FROM A CERTAIN POINT
ONWARD, THERE IS NO
TURNING BACK.
THAT IS THE POINT WHICH MUST BE REACHED.

- FRANZ KAFKA

ACTION!

If there is one watchword we must etch upon the banner of our rebellion; if there is one exclamation of rage and incitement we should roar into space; if there is one phrase we must ring out loud and clear on the anvil of the most steely reality, then it can only be, in these dismal days: Action! The high tide of international reaction is rising at a dizzying rate. It threatens to flood all of our defenses beyond remedy.

This black and bloody reaction, cynical and murderous, sadistic and obscene, has set out along its career with a clear view of our goals which it has to bring down to annihilate, to raze and kill every seed of resurrection. All around us we see only the gleam of bayonets and the flash and fire of rifles, and jails spread wide open to receive us and bury us alive, terror spreading all around, butchery committed even in the remotest corners, violations of human rights flung in everyone's face... in short, we are surrounded by the most awful destruction and oppression.

Stirring the human spirit, rebelling at this dark hour, avenging those who have been crushed beneath the burden of barbarism and bourgeois tyranny... these must be the overwhelming duties of every revolutionary, today, tomorrow, always. At our disposal we have a thousand weapons more powerful than those used by the spirit of statism; weapons which place the chemistry and the intelligence of the individual at our disposal; we merely have to forearm ourselves with the subtlest of circumspection, and a whole gamut of precautions and to be distrustful even of our own mothers before and after we set to our work.

We can - if we so wish - crush their rule beneath the powerful mace of our blessed wrath, we can smash it and overturn it with the avalanche of our rebellion. The time is right... today! Let us hammer furiously against all the walls of oppression. With our weapons of vindication, let us scratch the call to "Action!" on all of the bulwarks of the state's defenses. Let us shape and weave into our blood and fibres the new rebel consciousness which must revive our dignity, so vilified and spat upon. With the strength of all our being, let us raise the torch of faith, the light of the ideal and the revolutionary virtues which have always been our movement's finest hopes.

To action! To avenge the fallen, every one, and to free those menaced by the wrath of every reactionary... and let us bear it ever in mind that one word only can do honor to the fallen, to the martyrs, heroes, and our ideal

...that word is: ACTION!
