On March 11 I talked with Assistant Attorney General Joseph Duggan regarding the proposed payment to Elizabeth Bentley of $2,000 in lieu of the $2,000 which she received in October, 1945, from Anatoli Gromov, with "no strings attached." I explained the manner of acquisition of the $2,000 by Bentley from Gromov and, in turn, our acquisition of the money from Bentley. I told Mr. Duggan that the Office of the United States Attorney in New York had indicated the $2,000 obtained from Bentley was in effect abandoned money and therefore vested in the United States.

I explained to Mr. Duggan that Miss Bentley has made inquiries regarding this $2,000 and that her attorney has advised he sees no legal reason why the money should be forfeited to the United States Government.

I pointed out that Miss Bentley has been an extremely valuable source of information to the Bureau; that we have never paid her any funds as an informant; and that in order to retain her good will and to avoid the possibility of losing her cooperation, the Bureau proposes that she be paid $2,000 as an informant from funds available to the Bureau, and at the same time we obtain from her a release insofar as the $2,000 which she obtained from Gromov is concerned and which she later turned over to the FBI.

I exhibited to Mr. Duggan the proposed release and receipt which were prepared by the New York Office and also the proposed instructions which have been prepared in the Espionage Unit for handling this payment. Mr. Duggan, after examining these documents, stated he thought they were fundamentally sound; that, however, he thought certain changes should be made in the wording. He stated he would like to retain them temporarily and draft for the Bureau a release to be obtained from Bentley which would be binding. He stated he would do this promptly and would try to make it available this afternoon.

ACTION: I will follow this matter with Mr. Duggan in order that it may be handled promptly.

Rebulet January 24, 1952, concerning the payment by this office to ELIZABETH BENTLEY of $2,000 from the confidential fund.

There are attached carbon copies of a release and a receipt which are to be executed by ELIZABETH BENTLEY in connection with the payment to her of this sum of money. It is suggested that the Bureau review the attached, and if they appear to be in order, the New York Office should be advised and the originals will be executed by Miss BENTLEY.

Miss BENTLEY has been ill for several weeks and advised that she intends to be in New York City on March 6 and 7 for extended medical examination. In the event the attached are in order, the Bureau may desire to send a teletype to this office so that the attached can be signed while she is in New York and the money paid to her.

PURPOSE

To advise that New York submitted for approval carbon copies of a release and a receipt which are to be executed by Elizabeth Bentley in connection with the payment to her of $2,000, which payment was authorized by Bureau letter dated ~~Jan~~ 24, 1952.

BACKGROUND

In October, 1945, Anatoli Gromov, First Secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington, D. C., gave Bentley $2,000 in $20 bills stating "there were no strings attached." It was Bentley's impression that this payment to her was for past activities on behalf of the Russians, as well as an attempt on Gromov's part to secure her good will. On November 1945, the New York Office received the $2,000 from Bentley. The money has been kept in a safe-deposit box by the New York Office since receipt of same.

The Director approved the retention of the $2,000 Bentley received from Gromov and the payment of $2,000 to her for services rendered to the Bureau. New York was instructed by letter dated January 24, 1952, to pay Bentley from its confidential fund and obtain a complete and total release from her wherein she waives any claim she may have to the $2,000 she received from Gromov.

By the attached letter dated March 4, 1952, New York enclosed carbon copies of a release and a receipt which are to be executed by Elizabeth Bentley in connection with the payment to her. The Bureau was requested to review the papers and determine if they appear to be in order. It was suggested that if these papers are in order the Bureau may desire to send a teletype to New York in order that it could pay Bentley on March 6 or 7, at which time she would be in New York.

The release submitted by New York is of the "General Release - Individual" type wherein Bentley releases the Bureau from any and all claims which she may have against it. By signing the receipt furnished by New York, Elizabeth Bentley acknowledges receipt of $2,000, full payment for services heretofore rendered by her to the Bureau and states that none of the bills which constitute the $2,000 paid her is identical with the ones given to her in October, 1945, by Gromov.

It is believed that it is unnecessary to have a general over-all release and a separate receipt executed by Bentley. It is believed that she can acknowledge the receipt and waive all claims to the Gromov money by executing the statement as follows, it being noted that all we are interested in here is obtaining a receipt from Bentley for $2,000 and having her waive all claims to the money she received from Gromov.

"I, Elizabeth Terrill Bentley, residing at New Road, Madison, Connecticut, acknowledge receipt on (date) of the sum of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars, lawful money of the United States of America from Special Agent (name) of the FBI in full payment for any and all services heretofore rendered by me to the FBI, its officials, agents and representatives. For and in consideration of the above two thousand dollars I hereby, for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, do remise, release and forever waive, totally and completely, any claim I hereafter can, shall or may have now against the FBI, its officials, agents and representatives to the two thousand dollars, which I received from Anatoli B. Gromov in October, 1945, and I turned over to the FBI on November 17, 1945."

RECOMMENDATION

If you agree with the above, there is attached a teletype to New York instructing it to pay Bentley $2,000 and obtain a statement from her as set forth above.

OGREORY

PURPOSE:

To advise the Internal Security Unit concerning the status of the $2,000 cash which Elizabeth Bentley received from Anatole Gromov in October, 1945.

BACKGROUND:

The attached memorandum dated March 4, 1952, from Mr. Baumgardner to you referred to a telephonic inquiry from Mr. Noel Story, attorney in the Criminal Division of the Department. Mr. Story stated that Elizabeth Bentley was scheduled to testify on March 10, 1952, before the Subversive Activities Control Board in connection with the captioned matter. He recalled that Bentley received $2,000 from Anatole Gromov in 1945. He advised that it would be highly desirable to either produce the $2,000 cash before the Board or some evidence which would prove conclusively that Bentley had received this money from Gromov which would substantiate her oral testimony.

Mr. Baumgardner's memorandum was referred to the Espionage Unit for advice as to whether or not any evidence of this type is available which could be introduced into evidence before the Board. His memorandum noted that the corroborating evidence should be of such a nature that it could be introduced without utilizing a Special Agent of the FBI.

The following is a chronology of the $2,000 which Bentley received from Gromov:

Prior to May, 1945, Jack (Joseph Mats) introduced Bentley to Al, later identified as Anatole Gromov, First Secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington, D.C.

In later meetings with Gromov he made overtures of buying Bentley a fur coat, suggested that she quit her job and take a vacation. He also offered to supply her with an air conditioning unit when she complained of the summer heat and on all of the occasions of her meetings with Gromov, after the first one, he mentioned his willingness to establish her in a small business to be financed by him which would be located outside of New York City and perhaps in Philadelphia or Washington. Bentley recalled that she had conversations with Gromov about setting up a small dress shop.

In October, 1945, Bentley saw Gromov by prearrangement, and on this occasion, he handed her $2,000 in twenty dollar bills and at the time he gave her the money he stated that there were "no strings attached." It was Bentley's impression that this payment to her was for her past activities in connection with the Russians, as well as an attempt on the part of Gromov to secure her good will.

The above facts were related by Miss Bentley on November 16, 1945, to Special Agents Thomas G. Spencer and Joseph M. Kelly in the Prince George Hotel in New York City. The interview of Miss Bentley was continued on the morning of November 17, 1945, at the Hotel. On this occasion Bentley entered the room and before taking off her coat and hat, opened up her purse, took out an envelope, and threw it on the bed, stating, "Here's some Moscow gold."

Miss Bentley was informed that the FBI would take possession of this money and although no offer was made to give her a receipt for the same, she did not request one. Thereafter, the money was taken to the New York Office and subsequently placed in the safe-deposit box that is maintained by the New York Office at the Park Row Branch of the Manufacturers Trust Company. The money still remains in this safe-deposit box.

Inasmuch as no receipt was given to Bentley for the $2,000 it appears that if this money is to be used to corroborate Bentley's oral testimony a Special Agent would have to introduce it in order to show the chain of evidence.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that this memorandum be routed to the Internal Security Unit for appropriate action.

APPENDUM:

It is recommended that Mr. Noel Story of the Department be furnished the facts herein orally, and that he be advised that corroboration of Bentley's story cannot be furnished by introduction of the money, as this would necessitate testimony by a Special Agent.

PURPOSE

To authorize New York to pay Bentley $2,000 for services rendered, at which time she should execute a combination receipt and release paper prepared by the Department

BACKGROUND

In October, 1945, Anatoli Gromov, First Secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington, D. C., gave Bentley $2,000 in $20 bills stating "there were no strings attached." On November 17, 1945, the New York Office received the $2,000 from Bentley. The Director approved the retention of the $2,000 Bentley received from Gromov and the payment of $2,000 to her for services rendered to the Bureau. By letter dated March 4, New York forwarded for Bureau approval a carbon copy of a release and a receipt which it planned to have Bentley execute when she received the $2,000. Inasmuch as it was believed unnecessary to have a general over-all release and a separate receipt executed by Bentley, the Espionage Unit prepared a combination receipt and release for Bentley to execute upon receipt of the $2,000 from New York.

Mr. C. E. Hennrich discussed the proposed payment of the $2,000 to Bentley with Assistant Attorney General Joseph Duggan on March 11, 1952, and exhibited the proposed release and receipt prepared by the New York Office and the proposed receipt and release statement prepared by the Espionage Unit. Mr. Duggan stated that he thought the papers and procedure were legally sound; however, he thought certain changes should be made in the wording. He drew up a proposed combination receipt and release to be signed by Bentley.

RECOMMENDATION

There is attached for approval a letter to New York instructing it to pay Bentley $2,000 and have her execute the paper prepared by the Department whereby she acknowledges receipt of $2,000 for services rendered to the Bureau and releases any claim that she may have to the $2,000 she received from Gromov.

On March 14, 1952, ELIZABETH BENNETT personally appeared at the New York Office, at which time she signed the original and a copy of the release which was attached to the Bureau's letter of March 12, 1952, and she was given $2,000 in cash. This money consisted of twenty $100 bills. The serial numbers of these bills were recorded and are being made part of the file in this case. The two releases were properly witnessed and notarized, and in accordance with Bureau instructions are being maintained as an exhibit in this file. A notation has been placed on the exhibit that it is not to be destroyed without specific Bureau instructions.

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES,
Washington, D. C.

PUBLIC HEARING

The Committee on Un-American Activities met pursuant to adjournment at 10:45 a. m., in room 226, Old House Office Building, Hon. Clyde Doyle, presiding.

Committee members present: Representatives Clyde Doyle, Bernard W. Kearney, and Charles E. Potter.

Staff members present: Frank S. Tavenner, Jr., counsel; Thomas W. Deale, Sr., assistant counsel; Courtney E. Owens, investigator; John W. Carrington, clerk; and A. S. Poore, editor.

MR. DOYLE. Let the record show that a subcommittee has been appointed for this hearing this morning consisting of Doyle, Chairman, Kearney, and Potter.

Are you ready, Counsel?

MR. TAVENNER. Yes, sir.

Miss Elizabeth Bendley, please.

MR. DOYLE. Please rise and be sworn.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you give in this matter will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MISS BENDLEY. I do.

Mr. TAVENNER. Please state your full name, Miss Bentley.

TESTIMONY OF ELIZABETH T. BENTLEY

Miss BENTLEY. Elizabeth T. Bentley.

Mr. TAVENNER. Miss Bentley, you have testified before the committee on previous occasions in respect to your participation in the Communist Party activities and the Communist Party underground. That is correct, isn't it?

Miss BENTLEY. Yes, that is correct.

Mr. TAVENNER. For whom did you work in your underground experiences in the Communist Party?

Miss BENTLEY. Well, I worked for Russian Intelligence, first under Mr. Jacob Golos, and then under various subsequent Soviet agents, including two unidentified ones, and Mr. Anatole Gromov, who was then First Secretary of the Russian Embassy.

Mr. TAVENNER. How was this association with the underground work headed by Mr. Golos formed?

Miss BENTLEY. You mean how did I get into it originally?

Mr. TAVENNER. Yes.

Miss BENTLEY. Originally through my own efforts I obtained a position doing research work with the Italian Library of Information in New York, and that was the American branch of the Propaganda Ministry. And because of that headquarters of the Communist Party told me I should go underground and that instead of going to a Communist meeting, a group meeting, I should be attached to just one man. The one man I was introduced to was Mr. Jacob Golos.

Mr. TAVENNER. Well, what was Mr. Jacob Golos's function in the Communist underground?

Miss BENTLEY. Mr. Jacob Golos was a higher-up in the Russian Intelligence Service. He was in contact with the Embassy and consulate people and in turn in touch with the higher-ups in the Communist Party, such as Earl Browder, and he also was in touch with various agents who were used to infiltrate the U. S. Government, factories, and that sort of thing.

Mr. TAVENNER. When did your connection with that work begin and end?

Miss BENTLEY. Well, actually, my connection with infiltrating the U. S. Government began in 1941, but my connection with other of these underground activities began in 1938, in the fall.

Mr. TAVENNER. I meant particularly with reference to your work under Mr. Jacob Golos.

Miss BENTLEY. Oh, in October 1938.

Mr. TAVENNER. And ended when?

Miss BENTLEY. At his desk, which was November 25th, '43.

Mr. TAVENNER. Did you remain in the service of the apparatus after the death of Mr. Golos?

Miss BENTLEY. Yes, I did. I was picked up by a subsequent Soviet contact named Bill -- that was his code name -- and continued on until August of 1945, when I went to the FBI, and then, under the instructions of the FBI, I continued on for some time after that.

Mr. TAVENNER. In the performance of your work in the apparatus conducted by Mr. Jacob Golos, did you have occasion to meet a person by the name of Helen Tenney?

Miss BENTLEY. Yes, I did.

Mr. TAVENNER. Will you state just what Helen Tenney's connection was with the underground apparatus conducted by Mr. Golos?

Mr. DOYLE. I wish to state to the photographers that any shots that are to be taken should be taken as the witness begins, and then the pictures should be discontinued, so that there will be no interruption. It would seem, however, that if you did not take the pictures in the beginning, we could have them taken now and have that part over with. That only refers to the movies.

Mr. TAVENNER. Will you read the pending question, Mr. Reporter?

(The reporter reads, as requested.)

Miss BENTLEY. Helen Tenney was an agent who was planted in the OSS in order to give information to Soviet Intelligence.

Mr. TAVENNER. How long, approximately, did she engage in that work? And can you tell us more of the character of that work conducted by her?

Miss BENTLEY. Originally, she was a member of the Communist Party in a unit, that is, in the ordinary set-up of the Communist Party, and had done quite a great deal of work during the Spanish war, for example. And then she became connected with an organization which was subsidized by the OSS in New York City. The organization existed for the purpose of picking up men who would be useful for undercover work abroad for the OSS. At that point, she was in contact with Grace Granich, who was then head of Intercontinent News. And Grace Granich, who was working with Mr. Golos, came to him and told him that she would be useful for the underground.

So she was told to sever her connections with the open party and to report only to him. Then she was told to go to Washington and get a job with the OSS, which she did.

On Mr. Golos's death, I took her over, checked up the whole story and the background she had told me, and continued to use her until the end of 1944, and I know from talking to her subsequently that she continued on through 1945, at which point I believe she lost her contacts.

Mr. TAVENNER. Now, where was Miss Tenney placed in the Government service?

Miss BENTLEY. Well, she actually placed herself.

We had sent her in with the idea that she would end up in the Latin American Division of the OSS. We had some one in there. Instead of which, she turned out to be so valuable that the OSS put her in their hush-hush Spanish Division, where she functioned until the OSS split up; and then, when the OSS split up, a part of it was turned over to the War Department, and she went with that section of the War Department. She is now out of Government, has been for three years.

Mr. KEARNEY. I did not hear that last.

Miss BENTLEY. She is now out of the Government service. I have forgotten the exact date when she left her job. I believe it was in 1946 sometime, early.

Mr. FAVENNER. Are you personally acquainted with Grace Granich?

Miss BENTLEY. I don't think I have ever met her, no.

Mr. FAVENNER. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions to ask of Miss Bentley now, except that I would like to call her before an executive session of the committee to ask her for some lead information relating to matters. But I have no further question to ask her about this.

Mr. KEARNEY. Do you know what Miss Terney is doing at the present time?

Miss BENTLEY. No, I don't. I know that she had<sup>7</sup> intended to get back into private industry, but I have lost track of her in the last two years.

Mr. KEARNEY. Do you know where she lives?

Miss BENTLEY. The last I heard of her, she was living in New York City. I imagine she is still there.

Mr. POTTER. Miss Bentley, you stated that you had a person in the Latin section who would place Miss Tenney. Who was that person?

Miss BENTLEY. It was the head of the Research and Analysis Division, Latin American Branch. That was Mr. Maurice Halperin.

Mr. POTTER. Is he still in Government, do you know?

Miss BENTLEY. No, I believe he went out, too, in about 1946, possibly earlier. I am not sure of the date of that.

Mr. POTTER. Was he a contact for you, or did he serve the purpose of placing persons that you were interested in having placed?

Miss BENTLEY. Well, his main function was in obtaining information for us, but secondarily if he could get some one in, of course, we would use him for that.

Mr. POTTER. Do you know where he is located now or what his occupation might be?

Miss BENTLEY. Someone told me, I believe, he was connected with some social work organization, but I am not sure of the title of it. In New York City, I believe.

Mr. POTTER. That is a private organization?

Miss BENTLEY. I understand so, but I am not sure.

Mr. POTTER. And located in New York?

Miss BENTLEY. In New York City, I believe.

Mr. POTTER. I have no further questions, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. DOYLE. May I ask you this, Miss Bentley: Do you know under what conditions this woman and the man were separated from the Government employment? Was it at their own request, or the Government's request?

Miss BENTLEY. No, I understand that the Government requested that they be removed.

Mr. DOYLE. Counsel, when do you wish the executive questioning?

Mr. HAVENNER. I believe just before we go to lunch this morning would be the best time.

Miss BENTLEY. Yes, that would be best, Mr. Chairman.

You are aware that the network involved in this case has previously been considered by you from a prosecutive standpoint and testimony was taken before a Federal Grand Jury. The House Committee on Un-American Activities also heard testimony and published details regarding the case. In its booklet "The Shameful Years", dated December 30, 1951, it stated, "The Committee does not feel that this investigation is by any means closed and is proceeding to determine all aspects of it."

It is, of course, true that the espionage activity of the network involved was widespread and resulted in the actual transmission to Soviet intelligence of vital information relating to the national defense. We have previously requested you consider this case under Section 20(a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950. It is felt that if a successful registration of some of the persons involved was obtained under Section 20(a) or if prosecution could be instituted on such persons, it might enable the obtaining of additional evidence which would corroborate Elizabeth Bentley's information and thereby open the door for additional prosecutive action.

We are aware that Assistant United States Attorney Roy Cohn has been calling persons before the Grand Jury in New York City with respect to Irving Kaplan. In addition to that case, we would like your opinion relative to action under Section 20(a) either jointly or severally relative to Alexander Earl, Nathan George Silvermaster and Nathan Gregory Silvermaster. You have available the reports reflecting the investigation of these individuals and the following points are made merely to summarize very briefly some of the available evidence:

Alexander Earl Summary

A person subsequently identified as Alexander Earl was observed to meet with Nathan Gregory Silvermaster and his wife on a street corner in Washington, D. C., on December 1, 1945. Silvermaster and his wife at that time were under surveillance by Special Agents of the FBI.

Alexander Earl was interviewed on June 9, 1947, and furnished a statement in which he admitted that he was approached in 1945 by a person he claims to have known only as Frank to pick up and deliver packages. He said that Frank's instructions that he met Silvermaster twice in 1945.

He said at the second meeting he believed he was followed and he therefore told Frank he did not want to handle the matter any longer. Koral claimed not to have known that he was involved in espionage, but said that at the time of the publicity in Canada regarding Soviet Intelligence operations, he began to suspect the purpose of the activity in which he had engaged.

Alexander Koral was the identifying witness on a passport application filed in 1935 by a man calling himself William Greinke. This was a fraudulent passport, the real William Greinke having died shortly after birth. Hede Massing will testify that she was active in the United States in Soviet espionage during the middle 1930's and one of her superiors was William Greinke. She will identify the photograph on the passport application as that of the person she knew as Greinke. The FBI Laboratory will identify the signature of Alexander Koral as being that of the person under consideration herein. When an attempt was made to interview Koral concerning the Greinke passport matter on the advice of counsel he declined to furnish any information.

Abraham George Silverman

SUMMARY

Elizabeth Bentley can testify in detail concerning the involvement of Silverman in the espionage network functioning in Washington under the direction of Nathan Gregory Silvermaster. Silverman was furnishing documents on aircraft production, allocation and deployment of aircraft, and other like information.

Whittaker Chambers can testify regarding the involvement of Silverman in the underground apparatus in Washington which was Soviet directed and which included Alger Hiss and Silverman. Chambers can further testify, along the lines of his testimony at the Hiss trial, that in late 1936 his espionage superior Boris Bykov suggested giving rugs as gifts to Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White and Silverman. Chambers purchased three rugs and sent them to Silverman's home. Chambers and Silverman participated in the delivery of a rug to Hiss. Florence Tompkins, Silverman's former maid, can corroborate the receipt of the three Persian rugs. She will state that Silverman stated one of the rugs was for Harry Dexter White and the other for Alger Hiss. Other evidence corroborative of the rug transactions was developed in the Hiss case.

If there were a proceeding against Silverman and Silvermaster jointly, Bentley could testify Silvermaster told her that Harry Dexter White while involved in espionage activities at an earlier period had received a Persian rug from the Russians.

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster Summary

Elizabeth Bentley would be able to testify in great detail concerning the espionage involvement of Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, William Ludwig Ullman, and Helen Silvermaster. This covered a period from 1941 to 1945 during which Silvermaster furnished her voluminous information to be passed to Soviet Intelligence, and he had full knowledge as to where it was going. The photographing of documents obtained by Silvermaster's network from the files of Government agencies was accomplished in large measure in the Silvermaster home.

As outlined above, the meeting between Koral and Silvermaster on December 1, 1945, was witnessed by Special Agents of the FBI. In addition, the admissions of Alexander Koral were outlined above.

The "Washington Evening Star" for May 3, 1947, contained a photograph and advertisement concerning the residence at 9515 30th Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. (the Silvermaster residence). In the description of the residence it was stated that it contained an excellent photographic room. Silvermaster also admitted in an interview on April 15, 1947, that Ullman considered photography a hobby and had a dark room in the basement of the Silvermaster home. Silvermaster exhibited this dark room to the interviewing Agents. Silvermaster also admitted knowing Jacob Golos (the original founder of the network). Silvermaster also admitted knowing Bentley, stating she frequently stayed at the Silvermaster residence on weekends.

X

It is felt that the evidence outlined above would show that the persons named had an assignment in the espionage service of the Soviet Government and therefore should be required to register within the purview of Section 20(a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950. We particularly have in mind the possibility that through such proceedings it may be possible to solicit successfully the registration of one or more of these individuals, a full disclosure by whom would corroborate Elizabeth Bentley and enable prosecution of the network. Your attention is called to the fact that wire tapping was utilized in the investigation of this network, but the evidence outlined herein did not stem from such wire tapping.
