This is a www.TheLinuxReview.Com Document for the Linux Documentation Project.

The current version of the Consultants Guide is v8.0 and contains major changes. Specifically, all listings only contain basic information. If you would like to see detailed information about a particular consultant you will have to click on the associated link. There are over 1800 consultants in this list.

If you are reading this HOWTO on a connection that is 56K or less we strongly suggest you use the online search located at: <http://www.TheLinuxReview.com/ldp/consultants.lxp>

Also, iff you are not using a link capable format, such as postscript you may search for the consultant by name or city at <http://www.TheLinuxReview.com>.

Chapter 2. How can I help?

We will try to provide comprehensive coverage for all Linux Consultants. However, time is of the essence, and this document is not a revenue maker. We provide this information in the hope that it will be useful to both the Linux Community and to newly converted Linux users. We are always interested in feedback!

2.1. Adding/Managing your Consultants Guide entry

To manage or add a consultant entry, please point your web browser to <http://www.TheLinuxReview.com/> and select Add or Edit under the Consultants panel.
