

Our task must be to free ourselves
from this prison by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty.

ALBERT EINSTEIN letter dated 1950, quoted in H. Eves'
Mathematical Circles Adieu, 1977

The egg-laying hen on the right has had her eye poked out.