Ms. [REDACTED]

InfoReliance does require a 30 day extension to the period of performance, please consider this to be our formal request. Theresa is out of the office for the holiday, should you have any questions or require additional information please contact me directly.

[REDACTED] - yes, I was directed to request a one-month extension yesterday but did not get the e-mail out to you.

We had initially set up billing in 3 installments, the final one to be billed this month. We will push that final billing out to January 2008, at project end. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Thank you for being proactive and reminding me!

As you are likely aware, we have had some problems with documentation provided by InfoReliance under the subject order. Our current end date for this order is 12/31/07. I understand that your project team is working to correct some deficiencies in reporting, however this has likely already caused some problems in meeting contract completion by month's end. Please let me know if you foresee any problems with the current end date or if InfoReliance will be requesting a modification to extend the end date? After tomorrow I will be on leave and would like to take care of any administrative matters by COB tomorrow, if possible.

Thank You,

Executive Office of the President (EOP)
