִשְׂרִיין קְדִישִׁין, דְּאֲתַפְּרְשׁוּ מִנִּיה.

15. "And Ya'akov sent messengers." Rabbi Aba asks: What motivated Ya'akov TO SEND MESSENGERS to Esav? Would it not have been better to refrain from sending any to him? HE ANSWERS: Ya'akov said, I know that Esav reveres the father's honor and has never troubled him. As long as I know that my father is alive, so I do not fear Esav. So as long as my father is alive I wish to appease him. Thus, he immediately HASTENED, "and Ya'akov sent messengers before him."

16. "And Ya'akov sent messengers." Rabbi Shimon began the discussion with the verse: "Better is one lightly esteemed who owns a servant, than one who pranks himself but lacks bread" (Mishlei 12:9). This verse refers to the Evil Inclination, who constantly accuses man. The Evil Inclination causes man to become haughty and proud, encouraging man to curl his hair until the Evil Inclination towers over him and drags him to Gehenom.

17. "Better is one lightly esteemed..." means one who does not follow the Evil Inclination, and does not act haughtily but humbles his spirit, heart, and will before the Holy One, blessed be He. Then the Evil Inclination becomes his servant, as it cannot control him. ON THE CONTRARY, the person controls it, as it is written: "Yet you may rule over him" (Bereshheet 4:7).

18. "...than one who pranks himself..." is as we said, that he puts on airs, curls his hair, and acts haughtily, "but lacks bread." THIS MEANS a lack of faith, as it is written: "to offer the bread of his Elohim" (Vayikra 21:17), and "the bread of their Elohim they do offer" (Ibid. 6). BREAD IS THE SHECHINAH IN BOTH VERSES. FAITH IS THE SHECHINAH, SO LAKING BREAD MEANS LACKING FAITH.

19. Another interpretation of, "Better is one lightly esteemed..." is that it refers to Ya'akov, who humbled himself before Esav so that Esav should later become his servant. By controlling him, he fulfilled the meaning of the verse: "Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you" (Bereshheet 27:29). It was not yet time FOR YA'AKOV TO RULE OVER ESAV. Ya'akov left this to happen at a later time, for he was lowly then. Later, however, the one who pranks himself will become his servant, and then he will "lack bread." THIS REFERS TO ESAV, who will become YA'AKOV'S servant, who was given "plenty of corn and wine" (Ibid. 28).

15. וישלח יעקב מלאכים, אמר רבי אבא, וכי אמאי אתער איהו לגביה דעשו, וטב הוה ליה לאשתוקי מניה. אלא, אמר יעקב, ידענא, דעשו חייש ליה ליקרא דאבא, ולעלם לא ארגיז קמיה, והא ידענא, הואיל ואבא קיים לא מסתפינא מניה, אבל השתא דאבא קאים, בעינא לאתפייס עמיה, מיד וישלח יעקב מלאכים לפניו.

16. וישלח יעקב מלאכים, רבי שמעון פתח ואמר, טוב נקלה ועבד לו ממתכבד וחסר לחם, האי קרא, על יצר הרע אתמר, בגין דאיהו מקטרגא תדיר לגבי בני נשא, ויצר הרע, איהו ארים לביה ורעותיה דבר נש בגאותא, ואזיל אבתריה, מסלסל שעריה וברישיה, עד דאיהו אתגאי עליה, ומשיך ליה לגיהנם.

17. אבל טוב נקלה, ההוא דלא אזיל אבתריה דיצר הרע, ולא אתגאי כלל, ומאיך רוחיה ולביה ורעותיה לגבי קודשא בריך הוא, וכדין ההוא יצר הרע, מתהפך לעבד לו, דלא יכול לשלטא עלוי, וההוא בר נש שליט עלוי, כמה דאת אמר ואתה תמשל בו.

18. ממתכבד: כמה דאמרן דאיהו אוקיר גרמיה, מסלסל בשעריה, אתגאי ברוחיה, ואיהו חסר לחם, חסר מהימנותא, כד"א לחם אלהיו וגו' לחם אלהיהם הם מקריבים וגו'.

19. דבר אחר, טוב נקלה, דא יעקב, דמאיך רוחיה לגביה דעשו, בגין דלבתר ליהוי עבד לו, וישלוט עלוי, ויתקיים ביה, ועבדון עמים וישתחוו לך לאומים וגו', ועדין לא הוה זמניה כלל, אלא בגין דסליק ליה יעקב, לבתר יומיא, ועל דא הוה מיד נקלה, ולבתר, ההוא דאיהו מתכבד, יהא עבד לו, ההוא דאיהו חסר לחם, יהא עבדא, לההוא דיהבו ליה רוב דגן ותירוש.

20. Come and behold: Ya'akov knew that he needed him now. Therefore, he appeared as if he was lightly esteemed. By doing so, he showed more wisdom and guile than he had ever shown against Esav. Had Esav been aware of this wisdom, he would have killed himself rather than coming to this. However, Ya'akov did all this with wisdom, and about him Chanah said, "The adversaries of Hashem shall be broken in pieces...and He shall give strength to his king" (I Shmuel 2:10).

20. תָּא חֲזוּ, עַל דָּא, בְּגִין דִּידַע יַעֲקֹב, דְּאַצְטְרִיךְ לִי הַשְׁתָּא, אַתְּהֶפֶךְ לִי נִקְלָה. וְיִוְתֵר חֲכָמָה וְעִקְמוּ עֵבֶד בְּדָא, מִכָּל מַה דְּעֵבֶד לְגַבִּי דְעָשׂוּ, דְּאִילוּ הוּהוּ יַדַּע עָשׂוּ חֲכָמָה דָּא, וְקָטִיל לִי הַגְּרָמִיָּה, וְלֹא יִיתִי לְדָא, אֲבָל כְּלָא עֵבֶד בְּחֲכָמָתָא, וְעַלִּיָּה אָמְרָה חָנָה, ה' יַחֲתוּ מְרִיבֵי וְגו' וְיִתֵּן עֹז לְמַלְכוּ וְגו'.

2. "I have sojourned with Lavan"

Rabbi Yehuda begins a discussion of Ya'akov's message to Esav, "I have sojourned with Lavan..." interpreting Ya'akov's words as threatening to Esav, who desired to destroy Ya'akov. There follows a discussion of Lavan, the universally feared magician and sorcerer who was powerless against Ya'akov, just as Bila'am was powerless when he tried to destroy the children of Israel with the same magical arts. The reason for their failure, we're told, is that the power of sorcery is subservient to the children of Israel and God. Finally, Rabbi Yosi interprets Ya'akov's message to Lavan as indicating that Ya'akov humbled himself in order to divert Esav's attention from Ya'akov's true blessings, so that Esav would not harbor envy and hate for him.

The Relevance of this Passage

The path of the Torah and the power of the Zohar empower us to rise above unseen mystical powers. The ego, however, is like a leg iron that anchors us to this physical dimension and its influences. Humility is a key trait that can unlock the shackles. This passage arouses humility, enabling us to avert the effects of negative cosmic forces. We elevate into the sphere of the supernal wisdoms, which protect and bless us in all our endeavors.

21. "And he commanded them, saying: 'Thus shall you speak to my lord Esav. Your servant Ya'akov says thus, I have sojourned with Lavan, and stayed there until now'" (Bereshheet 32:5). At once Ya'akov introduced himself as Esav's servant, so that Esav would not take heed of the blessings that his father bestowed on him. Ya'akov put them aside for the end of days.

21. וַיִּצַו אֹתָם לֵאמֹר כֹּה תֹאמְרוּן לְאֲדֹנָי לְעָשׂוּ כֹה אָמַר עֲבָדְךָ יַעֲקֹב עִם לְבָן גִּרְתִּי וְאַחַר עַד עָתָה. מִיַּד פָּתַח יַעֲקֹב, לְאַתְהֶפְכָּא לִי הַלְעֵבְדָא, בְּגִין דְּלֹא יִסְתַּבֵּל עָשׂוּ בְּאִינוּן בְּרַכָּאן דְּבְרַכִּיָּה אָבוּי, דְּהָא יַעֲקֹב סָלִיק לֹוּן לְבִתְרָא, כְּדַקָּא אֲמַרְן.

22. Rabbi Yehuda asked: What did Ya'akov have in mind when he sent Esav a message reading, "I HAVE SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN?" Did this message accomplish anything regarding his mission to Esav? HE ANSWERS: A rumor circulated that no one had ever escaped the clutches of Lavan of Aram, as he was well versed in sorcery and wizardry. He was also the father of Beor, who in turn was the father of Bila'am. As it is written: "Bila'am the son of Beor the sorcerer" (Yehoshua 13:22). Yet although Lavan was the greatest practitioner of sorcery and wizardry, he could not overcome Ya'akov, whom he attempted to annihilate in several ways, as it is written: "An Arammian wanted to destroy my father" (Devarim 26:5). AND SO HE SENT HIM THE MESSAGE, "I HAVE SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN," TO MAKE HIM AWARE OF HIS POWER.

22. אָמַר רַבִּי יְהוּדָה, מַאי חֲמָא יַעֲקֹב דְּשַׁדְרָא לִי הַלְעָשׂוּ, וְאָמַר עִם לְבָן גִּרְתִּי, וְכִי מַה עֵבִיד בְּשִׁלְחוּתֵיהּ דְּעָשׂוּ, מִלָּה דָּא. אֲלֵא לְבָן הָאֲרָמִי, קָלִיָּה אָזִיל בְּעַלְמָא, דְּלֹא הוּהוּ בְּרַ נֶשׁ דִּישְׁתַּזִּיב מִנִּיהּ דְּהוּא הוּהוּ חֲרָשׁ בְּחֲרָשִׁין, וְרַב בְּקוּסְמִין, וְאָבוּי דְּבַעוֹר הוּהוּ, וְבַעוֹר אָבוּי דְּבַלְעָם, דְּכְתִיב בְּלַעַם בֶּן בְּעוֹר הַקּוּסִם, וְלְבָן חֲכָם בְּחֲרָשִׁין וְקוּסְמִין יִתִּיר מִכְלָהוּ, וְעַם כָּל דָּא לֹא יָכִיל בּוּיַעֲקֹב. וְבַעָא לְאוּבְדָא לְיַעֲקֹב, בְּכַמָּה זַיִינִין, הַה"ד אֲרַמִּי אוּבְדָא אָבִי.

23. Rabbi Aba said: Everyone was aware that Lavan was the best at sorcery and wizardry, and he could use sorcery to do away with anyone he wished. All that Bila'am knew came from Lavan. Regarding Bila'am, it is written: "for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed" (Bemidbar 22:6). Because everyone feared Lavan and his sorcery, the first words that Ya'akov sent Esav were, "I have sojourned with Lavan." In case Esav thought it was for a short period, perhaps a month or a year, Ya'akov advised, "and stayed there until now"--twenty years did I stay with him.

23. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, כּוּלִי עַלְמָא הוּוּי יַדְעִי, דְּלְבָן הוּהוּ רַב חֲכִימִין וְחֲרָשִׁין וְקוּסְמִין, וְמֵאן דְּבַעִי לְאוּבְדָא בְּחֲרָשׁוּי, לֹא אִשְׁתַּזִּיב מִנִּיהּ, וְכָל מַה דִּידַע בְּלַעַם, מִנִּיהּ הוּהוּ. וְכְתִיב בֵּיהּ בְּבַלְעָם כִּי יַדְעִתִּי אֵת אֲשֶׁר תִּבְרַךְ מִבְּרַךְ וְאֲשֶׁר תֹּארוּ וְיֹארוּ. וְכּוּלִי עַלְמָא הוּוּ מִסְתַּמֵּי מִלְבָּן וּמְחֲרָשׁוּי, וּמִלָּה קְדַמָּא דְּשַׁדְרָא יַעֲקֹב לְעָשׂוּ, אָמַר עִם לְבָן גִּרְתִּי. וְאִי תִימָא דְּזַעִיר הוּהוּ, יִרַח אוּ שְׁתָּא. לֹאוּ הָכִי, אֲלֵא וְאַחַר עַד עָתָה, עֲשְׂרִין שָׁנִין אַתְּאַחֲרִית עִמִּיָּה.

24. You may say that he gained nothing, BUT HE SAID TO HIM, "and I have oxen and asses" (Beresheet 32: 6). These are sentences of judgment, THAT IS, DEMONS. When these two collaborate, they cooperate to harm the world, MEANING IT IS NOT THEIR NATURE TO INFLICT DAMAGE EXCEPT WHEN THEY ARE JOINED. For this reason, it is written, "You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together" (Devarim 22:10). FOR THIS CAUSES THESE TWO DEMONS, NAMELY THE OX AND THE ASS, TO BE JOINED, AND TO INFLICT DAMAGE ON THE WORLD.

25. THE VERSE, "flocks, and menservants, and women servants," refers to lower crowns OF THE KLIPOT, which the Holy One, blessed be He, slew in Egypt. They are called "the firstborn of cattle" (Shemot 12:29), "the firstborn of the captive" (Ibid.), and "the firstborn of the maidservant" (Shemot 11:5). Esav took fright and came toward him; he feared Ya'akov as much as Ya'akov feared him.

26. THIS IS LIKE THE STORY OF a man who was walking along the road when he heard a robber was lurking along the way. When another man approached him, he asked: Where are you from? The man replied that he was from an army brigade. He said: Stay away from me. I have a snake that will kill anyone who approaches me. That man returned to the chief of the brigade, and said: There is a man coming who has a snake that bites and kills anyone who approaches him.

27. The chief heard and was frightened. He said: It is best to go meet and appease him. When the traveler saw the chief, HE WAS AFRAID. He said: Woe is me. Now the chief will kill me. He began to bow and kneel before him. The chief then said: If he really had a snake that kills, he would not have bowed before me. Thus the chief regained his composure, and said: Since he bows so much before me, I shall spare him.

28. This is why Ya'akov said, "I have sojourned with Lavan, and stayed there until now." I lingered with him these twenty years, and I bring with me a snake, which kills people.' Esav heard this and said, 'Woe to me, who shall stand before him, for now Ya'akov shall kill me with his mouth.' HE THOUGHT THAT BECAUSE HE OVERPOWERED LAVAN, BILA'AM'S GRANDFATHER, HIS STRENGTH WAS SURELY AS GREAT AS THAT OF BILA'AM, OF WHOM IT IS SAID, "FOR I KNOW THAT HE WHOM YOU BLESS IS BLESSED, AND HE WHOM YOU CURSE IS CURSED," AND HE CAN KILL WITH HIS MOUTH.' He then came out to meet him, to appease him.

29. Once he saw him, it is written: "Then Ya'akov was greatly afraid and distressed" (Beresheet 32:8). When he approached him, he began to bow and prostrate himself before him, as it is written: "and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother" (Beresheet 33:3). Esav said: 'If he had so much power, he would not have bowed before me.' He then began to become haughty again.

30. Come and behold: it is written of Bila'am, "And Elohim came to Bila'am at night" (Bemidbar 22:20). Of Lavan, the verse says, "And Elohim came to Lavan the Arammian in a dream by night, and said to him, Take heed that you speak not to Ya'akov..." (Bereshheet 31:24). THIS SHOWS US THAT LAVAN WAS AS GREAT AS BILA'AM. HE ASKS: Why is it written, "that you speak not," rather than 'that you harm not?' HE ANSWERS: Lavan did not chase Ya'akov with an army of men to wage war against him, for the power of Ya'akov and his sons is greater than that of Lavan. But he chased him to kill him with his mouth and destroy everything, as it is written, "An Arammian wanted to destroy my father." This is why it says, "that you speak not," and not, 'that you harm not'. It is also written, "It is in the power of my hand to do." How did he know he had the power? From that which "Elohim of your father spoke to me last night..."

31. This is the testimony that the Holy One, blessed be He, commanded to pronounce, as it is written: "And you shall speak and say before Hashem your Elohim, an Arammian wanted to destroy my father." "And you shall speak" is similar to the verses, "You shall not bear false witness" (Shemot 20:13), AND ALSO, "and has testified... against his brother" (Devarim 19:18).

32. It is written of Bila'am that "he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments" (Bemidbar 24:1), as was his wont, being a diviner. Of Lavan TOO, the scripture says: "I have learnt by signs" (Bereshheet 30:27), which means that he consulted magic and sorcery TO LEARN OF Ya'akov's plans. When he wanted to destroy Ya'akov, he planned to do it by enchantment and sorcery, but the Holy One, blessed be He, did not permit him to do so. RATHER, HE SAID TO HIM: "THAT YOU SPEAK NOT."

33. This is the meaning of what Bila'am, LAVAN'S grandson, said: "Surely there is no enchantment in Ya'akov, nor divination in Yisrael" (Bemidbar 23:23). For who could prevail against them when my grandfather wished to destroy their father with divination and enchantment but could not, not having obtained permission to curse FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, as it is written: "Surely there is no enchantment in Ya'akov, nor divination in Yisrael."

34. Lavan used ten kinds of divination and enchantments from the illumination of the lower crowns, but could not prevail against Ya'akov. In connection with this, it is written: "and you have changed my wages ten times" (Bereshheet 31:41). Lavan used all these tools against him, but could not harm him, as it is written: "and changed my wages ten times; but Elohim did not allow him to hurt me" (Ibid. 7). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "times (Heb. monim)?" HE ANSWERS: It was translated into "kinds (Heb. minim)." It is also written: "the demons, after whom they have gone astray (Heb. zonim)" (Vayikra 17:7). "Times" are literally 'kinds' (Aramaic zinin), the ten kinds of sorcery and divination of the lower crowns OF THE KLIPOT. LAVAN employed all of these against him.

35. These ten kinds are: "a diviner, that uses divinations, a soothsayer, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a medium, or a wizard, or a necromancer" (Devarim 18:10-11). There are ten in all, WITH THE DIVINATIONS, IT SEEMS, COUNTED AS TWO KINDS, SINCE IT IS WRITTEN IN THE PLURAL.

36. Rabbi Yosi said: Enchantment and divination are two kinds with the same level of strength. When Bila'am came to hurt Yisrael, he used divination, as it is written: "with divinations in their hand" (Bemidbar 22:7). Lavan used enchantment against Ya'akov, but neither succeeded. This is the meaning of the verse, "Surely there is no enchantment in Ya'akov, nor divination in Yisrael." The words, "there is no enchantment in Ya'akov," refer to the days of Lavan, and "divination in Yisrael" refers to the latter days of Bila'am.

37. Bila'am said to Balak: Come and behold. Who can prevail over them, seeing that all the divination and witchcraft in our crowns are adorned by the illumination of the upper Malchut, and he, ZEIR ANPIN, is bound to them, YISRAEL, as it is written: "Hashem his Elohim is with him, and the trumpet blast of a king is among them" (Bemidbar 23:21). THEREFORE, WE CAN NOT USE OUR WITCHCRAFT TO HARM THEM.

38. Rabbi Yehuda said: Heaven forbid that Bila'am would have any knowledge of the upper holiness. HE DISAGREES WITH WHAT WAS SAID--THAT BILA'AM KNEW THAT HIS DIVINATION CAME FROM THE MALCHUT OF HOLINESS. This is because the Holy One, blessed be He, desires no other people or tongue to make use of His glory, but His holy children alone, THAT IS, THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL, WHO ARE CALLED 'CHILDREN TO HASHEM'. He said: "you shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy" (Vayikra 11:44), WHICH MEANS THAT THOSE who are holy shall use holy things. And only the children of Yisrael are holy, as it is written: "For you are a holy people" (Devarim 14:2); you, and no other people, are holy.

39. Those who are unholy find that defilement awaits them. Of them, the scripture says: "he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; outside the camp shall his habitation be" (Vayikra 13:46), THAT IS, AWAY FROM HOLINESS. The impure touches on the impure, as it is written: "and shall cry, unclean, unclean" (Ibid. 45), WHICH MEANS THAT whoever is unclean cries to the unclean; one seeks out one's own kind.

40. IN COMMENTING ON RABBI YEHUDA'S OBSERVATION THAT ONE SEEKS OUT ONE'S OWN KIND, Rabbi Yitzchak said: Is it becoming for Ya'akov, who was holy, to say that he was defiled by Lavan and his magic? Could it be possibly be considered a credit to him TO SAY, "I HAVE SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN?" Despite what Rabbi Yehuda said, THAT EVERYTHING FOLLOWS ITS OWN KIND, Rabbi Yosi gave another explanation for the difficulty in that verse. It is written: "I am Esav your firstborn" (Bereshheet 27:19). HERE, WE SHOULD ASK, is it becoming to a righteous man such as Ya'akov to change his name to that of an impure one? The explanation is that under the "I," there is a tonal pause. BELOW THE "I" IS WRITTEN THE (TONE) PASHTA, WHEREAS BELOW "ESAV, YOUR FIRST BORN," IS FOUND THE (TONE) ZAKEF KATON, WHOSE TONE SEPARATES THE WORD "I" FROM "ESAV YOUR FIRSTBORN." What he actually said was "I am who I am, though Esav is your firstborn," as has already been explained.

35. עֲשָׂרָה זִינּוּן אֵינּוּן: דְּכֵתִיב, קוֹסֵם, קְסָמִים, מְעוֹנָן, וּמְנַחֵשׁ, וּמְכַשֵּׁף, וְחוֹבֵר חֶבֶר, וְשׂוֹאֵל אוֹב, וְיַדְעוֹנִי, וְדוֹרֵשׁ אֶל הַמֵּתִים, הֵא עֲשָׂרָה אֵינּוּן.

40. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, יְאוּת הוּא לְיַעֲקֹב, דְּהוּא קְדִישָׁא, לֹאמַר דְּאַסְתָּאב בְּלָבָן וּבְחַרְשׁוֹי, אוֹ שְׁבָחָא הוּא דִּילֵיהּ. אָמַר לִיה רַבִּי יוֹסִי, אִף עַל גַּב דְּקָאמַר ר' יְהוּדָה, אֲנָא מְסִייע לָךְ, דְּהָא כְּתִיב אֲנֹכִי עָשׂוּ בְּכוֹרְךָ, וְכִי יְאוּת הוּא לְצַדִּיקָא כְּיַעֲקֹב לְמַחֲלָף שְׁמִיָּה בְּשֵׁמָא דְּמְסַאֲבָא, אֲלֵא אֲנֹכִי, פְּסָקָא טְעֵמָא, וְאִמַּר אֲנֹכִי: מֵאֵן דְּאֵנָא, אֲבַל עָשׂוּ בְּכוֹרְךָ, וְהָא אוֹקְמוּהָ.

41. Here also IT IS WRITTEN: "I have oxen and asses," that is, do not pay attention to the blessing my father bestowed on me, TO THINK that it was fulfilled in me. He blessed me: "be lord over your brethren, and let your mother's sons bow down to you" (Beresheet 27:29). Hence, I SAY TO YOU, "to my master Esav; Your servant Ya'akov." He blessed me with "plenty of corn and wine," yet I have no stock of these; "I have oxen, and asses, flocks and menservants," as a shepherd in the field. He blessed me with "the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth," yet instead I "have sojourned with Lavan," a sojourner without even a house, let alone "the fatness of the earth." THE LAST WAS NOT FULFILLED IN ME, AS I HAVE NO LAND. I HAVE ONLY SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN. HE SAID all this so that Esav would not be jealous of him, on account of the blessings he received, and bring accusations against him.

42. Rabbi Aba said: It is written that Ya'akov was "a plain man, dwelling in tents" (Beresheet 25:27). HE WAS CALLED "a plain man," because his abode was in two supernal temples, BINAH AND MALCHUT, THE SECRET OF THE TENT OF RACHEL AND THE TENT OF LEAH. He reconciles both sides, WHICH MEANT THAT HE BALANCED AND PERFECTED THE RIGHT AND REFT COLUMNS. Do not conclude FROM THE VERSE, "I HAVE SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN," that he was contaminated by the divination OF LAVAN. But in light of Rabbi Yehuda's observation THAT ONE SEEKS OUT ONE'S OWN KIND, ACCORDING TO THE QUESTION OF RABBI YITZCHAK, THE EXPLANATION FOR, "I HAVE SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN," is that he was wholeheartedly THANKFUL for the grace and truth shown him by the Holy One, blessed be He. For everybody knows that although no one can be saved from Lavan's accusations, the Holy One, blessed be He, rescued me from his hands when Lavan wanted to destroy me. THIS IS WHAT HE MEANT BY THE VERSE, "I HAVE SOJOURNED WITH LAVAN." FURTHERMORE, he said all this so that Esav would not envy him his blessings, but rather think that they were not fulfilled in him. Thus, Esav would not harbor any hate for him--AS RABBI YOSI EXPLAINED. Of this, the scripture says: "for the ways of Hashem are right" (Hoshea 14:10), and, "You shall be perfect with Hashem your Elohim" (Devarim 18:13).

42. רבי אבא אמר, כתיב ביה בייעקב, איש תם יושב אהלים גבר שלים, בגין דאיהו יתיב בתרין משכנין עלאין, ואשלים להאי גיסא, ולהאי גיסא, ואיהו לא אמר דאסתאב בחרשו, אבל על מה דקאמר רבי יהודה, בגין דלבוי שלים, על טיבו וקשוט דעביד ליה קודשא ברין הוא, דכל עלמא ידעי עובדוי דלבן מאן אינון, ומאן יכיל לאשתזבא מקטרוגא דיליה, דבעי לאוברא לי, וקודשא ברין הואשזבני מניה. וכלא הוה, בגין דלא יסתכל ביה עשו, דאתקיימו ביה אינון ברכאן, ולא ינטר ליה דבבו, ועל דא כתיב, כי ישרים דרכי יי' וגו', וכתיב תמים תהיה עם יי' אלהיך.

3. The prayers of the righteous

The rabbis teach us that the combined prayers of the righteous are more powerful than those of any individual. Although Ya'akov was spiritually complete--he embodied all three Columns--he was afraid of Esav because he did not consider himself worthy of a miracle, and because he desired to reserve his merits for the benefit of his descendants. Thus, Ya'akov fulfills and reinforces the verse, "Happy is the man who fears always..." After Rabbi Shimon describes Ya'akov's role as the firmest support among the Patriarchs who sustain the world, he turns to the subject of the years which Ya'akov, Yosef, and Avraham conceded to King David. David, we learn, had no life portion of his own because he, like Yitzchak, was of the side of darkness. Rabbi Yosi then discourses on the models for prayer supplied by both David and Ya'akov. Prayer, we learn, is divisible into two parts, corresponding to the lower grade of Malchut, and the higher, inner grade of Binah.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our prayers receive the assistance of the righteous by virtue of this passage, so that our spiritual requests reach the highest realm of the Upper Worlds. Humility before the Light of The Creator is also awakened within us, further supporting our prayers. Finally, the wisdom of David and Ya'akov, and their insights into the divine structure of prayer, provide our own prayers with additional power and guidance to ensure that they reach their proper destination.

43. "And the messengers returned to Ya'akov, saying: 'We came to your brother Esav, and he is also coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him'" (Bereshheet 32:7). HE ASKS: After saying, "We came to your brother," do we not know they referred to Esav, as he had no other brothers? HE ANSWERS: "We came to your brother" MEANS THAT he did not repent and walk the path of righteousness, as may be thought, but remained the evil Esav as before. "...and he is also coming to meet you..." does not mean, as you may say, by himself, but rather he has "four hundred men with him."

44. Why was all this specified? Because the Holy One, blessed be He, always longs for the prayers of the righteous and adorns Himself with them. As we have already said, the angel in charge of the prayers of the children of Yisrael, whose name is Sandalfon, receives all their prayers and weaves them into a crown for the Life of the Worlds. The Holy One, blessed be He, desires the prayers of the righteous all the more; they become a crown with which to adorn the Holy One, blessed be He. You may wonder why Ya'akov was fearful, since camps of holy angels accompanied him. He was fearful because the righteous do not rely on their merit, but on their prayers and supplications before their Master.

45. Come and behold: Rabbi Shimon said that the prayer of the congregation rises before the Holy One, blessed be He, and He is adorned by that prayer because it ascends in several ways: ONE ASKING FOR CHASSADIM, ANOTHER FOR GVUROT, AND THE THIRD FOR MERCY. IT consists of several sides, THE RIGHT SIDE, THE LEFT, AND THE MIDDLE, AS CHASSADIM ARE DRAWN FROM THE RIGHT, GVUROT FROM THE LEFT, AND MERCY FROM THE MIDDLE. Because it comprises several aspects, it is woven into a wreath and put on the head of the righteous One, the Life of the Worlds--THAT IS, YESOD, WHICH GIVES SALVATION TO THE NUKVA AND FROM HER, TO THE WHOLE CONGREGATION. But a solitary prayer does not include all the sides; rather, it contains only one aspect. ONE CAN ONLY ASK FOR CHASSADIM, GVUROT, OR MERCY. Therefore, the solitary prayer is not prepared and accepted as is that of the congregation; IT IS NOT INCLUDED WITHIN ALL THE THREE COLUMNS AS IS THE PRAYER OF THE CONGREGATION. Come and behold: Ya'akov included all THREE COLUMNS, BEING THE CHARIOT OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH INCLUDES BOTH. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, desired his prayer PERFECTED BY ALL THREE COLUMNS. It is therefore written, "Then Ya'akov was greatly afraid and distressed." THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, DID ALL THAT TO ENCOURAGE YA'AKOV TO PRAY, FOR HE CRAVED HIS PRAYER.

46. Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse: "Happy is the man who fears always: but he who hardens his heart shall fall into evil" (Mishlei 28:14). Happy are the children of Yisrael, whom the Holy One, blessed be He, desires and to whom He gave the Torah of Truth with which to attain eternal life. For whoever is occupied with the study of the Torah receives supernal life from the Holy One, blessed be He, and is ushered into the life of the world to come, as it is written: "for He is your life, and the length of your days" (Devarim 30:20), and, "and through this word you shall prolong your days" (Devarim 32:47)--for it is life in this world and life in the World to Come.

47. Rabbi Elazar said: Whoever studies the Torah for its own sake does not die by the hand of the Evil Inclination, WHICH IS THE ANGEL OF DEATH, because he holds onto the Tree of Life and does not relax his grip. Therefore, the bodies of the righteous, who are occupied in the study of the Torah, are not defiled AFTER DEATH, because the Spirit of Defilement does not dwell with them.

48. HE ASKS: Why was Ya'akov, who was the Tree of Life, afraid OF ESAV even though THE OTHER SIDE cannot rule over him, since THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAID TO HIM, "And, behold, I am with you" (Bereshheet 28:15), and since "angels of Elohim met him"? With all of these camps of holy angels, why was he afraid?

49. HE ANSWERS: It is all true THAT THERE WAS NO NEED TO BE AFRAID, but Ya'akov did not want to rely on a miracle from the Holy One, blessed be He, because he thought he was unworthy of such a miracle. Why? Because he was of no service to his father and mother, did not study the Torah DURING THE 22 YEARS HE SPENT WITH LAVAN, and married two sisters. And although it was settled THAT YA'AKOV DID NOT SIN AT ALL IN THAT, nevertheless, it behooves a man to be always afraid and ask in his prayer before the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "Happy is the man who fears always." This has already been explained.

50. Come and behold: the prayer of the patriarchs sustained the world. Upon their merit the people in the world survive and receive support. The merit of the fathers is never ever forgotten, because it supports the worlds above and below. The support from Ya'akov is more whole than that of the others, and because of this, when trouble comes to the children of Ya'akov, the Holy One, blessed be He, sees the image of Ya'akov before Him and takes pity upon the world, as it is written: "Then will I remember my covenant with Ya'akov" (Vayikra 26:42). The word Ya'akov is WRITTEN with a superfluous Vav, because it is the very image of Ya'akov.

46. רבי יהודה פתח ואמר, אשרי אדם מפחד תמיד ומקשה לבו יפול ברעה. זכאין אינון ישראל, דקודשא בריך הוא אתרעי בהו, ויהב לון אורייתא דקשוט, בגין למזכי בה לחיי עלמא, דכל מאן דאשתדל באורייתא, קודשא בריך הוא משין עליה חיים עלאין, ואעיל ליה, לחיי עלמא דאתי, דכתיב כי הוא חייך וארך ימיך. וכתיב ובדבר הזה תאריכו ימים, חיים בהאי עלמא, וחיים בעלמא דאתי.

51. Come and behold: whoever looked at Ya'akov beheld the shining mirror, ZEIR ANPIN. We learned that the beauty of Ya'akov was like the beauty of Adam. Rabbi Yesa said: I heard that whoever beholds Ya'akov in his dream, wrapped in his clothes, has his life prolonged.

52. Rabbi Shimon said: We have already learned that before King David entered the world, he had no life at all, except for the seventy years given him by Adam. So King David lived seventy years, and Adam lived a thousand years less seventy years. So Adam and David existed within the first millennium AFTER THE CREATION OF THE WORLD.

53. He began the discussion with the verse: "He asked life of you, and you did give it Him; length of days for ever and ever" (Tehilim 21:5). "He asked life of you" refers to King David, for when the Holy One, blessed be He, created The Garden of Eden and put the soul of King David in it, He looked at it and saw it had no life of its own. It thus stood before Him all day long. When He created Adam, He said: Here is life for David. From Adam came the seventy years that King David lived in the world.

54. Another explanation is that the fathers each gave him years from their own lives. Avraham gave him from his own life, as did Ya'akov and Yosef. Yitzchak did not give him anything, because King David belonged to the same side as he did.

55. Avraham surely gave King David five of his years, for he lived only 175 of his 180 years, five years less than his due, LIKE YITZCHAK. Ya'akov could have lived as long as Avraham, 175 YEARS, but he lived only 147, 28 years less than his due. Thus, Avraham and Ya'akov gave King David 33 years of life. Yosef lived only 110 years, instead of 147, which is 37 years less than Ya'akov. TOGETHER WITH THE 33 YEARS FROM AVRAHAM AND YA'AKOV, King David received a total of seventy years for his existence, and he lived all these years which the patriarchs left him.

56. You may wonder why Yitzchak did not leave him any of his years, as did AVRAHAM, YA'AKOV, AND YOSEF. HE ANSWERS: Because YITZCHAK represented darkness, THAT IS, THE LEFT COLUMN, WHICH IS DARK BEFORE IT IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT. David also came from the side of darkness, NAMELY, FROM THE LEFT SIDE, and whoever is in darkness has no light or life at all. David, therefore, had no life. But AVRAHAM, YA'AKOV, AND YOSEF, BEING OF THE RIGHT, did have light and shone it on King David. From them, he had to illuminate and receive life, WHICH MEANS THAT HE HAD TO BE INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT, for there is no life on the side of darkness, THE LEFT. Thus, Yitzchak did not join the reckoning.

57. Why, you may ask, did Yosef GIVE HIM MORE LIFE than the others? YOSEF GAVE HIM 37 YEARS, WHILE THE OTHERS GAVE HIM A TOTAL OF 33. HE ANSWERS: Yosef, by himself, was THE EQUIVALENT of all the others, because he was called 'Righteous', NAMELY YESOD, WHICH INCLUDES ALL THE SFIROT. He shines on the moon, THE NUKVA, more than everybody else, and therefore gave King David a greater share of life than all the others, as it is written: "And Elohim set them in the firmament of heaven to give light upon the earth" (Beresheet 1:17).

58. Come and behold: Ya'akov's prayer protected him from Esav, AND NOT HIS MERIT, because he wished to keep it in reserve for his descendants and not spend it to serve his own needs against Esav. He therefore prayed to the Holy One, blessed be He, and did not rely upon his merit for his rescue.

59. "...and said: If Esav come to the one camp, and smite it, then the camp which is left shall escape" (Beresheet 32:9). Come and behold: it is written, "and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two camps." HE ASKS: Why did he divide them into two camps? HE ANSWERS: Because, "If Esav comes to the one camp, and smite it, then the camp which is left shall escape." ONE MAY ASK, CAN NOT ESAV SMITE BOTH CAMPS? WHEREFROM COMES THE CERTAINTY THAT ONE CAMP SHALL SURVIVE?

60. HE REPLIS: Come and behold. The Shechinah did not stray from the tents of Leah and Rachel. Ya'akov said: I know that the Holy One, blessed be He, protects them. SO, "he put the handmaids and their children foremost" (Ibid. 2), saying that if Esav will smite, he will smite these, but I am not afraid for the children OF THE LADIES, because the Shechinah is with them. ACCORDING TO THIS, "FOREMOST" MEANS THE FIRST TO ENCOUNTER DANGER. Thus, HE SAID: "then the camp which is left shall escape," BECAUSE THE SHECHINAH HOVERS ABOUT THEM. After the preparations, he prayed FOR THE HANDMAIDS AND THEIR CHILDREN, saying, "and Ya'akov said, Elohim of my father Avraham, and Elohim of my father Yitzchak, Hashem who did say to me, Return to your country, and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you" (Ibid. 10).

56. וְאִי תִימָא, יִצְחָק אֲמַאי לֹא שָׁבַק לִיה בְּלוּם בְּהַנִּי, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ חֲשָׁךְ, וְדוּד מִסְטְרָא דְחֲשָׁךְ קָא אָתָא, וּמֵאֵן דְּאִיהוּ בְּחֲשָׁךְ, לִית לִיה נְהוּרָא בְּלָל, וְלִית לִיה חַיִּים, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ לֹא הוּוּ לְדוּד חַיִּים בְּלָל. אֲבָל אֲלִין דְּהוּוּ לְהוּן נְהוּרָא, נְהִירוּ לִיה לְדוּד מְלָכָא, וּמְנִייהוּ אֲצִטְרִיךְ לְאַנְהָרָא, וּלְמַהוּי לִיה חַיִּים, דְּהָא מִסְטְרָא דְחֲשָׁךְ לִית לִיה חַיִּים בְּלָל, וְעַל דָּא לֹא אָתָא יִצְחָק בְּחוּשְׁבָנָא.

61. Rabbi Yosi began the discussion with the verse: "A prayer of the poor, when he faints, and pours out his complaint before Hashem" (Tehilim 102:1). This verse has been explained several times. Yet King David said this when he watched and contemplated the ways of the poor, while fleeing from his father-in-law, KING SHAUL. Then did he say, "A prayer of the poor." This is the prayer the poor say to the Holy One, blessed be He. It is the first TO BE RECEIVED among all the prayers in the world.

62. It is here written, "A prayer of the poor," and elsewhere, "A prayer of Moshe the man of Elohim" (Tehilim 90:1). HE ASKS about the difference between them. HE ANSWERS that PRAYER OF THE POOR is the hand Tefilin, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. THE NUKVA IS CALLED 'POOR', BECAUSE SHE HAS NOTHING OF HERSELF AND RECEIVES EVERYTHING FROM ZEIR ANPIN. THAT PRAYER OF MOSHE is the head Tefilin, ZEIR ANPIN. There should be no separation between the prayer of the poor and the prayer of Moshe, THE NUKVA AND ZEIR ANPIN, BECAUSE THEY SHOULD ALWAYS BE UNITED. Both are considered as one.

63. The prayer of the poor is therefore the first TO BE RECEIVED into the presence of the Holy One, blessed be He. It is received before all other prayers in the world, as it is written: "For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted" (Tehilim 22:25). Come and behold: the prayer of the poor is the hand Tefilin, THAT IS, THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE PRAYER OF the poor who are deep in poverty, as one who has nothing of his own.

64. Another explanation is that the prayer ALLUDES TO Moshe, ZEIR ANPIN; "the poor" to David, THE NUKVA; "when he faints" refers to the moon, THE NUKVA, when it is concealed and the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, is gone from her. "...before Hashem," ZEIR ANPIN, he "pours out his complaint," in order to be joined with the sun, ZEIR ANPIN.

65. Come and behold: the prayer of every man is considered prayer, but when the prayer of the poor comes before the Holy One, blessed be He, it breaks down gates and doors to be received and shown into His presence. This is the meaning of the verse: "And it shall come to pass, when he cries to me, that I will hear; for I am gracious" (Shemot 22:26), and "I will surely hear his cry" (Ibid. 22). He "pours out his complaint before Hashem," NAMELY, as one who complains about the judgments of the Holy One, blessed be He.

66. Rabbi Elazar said: The prayer of the righteous causes joy to the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, which adorns itself WITH THE PRAYER before the Holy One, blessed be He. The Holy One, blessed be He, loves it better than THE PRAYER OF THE POOR. The Holy One, blessed be He, desires the prayer of the righteous when they pray in time of need, because they know HOW to appease their Master.

67. It is written that Ya'akov PRAYED, "Elohim of my father Avraham, and Elohim of my father Yitzchak, Hashem who did say to me...". He joined everything together into one knot, saying, "Elohim of my father Avraham," who is of the right and, "Elohim of my father Yitzchak," who is of the left, "who did say to me," NAMELY, TO HIMSELF, WHO REPRESENTS THE BALANCING CENTRAL COLUMN. It depends ON THE CENTRAL COLUMN to adorn His place between AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, RIGHT AND LEFT. HE THEREFORE SAID TO HIM, "Return to your country, and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you."

68. "I am unworthy of the least of all the mercies." HE ASKS: What made YA'AKOV say, "I AM UNWORTHY...", together with, "RETURN TO YOUR COUNTRY, AND TO YOUR KINDRED, AND I WILL DEAL WELL WITH YOU"? HE ANSWERS: Ya'akov said, You promised to deal well with me, and I know that whatever You do has conditions, THAT YOUR WILL SHALL BE DONE, yet I have no merit, because "I am unworthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which You have shown Your servant." THERE IS NO NEED, THEN, TO KEEP YOUR PROMISE. Whatever You did for me until now was not for my merits, but because of YOUR GOODNESS. All those mercies and truths were BECAUSE OF YOUR GOODNESS, for when I first crossed THE RIVER JORDAN, when I fled Esav, I was alone, and You gave me mercies and truths so that now I cross the river with two camps, THAT IS, the two camps he divided.

69. Up to this point, Ya'akov recited the praises of his Master. Then he asked for what he needed. This teaches people that it behooves man to first praise his Master, and only then to pray for himself. This is what Ya'akov did. He first praised his Master, and when he finished, he asked for what he needed.

70. This is the meaning of the verse: "Deliver me, I pray You, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esav: for I fear him, lest he come and smite me, the mother with the children." THIS MEANS THAT AFTER PRAISING HIS MASTER, HE BEGAN TO PRAY. IT IS UNDERSTOOD from this that when one prays, one's words should be precise. HE SAID: "Deliver me, I pray You," WHICH APPEARS AS IF IT SHOULD SUFFICE, BECAUSE HE ONLY NEEDED DELIVERANCE. YET HE SAID TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE: Lest You say that You already rescued me from Lavan, I add, "from the hand of my brother." It may be said that other relatives are also referred to as brothers, AS IN WHAT LAVAN SAID TO YA'AKOV, "BECAUSE YOU ARE MY BROTHER, SHOULD YOU THEREFORE SERVE ME FOR NOTHING?" (BERESHEET 29:15). HE THEN EXPLAINED, saying, "from the hand of Esav." The reason is that it behooves us to explain ourselves fully. HE THEREFORE CONTINUED BY SAYING: In case You ask why I need DELIVERY, "I fear him, lest he come and smite me." ALL THIS HE SAID to explain and fully clarify things above, so there would be no misunderstanding.

71. "And You did say, I will surely do you good..." (Beresheet 32:13). HE ASKS: What is meant by "And You?" HE ANSWERS: It is the same as in the verse, "and You do preserve them all" (Nechemyah 9:6), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA, CALLED 'YOU'. Here also, "And You did say," ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA.

72. Come and behold: King David said, "Let the words of my mouth... be acceptable in Your sight" (Tehilim 19:15). This refers to explicit things, while the phrase, "and the meditation of my heart," refers to undisclosed things that can not be expressed by mouth. They are the meditation of the heart, which can not be explained.

72. תָּא חֲזִי, דְּוֹד מַלְכָּא אָמַר, וְהִיּוּ לְרִצּוֹן אִמְרֵי פִי:
אֵלִין מַלְיִן דְּאַתְפְּרִשׁוּן. וְהִגְיוֹן לְבִי: אֵלִין מַלְיִן
דְּסִתְיָמֵן, דְּלֹא יָכִיל בְּרִשׁ לְפִי לְפִי לְפִי, דְּלֹא
הוּא הִגְיוֹן, דְּאִיהוּ בְּלָבָא, דְּלֹא יָכִיל לְאַתְפְּרִשָּׁא.

73. Thus, there should BE a matter that is explained by mouth--AS IN "THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH"--and a matter which depends upon the heart AND IS NOT EXPLICIT--THAT IS, "THE MEDITATION OF MY HEART"--for it is all a mystery. One corresponds to the lower grade, THE NUKVA, and the other to the upper grade, BINAH. That which is expressed BY MOUTH corresponds to the lower grade, which needs to be expressed, THE SECRET OF THE DISCLOSED WORLD. That which depends on the heart corresponds to the inner grade, BINAH, THE HIDDEN WORLD. And everything is one, THAT IS, THERE IS NEED OF BOTH. He therefore said: "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight."

73. וְעַל דָּא אֲצַטְרִיךְ מְלָה, לְאַתְפְּרִשָּׁא בְּפִי, וּמְלָה דְּתַלְיָא בְּלָבָא, וְכֹלָא רְזָא אִיהוּ, חֵד לְקַבֵּל דְּרָגָא תַתָּא, וְחֵד לְקַבֵּל דְּרָגָא עֲלָא. מְלָה דְּאַתְפְּרִשָּׁא, לְקַבֵּל דְּרָגָא תַתָּא, דְּאַצְטְרִיךְ לְאַתְפְּרִשָּׁא. הוּא דְּתַלְיָא בְּלָבָא, אִיהוּ לְקַבֵּל דְּרָגָא פְּנִימָא וְתִיר, וְכֹלָא בְּחֵדָא אִיהוּ. וְעַל דָּא אָמַר וְהִיּוּ לְרִצּוֹן אִמְרֵי פִי וְהִגְיוֹן לְבִי לְפָנֶיךָ וְגו'.

74. Ya'akov spoke in the same manner. He first explained the matter fully, and then vaguely talked of what depends on the meditation of the heart, which needs no explanation, as it is written: "and make your seed like the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude" (Beresheet 32:13). This matter depends on the meditation of the heart and does not require explanation. It should be thus, as we said, that both must be joined together into a complete union. Happy are the righteous who know how to properly arrange the praises of their Master, and AFTERWARD say their prayers. The scripture therefore reads, "and said to Me, you are My servant, Yisrael, in whom I will be glorified" (Yeshayah 49:3).

74. כְּגִוּוֹנָא דָּא אָמַר יַעֲקֹב, בְּקִדְמִיתָא פְּרִישׁ מְלָה כְּדָקָא יָאוּת, וְלִבְתֵּר סְתִים מְלָה, דְּאִיהוּ תַלְיָא בְּהִגְיוֹנָא דְּלָבָא, דְּלֹא אֲצַטְרִיךְ לְפִי לְפִי, דְּכִתִּיב וְשִׁמְתִי אֶת זֶרַעְךָ כְּחוֹל הַיָּם אֲשֶׁר לֹא יִסְפֵּר מִרְבּוֹ. הֵכָא אִיהוּ מְלָה, דְּתַלְיָא בְּלָבָא, דְּלֹא אֲצַטְרִיךְ לְפִי לְפִי. וְכֵן אֲצַטְרִיךְ כְּדָקָא מִן, בְּגִין לִיחְדָּא יַחְדָּא שְׁלִים, כְּדָקָא יָאוּת. זְכָאִין אִינּוּן צְדִיקָא, דִּידְעִי לְסִדְרָא שְׂבַחָא דְּמֵאֲרִיהוֹן כְּדָקָא יָאוּת. וְלִמְבַעֵי בְּעוֹתְהוֹן, וּבְגִין כֵּן כְּתִיב, וַיֹּאמֶר לִי עֲבָדִי אֶתְּהָא יִשְׂרָאֵל אֲשֶׁר בְּךָ אֶתְפָּאֵר.

4. "And Ya'akov was left alone"

Rabbi Chiya leads a discussion on the evil spirits that gain influence as a result of the diminution of the moon. These spirits assail people when they are sleeping--since this is a time when the soul leaves the body--and cause people to defile themselves. Thus, we learn, it is incumbent on man to purify himself and follow the paths of the Torah.

The rabbis also warn us not to travel a lonely road by ourselves or to go out at night when there are no people about, especially without the light of the moon. At these times, evil spirits--those with whom Bila'am was associated--are at large.

The Relevance of this Passage

Discord and turmoil in our lives can be traced to negative influences and evil forces that dwell in our midst. Our negative behavior creates openings for destructive entities, but the Light of this passage seals these openings shut. Moreover, the spiritual energy purifies our soul, raises our consciousness, and inspires us to eliminate self-destructive impulses that create the cracks and crevices through which dark forces enter our lives.

75. "And Ya'akov was left alone" (Beresheet 32:25). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "No evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling" (Tehilim 91:10). Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He performed in each day the work appropriate for that day, as has been explained. It has been said that on the fourth day He created the lights, but the moon was created lacking, because it is a light that diminishes itself. For that reason, the word "lights" is spelled without the letter Vav, which leaves room for the spirits, demons, storm winds, devils, and all the Spirits of Defilement to exercise sway.

75. וַיִּתֵּר יַעֲקֹב לְבִדּוֹ וְגו'. רַבִּי חִיָּיא פִּתַּח וְאָמַר לֹא תֵאָנְהָ אֵלֶיךָ רָעָה וְנֹגַע לֹא יִקְרַב בְּאַהֲלֶךָ, תָּא חֲזִי, כְּדִ בְּרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עֲלֵמָא, עֲבַד בְּכָל יוֹמָא וַיּוֹמַא עֲבִידְתִּיהָ דְּאַתְחִזִּי לִיהָ, וְהָא אוֹקְמוּהָ. וְאַתְמַר, בְּיוֹמָא רְבִיעָא עֲבַד נְהוּרִין, וְכִדִּין אֲתַבְּרִי סִיְהָרָא חֶסֶר, נְהוּרָא דְּאַזְעִירַת גְּרָמָה, וּבְגִין דְּאִיהוּ מְאֲרַת חֶסֶר וְא"ו, אֲתִיְהִיב דּוּכְתָא, לְשִׁלְטָאָה כָּל רוּחִין וְשִׁרְיָן, וְעַלְעוּלִין וּמְזִיקִין וְכָל רוּחֵי מְסֻאָבִי.

76. They all come to hover about the world and seduce MEN. They occupy deserted places, infertile fields NOT FIT FOR SOWING, and wasted deserts. They are all from the Side of Defilement. We have learned that the Spirit of Defilement comes from the corrupt serpent, WHICH IS LILIT. It is a very spirit of uncleanness that is appointed in the world to seduce people to it to him. Thus, the Evil Inclination gains mastery over the world.

77. It is appointed over people and dwells among them. It uses witchcraft and stealth to turn them from the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, just as it seduced Adam and brought death to the world. So does it seduce men and cause them to be defiled.

78. Whoever wishes to be defiled draws upon himself that Spirit of Defilement and cleaves to it. Numerous SPIRITS OF DEFILEMENT await to defile him and make him unclean. They corrupt him in this world and in the world to come, as has already been explained.

79. When a man strives to be purified, however, the Spirit of Defilement is subdued and loses its sway over him. Then, it is written: "No evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling." Rabbi Yosi said: "No evil shall befall you," refers to Lilit and, "nor shall any plague come near your dwelling," refers to the other harmful demons. This has already been explained.

80. Rabbi Elazar said: Man has been warned not to venture out alone at night, especially when the moon was created lacking, AND DOES NOT FULLY SHINE. It has been explained that the Spirit of Defilement, an evil spirit, governs at that time. HE ASKS: Who is this evil spirit? HE ANSWERS: It is the evil serpent, and "the plague" is the rider of the serpent, SAMAEL. THUS, evil and plague are as one.

81. And yet we have learned that plague also refers to the plagues of those born to Adam. For all those years when Adam did not approach his wife, spirits of Defilement would come, conceive from him, and bear him offsprings called the 'plagues of the sons of men'.

76. בָּלְהוּ סִלְקִין וְשֹׁטִין בְּעֵלְמָא לְאַסְטָאָה, וְאַתְמָנוּן בְּדוּכְתֵי דְאַתְחַרְיָבוּ, וּבְחַקְלִין תְּקִימִין, וּבְמַדְבְּרִין חַרְיָבִין. וּכְלָהוּ מְסֹטְרֵי רוּחַ מְסֹאֲבָא. וְהָא אֲתָמֵר, דְּהָא רוּחַ מְסֹאֲבָא דְאַתֵּיא מִנְחָשׁ עֵקִימָאָה, אִיהוּ רוּחַ מְסֹאֲבָא מִמֶּשׁ. וְאִיהוּ אֲתָמְנָא בְּעֵלְמָא, לְאַסְטָאָה בְּרֵשׁ נֶשׁ לְגַבְיָהּ, וְעַל דָּא יִצַּר הָרַע שְׁלִיט בְּעֵלְמָא.

81. וְאַף עַל גַּב דְתַנִּינֵן, דְנִגַע אֲלֵיךְ נִגְעֵי בְנֵי אָדָם, דְנִפְקוּ מֵאָדָם, דְּהָא כָּל אֵינֹון שְׁנִין, דְּלֹא קְרִיב אָדָם עִם אֲתַתִּיָהּ, רַחוּי מְסֹאֲבֵי הוּוּ קָא אֲתִינֵן, וּמִתְחַמְמֵן מְנִיָה, וְאוֹלִידֵן מְנִיָה, וְהֵי אֶקְרוּן נִגְעֵי בְנֵי אָדָם.

82. We learned that when man dreams, he has no control over his body; the body is silent, and the Spirit of Defilement comes to rest on him. Sometimes, impure female spirits come and draw him to them. Then they conceive from him and bear spirits and demons, who sometimes look like men but without hair on their heads.

83. A man should protect himself from them with all his might. He should walk the paths of the Torah to avoid being defiled by them. For there is no one who sleeps in his bed at night who does not taste death. His soul leaves him, and when the body is left without the sacred soul, the Spirit of Defilement comes and hovers about him, and he becomes unclean. Thus, a man should not pass his hands over his eyes in the morning, because the Spirit of Defilement dwells on them.

84. Come and behold: though he was beloved by the Holy One, blessed be He, NEVERTHELESS since he, Ya'akov, was alone, another spirit came to join him.

85. Rabbi Shimon said: Come and behold. It is written about the wicked Bila'am, "and he went shefi ('to a steep place')" (Bemidbar 23:3). What does shefi mean? It means 'alone', as in the verse, "an adder (Heb. shefifon) in the path" (Bereshheet 49:17). THAT IS, Bila'am walks alone as does a snake that lurks in byways and paths. What is the purpose of this? To draw upon himself the Spirit of Defilement, for he who walks alone at certain times, even in town, in certain places, draws upon himself the Defiled Spirit.

86. Thus, a man should walk alone on the road and in the city only where other people are about. And a man should not walk alone at night, because no other people are present. For the same reason, "... his body shall not remain all night upon the tree." The spiritless corpse should not be left during the night. This is why the wicked Bila'am was walking along like a snake.

5. "And there wrestled a man with him"
Rabbi Shimon explains the difference between dust and earth. Dust is barren and less important than the earth, from which arises all the goodness of the world. When Rabbi Yehuda questions him about the meaning of the verse, "He raises the poor out of the dust..." Rabbi Shimon explains that dust also signifies humility, and the moon, when she is not united with Zeir Anpin. He then applies this metaphor to the children of Israel, who are ruled by dust in Exile. This dust resembles night. When light appears and shines, however, the children of Israel shall obtain power and the Kingdom of Glory.

The Relevance of this Passage

Without the Light of The Creator, man remains dark, barren, and as spiritually worthless as dust on the ground--because, like the moon, man has no Light of his own. Just as the moon derives its light from the sun, we receive our Light and spiritual sustenance from the realm of Zeir Anpin [the Upper Worlds]. When imbued with this Light, we receive divine fruits of goodness through our marriage partners, our children, and all of life's endeavors.

87. "And there wrestled a man with him." HE ASKS: What does "wrestled (Heb. yeavek)" mean? Rabbi Shimon replied: HE CAME TO HIM from the dust (Heb. avak), AS SHALL BE EXPLAINED. Dust is of lesser importance than earth. HE ASKS: What is the difference between dust and earth? HE ANSWERS: Dust is the residue of fire, THAT IS, WHAT IS LEFT FROM A FIRE IS CALLED 'DUST'. It never produces fruits. From earth, however, all fruits grow, as it comprises everything above and below.

88. Rabbi Yehuda said: If this is so, AND EARTH IS OF SUCH CONSEQUENCE, then what is THE MEANING OF THE VERSE, "He raises the poor out of the dust (lit. 'earth')" (I Shmuel 2:8)? He replied: Literally, IT MEANS HUMILITY. In such a way He raises the poor out of the earth--because THE NUKVA, CALLED 'EARTH', has nothing of her own, BUT RECEIVES EVERYTHING FROM ZEIR ANPIN. Then out of the earth, WHICH POSSESSES NOTHING AS LONG AS IT IS NOT UNITED WITH ZEIR ANPIN, come the poor, who possess nothing. But out of earth, AT THE TIME OF UNION WITH ZEIR ANPIN, come all the fruits and goodness of the world. All that is done in the world is made from the earth, as it is written: "all are of the earth, and all return to earth" (Kohelet 3:20). We have learned that all is of the earth, even the wheel of the sun, but dust never produces fruits and plants. Therefore, "there wrestled a man," SAMAEEL, who came out of the dust, HIS NUKVA, and rides upon it to accuse Ya'akov.

89. "...until the breaking of the day..." is the time when his power goes away and disappears, as will occur in the future. For the exile resembles the night; NAMELY, IT IS DARK, a time when the dust rules over Yisrael, and the people are thrown to the earth until light appears and daylight shines. Then Yisrael will have power and will be given the Kingdom, for they will be high saints, as it is written: "And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him" (Daniel 7:27).

6. "Let me go, for the day breaks"

Rabbi Yehuda begins this discussion by quoting the verse, "who is she that looks out like the dawn..." to describe the process of raising the children of Israel out of Exile. This redemption, we're told, shall be accomplished gradually, as an illumination that increases measure by measure. This is matched by a decrease in the illumination and strength of Esav, until Esav is completely destroyed. After the children of Israel are raised from Exile, they will wonder with sorrow at all they endured, just as at daybreak, Ya'akov was filled with pain and sorrow for what he suffered in his struggle with Esav.

The Relevance of this Passage

Spiritual development arouses goodness and Light in our lives, but not through the pursuit of fulfillment or the search for happiness. Rather, it is achieved through the work of confronting our internal demons and negative traits. These dark forces are like a curtain dimming and blocking the Light. As the negative forces are diminished and the curtain gradually opens, the Light of Creation illuminates our lives. This process is hastened by these verses.

87. וַיֵּאבֶק אִישׁ עִמוֹ, מֵאִי וַיֵּאבֶק. רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן אָמַר, מִן אָבֶק. אָבֶק טַפַּל לְעַפְרָה, מֵהַ בֵּין עַפְרָה לְאָבֶק. הָאָבֶק דְּאַשְׁתָּאֵר מִן נוֹרָא, וְלֹא עֵבֶד אִיבִין לְעֵלְמִין. עַפְרָה: דְּכָל אִיבִין נִפְקֵי מִנֶּיהָ, וְאִיהוּ כְּלָלָא, בְּעֵילָא וְתַתָּא.

90. "And he said: 'Let me go, for the day breaks'. And he said: 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me'" (Bereshheet 32:27). Rabbi Yehuda quoted the verse: "Who is she that looks out like the dawn, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?" (Shir Hashirim 6:10). Although this verse has been taught, "Who is she that looks," refers to Yisrael, at the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, will raise them and bring them out of exile. He will first open a tiny, very thin aperture of light for them. Then HE WILL OPEN FOR THEM a slightly larger opening, until the Holy One, blessed be He, opens wide the supernal gates of the four directions of the world.

91. Everything that the Holy One, blessed be He, does to the children of Yisrael and the righteous among them is done in this way, TO ACHIEVE REDEMPTION LITTLE BY LITTLE instead of all at once. THIS IS SIMILAR TO a person who always dwells in the dark. To give him light, first we should shine upon him a small light, thin as a needle, and then a slightly stronger one, and so on until full light shines upon him.

92. This is true for Yisrael, as it is written, "Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you be increased" (Shemot 23:30). It is also true for a man who is recuperating. He does recover all at once, but becomes well little by little. This is not so for Esav, for he received illumination at one time, and it was lost to him little by little, and will continue until Yisrael become stronger and wipe him from this world and the world to come. Because AT FIRST, light shone on him instantly, he was completely destroyed. However, the light of Yisrael shines brighter, little by little, until they are strong. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, will shine on them forever.

93. Everyone asked about them, as it is written: "Who is she that looks out like the dawn?" THE DAWN (HEB. SHACHAR, FROM SHACHOR, MEANING 'BLACK') refers to the early morning, NAMELY, TO THE DARKNESS THAT GROWS STRONGER BEFORE MORNING LIGHT. It is the thinnest light MENTIONED. Then, "fair as the moon," because the light of the moon is stronger than that of dawn. Then, she is "clear as the sun," whose light is stronger even than that of the moon. And finally, she is as "terrible as an army with banners," WHICH MEANS that her light has reached full strength.

90. וַיֹּאמֶר שְׁלַחְנִי בִּי עֲלֵה הַשָּׁחַר וַיֹּאמֶר לֹא אֶשְׁלַחְךָ בִּי אִם בְּרַכְתָּנִי. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה פָּתַח וַאֲמַר, מִי זֹאת הַנְּשֻׁקָפָה כְּמוֹ שָׁחַר יִפָּה כְּלַבְנָה בְּרַחֲמֵי אֵימָה בְּנִדְגָלוֹת. הָאִי קָרָא אוֹקְמוּהָ וַאֲתַמְרָא, אָבֵל מִי זֹאת הַנְּשֻׁקָפָה, אֵלֶיךָ אֵינֻן יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּזִמְנָא דְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּאִיזְקִים לֹון, וַיִּפִּיק מִן גְּלוּתָא, בְּדִין יִפְתַּח לֹון פְּתַחא דְנְהוּרָא, דְקִיק זְעִיר, וּלְבַתֵּר פְּתַחא אַחְרֵינָא, דְאִיהוּ רַב מִינֵיהּ, עַד דְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא יִפְתַּח לֹון תְּרַעִין עֲלָאִין, פְּתִיחִין לְאַרְבַּע רַחֲוֵי עֲלֵמָא.

94. Come and behold: in the early morning, it is dark and the light is concealed. Then, the morning begins to light up. It shines little by little until the light reaches its full strength. Similarly, the Holy One, blessed be He, will shine on the Congregation of Yisrael. First He will shine like the dawn, which is black, then "fair as the moon," and later, "clear as the sun." Eventually He will shine "terrible as an army with banners."

95. Come and behold: IT IS LITERALLY WRITTEN that "dawn has gone up," rather than 'day breaks'. This is because when dawn comes, the minister OF ESAV grows stronger and attacks Ya'akov. This act enables Esav to recover and grow stronger.

96. But as the darkness of dawn emerges, the light comes and Ya'akov becomes stronger, for it is his time to shine, as it is written: "And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he limped upon his thigh" (Beresheet 32:32). Thus, "the sun rose upon him," because it was the time to shine.

97. The verse, "and he limped upon his thigh," alludes to the fact that as long as Yisrael are in exile, they suffer pain, sorrow, and evil mishaps. However, as soon as day breaks after they have rested, they will look back with sorrow in their hearts on all the afflictions and pain they have suffered, and they will wonder about them. Therefore THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "the sun rose upon him," NAMELY, THE SUN of the time of rest, when "he limped upon his thigh," WHICH MEANS THAT he was filled with pain and sorrow for what he had suffered.

98. When dawn rose, YA'AKOV grew stronger and seized him, for the strength OF THE ANGEL failed, since he is only powerful at night, while Ya'akov rules during the day. Therefore it is written, "And he said, 'Let me go, for the day breaks'," and I am in your hands. This we have already learned.

94. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּעוֹד דְּאִתְחַשְׁךְ יַמְמָא, וְאִתְבְּסִיא נְהוּרָא, וְאִתִּי צַפְרָא, יִתְנַהֵר בְּקִדְמֵיתָא זְעִיר זְעִיר, עַד דִּי תִרְבִּי נְהוּרָא בְּדָקָא יֵאוּת, דְּהָא בֵּינּוּ דְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא יִתְעַר לְאַנְהָרָא לֵה לְכַנְסֵת יִשְׂרָאֵל, יִתְנַהֵר בְּקִדְמֵיתָא כְּמוֹ שְׁחַר, דְּאִיהִי אוּכְמָא, וּלְבַתֵּר יִפְהַ כְּלַבְנָה, וּלְבַתֵּר בְּרַה כְּחָמָה. וּלְבַתֵּר אֵימָה כְּנִדְגָלוֹת, כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר.

7. The sinew of the vein

Rabbi Chiya opens a discussion on the significance of the sinew of Ya'akov's thigh, which we can now identify as the sciatic nerve. Had the sinew not failed Ya'akov on the night he struggled with Esav's minister, Ya'akov would have prevailed over Esav's power completely, both on high and here below. Rabbi Shimon then explains that because the energy of Ya'akov's thigh was broken; the strength of the upholders of the Torah was diminished. As a result, none of the prophets, except Moses, were able to retain their faculties unimpaired when receiving divine messages. Thus, it is incumbent on the children of Israel to preserve the sinew of the thigh vein. The dark side controls the sciatic nerve in all creatures, including cows, so that none may be defiled by eating or benefiting from it in other ways. In addition, we learn, the children of Israel are responsible for preserving the power of the Torah by supporting those who toil in it.

The Relevance of this Passage

The sciatic nerve affects the lower back and extends down through the thigh, which supports and upholds the body. The thigh corresponds to the students of a righteous sage who support their master, or to benefactors who financially assist those who engage in Torah study and the revelation of spiritual Light. When the dark side seeks to penetrate an individual, it will often attack supporting elements that are not as strong as the person himself. The Evil Inclination will strike first at our vulnerabilities and weaknesses. These verses fortify our defenses. In addition, we arouse great spiritual Light to strengthen those who support the righteous in their endeavor to reveal the Light of the Torah to all the world.

99. "Therefore the children of Yisrael eat not of the sinew of the vein... because he touched the hollow of Ya'akov's thigh in the sinew of the vein." It is forbidden to enjoy it or even to give it to a dog. HE ASKS: Why is it called the 'sinew of the vein' (Heb. nashe)? HE ANSWERS: The sinew SEDUCES (Heb. menasheh) men from serving their Master. There lies the Evil Inclination.

100. When the angel wrestled with Ya'akov, he could not find a weak place in his body through which to overcome Ya'akov, because the parts of his body were all strong and without weakness--AND THE KLIPAH TAKES HOLD ONLY IN A PLACE OF WANT AND WEAKNESS. What did he do then? "...he touched the hollow of his thigh," the sinew of the vein, his own kind, that is, the Evil Inclination which is his own kind. And there is the place OF THE EVIL INCLINATION, from where it comes to harm people.

101. For that reason the Torah reads, "Therefore the children of Yisrael eat not of the sinew of the vein." The friends said that a man's body parts allude to higher places. IF THE MEMBER is good, IT DRAWS goodness; if it be evil, IT DRAWS evil. Thus, each ANIMAL member WE EAT strengthens the CORRESPONDING member OF THE MAN WHO EATS IT. Assuredly, the sinew of the vein strengthens the Evil Inclination, which is its own kind, and therefore the children of Yisrael do not eat it. But the heathen nations may eat it, as they are of the side and kind of their angel Samael, for it strengthens their hearts.

102. Man has 248 members in his body corresponding to the 248 positive commandments in the Torah and to the 248 angels, with whom the Shechinah is clothed, named after their Master.

103. There are 365 sinews, corresponding to 365 prohibitory precepts, AND THE SINEW OF THE VEIN IS ONE OF THEM. They correspond to the 365 days of the year, THAT IS, TOGETHER WITH THE TEN PENITENTIARY DAYS, the ninth of Av being one of them. It corresponds to THE ANGEL Samael, who is one of the 365 angels RULING OVER THE 365 DAYS OF THE YEAR. THE NINTH OF AV IS ONE OF THE DAYS OF THE YEAR, AND THE SINEW OF THE VEIN IS ONE OF THE 365 SINEWS. BOTH BELONG TO THE SAME CATEGORY. Thus, the Torah reads, "Therefore the children of Yisrael eat not of the sinew of the vein." The particle "Et" ('the') here includes the ninth of Av, when it is forbidden to eat and drink, BEING IN THE SAME CATEGORY AS THE SINEW OF THE VEIN.

99. על בן לא יאכלו בני ישראל את גיד הנשה וגו', כי נגע בכף ירך יעקב בגיד הנשה, האפילו בהנאה אסור, ואפילו ליהביה לכלבא. ואמאי אקרי גיד הנשה. כלומר, גיד דאיהו מנשה לבני נשא, מפולחנא דמאריהון, ותמן הוא יצר הרע רביע.

101. ובגין כך אמרה אורייתא לא יאכלו בני ישראל את גיד הנשה. כמה דאמרו חברייא, בשויפין דבר נש, דרמיז לעילא, אי טב טב, ואי ביש ביש, ובגין כך, כל שויפא מתקיף שויפא, ודאי גיד הנשה מתקיף ליצר הרע, דהוא זיניה, ובני ישראל לא יאכלו ליה, דלאו אינון מסטריה ומזיניה, אבל עמין עע"ז, יאכלו ליה, דאיהו מסטרא ומזינא דמלאכא דלהון, דאיהו סמא"ל, בגין לתקפא לבהון.

102. בגין דאית בבר נש, רמ"ח שויפין, לקבל רמ"ח פקודין דאורייתא, דאינון למעבר אתיהבו, ולקבל רמ"ח מלאכין, דאתלבשת בהון שכינתא, ושמא דלהון כשמא דמאריהון.

103. ואית בבר נש שס"ה גידין, ולקבלהון שס"ה פקודין, דלאו אינון, אתיהיבו למעבר, ולקבל שס"ה יומי שתא, והא תשעה באב חד מנהון, דאיהו לקבל סמא"ל, דאיהו חד מאינון שס"ה מלאכין, ובג"כ אמרה אורייתא, לא יאכלו בני ישראל את גיד הנשה, א"ת לאסגאה תשעה באב, דלא אכלין ביה, ולא שתין.

104. The Holy One, blessed be He, saw it all, and there is a hint to Ya'akov IN THE VERSE: "And there wrestled a man with him," all the days of the year and with all of Ya'akov's members, but found NO PLACE TO HOLD ON TO but the sinew of the vein. Immediately, Ya'akov's strength diminished. Among the day of the year, he found the Ninth of Av, when SAMAEL was stronger, and we were sentenced, and the Temple destroyed. He who eats on the ninth of Av, eats as if of the sinew of the vein. Rabbi Chiya says: Had the strength of Ya'akov's THIGH not weakened, Ya'akov would have prevailed, and Esav's power would have been broken above and below.

105. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion with the verse: "As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Hashem, And when I saw it, I fell upon my face" (Yechezkel 1:28). We have already studied this verse, yet come and behold: it is written, "And there arose not a prophet since in Yisrael like Moshe" (Devarim 34:10). HE ASKS: What is the difference between Moshe and the other prophets? HE ANSWERS: Moshe looked into a clear mirror, ZEIR ANPIN; the other prophets beheld only a clouded mirror, THE NUKVA. Moshe heard the prophecy standing, and his power was strengthened. He understood the matter thoroughly, as it is written: "manifestly, and not in dark speeches" (Bemidbar 12:8). The other prophets fell upon their faces AT THE TIME OF PROPHECY, and became weak because they could not understand it clearly. This was because "he touched the hollow of Ya'akov's thigh," "and he limped upon his thigh."

106. No prophet knew what the Holy One, blessed be He, was destined to do to Esav, except the prophet Ovadyah, who was a proselyte from the side of Esav. He understood clearly what pertained to Esav, yet his strength did not diminish, AS RECORDED IN THE BOOK OF OVADYAH.

107. This is why the other prophets were weakened and could not perceive and grasp the prophecy as they ought. The reason is that "he touched the hollow of Ya'akov's thigh in the sinew of the vein." He drew and sucked away the power of the thigh. The power of the thigh broke, leaving him limping on his thigh and all the prophets in the world limited in their conception and understanding. Come and behold: all the prophets except Moshe did not understand things clearly.

108. There is no one to support the students of the Torah, to give them MONEY for their needs in their pockets and thereby strengthen them. The Torah is forgotten with every generation and its power is daily diminished because the students of the Torah have no support. THE SECRET OF, "HE LIMPED UPON HIS THIGH," IS THAT NO ONE GIVES SUPPORT AND STRENGTH FOR THE STUDENTS OF THE TORAH, AND THEY ARE UNABLE TO CONTINUE TO STUDY IT. THEREFORE, the evil kingdom grows stronger every day. Behold what this sin causes when no one supports the Torah, ZEIR ANPIN, properly. The supports OF ZEIR ANPIN are weakened--THAT IS, NETZACH AND HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'SUPPORTS'--and as a result, he who has no legs or thighs, on which to stand THE PRIMORDIAL SERPENT, is thereby strengthened.

109. He began the discussion with the verse: "And Hashem Elohim said to the serpent, because you have done this, you are cursed above all cattle...upon your belly shall you go" (Bereshheet 3:14). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "upon your belly shall you go"? HE ANSWERS: Its supports were broken. Its legs were cut off and it had nothing to stand on. Thus, when the children of Yisrael do not support the Torah, THAT IS, PROVIDE FOR THOSE WHO ARE OCCUPIED IN ITS STUDY, they strengthen THE SERPENT by giving it legs on which to stand. FOR THE OTHER SIDE IS BUILT ON LACKIN HOLINESS.

110. Come and behold: how much deceit and crookedness did that rider of the serpent, SAMAEI, employ against Ya'akov that night. He knew well the verse, "The voice is Ya'akov's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esav" (Bereshheet 27:22), WHICH MEANS THAT if the voice of Ya'akov, THE VOICE OF THE TORAH, is interrupted, POWER IS TRANSFERRED TO the hands of Esav. He therefore searched on every side to harm Ya'akov and stop the voice OF HIS TORAH.

111. He found him strong IN EVERY RESPECT; HE SAW THAT his arms on this and that side, CHESED AND GVURAH CALLED 'AVRAHAM' AND 'YITZCHAK', are strong; HE SAW the body, THE SECRET OF YA'AKOV, WHO CONNECTS THE TWO ARMS, strengthened between them. He saw the power of his Torah strong IN EVERY RESPECT and was afraid lest he would not prevail against him. What did he do? At once, "he touched the hollow of his thigh," THE SUPPORTS OF THE TORAH. He employed cunning against him, saying: Now that the supports of the Torah are broken, the Torah can no longer be strong, and their father's words shall be fulfilled: "The voice is Ya'akov's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esav," and, "and it shall come to pass when you shall have the dominance, that you shall break his yoke from off your neck" (Bereshheet 27:40).

112. He acted craftily against Ya'akov, for in order to break the power of the Torah, Esav grew stronger. When he saw he could not hurt the Torah, he weakened those who supported ITS STUDENTS. For when there is no support to be found for THE STUDENTS OF the Torah, there will be none of "Ya'akov's voice, but the hands" will be "the hands of Esav."

113. When Ya'akov saw this, he struck and overpowered him at dawn, until he blessed him and confirmed to him the blessings, saying: "Your name shall be called no more Ya'akov, but Yisrael" (Beresheet 32:29). THIS MEANS: YOUR NAME IS NO LONGER Ya'akov, which indicates deceit--AS IT IS WRITTEN, "FOR HE HAS SUPPLANTED (HEB. YA'AKVENI) ME THESE TWO TIMES" (BERESHEET 27:36)--BUT YISRAEL, WHICH MEANS with pride and might, for no one can prevail against you. FOR THE NAME YISRAEL INDICATES PRIDE AND AUTHORITY, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "FOR YOU HAVE CONTENDED (HEB. SARITA) WITH ELOHIM AND WITH MEN, AND HAVE PREVAILED."

114. Come and behold: the serpent releases many armies to all sides. They abide in the world among men. It is incumbent upon us, then, to maintain the sinew of the vein, because although the rider of the serpent, SAMAEL, approached it, it has not lost its color and is still intact.

115. It behooves us to increase the power OF HOLINESS in the world and to show that "you have contended with Elohim and with men, and have prevailed." When he sees that THE SINEW OF THE VEIN is intact, AS LIGHT IS DRAWN ON IT TO PRESERVE IT, and the place is not consumed, THAT IS, IF PEOPLE REFRAIN FROM EATING IT, then the power and vigor OF SAMAEL is broken, and he is unable to harm the children of Ya'akov. Thus, the inhabitants of the world can not eat the sinew of the vein and enjoy it.

116. Rabbi Yesa Saba explained that the verse, "touched the hollow of Ya'akov's thigh," is similar to the verse, "Whoever touches the dead body of any man that has died" (Bemidbar 19:13). Both refer to impurity, because SAMAEL has defiled that place, THE SINEW OF THE VEIN, and no enjoyment may be derived from an unholy place, particularly if the Side of Defilement, SAMAEL, has touched the place. The Torah does not add more than, "for he touched," as in, "he touched the hollow of his thigh," which is similar to, "And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean" (Ibid. 22). HENCE, WE LEARN THAT SAMAEL DEFILED THIS PLACE BY TOUCHING IT. Blessed be the Merciful One who gave the Torah to Yisrael, to merit this world and the world to come, as it is written, "Length of days in her right hand; and in her left hand are riches and honor" (Mishlei 3:16).

113. וְכַד חָמָא יַעֲקֹב הָכִי, בְּד סְלִיק צַפְרָא, אֶתְקִיף בֵּיה, וְאֶתְגַּבַּר עָלֶיהָ, עַד דְּאִיהוּ בְּרִיךְ לֵיה, וְאוּדִי לֵיה עַל אֵינוֹן בְּרַכְאָן, וְאָמַר לֵיה, לֹא יַעֲקֹב יֹאמַר עוֹד שְׂמִיךְ בִּי אִם יִשְׂרָאֵל, לֹאֹו יַעֲקֹב בְּעֻקְמוֹ, אֶלֹא בְּגִאוּתָא וְתוֹקְפָא, דְּלִית מֵאֵן דִּיכִיל לָךְ.

8. "...and bowed to the ground"

Rabbi Elazar asks a question regarding the title verse and its implication that Ya'akov bowed to Esav, who was of the side of another god, This leads to a reinterpretation of the verse, revealing that Ya'akov actually offered praise to God when kneeling before Esav. Similarly, the blessed greeting that King David sent Naval, a sorcerer spoken of in the books of the Prophets, is also often misconstrued. This blessing was not addressed to Naval, as Naval thought, but rather to God. Through the Light of the Zohar, we learn that both Ya'akov and David were righteous, and all their deeds were for the glory of their Creator.

The Relevance of this Passage

A literal reading of Biblical scripture completely falsifies the spiritual truth and inner meaning of the stories. Thus, we must refrain from passing judgment in life until we discern the true meaning that is always concealed beneath the surface. The wisdom and discretion to restrain judgment are imbued into our awareness. We also receive the will power to direct our own consciousness towards The Creator when temptations and dark forces confront us in life.

117. "And he passed before them, and bowed to the ground seven times." Rabbi Elazar quoted the verse: "for you shall worship no other El: for Hashem, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous El" (Shemot 34:14). HE ASKS: How could Ya'akov, the greatest of the patriarchs, the one chosen to be the perfect portion of the Holy One, blessed be He, and the one very close to Him, bow before this evil Esav, who stands on the side of another El? For bowing to him is the same as bowing to another El! You may find the answer by referring to the saying that when the fox is in the ascendent, bow to him. THERE IS A PARABLE DESCRIBING A TIME WHEN THE FOX REIGNS OVER THE ANIMALS. ALTHOUGH THE FOX IS THE SMALLEST OF THE BEASTS, EVERYONE BOWS BEFORE IT. AND HERE TOO YOU MIGHT SAY THAT YA'AKOV BOWED TO ESAV BECAUSE THE HOUR WAS FAVORABLE FOR HIM. This, however, is not so, for Esav is considered as another El, and Ya'akov would never bow to that side and portion.

118. HE ANSWERS: It is written, "and thus shall you say to him: A hearty greeting (lit. 'to the living One')! Peace be both to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have" (I Shmuel 25:6). HE ASKS: If it is forbidden to give the first greeting to wicked people, why did David said this to THE WICKED Naval? HE SAID: He said this to the Holy One, blessed be He, in order to connect Naval with the Living One, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. THUS THE VERSE, "TO THE LIVING ONE," WAS ADDRESSED TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, AND NOT TO NAVAL, although Naval thought it was addressed to him.

119. Similarly, "Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head" (Bereshheet 47:31). HE ASKS: Did he bow to his son? No, he bowed to the place where the Shechinah rested; SHE WAS AT THE HEAD OF THE BED, FOR THE SHECHINAH IS FOUND NEAR THE HEAD OF THE ILL. Here, too, "HE passed over before them," which means that the supernal Shechinah went before him. This is the supernal guardian, who kept him. When Ya'akov saw Her walking in front of him, he said, "it is time to bow before the Holy One, blessed be He," who went before him.

120. He knelt and bowed seven times, "until he came near to his brother." It is not written, 'He bowed himself before Esav', but when he saw the Holy One, blessed be He, walking in front of him, he bowed before Him. This indicated that he was not paying respect or worshipping someone else. All was done appropriately. Happy are the righteous, whose every deed is for the glory of their Master, so as not to deviate right or left FROM THE STRAIGHT AND MIDDLE PATH.

117. והוא עבר לפניהם וישתחו ארצה שבע פעמים עד גשתו עד אחיו. ר' אלעזר פתח ואמר כי לא תשתחוה לאל אחר כי ה' קנא שמו. וכי יעקב דאיהו שלימא דאבהן, דאתבריר חולקא שלימתא לקודשא בריך הוא, ואיהו אתקריב לגביה יתיר, הין סגיד ליה לההוא רשע דעשו, דאיהו בסטרא דאל אחר, ומאן דסגיד ליה, סגיד לאל אחר. אי תימא, בגין דאמרו תעלא בעדניה סגיד ליה, לאו הכי, דהא עשו כאל אחר הוה, ויעקב לא יסגוד לההוא סטרא, ולההוא חולקא כלל.

9. "...and embraced him, and fell on his neck"

There are many methods by which Scripture conveys obscure allusions. Rabbi Yitzchak offers the example of the title verse in conjunction with "But the wicked are like the troubled sea." This, we learn, contains an indication that the seed of Esav would destroy one of the two Temples. Rabbi Aba then expounds Ya'akov's eventual prevailing over Esav. His success was granted by the world above, without whose permission no power can be exerted in the physical realm.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our egos perpetrate the illusion that we are in full control of our lives, when in reality we are subject to dark forces created by our own self-involved behavior. This deception keeps us ignorant of the Negative Inclination, and of the spiritual tools that can eradicate it. Only the Light of The Creator can enlighten and strengthen us in the struggle to overthrow our dark side. Alone, we remain convinced that we are captains of our fate, until chaos strikes and leaves us stunned, vulnerable, and broken. The Light of this passage internalizes these spiritual truths, deepening our connection to the mystical power of the Zohar, and drawing Divine assistance from worlds on high.

121. "And Esav ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck" (lit. 'necks') (Beresheet 33:4). The word "neck" is written without the letter Yud. It is written, "and kissed him: and they wept." Rabbi Yitzchak said: "But the wicked are like the troubled sea, which cannot be still, and whose waters cast up mire and dirt" (Yeshayah 57:20). This verse has already been explained. How many deep mysteries are there in the words of the Torah! They are different from each other, yet all is one.

122. "But the wicked are like the troubled sea, which cannot be still." This verse refers to Esav, all of whose deeds were sinful and wicked. He was not sincere in his approach to Ya'akov. He fell upon his neck, namely, the one neck--FOR THE LETTER YUD IS MISSING (WHICH IMPLIES THE PLURAL FORM, 'NECKS')--of Jerusalem, which is the neck of the world. THE SCRIPTURE READS, "And fell on his neck," and not, 'on his necks', WITH A YUD, for the Temple was destroyed twice, first by Babylonians and then by the seed of Esav. The result is that Esav besieged and destroyed Jerusalem only once. Therefore it is written, "and fell on his neck," in the singular, WITHOUT A YUD, WHICH MEANS HE DESTROYED IT ONLY ONCE.

123. The word FOR, "and kissed him," is written with dots above THE LETTERS, WHICH INDICATES that he did not kiss him willingly. We learned that the verse, "the kisses of an enemy are importunate," (Mishlei 27:6) refers to Bila'am, who blessed Yisrael unwillingly. Here, too, "the kisses of an enemy are importunate," refers to Esav.

124. Rabbi Yosi said: It is written, "Arise, Hashem; save me, my Elohim: for You have smitten all my enemies upon Your cheek; You have broken the teeth of the wicked" (Tehilim 3:8). We have already learned that "broken" (Heb. shibarta) may be read as 'lengthened' (Heb. shirbavta). THIS WAS SAID OF ESAV, whose teeth were lengthened because he planned to bite him.

125. They therefore wept, the one and the other. Come and behold: Esav was so disposed to harm Ya'akov that even when KISSING HIM, he thought to denounce him and bring evil on him in the future. Therefore, "they wept," the one because he thought he might not be saved from him, and the other because his father was still alive and he could not KILL HIM.

126. Rabbi Aba said: Assuredly Esav's anger was weakened when he saw Ya'akov, because Esav's minister agreed with him, ACCEPTING AND AFFIRMING THE BLESSINGS. Thus, Esav could not vent his anger, because everything in this world depends on the world above, and whatever is agreed upon above is also accepted below. And so there is no government below until power is given from above. Moreover, everything is interdependent, FOR WHATEVER IS DONE IN THIS WORLD DEPENDS ON WHAT IS DONE UP HIGH.

10. "Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant"

Rabbi Elazar explains the title quotation as Ya'akov's wish to save his blessings for future generations in their struggle against the nations of the world. Ya'akov rejected partnership with Esav and accepted subjugation, we are told, knowing that in the world to come, he would rule over the "mount of Esav."

The Relevance of this Passage

Our tendency is to sacrifice tomorrow's rewards for immediate ego gratification. This tendency derives from our Evil Inclination, which seeks to influence us in all our endeavors. When we succumb to urges from this dark side, our Evil Inclination creates a partnership with us, tainting and defiling all our efforts. Impatience is a powerful form of reactive, self-indulgent behavior and usually underlies our decisions to accept this partnership. Patience is divine and it is nurtured in us as we read this section.

127. "Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on slowly" (Bereshheet 33:14). According to Rabbi Elazar, this agrees with what we have already said. Ya'akov did not wish to avail himself at this time of the first blessings his father bestowed on him. Not one had yet been fulfilled, because he was reserving them to the end of days, when his descendants would need TO UTILIZE THEM in the fight against the other nations of the world.

127. יַעֲבֹר נָא אֲדֹנָי לִפְנֵי עַבְדּוֹ וְאֲנִי אֶתְנַהֵלָה לְאִטִּי וְגו'. אָמַר רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר, הֵינְנו דְקַאֲמְרִינָן בְּקַדְמֵיתָא, דִּיעֲקֹב לָא בַעָא הַשְׁתָּא, אֵינּוּן בְּרַכָּאן קַדְמָא דְבְּרַכְיָה אָבוּי, וְעַדִּיין לָא אֶתְקִימוּ בֵּיה אֶפִּילוּ חַד מִנְיָהוּ, בְּגִין דְּסָלִיק לֹון לְסוּף יוֹמָא, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְאֶצְטְרִיכוּ לְבָנוּי, לְגַבִּי כָּל עַמּוּיִן דְּעֵלְמָא.

128. Thus, when Esav said, "Let us take our journey, and let us go" (Bereshheet 33:12), "Let us divide the world between us and rule over it together," YA'AKOV replied, "Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant," MEANING, let Esav be the first to exercise his dominion over the world. "Let my lord...pass" IS AN INDICATION OF PRIORITY, as in: "and their king passes on before them, and Hashem at the head of them" (Michah 2:13). YA'AKOV SAID TO HIM: You can be the first to rule over the world, "and I will lead on slowly," and raise myself for the world to come and for the end of days, the days that pass slowly.

128. וּבְגִין כֵּן, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְאָמַר עֵשׂו, נִסְעָה וְנִלְכָה, וְנִפְלֹוג הָאִי עֵלְמָא בְּחַדָּא, וְנִשְׁלוּט בְּחַדָּא. מַה אָמַר, יַעֲבֹר נָא אֲדֹנָי לִפְנֵי עַבְדּוֹ, יְקָדִים עֵשׂו שְׁלֹטְנֵיה הַשְׁתָּא בְּהָאֵי עֵלְמָא. יַעֲבֹר נָא, כַּד"א וַיַּעֲבֹר מֶלֶכְם לִפְנֵיהֶם וְה' בְּרֹאשׁם, אֶקְדִים אֹנֶת שׁוֹלְטְנוֹתֶיךָ בְּקַדְמֵיתָא בְּהָאֵי עֵלְמָא, וְאֲנִי אֶתְנַהֵלָה לְאִטִּי, אֲנָא אֶסְלַק גְּרַמִּי, לְהָהוּא עֵלְמָא דְאֵתִי, וְלְסוּף יוֹמָא, לְאֵינּוּן יוֹמָא דְאֶזְלִין לְאִט.

129. "According to the pace of the cattle (also: 'work')." HE ASKS: What is meant by the work? HE ANSWERS: It is the dim mirror, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, through which all work in the world is done. "...that goes before me..." REFERS TO THE NUKVA, always means before Hashem, ZEIR ANPIN; "according to the pace of the children" alludes to the secret of the Cherubs, to point at the secret of the faith, THE NUKVA, to whom Ya'akov cleaved.

129. לְרַגְל הַמְּלָאכָה, מֵאֵן מְלָאכָה. דָּא אֶסְפַּקְלָרִיא דְלָא נְהָרָא, דִּבְהָ אֶתְעַבִּיד עֲבִידְתָּא דְעֵלְמָא. אֲשֶׁר לִפְנֵי, דָּא הִיא מִן קָדָם ה', בְּכָל אֶתְר. וְלְרַגְל הַיְלָדִים, דָּא הוּא רִזָּא דְכְרוּבִים, לְאַחֲזָא רִזָּא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא, דְאִיהוּ אֶתְדַבֵּק בְּהוּ.

130. "Until I come to my lord, to Se'ir..." YA'AKOV SAID TO HIM: I shall suffer your exile and subjugation until my time to rule over the mount of Esav is come. As it is written: "And liberators shall ascend upon Mount Tzion to judge the mountain of Esav; and the kingdom shall be Hashem's" (Ovadyah 1:21).

130. עַד אֲשֶׁר אָבָא אֶל אֲדֹנָי שְׁעִירָה, אֲנָא אֶסְבּוּל גְּלוּתָא דִּילָךְ, עַד דְּיִיתִי וַיִּמְטִי זְמַנָּא דִּילִי, לְשִׁלְטָאָה עַל הַר עֵשׂו, כַּד"א וְעָלוּ מוֹשִׁיעִים בְּהַר צִיּוֹן לְשַׁפֵּט אֶת הַר עֵשׂו, וּכְדִין וְהִיְתָה לְה' הַמְּלוּכָה.

11. "...and built him a house"

Rabbi Chiya leads a discussion on God's creation of the House of the World. This highly metaphorical discourse describes the process of creation. From the midst of the House, we're told, a tree, visible only by day, reaches up into heaven and the House is watered by this tree. When night falls and the doors of the House are closed, a flame erupts out of the darkness. While a myriad on either side chant praises and hymns, a herald ascends to make proclamations. Then Zeir Anpin [The dimension of Light in the Upper World] enters and the House is lit by six lights of Mercy, from which flow the rivers that water all the animals of the field. God builds and perfects this House as long as the energy of prayer ascends from below in proper form. The discussion then turns to God's nightly protection of "the city" from the Other Side, and His guarding of the Sanctuary from the primordial serpent. Rabbi Elazar then concludes the discussion by explaining the complete perfection of Ya'akov both above and below.

The Relevance of this Passage

Using the language of metaphor, the Zohar draws upon mystical power of the Hebrew letters to connect us to the primordial forces of Creation, which sustain and protect the world. Through this passage, we draw the energy of creation into our lives, for renewal, healing, and protection.

131. "And Ya'akov journeyed to Sukkot, and built him a house, and made booths (Heb. Sukkot) for his cattle; therefore the name of the place is called Sukot" (Bereshheet 33:17). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "A Ma'alot poem for Solomon. Unless Hashem builds the house...unless Hashem keeps the city..." (Tehilim 127:1). Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, ZEIR ANPIN, desired to create the world, MEANING TO BUILD THE FACE OF THE NUKVA, CALLED 'WORK', He released a knot from the rough spark. It flashed in the darkness, remained up high, and then descended below. That darkness shone in a hundred ways in the thinnest paths and broadest WAYS, which became the House of the World.

132. That house is the center of everything, WHICH MEANS IT IS IN THE CENTRAL COLUMN OF ALL ROADS AND PATHS. THE NUKVA has many doors and hallways around the high and holy places, where the birds of the sky nest, each according to its species. In the center, there is a huge tree, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN THAT PURS PLENTY UPON THE HOUSE. It has many branches and fruits for everyone. The tree reaches to the clouds of heaven and is hidden behind three mountains. Underneath these three mountains it comes out, rises upwards, and descends.

133. This house, THE NUKVA, RECEIVED TWO TYPES OF LIGHTS FROM ZEIR ANPIN: (1) It is watered by him, NAMELY THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, REFERRED TO AS WATERING. (2) ZEIR ANPIN stores within THE HOUSE many unidentified supernal treasures THAT WERE LIGHTS OF CHASSADIM. By this, the house is constructed and built. The tree, ZEIR ANPIN, is visible during the day and hidden at night, while the house, THE NUKVA, rules by night and is hidden by day.

134. When darkness falls, THE NUKVA is in power AND she is bound to it, SHE RULES BECAUSE SHE LACKS CHASSADIM, AND SHINES WITH CHOCHMAH. All her doors are closed on all sides, WHICH MEANS THAT ALL THE LIGHTS ARE FROZEN AND THERE IS NO OPENING THROUGH WHICH ANY LIGHT CAN BE REVEALED. Many spirits OF RIGHTEOUS PEOPLE soar in the air, desirous to know, NAMELY, RECEIVE CHOCHMAH, and enter THE NUKVA. They come among the birds to receive testimony, and then roam and see whatever they can see.

135. THE CLOSING OF ALL OPENINGS CONTINUES until the darkness is stirred, to which THE NUKVA is bound, and one flame is produced, which strikes open the doors and cleaves rocks with heavy hammers (THE KLIPOT). The flame moves up and down, and strikes the world. Sounds are heard above and below.

131. וַיַּעֲקֹב נֹסַע סִכְתָּהּ וַיִּבֶן לוֹ בַּיִת וְלִמְקָנָהּ עֲשָׂה סִכְתָּה עַל כֵּן קָרָא שֵׁם הַמָּקוֹם סִכּוֹת. רַבִּי חִיָּיא פָּתַח וְאָמַר שִׁיר הַמַּעֲלוֹת לְשִׁלְמָה אִם ה' לֹא יִבְנֶה בַּיִת וְגו', אִם ה' לֹא יִשְׁמַר עִיר וְגו'. תָּא חֲזִי בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְסָלִיק בְּרַעוּתָא דְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, לְמַבְרִי עֲלֵמָא, אֲפִיק מְבוּצִינָא דְקַרְדִּינּוּתָא, חַד קְטוּרָא, וְאִתְלֵהִיט מִגּו חֲשׂוּכָא, וְאִשְׁתָּאֵר בְּסָלִיקוּ. וְנַחְתָּא לְתַתָּא, הָיִיא חֲשֻׁכָה, לְהִיט בְּמֵאָה שְׁבִילִין, אֹרְחִין דְקִיקִין, רַבְרַבֵּן, וְאִתְעֵבִיד בַּיִתָא דְעֲלֵמָא.

136. A crier then ascends, attaches himself to the air, and proclaims. The air comes from the pillar of cloud of the inner altar, and, when it emerges, it spreads out in all directions, with thousands on its left side and myriads on its right. Then the crier stands firm and proclaims in a strong voice. Many chant songs and render homage. Two doors are open, one on the south FOR THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM and the other on the north FOR THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH.

137. This house, THE NUKVA, ascends and attaches itself TO THE RIGHT AND LEFT SIDES OF ZEIR ANPIN, while hymns are sung and praises offered on high. Then ZEIR ANPIN silently enters and the house is lit up by six lights OF CHASSIDIM-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD which spread splendor in every direction, CHASSADIM INCLUDED IN CHOCHMAH. Rivers flow from it, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH INCLUDED IN CHASSADIM, to water the animals of the field, as it is written: "they give drink to every wild beast: the wild asses quench their thirst" (Tehilim 104:11). They sing until the day rises. When daylight breaks, the stars, signs, and their followers all begin to sing praises and chants, as it is written: "when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of Elohim shouted for joy" (Iyov 38:7).

138. Come and behold: IT IS WRITTEN, "Unless Hashem builds the house, they who build it labor in vain (Tehilim 127:1). Hashem is the Supernal King, ZEIR ANPIN, who is constantly building and perfecting the house. When does He bestow plenty on it? When worship is raised with proper attention, from below.

139. "Unless Hashem keeps the city." When does this happen? This occurs at nightfall, when armed parties FROM THE OTHER SIDE hover and roam the world; when the gates are closed and guarded on all sides. The doors remain shut lest an uncircumcised and unclean person approaches THE SANCTUARY, as it is written: "for henceforth there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean" (Yeshayah 52:1). For in the future, the Holy One, blessed be He, will remove them from the face of the earth.

140. HE ASKS: Who are the uncircumcised, and who are the unclean? HE ANSWERS: They are all one, the same one who seduced Adam and his wife. Adam and his wife followed him, THE PRIMORDIAL SERPENT, and brought death to the whole world. He defiles the house, THE NUKVA, until the Holy One, blessed be He, shall remove him from the world, THE NUKVA. Therefore "unless Hashem keeps the city" ASSUREDLY "THE WATCHMAN STAYS AWAKE IN VAIN."

141. "And Ya'akov journeyed to Sukkot." He journeyed TO BINAH, to receive the portion of the faith, THE NUKVA. As it is written, "So Esav returned that day on his way to Se'ir," and "And Ya'akov journeyed to Sukot." Each traveled to his own side, Esav to the side of Se'ir, which is a foreign woman, a strange El; Ya'akov to Sukkot, the supernal faith, WHICH IS BINAH.

142. "And built him a house," has a similar meaning to the verse, "house of Ya'akov," (Yeshayah 2:5) WHICH REFERS TO THE NUKVA. According to Rabbi Elazar, this is because he composed the evening service, THE NUKVA, as was befitting to Her, and he "made booths for his cattle," namely, other booths (Heb. sukkot) to keep them; this is his own portion.

143. "And Ya'akov came to Shalem (lit. 'whole')," because he was then whole in every respect, BOTH IN CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM, as has been explained. It is written: "In Shalem also is his tabernacle (Heb. sukko)" (Tehilim 76:3). This verse has been explained. It pertains to the mystery OF ATTAINING PERFECTION THROUGH THE CENTRAL COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'YA'AKOV' AND TO "SUKKO," WHICH IS THE NUKVA. When he was whole, Faith joined him WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and when he was adorned in the place worthy of him, MEANING THE CENTRAL COLUMN, the tabernacle, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, was adorned with him, AND THEN, "IN SHALEM ASLO IS HIS TABERANACLE" APPLIED TO HER AS WELL because he was perfected by the fathers and his sons. He was then considered whole, perfected above and below, whole in heaven and whole on earth. HE EXPLAINS, he is whole above IN ZEIR ANPIN, for he comprises the fathers, BEING the glory of Yisrael, ENCOMPASSING AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, BEING CHESED AND GVURAH, and below IN THE NUKVA through his Holy Sons, THE TWELVE TRIBES WHO ARE THE CHARIOT OF THE NUKVA. THUS, he is perfected in heaven, IN ZEIR ANPIN, FOR WHICH REASON IT SAYS, "AND YA'AKOV CAME TO SHALEM." And he was perfected on earth, IN THE NUKVA, OF WHICH IT IS now SAID, "In Shalem also is his tabernacle."

12. "You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together"

An ox and an ass together represents the unification of the defiled spirits of the Other Side against man. This is applied to the struggle between Shimon and Chamor, a conflict in which Shimon—who was under the astrological sign of the ox—fought Chamor, of the side of the ass, to prevent the two from joining. We learn that Shimon first brought the blood of circumcision on the males and slew them, just as God did to the Egyptians (who represent asses) through Moshe, when Yosef (the ox) was removed from them. In the final Exile, we're told, Ya'akov and Yosef will rise against Esav and prevail.

The Relevance of this Passage

Unity is recognized as the supreme power in our world. United evil can easily defeat disunited good. Therefore, the only way to defeat unified evil is through the unification of the good and the righteous. Through the cleansing power of circumcision, this passage creates disunity and separation within the unseen evil forces lurking in our midst.

144. Next, it is written, "And Dinah the daughter of Leah went out." This has already been explained by the friends. Come and behold: innumerable grades are divided above. SOME BELONG TO HOLINESS AND OTHERS TO THE OTHER SIDE, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "ELOHIM MADE THE ONE AS WELL AS THE OTHER." (KHOHELET 7:14). Each is different from the other, SOME PERTAINING TO CHESED AND SOME TO JUDGMENTS. There are different kinds of animals trying to gain mastery over each other and devour prey, each according to its kind.

145. From the side of the Defiled Spirit many grades divide. All of them harbor enmity TOWARD HOLINESS, the ones against the others, as it is written, "You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together," (Devarim 22:10) for when they are together, they ruin the world.

146. Come and behold: all that the grades of defilement crave is to damage the holy grades. They all lurk in wait to damage the holy Ya'akov. First a serpent bit him, as it is written, "he touched the hollow of his thigh," WHICH REFERS TO THE MINISTER OF ESAV WHO RIDES A SERPENT. Then an ass bit him, THAT IS, SHCHEM THE SON OF CHAMOR (LIT. 'ASS'), THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE KLIPAH.

147. When THE SERPENT BIT HIM, he himself stood against him. When THAT ASS BIT HIM, Shimon and Levi, who come from the side of strict Judgment, fought the ass, charging on all sides until he surrendered before them, as it is written: "And they slew Chamor and Shchem his son with the edge of the sword" (Bereshheet 34:26). Shimon, whose astrological sign was Taurus (ox), GVURAH, AND THE LEFT SIDE OF HOLINESS, attacked Chamor, THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE KLIPAH, and was hostile towards him to prevent THE OX AND ASS OF THE KLIPAH from joining. Shimon is his adversary, AND NOT YA'AKOV.

148. They all brought accusations against Ya'akov, but he was delivered from them, and later, he ruled over them. Then came the ox, YOSEF, who perfected himself among the asses, THE EGYPTIANS HE RULED OVER. They were all of the side of THE KLIPAH OF an ass. HE EXPLAINED: Yosef is an ox, and the Egyptians are asses, of whom the scripture says: "whose flesh is as the flesh of asses" (Yechezkel 23:20).

149. Therefore, the sons of Ya'akov later fell among the asses, THE EGYPTIANS, because an ox joined them, YOSEF, THROUGH WHOM AN OX AND AN ASS WERE JOINED TOGETHER. And they bit Yisrael's flesh and marrow, AS IT IS THE NATURE OF THE ASS TO BITE AND BREAK BONES, until Levi was again aroused to scatter the asses, THAT IS, HE SEPARATED THE OX FROM THE ASS in order to subdue them. He broke their strength and removed the ox from there, as it is written: "And Moshe took the bones of Yosef with him" (Shemot 13:19), MOSHE BEING A LEVITE AND YOSEF THE OX THAT JOINED THEM.

150. Come and behold: on the first occasion, when Shimon came TO FIGHT with Chamor, he brought blood upon them, the blood of circumcision. Then they "slew all the males" (Bereshheet 34:25). The Holy One, blessed be He, did the same by the Levite, Moshe, to the asses, the Egyptians. First He brought upon them THE PLAGUE OF blood, and then, "Hashem slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt" (Shemot 13:15). Regarding Chamor, THE FATHER OF SHCHEM, it is written: "and all their wealth, and all their little ones," (Bereshheet 34:29) and their animals, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "THEIR SHEEP, AND THEIR OXEN, AND THEIR ASSES, AND THAT WHICH WAS IN THE CITY AND THAT WHICH WAS IN THE FIELD." Regarding the other asses, THE EGYPTIANS, it is written: "jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and garments," (Shemot 12:35) WHICH CORRESPONDS TO THE WEALTH HERE. It is also written: "And a mixed multitude went up also with them," (Ibid. 38) WHICH CORRESPONDS TO THE "LITTLE ONES" MENTIONED, the "flocks and herds" (Ibid.) THAT CORRESPOND TO, "THEIR SHEEP AND THEIR OXEN."

145. מִסְטֵרָא דְרוּחָא מְסַאבָא כְּמַה דְרִגְוִין מִתְפָּרְשִׁין, וְכִלְהוּ כְּמִן לְקֵטְרָגָא, אֵלִין לְקַבִּיל אֵלִין, דְּהָא כְּתִיב לֹא תַחַרֵּשׁ בְּשׂוֹר וּבַחֲמֹר יַחְדָּו, דְּכַד קָא מִתְחַבְּרָן מְקֵטְרֵי עֲלָמָא.

151. Shimon rose against Chamor ('ass'), THE FATHER OF SHCHEM, WHO WAS NOT JOINED WITH AN OX. Levi rose against all the asses, EVEN THOSE JOINED WITH AN OX, LIKE THE EGYPTIANS. They all came to join Ya'akov and prepared to bite him, but he withstood and subdued them through his sons.

151. וְשִׁמְעוֹן וְלֵוִי, דָּא קָאִים לְגַבֵּי הַאי חָמוֹר, וְדָא קָאִים לְגַבֵּי כָּל אֵינֹן חָמוֹרִים, כְּלָהוּ בְעוֹ לְאַשְׁתַּתְּפָא בְּהַרְיָה דִּיעֶקֶב קְדִישָׁא, וְאַתְתַּקְנוּ לְנִשְׁכָּא לֵיהּ, וְאִיהוּ בְּבִנוֹי קָאִים לְגַבֵּיהוּ, וְכִיִּף לֹן תְּחוּתֵיהּ.

152. HE ASKS: Now IN THE LAST EXILE that Esav is biting him and his sons, who shall rise against him? HE REPLIS: Ya'akov and Yosef WILL RISE AGAINST HIM, the one on this side and the other on that side, YA'AKOV ON THE RIGHT AND YOSEF ON THE LEFT, as it is written: "And the house of Ya'akov shall be fire, and the house of Yosef flame, and the house of Esav for stubble" (Ovadyah 1:18).

152. הַשְׁתָּא דְעָשׂוּ נָשִׁיךְ לֵיהּ וּלְבָנוֹי, מֵאֵן יְקוּם לְגַבֵּיהּ. יַעֲקֹב וְיוֹסֵף, דָּא מְסַטְרָא דָּא, וְדָא מְסַטְרָא דָּא, דְכַתִּיב וְהִיא בֵּית יַעֲקֹב אֵשׁ וּבֵית יוֹסֵף לְהַבָּה וּבֵית עֵשׂוּ לְקֶשׁ וְגו'.

153. "And the terror of Elohim was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Ya'akov" (Beresheet 35:5). Rabbi Yosi said: They all gathered to fight them, but while they were girding their weapons, they took fright and dropped them. Therefore, they did not chase the sons of Ya'akov.

153. וַיִּסְעוּ וַיְהִי חֲתַת אֱלֹהִים עַל הָעָרִים אֲשֶׁר סְבִיבוֹתֵיהֶם וְלֹא רָדְפוּ אַחֲרֵי בְנֵי יַעֲקֹב. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, כְּלָהוּ הוּוּ מִתְכַּנְּשֵׁי, וְכַד הוּוּ חֲגָרֵי זֵינֵי קָרְבָּא, הוּוּ מִרְתַּתִּי, וְשִׁבְקִין לֹן, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ וְלֹא רָדְפוּ אַחֲרֵי בְנֵי יַעֲקֹב.

13. "Put away the strange Elohim"

While walking, Rabbi Chizkiyah questions Rabbi Yehuda as to why the crown of Malcam was considered the crown of an idol and "an abomination," and why it was permitted to be set on David's head. After Rabbi Yehuda explains that the image of the idol on the crown was broken, thus making it permissible for wear. Rabbi Yitzchak proceeds to interpret the title verse. He reveals that Ya'akov hid the idolatrous gold and silver images so that his people could not derive any benefit from these representations of false deities. There follows a discussion of man's responsibility to thank and praise God for His miracles and His goodness. This is why Ya'akov alone prepared the altar at Bet-El--although his sons were with him, Ya'akov alone suffered the tribulations that run throughout his story, making him worthy and deserving of the task.

The Relevance of this Passage

It is a man's natural tendency to worship his own ego and credit himself for all of his accomplishments. This is true idol worshipping. The concept of praising and thanking God is a code denoting the need for true appreciation and awareness of the existence of the Creator's beneficence. Appreciation is for our own benefit and not in any way for the Creator, who has no need or desire for praise and thanks. Appreciation and awareness are spiritual forces that help to protect all that we have received from negative entities. The goal of an evil entity is to lower our guard and make us vulnerable. When there is no consciousness of the Creator's role in our good fortune, dark forces can loot us of our spiritual Light. This manifests physically as the loss of blessing, whether in relationships, health, or financial prosperity. This passage stirs appreciation for the Creator within us. This gratitude is derived through Ya'akov, who recognized and warned his children about the idols in their midst.

154. "Put away the strange Elohim" (Beresheet 35:2) that they took from Shchem, vessels of silver and gold, upon which were engraved the images of their deities. Rabbi Yehuda said these were the images of strange Elohim made of silver and gold, AND NOT VESSELS WITH THEIR IMAGES. Ya'akov hid them there, so that they would not derive benefit from idolatry. A man should never derive benefit from it.

154. הָסִירוּ אֶת אֱלֹהֵי הַנֹּכֶר וְגו'. הָסִירוּ אֶת אֱלֹהֵי הַנֹּכֶר, אֵלִין אֵינֹן דְּנִטְלוּ מִשְׁכָּם, מֵאֵנִי כְּסָפָא וְדַהָבָא, דְּהָוָה חֲקִיק עֲלֵיהוּ טַעֲוָא דְלָהוֹן. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה אָמַר, טַעֲוֹן הוּוּ מִכְּסָפָא וְדַהָבָא, וְיַעֲקֹב אֲטָמִין לֹן תַּמָּן, בְּגִין דְּלֹא יִתְהַנֹּן מְסַטְרָא דְעַבּוּדָה זָרָה, דְּאָסִיר לֵיהּ לְבַר נֶשׁ, לְאַתְהָנִי מִנִּיהּ לְעֵלְמִין.

155. As Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Chizkiyah were walking along the road, Rabbi Chizkiyah asked: Why is it written, "And he took the crown of Malkam from off his head and its weight was a talent of gold, with the precious stones; and it was set on David's head" (II Shmuel 12:30)? We have learned that Milkom was the abominable idol of the children of Amon, as it is written, "the crown of Malkam." Why, therefore, was it set on David's head, and why it is called 'abomination'? While other deities of the heathen nations are called the 'Elohim of the people', 'other Elohim', 'strange El', 'another Elohim', and the like, only Malkam is called an 'abomination'.

156. He answers that the Holy One, blessed be He, calls all the deities of the idolatrous nations, NOT ONLY MALKAM, by this name, as it is written: "and you have seen their abominations, and their idols" (Devarim 29:16). What of the verse, "And he took the crown of Malkam" the idol Milkom? HE ASKS: HOW COULD DAVID SET IT ON HIS HEAD? Assuredly, IT WAS THE CROWN OF AN IDOL, but before Itai the Gittite became a proselyte, THAT IS, WHILE HE WAS STILL A HEATHEN, he broke Milkom's heathen crown, destroying the image engraved on it. He thereby made it permissible for use. THEN DAVID put it on his head. Come and behold: the abomination of the children of Amon was a serpent deeply engraved on the crown. It was therefore called an 'abomination', WHICH MEANS filth. THIS IS THE SECOND ANSWER FOR THE QUESTION THAT RABBI CHIZKIYAH ASKED RABBI YEHUDA: WHY IS THIS IDOL CALLED AN ABOMINATION?

157. Rabbi Yitzchak said that the verse, "Put away the strange Elohim that are among you," refers to other women who, WHEN TAKEN CAPTIVE, brought with them all their jewels. Thus, it is written, "And they gave to Ya'akov all the strange Elohim," which are the women and all their jewels, and their deities of silver and gold. "And Ya'akov hid them," THE GOLD AND SILVER, so that his people would derive no benefit whatsoever from them, the aspects of idolatry.

158. Come and behold: how much Ya'akov was a perfected man, and how he cleaved to the Holy One, blessed be He. It is written: "and let us arise, and go up to Bet-El; and I will make there an altar to El, who answers me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way on which I went" (Beresheet 35:3). At once, "they gave to Ya'akov" (Ibid. 4). From this, we learn that it is incumbent on man to praise the Holy One, blessed be He, and give thanks to Him for all the miracles and goodness He did by him. This is the meaning of the verse: "and was with me in the way on which I went."

155. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה וְרַבִּי חִזְקִיָּה הָיוּ אֹזְלֵי בְּאַרְחָא, אָמַר רַבִּי חִזְקִיָּה לְרַבִּי יְהוּדָה, מַאי דְכָתִיב וַיִּקַּח אֶת עֵטֶרֶת מַלְכָם מֵעַל רֹאשׁוֹ וּמִשְׁקָלָהּ כֶּבֶר זָהָב וְאֶבֶן יָקָרָה וַתְּהִי עַל רֹאשׁ דָּוִד. וַתִּנְיֶנָּן, שְׂקוּץ בְּנֵי עַמּוּן מַלְכָם שְׁמִיָּה, וְדָא הוּא עֵטֶרֶת מַלְכָם. מ"ט וַתְּהִי עַל רֹאשׁ דָּוִד. וּמַאי טַעְמָא כְּתִיב שְׂקוּץ, דְּהָא בְּשֵׁאֵר טַעּוּן עַמּוּיָא עַ"ז כְּתִיב אֱלֹהֵי הָעַמִּים, אֱלֹהִים אֲחֵרִים, אֵל נֹכַר, אֵל אֲחֵר, וּבְהָאֵי אָמַר שְׂקוּץ חַד.

159. Come and behold: first it is written, "and let us arise, and go up to Bet-El" IN THE PLURAL, because he counted his sons with him; then it is written, "and I will make there an altar" IN THE SINGULAR, and not 'and we will make', because he excluded his sons from this act. Why? Because it was for him alone to do it. Ya'akov surely composed the evening prayer, THE CORRECTION OF THE NUKVA, and built the altar, THE CORRECTION OF THE NUKVA. It was for him to do, NOT FOR HIS SONS, for his children were not born until after he had fled from his brother and had gone through the troubles that followed, as it is written, "and was with me in the way on which I went." Thus, he did not include them in PREPARING THE ALTAR, BUT SAID, "AND I WILL MAKE THERE AN ALTAR," INSTEAD OF 'WE WILL MAKE'.

160. Rabbi Elazar said: From this we learn that whoever received a miracle should give thanks, and whoever ate bread should say grace, and not the person who ate nothing. YA'AKOV THEN SAID, "I WILL MAKE AN ALTAR," AND NOT 'WE WILL MAKE'.

14. "And he built there an altar"

The Zohar tells us that Ya'akov is beginning a very difficult spiritual journey, which involves enjoining the two worlds of Zeir Anpin and Malchut. Here, Ya'akov is coming full circle--completing his journey and thereby unifying Zeir Anpin and Malchut.

The Relevance of this Passage

Passion and enthusiasm for spiritual wisdom and growth are easily aroused when one begins to walk the spiritual path. However, when the inevitable obstacles surface to test our commitment and shed light on our negative qualities so that we can confront and extract them from our nature, we lose the fire and most of us fail to complete journey. It's much easier to start a new search elsewhere and feel new passion again, than it is to confront the dark side of our nature and complete our journey. Constant seeking, however, will not enjoin the two spiritual worlds; thus it delivers short-lived passion, and fails to provide long term fulfillment. The Evil Inclination will always stand by us and help rationalize and justify our quitting and giving up. In response, the Zohar verses herein give us the energy and will power to complete our path and finish what we start, so that we can achieve true and eternal contentment.

161. "And he built there an altar" (Beresheet 35:7). Come and behold: it is written that "he built there an altar," but not that he offered libations and sacrifices. This is because he completed the grade worthy of perfection, "an altar to Hashem," means, he fixed the lower grade, THE NUKVA, and attached it to the upper grade, ZEIR ANPIN. Thus, "And he built there an altar" is the lower grade, THE NUKVA; "to Hashem" is the upper grade, ZEIR ANPIN; "and called the place El Bet-El," WHICH IS THE NAME HE GAVE THE NUKVA, is that of the supernal BINAH. For when THE NUKVA shone FROM ZEIR ANPIN, the daughter, THE NUKVA, became like her mother, BINAH. THEREFORE, YA'AKOV NAMED HER EL, AFTER HER MOTHER. AND ALL IS ONE.

162. "Because there the Elohim was (lit. 'were') revealed to him." THIS VERSE SIGNIFIES THAT ANGELS "WERE REVEALED," IN THE PLURAL AND NOT IN THE SINGULAR. WHY DID HE CALL THE ALTAR "EL BET-EL"? BECAUSE they are found only with the Shechinah. These seventy angels are always with Her, and seventy thrones stand around the Shechinah. WHEREVER ANGELS ARE FOUND, THE SHECHINAH IS REVEALED. Therefore, THE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "because there the Elohim were revealed to him," in an open place, THE NUKVA, as it is written: "And, behold, Hashem stood above it," (Beresheet 28:13) NAMELY, UPON THE LADDER, WHICH IS THE NUKVA.

15. "And Elohim went up from him"

Here Rabbi Shimon discusses Ya'akov's unique and privileged position as revealed by the title quotation. Because Ya'akov encompasses all the patriarchs, he is a holy Chariot to Zeir Anpin by himself. Indeed, his perfection was completed by the name 'Israel', which the Shechinah bestowed upon him. We learn of the great good fortune of the children of Israel, who alone among nations have God to receive their prayers and petitions.

159. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּקִדְמִיתָא כְּתִיב וְנִקְוָמָה וְנִעְלָה בֵּית אֵל וְגו', אֲכַלִּיל בְּנוֹי בְּהַדְרִיה. וְלִבְתֵּר כְּתִיב וְאֶעֱשֶׂה שֵׁם מִזְבֵּחַ, וְלֹא כְּתִיב וְנִעְשֶׂה. דְּאִמִּיק לֹון מְכַלְלָא דָא, מֵאֵי טַעְמָא, בְּגִין דְּעֵלִיָּה הָוָה מְלָה. יַעֲקֹב אֲתַקִּין תְּפִלַּת עֶרְבִית וְדָאֵי, וְאִיהוּ עֶבֶד מִדְּבַחָא, וְעֵלִיָּה הָוָה מְלָה, וּבְגִין דְּאִיהוּ עֶבֶר כָּל אֵינֹון עֲקֵתִין מִן יוֹמָא דְּעֶרְק קַמֵּיה דְּאֲחוּהָ, דְּכְתִיב וַיְהִי עִמָּדֵי בְּדֶרֶךְ אֲשֶׁר הִלְכְּתִי, וְאֵינֹון אֲתוּ לְבִתֵּר לְעֵלְמָא, וְעַל דָּא לֹא אֶעִיל לֹון בְּהַדְרִיה.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section helps elevate us to experience some of the perfection embodied by the patriarchs, inspiring us to follow the path of righteousness and summon down more Light.

163. "And Elohim went up from him in the place where He talked with him" (Beresheet 35:13). Rabbi Shimon said: Here we learn that Ya'akov, together with the other patriarchs, became a holy Chariot TO HASHEM. Come and behold: Ya'akov is a supernal, holy Chariot TO ZEIR ANPIN, shining on the moon, THE NUKVA. He is a Chariot by himself, BECAUSE HE INCLUDES THE PATRIARCHS, CHESED AND GVURAH, AS TIFERET INCLUDES THEM BOTH. This is the meaning of the verse, "And Elohim went up from him," AS SOMEONE ALIGHTING FROM HIS CHARIOT.

163. וַיַּעַל מֵעָלוּ אֱלֹהִים בְּמָקוֹם אֲשֶׁר דִּבֶּר אֲתוֹ, רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן אָמַר מִכָּאן דְּאִתְעִבִיד רְתִיבָא קְדִישָׁא, בְּהַרֵי אַבְהָן. וְתָא חֲזִי, יַעֲקֹב אִיהוּ רְתִיבָא קְדִישָׁא עֲלָא, דְקַיִמָא לְאַנְהָרָא לְסִיְהָרָא, וְאִיהוּ רְתִיבָא בְּלַחְדוּרֵי, הָדָא הוּא דְכִתִּיב וַיַּעַל מֵעָלוּ אֱלֹהִים.

164. He began the discussion with the verse: "For what nation is there so great that has Elohim so near to them, as Hashem our Elohim is in all things that we call upon Him for" (Devarim 4:4). Come and behold: how fond the Holy One, blessed be He, is of Yisrael, for no nation or tongue among all the heathen people in the world will have Elohim to receive their prayers, as the Holy One, blessed be He, will in the future receive the prayers and petitions of Yisrael in their hour of need, when they pray for the sake of their grade alone, THE SHECHINAH, THAT IS, WHENEVER THEIR PRAYER IS FOR THE PERFECTING OF THE SHECHINAH.

164. פִּתַּח וְאָמַר, כִּי מִי גוֹי גָדוֹל אֲשֶׁר לוֹ אֱלֹהִים קְרוֹבִים אֵלָיו כֹּה' אֶלְקֵינוּ בְּכֹל קְרָאנוּ אֵלָיו. תָּא חֲזִי, כִּמָּה אֵינוֹן חֲבִיבִין יִשְׂרָאֵל קִמֵּי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, דְלִית לֶךְ עִם וְלִישָׁן בְּכֹל עֲמִין עַ"ז דְּעֵלְמָא, דְאִית לֵיהּ אֱלֹהָא דִישְׁמַע לוֹן, כִּמָּה דְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא זְמִין לְקַבְּלָא צְלוֹתְהוֹן וּבְעוֹתְהוֹן דִישְׂרָאֵל, בְּכֹל שְׁעָתָא דְאַצְטְרִיךְ לוֹן לְמִשְׁמַע צְלוֹתָא, דְאֵינוֹן בְּעָאן, בְּגִין הֵהוּא דְרָגָא דְלֵהוֹן.

165. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, called Ya'akov by the name Yisrael, NAMELY, THAT IS THE SHECHINAH DID, as it is written: "your name shall not be called any more Ya'akov, but Yisrael shall be your name: and he called his name." Who gave him that name? The Shechinah did, as in, "and He called to Moshe," WRITTEN WITH A SMALL ALEPH, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH. IT IS ALSO WRITTEN, "And Elohim said to him," (Beresheet 35:10) WHICH IS A NAME FOR THE SHECHINAH.

165. תָּא חֲזִי, יַעֲקֹב קְרִי לֵיהּ קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְכִתִּיב לֹא יִקְרָא שְׁמֶךָ עוֹד יַעֲקֹב כִּי אִם יִשְׂרָאֵל יִהְיֶה שְׁמֶךָ, וַיִּקְרָא אֶת שְׁמוֹ, מֵאֵן וַיִּקְרָא. הָא שְׁכִינְתָּא, בְּדַבְרֵי אַחֵר וַיִּקְרָא אֶל מֹשֶׁה. וַיֹּאמֶר לוֹ אֱלֹהִים.

166. We explained that after he achieved perfection he was raised in his grade, and was perfected by that name. Therefore, "and He called his name Yisrael," has already been explained.

166. לְעֵיל אוֹקִימָנָא, יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְהָא אֲשִׁתְּלִים בְּכֹלָא בְּדָקָא יְאוֹת, וּכְדִין אֲשִׁתְּלַק בְּדַרְגִּיָּה, וְאֲשִׁתְּלִים בְּשֵׁמָא דָא, וְעַל דָּא וַיִּקְרָא אֶת שְׁמוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל וְהָא אֲתַמַּר.

16. Ya'akov - Yisrael

Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Elazar discuss the issue of Ya'akov's two names, Ya'akov and Yisrael. Rabbi Elazar explains why Ya'akov is only sometimes called Yisrael, while after Avram's renaming, he is always referred to as Avraham. Avraham's original name was imperfect, whereas Ya'akov's name denoted a higher level of spirituality.

The Relevance of this Passage

The name is a link between the body and soul.

We connect to our name and soul, which helps us fulfill our mission in this world.

167. As Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosi were walking together, Rabbi Yosi said: What you said is true, that Ya'akov is the most perfect of the fathers. He includes all sides, NAMELY, RIGHT AND LEFT. For that reason, he was called Yisrael, as it is written: "your name shall not be called any more Ya'akov, but Yisrael shall be your name, and He called his name Yisrael" (Bereshheet 35:10). Why then, HE INSISTED, does the Holy One, blessed be He, repeatedly call him Ya'akov as he was commonly called before? What then is the meaning of, "your name shall not be called any more Ya'akov"?

168. He replies: You have spoken well. THIS IS A GOOD QUESTION. He then quoted the verse: "Hashem shall go forth as a mighty man, He shall stir up ardor like a man of war" (Yeshayah 42:13), which has already been explained. Yet come and behold: it is written, "as a mighty man" instead of 'a mighty man', and "like a man of war" instead of 'a man of war'.

169. HE EXPLAINS: We learned that Hashem refers uniformly to Mercy, and the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, is Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, as it is written, "I am Hashem: that is My name" (Yeshayah 42:8). Yet we see that He is sometimes called Elohim, which everywhere alludes to Judgment. Whenever there are many righteous in the world, His name is Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei and He is called Mercy. But when the wicked multiply in the world, His name is Elohim, and He is thus called. When Ya'akov is not among his enemies or in a foreign country, he is called Yisrael, but when he is among foes or out of Yisrael, he is called Ya'akov.

170. He said to him: The matter is not fully explained, because it is written, "shall not be called any more," yet we do call him Ya'akov when he is among enemies or in a foreign land. Come and study the verse: "And Ya'akov dwelt in the land in which his father had sojourned, in the land of Cna'an" (Bereshheet 37:1). He was not in a foreign land, but HE IS NEVERTHELESS CALLED YA'AKOV.

171. He replied: I said, in the beginning, that just as the Holy One, blessed be He, is sometimes called Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei and sometimes Elohim, ACCORDING TO THE GRADE, so Ya'akov is sometimes called Yisrael and sometimes Ya'akov, all according to certain grades. And the words, "shall not be called any more Ya'akov," MEAN THAT he will not have this name only, YA'AKOV, BUT TWO NAMES, YA'AKOV AND YISRAEL, ACCORDING TO HIS GRADE.

167. רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר וְרַבִּי יוֹסִי הָיוּ אֹזְלֵי בְּאַרְחָא, אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי לְר' אֶלְעָזָר, וְדַאי הָא דְאִמְרַתְּ דִּיעֻקֵּב שְׁלִימָא דְאִבְהֵן אִיהוּ, וְאִיהוּ אַחִיר לְכָל סְטָרִין וְקָרָא שְׁמִיהּ יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְכַתִּיב לֹא יִקְרָא שְׁמֶךָ עוֹד יַעֲקֹב כִּי אִם יִשְׂרָאֵל יִהְיֶה שְׁמֶךָ. וְכַתִּיב וַיִּקְרָא אֶת שְׁמוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל. אֲמַאי אֶהְדֵּר קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא וְקָרָא לִיהּ יַעֲקֹב בְּכַמְהָ זְמַנִּין, וְכֹלָא קְרוֹן לִיהּ יַעֲקֹב כְּמִלְקָדְמִין, אִי הֲכִי, מַהוּ וְלֹא יִקְרָא שְׁמֶךָ עוֹד יַעֲקֹב.

169. אֵלָא הָא אֶתְמַר, ה' בְּכָל אֶתְרָא, רַחֲמֵי אִיהוּ וְדַאי. קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא ה' שְׁמִיהּ אִיהוּ, דְכַתִּיב אֲנִי ה' הוּא שְׁמִי, וְחֲמִינָן דְלִזְמַנִּין אֶתְקָרִי שְׁמִיהּ אֱלֹקִים, וְהוּא דִינָא בְּכָל אֶתְרָא. אֵלָא, בְּזַמְנָא דְאֶסְגִּיאוֹ זְכַאִין בְּעֵלְמָא, ה' שְׁמִיהּ, וְאֶתְקָרִי בְּשֵׁמָא דְרַחֲמֵי. וּבְזַמְנָא דְאֶסְגִּיאוֹ חֲזִיבִין בְּעֵלְמָא, אֱלֹקִים שְׁמִיהּ, וְאֶתְקָרִי בְּשֵׁמָא דְאֱלֹקִים. כֶּךָ, בְּזַמְנָא דִיעֻקֵּב לֹא הוּא בֵּין שְׁנַאִין, וְלֹא הוּא בְּאַרְעָא אַחְרָא, קְרִי לִיהּ יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְכֵד הוּא בֵּין שְׁנַאִין, אוֹ בְּאַרְעָא אַחְרָא, קְרִי לִיהּ יַעֲקֹב.

171. אָמַר לוֹ, הָא בְּקִדְמִיתָא אֶתְמַר, כְּמַה דְקוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, לִזְמַנִּין אֶתְקָרִי ה', וְלִזְמַנִּין אֶתְקָרִי אֱלֹקִים, הֲכִי נְמִי, לִזְמַנִּין אֶתְקָרִי יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְלִזְמַנִּין אֶתְקָרִי יַעֲקֹב, וְכֹלָא בְּדִרְגִין יִדְעֵן. וְמַה דְאֶתְמַר יִקְרָא שְׁמֶךָ עוֹד יַעֲקֹב, לְאֶתִּישְׁבָא בְּשֵׁמָא דָא.

172. He said: So it was with Avraham, about whom it is written, "Neither shall your name any more be called Avram, but your name shall be Avraham" (Bereshheet 17:5). YET THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT HE WILL BE CALLED BY TWO NAMES: AVRAM AND AVRAHAM, BUT RATHER ONLY AVRAHAM. He answers: The scripture says, "but YOUR NAME SHALL BE (HEB. VEHAYAH) AVRAHAM," therefore only this name remained. Yet here the word "vehayah" is not used. Rather, it reads, "but Yisrael shall be (Heb. yih'yeh) your name." It does not read, 'Yisrael shall be (Heb. vehayah) your name'. ACCORDING TO THIS, it is sufficient to call him Yisrael on only one occasion, TO FULFILL THE VERSE, WHICH READS, "BUT YISRAEL SHALL BE YOUR NAME." This is all the more true because although he is sometimes called Ya'akov, there are other times he is called Yisrael. When his sons are adorned with priests and Levites, he will be called by the name YISRAEL for all times.

172. אָמַר לוֹ, אִי הָכִי, הָא כְּתִיב וְלֹא יִקְרָא עוֹד אֶת שְׁמֶךָ אַבְרָם וְהָיָה שְׁמֶךָ אַבְרָהָם. אָמַר לוֹ, הֲתָם כְּתִיב וְהָיָה, וְעַל דָּא קֵיִימָא בְּהוּא שְׁמָא, אַבְל הֲכָא לֹא כְּתִיב וְהָיָה, אֶלָּא כִּי אִם יִשְׂרָאֵל יְהִיָּה שְׁמֶךָ, וְלֹא כְּתִיב וְהָיָה שְׁמֶךָ יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְאִמְלוּ בְּזִמְנָא חֲדָא סְגִי לִיָּה, בִּ"ש דְּלִזְמִינִין כֶּךָ וְלִזְמִינִין כֶּךָ. וְכַד אֲתַעֲטְרוּ בְּנוֹי בְּכַהְנֵי וְלִיוָאֵי, וְאֲסַתְּלְקוּ בְּדַרְגִּין עַלְאִין, כְּדִין אֲתַעֲטְר בְּשִׁמָּא דָּא תְּדִיר.

17. Every beginning is difficult

Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Elazar discuss the idea that the beginning of any manifestation involves strain and death, which is later followed by relief and ease. Thus, Rachel's death after the birth of Benyamin was a necessary sacrifice in order that the Shechinah could resume Her proper place. Similarly, on Rosh Hashanah the world passes under severe Judgment, followed by relief, forgiveness, and atonement on Yom Kippur. The reason for this, Rabbi Elazar explains, is that beginning is from the left side, which brings harsh Judgment until the right side is aroused and provides relief. However, for idolaters the reverse is true. God shall first treat them gently and then later He will destroy them.

The Relevance of this Passage

Each new beginning in our lives represents the seed of all that will follow. The birth of a child, the outset of a new business enterprise, the start of a marriage--these are all examples of beginnings. Through the mystical words of the sages appearing in this ancient text, we help infuse our beginnings with extraordinary Light and positive energy, so that the seed of all that comes afterward is healthy and strong. We derive the strength to endure through the strains and obstacles of beginnings, and to accelerate the arrival of relief and fruition.

173. While they were walking, Rabbi Yosi said to Rabbi Elazar: We learned that when Rachel died, THE SHECHINAH, who needed the twelve tribes to achieve perfection, took Her house. HE ASKS: Why did Rachel die at that time? WAS THIS CONNECTED TO HER DEATH? He replied: The reason was to enable the Shechinah to be properly crowned and become "a joyful mother of children" (Tehilim 113:9). With BINYAMIN, THE SHECHINAH began to take the house and achieve perfection. HE IS OF THE ASPECT OF YESOD OF THE TWELVE TRIBES, AND IS THEREFORE THE FIRST TO PERFECT THE SHECHINAH. Therefore, THE STANDARD OF Binyamin is always facing west--AS YESOD IS CONSIDERED TO BE OF THE WEST--and not any other side.

173. עַד דְּהוּוּ אֶזְלוּ, אָמַר לוֹ רַבִּי יוֹסִי לְרַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר, הָא אֲתַמְר דְּכַד מֵיִתַּת רַחֵל, נִטְלָא בֵּיתָא מֵאֵן דְּאֶצְטְרִיךְ, לְאַתְתַּקְנָא בְּתַרִּיסַר שְׁבַטִין, כְּדָקָא יֵאוּת, אִמְאֵי מֵיִתַּת רַחֵל מֵיִד, אָמַר לוֹ, הָא לְמַהוּי שְׁכִינְתָּא מִתַּעֲטְרָא כְּדָקָא יֵאוּת, וְלְמַהוּי אִם הַבְּנִים שְׂמַחָה. וְבִיָּה שְׂרִיא לְנִטְלָא בֵּיתָא וְלְאַתְתַּקְנָא. וְעַד, בְּנִימִין הוּא תְּדִיר בְּמַעֲרַב, וְלֹא בְּסִטְרָא אַחֲרָא.

174. With BINYAMIN, the Shechinah begins to achieve perfection through of the twelve tribes. Through him, the Kingdom of Heaven begins to manifest itself on earth, AS THE FIRST KING IN YISRAEL, SHAUL, WAS HIS DESCENDANT. It is a mystery that every manifestation begins with difficulties and contains the sentence of death, but the difficulties are later resolved.

174. וְבִיָּה שְׂרִיא לְאַתְתַּקְנָא, בְּתַרִּיסַר שְׁבַטִין, וְבִיָּה שְׂרִיא מְלָכוּתָא דְּרַקִּיעָא, לְאַשְׁתַּמוּדְעָא בְּאַרְעָא. וְרָזָא דָּא, בְּכָל שִׁירוּתָא, דְּאַתִּיא לְאַשְׁתַּמוּדְעָא, בְּקִשְׁוֹ אִיהוּ, וְעַל דָּא אֵיִת בַּה דִּינָא דְּמוּתָא, וּמִתְּמִן אֲתִישְׁבַּת.

175. When THE SHECHINAH desired to be perfected and take over the house, WITH THE TWELVE TRIBES COMPLETED, judgment was exacted from Rachel AND SHE DIED. Later, She prepared to assume Her proper place. Similarly, when the kingdom wished to establish itself on earth, it started with judgment against Shaul, who was THEN KILLED ON THE MOUNTAINS OF GILBOA, according to his deeds. Only after this judgment was exacted from Shaul the kingdom established and settled ON DAVID.

175. הֲכָא כְּדָ בְּעָא לְאַתְתַּקְנָא, וְלְנִטְלָא בֵּיתָא, אֲתַעֲבִיד דִּינָא בְּרַחֵל, וּבְתַר כֵּן אֲתַתְּקַנְתָּ לְאַתִּישְׁבַּא. כְּדָ בְּעָא לְאַשְׁתַּמוּדְעָא מְלָכוּתָא בְּאַרְעָא, שְׂרִיא כְּדִינָא, וְלֹא אֲתִישְׁבַּת מְלָכוּתָא בְּדוּכְתָא כְּדָקָא יֵאוּת, עַד דְּאַתְעַר דִּינָא בְּשָׂאוּל, לְמוֹם עוֹבְדוּי, וּלְבַתַּר אֲתִישְׁבַּת מְלָכוּתָא וְאַתְתַּקַּנְתָּ.

176. Come and behold: all beginnings are hard, but are followed by relief. Thus, on Rosh Hashanah everyone in the world is judged according to his own actions. Then comes relief and forgiveness and atonement ON YOM KIPPUR. THIS IS FOLLOWED BY THE SUKKOT ('THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES'). The reason is that every beginning has the aspect of the left, whose judgment is severe, but later the right is aroused, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "HIS LEFT HAND IS UNDER MY HEAD," AND THEN, "HIS RIGHT HAND EMBRACES ME" (SHIR HASHIRIM 2:6). Then relief comes.

177. THE REVERSE IS TRUE FOR THE IDOLATROUS PEOPLE OF THE WORLD. In the future, the Holy One, blessed be He, will deal with them gently at first, but afterward with severe Judgment. This is the meaning of the verse: "Hashem shall go forth as a mighty man, He shall stir up ardor like a man of war." First comes "Hashem," the Merciful; then He comes "as a mighty man," not a REAL mighty man; and later, "like a man of war," not a REAL man of war. Finally, Judgment will be given against them, and He will destroy them, as it is written: "He shall cry, indeed, roar, He shall show Himself mighty against His foes" (Yeshayah 42:13), and "Then shall Hashem go out, and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle" (Zechariah 14:3), and "Who is this that comes from Edom, with crimsoned garments from Bozra..." (Yeshayah 63:1)

178. "And it came to pass, as her soul was departing, for she died, that she called his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Binyamin" (Beresheet 35:18). Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse: "Hashem is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble: He knows them that trust in Him" (Nachum 1:7). Happy is the lot of one who is strengthened by the Holy One, blessed be He, because the stronghold of the Holy One, blessed be He, is indeed a stronghold, as it is written: "Hashem is good," as in, "good to all" (Tehilim 145:9); "a stronghold" of salvations, as it is written, "he is the saving strength of His anointed" (Tehilim 28:8). "...in the day of trouble..." is when trouble comes, and the other nations attack Yisrael.

18. "If you faint in the day of adversity"

The rabbis show us that it is incumbent upon man to walk the path of righteousness and to hold tightly to the Torah. This way, we're told, the Evil Inclination becomes our Advocate rather than our Accuser, and rises to vouch for us before God. The sacrifice of the he-goat on Yom Kippur follows this principle. The sacrifice engages the Evil Inclination so that he will ascend and deliver favorable testimony to God. This principle, we learn, is seen in the example of Rachel's death, which was a punishment for Ya'akov. Because Ya'akov did not fulfill his vow to God, and because he uttered a "causeless curse" when he said to Lavan, "Anyone with whom you find your Elohim," the Evil Inclination accused Rachel during a time of danger, and she perished.

The Relevance of this Passage

Spiritual Light gleams on this page, cleansing us of curses we have uttered in the past. A portion of this Light is given to the Evil Inclination, so that his words of praise replace his condemnation in the supernal courts protecting us from Judgments caused by our own negative deeds.

179. Come and behold. HE ASKS: In the verse, "If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small" (Mishlei 24:10), what is the meaning of "you faint?" HE REPLIS: A man whose hands do not firmly hold on to the Holy One, blessed be He, to receive strength from Him. A man can be strengthened by stronger association with the Torah, for whoever is strengthened by the Torah holds more firmly to the Tree of Life, thereby giving power and strength to the Congregation of Yisrael, THE SHECHINAH.

176. תָּא חֲזִי, כָּל שִׁירוֹתָא תְּקִיף, וְלִבְתָּר נִיּוּחָא. בְּרֵאשׁ הַשָּׁנָה, שִׁירוֹתָא תְּקִיף. דְּכָל עֲלָמָא אֲתֵדֵן, כָּל חַד וְחַד לְמוֹם עוֹבְדוּי, וְלִבְתָּר נִיּוּחָא, סְלִיחָה וְכַפּוּרִי. בְּגִין דְּשִׁירוֹתָא אִיהוּ מִשְׁמַלְלָא, וְעַל דָּא דִּינוּי תְּקִיפִין, וְלִבְתָּר אֲתַעַר יְמִינָא, וְעַל דָּא הוּי נִיּוּחָא.

180. But if he relaxes his hold on the Torah, then he faints, and if he is faint in his hold on the Torah, then "in the day of adversity," his "strength is small." When trouble comes, he presses the Shechinah, which is the power of the world.

181. Another explanation of the phrase, "your strength is small," is that when a man is faint in his hold on the Torah and walks a crooked path, many enemies wait to oppress him in a day of adversity. Even his own soul, his power and strength, become his foes and enemy. HE EXPLAINED THE WORDS, "YOUR STRENGTH IS SMALL (HEB. TZAR)," AS "YOUR STRENGTH IS AN ENEMY (HEB. TZAR)," WHICH REFERS TO HIS SOUL, WHICH REFLECTS A MAN'S STRENGTH.

182. Rabbi Aba said that when a man walks the path of the Torah and his ways are duly straight, many advocates stand ready to speak well of him. He opened the discussion with the verse: "If there be an angel over him, an intercessor, one among a thousand, to vouch for a man's uprightness, then He is gracious to him, and says: Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom" (Iyov 33:23-24). We should study these verses carefully. Is not all revealed before the Holy One, blessed be He? Does He need an angel to announce before Him good and evil?

183. HE ANSWERS: ALTHOUGH HE KNOWS EVERYTHING, He surely requires AN ANGEL TO AROUSE MERCY, because when a man has good intercessors who remind the Holy One, blessed be He, of his merits, and no one who speaks of his sins, then "He is gracious to him, and says: Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom."

184. Come and behold: this verse clarifies the matter. It is written, "If there be an angel over him," which should be sufficient. Yet it continues, "an intercessor, one among a thousand." WE SHOULD THEREFORE FIND OUT who he is. HE SAID: This is the angel whose duty it is to be on the left side of man, as it is written: "A thousand shall fall at your side" (Tehilim 91:7). We know this to be the left side from the following words, "and ten thousand at your right hand," (Ibid.) WHICH MEANS THAT "AT YOUR SIDE," WHICH WAS WRITTEN EARLIER, REFERS TO THE LEFT SIDE.

185. The "one among a thousand" is the Evil Inclination, one of the thousand DEMONS of the left side. He ascends to receive permission TO COME DOWN AND KILL. But when a man walks the path of Righteousness, the Evil Inclination becomes his servant, as it is written: "Better is one lightly esteemed who owns a servant" (Mishlei 12:9). He then ascends and becomes his advocate, recalling his merits before the Holy One, blessed be He, and the Holy One, blessed be He, says: "Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom."

181. ד"א צַר כַּחֲכָה, תָּא חֲזִי, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְּבַר נֶשׁ אִתְרַפֵּי מֵאוּרֵייתָא, וְאִזִּיל בְּאַרְחָא דְלָא כְּשָׂרָא, כַּמָּה בְּעָלֵי דְבָבוּ זְמִינִין לִיהּ, לְמַהוּי לִיהּ קְטִיגוּרִין בְּיוֹמָא דְעֲקוּ. וְאִפִּילוּ נִשְׁמַתִּיהּ דְּבַר נֶשׁ, דְּאִיהוּ חִילָא וְתוֹקְפָא דִּילִיהּ, אִיהוּ מְאָרִי דְבָבוּ לְקַבְּלִיהּ, דְּכְתִיב צַר כַּחֲכָה, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ צַר לְגַבִּיּהּ.

182. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְּבַר נֶשׁ אִזִּיל בְּאַרְחֵי דְאוּרֵייתָא, וְכָל אַרְחֵי מִתְתַּקְּנִין כְּדָקָא יָאוּת, כַּמָּה סְנִיגוּרִין קְיִימִין עֲלֵיהּ, לְאַדְכָּרָא לִיהּ לְטַב. פְּתַח וְאָמַר, אִם יֵשׁ עָלָיו מְלָאךְ מְלִיץ אַחַד מִנֵּי אֱלֹף לְהַגִּיד לְאָדָם יִשְׂרָאֵל וַיַּחֲנֶנּוּ וַיֹּאמֶר פְּדֵהוּ מִרְדַּת שַׁחַת מִצְאֲתֵי כְפָר. הֲנִי קְרָאִי אֵיךְ לְאַסְתַּכְּלָא בְּהוּ, וְכִי לָא אִתְגַּלִּי כְּלָא קָמִי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, דְּאִיהוּ צְרִיךְ לְמִלְאכָא, דִּימָא קָמִיהּ טַב אוּ בִישׁ.

183. אֵלָא וְדָאִי אִצְטְרִיךְ, דְּכַד אֵיךְ לִיהּ לְבַר נֶשׁ סְנִיגוּרִין, לְאַדְכָּרָא זְכוּ דִּינֵיהּ קָמִיהּ, וְלָא אֵיךְ לִיהּ קְטִיגוּרִין, כְּדִין וַיַּחֲנֶנּוּ וַיֹּאמֶר פְּדֵהוּ מִרְדַּת שַׁחַת מִצְאֲתֵי כְפָר.

184. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּהָאִי קְרָא תְּשַׁכַּח בְּרִירָא דְמַלְּהָ, כְּתִיב אִם יֵשׁ עָלָיו מְלָאךְ, אִי לָא כְּתִיב יְתִיר, יָאוּת הוּא. אֲבָל מְלָאךְ מְלִיץ אַחַד מִנֵּי אֱלֹף כְּתִיב, וּמֵאֵן אִיהוּ. דָּא הוּא מְלָאךְ, דְּמִמְנָא עָמִיהּ דְּבַר נֶשׁ, בְּסִטְר שְׂמָאלָא, דְּכְתִיב וּפַל מִצְדָּךְ אֱלֹף, וְדָא הוּא סִטְרָא דְשְׂמָאלָא, דְּכְתִיב בְּתַרְיָה וּרְבִבָה מִימִינֶךָ.

185. אֲבָל אַחַד מִנֵּי אֱלֹף, דָּא הוּא יִצַר הָרַע, דְּאִיהוּ אַחַד מֵאַנּוּן אֱלֹף, דְּהוּוּ לְסִטְר שְׂמָאלָא, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ סְלִיק לְעֵילָא, וְנָטִיל רְשׁוּ. וְע"ד, אִי בַר נֶשׁ אִזִּיל בְּאַרְחָ קְשׁוּט, הֵהוּא יִצַר הָרַע, אִיהוּ עֶבֶד לוֹ, כַּמָּה דְאַתְמֹר דְּכְתִיב טוֹב נִקְלָה וְעֶבֶד לוֹ, כְּדִין אִיהוּ סְלִיק, וְאַתְעֵבִיד סְנִיגוּרָא, וְאָמַר קָמִי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא זְכוּ עֲלֵיהּ דְּבַר נֶשׁ. כְּדִין קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אָמַר, פְּדֵהוּ מִרְדַּת שַׁחַת.

186. With all that, the Evil Inclination does not return empty handed. Another man is delivered to him, one whose soul he may take because this man's sins are already known. HE IS CHARGED FOR THEM and is held ransom for the man who escaped. This is the meaning of the sentence, "I have found a ransom," to redeem him.

187. Another explanation of the words, "I have found a ransom," is that THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAYS TO THE ANGEL: The merit you mentioned shall be THAT MAN'S ransom. It will redeem him from dying and going down to Gehenom. Therefore, it behooves a man to walk the path of Truth, so that his accuser shall turn into his advocate.

188. Similarly, the children of Yisrael employ such means on Yom Kippur, by giving THE EVIL INCLINATION, SAMAEL, a goat, NAMELY, A SCAPEGOAT, and thus engaging it until it becomes their servant and ascends to testify before the Holy One, blessed be He, as their intercessor. Solomon said of the Evil Inclination, "If your enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat: and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink" (Mishlei 25:21).

189. Therefore, "on a day of adversity," when man's hold on the Torah is faint, it is as if he brings the Holy One, blessed be He, to HEAR THE ACCUSATIONS OF the Evil Inclination, who becomes his persecutor. THEN, IT IS A DAY OF ADVERSITY, WHEN "your strength is small," (Heb. tzar kochechah) WHICH CONSISTS OF THE WORD tzar koach koh. THIS MAKES SMALL THE POWER (KOACH) OF THE SHECHINAH, REFERRED TO AS KOH, because THE EVIL INCLINATION approaches the presence of THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, to accuse, and the strength OF THE SHECHINAH is diminished BECAUSE OF IT.

190. Come and behold: "Hashem is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble." HE ASKS: What is this "day of trouble?" HE ANSWERS: The time when Esav came to accuse Ya'akov. "He knows them that trust in Him" is when Judgment was severe upon him AND RACHEL DIED, AS WILL BE EXPLAINED.

191. Come and behold: the Accuser is upon man only at a time of danger. Come and see, because Ya'akov was late COMPLETING his vow, which he made before the Holy One, blessed be He, the Accuser exacted Judgment from him and demanded justice at the time when Rachel was in danger. He said to the Holy One, blessed be He: Ya'akov did not fulfill his vow. Although he has wealth and many sons, and lacks nothing, he did not fulfill his vow made before You, and yet You have exacted no punishment. Immediately, "Rachel travailed and was in hard labor," (Beresheet 35:16) because this was the severe judgment that the Angel of Death exacted from him.

186. ועם כל דא, לא אהדר בריקניא, בגין דאתיהיב ליה אחרא, לשלטאה עלוי, וליטול נשמתיה מניה, בגין דאקדים חובוי דהוא בר נש, ואיהו כפר על האי, הדא הוא דכתיב מצאתי כפר למפדי ליה.

187. ד"א מצאתי כפר, ההוא זכו דאמרת, איהו עליה כפר, למפדי ליה. דלא יחות לגיהנום, ולא ימות. ועל דא מבעי ליה לבר נש, למיהך בארץ קשוט, ובגין דיהא ליה ההוא קטיגורא, סניגורא.

188. כגוונא דא, ישראל ביוזמא דכפורי, דיהבי ליה שער, ואתעסיקו בהדיה, עד דאתהדר עבד להו, וסליק וסהיר סהדותא קמי קודשא בריך הוא, ואתעביד להו סניגורא. ועל דא אמר שלמה, אם רעב שנאך האכילהו לחם ואם צמא השקהו מים. ועל האי יצר הרע אתמר.

189. ובגין דא, ביום צרה, כד בר נש אתרפי מאורייתא, כביכול דחיק ליה קודשא בריך הוא, בהדיה דהוא יצר הרע, דאיהו אתעביד קטיגורא. צר כחכה: צר כח כה, בגין דאתקרב קמיה לקטרגא, ואתחלש חילא.

190. תא חזי, טוב יי' למעוז ביום צרה, מאי ביום צרה. דא יעקב כד אתא עליה עשו, לקטרגא ליה. ויודע חוסי בו, כד אתא עליה עקו דדינא.

191. ותא חזי, לית מקטרגא אשתבח עליה דבר נש, אלא בזמנא דסכנה, ותא חזי, בגין דיעקב אחר נדריה, דנדיר קמי קודשא בריך הוא, אתתקף דינא על ידא דמקטרגא, דקטריג עליה דיעקב, ובעא דינא בשעתא דסכנה, דהות רחל בה, אמר קמיה קודשא בריך הוא, והא יעקב נדר נדריה ולא שלים, והא איהו תקיף מכלא, בעותרא, ובבנין, בכל מה דאצטריך, ולא שלים נדריה דנדר קמך, ולא נסבת עונשא מניה, מיד ותלד רחל ותקש בלדתה. מאי ותקש. דאתקשי דינא לעילא, גבי מלאך המות.

192. HE ASKS: Why was Ya'akov punished in this manner? HE REPLIES: This is in accordance with the verse, "If you have nothing with which to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you" (Mishlei 22:27). Therefore Rachel died; this was the judgment exacted by the Angel of Death.

193. Come and behold: what did YA'AKOV do when Esav came? "And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Yosef last of all" (Bereshheet 33:2). What prompted him to do so? He was afraid for Rachel, lest that wicked man should behold her beauty and attack him because of it.

194. It is also written, "Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves," (Bereshheet 33:6) the women before the men. But of Rachel the verse says, "and after came Yosef near and Rachel." Yosef stood before his mother, covering and concealing her. Thus the words, "Yosef is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a well," (Bereshheet 49:22) whose body grew bigger to protect his mother; "by a well (lit. 'an eye')" refers to that wicked man's eye, THAT MAN WHO MUST NOT CAST AN EYE ON HER.

195. Here, RACHEL was punished by the Evil Inclination, which accused her in a time of danger and punished Ya'akov for his unfulfilled vow. This was harder for Ya'akov than all his previous troubles. We know that RACHEL DIED because of Ya'akov from the words, "Rachel died by me"; (Bereshheet 48:7) surely this happened because of me, because I tarried in FULFILLING my vow.

196. Rabbi Yosi said: It is written, "a curse that is causeless shall (lit. 'not'; Heb. lo, Lamed Aleph) come home" (Mishlei 26:2). This has been interpreted as lo (Lamed Vav) - "to him," SO IT WOULD SAY: "A CURSE THAT IS CAUSELESS SHALL COME TO HIM." THIS TEACHES US THAT once a righteous man curses, even if he did not mean TO CURSE, it is received by the Evil Inclination, who uses it to accuse in times of danger.

197. Ya'akov said, "Anyone with whom you find your Elohim, let him not live" (Bereshheet 31:32). Although he did not know THAT RACHEL HAD STOLEN THEM, the Satan, who constantly abides among men, heard these words AND USED THEM TO ACCUSE IN A TIME OF DANGER. We therefore learned that a man should never open his mouth for the Satan, because he takes that utterance and uses it to accuse above and below, especially if the utterance came from the mouth of a righteous man or a sage. Rachel was punished for two reasons: BECAUSE YA'AKOV WAS LATE IN FULFILLING HIS VOW, AND BECAUSE OF THE CURSE HE UTTERED.

192. וְאֶתְעַנֵּשׂ יַעֲקֹב בְּהָאֵי, מֵאֵי טַעֲמָא. בְּגִין דְּכִתְיִב, וְאִם אֵין לֶךְ לְשִׁלְמִים לְמַה יִּקַּח מִשְׁכָּבְךָ מִתַּחְתֶּיךָ, וְעַל דָּא מִיתַת רַחֵל, וְאֶתְמַסֵּר דִּינָא, עַל יְדָא דְמַלְאָךְ הַמּוֹת.

19. "And it came to pass, as her soul was departing"

Although the soul may depart the body and return during one's lifetime, Rachel's soul did not return and she died. Before she died, she named her last-born child Ben-oni, because of the severe Judgment against her. Ya'akov then renamed his youngest son Benjamin, also to bind him to the right side, just as he attached Rachel to Mercy.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section helps deepen our understanding of the importance of names, and of their influence on our destiny through the attraction or deflection of the Light. We achieve a greater connection to our own name and the particular influences that it radiates.

198. "And it came to pass, as her soul was departing for she died." Rabbi Aba asked: If the words, "as her soul was departing," mean that she died, WHY DOES THE VERSE CONTINUE WITH THE WORDS, "FOR SHE DIED?" HE REPLIED: THE WORDS, "FOR SHE DIED," were necessary TO INDICATE THAT THE SOUL did not return to the body, and she died bodily. THE DEPARTURE OF THE SOUL IS NOT AN INDICATION OF BODILY DEATH, for there are people whose souls departed and later returned to their places. This is the meaning of the verses: "And his spirit returned to him" (I Shmuel 30:12), "And their heart departed" (Beresheet 42:28), "My soul departed" (Shir Hashirim 5:6), and, "until there was no soul left in him" (I Melachim 17:17). But when RACHEL'S soul departed, it did not return, and she died.

198. וַיְהִי בִצְאֵת נַפְשָׁהּ כִּי מָתָה. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, וְכִי כִּיּוֹן דְּאָמַר וַיְהִי בִצְאֵת נַפְשָׁהּ, לֹא יִדְעֵנָא כִּי מָתָה. אֶלָּא אֶצְטְרִיךְ, בְּגִין דְּלֹא אֶהְדְּרֵת לְגוּפָא יְתִיר, וּמִיתַת רַחֵל מִיַּת גּוּפָא, בְּגִין דְּאִית בְּנֵי נְשָׂא, דְּנַפְקֵי נִשְׁמַתֵּיהוּ וְאֶהְדְּרֵן לְאַתְרֵיהוּ, וְכַד"א, וְתִשָּׁב נַפְשׁוֹ אֵלָיו, וַיֵּצֵא לָבָם, נַפְשֵׁי יֵצְאָה בְּדַבְּרוֹ, לֹא נוֹתְרָה בּוֹ נִשְׁמָה. אֲבָל הָאִי, נִפְקַת נִשְׁמַתָּה, וְלֹא אֶתְהַדְּרֵת לְאַתְרָהּ, וּמִיתַת רַחֵל.

199. "That she called his name Ben-oni," because of the severe Judgment decided against her. Ya'akov, however, turned him to the right, NAMELY, TO CHASSADIM, to bind the west, THE NUKVA, to the right. And though he is Ben-oni (lit. 'the son of sorrow') OF THE NUKVA from the aspect of rigorous Judgment, NEVERTHELESS he is the son of the right, because THE NUKVA became attached to the right. HE THEREFORE CALLED HIM 'BINYAMIN', THE 'SON OF RIGHT', BECAUSE HE ATTACHED RACHEL TO THE RIGHT, TO CHASSADIM.

199. וְתִקְרָא שְׁמוֹ בֶן אוֹנִי. דְּקָשְׁיוּ דְּרִינָא דְּאַתְגָּזֵר עָלָהּ. וַיַּעֲקֹב אֶהְדֵּר לִיהָ, וְקָשְׁיִר לִיהָ בִּימִינָא, בְּגִין דְּמַעְרַב אֶצְטְרִיךְ לְקִשְׁרָא לִיהָ לִימִינָא, וְאִף עַל גַּב דְּאִיהוּ בֶן אוֹנִי, סְטָרָא דְּרִינָא קָשְׁיָא, בֶּן יְמִין אִיהוּ, דְּהָא בִּימִינָא אֶתְקַשְׁרֵת.

200. She was buried by the road. Her death and place of burial were known, AND SHE WAS BURIED BY THE ROAD IN AN OPEN PLACE. But the death and burial place of Leah are not recorded, although the four mothers share a secret, as has already been explained.

200. וְאַתְקַבְּרַת בְּאַרְחָא, כְּמָה דְּאַתְמַר, הָאִי אֶתְגַּלִּיא מִיַּתָּהּ וְקְבוּרָתָהּ, אֲבָל לֵאָה לֹא אֶתְגַּלִּיא מִיַּתָּהּ וְקְבוּרָתָהּ. וְאִף עַל גַּב דְּהֵינִי אַרְבַּע אִמְהָן רָזָא אִית לֹוֹן, וְהָא אוֹקְמוּהָ.

20. "And Ya'akov set a pillar"

This section explains the significance of the phrase, "to this day," which is attached to the title quotation. While Rabbi Yosi interprets this as a reference to the day when God resurrects the dead, Rabbi Yehuda explains that it is a reference to the day when the children of Yisrael return from exile, in accordance with the oath that God swore to the Shechinah. At that time, the children of Israel will weep for Rachel, as she wept for their exile--and Rachel, Yisrael, and the Shechinah shall rejoice together by the side of the road.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section accelerates the end of exile for the children of Israel. Moreover, this Light hastens the final Redemption and Resurrection for mankind. On a personal level, this Divine energy helps resurrect areas of our lives that have been disconnected from the Light. We literally gain freedom from the forces of death.

201. "And Ya'akov set a pillar upon her grave." Rabbi Yosi asked: Why DOES THE SCRIPTURE ADD THE WORDS, "TO THIS DAY?" HE REPLIED: Because her burial place will remain uncovered until the day when the Holy One, blessed be He, will raise the dead. Thus, it is said, "to this day," the very day OF RESURRECTION.

201. וַיִּצַב יַעֲקֹב מִצְבָּה עַל קְבוּרָתָהּ, אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, מָאי טַעְמָא. בְּגִין דְּלֹא אֶתְבַּסֵּיא אֶתְרָהּ, עַד יוֹמָא דְּזִמְיִן קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, לְאַחֲיָא מִתְיָא, כְּמָה דְּאַתְמַר, עַד הַיּוֹם, עַד הֵוּא יוֹמָא מְמַשׁ.

202. Rabbi Yehuda said that "to this day" refers to the day when the Shechinah shall repatriate the children of Yisrael from exile to RACHEL'S BURIAL place, as it is written: "And there is hope for your future, says Hashem, and your children shall come back again to their own border" (Yirmeyah 31:16). This is the oath the Holy One, blessed be He, swore TO THE SHECHINAH. And the children of Yisrael, when they return from exile, will stand by Rachel's grave and weep, as she wept for the exile of the children of Yisrael. The scripture therefore reads, "They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them" (Ibid. 8), and "for your work shall be rewarded" (Ibid. 15). At that time, Rachel will rejoice by the road together with Yisrael and the Shechinah, as has already been explained.

202. רבי יהודה אמר, עד יומא, דתהדר שכינתא בגלותהון דישראל, בהוא אתר, בדבר אחר ויש תקוה לאחרייתך נאם יי' ושבנו בנים לגבולם. ודא אומאה, דאומי לה קודשא בריך הוא. וזמינן ישראל, כד יתובון מן גלותא, לקיימא על ההיא קבורה דרחל, ולמבכי תמן, במה דאיהי בכאת על גלותהון דישראל, ועל דא כתיב, בבכי יבאו ובתחנונים אובילים וגו'. וכתיב כי יש שכר לפעולתך. ובהיא שעתא, זמינת רחל, דאיהי בארחה, למחדי בהו בישראל, ועם שכינתא, ואוקמוה חבריאי.

21. "Reuven went...Now the sons of Ya'akov were twelve"

Rabbi Yehuda discusses the power and influence of the Torah for the dead. When the soul of one who labors in the Torah departs this world, it ascends by the Torah's familiar ways, and the Torah preserves the body and guards it against the Judgments of the other world until the day of resurrection. However, when the soul of one who does not labor in the Torah leaves this world, it does not know the paths to follow. Therefore, it "stumbles" and receives punishment.

This section also provides an explanation of Reuven's questionable actions, as related in the title verse. The discussion of this issue reveals that Reuven did not actually lie with Bilhah; rather, he disarranged the couch in order to prevent the Shechinah from performing her conjugal duty with Ya'akov. Thus, Reuven was punished. He was deprived of his birthright, which was transferred to Yosef, in accordance with God's Wisdom. However, Reuven's merits remained intact and his descendants remained worthy of inclusion among the twelve tribes. Similarly, the actions of Eli's son--recounted in the verse, "Now Eli was very old..."--do not mean that he lay with the women at the entrance to the Temple. Instead, he detained them, preventing them from entering until the other sacrifices had been offered, as was appropriate.

The Relevance of this Passage

The quality of life we create for ourselves in the physical realm mirrors the quality of life awaiting us after our departure from this existence. Our quality of life is determined by our actions and their degree of spiritual development via the path of Torah. This section enlightens us to the power of Torah and the path it offers. The radiating Light helps us clearly see the darkened corridors of this life, in order to avoid traveling darkened byways in the hereafter.

203. "And it came to pass, when Yisrael dwelt in that land, that Reuven went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Yisrael heard of it. Now the sons of Ya'akov were twelve" (Bereshheet 35:22-23). Rabbi Elazar said: "when Yisrael dwelt (Heb. shkon) in that land," REFERS TO THE SHECHINAH CALLED 'LAND', for at that time when Leah and Rachel died, THE SHECHINAH became mistress of the house.

203. ויהי בשכן ישראל בארץ ההיא וילך ראובן וישכב את בלהה פלגש אביו וישמע ישראל ויהיו בני יעקב שנים עשר. רבי אלעזר אמר, ויהי בשכן ישראל בארץ ההיא, דהא לאה ורחל מיתו, ונטלא ביתא מאן דנטיל.

204. HE ASKS: Could you possibly think that Reuven lay with Bilhah? HE ANSWERS: As long as Leah and Rachel were ALIVE, the Shechinah hovered over them; once they died, the Shechinah never departed from the house, but dwelt in Bilhah's abode. HE ASKS: Although it was appropriate that the Shechinah should be mistress of the house, THAT IS, BE UNITED WITH YA'AKOV AFTER RACHEL'S DEATH, WHY WAS IT SAID THAT THE SHECHINAH DWELT WITH BILHAH? HE ANSWERS: She would not hover openly about the house if Ya'akov had not formed a union of male and female. Therefore, the Shechinah was to be found in Bilhah's tent, WHERE THERE WAS A UNION OF MALE AND FEMALE.

204. וכי סלקא דעתך, דראובן אזיל ושכיב בהדה דבלהה. אלא, כל יומא דלאה ורחל, שכינתא שרייא עלייהו, והשתא דמיתו, שכינתא לא אתפרשת מן ביתא, ושריא בביתא במשכנא דבלהה, ואף על גב דשכינתא בעיא לנטלא ביתא בדקא יאות, אלמלא יעקב, לא אשתבח בזוגא דכר ונוקבא, לא שריא שכינתא באתגליא בביתא, ועל דא קיימא שכינתא במשכנא דבלהה.

205. When Reuven saw that Bilhah had inherited his mother's place, he upset YA'AKOV'S bed BY TAKING IT AWAY. As the Shechinah was upon it, it is written as if he "lay with Bilhah." Rabbi Yesa said that he slept on the same bed, thus showing disrespect for the Shechinah. FOR THAT REASON, THE VERSE INTIMATES THAT IT WAS AS IF HE LAY WITH HER. But because HE DID NOT SIN, he was not excluded from the TWELVE tribes. Therefore scripture does the reckoning, SAYING, "NOW THE SONS OF YA'AKOV WERE TWELVE," and then, "Reuven, Ya'akov's first-born," thus appointing him head of all the tribes.

205. וְאַתָּא רְאוּבֵן, וּבְגִין דְּחָמָא דְּבִלְהָה יִרְתָּא אֲתָרָא דְּאִמְיָה, אֲזִיל וּבִלְבַל עֶרְסָא, וְעַל דְּקִיּוּמָא שְׂכִינְתָּא עָלָה, כְּתִיב בֵּיהּ וַיִּשְׁכַּב אֶת בִּלְהָה. ר' יוֹסָא אָמַר, דְּנָאִים עַל הָהוּא עֶרְסָא, וְלֹא חֵיּוּשׁ לִיקְרָא דְּשְׂכִינְתָּא. וּבְגִין כֵּךְ, לֹא אֲתַפְּגִים מִחוּשְׁבָּנָא דְּשִׁבְטֵין, וְאַתָּא קָרָא וְעֵבִיד חוּשְׁבָּנָא, בְּגִין כֵּךְ כְּתִיב, בְּכוֹר יַעֲקֹב רְאוּבֵן, וְאִיהוּ עֵבִיד קָרָא רִישָׁא דְּכָל שְׁבְטֵין.

206. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse, "for the ways of Hashem are right, and the just do walk in them: but the transgressors shall stumble in them" (Hoshea 14:10). All the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, are Right and His paths True, but the people in the world do not know or care what they are based upon. "The just do walk in them," because they know the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, and study the Torah. Whoever is occupied in the study of the Torah is familiar with them and treads THE WAYS OF THE TORAH, never deviating right or left.

206. ר' יְהוּדָה פִּתַּח וְאָמַר, כִּי יִשְׂרָיִם דְּרִכֵּי יוֹי וְגוֹ, כָּל אֲרַחוּי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, כְּלָהוּ יִשְׂרָיִם, וְאֲרַחוּי קְשׁוּט, וּבְנֵי עֲלָמָא לֹא יִדְעִין, וְלֹא מְשַׁגְּיחוּן עַל מַה אֵינּוּן קִיּוּמִין. וְעַל דָּא, וְצַדִּיקִים יִלְכוּ בָם, בְּגִין דְּאֵינּוּן יִדְעִין אֲרַחוּי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וּמְשַׁתְּדְּלֵי בְּאוּרִייתָא, דְּכָל מָאן דְּאֲשַׁתְּדַּל בְּאוּרִייתָא, אִיהוּ יִדַע, וְאֲזִיל בְּהוּ, דְּלֹא סָטִי לִימִינָא וְלִשְׂמָאלָא.

207. "But the transgressors shall stumble in them." These words refer to the wicked, who do not study the Torah or care for the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, or know where they are going. Because they do not know how to observe, and do not deal with the Torah, they stumble in this world and in the world to come.

207. וּפּוֹשְׁעִים יִכְשְׁלוּ בָם, אֵלִין אֵינּוּן חֵיבִין, דְּלֹא מְשַׁתְּדְּלֵי בְּאוּרִייתָא, וְלֹא מְסַתְּכְלֵן בְּאֲרַחוּי דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְלֹא יִדְעִין לְאֵן אֲוֹרְחֵי אֲזִלִין, וּבְגִין דְּלֹא יִדְעִי לְאֲסַתְּכְלָא, וְלֹא מְשַׁתְּדְּלֵי בְּאוּרִייתָא, אֵינּוּן כְּשָׁלִי בְּהוּ, בְּאֵינּוּן אֲרַחוּי, בְּהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא, וּבְעֲלָמָא דְּאַתֵּי.

208. Come and behold: when a man who studies the Torah passes away, his soul ascends through the roads and ways of the Torah, which are known to those who follow the ways of the Torah in this world. After they die, they tread these paths in the other world.

208. תָּא חֲזִי כָּל בַּר נֶשׁ דְּאֲשַׁתְּדַּל בְּאוּרִייתָא כַּד נָפִיק מֵהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא, נִשְׁמַתִּיה סְלָקָא בְּאֵינּוּן אֲרַחוּי וּשְׁבִילֵין דְּאוּרִייתָא, וְאֵינּוּן אֲרַחוּי וּשְׁבִילֵין דְּאוּרִייתָא יִדְעִין אֵינּוּן, וְאֵינּוּן הִידְעִי אֲרַחוּי דְּאוּרִייתָא בְּהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא, יִהְיוּן בְּהוּ בְּהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא, כַּד יִפְקוּן מֵהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא.

209. When those who do not study the Torah in this world, those who are not familiar with its roads and ways, leave this world, they do not know which way to go and they stumble. Because they chose ways that are not of the Torah, many judgments are raised against them, and they are punished.

209. וְאֵי לֹא אֲשַׁתְּדְּלוּ בְּאוּרִייתָא בְּהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא, וְלֹא יִדְעִין אֲרַחוּי וּשְׁבִילֵין, כַּד יִפְקוּן מֵהֵאֵי עֲלָמָא, לֹא יִנְדְּעוּן לְמִיָּהֶן בְּאֵינּוּן אֲרַחוּי וּשְׁבִילֵין, וְכְשָׁלִין בְּהוּן, כַּדִּין יִהְיֶה בְּאֲרַחוּי אַחֲרֵינִין, דְּלֹא אֵינּוּן אֲרַחוּי דְּאוּרִייתָא, וְיִתְעַרְוּן לִיהּ בְּכַמְּהָ דִּינִין, וְאַתְעַנְשׁ בְּהוּ.

210. Of he who studies the Torah, it is written, "When you lie down, it shall watch over you; when you wake, it shall talk to you" (Mishlei 6:22). "When you lie down" in the grave, the Torah shall watch over you from the Judgment of that world; "when you wake" refers to the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, will raise spirits and souls that will resurrect the dead. Then, "it shall talk to you," being an advocate for the body, so that the bodies who studied the Torah shall rise in a proper manner. These are those who will rise first to everlasting life, as it is written, "And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life" (Daniel 12:2). Those who deal in everlasting life, the Torah, will awake to everlasting life.

211. Come and behold: the bodies of all the students of the Torah will be preserved, and the Torah shall protect them. The reason is that the Holy One, blessed be He, will arouse a wind, comprised of four winds, CHOCHMAH, BINAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. That wind appears before those who studied the Torah and revives them to everlasting life.

212. You may say that it is written OF THE DEAD THAT YEchezkel RESURRECTED, "Come from the four winds, O breath (also: 'wind')" (Yechezkel 37:9). Why, then, did they die again, DERIVING NO BENEFIT FROM THAT WIND--WHICH COMPRISES THE FOUR WINDS--BY LIVING FOREVER? HE ANSWERS: Come and behold. When the Holy One, blessed be He, revived the dead through Yechezkel, that wind, although it did include the four winds, did not descend IN THE FIRST PLACE to revive them forever, but only to show how the Holy One, blessed be He, will in the future resurrect in the same way the dead and revive them by that wind included OF FOUR WINDS. And although the bones returned to what they were, the Holy One, blessed be He, only wanted to show the world that He will raise the dead in the future. And when He will, it will be for a perfect existence in this world. The Torah will THEN stand as an advocate before the Holy One, blessed be He, for those who strove in the Torah.

210. ומאן דאשתדל באורייתא, מה כתיב, בשכבך תשמר עליך והקיצות היא תשיחך. בשכבך: בקברא, אורייתא תצור עליך מדינא דההוא עלמא. והקיצות: כד קודשא בריך הוא, יתער רוחין ונשמתינן, לאחיאי מתיא, בדין היא תשיחך, היא תהא סניגוריא על גופא, בגין דיקומון אינון גופין, דאשתדלו באורייתא כדקא יאות, ואלין אינון דיקומון בקדמיתא לחיי עלמא, כד"א ורבים מישני אדמת עפר וקיצו אלה לחיי עולם וגו', ואלין אינון לחיי עולם, בגין דאתעסקו בחיי עולם, דאיהי אורייתא.

213. Rabbi Shimon said: The Torah and its words, NAMELY, ITS LOGIC, with which man was occupied in this world, stands ALWAYS before the Holy One, blessed be He, uttering speeches and raising voices. It is not silent. At the time OF RESURRECTION, it will talk and speak in accordance with man's devotion to it and his occupation with it in this world. They will therefore rise to complete existence and everlasting life, as we have said. For that reason, "the ways of Hashem are right, and the just do walk in them: but the transgressors shall stumble in them."

214. Rabbi Chiya continued the discussion with the verse: "Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did to all Yisrael; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting" (I Shmuel 2: 22). HE ASKS: Could it possibly occur to you that the priests of Hashem would do such a thing? The scripture specifies their sins earlier, as it is written: "for the men dishonored the offering of Hashem" (Ibid. 17); "And the priest's custom with the people was, that, when any man offered..." (Ibid. 13); "Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's lad came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give some roasting meat for the priest..." (Ibid. 15); "No; but you shall give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. Wherefore the sin of the lads was very great before Hashem" (Ibid. 16). And although they took only of what was theirs, the priests', to eat, they were nevertheless punished for treating the offering lightly. FROM THIS WE LEARN THAT THEY WERE RIGHTEOUS, AS THEY WERE VERY STRICTLY DEALT WITH. Yet here it is written: "they lay with the women that assembled," AND COMMITTED SUCH A GRAVE OFFENSE.

215. HE ANSWERS: Heaven forbid that they should commit such a transgression, especially in such a holy place, for Yisrael will rise and kill them. But they only detained the women from entering the temple and protested that they must not come in to pray before the offerings were sacrificed. They detained them because their offering held no portion for the priests. This is why THEY DETAINED the women who wanted to enter THE TEMPLE, hence the words, "they lay with the women," that is, held them from entering THE TEMPLE, AS WE HAVE SAID.

213. רבי שמעון אמר כל אינון מלין דאורייתא, וכל ההיא אורייתא, דאשתדל בה בר נש בהאי עלמא, אינון מלין, וההיא אורייתא, קיימא קמי קודשא בריך הוא, ואמרת קמיה, והיא ארימת קלין, ולא אשתכבת, ולהוא זמנא, איהי תשיח ותימא, כפום דאתדבק בר נש, ואשתדל בהאי עלמא, ועל דא אינון יקומון בקיומא שלים לחיי עלמא בדקאמרן, ובגין כך כי ישרים דרכי יי' וצדיקים ילכו בם ופושעים יכשלו בם.

214. ר' חייא פתח ואמר, ועלי זקן מאד ושמע את אשר יעשונו בניו לכל ישראל ואת אשר ישכבן את הנשים הצבאות פתח אהל מועד. וכי ס"ד, דכהני יי', דיעבדון עבידתא דא, והא מקדמת דנא אתמר, ופרישת אורייתא ההוא חובא דלהון, דכתיב כי נאצו האנשים את מנחת יי'. וכתיב ומשפט הכהנים מאת העם כל איש זובח זבח וגו', וכתיב גם בטרם יקטירון את החלב ובא נער הכהן ואמר לאיש הזובח תנה לצלות לכהן וגו'. וכתיב ואמר לו כי עתה תתן ואם לא לקחתי בחזקה. ועל דא ותהי חטאת הנערים גדולה מאד וגו'. וכל דא לא הו נטלין, אלא מאינון חולקין, דהו להו לכהני למיכל מניה, ועל דהו קליל קרבנא בעינייהו אתענשו, והכא אמר את אשר ישכבון את הנשים הצבאות.

215. אלא, ח"ו דהו עבדו עבירה דא, כ"ש באתרא קדישא ההוא, דלא יקומון כל ישראל ויקטלון להון. אלא, בגין דהו מעבבי לון לאעלא למקדשא, ומחאן בידהון, דלא לאעלא למצלי צלותא, עד דקורבניא אתעבדו, בגין דאינון לא מיייתין קרבנין למיטל חולקא מנייהו, ובגין כך מעבבין לון. ובגין כך, אינון נשים הו בעאן מנייהו לאעלא תמן, ועל דא כתיב את אשר ישכבון את הנשים, דמעבבי לון בדקאמרן.

216. There is a similar meaning in the words, "and lay with Bilhah" (Beresheet 35: 22). Heaven forbid that he lay with her; he only stopped her from performing her marital duty with Ya'akov by disarranging the bed. He did this in the presence of the Shechinah, because wherever intercourse is performed according to the law, the Shechinah hovers about and dwells in that place. He who blocks the commandment of intercourse causes the departure of Shechinah from the world. It is therefore written, "you went up to your father's bed; then you did defile it: he went up to my couch," (Beresheet 49:4) and "he lay with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Yisrael heard of it. Now the sons of Ya'akov were twelve," WHICH TEACHES US THAT all of them were counted, and their merit remained intact.

217. Rabbi Elazar asked: Why was he first called Yisrael and then Ya'akov in the verse, "and Yisrael heard of it. Now the sons of Ya'akov were twelve?" HE ANSWERS: When Reuven disarranged the bed, he said, What DOES THIS MEAN? My father had to bring twelve tribes into the world and now he wishes to beget sons. Are we deficient that he desires others IN OUR STEAD? Immediately, he disarranged the bed and intercourse was thwarted. It was CONSIDERED as if he showed contempt toward the Shechinah, who then hovered over the bed. Therefore it is written, "and Yisrael heard of it," for by using this name, he was elevated to the secret twelve GRADES, the twelve rivers of pure balsam.

218. "Now the sons of Ya'akov were twelve." This refers to the twelve tribes by which the Shechinah was perfected. The Torah again enumerated them as it did before REUVEN'S SIN. They are all holy and the Shechinah considered them worthy of beholding the sanctity of their Master. Had Reuven really sinned, he would not have been counted among the tribes.

219. Even so, REUVEN was punished. His birthright was taken from him and given to Yosef, as it is written: "Now the sons of Reuven the firstborn of Yisrael, for he was the firstborn; but since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Yosef" (I Divrei Hayamim 5:1). Come and behold: "Blessed be the name of Elohim for ever and ever" (Daniel 2:20). His works are all true, His ways just, and His deeds follow the Supernal Wisdom.

219. וְעַם כָּל דָּא אֲתַעַנְשׁ, דְּאֲתַנְטִיל בְּכוֹרְתִיהּ מְנִיָּה, וְאֲתִיְהִיב לְיוֹסֵף, כִּד"א וּבְנֵי רְאוּבֵן בְּכוֹר יִשְׂרָאֵל כִּי הוּא הַבְּכוֹר וּבְחַלְלוּ יְצוּעֵי אֲבוּי נִתְּנָה בְּכוֹרְתוֹ לְיוֹסֵף. תָּא חֲזִי לְהוּא שְׁמֵהּ דִּי אֱלֹהָא מְבָרַךְ מִן עֲלָמָא וְעַד עֲלָמָא דִּי כָּל מַעֲבְדוּהֵי קְשׁוּט וְאַרְחֻתִיהּ דִּין, וְכָל מָה דְּאִיהוּ עַבִּיד, כִּלְא אִיהוּ בְּחֻכְמָתָא עֲלָאָה.

220. Come and behold: Everything man does has an effect, for it is written and preserved before the Holy One, blessed be He. When Ya'akov came in to Leah, his heart and desires were with Rachel the whole night, because he thought she was Rachel. From that union, from the first seed and desire, Leah conceived. It was explained that if Ya'akov had known SHE WAS LEAH, BUT NEVERTHELESS THOUGHT OF RACHEL, Reuven would not have been considered to be one OF THE TRIBES. HE WOULD HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED A CHANGELING SON. BUT SINCE IT WAS IN THE ABSENCE OF INTENT, the offspring was not given a specific name, but just called 'Reuven' (lit. 'see, a son'.)

220. תָּא חֲזִי, כִּמָּה גְרִים עֹבְדָא דְּבַר נֶשׁ, דִּהָא כָּל מְאִי דְאִיהוּ עֵבִיר, כִּלְא אֲתֵרְשִׁים וְקִיּוּמָא קְמִי דְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, דִּהָא יַעֲקֹב בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְעָל לְגַבָּה דְלֵאָה, כָּל הָהוּא לִילָא, רַעוּתִיהּ וְלִבִּיהּ הוּהּ בְרַחֵל, דְחָשִׁיב דְרַחֵל אִיהִי, וּמַהֲהוּא שְׁמוּשָׁא וְטַפָּה קְדַמָּאָה וּמַהֲהוּא רַעוּתָא, אֲתַעְבְּרַת לָאָה, וְאוֹקְמוּהָ, דִּהָא אֲלִמְלָא דִיעֲקֹב לֹא יָדַע, לֹא יִסְתַּלִּיק רְאוּבֵן בְּחוּשְׁבָנָא. וְעַל דָּא לֹא אִסְתַּלַּק בְּשִׁמָּא יָדִיעָא, אֲלֵא שְׁמִיהּ סָתָם רְאוּבֵן.

221. Nevertheless, everything reverted to its proper place. Because Ya'akov's original desire was for Rachel, the desire reverted to Rachel, since the birthright was returned to Yosef, Rachel's eldest son, the place where the desire was, THAT IS, Rachel. Thus, all was properly settled, because all the works of the Holy One, blessed be He, are true and just.

221. וְעַם כָּל דָּא, אֶהְדֵּר עֹבְדָא לְאֲתֵרִיהּ, כִּמָּה דִּהוּא רַעוּתָא קְדַמָּאָה אֲתַעְבְּרַת בְּרַחֵל, הָהוּא רַעוּתָא אֲתַהְדְּרַת בֵּהּ, דִּהָא בְּכוּרְתִיהּ אֶהְדְּרַת לְיוֹסֵף בּוֹכְרָא דְרַחֵל, אֲתֵר דִּרַעוּתָא הוּת בְּרַחֵל, וְכִלְא סְלִיק בְּאֲתֵרִיהּ, בְּגִין דְכָל עֹבְדוֹ דְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא כִלְהוּ קְשׁוּט וְזָכוּ.

22. "Who is this coming out of the wilderness"

Smoke that rises from the fat dropping into the fire while Rabbi Yosi cooks, leads to a discussion and interpretation of the title quotation. Rabbi Yosi explains that when the children of Yisrael offered sacrifices, smoke rising straight up meant that the candle that had been lit was indeed worthy of being lit. However, once the Temple was destroyed, joy was replaced by rage in both the Upper and Lower Worlds, and the children of Israel went into exile under the dominion of other gods. As they traveled through the desert, the Shechinah went before them in a cloud of smoke. The Shechinah was attached to all three columns--that is, to Avraham, Yitzchak, Ya'akov, and Yosef, the latter two being of one essence. The reason for the exile, we're told, is "you would not serve The Creator, your Elohim with joyfulness." Thus, the children of Yisrael shall suffer until God rises up to redeem them among the nations.

The Relevance of this Passage

In a spiritual context, the notion of offering sacrifices for the purpose of "lighting the candle worthy of being lit," refers not to the sacrificial slaughter of animals, but to the sacrifice of ego in order to ignite the Light of the soul. The many sacrifices described in Scripture pertain to the various negative traits dwelling within the consciousness of man. Removing these traits is the basis of all spiritual work. Enlightened with this spiritual perspective, these verses help us sacrifice negative characteristics, allowing the Light of our souls to shine ever more brightly.

222. On a visit to Rabbi Yosi, Rabbi Chizkiyah saw a piece of meat drop FROM HIS POT into the fire. As a result of the dripping of the fat, smoke rose up. He said to him: Had the pillars of smoke from the offering risen from the altar like this smoke, there would have been no wrath upon the world and Yisrael would not have gone into exile from their land.

222. רַבִּי חִזְקִיָּה אֲשַׁכְּחִיהּ יוּמָא חַד לְרַבִּי יוֹסִי, דִּהוּהּ מִסְטָמִיט סַפְסִינָא גּוּ קְטָרִי דְנֹרָא, וְהוּהּ סְלִיק קְטוּרָא דְתַנְנָא לְעִילָא. אֲמַר לוֹ, אֵלּוּ קְטוּרָא דְתַנְנָא דְקַרְבָּנָא, דִּהוּהּ סְלִיק עַל גְּבִי מִדְּבַחָא, הוּהּ סְלִיק תְּדִיר כִּי הָאִי גּוּוּנָא, לֹא שְׂרִיָּא רוּגְזָא בְּעֵלְמָא, וְיִשְׂרָאֵל לֹא אֲתַגְלִי מֵעַל אֶרֶעָא.

223. Rabbi Yosi answered by quoting the verse: "Who is this coming out of the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?" (Shir Hashirim 3:6) WHAT IS THE MEANING OF, "Who is this coming out?" HE REPLIS: Come and behold. When the children of Yisrael were walking in the desert, the Shechinah went before them. They followed, as it is written, "And Hashem went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; that they might go..." (Shemot 13:21). Therefore, it is written: "Thus says Hashem; I remember in your favor, the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, when you did go after me in the wilderness" (Yirmeyah 2:2). THUS, THE SHECHINAH WENT BEFORE THEM, AND THEY FOLLOWED. THIS MEANS THAT THEY RECEIVED FROM HER BACK, AS WILL BE MENTIONED SHORTLY.

224. The Shechinah advanced with all the clouds of glory about Her. When the Shechinah would go, so would the children of Yisrael, as it is written: "And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Yisrael journeyed" (Bemidbar 9:17). When She ascended, the cloud rose high, and all the people of the world saw and asked, "Who is this coming out of the wilderness like columns of smoke?"

225. The cloud in which the Shechinah was seen was made of smoke. Why? Because the light kindled by Avraham and Yitzchak, his son, clung to Her and never left Her. Whenever the fire seized Her, smoke would rise up.

226. Moreover, She was "perfumed with myrrh and frankincense." By "perfumed," it is meant that She was attached to the other two sides, MITIGATING AND ENVELOPING ONE ANOTHER, Avraham's cloud on the right and Yitzchak's cloud on the left. The "powders of the merchant" refers to Ya'akov. THIS MEANS SHE WAS CONNECTED TO THE THREE COLUMNS: "MYRRH" IS THE RIGHT COLUMN, AVRAHAM; "FRANKINCENSE" IS THE LEFT COLUMN, YITZCHAK; AND "ALL THE POWDERS OF THE MERCHANT" IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN THAT CONNECTS BOTH, THIS IS WHY IT IS CALLED A MERCHANT WHO HOLDS BOTH TYPES OF FRAGRANCE IN HIS HANDS.

227. Another explanation is that the "powders of the merchant" refers to Yosef the Righteous, for his coffin (lit. 'ark'), YESOD, traveled by Her. He was called a merchant (Heb. rochel; also: 'talebearer') because he slandered his brothers (Heb. rechilut) before his father. According to another explanation, he was thus called because just as a merchant possesses all kinds of bundles of incense and perfumed herb powders, so Yosef maintained the Torah, for he observed it as all the precepts of the Torah are connected to keeping the Holy Covenant, WHICH HE DID.

223. פתח ר' יוסי ואמר, מי זאת עלה מן המדבר בתימרות עשן מקטרת מר ולבונה מכל אבקת רוכל. מי זאת עולה. תא חזי, בזמנא דהווי ישראל אזלי במדברא, שכינתא אזלא קמייהו, ואינהו הוו אזלי אבתרה, דכתיב וה' הולך לפניהם יומם בעמוד ענן לנחותם הדרך ולילה בעמוד אש להאיר להם וגו'. ובגין כך כתיב, כה אמר ה' זכרתי לך חסד נעוריך אהבת כלולותיך לכתר אחרי במדבר וגו'.

224. ושכינתא הוה אזלא, וכלהו ענני יקר בהדה. וכד הוה שכינתא נטלה, הווי נטלין, כמה דכתיב ובהעלות הענן מעל האהל ואחרי כן יסעו בני ישראל וגו'. וכד איהי סלקא, ההוא עננא סלקא עד לעילא, וכל בני עלמא חמאן, ושאלי ואמרי, מי זאת עולה מן המדבר בתימרות עשן.

225. ההוא עננא דשכינתא אתחזיא עשן, מ"ט איהי עשן, בגין דנורא דאדליק אברהם ויצחק בריה, הוה אחיד בה, ולא אערי מינה, וכד אתאחדת ההוא נורא בגוה, הוה סליק תננא.

226. ועם כל דא, מקטרת מר ולבונה, מאי מקטרת, מתקטרא בתרין סטרין אחרנין, עננא דאברהם לימינא, עננא דיצחק לשמאלא, מכל אבקת רוכל, דא יעקב.

227. דבר אחר, מכל אבקת רוכל דא יוסף הצדיק, בגין דארונא דיוסף, הוה אזיל לגביה, אמאי רוכל, בגין דהוה רכיל לאחוי לגביה דאבוי. דבר אחר אמאי רוכל, אלא מה חנוני דא, קטורי דקוסטרי, ואבקי דפולמי, בלהו בידיה, הכי נמי יוסף, איהו קיומא דאורייתא, בגין דאיהו קיים לה, בגין דכל פקודי אורייתא, מתקשרן בנטירו דברית קדישא.

228. Another explanation connects the powders with Avraham, Yitzchak, Ya'akov, and Yosef, who had one and the same image. This is the meaning of the verse: "These are the generations of Ya'akov. Yosef" (Bereshheet 37:2). Thus, the words, "with all powders of the merchant" refer to the source from which the river is drawn and flows, YESOD, WHICH IS YOSEF. Everything is watered from it and the faces of all are illuminated.

229. Come and behold: when Yisrael dwelt in their land and offered sacrifices, they approached nearer to the Holy One, blessed be He. When the sacrifice was offered and the smoke rose straight, they knew that the smoke from the altar lit the candle worthy of being lit; all faces shone and the candles were burning.

230. Since the Temple was destroyed, not a day passes without wrath and anger, as it is written, "and an El who had indignation every day" (Tehilim 7:12). Joy was banished above and below, and the children of Yisrael went into exile under the dominion of other Elohim. Then, the verse is fulfilled, as it is written: "and there you shall serve other Elohim" (Devarim 28:64).

231. HE ASKS: Why DID YISRAEL DESERVE all this? HE ANSWERS: As it is written, "Because you would not serve Hashem your Elohim with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things" (Ibid. 47-48). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "the abundance of all things?" HE ANSWERS: Here, there is "the abundance of all things," and there, "want of all things."

232. So it shall be until the Holy One, blessed be He, arouses Himself and redeems us from among the nations, as it is written: "that then Hashem your Elohim will turn your captivity, and have compassion upon you, and will return and gather you from all the nations, amongst whom Hashem your Elohim had scattered you. If your outcasts be at the utmost parts of heaven, from there will Hashem your Elohim gather you..." (Devarim 30:3-4).

23. "Now these are the generations of Esav"

This passage explains why Scripture does not enumerate the sons of Esav until after the death of Yitzchak, while Ya'akov's sons are enumerated long before he dies. This, we learn, is because Esav abandoned the true Faith completely, leaving Ya'akov with an enhanced portion, as well as the heritage of his father and his ancestors.

The Relevance of this Passage

Yitzchak, his son Ya'akov, and their succeeding generations, forged the spiritual path that led to the revelation of the Torah, and therefore, they represent its eternal, supernal Light. Esav, however, embodies the force of darkness and eternal death. This section connects us to Light of the Torah, expressed through the patriarchs Yitzchak and Ya'akov.

228. ועל דא, שכינתא מתקטרא, באברהם יצחק ויעקב ויוסף, פחדא אינון, ודיוקנא חדא להו, הדא הוא דכתיב, אלה תולדות יעקב יוסף. ובגין כך, מכל אבקת רובל, בגין דמאתר דנהרא דנגיד ונפיק, אשתקויא כלא, ונהירו כל אנפין.

229. ותא חזי, כד הוו ישראל בארעא, והוו מקריבין קרבנין, בלהו הוו מתקרבין לגבי קודשא בריך הוא פדקא יאות, וכד קרבנא אתעביד, ותננא סליק בארע מישר, כדי הוו ידעי, דתננא דמרבחא אדליק בוצינא, דאתחזיא לאדלקא, וכל אנפין נהירין ובוצינין דלקין.

230. ומיומא, דאתחריב בי מקדשא, לית לך יומא ויומא, דלית ביה זעימו ורוגזא, כדבר אחר ואל זועם בכל יום, ואתפרש חדוה מעילא ומתתא, וישראל אזלין בגלותא, ואינון ברשו דטעוון אחרנין, וכדין אתקיים קרא דכתיב, ועבדת שם אלהים אחרים.

231. וכל דא למא, בגין דכתיב, תחת אשר לא עבדת את יי' אלהיך בשמחה ובטוב לבב מרוב כל, מאי מרוב כל. הכא מרוב כל, והתם בחסר כל.

232. עד דיתער קודשא בריך הוא ויפרוק לון מביני עממיא, כמא דאת אמר, ושב יי' אלהיך את שבותך ורחמך ושב וקבצך מכל העמים אשר הפיצך יי' אלהיך שמה. וכתיב אם יהיה נדחך בקצה השמים משם יקבצך וגו'.

233. "Now these are the generations of Esav, who is Edom" (Bereshheet 36:1). Come and behold: Esav's sons were not counted while Yitzchak was alive, as were the sons of Ya'akov, who were counted before he died. Of Esav it is written: "And Yitzchak expired, and died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esav and Ya'akov buried him," followed by "Now these are the generations of Esav, who is Edom." Why WERE THEY NOT COUNTED IN HIS LIFETIME? Because only Ya'akov and his sons are the portion, inheritance, and lot OF YITZCHAK. For that reason, Ya'akov and his sons, who are the portion of the Holy One, blessed be He, were counted. Esav, however, had no portion in the side of the faith. Therefore, his accounts were settled only after Yitzchak died, when his portion was separated FROM HOLINESS into another place.

234. Come and behold: after Yitzchak died and Esav went to his side, it is written: "And Esav took his wives...away from his brother Ya'akov" (Bereshheet 36:6). In doing this, he left both capital and profit to Ya'akov, HE RELINQUISHED the bondage of Egypt, WHICH IS THE CAPITAL AND THE PROFIT THEREFROM, THE HERITAGE OF the Land of Yisrael. He sold his share of the cave of the Machpelah and went from the land, the faith, and his portion, thus walking away from AND LEAVING everything.

235. Come and behold: how much Ya'akov's portion was increased in all respects when Esav left him and went to his own lot and portion. Ya'akov thus continued to hold the heritage of his father and his ancestors. And so it is written: "and went into another country away from his brother Ya'akov." HE ASKS: Why is it written, "away from his brother Ya'akov?" HE ANSWERS: Because he did not care for his inheritance or share YA'AKOV'S lot of faith. Happy is the lot of Ya'akov, of whom the verse says, "For Hashem's portion is His people; Ya'akov is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9).

24. "And these are the kings"

Rabbi Yesa begins a discussion of the verse, "Behold, I will make you small among nations..." After God created the world, he placed seventy ministers over the seventy nations. These ministers are best described as intelligent supernal influences; they are angelic forces that rule and direct the affairs of the nations on a spiritual level. Of all the ministers, Esav is the most despised before God, as he represents the Side of Defilement. The lower grades, we learn, form a hierarchy and are linked and interlocked by a bond that holds them to their proper side. The Unclean Side diverges into numerous paths and distributes power to the multitudes in the Lower World. The quotation, "These are the kings," refers to the grades of Esav which reigned before there was any king over Yisrael, before the higher grades were perfected and the kingdom of Heaven was established in its own place, never to be removed.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section arouses the Light of protection against the powers of darkness. Though unseen, these negative entities are as real as the equally invisible atoms or the force of gravity.

233 וְאֵלֶּה תּוֹלְדוֹת עֵשָׂו הוּא אֲדוֹם. תָּא חַזִּי, בְּחַיֵּי יִצְחָק, לֹא אֶתְמַנּוּן בְּנוֵי דְעֵשָׂו, כְּמָה דְאֶתְמַנּוּן בְּנוֵי דְיִעֲקֹב, דְּהָא עַד לֹא מֵית יִצְחָק אֶתְמַנּוּן, אֲבָל בְּעֵשָׂו מַה כְּתִיב, וַיְגַעַע יִצְחָק וַיָּמָת וַיֵּאֶסֶף אֶל עַמּוּי זְקֵן וּשְׁבַע יָמִים וַיִּקְבְּרוּ אֹתוֹ עֵשָׂו וַיַּעֲקֹב בְּנָיו, בְּתַרְיָה מַה כְּתִיב וְאֵלֶּה תּוֹלְדוֹת עֵשָׂו הוּא אֲדוֹם. מֵאֵי טַעְמָא, בְּגִין דְּהָא בְּחוּלְקִיָּהּ וּבְאַחְסַנְתִּיהָ וְעַדְבֵּיהָ, לֹאֻ אִיהוּ, אֲלֵא יַעֲקֹב וּבְנוֹי. וּבְגִין כֵּן, יַעֲקֹב וּבְנוֹי, אִינוּן חוּלְקִיָּהּ דְקוֹדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, וְעֵאלִין בְּחוּשְׁבָּנָא. אֲבָל עֵשָׂו, דְּלֹאֻ אִיהוּ בְּחוּלְקָא דְבִסְטָר דְּמַהִימְנוּתָא, עֵבִיד חוּשְׁבָּנִיה, לְבַתַּר דְּמֵית יִצְחָק, וְאֶתְפָּרַשׁ חוּלְקִיָּהּ דְאֶתְרֵי אַחְרָא.

236. "And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Yisrael" (Bereshheet 36:31). Rabbi Yesa began the discussion with the verse: "Behold, I will make you small among the nations: you are greatly despised" (Ovadyah 1:2). Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He divided the earth into seven regions that correspond to the seventy ministers APPOINTED OVER THE NATIONS. THESE ARE THE SECRET OF THE EXTERIOR--CHESD, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT--EACH CONSISTING OF TEN AND THEREBY TOTALING SEVENTY. The Holy One, blessed be He, appointed THE SEVENTY MINISTERS over the seventy nations, each according to its worth, as it is written: "When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Yisrael" (Devarim 32:8).

237. Among all the ministers appointed over the nations, no one is as despised before THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, as Esav's minister, because Esav represents the Side of Defilement, which is despicable before the Holy One, blessed be He. ESAV'S MINISTER was issued from the small grades behind the millstones. From the emptiness of the red sides came THE MINISTER OF ESAV. Therefore it is written, "Behold, I will make you small among the nations: you are greatly despised," which has the same meaning as "upon your belly shall you go, and dust shall you eat all the days of your life" (Bereshheet 3:14), 'greatly' resembles the words, "You are cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field" (Ibid.).

238. Come and behold: within the lower grades, there are grades upon grades that are all different than each other. Yet, they are both detached from and attached to each other IN SUCH A WAY THAT Malchut OF EACH OF THE GRADES is separated, yet each Malchut is interconnected to Malchut. THE REASON IS THAT as one enters, another ascends and thus, they are united by a bond.

239. This bond has one level OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Each level contains three bonds; AS THE CENTRAL COLUMN CONTAINS ALL THREE COLUMNS; each bond contains one crown, NAMELY, THE CROWN REFERRED TO IN THE VERSE, "THE CROWN WITH WHICH HIS MOTHER CROWNED HIM" (SHIR HASHIRIM 3:11). And in every crown there is a singular force of command.

240. THE FORCE OF COMMAND was assigned by being crowned from above, and assigned to descend until the stars and constellations are attached to it. Every FORCE OF COMMAND IN EACH OF THE THREE CROWNS contains one star and one constellations. Because all the stars are connected to the upper grades, AND THE CONSTELLATIONS TO THE LOWER GRADES, each grade is crowned in certain places, according to its INDIVIDUAL worth.

236. וְאֵלֶּה הַמְּלָכִים אֲשֶׁר מָלְכוּ בְּאֶרֶץ אֲדוֹם לִפְנֵי מֶלֶךְ מֶלֶךְ לִבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. רַבִּי יוֹסֵא פָתַח וְאָמַר, הִנֵּה קֵטָן נִתְתִּיךָ בְּגוֹיִם בְּזוּי אֶתָּה מְאֹד. תָּא חַזִּי, כִּד עֵבֶד קוֹדֵשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עֲלֵמָא, וּפְלַג אֶרְעָא, לְשִׁבְעָה תַּחּוּמֵי, פְּלִיגִין לְקַבִּיל שְׁבַעִין רַבְרַבִּין מִמֶּנּוּ, וְקוֹדֵשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא פְּלִיג לֹון לְשִׁבַּעִין עֲמִין, כֹּל חַד וְחַד כְּדָקָא חַזִּי לִיה, כִּד"א בְּהַנְחֵל עֲלִיוֹן גּוֹיִם בְּהַפְרִידוּ בְּנֵי אָדָם יֵצֵב גְּבוּלוֹת עַמִּים.

240. וְאֶתְמַנָּא בְּעֵטוֹרָא דְלְעִילָא, וְאֶתְמַנָּא וְנַחִית לְתַתָּא, עַד דְּאֶתְקַשְׁרוּ בֵּיה, כְּכַבִּיא וּמְזֻלֵי, כֹּל חַד וְחַד אֶתְפָּרֵשׁ בֵּיה, חַד כְּכַבָּא, וְחַד מְזֻלָּא, וְכֹל כְּכַבִּיא זְמִינִין אִינּוֹן, בְּאִינּוֹן דְרַגִּין דְלְעִילָא. וְעַל דָּא, כֹּל דְרַגָּא וְדְרַגָּא, אֶתְעַטֵּר בְּאֶתְרִין יְדִיעֵן כְּדָקָא חַזִּי.

241. When the grades diverge, they form a disrupting link, until it is connected to its worthy place, and the aspects of the defiled grades of the left side all diverge into several ways and paths of the aspects of the red Gvurot THAT RUN FROM BINAH, THE SECRET OF RED, and because lower Gvurot are counted below by the thousands and myriads, then "Behold, I will make you small among the nations: you are greatly despised."

241. וְכֹד מִתְפָּרֵשׁ דְּרָגִין, אֲשֶׁתֵּכָח קְטוֹרָא דְּפוֹסְתָּקָא, עַד דְּאִתְקַשְׂרָא בְּסִטְרָא דְּאִתְחַזֵּי לֹון, וְסִטְרֵי דְּדְרָגֵי מְסֻאֵבִי, דְּאִינוּן בְּסִטְרֵי שְׂמֵאלָא, בְּלֵהוּ מִתְפָּרֵשׁ, לְכַמָּה אֲרַחֲזִין וְשְׂבִילִין, מְסִטְרֵי גְבוּרָן סוּמְקָן. וּבג"כ, תְּלִיין גְבוּרָן לְתַתָּא, לְאַלְף אֲלִפִּין, וְרַבּוּ רַבְבָּן, וְעַל דָּא הִנֵּה קִטְוִן נִתְתִּיךְ בְּגוֹיִם בְּזוּי אִתָּה מְאֹד, בְּדִקְאֻמְרוֹן.

242. Come and behold: "And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom." "...the land..." is the side of Esav's grade, as it is written, "Esav, who is Edom." All THESE KINGS came from the side of the unclean spirit. "...before there reigned any king over the children of Yisrael" refers to these grades OF ESAV, which stand at the lower gates and are the first TO BE PERFECTED. The reason Ya'akov said, "Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant" (Beresheet 33:14), is that Esav's grades are the first to enter AND BE PERFECTED, FOR THE LOWER GRADES ARE CORRECTED FIRST AND THE HIGHER GRADES LATER. They were, therefore, "before there reigned any king over the children of Yisrael," for the time had not come for the Kingdom of Heaven to rule and join hands with the children of Yisrael. He therefore said, "Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant."

242. תָּא חֲזִי, וְאֵלֵה הַמְּלָכִים אֲשֶׁר מָלְכוּ בְּאֶרֶץ אֲדוֹם, בְּאֶרֶץ: בְּסִטְרָא דְּדְרָגָא דִּילֵיהּ, דְּאִיהוּ דְּרָגָא דְּעֵשׂוֹ, דְּכִתְיִב עֵשׂוֹ הוּא אֲדוֹם, וְכִלְהוּ קְאִתּוּ מְסִטְרָא דְּרוּחַ מְסֻאָבָא. לְפָנֵי מֶלֶךְ מֶלֶךְ לְבָנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּגִין דְּאִינוּן דְּרָגִין דְּקִיּוּמִין בִּי תִרְעִי לְתַתָּא קְדָמָא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ אָמַר יַעֲקֹב, יַעֲבֵר נָא אֲדָנִי לְפָנֵי עַבְדּוֹ, בְּגִין דְּרָגִין דִּילֵיהּ, קְדָמָאִין אִינוּן לְאֵעֲלָא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ, לְפָנֵי מֶלֶךְ מֶלֶךְ לְבָנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְּעַד כְּעַן לֹא מִטָּא זְמַנָּא דְּמַלְכוּ שְׂמִיא לְשִׁלְטָאָה, וְלֹאֲתֵאֲחֲדָא בְּבָנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ אָמַר, יַעֲבֵר נָא אֲדָנִי לְפָנֵי עַבְדּוֹ.

243. After these grades are perfected, the Kingdom of Heaven will be aroused to rule over the lower beings. Its rulership shall start with Binyamin, the youngest of the tribes, NAMELY, WITH SHAUL WHO IS OF THE TRIBE OF BINYAMIN. This is the meaning of the verse, "There is Binyamin, the youngest, ruling them" (Tehilim 68: 28). The Kingdom began to take root in him, later coming into its own place, TO KING DAVID, to be established and never to depart.

243. וְכֹד שְׁלִימוֹ אֲלִין דְּרָגִין בְּקְדָמִיתָא, לְבַתָּר אֲתַעֲר מְלָכוּ שְׂמִיא, לְשִׁלְטָאָה עַל תַּתָּאִי. וְכֹד שְׂרָא, שְׂרָא בְּזַעֲיָרָא דְּכָל שְׂבִטִין, דְּאִיהוּ בְּנֵימִין, כַּד"א שְׂם בְּנֵימִין צָעִיר רוּדֵם וּגוֹ. וּבִיהַ שְׂאִרֵי לְאִתְעָרָא מְלָכוּתָא, לְבַתָּר אֲתָא מְלָכוּתָא בְּאִתְרִיהּ וְאִתְקַיֵּים בְּהַדְּיָה, דְּלֹא תַעֲדִי לְעֵלְמִין.

25. Ya'akov, Yisrael and Yeshurun

Rabbi Chiya discourses on the names Ya'akov, Yisrael, and Yeshurun, which appear in the verse, "Yet now hear, O Ya'akov My servant..." These names represent three different grades, yet all amount to one. Similarly, the terms, "created," "formed," and "made," which also appear in the verse, represent three different grades, yet all are one. We learn that the children of Israel, to whom God gave the Torah so that they might merit the Holy Land and a portion in the world to come, are fortunate indeed, while the idolaters will one day be destroyed.

The Relevance of this Passage

When the light of the sun passes through a prism, the beam refracts into the seven colors of the spectrum. The colors are many, but they are one. Spiritual Light follows the same profound principle, with each grade of Light offering another frequency of fulfillment. Three "colors" in the Divine spectrum of Light shine through to our souls in this passage through the words, "created," "formed," and "made," and "Ya'akov," "Yisrael," and "Yeshurun." These three help us to merit a portion in the world to come, and connect us to the Divine energy radiating from the Land of Yisrael.

244. Rabbi Chiya continued with the verse: "Yet now hear, O Ya'akov my servant; and Yisrael whom I have chosen: thus says Hashem that made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you; Fear not O Ya'akov my servant; and you, Yeshurun, whom I have chosen" (Yeshayah 44:1-2). Come and behold: how many times did the Holy One, blessed be He, promise the children of Yisrael that He would cause them to inherit the world to come. For He desired no other nation or tongue for His portion but Yisrael alone. Therefore, the Torah of Truth was given to them, through which to merit and learn the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, and thus inherit the Holy Land. For whoever merits this Holy Land has a portion in the world to come, as it is written: "Your people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever" (Yeshayah 60:21). This has already been explained.

245. There are three grades IN THE VERSE BEFORE US: First Ya'akov, then Yisrael, and Yeshurun last, AND WE SHOULD KNOW THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THEM. Come and behold: we already explained Ya'akov and Yisrael, though both grades are the same.

246. HE ASKS: Why are Yisrael called by the name of Yeshurun? HE ANSWERS: Yisrael and Yeshurun are one. The meaning of Yeshurun, as it is written, "He should then assemble (Heb. yashor) a row of men" (Iyov 33:27), is that he takes a row from the one side and a row from the other side. Because there are two rows, he is called 'Yeshurun', IN THE PLURAL. Also, Yisrael IS DERIVED FROM 'ROW' (HEB. SHURAH), BEING THE LETTERS OF YASHOR EL, IN THE SINGULAR.

247. Yisrael is pronounced WITH THE LETTER SIN, WHICH ALLUDES TO OFFICIALDOM (HEB. SERARAH), for having command and power over all. Yeshurun IS THUS NAMED after the two parts, the RIGHT AND LEFT sides, the two rows already mentioned. They are all one.

248. He explained that all these names amount to one. "Ya'akov my servant," for he is a servant at times and abides his Master's command and executes His wishes. Also, "Yisrael whom I have chosen," MEANS to dwell on. All is according to a deep mystery. It is thus written: "that created you, O Ya'akov, and He that formed you, O Yisrael" (Yeshayah 43:1), and "Hashem that made you." All these grades are counted as one. Therefore, the verbs: created, formed, and acted are related to them respectively: one grade is over the other and all these grades are one.

249. Happy is the portion of Yisrael that the Holy One, blessed be He, desired them above all the idolatrous nations, of which the scripture says: "They are vanity, the work of delusion: in the time of their punishment they shall perish," (Yirmeyah 10:15) when the Holy One, blessed be He, will wipe them away from the earth, and He will remain alone, as it is written, "and Hashem alone shall be exalted on that day" (Yeshayah 2:11).
