26. "Fear not, you worm Ya'akov"

Rabbi Yehuda leads a discussion of the title verse and the regenerative power of the children of Yisrael. There are two explanations for the comparison of the children of Yisrael to the "worm," as well as an explanation of the comparison of the children of Yisrael to clay, which actually signifies glass. Finally, an interpretation of "O men of Israel" reveals it to represent the Tree of Life. Because the children of Yisrael cleave to the Tree of Life, we're told, they shall one day rise from the dust and be established as one nation to serve God.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Tree of Life is a realm of pure Light and energy, devoid of darkness, death and decay. While our world is a domain of constant desire for Light, the Tree of Life reality embodies infinite Light. Standing in the way of our deepest desires, and the endless Light that can fulfill them, is a single curtain--the ego of man. Our darkened world gives us the opportunity to earn and create the Light by striving to remove all aspects and influences of our ego, via Torah. This spiritual commitment is how a man cleaves to the Tree of Life. By helping us eradicate our egos, these verses connect our souls to the Tree of Life reality.

250. Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse: "Fear not, you worm, Ya'akov, O men of Yisrael; I will help you, says Hashem, and your redeemer, the holy One of Yisrael" (Yeshayah 41:14). Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, put all the heathen nations in the world under certain ministers, as we learned, and they all follow their Elohim, as it is written: "For let all people walk each in the name of his Elohim" (Michah 4: 5). They all shed blood, wage war, rob, beat, and fornicate. They mingle with those who cause evil. Thus, their power to harm increases.

251. The children of Yisrael have no might or power to overcome them except through their mouths, THAT IS, PRAYER, as a worm has no might or power, save in its mouth. But by its mouth, it wears through everything. Thus, the children of Yisrael are called "worm."

252. Another EXPLANATION OF, "Fear not, you worm Ya'akov," is that there is no creature like the silkworm, which produces glorious garments that are the raiments of kings. After ITS SPINNING, it produces a seed and dies. Later, from that very seed it lives again. The children of Yisrael are like this worm. Although they die, they are revived and live in the world as before.

253. It is also written: "Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Yisrael" (Yirmeyah 18:6). HE ASKS: What is this clay? HE ANSWERS: It is the material of glass. Although it may break, it is mended and may be used again. IN THE SAME MANNER, ALTHOUGH THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL DIE, THEY ARE RESURRECTED.

254. "O men of Yisrael" is the Tree of Life, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'YISRAEL', because the children of Yisrael cleave to the Tree of Life. As a result, they will be endowed with life and rise from the dust to be established in the world as the one nation that will serve the Holy One, blessed be He. As it is written, "that they may all call upon the name of Hashem, to serve Him with one consent" (Tzefanyah 3:9).

27. Midnight and the morning prayer

After Rabbi Elazar recites the Sh'ma and says his prayers, Rabbi Yitzchak begins a discussion of the proper times to pray. Before commencing a journey, for example, we should first consult God and offer prayer. We should also offer prayers at midnight and in the morning after the sun rises, but not in the darkness of early morning, since this is a time when husband and wife are bound up as one in the secret of union.

The Relevance of this Passage

In truth, prayers are non-material cables that transmit specific spiritual influences to our souls. Different influences are "broadcast" at intervals during the earth's rotation and orbit around the sun. The ancient sages understood these timetables and constructed the appropriate "cables" in the form of prayers. Reading this passage helps align and tune our prayers to their highest frequency, maximizing their strength and effectiveness.

255. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yitzchak were walking together when the time arrived for reciting the Sh'ma. Rabbi Elazar stood up, recited the Sh'ma, and said his prayers. Afterwards, Rabbi Yitzchak said to him: We learned that a man should, before going on his way, obtain permission from his Master and say his prayers.

256. He replied: When I started it was not yet time for prayer or for reading the Sh'ma. Now that the sun has risen, I prayed. Still, before I left I beseeched Him and asked for His counsel, although I had not yet recited the MORNING service.

257. I have been delving in the Torah since midnight. When morning broke, it was not yet time to pray, because during the darkness of early morning, the wife and husband converse and are in the secret of union as one. Then, she retires to her abode with her maids, who sit with her THERE. Thus, a man must not interrupt them with another matter, when they are united as one.

258. Now that the sun is shining, the time for prayer has come, as has been explained in connection with the verse, "May they fear with the sun" (Tehilim 72:5). The words "with the sun" MEAN to keep with us the light of the sun IN ORDER to shine on THE NUKVA, WHICH IS CALLED 'FEAR'. For fear, THE NUKVA, should be UNITED with the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, and not separated. As long as there is no daylight, fear is not with the sun. THEREFORE, WHEN THE SUN SHINES, we should unite them. This is the meaning of the verse: "...with the sun."

28. "...who found the Yemim in the wilderness"

As Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yitzchak travel, they see a mountain with strange creatures circling its peak. Rabbi Elazar assures Rabbi Yitzchak that they need not fear these creatures, since only he who fears his sins has cause to fear, and he begins a discussion of the title verse. The Yemim, we're told, are descendants of Kayin. They are unnatural beings created from the side of evil spirits at the moment when the Sabbath was about to be sanctified. Though they are able to put on bodies once a day, they remain bodiless because they were disowned by both the sixth and the seventh days. Because the Defiled Spirit cleaved to him, we further learn, Ana was able to find these spirits and they taught him of matters pertaining to defilement. But whoever walks in the ways of God may encounter them without fear.

The Relevance of this Passage

We have all felt the influences of the dark forces roaming through this physical dimension. The energy of this particular passage wraps us in the protection of the Light. This spares us harm from evil spirits, while strengthening our resolve to connect more devoutly to the Light in all our endeavors.

259. RABBI ELAZER AND RABBI YITZCHAK continued their travels until they reached a field, where they sat down. They lifted up their heads and saw a mountain with strange creatures circling its peak. When Rabbi Yitzchak became frightened, Rabbi Elazar asked: Why are you afraid? He replied: I see this huge mountain with strange creatures on it, and I am afraid lest they will attack us. He said: Whoever is fearful should be fearful for the sins he committed. Come and behold: these are not the same creatures who used to haunt the mountains.

260. He began the discussion by quoting the verse: "And these are the children of Tziv'on; both Aya and Ana: this is Ana who found the Yemim in the wilderness" (Beresheet 36:24). This verse has already been explained, yet come and behold: these are not those mentioned in the verse, "The Emim dwelt there in times past...but the children of Esav succeeded them" (Devarim 2:10-12).

261. But in the verse, "who found the Yemim in the wilderness," Yemim is spelled defectively, WITHOUT THE LETTER YUD, WHICH IS AN INDICATION OF WANT, because THE DESCENDANTS OF KAYIN, after he was driven from the face of the earth, are strange creatures, as it is written: "Behold, You have driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from Your face I shall be hid" (Beresheet 4:14), and "and dwelt in the land of Nod" (Ibid. 16). This has already been explained.

262. KAYIN'S descendants are from the side of spirits, storms, and fiends, for when Shabbat was about to be sanctified AT SUNSET, ghosts that were created from that side roamed about without a body. They were born neither on the sixth nor on the seventh day, BEING BORN AT SUNSET, and thus there is doubt as to which day they were from, as they are disowned by both this DAY and that DAY.

263. They kept on spreading from that side of Kayin, THAT IS, BEING HIS DESCENDANTS, clothed by that side yet without TANGIBLE EXISTENCE. Yemim is THEREFORE spelled without a Yud, for they are disowned by both days, THAT IS, BY BOTH FRIDAY AND SHABBAT, BECAUSE THEY WERE CREATED AT SUNSET. They may be seen by men, THAT IS, DESPITE BEING GHOSTS, ONCE A DAY THEY DON A BODY. ANA found THE SPIRITS CALLED YEMIM, and they taught him how to bring bastards into the world, THAT IS, BY MATING AN ASS AND A HORSE SO THEY WOULD ISSUE A MULE. They haunt the mountains and don a body once a day, then strip themselves AND REMAIN BODILESS.

264. Come and behold: Ana was a bastard from Tziv'on, who came to Ana's mother and begot a bastard. He THEREFORE came from the Defiled Spirit that cleaved to him and enabled him to find THESE SPIRITS, who taught him matters that pertain to The Side of Defilement.

265. Come and behold: these and several others who came out from each other were all from that side, THE LEFT SIDE. They may be seen walking in the desert, a desolate place in which they live. FOR DESTRUCTION ALWAYS COMES FROM THE LEFT SIDE. For all this, a man who walks the paths of the Holy One, blessed be He, and fears Him is not afraid of them. They went and climbed onto the mountain, WHICH MEANS THAT THEY EXTENDED THE LIGHT OF THE LEFT INTO THE NUKVA AND FEARED NOT.

266. Rabbi Yitzchak asked: Are all the desolated mountains also their dwelling place? He replied: Indeed they are, but of those who study the Torah, the scripture says, "Hashem shall preserve you from all evil: He shall preserve your soul. Hashem shall preserve your going out and your coming in form this time forth, and for ever more" (Tehilim 12:1, 7-8).

266. אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, בְּגוּוֹנָא דָּא, כָּל אֵינֻן טוֹרִין חֲרוֹבִין, אֶתְר בִּי מוֹתְבָא דְלֵהוֹן. אָמַר לוֹ, הֵכִי הוּא, וְכָל אֵינֻן דְּמִשְׁתַּדְּלוּ בְּאוֹרֵייתָא, עֲלֵייהוּ כְּתִיב יי' יִשְׁמְרֶךָ מִכָּל רָע יִשְׁמַר אֶת נַפְשְׁךָ יי' יִשְׁמַר צֵאתְךָ וּבּוֹאֶךָ מֵעַתָּה וְעַד עוֹלָם.

29. "I will praise Hashem with my whole heart"

Rabbi Elazar quotes the title verse and proceeds to discuss the righteous ways of King David, who devoted his life to God. David knew that when the northern wind stirs at midnight, God joins the righteous in the Garden of Eden. He also knew that the words of the Torah spoken at night ascend before God. Therefore, he would rise at midnight to sing songs and to praise God. Of all the titles that he gave his songs, "Halleluyah" was the greatest--because the word encompasses both the Name of God and the call to praise Him. Rabbi Elazar then concludes by explaining the meaning of "whole heart" and "the assembly of the upright."

The Relevance of this Passage

The might and mystical wisdom of King David stirs within our soul as we peruse this passage. Specifically, the Light aroused at midnight through the actions and songs of David, descends into our world, filling our souls and the souls of mankind. This diminishes the spiritual darkness that gives birth to personal and global strife.

267. Rabbi Elazar then quoted the verse: "Haleluyah. I will praise Hashem with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation" (Tehilim 111:1). This verse has already been explained, yet come and behold: King David worshiped the Holy One, blessed be He, all his life. He would rise at midnight to praise and offer thanks in songs and hymns to establish his place in the kingdom above.

268. He knew that when the northern wind stirred at midnight, the Holy One, blessed be He, rose in the Garden of Eden to delight Himself with the Righteous. David therefore rose at that time and strengthened himself with songs and praises until morning.

269. This is because the Holy One, blessed be He, is then in the Garden of Eden. We have explained that He and all the Righteous in the Garden would listen to his voice, as it is written: "the companions hearken for your voice: cause me to hear it" (Shir Hashirim 8:13). A thread of grace would also be drawn upon him by day, as we learned from the verse: "in the daytime Hashem will command his steadfast love, and in the night His song shall be with me" (Tehilim 42:9). Moreover, the words of Torah he uttered DURING THE NIGHT would rise and be adorned before the Holy One, blessed be He. King David, therefore, would devote the whole night to the worship of his Master.

270. Come and behold: "Haleluyah". From all the songs and hymns David had sung, the greatest was Haleluyah, as has been explained. What is the reason for this? It contains both a name and praise. HE ASKS: What are they? The name is Yah, but what of the praise? The praise is the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE NUKVA CALLED HALEL, BECAUSE it perpetually offers praise to the Holy One, blessed be He, and is never silent, as it is written, "Do not keep silence, Elohim: do not hold Your peace, and be still, El" (Tehilim 83:2), because it offers continuous praise before Him. This is why a name and praise together ARE HINTED AT IN THE WORD HALELUYAH (LIT. 'PRAISE YAH').

271. "I will praise Hashem with my whole heart." It has already been explained THAT WITH THE WHOLE HEART MEANS with the Good Inclination and the Evil, which are constant companions to man, as was explained in reference to "with all your heart" (Devarim 6:5). THIS MEANS THAT THE GOOD INCLINATION DWELLS IN THE RIGHT PART OF THE HEART, AND THE EVIL INCLINATION IN THE LEFT PART. IT IS TRUE IN THIS CASE AS WELL.

272. "...in the assembly of the upright..." refers to the children of Yisrael, WHO ARE CALLED 'UPRIGHT', BECAUSE all the grades are adorned through them, the priests and Levites, the Righteous and the pious, who are upright. "...in the congregation," has the same meaning as "stands in the congregation of El" (Tehilim 82:1). They are the mystery with which the Holy One, blessed be He, adorns Himself.

273. It therefore behooves a man to constantly praise the Holy One, blessed be He, because He desires songs and hymns. Whoever knows how to properly praise the Holy One, blessed be He, will find that He accepts his prayer and delivers him. This is the meaning of the verse: "I will set him on high, because he has known My name... with long life will I satisfy him" (Tehilim 91:14-16).

269. בְּגִין, דְּכַד קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֲשַׁתְּבַח בְּגִנְתָּא, דְּעָרְךָ, הָא אוֹקִימָנָא, דְּאִיהוּ, וְכָל צְדִיקָיָא דְּבִגְנִיתָא, כְּלֵהוּ צִיּוּתֵי לְקִלְיָה, בְּדַכְתִּיב חֲבָרִים מְקֻשְׁבִים לְקוֹלְךָ הַשְּׁמִיעֵנִי. וְלֹא עוֹד, אֶלָּא דְּחוּטָא דְּחֶסֶד, מְשִׁיךְ עֲלֵיהּ בִּימְמָא, כְּמָה דְּאִתְמַר, דְּכַתִּיב יוֹמָם יִצְוֶה יי' חֶסְדוֹ וּבַלֵּילָה שִׁירָה עִמִּי. וְלֹא עוֹד, אֶלָּא דְּאִינּוֹן מְלִין דְּאוֹרֵייתָא, דְּאִיהוּ אָמַר, כְּלֵהוּ סְלִקִין, וּמִתְעַטְרִין קִמֵי קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ, דְּדוּד מְלָכָא, הוּהּ מְשַׁתְּדֵל בְּלִילָיָא בְּפוֹלְחָנָא דְּמֵאֲרִיָּה.

30. "You are my hiding place"

Rabbi Elazar explains the terms, "hiding place," "adversary," and "songs of deliverance." All the songs and hymns of David, we learn, contain profound allusions to Wisdom, because they were composed with the direct inspiration of God. Rabbi Elazar then discusses the meaning of the verse, "You did push me hard..." David addressed these words to the Other Side, which presses man to turn away from God. As David knew well, God protects those who guard against the Evil Inclination.

King David was a brave and valiant warrior by day's light and a profound mystic during the hours of moonlight. Spiritually, David waged war and conquered the Evil Inclination within himself. This is the decisive battleground where the greatest of wars and conflicts unfold. Employing the mystical wisdom of Kabbalah, David skillfully wielded the power of the Light and thus triumphed over the forces of Darkness. This spiritual might and courage is instilled within us by these ancient verses. Moreover, the Light of David empowers our prayers, securing for us greater protection against the internal forces of evil, and increasing the Light that pours into our lives, and hence, into the world.

274. Rabbi Yosi quoted the verse: "You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from the adversary; You do compass me about with songs of deliverance. Sela" (Tehilim 32:7). "...my hiding place," refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, who is a hiding place and a shield to the man who treads the paths of the Torah, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, and is hidden under the shadow of His wings so as not to come to harm. HE ASKS: WHY THEN DOES IT READ, "You shall preserve me from the adversary," WHICH HAS THE SAME MEANING AS, "YOU ARE MY HIDING PLACE?" HE ANSWERS: Man has enemies above as well as below FOR WHICH IT SAYS, "YOU ARE MY HIDING PLACE." It is the Evil Inclination, OF WHICH IT IS WRITTEN: "YOU SHALL PRESERVE ME FROM THE ADVERSARY." It attacks above and below--DESCENDS TO INCITE, AND ASCENDS TO BRING ACCUSATIONS. Were it not for the Evil Inclination, man would not have any enemies in the world. Therefore THE SCRIPTURE READS, "You shall preserve me from the adversary," FROM THE EVIL INCLINATION.

275. "...You do compass me about with songs of deliverance, Sela" (Tehilim 32:7). He said: It should have read, 'He does compass me', IN THE THIRD PERSON, BECAUSE IN THE SECOND PERSON IT COULD MEAN 'THE SONGS OF DELIVERANCE COMPASS ME'. Why then does it read, "You do compass," IN THE PRESENT PERSON? HE ANSWERS: Within these songs there are grades of salvation: You will compass me with them to guard me on my way. THE VERSE IS INDEED ADDRESSED TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE SAYING, "YOU DO COMPASS ME." This verse may be read forwards or backwards, from both sides, YET ITS MEANING REMAINS THE SAME.

276. Come and behold: the songs and praises sung by David contain mysteries and high matters of the secret of wisdom, because they were all inspired by the Holy Spirit, which dwelt with David when he recited poetry. Hence they were all said from the Holy Spirit.

277. Rabbi Elazar continued with the verse: "You did push me hard that I might fall: but Hashem helped me" (Tehilim 118:13). HE SAID: IT IS WRITTEN, "You did push me," when it should have been written, 'they did push me'. Why is it written, "You did push me," AS IT WAS NOT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO PUSHED HIM, BUT HIS ENEMIES? HE ANSWERS: This is the Other Side, which always pushes man in an effort to turn him away from the Holy One, blessed be He. It is the Evil Inclination, the constant companion of man, to which David addressed the words, "You did push me hard that I might fall," because it, with all the troubles that came upon him, almost caused him to turn him from the Holy One, blessed be He. In regard to this David said, "You did push me hard that I might fall" into Gehenom, "but Hashem helped me" by not delivering me into your hands.

278. It is incumbent on man to guard against it, so it does not obtain mastery over him. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, will guard him in all his ways, as it is written: "Then shall you walk in your way safely, and your foot shall not stumble" (Mishlei 3:23), and "When you go, your steps shall not be confined" (Mishlei 4:12). It is also written: "But the path of just men is like the gleam of sunlight, it shines ever more brightly until the height of noonday" (Mishlei 4:18). Rabbi Yehuda said: Happy are the children of Yisrael, for the Holy One, blessed be He, keeps them in this world and in the world to come, as it is written, "Your people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land for ever" (Yeshayah 60:21). Blessed be Hashem forever. Amen and Amen.

1. "And Ya'akov dwelt"

Rabbi Chiya opens a discussion about the most significant choice that each of us must make: whether to follow the Evil Inclination--a force present and persuasive from the moment of human conception--or the Good Inclination, which does not express itself until a person is thirteen years of age. A righteous individual, we learn, is one who does not put credence in the Evil Inclination, but rather, waits for the arrival of the Good.

While those who follow the Evil Inclination shall certainly suffer in the World to Come, the righteous are made to suffer trials and afflictions in this world, precisely because they do not associate with the Other Side, whose realm this is. Yet God will deliver the righteous from all ills. As He did for Ya'akov, God protects the righteous from severe judgment by removing them from the world at the time of judgment, or by postponing judgment. The Relevance of this Passage

Living in a dimension of time and space, we invariably fall under the delusion that our negative behavior bears fruit, while positive deeds go unrewarded. This illusion is fueled by our concept of time, which delays both judgement and reward. Our concepts of space and separation redirect due judgments and Light to different areas of our lives. Thus, we might behave unethically in business and reap financial reward. Judgement might then be directed towards our health, but we may fail to see a connection, believing instead that life is chaotic and random. Likewise, we might conduct our business affairs justly and honorably, yet profits fail to rise. However, we fail to notice that our children--who represent true fulfillment--have suddenly drawn closer to us. Or previous negative behavior may have destined us for chaos involving an auto accident [God Forbid], but the Light generated from a sharing action performed many years earlier averts catastrophe, without any awareness on our part of what might have been. All this is intended to allow us to exercise free will and to play an active role in our own fulfillment. This passage illuminates the forces of cause and effect, so that we may live with them in harmony. We gain time protection, time to change our ways before the severe judgments owed us are executed.

1. "And Ya'akov dwelt in the land in which his father sojourned, in the land of Cna'an" (Bereshheet 31:1). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "Many are the afflictions of the righteous, and Hashem delivers him out of them all" (Tehilim 34:21). Come and behold: how many enemies a man must face from the day that the Holy One, blessed be He, gives him a soul in this world. As soon as man comes into the world, the Evil Inclination is immediately ready to join him, as it is written: "sin crouches at the door" (Bereshheet 4:7), because that is when evil associates with him.

2. Come and behold: this is true. From the day of birth, beasts protect themselves by fleeing from fire and evil places. WHEN HE IS BORN, man immediately flings himself into the fire because the Evil Inclination dwells within him and immediately prompts him to follow the path of evil.

2. וְתָא חֲזִי דְהַכִּי הוּא, דְהָא בְּעִירֵי, מִיּוֹמָא דְאַתְנִילִידוֹ, כְּלָהּוּ נִטְרֵי גְרַמְיָהּ, וְעַרְקִין מִן גּוֹ נּוּרָא, וּמִן כָּל אַתְרֵין בִּישׁוּן. וְבַר נֶשׁ, מִיַּד אֲתִי לְאַרְמָא גְרַמְיָה גּוֹ נּוּרָא, בְּגִין דִּיִּצַר הָרַע שָׂאֵרֵי בְּגִיָּה, וּמִיַּד אֲסִטֵּי לִיה לְאַרְחָא בִּישָׁא.

3. For we have learned that it says: "Better is a poor and wise child than an old and foolish king who knows not how to take care of himself" (Kohelet 4:13). "Better is a child," because a child represents the Good Inclination; it has been with man for only a short time. Since the age of 13 years and onward, IT IS WITH MAN, as we have already learned.

3. וְאֹקִימָנָא, דְכְּתִיב טוֹב יֶלֶד מְסַכֵּן וְחֹכֵם מְמַלְךָ זְקֵן וְכַסִּיל אֲשֶׁר לֹא יָדַע לְהַזְהֵר עוֹד. טוֹב יֶלֶד: דָּא הוּא יִצַר טוֹב, דְהוּא יֶלֶד, מִיּוֹמִין זְעִירִין עִמֵּיה דְבַר נֶשׁ, דְהָא מְתַלִּיסַר שְׁנִין וְאֵילָךְ, כְּמָה דְאַתְמַר.

4. In the verse: "...than an old and foolish king" (Kohelet 4:13), "king" refers to the Evil Inclination which is called a 'king' and 'ruler of people in the world'. It is certainly "old," and "foolish," because as soon as man is born and comes into the world, it lives with him. Hence, it is an "old and foolish king."

4. מְמַלְךָ זְקֵן וְכַסִּיל, מְמַלְךָ: דָּא הוּא יִצַר הָרַע, דְאִיהוּ אֲקָרִי מַלְךְ, וְשְׁלִיט בְּעֲלֵמָא עַל בְּנֵי נֶשָׁא. זְקֵן וְכַסִּיל, דְאִיהוּ זְקֵן וְדָאֵי, כְּמָה דְאֹקְמוּהָ, דְכִּד אַתְנִילִיד בְּר נֶשׁ וְנִפְיֵק לְאֹיּוּרָא דְעֲלֵמָא, אִיהוּ אֲזִדְמָן עִמֵּיה דְבַר נֶשׁ, וְעַד אִיהוּ מַלְךְ זְקֵן וְכַסִּיל.

5. Further it reads: "...who knows not how to take care of himself." It is not written: 'to take care of others', but, "to take care of himself". Why? Because it is foolish. About it, Solomon said: "and the fool walks in darkness" (Kohelet 2:14), because it comes from the refuse of darkness and will never have light. BUT HE WHO DOES NOT KNOW HOW TO TAKE CARE OF OTHERS IS NOT YET CONSIDERED FOOLISH.

5. אֲשֶׁר לֹא יָדַע לְהַזְהֵר עוֹד, לְהַזְהִיר לָא כְּתִיב, אֲלֵא לְהַזְהֵר, בְּגִין דְאִיהוּ כַסִּיל, וְעֲלִיָּה אָמַר שְׁלֵמָה ע"ה, וְהַכַּסִּיל בַּחֲשָׁךְ הוֹלֵךְ, דְהָא מְסוּסִיתָא דְחֲשָׁךְ קָא אַתְיָא, וְלִית לִיה נְהוּרָא לְעֲלָמִין.

6. Rabbi Shimon said: Come and behold. It is written: "Better is a poor and wise child." AND HE ASKS: Who is a poor child? AND HE REPLIES: It has been explained, and we learned he is the Good Inclination. But "better is a child," as it is written: "I have been young, and now am old" (Tehilim 37:25). This is the lad who is a poor child and owns nothing. Why is he called a lad? Because he is constantly renewed, like the moon. He is also "a wise child," because wisdom dwells within him.

7. "Than an old...king" refers to the Evil Inclination, WHICH STANDS IN CONTRAST TO MATATRON AND IS CALLED A 'SCOUNDREL'. As we have learned, it never departed from its impure ways from the day it was created. It is foolish, as all its ways lead to evil. It deludes people and does not know how to take care of itself. It accuses people falsely and misleads them from the path of good to the path of wickedness.

8. Come and behold: this is why THE EVIL INCLINATION comes TO JOIN with man as soon as possible, from the day he is born, so that man will believe in it. Later, when the Good Inclination arrives, man will find it difficult to believe in it, AND ITS WORDS will seem burdensome. Similarly, we have learned that he who is a subtle evilmonger hastens to plead his case in front of a judge before the arrival of his colleague, the litigant, as written: "The one who pleads first seems to be in the right" (Mishlei 18:17).

9. "The serpent was craftier" (Beresheet 3:2). He, too, hurries to dwell in man before his colleague, the Good Inclination, comes to dwell in him. And because he arrived early to plead his case, when, his colleague, who is the Good Inclination, comes later, it is difficult for man to unite with it! And he cannot raise his head, as if he carried on his shoulders the burdens of the world. All this is because the Evil One came first. Of this, Solomon said, "The Poor man's wisdom is despised and his words are not heard" (Kohelet 9:16), because the other one arrived earlier.

10. Subsequently, for any judge who accepts the words of a litigant before his colleague arrives, it is as if he accepts another deity to believe in. Otherwise, "his neighbor comes forward, and sifts his case" (Mishlei 18:17), WHICH MEANS ONLY AFTER HIS COLLEAGUE COMES SHOULD HE HEAR HIS WORDS. This is the way of a righteous man because a righteous man does not believe the subtle evilmonger, who is the Evil Inclination, even if he hastens to plead his case before the arrival of his colleague, the Good Inclination. SO IT FULFILLS THE VERSE: "AND HIS NEIGHBOR COMES FORWARD, AND SIFTS HIS CASE." And with this act, people fail TO MERIT the world to come.

8. תא חזי, על דא אקדים עם בר נש ביומא דאתיליד, בגין דיהימין ליה, דהא כד אתי יצר טוב, לא יכיל בר נש למהימנא ליה, ודמי עליה כמטולא, כגוונא דא תנינן, מאן הוא רשע ערום, דא הוא מאן דאקדים לאטענא מלוי לקמי דינא, עד לא ייתי חבריה מארי דינא, כד"א צדיק הראשון בריבו וגו'.

9. כגוונא דא האי רשע ערום, כד"א והנחש היה ערום, והוא אקדים ושרי עמיה דבר נש, עד לא ייתי חבריה לאשראה עליה. ובגין דאיהו אקדים, והא אטעין טענתיה עמיה, כד אתי חבריה דאיהו יצר הטוב, אבאיש ליה לבר נש בהדיה, ולא יכיל לזקפא רישיה, כאילו אטעין על כתפיה, כל מטולין דעלמא, בגין ההוא רשע ערום דאקדים עמיה, וע"ד אמר שלמה וחכמת המסכן בזויה, ודבריו אינם נשמעים, בגין דהא אקדים אחרא.

11. But the righteous man who fears his Master suffers many afflictions in this world in order not to believe in and join the Evil Inclination. And the Holy One, blessed be He, saves him from them all. As it is written: "Many are the afflictions of the righteous, and Hashem delivers him out of them all" (Tehilim 34:20). Note that it is literally written: "Many afflictions to the righteous," and not 'BUT MANY ARE THE AFFLICTIONS OF the righteous.' THIS SIGNIFIES THAT WHOEVER SUFFERS MANY AFFLICTIONS IS RIGHTEOUS because the Holy One, blessed be He, cares for him--BECAUSE THE AFFLICTIONS HE SUFFERS ALIENATE HIM FROM THE EVIL INCLINATION. For this reason, the Holy One, blessed be He, cares for this man and delivers him from all in this world and the world to come. Happy is his lot.

12. Come and behold: how many afflictions befell Ya'akov to keep him from becoming infected by the Evil Inclination and to keep distant from his lot. That is why he suffered punishments and afflictions, and had no quiet repose. He said: "I had no repose, nor had I rest, nor was I quiet; yet trouble came" (Iyov 3:26). Come and behold: how many afflictions do the righteous suffer in this world? Trouble after trouble, pain after pain, so that they can merit the world to come.

13. How many afflictions did Ya'akov have to suffer! As it is written: "I had no repose" in Lavan's house, and I could not escape from him. "Nor had I rest" because of that suffering that Esav's minister inflicted on me. And after that, there was the fear of Esav HIMSELF. "Nor was I quiet," on account of Dinah and Shchem.

14. "Yet trouble came." It was the trouble and confusion about Yosef, which was the hardest affliction of all. Why? Because Ya'akov loved Yosef, who is the secret of the Covenant through which YA'AKOV entered Egypt. THAT IS WHY YA'AKOV LOVED HIM SO MUCH. AFTER THIS, it is written: "I remembered my covenant" (Bereshheet 9:15). THE WHOLE REDEMPTION WAS FOR HIS SAKE, because the Shechinah was there with him, WITH THE COVENANT, WHO IS YOSEF. THUS, THE CONFUSION ABOUT YOSEF WAS HARDER ON HIM THAN ALL OTHER AFFLICTIONS THAT BEFELL HIM.

15. "And Ya'akov dwelt in the land in which his father had sojourned, in the land of Cna'an." Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse: "The righteous perishes, and no man lays it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come" (Yeshayah 57:1). "The righteous perishes" when the Holy One, blessed be He, looks on the world and it is not as it should be, and Judgment falls on the world. Then the righteous among them is taken away so that the Judgment will fall only on the others, who will have no protection.

16. As long as the righteous dwells in this world, Judgment can not be handed down on it. What is the origin of this principle? From Moshe, as it is written: "He said that He would destroy them, had not Moshe His chosen one stood before Him in the breach" (Tehilim 106:23). Thus, the Holy One, blessed be He, takes the righteous from among them and elevates them from this world. Only then does He receive His due retribution from the others--as the last part of the passage reads: "The righteous is taken away from the evil to come." THIS MEANS THAT before evil comes to rule the world, the righteous is taken away. Another explanation is that "from the evil" refers to the Evil Inclination, WHICH CORRUPTED AND MISLED THE WORLD.

17. Come and behold: Ya'akov was the choice of the Fathers. He was about to be sent into exile, but he was righteous, so Judgment was withheld and did not control the world. Thus, Judgment did not befall the world through all of Ya'akov's days, and the famine ended.

18. Similarly, in the days of Yosef, who had his father's image, exile was avoided because he protected them throughout his life. But when he died, exile immediately befell them, as it is written: "And Yosef died..." (Shemot 1:6) which is followed by, "Come, let us deal wisely with them" (Ibid. 10), and "they made their lives bitter" (Ibid. 14).

19. Similarly, wherever a righteous person dwells in the world, the Holy One, blessed be He, protects the world for his sake. And as long as he is alive, Judgment cannot befall the world, as we have learned.

20. Come and behold, it is written: "And Ya'akov dwelt in the land in which his father sojourned" (Bereshheet 37:1). HE ASKS: What is meant by "his father sojourned (Heb. megurei)"? AND HE REPLIED: Terror (Heb. magor) from every side, because he was anxious and afraid all his days. Rabbi Elazar said: "And Ya'akov dwelt" in this place that was unified in darkness. "The land in which his father sojourned" means precisely THIS PANIC AND FEAR OF HIS FATHER, YITZCHAK, WHO IS THE LEFT COLUMN. "In the land of Cna'an" alludes to a place connected to its proper location, WHICH MEANS THAT THE NUKVA IS CALLED 'LAND.' WHEN SHE IS CONNECTED TO THE LEFT COLUMN, WHO WAS THE FATHER OF YA'AKOV, SHE IS CALLED THE 'LAND OF CNA'AN'. As it was said, a place attached to its proper location, WHICH MEANS THAT THE LAND OF CNA'AN IS CONNECTED TO THE LAND OF HIS FATHER'S SOJOURNING, WHICH IS THE LEFT COLUMN. "His father sojourned" is Harsh Judgment, AS IT IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN. The "land in which his father sojourned" is A LAND OF Weak Judgment, as we have learned. This is land that is joined with and emerges from Harsh Judgment, WHICH IS THE LEFT COLUMN. Ya'akov dwelt in, and held on to, this land.

2. "These are the generations of Ya'akov"

Here follows a discussion of the significance of Yosef as the first-named in the list of "the generations of Ya'akov." Also, Rabbi Aba comments on the importance of the number seventeen in relation to Ya'akov and Yosef. The Relevance of this Passage

Yosef corresponds to the Sfirah of Yesod, the portal and gateway through which all the Light of the Upper Worlds flows into our world. The patriarchs, Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov denote this supernal realm, whereas Yosef signifies the funnel through which the sacred Light emerges into physical reality. Here, we connect ourselves to this "cosmic funnel" where we receive the Divine and effulgent Light that shines in the Upper Worlds. The number seventeen is the numerical value of the Hebrew word for good [tov]. Thus, forces of goodness are amassed and drawn into our lives through the mystical powers attached to the number seventeen, as expounded upon in this passage.

21. "These are the generations of Ya'akov: Yosef..." (Beresheet 37:2). After Yosef settled in Ya'akov, and the sun--WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN--mated with the moon--WHICH IS THE NUKVA--he began to produce generations. And who is he that brings forth offspring? The scripture continues saying, "Yosef." For the river that flows and comes out OF EDEN IS THE YESOD THAT IS DESIGNATED YOSEF. It is he who is the progenitor of the offspring because his waters never cease to flow!

22. The sun, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, unites with the moon, THE FEMININE PRINCIPAL, but can only bear fruit on the grade that is called 'Righteous', and on no other grade--NAMELY YESOD. THUS, IT IS Yosef, who is the grade of Ya'akov, who can bear fruit and bring forth generations to the world. Thus, it is written: "These are the generations of Ya'akov: Yosef..."

23. "These are the generations of Ya'akov: Yosef..." ANOTHER INTERPRETATION IS THAT anyone who gazed at the facial image of Yosef thought it was the facial image of Ya'akov. Come and behold: it is not written THIS WAY when referring to any other children of Ya'akov. FOR EXAMPLE, IT IS NOT WRITTEN: 'These are the generations of Ya'akov: Reuven...' OR 'SHIMON' ETC. Only in reference to Yosef IS IT WRITTEN: "THESE ARE THE GENERATIONS OF YA'AKOV: YOSEF..." THE REASON IS THAT the facial image of Yosef was the same as his father's image.

24. "Yosef being seventeen years old" (Beresheet 37:2). Rabbi Aba said that the Holy One, blessed be He, indicated to Ya'akov that Yosef was seventeen years old at the time he was lost. All the days that remained AFTER HE REACHED SEVENTEEN YEARS OF AGE, during which time he did not see Yosef, Ya'akov was crying over him. Because he was crying during those years, the Holy One, blessed be He, gave him another seventeen years, during which he lived in the land of Egypt with happiness, honor, and fulfillment. His son, Yosef, was king and all his sons were there before him. Those seventeen years were considered as life for him. Hence, the text informs us that Yosef was seventeen years of age when he lost him.

24. בֶּן שֶׁבַע עָשָׂרָה שָׁנָה. אָמַר רַבִּי אַבָּא, רְמִזָּה לִיה קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא דְּהָא כִּד אֲתֵאבִיד מִנְיָה יוֹסֵף, בֶּן שֶׁבַע עָשָׂרָה שָׁנִין הוּה, וְכֹל אִינּוֹן יוּמִין דְּאֲשִׁתְּאָרוּ, דְּלֹא חָמָא לִיה לְיוֹסֵף, הוּה בְּכִי עַל אִינּוֹן שֶׁבַע עָשָׂרָה שָׁנִין, וְכַמָּה דְּהוּה בְּכִי עֲלֵיהּ, קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא יְהִיב לִיה, שֶׁבַע עָשָׂרָה שָׁנִין אַחֲרָנִין, דְּאֲתִקְרִיִים בְּאַרְעָא דְּמִצְרַיִם, בְּחַדוֹ בִּיקְרָא וּבְשִׁלְיָמוֹ דְּכֻלָּא, בְּרִיָּה יוֹסֵף הוּה מְלָכָא, וְכֹל בְּנוֵי קַמְיָה הוּוּ, אִינּוֹן שֶׁבַע עָשָׂרָה שָׁנִין, הוּוּ חֲזִין לְגַבְיָהּ, וּבְגִין כֶּן בֶּן שֶׁבַע עָשָׂרָה שָׁנָה הוּה אִיהוּ, כִּד אֲתֵאבִיד מִנְיָה.

3. "For the work of a man shall he pay back to him..."

Rabbi Chiya addresses the problem of why some righteous individuals enjoy prosperity, good health, and happiness, while others endure terrible suffering. The mystery revealed to explain this emphasizes the crucial role of mazal (lit. 'fortune, luck'). Whether sinful or righteous, all individuals shall suffer who receive their souls from the Nukva (moon) during the period when she is defective. God compensates those righteous who suffer in this world, by ensuring their merit in the world to come; their suffering in this world is the result of their souls' misfortune. While we may endeavor to reason why there is such disparity in the fortunes of men, Kabbalah explains that a righteous soul actually chooses the moment of birth and the physical body into which it will incarnate. The righteous will often purposely choose a life of suffering in order to help correct the sins of the generation, thus preventing great judgement and destruction. This section underscores the importance of the strength of the soul of the righteous. God's judgment rests on this strength, and not on physical or material qualities.

The Relevage of this Passage

The physical body is of the same shape and structure in all human beings. However, the internal Vessel--a man's Desire to Receive --is of different measure in each person. For example, a person endowed with a large Vessel may have the power to accumulate enormous wealth. Yet on a purely physical level, there is no distinguishing trait that hints at a wealthy man's financial capabilities and business acumen. In similar fashion, the soul of a single righteous individual may be far greater than millions of sinful people of the same generation. The suffering endured by this lone Righteous individual can therefore balance all the negativity generated by the actions of others. Through the merit Light of the righteous souls, whose Light shines so radiantly through this passage, we can help correct the effects of our own negative actions; moreover, our own Vessel is expanded, so that our efforts toward righteousness compensate for the sins of others.

25. Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "Therefore listen to me you men of understanding: Far be it from El to do wickedness and from Shadai to commit iniquity. For the work of a man shall He pay back to him, and according to his ways will He cause to befall every man" (Iyov 34:10). Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He created it by Judgment, and it exists upon Judgment. All worldly affairs exist according to the principles of Judgment. Nevertheless, to support the world and prevent its destruction, the Holy One, blessed be He, spreads Mercy over it. This Mercy tempers Judgment, so that it does not put an end to the world. Thus, the world acts according to Mercy, and endures due to it.

26. And if you say that the Holy One, blessed be He, judges man without justice, we have learned that when Judgment prevails on man and he is righteous, it is because of the love of the Holy One, blessed be He. As we have learned, when the Holy One, blessed be He, feels pity for a man, it is to bring the man closer to Him. The Holy One, blessed be He, breaks the body so as to give the soul total control. Then man can come closer to Him with love, as is fitting, and the soul controls man while his body is weakened!

27. A man needs to have a weak body and a strong soul that shall grow stronger still. Then he is beloved by the Holy One, blessed be He. According to the friends, the Holy One, blessed be He, causes sorrow to the righteous in this world so that the righteous may merit the world to come.

28. When the soul is weak and the body strong, man is hated by the Holy One, blessed be He, who does not care for him. Therefore, He inflicts no suffering on him in this world. His life runs smoothly and perfectly, for if this man gives alms or performs a kindness, the Holy One, blessed be He, rewards him in this world so that he will have no portion in the world to come. This is why Onkelos translated the verse: "And he repays them that hate him to their face" (Devarim 7:10) as 'And he repays them that hate him in this world.' Thus, the righteous person, who always experiences pain, is beloved by the Holy One, blessed be He. This is true only if he is found to have committed no sin that merits punishment.

29. There are several aspects to this matter. First, we see that the Shechinah does not dwell in a place of sorrow, but only in a place of joy. If a place has no joy, the Shechinah will not abide there. This is echoed in the verse: "But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Hashem came upon him" (II Melachim 3:15); for assuredly the Shechinah does not dwell in a place of sadness. From where do we derive this principle? We learn this from Ya'akov, from whom the Shechinah departed during the time he mourned Yosef. When joy came upon him with the good news about Yosef, immediately, "the spirit of Ya'akov their father revived" (Beresheet 45:27). THERE IS A MYSTERY HERE, for where is joy in a Righteous man who is broken by troubles and is weak and suffering? Surely he must be saddened with no joy at all.

30. WE MUST LOOK into another matter, for many just men who are beloved of the Holy One, blessed be He, do not suffer bodily pain or diseases; their bodies never weaken. Why are they not as the other righteous men? WHY IS THERE A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN those who were physically broken and those who were healthy?

31. It is said that those who live well are righteous, the children of righteous men, as has already been explained, while the others, WHOSE BODIES WERE CRUSHED, are righteous, but are not children of righteous men. Yet we see Righteous men whose fathers are righteous, EVEN whose fathers were of righteous men, YET THEY STILL SUFFER MUCH PAIN. Why do they suffer bodily pain and spend their days in grief?

32. There is a mystery here, for all the works of the Holy One, blessed be He, are according to Truth and Justice. "For the work of a man shall he pay back to him, and according to his ways will he cause to befall every man" (Iyov 34:11). I found in ancient books a mystery, and another mystery REVEALED within it--thus, one mystery which is two SECRETS. There are times when the moon, THE NUKVA, is defective and under Judgment, and the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, is hidden from her. She releases souls to give to men, which she first gathered FROM ZEIR ANPIN AT ANY TIME. THEREFORE, she releases THOSE SOULS, EVEN AT A DEFECTIVE TIME, when she is under Judgment. Whoever receives such a soul will always be in want and poverty, ever broken under Judgment and throughout all his life--be he just or wicked. Only prayer annuls all judgmental sentences. A MAN can avert them through prayer.

33. When that grade, THE NUKVA, is complete, and the river which flows and comes out FROM EDEN, YESOD, unites with her, the soul that she releases cleaves to man. He is complete in all--in riches, children and a healthy body.

34. All this depends upon mazal ('constellation, luck'), YESOD, which is drawn to and attached to that grade, THE NUKVA, for her to be perfected and blessed by it. Therefore, all depends upon Mazal. We have learned that "children, life and livelihood do not depend upon merit but upon mazal." There is no merit until THE NUKVA is filled and shines from mazal, WHICH IS YESOD.

35. Therefore, all those who are sentenced according to justice and crushed in this world, yet are also truly righteous, suffer by reason of the soul (Nefesh) THAT THEY RECEIVED FROM THE NUKVA WHILE SHE WAS DEFECTIVE. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, has compassion for them in the world to come.

36. Rabbi Elazar said that the Holy One, blessed be He, does everything according to Justice. IF HE BRINGS SUFFERING ON A RIGHTEOUS MAN, HE DOES SO to purify that soul (Nefesh) and bring it to the world to come, for all the deeds of the Holy One, blessed be He, are true and just. To remove from the soul the filth it accumulated in this world, the body is crushed and the soul cleansed. Therefore the Holy One, blessed be He, brings pain to the just man, so that he will be cleansed from all sins and thereby merit life in the world TO COME. As it is written: "Hashem tries the righteous" (Tehilim 11:5), as we have already learned.

4. "Only he shall not go in to the veil"

Rabbi Shimon discourses on the spiritual significance of, and the benefits enjoyed by, those who receive their souls from the realm of Malchut when she is defective.

The Relevance of this Passage

The energy arising out of these verses helps reduce the pain and suffering that we endure as a result of negative deeds in present and past lives. Meditating to share this energy with others helps to reduce their pain and suffering as well. The spiritual benefits associated with the Moon's positive aspects are aroused in our life, and the negative influences arising from the Moon are averted.

37. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion with the verse: "Only he shall not go in to the Veil, nor come near the to altar, because he has a blemish; that he profane not My holy places: for I, Hashem, do sanctify them" (Vayikra 21:23). "He shall not go in to the Veil." Come and behold: at the time the river is flowing and comes out FROM EDEN, WHICH IS YESOD, and issues the souls TO THE NUKVA, the Nukva conceives WITH THEM. And they all abide WITHIN HER in a room within a room, where the walls are covered with wallpaper or carpets.

38. When the moon is rendered defective by the same aspect of the evil serpent, all the souls that are issued AT THAT TIME, although they were all pure and sacred, are flawed. Since they emerged at a defective time, THE BODIES are crushed, and suffer pains and afflictions whoever that these souls reach. The Holy One, blessed be He, cares for AND LOVES those who are broken, although their souls are sad instead of joyous.

39. The secret is that they remain as above IN THE NUKVA. When the body is flawed, the soul inside remains the same AS IN THE NUKVA. BECAUSE THE SOUL RESIDED WITHIN THE FLAWED NUKVA, IT RESIDES NOW WITHIN THE FLAWED BODY. The one state resembles the other. Therefore, they are renewed like the moon, as it is written: "And it shall come to pass, that every new moon, and every Shabbat, shall all flesh come to bow down to the ground before Me, says Hashem" (Yeshayah 66:23). "All flesh" assuredly, for they are in need of renewal along with the moon.

40. THOSE RIGHTEOUS are the constant companions of the moon, THE NUKVA, and have the identical defects. She therefore dwells always within them and never leaves them, as it is written: "him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit" (Yeshayah 57:15) and, "Hashem is near to them who are of a broken heart" (Tehilim 34:19)-- THAT IS, to those who suffered from the same defect as the moon, those who are always near her. "And he saves such as are of a contrite spirit" (Ibid.), by giving them a portion of the life flowing INTO THE NUKVA for renewal, because they who suffered with her shall also be renewed with her.

41. Those DEFECTS FROM WHICH THE RIGHTEOUS SUFFER are called 'sufferings of love', because they are caused by love and not by the man himself. They are of love because the light of the smaller love was impaired when rejected by the greater love. Therefore, THE RIGHTEOUS are her companions and share HER FLAW. Happy is their portion in this world and in the world to come, for they merited to be her friends, as it is written of them: "For my brethren and companions' sakes..." (Tehilim 122:8).

5. "Behold, my servant shall prosper"

In this complex and difficult section, an aspect of the relationship between Zeir Anpin [the upper world] and Malchut [our Lower World] at the time of the latter's creation is revealed, further explaining why the wicked often seem to prosper while the good suffer. The mystery of the title verse is discussed, revealing that at the end of the period of Correction, faith shall be rekindled in men, and Malchut--presented here as the moon--will once more be warmed and illuminated by the Light. There follows a detailed analysis of Torah verses. In question and answer form, the hidden meaning of the verses is revealed as a parable of the yearning for union by opposites, such as male and female. This is one of the Zohar's major themes. Through the story of Yosef and Ya'akov, we are shown that male and female are meant to be together as one: "For blessings abide only where male and female are united." The Malchut is then described with the same attributes as the male: He is wise, for example, whereas She is wisdom; He is mighty, She is might; He is a King; She is a Kingdom. The male is then described with the same attributes as the Nukva, in a profound exposition of apparent duality that governs material creation. Finally, by suggesting a subtle link between the violation of kosher laws regarding the consumption of living flesh and the illicit yearning of one sex for the other, Rabbi Yehuda resolves a discussion about the meaning of the term "an evil report."

The Relevance of this Passage

The mystical power of these words enriches and deepens our marital relationships, while also helping the unmarried to merit the appearance of their true soulmate. It further arouses the Light of the Upper World to radiate in our physical existence. This Light also helps cleanse prior negative sexual experiences and thoughts.

42. He opened the discussion with the verse: "Behold, My servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high" (Yeshayah 52:13). Happy is the portion of the righteous, to whom the Holy One, blessed be He, revealed the ways of the Torah, so they may follow them. Come and behold: the verse, "Behold, my servant shall prosper," contains a supernal mystery, which has already been explained. Yet come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe--THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA--He made the moon AND ENDOWED HER WITH THE SAME STATURE AS THAT OF ZEIR ANPIN. LATER, He decreased her lights in such a way that she had nothing of her own, SAVE WHAT SHE RECEIVED FROM ZEIR ANPIN. Because she made herself small, she shone from the sun, SIGNIFIED BY ZEIR ANPIN, by the power of the Supernal Lights IN IT.

43. While the Temple existed, Yisrael diligently proceeded with sacrifices, offerings and rituals performed by the priests, Levites and the children of Yisrael, creating unification and causing the lights to shine WITHIN THE NUKVA.

44. After the Temple was destroyed, the light darkened and the moon, THE NUKVA, no longer shone from the sun, ZEIR ANPIN. The sun withdrew from her and did not shine. Therefore, as we have learned, no day passes without curses, sorrow, and pain.

45. When the time comes for the moon to shine WITH HER OWN STRENGTH, AT THE END OF CORRECTION, then it is written: "Behold, my servant shall prosper," which is an allusion to the moon. "Behold, my servant shall prosper," refers to the secret of the faith, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. The words, "shall prosper," refer to the Supernal Awakening--WHICH WILL RESEMBLE a man who smells an odor and becomes alert and attentive.

46. "He shall be exalted," means that THE NUKVA SHALL BE FILLED from that facet of the light that is superior to all the lights, INDICATING KETER. "He shall be exalted"--as in, "and therefore will He be exalted, that He may have mercy upon you" (Yeshayah 30:18)--REFERS TO THE LIGHT OF KETER; "and extolled," on the side of Avraham, SIGNIFIES CHESED. "And be high," on the side of Yitzchak, MEANS GVURAH, while "very," on the side of Ya'akov, IS TIFERET. THIS MEANS THAT THE NUKVA WILL THUS BE FILLED BY ALL THESE GRADES. And although this has already been explained DIFFERENTLY, all is one in the secret of wisdom.

42. פֶּתַח וְאָמַר, הִנֵּה יִשְׁכִּיל עַבְדִּי יְרוּם וְנִשְׂא וְגָבַהּ מְאֹד. זָבָאָה חוֹלְקָהוֹן דְּצִדִּיקָיָא, דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא גְלִי לֹן אֲרַחֲי דְאֹרִינִתָּא, לְמַהֲךָ בְּהוּ. תָּא חֲזִי, הָאִי קָרָא רְזָא עֲלָאָה אִיהוּ, הִנֵּה יִשְׁכִּיל עַבְדִּי וְאוּקְמוּהוּ. אָבֵל תָּא חֲזִי, כִּד בְּרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עֲלֵמָא, עֵבֶד לָהּ לְסִיְהָרָא, וְאֲזַעֵר לָהּ נְהוּרָא, דְּהָא לִית לָהּ מְגֻרְמָה כְּלוּם, וּבְגִין דְּאֲזַעִירַת גְּרָמָה, אֲתַנְהָרָא בְּגִין שְׁמֵשָׁא, וּבִתּוּקְפָא דְנְהוּרִין עֲלָאִין.

47. At that time, the Holy One, blessed be He, will intensify energy above so as to shine well upon the moon, THE NUKVA. As it is written: "Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days" (Yeshayah 30:26). Thus will Supernal Light be added to her own. Then all the dead, BURIED in the dust, will be stirred INTO LIFE.

48. He calls him "servant" (masculine form), THOUGH THIS ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA, for the secret path to his Master's keys is in his hand. THUS, THE PERFECTION OF THE NUKVA IS MADE KNOWN THROUGH HIM, HER MESSENGER. The same applies to the verse: "And Avraham said to the...servant," (Beresheet 24:2) who is the moon, NAMELY THE NUKVA, as we have learned. AND SHE IS REVEALED THROUGH Matatron, the servant messenger of his Master. THEREFORE THE WORD "SERVANT" WAS USED IN BOTH PLACES.

49. "The eldest of his house" (Beresheet 24:2), REFERS TO MATATRON, WHO IS CALLED 'OLD', as in "I have been young, and now am old" (Tehilim 37:25). THE MINISTER OF THE WORLD 'WHO IS MATATRON?' SAID THIS PHRASE. "That ruled over all that he had" (Beresheet 24:2), as all the colors: green, white, and red, are reflected in him.

50. "Put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh" (Ibid.) refers to the righteous, NAMELY, TO YESOD. Since he is the existence AND LIFE of the world WHEN HE HOLDS ON TO YESOD, this servant is appointed to bring life to the dwellers of the dust. And he becomes perfected through the supernal spirit to return spirits and souls to their places, in the skeletons and putrefied cadavers underneath the ground.

51. "And I will make you swear by Hashem, the Elohim of heaven" (Beresheet 24:3). HE SAID THAT IT IS WRITTEN: "And I will make you swear." What is the meaning of, "I will make you swear"? HE ANSWERS THAT IT MEANS he will be clothed in the secret of the seven Supernal Lights--CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT--FOR they are the secret of supernal perfection. ACCORDING TO HIS EXPLANATION, "SWEAR," DERIVED FROM THE ROOT SHIN BET AYIN, IS DERIVED FROM 'SEVEN' (Heb. sheva: Shin-Bet- Ayin). "That you shall not take a wife," refers to the body underneath the ground, IN THE GRAVE, which now rises from the dust AND IS CALLED A 'WIFE'. All those who were buried and deserved to be interred in the Land of Yisrael shall be the first to rise to life, as has been explained in relation to the verse: "The dead men of your people shall live," (Yeshayah 26:19) referring to the dead in the Land of Yisrael. THEN, "my dead body shall arise," (Ibid.) meaning the dead outside Yisrael. For all that, only the bodies of the children of Yisrael, buried IN THE LAND OF YISRAEL, shall rise, but not bodies from other nations, which defile the land.

52. Therefore, in the verse: "That you shall not take a wife to my son," what is meant by "my son"? HE ANSWERS THAT all the souls in the world that come from the river which flows out FROM EDEN, WHICH IS YESOD, are the children of the Holy One, blessed be He. Therefore, "that you shall not take a wife," means a body; "to my son" refers to the soul; "of the daughters of the Cna'an," are the bodies of the heathen nations, which the Holy One, blessed be He, will shake out of the Holy Land. As it is written: "That the wicked might be shaken out of it," (Iyov 38:13) as dirt is shaken out of a garment.

53. "But you shall go to my country, and to my kindred" (Beresheet 24:4). In this verse, "my country" is the Holy Land, which precedes all other countries, as we have learned. Of the verse, "But you shall go to my country, and to my kindred," HE ASKS: WHY REPEAT "my kindred" after saying, "my country?" HE ANSWERS: "My country" is THE HOLY LAND, as we said and "my kindred" are the children of Yisrael!

54. It is written: "And the servant took..." (Beresheet 24:10). As we have learned, THIS IS A REFERENCE TO MATATRON; "ten camels" are the ten grades, which the servant governs. They are a likeness to the above, LIKE THE GRADES OF ATZILUT. "Of the camels of his master" means they bear a likeness to his master's camels--THAT IS, THE GRADES OF THE NUKVA OF ATZILUT, HIS MASTER, as we have learned. And this servant rules over them and is established through them.

55. "For all the goods of his master were in his hand" (Beresheet 24:10), refers to the goodness and the lofty fragrance issued from the Supernal Lights and candles. ANOTHER EXPLANATION OF, "for all the goods of his master were in his hand," is that it refers to the union of the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, which is attracted to the moon, THE NUKVA. FOR THROUGH HIM OCCURS THE UNION OF MALE AND FEMALE.

56. "And he arose, and went to Aram-naharayim" (Beresheet 24:10), the place in the Holy Land where Rachel wept when the Temple was destroyed. "And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water" (Beresheet 24:11), for he wanted to add to her strength before raising and reviving the bodies.

57. In the verse: "At the time of evening" (Beresheet 24:11), WHAT TIME IS REFERRED TO? HE REPLIED: It is Shabbat eve, NAMELY YESOD, the era of the sixth millennium. FOR THE SIX DAYS OF CREATION ARE THE SECRETS OF 6,000 YEARS AND THE SIXTH DAY, SHABBAT EVE, CORRESPONDS TO THE SIXTH MILLENNIUM, ON WHICH DAY RESURRECTION WILL OCCUR. In the phrase, "At the time of evening," why say "time"? It should have said, 'AT EVENING.' HE ANSWERS: It conveys the meaning of, "And to his labor until the evening" (Tehilim. 104:23), and "For the shadows of the evening are lengthened" (Yirmeyah 6:4). THESE VERSES ARE THE SECRETS OF THE JUDGMENTS REVEALED DURING THE EVENING. "AT THE TIME OF EVENING" ALSO ALLUDES TO THE SECRET OF YESOD, WHICH THE SERVANT HAS MENDED.

58. In the verse: "At the time that the women go out to draw water" (Beresheet 24:11), they draw the water of the Torah. At that time, they will be resurrected before any other man because, by drawing the water of the Torah, they are strengthened by the Tree of Life. Thus, they will come out first at the resurrection of the dead, as the Tree of Life causes them to be the first to rise.

59. "And the daughters of the men of the city come out" (Beresheet 24:13). HE ASKS: What is meant by "come out?" HE ANSWERS: It has the same meaning as: "and the earth shall cast out the shades of the dead" (Yeshayah 26:19). That is, it will cast out all the bodies that are in it. Therefore, it is written: "come out," WHICH ALLUDES TO THE BODIES THAT WILL BE CAST OUT BY THE EARTH AT THE TIME OF RESURRECTION. The words, "to draw water," MEAN to accept and properly receive a soul so that it will be perfected.

60. "And let it come to pass that the girl to who I shall say, 'Let down your pitcher, I pray you, that I may drink'..." (Beresheet 24:14). We have learned that every soul that strove in this world to know its Master by means of the mysteries of divine wisdom, will rise to the highest grade--a grade higher than all the souls who neither conceived nor attained knowledge. These will be the first to revive. This is the question that the servant wished to ask so that he could determine what the soul dealt with in this world, AND THUS LEARN WHETHER IT IS WORTHY OF BEING RESURRECTED FIRST. THIS IS THE MEANING OF, "LET DOWN YOUR PITCHER, I PRAY YOU, THAT I MAY DRINK."

61. "And she will say to me 'You may also drink'..." (Beresheet 24:44). You need to drink and receive water yourself first. After [I have served] you: "I will also draw for your camels," because these other Chariots, although they are watered through this grade, are watered mainly from the worship of the righteous, who know well how to serve their Master. For the righteous know how to nourish each grade properly. Therefore, if she says, "I will also draw for your camels," then "she shall be the woman whom Hashem has appointed for my master's son," the body which is surely appointed to that Supernal Soul.

62. Come and behold: we learned that the male yearns for the female, BY WHICH THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH IS DRAWN FROM THE NUKVA, and a soul is created. The female yearns for the Male, BY WHICH CHASSADIM ARE DRAWN FROM THE MALE, who rises and mingles WITH THE SOUL upward. Thus, they become included within one another, THE CHOCHMAH OF THE FEMALE WITH THE CHASSADIM OF THE MALE. This forms the soul, THAT IS, COMPLETES IT. From this procedure, THE SERVANT DIVINED THAT IF SHE SAYS 'DRINK' (WHICH ALLUDES TO DRAWING THE CHOCHMAH), 'I WILL ALSO DRAW FOR YOUR CAMELS', NAMELY CONTINUING THE FLOW OF CHASSADIM--then she is indeed the woman, the body, who will execute the wishes of the soul issuing from the male, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, INCLUDING BOTH CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM.

63. These bodies will be raised TO LIFE earlier, as we have said. After these are revived, all other bodies outside Yisrael will be raised into perfect existence and resurrected with the renewal of the moon, FOR THE LIGHT OF THE MOON WILL THEN BE AS THE LIGHT OF THE SUN. The world will then be renewed as before. At that time, it is written: "Let Hashem rejoice in his works" (Tehilim 104:31).

64. Therefore, "Behold, my servant shall prosper," MEANS THAT THE SERVANT, MATATRON, WILL KNOW how to return each soul to its own place, THAT IS, TO THE BODY WORTHY OF IT, as was said. "He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high" (Yeshayah 52:13), on the side of all those supernal grades.

65. "Just as many were astonished at you, saying, 'Surely his visage is too marred to be that of a man, and his form to be that of the sons of man'" (Yeshayah 52:14). Come and behold: we have learned that when the Temple was destroyed and the Shechinah exiled to foreign countries, it is written: "Behold, the mighty ones shall cry outside; ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly" (Yeshayah 33:7). They all wept for her, they mourned and grieved for the Shechinah who went from her place into exile. EXILE changes her and her husband, ZEIR ANPIN, WHO withholds his light, FOR THERE IS NO ONE TO SHINE UPON, as it is written: "The sun shall be darkened in his going forth" (Yeshayah 13:10). Therefore, "his visage is too marred to be that of a man." Another explanation of the verse, "Surely his visage is too marred to be that of a man," is that it refers to the servant MATATRON, WHO AT THE TIME OF EXILE WAS changed in form and colors, which were GREEN, WHITE, RED.

66. Yet another explanation of, "Surely his visage is too marred to be that of a man," is that it has the same meaning as the verse: "I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering" (Yeshayah 50:3). From the day the Temple was destroyed, the heavens, MEANING ZEIR ANPIN, did not hold their light. The secret is that blessings dwell only where there are Male and Female, as has been explained in relation to the verse: "Male and Female He created them. And Elohim blessed them" (Beresheet 1:27-28). But in exile, where male and female are not united, it is written: "His visage is too marred to be that of a man" (Yeshayah 52:14).

67. It is similar to the meaning of: "The righteous perished," (Yeshayah 57:1) which does not read 'perishes' or 'will perish', but rather "perished" ('is lost'), WHICH MEANS THAT THE RIGHTEOUS LOST HIS BLESSINGS. For blessings abide only where male and female are united.

68. Therefore, when the male is not with the female, the souls released FROM HER are different than those issued when the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, was united with the moon, THE NUKVA, as we learned. FOR AS ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA WERE CHANGED DURING THE EXILE, SO THE SOULS OF THEIR OFFSPRING WERE DIFFERENT FROM THE PREVIOUS ONES. Of this, it is written: "These are the generations of Ya'akov: Yosef..." (Beresheet 37:2). AFTER YOSEF BECAME LIKE YA'AKOV AND THE SUN UNITED WITH THE MOON, THE VIRTUE OF THE SOULS IS ELEVATED. BUT THEY CHANGE DURING EXILE.

69. "...and the lad..." (Beresheet 37:2) means that because their union is never broken, the righteous, WHICH IS YESOD, and righteousness, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, are constantly together. The Nukva is described with the same attributes as the male, WITH THE ADDITION OF THE FEMALE SUFFIX. FOR EXAMPLE: HE IS WISE, SHE IS WISDOM; HE IS MIGHTY, SHE IS MIGHT; HE IS A KING; SHE IS A KINGDOM. And the male is described with the same attributes as the Nukva. As it is written: "And the lad (Heb. na'ar)..."; AS THE NUKVA IS CALLED 'GIRL' (HEB. NA'ARAH), SO IS YESOD CALLED 'LAD'.

70. "...with the sons of Bilhah, and the sons of Zilpah" (Beresheet 37:2). YOSEF is found within them, all TWELVE TRIBES, EVEN IN THE SONS OF THE HANDMAIDS, THE HIND PARTS OF THE SHECHINAH. He renews them appropriately and delights them with his mirth, for all branches and leaves OF THE SHECHINAH are blessed by his joy; THAT IS, EVEN THE HIND PARTS OF THE SHECHINAH, WHICH ARE CALLED 'LEAVES'--IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE VERSE: "WHOSE LEAF SHALL NOT WITHER" (YEchezkel 47:12)--ARE PERFECTED THROUGH HIM.

71. "And these are the generations of Ya'akov: Yosef..." (Beresheet 37:2). We have learned that Ya'akov's image was reproduced in Yosef. Thus, everything that happened to Ya'akov also happened to Yosef. They shared the same path, according to the secret of the letter Vav--THE FIRST VAV BEING THE SECRET OF YA'AKOV, TIFERET, AND THE SECOND, THE FULLY SPELLED VAV, BEING THE SECRET OF YOSEF, YESOD. And they walk together--AS THEY SOUND LIKE ONE WHEN THE VAV IS PRONOUNCED--because they share one meaning and image.

72. "...and Yosef brought to his father their evil report" (Beresheet 37:2). As has been explained, he told his father that they ate raw meat cut from a living animal. HE INSISTED THAT the sons of the handmaids were part of the twelve tribes. Thus, how could the sons of Leah treat them with contempt and also eat flesh from a living animal, thereby transgressing the commandment of their Master to the sons of Noah? As it is written: "But flesh with its life, which is its blood, you shall not eat" (Beresheet 9:4). Could they have eaten and thus transgressed their Master's commandment? HE ANSWERS: Yosef told this by his own invention, and was therefore punished for it.

73. According to one explanation, Rabbi Yehuda said: Yosef's "evil report" is that they cast their eyes upon the daughters of the land, which is CONSIDERED TO BE evil because IT ALLOWED the unholy grades to nourish the Side of Defilement.

6. "Now Yisrael loved Yosef"

Using the story of Yosef and his many-colored coat as an analogy, Rabbi Elazar discusses the spiritually privileged position of the children of Israel and the enmity this inspires in idolatrous nations. We learn that Ya'akov's love for Yosef over his brothers, and the coat that he gave Yosef, was the immediate cause of the Exile itself, which is, in turn, shown to be a parable of human history.

The Relevance of this Passage

The children of Israel are designated as the Chosen People in response to the measure of their internal Vessel--the Desire to Receive--which is more intense than that of other nations. For this reason, they are the channel through which the Light of The Creator emerges into our world. When the Desire to Receive is directed towards the self alone, there is a lack of Light in our world, and this instigates negative repercussions from other nations. These other nations sense the lack of Light, which creates enmity between them and the children of Israel, and is ultimately the cause for the continuing Exile. Thus, Exile is both a personal and an historical occurrence. When the hardships of life reach their extreme, this is a spiritual connection to the Exile of the children of Israel, which exists to this very day. The Exile is also an effect of our failure to direct our desires towards positive and sharing causes. The spiritual forces of liberation present in this passage can hasten both our personal redemption and also the Final Redemption of the entire world.

74. "Now Yisrael loved Yosef more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a striped shirt" (Beresheet 37:3). Rabbi Elazar began the discussion with the verse: "Come, My people, enter you into your chambers, and shut your doors about you: hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation be overpassed" (Yeshayah 26:20). Come and behold: how much did the Holy One, blessed be He, love the children of Yisrael? He had more love for them than for all the other heathen nations. Thus, He warned them and guarded them in their actions.

75. Come and behold: Judgment hovers about the world three times a day. During these times, it behooves a man to take heed and be watchful lest Judgment shall fall on him. This is so at specific times, as has already been explained.

76. The three times are when morning comes and Avraham is awakened into the world, where he holds on to Judgment, so that he is attached to it. Within the first three hours, Judgment is driven from its place to be awakened within Ya'akov, until the time is come for Minchah. Then, the lower Judgment is stirred to be attached to the upper Judgment. Then one Judgment joins another, and it behooves us to be on our guard.

77. Moreover, when Judgment is upon the world and death is in the marketplace, no man should walk alone in a public place, as has been explained elsewhere. Man should shut himself in and never venture out, as Noach did when he shut himself in the ark to avoid being found in the presence of the Angel of Destruction.

78. Therefore: "Come, my people, enter you into your chambers..." (Yeshayah 26:20) MEANS shut yourself inside YOUR HOUSE, "and shut your doors about you," so as not to be seen by the Destroying Angel. "Hide yourself for a little moment, until the anger be over passed," because after the Judgment has past, the Angel of Destruction has no permission to harm you.

79. Come and behold: it is the affection that the Holy One, blessed be He, harbors for Yisrael and His drawing them near Him THAT CAUSES the other heathen nations to hate Yisrael. For they are kept away from the Holy One, blessed be He, while Yisrael are near.

74. וְיִשְׂרָאֵל אָהַב אֶת יוֹסֵף מִכָּל בְּנָיו כִּי בֶן זָקֵנִים הוּא לוֹ וַעֲשָׂה לוֹ כְּתֹנֶת פְּסִים. רַבִּי אֱלֶעָזָר פָּתַח וְאָמַר, לָךְ עָמִי בֹא בַחֲדָרֶיךָ וּסְגֹר דְלִתְךָ בְּעֶדְךָ חֲבִי כְּמַעֲט רִגַע עַד יַעֲבֹר זַעַם. לָךְ עָמִי בֹא בַחֲדָרֶיךָ. תָּא חֲזִי, כְּמָה קוֹדֵשׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא רְחִים לוֹ לְיִשְׂרָאֵל, וּבְגִין רְחִימוּתָא דְלְהוֹן, דְרְחִים לוֹן עַל כָּל עַמִּין עַכְו"ם, אֲזַהֵר לוֹן, וּבְעֵי לְנִטְרָא לוֹן, בְּכָל מָה דְאִינּוֹן עֲבָדִין.

80. Come and behold: as a result of the exceptional love Ya'akov had for Yosef, his brothers "conspired against him to slay him" (Beresheet 37:18). How much more do the idolatrous nations HATE Yisrael BECAUSE OF THE LOVE THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, HAS FOR YISRAEL ABOVE THEM?

81. Come and behold: see what this love, which Ya'akov had for Yosef OVER HIS BROTHERS, caused. YOSEF was exiled from his father, who then joined him. By this action, he brought exile upon the tribes and the Shechinah. Although it was decreed IN THE COVENANT, THE REASON, NEVERTHELESS, WAS THAT HE LOVED HIM BETTER THAN HIS BROTHERS. It has been explained that all this happened because of the many-colored coat he made him, as it is written: "And when his brethren saw...THEY HATED HIM, AND COULD NOT SPEAK PEACEABLY TO HIM" (Beresheet 37:4).

7. "And Yosef dreamed a dream"

Rabbi Chiya discusses dreams as a form of divine revelation. Situated beneath Prophecy and Vision in the hierarchy of revelatory experiences, dreams comprise a mixture of truth and falsehood, and serve as an admonition to the dreamer. Once given, the interpretation of a dream can influence both its meaning and its fulfillment. According to Rabbi Shimon, the dreamer's awareness and interpretation is not necessary for fulfillment. The interpretation of Yosef's dream by his brothers, whereby they sealed their fate, warns us not to dismiss our dreams too quickly or to share them with those who are not friends.

The Relevance of this Passage

Reading this section raises awareness of the vital information dreams often provide to help in our spiritual development. We learn to protect ourselves against negative dream interpretations and their manifestation.

82. "And Yosef dreamed a dream" (Beresheet 37:5). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "And he said, 'Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I, Hashem, make myself known to him in a vision, and speak to him in a dream'" (Bemidbar 12:6). Come and behold: how many grades of prophecy the Holy One, blessed be He, formed. They stand upon each other, one grade superior to another, higher than the other. They all nourish each other according to their ability, some from the right and some from the left, as is proper.

83. Come and behold: the prophets in the world are nourished from one aspect, from two known grades, NETZACH AND HOD, which are seen within the mirror (Heb. mar'ah) that has no reflection, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. As it is written: "I, Hashem make myself known to him in a vision (Heb. mar'eh)" (Bemidbar 12:6). This is the mirror that reflects all the colors, NAMELY WHITE, RED, AND GREEN, WHICH REPRESENT THE THREE COLUMNS OF ZEIR ANPIN; it is known as the 'dull mirror'. The phrase: "And speak to him in a dream" (Ibid.), refers to the sixtieth part of prophecy. As has been explained, it is Gavriel's grade, the sixth grade BENEATH the grade of prophecy, who supervises dreams.

83. תֵּאֵדָוּ, כִּלָּא נְבִיאֵי דְעֵלְמָא כֻלְהוּ יִנְקֵי מִסְטְרָא חֲדָא, מִגּוֹ תְרִין דְרָגִין יְדִיעֵן, וְאִינֻן דְרָגִין הוּוּ אֲתַחְזִיין בְּגוֹ אֲסַפְקֵלְרִיא דְלָא נְהָרָא, דְכְּתִיב בְּמִרְאָה אֱלֹו אֲתוֹדַע, מֵאִי הוּא מִרְאָה, כְּמַה דְאֲתַמְר חֵיָו דְכֻלָּ גּוֹנֵן אֲתַחְזִיין בְּגוֹוָה, וְדָא הִיא אֲסַפְקֵלְרִיא דְלָא נְהָרָא. בְּחֲלוֹם אֲדַבֵּר בּוֹ, דָּא הוּא חַד מִשְׁתִּין בְּנְבוּאָה, כְּמַה דְאוֹקְמוּהָ, וְאִיחָו דְרָגָא שְׁתִּיתָאָה מֵהֵוֵא דְרָגָא דְנְבוּאָה, וְאִיחָו דְרָגָא דְגְבְרִיאֵל, דְמִמְנָא עַל חֲלֵמָא, וְהָא אֲתַמְר.

84. Come and behold: every well-formed dream proceeds from that grade OF THE ANGEL GAVRIEL. BECAUSE IT IS FROM AN ANGEL, every dream includes some lies. Therefore, parts of dreams are true and parts are false; no dream is without both.

85. Because a dream has both TRUE AND FALSE ELEMENTS, all the dreams in the world follow verbal interpretations, as was explained in relation to the verse: "And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was" (Bereshheet 41:13); FOR IT COMES TO PASS ACCORDING TO ITS OWN INTERPRETATION. What is the reason? A dream contains truth and lies; hence, the words of interpretation prevail over everything, in that they determine WHETHER THE TRUE OR THE FALSE PART SHALL PREVAIL. A dream therefore needs a favorable interpretation. Rabbi Yehuda said that because a dream is of a lower grade, THAT OF THE ANGEL GAVRIEL, and speech, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, has power OVER THE ANGEL, dreams follow their own interpretations--WHICH COME FROM THE ASPECT OF SPEECH AND PROCEED FROM THE NUKVA, CALLED 'SPEECH', RULING OVER THE ANGEL GAVRIEL'.

86. He continued with the verse: "In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumbering upon the bed, then He opens the ears of men, and with discipline seals their instruction" (Iyov 33:15-16). Come and behold: when man lies in his bed, he should first acknowledge the Kingdom of Heaven over him, then utter a verse of mercy. The friends explained that when a man sleeps in his bed, his soul leaves him to soar above, each soul according to its own way.

87. When people fall asleep in their beds, the soul departs. "In slumbering upon the bed, then He opens the ears of men." Thus, the Holy One, blessed be He, reveals to the soul through the grade in charge of dreams, NAMELY GAVRIEL, what will happen in the world in the future, or that which corresponds to his innermost thoughts, THAT IS, TRUTH, LIES, OR BOTH. Thus, through admonition, a man receives knowledge of things to come. FOR THIS REASON, HE IS TOLD OF FUTURE EVENTS.

88. A man is not given this knowledge while the body is strong. The angel informs the soul, and the soul informs the man. The dream comes TO THE SOULS from above, when the souls depart from the body and ascend, each according to its merit.

84. תָּא חֲזִי, כָּל חֶלְמָא דְאִיהוּ בְדִקָּא יְאוּת, מֵהַאי דְרָגָא קָא אַתְיָא, וְעַל דָּא, לִית לָךְ חֶלְמָא, דְלֵא יִתְעַרְבוּן עִמֵּיהּ מְלִין בְּדִיבּוּן, בְּמֵה דְאוּקִימָנָא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ, מְנַיִיהוּ קְשׁוּט, וּמְנַיִיהוּ בְּדִיבּוּן, וְלִית לָךְ חֶלְמָא, דְלֵא אִית בֵּיהּ מֵהַאי גִיסָא וּמֵהַאי גִיסָא.

89. How many grades are in the secret of the dream, in the secret of wisdom? Come and behold: a dream is one grade, a vision is another, and a prophecy a third. All these grades are in ascending order; THE DREAM IS BENEATH THE VISION, AND THE VISION IS BENEATH THE PROPHECY.

90. "And Yosef dreamed a dream, and told it to his brethren: and they hated him yet the more" (Bereshheet 37:5). From this, we learn that a man should tell his dream only to someone who loves him. If the listener does not LOVE HIM, he shall bring evil upon him; for if the dream changes, he is the reason that THE TRUE MEANING OF THE DREAM is not fulfilled, BECAUSE OF HIS INCORRECT INTERPRETATION.

91. Come and behold: Yosef told his dream to his brothers WHO DID NOT LOVE HIM, and so fulfillment of the dream was delayed 22 years. Rabbi Yosi asked: How do we know THAT HATRED PREVENTED THE DREAM FROM BEING CARRIED OUT? From the words: "and they hated him yet the more" (Bereshheet 37:8). This hatred caused accusations to be brought against him, AND THE DREAM WAS DELAYED FOR 22 YEARS.

92. It is written: "And he said to them, 'Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed'" (Bereshheet 37:6). He begged them to listen to him, yet were it not for them, who gave the dream a different meaning, it would have come true. But they answered: "'Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?'" (Bereshheet 37:8). In their answer, they gave its interpretation, AND TURNED ITS MEANING OF REIGN AND DOMINION INTO SOMETHING ELSE. They decreed THAT HE SHOULD NOT REIGN OVER THEM, and it is therefore written: "And they hated him yet the more," MEANING THEY CAUSED ACCUSATIONS TO BE BROUGHT AGAINST HIM.

93. Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Yosi were with Rabbi Shimon. Rabbi Chiya said: We have learned an uninterpreted dream resembles an unopened letter. HE ASKS: Does this mean that the dream comes true without the dreamer being conscious of it, or that it does not come true at all? He answers: IT MEANS THAT the dream comes true, but the dreamer does not know it. For there is a power dwelling upon the dream WHICH FORCES IT TO COME TRUE. Only the dreamer is not aware whether the dream comes true or not, JUST AS ONE DOES NOT KNOW THE CONTENTS OF AN UNOPENED LETTER.

94. Everything that happens in the world depends on a dream or a proclamation before it becomes reality. We have learned that before any matter enters the world, a proclamation resounds in heaven, from where it is spread throughout the world. It is done by a crier, as it is written: "Surely Hashem Elohim will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7). This was when there were prophets in the world. When the prophets were gone, sages took their places. And when THE SAGES were gone, the future was announced by a dream--and if not BY A DREAM, through birds in the sky, as has been already explained.

94. וְלִית לָךְ מַלְאָה בְּעֵלְמָא, דְּעַד לָא יִיתִי לְעֵלְמָא, דְּלָאוּ אִיהוּ תְּלִינָא בְּחֵלְמָא, אוּ עַל יְדָא דְּכְרוּזָא, דְּהָא אֲתָמֵר, דְּכָל מַלְאָה וּמַלְאָה עַד לָא יִיתִי לְעֵלְמָא, מְכַרְזִי עֲלֵיהּ בְּרַקִּיעַ, וּמִתְמַן אֲתַפְשֵׁט בְּעֵלְמָא, וְאֲתִיְהִיב עַל יְדָא דְּכְרוּזָא, וְכֹלָא בְּגִין דְּכֹתִיב בֵּי לָא יַעֲשֶׂה יי' אֱלֹהִים דְּבַר בֵּי אִם גְּלַה סוּדוֹ אֶל עֲבָדֵי הַנְּבִיאִים, בְּזִמְנָא דְּנְבִיאִים אֲשֶׁתְּכַחוּ בְּעֵלְמָא, וְאִי לָאו, אֶף עַל גַּב דְּנְבוּאָה לָא שְׂרִיא, חֲכִימֵי עֲדִימֵי מְנַבִּיאִים, וְאִי לָא, אֲתִיְהִיב בְּחֵלְמָא, וְאִי לָאו, בְּצַפְרֵי שְׂמִיָּא מִשְׁתַּבְּחֵי מַלְאָה, וְהָא אוּקְמָהּ.

8. "And his brothers went to feed"

This section touches upon the role of providence in the story of Yosef and especially of his sale into slavery--since, when Yosef's brothers sold him, they were in collaboration with the Shechinah.

The Relevance of this Passage

The longest and strongest master-slave relationship is that between man and his ego. All of us are in bondage to our reactive whims and egocentric desires. We are also prisoners of other people's perceptions of us. Our ego is our taskmaster--and the ego is so good at its job, most of us don't even realize we are in bondage. Therefore, the Light of The Creator will send us challenging opportunities to provoke our ego and highlight our self-centeredness. The Light of this passage opens our eyes and shows us the way to freedom by allowing us to recognize life's hardships for what they really are--opportunities to rise above the power of impulse and effect inner transformation.

95. "And his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shchem" (Bereshheet 37:12). Rabbi Shimon asked: Why is the particle Et ('the') added? HE ANSWERS: THE PREPOSITION Et has dots over it, which represent the Shechinah, FOR THE SHECHINAH, NAMED 'ET', dwelt with them as they were a group of ten. WHEREVER THERE ARE TEN MEN, THE SHECHINAH HOVERS ABOVE THEM. They were ten because Yosef was not with them and little Binyamin was at home. When they went, the Shechinah was among them, for which reason there are dots ABOVE THE PARTICLE ET.

96. For that reason, they were in collaboration with the Shechinah when they sold Yosef; they made her a partner to their oath and made her vow NOT TO REVEAL THE SALE OF YOSEF. Thus, until THE SALE OF Yosef was made known, the Shechinah did not rest upon Ya'akov.

97. If you say that the Shechinah was not with THE TRIBES, come and behold the verse: "There the tribes used to go up, the tribes of Yah, an appointed practice for Yisrael to give thanks to the name of Hashem" (Tehilim 122:4). They were all just and pious, the sustenance of the inhabitants of the world, FOR THE WHOLE WORLD ENDURED THANKS TO THEM both above and below, IN THE UPPER AND LOWER WORLDS.

97. וְאִי תִימָא דְּשְׂכִינְתָא לָא אֲשֶׁתְּכַחַת עִמָּהוֹן, תָּא חֲזִי, דְּכֹתִיב שְׁשֵׁם עֲלוּ שְׁבֻטִים שְׁבֻטֵי יְהוָה יְעוּדוֹת לְיִשְׂרָאֵל לְהוֹדוֹת לְשֵׁם יי', בְּלָהוּ צְדִיקֵי וְחַסִּידֵי, קִיּוּמָא דְּכָל עֵלְמָא, קִיּוּמָא אִינּוֹן לְעִילָא וְתַתָּא.

9. "O Jerusalem, built"

This section begins with a brief discussion of the preordained roles of David and Solomon in the construction of the temple, and then proceeds to address the relationship between the terrestrial Jerusalem and the heavenly Jerusalem. It is, we see, mirrored by the relationship of the children of Israel to the Upper and Lower Worlds.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our planet contains many spiritual energy centers that serve as portals through which the supernal Light of the Upper World flows into our dimension. Israel is the energy center of the entire planet. The city of Jerusalem is the energy source of Israel. The Temple is the primal source of energy for Jerusalem, and the Holy of Holies is the Fountainhead of spiritual energy for the Temple. Reading this passage connects us to Jerusalem, the Temple and ultimately, to the Holy of Holies. It ensures that all our prayers, deeds, and meditations draw their Light from this wellspring of spiritual energy.

98. He then quoted the verse: "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of Hashem'" (Tehilim 122:4). It has been explained that David said this when he set his heart on building the Temple, as it is written: "And it was in the heart of David, my father, to build a house for the name of Hashem, the Elohim of Yisrael" (I Melachim 8:17). But then it is written: "Yet you shall not build the house; but your son that shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the house to My Name" (I Melachim 8:19). All the children of Yisrael knew that and asked: When will David die so that his son Solomon can rise and build the Temple, as "our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem" (Tehilim 122:2), and we will go up to offer sacrifices?

99. For all that they used to ask, 'When will this old man die?' David was nevertheless "glad," and rejoiced on account of his son, who, it was said, would reign in his stead and carry out the building the Temple. Then he began to praise THE SHECHINAH, saying: "O Jerusalem, built as a city that is joined together" (Tehilim. 122:3).

100. We learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, formed the terrestrial Jerusalem, THE NUKVA, in the image of the heavenly Jerusalem, BINAH, with each facing the other, FOR THE NUKVA IS ESTABLISHED WITH ALL THE AMENDMENTS OF BINAH. As it is written: "In the place, Hashem, which You have made for you to dwell in" (Shemot 15:17). "Built" means that the Holy One, blessed be He, will cause Jerusalem to descend from above, completely BUILT. Therefore, HE SAYS "built." "That is joined together," as has already been explained. HE SAID: It should have been 'are joined', IN THE PLURAL. HE ANSWERS: The mother, BINAH, joined her daughter, THE NUKVA, and they became as one. HENCE IT IS WRITTEN IN THE SINGULAR, as has been explained.

101. "There the tribes used to go up..." (Tehilim 122:4). They sustain the world and support the lower world. And not just the lower world, but also the upper world, as it is written: "The tribes of Yah, an appointed practice (also: 'testimony') for Yisrael"-precisely, "for Yisrael." Because the children of Yisrael support the lower world, they bear testimony above IN THE UPPER WORLD. All this is to thank the Holy One, blessed be He, on all sides, as it is written: "To give thanks to the name of Hashem" (Ibid.).

10. "And a certain man found him"

This section addresses the role of providence in the sale of Yosef to the Egyptians and illustrates our inability to interpret events and their causal relationships as positive or negative, since we are ignorant of their role in God's preordained design.

The Relevance of this Passage

The selling of Yosef into slavery, and his subsequent rise from the status of prisoner to the second in command of Egypt, alludes to our ability to take control over the physical reality and triumph over our most base desires, thereby freeing our souls. The strength to accomplish this is aroused within us by the liberating Light set aflame by these Kabbalistic verses. In addition, we become more cognizant of our limited perspectives on life, particularly when hardships strike. Just as Yosef's imprisonment was a dire and tragic predicament that was eventually turned into triumph, our afflictions can be transformed into conquests given the right state of enlightened consciousness. That is, the foresight and wisdom to see beyond the immediate circumstances. Enlightenment is thus awakened in us by the lessons and Light emitted through the luminous letters of the Hebrew language appearing in this passage.

102. "And a certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, saying, 'What are you seeking?'" (Bereshheet 37:15). It is written earlier: "And Yisrael said to Yosef, 'Do not your brothers feed the flock in Shchem? Come, and I will send you to them'" (Ibid. 13). Why did the perfected Ya'akov, who loved Yosef better than his other sons and knew that his brothers hated him, send Yosef to them? HE ANSWERS: Because he knew they were righteous, he did not distrust them. The Holy One, blessed be He, caused all this to carry out the decree he made TO AVRAHAM in the Covenant, between the pieces.

103. We have found it stated in ancient books that it was imperative that the sons of Ya'akov have mastery over Yosef before he descended to Egypt. For if he had gone there before they dominated him, the Egyptians, would have ruled over Yisrael in perpetuity, AND YISRAEL WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ABLE TO LEAVE. THEREFORE, it came to pass that HIS BROTHERS were Yosef's masters and sold him as a slave. THUS, when Yosef was later crowned king of Egypt, Yisrael ruled over them all. FOR THEY OBTAINED MASTERY OVER YOSEF, THEIR KING, BY SELLING HIM TO BE A SLAVE. IT WAS AS IF THEY RULED OVER THE EGYPTIANS THEMSELVES. THIS WEAKENED EGYPTIAN POWER AND ENABLED YISRAEL TO BE FREED FROM IT.

104. Come and behold: Yosef was the Supernal Covenant, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, and as long as the Covenant, YOSEF, endured, the Shechinah lived within Yisrael in peace. Once Yosef, the Supernal Covenant, was gone from the world AND SOLD AS A SLAVE, the Covenant, the Shechinah, and Yisrael all went into exile. This has been explained in connection with the verse: "Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who knew not Yosef" (Shemot 1:8). THIS INDICATES THAT HIS RANK HAD BEEN REVOKED AND HE WENT INTO EXILE. The Holy One, blessed be He, caused all this, and it happened as it had to.

105. "And a certain man found him" refers to Gavriel. It has been explained here that it is written: "And a certain man found him," and elsewhere it is written: "The man Gavriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning" (Daniel 9:21). BY ANALOGY, WE LEARN THAT THE MAN IN THE FIRST SENTENCE IS ALSO GAVRIEL, and "he was wandering" (Bereshheet 37:15) in every way, for trusting his brothers, for seeking fraternity but not obtaining it, and for looking for them without finding them. Therefore, "the man asked him, saying, 'What are you seeking?'"

11. "I seek my brothers..."

Rabbi Yehuda interprets the title quotation to indicate Yosef's intimate association with righteousness and the Shechinah. We are also shown how Joseph's enduring love and loyalty toward his brothers provide a human demonstration of God's compassionate love for the children of Israel.

The Relevance of this Passage

The drama of human existence is more than a one-act play. It's a production that encompasses many lifetimes, where credits and debits accrue according to our actions. Therefore, forgiving those who have inflicted harm upon us really has nothing to do with the other person. Kabbalistically, the people who hurt us in life are messengers. Everything that befalls us is a result of our prior deeds. The consequences of our actions eventually return through the agency of others, in order to help us achieve spiritual growth and correction. The strength to display compassion and forgiveness, even when we feel it is not deserved, is stimulated by the words of this passage.

106. "And he said, 'I seek my brothers'...And the man said, 'They are departed from here.'" Rabbi Yehuda quoted the verse: "O that you were as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find you outside, I would kiss you; and none would scorn me" (Shir Hashirim 8:1). This verse has already been explained by the friends. The congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, said to the King to whom peace belongs, TO ZEIR ANPIN: "O that you were as my brother," as Yosef was to his brothers. Yosef said to them, "Now therefore fear not: I will nourish you, and your little ones" (Beresheet 50:21) and he provided for them in time of famine. Therefore, THE CONGREGATION OF YISRAEL SAID TO ZEIR ANPIN, "O that you were as my brother," AS YOSEF WAS TO HIS BROTHERS.

107. According to another explanation of "O that you were as my brother...", Yosef, YESOD, said this to the Shechinah, whom he joined and to whom he cleaved. "...that sucked the breasts of my mother..." means that WHEN SHE RECEIVES MOCHIN FROM IMA, there is friendship and unity between them. "I should find you outside," in exile in a strange land; "I would kiss you," to merge her spirit with his; "...and none would scorn me"--"although I am in a foreign land".

108. Come and behold: although Yosef's brothers did not act as his brothers when he fell into their hands, he was a brother to them when they fell into his hands. This is understood from the verse: "And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them" (Beresheet 50:21); he spoke kindly in every WAY UNTIL THEY BELIEVED HIM.

12. There is anger, and there is anger

This section provides a discussion on the two species of anger, one blessed and the other cursed. Rabbi Shimon then explains the ritual of cleansing the hands each morning, and why this sanctification is necessary.

The Relevance of this Passage

At times we must exert judgement or anger that is rooted in love and sharing. Positive anger is a form of love, as when a parent disciplines a child out concern for the child's safety. Ego-based anger, however, creates negative energy. If a parent punishes a child as an expression of inner frustration, this anger is cursed. One version of anger generates love; the other creates darkness. The words that reveal these truths help us attain the wisdom to mete out anger rooted in love, which is, therefore, blessed with the Light of The Creator.

109. Come and behold: "And they said one to another (lit. 'a man to his brother')" (Beresheet 37:19). These are Shimon and Levi, who were brothers in every respect, because they both came from the side of Harsh Judgment, and their anger was murderous anger, as it is written: "Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel" (Beresheet 49:7).

110. Come and behold the secret of this matter. There are two kinds of anger. One kind of anger is blessed above and below, and is called 'blessed', as we learned from the verse: "Blessed be Avram of the most high El, possessor of heaven and earth" (Beresheet 14:19). IT HAS ALREADY BEEN EXPLAINED THAT ALTHOUGH AVRAHAM WAS ENGAGED IN WAR AND KILLED PEOPLE, IT WAS STILL SAID OF HIM, 'BLESSED BE AVRAM,' BECAUSE HE SANCTIFIED THE NAME OF HEAVEN IN DOING IT. Another kind of anger is cursed above and below, and we have learned that it is called 'cursed', as it is written: "You are cursed above all cattle" (Beresheet 3:14), and "Cursed be their anger."

111. Two mountains rely on this mystery, as it is written: "That you shall put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Eval" (Devarim 11:29). They correspond to the two grades, THE ONE CALLED 'BLESSED' AND THE OTHER 'CURSED'. OF THESE MOUNTAINS AS WELL, one is called 'cursed' and the other 'blessed'. Shimon and Levi are from the side of Harsh Judgment, and from this harsh and rigorous Judgment, the accursed anger, WHICH IS CALLED 'CURSED', is issued.

112. Come and behold: from the side of Harsh Judgment, anger travels in two directions, one blessed and the other accursed. Similarly, two sons issued from Yitzchak, the one blessed and the other accursed, above and below. Each went to his own side. One dwelled in the Holy Land, while the other was in the mount of Seir, as "a cunning hunter, a man of the field" (Beresheet 25:27). One dwelled in a place of desolation and ruin, while the other was "dwelling in tents," as it should be.

113. Therefore, each of the two grades, blessed and cursed, goes to its own side. From the former comes all the blessings in the world from above and below—all goodness, illumination, redemption, and salvation. From the latter comes all the curses, ruin, blood, waste, evil, and all that is defiled in the world.

114. Rabbi Shimon quoted the verse: "I wash my hands in innocence: so I compass your altar, Hashem" (Tehilim 26:6). This has already been explained, yet come and behold: the mystery is that no man in the world avoids tasting death at night. As a result, the Spirit of Defilement hovers above his body. The reason is that the Holy Soul leaves him at that time and, once it leaves, the Spirit of Defilement hovers above his body, and he is defiled.

115. When the soul returns to the body, the filth passes away; yet it remains on the hands. Thus, a man should not pass his hands across his eyes since the Spirit of Defilement rests on them until they are washed. When a man properly washes them, he is then sanctified and called 'holy'.

116. HE ASKS: How should we sanctify ourselves WITH HAND WASHING? HE RESPONDED THAT we need a vessel beneath and a vessel above. To be sanctified from the vessel above, the vessel below must receive the filth of impurity and hold the contaminated WATER, while the vessel ABOVE is used for sanctification, AS ITS WATER IS Poured ON THE HANDS. The one ABOVE is blessed, and the one BENEATH is cursed. We must not empty the impure water within the house so that no one will come near it, for HARMFUL SPIRITS gather to it and a man might be harmed by the unclean water.

117. A man should not say a blessing before he removes the filth from his hands. It has been explained that a man is called 'unclean' before he washes his hands in the morning. Once he washes his hands, he is called 'pure'. Therefore, a man's hands should be washed only by the hands of a clean man, as it is written: "And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean" (Bemidbar 19:19). He WHO ALREADY WASHED HIS HANDS is called 'pure', while he WHO HAS NOT is called 'impure'.

118. Therefore, the vessel above is pure, and the vessel below is impure. It is forbidden to put the impure water to any use; it needs be emptied where no one shall use it or pass over it. It must not be kept in the house at night, for once it is spilt on the ground, the Spirit of Defilement abides there and might cause harm. It is considered wise to dig a hole for it under the ground, where it can flow unseen.

119. It must not be given to witches who may use it to harm people, because it is water that causes the curse. The Holy One, blessed be He, wishes to purify Yisrael and make the people holy, as it is written: "Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean" (Yechezkel 36:25).

13. "And that pit was empty; there was no water in it"

This section opens with a description of the rich rewards of studying Torah, both in this world and the world to come. Those who neglect study, we are told, receive punishment. As Rabbi Yehuda points out, the children of Israel were exiled from the Holy Land because they abandoned the Torah. The discussion moves from various interpretations of the "empty pit" to the actions of Joseph's brothers--including Reuven's repentance and redemption, the punishment of Ya'akov, and the removal of Yehuda as king of the tribe.

Kabbalistic concepts of retribution are not based on a Creator who metes out penalties and rewards. The Light of The Creator is a Divine Force whose only attributes are sharing and goodness. This can be compared to an electrical current--which can bring light to a city, or can be destructive if we carelessly poke a finger into a wall socket. Our own free will determines whether we short-circuit [receive punishment] or turn on the "light switch" [gain reward]. The Torah is a blueprint to show us how the universe is "wired," so that we harness spiritual forces in a positive and productive way. This wisdom and enlightenment comes to us through the intricate "wiring" of the words that compose these passages, and the spiritual Light they emit.

120. "And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and that pit was empty; there was no water in it" (Bereshheet 37:24). Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse: "The Torah of Hashem is perfect, restoring the soul" (Tehilim 19:8). Men should endeavor to study the Torah as much as possible, for whoever does so gains life in this world and in the world to come, and he merits both worlds. Even he who strives to study the Torah, but does it for worldly reasons, merits reward in this world and escapes Judgment in the next.

121. Come and behold, it is written: "Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand are riches and honor" (Mishlei 3:16). "Length of days," refers to that person who endeavors to study the Torah for its own sake, for he has length of days in a world of long days, SIGNIFYING THE EVERLASTING WORLD. These long days, which are found in the everlasting world, are certainly days. THIS MEANS THAT THEY ARE SURELY GOOD AND WORTHY DAYS. In addition, there is the certainty of sacredness above, NAMELY THE HOPED FOR REWARD. A man who trusts in this world should study the Torah diligently to be happy in the EVERLASTING world. "And in her left hand are riches and honor," for he receives good reward and peace in this world.

122. Whoever studies the Torah for its own sake will find that when he passes from the world, the Torah goes before him with proclamations and protects him from approaching accusers. When the body lies in the grave, it guards him and when the soul departs to ascend to its place, it precedes the soul. Many CLOSED gates are thrown open before the Torah until it brings THE SOUL to its place. THE TORAH stands by that man when the dead are resurrected, and speaks in his favor.

123. "When you walk, it shall lead you; when you lie down, it shall keep you and when you awake, it shall talk with you" (Mishlei 6:22). "When you walk, it shall lead you," refers to THE TORAH THAT GOES BEFORE HIM WHEN HE DIES. "When you lie down, it shall keep you," refers to the interval when the body lies in the grave, for at that time the body is judged and sentenced and the Torah acts in its defense. "And when you awake, it shall talk with you," refers to the time at which the dead rise TO LIFE from the dust. "It shall talk with you," means it will speak in your defense.

124. Rabbi Elazar quoted the verse: "It shall talk with you" (Mishlei 6:22). What does this mean? HE ANSWERS: It means that although they have just risen from the dust, they will remember the Torah they studied before their death. They will know all they studied before departing from the world. It is penetrates inside them and speak in their innermost parts. THIS MEANS THAT IT DOES NOT COME BACK SLOWLY, AS IS THE NATURE OF THOUGHT, BUT SIMULTANEOUSLY, AS IN DRESSING, AS IS THE NATURE OF THE VISCERA.

125. And everything shall be clearer than it was before HE DIED, for whatever he did not grasp well THEN, whatever he strove to understand yet did not successfully grasp, is now clear in his innermost parts. And the Torah speaks within him. This is the meaning of the verse: "And when you awake, it shall talk with you" (Mishlei 6:22). Rabbi Yehuda said that whoever studied the Torah diligently in this world deserves to be occupied with it in the world to come.

126. Come and behold: a man who did not have the merit to be occupied with the Torah in this world walks in darkness. When he passes from the world, he is put in the lowest place in Gehenom, where no one pities him, a place described as a "gruesome pit", a "miry clay," as it is written: "He brought me up also out of the gruesome pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my footsteps" (Tehilim 40:3).

127. It is therefore written of he who does not study the Torah in this world, but besmirches himself with the filth of this world: "And they took him, and cast him into a pit" (Beresheet 37:24), into Gehenom, where those who do not study the Torah are sentenced. "And the pit was empty" (Ibid.); it is empty, because there was no water in it--THAT IS, TORAH, CALLED 'WATER'.

128. Come and behold: the punishment for neglecting the study of the Torah. Yisrael were exiled from the Holy Land, only for being removed from and leaving the Torah. This is explained by the verse, "Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Why does the land perish...? Because they have forsaken My Torah which I set before them" (Yirmeyah 9:11-12). Rabbi Yosi said: "Therefore My people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge" (Yeshayah 5:13), NAMELY, OF THE TORAH.

129. Hence, everything is based on the existence of the Torah, and the world only endures by means of the Torah, which sustains the worlds above and below. As it is written: "If my Covenant be not day and night, it were as if I had not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth..." (Yirmeyah 33:25).

. ותא ששו כמה הוא עונשא דאורייתא, דהא לא אתגלו ישראל מארעא קדישא, אלא בגין דאסתלקו מאורייתא, ואשתבקו מינה, הה"ד, מי האיש החכם ויבן את זאת וגו', על מה אבדה הארץ וגו'. ויאמר ה' על עזבם את תורתי וגו'. רבי יוסי אמר מהכא, לכן גלה עמי מבלי דעת.

129. בגין כך, בלא קיימא על קיומא דאורייתא, ועלמא לא אתקיים בקיומיה, אלא באורייתא, דאיהו קיומא דעלמין, עילא ותתא, דכתיב, אם לא בריתי יומם ולילה חקות שמים וארץ לא שמתי.

130. "And they took him, and cast him into a pit" (Bereshheet 37:24). This alludes to the fact that LATER they cast him into Egypt, where the secret of the faith does not abide. WATER IS THE SECRET OF THE FAITH, AND WHEN IT IS WRITTEN: "AND THE PIT WAS EMPTY," IT REFERS TO A LACK OF THE SECRET OF THE FAITH. Rabbi Yitzchak said: If there were snakes and scorpions in the pit--ACCORDING TO THE SAGES, IT CONTAINED SNAKES AND SCORPIONS, BUT NO WATER--why is it written of Reuven, "He might save him out of their hands" (Ibid. 22)? Did not Reuven fear that the snakes and scorpions would harm Yosef? If so, how did he plan "to deliver him back to his father...that he might save him"?

131. HE REPLIED THAT Reuven saw that Yosef would surely come to harm in their hands, for he knew how much they hated him and wished to kill him. Reuven thought it was better to cast him into the pit of snakes and scorpions than to deliver him to his enemies, who have no compassion for him. Thus, the saying: "Rather should a man throw himself into a fire or a pit full of serpents and scorpions, than be delivered into the hands of his enemies."

132. For if a man is righteous here in a place of snakes and scorpions, the Holy One, blessed be He, performs miracles for him, or sometimes he is saved by the merit of his fathers. But once delivered into the hands of enemies, few escape.

133. Therefore, he said: "That he might save him out of their hands," (Bereshheet 37:22) not simply 'that he might save him', but rather, "out of their hands." Reuven said to himself, 'may he be saved from them, and if he dies, it is BETTER FOR HIM to die in the pit.' It is therefore written: "And Reuven heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands." HE SAVED HIM ONLY FROM DYING BY THEIR HANDS, EVEN THOUGH HE MIGHT HAVE DIED IN THE PIT.

134. Come and behold, the piety of Reuven. He knew that Shimon and Levi were ruthless when they joined forces and cunning. When they joined against Shchem, they killed all the males. They were not satisfied, so they took the women and the little ones, gold and silver, and all beasts and precious vessels--in short, everything that was to be found in the city. Yet even this was not enough, so they took what was in the field, as it is written: "And that which was in the city, and that which was in the field they took" (Bereshheet 34:28).

135. Reuven said, 'If such a great city did not escape them, then if this boy falls in their hands, not a shred of flesh will remain. Therefore, it is better to save him from them, for they will leave no sign of him for my father to see.'

135. אָמַר, וּמֵה קָרְתָּא רַבְתָּא כִּי הָאִי, לֹא אֲשַׁתְּיֵיב מִנְהוֹן, אֲלֵמְלֵא רַבִּינָא דָּא יַפּוּל בִּידְיֵיהוּ, לֹא יִשְׁאַרֹן מְנִיָּה אֹמְצָא בְּעֵלְמָא, וְעַל דָּא אָמַר, טַב לְאֲשַׁתְּזַבְּא מְנִיָּהוּ, דְּלֹא יִשְׁאַרֹן מְנִיָּה אֲשַׁתְּאַרְוֹתָא בְּעֵלְמָא, וְלֹא יַחֲמִי אָבֵא מְנִיָּה כְּלוּם לְעֵלְמִין.

136. 'Even if he dies IN THE PIT, his brothers will not prevail against him. His body will remain intact and I will return him whole to my father.' Therefore, it is written: "that he might save him out of their hands, to deliver him back to his father." 'I WILL BE ABLE TO RETURN HIM TO MY FATHER even though he will die there.' He therefore said, "The child is not," (Beresheet 37:30) instead of 'not alive', because he was not even dead.

137. Come and behold what Reuven did. He wisely joined them and said, "Let us not kill him" (Beresheet 37:21), instead of 'Do not you take his life', for he was not there when Yosef was sold. They each then attended their father for one day. When it was Reuven's day, he did not want Yosef to perish. It is therefore written: "And Reuven returned to the pit and, behold, Yosef was not in the pit"--NOT EVEN DEAD--"and he rent his clothes." Immediately, "he returned to his brothers, and said, 'The child is not'."

137. תָּא חֲזִי, מַאי דְעֵבַד, דְּאִיהוּ בְּחֻכְמָתָא הוּהוּ, שְׂמִיף גְרַמִּיָּה בְּהַדְרִיָּהוּ, דְכַתִּיב לֹא נִכְנּוּ נַפְשׁ, וְלֹא כְתִיב לֹא תִכּוּהוּ, וְאִיהוּ לֹא הוּהוּ תַמָּן, כִּד אֲזַדְבִּין יוֹסֵף, דְּהָא כְּלָהּוּ מִשְׁמֻשׁוֹ לְאַבּוּהוֹן, כָּל חַד וְחַד יוֹמָא חַד, וְהָהוּא יוֹמָא דְרֵאוּבֵן הוּהוּ, וְע"ד בְּעָא, דְּבַהֲהוּא יוֹמָא דְהוּהוּ שְׁמוּשָׁא דִלְיָהּ, לֹא יִתְאַבִּיד יוֹסֵף, וּבְגִין כֵּן כְּתִיב, וַיֹּשֶׁב רֵאוּבֵן אֶל הַבּוֹר וְהִנֵּה אֵין יוֹסֵף בְּבוֹר וַיִּקְרַע אֶת בְּגָדָיו. וְהִנֵּה אֵין יוֹסֵף דִּיִּיקָא, אִפְּלוּ מֵיַת, מִיָּד וַיֹּשֶׁב אֶל אַחָיו וַיֹּאמֶר הַיֵּלֶד אֵינְנוּ.

138. Even Reuven was not informed of the sale of Yosef. It has already been explained that the Shechinah was a partner IN THE VOW NOT TO REVEAL THE SALE OF YOSEF. Therefore Reuven did not know of it, and it was not revealed to him until Yosef made himself known to his brothers!

. וְאַפְּשָׁלוּ רֵאוּבֵן, לֹא יָדַע מֵהָהוּא זְבִינָא דִּיִּוֹסֵף, וְהָא אֹקְמוּהָ דְאֲשַׁתְּתִיף בְּהוּ שְׂכִינְתָּא, וְע"ד, לֹא יָדַע רֵאוּבֵן, מֵהָהוּא זְבִינָא דִּיִּוֹסֵף, וְלֹא אֲתַגְלִיָּיא לֵיהּ, עַד הָהוּא זְמַנָּא, דְּאֲתַגְלִי יוֹסֵף לְאַחוּהִי.

139. Come and behold the pleasure Reuven attained in trying to save Yosef's life. It is written: "Let Reuven live, and not die" (Devarim 33:6). For although he knew that the birthright was taken from him and given to Yosef, nevertheless he tried to save his life. Therefore Moshe prayed for him, saying, "Let Reuven live, and not die," and be supported in this world and in the world to come. What is the reason - it is this SAVING YOSEF'S LIFE and repenting for DEFILING HIS FATHER'S BED! If a man repents his sins, the Holy One, blessed be He, will revive him in this world and in the world to come.

. תָּא סַעֲזֵן, בְּמָה גְרִים לֵיהּ לְרֵאוּבֵן, בְּגִין דְּאִיהוּ אֲשַׁתְּדַל לְאַחֵינָא לֵיהּ לְיוֹסֵף, מַה כְּתִיב, יַחֲי רֵאוּבֵן וְאֵל יָמוּת וּגו'. דְּהָא בְּגִין דָּא אַף עַל גַּב דִּיִּדַע דְּאֲשַׁתְּקִיל בְּכִירוּתִיהּ מְנִיָּה, וְאַתֵּיחֵיב לְיוֹסֵף, אֲשַׁתְּדַל לְאַחֵינָא לֵיהּ, וְצִלִּי מִשָּׂה וְאָמַר, יַחֲי רֵאוּבֵן וְאֵל יָמוּת, וְאַתְקִיִּים בְּעֵלְמָא דִּין, וְאַתְקִיִּים בְּעֵלְמָא דְאַתֵּי. מַאי טַעְמָא, בְּגִין דָּא, וּבְגִין דְּעֵבַד תְּשׁוּבָה מֵהָהוּא עוֹבְדָא. דְּכָל מָאן דְּעֵבִיד תְּשׁוּבָה, קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא קִיִּים לֵיהּ, בְּעֵלְמָא דִּין, וּבְעֵלְמָא דְאַתֵּי.

140. Come and behold: "And they took Yosef's coat..." (Beresheet 37:31). It has been explained that this is because a coat's blood resembles human blood. Yet come and behold: even when an act is well executed--WITHOUT COMMITTING ANY SIN--the Holy One, blessed be He, is strict with the righteous, even to a hair's breadth.

141. Ya'akov did well to kill a goat for his father. Yet by offering a goat, which comes from the side of Harsh Judgment, he weakened THE ASPECT OF THE STRICT JUDGMENT OF his father since he is of its aspect, AS YITZCHAK TOO PERTAINS TO SEVERE JUDGMENT. AND ALTHOUGH THE JUDGMENT TOOK HOLD OF THE GOAT, Ya'akov was punished in that his sons brought its blood before him.

142. It is written OF YA'AKOV: "And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck" (Beresheet 27:16). Therefore it is said OF HIS SONS: "And they dipped the coat in the blood" (Beresheet 37:31). This was measure for measure. Since he caused that "Yitzchak trembled very much" (Ibid. 33), HIS SONS made him tremble when they said, "Know now whether it be your son's coat or not" (Ibid. 32).

143. Rabbi Chiya said it is written concerning him (Ya'akov): "Are you my son Esav or not" (Beresheet 27:21), and addressing him (they said), "is it your son's coat or not" (Beresheet 37:32). This is because the Holy One, blessed be He, is strict with the righteous to a hair's breadth in everything they do.

144. Rabbi Aba said that when the tribes saw their father's grief, they surely regretting SELLING YOSEF and determined to rescue him if they could find him. When they saw they could not RESCUE HIM, they turned to Yehuda, WHO ADVISED THEM TO SELL HIM and rejected him from among them. For he now was their king, and when they deposed him, it is written: "And it came to pass at that time, that Yehuda went down from his brothers" (Beresheet 38:1).

14. Tzion and Jerusalem

Here, Rabbi Yehuda discusses the creation of the universal structure that issued from Zion, the central point of faith and perfection. While Zion and Jerusalem are one, they represent the two grades of judgment and mercy. Through Binah, which correlates to understanding, the attributes of mercy and judgment are commingled and reconciled in the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

Throughout life, our actions disrupt and misalign the supernal forces that embody the attributes of judgement and mercy. This occurs on both a personal and universal level, in line with individual and collective actions of humanity. Consequently, judgement may occur in place of mercy; the world may seem especially hard and judgmental toward us. In response, we may find ourselves overreacting to situations where we'd normally respond with restraint and patience. Balancing these two attributes in our behavior is vital.

An example of judgement and mercy is illustrated by the following parent-child situation. A child terribly misbehaves. The parent becomes extremely upset and immediately spans the youngster. The parent reacted to the situation, and the act of judgement was rooted in selfish frustration. The child might attempt to change his behavior, but he does so only out of fear. Kabbalistically, the parent needs to balance judgement with mercy. That is, sharing and care for the child must be the intent behind any disciplinary action. The parent might still gently spank the child, but out of love and concern, rather than anger and frustration. The child's motivation for change will now be rooted in love and respect, not fear.

If a soul descends into a human being from the lineage of Avraham [Right Column], it is said that the person's nature will be shaped and influenced by the quality of mercy. If a soul descends from the lineage of Yitzchak [Left Column], the individual is imbued with a greater proportion of judgement in his nature, and behavior is influenced in that direction. Reading this section helps balance the forces of judgement and mercy in our interactions with the world. Moreover, these verses open us to the Light so that we ourselves can be worthy of mercy, rather than judgement, when the time comes for them to appear in our lives.

145. Rabbi Yehuda quoted the verse: "Hashem also thundered in the heavens, and the highest gave His voice; hail and coals of fire" (Tehilim 18:14). Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe, THAT IS, WHEN THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, EMANATED THE NUKVA, CALLED 'WORLD', He made seven pillars for it BY ILLUMINATING ON HER WITH THE SEVEN SFIROT: CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT OF ZEIR ANPIN. All of them are supported by one single pillar, NAMELY YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN'. In the verse: "Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn out her seven pillars" (Mishlei 9:1), it was explained that they all stand on one grade called 'YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN'; "the righteous is an everlasting foundation" (Mishlei 10:25).

146. When the universe was created, it issued from the spot that included, along with its improvements, the point in the middle of the world, which is Tzion, THE INNER YESOD OF THE NUKVA. As it is written: "A psalm of Asaf. The mighty one, El, Elohim Hashem, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof" (Tehilim 50:1). Where did He speak from? From Tzion, as it is written: "Out of Tzion, the perfection of beauty, Elohim has shone forth" (Tehilim 50:2), the place that constructs faith to perfection. Tzion is the strength, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, and the point of the whole world--THAT IS THE SECRET OF THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM--on which the world has been constructed BY THE CHOCHMAH IN IT, and wherein it is nourished, BY THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM IN IT.

147. Come and behold: after stating, "Hashem also thundered in the heavens" (Tehilim 18:14), why add, "and the Highest gave His voice," WHICH IS REDUNDANT? RABBI YEHUDA ANSWERS: Here is the secret of the faith I mentioned. For Tzion constructs and beautifies the world, and the world is nourished by Tzion FROM ITS TWO ASPECTS, NAMELY CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM. This is similar to the two grades that are one, namely Tzion and Jerusalem; the former of Judgment and the latter of Mercy, and both are one. Judgment is issued from one, and Mercy is issued from the other.

148. From high up, REFERRING TO THE SFIRAH OF BINAH, a voice resounds. THIS IS THE CENTRAL RECONCILING COLUMN OF BINAH. When it is heard, WHEN IT RECONCILES THE NUKVA, AND THE LIGHTS OF RIGHT AND LEFT ARE HEARD, Judgments issue forth FROM THE NUKVA and the paths of Judgment and Mercy may be seen diverging. "Hashem also thundered in the heavens," refers to the Merciful Court. And although the Highest, BINAH may be neither found nor known, because the same voice comes out AND RECONCILES RIGHT AND LEFT, all is then under Judgment and Mercy. AS THE HIGHEST, BINAH GIVES ITS VOICE TO THE NUKVA AND RECONCILES HER TWO COLUMNS. So it is written: "And the Highest gave His voice" (Tehilim 18:14). Then came "hail and coals of fire"--water and fire.

149. Come and behold: when Yehuda was born, it was written: "And she left off bearing" (Beresheet 29:35). This refers to the fourth of the four foundations, CALLED CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT, because they are the Supernal Chariot OF BINAH, and this is one of the four legs of the throne, CALLED MALCHUT. THEREFORE, IT WAS WRITTEN WITH REGARD TO HIM, "AND SHE LEFT OFF BEARING," FOR HE IS THE LAST SFIRAH, MALCHUT. It is written of him: "And it came to pass at that time, that Yehuda went down from his brothers" (Beresheet 38:1). He was their king, BEING OF MALCHUT, BUT AFTER SELLING YOSEF, HE WAS DEPOSED. Why? Because Yosef was brought down to Egypt.

15. "And he called his name Er"

The interconnection of the upper and lower worlds is exemplified in this section concerning the fate of Yehuda's firstborn son, Er. Yehuda's fall and descent, we're told, signify the descent and obscuring of the moon and the supernal Light; consequently, his son was born of the Side of Defilement, and was therefore later slain by the Lord.

The Relevance of this Passage

In order to grow spiritually and bring greater fulfillment to our lives, we must abolish all the character traits within us that emerge from the side of Defilement and Darkness. The end of darkness occurs the instant the 'Light' is turned on--which, in turn, occurs at the moment we peruse these profound words of wisdom.

150. "And Yehuda saw there a daughter of a certain Cna'anite" (Beresheet 38:2). HE ASKS: Was he Cnaanite? DID NOT THE FATHERS AVOID MARRYING AMONG THE CNA'ANITES? HE REPLIED: It has been explained by the friends THAT THE WORD CNA'ANITE MEANS 'MERCHANT'. "And she conceived, and bore a son, and he called his name Er" (Ibid. 3). Yehuda had three sons, but only one, Shelah, remained BECAUSE YEHUDA WENT DOWN, AND WAS PUNISHED FOR IT BY BEGETTING SONS AND THEN BURYING THEM.

151. Rabbi Elazar, Rabbi Yosi, and Rabbi Chiya were walking along the road. Rabbi Yosi asked Rabbi Elazar: Why is it written in relation to Yehuda's firstborn: "And he called his name Er," USING THE MALE PRONOUN, and of the other two sons, "she called his name Onan," and "she called his name Shelah," USING THE FEMALE PRONOUN?

150. וירא שם יהודה בת איש כנעני. וכי כנעני הוה, אלא הא אוקמוה חברינא. ותהר ותלד בן ויקרא את שמו ער, תלת בנין הוו ליה ליהודה, ולא אשתארו מנייהו בר חד, ודא הוא שלה.

151. רבי אלעזר, ורבי יוסי, ורבי חייא, הוו אזלי בארחה. אמר רבי יוסי לרבי אלעזר, אמאי כתיב בבנוי דיהודה בקדמאה, ויקרא את שמו ער, ובתרין אחרנין כתיב, ויקרא את שמו אונן, ויקרא את שמו שלה.

152. He said to him: Come and behold. This portion contains a profound secret, and all is proper. "Yehuda went down from his brothers" because the moon, THE NUKVA, became obscure and descended from the upright grade to another grade to which the serpent is attached. It is written: "And turned into a certain Adullamite, whose name was Chirah."

152. אָמְרָלוּ תָא חֲזִי, הָאִי פְרִשְׁתָּא רְזָא עֲלָאָה אִיהוּ, וְכֹלָא אִיהוּ בְדִקָּא חֲזִי. וַיֵּרַד יְהוּדָה מֵאֵת אָחָיו, דְּהָא אֲתַכְסִיָּא סִיְהֵרָא, וְנַחְתַּת מִדְּרָגָא דְתַקְנָא, לְגוּ דְרָגָא אוּחְרָא דְאֲתַחְבַּר בֵּיהּ חֲזִיָּא, כַּד"א וַיֵּט עַד אִישׁ עַדְלָמִי וּשְׁמוּ חִירָה.

153. "And she conceived, and bore a son; and he called his name Er (Ayin Resh)" (Bereshheet 38:3). He was evil (Heb. Resh Ayin)-which amounts to the same thing, FOR 'EVIL' AND ER ARE SPELLED WITH THE SAME HEBREW LETTERS. Because he came from the side of the Evil Inclination, it is written: "And he called (Heb. et) his name Er." The particle et adds yet another grade of filth of defilement, from which he was born. This is why Er and Ra ('evil') are identical, NAMELY, SPELLED WITH THE SAME HEBREW LETTERS!

154. With the second son, the place was not yet sweetened AND RETURNED TO HOLINESS. That happened only when Shelah, who was the most important of them all, came. It is written: "And Er, Yehuda's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Hashem" (Bereshheet 38:7), and "for the inclination of man's heart is evil from his youth" (Bereshheet 8:21). THERE IT MEANS 'SPILLING SEMEN IN VAIN'; THUS, HERE IT MEANS HE WAS SPILLING blood, for he spilt semen on the ground. That is why "Hashem slew him" (Ibid.). Then, "Yehuda said to Onan, 'Go in to your brother's wife...'"

16. "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a brother in law"

Rabbi Shimon begins by discussing the responsibility of the righteous man to beget children in order to ensure a place for his soul in the world to come. By perpetuating the image of the Holy King through offspring, the righteous man may prevent the reincarnation of his soul. Thus, the section addresses the necessity of marriage and of levirate marriage. We are also reminded of the futility and vanity of the individual who endeavors to provide only for himself, without creating a family.

A dark room becomes progressively brighter with each lighting of a new candle. Every soul that comes into this world is likened to a candle. Though true reality, which is our ultimate destination, offers immortality and endless fulfillment, during the course of human spiritual evolution, the Light is temporarily dimmed. Immortality is relegated to the act of procreation and childbearing, which ensures the ongoing entrance of new souls into this world for the purpose of bringing about the final correction of humanity. In other words, the chain of humanity is immortal, while the individual body remains perishable and finite. All men live for the existence of the chain until such time as humanity completes its spiritual correction and transformation. At that juncture, the force of immortality will expand and bring endless life. This transformation, the final redemption, is hastened by bringing new souls into this world, whose Light, through the path of Torah, helps diminish darkness and death and accelerate the process of correction. This Light is also generated through the spiritual influences that radiate from these ancient Hebrew verses.

155. "And Yehuda said to Onan, 'Go in to your brother's wife...'" (Bereshheet 38:21). Rabbi Shimon then quoted: "'I have raised up one from the north, and he is come from the rising of the sun, and he shall call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treads clay" (Yeshayah 41:25). Come and behold: how foolish are men who neither know nor care for the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He. They are all asleep, and sleep never leaves their eyes.

156. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, wisely created man in the image of above. There is neither a member nor an organ within man that was not created by Divine Wisdom, AS EACH ORGAN ALLUDES TO A SPECIFIC GRADE. After the body is complete with all its members, the Holy One, blessed be He, joins them and inserts a sacred soul to teach the man to tread the paths of the Torah and keep its commandments, so that the man will be properly perfected IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE APHORISM: 'A MAN'S SOUL SHALL TEACH HIM.'

157. Now that the sacred soul is within him, HE IS WORTHY OF BEGETTING CHILDREN IN THE IMAGE AND LIKENESS OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. Therefore, a man should multiply to perpetuate the image of the highest King in the universe. The secret of this is the river which issues forth: SUPERNAL YESOD, whose water never stops. Similarly, a man should never stop the flowing of his river and the source in this world, BUT SHOULD BEGET CHILDREN. When a man is unsuccessful IN BEGETTING CHILDREN in this world, the Holy One, blessed be He, uproots him FROM THIS WORLD and replants him again and again. THAT IS, HE DIES AND IS BORN AGAIN INTO THE WORLD UNTIL HE SUCCEEDS IN BEGETTING CHILDREN.

159. "...from the rising of the sun..." (Yeshayah 41:25) The place from which the river issues forth is TIFERET, THE ABODE OF YESOD, from which the shining soul comes and is born, AS ALL SOULS COME FROM THE UNION OF TIFERET AND MALCHUT. "And he shall come upon princes" (Ibid.), means that the armies of the world--THE NUKVA CALLED 'WORLD', WHOSE ARMIES ARE ANGELS--come with the stirring of the souls, NAMELY, ARE BORN WITH THEM. AND, "as upon mortar" (Ibid.), means as a man awakening into his body, WHICH IS CALLED 'MORTAR'.

160. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, couples souls and sends them into this world, causing union between above and below, and thus the source of all is blessed. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, created man so that he will strive to walk in His ways and never stop his river, RATHER HE WILL BEGET CHILDREN.

161. He whose source is dried up AND DOES NOT BEGET CHILDREN cannot enter the presence of the Holy One, blessed be He, when he passes from the world, and he does not participate in that world. Come and behold, it is written: "He did not create it a waste land; He formed it to be inhabited" (Yeshayah 45:18). Therefore, He created man IN THE LIKENESS OF ABOVE, for the Holy One, blessed be He, is kind to the world. Come and behold, it is written: "Then again Avraham took a wife, and her name was Kturah" (Beresheet 25:1). This is the secret of the soul returning INTO A BODY to be perfected.

162. Come and behold: it is written of the body, "But it pleased Hashem to crush man by disease: if his soul shall consider it a recompense for guilt, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the purpose of Hashem shall prosper in his hand" (Yeshayah 53:10). We have to study this verse further. Why does it so please HIM? HE ANSWERS: Because it purifies him! HE ASKS: Why the feminine gender INSTEAD OF THE MASCULINE in the verse, "If his soul shall consider (feminine) it a recompense for guilt"? HE ANSWERS: Because the phrase, "shall consider," alludes to the soul. THUS, if the soul wishes to perfect herself properly, then "he shall see his seed," because the soul roams around without rest and is destined to enter the seed of a man who observed THE COMMANDMENT OF being fruitful and multiplying. He shall then "prolong his days...and the purpose of Hashem," referring to the study of the Torah, "shall prosper in his hand." BUT IF HE DID NOT HAVE CHILDREN, THE TORAH DOES NOT HELP HIM.

163. Come and behold: if a man studies the Torah day and night, but does not use his source and fountain of life TO BEGET CHILDREN, he is not permitted in the presence of the Holy One, blessed be He. We have learned that a well of water is no well unless the source feeds it, for the well and the source are of one secret. And we have explained THAT WHOEVER HAS NO CHILDREN IS JUDGED AS IF THE SOURCE DID NOT FLOW INTO HIM, NAMELY DID NO WORK WITHIN HIM.

164. It is written: "It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sadness; for truly to His beloved He gives tranquillity" (Tehilim 127:2). Come and behold: how precious are the words of the Torah, for each contains high and holy mysteries. We have learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, gave Yisrael the Torah, he included within it all the holy and supernal mysteries that were given to the children of Yisrael when they received the Torah on Mount Sinai.

165. Come and behold: "It is vain for you to rise early," refers to single men without wives who are not as they should be, without union with a woman. They rise up early to do their work, as is manifest in the verse: "There is one alone, without a companion... yet there is no end of all his labor" (Kohelet 4:8). "...to sit up late..." refers to those who retire late, WHO ARE LATE TO MARRY, FOR IT MEANS 'REST', as in "because in it he rested" (Beresheet 2:3); for a woman is considered a repose for man.

166. Of the verse, "To eat the bread of sadness" (Tehilim 127:2), HE ASKS: What is the bread of sadness? HE ANSWERS THAT when a man has children, he eats his bread joyously, with a glad heart. If he does not have children, he eats the bread of sadness. These are assuredly those who "eat the bread of sadness."

167. HE ASKS: What is meant by the verse, "For truly to His beloved He gives tranquillity" (Tehilim 127:2)? HE ANSWERS: To he whose source is blessed WITH CHILDREN, the Holy One, blessed be He, gives sleep in this world, in accordance with the verse, "You shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet" (Mishlei 3:24). This is because he has a part in the world to come, and he therefore lies IN THE GRAVE and enjoys the world to come.

168. "There is one alone without a companion" (Kohelet 4:8), refers to the man who is alone in the world, but not appropriately; HE IS without a wife. He is "without a companion," having no wife to help him. "...he has neither son..." to preserve his name in Yisrael after him, "nor brother" to amend for him BY LEVIRATE MARRIAGE.

169. "...yet there is no end of all his labor..." (Kohelet 4:8) means that he labors constantly, from early day to night. "Neither is his eye satisfied with riches" (Ibid.), and he has not the sense to ask, "For whom then do I labor, and bereave my soul of good?" It may be said that if he toils to have more food and drink to feast every day, this is not so, because the soul does not derive any enjoyment from it. Assuredly, he denies his soul good, of the light of the world to come, because the soul is defective; that is, it is not properly perfected. Come and behold: how compassionate is the Holy One, blessed be He, toward His creatures, IN BRINGING HIM BACK IN ANOTHER INCARNATION SO HE CAN PERFECT HIMSELF. For He wishes him to be perfected and not to be cut off from the world to come.

170. Rabbi Chiya asks: What is the position in the world to come of a thoroughly righteous man who engages in the study of the Torah day and night and devotes all his deeds to the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, yet does not have children in this world? Or a man who tries but can not have children, or has children who die? Rabbi Yosi replied: His deeds and the Torah protect him, so he is worthy of the world to come.

171. Rabbi Yitzchak said: It is written of them and of the truly just: "For thus says Hashem to the eunuchs that keep My Shabbatot (plural), and choose the things that please Me, and take hold of My Covenant. And to them will I give in My house and within My walls a memorial better than sons and daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off" (Yeshayah 56:4-5), for they have a portion in the world to come. Rabbi Yosi said to him: This is good and well; THAT IS, HE AGREED WITH HIM.

172. Come and behold: a thoroughly righteous man who attained all THE AFOREMENTIONED VIRTUES and reached perfection, but died without children, inherits his place in the world to come. HE ASKS: Does his wife have to marry his brother or not? If she does, it is in vain, FOR HE DOES NOT NEED HIS BROTHER TO PERFECT HIM, having already attained his place in the world to come!

173. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly his wife should marry his brother, for we can not tell whether he was whole in his deeds or not. If his wife marries his brother, it is not in vain, EVEN IF HE ATTAINED PERFECTION. For the Holy One, blessed be He, keeps a place FOR THOSE WHO DIE WITHOUT CHILDREN OR A BROTHER TO MARRY THEIR WIFE. When a thoroughly righteous man dies and his wife marries his brother, he has already inherited his place AND DOES NOT NEED THE CORRECTION OF THE LEVIRATE MARRIAGE. Then comes a MAN WHO DIED CHILDLESS, WITHOUT A REDEEMER IN THE WORLD, and is perfected by the marriage OF THE RIGHTEOUS MAN'S WIFE. In the meanwhile, the Holy One, blessed be He, prepares a place FOR THE MAN WITHOUT THE REDEEMER until the righteous man dies. Then, he may be perfected in the world THROUGH A LEVIRATE MARRIAGE. This is the meaning of the verse: "Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest" (Bemidbar 35:28).

174. In relation to this, we have learned that the righteous are destined to have children through their death; THAT IS, THE CHILDREN OF THE LEVIRATE MARRIAGE WHO PERFECT THOSE WHO HAVE DIED CHILDLESS AND WITHOUT A BROTHER. They attain in their deaths what they did not attain during their lives. Hence, all the works of the Holy One, blessed be He, are true, just, and compassionate toward all, EVEN THOSE WHO HAVE NO BROTHER.

174. ודא הוא דתנינן, בנין זמינן אינון לצדיקא במיתתהון, בחייהון לא זכו, ובמיתתהון זכו, ובגין כך כל עובדוי דקודשא בריך הוא כלהו קשוט וזכו, וחייוס על כלא.

175. He began by quoting the verse: "Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor" (Kohelet 4:9). This refers to those who strive to beget children in this world. For the sake of the children they leave after them, they receive a good reward in this world. For their sake, their fathers inherit a portion of the world to come.

176. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, plants trees in the world. If they grow well, it is good; if they do not, He uproots them and replants them SOMEWHERE ELSE as many times as required. Such are the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, in tending to the good and to the correction of the world.

177. "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law" (Bereshheet 38:8) IS REDUNDANT, for Yehuda and the other tribes knew this. The ONLY important thing he told him was, "and raise up seed", for seed was needed for purification and for preparing an embryo to receive the remedy, so that the stock would not be severed from the root. This is the meaning of: "and man shall return to dust" (Iyov 34:15).

178. Having been prepared properly AFTER THE SAID INCARNATION, they are well praised in the world to come, for they please the Holy One, blessed be He. It is therefore written: "So I praised the dead that are already dead more than the living that are yet (Heb. adenah) alive" (Kohelet 4:2). FOR THEY COME BACK TO LIFE AND RETURN TO A TENDER AGE. The word "adenah" as in, "After I am grown old shall I have pleasure (Heb. ednah)" (Bereshheet 18:12), and "he shall return to the days of his youth" (Iyov 33:24), MEANS THE DAYS OF YOUTH AND PLEASURE TO WHICH HE RETURNED IN INCARNATION.

179. "...but better than both of them is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun" (Kohelet 4:3, refers to he who has not returned to his youth AND BEEN REINCARNATED. HE IS A THOROUGHLY RIGHTEOUS PERSON, who does not need a new incarnation to achieve perfection and is not burdened by former sins, like one incarnated who suffers for sins he committed in former life. The Holy One, blessed be He, prepared for him a fitting place in the world to come.

180. Come and behold, it is written: "And so I saw the wicked buried, and come to their rest" (Kohelet 8:10), as we said THAT THEY WERE BORN AGAIN TO MEND THEIR DEEDS. For the Holy One, blessed be He, is kind and does not want the world to perish, BUT PREFERS TO REFORM THE WICKED THROUGH REINCARNATION. All His ways are true and gracious and benefit them in this world and in the world to come. Happy is the portion of the righteous who walk the true path, of whom it is written: "The righteous shall inherit the land" (Tehilim 37:29).

17. "And the thing which he did displeased Hashem..."

This section addresses the sin which, we're told, defiles man most in this world and in the world to come: masturbation. This judgment is not based upon moral or ethical principles, but rather upon the metaphysical structure of the Upper Worlds. The dark forces that challenge us throughout our spiritual development derive their strength and sustenance from the Light they steal from us. Thus, when we react or behave with intolerance towards others, the Light we lose strengthens the Evil Inclination. Masturbation is condemned for the simple reason that a man's seed is the substance that is closest in form to the Light of The Creator. It is raw, naked energy, and therefore requires concealment when it is revealed in our physical world. This concealment takes place when a man's seed is used for the direct purpose of creating life. Moreover, sexual relations between a man and wife express the ultimate in sharing, with both parties imparting pleasure to one another. In this loving and protected environment, the Light and power of a man's sperm cannot be appropriated or defiled by the Evil Inclination. The spilling of a man's seed is an act that is done for immediate self-gratification. Consequently, negative forces immediately appropriate this Light and our lives grow a little bit darker. Hardships and misfortunes in life--whether emotional, financial, marital, or otherwise--result from a lack of spiritual Light. We also learn of the great rewards in the world to come for a man who has trained his children to draw close to God and live by the spiritual wisdom of Torah.

The Relevance of this Passage

When a man refrains from pleasuring himself through the wanton spilling of his seed, his spiritual life force grows increasingly stronger. This manifests in many ways, including more intense sexual desire for his mate, and greater emotional stability and inner peace. The Light of this passage helps to cleanse and eradicate the dark forces that attach to us as a result of our sexually self-gratifying actions. This Light helps us to recognize the spiritual benefits associated with directing our carnal desires towards sharing pleasure with our mate, and drawing the Light of the Creator into this darkened world.

181. "And the thing which he did displeased Hashem: So He slew him also" (Bereshheet 38:10). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand" (Kohelet 11:6). Come and behold: it behooves man much to be careful lest he sin and to be heedful in his actions before the Holy One, blessed be He. For there are numerous messengers and chieftains in the world who roam about observing the deeds of man and bearing testimony of him, recording everything in a book.

182. Come and behold: of all the sins that defile a man in this world, that which defiles him the most in this world and in the world to come is spilling his semen in vain. Letting it out in vain by the hand or leg brings impurity on man, as it is written: "For you are not an El that has pleasure in wickedness: nor shall evil dwell with you" (Tehilim 5:5).

182. וְתָא חֲזִי, בְּכֹל אֵינוּן חוֹבִין דְּאַסְתָּאב בְּהוּ בַר נֶשׁ בְּהָאֵי עֲלְמָא, דָּא אִיהוּ חוֹבָא דְּאַסְתָּאב בֵּיהּ בַר נֶשׁ יַתִּיר בְּהָאֵי עֲלְמָא, וּבְעֵלְמָא דְּאִתִּי, מֵאֵן דְּאוֹשִׁיד זֶרְעִיהּ בְּרִיקְנֵיא, וְאַפִּיק זֶרְעָא לְמַגְנָא, בִּידָא אוּ בְּרַגְלָא וְאַסְתָּאב בֵּיהּ, כַּמָּה דָּאֵת אָמַר כִּי לֹא אֵל חַפֵּץ רָשַׁע אֶתָּה לֹא יִגוֹרְךָ רַע.

183. He therefore does not come inside the curtain OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, or behold the presence of Atik Yomin, as is learned from the verses: "Nor shall evil dwell with you" (Tehilim 5:5), and "And Er, Yehuda's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Hashem" (Bereshheet 38:7). BOTH VERSES INDICATE THAT HE DOES NOT BEHOLD THE FACE OF HASHEM. Hence, it is written: "Your hands are full of blood" (Yeshayah 1:15), WHICH REFERS TO LETTING SEMEN BY THE HAND, WHICH IS LIKENED TO SHEDDING BLOOD. Happy is the portion of the man who fears Hashem and is guarded from the evil path, and purifies himself to be occupied in the fear of his Master.

184. The verse, "In the morning sow your seed" (Kohelet 11:6), has already been explained. The morning is the time of man's strength and youth. He should then strive to beget children with the wife appropriate for him, according to the verse: "In the morning sow your seed."

185. Then it is his time TO BEGET CHILDREN, as it is written: "As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of one's youth" (Tehilim 127:4). Then he is able to teach them the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, and to receive good reward for the world to come, as it is written: "Happy is the man that has his quiver full of them, they shall not be put to shame, but they shall speak with their enemies in the gate" (Tehilim 127:5). "They shall not be put to shame" in the World of Truth when the Accusers bring accusations on them, for there is no better reward in that world than THE REWARD of he who teaches his child the fear of Hashem in the ways of the Torah.

186. Come and behold: it is written about Avraham, "For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of Hashem, to do justice and judgment" (Bereshheet 18:19). This merit stood him well in the world to come against all Accusers.

187. It is therefore written: "In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand" (Kohelet 11:6). Even in old age, CALLED 'EVENING', it is written: "Do not withhold your hand" from begetting children. Why? "For you know not which shall prosper, whether this of that," before Elohim, and which will defend them in the World of Truth.

188. Hence it is written: "Lo, children are the heritage of Hashem" (Tehilim 127:3). This is the Eternal Life (lit. 'bundle of LIFE') of the soul, THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "YET THE SOUL OF MY LORD SHALL BE BOUND IN THE BOND OF LIFE" (I SHMUEL 25:29), CONSIDERED AS the world to come and called 'heritage' BY THE SCRIPTURE. Who causes man to merit the heritage of Hashem? Children do. The children cause man to merit the heritage of Hashem! Therefore, happy is the man who has children to whom he may teach the ways of the Torah.

This section explains the actions of Ruth and Tamar, two women who lost their first husbands and later conceived through levirate marriage. We learn that both acted piously and with the help of God, because the fruitful seed of Yehuda was established through them.

The Relevance of this Passage

This story concerns the eventual birth of King David and the Messiah. What's most relevant to the reader is the Messianic Light concealed inside the passage. A simple reading of the text sets the Light aglow, helping to hasten the emergence of the Messiah within us, and in turn, the arrival of the global Mashiach and Final Redemption.

189. "And she put off her widow's garments..." (Beresheet 38:14). Come and behold: could it be that Tamar, a priest's daughter, who was always modest, would commit incest with her father-in-law? HE ANSWERS: She was a righteous woman AND did this with wisdom. She was not lewd, but wise, and KNEW WHAT WOULD BECOME OF IT. SHE approached him to do kindness and truth by him.

190. Come and behold: because she knew what would become of her efforts, the Holy One, blessed be He, aided her in the act, and she conceived immediately. All this was from THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. It may be wondered why the Holy One, blessed be He, did not use another woman to bear these sons, but this one, TAMAR. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly, she was needed for this and no other woman would do.

191. The seed of Yehuda was established with two women, who bore King David, King Solomon, and Mashiach. The two women, Tamar and Rut, resembled each other. Both Tamar and Rut lost their first husbands and replaced them through similar efforts.

192. Tamar approached her father-in-law, who was next of kin to his dead sons AND THUS WORTHY OF TAKING HER IN LEVIRATE MARRIAGE. The reason for her act is stated in the verse: "For she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him to wife" (Beresheet 38:14). She therefore did this by her father-in-law.

193. Rut's first husband died as did that of Tamar, and then she did the deed by Boaz, as it is written: "And uncovered his feet, and laid herself down" (Rut 3:7). She then gave birth to Oved. You might ask why Oved was not born to another woman, INSTEAD OF IN THIS MANNER. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly, it was necessary that she, and not any other woman, bore him. From these two, the seed of Yehuda was built and established. Both did well and brought kindness upon the dead, so they would later be perfected in the world.

194. This is the explanation of the verse: "So I praised the dead that are already dead" (Kohelet 4:2). As long as THE HUSBANDS OF TAMAR AND RUT were alive, there was no praise to their name. After they died, THEIR WIVES WERE TAKEN IN LEVIRATE MARRIAGE AND THE KINGDOM OF DAVID, SOLOMON, AND MASHIACH DESCENDED FROM THEM. Both TAMAR AND RUT did kindness and truth by the dead, and the Holy One, blessed be He, helped them in the very act. Thus, all is fitting as it should be. Happy is he who studies the Torah day and night, as it is written: "But you shall meditate therein day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it: for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success" (Yehoshua 1:8).

194. וְדָא הוּא כְּמָה דְאִתְמַר, וְשִׁבַּח אֲנִי אֶת הַמֵּתִים שְׁכַבְרֵי מֵתוּ, דְהָא כִּד הוּוּ חַיִּין בְּקִדְמֵיתָא לֹא הוּוּ בְּהוּ שְׁבַחָא, וְתִרְוּיָהוּ אֲשַׁתְּדְלוּ לְמַעְבַּד טִיבוּ וְקִשׁוּט עִם אַנּוּן מִיִּתְיָא, וְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא סִייעַ בְּהֵוּא עוֹבְדָא, וְכֹלָא הוּוּ כְּדָקָא יְאוּת, זְכָאָה אִיהוּ מֵאֵן דְאֲשַׁתְּדַל בְּאוּרֵיִתָּא יִמְמָא וְלִילֵיָא, כִּד "א, וְהִגִּיתָ בּוּ יוֹמָם וְלִילָה לְמַעַן תִּשְׁמַר לַעֲשׂוֹת כְּכֹל הַכְּתוּב בּוּ כִּי אַז תִּצְלִיחַ אֶת דְרָבִיךָ וְגו'.

19. "And Yosef was brought down to Egypt..."

This section begins by interpreting the phrasing of the title quotation as indicating God's approval of this act; it was necessary in order to fulfill His announcement to Avraham.

A discussion follows concerning the legions of angels who sing praises to the glory of God throughout the night. It is the role of the children of Israel to offer praises to God through litanies three times daily. In this way, God is glorified both day and night, from above and below. Rabbi Shimon next offers two explanations of the phrase, "who commands the sun," in the context of Ya'akov and Yosef. One explanation interprets this as an allusion to Yosef, when he was sold. The other understands it to be concerned with Ya'akov, when his sons showed him evidence of Yosef's death.

The Relevance of this Passage

In the course of spiritual development, we sometimes have to fail in order to build a greater vessel that can hold all the Light that awaits us as we ascend to the next level. This is what happened to Yosef when he was "brought down to Egypt." Egypt is a code word for darkness and disconnection from the Light of The Creator. Reading these passages helps attune us to the angelic hierarchies and the spiritual energy forces they transmit. These forces give us power to rise when we fall, strength to stand after we stumble--and this serves to increase the size of our vessel, so that we can receive even greater Light in our lives. These verses also help us expand our vessel so that it is not necessary for us to fall quite so far down or to stumble quite so often.

195. In the verse, "And Yosef was brought down to Egypt; and Potifar bought him" (Beresheet 39:1), why is it written: "brought down" RATHER THAN 'WENT DOWN TO EGYPT'? HE ANSWERS: The Holy One, blessed be He, consented to the act OF SELLING YOSEF TO EGYPT, so that the decree He made between the pieces would be fulfilled, as it is written: "Know surely that your seed shall be a stranger" (Beresheet 15:13). "And Potifar bought him," to commit sin with him, NAMELY SODOMY.

196. He quoted the verse: "Who commands the sun, and it rises not; and seals up the stars" (Iyov 9:7). Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, made seven stars in the firmament THAT CORRESPOND TO THE SEVEN SFIROT: CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT. Each firmament contains numerous attendants who wait upon the Holy One, blessed be He.

196. פֶּתַח וְאָמַר, הָאוֹמֵר לְחָרָס וְלֹא יִזְרַח וּבָעַד כְּכַבִּים יַחְתָּם. תָּא חֲזִי שְׁבַעָה כְּכַבּוּיָא עַבְדֵי קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא בְּרִקְיעָא, וְכֹל רִקְיעָא וּרְקִיעָא, אֵית בֵּיהּ כְּמָה שְׁמֹשִׁין מְמַנִּין, לְשִׁמְשָׁא לֵיהּ לְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא.

197. There is no attendant or appointee who does not have a specific task and service to perform for the Holy One, blessed be He, and each knows his own task.

197. בְּגִין דְלִית לָךְ שְׁמֵשָׁא, אוּ מְמַנָּא, דְלִית לֵיהּ פּוֹלְחָנָא וְשִׁמּוּשָׁא לְמֵאֲרִיָּה, וְקִיּוּמֵי כָּל חַד וְחַד, עַל הֵוּא שְׁמוּשָׁא דְאִתְמַקְרָא בֵּיהּ, וְכֹל חַד יְדַע עִבְדִּיתֵיהּ לְשִׁמְשָׁא.

198. Some act as their Master's messengers, appointed in this world to oversee men's deeds. There are those who sing CHANTS AND HYMNS before Him, and those in charge of poetry. And even they are in charge of poetry, there is no host, no star or constellation that does not praise the Holy One, blessed be He.

199. For when night falls, three legions are divided into the three directions of the world, each containing thousands and tens of thousands OF ANGELS, whose task it is to sing.

200. There are three hosts OF ANGELS and one living creature, THE NUKVA, that stands in charge of them. They all praise the Holy One, blessed be He, until morning comes, when those of the south side and the luminous stars, THE ANGELS, praise and recite poetry before the Holy One, blessed be He. It is written: "When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of Elohim shouted for joy" (Iyov 38:7). "The morning stars" are the stars on the south side, NAMELY CHESED, as it is written: "And Avraham went early in the morning" (Beresheet 19:27). "All the sons of Elohim shouted for joy," refers to the stars on the left side, which are included within the right.

201. When daylight breaks, the children of Yisrael sing the praises of the Holy One, blessed be He, three times a day, corresponding to the three night WATCHES. They stand before each other until the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, is duly risen day and night. The Holy One, blessed be He, ascends by means of the six litanies, THREE IN THE DAY AND THREE AT NIGHT.

202. The living creature that stands above them, THE NUKVA, also stands on Yisrael below to properly fix everything, as it is written: "She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food to her household, and a portion to her maidens" (Mishlei 31:15). "And gives food to her household," refers to the upper THREE hosts and, "a portion to her maidens," alludes to the camp of Yisrael below. Thus the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, is extolled on every side, above and below; everything exists by His permission and according to His wish.

203. "...who commands the sun, and it rises not..." (Iyov 9:7). Rabbi Shimon says this refers to Yosef WHEN HE WAS SOLD INTO EGYPT. "And seals up the stars" are his brothers, about whom it is written: "And the eleven stars bowed down to me" (Bereshheet 37:9). In another explanation, "Who commands the sun," refers to Ya'akov at the time he was told: "know now WHETHER IT BE YOUR SON'S COAT OR NOT" (Bereshheet 37:32). "...and it rises not..." means when the Shechinah was gone from him; "and seals up the stars," means his sons, and his light was sealed and closed upon him because of them. The sun darkened and the stars did not shine because Yosef was separated from his father. Come and behold: since Yosef was sold, Ya'akov abstained from marital intercourse and remained in mourning until he heard the good tidings of Yosef.

20. "And Hashem was with Yosef"

Rabbi Yosi quotes the verse, "For The Creator loves justice," in order to lead a discussion on the protection that God offers the righteous. Through the examples of David and Yosef, both of whom walked "through the valley of the shadow of death," we are shown that God never abandons the righteous. In His mercy, He even guards the wicked, who, we learn, receive blessings and are sustained by the spiritual elevation of the righteous. Ultimately, though, we see that fortunate, indeed, are the righteous in this world and in the World to Come.

Kabbalistically, mercy represents the concept of time. Time is defined as the distance between cause and effect; the separation between action and reaction; the space between deed and dividend; the span between a person's behavior and the inevitable repercussion; the divide between crime and consequence. Within this gap, it is hoped that a person becomes enlightened to the senselessness of negative ways, and recognizes the rewards of spiritual growth and positive, unselfish behavior. Time, however, can cause us to mistakenly believe that goodness goes unrewarded, while the wicked go unpunished. Yet time merely creates a delay-- a window of opportunity in which our free will can earn us fulfillment, transformation, and recognition of the cause-and-effect principle that is at work in our world. Without time, a person would be instantly punished the moment he sinned. The wicked would be obliterated the moment they transgressed. They would lose the opportunity to change their ways and partake of the endless fulfillment in the world to come. Mercy [time] is awarded to the wicked on the merit of the righteous who love humanity unconditionally. Awareness and a deeper understanding of mercy and the cause-and-effect principle are aroused within us through the merit of the righteous, whose spiritual power surges through this passage.

204. "And Hashem was with Yosef, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian" (Bereshheet 39:2). Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse: "For Hashem loves justice, and forsakes not His pious ones; they are preserved forever" (Tehilim 37:28). It has been explained that this refers to Avraham, because "His pious ones" is spelled 'pious one' IN THE SINGULAR, as has already been explained.

205. Come and behold: wherever the Righteous go, the Holy One, blessed be He, protects them and never abandons them. As David said, "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff" (Tehilim 23:4). For wherever the Righteous go, the Shechinah never leaves them.

206. When Yosef walked the valley of the shadow of death and was brought down to Egypt, the Shechinah was with him, as it is written: "And Hashem was with Yosef" (Bereshheet 39:2). Because the Shechinah was with him, whatever he did in his hand prospered. If he had something in his hand, but his master asked for something else, what was in his hand would turn into that which his master wanted, as it is written: "And his master saw that Hashem was with him, and that Hashem made all that he did prosper in his hand" (Bereshheet 39:3). Assuredly, it "did prosper in his hand," for Hashem was with him.

207. Come and behold, it is not written: 'And his master knew that Hashem was with him,' but rather "And his master saw." THIS TEACHES US THAT he saw with his own eyes the miracles that the Holy One, blessed be He, performed by His hand. Therefore, "Hashem blessed the Egyptian house for Yosef's sake" (Bereshheet 39:5). The Holy One, blessed be He, preserves the righteous. For their sakes, He also protects the wicked. This is said in the verse: "Hashem has blessed the house of Oved Edom... because of the ark of Elohim" (II Shmuel 6:12).

208. Other people are blessed for the sake of the righteous, but they themselves can not be saved by their own merits. This has been explained: Yosef's master has been blessed for his sake, yet Yosef could not be saved by his merits and gain his freedom.

209. He was later put in prison, as it is written: "Whose foot they hurt with fetters he was laid in iron" (Tehilim 105:18). Subsequently, the Holy One, blessed be He, set him free and made him ruler over Egypt. Thus, it is written: "For Hashem loves justice and forsakes not His pious ones; they are preserved forever" (Tehilim 37:28). It is spelled as has already been explained, and the Holy One, blessed be He, protects the righteous in this world and in the world to come, as it is written: "But let all those that put their trust in You rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because You do defend them; and let those who love Your name be joyful in You" (Tehilim 5:12).

21. "His master's wife cast her eyes"

This section pointedly reminds us that we must constantly be on guard to avoid being led astray by the Evil Inclination. As the Accusers assail man daily, he must cleave to the dimension and Sfirah known as Gvurah to become mightier than the Evil Inclination. As the rabbis point out, Yosef exemplifies this endeavor. He exposed himself to unfounded accusations because of the enormous care he took over his personal appearance. The rabbis next address the importance of guarding and preserving the Holy Covenant. The Covenant, we're told, upholds heaven and Earth. When it is properly guarded, God showers the world with blessings, but if God's judgment finds the world full of wicked people, heaven and earth will dry up and their natural, life-sustaining functions will cease.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section strengthens our resistance to evil and vain impulses, and steels our resolve to pursue positive change, for the sake of our soul and for all humankind. The collective intolerant, self-centered actions of man can become so great that they create a mass of negativity that literally blocks the Light from flowing into our world. Our connection to this passage helps dissolve this blockage, to allow the penetration of the Light.

210. "And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Yosef" (Beresheet 39:7). Rabbi Chiya began the discussion with the verse: "Bless Hashem, you angels of His, you mighty in strength who perform His bidding, hearkening to the voice of His word" (Tehilim 103:20). Come and behold: a man should be very careful to avoid sinning and should walk the path of righteousness so as not to be led astray by the Evil Inclination, who daily brings accusations against him.

211. Because the Evil Inclination constantly accuses him, it behooves a man to overcome it and stand firmly, SO THAT THE EVIL INCLINATION CANNOT MOVE HIM. Man must be mightier than it and be attached to the place of Gvurah ('might'), for when man overpowers it, he cleaves to the side of Gvurah and is strengthened. Because the Evil Inclination is mighty, it behooves a man to be mightier.

212. Those who overcome it are described as "mighty in strength," FOR BY OVERCOMING THE MIGHTY ONE, THEY BECOME AS MIGHTY AS IT. These are the angels of the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY THE RIGHTEOUS, who come from the side of Harsh Gvurah to overcome THE EVIL INCLINATION. THEY ARE CALLED the "mighty in strength who perform His bidding" (Tehilim 103:20). "Bless Hashem, you angels of His," such as Yosef, who was called 'righteous' and 'mighty' and preserved the Holy Covenant, which was imprinted upon him.

213. Rabbi Elazar asks: What is THE MEANING OF THE VERSE, "And it came to pass after these things" (Beresheet 39:7)? HE SAYS: It has been explained that the place from which the Evil Inclination brings forth accusations is the grade CALLED "after these things." Yosef gave it an opening for accusations, while THE EVIL INCLINATION said that Yosef's father was mourning over him and that he, Yosef, adorned himself and curled his hair. Thus, it aroused against him the bear, NAMELY POTIFAR'S WIFE, and it assailed him.

214. "And it came to pass after these things." Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, inspects the world to judge it and finds wicked people therein, then "He shut up the heavens, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not its fruit and, according to justice you perish quickly" (Devarim 11:17). Because of the sins of men, the heavens and earth stop performing their natural functions.

215. Come and behold: those who do not keep the Holy Covenant cause separation between the children of Yisrael and their father in heaven. For it is written: "And you turn aside, and serve other Elohim, and worship them; and then Hashem's anger be inflamed against you and He shut up the heavens, that there be no rain" (Devarim 11:16-17). He WHO GUARDS NOT THE COVENANT is equal to a person who serves other Elohim, for he is false to the Holy Covenant.

216. When the holy Covenant is well kept in the world, the Holy One, blessed be He, pours blessings from above, which are showered over the world, as it is written: "You Elohim, did send a plentiful rain, whereby You did strengthen your inheritance when it languished" (Tehilim 68:10). The "plentiful rain" is a rain of favor that pours when the Holy One, blessed be He, is favorable toward the congregation of Yisrael and desires to pour blessings upon it. Then, "you did strengthen your inheritance when it languished."

216. וְכֵד קֵינְמָא קְדִישָׁא אֲתַנְטִיר בְּעֵלְמָא כְּדָקָא יְאוּת, כְּדִין קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא יְהִיב בְּרַכָּאן לְעִילָא, לְאַתְרָקָא בְּעֵלְמָא, כְּד"א, גְּשֶׁם נְדָבוֹת תַּנִּיף אֱלֹהִים נַחְלַתְךָ וְנִלְאָה אַתָּה כּוֹנְנָתָה. גְּשֶׁם נְדָבוֹת, דָּא גְּשֶׁם דְּרַעוּתָא, כְּד אֲתַרְעִי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּכַנְסַת יִשְׂרָאֵל, וּבְעִי לְאַרְקָא לָהּ בְּרַכָּאן, כְּדִין נַחְלַתְךָ וְנִלְאָה אַתָּה כּוֹנְנָתָה.

217. Your inheritance is Yisrael, the inheritance of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "Ya'akov is the lot of his inheritance" (Devarim 32:9). The 'languishing' is the Congregation of Yisrael which languishes in a strange land. It is thirsty for water BUT CANNOT SLAKE ITS THIRST and is thus weary. With favorable rain then, "You did strengthen."

218. Thus, the heavens, the earth, and all their armies are all established on the principles of the Covenant, as it is written: "If my covenant be not day and night, it were as if I had not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth" (Yirmeyah 33:25). We should guard it, as has already been explained. It is therefore first written: "And Yosef was of beautiful form and fair to look upon," and then, "his master's wife cast her eyes upon Yosef," WHICH MEANS THAT BECAUSE HE WAS NOT ON HIS GUARD, BUT ADORNED HIMSELF BY CURLING HIS HAIR, AND WAS GOOD LOOKING AND WELL FAVORED, HIS MASTER'S WIFE CAST HER EYES UPON HIM.

22. "...she spoke to Yosef day by day"

This section discusses the struggle of the individual to resist the seduction of the Evil Inclination. God has provided certain devices that preserve us from accusations of the Evil Side. The most important of these is, of course, the Torah. Those who study the Torah for its own sake, we are told, shall inherit both the upper and lower worlds, and will rejoice when God finally banishes the Evil Inclination from this world. Those who succumb to the Defiled Side, however, shall be punished in Gehenom, or Hell. There they shall weep with anguish that they did not overcome the Evil Inclination.

The Relevance of this Passage

Physical creation came about when the collective souls of man rejected the endless Light of Fulfillment that was originally bestowed upon them by The Creator. We did this in order to gain the opportunity to earn and create this fulfillment through our own effort. Moreover, just as an athlete requires competition to give meaning to the concept of victory, the Evil Inclination was created to challenge us during this process. The Torah represents the path to victory over our Evil Inclination, not from a strictly religious standpoint, but from a spiritual perspective. The Torah, through the lens of Kabbalah, is a tool that imbues us with strength and courage to conquer our negative impulses --even those that may have been barely noticeable. A reading of these passages provides us with spiritual strength to reject the temptation of the ego-based desires that are our true adversaries in life.

219. "And it came to pass, as she spoke to Yosef day by day" (Bereshheet 39:10). Rabbi Elazar began the discussion with the verse: "To keep you from the evil woman" (Mishlei 6:24). Happy are the righteous who know the paths of the Holy One, blessed be He, and tread them, for they are occupied in the study of the Torah day and night. And whoever is occupied with the Torah day and night inherits two worlds, the upper and the lower. He inherits this world even though he does not study it for its own sake, and inherits the upper world if he does study it for its own sake.

220. Come and behold, it is written: "Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand are riches and honor" (Mishlei 3:16). "Length of days is in her right hand," means that whoever studies the Torah for its own sake has length of days in the world to come, where he attains the glory of the Torah. This is the Glory and Crown which adorn everything, for the crown of the Torah abides only in the world to come. "And in her left hand are riches and honor," in this world, for he who does not study the Torah for its own sake merits riches and honor in this world.

221. When Rabbi Chiya came FROM BABYLON to the land of Yisrael, he read the Torah until his face shone like the sun. Those who studied the Torah stood before him, and he would say this one studied it for its own sake and this one did not. He would pray for the one who studied it for its own sake, prayed that he would do so always and merit the world to come. And he prayed for he who did not study it for its own sake, that he would come to do so and thereby merit everlasting life.

222. One day, he saw a student who studied the Torah. The student's face was pale. He said to himself that he assuredly contemplates sin. He made him come before him and spoke to him the words of the Torah until he composed himself. From that day on, the student resolved not to seek evil thoughts, but to study the Torah for its own sake

223. Rabbi Yosi said that when a man notices that he is assailed by evil thoughts, he should study the Torah and they will pass. Rabbi Elazar said that when the Evil Side comes to crush man, he should draw it toward the Torah and it will part from him.

224. Come and behold: we have learned that when the Evil Side stands before the Holy One, blessed be He, and indicts the world for its evil sins, the Holy One, blessed be He, pities it and advises men on how to be saved from it, so it will not control them or their deeds. The advice is to escape the Evil Side by studying the Torah diligently. HE ASKS: How do we know this? HE ANSWERS: From the verse, "For Your commandment is a lamp; and Torah is light; and reproofs of instruction are your way of life," which is followed by the verse: "To keep you from the evil woman, from the smoothness of the tongue of an alien" (Mishlei 6:23-24). THE TORAH THEN PRESERVES ONE FROM THE EVIL INCLINATION.

225. The Side of Defilement, the Other Side, is always before the Holy One, blessed be He, blaming men for their transgressions. It also stands below to accuse men for their sins. HE EXPLAINED THAT it stands above to remind men of their sins and to accuse them for their deeds, because they were given over to its power, as was Iyov WHEN THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAID TO THE SATAN: "HE IS IN YOUR HAND" (IYOV 2:6).

226. It also accuses them and when the Holy One, blessed be He, judges them ON ROSH HASHANAH (NEW YEAR'S DAY) AND YOM KIPPUR, it remembers every sin and deed. It stands over them and brings accusations, but the Holy One, blessed be He, pities Yisrael and advises them on how to escape the Evil Side. How? By blowing the Shofar on Rosh Hashanah day and giving of the scapegoat on Yom Kippur, so the Evil One will leave them and busy himself with the portion GIVEN HIM.

227. Come and behold, it is written: "Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold of Sheol (Hell)" (Mishlei 5:5). Of the secret of the faith it is said, "Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace" (Mishlei 3:17). These are the ways and paths of the Torah, and all are one; THAT IS, THE ROADS --THOSE OF DEFILEMENT AND THOSE OF HOLINESS--ARE ALL ONE. This one is of Peace, and the other is of Death. And they are complete opposites to each other, FOR EACH AND EVERY PATH LEADING TO DEFILEMENT HAS AN OPPOSING PATH LEADING TO HOLINESS.

228. Happy is the portion of Yisrael who cleave faithfully to the Holy One, blessed be He, for He advises them on how to be saved from all the other sides in the world. Because they are a Holy Nation--His lot and portion--He helps them in every THING. Happy are they in this world and in the world to come.

229. Come and behold: the Evil Side comes down to hover about the world, and when it sees the deeds of men who deviated from their ways in the world, it goes up to accuse them. And were it not for the Holy One, blessed be He, who feels pity for His creatures, they would not remain in the world.

230. It is written: "And it came to pass, as she spoke to Yosef day by day" (Beresheet 39:10). "As she spoke," REFERS TO THE EVIL SIDE, who daily ascends to bring accusations before the Holy One, blessed be He--SINCE YOSEF ALLUDES TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE--as well as evil reports and slander, in order to destroy men.

231. It is written: "that he hearkened not to her, to lie by her, or to be with her" (Beresheet 39:10). "He hearkened not to her," because THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, is compassionate towards the world; "to lie by her" means to allow her to rule over the world, for she cannot govern without permission.

232. Another explanation of the phrase, "to lie by her," has the same meaning as: "and of him that lies with her that is unclean" (Vayikra 15:33). "...to be with her..." means to give her power, blessings, and help. Were it not for the help she obtained from above, not one man would remain in the world. But the Holy One, blessed be He, pities the world AND HELPS IT WHEN THE OTHER SIDE RULES THE WORLD, so the world continues to exist.

233. Rabbi Aba said: THE TWO EXPLANATIONS are really the same, but the Evil Inclination roams about seducing men, diverting their paths and cleaving to them. Each day, it seduces men from the Path of Truth and pushes them from the Path of Life to Gehenom.

234. Happy is he whose deeds ARE GOOD, who keeps his ways so that THE EVIL INCLINATION shall not be attached to him, as it is written: "And it came to pass, as she spoke to Yosef day by day that he hearkened not to her" (Beresheet 39:10). HE DID NOT HEARKEN to what she said to him daily, as the Spirit of Defilement, which is the Evil Inclination, seduces man every day "to lie by her" in Gehenom, and thus be sentenced there "to be with her."

229. תָּא חֲזִי, כִּד הָאֵי סֵטְרָא בִּישָׁא, נַחַת וְשָׂאֵת

235. Come and behold: when a man cleaves to that side, he is drawn after her. He defiles himself with her in this world and in the next. Come and behold: the Side of Impurity is dirty and filthy, as it is written: "You shall say to it, 'Get you hence (Heb. tze)'" (Yeshayah 30:22). Actual excrement is implied (Heb. tzoah), and with 'EXCREMENT', we proclaim that whoever turns from the ways of the Torah is condemned to excrement, to which were sentenced all the wicked people in the world who had no faith in the Holy One, blessed be He.

236. It is written: "And it came to pass about this day, that he went into the house to do his work; and there was none of the men of the house there within" (Beresheet 39:11). "This day" is when the Evil Inclination rules over the world and goes down to lead men astray. HE ASKS: When will that be? HE ANSWERS: When men repent their sins or study the Torah and observe its precepts, THE EVIL INCLINATION comes down to lead them astray AND THUS PREVENT THEIR REPENTANCE AND OCCUPATION WITH THE TORAH AND ITS PRECEPTS.

237. "He went into the house to do his work" (Beresheet 39:11) to study the Torah and observe its precepts, which are man's work in this world. Because a man's work in this world is the service of the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY THE STUDY OF THE TORAH AND ITS PRECEPTS, a man should be as strong as a lion on all sides, so that the Other Side will not have power over him and seduce him. It is written: "And there was none of the men," namely nobody to rise before the Evil Inclination and wage war against it.

238. When it sees no one standing against it, it is the way of the Evil Inclination to wage war with him immediately: "She caught him by his garment, saying, 'Lie with she'." "She caught him by his garment," because when the Evil Inclination obtains mastery over man, HE FIRST adorns and mends his clothes and curls his hair, as it is written: "She caught him by his garment, saying, 'Lie with me'" and cleave to me.

239. The Righteous stands against him and engages in war against him (Beresheet 39:12). It is written: "And he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and went outside." He should leave it, be strong against it, flee from it, and escape it so that it will have no power over him.

240. Rabbi Yitzchak said that IN THE FUTURE, the righteous will see the Evil Inclination as a high mountain and wonder how we could have conquered such a high and huge mountain. The wicked will see the Evil Inclination as a thread that is as thin as a hair. They will marvel and ask: How could we not have overcome such a tiny thread of hair? These weep, and the others weep. The Holy One, blessed be He, will sweep the wicked from the world and slay him before their eyes, so he will not have dominion over the world anymore. The Righteous will see it and rejoice, as it is written: "Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name: the upright shall dwell in your presence" (Tehilim 140:14).

In this section we learn that God regulates the order of nature so He may execute His divine purpose, which is to bestow infinite pleasure to His Creation upon humanity's completion of spiritual transformation. Rabbi Yehuda opens a discussion on the superior position of man in the hierarchy of the animal kingdom. Man, we're told, retains dominion over all species as long as his divine image is not tainted by sin. This point is exemplified by the story of Daniel in the lions' den. We should, therefore, guard against sin and examine our actions every day so that we may repent for any sins we have committed. The text then turns to an examination of God's role in enabling Yosef to achieve greatness because he was righteous. We learn that Yosef was able to provide interpretations of dreams only because he entrusted the task of interpreting them to God.

The Relevance of this Passage

We have the divine capacity to consider others before ourselves, and even to sacrifice our own lives for the good of others. This is a uniquely human trait and a mark of humanity's spiritual superiority throughout Creation. However, if we are intolerant and insensitive to one another, we utterly lose our spiritual value. This passage removes intolerance and judgement of others. It awakens compassion, respect, and sensitivity toward our fellow human beings, especially during moments of hostility and conflict. This passage further assists us in more clearly identifying and more sincerely trusting the many hidden roles played by the Creator in our lives. The purpose of these many roles is to bring Light into the world through human actions and interactions.

241. "And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt..." (Bereshheet 40:1). Rabbi Yehuda opened with the verse: "Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he has taken nothing?" (Amos 3:4) Come and behold: how careful should a man be in worshipping the Holy One, blessed be He, for whoever is assiduous in studying the Torah and serving the Holy One, blessed be He, is feared by all.

242. For when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe, He made all the creatures in the world in their appropriate shape. He then created man in the supernal image and made him ruler, by power of this image, over all creatures. As long as man continues in the world, all creatures look up to him, and when they see the Supernal Image of man, they feel dread and tremble before him, as it is written: "And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every bird" (Bereshheet 9:2). This is true only when they look and see in him the Supernal Image and the soul IS in him.

243. Rabbi Elazar said that the image of the Righteous does not change, even when the soul is not in them. When a man does not walk in the ways of the Torah, his sacred image is altered, and the beasts of the field and the birds in the sky then prevail against him. When the sacred image was changed, so was the image of man, WHO THEN RECEIVED THE IMAGE OF THE OTHER ANIMALS, SO THAT CREATURES ARE NO LONGER FEARFUL OF HIM AND CAN HAVE POWER OVER HIM.

244. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, alters the deeds above and below. THAT IS, HE SWITCHES THE SACRED IMAGE ABOVE AND THE IMAGE OF MAN BELOW to bring matters back to their roots, AS THEY WERE BEFORE THE SIN OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, so that His wish shall abide in all the world's deeds. BY RETRIBUTION, ALL THE DEEDS IN THE WORLD IMPROVE. Daniel's image was not changed when he was cast into the lions' den and, because of that, he was saved. Rabbi Chizkiya asked: If this is true, why is it written: "My Elohim has sent his angel, and he has shut the lions' mouths, that they have no hurt me" (Daniel 6:23). It sounds as if he was not hurt because of the angels who shut the lions' mouths, AND NOT BECAUSE OF HIS SACRED IMAGE.

245. He said to him: Daniel was not hurt because the sacred image of a Righteous man is the very angel who shut the LIONS' mouths and shackled them to keep Daniel safe. Therefore, DANIEL SAID: "My Elohim has sent an angel" (Daniel 6:23). This refers to that angel upon whom all the images of the world are engraved. He strengthened the image in me, so that the lions could not overpower me, and he shut their mouths. Assuredly, He sent His angel.

246. This is the one angel upon whom all the images are engraved. HE IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, CALLED 'ANGEL', FROM WHOM ALL THE SHAPES IN THE WORLD ARE ISSUED. It is written: "He judges among the nations: their land is full of dead bodies" (Tehilim 110:6), FOR ALL THE SHAPES OF THE BODIES ARE BEFORE HIM BECAUSE no shape can change itself before him. Thus, it behooves a man to guard his ways and paths so as not to sin before his Master, and thereby retain the image of Adam.

247. Come and behold: Yechezkel guarded his mouth against forbidden food, as it is written: "Nor did loathsome meat ever come into my mouth" (Yechezkel 4:14). He therefore merited being named the son of Adam. It is written of Daniel: "But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank" (Daniel 1:8). He then merited preserving the image of Adam. For all the beings in the world were fearful of the image of Adam, who ruled over them all and was king over all.

248. Rabbi Yosi said that a man should beware of sinning and not deviate right or left. ALTHOUGH HE GUARDS HIMSELF, he should search himself daily for sins. For when a man rises from his bed, two witnesses stand before him and accompany him the whole day.

249. When a man wishes to rise, he opens his eyes and the witnesses say to him, "Let your eyes look right on, and let your eyelids look straight before you" (Mishlei 4:25). When he prepares himself to go, they say to him, "Make even the path of your foot" (Ibid. 26). Thus, when a man walks, he should guard against his sins the whole day.

250. When night falls, he should examine and search his actions for that day to repent for his deeds. He should always search them so he can repent before his Master, as it is written: "And my sin is ever before me" (Tehilim 51:5).

251. Come and behold: as long as the children of Yisrael were in the Holy Land, they had no sin on their hands, because--as has been explained--of the sacrifices they offered daily that atoned for their sins. Once Yisrael is exiled from the Holy Land, and there was nothing to atone for them, the Torah and their good deeds atoned for them. Because the Shechinah is with them in exile, whoever does not care for the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, causes the Shechinah to bend to the dust, as it is written: "He lays it low, even to the ground" (Yeshayah 26:5).

252. Rabbi Yitzchak said that he who devotes himself to the Torah and to good deeds causes the Congregation of Yisrael, THE SHECHINAH, to lift up its head in exile. Happy is the portion of those who devote themselves to the Torah day and night.

253. Come and behold: the Holy One, blessed be He, transforms matters in the world so as to lift the heads of the righteous. To enable Yosef to raise his head for being righteous before Him, He caused the master to be angry with his servants, as it is written: "The butler of the king of Egypt, and his baker, offended their lord the king of Egypt" (Bereshheet 40: 1). All this happened to lift the head of Yosef the righteous. Come and behold: he was humiliated by his brothers through a dream. He obtained greatness over his brothers and was raised above the whole world through a dream, NAMELY BY THE DREAM OF PHARAOH.

254. "And they dreamed a dream, both of them, each man on the same night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream" (Bereshheet 40:5). Come and behold: we have learned that all dreams follow their interpretation. IN THIS RESPECT, HE ASKS: When Yosef interpreted their dreams, why did he give one a good interpretation and another a bad one? WHY DID NOT HE GIVE THEM BOTH A GOOD INTERPRETATION? HE ANSWERS: The two dreams concerned Yosef, and because he knew the root of every matter, he interpreted their dreams accordingly, and gave them meaning, so as to return each matter to its own place AND ROOT.

255. It is written: "And Yosef said to them, 'Do not interpretations belong to Elohim? tell me them, I pray you'" (Bereshheet 40:8). HE ASKS: Why DID HE SPEAK THUS? HE ANSWERS: This is the way a dream should be interpreted, by entrusting the interpretation to the Holy One, blessed be He. For the existence of everything is there, and therein lies the interpretation.

256. Come and behold: we have learned that the dream's grade is the sixth below prophecy. For between the grade of prophecy and the grade of dreams lie six grades, and interpretation ascends from the dream's grade into another one. HE EXPLAINS THAT the dream is a low grade OF GAVRIEL, and interpretation is established by it, for it depends upon speech--THE NUKVA--as it is written: "Do not interpretations belong to Elohim" (Bereshheet 40:8); assuredly, "to Elohim," WHICH IS THE NUKVA CALLED 'ELOHIM'.

24. "Let a double portion of your spirit be upon me"

We learn that whoever contemplates the image of his master in the spirit of wisdom shall gain an additional measure of spirit. Thus Elisha, Eliyahu's heir by right, was granted the power to perform a double achievement with the same spirit, if he could penetrate to the deepest core of the spirit that Eliyahu had bequeathed at the moment Eliyahu was taken from him. Yosef also received illumination in this way. This allowed him to interpret the symbolism of the dreams of the chief wine steward and the chief baker, and to grasp the significance these dreams held for the children of Israel. The chief wine steward's dream, it is explained, belonged to "the grade of the moon in lightness" and was thus under the rule of Zeir Anpin; while the chief baker's dream belonged to "the grade of the moon in darkness" and thus came under the rule of the Evil One.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we receive a powerful connection to the souls of the righteous, which gives us the ability to ascend to spiritual heights unattainable by ordinary men. Moreover, we begin to recognize our spirit's ceaseless yearning for re-union with The Creator, coupled with the wisdom to find our way back to Him

257. It is written: "And the chief butler told his dream to Yosef" (Bereshheet 40:9). Rabbi Elazar opened with the verse: "And it came to pass, when they had gone over, that Eliyahu said to Elisha, 'Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken away from you.' And Elisha said, 'I pray you, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me'" (II Melachim 2:9). We must study this verse, for the words are surprising. "Eliyahu said to Elisha, 'Ask what I shall do for you.'" It was not for him, but for the Holy One, blessed be He, to grant wishes. Moreover, Elisha also knew HE COULD NOT GRANT HIS REQUEST, ONLY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, COULD. Why did he ask, "I pray you, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me?"

258. HE ANSWERS THAT He who held heaven and earth and the whole world in His grip could perform this wish. It is a certainty that the Holy One, blessed be He, always fulfills the wishes of Eliyahu and the other Righteous, as it is written: "He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him" (Tehilim 145:19). This is all the more true of he, upon whom the Holy Spirit dwells, who bequeaths it to Elisha the righteous. For Elisha was his servant AND WAS WORTHY OF BEING HIS HEIR, as was expressly said by the Holy One, blessed be He: "And Elisha the son of Shafat of Avel-mecholah shall you anoint to be prophet in your place" (I Melachim 19:16). Elisha was then his heir apparent.

259. "...double portion of your spirit be upon me" (II Melachim 2:9). HE ASKS: What does this mean? Could it possibly mean that he asks two for one, THAT IS, THAT HIS SPIRIT WILL BE DOUBLE ELIYAHU'S SPIRIT? How could he have asked of him for something that he did not possess, AS NO ONE CAN GIVE WHAT HE DOES NOT HAVE? HE REPLIES THAT he did not ask for two spirits for the one he had, but that the same spirit he had performed twice as many miracles AS ELIYAHU PERFORMED.

260. It is written: "And he said, 'You have asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so'" (II Melachim 2:10). WHY DID HE MAKE HIS REQUEST CONDITIONAL? HE ANSWERS THAT he said to him: 'If you could understand the essence of the spirit that I leave you when I am taken from you, it shall be yours.' For the essence of the spirit that he discerns while looking at Eliyahu is something he should well cleave to.

261. Come and behold: he who looks into what he learned from his Rabbi and sees in him the wisdom HE LEARNED FROM HIM could receive an additional portion of spirit. Come and behold: in whatever he did, Yosef would see the spirit of wisdom in his father's image. He therefore succeeded in what he did, and another spirit of a superior illumination was added to him.

262. When that wicked man said to him, "Behold, a vine was before me" (Beresheet 40:9), Yosef trembled because he did not know what it meant. But when he added, "And on the vine were three tendrils" (Beresheet 40:10), his spirit rose and received additional illumination. He looked at his father's image and his spirit shone because he understood its meaning.

263. It is written: "And on the vine were three tendrils" (Beresheet 40:10). Yosef said: 'This is assuredly an altogether good tiding', for the vine indicated the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA. Yosef was informed THAT HER TIME CAME TO RULE, "and on the vine were three tendrils" that allude to the three supernal grades that came out of the vine: the priests, Levites, and Yisrael--CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH SHINE WITHIN THE NUKVA WHEN SHE IS WHOLE.

264. "...and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth" (Beresheet 40:10). For their sake, the congregation of Yisrael mounts TO ZEIR ANPIN and is blessed by the Supernal King, ZEIR ANPIN; "and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes," refers to the righteous men in the world, who are likened to ripened grapes. Another explanation of the verse, "and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes," is that it refers to the wine preserved in its grapes since the six days of Creation.

265. Thus far was Yosef was informed by this dream OF THE CHIEF BUTLER. The rest of the dream OF THE CHIEF BUTLER is his. Some dreams are for the dreamer as well as for others; THAT IS, PART OF THEM REVEALS FUTURE EVENTS FOR THE DREAMER, AND ANOTHER PART FUTURE EVENTS FOR OTHERS. "...and I took the grapes..." refers to himself--NOT TO YOSEF.

266. We have learned that whoever sees white grapes in his dream sees a good sign for himself. Black grapes are not A GOOD SIGN. What is the reason for this? There are two grades, black and white. One is good and the other is not, FOR WHITE INDICATES MERCY AND BLACK INDICATES JUDGMENT. All grapes, BOTH WHITE AND BLACK, depend on the secret of the faith, THE NUKVA. According to wisdom, their meanings are explained as either good or evil. The BLACK ONES indicate the need for Mercy, and THE WHITE indicates the providential care of Mercy.

267. Come and behold: Adam's wife pressed him grapes and brought death upon him, Yisrael, and the whole world. When Noach came upon these grapes, he was not well guarded, as it is written: "He drank of the wine, and was drunk; and he was uncovered within his tent" (Beresheet 9:21). The sons of Aharon drank wine PRESSED FROM THESE GRAPES and offered a sacrifice while still under its influence. Consequently they died, as has been already explained. It is therefore written: "Their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter" (Devarim 32:32). It is written thus because of what the grapes caused.

268. THE CHIEF BUTLER saw IN HIS DREAM good grapes, NAMELY WHITE GRAPES, in the vineyard, where they sent forth pleasantness and fragrance in perfectly whole grades. Yosef therefore knew it, looked into the root OF THE MATTER, and solved it thoroughly. Because he received good tidings by that dream, he interpreted it favorably, and so it came to pass.

269. Come and behold, it is written: "When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Yosef, 'I also (Heb. af) in my dream, behold: I had three baskets of white bread on my head'" (Bereshheet 40:16). Damned are the wicked, whose every deed is for evil, whose every speech is uttered for evil and to cause evil.

270. He opened his speech with the word "af (also: 'anger')" in the sentence, "I also in my dream..." Immediately, Yosef was seized with fright, for he knew that all his words were of evil intent and that he bore evil tidings. By the verse: "Behold, I had three baskets of white bread on my head," Yosef knew that he was informed of the destruction of the Temple and the exile of Yisrael from the Holy Land.

271. Come and behold: "And in the uppermost basket there was all manner of Pharaoh's baked food; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head" (Bereshheet 40:17). This refers to the other nations, who will gather upon Yisrael to kill them, destroy their homes, and scatter them to the four winds of the world. Yosef saw all this and knew that this dream alluded to Yisrael, who would be guilty before the King. He then interpreted his dream in an evil sense, which was fulfilled.

272. Come and behold: there were two grades that they had seen. THE CHIEF BUTLER saw the supernal grade, ZEIR ANPIN, ascending to rule, and the moon, THE NUKVA, shining. THE CHIEF BAKER saw darkness and the evil serpent ruling over THE NUKVA. Yosef therefore looked into the dream and gave it an evil interpretation. Thus, all depends on interpretation. The two of them saw the two grades RULING OVER THE NUKVA, ZEIR ANPIN, OR THE EVIL SERPENT. Either the one rules, ZEIR ANPIN, or that EVIL One, THE SERPENT, does.

272. וְתָא חֲזִי, תְרִין דְרָגִין אֵלִין, דְקָא חֲמָא הָאֵי, וְחֲמָא הָאֵי, דָא חֲמָא כִּד סְלִיק, וְקָא שְׁלִיט דְרָגָא עֲלָאָה, וְאֲתַנְהִיר סְהֲרָא. וְדָא חֲמָא, דְאֲתַחֲשַׁךְ וְשְׁלִיט עֲלָה חִיּוּא בִישָׁא, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ אֶסְתַּבֵּל יוֹסֵף בְּהָהוּא חֲלָמָא, וּפֶשֶׁר לִיָּה פֶּשֶׁרָא לְבִישׁ. וְע"ד, כֹּלָא בְּפִישְׂרָא קַיִמָא, וְדָא וְדָא חֲמָו, בְּאֵלִין תְרִין דְרָגִין, דְשְׁלִיט דָא, וְשְׁלִיט דָא.

25. "Create in me a clean heart, Elohim..."

Rabbi Yehuda begins a discussion of the steadfast spirit of Mashiach, which King David invoked to preserve himself from the spirit of confusion, whose task is leading people astray. Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Elazar then discuss in some detail Achav's crime against Navot, along with the verse, "the lying spirit in the mouth of the prophets." This spirit was not that of Navot, as has been presumed, but rather, the lying spirit which continually ascends and descends to distract people from life's true goal. King David, because he knew full well the rewards of the righteous, often made supplication in order that he might be guarded from defilement by powerful Accusers of this world.

The Relevance of this Passage

Far worse than lying to others is the act of lying to ourselves. It is in our nature to believe our own false tales and then attempt to promote these distortions in the world. Self-deception is the greatest of all deceptions, because our intentions might very well be good. When sunlight shines through the window pain, the dust floating in the air is suddenly revealed. Spiritual Light has the same effect on our negative qualities, which so often remain hidden. Purposefully perusing these passages removes prevarication, so that the true purpose of our existence--identifying and eliminating negative aspects of our character --shines brightly in our lives. It is of equivalent effect to David's supplications, summoning the Light to guard us from the ever-present dangers of self-deception, and allowing us to grow in righteousness and wisdom.

273. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse: "Create in me a clean heart, Elohim, and renew a steadfast spirit within me" (Tehilim 51:12). This verse has already been expounded upon, yet the "clean heart" has the same meaning as in the verses: "Give therefore your servant an understanding heart" (I Melachim 3:9), and "but he that is of a merry heart has a continual feast" (Mishlei 15:15). For that reason, his heart is assuredly clean.

274. "...and renew a steadfast spirit within me" (Tehilim 51:12). This is surely the steadfast spirit mentioned in the verse: "And a spirit from Elohim moved over the surface of the waters" (Bereshheet 1:2). It has been said that this is the spirit of Mashiach, ABOUT WHICH IT IS WRITTEN: "A new spirit will I put within you" (Yechezkel 36:26). David therefore asked, "And renew a steadfast spirit"--THE SPIRIT OF MASHIACH--"within me" (Tehilim 51:12).

275. For on the Other Side, there is a defiled heart and a spirit of confusion that provokes humans to transgress. This is the Defiled Spirit, called "the spirit of confusion," as it is written: "Hashem has mingled a spirit of confusion in the midst of her" (Yeshayah 19:14). Therefore David requested, "renew a steadfast spirit within me" (Tehilim 51:12). HE ASKS: What does "renew" imply? HE ANSWERS: It refers to the renewal of the moon--THAT IS, THE RENEWAL OF THE UNION BETWEEN THE NUKVA AND ZEIR ANPIN. Because at the time that the moon is renewed, it is proven that David, King of Yisrael--SYMBOLIC OF THE NUKVA--is considered alive and well, HAVING ATTAINED MOCHIN OF THE LIGHT OF CHAYAH. Therefore, he asked to be renewed, IMPLYING THE RENEWAL OF THE UNION WITH ZEIR ANPIN.

276. As they were walking together, Rabbi Yosi asked Rabbi Elazar about the verse: "And there came forth a spirit, and stood before Hashem, and said, 'I will persuade him.' And Hashem said to him, 'With what?' And he said, 'I will go out, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And he said, 'You shall persuade him, and prevail also: go out, and do so'" (I Melachim 22:21-22). We have learned that this was the spirit of Navot the Yizraeli. HE ASKS: Could it be that the souls, after ascending and staying above, return to this world? It is astonishing that he said, "I will go out and I will be a lying spirit..."

277. Also, why was Achav punished for what he did? It was a law decreed by Shmuel to Yisrael, as it is written: "And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your best oliveyards" (I Shmuel 8:14). If Achav took the vineyard from Navot, he was within his rights. Moreover, Achav offered him a vineyard or gold in exchange, but he refused. WHY, THEREFORE, WAS HE PUNISHED?

278. Rabbi Elazar replied: This is well asked. Come and behold: we have to look at the assumption that this was Navot's spirit. Could his spirit have risen and stood in the presence of the Holy One, blessed be He, and asked to lie, as it is written: "And there came a spirit...I WILL GO OUT, AND I WILL BE A LYING SPIRIT" (I Melachim 22:22). If he were righteous, how could he have asked to lie in that world, which is the World of Truth? A righteous Man will not ask to lie in this world, let alone in that world. And if he were not righteous, how could he have stood in the presence of the Holy One, blessed be He?

279. But surely Navot was not righteous enough to stand before the Holy One, blessed be He. It is another spirit that rules over the world, the spirit that always ascends to stand before the Holy One, blessed be He - NAMELY, THE SATAN. He is the one who leads men astray by lying, FOR HE LIES BY THE HOLY NAME. He is wont to lie and constantly resorts to lies. Therefore he said, "I will go out, and I will be a lying spirit." The Holy One, blessed be He, replied, "Go out, and do so." Get you hence, for it has been explained that "He that tells lies shall not remain in my sight" (Tehilim 101:7). He is therefore assuredly a Lying Spirit.

280. Further, WE HAVE TO EXPLAIN WHY HE WAS PUNISHED. IT WAS BECAUSE he killed Navot. If he already took his vineyard, why kill him? It was because he killed him without cause that he was punished. He first killed unjustly and then took his vineyard. Thus, it is written: "Have you killed, and also taken possession?" (I Melachim 21:19). And he was punished. Come and behold: there are innumerable people in the world, whom the Lying Spirit has led astray. He has dominion over the world, using several devices and actions, as we have already explained.

281. King David therefore wished to be guarded from THE LYING SPIRIT and to be removed from impurity, as it is written: "Create me a clean heart, Elohim, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." This is the steadfast spirit; the other is the Lying Spirit. Thus there are two grades, the one holy, THE STEADFAST SPIRIT, and the other impure, THE LYING SPIRIT.

282. He opened with the verse: "And Hashem utters his voice before His army: for His camp is very great: for he is mighty who executes His word" (Yoel 2:11). This verse has already been explained, yet wherever "and Hashem (Vav-Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei)" is mentioned, IT ALLUDES TO ZEIR ANPIN and His court of Justice, THE NUKVA--HE "utters his voice." This is the voice referred to in the verses: "The voice of words" (Devarim 4:12), and "I am not a man of words" (Shemot 4:10), because the man of words is, "the man of Elohim" (Devarim 33:1); "before his army," refers to Yisrael.

283. "...for His camp is very great..." is similar to the verse: "Is there any number to his armies?" (Iyov 25: 3). For there are countless chieftains and messengers to the Holy One, blessed be He, all ready to bring accusations against the children of Yisrael. The Holy One, blessed be He, therefore came before Yisrael, as was stated above "and Hashem utters His voice before His army" (Yoel 2:11), to guard them against the accusations.

284. "...for he is mighty who executes His word." HE ASKS: Who is mighty? HE REPLIES: It is the righteous who is occupied with the Torah day and night. Another explanation is that "mighty" refers to the Accuser who is always before the Holy One, blessed be He, strong as iron, strong as a stone. He "executes His word." After receiving permission above FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, he takes away the soul below.

285. "For the day of Hashem is great and very terrible; and who can abide it" (Yoel 2:11). He is ruler over all, high and mighty, and everything is subject to His dominion. Happy are the righteous, to whom the Holy One, blessed be He, desires always to give merit in the world to come and to enable them to participate in the joy of the righteous in the future to come. It is written: "But let all those that put their trust in You rejoice: Let them ever shout for joy, because You do defend them: and let those who love Your Name be joyful in You" (Tehilim 5:12).
Blessed be Hashem for ever, amen and amen.

1. "He puts an end to darkness"

Rabbi Chiya introduces a discussion on the secret nature of good and evil. Rabbi Shimon then defines evil as "the end of the left"; that is, the lack of "remembrance" or connection between the Left and Right Columns. The friends relate this phenomenon to the dreams of Yosef and the Pharaoh. Yosef's dream of a river signifies the end of darkness and evil, and the beginning of peace and plenty.

The Relevance of this Passage

The energy arising from the mystical shapes of the Hebrew letters enlightens us to the severity of our negative actions and their consequences. Negative behavior rooted in the Left Column refers to selfish indulgence without regard or concern for others. Awareness and careful management of both Columns--of receiving and of sharing--bring lasting Light to our lives. Inattention to either Column creates imbalance. Sharing without receiving [Right Column without Left Column], for example, quickly depletes our resources. If we share water from a glass without replenishment, the glass will soon be empty. Receiving without sharing is like casting a dehydrated man into the middle of a raging sea. Though he is in desperate need of water, overabundance eventually drowns him. Reading this section has a stabilizing effect on our spirituality and on the decisions we make. Intuitively, we begin making that strike a delicate balance between knowing when to share and when to receive.

1. "And it came to pass at the end of two years" (Beresheet 41:1). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse, "He puts an end to darkness, and searches out all perfection: the stone of darkness and the shadow of death" (Iyov 28:3). "He puts an end to darkness" is the end of the left, WHICH IS NOT INCLUDED WITHIN THE RIGHT; IT IS THE SATAN, THE ANGEL OF DEATH. He hovers about the world AND INCITES PEOPLE TO SIN; he hovers above and stands before the Holy One, blessed be He, and blames and accuses the world. As it is written, he "searches out all perfection (Heb. tachlit)," for his deeds are not intended to achieve good, but rather to exterminate (Heb. lechalot) and bring extinction to the world, AS HE TAKES THE SOULS OF MEN AND KILLS THEM.

2. "... the stone of darkness and the shadow of death" refers to a stumbling stone, NAMELY THE SATAN, WHO IS CALLED A STUMBLING STONE BECAUSE the wicked stumble and sin on it. It abides in that which is called "a land of gloom, as darkness itself" (Iyov 10:22). Come and behold: There is the land of the living above, which is the land of Yisrael, NAMELY, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. And there is a land below called "darkness and the shadow of death," namely the darkness that is issued from the land of gloom, WHICH IS THE NUKVA OF THE KLIPAH. What are "the stone of darkness and the shadow of death?" They are the end, on the side of darkness. They are THE SATAN, the dross of gold, as we have already learned.

3. Come and behold how much it behooves men to look into the worship of the Holy One, blessed be He, and strive to study the Torah day and night, so they will know and behold His worship. For the Torah proclaims every day before men, saying, "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here: as for him that lacks understanding, she says to him" (Mishlei 9:4). We have already explained this matter.

4. When a man studies the Torah and cleaves to it, he is strengthened in the Tree of Life, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "a Tree of Life..." (Mishlei 3:18). Come and behold: When a man is strengthened in the Tree of Life in this world, he is strengthened in it for the world to come. And when the souls leave this world, grades are prepared for them in the world to come.

1. וַיְהִי מִקֵּץ, רַבִּי חִיָּיא פָּתַח וַאֲמַר, קֵץ שָׁם לַחֲשֶׁךְ וְלִכְל תְּכַלִּית הוּא חוֹקֵר אֲבָן אֶפֶל וְצִלְמוֹת, הָאִי קָרָא אֲתָמֵר, קֵץ שָׁם לַחֲשֶׁךְ, דָּא אִיהוּ קֵץ דְּשִׂמְאֵלָא, דְּאִיהוּ שָׂאט בְּעֵלְמָא, וְשָׂאט לְעֵילָא, וְקִיּוּמָא קָמִי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְאֶסְטִי, וְקִטְרִיג עַל עֵלְמָא, וְהָא אֲתָמֵר. וְלִכְל תְּכַלִּית הוּא חוֹקֵר, דְּהָא כָּל עוֹבְדוֹי לָאו אֵינּוֹן לְטַב, אֶלָּא לְשִׂיבְעָא תְּדִיר, וְלִמְעַבְד כְּלִיה בְּעֵלְמָא.

5. Come and behold: The Tree of Life is divided into several grades, but they are all unified into one. For in the Tree of Life there are grades upon grades-branches, leaves, husks, the trunk, and the roots. All of them are the tree. In the same manner, whoever strives to study the Torah is strengthened and improved by the Tree of Life, NAMELY, IN THE TRUNK OF THE TREE.

6. All those of the faith, Yisrael, are strengthened by the Tree of Life. They all hold onto the tree, but some of them hold on to the trunk, some to the branches, some to the leaves, and some to the roots. It seems, therefore, that they hold onto the Tree of Life. All of those who are occupied in the study of the Torah hold to the trunk of the tree, and for that reason, he who studies the Torah holds onto the whole tree, BECAUSE THE TREE TRUNK INCLUDES ALL OF IT. This has already been explained.

7. "And it came to pass at the end." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "the end?" Rabbi Shimon replied that this is a place in which there is no remembrance-the end of the left. What does this mean? For it is written, "But think of me (lit. 'remember') when it shall be well with you" (Beresheet 40:14). HE ASKS: Is it proper for Yosef the righteous to say, "But remember me." AND HE ANSWERS, When Yosef looked at the dream, he said, 'This is assuredly a dream of remembrance'--but he was wrong, because it all came from the Holy One, blessed be He.

8. Therefore, the place of forgetfulness rose against him. It is written: "Nevertheless the chief butler did not remember Yosef, but forgot him". HE ASKS: If it is said "the chief butler did not remember," why then add "but forgot him"? HE ANSWERS, "but forgot him" indicates the place in which there is forgetfulness, which is CALLED to the end on the side of darkness. HE ASKS: What are the two years? AND HE ANSWERS: The grade of forgetfulness returned after that time to the grade in which there is remembrance.

8. וע"ד אתר דהוה ביה נשיו קם קמיה, מה כתיב ולא זכר שר המשקים את יוסף וישכחהו. בין דאמר ולא זכר שר המשקים, מהו וישכחהו. אלא וישכחהו אתר דאית ביה שכחה, ודא הוא קץ דסטרא דחשך. שנתים ימים, מאי שנתים. דתב דרגא, לדרגא דאית ביה זכירה.

9. "...that Pharaoh dreamed: and behold, he stood by the river" concerns the dream of Yosef, NAMELY A DREAM OF REMEMBRANCE THAT REFERS TO YOSEF, because every river is part of Yosef the Righteous. This is the hidden meaning of the thought that whoever sees a river in his dream sees peace, WHICH IS THE GRADE OF YESOD, THAT IS, YOSEF, as it is written, "I will extend peace to her like a river" (Yeshayah 66:12), AS "RIVER" ALLUDES TO YOSEF.

9. ופרעה חולם והנה עומד על היאר, דא חלמא דיוסף הוה, בגין דכל נהר דיוסף הצדיק איהו, ורזא דא הוי, האי מאן דחמי נהר בחלום, חמי שלום, דכתיב הנני נוטה אליה כנהר שלום.

2. "And it came to pass at the end of two years"

Here the rabbis discuss Yosef's sojourn in Egypt. Yosef is compared to King David, who at a later time occupied a similar position in relation to the world above and the world below. "The king by justice establishes the land but he who exacts gifts overthrows it." The king is the Pharaoh of Moshes' time. His lack of faith and his inability to interpret the true meaning of his dream bring destruction to his realm.

The Relevance of this Passage

Yosef's sojourn in Egypt is a metaphor for the soul's human incarnation in the material world. Yosef represents the soul, and Egypt, the negativity of the body. King David also represents the realm of Malchut, our lower dimension. Man's spiritual work is to rise above the temptations of material existence by removing the blinders that prevent us from recognizing the Divinity in the world, the foolishness of our negative behavior, and the consequences of our negative deeds. This elevated consciousness is stimulated by reading this section.

10. "And it came to pass at the end of two years." Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "The king by justice establishes the land: but he who exacts gifts overthrows it" (Mishlei 29:4). Come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the upper world, BINAH, He made everything properly and created bright lights that shone in all directions. THESE REPRESENT THE THREE COLUMNS, and all is united into one. He created heaven above, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, and the earth below, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, to combine as one--BINAH, ZEIR ANPIN, AND NUKVA--to benefit the lower beings.

11. Come and behold: In the verse, "The king by justice establishes the land", who is the king? He is the Holy One, blessed be He--BINAH. The words "by justice" refer to Ya'akov, THAT IS, ZEIR ANPIN, who forms the foundation of the land. Therefore the letter Vav IN THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, is sustained by the upper Hei IN THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS BINAH. The lower Hei IN THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is sustained by the Vav, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, because "justice establishes the land" with all its needs and nourishes it.

12. Another explanation of "the king" is that it refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, while justice refers to Yosef, "who established the land" as it is written: "And all countries (lit. 'and all the land') came to Egypt to Yosef to buy provisions" (Bereshheet 41:57). Because the Holy One, blessed be He, favored Ya'akov, He made him governor of all the land.

13. Rabbi Yosi said: "The king" is Yosef and "by justice" is Ya'akov, because as long as Ya'akov did not come to Egypt, the land was beset by famine. After Ya'akov came to Egypt by his merit, the famine was gone and the land was established.

14. Another explanation is that "The king by justice establishes the land" refers to King David, as it is written: "And David reigned over all Yisrael; and David executed judgment and righteousness to all his people" (II Shmuel 8:15). He established the land DURING HIS LIFETIME, and by his merit, it stood AFTER HIS DEMISE. THE PHRASE, "but he who exacts gifts overthrows it" refers to Rechav'am.

15. Come and behold: For the sake of the righteous, the Holy One, blessed be He, did not impose punishment that had been decreed on the world, so it will not have sway over the world. All the days of King David, the land was established for his sake. After he died, it continued because of his merit, as it is written: "and I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake" (II Melachim 20:6). Similarly, no punishment was inflicted on the world during all the days of Ya'akov and all the days of Yosef, AS THE FAMINE CEASED FOR THEIR SAKES AND THE ENSLAVING BY EGYPT WAS DELAYED.

16. Come and behold: The verse, "The king by justice establishes the land" refers to Yosef, "but he who exacts gifts overthrows it" refers to Pharaoh. Because Pharaoh hardened his heart against the Holy One, blessed be He, the land of Egypt was destroyed. Before that, the land was thriving through Yosef, in accordance with Pharaoh's dream, as it is written, "And it came to pass at the end of two years..."

17. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse, "Hashem lives; and blessed is my Rock; and let the Elohim (Elohai) of my salvation be exalted" (Tehilim 18:47). "Elohai" is spelled with a Vav. This verse requires careful study. The phrase, "Hashem lives" refers to the righteous, the foundation of the world, NAMELY, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, who is referred to as the life of the world. The phrase "and blessed is my Rock" is the meaning of "Blessed be Hashem my Rock" (Tehilim 144:1). The world, THAT IS, THE NUKVA, is sustained by the generosity of the Righteous, WHICH IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. IN THE VERSE, "Let the Elohim of my salvation be exalted": "exalted" refers to the upper world, NAMELY BINAH, and "Elohai" with a Vav is heaven, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "The heavens are the heavens of Hashem" (Tehilim 115:16).

18. Come and behold: "Blessed be Adonai who day by day bears our burden" (Tehilim 68:20). The name Adonai is spelled Aleph-Dalet-Nun-Yud, WHICH ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA. This verse contains the mystery of wisdom. "Day by day" is the secret of "two years (lit. 'two years' days)", WHICH ARE THE TWO GRADES BINAH AND ZEIR ANPIN, FOR THE NUKVA IS BLESSED ONLY BY THEM. This is as it is written: "And it came to pass at the end of two years that Pharaoh dreamed: and behold, he stood by the river." We have already learned this secret; it means Yosef, because the words, "a river" refer to Yosef the Righteous.

19. The verse, "And, behold, there came up out of the river seven cows, well favored, and fat of flesh, and they fed in the reed grass" reads "out of the river" because from this river, WHICH IS YESOD, all the grades below are blessed, because the river that flows from Eden, WHICH IS BINAH, waters and sustains everything. And Yosef, WHO IS YESOD, is a river, and the whole land of Egypt is blessed for his sake.

20. Come and behold: From that river, NAMELY YESOD, the seven grades OF THE NUKVA, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT IN HER, THAT WERE EXTENDING FROM HER, AND WERE STANDING IN THE WORLD OF BRIYAH are watered and blessed by it. These are THE SEVEN "well favored, and fat of flesh" COWS, who "fed in the reed grass." THAT IS, they fed together in friendship, and there was no separation among them. All of them stand to be praised, FOR THERE IS NO NOURISHMENT FOR THE OTHER SIDE, for these seven grades are the mystery of the verse: "and the seven maids chosen to be given her, out of the king's house" (Ester 2:9), WHICH REFERS TO THE SEVEN TEMPLES OF BRIYAH, ALL OF WHICH ARE PRAISEWORTHY. And so are the "seven cows well favored," ALL TO BE PRAISED. In contrast, "the seven chamberlains who served in the presence of the king" (Tehilim 1:10) ARE NOT TO BE WHOLLY PRAISED, FOR THEY INCLUDE A PORTION OF THE POWERS OF DEFILEMENT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE SEVEN LEAN COWS.

21. Rabbi Yitzchak said: The seven good cows are grades, superior to other grades, whereas the seven ill-favored cows are the grades below. THE UPPER ONES are on the side of holiness, and THE LOWER ONES on the side of defilement.

22. "...the seven ears of grains:" Rabbi Yehuda said that the first SEVEN EARS are good, because they are of the right side, about which it is written, "it was good." The ill and thin SEVEN EARS are beneath them. The seven GOOD ears are on the side of purity, and the ILL ones are on the side of impurity. These grades all stand on top of each other-against each other. Pharaoh saw all of them in his dream.

23. Rabbi Yesa asks: How could they have shown the evil Pharaoh all these grades? Rabbi Yehuda answers, He only saw their likeness, NOT THE GRADES THEMSELVES. For there are grades upon grades, all stand on top of each other, of which Pharaoh saw only their images.

24. We have already learned that a man's character is revealed in his dreams. As his soul ascends, he will perceive that which he deserves according to his grade. Pharaoh, therefore, saw what he was worthy of seeing and no more.

25. "And it came to pass in the end." Rabbi Chizkiyah began with the verse: "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven" (Kohelet 3:1). Come and behold what the Holy One, blessed be He, did below: He set a time for everything, and fixed a term for it. He fixed a term for light and darkness. He set a time for light for all nations EXCEPT YISRAEL, which now have mastery over the world, and He set time for darkness, when Yisrael are in exile and under the dominion of other nations. The Holy One, blessed be He, appointed a season for all and, therefore: "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "and a time to every purpose?" HE REPLIES: It means a time and season for everything that is below, that is, for all the goodness found below has a set time and season.

26. Another explanation for "...and a time to every purpose." HE ASKS: What is "time?" HE ANSWERS, It is the same as mentioned in the verses: "It is time to act for Hashem: they have made void your Torah" (Tehilim 119:126) and "that he come not at all times into the holy place" (Vayikra 16:2). This is the grade appointed TO LEAD THE WORLD, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, and has already been explained. Therefore, the scriptures explain that "time", THE NUKVA, is appointed over "every purpose under the heaven." "And it came to pass at the end of two years" refers to the side of the end of darkness, FOR HE SET AN APPOINTED TIME FOR LIGHT AND DARKNESS, that Pharaoh had seen in his dream, this is where he derived his knowledge from, and the dream was revealed to him.

3. "His spirit was troubled"

This passage deals with Pharaoh's troubled spirit, caused by his inability to interpret his dream. The rabbis compare Pharaoh's state of mind to that of Nevuchnetzar during the Babylonian captivity. Rabbi Yitzchak maintains that kings and other heads of state are occasionally granted glimpses of the hidden world usually only provided to the prophets of Israel.

The Relevance of this Passage

Each night our soul ascends to higher realms, where it receives dream messages that can influence us in our spiritual endeavors. Depending on our actions and interactions during the previous day, these messages can advance or hinder our efforts. Positive actions arouse prophetic messages of truth, while negative behavior invokes deceitful messages and disingenuous dreams. Here we receive assistance in making positive use of our sleep, so that our dreams can provide reliable glimpses of the future.

27. "And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled (Heb. vatipaem)." HE ASKS: What does vatipaem mean? Rabbi Yosi said: It has already been explained. Of Pharaoh, it is written, vatipaem, and of Nevuchadnetzar, it is written, "his spirit was troubled (Heb. vatitpaem)" (Daniel 2:1). Pharaoh is described as vatipaem because he comprehended the dream but not its interpretation. Nevuchadnetzar, on the other hand, saw the dream and its interpretation, but forgot everything. IT IS THEREFORE WRITTEN VATITPAEM (WITH AN EXTRA TET).

28. But come and behold: "and his spirit was troubled (Heb. vatipaem)" corresponds to "And the spirit of Hashem began to move him (Heb. lepha'ahmo)" (Shoftim 13:25), for the spirit would appear and disappear, come and go, yet not settle upon him properly. It is therefore written, "And the spirit of Hashem began to move him," when THE SPIRIT just began TO INSPIRE HIM. Here also the spirit would appear and leave, then appear AGAIN, but would not settle upon him, so that he could understand. Of Nevuchadnetzar it is written, "and his spirit was troubled (Heb. vatitpaem)," for the inspiration, THE SPIRIT, was twice as strong, BECAUSE HE UNDERSTOOD NEITHER THE DREAM NOR ITS INTERPRETATION. THE SPIRITS would come and go, as it is written, "as on previous occasions (Heb. kepha'am bepha'am, lit. 'as time to time')" (I Shmuel 3:10), now upon this and now upon that, but his mind was not settled.

29. The verse: "and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt," refers to the sorcerers; "and all her wise men" refers to the astrologers. They all tried to understand, but could not.

30. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Although we have learned that a man is shown only what is appropriate to his grade, this is not true for kings. They are shown supernal things that are different from those that other people ARE SHOWN. Because a king is of a superior grade than other men, that which he is shown is of a higher grade than the rest, as it is written, "what the Elohim are about to do He has declared to Pharaoh" (Beresheet 41:25). But to other men, the Holy One, blessed be He, does not reveal his works. He reveals them only to the prophets, the pious, and the wise men of the ages, as has already been explained.

31. Come and behold: It is written, "me he restored to my office, and him he hanged" (Bereshheet 41:13). From this, we understand that a dream follows its interpretation. Who is referred to in the phrase, "me he restored to my office?" It is Yosef. Also YOSEF hanged him because of his interpretation of the dream, and so it is written: "And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was" (Ibid.).

31. תָּא חֲזִי, כְּתִיב אוֹתִי הֵשִׁיב עַל בְּנֵי וְאוֹתוֹ תִּלֶּה, מִכָּאן דְּחִלְמָא אֲזִיל בְּתַר פִּישְׁרָא, הֵשִׁיב עַל בְּנֵי מֵאן, אֲלֵא דָא יוֹסֵף. וְאוֹתוֹ תִּלֶּה, בְּהוּא פִישְׁרָא דְקָא פִשְׁר לִיה, וְכְתִיב וַיְהִי כַּאֲשֶׁר פִּתְר לָנוּ כֵּן הָיָה.

4. "And they brought him hastily out of the dungeon"

This passage discourses on the allegorical meaning of Pharaoh's elevation of Yosef. Rabbi Aba maintains that the verse reveals the benefits of standing in awe of God and of studying Torah at night. The text then moves to a discussion of Ecclesiastes (Kohelet). It points out that while we cannot control what comes into our eyes and ears, we can control what comes out of our mouths. Therefore, speak not evil. A discussion follows on the nature of time, the timing of good deeds, the valuable lessons to be learned from our mistakes, and the dilemma of those caught in an evil time.

The Relevance of this Passage

Words are vessels that draw particular blends of energy into our lives. Human speech possesses power that can directly influence the world around us. Hence, we should take great care in choosing what we say. Although we are initially given an unlimited amount of time to live in this world and accomplish our spiritual purpose, every negative word decreases the length of our stay. Positive words do not add time to our lives, but they also do not detract from it. This passage helps us use our speech for spiritual purposes, so that our words inspire Light in others instead of adding darkness to the world.

32. "Then Pharaoh sent and called Yosef, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon." Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse, "Hashem takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope for His mercy" (Tehilim 147:11). How much the Holy One, blessed be He, delights in the righteous, for they make peace above IN ABA AND IMA, they make peace below IN ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA, and they bring the bride to her husband. The Holy One, blessed be He, is therefore pleased with those who fear Him and abide by His wish.

32. וַיִּשְׁלַח פַּרְעֹה וַיִּקְרָא אֶת יוֹסֵף וַיְרִיצֵהוּ מִן הַבּוֹר וְגו'. רַבִּי אַבָּא פָתַח וְאָמַר רוּצָה יִי אֶת יִרְאָיו אֶת הַמִּיחָלִים לְחֶסֶדוֹ. כִּמְהָ קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, אֶתְרַעֵי בְּהוּ בְצַדִּיקָא, בְּגִין דְּצַדִּיקָא אֵינּוּן עֵבְדִין שְׁלָמָא לְעִילָא, וְעֵבְדֵי שְׁלָמָה לְתַתָּא, וְאֶעְלִין כְּלָה בְּבַעֲלָה, וּבְגִין כֵּךְ קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֶתְרַעֵי בְּהוּ, בְּאַנּוּן דְּדַחֲלִין לִיה וְעֵבְדִין רַעוּתִיה.

33. "Those who hope for His mercy." HE ASKS: Who are "those who hope for His mercy?" HE ANSWERS, They are the ones who study the Torah at night and join the Shechinah. When morning comes, they hope for His mercy. It has already been explained that when a man studies the Torah at night, a thread of grace is drawn upon him during the day, as it is written: "Yet Hashem will command His grace in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me" (Tehilim 42:9). Why is it said that "Hashem will command His grace in the daytime?" Because "in the night His song shall be with me." Hence the verse, "Hashem takes pleasure (in) those who fear Him," uses the particle Et instead of "in," because HE IS NOT ONLY PLEASED WITH THEM, but act as one who pleases another and wishes to be at peace with him. It is therefore written: "Hashem takes pleasure (in) those who fear him"--WHICH MEANS THAT HE PLEASURES AND APPEASES THEM, rather than "Hashem takes pleasure in those who fear Him," WHICH WOULD ONLY MEAN HE IS PLEASED WITH THEM THEMSELVES.

34. Similarly, Yosef was sad in mind and spirit, BECAUSE he was imprisoned. Once Pharaoh had sent for him, it is written: "and they brought him hastily," which means that he appeased him and addressed him with joyful words that gladden the heart. Why? Because he was dejected FROM SITTING in the dungeon (lit. 'pit'). Come and behold: First he fell into a pit, and from which he later rose to greatness.

35. Rabbi Shimon said: Before the incident happened, Yosef was not called righteous. After he guarded the Holy Covenant BY NOT SINNING WITH POTIFAR'S WIFE, he was called righteous and the grade of the Holy Covenant, YESOD, decorated him. That which was first in the dungeon, THE KLIPAH, rose with him. It is written: "and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon", for he had ascended from THE KLIPAH and was adorned with a well of living water, THE SHECHINAH.

36. "Then Pharaoh sent and called Yosef." HE SAID: It should have been written "to call Yosef" INSTEAD OF "AND CALLED," WHICH INTERRUPTS THE PHRASE. HE ANSWERS, It was the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO CALLED TO BRING HIM FROM THE PIT, as it is written, "until the time that His word came to pass: the word of Hashem had tested him" (Tehilim 105:19). The verse: "until the time that His word came to pass" is similar to the phrase, "and called Yosef," FOR IT WAS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO CALLED HIM. It is written here "and called Yosef" and elsewhere "And He called to Moshe" (Vayikra 1:1). IN BOTH PASSAGES, IT WAS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO CALLED HIM. "And he shaved himself, and changed his garments" out of respect for the king, AS HE HAD TO STAND BEFORE PHARAOH.

37. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "So Yisrael came into Egypt; and Ya'akov sojourned in the land of Cham" (Vayikra 1:23). Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, directs events and fulfills vows and oaths in order to fulfill the vow and edict He decreed.

38. We have learned that were it not for the fondness and affection the Holy One, blessed be He, bore for the Patriarchs, Ya'akov would have had to go down to Egypt in iron chains. In His love for them, He made Yosef, His son, ruler and governor over the whole land. The tribes then went to Egypt honored, and Ya'akov was as a king.

39. Come and behold: It is written, "So Yisrael came into Egypt; and Ya'akov sojourned in the land of Cham." HE ASKS: Because it is written, "So Yisrael came into Egypt," it is understood that Ya'akov sojourned in the land of Cham. Why should he have added it? HE REPLIES: "so Yisrael came into Egypt" refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY, ZEIR ANPIN CALLED YISRAEL, AND "and Ya'akov sojourned in the land of Cham" refers to Ya'akov, because it was for the sake of Ya'akov, and his sons that the Shechinah came down to Egypt. The Holy One, blessed be He, planned events so that Yosef was brought down first; for as a result of his merit, the covenant dwelt with him and made him ruler over the whole land.

40. It is written: "The king sent and loosed him: and the ruler of the people let him go free" (Tehilim 105:20). Rabbi Shimon said: It is written, "Hashem looses the prisoners" (Tehilim 146:7), and "The king sent and loosed him." Why DID HE REPEAT THE THOUGHT BY SAYING, "and the ruler of the people let him go free?" HE ANSWERS, "The king" is the Holy One, blessed be He, and the "ruler of the people" is the Holy One, blessed be He. THE MEANING OF THE VERSE IS: "The king" refers to the supernal king, ZEIR ANPIN, who "sent and loosed him." Whom did he send? The redeeming angel, THE NUKVA, who is "ruler of the people" and rules below IN THE LOWER WORLD. All comes from the Holy One, blessed be He.

41. The word, vayritzuhu ("and they brought him hastily") is spelled without the letter Vav TO INDICATE THAT IT IS SINGULAR INSTEAD OF PLURAL. Who BROUGHT HIM HASTILY FROM THE DUNGEON? The Holy One, blessed be He, for there is no one else who imprisons and frees people from prison, as it is written: "He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening" (Iyov 12:14) and "When He gives quietness, who then can condemn? and when He hides His face, who then can behold Him? Whether against a nation, or against a man alike" (Iyov 34:29). For everything depends upon Him, as it is written, "and He does according to His will in the host of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay His hand, or say to Him, What do you?" (Daniel 4:32). Hence it is written: "and they (he) brought him hastily out of the dungeon," THAT IS, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, BROUGHT HIM HASTILY OUT OF THE DUNGEON.

42. HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "and he brought him hastily (Heb. vayritzuhu)?" HE REPLIES: As "he shall pray to Eloha, and He will be favorable to him (Heb. vritzuy)" (Iyov 33:26) MEANS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WAS FAVORABLE TO HIM, so the verse "and he brought him hastily out of the dungeon" MEANS THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WAS FAVORABLE TO HIM. Then he was brought before Pharaoh. Another explanation is that vayritzuhu IS DERIVED FROM WILL (HEB. RATZON) AND GRACE, for He drew upon him a thread of grace so he will find grace before Pharaoh. HE ADDRESSED HIM WITH, "Elohim shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace" to hasten to greet him and open HIS SPEECH with THE WORD "peace."

43. Rabbi Aba said: Come and behold see the wicked Pharaoh, who said: "I know not Hashem (Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei)" (Shemot 5:2). As he was wiser than all his magicians, HOW COULD HE HAVE NOT KNOWN YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI? HE ANSWERS, Assuredly he knew the name of Elohim, as it is written, "Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the spirit of Elohim" (Beresheet 41:38). However, because Moshe came before him with the name of Hashem only, it was hard for him to understand anything more, for he knew that ELOHIM was ruler over the land, but he did not know the name Hashem. Therefore he found this name difficult to grasp.

44. This is why it is written, "And Hashem hardened the heart of Pharaoh." It was the word YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI that hardened his heart and made him headstrong. Moshe, therefore, spoke to him only by the name Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, as has already been explained.

45. He opened the discussion with the verse: "Who is like Hashem our Elohim, who is enthroned on high, who looks far down to behold" (Tehilim 113:5-6): "Who is like Hashem, who is enthroned on high" MEANS THAT He rises above His throne of glory not to be revealed below. For when there are no righteous to be found in the world, He is gone from them and does not reveal himself to them. The phrase: "who looks far down to behold" REFERS TO the time when the righteous are found in the world, and the Holy One, blessed be He, descends to the lower ones to take care of the world and do good by them.

46. For when there are no righteous men in the world, He is gone, hides His face from them, and does not pay attention to them. This is because the righteous are the foundation and existence of the world, as it is written, "and the righteous is an everlasting foundation" (Mishlei 10:25).

47. The Holy One, blessed be He, therefore revealed His Holy Name to Yisrael alone, who are His portion, lot and inheritance. The Holy One, blessed be He, divided the world among the mighty chieftains, THE SEVENTY MINISTERS. This we have learned from the verse: "He set the borders of the people...For Hashem's portion is His people; Ya'akov is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32: 8-9).

48. Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Yosi were walking together. Rabbi Yosi said: I wonder about the words of King Solomon, for all his speeches are obscure, and the words of Kohelet are vague.

49. He began with the verse, "All things are full of weariness; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing" (Kohelet 1:8): HE ASKS: If "all things are full of weariness," are they all too weary to speak? SOME THINGS CLEARLY ARE NOT. He also quoted the verse: "man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing." Why did precisely these occur to him? HE ANSWERS, Two of them-eyes and ears-are not under a man's control; the mouth, however, is under his control. THUS, HE TEACHES US THAT ALTHOUGH THESE ORGANS COMPRISE ALL THE FACULTIES OF MAN, THEY cannot comprehend and conceive everything. THE QUESTION IS THEREFORE SETTLED, FOR "ALL THINGS ARE FULL OF WEARINESS" MEANS THAT THE EYES, EARS, AND MOUTH CANNOT COMPREHEND EVERYTHING.

50. Rabbi Chiya said: It is so. A man's speech cannot utter, nor the eyes see and the ears hear "and there is nothing new under the sun" (Kohelet 1:9). Come and behold: Even the ghosts and spirits of the Holy One, blessed be He, formed under the sun cannot say all that there is in the world, nor can the eye see or the ear hear. Solomon, who knew everything, therefore said this.

45. פתח ואמר מי כה' אלקינו המגביהי לשבת וגו' מי כה' אלקינו המגביהי לשבת, דאסתלק מעל כרסי יקריה, ולא אתגלי לתתא, בשעתא דלא אשתכחו זכאין בעלמא, הא איהו אסתלק מנייהו, ולא אתגלי להו. המשפילי לראות, בשעתא דזכאין אינון דאשתכחו בעלמא. קודשא בריך הוא נחית בדרגוי לקבלהון דתתאי, לאשגחא על עלמא, לאוטבא להו.

47. ועל דא קודשא בריך הוא לא גלי שמייה קדישא, בר לישראל בלחודוי, דאינון חולק ערביה ואחסנתיה, ועלמא פליג ליה קודשא בריך הוא, לממנן תריסין, והא אתמר דכתיב בהנחל עליון גוים וגו'. וכתיב כי חלק ה' עמו יעקב חבל נחלתו.

51. Come and behold: All actions in the world depend on many chieftains, FOR THERE IS NOT ONE HERB BELOW THAT HAS NOT A CHIEF OVER IT, WHO COMMANDS, "GROW." Yet all the people in the world do not know or care about THEIR ROOTS OR why they are in the world. For even King Solomon, who was wiser than any other man, could not grasp them.

52. He opened the discussion by quoting: "He has made every thing beautiful in its time: also He has set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work which the Elohim has made" (Kohelet 3:11): Come and behold: Happy are those who study the Torah and know how to observe with the spirit of wisdom. "He has made every thing beautiful in its time" REFERS TO all the works that the Holy One, blessed be He, performed in the world. Over every action in the world there is a grade in charge, either for good or for evil. THESE ARE THE 28 TIMES MENTIONED BY KOHELET, FOURTEEN FOR GOOD ON THE RIGHT IN THE SECRET OF THE SHECHINAH, AND FOURTEEN FOR EVIL ON THE LEFT, IN THE SECRET OF THE OTHER SIDE THAT PUNISHES MEN. From them, some grades go to the right and some to the left. When a man goes to the right, the deed he performs, the grade appointed over that RIGHT side, gives him help. If a man goes to the left and performs a certain deed, the chief of the LEFT side denounces him for that deed, conducts him to that side and leads him astray. Therefore when a man acts worthily, the chief of the right side helps him. The "in its time" referred to in the phrase, "beautiful in its time" tells us that the deed was properly connected to "its time," TO THE NUKVA CALLED TIME. THE SECRET OF THE FOURTEEN TIMES FOR GOOD IS THEIR BEING ON THE RIGHT. THROUGH THE PUNISHMENT OF THE FOURTEEN TIMES FOR EVIL, A MAN CHOOSES THE FOURTEEN TIMES ON THE RIGHT AND CLEAVES TO THE SHECHINAH. IT IS FOUND THEN, THAT HE DID EVERYTHING "BEAUTIFUL IN ITS TIME."

53. "...also He has set the world in their heart." This means that the world and all its actions are not bound to holiness but to the heart's desire when desire rises in man, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "KNOW THEREFORE THIS DAY, AND CONSIDER IT IN YOUR HEART" (DEVARIM 4:39). Happy are the righteous who draw BY THEIR HEART'S DESIRE good deeds that benefit them and the whole world, and who know how to be attached to the "time of peace" (Kohelet 3:8), THAT IS, TO THE TIME OF HIGH UNION CALLED PEACE. By the strength of charity that they give below, they cause the grade called all (lit. 'everything'), YESOD, to illuminate "in its time," THE NUKVA.

54. Woe to the wicked who do not know the time, NAMELY THE TIME OF PEACE, for the action and do not pay attention, so that they perform their actions for the sake of needed improvement in the world and correct the deed in its appropriate grade. THIS MEANS THAT THEY DO NOT ELEVATE THE MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) BY THEIR WORKS TO SUPERNAL UNION, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF "TIME OF PEACE." They do not do so, because they do not know this.

55. Therefore everything is given to man's desire, as it is written: "so that no man can find out the work which the Elohim has made from the beginning to the end." Because these deeds were not performed with the intention of correcting them according to their appropriate grades, that is, to include the deeds in their CORRESPONDING grade, they are accomplished according to man's desire, IN STUBBORNNESS. Of this, it is written: "I know that there is nothing good in them, but to rejoice, and to do good in his life" (Kohelet 3:12). "I know there is nothing good in them"-in the deeds that are not properly performed WITH THE PURPOSE OF CORRECTING-"but to rejoice" at whatever comes upon him, EITHER GOOD OR BAD, to thank the Holy One, blessed be He, "and to do good in his life." HE ASKS: WHY SHOULD HE REJOICE AT EVIL? HE ANSWERS, If the deed brought evil consequences because of the grade appointed over it ON THE LEFT SIDE, he should rejoice and be thankful FOR THE EVIL HE DESERVED, for he himself caused all this by going without knowledge as a bird falling into a snare. NOW THAT HE OBTAINED KNOWLEDGE BECAUSE OF THE PUNISHMENT, HE WOULD KNOW "TO DO GOOD IN HIS LIFE." ONE SHOULD, THEREFORE, REJOICE AND BE THANKFUL FOR PUNISHMENT.

56. HE ASKS: how do we know THAT A MAN IS WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE? HE ANSWERS, From the verse, "For man also knows not his time: like the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and like the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly upon them" (Kohelet 9:12). HE ASKS: What is the time in "For man also knows not his time?" HE REPLIES: "his time" of the deed he has done, as it is written: "He has made every thing beautiful in its time." He is therefore "like the birds that are caught in the snare." Happy then are those who are occupied in the study of the Torah, who know the ways and roads of the Torah of the most High King, because they can walk in it on the path of truth.

57. Come and behold: A man should never open his mouth to speak evil, for he knows not who receives his word, and when a man does not know, he may stumble. When the righteous open their mouths, they do so peacefully. When Yosef addressed Pharaoh, he first said, "Elohim shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace." Rabbi Yehuda said: We have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, cares for the peace of the kingdom, as it is written: "and He gave them a charge to the children of Yisrael, and to Pharaoh the king of Egypt" (Shemot 6:13). AND THEY EXPLAINED IT, MEANING TO GIVE HONOR TO PHARAOH.

57. ותא חזי, לעולם אל יפתח בר נש פומיה לביש, דאיהו לא ידע מאן נטיל ההיא מלה, וכד לא ידע בר נש אתכשל בה, וצדיקיא בד פתחי פומיהו בלהו שלם. תא חזי, יוסף בד שרא למללא לפרעה, מה כתיב, אלהים יענה את שלום פרעה. אמר רבי יהודה, הא אתמר, דקודשא בריך הוא חס על שלמא דמלכותא, כד"א ויצום אל בני ישראל ואל פרעה מלך מצרים ואוקמוה.

5. "Since Elohim has shown you all this"

Here the Zohar speculates on the hidden meaning of Yosef's successful interpretation of Pharaoh's dream, and the resulting prosperity for both himself and the people of Israel. The rabbis compare Yosef's experience to that of Daniel in Babylon. They proceed to describe Yosef's work as Pharaoh's Minister of Agriculture and Minister of Finance, and praise his wisdom and discretion in both posts. An interesting passage concerns God's ability to create demand in order to benefit those who are able to supply.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section helps us to recognize the links between causes and effects, and to govern our actions accordingly. In this way, when life makes demands on us, we can know they are only for our benefit.

58. Rabbi Chiya said: Pharaoh wished to test Yosef and therefore mixed THE WORDS OF his dream, but Yosef, who recognized the grades ALLUDED TO IN THE DREAM, looked into each matter and said: You have seen it this way and ARRANGED everything in a proper manner.

59. It is written: "And Pharaoh said to Yosef, 'Since Elohim has shown you all this, there is none so discreet and wise as you are.'" The phrase, "since Elohim has shown you" MEANS because you were there when I had this dream. Therefore, he said "all this", because you knew the dream and its interpretation.

60. Rabbi Yitzchak said: If this be so, then Yosef told everything-the dream and its interpretation-just like Daniel, who told the dream and its interpretation. He said to him, There is no resemblance between the cases. Yosef looked into the words of Pharaoh, who told THE CONTENT OF HIS DREAM through certain grades, and saw he was mistaken BECAUSE HE TOLD IT NOT ACCORDING TO THE ORDER THAT PREVAILS IN THE GRADES OF THAT DREAM. He said to Pharaoh, You have not seen it this way but rather that way, for the grades have a particular order. Daniel, on the other hand, did not derive anything from Nevuchadnetzar, but rather told him everything, the dream and its interpretation.

61. In relation to Daniel, the verse says: "Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a night vision" (Daniel 2:19). HE ASKS: What is the "night vision?" HE REPLIES: It is Gavriel, who is a vision, a vision from a vision.

62. Come and behold: It is written, "and behold the glory of the Elohim of Yisrael came from the way of the east: and His voice was like the sound of many waters: and the earth shone with His glory" (Yechezkel 43:2). This is followed by: "And the appearance of the earth shone with His glory. And the appearance of the vision which I saw was like the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river K'var, and I fell upon my face" (Yechezkel 43:3). All the visions MENTIONED IN THE VERSE correspond to six grades. The vision of a vision, GAVRIEL, has a mirror that reflects the upper hues. Thus, THE SIX MIRRORS OF THE NUKVA reflected in this mirror, GAVRIEL. There are visions upon visions; every vision is on top of another and all within certain grades-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD-where they have dominion by the name of "night vision." All the dreams in the world are interpreted through them. They resemble those above them, THE SIX VISIONS OF THE NUKVA.

63. To Daniel, though "the secret revealed...in a night vision," he did not find it himself. Once the secret had been revealed, one of the grades of the "night vision" told him of the dream and its interpretation. But Yosef, from the words of Pharaoh, beheld the high grades TO WHICH THE DREAM ALLUDED, and revealed ITS INTERPRETATION TO PHARAOH.

64. PHARAOH, therefore, gave him command over the whole land of Egypt, because the Holy One, blessed be He, gave Yosef from His own. Because his mouth did not kiss transgression, it is said: "according to your mouth shall my people be ruled." Because his hand did not come near sinning, it is written: "and put it on Yosef's hand." Because the neck did not approach sin, it is written: "and put a gold chain about his neck." Because the body did not get nigh sin, it is written: "arrayed him in garments of fine linen." Because the foot did not ride to transgression, it is written: "he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had." Because his mind did not harbor SINFUL thought, he was called "discreet and wise" and because his heart did not reflect UPON SIN, "they cried before him Avrech (lit. 'bow the knee')." He received what was properly his.

65. It is written, "And Yosef went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt." Rabbi Chizkiyah asks: Why did he go through all the land of Egypt? HE ANSWERS, He did so to establish his rule OVER THEM, by their crying before him AVRECH. Another reason was to gather grain from every district. Rabbi Elazar said: Yosef gathered the grain of every district, "THE FOOD OF THE FIELD, WHICH WAS ROUND ABOUT EVERY CITY, LAID HE UP WITHIN IT," AND NOT IN ANOTHER PLACE so it would not rot, FOR IT IS THE NATURE OF A PLACE TO PRESERVE ITS FRUIT.

66. Rabbi Shimon said: The Holy One, blessed be He, created everything in such a manner AS TO BENEFIT YISRAEL. This He did because He wanted to fulfill His promise. Come and behold: First He supplied the world with its needs, and then He put man in it and gave him sustenance.

67. Similarly, the Holy One, blessed be He, said to Avraham, "Know surely that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs... and afterwards shall they come out with great substance" (Beresheet 15:13-14). When Yosef arrived in Egypt, there was no great substance in it. TO CORRECT THIS, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, brought famine upon the world. People then brought silver and gold to Egypt until the land of Egypt was filled with silver and gold. After great substance was acquired, He brought Ya'akov to Egypt.

68. These are the ways of the Holy One, blessed be he: He first creates the medicine and then inflicts the wound. First He brought great substance TO EGYPT, and then He brought them into exile. He arranged matters and brought famine upon the whole world so that people would bring silver and gold from all over the world into Egypt.

69. Come and behold: For the sake of the righteous Yosef, he caused Yisrael to obtain riches-silver and gold-as it is written, "He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one who stumbled among their tribes" (Tehilim 105:37). This came upon Yisrael by the hand of a righteous man, all in order to make them merit the world to come.

70. He opened the discussion with the verse: "Live joyfully with the wife whom you love" (Kohelet. 9:9). Come and behold: This verse is explained according to a supernal secret; thus, "live joyfully (lit. 'see a life')" alludes to life in the world to come, for happy is he who merits it as he should.

71. The phrase, "with the wife whom you love," refers to the congregation of Yisrael, which is referred to with love in, "I have loved you with an everlasting love" (Yirmeyah 31:3). When is that? At the time the right side takes hold of it, as it is written: "Therefore with Chesed have I drawn you" (Ibid.), CHESED BEING THE RIGHT SIDE.

72. The verse continues with "all the days of the life of your vanity." This is because she, THE NUKVA, CALLED THE CONGREGATION OF YISRAEL WHEN IN GREATNESS, is attached to life, NAMELY TO BINAH CALLED LIFE, which is a world full of life. For the other world, THE NUKVA, is without life, being beneath the sun, ZEIR ANPIN. THUS, IT IS CALLED "LIFE OF VANITY." But the rays of the sun do not reach this world; they have been gone from this world since the day the Temple was destroyed, as it is written, "the sun shall be darkened in his going forth" (Yeshayah 13:10). Its light has gone up and does not shine below, as it is written: "The righteous perishes..." (Yeshayah 57:1). THIS REFERS TO THE YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH POURS PLENTY DOWN INTO THIS WORLD, THE NUKVA. THERE IS NEED, THEREFORE, TO DRAW LIFE TO HER FROM BINAH.

73. The verse concludes with: "for that is your portion in life" (Kohelet 9:9), MEANING THE UNION BETWEEN the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, and the moon, THE NUKVA. THE NUKVA IS CALLED PORTION AND THE LIGHT OF THE SUN, LIFE. The sun should come into the moon and the moon into the sun, and they must not be separated. It is a man's responsibility TO EFFECT BY HIS ACTIONS THE SUPERNAL UNION, to come to them in the world to come.

74. The verse is followed by the words, "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your strength, for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sh'ol, where you go" (Kohelet 9:10). We have to study the verse, which reads: "Whatever your hand finds to do." Is there no longer any fear of punishment? Can a man do whatever he wishes and is able to do? HE ANSWERED, It is written: "Do it with your strength." Your strength is man's soul, which gives him strength to merit this world and the world to come.

69. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּגִין יוֹסֵף דְּאִיהוּ צְדִיק, אִיהִי גְרִים עוֹתְרָא בְּסַפָּא וְדִהְבָּא, לְנִטְלָא יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּדַכְתִּיב וּיּוֹצִיאֵם בְּכֶסֶף וְזָהָב וְאִין בְּשִׁבְטֵיו כּוֹשֵׁל. וּמִן יָדָא דְצְדִיק אָתָּא דָּא לְיִשְׂרָאֵל, וְכֹלָא לְמִזְכֵּי לֹון לְעֵלְמָא דְאַתִּי.

75. Another explanation is that "your strength" is the wife we mentioned, THE CONGREGATION OF YISRAEL, who is a source of strength in this world and the world to come. A man should merit this world by means of that strength, so he will be able to draw strength from it in the world to come.

76. Why DO WE HAVE TO STRENGTHEN OURSELVES WITH GOOD DEEDS IN THIS WORLD? Because after a man leaves this world, he has no more power to do anything. He cannot say, from now on I will perform good deeds. Assuredly, this is true "for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sh'ol" and if a man does not acquire merit in this world he will not do so in the world to come. It has been explained that "he who has not laid up provisions for the journey from this world will have nothing to eat in the other world." There are some good deeds a man does in this world, whose fruit he may enjoy here in this world, but the main reward is sustenance in the world to come.

77. Come and behold: Yosef merited this world and merited the world to come, because he wished to be united with a wife who feared Hashem, THE NUKVA, THE SECRET OF THIS WORLD, as it is written, "and sin against Elohim" (Bereshheet 39:9), THE NUKVA CALLED ELOHIM. He, therefore, deserved to be ruler over this world and to cause Yisrael to acquire merit.

78. It is written: "And Yosef gathered all the money" (Bereshheet 47:14). So it should be, for the river which flows from EDEN, YESOD CALLED YOSEF, gathers everything, BY COMPRISING AND RECEIVING FROM ALL THE SFIROT, and comprises all kinds of riches. This is the secret of the verse: "And Elohim set them in the firmament of heaven" (Bereshheet 1:17), FOR YESOD, CALLED FIRMAMENT, SHINES ON THE EARTH, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. All is as it should be, for surely Yosef, THE SECRET OF YESOD, should rule over the kingdom (Malchut.) THE NUKVA, AND SHOWER ABUNDANCE UPON HER.

79. Come and behold the verse: "And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had." HE ASKS: What is the second chariot? HE REPLIED: The Holy One, blessed be He, made the righteous governor because the world, THE NUKVA, is and should be sustained by him. The Holy One, blessed be He, has an upper Chariot-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT ABOVE THE CHEST OF ZEIR ANPIN-and a lower chariot-THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. The lower Chariot is called the second chariot, and Yosef who is called righteous, NAMELY YESOD, is worthy of riding the second chariot of the Holy One, blessed be He, as is his likeness in the world above.

80. Come and behold: "And they cried before him Avrech." HE ASKS: What is an Avrech? HE ANSWERS, He is the connection between the sun and the moon, THE SECRET OF YESOD, WHICH JOINS ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA. Everybody kneels to that place, FOR BOWING DURING PRAYER ALLUDES TO YESOD, WHO IS CALLED BLESSED (HEB. BARUCH) AND IS CALLED AVRECH AFTER THE KNEELING, WHICH IS DERIVED FROM THE VERSE, "AND HE MADE HIS CAMELS KNEEL (HEB. VAYAVRECH)" (BERESHEET 24:11), and he rules over the whole world, THE NUKVA, and all the inhabitants of the world are thankful FOR THE PLENTY IT POURS ON THEM. All then proceeds according to the supreme mystery.

81. Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, created the kingdom of the earth in the likeness of the kingdom of heaven. Thus, the one resembles the other, FOR WHATEVER IS ON EARTH HAS A COUNTERPART IN HEAVEN. Whatever is manifest on earth appeared first before the Holy One, blessed be He, IN HEAVEN. Come and behold: The holy Malchut did not reach completion until it was united with the Patriarchs, for the Holy One, blessed be He, made the upper Malchut so it would shine from the secret of the fathers.

82. After Yosef, the Righteous, went down to Egypt, he drew the Shechinah to him, for the Shechinah follows only the righteous. Hence, Yosef first went down to Egypt and received all the wealth of the world as he deserved. Then the Shechinah went down to Egypt with all the tribes.

83. By keeping the HOLY Covenant, Yosef merited to be adorned in his place, THAT IS, TO BECOME A CHARIOT TO YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, and attained the upper kingdom and the lower kingdom. Whoever guards the Holy Covenant, is considered to be observing the holy Torah in its entirety, for the Covenant corresponds to the whole Torah.

80. תָּא חֲזִי, וַיִּקְרְאוּ לְפָנָיו אֲבֵרֶךְ, מֵאֵי אֲבֵרֶךְ. קִשְׁרוּ דְאִתְקַשְׁר שְׁמֵשׁא בְּסִיְהֵרָא, וְכֹלָא פְרַעִין לְקַבֵּל אֶתְרָא דָּא. וְנִתּוֹן אוֹתוֹ עַל כָּל עֲלָמָא, וְכִלְהוּ אוֹרְן לְגַבִּיָּה, וּבְגִין דָּא כֹּלָא בְרָזָא עֲלָהָא אִיהוּ.

6. "NowYa'akov saw that there were provisions in Egypt"

Rabbi Chiya offers a discourse on the subject of judgment, specifically the manner through which judgment is executed in this physical world. We learn that when a man transgresses, supernal justice-the laws of cause and effect-decrees that an immediate punishment should take place.

However, The Creator, ever merciful, carries our burdens for us, and thus, He inserts time into the process, delaying the consequences of our crimes. This temporary postponement gives man the opportunity to repent and atone for his iniquities. Rabbi Shimon then explicates upon the power of sadness, how it banishes the Light of The Creator from our being. It therefore behooves a man to always maintain a positive outlook and pleased perspective, especially during trying times. As the Rabbi Yesa and Rabbi Chizkiyah embark on their travels, Rabbi Yesa reveals that every man has a definite and clear-cut spiritual path laid out for him. The Other Side, however, constantly diverts man from his true path so that he ends up traveling treacherous mountains, as opposed to a lush green, sun-soaked valley.

The Relevance of this Passage

When life appears to be calm and waters still, we must realize that The Creator is carrying all of our judgments for us. We should use these moments to repent and proactively uproot our negative traits. We should intensify and/or renew our commitments to the spiritual path before the weight of judgments becomes too great to bear and they come crashing down upon us without warning.

84. "NowYa'akov saw that there were provisions in Egypt." THIS VERSE IS DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND, BECAUSE THE SHECHINAH LEFT HIM WHEN YOSEF WAS SOLD. THEREFORE, HOW COULD HE HAVE SEEN THAT THERE WERE PROVISIONS IN EGYPT? Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "The burden of the word of Hashem concerning Yisrael. The saying of Hashem, who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth and forms the spirit of man within him" (Zechariah 12:1). We have to study this verse carefully. He asks: What is the meaning of burden in the various passages? HE ANSWERS, Whenever the word burden is used in reference to judging other nations, the word has a good meaning; whenever it is used in a reference to Yisrael, it has an evil meaning.

85. HE EXPLAINED, Wherever it speaks of judging the other nations, the word burden has a good meaning, because it is used literally, for the welfare of the idolatrous nations is a burden to the Holy One, blessed be He. But when judgment is upon them, He removes the burden He assumed for their sake. HENCE, WHEN BURDEN IS MENTIONED IN RELATION TO THEM, IT IS FOR GOOD. Wherever judgment has been pronounced upon Yisrael and the word "burden" is used, it is a burden on the Holy One, blessed be He, TO PUNISH YISRAEL. It is a double burden, BECAUSE IT IS A BURDEN FOR HIM WHEN HE DOES PUNISH THEM AND WHEN HE DOES NOT, IT IS A BURDEN FOR HIM. IF HE DOES NOT PUNISH THEM, THEY WILL REMAIN DEFILED BY SIN; IF HE DOES PUNISH THEM HE IS SORRY FOR THEIR TROUBLES. THEREFORE WHEN "BURDEN" IS MENTIONED IN REGARD TO THEM, IT IS FOR EVIL.

86. HE ASKS: After the words: "who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth," why is it added, "and forms the spirit of man within him?" Would not we know He "forms the spirit of man within him" IF IT WERE NOT WRITTEN? HE REPLIES: These words point at a certain grade, where all the spirits and souls of the world are found, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHERE THE SPIRITS AND SOULS STAND, AND FROM WHOM THE LOWER ONES RECEIVE.

87. Rabbi Shimon said: This verse is difficult. If it said: "forms the spirit of man", it would suffice, but what is the meaning of "within him?" HE ANSWERS, The secret of this verse is on the two sides, YESOD AND THE NUKVA. For from the river, which flows and comes out from EDEN, YESOD, all the souls come out and soar into one place, THE NUKVA. That grade, YESOD, "forms the spirit of man within him," WITHIN THE NUKVA, which resembles a woman, who conceives from a man, whose fetus presses her bowels until it is fully formed in her belly. Thus, He "forms the spirit of man within him," WITHIN THE NUKVA, and THE SPIRIT stands there TO BE FORMED until man enters the world, and she gives him THE SPIRIT.

88. Another explanation for "forms the spirit of man within him" IS THAT IT MEANS within man himself, NOT IN THE SUPERNAL NUKVA; for when a man is created, the Holy One, blessed be He, provides him with His soul. Only then is he born into the world. The spirit finds that it does not have enough room to expand within the body, so it stands on one side, NAMELY THE RIGHT, INSTEAD OF EXPANDING RIGHT AND LEFT.

89. When a man's body grows, the spirit also grows and gives it strength. When the body grows, the spirit allots it power with which to strengthen itself. Thus, He indeed "forms the spirit of man within him."

90. You may ask about THE MEANING OF the phrase: "forms the spirit of man within him." HE EXPLAINED, Because the spirit needs additional strength as support from above, the Holy One, blessed be He, "forms the spirit of man within him" and thus enables it TO EXPAND within man.

91. Come and behold: When that spirit needs help, it is perfected from above in accordance with man's worth and the condition of his body. It is also given an additional spirit, FOR WHOEVER WISHES TO BE PURIFIED IS HELPED. This is the meaning of "forms the spirit of man within him." MAN IS GIVEN AN ADDITIONAL PORTION OF SPIRIT THAT IS ABLE TO EXPAND WITHIN HIS BODY.

92. Come and behold: When Ya'akov lost Yosef, he lost the additional portion of the spirit that was in him, and the Shechinah departed from him. It is written later: "The spirit of Ya'akov their father revived" (Beresheet 45:27). HE ASKS: Was he dead until then? HE ANSWERS, Only the additional spirit was gone from him. His sadness caused his spirit to withdraw, AND THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, WHICH MAINTAIN THE SPIRIT WITHIN HIM, WERE GONE. The scripture, therefore, reads: "The spirit of Ya'akov their father revived"-THIS WAS BECAUSE THE FIRST THREE SFIROT HAD REVIVED.

93. It is written: "Now Ya'akov saw that there were provisions in Egypt," WHICH MEANS THAT HE SAW IT THROUGH THE HOLY SPIRIT. HE ASKS: Why was he not yet informed THAT YOSEF WAS ALIVE AND WHY WAS THE SHECHINAH STILL GONE FROM HIM? When did he learn THAT THERE WERE PROVISIONS IN EGYPT? HE ANSWERS, "Ya'akov saw" MEANS THAT he saw the inhabitants of the country go to Egypt and bring provisions; HE DID NOT SEE THROUGH THE MEDIUM OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

94. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Come and behold: King David deserved to be united with the Patriarchs and inherited a place among them, as it is written, "The stone which the builders rejected has become the head stone of the corner" (Tehilim 118:22). (THE END IS MISSING).

95. Rabbi Yesa and Rabbi Chizkiyah were walking from Cappadocia to Lod with a Jew, who was carrying a skin-bottle of wine. As they were walking, Rabbi Yesa said to Rabbi Chizkiyah, Open your mouth and give one of those beautiful expositions on the Torah that you deliver daily before the holy lamp.

96. He opened the discussion with the verse: "Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace" (Mishlei 3:17). "Her ways are ways of pleasantness" refers to the ways of the Torah; for whoever walks in them, the Holy One, blessed be He, causes the pleasantness of the Shechinah to rest upon him and never to pass away. "Her paths are peace," for all the paths of the Torah are peaceful. Thus, he enjoys peace above and below-peace in this world and in the world to come.

97. The Jew said: This verse is like a coin in the pocket BECAUSE THE HIDDEN MEANING OF THE VERSE CONTAINS A SECRET. They asked him, How do you know this? He answered, I learned it from my father. He began his exposition. This verse concerns two matters, NAMELY WAYS AND PATHS, and two aspects, NAMELY PLEASANTNESS AND PEACE. HE ASKS: What are ways and what are paths? What is pleasantness and what is peace?

98. HE ANSWERED, "Her ways are ways of pleasantness" is referred to in the verse: "who makes a way in the sea" (Yeshayah 43:16), for wherever a way is mentioned in the Torah, it is a way open for all, a MATERIAL way accessible to everybody. Thus, "Her ways are ways of pleasantness" are the ways opened by the fathers, NAMELY, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET CALLED AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, AND YA'AKOV, who opened them up in the great sea and traversed it. LIGHTS SHINE from them and illuminate every corner across the whole length and breadth of the world.

99. The pleasantness is issued from the world to come, where all the lights shine and diverge in every direction, THAT IS, DIVERGE TO THE THREE COLUMNS-RIGHT, LEFT, AND CENTRAL. The goodness and light of the world to come, which the Patriarchs inherit, are called pleasantness. Another explanation is that the World to Come itself is called pleasantness. When it is aroused to illumination, every joy, goodness, light, and freedom are aroused. Thus, it is called pleasantness.

100. We have learned that when Shabbat comes, the wicked in Gehenom take a rest and obtain freedom and respite. At the end of Shabbat, it behooves us to arouse the supernal joy to save us from the punishment of the wicked, who are condemned from that moment onward. We should arise and say, "And let the pleasantness of Hashem our Elohim be upon us" (Tehilim 90:17), which alludes to the supernal pleasantness that cheers everything.

101. "And all her paths are peace." HE ASKS: What are her paths? HE REPLIES: They are the paths that descend from above, gathered by the Covenant, YESOD, which is called peace-household peace. It carries the paths into the great sea when it is agitated, and brings it peace. This is the meaning of the verse: "And all her paths are peace." Come and behold: Yosef was the Covenant of Peace, THAT IS, HE RECEIVED THESE PATHS and became ruler over the land, but Ya'akov, from whom the Shechinah departed, did not know it.

102. Nevertheless, Ya'akov had misfortune (Heb. shever) so he had to buy provisions (Heb. shever) in Egypt, and saw misfortune (Heb. shever) after misfortune in his sons going down to Egypt. Hence, "Ya'akov said to his sons, 'Why do you look at one another?'" (Beresheet 42:1); you should show yourselves as hungry people, who have not enough to eat.

103. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: Assuredly a mystery lies here, for whenever there is sorrow in the world, a man should refrain from being seen in the marketplace, so as not to be caught for his sins. THIS IS BECAUSE HIS ACCUSERS MIGHT SEE HIM IN A PUBLIC PLACE, ACCUSE HIM, AND REVEAL HIS MISDEEDS IN ORDER TO PUNISH HIM. YA'AKOV therefore asked them, "Why do you look at one another (also: 'why are you afraid')"; IT BEHOOVES YOU TO BE AWARE OF THE ACCUSERS. This has already been explained.

104. Another explanation of the verse: "Now Ya'akov saw that there were provisions in Egypt" IS THAT THE WORD SHEVER MEANS real provisions AND IS NOT AN ALLUSION TO A CALAMITY, AS WAS SAID EARLIER. The Holy One, blessed be He, sent famine into the world to bring Ya'akov and his sons there. Ya'akov, therefore, saw the people of the country bringing provisions from there.

105. "Now Ya'akov saw that there were provisions in Egypt." When Yitzhak died, Ya'akov and Esav came to divide his inheritance. Esav renounced his share of the land and everything else BY LEAVING AND AVOIDING THE EXILE; Ya'akov received it all by suffering the exile; THAT IS, THIS WAS THEIR COMPROMISE. Ya'akov thus saw the calamity awaiting him and his sons in Egypt-the endurance of the exile. This is why Ya'akov asked his sons, "Why are you afraid" of the supernal justice? ARE YOU NOT AFRAID lest the accuser will find you? "I have heard that there are provisions in Egypt, go down there (Heb. redu)." It has already been explain that the numerical value of redu is 210, the number of years Yisrael stayed in Egypt.

7. "And Yosef was the governor of the land"

This passage speculates on the secret meanings of Yosef's triumph in Egypt. It tells us that his victory was also one against the hidden powers of evil on the Left--that is, "the Evil Inclination."

The Relevance of this Passage

Egypt is a metaphor for the human ego, our Evil Inclination, which is rooted in the Left Column. Strength and discipline to triumph over egocentric desires and evil tendencies are summoned forth in our souls as we scan the Hebrew Letters of this passage.

106. "And Yosef was the governor of the land." Rabbi Yesa opened the discussion with the verse: "And now shall my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me: therefore I will offer in His tabernacle sacrifices with trumpet sound; I will sing, and I will make melody to Hashem" (Tehilim 27:6). Come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, takes pleasure in a man, He raises him above all the inhabitants of the world and makes him ruler over them. All his enemies are subdued under him.

107. King David was hated and rejected by his brothers, and the Holy One, blessed be He, raised him above all the inhabitants of the world. He fled from SHAUL, his father-in-law, and the Holy One, blessed be He, raised him above all kingdoms, and everyone bowed and knelt before him. Yosef was rejected by his brothers, and afterward they all knelt and prostrated themselves before him, as it is written: "And Yosef's brothers came, and bowed themselves down before him with their faces to the earth" (Bereshheet 42:6).

108. "And now (Heb. ve'ata) shall my head be lifted up." HE ASKS: What is the meaning of ve'ata? HE SAID: That of "as you (Heb. ve'ata)." Rabbi Yehuda said: We have learned that et (time) is a supernal grade; that time is the Hei IN THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH called ata (now). Ve'ata WITH THE LETTER VAV refers to ZEIR ANPIN and His court of justice, THE NUKVA, JUST AS THE VAV OF VE'ATA ALLUDES TO ZEIR ANPIN.

109. "And now shall my head be lifted up." I will lift up my head through dignity and dominion "above my enemies round about me" the other kings of the land. "Therefore I will offer in His tabernacle" refers to Jerusalem; "sacrifices with trumpet sound" that will sound throughout the world; "I will sing, and I will make melody" from the side of the trumpet sound, for from there, song and melody arise.

110. According to another explanation, "And now shall my head be lifted up" refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA CALLED ATA, and the phrase: "Above my enemies round about me" refers to Esav and his ministers. "I will offer in his tabernacle" in THE MIDST OF Yisrael "sacrifices with trumpet sound (also: 'of breaking')," as it is written: "The sacrifices of Elohim are a broken spirit" (Tehilim 51:19), in order to remove Judgment from the world. "I will sing, to make melody" and I will thank the Holy One, blessed be He, continuously, forever.

111. Another explanation of "And now shall my head be lifted up" is that MY HEAD IS AN ALLUSION TO THE GOOD INCLINATION. He prayed that in every respect the Good Inclination SHALL BE LIFTED above the Evil Inclination, as it is written: "Above my enemies round about me", which is an allusion to the Evil Inclination that surrounds and hates man. "I will offer in His tabernacle sacrifices with trumpet-sound" refers to THE STUDY OF THE Torah, which was given from the side of fire, as it is written: "From His right hand went a fiery law for them" (Devarim 33:2). Through the Torah shall his head be lifted up and his enemies subjugated before him, as it is written: "You have subdued under me those who rose up against me" (Tehilim 18:40).

112. Another explanation of the verse: "And now shall my head be lifted up" is that it means, that I shall be included with the fathers, for King David had cleaved to the Patriarchs in order to be united with them IN THE SECRET OF THE FOURTH LEG and to be lifted above and bound to them. "Above my enemies round about me" refers to those of the left side, all of them accusers intent upon destruction. WHEN HE IS LIFTED ABOVE THEM, the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, is united with the moon, THE NUKVA, and all becomes one.

112. דְּבַר אַחַר וְעַתָּה יְרוּם רֵאשִׁי, לְאַתְכַלְלָא בְּאַבְהֵן, דְּהָא דוֹר מְלָכָא, אֵית לִיה לְאַתְדַבְקָא בְּאַבְהֵן, וּכְדִין יִתְרוּמֵם וְסָלִיק לְעֵילָא, וְאִיהוּ בְּחַד קְשׁוּרָא בְּהוּ. עַל אוֹיְבֵי סְבִיבוֹתֵי, אֲלִין אֵינוֹן דְּבִסְטֵר שְׂמַאלָא, כְּלֵהוּ מְאִרֵי דִינִין, דְּמִתְכּוֹנִין לְחַבְלָא, וּכְדִין שְׂמַשָּׁא אֶתְחַבֵּר בְּסִיהֲרָא, וְהוּי כְּלָא חַד.

113. Come and behold: It is written, "And Yosef was the governor of the land." YOSEF is the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, FOR YOSEF IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, which rules over the moon, THE NUKVA, shining upon and sustaining her. "...and he it was that sold to all the people of the land", as the river that flows and comes out FROM EDEN, YESOD CALLED YOSEF, supplies everybody with nourishment. From there the souls OF EVERY MEN emerge. Hence, everyone bows before that place, for there is nothing in the world that does not depend upon Mazal, YESOD, as has already been explained.

8. "And Yosef recognized his brothers"

The Zohar examines the nature of fear and sin, and tells us that negative sexual activity and masturbation lead to negativity and ruin. Fear and sin, it claims, allows our enemies to behave like Yosef's brothers and gives them an opportunity to punish us without mercy.

The Relevance of this Passage

A man's seminal fluids are the closest reflection of The Creator's essence in the physical world. For this reason, a man's seed brings forth life and generates profound pleasure, both of which are attributes of the Divine. However, negative forces, here to test and challenge us, need their own sustenance of Light, which they retrieve when a man wantonly spills his seed. Keeping our sexual relations within the spiritual boundaries of marriage—for the purpose of sharing with our spouse and for bringing new life into the world—protects the Light from the onslaughts of the Other Side. The result is greater fulfillment and pleasure in every area of life.

114. "And Yosef recognized his brethren, but they recognized him not." Rabbi Elazar quoted the verse: "Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my persecutors (lit. 'my heels') compasses me about" (Tehilim 49:6). Come and behold: As was said by the sages, there are three classes of those who fear, yet do not know what they fear. But in addition to these three, there is he who fears, yet does not know what he fears, because he commits sins unknowingly. He therefore fears the days of evil.

115. HE ASKS: What are the days of evil? HE SAID: These are days meant for evil. It is the Evil Inclination called evil, which on certain days is given permission in the world to lead astray those who defile their ways BY SPILLING SEMEN IN VAIN. Whoever wishes to be polluted is defiled. They are called days of evil, reserved for PUNISHMENT FOR transgressions that a man treads under his heels.

116. Come and behold: Packs of fiends await to defile those who defile their ways. A man is led in the very way he chooses to walk. A man who wishes to be purified has many helpers.

116. תָּא חֲזִי, כָּל אֵינוֹן דְּמִסְאֲבֵי אֲרַחֲיֵיהּ, כְּמָה
בְּאַרְחָא דְבַעֵי בַר נֶשׁ לְמִיָּהָר, בְּהֵוּא אֲרַחָא מְדַבְרִין
לִיָּה מְמַשׁ, אֲתִי בַר נֶשׁ לְאַתְרַכָּאָה, כְּמָה אֵינוֹן

117. We have learned that when a man wakes up in the morning, he should wash his hands with a laver, and he SHOULD BE WASHED by someone who has already washed, as has been explained. Come and behold: We have learned all this for the sake of the laver. THIS EXPOSITION WAS MEANT TO TEACH US THAT WE NEED A LAVER TO WASH OUR HANDS IN THE MORNING.

117. הָא תְּגִינָן, דְּכִד בַּר נֶשׁ קָם בְּצַפְרָא, בְּעֵי
לְאַסְחָאָה יְדוּי, מְגוּ נְטִלָא דְמִיָּא, דְּאִיְהוּ מְאַנָּא
לְיִטּוּל מְנִיָּה מִיָּא, מְגוּ מְאָן דְּאַסְחֵי יְדוּי בְּקַדְמִיתָא, כְּמָה דְּאֻקְמוּהָ. וְתָא חֲזִי, בְּגִין נְטִלָא דָּא, אֻקְיַמְנָא

118. וְתוּ, דְּבַעֵיָּא לִיָּה לְבַר נֶשׁ, לְנְטִלָא יְדָא יְמִינָא
בְּשְׂמַאלָא, בְּגִין לְשַׁלְטָאָה יְמִינָא עַל שְׂמַאלָא,
וְעַל דָּא, מְאָן דְּנְטִיל יְדוּי, יְטוּל יְמִינָא בְּשְׂמַאלָא,

119. Come and behold: When evil Judgment reigns, it does not refrain from harming EVEN THE RIGHTEOUS, FOR WHEN THE DESTROYER IS GIVEN SWAY, HE DOES NOT DISCRIMINATE BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL. When the right rules over the idolatrous nations to break them, the Holy One, blessed be He, feels pity for them and does not destroy them. YOU MAY SEE HERE THE GREAT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE COMPASSION OF THE RIGHT AND THE JUDGMENT OF THE LEFT.

119. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּשַׁעְתָּא דְּדִינָא בִּישָׂא שְׁלֵטָא, לָא
אַתִּיב יְדִיָּה מְלֵאבָּאשָׂא, וּבְשַׁעְתָּא דִּימִינָא שְׁלֵטָא עַל

120. Therefore, when one unknowingly commits sins that are tread under his heels, he is always afraid. King David was always guarded from such sins and, when he went to battle, he searched for them IN ORDER TO REPENT. He therefore was not afraid to wage war.

120. וּבְגִין כֶּךָ, כָּל מְאָן דְּאִיְהוּ חֲטִי, בְּאֵינוֹן חֲטָאִין
דְּדָשׁ בְּהוּ בְּרַגְלוּי, לָא יְדַע בְּהוּ, וְדָחִיל תְּדִירָא. דְּוֹד
מְלָכָא הוּוּ אֶסְתַּמַּר תְּדִיר, מְחֻבֵּין אֲלֵיךְ, וְכִד הוּוּ
נְמִיק לְקִרְבָּא, הוּוּ מְפַשְׁשׁ לֹוֹן, וְעַל דָּא לָא דָּחִיל

121. Come and behold: There were four kings, each of whom asked for a different thing. David said: "Let me pursue my enemies, and overtake them: neither let me turn back till they are consumed" (Tehilim 18:38). Why did he say that? Because he was guarded from sins THAT ARE TREAD UNDER THE HEELS and gave no opening to his enemies to rule. He therefore pursued them continuously, rather than having them chase him, catch him, and indict him for his sins.

121. וְתָא חֲזִי, אַרְבַּע מְלָכִין הוּוּ, מְאָן דְּשָׂאִיל דָּא,
לָא שָׂאִיל דָּא. דְּוֹד אָמַר, אַרְדּוּף אוּיְבֵי וְאַשְׁיגָם וְלֹא
אַשׁוּב עַד כְּלוּתָם, מְאִי טַעְמָא בְּגִין דְּהוּוּ אֶסְתַּמַּר
מְאֲלִין חֻבֵּין, וְלֹא יְהִיב דְּוִכְתָּא לְשַׁנְאוּי לְשַׁלְטָאָה,
וְעַל דָּא בְּעֵי לְמַרְדָּף אֲבַתְרִיָּהּ תְּדִיר. וְלֹא יְרַדְפוּן

122. Asa was more fearful. Although he searched for his sins, he was not AS THOROUGH as King David. He merely wished to pursue his enemies, but not to fight them, and hoped that the Holy One, blessed be He, would slay them. And so it came to pass, as it is written: "And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them. So Hashem smote the Kushim before Asa, and before Yehuda, and the Kushim fled" (II Divrei Hayamim 14:11-12). Of David, the scripture reads, "And David smote them from the twilight to the evening of the next day" (I Shmuel 30:17). But Asa merely pursued them, and the Holy One, blessed be He, slew them.

123. Yehoshafat, the King of Yehuda, also said: I can neither pursue nor kill them, but I shall sing hymns and you shall kill them. This was because he did not examine himself as Asa did. Yet the Holy One, blessed be He, did as He was requested, as it is written: "And when they began to sing and to praise, Hashem set an ambush against the children of Amon, Moav and mount Seir who were come against Yehuda; and they were routed" (II Divrei Hayamim 20:22).

124. Chizkiyah, the King of Yehuda, said: I can neither chant, pursue nor wage war. For he was afraid of the sins we mentioned THAT ARE TREAD UNDER THE HEELS. It is written: "And it came to pass that night, that the angel of Hashem went out and smote in the camp of Ashur 185,000: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses" (II Melachim 19:35). Chizkiyah was then at home lying in bed, and the Holy One, blessed be He, killed them.

125. How fearful were these righteous men on account of their sins? How much more fearful should the inhabitants of the world be? A man should therefore always be on his guard against these sins and search for them, so that the days of evil, which have no mercy on him, will not have control over him.

126. Come and behold: "And Yosef knew his brethren" means that when they fell into his hands, he felt pity for them, because he was whole. "...but they knew him not" REFERS TO Shimon and Levi, who came from the side of harsh Judgment and therefore did not have pity on him. For all those from the side of harsh Judgment have no pity on the people who fall into their hands. THEY ARE OF THE ASPECT OF THE DAYS OF EVIL, WHICH DO NOT PITY MEN, AS HAS ALREADY BEEN SAID.

127. David therefore said: "Why should I fear THE DAYS OF EVIL?" He did not say, "I feared" IN THE PAST TENSE, but rather "should fear" IN THE PRESENT TENSE, WHICH MEANS THAT HE IS STILL FEARFUL. Thus he said: I should always fear the days of evil, as we have said: "...the iniquity of my persecutors (lit. 'my heels') compasses me about." HE ASKS: What are "my heels?" HE ANSWERS, They are in the secret of the faith, NAMELY, IN HOLINESS, as it is written: "And his hand took hold on Esav's heel" (Bereshheet 25:26). ESAV'S HEEL WAS IN THE SECRET OF THE FAITH, IN HOLINESS, BECAUSE YA'AKOV'S HAND TOOK HOLD OF IT. This heel (Heb. akev), OF WHICH IT IS WRITTEN: "THE INIQUITY OF MY HEELS COMPASSES ME ABOUT," represents the footprints (Heb. akevot) that follow the same transgression that a man constantly treads under his heels.

128. Come and behold the verse: "Woe to them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope" (Yeshayah 5:18). The "cords of vanity" are the sins that he treads under his heels without thinking of it. They are then strengthened into "a cart rope." The sins become stronger and lead him astray in this world and the world to come.

129. Happy are the righteous, who know how to be guarded against their sins and always examine their deeds, so that no accuser will be found against them in this world nor turn them from their way in the world to come. The Torah prepares for them ways and paths on which to walk, as it is written: "Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."

9. "And Yosef remembered the dreams"

The commentators stress the importance of remembering one's dreams and presenting them to a sympathetic audience of friends in order to obtain a favorable interpretation. The necessity of obeying every last precept of the Torah is also discussed. The rabbis use the example of King Solomon, who ruined his posterity by disobeying the injunction against polygamy. Rabbi Yosi comments on the verse "Treasures of wickedness profit nothing." That is to say, wealth gained in an impure manner will soon disappear, but the righteous life of Torah study endures.

The Relevance of this Passage

Dreams can assist us in our spiritual development. However, our dreams should only be interpreted by someone who loves us, since the interpretation itself influences its physical manifestation. The Light of this passage helps bring loving people into our lives when the need for dream interpretation arises. In addition, the passage allows our dreams to be derived from the highest realms of the spiritual atmosphere, ensuring positive and truthful messages. Pertaining to the verse "Treasures of wickedness profit nothing", the Zohar teaches us that a narcissistic, self-serving pursuit for wealth, power, and position will ultimately lead to ruin in some area of life. The influences emanating from the Hebrew verses imbue us with wisdom and strength to resist trading away life's true fulfillment-- marriage, children, friendship, and spiritual fulfillment--for the fleeting pleasure of ego gratification.

130. "And Yosef remembered the dreams which he had dreamed" (Bereshheet 42:9). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse: "Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles" (Mishlei 24:17). Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, created man, so that he would be worthy of His glory, serve Him always, and be occupied with the Torah day and night, because the Holy One, blessed be He, ever takes delight in the Torah.

131. When the Holy One, blessed be He, created Adam, He put the Torah before him and taught him how to know its ways. How do we know this? From the words: "Then he saw it, and declared it; he established it, yea, and searched it out," which is followed by: "And to man he said: Behold, the fear of Hashem, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding" (Iyov 28:27-28). Because he inquired into her, but did not keep her, he transgressed the command of his Master and was caught for his sin.

132. All those who transgress one precept of the Torah are caught for it. King Solomon, who was wisest among all the people in the world, transgressed only one precept of the Torah BY HAVING MANY WIVES and caused his kingdom to pass on from him BECAUSE, AS THE SAGES SAID, ASHMEDAI (ASMODEUS) MADE AN IGNORANT MAN OF HIM and caused his kingdom to be divided from the time of his sons. This is even truer for those who transgress MANY PRECEPTS OF the Torah.

133. HE ASKS: Yosef knew the Torah, AND HER WORDS "YOU SHALL NOT AVENGE, NOR BEAR ANY GRUDGE" (VAYIKRA 19:18). Why then, when his brothers fell into his hands, did he bring upon them all these things, when he knew the Torah his father had taught him? HE REPLIED: Heaven forbid TO THINK that Yosef took revenge upon them. He did it only to bring his brother Binyamin to him, for he longed for him. He did not leave his brothers wanting, as it is written: "Then Yosef gave orders to fill their sacks with grain" (Beresheet 42:25), so they would not come to grief.

134. Rabbi Yehuda continued WITH THE VERSE: "THEN HE SAW IT..." (IYOV 28:27). When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the Moon, THE NUKVA, He beheld her constantly, as it is written: "The eyes of Hashem your Elohim are always upon it" (Devarim 11:12), for she was constantly under His care. It is written: "Then he saw"; he saw that the Sun, ZEIR ANPIN, by looking AT THE NUKVA became illumined, FOR HE DOES NOT RECEIVE SIGHT, THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, EXCEPT WHEN HE IS UNITED WITH THE NUKVA. He asks: In the phrase: "And declared it (Heb. vaysapera) (Ibid.)," what does "vaysapera" mean? HE ANSWERS, The same as in the verse: "The stones of it are the place of sapphires" (Heb. Sapir) (Ibid. 6); IT IS DERIVED FROM THE SFIROT AND ILLUMINATION.

135. "He established it" together with her mendings so she would be divided into twelve groups and be given to seventy angels. He fixed for her seven supernal pillars through which she would receive lights and exist in wholeness. The phrase: "And searched it out" MEANS HE SEARCHED HER OUT AND attended to her always SO THAT THE OTHER SIDE WILL NOT NOURISH ITSELF FROM HER.

136. He then warned man thus: "And to man he said, 'Behold, the fear of Hashem, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding'" (Iyov 28:28). Because of "the fear of Hashem," THE NUKVA is adorned with all the lower ones so they will learn to fear and know Hashem through her strength. SHE IS THEREFORE CHOCHMAH and "to depart from evil is understanding (Heb. binah)." The separation of pollution so it will not approach HOLINESS is the purpose of the existence of Binah, THAT IS, the knowledge and beholding of the glory of the highest King.

137. Rabbi Yosi rose one night to study the Torah. There happened to be a Jew there, whom he met in that house. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse: "Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness (also: 'charity') delivers from death" (Mishlei 10:2). "Treasures of wickedness profit nothing" are those who are not occupied with the study of the Torah, but follow worldly matters and gather wicked treasures. Of them it is written, "But those riches perish by evil adventure" (Kohelet 5:13), because they are wicked treasures.

138. "But righteousness delivers from death" refers to those who are occupied with the study of the Torah and know how to study her ways, for the Torah is called the Tree of Life and Righteousness, as it is written: "And it shall be accounted righteousness in us" (Devarim 6:25). Another explanation of "but righteousness delivers from death" is that it refers to charity given to the poor. There are two ways to read and understand it: THE WORD RIGHTEOUSNESS may be understood as the Torah, or it may simply mean charity, yet all is one.

139. That Jew said you may read IN THE WORD RIGHTEOUSNESS the meaning of peace. Rabbi Yosi said to him, Assuredly, she is called peace. The Jew rose to study THE TORAH with him. The Jew quoted the verse: "He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread: but he who follows after vain persons shall have poverty enough" (Mishlei 28:19). This verse is difficult to understand. How could King Solomon, who was the wisest of all men, say that a man should strive to cultivate the earth, till it, and neglect everlasting life?

140. HE REPLIED: There is a mystery here. He then quoted the verse: "And Hashem Elohim took the man, and put him into the Garden of Eden to till (also: 'to worship') it and to keep" (Beresheet 2:15). It has already been explained that it refers to worship by sacrificing. Come and behold: "to till it" is the Upper King, THAT IS, IT REFERS TO THE DRAWING OF PLENTY OF BLESSINGS FROM THE UPPER KING, ZEIR ANPIN; and "to keep" is the lower king, THAT IS, IT REFERS TO THE KEEPING OF PLENTY RECEIVED BY THE LOWER KING, THE NUKVA. THE VERSE REFERS TO the upper world, ZEIR ANPIN, and the lower world, THE NUKVA. HE FURTHER EXPLAINS THAT "to till it" is in the secret of Remember, ZEIR ANPIN, and keep is in the secret of Keep, THE NUKVA. THEREFORE IN THE FIRST TABLES OF THE TESTIMONY IT IS WRITTEN: "REMEMBER THE SHABBAT DAY" (SHEMOT 20, 8), AND IN THE SECOND TABLES OF THE TESTIMONY IT IS WRITTEN, "KEEP THE SHABBAT DAY" (DEVARIM 5:12).

141. Therefore, "He that tills his land" (Mishlei 12:11) refers to the Garden of Eden, IN THE NUKVA, for man should work and draw blessings on it from ZEIR ANPIN above. When it is blessed and blessings pour on it from above, MAN is blest with it. Come and behold: When the priest blesses, he is also blessed, as it is written: "and I will bless them" (Bemidbar 5:27). Hence, "He that tills his land" TO DRAW PLENTY ON THE NUKVA, "shall have plenty of bread," nourishment from above, WHICH HE EARNS BY HIS WORK, FOR HE WHO BLESSES IS BLESSED. "...but he that follows vain persons," he who cleaves to the Other Side, which follows vain persons, surely "shall have poverty enough." Rabbi Yosi said to him, Happy are you to have merited this.

142. He then cited A VERSE that comes after THE VERSE, "HE THAT TILLS HIS LAND." IT IS, "A faithful man shall abound with blessings" (Mishlei 28:20), which alludes to a man who has faith in the Holy One, blessed be He, such as Rabbi Yesa Saba (the elder), who, though he had food for that day, did not set the table before praying for food before the holy King. After praying and asking for nourishment from the King, he would set the table. He always said: Let us not set the table until NOURISHMENT is given from the King's house.

143. "But he who makes haste to be rich shall not go unpunished" (Mishlei 28:20), because he did not want to study the Torah, which is life in this world and life in the world to come. Now is the time to be occupied with the Torah. Let us do so.

144. The man opened with the mystery of the dream. He said: "And Yosef remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them." HE ASKS ABOUT THE WORDS: "And Yosef remembered the dreams." Why did Yosef remember the dreams he had about them? What would have happened if he forgot them, as Yosef was wise and studied the verse, "a prudent man acts with knowledge: but a fool lays bare his folly" (Mishlei 13:16)?

145. HE REPLIES: When Yosef saw them bowing before him with their faces to the earth, he remembered the dream he dreamed about them, as it is written, "and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and bowed down to my sheaf" (Bereshheet 37:7). For when he saw his brothers prostrating themselves before him, as it is written, "and Yosef's brothers came, and bowed themselves down before him with their faces to the earth", then, "Yosef remembered of the dreams which he had dreamed," that is, he saw them coming true. THUS, "AND YOSEF REMEMBERED THE DREAMS" MEANS THAT HE SAW THAT THEY CAME TRUE.

143. ואץ להעשיר לא ינקה, בגין דלא בעא לאשתדלא באורייתא, דאיהו חזין דעלמא דין, וחזין דעלמא דאתי, השתא דאיהו שעתא לאשתדלא באורייתא, נשתדל.

146. "And Yosef remembered the dreams which he had dreamed" can also mean that he was reminded of them because there is no forgetfulness before the Holy One, blessed be He. A man should remember a good dream, so it is not forgotten, for then it is realized. But if it is forgotten by him, it is forgotten ABOVE AND DOES NOT COME TRUE.

147. Come and behold: A dream that was not interpreted resembles an unopened letter, FOR THE DREAMER DOES NOT DERIVE ANY BENEFIT FROM IT. Come and behold: He who does not remember THE DREAM acts as if he did not know HOW TO INTERPRET IT. Therefore, whoever forgets his dream and cannot recall it, will find his dream unfulfilled. Yosef therefore remembered his dream and never forgot it, so it would come true. He waited for it all the time. He said to them, "You are spies" (Beresheet 42:9). Although he remembered the dream, he said nothing except, "You are spies."

148. Rabbi Yosi continued with the verse, "For a dream comes through a multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by a multitude of words" (Kohelet 5:2). HE EXPLAINED THAT "a dream comes through a multitude of business" means there are many who help the dream endure, including chiefs and grades upon grades, for some dreams are all truth and some contain both truth and lies, THAT IS, ONE PART WILL COME TRUE AND ANOTHER WILL NOT. But the truly righteous are shown no lies in their dreams; they are shown only truth.

149. Come and behold: It is written of Daniel, "Then to Daniel, in a vision of the night," NAMELY, IN A DREAM, "the secret was revealed" (Daniel 2:19) and "Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay upon his bed: then he wrote his dream" (Daniel 7:1). Had the dream contained lies, the book of Daniel would not be among the scriptures. But when the souls of the truly righteous ascend during sleep, only holy beings join them. These holy beings tell them true words, enduring words, that never lie.

150. You may say that King David never had a good dream. It may be concluded that he saw untrue things. YET IN FACT HE WAS FULL OF KINDNESS AND THE GRACE OF HASHEM. HE ANSWERS, Surely it was because he spent his days shedding blood and engaging in war. Thus all his dreams were bad dreams about destruction, waste, blood, and bloodshed, and not peaceful dreams.

151. It may be asked how a good man could POSSIBLY be shown a bad dream. HE REPLIES: Surely all the evil is destined to cleave to those who transgress the words of the Torah, and the punishment destined for them in the world of truth was seen BY KING DAVID, so that the fear of his Master will be upon him at all times. THIS SETTLES THE QUESTION, HOW HE COULD HAVE SEEN UNTRUE THINGS? HE SAW THEM IN RELATION TO SINNERS, FOR WHOM THEY WERE REAL. HE WAS SHOWN THIS TO AROUSE THE FEAR OF HEAVEN IN HIM. It has been said with regard to the verse, "and Elohim does it, so that men should fear before him" (Kohelet 3:14) that it is a bad dream WHICH CAUSES A MAN TO BE FEARFUL. A righteous man is therefore shown a bad dream, as we have already said.

152. Come and behold; We have learned that when a man has a dream, he should speak about it.. He SHOULD SEEK AN INTERPRETATION before his friends, whose wishes will be favorable toward him and whose words will be expressed for his good. Thus THEIR wishes and words will be for the good. Their wishes, which is thought, NAMELY CHOCHMAH, is the beginning of everything, OF THE SFIROT, and the word, NAMELY, MALCHUT, is the completion of everything, OF THE SFIROT. Thus it is made whole by the supernal mystery, BECAUSE OF THE PRESENCE OF THE BEGINNING AND THE END OF THE SFIROT, and all of it comes true. MOREOVER, they ask for compassion for that man and ask that the good interpretation THEY GAVE will endure. Thus all is as it should be.

153. The Holy One, blessed be He, then lets each man interpret his dream according to his worth and grade. The Jew said: Assuredly, the dream is but for the righteous man, who sees dreams properly.

154. Come and behold: When a man sleeps in his bed, his soul departs and roams in the world above. It enters wherever it can, and camps of spirits that hover in the world meet the soul. If THAT MAN is righteous, THE SOUL ascends and sees good things. If he is not righteous, THE SOUL holds to the other side and is told lies or things that will happen in the near future.

155. Therefore, a man who is not righteous is shown a good but untruthful dream, so that he will turn from the way of truth. Once he turns, he is defiled, for whoever comes to be purified is purified, and whoever comes to be defiled is defiled. Assuredly this is so, as we have already learned.

156. They sat till dawn. Rabbi Yosi said: Surely the name of Yosef was not mentioned among the standards, as it is written, "the standard of the camp of Ephraim" (Bemidbar 2:18), rather than, "the standard of the camp of Yosef." The reason for this is that he exalted himself above his brothers, as we have already learned.

157. The Jew said: Surely I have heard that Yosef is of the world of the male, BEING OF YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, and all the tribes were of the world of the female, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH. Yosef therefore had no part in the standards, being of the world of the male.

158. It is written, "We (Heb. nachnu) are all one man's sons" (Bereshheet 42:11). HE ASKS: Why is it written nachnu instead of the standard form anachnu? Why is the Aleph missing? HE ANSWERS, Because the secret of the Covenant, WHICH IS YOSEF, was not among them, the Aleph was gone AND IT WAS WRITTEN NACHNU. Thus, because the Aleph is male and Bet is female, the Aleph, YOSEF, was gone and only the female LETTERS OF nachnu remained with the Shechinah, WHICH CONTAINS THE SECRET OF THE TRIBES.

159. They later said: "We (Heb. anachnu) are true men" (Bereshheet 42:11) with the letter Aleph added. They said it, yet knew not what they said, for it was because of Yosef that they uttered the complete word anachnu. How do we know this? From the verse, "And they said, 'Your servants are twelve, we are (Heb. anachnu) brothers'" (Bereshheet 42:13), including Yosef. Thus, when YOSEF was included, they said anachnu, and when he was not, they said nachnu.

160. Rabbi Yosi said: All the things we have said delighted the Holy One, blessed be He, because the Shechinah did not depart from here. This is in accordance with the verse, "Then, they who feared Hashem spoke to one another: and Hashem hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared Hashem and took heed of His name" (Malachi 3:16).

10. "And he put them all together into custody"

The verses relate the twelve signs of the zodiac to the twelve sons of Ya'akov and the twelve tribes of Israel. Yosef, who shows mercy to his treacherous brother, becomes a Patriarch. Rabbi Elazar speculates on the hidden meaning of this occurrence.

The Relevance of this Passage

Celestial influences arising from the twelve Signs impel, but they do not compel.

We have the power to rise above their influence. We transcend the signs and their corresponding negative influences as we visually connect with these ancient mystical texts.

161. "And he put them all together into custody for three days" (Bereshheet 42:17). Rabbi Elazar asked: Why for three days? HE ANSWERS, These three days correspond to the days of Shchem, of which it is written, "And it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain" (Bereshheet 34: 25).

162. Come and behold: It is written with regard to this, "And Yosef said to them on the third day, 'this do, and live'." This teaches us that he did not act toward them as they did toward Shchem. They made the people of Shchem accept upon them this (Heb. zot)-THE NUKVA CALLED 'THIS', and the secret of the covenant, BECAUSE THE COVENANT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF YESOD, IS ATTACHED TO HER. And when they were circumcised, they were killed and not one witness was left. But he said: It is written, "This do, and live," THAT IS, HE WILL LET THEM LIVE. The reason is that "I fear the Elohim" who keeps the Covenant. And everything he did was only for the sake of Binyamin, THAT IS, TO MAKE THEM BRING BINYAMIN.

163. "And they said one to the other, truly we are guilty" (Beresheet 42:21). The phrase, "one to another (lit. 'man to his brother')" refers to Shimon and Levi, just as in an earlier passage, "And they said one to another, behold, this dreamer comes" (Beresheet 37:19). Both verses refer to Shimon and Levi.

164. Come and behold: Who is the "man" and who is "his brother?" HE ANSWERS, The man is Shimon, who is here mentioned as man, as he is elsewhere, FOR EXAMPLE IN THE VERSE, "And behold, a man of the children of Yisrael came" (Bemidbar 25:6). In both verses, the man is Shimon. And since he repented, he cried and felt remorse for what he did and said to Levi, "Truly we are guilty." Therefore WHEN HE REPENTED, Shimon's sign became Taurus. THERE ARE TWELVE SIGNS THAT CORRESPOND TO THE TWELVE TRIBES, ARIES TO REUVEN, TAURUS TO SHIMON, AND SO ON. Shimon's sign is Taurus, just as Yosef's sign is, as it is written, "His firstling bullock, majesty is his" (Devarim 33:17).

11. "And took from them Shimon"

This passage comments on the mercy Yosef shows his brothers. The commentators assert that even idolaters are not punished if they live in peace. The secret meaning of circumcision and its relation to the Covenant are also discussed. Whoever is charitable in this world is free of harsh judgment in the next. Thus, like Yosef, we are encouraged to turn the other cheek and leave vengeance to the Lord.

The Relevance of this Passage

Judgments decreed against us are measured and meted out in accordance to the degree and severity of the judgments we pass on our friends and foes. Trust in The Creator encompasses certainty in the laws of cause and effect, which dictate that all our enemies will be correctly judged without our having to participate in the correction process. A person who has attained spiritual enlightenment accepts any wrongs committed against him as payment for negative actions he may have committed in the past. This wise perspective is stimulated by the Divine Light of this Hebrew script.

165. He therefore "took from them Shimon" (Beresheet 42:24) so that he would not indict him together with Levi. For when they came together, Shimon and Levi might bring accusations. The phrase, "and bound him before their eyes" means that he arrested him only in front of their eyes. When they left, he gave him food and drink.

166. It may be said that Yosef acted according to the verse, "If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink" (Mishlei 25:21). FOR THIS REASON HE FED SHIMON, WHO WAS HIS ENEMY. How could the righteous Yosef have behaved in such a manner? As he verse ends with the words, "for you shall heap coals of fire on his head, and Hashem shall reward you." IT IS NOT SEEMLY FOR A RIGHTEOUS MAN TO TAKE REVENGE UPON HIS BROTHER.

167. HE ANSWERS, Heaven forbid that Yosef had such intentions. His conduct toward him was only that of a man toward his brother, and in no other way. And not to him alone, but to all his brothers he behaved so, as it is written, "Then Yosef gave orders to fill their sacks with grain, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus it was performed" (Beresheet 42:25), all to be brotherly toward them.

168. Rabbi Yosi continued with the verse, "Though they are at peace, and likewise many, even so they shall be cut down, and it shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more" (Nachum 1:12). This verse has been explained as follows: When the people are peaceful, with no dissension in their midst, the Holy One, blessed be He, has pity on them, and Judgment has no sway. Even if they worship idols, if they are at peace, no judgment has power over them. It can also be explained in relation to the verse, "Efraim is joined to idols: let him alone" (Hoshea 4:17). IT MEANS THAT EVEN THOUGH THEY SERVE IDOLS, IF THEY ARE JOINED, LET HIM ALONE.

169. HE ASKS: What then is the meaning of the phrase, "even so they shall be cut down (also: 'shorn')?" HE ANSWERS, As it talks of peace in the beginning, here IT likewise TALKS of peace, which means charity. For charity is peace, and whoever promotes charity, promotes peace above and below. Hence the scripture reads, "even so they shall be shorn, and it shall pass away." The word "shorn" REFERS TO those who shear their money for charity. "EVEN SO" INDICATES THAT AS THE BEGINNING TALKS OF PEACE, HERE ALSO IT TALKS OF PEACE, NAMELY, CHARITY, AS HAS BEEN EXPLAINED. Of the phrase, "It shall pass away," HE ASKS: Should it have been written: "they shall pass away" IN THE PLURAL, JUST AS IT IS WRITTEN, "THEY WILL...BE CUT DOWN." Why is it written, "it shall pass away?" HE REPLIES: The subject is wrathful judgment, just as in the verse, "until the indignation be overpast" (Yeshayah 26:20); IT MEANS until judgment passes away from them.

170. Another explanation is that the verse: "Thus says Hashem, though (if) they are a peace (also: 'whole')," refers to Yisrael, to whom the Holy One, blessed be He, gave an everlasting covenant, NAMELY, CIRCUMCISION, to keep always, so as to be whole on all sides-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCUT above and below, that are NETZACH AND HOD. If man does not guard the covenant at all times, he is defective in every respect. How do we know this? From the verse, "Walk before me, and be perfect" (Beresheet 17:1). Perfect means whole, and we derive from this that before the covenant was established in him, BEFORE HE WAS CIRCUMCISED, he was defective.

171. Therefore, "if they be whole" MEANS if they observe the precept OF CIRCUMCISION, and are therefore whole instead of defective; "and likewise many," NAMELY they will increase and multiply, for souls come into the world only through the covenant. "And they shall be cut down" REFERS TO THE FIRST PHRASE: "If they be whole" and constantly guard THE COVENANT, namely, "they shall be cut down" those who are circumcised, and accept upon hem the covenant. "CUT DOWN" IS DERIVED FROM SHEARING AND CUTTING. Then "it shall pass away", the filth of the foreskin that was upon them.

172. Another interpretation of "Thus says Hashem, 'If they be whole and likewise many'" is that these are the children of Ya'akov, who, as long as they were with Yosef, were whole, because they were joined with the covenant, WHICH IS YOSEF. "Even so they shall be cut down (Heb. nagozu)" MEANS when they went away and left Yosef and Shimon. NAGOZU IS DERIVED FROM PASSING AWAY, AS IN "IT IS SOON PAST (HEB. GAZ), AND WE FLY AWAY" (TEHILIM 90:10). Then "it shall pass away" means that then Judgment is passed upon them, as it is written, "and Hashem will pass through to smite Egypt" (Shemot 12:23). IN BOTH VERSES, PASS ALLUDES TO JUDGMENT.

173. Come and behold: There is harsh Judgment and mild Judgment. The harsh Judgment is strong, and the mild weak. When the mild Judgment is nourished from the harsh, it becomes powerful.

174. When judgment is executed upon Yisrael, it is mild and not strengthened by harsh Judgment. When executed upon idolatrous nations, the mild Judgment is strengthened by the supernal harsh Judgment. This is the meaning of the verse "and Hashem will pass (Heb. ve'avar) through to smite Egypt." The word "ve'avar" also means that he was filled with wrath (Heb. evra) and indignation, which was supported by harsh Judgment. In this same verse, pass away MEANS THAT HE IS FILLED WITH WRATH, ALTHOUGH IT IS MILD JUDGMENT NOT POWERED BY HARSH JUDGMENT, BECAUSE IT IS EXECUTED UPON YISRAEL. And come and behold: When ten gather together in the synagogue and one of them leaves, then the Holy One, blessed be He, is angered with him. FOR THE BROTHERS OF YOSEF WERE TEN. AFTER THEY SEPARATED FROM YOSEF AND SHIMON THEY REMAINED NINE, AND THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, BECAME ANGRY.

175. Another explanation of the verse, "Even so they shall be cut down (Heb. nagozu)" is that when evil actions are removed from them (HEB. NAGOZU, IN THE SAME MEANING AS "IT IS SOON PAST [GAZ]), then "it shall pass away." Who shall pass away? Rabbi Shimon answered, When the soul leaves this world, it is sentenced to several punishments before going to its place. Afterward, all the souls have to pass through and wash in the flowing Nahar Dinur (river of fire). Of whoever will rise and pass the river fearlessly, it is written, "Who shall ascend into the mountain of Hashem?" (Tehilim 24:3) The soul of the righteous passes without fear and "shall stand in his holy place" (Ibid.).

176. Whoever is charitable in the world and gives from his money to charity passes that place, NAHAR DINUR (THE RIVER OF FIRE,) without fear. The crier proclaims before the soul, "and though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more" (Nachum 1:12), WHICH IS THE LAST PHRASE IN THE VERSE. For whoever merited to pass Nahar Dinur (the river of fire) is free of judgments.

177. Come and behold: Why was all that passed between Yosef and his brothers RECORDED IN THE TORAH? HE ANSWERS, The Torah is of truth, all her ways are holy. There is not one word in the Torah that does not contain holy and supernal mysteries and ways in which men can be strengthened.

178. He opened the discussion with the verse, "Do not say, I will repay evil" (Mishlei 20:22). Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, created man so he would strengthen himself in the Torah and walk the way of truth, staying on the right side and avoiding the left. Because MEN should walk on the right side, they have to increase love between them, AS LOVE IS OF THE RIGHT SIDE, and avoid hatred among them, AS HATRED IS OF THE LEFT SIDE, so as not to weaken the right, which is the place to which Yisrael cleave.

179. Come and behold: For this purpose, the Good Inclination and the Evil Inclination exist. Yisrael should make the Good Inclination master over the evil through good deeds. If a man turns to the left, the Evil Inclination overpowers the good, and the defective one, THE EVIL INCLINATION, is made whole through his sin, for the ugly one only becomes whole through men's sins.

180. A man should therefore be careful lest the Evil Inclination be made whole through his sins. He should always be guarded, to make whole the Good Inclination instead of the evil. Therefore, "Do not say, I will repay (also: 'complete') evil" BECAUSE THROUGH HATRED YOU SHALL INCREASE THE POWER OF THE LEFT AND COMPLETE THE EVIL INCLINATION. Only say, "wait on Hashem, and He will save you."

181. Another explanation of the verse, "Do not say, I will repay evil," is that it has the same meaning as the verse, "Whoever rewards evil for good" (Mishlei 17:13). One should not repay a person who did him good with evil, because "whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house." But even if a person caused him evil, he must not reward evil with evil, but "wait on Hashem, and He will save you."

182. This verse has been explained in relation to Yosef the Righteous, who did not wish to repay his brothers with evil when they fell into his hands, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "DO NOT SAY, I WILL REPAY EVIL; but wait on Hashem, and He will save you" (Mishlei 20:22). For he feared the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written, "This do, and live: I fear Elohim" (Beresheet 42:18). He always waited on the Holy One, blessed be He.

183. Rabbi Aba opened with the verse, "Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out" (Mishlei. 20:5). "Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water" refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, who gave counsel by bringing about events by the hands of Yosef to fulfill the decree of famine upon the world. "But a man of understanding will draw it out" refers to Yosef, who revealed the deep meanings of the decree of the Holy One, blessed be He, over the world THROUGH THE INTERPRETATION OF THE DREAM.

184. Come and behold: Yosef not only abstained from causing evil to his brothers, he also did kindness and truth by them. This is always the way of the righteous. Therefore, the Holy One, blessed be He, always has compassion for them in this world and the world to come.

185. "Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water" can also refer to Yehuda when he approached Yosef on behalf of Binyamin. The phrase, "a man of understanding will draw it out," refers to Yosef WHEN HE MADE HIMSELF KNOWN TO HIS BROTHERS.

186. Rabbi Aba sat at the gate of the city Lod. He saw a man sitting on a ledge PROTRUDING from a mountainside. He was weary from the road, so he sat down and slept. While he was sleeping, he saw a snake coming toward him. A reptile emerged and killed the snake. When the man woke, he saw the dead snake. He stood up and the ledge, WHICH HAD BEEN TORN FROM THE MOUNTAIN, fell to the valley below. Thus, he was saved, FOR HAD HE RISEN A MOMENT LATER, HE WOULD HAVE FALLEN TOGETHER WITH THE LEDGE INTO THE VALLEY AND BEEN KILLED.

187. Rabbi Aba came to him and said: What have you done that the Holy One, blessed be He, performed for you two miracles-SAVING YOU FROM THE SNAKE AND FROM THE LEDGE THAT FELL-for these events did not happen without reason.

188. The man said: In all my days, I forgave and made peace with any man who did evil by me. If I could not make peace with him, I did not sleep on my bed before forgiving him and all those who grieved me. Thus, I did not harbor hatred all that day for the harm he did me. Moreover, from that day on, I tried to do kindness by them.

185. מים עמוקים עצה בלב איש, דא יהודה, והא אוקמוה, בשעתא דאתקריב לגביה דיוסף, על עסקא דבנימין. ואיש תבונה ידלנה דא יוסף.

187. אתא ר' אבא לגביה, אמר לו אימא לי מאן עובדך, דהא קודשא בריך הוא רחיש לך אלין תרין נסין, לאו אינון למגנא.

189. Rabbi Aba wept and said: This man's deeds exceed those of Yosef. As for Yosef, those WHO INJURED HIM were his brothers. Assuredly, he should have pitied them FROM BROTHERHOOD. But this one behaved so TO ANY MAN, so he is greater than Yosef and is worthy to have the Holy One, blessed be He, perform one miracle after the other for his sake.

190. He opened the discussion with the verse, "He that walks uprightly walks surely: but he that perverts his ways shall be found out" (Mishlei 10:9). "He that walks uprightly" refers to the man who walks the ways of the Torah. He will "walk surely" for no fiend in the world will be able to harm him. "...but he that perverts his ways shall be found out." HE ASKS: Who shall be found out? HE ANSWERS, He who deviates from the way of truth and plans to repay his friend EVIL FOR EVIL, THEREBY TRANSGRESSING THE STRICTURE IN THE VERSE, "YOU SHALL NOT AVENGE, NOR BEAR ANY GRUDGE" (VAYIKRA 19:18). The phrase, "shall be found out" means that he will be recognized by all the prosecutors, who will not forget the image of that man and will bring him account MEASURE FOR MEASURE. THE SCRIPTURE therefore READS, "shall be found out."

191. Come and behold: He who walks the way of truth is hidden by the Holy One, blessed be He, so that he will not be found nor recognized by the prosecutors, "but he that perverts his ways shall be found out" and will be known to them. Happy are the men who walk the way of truth, walk surely in the world, and have no fear in this world or the world to come.

12. "And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Yosef's house"

The Zohar comments on the fear felt by Yosef's brothers. It meditates on the nature of sin and evil, and asserts that only by concentrating on the Day of Judgment at all times, and by avoiding wine, pride, and fornication, can we be free of the Evil Inclination. Whoever has sins on his hands is always afraid; thus, Joseph's brothers were full of fear when they were brought into his house.

The Relevance of this Passage

A literal interpretation of biblical text limits it to extremist views that can be misconstrued as puritanical. The Kabbalists of antiquity shed light on the deeper significance of the above verses. Fear of sin and the avoidance of wine, pride, and infidelity are not just moral values rooted in religious authority. Rather, there is a practical benefit to engaging in positive behavior. Kabbalah teaches us how to elevate all physical activity to the level of the spiritual. For example, relations between a man and wife are made more passionate when a man directs his sexual drive exclusively towards his spouse, limiting carnal activity to the spiritual confines of his marriage. Similarly, wine draws down enormous spiritual Light when used as part of a blessing, but brings alcoholism and spiritual darkness when used for self-indulgent purposes. Our eyes are opened to these insightful truths as we peruse these passages.

192. "And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Yosef's house" (Bereshheet 43:18): Rabbi Yosi said: Woe to the men, who do not know nor reflect upon the ways of the Torah. Woe to them at the time the Holy One, blessed be He, will demand justice for their deeds, when the body and soul will rise to account for all they did before the soul separated from the body.

192. וְיִירָאוּ הָאֲנָשִׁים כִּי הוּבְאוּ בֵּית יוֹסֵף. ר' יוֹסֵי אָמַר, וְוִי לֹון, לְבִנֵי נֶשָׁא, דְּלֹא יִדְעִי וְלֹא מִסְתַּבְּלִין בְּאַרְחֵי דְאוּרֵייתָא, וְוִי לֹון, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּוּ יִיתִי לְמַתְבַּע לֹון דִּינָא עַל עֹבְדֵיִהוּן, וְיִקּוּם גּוּפָא וְנַפְשָׁא, לְמִיָּהֵב חוּשְׁבָנָא מְכָל עֹבְדֵיִהוּן, עַד לֹא יִתְפָּרְשׁוּן נַפְשָׁא מִן גּוּפָא.

193. That day is the day of Judgment, when the books WHERE MEN'S DEEDS ARE WRITTEN are open, the prosecutors are in place, and the serpent is ready to bite. All the members of the body quiver before it, and the soul is separated from the body to roam and hover without knowing where it should go and to which place it will be raised.

194. Woe to that day, a day of ire and wrath. It behooves man, then, to face his Evil Inclination and remember that he will have to stand in the King's judgment and that he will be put beneath the ground to rot, while the soul will be separated from him.

195. We have learned that a man should always apply himself to arousing the Good Inclination against the Evil Inclination. If evil departs, that is fine; if not, he should study the Torah, for only the Torah breaks the evil inclination. If evil departs, that is fine; if not, man should remind him of his dying day in order to break him.

196. We have to study this further. The Evil Inclination is the Angel of Death. Why should the Angel of Death be broken just before the day of death, seeing that it is he who delights in killing MEN? Indeed, he leads them astray to bring DEATH upon them.

197. HE ANSWERS, Surely we have learned that it behooves man to be reminded of his dying day in order to break his heart, for the Evil Inclination dwells only in a place of intoxication and pride. When a broken spirit dwells in man, evil departs and does not stay with him. One should therefore be reminded of his dying day so that his spirit will be crushed and the Evil Inclination will go away.

198. Come and behold: The Good Inclination requires the joy of the Torah and the Evil Inclination the joy of wine, fornication, and pride. Therefore, a man should always vex him by mention of that great day, the day of judgment, the day of reckoning, for there is nothing that protects man except the good deeds that he performs in this world.

199. Come and behold: "And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Yosef's house." With all their might and strength, one youth who brought them into Yosef's house MADE THEM afraid. How much more SHOULD WE BE AFRAID when the Holy One, blessed be He, will demand justice of man?

200. Hence, a man should strive in this world to be strengthened by the Holy One, blessed be He, and put his trust in Him. And though he sinned, if he fully repents, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, is able TO OVERLOOK A WRONG AND FORGIVE HIM. And the man could fortify himself in the Holy One, blessed be He, as if he had never sinned.

201. The tribes were afraid because they sinned in stealing Yosef. They would not have been afraid at all, had they not sinned. For man's sins break his heart and strength. Why? Because the Good Inclination is crushed within him, and he has no power to overcome the evil inclination. It is therefore written, "What man there is that is fearful and fainthearted" (Devarim 20:8), "that is fearful" of the sins upon his hands, which break a man's heart.

202. Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, exacted payments for generations for the tribes' sin OF SELLING YOSEF, for nothing is lost before the Holy One, blessed be He, and He demands payment from one generation to the next. Judgment stands before him constantly until exacted. And judgment abides where it should BE.

203. How do we know this? From Chizkiyahu, who sinned by revealing to the idolatrous nations the mysteries of the Holy One, blessed be He, which he should not have done. The Holy One, blessed be He, sent Yeshayahu, who said to him, "Behold, days are coming that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon" (Yeshayah 39:6).

204. Come and behold what that sin caused. It exposed what was hidden and, once it was revealed, an opening was given FOR THE OTHER SIDE TO RULE. Therefore, blessing abides only in secret places, as has been already explained. Blessings dwell on all that is undisclosed. Once it is revealed, there is an opening for another place to have dominion over it.

205. It is written, "all that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness" (Eichah 1:8). This alludes to the kingdom of Babylon, where a present was sent to Jerusalem, as it is written, "At that time, Merodach Baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Chizkiyahu" (Yeshayah 39:1).

206. In the letters it was written, Peace be to Chizkiyah, the king of Yehuda, peace be to the great Elohim, and peace be to Jerusalem. Once he delivered the letter, he thought, I have not done well in greeting the servant before his master. He rose from his throne, took three steps, and retrieved the letter. He wrote another letter in its stead, saying, Peace be to the great Elohim, peace to Jerusalem, and peace be to Chizkiyah. These are "all that honored her."

206. וּמָה כְּתִיב בְּהוּ, שְׁלָם לְחִזְקִיָּהוּ מֶלֶךְ יְהוּדָה, וְשְׁלָם לְאֱלֹהֵא רַבָּא וְשְׁלָם לִירוּשָׁלַם, כִּיּוֹן דְּנִפְק פְּתִיקָה מִגִּיָּה, אֶהְדֵּר לְלִבִּיהָ וְאָמַר, לֹא יָאוּת עֲבָדִית לְאֶקְדָּמָא שְׁלָמָא דְעֵבְרָא, לְשְׁלָמָא דְמַאֲרִיָּה, קָם מְבוּרְסִיָּה, וּפְסַע ג' פְּסִיעֵן, וְאֶהְדֵּר פְּתִיקָה, וְכָתַב אַחֲרָנִין תַּחֲוּתֵיהּ, וְכָתַב הַכִּי, שְׁלָם לְאֱלֹהֵא רַבָּא, שְׁלָם לִירוּשָׁלַם, וְשְׁלָם לְחִזְקִיָּה, וְדָא הוּא מְכַבְּרֵיהָ.

207. Afterwards, they "despise her." Why did they "despise her?" "Because they have seen her nakedness", THAT IS, Chizkiyah showed it to them, and were it not for that, they would not have despised her. Because Chizkiyah was righteous, retribution was late in coming and came not in his days, as it is written, "But there shall be peace and truth in my days" (Yeshayah 39:8). Later, the Holy One, blessed be He, visited His children on account of that sin.

208. Similarly, the sin of the tribes was deferred until a later time, for judgment above had no power over them until the time arrived to exact payments. Thus, whoever has sins on his hands is always afraid, as it is written, "And you shall fear day and night" (Devarim 28:66). Therefore, "And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Yosef's house."

13. "And he saw Binyamin"

Hope deferred is a heart sickness but desire fulfilled is a Tree of Life. Rabbi Chiya comments on this verse, to the effect that the negative angel Satan attends those who pray with a specific result in mind--but God quickly answers the prayers of the pure in heart. Thus, Benjamin came quickly to Yosef. The passage then digresses into a lament for the destruction of the Temple and the pains of Exile.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Evil Inclination exploits the action of prayer by stimulating feelings of self-righteousness. For this reason, most prayers go unanswered. A holier-than-thou attitude distinguishes the religious approach to prayer from the authentically spiritual perspective. The latter is replete with humility, while the religious approach fosters conceit and certitude in one's own purity and devotion. The cleansing power of this passage purifies our souls, so that we may humbly ask The Creator for what we truly need.

209. "And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Binyamin, his mother's son" (Beresheet 43:29). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse, "Hope deferred makes the heart sick (lit. 'is a heart sickness'), but desire fulfilled is a Tree of Life" (Mishlei 13:12). From this verse, we have learned that a man should not, when he prays to the Holy One, blessed be He, check whether HIS SALVATION has come or not. What is the reason for this? When he looks for it, many accusers come to examine his deeds.

210. It is a secret that his examination during prayer causes a heart sickness. The sickness of heart is he who always stands by man to indict him above and below, NAMELY THE SATAN.

211. "But desire fulfilled is a Tree of Life." We have learned that he who wants the Holy One, blessed be He, to accept his prayer, should study the Torah, which is the Tree of Life. Then, "desire is fulfilled (lit. 'comes')." Desire is the grade presiding over all the prayers in the world, NAMELY THE NUKVA. It brings them before the highest King, ZEIR ANPIN. This verse says "comes" just as elsewhere it is written, "in the evening she comes" (Ester 2:14). IN BOTH VERSES, THE WORD COMES ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA. The meaning of "desire comes" is that she comes before the highest King TO BE JOINED WITH HIM in order to grant the wish of he WHO PRAYS TO FULFILL HIS REQUEST.

212. Another explanation of the verse, "Hope deferred is a heart sickness" is that it refers to a place where prayer is misdirected, A PLACE CALLED "SICKNESS OF HEART." It is slow in coming and is passed from hand to hand. Sometimes SALVATION never comes. Why? Because it is passed FROM HAND TO HAND by all the chieftains to be brought down into the world.

213. "...but desire comes is a Tree of Life": When hope is not passed by all the chieftains and Chariots FROM HAND TO HAND, the Holy One, blessed be He, gives it immediately. For when it is passed by the chieftains and Chariots, numerous accusers are given permission to examine it and look at the indictments before granting him HIS SALVATION. But whatever comes from the King's house and is given to man, whether he deserves it or not, is given to him at once. This is the meaning of the phrase, "but desire comes is a Tree of Life"; it comes immediately.

214. Another explanation of "hope deferred" is that it refers to Ya'akov whose hope to see Yosef was long deferred. And "but desire comes is a Tree of Life" refers to Binyamin, for only a short time elapsed between Yosef's request for him and his arrival; the time elapsed was short. It is written, "And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Binyamin, his mother's son." Why does the scripture read, "his mother's son?" Because he had his mother's image, he was her very image. Therefore the verse reads, "And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Binyamin, his mother's son."

215. Rabbi Yosi said: It is written earlier, "And Yosef saw Binyamin with them" (Beresheet 43:16), and now "he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Binyamin." What did he see here? HE ANSWERS, He saw through the Holy Spirit that Binyamin will have a place in the Holy Land along with his brothers, and that the Shechinah will dwell in the place of Binyamin and Yehuda, for he saw the Temple standing upon their portion. This is the meaning of the phrase, "And Yosef saw Binyamin with them." But Yosef, his brother, did not see HIMSELF sharing the portion IN WHICH THE TEMPLE WOULD STAND.

216. When "he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Binyamin, his mother's son" (Beresheet 43:29) AND SAW THE TEMPLE STANDING ON HIS PORTION, then it is written, "And Yosef made haste, for his affection was kindled towards his brother and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there" (Beresheet 43:30), BECAUSE HE SAW THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE.

217. Rabbi Chizkiyah quoted the verse, "The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you are wholly gone up to the housetops" (Yeshayah 22:1). Come and behold: It has been said that when the Temple was destroyed and consumed by fire, all the priests went up to the roofs of the Temple with all the Temple's keys in their hands. They said "until now we have been your treasurers, from now on take what is yours."

218. Yet come and behold: "The valley of vision" is the Shechinah who used to be in the Temple, and all the people in the world drew prophecy from her. And although the prophets used to prophesize from a different place, THAT IS, NETZACH AND HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, they used to draw their prophecies from her, THE NUKVA. BECAUSE NETZACH AND HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN GAVE PLENTY TO THE SHECHINAH, WHO GAVE THE ILLUMINATION OF NETZACH AND HOD TO THE PROPHETS, She is therefore named after prophecy "the valley of vision" it has been explained THAT SHE IS CALLED vision, because She reflects all the upper hues. THE FOUR HUES OF ZEIR ANPIN, CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT, ARE REFLECTED ONLY IN HER. SHE IS THEREFORE CALLED VISION.

219. "What ails you now, that you are wholly gone up to the housetops": When the Temple was destroyed, the Shechinah stood in all the places She used to inhabit and wept for Her apartment, for Yisrael who went into exile, and for all the righteous and the pious who perished there. How do we know this? From the words, "A voice was heard in Rama, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children" (Yirmeyah 31:14). RACHEL WAS THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH, as we have already learned. The Holy One, blessed be He, then asked the Shechinah, "What ails you now, that you are wholly gone up to the housetops."

220. HE ASKS: Why does it say that "you are wholly?" It would have been sufficient to say that "you are gone up TO THE HOUSETOPS." What does wholly mean? HE REPLIES: It includes all the other legions and Chariots that all wept with Her for the destruction of the Temple. IT IS THEREFORE WRITTEN "THAT YOU ARE WHOLLY GONE UP TO THE HOUSETOPS."

221. Therefore, HE ASKED HER, "What ails you now..." She replied, My children are in exile and the Temple burnt, AND YOU DO NOT KNOW, and as for me, whatever shall I do here. She said: "You that are full of uproar, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: your slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle." "Therefore, said I, 'Look away from me; I will weep bitterly'" (Yeshayah 22:2, 4). We have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, replied: "Thus says Hashem; keep your voice from weeping..." (Yirmeyah 31:15).

222. Come and behold: Since the Temple was destroyed, not a day has passed without curses. This is because as long as the Temple existed, Yisrael could worship and offer burnt offerings and sacrifices. The Shechinah hovered about them in the Temple, as a mother about her children. All faces were shining, until blessings would abide above and below. Not a day passed without blessings and delight. Yisrael dwelt securely in their land, and all the world was nourished for their sake.

223. Now that the Temple is destroyed and the Shechinah has gone with them into exile, there is not a day without curses. The world is accursed, and joys do not dwell above or below.

224. In days to come, the Holy One, blessed be He, will raise the congregation of Yisrael, THE SHECHINAH, from the dust, as it is written, "Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer" (Yeshayah 56:7). It is also written, "They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them" (Yirmeyah 31:8). Because at first, it is written, "She weeps sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks" (Eichah 1:2), they will afterward return weeping FROM THE EXILE, as it is written, "They shall come with weeping."

224. וְזָמִין קוֹדֵשׁ בְּרִיךְ הוּא, לְאַקְמָא לֵה לְכַנְסַת יִשְׂרָאֵל מֵעַפְרָא, כְּמָה דְאַתְמוּר, וּלְמַחְדֵי עֲלָמָא בְּכֹלָא, כְּד"א וְהִבִּיאֹתִים אֶל הַר קְדְשִׁי וְשִׂמְחַתִּים בְּבֵית תְּפִלָּתִי וְגו' וְכָתִיב בְּבָבִי יָבֹאוּ וּבְתַחֲנוּנִים אוֹבִילִים. כְּמָה דְבִקְדָמִיתָא, דְכָתִיב בְּכָה תִבְכֶּה בְּלֵילָה וּדְמַעְתָּה עַל לַחֲיָה, הֲכִי נִמְי לְכַתְרָא, בְּבָבִי יִתְהַדְרוּן, דְכָתִיב בְּבָבִי יָבֹאוּ וְגו'.

14. "As soon as the morning was light"

This verse speculates on the meaning of the phrase, "the morning was light." Drawing on many precedents from the Torah, it uses the phrase to define the healing powers of God, the bright future of the people of Israel, and the difficulties that will befall their enemies.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light of The Creator can heal all our ailments--but we must have certainty and trust in its power, and we must be conscious of sharing this energy with all those in need. These healing forces are summoned forth as we meditate upon the primordial letters of creation.

225. "As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses" (Beresheet 44:3). Rabbi Elazar said: We have to study this verse carefully. If they were sent, why should the Torah add "they and their asses?" HE ANSWERS, Because scripture reads, "and take us for bondsmen, and our asses" (Beresheet 43:18), the verse "the men were sent away, they and their asses" teaches us that they have not stayed, nor have their asses.

225. הַבֶּקֶר אֹר וְהָאֲנָשִׁים שָׁלְחוּ הֵמָּה וְחִמּוּרֵיהֶם, רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר אָמַר, הֲכָא אֵית לָא סַתְכְּלָה, אִי אִינוּן הוּוּ אֲזִילִי וְאַשְׁתַּדְרוּ, מַה לֵּן לְמַכְתָּב בְּאוּרֵייתָא, הֵמָּה וְחִמּוּרֵיהֶם. אֶלָּא בְּגִין דְכָתִיב, וּלְקַחַת אוֹתָנוּ לְעִבְדִים וְאֵת חִמּוּרֵינוּ, בְּגִין כֶּךָ, וְהָאֲנָשִׁים שָׁלְחוּ הֵמָּה וְחִמּוּרֵיהֶם, בְּגִין דְלֹא יִשְׁתַּאֲרוּן אִינוּן וְחִמּוּרֵיהוֹן, בְּדַקְאֲמוּרָא.

226. He opened the discussion with the verse, "And Avraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass" (Beresheet 22:3). That was the morning of Avraham, WHICH IS CHESED. It shone upon THE TRIBES due to Avraham, whose merit stood for them and enabled them to go in peace and be delivered from Judgment. For at that time, Judgment impended upon them to exact payment, and only the merit of Avraham's morning protected them. Thus they were sent from that place of Judgment, for it had no power over them at the time.

227. Rabbi Yehuda continued with the verse, "And he shall be as the light of the morning" (II Shmuel 23:4): This is the light of Avraham's morning, NAMELY, THE LIGHT OF CHESED. "When the sun rises" refers to the sun of Ya'akov, THE LIGHT OF TIFERET, as it is written, "the sun rose upon him" (Beresheet 32:32). "In a morning without clouds" means th? morning, THE LIGHT OF CHESED, is not so cloudy, BECAUSE JUDGMENTS HAVE NO HOLD UPON IT, but "clear shining after rain," WHICH MEANS the brightness that comes through rain, the rain of the side of Yitzchak, THE LIGHT OF GVURAH, for that rain causes that, "the grass springs out of the earth" (II Shmuel 23, 4).

228. Another explanation of the phrase, "as the light of the morning," MEANS THAT by the light of Avraham's morning, THE LIGHT OF CHESED, "the sun rises," which is Ya'akov, whose light is as that of that morning OF AVRAHAM, BEING THE SECRET OF TIFERET, AND SHINES WITH COVERED CHASSADIM DRAWN FROM THE LIGHT OF CHESED. The "morning without clouds" is not dark but shining, for when morning, THE LIGHT OF CHESED, comes, no judgment has sway. All is illuminating on the side of Avraham, THE RIGHT SIDE, "in the clear shining after rain": This is the side of Yosef the Righteous, who showers upon the earth, THAT IS, YESOD, WHICH GIVES PLENTY TO THE NUKVA, to produce grass and all the goodness of the world.

229. Rabbi Shimon said: Come and behold: When night falls and spreads its wings upon the world, snow-white asses, WHICH ARE SPIRITS IN THE SHAPES OF FEMALE ASSES, ARE APPOINTED TO TAKE REVENGE ON THOSE WHO TRANSGRESS RELIGION AND THE LAW. They will come out and reign over the world. Numerous accusers are aroused on several sides to rule over the world. When morning breaks, they all vanish and lose their dominion. Each comes to its FIXED position and returns to its place.

230. Another explanation of the phrase, "the morning was light," is that when Avraham's morning breaks, THE REIGN OF THE RIGHT BEGINS. "... the men were sent away" refers to the accusers who rule by night, "they and their asses": These are the female asses THAT ARE APPOINTED OVER THOSE WHO TRANSGRESS religion and the law. They come from the side of defilement, being unholy, and do not rule and are not seen when morning comes. The female asses in charge of sinners are considered the same as male asses.

231. There are no upper grades that are not divided into right and left, into mercy and judgment. There are numerous grades, holy on the side of holiness and defiled on the side of defilement. All grades stand on top of each other.

232. Wherever Avraham's morning is awakened into the world, the forces of the left are gone and have no sway, for they cannot exist on the right side, only on the left. THEREFORE, WHEN MORNING ARRIVES, WHICH IS THE REIGN OF THE RIGHT, THEY ARE FORCED TO VANISH. The Holy One, blessed be He, made day and night to give each its own proper aspect, THE RIGHT TO RULE BY DAY AND THE LEFT TO RULE BY NIGHT. Happy is the portion of Yisrael in this world and the world to come.

233. Rabbi Chiya said: "But to you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in its wings" (Malachi 3:20). Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, will cause to shine upon Yisrael the sun, which, from the day the world was created, He concealed from the wicked in the world, as it is written, "And from the wicked their light is withheld" (Iyov 38:15).

234. The Holy One, blessed be He, stored that light, for when it first came out, it shone from one end of the world to the other. But when He looked upon the generations of Enosh, the generation of the Flood, the generation of the Tower of Babylon and all the wicked ones, He stored the light.

235. When Ya'akov came to contend with Esav's minister, who bit his thigh, he limped. It is then written, "the sun rose upon him" (Beresheet 32:32). What sun is this? It is the sun that was stored away, which has healing in it, to heal his thigh. When he was healed through that sun, it is written, "And Ya'akov came to Shalem (lit. 'whole')" (Beresheet 33:18), meaning he was whole in his body and healed.

236. The Holy One, blessed be He, will therefore uncover that sun in the future and shine upon Yisrael, as it is written, "But to you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall arise," the sun of righteousness being the sun with which Ya'akov was healed. It is "with healing in its wings," because everybody will then be healed. When the children of Yisrael rise from the dust, many will be lame and blind. The Holy One, blessed be He, will shine the healing sun upon them, as it is written, "with healing in its wings."

237. That sun will then shine from one end of the world to the other. Yisrael will be cured, but the idolatrous nations will be burned by it. Concerning Yisrael, the verse reads, "Then shall your light break forth like the morning, and your health shall spring forth speedily; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of Hashem shall be your rearguard" (Yeshayah 58:8).

237. וְכְדִין, יִתְנַהִיר הָוּא שְׁמֵשׁא, מְסִיפֵי עֲלְמָא, עַד סִינֵפֵי עֲלְמָא, וְלְיִשְׂרָאֵל יְהֵא אַסּוּתָא, וְעַמִּין עַעְכוּ"ם בֵּיה יִתְקוּדוֹן, אָבַל לְיִשְׂרָאֵל מַה כְּתִיב, אִזּוּ יִבְקַע כְּשַׁחַר אֹרֶךְ וְאַרְכַּתְךָ מֵהֲרָה תִצְמַח וְהֵלֶךְ לְפָנֶיךָ צְדָקְךָ כְּבוֹד יי' יֵאֲסֹפֶךָ.

15. "And to Yosef were born two sons, before the years of famine came"

The subject of this final passage is the nature of "the days of evil." These are not the days of old age, Rabbi Yitzchak explains, but the "illumination of the left." Man should remain chaste in a bad time and not have children, since these "strange" children would descend from the left side—thus, Yosef had his sons before the famine struck. Neither should a man go forth into the marketplace during the days of evil, since the world is full of "satanic accusers" lying in wait for the unwary.

The Relevance of this Passage

A man and woman's thoughts during sexual relations help determine the purity of their unborn child's soul. The purer our thoughts at the moment of conception, the finer the grade of soul that is drawn from the Upper Worlds. Because of social pressures and our Evil Inclination, purifying and controlling our thoughts is a formidable task. The cleansing attributes of the Hebrew letters in this passage help us to prevail over the world's negative influences, and to elevate our thoughts and desires. We draw Light to our children, which helps purify their souls.

238. Let us return to the subject: "And to Yosef were born two sons before the years of famine came" (Beresheet 41:50). Rabbi Yitzchak quoted the verse, "And the remnant of Ya'akov shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from Hashem, like the showers upon the grass, that tarries not for man, nor waits for the sons of men" (Michah 5:6). Come and behold: Every day, when light breaks, a bird awakens on a tree in the Garden of Eden and crows three times. The twig is straightened, and the crier loudly warns: Whoever among you see but see not; exist in the world, yet do not know why; do not care for the glory of their Master; and do not study the Torah even though it stands before you, it is better for you never to have been born. Why should you exist without understanding? Woe to you, when the days of evil shall bestir themselves against you and banish you from the world.

239. HE ASKS: What are the days of evil? Can they be days of old age? Not so, for days of old age, if man has children and grandchildren, are good days. What, then, are days of evil?

240. They are mentioned in the verse, "Remember now your creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come" (Kohelet 12:1). These are not days of old age. The mystery here is that when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He did it through the letters of the Torah. Each letter came before Him, until they came to be established by the letter Bet, WHICH IS IN THE SECRET OF BLESSING (LIT. 'BERACHAH'), FOR WHICH REASON THE WORLD WAS CREATED BY IT. All the alphabets along with their various permutations, THE 231 INWARD ALPHABETS AND THE 231 BACKWARD ALPHABETS, AS WE KNOW, are means WITH WHICH to create the world, HAVING RECEIVED THE SECRET OF BLESSING FROM THE LETTER BET.

241. After the letters were permutated INTO AN ALPHABET IN WHICH THE LETTERS Tet and Resh appear together, the Tet ascended and would not settle together WITH RESH. The Holy One, blessed be He, rebuked her and said: Tet, Tet, why do you ascend and not settle in your place? She replied: You have made me the first letter in the word Tov (good), and the Torah opened by saying "that it was good" IN THE VERSE, "AND ELOHIM SAW THE LIGHT, THAT IT WAS GOOD" (BERESHEET 1:3). How could I be united with RESH, WHICH IS THE FIRST LETTER IN THE WORD Ra (EVIL)?

242. He said to her, return to your place, for you have need OF THE LETTER RA. For I wish to create man and include both of you together in him. Then he will be created, but with you on the right and her on the left. The letters Tet and Resh settled together again.

243. The Holy One, blessed be He, then divided them, AND SEPARATED THEIR ILLUMINATION, THE ONE BEING WHOLLY GOOD AND THE OTHER WHOLLY EVIL. And He created for each certain days and years, THE SECRET OF THE 28 TIMES IN KOHELET, the ones to the right and the others to the left, fourteen TIMES FOR GOOD AND FOURTEEN FOR EVIL. The ones to the right are called days of good, and the ones to the left are called days of evil. Solomon said: "before the evil days come" and encompass man on account of the sins he committed. Once the days of good and days of evil were created, TET AND RESH settled together again to be included within man.

244. David therefore asked: "Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my persecutors compasses me about" (Tehilim 49:6), the days of evil assuredly. There is a mystery in that THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT is called days of famine and years of famine, and THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT is called days of plenty and years of plenty.

245. The secret is that one should not draw forth the source of the holy covenant, THAT IS, NOT PERFORM MARITAL DUTY, in days or years of famine. Yosef, therefore, the secret of the covenant, closed his spring in the year of famine and did not allow it to multiply in the world. HENCE THE WORDS, "AND TO YOSEF WERE BORN... BEFORE THE YEARS OF FAMINE CAME" (BERESHEET 41:50). When the year of famine reigns, it behooves man to withhold the spring of his holy covenant and not enable THE LEFT to multiply in the world.

246. Rabbi Shimon said: It is a very deep mystery that when the year of famine, THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, has sway, it behooves man to stop his source FROM BEGETTING CHILDREN FOR TWO REASONS: (1) If he does not stop his source, he would draw upon the baby a spirit from the LEFT side, and (2) He would thus give a place to that side, thereby strengthening the side of defilement in this world at the expense of the side of holiness. Regarding this secret, the scripture also reads, "For three things the earth quakes" (Mishlei 30:21).

247. For that reason, Yosef the Righteous, who is the secret of the Covenant, ascended to stop his source during the year of famine, so as not to mingle at all WITH THE LEFT and prevent it from ruling OVER THE RIGHT. Of whoever lets his source flow at that time, it is written, "They have dealt treacherously against Hashem: for they have begotten strange children" (Hoshea 5:7), for the children HE BEGETS DURING THE YEARS OF FAMINE are by necessity strange children. ACCORDING TO THE FIRST REASON GIVEN BY RABBI SHIMON, HE DRAWS UPON THE BABY A SPIRIT OF THAT SIDE. Assuredly, "They have dealt treacherously against Hashem" BECAUSE, ACCORDING TO THE SECOND REASON, THEY LET THE LEFT BE STRONGER THAN THE RIGHT AND THUS BETRAYED THE NAME OF HASHEM. Therefore, happy is the portion of holy Yisrael, who did not replace a place of holiness with that of impurity.

248. Another explanation of the verse, "And to Yosef were born two sons before the years of famine came" is that ever since the year of famine came to rule, WHICH IS LEFT WITHOUT RIGHT, he closed his spring and raised up his source, so as not to give children to the side of defilement or exchange a holy place for an impure one, THEREBY INCREASING DEFILEMENT AT THE EXPENSE OF HOLINESS. A man should await for his Master to come and rule over the world, as it is written, "And I will wait upon Hashem, that hides His face from the house of Ya'akov, and I will hope for Him" (Yeshayah 8:17).

249. Happy are the righteous who know the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, observe the precepts of the Torah, and follow their course, as "the ways of Hashem are right, and the just do walk in them: but the transgressors shall stumble in them" (Hoshea 14:10) and "But you that did cleave of Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day" (Devarim 4:4).

250. The Holy One, blessed be He, therefore admonished Yisrael to sanctify themselves, as it is written, "You shall be holy: for I Hashem your Elohim am holy" (Vayikra 19, 2). HE ASKS: Who is "I?" HE ANSWERS, It is the Holy One, blessed be He, the sacred kingdom of heaven, NAMELY THE NUKVA, while the kingdom of the idolatrous nations is called other, as it is written, "For you shall worship no other El, for Hashem, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous El" (Shemot 34:14).

251. Come and behold: "I" is the government of this world and of the world to come, and everything depends upon it, AS EVERYTHING DEPENDS ON THE NUKVA. Whoever cleaves to the "I", NAMELY TO THE NUKVA, has a portion in this world and the world to come.

252. Whoever cleaves to the other one, THE NUKVA OF THE HEATHEN, perishes from the world of truth, has no part in the world to come and takes part in the impurity of this world. Yet he takes part in the defilement of this world, for the kingdom of the heathen has numerous legions of accusers through whom it rules over this world.

253. Therefore Elisha, the other who descended and clove to that grade, THE KINGDOM OF THE HEATHEN CALLED OTHER, was driven from the world to come. He was not given permission to repent, but was expelled from the world of truth, for which reason he was named other.

254. Thus, a man should separate himself from all these sides in order not to be defiled by that side and thereby merit this world and the world to come. Thus, THIS NUKVA OF HOLINESS is a blessing and that NUKVA OF THE HEATHEN is a curse. The one is plenty and the other famine. They are direct opposites, as has already been explained.

255. At the time of the year of famine, WHEN THE NUKVA OF THE HEATHEN REIGNED, no man should have been seen in the marketplace or let flow his source to beget children to another EI, as has already been explained.

256. Happy is the man who is careful to walk the way of truth and constantly cleaves to his Master. It is written, "To Him shall you hold fast, and by His name shall you swear" (Devarim 10:20). Note that it is not written, "in Him shall you swear," but rather "in His name," WHICH IS THE NUKVA CALLED NAME. What then is the meaning of the words, "you swear?" HE REPLIED: As we have explained, "YOU SWEAR (HEB. TISHAVE'A)" MEANS cleaving to the secret of faith, THE NUKVA CALLED SHEVA (SEVEN) SO NAMED AFTER THE SEVEN SFIROT-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT-WHICH SHE RECEIVES FROM BINAH, AS WILL BE EXPLAINED PRESENTLY.

257. There are seven grades above IN BINAH THAT ARE superior to all and constitute the secret of the wholeness of faith. THE ULTIMATE PERFECTION OF THE NUKVA IS TO ASCEND AND CLOTHE THESE SEVEN GRADES-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT OF BINAH. The secret of the seven grades below, IN THE NUKVA HERSELF, is their union and connection with the SEVEN UPPER ONES, so they become one. It is therefore written, "Seven days and seven days, namely, fourteen days" (I Melachim 8:65). All is one, bound as one, FOR THE SEVEN OF THE NUKVA, WHEN THEY ARE WHOLE, ASCEND AND CLOTHE THE SEVEN OF BINAH, AND THEY ARE BOUND AS ONE. And "by His name shall you swear" (Devarim 6:13) ALLUDES TO THE SEVEN above and below-THE JOINING OF THE SEVEN OF BINAH WITH THE SEVEN OF THE NUKVA INTO ONE.

258. Of whoever joins these SEVEN LOWER ONES with the SEVEN UPPER ONES, it is written, "Hashem shall open to you His good treasure, the heaven" (Devarim 28:12), those treasures THE SEVEN OF BINAH above and THE SEVEN OF THE NUKVA below. The seven days OF BINAH and the seven days OF THE NUKVA are as one, and it is written, "His good treasure, the heaven" and "and seven...to the seven which were upon the top of it" (Zechariah 4:2). All of them are one.

259. Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Yosi were walking together when they saw an armed man wearing fringes, THE TZITZIT. Rabbi Chiya said: This man is either a completely righteous man WHO WEARS A FRINGED TALIT EVEN WHILE TRAVELING or is a deceiver of men WHO CARRIES ARMS AND MIGHT BE A ROBBER, YET WEARS THE TALIT TO DECEIVE PEOPLE AND CAPTURE THEM.

260. Rabbi Yosi said: The pious have said to judge every man in a favorable sense. We have learned that when a man who sets out on a journey is afraid of robbers, he should meditate upon three things: a present, a war, and a prayer. How do we know this? From Ya'akov, who prepared himself for these three things, and was provisioned for presents, a war, and a prayer, AS IT IS WRITTEN THAT HE "SENT" (BERESHEET 32:4) ESAV A PRESENT, HE DIVIDED THE PEOPLE WITH HIM INTO TWO CAMPS LEST "ESAV COME...AND SMITE IT" IN WAR, AND HE PRAYED TO HASHEM, "DELIVER ME, I PRAY YOU, FROM THE HAND OF MY BROTHER." This man who is walking is wearing the Talit to pray and has arms for war. If he has these two, it is not necessary to look to see if he has the third, THE PRESENT. IF HE HAS THE FIRST TWO, HE MUST HAVE THE THIRD.

261. When he approached them, they greeted him but he did not answer. Rabbi Chiya said: It seems as if one of the three THINGS which should be upon him is absent. BECAUSE HE DOES NOT RESPOND TO OUR GREETINGS OF PEACE. THIS MEANS THAT he did not prepare a present, as a present comprises peace. Rabbi Yosi said: It may be that he is praying or reciting his study so as not to forget it.

262. They walked with him, yet he did not talk to them. Later Rabbi Chiya and Rabbi Yosi stepped aside to study the Torah. When the man saw they were studying the Torah, he approached them and gave them greetings of peace.

263. He said: Gentlemen, what did you think of when you greeted me but I did not answer. Rabbi Yosi said: WE THOUGHT you were engaged in prayer or study. He replied: May the Holy One, blessed be He, judge you favorably.

264. This I shall tell you. I met a man one day when I was walking along the road. I greeted him, but he turned out to be a robber, who fell upon me and grieved me. Had I not overcome him, I would have come to harm. Since that day, I vowed to greet only a man whom I knew was RIGHTEOUS, lest he might otherwise molest and overcome me. Moreover, it is forbidden to greet an evil man, as it is written, "There is no peace, says Hashem, for the wicked" (Yeshayah 48:22).

265. When you greeted me, I did not respond for I suspected that YOU WERE NOT RIGHTEOUS. WHY? Because I did not see any tzitzit on you. I THEREFORE DID NOT RETURN YOUR GREETING. Besides, I was repeating my studies AND THUS COULD NOT ANSWER YOU ANYWAY. But now that I see you are righteous, the way is clear before me.

266. He then quoted the verse, "A psalm of Asaf. Truly Elohim is good to Yisrael, to such as are of a clean heart" (Tehilim 73:1). Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, made right and left in order to rule over the world. The one, RIGHT, is called good, and the other, LEFT, is called evil. Man includes them both, and in all THINGS comes closer TO HASHEM, AS THE SAGES SAID, 'WITH YOUR TWO INCLINATIONS, THE GOOD INCLINATION AND THE EVIL INCLINATION.'

267. The idolatrous nations are included within evil, the left, which was created for the defilement of their side, as they are uncircumcised of heart and uncircumcised of flesh. But of Yisrael, it is written, "Truly Elohim is good to Yisrael."

268. You may say He is good for all Yisrael, but that is not true. He is good only to those who were not defiled with evil, as it is written, "To such as are of a clean heart." For of good and evil, good is for Yisrael alone, and evil is for the idolatrous nations alone. "Truly" He is "good to Yisrael", so they cleave to THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. Thus, Yisrael cleaves to the supreme mystery, ZEIR ANPIN, in the secret of faith, THE NUKVA, so that all shall become one. THAT IS, BY ACHIEVING GOOD, THEY SUCCEED IN UNITING ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA AS ONE AND THEN CLEAVE TO THEM.

269. Rabbi Yosi said: Happy are we not to have mistaken you, for it is the Holy One, blessed be He, who sent you to us. He continued, Since good is meant for Yisrael, it will then have a portion in this world and the world to come to see the sight of glory eye to eye. It is written, "For they shall see eye to eye, Hashem returning to Tzion" (Yeshayah 52:8). Blessed be Hashem forever. Amen and amen.

1. "And Yehuda came near to him"

Rabbi Elazar discusses the role and meaning of the letters of the Aleph-Bet. Just as the Torah begins with Bet, so was the world and man created with this letter. The Nukva, we are told, is as the Father, always standing by to bless. The relationship between The Creator and the Nukva is also discussed in some detail, along with its importance for the recitation of blessings.

The Relevance of this Passage

Because Bet is the first letter in the word blessing, Bet was chosen to be the instrument of Creation. The Hebrew letters are very much like DNA--they are the spiritual genetic information through which all existence comes into being. Connecting to the letters through this passage brings renewal, rejuvenation, and the connection with the creative forces of divinity that give rise to the universe as a whole.

1. "Then Yehuda came near to him" (Beresheet 44:18). Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "You are our father, though Avraham be ignorant of us, and Yisrael acknowledge us not. You, Hashem, are our Father, our Redeemer; your name is from everlasting" (Yeshayah 63:16). This verse has already been explained, yet come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world, He did each day the work befitting it. When the sixth day arrived--the time for Adam to be created--the Torah came before Him and said: 'Adam, whom you want to create, will provoke you. Unless You curb Your wrath, it would be better for him not to be created.' The Holy One, blessed be He, asked: 'Am I called long-suffering for no reason?'

1. וַיִּגַּשׁ אֵלָיו יְהוּדָה וּגו', רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר פָּתַח, בִּי אֲתָה אָבִינוּ בִּי אֲבָרְהָם לֹא יִדְעֵנוּ וְיִשְׂרָאֵל לֹא יִבְיָרְנוּ אֲתָה ה' אָבִינוּ גּוֹאֲלֵנוּ מֵעוֹלָם שְׁמֶךָ. הָאִי קָרָא אוֹקְמוּהָ אָבֵל תָּא חֲזִי, בַּד בְּרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא עֲלֵמָא, בַּל יוֹמָא וְיוֹמָא, עֵבִיד עֲבִידְתָּא, בְּדָקָא חֲזִי, בְּכָל יוֹמָא וְיוֹמָא כְּמָה דְאַצְטְרִיךְ, בֵּינָן דְאַתָּא יוֹמָא שְׁתִּיתָאָה, וְאַצְטְרִיךְ לְמַבְרֵי אָדָם, אֲתָת אוֹרִייתָא קַמִּיהָ, אֲמַרְהָ הָאִי אָדָם דְאַתָּ בְּעֵי לְמַבְרֵי, זְמִין הוּא לְאַרְגּוּזָא קַמְךָ, אֲלֵמָלָא לֹא תֵאָרִיךְ רוּגּוּזָא, טַב לִיהָ דְלֹא יִתְבָּרִי. אֲמַר לָהּ קַב"ה, וְכִי לְמַגְנָא אֲתַקְרִינָא אַרְךָ אַפִּים.

2. All was created through the medium of the Torah, and constructed by means of the Torah. AND AS THE TORAH BEGINS WITH THE LETTER BET, SO WAS THE WORLD CREATED WITH THE LETTER BET. For before the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world--THE NUKVA--all the letters were presented before him one by one, in reverse order.

2. אֵלָא, בְּלֹא בְּאוֹרִייתָא אֲתַבְּרִי, וְכֹלָא בְּאוֹרִייתָא אֲשַׁתְּכֵלִיל, בְּגִין דְּעַד לֹא בְּרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא עֲלֵמָא, אֲתִיּוּן כָּל אֲתוּוּן קַמִּיהָ, וְעָאֵלוּ כָּל חַד וְחַד לְמַפְרַע.

3. Tav came before him and said: 'Would you create the world through me? The Holy One, blessed be He, responded: "No, for many righteous people are destined to die through you, in accordance with the verse, "and set a mark (Heb. tav) upon the foreheads of the men" (Yechezkel 9:4). We have also learned this from the verse, "and begin with my sanctuary" (Ibid. 6), in which the word 'sanctuary' should be read as 'sanctified'-WHO ARE THE RIGHTEOUS. The world therefore will not be created through you."

3. עָאֵלַת תַּי"ו, אֲמַרְהָ קַמִּיהָ, רַעוּתְךָ לְמַבְרֵי בִי עֲלֵמָא, א"ל לָאו, דְּבַךְ זְמִינִין כְּמָה צְדִיקָא לְמִימַת, דְּכִתִּיב וְהִתְוִיַת תַּי"ו עַל מַצְחוֹת הָאֲנָשִׁים וּגו'. וְתִנְיָנָן, דְּכִתִּיב וּמִמְקַדְשֵׁי תַחֲלוּ אֵל תַּקְרִי מִמְקַדְשֵׁי אֵלָא מִמְקוּדְשֵׁי וּבְגִין כֵּךְ עֲלֵמָא לֹא יִתְבָּרִי בְךָ.

4. The three letters Shin, Kuf, and Resh came before him, each on its own. The Holy One, blessed be He said: 'It is not worthwhile to create the world by you, for you are the letters which combine to create the word 'lie' (Heb. sheker), and no lie deserves to rise before me,' as has already been explained.

4. עָאֵלוּ תַלַּת אֲתוּוּן: שִׁין, קוּף, רִישׁ, כָּל חַד וְחַד בְּלַחֲדוּי, א"ל קוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, לָאו אֲתוּן בְּדָאִי, לְמַבְרֵי בְּכוּ עֲלֵמָא, דְּהָא אֲתוּן אֲתוּוּן דְאַתְקְרִי בְּכוּ שְׁקֵר, וְשְׁקֵר לָאו אִיהוּ בְּדָאִי לְמִיקָם קַמָּאִי, וְהָא אוֹקְמוּהָ.

5. Then came the letters Pey and Tzadik, and so on until the letter Caf. Once Caf descended from the Crown (Heb. keter), the higher and lower worlds shook until all was established using the letter Bet, a sign of blessing (Heb. beracha)--and the world was created and constructed by it.

5. וְעָלוּ פ"א צַדִּיק, וְכֵן כְּלָהוּ, עַד דְּמָטוּ אֲתוּוּן לְאָת כ"ף, בֵּינָן דְּנִחַת כ"ף מֵעַל בְּתַרָּא, אוֹדְעֵזְעוּ עֲלָאִי וְתַתָּאִי כו', עַד דְאַתְקִיּוּם כָּלָא בָּאת בִּי"ת, דְּאִיהוּ סִימָן בְּרַכָּה, וּבִיָּה אֲשַׁתְּכֵלֵל עֲלֵמָא וְאַתְבָּרִי.

6. You may say that Aleph is the first letter, and THAT THE WORLD should have BEEN CREATED THROUGH IT. HE ANSWERS: True, but because the word damned (Heb. arur) begins with the letter Aleph, the world was not created through it. Thus, although Aleph pertains to a Supernal Secret, the world was not created by means of it, so that no opening--NAMELY, POWER AND STRENGTH--could be given to Other Side, called 'damned'. Rather, the world was constructed and created by Bet.

7. Come and behold: "You are our father" means that this world--THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'YOU'--was constructed and created in this grade, MARKED BY BLESSING. SIMILARLY, THE WORLD WAS CREATED AND CONSTRUCTED THROUGH BET, WHICH WAS A SIGN OF BLESSING. Man was also created through it--THROUGH THE SIGN OF BLESSING--and was issued into the world. THEREFORE, IN THIS RESPECT, THE NUKVA WAS CONSIDERED THE ROOT OF MAN, AND WE ADDRESS HER AS 'YOU ARE OUR FATHER'--THAT IS, 'YOU ARE OUR ROOT'. HUMANKIND TOO WAS CREATED WITH THE MARK OF BLESSING.

8. The verse, "though Avraham be ignorant of us," means that although the world is sustained by him, THE SECRET OF CHESED--AS IT IS WRITTEN, "THE WORLD IS BUILT BY CHESED" (TEHILIM 89:3)--he nevertheless did not care for us as he did for Yishmael, as it is written, "O that Yishmael might live before you" (Beresheet 17:18). The verse continues, "and Yisrael acknowledge us not," for all the blessings he should have conferred on his sons, he let this grade--THE NUKVA--have to bless all. THUS, ACCORDING TO THE VERSES, "AND THIS IS THAT WHICH THEIR FATHER SPOKE TO THEM" (BERESHEET 49:28), THE NUKVA--CALLED 'THIS'--SPOKE ON BEHALF OF THEIR FATHER AND BLESSED THEM. ALSO WHEN HE BLESSED EPHRAIM AND MENASHE, HE SAID, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "THE ANGEL WHO REDEEMED ME FROM ALL EVIL"--NAMELY, THE NUKVA- "BLESS THE BOYS" (BERESHEET 48:16).

9. "You, Hashem, are our Father"--NAMELY, THE NUKVA--always standing by to bless and care for us, like a father taking care of the needs of children; "our Redeemer; your name is from everlasting," for You (THE NUKVA) are our Redeemer--she is called 'the angel who redeemed'. Thus, in the phrase, "our Redeemer; your name is from everlasting," "your name" is assuredly THE NUKVA CALLED 'THE NAME OF HASHEM'. We have learned that we should not stop between reciting the blessings, "who has redeemed Yisrael," and the Amidah; or between the blessing of the hand Tefilin and that of the head Tefilin--as has already been explained.

2. Nefesh, Ruach, and Neshamah

Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yehuda explore the idea that all details in the lower world have a counterpart in the Upper World, and that the creation of Adam is the culmination of the entire process of creation. The rabbis then discuss the nature of the emanations known as the Sfirot of The Creator, which gives rise to an extraordinary description of the qualities of the human soul. The three grades of the soul--Ruach, Nefesh, and Neshamah--are discussed and eventually agreed upon.

The Relevance of this Passage

Every action in this physical dimension has a corresponding influence in the Upper Worlds. In truth, both worlds are actually one reality; they are like reflections in a mirror. This passage stimulates the high spiritual realms in which the Light is aroused and then reflected back to us in the physical world to refine and perfect our souls. Perfection refers to the subjugation of the ego, and the transformation of the selfish desire to receive into a desire to receive for the sake of sharing. Because sharing is the nature of the Light, when we share we take on the nature of The Creator. In effect, we "become God." When a stone is returned to the mountain from which it was hewn, oneness is again achieved between the part and the whole. There is no distinguishing feature separating them any longer. This God-like nature is awakened within us as we connect to this passage.

8. כי אברהם לא ידענו, דהא אע"ג דביה קיומא דעלמא, לא אשתדל עלן, במה דאשתדל על ישמעאל, דאמר לו ישמעאל יחיה לפניך. וישראל לא יכירנו, בגין דכל ברכאן דאצטריך לברכא לבנוי, שבק להאי דרגא לברכא בלהו.

10. Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yehuda were studying the Torah one night. Rabbi Yitzchak said: We have learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe, He made the lower world after the pattern of the Supernal World, and MADE the one correspond to the other. EVERY DETAIL IN THE LOWER WORLD HAS A COUNTERPART IN THE UPPER WORLD. And He is its Glory, both above and below.

11. Rabbi Yehuda said: Assuredly it is so, and He created Adam above all, WHO INCLUDES AND COMPLETES ALL THE PARTS OF CREATION. This is the meaning of, "I have made the earth, and created man upon it" (Yeshayah 45:12). Surely HE DOES NOT NEED TO REMIND US that He made the earth--so why is it written, "I have made the earth?" Because I "created man upon it," who exists to complete its unification into one wholeness. THIS IS THE PURPOSE OF THE UNIVERSE, AND ITS PERFECTION IS MAN.

12. He opened the discussion with the verse: "Thus says El, Hashem, He that created the heavens, and stretched them out; He that spread forth the earth, and that which comes out of it; He that gives breath (also: 'soul') to the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein" (Yeshayah 42:5): This verse has already been explained. Nevertheless, "Thus says El, Hashem, He that created the heavens," refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, high above--NAMELY, BINAH--who "created the heavens," (ZEIR ANPIN), FOR BINAH continuously improves ZEIR ANPIN BY EMANATING AND GIVING HIM MOCHIN. "He that spread forth the earth, and that which comes out of it" -- namely, the Holy Land, the Bundle of Life, THE NUKVA --"gives a soul to the people upon it," is the land, THE NUKVA, that confers souls.

13. Rabbi Yitzchak said: It is all above IN BINAH. HE DISAGREES WITH RABBI YEHUDA, WHO SAID THAT THE PHRASE, "GIVES A SOUL TO THE PEOPLE UPON IT," ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA. For from there, BINAH, the soul of life comes out into the land, THE NUKVA. The land receives the soul and issues it to all, as the river that flows (ZEIR ANPIN) RECEIVES FROM BINAH, holds all the souls and issues them to everyone in the land, THE NUKVA. She receives and distributes them to all MEN WHO ARE WORTHY OF HER.

14. Come and behold: when the Holy One, blessed be He, created Adam, he gathered his dust from the four directions of the world. He created him on the site of the Lower Temple, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, and then drew upon him the soul of life from the Upper Temple--THE SECRET OF BINAH.

15. The soul consists of three grades and therefore has three names, just like the Supernal Secret, Nefesh, Ruach, and Neshamah. The Nefesh, as has been explained, is the lowest of them all AND COMES FROM THE NUKVA, THE LOWEST OF THE TEN SFIROT. The Ruach is its sustenance. It rules over the Nefesh, being of a higher grade, AND IS DRAWN FROM ZEIR ANPIN to sustain it well in everything--BOTH IN CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM. The Neshamah is the supreme existence--NAMELY, THE LIGHT OF BINAH, WHICH IS HIGHER THAN THE LIGHT OF ZEIR ANPIN AND THE LIGHT OF THE NUKVA, THE RUACH, AND THE NEFESH. It reigns over all, being a holy grade superior to all--TO RUACH AND NEFESH.

14. תא חזי, כד ברא קודשא בריך הוא ליה לאדם, אכניש עפריה, מארבע סטרין דעלמא, ועבד גרמיה באתר דמקדשא לתתא, ואמשיך עליה נשמתא דחיי מבי מקדשא לעילא.

16. The three grades, NEFESH, RUACH, AND NESHAMAH, are included within men, who attain them by serving their Master. Thus first, man has a Nefesh with which to be corrected. But when he is intent on purification through this grade, man is corrected and crowned with a Ruach, the holy grade that dwells on the Nefesh, with which the deserving man is adorned.

17. Once he is elevated by Nefesh and Ruach and attains correction through proper service to his Master, Neshamah, a supernal, holy grade that reigns over everything, dwells on him so that he may be adorned by the highest holy grade and be perfect in everything, on all sides, and thereby merit the world to come. He is then beloved of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "That I may cause those who love me to inherit substance" (Mishlei 8:21). "...those who love me" refers to those in whom the holy souls abides.

18. Rabbi Yehuda asked: If this is true, why is it written, "all in whose nostrils was the breath (Lit. 'the Neshamah') of life..." (Bereshheet 7:22)? IF THOSE WHO ATTAIN NESHAMAH ARE THE LOVERS OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHY DID THEY DIE DURING THE FLOOD? He replied: Surely THEY LOVED THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. From all those in whom there was a holy Neshamah, none--such as Chanoch or Yered, or the other righteous Ones--remained to protect the earth so it would not be destroyed in their merit. This is the meaning of, "all in whose nostrils was the breath (lit. 'Neshamah') of life, of all that was on the dry land, died"--they all had already died and departed from the world, and no one remained then to protect the world.

19. Come and behold: There are grades upon grades, Nefesh, Ruach, and Neshamah, grade above grade; first Nefesh, being the lowest grade, as we said, then Ruach, which dwells on Nefesh and is above it. Neshamah is the highest grade, as has already been explained.

20. Nefesh is David's Nefesh, THE NUKVA, which receives the Nefesh from the river that flows (NAMELY, FROM ZEIR ANPIN). Ruach stands over the on Nefesh, which cannot exist without the Ruach, which dwells between fire and water, NAMELY, TIFERET, THE CENTRAL COLUMN BETWEEN GVURAH, CALLED 'FIRE', AND CHESED, CALLED 'WATER'. From here Nefesh is nourished.

21. Ruach depends for its existence on yet a higher grade called 'Neshamah', which is the origin of both Ruach and Nefesh, NAMELY, THE LIGHT OF BINAH, FROM WHICH ORIGINATES THE LIGHT OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'RUACH', AND THE LIGHT OF THE NUKVA CALLED 'NEFESH'. The Ruach is nourished from them. When Ruach travels, Nefesh also travels, and all is one. They approach each other, Nefesh to Ruach and Ruach to Neshamah, and are all one.

22. Come and behold: "...came near to him" refers to the one world approaching the other world, THE ADVANCEMENT OF THE LOWER WORLD, THE NUKVA, THE ASPECT OF NEFESH CALLED 'YEHUDA', TOWARD THE UPPER WORLD, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE ASPECT OF RUACH CALLED 'YOSEF', so that all becomes one. Because both Yehuda and Yosef were kings, they approached each other and joined together.

22. תָּא חֲזִי, וַיִּגַּשׁ אֵלָיו, תְּקַרְבָּתָא דְעֵלְמָא בְּעֵלְמָא, לְאַתְאַחְדָּא דָּא בְּדָא, לְמַדּוּי כְּלָא חַד, בְּגִין דִּיהוּדָה אִיהוּ מֶלֶךְ, וַיּוֹסֵף מֶלֶךְ, אֶתְקָרְיבוּ דָּא בְּדָא, וְאַתְאַחֲדוּ דָּא בְּדָא.

3. "For the Kings were assembled"

Rabbis Yehuda and Chiya discourse on the meeting of the Kings, Yehuda and Yosef, which symbolizes the union of the Supernal World--Zeir Anpin--and the Lower World of Malchut. The section explores the significance of the unity of Male and Female, and the conditions most conducive atonement for sins. The positive effects of the symbolic meeting of the Kings is emphasized.

The Relevance of this Passage

Humanity shares important attributes of the moon: like the moon, we generate no light of our own. Just as lunar light is derived from the sun, man's spiritual Light is derived from the bordering dimension known as Zeir Anpin. Light can only flow when these two worlds are enjoined, just as a lamp can only illuminate when connected to electrical current. On a metaphysical level, woman corresponds to Malchut and male denotes the realm of Zeir Anpin. Intimate relations between man and woman thus join Malchut and Zeir Anpin in this world as well as in the Upper Realms. This pleasure that accompanies this union is the Light of the Upper Worlds filling Malchut. When our consciousness is directed towards revealing this spiritual Light during sexual relations, the entire world is brightened and elevated. This section of Zohar raises our consciousness so that we can transform the sexual act into a force for bringing down Light, rather than as a tool of darkness. Moreover, the Light that is evoked through sexual union shines around the world as we meditate upon this passage.

23. Rabbi Yehuda began the discussion with the verse, "For the kings were assembled" (Tehilim 48:5): These are Yehuda and Yosef, who were both kings. The two of them came together to dispute, because Yehuda became surety for Binyamin and pledged himself before his father in this world and the world to come. He therefore came to argue with Yosef on account of Binyamin, so he would not be banned from this world and the world to come, as it is written, "I will be surety for him; of my hand shall you require him: If I bring him not to you, and set him before you" (Berehsit 43:9), "...then I shall have sinned to my father for ever" (Beresheet 44:32) in this world and the world to come.

24. Therefore, "the kings were assembled, they came on together" means that they quarreled together and were angry with each other because of Binyamin. Then, it is written, "As soon as they saw, they were astounded; they were affrighted; they rushed away. Fear took hold of them there" (Tehilim 48:6), of all them who were there.

24. וְעַל דָּא, כִּי הִנֵּה הַמְּלָכִים נֹעְדוּ עָבְרוּ יַחְדָּיו, אֶתְרָגִּיזוּ כְּחָדָא, וְאַתְרָגִּיזוּ דָּא בְּדָא, בְּגִינֵיהּ דְּבִנְיָמִין. מַה כְּתִיב, הִמָּה רָאוּ כִּן תְּמַדּוּ נִבְהָלוּ נִחַפְזוּ רַעְדָּה אַחֲזָתָם שָׁם, לְכָל אִינוּן דִּהוּוּ תַּמָּן.

25. "...and pain, like a woman in travail" (Tehilim 48:7), for they were fearful lest they would kill or be killed on account of Binyamin. For Yosef was sold by Yehuda and was lost to his father. Now that he became surety for Binyamin, he was fearful lest he would perish. Thus, it is written, "Yehuda came near to him."

25. חֵיל כְּפִיּוּלְדָּה, בְּגִין דִּהוּוּ דְחָלִין, לְקַטְלָא, וְלְאַתְקַטְלָא, וְכֹלָא בְּגִינֵיהּ דְּבִנְיָמִין, דְּהָא יוֹסֵף אֲזַדְבָּן בְּגִינֵיהּ דִּיהוּדָה, וְאַתְאַבִּיד מֵאָבוּי. וְהִשְׁתָּא אֶתְעָרַב בֵּיהּ בְּבִנְיָמִין, וְדְחִיל דְּלֹא יִתְאַבִּיד, וּבְגִין כֶּךָ וַיִּגַּשׁ אֵלָיו יְהוּדָה.

26. Another explanation of the verse, "the kings were assembled," is that Yehuda and Yosef came to debate with each other as kings. They met to discuss, the one with the other-the one about Binyamin and the other about Binyamin. [THIS PARAGRAPH IS REDUNDANT, AND THE EXPLANATION IS CONTINUED IN THE NEXT PARAGRAPH.]

26. ד"א, כִּי הִנֵּה הַמְּלָכִים נֹעְדוּ, דָּא יְהוּדָה וַיּוֹסֵף, דְּאֲזַדְמְנוּ לְאַתְוּבַחָא דָּא עִם דָּא, לְאַתְוּבַחָא תְרוּוּיָהוּ כְּחָדָא, בְּגִין דִּיהוּדָה הוּהוּ מֶלֶךְ, וַיּוֹסֵף הוּהוּ מֶלֶךְ, וְתְרוּוּיָהוּ אֲתוּ כְּחָדָא, לְאַתְוּבַחָא דָּא עִם דָּא. דָּא עַל בְּנִיָּמִין, וְדָא עַל בְּנִיָּמִין.

27. Rabbi Yehuda said: "...the kings" alludes to the secret of faith, THE NUKVA. For when desire was revealed and union adorned IN MALE AND FEMALE, both the MALE AND FEMALE worlds were joined together--the one, ZEIR ANPIN, to open the treasure, TO SPREAD IT, and the other, THE NUKVA, to gather and collect PLENTY within it. Then "the kings were assembled, they came on together," both worlds, the Supernal World, ZEIR ANPIN, and the Lower World, THE NUKVA.

28. "...they came on together (also: 'passed')," for no sin in the world is atoned for until THE MALE AND THE FEMALE are united, as it is written, "and forgives (lit. 'passes upon') the transgression" (Michah 7:18), and also "they passed together," the sins passed, because, WITH THE ILLUMINATION OF UNITY, all faces shine and all sins are atoned for.

29. Rabbi Chiya said: The secret of this verse applies to correction through offering, for when a sacrifice is offered, everyone receives their provision, each according to what he deserves, and then all is joined as one, all faces shine, and one bond prevails--NAMELY, ONE UNION. Then, "the kings were assembled" to atone for transgressions and make them pass away. When, "the kings were assembled," MALE AND FEMALE, and were connected, "they passed together"--NAMELY, they atoned for their sins so as to cause all faces to shine and make all of one accord.

30. "As soon as they saw, they were astounded" (Tehilim 58:5-6). HE ASKS: Could it be that the kings SAW AND WERE ASTOUNDED? HE REPLIED: NOT THEY, but the accusers, who delight in executing justice, according to orders they receive. When the kings were assembled with mutual wishes, "they saw" the wish of both worlds, MALE AND FEMALE, and "they were astounded, they were affrighted; they rushed away" because all the accusers were subdued and passed out of the world, for they cannot rule. Both their existence and their government were then interrupted.

31. Rabbi Elazar said: "Then Yehuda came near to him." Why? HE ANSWERS: This is how it ought to have been, for he became surety, as it is written, "For your servant became surety for the boy." The secret is that Yehuda and Yosef should have approached each other simultaneously, because Yosef is righteous, NAMELY, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN and Yehuda is a king, NAMELY, MALCHUT, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. Therefore, "Then Yehuda came near to him," because their coming together produced many benefits for the world, resulted in peace among all the tribes, peace between themselves--BETWEEN YEHUDA AND YOSEF--and caused the spirit of Ya'akov to revive, as it is written, "the spirit of Ya'akov their father revived" (Beresheet 45:27). Hence, their joining together was needed by all sides, above and below.

27. כִּי הִנֵּה הַמְּלָכִים, אָמַר ר' יְהוּדָה, רָזָא דְמַהִימְנוּתָא הֵבָא, דְּהָא כִּד רַעוּתָא אֲשַׁתְּבַח, וְקִשּׁוּרָא אֲתַעֲטֵר בְּחָדָא, כְּדִין תְּרִין עֲלָמִין מִתְקַשְׁרִין בְּחָדָא, וְאִזְדַּמְנֵן בְּחָדָא. דָּא לְאַפְתָּחָא אוּצְרָא, וְדָא לְלִקְטָא וּלְמַכְנַשׁ בְּגוּיָה, וְכִדִּין כִּי הִנֵּה הַמְּלָכִים נוֹעְדוּ, תְּרִין עֲלָמִין קְדִישִׁין, עֲלָמָא עֲלָאָה, וְעֲלָמָא תַּתָּאָה.

4. "Beautiful for situation"

Next, Rabbi Aba further clarifies the meaning of this important passage, relating it to Yosef, then to the Sfirot, and finally to "the Great King." In a beautiful manner, he shows how the secret of faith itself is embodied here.

The Relevance of this Passage

Ten dimensions [Sfirot] comprise our reality. The dimension known as Yesod neighbors our physical realm and it is the gateway through which all the spiritual energy of the Upper World flows into our world. Our connection to Yesod is strengthened by virtue of this passage, infusing our lives with tremendous amounts of positive energy.

32. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse, "Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth: Mount Tzion, the uttermost parts of the north, the city of the Great King" (Tehilim 48:3). This verse is the secret of faith: "Beautiful for situation" is Yosef the Righteous, of whom scripture says, "And Yosef was good looking, and well favored" (Beresheet 39:6); he is "the joy of the whole earth," the gladness and joy above and below; "Mount Tzion, the uttermost parts of the north" is his portion (YOSEF'S PORTION), where the tabernacle of Shilo stands; "Mount Tzion" is Jerusalem, NAMELY, THE NUKVA; "the uttermost parts of the north" is assuredly above and below, FOR BOTH THE UPPER TEMPLE, THE NUKVA, AND THE LOWER TEMPLE ARE CONSIDERED TO BE OF THE ASPECT OF THE NORTH, NAMELY, THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT OF BINAH, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH.

33. "...the city of the Great King" is a place prepared for the Great King, the most high King residing over the Holy of Holies, from whom all Light, Blessings, and Joy comes, so that all faces shine and the Temple is blessed. When it is blessed, the whole world is also blessed.

5. Sixty breaths

Rabbis Yehuda and Yosi, later joined by Rabbi Elazar, discuss the meaning of King David and midnight prayer. They are joined by a "commoner," Chizkiyah, whose name means, "strengthened by The Creator." He clarifies the meaning of David praying after midnight, and explores the grades of life and death, arriving at the profound understanding that it is through wisdom alone that everything in the world exists. We are introduced to the concept of the continually evolving nature of Heaven—and thus, to the continually evolving nature of perfection. Through a discussion of the Three Columns and some secrets of the Patriarchs, the rabbis return to King David, to the meaning and concept of his being alive in the present, and how such a miraculous event is possible.

The Relevance of this Passage

The mystical Light aroused during midnight prayer is invoked in our lives. This Light strengthens our soul and opens us to receive greater wisdom through spiritual learning and growth. Kabbalistic wisdom itself, including these very words, is also the sum and substance of spiritual Light. Therefore, each new lesson and each new insight makes us wiser and more pure.

34. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yosi met in the village of Chanan. While they were sitting at the inn, a man came with a baggage-laden mule and entered the house. Rabbi Yehuda was then saying to Rabbi Yosi: We have learned that King David slept like a horse and had little sleep. If this is true, how did he wake up at midnight? The portion OF SIXTY BREATHS OF A HORSE'S SLEEP is very brief, so he would have awakened before even a third of the night was over.

35. He replied: When night fell, he used to sit with the princes of his house to execute justice and study the Torah, WHICH MEANS, THAT HE DID NOT GO TO SLEEP WHEN NIGHT FELL, BUT CLOSER TO MIDNIGHT. He then slept until midnight, when he woke and rose to worship his Master with songs and hymns.

36. The man interposed and asked: Is this what you think? This is the secret of the matter: King David is alive and exists forever and ever. King David was careful to avoid a foretaste of death; and because sleep is a sixtieth part of death, King David, whose domain is the Living, slept only sixty breaths. For up to sixty breaths less one, it is living; from then on, man tastes death, and the side of the impure spirit reigns over him.

37. King David guarded himself from tasting death, lest the side of the impure spirit obtain control over him. For sixty breaths minus one are the Secret of Supernal Life. The first sixty breaths are the supernal sixty breaths, whose secret is that life depends on them. From then downward, it is the secret of death.

38. Therefore King David would measure the night UNTIL MIDNIGHT, so as to remain alive, lest the foretaste of death dominate him. At midnight, David would be in his domain, IN HIS GRADE, WHICH IS LIFE AND EXISTENCE, BY WAKING UP AND UTTERING CHANTS AND HYMNS. For when midnight stirred and the Holy Crown, THE NUKVA, was awakened, David did not wish to be found connected to another domain, the domain of death.

39. When midnight comes Supernal Holiness is awakened, but man is asleep in his bed and does not awaken to regard the glory of his Master; he becomes attached to the secret of death and cleaves to another domain, TO THE OTHER SIDE. King David therefore always woke at midnight, careful of the glory of his Master, alive before the Living One, and he would never sleep long enough to taste death. Thus, he slept like the sixty breaths of a horse-sixty breaths LESS ONE.

35. אָמַר לִיה, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְעָאֵל לִילֵיא, הוּה יְתִיב עִם כָּל רַבְרָבֵי בֵיתֵיה, וּדְאִין דִּינָא, וְעָסִיק בְּמִלּוֹ דְאוּרִייתָא, וּלְבַתֵּר הוּה נְאִים שִׁינְתִּיה עַד פְּלַגוֹת לִילִיה, וְקָם בְּפִלְגוֹת לִילֵיא, וְאַתְעַר, וְאַשְׁתַּדַּל בְּפוֹלְחָנָא דְמֵאֲרִיָּה, בְּשִׁירִין וְתוֹשְׁבָחִין.

40. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yosi came and kissed him, FOR HE REVEALED A NEW EXPLANATION CONCERNING MIDNIGHT PRAYER. They asked him: What is your name? He replied: Chizkiyah (lit. 'strengthened of Hashem'). They said to him: May you be strengthened and may your study of the Torah be augmented. They sat down. Rabbi Yehuda said: Since you have started, tell us more of the Supernal Mysteries to which you have made reference.

41. He opened the discussion with the verse, "Hashem by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding (Heb. tevunah) He established the heavens..." (Mishlei 3:19). Come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe, He saw that it could not exist, FOR THE UNIVERSE WAS CREATED UNDER THE REIGN OF THE LEFT COLUMN, THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM, AND CHOCHMAH CANNOT ILLUMINE WITHOUT CHASSADIM. THEREFORE IT COULD NOT EXIST until He created the Torah, THE CENTRAL COLUMN CALLED 'ZEIR ANPIN', ALSO CALLED 'TORAH'. HE CAUSED THE TWO COLUMNS, RIGHT AND LEFT, TO BE INCLUDED WITHIN EACH OTHER, AND CHOCHMAH WAS INCLUDED WITHIN CHASSADIM. THEN CHOCHMAH ILLUMINATED, from the Torah--NAMELY, FROM THE CENTRAL COLUMN--all the laws issued by the Upper and Lower Worlds, which are supported by it. THIS IS THE MEANING OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI AND ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN: as it is written, "by wisdom founded the earth...." HE FOUNDED THE EARTH BY WISDOM, CLOTHING CHOCHMAH IN CHASSADIM, SO THAT THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH REMAINED IN THE WORLD. Through wisdom everything in the world exists, and everything derives from it, AS IT IS WRITTEN, "IN WISDOM HAVE YOU MADE THEM ALL" (TEHILIM 104:24).

42. Another explanation of "Hashem by wisdom founded the earth" is that the Upper World, TEVUNAH, was created only by Chochmah, and the Lower World, THE NUKVA, was created only by the lower Chochmah, CHOCHMAH CLOTHED BY THE NUKVA. Thus it seems that they were all issued from the upper and lower Chochmah. "...by understanding (Heb. tevunah), He established the heavens..." HE ASKS: What does it mean by "established"? HE ANSWERS: "...established" REFERS TO TEVUNAH, WHICH ESTABLISHES ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'HEAVEN', every day. They were not mended at one time; rather, He perfects them day by day.

43. This is the secret of the verse, "and the heavens are not clean in His sight" (Iyov 15:15). Could you think it a derogation of the heavens? On the contrary, it is to the advantage of the heavens: for it is because of the love and great passion that the Holy One, blessed be He (WHO IS TEVUNAH), bears for the heavens (ZEIR ANPIN), that He views them as not perfect enough. It is for the love of them and because of His desire to shine continuously upon them. HE EXPLAINS: The world to come, TEVUNAH, radiates scintillating light every day without cessation to illuminate them always. Therefore, they are "not clean in His sight." It does not say 'not clean,' but rather, "not clean in His sight." THIS INDICATES THAT, ALTHOUGH THEY ARE IN REALITY CLEAN, BECAUSE OF HIS DESIRE TO SHOWER ABUNDANCE UPON THEM, THEY ARE NOT CONSIDERED CLEAN TO HIM, AS HAS BEEN EXPLAINED. Thus, THE SCRIPTURE READS, "by understanding He established the heavens."

40. אתו רבי יהודה ורבי יוסי, ונשקוה, אמרו ליה, מה שמך, א"ל חזקיה, א"ל יתיישר חילך, ויתתקף אורייתך, יתיבו, אמר רבי יהודה, הואיל ושרית, אימא לן מהני רזין עלאין דקאמרת.

44. HE ASKS: What are the heavens IN THE VERSE, "BY UNDERSTANDING HE ESTABLISHED THE HEAVENS"? HE REPLIS: They are the secret of the Patriarchs-CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. The secret of the Patriarchs is Ya'akov, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, TIFERET, who includes them all--AS THE CENTRAL COLUMN INCLUDES THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, THE SECRET OF AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. For it is Ya'akov, the most splendid of the fathers, who causes THE NUKVA to shine on the world.

45. When he ascended to the world to come, THAT IS, ASCENDED AND CLOTHED YISRAEL AND SABA, CALLED 'THE WORLD TO COME', THE SECRET OF COVERED CHASSADIM, WHICH IS WHY THERE IS NO PLACE IN HIM FOR THE REVELATION OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH; a branch came out from him, beautiful to the sight, BY THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH, CALLED 'SIGHT' AND 'VISION'. And all the lights, BOTH CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM, radiated from it, as did the abundance and the anointing oil needed to illuminate the land, THE NUKVA. What is THIS BRANCH? It is Yosef, the Righteous, who gives abundance, THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, to the whole world, which is sustained by him, BY THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM. Therefore whatever the Holy One, blessed be He, does has meaning, and all is as it should be.

46. While they were talking, Rabbi Elazar came. When he saw them he said: Assuredly the Shechinah is here. What are you discussing? They told him what happened WITH THE MAN AND HIS WORDS. He said: He spoke well. HE NOW EXPLAINED ABOUT the sixty breaths. THE SIX HOURS BEFORE MIDNIGHT PERTAIN TO LIFE, both above IN THE UPPER WORLD WHERE THE SECRET OF THE CHEST-AND-ABOVE OF THE NUKVA IS, and below IN THIS WORLD. From then on, after midnight, there are sixty other breaths, which are CHESED-GVURAH-TIFERET-NETZACH-HOD-YESOD OF THE CHEST-AND-BELOW, all on the side of death, and the grade of death is upon them. They are called 'Dormita' ('sleep'), and all of them taste of death.

47. King David therefore cleaved to the sixty breaths of life, NAMELY, THE SIX HOURS BEFORE MIDNIGHT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF ABOVE THE CHEST, WHERE THE POWER OF JUDGMENT AND DEATH, WHICH IS IN THE CHEST, CANNOT REACH. But afterward, he slept not at all. This is the meaning of, "I will not give sleep to my eyes, slumber to my eyelids" (Tehilim 132:4). Thus THAT MAN spoke well, as David should be considered alive. He is on the side of the living and not on the side of death. Then, they all joined together to study the Torah.

48. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse: "Hashem the Elohim of my salvation, when I cry in the night before you" (Tehilim 88:2). Come and behold: King David used to rise at midnight and study the Torah and delight the King and the Queen with songs and praises. This is the joy of Faith on the earth, for it is the praise of Faith, THE SHECHINAH, that is seen on earth.

49. For numerous holy angels joyously begin to sing above, praising at night on all sides, EVEN IN THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, FOR THEN THE NUKVA REIGNS, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "SHE RISES ALSO WHILE IT IS YET NIGHT" (MISHLEI 31:15). It is likewise below on earth, for the Holy One, blessed be He, takes pleasure in whoever on earth praises Him at night, and all the holy angels who praise the Holy One, blessed be He, listen to the man who praises THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, at night on earth. For this chanting increases the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, from below, and sings joyously in unison.

50. Come and behold: King David wrote, "Hashem the Elohim of my salvation," which means, when is HASHEM the Elohim of my salvation? He is my salvation by day, after I first sang to You by night. Then is He my salvation by day.

52. Thus, he said: "The dead cannot praise Yah" (Tehilim 115:17), because it is the living who should praise the Living, and not the dead, as it is written, "The dead cannot praise Yah." "But we will bless Yah" (Ibid.), for we are living and have no part of death. Chizkiah said: "The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do" (Yeshayah 38:19), for the living has a connection with the Living. So is King David living, and he came near the One who lives forever. And whoever approaches THE ONE LIVING FOREVER, is living, as it is written: "But you that did cleave of Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day" (Devarim 4:4), and "And Bnyahu the son of Yehoyada, the son of a living man, of Kavtze'el" (II Shmuel 23:20).

6. "And you shall eat and be satisfied, and bless"

Chizkiyah resolves the apparent contradiction that exists in the scriptural injunction that we should not eat before the first prayer of the morning, and the injunction urging us to give the blessing only after the meal. This leads to greater appreciation of the weighty task that The Creator has taken on in providing his children with longevity and nourishment. We learn that the providing depends on Mazel (Eng. 'luck', here imbued with an astrological dimension), not merit--a complex and difficult mystery that is somewhat clarified here, leading to both a firmer grasp of the inherent mysteries that lie within the mystical union of Male and Female, and also to a clarification of the secrets contained within the vitally important act of Yosef and Yehuda approaching one another.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Hebrew word Mazel is usually translated as "luck", but it really means "sign"--as in the signs of the constellations. We are born into this world under a specific celestial influence, as determined by deeds in past lives. We can rise above any negative influences of these signs by evoking the Light through prayer, blessing, and meditation upon these mystical passages of the Zohar.

53. The Jew then continued with the verse, "And you shall eat and be satisfied, and bless Hashem your Elohim" (Devarim 8:10). HE ASKS: Do not we bless the Holy One, blessed be He, before eating? Indeed we should rise early in the morning to recite His praises in the proper order, before we greet any other in the world. It is also written, "You shall not eat anything with the blood" (Vayikra 19:26), WHICH HAS ALREADY BEEN EXPLAINED, AS it is forbidden to eat before blessing one's Master. Yet now it is written, "And you shall eat and be satisfied, and bless," WHICH MEANS IT BEHOOVES ONE TO BLESS ONLY AFTER THE MEAL.

54. HE ANSWERS: The blessings we recite before eating are prayers for unity BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE, while those we recite after eating HAVE TWO PURPOSES--(1), to show proper satiation before the grade of faith, THE NUKVA, AND (2), to bless her properly, so that THE GRADE OF FAITH shall be well watered, blessed and filled with joy from the supernal life as much as needed, and thus will confer sustenance upon us.

55. For providing man's food is as heavy a task for the Holy One, blessed be He, as the cleaving of the Sea of Reeds (the Red Sea). Why? Because all nourishment of the world come from above. We have learned that children, longevity, and nourishment depend NOT UPON MERIT, but upon mazal. Therefore daily sustenance is a heavy task for Him, for it depends upon mazal, from whence children, longevity, and sustenance are derived. Daily sustenance is hard for Him, because one does not have them before being blessed BY MAZAL.

56. Similarly, arranging marriages is a heavy task for Him, and everything, CHILDREN AS WELL AS LONGEVITY AND SUSTENANCE, occurs because the firmament is a curtain that serves no purpose. All the more so CHILDREN, LIFE, AND SUSTENANCE, which abide above in another place. It therefore needs to be blessed TO RECEIVE FROM THENCE.

57. Come and behold: The arranging of marriages is hard for this grade, THE NUKVA, for when union occurs, WHICH BEGETS SOULS, all the souls emerge from the upper mazal, which is the river that flows FROM EDEN--NAMELY, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. And when there is a desire TO DRAW from below upward--TO WIT, TO DRAW CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS ONLY DRAWN FROM BELOW UPWARD--the souls soar TO THE NUKVA and become in this grade comprehensive of male and female together. They are then separated, so that each goes its appointed place. Later the grade finds it hard to reunite them--THE MALE AND THE FEMALE--as before, because they are only united through men's behavior, and everything depends on what is above.

54. אלא, דא ברכתא דצלותא דיחודא, ודא ברכתא דמזונא, לאחזאה לגבי דרגא דמהימנותא, שבע בדקא יאות. וכדין בעי לברכא ליה בדקא יאות, דההוא דרגא דמהימנותא, יתרוי, ויברך, ויתמלא חירו מחיין דלעילא, במה דאצטריך, בגין למיהב לן מזוני.

58. Therefore marriages are as hard for Him to arrange as the cleaving of the Red Sea, for the Red Sea was cleaved to open high roads above that then opened and cleft ways and roads below.

59. Therefore everything depends on the high region, FOR THE NUKVA HAS NOTHING OF HERSELF AFTER SHE IS DIMINISHED, and we should bless her, and give her strength from above, so she will be blessed AND RECEIVE from above, FROM ZEIR ANPIN, and be well strengthened. Therefore it is written, "and bless Hashem," with the particle 'Et' before 'Hashem', FOR IT ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA CALLED 'ET'.

60. We should show before this place, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, satisfaction and shining faces, and to the Other Side, when it reigns in the world, it behooves us to show ourselves famished, for the grade OF THE OTHER SIDE is hunger, and we should look hungry before it instead of well-fed, because satiation does not rule over the world BECAUSE OF IT. It is therefore written, "And you shall eat and be satisfied, and bless Hashem your Elohim," AS WHEN HOLINESS REIGNS, THERE IS PLENTY IN THE WORLD. Rabbi Elazar said: Assuredly it is so, and so should it be THAT PLENTY ABOUND WITH THE RULE OF HOLINESS, AND FAMINE WITH THE REIGN OF THE OTHER SIDE.

61. Rabbi Yehuda said: Happy are the righteous, whose coming together brings peace into the world, for they know how to bring unison and approach each other to increase peace in the world. For until Yosef and Yehuda came near each other, there was no peace. Once they came near each other, peace increased in the world. Joy abounded above and below, when Yosef and Yehuda approached each other, and all the tribes joined Yosef. The coming together caused peace to abound in the world, as we have explained in relation to the verse, "Then Yehuda came near to him."

7. "And Yosef could not restrain himself"

We receive an introduction to the types of men who descended from Adam, and how each type can bring merit and benefit to the others--just as the beneficiary or "carrier" of charity gains merit in the same degree as the giver. This powerful analogy leads to further discussion of the relationship between "Charity Carrier" and the analogous Sfirot that exist above our physical realm. To assist our understanding of its inherent mystery, unity is explored as it exists within a theme of mating--specifically the mating of the Holy One with Yisrael. In the illumination following this supreme Union, all can be blessed.

The Relevance of this Passage

When a man and woman join together in sexual union within the spiritual confines of marriage, their connection creates a stirring above: the Lower World embraces the Upper World and Divine Light fills all. But the man and woman must be pure of thought and joined by love. Their union must be accompanied by a consciousness to share pleasure for the purpose of creating Light for each other and the world.

58. ועל דא קשין קמיה בקריעת ים סוף, דהא קריעת ימא, לאתפתחא ביה שבילין, לעילא איהו, וכמה דמתפתחין שבילין ואורחין ביה, הכי אתבקע ואתפתח.

59. ובג"כ, כלא תליא לעילא, ובעינן לברכא ליה, ולמיהב ליה תוקפא מתתא, בגין דיתברכא מלעילא, ויתתקף בדקא חזי, ועל דא כתיב, וברכת את ה', את דייקא.

62. "Then Yosef could not restrain himself before all them that stood by him ..." (Bereshheet 45:1). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honor" (Tehilim 112:9). Come and behold: The Holy One, blessed be He, created the world and made Adam ruler over it-to be king over all.

63. From man, four types of men branched out-some righteous and some wicked, some stupid and some wise. Of these, some were rich and some poor. They can bring merit and benefit to each other. The righteous can benefit the wicked BY CAUSING THEM TO REPENT THEIR SINS; the wise can benefit the foolish BY TEACHING THEM SENSE; the rich can benefit the poor BY SUPPORTING THEM IN THEIR NEED. Through these actions, man merits life everlasting and attaches himself to the Tree of Life. THEREFORE, THE SCRIPTURE READS, "HE HAS DISTRIBUTED FREELY, HE HAS GIVEN TO THE POOR." Moreover, this charity he dispenses stands forever, NAMELY, THE NUKVA ESTABLISHED BY IT IS CALLED 'EVER', as it is written, "and his charity endures for ever" (Tehilim 112:9).

64. "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor." Rabbi Elazar said: When the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe, He established it upon one pillar named righteous, NAMELY, YESOD. The righteous is the support of the world; THAT IS, HE SUPPORTS THE NUKVA CALLED 'WORLD'. It is he who gives water, NAMELY, THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, and food, THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM, to all, as it is written, "And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and branched into four streams" (Bereshheet 2:10). THIS IS YESOD NAMED 'RIVER'.

65. In the verse, "and from thence it was parted," what is the meaning of the word 'parted'? HE ANSWERS: It is the food and drink from that river that the garden receives, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. Then drink is further distributed into the four directions of the universe, SO THAT ALL INHABITANTS OF THE WORLD RECEIVE WATER FROM HER AND NONE REMAINS THIRSTY. How many wait for food and drink from there, as it is written, "The eyes of all wait upon you; and you give them their food in due season" (Tehilim 145:15). Thus, the verse, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor," alludes to the righteous, YESOD, WHICH DISTRIBUTES AND GIVES ALL OF CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM, AND SUPPORTS ALL THE POOR OF THE WORLD. The verse, "and his charity endures for ever," refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA CALLED 'CHARITY', which, because SHE RECEIVES EVERYTHING FROM YESOD, stands united in the secret of peace. THUS, SHE STANDS FOREVER. "The wicked man shall see it, and be vexed," (Tehilim 112:10) alludes to the kingdom of the idolatrous, MALCHUT OF THE OTHER SIDE, WHICH THEN ENVIES THE MALCHUT OF HOLINESS.

66. Come and behold: The kingdom of heaven, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, is the Temple. It shelters all the poor under the shadow of the Shechinah; the righteous. YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN is called 'charity collector', because he bestows sustenance upon everybody, NAMELY, THE POOR UNDER THE SHADOW OF THE SHECHINAH. Therefore the charity collectors receive as much a reward as those who gave them donations, BEING A CHARIOT TO YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'CHARITY COLLECTOR', WHICH INCLUDES ALL THE SFIROT ABOVE IT.

67. Come and behold: "Then Yosef could not restrain himself before all them that stood by him," who waited to receive food and drink from him. YESOD, CALLED 'YOSEF', COULD NOT RESTRAIN ITSELF FROM SHOWERING ABUNDANCE UPON THEM. IN THE VERSE, "And no man stood with him, while Yosef made himself known to his brethren," the words "with him" allude to the congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, WITH WHOM NO ONE STOOD; "WHILE..." REFERS TO THE TIME OF MATING, AS MATING IS CALLED 'KNOWLEDGE'; "his brethren" are the other Chariots and Legions, of whom it is written, "For my brethren and companions' sakes" (Tehilim 122:8), BECAUSE HE MATED WITH THE NUKVA SO HE COULD GIVE THEM ABUNDANCE. WE LEARN FROM THE VERSE THAT "WHILE YOSEF MADE HIMSELF KNOWN"--WHEN YOSEF UNITED WITH THE SHECHINAH--HE DID IT FOR HIS BROTHERS' SAKES, SINCE "TO" MEANS "FOR THE SAKE OF." Another explanation of "And no man stood with him" concerns the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, approached the congregation of Yisrael to mate with her. The verse, "while Yosef made himself known to his brethren," refers to the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, joined Yisrael, THAT IS, WHEN THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WAS UNITED WITH YISRAEL, "NO MAN STOOD" OF THE OTHER NATIONS "WITH HIM," WHEN HE MATED WITH THE NUKVA. For they alone received THE ILLUMINATION OF UNION, without connection to the other idolatrous nations. Hence it is written, "On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly" (Bemidbar 29:35), for at that time the Holy One, blessed be He, is united with Yisrael alone, of whom it is written, "for my brethren and companions' sakes..."

68. Rabbi Yisa continued: Of the time when the Holy One, blessed be He, raises the congregation of Yisrael from the dust AT THE TIME OF REDEMPTION and wishes to take vengeance on the idolatrous nations, it is written, "And of the peoples there was no man with me" (Yeshayah 63:3). As it is written, "And no man stood with him," and "and he bore them and carried them all the days of old" (Ibid. 9).

69. "Then Yosef could not restrain himself" (Beresheet 45:1). Rabbi Chizkiyah quoted, "A song of ascents To you I lift up my eyes, O You Who dwells in the heaven" (Tehilim 123:1). This verse has already been explained, yet come and behold: It is written here, "To You I lift up my eyes;" and elsewhere, "I will lift up my eyes to the mountains" (Tehilim 121:1). WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE? The one is above and the other below. HE EXPLAINED: "I will lift up my eyes to the mountains" above, TO ZEIR ANPIN, to draw blessings from the Supernal Mountains above ON THE NUKVA, AS IN THE SECRET OF 'THE MOUNTAINS ARE NONE OTHER THAN THE PATRIARCHS,' WHO ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, from whom blessings are drawn upon the congregation of Yisrael. "To You I lift up my eyes," FROM DOWN BELOW IN THE NUKVA, is to yearn and wait for the blessings that come down FROM ZEIR ANPIN TO THE NUKVA.

70. "You who dwells in the heavens" (Tehilim 123:1). HE ASKS: IF IT REFERS TO THE NUKVA, WHY DOES IT SAY "IN THE HEAVENS," WHICH ARE ZEIR ANPIN? HE REPLIED: Because all the strength, power, and support OF THE NUKVA is in heaven, SHE RECEIVES THEM FROM ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'HEAVEN'. For when the Yovel (Jubilee), BINAH, opens the springs of all the gates--THE ABUNDANCE OF THE FIFTY GATES OF BINAH--they are all in heaven, ZEIR ANPIN. And when heaven receives all the lights from the Yovel (Jubilee), it nourishes and feeds the congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, through a certain righteous One, YESOD.

71. Because YESOD is aroused toward her, many stand on all sides to drink and be blessed from there, TO RECEIVE FROM THE ILLUMINATION OF THE UNION, as it is written, "The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from El" (Tehilim 104:21). She then ascends TO MATE in utmost secrecy, as is proper, and receives from her husband delicacies that she deserves. And all those on all sides WHO WAIT TO RECEIVE FROM HER remain alone, AND DO NOT RISE WITH THE NUKVA, as it is written, "And no man stood with him," and, "and he cried, 'Cause every man to go out from me.'" Only after she receives delicacies from her husband, NAMELY, AFTER MATING, is everybody given food and drink, as it is written, "they gave drink to every wild beast: the wild asses quench their thirst" (Ibid. 11).

71. וְכִיּוֹן דָּדָא אֲתַעַר לַגְּבָהּ, כַּמָּה אֵינּוֹן דְּקִיּוּמָן בְּכָל סְטְרִין, לְאֲתַשְׁקָאָה וּלְאֲתַבְּרָכָא מִתַּמּוֹן, כְּדִ"א הַכְּפִירִים שׁוֹאֲגִים לְטָרְף וּלְבַקֵּשׁ מֵאֵל אַכְלָם. וּכְדִין, אִיהִי סִלְקָא בְּרָזָא דְרִזּוּן כְּדָקָא חֲזִי, וּמִקְבְּלָא עֲדוּנִין מִבְּעֵלָה כְּדָקָא יְאוּת, וּכְלֵהוּ דְקִיּוּמִין בְּכָל סְטְרִין עֲמָדִי בְּלַחֲדוּיָהּ, כְּדִ"א וְלֹא עָמַד אִישׁ אִתּוֹ, דְּכִתְיִב וַיִּקְרָא הוֹצִיאוּ כָּל אִישׁ מֵעָלָי, וּלְבַתֵּר דְּאִיהִי מִקְבְּלָא עֲדוּנִין מִבְּעֵלָה, כְּלֵהוּ אֲתַשְׁקִינִין לְבַתֵּר, וְאֲתַזְנוּ, כְּדִ"א יִשְׁקוּ כָּל חֵיתוֹ שְׂדֵי יִשְׁבְּרוּ פְּרָאִים צְמָאָם.

8. "Why have you dealt ill"

Moshe and Eliyahu both said to The Creator, "Why have you brought evil?" This indicates the power of the evil side over the people of the covenant. We learn that the Prophet Eliyahu did not die, and continues to act as messenger to the people of the covenant to this present day. Neither Moshe nor Eliyahu died, we're told, but were instead brought directly into heaven immediately after shedding their bodies. The rabbis refer to a particular strength acquired by the soul when it is confronted by the powerful desire existing between man and women, and how, more than any other human, the soul of Eliyahu was on the side of the male.

The Relevance of this Passage

The people of the covenant are endowed with the most intense desire to receive. They can bring more Light to this world than all other nations combined, but they can bring also more darkness if they are ruled by their Evil Inclination. The strength to both recognize and subdue our negative impulses is impressed into our soul. We further receive the purifying Light of Moshe and Eliyahu, whose influences help us rise above the desires of our physical body. We touch the divine realm of immortality and infuse our lives with this sacred and eternal energy.

72. Rabbi Yosi opened a discussion of Eliyahu with the verse, "And he cried to Hashem, and said: 'Hashem my Elohim, have You also brought evil upon the widow with whom I lodge, by slaying her son?'" (I Melachim 17:20). Come and behold: There were two who said harsh words to the Holy One, blessed be He-Moshe and Eliyahu. Moshe asked: "Why have You dealt ill (lit, 'evil') with this people?" (Shemot 5:22), and Eliyahu answered, "have You also brought evil...by slaying her son?" They both said the same thing.

73. HE ASKS: Why DID THEY BOTH SAY, "WHY HAVE YOU BROUGHT EVIL?" HE ANSWERS: Because permission was given to the Other Side to rule over Yisrael. MOSHE SAID "dealt evil", which means gave permission to the Other Side of evil to reign upon them. Eliyahu said "brought evil," WHICH ALSO MEANS THAT you allowed the Other Side to take his soul. This is why he said "brought evil." All is one mystery-"BROUGHT EVIL" IS THE SECRET OF GIVING SWAY TO THE OTHER SIDE CALLED 'EVIL'.

74. Come and behold: Eliyahu said, "have You also brought evil upon the widow with whom I lodge", because the Holy One, blessed be He, said to Eliyahu, "behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain you" (Shemot 5:9). Whoever nourishes and sustains the needy, especially in days of famine, is united with and cleaves to the Tree of Life, and draws life unto himself and his children, as has already been explained. Now, Eliyahu said: Whoever sustains one soul in the world merits life and merits to be united with the Tree of Life. Yet now the tree of death, the evil side, has power over the widow, whom You commanded to sustain me. Hence HE SAID, "have You brought evil."

75. HE ASKS: What if you say that no evil is brought on man by the Holy One, blessed be He. HE ANSWERS, Come and behold: When a man walks to the right, the Holy One, blessed be He, always protects him, and the Other Side cannot have mastery over him. Evil is subdued before him and cannot rule. When the protection of the Holy One, blessed be He, is removed because he cleaved to evil, then evil sees him unprotected, obtains power, and comes to destroy him. Then it is given permission to take away his soul.

76. Moshe said: "why have You dealt ill," because the evil side was given permission to reign over Yisrael, who became its slaves. Another explanation of "why have You dealt ill" is that he saw many FROM YISRAEL die and be given to the side of evil.

77. Come and behold: When good, the right, is stirred, then gladness, goodness, and blessings abide, all in secrecy, as has already been explained in connection with THE SONS OF YA'AKOV, who said 'Blessed be the name of his kingdom for ever and ever' in a whisper. There is secrecy because union is then carried out properly. THUS IT IS CLEAR WHY YOSEF SAID: AT THE TIME OF UNION, "CAUSE EVERY MAN TO GO OUT FROM ME"--AS UNION HAS TO BE PERFORMED IN SECRECY.

78. Rabbi Chiya asked: How could Eliyahu, who, once he decreed the Holy One, blessed be He, executed such as the one that heaven will not let dew or rain fall, be afraid of Izevel, who threatened him with the words, "and more also, if I make not your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time" (I Melachim 19:2). How could he take fright and immediately run for his life?

74. תָּא חֲזִי, אֵלֶיּהוּ אָמַר, הֲגַם עַל הָאֱלֻמָּנָה אֲשֶׁר אֲנִי מִתְגֹרֵר עִמָּה, בְּגִין דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא אֲמַר לִיָּה לְאֵלֶיּהוּ, הִנֵּה צְוִיתִי שָׁם אִשָּׁה אֱלֻמָּנָה לְכַלְכֶּלְךָ, וְכָל מֵאן דִּזֵּן וּמְפָרְנֵס לְמֵאן דְּאֶצְטְרִיךְ לִיָּה, וְכִ"ש בְּיוֹמָא דְכַפְנָא, הָא אֲתֵאחִיד בְּאֵילָנָא דְחַיִּי, וְגַרְיִים לִיָּה חַיִּים וְלִבְנוֹי, וְהָא אוֹקִימָנָא. וְהִשְׁתָּא אֵלֶיּהוּ אָמַר, כָּל מֵאן דְּקִיִּים נַפְשָׁא בְּעֵלְמָא, זְכִי לִיָּה חַיִּים, וְזְכִי לְאֲתֵאחֲדָא בְּאֵילָנָא דְחַיִּי, וְהִשְׁתָּא שְׁלֵטָא אֵילָנָא דְמוֹתָא סְטְרָא דְרַע, עַל הָאֱלֻמָּנָה דְאַנְתָּ פְקֻדָּתָ לְמִיזֵן לִי, בְּגִין כֶּן הִרְעוּתָ.

79. Rabbi Yosi replied: It has been explained that the righteous do not wish to trouble their Master, where harm is obvious to the eye. Shmuel, for example, asked, "How can I go? If Shaul hears it, he will kill me. And Hashem said: Take a heifer with you ..." (I Shmuel 16:2). For the righteous do not wish to trouble their Master about obvious damage. Eliyahu, too, when he saw danger, did not wish to bother his Master.

80. He said to him, I have heard here that scripture does not say of Eliyahu, 'he feared (Heb. vayira) and went for his life,' but rather, "when he saw (Heb. vayar) that" (I Melachim 19, 3), which means he saw something. What did he see? He saw that the Angel of Death has been following him these many years, yet he was not delivered into his hands. And now he "went for his life (lit. 'Nefesh')," which means that he went to the source of the sustenance of the Nefesh, which is the Tree of Life, to cleave to it, SO THE ANGEL OF DEATH WOULD NO LONGER FOLLOW HIM.

81. Come and behold: It is written everywhere else "to his Nefesh," yet here it is written, "for his Nefesh." I have heard a secret from Rabbi Shimon, who said that all the souls in the world come from the same river, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. They are all received by the Bundle of Life, THE NUKVA, and the female conceives from the male when the two sides are both desirous-the female of the male, AND THE MALE OF THE FEMALE. When the male has GREATER passion than the female, the souls are of greater endurance, because everything depends on the desire and passion of the Tree of Life, ZEIR ANPIN. Eliyahu, who came from that passion OF THE MALE more than other people, endured AND DID NOT DIE.

82. It is therefore written "for his Nefesh", instead of "to his Nefesh," for to (Heb. et) implies the female, THE NUKVA CALLED 'ET', BUT 'FOR' ALLUDES TO THE MALE. You might say THAT IT IS WRITTEN, "for the woman He said" (Bereshheet 3:16), WHO IS A FEMALE. HE REPLIED: It includes male and female, for when THE FEMALE is included within the male, then it is written, "for the woman He said," whereas "to the woman" indicates the female alone, not included with the male. Similarly, "for his Nefesh" indicates the male alone, whereas "to his Nefesh" indicates the female alone. Because Eliyahu is of the side of the male more than all other people in the world, he endured more than the others and did not die as did the other inhabitants of the world. For he comes from the Tree of Life and is not made of dust AS ARE THE REST OF MEN. He therefore ascended and did not die as do other people, as it is written, "and Eliyahu went up by a storm of wind into heaven" (II Melachim 2:11).

79. א"ל רבי יוסי, הא אוקמוה, דצדיקיא, לא בעאן לאטרחא למאריהון, באתר דנזקא אשתכחא לעינא. כגוונא דשמואל, דכתיב איך אלך ושמע שאול והרגני, א"ל עגלת בקר תקח בידך, בגין דצדיקיא, לא בעאן לאטרחא למאריהון, באתר דנזקא אשתכח. אוף הכי אליהו, ביון דחמא דנזקא אשתכח, לא בעי לאטרחא למאריה.

83. Come and behold the verse: "...a chariot of fire, and horses of fire" (I Melachim 2:11). The spirit shed the body, and he did not die the way of other men. He remained a holy angel like other sacred supernal beings, carrying messages in the world like an angel. It has already been explained that the miracles performed by the Holy One, blessed be He, are carried out by him.

84. Come and behold the verse: "...and he requested for himself (lit. 'to his Nefesh') that he might die" (I Melachim 19:4), whereas previously it is written, "and went for his life (lit. 'for his Nefesh')" (Ibid.), which we have already explained alluded to his endurance. Here it is written, "to his Nefesh to die," to indicate the tree where death dwells, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "HER FEET GO DOWN TO DEATH" (MISHLEI 5:5). There the Holy One, blessed be He, revealed Himself to him, as it is written, "Go out and stand upon the mountain" (I Melachim 19:11), followed by the words, "and after the earthquake a fire; but Hashem was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice," which alludes to the innermost place, from where all lights radiate.

85. It is written, "And when Eliyahu heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle...And, behold, there came a voice to him, and said: What are you doing here, Eliyahu? And he said: I have been very jealous" (Mishlei 5:5). The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, "How long will you be jealous for me." You have closed the door so that death will never have power over you and the world cannot tolerate your presence with My children, WHOM YOU ACCUSE. He answers, "because the children of Yisrael have forsaken your covenant" (Ibid. 14). He said: Upon your life, wherever people will observe the Holy Covenant, THAT IS, CIRCUMCISION, you shall be present.

86. Come and behold what Eliyahu caused by his words. It is written, "Yet I will leave seven thousand in Yisrael, all the knees that have not bowed to the Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him" (Mishlei 5:18). The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him, 'From now on, the world cannot endure you along with my children, BECAUSE YOU BRING ACCUSATIONS AGAINST THEM.' "...and Elisha the son of Shafat of Avel-mechola shall you anoint to be prophet in your place" (Ibid. 16). Thus, there will be another prophet for my children, and you shall go to your place.

87. Come and behold: Any man who is jealous for the Holy One, blessed be He, is not subject to the power of the Angel of Death as are other men. Instead, peace is upon him, as was said of Pinchas: "Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace" (Bemidbar 25:12).

83. תָּא חֲזִי, מֵה כְּתִיב וְהָיָה רֶכֶב אֵשׁ וְסוּסֵי אֵשׁ וּגּו', דִּהָא כְּדִין אֲתַפְּשֵׁט גּוּפָא מִן רוּחָא, וְאִסְתַּלַּק דְּלָא כְּשָׂאֵר אַרְח בְּנֵי עֲלָמָא, וְאִשְׁתָּאֵר מִלְּאֲכָא קְדִישָׁא, כְּשָׂאֵר קְדִישֵׁי עֲלִיוֹנִין, וְעֵבִיד שְׁלִיחוּתָא בְּעֲלָמָא, וְהָא אוּקְמוּהּ, דְּנִסְיִן דְּעֵבֵד קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּעֲלָמָא, עַל יְרִידָה אֲתַעֲבִידֵן.

9. "And he fell on his brother Binyamin's neck and wept"

The neck is like the Tower of David: it is not of this world, but rather of the celestial Jerusalem. Yosef weeps because he foresaw the destruction of the Temple and the exile of the tribes of Yisrael. He is able to see such things because the Holy Spirit dwells in him --although it does not dwell with his brothers. The destruction of the great Temple darkens the whole world, we learn. This was the painful foreknowledge Yosef was obliged to carry with him.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our planet contains many spiritual energy centers. These serve as portals through which the supernal Light of the Upper Worlds flows into our dimension. Israel, we are told, is the energy center of the entire planet. The city of Jerusalem is the energy source of Israel. The Holy Temple is the primal source of energy for Jerusalem. And the Holy of Holies is the Fountainhead of spiritual energy for the Temple. Reading this passage connects us to Jerusalem, the Temple, and ultimately to the Holy of Holies. This ensures that all our prayers, deeds, and meditations draw their appropriate Light from this wellspring of spiritual energy.

88. "And he fell on his brother Binyamin's neck and wept; and Binyamin wept on his neck..." Rabbi Yitzchak said: It has been already explained that he wept for the first Temple and for the second Temple--THAT WILL BE BUILT ON BINYAMIN'S PORTION AND BE DESTROYED.

89. He opened the discussion with the verse, "Your neck is like the Tower of David built with turrets, on which there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men" (Shir Hashirim 4:4). HE ASKS: What is the "Tower of David?" It is the Tower of David IN JERUSALEM that was built by David, NAMELY, THAT STANDS inside Jerusalem. Yet "the Tower of David" IN THE SCRIPTURE IS NOT THIS "TOWER OF DAVID," BUT is the celestial Jerusalem--NAMELY, THE NUKVA--about which it is written, "The name of Hashem is a strong tower: the righteous runs into it, and is set up on high" (Mishlei 18:10). HE ASKS: Who "is set up on high"-THE RIGHTEOUS OR THE TOWER? HE ANSWERS: the tower is, for into it the righteous (YESOD) runs.

90. "Your neck" is the Lower Temple, WHICH RESEMBLES THE TOWER OF DAVID, WHICH IS THE NUKVA AND IS SO CALLED because it is beautifully built, like the neck. As the neck symbolizes the beauty of the whole body, so the Temple symbolizes the beauty of the whole world.

91. The phrase, "built with turrets (Heb. talpiot)" means a hill on which all the children of the world look TO PRAISE AND TO PRAY. It has been explained that the word 'talpiot' consists of the letters Tel-Piot (lit. 'a mound of mouths'). It is a mound which all the mouths of the world praise and pray.

92. The phrase, "on which there hang a thousand bucklers", (ibid.) refers to the thousand reconstructions fixed upon it, THAT IS, ON THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH HINTED AT BY THE NUMBER ONE THOUSAND. AND "all shields of mighty men" are called thus because they come from the side of harsh judgment.

93. As all a woman's jewels hang round her neck, so do all ornaments of the world hang about and dwell within the Temple. It has already been explained that the verse, "We are pursued to our necks" (Eichah 5:5) alludes to the Temple, which is the neck and beauty of the world. "We are pursued to our necks; WE LABOR, AND HAVE NO REST," that labored building it twice--THE FIRST TEMPLE AND THE SECOND TEMPLE--"and have no rest," for we were not allowed any. The Temples were destroyed and not rebuilt.

94. As when the neck is destroyed the whole body perishes, when the Temple was destroyed and darkened, the whole world became dark too, and the sun, heaven, earth, and stars did not shine.

88. וַיִּפֹּל עַל צוֹאֲרֵי בִנְיָמִן אָחִיו וַיִּבְכֶּךְ וּבְנֵימָן בָּכָה עַל צוֹאֲרָיו. רַבִּי יִצְחָק אָמַר, הֵא אֹקְמוֹהָ, דְּבָכָה עַל מְקֻדָּשׁ רֵאשׁוֹן וְעַל מְקֻדָּשׁ שְׁנִי.

95. For that reason-FOR THE TWO TEMPLES THAT WERE DESTROYED-Yosef cried. After he wept for this, he wept for the tribes that went into exile. For shortly after the Temple was destroyed, all the tribes were sent into exile and dispersed among the nations, as it is written, "And he kissed all his brethren, and wept on them," meaning, on account of their GOING INTO EXILE.

96. He wept for everything-for the Temple that was twice destroyed and for his brothers, the ten tribes, who went into exile and were scattered among the nations. "...and after that his brethren talked with him," not 'wept'. He wept because HE SAW the Holy Spirit come upon him; but they did not weep, because the Holy Spirit did not dwell upon them--THEY DID NOT SEE IT.

10. "And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house"

The Rabbis comment on the role of the voice in prayer. The hidden relationship between voice and Sfirot is explained by the fact that an inner voice can be heard, just as an outer one can--but the inner voice relates to the Sfirah of Zeir Anpin in a manner the heard voice does not. There are, we learn, many different voices, and those including the letter Vav ?, are heard differently from those without it. The rabbis conclude that when The Creator raises up the voice that is now without the Vav, the People shall come home from their long exile to worship Him at Jerusalem's holy mountain.

The Relevance of this Passage

Human speech is intimately tied to the Divine. The voice can summon forth both dark and Light forces. Different words and blessings resonate with the numerous supernal worlds that dwell on high, each realm bringing forth a particular ray of Divine Light to illuminate our existence. The ancient Kabbalists composed words and prayers that would radiate the brightest of Light in this world. This passage helps us stimulate the Light that shines in all supernal worlds. It inspires us to use our outer and inner voice to produce only positive energy.

97. "...and the report (lit. 'voice') was heard in Pharaoh's house." Rabbi Aba began the discussion with the verse, "My soul longs, indeed, it faints for the courts of Hashem: my heart and my flesh cry out from the living El" (Tehilim 84:3). Come and behold: When a man prays before his Master, he should first recite his daily blessings, and say his prayers at the proper times.

98. In the morning, he is to be united with the right of the Holy One, blessed be He, WHICH IS CHESED. At Minchah (the afternoon prayer) he is to be united with the left OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. It behooves man to pray daily, so as to be united with the Holy One, blessed be He, as has already been explained. When he prays before his Master, he must not speak out loud, for whoever speaks out loud will find his prayer is not accepted.

99. Why? Because the prayer is not an audible voice (Heb. kol), nor is the audible voice a prayer. What is then a prayer? It is a different voice that is attached to the voice that is heard. What is the voice that is heard? It is Kol spelled with the letter Vav, whereas the voice attached TO THE VOICE THAT IS HEARD is kol without the letter Vav.

100. Thus, a man should never speak out loud when he prays, but pray in a whisper, WHICH IS AN ASPECT OF THE NUKVA, THE SECRET OF PRAYER. BY OUR PRAYERS WE UNITE THE STILL VOICE WITH ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS THE AUDIBLE VOICE. This prayer is always accepted, BECAUSE IT IS DESIROUS OF BEING UNITED WITH ZEIR ANPIN. This is learned from the words, "and the voice was heard", spelled without the letter Vav, in which the words "is heard" MEANS IT WAS ACCEPTED. This is a prayer said in a whisper, as is written of Chanah, "but her voice was not heard" (I Shmuel 1:13). This is the prayer that the Holy One, blessed be He, accepts-a prayer that is made willingly and intentionally, and is properly performed by a man concerned with the unity of his Master every day in the proper manner.

101. Rabbi Elazar said: A secret voice is the supernal voice, NAMELY, THE VOICE IN BINAH, from which all voices are derived. But a voice without the letter Vav is the prayer below, NAMELY, THE NUKVA, about to rise and be elevated to the Vav, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, and be joined with him--TO RECEIVE CHASSADIM FROM HIM.

102. Come and behold: "and the voice was heard." This is the voice without the letter Vav, NAMELY, THE NUKVA WHEN SEPARATED FROM ZEIR ANPIN--the voice that weeps for the first Temple and the second Temple. It is "heard" as it is written, "A voice was heard in Rama" (Yirmeyah 31:14). HE ASKS: What is "in Rama (lit. 'on high')?" HE REPLIED: It is the Supernal World, the world to come, BINAH. This is derived from "between Rama and Bet-el" (Shoftim 4:5), which means, "from everlasting to everlasting (lit. 'from world to world')." THAT IS, FROM BINAH CALLED 'RAMA', THE SUPERNAL WORLD, TO THE NUKVA CALLED 'BET- EL', THE LOWER WORLD. HERE TOO, "in Rama" refers to the Supernal World, BINAH, for when it was heard in Rama, then it is written, "And on that day did Hashem Elohim Tzva'ot call to weeping, and to mourning" (Yeshayah 22:12).

103. "...and the voice was heard high" above, THAT IS, THE NUKVA WENT HIGH UP TO THE LEFT COLUMN OF BINAH, AND THEN BOTH TEMPLES WERE DESTROYED. Why WERE THEY DESTROYED? Because the letter Vav was gone from THE NUKVA, FOR IT CLOTHED THE RIGHT OF BINAH, AND THE NUKVA CLOTHED THE LEFT OF BINAH. THUS THEY WERE SEPARATED FROM END TO END. Then it is written, "Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted for her children because he is not" (Yirmeyah 31:14). ALL HER LIGHTS WERE STOPPED, AND BECAUSE SHE THEREFORE HAD NOTHING TO GIVE TO HER CHILDREN, THEY WENT INTO EXILE. HE ASKS: WHY DOES THE VERSE READ, "because he is not," instead of, "they are not"--THAT IS, IN THE PLURAL. HE REPLIED: It is written, "he is not," as we explained, because her husband is not with her. If her husband, ZEIR ANPIN, had been with her, she would have been comforted for her children, HER LIGHT WOULD HAVE NOT BEEN STOPPED, and her children would not be in exile. But because "he is not" with her, she is not comforted for her children, and they were removed from her.

104. Come and behold: "in Pharaoh's house" alludes to on high, BINAH, which is the house from which the lights and candles are revealed. It alludes TO THE SFIROT OF THE NUKVA CALLED 'CANDLES'. All that was hidden, is there revealed. THEREFORE BINAH IS CALLED 'THE HOUSE OF PHARAOH'. The Holy One, blessed be He, then brings out all the lights and candles to shine on the voice spelled without the letter Vav, WHICH IS THE NUKVA.

105. Come and behold: When the Holy One, blessed be He, raises this voice, THE NUKVA, from the dust, it will join the Vav, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. Then all that was lost TO YISRAEL at the time of exile will be returned to them. They will feast upon the supernal lights added to them from the Supernal World, as it is written, "And it shall come to pass on that day, that a great shofar shall be blown, and they who were lost in the land of Ashur, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come and worship Hashem in the holy mountain at Jerusalem" (Yeshayah 27:13).

11. "Take wagons...for your little ones"

The rabbis explore the meaning of the separation of The Creator and the Shechinah--the female Divine presence--from the people of Yisrael. This parallels the separation of Yosef from Ya'akov. Ya'akov's realization that Yosef is alive continues this parallel, revealing what will come about when The Creator and the Shechinah reunite with the people.

The Relevance of this Passage

The energy summoned forth through meditation upon these Hebrew letters hastens the ultimate unification of the Shechinah and The Creator--the souls of man and the Divine. In addition, we arouse the Light of protection and joy that emanates from the Shechinah.

106. "Now, you are commanded, do this: take wagons out of the land of Egypt" (Bereshheet 45:19). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion with the verse, "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you that love her, rejoice for joy with her" (Yeshayah 66:10). Come and behold: When the Temple was destroyed and Yisrael were exiled from their land because of their sins, the Holy One, blessed be He, was gone up high and did not notice the destruction of the Temple or His exiled people. The Shechinah then went into exile with them.

107. When He descended, He saw that his House was burnt. He looked for His people and behold, they were in exile. He asked for the Lady, NAMELY, THE SHECHINAH, and learned that she was exiled. Then, it is written, "And on that day did Hashem Elohim Tzva'ot call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth" (Yeshayah 22:12). And OF THE SHECHINAH, it is written, "Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth" (Yoel 1:8), because "he is gone," NAMELY, HER HUSBAND. For he went away from her, and they are apart.

108. Even heaven and earth themselves mourned, as it is written, "I clothe the heavens with blackness and I make sackcloth their covering" (Yeshayah 50:3). All the high angels mourned for Her, as it is written, "Behold, the mighty ones shall cry outside; the angels of peace weep bitterly" (Yeshayah. 33:7). The sun and moon were in mourning, their lights darkened, as it is written, "the sun shall be darkened in his going forth" (Yeshayah 13:10). Everyone high and low wept for Her and mourned, because the Other Side reigned over Her, on the Holy Land.

109. He opened the discussion with the verse, "you son of man, thus says Hashem Elohim to the land of Yisrael: An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land" (Yechezkel 7:2). This verse contains a deep mystery. What does "to the land of Yisrael: an end" mean? Does it mean an end to the land of Yisrael? HE ANSWERS: Surely this is true, as we have learned. There is an end on the right and an end on the left. HE EXPLAINED: An end on the right, as it is written, "at the end of days (lit. 'right')" (Daniel 12:13), and an end on the left, as it is written, "He puts an end to darkness, and searches out all perfection" (Iyov 28:3). This is the end of all flesh, as we have learned.

110. The end on the right is written of in the verse, "to the land of Yisrael an end." "...the end is come UPON THE FOUR CORNERS OF THE LAND" refers to the end on the left. The end on the right is the end through the Good Inclination, and the end on the left is the end through the Evil Inclination, which happened when, through the increase in sins, it was decreed that the evil kingdom would be given permission to rule and destroy His house and Temple, as it is written, "Thus says Hashem Elohim! An evil, a singular evil, behold, is come" (Yechezkel 7:5).

111. Therefore there was mourning above and below, for reign was given to the end of the left. Thus, because the Kingdom of Holiness, the kingdom of heaven, was humbled and the kingdom of evil prevailed, it behooves any man to mourn with it, THE HOLY KINGDOM, and be abased with it. Also, when the Holy Kingdom rises, and the world rejoices, he shall also rejoice with her, as it is written, "rejoice for joy with it, all you that did mourn for her" (Yeshayah 66:10).

112. Come and behold: It is written of Egypt "a very fair heifer" (Yirmeyah 46:20), and it is because of the secret of this heifer that Yisrael were under its rule for many years--THAT IS, FOR THE 210 YEARS THEY LIVED IN EGYPT. Because Yisrael would eventually rule over it in the future, they were now given a hint of this IN THE VERSE, "TAKE wagons (also: 'heifers') OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT FOR YOUR LITTLE ONES..."

108. וְאִמְלוּ שָׁמַיָא וְאַרְעָא, כִּלְהוּ אֲתַאבְלוּ, דְכְתִיב אֲלֵבִישׁ שָׁמַיִם קִדְרוֹת וְשָׁק אֲשִׁים כְּסוּתָם. מְלֵאכֵי עֲלָיִי, כִּלְהוּ אֲתַאבְלוּ עֲלֵיהּ, דְכְתִיב הֵן אֲרָאִלְם צַעְקוּ חֲצָה מְלֵאכֵי שְׁלוֹם מֵרַ יְבִבְיוֹן. שְׁמַשׁא וְסִיְהָרָא אֲתַאבְלוּ, וְחֲשָׁכוּ נְהוּרִיהוֹן, דְכְתִיב חֲשַׁךְ הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ בְּצִאתוֹ וְגו', וְכֹלָא עֲלָיִי וְתַתָּאִי, בְּכוּ עֲלֵהּ וְאֲתַאבְלוּ. מ"ט, בְּגִין דְשִׁלְטָא עֲלֵהּ סִטְרָא אַחְרָא, דְשִׁלְטָא עַל אַרְעָא קְדִישָׁא.

113. Rabbi Elazar said: Yosef reminded Ya'akov, about breaking the heifer's neck that he went away from him when they were studying this text. It has been explained that the ritual of the heifer was carried out when a man was found slain, but the killer was not known. The heifer is then offered to pacify the evil spirits, so they would not recognize him or rule over THE LAND.

114. Come and behold: All men die by the Angel of Death, except someone who is killed by other men before the time has arrived FOR THE ANGEL OF DEATH to take hold of him and TAKE HIS SOUL, for the Angel of Death does not have dominion over man until he is given permission FROM ABOVE.

115. Therefore the Angel of Death has the right to rule over him, as it is written, "and it be not known who has slain him" (Devarim 21:1). He also has permission, since it is unknown WHO HAS SLAIN THE VICTIM, to accuse that place, THE NUKVA. Therefore "the elders of that city shall take a heifer" (Ibid. 3), in order to remove judgment from that place and to fortify it against the Accuser's power, so it shall be saved from him.

116. Come and behold: When Yosef parted from his father, he was sent without escort or without food, and whatever happened then happened. When Ya'akov said: "Yosef is without doubt torn in pieces" (Bereshheet 37:33), he added, "For I will go down to my son mourning into Sh'ol" (Ibid. 35), for I caused him TO BE KILLED, HAVING SENT HIM WITHOUT ESCORT. I CANNOT SAY, "OUR HANDS HAVE NOT SHED THIS BLOOD" (DEVARIM 21:7) CONCERNING THE BREAKING OF THE HEIFER NECK, WHICH MEANS, "WE HAVE NOT SENT HIM UNESCORTED." I also knew his brothers hated him, yet I sent him TO THEM. YOSEF reminded him OF THAT BY SENDING THE WAGONS (BOTH 'WAGONS' AND 'HEIFERS' ARE WRITTEN 'AGALOT' IN HEBREW).

117. Rabbi Yehuda responded that the wagons were sent by the command of Pharaoh, as it is written, "and Yosef gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh" (Bereshheet 45:21). HOW CAN YOU THEN SAY THAT YOSEF GAVE THEM A HINT BY SENDING THE WAGONS? RABBI ELAZAR replied: It is derived from the exact meaning of the verse, "Now you are commanded, do this," WHICH IS REDUNDANT, AS IT WAS PREVIOUSLY WRITTEN, "AND PHARAOH SAID TO YOSEF, SAY TO YOUR BRETHREN..." YET "Now you are commanded" has a specific meaning and is therefore spelled with the letter Hei AT THE END. THIS TEACHES US THAT ITS EXACT MEANING IS that Yosef asked him TO GIVE HIM WAGONS. Thus, "and Yosef gave them wagons (also: 'heifers'), according to the commandment of Pharaoh," FOR IT WAS YOSEF WHO GAVE, WHO ASKED OF PHARAOH. WHY DID HE DEMAND WAGONS OF PHARAOH? BECAUSE HE WISHED TO REMIND HIS FATHER OF THE PASSAGE OF THE BREAKING OF THE HEIFER NECK. Ya'akov therefore did not believe it until he saw the wagons AND TOOK THE HINT, as it is written, "and when he saw the wagons which Yosef had sent to carry him, the spirit of Ya'akov their father revived."

118. Rabbi Shimon said: First it is written, "and the spirit of Ya'akov their father revived," and then it is written, "and Yisrael said: It is enough; Yosef my son is still alive." WHY DOES THE VERSE START WITH YA'AKOV AND FINISH WITH YISRAEL? HE REPLIED: First the Torah calls him Ya'akov because the Shechinah took part in the vow THAT THE TRIBES TOOK NOT TO REVEAL THAT Yosef was sold. THE SHECHINAH WAS THEREFORE GONE FROM YA'AKOV ALL THAT TIME. Now that the Shechinah has come back to him, it is written, "and the spirit of Ya'akov their father revived," which is the secret of the Shechinah, CALLED 'THE SPIRIT OF YA'AKOV'. After THE SHECHINAH was established in him, the high grade went from the grade of Ya'akov to the grade Yisrael. From this we learn that the high grade is not awakened above until there is an awakening below. For here it is written, "and the spirit of Ya'akov their father revived first," WHICH REFERS TO THE AWAKENING BELOW, and then it is written, "and Yisrael said," WHICH IS THE AWAKENING ABOVE.

119. "And Elohim spoke to Yisrael in the visions (Heb. mar'ot) of the night" (Bereshheet 46:2): The word mar'ot is spelled without the letter Vav, WHICH MAKES IT SINGULAR, THUS ALLUDING TO THE GRADE OF THE NUKVA CALLED 'VISION', AND ALSO 'NIGHT'. Come and behold: The verse, "and offered sacrifices to the Elohim of his father Yitzchak" (Bereshheet 46:1), is written first to awaken the left CALLED 'YITZCHAK' in the secret of love TO THE NUKVA, NUPTIAL LOVE THAT IS DRAWN FROM THE LEFT. Then "Elohim spoke to Yisrael in the visions of the night," WHICH MEANS THAT HE WAS REVEALED TO HIM, by the grade we mentioned, THE NUKVA, called "visions of the night."

120. "And he said: I am the El, the Elohim of your father." HE ASKS: Why DID HE MENTION HIS NAME? HE ANSWERS, Because the holy side above is wont to do so. But the side of defilement does not mention the name of the Holy One, blessed be He. Yet every side of holiness is mentioned by name. "I will go down with you into Egypt" (Bereshheet 46:4). From here we understand that the Shechinah accompanied him into exile, and wherever Yisrael went into exile, the Shechinah went with them, as has already been explained.

121. Come and behold. HE ASKS: How many wagons were there? HE REPLIED: There were six, like the "six covered wagons" (Bemidbar 7:3). According to another explanation there were 60. All is one secret, FOR SIX ALLUDE TO THE SIX SFIROT-CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD-AND SIXTY ALSO ALLUDES TO THE SIX SFIROT, EACH OF WHICH INCLUDED TEN, WHICH TOTALS SIXTY. HE COMMENTED, First it is written, "the wagons which Yosef had sent" (Bereshheet 45:27) and then, "the wagons which Pharaoh had sent" (Bereshheet 46:5). HE ANSWERS, All the wagons that Yosef sent were in proper number, and those Pharaoh sent were supernumerary, not part of the secret or part of the reckoning.

122. All the wagons reached YA'AKOV-THE WAGONS YOSEF SENT AND THE ADDITIONAL ONES PHARAOH SENT. It is therefore written, "which Yosef had sent" and "which Pharaoh had sent." When Yisrael will come out from exile, it is written, "And they shall bring all your brethren out of all the nations for an offering to Hashem" (Yeshayah 66:20), FOR THEN ALL THE NATIONS WILL BRING AN OFFERING TO HASHEM LIKE PHARAOH DID.

12. "And Yosef made ready his chariot"

The rabbis continue to expound the nature of separation and its ultimate ending. We see the many ways of the Holy One, and we come to understand that His actions in Pharaoh's Egypt are fully explicable through the principles of Kabbalah, as is the potent image of the chariots evoked in the Torah's story. The rabbis conclude this section with Yisrael taking possession of the land of Goshen--an act seen as exemplifying the unworthiness of the Egyptians, who failed in their fight for the land.

The Relevance of this Passage

We have free will to choose our path in life. Two paths are always available ? the path of darkness, personified by Egypt, and the path of Light, denoted by the people of Yisrael and by Torah. We have no control or influence over the consequences and rewards that accompany these paths. We can, however, choose the path that we walk. Our self-destructive impulses impel us to constantly choose the negative path, and the negative energy blanketing our world often blinds us to the folly of our choices. The Light emitted by these verses helps brighten the spiritual landscape, revealing the doorways through which we must pass in order to attain peace, prosperity, and fulfillment.

123. "And Yosef made ready his chariot." Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion with the verse, "And over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of a firmament, like the color of the terrible ice, stretched out over their heads above" (Yechezkel 1:22). This verse has already been explained, yet come and behold: There is an animal (lit. 'living creature') above another animal, and a holy animal standing over the heads of the other animals.

124. There is an animal over all the other animals. It rules over them all, for when it gives OF ITS STRENGTH and shines upon them, they all travel about, derive STRENGTH FROM IT, and rule one over the other.

125. And there is an animal over the lower ones, NAMELY, over the other animals below. They are all sustained by it, and the four winds of the world are impressed upon it certain faces shine upon each wind. It has power over the four winds. It has been explained that there are three of this wind and three of that wind, and so on, to the four winds of the world.

126. There are a series of firmaments one on top of the other, and a firmament that reigns over them. They all look to it. It is written, "And under the firmament their wings were held straight, the one toward the other" (Yechezkel 1:23), for they are all in command over what is in their charge. THE RIGHT RADIATES FROM ABOVE DOWN, AND THE LEFT FROM BELOW UP. And there is the spreading of a rope's measurement between them.

127. There are THREE FIRMAMENTS to every wind, nine on each of the four sides of the world, 36 FIRMAMENTS in all. When they are united, they become one, NAMELY, ONE FIRMAMENT, in the secret of the one name --THE NUKVA CALLED 'NAME'--within the whole, as it should be.

128. When they are shaped like a throne, it is written, "And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it" (Yechezkel 1:26). It has been explained that when the precious stone, THE NUKVA, is fixed into the throne that stands upon its four legs, and when the image of a man is upon the throne, ZEIR ANPIN, to be united with him, THEN THE THRONE WHICH IS THE NUKVA IS JOINED WITH THE MAN ABOVE IT, ZEIR ANPIN, and is fully blessed by him.

129. When it, THE FIRMAMENTS AND THE ANIMALS THAT ARE THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, is fixed to form a Chariot for that man, ZEIR ANPIN, then it is written, "And Yosef made ready his chariot," who is the Righteous--YOSEF OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED 'YOSEF THE RIGHTEOUS' --"and went up to meet Yisrael his father, to Goshen", Yisrael is the secret of Adam (man), THE MAN UPON THE THRONE, ZEIR ANPIN. "...to Goshen" is derived from their approaching (Heb. gisha) to be joined and united.

130. "...and presented himself to him (lit. 'and he was seen to him')." THE WORDS "WAS SEEN" ARE DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND, FOR THEY MEAN THAT HE WAS SEEN AND THEN GONE. WHAT DOES THE VERSE MEAN? HE SAID: When the sun reflects on the moon, the moon shines, and illuminates all those below IN THE WORLD. In the same manner, as long as Supernal Holiness, THE LIGHT OF ZEIR ANPIN, hovers above the Temple below, THE NUKVA, the Temple shines and stands erect. But here it is written, "and he was seen to him," which means that the light was seen to her and then gone, and after THE SUPERNAL LIGHT OF ZEIR ANPIN was gone from her, THE SCRIPTURE READS, "and wept on his neck a good while," for they all wept for the Temple that was destroyed. THE SCRIPTURE ADDS, "a good while," which means until the last exile.

131. When Ya'akov looked and saw that all was completed below BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE as it is above BETWEEN ABA AND IMA, he said: "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive," which means, you live by the secret of the Holy Covenant called "the One who lives forever." Thus, he said, "you are still alive." He had already said before, "It is enough; Yosef my son is still alive" (Bereshheet 45:28), he being the secret of the Living One, as has already been explained.

132. Come and behold: "and Ya'akov blessed Pharaoh" (Bereshheet 47:10). Rabbi Yosi said: We do agree that Pharaoh was AN EVIL KLIPAH ACCORDING TO HOMILETIC INTERPRETATION, even though it was explained in regard to another mystery THAT HE IS NOT AN EVIL KLIPAH BUT DESCENDS FROM IMA OF ATZILUT.

133. Yet come and behold: "I compare you, my love, to a mare of the chariots of Pharaoh" (Shir Hashirim 1:9). Come and behold: There are Chariots on the left in the secret of the Other Side, and Chariots on the right on the side of holiness. The ones OF HOLINESS correspond to the others. The holy ones are of mercy, and those OF THE OTHER SIDE are of judgment.

134. When the Holy One, blessed be He, executed judgment on Egypt, He did it exactly the same way as the Chariots OF THE OTHER SIDE and in the same manner as that side. As it kills and takes souls, so the Holy One, blessed be He, did the same, as it is written, "that Hashem slew all the firstborn" (Shemot 13:15), ALTHOUGH HE IS USUALLY MERCIFUL. IN THE SAME WAY, whatever He did in Egypt was in the very same manner. Therefore it is written, "I compare you, my love," because she is compared TO THE CHARIOTS OF PHARAOH IN KILLING AND TAKING THE SOULS OF MEN the same way THE CHARIOTS OF PHARAOH, WHO IS THE OTHER SIDE, kill, as it is written, "I am Hashem, I am He and not another." Later, it is written, "Who is this that comes from Edom, with crimsoned garments from Botzrah?" (Yeshayah 63:1). FOR THEN TOO, HASHEM WILL KILL THEM, AND NO MESSANGER.

135. Come and behold: It is written, "And Yisrael dwelt in the land of Egypt in the country of Goshen; and they took possession of it, and grew and multiplied exceedingly" (Beresheet 47:27). "And took possession of it" means as a permanent heritage. "And they took possession of it" because they, AND NOT THE EGYPTIANS, were worthy of taking possession of it, as has already been explained. "... and grew and multiplied exceedingly" because surely they had nothing to vex them and they lived in royal luxury AS LONG AS THE TRIBES WERE ALIVE. They therefore grew and multiplied exceedingly.
Blessed be Hashem forever and ever.

1. "And Ya'akov lived"

Rabbi Yosi opens a discussion on the meaning of the quotation, "And Ya'akov lived," which has high mysteries contained in it, because Ya'akov arrived at a hitherto unprecedented prophecy "and lived" in Egypt, among his exiled descendants. Rabbi Yosi next questions how this is possible when the name Ya'akov indicates smallness, while Yisrael indicates greatness. Rabbi Elazar responds by pointing out that scripture indicates Ya'akov purchased his birthright, which is tantamount to greatness. Rabbi Shimon further states that Ya'akov, not Yisrael, was chosen by God to be a sapphire in the Throne of Glory. Ya'akov's name was then changed to Yisrael, to reflect the Mercy of Judgment, since judgment is the cause of the revelation of mercy, and those banished to Egypt were judged and shown mercy by God. Rabbi Shimon concludes by saying that the whole of Ya'akov's life was 147 years, divided into three periods of exile, the first of which was seven years. The number seven is significant because it represents atonement by the holy children, exiled "seven times," according to the number of sins they perpetrated.

The Relevance of this Passage

The phrase "and he lived" is a code alluding to the fact that Ya'akov had attained a lofty level of spirituality and prophecy. This feat was achieved during his sojourn in Egypt, which itself is a code word representing negativity and the materialism of our physical existence. In most sections of Zohar, the names Ya'akov and Yisrael are two designations for the patriarch, indicating two levels of his spirituality, Ya'akov being a lower level and Yisrael signifying a higher one. However, in this particular section of Zohar, the name Ya'akov is used to indicate an exalted spiritual level. The reason for this is to convey the different form of Light that is aroused when one ascends out of negativity and darkness. Hence, the underlying purpose of this passage is to imbue the reader with the spiritual fortitude necessary to elevate and climb out of any darkness or negativity currently in their life.

1. "And Ya'akov lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years" (Bereshheet 47:28). Rabbi Yosi said: Ya'akov's heart saw through prophecy in Egypt that his descendants would suffer many exiles-NAMELY HE SAW ALL THE EXILES from then until now, until the End, and the Time of the Coming of Mashiach.

אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹסִי, לְבָא חֲמָא בְּנִבּוּאָה, בְּמִצְרַיִם, דִּיהוּן
בְּנוּהֵי בְּכֶמָה גְּלוּוֹן, עַד הַכָּא, וְעַד עֲדָנָא דְקָץ

2. Ya'akov arrived at the prophecy of "and lived" only in Egypt. It was an excellent prophecy, the like of which was never prophesied before. None of the prophets was worthy of it except for him and Moshe ALONE. It is written of Moshe: "For no man shall see me, and live" (Shemot 33:20). Of Ya'akov, it is written: "And Ya'akov lived" REFERRING TO the prophecy which descends from the shining mirror, TIFERET.

2. וְלֹא מָטָא לְנִבּוּאָה דְּוַיְחִי, אֲלֵא בְּמִצְרַיִם, וְהִיא
נִבּוּאָתָא מְעֻלְיָתָא, לֹא אֲתַנְבִּיאֻּ דְכּוֹתָהּ, וְלֹא מָטָא
לְהוּ שׁוּם אִינִישׁ מִן בְּנֵי נְבִיאָה, אֲלֵא הוּא וּמֹשֶׁה,
בְּמֹשֶׁה בְּתִיב, כִּי לֹא יִרְאֵנִי הָאָדָם וְחִי. בְּיַעֲקֹב בְּתִיב,
וַיְחִי יַעֲקֹב. וַיְחִי: נִבּוּאָתָהּ דְּנִחְתָּא מֵאֲסַפְקֻלְרִיָּא
דְּגִהְרָא.

3. Ya'akov wanted to prophecy concerning the exiles of his sons in the land of Cna'an and in any land wherein they dwelt WHICH came from the land of Egypt; TO WIT, ALL EXILES ARE INCLUDED WITHIN EGYPT. His heart broke, as it is written: "Now Ya'akov saw that there was corn (also: 'breaking') in Egypt" (Bereshheet 42:1).

3. בְּעֵי לְמִימַר נְבוּאָן דְּגְלוּתָא דְּעֵרְעָן לְבְּנוּהֵי
בְּאַרְעָא דְּכְנַעַן, וּבְכָל אֲרַעָא דְּאֲתוּתַב בֵּיהּ, מֵאַרְעָא
דְּמִצְרַיִם הוּהוּ תְּבִיר לְבִיָּהּ, דְּכְתִיב כִּי יֵשׁ שֶׁבֶר
בְּמִצְרַיִם.

4. Hence, when it came to pass that "Ya'akov lived in Egypt," he did not rejoice, because this land was the bond of the nations; TO WIT, ALL THE FILTH OF THE NATIONS LIES THERE. ALSO, the sapphires of the Throne of Glory, THE SECRET OF THE CAPTIVE SPARKS OF CHOCHMAH AMONGST THEM, CALLED SAPPHIRES ACCORDING TO THE SECRET MEANING OF THE VERSE: "AND ABOVE THE FIRMAMENT THAT WAS OVER THEIR HEADS WAS THE LIKENESS OF A THRONE, IN APPEARANCE LIKE A SAPPHIRE STONE" (YEchezkel 1:26). Nobody came TO SIFT THEM, neither from the upper nor from the lower, save the living. This is the secret of: "For no man shall see Me, and live" (Shemot 33:20).

4. וְעַד מָטָא וַיְחִי יַעֲקֹב בְּמִצְרַיִם, וְלֹא הוּהוּ חָרִי, כִּי
וְלֹא מָטָא לְהוּן שׁוּם אִינִישׁ, לֹא מִן עֲלָאָה, וְלֹא מִן
תַּתָּאָה, אֲלֵא חַי, וְרַזָּא דָּא, כִּי לֹא יִרְאֵנִי הָאָדָם וְחִי.

5. There are High Mysteries in this verse, and we friends wonder about them, for it says that Ya'akov lived instead of Yisrael, TO WIT 'AND YISRAEL LIVED.' FOR THE NAME YA'AKOV INDICATES SMALLNESS, AND THE NAME YISRAEL INDICATES MOCHIN OF GREATNESS, WHILE "AND LIVED" ALLUDES TO THE LIGHT OF CHAYAH, WHICH IS THE MOCHIN OF GREATNESS. IT SHOULD HAVE SAID: 'AND YISRAEL LIVED.' How do we know that Yisrael INDICATES MOCHIN OF GREATNESS? From the verse: "Yisrael is holy to Hashem" (Yirmeyah 2:3), HOLY BEING AN ALLUSION TO GREATNESS. It also says, "Yisrael is My son, My firstborn" (Shemot 4:22), FIRSTBORN BEING AN ALLUSION TO GREATNESS. THUS, THE NAME YISRAEL IS MENTIONED WITH RELATION TO GREATNESS AND NOT YA'AKOV, WHICH IS A NAME OF SMALLNESS, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET MEANING OF THE VERSE: "HOW SHALL YA'AKOV STAND? FOR HE IS SMALL" (AMOS 7:2). Rabbi Elazar, the son of Rabbi Shimon, said: Yet scripture says, "and he sold his birthright to Ya'akov" (Beresheet 25:33), FOR WITH THE BIRTHRIGHT, WHICH IS GREATNESS, THE NAME YA'AKOV IS MENTIONED. THUS IT IS NO QUESTION WHY IT SAYS "AND YA'AKOV LIVED" INSTEAD OF 'AND YISRAEL LIVED.'

6. His father Rabbi Shimon said to him: When Yisrael were righteous men of truth and gave charity, they were not afraid, save Ya'akov alone, WHO, THE VERSE TELLS US, WAS AFRAID, SAYING: "FOR I FEAR HIM" (BERESHEET 32:12), WHILE YISRAEL IS A NAME OF GREATNESS, WITHOUT FEAR. IT IS due to the good deeds YISRAEL did, and the kindness amongst them THAT THEY HAD NO FEAR.

7. When they sinned and were exiled because of their transgressions and evil deeds, they could not bear THE FEAR that they would really stay forever IN EXILE for their sins. Thus came the aspect of Mercy and Judgment joined WHICH IS THE MEANING OF THE NAME Yisrael, and put them in exile.

8. Well asked, son, IN RELATION TO THE VERSE, "AND HE SOLD HIS BIRTHRIGHT TO YA'AKOV." But whoever looks into it will know that Ya'akov attached to "and lived" represents holiness, LIKE THE NAME YISRAEL. In relation to this secret, it has been said that Ya'akov was chosen by the Holy One, blessed be He, to be a sapphire in the Throne of Glory, INSTEAD OF YISRAEL.

9. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion, saying: "Yet with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones" (Yeshayah 57:15). "The heart of the contrite ones" is Ya'akov, as it says "AND YA'AKOV LIVED," FOR from beneath the grade prophecies and blessings descended upon him even in Egypt.

10. We have learned that Rabbi Aba said: The heart sees that, while Ya'akov lived in Egypt, his prophecy was not sublime, for the land was detested.

5. כִּמָּה הוּא רָזָא עֲלָאָה בְּדָא קְרָא, וְאַנְן חֲבַרְיָא תְּמִיּהִין עֲלִיּוּהוּ, עַל וִיחִי דְרַכּוּר עֲמִיּה יַעֲקֹב, הָוּה לִיּה לְמִימַר קִמְי יִשְׂרָאֵל. יִשְׂרָאֵל מִנּוּן, דְּכַתִּיב קִדְשׁ יִשְׂרָאֵל לָהּ רֵאשִׁית וּגּו'. בְּנֵי בְכוּרֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר בְּרִיּה דְרַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן אָמַר, וְכִי לָא אָמַר קְרָא, וַיִּמְכַר אֶת בְּכוֹרְתּוֹ לְיַעֲקֹב.

11. Come and behold: he did not deserve to bless any of his sons, and had no spirit with which to bless, except in Egypt. When he did, he blessed each of them according to a mystery, which is, "Now Ya'akov saw that there was corn (also: 'breaking') in Egypt. Ya'akov said to his sons, 'Why do you look at one another?'" Come and see, prophecy was given only to the broken-hearted, as it is written: "Go down there, and buy (also: 'break') us from there, that we may live, and not die" (Bereshheet 42:2).

12. Rabbi Yosi said: Under the Holy Throne of Glory is Ya'akov as a sapphire, THE SAPPHIRE pertains to his aspect of Judgment. Then scripture came and said: "And he said: 'Your name shall be called no more Ya'akov but Yisrael: for you have contended with Elohim and with men, and have prevailed'" (Bereshheet 32:29). Now we find that Ya'akov found out there was Judgment within him, as it is written: "The sun rose upon him" (Ibid. 32). And the secret of the matter is: "Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are lengthened" (Yirmeyah 6:4).

13. Rabbi Shimon said: When they were banished from Jerusalem, and the daily offering was no more, and the foe defiled the Temple, Malchut, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, could not then bear the children of Yisrael and their sins. Only THE GRADE OF THE NAME, Yisrael COULD SUFFER THEM, because it is two-sided of Mercy and Judgment. SINCE THE JUDGMENT IS THE CAUSE OF THE REVELATION OF MERCY, THEREFORE THE JUDGMENT IS ALSO CONSIDERED AS MERCY.

14. The words, "Your name shall be called no more Ya'akov but Yisrael," when clearly understood, mean that Yisrael is superior to Ya'akov, AND THEREFORE HE BLESSED HIM WITH THE NAME YISRAEL. And it is for them that the staff of Moshe was engraved with the Holy Name on both sides, the one of Mercy of Judgment, THE GRADE OF YISRAEL, and the other Judgment of Judgment, THE GRADE OF YA'AKOV.

15. This is the secret of: "He has not beheld iniquity in Ya'akov nor has He seen perverseness in Yisrael" (Bemidbar 23:21), WHICH MEANS HE DID NOT BEHOLD INIQUITY IN YA'AKOV, BUT DID SEE PERVERSENESS. YET IN YISRAEL, EVEN PERVERSENESS HE DID NOT BEHOLD, FOR IN IT JUDGMENT IS ALSO CONSIDERED MERCY. HE EXPLAINS, We are thrown into exile amidst enemies, and the Shechinah is gone from the King, ZEIR ANPIN, and separated from Him. EVENTUALLY He will cause the Shechinah to dwell among us and redeem us, FOR BANISHMENT BRINGS US TO REPENT, AND REPENTANCE BRINGS REDEMPTION. THEREFORE, JUDGMENT IN YISRAEL CHANGES INTO MERCY. THEREFORE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "NOR HAS HE SEEN PERVERSENESS IN YISRAEL," WHICH IS ALL MERCY. BUT THE GRADE OF YA'AKOV IS NOT SO, FOR IT CONTAINS PERVERSENESS. HENCE THE ANGEL BLESSED HIM: "YOUR NAME SHALL BE CALLED NO MORE YA'AKOV BUT YISRAEL," WHICH CONTAINS BOTH JUDGMENT AND MERCY, EXILE AND REDEMPTION, AND IS WHOLLY MERCIFUL. This is the secret of the verse, "Thus says Hashem, the King of Yisrael, and His redeemer, Hashem Tzva'ot" (Yeshayah 44:6): and lived, living. "Thus says Hashem, The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool" (Yeshayah 66:1).

16. Within the upper grade YISRAEL two legs, NETZACH AND HOD, live. NETZACH IS CALLED "AND LIVED (HEB. VAYECHI, VAV YUD CHET YUD)" AND HOD 'LIVING (HEB. CHAI, CHET YUD),' BOTH INCLUDED WITHIN THE WORD FOR "AND LIVED." HE EXPLAINS: Large Yud contains small Yud, large Chet contains Tav; there are Vav and Yud in Vav, and in Yud - Vav and Dalet. This comes from the upper one, YISRAEL.

17. THESE ARE THE TWO DIVISIONS INCLUDED within the precious stone SAPPHIRE underneath the Throne of Glory, which is in the land of Egypt. For it is written, "And Hashem shall smite Egypt" (Yeshayah 19:22), which is the second division, while the verse, "For your dew is as the dew on herbs" (Yeshayah 26:19) is the first division.

18. The second division, WHICH ALLUDES TO the exile, is therefore connected with the first division, WHICH ALLUDES TO REVIVAL AND REDEMPTION. Come and see the verse, "O house of Ya'akov, come, and let us walk in the light of Hashem" (Yeshayah 2:5), WHICH MEANS that the letters indicating the exile they were sentenced to for their sins, according to Truth and Justice, have a remedy within the Torah. And IF YOU KEEP IT, you shall come out of the filth and mud, which is exile; and walk by the light of Hashem, WHICH IS RESURRECTION AND REDEMPTION. SINCE THE EXILE CAUSED THE RETURN TO TORAH WHICH LEADS TO THE REDEMPTION, SO WE FIND BOTH DIVISIONS IN ONE LETTER.

19. THE LETTERS Aleph and Resh-Tzadi of Eretz (lit. 'land') are the land which sadly goes INTO EXILE, by the decree of the book of the Torah; TO WIT, THE FOUR HUNDRED YEARS MENTIONED IN THE DECREE 'BETWEEN THE PIECES.' They are divided by land into Aleph and Resh-Tzadi. It may be found by the decree of the book of Torah that Resh-Tzadi come together in exile, MEANING THAT THEY WERE IN EXILE IN EGYPT RESH-TZADI (=290) YEARS; WHICH, TOGETHER WITH LEPH (OF ALEPH =110), AMOUNTS TO FOUR HUNDRED YEARS. What is the Egyptian exile? Avraham was told his children would be in exile for four hundred years, yet if you count it, it amounts to 290 years only.

20. "And Yosef died, being a hundred and ten years old" (Beresheet 50:26). Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "Behold, the young woman is with child, and she will bear a son, and shall call his name 'Immanuel' (lit. 'El is with us')" (Yeshayah 7:14). Pregnancy and birth ARE MENTIONED IN THIS VERSE, AND were fulfilled in exiles, bad troubles and evil times, FOR THE VERSE CONTINUES: "FOR BEFORE THE CHILD SHALL KNOW HOW TO REFUSE THE EVIL AND CHOOSE THE GOOD, THE LAND...SHALL BE DESERTED..." (IBID.16). And though THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, will be with us during these years, AS INDICATED BY THE CHILD'S NAME, IMMANU-EL, WHICH IS THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH, YET The Shechinah trembled and separated from Her husband, ZEIR ANPIN, and stayed with us in exile. THOUGH THE SHECHINAH IS WITH US, SHE SUFFERES PAIN AND EXILE, AND IS ALONE. SO THERE IS PREGNANCY THAT PRECEDES THE BIRTH OF EXILE. "A hundred and ten years old," is the further impression CONSIDERED THE PREGNANCY OF THE EXILE. THE VERSE wishes to point that out of the EGYPTIAN exile, one hundred and ten years passed AS PREGNANCY, WHILE 290 years WERE THE EXILE ITSELF. In all, there are four hundred years WHICH THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SPOKE OF TO AVRAHAM, IN THE DECREE OF 'BETWEEN THE PIECES.' The exile of Ya'akov started only when Yosef died. In connection to this it was said: "And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate be set up, there shall be a thousand (Heb. eleph) two hundred and ninety days" (Daniel 12:11).

21. "So the whole age of Ya'akov was a hundred and forty seven years" (Beresheet 47:28). THE 147 YEARS OF YA'AKOV'S LIFE CONTAIN the secret of the number of correction by exile the descendants will endure, who were exiled under strict Judgment into three exiles. The first one in Egypt is likened to seven years. Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles, and by the hinds of the fields" (Shir Hashirim 2:7). HERE TOO, THE NUMBER SEVEN (HEB. SHEVA), OF YA'AKOV'S LIFE, IS DERIVED FROM THE OATH (HEB. SHEVUAH), NOT TO AWAKE THE LOVE, UNTIL REDEMPTION PLEASES.

22. Rabbi Shimon said: From this WE LEARN THE EXPLANATION TO THE NUMBER SEVEN. IT IS WRITTEN, "Hashem appeared to me from afar, saying: I have loved you with an everlasting love" (Yirmeyah 31:3). FROM AFAR, NAMELY, IN EXILE, BECAUSE GREAT LOVE IS REVEALED ONLY BY EXILE. Here lies the secret, that exile is the means of the children of Yisrael to be freed from exile AND THAT HIS LOVE WILL BE REVEALED TO US. Scripture wishes to point, BY THE NUMBER SEVEN OF YA'AKOV'S LIFE, that the holy children who were exiled for their sins will be sentenced for many years, which will amount to "seven times... according to your sins" (Vayikra 26:21). IT ALSO SAYS, "If Kain shall be avenged sevenfold" (Beresheet 4:24), WHICH NUMBER FIXES THE DAMAGE THEY MADE, AND REVEALS THE LIGHT OF REDEMPTION. THIS IS during the first exile in Egypt, which is the shortest OF THE EXILES.

23. The second exile is in Babylon, likened to forty years FROM YA'AKOV'S LIFE IN RELATION TO the seven IN EGYPT, for it is longer than it.

23. תְּנִינָא, גְלוּתָא דְּשׁוּמְטִים, דְּאַתְמַתְל לְאַרְבָּעִים שָׁנִין, בְּשִׁבַע דְּאִינְהוּ סְגִיָּאִי מְנִיה.

24. The third exile is the longest, likened to the hundred years OF YA'AKOV'S LIFE, IN RELATION TO the forty years OF THE BABYLONIAN EXILE.

24. תְּלִיתָאִי, גְלוּתָא דְּאַנְן בֵּיה, אַרְיָכָא, דְּאַתְמַתְל לְמֵאָה שָׁנִין, לְאַרְבָּעִין.

2. "And the time drew near...and he called his son Yosef"

Rabbi Chizkiyah begins by explaining that Yisrael saw the torture of exile upon his descendants, and consequently, his soul began to die. Yisrael then gathered his exiles and told them that if they wished to be absolved of their sins, they must behave according to truth and justice in the eyes of God. Rabbi Shimon then explains why Yisrael called only Yosef his son and not all the other exiles. This is because all the children of Yisrael were called Yosef. Rabbi Chizkiyah then refers to the secret of the Vav as including Ya'akov, Yosef, and others, as well as the six Sfirot.

The Relevance of this Passage

Yisrael's action of talking to the people of the exile is a code for the great patriarch calling upon all generations, including the readers of this passage, and awakening them to the power of the Light and the path to eternal freedom, fulfillment, and the final redemption. When Yisrael calls only the name Yosef, the Zohar is indicating a direct reference to the Sfirah/dimension of Yesod, the portal and funnel through which the supernal Light flows into our world. The name Yosef refers to the Light that is flowing from Yesod to us--the reader and all the people who remain in exile in our current generation. This Light now becomes part of our being.

25. "And the time drew near for Yisrael to die" (Beresheet 47:29). Rabbi Chizkiyah said: He saw this trouble of exile upon his children, and his soul drew near death. He did not remain alive when he descended his grades because of the sins of Yisrael. YISRAEL, ZEIR ANPIN, did not go into exile with them, LIKE THE SHECHINAH, WHO WENT INTO EXILE WITH THEM. HE ASKS: Happy is the portion OF YISRAEL, for if He, ZEIR ANPIN, would not have gone down with them into exile, they would have remained among the nations WITHOUT BEING ABLE TO ESCAPE. Why then does it say, "Why, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer?" (Yeshayah 50:2). "Was there none to answer" alludes to the children of Yisrael, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN; "when I came, was there no man": This is the Shechinah. "Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness" SO ZEIR ANPIN DID COME DOWN ALSO WITH THEM INTO EXILE? HE ANSWERS: The Holy One, blessed be He, gave a portion to the children of Yisrael, so that no other minister would rule over them; THUS HE IS WITH THEM IN EXILE. ALSO when they went into exile,

26. "And he called his son Yosef, and said to him, if now I have found favor in your sight." He examined all his sons and said to them, I see many evil troubles come upon your children, and ONE SHOULD find supernal Mercy.

27. If you wish to be delivered from all these troubles, swear before me, and we shall have the Master of the universe AS WITNESS between us, that you will conduct yourself according to truth and justice, and behave like your fathers. You shall teach it to every generation that will come after you. If you shall do so, you shall escape all the troubles that will come upon you.

28. Rabbi Shimon said: TO EXPLAIN AWAY THE DIFFICULTY THAT HE CALLED ONLY YOSEF HIS SON AND NOT ALL THE TRIBES, THE WORDS OF RABBI SHIMON ARE BROUGHT HERE. "And establish justice in the gate: it may be that Hashem Elohim of Tzeva'ot will be gracious to the remnant of Yosef" (Amos 5:15), for all the children of Yisrael are called Yosef.

29. THE ZOHAR RETURNS TO THE WORDS OF YA'AKOV: 'If you shall do so, you shall bury not one of my children in Egypt, but return safely with me to your land.'

30. It is written: "Put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh" (Bereshheet 47:29). HE ASKS: What is "your hand"? He opened the discussion saying: "Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty warrior: your glory and your majesty" (Tehilim 45:4). ALSO "YOUR HAND UNDER MY THIGH" ALLUDES TO A SWORD, WHICH IS a sword of Grace and Truth, the two Sfirot which do not separate from each other; NAMELY YESOD WHICH CONTAINS THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM AND THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH, CALLED TRUTH AND BRIGHTNESS OF COUNTENANCE. Therefore it says, "Love and Truth shall go before you" (Tehilim 89:15), "The anger of Hashem divided them" (Eichah 4:16). And if His children were good and did what they accepted upon them, not one of the children would have died in Egypt, for each kindness that the Holy One blessed be He decrees upon men is on the condition they will be good. As David said: "That Hashem may continue His word which He spoke concerning me, saying: 'If your children take heed to their way, to walk before Me in Truth'" (I Melachim 2:4). But if not, He shall not.

32. We learned that Rabbi Hamnuna Saba (the elder) once went to Cappadocia. Going towards him was Rabbi Yisa Saba. According to Rav Ashlag, this paragraph is a later interpolation, which in other versions starts with Rabbi Aba.

34. "And he said: 'Swear to me'" (Beresheet 47:31). Rabbi Chizkiyah opened the discussion saying: "Hashem has sworn by His right hand, and by the arm of His strength" (Yeshayah 62:8), WHICH MEANS Hashem swore He would deliver the children of Yisrael from their exile. This is what He swore to them BY THE VERSE: "AND HE SWORE TO HIM" (BERESHEET 47:31) HERE WHICH ALSO REFERS TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. He swore to them He would not abandon them in the land of their enemies.

34. "And he said: 'Let me go, for the day breaks.' And he said: 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me'" (Beresheet 32:27). What does "bless me" mean; TO WIT, WHAT WERE THE BLESSINGS HE CONFERRED UPON HIM? HE ANSWERS: He assigned them to exile and swore to them He would deliver them from it.

33. ויאמר השבעה לי וגו'. רבי חזקיה פתח ואמר, נשבע ה' בימינו ובזרוע עזו, קיים קודשא בריך הוא, דיפוק לישראל מן גלותא דלהון, ודא קיים להון, קיים, דלא ישבוק לון בארע שנאיהון.

35. We learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, would DO for His children of Yisrael, that they would all dwell under His throne, and excel the high ANGELS. Therefore, one finds a long Vav IN THE TORAH, LIKE IN "WHATEVER GOES ON ITS BELLY (HEB. GACHON)" (VAYIKRA 11:42), which is an allusion that the Holy One, blessed be He, swore upon the perfection of the Vav (=six) generations. THE SECRET OF AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, YA'AKOV, MOSHE, AHARON, AND YOSEF, THE SECRET OF THE SIX SFIROT: CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD. Because of these six, IT IS WRITTEN: "And Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head" (Beresheet 47:31), YISRAEL BEING THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH INCLUDES: CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD. The bowing of Yisrael ALLUDES TO the coming of Mashiach at the end of this time; TO WIT, AFTER SIX THOUSAND YEARS, ALLUDING TO THE SIX COMPLETE SFIROT, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD, CLOTHED BY SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA, WHICH SFIROT ARE EACH OF A THOUSAND YEARS. And the Shechinah will dwell among them.

35. תָּנָא, זְמַיִן קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְבְרִיהוֹן דִּישְׂרָאֵל, דִּיהוֹן כָּל חַד וְחַד תַּחוּת בְּרִסְיָהּ, וְיְהוֹן מַעְלִיִן מִכָּל עֲלָאִי, בְּגִין דָּא תִשְׁכַּח וְאִ"ו אַרְיָכָא, קַיִים קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְשִׁלְמוּתָא דְו' דִּר"א וּבְגִין שְׂתָא וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל עַל רֵאשׁ הַמֶּטֶה, סָגִיד יִשְׂרָאֵל, דְּלִיתֵי מְשִׁיחָא, בְּסוּף מְנַיִנָא דָּא, וְתִשְׂרִי שְׂכִינְתָא עִמְהוֹן.

3. "Behold, your father is sick"

Rabbi Chizkiyah begins by saying that this quotation refers to events at the end of exile, and means, literally, Yosef's father, Yisrael, is "worried and in haste." Rabbi Aba then adds that the name Yud-Hei-Vav ??? would be changed to Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei ??? to expedite Yisrael doing good for his children, so they would come out of exile. Rabbi Aba then explains Ya'akov's exposure to truth, and Avraham's to grace.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Hebrew letters Yud, Hei, Vav, Hei, ??? are known as the Tetragrammaton, one of the Holy Names of The Creator. The addition of the final Hei ? in the Holy Name corresponds to our physical realm. The other three letters ??? represent the Upper Worlds, specifically four dimensions of Keter, Chochmah, Binah, and Zeir Anpin. Thus, this passage is our connection to the Upper Worlds, via the Tetragrammaton, so that we may brighten our lives and the world with the resplendent Light of The Creator.

36. "And it came to pass after these things that one told Yosef, 'Behold, your father is sick.'" (Beresheet 48:1). In the Mishnah Rabbi Chizkiyah said, that the verse does not teach us what YOSEF did, but brings before us the events at the end of exile, at the end of the set time. He says that Mashiach, THE SECRET OF YOSEF, will come and say to him, Your Father in heaven makes haste to welcome you, who looks to the end of Mashiach. "YOUR FATHER IS SICK" MEANS, HE IS WORRIED AND IN HASTE. "AND HE TOOK WITH HIM MENASHE AND EPHRAIM" (IBID.). MEANS: May it please Elohim in heaven to receive His children, who increased and multiplied (Heb. paru) in exile, FOR WHICH THEY ARE CALLED EPHRAIM, and THEIR SINS forgotten BECAUSE OF THE EXILE, THE SECRET OF THEIR BEING CALLED MENASHE, WHICH IS DERIVED FROM THE WORD FORGETFULNESS (HEB. NESHIAH). For the Holy One, blessed be He, truly forgot their transgressions.

37. When Rabbi Aba came, he said he came not to speak ABOUT THE VERSE, BUT TO EXPLAIN ITS MYSTERY. HE SAID: The secret of this matter is very important AS THAT OF THE VERSE, "Hashem shall add (Heb. yosef) to me another son" (Beresheet 30:24). As we explained in relation to that verse, the Holy Name written in Yosef, TO WIT, THAT THE THREE-LETTERED NAME Yud-Hei-Vav will say to him, here your Father, the Master over the World to Come, SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN WITH THE MOCHIN OF SUPERNAL BINAH, CALLED THE WORLD TO COME, wishes to do good for His children, so they may come out of exile. But if you do not favor your Truth BECAUSE YOU FIND THAT THEY DO NOT MERIT IT, here is a four-lettered name Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei to set you right and then will favor it that the Shechinah to return to Her place.

38. For the fathers are the supernal Chariot FOR THE HOLY NAME on high, as it is written: "And Elohim went up from Avraham" (Beresheet 17:22), WHICH MEANS HE WAS RIDING ON HIM. IT IS ALSO WRITTEN, "You will show Truth to Ya'akov, Grace (Heb. chesed) to Avraham" (Michah 7:20). THUS YA'AKOV WAS A CHARIOT TO TIFERET CALLED TRUTH, AND AVRAHAM A CHARIOT TO CHESD. And we learned that BY THE UNISON OF THE ONE YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, Mashiach will come.

4. "At evening time, there will be light"

Rabbi Yosi describes how there will be a day without day or night, until the evening, when there will be light, at which time, two evils will befall Ya'akov's children. But these occur so his children can be taken to "the good land." Rabbi Aba then poses a conundrum: "What is darkness?" The others determine that "darkness is Gehenom."

The Relevance of this Passage

The phrase, "day without day or night," refers to the potential darkness and destruction [God forbid] that may appear before the final redemption of mankind takes place. Two paths to redemption and eternal peace are always available to us, a Light-filled path that embodies mercy and protection, or a darkened path that embodies pain, torment, and suffering. Our egos constantly urge us towards the path of darkness. Through a meditative, intense read of this passage, we can help ourselves, and the world at large, avoid the potential gloom and devastation that attends the path of darkness.

39. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse: "But it shall be one particular day which shall be known as Hashem's, neither day, nor night: but it shall come to pass that at evening time, there will be light" (Zecharyah 14:7). HE STARTED EXPLAINING THE VERSE, "AND HE TOOK...EFRAIM AND MENASHE" (BERESHEET 48:1), BUT EXPLAINED NO FURTHER. THE ZOHAR EXPLAINS THE WORDS OF RABBI YOSI, SAYING THAT HE wishes to say that two evils will befall the children OF YA'AKOV: 1) they will be in exile in the land of their enemies, THIS BEING THE ASPECT OF EFRAIM AND MENASHE. 2) He will not look at them many years on account of their sinning to Truth, and so will abandon them in the land of their enemies. Eventually, He would take their children, to whom these TWO evils befell, and conduct them to the good land, as the verse says, "AND HE TOOK... MENASHE AND EFRAIM"; TO WIT, HE WILL TAKE THEM, TO WHOM THE TWO EVILS BEFELL, AND CONDUCT THEM TO THEIR GOOD LAND.

40. There were two great and exalted ministers who were knocking under the Throne of Glory of Yisrael's chieftain, the fifth measure, to cause them to remain in exile for as long AS THEY NEED, FROM THE ASPECT OF EFRAIM, and worse, that He would forget them in the land of their enemies, WHICH IS THE ASPECT OF MENASHE.

41. These two ministers are two attributes, each containing two aspects; TO WIT, EACH IS DIVIDED INTO TWO ATTRIBUTES. HE EXPLAINS, One ATTRIBUTE came and spoke before the Master of the universe and was given permission to say what it liked. On the one hand, it saw it should be decreed that the children of Yisrael should come out of exile, due to their fathers' merit. On the other hand, it saw they deserve to be sentenced TO REMAIN IN EXILE for their sins, for THE ACCUSERS said great evil things about them. There are four attributes in all. FOR EACH OF THE MINISTERS, THE TWO ATTRIBUTES CONTAINS TWO ASPECTS; TO WIT, ONE FOR AND ONE AGAINST. But they did not have the fifth attribute, Yisrael's chieftain, and they spoke as they pleased. THE TWO MINISTERS SPOKE NOW FOR AND NOW AGAINST, FOR THEY HAD NOT THE FIFTH ATTRIBUTE, WHICH TURNS ALL INTO MERIT.

42. Then the fifth attribute arrived, WHICH WILL BE REVEALED AT THE END OF CORRECTION, to be upon the Throne of Glory of the Holy Name. It would say good things about Yisrael, and the two first measures would no longer be afraid to speak before Him GOOD THINGS ABOUT YISRAEL, AS THEY WERE BEFORE. For the fifth attribute, which was considered the rule of the night, now came out to shine upon them. Therefore RABBI YOSI opened the discussion saying: "But it shall be one particular day which shall be known as Hashem's, neither day, nor night: but it shall come to pass that at evening time, there will be light."

43. We have learned that the verse, "And Elohim called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night" (Bereshheet 1:5) MEANS THAT THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED DARKNESS, AND ALSO CALLED NIGHT, RECEIVES FROM DAY, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. It is also said: "And darkness was on the face of the deep" (Ibid. 2) TO WIT, DARKNESS IS A KLIPAH, NOT PERTAINING TO HOLINESS. The verses contradict each other. Rabbi Elazar came to his father Rabbi Shimon and said to him: My father and master, what is the meaning of this CONTRADICTION? He replied to him, From the beginning, up to the sixth generation, THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, He created one Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF BINAH. He explains, This refers to THE SECRET OF Vav of the name YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, ZEIR ANPIN, upon which BINAH conferred the spirit of Chochmah. THEREFORE, until then, darkness was not known at all. Rabbi Elazar rose and kissed his father's hands.

44. Rabbi Aba rose and asked: What is darkness? The friends turned around, TO WIT, THEY SOUGHT HARD FOR AN ANSWER, but did not arrive at an answer to his question. They did something, NAMELY A CERTAIN MEDITATION, and a voice from before the Master of the universe resounded this verse, "A land of gloom, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness" (Iyov 10:22). THIS DARKNESS MEANS Gehenom, for even before the world was created, it was stored for the wicked. FROM THIS, THEY UNDERSTOOD THAT DARKNESS IS GEHENOM. Woe to the wicked, who will abide in this darkness, when Elohim will do all this as it says in, "For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples: but Hashem shall arise upon you, and His glory shall be seen upon you" (Yeshayah 60:2). Happy is the portion of Yisrael, that the Holy One, blessed be He, did not create THIS DARKNESS for them. "Happy is that people, that is in such a case: Happy is that people, whose Elohim is Hashem" (Tehilim 144:15).

5. "And one told Ya'akov"

Rabbi Yosi explains that the quotation, "And one told Ya'akov," refers to Ya'akov being told his children would be redeemed. Through this redemption, Ya'akov would receive both truth and grace, which are two Sfirot, also contained in two higher Chariots, Avraham and Ya'akov. The Relevance of this Passage

To achieve a higher level of spirituality and existence, we sometimes need to "borrow" Light from The Creator in order to use it to awaken and arouse even greater Light in our lives and in this world. This is similar to a businessman borrowing money from a bank for the purpose of building a successful business. In other words, you need money in order to make money. Hence, the primary purpose of this passage is to entrust the readers with Light, so that they may use it to for spiritual purposes and the formation of greater Light.

45. "And one told Ya'akov, and said: 'Behold, your son Yosef comes to you'" (Beresheet 48:2). Rabbi Yosi said: It was an angel WHO TOLD YA'AKOV that he was about to pronounce good words about the children of Yisrael at the time they would return to the Holy One, blessed be He, with all their troubles, when Mashiach's end was to come. And He would say to the attribute, YA'AKOV, THE SECRET OF TIFERET, your children are come to you, and the good ones, the children of YISRAEL, will be redeemed.

45. וַיִּגַד לְיַעֲקֹב וַיֹּאמֶר הִנֵּה בְנֵךְ יוֹסֵף בָּא אֵלֶיךָ. רַבִּי יוֹסֵי אָמַר, מְלֹאכָא הוּא, דְּהוּה עֲתִיד לְמִימַר טַב עַל בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, כְּדֵי יִתְיַבּוּן לְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּכָל עֲקֻתָּהוֹן, כְּדֵי יִיְתִי קְצָא דְמִשְׁחָא, בְּכָל עֲקֻתָּא דְחֵיתִי עֲלֵיהוֹן, וַיִּמְרוּן לְמַכִּילְתָּא בְּרִיךְ אֲתִי לוֹתֵךְ, וַיִּתְפָּרְקוּן טְבָאי.

46. Happy is the portion of Yisrael, who are named the children of the Holy One, blessed be He, that are like angels, OF WHOM IT SAYS, "And all THE SONS OF Elohim shouted for joy" (Iyov 38:6). YISRAEL ARE ALSO CALLED the sons of Hashem, AS IT SAYS, "YOU ARE THE CHILDREN OF HASHEM YOUR ELOHIM" (DEVARIM 14:1).

47. Come and behold! When do we know that the Holy One, blessed be He, called Ya'akov, 'El'? He said to him: 'You shall be among the lower beings, and I shall be Elohim among the upper beings. Whence do we know that? HE ANSWERS: It is written, "And Elohim went up from Avraham" (Beresheet 17:22). Thus the fathers are a Chariot to the Holy One, blessed be He. We learned that "you will show Truth to Ya'akov, Grace (lit. 'Chesed') to Avraham" (Michah 7:20) has in it two Sfirot, CHESD, AND TRUTH WHICH IS TIFERET in two bigger and higher Chariots, AVRAHAM AND YA'AKOV.

47. תָּא חֲזִי, מִנֵּין שְׁקֵרָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְיַעֲקֹב א"ל, אֵת תְּהָא בְּתַתָּא, וְאֲנָא אֵהָא אֱלֹהָא בְּעֵלְאָה, מְאִי קָא מִיִּירִי. וַיַּעַל אֱלֹהִים מֵעַל אַבְרָהָם, אֲבָהֵתָן אִינוּן רְתִיכָאן דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא. תְּנָא, תִּתֵּן אֲמַת לְיַעֲקֹב חֶסֶד לְאַבְרָהָם, הָא תֵּרִין סְפִירָן, בְּתֵרִין רְתִיכָן, רַבְרַבָּן עֲלָאִין.

48. The third one is Yitzchak , WHO BECAME A CHARIOT TO THE SFIRAH OF GVURAH. Whence DO WE KNOW THAT FROM? FROM THE WORDS "And Ya'akov swore by the fear of his father Yitzchak" (Beresheet 31:53). For the fear of Yitzchak is a Sfirah of the Holy One, blessed be He, NAMELY GVURAH CALLED FEAR, and became the Throne of Glory, ITS supernal Chariot. Yitzchak's Sfirah, GVURAH, is more important and explicit than the other Sfirot of the fathers, CHESD AND TIFERET. For that reason it is written, "And Ya'akov swore by the fear of his father Yitzchak"; NAMELY BY THE SFIRAH OF GVURAH CALLED FEAR, WHICH IS THE MOST IMPORTANT.

49. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion saying: "The Elohim of Avraham, and the Elohim of Nachor, the Elohim of their father, judge between us. And Ya'akov swore by the fear of his father Yitzchak." (Beresheet 31:53). From this verse, one may derive THAT YITZCHAK'S SFIRAH IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE OTHERS, FOR HE DID NOT SWEAR BY ELOHIM OF AVRAHAM, BUT BY THE FEAR OF YITZCHAK.

49. ר' אַבָּא פְּתַח וַאֲמַר, אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם וְאֵלֵהִי נַחֲוֹר יִשְׁפְּטוּ בֵּינֵינוּ אֱלֹהֵי אָבִיהֶם, וַיִּשָּׁבַע יַעֲקֹב בְּפַחַד אָבִיו יִצְחָק, מְהָאִי קְרָא אֵת וְכִיל לְמַנְדַּע דָּא.

6. "And sat upon the bed"

Rabbi Shimon explains that chief angel Michael will come to the side of Yisrael at his time of redemption. Yisrael will gain strength from this, and will sit on the bed, which is a code alluding to this truth. Rabbi Shimon then explains that "marries the daughter of a strange El" refers to Yisrael, whom, in spite of his sins, would redeem those in exile, and preserve the nations. Rabbi Yosi then describes two angels, Mata and Matatron, as the Shechinah, sent from Binah to protect Yisrael. Rabbi Shimon next explains the meaning of Rut, which details the relationship between mercy and judgment. Rabbis Shimon and Aba then begin a discourse on "All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full."

The Relevance of this Passage

The assistance of the supernal angels, including Michael, who represents the Right Column energy of mercy, and the protective Light of the Shechinah, is drawn into our lives. This Light also helps to accelerate the end of our personal and global exile.

50. "And Yisrael strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed." (Beresheet 48:2). The secret of the verse is: "And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great chief angel, who stands for the children of your people: and there shall be a time of trouble" (Daniel 12:1). Rabbi Shimon says, This is the might of the great Michael, WHO WILL STAND UP FOR YISRAEL AT THE TIME OF REDEMPTION, WHICH WILL BE "A TIME OF TROUBLE SUCH AS NEVER WAS SINCE THERE WAS A NATION..." THUS SCRIPTURE CONCLUDES WITH "AND YISRAEL STRENGTHENED." "And sat upon the bed": As before when he bowed upon it, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "AND YISRAEL BOWED HIMSELF UPON THE BED'S HEAD," BUT NOW HE SAT UPON IT. HE ASKS: To whom did Ya'akov bow? If you say he bowed to the bed, WHICH IS MALCHUT. The bed was ready TO RECEIVE from him, AND THE GIVER DOES NOT BOW BEFORE THE RECEIVER. HE ANSWERS: He bowed to the circumcision, THE SECRET OF YESOD, of which he was fond.

51. "For Yehuda has profaned the holiness of Hashem which he loved, and has married the daughter of a strange El" (Malachi 2:11). HE WAS ASKED A DIFFICULT QUESTION ABOUT THE MEANING OF "MARRIED THE DAUGHTER OF A STRANGE EL." HE SAYS, When the light was gone from ZEIR ANPIN, due to YISRAEL'S sins, THE SHECHINAH could not stand before ZEIR ANPIN and was exiled from the King. TO WIT, SHE WENT TOGETHER WITH YISRAEL INTO EXILE AMONG THE NATIONS, since She could not leave Her children among the nations to be killed. ZEIR ANPIN was in the Holy Land and, by having foreign nations with him, as it says "MARRIED THE DAUGHTER OF A STRANGE EL," it conveys that the Shechinah was going into exile with them among the nations, when She was not in the land of Yisrael but in other lands. Thus, by the light of Yisrael, the nations around them were preserved. THEREFORE, IT SAYS "MARRIED THE DAUGHTER OF A STRANGE EL." (IT LOOKS AS IF IT IS AN INTERPOLATION FROM THE WORDS 'IT CONVEYS.')

52. We learned, Rabbi Yosi said, that there were two ministers, NAMELY ANGELS, under the Holy Throne of Glory. The one, BY NAME OF MATA, dwells within the treasury of the Temple. And here we are in exile, and nothing remained to us but him, who is of the nature OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, and impressed by the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He. THIS IS THE ANGEL MATATRON, WHOSE NAME IS AS THE NAME OF HIS MASTER, AS IT IS WRITTEN OF HIM: "FOR MY NAME IS IN HIM" (SHEMOT 23:21).

53. It is written: "Behold, I send an angel before you, to keep you" (Shemot 23:20). It is not worthy to speak that way only of the World to Come, NAMELY BINAH, as we explained it to be the protection along the way. TO WIT, THE POWER TO PROTECT COMES FROM BINAH. THEREFORE, IT WAS BINAH WHICH SAID TO YISRAEL, "BEHOLD, I SEND AN ANGEL," NAMELY THE SHECHINAH "TO KEEP YOU," AND NO OTHER GRADE, BECAUSE PROTECTION COMES FROM IT. SHE SAID: I, the Shechinah, hover among you and protect you in exile. She will protect you until bringing you to your country, as you were before. THIS IS WHAT IS WRITTEN, "I have prepared" (Ibid.), WITH WHICH the verse CONCLUDES "to the place which I have prepared," for THE LAND was their dwelling place even before.

54. THE ANGEL MENTIONED IS the Shechinah, CLOTHED AND WORKING through Matatron. For the Shechinah was exiled INTO EXILE CALLED, from the King, ZEIR ANPIN, AND SHE WORKS THROUGH MATATRON until THE TIME OF REDEMPTION WHEN She will return to Her place TO ZEIR ANPIN. It is a mystery that: "For only Og, king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Refaim; behold, his bed is a bed of iron; is it not in Rabba of the children of Amon?" (Devarim 3:11), as we explained elsewhere.

50. וַיִּתְחַזַּק יִשְׂרָאֵל וַיֹּשֶׁב עַל הַמֶּטֶה, וְרָזָא דְקָרָא, בַּעַת הַהִיא יַעֲמֹד מִיכָאֵל הַשָּׂר הַגָּדוֹל הָעוֹמֵד עַל בְּנֵי עַמּוֹךְ וְהִיתָה עֵת צָרָה. ר"ש אָמַר, דָּא גְבוּרַת יָדָא דְמִיכָאֵל רַבְרָבָא. וַיֹּשֶׁב עַל הַמֶּטֶה: כַּמָּה לִּיהַּ הָוָה מְקַדְּמַת דְנָא סְגִיד. לְמָאן הָוָה סְגִיד, סְגִיד לְעַרְסָא, הָוָה עַרְסָא פְתִיחָא מִנְיָה. לְמַהוּלְתָּא הָוָה סְגִיד, דְהָא הוּת חֲבִיבָא מִנְיָה.

55. In the way, which is a parable of the exile, THE SHECHINAH will protect you from all the troubles which will come upon you, until He will come and gather you into the land which He promised to your fathers, which is kept FOR YOU.

55. וְאַרְחָא, דְּאַתְמַתְל לְגִלוּתָא, נְטֵר יִתְהוּן בְּגִלוּתָא,

56. The second minister underneath the Holy Throne, which dwells in the treasure of the Temple is Nuriel. For the minister appointed over the children of Yisrael, NAMELY THE FIRST MINISTER UNDER THE HOLY THRONE, Matatron, when the Shechinah was with the King, would come and go before them. THE SECOND MINISTER, NURIEL, would receive the worship of Yisrael to the Holy One, blessed be He, as fire (Aramaic nura). And when the fire was no more, because the children of Yisrael were exiled, Her light was gone, and the Shechinah departed from the King.

57. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform to you the part of a kinsman, well (lit. 'good'); let him do the kinsman's part" (Rut 3:13) RUT IS THE SECRET OF MALCHUT, WHICH IS JUDGMENT, AND GOOD IS MERCY. Rabbi Yosi said: Mercy is more powerful than Judgment. "And Elohim saw the light, that it was good" (Beresheet 1:4). Hence, goodness and light are equal, for it is the source of all the springs, whence the sea and all the rivers in the world come from. THE MEANING OF THE WORDS CONCERNING RUT ARE THAT IF HE WILL DO THE KINSMAN'S PART, GOOD, MEANING THAT MERCY CALLED GOOD WILL DO THE KINSMAN'S PART BY RUTH AND HAVE CONTROL OVER HER, WHO IS JUDGMENT.

57. ר' שְׁמַעוֹן פִּתַּח וְאָמַר לִינִי הִלִּילָה וְהִיָּה בְּפִקֵּר
אִם יִגְאַלְךָ טוֹב יִגְאַל, אָמַר ר' יוֹסִי, שְׁלִיט רַחֲמֵי עַל

58. We learned that Rabbi Shimon said: Once I went up and down to shine at the source of the springs. Rabbi Aba came up after me and said to me, With what are you occupied? I said to him: With the verse, "All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full" (Kohelet 1:7). From the light OF BINAH were created all the ministers in the world, and from its light flow all the rivers; NAMELY, "the rivers" in the verse, "ALL THE RIVERS RUN INTO THE SEA; YET THE SEA IS NOT FULL." THE SEA, MALCHUT, is not full when in exile, because the darkness and obscurity IN THE EXILE were made by a mother's love, BINAH. And were it not FOR DARKNESS, the river would not have been created which shines unto the daughter, MALCHUT. The sea shall not be filled and made whole until the other side which was not in exile would have come; NAMELY THE RIGHT SIDE, UPON WHICH NO KLIPAH HAS EVER ANY CONTROL. THEN THE SEA, MALCHUT, WILL BE FILLED.

58. תֵּנָא אָמַר ר"ש, זְמַנָּא חֲדָא סְלִיקְנָא וְנַחֲתָנָא

7. The names called hand

Rabbi Elazar first explains that the hands belong to The Creator, the source of Light for everything, meaning mercy. He then begs Rabbi Shimon to reveal to him the secret of the name "hand." Rabbi Shimon explains that without the "hand," which is mercy, war would prevail, since judgment would be allowed to come before mercy. But the Mashiach will come and wage war against Amalek through judgment, and in it, prevail. Rabbi Elazar then explains that the "the great hand" and "the supernal hand" are the same thing. They have the same numerical value and therefore, will be the left and right hands joined together. Even though one is called "great" and the other "strong," and therefore, must be different, they are equal by the name "hand," because of their letters Yud-Dalet, and will therefore create the heaven and the earth.

The Relevance of this Passage

Many profound lessons and benefits arise from this passage, including a secret concerning the nation of Amalek. Kabbalists have revealed that the nation of Amalek is a code term that refers to the doubts and uncertainties that dwell within the consciousness of man. Specifically, these doubts concern the following: our recognition of the reality of The Creator; our trust in the spiritual laws of our universe; our willingness to embark on and remain on the correct spiritual path. Whenever we begin to approach these universal truths and come nearer to the Light, doubts automatically set in. Consciously waging war against uncertainty helps to hasten the arrival of our personal Mashiach, as well as the global redemption. Moreover, triumphing over our doubt helps to ignite the Light of mercy, which sweetens the Judgments due to us as a result of previous iniquities in this life or past incarnations. Hence, the strength to defeat skepticism is summoned forth herein and the Light of mercy shines brighter in our lives, helping to soften decrees of judgement that might be due us.

59. The names called 'hand'-NAMELY THE HAND OF HASHEM, THE GREAT HAND, THE STRONG HAND-are the source OF LIGHT for everything. You will find only the hand of Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, as in the verse "the hand of Hashem is not shortened" (Yeshayah 59:1), since 'hand' is always combined with the name YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS MERCY.

60. Rabbi Elazar came to ask his father Rabbi Shimon. He wept and said to him: Reveal to me this secret, my father and master, OF THE NAME 'HAND'. He said to him: It will be revealed to you through the verse: "Because Hashem has sworn by His throne (lit. 'a hand on the throne of Yah'); that Hashem will have war" (Shemot 17:16), TO WIT, hand on the throne of Yah due to Yud-Hei-Vav-Hei, WHICH IS MERCY, Mercy being stronger than Judgment. The verse wishes to say, may there be forever, instead of Gvurah, the great hand which was in Egypt, WHICH IS MERCY; for were it not FOR THE GREAT HAND, WAR would be through Judgment WITHOUT MERCY.

61. When Mashiach will come with the renewal of the great hand, he will wage war against Amalek, MERCY WILL OVERCOME JUDGMENT LIKE AT THE EXODUS FROM EGYPT, AS IT IS WRITTEN "By strength of hand Hashem brought us out of Egypt" (Shemot 13:14). When the name hand is will come with 'strength of hand' alone, NOT WITH HASHEM'S HAND OR THE GREAT HAND, it is then in Judgment; namely war against Amalek will be fought through Judgment, and then Mashiach will come. Rabbi Elazar supports his explanation with the verse, "Then shall Hashem go out, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle" (Zechariah 14:3).

62. Come and see: THE STRENGTH OF the great hand, THE RIGHT HAND, reaches the supernal hand, THE LEFT HAND CALLED THE STRONG HAND. By this hand, they came out of Egypt, AS IT SAYS, "BY STRENGTH OF HAND HASHEM BROUGHT US OUT OF EGYPT." THEY ARE CONNECTED since they have the same numerical value, one Yud equals the other Yud and one Dalet the other (YUD-DALET = HAND). The name 'the great hand' and the name 'the supernal hand' are the same, equal in letters and numerical value. UNISON receives two hands together, IN OTHER WORDS, THE RIGHT AND LEFT WERE JOINED TOGETHER.

63. HE ASKS, Why were they not separated, as they are not equal, THE ONE IS CALLED GREAT AND THE OTHER STRONG. HE ANSWERS: The connection of these two was explained BECAUSE their letters, Yud-Dalet, which are the same, THOUGH they are not exactly of the same content. TO WIT, SINCE THEY ARE EQUAL BY THE NAME HAND, THEY MAY BE JOINED TOGETHER THOUGH THE ONE IS CALLED GREAT AND THE OTHER STRONG. From these TWO HANDS, the heaven and earth were created, and all that is with them. INSIDE THE UPPERMOST CIRCLE: Yud to Yud, Dalet to Dalet. INSIDE THE SECOND CIRCLE WITHIN THE UPPERMOST ONE, TO THE RIGHT OF THE CIRCLE: Yud to Yud, Vav to Vav, Dalet to Dalet; AND TO ITS LEFT: Dalet to Dalet, Lamed to Lamed, Tav to Tav. INSIDE THE THIRD CIRCLE, THAT IS WITHIN THE SECOND, TO THE RIGHT OF THE CIRCLE: Dalet to Dalet, Lamed to Lamed, Tav to Tav; AND TO ITS LEFT: Lamed to Lamed, Mem to Mem, Dalet to Dalet; Tav to Tav, Vav to Vav. IN THE CENTER OF THESE CIRCLES: Vav above; AND BELOW IT Yud-Hei, Yud-Hei, BELOW THEM Shadai, AND BELOW IT the Chariot of the fathers of Yisrael. They are the first Sfirah, NAMELY THE UPPER CIRCLE, which is sublime Keter, WHERE THE SIMPLE LETTERS ARE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF KETER. We learned that "The eyes of Hashem are in every place, watching the evil and the good" (Mishlei 15:3). THE SECOND CIRCLE IS THE SECRET OF THAT VERSE; NAMELY THE SFIRAH CHOCHMAH, SINCE EYES ARE THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH. HENCE, IT CONTAINS THE LETTERS OF THE LETTERS FULLY SPELLED OUT, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH. Third: IN THE THIRD CIRCLE, THERE IS THE SFIRAH BINAH, SINCE IN IT ARE

8. "...appeared to me at Luz"

Rabbi Aba explains that Luz is Jerusalem, namely Binah, which will give a blessing to Ya'akov and thereby ensure that the land will be given to his children. Rabbi Elazar further describes that the blessing will also ensure a pure land, and happy will be the portion of the land he will keep. Rabbi Elazar comments on circumcision, namely Yud, as being required in order to be called children of The Creator (holy children). Without it, as Rabbis Aba and Yosi point out, they will die without repentance, in this world and in the next.

The Relevance of this Passage

The awesome energy and Light that issues from the land of Yisrael, concentrated in the city of Jerusalem, is bestowed upon the reader. In addition, the power of purification, associated with the mystical Light aroused through circumcision, is imbued within our souls, helping to cleanse iniquities resulting from negative sexual behavior and adulterated thoughts.

64. "And Ya'akov said to Yosef, 'El Shadai appeared to me at Luz in the land of Cna'an'" (Beresheet 48:3). Rabbi Aba said: Luz is the Celestial Jerusalem, NAMELY BINAH, which puts the Shechinah to dwell with us. Supernal Ya'akov, ZEIR ANPIN, said to the lower YA'AKOV, BINAH blessed me, that it wants to increase you and give the land to your children. Luz, the Celestial Jerusalem, BINAH, WHICH IS the Holy One, blessed be He, gave a blessing which will be fulfilled in the Holy Land, but outside THE LAND, in another land, there shall be no blessing.

65. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion saying: "He that blesses a friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him" (Mishlei 27:14). The Holy One, blessed be He, called Yisrael brothers and friends. THE MEANING OF THIS VERSE "THAT BLESSES A FRIEND" REFERS TO THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO BLESSES YISRAEL. HE ASKS: What did He bless them? HE REPLIES: That this nation will be pure under Him, and that He will watch over them.

65. ר' אֶלְעָזָר פִּתַּח וְאָמַר, מְבָרַךְ רֵעֵהוּ בְּקוֹל גְּדוֹל בְּבִקְרֵי הַשָּׁכֵם קָלְלָהּ תַּחֲשַׁב לוֹ, קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא קָרָא לְיִשְׂרָאֵל אַחִים וְרֵעִים, מֵאִי בְּרַכְתָּא יְהֵב לוֹן, דְּיְהוּן הָאִי עֲמָא דְכִינָא תַּחוּת יְדֵיהּ, וְלִמְהוּי עֲלִיּוֹן נְטִיר.

66. Happy is the portion of this pure nation WHICH HE KEEPS, for they are called dear children more than the supernal beings, as it is written: "You are the children of Hashem" (Devarim 14:1), all for that reason. What is this reason? HE REPLIES: That the name SHADAL is completed by their impression, for they are circumcised.

67. Come and see: The Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, is in a man's face, NAMELY SHIN, but Yud is missing and thus it is not complete. When Avraham came and became dear to the Holy One, blessed be He, He said to him: 'In you shall this name be completed. He circumcised himself, and the name became complete through the Yud of circumcision. For Shin is found in a man's face; NAMELY, THE TWO EYES AND THE NOSE IN THE MIDDLE. IN HIS ARM, you find Dalet, and the Yud is missing, the Yud of circumcision completes it. Then they are called children of Hashem, holy children.

68. When the sign of the holy covenant is defiled and put into the dominion of the other, NAMELY BY TRANSGRESSION, the holiness of the seal is gone from him, and he is considered as if he ruined the world, for he has defiled the seal upon which the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, is completed. Thus he ruins the world BY STOPPING THE BOUNTY OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, FROM THE WORLD.

69. Rabbi Aba was walking from Cappadocia with Rabbi Yosi. While they were walking they saw a man there with a mark upon his face. Woe to the wicked, who will die without repentance, and the mark will not disappear, neither in this world nor in the World to Come.

9. "Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you"

Rabbi Aba first explains that shame will not overcome Ya'akov, since he will keep his promise to his children, [Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you,] because to fail would be to invoke shame upon himself. The quotation is a blessing from God, meant to further ensure that Ya'akov will keep his promise. Rabbi Aba then ends by indicating that at the time of war against Amalek, only The Creator would go to fight.

The Relevance of this Passage

In truth, a man lacks the full power to overthrow the Satan, doubts and internal demons that dwell within him. Nonetheless, when a man willingly overcomes his doubt--known by the code word Amalek, The Creator will fight for him throughout his life, thus assuring a man's victory over the dark side and providing him with a life of fulfillment. This is precisely what occurs herein, as we peruse the letters of this passage with the consciousness and intent to eradicate our doubts and demons and allow The Creator to fight on our behalf.

70. "...and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you'" (Beresheet 48:4). Rabbi Aba opened the discussion speaking in relation to the verse: "Ya'akov shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now grow pale" (Yeshayah 29:22). A man who promises good for another man will be ashamed not to keep his promise. How the more so is A PROMISE come to man from above. If he brings not the goodness to his children that he said he would, he will be ashamed.

71. The Holy One, blessed be He, said TO YA'AKOV, "Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you" by this blessing given to Me FROM BINAH. And I will give this land to your children. Yet HIS CHILDREN are not in the land of Yisrael, nor is THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, with them. THIS IS SUPPOSEDLY SHAMEFUL THAT HE PROMISES YET DOES NOT KEEP IT. But when Mashiach's end will come AND HIS PROMISE will be fulfilled, the Holy One, blessed be He, said: "Ya'akov shall not now be ashamed." Now the face of supernal Ya'akov will not be put to shame, because of what he said "and will give THIS LAND TO YOUR SEED AFTER YOU" (Beresheet 48:4). For until now, he had naught in his hand to give them, and he was ashamed. Now his promise was kept before the Master of heaven and earth.

72. As we said, the war against Amalek will be by strength of hand alone when the end will come, for it is a day for battle, as is written: "Then shall Hashem go out, and fight against those nations, AS WHEN HE FOUGHT IN THE DAY OF BATTLE," He Himself shall go out, and none other.

10. "And now your two sons...who were born to you"

Rabbi Yosi opens the discussion with the saying that the two sons, Efraim and Menashe, are born to Yisrael into 'exile'. Vav will help Ya'akov at the time of redemption, and give his children a portion of the land. The aspect of Efraim refers to the children who were forgotten, and the aspect of Menashe to those he regards as his own. But Hashem will attend to both aspects and redeem them, taking them out of their land of exile. Rabbi Aba then says that when God executes judgment upon Egypt, Yisrael will be redeemed from exile. Rabbi Shimon next explains that God will make a Chupah (marriage canopy) for every righteous man in Jerusalem, as a means for the giving of the Torah and the building of the Temple. Yisrael will be born after the redemption of the fathers (Chariots). Rabbi Shimon finally explains that all children born in Jerusalem after the redemption, will go to Heaven, will have only Hebrew names, and will inherit the land according to their numbers.

The Relevance of this Passage

The blessings and wisdom contained herein are varied and abounding. Put briefly, we are all children of Ya'akov and our exile continues to this very day. However, when one earnestly turns to the path of Ya'akov, the Torah--the Light of the Upper World [the Hebrew letter Vav] will assist him in removing the Evil Inclination [Egypt], the underlying cause behind the continued exile. Furthermore, this passage awakens the entire world to the truth of the Torah and the power of Kabbalah and connects the reader to the redemptive Light emanating from the Land of Yisrael. Our personal and global redemption is therefore quickened.

73. "And now your two sons...who were born to you" (Beresheet 48:5): These are Yisrael below, who are in exile, the children of the Holy One, blessed be He, who are born among the nations. TO WIT, THE VERSE: "YOUR TWO SONS, EFRAIM AND MENASHE, WHO WERE BORN TO YOU IN THE LAND OF EGYPT" (IBID.) REFERS TO YISRAEL WHO ARE IN EXILE AMONG THE NATIONS. FOR EGYPT INCLUDES ALL EXILES. We learned, Rabbi Yosi said, that the children of Yisrael who will be in the Holy Land of Yisrael, dwelling in the land, at the coming of Mashiach, will be with their brothers in that place. For exile will be only for those who live in a foreign land, and they are called 'exiles'.

74. "I remember my covenant with Ya'akov" (Vayikra 26:42). The Vav OF YA'AKOV is superfluous, WHICH INDICATES that the Vav which was gone when the Temple was destroyed will help Ya'akov at the time OF REDEMPTION, and will be an everlasting possession for the holy son YA'AKOV, whose descendants shall live in the country in which they lived before, happy is their portion.

75. The children who were exiled out of the land of Yisrael and were forgotten, THE ASPECT OF MENASHE, and multiplied AND INCREASED ACCORDING TO THE ASPECT OF EFRAIM: Supernal Ya'akov, ZEIR ANPIN, said to the one below, Your children who are out of the land of Yisrael, born in exile in other lands, before I came to Egypt and sentenced them for their sins, I do not consider to be your children those who were born in exile in a foreign land, though they be many, THE ASPECT OF EFRAIM, and forgotten, THE ASPECT OF MENASHE, they are my own CHILDREN. But when I saw them in this exile, I healed their pains and heard their prayers, Reuven, "Surely Hashem has looked upon my affliction" (Beresheet 29:32) and for Shimon, "Because Hashem has heard that I was hated" (Ibid. 33). THIS IS THE MEANING OF THE VERSE "EFRAIM AND MENASHE" WHO MULTIPLIED AND WERE FORGOTTEN IN EXILE "AS REUVEN AND SHIMON THEY SHALL BE MINE," TO WIT, HE WILL SEE THEIR POVERTY, HEAR THEIR PRAYER AND REDEEM THEM, ACCORDING TO THE MEANING OF THE NAMES REUVEN AND SHIMON. Think of it as if they were before Me, and when we shall return from Egypt, WHICH INCLUDES ALL THE EXILES, after executing Judgment on them, we shall take them out of the land of their exile.

76. Rabbi Aba said: From this WE UNDERSTAND THAT AFTER HE WILL EXECUTE JUDGMENT UPON EGYPT, WHICH INCLUDES ALL THE NATIONS, YISRAEL WILL BE REDEEMED FROM EXILE, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "And they shall bring all your brethren out of all the nations for an offering to Hashem" (Yeshayah 66:20). Scripture means that when the Holy One, blessed be He, will execute Judgment upon Egypt; NAMELY UPON ALL THE NATIONS WHICH THE EARLIER VERSE MENTIONED. At that time, all the nations will bring an offering when they hear about the Holy One, blessed be He, "and all the nations shall flow to it" (Yeshayah 2:2).

77. We learned that Rabbi Shimon said: The Holy One, blessed be He, will make for every righteous man a canopy in Jerusalem. It is written: "the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride" (Yirmeyah 16:9) when the Shechinah will return to the King and He will engage Her, as it is written: "Go forth, O daughters of Tzion, and behold...on the day of his wedding, and on the day of the gladness of his heart" (Shir Hashirim 2:11). "The day of his wedding" is the giving of the Torah, and "the day of the gladness of his heart" is the building of the Temple, may it be built soon in our days.

78. "And your offspring, which you beget after them, shall be yours" (Beresheet 48:6). This is Yisrael below, WHO WILL BE BORN AFTER THE REDEMPTION to the fathers, who are Chariots, and their names will be in the secret of those born AFTER REDEMPTION. They will be named after their brothers in their inheritance.

79. We learned that Rabbi Shimon said: "And your issue (also: 'your homeland') is Terrestrial Jerusalem, NAMELY YOUR HOMELAND. FOR THE WORDS "born at home" (Vayikra 18:9) in relation to the portion concerning incest, refer to the Terrestrial Jerusalem. THE MEANING OF THE VERSE IS that people who will be born in that Jerusalem will not only return to their Master in heaven, but will also convert AFTER REDEMPTION. They will have only names of Yisrael, not according to their father, such as 'the proselyte of Cappadocia,' but a name of Yisrael.

80. "Shall be your": THE VERSE means that they will have names of Yisrael, after their brothers in their inheritance. And when they return, they will inherit together with Yisrael in the country, and each tribe will take its own, AND ALSO for people of their own, CONVERTS. Each will inherit the land according to its numbers.

11. "Rachel died by me on the way"

Rabbi Aba begins by explaining the discrepancy in the verb tense in "they have come back," used in The Creator's promise for the future. Rabbi Aba then explains how Rabbi Elazar answers that the Shechinah will think her children have died by judgement. Only then will she return to her husband. "Rachel weeping" refers to the Shechinah being told by her husband that her children have perished. Only then will He tell her that her children have been redeemed. God then tells her that those who have died in the war will be resurrected. Rabbi Shimon tells us that the quotation refers to the Shechinah's children who die in the war, but are resurrected and will return to Efrat, the land of Yisrael. Rabbi Aba finally explains the meaning of Lechem, derived from Milchamah (war), and "fought" (lacham).

The Relevance of this Passage

Two paths to the final redemption lie before us: a path of destruction --war and death--and a path of mercy that offers us protection, the path of spiritual transformation. We have the free will to choose our fate. In the end, all the souls of mankind will be resurrected and the arrival of the Mashiach will bring immortality and endless fulfillment. The Light that radiates from this passage of Zohar awakens the wisdom to walk the path of spiritual transformation. It helps accelerate the arrival of the Resurrection and the Mashiach through the path of mercy for all mankind.

81. "And as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me." (Beresheet 48:7) Rabbi Aba opened the discussion, saying: "A voice was heard in Rama" (Yirmeyah 31:14) followed by: "Thus says Hashem; Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears: for your work shall be rewarded, says Hashem; and they shall (lit. 'they have') come back again to their own border" (Ibid. 15). HE ASKS: It does not say 'They shall come back' IN THE FUTURE TENSE, but that they have come back. YET THIS IS A PROMISE FOR THE FUTURE, AND IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN 'AND THEY SHALL COME BACK.'

81. וְאֲנִי בָבְאִי מִפְּדָן מֵתָה עָלַי רַחֵל בְּדֶרֶךְ וְגו', רַבִּי
אָבָא פָּתַח, כֹּה אָמַר ה' קוֹל בְּרָמָה נִשְׁמָע וְגו', מַה
כָּתוּב בְּתִרְיָהּ, כֹּה אָמַר ה' מְנַעֵי קוֹלְךָ מִבְּכִי וְעֵינֶיךָ
מִדְּמָעָה כִּי יֵשׁ שָׂכָר לְפַעֲלוֹתֶיךָ וְגו' וְשָׁבוּ בָנִים

82. HE ANSWERS: Come and see, Rabbi Elazar said that when there will be justice upon the mountain, and the Shechinah will be adorned on the mountain, She will think her children perished by Judgment. The secret is, "Sing, O barren one, you that did not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud" (Yeshayah 54:1). We have learned that many children of the throne will be Her own CHILDREN, as it is written: "For more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife" (Ibid.). The Shechinah will then return to Her husband. "On that day Hashem shall be one, and His name One" (Zecharyah 14:9).

82. תָּא חֲזִי אָמַר רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דִּיהָא דִּינָא

תִּיתּוּב מְטְרוֹנִיתָא לְבַעֲלָהּ, בְּיוֹם הַהוּא יִהְיֶה ה' אֶחָד
וְשִׁמוֹ אֶחָד.

83. Before that, the Shechinah will say to Her husband, Where are my children? He will say to Her that they were judged, and She will think they perished by judgment, and weeps for Her children, who perished by justice. THIS IS THE SECRET OF "A VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMA... RACHEL WEeping FOR HER CHILDREN," AND HE WILL SAY TO HER, "KEEP YOUR VOICE FROM WEeping... FOR YOUR WORK SHALL BE REWARDED." For you are to be greatly rewarded by Me for being with them, and the children have already come back from the hated land, FOR THEY HAVE ALREADY BEEN REDEEMED.

83. מִן קְדַמַּת דְּנָא, תִּימָא מְטְרוֹנִיתָא לְקוֹדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ

84. HE ASKS: Did not Yosef know his mother died? Indeed, he was with her when she died. WHY DID YA'AKOV HAVE TO TELL HIM THAT? HE REPLIES: Supernal Yisrael said that when he prophesied about the redemption of Yisrael, the Shechinah will stir, and the Congregation of Yisrael will stir and wage war against the nations. Some OF YISRAEL will die IN THIS WAR. They will slowly approach the land of Yisrael. When She weeps FOR HER DEAD SONS, the Holy One, blessed be He, will say to Her, Do not be afraid, there is a reward for the sons who died IN THE WAR for My name's sake. The others, who did not die, have already returned and those who died will live again through the resurrection of the dead.

85. "Rachel died by me." She died for the unity of the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He. TO WIT, HER SONS WHO WERE KILLED FOR THE SANCTIFICATION OF THE HOLY NAME. THE VERSE says of it: "When yet there was but a little way" (Bereshheet 48:7), WHICH MEANS they died for the unity of the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, outside the land of Yisrael, AT THE WAR FOR THE COMING TO YISRAEL. For in the land of Yisrael, none shall die. THEREFORE SCRIPTURE SAYS, "WHEN YET THERE WAS BUT A LITTLE WAY TO COME TO EFRAT" TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL, FOR AFTER COMING TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL THEY WILL DIE NO MORE.

86. We have learned that Rabbi Aba said: Yisrael will be engaged in war on the way to Efrat, and many of them will die. Then they will rise at the resurrection of the dead, and will have more power than those who reached Jerusalem before them, WHO DID NOT DIE IN THE WAR.

87. Why is this holy place called 'Lechem' (Eng. 'bread'), AS IT IS WRITTEN "THAT IS BET LECHEM"? (BERESHEET 48:7) HE ANSWERS: Since it is one of the Names of the Holy One, blessed be He, they will die there IN WAR for sanctifying His name, hand ON THE THRONE OF YAH. THIS MEANS they will die there TO MAKE COMPLETE the name Yah, WHICH SHALL NOT BE COMPLETE IN YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI UNTIL THE MEMORY OF AMALEK SHALL BE FORGOTTEN. THEREFORE THE PURPOSE OF THIS WAR IS TO COMPLETE THE NAME OF YUD-HEI WITH VAV-HEI. THUS THE PLACE IS CALLED LECHEM DERIVED FROM MILCHAMAH (WAR), for it fought (lachim) in exile to render complete the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He.

12. "And Yisrael beheld Yosef's sons"

Rabbi Aba explains that lower Yisrael will be joined with the children of Yisrael into a great crowd, at which point they will all be circumcised and converted. Together, they will then return to their country with love for each other, and only then, "The Creator shall be one." Rabbi Shimon next explains that sores on the skin of the people of Yisrael represent the borders that will separate them from the others in their new land.

The Relevance of this Passage

The universal truth of the Torah and the spiritual power of the Zohar are awakened within the souls of all mankind, facilitating the objective of global unity. The purifying Light that shines and cleanses during circumcision helps refine our souls and purge the Evil Inclination, associated negative sexual behavior, from the souls of all mankind. As well, the arrival of the final redemption is accelerated and our commitment to the path of Torah is strengthened.

88. "And Yisrael beheld Yosef's sons, and said, 'Who are these?'" (Beresheet 48:8) Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse, "Then shall you say in your heart, 'Who has begotten me these'" (Yeshayah 49:21). HE ASKS: What does scripture mean by that? HE ANSWERS: Lower Yisrael saw that the children of Yisrael will come before Him, when they will come "from Elam and from Shin'ar and from Chamat and from the islands of the sea" (Ibid. 11:11), they will all gather into a great number. The Shechinah will say, Who are all these, are there not any who are unfit, of foreign children? They will say to Him, we are all Your children, there is no foreigner among us. For they will be separated the one from the other, THE MOTLEY CROWD WILL BE SEPARATED FROM YISRAEL, and they will be circumcised together and converted. The proselyte then will return together with Yisrael and they will be together.

89. We have learned that proselytes are as bad to Yisrael as a sore on the skin. It is written, "For Hashem will have Mercy on Ya'akov, and will yet choose Yisrael, and set them in their own land: and the stranger shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Ya'akov " (Ibid. 14:1). When the children will return to their country and there will be love among them, then "Hashem shall be one, and His name One" (Zecharyah 14:9). The proselyte will then cleave to the people of Yisrael and will be like a sore on their skin.

90. HE ASKS: Why are they LIKE A SORE ON THE SKIN? HE SAYS, come and hearken, Rabbi Shimon said that IT REFERS TO the borders of the country, for every one will want to live in the land of Yisrael, and the people OUTSIDE ITS BORDERS will be afraid. HENCE it is written: "And let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations" (Yeshayah 54:2). The verse implies that the curtains you had before FROM THE TIME OF EXILE should be stretched and fortified more than those of the other nations so to speak, whom you saw strengthening them, when you were with the other nations; NAMELY IN EXILE AMONG THE NATIONS. AND THE PROSELYTES shall be many.

13. "Whom Hashem has given me"

Rabbi Shimon first describes how the Torah (zeh) is set before the children of Yisrael. Rabbi Rav Nachman then explains the difference between zeh and zot, pointing out that the Torah is referred to as "Tor," in the feminine, which is a name of a dove--meaning "the time of the singing bird is come," sung by the Levites, which is the secret of the female aspect of the Torah--the turtle being the secret of the male aspect. Rabbi Rav Nachman then explains that Hei (holiness) ? is more important than Aleph ?. Next, Rabbi Aba tells us how the measurement of the span of God is 670 years, from heaven to earth. Rabbi Aba concludes by explaining why the Torah is called Zeh.

The Relevance of this Passage

All reality consists of both male and female energies. When these two polar opposites are united, Light flows and shines upon supernal and corporeal worlds. Our physical world of Malchut embodies female energy, while the Upper Realm of Zeir Anpin corresponds to male. This passage enjoins the two worlds, allowing the resplendent Light of The Creator to vanquish all forms of darkness dwelling in our midst.

91. "And Yosef said to his father, 'They are my sons, whom Elohim has given me in this here (Heb. zeh macs.).' (Beresheet 48:9) Rabbi Shimon explained in relation to this the verse: "And that (Heb. zot fem.) is the Torah which Moshe set before the children of Yisrael" (Devarim 4:44). When lower Yisrael -WHO ARE CALLED YOSEF- said: When Supernal Yisrael is high above them, "They are my children," for the Holy One, blessed be He, gave me the Torah CALLED ZEH (ENG. 'THIS'). THEREFORE SCRIPTURE SAYS "IN THIS (HEB. ZEH)." Behold YISRAEL AND their true laws, according to the laws of the Torah which were given them. Come and see: When Yisrael will shelter under the wings of the Shechinah, the Torah is called 'zeh,' as in "this (zeh) is my El, and I will praise Him" (Shemot 15:2). THIS IS ALSO THE MEANING OF THE VERSE "WHOM ELOHIM HAS GIVEN ME IN THIS," WHICH IS THE TORAH. But as long as David was not speaking from under the wings of the Shechinah, but prophesied that which will be, THE TORAH is called zot (Eng. 'this', fem.), AS IN "AND THAT (HEB. ZOT) IS THE TORAH."

92. Rav Nachman said: From this, WE UNDERSTAND THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN 'ZEH' AND 'ZOT', AS IT IS WRITTEN: "Though a host should camp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident (lit. 'in zot')" (Tehilim 27:4), zot (Eng. 'this') being the Torah when Mashiach will come, WHEN THE TORAH SHALL BE REVEALED. It is therefore written: "And the voice of the turtledove (Heb. tor) is heard in our land" (Shir Hashirim 2:12) IN THE MASCULINE, INSTEAD OF TORAH, WHICH IS THE FEMININE. TOR IS A NAME OF A DOVE. Why was Torah likened to a dove? Because its voice is sweet like that of a dove. This voice will resound when Mashiach will come at Judgment Day; NAMELY BEFORE REDEMPTION, WHEN MASHIACH WILL EXECUTE JUDGMENT AND WAGE WAR AGAINST THE NATIONS WHICH ENSLAVE YISRAEL. YET IT IS NOT YET THE TIME TO REVEAL THE TORAH. IT IS THEREFORE CALLED 'TOR' IN THE MASCULINE, AND ZEH ('THIS', MASC.).

93. We learned: "The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing bird is come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land." (Ibid.). The flowers are the patriarchs of the Chariot, AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, AND YA'AKOV, who will rise in the world and will be seen IN THE LAND.

94. "The time of the singing bird is come," that is, the singing that will be sung by the Levites when they return to their worship of yore. "The voice of the turtledove" IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE "whom Elohim has given me in this (Heb. bazeh)." THIS REFERS TO THE SECRET OF THE TORAH IN ITS MALE ASPECT, CALLED 'ZEH', WHICH IS ALLUDED TO IN THE VERSE "WHOM ELOHIM HAS GIVEN ME IN THIS (HEB. BAZEH)." These are the words of the Torah which are pleasant as the voice of the turtledove, Zeh.

95. HE ASKS: What does this mean? HE ANSWERS: The secret of this matter is that when the children of Yisrael are not sheltered under the wings of the Shechinah, the Aleph of 'zot' descends beneath all THE GRADES, and the Hei of "zeh (this) my El, and I will praise Him" departs. Since the Temple was ruined, the Hei could not dwell among the idolatrous nations and the Holy Hei was separated from the Name. When the children of Yisrael will return to their country, the Holy Hei, which was cut from the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, shall return to 'zeh' and come out of the Day of Judgment, while the Aleph will be mended AND COME BACK TO 'ZOT'. HE ASKS: WHICH IS MORE IMPORTANT, Hei or Aleph? HE ANSWERS: Hei is more important with respect to holiness, and Aleph is more important with respect to the letters.

96. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse: "Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span?" (Yeshayah 40:12). 'Zeh (Heb. Zayin-Hei)' and the turtledove (Tav-Vav-Resh) are supposedly alike; NAMELY, THEY JOIN TOGETHER. Zayin OF ZEH joins Resh OF TOR, the Resh OF TOR joins the Tav OF TOR, and from this comes the combination of Zeret (Eng. 'span'). VAV OF TOR IS ATTACHED TO HEI OF ZEH, TO FORM VAV-HEI OF THE NAME OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI-ZEIR AND HIS NUKVA. The measurement of the span of the Holy One, blessed be He, is 670 years, from heaven (ZEIR ANPIN) to earth (THE NUKVA). HE ASKS: How can this be? HE SAYS: Zeh-tor HAS TWO PERMUTATIONS: 1) Zeret-Vav-Hei 2) Hei-Vav-Terez, in which Hei OF ZEH comes before Vav OF TOR. Hei OF ZEH precedes Vav OF TOR, THE PRECEDENCE OF HEI ALLUDES TO BINAH, WHICH POURS ABUNDANCE UPON ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS THE VAV. The Vav before the Tav OF TOR and Tav before Resh OF TOR and Resh OF TOR before Zayin OF ZEH: THIS IS THE PERMUTATION OF HEI-VAV-TEREZ, THE SECRET OF 670 YEARS FROM HEAVEN TO EARTH. "Foursquare it shall be, being doubled; a span shall be its length, and a span shall be the breadth of it" (Shemot 28:26).

97. "And he said: Bring them, I pray you, to me, and I will bless them." (Bereshet 48:9). He says, Since they study the Torah, AS SAID "WHOM ELOHIM HAS GIVEN ME IN THIS (ZEH)," which is the Torah, AND THE ATTRIBUTE Zeh IS BETWEEN THEM, I will bless them.

98. This is the secret of the words, "And he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said: 'Ya'akov'" (Bereshet 32:28): THE NAME YA'AKOV IS OF SMALLNESS WITHOUT MOCHIN. IT IS THEN WRITTEN, "And he said: 'Why is it that you ask after my name?'" (Ibid. 30). HE SAID TO HIM: What is it, WHY DO YOU ASK FOR MY NAME, A NAME BEING UNDERSTANDING? Yet in the former verse, YOU SAID THAT YOUR NAME IS YA'AKOV, WHICH MEANS A LITTLE IS ENOUGH FOR YOU, AND YOU DO NOT WISH TO ATTAIN AND KNOW THE NAME. Like we explained elsewhere. There is another secret IN THIS VERSE, "And Ya'akov asked him... And he said: 'Why is it (Zeh) that you ask after my name?' And he blessed him there." That is, he said to him that he will bless him due to Zeh.

98. ורזא אחרא, וישאל יעקב וגו' ויאמר למה זה תשאל לשמי ויברך אותו שם, הא לא עתיד, אלא בזכותא דזה, לברכהון.

99. We learned a great mystery from this verse, but I have come before you only to teach you the verse I just spoke of, saying that the Torah is called Zeh. It is also written: "That (Zeh) Sinai before Hashem the Elohim of Yisrael" (Shoftim 5:5), SINAI BEING THE TORAH GIVEN ON SINAI. ALSO, when the Torah was given by Moshe, IT WAS SAID OF HIM, "This (Zeh) man Moshe" (Shemot 32:1), and also "this is my El, and I will praise him," WHICH MEANS the Torah CALLED ZEH descended before the Elohim of Yisrael. THEN THEY SAID: "THIS IS MY EL..."

14. "Now the eyes of Yisrael were dim from age"

Rabbi Chizkiyah first explains that this language is from lower Yisrael, since none of it is found in the Torah. Since the exiles did not follow the rules of the Torah, they became old and weak. Rabbi Chiya then says that when the exiles return to their land, God will invest them with His spirit. Rabbi Aba goes on to explain the meaning of "dim" as referring to the length in which the exiles lived without "light." Rabbi Aba then answers the question of why the Torah speaks in the language and names of men.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we are connected to the divine language of the Torah, whose letters are the bridge between the Upper and Lower Worlds. The words of the Torah are like cables that carry spiritual current from the supernal realm into the material dimension. The energy that flows between these two worlds helps us expedite the end of both our personal exile and the global one. This Light illuminates for us the importance of spiritual transformation through the path of Torah and strengthens our commitment to it.

100. "Now the eyes of Yisrael were dim from age." (Beresheet 48:19).

Rabbi Chizkiyah taught that this is lower Yisrael, for such language is not found THROUGH THE WHOLE TORAH. For when YISRAEL will be in exile all the days of destruction, they will become old with age, and will not be able to behold the face of the Shechinah until another spirit will come upon them.

100. וְעֵינֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל כְּבָדוּ מִזְקֵן וְגו', תַּאֲנִי ר' חִזְקִיָּה,
דָּא יִשְׂרָאֵל לְתַתָּא, וּבְגִין דָּא, לֹא אֶת מִשְׁבַּח

101. HE EXPLAINS FURTHER that they were defiled among the nations IN EXILE, and did not follow the laws of the Torah as they should have. They sat a long while among the gentiles, generation after generation, and learned their ways, AS IT IS WRITTEN "BUT WERE MINGLED AMONG THE NATIONS, AND LEARNED THEIR WORKS" (TEHILIM 106:35). When they will return to their land, they will not at first be able to behold the face of the Shechinah until the Holy One, blessed be He, will invest them with His spirit.

101. מְקַדְמַת דְּנָא אֶסְתְּאִיבוּ בְּאַרְעַ עַמְמִיָּא, וְלֹא הוּוּ
בְּנִימוּסֵי אֲוִרִיתָא. כְּמָה דִּיהוֹן כְּהִיל לְמִיָּהֲךָ, וְתַבּוּ

בְּקַדְמִיתָא לֹא יִכְלִין לְמַחְמֵי אִפִּי שְׁכִינְתָּא, עַד

102. Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "And I will put My spirit within you" (Yechezkel 36:27). Then he said: "And cause you to follow My statutes, and you shall keep My judgments, and do them" (Ibid.). For after I will put My spirit within you, and holiness, you shall follow My rules and go by them.

102. ר' חִיָּיא פִּתַּח, וְאֵת רוּחִי אֶתֶן בְּקִרְבְּכֶם, לְבַתַּר

103. "So that he could not see" (Beresheet 48:10): Rabbi Aba opened the discussion saying: "In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favor is as a cloud bringing the spring rain" (Mishlei 16:15). For when they will receive the face of the Shechinah of the Holy One, blessed be He, and be occupied with the Chariots, by which the world endures; NAMELY THE LIVNG CREATURES WHICH CARRY THE CHARIOT (YEHEZKEL CHAPTER 1), THEN IT WILL BE SAID OF THEM "IN THE LIGHT OF THE KING'S COUNTENANCE IS LIFE..."

103. לֹא יוּכַל לְרְאוּת, רַבִּי אַבָּא פִּתַּח וְאָמַר, בְּאוּר

104. Come and see: You shall not find in the language of the whole scripture IN THE PORTION OF VAYECHI but words which talk of men, and no verses which speak of the Holy One, blessed be He. TO WIT, THOUGH THEY SPEAK OF REDEMPTION, WHEN YA'AKOV IS MENTIONED, IT REFERS TO SUPERNAL YA'AKOV OR SUPERNAL YISRAEL; NAMELY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. WHY DOES SCRIPTURE SPEAK IN THE LANGUAGE AND NAMES OF MEN? HE ANSWERS: For when they will return to their land, and the Holy One, blessed be He, will put upon them the spirit of Wisdom, they will always speak of the Holy One, blessed be He, as it says, "My tongue also shall tell of your righteousness" (Tehilim 71:24).

End of Sitrei Torah

15. "And Ya'akov lived," part two

Rabbi Chiya opens the discussion by saying that God called the children of Yisrael "righteous" and that they will be happy in the world to come because they cleaved to His body (the Central Column). Rabbi Yitzchak then explains that the land they shall inherit will be supernal, meaning the Malchut. Then, we learn, they will surely inherit the Shechinah, the land of the living. The secret of the Malchut is that the land is one of planting, referring in scripture to God planting when He created the universe. The children of Yisrael will thus inherit the land forever. Rabbis Ya'akov and Yehuda next explain why there is no space in the Torah between the portion of Vayigash and the beginning of the portion of Vayechi. Rabbi Shimon tells us that there are no spaces between the two verses separating "And Ya'akov lived" to indicate that Yisrael and his children lived in luxury like kings. Rabbi Shimon goes on to explain the importance of seventeen years, because Ya'akov was sorrowful all his life, but the beauty of Yosef upon first seeing him, reminded Ya'akov of his wife Rachel, and all his sorrow fell away. But when Yosef, being seventeen, was separated from Ya'akov, we learn, his sorrow returned. Therefore, Ya'akov lived in Egypt "for seventeen years." Rabbi Elazar next tells us why the word "play" is mentioned three times in the verse; it refers to the three Columns. Rabbi Aba explains the three Columns as south, north, and east. From them come the three worlds: The Right Column is called "south," the Left Column "north," the Central Column "east." Rabbi Shimon concludes by pointing out that "Your fathers" refers to three: Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov.

The Relevance of this Passage

The power of the three Column System lies at the heart of this passage. The three Columns refer to the following behavioral traits: Right Column signifies a man's desire to share, the God-like nature of his soul. Left Column refers to the covetous desire of receiving for the self alone, the insatiable impulses of the ego. The crucial Central Column correlates to a man's free will to resist his selfish desires and instead, choose the truthful longings lingering in his soul, which include unconditional sharing. When a man integrates these three Columns into his life in a spiritually balanced way, he creates a circuit of energy igniting profound Light in his life. The patriarchs, Avraham, Yitzchak, and Ya'akov, were the Vessels and template that established these three Columns in our physical world by virtue of their deeds throughout their lifetimes. Upon their merit and through the mention of their names in this passage, we can draw upon their respective strength and wisdom to manage these three traits in a fashion that will bring forth spiritual luxuries into our own lives.

105. "And Ya'akov lived." Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "Your people also shall be all righteous...they shall inherit the land forever" (Yeshayah 60:21). Happy are Yisrael of all the other idolatrous nations, for the Holy One, blessed be He, called them righteous, so they may receive the inheritance of the World to Come, and to delight in that world, as it is written: "Then shall you delight yourself in Hashem" (Ibid. 58:14). For what reason? Because YISRAEL cleaved to the body of the King; NAMELY THE CENTRAL COLUMN, as it is written "But you that did cleave of Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day" (Devarim 4:4).

106. Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion saying: "Your people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land for ever." This verse is a sublime mystery among the reapers of the field, TO WIT, THOSE WHO MERITED TO RECEIVE THE FRUIT OF THEIR LABOR IN THE SUPERNAL FIELD, THE NUKVA. For we have learned that among the secrets of the Agada, Rabbi Shimon taught about the possession of the supernal inheritance of the land, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. No one inherits it save the one called righteous, for the Nukva cleaves to him in order to sweeten THE BITTER JUDGMENTS IN HER. The righteous then surely inherits the Shechinah.

106. רבי יצחק פתח ואמר, ועמך כלם צדיקים לעולם יירשו ארץ, האי קרא רזא עלאה איהו, בין מחצרי חקלא, דהא ברזא דאגדתא, תני רבי שמעון, דאחסנת ירותא עלאה. דההיא ארץ, לית מאן דירית לה, בר ההוא דאקרי צדיק, דהא מטרוניתא ביה אתדבקת לאתבסמא, וצדיק ירית למטרוניתא ודאי.

107. Here too, in His love for Yisrael, the Holy One, blessed be He, said: "Your people also shall be all righteous," for which reason "they shall inherit the land for ever." For they are worthy of inheriting the Shechinah, AS THE RIGHTEOUS INHERITS THE SHECHINAH. Wherefore are the children of Yisrael called righteous, and wherefore do they inherit the Shechinah? Because they are circumcised, and as we learned, whoever is circumcised and enters this possession, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH, whoever keeps the covenant, enters and cleaves to the body of the King, HE BECOMES A CHARIOT TO ZEIR ANPIN, and enters the righteous, BY BECOMING A CHARIOT TO YESOD. Hence, the children of Yisrael are called righteous and "they shall inherit the land for ever." What is this land? It is the land of the living, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH.

108. Scripture repeats, "The branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified" (Yeshayah 60:21). "The branch of my planting" is one of the branches the Holy One, blessed be He, planted when He created the universe, as it is written: "And Hashem Elohim planted a garden eastward in Eden" (Beresheet 2:8). This land is one of the planting, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. Therefore scripture says, "The branch of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified."

109. According to another explanation, "Your people also shall be all righteous": are Ya'akov and his children, who went down to Egypt among a stiff-necked nation, and they all remained righteous. Therefore scripture says OF THEM that "they shall inherit the land for ever" because they went up to inherit the Holy Land from EGYPT.

110. "And Ya'akov lived in the land of Egypt." HE ASKS: Why is this portion closed, THERE BEING NO SPACE AT ALL IN THE TORAH BETWEEN THE END OF VAYIGASH AND THE BEGINNING OF THE PORTION OF VAYECHI? Rabbi Ya'akov said: When Ya'akov died, Yisrael's eyes were closed. Rabbi Yehuda said: Then, AFTER THE DEATH OF YA'AKOV, they descended into exile, and THE EGYPTIANS enslaved YISRAEL.

111. Rabbi Shimon said: It is written above, "And Yisrael dwelt in the land of Egypt in the country of Goshen; and they took possession of it, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly" (Beresheet 47:27), WHICH MEANS THEY LIVED IN LUXURY LIKE KINGS. THE VERSE IS FOLLOWED BY, "And Ya'akov lived," WITHOUT ANY SPACE BETWEEN THE VERSES. THIS INDICATES that we should not separate the two VERSES. As YISRAEL lived in luxury and had pleasures and were short of nothing, so did Ya'akov live in luxury and pleasure. Therefore, THE VERSES are not separated.

112. Here IN EGYPT, it is considered that "Ya'akov lived" FOR IT WAS CONSIDERED LIFE FOR HIM. It was not said of him: 'Ya'akov lived' all his life, for his life was that of sorrow. Of him it is written, "I had no repose" IN LAVAN'S HOUSE, "nor had I rest" FROM ESAV, "nor was I quiet" BECAUSE OF DINAH AND SHCHEM; "yet trouble came" OF SELLING YOSEF (Iyov 3:26). But after he went down to Egypt, it is said of him "And lived." He saw his son a king, he saw all his sons pure and righteous, living in pleasure and luxury, and he dwelling in their midst as good wine resting on its lees. Then it is said: "And Ya'akov lived." THEREFORE, there is no separation, NO SPACE, between "And grew and multiplies exceedingly" and "And Ya'akov lived," and so it should be, THE ONE BEING THE CONTINUANCE OF THE OTHER.

113. "Seventeen years": HE ASKS: Why seventeen years? HE ANSWERS: Rabbi Shimon said that Ya'akov was sorrowful all his life, and his days passed in sorrow in the beginning. When he saw Yosef standing before him, Ya'akov looked at Yosef and his soul was made whole as if he saw Yosef's mother. For the beauty of Yosef resembled that of Rachel, and it seemed to him as if he had never known sorrow.

114. When Yosef departed from him, it came to pass that "I had no repose, nor had I rest, nor was I quiet; yet trouble came." For this trouble was harder to Ya'akov than everything that came over him. When Yosef was separated from him, it is said: "Yosef being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock" (Beresheet 37:2). All his days, Ya'akov had no such sorrow. He used to weep every day for the seventeen years of Yosef.

115. They replied to him from heaven, "And Yosef shall put his hand on your eyes" (Beresheet 46:4). Here are other seventeen years for you: in pleasure and delight, luxury and lack for nothing, This is the meaning of: "And Ya'akov lived in the land of Egypt for seventeen years." (Beresheet 47:28). Come and see: The Shechinah of the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, was with him all those years, for which reason ALL THOSE YEARS IN EGYPT are called 'Life'.

116. Come and see, it is written: "The spirit of Ya'akov their father revived." From this we understand that his spirit was dead earlier, and also he had no intention of drawing and receiving another spirit, as the Supernal Spirit does not dwell on an empty place. Rabbi Yosi said: The Shechinah dwells only in a whole spot, not in a place of deficiency or sadness, but a proper place, a place of joy. Therefore, the Shechinah did not rest upon him for all the years that Yosef had been separated from his father and Ya'akov was in sadness.

117. We learned that Rabbi Elazar said that Rabbi Aba said: It is written, "Serve Hashem with gladness; come before His presence with singing" (Tehilim 100:2). The verse teaches us that the service of the Holy One, blessed be He, should only be performed through joyfulness, as said Rabbi Elazar, that the Shechinah does not dwell upon sadness. It is written, "But now bring me a minstrel (player). And it came to pass, when the minstrel (player) played" (II Melachim 3:15): HE ASKS: For what reason is the word 'play' mentioned three times IN THIS VERSE? HE ANSWERS: In order to awaken the spirit from the source of wholeness, ZEIR ANPIN WHICH INCLUDES THE THREE COLUMNS, the whole spirit. THREE TIMES 'PLAY' CORRESPONDS TO ITS THREE COLUMNS.

118. Rabbi Aba said: We have learned that everything is to be found in the four winds: THE THREE COLUMNS OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED SOUTH, NORTH, EAST; AND THE SHECHINAH WHICH RECEIVES THE THREE COLUMNS IS THE SECRET OF THE WEST WIND. FROM THEM COME OUT THE THREE WORLDS: BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, ASIYAH AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM. All the roots of the upper and lower worlds hold on to them. We have learned that the one enters AND SHINES, NAMELY THE RIGHT COLUMN CALLED SOUTH, and the other comes out BUT DOES NOT SHINE; NAMELY THE LEFT COLUMN CALLED NORTH, WHICH DOES NOT SHINE WITHOUT THE RIGHT COLUMN. Another one is closed, TO WIT, THE CENTRAL COLUMN CALLED EAST, WHICH SHINES ONLY BY COVERED CHASSADIM, BEFORE HIS MATING WITH THE NUKVA, and the other one revealed; NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH SHINES BY UNCOVERED CHASSADIM AT THE TIME OF UNION WITH ZEIR ANPIN. SHE IS CALLED THE WEST WIND. All THE WINDS join one another; NAMELY THEY ARE INCLUDED BY ONE ANOTHER, THEN they become the fathers of everything FOR ALL REALITY, BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH, ARE DRAWN AND BORN OF THEM.

119. Rabbi Shimon said: "Hashem took delight only in your fathers" (Devarim 10:15). "Your fathers" are exactly three, NAMELY AVRAHAM, YITZCHAK, YA'AKOV. It is written "only" meaning THERE IS NO MORE THAN THESE THREE. From them are branched out and cleave to them all the others, THE GRADES OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH, who go up TO MAYIN NUKVIN, TO MALE AND FEMALE, to adorn the name; NAMELY TO DRAW NEW MOCHIN UPON THE NUKVA, WHICH IS CALLED NAME.

16. Two camels

Rabbi Yosi starts by saying that the springs of wisdom were stopped when Rabbi Shimon died. He then explains how Rabbi Yehuda failed to fulfill the words of the verse when he came upon bundles of woolen clothes, which had fallen off two camels and were being attacked by birds. A man walks by and points out his failure to drive the birds away. Rabbi Yosi then explains Rabbi Yehuda's subsequent dream, and that when he woke up, he knew Rabbi Shimon's death caused wisdom to depart from the earth. Rabbi Aba then reveals that manna is the secrets of the Torah, but they are "to be kept," which means hidden.

The Relevance of this Passage

When a great soul departs this physical existence, the full measure of spiritual Light revealed though his lifelong deeds, is awakened each year on the day of his passing. Rabbi Shimon's deeds included the revelation of the Zohar, the mystical secrets of the Torah and soul of the universe. Thus, the brightest of all Lights shines forth in this passage at the mention of Rabbi Shimon's leaving this world. This Light helps to strengthen our connection to the Zohar, Rabbi Shimon, and the hidden Light of the Torah.

120. We learned that Rabbi Yosi said: Since Rabbi Shimon left the cave, nothing was concealed from the friends. They would behold supernal mysteries, which were revealed to them, as if they were given on Mount Sinai at that hour. After RABBI SHIMON died, it is written: "The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped" (Beresheet 8:2). TO WIT, THE SPRINGS OF WISDOM WERE STOPPED. The friends contemplated these matters but did not understand their secrets.

121. For one day, Rabbi Yehuda sat at the gate of Tiberias. He saw two camels laden with BUNDLES OF expensive woolen clothes. The load fell, and birds came TO WHERE IT WOULD FALL. But the birds were torn before the clothes reached it.

122. After that, other birds came on THE TORN BIRDS. They sat upon the rock and were not torn. They shouted AT THE BIRDS, TO REMOVE THEM FROM THE TORN BIRDS, but they would not go. They heard a voice saying that the crown upon the crowns dwells in darkness, and its master is outside.

123. While RABBI YEHUDA was sitting, a man passed by and looked AT THE BIRDS. He said: This man did not fulfill the words of the verse: "And the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Avram drove them away" (Beresheet 15:11). Rabbi Yehuda said: But I tried TO MAKE THE BIRDS GO AWAY FROM THEM BY SHOUTING AT THEM, but they would not go. The man turned his head TO RABBI YEHUDA and said: He did not yet pluck the hair of his master, nor did he shear the lady. RABBI YEHUDA DID NOT UNDERSTAND WHAT HE MEANT. He ran after him three miles AND BEGGED HIM TO EXPLAIN what he said, but he did not. Rabbi Yehuda was grieved.

124. One day RABBI YEHUDA slept under a tree. In his dream he saw four wings prepared and Rabbi Shimon mounting upon them with a book of the Torah. He left no book of sublime mysteries and Aggada, but took all with him to heaven. He saw them hidden from his eyes, never to be revealed again.

125. When he woke up he said: Assuredly, when Rabbi Shimon died, Wisdom departed from the earth. Woe to the generation, from which the precious stone they held on to, which was the support of the upper and the lower, was gone.

126. He came before Rabbi Aba and told him. Rabbi Aba raised his hands to his head and wept. He said: A mill to grind good manna every day; NAMELY REVEALING THE SECRETS OF THE TORAH, CALLED MANNA. It is gathered, as it is written: "He that gathered least gathered a quantity of ten homer" (Bemidbar 11:32). Now the mill and the manna are gone, and nothing remained of it in the world, save as it is written: "Take a jar, and put an omer full of manna in it, and lay it up before Hashem, to be kept for your generations" (Shemot 16:33). It does not say 'in an open place' but "to be kept," which means to be put in a hidden place. Who could now reveal secrets? Who even knows them?

127. RABBI ABA whispered to Rabbi Yehuda, saying: Surely the man you saw was Eliyahu. He did not agree to reveal secrets to you, so that you may realize the worth of Rabbi Shimon, who lived in your days, and the generation will weep for him. RABBI ABA said to him: We should indeed mourn him.

128. Rabbi Yehuda wept for him every day, for he was with him, RABBI SHIMON, at the holy assembly of Rabbi Shimon with the other friends. He said TO RABBI ABA, Woe is me that I was not gone at the holy assembly that day with the three who were gone, RABBI YOSI THE SON OF RABBI YA'AKOV, RABBI CHIZKIYAH, AND RABBI YISA, instead of beholding this generation that is changed.

17. "The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine"

Rabbi Yehuda begins by explaining to Rabbi Aba that the verse, "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine," means, in other words, that "the heavens are the heavens of The Creator." He then explains the importance of the holy garments, which are Aba and Ima. The high priest above is Aba, and the one below, Ima. They are the secret of the Malchut of Zeir Anpin.

The Relevance of this Passage

When the energies of male and female unite, spiritual energy is free to flow throughout all the worlds. By revealing the secrets of the holy garments which are Aba [Male] and Ima [Female], the Zohar, is in effect, linking the Upper [Male] and Lower [Female] Worlds. Thus, the dazzling heavenly Light of The Creator gleams throughout our world, removing all forms of darkness from our lives. This splendid occurrence takes place the moment our eyes fall upon the mystical texts that reveal these supernal secrets.

129. RABBI YEHUDA said to RABBI ABA, Tell me Rabbi, it is written: "And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen" (Shemot 28:5), yet silver is not mentioned. But AT THE OFFERING FOR THE TABERNACLE it says "gold and silver" (Shemot 25:3); brass too is not mentioned, though both silver and brass were counted AS AN OFFERING FOR THE TABERNACLE. Here, IN RELATION TO THE VESTMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST they are not mentioned. But if the sacred lamp, NAMELY RABBI SHIMON, did not reveal this mystery when it was discussed, I MYSELF should not reveal either.

130. RABBI ABA opened with: "The silver is Mine, and the gold is mine," says Hashem" (Chagai 2:8) as it says in the verse, "The heavens are the heavens of Hashem" (Tehilim 115:16).

131. I have looked at the vessels of the sanctuary in several places; NAMELY THE RAIMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST, as it is written: "These are holy garments" (Vayikra 16:4) "and they shall make holy garments" (Shemot 28:4). HE ASKS: What holiness is there TO THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST? HE SAYS, We have learned that in all of these places THAT ARE MENTIONED there is holiness. NAMELY, "these are holy garments," "and they shall make holy garments," WHICH MEAN they resemble the ones above; TO WIT, ABA AND IMA WHICH ARE CALLED HOLY, FOR THE HIGH PRIEST CORRESPONDS TO SUPERNAL ABA, AND HIS GARMENTS ARE THEREFORE CALLED HOLY GARMENTS, AS WAS SAID.

132. For we have learned that there is a High Priest above, ABA, and a high priest below, WHO CORRESPONDS TO HIM. Therefore, the holy raiments OF ABA above CORRESPOND TO the holy raiment OF THE HIGH PRIEST below. HENCE, AS ABA IS THE SECRET OF HOLINESS SO IS THE HIGH PRIEST HOLY; AS THE RAIMENTS OF HONOR OF ABA ARE HOLY GARMENTS SO ARE THOSE OF THE HIGH IN RELATION TO THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST. Thus, the verse does not mention silver or brass because they are assigned to another place, NOT CORRESPONDING TO THE SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA, as it is written: "All the pillars round about the court shall be bound with silver... and their sockets of brass" (Shemot 27:17). They are the instruments of service of the tabernacle, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN.

133. But no one is allowed to use the garment of honor OF THE HIGH PRIEST save the high priest, who is anointed with the oil of holy ointment upon his head, as it is written: "And you shall make holy garments for Aharon your brother for honor and for beauty" (Shemot 28:2). For in these garments, he resembles ABA above.

133. אָבֵל הֵכָא בְּאַלִּין לְבוּשֵׁין דִּיקָר, לֹא בְּעֵי לְאַשְׁתַּמְשָׁא בְּהוּ בִּנְי אַחְרָא, בְּרַ מִכְּהֵנָא רַבָּא, דְּרַבּוּ מִשַׁח קוּדְשָׁא עַל רִישֵׁיהּ, דְּכֹתִיב וְעָשִׂיתָ בְּגָדֵי קֹדֶשׁ לְאַהֲרֹן אַחֲיֶךָ לְכָבוֹד וּלְתַפְאֶרֶת, דְּבְּאַיְנוּן לְבוּשֵׁין דְּמֵי לְגוּוּנָא דְלַעִילָא.

18. "And the time drew near for Yisrael to die," part two

Rabbi Yehuda opens the discussion by describing that every day a herald resounded in 250 worlds, in which two birds, one going to the north and the other to the south, would return to report the trembling of the world. When a man's end draws near, his legs, like the birds upon their return, become trapped, called "the day of Hashem." A man's spirit must be righteous in order to have it sucked from him by God. Rabbi Yosi further explains that when a man is about to die, if he is righteous, it is proclaimed for thirty days by those in the Garden of Eden.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here, the purifying Light of The Creator cleanses our soul and awakens us to the value and importance of spiritual growth, so that we will merit a high place in the world to come. The world to come refers to both the Garden of Eden and to our present lifetime in this material realm. A man's end can refer to both his demise in this physical world, and to the end of his negative and wicked ways in this current life.

134. We learned "And the time drew near for Yisrael to die." Rabbi Yehuda said: Woe to the world, who do not see, nor hear or know that on each and every day, a herald resounds in 250 worlds.

134. תְּנִינָא, וַיִּקְרְבוּ יְמֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל לְמוֹת אֲרִי יְהוּדָה, וְוֵי לַעֲלָמָא, דְּהָא בְּנֵי נֶשָׂא לֹא חֲמָאן וְלֹא שְׁמַעֲנָן, וְלֹא יִדְעִין דְּהָא כָּל יוֹמָא וְיוֹמָא, קָלָא דְּכְרוּזָא אֲשֶׁתַּמַּע, בְּמֵאתָן וַחֲמִשִּׁין עֲלָמִין.

135. We learned about a certain world above, THE NUKVA. When the herald goes forth AND MAKES IT WHOLE, the world shudders and trembles. Two birds come out from that world, that live under the tree in which is the appearance of life and death.

136. One bird goes to the south side, and the other bird to the north side; the one goes with daybreak and the other when the day darkens. Each cries out what it heard from the herald.

137. Later, they wish to return to their place but their legs stumble on a hollow in the great abyss and they are trapped there until midnight, when the herald proclaims, "And like the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared" (Kohelet 9:12).

138. Rabbi Yehuda said: When man's legs are trapped and his time draws near, that day is called "the day of Hashem" when he returns the spirit to Him. We have learned that at that time, the holy crown visits the spirit OF THAT MAN. What is it? According to the verse, "The days of our years are seventy" (Tehilim 90:10) it is the seventh crown of all, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE SEVENTH, FINEL, SFIRAH.

139. If THE NUKVA comes TO MAN from the side of Gvurah, NAMELY BINA ABOVE THE SEVEN SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD AND MALCHUT, it is written: "Or if by special strength (Heb. gvurot), eighty years" (Tehilim 90:10) since the crown of Gvurah is the eighth. From that time onward, life cannot be prolonged, as it says, "Yet their pride is but trouble and wretchedness" (Ibid.), for when there is no foundation, the building will not endure.

140. Rabbi Yehuda said: Happy are the righteous when the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes to take back their spirits to Himself and suck their spirits from within them. For we have learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, desires to recall the spirit if it be a righteous spirit, it is written: "And the spirit returns to the Elohim who gave it" (Tehilim 12:7).

141. If it is not found to be righteous, woe to that spirit, which must bathe in the burning fire and be purified in order to be sucked into the body of the King, NAMELY THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. If it is not corrected, woe to that spirit, which rolls like a stone in the hollow of the sling, as it is written: "And the souls of your enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the hollow of a sling" (I Shmuel 25:29). We learned that if the spirit is worthy, much good is stored for it in that world, as it is written: "Neither has the eye seen, that a Elohim, beside You, should do such a thing for he that waits for Him" (Yeshayah 64:3).

142. Rabbi Yosi said: When the time approaches for a man TO DIE, it is proclaimed in the world for thirty days THAT HIS TIME HAS COME TO DIE. Even the birds in the sky proclaim it, and if he is righteous, it is proclaimed for thirty days among the righteous in the Garden of Eden.

143. We have learned that all these thirty days, the soul ascends from him each night to go up and look at its place in that world, yet the man does not know ABOUT THIS, nor cares, nor has control over his soul during these thirty days like before, as it is written: "There is no man who has power over the spirit to retain the spirit" (Kohélet 8:8). Rabbi Yehuda said: At the beginning of the thirty days, the man's shadow is darkened, and the shape OF THE SHADOW is not seen upon the ground.

19. Rabbi Yitzchak sat sadly

Rabbi Yitzchak asks Rabbi Yehuda for three things that were troubling him. Rabbi Yehuda then asks him why he thinks he is going to die. Rabbi Yitzchak explains that he no longer sees his shadow. They go to see Rabbi Shimon, who protects them from the Angel of Death. Rabbi Shimon asks Rabbi Yitzchak if he has seen his father today, for if so, that means he will die. Rabbi Shimon summons God to prepare to take Rabbi Yehuda away. Rabbi Yitzchak then sleeps and sees his father in his dream, who tells him that they are preparing his chamber in Heaven. Next, Rabbi Shimon asks God that Rabbi Yitzchak will not die, and the wish is granted. Not only that, Rabbi Yitzchak is given seventy places with doors to seventy worlds. Rabbi Yitzchak is then told that he will discover the secrets with Rabbi Shimon upon his death.

The Relevance of this Passage

The profound greatness of Rabbi Shimon is made evident here through his influence and connection to The Creator that allows him to turn aside the Angel of Death on behalf of a fellow rabbi, reversing a decree of death. Moreover, great spiritual worlds and treasures await the rabbi in the world to come, by virtue of his association to Rabbi Shimon. In effect, this ancient passage is telling us that anyone who truthfully embraces the path of Rabbi Shimon and connects deeply to the Zohar and its wisdom, will have the power to stop the Angel of Death in its tracks and secure a place high in the heavens in the world to come. The Light emitted here helps to facilitate our connection to the path of the Zohar and deepens our relationship with the giant of all Kabbalists, the master Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai.

144. Rabbi Yitzchak was sitting sadly one day by the door of Rabbi Yehuda. Rabbi Yehuda came out and found him sitting sadly at his door. He said to him: What is the matter today?

144. ר' יצחק, הוה יתיב יומא חד, אפתחא דר' יהודה, והוה עציב, נמיק ר' יהודה, אשכחיה לתרעיה, דהוה יתיב ועציב, א"ל מאן יומא דין משאר יומין.

145. He said to him: I come to you to ask you three things. The first is that when you say words of the Torah, and you shall say the things that I said, say them in my name so as to mention my name. Also, that you shall teach my son, Yosef, the Torah and that you shall go to my grave all the seven days OF MOURNING and pray for me.

146. He said to him: How do you know YOU ARE GOING TO DIE? Rabbi Yitzchak said to him: My soul departs from me every night, but it does not enlighten me with dreams as before. Moreover, when I pray and reach the part of 'do hearken unto prayer and supplication', I look at my shadow upon the wall but do not see it. I think I SHALL DIE since the shadow is gone from me and cannot be seen. For a herald comes forth and proclaims, as it is written: "Surely every man walks in a shadow" (Tehilim 39:7). As long as his shadow has not gone from him, "every man walks" and his spirit within him. Once a man's shadow is no longer seen, he passes away from this world.

147. RABBI YEHUDA said to him: It is also derived from the verse, "Because our days upon earth are a shadow" (Iyov 8:9). RABBI YEHUDA said to him: I shall carry out your requests. But I also ask that you shall reserve a place for me by you in the other world, as I was by your side in this world. Rabbi Yitzchak wept and said: Please do not go away from me all these days.

148. They went to Rabbi Shimon and found him occupied with the Torah. Rabbi Shimon lifted up his eyes and saw the Angel of Death running and dancing before Rabbi Yitzchak. Rabbi Shimon stood up, held Rabbi Yitzchak by the hand and said: I decree that whoever is wont to come to me shall enter, and he who is not wont shall not come. Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yehuda came in. And he thus kept the Angel of Death remaining outside, UNABLE TO COME IN.

149. Rabbi Shimon looked and saw that his time had not yet come TO DIE, until the eighth hour of the day. Rabbi Shimon placed him before him and studied the Torah with him. Rabbi Shimon said to his son Rabbi Elazar, Sit at the door, and whoever you see do not speak with him; if he shall want to enter, swear he may not enter.

150. Rabbi Shimon said to Rabbi Yitzchak, Have you seen your father's image today, or have you not? For we have learned that when a man departs from the world, his father and relatives are there with him, and he sees and recognizes them. And all those with whom he will dwell in the other world in the same grade, all gather to be with him, and accompany his soul to its dwelling place. RABBI YITZCHAK said: Until now I have not seen THE IMAGE OF MY FATHER.

151. Rabbi Shimon stood up and said: Master of the universe, we have a certain Rabbi Yitzchak with us, one of the seven eyes here; TO WIT, ONE OF THE SEVEN STUDENTS WHO REMAINED ALIVE WHEN THEY WENT OUT OF THE HOLY ASSEMBLY. Behold, I hold him, give Him to me! A voice resounded saying: the throne of His Master, NAMELY THE NUKVA, has approached UNION through the wings of Rabbi Shimon. Behold, Rabbi Yitzchak is yours, and you shall come with him when you shall sit in your throne AT THE TIME RABBI SHIMON WILL PART FROM THE WORLD. Rabbi Shimon said: Certainly, I SHALL DO SO AND BRING HIM WITH ME WHEN I WILL DEPART FROM THE WORLD.

152. While he was speaking, Rabbi Elazar saw the Angel of Death departing. He said: No sentence stands at the place of Rabbi Shimon. Rabbi Shimon said to his son Rabbi Elazar, Come here and hold Rabbi Yitzchak, for I see he is afraid. Rabbi Elazar entered and held him, and Rabbi Shimon turned to study the Torah.

153. Rabbi Yitzchak slept and saw his father. HIS FATHER said to him: Son, happy is your portion in this world and in the World to Come, for you sit among the leaves of The Tree of Life in the Garden of Eden. A great and strong tree in both worlds is Rabbi Shimon, who holds you in his boughs. Happy is your portion, my son.

154. He said to him: Father, what am I there, IN THE WORLD OF TRUTH? He said to him: For three days they have been hastily preparing your chamber with open windows to shine upon you from the four directions of the world. I have seen your place, rejoiced and said: Happy is your portion, son. Only your son has not yet studied the Torah AND I WAS SORRY FOR THIS.

155. Even now, twelve righteous men from among the friends were preparing to come to you. As they were going, a sound went forth in all the worlds: Friends who stand here, bedeck yourself for Rabbi Shimon who has asked a request OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, THAT RABBI YITZCHAK SHALL NOT DIE, and it was granted him.

156. Not only this, but seventy places are adorned for him here. Each place has doors opening to seventy worlds, each world opening to seventy channels, each opened for seventy supernal crowns, where there are ways leading to Atika, the most concealed of all, to see the highest pleasantness which delights and shines upon all, as it says "to behold the pleasantness of Hashem, and to inquire in His temple" (Tehilim 27:4). "To inquire in His temple" as it is written: "For he is the trusted one in all my house" (Bemidbar 12:7).

157. He said to him: Father, how long am I given to live in this world? He said to him: I was not given permission to tell you this, and man is not made to know. But at the feast for Rabbi Shimon, NAMELY ON HIS DAY OF DEPARTURE, WHEN THERE WILL BE GREAT JOY IN ALL THE WORLDS FOR ALL THE SECRETS HE REVEALED, AS MENTIONED IN THE SMALL ASSEMBLY, you shall be there to set his table TO REVEAL MYSTERIES WITH HIM. As it says, "Go forth, O daughters of Tzion, and behold King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, and on the day of the gladness of his heart" (Shir Hashirim 3:11).

158. Rabbi Yitzchak then awoke and laughed and his face shone. Rabbi Shimon looked at his face and said to him: You have heard something new. RABBI YITZCHAK said to him: Surely I HAVE HEARD; He told him WHAT HE SAW IN HIS DREAM. RABBI YITZCHAK prostrated himself ON THE GROUND before Rabbi Shimon.

159. We have learned from that day onward that Rabbi Yitzchak would hold his son in his hand. He studied the Torah with him, and never left him. When he came before Rabbi Shimon, he made his son sit outside. He used to come in and sit before Rabbi Shimon and call before him, "O Hashem, I am oppressed, be you my security" (Yeshayah 38:14).

20. When it is time for a man to depart from the world

This section starts by saying that when a man dies, Four Judgments arise from four winds of the world. The four elements in man--earth, air, fire, water--attach and fight with each other. They are then separated upon his death. The herald next explains that man is evil if he has no merit, and his soul will burn in Nahar Dinur (river of fire). At this time, he confesses his deeds. Rabbi Yehuda then explains to Rabbi Yosi the reason for "a black cock," black being the color of judgment. When judgment comes upon man, the black cock starts crowing, then a second supernal spirit is added to him, so that he may see what he never saw in his days. If he is righteous, he goes to heaven; if not, his spirit stays in this world, and eventually ends up in Gehenom. Rabbi Yehuda then explains the triple-colored pillar in the lower Garden of Eden, meaning the three colors of the rainbow. The soul ascends through the pillar into righteousness, and so on towards God, if he is worthy.

The Relevance of this Passage

The power to cleanse the evil from our nature and purify our souls from the iniquities we knowingly or unknowingly committed in life, is bestowed upon us, provided we connect to this passage with an atoning heart. This Light sweetens judgments and helps us recognize the foolishness and dangers of self-centered behavior. We are inspired to travel the path of righteousness.

160. We have learned that on that hard and terrible day, when it is time for a man to depart from the world, the four winds of the world, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT, sentence the world with severe Judgment. Four Judgments arise from the four winds of the world. The four ELEMENTS IN MAN, FIRE, AIR, WATER, AND EARTH that are attached to each other, fight and quarrel between them and wish to depart each to its own side, THE ELEMENT OF FIRE WITHIN MAN TO THE GENERAL ELEMENT OF FIRE, THE ELEMENT OF WATER WITHIN MAN INTO THE ELEMENT OF WATER IN THE WORLD, AND SO ON. FOR THE ELEMENTS WITHIN MAN ARE SEPARATED IN HIS DEATH.

161. The herald, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH FROM THE UNION ON THE LEFT, comes forth. He proclaims in the supernal world TEVUNAH and is heard in 270 worlds. If he be righteous, all the worlds welcome him with joy; FOR IF HE HAS MERIT, HE IS GOOD. But if he be not righteous, woe to this man and his portion, FOR IF HE HAS NO MERIT HE IS EVIL.

162. HE EXPLAINS WHY HE IS EVIL IF HE HAS NO MERIT. HE SAYS, We have learned that when the crier makes his proclamation, a flame comes out from the north side, and goes to be burned in Nahar Dinur (the river of fire), MENTIONED AS "A FIERY STREAM ISSUED AND CAME FORTH FROM BEFORE HIM" (DANIEL 7:10). It expands to the four directions of the world and burns the souls of the wicked.

163. The flame, THE JUDGMENT OF MALCHUT, WHICH IS REVEALED BY THE SECRET OF 'IF HE HAS NO MERIT, HE IS EVIL' ascends TO BINAH, and descends back into the world, BACK TO MALCHUT. The flame alights beneath the wings of a black cock, which flaps its wings and crows at the opening between the gates.

164. At the first time, it crows, saying "For, behold, that day is coming: it burns like a furnace..." (Malachi 3:19). On the second time, it crows and says, "For, lo, He that forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to man what is his thought" (Amos 4:13). At that time, man sits AND HEARS THE WITNESSES give testimony on his deeds before him, and he confesses them. On the third time, when they want to take his soul from him, the cock crows, saying: "Who would not fear you, O King of the nations? for to You it is fitting" (Yirmeyah 10:7).

165. Rabbi Yosi said: Why a black cock? Rabbi Yehuda said to him: Everything that the Holy One, blessed be He, created upon earth alludes to Wisdom, only men do not know. This is the meaning of the words "O Hashem, how manifold are your works! in Wisdom have you made them all" (Tehilim 104:24), for they have been made in Wisdom and allude to Wisdom.

166. We have learned IN THE MATTER of the black cock that Judgment abides only in a place of its own kind, and black pertains to the side of Judgment, SINCE THE BLACK COLOR ALLUDES TO MALCHUT, THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT. Therefore at midnight exactly, when the north wind, THE LEFT COLUMN, stirs, a flame comes out and strikes under the wings of the cock, and it crows. The cock is black, BEING OF THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT, and thus is more appropriate than A COCK OF a different COLOR.

167. Here too, when Judgment is aroused upon man, THE BLACK COCK starts crowing. No one knows it save the man who is about to die. For we have learned that when a man is about to die, and Judgment hovers about him so he would depart from the world, another Supernal Spirit is added to him which he had not before during his lifetime. When it hovers about him and cleaves to him, he is able to see what he never saw in his days, due to the additional spirit in him. When the spirit is added to him, he sees and then departs from this world. This is the meaning of the verse, "You take away their breath (lit. 'you shall add their spirit'), they die, and return to their dust" (Tehilim 104:29). Then it is written: "For no man shall see me, and live" (Shemot 33:20), WHICH MEANS THAT when they are alive they cannot see, but they do when they die.

168. We have learned that when a man dies, he is given permission to see, and he sees about him his relatives and friends from the world of Truth. They all have their forms engraved upon them like they were in this world. If the man is righteous, they are all happy to see him and greet him.

169. If he is not righteous, they do not recognize him but only the wicked, who are smitten daily in Gehenom. They are all sad, they open their speech with 'woe' and end with 'woe'. The man lifts up his eyes and sees them as something burnt rising from the fire. He too opens AND SAYS OF THEM 'woe'.

170. We have learned that when a man's soul departs, all his relatives and friends in the world of Truth accompany his soul and show it the place of delight and place of punishment. If he is righteous, he sees his place, and goes up to sit and take delight in the upper Eden of that world. If he is not righteous, the soul remains in this world, until the body is buried in the ground. Once it is buried, numerous executioners grab it until it reaches Dumah, and is put in the stories of Gehenom.

171. Rabbi Yehuda said: All the seven days OF MOURNING the soul goes from the house to the grave and from the grave BACK to the house and mourns for the body, as it is written: "His flesh shall suffer pain for him, and his soul shall mourn for it" (Iyov 14:22). It goes to sit in the house, and when it sees everybody sad, it mourns TOO.

172. We have learned that after seven days the body becomes whatever it turns into, and the soul goes into its place. It enters the cave of the Machpelah. It sees whatever it sees, and enters wherever it enters until arriving at the Garden of Eden, it meets the Cherubs and the flash of the turning sword in the Garden of Eden. If it is worthy of entering, it enters.

173. We have learned that four pillars, THE FOUR ANGELS COMING FROM THE FOUR SPIRITUAL ELEMENTS CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT, are appointed OVER THE SOUL. They have a bodily form in their hands, and it gleefully dons it, and sits in a story in the lower Garden of Eden for the period of time allotted for it TO SIT THERE.

174. A triple-colored pillar stands there IN THE LOWER GARDEN OF EDEN, THE SECRET OF THE THREE COLORS OF THE RAINBOW. This pillar is called the "dwelling place of Mount Tzion" (Yeshayah 4:5), as it is written "And Hashem will create upon every dwelling place of Mount Tzion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day..." THE SOUL ascends through that pillar into the opening of righteousness, where Tzion and Jerusalem are, YESOD AND MALCHUT OF THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED RIGHTEOUSNESS.

175. If it is worthy of ascending further than that, happy is its lot and portion which cleaves to the body of the King; NAMELY TO ZEIR ANPIN, FOR IT ALREADY MERITED TO ASCEND TO TZION AND JERUSALEM, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. THE NEXT GRADE IS THE BODY OF THE KING, ZEIR ANPIN. If it is not worthy of going further up, it is written OF IT: "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Tzion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy" (Ibid. 3). But if he is worthy of going further up, happy is he to attain the glory of the King, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, and to be delighted in the supernal Eden above the place called heaven, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "Then shall you delight yourself in (Lit. 'alone') Hashem" (Ibid. 58:14). "Above Hashem" is precise ZEIR ANPIN CALLED YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI. Happy is the portion of him who is worthy of this chesed, as it is written: "For your steadfast love (Heb. chesed) is great above the heavens" (Tehilim 108:5).

175. אִי זָכִי לְסֵלְקָא יְתִיר, טַב חוּלְקִיהּ וְעַדְבֵיהּ, לְאַתְדַּבְּקָא בְּגוּ גּוּפָא דְמַלְכָא, וְאִי לֹא זָכִי לְסֵלְקָא יְתִיר, כְּתִיב וְהָיָה הַנֶּשֶׂאֶר בְּצִיּוֹן וְהַנוֹתָר בִּירוּשָׁלַם קְדוֹשׁ יֹאמֵר לוֹ, וְאִי זָכִי לְסֵלְקָא יְתִיר, זָכָאָה הוּא, דְזָכִי לִיקְרָא דְמַלְכָא, וְלֵאֲתַעֲדָנָא בְּעֶדְוָנָא עֲלָאָה, דְלַעִילָא מֵאַתְר דְאַקְרִי שְׁמַיִם, דְכָתִיב אֲז תִתְעַנֵּג עַל ה', עַל ה' דְיִיקָא. זָכָאָה חוּלְקִיהּ דְמָאן דְזָכִי לְחַסֵּד דָא, דְכָתִיב כִּי גְדוֹל מַעַל שְׁמַיִם חֶסֶדְךָ.

176. HE ASKS: Is Chesed above the heaven? It is written: "For your Chesed is great unto the heavens" (Ibid. 57:11), WHICH MEANS THAT CHESED IS UNDER THE HEAVEN. HE ANSWERS: There is Chesed and Chesed, an upper Chesed and a lower. The upper Chesed, CHESED OF ZEIR ANPIN ITSELF, is above the heaven, AS HEAVEN IS TIFERET AND CHESED PRECEDES TIFERET. THEREFORE, SCRIPTURE SAYS, "FOR YOUR CHESED IS GREAT ABOVE THE HEAVENS." The lower Chesed, CHESED OF ZEIR ANPIN CLOTHED BY THE NUKVA THROUGH NETZACH HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN is like "the sure Chassdadim of David" (Yeshayah 55:3), CALLED DAVID AFTER THE NUKVA. of which it says, "FOR YOUR CHESED is great unto the heavens" SINCE THEY ARE BELOW THE HEAVENS, TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN.

21. "A joyful mother of children"

Rabbi Yitzchak begins by saying the mother is Binah. Rabbi Shimon adds that there are two children: one male, who went to Ya'akov, and one female, who went to Avraham. He continues by saying that the quotation is a warning to men not to sin, for it may cause Binah to depart from the children, Zeir Anpin and Nukva. When the inhabitants perform good deeds, Binah returns to her young. Rabbi Shimon concludes by saying that happy is the portion for those who "behold the pleasantness of Hashem" and desire righteousness.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light of The Creator is endless, ever present, and it never changes. Darkness only exists when our Lower World disconnects from the Upper World. Disconnection occurs each time we succumb to the will of our ego and treat others with anything less than human dignity. Connection to the Upper World takes place when a man masters the drives of his ego and yields to the longings of his soul. Here we are stimulated to perform positive deeds and we strengthen our connection to the Upper World, the realm of Binah.

177. We learned that Rabbi Yitzchak said: "A joyful mother of children. Haleluyah" (Tehilim 113:9). We know who the mother is, SHE IS BINAH, but who are the children? Rabbi Shimon said: We have learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, BINAH, has two children, one male and one female. The male he gave to Ya'akov, as it is written: "Yisrael is my son, my firstborn" (Shemot 4:22) and "Yisrael, in whom I will be glorified" (Yeshayah 49:3), and the girl he gave to Avraham, as it is written: "And Hashem had blessed Avraham in all things (Heb. bakol)" (Beresheet 24:1). Avraham had a daughter named Bakol.

178. The mother, BINAH, sits on them, MALE AND FEMALE and suckles them. Hence it is written: "You shall not take the mother together with the young" (Devarim 22:6). We learned ITS MEANING that a man should beware of sinning below, IN THIS WORLD, for it might cause the mother, BINAH, to depart from the children, MALE AND FEMALE. It is also written, "She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness" (Vayikra 18:7); TO WIT, NOT TO CAUSE HER TO LEAVE THE YOUNG. Woe to him who indulges in incest, WHO CAUSES THE MOTHER TO DEPART FROM THE YOUNG.

178. וְאִמָּא רְבִיעָא עֲלֵיהוּ, דִּינְקָא לְהוּ, וְעַל הָאֵי כְּתִיב, לֹא תִקַּח הָאֵם עִל הַבָּנִים. וְתִנִּינָן, לֹא יוֹסִי ב"נ חוֹבוֹי לְתַתָּא, בְּגִין דִּיִּסְתַּלַּק אִמָּא מֵעַל בְּנִין, וְכְּתִיב, אִמְךָ הִיא לֹא תִגְלֶה עֲרוֹתָהּ, וְוִי לְמֵאֵן דְּגַלִּי עֲרִינְתָא.

179. When the inhabitants of the world repent and do many good deeds before the Holy One, blessed be He, and the mother, BINAH, returns to cover the young, MALE AND FEMALE, BINAH is then called repentance (lit. 'returning'). HE ASKS: Why is it called returning? HE REPLIES: For she returns to her sustenance; TO WIT, BINAH RETURNS TO COVER THE CHILDREN, MALE AND FEMALE, AND GIVES THEM SUCK AS BEFORE. It is then written, "a joyful mother of children." The "joyful mother" is surely BINAH, and hence a man should continue multiplying until he begets a boy and a girl, TO CORRESPOND TO MALE AND FEMALE, THE CHILDREN OF BINAH.

180. Rabbi Yitzchak said: It is written: "To behold the pleasantness of Hashem, and to inquire in His temple" (Tehilim 27:4). We understand from this that the desire of the righteous is to behold THE PLEASANTNESS OF HASHEM, THE PLEASANT MOCHIN OF ZEIR ANPIN. How can you say "above Hashem"? Rabbi Shimon said: All is one, because we understand from the words "the pleasantness of Hashem" that it comes from Atika Kadisha to heaven, TO WIT, ZEIR ANPIN RECEIVES MOCHIN FROM ABOVE IT. The desire of the righteous is assuredly ONLY TO ATTAIN THESE MOCHIN OF ZEIR ANPIN AND NOT ABOVE IT, FOR THERE IS NO CONCEPTION OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT. IT IS WRITTEN OF THEM: "GREAT ABOVE THE HEAVEN" (TEHILIM 108:5), BECAUSE THEY COME FROM ABOVE ZEIR ANPIN. FOR THE SAME REASON, it is also written: "Then shall you delight yourself in (Lit. 'above') Hashem" (Yeshayah 58:14). Happy is the portion of him, who merit this. They must be few.

22. "My mother's children were angry with me"

Rabbi Shimon describes this quotation as the one that explains the exile of Yisrael's children, when God decided he wanted to destroy His lower house. By exiling the children, he remained "aloof" from Malchut (earth). So "my mother's children" refers to Malchut and Zeir Anpin, Binah the mother. Then Rabbi Yosi describes how he was walking with Rabbi Chiya when they spotted a man in the river who said "Crown, crown," referring to the crowns Malchut and Zeir Anpin. Then "a flame came and consumed the bird" on the man's head, referring to Malchon, a button.

The Relevance of this Passage

In reality, The Creator does not choose to destroy or reward his Creation. The Light of The Creator is a constant expanding force of goodness, positivity, and fulfillment. It is man's free-willed choice as to whether he connects to this divine force of Energy [reward] or disconnects from the Light [destruction]. The entire structure of the Upper and Lower Worlds can be simplified and understood by the following analogy. The electrical current flowing through a home is always available for use. If a room is in darkness and we mistakenly [or purposely] fail to plug a lamp into the wall socket, the room remains darkened. The electrical current, however, never changed. It is not logical to conclude that the electricity decided to withhold its energy, keeping the room darkened. It is our own actions or lack of actions that determine whether we live in darkness or light. Kabbalah is the blueprint of the universe, providing man with the tools and methods for connecting to spiritual Light. The verses appearing in this passage are one such tool. We connect ourselves to the mother, Binah, the source and fountainhead of the Light that shines in this world.

181. We learned that Rabbi Shimon said: It is written, "My mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards" (Shir Hashirim 1:6). "My mother's children" are as in the verse: "Cast down from heaven to (or: the) earth" (Eichah 2:1), THE EARTH BEING THE NUKVA. For when the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted to destroy His lower house, NAMELY THE TEMPLE, and exile the children of Yisrael among the nations, He removed the earth, THE NUKVA, from before Him, and remained aloof from it: "And his sister stood afar off" (Shemot 2:4). And when the earth was afar from the heaven above, ZEIR ANPIN, the lower earth, NAMELY THE TEMPLE, was destroyed and the children of Yisrael were dispersed among the nations. The Congregation of Yisrael said: Who has done this to me, who caused this? "My mother's children," ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, who "were angry with me" and kept away from me. Assuredly they are "my mother's children," ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA BEING THE CHILDREN OF BINAH, THE MOTHER.

182. Rabbi Yosi went on the road with Rabbi Chiya bar Rav. While they were walking, Rabbi Yosi said to Rabbi Chiya, Do you see what I see? He said to him: I see a man in the river, and a bird on his head with teeth in her mouth. It is eating and tearing with its claws. The man raises his voice and shouts, but I do not know what he says.

183. RABBI YOSI said: Let us approach the man and hear what he says. Rabbi Chiya said: I am afraid to come near. He said to him: Is this a man in that place? The Holy One, blessed be He, gave us a hint of Wisdom. They came near him and heard him say, Crown, crown, I.E., ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA CALLED CROWNS, two children OF BINAH dwell outside THEIR PLACE. ZEIR ANPIN does not have rest, nor is there respite FOR THE NUKVA, until the bird will be cast away TORN TO pieces in Caesarea.

184. Rabbi Yosi wept and said: This is what we learned in relation to the verse: "My mother's children were angry with me," WHICH ALLUDES TO MALE AND FEMALE. Why? Because "my own vineyard I have not kept" (Shir Hashirim 1:6).

185. He said: Assuredly the exile will continue, and therefore the birds in the sky, THE MINISTERS OF THE NATIONS, will be in power until the government of the idolatrous nations will pass away from the world. When will that be? When the day of the Holy One, blessed be He, will come and His Judgment will be set upon the world, as it is written: "But it shall be one particular day which shall be known as Hashem's, neither day, nor night" (Zecharyah 14:7).

186. While they were walking, they heard a voice saying: 'The flame of the button has come with its judgment'; TO WIT, OF MALCHUT CALLED BUTTON. A flame came and consumed the bird. Rabbi Yosi said: Surely, it happened as in the verse, "And given to the burning flame" (Daniel 7:11).

23. "And your covenant with death shall be annulled"

Rabbi Yosi begins the discussion by saying that God exiled Yisrael only after His children lost Faith, which is the secret of the Shechinah. Then the Shechinah is separated, or "annulled" from Zeir Anpin. Death, we learn, will be destroyed from the world only when the children of Yisrael "cleave to the right" of God.

At the moment of creation, the souls of mankind sought the opportunity to create their own Light through their effort towards spiritual transformation. For this reason, our physical world, and all the supernal worlds above, was created. We create our own Light when we overcome our doubts concerning the reality of The Creator and when we triumph over our Evil Inclinations. When we experience doubt or succumb to the selfish impulses of our nature, we disconnect from the Light and our exile continues. These negative attributes are associated with the Left Column energy. However, when a man "cleaves to the right" of God, it means he is becoming a more sharing and tolerant person, the attributes associated with Right Column energy. Thus, one purpose behind this passage is to ignite the power of Right Column energy within us, so that we overcome our dark side and attract the Light of the Shechinah into our lives. In addition, the mere act of reading the words contained herein strengthens our faith, arouses the Light of the Shechinah and helps to remove the force of the death from this universe.

187. Rabbi Yosi said: The Holy One, blessed be He, exiled Yisrael only when there was no faith among them, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE SHECHINAH CALLED FAITH, FOR SINCE THEY HAVE IMPAIRED THEIR COVENANT, THE SHECHINAH WAS GONE FROM THEM. For when faith is withheld from them, it is so in everything, I. E. ALSO ABOVE, THE SHECHINAH IS SEPARATED FROM ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "And your covenant with death shall be annulled" (Yeshayah 28:18), WHICH MEANS THAT KEEPING THE COVENANT ATONES FROM DEATH, AND IT ATONED FOR THEM TOO, SO THEY WOULD NOT GO INTO EXILE. BUT THEY DID IMPAIR THE COVENANT AND THUS THE SHECHINAH DEPARTED FROM THEM.

188. Rabbi Chiya said: This is the meaning of, "He will destroy death for ever" (Yeshayah 25:8). RABBI YOSI said to him: When the Holy One, blessed be He, will awaken His right, death will be destroyed forever from the world. But the right will not stir until the children of Yisrael will arise and cleave to the right of the Holy One, blessed be He. What is "THE RIGHT" OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE? It is the Torah, as is written: "From His right hand went a fiery law for them" (Devarim 33:2). At that time, "the right hand of Hashem does valiantly" (Tehilim 118:16) followed by, "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of Hashem" (Ibid. 17), AS THE RIGHT ANNULS DEATH.

189. We have learned that a righteous man, with whom the Holy One, blessed be He, is delighted, is proclaimed by a herald for thirty days among the righteous in the Garden of Eden, and all the righteous rejoice. They all come to decorate his place until he will come to be seated among them.

24. "Woe to the wicked, it shall be ill"

This section opens by stating that all wicked men are sad and that they say, "Woe." The wicked, as Rabbi Yitzchak points out, are those who spill their "semen in vain." Those who do this are called ra (evil), and it is the worst transgression. They never escape from Gehenom. Rabbi Yehuda further adds that it is the only sin for which one cannot atone.

The Relevance of this Passage

The entire physical world is a shadow, a reflection of the Upper World. Everything on this physical plane has a corresponding counterpart in the supernal realm. Semen is the substance most reflective of the Light of The Creator. Hence, as raw naked energy must be concealed in high voltage cables in order to harness its power, semen must remain concealed in this physical world. When it is wasted in vain, through selfish gratification, and not used for the divine purpose of creating life and/or sharing pleasure with one's spouse, negative forces that dwell among us are free to use this energy for destructive purposes. This passage helps us cleanse sexual iniquities from the world and gives us the strength to direct our urges in a positive and sharing way.

190. If he be evil, a herald announces him in Gehenom for thirty days. All the wicked men are sad and open AND SAY, 'Woe'. For a new Judgment is awakened for a certain person, and numerous accusers await him to welcome him AND SAY TO HIM, 'Woe.' Woe unto the wicked, woe unto his neighbor.

191. They all open and say, "Woe to the wicked, it shall be ill with him, for according to the deserving of his hands shall be done to him" (Yeshayah 3:11). What is "the deserving of his hands"? Rabbi Yitzchak said: It includes him who defiles with his hands by spilling his semen in vain.

192. For we have learned that he who spills his semen in vain is called ra (evil), and cannot behold the face of the Shechinah, as it is written: "For you are not an El that has pleasure in wickedness: nor shall evil dwell with you" (Tehilim 5:5) and also "And Er, Yehuda's firstborn, was evil (Heb. ra)" (Beresheet 38:7). Here too, "Woe to the wicked... ill (Heb. ra)" ALLUDES TO HIM WHO SPILLS HIS SEMEN IN VAIN. Woe to the wicked who is evil and made himself evil (Heb. ra), "for according to the deserving of his hands shall be done to him." This means that whoever whores himself by letting his semen spill in vain is punished in the world of truth more than any OTHER TRANSGRESSION.

193. Come and see it is written: "Woe to the wicked." Since it says, "Woe to the wicked (Heb. rasha)," why add 'ra (evil)' SEEING THAT THE WICKED IS EVIL? This is as I said: that he has made himself evil, ESPECIALLY HE WHO SPILLED HIS SEMEN IN VAIN. ALSO: "... nor shall evil dwell with you." Everyone ascends FROM GEHENOM save this one, who does not. HE ASKS: Would you say that other evil-doers who killed people ARE BETTER THAN HE, AND WILL ASCEND WHILE HE SHALL NOT? HE ANSWERS, Come and behold: everyone rises but he does not, because they killed other people, yet he killed his own children, and spilled much blood. Come and behold: it is not written of any other wicked man in the world that he "displeased Hashem" (Beresheet 38:10), only in this case where it says, "And the thing which he did displeased Hashem." Why? Because, the verse says, "He spilled it on the ground" (Ibid. 9).

194. We learned that Rabbi Yehuda said: There is no sin in the world for that one cannot repent other than the one OF SPILLING ONE'S SEMEN IN VAIN. There are no wicked men who shall not behold the face of the Shechinah IN THEIR DEATH, save him of whom it says "nor shall evil dwell with you" at all. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Happy are the righteous in this world and in the World to Come, of whom scripture says, "Your people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever" (Yeshayah 60:21). Rabbi Yehuda said: It is also said in "I will walk before Hashem in the land of the living" (Tehilim 116:9), WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH, CALLED LAND, THE LAND HERE ALLUDES TO THE SHECHINAH.

195. "And Ya'akov lived" among them: Another explanation for this is that a man should not mingle his image with that of the idolatrous nations, for the one is holy and the other defiled.

25. The shadow

This section begins by describing the difference between what happens when a person dies to the body of a man of Yisrael, and to the body of an idolatrous heathen. Unlike an Israelite, a heathen's impurities cannot be defiled. Each Israelite contains two shadows (tzelamim,) the ordinary and the holy shadow. As he approaches death, both shadows depart, since they are joined together. He must write letters and put them in a bag, and then on Yom Kippur, he must repent. If he attains repentance, the letters are torn; if not, they are read in consideration for judgment. Then, there follows a description of the significance of various parts of a man's shadow, and what it means if one or many of them are missing. Everything in the Lower World has its root in higher worlds. When one stirs, so does the other.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light to cleanse ourselves from sin and wrongdoing is bestowed upon readers of this passage. The importance of repentance is awakened within us and we remove judgments decreed against us in the Upper Worlds. Our shadow is the link between the body and soul, and when a person is about to leave this world, the shadow becomes dimmer. This section helps strengthen our shadow, removing the force of death from life.

196. Come and see the difference between Yisrael and the idolatrous nations. When a man of Yisrael dies, he defiles the body and the house. But the body of a heathen man does not defile and his body is not defiled in his death. Why is it so?

197. HE ANSWERS: When a man from Yisrael dies, all the holiness of his Master is removed from him, the holy shadow and the Holy Spirit is gone from him and leave his body defiled.

198. But this is not so for an idolatrous heathen. For during his lifetime he is impure on all sides, his shadow is impure and his spirit is impure. Since impurities lie within him, it is forbidden to come near him. Once he dies, all the impurities depart from him and the body is left without defiling impurity.

199. Though their bodies are defiled both during their life and in their deaths, yet when they are alive all the impurities within them have the power to defile others. In their deaths, when impurities leave them, they cannot defile. A BODY OF an Yisraeli AFTER DEATH can defile others, since all that is holy has left him and the Other Side dwells upon him.

200. Come and see this holy shadow. When a man grows and his shape is made COMPLETED by a face, another shadow is made and joins THE FIRST ONE, each embracing the other. When a man has two shadows, he is protected and his body lives with a spirit abiding within it.

201. When his time draws near for him to die, the shadows (Heb. tzelamim) depart from him, the one causes the other to depart SINCE THEY ARE JOINED TOGETHER. The man remains without protection, in accordance with the verse: "Before the days cools, and the shadows (Heb. tzelalim) flee away" (Shir Hashirim 2:17), NOT SAYING 'SHADOW' BUT 'SHADOWS,' NAMELY two--AS WE SAID.

202. Come and see: When Judgment awakens in the world and the Holy One, blessed be He, sits on His throne of justice to sentence the world ON ROSH HASHANAH, a man should awaken to repent his sins. For on that day, letters are written and put in a bag all written down. If a man succeeded and returned IN REPENTANCE before his Master, the letters concerning him are torn.

203. After that, the Holy One, blessed be He, prepared Yom Kippur for man. If he repents his sins, well. If not, the King commands to seal the letters. Woe to him, for repentance is about to depart from him.

204. If he attains repentance, yet it is not whole, the letter is withheld until the last day called Atzeret (gathering), which is the eighth day of Sukkot. If he wholly repented before his Master, the letters are torn; if he has not, the letters are sent from the King's house and given to the punishing angel for the judgment to be executed. After the letters are handed out, they return no more to the King's house, AND THE JUDGMENT WRITTEN IN THEM MUST BE EXECUTED.

205. Then, the images are gone and do not abide with him. Once they are gone from him, the King's punishment comes upon him, and he tastes the cup of death. On the night of the last festival, THE EIGHTH DAY OF SUKKOT, the executioners are ready and receive the letters. After they do, the images are gone and cannot be with them. If THE SHADOWS are with him, no judgment comes upon him, nor evil illnesses THAT COME when the shadows are flawed, as we already explained elsewhere.

206. In ancient books, this is explained further: When the head of his shadow is missing but the body is not, it indicates that his child or wife will survive but he will pass away. This is true as long as he does not repent. If he does, he will only taste death and recover from his illness.

207. If the body OF HIS SHADOW will not be seen, but only the head, HIS FAMILY WILL DIE and he will stay alive. This is true as long as he is responsible for his small child.

208. If the hands OF THE SHADOW are flawed, it is an indication that the works of his hands will deteriorate, and if his legs ARE FLAWED, it is an indication that illnesses pursue him. If the shadow flees and returns, then flees and returns again, it is said of him, "In the morning you shall say, 'Would it were evening'" (Devarim 28:67). This is true only when the moon shines and the night is diffused with her light, WHEN HE CHECKS HIS SHADOW.

209. But the righteous and the pious search in their hearts every day as if on this very day they are to pass away from the world, and they repent wholly before their Master. They have need of nothing else, I. E. CHECKING THEIR SHADOW OR THE LIKE OF IT. Happy is their portion in this world and in the World to Come.

209. אֲבָל זָכָאי חֲסִידֵי, בְּכָל יוֹמָא וְיוֹמָא מְסַתְּבְּלוּ בְלַבְיַיָּהוּ, כְּאֵלוּ הֵהוּא יוֹמָא מְסַתְּלָקִי מְעַלְמָא, וְעֲבָדִין תַּיּוּבְתָא שְׁלִימְתָא קָמִי מְאֲרִיָּהוּן, וְלֹא יַצְטְרַכּוּן לְמַלְאָה אַחְרָא, זָכָא חוּלְקָהוּן, בְּעַלְמָא דִּין, וּבְעַלְמָא דְאַתֵּי.

210. Come and see "every one that is called by My name" (Yeshayah 43:7). How exalted are the worshipers of the holy King, for their actions below connect them to the higher things above; TO WIT, TO THEIR ROOTS. FOR EACH THING BELOW IN THE WORLD HAS A ROOT ABOVE IN HIGHER WORLDS. When they are taken down and act by them, the action above, THEIR ROOT IN HIGHER WORLDS, AWAKENS in accordance with it. This is like the hyssop and the cedar wood THE TORAH COMMANDS HIM WHO IS PURIFIED TO USE, as we already explained.

26. The four kinds

This further describes the importance of the root connection between aspects of the lower and higher worlds. There are four things to cleave to: the Lulav, Etrog (citron), myrtle, and willow. Then, we learn of the significance of "the fifteenth day," the first of the three travelling Columns. Next, we are told that Yom Kippur is the secret of Ima, the day in which Binah sets the prisoners free, who name that day "the first day", and ask Binah for water. It is either the beginning of "Clouds of Glory" or of "Living Water."

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we connect ourselves to the internal spiritual forces associated with the Lulav, Etrog, myrtle branch, and willow. These physical items work like an antenna. They have powerful spiritual counterparts in the Upper World which help us draw the Light of protection to our lives. We also destroy any judgments that might be pending in the Upper Courts, provided our hearts are filled with repentance.

211. Some of them cleave to the Holy Name above, like the Lulav, Etrog (citron), myrtle and willow. In relation to them, we learned that we should unite them; NAMELY TO BIND THEM TOGETHER and perform an action with them; NAMELY TO SHAKE THEM, in order to arouse joy in the root to which it cleaves above. We have learned that by speech, THE BENEDICTION OF THE PRECEPTS, and by deed, THE PRECEPT, we should exhibit it BELOW in order to awaken that WHICH IS ABOVE; NAMELY ITS SUPERNAL ROOT.

212. This is the meaning of the words: "Every one that is called by My Name: for My Glory" namely, so it would glorify Me; "I have created him" so he would declare My unity; "I have formed him" so he would perform good deeds for My sake; "I have made him" so that through him the supernal force will awaken.

213. Another explanation: "Every one that is called by My Name" as it is written "the fruit of the tree Hadar (citrus)" (Vayikra 23:40); "For My glory I have created him" namely, the "branches of palm trees;" "I have formed him," "the boughs of thick leaved tree;" "I have made him," the "willow of the brook."

213. ד"א, כָּל הַנִּקְרָא בְּשֵׁמִי: הֵינּוּ דְכְתִיב פְּרֵי עֵץ הָדָר. וְלִכְבוֹדִי בְּרָאֲתִיו: הֵינּוּ כַפּוֹת תַּמְרִים. יִצְרַתִּיו: הֵינּוּ וְעֵנַף עֵץ עֲבוֹת. אֶף עֲשִׂיתִיו: הֵינּוּ וְעֶרְבֵי נַחַל.

214. They are to be used, as it says, "And you shall take for yourselves on the first day" (Ibid.), which is the fifteenth.

215. But what is the first day SCRIPTURE MENTIONS, WHAT DOES IT ALLUDE TO? HE REPLIES: It is the first to travel by the sources of living water, BEING THE FIRST COLUMN OF THE THREE TRAVELING COLUMNS, THROUGH WHICH TRAVEL CHASSADIM BECOME REVEALED BY CHOCHMAH CALLED LIVING WATER. FOR THE RIGHT COLUMN, CHESED, TRAVELS FIRST, and we should draw into the world. FOR IN SUKKOT, IT IS TIME FOR DRAWING CHASSIDIM, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF "HIS RIGHT HAND EMBRACES ME" (SHIR HASHIRIM 8:3).

216. This is like the story of a king who put people into his prison. The lady, his mother, came and set them free. The king, mindful of her honor, put them under her authority. She found them hungry and thirsty and said TO HER SON THE KING, now that I set them free, give them food and drink.

217. Thus Yom Kippur, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF IMA, BINAH sets them free. We are hungry for nourishment and thirsty for a drink, FOR NO PHYSICAL FOOD AND DRINK IS DRAWN FROM BINAH, FOR WHICH REASON WE FAST AND AFFLICT OUR SOULS ON THE DAY OF ATONEMENT. She therefore adorns THE KING, ZEIR ANPIN, THE SON OF BINAH, with his crown, MOCHIN OF CHASSADIM on this day, THE FIRST OF THE FESTIVAL. We know that there is living water there, and we ask for water from the one who set us free, SO SHE WOULD GIVE CHASSADIM TO ZEIR ANPIN FOR US, AFTER WE ATTAINED MOCHIN OF CHOCHMAH FROM HER ON YOM KIPPUR, THE SECRET OF FREEDOM. We therefore name this day 'the first day'.

218. All this is written in the book of Agada, and is correct. But BESIDES WHAT WAS SAID, this day THAT ALLUDES TO Avraham, THE SECRET OF THE SFIRAH OF CHESED, is the starting point of everything-whether it is the beginning of the clouds of glory THAT ARE THE SECRET OF THE SURROUNDING LIGHTS, IT IS THE BEGINNING AS THE FIRST SURROUNDING LIGHT IS CHESED, or the beginning of water, THE SECRET OF INTERNAL LIGHT, AS FOR THE FIRST SURROUNDING LIGHT IS CHESED, INTERNAL LIGHT IS CHESED. THIS IS THE SECRET MEANING OF Avraham starting to dig wells of water.

219. "The fruit of the tree Hadar" is the well of Yitzchak; NAMELY THE NUKVA CALLED WELL WHEN RECEIVING CHOCHMAH FROM THE LEFT COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED YITZCHAK. For Yitzchak glorified (Heb. hider) the Holy One, blessed be He, and called Him "the tree Hadar," THE NUKVA BEING the fruit of this particular tree. "Branches of palm trees" are as it is written: "The righteous man flourishes like the palm tree" (Tehilim 92:13), NAMELY THE RIGHTEOUS YESOD. There is no dividing between YESOD AND THE NUKVA, for which reason it does not say "and branches" but just "branches (Heb. kapot)," WHICH IS AN INDICATION OF BINDING (HEB. KAPHUT) AND UNITY. For they cannot exist without each other, BUT ARE ALWAYS BOUND TOGETHER. Through this the well, THE NUKVA, is filled from the well of supernal living water, BINAH, for YESOD is filled first FROM TIFERET AND TIFERET FROM BINAH, and from it, the well is filled until it BECOMES a gushing spring for everyone.

220. "The bough of thick leaved tree": This is the bough of the great tree TIFERET, which was strengthened, struck root and became a high tree, connected on every side; NAMELY TIFERET WHICH INCLUDES THE SIX SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD WHICH HOLD TO IT ON EVERY SIDE. This bough is a thick tree (Heb. avot, with Ayin), holding on to the patriarchs (Heb. avot, with Aleph). FOR IT IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN THAT COMPRISES RIGHT AND LEFT, CHESED AND GVURAH, CALLED AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. THE ALEPH OF AVOT (FATHERS) AND THE AYIN OF AVOT THICK TREES ARE INTERCHANGEABLE. For from TIFERET, the foundation (Yesod) of the world receives and is filled and pours unto the well, THE NUKVA, which is the land that is all water.

218. דָּא בְּסַפְרָא דְאֲגַדְתָּא וְשְׁפִיר הוּא. אֲבַל בְּהַאי יוֹמָא, לְאַבְרָהָם שִׁירוֹתָא דְכֻלָּא, אִי בְעַנְנֵי יִקְר הוּא שִׁירוֹתָא, אִי בְמֵיָא הוּא שִׁירוֹתָא, דְאַבְרָהָם שְׂאִירֵי לְמַחְפְּרֵי בִירֵי דְמֵיָא.

219. פְּרִי עֵץ הָדָר: דָּא בִּירָא דִּיצְחָק, דִּיצְחָק אֲהָדָר לִיהּ לְקוֹדֶשׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא וְקָרָא לִיהּ עֵץ הָדָר, פְּרִי דְהָאִי עֵץ הָדָר יִדְעָא. כַּפּוֹת תְּמָרִים: דְכַתִּיב, צְדִיק כְּתָמָר יִמְרָח, וְלֹא אֲשַׁתַּכַּח בִּינֵיהוּ פְרוּדָא, וְע"ד לֹא כְתִיב וּכְפּוֹת, אֲלֹא כַּפּוֹת, בְּגִין דְלֹא סְלִיק דָּא בְלֹא דָא, וּבְהַאי אֲתַמְלִיָּא הָאִי בְאֵר, מְבַאֵר מִים עַלְאִין נְבִיעִין, הֵהוּא אֲתַמְלִי בְקִדְמִיתָא, וּמְנִיָּה אֲתַמְלִיָּא בִּירָא, עַד דְאִיהוּ נְבִיעוּ לְכֻלָּא.

221. There are two "willows of the brook," ALLUDING TO the two brooks of water, THE TWO SFIROT, NETZACH AND HOD, where the water gathers to pour upon the righteous, YESOD WHICH RECEIVES FROM NETZACH AND HOD. Another explanation: The "willows of the brook" are the Gvurot which hold fast to Yitzchak, THE LEFT COLUMN. They come from the supernal brook, IMA, and not from the side of Aba, THE RIGHT COLUMN, and this is why the willows are all handsome but not sweet like fruit and do not produce fruit.

222. The "willows of the brook" are the two pillars, NETZACH AND Hod, which support the body, yet the "willows of the brook," as was explained, all pour water to the well TO GIVE TO THE NUKVA.

223. Another explanation for: "And you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of the tree Hadar" is that it is Avraham; NAMELY CHESED. "Branches of palm tree" is Yitzchak, NAMELY GVURAH; "the bough of thick leaved tree" is Ya'akov, NAMELY TIFERET; and the "willows of the brook" are the two grades we mentioned, NETZACH AND HOD.

224. And this is because the thick tree is Ya'akov, who holds all the parts, THE SIX ENDS CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, WHICH ARE INCLUDED WITHIN HIM, FOR WHICH REASON HE IS CALLED A THICK TREE. Assuredly, we have shown that "the fruit of the tree Hadar" is the well of Yitzchak, the lower Gvurah; NAMELY THE NUKVA. In "branches (Heb. kapot) of palm trees," 'kapot' is spelled without VAV, WHICH MEANS IT IS TIED; NAMELY a tie upon the well, as it is written "bound (Aramaic kephitu) in their mantles" (Daniel 3:21), NAMELY YESOD AND NUKVA, which do not ascend without one another, AS IF THEY ARE BOUND. "The bough of thick leaved tree" is the supernal bough turned into a thick tree cleaving to every side; NAMELY CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, FOR TIFERET IS THE BODY, CHESED-GVURAH THE ARMS, NETZACH-HOD THE LEGS, AND YESOD THE HOLY COVENANT, as we explained. The "willows of the brook" is Yitzchak, for on all sides they hold to the side of the brook, IMA, instead of the side of Aba. As we learned, though there are no judgments in this brook, BINAH, yet all Judgments are awakened thence.

225. Rabbi Hamnuna Saba (the elder) explained that "willows of the brook" are the two pillars we mentioned, NETZACH AND HOD, from which water comes out. THE EXPLANATION is well, yet come and behold: we see that these two grades, NETZACH AND HOD, stand on the grade of the righteous, YESOD. Fruits and gathered blessings are issued from them; but from the willows of the brook, WHICH ALSO ALLUDE TO NETZACH AND HOD, no fruits are produced, nor taste or smell, as we already explained. And all is well.

226. Therefore WE HOLD the Etrog with the left against the heart, while Lulav is held by the right together with the other kinds all tied. For the righteous, YESOD, is united with all THE SFIROT, and bound to them all. This is the bond of faith, SHINING UPON THE NUKVA CALLED FAITH.

227. In the book of Agada it is well versed that all THE FOUR KINDS are the guests, THE SECRET OF THE SEVEN SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT, who were invited by the holy people on this day, BY PRAYING ON THE DAYS OF SUKKOT BEFORE THE MEAL AND INVITING THE SUPERNAL GUESTS. They should be there, since they were invited, and man uses them in his prayer to the King. BY THE FOUR KINDS, WHICH ALLUDE TO THESE SFIROT, ONE ATTAINS THEM. Happy are the children of Yisrael who know the ways of the holy King, and know the ways of the Torah, with which to walk the path of Truth and merit this world and the World to Come.

228. On that day, the children of Yisrael come out from before the King with certain signs; NAMELY THE FOUR KINDS, for they received a favorable judgment. What are these signs? The signs of the faith, THE SHECHINAH, the seal of the most high King, ZEIR ANPIN. It is like two men come before the king to be judged. The people in the world did not know who won. A minister came from the king's house and they asked him. He said to them, Whoever leaves THE KING'S HOUSE with the king's signs in his hands, he is the winner.

229. All the people in the world come to be judged before the most high King and He judges them on Rosh Hashanah and on the Yom Kippur until the fifteenth day of the month. Thus, it was found out that the children of Yisrael had all succeeded in repenting, and work hard in building the Sukkah and acquiring a Lulav and Etrog. It is not known who won the judgment. The supernal angels ask who has won, and the Holy One, blessed be He, says they who hold my signs in their hands, THE FOUR KINDS, have received a favorable judgment.

231. Now all rejoice, and the guests rejoice. Even the nations of the world participate in that joy and are blessed by it. Hence sacrifices are offered for them in every day, so there will be peace upon them, and they will be blessed by it. From now on, there is one day in which the highest King rejoices with the people of Yisrael, as it is written: "On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly" (Bemidbar 29:35). This day comes solely from the King, who delights in the children of Yisrael as a king who has invited guests.

227. ובספרא דאגדתא שפיר קאמר, דכל אליו אינון אושפיזין, דזמינון עמא קדישא בהאי יומא, דבעיין לאשכחא להו, בין דזמין לון, ובהו בעי ב"ג למלכא בעותיה, זכאין אינון ישראל הידעין ארחוי דמלכא קדישא, וידעין ארחוי דאורייתא, למיהך באורח קשוט, למזכי בהו בעלמא דין ובעלמא דאתי.

27. The tulip and the lily

Rabbi Shimon begins the discussion by providing two explanations for this title verse. He reveals that the "tulip of Sharon" signifies both the congregation of Yisrael and the Malchut. Rabbi Shimon continues by explaining that the Malchut is called "Sharon" and that it thirsts for the water of Binah. The tulip, we are told, is also called "the lily of the valley," since it changes hues when she unites with the King. This change, we learn, indicates an alignment with mercy or judgment. Rabbi Shimon next proceeds by providing a description of Adam's mortal sin, the crime by which he brought punishment upon all people. We are told that in fact it was Eve who led Adam to sin and thereby, brought death to all. As punishment for this sin, both Adam and Eve, as well as the rest of humanity, became subject to constant change and eventual death.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light of Binah flows into our world as we peruse this passage with a pure heart. This Light brings mercy into our lives, softening judgments. This energy of purification also helps to correct the original sin of Adam, and assists in the removal of death from the landscape of human existence.

232. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "I am the tulip of the Sharon; the lily of the valleys" (Shir Hashirim 2:1). How fond is the Holy One, blessed be He, of the Congregation of Yisrael. He always praises it, and she always praises the Holy One, blessed be He, AS SAID IN SHIR HASHIRIM. How many poets and singers it summons before the Holy One, blessed be He. Happy is the portion of Yisrael, who cleave to the lot of the holy portion, as it says, "For Hashem's portion is His people..." (Devarim 32:9).

233. "I am the tulip of the Sharon." This is the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, which stands in the Garden of Eden in the magnificence of her beauty. She is called Sharon, because she sings (Heb. sharah) and praises before the most high King.

233. אני חבצלת השרון, דא בנסת ישראל, דקיימא בשפירו דנוי בגנתא דערן. השרון: דהיא שרה ומשבחת למלכא עלאה.

234. Another explanation is that "I am the tulip of the Sharon" in need of watering from the deep river, the source of all springs; NAMELY BINAH, as it says, "And the parched ground (Heb. sharav) shall become a pool" (Yeshayah 35:7). HENCE THE NUKVA IS CALLED SHARON, DERIVED FROM SHARAV, FOR IT IS THIRSTY FOR THE WATER OF BINAH. She is called "the lily of the valley (also: 'the deeps')" since she is to be found very deep. The deeps are those in the verse, "Out of the depths I have cried to you, O Hashem" (Tehilim 130:1). "The tulip of the Sharon" comes from the place where the waters of the springs come and never stop flowing. "The lily of the valley" is from the place called the depth of all, closed on all sides.

235. Come and see: In the beginning, she is green as a tulip, which has leaves of green. Then, she is red as a lily with white shades, a lily (Heb. shoshana) of six leaves. THE WORD IS DERIVED FROM CHANGE (HEB. SHINUUY), for she changes hues, changes from one color to another.

235. תא חזי בקדמיתא ירוקא כחבצלת, דטרפין דילה ירוקין, לבתר שושנת סומקא בגוונין חורין. ששנה בשית טרפין, ששנת: דאשתניאת מגוונא לגוונא, ושניאת גוונאה.

236. SHE IS CALLED a lily, THOUGH at first she was a tulip. WHEN she desired to be united with the King, she was called a tulip. Now that she is joined to the King in kisses, she is called a lily. Since it is written: "His lips are lilies" (Shir Hashirim 5:13), she is called "the lily of the valley," for she changes colors, now for better now for worse, now for Mercy now for Judgment.

237. "And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes" (Beresheet 3:6). Come and see: Men do not behold, nor do they know or care, that when the Holy One, blessed be He, created Adam, He donned him with what is most dear, THE SUPERNAL MOCHIN, and asked Adam to cleave to Him, so he will be the only one, of one heart, to cling to the place of one never-changing clinging; NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN. IT SAYS, "FOR I AM HASHEM, I DO NOT CHANGE" (MALACHI 3:6), which never alters, the knot to which the all embracing unison is tied. This is the meaning of "The Tree of Life in the midst of the garden" (Beresheet 2:10); NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN.

239. Surely then their heart was changed on that very side, FOR THEY UNDERWENT MANY CHANGES, now for good now for evil, now for Mercy now for Judgment. They clung to THE LEFT, surely seeking many inventions there, I.E. NAMELY CHANGES, and cleaved to them.

240. The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: Adam, you have abandoned life and clung to death. Life is, as it is written: "The Tree of Life in the midst of the garden," NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN called life, for whoever cleaves to it shall never taste death. Yet you clung to another tree, THE NUKVA WHEN NOT UNITED WITH ZEIR ANPIN. Now surely death awaits you, as it is written: "Her feet go down to death" (Mishlei 5:5), FOR WHOEVER HAS NO MERIT IS EVIL. It is also written: "And I find more bitter than death the woman" (Kohelet .7:26), THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA WHEN NOT UNITED WITH ZEIR ANPIN. Surely he clung to the place of death and abandoned the place of living and was therefore doomed to death together with the rest of the world.

241. HE ASKS: If he sinned, what was the sin of the whole world, WHY WAS IT DECREED THAT THE REST OF THE WORLD WOULD DIE? If, you might say, it is because the whole world ate of this tree, and therefore were all sentenced to death, this is not so. HE ANSWERS: When Adam WAS CREATED AND stood upon his feet, all the creatures saw and feared him, and followed him like servants after the king. But he said to them, "O come, let us worship and bow down" (Tehilim 95:6), you and I. When they saw Adam bowing before that place, THE LEFT SIDE, and cleaving to it, they all followed him. Thus, he brought death upon the whole world.

242. Then was Adam changed in several ways, now Judgment, now Mercy, now to death and now to life. He never stood still in one of them, because of the nature of that place which was therefore called the revolving sword, which revolves from this to that side, from good to evil, from Mercy to Judgment, from peace to war. Usually it turns from good to evil, as it is written: "The Tree of Knowledge of good and evil" (Bereshheet 2:9).

243. The most high King, in His love for His creatures, rebuked him saying: "But from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it..." (Ibid. 17), but he did not accept it and was drawn after his wife and was expelled FROM THE GARDEN OF EDEN for ever, for the woman ascended to the place OF THE REVERSAL BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH and no more. THUS the woman brought death to all.

243. וּמִלְכָּא עֲלָאָה, לְרַחֲמָא עַל עוֹבְדוּי, אוֹכַח לִיָּה, וְאִ"ל, וּמַעַץ הַדַּעַת טוֹב וְרַע לֹא תֹאכַל מִמֶּנּוּ וְגו', וְהוּא לָא קְבִיל מְנִיָּה, וְאַתְמַשֵּׁךְ בְּתַר אַתְתִּיָּה, וְאַתְתְּרַךְ לְעֵלְמִין, דִּהָא אַתְתָּא לְאַתְרָא סְלָקָא וְלֹא יְתִיר, וְאַתְתָּא גְרִים מוֹתָא לְכֹלָא.

244. Come and see: It is written of the World to Come: "For as the days of a tree shall the days of my people be" (Yeshayah 65:22). "The days of a tree" refer to the well known TREE OF LIFE, of which it says "He will destroy death for ever" (Yeshayah 25:8), FOR THERE ARE NO CHANGES OR DEATH IN THE TREE OF LIFE.

28. "And the days drew near for Yisrael to die," part three

Rabbi Chiya explains to Rabbi Yosi that when the Holy One wishes to take back a man's spirit, the days that man has lived are enumerated before Him. If this man is righteous, all the days will draw near Him without reproach. The wicked, however, cannot draw near Him since they are consumed by darkness. The name "Yisrael" is more complete than, and superior to, the name Ya'akov, we are told. This is why we find Yisrael rather than Ya'akov written in the title quotation.

The Relevance of this Passage

A rare opportunity is afforded to the readers of this mystical passage. Through the spiritual power ingrained into the name Yisrael, we receive the Light of the great patriarch, which helps merit closeness to The Creator in this world and the next, by removing the darkness created by our misdeeds and selfish actions. Moreover, we are inspired to seek higher levels of spirituality, so that we, too, can elevate from the realm of "Ya'akov" to "Yisrael" over the course of our lives.

245. "And the days drew near for Yisrael to die." We learned that Rabbi Chiya said: It is written, "And Ya'akov lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years." In his life, it is written Ya'akov and in his death, it says Yisrael. YET THE NAME YISRAEL IS MORE ELEVATED THAN THE NAME YA'AKOV. Rabbi Yosi said: Surely IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN SAID HERE YISRAEL, for it does not say, 'The day drew near,' but "the days." This is difficult to understand, for a man does not die in several days; within one hour, one moment, he dies and passes away from the world.

246. HE ANSWERS: We have so learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes to take back to Him the spirit of man, all the days the man lived come before Him and are counted. When the days draw near him to be reckoned, the man dies, and the Holy One, blessed be He, takes back to Himself the spirit of man, that breath which the man breathes in and out.

246. אֶלָּא הֲכִי תָּאנָא, כִּד קוֹדֶשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּעֵי לְאַתְבָּא רוּחָיָהּ לִיָּה, כָּל אִינוּן יוֹמִין דְּקָאִים ב"נ בְּהָאֵי עֵלְמָא, אַתְּפַקְדֵּן קָמִיָּה, וְעָאֲלִין בְּחוּשְׁבָּנָא, וְכִד אַתְקְרִיבוּ קָמִיָּה לְמִיעַל בְּחוּשְׁבָּנָא, מִית ב"נ, וְאַתִּיב קוֹדֶשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא רוּחָיָהּ לִיָּה, הֵהוּא הֶבֶל דְּאִפִּיק וְנַפַּח בִּיָּה, אוֹתְבִיָּה לְגַבִּיָּה.

247. Happy is the portion of the man, whose days draw near the King without reproach, and none is pushed out for containing a transgression committed in it. The reason the words 'drawing near' are used in relation to the righteous is that the days draw near the King without reproach.

248. Woe to the wicked of whom it does not say 'drawing near'. For how could their days draw near the King, when all the crimes of the world are found in them? Hence they do not draw near the King, nor come before Him or recorded above, but are consumed of themselves, as is said of them, "The way of the wicked is like darkness: they know not at what they stumble" (Mishlei 4:19).

249. And here it says, "And the days drew near for Yisrael to die," for assuredly they drew near without shame, in complete joy. This is why it says (lit.) "the days of Yisrael," AND NOT "THE DAYS OF YA'AKOV," as the name Yisrael is more complete than that of Ya'akov. If you say that it is written "and Ya'akov was a plain (lit. 'whole') man" (Beresheet 25:27), indicating that the name Ya'akov too is whole. HE ANSWERS: THE NAME YA'AKOV IS ALSO WHOLE, but not whole on a superior grade like Yisrael is.

250. We have learned that Rabbi Yosi said: When a man's days are enumerated before the King, those of a certain righteous are enumerated far from the King, and the days of another righteous are counted close to the King. They do not stand at a distance but come in without shame and draw near the King. Happy is their portion. This is the meaning of the verse, "And the days drew near for Yisrael to die."

29. "And he called his son Yosef"

Through a discussion of the title verse, the rabbis reveal the special connection that exists between Yosef and his father Ya'akov. Not only were the two very similar in appearance, but Ya'akov also recognized Yosef's holiness and knew that he would one day be a great man. We also learn that Ya'akov was afraid to go to Egypt because he feared that in the future his children would be made slaves, that the Shechinah would leave him, and that he would be buried among the wicked. However, the Lord assured him that he would be buried in the grave of his forefathers, and Ya'akov saw that the Shechinah would dwell with Yisrael in exile.

Rabbi Shimon then addresses the topic of Ya'akov's relationship with Leah and Rachel. The deception that was played out by Leah, posing as Rachel, leads to the transference of the birthright from Reuven to Yosef. This also relates to the significance of the name Reuven (lit. 'see, a son'). Rabbi Shimon then explains the holy significance of the verse, "Put, I please you, your hand under my thigh." Written in connection with Avraham, Ya'akov, and Yosef, this verse alludes to the place that emits the holy seed.

Finally, Rabbi Yehuda explains why Ya'akov was buried with Leah rather than Rachel. The reasons, we're told, are that Leah stood by the roadside day after day, weeping and praying that Ya'akov would marry her. Furthermore, she bore six holy tribes into the world and therefore, deserved this privilege more than Rachel.

The Relevance of this Passage

The story of Ya'akov entering into the land of Egypt is synonymous with the men of all generation confronting their own personal demons when they fall into negativity. As the Shechinah dwelled in the presence of Ya'akov during his sojourn in Egypt, the Light of The Creator can illumine our lives when we fall into negativity and find ourselves enslaved to dark forces. This passage is our connection to this Light. Moreover, we can share this Light with all the world and help bring about the end of the exile.

The discourse concerning Ya'akov's relationship with Leah and Rachel shows us that everything that takes place within the drama of human existence has underlying meaning and that all events that transpire are necessary in the course of mankind's spiritual development. Thus, this verse instills wisdom within us to accept the things we might not understand at the present moment. It ensures that order will emerge from chaos. The Light that shines from the story concerning Leah's burial with Ya'akov inspires us to weep and yearn for the Light of The Creator, for the tears of man cause great stirrings above.

251. "And he called his son Yosef." Rabbi Yitzchak said: Are the other tribes not his sons? WHY DID HE CALL YOSEF ALONE? HE REPLIES: Rabbi Aba said that Yosef was his son more than the others. We have learned that when Potifar's wife begged Yosef, it is written: "Yosef went into the house to do his work; and there was none (lit. 'no man') of the men of the house there within" (Beresheet 39:11). This verse should have said 'there was no man', but why add "of the men of the house"? HE ANSWERS: This indicates the image of Ya'akov which was there. It says "the men of the house" to show us there was another man, NOT OF THE MEN OF THE HOUSE; NAMELY YA'AKOV. Once Yosef lifted up his eyes and saw the image of his father, his mind was settled and he withdrew.

252. Come and see the verse: "But he refused, and said to his master's wife..." (Beresheet 39:8). The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him upon your life, another will say "I refuse" when he will come to bless your sons, who will be blessed by him. This is why it says, "And his father refused, and said, 'I know it, my son, I know it'" (Beresheet 48:19).

253. HE ASKS: Since he said, "I know it, my son," why did he say again, "I know it"? HE ANSWERS: He said, "I know it, my son" meaning 'you showed through your body that you are my son, when you saw my image and returned to the holy covenant AND DID NOT DESECRATE IT'. This is why it is written: "I know it, my son." THE SECOND TIME IT IS WRITTEN "I know it" is what you said about this one being the firstborn, TO WHICH HE ANSWERED BY "He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great" (Beresheet 48:19). This is why it says here: "And he called his son Yosef" (Beresheet 47:29), his very son Yosef SINCE HE PROVED IT BY HIS BODY, AS EXPLAINED.

254. Another explanation for: "And he called his son Yosef." They looked the same, and whoever saw Yosef said he was Ya'akov's son. Rabbi Yosi said: This is exactly so, that he called him his son SINCE THEY LOOKED THE SAME. Moreover, Yosef gave food for him and his sons in his old age, for which reason he was his own son more than everyone else. "And he called his son Yosef": HE ASKS: Why did he call Yosef and not another one? HE ANSWERS: Because he could take him from there TO THE CAVE OF THE MACHPELAH SINCE HE WAS A KING, BUT NO ONE ELSE HAD THE AUTHORITY.

255. Rabbi Yosi said: Since Ya'akov knew his descendants would become slaves in Egypt, why was he not buried there, so that his merit would protect his children? Why did he wish to go up from there? When it says, "As a father pities his children" (Tehilim 103:13), where is pity then?

256. HE REPLIES: We have so learned that when Ya'akov went down to Egypt, he was afraid. He said: Might it come to that, heaven forbid, that my children will perish among the nations, or that the Holy One, blessed be He, will remove the Shechinah from me as before. It is written, "And Elohim appeared to Ya'akov" (Beresheet 35:9). "Fear not to go down to Egypt; for I will there make of you a great nation" (Beresheet 46:3). As for what you said, that I might remove My Shechinah from you, "I will go down with you into Egypt" (Ibid. 4).

257. He also said: I am afraid lest I shall be buried there and will not merit to be buried with my fathers. He answered him, "And I will also surely bring you up again" (Ibid.), to be buried in the grave of your fathers.

258. This is why he wanted to be taken up from Egypt. Another reason is not to be made godlike, for he saw that the Holy One, blessed be He, would take vengeance upon the deities of Egypt. He also saw that the Shechinah would dwell among his children in exile, AND THAT HE NEED NOT BE BURIED IN EGYPT TO PROTECT THEM. Another reason is that he wanted his body to dwell among the bodies of his fathers, to be with them and not with the wicked in Egypt.

259. We learned that the body of Ya'akov had its beauty from Adam, and the image of Ya'akov was of the supernal holy form, the form of the Holy Throne. Thus he did not want to be buried among the wicked. The secret of this matter is that there is no separating the patriarchs, AND THEY ARE ALWAYS TOGETHER. It is therefore written, "I will lie with my fathers" (Beresheet 47:30).

260. "And he called his son Yosef." SCRIPTURE SAYS his son BECAUSE they had the same countenance, and also because he begot him more willingly than any other TRIBE. Come and see: It is written: "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband?" (Beresheet 30:15), for Ya'akov's whole desire was for Rachel. Hence it says, "and he called his son Yosef."

261. We learned: Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "The secret things belong to Hashem our Elohim..." (Devarim 29:28). Come and see how a man should beware sins, and be watchful lest he would transgress his Master's wishes. For we have learned that every thing a man does in this world is written in a book and reckoned before the holy King. All is known before Him, as it is written: "'Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him?' says Hashem" (Yirmeyah 23:24). How can a man not guard himself from sinning before his Master? We learned that even a man's thoughts and plans are all placed before the Holy One, blessed be He, and are not lost before Him.

262. Come and see: on the night Leah came to Ya'akov, she gave him the tokens he gave Rachel, LEST HER FATHER SHOULD REPLACE HER WITH ANOTHER. WHEN RACHEL SAW THAT HIS FATHER GIVES LEAH IN HER PLACE, AND THAT SHE DOES NOT KNOW OF THE TOKEN AND MIGHT BE PUT TO SHAME, SHE GAVE HER THE TOKENS. He thought he was with Rachel, when he had intercourse with her. It was his first drop, as it is written: "My might and the beginning of my strength" (Bereshheet 49:3), and he thought it was Rachel. The Holy One, blessed be He, who reveals depths and mysteries, who knows what lies in the dark, brought up the desire to its place, and the birthright was gone from Reuven AND GIVEN to Yosef. Why? Because the first drop that came from Ya'akov belonged to Rachel. Since the actual birthright of Reuven belonged to her, Yosef inherited it and Rachel came into her own inheritance.

263. This is the secret reason why Reuven did not receive a name like the other sons but simply Reuven, namely Reu ven (see, a son), a son, not known by name. Leah therefore did not call him 'my son', naming him 'Reu veni' (Eng. 'see, my son'), for she knew what had happened, THAT YA'AKOV'S THOUGHTS WERE WITH RACHEL AND NOT WITH HER.

264. We learned it is known to the Holy One, blessed be He, that Ya'akov did not mean to sin by COMING INTO LEAH AND THINKING OF RACHEL, and that he never knowingly thought of another woman at that time, like the wicked men in the world. It is therefore written, "Now the sons of Ya'akov were twelve" (Bereshheet 35:23), for the sons of the other wicked men in the world, who act in this way, are called by another name; NAMELY CHANGED CHILDREN, which is known to the friends. He therefore "called his son Yosef," his own son from the beginning, REUVEN'S BIRTH, and his son in the end.

265. We learned that Rabbi Yosi said: What did Ya'akov use to make Yosef swear? It is written "Put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh." HE ANSWERS: HE MADE HIM SWEAR by the sign of the covenant, which was stamped upon his flesh, for the patriarchs assigned it more importance than everything else, and the covenant is the secret of Yosef. TO WIT, YOSEF IS THE SECRET OF THE ATTRIBUTE OF THE RIGHTEOUS YESOD, OF WHICH HE IS A CHARIOT.

266. Rabbi Shimon said: It is written of Avraham and Ya'akov, "Put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh," in the place alluded to by the Holy Name, which emits holy seed, THE SEED of faith, into the world. It is not written in connection to Yitzchak: "PUT, I PRAY YOU, YOUR HAND UNDER MY THIGH," since Esav issued from him.

267. Another reason it is written: "Put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh...bury me not, I pray you, in Egypt." Ya'akov said to Yosef, Swear to me by this holy impression, which emitted holy and faithful seed into the world and was always kept from being defiled, that it will never be buried among the unholy who did never keep it, of whom it says, "Whose flesh is the flesh of asses, and whose issue is the issue of horses" (Yechezkel 23:20).

268. It may be said that Yosef guarded his covenant more than everyone else, but why was he buried among them IN EGYPT? HE REPLIES: We have learned that it is written, "The word of Hashem came to Yechezkel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of Casdim by the river K'var" (Yechezkel 1:3). Yet we learned that the Shechinah does not dwell outside the land of Yisrael. Why was she revealed there? HE ANSWERS: It is written "by the river K'var," FOR WATER CANNOT BE DEFILED, UNLIKE THE LAND OF NATIONS. It is also written: "And the hand of Hashem was there upon him" (Ibid.), WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH. Here too, Yosef's coffin was thrown into the water. The Holy One, blessed be He, said: If Yosef will be gone from here, the exile will not be carried out, FOR YISRAEL WILL NOT BE ABLE TO TOLERATE IT. His burial place will then be in an undefiled place, and the children of Yisrael will endure the exile.

269. We learned that Rabbi Yosi said: Ya'akov saw that the Holy Throne was fitted in every way by the patriarchs, AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK ON RIGHT AND LEFT, AND HE IN THE CENTER. YA'AKOV said to himself, If he is to be buried here IN EGYPT, how will the body be attached to the patriarchs? Even the cave where he was to be buried is called Machpelah (from the term for 'double'), for in every thing it is double, TO THE RIGHT AND TO THE LEFT, both double and single. TO WIT, THEY ARE IN NEED OF A THIRD ONE TO BALANCE BETWEEN THEM. The cave too is both double and single, AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK BEING ON THE RIGHT AND LEFT, AND YA'AKOV BETWEEN THEM.

270. Come and see: The patriarchs merited to be buried in the cave of the Machpelah together with their spouses, Ya'akov was buried with Leah. Why was Rachel not buried with him, especially when it says, "And Rachel was barren (Heb. akarah)" (Bereshheet 29:31), which is an indication that she was the foundation (Heb. akarah) of the house? HE ANSWERS: Leah had more right FOR YA'AKOV since she bore six tribes into the world from the holy stock. Thus, she was given to him as his spouse in the cave.

271. Rabbi Yehuda said: Leah used to stand every day by the highway and weep for Ya'akov, THAT HE WOULD MARRY HER, for she heard he was righteous. She thus prepared herself through prayer. It says, "And Leah's eyes were weak" (Bereshheet 29:16), since she rose early and sat by the highway to pray.

272. Rachel never went to the highway TO ASK TO BE MARRIED TO YA'AKOV, LIKE LEAH DID. For this Leah was privileged to be buried with him, and Rachel is by the highway, buried there. This is the meaning of the words "And as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me." What is "by me"? It means "because of me in the land of Cna'an on the way." Because of me, she died on the way, for she never went out for my sake TO PRAY like her sister.

273. Since Leah went and wept by the highway for Ya'akov, she merited to be buried with him. Rachel, who did not want to go out to pray for him, was therefore buried by the highway. The secret of this matter is that the one is disclosed and the other undisclosed.

274. Come and see: The righteous Leah shed many tears in order to be the portion of Ya'akov instead of that of the evil Esav. Hence, we learned that any man who sheds tears before the Holy One, blessed be He, even if punishment was already given, will have the verdict annulled, and the punishment will not have any effect upon him. Whence do we know that? From Leah, for it was decreed that Leah would be in the portion of Esav, but through her prayer she was married to Ya'akov, and not to Esav.

275. Rabbi Chiya said: "And I will lie with my fathers..." Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion with the verse, "What profit has a man of all his labor wherein he labors under the sun?" (Kohelet 1:3). We have studied several times the words of Solomon, and they do not seem to be understood, for all his words should be read with wisdom.

Here we learn that during the days of King Solomon, the Malchut grew, was blessed, and attained fullness. Consequently, the wisdom of Solomon excelled that of the children of the east, who inherited their wisdom from Avraham, derived from the lower Crowns. Hadar was the only king of the east country who endured because he was composed of both male and female and he maintained the Malchut. There follows a description of the awesome form of Malchut [Female Principle] and her son Matatron, the son of Yered. We learn that the comets fastened to the hairs of the moon are the scourge by which the world is sentenced, and the nails of the Female Principle write and record the transgressions of men under strict judgment. Finally, Rabbi Chiya comments on the verse, "What profit has a man of all his labor"

The Relevance of this Passage

The wisdom of King Solomon shines into our physical world [Malchut], helping mankind achieve its final correction. Solomon's wisdom is founded upon the Three Column System, whereas the spiritual teachings of the East are based upon Two Column System, such as Yin and Yang. The third and Central Column creates resistance between the two positive and negative columns of energy, like a filament in a light bulb--that generates spiritual Light for the entire planet. This Light shines forth in this passage and helps sweeten judgments decreed against mankind.

276. We studied the verse, "And Solomon's Wisdom excelled" (I Melachim 5:10). During the days of King Solomon, the moon, NAMELY THE NUKVA, was in her fullness. Hence it is written, "And Solomon's Wisdom excelled the Wisdom of all the children of the east country." Regarding this, we learned who the children of the east were. It has already been explained. Nevertheless, the wisdom of the children of the east is the Wisdom they inherited from Avraham.

277. We learned: It is written, "And Avraham gave all that he had to Yitzchak" (Beresheet 35:5). HE ASKS: What was "all that he had" WHICH HE GAVE TO YITZCHAK? HE ANSWERS: It is supernal Wisdom, for he knew the name of the Holy One, blessed be He. This may be understood from the verse: "All that he had," for the supernal Wisdom is his, in the same way we learned of the daughter he had named Bakol (lit. 'in everything'), THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA.

278. "But to the sons of the concubines, which Avraham had, Avraham gave gifts" (Beresheet 35:6). He gave them certain knowledge from the lower crowns and settled them in the east country. From this, the children of the east country inherited Wisdom, I.E. FROM THE LOWER CROWNS, as it is written: "The wisdom of all the children of the east country."

279. We learned that one day Rabbi Shimon came from Cappadocia to Lod. Rabbi Aba and Rabbi Yehuda came with him. Rabbi Aba was tired running after Rabbi Shimon who was mounted. He said: "They shall walk after Hashem, who shall roar like a lion" (Hoshea 11:10).

280. Rabbi Shimon dismounted and said to him: Indeed it is written, "Then I abode in the mountain forty days and forty nights" (Devarim 9:9). Surely wisdom does not settle upon man when he walks but when he just sits down. We have already explained why it says, "I abode (or: sat)" and now we should rest. They sat down.

281. Rabbi Aba said: It is written: "And Solomon's Wisdom excelled the Wisdom of all the children of the east country and all the Wisdom of Egypt." What is the Wisdom of Solomon, the Wisdom of Egypt and the Wisdom of the east country? He said to him, Come and behold: we have explained in several places in regard to the name of the moon, NAMELY THE NUKVA. When it is blessed by all THE SFIROT, it is written "excelled." THIS WAS SAID in the days of Solomon, THE NUKVA grew and was blessed and reached her fullness.

282. We have learned that a thousand mountains grow GRASS before her, and she swallows them in one bite; a thousand great rivers she has, which she swallows in one gulp.

283. Her nails reach 1,070 directions, her hands hold four and twenty directions. None escapes her to the RIGHT side and none escapes her to the LEFT side, BUT THROUGH THE MIDDLE. Many thousands shields cling to her hairs.

284. A youth, whose height is from the top of the world to its bottom, NAMELY MATATRON, WHOSE HEIGHT IS FROM THE HEAD OF BRIYAH TO THE BOTTOM OF ASIYAH, comes from between her legs, NETZACH AND HOD OF THE NUKVA, clothed in sixty clubs of fire, BY WHICH HE DRIVES AWAY THE EXTERNALS SO THEY WOULD NOT CLING TO THE LEGS OF THE NUKVA. In this way, he is in charge over the lower beings of the four sides. This is the youth, who holds 613 upper keys on the side of Ima. All the supernal keys dangle from the sharp sword girded about his waist.

285. This youth is called Chanoch the son of Yered in the Braita, as it is written: "Train up (Chanoch) a youth in the way he should go" (Mishlei 22:6). It may be said it is written in the Mishnah, not in the Braita. Yet we explained it when studying the Mishnah, and this has been explained. They all looked into the same thing. Under HIS SHADE, the beasts of the field shall find shelter; NAMELY THE ANGELS OF YETZIRAH we learned of, like Supernal Holy Yisrael-NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, called 'the son of his mother', BINAH. It is written, "For I was my father's son, tender and the only one in the sight of my mother" (Mishlei 4:3), and "Yisrael is my son, my firstborn" (Shemot 4:22), WHICH REFERS TO ZEIR ANPIN. Underneath ATZILUT, MATATRON is too called the son of his mother, THE NUKVA, as it is written "Yisrael was a youth, then I loved him" (Hoshea 11:1), WHICH REFERS TO MATATRON. He was named the son of Yered for several reasons, I.E., NOW TO SHAME HIM AND NOW TO RECOMMEND, as we have already explained. Yet come and behold: HERE WE SPEAK OF the very son of Yered (lit. 'descent'), for we have learned that the Shechinah descended to the earth by ten steps (Heb. yeridot), all of them explained by the friends. Underneath, several Living Creatures are standing; NAMELY THE ANGELS OF YETZIRAH, which are called the very beasts of the field.

286. Under these Living Creatures are fastened the hairs of the moon, THE NUKVA, called the comets (Heb. Shevet), a very scourge (Heb. Shevet); TO WIT, THEY ARE CONSIDERED THE SCOURGE WITH WHICH THE WORLD IS SENTENCED. THEY ARE DIVIDED INTO the accusers, the weighty, those of STRICT Judgment, and the impudent. They are all called hairy. Her hands and feet hold on to it like a mighty lion holding its prey, of which it says "and tears in pieces, and none can deliver" (Michah 5:7).

287. Her nails are the ones who call to mind the sins of men, who write and record their transgression under strict judgment. Of this says the verse: "The sin of Yehuda is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond" (Yirmeyah 17:1). What is the diamond? HE ANSWERS: That which imprints and carves the stone, and hews in it on all sides.

288. The filth of the nails REFERS TO those who do not cleave to the body of the King, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, BUT CLEAVE TO THE LEFT and suck from the side of defilement when the moon is diminished, TO WIT, WHEN THE ABUNDANCE THEN DRAWN FROM THE NAILS PASSES TO THE SIDE OF DEFILEMENT, AND CONSIDERED THE FILTH OF THE NAILS.

289. Since King Solomon inherited the moon at her fullness, THE NUKVA IN GREATNESS, he ought to inherit her when she is defective. He therefore strove to know about the spirits and demons, in order to receive the moon, THE NUKVA, in all her aspects.

290. In the days of King Solomon, the moon shone from all the grades, as it is written: "And Solomon's Wisdom excelled (also: 'increased')," meaning that it was greater than the Wisdom of all the children of the east country SINCE IT WAS INCLUDED WITHIN THE NUKVA, AND ALSO THE WISDOM OF EGYPT WAS COMPRISED IN IT AND THE WISDOM OF THE CHILDREN OF THE EAST. This is a supernal secret, in accordance with the verse, "And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom" (Bereshheet 36:31). They were all called the children of the east country. None of them endured except he who was comprised of male and female, who was called Hadar. For it says, "And Hadar reigned in his place...AND HIS WIFE'S NAME..." (Ibid. 39). BUT NO WOMAN WAS MENTIONED IN RELATION TO THE OTHER KINGS.

291. We have learned that though the Nukva was maintained BY KING HADAR, she nevertheless did not illuminate wholly until the time of King Solomon, who was worthy of her, as we explained, for his mother was Bat-sheva (lit. 'daughter of seven,') TO WIT, THE NUKVA WAS CALLED IN HER GREATNESS DAUGHTER OF SEVEN, SINCE SHE INCLUDES CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT OF ZEIR ANPIN, BEING HIS MOTHER. HE WAS THEREFORE WORTHY OF INHERITING HER IN HER DAYS OF GREATNESS.

292. "And all the Wisdom of Egypt." This is the lower Wisdom called 'the maid behind the millstones.' The Wisdom of Solomon included everything, the Wisdom of the children of the east country together with the Wisdom of Egypt. Rabbi Aba said: Blessed be the Merciful One, that I have asked about it, and so merited all these words. Rabbi Shimon said: I have explained this subject, and we already interpreted it.

293. We learned: "What profit has a man of all his labor wherein he labors." One may say that this is true also for laboring in the Torah. Yet it is said "wherein he labors under the sun," and the labor in the Torah is different by being above the sun, OF THE SUPERNAL ONE. Rabbi Chiya said: This is true also for the Torah, THE WORDS "WHAT PROFIT..." if it is done for the sake of people or to gain respect. Of this, it is said "under the sun," for this study of the Torah does not ascend. We learned that Rabbi Elazar said: Even if a man lives to a thousand years, on the day he departs from the world, it would seem to him as if he lived but one day.

293. תָּאנָא, מַה יִתְרוֹן לְאָדָם בְּכָל עֲמָלוֹ, יְכוּל אָף עֲמָלָה דְּאוּרִייתָא, ת"ל שִׁיעֲמוּל תַּחַת הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ. שְׂאֵנִי עֲמָלָה דְּאוּרִייתָא, דְּלַעִילָא מִן שְׂמֶשׂא הוּא. רַבִּי חִיָּיא אָמַר, אָף עֲמָלָה דְּאוּרִייתָא, דְּאִיהוּ עֲמַל בְּגִינְיֵהוּן דְּבְנֵי נְשָׂא, אוּ בְּגִין יִקְרָא דִּילֵיהּ, הָאִי תַּחַת הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ כְּתִיב, דְּהָא לֹא סָלִיק לַעִילָא. תְּנִינָא אָמַר ר' אֶלְעָזָר, אָפִילוּ אִי ב"נ קָיִים אֶלְף שָׁנִין, הֵהוּא יוֹמָא דְּאֲסַתְלַק מֵעֲלָמָא, דְּמִי לִיהּ כְּאִילוּ לֹא אֲתַקְיָים בְּר' יוֹמָא חַד.

31. "And I will lie with my fathers"

Rabbi Yehuda begins by explaining the significance of each day with or without sin for the individual. We learn that if man sins and repents, that day returns to its place. However, if he does not repent, that day ascends to bear testimony to this sin, then descends, joins with the spirit outside, and brings evil to that man. At the end of his days, man's soul is clothed with the days in which he did not sin. If there are none, he is sentenced to Gehenom, wherein he is punished two days for each day of sin.

We learn that Adam repented for his great sin, although he did not completely repair the damage his sin caused. Therefore, the Lord accepted his repentance and clothed him with garments that were not made from his days. In contrast, Avraham wore a complete raiment of glory when he departed this world, since he merited it. Ya'akov also merited to be clothed in his own days. Indeed, his garments were scented with the perfume of the Female Principle, as signified by the verse, "And he smelled the smell of his garments" Rabbi Elazar then explains to Rabbi Yehuda that three garments are made for man from his days. These are worn by the Ruach, the Neshamah, and the Nefesh. Rabbi Elazar explains the relationship between, and the significance of, these bodies.

Rabbi Shimon directs the final portion of the discussion. He says that the companions of Bavel listen and learn from him, but do not share these matters with others. The reason for this, we are told, is that they are outside the Holy Land and do not draw from Holiness. Rabbi Shimon then warns us of the time when people abandon the study of the Torah and the scrolls are moved. Without the wisdom of the scholars and without the righteous to arouse the souls to pray for the living, the people of the world will be punished by the accusers-- unless all people do penance for their sins. Rabbi Yehuda explains that when the world is in distress and is in need of mercy, the scroll of the Torah must be stirred. Then, the Nefesh informs the Ruach, the Ruach the Neshamah, and lastly, the Neshamah informs the Holy One. The Lord then draws the crystal dew to flow upon the sleeping patriarchs who join in and pray for the world. Only then does the Lord have mercy on the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

Each day in our lives presents us with opportunities to fulfill our personal spiritual mission in life and complete our transformation. Unfortunately, most people fail to realize the meaning of life and the purpose of their existence. Each lost opportunity creates a negative blockage that diminishes and dims the Light of The Creator in our lives. It is within this expanding darkness that turmoil, hardship, pain, and suffering are born. Thus, it behooves a man to awaken to the spiritual truths of his existence, so that he may develop himself spiritually. This passage ignites that awareness in our consciousness. It helps to remove the negative blockages and darkness created by our lack of action in previous times, while arousing penitence in our hearts for our unkind behavior. Moreover, the Light of the Torah is set aflame, drawing to us both mercy and protection.

294. "And I will lie with my fathers." Happy is the portion of the patriarchs, for the Holy One, blessed be He, made them into a Holy Chariot, and desired to be crowned with them. Hence it is written, "Only in your fathers Hashem took delight..." (Devarim 10:15). Rabbi Elazar said: Ya'akov knew that he was to be crowned by his fathers for they would be crowned with him, and he with them. We learned regarding the engraved letters that Shin has three knots, two knots on both sides, RIGHT AND LEFT, and one knot that binds them together, THE MIDDLE ONE. This we learned from the verse: "And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end" (Shemot 26:28), that the knot in the middle is attached to the RIGHT side and the LEFT side. Hence it says, "And I will lie with my fathers."

295. "And I will lie with my fathers." Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse, "Hear, O deaf; and look, O blind, that you may see" (Yeshayah 42:18). "Hear, O deaf" refers to the men who neither listen to the words of the Torah, nor open their ears to hearken the precepts of their Master. The blind are those who do not look to know wherefore they live. For every day, a crier comes and proclaims, yet no one pays attention.

296. We have learned that man's days already exist from the day he was born into the world, FOR THEY ARE REAL ILLUMINATIONS, FROM WHICH MAN'S DAYS ARE DRAWN. They go about the world and descend to warn man, each day in its turn. When the day comes to warn the man, yet the man commits a sin on that day, it ascends shamefacedly and bears testimony on him, and stands outside alone.

297. We have learned that after it was put to stand alone OUTSIDE, it sits and waits for the man to repent HIS SIN. If the man repented, the day returns to its place; but if he did not merit AND ATONE, the day descends, joins the spirit outside and comes back to his house, putting on the same appearance as the man to bring evil upon him. THE DAY sits with him in his house, and if he has the merit TO REPENT, it brings him good, but if not, it brings him evil.

298. In either case, when that man's days are accounted they are in want, and those are not numbered because of the sins. Woe to the man who diminished the number of his days before the holy King, and has no days above with which to be crowned in that world, to approach the holy King.

299. Come and see: When his days come before the holy King, if the man who passed away from the world be righteous, he ascends and comes in with these days that are the raiments of glory which his soul is clothed in. For he merited these days, by not committing any sin therein.

300. Woe to the man who reduced the number of his days above. For when he is to don his days, the days he spoilt by his sins are missing from that garment, and he wears a defective costume. All the more so if they are many, THE DAYS WHICH WERE SPOILT, and that man has nothing to be clad in that world. Woe to him, woe to his soul, for he is sentenced to Gehenom on account of these days, days upon days; HE IS PUNISHED TWO days for every SINGLE day. When he departs from the world he finds no day in which to be clad, and has no garment or covering. Happy are the righteous, whose days are all stored with the holy King, and made into raiments of glory to don in the World to Come.

301. We have studied according to the secret of the Mishnah, the words, "And they knew that they were naked" (Bereshheet 3:7). They knew exactly that the raiment of glory made of the days was impaired, and no day was left in which to be clad. Hence it says, "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh; for in your book all things are written, the days also in which they are to be fashioned" (Tehilim 139:16), WHICH ALLUDES TO ADAM. "The days...to be fashioned" FOR HIM TO WEAR, "and for it too there was one of them" (Ibid.), for he had none left in which to be clad. Then, Adam strove to repent and the Holy One, blessed be He, accepted his repentance and formed for him another vessel and garment, not made from his days BECAUSE HE DID NOT COMPLETELY REPAIR BY HIS ATONEMENT THE SIN OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE. Hence it says, "For the man also and for his wife did Hashem Elohim make coats of skins, and clothed them" (Bereshheet 3:21).

302. Come and see the merit of Avraham. It is written, "And Avraham... (lit.) came with days" (Bereshheet 24:1). Since he had the merit, when he departed from this world, he came with his own days and wore them. Nothing was lacking in that raiment of glory, as it says "came with days." Of Iyov it says, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb and naked I shall return there" (Iyov 1:21), for nothing was left for him to wear.

303. We learned that happy are the righteous, whose days are clean FROM SINS and remain for the World to Come. Upon leaving THIS WORLD, they all join together and turn into a raiment of glory to be clothed in. In this raiment, they can be delighted with the pleasure of the World to Come. Through the garment, they will rise into the world AT THE RESURRECTION FROM THE DEAD. All those with a raiment will rise, as it says, "And they stand as a garment" (Iyov 38:14). Woe to the wicked in the world, whose days were diminished through sins, and nothing is left from them to be covered with when they leave this world.

304. We learned that the righteous who were privileged to don the raiment of glory made of their days, are crowned in that world by the same crowns the fathers were adorned with, from the river that flows and comes into the Garden of Eden. This is the meaning of the words: "And Hashem shall guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought" (Yeshayah 58:11). But of the wicked men in the world, who had not the merit to be dressed with the garment from their days, it says, "For he shall be like the juniper tree in the desert, and shall not see when good comes; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness" (Yirmeyah 17:6).

305. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Happy is the portion of Ya'akov, who had the greatest faith, as it is written: "And I will lie with my fathers," for he deserved them, not another, to be clad in his own days and theirs.

306. Rabbi Yehuda said: It is written, "And he smelt the smell of his garments, and blessed him" (Bereshheet 27:27). HE ASKS: It says "his garments" while it should have been 'Esav's garments,' for the garments were not his but Esav's, as it is written: "And Rivkah took the best clothes of her eldest son, Esav" (Ibid. 15). Yet here it says "the smell of his garments," which means Ya'akov's.

307. HE ANSWERS: We have explained that "he smelt" means that he looked further and smelt the smell of his garments in the world of Truth, and then blessed him. Therefore it is written, "See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field" (Bereshheet 27:27), the field of holy apple trees, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. He was saying: Since you deserve to wear these raiments of glory, "therefore the Elohim give you of the dew of heaven" (Ibid. 28). HE ASKS: Does this mean THAT THE DEW OF HEAVEN DEPENDS UPON THE RAIMENTS OF GLORY? HE REPLIES: Since the field of apple trees, WHICH RESEMBLES THE RAIMENTS OF GLORY IN SMELL, receives dew everyday from the place called heaven, ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written "the dew of heaven." HE THEREFORE SAID: SINCE YOU ARE WORTHY OF DONNING THE RAIMENTS OF GLORY, "ELOHIM GIVE YOU OF THE DEW OF HEAVEN."

308. Rabbi Yosi said: He blessed him in everything, "of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth." TO WIT, ALSO FROM THE ABUNDANCE OF THE NUKVA CALLED EARTH. What was the reason for that? Because "he smelt the smell of his garments," his own garments as we explained, AND THESE GARMENTS RECEIVE ALSO FROM THE NUKVA. We learned that 1,500 odors rise every day from the Garden of Eden, THE NUKVA, and perfume the raiments of glory, which are crowned with the man's days in that world, SINCE THE GARMENTS RECEIVE ALSO FROM THE NUKVA.

309. Rabbi Yehuda said: How many garments are MADE FOR MAN FROM HIS DAYS? Rabbi Elazar said: There is a controversy over this point, but there are three. The first is the garments the Ruach dons in the terrestrial Garden of Eden. The Neshamah is clothed in another, the most precious, WHICH LIVES inside the bundle of life; NAMELY NUKVA amidst the purple cloak of the King. The last one is the external garment, which exists and exists not, seen yet not seen, FOR BEING EXTERNAL IT HAS NO CONTINUOUS EXISTENCE, BUT NOW IT IS SEEN AND NOW IT IS NOT. The Nefesh wears this garment when it goes and hovers about the world.

310. In every new moon and Shabbat, THE NEFESH goes to be attached to the Ruach in the terrestrial Garden of Eden, which stands in the midst of the precious curtain. From it, THE NEFESH studies and receives its knowledge, and then it hovers and announces it to the world.

311. We learned that the Nefesh is attached by two knots on every new moon and Shabbat: 1) to the Ruach amidst the odors of perfumes in the terrestrial Garden of Eden 2) from there, THE NEFESH roams and goes to attach itself with the Ruach in the Neshamah, which is bound in the bundle of life. There it slacks its thirst and eats of the precious lights on this and that side, RIGHT AND LEFT. This is written in the verse: "And Hashem guide you continually" (Yeshayah 58:11). "Continually" is precise, INDICATING THAT IT RECEIVES FROM ALL SIDES CONTINUOUSLY.

312. "And satisfy your soul (Nefesh) in drought (Heb. tzachtzachot)." HE ASKS: What is "tzachtzachot"? HE ANSWERS: One tzach (Eng. 'bright) it receives while attached to the Ruach in the terrestrial Garden of Eden; it receives the tzach inside tzach, when attached to the Neshamah above in the bundle of life. This is the meaning of tzachtzachot: tzach is singular, and tzachot dual. They are high above, in the preciousness of the Neshamah. Who will inherit the tzachtzachot? SCRIPTURE SAYS "your soul (Nefesh)." Your Nefesh indeed INHERITS THEM FROM THE NESHAMAH. Happy is the portion of the righteous.

313. Rabbi Shimon said: When I am with the friends of Babylon, they gather round me and learn things openly, but they put them (these matters) in a sealed iron box, closed on all sides--IN OTHER WORDS, THEY CONCEAL THEM SO NO ONE WOULD KNOW.

314. How many times did I teach them the ways of the King's garden, THE NUKVA, and the ways of the King, ZEIR ANPIN? How many times did I teach them about the grades of the righteous in that world? They are all fearful of talking of these matters, but mumble instead. They are therefore called mumblers, I.E. SLOW OF SPEECH, for they mumble as stammerers.

315. But I see it in a favorable light, for they are afraid because the holy air and the Holy Spirit are gone for them, SINCE THEY ARE OUTSIDE THE LAND OF YISRAEL. And they breathe in the air and spirit of another region THAN THAT OF HOLINESS. Moreover, the rainbow is seen above them, WHICH IS A SIGN THEY ARE UNDER JUDGMENT AND ARE IN NEED OF MERCY, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "I HAVE SET MY BOW...AND I WILL LOOK UPON IT, THAT I MAY REMEMBER THE EVERLASTING COVENANT" (BERESHEET 9:13-16). They are then not deemed worthy of receiving Eliyahu, let alone someone else.

316. But it is beneficent to them that I live in the world and support it, for during my lifetime the world will not be sorrowful, nor suffer Judgment from above. After me, there will never be such a generation as this. The world will be such that there will be no one to protect them, and there will be impudence both above and below. Above ALSO THERE WILL BE IMPUDENT COUNTENANCES, WHICH ARE THE ACCUSATIONS OF THE KLIPOT, because of the transgressions below and their impudence.

317. The people in the world will cry out, but there will be no one to protect them. They will look to all the directions of the world TO FIND RELIEF, but shall not return with a remedy TO THEIR TROUBLES. I have found but one remedy in the world and no more, wherever there will be people who are occupied in the Torah, and a scroll of the Torah with them, without any error. When it will be taken out, the upper and lower beings will be roused, especially if the Holy Name wherein is properly written, as we have already learned.

318. Woe to the generation, where the scroll of the Torah is banished BY BEING TAKEN OUT TO THE STREETS IN ORDER TO PRAY. But no one was awakened above or below, FOR THEIR PRAYER WAS NOT ACCEPTED, FOR IT WAS NOT JOINED BY FASTING OR ATONEMENT BELOW. HE ASKS: Who shall be roused to pray when the world is in great sorrow and in need of rain as the scroll of the Torah is further banished because of the hardship in the world.

319. HE ANSWERS: When the world is in sorrow and people ask for mercy by the graves, all the dead are aroused to ask on behalf of the world, for the Nefesh hastens to tell the Ruach that the scroll of the Torah is in exile, and has been exiled due to hardship in the world, and the living have come TO THE GRAVES to ask for mercy.

320. Then the Ruach informs the Neshamah, and the Neshamah the Holy One, blessed be He. Then is the Holy One, blessed be He, aroused in pity on the world. All this is caused by the exile of the scroll of the Torah from its place, WHEN the living came to ask for mercy upon the graves of the dead. Woe to the generation, which must exile the scroll of the Torah from place to place, or even from one synagogue to another IN ORDER TO PRAY, for there will be no one among them to take care of them AND PRAY FOR THEM, SINCE THERE ARE NO RIGHTEOUS AMONG THEM.

321. Yet no man knows THE REASON FOR this. For when the Shechinah was exiled the last time, in order not to go up above, it is written THAT SHE SAID: "Oh, that I were in the wilderness, in a lodging place of wayfaring men" (Yirmeyah 9:1), AND NOT GONE ABOVE. FOR SHE WISHED TO EXILE WITH YISRAEL. Later, WHEN SHE ALREADY WAS IN EXILE WITH YISRAEL, in a time of great distress for the world, she was IN THE DESERT, THE ABODE OF THE KLIPOT. Also in the exile of the scroll of the Torah she is there in the desert, and everyone is stirred AND SUFFERS for her, the upper and lower beings.

322. Rabbi Shimon said: Had those stupid Babylonians known the secret verses of Wisdom, such as why the world exists, or why its supporting pillars quake when it is in distress, they would know the worth of Rav Hamnuna Saba, who dwelt among them, without their knowing his worth. I find that his words are connected to those of King Solomon in the high secret of Wisdom, but they did not guess his worth.

323. Now they strive after words of wisdom but there is no one to uncover THEIR SECRET, and no one to teach it. With all that, there are sages among them in the field of establishing the beginning of months and the intercalation of years, though it is not their duty TO INTERCALATE THE YEARS AND SANCTIFY THE MONTHS, WHICH ARE FIXED ONLY IN THE LAND OF YISRAEL.

324. We have learned that the Nefesh is attached to the body inside the grave for twelve months, and they are judged together, except the Nefesh of the righteous, as we explained. It dwells inside the grave and feels pain OF PUNISHMENT, and the pain of the living, yet it does not strive TO PRAY for them.

325. After twelve months, the Nefesh dons a garment and goes to roam about the world, and learns certain things from the Ruach. It strives to ask for mercy for the world's pain, and to feel the sorrow of the living.

326. HE ASKS: Who arouses all that, THE NEFASHOT OF THE DEAD TO PRAY FOR THE LIVING? HE REPLIES: When there is a righteous man in the world, he duly informs them. The righteous is well known among them. For we have learned that when there remains a righteous man in the world, known among the living and the dead, he is proclaimed every day. When the world is in great distress and he cannot protect the people, he informs them of the pain in the world AND THEY ASK FOR MERCY UPON THE LIVING.

327. When there is no proclaimed righteous among them and no one to stir THE NEDASHOT about the sorrow of the world but a scroll of the Torah, then the upper and lower are stirred for its sake TO PRAY FOR THE WORLD. Yet at that time, everyone should do penance, for if they do not, the accusers are aroused upon them TO PUNISH THEM FOR MOVING ABOUT THE SCROLL OF THE TORAH. THIS APPLIES NOT ONLY FOR THE NEFESH, as Ruach in the Garden of Eden is also stirred for the sake of the scroll of the Torah TO ASK FOR MERCY, as we have learned.

328. We learned: "And I will lie with my fathers"; namely in body, Nefesh, Ruach, and Neshamah, all included within one Chariot of a high grade. TO WIT, THE VERSE ALLUDES TO THE BODY AND ALL THE ASPECTS OF THE SOUL, WHICH WILL BE TOGETHER WITH HIS FATHERS. Rabbi Yehuda said: How senseless are the children in the world who do not know, nor care, hear or see what happens in the world, that the Holy One, blessed be He, is filled with Mercy for the world at any time and season. But no one pays attention.

329. Three times a day, a certain spirit comes into the cave of the Machpelah and breathes over the tombs of the fathers so that their bones are healed and they endure. The spirit draws dew from over the King's head, CHOCHMAH, BINAH, AND DA'AT OF ZEIR ANPIN, where the supernal patriarchs are. When the dew flows in, the lower patriarchs are awakened IN THE CAVE OF THE MACHPELAH.

330. We have learned that the dew flows down certain grades, one grade after another, and reaches the lower Garden of Eden, where the perfumes are bathed in it. Then is a certain spirit awakens, which comprises two others; NAMELY A SPIRIT OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, YA'AKOV, WHICH INCLUDES THE TWO COLUMNS, AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. It ascends and hovers above the perfumes and comes in through the opening of the cave. Then the patriarchs are awakened with their wives and ask for Mercy for their children.

331. When the world is in distress AND NOT ANSWERED, and due to its sins THE PATRIARCHS sleep and the dew does not arouse them, for it cannot be found or drawn. THEN, when the scroll of the Torah is stirred in the world, the Nefesh informs the Ruach, the Ruach the Neshamah, which tells the Holy One, blessed be He. The King then sits on the throne of mercy and draws from the supernal Atika Kadisha, ARICH ANPIN, the crystal dew, which flows upon the King's head, CHOCHMAH, BINAH, AND DA'AT OF ZEIR ANPIN, and the patriarchs, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, are blessed. The dew then flows upon the sleeping FATHERS IN THE CAVE OF THE MACHPELAH, who then join IN PRAYING FOR THE WORLD. The Holy One, blessed be He, then has Mercy upon the world. We have learned the Holy One, blessed be He, does not have mercy on the world until He notifies the Patriarchs, and for their merit the world is blessed. Rabbi Yosi said: Surely this is so. I also found it in the book of King Solomon, the high one who is called every MAN'S wise counsel, AS IT SAYS, "FOR HE WAS WISER THAN ALL MEN" (I MELACHIM 5:11).

332. Rav Hamnuna also said the same and that it was revealed to him in a dream, that Rachel achieved more THAN ALL THE PATRIARCHS by standing at the highway whenever the world is in need OF MERCY. The secret of this matter is that the ark, its covering and the Cherubs are in the portion of Binyamin, RACHEL'S SON, who was born on the highway, and the Shechinah is above ALL HIS PORTION, AS IT SAYS, "HE SHALL COVER HIM ALL THE DAY LONG" (DEVARIM 33:12).

32. "And Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head"
 Rabbi Shimon begins the discussion by explaining that the bed in the title verse signifies the foundation of the world, and the bed's head signifies the Shechinah. We learn that by his action, Yisrael bowed to the Supernal Throne. Rabbi Yehuda then explains that although Ya'akov's soul departed while he was still in Egypt, it was united with the Shechinah and his body was buried alongside the patriarchs, as he had wished. The text then addresses the verse, "And Yosef shall put his hand on your eyes." Rabbi Yesa reveals that this verse indicates both Ya'akov's importance and that his son would be alive at the time of Ya'akov's death. Rabbi Chizkiyah then speaks about the custom of a man's son putting dust on his father's eyes as a sign of respect when he dies. This leads to a discourse on the symbolic significance of each color of the eye. After offering further explanations for the custom of closing a man's eyes after his death, the conversation turns to the subject of the Nefesh of the departed soul. Finally, the rabbis return to the spiritual significance of Ya'akov's actions described in the title verse.
 The Relevance of this Passage
 The Light of the Shechinah is summoned into our world, helping The reader climb out of darkness and negativity [Egypt], and in doing so, merit closeness to the great patriarchs in the world to come. These verses also help elevate the souls of our fathers if they have passed on.

333. "And Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head." HE ASKS: What is the bed's head? HE ANSWERS: It is the Shechinah, WHICH IS ALWAYS PRESENT AT THE HEAD OF A SICK MAN. Rabbi Shimon said: Heaven forbid THAT HE WAS BOWING DOWN BEFORE THE SHECHINAH, SINCE HE WAS A CHARIOT OF TIFERET, WHICH IS ABOVE THE SHECHINAH. He bowed to his own attribute, TIFERET. HE EXPLAINS HIS WORDS: Come and behold: the bed is the Shechinah, of which it says, "Behold it his litter, that of Solomon" (Shir Hashirim 3:7). The bed's head is the foundation (Yesod) of the world, the head of the sacred bed, THE SHECHINAH; the head refers to Yisrael, TIFERET, standing at the bed's head, WHICH IS YESOD, FOR TIFERET IS ABOVE YESOD, and therefore Yisrael bowed to himself, NAMELY TO TIFERET.

334. You might say THAT HE BOWED DOWN TO THE SHECHINAH, WHICH IS ABOVE THE HEAD OF A SICK MAN. At that time, he was not yet ill, only later. It is written: "And it came to pass after these things, that one told Yosef, 'Behold, your father is sick.'" But when he bowed down, he was not sick. Of necessity, he bowed down because he knew that he then ascended to the holy supernal grade of the whole throne TIFERET. He therefore bowed down to that Chariot, the supernal throne. FOR CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET ARE THE SUPERNAL THRONE OF BINAH, AND TIFERET IS INCLUDED OF THEM ALL. It is the perfection of the great and strong tree which is named after him, NAMELY TIFERET CALLED YISRAEL AFTER HIS NAME. Therefore, "Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head," for surely he was elevated into his own grade and adorned with crowns, MOCHIN, of the holy King TIFERET.

335. "And he said: 'Swear to me.' And he swore to him. And Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head." Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "All this have I proved by Wisdom: I said, 'I will be wise'; but it was far from me" (Kohelet 7:23). We have learned that King Solomon inherited the moon, THE NUKVA, together with all her aspects. In his days the moon was in fullness, being blessed by all THE GRADES. When he wanted to understand the statutes of the Torah he said: "I said, 'I will be wise'; but it was far from me."

336. Rabbi Yehuda said: Ya'akov said, "And I will lie with my fathers, not, I pray you, in Egypt: but I will lie with my fathers and you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their place of burial." In connection to this, we learned that a man whose soul departed in another domain, NAMELY OUTSIDE THE LAND OF YISRAEL, and whose body was buried in the Holy Land, scripture says of him: "But when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination" (Yirmeyah 2:7). Yet Ya'akov said: "And bury me in their place of burial," though his soul departed in another domain, IN EGYPT.

337. Rabbi Yehuda said: Ya'akov is different THAN OTHER MEN, since the Shechinah held him and cleaved to him. This is the meaning of the words, "I will go down with you into Egypt" (Bereshheet 46:4) to dwell with you in exile "and I will also surely bring you up again" (Ibid.), for your soul shall be united with me, and your body shall be buried in the graves of your fathers. This comes to teach us that his soul left in another domain, YET "I WILL ALSO SURELY BRING YOU UP AGAIN" TO BE BURIED IN THE GRAVES OF HIS FATHERS.

338. "And Yosef shall put his hand on your eyes" (Ibid.). Surely because he was the firstborn, AND IT IS FOR THE FIRSTBORN TO PUT HIS HAND ON HIS FATHER'S EYES. For according to thought, he was the firstborn of the first seed, as we learned. Since the Holy One, blessed be He, knew this secret THAT HE THOUGHT OF RACHEL, He let him know that it would be Yosef, WHO WILL PUT HIS HANDS ON HIS EYES, whom he greatly loved.

339. "Shall put his hand on your eyes": HE ASKS: What does this come to teach us? Rabbi Yisa said: This teaches us of Ya'akov's importance, THAT HIS SON, A KING, WILL PUT HIS HAND ON HIS EYES, and also informs him that Yosef is alive and will be present at his death. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: I have learned something, yet I fear of revealing it, since Wisdom abides with the common customs. Rabbi Aba tapped him and said: Speak up and pluck up your courage, for everything is disclosed in the days of Rabbi Shimon AND THERE IS NO NEED TO BE AFRAID.

340. RABBI CHIZKIYAH said: We learned from the book of Rabbi Yisa Saba (the elder), in the chapter about customs, that when a man merits a son in this world, THE SON should put dust on his eyes when his father is buried as a sign of respect, an indication that the world is now concealed from him, and that he, THE SON, inherits it in his stead.

341. This is because a man's eyes reflect the world and contain all the colors. The white color in them is like a great sea which surrounds the world on all sides. Another is like the ground dug out from the water. The ground stands in the midst of the water and so does the color in the midst of the water; NAMELY IN THE MIDST OF THE WHITE COLOR WHICH INDICATES THE WATER OF THE OCEAN.

342. The third color in the middle of the eye is Jerusalem, the center of the world. The fourth color in the eye is where the power of sight dwells; NAMELY THE BLACKNESS IN THE EYE. It is called "the apple of the eye" (Tehilim 17:8), where the face is seen and the most dear sight of all, Tzion, the innermost point of all, where the whole world is seen, where the Shechinah dwells, which is the beauty and sight of all. The eye is the worldly inheritance, and therefore he WHO DIES leaves this and HIS SON takes it and inherits it.

343. He said to him: This was well said, but this matter has an even deeper meaning, though the children of the world do not know or look for it. For when a man departs from the world, his Nefesh is hidden with him, and before it leaves the body his eyes see certain things, as we have explained in relation to the verse: "For no man shall see me, and live" (Shemot 33:24), that men do not see in their lives what they see in their death.

344. His eyes are opened to the sight they have just seen, and those standing by should put a hand on his eyes and close them, because of what we learned about common customs. When the eyes remain open to the dear vision, if he has a son, the son should be the first to put his hand over his eyes and close them. It says, "And Yosef shall put his hand on your eyes," for another unholy sight is come before him and the eye that beheld the supernal holy sight must not look at the other sight.

345. Another reason is that the Nefesh is close by in the house, and if the eye is open, and the other sight OF THE OTHER SIDE will be upon his eyes, whatever he beholds shall be cursed. AND SINCE THE NEFASHOT IS STANDING IN FRONT OF HIM, HE MIGHT LOOK AT IT AND IT WILL BE ACCURSED. This is not respectful to the eye, or to any of the dead man's relatives, especially to the dead man himself. It is degrading for him to behold what he should not BEHOLD, and lay his eyes on another thing; NAMELY THE OTHER SIDE. Therefore he is covered by dust. The friends have already spoke about the judgment which THE DEAD MAN undergoes in the grave, AND THIS IS NOT THE PLACE TO SPEAK ABOUT IT. It is a sign of respect that the eye be closed by his son he left in the world.

346. Come and see for seven days AFTER THE DEMISE, the Nefesh goes from the grave to the house and back and mourns him. Three times a day, the Nefesh and the body are judged together, though nobody in the world knows it, or observes it so as to awaken his heart.

347. Afterwards, the body is sealed IN THE GRAVE and the Nefesh goes to bathe in Gehenom, then goes out to roam about the world and visit THE BODY IN the grave, until it is wears that which it wears.

348. After twelve months everybody rests. The body reposes in the dust and the Nefesh is bound and enlightened by the Ruach, which in its garment is satisfied in the Garden of Eden. The Neshamah ascends to the bundle of life, THE NUKVA, the greatest pleasure of all. All of them are attached to each other, THE NEFESH TO THE RUACH AND THE RUACH TO THE NESHAMAH, at certain times, ON SHABBAT, HOLIDAYS AND THE FIRST DAY OF THE MONTH.

349. Come and see: Woe to the people who do not regard, who do not know nor understand why they exist, and neglect to observe the precepts of the Torah. Some of the precepts of the Torah are made into a holy garment above IN THE UPPER GARDEN OF EDEN, and some are made into a holy garment below IN THE LOWER GARDEN OF EDEN. Some precepts are made into a holy garment in this world. Man needs them all. They are made of man's days as we explained.

350. Rabbi Yehuda Saba (the elder) was very anxious one day TO KNOW WHAT HE WOULD HAVE IN THE WORLD OF TRUTH. He was shown in a dream a certain image made of bright light which shines to the four directions. He asked what it was, and they said to him: This is your garment, which you shall wear here. From that day ONWARD, he was happy.

351. Rabbi Yehuda said: On each day the spirits of the righteous sit, clothed in their garments in rows in the Garden of Eden and praise the Holy One, blessed be He, with the highest glory, as it is written: "Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name: the upright shall dwell in your presence" (Tehilim 140:14). Rabbi Aba said: It is first written, "And Yisrael bowed himself..." As we explained, the bed is the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA; The bed's head is the righteous; "upon the bed's head" refers to the holy King, that the peace is His; NAMELY TIFERET, as it is written: "Behold it his litter, that of Solomon" (Shir Hashirim 3:7). For he bowed to himself, BEING THE CHARIOT OF TIFERET, to him who stands upon the bed's head whose name is Yisrael, AS TIFERET IS CALLED YISRAEL. Therefore, "And Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head."

351. א"ר יְהוּדָה, כָּל יוֹמָא וְיוֹמָא, רוּחִין דְּצַדִּיקֵינָא יִתְבִּין בְּלְבוּשֵׁיהוֹן, שׁוּרִין שׁוּרִין בְּגִנְתָּא דְּעֵדֶן, וּמִשְׁבַּחֲוֹן לְקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, בְּיִקְרָא עֲלָאָה, הַה"ד אֲךְ צַדִּיקִים יוֹדוּ לְשִׁמְךָ יִשְׁבוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל אֶת פְּנֵיךָ. א"ר אָבָא, בְּקַדְמֵיתָא מַה כְּתִיב וַיִּשְׁתַּחֲוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל וְגו', כְּמַה דְּאוֹקִימְנָא, מֵאֵן מָטָה, דָּא כ"י. רֵאשׁ הַמָּטָה: דָּא צַדִּיק. עַל רֵאשׁ הַמָּטָה: דָּא מַלְכָּא קְדִישָׁא, דְּשְׁלָמָא כְּלָה דִּילֵיהּ, כְּמַה דְּכְתִיב הִנֵּה מִטְתּוֹ שְׁלֹשְׁמָה. דִּיעֲקֵב לְדִידֵיהּ קָא סְגִיד, לְהַהוּא דְקָאִים עַל רֵאשׁ הַמָּטָה, יִשְׂרָאֵל שְׁמִיהּ, בְּגִינֵי כֵךְ, וַיִּשְׁתַּחֲוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל עַל רֵאשׁ הַמָּטָה.

352. Afterwards, when Ya'akov saw that he was perfected in the highest grade, and that his grade, TIFERET, was high, together with the patriarchs, CHESED AND GVURAH, and that he alone was wholly mended, FOR TIFERET IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN WHICH INCLUDES CHESED AND GVURAH AND MEASURED AGAINST ALL CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, his heart rejoiced and he was strengthened by the supernal desire of the Holy One, blessed be He, who was pleased with him. Then it was said of him, "And Yisrael strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed," on the bed itself, THE SECRET OF MALCHUT, since he was perfected in a higher grade, TO WIT, HE WAS MADE WHOLE BY THE ATTRIBUTE OF TIFERET WHICH IS ABOVE MALCHUT. Happy is his portion.

Rabbi Yehuda discusses the four times of the year that the world is judged. During these four times of the year, Chesed, Gvurah, Tiferet, and Malchut are present to judge the world. We learn of the significance of corn to the judgment on Passover, the significance of the fruits of the tree to the judgment on the Feast of Weeks, and the significance of water to the judgment on Sukkot. We are also told that the New Year is the head of God's year, and it is the time when all the inhabitants of the world pass before God. Finally, Rabbi Yosi reminds us that man's deeds are recorded every day. Each morning his soul entreats him to repent and to follow the righteous path. Those who ignore this warning will have their deeds recorded. Only the righteous have nothing to fear in this world and in the world to come.

The Relevance of this Passage

The awesome power of the major holidays and their particular rituals is released into our world, helping us atone for our sins, lessen judgments decreed against us, and transform our inner character. Relative to the degree of atonement in our heart, this passage helps us alter our destiny in positive ways by controlling the seed and "head of God's year." Awareness of the importance of penitence and spiritual growth is deepened in our

353. We learned that Rabbi Yehuda said: We have explained in the Baraitha that the world is judged four times a year: in Pesach in respect to corn; in Shavuot in respect to the fruits of the tree; on Rosh Hashanah, when all the inhabitants of the world pass before Him like a flock of sheep; and on Sukkot when water is apportioned to them. We have explained the secret of the Baraitha: that corn on Pesach, corresponded to the supernal Chariot, the secret of the patriarchs, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, and King David, MALCHUT. TO WIT, THE FOUR TIMES BROUGHT UP IN THE BARAITHA ARE THE SECRET OF THE FATHERS AND KING DAVID. HE EXPLAINS, Judgment is pronounced on Pesach in respect to corn literally. And we have already explained, in relation to it why Matzah is connected to Pesach? Because it is a law, and the law of the kingdom is the prevailing law. THUS, THE MATZAH IS A LAW. This is the starting point for Yisrael to enter the holy portion of the Holy One, blessed be He, and remove the leavened bread, which is a strange deity appointed over the idolatrous nations called other Elohim, foreign Elohim, and also called leavened bread and the Evil Inclination. To enter the Matzah, MALCHUT, is to enter the holy portion of the Holy One, blessed be He. This is the reason Judgment is pronounced on Pesach concerning corn, as we explained that the world is sentenced in respect to Hei, MALCHUT. TVUAH (CORN) IS COMPOSED OF THE SYLLABLES TAVO-HEI (HEB. 'HEI SHALL COME').

354. On Shavuot, the fruits of the tree are pronounced. HE ASKS: Why "the fruits of the tree," shouldn't it have said 'the fruits of the trees'? HE ANSWERS: This is the great and strong tree above, ZEIR ANPIN. The fruits of the tree are mentioned in the verse, "I am like a leafy cypress tree; from me is your fruit found" (Hoshea 14:9), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS, THE FRUITS OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED TREE. THEY ARE SENTENCED AT SHAVUOT, AN ALLUSION TO TIFERET.

355. On Rosh Hashanah, they pass before Him like a flock of sheep. We learned that Rosh Hashanah (lit. 'head of the year') is the King's head of the year, which is Yitzchak called head, the head of the King, ZEIR ANPIN, THE HEAD OF GVURAH. This place is called year, and therefore all the inhabitants of the world pass before Him like a flock of sheep. We therefore learned that on Rosh Hashanah, all the inhabitants of the world pass before Him it like a flock of sheep, for then Yitzchak abides there, WHO IS THE HEAD OF THE LEFT WHERE JUDGMENTS DWELL. HENCE, IT IS SAID THAT ON ROSH HASHANAH "HIS LEFT HAND IS UNDER MY ARM" (SHIR HASHIRIM 2:6).

356. On Sukkot, Judgment is pronounced in respect to water. This is the beginning OF THE ILLUMINATION of the King's right side, WHICH IS CHASSADIM CALLED WATER. IT IS SAID OF THIS FESTIVAL "AND HIS RIGHT HAND EMBRACES ME" (IBID.). The rejoicing in water is everywhere when water is sprinkled or drawn, for water is known TO BE CHASSADIM. Therefore, everything exists in these four times, ON PESACH THE JUDGMENT IS IN THE SECRET OF MALCHUT CALLED CORN, ON SHAVUOT IT IS IN THE SECRET OF TIFERET CALLED TREE, ON ROSH HASHANAH ON THE SECRET OF GVURAH AND ON SUKKOT THE SECRET OF CHESED.

357. Rabbi Yosi said: When you examine this, there is everything in these four times, Avraham, Yitzchak, Ya'akov, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, and King David, MALCHUT, ACCORDING TO THE EXPLANATION OF THE LAST PARAGRAPH. The world is judged by CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT and people are judged on these four times, THE DAYS WHEN CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT ARE IN THE WORLD. Every day, the books are open and MEN'S deeds are recorded, yet no one heeds or lends an ear. The Torah gives testimony every day and says, "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here: for him that lacks understanding, she says to him" (Mishlei 9:4), but no one listens to its voice.

358. We learned that when a man wakes up in the morning, witnesses stand before him and adjure him, but he does not heed that the soul adjures him every hour. If he hears, well, but if he does not, the books are open and his deeds recorded. Rabbi Chiya said: Happy are the righteous, who are not afraid of judgment neither in this world and in the World to Come. Hence it says, "But the righteous are secure as a young lion" (Mishlei 28:1) and "the righteous shall inherit the earth" (Tehilim 37:29).

34. "And when the sun was going down"

Rabbi Chizkiyah begins by explaining that the title verse refers to the day of strict judgment, when a man's soul departs from his body. We learn that thirty days before his death, man's Neshamah departs. As a consequence, his shadow disappears and all desire leaves him. When man is judged above, the Neshamah ascends to the Upper court of justice where it gives testimony to the thoughts and deeds of that man. If that man is sick and his judgment is favorable, he may recover. However, if his judgment condemns him, he may yet survive if God sees that he will later have merit or that he will give birth to a righteous son.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we help cleanse our souls of sin and wrongdoing in order to sweeten judgments set forth against us. The desire to pursue spiritual development and growth is increased within us so that we may merit long life in this physical world and draw closer to the Light of The Creator through positive deeds. In addition, blessing and righteousness are bestowed upon our children, helping them to recognize and embrace the benefits of spirituality and Torah, which further increases our quality and length of life.

359. Rabbi Chizkiyah opened the discussion with the verse, "And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Avram" (Bereshheet 15:12). This verse has been explained, yet here is the secret of the day of strict Judgment, which removes man from this world. We have learned that when the time is come for man to depart from this world, it is the time of great Judgment, when the sun is darkened and does not shine unto the moon, as is written: "before the sun is darkened" (Kohelet 12:2). It refers to the holy Neshamah, which is withheld from man thirty days before he departs from the world, and he sees that his shadow is withheld and not to be seen.

360. HE ASKS: What is the reason his shadow is gone from him? HE ANSWERS: Because the holy Neshamah is gone and departed from him. It is not that when a man weakens and dies that the soul is removed from him, but in his life, when he is in vigor that his Neshamah departs from him, and does not shine upon the Ruach. The Ruach does not shine upon the Nefesh, and then the shadow is gone and does not illuminate upon him. From that day onward, every one proclaims that he will die, even the birds in the sky. Why? Because his Neshamah is gone from him, the Ruach no longer shines upon the Nefesh, and it is weakened and eating and every desire of the body are gone from him.

361. Rabbi Yehuda said: Even when a man falls ill and cannot pray, the Neshamah is gone and removed from him. The Ruach does not then shine upon the Nefesh until verdict is given. If the sentence is good, the Neshamah returns to its place and shines upon everyone; NAMELY THE RUACH AND THE NEFESH. This is true as long as Judgment is not yet pronounced. When it is, AND IT IS ALREADY DECIDED THAT HE WILL DIE, thirty days before the others, the Neshamah is gone and his shadow passes away.

362. We learned that when a man is sentenced above, his Neshamah is brought up to the court of justice, where the trial proceeds according to its testimony. It testifies to everything and to evil thoughts he harbored, but not to evil deeds, since they are all recorded in a book. A man is judged for everything at the time of sentence above, BOTH FOR THOUGHTS AND DEEDS. The body is then in trouble more than in any other time.

363. If he is favorably judged, he is released. Sweat breaks out over the body and the Neshamah returns later to shine upon all, THE RUACH AND THE NEFESH. A man is never cured from his disease until he is sentenced above. If you say that there are yet many evil people who remain alive; NAMELY RECOVER FROM THEIR ILLNESS. HE ANSWERS: The Holy One, blessed be He, watches over his sentence. Even if he has no merit yet THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, sees that he will later, He acquits him. Or sometimes He sees he will beget a righteous son and therefore the Holy One, blessed be He, judges him favorably.

364. All the works and judgments of the Holy One, blessed be He, are for the good, and He watches over everything, as it is written: "'Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?' says Hashem Elohim: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?" (Yechezkel 18:23). Therefore the Holy One, blessed be He, judges favorably all the evil in the world who recover.

365. Sometimes, when the illness has run its course that was allotted it to afflict man, as it says, "And severe sicknesses, and of long continuance (also: 'faithful')" (Devarim 28:59), they act faithfully in dwelling upon man and leave after the set period, either the righteous or the evil. All is done according to justice, like we said.

35. "And Yisrael saw Yosef's sons"

Rabbi Yitzchak begins this discussion by explaining the title verse. We learn that through the Holy Spirit, the righteous Yisrael was able to see that Yosef's sons would one day worship idols. We also learn that all the generations of the world stand in the presence of God before they are born into the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

The strength and wisdom to free oneself from idol-worshipping is bestowed upon the reader through the righteousness of Yisrael. Idol worshipping refers to any form of egocentric behavior where pleasure is derived from external sources as opposed to true contentment that is generated internally in our souls. Before a soul enters this world, all the secrets of the Torah are revealed to it. The soul promises The Creator that during physical existence, it will pursue the path of Torah and spiritual growth. Prior to the moment of birth, the wisdom of the Torah is then forgotten, along with our promise, and thus begins the true work of "remembering" our commitment and "reacquiring" our spiritual knowledge. This passage helps us to remain true to our promise to walk the path of the Light, and it regenerates the seeds of mystical wisdom implanted within our soul prior to our birth.

366. "And Yisrael saw Yosef's sons, and said: 'Who are these?'"

Rabbi Yitzchak said: This verse is difficult to understand. It is written, "And Yisrael saw," yet also "And the eyes of Yisrael were dim from age, so that he could not see." If he cannot see, how come then: "And Yisrael saw"? HE ANSWERS: "AND YISRAEL SAW" MEANS that he saw through the Holy Spirit Yosef's descendants, Yerovaam and his fraternity, the same Yerovaam who made the two golden calves, and said: "These are your Elohim, Yisrael" (I Melachim 12:28). Hence he said: "Who are these?" Who is he that will say, "These are your Elohim," your idols to worship. It is therefore written: "And Yisrael saw Yosef's sons."

367. From this, WE UNDERSTAND that the righteous see things afar, BEFORE THEY ARE MANIFEST IN THE WORLD, since the Holy One, blessed be He, adorns them with His crown. For the Holy One, blessed be He, sees into the distance, as said: "And Elohim saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good" (Bereshheet 1:31), the Holy One, blessed be He, sees all deeds before they are done, and they all pass before Him.

368. In the same manner, all the generations of the world from one world's end to the other stand before Him before coming into the world. This is written in the verse, "He who calls the generations from the beginning" (Yeshayah 41:4), NAMELY before the universe was created, for all the souls that descend into the world stand before the Holy One, blessed be He, before going into it, assuming their worldly shape and names. It is written: "He calls them all by names" (Yirmeyah 40:26).

369. The righteous too are shown by the Holy One, blessed be He, all the generations of the world, before they come into it. Whence do we know that? From Adam, who was the first to be shown by the Holy One, blessed be He, the generations before they came, as it is written: "This is the book of the generations of Adam" (Beresheet 5:1). We learned that He showed him all the generations destined to come into the world. Moshe too was shown, as it is written: "And Hashem showed him all the land" (Devarim 34:1), WHICH MEANS THAT the Holy One, blessed be He, showed him all the generations of the world and all its leaders and prophets before they were born.

370. Here too, "And Yisrael saw Yosef's sons" means that he saw far off, THAT THEY WILL WORSHIP IDOLS, and he trembled and said: "Who are these?" The verse refers both to this, YEROVAAM WHO SAID: "THESE ARE YOUR GODS, YISRAEL" and to ITS SIMPLE MEANING ABOUT EFRAIM AND MENASHE THEMSELVES. Yosef answered it by saying: 'They are my sons, whom Elohim had given me in this place.' TO WIT, THEY ARE GOOD, YET HE DID NOT ANSWER HIM IN RELATION TO YEROVAAM AND HIS FRIENDS. How do we know that the Holy One, blessed be He, showed him through the Holy Spirit ABOUT YEROVAAM AND HIS FRIENDS? From the verse: "And, lo, Elohim has shown me also your children," "also" alludes to THE GENERATIONS that will issue from him, as we said.

36. "And he blessed Yosef"

From the explanations provided by Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Elazar, we learn that the title verse indicates that a blessing was conferred on both Yosef and his sons, since a man's children are his own blessing. We also learn that the particle Et placed before Yosef is an allusion to Malchut. This means that he blessed the sign of the Holy Covenant, Malchut. According to the rabbis, all blessings originate in Binah, the source of life. They are then received by Ya'akov and passed to Malchut. Therefore, when a blessing is given, God must be blessed first if it is to be fulfilled. During morning prayer, we should first bless God and then bless the people of the world. We learn that when Ya'akov's father blessed him, he first blessed God in the statement, "the smell of my son is like the smell of a field"

The discussion then turns to the meaning of the verse, "These are your gods, Yisrael," The word "these," we are told, is a reference to the Serpent and its rider, the male and female of the Other Side who are not joined in unity like the Male and Female of Holiness. Following this, the verse, "For these I weep" is explained as a reference to the sin of the golden calf and the destruction of the temple. The word "these" is also written in relation to Holiness. However, through the Holy Spirit, Ya'akov saw that Yerovaam worshipped idols and correctly interpreted the verse, "These are your gods, Yisrael." He therefore blessed God and his sons, and ensured that his blessing would not be bestowed upon Yerovaam.

By connecting us to the supernal blessings bestowed upon Yosef, we draw countless blessings upon our world, the dimension referred to as Malchut. This connection also ensures that all of our blessings take place after the blessings of our Creator. The Light aroused herein helps protect us from the Other Side and remove the negativity and darkness in our world resulting from the building of the Golden Calf and the destruction of the second temple.

371. "And he blessed Yosef" (Beresheet 48:15). We have to examine this verse, since it is written, "And he blessed Yosef," yet no blessing was conferred upon Yosef, but upon his sons. It should have been written: 'And he blessed them.' Why is it said that he blessed Yosef if Yosef was not blessed?

372. Rabbi Yosi said: The particule 'et' before 'Yosef' ALLUDES TO MALCHUT. It is written "Et Yosef," which is the blessing for his sons SINCE HIS SONS, MENASHE AND EFRAIM, ARE CONSIDERED TO BE MALCHUT CALLED ET. When his sons are blessed, he is blessed before them, therefore it is written also "Yosef," for man's children are his own blessing.

373. Rabbi Elazar said: "And he blessed (et) Yosef," et is precise ALLUDING TO MALCHUT. For he blessed the sign of the covenant, NAMELY THE SECRET OF THE COVENANT that Yosef kept, WHICH IS MALCHUT. For this reason, the righteous, Yosef, is called Et, as it is written "Et Yosef" since Yosef includes the secret of the covenant, MALCHUT, that is present with him.

374. "The Elohim, before whom my fathers Avraham and Yitzchak walked": "Elohim" is the secret of the holy covenant; NAMELY MALCHUT CALLED HOLY COVENANT. My fathers indeed walked before him, WHICH MEANS THAT MY FATHERS ARE before and above this secret; NAMELY BEFORE MALCHUT. FOR MY FATHERS ARE Avraham and Yitzchak, CHESED AND GVURAH OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH PRECEDE MALCHUT AND HIGHER THAN HER, as that place, MALCHUT, is sustained and nourished by them.

375. "The Elohim who has been my shepherd": HE ASKS: What is the reason he repeats the word "The Elohim"? HE ANSWERS: This is a high secret. He blessed the place, MALCHUT, in the secret of living Elohim, BINAH, the source of life, whence blessings are drawn. He therefore mentioned himself in this place by saying: "The Elohim who has been my shepherd." For all blessings originate in the source of life, BINAH, and received by Ya'akov, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, When he receives them, that place, MALCHUT, receives them from him, as all comes from the male, YA'AKOV. Hence it says, "And he blessed et Yosef," ET BEING MALCHUT WHICH RECEIVED HER BLESSINGS FROM YA'AKOV, ZEIR ANPIN.

376. For this reason, wherever blessings are to be given, the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO IS MALCHUT, should be blessed first; for if He is not, the blessings are not fulfilled.

371. וַיְבָרֶךְ אֶת יוֹסֵף וַיֹּאמֶר הָאֱלֹקִים אֲשֶׁר וּגו', בְּהַאֲרֵי קְרָא אִית לְאִסְתַּכְלָא בֵּיה, וַיְבָרֶךְ אֶת יוֹסֵף, דְּלֹא אֲשַׁכְחֵן הֵכָא בְּרִכָּה דְּבִרְיָךְ לִיְה לְיוֹסֵף אֲלֵא לְבָנוּי, אִי לְבָנוּי, וַיְבָרְכֶם מִבְּעֵי לִיְה, מֵהוּ וַיְבָרֶךְ אֶת יוֹסֵף, וְלֹא אֲשַׁכְחֵן הֵכָא דְּאִתְבְּרִיךְ יוֹסֵף.

372. א"ר יוסי, את דייקא, כתיב את יוסף, ברכתא דבנוי הוה, וכד אתברכאן בנוי, איהו מתברך, דברכתא דבנוי דבר נש ברכתיה איהו.

373. א"ר אלעזר, ויברך את יוסף, את דייקא, דברין לאת קיימא, רזא דברית דנטר יוסף, ובג"כ אקרי צדיק, את דיוסף, רזא דברית דקיימא בהדיה דיוסף.

374. האלקים אשר התהלכו אבותי לפניו. האלקים: דא רזא דברית קדישא, קיימא קדישא. אבותי לפניו, דייקא לפניו, דאינון קדמאי עלאי, מקמי רזא דנא, אברהם ויצחק, דהא מנהון אתון וינקא ההוא אתר.

377. But you may say that when Ya'akov's father blessed him, he did not first bless the Holy One, blessed be He. HE ANSWERS: Come and see that when Yitzchak blessed Ya'akov, he did not do so before blessing the Holy One, blessed be He. After he did that, he blessed Ya'akov. Whence do we know that? From the verse: "...and said, 'See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed'" (Bereshheet 27:27). There is a blessing here for the Holy One, blessed be He, in the words "which Hashem has blessed," and He was blessed with the establishment of the blessings. Then it says: "Therefore the Elohim give you" since the field, MALCHUT, was established by the blessings, for they issue only from it after it is already established by the blessings. In the same manner, first Ya'akov blessed the Holy One, blessed be He, and then did he bless his sons. Come and see in the morning, a man should first bless the Holy One, blessed be He, and then the other inhabitants of the world. We have explained it in relation to the verse: "In the morning shall he devour the prey..." (Bereshheet 49:27).

378. Come and see: When Ya'akov wanted to bless the sons of Yosef, he saw through the Holy Spirit that Yerovaam, son of Nevat would issue from Efraim. He opened the discussion with the words, "Who are these?" WHO SAID: "THESE ARE YOUR ELOHIM, YISRAEL"? HE ASKS: What is the reason he said, in relation to idol worshipping: "...these are your Elohim, Yisrael"? HE REPLIES: This is a secret. Of all the sides of the evil serpent, there is the side of the spirit of defilement considered to be the aspect of the serpent, and there is its rider, SAMAEL- IN OTHER WORDS, THEY ARE MALE AND FEMALE. When they mate, they are called 'these' IN THE PLURAL, TO SHOW THAT THEY ARE NOT JOINED IN UNITY LIKE THE MALE AND FEMALE OF HOLINESS BUT ARE SEPARATED. BECAUSE THE OTHER SIDE BEGINS UNITED BUT ENDS IN SEPARATION. They appear in the world in their several aspects, ALL THAT ARE DRAWN FROM THE SERPENT, ISSUE FROM THE MATING OF THE MALE AND THE FEMALE CALLED 'THESE'.

379. The spirit of holiness, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, called zot (this, fem.) which is the secret of the covenant, is an imprint that is always upon man, THE IMPRINT OF CIRCUMCISION. Also "this is my El, and I will praise Him" (Shemot 15:2) and "this is Hashem," ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH ARE IN THE SINGULAR. But THE MALE AND FEMALE OF THE OTHER SIDE, SAMAEL AND THE SERPENT, are called these IN THE PLURAL. Hence it is written, "These are your Elohim, Yisrael."

380. Therefore it is written, "Even these may forget" (Yeshayah 49:15), REFERRING TO THE MALE AND FEMALE OF THE OTHER SIDE, "and I"--the secret of this, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN--"will not forget." It is also written: "For these I weep" (Eichah 1:16), for the sin OF THE GOLDEN CALF CALLED THESE, brought them much weeping, BEING THE CAUSE FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE. Another explanation for, "For these I weep": The reason for this is that permission was given to this place, NAMELY TO THE SERPENT AND SAMAEL, to rule over Yisrael and destroy the Temple. Since they were given permission I weep, I being the Holy Spirit, NAMELY THE NUKVA called I.

380. וּבְג"כ כְּתִיב גַּם אֱלֹהִים תִּשְׁכַּחְנָה, וְאִנּוּכֵי רְזָא דְּזֹאת, לֹא אִשְׁכַּחְךָ, וְכְתִיב עַל אֱלֹהִים אֲנִי בּוֹכֶיָה, דִּהוּא חוּבָא גְרָמָא לֹון לְמַבְכֵי כְּמָה בְּכִיּוֹן. ד"א עַל אֱלֹהִים אֲנִי, מ"ט. בְּגִין דְּאִתְיִיְהִיב רְשׁוֹ לְאַתֵּר דָּא לְשִׁלְטָאָה עַל יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְלַחְרָבָא בִּי מְקֻדְשָׁא, וּבְגִין דְּאִתְיִיְהִיב לֹון רְשׁוֹ לְשִׁלְטָאָה, אֲנִי בּוֹכֶיָה, דָּא רוּחַ קוּדְשָׁא דְּאֶקְרִי אֲנִי.

381. It may be said that it is written, "These are the words of the covenant" (Devarim 28:69). CAN YOU SAY THAT 'THESE' IS THE NAME OF THE MALE AND FEMALE OF THE OTHER SIDE? HE ANSWERS: Assuredly those curses are not fulfilled save through these, WHICH ARE OF THE OTHER SIDE, where all the curses abide, like we explained about THE SERPENT that it is cursed, "CURSED ABOVE... EVERY BEAST OF THE FIELD" (BERESHEET 2:14). The Torah therefore preceded, saying "these" for those who transgress the words of the covenant.

382. "These are the commandments, which Hashem commanded" (Vayikra 27:34): HE ASKS: "THESE ARE THE COMMANDMENTS...", WHY IS IT WRITTEN "THESE" EVEN IN RELATION TO HOLINESS? HE ANSWERS: This is because all the precepts of the Torah purify man so he shall not deviate from the path and keep away FROM THE OTHER SIDE. THEREFORE, IT SAYS IN RELATION TO THE COMMANDMENTS THESE. What then about, "And these are the generations of the sons of Noach" (Beresheet 10:1)? WHY DOES IT SAYS 'THESE'? HE REPLIES: Surely here too IT IS A NAME OF THE OTHER SIDE, for Cham, the father of Cna'an, of whom it is written "Cursed be Cna'an" (Beresheet 9:25). This is the secret of 'these'.

383. Therefore it is written, "And they said: 'These are your Elohim, Yisrael'" (Shemot 32:4). It is the molten dross of gold. Aharon offered gold, which is of his side-THE LEFT SIDE-and is comprised of the power of fire. All is one because this side is considered to be gold and fire, AND THE DROSS OF GOLD IS THE KLIPOT AND DEFILEMENT. And the spirit of defilement, which is always in the desert, found then a place to gain power AND CLING TO YISRAEL.

384. Before, the children of Yisrael were purified from the primordial filth OF THE SERPENT, which he injected into the world and brought death unto it THROUGH THE SIN OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE. FROM THIS, THEY WERE PURIFIED when they stood by Mount Sinai, but it returned again and the serpent defiled them as before and overpowered them and brought death unto them and unto the whole world for generations after. This is the meaning of the words, "I had said: 'You are angels...Nevertheless, you shall die like a man'" (Tehilim 6-7), FOR DUE TO THE SIN OF THE GOLDEN CALF, DEATH HAD POWER OVER THEM LIKE OVER ADAM.

385. Therefore, when Ya'akov saw, through the Holy Spirit, Yerovaam, son of Nevat-who worshipped idols-who said, "These are your Elohim, Yisrael," he was shaken and asked, "Who are these?" When he later wished to bless them, he first blessed the Shechinah and then his sons. After blessing the Holy One, blessed be He, he then blessed them from that place, which he blessed first. Hence it says, "The angel who redeemed me from all evil..."; TO WIT, THE SHECHINAH CALLED ANGEL SHALL BLESS THEM. THIS WAY HE WAS SURE HIS BLESSING WOULD NOT BE CONFERRED UPON YEROVAAM, SON OF NEVAT.

37. "Then Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall"

Rabbi Yehuda explains that he who does not beget children in this world has no life or existence in the world to come. Therefore, because Chizkiyahu had no wife or children, he prayed with his face to the wall, an allusion to the Shechinah, so that the Shechinah would be with him. Chizkiyahu then chose a wife and prayed to The Creator. We learn that he kept and guarded the Covenant, and that he wept before God for redemption.

The Relevance of this Passage

The miraculous power of childbirth is transferred to all those experiencing difficulty bearing children. This divine force also strengthens spiritual bonds between parent and child for those who are blessed with children.

386. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse "Then Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to Hashem" (Yeshayah 38:2). It has been derived from the verse that a man should pray near the wall, and nothing should intervene between him and the wall, in accordance with the verse: "Then Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall." HE ASKS: Why is he different than others who prayed, of whom it does not say that they turned their faces to the wall, but it sufficed to say that they "prayed to Hashem." For whoever prays does so with proper intention, EVEN IF HE DOES NOT TURN HIS FACE TO THE WALL, as it says of Moshe, "And Moshe prayed to Hashem" (Bemidbar 11:2). "And Moshe cried to Hashem" (Shemot, 17:4), but not that he "turned his face toward the wall." Why does it say of Chizkiyahu that he "turned his face toward the wall," then prayed?

387. HE ANSWERS: The secret of the matter is what we learned of Chizkiyahu that he was not married at the time. He had no wife, nor did he beget any children. It is therefore written, "And Yeshayah... came to him, and said to him...'For you shall die, and not live'" (Yeshayah 38:1). We derived from it that "you shall die" in this world "and not live" in the World to Come. Why? Because he did not beget children.

388. Whoever does not strive to beget children in this world has no existence in the World to Come, nor any portion thereof. His soul is driven from the world, and cannot find rest in any place in the world. This is the punishment indicted in the Torah by the words: "They shall die childless" (Vayikra 20:20). For when he goes to the World to Come, he who has no children dies there AND IS CONSIDERED DEAD in this world and in the World to Come. It is therefore written, "For you shall die, and not live."

389. Moreover, the Shechinah did not rest upon him at all. From the words: "Then Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall," we learned that he made his mind and decided to take a wife, so that the Shechinah, the secret of wall, would rest upon him, AS THE SHECHINAH IS CALLED WALL.

390. Hence it continues: "And prayed to Hashem." From this, we learned that whoever has sinned, and wishes to ask for forgiveness, should first fix his heart and thought upon purifying himself of that sin, and only then to pray, as it says, "Let us search and try our ways" (Eichah 3:40) first, then "turn back to Hashem" (Ibid.). Here too, since Chizkiyahu was conscious of his sin, it is written, "Then Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall," in resolution to be purified before the Shechinah CALLED WALL, for he sinned to that place.

391. Since all the females in the world are in the secret of the Shechinah, the Shechinah rests upon whomever has a wife, but not upon him who does not. Therefore, Chizkiyahu resolved to be purified before her, and took upon himself to marry a wife. Then he "prayed to Hashem."

391. בְּגִין דְּשְׁכִינְתָא כָּל נֹקְבֵי דְעֵלְמָא קִיּוּמִין

אֲתַקֵּן גְּרַמְיָה לְגַבְיָהּ לְאַתְקַנָּא, וְשׂוּי עֲלִיהּ לְאַתְנַסְבָּא,

392. The wall is Master of all the earth, the Shechinah, as it says, "Behold, the Ark of the Covenant (of) the Master of all the earth" (Yehoshua 3:11). HENCE, THE ARK OF THE COVENANT IS THE SHECHINAH CALLED MASTER OF ALL THE EARTH, and also called wall, as in "a breaking down of walls" (Yeshayah 22:5), WHICH MEANS the crying of the wall. For it is Master OF ALL THE EARTH, while the Temple was destroyed, as it says, "Rachel weeping for her children" (Yirmeyah 31:14), which we have already explained. Therefore, "Chizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall."

392. קִיר: דָּא הוּא אֲדוֹן כָּל הָאָרֶץ, וְדָא שְׁכִינְתָא,

393. Come and see: It is said in his prayer, "Remember now, O Hashem, I beseech you, how I have walked before you" (Yeshayah 38:3). Here, he hints that he kept the holy covenant not to defile it but to guard it well, as it says here, "I have walked before you" and elsewhere "walk before Me, and be perfect. And I will make my covenant..." (Beresheet 17:1-2). AS "WALK" REFERS TO THE HOLY COVENANT, HERE TOO "I HAVE WALKED" MEANS that he kept well the holy covenant. "In truth and with a perfect heart" means that he was intent upon the secrets of faith comprised in Truth.

393. תָּא חַזִּי

394. "And have done that which is good in your sight" (Yeshayah 38:3) means that he did not interrupt his prayer between 'redemption (Ga'al Yisrael)' and the Amidah, YESOD BEING CALLED REDEMPTION AND THE NUKVA, PRAYER. We have already explained, and the friends too, that he meant to declare the unison in a proper manner. He "wept sore" for no gate resists tears AND REMAINS CLOSED. Redemption COMBINED WITH PRAYER is CALLED THE NUKVA, the redeeming angel, which may be found at every redemption in the world, as we have already explained.

394. וְהָטוּב בְּעֵינֶיךָ עֲשִׂיתִי, דְּסַמֵּךְ גְּאוּלָּה לְתַפְּלָה,

38. "The angel who redeemed"

Rabbi Elazar explains that the title verse indicates Ya'akov wished to join the high and the low, so that the blessings he bestowed on Malchut, our physical existence, would also be received by the lower spiritual bodies. We learn that the title verse alludes to Tiferet, who receives blessings from the higher grades and confers them on the upper Cherubs, Sandalfon and Matatron. The upper Cherubs spread out their wings over the place of the Ark three times daily and bestow blessings on the lower Cherubs.

The discourse then turns to address the verse, "House and riches are the inheritance of fathers" but a prudent wife is from The Creator." If man turns to the Other Side, he will receive from the Other Side. However, if God appreciates this man for his good deeds, He redeems him from the Other Side and provides him with a prudent wife. We learn that God matches couples according to the deeds of the righteous before they enter the world. A man may be matched with a "prudent wife", when he is born, but if he strays from the path of righteousness, his intended wife will be given to another. If he rectifies his ways by the time he is supposed to marry her, the other man will be rejected and he will have his rightful spouse. Finally, the discussion reverts back to the subject of the hierarchical conferring of blessings. Rabbi Yehuda explains why the word hayoshvi is spelled with an extra Yud ? in the verse, "To You I lift up my eyes" We also learn that the circle of the world is sustained by the central point, called "the house of the Holy of Holies."

The Relevance of this Passage

The celestial spirits that serve as conduits between mortals and the Light of The Creator, are accessible to readers of these mystical verses. Thus, sacred spiritual energy shines brighter in this world, infusing our lives with untold blessings. The good fortune to attract our true soulmate is kindled, as we become more cognizant of the illusionary material trappings that seduce us in this physical existence. This energy also enriches and deepens our marital relationships, enlightening us to the importance of building a marriage on a foundation of spiritual purpose and principles.

395. "The angel who redeemed me from all evil" (Beresheet 48:16). Rabbi Elazar said: After Ya'akov gave the blessing he meant to bring unity from below upwards BY SAYING "HASHEM," MALCHUT, "BEFORE WHOM MY FATHERS...DID WALK," CHESED AND GVURAH, continuing from above downwards in "The Elohim who has been my shepherd" THAT IS BINAH. HE DREW FROM BINAH UNTO HIS GRADE, TIFERET. Now that he has received, he gave to that place, THE NUKVA, and when the blessings reached it he opened the discussion saying: "The angel who redeemed..." SO THAT FROM HER BLESSINGS WILL BE DRAWN UNTO THE LOWER BEINGS.

396. He opened the discussion saying: "For the Cherubs spread out their two wings over the place of the ark" (I Melachim 8:7). The Cherubs stood there by miracle and three times a day spread their wings over the ark below, as it is written that they "spread their wings" and not that their wings were spread, WHICH WOULD MEAN THAT THEIR WINGS WERE ALWAYS SPREAD. BUT "SPREAD THEIR WINGS" MEANING THAT THEY DID SO THREE TIMES A DAY.

398. It is therefore written "the angel who redeemed me from all evil," me BEING TIFERET, who receives blessings from the higher grades. Once it has received them, it will "bless the lads." This is the secret of the Cherubs, MATATRON AND SANDALFON, from whom blessings are conferred by the higher to the lower.

399. "The angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads." Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "House and riches are the inheritance of fathers" (Mishlei 19:14). HE ASKS: How can they be the inheritance of fathers, as it is the Holy One, blessed be He, who gives a man all he has. HE ANSWERS: The Holy One, blessed be He, gives a man a house and riches, which he sometimes bequeaths to his son, for whom it is the inheritance of fathers. "But a prudent wife is from Hashem" (Ibid.), for when a man merits a wife, he receives her only from the Holy One, blessed be He, who gives her to him only after he is proclaimed throughout the firmament.

400. For the Holy One, blessed be He, matches couples before they come into the world. Men are given a wife they deserve according to their deeds, and all men's actions are revealed to the Holy One, blessed be He. According to the deeds of the righteous, He matches couples BEFORE ENTERING THE WORLD.

401. Sometimes they are joined; TO WIT, IT HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED, BEFORE THEY CAME INTO THE WORLD, THAT THE DAUGHTER OF SO-AND-SO IS DESTINED FOR SO-AND-SO, BUT WHEN HE WAS BORN, man perverted his ways. His spouse was then given to another, until he rectifies his ways. If he does so by the time he is supposed to marry her, the other man is rejected and he comes to take what is his, WHICH MEANS THAT THE OTHER ONE WHO MARRIED HIS SPOUSE BEFORE HE MADE RIGHT HIS DEEDS IS NOW REJECTED; NAMELY DIES, AND HE RECEIVES HIS SPOUSE FROM HIM. This is the most difficult task for the Holy One, blessed be He, to banish one man because of another. Therefore, it is the Holy One, blessed be He, who gives a wife to man, and by Him couples are formed. Hence, it says "but a prudent wife is from Hashem."

402. Hence, THE TRUTH IS THAT the Holy One, blessed be He, gives a man everything. If you say that HE GIVES ONLY a prudent wife and nothing else, come and see, though the Holy One, blessed be He, prepares but goodness for men, if the man turns from the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He, to the Other Side, he will receive his due from the Other Side to which he cleft, together with accusations and evils. He does not receive them from the Holy One, blessed be He, but from the evil side to which he clung because of his deeds.

403. Therefore Solomon says of a wife who is not prudent, "And I find more bitter than death the woman" (Kohelet 7:26), for one draws her to himself by the sins and deeds he commits INSTEAD OF FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. Therefore, when the Holy One, blessed be He, takes pleasure in man because of his good deeds, He provides for him a prudent wife, and redeems him from the Other Side.

404. Ya'akov therefore said: "The angel who redeemed me from all evil." "From all evil" means that I was not provided with a wife from the Other Side, and that my children were not defective, but they were all righteous and complete to perfection. Since he was redeemed from all evil, THE OTHER SIDE, and Ya'akov did not cleave at all to the Other Side.

405. Therefore "the angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads." Wherefore are they worthy of being blessed? Because Yosef kept the holy covenant. Concerning this, Yosef said: "They are my sons, whom the Elohim has given me in this." To wit, he showed him the secret of the covenant CALLED THIS, which he kept. Since he observed this, his sons are worthy of being blessed, and he deserves many blessings. Thus Ya'akov gave EACH one blessing, and to Yosef he gave many. This we derive from the verse, "The blessings of your father are potent above the blessings of my progenitors..." "blessings of the breasts, and of the womb... shall be on the head of Yosef" (Beresheet 49:25-26).

406. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion saying: "To you I lift up my eyes, O you who dwells (Heb. hayoshvi) in the heavens" (Tehilim 123:1). This verse has already been explained, yet come and see a man's prayer offered with devotion is to be found above in the sublime deep, BINAH, whence all blessings are drawn FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN and freedom FROM THE LEFT. They all issue FROM ITS CENTRAL COLUMN to support all.

407. Therefore, there is an extra Yud IN "HAYOSHVI" INSTEAD OF 'HAYOSHEV' IN HEAVEN. Thus Yud, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH, is never lacking from this place, AS CHOCHMAH AND BINAH ARE JOINED IN A NEVER-ENDING UNION. Therefore 'hayoshvi' is spelled WITH AN EXTRA YUD, for BINAH is attached above to supernal Chochmah CALLED YUD, and attached below by sitting on the throne of the patriarchs, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, the throne called heaven, ZEIR ANPIN WHICH INCLUDES CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, WHICH ARE THE THREE LEGS OF THE HIGH THRONE BINAH. This is why it is written "hayoshvi" in heaven.

408. From this, we understand that when blessings are drawn from above, from the deep, BINAH, they are all received by the place called heaven, ZEIR ANPIN, from which they flow downward until they reach the righteous men, THE SECRET OF RIGHTEOUS AND RIGHTEOUSNESS, that are the covenant of the world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, from which all the hosts and legions, THE LOWER BEINGS IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH, are blessed as we already explained.

409. Come and behold: the crown of all armies is elevated through the 72 lights. It becomes the circle of the world in seventy places, all of them forming one circle. In it, there is a point in the middle, from which the circle is sustained. It is called the house of the holy of holies, a place for the spirit of all spirits. Here is treasured the innermost secret, hidden among the legions. It is concealed in its innermost place. When it ascends, all THE WORLDS follow, as it is written: "Draw me, we will run after you" (Shir Hashirim 1:3).

39. "O remember not against us former iniquities"

While travelling with Rabbi Chizkiyah and Rabbi Yosi, Rabbi Yehuda explains the title verse. We learn that because of Yisrael's sins, the Other Side and the heathen nations came to rule over the land of Yisrael. Knowing that they could not exist in the world without the mercy and compassion of God, they pray to Him so that He will remove their sins and protect them from the judgment of the Other Side.

The Relevance of this Passage

The knowledge and certitude that only God can protect us from the harsh accusations of the Other Side are awakened within us. The spiritual truth that we are never victims of other people's wickedness is made clearer in our own mind. Moreover, accountability for our own negative actions is kindled, inspiring us to seek out the Light of The Creator to help redeem us from our internal demons and selfish aspirations. This Light of redemption shines for all those who devoutly meditate upon the mystical letters of Hebrew with a contrite heart.

410. Rabbi Chizkiyah, Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Yehuda were journeying along the road. Rabbi Yosi said: Let each of us discourse upon the Torah. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse, "O remember not against us former iniquities: let Your tender mercies speedily come to meet us" (Tehilim 79:8). Come and see: The Holy One, blessed be He, in His love for Yisrael, as they are His lot and portion, lets no one judge them but Himself. When He does, He is filled with compassion for them, like a father for his children, as it says, "As a father pities his children, so Hashem..." (Ibid. 103:13). If it is found that they have sinned, He removes the sins one by one, until all are removed from before Him, so that now there is no power for the Other Side to judge them ON THEIR ACCOUNT.

411. When they sin before Him as before, He is AGAIN reminded of the first sins, which were already removed. Therefore it is written, "O remember not against us former iniquities: let Your tender mercies speedily come to meet us." Unless Your tender mercies come upon Yisrael, they would not be able to exist in the world, for numerous adversaries and accusers await Yisrael from above. For unless the Holy One, blessed be He, would speedily send His mercies upon the children of Yisrael before judging them, they would not be able to exist in the world. Therefore "let Your tender mercies speedily come to meet us: for we are very poor," poor in good deeds and in honest deeds.

412. Come and see: If Yisrael would have accumulated good deeds before the Holy One, blessed be He, the idolatrous nations would not be standing against them. But Yisrael caused the other nations to raise their heads in the world, and if Yisrael would not have sinned before the Holy One, blessed be He, the other nations would be subdued before them.

413. Come and see that were it not for Yisrael, who drew by evil deeds the Other Side to the land of Yisrael, the other heathen nations would not be ruling over it. And they would not be exiled from it. Hence it is written, "For we are very poor" in worthy good deeds: "since we are very poor" "let Your tender mercies speedily come to meet us."

413. ותא חזי, אלמלא דאמשיכו ישראל בעובדין בישין, לסטר אחרא בארעא קדישא, הא אתמר, דלא שלטו שאר עמין עעכו"ם בארעא קדישא, ולא אתגלו מעל ארעא, ועל דא כתיב, כי דלוננו מאד, דלית לן עובדין דכשרן בדקא חזי, ובגין כך כי דלוננו מאד מהר יקדמונו רחמין.

40. "Serve Hashem with fear"

Rabbi Yosi discourses on the title verse, explaining that the righteous should worship God in the morning and in the evening. The prayer should be performed with gladness and singing in order to bring union to Zeir Anpin. In the morning, our realm of Malchut is blessed by the two sides, Chesed and Gvurah, and in the evening she distributes the blessings to those who deserve it.

The Relevance of this Passage

The mystical Light that glows during the morning and evening hours through the prayer-connections made by the righteous radiates throughout this section. Harmony and union between the body and soul, and connection between the Lower and Upper Worlds, are achieved by meditating upon these verses with gladness and song in our hearts.

414. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "Serve Hashem with fear, and rejoice with trembling" (Tehilim 2:10). It is also written: "Serve Hashem with gladness: come before His presence with singing" (Ibid. 100:2). Come and see, only a man who serves the Holy One, blessed be He, should worship Him morning and evening.

414. רבי יוסי פתח ואמר, עבדו את ה' ביראה וגילו ברעדה, וכתיב עבדו את ה' בשמחה באו לפניו ברננה. תא חזי, כל ב"נ דאתי למפלח ליה לקודשא בריך הוא, בצפרא ובפניא בעי למפלח ליה לקודשא בריך הוא.

415. When light appears in the morning, there is an awakening of the right side, CHESED, in the world. It behooves man then to cling to the right of the Holy One, blessed be He, and worship Him through prayer, for prayer brings power and strength from above, and draws blessings from the supernal deep, BINAH, to all the SUPERNAL worlds, whence blessings flow upon the lower beings. Thus, upper and lower are blessed through the service of prayer.

416. The service prayer should be performed before the Holy One, blessed be He, with gladness and singing, CHESED AND GVURAH, in order to include the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, between them, and to properly bring about unison TO ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "Know that Hashem He is Elohim" (Tehilim 100:3). This is the secret of unison in the secret of the service.

416. פולחנא דצלותא, דקא בעי בר נש למפלח קמי קודשא בריך הוא, בשמחה וברננה, לאכללא לכנסת ישראל בינייהו, ולבתר לייחדא יחודא בדקא חזי, דכתיב דעו בי ה' הוא אלקים, דא רזא דיחודא ברזא דפולחנא.

417. Nevertheless, man should worship the Holy One, blessed be He, with gladness and show joy in his service. Corresponding to the two, gladness and singing, are the two prayers and two daily offerings; of the two, gladness is in the morning and singing in the evening. Therefore, "The one lamb shall you offer in the morning, and the other lamb shall you offer at evening" (Bemidbar 28:4).

418. The evening service is therefore optional, since at that time she distributes prey among the legions. It is no time to be blessed but to deal sustenance. In the daytime, she is blessed by the two sides, CHESED AND GVURAH, in morning and evening with gladness and singing. At night, she gives the blessings to those who deserve it. Hence it says, "She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food to her household..." (Mishlei 31:15).

41. "Let my prayer be set forth before You like incense"

Rabbi Chizkiyah discusses the title verse, explaining why incense is burned during the morning and evening services. We learn that incense is a token of gladness and creates bonds between the Sfirot, removing death, accusations, and anger, so they will have no power over the world. Rabbi Chizkiyah then explains to us the significance of the "evening oblation", mentioned in the title verse.

The Relevance of this Passage

The mystical power associated with the burning of incense is ignited in these verses, helping to remove from our midst the dark influences of the prosecuting Angel of Death.

419. Rabbi Chizkiyah opened the discussion with the verse, "Let my prayer be set forth before You like incense; and the lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice" (Tehilim 141:2). HE ASKS: Why does it mention the "evening sacrifice" and not the morning service, for it does not say, 'Let my prayer be set in the morning'? HE ANSWERS: We have learned from the words, "Let my prayer be set forth before You like incense" that incense is a token of gladness, as it is written: "Oil and incense rejoice the heart" (Mishlei 27:9). Therefore, when he lit the candles, the priest used to offer incense, as it says, "When he dresses the lamps, he shall burn incense on it. And when Aharon lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn incense upon it" (Shemot 30:7-8). In the morning, HE BURNS INCENSE because of the joy brought by the season, AS MORNING IS A TIME OF JOY, and in the evening HE BURNS INCENSE to bring joy to the left side, as befits. Incense is ever a sign of joy.

420. Come and see how incense ties bonds BETWEEN THE SFIROT. It is attached above and below and removes death, accusations, and anger so they will have no power over the world, as it says, "And Moshe said to Aharon. Take a censer, and put fire in it from off the altar, and put on incense, and take it quickly... and ran... and made atonement for the people. And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed" (Bemidbar 17:11-13). For no evil aspect or accuser can exist before incense. Therefore, it brings gladness and connection among everything.

421. At the time of Minchah, when Judgment rests upon the world, David was intent upon that prayer OF THE INCENSE, as it is written: "Let my prayer be set forth before You like incense." This prayer which he offered removed the wrath of strict judgment which now ruled IN THE EVENING through the power of incense which rejects and removes wrath and any accusation in the world. Hence it says "evening sacrifice," for IT IS IN THE TIME OF MINCHAH THAT judgment has sway upon the world.

422. Come and see: When the Temple was destroyed, it was burned at the time of Minchah. Therefore it is written, "Woe to us! for the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out" (Yirmeyah 6:4). The evening shadows are the accusers in the world, and the wrath of judgment that are in wait at the time. We have therefore learned that it behooves man to pray with great intention at all prayers, but at Minchah more than the rest, since judgment then rests upon the world. This is why it was Yitzchak who instituted the prayer of Minchah, WHICH IS OF JUDGMENT AND THE LEFT, as we have already explained.

42. A formidable mountain

While walking, Rabbi Yosi, Rabbi Yehuda, and Rabbi Chizkiyah encounter a formidable mountain. Although Rabbi Yosi is initially afraid of the danger they may encounter, knowing that where danger is obvious, one should be afraid, the three continue on. Since all three are worthy of the Shechinah's protection, and knowing that demons and evil spirits will not attack a threesome, the companions are assured that no harm will come to them. They then discuss the verse, "The angel who redeemed me" Through their discourse, we learn that the "angel" is an allusion to the Shechinah. As long as man prays to God before he begins a journey, the Shechinah accompanies him and delivers him from harm.

The Relevance of this Passage

The protective Light from the righteous threesome of Rabbis Yosi, Yehuda, and Chizkiyah filters into our lives, safeguarding us from unseen negative forces and evil entities that can wreak havoc in our lives. The blessings of The Creator emanate from these words, giving us further protection in our journeys, both physical and spiritual.

423. While they were walking, they reached a mountain. Rabbi Yosi said: This mountain is formidable, let us not remain here but walk on. Rabbi Yehuda said: If you were solitary, I would advise it, for we have learned that he who walks alone on the road endangers his life, but this does not apply to three. Also, each of us is worthy OF PROTECTION, that the Shechinah will not depart from him.

424. Rabbi Yosi said: We have learned that a man should not rely on a miracle. We know this from Shmuel, as it is written: "How can I go? If Shaul hears it, he will kill me" (I Shmuel 16:2), and Shmuel was more worthy OF A MIRACLE than us. He said to him: Even so THAT HE WAS WORTHIER OF A MIRACLE THAN US, he was alone, and the danger was obvious, FOR IT WAS CERTAIN THAT SHAUL WOULD HEAR OF IT AND KILL HIM. But we are three, and there is no danger in sight, TO WIT, IT IS NOT CERTAIN. If it be evil spirits, DEMONS, we have learned that they do not appear before or hurt a threesome; if it is a robber, there are none here, since the mountain is far from inhabited places, and there are no people here, but there is fear of wild beasts here.

425. He opened the discussion saying: "The angel who redeemed (lit. 'redeems') me..." (Bereshheet 48:16). HE ASKS: It says "redeems," while it should have been 'who redeemed.' Why the present tense? HE REPLIES: This is because he abides always with people, and never abandons a righteous man. Come and see: The angel who redeems me is the Shechinah, who continually accompanies man, never turns from him as long as he observes the precepts of the Torah. A man should therefore be careful not to go out alone on the road. HE ASKS: What is 'alone'? HE ANSWERS: A man should be careful to keep the precepts of the Torah, so that the Shechinah shall not depart from him, and he will have to go alone, unaccompanied by the Shechinah.

426. Come and see: When a man sets out on his way, he should pray before his Master in order to draw the Shechinah upon him, and then go out on his way, joined by the Shechinah, who would redeem him on the way and save him in time of need.

427. It is written that Ya'akov said: "If Elohim will be with me," referring to the union with the Shechinah "and will keep me in this way" (Beresheet 28:20) to deliver him from any HARM. Ya'akov was solitary at the time, and the Shechinah walked before him. So much more for friends with the words of the Torah among them.

428. Rabbi Yosi said: What shall we do? If we stay here, the day declines and if we climb, it is a great and formidable mountain and I fear the wild beasts. Rabbi Yehuda said: I am amazed at you THAT YOU ARE SO AFRAID. Rabbi Yosi said to him: We have learned that a man should not rely on a miracle, since the Holy One, blessed be He, does not perform miracles at all times. He said to him: This is true for a lone man, but we are three. With words of the Torah between us, and the Shechinah with us, I have no fear.

429. While they were walking they saw a rock with a cave in it. Rabbi Yehuda said: Let us climb to that rock, for I see a cave in it. They went there and saw the cave. Rabbi Yosi said: I am afraid, lest this cave is a lair of beasts, which might harm us.

430. Rabbi Yehuda said to Rabbi Chizkiyah, I see that Rabbi Yosi is afraid. You might say that this is since he is a sinner, for whoever fears is a sinner, as it is written: "The sinners in Tzion are afraid" (Yeshayah 33:14). He is no sinner BUT A RIGHTEOUS MAN, and it is written, "But the righteous are bold as a lion" (Mishle 28:1). Rabbi Yosi said: It is because danger is obvious AND WHEREVER DAMAGE IS OBVIOUS ONE SHOULD BE AFRAID.

43. Three watches

Rabbi Yehuda, Rabbi Chizkiyah, and Rabbi Yosi enter a cave to rest for the night. They divide the night into three watches and begin discussing the verse, "I will sing the mercies of The Creator forever." We learn that Avraham is aligned completely with the attribute of Chesed. Therefore, God tested him so that he would be included in judgment, thus perfecting him. Another explanation reveals that this verse indicates God's kindness and truth to all creatures. We then learn that God revealed the secret of Faith to Avraham. Avraham in turn recognized that the world, the secret of Malchut, was created by judgment, but could not have endured without Chesed, mercy.

The discussion next turns to the verse, "In the beginning." We learn that this phrase includes the Female Principle and Chochmah as one. The first building of the world, the Female Principle, derived its existence from Chesed. On the second day it was included in Gvurah, thereby perfecting Zeir Anpin. After discussing the verse, "I have made a Covenant with My chosen", the rabbis speak of the verse, "I have sworn to David My servant." We're told that this oath is the secret of Faith and indicates that the Female Principle and Yesod will be separated only during the time of exile. During this joyless time, God finds pleasure only when Yisrael below study the Torah and sanctify the Holy Name.

Rabbi Yosi then opens a discussion of the verse, "Whereupon are its foundations fastened?" This question concerns the foundation upon which the seven pillars of the world rest. That is, if the universe rests on the seven pillars of the world, upon what do the seven pillars rest? There follows a discourse on "the foundation stone", the central point of the world found in Jerusalem, and we learn about the three watches of the night, during which the angels sing and chant praises to God.

The Relevance of this Passage

A delicate balance of judgement and mercy is attained within our souls, giving us the ability to share and love others in a pure and spiritual manner. Judgement, sweetened with the appropriate measure of mercy, is akin to a devoted parent reprimanding their child out of love and concern for the child's welfare. Because the universe reflects all of our behavioral actions towards others back at us, it is vital that we extend mercy and judgement in proper measure so that life treats us kindly in return.

431. RABBI YEHUDA said TO RABBI CHIZKIYAH, If harm is probable, it is so AND WE SHOULD BE AFRAID, but it is not probable FOR WE SEE HERE NO BEASTS WHICH COULD HARM US. And after we enter the cave, WE ARE SAFE for no evil will follow to harm us. THEREFORE IT IS SAID: "BUT THE RIGHTEOUS ARE BOLD AS A LION." They entered the cave. Rabbi Yehuda said: We shall divide the night into three watches. Each of us will stand guard at one watch of the night and we shall keep awake.

432. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion saying: "A Maskil of Eitan the Ezrachie" (Tehilim 89:1). This hymn was sung by the patriarch Avraham when he strove to serve the Holy One, blessed be He, by doing kindness with the people of the world, in making them all acknowledge that the Holy One, blessed be He, reigns over the land. He is called Eitan (lit. 'strong') since he was strongly attached to the Holy One, blessed be He.

433. "I will sing the mercies (Heb. chassadim) of Hashem forever" (Tehilim 89:1): HE ASKS: Why is singing come from the side of the pious (Heb. chassidim) WHO ARE OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, SEEING THAT SINGING COMES FROM THE LEFT COLUMN? HE ANSWERS: Here the left is included within the right. Therefore the Holy One, blessed be He, tried Avraham and tested him. We learned that Yitzchak was 37 at the time OF THE BINDING. Why does it say that He tried Avraham? It should have said that He tried Yitzchak. The reason it says that He tried Avraham is to make him be of Judgment, properly included in Judgment, SINCE HE WAS WHOLLY OF THE ATTRIBUTE OF CHESED. In this way will he be perfected. Therefore, "I will sing the Mercies of Hashem forever," SINCE HE WAS ALREADY INCLUDED OF THE LEFT COLUMN, WHENCE SINGING COMES FROM.

434. Another explanation for: "I will sing the Mercies of Hashem forever." These are the mercies that the Holy One, blessed be He, does by the world. "With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations" refers to the kindness and truth He confers upon all. It is the faith in the Holy One, blessed be He, that Avraham spread in the world, and caused Him to be mentioned on the tongue of all creatures. Therefore "with my mouth I will make known Your faithfulness."

435. The Holy One, blessed be He, revealed to Avraham the secret of faith, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. When he knew it, AVRAHAM knew that the world was created and existed for his sake, FOR HE IS THE SECRET OF CHESED. Hence, "For I have said: 'The world is built by love (lit. 'Chesed')'" (Tehilim 89:3). For when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the universe, THE NUKVA, He saw the world could not endure, so He extended His right hand, WHICH IS CHESED, and it endured. If He had not extended His right upon it, it would not have existed since this world, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, was created by Judgment AND THEREFORE CANNOT EXIST WITHOUT CHESED, as we have already explained.

436. We have learned that the secret of: "In the beginning" is that there are two principals in one. Though we said of it that it is the beginning from below upward, WHICH IS MALCHUT, "the beginning" also MEANS BEGINNING from above downward, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH; TO WIT, BINAH RETURNED TO BE CHOCHMAH. We have explained the word "In (the letter Bet) the beginning" as in the house (Heb. bet) of the Holy of Holies, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, THE HOUSE of the beginning, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH. The word "IN THE BEGINNING" includes THE NUKVA AND CHOCHMAH as one.

437. By this house, the world, THE NUKVA, was created, TO WIT, SHE IS BUILT AS A HOUSE FOR CHOCHMAH, BY RECEIVING FROM THE LEFT COLUMN AND THEREFORE LACKING IN CHASSADIM. Yet it exists only through the right, CHESED, FOR CHOCHMAH CANNOT EXIST WITHOUT CHESED. We have already explained that the word "Behibar'am (Eng. 'when they were created')" (Beresheet 2:4) has the same letters as 'BeAvraham' (Eng. 'in Avraham'), THE SECRET OF CHESED. Therefore it is written: "For I have said: 'The world is built by Chesed.'" The first building of the world, THE NUKVA, derived its existence from the light of the first day; NAMELY CHESED. Then on the second day, it was included within the left, WHICH IS GVURAH, and heaven, ZEIR ANPIN, was perfected by them, as it is written: "You do establish Your faithfulness in the heavens" (Tehilim 89:3).

438. Another explanation for: "You do establish Your faithfulness in the heavens" is that the heaven, ZEIR ANPIN, was established by Chassadim, and the secret of faith, THE NUKVA, was established by them, AS IT SAYS "THE WORLD IS BUILT BY CHESED." THUS, THE HEAVEN INSPIRED CHESED UPON THE NUKVA CALLED 'WORLD', AND HENCE IT IS SAID: "YOU DO ESTABLISH YOUR FAITHFULNESS IN THE HEAVENS." For THE NUKVA cannot be established save by heaven, ZEIR ANPIN.

439. "I have made a covenant with My chosen." THE COVENANT is the secret of faith CONFERRED UPON DAVID. Another explanation is that THE COVENANT is the righteous, YESOD, from whom blessings flow upon the lower beings. The holy living creatures, WHICH ARE ANGELS, are all blessed by the abundance poured upon the lower beings. Therefore it is written, "I have made a covenant with My chosen," FOR HE WILL BE WORTHY OF THE COVENANT.

440. "I have sworn to David My servant" (Tehilim 89:3). This oath is the secret of faith, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, which is always supported by the righteous, YESOD. This oath is forever, so they will never be separated, save at the time of exile WHEN THEY WILL BE SEPARATED, when the abundance of blessings is withheld, the secret of faith cannot be perfected and there is no joy. At night, also, no joys come before the King.

441. Though joys do not waken up AT NIGHT, angels stand and chant hymns outside the King's temple. At midnight, the awakening rises from below upward. The Holy One, blessed be He, then awakens all the celestial armies to weep, and strikes the firmament. There is trembling high and low.

442. He finds no pleasure save when there is awakening below to the Torah. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, and all the souls of the righteous listen joyfully to the sound, and He is pleased. Since the day the Temple was destroyed below, the Holy One, blessed be He, swore that He would not enter the celestial Jerusalem until Yisrael would enter the terrestrial Jerusalem, as it is written: "The Holy One in the midst of you: and I will not come into the city" (Hoshea 11:9), WHICH MEANS THAT "THE HOLY ONE IN THE MIDST OF YOU," NEVERTHELESS "I WILL NOT COME INTO THE CITY," WHICH IS THE CELESTIAL JERUSALEM, UNTIL YISRAEL SHALL ENTER THE TERRESTRIAL JERUSALEM .

443. All the singers stand outside THE TEMPLE and chant during the three watches of the night, WHICH CORRESPOND TO THE THREE COLUMNS, all singing certain praises. The hosts of heaven are all awakened by night and Yisrael by day. Sanctification is not recited above until the children of Yisrael recite it below, then all the heavenly hosts sanctify together the Holy Name. Hence, holy Yisrael are sanctified high and low. This is the secret of the verse, "You shall be holy: for I Hashem your Elohim am holy" (Vayikra 19:2).

444. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "Whereupon are its foundations fastened?" (Iyov 38:6). The Holy One, blessed be He, said this TO IYOV. For when He created the universe, THE NUKVA, He put it on pillars, the seven pillars of the world CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT, as it says "she has hewn out her seven pillars" (Mishlei 9:1). Upon what the pillars rest is unknown.

445. HE ANSWERS: It is a very deep and inscrutable secret that the world, THE NUKVA, was not created until He took a stone called "the foundation stone." The Holy One, blessed be He, took it and threw it into the abyss, where it was stuck upside down. From it the world, THE NUKVA, was planted. It is the central point of the world, where the Holy of Holies stands; NAMELY THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF THE NUKVA. It is alluded to by the verse, "who laid its corner stone" (Iyov 38:6), "a tried stone, a precious corner stone" (Yeshayah 28:16) as in "The stone which the builders rejected has become the head stone of the corner" (Tehilim 118:22). ALL THESE REFER TO THE SECRET OF THE FOUNDATION STONE.

446. Come and see: This stone was created from fire, wind and water. TO WIT, IT RECEIVES FROM THE THREE COLUMNS OF ZEIR ANPIN, and was hardened into one stone, standing upon the abyss. Sometimes, water flows from it and the deeps are filled. This stone stands as a sign in the middle of the universe. It is the stone which Ya'akov set and implanted for the world to expand and be established by. Hence the words: "And Ya'akov took a stone, and set it up for a pillar" (Bereshheet 31:45).

447. "And this stone, which I have set for a pillar" (Beresheet 28:22). HE ASKS: How could this stone be put there by Ya'akov, when if it was created in the beginning, when the Holy One, blessed be He, created the world? HE ANSWERS: He only put it there as a support for the high and low. Therefore it says, "Which I have set for a pillar," "I put" so it "shall be Elohim's house" (Ibid.), by putting here the upper storey; NAMELY, THAT HE DREW INTO IT THE SUPERNAL MOCHIN.

448. Come and see: This stone has seven eyes, as said: "Upon one stone are seven eyes" (Zecharyah 3:9). THE EYES ARE THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, AND WHEN CHOCHMAH IS REVEALED BY CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT OF THE NUKVA IT IS CALLED 'SEVEN EYES'. Why is it called a foundation (Heb. shetiyah) stone? Since the world was planted from it. The word 'shetiyah' contains the letters shat Yah (lit. 'Yah put'), for the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO IS BINAH CALLED YAH, has put it so that the world will be blessed by it, and indeed it is blessed by it.

449. Come and see when the sun sets, IN THE FIRST WATCH AT NIGHT, the Cherubs stand in this place, THE HOLY OF HOLIES, WHICH STANDS ON THE CENTRAL POINT, THE FOUNDATION STONE. They stand there by a miracle THROUGH THE LIGHTS OF BINAH, WHICH DO NOT BELONG TO IT, AND ARE THEREFORE CONSIDERED A MIRACLE. They beat their wings and spread them, and the sound of their wings' song is heard above. Then the angels, who chant at the beginning of the night, start to sing so that the Holy One, blessed be He, will be glorified above and below. What do the wings of the Cherubs chant? "Behold, bless Hashem, all you servants of Hashem... Lift up your hands in the sanctuary" (Tehilim 134:1-2). It is then time for the supernal angels to sing.

450. On the second watch, the Cherubs beat their wings above and the sound of their singing is heard. Then the angels of the second watch start to chant. What do the Cherubs' wings sing at that hour? "They who trust in Hashem shall be like Mount Tzion..." (Tehilim 125:1). It is then time for the angels of the second watch to sing.

451. On the third watch, the Cherubs beat their wings and chant hymns. They sing, "Haleluyah! Give praise, O servants of Hashem... Blessed be the name of Hashem...From the rising of the sun..." (Tehilim 113:1-3). Then all the angels of the third watch sing.

452. All the stars and constellations in the firmament start to sing ON THE THIRD WATCH, as it is written: "when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of Elohim shouted for joy" (Iyov 38:7), and "praise him, all you stars of light" (Tehilim 148:3), as all these stars of light play music upon the light; TO WIT, THROUGH SINGING LIGHT IS DRAWN.

453. When morning rises, the children of Yisrael follow them with their singing and the Holy One, blessed be He, is glorified from below and from above. Yisrael sing below by day and the supernal angels at night. Then Holy Name is perfected on all sides.

454. All the supernal angels and Yisrael below are strengthened by the stone we referred to. It rises above to be adorned by the fathers by day. By night, the Holy One, blessed be He, ZEIR ANPIN, comes to the Garden of Eden to be delighted by the righteous.

455. Happy are those who are established in their existence and study the Torah at night, since the Holy One, blessed be He, and all the righteous in the Garden of Eden listen to the voices of men who study the Torah, as it is written: "You that dwells in the gardens, the companions hearken for your voice: cause me to hear it" (Shir Hashirim 8:13).

456. Come and see: This stone is a precious stone, FOR IT WAS SWEETENED BY BINAH AND IS GOODLY AND WORTHY OF RECEIVING MOCHIN. This is the secret of the verse, "And you shall set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones" (Shemot 28:17). They are the arrangements of the precious stone, the setting of the goodly stone; TO WIT, THEY ARE THE SECRET OF THE MOCHIN OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH RECEIVED IN MALCHUT ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THREE TIMES FOUR WHICH AMOUNT TO TWELVE. For there is another stone, NAMELY MALCHUT THAT WAS NOT SWEETENED IN BINAH, of which it is written, "And I shall remove the heart of stone." "And I will put my spirit within you" (Yechezkel 36:26), WHICH MEANS THAT AS LONG AS THE HEART OF STONE IS NOT REMOVED, THE SPIRIT OF HASHEM DOES NOT DWELL IN US, SINCE IT IS NOT SWEETENED BY BINAH. IT IS ALSO CALLED "a tried stone, a precious corner stone" (Yeshayah 28:16).

457. In regard to this secret, it is written "tablets of stone" (Shemot 31:18), for this is where the stones were hewn, FROM THE PRECIOUS STONE. They are therefore named after this stone. This is the secret of the verse, "From thence the shepherd, the stone of Yisrael" (Beresheet 49:24), as we learned, THAT THIS IS TOO THE SECRET OF THE PRECIOUS STONE.

458. Rabbi Chizkiyah opened the discussion saying: "And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Yisrael, twelve" (Shemot 28:21). These are the supernal precious stones called the stones of the place, as it is written: "And he took of the stones of that place" (Bereshheet 28:11), as has been explained. THESE ARE THE SFIROT OF THE NUKVA, AND THE NUKVA IS CALLED PLACE. "And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Yisrael" as there are twelve tribes below, so there above, IN THE NUKVA, twelve tribes which are twelve precious stones. It is also written: "There the tribes go up, the tribes of Yah, for a testimony unto Yisrael" (Tehilim 122:4). This is the secret of the supernal Yisrael; NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN WHICH POURS THESE TWELVE UNTO THE NUKVA. They are all there "to give thanks to the name of Hashem" (Ibid.), WHICH IS THE NUKVA CALLED THE NAME OF HASHEM. Therefore it is written, "And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Yisrael."

459. Just as there are twelve hours in the day, THE TWELVE OF ZEIR ANPIN, so there are twelve hours at night, THE TWELVE OF THE NUKVA. The daytime ones are above, and the nightly below, THE TWELVE OF ZEIR ANPIN BEING ABOVE AND THOSE OF THE NUKVA BELOW, TO WIT, THEY RECEIVE FROM THE TWELVE OF ZEIR ANPIN WHICH ARE ABOVE. The ones correspond to the others. The twelve nightly hours are divided into three parts, THE THREE WATCHES WE MENTIONED. Numerous legions are stationed beneath them over various grades, all of them in charge by night. They first receive their food, AND THEN CHANT HYMNS, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "SHE RISES ALSO WHILE IT IS YET NIGHT, AND GIVES FOOD TO HER HOUSEHOLD..." (MISHLEI 31:15).

460. At midnight, there are two settings on the one side and two settings on the other side. A Supernal Spirit comes out from between them. Then, all the trees in the Garden of Eden start to sing and the Holy One, blessed be He, enters the Garden of Eden. This is described in the verse: "Then shall the trees of the wood sing for joy at the presence of Hashem, because he comes to judge the earth" (I Divrei Hayamim 16:33), as it is written: "With righteousness shall he judge the poor" (Yeshayah 11:4). For justice, ZEIR ANPIN comes in between them and the Garden of Eden is filled with it.

461. And a northern wind is stirred in the world and joy abounds, FOR AFTER THE BALANCING OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, NORTH IS CLOTHED BY SOUTH, AND CHOCHMAH BY CHASSADIM. THEN THERE IS JOY IN THE ILLUMINATION OF THE NORTH, THE LEFT COLUMN. HE EXPLAINS, The wind, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, blows at the perfumes, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, THROUGH WHICH THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH IS CLOTHED BY PERFUMES OF CHASSADIM WITHIN THE SPIRIT, and THE PERFUMES raise odor from below upward, and the righteous are adorned with their crowns MEANING THAT THEY RECEIVE MOCHIN, and enjoy the splendor of the shining mirror, ZEIR ANPIN.

462. Happy are the righteous who attain that supernal light and the light of the mirror which shines to all sides, RIGHT AND LEFT. Each of the righteous receives his appropriate share, according to his deeds in this world. Some of them are in shame before the light since their neighbor has received more to illuminate. This has already been explained.

463. The watches in the night ARE from the setting of night, several accusers are awakened to roam about the world and the ports OF LIGHTS are closed. THIS IS THE FIRST WATCH. Afterwards, DURING THE SECOND WATCH, all sorts OF EMISSARIES OF JUDGMENT ARE ROUSED as we explained, THAT THE SECOND WATCH PERTAINS TO THE LEFT COLUMN, THE NORTH WIND, FOR AS LONG AS IT IS NOT CONNECTED WITH THE SOUTH WIND, WHICH IS OF THE RIGHT, MANY JUDGMENTS WILL COME FROM IT. At midnight IN THE MIDDLE OF THE SECOND WATCH, the northern wind descends from above downward and holds on to night, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, until the end of the second watch.

464. Then, AT THE THIRD WATCH, the south side, CHESED, is aroused TO BE ATTACHED TO THE NORTH THROUGH THE STRENGTH OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN until morning. When morning comes, SOUTH AND NORTH ARE ALREADY ATTACHED TO THE NUKVA. Then the children of Yisrael come below with their prayer and request and raise her above TO ZEIR ANPIN until she ascends to be concealed among THE LIGHTS OF ZEIR ANPIN. TO WIT, SHE REDUCED HERSELF AND BECAME NULL TO THE GRADE OF ZEIR ANPIN, then receives blessings from the King's head.

465. She is blessed from the dew that flows UNTO ZEIR ANPIN from above. The dew is divided TO ILLUMINATE on several sides, BOTH RIGHT AND LEFT. AND THOUGH THE DEW ITSELF IS BUT THE LIGHT OF CHESED, myriads of grades are sustained by it, which will raise the dead in the future. This is the meaning of the verse: "Awake and sing, you that dwell in dust: for your dew is as the dew on herbs (lit. 'of lights')" (Yeshayah 26:19); TO WIT, the dew from the supernal lights which shine above.

466. While they were sitting, midnight arrived. Rabbi Yehuda said to Rabbi Yosi, Now that the north wind is awakened at midnight, it is time when the Holy One, blessed be He, longs for the voices of the righteous in this world who are occupied in the Torah. The Holy One, blessed be He, now listens to them. Let us not stop from studying the Torah in this place.

44. "The angel who redeemed," part two

The redeeming angel, Matatron, receives blessings and then bestows them upon the world. This angel is male when procuring blessings for the world, and is female when there is judgment in the world. The angel includes all the colors--red, white, and green--and has many shapes.

The Relevance of this Passage

The power of redemption, blessing, and balance between mercy and judgement and male and female energies, is made available to the readers of this ancient text. This effect is achieved through a mystical connection to the angel Matatron.

467. He opened the discussion saying: "The angel who redeemed me from all evil." We have studied it already, yet it is written, "Behold, I send an angel before you..." (Shemot 23:20). This is the angel who redeems the world, CALLED THE REDEEMING ANGEL, who protects people, AS IT SAYS "TO KEEP YOU IN THE WAY" (IBID.). It secures blessings for the whole world, first receiving them, and then providing them to the world; NAMELY THE ANGEL MATATRON. It is therefore written, "Behold, I send an angel before you" and "and I will send an angel before you" (Ibid. 33:2).

468. This angel is now male, now female. When procuring blessings for the world he is male and called male. As a male, he orders blessings for the female. And when there is judgment in the world, she is called female, and as a pregnant female, she is filled with judgments, and is then called a female. Therefore, now he is male, and now she is female. All this is one mystery.

469. It is likewise written: "And the bright blade of a revolving sword" (Beresheet 3:24); NAMELY there are angel messengers in the world which revolve and turn into several shapes, sometimes female and sometimes male, now Judgment and now Mercy, and all is the same matter. In the same manner, this angel has many shapes, and all the colors, WHITE, RED, AND GREEN, of the world, THE NUKVA, are in this place. This is the mystery of: "As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Hashem" (Yechezkel 1:28). THE APPEARANCE OF THE BOW, THE NUKVA, CONTAINS THE THREE COLORS. Since the angel has the three colors, he leads the world.

45. Three colors

Here we first learn that the colors white, red, and green correspond to the Right, Left, and Central Columns respectively. These colors are connected, they encircle the realm of Malchut, and they are reflected in the Malchut. The illumination of Malchut, we learn, is concealed from those below. Whoever tries to behold her will be rejected if they lack the appropriate merit. And whoever understands how to unite and adjust the three colors properly will be preserved in this world and in the next.

The Relevance of this Passage

The ability to balance and manage the three primal spiritual energy forces known as Right, Left and Central Columns is bestowed up the reader. The colors white, red, and green embody these three forces and they shine brightly in our souls so that our lives are more balanced, harmonious, and aligned with the spiritual structure of creation. This balance brings forth the wisdom to know when and how to receive for the purpose of sharing with others.

Tosefta (addendum)

470. Exalted, beloved men of intelligence, behold THE SOULS FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN. Litigants with a sailor stick, approach so you may know, THOSE OF THE LEFT COLUMN, WHENCE ARE JUDGMENTS. Those of you of intelligent eyes, OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHO GAINED CHOCHMAH RECEIVED THROUGH TEVUNAH, know that when it came up in the wish of the mystery of mysteries to issue forth three colors bound together, the white, red, and green, THE THREE COLUMNS: RIGHT IS WHITE, LEFT IS RED, AND THE CENTRAL GREEN, the three colors combined and mingled together. Then the lower shovel, THE NUKVA, was dyed and came out of these colors.

470. רַחֲמִי עֲלָאֵי, מְאִרִי דְּסַכְלָתְנוּ אֲסַתְבְּלוּ, הוֹרְמַנִי יְדִיעַן בְּקוּלְפֵי דְּסִיכְתָא, קְרִיבוּ לְמַנְדַּע, מֵאֵן מְנֻכּוֹן מְאִרִי דְּעֵינִין בְּסַכְלָתְנוּ, וְיַדַּע בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּסִלִיק בְּרַעוּתָא דְּרִזָּא דְּרִזִּין, לְאַפְקָא תְּלַת גִּוּוּנִין כְּחֲדָא כְּלִילִין, וְאֵינוֹן: חוּר וְסוּמְק וְיֶרוֹק, תְּלַת גִּוּוּנִין כְּחֲדָא אֲשַׁתְּלִיבָאן דָּא עִם דָּא, מְזַדְּוֹגֵן דָּא עִם דָּא, מְגִרּוּפִיא תְּתָאָה אֲצַטְבַּע, וְנִפְקָא מִגּוּ גִוּוּנִין אֵלִין.

472. The colors that are connected which encircle THE NUKVA, raise her up by day, and she descends by night. SHE IS LIKE a burning candle, WHOSE ILLUMINATION is seen by night, and by day it is concealed AND CANNOT BE SEEN. The light is hidden in 248 worlds, which all shine within her from above downward into 365 parts, which are concealed and covered from below.

473. Whoever solicits to attain her will break the wings WHICH CONCEAL HER and the hidden Klipot, and then open the gates. Whoever may look will behold with knowledge and intelligence as if from behind a wall, save the exalted faithful prophet Moshe, who saw it eye to eye above, where it is inconceivable.

474. Whoever did not merit it is rejected outside. Several battalions of angels are ready for him, to go out to him and escort him out so he will not behold the pleasure of the King. Woe to the wicked in the world, who have not the merit of beholding, as it says, "But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered..." (Bemidbar 4:20).

475. Rabbi Yehuda said: I was looking and, behold, through these lights, THE THREE COLORS, the souls of the righteous are looking. When they cleave to this place, THE NUKVA, the souls of the righteous look from among these lights. The colors, WHITE, RED, AND GREEN, go up to be included together. Happy is he who knows how to comprise and unite them all as one, and correct all where it is needed to be, high above. Then is man preserved in this world and in the World to Come.
(End of Tosefta)

471. וְכָל גּוֹזְנֵי אֱלֵיךְ, אֶתְחַזֵּן בְּהָאֵי, חֵיזוּ אֵינִי
לְאַסְתַּבְּלָא, כְּעֵינָא דְבְּרוּלְחָא אֶתְחַזֵּי בְּשַׁעְתָּא,

46. "The king's strength also loves judgment"

Rabbi Yosi explains that the title verse refers to God and the power by which He strengthened the realm of Malchut. This power was derived through judgment. Malchut, and therefore the congregation of Yisrael, was established through judgment--that is, the Mochin that includes Chochmah and Chassadim together.

The Relevance of this Passage

Spiritual balance between mercy and judgment is created within our souls and the world around us by virtue of the spiritual energy bottled up within the mystical words of this ancient text. Balance is critical if we are to live a life of fulfillment. For instance, if the scales are tipped towards the side of judgement, we'll find the world extra hard on us. The objective of this passage is to balance our ability to extend mercy and judgement to others so that we receive the same compassionate blend of judgment and mercy from the world.

476. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "The king's strength also loves judgment (or justice), you do establish equity" (Tehilim 99:4). "The king's strength also loves judgment" refers to the Holy One, blessed be He; NAMELY THE NUKVA WHO LOVES JUSTICE, WHICH IS MOCHIN INCLUDED OF RIGHT AND LEFT TOGETHER. "The king's strength" is the power with which the Holy One, blessed be He, strengthened THE NUKVA, which comes only through justice, as it is written: "The king by justice establishes the land" (Mishlei 29:4) BY BEING INCLUDED OF CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM TOGETHER, CHASSADIM ON THE RIGHT AND CHOCHMAH ON THE LEFT.

477. This is the reason SCRIPTURE SAYS, "The king's strength also loves justice," for the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, is not established save through justice, WHICH IS MOCHIN INCLUDED OF CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM TOGETHER. Since it is fed thereof, THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM and all the blessings it receives are from there, THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH. Therefore, "the king's strength also loves Judgment," for all it desires and craves is to receive justice. "You do establish equity (lit. 'equities')" is the secret of the two Cherubs below CALLED EQUITIES, who rectify and render the world inhabited.

47. "Haleluyah! Give praise, O servants of Hashem"

The rabbis explain that when one person praises another, the praise should be in accordance with that person's merit. This is because praise given that is not deserved becomes a reproach. Through a discussion of the title verse, we learn that the name 'Haleluyah' is among the highest kinds of praise to God since it contains both the highest name as well the praise itself. The rest of the title portion reveals the name of the praised and those who address the praise. This means that they, the servants of The Creator, praised the place called "the Name of Yah," Malchut. We're then told of the significance of the Yud ? in the Hebrew translation of the word let, and its relationship to "the drawing from the most hidden." The discourse then reveals the meaning of the words, "From the rising of the sun to its setting." This alludes to Zeir Anpin, whence the sun shines and Malchut, the place to which Faith is bound.

The Relevance of this Passage

The wisdom to offer praise to others with purity and in the appropriate measure is awakened in us. The Holy Name of "Haleluyah" and the letter Yud ? connect us to lofty levels in the spiritual atmosphere, arousing Light, blessing, and praise throughout our physical world [Malchut]. We are inspired to become worthy of praise through spiritual growth and transformation.

478. Rabbi Chizkiyah opened the discussion with the verse, "Haleluyah! Give praise, O servants of Hashem, praise the name of Hashem" (Tehilim 113:1). Let us examine this verse. After saying Haleluyah, why ADD "Give praise, O servants of Hashem" and then "praise the name of Hashem"? HE ANSWERS: We have so learned that whoever praises someone else should do so in accordance with his merits, and praise should be the extent of that person's merit. We have learned that he who gives him praise which he does not deserve, it is considered to be a reproach; TO WIT, his blame shall be revealed. Therefore, he who mourns another man should do so according to his merit and no more. For the praise might turn EVENTUALLY into blame. Praise should always agree with merits.

479. Come and see: "Haleluyah." There is here a supreme praise to the Master of everything, whom no eye can behold or know, who is most hidden. Who is He? THE NAME OF Yah, the highest name of all.

479. תא חזי, הללויה: הכא אית שבחא עלאה דמארי דכלא, אתר דלא שלטא ביה עינא למנדע ולאסתבלא, דאיהו טמירא דכל טמירין, ומאן איהו. י"ה, שמא עלאה על כלא.

480. Therefore "Haleluyah (lit. 'praise Yah')" contains a praise and a name in one. Here it is undisclosed since he says Haleluyah, yet does not mention the speaker, or to whom the word is addressed. As the name Yah is undisclosed, so is the praise, and I do not know who are those who address the praise. All should be thus covered in the supernal secret. After being concealed by the supernal secret, it is now revealed and said: "Give praise, O servants of Hashem, praise the name of Hashem," BY WHICH THE NAME OF THOSE WHO PRAISE AND THE PRAISED ARE MADE KNOWN. This is because the place is not as hidden as that supernal and most hidden of all, WHICH IS YAH, but is the place called name, NAMELY THE NUKVA, as it is written: "Whose name is called by the name of Hashem" (II Shmuel 6:2), WHICH MEANS THE NUKVA CALLED NAME.

481. The first one, YAH, is covered and undisclosed, while the second, THE NAME OF YAH, is both undisclosed and disclosed. And since it may be revealed, SCRIPTURE says that they praise the place CALLED THE NAME OF YAH. Who are those who praise? The servants of Hashem, who are worthy of praising this place, THE NUKVA.

482. "Blessed be the name of Hashem" (Tehilim 113:2). HE ASKS: Why does it say here "be (Heb. yehi-or Yud-Hei-Yud)"? HE REPLIES: This word is the secret of drawing from that supernal, hidden place we mentioned, Yah, unto the secret of the covenant, the lower Yud which resembles the upper Yud, the beginning is like the end.

483. Therefore 'Yud-Hei-Yud' is the secret of drawing from the most hidden, THE FIRST YUD OF YUD-ALEPH-HEI-DALET-VAV-NUN-HEI-YUD unto the lower grade, THE LAST YUD OF YUD-ALEPH-HEI-DALET-VAV-NUN-HEI-YUD. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE TWO YUD OF YUD-HEI-YUD. With its support the Creation prevailed, as it says, "Let (Heb. yehi) there be firmament," "let there be lights," and "let there be light."

484. In all the works above, THE FIRMAMENT, LIGHT AND THE LIGHTS, it is written Yud-Hei-Yud; in all the works below, THE EARTH, THE SEAS AND ALL THAT IS IN THEM, it does not say Yud-Hei-Vav, since the secret OF YUD-HEI-VAV, the drawing from the most hidden, THE FIRST YUD OF YUD-ALEPH-HEI-DALET-VAV-NUN-HEI-YUD, does not prevail save by the supernal works above and not those below.

485. Through this, the most Holy Name is blessed by everything. It is therefore written: "Blessed be (Yud-Hei-Yud) the name of Hashem." "From the rising of the sun" (Tehilim 113:3) is the supernal place whence the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, shines from, the place of the supernal undisclosed head, THE HEAD OF ARICH ANPIN.

483. ובגין כך יהי, רזא דאמשכותא מטמירא דכל טמירין, עד דרגא תתאה, ובמלה דא אתקיים כל עובדא דבראשית, כד"א יהי רקיע, יהי מאורות, יהי אור.

485. ובדא מתברך שמא קדישא בכלא, ועל דא כתיב יהי שם יי' מבורך וגו', ממזרח שמש עד מבואו, דא אתר עלאה, דקא נהיר מניה שמשא, ונהיר לכלא, ודא הוא אתר דרישא עלאה סתימא.

486. "To its setting" (Ibid.): To this place to which faith, THE NUKVA, is well bound, BEING THE PLACE OF THE UNISON BETWEEN ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, whence blessings issue forth to all, and the world, THE NUKVA, is fed thereof, as we learned. Hence this place, THE NUKVA, is fed and blessed from above. All depends upon awakening below, when the servants of Hashem are aroused while blessing the holy name, THE NUKVA, like we said. And when she is revealed, it is written, "Give praise, O servants of Hashem, praise the name of Hashem."

487. By this time, the morning broke and they came out of the cave, not having slept that night. They walked along the way and when they came out of the mountains, they sat down and prayed. They reached a village where they sat the whole day. At night, they slept until midnight when they rose to study the Torah.

48. "And he blessed them that day"

The discussion begins with an interpretation of the title verse. We are told that the phrase "that day" signifies the unity between Zeir Anpin and Binah. "By you" alludes to the unity of the blessings from both high and low grades. "Yisrael," we learn, is an allusion to Yisrael-Saba, who receives blessings from above and confers them on Malchut. The rabbis then explain why the name Efraim is mentioned first in the verse, "Elohim make you as Efraim and Menashe." The first explanation of the title verse concludes with the teaching that love of one's grandchildren often surpasses the love of one's own children.

Rabbi Yosi provides an additional explanation for the title verse, revealing that men are blessed first, since women are blessed only through the blessings of men.

The Relevance of this Passage

In order for a lamp to illuminate a darkened room, it must be connected to a source of energy. Likewise, for spiritual Light to brighten our darkened world, we must connect ourselves to the source of energy that powers the entire cosmos. The word "that day" indicates a connection between Zeir Anpin and Binah, two Sfirot that occupy the Upper Worlds. The phrases "By you" and "Yisrael" correspond to the connection between our souls and the entire physical dimension to Zeir Anpin. Spiritual current is now free to flow and illuminate all of mankind once these cosmic "power stations" are connected to one another.

488. "And he blessed them that day, saying (Heb. lemor), 'By you shall Yisrael bless'" (Beresheet 48:20). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of "that day"? It would have been enough to say just "And he blessed them." Also the word 'lemor' is normally spelled without Vav, but here there is an additional Vav. What is the reason for the difference?

489. HE ANSWERS: "And he blessed them that day" is a mystery. That day is the secret of the grade in charge over the blessings above, BINAH; "That day" is the day, ZEIR ANPIN, which is from the supernal place called "that (lit. 'he')" WHICH IS BINAH. "That day" INDICATES THAT there is no separation between "day" and "he." Wherever IT IS SAID "that day," there are two grades: the supernal grade, BINAH, and the lower, ZEIR ANPIN, when they are together; TO WIT, WHEN ZEIR ANPIN ASCENDED TO BINAH AND BECAME LIKE IT.

490. This is why when Ya'akov wished to bless Yosef's children, he blessed them all as one by the unison of high and low, so that their blessing would prevail. He then included them all together, saying: "By you shall Yisrael bless." What is "By you"? Assuredly this is the secret of unison. First he blessed from below upward, TO WIT, IN "AND HE BLESSED THEM THAT DAY," WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN AND BINAH TOGETHER, and then he descended into the middle TO ZEIR ANPIN and down TO THE NUKVA. 'Lemor' with Vav is the middle, SINCE VAV IS AN ALLUSION TO ZEIR ANPIN. He then went down, SAYING "by you," WHICH REFERS TO THE NUKVA. Thus THE BLESSING is well formed, being from below upward and from above downward.

491. "By you shall Yisrael bless": HE ASKS: What is Yisrael? HE ANSWERS: It is Yisrael Saba, ZEIR ANPIN OF BINAH. It does not say, 'Shall Yisrael be blessed' but "Shall Yisrael bless," WHICH MEANS HE WILL BLESS OTHERS. This is because Yisrael SABA receives blessings from above and then blesses all through the low grade, THE NUKVA, by saying "By you shall Yisrael bless, saying:" WHICH MEANS THAT THROUGH "BY YOU (HEB. BECHA)," BY THE NUKVA, YISRAEL SABA SHALL BLESS ALL.

492. "Elohim make you as Efraim and Menashe": He mentions Efraim first, since Efraim is called by the name of Yisrael. Whence do we know that? The tribe of Efraim left before the time was over of the Egyptian enslavement, by trying to force time and come out of exile, and their foes rose against them and killed them. It is written, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Yisrael" (Yechezkel 37:11). From this, it is understood that EFRAIM IS CONSIDERED AS YISRAEL, since it says "the whole house of Yisrael." Ya'akov therefore put Efraim before Menashe. Thus Efraim journeyed on the west side, which was his path, AS THE SHECHINAH IS ON THE WEST, WHO COMPRISES ALL YISRAEL. THEREFORE EFRAIM, BEING CALLED YISRAEL, WAS ON THE SIDE OF THE SHECHINAH.

493. Come and see: Why did the blessing he gave to Yosef's children precede that of his own children? HE ANSWERS: This teaches us that love of grandchildren surpasses the love of one's own children. Therefore, SINCE HIS LOVE FOR HIS GRANDCHILDREN IS STRONGER THAN THAT FOR HIS CHILDREN, he blessed them first.

494. "And he blessed them that day, saying": Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "Hashem has remembered us: He will bless, He will bless the house of Yisrael" (Tehilim 115:12). WHY IS IT WRITTEN TWICE "BLESS"? HE SAYS, "Hashem has remembered us: He will bless" refers to the men. "He will bless the house of Yisrael" refers to the women. For the men should be blessed first and then the women, since women are blessed only through the blessing of men. When the men are blessed, the women are blessed. THIS MAY BE DERIVED from the verse, if you wish "And shall make atonement for himself and for his house" (Vayikra 16:6). One should first atone for himself and only then for his house, SINCE MEN COME BEFORE WOMEN, so that she will be blessed from him.

495. Come and see: Women are blessed only through men, who are blessed first, and by their blessings they are blessed, AND NEED NO SPECIAL BLESSING FOR THEMSELVES. HE ASKS: How can we account for the words: "He will bless the house of Yisrael," SEEING THAT WOMEN NEED NO SPECIAL BLESSING FOR THEMSELVES? HE ANSWERS: The Holy One, blessed be He, gives an additional blessing to a married man, so that his wife may be blessed from him. So always, the Holy One, blessed be He, gives an extra blessing to a married man, and gives him two portions, the one for him and another for his wife. And he receives everything, his own, and his wife's portion. HENCE THERE IS A SPECIAL BLESSING FOR THE WOMEN "HE WILL BLESS THE HOUSE OF YISRAEL?," SINCE IT IS THEIR OWN PORTION. THOUGH MEN RECEIVE THEIR PORTION TOO, THEY LATER GIVE IT TO THEM, AS EXPLAINED.

496. "And he blessed them that day" is joined by the word 'lemor' (saying), with Vav. Here is an allusion to a firstborn son, SINCE VAV ALLUDES TO BIRTHRIGHT, as it is written: "Yisrael is my son, my firstborn" (Shemot 4:22) and "Efraim is my firstborn" (Yirmeyah 31:8). For this, there is an additional Vav, FOR EFRAIM WHO WAS INCLUDED WITHIN THAT BLESSING.

49. "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh"

Rabbi Chizkiyah discourses on the title verse, revealing that before descending to earth, all souls stand before God in the same shape and form that they will possess in this world. The title verse alludes to this fact, since God sees all before they are seen in the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

Before a soul descends into the physical dimension, it stands before The Creator and promises to complete its correction process, seeking redemption for past life iniquities by way of spiritual transformation. The negative angel Satan and the trappings of our seductive material world cause forgetfulness. We succumb to temptations that glorify our own ego and thus, break our commitment to The Creator. Here we can awaken remembrance of our divine promise and receive inspiration and passion to pursue the path of spiritual transformation.

497. Rabbi Chizkiyah opened the discussion saying: "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh; for in Your book all things are written" (Tehilim 139:16). This verse has been expounded in several places. Yet come and see: All the souls which have existed since the Creation of the world, all stand before the Holy One, blessed be He, before descending into the world, assuming the very shape in which they are seen in the world. In that same appearance of the person's body that stands in this world, so does it stand above.

498. When the soul is ready to descend into the world with the very shape it is about to have in this world, it stands before the Holy One, blessed be He, who adjures it to observe the precepts of the Torah and never transgress them.

, דְּנִשְׂיָן לֹא מִתְבָּרְכֵן אֲלֵא מְגוּבְרִין, כִּד אֲתִבְרְכֵן אִינוּן בְּקִדְמִיתָא, וּמְהֵאֵי בְרַכְתָּא מִתְבָּרְכֵן. אֲלֵא בְּמֵאֵי אֻקְיָמְנָא יְבָרַךְ אֶת בֵּית יִשְׂרָאֵל, אֲלֵא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא יְהֵב תּוֹסַפֶּת בְּרַכְּאָן לְדְכוּרָא דְנָסִיב, בְּגִין דְּמִתְבָּרְכָא מֵינִיָּה אֲתָתָא וְכֵן בְּכֹל אֲתֵר, יְהֵיב קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא תּוֹסַפֶּת בְּרַכְּאָן לְדְכוּרָא דְנָסִיב, בְּגִין דְּמִתְבָּרְכָא מֵהוּא תּוֹסַפֶּת דְּבְרַכְּאָן. כִּיּוֹן דְּאֲנָסִיב בִּינִי יְהֵיב לִיָּה תְרִין חוּלְקִין, חֵד לִיָּה וְחֵד לְנוֹקְבִיָּה, וְאִיָּהוּ, נְטִיל כְּלָא, חוּלְקִיָּה וְחוּלְקִיָּה נּוֹקְבִיָּה.

499. Whence do we know that THE SOULS stand before Him? From the verse: "As Hashem, the Elohim of Yisrael lives, before whom I stood" (I Melachim 17:1), stood assuredly BEFORE BEING CREATED, as has been explained. Therefore, "Your eyes did see my unshaped flesh" before it was seen in the world; "for in Your book all things are written" as all the souls in their very shapes are recorded in a book. "The days also in which they are to be fashioned" (Tehilim 139:16), indeed they are fashioned, as explained, TO WIT, THEY ARE MADE A GARMENT TO WEAR; "and there is one not one among them" (Ibid.), AS NOT ONE DAY in this world could stand properly before its Master.

499. ומנ"ל דקיימין קמיה, דכתיב חי יי אשר עמדתי לפניו, עמדתי ודאי, והא אוקמוה. ובג"כ גלמי ראו עיניך, עד לא יתחזי בעלמא. ועל ספרך כלם יכתבו, דהא כל נשמתי, בהוא דיוקנא דלהון, בלהו בספרא בתיבין. ימים יצרו, הא אוקמוה יצרו ודאי, ולא אחד בהם, בהאי עלמא למיקם בקיומא דמאריהון, כדקא חזי.

50. "The measure of my days, what it is?"

The discussion opens to reveal that the days of the righteous who gain merit through good deeds are blessed from Binah. We're also told that the phrase "my end" indirectly alludes to David. Rabbi Yehuda then states that the title verse relates to the seventy years that were taken from Adam and apportioned to David. We learn that David corresponds to Malchut, upon whom the seven Sfirot shine. David wished to know why the rest of the supernal lights had light of their own while he did not--he was, however, denied permission.

The Relevance of this Passage

The quality and length of one's days is directly affected by the deeds and degree of spiritual change a person seeks and attains in his lifetime. Upon the merit of the righteous, we draw blessings of long life from above [Binah] and shower them upon the entire world [David, the embodiment of Malchut]. We are inspired to use this Light and increased longevity to accomplish our spiritual purpose and correction.

500. Come and see that when a man has merit in this world through good deeds, his days are blessed above from the place called "the measure of days" (Tehilim 39:5), WHICH IS BINAH. He opened the discussion saying: "Hashem, make me to know my end, and the measure of my days, what it is" (Ibid.). This verse has already been explained, yet "my end" is the end of the right, which is connected to David. "The measure of my days" is in charge of his days, WHICH IS BINAH.

, יומין דב"ג, כד זכי בהאי עלמא בעובדין טבאן, יומין דיליה אתברכאן לעילא, מההוא אתר דאיהו מרת יומוי. פתח ואמר הודיעני יי קצי ומרת ימי מה היא וגו', האי קרא אוקמוה, אבל תא חזי, קצי: דא קץ הימין, דאיהו מתקשר ביה ברוד. ומרת ימי מה היא, דא איהו דאתמני ממש על יומוי.

501. Rabbi Yehuda said: I have heard from Rabbi Shimon that this verse talks about the days that were portioned from Adam, seventy years. For we have learned that David had no life whatsoever, but the seventy years given him by Adam.

501. א"ר יהודה, הא שמענא מר' שמעון, דהאי קרא אתמר, על אינון יומין דאתגזרו עלוי מאדם קדמאה, דאינון ע'. דהא אתמר, דחנין כלל לא הוו ליה, אלא דיהיב ליה אדם מאינון יומין דיליה, שבעין שנין.

502. It is a mystery THAT THE FIRMAMENT IS a curtain WHICH CORRESPONDS TO MALCHUT, which serves no purpose, since the moon, MALCHUT, has no light of her own. THE SECRET IS THAT DAVID, WHO CORRESPONDS TO MALCHUT, HAS NO LIFE. Seventy years shine upon her, UPON MALCHUT, on all her sides, BEING THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT OF ZEIR ANPIN, EACH INCLUDES OF TEN, WHICH ALTOGETHER AMOUNT TO SEVENTY. This is the life of David. He therefore desired to learn from the Holy One, blessed be He, this secret of why the moon has no life of her own, and wanted to know of her root.

503. "And the measure of my days, what it is": This is a supernal, undisclosed grade, BINAH, CALLED THE MEASURE OF MY DAY, since it is situated over all the days which form the life OF MALCHUT, AS CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT ARE DRAWN FROM BINAH, a place which shines upon everything. "I will know how frail I am" (Tehilim 39:5). David said: Let me know wherefore I have not MY OWN light, and cannot be like the rest of the supernal lights, which have THEIR OWN lives. Why MY LIGHT IS frail, and wherefore it is withheld from me. This is what David desired to know, but was not given permission to know.

503. וּמִדַּת יָמֵי מַה הִיא, דָּא הוּא דְרֵגָא עֲלָאָה סְתוּמָא, דְּאִיהוּ קְיֻמָּא עַל כָּל אֵינֹן יוּמִין, דְּאֵינֹן חֵיִין דִּילָהּ, אַתְר דְּנִהוּר לְכָלָא. אֲרַעָה מַה חֲדַל אָנִי: אָמַר דָּוִד: אֲנִדַּע עַל מַה חֲדַל אָנָא נְהוּרָא מִגְרָמִי, וְאַתְמַנַּע מִנִּי, כְּשָׂאֵר כָּל אֵינֹן נְהוּרָאִין עֲלָאִין דְּאִית לֹון חֵיִין לְכָלָהוּ, וְאָנָא עַל מַה אָנָא חֲדַל, וְעַל מַה אַתְמַנַּע מִנִּי. וְדָא הוּא דְבַעָא דָּוִד לְמַנְדַּע, וְלֹא אַתְיָהִיב לִיה רְשׁוּתָא לְמַנְדַּע.

51. All blessings were given to this grade

Malchut is called "a cup of blessing," because although she has no light of her own, all the blessings, joy, and goodness are in it and issue from her. All the Sfirot are included in Malchut, and she possesses all the supernal blessings. We therefore recite the Hallel prayer to praise Malchut. The three grades of the Hallel are the pious, the righteous, and the Congregation of Yisrael, corresponding to the right, left, and central Columns.

The Relevance of this Passage

The supernal blessings embedded into the world of Malchut are unleashed in all their splendor. The balance and harmony of the Three Column System, and the energy aroused through the prayer, connection known as Hallel, are instilled within us as our eyes make contact with the mystical verses composing this passage.

504. Come and see: All the supernal blessings were given to this grade, MALCHUT, so it would bless everything. And though it has not its own light, yet all the blessings, joy and goodness are in it, and issue from it. It is therefore called "a cup of blessing," an actual blessing, as it says, "The blessing of Hashem, it makes rich" (Mishlei 10:22), AS THE BLESSING OF HASHEM IS MALCHUT. It is therefore written: "And full with the blessing of Hashem: possess you the west and the south" (Devarim 33:23).

504. תָּא חֲזִי, כָּל בְּרַכָּאן עֲלָאִין, כְּלָהוּ אַתְמַסְרוּ לְהָאִי דְרֵגָא, לְבְרַכָּא לְכָלָא. וְאֵע"ג דְּלִית לָהּ נְהוּרָא מִגְרָמָה, כָּל בְּרַכָּאן, וְכָל חִידוֹ, וְכָל טִיבוֹ, כְּלָהוּ קְיֻמִּין בְּהּ, וּמְנָה נַמְקִי, וְעַל דָּא אַתְקְרִיאת כּוּס שְׁל בְּרַכָּה. וְאִקְרִי בְּרַכָּה מִמֶּשׁ, כְּמַה דְּכְתִיב בְּרַכַּת ה' הִיא תַעֲשִׂיר, וְעַל דָּא כְתִיב וּמְלֹא בְרַכַּת ה' יָם וְדָרוֹם יִרְשָׁה.

505. Hence MALCHUT has a residue of all THE SFIROT, SINCE THEY ARE ALL INCLUDED WITHIN HER, and she is filled by them all and has something from them all. She is blessed from supernal blessings, which were handed to her to confer. HE ASKS: Whence do we know that? HE REPLIES: Rabbi Yitzchak said: Ya'akov blessed Yosef's sons from this place, which was given all the blessings to confer, as it says, "And you shall be a blessing" (Bereshheet 12:2), WHICH MEANS HE WILL MERIT MALCHUT, THE SECRET OF BLESSING, AND THEN from now on the blessings were delivered to you, SINCE ALL BLESSINGS ARE IN THE HANDS OF MALCHUT.

505. וּבְגִין כֵּן אֵית לָהּ בְּכָלָהּ שְׁנוּר, וּמְכָלָהּ אַתְמַלִּיא, וּמְכָלָהּ אֵית בְּהּ, וְאַתְבְּרַכָּא מְכָל אֵינֹן בְּרַכָּאן עֲלָאִין, וְאַתְמַסְרוּ לָהּ בְּרַכָּאן לְבְרַכָּא, מְנַלְן, דְּאָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, יַעֲקֹב בְּרִיךְ לְבִנָּוֵי דְיוֹסֵף, מֵאַתְר דָּא דְכָל בְּרַכָּאן אַתְמַסְרוּ בִּידֵיהּ לְבְרַכָּא, כְּד"א וְהִיא בְּרַכָּה, מִכָּאן וְלֵהֲלָאָה בְּרַכָּאן אַתְמַסְרוּ בִּידְךָ.

506. Come and behold: in the same manner SHE IS ESTABLISHED BY THE SEVEN SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN, we bless and praise this name, MALCHUT, and hence the Hallel (lit. 'praise') prayer we recite during certain days. Rabbi Chiya said: We need three grades to the Hallel: the pious, the righteous and Yisrael. The pious are on the right, the righteous on the left and Yisrael on all sides, since the children of Yisrael comprise all, BEING THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH INCLUDES THE TWO COLUMNS RIGHT AND LEFT. THEY CORRESPOND TO THE THREE COLUMNS, WHICH MALCHUT RECEIVES FROM ZEIR ANPIN, THOUGH SHE HAS NOTHING OF HER OWN. Therefore the praise of the Holy One, blessed be He, MALCHUT, was raised above THE SFIROT. Also, wherever the children of Yisrael praise the Holy One, blessed be He, from below, THAT IS, RAISE MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS), His glory is elevated throughout THE SFIROT.

52. The sound of a wheel rolling

The powers appointed over punishment and reward turn the wheel continually. The sound of the chirping of the two birds, Chochmah and Binah, joins with the sound of the wheel, illuminating the lights described in the poem for Shabbat day. Blessings are drawn by a whisper from the Right Column to the Central Column through the sound of the Shofar or ram's horn. When the turning wheel, the Central Column, is filled with Chesed, Chochmah is clothed with Chassadim and ceases to whisper, shining fully. When someone has merit, the wheel brings the illuminations of the three columns under the power of the right, and that person enjoys the illumination of supernal blessings. However, the wheel draws judgment upon he whom does not deserve supernal blessings.

The Relevance of this Passage

Conversing in the lyrical language of metaphor, the Zohar describes the intimate connection between human behavior, the cosmos, the concepts of punishment and reward, and the spiritual tools of the Torah that can help one draw blessing into their life and remove judgments. By virtue of this discourse, the energy of blessing and the cleansing power of the Light fill our lives so that judgement and mercy shine upon us in perfect measure. Tosefta (addendum)

507. The sound of a wheel rolling from below upward, closed Chariots roll about, a pleasant voice rises and falls, roams about the world. The sound of a Shofar is heard through the depth of the grades and the wheel turns round.

508. Two shovels are placed, THE POWERS APPOINTED OVER PUNISHMENT AND REWARD, DRAWN to the right and left, included within each other by two colors, the one white, and the other red. Both turn the wheel up. When it turns to the right, the white ascends and when it turns to the left, the red descends. The wheel keeps turning and never rests.

509. Two birds, CHOCHMAH AND BINAH OF THE NUKVA, go up and chirp, the one, CHOCHMAH, to the south and the other, BINAH, to the north, and soar in the air. TO WIT, THEY SHINE ONLY UPON THE SIX EXTREMITIES OF CHOCHMAH AND BINAH CALLED AIR. The chirping OF THE BIRDS, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, and the pleasant sound of the wheel, THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, join together and then: "A Psalm, a poem for the Shabbat day" (Tehilim 92:1). TO WIT, WHEN THEY JOIN THE LIGHTS ILLUMINATE WHICH ARE DESCRIBED IN THE POEM FOR THE SHABBAT DAY. All the blessings, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, are drawn by a whisper, clothed by the pleasantness OF THE WHEEL, WHICH IS THE RIGHT COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS CHASSADIM through the love of the sound of the Shofar, WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN OF ZEIR ANPIN.

510. In order to receive the blessings, SO THAT CHOCHMAH WILL BE CLOTHED BY CHASSADIM, the blessings go down from above, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, to be treasured deep inside the well, THE NUKVA; TO WIT, IT CANNOT SHINE WITHOUT CHASSADIM. The spring from the well does not cease to whisper, WHICH MEANS IT DOES NOT ILLUMINATE, until the turning wheel is filled, WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, THE PRINCIPAL THAT TURNS THE WHEELS.

510. לְקַבְּלָא אֵינוֹן בְּרַכָּאן, נַחְתִּין מִלְעֵילָא לְתַתָּא,

511. Of the two turning shovels, the one to the right, WHICH ROLLS THE THREE COLUMNS UNDER THE POWER OF THE RIGHT, cries loudly, saying, the illumination of the lights which ascend and descend, SINCE BEING RIGHT, ITS ILLUMINATION GOES FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD, the two thousand worlds, CHOCHMAH AND BINAH CALLED THOUSANDS AND DRAWN FROM THE TWO COLUMNS RIGHT AND LEFT, shine! The middle world inside them, DA'AT, DRAWN FROM THE CENTRAL COLUMN, shine by the light of your Master! All those have eyes; TO WIT, THOSE WORTHY OF ATTAINING CHOCHMAH CALLED EYES, look and open your eyes, to attain this light, this delight. These are the blessings which are drawn from above. When someone has merit, the wheel goes up and turns to the right. TO WIT, IT BRINGS THE ILLUMINATIONS OF THE THREE COLUMNS UNDER THE POWER OF THE RIGHT, and brings and draws them upon he who achieved it, and he takes pleasure in the supernal luminous blessings. Happy are those who attained them.

53. "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you"

Rabbi Aba first discourses on the verse, "He turned to the prayer of the lonely" He explains that God accepts all public prayers, whether they are from righteous or sinful people. However, when a solitary man offers a prayer to God, he becomes subject to scrutiny. God examines that man's sins and virtues. Therefore, we're told, a man should say his prayers in public. Another explanation for this verse interprets it as a reference to Ya'akov, who is included within the many. Therefore, his prayer is like a public prayer.

The discourse then reveals the meaning and significance of the word "called" (Heb. vayikra) in a number of contexts. We learn that when Ya'akov called for his sons, they appeared, accompanied by the spirit of the Shechinah. The title verse, we're further told, indicates that Ya'akov commanded his sons to bond themselves to their supernal roots in Malchut, so that he could draw the secret of wisdom upon them. Ya'akov then quoted the title verse and told them of the exile that would occur when the Yisrael entered the Holy Land.

The Relevance of this Passage

The power of unity and harmony between people underscores this passage of Zohar. When people congregate in love and unity to make connections with the Light of The Creator, the most sinful soul among the group will see his prayer ascend to the same lofty heights as the most righteous soul among the group, such is the power of unity. By connecting us to Ya'akov, who embodies the collective souls of humankind, this passage ensures that all our prayers will be considered to have been made in public and thus, will reach the same majestic heights as the prayers of Ya'akov.

513. "And Ya'akov called to his sons, and said: 'Gather yourselves together...'" (Bereshheet 49:1). Rabbi Aba opened the discussion saying: "He turned to the prayer of the lonely and did not despise their prayer" (Tehilim 102:18). This verse has already been explained, yet the friends found it difficult as to why it says "turned" when it should have been 'listened' or 'hearkened.'

513. ויקרא יעקב אל בניו ויאמר האספו וגו', רבי אבא פתח ואמר, פנה אל תפלת הערער ולא בזה את תפלתם, האי קרא אוקמוה, ואקשו ביה חבריאי, פנה, הקשיב מבעי ליה, או שמע, מאי פנה.

514. HE ANSWERS: All the prayers in the world, THAT IS, THE PUBLIC PRAYERS, are considered prayers, but the prayer of a solitary man does not enter before the holy King, save through great effort. For before the prayer enters to be adorned in its place, the Holy One, blessed be He, examines it and searches that man's sins and virtues. He does not do this to the prayers of the many, and though some of the prayers come not of the righteous, yet they all come before the Holy One, blessed be He, and He does not regard their sins.

515. Therefore, "He turned to the prayer of the lonely." It means that He turned the prayer and examined every side to find out with what mind it was offered, who is the man who prayed and what his deeds were like. A man therefore should say his prayers in public. Why? Since He "did not despise their prayer," though not all are offered with devotion and a willing heart.

516. Another explanation for: "He turned to the prayer of the lonely": IT SIMPLY MEANS THAT HE ACCEPTS HIS PRAYER, ONLY THAT THIS IS THE INDIVIDUAL WHO BECOMES PART OF THE MANY, AND THEREFORE HIS PRAYER IS AS A PUBLIC PRAYER. Who is the individual, who is included within the many? He is said to be Ya'akov, who is included within the two sides, RIGHT AND LEFT, AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK. He called to his sons and prayed for them. What is the prayer which is wholly accepted above? That Yisrael shall not perish in exile.

517. When Ya'akov sent for them, the Shechinah departed from him, as was already explained. Come and see: When Ya'akov called for his sons, Avraham and Yitzchak appeared there with the Shechinah upon them. The Shechinah rejoiced in Ya'akov, that he would be united with the fathers, to become a Chariot together with their souls.

518. When Ya'akov opened the discussion saying: "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the latter end of days," the latter end being the Shechinah, THE LAST OF THE SFIROT, BY MENTIONING "THAT WHICH SHALL BEFALL YOU IN THE LATTER END OF DAYS," HE MENTIONED THE EXILE. The Shechinah was saddened and departed. Later, his sons brought her back by the unison created by the words they uttered, "Hear, O Yisrael..." (Devarim 6:4). Then Ya'akov stayed her and said: 'Blessed be the name of the glory of His sovereignty for evermore.' The Shechinah then settled in her place.

519. "And Ya'akov called": HE ASKS: What call is this? HE REPLIES: This call establishes their place, MALCHUT CALLED PLACE, FOR WHEN HE CALLED THEM HE CONNECTED THEM TO THEIR ROOT; to establish them above IN THEIR ROOT, and below IN THIS WORLD. Come and see, wherever "calling" is mentioned, it is always in the same way, as it is written: "And Moshe called Hoshea son of Nun, Yehoshua" (Bemidbar 13:6), IN ORDER to secure his place, WHICH IS MALCHUT, where it should be and connect him to it. It also says, "And he called his name Ya'akov" (Beresheet 25:26), and "and called it El, the Elohim of Yisrael" (Beresheet 33:20), thus establishing this place through the name he gave it, as naming brings securing AND STRENGTHENING.

520. You may ask about the verse: "And called mightily to Elohim" (Yonah 3:7), and "I called from my sorrow unto Hashem" (Yonah 2:3), WHAT ESTABLISHING IS HERE? HE ANSWERS: Assuredly THE CALLING HERE connects and establishes it above. How so? The arranging of the praises of his Master and all the words of prayer give strength and might to his Master, thus showing that all depends upon Him and not on any other place. Hence, THE CALLING HERE brings endurance. In the same manner "Ya'akov called to his sons," thus wholly establishing them, and also "Hashem called (Heb. vayikra) to Moshe" (Vayikra 1:1), THUS establishing him in his place.

521. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Why is the Aleph in the word 'vayikra' small, IF IT IS SUPPOSED TO INDICATE EXISTENCE AND STRENGTH? He said to him: Moshe was established in wholeness THROUGH THE CALLING, but not completely, since he abstained BECAUSE OF THIS from his wife. THEREFORE THE ALEPH IS SMALL. In ancient books, it is said that THE SEPARATION FROM HIS WIFE is a praise to him AND DOES NOT DIMINISH HIM. But we have learned that he separated FROM HIS WIFE AND CLOVE above, when he had to connect both above and below, TO WIT, TO HIS WIFE TOO. Then would he be perfect. THE SEPARATION FROM HIS WIFE IS THEN CONSIDERED AS DIMINISHING, TO WHICH THE SMALL ALEPH ALLUDES. Also, the small Aleph indicates the small place it came from; TO WIT, THE CALLING IS FROM THE SMALL PLACE, MALCHUT, which is great when united above WITH ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF MOSHE. THEREFORE "HASHEM CALLED TO MOSHE" TO MAKE IT GREAT.

522. "And said": HE ASKS: THE WORDS "AND SAID: GATHER YOURSELVES" MEAN THAT THEY WERE NOT WITH HIM THEN. What means "and said"? TO WHOM DID HE THEN ADDRESS THE WORDS? HE ANSWERS: as in the verse "If you shall say in your heart" (Devarim 7:17), he whispered them; TO WIT, HE ADDRESSED UPWARDS THE WORDS "GATHER YOURSELVES," AND NOT TO HIS SONS. "GATHER YOURSELVES": HE ASKS: IF HE TOLD THE MESSENGERS TO GATHER HIS SONS, he should have said 'Gather' instead of "Gather yourselves," as in "Gather my pious ones together" (Tehilim 50:5). HE ANSWERS: It is clear to us that "Gather" is from a high place; TO WIT, HE TOLD THEM TO GATHER THEMSELVES TO THEIR SUPERNAL ROOTS WITHIN MALCHUT, SO THAT THEY WOULD BE GATHERED into a complete bond, and union. "That I may tell you": HE ASKS: What does it mean? HE REPLIES: It is the secret of Wisdom; TO WIT, "I MAY TELL YOU" MEANS THAT HE WILL DRAW UPON THEM THE SECRET OF WISDOM.

523. Rabbi Yosi asked Rabbi Shimon, "I may tell you," "he may tell" or "they may tell" are all DERIVED FROM "TELL" (HEB. HAGADAH), which we learned to be of the secret of Wisdom. Why does this word contain the secret of Wisdom? He said to him: It is because the word is spelled with Gimel and Dalet without division between them, WHICH HINTS AT THE WHOLE UNISON, FOR GIMEL IS THE SECRET OF YESOD AND DALET THE SECRET OF MALCHUT. It is the secret of wisdom that a word is perfected by the secret of the letters GIMEL AND DALET, because they are in THE SECRET OF Wisdom. But Dalet without Gimel brings no perfection, and also Gimel without Dalet, since they are connected to each other with nothing dividing them, and whoever separates them, brings death unto himself. This is the secret of Adam's sin, THE DRAWING OF LIGHT OF MALCHUT FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD AND SEPARATING HER FROM YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, AND DALET FROM GIMEL.

524. Therefore, hagadah (telling) is a word which pertains to the secret of Wisdom, and though there may be Yud between Gimel and Dalet, LIKE IN "VE'AGIDAH (THAT I MAY TELL)," there is no separation and all is connected into one knot, SINCE YUD ALSO ALLUDES TO YESOD. Therefore, this is surely the meaning of this word. HERE TOO: "That I may tell you" is the secret of Wisdom. He wished to reveal the outcome of Yisrael's deeds, NAMELY THE SECRET OF THE END.

525. You may say that he did not reveal what he wanted to reveal. Why then are the words of perfect Ya'akov written in the Torah, SEEING THAT they were belied later and were not perfected? Assuredly they were perfected, he revealed whatever was needful for him to reveal, and he concealed, revealing outwardly and withholding internally. A word of the Torah can never be defective.

526. Everything in the Torah is undisclosed, since the Torah is the perfection of all, perfection above and below, not a word or a letter in the Torah is defective. Ya'akov said whatever he had to say, but he revealed and concealed. From what he wanted to reveal, he did not render defective not one letter.

527. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yosi sat one day at the gate of Lod. Rabbi Yosi said to Rabbi Yehuda, We know that Ya'akov blessed his sons from the verse: "And blessed them" (Beresheet 49:28), but what are their blessings? He said to him: these are the blessings he blessed them, such as "Yehuda you are he whom your brethren shall praise," "Dan shall judge his people" and "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat" (Beresheet 49).

528. But he did not reveal that which he wanted to reveal, for he wanted to reveal the end to them. It has been explained that there is an end of the right and an end of the left. He wanted to tell them of the end OF THE RIGHT, so that they will be kept and be purified from the foreskin OF THE END OF THE LEFT. What he revealed to them pertained to when they came to the Holy Land. But he did not disclose other things openly; they are hidden within the Torah in this portion of Ya'akov and in these blessings.

54. "Reuven, you are my firstborn"

The discussion first reveals that the title verse indicates that Ya'akov placed Reuven's blessings in the hands of God to hold until Reuven was worthy of them.

Rabbi Elazar then comments on the verse, "Prophecy to the wind," revealing that it alludes to the lower and upper awakening of wisdom.

Rabbi Shimon then explains why God brings souls into the world knowing that they will one day die. We also learn that when the soul ascends to be attached to Malchut, it becomes perfected and Malchut and Zeir Anpin are united.

Finally, we are told that when Ya'akov departed from the world, the Shechinah was in front of his bed. Seeing this, he gathered his sons around her and he blessed his sons.

The Relevance of this Passage

Sometimes a person performs a positive action, but their previous sins create a black hole of negativity that consumes their rewards. However, the Light that we arouse in life can be entrusted into the hands of The Creator until such time that we cleanse ourselves of our negativity. Then we can receive our recompense. It's interesting to note that the Hebrew word for sin also means "to give over." This passage ensures that our Light is given over to The Creator for safekeeping, as opposed to the dark forces that seek to nourish from it. The power of Ya'akov's blessings, plus the energy of the Shechinah and the uniting of our Lower World with the Upper, takes place when our eyes allow the Light of these mystical verses to shine upon our souls. Other benefits associated with this Light include protection and the removal of darkness from the world and our personal lives.

529. He opened the discussion saying: "Reuven, you are my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength." HE ASKS: Why did Ya'akov begin by blessing Reuven. Why not start with Yehuda, who, WHEN THE STANDARDS TRAVEL, is a king and is the first to journey among the camps, AS IT SAYS, "THESE SHALL FIRST SET FORTH" (BEMIDBAR 2:9). Moreover, we saw that he did not bless REUVEN and the blessings were removed from him until Moshe prayed for him, as it says, "Let Reuven live, and not die" (Devarim 33:6). ACCORDING TO THIS, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN BETTER TO BEGIN WITH YEHUDA AND START WITH A BLESSING.

530. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly he blessed REUVEN, and the blessing arose to its place. This is like the story of a man who had a son. When the time came for him to pass away from the world, the king came to him. He said: Let all my money be in the hands of the king, who will keep it for my son. When the king sees that my son is worthy of it, he will give it to him. Ya'akov also said: "Reuven, you are my firstborn," you are beloved of my heart and bowels, yet your blessings shall be in the hands of the holy King until He shall see you ARE WORTHY OF THEM. THIS IS BECAUSE you followed your anger LIKE WATER, according to the Aramaic translation TO "UNSTABLE AS WATER."

530. אָבֵל וְדֵאֵי בְרִכְיָה, וְסָלְקָא הֵוָּא בְּרַכְתָּא לְאַתְרֵיָה. לְבַר נֶשׁ דְּהוּה לִיָּה בַר, כַּד מְטָא זְמִינָה לְאַסְתְּלֶקָא מְעַלְמָא, אֶתָּא מְלִכָא עֲלֵיָה, אָמַר, הָא כָּל מְמוּנָא דִּילּוֹ, לִיְהוּי בִּידָא דְּמְלִכָא נְטוּר לְבְרָאֵי. כַּד חֲמִי מְלִכָא דְּבְרִי אֶתְחַזִּי, וְהִיב לִיָּה. כֶּן יַעֲקֹב אָמַר, רְאוּבֵן בְּכֹרִי אֶתָּה, רְחִימָא דְּמַעֵי אֶנְתָּ, אָבֵל בְּרַכָּאן דִּילָךְ יִסְתְּלֶקוּן בִּידָא דְּמְלִכָא קְדִישָׁא, עַד דִּיחֲמִי בְךָ, בְּגִין דְּאֶזְלַת לְקַבֵּל אַפָּךְ וּגו', כְּתַרְגוּמוֹ.

531. "Reuven, you are my firstborn": Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion saying: "Then he said to me, 'Prophecy to the wind (also: 'breath')...' (Yechezkel 37:9). How obtuse are people, who neither know nor care for the glory of the King. Though the Torah announces it to them daily, no one lends an ear. This verse is difficult to understand. After saying "Prophecy to the wind," why add: "Prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind."

532. From this, we learned the secret of Wisdom. There are two commands here, the first is to arouse from below upward, for if they are not wakened FIRST from below, there is no awakening above. Through the lower awakening, there is an upper awakening. THE SECOND COMMAND IS TO AROUSE FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD. "Prophecy to the wind" is from below upward, and "prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind" is from above downward.

533. For even above, when there is stirring below, the supernal receives from that which is even superior to it, like it is said in the next words, "Come from the four winds, O wind" (Yechezkel 37:9). The four winds are south, east, north, west-CHESED, TIFERET, GVURAH, AND MALCHUT. The wind coming from the west, MALCHUT, joins the others, SOUTH, NORTH, EAST, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, as it says "that the nobles of the people delved" (Bemidbar 21:18).

534. Spirits and souls issue forth from MALCHUT to receive the impression from the inhabitants of the world; NAMELY TO RECEIVE THEIR SHAPES, THE SHAPE OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT. "And breathe UPON THESE SLAIN" as in the verse: "And breathed into his nostrils the breath of life" (Beresheet 2:7). Come and see: MALCHUT receives on one side and gives on another. This is the reason why "all the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full" (Kohélet 1:7). It is not full since it receives and gives, takes in and out.

535. Rabbi Elazar asked Rabbi Shimon a question. He said: Since it is known to the Holy One, blessed be He, that people die, why then did he bring souls down into the world? What purpose do they serve? He said to him: Many sages were asked this question by their students. They explained it THOUGH IT IS DIFFICULT. The Holy One, blessed be He, sends souls into the world to declare His glory. Yet He takes them away. Wherefore did they descend?

536. HE ANSWERS: The explanation is as follows: He opened the discussion saying: "Drink waters out of your own cistern, and flowing streams out of your own well" (Mishlei 5:15). We have explained that a cistern is a place out of which no water flows, WHILE A WELL FLOWS BY ITSELF. When does water flow BY ITSELF? When the soul is perfected in this world, and ascends to where it is attached, MALCHUT. Then it is completed on all sides, above and below.

537. When the soul ascends, the desire of the female is stirred toward the male, and then the water flows IN MALCHUT from below upward, AND THAT WHICH WAS a cistern becomes a well of flowing water. Then there is a joining in union and desire, for that place, MALCHUT, is perfected by the souls of the righteous, friendship and goodwill are aroused above, AND ZEIR ANPIN AND MALCHUT are joined as one.

538. "Reuven, you are my firstborn." Assuredly so, for he was of the first seed of Ya'akov, WHO HAD NO POLLUTION IN HIS DAYS, whose thoughts were directed to another place, NAMELY RACHEL as we learned. Come and see Reuven and all the twelve tribes were joined with the Shechinah. When Ya'akov saw the Shechinah upon him, he called his sons to be united with her.

539. Come and see: There was never a more complete bed since the universe was created. At the time when Ya'akov wanted to depart from the world, Avraham was on his right, Yitzchak on his left and Ya'akov was lying between them with the Shechinah in front of him. When Ya'akov saw this, he called his sons and placed them around the Shechinah with perfect order.

540. Whence do we know that he arranged them around the Shechinah? From the words "Gather yourselves," THAT IS, GATHER ABOVE AROUND THE SHECHINAH. Then was everything brought to perfection with several supernal Chariots around them. They opened the discussion saying: "Yours, O Hashem, is the greatness, and the power..." (I Divrei Hayamim 29:11). Then the sun, NAMELY YA'AKOV WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, was gathered to the moon, THE NUKVA, and east, ZEIR ANPIN, drew near to the west, THE NUKVA. This is what is meant by the verse: "He gathered up his feet into the bed" (Beresheet 49:33), WHICH IS AN INDICATION OF MATING, and the moon shone by him and attained perfection. We therefore learned that surely Ya'akov did not die, BUT MATED WITH THE SHECHINAH. When Ya'akov saw the perfect order, which had never been vouchsafed to any man, he rejoiced and praised the Holy One, blessed be He, and started blessing each of his sons according to what he deserved.

55. "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat"

Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Yisa go to visit Rabbi Shimon to discover the meaning of the title verse. We learn that Asher is one of the pillars that support the world. It is the supernal gate of the righteous that, when blessed, gives blessings to the world. The meaning of the title verse, we're told, is that when the two Columns are joined, the bread of poverty is rectified by Asher.

The Relevance of this Passage

The Light that shines from the supernal gate of the righteous radiates into our lives, helping to remove poverty from the landscape of human civilization, while bringing readers of this passage the blessing of sustenance.

541. Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Yisa were walking along the road. Rabbi Yisa said: We have surely learned that all of Ya'akov's sons were put in a perfect order, BY BECOMING A CHARIOT TO THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE SUPERNAL SFIROT. They were blessed each according to his worth. What then is the meaning of this verse, "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat..."? He said to him: I do not know, for I have not learned it from the holy lamp, WHICH IS RABBI SHIMON. Let us go, you and I, to the holy lamp. When they came before him, they spoke and raised that question. He said to them, Surely this is the secret of Wisdom.

542. He opened the discussion saying: "Asher continued on the sea shore, and abode by his bays" (Shoftim 5:17). HE ASKS: Why did he dwell there? HE ANSWERS: For whoever dwells by the sea shore, YESOD OF MALCHUT CALLED SEA, has access to luxuries of the world, NAMELY MOCHIN FROM EDEN. Here, Asher is the supernal gate of the righteous, YESOD, which, when blessed, pours blessings upon the world. This is the gate which sends blessings to the world, and is called Asher. It is one of the pillars upon which the world is supported.

543. The place called bread of poverty, THE NUKVA WHILE RECEIVING FROM THE LEFT COLUMN ALONE, is rectified by the place ASHER, WHICH BECOMES A CURTAIN TO THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH JOINS THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT COLUMNS. The meaning of, "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat," is that what was previously bread of poverty became once more, AFTER THE TWO COLUMNS WERE JOINED TOGETHER, millet bread, since he poured and gave it blessings and dainties, as shown by the end of the verse, "and he shall yield royal dainties (lit. 'dainties of the king')." Who is the king? It is the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY MALCHUT, from which THE WORLD is nourished by royal dainties. It is he who gives the king, MALCHUT, all blessings, joy and goodness. He gives MALCHUT, and from her it pours down upon THE LOWER BEINGS. They said; were we to come into the world only to hear this, it would have sufficed.

56. "Unstable as water, you shall not excel"

Rabbi Chiya interprets the title verse, explaining that it signifies Reuven was blessed. However, the kingship, priesthood, and birthright to which he was entitled were taken from him. This verse also reveals, we learn, that Reuven would dwell outside of the land of Yisrael. We are then told that Reuven is aligned with both Chesed and Gvurah. Rabbi Shimon next tells the rabbis that Reuven's sons are in exile, dispersed among the four corners of the world. One day, we hear, they will wage two wars in the land of Yisrael, and they will try to seize the kingship from the Messiah when he rises up to conquer the nations.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we ignite a particular frequency of spiritual energy that helps to hasten the arrival of the Mashiach in a merciful manner, for us personally, and for our neighbors who inhabit our global village.

544. Reuven was Ya'akov's firstborn. Rabbi Chiya said: He was entitled to everything, KINGSHIP, BIRTHRIGHT AND PRIESTHOOD, but it was all taken from him. Kingship was given to Yehuda, the birthright to Yosef and the priesthood to Levi. This is the meaning of the words: "Unstable as water, you shall not excel (lit. 'leave')"; NAMELY you shall not be left with them. In saying "my might and the beginning of my strength," he blessed him and remembered him to the Holy One, blessed be He.

544. ראובן בוכרא דיעקב הוה, אמר רבי חייא, ליה הוה אתחזי כללא, ואתעבר מינה כללא, ואתיהיב מלכו ליהודה, בכירותא ליוסף, כהונתא ללוי, הה"ד פחו כמים אל תותר: לא תשתאר בהו. ומה דאמר כחי וראשית אונג, הכא ברכיה ופקדיה לקודשא בריך הוא.

545. This is like the favorite of the king. One day when his son went in the city, he said to the king, This is my son, beloved of my soul. The king heard and understood that he was asking of him TO FAVOR his son. Ya'akov said: "Reuven, you are my firstborn..." to ask the King TO BE KINDLY TOWARD HIM.

545. לרחימא דמלכא, יומא חד אעבר בריה בשוקא, אמר למלכא, דא הוא ברי, ודאי רחימא דנפשאי, שמע מלכא, וידע דהא שאיל על בריה. כך יעקב, אמר ראובן בכורי אתה כחי וגו', הכא פקדיה למלכא.

546. "Unstable as water, you shall not excel." Here he stated his fate, that he would not remain in the land of Yisrael but dwell outside it, NAMELY EAST OF THE JORDAN. Correspondingly, the officer in charge, on the side of the tabernacle above, THE NUKVA, in charge under Michael, IS ALSO REJECTED OUTSIDE THE TABERNACLE. Some say THAT THE TRUSTEE THAT WAS REJECTED FROM THE TABERNACLE ABOVE WAS under Gavriel. AND THOUGH REUVEN IS CHESD, Michael is the first OF THE ANGELS on the side of Chesed, and Gavriel is THE FIRST on the left side, Gvurah, REUVEN IS NEVERTHELESS ALSO OF THE SIDE OF GVURAH, WHICH WE LEARN FROM THE VERSE, "But Yehuda still rules (also: 'descends') with El" (Hoshea 12:1), THE DESCENT WHICH INDICATES THAT HE IS OF the side of Gvurah and called court of justice. Reuven's inheritance was adjacent to his. YEHUDA'S PORTION WAS WEST OF THE JORDAN AND REUVEN'S WAS EAST OF THE JORDAN. THIS SHOWS THAT REUVEN, TOO, IS OF THE SIDE OF GVURAH. And though kingship (Malchut), THE SECRET OF LOWER GVURAH, was taken from Reuven and belongs to Yehuda, HE IS NEVERTHELESS NOT WHOLLY CLEANSED OF GVURAH, SINCE THE INHERITANCE OF Reuven is adjacent to his, WHICH IS AN INDICATION OF GVURAH.

547. Rabbi Shimon said: Reuven's sons will in the future wage two wars in the land of Yisrael. Come and behold: it is written "my might," namely, the exile in Egypt; "and the beginning of my strength," NAMELY they were the first among the brothers to fight. "The excellency of dignity" is the exile of Assyria (Ashur), where the sons of Gad and Reuven were the first to go down and suffered much torture, and did not return FROM THERE until now.

548. "And the excellency of power" refers to the time when Mashiach will rise in the world and they will go forth and make war in the world and win, and conquer the nations. The inhabitants of the world will fear them and tremble before them. THE SONS OF REUVEN will plan to seize the kingship yet shall not retain it, hence the words: "Unstable as water, you shall not excel." Why will they not retain mastery even in one place in the world? Because "you went up to your father's bed," for they are going to wage war within the Holy Land. "Your father's bed" is Jerusalem. THEY WILL STRIVE TO TAKE IT FROM MASHIACH.

549. Come and see the sons of Reuven dispersed into exile in the four corners of the world, in correspondence with all of Yisrael, who were exiled four times into the four corners of the world. Hence it says, "My might," which is the first exile; "and the beginning of my strength," the second; "the excellency of dignity" the third and "the excellency of power" the fourth. Likewise, they will wage war in the four corners of the world, thus ruling over everything. They will conquer many peoples and rule over them.

550. "Unstable as water, you shall not excel; because you went up to your father's bed." Here is an allusion to the first thought Ya'akov had when issuing the first seed, which was about Rachel. Were the thought combined with the first seed in its place, LEAH, Reuven would retain all, THE KINGSHIP, THE PRIESTHOOD AND THE BIRTHRIGHT, but "unstable as water, you shall not excel; because you went up to your father's bed" namely you came up through other thoughts, and "then you did defile it..."

551. Another explanation for "unstable as water, you shall not excel": When the sons of Reuven will wage war in the world and conquer many nations, they will not remain rulers. HENCE IT IS WRITTEN, "YOU SHALL NOT EXCEL." What is the reason for this? "Because you went up to your father's bed (lit. 'beds')," as they are destined to wage war in the Holy Land, precisely mentioned in the words "your father's bed," which refer to Jerusalem. HE ASKS: WHY DOES SCRIPTURE SAY "beds," instead of 'bed'? HE ANSWERS: "Your father" is Yisrael Saba, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, AND THEREFORE IT SAYS "beds" instead of 'bed', since Jerusalem was twice destroyed, and WILL BE BUILT a third time at the time of Mashiach. Hence the plural. Here, the blessing is revealed IN THE VERSE: "YOU ARE MY FIRSTBORN, MY MIGHT AND THE BEGINNING OF MY STRENGTH." And also what happened at that time THAT THE BIRTHRIGHT, KINGSHIP AND PRIESTHOOD WERE TAKEN FROM HIM, AS SAID "UNSTABLE AS WATER, YOU SHALL NOT EXCEL," that which will be when Yisrael shall come to the land of Yisrael, THAT HE WILL HAVE NO PORTION IN IT BUT ACROSS THE JORDAN. And Reuven's deeds at the time of Mashiach, NAMELY THAT HE WILL WAGE WARS AGAINST MANY PEOPLES AND IN JERUSALEM.

57. "Shimon and Levi are brothers"

Rabbi Yitzchak explains to Rabbi Yosi that Shimon was not worthy of a blessing and that Levi came from the side of strict judgment. After explaining the meaning of the verse, "So is the great and wide sea", Rabbi Yehuda reveals that Shimon and Levi were not blessed by their father, but rather were delivered to Moshe to receive blessings. Rabbi Shimon then explains the reason for this. We learn that Ya'akov wished to bless Shimon and Levi when he was about to depart from the world; however, he did not because of the Shechinah, who stood over him. Knowing that to bless them would render the Shechinah defective, he decided to deliver them to Moshe, the master of the house. Ya'akov knew that he would be able to bless Shimon and Levi without damaging the Shechinah. Rabbi Chiya concludes the passage by explaining that because they were both of strict judgment, Shimon and Levi were divided and dispersed so that all of Yisrael received from their strict judgment.

The Relevance of this Passage

Strict judgement is removed from our midst through the power of Moshe, even though we and the rest of world may not be worthy of such cleansing. In addition, the Light of the Shechinah showers us with protection upon the merit of Moshe.

552. "Shimon and Levi are brothers." Rabbi Yitzchak said: Here he attached them to the left side of the Shechinah, for he saw they have acted with strict judgment, which the world cannot endure. Rabbi Yosi asked, Where is their blessing? Rabbi Yitzchak said: Shimon was not worthy of it, for he saw in him many evil deeds. Levi came from the side of strict judgment, from which blessing does not stem. Even Moshe did not attach his blessing to him, as said: "Bless, Hashem, his substance, and accept the work of his hands" (Devarim 33:11), so that his blessing came from the Holy One, blessed be He.

553. Come and see it is written: "So is the great and wide sea, wherein are creeping things innumerable, both small and great beasts" (Tehilim 104:25). The great sea is the Shechinah, which stood over Ya'akov when he wished to depart from the world. It is wide, for all the world is filled and made whole, and contracted within THE SHECHINAH, SINCE SHE WAS FILLED AND MADE WHOLE BY THE SOUTH AND CONTRACTED BY THE NORTH. "Wherein are creeping things innumerable," since there are many supernal and holy angels there. The "small and great beasts" are the twelve tribes, Ya'akov's sons, who are found there in wholeness. There is a hind, NAFTALI; a wolf, BINYAMIN; a lion, YEHUDA; and a lamb, YOSEF, AS SAID "THAT LEADS YOSEF LIKE FLOCK" (TEHILIM 80:2). Rabbi Yitzchak said: A lion and a lamb, a wolf and a kid (Heb. gedi), NAMELY GAD, and so on, there are small beasts with great ones.

554. Rabbi Yehuda said: It was well said about all THE TRIBES, THAT THERE ARE GREAT AND SMALL BEASTS, but Yehuda is a lion and Shimon an ox, AS SHIMON IS OF GVURAH, WHICH IS THE FACE OF AN OX. The friends have explained that they were facing each other, YEHUDA on the right and SHIMON on the left. THIS IS LIKE A MAN WHO HAD a vicious ox. He said: I shall paint the figure of a lion in his stall, and it will see it and fear it. Thus Shimon is an ox and Yehuda a lion, AS SHIMON THE OX, NAMELY GVURAH, IS SUBDUED THROUGH LOOKING AT YEHUDA THE LION, WHICH IS CHESD.

555. Shimon did not receive any blessing FROM YA'AKOV, but Moshe attached him to Yehuda, as it is written: "Hear (Heb. sh'ma), Hashem, the voice of Yehuda" (Devarim 33:7) and elsewhere "because Hashem has heard (Heb. shama) that I was hated" (Beresheet 29:33). THEREFORE, SHE NAMED HIM SHIMON. THERE IS AN ANALOGY BETWEEN THE VERSES. AS THERE IS HEARING IN THE NAME OF SHIMON, SO THE HEARING IN REALATION TO YEHUDA INCLUDES SHIMON. Rabbi Yehuda said: Shimon and Levi WERE NOT BLESSED BY their father SINCE HE brought them to Moshe TO BLESS THEM. Rabbi Yosi said to him: Wherefore DID their father NOT BLESS THEM BUT delivered them to Moshe? Rabbi Yehuda said to him: We too shall bring THE QUESTION before the holy lamp, RABBI SHIMON.

556. They came and asked Rabbi Shimon. He said: How sweet are the words. He clapped his hands and wept. He said: Who will uncover you, holy faithful, NAMELY MOSHE. In your lifetime you were raised above men, and in your death you were elevated and your image covered. The keys of your Master were always delivered to your hands.

557. Come and see: Ya'akov had four wives. He begot children by them all, and was perfected through his wives. When Ya'akov wished to depart FROM THE WORLD, the Shechinah stood over him. He wanted to bless SHIMON AND LEVI but could not, since he feared the Shechinah. He said to himself, How can I do this, seeing that both of them come from the side of strict judgment, AND TO BLESS THEM WILL RENDER THE SHECHINAH DEFECTIVE. I cannot force the Shechinah, since I had four wives WHO WERE DRAWN FROM THE FOUR ASPECTS, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT OF THE SHECHINAH, AND I WAS PERFECTED THROUGH THEM, SINCE THEY BORE ME TWELVE TRIBES, THE SECRET OF ALL PERFECTION. SINCE I RECEIVED MY PERFECTION FROM THE SHECHINAH, HOW CAN I BLESS SHIMON AND LEVI AGAINST HER WISH? I shall deliver them to the landlord of the house, MOSHE, THE HUSBAND OF THE MATRON, who is the owner, and he shall do as he pleases.

558. Ya'akov said: I have received my portion of wives and children in this world FROM THE SHECHINAH, and became perfected. How can I force the Matron, THE SHECHINAH? I shall deliver the matter to the master of the Matron, MOSHE, who will do as he pleases without fear.

559. Come and see it is written, "And this is the blessing, with which Moshe the man of the Elohim blessed" (Devarim 33:1), which means master of the house, master of the Matron, SINCE MAN MEANS MASTER, as it is written: "Her husband (man) may let it stand, or her husband may make it void" (Bemidbar 30:14) and "Moshe had finished (Heb. kalot)," FOR THE SHECHINAH IS CALLED 'MOSHE'S BRIDE (HEB. KALAT)'. Therefore, Moshe may bless whomever he pleases, without fear OF DAMAGING THE SHECHINAH, SINCE HE CAN FIX HER ACCORDING TO HIS WISHES, as has been explained. Therefore Ya'akov said: I see that these sons of mine are from the side of strict judgment, let the master of the house come and bless them.

560. Assuredly Moshe was a man of Elohim, and did as he pleased in his house, as it says, "Her husband may let it stand" BY GIVING HER MOCHIN OF CHOCHMAH CALLED RISING UP, in accordance with the verse, "Moshe said: Rise up, Hashem, and let your enemies be scattered" (Bemidbar 10:35). BECAUSE ON THE WAY, THERE IS FOOTHOLD TO THE KLIPOT AND THE MOCHIN OF CHOCHMAH SCATTER THE KLIPOT. "Or her husband may make it void," which agrees with the words "And when it rested, he said: 'Return, Hashem'" (Ibid. 35), FOR WHEN THE SHECHINAH IS AT REST, THE KLIPOT CANNOT HOLD HER AND THERE IS NO FEAR. THEREFORE, "HER HUSBAND MAY MAKE IT VOID." BY STRENGTH OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, HE MAKES VOID THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF CHOCHMAH IN ORDER TO CLOTHE HER WITH CHASSADIM, THE SECRET OF THE VERSE "AND WHEN IT RESTED, HE SAID: 'RETURN, HASHEM.'" Assuredly the master of the house does as he pleases and no one may protest, as a man who has decided for his wife and she does his bidding. Therefore, Ya'akov, though he was attached to The Tree of Life, ZEIR ANPIN, was not the master of the house LIKE MOSHE for he was attached below and Moshe above. Ya'akov therefore delivered them to the landlord TO BE BLESSED BY HIM.

561. "Let my soul not come into their council" (Beresheet 49:6). Rabbi Aba opened the discussion saying: "The counsel of Hashem is for them that fear Him" (Tehilim 25:14). It is the supernal mystery of the Torah that the Holy One, blessed be He, gives only to those who fear sin. Whoever fears sin, the supernal secret of the Torah is revealed to him, the sign of the holy covenant called the secret of Hashem.

562. Shimon and Levi took pains on account of that secret OF THE HOLY COVENANT, that the people of Shchem will circumcise themselves and accept that secret upon them; TO WIT, TO PRESERVE THE SIGN OF THE HOLY COVENANT. But the scripture bears testimony that it was done with guile. Also Zimri, son of Salu, WHO WAS A CHIEF OF A FAMILY OF THE TRIBE OF SHIMON, defiled that secret WITH KOZBI, THE DAUGHTER OF TZUR. IN RELATION TO THIS, Ya'akov said: "Let my soul not come into their council (lit. 'secret')" (Beresheet 49:6). What soul is this? The soul which rises up to be united with the supernal covenant above, NAMELY MALCHUT WHICH IS UNITED WITH THE SUPERNAL COVENANT, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, called the soul of the bundle of life.

563. "To their assembly let my honor not be united." This has been explained to refer to the words, "And Korach gathered all the congregation" (Bemidbar 16:19), FOR YA'AKOV'S NAME IS NOT MENTIONED, ONLY "KORACH, THE SON OF YITZHAR, THE SON OF KEHAT," AND NOT "THE SON OF YA'AKOV." "Let my honor not be united," the honor of Yisrael. Therefore, DUE TO THESE DEEDS, their father did not bless them but delivered them to Moshe. Rabbi Chiya said: From these verses, we understand that they were not joined together, BUT SCATTERED, AS IT SAYS "I WILL DIVIDE THEM IN YA'AKOV, AND SCATTER THEM IN YISRAEL" (BERESHEET 49:7), as should be, FOR THEY NEED SCATTERING DUE TO THEIR BEING OF STRICT JUDGMENT. Therefore there is everything in it, SINCE THEIR STRICT JUDGMENT PERVADES THROUGHOUT YISRAEL, FOR BY SCATTERING THEM IN YISRAEL, YISRAEL RECEIVED FROM THEIR STRICT JUDGMENT. There is no generation in the world, upon which their Judgment has not descended to bring accusation on the world, which causes beggars to multiply. Thus, all OF YISRAEL WERE HURT BY THEIR JUDGMENT.

58. The nations by the sun and Yisrael by the moon

Here we find a discourse on the moon. The Yisraelites use the cycles of the moon to calculate seasons, holidays, and years. In contrast, the nations of the world use the cycles of the sun, which, we're told, comprise an inferior system.

The Relevance of this Passage

Like the moon, mankind has no Light of its own. As the moon derives its light from the sun, mankind and this entire earthly realm draw spiritual Light from the Upper World domain known as Zeir Anpin. This passage helps us rise above any negative celestial influences that appear throughout the lunar/solar calendar year, connecting us only to the positive energy that the moon and sun release into the cosmos.

564. "Yehuda you are he whom your brethren shall praise: your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies" (Beresheet 49:8). Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "He made the moon for seasons" (Tehilim 104:19). "He made the moon" with which to sanctify the first day of months and new years. The moon never shines but from the sun. When the sun reigns, the moon does not; when the sun is gathered, the moon rules. The moon is of no account, save when the sun is gathered.

565. The Holy One, blessed be He, made both so that they will shine, as it is written in the verse, "And Elohim set them in the firmament of heaven to give light upon the earth" (Bereshheet 1:17), to "let them be for signs," Shabbat CALLED SIGNS, as in "It is a sign" (Shemot 31:17). "And for seasons," the holidays; "and for days," the days of the beginning of the month; "and years" (Bereshheet 1:14), are new year days. The nations in the world reckon by the sun and Yisrael by the moon.

566. This accords with Rabbi Elazar's discourse upon the verse: "You have multiplied the nation, and increased its joy" (Yeshayah 9:2). The "nation" is Yisrael, of whom it says, "For what nation is there so great" (Devarim 4:7) and "a single nation on the earth" (I Divrei Hayamim 17:21). "Its" means 'for it', "increased its joy" of the moon, which light grew for Yisrael's sake. The nations of the world RECKON TIMES BY THE CYCLE OF the sun and Yisrael BY THE CYCLE OF the moon. HE ASKS: Which one is superior, THE RECKONING BY THE SUN OR BY THE MOON? HE REPLIES: Surely the moon is above, and the sun of the peoples of the world is underneath this moon. That sun RECEIVES LIGHT from the moon and illuminates. See the difference between Yisrael and THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD: The children of Yisrael are attached to the moon and linked to the Supernal Sun. They are united with the place which shines by the Supernal Sun and cleave to it, as it is written: "But you that did cleave unto Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day" (Devarim 4:4).

59. "Yehuda you are he whom your brethren shall praise"

Rabbi Shimon explains that the kingship was given to Yehuda, since he is the fourth leg of the supernal Throne and the Chariot to the attribute of Malchut. Rabbi Shimon proceeds by discussing the meaning of the verse, "The King's daughter is all glorious within." This, we learn, signifies that the Female Principle within Atzilut is clothed by and joined with Gvurah. The discourse then turns to address the verse, "So He drove out the man" This refers to Adam, who by his sin, brought death upon himself and the entire world, and drove the Female Principle out of the Garden of Eden. We learn that fiery flames guard the way to the Tree of Life, the Female Principle, which rests on the angels Matatron and Sandalfon. We also learn that after she was driven out, the Female Principle was flawed until she was rectified--first by Noah, and then by Avraham. She stood in wholeness by Avraham and his sons, and Yehuda cleaved to her and became stronger in his kingship because of this. Indeed, the verse, "The sons of your father shall bow down before you," signifies that all the tribes shall bow down to Yehuda. We also learn that Yehuda, referred to as a "lion," escaped the Angel of Death. The mighty Shechinah is also compared to a lion and a lioness because of her strength and because she crouches to await her prey, the idolatrous nations. Finally, we are told that the verse, "The staff shall not depart from Yehuda," indicates that the Shechinah shall rise up in exile. The Relevance of this Passage

An abundance of Light radiates throughout this complex passage of Zohar. This Light helps correct the original sin of Adam, which in turn, assists in weakening the grip of the Angel of Death over mankind. Our souls are strengthened by the Light of Noah, Avraham, and Yehuda, which helps us correct our owns transgressions and cleanse us of negativity, which also helps correct the original sin of Adam.

567. "Yehuda, you are...": Rabbi Shimon said: The kingship was assigned to Yehuda, as we said in relation to the words, "Now will I praise Hashem" (Bereshheet 29:35), because he was the fourth. "I will praise Hashem," since he is the fourth leg of the throne. Yud-Hei-Vav, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, are the impress of the supernal name ZEIR ANPIN, which is completed by Hei, MALCHUT, the last Hei of the Holy Name, THROUGH WHICH the Holy Name is made whole with its letters. AND IT IS the knot which binds THE LETTERS OF THE HOLY NAME. Therefore "your brethren shall praise" you, for thanks to you the kingship, Malchut, is able to exist, YOU BEING THE CHARIOT TO THE ATTRIBUTE OF MALCHUT. It is written, "Yehuda still rules with El, and is faithful with Holy Ones" (Hoshea 12:1). HE ASKS: Who are these Holy Ones? AND ANSWERS, They are the supernal Holy Ones, THE HOLY SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, who all acknowledged him and made him faithful, TO WIT, BY GIVING HIM ALL THAT IS IN THEM. He is therefore first in everything and king over all.

568. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "The king's daughter is all glorious (Heb. kevudah) within" (Tehilim 45:14). "Kevudah" refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, CALLED 'KEVUDAH', because He, ZEIR ANPIN, IS CALLED 'kavod' (glory); the one upon the other, AS BOTH ARE ONE; the one, ZEIR ANPIN, a male, IS CALLED 'KAVOD,' and the other, MALCHUT, a female, is called 'kevudah,' WITH THE ADDITIONAL HEI OF THE FEMININE. The king's daughter is Bat-Sheva (lit. 'daughter of seven'), WHICH IS THE NUKVA, AND ALSO an echo (lit. 'a voice's daughter'), while he is called a great voice, being the supernal King, ZEIR ANPIN, WHILE THE NUKVA IS CALLED THE DAUGHTER OF A VOICE. It is "within" as there is a king, NAMELY MALCHUT, which is not as far within as him, FOR SOMETIMES MALCHUT IS CLOTHED IN BRIYAH, while the king's daughter is all glorious within IN ATZILUT.

569. "Her clothing is inwrought with gold," since she is clothed and joined by the supernal Gvurah, NAMELY THE LEFT SIDE OF IMA, WHO IS CALLED GOLD, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "GOLD COMES OUT OF THE NORTH" (IYOV 37:22). IMA is also called a king, and on her account the land endures, WHICH IS MALCHUT. When is MALCHUT established? When coupled with justice, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, as it says, "The king by justice establishes the land" (Mishlei 29:4), WHICH IS MALCHUT. We call it the kingdom of heaven. Yehuda was united with it, and he therefore inherited the kingdom on earth.

570. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yitzchak were walking along the way. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Let us discourse on the words of the Torah as we go. Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion saying: "So He drove out the man; and He placed at the east of the Garden of Eden..." (Beresheet 3:24). This verse has been expounded upon by the friends. Yet "He drove" has the same meaning of a man divorcing his wife, TO WIT, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, DIVORCING THE NUKVA. "The man" is correct, AS THE NUKVA IS CALLED ET (THE).

571. Come and see the secret meaning of this matter. Adam was caught for his sin and brought death upon himself and upon the world, and caused the tree, by which he sinned, NAMELY THE NUKVA, to be driven on his account, and be driven because of his descendants' SINS forever. Hence it says, "So He drove out the man," Et (the) having a precise meaning, such as in, "I saw (et) Hashem" (Yeshayah 6:1), WHICH MEANS THE NUKVA. Here too, "the man" REFERS TO THE NUKVA.

572. "And He placed at the east of the Garden of Eden," This is below ATZILUT. As there are Cherubs above IN ATZILUT, A MALE AND A FEMALE, so there are Cherubs below ATZILUT, THE ANGELS MATATRON AND SANDALFON. The tree, WHICH IS THE NUKVA CALLED THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE, rests upon them, and "the bright blade of a revolving sword" is the shapes of fiery flames come out from the brightness of the sword, WHICH GUARD THE WAY TO THE TREE OF LIFE, NOT THE BRIGHT BLADE OF THE SWORD ITSELF. "Revolving" refers to the sword, which sucks from the two sides, RIGHT AND LEFT, and revoles now to this side now to the other. According to another explanation, "revolving" alludes to the shapes of the fiery flames which are revolving, like we said. They revolve and change forms, now to men, now to women. They revolve in their places and change forms, in order to guard the way to The Tree of Life. What is a way? As in "who makes a way in the sea" (Yeshayah 43:16), IT REFERS TO YESOD OF THE NUKVA.

573. Rabbi Yehuda said: Well said, and assuredly correct. Adam caused that tree, in regard to which he sinned, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, to be driven out. So did other men, WHICH CAUSE IT TO BE DRIVEN OUT THROUGH THEIR SINS, as said in the verse, "And for your transgressions was your mother put away" (Yeshayah 50:1). And yet it is true to say that it refers to himself, as it is written, "the man," ET (THE) BEING THE NUKVA, man's perfection. BY DRIVING HER OUT, HE LOST HIS WHOLENESS.

574. From the day SHE WAS DRIVEN OUT, the moon, THE NUKVA, became flawed, until Noah entered the ark. Then came evil men, and she was flawed again, until Avraham came AND RECTIFIED HER. She stood in wholeness by Ya'akov and his sons, and Yehuda came, held on to her and became stronger through the kingship, and inherited it for ever, for him and his sons after him. Hence the verse: "Yehuda you are whom your brethren shall praise." Indeed, when Yisrael stood by the sea AND THE TRIBE OF YEHUDA WERE THE FIRST TO ENTER IT they all praised him and went into the sea after him.

575. "Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies" as it says, "Yehuda shall go up" (Shoftim 1:2) TO WAR. "The sons of your father shall bow down before you" includes all the tribes, and hence the words: "The sons of your father" instead of 'your mother' as the sons of your father are the other tribes. And though the children of Yisrael were divided into two kingdoms, yet when they went up to Jerusalem, they would kneel and bow to the king in Jerusalem, since the kingdom of Jerusalem WHICH DREW from the holy kingdom, THE NUKVA, was from YEHUDA.

576. "Shall bow down before you": It does not say, 'And shall bow', which would include other nations, AND MEAN THAT ALL THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD WILL BOW DOWN TO HIM. It does not say 'And shall bow' save at the time of Mashiach, WHEN it is written: "Princes also shall prostrate themselves" (Yeshayah 49:7). For now, he ONLY said "shall bow" to show that Yisrael alone shall bow down to the exilarch in Babylon, and no other nation.

577. "Yehuda is a lion's whelp" First he was a whelp and then a lion. HENCE THE REPETITION: A WHELP AND A LION. The secret of the matter is that first, WHEN ZEIR ANPIN IS IN MOCHIN OF SMALLNESS, IT IS CALLED a youth, and later, WHEN IN MOCHIN OF GREATNESS, IT IS CALLED a man, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "Hashem is a man of war" (Shemot 15:3). YEHUDA TOO, WHEN IN MOCHIN OF SMALLNESS, IS CALLED A WHELP, AND WHEN IN MOCHIN OF GREATNESS, HE IS CALLED A LION. "From the prey, my son, you are gone up." HE ASKS: What prey is this? It includes the Angel of Death, who stands by its prey to exterminate the world, and none can save from it, as in "and tears in pieces, and none can deliver" (Michah 5:7). From that prey, the Shechinah was gone up. THE WORDS: "FROM THE PREY, MY SON, YOU ARE GONE UP" MEAN THAT YEHUDA ESCAPED THE ANGEL OF DEATH, WHICH IS THE SATAN, THE EVIL INCLINATION, INSTEAD OF STUMBLING BY IT.

578. "He stooped down" in the exile in Babylon "and he couched" in the exile of Edom "as a lion" which is mighty "and as a lioness" which is mightier than a lion. So are the children of Yisrael mighty, for though the idolatrous people of the world entice and oppress them, they adhere to their laws and customs like a lion and a lioness.

579. The Shechinah also is as strong as a lion and a lioness when she thus falls, though it is written, "The virgin of Yisrael is fallen; she shall no more rise" (Amos 5:2). As a lion and a lioness only crouch to hunt their prey, and when they smell it from afar they fall; TO WIT, THEY CROUCH ON THE GROUND TO PREPARE TO JUMP ON THE PREY and do not rise until they jump upon it and eat it. The Shechinah also does not fall but as a lion and a lioness, in order to revenge the idolatrous nations, leap upon them, as it says "striding in the greatness of his strength" (Yeshayah 63:1).

580. "Who shall rouse him up?" (Beresheet 49:9). He shall not rise to take petty vengeance upon them, but who shall rouse him, 'who' being, as in the verse "who can heal you" (Eichah 2:13). It is the supernal world, NAMELY BINAH CALLED WHO, which has dominion over all. It is written "out of whose womb (Lit. 'the womb of who') came the ice?" (Iyov 38:29), which has been explained THAT THROUGH THE JUDGMENT CALLED ICE, IT SUBDUES ALL THE KLIPOT.

581. "The staff shall not depart from Yehuda" has been explained by the friends, but "until Shilo come" is spelled with Hei, while in other PLACES IT IS SPELLED SHILO with Vav. This is an indication of the secret of the Holy Name Yud-Hei, for in other places it is spelled Shilo without Hei, or without Yud. Here it is spelled Shiloh with both Yud and Hei, which is the secret of the supernal Holy Name, and means that the Shechinah shall rise FROM HER FALL IN THE EXILE through this name of Yud-Hei, which, as we said, is the mystery of 'who', FOR YAH IS THE NAME OF BINAH, ALSO NAMED 'WHO'.

60. "Binding his foal to the vine," part one

Here we learn that God protects and preserves the deserving in this world and in the next. The soul of he who does not have merit, however, will be dragged to Gehenom by legions of demons. This soul is then delivered to the angel Dumah, who takes it to be locked behind the seven gates of fire.

Every Shabbat, the souls in Gehenom are allowed to go to the outer gates, where they meet with other souls that convene there but do not enter Gehenom. It is said that the evil are sentenced to the heat of the burning fire and then the intense cold of snow. Though they first feel relief when they enter the snow, they soon moan again, realizing they are still in Gehenom. The rabbis then explain that the title verse signifies the children of Yisrael and the Messiah are destined to conquer the idolatrous nations. The Mashiach is called "poor", we're told, because He is drawn from the moon, Malchut, who has no illumination of her own. Proceeding on from this, the discussion turns to the subject of dreams and prophecy. Dreams are of a much lower grade than prophecy and are accessible to all, even the wicked. We learn that Yosef was able to correctly interpret his dream about the Pharaoh's cup of poison. Indeed, we are told that through the power of the vine, the Female Principle, the heathen nations were subjugated and their force subdued. The discourse then remarks upon the double precepts practiced by the Yisraelites so that they may avoid being sent to Gehenom of snow. Following an explanation of the verse, "She is not afraid of the snow of her household", the section concludes when the rabbis meet a young boy who travels without his former companion.

The Relevance of this Passage

The cleansing power of this passage purifies our souls, helping us merit a place in the world to come without having to pass through the gates of Gehenom. The arrival of the Messiah is also quickened, and readers who peruse these verses with a pure heart, help to ensure that the appearance of the Mashiach happens in a manner that is merciful for all mankind. In addition, we gain the ability to utilize our sleep and dream states in a fashion that will facilitate our spiritual development.

582. "Binding his foal to the vine, and his ass's colt to the choice vine": Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "Hashem shall preserve you from all evil: He shall preserve your soul" (Tehilim 121:7). HE ASKS: After saying: "Hashem shall preserve you from all evil," why add "He shall preserve your soul"? HE ANSWERS: "Hashem shall preserve you from all evil" in this world and "shall preserve your soul" in the world of Truth.

583. By the keeping in this world is meant that a man is protected from evil accusing demons, which go in the world to bring charges against people and cling to them. By the keeping in the world of Truth is meant that when a man passes away from this world, if he be meritorious, his soul ascends to be adorned in its place. But if he is not MERITORIOUS, several legions of demons appear before him and drag him into Gehenom, where he is delivered to the hands of Dumah, who hands him to the chief in charge over Gehenom. There are 13,000 chieftains with him, who all await the souls of the wicked.

584. Come and see: There are seven chambers in Gehenom, and seven gates. The soul of the wicked enters THERE. There are several fiends, spirits and gate keepers, and one chief in charge over each gate. The souls of the wicked are delivered to these chiefs by Dumah. Once they are delivered, THEY close the gates of burning fire.

585. There are double gates, which are opened and closed, the outer ones are open and the inner closed. Every Shabbat all of them are open. The wicked go out as far as the outer gates, where they meet other souls, which tarry there, BUT DO NOT ENTER GEHENOM. When Shabbat goes out, the herald comes out to each gate and said "The wicked shall return to Sh'ol" (Tehilim 9:18). Come and behold: the souls of the righteous are protected by the Holy One, blessed be He, from being delivered into the hands of the chieftain Dumah, as it is written: "Hashem shall preserve your going out and your coming in" (Ibid. 121:8) and "He shall preserve your soul."

586. "Binding his foal to the vine": HE ASKS: What is a vine? HE SAYS, It is the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, as it says, "You have brought a vine out of Egypt" (Tehilim 80:9) and "Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine" (Ibid. 128:3). Your wife is as the holy vine, THE SUPERNAL NUKVA. Rabbi Yosi said about the vine over which we say the benediction--"Who created the fruit of the vine (Heb. bore peri hagefen)"--'created' means "a tree yielding fruit" (Beresheet 1:12). 'The fruit of the vine' is a fruit tree, 'yielding fruit' is the male, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, and the 'fruit tree' is a female, NAMELY THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN. Therefore, "who created the fruit of the vine" includes a male and a female together, ZEIR AND NUKVA.

587. "Binding his foal to the vine": This is King Mashiach, who will rule over the nations' armies, and over the hosts in charge upon the idolatrous nations who derive their strength from them. King Mashiach is destined to overpower them.

588. Because the vine, THE NUKVA, rules over the lower crowns, through which the idolatrous nations reign, and is victorious above. The children of Yisrael, who are called "the choice vine," will conquer and annihilate the other legions below, and King Mashiach will overpower all of them. It is written "poor and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt" (Zecharyah 9:9). The ass and the colt are two crowns, through which the idolatrous nations rule. They are of the left side, the side of profanity. AND KING MASHIACH OVERCOMES THEM.

589. HE ASKS: Why DOES SCRIPTURE SAY ABOUT KING MASHIACH THAT he is poor? Can King Mashiach be called poor? HE ANSWERS: Rabbi Shimon said it is so, because he has nothing of his own, SINCE IT IS THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN which is called King Mashiach. But it is the holy moon above, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, which has no light of her own, save what she receives from the sun, ZEIR ANPIN. SHE IS THEREFORE CALLED POOR.

590. King Mashiach, THE NUKVA, will have dominion and will be united in his place above. Then "behold, your king comes to you" (Zecharyah 9:9). It does not say what king, SINCE HE INCLUDES THE NUKVA ABOVE AND MASHIACH BELOW. Below he is poor because he is of the aspect of the moon, WHICH IS THE SUPERNAL NUKVA. FOR MASHIACH BELOW IS DRAWN FROM THE NUKVA, AND IS THEREFORE CALLED POOR LIKE HER. Above she is poor, THE NUKVA HERSELF, because she is the mirror which does not shine OF HER OWN, BUT FROM ZEIR ANPIN, AND IS THEREFORE CALLED bread of poverty. With all that, MASHIACH IS "riding upon an ass, and upon a colt," which are the stronghold of the idolatrous nation, to subdue them. The Holy One, blessed be He, THE NUKVA, will be strengthened in His place ABOVE, AS THE VERSE: "BEHOLD, YOUR KING COMES TO YOU" INCLUDES THEM BOTH.

591. "He washes his garments in wine" is like the verses: "Who is this that comes from Edom, with crimsoned garments from Botzra?" (Yeshayah 63:1) and "I have trodden the winepress alone" (Ibid. 3). The wine is the side of Gvurah OF ZEIR ANPIN, of strict Judgment upon the idolatrous nations. "And his clothes in the blood of grapes" refers to the lower tree, THE NUKVA, the court of law called grapes. The wine is mingled with the blood of grapes in order to be clothed by both THE STRICT JUDGMENT OF ZEIR ANPIN AND THE JUDGMENT OF THE NUKVA, to crush beneath it all the other idolatrous nations and the kings of the world.

592. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verses, "Binding his foal to the vine" and "And on the vine were three tendrils: and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth" (Bereshheet 40:10). Come and see how stupid are people who neither know nor care for the glory of their Master, or regard the words of the Torah. They do not know their ways, or what they are caught in, as it is written: "The way of the wicked is like darkness: they know not at what they stumble" (Mishlei 4:19).

593. At the earliest time, prophecy rested upon people who would know and look to know the highest glory. When prophecy was stopped from them, they resorted to divine voices. Now both have ceased, and people resort only to dreams.

594. The dream is from the lower grade outside, for we learn that a dream is the sixtieth part of prophecy. Why? Because it comes from the sixth grade below, as was already explained, THAT IT IS FROM HOD OF THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THE SIXTH GRADE FROM NETZACH AND HOD OF ZEIR ANPIN WHERE PROPHECY IS. Come and behold: dream is accessible to all, since it is from the left side, HOD OF THE NUKVA, and descends many grades DOWN TO THE ANGEL GAVRIEL, WHO DELIVERS THE DREAMS. A dream may be seen even by wicked men and even by gentiles.

595. Sometimes evil angels receive and hear the dream, and inform men. Some of them mock at men and tell them false things, and sometimes true things which they heard. Sometimes, they are sent to the evil to tell them lofty matters.

596. It is written of this wicked man that he saw a true dream, as it is written: "And on the vine were three tendrils." What is the vine? It is the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, as it is written: "Look down from heaven, and behold, and be mindful of this vine" (Tehilim 80:15). It says "from heaven" IN "LOOK DOWN FROM HEAVEN," since it has been cast from there, according to the words: "And cast down from heaven to earth" (Eichah 2:1). "And be mindful of this vine," NAMELY the vine which is "this," THE NUKVA CALLED THIS.

597. "Three tendrils" as in the verse: "There were three flocks of sheep lying by it" (Beresheet 29:2), ARE THE SECRET OF THE THREE COLUMNS. "And it was as though it budded," as it is written: "And Solomon's Wisdom excelled" (I Melachim 5:10) means that the moon shone, THE NUKVA CALLED SOLOMON'S WISDOM; "and its blossoms shot forth" refers to the lower Jerusalem, THE NUKVA. Another explanation for, "and its blossoms shot forth": It refers to the grade above THE NUKVA, which suckles her, NAMELY YESOD, as it says, "whose seed is in itself, upon the earth" (Beresheet 1:11), WHICH ALLUDES TO YESOD, THAT POURS UPON THE NUKVA CALLED EARTH. "And its clusters brought forth ripe grapes," in which to keep the preserved wine, SO THAT THE KLIPOT WILL NEVER HAVE A HOLD ON IT.

598. See how much this wicked man saw. It is written: "And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them" (Beresheet 40:11). He saw here the cup of poison, the sucking of the court of justice, which issues from these grapes. It was given to Pharaoh, who drank it, as it came to pass AT THE TIME OF THE EXODUS FROM EGYPT, on account of Yisrael. When Yosef heard this, he rejoiced and recognized the truth in that dream. Hence, he interpreted his dream for the good, for bringing him good tidings.

599. Come and see: "Binding his foal to the vine" since strong forces of the heathen nations were subjugated underneath this vine, as we said that through the power of the vine, THE NUKVA, their force was bound up and subdued, as has been explained.

600. Rabbi Shimon said: There is a vine and there is a vine. There is a holy supernal vine, THE NUKVA, and there is a vine called "the vine of Sdom" (Devarim 32:32), WHICH IS AN EVIL KLIPAH. There is also "a strange vine" (Yirmeyah 2:21), the daughter of a strange El. Therefore, it is written "this vine," WHICH HINTS THAT SHE IS THE NUKVA CALLED this, the same that is called "an entirely right seed" (Ibid.) "a noble vine," AS IT SAYS, "AND I HAD PLANTED YOU A NOBLE VINE" (IBID.), refers to the children of Yisrael who issued from this vine. When Yisrael sinned and abandoned this vine, it says, "For their vine is of the vine of Sdom" (Devarim 32:32).

601. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yitzchak were walking along the road. Rabbi Yehuda said to Rabbi Yitzchak, Let us walk through this field, which is more level. While they were walking, Rabbi Yehuda said: It is written, "She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet" (Mishlei 31:21). This verse has been explained by our friend Rabbi Chizkiyah. He said that the evil are sentenced to twelve months in Gehenom, half of them in heat OF BURNING FIRE and half in snow.

602. When they enter the fire, they say, This must be Gehenom. When they go into the snow, they say, This is surely the intense cold of the Holy One's, blessed be He, winter. They start with, 'Hurrah', AND REJOICE FOR COMING OUT OF GEHENOM, but later, WHEN THEY UNDERSTAND IT IS A GEHENOM OF SNOW, they say, 'Woe'. David said: "He brought me up also out of the gruesome pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet..." (Tehilim 40:3); NAMELY from where they first say 'Hurrah' and then 'Woe', AS THE WORD HAYAVEN (MIRE) CONTAINS BOTH VAV-HEI (HURRAH) AND VAV-YUD (WOE).

603. Where are their souls perfected? In A GEHENOM OF snow, as said: "When the Almighty scatters kings in it, snow falls in Tzalmon" (Tehilim 68:15). One might think this also applies to Yisrael, THAT THEY ARE SENTENCED TO SNOW. Of this, the verse says, "She is not afraid of the snow for her household" Why? "For all her household are clothed with scarlet." The word shanim (scarlet) may also be pronounced 'two (Heb. shnayim)'; to wit, the circumcision and uncovering, the Tzitzit (fringes) and the Tefilin, the Mezuzah and the Chanukah candle, and so on. TO WIT, YISRAEL ARE QUICK IN OBSERVING THE PRECEPTS AND HAVE DOUBLE PRECEPTS, FOR IN CIRCUMCISION THERE IS BOTH CIRCUMCISION AND UNCOVERING, IN PRAYER-THE TZITZIT (FRINGES) AND THE TEFILIN, ON THEIR DOORS THEY HAVE THE MEZUZAH AND THE CHANUKAH CANDLE. THEREFORE THEY ARE NOT AFRAID OF THE GEHENOM OF SNOW, WHICH COMES FOR LAZINESS AND SLACKNESS IN OBSERVING THE PRECEPTS.

604. Come and behold: "She is not afraid of the snow for her household." This is the Congregation of Yisrael, whose "household are clothed with scarlet," like we said in relation to the words "crimsoned garments" (Yeshayah 63:1), which is a robe of strict Judgment, in which punishment is exacted from the idolatrous nations. The Holy One, blessed be He, will don a red garment and a red sword and punish the red, ESAV. The garment is red as in "crimsoned garment" and "Why is your apparel red" (Ibid. 2). Of the red sword, we learn from the verse "The sword of Hashem is filled with blood" (Yeshayah 34:6). He will punish the red, as it is written: "For Hashem has a sacrifice in Botzra" (Ibid.). Also "her household are clothed with scarlet," since THE NUKVA comes from strict judgment, AND THEREFORE "SHE IS NOT AFRAID OF THE SNOW."

605. Rabbi Yitzchak said: This is indeed so, but we should explain the words "her household are clothed with scarlet (Heb. shanim)." These are the primordial years (Heb. shanim), THE SECRET OF THE SEVEN SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT, for she is included of them all and sucks from all sides, as it is written: "All the rivers run into the sea" (Kohelet 1:7). SHE THEREFORE DOES NOT FEAR THE JUDGMENTS, WHICH ARE SNOW.

606. While they were walking, they met a child who was walking to Cappadocia behind a donkey, upon which rode an old man. The man said to the child, My son, read to me a passage of scripture. He said to him: I know not one but many passages, but alight first, or let me ride before you, and I will recite it. THE OLD MAN said to him: I am old and you are a child and I do not want to be put on the same level WITH YOU. THE CHILD said to him: Why then did you ask me to recite verses to you? He said: so that we shall walk together. The child said: may this old man hang himself, who rides and knows nothing but says he does not wish to be on a level with me. He left the old man and walked on the road.

607. When Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yitzchak arrived, the child approached them. They asked him and he told them what happened. Rabbi Yehuda said: You have acted rightly, come with us and let us sit here and hear your words. He said to them, I am weary since I have not eaten today. They took out bread and gave it to him. A miracle happened and they found a streamlet under a tree. He drank of it, and they drank and sat down.

607. בְּדַ מְטוּ ר' יְהוּדָה וְר' יִצְחָק, קְרִיב לְגַבְיֵיהוּ שְׁאִילוּ לִיהַּ, וְסַח לֹוֹן עוֹבְדָא, אָמַר לִיהַּ ר' יְהוּדָה, שְׁמִיר קָא עֲבַדְתָּ, זִיל בְּהַדְרָךְ, וְנִיתִיב הֲכָא, וְנִשְׁמַע מְלָה מִפּוּמְךָ. אָמַר לֹוֹן, לָאִי אָנָּא, דְּלָא אֲכִילְנָא יוֹמָא דִּין. אָמִיקוּ נְהֵמָא, וְיִהִיבוּ לִיהַּ. אֲתַרְחִישׁ לֹוֹן נִיֶּסָא, וְאַשְׁכַּחוּ חַד נְבִיעָא דְמִיָּא דְקִיק תַּחוּת אֵילְנָא, שְׁתִּי מְנִייהוּ, וְאִינוּן שְׁתוּ וְיִתִּיבוּ.

61. "Fret not yourself because of evil doers"

The child whom the rabbis encounter in the previous section opens a discussion about the title verse. We learn that this verse is not a prayer or a song, but rather, it was spoken by the Holy Spirit. The verse warns us not to challenge the wicked, since we do not know about the previous incarnations of our own souls, let alone anyone else's. Furthermore, this verse instructs us that we should not look on the deeds of others for fear of feeling envious. Envy of another, we're told, transgresses three negative precepts commanded by God.

The Relevance of this Passage

Casting a jealous eye towards our friends and foe's possessions and/or positions in life diverts our attention away from our own lot. We fail to appreciate our good fortune. Continued lack of appreciation inevitably leads to the loss of all that we should've held dear to our hearts. The mystical effect of these verses shifts our attention away from others and redirects it towards our own spiritual treasures. Additionally, passing judgement upon others causes us to neglect negative deeds and immoral traits ingrained in our own nature. A spiritual individual realizes that the trials and tribulations that challenge us are a direct result of prior incarnations and they cannot be measured against the deeds and fortunes of others, for all is relative in the overall scheme of spiritual evolution.

609. "Fret not yourself because of evil doers." HE ASKS: What is the meaning thereof? It should have been 'Join not EVIL DOERS.' HE REPLIES: Do not challenge the wicked, for you do not know your origins, TO WIT, THE INCARNATIONS OF YOUR SOUL. IT MIGHT BE that you will not prevail against him, if he is a tree which was never uprooted, A SOUL WHICH WAS NEVER INCARNATED BEFORE, WHICH IS VERY STRONG. Then you will be repulsed by him.

610. "Nor be envious against the workers of iniquity": Do not look at their deeds, for you might be envious against them. For whoever sees their works and is not zealous for the glory of the Holy One, blessed be He, transgresses three negative precepts: "You shall have no other Elohim beside me: You shall not make for yourself any carved idol, or any likeness of any thing...you shall not bow down to them, nor serve them: for I Hashem your Elohim am a jealous El" (Shemot 20:5).

62. Small Aleph

Here, the child, whom the rabbis encountered in section 59, first discourses on the verse, "And The Creator called to Moshe." The small Aleph ? in this verse, he explains, refers to Malchut alone. This is also the case in the verse, "and The Creator spoke to him out of the tent of meeting," since these words also came from Malchut alone. The Tent of Meeting is the Malchut, upon whom the calculation of time, all festivals, and Shabbat depends. The verse indicates that God spoke from above, from Binah. Zeir Anpin receives from Binah and gives to Malchut. In this way, Malchut was given permission from above to reveal supernal knowledge. We then learn about the verse, "And they brought the Tabernacle to Moshe." The reason the Tabernacle was brought to Moshe is that he corresponds to Zeir Anpin. Therefore, Moshe is the master of the house and may do what no other man can. When Moshe is addressed in the verse, "If any man of you bring an offering," it is Binah who is speaking. We are told that "an offering to The Creator" involves bringing the lower to join with that which is above, and "your offering" involves joining the upper with that which is below. All this is alluded to in the opening verses of Vayikra.

The Relevance of this Passage

Light radiates in the lives of all mankind when the realm of Zeir Anpin, the Upper World, enjoins with Malchut, our Lower World. Here, we connect to the Hebrew letter, the small Aleph ?, which embodies our physical dimension of time, space, and motion, known as Malchut. The Zohar's reference to the festivals, Shabbat, the Tabernacle, and Moses, is the mechanism by which Malchut [our world] makes contact with Zeir Anpin. Thus, each time our eyes fall upon these words, the two worlds are united and the Light of The Creator sparks our souls.

611. A man should therefore keep away from them, and turn his way from them. I therefore left and turned away from him. Now that I have found you, I shall recite these verses before you. He opened the discussion saying: "And Hashem called (Heb. vayikra) to Moshe" (Vayikra 1:1). Here IN VAYIKRA, the Aleph is small. HE ASKS why? HE ANSWERS: THIS SHOWS US that this calling was not perfect. Why? Because it was only in the tabernacle, WHICH IS TEMPORARY, and in a foreign land. For perfection is to be found only in the land of Yisrael.

612. WE HAVE TO EXPLAIN further ABOUT THE SMALL ALEPH, THAT IT IS SO BECAUSE here, IN THIS CALLING TO MOSHE, is the Shechinah, while there is perfection of a male and a female TOGETHER, AS IT IS WRITTEN "Adam, Shet, Enosh" (I Divrei Hayamim 1:1), 'Adam' IS SPELLED WITH A BIG ALEPH, WHICH ALLUDES TO the perfection of male and female IN UNION. But here THE ALEPH IS SMALL, WHICH ALLUDES TO the Nukva ALONE; NAMELY THE SHECHINAH. ANOTHER EVIDENCE comes from the end of the verse "and Hashem spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting." THE TENT OF MEETING IS THE NUKVA, HENCE THE WORDS CAME FROM THE NUKVA ALONE. Therefore the Aleph is small, AS SMALL LETTERS ALLUDE TO THE NUKVA, REGULAR ONES TO ZEIR ANPIN AND THE BIG TO IMA, OR TO THE PERFECTION OF MALE AND FEMALE TOGETHER, WHICH COMES THROUGH IMA ALONE.

613. Further explanation CONCERNING the small Aleph: There is a story of a king who sat upon his throne, with a crown on his head. He is then called the supreme king. When he goes down to visit the house of his servant he is called little king. The Holy One, blessed be He, too, as long as He is above all, is called a supreme King. Once He comes to dwell below in the tabernacle, he is still a King, but not supreme as before. Therefore the Aleph is small.

614. "And he called" as we learned MEANS THAT he called and invited him to his palace. "From the Tent of Meeting (Heb. moed)": What is it? It is a tent, upon which depends the reckoning of times (Heb. moed), festivals and Shabbat, as it says, "And let them be for signs, and for seasons" (Beresheet 1:14). In her abides the reckoning. Who is she? The moon, NAMELY THE NUKVA, FROM WHICH COME ALL THE CHANGES FROM WEEK DAYS TO FESTIVALS AND SHABBAT, THROUGH CHANGES IN THE STATURE OF HER MOCHIN, as it says, "A tent that shall not be taken down: its pegs shall not be removed for ever" (Yeshayah 33:20), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA CALLED TENT.

615. "Saying": HE ASKS: What does this mean? HE ANSWERS: IT MEANS revealing what is hidden inside. Wherever it says "saying," like in: "And Hashem spoke to Moshe, saying," it means that permission was given to reveal. Yet all is one, and it is well since the revelation was given to the moon, THE NUKVA, from where Moshe stands, ZEIR ANPIN, ACCORDING TO ORDER.

616. "And Hashem spoke," above, BINAH, "to Moshe," who is in the middle, ZEIR ANPIN, AS BINAH GIVES TO ZEIR ANPIN, "saying," which is the last one, THE NUKVA, WHO RECEIVES FROM ZEIR ANPIN. She is the place where permission to reveal is given. "And Hashem called to Moshe": It is written before, "And they brought the tabernacle to Moshe" (Shemot 39:33). Why bring it to Moshe? They said: "Moshe saw it upon mount Sinai, for the Holy One, blessed be He, showed it to him, as it says "as it was shown you in the mountain" (Shemot 27:8) "according to the pattern which Hashem had shown Moshe" (Bemidbar 8:4) and "And look that you make them after their pattern, which was shown to you in the mountain" (Shemot 25:40). They THEREFORE brought him THE TABERNACLE now, so he will see whether it resembles the tabernacle he has seen.

617. But ACCORDING TO THIS, IT IS YET HARD TO UNDERSTAND why they brought the tabernacle to Moshe, INSTEAD OF MOSHE COMING TO THE TABERNACLE. This is like a king who wanted to build a palace for the Matron. He ordered the craftsmen to build a room in one place, and a room in another place. Here will be the bed and there a place to recline. When the craftsmen finished it, they showed it to the king. So "they brought the tabernacle to Moshe," who is the master of the house and a man of Elohim. MOSHE DID NOT GO TO THE TABERNACLE BUT IT WAS BROUGHT TO HIM. When the palace was built, the Matron invited the king to it, invited her husband THE KING to be with her. Therefore He "called to Moshe," IS SPELLED WITH A SMALL ALEPH. THE SMALL ALEPH, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, CALLED TO MOSHE, ZEIR ANPIN, HER HUSBAND, TO BE WITH HER.

618. And since Moshe is the master of the house, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, THE HUSBAND OF THE MATRON, it says, "And Moshe would take the Tent" --THE NUKVA CALLED TENT--"and pitch it outside the camp" (Shemot 33:6). Moshe, who is the master of the house, may do what no other man may.

619. "And (Hashem) spoke to him." This is a different, supernal grade, BINAH. "AND HE CALLED," THE NUKVA CALLED "TO MOSHE," TIFERET, "AND SPOKE" IS BINAH. And so when Moshe was entering THE NUKVA, BINAH opened the discussion saying: "If any man of you bring an offering" (Vayikra 1:2), BINAH IS THE SPEAKER HERE. HE ASKS: Why say "man" here when IT WOULD HAVE SUFFICED TO SAY, "IF ANY OF YOU BRING AN OFFERING"? HE ANSWERS: When the sun and moon were united, TIFERET AND MALCHUT TOGETHER, BINAH opened and said: "Man." AND THEY WERE BOTH NAMED "MAN" IN THE SINGULAR, as it is written: "The sun and moon stood still in their habitation" (Chavakuk 3:11), "stood still" in the singular instead of the plural, BECAUSE THE SCRIPTURE SPEAKS OF THEIR BEING IN UNION.

620. "If any man of you bring an offering": It is hinted here that whoever makes a service of sacrifice flawlessly, should be there as male and female; NAMELY BE MARRIED. This is derived from the words "of you (plur.)," which indicates that he will have your images; TO WIT, BINAH SAID THIS TO TIFERET AND MALCHUT, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF MOSHE CALLED "MAN." "An offering to Hashem," by sacrificing all in order to be united both above and below. HENCE IT IS FIRST SAID "AN OFFERING TO HASHEM," WHICH IS THE JOINING FROM BELOW UPWARD, AND THEN "YOUR OFFERING," JOINING FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD, AS WAS SAID BEFORE.

621. "Of the cattle" shows the unity of man and beast as one, AS WAS SAID BEFORE: "AN OFFERING TO HASHEM" IS MAN, WHO IS THE UNISON FROM BELOW UPWARD, WHENCE IT IS DRAWN DOWNWARD BY THE SECRET OF "YOUR OFFERING" OF THE CATTLE. THE TWO UNISONS ILLUMINE TOGETHER. "Of the oxen and of the sheep": These are pure Chariots. In saying "of the cattle (lit. 'animal')," one might think it refers to all living creatures, both clean and unclean. It therefore continues "of the oxen and of the sheep."

622. "Shall you bring your offering": HE ASKS: It should have been "His offering," AS IT IS WRITTEN BEFORE "AN OFFERING TO HASHEM." Why say "your offering"? HE ANSWERS: First it should have been "an offering to Hashem" and now "your offering." HE EXPOUNDS UPON IT: "An offering to Hashem" is THE UNITY CALLED MAN, NAMELY THE RAISING OF THE NUKVA TO BE UNITED ABOVE THE CHEST OF ZEIR ANPIN, CALLED man. "Your offering...of the oxen, and of the flock" CONTINUES THE ILLUMINATION OF THE UNION OF THE CHEST UPWARD UNTO THE LOWER BEINGS WHO ARE FROM THE CHEST DOWNWARD in order to demonstrate the unison from below upward and from above downward. From below upward is "the offering to Hashem" and from above downward is "your offering."

618. ובגין דמשה מארי דביתא איהו, מה כתיב, ומשה יקח את האהל ונטה לו מחוץ למחנה, משה דאיהו מארי דביתא, עביד הכי, מה דלית רשו לבר נש אחרא למעבד הכי.

621. מן הבהמה, לאחזאה אדם ובהמה, פלא בחדא. מן הבקר ומן הצאן, אלין רתיכין, דאינון דכיון, דכיון דאמר מן הבהמה, וכול מפלא, בין דכיון, בין מסאבן, הדר ואמר מן הבקר ומן הצאן.

623. This is like a king who sits high upon a great mountain, and his throne is fixed on it. The king WHO SITS ON THE THRONE is higher than anyone. A man who offers the king a present, should take it up step by step until he reaches the top where the king sits up high. Everyone knows then that a present is brought up to the king. And this is the present to the king. When a present is brought down, then surely it is a present from the king above to his friend below.

623. לְמַלְכָּא, דְּאִיהוּ יְתִיב בְּטוֹרְסָקָא עֲלָאָה, לְעִילָא לְעִילָא, וְכִרְסִיא אֲתַתְּקֵן עַל הַהוּא טוֹרְסָקָא, וּמַלְכָּא עֲלָאָה עַל כֻּלָּא. בַּר נֶשׁ דְּקָרִיב דּוֹרוּנָא לְמַלְכָּא, בְּעָא לְסַלְקָא מְדַרְגָּא לְדַרְגָּא, עַד דְּסָלִיק מִתַּתָּא לְעִילָא לְאַתֵּר דְּמַלְכָּא יְתִיב, עֲלָאָה עַל כֻּלָּא, וּכְדִין יִדְעִין דְּהָא סָלְקִין דּוֹרוּנָא לְמַלְכָּא, וְהוּא דּוֹרוּנָא דְּמַלְכָּא אִיהוּ. נְחִית דּוֹרוּנָא מֵעִילָא לְתַתָּא, הָא יִדְעִין דְּהוּא דּוֹרוּנָא דְּמַלְכָּא נְחִית מֵעִילָא, לְרַחֲמֵי דְּמַלְכָּא, דְּאִיהוּ לְתַתָּא.

624. So at first, man mounts the grades from below upward. This is "an offering to Hashem." "Of the cattle and of the oxen," he descends down the grades from above. This is "your offering." Hence it is written, "I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk" (Shir Hashirim 5:1), which is a man and "an offering to Hashem," FOR IT IS THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, WHO SAYS, "I HAVE EATEN..."; "Eat, O dear ones" "of the cattle, of the oxen and of the sheep." Then, "shall you bring your offering."

625. Rabbi Yitzchak and Rabbi Yehuda came to him and kissed his forehead. They said: 'Blessed by the Merciful one that these words were not wasted on that old man', WHO WOULD NOT HAVE UNDERSTOOD THEM, AND THE WORDS WOULD BE LOST. They rose and went. While they were walking, they saw a vine planted in a garden.

625. אָתוּ ר' יִצְחָק וְרַבֵּי יְהוּדָה, וְנִשְׁקוּהָ עַל רִישׁוּהָ, אָמְרוּ, בְּרִיךְ רַחֲמֵנָא דְּזַבִּינָא לְמִשְׁמַע דָּא, וּבְרִיךְ רַחֲמֵנָא, דְּלֹא אֲתַאבִּידוּ מְלִין אֵלֶיךָ בְּהוּא סְבָא. קָמוּ וְאָזְלוּ, עַד דְּהוּוּ אָזְלֵי, חָמוּ חַד גַּפֵּן נָטִיעַ בְּחַד גִּנָּא.

63. "Binding his foal to the vine," part two

This second discussion of the title verse interprets it as containing a warning against the Klipah of the mule and the foal. Were it not for the aspect of the Holy Name included here, we are told, these Klipot would have destroyed the world. The vine signifies the congregation of Yisrael, which accepts none, but God, as a vine will receive no graft from another tree. The child and the rabbis then discuss the verse "He washed his garments in wine." This is interpreted as signifying the Mashiach, the Female Principle, who will overpower the idolatrous nations. Another explanation is that the Yisraelites draw from Malchut in Holiness and she therefore brings them mercy and joy. The idolatrous nations, however, draw from Malchut excessively and are consequently subject to Judgment. We then learn the significance of the verse, "His eyes are red with wine, and his teeth white with milk." The Written Law of the Torah is called milk, and the Oral Law is called wine. The passage is an allusion to the illumination of Binah and the intoxicating Torah, Malchut, which transfers judgment to those who draw it downwards from above. Following this, through an interpretation of the verse, "And wine that makes glad the heart of man", we learn that wine begins in joy and ends in judgment. The "oil to brighten the face" signifies the drawing of Chassadim from Aba, through which all judgments are cancelled. The final verse of this discourse is "and bread which sustains the heart of man." It is a reference to the bread that sustains the world, signifying Zeir Anpin. The world depends on both bread and wine, the Female Principle and Zeir Anpin, since they sustain the world together. Therefore, when saying grace, there must be bread on the left side of the table and wine on the right, in order to pronounce a proper blessing on the Holy Name.

The Relevance of this Passage

All things must be in balance in order to generate and sustain fulfillment. Too much of a good thing eventually brings negativity. Common phrases, such as "killing him with kindness," help convey the lesson and Light being distilled in this passage. The wisdom and discipline to balance our desires to receive with our desire to share are infused into our being. We are inspired to direct and channel our desires for spiritual purposes as opposed to selfish, indulgent pursuits, the former generating fulfillment, the latter bringing judgement down upon this world.

626. The child opened the discussion saying: "Binding his foal to the vine, and his ass's colt to the choice vine." This verse contains a high mystery. HE ASKS: Why does it say "osri (binding)" instead of the customary 'oser' and "iroh (ass)" instead of 'ayir'? HE ANSWERS: It is the secret that the schoolchildren should beware of the sharp edge OF THE KLIPAH of the ass. The Holy Name Yud-Hei is included there in order to subdue it, TO WIT, THE YUD OF 'OSRI' TOGETHER WITH THE HEI OF 'IROH'.

627. Just as the Holy Name is hinted here, IT IS HINTED ALSO IN THE WORDS "AND HIS ASS'S COLT TO THE CHOICE VINE." It says "sorekah" (choice vine) instead of 'sorek' and bni (colt) instead of ben, as it is written: "And I have planted you a noble vine (Heb. sorek)" (Yirmeyah 2:21) WITHOUT HEI and "upon a colt (Heb. ben)" (Zechariah 9:9) WITHOUT YUD. Why then is it written here sorekah and bni?

628. As there is a Holy Name which subdues the KLIPAH foal, so there is a Holy Name to subdue the power of another KLIPAH, the ass. IT IS THE YUD OF 'BNI' AND THE HEI OF 'SOREKAH'. Were it not for the Holy Name hinted here, THESE TWO KLIPOT would have destroyed the world. Therefore, there is Yud-Hei against this force and Yud-Hei against the other force, which protect the world against them, and preserve man so they would have no mastery over him in the world.

629. "Binding his foal to the vine": What is the vine? It is the Congregation of Yisrael. Wherefore is it called vine? As a vine will receive no graft from another tree, so the Congregation of Yisrael accepts none but the Holy One, blessed be He. Therefore, in front of the Congregation of Yisrael all other forces are subdued, THE FOAL AND THE ASS, and they cannot harm and rule the world. Therefore scripture inserts between them the Holy Name Yud-Hei on the side OF THE FOAL and the side OF THE ASS. The ass's colt is uprooted due to the choice vine, THE CONGREGATION OF YISRAEL, as said: "And I have planted you a noble vine."

630. "He washed his garments in wine." HE ASKS: Why does it say "washed" IN THE PAST TENSE instead of "washes"? HE ANSWERS: He has been washing since the world was created. Who has? King Mashiach, THE NUKVA, THEREFORE "WASHED" IS IN THE PAST TENSE. "In wine" is the left side, NAMELY GVURAH OF ZEIR ANPIN; "the blood of grapes" is the left side below; NAMELY THE LEFT SIDE OF THE NUKVA. WITH THE TWO GVUROT, OF ZEIR ANPIN AND OF THE NUKVA HERSELF, SHE WASHES HER GARMENTS. Mashiach, THE NUKVA, will rule above over all the other forces of the idolatrous nations, and crush their stronghold above and below.

631. Another explanation for "He washed his garments in wine": Wine is a sign of joy, AS IN THE VERSE, "MY WINE, WHICH CHEERS ELOHIM AND MAN" (SHOFTIM 9:13), and is all judgment, so King Mashiach, WHO IS THE NUKVA, brings joy to the children of Yisrael, WHO DRAW FROM IT IN HOLINESS, but is all judgment to the idolatrous nations, WHO DRAW FROM IT EXCESSIVELY. It is written, "And the spirit of Elohim hovered over the surface of the waters" (Bereshheet 1:2). This is the spirit of King Mashiach, WHICH HOVERS TO AND FRO BETWEEN JUDGMENT AND MERCY. From the Creation of the world, He washes His garment in the holy wine, AS SAID ABOVE.

632. The following words are, "His eyes are red with wine, and his teeth white with milk." "HIS EYES ARE RED WITH WINE" refers to the supernal wine, NAMELY THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT OF BINAH. The Torah, THE NUKVA, when it intoxicating NAMELY TRANSFERS JUDGMENT TO THOSE WHO DRAW IT FROM ABOVE DOWNWARD, drinks it AND THEREFORE BINAH IS CONSIDERED, AS IF JUDGMENT COME FROM HER. "And his teeth white with milk" REFERS TO THE WRITTEN TORAH, ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH ACCEPTS CHASSADIM CALLED MILK, for the Torah is called wine and milk, the Written Torah, ZEIR ANPIN, IS CALLED MILK, and the Oral Law, THE NUKVA IS CALLED WINE. WINE IS COME FROM BINAH AND MILK FROM ABA.

633. It is written, "And wine that makes glad the heart of man; oil to brighten the face" (Tehilim 104:15). Indeed it is from the place called oil, WHICH IS ABA. HE EXPLAINS HIS WORDS, Come and behold: wine first makes glad, because it is a place whence all joys come from, NAMELY BINAH, and ends in Judgment WHEN IT EXPANDS TOWARDS THE NUKVA. Why? Because its ending is the place of gathering of all THE SFIROT, NAMELY THE NUKVA, WHICH IS THEREFORE CALLED THE CONGREGATION OF YISRAEL; NAMELY THE PLACE OF GATHERING OF ZEIR ANPIN. It is Judgment by which the world is sentenced. Therefore, since wine starts with joy and ends in Judgment, therefore there is "oil to brighten the face," whence all the joys issue, FOR IN ORDER TO DRAW THE JOY OF WINE, AS IT WAS IN BINAH, IT DRAWS CHASSADIM FROM ABA, CALLED OIL. THROUGH THIS, ALL JUDGMENTS IN IT ARE CANCELLED AND IT ATTAINS THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, WHICH ARE CALLED FACE, THE SECRET OF "OIL TO BRIGHTEN THE FACE."

634. "And bread which sustains the heart of man" (Tehilim 104:15): HE ASKS: What is the bread MENTIONED HERE? HE RESPONDS: It is the bread which sustains the world, THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM DRAWN FROM CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN. You might say that the world depends on it alone. This is not true. IT NEEDS ALSO WINE, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, AS WAS SAID BEFORE, since night cannot exist without day. BUT THE DAY, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, AND THE NIGHT, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, SHOULD BE JOINED TOGETHER. HENCE WE NEED BREAD FROM ZEIR ANPIN AND WINE FROM THE NUKVA, WHICH BOTH TOGETHER NOURISH THE WORLD. One must not separate them, AND DRAW BREAD ALONE FROM ZEIR ANPIN WITHOUT THE NUKVA. Whoever separates them is separated from life, as it is written: "That He might make you know that man does not live by bread only" (Devarim 8:3). Thus one should not separate them.

632. חמי מה כתיב בתריה, חכלילי עינים מיין ולבן שנים מחלב, דא חמרא עלאה, דאורייתא דמרוי, מניה שתי. ולבן שנים מחלב, דהא אורייתא יין וחלב, תורה שבכתב, ותורה שבעל פה.

635. It may be asked why David said: "And bread which sustains the heart of man," seeing that the world does not depend on it alone for nourishment. HE ANSWERS: The exact meaning of the words IS THAT in "and bread" there is and extra Vav (= and) like "and Hashem," WHICH INCLUDES THE NUKVA, FOR WHEREVER IT SAYS "AND HASHEM," IT INCLUDES HIM AND HIS COURT OF JUSTICE, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. HERE TOO "AND" INCLUDES THE NUKVA, and therefore all is together, NAMELY IN UNISON.

636. HE FURTHER EXPLAINS, Come and see when saying grace after meals, one should not bless over an empty table. There should be bread, THE ABUNDANCE OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS RIGHT, on the table, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, ON THE LEFT SIDE, and a glass of wine, WHICH IS THE ABUNDANCE OF THE NUKVA, on the right side, WHICH ALLUDES TO ZEIR ANPIN. What is the reason thereof? It attaches the left to the right AND BINDS THEM. Thus the bread, WHICH IS RIGHT, will be blessed by them, THROUGH THE UNION WITH THE LEFT, and be attached to them, and they will all become one knot for the proper blessing of the Holy Name. For bread, WHICH IS THE RIGHT, FROM ZEIR ANPIN, is connected to wine, WHICH IS LEFT, FROM THE NUKVA; and wine, WHICH IS OF THE LEFT, will be attached to the right. Then blessings rest on the world and the table, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is properly perfected.

637. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Had we gone this way only to hear these words, it would have been worth our while. Rabbi Yehuda said: It would have been better for this child not to know so much and I fear that for this, he might not survive in the world. Why, said Rabbi Yitzchak. He said: Since this boy can look upon a place where a man is not permitted to look, I am afraid for him that he will observe and look there before the time will come for him to marry, BEFORE HE WILL COME OF AGE, and be punished for it.

638. The boy heard and said: I never fear punishment, because when my father passed away, he blessed me and prayed for me, and I know that my father's merit will protect me. They asked him, And who is your father? He said: I am the son of Rav Hamnuna Saba (the elder). They took him on their shoulders for three miles.

The rabbis explain the title verse to the young son of Rav Hamnuna Saba (the elder). Their interpretation reveals that Yesod consumes the abundance from the Sfirot of Zeir Anpin. Through the strength of the Strict Judgment of Zeir Anpin, the Upper Worlds, signifying the Written Law, Malchut, our physical world, receives an abundance of illumination from the left. The Oral Law, called "honey," is this illumination of the left within Malchut. The righteous, we're told, provide "food" for the world, without which Malchut would be unable to endure. After delivering the young boy to his mother, the companions relate their experiences to Rabbi Shimon. A discussion of the verse, "Gird your sword upon your thigh," ensues. One interpretation provided reveals that this alludes to the vengeance of the Holy Covenant that the avenging sword wreaks on he who impairs the imprinted sign of the Holy Covenant. He who desires to protect the Holy Covenant should prepare and arm himself against the Evil Inclination by drawing this sword upon his thigh before it. Another explanation instructs us that before setting out on a journey, one should prepare oneself through prayers and supplication, and gird oneself with righteousness.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here, judgments that are hanging over us are sweetened with supernal "honey". The Light and the blessings of the righteous blanket us with protection and help generate sustenance. We are inspired to seek the path of the Torah and, in turn, we gain the strength to triumph over our Evil Inclinations. Finally, this passage provides us with protection for all of our journeys by igniting sparks of righteousness within our soul.

639. They recited the verse, "Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness" (Shoftim 14:14). The boy said to them: You have spoken THIS VERSE, now explain it. They said to him: The Holy One, blessed be He, appointed us a path of life, you speak!

640. He opened the discussion saying: "Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness." There is another verse which shows that the eater is the righteous, which says, "The righteous eats to satisfy his soul" (Mishlei 13:25). The righteous, YESOD, indeed eats and takes all THE ABUNDANCE FROM THE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN. Why? "To satisfy his soul" and to satisfy that place called David's soul, NAMELY THE NUKVA. "Came forth food": Were it not for the righteous, no food would be provided for the world, and the world THE NUKVA would not have been able to endure. "And out of the strong came forth sweetness." This is Yitzchak, who blessed Ya'akov "of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth" (Beresheet 27:28).

642. They went together for three days until they reached the village where the CHILD'S mother LIVED. When she saw them she prepared the house and they stayed there for three more days, blessed him and went. They related what happened to Rabbi Shimon. He said: Surely he inherited the Torah. Were it not for ancestral merits OF RABBI HAMNUNA SABA (THE ELDER), he would have been punished from above. But the Holy One, blessed be He, is with those who follow the Torah. They inherit it and their descendants after them forever, as it is written: "As for me, this is my covenant with them, says Hashem; My spirit that is upon you" (Yeshayah 59:21).

643. "Zvulun shall dwell at the shore of the sea; and he shall be a haven for ships, and his border (or: thigh)..." Rabbi Aba opened the discussion saying: "Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty warrior: Your glory and your majesty" (Tehilim 45:4). HE ASKS: Is there glory and majesty in girding and wearing a weapon? Whoever studies the Torah and is engaged in war for the Torah, and arms himself with it, he is praiseworthy. This is glory and majesty. Why does it say, "Gird your sword...YOUR GLORY AND YOUR MAJESTY"?

639. קרו עליה, מהאוכל יצא מאכל ומעז יצא מתוק וגו'. אמר לון ההוא ינוקא, מלה אתא לידיהו, פרישו לה. אמרו ליה, קודשא בריך הוא זמין לן ארחא דחיי, אימא אנת.

644. HE ANSWERS: Assuredly the meaning of this is that the Holy One, blessed be He, imprinted the sign of the holy covenant upon men to preserve it and not blemish the impress of the King. Whoever impairs it, avenging sword rises before him and takes the vengeance of the holy covenant, which was imprinted upon him who impaired it.

645. He who desires to keep this place, THE HOLY COVENANT, should prepare and arm himself and when the Evil Inclination assails him, he should draw before it this sword which is upon the thigh, thus taking vengeance upon him who impairs that place CALLED THIGH. Hence, "Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty warrior." He is mighty, WHO VANQUISHES THE EVIL INCLINATION, and is called mighty. This is "your glory and majesty."

646. Another explanation for, "Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty warrior": Before setting out on a journey, one should prepare himself with a prayer to his Master, and gird himself with righteousness, NAMELY MALCHUT, which is the supernal sword, through prayers and supplication, as it is written: "Righteousness shall go before him, and walk in the way of his steps" (Tehilim 85:14).

647. Come and see: Zvulun always went out on ways and paths, and engaged in wars, and armed himself with this supernal sword, WHICH IS THE NUKVA ON THE SIDE OF JUDGMENTS OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, with prayers and supplication, before setting out on his way. He then overcame and conquered nations. You may say that this was assigned to Yehuda, who was ready with the sword to wage wars and prepare amendments, FOR HE IS OF THE ASPECT OF MALCHUT, why then Zvulun? HE ANSWERS, Come and behold: the twelve tribes were the adornments of the Matron, WHO IS MALCHUT. THUS ZVULUN TOO IS OF THE ASPECT OF MALCHUT.

647. תָּא חֲזִי, זְבוּלוֹן נִפְיֵק תְּדִירָא לְשִׁבּוּלִין, וְאַרְחִין, וְאַגַּח קְרַבִּין, וְאַזְדְּרוּ בְּהֵאֵי חֶרֶב עֲלָאָה, בְּצִלּוֹתָא וּבַעוֹתֵין, עַד לֹא נִפְיֵק בְּאַרְחָא, וּכְדִין נִצַּח עִמֵּין, וְאַתְתְּקַף עֲלֵיהוּ. וְאֵי תִימָא יְהוּדָה, הָא אֶתְתְּקַן בְּהֵאֵי, לְאַגַּחָא קְרַבִּין, וְתִקּוּנֵין, בְּהֵאֵי חֶרֶב, אִמְאֵי זְבוּלוֹן. אֵלֵּא, תָּא חֲזִי, הֵנִי תְרִיסַר שְׁבֻטִין, כְּלֵהוּ תְקוּנָא דְּמִטְרוּנֵיתָא הוּוּ.

65. Two improvements of the Nukva

In Shir Hashirim, King Solomon made two corrections of the Nukva [Malchut]. One relates to the Jubilee, signifying Binah, and the other to the adornment of the bride, the Shmitah, signifying the Nukva. We learn that the creation was manifest in two places, the Upper and the Lower Worlds resembling each other perfectly. The upper Female Principle was corrected by Binah. These corrections were then drawn to the lower Nukva, thereby perfecting Malchut. The supernal correction is both concealed and revealed, because prophecy does not dwell outside the land of Yisrael. The lower correction is more exposed.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here we draw down Divine Light from the realm known as Binah that helps correct our souls and the entire world from previous iniquities. We draw the force of perfection from King Solomon, which helps bring about the final correction of the world and the age of Mashiach.

648. Solomon mentioned two improvements of the Nukva in "Shir Hashirim," one for the supernal shepherdess, the Yovel (Jubilee), NAMELY BINAH, and one for the bride, the Shmitah (Sabbatical year), NAMELY THE NUKVA. One correction above IN BINAH and one below IN THE NUKVA. The Creation too was manifest in two places, one work above IN BINAH, and one below IN THE NUKVA. This is why the Torah begins with Bet (=two), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE TWO NUKVAS. The work below resembled IN ITS PERFECTION the work above. ABA made the upper world, BINAH, and ZEIR ANPIN made the lower world, THE NUKVA. In the same manner, of the two improvements of the Nukvas mentioned by Solomon, the one is above and the other below. The upper one is fixed by the upper establishment of the Holy Name, WHICH IS BINAH, and the lower by the establishment of the lower one, THE NUKVA, like the upper establishment IN BINAH. ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS HE MADE IN THE SUPERNAL NUKVA, HE DREW UNTO THE LOWER NUKVA, BY WHICH THE LOWER NUKVA, MALCHUT, WAS PERFECTED AS THE UPPER ONE, BINAH.

649. Come and see: Happy is the portion of holy Ya'akov, who merited this. We learned that since the world was created, there was not a more complete bed as Ya'akov's bed. When Ya'akov prepared to depart from the world, he was whole on all sides, Avraham, CHESED, on his right, Yitzchak, GVURAH, on his left, and he himself, TIFERET, in the middle. The Shechinah was before him. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE PERFECTION OF THE FOUR LEGS OF THE SUPERNAL THRONE, EACH OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT INCLUDES THREE, AMOUNTING TO TWELVE, AND BINAH ABOVE THEM. When Ya'akov saw this, he called his sons and said to them, "Gather yourselves" so there will be adornment above and below.

650. Come and see: The secret of the matter is that two establishments were there, an upper and a lower one, so that all will be perfected; TO WIT, THE NUKVA PERFECTED LIKE BINAH. HE EXPLAINS, The supernal correction is concealed and revealed, since it is the adornment of the Yovel (Jubilee), which Solomon mentioned in "Shir Hashirim," which we said TO BE BINAH. The head, THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN, is concealed, since it is not revealed here, nor should it be, AS THE HEAD OF ZEIR ANPIN IS ESTABLISHED BY CHESED AND GVURAH; the arms and the body, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, are exposed and known; the legs, NETZACH AND HOD, are concealed and cannot be seen. Why? Because prophecy, THE SECRET OF ABUNDANCE OF NETZACH AND HOD, does not dwell outside the land of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, TO WIT, THEIR ABUNDANCE IS REVEALED IN THE NUKVA, THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH WHICH BELONGS TO HER, AND NOT TO ZEIR ANPIN. And this establishment is concealed and revealed.

651. Another lower establishment (also: 'adornment') is the adornment of the bride, which Solomon mentioned in "Shir Hashirim," THE NUKVA. This adornment is more visible SINCE THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH IS SHINING HERE. This adornment is done through the twelve tribes under her, and the adornment of her body; THEY ARE THE FOUR SFIROT CHESED AND GVURAH, NETZACH AND HOD, THREE KNOTS IN EACH AND TWELVE IN ALL. THE NUKVA, TIFERET BETWEEN THEM, IS ABOVE THEM, AS WAS SAID BEFORE.

66. Corrected by twelve in two worlds

Rabbi Aba begins the discussion by quoting the verse, "And he made a molten sea" It stood upon twelve oxen" We learn that when Ya'akov saw the adornment of the upper sea by the twelve chariots appointed from above, he wished to complete the adornment of the lower sea. He therefore called to his twelve sons to prepare to perfect the Faith. Thus, the Lower World, the Nukva, [Malchut] was perfected by the twelve tribes. Three tribes look to each of the four directions of the world, signifying Chesed, Gvurah, Netzach, and Hod, the arms and legs of the body of the Shechinah. We also learn that "The seven eyes of The Creator" allude to the seventy members of the Sanhedrin. The hairs on his head are signified by the great numbers in the camp of Reuven and in the camp of Yehuda. The discourse then turns again to supernal correction of the Jubilee discussed in the previous section. Finally, the rabbis expand upon the significance of the twelve supports of Binah and the Nukva, the structure of the metaphorical body, the seven supernal eyes, and the hairs of the head.

The Relevance of this Passage

Readers of this passage rise above the negative celestial influences of the twelve constellations. Ascending over the signs allows us to become the captains of our own destiny. In addition, the protective Light of the Shechinah encircles our souls. The twelve tribes also signify the support and foundation of the spiritual worlds, and thus, we draw support for our own efforts towards spiritual evolvement.

652. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the verse, "And he made a molten sea... It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking towards the north, and three looking towards the west, and three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east: and the sea was set above upon them" (1 Melachim, 7:23-25) and "twelve oxen under the sea" (Ibid. 44). "It stood upon twelve oxen" surely, for the sea is adorned by twelve within both worlds, THE SUPERNAL WORLD BINAH AND THE LOWER WORLD THE NUKVA. The upper twelve are the Chariots appointed from above, and the lower twelve are the twelve tribes. When Ya'akov saw the supernal adornment, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, and the Shechinah in front of him, WHICH IS MALCHUT, THE SECRET OF THE FOUR LEGS OF THE SUPERNAL THRONE, he wanted to complete the adornment, so he called for his twelve sons and said to them "Gather yourselves" and prepare yourselves to perfect the faith, THE NUKVA. THEY SHOULD RECTIFY THEMSELVES WITH THE SECRET OF THE ADORNMENT OF THE NUKVA'S TWELVE, SO THAT THE NUKVA WILL BE COMPLETED, LIKE THE NUKVA ABOVE, BINAH, AND THE ADORNMENT WILL BE COMPLETED.

653. Come and see the twelve tribes with four standards to the four directions: "Three looking towards the north, and three looking towards the west, and three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east: and the sea was set above upon them." So three tribes look to each of the four directions of the world, three tribes to the right arm, CHESED, and three tribes to the left arm, GVURAH, three tribes to the right leg, NETZACH, and three tribes to the left leg, HOD. And the body of the Shechinah, TIFERET CALLED BODY, is above them, as it is written: "and the sea was set above upon them," AS THE SEA IS THE SHECHINAH.

654. Why are there three tribes per arm and three tribes per leg? The secret of this is that there are three joints in the right arm OF THE LOWER BODY, and so in the left arm, the right leg and the left leg. They are twelve altogether, attached to the body as above. Whence do we know that? From the verse, "All these are the twelve tribes of Yisrael: and this" (Bereshheet 49:28). HE ATTACHED: "AND THIS IS THAT WHICH THEIR FATHER SPOKE TO THEM," THE NUKVA CALLED 'THIS', because the reckoning is complete with her, as it says, "And the sea was set above upon them," WHICH IS THE NUKVA CALLED SEA. THUS, THE TWELVE TRIBES ARE ATTACHED TO THE BODY OF THE NUKVA ABOVE THEM.

655. "The seven eyes of Hashem" (Zecharyah 4:10) are the seven eyes of the congregation, the seventy members of the Sanhedrin, AS EACH OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT IS INCLUDED OF TEN, SEVENTY IN ALL, IN THE SECRET OF THE VERSE "FOR THE JUDGMENT IS HASHEM'S" (DEVARIM 1:17). The hairs THAT GROW FROM THIS HEAD ARE ALLUDED TO in the verse, "All that were numbered in the camp of Yehuda were a hundred thousand" (Bemidbar 2:9). "All that were numbered in the camp of Reuven..." (Ibid. 16). ALL THOSE GREAT NUMBERS ARE CONSIDERED TO BE THE HAIRS OF THE NUKVA.

656. You may ask: In Egypt, when Ya'akov departed from the world, where was perfection at that time, where were all those WHO WERE NUMBERED IN THE CAMPS, WHO ARE CONSIDERED THE HAIRS OF THE NUKVA? IF THEY WERE NOT THERE, THE NUKVA WOULD THEN BE IMPERFECT, FOR THEY ARE HER HAIRS. HE ANSWERS: Indeed they were seventy souls WHEN THEY ARRIVED IN EGYPT, CORRESPONDING TO THE MOCHIN OF THE SEVENTY MEMBERS OF THE SANHEDRIN, and they begot innumerable descendants during the seventeen years THAT YA'AKOV LIVED IN EGYPT, as it is written: "And the children of Yisrael were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty (Heb. vaya'atzmu)" (Shemot 1:7). THEY WERE ALSO CONSIDERED AS THE HAIRS OF THE NUKVA, as it is written: "They are more (Heb. atzmu) than the hairs of my head" (Tehilim 40:13). THE WORD 'VAYA'ATZMU' ALSO REFERS TO HAIRS. THEY LIVED AT THE TIME OF YA'AKOV'S DEPARTURE FROM THE WORLD, AND THEREFORE PERFECTION WAS NOT INCOMPLETE. Happy is the portion of perfect Ya'akov, who was perfected above and below.

657. Rabbi Elazar said TO RABBI ABA, Surely this is AS YOU SAID. But concerning the supernal correction of the Yovel (Jubilee), BINAH, how could there be so much there, NAMELY THE TWELVE ASPECTS? RABBI ABA said to him: After the lion was set to enter the vineyard, who should follow? WHICH MEANS, EXPLAIN IT YOURSELF.

658. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the verse, "But He is unchangeable (lit. 'in one'), and who can turn Him? and what His soul desires, even that He does" (Iyov 23:13). The supernal establishment IN BINAH is all one, and there is no division in it, like in the lower ESTABLISHMENT IN THE NUKVA, as it says "and from thence it was parted, and branched into four streams" (Beresheet 2:10), FOR THERE IS SEPARATION WITHIN THE NUKVA. Though it is divided, it all comes to one when you examine it, FOR EVEN THE SEPARATION IN HER IS FIXED BY THE CORRECTION OF THE TWELVE, AND THEN SHE IS ALL ONE. BUT BINAH WAS NEVER DIVIDED, AND NEEDS NO CORRECTION OF THE TWELVE TO FIX HER.

659. But the establishment of the supernal Yovel (Jubilee), BINAH, is also supported by twelve like the lower one, THE NUKVA. And though it is one, AND WAS NEVER PARTED, yet it perfects every side, this and that side-- IN OTHER WORDS, THE ONENESS OF THE SFIROT TO THE RIGHT COMPLETES THE LEFT SIDE, AND VICE VERSA. Thus the six supernal extremities, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD OF BINAH, become twelve, since each of them lends ITS LIGHTS to its neighbor and is included of its neighbor's LIGHTS. Hence they are twelve, with the body OF BINAH above THEM. What is the body? It is Ya'akov, as we learned, NAMELY TIFERET, AND NOT BINAH WHICH IS THE HEAD AND NOT THE BODY. HOW CAN YOU SAY THAT BINAH IS THE BODY OVER THE TWELVE? HE ANSWERS: the head and the body are together, TO WIT, THEY ARE INCLUDED WITHIN EACH OTHER, AND THEREFORE THE ASPECT OF TIFERET EXISTS ALSO IN THE HEAD OF BINAH.

660. WE SHOULD further EXPLAIN THE SECRET OF twelve. There are three joints in the right arm, Chesed-Chassadim, WHICH MEANS ALL THREE PERTAIN TO CHESED, and three joints in the left arm, Gvurah-Gvurot, THAT IS THREE TIMES GVUROT, three joints in the right leg, Netzach-Netzachim, THAT IS, THREE TIMES NETZACH, and three joints in the left leg, Hod and Hodot. Together, there are twelve, and with the body, TIFERET, which stands above them, there are thirteen. The Torah too is expounded by the thirteen attributes, THE THIRTEEN ATTRIBUTES OF MERCY DRAWN FROM THE THIRTEEN CHARACTERISTICS OF THE BEARD OF ARICH ANPIN, which are all one WITHOUT, HEAVEN FORBID, ANY SEPARATION. They are drawn from above downward as one, until they reach that place, which is in division, THE NUKVA.

661. There are seven supernal eyes, THE SEVEN SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT OF THE MOCHIN OF CHOCHMAH CALLED EYES. There are "the eyes of Hashem, they rove (masc.) to and fro through the whole earth" (Zecharyah 4:10), they are male; NAMELY OF ZEIR ANPIN, since it is the place of the male. It is written elsewhere, "For the eyes of Hashem run (fem.) to and fro" (Il Divrei Hayamim 16:9), they are part of the adornments of the Shechinah below, the place of the female. The seven supernal eyes, EITHER OF THE MALE OR OF THE FEMALE, correspond to the verse, "Yours, O Hashem, is the greatness (Chesed), and the Gvurah, AND THE TIFERET, AND THE NETZACH, AND THE HOD: FOR ALL THAT IS IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH (YESOD) IS YOURS; YOURS IS THE KINGDOM (MALCHUT), O HASHEM" (I Divrei Hayamim 29:11). This place, MALCHUT, completes each end OF THE SIX EXTREMITIES CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD.

662. We have to look at the hairs OF THE MALE AND THE FEMALE, as it is written: "Who can utter the mighty acts (Heb. Gvurot) of Hashem?" (Tehilim 106:2). FOR THE HAIRS ARE CONSIDERED TO BE GVUROT. IT ALSO SAYS, "They are more than the hairs of my head" (Tehilim 40:13), and "Hashem's Chassadim have not ceased" (Eichah 3:22), SINCE THE HAIRS ARE GVUROT YET INNUMERABLE CHASSADIM ARE DRAWN THROUGH THEM, OF WHICH IT SAYS, THE "HASHEM'S CHASSADIM HAVE NOT CEASED." These adornments rise to another place, TO MOCHIN WITHOUT reckoning, though this place, THE MOCHIN OF RECKONING, THE SECRET OF THE SEVEN EYES OF HASHEM, is spoken of more, and put on a scale, NAMELY UPON THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH BALANCES THE TWO SIDES OF THE SCALES, THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, the upper, BINAH and the lower, MALCHUT. King Solomon expounded THE TWO NUKVAS, IN "SHIR HASHIRIM," and they need explaining UNLIKE THE MOCHIN OF THE HAIRS WHICH NEEDS NO EXPLAINING. Happier is the portion of the righteous who know the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He. And in here, IN THE MOCHIN OF RECKONING, all is made known to the knowledgeable in judgment and law.

Rabbi Yehuda discourses on the title verse, explaining that the merchant Zvulun made an agreement with Yisachar, promising to support him while Yisachar studied the Torah. Zvulun was a merchant of the sea and he therefore dwelled among seamen for purposes of commerce. His border, we're told, reached Tzidion, a place of commerce. Although he did not occupy himself with the Torah, Zvulun is always placed before Yisachar during the blessings, because he took bread from his own mouth and gave to Yisachar. He who supports scholars of the Torah receives blessings from above and below, meriting wealth in this world and a portion in the world to come. Rabbi Aba then quotes the verse, "Nor shall you suffer the salt of the Covenant." We learn that salt is important because it washes away and perfumes bitterness to give it taste. Without salt, the world would be unable to endure the bitterness of judgment, and it is through judgment that the world learns righteousness. Salt signifies Yesod, the Covenant that supports the world. Therefore, a meal lacking salt symbolically separates Yesod and the Female Principle, a division that brings death. Rabbi Aba and Rabbi Yosi conclude with a discussion of the verse, "And that you will save alive my father and my mother" Their interpretation reveals that Rachav asked for a token of life, which, she said, rests upon the letter of truth. She was given a cord of scarlet thread, a token of Yehoshua, because the time had come for the moon to rule. She thus received a token of the moon, signifying Malchut.

The Relevance of this Passage

A profound spiritual truth emerges from this text concerning the ultimate purpose of Torah and the dangers of blind religiosity. The purpose of Torah study is not in any way related to academic, religious, or scholarly pursuits. Rather, the Torah is a tool for spiritual development with the sole intention of leading one to the ultimate objective of "loving thy neighbor as thyself." Remarkably, many "devout" and religious men will behave with intolerance towards others in the name of God and for the sake of their own religious objectives. This is completely contrary to the underlying purpose of the Torah. The Zohar stresses this point by explaining that the biblical character of Zvulun, who was not a student of the Torah, is always placed before Yisachar during the blessings because he took bread from his own mouth and gave to a man named Yisachar. Additionally, this passage helps sweeten the judgments that must appear in our lives, demonstrating that the Torah and the Light of the Zohar offer mankind a path to spiritual perfection that is most merciful and meaningful.

663. Rabbi Yehuda said: Zvulun and Yisachar made an agreement between them that one will sit and study the Torah, YISACHAR, and the other will be a merchant, ZVULUN, and support Yisachar, as it is written: "And happy are those who hold (also: 'support') her" (Mishlei 3:18). He used to traverse the seas with merchandise. It fell in his portion since his inheritance was by the sea.

664. He is therefore called "leg (Heb. yerech)," AS IT SAYS, "AND HIS BORDER (HEB. YARCHATO) SHALL BE AT TZIDON," for it is the function of the leg to go to and fro. Hence it is written, "Rejoice, Zvulun, in your going out; and Yisachar in your tents" (Devarim 33:18). "Zvulun shall dwell at the shore of the seas" among the seamen for the purposes of commerce. "The shore of the seas," though his inheritance was by one sea, THE GREAT SEA, YET "SEAS" IS IN THE PLURAL, since it dwelt between two seas, THE GREAT SEA AND THE SEA OF GALILEE, THOUGH ITS INHERITANCE DID NOT REACH THE SEA OF GALILEE.

665. Rabbi Yosi said: All the merchants of the other seas were interested in the merchandise of his own sea. HENCE IT SAYS "THE SHORE OF THE SEAS" IN THE PLURAL. "And he shall be a haven for ships," NAMELY, where all ships would assemble to trade. "And his border": THIS IS DIFFICULT TO EXPLAIN, FOR THE BORDER OF TZIDON IS FAR FROM ZVULUN. Rabbi Chizkiyah said to him: His leg reaches the border of Tzidon, A THIN STRIP OF LAND, RESEMBLING A LEG, STRETCHED FROM ZVULUN TO TZIDON. THROUGH THIS MEANS, Zvulun's border reached THE BORDER OF TZIDON, WHICH WAS a place of commerce, where all the tradesmen would come and go there with their merchandise.

666. Rabbi Acha said: It is written, "Nor shall you suffer the salt of the covenant of your Elohim to be lacking from your meal offering: with all your offerings you shall offer salt" (Vayikra 2:13). Why is salt SO IMPORTANT? Because it washes away and perfumes the bitterness to give it taste. Without salt, THE CENTRAL COLUMN WOULD NOT BE DRAWN and the world would not endure the bitterness. Hence it says, "For when your Judgments are on the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness" (Yeshayah 26:9). It is also written, "Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne" (Tehilim 89:15), FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS IS PERFECTED BY JUSTICE, THE SECRET OF SALT.

667. Salt is the covenant, YESOD; NAMELY THE CENTRAL COLUMN FROM THE CHEST DOWN, which supports the world, THE NUKVA, as it is written: "Thus says Hashem; If my covenant be not day and night, it were as if I had not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth" (Yirmeyah 33:25). Hence, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, YESOD, COMES ABOVE IT, SALT is called the covenant of your Elohim, YESOD BEING CALLED COVENANT, and the Salt Sea. The sea, WHICH IS THE NUKVA is called after THE SALT WHICH SWEETENS IT.

668. Rabbi Chiya said: It is written, "For Hashem is righteous, He loves righteousness" (Tehilim 11:7). This is the salt, YESOD, of the sea, MALCHUT, RIGHTEOUS BEING YESOD AND RIGHTEOUSNESS BEING MALCHUT. Whoever divides between them brings death upon himself. Therefore, it is written: "Nor shall you suffer the salt...TO BE LACKING FROM YOUR MEAL OFFERING" THUS SEPARATING YESOD, WHICH IS SALT, FROM THE MEAL OFFERING, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. They are inseparable.

669. Rabbi Acha said: The sea is one, but is called 'seas', IN THE VERSE, "ZVULUN SHALL DWELL AT THE SHORE OF THE SEAS," as the water is clear in some places, in some places water is sweet, in another it is bitter. Hence, SINCE THERE ARE DIFFERENT PLACES, it is called seas. Thus it says, "At the shore of the seas." Rabbi Aba said: Each tribe corresponds to one of the joints in the body, THE NUKVA. SINCE THERE ARE DIFFERENT PLACES WITHIN THE NUKVA CALLED SEA, ACCORDING TO THE PARTICULAR TRIBE, SHE IS THEREFORE CALLED SEAS IN THE PLURAL.

670. Rabbi Aba rose one night to study the Torah. While he was sitting, Rabbi Yosi knocked on the door. He said: In the prince's chest there are jewels, TO WIT, HE WANTED TO HEAR PEARLS OF WISDOM OF THE TORAH FROM HIM.

671. They sat, occupied with the Torah. The son of the innkeeper rose and sat before them. He asked, What is the meaning of the verse, "And that you will save alive my father, and my mother" (Yehoshua 2:13) and before that "and give me a true token" (Ibid. 12). What did she ask of them? Rabbi Aba said: You have asked a good question, but tell me son, if you have heard something. He said: I HAVE another question: They did not give her what she asked for, but "you shall bind this cord of scarlet thread in the window" (Ibid. 18), WHICH ALLUDES TO MALCHUT, THE SECRET OF THE VERSE, "YOUR LIPS ARE LIKE A THREAD OF SCARLET" (SHIR HASHIRIM 4:3), WHEN SHE ASKED FOR A TOKEN OF TRUTH, WHICH ALLUDES TO TIFERET, AS WAS SAID BEFORE.

672. HE ANSWERS: I have learned that she asked for a token of life, as it is written: "And that you will save alive my father, and my mother." She also said that the token of life rests only upon the letter of Truth, which is Vav OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, TIFERET, where there is life, BEING THE TREE OF LIFE. I have learned that she asked for the token of Moshe, THE SECRET OF TIFERET. Why did they give her the cord of scarlet thread, WHICH IS A TOKEN OF YEHOSHUA, THE SECRET OF MALCHUT?

673. They told her that Moshe passed away from the world, since the sun has set, WHICH IS TIFERET AND THE ASPECT OF MOSHE. The time has come for the moon to rule. Therefore we give you the token of the moon, MALCHUT. What is it? The cord of scarlet thread, as it is written: "Your lips are like a thread of scarlet." You shall have the token of Yehoshua, THE SECRET OF MALCHUT, because now is the rule of the moon. Rabbi Aba and Rabbi Yosi rose and kissed him. They said: Surely you shall be a head of a Yeshivah, or a great man in Yisrael. Who is he? Rabbi Bon.

670. ר' אבא הוה יתיב ליליא חד, וקם למלעי באורייתא, עד דהוה יתיב, אתא רבי יוסי, ובטש אמתחא, אמר סיפטא בטופסרא קפטלאי שכיחי.

674. He asked further: All of Ya'akov's sons, the twelve tribes, were arranged below according to the order above, THE TWELVE KNOTS OF CHESD AND GVURAH, NETZACH AND HOD OF THE NUKVA. Why is Zvulun always placed before Yisachar during the blessings, although Yisachar was occupied with the Torah, which is universally put first? In the blessings, why was Zvulun placed before both by his father and Moshe?

675. HE ANSWERS: Zvulun was honored BY BEING PLACED BEFORE YISACHAR, since he took bread out of his own mouth and gave to Yisachar. He is therefore placed before YISACHAR in the blessings. From this, we learn that whoever supports a student of the Torah, receives blessings from above and below. He also merits two tables, which no other man is granted. He deserves to be blessed with wealth in this world, and a portion in the World to Come. Hence it says "at the shore of the sea; and he shall be a haven for ships." Since it says "Zvulun shall dwell the shore of the sea," why add "a haven for ships"? The "shore of the sea" is in this world and the "haven for ships" is in the World to Come, as it is written: "There go the ships" (Tehilim 104:26), WHICH WAS SAID OF "THIS GREAT AND WIDE SEA" (IBID. 25), WHICH IS BINAH, THE SECRET OF THE WORLD TO COME, for there abides the abundance of the World to Come.

68. "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem"

One explanation of the title verse tells us that the daughters of Jerusalem are the souls of the righteous, whom are always close to the King, informing Him daily of the welfare of Malchut. When a soul descends into this world, Malchut makes it swear to tell God of her love for Him so that He will be pleased with her. Man does this by proclaiming the union of the Holy Name with his mouth, heart, and soul. Another explanation of this verse interprets the daughters of Jerusalem as signifying the twelve tribes. Malchut stands upon twelve mountains and includes seven sides. The daughters of Jerusalem testify before God, declaring Yisrael love for Him. In this way, Malchut's love for Zeir Anpin is affirmed.

The Relevance of this Passage

Drawing upon the spiritual power of the righteous souls who have walked this earth throughout history, and the devout who dwell in our midst today, we unite our body and soul and our physical world with the Upper World realm called Zeir Anpin. This union produces bountiful beams of Light that brighten the lives of all mankind. The reference to the twelve Tribes is an indication to the twelve signs and the Zohar's assistance in helping us transcend the influences the stars and planets. Thus, control over our fate and fortunes is awarded to us through the spiritual power associated with this passage.

676. He opened the discussion saying: "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him, that I am sick with love" (Shir Hashirim 5:8). HE ASKS: Who is closer to the King than the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA? Why then does she charge them, "If you find my beloved, that you tell him." HE REPLIES: The daughters of Jerusalem are the souls of the righteous who are always near the King, and inform Him daily of the welfare of the Matron, THE NUKVA.

677. For so we have learnt that when a soul descends into the world, the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, makes it swear to tell the king and inform Him of her love for Him, so He shall be pleased with her.

677. דְהִכִּי אוּלִיפְנָא, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְנִשְׁמַתָּא נְחַתַּת לְעֲלֵמָא, כְּנִסַּת יִשְׂרָאֵל, עֲאֵלַת עֲלָה בְּקִינוּמָא דְאוּמָאָה, דִּיחֻוּי לְמַלְכָּא, וַיּוֹדַע לִיה רְחִימוּתָא דִּילָה לְגַבִּיָּה, בְּגִין לְאַתְפִּיּוּסָא בְּהַרְיָה.

678. By which means DO THE SOULS INFORM THE KING OF THE LOVE OF THE NUKVA FOR HIM? A man should proclaim the unison of the Holy Name, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, by mouth, heart and soul, and attach himself wholly TO ZEIR AND THE NUKVA, like a flame to a burning coal, by the union which causes the King to be well disposed towards the Queen, and to proclaim before the King her love for Him.

679. Another explanation: The daughters of Jerusalem are the twelve tribes; NAMELY THE TWELVE KNOTS OF CHESED AND GVURAH, NETZACH AND HOD UPON WHICH STANDS THE BODY OF THE NUKVA. For we have learned that Jerusalem, THE NUKVA, is established upon twelve mountains. Those who say that she stands upon only seven are not wholly correct, though all is one, for she includes seven SIDES; NAMELY CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT, and has the four ASPECTS CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT and twelve ASPECTS, WHICH ARE THE TWELVE KNOTS WE MENTIONED. All is one, ONLY THAT THESE ARE GRADES WITHIN HER, BUT TWELVE IS PERFECTION.

680. Surely she is established upon twelve mountains, three to each side, THREE KNOTS TO THE SIDE OF CHESED, THREE TO GVURAH, THREE TO NETZACH AND THREE TO HOD, AND THE BODY OF THE NUKVA ABOVE THEM. They are then called living creature, as it is written: "This is the living creature that I saw under the Elohim of Yisrael" (Yechezkel 10:20). They are called the daughters of Jerusalem, since JERUSALEM, THE NUKVA, stands above them. They testify before the King OF THE LOVE of the Congregation of Yisrael, WHO CHARGES THEM, "IF YOU FIND MY BELOVED, THAT YOU TELL HIM, THAT I AM SICK WITH LOVE." Hence it says, "There the tribes used to go up, the tribes of Yah as a testimony unto Yisrael, to give thanks unto the name of Hashem" (Tehilim 122:4), TO TESTIFY BEFORE YISRAEL, ZEIR ANPIN, OF THE LOVE OF THE NUKVA. Rabbi Yehuda said: Happy is the portion of Yisrael, who know the ways of the Holy One, blessed be He. Of them it is written, "For you are a holy people to Hashem your Elohim, and Hashem has chosen you..." (Devarim 14:2).

Yisachar is compared to an ass because just as an ass will lie anywhere and accepts its burden without kicking its master, so Yisachar accepted the burden of the Torah and cared nothing for his own honor, only that of his Master. Another explanation of the title verse tells us that when night falls, dogs and ass roam, and fiends have permission to wreak havoc in the world. He who rises at night to study the Torah relegates the evil demons to the holes of the great abyss and subdues the Klipah of the ass, bringing it down into the holes underneath the ground. Through his study of the Torah, Yisachar subdued the Klipah of the mule, forcing it to descend and thereby preventing it from harming the world. Indeed, Yisachar studied the Torah constantly and cleaved so strongly to God that he weakened himself through his devotion. While walking, Rabbi Shimon, Rabbi Yosi, and Rabbi Chiya continue this discussion. Rabbi Shimon comments that he who studies the Torah receives a supernal reward that no other attains. This reward is alluded to in the name Yisachar. Indeed, we are told that when the truly righteous study the Torah, the power of the other nations will be subdued and the nations of the world will ask Yisrael to be their leaders. However, if the righteous do not study the Torah, the Klipah of the ass will cause Yisrael to go into exile, and they will be ruled by other nations. Rabbi Shimon next begins a discourse on the verse, "As I looked, thrones were placed" This means that when the Temple was destroyed, two thrones fell. The two thrones above are of Ya'akov and David, and the lower thrones signify Jerusalem and the students of the Torah.

The discussion then addresses the meaning of the verse, "The mandrakes give a fragrance." This alludes to Yisachar, who caused new and old studies of the Torah to be in the synagogues and colleges. We learn that all new expositions of the Torah ascend to the Garden of Eden where God sees them and rejoices. These words are then recorded in the supernal book. The section concludes by explaining that Yehuda, Yisachar, and Zvulun are all included in the same portion, each illuminating one of the three Columns.

The Relevance of this Passage

Each negative action that we've committed, large and small, knowingly or unknowingly, creates a negative blockage [Klipah] that dims the Light of our soul and diminishes the Light of The Creator in our lives. Torah study after midnight with a contrite heart summons forth awesome streams of Light that removes these blockages from our lives and the world, as evidenced by the Zohar's story of Yisachar. This mystical Light of the night shines forth in this passage when the eyes of man touch the letters that bespeak this ancient wisdom. Hence, we can remove the blockages [Klipot] that currently darken our daily lives through our connection to Yisachar. Moreover, we are inspired to pursue the secrets of the Torah through continued learning of Zohar, helping to hasten the final redemption. Yisachar embraced his burdens with great dedication, and so when our study of Torah and its spiritual treasures becomes difficult, that is when we draw upon the strength and character of Yisachar to struggle onward. These difficult times of study are when the greatest amount of Light is ready to be revealed.

681. "Yisachar is a strong ass couching down between the shipfolds." Rabbi Elazar said: Why is Yisachar called an ass? If it is because he studied the Torah, he should be called a horse, a lion or a leopard. Why an ass? Because it is known that an ass would bear any burden without kicking his master like other living creatures. It is not fastidious and would lie anywhere. Yisachar too is occupied with the Torah, accepts the burden of the Torah and does not kick the Holy One, blessed be He. He is not haughty and, like the ass, does not care for his honor, but for the honor of his Master. He is "couching down between the sheepfolds" as we said, that one should lie on the ground, live a life of privation and labor for the Torah.

682. Another explanation for "Yisachar is a strong ass": He opened the discussion saying: "To David. Hashem is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? Hashem is the stronghold of my life: of whom shall I be afraid?" (Tehilim 27:1). How dear are the words of the Torah, how beloved those who study the Torah before the Holy One, blessed be He. He who studies the Torah need not be afraid of the fiends in the world, for he is protected above and protected below. Moreover, he subdues the demons in the world and pushes them down into the great abyss.

683. Come and see when night falls, the UPPER gates are closed, and dogs and asses dwell and roam about the world. Permission is given to the fiends to destroy, and the inhabitants of the world sleep in their beds. The souls of the righteous ascend to take pleasure above. When the north wind stirs at midnight, there is holy awakening in the world, as has been explained in several places.

684. Happy is the portion of the man who rises from his bed at that time, to study the Torah. When he studies the Torah, he puts all the evil demons into the holes of the great abyss and subdues THE KLIPAH OF the ass and brings it down into the holes underneath the ground, into the filth of the refuse and the dung.

685. Hence Yisachar, who studied the Torah, subdued THE KLIPAH OF the ass, and brought it down. THE ASS, who climbed the stairs (Heb. gerem) in order to harm the world, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "A STRONG (HEB. GAREM) ASS," was NOW brought into its place between the shipfolds, NAMELY AMONG THE REFUSE, the filth of the holes in the ground. THE VERSE TEACHES US THAT YISACHAR, BY STUDYING THE TORAH, BROUGHT DOWN THE KLIPAH OF THE STRONG ASS AND CAUSED HIM TO COUCH DOWN BETWEEN THE SHIPFOLDS, BY CASTING HIM DOWN INTO THE HOLES IN THE GROUND, AMONG THE REFUSE.

686. Come and behold: It is written: "And he saw that rest was good and the land that it was pleasant and became a servant to tribute." "And he saw that rest was good" is the Written Law; while "and the land that it was pleasant" is the Oral Law. "And he bowed his shoulder to bear" the yoke of the Torah, and cleave to it days and nights, "and became a servant to tribute" to serve the Holy One, blessed be He, and cling to Him, thus weakening himself for it, BY STUDYING THE TORAH CONSTANTLY.

687. Rabbi Shimon, Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Chiya were walking from the upper Galilee to Tiberias. Rabbi Shimon said: Let us discourse upon the Torah as we walk, for whoever can study the Torah but does not do so, risks his life and suffers besides from worldly cares, and evil oppression OF THE KINGDOM, like it is said of Yisachar, "And he bowed his shoulder to bear." What is the meaning of "bowed (also: 'turned aside')"? It means he turned aside, as it says, "But turned aside after unjust gain" (I Shmuel 8:3); NAMELY TURNED ASIDE FROM THE PATH OF RIGHTEOUSNESS. For whoever turns aside and prefers not to suffer the yoke of the Torah, he forthwith "became a servant to tribute," WHICH MEANS HE SANK UNDER THE BURDEN OF THE LAW AND THE OPPRESSION OF THE KINGDOM.

688. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "That I may cause those who love Me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures" (Mishlei 8:21). Happy are the children of the world who study the Torah, for whoever is occupied with the Torah is beloved above and beloved below. He inherits the World to Come, as it is written: "That I may cause those who love Me to inherit substance." The substance is the World to Come, BINAH, whose water, ITS ABUNDANCE, never stops flowing. FOR HE WHO STUDIES THE TORAH receives supernal reward, which no other man attains. What is it? It is substance (Heb. yesh), BINAH. This is alluded to by the name Yisachar, who studied the Torah, SINCE HIS NAME CONTAINS THE SYLLABLES Yesh sachar (lit. 'there is a reward'), the reward for those who study the Torah; NAMELY THE MENTIONED Yesh.

689. It is written, "As I looked, thrones were placed, and an ancient of days did sit" (Daniel 7:9), WHICH MEANS THAT when the Temple was ruined, two thrones fell, for there are two thrones above and two below. HE EXPLAINS, There are two thrones above, THE THRONE OF YA'AKOV, ZEIR ANPIN, AND THE THRONE OF DAVID, MALCHUT. When the lower throne was removed from the upper throne, the throne of Ya'akov from that of David, the latter fell. Hence it says, "And cast down from heaven (to) earth" (Eichah 2:1). The two thrones below, Jerusalem and the students of the Torah, resemble the thrones above, for the students of the Torah are the throne of Ya'akov, ZEIR ANPIN, and Jerusalem is the throne of David, MALCHUT. HENCE TWO THRONES FELL, THE UPPER THRONE OF DAVID, THE NUKVA, AND THE THRONE OF THE TERRESTRIAL JERUSALEM. It is therefore written: "Thrones were placed" IN THE PLURAL instead of 'throne' IN THE SINGULAR, for more than one throne fell, for the sole reason of the insult to the Torah.

686. תָּא חֲזִי

690. Come and see: when the truly righteous study the Torah, all the forces of the other nations and the armies, with all their power and legions, are subdued and no longer rule the world. Yisrael are appointed BY THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD, TO WIT, THEY ARE ASKED BY THEM to be their leaders. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE NAME YISACHAR, YESH-SACHAR AS EXPLAINED. But if not, THE KLIPAH OF the ass causes Yisrael to go into exile and fall into the hands of the peoples and be ruled by them. And all this is because, "he saw rest that it was good," HE SAW THAT THE TORAH IS GOOD AND ready before him, and he could receive as his reward her benefits and comforts, yet he turned his way so as not to bear the burden of the Torah, and therefore "became a servant to tribute" IN EXILE.

691. It is written, "The mandrakes give a fragrance, and at our gates are all manner of choice fruits, new and old" (Shir Hashirim 7:14). Reuven found those mandrakes in the field, as it is written: "And found mandrakes in the field" (Beresheet 30:14). New expositions of the Torah are discoursed only by him, as it is written: "And of the sons of Yisachar were those who had knowledge of the times" (I Divrei Hayamim 12:32).

692. "And at our gates are all manner of choice fruits": It is THE CHILDREN OF YISACHAR, who caused them to be at our gates; NAMELY the doors to the synagogues and colleges. "All manner of choice fruits, new and old" are studies of the Torah, new and old, which are revealed through them in order to bring near Yisrael to their Father above. Hence it says, "to know what Yisrael ought to do" (I Divrei Hayamim 12:32).

693. "Which I have laid up for you, O my beloved" (Shir Hashirim 7:14): From this we learned that whoever studies the Torah appropriately and knows new, joyous words, these words rise up to the King's throne, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, THE THRONE OF ZEIR ANPIN. And the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, opens the gates before them and conceals them. And when the Holy One, blessed be He, enters the Garden of Eden to take delight in the righteous AT MIDNIGHT, she brings THE NEW EXPOSITIONS ON THE TORAH before Him, and the Holy One, blessed be He, sees them and rejoices. He then crowns himself with supernal crowns and rejoices with the Matron, THE NUKVA. This is the meaning of the words "new and old, which I have laid up for you O my beloved," WHICH SHE UTTERS AT MIDNIGHT, WHEN BRINGING OUT THE NEW EXPOSITIONS ON THE TORAH BEFORE THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. From that time on, the words OF THE STUDENT, WHO GLADDENS BY HIS WORDS, are written in the SUPERNAL book, as it says "and a book of remembrance was written before Him" (Malachi 3:16).

694. Happy is the portion of him who studies the Torah appropriately, for he is happy in this world and will be happy in the World to Come. So far extends the sway of Yehuda, the arm which includes all THE THREE COLUMNS, through the strength of the sides, SOUTH, NORTH AND EAST, the three joints of the arm. TO WIT, YEHUDA, YISACHAR, AND ZVULUN ARE PLACED TOGETHER IN THIS PORTION, AS IN RELATION TO THE STANDARDS, FOR YEHUDA IS THE ILLUMINATION OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, YISACHAR THE LEFT AND ZVULUN THE CENTRAL COLUMN, so that Yehuda will overcome all THE OTHER SIDE.

70. "Dan shall judge his people"

The Zohar expounds upon the tribe of Dan. When the Jews were trekking through the desert, the tribe of Dan was placed in the rear to watch over the other tribes. The Zohar then speaks of the spiritual routes taken by each of the tribes, and in doing so, reveals that each route was already inscribed a cosmic blueprint designed to arouse spiritual Light in this world. Ya'akov specifically blessed the tribe of Dan with the words "Dan should be snake on the road." The Zohar then asks what this blessing means. The lower most dimension, in this case the end of the procession, represents the lowest level of Light and therefore represents the beginning and opening for negativity to enter. Dan is the watch guard protecting all the tribes from any intrusions from the negative snake known as the Satan.

The Relevage of this Passage

The cosmic sentinel that is the tribe of Dan, blankets us with a protective armor of Light that keeps negative entities, evil thoughts, and destructive emotions incited by the angel Satan, at bay.

695. "Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Yisrael."
Rabbi Chiya said: This verse should have been, 'Dan shall judge the tribes of Yisrael' or 'Dan shall judge the tribes of Yisrael as one.' What is the meaning of "Dan shall judge his people" followed by "as one of the tribes of Yisrael"?

695. דֵּן יִדִּין עַמּוֹ בְּאַחַד שְׁבֻטֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. רַבִּי חֵיָא

696. HE ANSWERS: Dan, whom it says was "rearward of all the camps" (Bemidbar 10:25), is the left thigh, NAMELY HOD, and went last. HE EXPLAINS, Come and see: when Yehuda and Reuven march, the Levites and the ark unfurl their standard and then the standard of Ephraim marches to the west. The right thigh marches according to order, BY WHICH THE RIGHT THIGH GOES BEFORE THE LEFT THIGH, DAN. THEREFORE DAN IS THE LAST TO MOVE. You may say that Zvulun is the one who goes in and out, as it says of him, "Rejoice, Zvulun, in your going out" (Devarim 33:18), FOR HE PERTAINS TO THE THIGH, AS EXPRESSLY STATED, "And his border (also: 'thigh') shall be at Tzidon." ZVULUN THEN SHOULD BE THE THIGH AND NOT EPHRAIM. HE ANSWERS: Yehuda comprises all of them.

696. אֵלָא דֵּן, הוּא דְכְתִיב בֵּיהּ, מֵאַסָּף לְכָל
הַמַּחֲנוֹת, דִּהוּא יִרְכָא שְׁמֵאלָא, וְאִזִּיל לְבַתְרֵינָא.
תָּא חֲזִי בֵּינָן דִּיהוּדָה וְרֵאוּבֵן נְטֻלִין, לְיוֹאֵי וְאַרְוֵנָא
פְּרָשִׁין דְּגַלְיָן, וְנְטִיל דְּגַלְיָא דְאַפְרַיִם דְּאִיהוּ לְמַעְרָב,
יִרְכָא יְמִינָא נְטִיל, בְּקַפְסִירֵי קְסָטָא. וְאִי תִימָא,
זְבוּלָן דְּאִיהוּ עָאֵל, וְנַמִּיק, דְכְתִיב בֵּיהּ, שְׂמֹחַ זְבוּלָן
בְּצִאתָךְ, וְכְתִיב וַיִּרְכְּתוּ וְגו'. אֵלָא וְדַאי, יְהוּדָה

697. HE EXPLAINS THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE FOUR STANDARDS, SAYING: come and behold: the upper Malchut, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, comprised everything, ALL THE TWELVE JOINTS, and Yehuda is the lower Malchut. As the upper Malchut comprises everything, so does the lower Malchut (kingdom), Yehuda, comprise the whole body and the thigh; NAMELY TIFERET AND THE TWELVE JOINTS IN THE ARMS AND LEGS, in order to grow in strength.

697. תָּא חֲזִי, מְלָכוּ דְלַעִילָא אַתְבָּלִיל מְכֵלָא,
וַיְהוּדָה אִיהוּ מְלָכוּ תַתְּמָא. כְּמָה דְמְלָכוּ דְעֵלְיָא
אַתְבָּלִיל מְכֵלָא, הֵכִי נְמִי מְלָכוּ תַתְּמָא, אַתְבָּלִיל

698. It is written, "From his right hand went a fiery law for them" (Devarim 33:2), which means that the Torah was given from the side of Gvurah, WHICH IS FIRE. BUT Gvurah was included within the right, CHESED, in its body, TIFERET, and the thigh, NETZACH AND HOD, and all THE SFIROT. The first corps OF THE STANDARDS is Yehuda's, which is Malchut from the side of Gvurah, BUT included within the right in the body and in the thigh, and all THE SFIROT, like Malchut above, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, comprises all THE SFIROT.

698. בְּתִיב מִיְמִינֵי אִ"שׁ דִּתְּ לְמוֹ, אוֹרֵינָא
מְסֻטְרָא דְגְבוּרָה אַתְוִיְהִיב, וְגְבוּרָה אַתְבָּלִיל בִּימִינָא,
וּבְגוּפָא, וַיִּרְכָא, וּבְכֵלָא. הֵכִי נְמִי סְדְרָא קְדַמָּא,
יְהוּדָה אִיהוּ, מְלָכוּ דְאַתֵּי מְסֻטְרָא גְבוּרָה, וְאַתְבָּלִיל
בִּימִינָא, בְּגוּפָא, וּבִירְכָא, בְּכֵלָא אַתְבָּלִיל. כְּמָה

699. The second corps of the standards is Reuven's, who was on the south side, which is right, CHESED. But the strength of the right, OF REUVEN, was taken by Yehuda, since the kingship was removed from Reuven, for "unstable as water, you shall not excel." So Yehuda took it and was reinforced with the power of the right, which was Reuven's. It is also said of David, WHO IS COME FROM YEHUDA, "Hashem says to my master, 'Sit at my right hand'" (Tehilim 110:1), because left is included in the right and has become strengthened. And so is written, "The right hand of Hashem does valiantly" (Ibid. 118:16). SINCE YEHUDA TOOK ALL REUVEN'S POWER, HE WAS THE FIRST TO MARCH. Yehuda and Reuven were the two arms, REUVEN THE RIGHT AND YEHUDA THE LEFT ARM.

700. The third corps of the standards is that of Efraim, who is the right thigh, NETZACH, which always goes before the left. Dan, who is the left thigh, HOD, goes last and is therefore "the rearward of all the camps" and marches last.

701. Yehuda had a portion in the two arms, CHESED AND GVURAH, since Reuven, who is the right arm, lost his birthright, priesthood and the kingship. It therefore says of Yehuda, "Let his hands be sufficient for him; and be you a help to him from his enemies" (Devarim 33:7), WHICH REFERS TO THE TWO HANDS, CHESED AND GVURAH.

702. Come and behold: It is written: "The king made a great throne of ivory" (I Melachim 10:18). The throne of Solomon was constructed after the supernal pattern, and all the supernal forms, NAMEDLY THE LION, THE OX, AND SO ON, were upon it. THUS THE LOWER MALCHUT, SOLOMON, WHO IS A DESCENDANT OF YEHUDA, INCLUDES ALL THE SFIROT LIKE THE UPPER MALCHUT. Of this says the verse, "Then Solomon sat on the throne of Hashem as king" (I Divrei Hayamim 29:23). The word king without attributes POSSIBLY DOES NOT REFER TO SOLOMON, BUT ALLUDES TO THE SUPERNAL MALCHUT. THE LESSON OF THE VERSE IS THAT "SOLOMON SAT ON THE THRONE OF HASHEM" LIKE A KING, THE SUPERNAL MALCHUT, AND LIKE IT COMPRISED ALL THE SFIROT. "Then Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was firmly established" (I Melachim 2:12). "HIS KINGDOM" REFERS TO THE SUPERNAL MALCHUT, WHICH MEANS THAT the moon, THE SUPERNAL KINGDOM, was full. HERE TOO, "AS KING" ALLUDES TO THE SUPERNAL MALCHUT.

703. "Dan shall judge his people" first, and then "the tribes of Yisrael." THE WORD "as one" MEANS like the lone one in the world, TO WIT, HE JUDGED ON HIS OWN LIKE THE ONLY ONE OF THE WORLD. This applies to Shimshon, who singlehandedly executed justice in the world, sentenced and killed by himself and needed no help.

704. "Dan shall judge his people." Rabbi Yitzchak said: Dan is a serpent which lurks in ways and paths. It may be said that this is true for Shimshon alone. NOT SO, but this is also true above. It is the little serpent in "the rearward of all the camps" AT THE END OF THE GRADES OF HOLINESS. It lurks in the ways and paths, and from it issue armies and hosts OF FIENDS, which lurk in wait for people, TO PUNISH THEM for the sins they cast behind their backs, TO WIT, WHICH THEY DID NOT NOTICE, AND THEN SAY THEY DID NOT COMMIT. Rabbi Chiya said: This was the primordial serpent above before it was tempered by the gladdening wine.

705. "A serpent by the way": Come and see: as there is a way above IN BINAH, so there is a way below IN MALCHUT. The sea is divided THROUGH THESE TWO WAYS into several paths on each side, EACH INCLUDED OF BOTH. There is one path, which adds MOCHIN OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT to the sea, MALCHUT. It breeds all kinds of bad fish, FOR THE KLIPOT APPROACH TO SUCK ABUNDANCE FROM THERE AND THUS GROW. As the water below breed good fish, bad fish and frogs, so bad fish issue FROM THE SUPERNAL SEA.

706. When THE KLIPOT go by way of the sea, THEY SUCK ABUNDANCE FROM IT, they are seen riding on horses, and were it not for the serpent in the rearward of the camps, NAMELY DAN, THE LITTLE SERPENT which lies in the end of the paths and wards them off, they would destroy the world. OF THEM SAYS THE VERSE, "THAT BITES THE HORSE'S HEELS, SO THAT HIS RIDER SHALL FALL BACKWARD." THESE ARE THE DEMONS WHO RIDE HORSES. From the side OF THE KLIPOT, sorcerers come into the world. Come and behold: it is written of Bila'am: "He went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments (lit. 'serpents')" (Bemidbar 24:1), which are made to cast spells with their charms.

707. See the words: "Dan shall be a serpent by the way." HE ASKS: What way is this? HE ANSWERS: Whoever follows the serpent, rejects the household of heaven, CAUSES DIMINUTION IN THE HOLY HOSTS IN THE SUPERNAL WORLD. How so? Because this is a way which begins above, as it is written: "Who makes a way in the sea" (Yeshayah 43:16). Whoever follows the serpent, it is as if he treads this way and lessens it, BY DIMINISHING ITS ABUNDANCE, since from this way the upper worlds are sustained. HE SPOILS THEIR NOURISHMENT AND CAUSES THEM TO BECOME THIN.

708. You may ask why Dan is in this grade, WHICH IS OF THE ASPECT OF THE EVIL KLIPAH. HE ANSWERS: Like "the bright blade of a revolving sword to guard the way to The Tree of Life" (Bereshheet 3:24), IT SAYS here "that bites the horse's heels..." for the protection of all the camps. Rabbi Elazar said: This is the fixing of the throne. TO WIT, DAN HOLDING TO THE GRADE OF THE KLIPAH IS THE UPHOLDING OF THE NUKVA, TO KEEP HER FROM THE SUCKING OF THE FIENDS WHICH RIDE HORSES. Come and see: Upon Solomon's throne, there is a serpent dangling from the scepter above the lions THAT ARE ON THE THRONE, WHICH TEACHES US THAT THERE IS A SERPENT IN THE MAKING OF THE THRONE.

709. It is written: "And the spirit of Hashem began to move him in the camp of Dan" (Shoftim 13:25). Come and see: Shimshon was a permanent Nazir and a recluse of great strength. He was a serpent in this world against the heathen nations, for he inherited the portion of blessings of his ancestor Dan, as it is written: "Dan shall be a serpent by the way."

710. Rabbi Chiya said: We understand about the serpent, but what of the adder? He said to him: The secret of making spells is that the serpent is an adder, THOUGH THEY ARE TWO DIFFERENT SPECIES, THEY CAST THE SAME SPELLS AS IF THEY WERE OF THE SAME KIND. It is written also of the evil Bilaam, who was omniscient, that he "went to a steep place (Heb. shefi)" (Bemidbar 23:3), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE ADDER (HEB. SHEFIFON), THOUGH BEFORE IT IS WRITTEN: "HE WENT NOT, AS AT OTHER TIMES, TO SEEK SERPENTS." He used now the one now the other, NOW THE SERPENT AND NOW THE ADDER, SINCE HE HAD KNOWLEDGE OF BOTH.

711. You may say that it does not pertain to Dan's grade to use THE SERPENT AND THE ADDER. HE REPLIES: Indeed it does not, but he was appointed over this grade TO USE IT FOR THE NEEDS OF HOLINESS, being of the last grade. This is to his honor, for there are chieftains charged by the King over this or that, and it is considered to be an honor to all the appointed TO BE APPOINTED BY THE KING, REGARDLESS AS TO WHAT THEY ARE APPOINTED OVER, for the King's throne is fixed through all the chiefs together, and under them there are paths and grades for the good and for evil, all of them united in the making of the throne, THE NUKVA. Hence Dan is to the north, NAMELY THE LEFT THIGH OF THE NUKVA WHICH IS HOD. In a hole of the great abyss, IN THE END OF THE LEFT THIGH, WHICH IS BINAH OF THE KLIPAH, there are many battalions of evil demons, all in charge of harming the world.

712. For this reason, Ya'akov prayed, saying, "I wait for your salvation, O Hashem." HE ASKS: Why does he not ask for salvation in regard to the other tribes, only to this one. HE REPLIES: This is because he has seen the force and strength of the serpent, when judgment is aroused to overpower holiness. HE THEREFORE PRAYED FOR SALVATION.

713. Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Chizkiyah were going to visit Rabbi Shimon in Cappadocia. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: It is known that a man should first pronounce the praises of his Master and only then to say his prayer. A QUESTION ARISES: What of a man who is in distress or in trouble and wishes to pray, yet cannot pronounce his Master's praises?

714. Rabbi Yosi said to him: He is not fully devoted in heart and desire, yet why should he fail to praise his Master? He should first pronounce his Master's praises, though not with perfect devotion, and then say his prayer. This is the meaning of "A prayer of David. Hear the right, O Hashem, attend to my cry" (Tehilim 17:1). First, "Hear the right, O Hashem," which is the praises for the Master, and only then "attend to my cry give ear to my prayer." Whoever can praise his Master, yet does not do so, of him it is written: "Even when you make many prayers, I will not hear..." (Yeshayah 1:15).

715. It is written, "The one lamb shall you offer in the morning, and the other lamb shall you offer at evening" (Bemidbar 28:4). The prayers were ordained in the place of the daily offering, THE MORNING PRAYER CORRESPONDS TO THE MORNING OFFERING, MINCHAH TO THE EVENING OFFERING. Come and see: by the awakening below CAUSED BY THE SACRIFICE OF THE OFFERING, there is also awakening above. Through the awakening above towards that which is higher still, IT IS AROUSED too, until the awakening reaches the place where the candle is to be lit, and it is lit. Thus IT IS FOUND THAT through the ascent of the smoke WHICH RISES FROM THE OFFERING below, the candle is lit above, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. When this candle is lit, all other candles are lit and all the worlds are blessed through it. Thus the awakening of the offering is the support of the world, and the blessings of all worlds.

716. HE EXPLAINS HIS WORDS: How is this performed? When the smoke from the offering commences to rise, the holy forms appointed over the world OF ASIYAH are prepared to rouse AND RAISE MAYIM NUKVIN (FEMALE WATER.) They are aroused towards the grades above them IN THE WORLD OF YETZIRAH, with great desire, as it says, "The young lions roar after their prey..." (Tehilim 104:21). Those OF THE WORLD OF YETZIRAH are aroused toward the grades above them IN THE WORLD OF BRIYAH, UNTIL THE AWAKENING REACHES THE PLACE WHERE THE CANDLE IS TO BE LIT; NAMELY until the King, ZEIR ANPIN, wishes to join the Matron, THE NUKVA.

717. HE EXPLAINS THE MEANING OF MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATER), saying that through the desire below, the lower waters, NAMELY MAYIN NUKVIN, rise to receive the upper waters FROM THE GRADE ABOVE IT. The lower waters do not flow save through the arousal of the desire of the lower one. Then the desire OF THE LOWER AND THE UPPER cleave together, the lower waters flow to meet the DESCENDING upper waters, AND THE MATING IS CONSUMMATED. The worlds are blessed, all the candles lit, and the upper and lower beings are endowed with blessings.

718. Come and see: the priests FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN and the Levites FROM THE LEFT COLUMN are aroused WHEN THEY SACRIFICE THE OFFERING, so as to join the right with the left. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: This is true, yet I have heard AN EXPLANATION TO THIS. AT THE TIME OF OFFERING, the one stirs the left, NAMELY THE LEVITES, and the other, THE PRIESTS, the right. For the union of the male and the female occurs only through left and right, as it says, "His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me" (Shir Hashirim 2:6). AFTER THE EMBRACE OF RIGHT AND LEFT, the male is united to the female with desire, all the worlds are blessed and there is joy high and low.

720. Now that prayer has taken the place of sacrifice, man should first pronounce the praise of the Holy One, blessed be He, fittingly, for if he does not, his prayer is no prayer. Come and see: The perfect praise for the Holy One, blessed be He, is made by him who knows how to properly unite the Holy Name, WHO CAN RAISE MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) TO UNITE MALE AND FEMALE, for through this the upper and lower are awakened and draw blessings upon all the worlds.

721. Rabbi Chizkiyah said: The Holy One, blessed be He, put the children of Yisrael in exile among the nations for the sole purpose that the other nations be blessed through Yisrael, who daily draw blessings from above downward.

722. They went. As they were walking, they saw a snake on the road and turned aside. Another man came and the snake killed him. They turned their heads and saw the man dead. They said: Surely the snake acted by his Master's bidding; TO WIT, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, ORDERED HIM TO KILL THAT MAN. Blessed be the Merciful One who saved us.

723. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion with the verse: "Dan shall be a serpent by the way." When was Dan a serpent? In the days of Yerovaam, as it is written: "And the other put he in Dan" (I Melachim 12:29). BECAUSE "A SNAKE" REFERS TO IDOL WORSHIPPING. And why was he put there "by the road"? "By the way," so as to prevent the pilgrimage to Jerusalem. Dan was then a snake "by the way" of Yisrael. "By the way" indeed, as it says, "the king took counsel, AND MADE TWO CALVES OF GOLD, AND SAID TO THEM, IT IS TOO MUCH FOR YOU TO GO UP TO JERUSALEM" (IBID. 28). HE THUS MADE THIS SNAKE BY THE WAY TO JERUSALEM TO PREVENT THEIR GOING THERE ON PILGRIMAGE. "An adder in the path" bit Yisrael. They were put "by the way" and in the path to prevent the children of Yisrael from going up to Jerusalem to celebrate their festivals, offer sacrifices and offering and worship there.

724. Come and see: when it was time for Moshe to bless the tribes, he saw that Dan was attached to the serpent, and linked him again to the lion, WHICH IS CHESED. This is the meaning of the verse, "And of Dan he said: 'Dan is a lion's whelp, that leaps from Bashan'" (Devarim 33:22). Wherefore did he do this? So as to connect the first and the last standards: Yehuda's who is king, as it is written: "Yehuda is a lion's whelp," the first of the standards, and Dan's in the rear, as is written, "Dan is a lion's whelp, ..." so as to link the beginning and the end to one place, THE LION WHICH IS CHESED.

725. "I wait (lit. 'waited') for your salvation, O Hashem" (Beresheet 49:18): Rabbi Chiya said: It is written, "And he shall begin to deliver Yisrael out of the hand of the Plishtim" (Shoftim 13:5). THIS IS THE SALVATION YA'AKOV WAITED FOR. Rabbi Acha said: Why DOES IT SAY, "I waited"? Ya'akov would have been dead these many years by then. Why did he say he was waiting for salvation? The secret of this matter is the verse, "And it came to pass, when Moshe held up his hand, that Yisrael prevailed" (Shemot 17:11). The word Yisrael without attributes IS ZEIR ANPIN; NAMELY THE ASPECT OF YA'AKOV. THUS THE SALVATION THROUGH SHIMSHON CONCERNS YA'AKOV, THOUGH HE HAD ALREADY PASSED AWAY. Hence he said: "I wait (lit. 'waited') for your salvation, O Hashem." Rabbi Chiya said: Surely this is correct and well. Happy is the portion of the righteous who know how to study the Torah and merit through her life eternal, as it says "for he is your life, and the length of your days: that you may dwell in the land..." (Devarim 30:20).

71. "Gad, raiders shall maraud him"

Rabbi Yisa explains the name Gad indicates that many hosts and legions are dependent on him, and that armies will issue from him and engage in war. The name Gad also signifies the sustenance that the water of the river flowing from the Garden of Eden provides to the poor and the needy. Indeed, if not for his lineage, Gad would have risen higher than all the tribes because of his name. We learn that, similar to Reuven, he was born at a propitious time. However, perfection later departed from him, and also like Reuven, he thus did not receive a portion in the Holy Land, but instead dwelt on the other side of the river Jordan.

The Relevance of this Passage

The spiritual strength and fortitude to wage war on our own Evil Inclination is instilled within us. Additionally, we awaken the spiritual Light that brings forth sustenance into our lives, helping to remove both spiritual and physical poverty from the landscape of human civilization.

726. "Gad, raiders shall maraud him, but he shall overcome at the last." Rabbi Yisa said: From THE NAME Gad, we understand that armies will issue from him and engage in war. This is derived from the spelling of Gad, which is always spelled Gimel and Dalet, YESOD AND MALCHUT, from which UNION armies come forth, as Gimel gives, BEING YESOD, and Dalet receives, BEING MALCHUT. From this we understand how many hosts and legions come from them. HENCE IT SAYS, "GAD, RAIDERS SHALL MARAUD HIM..."

727. Come and see the water of that river which comes out and flows from the Garden of Eden, BINAH, never stops flowing. It supports the poor BY GIVING THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM THROUGH GIMEL WHICH IS YESOD TO MALCHUT, WHICH IS DALET, THAT IS POOR (HEB. DALA) AND NEEDY. Hence, hosts and legions wait here for sustenance FROM BINAH, THE SECRET OF THE SAID RIVER. THIS UNION is therefore CALLED BY THE NAME OF Gad, THE GIMEL taking out FROM BINAH to give and DALET accepting and receiving from it. The house, THE NUKVA, is sustained together with her household men, THE HOSTS AND LEGIONS OF ANGELS THAT EXTEND FROM HER.

728. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Were Gad not of the sons of a handmaids, WHO ARE CONSIDERED HINDER PARTS, he would have succeeded in rising higher than all the tribes, BECAUSE OF THE HIGH AND PERFECT ORIGIN OF THE NAME GAD. It is written "Ba Gad (Eng. 'Fortune comes')" (Bereshheet 30:10), but spelled "Bagad (betrayed)" without Aleph, since the hour of his birth was propitious, but later PERFECTION departed from him. This is the meaning of the words: "My brethren have dealt deceitfully (Heb. bagdu) like a river" (Iyov 6:15), since the flowing river, WHICH IS BINAH CALLED RIVER, turned away at that time, SINCE GAD WAS OF THE HINDER PARTS, UPON WHICH THE RIVER BINAH DOES NOT FLOW, AND GIMEL HAD NOTHING TO POUR UPON DALET. HENCE, it says "bagad" without Aleph, WHICH ALLUDES TO THE LACK OF BINAH'S ABUNDANCE. He therefore did not receive a portion in the Holy Land, BUT DWELT ACROSS THE JORDAN.

729. Rabbi Yehuda said: Whence do we know that the same happened to Reuven, WHO WAS AT FIRST OF A GREATER GRADE, WHICH LATER DEPARTED FROM HIM? From the verse: "Unstable as water, you shall not excel" WHICH MEANS that the water, THE LIGHTS OF BINAH, departed and did not flow. His deficiency was already explained THAT YA'AKOV THOUGHT OF RACHEL, AND THEREFORE HIS BIRTHRIGHT WAS TAKEN FROM HIM AND GIVEN TO YOSEF. Both REUVEN AND GAD did not receive a portion in the Holy Land, BUT ACROSS THE JORDAN, but they sent armies and troops AS THE VANGUARD BEFORE THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL, to deliver the land to them. Come and behold: the flaw in Gad was made good in Asher, as it is written, "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties." Now Gimel perfects Dalet.

72. "Set me as a seal upon your heart"

While sheltering themselves from the bright sun in a cave, Rabbi Aba and Rabbi Elazar discuss the title verse. Rabbi Elazar tells of Rabbi Shimon's interpretation of this verse, explaining that only the souls of the righteous can raise the Female Waters of the Female Principle. After the male and female were joined, the Female Principle quoted the title verse, desiring to retain a likeness even in separation. Similarly, Yisrael desired to remain with the Shechinah in some way, even in exile. Yisrael' love for God is so strong that any separation from Him is as difficult to bear as the day when the spirit leaves the body.

The discussion then turns to the verse, "Jealousy is cruel as Sh'ol." We learn that jealousy is a sign of true love. Therefore, a man should be jealous of his wife so that he will be attached to her in complete love and will not look at other women. Another explanation is that when the wicked are brought down to Sh'ol, their sins are announced and the jealous demand reckoning for these sins. We then learn that the "flame of Yah" is the burning flame that comes out of the Shofar, the burning flame of Yisrael love for God. This love burns so strongly that rather than extinguishing it, the "many waters" of Chesed add to it. Rabbi Shimon, Rabbi Yehuda, and Rabbi Yitzchak then join Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Aba to conclude the discussion.

Deep love for The Creator burns within us as Light and love emanate from these poetic words. This energy also helps to remove envy and jealousy of others from our hearts, while stirring a positive form of jealousy, passion, and appreciation for our spouses.

730. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Aba entered a cave in Lod to escape the bright sun upon the road. Rabbi Aba said: Let us encompass this cave with words of the Torah. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion saying: "Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm... its coals are coals of fire, the very flame of Hashem" (Shir Hashirim 8:6). We have already roused this verse; NAMELY EXPLAINED IT. Yet one night, when I was attending to my father, RABBI SHIMON, I heard from him that the Congregation of Yisrael, the NUKVA, had no perfection, desire and passion towards the Holy One, blessed be He, but from the souls of the righteous, who excite the flow of the lower waters OF THE NUKVA toward the supernal waters OF ZEIR ANPIN; TO WIT, THEY RAISE THE MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) OF THE NUKVA. Then is a time of complete desire and passion to become one and produce fruit.

731. Come and see: After THE MALE AND THE FEMALE cleaved to each other, and she was desirous OF ZEIR ANPIN, she said: "Set me as a seal upon your heart." Why a seal? Because a seal, when it is imprinted, even after it is removed, its impress remains there, and is never erased, but its shape and likeness stay. Thus said the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA: Now that I have cleaved to you, even though I shall leave and go into exile, "set me as a seal upon your heart" so that my likeness will remain with you, like the seal which leaves its imprint wherever it is pressed.

732. "For love is strong as death." It is as strong as the spirit taking leave of the body. For we have learned that when time comes for a man to depart from the world and he sees certain sights, the spirit goes to every limb in the body and courses on waves like a passenger UPON A BOAT at sea, without oars, helplessly going up and down. Nothing is more difficult than the day when the spirit takes leave of the body. So the love of the Congregation of Yisrael to the Holy One, blessed be He, is as strong as death is, when the spirit departs from the body.

733. "Jealousy is cruel as Sh'ol..." Whoever loves and is not jealous, his love is not true love. When he is jealous, love is perfected. From this we have learned that a man should be jealous of his wife, so as to be attached to her in complete love. For this way he does not look at other women. What is "cruel (lit. 'hard') as Sh'ol"? As it is hard for the wicked to descend to Sh'ol, so it is hard for the jealous lover to part from his love.

734. Another explanation for "jealousy is cruel as Sh'ol" is that when the wicked are brought down to Sh'ol, their sins are announced to them, for which they are brought down. They find it hard, so he who is jealous demands reckoning for sins, and enumerates all the SUSPICIOUS things SHE DID, and his love grows strong.

735. "Its coals are coals of fire, the very flame of Yah." What is the very flame of Yah? It is the burning flame which comes out of the Shofar, YESOD OF IMA CALLED Yah. Once it is aroused, it burns. What is it? The Left COLUMN OF IMA, as it is written: "His left hand is under my head" (Shir Hashirim 8:3). It burns the flame of Yisrael's love, THE SHECHINAH, for the Holy One, blessed be He.

736. Therefore, "many waters cannot quench love" (Shir Hashirim 8:7), for when the right comes, which is water, CHESED, it adds to the burning of love, instead of extinguishing the flame of the left, as it says "and his right hand embraces me" (Ibid. 3). Hence "many waters cannot quench love." All THE FOLLOWING VERSES are EXPUNDED UPON in this manner.

737. As they were sitting, they heard Rabbi Shimon, who was coming this way together with Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yitzchak. RABBI SHIMON approached the cave, and Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Aba came out. Rabbi Shimon said: From the walls of the cave I see that the Shechinah is here. They sat. Rabbi Shimon asked, What are you studying? Rabbi Aba said: The Congregation of Yisrael's love for the Holy One, blessed be He. Rabbi Elazar explained the verse, "Set me as a seal upon your heart" as referring to the Congregation of Yisrael. Rabbi Shimon said: Elazar, you have looked upon sublime love and the bond of amity.

738. Rabbi Shimon was silent for a while, then said: Silence is good everywhere, except in relation to the Torah. I have a hidden secret, which I do not wish to be lost from you. It is a supernal matter, which I found in the book of Rav Hamnuna Saba (the elder).

738. אֲשֶׁתִּיק רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן שְׁעָתָא, אָמַר בְּכָל אֶתֶר

739. Come and see: the male always chases after the female and arouses her love. Yet here I found that she arouses his love and courts him, AS SAID IN THE VERSE: "SET ME AS A SEAL UPON YOUR HEART..." According to custom, it is not proper that the female runs after the male. But OF NECESSITY this is a deep matter, a supernal matter HIDDEN among the King's treasures.

739. תָּא חֲזִי, בְּכָל אֶתֶר דְּכוּרָא רְדִיף בְּתֵר נּוֹקְבָא,

73. Three souls

A discussion of the three souls reveals that there are actually four. The first is the supernal soul of all souls, which is hidden and never revealed. The second is the Nukva. The third and fourth are the souls of the righteous below, which come from the soul of the female and the male, Zeir Anpin. Through the analogy of a king who sends his son away to be raised in a village until he is ready to learn the ways of the palace, we learn why the soul descends to this world only to leave at a later time. The soul never leaves this world until the Matron comes for it and delivers it to the King's palace, where it remains. The discourse then returns to the subject of the previous section, Yisrael love for God. We are told that the souls of the righteous, who are male, incite the female love and desire for Zeir Anpin. The rabbis conclude by explaining that the verse, "The righteous is the foundation of the world," alludes to both Yesod of Zeir Anpin and the souls of the righteous.

The Relevance of this Passage

The wisdom woven throughout this passage awakens a deep desire within us to know our true purpose in this world. A love for the Light of The Creator and for spiritual truths is kindled in our hearts and soul, which, in turn, help unite the Lower and Upper Worlds.

Spiritual work requires both an intellectual and emotional understanding in order to provide us with the impetus to continue onward. Here, an emotional awakening concerning our source and origin is born within us as we realize that spiritual growth brings us nearer to our supernal Father.

740. Come and see: There are three souls which pertain to certain supernal grades. The three are really four. The first is a supernal soul, which cannot be perceived by the higher treasurer, much less by the lower one. It is the soul of all the souls, hidden and never revealed to be known. All stem from it.

740. תָּא חֲזִי, תְּלַת נְשָׁמְתִין אֵינּוֹן, וְאֵינּוֹן סְלִקִּין
בְּדַרְגִּין עֲלָאִין יָדִיעֵן, וְעַל דְּאֵינּוֹן תְּלַתָּא אַרְבַּע
אֵינּוֹן. חֲדָא נְשָׁמְתָא עֲלָאָה דְּלֹא אֲתַפְסָא, וְלֹא אִתְעַר
בֵּיהּ גּוֹבְרָא דְקַרְטִיטָאָה עֲלָאָה, כָּל שְׁבִין תְּתָאָה.
וְהֵאֵי נְשָׁמְתָא לְכָל נְשָׁמְתִין, וְהוּא סְתִים, וְלֹא
אֲתַגְלִיא לְעֵלְמִין, וְלֹא אֲתִיידַע, וּכְלָהוּ בֵּיהּ תְּלִיין.

741. It is wrapped in a garment made of the splendor of the Carmel, which drips pearls, all linked as one like the limbs of the body. The supernal soul enters them, and displays through them its works, AS THE BODY REVEALS THE WORKS OF THE SOUL. It and they are one with nothing to divide them. This is the supernal soul, the most hidden.

741. וְהֵאֵי אֲתַעֲטָף בְּעֵטוּפָא דְזֵהָרָא דְכַרְמֵלָא, בְּגו
זְהִירוֹתָא וְנִטְיָף טַפִּין טַפִּין מְרַגְלָאן. וְאִתְקִשְׁרוּ כְּלָהוּ

742. Another soul is the Nukva, which hides among her armies, it She is their soul and receives a body from them. SHE IS CLOTHED IN THEM AS A SOUL WITHIN A BODY, so as to display through them her handiwork to all the world, just as the body is a vessel which executes its works through the soul. They are ATTACHED AND UNITED TO EACH OTHER, like the hidden ones above are attached.

742. נְשָׁמְתָא אַחְרָא, נּוֹקְבָא דְמַטְמָרָא בְּגו חִילָהָא,
וְהִיא נְשָׁמְתָא לְהוּ, וּמְנִיָּהּ אֲחִידָא גּוּפָא, לְאַחְזָאָה

לְנְשָׁמְתָא, לְמַעַבְדָּ בֵּיהּ עֲבִידְתָּא, וְאֵלִין כְּגוּוֹנָא

743. Another soul is the souls of the righteous below. The souls of the righteous come from the supernal souls, the soul of the female and the soul of the male, ZEIR ANPIN. For this reason, the souls of the righteous are higher than all the armies and legions of angels above, SINCE ANGELS COME FROM THE OUTER PART OF THE NUKVA, BUT THE SOULS COME FROM THE INNER PART OF THE NUKVA AND ZEIR ANPIN, NAMELY FROM THEIR SOULS.

744. HE ASKS: You may say that if the souls are elevated on two sides, OF ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, AND COME FROM THEIR INWARDNESS, why then do they descend into this world, and why leave it? HE ANSWERS: THIS IS LIKE a king who begot a son. He sent him to be raised in a village until it was time for him to be taught the ways of the palace. When the king heard his son is grown up, out of love for him, he sent the Matron his mother to fetch him. She brought him to the palace, where he rejoiced with HIS SON every day.

745. The Holy One, blessed be He, also begot a son by the Matron. Who is he? The Supernal Holy Soul, THE DESCENDANTS OF ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA. He sent him to the village, NAMELY to this world, to be raised and be brought up in the ways of the King's palace. When the King saw that his son was grown up in this village, and that it was time to bring him to the palace, what did he do? Out of love for his son, he sent the Matron, who fetched him to his palace. The soul never leaves this world until the Matron comes for it, and brings it to the King's palace where it remains forever.

746. Yet it is the way of the world that the inhabitants of the village weep when the King's son parts from them. There was a wise man there, who said: Wherefore are you crying, is he not a king's son? It is not meet that he shall dwell among you any longer, but in his father's palace. Moshe too, who was wise, saw the inhabitants of the village crying, and said to them, "You are the children of Hashem your Elohim: you shall not gash yourselves" (Devarim 14:1).

747. Come and see: if all the righteous knew that they would be glad when the day comes for them to depart from this world. For is it not a high honor that the Matron comes for them to escort them into the King's palace, and that the King will daily rejoice in them? For the Holy One, blessed be He, amuses Himself only with the souls of the righteous.

748. Come and see: the love of the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, for the Holy One, blessed be He, ZEIR ANPIN, is stirred by the souls of the righteous below. Since they come from the side of the King, ZEIR ANPIN, the side of the male, the female is aroused from the side of the male, and love is stirred. Thus the male incites affection and love within the female and she is united in love with the male. THIS SETTLES THE QUESTION, THAT IT IS NOT PROPER FOR THE FEMALE TO COURT THE MALE. NOW IT IS EXPLAINED, THAT THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS, WHO ARE MALE, INCITE IN HER THIS LOVE TO ZEIR ANPIN.

749. In the same manner, the desire of the female to pour forth lower waters towards the upper waters is aroused solely by the souls of the righteous. Happy are the righteous in this world and in the World to Come, for they support the upper and lower. Therefore it just says, "The righteous is the foundation of the world" (Mishlei 10:25), WHICH MAY MEAN EITHER THE SUPERNAL RIGHTEOUS, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, OR THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS. BOTH MEANINGS ARE TRUE.

750. The secret thereof is that the righteous is Yesod above, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, and Yesod below OF THE NUKVA AND THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS. The Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, comprises the upper and lower righteous. The righteous on this side, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, and the righteous on that side, THE SOUL OF THE RIGHTEOUS BELOW, inherit THE NUKVA. Hence it says, "The righteous shall inherit the earth" (Tehilim 38:29), and assuredly they will inherit THE NUKVA CALLED earth. Come and see: The righteous, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, inherits the earth, THE NUKVA, pours blessings upon it every day and furnishes it with delights and dainties which he draws FROM BINAH upon it. We have already explained this.

74. "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat"

A discussion of the title verse interprets it as signifying Binah, which gives "royal dainties" to Yesod, which in turn then gives to Malchut, our dimension of physical matter. There are two types of bread: the bread of poverty, which is the bread of Malchut, and millet bread, the bread of Zeir Anpin. The bread mentioned in the title verse is that of Zeir Anpin. Zeir Anpin nourishes Malchut through the righteous, and Malchut distributes the "royal dainties" among the grades beneath her.

Following a description of the double bread of Shabbat, there ensues a discussion of the verse, "For the bread is spent." We are told that the upper bread of Zeir Anpin is referred to as masculine and includes all types of food, while the lower bread of the Nukva is feminine and refers only to bread. Finally, the discourse informs us Moshe revealed that Asher is mentioned above in Binah. We also learn that Asher is mentioned below, in relation to Malchut and is included in the support of Malchut, below the twelve tribes.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here, the righteous sages of antiquity, and the pious who walk among us in the present, assist us in connecting our souls and the entire world [Malchut] to the level of Zeir Anpin, the fountainhead of spiritual energy, including financial sustenance for our physical reality.

751. This is the secret of the verse, "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties," WHICH MEANS THAT ASHER IS THE SAID RIGHTEOUS, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, THAT POURS DAINTIES UPON THE NUKVA. Yet he is not YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "The daughters saw her, and called her happy" (Shir Hashirim 6:9), WHICH IS AN ASPECT OF THE NUKVA AND NOT YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. Leah therefore said "for the daughters will call me happy (Heb. oshri)" (Bereshheet 30:13). This is correct. Come and see: From the World to Come, BINAH, issues a flow upon the righteous, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, to pour delicacies and dainties upon the earth, which has been bread of poverty turned millet bread. This is the meaning of, "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties." We have already explained this. ASHER IS BINAH, WHICH GIVES ROYAL DAINTIES TO YESOD, AND YESOD TO THE NUKVA.

752. Come and see: "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat." This is the place which everyone calls happy. What is it? It is the World to Come, BINAH, which the upper and lower call happy and yearn for. "His bread shall be fat": HE ASKS: Whose BREAD? It does not specify the place OF BREAD. HE REPLIES: There is bread and bread, and in the same way there is a tree and tree. There is The Tree of Life, ZEIR ANPIN, and the tree upon which death depends, THE NUKVA. SO there is bread which is called bread of poverty, THE NUKVA, and there is bread called millet bread. What is THE MILLET BREAD? It is Vav OF THE NAME YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. This is "his bread (Heb. lachmo)": the bread (Heb. lechem) of Vav, NAMELY THE BREAD OF ZEIR ANPIN. Hence it says "Behold, I will rain bread from heaven" (Shemot 16:4), from heaven indeed, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN CALLED HEAVEN.

753. Hence, "out of Asher his bread shall be fat." "His bread" includes the syllables lechem and the letter Vav, TO WIT, THE BREAD OF ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'VAV', since from him-FROM BINAH CALLED 'ASHER'-the tree is nourished, and he, BINAH, adorns it WITH THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, as it says "the crown with which his mother crowned him" (Shir Hashirim 3:11), TO WIT, BINAH CALLED 'MOTHER'. When ZEIR ANPIN receives, he shall surely yield royal dainties (lit. 'of the king'). Who is the king? The Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, which is nourished BY ZEIR ANPIN, who gives to her via the righteous, the holy grade of the sign of the covenant, NAMELY YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, and from THE NUKVA unto the other grades below IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH, which resemble the ones above, TO WIT, THE IMPLEMENTS IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH RESEMBLE THOSE IN ATZILUT.

754. In the book of Rav Hamnuna Saba (the elder), he said the following, "Out of Asher his bread shall be fat" refers to the Shabbat bread, which is doubly delightful, as it is written: "They gathered double bread" (Shemot 16:22). There are two kinds of breads, bread from heaven, FROM ZEIR ANPIN, and bread from the earth, FROM THE NUKVA. This is millet bread, BUT THE BREAD FROM THE EARTH DETACHED FROM THE BREAD FROM HEAVEN is the bread of poverty. On Shabbat, the lower bread OF THE NUKVA is included within the upper bread OF ZEIR ANPIN, and the lower is blessed by the upper. This is double bread.

755. RAV HAMNUNA SABA (THE ELDER) also said that the double bread of Shabbat, WHICH IS THE BREAD OF THE NUKVA, receives from the supernal Shabbat, BINAH, which flows and shines upon everything. The bread OF THE NUKVA is united with the bread OF BINAH and becomes double. HE EXPLAINS WHY HE DOES NOT TALK OF THE BREAD OF THE NUKVA AND THE BREAD OF ZEIR ANPIN, BUT THE BREAD OF BINAH. IT IS BECAUSE that uniformly the secret of bread is the Nukva, EITHER THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, OR BINAH, WHICH IS ALSO A FEMALE. BUT THE ABUNDANCE OF ZEIR ANPIN IS NOT CALLED BREAD, SINCE IT IS MALE. Hence it is written: "Shall be fat" with a feminine suffix INSTEAD OF A MASCULINE. It also says "save the bread which he did eat" (Beresheet 39:6), WHICH ALLUDES TO the wife CALLED BREAD. HENCE BREAD IS AN ASPECT OF THE FEMALE.

756. One may ask about the verse: "For the bread is spent in our vessels" (I Shmuel 9:7), THAT THE WORD "SPENT" IS MASCULINE AND not feminine. THE REASON THEREFORE IS THAT other victuals BESIDES BREAD are also called bread. It can be noticed what would be other victuals and what would be bread, for upper bread OF ZEIR ANPIN is uniformly male, AND REFERS TO ALL KINDS OF FOOD. The lower bread OF THE NUKVA is uniformly female, AND REFERS TO BREAD ALONE. We find that it is sometimes written as masculine and sometimes as feminine. All is the same, and the one is like the other, ONLY ONE IS IN ZEIR ANPIN AND THE OTHER IN THE NUKVA, and all is correct.

757. Come and see: Asher is mentioned above IN BINAH and mentioned below in relation to the adornments of the bride, WHO IS THE NUKVA, since the sea, THE NUKVA, rests upon and is supported by all the twelve tribes, THE SECRET OF THE TWELVE OXEN. This is the meaning of: "And the sea was set above upon them" (I Melachim 7:25). ASHER THEN IS PART OF THE SUPPORT OF THE NUKVA. The secret of the matter is that it is established above IN BINAH and below on earth, THE NUKVA, through certain amendments after the pattern of the supernal world BINAH. It is established below through the twelve tribes WHO SUPPORT THE NUKVA, after the supernal pattern OF BINAH WHICH IS ESTABLISHED UPON THE TWELVE SUPPORTS OF ZEIR ANPIN. Hence there is the Shechinah above, BINAH, WHICH RESTS UPON THE TWELVE SUPPORTS OF ZEIR ANPIN, THE THREE COLUMNS, EACH OF THEM FOUR FACED and there is the Shechinah below, the NUKVA, through which Yisrael is included and established by the twelve tribes, and Asher is part of her support like the other tribes.

759. If it were not for Moshe who revealed THAT ASHER IS IN BINAH, it would not be made known. Thus it says, "And let him dip his foot in oil" (Devarim 33:24) to indicate his attachment to his place, which pours the anointing oil from ITS PLACE above IN BINAH. Therefore it says, "Be Asher blessed above sons" (Ibid.).

75. "Naftali is a hind let loose"

An interpretation of this difficult section reveals that while Malchut is considered female, anything that rises above her to Binah is considered male. We learn that a male is considered perfect when he is circumcised, because he possesses the sign of the Covenant. Therefore, the verse, "a male without blemish", alludes to the virile member which must not be castrated. Although Binah is often referred to as female, since she has many feminine aspects, when the "final part," the aspect of maleness, is revealed, all turns into male. The discussion next moves to the question of why God omitted Yosef and put Ephraim in his place when He ordered the four standards for the twelve tribes in order to adorn the Shechinah. We learn that although Yosef was righteous, he had the imprint of the male. Because the Shechinah's adornments are all female, Yosef was removed and Ephraim, who is of the feminine aspect, was put in his place. Finally, the rabbis provide further insight into the title verse through an explanation of the words, "and your mouth (speech) is comely." The voice, which signifies Zeir Anpin, guides the speech, which signifies Malchut. Just as there is no voice without speech and vice versa, Malchut and Zeir Anpin cannot illuminate without each other. Thus, the whole depends on the part, and the part depends on the whole.

The Relevance of this Passage

The realization of the interconnectedness and perfect harmony of all reality begins to take hold within our consciousness. We receive purification of our negative sexual deeds and thoughts through the Light that is set aflame during circumcision. Our efforts of meditating upon these verses help to couple Malchut and Zeir Anpin bringing Light to the planet and balance to the male and female energies that permeate all worlds.

759. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion with: "Naftali is a hind let loose: he gives goodly words" (Beresheet 49:21). THIS VERSE IS CONSIDERED DIFFICULT, FOR SINCE IT SAYS "A HIND LET LOOSE," IT SHOULD END WITH 'SHE GIVES GOODLY WORDS', INSTEAD OF "HE." We have learned that the supernal world, BINAH, is the world of the male. Once something rises from the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS FEMALE, it becomes male. Whence do we know that? From the burnt offering (Heb. olah). Why is it called olah (lit. 'goes up, fem.')? Because it rises up from the Nukva. Therefore, "let him offer a male without blemish" (Vayikra 1:3), AS ABOVE THE NUKVA IT IS MALE. FOR THIS REASON THE SUPERNAL WORLD, BINAH, IS CONSIDERED THE WORLD OF THE MALE.

760. HE ASKS: Why DOES SCRIPTURE say "A MALE without blemish"? Was there any intention of bringing it in pieces, that it admonishes "without blemish (lit. 'perfect')"? HE ANSWERS: What is perfect? It is expressed by the words: "Walk before me, and be perfect" (Beresheet 17:1). When was he perfect? At the time he was circumcised, since a male exists and is recognized only by the place called perfect, the sign of the covenant, which indicates the difference between male and female. Hence it says, "Noach was a righteous perfect man" (Beresheet 6:9), RIGHTEOUS BEING YESOD WHICH IS CALLED PERFECT. Therefore, the words "a male without blemish" allude to the virile member which must not be castrated.

761. HE ASKS: Yet it also says "a female without blemish." HE ANSWERS: Assuredly, as YESOD is called "righteous perfect," so does the Nukva, since she receives everything from him AND IS THEREFORE CALLED PERFECT LIKE HIM. BUT THE ATTRIBUTE "PERFECT" MAINLY REFERS TO THE MALE. Hence, the burnt offering which rises from the female unto the male IS MALE, since from that place, THE NUKVA, upwards, all is male. From the Nukva downward all is female, as has already been explained.

762. HE ASKS: But there is also a female above, BINAH. HE REPLIES: The final part of the body shows that the whole body is male. The head and body OF BINAH--BEING CHOCHMAH, BINAH, AND DA'AT, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, are feminine until the final part, TO NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, CLOTHED IN THE HEAD OF ZEIR ANPIN TO ASSUME THE ASPECT OF THE MALE LIKE HIM, and when the final part shows THE ASPECT OF MALENESS all turns into male, EVEN ITS CHOCHMAH, BINAH, DA'AT, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, WHICH ARE NOT CLOTHED WITH ZEIR ANPIN, ARE ALSO CONSIDERED TO BE MALE. But here IN THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, the head and end are considered feminine, for her whole body is female, WITHOUT A TRACE OF MALE IN HER NETZACH HOD YESOD.

763. Come and see: There is a supernal secret in this, for we notice that Ya'akov blessed Yosef together with his brothers. But when the Holy One, blessed be He, ordered the four standards of the Shechinah for the twelve tribes, through which to adorn the Shechinah, he omitted Yosef and put Ephraim in his place. Why did he omit Yosef? If you say that it was for his sins, this is not so, for he was righteous.

764. HE ANSWERS: The secret meaning of this is that Yosef was the imprint of the male, as it is written: "Yosef is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a well," WHICH IS THE ASPECT OF YESOD CALLED A FRUITFUL BOUGH, and "from thence he fed the stone of Yisrael." The stone is the Congregation of Yisrael, NAMELY THE NUKVA, of which David said: "The stone which the builders rejected has become the head stone of the corner" (Tehilim 118:21). Since Yosef was the imprint of the male, he is called Yosef the righteous, for indeed he was righteous, YESOD. "From thence he fed the stone of Yisrael" WHICH GIVES TO THE NUKVA.

765. Since all the adornments of the Shechinah are female, FOR FROM THE NUKVA DOWNWARD ALL IS FEMALE, Yosef was removed from them and Efraim was assigned in his place to the TWELVE adornments, for he is of the aspect of the female. He was then stationed on the west side, the dwelling of the female, THE SHECHINAH BEING ON THE WEST, and the impress of the male, NAMELY YOSEF, was removed from the adornments, which are all of the world of the female and not of the world of the male. All adornments need to bear the aspect of the female.

766. Hence Yosef the righteous, YESOD WHICH IS MALE, was removed from the adornments and Efraim was put in his stead. Therefore all the twelve tribes WHO ARE CONSIDERED FEMALE, are the adornments of the Shechinah, and must bear the likeness of above; TO WIT, TO BE FEMALES LIKE THE SHECHINAH, except the grade of righteous OF THE TRIBES, WHICH IS YESOD, which turn all the members of the body into male and should not be counted among the twelve implements so that there will be no need to deduct him.

767. "Naftali is a hind let loose: he gives goodly words" as it says "and your mouth (speech) is comely" (Shir Hashirim 4:3), for the voice, ZEIR ANPIN, guides the speech, THE NUKVA. There is no voice without speech. The voice is sent from a deep place above, BINAH, to guide the speech, since there is no voice without speech nor speech without voice. This is the whole needing the part, and the part in need the whole. The voice comes forth from the south, WHICH IS THE RIGHT COLUMN, THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM and leads the west, THE NUKVA, which inherits the two sides, THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM FROM THE SOUTH AND THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH FROM THE WEST. Hence it is written, "And of Naftali he said... possess you the west and the south" (Devarim 33:23). Therefore it is said that "Naftali is a hind let loose," NAMELY THE NUKVA below. In the same manner, the male above SHINES TOGETHER WITH HER, FOR THEY DO NOT SHINE THE ONE WITHOUT THE OTHER. Hence, "he gives goodly words" is written in the masculine, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, instead of the feminine.

76. Thought, voice, speech

Thought, we are told, is the beginning of all. In the beginning, there was no separation between thought, voice, and speech, as signified by the verse, "The Creator shall be one, and His Name One." Thought then expanded and was named Binah (Understanding) when it came to the place where the spirit dwelt. The spirit expands and utters a voice, which includes all forces and guides the speech.

The Relevance of this Passage

The energy flowing from this passage transports our souls back to the moment before creation where all was one. This all-embracing unity radiates Light that returns our entire being back to an embryonic state when we were free of any negativity and defilement. This process has a refining and purifying effect on us, removing blockages and darkness from the recesses of our souls. The Light of rejuvenation ignites within us, giving us renewed strength and power to continue our spiritual transformation.

768. Come and see: Thought is the beginning of all. Thought is hidden inside and inscrutable. When thought further expanded, it came to where the spirit dwelt, and was there named Binah (understanding). Now it is not concealed as before, and though it is somewhat hidden, the spirit expands and utters a voice, which is composed of fire, water and wind, THE THREE COLUMNS north, south and east. This voice includes all forces, and guides the speech. It gives word its fixing, since it was sent from the place of the spirit and came to guide the word and utter correct words.

769. When you look at these grades, you shall find that thought, Binah, voice and speech are all one. This is the thought in the beginning of all. There was no separation but all was one and united. That very thought was attached to naught, KETER, never to separate. This is meant by: "Hashem shall be one, and His name One" (Zecharyah 14:9), and "he gives goodly words" refers to the body.

77. "Yosef is a fruitful bough"

The Zohar offers a complex discourse concerning the exact makeup of the great spiritual channel Yosef.

The Relevance of this Passage

Yosef is considered to be the foundation of our physical world. Within the structure of the Ten Sfirot, Yosef corresponds to the dimension of Yesod, the doorway through which all the energy of the Upper Worlds enters our material realm. Yosef also corresponds to sustenance. Hence, in this passage, we draw the power of good fortune and we strengthen our soul's connection to the true foundation of all spirituality.

770. The ending of the body, YESOD, is referred to in the verse: "Yosef is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a well." HE ASKS: Why does it say twice "A FRUITFUL BOUGH"? HE ANSWERS: There is a fruitful bough above and a fruitful bough below. Why is there no fruitful bough below among the implements of the Matron, NAMELY AMONG THE TWELVE TRIBES, THE SECRET OF THE TWELVE OXEN, WHICH SUPPORT THE MATRON ABOVE? HE REPLIES: "The daughters advanced upon the wall," WHICH MEANS THAT females are used as her implements, FEMALE ASPECTS, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF THE TWELVE TRIBES, and not sons. AND YOSEF IS YESOD, WHICH IS A SON, NAMELY MALE. Hence it says, "Many daughters have done virtuously" (Mishlei 31:29). "Many daughters have done virtuously" are the twelve tribes, WHO ARE MADE A THRONE FOR THE NUKVA. THUS, THE VERSE ENDS WITH "BUT YOU EXCEL (LIT. 'RISES ABOVE') THEM ALL" (IBID.).

771. Come and see: the holy Malchut does not attain perfection as holy Malchut, until it is united with the patriarchs, WHO ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET FROM THE CHEST AND ABOVE OF ZEIR ANPIN. When it joins them, the kingdom was turned into a complete building by the upper world, which is the world of the male, NAMELY BINAH, SINCE THEN CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN RECEIVE FROM ITS RIGHT SIDE, AND MALCHUT FROM BINAH'S LEFT SIDE. The supernal world is called seven years since it includes all seven years, AS BINAH INCLUDES WITHIN HER ALL THE SEVEN SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT CALLED SEVEN YEARS.

772. This is indicated by: "And he built it seven years" (I Melachim 6:38). This is the upper world BINAH, WHICH INCLUDES SEVEN YEARS. It therefore does not say 'in seven years', BUT SEVEN, as in: "For six days Hashem made heaven and earth" (Shemot 31:17), instead of 'in six days.' THIS MEANS THAT THE SIX DAYS CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH; HERE ALSO IT MEANS THAT THE SEVEN YEARS, BINAH, BUILT IT. It is written: "These are the generations of the heaven and of the earth when they were created (Heb. be'hibar'am)," the letters of "be'avraham (Eng. 'in Avraham')," for Avraham, WHO IS CHESED, is called seven days, and by him the upper world, BINAH, was built. They are called the 'World of the Male'.

773. Likewise there are seven years below, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT DIVIDED AMONG THE TWELVE TRIBES, the secret of the lower world, THE NUKVA. This is the secret meaning of the words: "Seven days and seven days, fourteen days" (I Melachim, 8:66). HE ASKS: From "seven days and seven days," do I not know they amount to fourteen, WHY ADD "FOURTEEN DAYS"? HE ANSWERS: THEIR PURPOSE IS to indicate the upper and lower worlds, which are seven days and seven days, ALLUDED TO BY THE FOURTEEN DAYS. Those OF THE UPPER WORLD are males and those OF THE LOWER WORLD are females. This world, THE NUKVA, is above the females, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD DIVIDED AMONG THE SAID TWELVE, as it is written: "Many daughters have done virtuously." This refers to the twelve tribes, that "have done virtuously," as "all that were numbered in the camp of Yehuda..." (Bemidbar 2:9) and the others MULTIPLIED EXCEEDINGLY. THUS THE VERSE ENDS WITH "BUT YOU RISE ABOVE THEM ALL," SINCE THE NUKVA IS OVER THEM.

774. HE ASKS: You may say that the verse says "many" yet they are but twelve, excepting their virtuous deeds, FOR EACH MULTIPLIED, AS HINTED BY THE WORDS "HAVE DONE VIRTUOUSLY." Why does it say "many (Heb. rabot) daughters"? HE REPLIES: Like in the verse: "Because the cry of S'dom and Amarah is great (Heb. rabah)" (Bereshheet 18:20), "many" means that they are great, above all and greater than all. These are the great living creatures. They "have done virtuously" AS EACH TRIBE MULTIPLIED EXCEEDINGLY. "AND THOSE THAT ENCAP BY HIM" (BEMIDBAR 2), YISACHAR AND ZVULUN BY THE STANDARD OF YEHUDA, AND SO ON, are called 'small living creatures', which join as one the great living creatures, YEHUDA, REUVEN, EFRAIM AND DAN, so that the Matron, THE NUKVA, will be established by them. The upper and lower will rejoice in them. Hence it says, "There is the Livyatan, whom you have made to play therein" (Tehilim 104:26). THE LIVYATAN IS THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE SMALL AND GREAT LIVING CREATURES. Therefore "many daughters have done virtuously..."

775. Hence "the daughters advanced upon the wall." HE ASKS: IT SAYS "daughters advanced (sing.)" INSTEAD OF IN THE PLURAL. HE ANSWERS: This is the reflection of that which is written above "A FRUITFUL BOUGH BY A WELL." What is this WELL? It is the well of justice, THE NUKVA, WHICH RECEIVES JUSTICE, TIFERET. YOSEF gives to the well, THE NUKVA, which advances to take daughters for its adornment. "The daughters advanced": THE NUKVA ADVANCED WITH DAUGHTERS but not with sons, for daughters are worthy to establish her, but sons are not. "They fiercely attacked him" by looking lovingly at him, as it is written: "Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me" (Shir Hashirim 6:5), FOR THEY BURN ME WITH YOUR LOVE'S FLAME. HERE TOO HE COULD NOT SUFFER THE NUKVA'S ARROWS OF LOVE. THIS IS THE MEANING OF "THEY FIERCELY ATTACKED HIM" and "the archers hated him," THAT HE COULD NOT TOLERATE IT.

776. "But his bow abode in strength." The bow IS THE NUKVA. HE ASKS: Why say "his bow" WHEN IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN 'BUT BOW ABODE...'? HE ANSWERS: It is YOSEF'S spouse, AND THEREFORE IT SAYS "HIS BOW." "In strength" means that she clothed him in strength and might, and so his strength will not be enfeebled FOR HIS UNION WITH HER. For she knew that Yosef would not turn aside within his grade; TO WIT, HE WOULD NOT TURN, DUE TO MATING, TO THE LEFT GRADE, THE PLACE OF JUDGMENTS, since his sign of the covenant turns both right and left IN ONE.

777. What do the words "were made supple (Heb. vayafozu)" mean? HE ANSWERS: As it says, "More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold (Heb. paz)" (Tehilim 19:11) and "nor shall it be valued with pure gold (Heb. paz)" (Iyov 28: 18). HERE TOO, VAYAFUZU IS DERIVED FROM PAZ, FINE GOLD AND PRECARIOUSNESS, as his hands were precious with the sublime pearl, THE SUPERNAL NUKVA ABOVE THE CHEST, THAT RECEIVED ABUNDANCE FROM BEING UNITED. SHE RECEIVED "by the hand of the mighty One of Ya'akov" from the two sides, RIGHT AND LEFT, by which Ya'akov was strengthened. "From thence he fed the stone of Yisrael," from thence that precious stone, THE NUKVA, was fed, like we said. We should further explain that the precious stone was fed by the twelve sides, north and south, WHICH ARE THE HANDS OF YA'AKOV, FOR THERE ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD TO THE NORTH, AND CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD TO THE SOUTH, ALTOGETHER TWELVE. THE NUKVA is put in their midst to be blessed by them, fed by them via YOSEF the righteous.

778. Come and see: Yosef was bestowed yet another blessing "by the El of your father, and He shall help you; AND BY (ET) SHADAI, AND HE SHALL BLESS YOU." This verse is hard to understand, since it says "by the El of your father," when it should have been 'the El shall of your father help you.' It says "Et Shadai" instead of the particle 'el' as in "and El Shadai give you Mercy before the man" (Beresheet 43:14). "And He shall bless you" should have been 'He shall bless you.'

779. HE REPLIES: He inherited both above IN ZEIR ANPIN and below IN THE NUKVA. He inherited above, as it says "by the El of your father," which is the supernal inheritance, a place called heaven, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH CHARIOT YA'AKOV WAS. "And He shall help you": He shall not exchange it for another place, and His help shall be from this place and no other.

780. "And (et) Shadai": What is the meaning of this phrase, SHOULD IT NOT HAVE BEEN 'EL SHADAI', AS ASKED ABOVE? But this is another lower grade, as we have learned that uniformly "Et (the) Hashem" is the Shechinah, as in "I saw (et) Hashem" (Yechezkel 6:1), Et includes THE SHECHINAH. "And the (Heb. et)" ALLUDES TO ZEIR ANPIN, thus comprising day, ZEIR ANPIN in night, and night in day, as it is written: "and (et) Shadai" WITH VAV (=AND), since from thence blessings issue into the world.

781. We should explain further, Why it does not say 'And El Shadai', seeing that it has the same meaning as we said THAT IT TOO ALLUDES TO THE NUKVA, ALSO CALLED "EL SHADAI," as it is written: "and El Shadai give you mercy." All is the same SINCE "AND EL SHADAI" REFERS TO THE NUKVA LIKE "AND (ET) SHADAI." Why then omit the Lamed and replace IT with Tav? It is a mystery, that when these paths come from above, TO WIT, THE 22 LETTERS, FROM WHICH EVERY PERFECTION IS SUPPLIED, the whole of the Torah, THE ABUNDANCE OF ZEIR ANPIN, is inherited by heaven, ZEIR ANPIN, as it is written: "the (et) heaven" (Bereshheet 1:1), ET (ALEPH TAV) including all the 22 letters FROM ALEPH TO TAV. From here, they depart to the Oral Law, called earth, NAMELY THE NUKVA, as it says "and the (et) earth" (Ibid.), ALEPH TAV including the 22 letters RECEIVED BY THE NUKVA. AT FIRST, heaven, ZEIR ANPIN, includes them all as one, and then the moon, THE NUKVA, is adorned by them all; TO WIT, SHE RECEIVES THEM FROM ZEIR ANPIN and dwells in perfection. Blessings are then drawn from there, and thus it says "and (et) Shadai," WHICH INDICATES THE GREAT PERFECTION OF THE INCLUSION OF THE 22 LETTERS OF THE NUKVA, WHENCE THERE ARE BLESSINGS.

782. "And (Vav) he shall bless you" IS SPELLED WITH VAV, for further lasting prevalence TO THE BLESSINGS. For wherever there is Vav, it is an indication of an increase and maintenance. Up to this point, it was said in general. Now he gives details, as is written: "blessings of heaven..."

783. "The blessings of your father are potent above the blessings of my progenitors" The blessings of your father YA'AKOV, THE CENTRAL COLUMN, are surely more potent THAN THE BLESSINGS OF AVRAHAM AND YITZCHAK, since Ya'akov inherited more praises than the patriarchs, he being perfect in all. He gave it all to Yosef. Why? Because this is fit, for the righteous, YESOD, NAMELY YOSEF, takes and inherits all together; TO WIT, HE RECEIVES FROM ALL THE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN TOGETHER; and all blessings dwell in him. He draws them from the head above, THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN, and all the members of the body, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, prepare to pass the blessings TO YESOD, and then YESOD turns into a river which flows from Eden.

784. HE ASKS OF THE MEANING OF "from Eden (lit. 'delight')." HE SAYS, When all the limbs are linked together in delight and desire from the abundance in the head above and from below, they all pour UPON YESOD their delight and desire, and it becomes a river which flows and comes out from Eden. WE SHOULD further EXPLAIN THAT the word "from Eden" MEANS that from supernal Chochmah called Eden, all flows and turns into a river, which pours down until it reaches the grade OF YESOD, and then all THE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN are blessed, and all is one.

785. "To the utmost bound (also: 'desires') of the everlasting (lit. 'world') hills" is the passion for the two everlasting hills. What are they? The two females, one above, BINAH, and one below, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, each called 'world'. The desire of all the members of the body, ALL THE SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN, is for these two mothers. They desire to suck from the upper mother, BINAH, and desire to be attached to the lower mother, THE NUKVA. These desires of them all is the same, and therefore "they shall be on the head of Yosef," WHO IS YESOD, who will receive them all as befits.

786. Happy are those who are called righteous, for only those who keep the grade of the sign of the holy covenant are so called. They are happy in this world and in the World to Come. They came out of the cave. Rabbi Shimon said: Let each of us discourse as we walk.

78. "Binyamin is a ravenous wolf"

The first explanation for why Binyamin is called a wolf tells us that this was engraved upon the throne. The second explanation interprets it as a reference to the altar upon which he offered the flesh of sacrifice daily. The third explanation indicates that through sacrifices, Binyamin appeased the accusers, called "wolf," in order that they would accuse Yisrael. The discussion then reveals the meaning of the verse, "In the morning he shall devour the prey." We are told that in the morning, the offering causes pleasure. At this time only, Ad, of the supernal throne of Binah, consumes the sacrifice. We next learn that the smoke of the sacrifice rises and unites Zeir Anpin and the Female Principle. Wine is also poured below, thereby bringing joy to the wine above. The awakening below should be performed with fine flour in oil in order to effect the union. The first sacrifices of the day are offered entirely to God, Whom then confers blessings on the supernal armies. This unites Zeir Anpin and Malchut and connects the Upper and the Lower Worlds. Indeed, we're told, it is forbidden for a man to greet anyone in the morning before blessing God.

The Relevance of this Passage

The underlying meaning behind any sacrifice to The Creator concerns the sacrifice of our own immoral qualities that dwell deep within our nature. By meditating to uproot our negative traits, and acknowledging our jealousies, ego, and selfishness, the Light issuing through the words of these verses burns away our Evil Inclination, thus facilitating our spiritual evolution.

787. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion with the following verse, "Binyamin is a ravenous wolf." HE ASKS: Why is Binyamin called a wolf? HE ANSWERS: Because it was so engraved upon the throne, THE NUKVA, IN THE SHAPE OF A WOLF. For all the great and small living creatures are imprinted UPON THE THRONE, as it is written "both small and great beasts" (Tehilim 104:25). The throne made by Solomon was also engraved in the same manner, after the pattern of the THRONE above.

788. Another explanation for "a ravenous wolf" is that the altar was in Binyamin's portion, and the altar is a wolf. If you say that Binyamin is a wolf, it is not so, the altar on his territory was the wolf, since it consumed flesh every day; NAMELY THE SACRIFICES OFFERED UPON IT. Binyamin used to feed it WITH SACRIFICES, because it was in his territory. It was as if he nourished and fed that wolf. "RAVENOUS" MEANS FEEDING, THE VERSE MAY READ 'BINYAMIN SHALL FEED THE WOLF,' THE ALTAR. Another explanation for "a ravenous wolf" is that 'he shall feed the wolf'. Who is the wolf? ANGELS sworn to enmity who are ready to accuse Yisrael from above. They are all appeased by the sacrifices, aroused with the arousal above. THUS BINYAMIN, IN WHOSE TERRITORY THE ALTAR LIES, FEEDS THE ACCUSERS CALLED WOLF, SO THAT THEY WILL NOT BRING ACCUSATION UPON YISRAEL.

789. "In the morning he shall devour the prey (Heb. ad), and at night he shall divide the spoil" HE ASKS: What is the meaning of: "In the morning he shall devour the prey"? HE REPLIES: In the morning, when Avraham, CHESED, stirs in the world, and it is time of goodwill, the offering causes stirring and pleasure. It rises to 'ad', the place of which it says "and you shall return to (Heb. ad) Hashem your Elohim" (Devarim 30:2), WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, FROM THE CHEST UPWARD.

790. "In the morning" refers to Avraham like we said: WHO IS CHESED, as it is written: "And Avraham rose up early in the morning" (Beresheet 22:3) when it is time of grace and no one else eats the sacrifice. Who would eat it? The place called Ad would. It is the supernal throne, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET FROM THE CHEST OF ZEIR ANPIN UPWARD, THE THRONE OF BINAH, 'adey ad (forever)', FOR EATING IS UNITING AS WAS SAID BEFORE.

791. Ad eats in the morning, NAMELY WHEN CHESED OF ZEIR ANPIN HAS THE ASCENDANCY. Ad is above THE CHEST OF ZEIR ANPIN, A PLACE WHICH IS ALL CHASSADIM, as it is written: "Trust in Hashem for ever (Heb. adey-ad)" (Yeshayah 26:4). FROM THIS, WE UNDERSTAND THAT AD IS A VERY HIGH PLACE. In the morning, WHEN CHESED OF ZEIR ANPIN REIGNS, there is a sacrifice unto Hashem, WHEN THE NUKVA CALLED SACRIFICE IS UNITED WITH HASHEM; THEREFORE "he shall devour ad (or: ad shall devour)," THAT IS ZEIR ANPIN AND RIGHT, WHICH IS CHESED, SHALL, and no other GRADE.

792. HE EXPLAINS THE UNION WHICH IS BROUGHT ABOUT THROUGH THE SACRIFICE, SAYING the smoke OF THE SACRIFICE rises, THE AWAKENING FROM BELOW, love is aroused above and connects BETWEEN ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, and they stand facing each other. The candle, THE NUKVA, is kindled and shines from the awakening below, TO WIT, IT RECEIVES ABUNDANCE FROM ZEIR ANPIN. The priest is stirred and the Levites praise with joy. The wine, OF THE LEFT SIDE AND GVURAH, is mingled with water, WHICH IS RIGHT AND CHESED. The wine illumines and brings joy, FOR WHEN GVUROT ARE CLOTHED IN CHASSADIM, THEY ARE CALLED 'GLADDENING WINE'. Therefore good wine should be poured from below, so as to gladden the other wine above. All then are aroused to connect the left with the right.

793. The bread of fine flour, which is Malchut, THE NUKVA, was roused by the stirring BELOW. THE NUKVA IS CALLED 'BREAD', ACCORDING TO THE SECRET MEANING OF THE VERSE: "SAVE THE BREAD WHICH HE DID EAT" (BERESHEET 39:6). She is taken by left and right, and attached to the body, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN CALLED BODY. Then supernal oil is poured FROM ZEIR ANPIN and she receives it through the righteous, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. Therefore, awakening below should be performed with fine flour in oil. All is attached together, and there is delight and pleasure in the unison, and the crowns, THE SFIROT OF THE NUKVA, receive that delight and pleasure of the unison. ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA are attached to each other; the moon, THE NUKVA, shines and joins the sun, and all settled delightedly.

794. This is the sacrifice unto Hashem, WHEN THE NUKVA IS BROUGHT UNTO HASHEM and to no one else. Therefore "in the morning he shall devour the prey (Heb. ad)," AD SHALL EAT IN THE MORNING, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN CALLED 'AD', and none other. THE VERSE TEACHES US that first Ad, ZEIR ANPIN, shall eat and be delighted in his union in the morning, WHEN CHASSADIM RULE, for the holy name should be the first to be blessed. Then will the others be blessed, AS IT SAYS, "AND AT NIGHT HE SHALL DIVIDE THE SPOIL," AS WILL BE EXPLAINED.

795. This is why it is forbidden for a man to greet his neighbor in the morning before blessing the Holy One, blessed be He, who should be blessed first, as "in the morning he shall devour ad" (or: as shall devour) , WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. The others shall be blessed later; NAMELY "at night he shall divide the spoil" for the first sacrifices are offered entirely to the Holy One, blessed be He, and the stirring BELOW rises thither. Once he is blessed, he links by knots all the other supernal armies and confers blessings, each according to his worth. The worlds are sweetened and the upper and lower are blessed.

796. This is the secret of the verse, "I have drunk my wine with my milk" first. Then, dividing amongst them all, he says, "Eat, O dear ones, and drink; drink deep, O loving companions" (Shir Hashirim 5:1), thus conferring blessings upon them all and allotting each with his fitting share. Therefore, "at night he shall divide the spoil" for the holy name is blessed first and then imparts blessings amongst all the worlds. Do not say that the sacrifice is offered them nor to any other force, but all is offered to the Holy One, blessed be He, who bestows blessings and divides them to all the worlds. Therefore it is a sacrifice to Hashem, and to no other GRADE.

797. Rabbi Shimon said: You have spoken well, my son. There is another awakening brought about by the sacrifice, that draws and incites blessings so that all the worlds shall be blessed. But first there is the sacrifice unto Hashem, TO BRING THE NUKVA TO THE GRADE OF ZEIR ANPIN, and to no other. Now THAT THE UNISON WITH ZEIR ANPIN IS PERFORMED, "shall you bring your offering" (Vayikra 1:2), NAMELY so that the worlds will be connected together and the upper and lower shall be blessed.

79. "And this is what their father spoke to them"

Rabbi Aba inquires why a passage of Scripture refers to the twelve tribes as "All these," as opposed to "These are the twelve tribes." The word "All," we learn, signifies the mechanism by which the twelve tribes are connected to the source of all blessings, the world of Malchut.

Moreover, it indicates the Lower World's connection to the Upper World.

We are then told that the upper realm, called Zeir Anpin [Male], correlates to "voice," whereas the physical dimension of Malchut [Female] equates to speech. Thus, male and female [Upper and Lower Worlds] are unified--just as voice and speech are unified when words are spoken, through the sacred text. "That which (he) spoke." Next, we learn that all blessing issues from both the Male and Female principles, or the union of Zeir Anpin and Malchut.

The Relevance of this Passage

Here, the Upper and Lower Worlds are enjoined so that we may be the recipients of many blessings. This Light of blessing can flow freely if we do not allow negativity from the twelve signs to influence us. This effect is illustrated within this passage through the mystical power of the twelve tribes, which help us ascend over the twelve signs.

798. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion with the following verse: "All these are the twelve tribes of Yisrael..." HE ASKS: Why say "All these?" Should it not have been, 'These are the twelve tribes.' What means "All"? HE ANSWERS: It attaches the tribes to the place whence all blessings issue from, NAMELY THE NUKVA. IT THEREFORE SAYS, "All THESE." Indeed there are "twelve" knots in the implements of the Matron, THE NUKVA, and she herself is attached to them, ACCORDING TO THE SECRET OF THE VERSE "AND THE SEA WAS SET ABOVE UPON THEM" (I MELACHIM 7:25). Hence it says, "Twelve...and this is that which their father spoke to them, and blessed them," SINCE THE NUKVA CALLED THIS JOINED THE TWELVE TRIBES. For in this place speech dwells, AS ZEIR ANPIN IS CALLED VOICE AND THE NUKVA SPEECH.

799. We should explain the words: "That which (he) spoke." There is a link here which connects the lower to the upper and the upper to the lower. HE EXPLAINS, The lower TO THE UPPER via the twelve tribes, ACCORDING TO THE VERSE, "ALL THESE ARE THE TWELVE TRIBES OF YISRAEL" AND THE UPPER TO THE LOWER BY this, THE NUKVA, which was attached to them FROM ABOVE. "That which he spoke" indicates the union between male and female, FOR THERE IS NO SPEECH WITHOUT VOICE, ZEIR ANPIN. It is attached to two sides from below, THE SECRET OF TWELVE, and from above, THE SECRET OF THIS. Finally, he connected them to the supreme place, male and female FROM THE CHEST UPWARD, WHERE THEY ARE TOGETHER, AND THE FEMALE IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE ZEIR ANPIN IN THE SECRET OF THE CHASSADIM IN HIM. Hence it says "every one according to his blessing..." HE ASKS: What is "his blessing"? HE ANSWERS: "His blessing" is his spouse, NAMELY THE NUKVA CALLED SPOUSE. "Every one according to his blessing" means they are both as one, AS ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA ARE INCLUDED TOGETHER.

800. He opened the discussion saying: "Hashem shall bless you out of Tzion: and you shall see the good of Jerusalem" (Tehilim 128:5). "Hashem shall bless you out of Tzion," for from it all blessings come forth to water the garden, and it includes all blessings and passes to her. Then "you shall see the good of Jerusalem," to show that all blessings issue from male and female. Similarly, "Hashem bless you, and keep you" (Bemidbar 6:24). "Hashem bless you" by the male, "and keep you" by the female, FOR KEEPING IS DRAWN FROM THE NUKVA. All this is one, for blessings issue from both into the world. Therefore "every one according to his blessing he blessed them."

80. "And Ya'akov made an end of commanding his sons"

Rabbi Yehuda explains that Ya'akov "commanded" his sons to be attached to the Shechinah, referencing the cave where Adam is buried, a place near the Garden of Eden. We're told that four couples are buried there: the three patriarchs, their wives, and Adam and Chavah. The Zohar explains that four are required to make up a Holy Chariot. The Creator, however, linked King David to the three patriarchs to form the chariot. So why, Rabbi Yehuda asks, does Adam rest in the cave with the three patriarchs while King David is buried elsewhere?

We are then told that Adam was allotted 1000 years of life, but 70 of his years were transferred to King David to allow for his physical existence. Therefore, both King David and Adam signify Malchut, which represents Female. The three patriarchs embody Zeir Anpin, which is Male. Thus, Adam could be the fourth aspect, "substituting" for David, allowing the Upper Worlds [the patriarchs] and the Lower World [David or Adam] to be united. It is then explained that the cave where King David is buried corresponds to the male energy of the Upper World, whereas King David embodies the female energy of Malchut. Hence, spiritual balance between the supernal and mundane worlds is achieved through this burial arrangement.

The Relevance of this Passage

The symmetry and perfection of the world and its inhabitants, which were brought into existence by The Creator, exist in all of us. This force of balance and union, ignited by our reading, allows the Light of the Shechinah and holy blessings to filter into our world. Our bond to the great patriarchs, King David and root of our soul, Adam, is strengthened and enriched.

801. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion with the verse: "And Ya'akov made an end of commanding his sons." HE ASKS: It says "commanding," but wouldn't one expect 'blessing?' HE REPLIES: He commanded them to be attached to the Shechinah, and commanded them concerning the cave, which is close to the Garden of Eden, where Adam is buried.

802. Come and see: this place is called Kiryat Arba (lit. 'city of four') because four couples were buried there: Adam and Chavah, Avraham and Sarah, Yitzchak and Rivkah, and Ya'akov and Leah. There is a difficulty here. We learned that the patriarchs are a Holy Chariot, yet a Chariot consists of no less than four. We also learned that the Holy One, blessed be He, joined King David with THE PATRIARCHS, and they formed a complete Chariot OF FOUR. The meaning of: "The stone which the builders rejected has become the head stone of the corner" (Tehilim 118:21) is that King David joined them and formed with them a complete Chariot. David was then supposed to be buried with the patriarchs in Kiryat Arba. Why was he not buried with them?

803. HE REPLIES: A place was prepared for King David, Tzion, YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN, with which to be united as one; and Adam was buried with the patriarchs. They were buried with him, since he was the first king, from whom kingdom was removed and transferred to King David. King David lived with Adam's days, for it was decreed that Adam should live a thousand years, but seventy were removed from him to form King David's life and he gave them to him. ADAM WAS THEREFORE CONSIDERED TO PERTAIN TO MALCHUT, AND HE COMPLEMENTED THE CHARIOT OF THE FATHERS TO A FOURSOME. OTHERWISE, how could the patriarchs rise TO HAVE A COMPLETE CHARIOT before the time of King David? OF NECESSITY DID ADAM COMPLEMENT THEM. DAVID WAS NOT BURIED WITH THEM, but merited a place worthy of him, WHICH IS TZION. Hence, he was not buried with the fathers.

804. Moreover, the patriarchs dwell in a male place, TO WIT, THEY ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH ARE MALES. David, WHO IS A CHARIOT TO MALCHUT, is in a female place. Hence the fathers were buried with their wives, and David was buried and attached to a male place, TZION, each as befits him.

81. "And he expired and he was gathered unto his people"
Among the many mysteries expounded upon in this passage, we learn that Ya'akov never died, but rather "expired," just as the sun expires every evening, leaving the moon to reflect its light. The intimate connection concerning the events that take place in Scripture, the characters that populate the Biblical stories, and the structure of the Upper World, are explored in detail by the Zohar. The underlying objective of this complex passage is to demonstrate how the male and female principles, Zeir Anpin and Malchut [the Nukva], are enjoined for the purpose filling all reality with the blessed Light of The Creator. The Zohar stresses the spiritual perfection of Ya'akov, whose existence positively influences all generations and unites the Lower and Upper Worlds.
The Relevance of this Passage
We are connected to the intricate structure of the supernal worlds and the processes by which the Lower and Upper worlds [Male and Female] are interlocked. This connection allows the Light of The Creator and the perfection of Ya'akov to freely flow into our lives, bringing blessing and removing the force of death from our midst.

805. "He gathered up his feet into the bed" because he dwelt in the place of the living, BEING A CHARIOT TO ZEIR ANPIN, THE TREE OF LIFE. Therefore, when he wanted to depart from the world he put his feet down upon the bed, THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, and was gathered and gone from the world. TO WIT, HE WENT UP TO MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) TO BE INCLUDED WITHIN THE UNION OF MALE AND FEMALE. Hence it says that he "expired and was gathered to his people," BUT NOT THAT HE DIED, FOR HE ASCENDED TO BE PART OF THE SUPERNAL LIFE.

806. He opened the discussion saying: "My soul longs, indeed, it faints for the courts of Hashem" (Tehilim 84:2). A DIFFICULTY IS RAISED WHY HE DOES NOT LONG FOR THE HOUSE OF HASHEM, BUT TO HIS COURTS. HE SAYS, THIS has already been explained by the friends, yet come and behold: there are lower stories IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH, AND ASIYAH and upper stories IN ATZILUT. There are no SOULS in the upper ones, FOR SOULS DWELL ONLY IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH. The stories are the inner houses IN ATZILUT and outer houses IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH. The outer houses are called the courts of Hashem, because they are filled with love and desire for the female. DAVID SAID: "MY SOUL LONGS... FOR THE COURTS OF HASHEM" BECAUSE SOULS HAVE NO HOLD HIGHER THAN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH, CALLED THE COURTS OF HASHEM. BUT WHEN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH RISE UP TO ATZILUT, THE SOULS OF THE RIGHTEOUS ASCEND WITH THEM. Come and behold: when the soul rises, all stirs, ALL THE HOSTS OF BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH, AND THEY RISE TO the Nukva, WHO IS united THROUGH THEIR RISING TO HER with a complete desire WITH ZEIR ANPIN, and is attached to him.

807. Ya'akov did not die and therefore it does not say so, only that he "expired, and was gathered to his people." Look at the words "he gathered up his feet into the bed," WHICH IS THE NUKVA. IT MEANS that the sun, YA'AKOV, was gathered to the moon, THE NUKVA. The sun does not die. It is merely gathered from the world and goes to the moon.

808. Come and see: When Ya'akov was gathered, the moon shone, and the desire of the Supernal Sun, ZEIR ANPIN, was awakened for her. For when the sun, YA'AKOV, arises, another sun is awakened, ZEIR ANPIN, and they cleave to each other, ZEIR ANPIN CLINGS TO THE NUKVA, and the moon, THE NUKVA, shines FROM ZEIR ANPIN.

809. Rabbi Shimon said: You have spoken well. We also learned that the upper beings, the world of the male, NAMELY BINAH, is linked to the lower, the world of the female, NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN, and the lower is linked to the upper. So they all resemble each other.

810. We have learned that there are two worlds, as it is written: "from the world to the world" (I Divrei Hayamim 16:36)-BINAH AND THE NUKVA. And though both are females, SINCE BINAH TOO IS A FEMALE, yet BINAH is established by the male, FOR IN GREATNESS SHE IS CONSIDERED A MALE, and THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN is established by a female. BINAH is called seven and THE NUKVA daughter of seven (Bat-Sheva). Both are mothers, BINAH is "mother of children" and THE NUKVA is the mother of Solomon, as it is written: "Go forth, O daughters of Tzion, and behold King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him" (Shir Hashirim 2:11). King Solomon is the king that the peace (Heb. shalom) is his, NAMELY ZEIR ANPIN, WHOSE MOTHER, BINAH IS THE MOTHER OF CHILDREN. The mother of Solomon, as it is written: "Bat-Sheva the mother of Solomon" (I Melachim 1:11) IS THE NUKVA, FOR HERE IT DOES NOT SAY "THE KING SOLOMON."

811. It is written: "And Solomon's Wisdom excelled" (I Melachim 5:10). Solomon's Wisdom is Solomon's mother, NAMELY THE NUKVA, in accordance with the verse: "The words of King Lemu'el, the prophecy, that his mother taught him" (Mishlei 31:1). "The words of King Lemu'el": This verse is not clear, FOR WE DO NOT KNOW WHO KING LEMU'EL IS. But "the words of King Lemu'el" means the words which were spoken to El, who is king. Who is he? The one of whom it says "and El who has indignation every day" (Tehilim 7:11) and "and El Shadai" NAMELY THE NUKVA, as has been explained.

812. Lemu'el, as in the verse "to my mouth (Heb. lemo fi)" (Iyov 40:4) MEANS HERE "TO (LIT. 'EL') EL. King Lemu'el is Bat-Sheva, THE NUKVA; "the prophecy, that his mother taught him," when he appeared before him in Givon in the vision of the night, IS "AND IF YOU WILL WALK BEFORE ME, AS DAVID YOUR FATHER WALKED" (I MELACHIM 9:4).

813. Come and see: Ya'akov was gathered to the moon, THE NUKVA, BY RAISING MAYIN NUKVIN (FEMALE WATERS) TO ZEIR AND NUKVA WHEN HE PASSED AWAY, thus producing fruits by her, BY BRINGING UNION BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE IN GREATNESS, WHICH PRODUCES SOULS CALLED THE FRUITS OF MALE AND FEMALE. There is no generation in the world without Ya'akov's fruit, THE SOULS WHICH ARE BORN OF THE MATING OF MALE AND FEMALE IN GREATNESS, WHICH YA'AKOV BROUGHT BY RAISING MAYIN NUKVIN. For he caused stirring above, A UNION BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE as it says, "he gathered his feet into the bed," the bed of Ya'akov BEING THE NUKVA.

814. Happy is the portion of Ya'akov who was made perfect above and below, as it is written: "Fear you not, O Ya'akov My servant, says Hashem: for I am with you" (Yirmeyah 46:28), not 'you are with me' but "I am with you." FOR HE WAS MADE PERFECT BELOW TOO THROUGH THE SHECHINAH.

82. "The mourning of Egypt"

Rabbi Yitzchak sheds light on the term, "the mourning of Egypt." We are told that when Ya'akov resided in Egypt, "the land was blessed, waters flowed and famine ceased." For this reason, scripture reads, "the mourning of Egypt" and not "the mourning of Yisrael [Ya'akov]." Next, the significance of the word "utter" is examined in a particular verse of Torah. Yemalel, the Hebrew word for "utter," denotes the concept of severance and cutting. In the context of verse quoted by the Zohar, the word "utter" signifies the annulment and cancellation of judgments that emanate from the Sfirah of Gvurah, the Left Column force of Judgment. Thereafter, we discover that the Egyptians were adept in the black arts and sorcery. However, while Ya'akov lived in this physical world, no nation, no matter how well versed in magic, could rule over Yisrael. Moreover, upon Ya'akov's passing from this physical plane, the Egyptians realized that Judgment would still rain down upon them; hence the term, "the mourning of Egypt." Rabbi Shimon then reveals that upon his merit, he can protect those who are destined for death as a result of their wicked deeds, specifically, two Roman informers. He chooses not to.

The Relevance of this Passage

Our connection to Ya'akov helps ensure that Light flows into our lives even during times of great Judgment and negativity. The additional spiritual influences arising herein, help annul Judgments that are handed down against us in the supernal courts. Finally, the exalted Light of the author of the Zohar, Rabbi Shimon, protects us from the Angel of Death, even though we might not merit exoneration.

815. Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion with the verse: "And they came to the threshing floor of Atad," "And when the inhabitants of the land, the Cna'anite, saw the mourning at the floor of Atad" (Beresheet 50:10-11). We have to examine these verses. Why should it concern us that they came to the threshing floor of Atad, and why was it named "the mourning of Egypt." It should have been named 'the mourning of Yisrael,' so why Egypt?

816. HE ANSWERS: So they said that as long as Ya'akov dwelt in Egypt, the land was blessed for his sake, and the Nile used to rise and water the land. Moreover, the famine ceased due to Ya'akov. Hence the Egyptians mourned, and the mourning was named after them.

817. He opened the discussion saying: "Who can utter the mighty acts (Heb. Gvurot) of Hashem? who can declare all His praise?" (Tehilim 106:2). This verse has been explained, yet why say "utter" instead of the usual "speak." If, you say scripture is wont TO USE SYNONYMS FOR THE BEAUTY OF STYLE, it is not so. But all verses WITH SYNONYMS convey a specific meaning. Here, too, there is a specific meaning in "utter (Heb. yemalel)," as in the verse "pluck the ears (Heb. melilot)" (Devarim. 23:26), WHICH IS DERIVED FROM CUTTING AND SEVERANCE. "The Gvurot of Hashem" are numerous, since all verdicts come from thence, FROM THE GVUROT OF HASHEM, THE LEFT COLUMN. SCRIPTURE therefore SAYS: "WHO CAN UTTER GVUROT OF HASHEM," WHICH MEANS who will be able to cancel and annul one decree of the mighty acts performed by the Holy One, blessed be He.

818. We should also add that 'utter' and 'speak' are the same and that UTTER MEANS speak. How numerous are the mighty acts, the prosecutors, the advocates and the executioners of those who break the Law. Speech cannot enumerate them, HENCE THE VERSE SAYS, "WHO CAN UTTER THE MIGHTY ACTS OF HASHEM."

819. THE MIGHTY ACTS OF HASHEM are made known through recital, which contains the secret of wisdom, AND THROUGH WISDOM THEY CAN BE KNOWN. For through utterance and speech, there is no uttering and knowing them, only through recital, as it is written: "One generation shall praise your works to another, and shall declare (recite) your mighty acts" (Tehilim 145:4), through which secret they are made known; NAMELY BY RECITAL, THE SECRET OF WISDOM. But of your Gvurah, the lower Gvurah WITHIN THE NUKVA, they shall talk, FOR IT CAN BE SPOKEN OF, as it is written: "and talk of your Gvurah" (Ibid. 11).

820. "Who can declare all His praise?" For many judgments are seen by it and are united in praise, and several hosts join in praise, as it is written: "Is there any number to His armies" (Iyov 25:3). Hence "who can declare all His praise?"

816. אלא, הכי אמרו, כל ההוא זמנא דהוה יעקב במצרים, אתברך ארעא בגיניה, ונילוס הוה נפיק ואשקי ארעא, ועוד דפסק בפנא בגיניה דיעקב. ועל דא, מצראי עברו אבלותא, ואתכני עליהו.

818. תו, מי ימלל, וידבר, כלא חד. ידבר, דהא כמה וכמה גבוראן אינון, דלית לון חושבנא, כמה מארי דדינון, כמה מארי תריסין, כמה גרדיני נמוסין, ומלולא לא יכיל למללא לון.

820. ישמיע כל תהלתו, דסגיאין אינון דינין, דאשתמודען ומתחברן בתהלה, וכמה חילין, וכמה משיריין דמתחברן בה, בדכתיב, היש מספר לגדודיו, ועל דא, מאן יכיל לאשתמע כל תהלתו.

821. Come and see: All the Egyptians were wise, on the side of Gvurah, NAMELY THE LEFT COLUMN, whence legions and hosts come forth and grades that reach the lower grades. The Egyptians, who were sorcerers, had knowledge of them, and knew of the undisclosed secrets in the world. They saw that as long as Ya'akov lived in this world, no nation could rule over his children, yet they knew that they would enslave Yisrael for a long period.

822. When Ya'akov died they rejoiced THAT NOW THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO ENSLAVE YISRAEL. They looked to see what would become of it and saw the threshing floor of Atad, the prevailing punishment, as 'Atad' has the same numerical value as 'hand', mentioned in the verse: "And Yisrael saw that great work (lit. 'hand') which Hashem did upon Egypt" (Shemot 14:31). When they came to this place, they saw the mighty acts coming from Atad UPON THEM, NAMELY THE TEN PLAGUES OF EGYPT AND THE PARTING OF THE RED SEA. Why is it called Atad (thorn-bush)? As the thorns grow on both sides of the thorn-bush, so do the fingers of the hand, each containing numerous Gvurot, punishments and decrees. Hence "they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation...so that the name of it was called the mourning of the Egyptians." This was truly a grievous mourning for the Egyptians, and no one else.

823. When Rabbi Shimon explained the verses, they went out of the cave WHERE THEY SAT. He said: I see that today a house in town will collapse, and two Roman informers will die there. If I will be in town, the house will not fall, FOR MY MERIT WILL PROTECT THEM. They returned to the cave, FOR HE DID NOT WISH TO RETURN TO HIS TOWN, AND THAT HIS MERIT WILL PROTECT THEM. SO THE HOUSE SHOULD FALL, AND THE INFORMERS BE KILLED. They sat down.

83. "Lift up your voice, O daughter of Galim"

Rabbi Shimon discusses the importance of "praising The Creator" [uttering holy words that ignite awesome spiritual forces] with a pleasant voice. We learn that the "daughter of Galim (lit. 'waves')" refers to Malchut, our physical world, the fourth and completing aspect to the three patriarchs who represent the Upper World dimension called Zeir Anpin. We then discover that the term "daughter of the waves" signifies the abundance of Light that flows from Binah into Malchut. This energy embodies the Light of the blissful world to come. It is explained that Malchut was born from the side of judgment, and thus, has the power to break and triumph over the dark side. Malchut is called "poor," for like the moon, for she has no Light of her own. However, when our prayers and the singing from worlds above unite Male and Female, Malchut [the moon] shines with abundance and wholeness. Finally, the Zohar reveals that King David's spiritual endeavors elevated the world [moon] from spiritual poverty into wealth. Thus, when David left this world, Solomon assumed spiritual command over a world that was now spiritually whole.

The Relevance of this Passage

The spiritual Light that shines through these sacred verses sweetens our prayers with pleasantness and song so that they will be heard and well received above. The Light that awaits us in the world to come is ignited and its warm rays illuminate the here and now. Our connection to King David helps unite our body and soul and the cosmic male and female principles, bringing wholeness and radiance to our existence.

824. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "Lift up your voice, O daughter of galim (lit. 'waves')..." (Yeshayah 10:30). "Lift up your voice" was addressed to the Congregation of Yisrael, which praises the Holy One, blessed be He, with a singing voice. Hence IT WAS SAID TO HER, "Lift up your voice." From this, we learn that whoever wishes to praise the Holy One, blessed be He, aloud, should have a pleasant voice, which would be agreeable to the listeners. Otherwise, he should not raise his voice.

825. Come and see: It is written of the Levites, who come of the side OF SINGING AND PRAISING: "And from the age of fifty years they shall go out of the ranks of the service" (Bemidbar 8:25). What is the reason thereof? IN OLD AGE, the voice fails, and is not agreeable to the ear, as THE VOICE OF his companions. He therefore retires from the high ranks of service, whose service is to play and to glorify the holy name as befits.

826. There are legions above and legions below, which praise the holy name and sing to it. Since THE SINGERS BELOW ARE THE LIKENESS OF THE SINGERS ABOVE, "they shall go out of the ranks of the service." Since the Congregation of Yisrael praises the Holy One, blessed be He, scripture says "Lift up your voice, O daughter of galim," NAMELY the daughter of the patriarchs, FOR THE NUKVA IS A FOURTH TO THE FATHERS, WHO ARE CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. SHE IS THEN THE DAUGHTER OF THE FATHERS.

827. "Daughter of the waves" is also the World to Come, BINAH, which is called waves, since everything is found in it in heaps, LIKE THE WAVES IN THE OCEAN whence they come forth unto all FACES AND WORLDS. We can also interpret "daughter of the waves" as in the words "a fountain (Heb. gal) sealed" (Shir Hashirim 4:12), THE NUKVA'S MOCHIN BEING CALLED GAL, DERIVED FROM 'REVEAL (HEB. GILUY)'. All the waves and springs come out from the World to Come, BINAH, and the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, THE RECIPIENT OF BINAH, is called the daughter of the waves (Heb. galim).

828. Come and see: this verse is difficult. First it says, "Lift up your voice," and then "hearken." Why should she then lift up her voice, when she is asked to listen, AS THERE IS NO NEED TO RAISE THE VOICE WHILE LISTENING? HE ANSWERS: It says, "Lift up your voice" to sing and praise; TO WIT, RAISING THE VOICE IS FOR THE SAKE OF THE BEAUTY OF SONG, NOT TO SPEAK. Come and see: when the children of Yisrael start to sing and praise the Holy One, blessed be He, it says "hearken." Why? Because they praise the Holy One, blessed be He, for her sake, FOR THE SAKE OF THE NUKVA. Therefore it is written: "Lift up your voice" and "hearken." THE FORMER ALLUDES TO YISRAEL AND THE LATTER TO THE NUKVA, FOR WHICH SAKE THEY SING AND PRAISE.

829. "Layshah (lit. 'lioness')": HE ASKS ABOUT THE MEANING OF "HEARKEN LAYSHAH" (SHIR HASHIRIM 4:12) AND SAYS, Since THE NUKVA comes from the side of Gvurah, SHE IS CALLED A LIONESSE. As "a lion which is strongest among beasts" (Mishlei 30:30), so is the lioness strong and breaks the power and strength OF THE OTHER SIDE. "O poor Anatot" (Yeshayah 10:30), WHY IS THE NUKVA SO CALLED? Because she is the mirror which does not shine, and is indeed poor, for the moon, THE NUKVA, has no light except what is given her by the sun.

830. Anatot (poverty) is a village, where poor priests beg from door to door. But no one cares since all its inhabitants are scorned by the people, and their houses are more empty than THE HOUSE OF the people, except for what they are given, being the poorest of the poor. The moon is called Anatot too, for she has no light of her own, and shines only when the sun joins her.

831. Come and see: It is written, "And to Evyatar the priest the king said: 'Get you to Anatot, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death'" (I Melachim 2:26). HE ASKS: Was he worthy of death because Adoniyahu summoned him TO HIS FEAST? HE ANSWERS: Because he came from a poor place, and the moon was attached to him, the poor Anatot.

832. You may say, SINCE IT IS WRITTEN, "Because you have been afflicted in all my father's afflictions" (Ibid.), it was due TO HIS POVERTY then that he did not kill him, WHY THEN IS HE CALLED "WORTHY OF DEATH"? HE REPLIES: Since Evyatar was poor, David took recognition of him before he became king, when Shaul pursued him, for he acted like a poor man, and Evyatar too. ALSO WHEN HE BECAME KING, THE KINGDOM WAS NOT YET WHOLE. But when Solomon reigned, the moon, THE NUKVA, attained perfection. He rejoiced since all was his. Evyatar therefore could not join him.

833. Assuredly, the field of Anatot contains this secret OF THE NUKVA UNDER THE REIGN OF THE LEFT. Yirmeyah bought THE FIELD OF ANATOT to attain the supernal secret. Come and see: when the moon, THE NUKVA, reigns, NAMELY IN FULL ILLUMINATION, she is called 'an apple field.' When she is poor, she is called 'the field of Anatot.' For this reason, the singing above brings her abundance and wholeness, BY BRINGING ABOUT THE UNION BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE.

834. David strove all his days to perfect her by players who sang and praised her, FOR THROUGH THIS THE NUKVA ATTAINS PERFECTION. When David departed from the world, he left her whole and Solomon received her plentiful and whole. For the moon came out of poverty into wealth, through which he reigned over all the kings of the land.

84. "Silver was not accounted for anything in the days of Solomon"

Here, the Zohar reveals the mighty power of the sun, Zeir Anpin, and its ability to transmute the dust of the world into gleaming gold. Moreover, we're told that the merciful Light of Zeir Anpin removes judgment from Malchut, thereby increasing gold. Such was the spiritual landscape during the reign of King Solomon. Because David had already perfected Malchut, Solomon's mystical power was directed at arousing wealth, love, and Light. However, we learn that Solomon miscalculates the spiritual processes taking place in the Upper Worlds and rejects the Right Column energy of mercy [silver]. This action darkens the moon, allowing judgment to impact our world, hence the phrase, "Silver was not accounted for anything" Moreover, because sacrifices are no longer offered in the temple, Judgment occurs each day of our lives. The Zohar then explains that the prayers of man can perfect the Upper and Lower World and remove the Left Column force of judgment.

The Relevance of this Passage

When we extend mercy to our friends and enemies, the Light of Zeir Anpin illuminates our own lives with mercy, transmuting judgments set against us into praise. When mercy is not part of our consciousness, Judgment is allowed to befall us every day. Hence, this passage awakens mercy within us, so that we may bestow it upon others. Our connection to these words helps perfect the Upper and Lower Worlds, whose union also removes judgment from our lives.

835. For this reason, "silver was not accounted for anything in the days of Solomon" (I Melachim 10:21), but all was made of gold, and gold increased. At that time, it says, "And he had dust of gold" (Iyov 28:6), since the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, looked upon the upper dust, THE NUKVA, and through its strength, it turned the dust into gold.

835. וְעַל דָּא אֵין בְּסָף נַחֲשָׁב בְּיַמֵּי שְׁלֹמֹה. אֲלֵא כֹּלָא דְהַב, דְּאִתְרַבֵּי דְהַב, וּבְהָהוּא זְמַנָּא כְּתִיב, וְעַמְרוֹת זָהָב לֹו, דְּהָא עֶמֶר דְּלַעִילָא, הוּוּ מְסַתְּבַל בֵּיהּ שְׁמֵשָׁא, וּבְאַסְתַּבְלוּתָא דְשְׁמֵשָׁא וְתוֹקְפֵיהּ, עֶמְרָא עֵבִיר וְאַסְגֵי דְהַב.

836. Come and see: where the dust of the earth turns into gold on the mountains, where the sunlight is strong everything turns into gold. And were it not for the wild living creatures which roamed there, people would not have been poor, because the power of the sun increases gold.

837. Hence in the days of Solomon, "silver was not accounted for anything," for the strength of the sun was upon the dust and turned it into gold. Also, the dust is of the side of judgment, WHICH IS LEFT WITHOUT RIGHT, NOT ILLUMINATING, and when the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, looked upon it, NAMELY Poured Chassadim upon it, it removed the strength OF JUDGMENT FROM IT, and gold increased. When Solomon saw this, he praised it by saying: "All was of the dust" (Kohelet 3:20).

838. Hence Solomon had no need of playing like David, SINCE THE NUKVA WAS ALREADY MADE PERFECT, but he sang SHIR HASHIRIM, which is love and wealth, light and love, for all the songs of the world were in SOLOMON'S SONG, who recited the song of the Matron, the NUKVA, when she sat upon her throne facing the King.

838. וְע"ד שְׁלֹמֹה לֹא אֲצַטְרִיךְ לְנִגְנָא כְּדוֹד, אֲלֵא שִׁירְתָא דְאִיהוּ רַחֲמֵי דְעוֹתְרָא, דְּהוּא נְהִירוֹ וְרַחֲמֵי דְכֹל תּוֹשִׁבְחֹן דְּעֵלְמָא בֵּיהּ הוּוּ, תּוֹשִׁבְחָתָא דְמְטְרוֹנִיתָא כִּד יִתְבָּא בְּכַרְסֵיָא לְקַבְלֵיהּ דְּמַלְכָּא קָאֻמַר.

839. It is written: "And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem like stones" (I Melachim 10:27). Because all was made of gold and the dust, THE NUKVA, was linked to the left on the side of love, NAMELY LOVER'S LOVE, THE LOVE OF THE LEFT, as it is written: "His left hand is under my head" (Shir Hashirim 2:6). The sun, ZEIR ANPIN, cleaved to her, and did not part.

840. Solomon made a mistake when he saw the moon attached to the sun, the right OF ZEIR ANPIN embracing her WITH CHASSADIM and the left OF ZEIR ANPIN under her head WITH THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH. THE LEFT BECAME HER HEAD. As RIGHT AND LEFT were attached to each other, AND CHOCHMAH ON THE LEFT WAS ALREADY CLOTHED WITH THE RIGHT, he said: Now that they are linked together, what need is there for the right seeing that the function of the right, CHASSADIM, was to draw near ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, SO THAT CHOCHMAH WITHIN THE NUKVA SHALL BE CLOTHED IN CHASSADIM OF ZEIR ANPIN? Now that they are together, there is no more need OF THE RIGHT, CHASSADIM. Straightaway "silver was not accounted for anything," FOR HE REJECTED THE SILVER, WHICH IS RIGHT, AS EXPLAINED.

841. The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: You have rejected the right, WHICH IS CHESED. Upon your life, you shall yet need kindness (Chesed) from people, but you shall not be offered any. Immediately the sun, ZEIR ANPIN, declined from opposite the moon, THE NUKVA, and she began to darken. Solomon went begging, saying 'I am Kohelet,' but none did any kindness by him. Why? Because he rejected the right, CHESED, and did not consider it, as it says, "Silver was not accounted for anything in the days of Solomon."

842. Hence, the more one praises the Holy One, blessed be He, THE RIGHT, peace abounds above. SCRIPTURE therefore SAYS, "Hearken Laysha," WHICH IS THE NUKVA WHEN SEPARATED FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, THE RIGHT. It is written: "The old lion (Heb. layish) perishes for lack of prey" (Iyov 4:11). Laysha is the feminine of layish, as chok (law) and chukat (ordinance). THEY HAVE THE SAME MEANING, AS DO LAYISH AND LAYSHA. "Perishes (Heb. oved)": As in "who were lost (Heb. ovdim)" (Yeshayah 27:13), MEANS THAT IT IS LOST. "For lack of prey," since THE NUKVA demands FROM ZEIR ANPIN to give her, as it says, "She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food (prey) to her household" (Mishlei 31:15).

843. "And the lion's whelps are scattered abroad" (Iyov 4:11), for all the armies, NAMELY THE ANGELS WHO ISSUE FROM HER, come together as one when she gives them prey and feed together. But when she has no prey, on account of the exile, "the lion's whelps are scattered abroad" and her armies go different ways and roads to find a place to execute judgments. So, when sacrifices are offered, everybody is in order, and they come together like we said. Now, IN TIME OF EXILE, when sacrifice is not offered, surely "the lion's whelps are scattered abroad." Therefore, not a day passes without judgment, since the upper and lower are not aroused by supreme perfection.

840. שְׁלֹמֹה טָעָה בְּהֵאֵי, דְּהָא חָמָא דְּאִתְקְרִיב, סִיְהֵרָא בְּשִׁמְשָׁא, וְיִמְינָא מְחַבְּקָא, וְשִׁמְאֵלָא תְּחוּת רִישָׁא, בֵּינָן דְּאִתְקְרִיבוּ דָא בְּדָא, אָמַר הָא אִתְקְרִיבוּ בְּחָדָא, וְיִמְינָא מַה הֶכָּא, דְּהָא יִמְינָא לָאו אִיהוּ אֵלָא בְּגִין לְקִרְבָּא, בֵּינָן דְּאִתְקְרִיבוּ דָא בְּדָא לְמֵאֵי אֶצְטְרִיךְ, מִיָּד אִין כֶּסֶף נִחְשָׁב בְּיָמֵי שְׁלֹמֹה.

844. Come and see: now in the time of exile man's prayer causes perfection above and below, and the upper and lower are blessed by the blessing of the Holy One, blessed be He. Hence, Yisrael's prayer causes the worlds to be blessed. Whoever blesses the Holy One, blessed be He, shall be blessed, and whoever does not bless the Holy One, blessed be He, is not blessed, as it is written: "For them that honor me I will honor, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed" (1 Shmuel 2:30).

844. תָּא חֲזִי, הַשְׁתָּא צְלוּתָא דְבִנְיָ, אֲתַעֲרֵי שְׁלִימוּ, לְעִילָא וְתַתָּא, וּבְבִרְכַתָּא דְבְרִיךְ לְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, מִתְבָּרְכִין עֲלָאִין וְתַתָּאִין. וְעַד בְּצְלוּתָא דִישְׂרָאֵל מִתְבָּרְכָאן עֲלָמִין. מֵאֵן דְמְבָרַךְ לִיהּ לְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, יִתְבָּרַךְ. מֵאֵן דְלֹא בְרִיךְ לְקוּדְשָׁא בְרִיךְ הוּא, לֹא יִתְבָּרַךְ. הָדָא הוּא דְכְתִיב בִּי מְכַבְּדֵי אֲכַבְּדֵי וּבֹחֲזֵי יְקָלוּ.

85. The cup of blessing

Rav Hamnuna Saba expounds upon the significance of a wine cup, the table, and the blessings made over the wine. The sage equates the cup to the receptive nature of Malchut and the wine to the supernal blessings that light our world. It is explained that both hands are used to receive the cup, signifying the Right and Left Columns which are required to create a circuit of spiritual energy. We're told that one should also bless the table to ensure sustenance, signified by the bread and wine that sit upon it.

The Relevance of this Passage

The tremendous Light that is awakened and drawn to this world through the blessing of wine is summoned forth, bringing us Light, balance, and sustenance.

845. Rav Hamnuna Saba (the elder) gave his cup of blessing to no one, but hastened to receive it with both hands and say the blessing. We have said that it should be received by both right and left, and though others have explained it differently, we agree with it. But the secret thereof is that for a cup of blessing we need a cup, as it is written "I will raise the cup of salvation" (Tehilim 116:13), NAMELY THE CUP CALLED THE NUKVA. By means of this cup blessings are drawn from the salvations above, AND THE CUP, THE NUKVA, receives and gathers them to it. There the supernal wine is preserved, THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT FROM BINAH, and gathered in the cup, hence we need to bless it with both right and left; and the wine which is gathered in the cup will be blessed together, THAT IS, THE WINE WHICH IS THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT FROM BINAH, TOGETHER WITH THE CUP, BEING THE NUKVA. We should also bless the table, THE NUKVA, that it will not be without both bread and wine.

846. Come and see: the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, is called a cup of blessing. Since it is a cup of blessing, we need both the right and left hands to receive it, for the cup is given by the right and left hands, CHASSADIM AND CHOCHMAH, AS HAS BEEN EXPLAINED. It should be filled with wine, because of the wine of the Torah, THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF THE LEFT, which comes from the World to Come, BINAH.

847. Come and see supernal things have been revealed here concerning the cup of blessing, while we stayed in the cave; here was revealed the secret of the Holy Chariot, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. For the cup of blessing should be received with both right and left, which are north and south, CHESED AND GVURAH, and the cup of blessings receives its blessing from them. What is this cup of blessing? It is "his litter, that of Solomon" (Shir Hashirim 3: 7), NAMELY MALCHUT, which should be placed between north and south, CHESED AND GVURAH, but CLOSER to the right. The body OF HE WHO BLESSES, TIFERET, should be prepared with them, and one should fix his eyes upon the cup and bless it with four blessings, since it says, "The eyes of Hashem your Elohim are always upon it" (Devarim 11:12). Thus the secret of faith is found within the cup of blessing; NAMELY north and south, east and west, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. Here is a Holy Chariot worthy of it.

848. There is bread upon the table, so that the lower bread, THE NUKVA, will be blessed, and the bread of poverty, THE NUKVA WHEN WITHOUT CHASSADIM, will be blessed and become millet bread WHEN HER CHOCHMAH IS CLOTHED IN CHASSADIM, AND SHE IS CALLED MILLET BREAD, as has been explained. The Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, is thus blessed above by the four winds of the world, CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT, and above and below, NETZACH AND HOD. The cup of blessing brings the union between King David, THE NUKVA ABOVE THE CHEST, with the patriarchs, CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET, WHENCE CHOCHMAH TAKES. And it is blessed below BY NETZACH HOD YESOD, AND THUS HAS CHASSADIM AS WELL, so that man's table be blessed that there will always be bread upon it.

849. They all rose and kissed his hands and said: Blessed be the merciful One who brought us here to hear these words. They came out of the cave and went. When they reached the town, they saw dead men, upon whom a house fell. They sat and saw people who mourned those who died along with the Roman, FOR THE HOUSE COLLAPSED UPON JEWS AND GENTILES ALIKE.

86. "The threshing floor of Atad"

Rabbi Shimon discusses the metaphor concerning the transference of earthly and spiritual power from Egypt to Yisrael. Next, we learn that Ya'akov's soul was the brightest since the Creation of the world. When Ya'akov departs this world from within the land of Egypt, which represents a domain of negativity, it is free from any influences issuing from the Other Side, and directly ascends to its proper place in the heavens.

The Relevance of this Passage

The ability to triumph over our Evil Inclinations [Egypt] and to transfer control and power to the will of our soul [Yisrael], is the great gift bestowed upon readers of this section. This action sets us on a course for greater spiritual growth, ensuring a lofty place in the world to come and increased fulfillment in the here and now.

850. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "And they came to the threshing floor of Atad" (Bereshheet 50:10). HE ASKS: What is the threshing floor of Atad? HE ANSWERS: It is an allusion to the dominion of Egypt, which is removed. The threshing floor of Atad is the dominion of Egypt which passes to give way to the dominion of Yisrael. For they saw a threshing floor, WHICH ALLUDES TO THE REIGN OF YISRAEL, like in "having put on their robes, in a threshing floor" (I Melachim 22:10). Therefore "they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation."

851. "So that the name of it was called the mourning of the Egyptians": Assuredly the Egyptians MOURNED FOR THEIR DOMINION WHICH PASSED, but here also the weeping was not for Jews, though there were Jews among the dead. Had they been good Jews, they would not have been killed. But having died, the Holy One, blessed be He, pardons their sins.

852. Rabbi Shimon said, Come and behold: though Ya'akov yielded his soul in Egypt, it did not depart under the dominion of the other, NAMELY THE OTHER SIDE. Why? Because, as we learned, there has not been a bed more whole than Ya'akov's bed since the Creation of the world, FOR ALL HIS SONS WERE PROPER. As soon as he departed from the world, his soul joined its place, as has already been explained.

87. The embalming of Ya'akov

The Zohar reveals the luminous power and influence of Ya'akov by recounting how the scents of the Garden of Eden and candlelight radiate in a cave during his presence. Next, we learn that the souls of the righteous pass through the cave of the patriarchs to behold the spiritual deeds and Light they left behind. The process for embalming Kings is then expounded upon by Rabbi Aba and we learn that Ya'akov was embalmed to preserve both his body and soul so that he can join the Supernal Ark [Malchut]. Finally, it is revealed that Yosef is the chariot for Zeir Anpin, bridging Malchut with the Upper World. Hence, his keeping the covenant is deemed to have been accomplished in both worlds. This secret is alluded to by the two yuds ?? in the word Vayisem (Eng: 'and he was put'). When Yosef left this world from the land of Egypt, it is said that he was put into two arks, or coffins. This means that he avoided the clutches of the Other Side and connected directly to the Shechinah [the upper Ark].

The Relevance of this Passage

If we read this passage with a contrite heart and soul, we can ignite the righteousness and spiritual power of Ya'akov and Yosef to help us rise above negativity in life [Egypt]. We are inspired to recognize the value of keeping the covenant, which ensures a connection to the Light of the Shechinah in this world and in the world to come.

853. Come and behold: When Ya'akov entered the cave, all the perfumes of the Garden of Eden filled it. The cave was alight, for a candle burned THERE. When the patriarchs came to Ya'akov in Egypt to be with him, the candlelight was gone FROM THE CAVE. When Ya'akov came in to the cave, the candle returned. The cave was then perfected in all its needs.

854. Never has the cave received any other man, and never will it. The souls of the righteous pass AFTER THEIR DEMISE before THE FATHERS inside the cave, so that they will awake and behold the seed they left in the world, and rejoice before the Holy One, blessed be He.

851. עַל כֵּן קָרָא שְׁמָהּ אָבֵל מִצְרִים עַד הַיּוֹם הַזֶּה, יוֹדְאֵי מִמְצְרִים הוּא, אוֹף הֵכָא לֹא דְיוֹדְאֵי נִינְהוּ אֵלִין בְּכַיּוֹן, אַע"ג דְּמִיתוּ בֵּיהּ יוֹדְאֵי, וְאֵלִין יוֹדְאֵי, אֲלֵמָּלָא הוּוּ יוֹדְאֵי, לֹא מִיתוּ, וְכַיּוֹן דְּמִיתוּ, קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא מְכַפֵּר חוֹבֵייהוּ.

855. Rabbi Aba said: What was the embalming of Ya'akov like? He said to him: Go and ask a physician. Come and see: it is written: "And Yosef commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Yisrael." Could you possibly think that he was embalmed like other people? If you say that it was done due to the voyage, FOR THEY HAD TO PRESERVE HIM, it says, "So Yosef died... and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt" (Bereshheet 50:26). He was not taken away, but buried there, yet "they embalmed him."

856. It is the custom to embalm kings, in order to preserve the body FROM ROTTING. They are embalmed with anointing oil, superior to any other oil, mixed with spices. The good oil is absorbed in the body day after day for forty days, as it is written: "And forty days were fulfilled for him: for so are fulfilled the days of those who are embalmed." After this procedure, the body is preserved for many days.

857. For the land of Cna'an and the land of Egypt consume and corrupt the body in a shorter time than other countries, and this is done in order to preserve the body. The embalming is both for the internal part of the body and the exterior. The oil is put on the navel, and it penetrates the inner part of the body, absorbed in the entrails and preserves it for a long time.

858. Ya'akov had need of the body and so it is appropriate: for he is the body of the fathers, AS HIS FATHERS, CHESED AND GVURAH, ARE THE TWO ARMS AND HE IS TIFERET, THE BODY. Both his body and soul endured. Yosef, too, resembles the body, FOR HE IS THE COVENANT, AND THE COVENANT AND THE BODY ARE CONSIDERED THE SAME. He was preserved in both body and soul: his body, as it is written: "And they embalmed him" and his soul, as it is written: "And he was put in a coffin (ark) in Egypt," WHICH MEANS THAT HIS SOUL JOINED THE SUPERNAL ARK, WHICH IS THE NUKVA.

859. We have learned why "VAYISEM (ENG. 'AND HE WAS PUT') is spelt with two letters Yud. Yosef kept the covenant below and he kept the covenant above, BEING A CHARIOT TO ZEIR ANPIN. Therefore, when he passed away from the world, he was put in two arks (coffins), the ark above and the ark below. What is the 'ark above'? It is described by the words, "Behold, the ark of the covenant of (is) the master of all the earth" (Yehoshua 2:11). For the upper ark, THE SHECHINAH, is called 'the ark of the covenant'. It will be inherited only by him who keeps the covenant. Since Yosef kept the covenant, he was put in two arks.

855. אָמַר ר' אַבָּא, חֲנִיטָא דִיעֻקֵּב מַאי אִיהוּ, א"ל זֵיל שְׂאִיל לְאַסְיָא. תָּא חַזִי, כְּתִיב וַיֵּצֵא יוֹסֵף אֶת עֶבְדָיו אֶת הַרֹפְאִים לְחַנּוּט אֶת אָבִיו וַיִּחַנְטוּ הַרֹפְאִים אֶת יִשְׂרָאֵל, ס"ד כְּשָׂאָר בְּנֵי נִשְׂאָ הוּהוּ חֲנִיטָא דָא. אִי תִימָא בְּגִין אֹרְחָא הוּא דְעִבְדוּ, הָא כְּתִיב וַיִּמָּת יוֹסֵף בֶּן גּוֹר' וַיִּשָּׂם בְּאֲרוֹן בְּמִצְרַיִם, הָא לֹא אָזְלוּ עִמָּיה בְּאֲרָחָא, דְהָא תַּמָּן אֶתְקַבֵּר, וְכְתִיב וַיִּחַנְטוּ אוֹתוֹ.

88. "And he was put in a coffin in Egypt"

The Zohar expands upon the wisdom concealed inside the verse "And he was put in a coffin (also: 'ark') in Egypt." Egypt, we're told, is the land of the Other Side, and though one may leave the world from this negative, foreign soil, the soul will merge with the Shechinah, as Yosef did, if it is righteous.

The Relevance of this Passage

The strength to rise above of the negativity and influence of our Evil Inclination [Egypt] is ignited, so that we may connect to the protective and nurturing Light of the Shechinah now, and in the world to come.

860. "And he was put in a coffin (also: 'ark') in Egypt." From this verse, we learn yet another secret. Though his soul departed in a foreign soil OF THE OTHER SIDE, it joined the Shechinah and "he was put in an ark," IN THE ARK above and IN THE ARK below. For he was righteous, and every righteous man inherits the Holy, Supernal Land, THE SHECHINAH, as it says, "Your people also shall be righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever; they shall be the branch of my planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified" (Yeshayah 60:21).

Blessed be Hashem for ever and ever, Amen and Amen.

1. "And these are the names"

An explanation of the title verse proceeds from a discussion of the meaning of the quotation, "And they who are wise..." This, we learn, contains the secret of the Firmament, which illuminates the Garden of Eden and the Tree of Life. Those imbued with supernal Wisdom - the internal and external angels, and the life giving souls born of the Tree of Life - inhabit the Tree, and these beings merit eternal life. The branches of the Tree spread over all forms and beings of Holiness, and the fruit of the Tree gives life to all. The side of Impurity, however, does not dwell in the Tree of Life, and derives no nourishment from it. There follows a description of the splendor of the Tree, which ascends to great heights, and the one radiation in the Tree, which contains the colors white, red and green. Rising in direct light and descending in returning light, these colors come to rest only in the Tree. From this Tree, the twelve Tribes of Israel went down into the exile of Egypt with the light that does not illuminate (Malchut), accompanied by multitudes of heavenly hosts.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reveals the connectedness of all forms and beings of Holiness, including humans, animals, plant life, and even stars and constellations. We are reminded that there is a clear distinction between the sides of evil and purity, and it is incumbent on us to consciously position ourselves on the side of purity if we desire to merit the rewards of spiritual nourishment and everlasting life.

1. "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob, every man came with his household" (Shemot 1:1). "And they who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they who turn many to righteousness like the stars for ever and ever" (Daniel 12:3). "And they who are wise," are those who observe the secret of wisdom; "shall shine," means they illuminate and sparkle with the shine of supernal Chochmah; and "as the brightness," MEANS the brightness and sparkle of the river that emanates from Eden. This is the concealed secret that is called "firmament" for in it are located the stars and the constellations, the sun, WHICH IS THE ZEIR ANPIN, and moon, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and all the candles that give light, WHICH ARE ALL THE LIGHTS THAT ARE IN THE WORLDS BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH.

2. The brightness of this firmament illuminates the garden, WHICH IS MALCHUT, and the Tree of Life, WHICH IS TIFERET, stands in the center of the garden - THAT IS, IN THE CENTRAL COLUMN. Its branches, ITS SFIROT, cover all forms, NEFASHOT, trees, RUCHOT, and spices, NESHAMOT, in the garden that are in fitted vessels, MEANING THEY HAVE THREE COLUMNS, RIGHT, LEFT AND CENTRAL. And all the animals of the field, WHO ARE THE EXTERNAL ANGELS, find shelter in its shadow. And all the birds of heaven, THE INTERNAL ANGELS, sit under its branches.

3. The splendor of the fruits of the tree, WHICH ARE THE SOULS THAT ARE BORN FROM IT, gives life to all. It exists forever. The Other Side OF IMPURITY does not dwell in it, MEANING THAT THE OTHER SIDE HAS NO NOURISHMENT FROM THE TREE OF LIFE, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN IN GREATNESS. Only the side of holiness is nourished. Fortunate are those who taste from it, for they live eternally, AS IS WRITTEN: "AND HE WILL TAKE ALSO FROM THE TREE OF LIFE AND EAT AND WILL LIVE FOREVER" (BERESHEET 3:22). They are called 'Wise Ones' and merit life in this world and in the World to Come.

4. The splendor of this tree, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, rises higher, and higher. WHEN RISING it is a distance of 500 parasangs. WHEN RISING HIGHER, its spread is 600,000 parasangs. In this tree, there is one radiation, WHICH IS MALCHUT, in which body, all the colors - WHITE, RED, AND GREEN, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF THE LIGHTS OF CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET - are found. These colors rise IN OR YASHAR ('DIRECT LIGHT') and descend IN OR CHOZER ('RETURNING LIGHT'), and they do not settle in any place except in this tree BECAUSE IT IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN.

5. When THE LIGHTS emanate from it, FROM THE TREE, to appear in the glow that does not illuminate, THESE LIGHTS sometimes settle and SOMETIMES do not settle in it; they are sometimes found and sometimes not found, because they settle in no other place EXCEPT THIS TREE. From this tree emanated twelve tribes whose boundaries are therein contained. They descended in this splendor that does not illuminate, into the exile of Egypt with many supernal camps. This is the meaning of: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael..."

2. "The word of Hashem was"

From Rabbi Shimon's discourse on the title verse, we learn that the word hayah is repeated in the title quotation because the first refers to the exile in Egypt and the second to the Babylonian exile. Rabbi Shimon reinforces Ezekial's role as a faithful prophet in his comparison of the Babylonian and the Egyptian exiles. The Babylonian captivity, we learn, caused far more pain and suffering for the children of Israel than the Egyptian exile. The children of Israel were able to endure the exile in Egypt patiently because they were familiar with the suffering of their father, the righteous Jacob. However, the Babylonian exile brought suffering to the point of despair, and they came to believe that God had deserted them. As a result, they were pitied in heaven and on earth, and God called His entire celestial army together and sent them to be with the children of Yisrael in captivity. When they arrived, the spirit of Prophecy descended on Ezekial. He announced his vision to the children of Israel, but they did not believe him. Thus, he was compelled to reveal his entire celestial vision to them. At this, their joy and love for God returned. This is why Ezekial revealed the whole of his vision - and with the permission of God.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section will strengthen our inner resistance to suffering and make us more aware of the increased spiritual help we are able to receive in times of sorrow. Read in conjunction with Ezekial, it will open up the prophet's vision, revealing the depths of hidden meaning contained therein and bestowing it upon us like a blessing.

6. Rabbi Shimon opened the discussion saying: "The word of Hashem was (Heb. hayoh hayah)..." (Yechezkel 1:1). HE ASKS: Why is the word hayah repeated twice? We should further ask why Ezekiel revealed all that he saw if he was a faithful prophet. Should one whom the King brought into His sanctuary reveal what he sees? HE ANSWERS: Certainly Ezekiel was a faithful prophet, and all that he saw was by Faith, and whatever he revealed was with the permission of the Holy One, blessed be He, and all was as it should have been.

7. Rabbi Shimon said: Even though pain comes to him temporarily, someone who is accustomed to suffer pain bears his yoke and does not worry. But when pain comes to one who has spent all his days in pleasures and luxuries and is not accustomed to pain, this is complete pain and deserves weeping.

7. אָמַר ר"ש, מֵאֵן דְּרְגִיל לְמַסְבַּל צַעְרָא אַע"ג דְּאֵתֵי לְפּוּם שַׁעְתָּא צַעְרָא, סְבִיל מְטַלְנוּי, וְלֵא חֵיּוּשׁ, אֶבְל מֵאֵן דְּלֵא רְגִיל בְּצַעַר, וְהוּה כָּל יוֹמוֹי בְּתַפְנוּקִין וְעִידוּגִין, וְאֵתֵי לִיָּה צַעְרָא, דָּא אִיהוּ צַעְרָא שְׁלִים, וְעַל דָּא אַצְטְרִיךְ לְמַבְכֵי.

8. Yisrael was accustomed to pain when descending into Egypt, for all the days of that righteous man, their father, were spent in pain. Therefore, they endured the exile properly AND DID NOT WORRY GREATLY. But the exile of 'Babylon' was in complete pain; it was a pain for which both those above and below wept.

8. כִּן יִשְׂרָאֵל, כִּד נְחֵתוּ לְמִצְרַיִם, רְגִילִין בְּצַעְרָא הוּוּ, דְּהָא כָּל יוֹמוֹי דְּהָהוּא זְכָאָה אַבּוּהוּן בְּצַעְרָא הוּוּ, וְעַל דָּא סְבִילוּ גְלוּתָא בְּדַקָּא יְאוּת. אֶבְל גְלוּתָא דְּבָבֶל הָהוּא הוּוּ צַעְרָא שְׁלִים, הָהוּא הוּוּ צַעְרָא דְּעֲלָאִין וְתַתְּאִין בְּכָאן עֲלִיָּה.

9. Those above wept, as it is written: "Behold, the mighty ones shall cry outside" (Yeshayah 33:7). Those below cried, as it is written: "By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down..." (Tehilim 137:1). They all wept over the exile of Babylon. Why? Because previously they had the luxuries of kings, as is written: "The precious sons of Zion..." (Eichah 4:2).

9. עֲלָאִין: דְּכְתִיב, הֵן אֲרָאִלִּים צַעְקוּ חוּצָה וְגו'. תַּתְּאִין: דְּכְתִיב, עַל נְהָרוֹת בְּבֶל שָׁם יֹשְׁבָנוּ וְגו' כְּלָהוּן בְּכוּ עַל גְלוּתָא דְּבָבֶל. מ"ט. בְּגִין דְּהוּוּ בְּתַפְנוּקֵי מְלַכִּין דְּכְתִיב בְּנֵי צִיּוֹן הִיקְרִים וְגו'.

10. As we learned, Rabbi Yitzchak said: What is meant by the verse, "On the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing" (Yirmeyah 9:9)? The mountains that are referred to are the loftiest in the world. And who are these lofty mountains? They are "the precious sons of Zion comparable to fine gold." And now they are descending into exile with grindstones on their necks and their hands tied behind. And when they arrived in the exile of Babylon, they thought that they would never have support because the Holy One, blessed be He, had forsaken them and would no longer watch over them.

11. We learned that Rabbi Shimon said: At that moment, the Holy One, blessed be He, summoned all His company, all the Chariots and camps and His officers and all the hosts of heaven. And he said to them: 'What are you doing here? My beloved children are in the exile of Babylon and you are here! Arise, all of you descend to Babylon and I with you.' This is the meaning of: "Thus says Hashem, 'For your sake I have sent to Babylon'" (Yeshayah 43:14). This refers to the Holy One, blessed be He. "And will bring down all of them as fugitives..." (Ibid.). These are all the supernal Chariots and camps.

12. When they descended to Babylon, the heavens opened and the holy spirit of prophecy rested on Ezekiel. And he saw whatever he saw and said to Yisrael: 'Behold your Master is here and all the hosts of heaven and the Chariots that have come to dwell with you.' They did not believe him until he was obliged to reveal all that he saw - 'I saw thus, I saw thus...' and if he revealed more, whatever he revealed was altogether necessary. As soon as Yisrael saw this, they rejoiced. And when they heard the words from Ezekiel's mouth, they no longer feared their exile at all because they knew that the Holy One, blessed be He, would not leave them. And everything that he revealed, he revealed with permission.

13. We learned that in each and every place to which Yisrael was exiled, the Shechinah was exiled with them. And here by the exile of Egypt, it is written: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael..." (Shemot 1:1). AND HE ASKS: Since it is written, "the children of Yisrael," why does it conclude: "with Jacob"? It should have said, 'Who came with him.' AND HE ANSWERS: "These are the names of the children of Yisrael," refers to the supernal Chariots and camps that descended with Jacob together with the Shechinah into the exile of Egypt. THIS ALSO ANSWERS WHY "HAYOH-HAYAH" (YEchezkel 1:3) IS WRITTEN TWICE. THE FIRST HAYOH REFERS TO THE EXILE OF EGYPT, AND THE SECOND HAYAH REFERS TO THE EXILE OF BABYLON.

10. דִּתְנֵן אָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, מֵאֵי דְכֶתִיב עַל הַהָרִים אֲשֶׁר בְּכִי וְנָהִי. אֲלֵא, אֵלֶּיךָ אֵינֻן טוּרֵי רַמֵּי דְעֵלְמִין. וּמֵאַן אֵינֻן טוּרֵי רַמֵּי, אֵינֻן, בְּנֵי צִיּוֹן הַיְקָרִים הַמְּסוּלָּאִים בְּפִי וְהִשְׁתָּא הוּוּ נַחְתִּין בְּגָלוּתָא, בְּרִיחָא עַל קְדֻלְהוֹן וִידִיהוֹן מֵהֲדַקֵּן לְאַחֲרָא. וְכַד עָלּוּ בְּגָלוּתָא בְּבָבֶל, חָשִׁיבוּ דְהָא לִית לְהוּ קִיּוּמָא לְעֵלְמִין, דְהָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא שְׂבִיק לֹון, וְלֹא יִשְׁגַח בְּהוֹן לְעֵלְמִין.

3. "Come with me from Lebanon, my bride"

Rabbi Chiya opens a discussion of the meaning of the title verse with his interpretation. He explains that God spoke these words to the children of Israel upon the presenting them with the Torah on Mt. Sinai. Unlike the children of Seir and the children of Ishmael, who refused the Torah when it was offered to them, the children of Israel accepted the Torah, united in faith and Holiness. In answer to the question regarding the meaning of the verse, "He came in Holy multitudes," Rabbi Chiya refers to an ancient tradition that reveals how the heavenly multitudes protested at the moment when God was about to present the Torah to the children of Israel, since they desired it for themselves. God rebuked the angels, explaining that the laws contained therein are not designed for those unable to participate in such evils as murder, adultery, falsehoods, and so on. The angels then ended their protests and praised God for His wisdom, which was even too subtle for them to grasp fully. This explanation of, "He came in Holy multitudes," leads Rabbi Yosi to offer an alternative interpretation, relating it to the descent of the Shechinah into the Egyptian captivity.

Finally, Rabbi Shimon provides his contrasting interpretation of the title verse. He explains that this verse contains allusions to the mystical union between Voice and Speech. The relationship between these forms is one of interdependence, as wisdom cannot be transmitted orally without the throat, breath, tongue and lips, all of which are referenced in the verse.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reveals the multiplicity of interpretations offered by the Zohar, that the Torah was designed as human law, and that it is in our own lives that it must be implemented. Understanding this, we will grow more conscious of our unique role and its accompanying obligations in this world, giving us greater access to the Light that drives all shadows away and hastens our return to the home we yearn to see again.

14. "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob; every man came with his household" (Shemot 1:1). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "Come with me from Lebanon, My bride, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amanah, from the top of Senir and Chermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards" (Shir Hashirm 4:8). This verse refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS MALCHUT. At the time that Yisrael left Egypt and approached Mt. Sinai to receive the Torah, the Holy One, blessed be He, said to her, "with Me from Lebanon," MEANING that she comes from the supernal Eden, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH THAT IS CALLED 'LEBANON'. Bride MEANS 'whole', like the moon that is made whole by the sun with all the light and sparkle, WHICH ARE OR YASHAR ('DIRECT LIGHT') AND OR CHOZER ('RETURNING LIGHT'). "Come with me from Lebanon," in order that your children shall receive the Torah. UNTILL MALCHUT CAN RECEIVE CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS CALLED 'LEBANON', THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL CAN NOT RECEIVE THE TORAH BECAUSE THEY LACK THE FIRST THREE SFIROT.

15. "Look (Heb. tashuri) from the top of Amanah." "Tashuri" has the same meaning as in "There is not a present (Heb. teshurah) to bring" (I Shmuel 9:7). LIKEWISE, "TASHURI" MEANS accept a present for your children; "from the top of Amanah" - meaning when they came in the beginning with supernal Faith (Heb. Emunah) and said: "All that Hashem has spoken we will do and obey" (Shemot 24:7). And they were equal to supernal angels, as is written about them: "Bless Hashem, you angels of His, you mighty ones who perform His bidding, hearkening to the voice of His word" (Tehilim 103:20). Then the Congregation of Yisrael received a present WHICH IS REFERRED TO IN: "TASHURI FROM THE TOP OF AMANAH," WHICH MEANS ADDITIONAL MOCHIN.

16. "From the top of Senir and Chermon" (Shir Hashirum 4:8). This was Mount Sinai that they approached and gathered under, as is written: "And they stood at the foot of the mountain" (Shemot 19:17). "From the lions' dens" (Shir Hashirm 4:8). These are the children of Seir that the Holy One, blessed be He, invited to receive the Torah. But they did not want to accept it. "From the mountains of leopards," (Ibid.) are the children of Ishmael, as it is written: "Hashem came from Sinai, and rose from Seir to them; He shone forth from mount Paran, and He came from holy multitudes" (Devarim 33:2). PARAN IS THE CHILDREN OF ISHMAEL.

17. What is the meaning of: "And he came from holy multitudes" (Ibid.)? We learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted to give the Torah to Yisrael, camps of supernal angels came and said: "Hashem our ruler, how majestic is Your name in all the earth; who have set Your glory above the heavens" (Tehilim 8:2). Then they asked that the Torah be given to them AND NOT TO YISRAEL.

18. The Holy One, blessed be He, said to them: 'Are you mortal, as written, "When a man shall die in a tent" (Bemidbar 19:14)? "And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he is put to death" (Devarim 21:22). Do you have sins that you need laws? Is there robbery or stealing among you, as written, "You shall not steal" (Shemot 20:13)? Have you women, as written: "You shall not commit adultery" (Ibid.)? Do you have falsehood that it says, "Do not bear false witness against your neighbor" (Ibid. 14)? Do you have coveting that it is written, "You shall not covet" (Ibid. 13)? Why are you requesting the Torah?' Immediately they said: "Hashem our ruler, how majestic is Your Name in all the earth." But, "who have set Your glory above the heavens" is not written. Therefore it says, "And He came from holy multitudes" (Devarim 33:2), MEANING THAT HE CAME FROM NEGOTIATING WITH THE ANGELS. Then it says: "From His right hand went a fiery law for them," (Ibid.) WHICH IS THE TORAH WHICH IS LIKENED TO FIRE BECAUSE OF THE JUDGMENT THAT IS IN IT. THUS, SEIR AND ISHMAEL DID NOT WANT TO ACCEPT IT UPON THEMSELVES, AND THE ANGELS COULD NOT ACCEPT BECAUSE THEY DO NOT HAVE THE QUALITY OF JUDGMENT.

19. Rabbi Yosi explains this verse as referring to when the Shechinah descended into exile in Egypt BECAUSE OF THE QUESTION OF RABBI ABA, WHO ASKS: DID SHE COME FROM LEBANON? INDEED, SHE ASCENDS TO LEBANON. IT SHOULD HAVE SAID, 'ASCEND WITH ME TO LEBANON!' HE EXPLAINS IT TO BE AT THE TIME THE SHECHINAH DESCENDED FROM THE PLACE LEBANON INTO EXILE IN EGYPT. THEREFORE IT SAYS, "COME WITH ME FROM LEBANON." And IN ORDER TO ANSWER THE PREVIOUS QUESTION OF WHY IT DOES NOT SAY 'ASCEND WITH ME TO LEBANON', Rabbi Shimon said: This verse is based upon the secret of the union of Faith, WHICH IS MALCHUT. It says, "Come with Me from Lebanon, My bride" (Shir Hashirm 4:8). 'Voice', WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, said to 'Speech', WHICH IS MALCHUT, "with me," because voice comes to speech and leads it, so as to be one, without any separation, for the voice is general. BEING THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM, WHICH IS PRESENT IN ALL THE GRADES, speech is particular - BEING THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS IN THE LEFT COLUMN OF BINAH, AND WHICH IS PRESENT ONLY IN MALCHUT. Therefore, the general needs the particular, AS ZEIR ANPIN DOES NOT HAVE THE THREE FIRST SFIROT, EXCEPT FOR THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH IN MALCHUT. And the particular needs the general, FOR THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH THAT IS IN MALCHUT DOES NOT ILLUMINATE, EXCEPT WHEN IT IS CLOTHED IN THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM THAT IT RECEIVES FROM ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS GENERAL. Voice is not COMPLETE without speech and speech is not COMPLETE without voice. Therefore, it is written: "With me from Lebanon my bride," because the essence of both comes from Lebanon, WHICH IS BINAH.

20. "Look from the top of Amanah." This is the throat, WHICH IS BINAH, WHICH RECEIVES FROM THE PALATE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, from which breath emanates, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, to complete everything from the secret of concealed and hidden Lebanon - THAT ZEIR ANPIN OPENS WITH THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. "From the top of Shenir and Chermon," is the top and the middle of the tongue, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF TIFERET, AND ITS TIP IS THE SECRET OF DA'AT that articulates speech. "From the dens of lions". These are the teeth, WHICH ARE NETZACH AND HOD. "From the mountains of the leopards". These are the lips, WHICH IS MALCHUT. AND ALL THESE SFIROT, WHICH ARE OF ZEIR ANPIN, ARE the completion through which speech is completed, WHICH IS MALCHUT, THE NUKVA OF ZEIR ANPIN.

4. "Do not eat the bread of one who has an evil eye"

Rabbi Chiya explains that if the children of Yisrael in Egypt had not tasted the bread of the evil Egyptians, they would not have suffered the oppression of the Egyptians and they would not have remained in exile. When Rabbi Yitzchak points out that the exile was a fulfillment of a divine decree, Rabbi Chiya reminds him that the decree does not mention Egypt specifically. Thus, Rabbi Yitzchak understands and embraces the concept that one should not partake of the bread of an evil man.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section warns us against accepting or enjoying the gifts of those whose intentions are not pure, as dire and unforeseen consequences may ensue. By refusing to benefit from the fruits of evil, we may avoid punishment and maintain our connection with the Eternal.

21. "And these are the names of the children..." (Shemot 1:1). Rabbi Chiya opened the discussion saying: "Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye, nor desire his dainties" (Mishlei 23:6). "Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye," because the bread or benefit from that person who has an evil eye is not worth eating or benefiting from. When Yisrael descended into Egypt, had they not tasted the bread of Egypt, they would not have been forsaken in exile IN EGYPT, and the Egyptians would not have been able to harm them.

22. Rabbi Yitzchak said to him: But it was decreed THAT THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL SHOULD BE IN EXILE, AND IT WAS INCUMBENT THAT IT BE FULFILLED EVEN IF THEY DID NOT EAT THEIR BREAD. He said to him: All this is right. But it was not decreed that the exile be necessarily in Egypt, since it is not written: 'Your seed will be a stranger in the land of Egypt' but rather "in a land that is not theirs" (Beresheet 15:13). And it could even be in a different land.

22. אָמַר לֵיהּ רַבִּי יִצְחָק, וְהָא גִזְרָא אֲתִגְזֹר. א"ל, כִּלְאָ אִיהוּ כְּדָקָא יֹאזֵת, דִּהָא לֹא אֲתִגְזֹר בְּמִצְרַיִם דְּיוּקָא, דִּהָא לֹא כְּתִיב כּי גַר יִהְיֶה זְרַעְךָ בְּאַרְץ מִצְרַיִם, אֶלָּא בְּאַרְץ לֹא לֵהֶם, וְאַמִּילוּ בְּאַרְעָא אַחֲרָא.

23. Rabbi Yitzchak said: One with a Nefesh, who eats more than other people or one who follows his intestines, MEANING THAT HE IS ACCUSTOMED TO FILL HIS STOMACH WITH DAINTIES, should slaughter himself rather than eat his bread if he meets that evil-eyed one. For there is no worse bread in the world than the bread of an evil-eyed person. It is written: "Because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews because it was an abomination to Egypt" (Beresheet 43:32), MEANING THEY COULD NOT LOOK UPON THE HEBREWS AS THEY ATE. Such is the bread of an evil-eyed!

5. Three who reject the Shechinah

This section discusses the three types of people who drive the Shechinah from this world and make it impossible for God to fix His abode here, thereby causing prayers to go unanswered. These people are: those who cohabit with women during menstruation, those who lie with heathens, and those who intentionally abort the embryo, thereby preventing it from coming to fruition. The world is Judged for these sins, we're told, and meets with war, famine, and pestilence as a result. We learn that in exile, the children of Israel remained free of such sins and fulfilled the commandment to increase and multiply. Consequently, they were worthy of liberation. Indeed, Rabbi Chiya discusses the verse, "And he made the laver of brass..." as an indication of the purity of the Israelite women in Egypt, whose ritual ablutions and eagerness to obtain husbands made them worthy of great honor.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section clearly warns us against the sins of sexual intercourse during the period of female menstruation, sexual intercourse with those of heathen nations, and abortion. These are considered assaults against God, and have drastic ramifications for the entire nation. Thus, we are reminded that our most intimate and private acts are not spiritually isolated, and therefore that they must be considered in the context of the whole. Knowing this will help erode our selfishness, providing the strength to overcome temptation when it smiles our way.

24. There are three kinds of people who reject the Shechinah away from the world and prevent the dwelling of the Holy One, Blessed be He, from inhabiting this world, and then people cry out IN PRAYER and their voices are not heard. They are: 1) One who lies with a menstruating woman, for there is no stronger impurity in the world like the impurity of the menstruation. The impurity of the menstruating woman is more severe than all the impurities of the world. He WHO DOES SO becomes impure and all who are close to him become impure with him. Wherever they go, the Shechinah is repelled by them.

25. And in addition, he brings bad sicknesses upon himself and on the children that he will beget. As soon as a person comes near to a menstruating woman, that impurity leaps onto him and remains STUCK in all his limbs. The children that he begets at that moment draw on the Spirit of Impurity. And all his days he will be in impurity, because the edifice and foundation of the baby is greater and stronger than all the impurities of the world. And as soon as a man comes near to a menstruating woman, her impurity leaps on him, as is written: "And her menstrual flow be upon him" (Vayikra 15:24).

26. 2) One who lies with a daughter of a strange EI, A GENTILE WOMAN, who inserts the sign of the Holy Covenant into another domain, as written: "And has married the daughter of a strange EI" (Malachi 2:11). We have learned that there is no jealousy before Hashem like the zeal for of the Covenant, which is the Covenant of the Holy Name and the secret of the Faith. It is written: "And the people began to commit harlotry with the daughters of Moav" (Bemidbar 25:1), and immediately, "the anger of Hashem was kindled against Yisrael" (Ibid. 3).

27. The leaders of the people who know this and do not protest are punished first, as is written: "Take all the chiefs of the people and hang them up before Hashem against the sun" (Ibid. 4). Rabbi Aba said: What is meant by, "against the sun," it means against the covenant that is called 'sun', of which it is said, "For Hashem Elohim is a sun and shield" (Tehilim 84:12)? "A sun and shield" is the Holy Covenant. In the same way that the sun shines and illuminates the world, the Holy Covenant shines and illuminates the body of man. In the same way that a shield protects the man, so does the Holy Covenant protect the man. And there is no injury that can approach one who protects it. This is: "against the sun."

27. רִישֵׁי עַמָּא דִּידְעוּ וְלֹא מַחוּ בִּידְיָהוּ, אֶתְעַנְשׁוּ בְּקְדָמִיתָא, דְּכְתִיב, קַח אֶת כָּל רֵאשֵׁי הָעַם וְהוֹקַע אוֹתָם לְה' נֶגֶד הַשָּׁמֶשׁ. רַבִּי אַבָּא אָמַר, מֵאִי נֶגֶד הַשָּׁמֶשׁ. נֶגֶד הַבְּרִית דְּאֶקְרִי שָׁמֶשׁ, וְעֲלִיָּה אֶתְמַר כִּי שָׁמֶשׁ וּמַגֵּן ה' אֱלֹהִים. שָׁמֶשׁ וּמַגֵּן: דָּא בְּרִית קְדִישָׁא. מַה שָׁמֶשׁ זְרַח וְאֶנְהִיר עַל עֵלְמָא, אוֹף הֲכִי בְּרִית קְדִישָׁא זְרַח וְאֶנְהִיר גּוֹפָא דְּב"נ. מַגֵּן: מַה מַּגֵּן אִיהוּ לְאֶגְנָא עֲלִיָּה דְּב"נ, אוֹף הֲכִי בְּרִית קְדִישָׁא מַגֵּן עֲלִיָּה דְּב"נ, וּמֵאֵן דְּנְטִיר לִיָּה, לִית נְזָקָא בְּעֵלְמָא, דִּיכֹּל לְמַקְרַב בְּהֵדִיָּה וְדָא הוּא נֶגֶד הַשָּׁמֶשׁ.

28. The leaders of the people are caught in every generation if they know of this sin and are not zealous in guarding against it. It is incumbent upon them to be zealous in upholding this responsibility, for the Holy One, blessed be He, in this covenant against all who would bring this holiness in another domain. About this is written: "You shall have no other Elohim before me, do not bow down to them and do not worship them, for I Hashem your Elohim am a zealous El" (Shemot 20:3-5). And it is all the same zeal, EITHER ONE WHO LIES WITH A GENTILE WOMAN OR ONE WHO WORSHIPS IDOLS. Therefore, the Shechinah is repelled by him. One who is false to the Holy Covenant that is sealed in the flesh of a man is as though he is false to the Holy Name, because one who is false with the seal of the King, WHICH IS THE HOLY COVENANT, is false to the King himself. Therefore, he does not have any part with the Elohim of Yisrael, unless it is through the power of constant repentance.

29. Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "And when they forgot Hashem their Elohim," (I Shmuel 12:9) and "And they forsook Hashem" (Shoftim 2:13). AND HE ASKS: What is: "And when they forgot," and "And they forsook"? AND HE ANSWERS: They repelled from themselves the Holy Covenant, they circumcised but did not uncover until D'vorah came and offered this, BY INTRODUCING PRIAH ("UNCOVERING OF THE CORONA") throughout Yisrael, as it says, "In time of tumultuous strife (Heb. pra'ot) in Yisrael, when the people willingly offered themselves; praise Hashem" (Shoftim 5:2).

30. 3) One who slays his children, meaning the embryo that his wife conceived, BY HAVING INTERCOURSE WITH HER ON THE NINETIETH DAY OF CONCEPTION, WHICH HE SLAYS THE EMBRYO and causes it to be killed in her belly, OR HE DOES SOME ACTION THAT CAUSES HER TO ABORT THE EMBRYO. He thus demolishes the building of the Holy One, blessed be He, and His craft. There are people who slay a person, and such a one slays his children.

31. The three evils done, AS EXPLAINED, the whole world can not bear. Therefore, the world deteriorates little by little, although it is not known HOW IT COMES ABOUT. The Holy One, blessed be He, removes Himself from the world, and destruction and famine and death come to the world. These are THE THREE EVILS: he slays his children; he demolishes the structure of the King, NAMELY, HE ABOLISHES THE EMBRYO WHICH IS THE STRUCTURE OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE; and he repels the Shechinah, who roves in the world but can find no rest. For these evils, the Holy Spirit weeps and the world is judged. Woe to that man, woe to him, better that he was not created in the world.

32. Fortunate are Yisrael. Even though they were exiled in Egypt, they were guarded against all these three: from the impurity of menstruation; from daughters of foreign deities; and from killing the children. They attempted ACTIONS in public to awaken the state of being fruitful and multiplying. AS HE SAYS FURTHER: Even though it was decreed that "every son that is born you shall cast into the river" (Shemot 1:22), there was not found among them a person who would kill an embryo in the stomach of a woman, all the more so after BIRTH. Through this merit, Yisrael went out of exile.

33. THEY GUARDED THEMSELVES IN EGYPT from the impurity of menstruation; for Rabbi Chiya taught: What is the verse, "And he made the laver of brass, and its pedestal of brass, of the mirrors of the women assembling" (Shemot 38:8)? Why did the women merit this, TO BRING THE MIRRORS TO THE TABERNACLE? Because they guarded themselves in the exile in Egypt, so that after they became purified from the impurity of their menstruation, they came and adorned themselves and looked in the mirror at their husbands, and aroused them to be fruitful and multiplying. SO THEY WERE GUARDED AGAINST THE IMPURITY OF MENSTRUATION IN THE EXILE OF EGYPT.

34. THEY WERE GUARDED IN EGYPT "from the daughter of a foreign El," MEANING FOREIGN WOMEN, as is written: "All the hosts of Hashem left" (Shemot 12:41), and, "The tribes of Yah, as a testimony to Yisrael" (Tehilim 122:4). Assuredly, FOR THERE IS NO MIXTURE OF A FOREIGN NATION, AS WRITTEN: "These are the names of the children of Yisrael" (Shemot 1:1). "The tribes of the children of Yisrael" (Yehoshea 4:5), "Speak to the children of Yisrael." ALL THIS POINTS OUT THAT THERE IS NO FOREIGN MIXTURE IN THEM.

35. You may ask why it is written: "And he was the son of a Egyptian man..." (Vayikra 24:10-11). AND HE ANSWERS: Certainly there was one, and the verse made him known, as written: "And he was the son of a Egyptian man...and his mother's name was Shelomit, the daughter of Divri, of the tribe of Dan." THEY WERE OBSERVANT IN EGYPT TO FULFILL being fruitful and multiplying, as it is written: "And the children of Yisrael were fruitful and increased abundantly..." (Shemot 1:7). Assuredly, the children of Yisrael were guarded IN EGYPT from all these: THE IMPURITY OF MENSTRUATION, FOREIGN WOMEN, AND FROM KILLING CHILDREN. Therefore, the children of Yisrael came INTO EGYPT. And the children of Yisrael went out TO FREEDOM. It is written: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came..." BECAUSE "CAME" SIGNIFIES NOT TO REMAIN, BUT RATHER THAT THEY WOULD GO OUT FROM THERE. AND THIS IS THROUGH THE MERIT OF OBSERVING THE THREE THINGS MENTIONED ABOVE.

6. "Every man came with his household"

While walking, Rabbi Yosi asks Rabbi Elazar to explain Rabbi Shimon's interpretation of the verse, "And these are the names of the children of Israel..." If this verse refers to God and the heavenly hosts and Chariots who went into captivity with Jacob, he asks, what is the meaning of, "Each man and his household came"? Rabbi Elazar confirms Rabbi Shimon's interpretation and discusses the distinction between "the house of Hashem" and "the house of the king." This leads to a brief explanation of the shifting gender attributed to the King and the various grades of angels: the higher level is always referred to as male-which implies an active quality-in relation to the lower level, which is referred to as female, and implies a passive, receptive quality. Thus, he concludes, symbolically, the title verse refers to the angels, who are called "his house." Rabbi Yosi then draws from Rabbi's Elazar's explanation to interpret the verse, "A closed garden is my sister..." as a reference to the children of Israel, who must be tended and nurtured, like a garden or vineyard.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section opens us to a greater understanding of the vast array of heavenly hierarchies that are concerned with implementing God's Great Plan. It serves to foster greater humility in our hearts and also greater determination to follow the path of Truth and thus participate in the Work rather than hindering its progress.

36. "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael" (Shemot 1:1). Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosi were traveling. While they were walking, Rabbi Elazar said to Rabbi Yosi: Open your mouth and let your words illuminate. He said to him: If it pleases my master, may I ask him one thing that I find difficult? I have heard from the Holy Luminary that he used to say that, "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael," means Yisrael Saba. "WHO CAME INTO EGYPT," MEANS all the hosts and camps OF ANGELS who descended into exile with Jacob, as it is written, "with Jacob"; AND ACCORDING TO THIS IT IS DIFFICULT. Why does it say: "every man came with his household" (Shemot 1:1)? DO ANGELS HAVE HOUSEHOLDS? He said to him: Certainly it is so THAT THE ANGELS CAME, EACH ONE WITH HIS HOUSEHOLD. For so we have learned, anyone who receives from another is considered as household to the giver. Therefore, "every man came with his household," MEANS THE GIVER AND THE RECEIVER, WHICH ALSO APPLIES TO ANGELS.

37. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion saying: "And when Solomon finished building the house of Hashem and the house of the King..." (I Melachim 9:1). HE ASKS: Since it said "the house of Hashem," what is the meaning of, "the house of the King"? You may reason that of Solomon it is said "THE HOUSE OF THE KING," yet it is not so. Indeed, "the house of Hashem," refers to the Temple and "the house of the King" refers to the Holy of Holies.

38. AND HE EXPLAINS HIS WORDS: "The house of Hashem" is the Temple, that is, the courtyards, chambers, the hall leading to the interior of the Temple and the sanctuary. This is the Temple, WHICH IS MALCHUT. Most certainly, it is called "the house of Hashem." "The house of the King" is the Holy of Holies which is innermost of all, NAMELY BINAH that is called simply 'King'. This King, though he is Supernal King, is considered female in relation to the Highest Point that is concealed from all, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH. But even though it is female, nevertheless it is male compared to the king below, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN - MEANING THAT THE HIGHER LEVEL IS ALWAYS CONSIDERED MALE IN RELATION TO THE LOWER, AND THE LOWER IS CONSIDERED FEMALE. YET, IN COMPARISON TO WHAT IS STILL LOWER, IT IS CONSIDERED MALE. AND SO IT IS ALWAYS. Therefore, everything is in this way. Of the lower beings, THE ANGELS THAT DESCENDED WITH JACOB INTO EGYPT, it is written: "every man came with his household," EVEN THOUGH THEY DO NOT HAVE HOUSEHOLDS, FOR MAN WITH HIS HOUSEHOLD MEANS MALE AND FEMALE. FOR EVERY HIGHER LEVEL AMONG THEM IS CONSIDERED AS MALE IN RELATION TO THE LOWER LEVEL, AND EVERY LOWER LEVEL IS CONSIDERED AS FEMALE TO THE HIGHER LEVEL AND MALE TO ITS LOWER LEVEL.

39. "And these are the names..." (Shemot 1:1). Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "A garden locked is my sister, my bride, a spring shut up, a fountain sealed" (Shir Hashirm 4:12). "A garden locked," refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, THE NUKVA, as Rabbi Elazar said: Just as one must cultivate a garden, water and prune it, so too does the Congregation of Yisrael needs to be cultivated, watered and pruned, WHICH IS THE SERVICE OF THE RIGHTEOUS - TO RAISE MAYIN NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS') AND TO PRUNE THE KLIPOT THAT SURROUND THE NUKVA. Therefore, it is called "garden" and it is also called "vineyard" for Yisrael - MEANING THE HOUSE OF YISRAEL, WHICH IS THE NUKVA - needs to be cultivated, watered and pruned just as the vineyard does. It is written: "For the vineyard of Hashem Tzeva'ot is the House of Yisrael" (Yeshayah 5:7), and it is written, "And he broke ground and cleared away its stones..." (Ibid. 2).

In this long and highly complex section, Rabbi Shimon describes the nature and workings of the Holy Chariot, one of the quintessential emblems of Kabbalah and thus of enormous importance to anyone seriously practising this discipline. It cannot really be summarized but must be read carefully many, many times before it will begin to unfold its profound meaning, which sheds light on numerous related concepts, like the three columns and the secret names of God.

The Relevance of this Passage

The very act of studying this section arouses the will and mental capability to understand its deeper meanings, opening long-unused areas in the brain that are required to assimilate such knowledge. Truth here is at so potent a level that we can often feel it burn within our minds, which signifies profound transformations are taking place that prepare the mortal flesh to merge with the immortal and eternal One at the end of days. Tosefta (addendum)

40. Mishnah. Rabbi Shimon said: We open our eyes and see the wheels of the Holy Chariot traveling in their travels, and the sound of a song sweet to the ears, WHICH IS BINAH, and good for the heart, SYMBOLIZING MALCHUT, which ascends and descends, and walks but does not travel. Thousands upon thousands tremble, and tens upon tens of thousands start with the singing OF CHOCHMAH from below upwards.

41. To that pleasant sound FROM THE TRAVELING OF THE WHEELS stand 450,000 eyed ones, who gather into one group on the right side. They see, yet do not see, and are completely present. The two other sides, WHICH ARE LEFT AND CENTER, turn white because of them - MEANING THAT THEIR JUDGMENTS, WHICH ARE RED, ARE CHANGED, BECAUSE THEY RECEIVE CHASSADIM FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN. And on the left side are 250,000.

42. THE 250,000 MENTIONED EARLIER, the weepers, sob and wail from their dwellings WHENCE THEY COME, and they commence with Judgment and conclude with Judgment. They sob a second time and the Judgment is revealed, and the books are opened TO LOOK AT THE JUDGMENTS THAT ARE IN THEM. At that moment, the Judge who was standing over them ascends, and sits on the chair of Judgment, and the singing subsides before the Judgment is concluded.

43. HERE HE EXPLAINS THE TWO ACTIONS OF THE RIGHT COLUMN AND SAYS: Those who have eyes of the right side encircle, together with eighteen thousand others. They blow, THAT IS, DRAW CHASSADIM, WHICH IS CALLED 'BLOWING', A SIMPLE SOUND. AND THEN THOSE WHO ARE RECEIVING CHOCHMAH FROM THE RIGHT COLUMN do not sob or wail. They commence with singing, DRAWING CHOCHMAH. And the 250,000 ones who sob tremble.

44. He blows AND DRAWS CHASSADIM a second time, WHICH IS THE SECOND ACTION ON THE RIGHT COLUMN, without sobbing. The Protector, ZEIR ANPIN, travels from that throne OF JUDGMENT and sits in the throne of Mercy TO DRAW MANY CHASSADIM. At that moment he, MEANING ZEIR ANPIN, mentions the Holy Name, YUD HEI VAV HEI, FULLY SPELLED TO AMOUNT NUMERICALLY TO 45: YUD-VAV-DALET; HEI-ALEPH; VAV-ALEPH-VAV; HEI-ALEPH. For with this Name, life is drawn for everyone.

45. HERE HE EXPLAINS THE TWO ACTIONS OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. He commences, ZEIR ANPIN WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, saying one time: Yud-Vav-Dalet; Hei-Aleph; Vav-Aleph-Vav; Hei-Aleph-YUD-VAV-DALET; HEI-ALEPH; VAV-ALEPH- VAV ARE THE SECRET OF THE THREE COLUMNS, RIGHT, LEFT, AND CENTRAL, THAT ARE INCLUDED IN ZEIR ANPIN. THE LAST HEI-ALEPH IS THE NUKVA THAT RECEIVES FROM THEM, as is written: "And proclaimed the Name of Hashem" (Shemot 34:5). The holy wheels OF THE CHARIOT commence as before and thousands of thousands, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, and tens upon tens of thousands, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM, ATTIRE THEM and recite songs. THE ANGELS praise and say: "Blessed is the honor of Hashem from His dwelling place," SO THAT THE SHECHINAH SHALL BE BLESSED FROM ZEIR ANPIN, AND RECEIVE FROM IT CHOCHMAH ATTIRED IN CHASSADIM.

46. Then that garden, NAMELY THE SHECHINAH, comes - which is hidden in 250 worlds. This is the precious Shechinah in its shine OF CHOCHMAH that goes out from the shine OF CHOCHMAH AND COMBINES AND HIDES in the shine OF CHASSADIM. And the shine is drawn from it to the four directions - CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, MALCHUT, WHICH ARE THE FOUR branches - in order to provide for them IN MOCHIN. THIS IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "AND FROM THENCE IT WAS PARTED, AND BRANCHED INTO FOUR STREAMS..." (BERESHEET 2:10). And this shine is drawn from it to all that are below, and it is called 'the Garden of Eden'.

47. That old man commenced speaking again, REFERRING TO ZEIR ANPIN, FOR AFTER IT ASCENDED TO ARICH ANPIN IT IS ALSO CALLED 'OLD'. AND THIS IS THE SECOND ACTION OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. He protects everything, MEANING BOTH THE DRAWING OF CHOCHMAH AND THE DRAWING OF CHASSADIM, and mentions the name Yud-Vav-Dalet; Hei-Aleph; Vav-Aleph-Vav; Hei-Aleph. And they all commence by DRAWING THE LIGHTS FROM the Thirteen Measures of Mercy. Who has seen these strong lights which are the highest of the high, strongest of the strong! The holy Chariots and the heavens and their hosts tremble and shake with great fear, and praise the Holy Name and recite poetry. Fortunate are the souls of the Righteous who are present in this luxuriousness and know this. About this, it is said: "Who would not fear you, King of the nations? For to You it is fitting..." (Yirmeyah 10:7).

48. Rabbi Shimon said: When the Shechinah descended into Egypt, one beast OF THE FOUR LIVING CREATURES OF THE HOLY CHARIOT, whose name is Yisrael, descended in the form of that old man MENTIONED IN THE PREVIOUS VERSE, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN. And 42 holy attendants descended with it, MEANING 42 ANGELS, and each one had a holy letter from the Holy Name OF MEM-BET (42). THESE ANGELS THAT ATTEND THE LIVING CREATURES WHOSE NAME IS YISRAEL ARE CALLED 'THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL' AND ARE DRAWN FROM THE NAME OF MEM-BET (42), WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT OF THAT LIVING CREATURES. And they all descended with Jacob into Egypt. This is what is written: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob" (Shemot 1:1). Rabbi Yitzchak said: This is the meaning of "the children of Yisrael," followed by "(Et) Jacob," instead of 'with Jacob.'

49. Rabbi Yehuda asked Rabbi Elazar, the son of Rabbi Shimon: You learned from your father the portion of "And these are the names" THAT HE EXPLAINED by the supernal secret, AND THAT THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL ARE 42 HOLY ANGELS, AS EXPLAINED ABOVE. So what is the meaning of, "every man came with his household"? ANGELS DO NOT HAVE A HOUSEHOLD. RABBI ELAZAR said to him: What my father said MEANS the supernal angels, those who are higher than those who are lower among them. This is what is written: "every man came with his household." THE HIGHER ANGEL IS CALLED "MAN" AND THE ONE LOWER THAN HIM IS CALLED "HIS HOUSEHOLD." Likewise, my father said that all the angels in the higher level are called "males" and those in the level below them are called "females," and ARE CALLED "household" because a female receives from the male AND SHE IS LIKE A HOUSE TO HIM.

In reply to the question posed by Rabbi Yitzchak, Rabbi Elazar affirms that the Shechinah did indeed accompany Jacob into Egypt. A discussion ensues in which Rabbi Elazar, Rabbi Aba, and Rabbi Yehuda each cite verses that indicate that thousands of celestial beings accompanied the Shechinah. Rabbi Elazar explains that in the verse, "And the children of Yisrael journeyed from Raamses to Sukkot about six hundred thousand footmen," (Shemot 12:37) the reference to the children of Israel is an allusion to the celestial hosts, God's servants, who naturally went with God when He went down into Egypt with Jacob, as was promised. Moreover, we're told that the children of Israel hurried to depart from Egypt because they realized these celestial beings were detained for their sake. Rabbi Aba then cites the verse, "Come and behold the works of Hashem Who has made desolations (Heb. shamot) in the earth" (Tehilim 46:9), and explains that the word 'desolations' can also be read as 'names'. In corroboration with Rabbi Chiya's statement that earthly counterparts exist for all that is in heaven, Rabbi Aba concludes that just as there are holy names in earth, so are there holy names on heaven. Thus, "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael," refers to the angels who came to Egypt. Rabbi Yehuda then provides an interpretation of the verse, "Behold the litter, that of Shlomo..." (Shir Hashirim 3:7) to reveal that this verse also refers to the angels that went with the Schechinah into Egypt. Finally, while travelling with Rabbi Yosi, Rabbi Chiya deduces that since all of Israel went with Moses to meet his father-in-law, God's heavenly company would certainly have accompanied Him into Egypt.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section illustrates the power of the Zohar to illuminate hidden meanings found in the Scriptures. Through this insight, we will come to a greater understanding of God's eternal compassion and wisdom, making our prayers more ardent and our work here on earth more dedicated to His glory than to our own petty concerns.

50. Rabbi Yitzchak was studying before Rabbi Elazar, the son of Rabbi Shimon, and said to him: Did the Shechinah REALLY descend into Egypt with Jacob? He said to him: Did she not? Is it not written: "And I will descend with you" (Beresheet 46:4)? He said to him: Come and behold. The Shechinah descended into Egypt with Jacob and six hundred thousand holy Chariots with Her. This is what is written: "About six hundred thousand footmen" (Shemot 12:37). And we learned that six hundred thousand holy Chariots descended with Jacob into Egypt, and they all ascended from there when the children of Yisrael left Egypt. This is what is written: "And the children of Yisrael journeyed from Ramses to Sukot about six hundred thousand footmen" (Ibid.). It does not say 'six hundred thousand', rather it says "about six hundred thousand." THIS IMPLIES THAT as the six hundred thousand BELOW left, so those SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND HOLY CHARIOTS FROM ABOVE WHO WERE WITH THEM left.

51. Come and behold: This is the secret of the matter. When those holy Chariots and holy encampments departed, the children of Yisrael then saw and knew they were being detained FROM LEAVING because of them, SINCE THEY WERE NOT LEAVING. And all the haste of Yisrael was for them. This is the meaning of what is written: "And could not delay" (Shemot 12:39). It should have said, 'And they did not want to delay', but instead it is written: "And could not." AND THIS WAS OUT OF NECESSITY BECAUSE OF THE HOST OF ANGELS THAT WERE TARRYING FOR THEM! And it is actually understood from here that the children of Yisrael IN THE PHRASE were all the children of Yisrael of the firmament - NAMELY THE ANGELS. Thus it is written: "The children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob" (Shemot 1:1). It does not state, 'And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with him', but: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob," MEANING who came to Egypt in the beginning, REFERRING TO THE ANGELS, AS STATED PREVIOUSLY. And with whom did they come? With Jacob.

52. Rabbi Yehuda states: We have a situation involving a minor to major inference. At the time when Jacob was saved from Laban, it is written: "And Jacob went on his way, and angels of Elohim met him" (Bereshheet 32:2). Then, when he descended into Egypt, the Holy One, blessed be He, said, "I will go down with you into Egypt" (Bereshheet 46:4). And if the Master descends, is it not the rule ALL THE MORE SO that His attendants will descend with Him? Thus, it is written: "Who came into Egypt with Jacob" (Shemot 1:1), INSTEAD OF 'WITH HIM'. Rabbi Ya'akov of the village of Chanan asks in the name of Rabbi Aba: Who are the children of Yisrael mentioned here? AND HE ANSWERS: Those who are actually called 'the children of Yisrael', NAMELY THE TRIBES.

53. Rabbi Aba opened the discussion TO BRING PROOF TO HIS WORDS saying: "Come and behold the works of Hashem who has made desolations (Heb. shamot) in the earth" (Tehilim 46:9). Do not pronounce it shamot, but rather shemot (Lit. 'names'). This follows a similar thought expressed by Rabbi Chiya that, as the Holy One, blessed be He, has done in heaven, so has He done on earth. Just as there are Holy Names in heaven, so are there Holy Names here on earth. THESE ARE THE NAMES OF THE TRIBES OF WHICH IT IS WRITTEN: "THESE ARE THE NAMES OF THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL..." (SHEMOT 1:1).

54. Rabbi Yehuda said that six hundred thousand supernal angels descended with Jacob on the day that Jacob descended into Egypt. Rabbi Yehuda commenced TO BRING PROOF OF HIS WORDS: "Behold the litter, that of Solomon. Sixty valiant men are round about it" (Shir Hashirm 3:7). There are locks that are forged to accommodate a key, AND THE KEYS turn inside THE LOCK. The locks are in the seventh SFIRAH OF MALCHUT, and they are carved in the sixth SFIRAH OF YESOD. This is the meaning of what is written: "Sixty valiant men are round about it."

55. HE CONTINUES TO EXPLAIN THE ENTIRE VERSE AND SAYS: "Behold the litter," refers to the Shechinah, WHICH IS CALLED 'BED'. "Of Solomon" (Shlomo), refers to the King, to Whom the peace (Heb. shalom) belongs, ZEIR ANPIN, THE CENTRAL COLUMN THAT BRINGS PEACE BETWEEN RIGHT AND LEFT. "Sixty valiant men are round about it," are the six hundred thousand supernal angels of the host of the Shechinah that descended with Jacob into Egypt. THE REASON THAT THEIR NUMBER IS SIXTY IS BECAUSE THE SHECHINAH HAS THE SHAPE OF THE KEY. "Of the mighty men of Yisrael," refers to supernal Yisrael, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, FOR GVURAH ('MIGHT') IS DRAWN TO THEM FROM THERE. The verse: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael..."; "...every man came with his household," REFERS TO them and their customs, BECAUSE "CAME WITH HIS HOUSEHOLD" MEANS HIS WAYS AND CUSTOMS. FOR EVERY ANGEL HAS A PARTICULAR TASK AFTER WHICH HE IS NAMED, AS WE KNOW.

56. Rabbi Chiya was traveling from Usha to Lod. He was riding on a donkey, and Rabbi Yosi was with him. Rabbi Chiya dismounted, waving his hands toward Rabbi Yosi. He said to him: If the people of the world knew the great respect given to Jacob when the Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: "I will descend with you into Egypt" (Bereshheet 46:4), they would lick the dust in the three parasangs around his grave. Thus, our teachers, the greatest men in the world, the sages of the Mishnah expound upon it. It is written: "Moses went out towards his father-in-law" (Shemot 18:7). AND THEY EXPLAIN: When Aaron saw Moses going out, he joined him. Elazar and the princes and the elders accompanied him, and the heads of the house of the fathers and men of mark in the Congregation and all Yisrael accompanied them. So it came about that all of Yisrael went out to meet Yitro, because who would see Moses and Aaron and the princes going out and not accompany them? Thus, because of Moses, they all went out! Now if this occurred because of Moses, when the Holy One, blessed be He, said, "I will descend with you into Egypt," certainly THE WHOLE HEAVENLY COURT DESCENDED WITH HIM. NOW IT IS COMPREHENSIBLE WHY IN THE BEGINNING THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, SAID, "I WILL DESCEND WITH YOU INTO EGYPT," which insinuates THAT HE ALONE WOULD DESCEND. AND AFTERWARDS IT SAYS, "AND THESE ARE THE NAMES OF THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL," WHICH MEANS ALL THE HEAVENLY COURT. FOR BY MOSES ALSO, IT IS WRITTEN, "AND MOSES WENT OUT," YET ALL YISRAEL WENT OUT WITH HIM!

9. "The word of Hashem was"

Upon meeting Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Chiya immersed in discussion, Rabbi Aba offers an additional verse to reinforce their conclusion that the angels accompanied the children of Israel into Egypt. He alludes to the vision Ezekial revealed to the children of Israel to prove that God had not and would not abandon them in captivity in Babylon. Just as God was with them in Babylon, Rabbi Aba explains, so He and His heavenly company went with them into Egypt.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reminds us that God never abandons the Righteous, especially during times when we most despair, fostering in us the confidence required to persevere in the task of bringing down divine light into a world of shadows. It is invaluable for those who may feel their energy sapped or their resolve weakening, granting them strength and the courage to always stand after a fall and carry on in the Truth, rather than succumb to inducements of an easier life offered by those whose real purpose is to thwart the Great Plan, imprisoning God's people in this cage of materialism.

57. While they were still traveling, Rabbi Aba met them. Rabbi Yosi said: Behold the Shechinah is here, because one of the masters of the Mishnah is here with us. Rabbi Aba asked: What are you engaged in? Rabbi Yosi said: "I will descend with you into Egypt" (Bereshheet 46:4). When Jacob descended into Egypt, it is written: "Now these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt..." (Shemot 1:1). You learn that they all descended with Jacob into Egypt. THE IMPLICATION IS THAT ALL THE CHARIOTS AND HOSTS DESCENDED WITH JACOB INTO EGYPT AND NOT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, ALONE AS IS IMPLIED IN THE VERSE: "I WILL DESCEND WITH YOU INTO EGYPT."

58. Rabbi Aba said to him: Yet this one was alone. He opened the discussion saying: "The word of Hashem came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of Chaldeans by the river Kevar" (Yechezkel 1:3). There are three difficulties here. One difficulty is that we learned that the Shechinah does not dwell outside the land of Yisrael WHILE THE PROPHECY OF EZEKIEL IS IN THE LAND OF CHALDEANS. Another difficulty is that he was not trusted like Moses, as is written: "For he is the trusted one in all My house" (Bemidbar 12:7). But he, EZEKIEL, revealed and publicized all the treasures of the King, MORE THAN MOSES. And another difficulty is that apparently he was not of a wholesome mind, FOR IF HE WAS OF A WHOLESOME MIND HE WOULD NOT HAVE REVEALED SO MUCH.

59. HE ANSWERS: Rather this is the explanation of our Mishnah. Heaven forbid that he revealed more than necessary, because Ezekiel was perfect in his opinion. Whatever he revealed was with the permission of the Holy One, blessed be He, and it was necessary that he reveal whatever he revealed. For so we have learned, "One who is accustomed to bear pain..." (AS MENTIONED EARLIER IN THE ZOHAR, VERSES 7-14) and all was necessary. And never did the Holy One, blessed be He, leave the children of Yisrael in exile before He came and caused His Shechinah to dwell with them. And of course, it was with Jacob, who was descending into exile, that the Holy One, blessed be He, and His Shechinah and the Supernal Holy Ones and the Chariots all descended with Jacob. As it is written: "Who came into Egypt with Jacob" (Shemot 1:1). AND WITH THIS IS THE ANSWER TO THE QUESTION OF RABBI YOSI ABOVE - THAT EVEN THOUGH IT SAYS, "I WILL DESCEND WITH YOU INTO EGYPT," IT DOES NOT IMPLY HE ALONE, BUT RATHER WITH HIS SHECHINAH AND HIS HOSTS AND HIS CHARIOTS. FOR THIS IS THE WAY OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, IN ALL EXILES, AS EZEKIEL REVEALED BY THE EXILE OF BABYLON.

10. "Come with me from Lebanon, my bride"

In this section, Rabbi Yitzchak first explains that he who studies Torah and performs good deeds will inherit a complete world, while he whose good deeds are incomplete will inherit according to what he deserves. He who does not study Torah or acquire any good deeds will inherit neither this world nor the world to come. Following this, a discussion of the title verse begins. Rabbi Yehuda explains that God addressed these words to the Shechinah in the upper Sanctuary and announced that the children of Israel would receive the Torah. This would be their shield in exile, to protect them from the idolatrous and oppressive heathen nations. Rabbi Aba adds that God was first in the company that included the Shechinah and 600,000 ministering angels that descended into Egypt with Him. Rabbi Yitzchak interprets the phrase, "look from the top of Amanah," as referring to the Sanctuary above and below, and "From the top of Senir and Chermon," as signifying Mount Sinai. Finally, Rabbi Yehuda offers a contrasting interpretation of, "from the lions' den," as a reference to the students of the Torah, who are lions and leopards in the Torah.

The Relevance of this Passage

60. Rabbi Aba commenced the discussion and said: "Come with Me from Lebanon, My bride, with Me from Lebanon" (Shir Hashirm 4:8). Come and behold: Woe to those people who do not know and are not careful of the service to their Creator. For we learned that Rabbi Yitzchak said: Every day a divine voice emanates from Mount Horeb and says, 'Woe is to those WHO DISREGARD the service of their Creator, woe to those who denigrate the honor of the Torah.' For Rabbi Yehuda said: All who study Torah in this world and acquire good deeds will inherit a complete world. And all who do not study Torah in this world and do not do good deeds will not inherit this or that - MEANING NOT THIS WORLD AND NOT THE WORLD TO COME. YOU MAY WONDER WHY IT IS SAID EITHER HE INHERITS A COMPLETE WORLD OR HE LOSES TWO WORLDS, and yet we have learned there is one who inherits according to his station and what is deserving to him, MEANING THERE IS A MIDDLE WAY. Rabbi Yitzchak said: We did not learn THAT HE DOES NOT HAVE TWO WORLDS, except for one who has no good deed at all. BUT ONE WHO DOES HAVE GOOD DEEDS, EVEN THOUGH THEY ARE INCOMPLETE, INHERITS HIS WORLD ACCORDING TO WHAT HE DESERVES BOTH IN THIS WORLD AND IN THE WORLD TO COME.

61. Rabbi Yehuda said: If people knew the love that the Holy One, blessed be He, has for the children of Yisrael, they would roar like lions to pursue Him AND ADHERE TO HIM. At the time that Jacob descended into Egypt, the Holy One, blessed be He, summoned His company OF ANGELS and said to them: 'All of you descend into Egypt and I will descend with you'. The Shechinah said, 'Master of the Universe, are there hosts without a king?' FOR THE SHECHINAH IS CONSIDERED THE KING OF THE ANGELS BECAUSE THEY ALL FLOW FROM HER. He said to Her: "Come with Me from Lebanon, My bride," you will come with Me from Lebanon from the place of Eden, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH, that is refined in all its actions. "Bride" is the Shechinah, which is the bride under the canopy. It follows what we have learned, that Rabbi Yehuda said: What is the meaning of, "And it came to pass on the day that Moses had finished (Heb. kalot)..." (Bemidbar 7:1)? Kalot is spelled without a Vav, for this is the day that the kalah (Lit. 'bride') enters the Chupah (wedding canopy), and the bride is the Shechinah, WHICH IS IN THE TEMPLE, THE BRIDE UNDER THE CHUPAH.

62. "...with me from Lebanon..." (Shir Hashirm 4:8) meaning from the place of the supernal Temple. "Look from the top of Amanah." HE ASKS: From the top of what? AND ANSWERS: From the head (top) of those who have Faith (Heb. Emunah). And who are they? Jacob and his sons. "From the top of Senir and Chermon," for they are destined to receive My Torah from Mount Chermon - MEANING MOUNT SINAI, WHICH IS CALLED 'CHERMON' - to protect them in exile, WHICH IS CALLED 'CHERMON', DERIVED FROM DESTRUCTION (HEB. CHEREM). "From the lions' dens," is in reference to the nations that serve idols, who are compared to lions and leopards that oppress YISRAEL with all types of hard labor.

63. Rabbi Aba said: "Come with Me from Lebanon, My bride." AND HE ASKS: Is she coming from Lebanon? Yet she is going up to Lebanon. AND SHE IS ASCENDING TO LEBANON TO RECEIVE CHOCHMAH! THUS, IT SHOULD HAVE SAID, 'ASCEND WITH ME TO LEBANON.' Therefore Rabbi Aba said: When the Shechinah descended into Egypt, six hundred thousand ministering angels descended with Her, and the Holy One, blessed be He, was first, as is written: "And their King passed before them and Hashem at their head" (Michah 2:13).

64. Rabbi Yitzchak said, "Come with Me from Lebanon, My bride," refers to the Shechinah. "...with Me from Lebanon..." MEANS from the place of the supernal Temple, WHICH IS BINAH. "Look from the Top of Amanah," MEANS from the place of the Temple above and the Temple below. For Rabbi Yehuda said: The Shechinah has never moved from the western wall of the Temple, as is written: "Behold, He stands behind our wall" (Shir Hashirm 2:9). And He is the top of Amanah for the whole world. "From the top of Senir and Chermon," MEANS from the place whence the Torah went out to the world, MEANING MOUNT SINAI, WHICH IS CALLED 'CHERMON'. And why IS THIS? In order to protect the children of Yisrael. "The lions' dens," (Shim Hashirm 4:8) are the nations who worship idols. Rabbi Yudan says: "The lions' dens," refers to scholars who study the Torah in the Torah academies and synagogues, who are lions and leopards in the Torah.

11. "Seventy souls"

In reference to the title verse, Rabbi Chiya asks Rabbi Shimon to explain the significance of the number seventy, and why the Torah first enumerates the sons of Jacob as twelve, and then as seventy. Rabbi Shimon's explanation is that seventy corresponds to the seventy nations of the world, and the nation of Israel was equal to all of them. Furthermore, we learn that just as the world cannot exist without the four winds, the other nations of the world cannot exist without Israel, as the twelve tribes illuminate the seventy nations.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section will reveal that the privileged and illuminating role of the nation of Yisrael, and the dependant position of the other nations, means that the righteous and those following the path of truth carry a heavy burden, since the world is sustained by their goodness. This will summon up reserves of strength within us, because so many depend upon our actions for their existence and we cannot afford to fail them, for in failing them we are failing God.

65. Rabbi Chiya was sitting before Rabbi Shimon. He said to him: In the beginning, why did the Torah count twelve sons of Jacob, yet afterwards they were seventy, as is written: "All the souls of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were seventy" (Bereshheet 46:27)? And what is the reason that they were seventy and not more? RABBI SHIMON said to him: It corresponds to the seventy nations in the world. They were one nation equal to them all.

66. And he also said to him: Come and behold. Let us consider the keys that illuminate. THEIR branches are set in their travels, MEANING WHEN THEY ARE ILLUMINATING IN THE JOURNEYS OF THE THREE COLUMNS AND ARE APPOINTED OVER THE SEVENTY NATIONS, that emanate from twelve engravings and knots that surround them in their travels IN THE ORDER OF THE THREE COLUMNS, striking against the four directions of the world, THAT IS, CHESD, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. This is what is written: "He set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Yisrael" (Devarim 32:8), MEANING THAT THE NUMBER TWELVE THAT IS IN THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL ILLUMINATES TO THE SEVENTY NATIONS. And this is what is written: "As the four winds of the heavens have I spread you abroad" (Zecharyah 2:10), so THAT THE THREE COLUMNS ILLUMINATE IN ALL THE FOUR DIRECTIONS - CHESD AND GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT - to show that they exist for the sake of the children of Yisrael, WHO ARE THE TWELVE TRIBES, AS MENTIONED EARLIER. It does not say, 'In the four,' but rather, "As the four," because as it is impossible for the world to exist without the four winds, so it is impossible for the world to exist without Yisrael.

66. וְתוּ א"ל, תָּא חֲזִי, קְלֵדִיטִין דְּנִהְרִין עֲנַפִּין יְתִבִּין בְּמַטְלֵי הוֹן, מִמְּנָן עַל שְׁבַעִין עַמְמִין, נִפְקִין מִתְרִיסַר גְּלִיפִין קְטוּרִין דְּאֶסְתַּחֲרוּן בְּמַטְלֵי הוֹן, לְמַתְקֵלָן לְאַרְבַּע רוּחֵי עֲלָמָא, הַה"ד, יֵצֵב גְּבוּלוֹת עַמִּים לְמַסְפַּר בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. וְהֵינּוּ דְכִתִּיב, בֵּי כְּאַרְבַּע רוּחוֹת הַשָּׁמַיִם פָּרַשְׁתִּי אֶתְכֶם, לְאַחֲזָאָה דְּאֵינּוֹן קִיּוּמִין בְּגִין יִשְׂרָאֵל. בְּאַרְבַּע לֹא נֹאמַר, אֶלָּא כְּאַרְבַּע. כִּמָּה דְּאֵי אֲמַשֵּׁר לְעֲלָמָא בְּלֹא אֲרַבַּע רוּחוֹת כִּן אֵי אֲמַשֵּׁר לְעֲלָמָא בְּלֹא יִשְׂרָאֵל.

12. "...that let the feet of the ox and the ass..."

Rabbi Aba opens a discussion of the meaning of the title verse. He explains that the children of Yisrael are worthy in the sight of God because they "sow beside all waters," that is, according to Righteousness. Reference is then made to the book of Rabbi Yiba Saba. It describes the Chamber of Guilt, which is of the side of Mercy, and the Chamber of Merit, which is of the Other Side. Children, longevity, and sustenance, we learn, do not depend on either Chamber, but rather on mazal. The children of Israel cleave to the side of Holiness, thereby banishing the evil symbolized by the union of the ox and the ass.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section provides insight into recondite meanings contained in the Scripture, enabling us to avoid drawing judgment together with impure intentions, since this path leads to great suffering and destruction. It will also heighten our powers of discernment, helping us to make better, wiser, choices in both this life and the eternal one.

67. "Now there arose a new king" (Shemot 1:8). Rabbi Aba commenced: "Blessed are you that sow beside all waters, that let the feet of the ox and the ass range freely" (Yeshayah 32:20). Fortunate are Yisrael, who Hashem desired more than all the nations and, and who He brought close to Him, as it is written: "Hashem has chosen you to be a special possession to Himself..." (Devarim 14:2) It is also written: "For Hashem's portion is His people, Jacob is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9). And Yisrael cleave to the Holy One, blessed be He, as it is written: "But you that did cleave to Hashem your Elohim are alive every one of you this day..." (Devarim 4:4).

68. And they are therefore Righteous before Him, because they sow beside all waters. AND HE ASKS: What is "beside all waters"? AND HE SAYS: They sow for righteousness (Heb. tzedakah) - MEANING THEY ELEVATE MAYIM NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS') TO DRAW MOCHIN INTO MALCHUT, SO IT WILL BE CALLED 'TZEDAKAH'. FOR WITHOUT MOCHIN, IT IS CALLED TZEDEK (JUSTICE) WITHOUT HEI. And of one who sows for Righteousness, it is written: "For your kindness is great above (Heb. me'al) the heavens (Heb. shamayim)..." (Tehilim 108:5). Me'al shamayim also means beside to all waters (Heb. al kol mayim). And what is, "above the heavens"? It is the World to Come, WHICH IS BINAH THAT IS ABOVE ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS CALLED "HEAVENS." And Yisrael sow seeds, MEANING THEY ELEVATE MAYIM NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS') beside (Lit. 'above') above all waters, WHICH IS BINAH, IN ORDER TO DRAW MOCHIN TO MALCHUT, SO THAT IT SHOULD BE CALLED 'TZEDAKAH'.

69. In the book of Rabbi Yiba Saba, it says as follows: It is written, "This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the sentence by the words of the holy ones" (Daniel 4:14). For all the verdicts in this world and all the decrees and all the questions are all in one chamber, where 72 judges deliberate the sentences of the world. And that chamber is called the 'Chamber of Merit', because when a person is judged, his merit is presented first.

70. This is not so in the level of the Other Side, where there is a place called 'Guilt', because all the actions in that place are of the Serpent, the Wife of Harlotry, and their only purpose is to condemn the person and to slander the servant before his Master!

70. מה דלאו הכי, בדרגא דהוא סטרא אחרא, דתמן איהו אתר דאקרי חוב"ה, בגין דכל עובדוי דהוא אתר, דנחש אשת זנונים, לא איהו אלא למהפכא בחובה דב"נ, ולמלשן עבדא למאריה.

71. Those that are in the Chamber of Merit are called 'sweet waters', 'clear waters'. Those that are in the Chamber of Guilt are called the 'bitter water' - "The bitter water that causes the curse" (Bemidbar 5:18). In that Chamber of Merit these three are not found: children, longevity, and sustenance; nor are these found in that place of Guilt; nor in the 'sweet and clear waters'; nor in the 'bitter' and 'curse-causing waters'!

72. Therefore, Yisrael sows beside all the waters a holy seed - MEANING THEY ELEVATE MAYIM NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS') TO SUPERNAL BINAH, WHICH IS CALLED 'ABOVE ALL WATERS' - and they beget above all waters, they whose seed is not appropriate except for above IN BINAH. Therefore, the Masters of the Mishnah explain that children, longevity and sustenance are not dependent ON THE CHAMBER OF Merit, but rather are dependent upon the Holy Mazal, WHICH IS THE HOLY BEARD OF ARICH ANPIN, WHICH IS ITS ASPECT OF BINAH WHICH HAS EMERGED. This place is "above all waters."

73. "...that let the feet of the ox and the ass range freely..." They do not contain anything in that side OF THE KLIPOT OF THE OX AND THE ASS; for they have banished all the evil parts and cleave to the good side of all supernal Holy Ones. When the ox and ass join together, they become two evil plagues of the world. The ox is the side of Severe Judgment and originates in the cleaving of the side of Holiness. When the ass joins with it from the Other Side OF THE KLIPOT, they become two evil plagues of the world.

74. Hence, Shimon had in him the strength of Severe Judgment, AS HE HAD IN HIMSELF THE ASPECT OF THE OX. And when they combine, the world can not tolerate it. Therefore, "You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together" (Devarim 22:10). Therefore, Jacob sent this to Esau: "I have oxen and asses" (Bereshheet 32:6), MEANING THAT HE SUBJUGATED THEM TO HOLINESS. And had Jacob not humbled himself, a great fear would have fallen on Esau, BECAUSE HE HAD THE POWER TO OVERPOWER THESE TWO FORCES.

74. ועל דא, שמעון תוקפא דדינא קשיא הוה ביה, וכד מזדווגן כחדא, לא יכיל עלמא למסבל, ובגין כך, לא תחרוש בשור ובחמור יחדו. ועל דא, שדר יעקב לעשו מלה דא, דכתיב, ויהי לי שור וחמור. ואי לאו דמאיך יעקב גרמיה, דחילו סגיא נפל ביה בעשו.

13. "Now there arose a new king"

This section begins with an interpretation of the title verse found in the book of Rabbi Hamnuna Saba. From this, we learn that the rise to power of any nation is a result of the subjugation of the children of Yisrael, as seen in the examples of Egypt, Babylon, and Rome. This is because the nation of Yisrael is equal to all the other nations combined, and therefore when a nation dominates the children of Israel, it's celestial chieftain gains dominion over the chieftains of the other nations.

According to Rabbi Chiya, the impending rise or fall of a nation is announced on earth through small children, simple-minded people and the behavior of birds thirty days before the event. While these proclamations usually go unnoticed, if a nation is deserving, the leaders receive news of the imminent disaster so that they can call their people to repent and return to God while there is still time. When a nation falls from power, Rabbi Yitzchak explains, God first punishes its celestial representative. The chieftain passes through a River of Fire, his power vanishes; then the event is proclaimed above, and later below. This relates to Rabbi Yosi's profound experience, which he describes to Rabbi Elazar, Rabbi Aba, and Rabbi Yehuda while they sit at the gate of Lydda. That morning, Rabbi Yosi tells them, a bird informed him of the raising up of three rulers on earth, and the deposing of an existing ruler. When asked about their identity, the bird threw down three arrows from his right wing, and one from his left wing. On examining these arrows, Rabbi Elazar interprets their significance as an indication of the impending domination of the Egyptians and the children of Israel by three great rulers in Rome. Three children who pass by the Rabbis in succession and announce imminent doom for Egypt reinforce this interpretation. This leads to a discussion of the importance of sages, without whom man would not be able to understand the Torah or God's Commandments.

Finally, Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Shimon discuss the title verse, revealing that the "new king" is a reference to the Pharaoh who, like Achashverosh, "arose" through the power of his wealth, and not because he was worthy.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section attunes us more finely to the wisdom that God reveals to us through conduits we often fail to recognize, heightening the significance of all things around us by making us more fully conscious of the Creator's presence within His creation. In time we will come to see that no thing is without meaning and value, and that previously ignored or even despised aspects of the world have much to teach us if we do but pay attention to them.

75. "Now there arose a new king over Egypt" (Shemot 1:8). In the book of Rabbi Hamnuna Saba, it is written thus what is the meaning of "now there arose a new king over Egypt"? Come and behold: all the nations of the world and all the kings in the world did not become secure in their dominion save for the sake of the children of Yisrael. Egypt did not rule over the whole world until the children of Yisrael came and entered into exile there. Then they overpowered all the nations of the world. Babylon did not acquire power over all the nations of the world, only so that the children of Yisrael would be in exile by them. Edom acquires power over all the nations of the world only so that Yisrael will be exiled among them. For these nations were once humble among the other nations, and were lower than all of them, and because of Yisrael they became strong.

76. Egypt WAS LOWLIER THAN ALL THE NATIONS, for it is written OF THEM: "From the house of bondage" (Shemot 20:2). They are called 'actual slaves', because the Egyptians were [formerly] lowlier than all the nations. Babylon WAS LOWLY, as it is written: "Behold the land of Chaldeans; this people was not" (Yeshayah 23:13). Edom WAS LOWLY, as it is written: "Behold, I make you small among the nations; you are greatly despised" (Ovadyah 1:2).

77. And they all received power only on account of Yisrael; for when the children of Yisrael were in exile among them, they immediately become powerful over all the nations in the world. What is the reason? Because Yisrael alone are comparable to all the nations in the world. When Yisrael began their exile in Egypt, Egypt immediately experienced an elevation and their rule was strengthened above all the nations, as it is written: "Now there arose a new king over Egypt" (Shemot 1:8). "Arose," MEANS they rose and became strong! And THE ANGEL, who is the minister appointed to the rule of Egypt, was strengthened and rose. He was given power and dominion over all who were appointed over the other nations, because dominion IS GIVEN first to the one who is appointed above and then to his nation below. Therefore, THE VERSE SAYS, "Now there arose a new king over Egypt." This is the one who was appointed over them. He was new, because until that time, he had no dominion over the other nations; then he was raised to rule over all the nations in the world. Then this was fulfilled: "For three things the earth is disquieted...for a slave when he becomes king..." (Mishlei 30:21) BECAUSE THE EGYPTIANS WERE SLAVES.

78. Rabbi Chiya said: Thirty days before power comes to a nation on earth or before a crisis comes to a nation on the earth, it is announced in the world. Sometimes it is given over to the mouth of a child, and sometimes to people who have no sense, and sometimes it is given over to the birds and they announce in the world and nobody listens to them. And when people are righteous, it is given over to the leaders, the righteous of the world, so they may notify the people and repent to their Master. And if the people are not righteous, then it is as we said!

79. Rabbi Elazar was once sitting in the gate of the city of Lod with Rabbi Aba, Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Yosi. Rabbi Yosi said: I will tell you what I saw this morning. I got up with the MORNING light and I saw a bird - THAT IS, AN ANGEL - that was flying. It raised itself three times and lowered itself one time, and was saying: Exalted ones, Exalted ones, on this day the firmaments are soaring. Three upright overseers rule over the world, and one is sitting yet not sitting. HE ALSO WANTS TO STAND AND NOT SIT. He passed through a burning fire, his position is removed and his dominion removed. And three pillars, supernal rulers, stand over the world.

80. I threw a clod of earth towards that bird and I said to it: Bird, Bird, tell me of the three who are appointees and the one who was removed from rulership. Who are they? It cast three arrows at me from the right wing, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF ZEIR ANPIN, and one from the left, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA. I did not know to what it was alluding - MEANING I DID NOT KNOW THE NEW THOUGHT IT WAS TRYING TO TEACH ME.

81. Rabbi Elazar took those arrows, lowered them to his nostrils and blood started to flow from them - AN ALLUSION TO JUDGMENT COLORED RED. He said: Surely there are three rulers among the nations standing in THE CITY OF Rome on earth, BECAUSE THEY ARE DRAWN FROM CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN, and they will impose evil laws against Yisrael from the side of the Romans. THIS MEANS THAT THE BLEMISH THAT YISRAEL CAUSED IN CHESED, GVURAH AND TIFERET ENABLED THE ROMANS TO DESTROY THE TEMPLE AND TO IMPOSE EVIL DECREES. He took that arrow THAT THE BIRD THREW from its left wing, smelled it, and a black fire burst forth from it. THIS IS THE LEFT COLOR THAT IS UNIQUE TO THE NUKVA WHICH IS NOT INCLUDED IN THE THREE COLORS OF THE RAINBOW - WHITE, RED AND GREEN, WHICH COME FROM THE THREE COLUMNS CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND DO NOT CONTAIN BLACK. He said: They have deposed the rule of the Egyptians WHO DRAW THE LIGHT OF THE LEFT FROM ABOVE DOWN. In the future, a Roman king will pass through the whole land of Egypt and will appoint in Egypt officers and warriors. He will destroy buildings THAT WERE BUILT AND DRAWN FROM THE LEFT SIDE, and will rebuild ruins THAT WERE DESTROYED BECAUSE THEY WERE FROM THE RIGHT, AND EGYPT HAD NO DESIRE FOR THEM. Rabbi Elazar threw those ARROWS to the ground, MEANING THAT HE DREW THEIR ILLUMINATION FROM ABOVE DOWN. The three arrows fell upon the one from the left side AND THE ONE FROM THE LEFT SIDE WAS BURNED, AND THE THREE ARROWS OF THE RIGHT SIDE REMAINED,

AS SHALL BE EXPLAINED.

82. While they were still sitting, a young boy passed by and was reading: "The burden of Egypt. Behold Hashem rides on a light cloud and comes to Egypt" (Yeshayah 19:1). His friend, a second boy, passed and said: "The land of Egypt will be desolate." A third friend passed and said: "The wisdom of Egypt is lost." They saw that the arrow of the left wing was burnt and the arrows that were on it were not burnt.

83. Rabbi Elazar said: That of the bird and that of the boys are all one thing, FOR THE CHILDREN WITH THEIR VERSES ALSO SAID THAT EGYPT - WHICH IS THE LEFT COLUMN THAT ILLUMINATED FROM ABOVE DOWN - WILL BECOME DESOLATE AND WILL BE DESTROYED. This is all a supernal prophecy THAT WAS GIVEN TO BIRDS AND CHILDREN, and the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted to show us the supernal secrets He affected, and this HE HAS SENT TO US. This is what is written: "Surely Hashem Elohim will do nothing, without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7).

84. Sages are always superior to prophets, because the Holy Spirit sometimes dwells upon prophets and sometimes does not. As for sages, the Holy Spirit is not removed from them even for a moment, and they know what is above and below though they must not reveal. Rabbi Yosi said: Everything pertains to wisdom and the wisdom of Rabbi Elazar IS SUPERIOR to all. Rabbi Aba said: If not for the sages, people would not know what Torah is and what are the commandments of the Master of the World, and there would be no difference between the spirit of man and the spirit of animals.

85. Rabbi Yitzchak said: When the Holy One, blessed be He, brings Judgment upon a nation, first He judges the minister above who is appointed over them. As it is written: "Hashem will punish the hosts of heaven in the heavens and upon the kings of the earth on the earth" (Yeshayah 24:21) - FIRST ON ALL THE HOSTS OF HEAVEN, MEANING THE APPOINTED ANGEL, AND AFTERWARDS UPON THE KINGS OF THE EARTH.

86. HE ASKS: How is Judgment accorded to an appointee above? AND HE ANSWERS: They pass him through Nahar Dinur ('the River of fire') that stretches and exits FROM BEFORE HASHEM, and then his dominion is removed. Immediately the announcement that the dominion of a certain appointee has been removed from him reaches the firmament, until it travels throughout the firmaments and reaches those who rule this world, WHO DEPEND UPON THAT APPOINTEE. And the announcement is made throughout the whole world until it reaches the birds and children and those fools among the people who know not WHAT THEY SPEAK.

87. "Now there arose a new king..." (Shemot 1:8). Rabbi Chiya said: "a new king," MEANS actually LITERALLY new. Rabbi Yosi says THAT IT MEANS that he made new decrees that no king had decreed until now. "Who did not know Joseph" (Ibid.), MEANS THAT HE DID NOT KNOW all the good that Joseph did in Egypt, as is written: "And Joseph brought the money to the house of Pharaoh" (Beresheet 47:14), and he kept them alive during the years of famine. He did not remember and pretended not to know ALL THIS.

88. Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Yehuda were sitting and studying Torah before Rabbi Shimon. Rabbi Yehuda said: It is written, "Now there arose a new king over Egypt." We learn that he arose of himself, one who was humbled arose TO REIGN EVEN THOUGH he was not worthy of ruling, but by THE POWER OF riches he arose. Rabbi Shimon said: So it was similar to Achashverosh, who was not worthy of ruling but he arose to rule by himself, and he arose by THE POWER OF riches and wanted to destroy Yisrael from the world. This is also the case WITH PHARAOH: he was not worthy of ruling, yet he arose and ruled by himself and wanted to destroy Yisrael from the world, as is written: "And he said to his people...come let us deal wisely with them..." (Shemot 1:9-10). When a king arises above, MEANING THE APPOINTED ANGEL, then a king arises below.

14. "The burden of Egypt"

On their way to Tzipori, Rabbi Elazar, Rabbi Aba, and Rabbi Yosi encounter a Jew who quotes the title verse and then asks them why God Himself came into Egypt, rather than simply exercising His will from above. The reason, we're told, is that God came for the sake of the Shechinah, to raise Her up, as He would do when the Roman captivity of the children of Yisrael ended. God did not go to the Shechinah during Her exile with the children of Yisrael in Babylon because of their sins. In Egypt, however, they remained pure. Whosoever holds the children of Yisrael captive becomes accountable to God, and He punishes their supernal representatives and those who worship them below. God punished Egypt severely, in spite of the relatively good treatment given to the children of Yisrael at first. We may therefore conclude that all the nations who have oppressed the children of Yisrael will receive punishment, including Rome and Assyria - the nation that "oppressed them without cause" and stole their land. The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section makes us more zealous to follow the path of righteousness by reminding us that all those who deserve to be punished severely shall receive their just deserts in the end, none can escape the consequences of his actions, because there is no one who can hide from the eyes of God or his own conscience. This instills gratitude in us for God's mercy, for finding ourselves born into a life in which we are able to approach the Light and be aware of the still, small voice within correcting our path before we lose our way and waste the precious gifts bestowed upon us.

89. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosi were journeying from Tiberias to Tzipori. While they were walking, a Jew met them and said: "The burden of Egypt. Behold, Hashem rides on a swift cloud and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at His presence" (Yeshayah 19:1). Come and behold: All the kings of the world and all the nations of the world are considered as nothing before the Holy One, blessed be He, as is written: "And all the inhabitants of the earth are considered as nothing: and He does according to His will in the host of Heaven" (Daniel 4:32). Here in Egypt, despite all these acts of power and the raised hand that the Holy One, blessed be He, revealed, it is written: "Behold, Hashem rides upon a swift cloud and shall come into Egypt." What is the difference? This was not so by all the nations of the world, rather the Holy One, blessed be He, ordered a decree and it was done. Yet here IN EGYPT, He Himself came TO CARRY PUNISHMENT UPON THEM, as is written: "And shall come into Egypt," and: "And I will pass over the land of Egypt...I am Hashem" (Shemot 12:12).

89. רבי אלעזר ורבי אבא ורבי יוסי, הוּו אֲזִילי מִטְּבְּרִיא לְצַפּוּרֵי, עַד דְּהוּו אֲזִילי, פִּגְעַ בְּהוּ חַד יוֹדָאי, פְּתַח וְאָמַר, מִשָּׂא מִצְרִים הִנֵּה ה' רֹכֵב עַל עֵב קַל וּבָא מִצְרִים וְנָעוּ אֲלִילֵי מִצְרִים מִפְּנֵיו. תָּא חֲזִי, כָּל מַלְכִין דְּעֵלְמָא, וְכָל עַמִּין דְּעֵלְמָא, לֹא חֲשִׁיבֵי כְּלוּם קָמֵי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, דְּכִתִּיב, וְכָל דִּיִּירֵי אֲרַעָא כְּלֹא חֲשִׁיבִין וּכְמִצְבִּיָּה עֲבִיד בְּחִיל שְׂמִיא. וְהִכָּא בְּמִצְרַיִם, אָף עַל גַּב דְּכָל אֵינּוֹן גְּבוּרָאן, וְדַרְעָא מְרַמְמָא גְּלֵי קוּדְשָׁא ב"ה בְּמִצְרַיִם, מַה כְּתִיב הִנֵּה ה' רֹכֵב עַל עֵב קַל וּבָא מִצְרִים. מַאי שְׂנָא, בְּכָל עַמִּין דְּעֵלְמָא, דְּלֹא הוּוּ הַכִּי, דְּהָא קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא גְּזַר גְּזֵרָה וְאִתְעֵבִיד, וְהִכָּא אִיהוּ אָתָּא, דְּכִתִּיב וּבָא מִצְרַיִם. וְכִתִּיב, וְעִבְרַתִּי בְּאֶרֶץ מִצְרַיִם וְגו' אֲנִי ה'.

90. AND HE ANSWERS: Because the King came to take out the Queen that was there, and because of the honor of the Queen, WHO IS THE SHECHINAH THAT DESCENDED WITH THEM TO EXILE, He came. Since the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted Her honor, He came to raise Her, and extended His hand to Her so as to lift Her up, as the Holy One, blessed be He, will do at the end of the exile of Edom.

90. אֵלָא, בְּגִין דְּמַלְכָּא הוּוּ אָתֵי, לְאִפְקָא לְמִטְּרוּנִיתָא דְּהוּוּת תַּמָּן. וּבְגִין יִקְרָא דְּמִטְּרוּנִיתָא הוּוּ אָתֵי. וְעַל דָּא הוּוּ קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא בְּעֵי בִּיקְרָה, וְאִתֵּי לְגַבָּה לְאִקְמָא לָהּ, וְלִמִּיָּהֵב לָהּ יֵדָא, וְלִזְקָפָא לָהּ, כְּמַה דְּזַמִּין קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְמַעַבְדַּ בְּסוּף גְּלוּתָא דְּאֲדוּם.

91. Rabbi Yisa said: If it be so, THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, CAME TO EGYPT because of the Queen, why was it not also thus in the exile of Babylon when the Queen was also there? He said to him: We have learned that the sin caused it, because they married foreign women, and they brought the Holy Covenant into foreign domain. Therefore, the miracles and signs were lost from them that should have been done for them. Not so in the exile of Egypt where they were all the Tribes of Yah. The children of Yisrael came INTO EXILE and the children of Yisrael left EXILE, MEANING WITHOUT SIN.

92. By the Exile of Edom, the Holy One, blessed be He, wishes to be honored in the world and to come Himself to uplift the Matron and shake the dust from Her. Woe to the one who is present before Him at the time when he will say: "Shake the dust off yourself, arise and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose yourself from the bands of your neck" (Yeshayah 52:2). Who are the king and the people who will stand up before Him?

93. "And the idols of Egypt shall be moved from before him" (Yeshayah 19:1). It is written, "the idols of Egypt," of the stones and trees of which they made the idols; but on all the levels of the supernal appointees and those who worshipped them below, THEY ARE MOVED AND PUNISHED. Wherever Yisrael exiled, the Holy One, blessed be He, seeks them and they are accepted from among those nations.

94. Come and behold: it is written, "Thus said Hashem, 'My people went down aforesaid to Egypt to sojourn there, and Ashur oppressed them without cause'" (Yeshayah 52:4). THIS IS the complaint that the Holy One, blessed be He, made against Assyria. He said: 'See what Assyria has done to me. To Egypt, upon whom I have rendered all these punishment, my people descended to sojourn among them, and the Egyptians accepted them among them, and gave them the best of the land, which is the Land of Goshen. Even though the Egyptians persecuted them in exile, they did not take away the land from them, as is written: "Only in the land of Goshen where the children of Yisrael were..." (Shemot 9:26). It was the best part of the land of Egypt, as is written: "In the best part of the land in the land of Ramses" (Bereshheet 47:11), WHICH WAS IN GOSHEN. Moreover, they caused them no loss, as is written: "But of the cattle of the children of Yisrael..." (Shemot 9:6). SO WE SEE THAT THEY DID NOT STEAL THEIR ANIMALS, yet still altogether they were punished with many punishments.

95. "And Ashur oppressed them without cause" (Yeshayah 52:4). For they cast them in a land at the end of the world, and took away their land. Now the Egyptians, who had done so many favors for the children of Yisrael, were punished with so many punishments. Then Ashur, Edom and the other nations that oppressed them, and killed them, and took away their money would most certainly be punished. For the Holy One, blessed be He, desired to glorify His Name over them, as is written: "I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself and I will make Myself known" (Yechezkel 38:23). This happened in Egypt with one king, and IN THE COMPLETE REDEMPTION THAT WILL COME ABOUT, it will be with all the kings of the world.

15. The coming of Messiah

In this long and complex section, Rabbi Shimon first describes the time when God shall make Himself known throughout the world, which is the prelude to the arrival of the Messiah. We learn that when God reveals His glory to the world, all the nations and their kings will rise up against the children of Yisrael, and the children of Yisrael will suffer greatly. A pillar of fire reaching from heaven to earth will appear for forty days. At this time, the Messiah will rise in Galilee and begin to wage war on the world from there, because this is where the devastation first began. The earth will shake, and everybody will seek refuge in caves and rocky places, as alluded to in the verse, "And they shall go into the holes..." After forty days, a bright star from the east will battle with seven stars surrounding it, extinguishing them night after night for a period of seventy days. Then the one star will be hidden and the Messiah will be concealed in the pillar of fire for twelve months, though it will not be visible to the world. After the twelve months, the Messiah will ascend to receive the power and the crown of the Kingdom. Then the pillar of fire will again be visible on earth and the Messiah will reveal himself and declare war on the world. Many nations will join him to wage war on the nations of the world, which will unite to fight against him. Then a time will come when the world will remain in darkness for fifteen days, and many of the children of Yisrael will perish. Rabbi Shimon then explains to Rabbi Elazar that the Messiah resides in the lower Garden of Eden, surrounded by saints, angels and the souls of the righteous. There is a concealed place in Eden called "Bird's Nest" which is revealed to the Messiah by the bird that awakens daily in the Garden. In the Bird's Nest is the Cloak of Majesty, and the images of all the nations that banded against Yisrael are woven into this garment. The Messiah enters this place and sees the Patriarchs visiting the ruins of God's Sanctuary and God trying to comfort Rachel, who weeps incessantly. Then he weeps loudly and all of Eden shakes and laments with him. When he cries for a second time, the Holy Throne summons them and they ascend to above. There, God makes them swear to avenge the children of Yisrael through the Messiah and to draw God's goodness towards the children of Yisrael so that they may enjoy His rich rewards. At that time, God will arise to renew the world, and the letters of the Holy Name will shine in perfect union. A mighty star and a flame will then appear in the sky. After forty days, the star will gradually overpower the flame. The star will illuminate twelve pathways for twelve days, and after another twelve days the world will tremble and darkness will fall. A sound shall be heard out of great thunder and lightning, causing the earth to shake and many to die. Then a flame of fire will appear in Rome, and it will burn many towers and places, and many mighty rulers and ministers will perish. For twelve months following, the kings of the nations will unite and persecute the children of Yisrael. Then a tribe will arise in Yisrael, led by the Messiah. The Messiah will be aroused and perfected through the Garden of Eden. He will enter the Bird's Nest, take the Garment of Jealousy, and be hidden there for forty days. After this time, he will ascend to receive God's blessing, and will be crowned with a Holy Crown. He then receives a royal red garment from the mourners of Zion to avenge the destruction of the Temple, and is concealed in the Bird's Nest for thirty days. Then he will descend to earth in a bright light, and no one will know the significance of this light except the sages. He will console Rachel, and she will finally accept consolation, and then the light will settle in the city of Jericho. After twelve months, the Messiah will be revealed to the world in Galilee, and those who study the Torah will surround him and give him additional strength. After waiting for another twelve months, he will raise the Shechinah and gather the exiled from the world. Then God will perform for the children of Yisrael the signs and wonders that He did in Egypt. Rabbi Shimon next discusses the doctrine of Faith contained in the verse, "O Hashem our Elohim; other masters beside you have had dominion..." In exile, we learn, the children of Yisrael are ruled by the Other Side, the Shechinah is separated from Her Spouse, and the two Names of God are also separated. During the first exile, Yisrael had no divine light to guide her. However, upon their return to the Holy Land, not all of the children of Yisrael were Righteous and pure, and therefore the light that returned to guide them was weaker than it had originally been. Consequently, Yisrael was involved in many wars until the destruction of the second Temple, and the Roman captivity was prolonged. After 1266 years, we're told, God shall perform many miracles and wonders, and after another 66 years, the Holy Name will be perfectly engraved, above and below. After a further 132 years, the Holy Land will be purified and God will shake the wicked from the earth and raise the dead. Finally, 144 years later, the remaining dead of Yisrael who are in other lands will also be raised, and the Other Side will be destroyed. Then the Shechinah will be crowned and the holy spirits of the children of Yisrael will be invested with new, holy bodies, and they shall be called 'saints'. After 1266 years, we're now told, God shall perform many miracles and wonders, and after another 66 years, the Holy Name will be perfectly engraved, above and below. After a further 132 years, the Holy Land will be purified and God will shake the wicked from the earth and raise the dead. Finally, 144 years later, the remaining dead of Yisrael who are in other lands will also be raised, and the Other Side will be destroyed. Then, after the seventh millenium, the Shechinah will be crowned and the holy spirits of the children of Yisrael will be invested with new, holy bodies, and they shall be called Holy Ones.

Most of all, a reading of this passage fills us with awe and wonder at the grandeur and majesty of God's great plan. Knowing of the events that await us, we will cling still more devoutly to the truths of Torah and lend our prayers to the energy building up for the fierce yet triumphant days of the Messiah, when all that was and all that is will combine to form all that ever will be. The hope of these days has sustained righteous men through many a dark time, and the consciousness of this will elevate our souls to sing with joy at the sheer wonder of creation and the mystery of time wrapped in eternity.

96. Rabbi Shimon raised his hands, wept and said: Woe to he who is present at that time, and blissful is the portion of he who is present AND WILL BE ABLE TO attend at that time. AND HE EXPLAINS: Woe to he who is present at that time, because when the Holy One, blessed be He, comes to visit the Gazelle WHO IS THE SHECHINAH, He will observe who is standing by Her, and all those who are with Her. He will contemplate the actions of each and every one, and no righteous person will be found, as is written: "And I looked and there was none to help" (Yeshayah 63:5). And how many troubles upon troubles will there be for Yisrael.

97. Happy is he who is present, because he who is present at that time with Faith, will merit that light of joy of the King. In relation to that time it is written: "And I will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried" (Zechariah 13:9).

98. After these troubles have been aroused against Yisrael, all the peoples and their kings will counsel together against them, raise many bad decrees, and come upon them with one mind. There will come troubles upon troubles and the later troubles will cause the earlier ones to be forgotten. Then a pillar of fire shall be seen there, standing from above down for forty days. And all the nations of the world will see it.

99. At that time the king, Messiah, will arise to go out of the Garden of Eden from the place called the 'bird's nest' and he will become revealed in the land of Galilee. On the day that MESSIAH goes there, the whole world will tremble and all the people of the world will hide in the caves and CRACKS in the rocks and will not expect to survive. And concerning that time, it is written: "And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and in the caves of the earth, for fear of Hashem, and for the glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth terribly" (Yeshayah 2:19).

99. בהוא זמנא, יתער מלכא משיחא, לנפקא מגו גנתא דעדן, מהוא אתר דאתקרי ק"ן צפ"ר, ויתער בארעא דגליל, והוא יומא דיפוק לתמן, יתרגז כל עלמא, וכל בני עלמא מתחבאין גו מערתי וטנרי, דלא יחשבון לאשתזבא. ועל הוא זמנא כתיב, ובאו במערות צורים ובמחלות עפר מפני פחד ה' ומהדר גאווה בקומו לערוץ הארץ.

100. AND HE EXPLAINS: "For fear of Hashem." This is the trembling of the whole world, "and for the glory OF HIS majesty" is Messiah. "... When He arises to shake the earth terribly..." refers to when MESSIAH will arise and be revealed in the land of Galilee, because this was the first place in the Holy Land that was destroyed BY ASHUR. Therefore, He will be revealed there before any other place, and from there He will stir wars all over the world.

101. After 40 days, the pillar will stand from the earth to the heaven before the eyes of the whole world, and Messiah will be revealed. There will arise from the East side a star that will glow with variety of colors, and seven other stars will surround that star and will war with it on all sides, three times a day up to seventy days. And all the people of the world will see.

102. And that star will do battle with them with flames of fire that will burn and sparkle in every direction, and it will smite them until it will swallow them every night; and by day, AGAIN it shall take them out where they will battle before the eyes of the whole world. And so it shall ensue, every day for seventy days! After seventy days, that star will be hidden and Messiah will be concealed for up to twelve months. Then the pillar of fire will return as originally, and in it Messiah will be concealed, and that pillar is invisible.

103. After twelve months, Messiah will be elevated within that pillar to the sky, and there he will receive the power and crown of the Kingdom. And when he descends TO THE EARTH, that pillar of fire will again appear as originally, before the eyes of the whole world. Afterwards, Messiah will appear and many nations will gather to him and he will wage wars throughout the entire world. At that time the Holy One, blessed be He, will rise with His might against all the nations of the world. Messiah will be publicly known throughout the world, and all the kings of the world will join together to do battle with Him.

104. Many of the oppressors of Yisrael will turn and join THESE NATIONS to war against the king Messiah; then will the world darken for fifteen days. Many of Yisrael will perish during this darkness. Of this it is written: "For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples" (Yeshayah 60:2).

105. He opened the discussion saying: "If a bird's nest chance to be before you in the way in any tree or on the ground, whether they be young ones or eggs, and the mother bird sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, you shall not take the mother together with the young: but you shall surely let the mother go" (Devarim 22:6). We have explained this verse and it is one of the concealed commandments of the Torah. We have in it concealed secrets of the Torah, paths and ways known to the friends in the 32 paths of the Torah.

106. Rabbi Shimon said to his son Rabbi Elazar: Elazar, when Messiah awakens, so many other signs and miracles will be aroused in the world. Come and behold: in the terrestrial Garden of Eden, there is one place which is concealed and hidden and is not known, and it is woven with many colors. Therein are hidden a thousand pleasant chambers and no one enters them except for Messiah, who is ever present in the Garden of Eden.

107. The entire Garden is surrounded by many Chariots of the righteous, and Messiah stands over them and over many hosts and camps of souls of the righteous who are there. And Messiah enters that place on the first day of the month and festivals and Shabbatot, WHERE THERE ARE A THOUSAND CHAMBERS OF PLEASURES, to delight in all these chambers.

108. Innermost from all these THOUSAND chambers OF PLEASURES, there is one place concealed and hidden that is entirely unknown, called 'Eden'. There is no one who can conceive it. Messiah is concealed outside around that place, until a place called 'bird's nest' is revealed to him. This place is announced by the bird, which awakens daily in the Garden of Eden.

109. In that place CALLED 'BIRD'S NEST', the images of all the nations that gathered against the children of Yisrael to harm them are woven IN A GARMENT CALLED 'THE CLOAK OF MAJESTY'. MESSIAH enters that place, raises his eyes and sees the patriarchs who entered the house of Elohim that was destroyed, until he sees Rachel with tears on her cheeks. And the Holy One, blessed be He, is consoling her but she refuses to accept condolences, as it is written: "She refuses to be comforted for her children..." (Yirmeyah 31:14). Then, Messiah raises his voice and weeps, and the whole Garden of Eden shakes. All the righteous who are there break down and weep with him.

105. פתח ואמר כי יקרא קן צפור לפניך בדרך בכל עץ או על הארץ אפרוחים או ביצים והאמרובצת וגו', שלח תשלח את האם וגו', האי קרא אוקימנא ליה, ואיהו חד מפקודי אורייתא גניזין, ואנן אית לן ביה רזי דאורייתא גניזין, שבילין וארחין ידיען לחברינא, באינון תלתין ותריין שבילין דאורייתא.

107. וכל גנתא מסחרא ברכיכין סגיין דצדיקיא, ומשיח קאים עליהו, ועל כמה חילין ומשיריין דנשמתיין דצדיקיא תמן, ובראשי ירחי, ובזמני, ובשבתו, משיח עאל בהוא אתר לאשתעשעא בכל אינון היכלין.

109. ובהוא אתר, מרקמן דיוקנין דכל שאר עמין, דאתכנשו עליהו דישראל לאבאשא לון. עאל בהוא אתר, זקיף עינוי, וחזי אבהן, דעאלין בחרבן בית אלהא, עד דחמי לרחל דדמעהא באנפהא, וקודשא בריך הוא מנחם לה, ולא צביאת לקבלא תנחומין, כמה דאת אמר, מאנה להנחם על בגיה. כדון משיח ארים קליה ובכי, ואודעזע כל גנתא דערן, וכל אינון צדיקיא דתמן געו ובכו עמיה.

110. He cries bitterly a second time, and the firmament above the Garden trembles. So too do 15,000,000 supernal angels until MESSIAH reaches the supernal throne. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, motions to that bird. It enters its nest, sits next to Messiah, and cries whatever it cries and awakens whatever it awakens.

111. This continues until from the holy throne, WHICH IS BINAH, that same bird's nest is called three times - NAMELY THE THREE COLUMNS, ONE AFTER THE OTHER. Messiah and everyone then ascend above TO BINAH, and the Holy One, blessed be He, makes them swear to remove the Wicked Kingdom from the world through Messiah, to avenge Yisrael and TO DRAW all the goodness that the Holy One, blessed be He, will do for His people. The bird's nest and Messiah then return to their places and Messiah is again concealed in that place, THAT IS, THE BIRD'S NEST, as previously!

112. At the time that the Holy One, blessed be He, will be aroused to remedy the worlds, and the letters of the Name will illuminate completely. The Yud OF THE NAME, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH, WILL ILLUMINATE the Hei, WHICH IS BINAH; Vav OF THE NAME, WHICH IS TIFERET, WILL ILLUMINATE the SECOND Hei, WHICH IS MALCHUT. YUD- HEI will be in complete union WITH VAV-HEI - THAT IS TO SAY, one awful star will rise, WHICH IS TIFERET, CALLED 'AWFUL', in the middle of the firmament, IT BEING THE CENTRAL COLUMN, of the color purple, THAT AS IT INCLUDES ALL THE COLORS, SO IT INCLUDES ALL THE THREE COLUMNS. It will flame and sparkle by day, MEANING WITH THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM CALLED 'DAY', before the eyes of the whole world - MEANING ALSO WITH THE LIGHT OF CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS CALLED 'EYES'.

114. Then the star will ascend to the south side, WHICH IS THE RIGHT COLUMN AND THE LIGHT OF CHESED, AND CHASSADIM WILL AGAIN ILLUMINATE THE WORLD. THUS, it will rule over the flame, and the flame will be swallowed bit by bit in the firmament because of the star, until it is no longer visible. Then the star will make pathways in the sky in twelve borders. AND WHEN ITS THREE COLUMNS WILL BE INCLUDED IN EACH ONE OF CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT, THREE TIMES FOUR ARE TWELVE PATHWAYS. And these lights will stand in the sky for twelve days. FOR EVEN MALCHUT ITSELF ILLUMINATES ONLY IN THE THREE COLUMNS CHESED, GVURAH, AND TIFERET. BUT MALCHUT IN IT DOES NOT ILLUMINATE; THEREFORE, THERE ARE ONLY TWELVE LIGHTS.

115. WHEN HE DESIRES TO DRAW THEIR ILLUMINATION after twelve days, MEANING TO THE ASPECT OF MALCHUT, all the people of the world will tremble BECAUSE OF THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT IN MALCHUT. The sun will be darkened at midday, as it was darkened on the day that the Temple was destroyed, to a point that both heaven and earth will not be visible. And a sound will erupt in thunder and lightning, MEANING A SOUND FROM THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT IN MALCHUT. The world will shudder because of that sound, and numerous hosts and companies will perish because of it.

116. And that day, WHICH IS MALCHUT, WILL CAUSE there to be ignited in the great city of Rome - WHICH IS THE SECRET OF BINAH OF KLIPOT - a flame of fire, WHICH IS THE JUDGMENTS OF THE LEFT. That sound will be stirred up in the whole world, WHICH IS FROM THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT IN MALCHUT, THAT IS, THESE TWO KINDS OF JUDGMENTS WILL BE COMBINED. It will burn many towers and many palaces, and many towers will collapse and many potentates and ministers will fall on that day. All of them, MEANING ALL OF THE JUDGMENTS, will gather upon it to cause harm. And all the people of the world will be unable to be saved.

117. From that day for twelve months time, THAT IS, UNTIL THE ILLUMINATIONS OF THE TWELVE BOUNDARIES ALSO IN MALCHUT SHALL BE REMEDIED - BECAUSE IN ZEIR ANPIN THEY ARE CALLED TWELVE DAYS, BUT IN MALCHUT THEY ARE CALLED 'TWELVE MONTHS' - all the kings will counsel and will make numerous decrees and numerous persecutions against Yisrael and they will succeed with them. As we learned, "Fortunate is he who will chance to be there," MEANING IN THE DAYS OF MESSIAH. Fortunate is he who will not be there, THAT HE WILL BE SAVED FROM THESE JUDGMENTS, and the whole world will be greatly confused.

118. At the end of twelve months, MEANING AFTER THE TWELVE LIGHTS IN MALCHUT ARE RECTIFIED, there will arise a tribe in Yisrael, which is the king Messiah who will awaken in the Garden of Eden. All the righteous will crown him there, and will gird him with weapons with engraved letters of the vessels of the Holy Name.

119. A voice will explode in the branches of the trees in the garden that cries powerfully and says: Awaken, supernal Holy Ones, arise before Messiah. Behold, it is the time for a wife to join with her husband, MEANING TIFERET WITH MALCHUT. Her husband, TIFERET, wishes to avenge her in the world, raise her and shake the dust off her.

119. וְקָלָא יִתְמוּצֵץ בְּעַנְפֵי אֵילָנִין דְּגִנְתָּא, קְרִי בְּחִיל, וְאָמַר, אִתְעַרו קְדִישֵי עֲלִיוֹנִין, קוּמוּ מִקְמֵי מְשִׁיחָא, הָא עַדְנָא לְאַתְחַבְרָא אִיתְתָּא בְּבַעֲלָהּ, וּבַעֲלָהּ בְּעֵי לְנַקְמָא לָהּ נּוֹקְמִין דְּעֲלָמָא, וְלֹאֲקָמָא לָהּ, וְלֹאֲנַעְרָה לָהּ מֵעַפְרָא.

120. בְּדִין יְקוּמוּן כֻּלְהוּ, וַיַּחְגְּרוּן לֵיה בְּמַלְקָדְמִין מְאִנֵי זַיִנָּיָה, אֲבַרְהָם מִיְמִינָיָה, יִצְחָק מְשִׁמְאֵלָיָה, יַעֲקֹב קַמֵּיָה, מֹשֶׁה רַעִיָּא מְהֵימְנָא, עַל כָּל אֵלִין צְדִיקָיָא, אֲזִיל וְרְקִיד גּוֹ גְנַתָּא דְּעַדָּן.

121. As soon as Messiah is perfected through the righteous in the Garden of Eden, he will enter as before in this place that is called 'bird's nest'. He sees a picture of the destroyed Temple and all the righteous who were killed there. Then, he takes from there ten garments called 'garments of jealousy' to be hidden there for forty days and not to be revealed at all.

122. At the end of forty days, a voice will stir and will call from the Supernal throne, WHICH IS BINAH, to the bird's nest that conceals the king Messiah. Then he is raised up. And the Holy One, blessed be He, sees the King Messiah who is dressed in garments of revenge and is girded with his weapons. He takes him and kisses him on his head.

123. Then 390 firmaments tremble and the Holy One, blessed be He, beckoned to one firmament that had been concealed since the Six Days of Creation, and took a crown engraved with Holy Names from one chamber in that firmament. The Holy One, blessed be He, who crowned Himself with this crown when Yisrael crossed the sea to take revenge on the chariots and riders of Pharaoh, then crowned the King Messiah with THE CROWN.

124. Once MESSIAH was crowned and perfected with all these perfections, the Holy One, blessed be He, took him and kissed him again. Who saw this? The holy Chariots and companies of supernal angels that surround him and give him presents and many precious things. He is crowned with them all.

125. He enters there into one chamber and sees all the supernal angels who are called the 'Mourners of Zion'. They weep over the destruction of the Temple and weep constantly, and they give him a royal purple garment to avenge. Then the Holy One, blessed be He, conceals him in that bird's nest, and he is hidden there for thirty days.

126. After thirty days, having disappeared in that bird's nest, he will descend ornamented with all those adornments from above, with many holy companies around him, and the whole world will see one light suspended from the sky to the earth. It will remain seven days IN THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT IN MALCHUT, AND CAN BE FOUND ILLUMINATING EVEN IN MALCHUT OF MALCHUT. All the inhabitants of the world will wonder and be shocked and will not understand at all, except for those sages who know these secrets - blessed be their portion.

127. And all these seven days, he will be adorned on the earth - WHICH IS THE SECRET OF MALCHUT - in that bird's nest, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "IF A BIRD'S NEST CHANCE TO BE BEFORE YOU" (DEVARIM 22:6) THAT ALLUDES TO THE KING MESSIAH WHO IS ADORNED WITH A BIRD'S NEST. Which place is it? "In the way," which is the grave of Rachel, for she stands on the crossroads. MESSIAH IS ALSO ADORNED WITH THE LIGHT OF MALCHUT OF MALCHUT THAT IS CAPABLE OF THE GATHERING OF THE EXILES. Therefore, he will bear these good tidings to her and console her. Then she will accept consolations, UNLIKE AS DESCRIBED PREVIOUSLY: "SHE REFUSES TO BE COMFORTED FOR HER CHILDREN BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT" (YIRMEYAH 31:14). And she will arise and kiss MESSIAH!

128. Then shall the light arise from that place, THAT IS, RACHEL'S GRAVE, and settle in Yericho, the city of trees, AS IS WRITTEN: "In any tree" (Devarim 22:6) - which is Yericho, THE CITY OF PALM TREES, THAT JOSHUA WAS NOT ABLE TO MEND COMPLETELY. THEREFORE HE SAID, "CURSED BE THE MAN BEFORE HASHEM, THAT RISES UP TO BUILD THIS CITY YERICHO" (YEHOSHUA 6:26), BECAUSE IT IS DRAWN FROM THE ATTRIBUTES OF JUDGMENT WHICH IS IN MALCHUT OF MALCHUT, AND NOW MESSIAH WILL MEND IT WITH THE LIGHT OF THE SEVEN DAYS. "Or on the ground" (Devarim 22:6), this is Jerusalem WHICH IS THE EXTERNAL PART OF MALCHUT, and he will be concealed in that light in the bird's nest for twelve months.

129. After twelve months, that light will be stretched between the heaven and the earth and rest on in the Land of Galilee, since the exile of Yisrael, NAMELY THE EXILE OF ASHUR, was initiated in Galilee. Then will MESSIAH be revealed from that very same light of the "bird's nest," and return to his place. On that day, the whole earth will tremble as earlier, from one end of heaven to the other end, and then the whole world will see that Messiah has been revealed in the land of Galilee!

130. And all those who were occupied with Torah, THOSE WHO ARE CALLED IN THE VERSE 'CHILDREN' ('YOUNG'), will gather to him. They are few in the world, and in the merit of school children, the strength OF MESSIAH will grow greatly. And this is the secret of the young IN THE VERSE. And if these are not to be found, then the infants that sit in their mother's lap and suckle, as written, "Those that are weaned from milk, and removed from the breasts" (Yeshayah 28:9); these are the "eggs" (Devarim 22:6). It is because of these that the Shechinah dwells with the children of Yisrael in the exile.

131. For the sages WHO ARE CALLED 'CHILDREN' ('YOUNG') will be few in that time, and this is what is meant: "And the mother bird sitting upon the young or upon the eggs, do not take the mother bird together with the young," SINCE THEN THERE WILL BE NO CHILDREN. THEREFORE, DO NOT TAKE THE MOTHER, WHO IS SHECHINAH; and MESSIAH will tarry up to another twelve months. Then Her husband, WHO IS ZEIR ANPIN, will come to raise her from the dust as is said, "I will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen" (Amos 9:11).

129. בְּתֵר תְּרִיסֵר יִרְחִי, וַיִּדְקַף הָהוּא נְהִירוֹ בֵּין שְׁמַיָא וְאַרְעָא, וַיְשָׂרֵי בְּאַרְעָא דְגָלִיל, דְתִמְן הוּא שִׁירוּתָא דְגְלוּתָא דְיִשְׂרָאֵל. וְתִמְן יִתְגַּלִּי מֵהוּא נְהִירוֹ דְקָן צְפוּר, וְתָב לְאַתְרִיהּ. וְהוּא יוֹמָא יִזְדַּעֵזַע כָּל אֶרְעָא כְּמַלְקֵדְמִין, מְסִיפִי שְׁמַיָא עַד סִינִי שְׁמַיָא, וּבְדִין יַחֲזוּן כָּל עַלְמָא, דְהָא אֶתְגַּלִּי מְלַכָּא מְשִׁיחָא, בְּאַרְעָא דְגָלִיל.

130. וַיִּתְבַּנְּשׁוּן לִיה כָּל אֵינֹן דְלַעָאן בְּאוּרִייתָא, וְאֵינֹן זְעִירִין בְּעַלְמָא. וּבְזָכוּת יְנוּקֵי דְבֵי רַב, יִתְתַּקֵּף חִילִיָּה לְאַתְגַּבְרָא, וְרָזָא דָּא אֶפְרוּחִים. וְאִי לָא יִשְׁתַּכְחוּן אֵלִין, הָא יְנוּקֵי דִיתְבִּין בְּתוּקְפָא דְאַמְהוּן וַיִּנְקִי, כַּד"א, גְּמוּלֵי מַחְלָב עֵתִיקֵי מְשָׁדִים. וְהֵינֵנוּ אוּ בִינְצִים, דְבָגִין אֵלִין, שְׂרִיא שְׁכִינְתָא עִמְהוּן דְיִשְׂרָאֵל בְּגְלוּתָא.

131. דְהָא חֲבִימִין זְעִירִין אֵינֹן דִּישְׁתַּכְחוּן בְּהוּא זְמַנָּא, וְהֵינֵנוּ וְהָאֵם רוּבְצַת עַל הָאֶפְרוּחִים אוֹ עַל הַבָּצִים, לָא תִקַּח הָאֵם עַל הַבָּנִים וַיִּתְעַכֵּב עַד תְּרִיסֵר יִרְחִין אַחֲרָנִין. לְבִתֵּר, יִיתִי בְעֵלָהּ, וַיּוֹקִים לָהּ מֵעַמְרָא, כַּד"א, אָקִים אֶת סֶכֶת דָּוִד הַנִּפְלָתָה.

132. On that day, Messiah will start to gather the exiled from one end of the world to the other, as it is written: "If your outcast be at the utmost parts of heaven..." (Devarim 30:4). From that day, all the signs and miracles and mighty acts that the Holy One, blessed be He, performed in Egypt, He will perform for Yisrael: "As in the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt I will show him marvelous things" (Michah 7:15).

133. Rabbi Shimon said: Elazar my son, all these things you shall find in the secret of 32 paths OF CHOCHMAH of the Holy Name. And as long as these miracles do not happen in the world, the secret of the Holy Name will not be completed, nor will love awaken - as it is said: "I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem by the gazelles for hosts or by the hinds of the fields" (Shir Hashirm 2:7). Hosts refer to the King Messiah, who is so called "The kinds of the fields." This refers to the other hosts and encampments below. "That you stir not up, nor awake my love" (Ibid.), is the right hand of the Holy One, blessed be He, MEANING THE SFIRAH OF CHESED, which is called 'love'. "Till it please," refers to she who lies in the dust, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH IN EXILE, that the King should desire her! Righteous is he who will have the merit to be in that generation. He is righteous in this world and righteous in the World to Come.

134. Rabbi Shimon raised his hands in prayer before the Holy One, blessed be He, and prayed. After he recited his prayer, his son, Rabbi Elazar, and Rabbi Aba sat before him. While they were sitting before him, they saw a ray of daylight become dim, and a conduit of flaming fire, THAT IS, A STREAM OF BURNING FIRE, sink into the sea of Galilee, and the whole place was agitated.

135. Rabbi Shimon said: Certainly now is the time that the Holy One, blessed be He, remembers His children, and He lowers two tears into the Great Sea. As they descend, they touch this conduit of flaming fire and sink TOGETHER into the sea, one with the other. Rabbi Shimon wept and the friends wept.

136. Rabbi Shimon said: I have stirred in the secret of the letters of the Holy Name in the secret of the awakening OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, towards His children. But now I may reveal that which was not permitted to any other person to reveal, but the merit of this generation will preserve the world till the King Messiah will come. Rabbi Shimon said to his son Rabbi Elazar and to Rabbi Aba: Get up on your legs. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Aba got up. Rabbi Shimon wept a second time and said: Oh, who will arise then? For what I see is that the exile will be lengthened. Who will be able to endure?

137. RABBI SHIMON also got up and said: "O Hashem our Elohim; other masters besides You have had dominion over us. But by You only will we make mention of Your Name" (Yeshayah 26:13). This verse is explained. But this verse contains a supernal secret in the secret of Faith. "Hashem our Elohim," is the beginning of the supernal secrets, NAMELY CHOCHMAH AND BINAH. From these, all the light emanates to kindle all the candles, MEANING THAT ALL THE MOCHIN OF MALE AND FEMALE AND BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH EMANATE FROM CHOCHMAH AND BINAH THAT ARE CALLED "HASHEM OUR ELOHIM." There is the essence of the entire secret of Faith, WHICH IS FEMALE, MEANING IN THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "AND OF THE SIDE WHICH HASHEM ELOHIM HAD TAKEN..." (BERESHEET. 2:22) WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH AND BINAH. THE SIDE IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA, WHICH IS CALLED 'FAITH'.

138. "Other masters besides You have had dominion over us." There is no one to dominate over the nation of Yisrael except for the Supernal Name, HASHEM OUR ELOHIM, AS EARLIER MENTIONED. And now in exile, the Other Side holds dominion over it. THIS IS WHAT IS WRITTEN: "OTHER MASTERS BESIDES YOU HAVE HAD DOMINION OVER US."

139. "But by You only will we make mention of Your Name," (Yeshayah 26:13) MEANING the secret of the Holy Name, NAMELY THE NUKVA, is the inclusion of all 22 letters. THEREFORE, SHE IS CALLED 'ET' (ALEPH-TAV), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE 22 LETTERS FROM ALEPH TO TAV. And the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is blessed only through that name called 'Becha' ('by you'), WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN THAT INCLUDES ALSO 22 LETTERS, LIKE "BECHA" WHICH NUMERICALLY TOTALS 22, as is written: "To whom You did swear by Your own self (Heb. becha)" (Shemot 32:13). "By You (Heb. becha) shall Yisrael bless" (Bereshheet 48:20) and "For by You (Heb. becha) I run upon a troop" (Tehilim 18:30) also ALLUDE TO ZEIR ANPIN. At the time when perfection was prevalent, the ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA were not separated from each other. And it is prohibited to separate them one from the other, a wife from her husband, neither in thought, nor by allusion, in order not to show separation. And now in exile, separation is prevalent because of the trouble THAT COMES UPON US at all times, which we cause THROUGH THIS separation by mentioning that name - WHICH IS THE NUKVA away from her husband, ZEIR ANPIN, because she is lying on the dust. This is: "But by You only will we make mention of Your Name..."

140. HE EXPLAINS: WHEN THE NUKVA is separated from her husband, IT IS CONSIDERED as if we mention this name separately, since we are far from You. AND WE CAUSED that others should rule over us. And Your Name, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is separated from the name becha (Lit. 'In You') WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, AS MENTIONED EARLIER. And this is so during the days of exile.

141. The first exile was since the First Temple and the First Temple is the secret of the first Hei OF THE NAME YUD HEI VAV HEI, WHICH IS BINAH. Corresponding to its seventy years, WHICH ARE THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD AND MALCHUT, the exile of the First Temple lasted seventy years, SINCE EVERY SFIROT INCLUDES TEN, TOTALING SEVENTY. During these seventy years, the mother, WHICH IS THE THREE FIRST SFIROT OF BINAH, was not sitting on them and they were separated from the Supernal Name, which is the secret of the first Hei OF YUD HEI VAV HEI. Then the Yud OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, which is the supernal secret OF BINAH, ascends above, above into the Endless World (Heb. Ein Sof), and the First Temple, WHICH IS BINAH, does not gush forth a flow of living water, because its source, WHICH IS THE YUD OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH, has departed.

142. And it, THE FIRST HEI OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, is the seventy years in exile, because it is called 'seven years' as is said: "So was he seven years in building it" (I Melachim 6:38), REFERRING TO THE FIRST TEMPLE, WHICH IS THE FIRST HEI. HE ASKS: Would you say that the kingdom of Babylon ruled above in the secret of seventy years, WHICH IS BINAH? Heaven forbid! AND HE ANSWERS: During the time that the Temple existed, the pouring forth of the Supernal Mother, WHICH IS BINAH, illuminated and descended below. However, when Yisrael sinned and the Temple was destroyed, the Kingdom of Babylon reigned, that light was covered and darkened, and the holy lower beings did not illuminate.

143. Since the lower beings were not illuminating, because of the dominion of the kingdom of Babylon, that light OF BINAH departed and that supernal emanation that poured forth TO BINAH - which is the secret of Yud OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH - withdrew higher and higher into the Endless World. Then those seventy years OF BINAH did not illuminate because of that illumination OF THE YUD that was prevented FROM ILLUMINATING UPON THE HEI. This was certainly the exile of seventy years OF BINAH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE FIRST TEMPLE.

144. As soon as the reign of Babylon was removed and the second Hei OF YUD-HEI-VAV-HEI commenced to illuminate, all of Yisrael did not purify to be a perfect possession as earlier, but rather bit by bit RETURNED FROM BABYLONIAN EXILE TO THE LAND OF YISRAEL. And since there was no perfection, the Yud OF YUD HEI VAV HEI did not descend to illuminate as it illuminated originally, but rather bit by bit without order, because Yisrael were not purified properly, as before. Therefore, the Supernal Fountain, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE YUD OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, did not gush forth and did not illuminate. It returned to illuminate bit by bit because of the need of the Name.

145. Therefore, the children of Yisrael were challenged in many wars until the darkness covered the earth and the Lower Hei, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, became darkened and fell to the earth. The Supernal Fountain, WHICH IS THE YUD OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, withdrew again, because the kingdom of Edom became strong and the children of Yisrael returned to their sins.

146. Therefore, the LOWER Hei, WHICH IS the Second Temple that was destroyed, and all its twelve tribes, OF THE LOWER HEI - as the number of the legions OF YISRAEL, WHO ARE THE TWELVE TRIBES OF YAH - are in exile of the kingdom of Edom. And the Supernal Fountain, WHICH IS THE VAV OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, ZEIR ANPIN, withdrew from that fountain that it supplies, WHICH IS YESOD OF ZEIR ANPIN. As it is said: "the righteous perishes...(lost)" (Yeshayah 57:1) - WHICH IS YESOD, that lost that outpouring of the upper source that flowed from above.

142. ואֵיהִי ע' שָׁנִין בְּגִלוּתָא, בְּגִין דְּאֵיהִי ז' שָׁנִין אֶקְרִי, כְּד"א וַיִּבְנֶהוּ שְׁבַע שָׁנִים. וְאִי תִימָא, דְּשִׁלְטָא מְלָכוֹת בְּבַל לְעִילָא בְּרָזָא דְע' שָׁנִין, ח"ו. אֲלֵא בְּזִמְנָא דְהוּא בִי מְקַדְשָׁא קַיִים, נְהוּרָא וְנִבְיָעוּ דְאִמָּא עֲלָאָה, הוּא נְהִיר וְנִחִית לְתַתָּא. בִּינּוּ דְחָטוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְאִתְחַרְבּ מְקַדְשָׁא, וְשִׁלְטָא מְלָכוֹת בְּבַל, הוּא חֲפִי, וְאִחְשִׁיךְ הָהוּא נְהִירוֹ, וְתַתָּאי קְדִישִׁין לֹא הוּוּ נְהִירִין.

145. וע"ד, אֶתְגְּרוּ בְּהוּ בְּיִשְׂרָאֵל קְרִבִין סְגִיָּאִין, עַד דְּהִחְשֵׁךְ יְכֶסֶה אֶרֶץ, וְה' תַּתָּאָה אִתְחַשֵּׁךְ, וְנִפְלַת לְאֶרֶעָא, וְנִבְיָעוּ עֲלָאָה אֲסַתְלַק בְּמַלְקְדִּמִין, בְּגִין דְּמְלָכוֹת אֲדוּם אִתְתַּקַּף, וְיִשְׂרָאֵל אֶהְדְּרוּ לְסַרְחַנְיָיְהוּ.

146. וע"ד, ה' בֵּית שְׁנֵי אִתְחַרְבּ, וְכָל אִינוּן תְּרִיסַר שְׁבֻטִין דִּילָהּ, כְּחוּשְׁבָן מְשֻׁרִין דְּלְהוּן, אִינוּן בְּגִלוּתָא דְּמְלָכוֹת אֲדוּם. וְנִבְיָעוּ עֲלָאָה, אֲסַתְלַק מֵהָהוּא נִבְיָעוּ, דְּקִיּוּמָא עֲלָהּ, כְּד"א, הַצְדִּיק אָבַד, אָבַד הָהוּא נִבְיָעוּ דְּמְקוּרָא עֲלָאָה, דְּהוּא נִגִיד וּמְשֻׁרִין מְלְעִילָא.

147. Then there was a separation in the Hei, WHICH IS THE Second Temple, THAT SEPARATED FROM THE VAV OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, and it GOES INTO the exile in Edom with all these twelve tribes and their legions OF YISRAEL. Twelve tribes add up to a great number, AS WRITTEN BEFORE US, and since the secret of the Hei was included in this number, the exile therefore continues A LONG TIME.

148. The secret of secrets is given over to the wise of heart. The ten tribes are one thousand years. Two tribes are two hundred years. SINCE TWELVE LIGHTS OF THE NUKVA, WHICH ARE CALLED 'TRIBES', ARE DRAWN FROM BINAH, WHOSE SFIROT ARE IN THE SECRET OF HUNDREDS, THEY ARE THEREFORE TWELVE HUNDRED. Tears started to fall - MEANING THAT RABBI SHIMON STARTED WEEPING. He opened the discussion saying, "She weeps sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks" (Eichah 1:2). At the end of the twelve tribes of exile, MEANING AT THE END OF ONE THOUSAND AND TWO HUNDRED AS MENTIONED, the night will darken for Yisrael until the Vav awakens at the sixty-sixth year.

149. At the end of twelve tribes, which are twelve hundred years of exile, and at the end of 66 years of the darkness of night, WHICH IS THE EXILE: "Then will I remember My covenant with Jacob" (Vayikra 26:42), WHICH IS TIFERET. This is the awakening of the letter Vav - WHICH IS TIFERET, WHICH IS THE VAV OF YUD HEI VAV HEI - which is soul, MEANING THE INNER PART of the house of Jacob; WHICH IS THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED THE 'HOUSE OF JACOB'. And this is the secret of: "All the souls that came with Jacob were sixty-six" (Bereshheet 46:26), which is Vav, the soul of the Second Temple, the secret of the lower Hei. And this Vav is the secret of 66, sixty for the awakening of Jacob, WHO IS TIFERET, and six for the awakening of Joseph, WHO IS YESOD. Therefore, it is A FULLY SPELLED Vav (Vav-Vav), WHICH ALLUDES TO TIFERET AND YESOD, which are two in one combination and one secret, BECAUSE YESOD AND TIFERET ARE CONSIDERED AS ONE AND ARE THEREFORE ALLUDED TO IN THE TWO VAVS OF THE FULLY SPELLED VAV, WHICH FORM ONE LETTER.

150. From then on, the Holy One, Blessed be He, will stir these miracles and signs that we mentioned earlier, and all the troubles that we said will rise against Yisrael. Then it is said: "And also My covenant with Isaac," (Vayikra 26:42) BECAUSE ISAAC IS THE SECRET OF GVURAH AND JUDGMENT. Afterwards, Messiah will wage wars throughout the whole world with the right hand of the Holy One, blessed be He, WHICH IS CHESED, as is said: "Your right hand, Hashem, is glorious in power" (Shemot 15:6). Then IT IS SAID: "And also My covenant with Abraham will I remember," (Vayikra 26:42) FOR ABRAHAM IS THE SECRET OF CHESED. Afterwards, "And I will remember the land" (Ibid.). This is the last Hei OF YUD HEI VAV HEI; NAMELY, THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED 'LAND'. About that time it is written: "And Hashem shall be king over all the earth; on that day Hashem shall be One and His Name One" (Zecharyah 14:9).

151. After the end of 66 more years, which is 132 years TOGETHER WITH THE AFOREMENTIONED 66, the letters in the Holy Name, OF THE 66, will appear engraved to perfection, above IN TIFERET and below IN THE NUKVA, as is proper. This is the secret of the supernal and lower Hei THAT ARE IN THE LOWER HEI FULLY SPELLED (HEI-HEI). SIMILAR TO VAV, THAT CONTAINS ANOTHER VAV WHEN FULLY SPELLED, AS MENTIONED THAT THE UPPER VAV EMANATES THE SECRET OF SIXTY TO THE UPPER HEI, AND THE LOWER VAV EMANATES THE SECRET OF SIX TO THE LOWER HEI. And all these paths, which are 32 years OF THE AFOREMENTIONED 132, are included in the secret of the letters Vav-Hei, Vav-Hei, THE FIRST VAV-HEI BEING TWO TIMES SIXTY, AND THE SECOND VAV-HEI BEING TWO TIMES SIX, AS MENTIONED TOGETHER THEY AMOUNT TO 132, OUT OF WHICH, THE NUMBER 32 ALLUDES TO the secret of the completeness of 132, MEANING THAT THE PREPARATION WAS MADE IN THEM TO RECEIVE THE 32 PATHS OF WISDOM FROM THE YUD OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, AS WRITTEN BEFORE.

152. At the end of the other 132 years - AS THOSE 132 THAT WERE COMPLETED IN TIFERET AND THE NUKVA, WHICH ARE VAV-HEI OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, ALSO HAVE TO ILLUMINATE IN CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, WHICH ARE YUD-HEI OF YUD HEI VAV HEI - THE VERSE will be fulfilled: "That it might take hold of the ends of the earth that the wicked might be shaken out of it" (Iyov 38:13). The Holy Land will be purified and the Holy One, blessed be He, will resurrect the dead in the Holy Land, and hosts upon hosts will arise in the Galilee.

153. Then will be mended the obstruction, which is in the Supernal Fountain OF YUD HEI VAV HEI - WHICH IS the letter Yud, WHICH IS CHOCHMAH - and the 32 paths IN CHOCHMAH will be established in completeness to emanate down. The letters of the Holy Name will be established, all of them completely, MEANING THE NAME Yud Hei Vav Hei, that was not complete heretofore.

154. Then shall come the time that the Supernal Fountain will flow and be drawn, WHICH IS YUD CONNECTED WITH HEI-VAV, WHICH ARE BINAH AND TIFERET, into the last Hei OF THE YUD HEI VAV HEI, WHICH IS THE NUKVA. This will be at the culmination of another 144 years. FOR THEY ARE THE SECRET OF THE THIRD 132 TO BE THERE WITH THE TWELVE TRIBES THAT ARE IN THE NUKVA, WHICH TOGETHER ARE 144 YEARS. The other dead in the other countries will be resurrected, NAMELY THE DEAD OUTSIDE OF THE LAND OF YISRAEL.

155. All this adds up to Chet-Tav, WHICH ARE TWO TIMES 132, PLUS 144 WHICH TOTALS TAV-CHET (=408). The world will settle and have fragrance, and the Other Side will be removed from the world. And the lower Hei, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, will become filled from the Supernal Fountain, WHICH IS YUD OF YUD HEI VAV HEI AND THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH, and be crowned and illuminated perfectly. Then, it is written: "And the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold" (Yeshayah 30:26).

There will be a Shabbat for Hashem to gather souls with holy delight, NAMELY TO DRAW ADDITIONAL SOULS IN THE SECRET OF THE SUPERNAL UNION, during the entire seventh millennium, WHICH IS ENTIRELY SHABBAT. This is the stirring of the Holy Spirits of the nation of Yisrael to clothe themselves after Shabbat - NAMELY AFTER THE SEVENTH MILLENIUM - in other holy bodies, so as to be called 'Holy Ones', as is written: "And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remains in Jerusalem shall be called Holy..." (Yeshayah 4:3). Up to this point are words of the concealed secrets.

16. "Now there arose a new king," part two

Here, Rabbi Yosi explains that God creates new angels every day. The reference to "a new king" in the title verse alludes to the creation of a new supernal representative for Egypt that emanated from the place of Separation. Consequently, "he knew not Joseph," since Joseph represents the sphere where unity rests, called Righteousness.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reminds us that God's labor did not stop with the creation of the world. He constantly creates and renews the universe and every single thing that is in it. The knowledge of this will help to make us more sincere and energetic in our efforts to help complete the Great Work, rousing us to pray at night and work all day, for to be conscious when one's consciousness is filled with the glory of God is worth more than any sleep or rest from labor.

157. "Now there arose a new king" (Shemot 1:8). Rabbi Yosi says: Every day the Holy One, blessed be He, makes angels into messengers to the world, as is written: "Who makes the winds His messengers" (Tehilim 104:4). It is not written, 'made', but rather, "makes," in the PRESENT TENSE, because every day He "makes." And at that time was appointed AN ANGEL as an overseer of Egypt, and the meaning of: "Now there arose a new king." He is definitely new, FOR HE IS THE OVERSEER THAT THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, JUST MADE.

157. וַיִּקָּם מֶלֶךְ חָדָשׁ. ר' יוֹסִי אָמַר, בְּכֹל יוֹמָא, קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא עֲבִיד מְלָאכִין שְׁלִיחִין עַל עֲלְמָא, דְּכַתִּיב, עוֹשֶׂה מְלָאכִיו רוּחוֹת. עֹשֶׂה לֹא כְּתִיב, אֶלָּא עוֹשֶׂה, בְּגִין דְּכֹל יוֹמָא וַיּוֹמָא עוֹשֶׂה. וּבַהּוּא זְמַנָּא אֲתַמְנָא מְמַנָּא חַד עַל מִצְרַיִם, וְדָא אִיהוּ דְּכַתִּיב וַיִּקָּם מֶלֶךְ חָדָשׁ, חָדָשׁ וְדָאִי.

158. "Who knew not Joseph" (Shemot 1:8), because THE OVERSEER was from the place of separation, as is written: "And from thence it was parted, AND BRANCHED INTO FOUR STREAMS" (Beresheet 2:10). The first to separate was the River of Egypt, AS IS WRITTEN: "THE NAME OF THE FIRST WAS PISHON" (IBID. 11), WHICH IS THE RIVER OF EGYPT. Because of this, he knew not Joseph, who is the place where all unity resides, which is called 'righteous'. FOR JOSEPH IS THE SECRET OF YESOD, WHICH IS CALLED 'RIGHTEOUS' BECAUSE ALL THE UNIONS OF ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA ARE MADE ITS HELP. AND THE SEPARATION DOES NOT WANT TO KNOW THE UNION.

158. אֲשֶׁר לֹא יָדַע אֶת יוֹסֵף: דְּהָא מֵאֲתֵר דְּפִרְוּדָא הוּוּ, כַּד"א, וּמִשָּׁם יִפְרֵד וְקַדְמָאָה מֵהוּא פִּרְוּדָא, נִהְרָא דְּמִצְרַיִם אִיהוּ. וּבְגִין כֵּן אֲשֶׁר לֹא יָדַע אֶת יוֹסֵף, אֲתֵר דְּכֹל יְחוּדָא שְׂרִינָא בֵּיהּ, דְּאֶקְרִי צְדִיק.

17. The morning star

Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosi are travelling at dawn when they see two stars shooting across the sky from opposite sides. After explaining that it is the time when the morning stars prepare to glorify God's Name, Rabbi Elazar proceeds to discuss the verse, "To the chief musician upon the morning star..." The "hind of the morning," we're told, indicates the time when the east lightens and the darkness of night disperses. An angel that oversees the east draws a thread of light from the south until the sun rises and illuminates the world. Then a black light comes to unite with the day, as the light of day (which signifies Zeir Anpin) draws the hind of the morning (which signifies the Nukva) to include it. David composed a psalm about this hind when it was separated from day after being included in it. Thus, we learn that the verse, "My El, my El, why have You forsaken me?" mourns the separation of the Nukva from Zeir Anpin.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section awakens the consciousness to the spiritual dimensions of the universe and is essential in the process of meditation, which can be based upon concentration on a light like the star that sits in the eastern sky to herald the dawn. Focus on such a light and the sense that it is but a small speck of God's limitless brilliance which shines through it will draw down the divine rays to illuminate our lives and the world, so we may never again feel the sorrow of separation.

159. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Yosi were walking on the road, and they left before the light of day. They saw a star flying on one side and another THAT WAS FLYING on another side. Rabbi Elazar said: The time has now arrived for the morning stars to praise their Master, and they are running, because of the fear and terror of their Master to praise and sing BEFORE HIM. This is what is written: "When the morning stars sang together and all the children of Elohim shouted for joy (Iyov 38:7). Because all the stars together praises before Him."

160. He opened the discussion saying: "To the chief musician upon Ayelet Hashachar ('the morning star' - lit. 'the hind of dawn'), a psalm of David" (Tehilim 22:1). 'The hind of dawn' MEANS when the east lights up and the darkness of night is dispersed, there is one overseer for the east side - WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN - that draws one thread of light from the south side, WHICH IS THE RIGHT COLUMN, until the sun rises, and cracks the windows of the firmament and illuminates the world. And the thread THAT IT DRAWS FROM THE SOUTH SIDE disperses the darkness of the night.

161. Then comes the hind of dawn, MEANING THAT a black light comes - WHICH IS THE NUKVA IN THE SECRET OF THE HIND OF DAWN - to unite with the day, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, and the day shines. The light of day includes and draws into it that hind, WHICH IS NUKVA. David composed a psalm about this hind, when it was separated from the day after it was already included in it, as is written: "To the chief musician upon the hind of dawn."

162. And DAVID said: "My El, my El, why have you forsaken me?" (Tehilim 22:2) because the hind of dawn, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, had separated from the light of day, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. THEREFORE, SHE HAD NOTHING TO BESTOW AND HAD LEFT HIM. While they were still walking, daylight appeared and the time for prayer arrived. Rabbi Elazar said: Let us pray and then go. They sat down and prayed, and afterwards they arose and went.

159. ר' אלעזר ור' יוסי הוו אזלי באורחא, וקדימו בנהורא למיזל. חמו חד כוכבא דהוה רהיט מסטרא דא, וכוכבא אחרא מסטרא דא. א"ר אלעזר, השתא מטא זמנא דכוכבי בקר לשבחא למאריהון, ורהיטי מדחילו ואימתא דמאריהון, לשבחא ולזמרא ליה, הה"ד, ברן יחד כוכבי בקר ויריעו כל בני אלהים. בגין דכלהו ביחודא חדא קא משבחון ליה.

160. פתח ואמר, למנצח על אילת השחר מזמור לדוד. אילת השחר: דכד נהירו אנפוי המזרח, ואתפרשא חשוכא דליליא, חד ממנא אית לסטר מזרח, ומשיך חד חוטא דנהירו דסטר דרום, עד דאתי ונפיק שמשא, ובקע באינון כפי רקיעא, ואנהיר עלמא, וההוא חוטא אפריש חשוכא דליליא.

161. בדין אילתא דשחרא אתי, ואתי נהירו אוכמא בקדרו, לאתחברא ביממא, ונהיר יממא. ונהירו דיממא, כליל ושאוב בגייה, לההוא אילתא ועל האי אילתא, כד אתפרש מיומא, לבתר דכליל לה, אמר דוד שירתא, דכתבי למנצח על אילת השחר.

162. ומאי קא אמר אלי אלי למה עזבתני. דהא אתפרש אילתא דשחרא, מנהירו דיממא. עד דהוו אזלי, נהיר יממא, ומטא עידן צלותא, א"ר אלעזר, נצלי צלותא וניזיל, יתבו וצלו. לבתר קמו ואזלו.

18. Righteous men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked

In this section, Rabbi Elazar begins by discussing the verse, "There is a vanity..." before the discussion turns to examine the seemingly incongruous system of worldly rewards and punishments. We learn that the world (the Nukva) stands upon the seven vanities (the seven Sfirot of Zeir Anpin). These vanities are the seven pillars that support the world, and they correspond to the seven Firmaments. Just as other Firmaments cleave to and issue from the seven Firmaments, there are other vanities that emanate from the seven vanities, all of which are mentioned by Solomon in his book Ecclesiastes. The Foundation (Yesod), which emanates from the supernal vanities, is maintained and strengthened by the souls of the Righteous who died before they sinned on earth. Enoch, who was taken before his time to die had arrived, is an example of such a soul. An explanation of the title subject then ensues from a discussion of the two reasons why the Righteous are removed from the world before their time. We learn that when He foresees that the righteous will sin if they live longer, He removes them from the world and they are Judged as though they had sinned. Conversely, He allows wicked men to live if He foresees that they will repent or that they will have Righteous children. Another interpretation of the verse relating to the title quotation reveals that God is glorified by both the deeds of the Righteous and the good deeds that the wicked perform. Finally, Rabbi Elazar provides further insight into the verse, "All things have I seen in the days of my vanity..." (Kohelet 7:15). When Solomon was granted wisdom, we're told, he saw everything at the time when the moon reigned. "A just man who perishes in his righteousness" is an allusion to the Foundation of the world and the Nukva, which have no power during the time of the exile. Therefore, supernal blessings do not reach a just man in exile and he "perishes in his righteousness." "And there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness," alludes to Samael and his wife, the Serpent, who gives strength and peace to the other kings that rule Yisrael in exile.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this passage makes us more keenly attuned to the vanity of all human wishes, which has a salutary effect on the soul for it helps us become less possessed by ego, the main wall built between us and the Light. Knowing of the enormous value placed upon acts of righteousness, and the impossibility of unravelling the ways of God, we are helped to concentrate on what we can do rather than what we cannot grasp with our minds. The consequence is that our time is increasingly given over to being and doing, rather than questioning and dreaming. We thus learn to be more fully alive.

163. Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion, saying: "There is a vanity (Heb. hevel) which is done upon the earth; that there are just men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked...I said that this also is vanity" (Kohelet 8:14). This verse is explained, but THE WORDS, "There is vanity," MEAN THAT King Solomon wrote this book and based it on seven vanities, WHICH ARE THE SEVEN SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS THE LIGHT OF THE RUACH. AND THE SEVEN LOWER SFIROT OF RUACH ARE CALLED 'VANITIES'. The world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is based on them, AS ITS SEVEN SFIROT ARE UPHELD BY THE SEVEN SFIROT - CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD AND MALCHUT OF ZEIR ANPIN. FOR THE NUKVA IS THE SECRET OF SPEECH, AND THERE IS NO SPEECH WITHOUT AIR (HEB. HEVEL) THAT BEATS UPON THE FIVE ARTICULATION PLACES IN THE MOUTH, AS IS KNOWN.

164. These seven vanities are called 'the seven pillars that support the world', WHICH IS THE NUKVA, and they correspond to the seven firmaments. And these are: Curtain, Firmament, Skies, Temple, Dwelling, Institute, Heaven. "'Vanities of Vanities,' said Kohelet, 'vanities of vanities; all is vanity,'" (Kohelet 1:2) corresponds to them. WE HAVE HERE SEVEN VANITIES. BECAUSE "VANITY OF VANITIES," ARE THREE, TOGETHER WITH "VANITY OF VANITIES," THERE ARE SIX, AND WITH "VANITY," MENTIONED AT THE END OF THE VERSE, IT EQUALS SEVEN.

165. As there are seven firmaments, and there are other firmaments that are attached to them and spread out and emanate from them - WHICH ARE THE SEVEN FIRMAMENTS THAT ARE IN THE NUKVA - so there are other vanities, MEANING OF THE NUKVA, that spread out and emanate from these SEVEN VANITIES OF ZEIR ANPIN. Solomon mentioned them all IN HIS BOOK OF KOHELET.

166. And here is the secret of Chochmah, meaning in the verse: "There is a vanity," THE ASPECT OF YESOD OF THE VANITIES, that emanates from the supernal vanities AFOREMENTIONED, upon which the world, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, is based. And this is THE MEANING OF: "Which is done upon the earth" (Kohelet 8:14), MEANING ON THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED 'EARTH'. "WHICH IS DONE," MEANS THAT YESOD is maintained and its power is strengthened by the tillers of earth, WHO ARE THE RIGHTEOUS, and in the elevation OF THEIR MAYIN NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS') that rise from the earth. And this, YESOD, is appointed TO POUR upon the earth. All its might and existence is from the souls of the righteous that were gathered from the earth, MEANING THEY DIED while being righteous, before they sinned, when they were still emanating a fragrant scent. For example, it is written about Enoch: "And he was not, for Elohim took him" (Beresheet 5:24). For He took him before his time had arrived TO DIE, and He delighted in him. And it is so with the other righteous of the world.

167. We learned that two things cause the righteous to leave the world before their time: One, because of the sins of the generation; when the wicked multiply in the world then the righteous who are among them are caught in their sins. Another is when it is revealed before the Holy One, blessed be He, that they will sin later on. He then removes them from the world before their time. This is what is written: "There are just men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked" (Kohelet 8:14). They are treated as though they had sinned and acted wicked by celestial Justice.

163. פֶּתַח ר' אֶלְעָזָר וְאָמַר יֵשׁ הַבֵּל אֲשֶׁר נַעֲשֶׂה עַל הָאָרֶץ אֲשֶׁר יֵשׁ צְדִיקִים אֲשֶׁר מְגִיעַ אֲלֵיהֶם כְּמַעֲשֵׂה הַרְשָׁעִים וְגו' אָמַרְתִּי שְׁגָם זֶה הַבֵּל. הַאִי קָרָא אוֹקְמוּהָ וְאִתְמַר, אֲבָל יֵשׁ הַבֵּל, שְׁלֵמָה מְלַבָּא עֲבַד סַפְרָא דָא, וְאוֹקִים לִיהַ עַל שְׁבַעַה הַבְּלִים, דְּעֵלְמָא קִיּוּמָא עֲלִיּוּהוּ.

168. One time, Rabbi Yosi ben Jacob, the leader of Kfar Ono asked Rabbi Meir about the time that Rabbi Akiva and his friends passed from the world and died in that manner, MEANING THAT THEY WERE KILLED BY THE GOVERNMENT. He said to him: Is it written anywhere in the Torah thus, THAT RIGHTEOUS PEOPLE SHOULD SUFFER SO? RABBI MEIR said to him: It is not WRITTEN SO, and did not Solomon say, "There are just men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked"? They are judged from above as though they sinned and acted like the wicked. "There are wicked men, to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous" (Kohelet 8:14). They sit quietly and peacefully in this world and Judgment does not reach them as though they had acted like righteous people.

169. HE ASKS: Why DOES IT HAPPEN TO THEM ACCORDING TO THE RIGHTEOUS? AND HE ANSWERS: Either because it is revealed before the Holy One, blessed be He, that they will repent, or that a righteous person will descend from them, as Terach, from whom emanated the true seed of Abraham; or Achaz from whom came Chizkiyahu. AND SO the other wicked of the world. Therefore on both sides, MEANING BY THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE WICKED, VANITY IS DONE that we said, and is strengthened upon the earth, as we have said.

170. Another explanation OF THE VERSE: "There is a vanity which is done upon the earth." As we said, ITS MEANING IS that it prevails in the world. How? Because "there are just men, to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked," meaning that the actions of sinners confront them - SUCH AS a daughter of idol worshippers, or other actions that are actions of the wicked - but they make their stand AND DO NOT SIN, because of fear of their Master, and they do not wish to become impure. Like many truly righteous, they are confronted by similar actions. And they are valiant for they have done the desire of their Master and did not sin. On this is written: "Vanity has been done of the earth," and its might has grow strong.

171. "Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous." IT IS when they are presented with a good deed, which is an action of the righteous, that they merit it and fulfill it. For example, there was a JEWISH murderer in the hills with heathen murderers, and when a Jew would pass by there he would save him and guard him from the others. Rabbi Akiva would declare of him: "There are wicked men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous."

172. Another instance is that wicked person who was the neighbor of Rabbi Chiya, who met a woman one night who was going to her daughter's home. He wanted to rape her. She said to him: I beg of you, honor your Master and do not sin by me. He left her and did not sin by her. He said: "There are wicked men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity," meaning that vanity becomes powerful by the righteous to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked, yet they do not sin. Similarly, it becomes powerful by the wicked to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous, and they do fulfill them.

173. For we have learned, the Holy One, blessed be He, has made righteous and wicked people in the world. Just as He is honored in the world by the actions of the righteous, so He is honored by the wicked when they do good actions in the world. As is written: "He has made every thing beautiful in its time" (Kohelet 3:11). Woe to the wicked when he does evil to himself and strengthens in his sins, as it is written: "Alas! it shall be ill with the wicked..." (Yeshayah 3:11).

174. Again, he opened the discussion saying: "All things have I seen in the days of my vanity..." (Kohelet 7:15). This passage was also explained by the friends. When wisdom was granted to Solomon, he saw everything when the moon reigned, WHICH IS NUKVA WHEN SHE IS FULL, BECAUSE SOLOMON RECEIVED FROM HER. "There is a just man." This is the pillar of the world, MEANING THE FOUNDATION THAT THE WORLD STANDS UPON is lost, as is written: "The righteous perishes" (Yeshayah 57:1) at the time of exile, WHEN HE CAN NOT BESTOW ABUNDANCE ON ANYONE AND IS CONSIDERED AS LOST. "In his righteousness," REFERS TO THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED 'RIGHTEOUSNESS', because when she lies on the dust, THE RIGHTEOUS MAN HAS NO ONE UPON WHOM TO BESTOW ABUNDANCE, AND THEREFORE HE IS LOST IN HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS. As long as Yisrael are in exile, righteousness is with them in exile, and therefore, "there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness," (Kohelet 7:15) because the supernal blessings do not reach him.

175. "And there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness" (Ibid.). This is Samael who prolongs the quiet and tranquillity to Edom. How does he do this? By "his wickedness," BECAUSE HE IS WICKED, AND HIS WIFE IS CALLED 'WICKEDNESS', for she is a strong serpent. For they receive quiet and tranquillity only because SAMAEL cleaves to that female, AND HIS FEMALE GIVES THEM THIS. Similarly, he supplies the other kings, SO THAT THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL ARE IN EXILE AMONG THEM. This is until the Holy One, blessed be He, raises the fallen tabernacle of David, WHICH IS THE NUKVA WHO IS FALLEN DURING EXILE, as is written: "I will raise the tabernacle of David that is fallen" (Amos 9:11).

174. תו פתח ואמר, את הכל ראיתי בימי הבלי וגו'. האי קרא אוף הכי אוקמוה חבריא, אבל כד אתיהיב חכמה לשלמה, חמא כולא, בזמנא דשלטא סיהרא, יש צדיק דא עמודא דעלמא. אובד: כד"א, הצדיק אבד, בזמנא דגלותא בצדקו: בגין דהיא שכיבת לעפרא, צדק דא, כל זמנא דישראל בגלותא, איהי עמהון בגלותא, ובגין כך, צדיק אובד בצדקו. דהא לא מטאן לגביה אינון ברבאן עלאין.

175. ויש רשע מאריך ברעתו, דא סמאל, דאוריך שקט ושלוח לאדום, במאי ברעתו. בההיא רעה אתתיה, נחש תקיפא, דהא לא מטא עליהו שקט ושלוח, אלא בגין דאתדבק בההיא נוקבא. כגוונא דא לשאר מלכוון, עד דקודשא בריך הוא יקים מעפרא, לההיא סוכת דוד הנפלת, דכתיב אקים את סכת דוד הנפלת.

19. "And there went a man of the house of Levi"

Rabbi Yosi begins the discussion with an interpretation of the verse, "My beloved has gone down to His garden..." We learn that this is a reference to the children of Yisrael, who are filled with the fragrance of the world to come. The righteous souls that inhabit the lower Garden of Eden, which emit a fragrance when God descends into this place, belong to those who lived in this world or who will someday descend to dwell there. These souls have the outward form that was or will be their likeness on earth, and the impression of the spirit is engraved within. When the spirit leaves the body, it returns to the Garden in the form of the body it wore in this world because the spirit is like a seal, an inward engraving that produces an outward protrusion. The discussion then turns to the meaning of the title verse. This, we're told, is a reference to Gavriel, who is also called 'Night', and his relationship to the souls of the Righteous. Gavriel takes the soul from the Garden and delivers it to the body of the Righteous at the time of birth, and he guards it. Another explanation of the title verse interprets it as a reference to Amran, who was told by a celestial voice to marry Yocheved because their son would bring the time of the redemption of Yisrael closer. When they united, the Shechinah was with them and She never ceased to cleave to their son, Moses. Yocheved saw that "he was a goodly son," because when he was born he was marked with the sign of the Covenant (he was born circumcised), and the house was filled with light.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this passage is invaluable as a tool for further meditation upon the nature of the soul and its relationship to God. This makes us more discerning in our relationships with others, for we learn to trust that inner sense which can read the markings of another soul and warns us subtly of those who will not help us on the path to truth. Similarly, the same process helps us draw closer to those whose presence is like a blessing in our progress towards the Light.

176. "And there went a man of the house of Levi" (Shemot 2:1). Rabbi Yosi opened the discussion saying: "My beloved is gone down to his garden to the bed of spices" (Shir Hashirm 6:2). His garden is the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, because she is a "bed of spices," included with all kinds of spices and fragrances of the World to Come, WHICH IS BINAH. At the time that the Holy One, blessed be He, descends to this garden, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, all the souls of the righteous adorn themselves there, MEANING THAT THEY RECEIVE MOCHIN AND ILLUMINATIONS. They all exude fragrance, as is written: "The smell of your ointments than all spices" (Shir Hashirm 4:10). These are the souls of the Righteous, WHO ARE CALLED 'SPICES', AND AFTER THEM, THE NUKVA IS CALLED 'A BED OF SPICES'. For Rabbi Yitzchak said: All these souls of the Righteous who were in this world, and all the souls that will descend in the future to this world, are in this garden, WHICH IS THE NUKVA.

177. In the terrestrial Garden of Eden, they all retain the form and image that they had in this world, and their secrets and mystery were given over to the sages. The spirit that descends to people, which is of the female side, is always engraved on like a seal, WHOSE LETTERS ARE ETCHED. This is because the form of the body in this world protrudes outward, and the spirit is engraved internally. When the spirit removes itself from the body AND ASCENDS TO THE TERRESTRIAL GARDEN OF EDEN, that spirit protrudes in the terrestrial Garden of Eden in the form and shape of the body exactly as in this world, because it is always like a seal.

178. And therefore she said: "Set me as a seal" (Shir Hashirm 8:6). As a seal is engraved inwards, and THAT WHICH IS SEALED takes shape with an outward protruding form, so is the spirit that is from her side in that way exactly in this world; it is engraved inwards, AS WRITTEN EARLIER IN THE PREVIOUS VERSE. When it removes itself from the body and enters the terrestrial Garden of Eden, in the air there - MEANING THAT IT CLEAVES THERE TO ITS LEVEL, WHICH IS THE SPIRIT IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN PROTRUDING FROM THAT ENGRAVING WHICH IS INWARDS to assume a shape - it takes shape with a form that protrudes outwardly as the configuration of the body was in this world.

179. The soul OF THE PERSON which is born of the Tree of Life, FROM ZEIR ANPIN, is formed there above in that bundle of life, WHICH IS MALCHUT, to delight in the beauty of Hashem, as is written: "To behold the beauty of Hashem, and to inquire in His temple" (Tehilim 27:4).

176. וַיֵּלֶךְ אִישׁ מִבֵּית לֵוִי. רַבִּי יוֹסִי פָתַח דּוֹרֵי יִרְדָּ לַגֵּנוֹ לְעֵרוּגוֹת הַבוֹשֶׁם וְגו'. לַגֵּנוֹ: דָּא כְּנִסְתַּת יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּגִין דְּהִיא עֵרוּגַת הַבוֹשֶׁם, דְּאִיהִי כְּלִילָא מִכָּל זֵינֵי בּוֹסְמִין וְרִיחִין דְּעֵלְמָא דְּאִתֵּי. בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּקוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא נְחִית לַגְּנֵתָא דָּא כָּל אֵינּוֹן נִשְׁמַתְהוּן דְּצִדִּיקָא, מִתְעַטְרֵן תַּמָּן, כְּלֵהוּ יְהִיבֵי רִיחָא, כְּמַד"א וְרִיחַ שְׁמֹנֶיךָ מִכָּל בְּשָׂמִים, אֵלִין אֵינּוֹן נִשְׁמַתְהוּן דְּצִדִּיקָא, דְּאָמַר רַבִּי יִצְחָק, כָּל אֵינּוֹן נִשְׁמַתִּין דְּצִדִּיקָא, דְּהוּוּ בְּהַאי עֵלְמָא, וְכָל אֵינּוֹן נִשְׁמַתִּין, דְּזִמְיִנֵן לְנַחְתָּא לְהַאי עֵלְמָא, כְּלֵהוּ בְּגֵנְתָּא דָּא קִיּוּמִין.

180. "And there went a man of the house of Levi" (Shemot 2:1). This is Gavriel, as written: "And the man Gavriel whom I saw in a vision" (Daniel 9:21). The house of Levi is the Congregation of Yisrael, WHICH IS MALCHUT, that comes from the left side, BECAUSE GAVRIEL IS FROM THE LEFT SIDE. "And took to wife a daughter of Levi" (Shemot 2:1); that is, the soul.

181. For we have learned that at the time that the body of a righteous is born in this world, the Holy One, blessed be He, calls Gavriel. Gavriel takes that soul that is in the Garden, WHICH IS MALCHUT, and lowers it to the body of the righteous man who is born in this world, and he, GAVRIEL, is appointed over it and guards it.

182. You may ask why the angel who is appointed over the spirits of the righteous is named 'Night', and yet you say that he is Gavriel? Most certainly HIS NAME IS NIGHT, because he comes from the left side and everything that comes from the left side is called 'NIGHT', BUT HIS NAME IS ACTUALLY GAVRIEL.

183. "And there went a man." This is Amran. "And took to wife a daughter of Levi." This is Yocheved. A heavenly voice came down and said to Amran that he should marry her because the time for the redemption of Yisrael is near, and it will come through the son that shall be born from them.

184. And the Holy One, blessed be He, assisted him, for we learned the Shechinah dwelt on their bed and that their intention when they cleaved together was on the Shechinah. Therefore, the Shechinah was not removed from the son whom they bore, so as to fulfill what is written: "And you shall sanctify yourselves and you shall be holy" (Vayikra 11:44). A person sanctifies himself from below, so the Holy One, blessed be He, sanctifies him from above. As their intention was the cleaving of the Shechinah, so did the Shechinah cleave to their very actions.

185. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Fortunate are the righteous, whose desire is to cleave to the Holy One, blessed be He, always. As they cleave to Him constantly, thus does He cleave to them and never leaves them. Woe to the wicked, that their desire and cleaving are far removed from Him, FROM THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE. For not only are they distanced from Him, but they also cleave to the Other Side, MEANING THE SIDE OF IMPURITY. Come and behold: from Amran who cleaved to the Holy One, blessed be He, Moses came. The Holy One, blessed be He, never turned from him, and the Shechinah cleaved to him always; thus, blessed is his lot.

180. וַיֵּלֶךְ אִישׁ מִבֵּית לֵוִי, דָּא גַבְרִיאֵל, כַּמְד"א וְהָאִישׁ גַּבְרִיאֵל אֲשֶׁר רָאִיתִי בַּחֲזוֹן וְגו'. מִבֵּית לֵוִי: דָּא כַּנ"י, דְּאֲתִיָּא מִסְטְרָא דְשְׂמָאלָא. וַיִּקַּח אֶת בַּת לֵוִי דָּא נִשְׁמַתָּא.

186. "And the woman conceived and she bore a son: and when she saw that he was a goodly son" (Shemot 2:2). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "that he was a goodly son"? Rabbi Chiya said: The meaning is that he was born circumcised, because the secret of the covenant is called 'good', as is written: "Say of the righteous, that it shall be well ('good') with him" (Yeshayah 3:10), AND THE RIGHTEOUS IS THE SECRET OF THE COVENANT.

187. Rabbi Yosi said: She saw the light of the Shechinah that shone in him. For at the time that he was born, the entire house was filled with light, as is written: "And when she saw that he was a goodly son," and, "Elohim saw the light that it was good" (Beresheet 1:4). AND AS GOOD ALLUDES TO LIGHT, SO HERE GOOD ALLUDES TO LIGHT. And hence it is written, "that he was a goodly son." Everything was included in him; HE CONTAINED THE LIGHT OF THE SHECHINAH, AND ALSO, AS WAS WRITTEN EARLIER, HE WAS BORN CIRCUMCISED.

20. "And she hid him three months"

In his discussion of the title verse, Rabbi Yehuda explains the significance of "three months" and reveals that the "ark of papyrus" is an allusion to the Ark of the Covenant, while the "child" signifies Yisrael. Another explanation of the verse, "A man of the House of Levi" interprets this as a reference to God, Who went from the place where Aba and Ima (the supernal Mother and Father) unite as the Foundation.....
The Relevance of this Passage

188. "And she hid him three months" (Shemot 2:2). HE ASKS: What is the significance of three months? Rabbi Yehuda said: It is an allusion to THE VIRTUE OF Moses not being recognized by the supernal radiance for three months, as is written: "In the third month" (Shemot 19:1). For then the Torah was given through him, and the Shechinah was revealed and dwelt upon him before everyone's eyes, as is written: "And Moses went up to the Elohim, and the Hashem called to him" (Ibid. 3). THIS IS WHAT IS WRITTEN: "And when she could no longer hide him" (Shemot 2:3). For until that time, his communication with the Holy One, blessed be He, was not known. And then it is written: "Moses speaks, and the Elohim answers him by a voice" (Shemot 19:19).

189. "She took for him a box (Lit. 'ark') made of papyrus" (Shemot 2:3). This is an allusion to the ark in which the tablets of the covenant came. "An ark made of papyrus" is the Ark of the Covenant. "And daubed it with slime clay and with pitch," because the ark was overlaid inside and out. Rabbi Yehuda said: This is the Torah that the Holy One, blessed be He, inscribed with positive commandments and negative commandments.

190. "...and put the child in it..." (Ibid. 3). These are Yisrael, as is said: "When Yisrael was still a youth, I loved him" (Hoshea 11:1). "And she laid it in the rushes (Heb. suf)," (Ibid.) so there was no obligation to perform the commandments of the Torah until the end (Heb. sof), when Yisrael came to the land at the end of forty years. "...by the river's brink (Heb. safah)..." meaning according to the speech of those who teach Torah and laws to Yisrael. BECAUSE THE WORD "SAFAH" IS LIKE THE WORD 'LANGUAGE' (HEB. SAFAH) AND SPEECH, AND THE WORD "YEOR" ('RIVER') HAS THE MEANING OF MOREH ('TEACHER').

191. Another explanation: "A man," refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, as is written: "Hashem is a Man of war" (Shemot 15:3). "Of the house of Levi," refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, WHO WENT FROM the place where the supernal Wisdom, THIS BEING SUPERNAL ABA, and that river, WHICH IS SUPERNAL IMA, join together and never separate. HE WENT FROM THE PLACE OF THE YESOD OF SUPERNAL ABA AND IMA. "Of the house of Levi" IS DERIVED FROM THE WORD LIVYATAN, MEANING YESOD; He caused the Livyatan (Lit. 'whale') to dwell in this world to bring joy into the world, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH. It is written: "There is the Livyatan, whom you have made to play therein" (Tehilim 104:26). "And took to wife a daughter of Levi." This is the Holy One, blessed be He, MEANING the place where the light of the moon illuminates, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH.

192. "And the woman conceived, and bore a son" (Shemot 2:2). The woman, MEANING THE SHECHINAH IS most certainly CALLED A 'WOMAN', as is written: "She shall be called woman" (Bereshheet 2:23), AND "THIS" IS THE NAME OF THE SHECHINAH. Originally she was a daughter of Levi, WHICH IS YESOD OF ABA AND IMA THAT IS CALLED 'LIVYATAN', AS MENTIONED EARLIER, and it is certainly so, AS ABA AND IMA BUILT THE NUKVA. THEREFORE, HE ASKS: Originally she was a daughter of Levi and now she is a woman? AND HE ANSWERS: It is certainly so, as we have learned, that a woman is called the daughter of so and so before she marries, MEANING BY THE NAME OF HER FATHER AND MOTHER. After she marries, she is called a woman BY HER OWN NAME and here, daughter, woman and bride, are all one level, MEANING THE SHECHINAH.

193. "She hid him three months" (Shemot 2:2). These are the three months in which Severe Judgment is prevalent in the world. And which are they? THEY ARE Tamuz, Av, and Tevet IN WHICH THERE IS NO REVELATION OF THE SHECHINAH BECAUSE OF THE JUDGMENTS IN THE WORLD. HE ASKS: What is he trying to tell us? AND HE ANSWERS THAT HE IS TELLING US THAT before Moses descended to this world, he was above WITH THE SHECHINAH. Therefore, the Shechinah joined with him from the day he was born. From this Rabbi Shimon derived that the spirits of the righteous were above IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN before they descended into this world.

194. "And when she could no longer hide him..." (Ibid. 3). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "She took for him a box made of papyrus"? HE ANSWERS: She covered him with signs, so that he should be protected from the fish that swam in the Great Sea, MEANING KLIPOT AND THE DEMONS, as is written: "Where there are creeping things innumerable" (Tehilim 104:25). She covered him, to be guarded against them, with a precious cover of two colors, white and black. THE SLIME IS WHITE, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, AND THE PITCH IS BLACK, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LEFT COLUMN THAT IS MIXED WITH MALCHUT OF THE ATTRIBUTE OF JUDGMENT. THEN THE RED IN IT CONVERTS TO BLACK, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF OUR SAGES - THAT BLACK IS REALLY RED THAT HAS BEEN AFFECTED. And she placed Moses, WHO IS THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, among them so that he should be recognized with them AS THE SECRET OF DA'AT WHICH IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN, because he was going to ascend among them at a different time, to receive the Torah.

195. "And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river" (Shemot 2:5). This DAUGHTER OF PHARAOH came from the left side of the Strict Judgment as is written: "To wash herself at the river" - in the river and not in the sea. THE SEA ALLUDES TO MALCHUT OF HOLINESS, BUT THE RIVER IS THE ATTRIBUTE OF STRICT JUDGMENT OF THE LEFT SIDE. AND THE EGYPTIANS MADE IT THEIR IDOL, AND SINCE THE DAUGHTER OF PHARAOH BATHED THERE, SHE WAS ALSO OF STRICT JUDGMENT.

191. ד"א וילך איש, דא קודשא בריך הוא, דכתיב יי' איש מלחמה. מבית לוי, דא קודשא בריך הוא, אתר דחכמה עלאה, והוא נהר, מתחברן פחדא, ולא מתפרשין לעלמין. מבית לוי דאשרי לויתן לחידו בעלמא, הה"ד, לויתן זה יצרת לשחק בו. ויקח את בת לוי, דא קודשא בריך הוא, אתר דנהירו דסיהרא נהיר.

192. ותהר האשה ותלד בן. האשה ודאי, כד"א לזאת יקרא אשה. בקדמיתא בת לוי, והכי הוא ודאי, וכי בת לוי בקדמיתא, והשתא אשה. אלא הכי הוא ודאי, והכי אוליפנא, אתתא עד לא אודווגת, אתקריאת בת פלוני, בתר דאודווגת אתקריאת אשה. והכא, בת, ואשה, וכלה, חד דרגא איהו.

193. ותצפנהו שלשה ירחים. אלן תלת ירחין, דדינא קשיא שריא בעלמא ומאי נינהו. תמוז, אב, טבת, מאי משמע. דער לא נחת משה לעלמא, שכיח הוה איהו לעילא, ועל דא אודווגת ביה שכינתא, מיומא דאתיליד. מכאן אמר רבי שמעון, רוחיהון דצדיקיא, שכיחין אינון לעילא, עד לא יחתון לעלמא.

194. ולא יכלה עוד הצפינו וגו'. מאי ותקח לו תבת גומא. דחפת ליה בסימנאה, למהוי נטיר מאינון נוני ימא, דשאטין בימא רבא, דכתיב שם רמש ואין מספר. והיא חפת ליה, למהוי נטיר מנייהו, בחפו יקירא, דתרין גוונין חוור ואוכם, ואנח ליה למשה בינייהו, דישתמודע עמהון, בגין דזמין לסלקא בינייהו זמנא אחרא, לקבלא אורייתא.

195. ותרד בת פרעה לרחוץ על היאור. דא איהו דאתיא מסטרא דשמאלא דדינא קשיא, במה דאת אמר, לרחוץ על היאור, על היאור דייקא, ולא על הים.

196. And you may ask why, then, it is written: "And your rod, with which you smote the river" (Shemot 17:5). Moses smote only the sea, which THE VERSE also calls a 'river'. SO THE TERM 'RIVER' IS NOT PRECISE. AND HE ANSWERS: Aaron smote the river through Moses, and the verse considers it as though he himself did it.

197. Similarly, it is written: "And seven days were completed, after Hashem had smitten the river" (Shemot 7:25), even though Aaron smote it. But since it came from the Holy One, blessed be He, the Torah refers to it as, "after Hashem smote." Thus, afterwards it is called in the name of Moses, BECAUSE AARON DID IT AT HIS INSTRUCTION. "And her maidens walked along by the river's side" (Shemot 2:5). They are the other companies who came from that side OF THE RIVER.

198. "And when she had opened it, she saw (him,) the child" (Ibid. 6). HE ASKS: It is written: "She saw him," but it should say 'she saw'. Why, then, does it state: "She saw him?" Rabbi Shimon said: There is nothing in the Torah that does not have supernal and precious secrets. For this is what we learned, that the mark of the King and Queen, MEANING TIFERET AND MALCHUT, are found in him. It is the mark of Vav-Aleph-Vav, Hei-Aleph; FOR VAV IS TIFERET AND HEI IS MALCHUT. THEREFORE IT SAYS, "SHE SAW HIM"; THE WORD CONTAINS EXTRA VAV AND HEI. Immediately, WHEN SHE SAW THIS, "she had compassion on him" (Shemot 2:6). Until this point, the Torah talks about THE SUPERNAL WORLDS above. From here and further, it talks about THE WORLDS BELOW, except for this verse: "AND HIS SISTER STOOD ..." (Ibid. 4).

21. "And his sister stood afar off"

Initially, a discussion of the title verse identifies "his sister" as the children of Yisrael, from whom Zeir Anpin is concealed at a distance. The discussion then turns to reinforce the idea that the Righteous, and especially Moses, are known above before they descend to this world, and their souls are drawn from a high place. We learn that just as the body has both a mother and father, the soul also has a mother and father. Indeed, everything above and below is produced by a male and a female. Finally, a further interpretation of the title verse reveals that, "And his sister stood," is lower Wisdom, which would stand "afar off" when Judgment accused Yisrael for their sins. Then the Shechinah distanced Herself from them too.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section can be used to focus the consciousness on the eternal aspects of our own soul, expanding our ideas of who we are to include who we have been and who we will be. This expansion of the mind's grasp helps to weaken the hold of the lower nature and removes the veils between us and the Light, which can only fill us with its effulgence if we are first empty to receive it.

199. "And his sister stood afar off..." (Shemot 2:4). HE ASKS: Whose sister? AND HE ANSWERS: The sister of he who called the Congregation of Yisrael "my sister," MEANING ZEIR ANPIN, as is said: "Open to me my sister, my love" (Shir Hashirm 5:2) - MEANING THE SHECHINAH STOOD BY MOSES TO GUARD HIM. "Afar off" is as is written: "Hashem appeared of old (also: 'from afar') to me" (Yirmeyah 31:2), MEANING THAT KEEPING IS NOT IN THE OPEN, BUT RATHER HIDDEN, FROM A DISTANCE.

200. It seems that the righteous are known above before their descent to the world; this refers to all THE RIGHTEOUS, and all the more so to Moses. THEREFORE IT IS SAID OF HIM, "SHE SAW HIM" (SHEMOT 2:6) SPELLED WITH HEI-VAV, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE IMPRESSION MADE BY THE KING AND THE QUEEN, AS ALREADY MENTIONED. And it is also understood that the souls of the righteous are drawn from a high place, as we explained IN THE PASSAGE: "AND THERE WENT A MAN OF THE HOUSE OF LEVI" (SHEMOT 2:1) - WHICH IS THE SECRET OF YESOD OF CHOCHMAH AND BINA, WHICH IS A HIGH PLACE. The secret of this is what we learned from here: that the soul has a father and a mother, WHICH ARE ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA, BECAUSE MAN IS ZEIR ANPIN AND THE DAUGHTER OF LEVI IS THE NUKVA. Similarly, there is a father and mother to the body on earth. And it appears that in all aspects, whether above or below, everything comes forth from a male and a female, and we have explained the secret of the passage: "Let the earth bring forth living creatures" (Beresheet 1:24). "The earth," refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, WHO IS NUKVA. "Living creatures" (Lit. 'soul'), is the soul of Adam, as we explained - BECAUSE ZEIR ANPIN AND NUKVA ARE FATHER AND MOTHER OF THE FIRST MAN, AS WE EXPLAINED. Rabbi Aba came and kissed him. He said: Assuredly, you are speaking beautifully and it is definitely so. Fortunate is the portion of Moses, the faithful prophet, above all the other prophets of the world.

201. "And his sister stood" (Shemot 2:4). This is Chochmah, THE NUKVA THAT IS CALLED THE 'LOWER CHOCHMAH'. As is said: "Say to wisdom, 'You are my sister'" (Mishlei 7:4). Rabbi Yitzchak said: The decree of Judgment was never removed from the world. For every time that Yisrael sinned, Judgment accused them, and then "his sister stood afar off." FOR THE SHECHINAH DISTANCED HERSELF FROM THEM, as is said: "Hashem appeared from afar to me" (Yirmeyah 31:2).

22. "And the daughter of Pharaoh came down"

The opening discussion of the title verse reveals that it contains an allusion to the attribute of Judgment that comes down to bathe in the blood of Yisrael when they separate from and neglect the Torah. Rabbi Yehuda then speaks about the importance of repentance and prayer, especially prayer accompanied by weeping. The Shechinah stands over Yisrael and argues their merits. When She saw the children of Yisrael repent before God with tearful supplications, She had great compassion for them and considered them as gentle and good in contrast to the other stubborn and hard-hearted nations.

Rabbi Yitzchak then reiterates the concept that the redemption of Yisrael depends on weeping. We learn that the tears Esav wept before his father over his lost birthright brought Yisrael into captivity. When the force of Esav's tears is exhausted, the redemption of Yisrael will arrive.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reveals the spiritual impact of true and deeply felt emotion, and thereby reminds us of that we must both feel and outwardly show our repentance. Dwelling on these great symbols and their images, we can learn to draw into our own lives the purity and courage of those who lived long before us in order to show the way through eons of darkness. The sense of continuity and connection with the past raises our consciousness to become in tune with that higher consciousness represented by the patriarchs.

202. "And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river" (Shemot 2:5). When Yisrael severed themselves from the Torah, "the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river," immediately. The attribute of Judgment, WHICH IS CALLED 'THE DAUGHTER OF PHARAOH', would come down to wash herself with the blood of Yisrael, MEANING WITH THEIR BLEMISH, because of the disregard of the Torah - BECAUSE 'RIVER' MEANS TORAH. "And her maidens walked along by the river's side," because of the disregard to the Torah, for those who studied it loosened their hands from it.

200. מִשְׁמַע, דְּאִינוּן זָכָאִין, עַד לֹא נַחְתּוּ לְעֵלְמָא, אֲשֶׁתְּמוֹדְעָאן אִינוּן לְעֵילָא, לְגַבֵּי כְּלָא, וְכֹל שְׁפָן מְשָׁה. וּמִשְׁמַע נְמִי, דְּנִשְׁמַתְהוּן דְּצַדִּיקָא, אֲתַמְשְׁכוּ מֵאַתְרַּ עֲלָאָה, כְּמָה דְּאֹקִימְנָא. וְרָזָא דְּמִלְהָ אֹלִיפְנָא, דְּמִשְׁמַע, דְּאָב וְאִם אֵית לְנִשְׁמַתָּא, כְּמָה דְּאֵית אָב וְאִם לְגוֹפָא בְּאַרְעָא, וּמִשְׁמַע, דְּבִכְל סְטְרִין, בֵּין לְעֵילָא, בֵּין לְתַתָּא, מְדַכְרַ וְנוֹקְבָא אֲתִיִּין כְּלָא וּמִשְׁתַּכְחִי. וְהָא אֹקְמוּהָ רָזָא, דְּכַתִּיב, תּוֹצֵא הָאָרֶץ נֶפֶשׁ חַיָּה. הָאָרֶץ: דָּא כְּנֶסֶת יִשְׂרָאֵל. נֶפֶשׁ חַיָּה: נֶפֶשׂא דְּאָדָם קְדָמָאָה עֲלָאָה, כְּמָה דְּאֲתַמְר. אֲתָא רַבִּי אַבְא וְנִשְׁקִיָּה. אָמַר וְדָאִי שְׁפִיר קְאָמְרַת, וְהָכִי הוּא וְדָאִי זָכָאָה חוֹלְקִיָּה דְּמִשָּׁה נְבִיאָה מְהִימְנָא, עַל כָּל שְׂאָר נְבִיאֵי עֵלְמָא.

202. וְתִרְדַּ בַּת פְּרַעָה לְרַחוּץ עַל הַיְאֹר. בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּהוּוּ פְּסָקִי יִשְׂרָאֵל מְאוּרֵייתָא, מִיַּד וְתִרְדַּ בַּת פְּרַעָה לְרַחוּץ עַל הַיְאֹר. הָוֵת נַחְתַּת מִדַּת הַדִּין, לְאַסְתַּחָּאָה מִדְּמָא דִּישְׂרָאֵל, עַל עֲלֹבוּנָה דְּאוּרֵייתָא. וְנַעֲרֹתֶיהָ הוֹלְכוֹת עַל יַד הַיְאֹר, אֵלִין אֹמְנָא, דְּאִינוּן אֵלִין וְרַדְפִּין אֲבַתְרִייהוּ, עַל יַד הַיְאֹר, עַל סַבַּת עֲלֹבוּנָה דְּאוּרֵייתָא, וְאִינוּן דְּמוּרִים בְּהָ, דְּרַפּוּ יַדֵּיהוּ מִינָהּ.

203. Rabbi Yehuda said: Everything in the world depends upon repentance and prayer that the person prays to the Holy One, blessed be He - one who sheds tears during his prayer especially, for there is no gate that these tears can not enter. It is written: "And when she had opened it, she saw the child." "And she opened," refers to the Shechinah, who stands over Yisrael as a mother over her children, and she always opens with the merit of Yisrael.

204. As soon as she opened it, "she saw the child," MEANING "a darling child" (Yirmeyah 31:19), referring to Yisrael who are constantly sinning before the King. But they immediately beseeched the Holy One, blessed be He, returned in repentance, and wept before Him as a son weeps before his father. As is written: "Behold, a weeping boy" (Shemot 2:6). Since he wept, all the difficult decrees were removed from him. It is written: "And she had compassion on him," because she was stirred with compassion and she pitied him.

205. "And said: 'This is one of the Hebrews' children'" (Ibid. 6). For they are soft-hearted, not children of the idol worshippers, who are stiff-necked and hard-hearted. "...the Hebrews' children..." are soft-hearted in THE MERIT OF the fathers and mothers, to repent before their Master. "And the maid went and called the child's mother" (Ibid. 8). THIS IS IN REFERENCE TO RACHEL THE MATRIARCH who was weeping. This is the verse: "A voice was heard in Rama, lamentation, and bitter weeping: Rachel weeping for her children..." (Yirmeyah 31:14). And he is crying, MEANING YISRAEL, and the mother of the child is weeping, REFERRING TO RACHEL, THE MOTHER OF YISRAEL.

206. Rabbi Yehuda said: For the future, this is what is written, "They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them" (Ibid. 8). HE ASKS: What is the meaning of, "They shall come with weeping"? AND HE ANSWERS: In the merit of the weeping of the mother of the child, THE MOTHER OF YISRAEL, who is Rachel, they will come, and will be gathered from the exile. Rabbi Yitzchak said: The redemption of Yisrael is dependent only upon weeping, MEANING when the tears that Esau wept before his father will be finished and come to an end. THEN THEY WILL BE REDEEMED, as is written: "And Esau raised his voice and wept" (Beresheet 27:38). These tears lowered Yisrael into exile. THEREFORE, as soon as these tears cease through the weeping of Yisrael, they will go out of exile. This is the meaning of: "They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them."

23. "And he looked this way and that"

This section discusses the episode wherein Moses kills an Egyptian who is beating an Yisrael. "He looked this way and that," we're told, to see if the Egyptian proclaimed the Divine Unity, performed any good works, or would produce a righteous son. Though wicked men often beget good sons, and these are especially precious to God since they represent light from darkness, Moses saw through the Holy Spirit that the Egyptian would not have such a son.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this passages sharpens those inner faculties we have from God that enable us to see beyond the surface of both people and things, and to understand the essence within. Through cultivating these faculties we will avoid many disasters caused by wolves in sheep's clothing, and also be able to help others do the same.

207. "And he looked this way [Heb. koh (Caf-Hei)] and that (koh)" (Shemot 2:12). SINCE he saw in these fifty letters that Yisrael proclaim twice every day the prayer: "Shma Yisrael" (Hear O Yisrael), that contains Caf-Hei (=25) and Caf-Hei LETTERS twice; but he did not see THAT THE EGYPTIAN WOULD BE SAYING THEM. "And he looked Koh and Koh." Rabbi Aba said: THE FIRST Koh IS BECAUSE he looked to see whoever possessed good deeds, and THE SECOND Koh IS BECAUSE he desired to perceive whether a righteous son would emerge from him. Immediately, "he saw that there was no man" he saw by the Holy Spirit that no righteous son would not emerge from him.

208. Rabbi Aba said: How many wicked people are there in the world who beget good children, more than the righteous. And that good son who comes from the wicked person is even better because he is pure from impure, light from darkness, wisdom from foolishness and this is the best of all.

24. "And he sat by the well"

In this section we learn that God allowed Moses to see all through the Holy Spirit, so that he would kill the Egyptian and go to the same well to which Jacob came. While Jacob "looked" at the well, Moses "sat" by the well, which reveals that although both were of the same level of Holiness, Moses ascended higher than Jacob. This well, Rabbi Yitzchak tells Rabbi Yosi, is not the same well that Isaac and Abraham dug. Rather, it was created at the same time that the world was created, and its mouth was created by Shabbat eve at twilight. There follows a description of the system of unification of the three Columns and the roles of the Sfirot within this system. After, Rabbi Yehuda quotes the verse, "And the priest of Midyan has seven daughters..." and questions how the daughters could have drawn water from Jacob's well when there was a large stone covering its mouth. Rabbi Chiya resolves this difficulty, explaining that there was no longer a stone covering the mouth of the well because Jacob removed it, as it was no longer needed.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this awakens within us the ability to look beyond the Torah stories to the eternal truths contained within them, seeing how it is possible to conceal a lifetime's wisdom with a few simple images; and seeing also that the rabbis' responses in the Zohar quite often mask wisdom with humor. The sense of being suddenly connected across the centuries to these extraordinary men helps to lift one's horizons until we realize that it is to everything that lives we are joined by a common bond of faith in God.

209. HE ASKS: WHAT IS THE ALLUSION IN THE MENTIONING OF "HE SAW" TWICE? "And he saw AN EGYPTIAN MAN...and when he saw THAT THERE IS NO MAN.." (Shemot 2:11-12). AND HE ANSWERS: He observed and saw everything with the Holy Spirit. Therefore he looked at him and killed him, MEANING THAT HE KILLED HIM BY LOOKING AT HIM. THEREFORE, IT SAYS A SECOND TIME "HE SAW." And the Holy One, blessed be He, caused all this so that MOSES should go to that well as Jacob went to that well, as it is written "and he sat down by a well" (Ibid. 15). HE ASKS: By Jacob, it is written, "And he looked, and behold a well in the field," (Bereshheet 29:2) while by Moses it says, "And dwelt in the land of Midyan: and he sat down by a well". BY JACOB, IT DID NOT SAY 'SAT', BUT ONLY "HE LOOKED." AND HE ANSWERS: IT IS BECAUSE even though Moses and Jacob were on one level, MEANING THE CENTRAL COLUMN, IN ALL Moses became elevated more than him - BECAUSE JACOB IS THE ASPECT OF TIFERET AND MOSES IS THE ASPECT OF DA'AT, WHICH IS THE INNER PART OF TIFERET. AND THE INNER MEANING OF THE WELL IS MALCHUT, THE SPOUSE OF TIFERET, AND SINCE MOSES WAS THE INNER PART OF TIFERET, THEREFORE BY HIM IT SAYS, "SAT" AND BY JACOB ONLY, "HE SAW."

210. Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Yitzchak were traveling on the road. Rabbi Yosi said: The well that Jacob and Moses saw was the same well that Abraham and Isaac dug, WHICH ARE THE TWO COLUMNS, RIGHT AND LEFT OF ZEIR ANPIN. He said to him: No, THE WELL OF JACOB AND MOSES WAS NOT OF THE SAME STATUS AS THE WELL THAT ABRAHAM AND ISAAC DUG. This well was created at the same time that the world was created, and by Shabbat eve at twilight, the mouth of the well was created. And this is the well that Jacob and Moses saw. THEREFORE IT SAYS, "AND HE SAT DOWN BY A WELL."

Tosefta (Addendum)

211. Mishnah. Those who pursue righteousness, THAT IS, WHO PURSUE TO PERFECT MALCHUT THAT IS CALLED 'RIGHTEOUSNESS', THROUGH THREE COLUMNS, RIGHT, LEFT, AND CENTRAL, WHICH ARE "ZEIR ANPIN. Those who FORCIBLY demand the secret of Faith, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF EXTENDING THE LEFT COLUMN TO MALCHUT WHICH IS CALLED 'FAITH'. Those who have adhered with the bond of Faith, WHICH IS THE BOND WHICH IS IN THE RIGHT COLUMN, those who know the ways of the Supernal King - WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, THE SECRET OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN. THE MASTER OF THE TOSEFTA - CALLS THEM AND SAYS TO THEM: Draw near and hearken. THOSE WHO ARE PURSUING TO PERFECT OF MALCHUT AND ITS ILLUMINATION WITH THE THREE COLUMNS, HEARKEN THE SYSTEM OF THIS UNIFICATION, AND HOW IT IS DONE.

212. When the two COLUMNS, CHOCHMAH AND BINAH, ascend and emerge towards the one CENTRAL COLUMN, they receive it between the two arms, WHICH ARE CHESED AND GVURAH. DUE TO THEIR RECEPTION OF THE CENTRAL COLUMN, CHOCHMAH AND BINAH DESCENDED TO BECOME CHESED AND GVURAH. FOR THE FIRST THREE OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT WERE GONE FROM THEM. MALCHUT CANNOT AS YET RECEIVE CHOCHMAH FROM THEM, AS THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM PREVAILS, WHILR CHOCHMAH THERE IS HIDDEN. Until the two, WHICH ARE CHESED AND GVURAH, descend below, MEANING THAT THEY BECOME NETZACH AND HOD, they are two, AS THE MAIN MOCHIN ARE TWO, RIGHT AND LEFT, THAT BECOME NETZACH AND HOD, and one between them - MEANING THAT THEY NEED THE CENTRAL COLUMN TO RECONCILE BETWEEN THEM, AND THAT IS YESOD. THE ARBITRATOR BETWEEN CHESED AND GVURAH IS CALLED 'TIFERET', AND THE ARBITRATOR BETWEEN NETZACH AND HOD IS CALLED 'YESOD'. AND HE EXPLAINED HIS WORDS: These two, THAT DESCENDED BELOW, are the place from which the prophets gain nourishment; NAMELY NETZACH AND HOD. There is one between them, WHICH IS YESOD. It joins everything, BOTH THE RIGHT COLUMN AND THE LEFT COLUMN; it receives from everything, BOTH CHOCHMAH AND CHASSADIM, SINCE IT IS THE CENTRAL COLUMN THAT SUSTAINS THEIR ILLUMINATING, AND THEREFORE IT ALSO RECEIVES THEIR ILLUMINATION TO ITSELF. FOR THIS IS THE RULE: ALL THE ILLUMINATIONS THAT THE LOWER CAUSES TO BE SUSTAINED AMONG THE SUPERNAL IT TOO ATTAINS IN ITS ENTIRETY.

213. That holy well, WHICH IS MALCHUT, WITH THE MOCHIN OF THE FIRST THREE SFIROT, is situated under them, MEANING UNDER NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD - that is, the field of holy apple trees. From that well they would water the flocks - WHO ARE all these Chariots OF ANGELS, and all these ANGELS have wings. Three were found lying by this well. THEY ARE THE THREE SFIROT NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, AS MENTIONED, and this well is filled by them IN THE LIGHT OF THE THREE FIRST SFIROT, and it is called 'Adonai'. About this is written: "Adonai Elohim, you have begun..." (Devarim 3:24) And it is written: "And cause Your face to shine upon Your sanctuary that is desolate for the sake of Adonai, the Master of the whole earth" (Daniel 9:17). WHEN IT HAS THE THREE FIRST SFIROT, IT IS REFERRED TO IN THE MASCULINE, MASTER. This is what is written: "Behold the Ark of the Covenant (of) the Master of the whole earth..." (Yehoshua 3:11). In it is concealed one holy source, THAT IS YESOD, that flows into it constantly and fills it. And it is called Hashem Tzeva'ot, blessed is He, for ever and ever.
(End of Tosefta)

214. "Now the priest of Midyan has seven daughters and they came and drew water" (Shemot 2:16). Rabbi Yehuda said: If this well was the well of Jacob, is it not written BY JACOB: "And there were: all the flocks gathered and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth" (Beresheet 29:3)? Yet here the daughters of Yitro did not need this. They just came and drew water without any other effort - MEANING OF ROLLING THE STONE FROM THE MOUTH OF THE WELL.

215. Rabbi Chiya answered: Jacob removed THE STONE from the well. It is written that when the flocks gathered there, they "put the stone back upon the well's mouth" (Ibid.). But by Jacob it is not written that 'he put the stone back', because afterwards there was no more need for the stone, since originally the water would not rise. But when Jacob came, the water rose toward him BECAUSE THE WATER INCREASED. Therefore, that stone was no longer on the mouth of the well, SINCE THEY DID NOT NEED PROTECTION ANYMORE. Therefore, IT SAYS BY THE DAUGHTERS OF YITRO, that they "came and drew," WITHOUT ANY EFFORT OF ROLLING THE STONE.

25. "Come from the four winds, O breath"

Rabbi Elazar begins by quoting the title verse and asks how Ezekiel could have prophesied on the wind when it is clearly written that man cannot control the wind. The answer to this question, we're told, is that he prophesied by God's will. Furthermore the spirit (wind) was embodied in material form in this world, and Ezekiel called to it to come from the region where it resides. This place is not the Garden of Eden, Rabbi Elazar explains, but rather the Throne that stands on four pillars. The soul ascends from the Garden to the Throne and then descends to the world, and just as the body is taken from the four regions of the world, the spirit is taken from the four pillars of the Throne.

This discussion prompts the Jew who sits with the companions to describe his remarkable experience in the desert. He tells them that after entering a fragrant cavern, he found himself in a remarkable place where he encountered a man with a scepter who gave him a bundle of writings to give to the Fellowship. This man then struck him with his scepter, causing him to fall asleep. In his dream, he heard many voices and saw crowds of people arriving at that place. When the man with the scepter touched them with it and spoke to them, they proceeded on and then flew up into the air and disappeared. When he awoke, the Jew continues, the man with the scepter explained that the crowds in his dream were Righteous spirits on their way to the Garden of Eden. He then proceeded to discuss the relationship between the four elements of the body and the four spiritual elements of the body. After concluding his story, the Jew gives the bundle of writings to Rabbi Elazar. When he opens them, a flame explodes and envelops Rabbi Elazar. This allows him to gain new spiritual insight before the bundle flies from his hand, and though he is left grateful and happy, Rabbi Elazar tells nothing of this to his colleagues.

The Relevance of this Passage

No man knows when the messenger of God will arrive in his life, and none knows if he will recognize either messenger or message when they come. This section helps us understand more deeply this idea, and learn to be always alert to whispers from eternity, never dismissing any vessel or vehicle as unworthy to be God's mouthpiece. This will increase our attention to what is happening around us, and we will learn to find the maker's hand in all that He has made, His eyes staring back at us from every face we look upon, and His joy in every little moment of our lives.

216. Rabbi Elazar and Rabbi Aba were traveling from Tiberias to Tzipori. While they were walking, a Jew met them. He joined them. Rabbi Elazar said: Let everyone say a word of Torah.

217. RABBI ELAZAR opened the discussion saying: "Then He said to me, 'Prophecy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath ('wind')...' (Yechezkel 37:9). From this passage, I know from which place the wind emerges, for how was Ezekiel able to prophesy the wind, seeing as it is written: "Man does not have power over the wind to control the wind" (Kohelet 8:8). Man can not control the wind, but the Holy One, blessed be He, rules over everything and Ezekiel was prophesying by His command. Furthermore, the spirit (or: 'wind') was already in the body in this world, BECAUSE THERE DEAD IN THE CAVE, WHOM HE RESURRECTED. Therefore, he prophesied to it, "Come from the four winds, O wind" (Yechezkel 37:9), MEANING from that place which pillars serve as borders at the four winds of the world - WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF THE LOWER THRONE, WHICH IS MALCHUT, THE THRONE FOR ZEIR ANPIN. IT HAS FOUR PILLARS IN THE SECRET OF THE FOUR DIRECTIONS OF THE WORLD, WHICH ARE CHESED AND GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT, WHERE THE SPIRIT STAYS BEFORE IT RETURNS INTO A BODY IN THIS WORLD.

218. That Jew WHO JOINED THEM sprang up before him. Rabbi Elazar said to him: What did you see? He answered: I saw something. He said to him: What is it? He replied: If the spirit of people is attired in the Garden of Eden in the form and image of the body of this world, AND IT RESIDES THERE, it should have been written IN THE PASSAGE: 'Come from the Garden of Eden, O breath (or: 'spirit').' Why does it say, "From the four winds"?

218. דליג ההוא יודאי קמיה, אמר ליה רבי אלעזר,

219. He said to him: The spirit does not descend to this world, until it ascends from the earthly Garden of Eden to the throne - WHICH IS MALCHUT that stands on four pillars, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. When the spirit ascends there, it draws into itself from that throne of the King and descends to this world. The body receives from the four directions of the world, WHICH ARE THE FOUR ELEMENTS: FIRE, AIR, WATER, AND EARTH. The spirit also receives from the four directions of the throne. THEY ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, AND MALCHUT. Thus, it becomes perfected through them.

220. That man said to him: When I jumped before you it WAS BECAUSE I saw something on this subject. One day I was walking in the desert and I saw a tree, which was pleasant to behold, and there was a cave under it. I approached it, and saw that from that cave emanated different scents. I braced myself and entered that cave, and descended certain steps in a place that had many trees, fragrances, and spices that I could not endure.

221. And there I saw a man with a scepter in his hand, standing in an entrance. When he saw me he was surprised, and stood by me. He said to me: What are you doing here and who are you? I became very frightened. I said to him: Sir, I am one of the friends and as I saw such and such in the desert, I entered this cave and came down here.

222. He said to me: Since you are one of the friends, accept this bundle of writings and give it to the friends, to those who know the secrets of the spirits of the righteous ones. He struck me with the wand THAT WAS IN HIS HAND and I fell asleep. During my sleep, I saw many hosts and companies that were coming along the way to that place, and then that man struck with his wand and told them: Go by way of the trees. While they were still going, they flew in the air and ascended but I do not know where. And I heard the sounds of many hosts, and I did not know who they were. I awoke and saw nothing. And I was frightened in that place.

223. Meanwhile, I saw that man. He asked me: Have you seen something? I said to him: I saw something. I saw in my sleep such and such. He said: On that road, the spirits of the righteous go to the Garden of Eden to enter there. And what you heard from them, MEANING THE SOUNDS OF MANY HOSTS, IS BECAUSE they are standing in the Garden in their forms of this world, and they are rejoicing with the righteous who are coming there.

224. As the body is built in this world by the binding of the four elements, FIRE, AIR, WATER AND EARTH, and is formed from them in this world, so the spirit is formed of the four spirits that stand in the Garden of Eden, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT. The spirit is enveloped there and is formed in the image of the body that is formed in this world. And if not for these four spirits which are the air in the Garden - MEANING CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET AND MALCHUT FROM THE LIGHT OF CHASSADIM, THAT IS CALLED 'AIR' - they would not form any image at all and no spirit would be enveloped there.

225. These four spirits are intertwined one with another, and the spirit is formed and wrapped with them, as the body is formed in the bond of the four elements of the world: FIRE, AIR, WATER, AND DUST. Therefore, EZEKIEL SAID: "Come from the four winds, O wind" (Yechezkel 37:9), MEANING these four spirits of the Garden of Eden with which it is clothed and formed. And now accept this bundle of writings and go on your way and give it to the friends.

226. Rabbi Elazar and the friends approached the Jew, kissing him on the forehead. Rabbi Elazar said: Blessed is the Merciful who sent you here, because this is certainly clarification of the matter. The Holy One, blessed be He, brought to my mouth this passage: "COME FROM THE FOUR WINDS," SO THAT YOU WOULD REVEAL TO ME ITS SECRET. The man gave him the bundle of writings. As soon as Rabbi Elazar took it and opened it, a conflagration emerged and surrounded him. He saw in the bundle of writings what he saw, and the bundle flew out of his hands.

227. Rabbi Elazar wept and said: Who can fathom the secrets of the King, as it is written: "Hashem, who shall abide in Your tent? Who shall dwell in Your holy hill?" (Tehilim 15:1). Blessed is the way and the moment that we met you. And from that day, Rabbi Elazar rejoiced and said nothing to his friends OF WHAT HE SAW IN THE WRITINGS. While they were still traveling, they came upon a well of water, stood there and drank of the water.

26. The well of Moses and Jacob

In this section, Rabbi Elazar discourses on the well of Jacob and Moses. The waters of this well arose towards Jacob and he found his spouse, Rachel, there. Similarly, when Moses came across the well, the waters rose towards Moses and he joined there with his spouse, Tziporah. The discussion then turns to Yitro, a heathen priest who renounced paganism and ceased to worship idols. Because of this renunciation, Yitro's people excommunicated him and they drove his daughters away so they could not water his flock. Through the Holy Spirit, Moses knew that their mistreatment was caused by their rejection of idolatry, and so Moses helped Yitro's daughters. With the help of a metaphorical example, Rabbi Chiya then explains that their rescue was actually due to the Egyptian whom Moses killed.

The Relevance of this Passage

The fugue-like repetitions of the theme of the dead Egyptian stretching across many of the surrounding sections here, helps to make us more aware of the complex chains of cause and effect in our own lives, enabling us to see the importance of only creating righteous effects, and also not judging the actions of others because we cannot know from whence they really sprang to begin with. This lesson of tolerance is invaluable, for unless we cease to judge we shall not be spared judgement ourselves.

228. Rabbi Elazar said: Blessed is the portion of the righteous. Jacob fled from his brother and he chanced upon a well, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF NUKVA. As soon as the well saw him, the waters recognized their master, and they rose toward him, IN THE SECRET OF MAYIN NUKVIN ('FEMALE WATERS'). And they rejoiced with him and then his soulmate, RACHEL, joined him. Moses fled from Pharaoh and chanced upon that well, and the waters saw him and recognized their master and rose towards him, IN THE SECRET OF MAYIN NUKVIN, and there he was joined by his soulmate, TZIPORAH.

229. What was the difference between Moses and Jacob? MEANING THERE IS REALLY NO DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MOSES AND JACOB. It is written of Jacob: "And it came to pass that when Jacob saw Rachel... and rolled the stone..." (Bereshheet 29:10). Of Moses it is written: "And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them" (Shemot 2:17). After he saw the waters rising towards him, certainly Moses knew that he would find his soulmate there. Also, the Holy Spirit never departed from him, and through it he knew that Tziporah would be his wife. Moses said: 'Certainly when Jacob came here and the waters rose towards him, someone came to him who took him to his home and gave him all his needs. So will it be with me!'

230. That man said: So have I learned that Yitro was a priest to idols; as soon as he saw that there is nothing in idolatry, he separated from its service. The people arose and excommunicated him. When the people saw his daughters COMING TO WATER HIS SHEEP, they drove them away. For originally, they THEMSELVES herded his sheep, SINCE HE WAS THEIR PRIEST. As soon as Moses saw, by the Holy Spirit, that they were doing this because of the matter of idolatry, "Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock." And all this was done through zealotness for the Holy One, blessed be He.

231. Rabbi Elazar said to him: You are with us but we do not know your name. He said: I am Yoezer, the son of Jacob. The friends came and kissed him and said: You have been with us and we did not know you. They walked together all that day and the morrow they escorted him three miles and he went on his way.

232. "And they said: 'An Egyptian man delivered us'" (Shemot 2:19). Rabbi Chiya said: The friends explained this to mean that the Holy Spirit flickered in them WHEN THEY SAID "AN EGYPTIAN MAN DELIVERED US." They spoke but did not know what they spoke. FOR EXAMPLE, a man was dwelling in a wilderness and many days passed that he ate no food. One day, a bear came to catch a lamb. The lamb fled and the bear PURSUED him until they reached that man in the wilderness. He saw the lamb, grabbed it, slaughtered it and ate the meat. WE FIND THAT THE BEAR CAUSED THAT MAN TO EAT FOOD. ALSO, HERE THE EGYPTIAN THAT WAS KILLED BY MOSES CAUSED MOSES TO FLEE AND COME TO MIDYAN, TO THE WELL. THEREFORE, THEY SAID: "AN EGYPTIAN MAN DELIVERED US," WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT, MEANING THE EGYPTIAN MAN THAT MOSES KILLED.

27. "I am black, but comely"

In answer to questions regarding the verse, "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael," Rabbi Yehuda explains the title verse, "I am black but comely..." This, we learn, is a reference to the Shechinah who is described as "black" because Yisrael are in captivity, but "comely" because they cleave to the Torah and good deeds. For this, the children of Yisrael will inherit the heavenly Jerusalem.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reminds us that it is our faith and good works rather than our circumstances that make us beautiful in the eyes of God. The image of the celestial Jerusalem gains greater significance too, and we will find it easier to summon up this potent image in prayer and everyday life, feeling the energy of the Shechinah drawing closer each day, bringing with her the limitless Light of the beloved One.

233. Another explanation of: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael" (Shemot 1:1). HE WAS PRESENTED WITH THIS DIFFICULTY: YISRAEL IS THE NAME OF GREATNESS, AND SO WHY IS THIS NAME MENTIONED WHEN THEY CAME TO THE EXILE IN EGYPT? AND WHY DOES HE REPEAT AFTERWARDS "WITH JACOB," WHICH IS THE NAME OF SMALLNESS? AND TO ANSWER THIS, Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion saying: "I am black, but comely..." (Shir Hashirm 1:5). "I am black, but comely," refers to the Congregation of Yisrael, THAT IS, THE SHECHINAH that is black from the exile, "but comely" with Torah, commandments and good deeds THAT THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL DO. "O, daughters of Jerusalem"; THESE ARE THE SOULS, WHO ARE OCCUPIED WITH TORAH AND THE PRECEPTS. Therefore, they merit inheriting the celestial Jerusalem, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH. "Like the tents of Kedar" - although she is blackened (Heb. koderet) in exile, STILL IN ALL in actions She is "like the curtains of Solomon" (Heb. Shlomo), MEANING like the curtains, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE LIGHTS of the King, to Whom peace (Heb. shalom) belongs, WHICH IS ZEIR

28. "Make haste, my beloved"

When Rabbi Chiya the Great goes to visit Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai to learn from the masters of the Mishnah, he see a curtain of fire behind which Rabbi Shimon and his students converse. Deciding to listen to the conversation from outside of the house, he hears an explanation of the title verse. According to the masters, we learn that this verse signifies the longing of Yisrael for God, as they implore Him not distance Himself from them without looking back.

Rabbi Shimon then hears Rabbi Chiya weeping outside of the house and tells his students that the Shechinah is with him. Knowing that the Shechinah will protect him from being burned by the fiery curtain, Rabbi Elazar is about to go and bring him in when he hears a voice that stops him. Rabbi Chiya then quotes the title verse and the curtain parts, a sign granting Rabbi Chiya permission to enter. Rabbi Shimon then stands up and the fire moves from the place where he stands to Rabbi Chiya, causing him to become mute. Rabbi Chiya enters with his eyes lowered and is unable to speak until Rabbi Elazar passes his hand over Rabbi Chiya's mouth. Rabbi Chiya then expounds upon his newfound insight: "It is good to die in the good golden fire that is burning." This is the place of Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai. From here, sparks fly on all sides and ascend to the 370 Chariots, each of which then separates into thousands until it reaches the Ancient of Days, who sits on a throne. The throne trembles, and this trembling penetrates to 260 worlds until it reaches the righteous in Eden and is heard throughout all the Firmaments. When Rabbi Shimon expounds on the Torah, all the celestial beings listen to his voice in silence. After he concludes, all rejoice and the souls and angels come to kneel before God, raising up the secrets of the spices that are in Eden to the Ancient of Days. Rabbi Shimon then explains that six levels of Holiness (Sfirot) descended with Jacob into Egypt, and corresponding to these are the six levels of Yisrael and the six steps to the supernal Throne. Each of the aforementioned six are equal to ten, and so there are sixty in all, corresponding to the sixty mighty men that surround the Shechinah. When Rabbi Chiya points out that there are seven Sfirot, Rabbi Shimon explains that the level of Malchut is not counted because it does not illuminate of itself. The Relevance of this Passage

So mighty and awesome is the description in this section that a reading of its soul-stirring poetry is alone sufficient to elevate one's consciousness until it is in tune with these great souls of old, and with the sheer grandeur and majesty of the creation. It is then possible to grasp just a tiny sense of what it means to be in the presence of God, for if His creation is so ineffably beautiful in form and so inspiring in feel, how much more so will be its creator? The sense of wonder thus cultivated must then be retained, for there is nowhere within His creation that the creator does not exist.

234. Rabbi Chiya Raba went to the masters of the Mishnah to learn from them. He went to Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, and saw a curtain OF FIRE that divided the house. AND RABBI SHIMON AND HIS STUDENTS WERE IN THE INSIDE OF THE CURTAIN. Rabbi Chiya was mystified and said: I will hear a word from his mouth from here, FROM OUTSIDE THE FIERY CURTAIN.

234. רבי חייא רבא, הוה אזיל לגבי מאריהון דמתניתא, למילף מנייהו. אזל לגבי רבי שמעון בן יוחאי, וחמא פרגוד חר, דהוה פסיק בביתא. תוה רבי חייא, אמר, אשמע מלה מפומיה מהכא.

235. He heard THE VOICE OF ONE OF THE STUDENTS OF RABBI SHIMON, who said: "Make haste, my beloved, and be you like a gazelle or a young hart" (Shir Hashirm 8:14). All the longings that Yisrael had for the Holy One, blessed be He, were AS Rabbi Shimon said: the desire of Yisrael is that the Holy One, blessed be He, should not distance Himself, but rather run like a gazelle or a young deer.

235. שמע דהוה אמר, ברח דודי דמה לך לצבי או לעופר האילים. כל כסופא דכסיפו ישראל מקודשא בריך הוא הוא, דאר"ש, תאותם של ישראל, שיהיה הקודשא בריך הוא לא הולך ולא מתרחק, אלא בורח בצבי או בעופר האילים.

236. Rabbi Shimon said: What is the reason that there is no animal in the world who does as the gazelle or young deer, which when he flees, goes a measure and turns his head to the place whence he left. He always turns his head backwards. So did Yisrael say: 'Master of the Universe, if we cause that You ascend from us, let it be Your desire that You shall flee like a gazelle or young deer who flees, and turns his head to the place that he left' - MEANING THE PLACE HE WAS BEFORE, FROM WHERE HE FLED. This is what is written: "And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly" (Vayikra. 26:44). Another explanation is that the deer sleeps with one eye, while the other eye is awake. So did Yisrael say to the Holy One, blessed be He: 'Do as the deer; "Behold, the Guardian of Yisrael neither slumbers nor sleeps" (Tehilim 121:4)'.

236. מ"ט, אר"ש, אין חיה בעולם עושה כמו הצבי או בעופר האילים, בזמן שהוא בורח הולך מעט מעט, ומחזיר את ראשו למקום שיצא ממנו, ולעולם תמיד הוא מחזיר את ראשו לאחוריו. כך אמרו ישראל, רבש"ע, אם אנו גורמים שתסתלק מבינינו, יהי רצון, שתברח כמו הצבי או כמו עופר האילים, שהוא בורח ומחזיר את ראשו למקום שהניח, הה"ד, ואף גם זאת בהיותם בארץ אויביהם לא מאסתים ולא געלתים לכלותם. ד"א, הצבי כשהוא ישן, הוא ישן בעין אחת, והאחרת הוא נעור, כך אמרו ישראל לקודשא בריך הוא, עשה כמו הצבי, שהנה לא ינום ולא ישן שומר ישראל.

237. Rabbi Chiya heard and said: Those higher ones are occupied WITH TORAH inside the house and I sit outside. He wept. Rabbi Shimon heard and said: Assuredly, the Shechinah is outside, MEANING WITH RABBI CHIYA, who will go out AND BRING HIM IN. His son Rabbi Elazar said: If I am burned BY GOING OUT THROUGH THE FIERY CURTAIN, I will not be burned because the Shechinah is outside BY RABBI CHIYA. Let the Shechinah enter and the fire OF THE CURTAIN will be complete. Rabbi Elazar heard a voice that said: The pillars have not yet been supported, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE THREE COLUMNS, and the gates have still not been completed, MEANING THE FIFTY GATES OF BINAH, and he is now of the smaller spice trees of Eden, MEANING OF THE SMALLEST SOULS WHO ARE CALLED "SPICES". THEREFORE, Rabbi Elazar did not go out TO BRING HIM IN.

238. Rabbi Chiya sat, wept and sighed. He opened the discussion, saying: "Turn, my beloved, and be you like a gazelle or young hart" (Shir Hashirm 2:17), MEANING ACCORDING TO THE EXPLANATION THAT HE HEARD FROM RABBI SHIMON - THAT EVEN THOUGH THAT HE WAS FLEEING, HE TURNED HIS HEAD BACK AND DID NOT DISTANCE HIMSELF, AND THEN the gate of the curtain opened. BUT Rabbi Chiya did not enter. Rabbi Shimon raised his eyes AND SAW THAT THE ENTRANCE OF THE CURTAIN OPENED. He said: Apparently, permission has been granted to whoever is outside, yet we are inside, AND WE MUST NOT BRING HIM IN. Rabbi Shimon stood up and the fire moved from its place to the place of Rabbi Chiya. Rabbi Shimon said: The spark of the ingathering light HAS ALREADY SPREAD outside, TO RABBI CHIYA, yet I am here inside AND I MUST NOT BRING HIM IN. Rabbi Chiya's mouth became mute BECAUSE OF THE FIRE THAT SPREAD TOWARDS HIM.

239. As soon as RABBI CHIYA entered inside, he lowered his eyes and did not raise his head. Rabbi Shimon said to his son Rabbi Elazar: Pass your hand over the mouth OF RABBI CHIYA because he does not know about this, as he is not accustomed to it. AND HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT TO DO. Rabbi Elazar arose and passed his hand over Rabbi Chiya's mouth. Rabbi Chiya opened his mouth and said: My eye has seen what I have not EVER seen and my stature has straightened, for I have never thought SO. It is good to die in the good golden fire that is burning.

240. In the place OF RABBI SHIMON BAR YOCHAI, which casts sparks to all sides, every single spark ascends to 370 Chariots. THEN, every single Chariot separates to thousands, and tens of thousands, until it reaches Atik Yomin that sits on a throne. And the throne trembles from it to 260 worlds.

241. Until RABBI SHIMON BAR YOCHAI reaches the place of Eden of the righteous, until THE SUPERIORITY OF RABBI SHIMON BAR YOCHAI is heard throughout the firmaments, those above and below at the same time are amazed and say: Is this Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai who shook everything up? Who can stand before him? This is Rabbi Shimon whose voice, at the moment he opens his mouth to start occupying himself with Torah, all the thrones, and all the firmaments, and all the Chariots hearken to, and also all those that praise their Master.

242. There is no one to open TO SING PRAISES, and there is no one to end HIS SONG OF PRAISE. THAT IS TO SAY, THOSE WHO ARE IN THE MIDDLE OF THEIR PRAISES DO NOT FINISH THEIR PRAISES, FOR they are all there TO HEARKEN TO THE VOICE OF RABBI SHIMON BAR YOCHAI. It comes to a point that no utterance is heard in all the heavens above and below. When Rabbi Shimon concludes his occupation with Torah, who has seen songs, who has seen joy of those that praise their Master, who has seen the voices that permeate all the heavens. And because of Rabbi Shimon they all come, MEANING ALL THE SOULS AND ANGELS, and kneel and bow before their Master, raising up the secrets of the spices that are in Eden, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, until Atik Yomin. And all this is because of Rabbi Shimon.

243. Rabbi Shimon opened his mouth and said: Six levels descended with Jacob to Egypt. THEY ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD. And each one EXPANDS TO ten, WHEN THEY ARE IN THE ILLUMINATION OF ZEIR ANPIN ALONE. THEN THEY ARE SIXTY, AND ARE one thousand WHEN THEY RECEIVE THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THOUSANDS. THEN, THEY ARE SIXTY THOUSAND, UP TO ten thousand, WHEN RECEIVING THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM FROM ATIK, AND THEY ARE SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND. And corresponding to them are six levels to Yisrael - BECAUSE FROM YISRAEL THEY DESCEND TO JACOB. Corresponding to them are six steps to the supernal throne, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET OF ZEIR ANPIN THAT INCLUDES NETZACH, HOD, YESOD. And corresponding to them are the six steps to the lower throne, WHICH IS MALCHUT, WHICH ARE CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD AND YESOD as is written: "The throne had six steps" (I Melachim 10:19). This is the meaning of: "I will cause you to increase like the plant of the field" (Yechezkel 16:7), WHICH IS THE FIRST GRADE; "AND YOU DID INCREASE," WHICH IS THE SECOND; "AND GROW BIG," THE THIRD; "AND YOU DID COME TO POSSESS GREAT ATTRACTIONS," THE FOURTH; "YOUR BREASTS WERE FIRM," THE FIFTH; "AND YOUR HAIR WAS GROWN," THE SIXTH. Correspondingly, it is written: "And the children of Yisrael were fruitful" (Shemot 1:7), WHICH IS THE FIRST; "and increased abundantly," THE SECOND; "and multiplied," THE THIRD; "and grew," THE FOURTH; "exceedingly," THE FIFTH; and "mighty," THE SIXTH.

244. Come and behold: each one OF THE AFOREMENTIONED SIX EXTREMITIES equals ten - MEANING FROM THE ILLUMINATION OF ZEIR ANPIN ITSELF, WHOSE SFIROT ARE COUNTED BY TENS, AS AFOREMENTIONED - and THE SIX EXTREMITIES become sixty. THEN they are the sixty valiant men who surround the Shechinah, AS IS WRITTEN: "BEHOLD THE LITTER, THAT OF SOLOMON" (SHIR HASHIRM 3:7), WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH THAT IS CALLED 'BED'. "SIXTY VALIANT MEN ARE ROUND ABOUT IT, OF THE MIGHTY MEN OF YISRAEL." And they are six hundred thousand," WHEN SHE RECEIVES THE ILLUMINATION OF CHASSADIM FROM ATIK YOMIN AS MENTIONED ABOVE, that emerged with Yisrael from the exile, and came with Jacob to the exile.

242. לִית דְּפִתְחוֹן וְלִית דְּמַסִּימִין, כְּלָהּ מִשְׁתַּבְּחִין, עַד לָא אֲשַׁתְּמַע בְּכָל רְקִיעֵי דְלַעִילָא וְתַתָּא, פְּטָרָא. בְּדַ מַּסִּיִּים רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן לְמַלְעֵי בְּאוּרֵייתָא, מֵאֵן חֲמֵי שִׁירֵין, מֵאֵן חֲמֵי חֲדוּתָא, דְּמִשְׁבַּחִין לְמַרְיָהוֹן, מֵאֵן חֲמֵי קְלִין דְּאֲזֻלִּין בְּכָלְהוּ רְקִיעֵין. אֲתֵין כְּלָהּ בְּגִינֵיהּ דַּר"ש, וְכַרְעִין וְסִגְדִין קָמֵי דְמַרְיָהוֹן, סִלְקִין רֵיחִין דְּבוּסְמִין דְּעַדָּן, עַד עַתִּיק יוֹמִין, וְכָל הָאֵי בְּגִינֵיהּ דַּר"ש.

243. פִּתַּח רַבִּי שְׁמַעוֹן פּוֹמִיָּה וְאָמַר, שֵׁית דְּרַגִּין נִחְתּוּ עִמִּיהּ דִּיעֻקֵּב לְמִצְרַיִם וְכָל חַד וְחַד עֲשָׂרָה אֶלֶף רְבּוּא. וְלִקְבְּלֵיהוֹן שֵׁית דְּרַגִּין לְיִשְׂרָאֵל. וְלִקְבְּלֵיהוֹן שֵׁית דְּרַגִּין לְכַרְסֵיָא דְלַעִילָא. וְלִקְבְּלֵיהוֹן שֵׁית דְּרַגִּין לְכַרְסֵיָא דְלַתַּתָּא. דְּכַתִּיב שֵׁשׁ מַעֲלוֹת לְכֶסֶּא. הֵה"ד רַבְּבָה כְּצֻמַח הַשָּׂדֶה נִתְתִּיךְ וְגו', הֲרֵי שֵׁית. וְלִקְבְּלֵיהוֹן כְּתִיב, וּבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל פָּרוּ וַיִּשְׂרְצוּ וַיִּרְבוּ וַיַּעֲצֻמוּ וְגו'.

244. תָּא חֲזִי, כָּל חַד וְחַד סְלִיק לְעֲשָׂרָה, וְהוּוּ שְׁתִּין, וְאִינוּן שְׁתִּין גְּבֵרִין דְּבִסְחָרְנֵי שְׂכִינְתָא, וְאִינוּן שְׁתִּין רַבְּבִין, דְּנִמְקוּ עִם יִשְׂרָאֵל מִגְּלוּתָא, וְדַעֲלוּ עִם יַעֲקֹב בְּגְלוּתָא.

245. Rabbi Chiya said to him: But they are seven: CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, YESOD, AND MALCHUT. AND WHEN EACH ONE BECOME TEN they add up to seventy, AND NOT SIXTY. Rabbi Shimon said to him that seventy does not apply here, BECAUSE HERE ARE CONSIDERED THE LEVELS THAT ILLUMINATE, AND THE LEVEL OF MALCHUT DOES NOT ILLUMINATE OF ITSELF. And if you wish to consider seven, MEANING TO COUNT ALSO MALCHUT WITH THE SIX EXTREMITIES, it is written: "And six branches shall come out of its sides; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side..." (Shemot 25:32). FOR THEY CORRESPOND TO CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, and one branch that is central, WHICH IS MALCHUT, is not counted, as it is written: "...the seven lamps shall give light towards the body of the candlestick..." (Bemidbar 8:2). BECAUSE MALCHUT DOES NOT ILLUMINATE OF ITSELF, IT ONLY RECEIVES FROM THE SIX CANDLES.

245. א"ל ר' חייא, והא הוּו שבעה, וסלקין לשבעין, א"ל ר' שמעון, שבעין לאו מהכא, ואי ס"ד שבעה, הא כתיב וששה קנים יוצאים מצדיה שלשה קני מנורה וגו'. וקנה האחד האמצעי לאו בחשבנא, דכתיב אל מול פני המנורה יאירו וגו'.

29. Wherefore exile, and wherefore to Egypt

Rabbi Elazar begins the discussion by asking his father why God allowed Yisrael to go into exile, and why into Egypt. After receiving encouragement from his father, he interprets the verse, "There are sixty queens, eighty concubines and young women without number." We then learn that God scattered all the nations across the earth and appointed supernal ministers over them, taking Yisrael as His portion. Indeed, God created the world for the sake of Yisrael and endowed it with permanence through Abraham (Wisdom), Isaac (Understanding) and Jacob (Knowledge). Once the twelve Tribes were born to Jacob, the supernal pattern was complete, as ordained from the beginning. If Yisrael assimilated with other nations, all the worlds would become tainted. Therefore, God caused Yisrael to wander the earth until they fell among the Egyptians, who made them slaves and despised them and their customs. Because the Egyptians hated them and would not mingle with them, they became perfected completely within the Holy Seed (without any mixture of foreign people) and the guilt of the other nations became complete.

The Relevance of this Passage

246. While they were still sitting, Rabbi Elazar said to his father, Rabbi Shimon: Why did the Holy One, blessed be He, cause the children of Yisrael to go down to Egypt in exile? He said to him: Are you asking one question or two questions? RABBI ELAZAR said to him: Two. I AM ASKING: why the exile? And why, PARTICULARLY, in Egypt? Rabbi Shimon said to him: They are two questions that result in one question! RABBI SHIMON said to him: Establish yourself, THAT IS, IN YOUR LEVEL. Because of this you will be established above, IN THE HEAVENLY YESHIVAH, in your name. Speak up, my son, speak up.

246. עד דהוּו יתבי, אר"א לרבי שמעון אבוי, מה חמא קודשא בריך הוא, לנחתא ישראל, למצרים בגלותא. א"ל חדא שאלתא את שאיל, או תרין. א"ל תרין. גלותא למה. ולמצרים למה. א"ל תרין אינון ואתחזרו לחד. א"ל קום בקיומך בגינך יתקיים לעילא, משמך האי מלה, אימא ברי אימא.

247. He opened the discussion saying: "There are sixty queens, eighty concubines and young women without number" (Shir Hashirm 6:8). "There are sixty queens"; they are the mighty men of above, from the side of Gvurah, who hold onto the inscriptions, MEANING THE EXTERIORS, of the holy living creature of Yisrael, WHICH IS MALCHUT, AND THEREFORE BAMED AFTER IT: "SIXTY QUEENS." THEY ARE THE ANGELS WHO ARE APPOINTED OVER THE NATIONS, AS WRITTEN FURTHER. "And eighty concubines" are THE ANGELS who are appointed in the inscriptions of the queens which are under THE SIXTY QUEENS. THEREFORE, THEY ARE CALLED 'CONCUBINES' AND NOT 'QUEENS'. "And young women without number," is as is written: "Is there any number to His armies?" (Iyov 25:3). And yet it is written: "My Dove, my undefiled is but one, she is the only one of her mother..." (Shir Hashirm 6:9). This is the Holy Shechinah that emerges from twelve lights, AND IS the shine that illuminates everything. Therefore it is called 'mother', AS IT IS WRITTEN: "SHE IS THE ONLY ONE OF HER MOTHER."

247. פתח ואמר ששים המה מלכות ושמונים פילגשים. ששים המה מלכות, אינון גבריא דלעילא מחילא דגבורא דאתחדן בגליפין, דחיותא קדישא דישראל. ושמונים פילגשים, ממנן בגליפוי דתחותוי. ועלמות אין מספר, כד"א היש מספר לגדודיו. ועם כל דא כתיב, אחת היא יונתי תמתי אחת היא לאמה, דא היא שכנתא קדישא דנפקא מתריסר זיהרא, דזהרא דנהיר לכלא, ואיהי אתקרי אמא.

248. Similarly, the Holy One, blessed be He, did in this world. He cast all the nations to every side and appointed overseers over them, as is written: "Which Hashem your Elohim has allotted to all the nations" (Devarim 4:19). And He, MEANING THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, took as His portion the Congregation of Yisrael. This is written: "For Hashem's portion is His people, Jacob is the lot of His inheritance" (Devarim 32:9). And He called it: "My Dove, my undefiled is but one, she is the only one of her Mother." This is the Shechinah of His glory, which He caused to dwell among them. She is the only one and is selected for Him. "The daughters saw her and called her happy," as is written: "Many daughters have done virtuously, but you excel them all" (Mishlei 31:29). "And the queens and the concubines praised her" (Shir Hasirim 6:9). These were the Princes of the nations that were appointed over them.

249. And another secret we have learned is that the world was created by ten sayings, but when you observe it closely, they are really three through which the world was created - NAMELY Chochmah, Tevunah, and Da'at. And the world was created only for Yisrael. When the Holy One, blessed be He, wanted to preserve the world, He did for Abraham with the secret of Chochmah, for Isaac with the secret of Tevunah, and for Jacob with the secret of Da'at. It is written: "And by knowledge are the chambers filled" (Mishlei 24:4). THIS IS THE SECRET OF CHESED, GVURAH, TIFERET, WHICH ARE ABRAHAM, ISAAC AND JACOB. THEY ROSE TO BECOME CHOCHMAH, BINAH, AND DA'AT. At that moment, the entire world was perfected. And when the twelve tribes were born to Jacob, WHICH ARE THE SECRET OF THE TWELVE DIAGONAL BORDERS, everything was perfected IN THIS WORLD as above IN ATZILUT.

250. When the Holy One, blessed be He, saw the great joy of this world when it was perfected as above, He said: 'Heaven forbid that THE TWELVE TRIBES become mixed among the other nations and there will remain a blemish in all the worlds.' What did the Holy One, blessed be He, do? He caused them to move from here to there until they descended to Egypt to settle in their homes among a stiff-necked people who ridiculed their customs, were too scornful to intermarry with them and to mingle with them, and considered them slaves. The men scorned them and the women scorned them, until they became perfected completely into a holy seed, WITHOUT ANY MIXTURE OF A FOREIGN PEOPLE. In the meantime, the sin of the nations was completed as is written: "For the iniquity of the Emori is not yet full" (Beresheet 15:16). When they left, they left holy and righteous as is written: "The tribes of Yah, as a testimony for Yisrael" (Tehilim 122:4). Rabbi Shimon came and kissed him on his head, and said to him: stand in your position, my son - MEANING AT YOUR LEVEL - for the moment is at your command.

30. "He did neither eat bread nor drink water"

After two days of continual discussion without food or water, Rabbi Shimon quotes the title verse to Rabbi Elazar. He observes that since they were caught up in Divine contemplation for just two days, forgetting to eat or drink, it is understandable that when Moses "was there with Hashem forty days and forty nights, he did neither eat bread nor drink water."

Upon hearing this, Rabbi Shimon ben Gamliel compares Rabbi Shimon to a fearful lion, different to other lions. He explains that Rabbi Shimon is so close to God that he does not order a fast for what he prays for; he simply decrees and God fulfills. Moreover, he may even annul God's decrees, for as God rules over man, the righteous man rules over God.

The Relevance of this Passage

This profoundly mystical section helps us to grasp one of the most extraordinary of all Kabbalistic concepts: that the wholly righteous man, the purified man, is in effect his own God, and can be said to rule over God. This was the original idea of royalty, that the royal man was he who had completed himself, was thus one with God. A reading of the section will inspire in us the urge to arrange a time when we can retreat to a spiritually conducive place to spend a few days fasting and in contemplation solely of our Heavenly Father. Such a retreat will further help us to appreciate the self-control and sheer willpower of the Zohar's rabbis, and gain some idea of what it takes to wring such insights and wisdom from scripture. In the process we will also learn the importance of mastering our own desires if we are to advance in knowledge of the truth.

251. Rabbi Shimon sat while his son, Rabbi Elazar, stood and explained the secrets of the words of wisdom, and his face shone like the sun. And the word spread and flew in the sky. They sat two days and neither ate nor drank, and they did not know if it was day or night. When they went out, they realized that already two days had passed and they had eaten nothing. Rabbi Shimon exclaimed: "And he was there with Hashem forty days and forty nights, he did neither eat bread nor drink water" (Shemot 34:28). If for us, WHO MERITED TO CLEAVE TO HASHEM for a while it was so, THAT AND WE SPENT TWO DAYS IN THE LIGHT OF HASHEM AND DID NOT KNOW WHERE WE WERE, with Moses, about whom the Torah bears witness: "And he was there with Hashem forty days" - it is much more so.

252. When Rabbi Chiya came before Rabbi and told him the story, Rabbi was amazed. His father, Rabbi Shimon ben Gamliel said to him: My son, Rabbi Shimon ben Yochai is a lion, and his son Rabbi Elazar is a lion, and Rabbi Shimon is not like the other lions. About him is written: "A lion has roared, who will not fear?" (Amos 3:8). Now that the higher worlds tremble before him, we certainly do. He is man who never decreed a fast for what he asked or prayed for. He would just decree and the Holy One, blessed be He, would fulfill. The Holy One, blessed be He, decrees and he annuls. This is what we learned of the meaning of the passage: "He that rules over men must be just, ruling in the fear of Elohim" (Shmuel II 23:3). The Holy One, blessed be He, rules over man, and who rules over the Holy One, blessed be He, but the righteous man. For He decrees and the righteous man annuls it.

31. Twelve mountains of balsam trees

This section begins with reference to Rabbi Yehuda's comment that although God delights in the prayers of the Righteous, He does not always grant their requests. There follows an account illustrating this idea. Once, during a drought, Rabbi Eliezer prayed and decreed forty fasts to no avail, yet after Rabbi Akiva prayed, the wind and rain came immediately. Seeing Rabbi Eliezer's chagrin, Rabbi Akiva stood before the congregation and told them a parable. In it, he compared Rabbi Eliezer to a friend of a king who loved him so dearly that he delayed granting his friend's request in order to prolong his visit. In contrast, the king instantly granted the requests of his servant in order to dispense with him quickly. Rabbi Eliezer then tells Rabbi Akiva his dream, in which he saw the verse, "Therefore pray you not for this people..." and reveals that he was crestfallen because although he knew another could pray for them, the congregation thought he was of a lower degree than Rabbi Akiva. Rabbi Eliezer then describes the dream in which he saw twelve mountains of balsam trees; the one who wears a breastplate and Eford entered and prayed to God to have mercy on the world. He explains that there are eighteen mountains of balsam. The Righteous souls enter there, and from there 49 aromas ascend daily to Eden. These correspond to the 49 pure aspects and the 49 impure aspects of the Torah, the 49 letters of the names of the twelve Tribes, and the 49 day interval between the exodus and the handing of the Torah to Yisrael. The one who wears the breastplate sits on a holy throne supported by the four pillars, the Patriarchs, who receive from the twelve stones that illuminate in the breastplate. They raise their eyes and see the sparks that glitter on 620 sides of the Crown, on which the Holy Name is engraved. Then the pillars tremble, "And the heavens become revealed like a book" (Yeshayah 34:4).

The Relevance of this Passage

This section, like the earlier one, is designed to evoke our deepest wonder at the splendor of these rabbinical visions of creation's structures, with all their complexity and precision. Yet we also learn here of the deep humility required of those who would gain access to the hidden worlds. It helps us cultivate this most vital of qualities by reminding us that, no matter how high we progress in our studies, we shall never reach the heights of a Rabbi Akiva, and yet he was the humblest and gentlest of men - a far more worthy role model than the greatest world leader or most brilliant artist there has ever been.

253. We learned that Rabbi Yehuda said: There is nothing that is so cherished by the Holy One, blessed be He, as the prayers of the righteous. Even though it pleases Him, sometimes He grants their request and sometimes He does not.

254. The sages have taught that one time the world needed rain. Rabbi Eliezer came and decreed forty fasts, but rain did not come. He prayed, but rain did not come. Rabbi Akiva came, stood and prayed. He said: "He makes the wind to blow," and the wind blew strong and powerful. He said: "And He makes the rain fall" and rain came. Rabbi Elazar was crestfallen. Rabbi Akiva looked into his face AND SENSED HE WAS DISCOURAGED.

255. Rabbi Akiva stood up before the people and said: I will give an example similar to the situation. Rabbi Eliezer is compared to the friend of the king, who is cherished exceedingly. And when he appears before the king, he is very pleasantly accepted, and the king does not want to grant him his wish quickly so that he will not leave him, because it is so pleasant to speak with him. But I am likened to the servant of the king who makes a request of him, and the king does not want him to enter the gates of the palace, and naturally does not want not to speak to him. The king says: Grant his request immediately and do not let him enter here. Similarly, Rabbi Eliezer is the friend of the King and I am a servant. The king desires to speak with him constantly and not to be away from him. But as for me, the king does not want me to enter the gates of the palace, THEREFORE HE GRANTS MY WISH IMMEDIATELY. Rabbi Eliezer regained his composure.

256. RABBI ELIEZER said to him: Akiva, come and I will tell you something. In a dream, there appeared to me the passage: "Therefore pray you not for this people; lift up neither cry nor prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me" (Yirmeyah 7:16). Behold, DUE TO THE SINS OF THE GENERATION, THE PRAYER ON THEIR BEHALF IS NOT ACCEPTED, AND STILL IT SAYS, "THEREFORE PRAY YOU NOT FOR THIS PEOPLE." THIS IMPLIES THAT OTHERS MAY PRAY ON THEIR BEHALF. THEREFORE I WAS NOT ANSWERED, BUT YOU WERE ANSWERED. AND MORE THAN THIS, THERE ARE CERTAIN THINGS ON WHOSE BEHALF NO RIGHTEOUS MAN IN THE WORLD CAN PRAY. Come and behold: twelve mountains of balsam trees. THE ONE WHO RAISES FEMALE WATERS, the one who wears the breastplate and Efod, enters and prays to the Holy One, blessed be He, BY RAISING FEMALE WATERS TO BINAH, to have mercy on the world. Until now, his prayer is still suspended, THAT IS, IT HAS NOT BEEN ACCEPTED. FOR THESE ARE THINGS FOR WHICH PRAYERS ARE NOT ACCEPTED. AND HE ASKS: If so, why was Rabbi Eliezer crestfallen, SINCE HE SAW IN HIS DREAM, "THEREFORE PRAY YOU NOT..." FROM WHICH IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT ANOTHER MAY PRAY. AND HE ANSWERS: That was because of the people who did not know this. THEY THOUGHT THAT HE WAS ON A LOWER DEGREE THAN RABBI AKIVA.

257. Rabbi Eliezer said: There are eighteen mountains of supernal balsam trees. The souls of the righteous enter BY RAISING FEMALE WATERS. And 49 fragrances, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE FIFTY GATES OF BINAH LESS ONE, ascend daily FROM BINAH to that place called 'Eden', WHICH IS CHOCHMAH. Corresponding to this, the Torah was given in 49 impure aspects and in 49 pure aspects, FOR BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF THE FIFTIETH GATE, THERE EVOLVED 49 IMPURE ASPECTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SECRET OF THE VERSE: "THE ELOHIM HAS MADE THE ONE AS WELL AS THE OTHER" (KOHLELET 7:14). The 49 letters in the names of the tribes AND LIKEWISE the 49 days OF THE SFIRAH OF THE OMER, in order to receive the Torah, FOR THEY CONTAIN 49 SUPERNAL DAYS OF THE MALE AND FEMALE, are going to receive permission, MEANING TO BECOME PERFECTED daily from THESE 49 DAYS, the illuminating stones THAT ARE FILLED in the engraving of that breastplate.

258. And he who wears the breastplate, BEING ZEIR ANPIN IN THE MOCHIN OF GREATNESS, sits on the precious holy throne, MEANING THAT IT ILLUMINATES WITHIN MALCHUT THAT IS CALLED 'THRONE'. The four pillars OF THIS THRONE, WHO ARE MICHAEL, GAVRIEL, URIEL, AND REFAEL, stand and observe the breastplate - MEANING THAT THEY RECEIVE FROM THE TWELVE STONES THAT ARE ILLUMINATING IN IT. By the word OF THE WEARER OF THE BREASTPLATE do they come, and according to his word do they leave. They raise their eyes and look up, and see the sparks that glitter in 620 sides, WHICH ALLUDES TO KETER, WHOSE NUMERICAL VALUE IS 620, BECAUSE IT IS BOUND UPON THE FOREHEAD AND SKULL, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF KETER. And the Holy Name is engraved on it. And THE AFOREMENTIONED PILLARS tremble and shake, bound on the right side, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, while the left, WHICH IS MALCHUT, takes into its hands the pillars of heaven - WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE THREE COLUMNS IN ZEIR ANPIN, WHICH IS CALLED 'HEAVEN'. It clears them and reveals them. This is what is written: "And the heavens become revealed like a book" (Yeshayah 34:4).

32. "I went down into the garden of nuts"

Rabbi Eliezer begins by explaining and expounding upon the meaning of the title verse to Rabbi Akiva. The "garden," we learn, is the garden that comes out of Eden, and it signifies the Shechinah. The "nut," which has four sections, signifies the holy Chariot, and the phrase "I went down" signifies a penetration to the inner meaning. In answer to Rabbi Chiya's question regarding the symbolic significance of the (dirt of the) nut's shell, Rabbi Eliezer reveals its meaning through its connection with the almonds. Although the two types of almond, bitter and sweet, imply an illusion to severe Judgment and Holiness, every open illusion to almonds in the Torah describes only their aspect of Judgement. He then draws a comparison between the Hebrew words for 'almonds', 'watched' and 'hasten', which reinforces their aspect of Judgment.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section opens us to the idea that we can learn much about God through nature around us and through the language of the Torah, and therefore helps us to seek enlightenment through our physical world.

259. Rabbi Akiva said to him: What is the meaning of the passage, "I went down into the garden of nuts" (Shir Hashirm 6:11)? He said to him: Come and behold. This garden comes out of Eden, and this is the Shechinah. Nut is the holy supernal Chariot, which is the four headwaters of the rivers that separates from the garden, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE FOUR FACES - NAMELY THE FACE OF A LION, THE FACE OF AN OX, THE FACE OF AN EAGLE, THE FACE OF A MAN. This nut has four holy heads inside, MEANING IN ITS FRUIT, AND IT ALSO HAS FOUR KLIPOT ('PEELS') THAT COVER THE FRUIT, WHICH ALLUDES TO THE FOUR KLIPOT: A STORM WIND; A GREAT CLOUD; A FIRE FLARING UP; AND A BRIGHTNESS, LIKE THE SUPERNAL CHARIOT. And when he said: "I went down," IN "I WENT DOWN INTO THE GARDEN OF NUTS," it is as we learned that so and so descended to the Chariot.

257. אָמַר רַבִּי אֱלִיעֶזֶר תְּמַנֵּי סָרִי טוּרֵי אֲמַרְסָמוּנָא עֲלָאִין, עֲלִין נִשְׁמַתְהוּן דְּצִדִיקָא, וְאַרְבְּעִין וְתִשְׁעָה רִיחִין, סִלְקִין בְּכָל יוֹמָא, עַד הָהוּא אֲתֵר דְּאַתְקֵרִי עֲדָן, דִּי לְקַבֵּל דָּא, אֲתִיְהִיבַת אוֹרִייתָא, בְּמִ"ט פְּנִים טָמָא, וּבְמִ"ט פְּנִים טְהוֹר. מִ"ט אֲתוּן בְּשִׁמְהֵן דְּשִׁבְטֵי. מִ"ט יוֹמִין לְקַבְּלָא אוֹרִייתָא. מִ"ט יוֹמִין קְדִישִׁין עֲלָאִין קְיֻמִּין, לְמִיטַל רְשׁוּתָא בְּכָל יוֹמָא מֵאַבְנֵין זְהִירִין, דְּגִלְיָמָן בְּהוּא חוּשְׁנָא.

258. וְהוּא דְלִבִּישׁ חוּשְׁנָא, יְתִיב בְּכַרְסֵי קְדִישָׁא יְקִירָא, דְּאַרְבַּע סַמְכִין קְיֻמִּין מִסְתַּבְּלִין בְּחוּשְׁנָא, עַל מִימְרֵיהּ עֲלִין, וְעַל מִימְרֵיהּ נִפְקִין, זְקָפֵן עֵינִין וּמִסְתַּבְּלִין לְעֵילָא, חֲמָאן צִיצָא, דְּלֵהִיט בְּשִׁית מָאָה וְעֶשְׂרִין עֵיבֵר, וְשִׁמָּא קְדִישָׁא עֲלָאָה, גְּלִיף עֲלוּי, מִזְדַּעְזַעֵן וּמִתְחַלְחֵלֵן. קְטִירֵי בְּסִטְרוּי דִּימִינָא קְדִישָׁא, דְּשִׁמְאֵלָא נְטִיל בִּידוּי סַמְכֵי שְׁמִיָּא, עֲלִיל לֹון, וְגִלֵי לֹון. הֵדָּא הוּא דְכִתְיִב, וְנִגְלוּ כִסְפֵר הַשְּׁמַיִם.

260. Rabbi Akiva said to him: If so, he should have said: 'I went down into the nut', WHICH IS THE CHARIOT. Why does it say, "I went down into the garden of nuts"? He said to him: Because THE GARDEN, WHICH IS MALCHUT, has all that is goodly in the nuts, FOR THEY GROW IN AND EMERGE FROM THIS GARDEN, WHICH IS MALCHUT. THEREFORE, HE MENTIONS THE GARDEN SPECIFICALLY. AND HE CONTINUES TO EXPLAIN HIS WORDS, AS TO WHY THE CHARIOT WAS ALLUDED TO IN THE NUT. Just as the nut is hidden and concealed from all sides IN ITS PEEL, so the Chariot that emerges from the garden, WHICH IS MALCHUT, is concealed from all sides. All these four heads in the nut are attached to each other on this side, MEANING IN THEIR CENTER, and separate on this side, OUTWARDLY. Thus, THE FOUR ASPECTS OF the Chariot attain each other in unity, in joy, in completeness, and they separate, each one to its individual aspect for which it was appointed. This is what is written: "That it is which compasses the whole land of Chavilah" (Bereshheet 2:11). Likewise, "that is it which goes toward the east of Ashur" (Ibid. 14). It is the same with the rest of them.

261. Rabbi Akiva said: This dirt in the peel of the nut, MEANING IN THE FOUR KLIPOT THAT SURROUND IT, to what do they allude? He said to him: Even though the Torah did not reveal it, BECAUSE THE TORAH SPEAKS ONLY IN THE ASPECT OF GOOD IN THE NUT, it did reveal in this - MEANING IN THE ALMONDS - AS WILL BE EXPLAINED WILL THAT THE TORAH SPEAKS ABOUT THE FOUR KLIPOT OF THE ALMOND IN PARTICULAR, ALLUDING TO JUDGMENT, AND NOT THE ASPECT OF THEIR GOOD.

262. Come and behold: Some almonds are bitter BECAUSE OF THEIR PEELS, and some are sweet, implying that some are of Severe Judgment, TO WHICH THE BITTER ALMONDS ALLUDE, and some serve HOLINESS, TO WHICH THE SWEET ALMONDS ALLUDE. But we see that every open allusion TO THEM in the Torah is about Judgment, AND DOES NOT DISCUSS THE GOOD IN THEM - THE SWEET ONES. And so it is in Jeremiah, who was shown the Judgment THAT IS IN THEM as is written: "I see a rod of an almond tree (Heb. shaken)" (Yirmeyah 1:11). What is the meaning of shaken? Actual almonds - "AND IT WAS SAID TO HIM, 'FOR I WILL HASTEN (HEB. SHOKED) MY WORD TO PERFORM IT,'" MEANING TO UPROOT, CRUSH, DESTROY AND DEMOLISH...It is written by the rod of Aaron: "And yielded almonds" (Bemidbar 17:23), AND IT BECAME A SIGN TO THE REBELLIOUS PEOPLE. SO WE SEE THAT THE TORAH SPEAKS ONLY OF THEIR ASPECT OF JUDGMENT. And from the word itself, THAT THEY ARE CALLED 'ALMONDS' (HEB. SHKEDIM) it is understood that it refers to Severe Judgment, as is written: "And Hashem watched (Heb. yishkod) over the evil" (Daniel 9:14). And, "I will hasten my word," and so all of them. So it IS CLEAR THAT THE WORD "SHAKED" REFERS TO SEVERE JUDGMENT. Rabbi Akiva said to him: It seems that one could gain much wisdom from everything the Holy One, blessed be He, does, as is written: "Whatever Hashem has done is for His own purpose" (Mishlei 16:4). Rabbi Elazar says: We learn it from these words, "And Elohim saw everything that He had made and, behold, it was very good" (Bereshheet 1:31). That is the meaning of "very" - IT IS GOOD to learn supernal Wisdom from it.

260. א"ל ר' עקיבא, אי הכי, הוה ליה למימר, לאגוז ירדתי, מהו אל גנת אגוז ירדתי. א"ל, משום דהיא שבחא דאגוזא. מה אגוזא, טמירא וסתימא מכל סטרוי, כך רתיבא דנפקא מגנתא, סתימא מכל סטרוי. מה אינון ארבע קרישין די באגוזא, מתחברן בהאי גיסא, ומתפרשן מהאי גיסא. כך רתיבא, מתחברן באחדותא באחדותא בשלימותא, ומתפרש כל חד בעברוי, על מה דאתמני הה"ד, הוא הסובב את כל ארץ החוילה הוא ההולך קדמת אשור, וכן בולם.

262. תא חזי, שקדים, מנהון מרירן, ומנהון מתיקן, ורמיזא אית לון, אית מארי דינא קשיא, ואית מארי דשירותא, אבל כל רמיזא דגלי באורייתא חזינן דינא הוי, והכי הוא לירמיהו, אחזו ליה דינא, דכתיב, מקל שקד אני רואה. מאי שקד. שקדים ממש. וכן במטה אהרן, ויגמול שקדים. ומן תיבותא ממש, אשתמע, דהוא דינא קשיא. דכתיב, וישקוד ה' על הרעה. וכן שוקד אני על דברי, וכן בולם. אמר ליה ר' עקיבא, משמע כל מה דעבד קודשא בריך הוא, למילף מניה חכמתא סגיא, דכתיב כל פעל ה' למענהו. ר' אלעזר אמר מהכא, דכתיב, וירא אלהים את כל אשר עשה והנה טוב מאד. מהו מאד. למילף מניה חכמתא עלאה.

33. "The one as well as the other"

The discussion here begins with an interpretation of the title verse, revealing that the earthly realm corresponds symbolically in all its aspects to the heavenly realm. Rabbi Aba's comment regarding human ignorance of lost wisdom pertaining to the natural world leads to a discourse on the classification of trees and herbs and their relationships to divine elements. We learn that it is forbidden to "sow your field with mingled seed" because each seed has an individual name, a separate secret, and an appointed supervisor above. Planting mixed seeds mingles their authority and their names. This concept also applies to the twelve Tribes, and explains the Scriptural emphasis on the names of these tribes, as seen in the verse, "These are the names of the children of Yisrael."

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reminds us of the profound significance of names and opens us up to a greater understanding of the divine Wisdom made manifest in the physical world around us. The theme of seeds being explored also provides us with a great image for meditation: the seed. Dwelt on for long enough, the image of a seed will reveal layer upon layer of meaning relating to spiritual growth, from the hard skin or husk needed to protect it in the early stages to the final plant or tree which had lain concealed but fully formed within the tiny seed.

263. Rabbi Yehuda said: What is the meaning of that which is written, "The Elohim has made the one as well as the other" (Kohelet 7:14)? IT INSTRUCTS US THAT similar to those things that are in heaven, the Holy One, blessed be He, made on earth, AND ALL THAT THERE IS ON THE EARTH alludes to what is above IN THE SKY. For when Rabbi Aba saw a tree whose fruits were ripe and from which the birds flew, he wept and said: If people knew what they were suggesting, they would rend their clothes down to their navel, for the fact that this wisdom was forgotten by them. Even more so for the other things that the Holy One, blessed be He, has made on earth.

264. As Rabbi Yosi said: The trees from which wisdom is visible - meaning the Carob tree, Palm tree, and Ground Nut tree, WHICH IS A KIND OF NUT TREE, and those similar to them - were all grafted into one, because all these trees that produce fruit, except for apples, WHICH ARE NETZACH, HOD, AND YESOD, have the same secret, WHICH ALLUDES TO TIFERET. That is, except for the paths in which they are separate, BECAUSE EVERY TREE HAS A UNIQUE PATH IN WHICH IT ILLUMINATES.

265. All these trees that do not produce fruits, all the large ones - except for the willow, which has its own secret similar to above, WHICH ARE NETZACH AND HOD - gain nourishment from one source. THEY GAIN NOURISHMENT FROM THE EXTERIOR PART IN THE SECRET OF ANOTHER EL THAT DOES NOT PRODUCE FRUIT. And every one of the small trees except for the Hyssop, WHICH ALLUDES TO YESOD, were born of one mother, MEANING THE NUKVA.

266. All the herbs of the earth have powerful ministers appointed over them in heaven. FOR THERE IS NO PLANT ON EARTH THAT DOES NOT HAVE A STAR AND CONSTELLATION IN THE SKY THAT PRODS IT AND SAYS: GROW. Each and every one of them has a separate secret, similar to above, JUST AS THEY HAVE INDIVIDUAL APPOINTED SUPERVISORS ABOVE THEM. Therefore it is written: "You shall not sow your field with mingled seed" (Vayikra 19:19), because each one enters alone and emerges alone. FOR NO APPOINTEE MINGLES WITH ANOTHER, AND ONE WHO PLANTS MINGLED SEEDS, MINGLES THEIR AUTHORITY, ONE WITH ANOTHER. This is the meaning: "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens, can you establish His dominion in the earth" (Iyov 38:33), and: "He calls them all by names" (Yeshayah 40:26). Everything in the world has its own secret and the Holy One, blessed be He, did not want to reveal it FROM ITS PLACE and mix it WITH ANOTHER, and thus called, EACH AND EVERY ONE by name. The sons of Jacob, who are holy tribes, who maintain the world, all the more so, as it is written: "These are the names of the children of Yisrael" (Shemot 1:1).

This discussion provides greater insight into the verse, "These are the names of the children of Yisrael." Rabbi Yosi first reinforces this verse as an indication of the importance of the twelve Tribes who sustain the world. His comment on the title names reveals a lack of distinction between the terms; this relates closely to the death and descent of Joseph and his brothers and is the subject of the discourse that ensues. We learn that the Shechinah and the supernal angels went with Jacob and his sons into Egypt while he was alive. Then, after the death of Joseph and the tribes, Yisrael descended into exile, and the Shechinah (with the twelve Tribes inscribed in Her) and the supernal angels descended with them. Consequently, Yisrael became known as the children of Jacob, since they descended to the level of the children of Jacob.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section provides insight into the connection between the names, 'the children of Yisrael' and 'the children of Jacob', providing greater depth to our understanding of what the Torah is really teaching. The more one studies scripture in this light the more one sees that it concerns now, not then, and that its histories and stories are merely a casing for the message that is timeless and universal, speaking to all men and women in search of God and truth.

263. א"ר יהודה, מאי דכתיב, גם את זה לעמת זה עשה האלהים. בגוונא דרקיעא, עבד קודשא בריך הוא בארעא, וכלהו רמיזא למה דלעילא. דכד הוה חמי ר' אבא, חד אילנא, דאביה אתעביד עופא דפרח מניה, הוה בכי ואמר, אי הוו בני נשא ידעי למאי רמיזאן, הוו מבזען מלבושיהון עד טבוריהן, למאי דאתנשי חכמה מנהון. כ"ש בשאר מה דעבד קודשא בריך הוא בארעא.

267. Rabbi Yosi ben of Rabbi Yehuda, said: If it had said: 'These are the names', it would infer that this is so! AS RABBI YEHUDA SAID THAT: "AND THESE ARE THE NAMES OF THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL," REFERS TO THE IMPORTANCE OF THE TRIBES WHO SUSTAIN THE WORLD. But now that it is written: "And these are the names," WITH AN ADDED VAV ('and'), it infers that it is adding on to the first ones. Just as the first ones were the children of Jacob, so these are also the children of Jacob.

268. Rabbi Yehuda said TO RABBI YOSI BEN RABBI YEHUDA: Heaven forbid that when the Holy One, blessed be He, said: "I will descend with you to Egypt," that it should occur to you that the Shechinah descended with Him, precisely in that moment. THIS WAS BECAUSE RABBI YEHUDA THOUGHT THE IMPLICATION OF RABBI YOSI BEN RABBI YEHUDA WAS THAT THEY WERE IN THE LEVEL OF THE CHILDREN OF JACOB, MEANING 'DESCENDING', IMMEDIATELY UPON THEIR ARRIVAL IN EGYPT. But rather, the Shechinah descended at the time His children experienced descent. This is what is written: "I will go down with you into Egypt; and I will also surely bring you up again" (Beresheet 46:4, MEANING THAT as long as you will ascend, then I will also ascend; and when you descend, I will descend with you. After Joseph and all his brothers died and they descended, the Shechinah also descended with them. And as they descended, MEANING THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL, so did these descend, MEANING THE SHECHINAH AND HER HOSTS.

269. Rabbi Yosi ben Rabbi Yehuda, said TO HIM: It is written above, "And Joseph died, being 110 years old" (Beresheet 50:26). At the time that Joseph and all the tribes died and descended, the children of Yisrael descended into exile, and the Shechinah and the supernal angels descended with them, MEANING AS RABBI YEHUDA SAID. This is what is written: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael"; THE VAV OF "VE'ELEH" ('AND THESE') is added to the first ones that descended into exile AFTER THE DEATH OF JOSEPH AND HIS BROTHERS. THEREFORE, THEY MUST BE THE CHILDREN OF JACOB, NAMELY IN DESCENT.

270. RABBI YEHUDA said to him: If so, was Jacob dead or not? He said to him: He was dead! So he said to him: It is written, "Who came to Egypt with Jacob" (Shemot 1:1). If he was alive, IT IS POSSIBLE to say "with Jacob," BUT IF THE TORAH IS SPEAKING of after his death, remove "with Jacob," SINCE HE HAD ALREADY DIED - SINCE THE VAV ('AND') ADDS TO THE FIRST ONES. But come and behold: the verse does not say 'who came (lit. 'come') into Egypt with Jacob' but IT IS WRITTEN: "who came." For until then, there was no descent for Jacob. And we learn that THE SHECHINAH AND THE TWELVE TRIBES THAT ARE IN IT came with Jacob TO EGYPT, and went from there until the descent into exile, MEANING AFTER THE DEATH OF JACOB AND THE TRIBES. And then those descended with them, MEANING THE SHECHINAH AND THE TWELVE TRIBES IN HER. Therefore the passage: "And these are the names OF THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL," REFERS TO THEIR GREAT LEVEL AND IMPORTANCE, SINCE IT REFERS TO THE DAYS OF ASCENT AND NOT THE DAYS OF DESCENT.

271. Rabbi Dustai said: Every day they would come, THE SHECHINAH AND THE TWELVE TRIBES THAT WERE IN HER, and leave. This is what is written: "Who come into Egypt," IN THE PRESENT TENSE, and not 'Who came', IN THE PAST TENSE. This means that in the beginning it is written, "Who come into Egypt with Jacob," BEFORE THE DESCENT, and when they descended, it is written: "Every man came with his household," IN PAST TENSE. Come and behold: the children of Jacob had already died by that time, and the others descended INTO EXILE.

267. ר' יוסי בר' יהודה אמר, אילו נאמר אלה שמות, משמע דהכי הוא. השתא דכתיב ואלה שמות, משמע דעל הראשונים מוסיף, מה הראשונים בני יעקב, אף כאן בני יעקב.

268. א"ר יהודה, ח"ו, בשעתא דאמר קודשא בריך הוא, אנכי ארד עמך מצרימה, ס"ד דשכינתא תיחות עמיה בהיא שעתא ממש, אלא, בשעתא דהות ירידה לבנוהי, נחתת שכינתא, הה"ד, אנכי ארד עמך מצרימה, ואנכי אעלך גם עלה, כל זמנא דיהוי לך עלייה, כביכו"ל עלייה אית לי, ובשעתא דיהוי לך ירידה, כביכו"ל אנכי ארד עמך. ועד דמית יוסף וכל אחוי, והות לון ירידה, קמת שכינתא ונחתת עמהון, כמה דנחתו אלין, כך נחתו אלין.

269. אמר ר' יוסי בר' יהודה, מה כתיב לעיל מניה, וימת יוסף בן מאה ועשר שנים וגו', בהיא שעתא דמית יוסף, וכלהו שבטין, והוה לון ירידה, נחתו בני ישראל בגלותא, ושכינתא ומלאכי עלאי נחתו עמהון, הה"ד, ואלה שמות בני ישראל, דאינון אתוספו על קדמאי למיחת בגלותא.

270. א"ל, אי הכי, יעקב הוה מית או לא. א"ל מית. א"ל, ומהו דכתיב הבאים מצרימה את יעקב, אי בחיני, אימא את יעקב, ואי בתר דמית, אפיק מתמן את יעקב. אלא תא חזי, לא אמר קרא היורדים מצרימה את יעקב, דער בען לא הות ירידה ליעקב, אלא הבאים, אוליפנא דאתו עמיה דיעקב, ואזלו להון, עד דנחתו אלין בגלותא, נחתו אלין עמהון, הה"ד ואלה שמות וגו'.

271. ר' דוסתאי אמר, בכל יומא ויומא הוה אתיין, ואזלין לון, הה"ד הבאים מצרימה, ולא כתיב אשר באו, והיינו דכתיב הבאים מצרימה בקדמיתא את יעקב. ולבתר כד הות לון ירידה איש וביתו באו. ותא חזי, בני יעקב כלהו הוה מתין בההוא זמנא ונחתו אלין ואלין.

272. Rabbi Yosi and Rabbi Elazar said: This portion contains lofty subjects. For we learned that at the time these holy companies and Chariots descended, WHICH ARE the form of the TWELVE tribes which are engraved above IN THE SHECHINAH, they all came to sojourn with them. This is the meaning of: "Every man came with his household" (Shemot 1:1), WHICH ALLUDES TO THE ANGELS WHO CAME TO SOJOURN IN EGYPT WITH THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL, and: "Reuven, Shimon, Levi..." (Ibid. 2). THEY ALLUDE TO THE FORMS OF THE TWELVE TRIBES IN THE SHECHINAH.

273. Another explanation of: "And these are the names of the children of Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob...": HE HAD DIFFICULTY UNDERSTANDING WHY IT OPENED WITH "THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL," AND CONCLUDED WITH "JACOB," AND SAYS: This portion reverted FROM THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL TO JACOB. IT IS according to what Rabbi Yosi ben Rabbi Yehuda, said earlier - THAT THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL DESCENDED TO THE LEVEL OF THE CHILDREN OF JACOB. And it all occurred, MEANING THAT ALL THE LITERAL EXPLANATIONS ARE TRUE.

35. "Every man came with his household"

A discussion of the title verse elaborates on a concept mentioned in the previous section - that the Tribes descended into Egypt twice, once when alive and once when dead. According to Rabbi Elazar, when the children of Yisrael went into exile, all the souls of the tribes gathered at the cave of Machpelah. They cried to Jacob, lamenting that a heathen nation had enslaved Yisrael. This awakened the spirit of Jacob, and after gaining permission from God, Jacob, the Tribes, the Shechinah and the supernal angels descended into Egypt. Thus, even in death Jacob did not separate from Yisrael.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section awakens the energy of Jacob within us, allowing us to climb higher in our actions and meditations, moving rung by rung further from materialism and closer to our heavenly goal. It also makes us more conscious of the need to leave material desires behind us before we die, for otherwise we will carry them on our backs into the next world as excess baggage anchoring us to the world of matter.

274. Come and behold: when Rabbi Elazar ben Arach reached this passage: "AND THESE ARE THE NAMES..." he would weep. Rabbi Elazar ben Arach said: We learned that when the children of Yisrael went into exile, all the souls of the tribes gathered at the cave of Machpelah. They cried and said: 'Grandfather, grandfather, there is no greater labor in pain of the children, there is no greater labor in this world THAT IT. Your children are all enslaved WITH HARD LABOR by others, who execute upon them ALL MANNERS OF vengeance in the world.'

275. At that moment, the spirit of that grandfather was stirred, MEANING JACOB, requested permission. and descended INTO EGYPT. The Holy One, blessed be He, summoned His companies and Chariots, and their King, WHICH IS THE SHECHINAH at their head. And they all descended with Jacob and his tribes. The tribes descended alive with their father TO EGYPT. They also descended dead with their father TO EGYPT. This is what is written: "And these are the names of the children of Egypt who came into Egypt... Reuven, Shimon, Levi..." (Shemot 1:1-2). Come and behold: now they are dead, AS MENTIONED EARLIER, yet they descended TO EGYPT. And it was written: "And Joseph was in Egypt" (Ibid. 5). FOR HIS SPIRIT DID NOT LEAVE EGYPT AFTER HIS DEATH, THAT HE SHOULD HAVE TO RETURN AND DESCEND AS THE OTHER TRIBES DID. Rabbi Aba said: After this he, JOSEPH, is called: "As a father pities his children" (Tehilim 103:13), BECAUSE HE DID NOT LEAVE THEM, EVEN AFTER HIS DEATH.

36. The dead know of the pain of the living

This section consists chiefly of a parable in which Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Aba participate. While travelling, the two come across a place where they decide to spend the night. They lay down to sleep, resting their heads on some raised ground under which is a grave. A voice from this grave

272. רבי יוסי ורבי אלעזר אמרו, האי פרשתא מלין עלאין אית בה, דתנן, בשעתא דנחתו אלין רתיבין ומשריין קדישין, דיוקניהון דשבטין, דגלימין לעילא, בלהו עאלן למידר עמהון. הה"ד, איש וביתו באו, וכתיב ראובן שמעון לוי.

273. ד"א ואלה שמות בני ישראל הבאים מצרימה את יעקב וגו'. אתחזר פרשתא דא, למה דא"ר יוסי ברבי יהודה, וכלא הוה.

274. ותא חזי, רבי אלעזר בן ערך, כד הוה מיט להאי פסוק, הוה בכי, דתניא, א"ר אלעזר בן ערך, בשעתא דאזלו ישראל בגלותא, אתבנשו בלהו נשמתהון דשבטין, למערתא דכפלתא, צווחו ואמרו: סבא סבא, כאבא דבנין לאו בלאותא דעלמא דין, בניך בלהו משתעבדין בקשיו, עם אחרן עבדין בהו נוקמין דעלמא.

275. בההיא שעתא, אתער רוחיה דההוא סבא, רשותא שאיל, ונחית, קרא קודשא בריך הוא לכל רתיבין ומשרייתיה, ומלכיהון בראשיהון. ונחתו בלהו עם יעקב ועם שבטוהי. שבטין נחתו חזין עם אבוהון, ושבטין נחתו מתים עם אבוהון, הה"ד ואלה שמות בני ישראל הבאים מצרימה וגו' וכתיב ראובן שמעון לוי וגו'. ותא חזי, מתים הוו, ונחתו, וכתיב ויוסף היה במצרים. אמר רבי אבא, בהאי אתקרי כרחם אב על בנינים.

speaks to them, and they learn that it belongs to a Jew who is unable to enter the Garden of Eden because his young son was stolen by an abusive heathen. He tells the Rabbis that not only do the dead know of the sufferings of the living, but without the prayers of the dead, they would not survive for half a day. The voice then tells them his son is being beaten at that moment and orders them to leave. Rabbi Yehuda and Rabbi Aba run for half a mile and wait until morning, at which time they see a man with blood running from his shoulders. When they question him, they discover that he is Lachma bar Livai, the son of the dead man. Yet, they do not converse with him or return to the grave sight out of fear.

Rabbi Yehuda then explains the two promises God made to Jacob: that He would go down into exile with Jacob, and that He would raise Jacob from his grave to witness the joy of the celestial company that dwelled with Yisrael in captivity. Finally, Rabbi Shimon interprets the verse, "A new king arose..." revealing that Egypt was not granted dominion over all the nations until after Joseph's death.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reveals that the connection between the living and the dead is reciprocal. As we mourn for and pay respect to the dead, the prayers of the dead protect us and help us through the pain and suffering we endure in this world. This continuity of consciousness is vital to remember, since it frees us from the delusion that death is an end, thus making our actions all the more poignant and significant since we know they will continue to affect us and those we are tied to in the next world as well as all the worlds thereafter.

276. Rabbi Yehuda bar Shalom was traveling with Rabbi Aba. They entered a place and lodged there. They ate and when they wanted to lie down, they lay their heads on a mound of earth where there was a grave. Before they fell asleep, someone called from the grave and said: MY seed is going into the ground - MEANING GOING TO WASTE. It has been twelve years that I have not awakened, except now, for I see the face of my son here!

276. רבֵי יְהוּדָה בַּר שְׁלוֹם, הָיָה אֲזִיל בְּאוֹרְחָא, וּרְבִי אָבָא הָיָה עִמֵּיהּ, עָאלוּ לְחַד אַתְרָא, וּבְתוֹ תַמְנוּ, אֲכָלוּ, כַּד בְּעוּ לְמִשְׁכַּב, שָׁוּ רִישֵׁיהוֹן בְּהוּא תְּלָא דְאַרְעָא, דְּהוּוּ חַד קְבָרָא תַמְנוּ, עַד דְּלֹא דְמִיכּוּ, קָרָא חַד קְלָא מִן קְבָרָא, אָמַר זְרַעָא לְאַרְעָא אֲזִילָא, תְּרִיסַר שָׁנִין הָיָה דְלֹא אַתְעֵרִית, בַּר הַאיִדְנָא, דְּפִרְצוּפָא דְבְרֵי חֲמִינָא הֶכָא.

277. Rabbi Yehuda said: Who are you? He said to him: I am a Jew, and I sit alone, AS IN EXCOMMUNICATION. For I can not enter THE GARDEN OF EDEN because of the pain of my son who was stolen, when he was still small, by a heathen who beats him every day. His pain prevents me from entering my place, and I awoke just now in this place.

277. א"ר יְהוּדָה, מָאן אַתָּ. א"ל יוֹדְאֵי אָנָא, וְאָנָא יְתִיב נְזִיפָא, דְּאָנָא לֹא יְכִילָנָא לְמִיעֵל, בְּגִין הָהוּא צַעֲרָא דְבְרֵי, דְּגִנְבִיָּה הָהוּא עֲכוּ"ם, כַּד אִיהוּ הָיָה זְעִירָא, וְאֶלְקֵי לִיה בָּל יוֹמָא, וְצַעֲרָא דִּילִיה דְּחֵי לִי לְמִיעֵאל בְּדוּכְתָאֵי, וּבְהָאֵי אַתְרָא לֹא אַתְעֵרִית, בַּר הַאיִדְנָא.

278. He said to him: Do you know the pain of the living? He said to him: I SWEAR by the minister of my grave that were it not for our prayers for the living, they would not survive in the world for even a half day. I awoke here, for they were telling me every day that my son would come here soon, but I do not know if alive or after his death.

279. Rabbi Yehuda said to him: What do you do in that world? The grave rumbled and he said: Go, arise, for now they are beating my son. They were amazed and fled from there about a half a mile. They sat until morning light. They rose to go and saw a man who was running and fleeing FROM HIS MASTER - AS HE WAS SAVED FROM HIM BY THE PRAYERS OF HIS DEAD FATHER. And he was bleeding from his shoulders. They held him and he told them THE STORY OF THE HEATHEN WHO KIDNAPPED HIM WHEN HE WAS A CHILD, AND WHO BEAT HIM UNTIL HE STARTED TO BLEED. They said to him: What is your name? He said to them: Lachma bar Livai. They said: Was not Livai bar Lachma THE NAME OF that deceased? We are afraid to talk with him anymore! They did not return to him. Rabbi Aba said: This is what they said - that the prayers of the dead protect the living. How do we know? IT IS because it is written: "And they went up to the Negev and he came to Cherubs" (Bemidbar 13:22), MEANING TO PRAY AT THE GRAVE OF THE PATRIARCHS, THAT THEY WOULD PRAY FOR THEM.

279. א"ל רְבִי יְהוּדָה, מָאֵי עֲבִידְתִּיכּוּ בְּהוּא עֵלְמָא. אַתְרְגִּישׁ קְבָרָא, וְאָמַר, אֲזִילוּ קוּמוּ, דְּהַאיִדְנָא יִלְקוֹן לְבְרֵי, תּוּוּהוּ, וְעֵרְקוּ מִתַּמְנוּ כְּפִלְגּוּת מִיל, יִתְבוּ עַד דְּנְהִיר צַפְרָא. קָמוּ לְמִיזֵל, חָמוּ חַד בַּר נֶשׁ, דְּהוּוּ רְהִיט וְעֵרְק, וְהוּוּ שְׁתִּית דְּמָא אֲכַתְּפוּי, אַחְדוּ בִּיה, וְסַח לְהוּ עוּבְדָא, אָמְרוּ לִיה מַה שְׂמַךְ. אָמַר לְהוּ, לְחַמָּא בַּר לִיּוֹאֵי. אָמְרוּ, וּמַה לִּיּוֹאֵי בַּר לְחַמָּא הָיָה הָהוּא מִיּוֹתָא, וּמִסְתַּפְּינָא לְאַשְׁתַּעוּי וְתִיר בְּהַדְּיָה. לֹא אֶהְדְּרוּ. אָמַר רְבִי אָבָא, הָאֵי דְּאָמְרוּ, דְּצִלוּתְהוֹן דְּמִתִּיבָא, מְגִינָן עַל חַיֵּי. מְגִלָּן. דְּכַתִּיב וַיַּעֲלוּ בְּנֵי־בְנֵי־בְנֵי עַד חֶבְרוֹן.

280. Rabbi Yehuda said: Come and behold. The Holy One, blessed be He, made two vows to Jacob. He would descend with him and sojourn with him in exile, and He would raise him from his grave to see the joy of the holy camp OF THE CHARIOTS AND THE ANGELS, who sojourned with his children IN EXILE DURING THE REDEMPTION. This is the meaning of: "I will go down with you into Egypt" (Bereshheet 46:4), MEANING I will descend with you into exile. "And I will surely bring you up again," MEANING DURING THE REDEMPTION, BECAUSE "BRING YOU UP" IS AN EXPRESSION OF REDEMPTION, as is written: "And I will bring you up from your graves, my people" (Yechezkel 37:12), and: "There the tribes used to go up..." (Tehilim 122:4).

281. Another explanation of: "Now there arose a new king..." (Shemot 1:8) Rabbi Shimon said: On that day, permission was granted to the Minister of Egypt to be SUPERIOR over all the other nations. For we learned that before Joseph died, Egypt was not granted dominion over Yisrael, but when Joseph died, "Now there arose a new king." "Arose" MEANS as one who was lowly and arose, FOR ON THAT DAY THE MINISTER OF EGYPT AROSE TO BE GREAT, AS MENTIONED EARLIER.

37. "While the king was reclining at his board"

Rabbi Yitzchak opens with the first of three interpretations of the title verse. Rabbi Tanchum concludes this section by explaining that every nation has a minister above and the rise of one minister coincides with the fall of another. Thus, when God gave dominion to the minister of Egypt, he gained dominion only because of Yisrael.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section provides an illustration of the universe's interconnectedness that we can use to bring our own lives into harmony by making sure all our actions will breed good and holy results, since nothing occurs without an effect occurring as a consequence, nothing rises without the falling of something else, nothing is installed without something being replaced, nothing can be added without something being removed. This image should be used in a meditation on the utter perfection of the universe of God's creation.

282. Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion saying: "While the king was reclining at his board, my nard sent forth its fragrance" (Shir Hashirm 1:12). "While the king," refers to the Holy One, blessed be He, as is written: "Thus says Hashem, the King of Yisrael" (Yeshayah 44:6), and: "And he was King in Yeshurun" (Devarim 33:5). "While the King was reclining at His board," MEANS between the wings of Cherubs THAT WERE ON THE ARK OF THE TESTIMONY. "My nard gave forth its fragrance," MEANS THEY CAUSED THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, to depart from among them, AND "GIVES FORTH ITS FRAGRANCE" MEANS THEIR BAD ODOR!

283. Another explanation of : "While the King was reclining at His board," meaning while the Holy One, blessed be He, was still giving the Torah to Yisrael, as it is written: "And he was there with Hashem forty days and forty nights" (Shemot 34:28). While he was still writing the Torah for Yisrael, they abandoned their good fragrance and said: "These are your Elohim, Yisrael" (Shemot 32:4). THE MEANING OF "SENT FORTH" IS 'ABANDONED.'

284. Another explanation of: "While the King was reclining at His board." While the Holy One, blessed be He, was still descended on Mount Sinai to give the Torah to the children of Yisrael, "my nard sent forth its fragrance," MEANING, LITERALLY, THAT IT GAVE ITS GOOD FRAGRANCE. It is written THAT THEY SAID: "Will we do, and obey" (Shemot 24:7).

38. Yisrael corresponds to all the other nations of the world

280. א"ר יהודה, תא חזי, תרין נדרין נדר קודשא בריך הוא ליעקב. חד, דייחות עמיה למידר עמיה בגלותא, וחד דיסקיניה מקבריה, למחמי חרוותא דסייעתא קדישא דדיירי עם בנוהי, הה"ד, אנכי ארד עמן מצרימה אנכי ארד עמן בגלותא. ואנכי אעלך גם עלה, כד"א והעליתי אתכם מקברותיכם עמי. וכתוב ששם עלו שבטים וגו'.

281. ד"א ויקם מלך חדש על מצרים וגו', אר"ש, בהוא יומא, אתיהיב ליה רשותא לשרו של מצרים, על כל שאר עמין, דתנא, עד דלא מית יוסף, לא אתיהיב שלטנו לשלטנא דמצרים על ישראל, בין דמית יוסף, כדן ויקם מלך חדש על מצרים, ויקם: במאן דהוה מאיך וקם.

282. רבי יצחק פתח, עד שהמלך במסבו נרדי נתן ריחו. עד שהמלך: דא קודשא בריך הוא. הה"ד, כה אמר יי' מלך ישראל. וכתוב ויהי בישורון מלך. במסבו: בין כנפי הכרובים. נרדי נתן ריחו, דגרמו לאסתלקא מביניהון.

283. ד"א, עד שהמלך במסבו, בעוד דקודשא בריך הוא הוה זיהב אורייתא לישראל, דכתוב ויהי שם עם ה' ארבעים יום וארבעים לילה לחם לא אכל וגו'. בעוד דהוה כתיב אורייתא לישראל, שבקו ריחיהון טב, ואמרו אלה אלהיך ישראל.

Continuing the discussion of the previous section, Rabbi Yitzchak explains that the single nation of Yisrael is equivalent to all of the seventy other nations, and therefore whoever rules over Yisrael dominates the whole world. Because of this powerful status, the children of Yisrael are subjected to the rule of other nations in order that the world may be elevated through them. Rabbi Yitzchak also explains the great symbolic significance of the numbers one and seventy in this context. Seventy is the number of nations, the number of Yisrael who came into Egypt, and the number of Names for God, while God is One and Yisrael is one, on a par with the rest of the world.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section invokes the resonance of the numbers one and seventy, which in the symbolism of gematria are of immense, if not unequalled, importance. By concentrating on the form and meaning of these numbers, we can draw their energy like great chords of music into our hearts, helping them attune to the holy radiance of the Light of One.

285. Rabbi Tanchum said: Every nation has a minister above and when the Holy One, blessed be He, gives dominion to one, He humbles another. When He gave dominion to that Minister OF EGYPT, he had that dominion only because of Yisrael. This is the meaning of: "Her adversaries have become the chief" (Eichah 1:5).

285. רַבִּי תַנְחוּם אָמַר, כָּל אוֹמָה וְאוֹמָה אֵיךְ לֵה שָׂר לְעִילָא, וְכֹד קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא יְהִיב שְׁלֹטְנוֹתָא לְדִין, אֲנַחֲתִי לְדִין, וְכֹד יְהִיב שְׁלֹטְנוֹתָא לְהוּא שָׂר, לִית לִיה שְׁלֹטְנוֹתָא, אֲלֵא בְּגִין יִשְׂרָאֵל, הֵה"ד הִינוּ צְרִיחָ לְרֵאשׁ.

286. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Yisrael corresponds to all the other nations of the world. As all the other nations are seventy, Yisrael is also seventy. It is written: "All the souls of the House of Jacob who came into Egypt were seventy" (Bereshheet 46:27). And it is as if he who rules over the children of Yisrael, rules over the whole world.

286. רַבִּי יִצְחָק אָמַר, יִשְׂרָאֵל אֵינוֹן לְקַבִּיל כָּל שָׂר אוֹמִין דְּעֵלְמָא, מַה שָׂר עֲמִין אֵינוֹן שְׁבַעִים, אוֹף יִשְׂרָאֵל אֵינוֹן שְׁבַעִים, הֵה"ד, כָּל הַנֶּמֶשׁ לְבֵית יַעֲקֹב הִבָּא מִצְרַיִם שְׁבַעִים. וּמֵאן דְּשָׁלִיט עַל יִשְׂרָאֵל, כְּאִילוּ שָׁלִיט עַל כָּל עֵלְמָא.

287. Rabbi Aba said: From here IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT YISRAEL IS SEVENTY, AS IS WRITTEN: "And the children of Yisrael were fruitful, and increased abundantly and multiplied and became exceedingly mighty" (Shemot 1:7). We have here seven LEVELS, and every level INCLUDES ten; thus, there are seventy. What is written after this? "Now there arose a new king over Egypt" (Ibid. 8). BY REASON OF HIS DOMINION OVER YISRAEL, THAT CORRESPONDS TO THE SEVENTY NATIONS, HE WAS CONSIDERED AS A NEW KING.

287. רַבִּי אַבָּא אָמַר מֵהֵכָא, וּבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל פְּרוּ וַיִּשְׂרְצוּ וַיִּגְוּ, הָא שְׁבַעִים. וְכֹל דְּרָגָא לְעֵשְׂרָה, הָא שְׁבַעִים. מַה כְּתִיב בְּתַרְיָה, וַיִּקַּם מֶלֶךְ חָדָשׁ עַל מִצְרַיִם.

288. Rabbi Huna said: Why were Yisrael enslaved among all the nations? It was in order that the world should be elevated through them. For they correspond to the whole world. And it is written: "On that day Hashem shall be One and his name One" (Zecharyah 14:9). As THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, is One, so is Yisrael one, as is written: "one nation in the earth" (II Shmuel 7:23). As the name OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, is One and is explained in seventy NAMES, Yisrael is also one and interpreted by seventy.

288. אָמַר רַב הוּנָא, אֲמַאי אֲשַׁתְּעִבִּירוּ יִשְׂרָאֵל בְּכָל הָאוֹמִין, בְּגִין דִּישְׁתָּאֵר בְּהוֹן עֵלְמָא, דְּאֵינוֹן לְקַבִּיל כָּל עֵלְמָא, וְכְתִיב, בַּיּוֹם הַהוּא יְהִי ה' אֶחָד וְשֵׁמוֹ אֶחָד. וּמַה הוּא חָד, אוֹף יִשְׂרָאֵל חָד, דְּכְתִיב גּוֹי אֶחָד בְּאַרְץ. מַה שְּׁמִיהּ חָד, וּנְתַפְרֵשׁ בְּע', אוֹף יִשְׂרָאֵל חָד, וּנְתַפְרֵשׁ בְּשְׁבַעִין.

39. "For a slave when he becomes king"

Rabbi Yehuda begins the discussion by interpreting the title verse, explaining that it refers to Egypt, whom God despises more than any other nation, and Ishmael, who torments and persecutes Yisrael for their Faith. Following this we learn of an incident involving Rabbi Yehoshua, who saw a meeting between a Jew and an Arab with his son. The Arab told his son to insult the Jew and spit in his face, however when the boy grabbed the Jew's beard, Rabbi Yehoshua prayed to the Patriarchs and the earth opened up and swallowed the Arabs.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reminds us that while divisions and prejudices may be deeply ingrained in people, we must remember that the mighty will eventually pay for their misdeeds, and that our contribution to the rise of the downtrodden comes through spiritual enlightenment and loving kindness, not intolerance and force.

289. Rabbi Yehuda opened the discussion saying: "For three things the earth is disquieted... for a slave when he becomes king" (Mishlei 30:21). We learned that there is no nation as lowly, despised and degraded before the Holy One, blessed be He, as the Egyptians. And the Holy One, blessed be He, gave them dominion because of Yisrael. "And a handmaid that is heir to her mistress" (Ibid.), is Hagar, who bore Ishmael who has done so much evil to Yisrael, dominated them and oppressed them with all kinds of oppressions, and decreed against them many devastations. They dominate Yisrael to this day, and do not permit them to observe their religion. There has been no exile as hard on Yisrael as the exile of Ishmael.

290. Rabbi Yehoshua was going up to Jerusalem and, as he was traveling, he saw an Arab walking with his son. They met a Jew. THE ARAB said to his son: This is a loathsome Jew who is despised by his Master. Soil him and spit into his beard seven times, for he is of the seed of high ones - MEANING FROM ABRAHAM, ISAAC AND JACOB, yet I know that seventy nations are subjugating them! His son went and grasped the beard OF THE JEW. Rabbi Yehoshua said: Lofty one, lofty ones, MEANING THAT HE PRAYED IN THE MERIT OF THE PATRIARCHS, I decree on the high ones, MEANING ON THE ARAB AND HIS SON WHO CONSIDERED THEMSELVES HIGHER THAN THE YESRAEL, that they should descend down under. Before Rabbi Yehoshua finished his words, they were swallowed up IN THE GROUND where they stood.

40. "Before the day cools"

Rabbi Yitzchak opens with an explanation of the title verse. We learn that the subjugation of Yisrael will end after one thousand years, whereupon God will appear in the terrestrial Jerusalem to purify it. At this time, He will drive the heathen nations from the Holy City and shake the wicked out of the earth. If the exile lasts longer than one thousand years, we're told, it is because Yisrael will not return in repentance to God.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reveals that we are instrumental in bringing God's decrees to fruition, since our spiritual enlightenment is a necessary condition for the manifestation of God's terrestrial rewards. It will help us learn that we are not responsible for other people, but we are responsible to them.

291. Rabbi Yitzchak opened the discussion saying: "Before the day cools, and the shadows flee away" (Shir Hashirim 4:6). "Before the day cools" refers to the exile of Yisrael, and that they would be subjugated in exile until that day when the rule of the nations who end. For we have learned that Rabbi Yitzchak said that the dominion of all nations together over the children of Yisrael would last one thousand years. There is no nation that would not subjugate them. The one day corresponds to the words that it shall be one particular day which shall be known as Hashem's..." (Zecharyah 14:7).

289. רבי יהודה פתח, תחת שלש רגזה ארץ וגו', תחת עבד כי ימלוך, התניא לית לך אומא מביכא וקלילא ונבזית קמי קודשא בריך הוא, בוותייהו דמצראי, ויהיב לון קודשא בריך הוא שלטנותא בגינייהו דישראל. ושפחה כי תירש גבירתה, הא הגר, האולידת לישמעאל, שעשה במה רעות לישראל, ושלט בהם, ועינה אותם בכל מיני ענווין, וגזר עליהם במה שמדות, ועד היום הם שולטים עליהם, ואינם מניחים להם לעמוד בדתם. ואין לך גלות קשה לישראל כמו גלות ישמעאל.

290. ר' יהושע הוה סליק לירושלם, והוה אזיל באורחא, חמא חד ערבא, דהוה אזיל באורחא, ובריה עמיה. פגעו ביודאי חד. אמר לבריה, האי יודאי געלא, דמאיס ביה מריה. נוול ליה, ורקיק ליה בדיקניה ד' זמנין, דאיהו מזרעא דראמין, דאנא ידענא דמשעבדן בהו שבעין עממין, אזיל בריה ואחיד בדיקניה. אמר רבי יהושע ראמין ראמין, גוזרנא על עלאין, דיחתון לתתא. עד לא סיים אתבלעו באתריהון.

292. Another explanation. "Before the day cools," meaning before that day the nations will cool. "And the shadows flee away," are the governments that dominate them. "I will get me to the mountain of myrrh" (Shir Hashirm 4:6), said the Holy One, blessed be He: "I will betake myself to shake the nations from, Jerusalem which is the mountain of myrrh, as is written: 'of the mountain of Moria that is in Jerusalem.' "And to the hill of frankincense," is the Temple that is in Zion, about which is written: "Fair in situation, the joy of the whole earth; Mount Zion" (Tehilim 48:3). AND THIS IS ALSO TO SHAKE OUT FROM THERE ALL THE WICKED PEOPLE, as is written: "To grasp the corners of the earth and to shake all the wicked people from it" (Iyov 38:13), as one holds a garment to shake all the filth from it.

293. Rabbi Yosi said: The Holy One, blessed be He, will eventually be revealed in terrestrial Jerusalem, and purify it from the filth of the nations, before that day of the nations is complete. For Rabbi Chiya said: The dominion of the nations over Yisrael last only one day, and that is the day of the Holy One, blessed be He, which is one thousand years long. This is what is written: "He has made me desolate and faint all the day" (Eichah 1:13), meaning one day only, and no more.

294. Rabbi Yosi said: If they are subjugated more than one thousand years, it is not because of the decree of the King, but rather because they do not wish to return IN REPENTANCE before Him. And it is written: "And it shall be when all these things come upon you... THEN YOU WILL RETURN TO HASHEM YOUR ELOHIM" (Devarim 30:1-2), and: "If your outcasts be at the utmost part of heaven, from there will Hashem gather you..." (Ibid. :4).

292. ד"א, עַד שְׁיִכּוּחַ הַיּוֹם קָרָם דְּיִכּוּחַ הַהוּא יוֹמָא דְּאֹמִינָא. וְנִסּוּ הַצְּלָלִים, אֵינּוֹן שׁוֹלְטָנִין דְּשִׁלְטוֹ עֲלֵיהּ. אֲלַךְ לִי אֶל הַר הַמּוֹר, אָמַר קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, אֲלַךְ לִי, לְנַעֲרָא הָאוֹמוֹת מִירוּשָׁלַם דְּהוּא הַר הַמּוֹר, כְּמָה דְּכִתְיִב, בְּהַר הַמּוֹרִיָּה אֲשֶׁר בִּירוּשָׁלַם. וְאֵל גְּבַעַת הַלְּבוֹנָה, דָּא בִּי מְקַדְשָׁא דִּי בְּצִיּוֹן, דְּכִתְיִב בֵּיהּ יִפָּה נֹף מְשׁוֹשׁ כָּל הָאָרֶץ הַר צִיּוֹן וְגו', כּד"א, לְאַחוּז בְּכַנְפוֹת הָאָרֶץ וַיִּנְעֲרוּ רְשָׁעִים מִמֶּנָּה. כִּהְיָה דְּאַחִיד בְּטִלְיָת, לְנַעֲרָא טְנוּפָא מִנָּה.

293. א"ר יוסי, עתיד קודשא בריך הוא לאתגלויא בירושלם דלתתא, ולדכא יתה מטנופי עממיא, עד דלא אשתלים ההוא יומא דאומין. דא"ר חייא, לית שולטנו לאומין עלייהו דישראל, אלא יומא חדא לחוד, דהוא יומו של הקודשא בריך הוא, והוא אלה שנים. הה"ד, נתני שוממה כל היום דהו. יומא חד לחוד, ולא יתיר.

294. א"ר יוסי, אי יתיר ישתעבדון, לא על פום גזרת מלכא הוא, אלא על דלא בעיין למיהדר לקבליה, וכתיב והיה כן יבואו עליך כל הדברים האלה וגו', וכתיב, אם יהיה נרחק בקצה השמים משם יקבצך וגו'.

41. "And he said to his people"

Rabbi Shimon begins the discussion by explaining that the title verse refers to the supernal minister over Egypt who revealed to the Egyptians that the minister over Yisrael was stronger than theirs. Rabbi Shimon then clarifies the distinction between "King of Egypt," which refers to the supernal minister over Egypt, and "Pharaoh, the King of Egypt," which refers to the actual Pharaoh. Similarly, we learn from Rabbi Yitzchak that in the title verse, "the people of the children of Yisrael," refers to the children of the supernal Yisrael above. While the other nations are called the people of their appointed rulers, Yisrael are called the people of Hashem because they are the only nation directly under God. Rabbi Yochanan then asks about Balak's reference to Yisrael in the verse, "Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt." Rabbi Yitzchak explains that sorcerers prefer to avoid all ambiguity, and therefore when referring to someone, they mention only the mother's name because only maternal descent is certain. Moreover, the demons also adhere to this strict code. Rabbi Aba, however, interprets Balak's reference as one of contempt that implies that the origin of Yisrael is unknown. The discussion then turns to expound upon the concept that God punishes His own children first so that they will guard against sin more than the other nations. Rabbi Yosi provides a personal incident to illustrate this idea, and concludes that God punishes students of the Torah so that they will not separate themselves from the Tree of Life (the Torah) for even a moment.

Finally, we learn from an episode involving Rabbi Yitzchak that an earthquake is a physical sign of the appointment of a minister in heaven who will cause suffering to Yisrael. This is in accordance with the verse, "For three things the earth is disquieted..."

The Relevance of this Passage

This section deepens our understanding of the profound interconnectedness of everything in Creation, and will make more attuned to the language of the planet itself, just as it further opens the language of the Zohar, enabling us to see that all selfish seeking is really a form of sorcery, or the attempt to coerce what may not belong to us from those too weak to prevent us taking it. There cannot be imbalance in the universe, thus we must become aware of what it is we truly own.

295. "And he said to his people, 'Behold the people of the children of Yisrael'" (Shemot 1:9). Rabbi Shimon said: Come and behold. In all instances, a ruling angel was appointed over Egypt and SAID TO HIS PEOPLE, "BEHOLD, THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL..." And so it is in the majority of the portion that says plainly, "king of Egypt," means the minister who is appointed over Egypt. However, when it is written: "Pharaoh, the King of Egypt," IT IS actually Pharaoh, AND NOT THE ANGEL, WHO IS APPOINTED OVER THEM!

296. Rabbi Shimon said: Therefore it is written, "And he said TO HIS PEOPLE" (Shemot 1:9), MEANING I will introduce this into their hearts THAT THEY SHOULD THINK SO. As the Torah says, "Because Hashem said to him, 'Curse David'" (II Shmuel 16:10), MEANING the thought of his heart alone, THAT HASHEM INTRODUCED INTO HIS HEART. Also, "And Haman said in his heart" (Ester 6:6), and so, "And he said in his heart, 'Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old?'" (Bereshheet 17:17). THE MEANING OF "HE SAID" IS also to introduce a thought into their hearts, that they should say IN THEIR HEARTS. "More and mightier than we" (Shemot 1:9). Why does it say "than we"? It means, than the angel who is appointed over them, because they thought in their hearts that Elohim and their power, THAT IS, OF YISRAEL, is greater and stronger than us - than THE APPOINTED ANGEL who rules over Egypt.

297. Rabbi Yitzchak said: All the nations of the world draw strength from the Ministers WHO ARE APPOINTED IN HEAVEN over them. And the children of Yisrael draw their powers from the Holy One, blessed be He. And they are called 'the people of Hashem', and not 'the people of a ruler WHO WAS APPOINTED'. Rabbi Yehuda said: Here, the Egyptians are called the people OF THE APPOINTED, as is written: "And he said to his people," (Shemot 1:9) and there it is written, "I have surely seen the affliction of My people" (Shemot 3:7), MEANING actually, "My people." The children of Yisrael are called 'the people of Hashem', and the other nations are called 'the people of their appointed rulers', as it is written: "For let all people walk, everyone in the name of his Elohim, and we will walk in the name of Hashem our Elohim, forever and ever" (Michah 4:5).

298. Rabbi Aba said: This passage should have read, 'The children of Yisrael are more and mightier than we'. Why does it say: "the people of the children..."? AND HE ANSWERS: It means the actual people of the children of Yisrael, THAT IS, THE PEOPLE OF THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL OF BELOW, WHICH IS THE CORPOREAL YISRAEL WHO IS DRAWN from that Yisrael of above, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. SINCE THE PEOPLE ARE NOT CONNECTED TO THE SUPERNAL YISRAEL, THEY ADDED THE WORD "PEOPLE" because they thought that they were the people of the children of Yisrael OF BELOW, and not the people of Hashem, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN. It is written: "And they were mortified on account of the children of Yisrael" (Shemot 1:12), instead of, 'On account of the people of the children of Yisrael', WHICH IS YISRAEL OF BELOW. FOR EVENTUALLY, THEY RECOGNIZED THAT THEY WERE THE SUPERNAL CHILDREN OF YISRAEL OF ABOVE, MEANING THE PEOPLE OF HASHEM.

295. וַיֹּאמֶר אֶל עַמּוֹ הַנֶּה עִם בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. א"ר שְׁמַעוֹן תָּא חַוִּי, דְּהָא עַל כָּל פְּנִים מְלָאכָא שְׁלִטוּנָא דְּמִמְנָא עַל מִצְרַיִי הוּד, וְהָכִי הוּא, דְּרוּבָא דְּפִרְשֵׁתָא לֹא אֲתָמַר, אֲלֵא מֶלֶךְ מִצְרַיִם סָתֵם, וְהֵינּוּ מִמְנָא רְבִרְבָא עַל מִצְרַיִי. פְּרַעָה מֶלֶךְ מִצְרַיִם, פְּרַעָה מִמֶּשׁ.

299. Rabbi Yochanan was before Rabbi Yitzchak. He said: Why did Balak choose to say, "Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt" (Bemidbar 22:5), and did not say, "Behold the people of the children of Yisrael." Rabbi Yitzchak said to him: Balak was a great sorcerer, and it is the way of sorcerers to select a matter that is completely certain. Similarly, they never mention the father's name of a person, but rather his mother's name, which is certain. THEREFORE, BILA'AM DID NOT MENTION THE CHILDREN OF YISRAEL, WHICH IS THE NAME OF THE FATHER.

300. This is the way of the demons. They examine the matter that is said to them BY THE SORCERERS. If it is false, they notify them with false words. And if it is true, whatever they tell them is true at least for a short time. Especially if the sorcerers desire an action of them, THEY ARE PARTICULARLY CAUTIOUS TO SAY THE TRUTH, THAT IS BEYOND SUSPICION. THEREFORE, THEY DO NOT MENTION THE NAME OF A PERSON'S FATHER. Rabbi Acha said: Balak used a degrading tone, "Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt," meaning we do not know where they are from.

301. Rabbi Yochanan said: Why is it that a people THAT IS UNDER THE GUIDANCE of ministers guard themselves, and the people of the Holy One, blessed be He, do not guard themselves? Rabbi Yitzchak said: The poor man is not comparable to the rich man. The poor man needs to guard what is his, BECAUSE PEOPLE ARE NOT AFRAID TO CHALLENGE HIM. The rich man does not guard his possessions, BECAUSE EVERYONE IS AFRAID TO CHALLENGE HIM. All the more so, Yisrael are UNDER THE GUIDANCE of a King who loves Truth and Justice. And He does justice with His household first, because He wants them to be protected against sin more than all THE NATIONS. This is what is written: "You only have I known of all the families of the earth" (Amos 3:2).

302. Rabbi Yosi went on the road and Rabbi Acha bar Ya'akov went with him. While they were traveling, Rabbi Yosi kept quiet FROM WORDS OF THE TORAH, and reflected on worldly things. But Rabbi Acha CONTINUED to meditate on the words of the Torah. Rabbi Yosi saw a snake that was running after him. Rabbi Yosi said to Rabbi Acha: Do you see the snake that is chasing me? Rabbi Acha said to him: I do not see it. Rabbi Yosi ran with the snake after him. Rabbi Yosi fell and the blood flowed from his nose. He heard them saying, "You only have I known of all the families of the earth." DUE TO THIS, HE WAS SAVED FROM THE SNAKE. Rabbi Yosi said: If for just one moment I CEASED FROM THE WORDS OF TORAH AND TURNED TO WORLDLY THINGS, AND THIS HAPPENED TO ME, it is much worse for one who has suspended his mind entirely FROM WORDS OF TORAH.

303. He opened the discussion saying: "For Hashem your Elohim has blessed you in all the work of your hand: He knows your walking through..." (Devarim 2:7). "Who led you...venomous serpents and scorpions" (Devarim 8:15). HE ASKS: Why were there venomous serpents here IN THE WILDERNESS? AND HE ANSWERS: To punish the children of Yisrael any time they separate from the Tree of Life, of which it is written: "For he is your life, and the length of your days" (Devarim 30:20).

299. רבי יוחנן הוה קאים קמיה דר' יצחק, אמר, מה חמא בלק למימר, הנה עם יצא ממצרים, ולא אמר הנה עם בני ישראל. א"ל ר' יצחק, בלק מכשף גדול הוה, וכן דרך המכשפים לקחת הדבר שאין בו חשדא, וכן אין מזכירין לעולם שם אביו של אדם, אלא שם אמו, דבר שאין בו חשדא.

300. דכן דרך השדים, דמעיינים בהווא מלה דקאמרי להו, אי איהו כדיבא, מודיעין ליה מלין כדיבין, ואי הוא קשוט, כל מה דאמרין לזמנא זעירא קושטא הוא, כל שכן למעבד עבדתא. רבי אחא אמר, בלק אורחא דקלנא נקט, הנה עם יצא ממצרים, כלומר, דלית אנן ידעין ממאן אינון.

302. רבי יוסי נפק לאורחא, והוה רבי אחא בר יעקב אזיל עמיה, עד דהוה אזלי שתיק רבי יוסי, והרהר במלי דעלמא. ורבי אחא הרהר במלי דאורייתא. חמא רבי יוסי חר חווא, דהוה רהיט אבתריה. אמר רבי יוסי לרבי אחא, חזית האי חווא דרהיט אבתראי. אמר ליה רבי אחא, אנא לא חמינא ליה. רהט רבי יוסי וחוא אבתרוי. נפל רבי יוסי, ודמא שתת ונחת מחוטמוי, שמע דהוה אמרין, רק אתכם ידעתי מכל משפחות האדמה וגו', אמר רבי יוסי, ומה על שעתא חדא כן, מאן דמתניאש מנה על אחת כמה וכמה.

303. פתח ואמר, בי ה' אלהיך ברכך בכל מעשה ידך ידע לכתך וגו' המוליכך וגו', נחש שרף ועקרוב וגו', נחש שרף למה הכא. אלא, לקחת עונשן מישראל, כל זמן שמתפרשין מן עץ החיים. דכתוב כי הוא חייך ואורך ימין.

304. Come and behold. Rabbi Chiya said: It is written, "He that spares his rod hates his son..." (Mishlei 13:24) and, "I have loved you," says Hashem" (Malachi 1:2), and also: "And I hated Esau" (Ibid. 3). What does "hate" REFER TO? It is written: "He that spares his rod hates his son," meaning: I hate him, therefore, I spare his rod from him. This is even more so with scholars; HE DOES NOT SPARE HIS ROD FROM THEM, for the Holy One, blessed be He, does not want them to become separated from the Tree of Life, even for one moment.

305. "And he said to his people" (Shemot 1:9). He gave them advice in order to do evil with them. Rabbi Tanchum said: The Egyptians knew by their knowledge of astrology that they would eventually be smitten because of Yisrael. Therefore, their Minister did evil to them first.

306. Rabbi Yitzchak came upon a mountain and saw a man sleeping under a tree. RABBI YITZCHAK sat down there. While he was sitting, he noticed the earth moving, and saw that tree break and fall. He saw fissure holes in the earth, and the earth was rising and falling

307. The man awoke and screamed towards Rabbi Yitzchak: Jew, Jew, cry and wail, because now they are setting up in heaven a minister, a supernal ruler, who is destined to do great evil with your people. These tremors in the earth are because of you, for whenever the earth rumbles it is when a minister arises in the heaven, who will do evil with you!

308. Rabbi Yitzchak was astonished and said: It is certainly written, "For three things the earth is disquieted...for a slave when he becomes king" ((Mishlei 30:21-22). ITS MEANING refers to a minister who was ORIGINALLY SUBJUGATED under a different ruler, AND NOW that he rules, and they give him dominion, THE SCRIPTURE SAYS THAT THE EARTH QUAKES and, moreover, when THAT APPOINTED ONE rules over Yisrael, CERTAINLY THE EARTH QUAKES AND IS DISQUIETED.

309. Rabbi Chama bar Guria said: When the Holy One, blessed be He, placed the children of Yisrael under the dominion of other nations, He sat and wailed and wept. This is what is written: "My soul shall weep in secret" (Yirmeyah 13:17). Rabbi Yosi said: "In secret" is precise, THAT IS, IN THE WORLD OF ATZILUT.

304. תָּא חֲזִי, אָמַר רַבִּי חִיָּיא, כְּתִיב חוֹשֵׁךְ שְׁבֹטוֹ שׁוֹנֵא בְּנוֹ וְגו'. וְכִתִּיב אֶהְבֵּתִי אֶתְכֶם אָמַר ה'. וְכִתִּיב, וְאֵת עֵשׂוֹ שָׁנֵאתִי. מִהוּ שָׁנֵאתִי, דְּכִתִּיב חוֹשֵׁךְ שְׁבֹטוֹ שׁוֹנֵא בְּנוֹ. כְּלוֹמַר שָׁנֵאתִי אוֹתוֹ, וְעַל כֵּן חֲשַׁכְתִּי שְׁבֹט מֵהֶם, כֹּל שָׁכֵן וְכֹל שָׁכֵן תִּלְמִידֵי חֻכְמִים, דְּלֵא בְּעֵי קוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא דִּיתְפָּרְשׁוּן מֵעַץ הַחַיִּים אֲפִילוּ רִגְעָא חֲדָא.

305. וַיֹּאמֶר אֶל עַמּוֹ. יֵהָב לְהוֹן עֵיטָא, לְמַעַבְדַּ עֲמַהוֹן בִּישָׁא. אָמַר רַבִּי תַנְחוּם, יִדְעִין הוּוּ מִצְרָאֵי בְּאַצְטַגְנִינֹת דְּלְהוֹן, שְׁסוּפִן לְמַלְקֵי בְּגִין יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְלַכְךָ אֶקְדִּים שׁוֹלְטָנָא דְּלְהוֹן, לְמַעַבְדַּ עֲמַהוֹן בִּישָׁא.

42. "Behold, the mighty ones shall cry outside"

Rabbi Elazar tells Rabbi Yehuda that the title verse refers to God's ministers who weep in the outer chambers when God, Who is in the inner chambers, is sad and weeping. We learn that these are called angels of peace, and are distinct from the various other types of angels. Rabbi Yehuda then asks why the ministers of the other nations oppress Yisrael knowing that this causes God to suffer. Rabbi Elazar's reply indicates that they carry out their duties in accordance with God's will.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section drives further home the important teaching that all that was, is or will be, is the will of God, thus it is incorrect to think of anything happening that is not part of the divine Plan. When we are tempted to think that something in the world has 'gone wrong', a reading of this section helps to elevate the mind to see beyond appearances to where all is One.

310. Rabbi Yehuda came to Rabbi Elazar and found him sitting with his hand in his mouth. He was sad. He asked him: With what is Sir occupied? He said to him that it is written: "In the light of the King's countenance is life" (Mishlei 16:15). If the Master is sad and especially IF HE weeps and wails, what do His ministers do? It is written: "Behold, the mighty ones shall cry outside" (Yeshayah 33:7). "...outside..." meaning that their Master is within, AS IS WRITTEN: "MY SOUL WEEPS IN SECRET," and they are outside. Their Master is in the inner rooms, WHICH ARE IN ATZILUT, while they are in the outer rooms, WHICH ARE IN BRIYAH, YETZIRAH AND ASIYAH. HE ASKS: What are the inner rooms? Rabbi Yitzchak said: They are from the ten crowns of the King, MEANING OF THE TEN SFIROT OF ZEIR ANPIN IN ATZILUT.

311. "The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly" (Ibid.). HE ASKS: Are there any angels who are not for peace? He said to him: Yes. Come and behold: there are angels who are of severe Judgment, WHO ARE DRAWN FROM THE ASPECT OF GVURAH. There are those of Judgment not severe, WHO ARE DRAWN FROM MALCHUT. And there are those who have Judgment and Compassion WHO ARE DRAWN FROM TIFERET. And there are those of Compassion that contain no Judgment at all, WHO ARE DRAWN FROM BINAH, and they are called the 'angels of peace'. Pertaining to these ANGELS of below, WHICH ARE EXTERNAL, it is written: "I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering" (Yeshayah 50:3), and: "And all the host of heaven shall rot away" (Yeshayah 34:4).

312. HE ASKS: If this is so, then why do all the ministers who are appointed over the other nations enslave His children with heavy labor when they see that their Master is sad, BECAUSE OF THE SUBJUGATION OF YISRAEL? Rabbi Elazar said: They only do that which is incumbent upon them, and they are doing the desire of their Master!

43. Two tears sink into the great abyss

Rabbi Dustai explains that when the children of Yisrael are delivered to the supernal ministers of the other nations, twelve courts convene and the Master weeps. Then two tears sink into the great abyss, and both the higher and the lower celestial beings descend multiple levels. We also learn that when God delivered Yisrael into the power of the supernal minister of Egypt, He made seven decrees that Egypt should subjugate them, and seven decrees bestowing benefits on Yisrael.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section teaches us to recognize the good fortune that can exist even in times of great suffering, and indeed that out of great suffering great good must come to set the balance straight. The passage is also ideal for a meditation on two, twelve and seven, providing images that assist in our inner understanding of the profound wisdom that is contained by number.

313. Rabbi Dustai said: As soon as the children of the Holy One, blessed be He, are given over to the rulers of the nations, twelve courts will convene, MEANING MALCHUT HAS TWELVE PERMUTATIONS OF ADONAI, WHICH CONTAINS THE LETTERS OF DINA ('JUDGMENT'). SINCE THE UNION OF YUD HEI VAV HEI ADONAI WAS ABOLISHED, IN WHICH THE TWELVE PERMUTATIONS OF ADONAI RECEIVED FROM THE TWELVE PERMUTATIONS OF YUD HEI VAV HEI, THE TWELVE PERMUTATIONS OF ADONAI GATHERED and sank in the great Abyss, WHICH IS BINAH. The Master, WHICH IS BINAH, weeps by raising the voice CALLED 'WAILINGS'. Two teardrops fell FROM THE EYE SOCKETS, WHICH IS BINAH, to the depths of the Great Sea, WHICH IS MALCHUT. This is the meaning of: "Your Judgments are a great deep" (Tehilim 36:7). Those above rolled downward, and the lower beings broke asunder and descended 240 levels. This is what is written, "The lion has roared, who will not fear" (Amos 3:8).

310. רבי יהודה על לגביה דרבי אלעזר, אשכחיה דהוה יתיב, ויריה בפומיה, והוה עציב. אמר ליה, במאי קא עסיק מר. אמר ליה דכתיב, באור פני מלך חיים. אי טרנא עציב, וכ"ש דגעו ובכי, שמשוי מאי עבדי, הדא הוא דכתיב, הן אראלם צעקו חוצה. מאי חוצה. מריהון בגו, ואינון לבר. מריהון בבתי גואי, ואינון בבתי בראי. בתי גואי מאי אינון. אמר רבי יצחק, אינון מעשרה כתיבי מלכא.

311. מלאכי שלום מר יבביון, וכי יש מלאכים שאינם של שלום. אמר ליה אין. תא חזי, אית מארי דדינא קשיא, ואית מארי דדינא דלא קשיא, ואית מארי דינא ורחמנותא. ואית מארי דרחמנותא דלית בהו דינא כלל. ואלין אתקרון מלאכי שלום. ועל אינון דלתתא, כתיב, אלביש שמים קדרות ושק אשים בסותם. וכתיב ונמקו כל צבא השמים.

312. אי הכי, כל אינון שולטנין דממנן על שאר עמין, כד חמאן למריהון עציב, למאי עבדין פרוכא לבנוהי. א"ר אלעזר, לא עבדי אלא מאי דאתפקדו, ורעותא דמריהון עבדין.

313. ר' דוסתאי אמר בערנא דאתמסרן בנוי דקודשא ב"ה, לשולטני עממין, מתכנפין תריסר בתי דינין, ומשתקען גו תהומא רבה, געי טרנא, געין, ורהיטן ונחתין תרין דמעין לשקיעא דינא רבה, הה"ד משפטין תהום רבה. ומתגלגלן עלאין לתתא, אתבקען תתאין, ונחתין מאתן וארבעין דרגין הה"ד אריה שאג מי לא יירא.

314. We learned that at the time that the Holy One, blessed be He, gave the children of Yisrael to the Minister of Egypt, He made seven decrees that Egypt should subjugate them. This is what is written: "And they made their lives bitter, with hard bondage in the mortar and in brick, and all manner of bondage in the field, all their bondage, wherein they made them serve was with rigor" (Shemot 1:14). He correspondingly made seven to the good: "And the children of Yisrael were fruitful and increased abundantly, and multiplied and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them" (Ibid. 7).

314. תָּנָא, בְּשַׁעֲתָא דְּמִסְרֵי קוּדְשָׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא לְיִשְׂרָאֵל לְשָׂרָא דְּמִצְרַיִם, גָּזַר עֲלֵיהוּ ד' גְּזֵרוֹת, שִׁישְׁעִבְדוּ בְּהוֹן מִצְרַיִם. הֵהָדִד וַיִּמְרְרוּ אֶת חַיֵּיהֶם בְּעִבּוּדָה קָשָׁה בְּחוֹמֵר וּבִלְבָנִים וְגו'. וְלִקְבִלְיָהוּן שְׁבַע לְטָב, וּבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל פָּרוּ, וַיִּשְׂרְצוּ, וַיִּרְבּוּ, וַיַּעֲצֻמוּ, בְּמֵאד, מְאֹד, וַתִּמְלֵא הָאָרֶץ אוֹתָם.

44. "Come, let us deal wisely with them"

The title verse, we learn, refers to the ministering angels that agreed in their judgment against the supernal children of Yisrael. Rabbi Yitzchak compares them to thorns and thistles continually stinging Yisrael so that they would not multiply and grow stronger.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section contains a profound teaching regarding the necessity of clinging to God alone, and not to His ministers or angels; for harm can come from any quarter - even angels - the moment we lower our sights from the Highest of the High to rest on any lesser goal.

315. "Come, let us deal wisely with them" (Shemot 1:10). Rabbi Yosi said: "Come (Heb. hava)" is an expression of preparation to do justice, as is said, "Come, let us go down" (Beresheet 11:7). "Give (Heb. hava) a perfect lot" (I Shmuel 14:41). Rabbi Yochanan said: Hava is always an expression of agreement and invitation, as in, "Come, let us build us a city" (Beresheet 11:4). "Give counsel" (II Shmuel 16:20); "ascribe (Heb. havu) to Hashem, O you mighty" (Tehilim 29:1).

315. הָבָה נִתְחַכְמָה לוֹ. רַבִּי יוֹסִי אָמַר, אִין הָבָה אֶלָּא לְשׁוֹן הַזְּמַנָּה, לְמַעַבְדֵי דִּינָא. כְּמָה דְּאֵת אָמַר, הָבָה נִרְדָּה. הָבָה תְּמִים. אָמַר רַבִּי יוֹחָנָן, הָבָה כּוֹלָם, לְשׁוֹן הַסְּכָמָה וְהַזְּמַנָּה. כְּמוֹ הָבָה נִבְנָה לְנוּ עִיר. הָבוּ לָכֶם עֲצָה. הָבוּ לֵה' בְּנֵי אֱלֹיִם.

316. Rabbi Yitzchak said: "Come, let us deal wisely with him," MEANING: we will agree in Judgment concerning them. "Lest they multiply" (Shemot 1:10); and the Holy Spirit says, "So would it multiply and so would it spread." And the ministering angels were to them as thistles and thorns. This is what is written: "And they were mortified (Heb. yakutzu) on account of the children of Yisrael" (Ibid. 12). ITS MEANING IS THAT THE SUPERNAL CHILDREN OF YISRAEL, WHO ARE THE ANGELS, AS SAID EARLIER, were being stung by the ministering angels, like the thorns (Heb. kotz) that prick people.

316. רַבִּי יִצְחָק אָמַר, הָבָה נִתְחַכְמָה לוֹ נְהוּי בְּהַסְכָּמַת דִּינָא לְגַבְיָהּ. פֶּן יִרְבֶּה, וְרוּחַ הַקֹּדֶשׁ אוֹמְרַת כֵּן יִרְבֶּה, וְכֵן יִפְרוֹץ. וּמִלְאֲכֵי הַשְּׂרָת הוּוּ לְשָׂכִים וְלַעֲנִינִים הֵהָדִד, וַיִּקְצוּ מִפְּנֵי בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל. דִּהוּוּ מִתְעַקְצֵי מִמִּלְאֲכֵי הַשְּׂרָת, כְּהֵנִי קוֹצֵי דְּמִתְעַקְצֵי בְּהוּ אוֹיְנָשׁוּי.

45. "And against all the Elohim of Egypt I will execute Judgments!"

The discussion in this section encompasses the Judgments that God executed against the Egyptians. According to Rabbi Yochanan, when Moses spoke the words of the title verse, Dumah, the supernal minister of Egypt, ran in fear. His authority was taken from him and he was appointed as minister over Gehenom, to judge the souls of the wicked. After punishing the gods of Egypt, causing the Egyptian idols to melt or rot, God commanded the public desecration of the lamb, the chief Egyptian deity. He then punished the nation itself. Rabbi Shimon, son of Rabbi Yosi, then comments that the premonition of all these events is apparent in the Pharaoh's words, "Come, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it shall come to pass, when any war should chance..."

The Relevance of this Passage

This section further enhances our understanding of the Zohar's great symbol for materialism and selfish seeking - Egypt - where the power of gold, force of arms, and mighty buildings belies a shallow, empty core where things are worshipped instead of God. This image will help to remind us when we fall prey to the 'idol worship' of earthly fame and glory - for just as ancient Egypt is but yesterday in the eye of God, so are our whole lives as brief and transient as windblown clouds in the high, blue air.

317. Rabbi Yudai said, said Rabbi Yitzchak: What was the thought of the Egyptians to prevent Yisrael from being fruitful and multiplying, AND THE THOUGHT OF the minister who was appointed over them to bring this into their hearts? BECAUSE "AND HE SAID TO HIS PEOPLE," REFERS TO THEIR MINISTER? AND HE ANSWERS: But he said to them, 'know that one son will emerge from Yisrael and Judgment will be done by his hand against your Elohim.'

317. א"ר יודאי א"ר יצחק, מה היה מחשבתהון דמצראי, דממנע מישראל פריה ורביה, ושלטנא דממנא עליהון דאעיל בלבהון כן. אלא, אמר להון, הוּו ידעין, דזמין ברא חדא למיפק מישראל, דיתעביד דינא באלהיהון על ידיה.

318. For Rabbi Yochanan said: When Moses said, "And against all the Elohim of Egypt I will execute Judgments" (Shemot 12:12). Dumah, the Minister of Egypt went four hundred parasangs FROM GREAT FEAR. The Holy One, blessed be He, said to him: 'A decree was decreed before Me, AND IT CAN NOT BE RESCINDED for it is written: "Hashem shall punish the host of the high ones on high..." (Yeshayah 24:21). At that moment, his authority was removed and Dumah was appointed TO BE the minister of Gehenom, to judge the souls of the wicked there. And Rabbi Yehuda said: He was appointed over the dead.

319. Rabbi Chanina said: It is written, "Upon their Elohim Hashem inflicted punishments" (Bemidbar 33:4). AND HE ASKS: Are there Judgments upon Elohim of silver or of gold or of wood or of stone? Rabbi Yosi said: Those of silver or gold melted of themselves, and those of wood rotted.

320. Rabbi Elazar said: The deity of Egypt was a lamb and the Holy One, blessed be He, commanded the execution of Judgments upon it, to burn it in fire, as is written: "The carvings of their Elohim shall you burn with fire" (Devarim 7:25), in order that its odor should spread, and, "its head, with its legs, and its entrails," IN A DISRESPECTFUL WAY. Furthermore, its bones shall be thrown in the marketplace. And this was the hardest of all to Egypt. This is the meaning of Judgments.

321. Rabbi Yehuda said: Upon their very Elohim DID HE EXECUTE JUDGMENTS, and this is their minister, to fulfill: "Hashem shall punish the hosts of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth" (Yeshayah 24:21). Their sages, and of course their minister, knew all this. Therefore it is written, "Come, let us deal wisely."

322. Rabbi Yochanan said: There were many idols in Egypt and the Nile RIVER was their deity, and the Holy One, blessed be He, executed Judgments on all of them. Rabbi Aba said: This OPINION of Rabbi Yochanan is exact and clear, since their deities were smitten first, then the nation. The Nile also was smitten first, and the wood and stones THAT THEY WORSHIPPED. This is what is written: "That there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stones" (Shemot 7:19), that were for them their actual Elohim. And Rabbi Yitzchak said TO RABBI YOCHANAN: It is written, "the hosts of the high ones on high," yet the Nile was not on high, BUT RATHER ON THE EARTH. Rabbi Yochanan said: Because of the vast amount of water of the Nile, it appeared as though THE RIVER was on high. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Their minister was smitten first and afterwards the rest of their Elohim!

323. Rabbi Shimon, the son of Rabbi Yosi, said: The actual smiting of the nation of Egypt was done only by the sea, as is written: "There remained of them not even one" (Shemot 14:28). Before, Judgments were executed upon their Elohim, and therefore it is written: "Come, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it shall come to pass, when any war should chance" (Shemot 1:10). They prophesied about the future according to what occurred to them. "They also join our enemies" (Ibid.); they prophesied about the supernal camps OF ANGELS that would dwell among them, "and fight against us." They prophesied about the words: "Hashem shall fight for you" (Shemot 14:14). "And so go up out of the land," as is said: "And the children of Yisrael went out with a high hand" (Ibid. 8).

323. רְבִי שִׁמְעוֹן בְּרַבִּי יוֹסִי אוֹמֵר, לְקוֹת אוֹמֵה שֶׁל מִצְרַיִם מִמֶּשׁ, לֹא הָיָה אֱלֹא בַיּוֹם, דְּכַתִּיב, לֹא נִשְׁאַר בָּהֶם עַד אַחַר. וְקוֹדֵם זֶה, נַעֲשֶׂה שְׂפָטִים בְּאֱלֹהֵיהֶם. וְעַד כְּתִיב, הִבֵּה גִתְחַכְמָה לוֹ פֶּן יִרְבֶּה זֶהיָה כִּי תִקְרָאנָה. וְנִתְנַבְּאוּ עַל הָעֵתִיד, כְּפִי מַה שְׁאִירַע לָהֶם. וְנוֹסֵף גַּם הוּא עַל שׁוֹנְאֵינוּ, נִבְּאוּ עַל מַחְנוֹת עֲלִיוֹנִים, שֶׁיְהִיוּ שְׂרוּיִים בְּתוֹכָם. וְנִלְחַם בָּנוּ, נִבְּאוּ עַל מַה דְּכַתִּיב ה' וְלָחֵם לָכֶם וְגו'. וְעַל מִן הָאָרֶץ, כְּמַה דְּאֵת אִמֵּר וּבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל יוֹצְאִים בְּיַד רַמָּה.

46. "The song of songs, which is Solomon's"

Rabbi Elazar expounds upon the title verse, explaining that God after created heaven and earth and the divisions of day and night, He created angels to sing praises by day, and angels to sing praises at night. The angels that sing by day are on the right side, while the angels that sing by night are on the left side. The angels of the night include all three Columns, and they are above all the other singers. When they listen to the songs of the children of Yisrael by day, they gain knowledge and understanding of matters that they were unable to grasp previously. Heaven and earth, signifying the Male and the Female, also gain strength through this singing. Rabbi Nechemyah then explains that he who achieves knowledge of the celestial singing will also merit profound knowledge of the Torah and Wisdom, through which he will learn what was and what will be. It was in this way that both David and Solomon gained knowledge. Indeed, through that song, Solomon was able to penetrate the essence of Wisdom and he then composed many proverbs and wrote a book that he called "The Song of Songs."

Rabbi Elazar then explains that the supernal singers began to sing at Levi's birth, however their singing was not perfected until after Moshe was born, Aharon was anointed, and the Levites became sanctified. Because the actions of the lower beings complete the supernal ones, when the singing of below issued from the tribes of Levi, all were sanctified above and below and the worlds became one, with one King dwelling over them. We learn that the singers of below are called Levites because they are joined to and united with the singers above. Also, the seed of Levi is joined to the Shechinah through Moses, Aharon, and Miriam. Before the birth of these three figures, the supernal singers could not perform their function. We're also told that Levi's descendant Amram was called this because the mightiest nation descended from him. However, his name is not mentioned because he secretly left his wife and later returned to her. When this happened, God rebuked the heavenly singers and they ceased their song until God extended His right hand to Amram.

The Relevance of this Passage

This section introduces the theme of heavenly music that threads throughout the Zohar and is closely related to the mystery and wisdom of numbers. A reading of it helps to open and attune the inner ear, enabling us to start hearing the heartbreakingly beautiful chords of supernal music drifting in like distant waves, and, unlike earthly music, carrying with it wisdom that defies all other forms of language and settles upon our souls like petals made of light.

324. "And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi" (Shemot 2:1). Rabbi Elazar opened the discussion saying: "The song of songs, which is Solomon's" (Shir Hashirm 1:1). We learned that when the Holy One, blessed be He, WHICH IS BINAH, created His world, the wish He so wished, and He created the heavens, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, with His right hand, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHASSADIM, and the earth, WHICH IS THE NUKVA, with His left hand, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF GVUROT. And He so desired to guide the day and the night, THAT THEY SHOULD BE PAIRED IN THE SECRET OF THE PASSAGE: "AND THERE WAS EVENING AND THERE WAS MORNING, ONE DAY" (BERESHEET 1:5). He created the angels, WHO ARE DRAWN FROM ZEIR ANPIN, who are appointed by His kindness by day, and He created the angels who are appointed to sing praises by night. FOR THE SONG IS THE SECRET OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH THAT IS DRAWN THROUGH THE NUKVA, THAT IS CALLED 'NIGHT'. This is what is written, "Hashem will command his steadfast love (Heb. chesed) in the daytime," (Tehilim 42:9) THROUGH THE ANGELS WHO ARE APPOINTED OVER CHESED, "and in the night His song shall be with me" (Ibid.), THROUGH THE ANGELS WHO ARE APPOINTED OVER THE SINGING, those on the right, MEANING THOSE APPOINTED OVER CHESED, and those on the left, MEANING THOSE APPOINTED OVER THE SINGING. Those OF THE RIGHT listen to the singing of the day, the singing of holy Yisrael, BECAUSE YISRAEL SINGS PRAISES BY DAY. Rabbi Yitzchak said: Those who say songs of praise by night listen to the singing of Yisrael by day, as is written: "The companions hearken for your voice" (Shir Hashirm 8:13).

324. וַיֵּלֶךְ אִישׁ מִבֵּית לְוִי וַיִּקַּח אֶת בַּת לְוִי. רְבִי אֶלְעָזָר פֶּתַח, שִׁיר הַשִּׁירִים אֲשֶׁר לְשִׁלְמֹה. תֵּנָא, כְּשֶׁבְרָא הַקְּדוֹשׁ בְּרוּךְ הוּא אֶת עוֹלָמוֹ, עָלָה בַּחֲפֵץ לִפְנָיו, וּבְרָא אֶת הַשָּׁמַיִם בַּיּוֹמֵינוּ וְהָאָרֶץ בְּשִׁמְאָלוֹ, וְעָלָה בַּחֲפֵץ לִפְנָיו, לְנֵהוֹג הַיּוֹם וְהַלַּיְלָה. וּבְרָא הַמַּלְאָכִים הַמְּמוֹנְגִים בַּחֲסֵדוֹ, בַּיּוֹם. וּבְרָא הַמַּלְאָכִים הַמְּמוֹנְגִים לֹמֵר שִׁירָה בְּלַיְלָה. הֲדָא הוּא דְכַתִּיב, יוֹמָם יִצְוֶה יוֹי חֲסֵדוֹ וּבְלַיְלָה שִׁירָה עִמִּי. אֵלּוּ מִיַּמִּין, וְאֵלּוּ מִשְׁמָאל, אֵלּוּ מְקַשְׁבִּים שִׁירָתָהּ הַיּוֹם, שִׁירָתָם שֶׁל יִשְׂרָאֵל קְדוֹשׁ. רְבִי יִצְחָק אָמַר, אוֹתָם שְׁאוֹמְרִים שִׁירָה בְּלַיְלָה, מְקַשְׁבִּים שִׁירָתָם שֶׁל יִשְׂרָאֵל בַּיּוֹם, הֲדָא הוּא דְכַתִּיב, חֲבֵרִים מְקַשְׁבִּים לְקוֹלָךְ.

325. Rabbi Shimon said: One group, WHICH IS THE LEFT COLUMN, is comprised of three groups, MEANING THAT IT IS COMPRISED OF ALL THREE COLUMNS, and recites songs during the night. This is the meaning of: "She rises also while it is yet night and gives food to her household" (Mishlei 31:15).

326. Rabbi Elazar said: Ten things were created on the first day, among them being the attribute of night, WHICH IS MALCHUT, and the attribute of day, WHICH IS TIFERET. It is written about the attribute of night: "She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food (Heb. teref) to her household." FOR FOOD IS JUDGMENTS, as is written: "He tears (Heb. taraf) me in his wrath" (Iyov 16:9), MEANING THE WRATH OF HASHEM TORE ME. It is also written: "...and tears in pieces, and none can deliver" (Michah 5:7). and, "and a portion (Heb. chok) to her maidens" (Mishlei 31:15). Rations are also Judgments, AS IS WRITTEN: "a statute (Heb. chok) and an ordinance" (Shemot 15:25), and "his statutes and his ordinances" (Tehilim 147:19). "For this is a statute for Yisrael, an ordinance of the Elohim of Jacob" (Tehilim 81:5). From here, IT IS UNDERSTOOD that the attribute of Judgment rules at night.

327. We learned that those who sing praises at night are singers WHO RISE above all those who sing. When the living, MEANING THE LOWER BEINGS, start singing, the supernal ones gain added strength to know and to recognize and to grasp what they could not grasp before. Heaven and earth, WHICH ARE MALE AND FEMALE, ALSO gain added strength through this singing.

328. Rabbi Nechemyah said: Fortunate is one who achieves knowledge of that singing, MEANING THAT MOCHIN OF THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH. For we learned, the one who merits the singing will know the subjects of Torah and wisdom, and will hear and ascertain and add strength and power in what was, and into what is going to be. And by this, Solomon gained knowledge.

329. For Rabbi Shimon taught that David, may he rest in peace, knew of this, MEANING HE ACHIEVED THE MOCHIN OF CHOCHMAH INSIDE DA'AT. THEREFORE, he composed many songs and praises, and in them alluding to what would come in the future. He added strength and power through the Holy Spirit, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA AT THE TIME THAT IT IS RECEIVING A SPIRIT FROM HOLINESS, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH. He knew the subjects of Torah and Wisdom, and heard and ascertained and added strength and power in the Holy Language, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF THE NUKVA WHEN IT IS RECEIVING DA'AT FROM HOLINESS, WHICH IS THE SECRET OF CHOCHMAH.

330. And Solomon gained more merit through the song and achieved wisdom, and weighed and searched and composed many proverbs, and wrote a book from that very poem, as written: "I acquired men singers and women singers" (Kohelet 2:8). This means: I learned the science of poetry from those lofty poems, and those lower than them. This is the meaning of the words, "The song of songs:" a song of all those singers of above, a song which includes all that pertains to the Torah and to wisdom, to strength and might, what was and what will be; a song that the singers above sing.

325. אָמַר רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן, כַּת אַחַת, בְּלוּלָה מְשַׁלֵּשׁ בָּתוֹת, אוֹמֵר שִׁירָה בְּלַיְלָה. הַה"ד, וְתָקַם בְּעוֹר לַיְלָה וְתָתֵן טָרֵף לְבֵיתָהּ.

330. וּשְׁלֵמָה זָכָה יוֹתֵר בְּאוֹתוֹ הַשִּׁיר, וְיִדַע הַחֲכָמָה, וְאִזֵּן וְחָקַר וְתָקַן מְשָׁלִים הַרְבֵּה, וְעָשָׂה סֵפֶר מְאוֹתוֹ הַשִּׁיר מִמֶּשׁ, וְהֵינְנוּ דְכָתִיב, עֲשִׂיתִי לִי שָׂרִים וְשָׂרוֹת. בְּלוֹמַר, קִנִּיתִי לִי לְדַעַת שִׁיר, מְאוֹתָן הַשִּׁירִים הָעֲלִיוֹנִים, וְאֲשֶׁר תַּחְתָּם. וְהֵינְנוּ דְכָתִיב, שִׁיר הַשִּׁירִים, בְּלוֹמַר, שִׁיר, שֶׁל אוֹתָם שָׂרִים שֶׁל מַעְלָה. שִׁיר, שֶׁכּוֹלֵל כָּל עֲנִינֵי הַתּוֹרָה וְהַחֲכָמָה, וְכַח וּגְבוּרָה, בְּמָה שֶׁהִיא, וְעֲתִיד לֵהְיוֹת, שִׁיר שֶׁהַשָּׂרִים שֶׁל מַעְלָה מְשׁוֹרְרִים.

331. Rabbi Elazar said: All those who sing, MEANING THE SUPERNAL SINGERS, stopped SINGING PRAISES until Levi was born. Since the birth of Levi and afterwards, they said praises, BUT IT WAS STILL NOT COMPLETE. When Moses was born and Aaron was anointed and the Levites became sanctified, the singing became complete. And they stood, THE SUPERNAL SINGERS, on their watches.

332. Rabbi Elazar also said: At the moment of Levi's birth, they opened above and said THAT THE SHECHINAH SAID TO ZEIR ANPIN, "O that You were as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! When I should find You outside, and would kiss You; and none would scorn me" (Shir Hashirm 8:1). "O THAT YOU WERE MY BROTHER," MEANING THAT YOU SHOULD GIVE ME CHOCHMAH, BECAUSE FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF CHOCHMAH, ZEIR ANPIN AND THE NUKVA ARE CALLED 'BROTHER' AND 'SISTER' "THAT SUCKED THE BREASTS OF MY MOTHER." FOR THEN THEY BOTH SUCK FROM BINAH, AND ARE OF AN EQUAL LEVEL. "WHEN I SHOULD FIND YOU OUTSIDE, AND WOULD KISS YOU," FOR THE ILLUMINATION OF CHOCHMAH WITHOUT CHASSADIM IS ON THE OUTSIDE. SHE ASKED HIM TO KISS HIM AND SHINE FROM HIM ALSO WHEN SHE IS OUTSIDE. "AND NONE WOULD SCORN ME" REFERS TO THE KLIPOT THAT ARE ROUSED ON THE OUTSIDE TO SCORN THE SHECHINAH, AS IT IS WRITTEN: "SIN CROUCHES AT THE DOOR" (BERESHEET 4:7). As soon as the singing of below emerged from the tribe of Levi, DIVIDING INTO RIGHT AND LEFT PRIESTS AND LEVITES, they were all sanctified, standing on their watches - MEANING THE SUPERNAL MINISTERS and THESE ANGELS became sanctified, corresponding to these LEVITES - companions as one. BECAUSE THE ACTIONS OF THE LOWER BEINGS COMPLETE THE SUPERNAL ONES, THEN the worlds BECOME as one and one King dwells over them. AFTER ALL THESE PREPARATIONS, Solomon came and composed a book from the song of those singers, AS MENTIONED, and the Chochmah was concealed in it!

333. Rabbi Yehuda said: Why are the singers of below called Levites? IT IS because they are attached (Heb. nilvim) and joined as one above. THE REASON BEING that the soul of the one became attracted and attached above TO HASHEM, who hears the singing. Therefore Leah said: "Will my husband be joined to me" (Beresheet 29:34). Rabbi Tanchum said: THE REASON HE WAS CALLED LEVI IS BECAUSE the seed of Levi is entirely attached to the Shechinah by Moses, Aaron and Miriam, and to all his children after him. They are attached to Hashem to serve Him.

334. Come and behold: at the time that the poets stood above, they did not keep their post until the three brethren, Moses, Aaron and Miriam, were born. This may apply to Moses and Aaron, but why Miriam? Rabbi Yosi said: It is written: "And women singers" (Kohelet 2:8), and, "And Miriam answered them" (Shemot 15:21).

331. א"ר אלעזר, אלו השרים, עמדו, עד שנולד לוי, אבל משנולד לוי ואילך אמרו שיר. בין שנולד משה ונמשח אהרן, ונתקדשו הלויים, נשלם השיר, ועמדו על משמרותם.

332. ואמר רבי אלעזר, באותה שעה שנולד לוי, פתחו למעלה ואמרו, מי יתנך כאח לי יונק שדי אמי אמצאך בחוץ אשקך גם לא יבוזו לי. בין שיצאו משבט לוי המשוררים של משה, ונתקדשו כולם, ועמדו על משמרותם, ונתקדשו אלה לנוכח אלה, חברים כאחד, והעולמות אחד, ומלך אחד שוכן עליהם, בא שלמה, ועשה ספר מאותו שיר של אותם שרים, ונסתם החכמה בו.

333. א"ר יהודה, למה נקראו השרים של מטה לויים, על שגלויים ונחברים למעלה כאחד. והשומע, גלוי ונדבק נפשו למעלה. וע"כ אמרה לאה, ולוה אישי אלי. רבי תנחום אמר, שבכל גלוי זרע לוי עם השכינה, במשה ואהרן ומרים, ובכל זרעו אחריו, והם הנלויים אל ה' לשרתו.

334. תא חזי, בשעה שעמדו המשוררים למעלה, לא עמדו על משמרתם, עד שנולדו שלשה האחים: משה, אהרן, ומרים. תינח משה ואהרן, מרים למה. אמר רבי יוסי, הה"ד, ושרות. כד"א, ותען להם מרים.

335. We have learned that when Levi was born, the Holy One, blessed be He, took him and chose him from all his brothers, and set him in the land. And he begot Kehat, and Kehat begot Amram, who begot Aaron and Miriam. He separated from his wife, and when he brought her back, the singers above were singing. The Holy One, blessed be He, reproved them, and the song ceased until He stretched out His right hand and extended it to Amram.

335. תָּאנָא, בְּאוֹתָהּ שְׁעָה שְׁנוֹלָד לְיוֹ, נִטְלוּ הַקּוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וּבְחָרוּ מִכָּל אַחָיו וְהוֹשִׁיבוּ בְּאַרְץ, וְהוֹלִיד לְקֵהַת, וְקֵהַת הוֹלִיד לְעִמְרָם, וְהוּא הוֹלִיד לְאַהֲרֹן וּמִרְיָם. פִּירַשׁ מֵאַשְׁתּוֹ, וְהַחֲזִירָהּ, בְּאוֹתָהּ שְׁעָה הָיוּ הַמְּשׁוֹרְרִים שֶׁל מַעְלָה עוֹמְדִים וּמְשׁוֹרְרִים, גָּעַר בָּהֶם הַקּוֹדֶשׁא בְּרִיךְ הוּא, וְנִשְׁתַּכַּח הַשִּׁיר, עַד שֶׁנָּטָה קוֹ יְמִינוֹ, וְהוֹשִׁיט לְעִמְרָם.

336. Why was he called Amram? Because a mighty nation (Heb. am ram) over all mighty nations descended from him. Why was his name not mentioned? In the name of Rabbi Abahu, Rabbi Yehuda said it was because he discreetly left and secretly returned to his wife, so that he would not be recognized, as written: "And there went a man," instead of, 'And Amram went', openly. "And took to wife a daughter of Levi" (Shemot 2:1). She also returned in secret, and was not mentioned by name.

336. מ"ט נִקְרָא עִמְרָם. שְׂיָצָא מִמֶּנּוּ עִם רַם עַל כָּל רְמִים, וְלֹא נִזְכַּר שְׁמוֹ. מ"ט לֹא נִזְכַּר שְׁמוֹ. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה אָמַר בְּשֵׁם רַבִּי אַבְהוּ, מִפְּנֵי שֶׁבִצְנָעָא הֵלֵךְ, וּבִצְנָעָא חָזַר לְאַשְׁתּוֹ, כְּדֵי שֶׁלֹּא יִבְיָרוּ בּוֹ, הֵהָדַר וַיֵּלֶךְ אִישׁ, וְלֹא נֶאֱמַר וַיֵּלֶךְ עִמְרָם בְּפִרְהֶסְיָא. וַיִּקַּח אֶת בַּת לְיוֹ, אִף הִיא בִצְנָעָא חָזְרָה, וְלֹא נִזְכְּרָה שְׁמָהּ.

47. "And there went a man"

While Rabbi Abahu interprets the title verse as a reference to Gavriel, who brought Amram's wife back to him, Rabbi Yehuda states that it refers to Amram, who decided to marry his wife because he was urged to do so from above. Rabbi Yitzchak then explains that Amram was not worthy to give birth to Moses until he obtained a portion in the Shechinah by marrying "a daughter of Levi". He was then worthy of bearing a son with a great voice, to whom God attached His Name, "Good". Amram himself then merited a divine voice, and in this way he advanced to a higher level.

The Relevance of this Passage

Once more we are shown the intricate clockwork mechanisms of cause and effect in life, how, as the saying goes, 'One good deed deserves another,' and that by helping others we help ourselves, for there really is no 'other' when all is One. A reading of this passage also encourages the development of our inner 'voice', by which we can emanate righteousness, using holy thoughts and sacred words silently, or to spread the great peace we feel when close to the Light, letting it wash against the walls and doors and lives of all we pass by or meet each day, pushing back the shadows by a hair's breadth each time, to pave the streets with the jewels of our yearning for the feet of Mashiach to walk upon.

337. Rabbi Abahu said: "And there went a man" (Shemot 2:1), refers to Gavriel, as it is written, "And the man Gavriel" (Daniel 9:21), for he went and returned her to Amram. Rabbi Yehuda said it was actually Amram, but his name is not mentioned because he was not going to marry his wife out of his own volition, but rather from above. BECAUSE THE URGING OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, PREVAILED ON HIM, HE WENT.

337. וַיֵּלֶךְ אִישׁ. רַבִּי אַבְהוּ אָמַר, וַיֵּלֶךְ אִישׁ, זֶה גְּבַרְיָאֵל. דְּכֵתִיב, וְהָאִישׁ גְּבַרְיָאֵל. שֶׁהֵלֵךְ הוּא וְהַחֲזִירָהּ לְעִמְרָם. רַבִּי יְהוּדָה אָמַר, עִמְרָם מִמֶּשׁ הָיָה, וְלֹא נִזְכַּר שְׁמוֹ, מִפְּנֵי שֶׁהִלִּיכָה זֹו לֹא הִיתָה מִמֶּנּוּ לְהַזְדַּוּג לְאַשְׁתּוֹ, אֲלֵא מִלְּמַעְלָה.

338. Rabbi Yitzchak said: WHY IS IT THAT by Aaron and Miriam the union of their parents is not mentioned in the Torah, but by Moses is written: "And took to wife a daughter of Levi" (Shemot 2:1)? AND HE ANSWERS: IT IS to show that the Shechinah is named after 'Levi', and Amram was not worthy to beget Moses until he took part with the Shechinah. Then did he beget Moses This is what is written: "And took to wife a daughter of Levi," WHICH IS SHECHINAH. Therefore, it is written: "And when she saw that he was a goodly (lit. 'good')..." MEANING THAT THE SHECHINAH DWELT ON HIM.

338. רַבִּי יִצְחָק אָמַר, בְּאַהֲרֹן וּמִרְיָם לֹא נֶאֱמַר זְיוּג אֲבוֹתָם בְּתוֹרָה, וּבְמֹשֶׁה כְּתִיב וַיִּקַּח אֶת בַּת לְיוֹ, לְהוֹרֹת, שֶׁהִשְׁכִּינָה נִקְרָאת עַל שֵׁם לְיוֹ. וְלֹא הָיָה עִמְרָם רְאוּי לְהוֹלִיד לְמֹשֶׁה, עַד שֶׁנָּטַל חֶלֶק בְּשִׁכְינָהּ, וְהוֹלִיד לְמֹשֶׁה. הֲדָא הוּא דְּכֵתִיב, וַיִּקַּח אֶת בַּת לְיוֹ. וְלִמְיַכָּךְ כְּתִיב, וַתֵּרָא אוֹתוֹ כִּי טוֹב הוּא.

339. Rabbi Elazar said: Amram merited that there should emerge from him a son who would merit a great voice, WHICH IS ZEIR ANPIN, as is written: "And the Elohim answered him by a voice" (Shemot 19:19). And Amram merited a divine voice, WHICH IS MALCHUT, as is written: "And took to wife a daughter of Levi," meaning a divine voice (lit. 'a daughter of a voice'). Therefore it says, "And there went," meaning he went to this level! We learned that when Moses was born, the Holy One, blessed be He, united His name over him, as is written: "And when she saw that he was good..." AND GOOD IS THE NAME OF THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, as is written: "Hashem is good to all" (Tehilim 145:9), and "O taste and see that Hashem is good" (Tehilim 34:9). HENCE, THE HOLY ONE, BLESSED BE HE, IS CALLED 'GOOD'.

339. רבי אלעזר אמר, זכה עמרם שיצא ממנו בן, שזכה לקול גדול, דכתיב והאלהים יענו בקול. ועמרם זכה לבת קול, דכתיב ויקח את בת לוי. כלומר, בת קול. ולפיכך כתיב וילך. כלומר, שהלך למדרגה זו. תאנא, כשנולד משה, ויחד הקודשא בריך הוא שמו עליו, דכתיב ותרא אותו כי טוב הוא. וכתיב, טוב ה' לכל. וכתיב, טעמו וראו כי טוב ה'.

48. "And the king of Egypt died"

Rabbi Yehoshua of Sachnin explains that God did not remember or hear the prayers of Yisrael until the time when the supernal minister of Egypt fell from power, as signified by the title verse.

The Relevance of this Passage

A reading of this section reminds us that we must wait patiently for change, as the universal structure necessarily impedes the speed with which our prayers are answered - and impatience is its own obstacle.

340. "And it came to pass in the course of those many days" (Shemot 2:23). Rabbi Yehoshua of Sachnin said it was at the end of their exile that Yisrael were subjugated with all kinds of labor. "In the course of those many days." They were many to THE SOJOURN OF Yisrael in Egypt, MEANING THAT THE END HAD ARRIVED. Since the end of their exile was complete, it is written: "And the king of Egypt died" (Ibid.). What is the meaning? IT IS that the Minister of Egypt was lowered from his high position and fell from his glory. THEREFORE, THE TORAH SAYS ABOUT HIM, "AND THE KING OF EGYPT DIED," SINCE HIS DESCENT WAS CONSIDERED BY HIM AS DEATH. Since the king of Egypt who was their minister fell, the Holy One, blessed be He, remembered Yisrael and heard their prayers.

340. ויהי בימים הרבים ההם. רבי יהושע דסכנין אמר, ויהי בימים הרבים ההם, סוף גלותם היה, שהיו ישראל משועבדים בכל עבודה. בימים הרבים ההם, שהיו רבים לישראל במצרים, וכיון שנשתלם קץ גלותם, מה כתיב, וימת מלך מצרים. מ"ט. שהורד שר מצרים ממעלתו, ונפל מגאותו. וכיון שנפל מלך מצרים, שהוא שר שלהן, זכר הקודשא בריך הוא לישראל, ושמע תפלתם.
