There are enclosed herewith to the New York Field Division two copies of the reports of Special Agents David E. Todd, San Francisco, dated July 27, 1946, and William Samuel Brown, Portland, Oregon, dated July 24, 1946, in the above captioned matter. It is noted that both of these reports carried the Washington Field Division as the office of origin instead of the New York Field Division, which is the correct office of origin.

The Washington, Portland, and San Francisco Field Divisions should correct copies of these reports in their files to designate the proper office of origin. In the future it is desired that the Washington Field Division in setting out leads for other offices, either by letter or teletype, specifically mention at the New York Field Division is the office of origin in this investigation.

RE: SOL ADLER, was, Solomon Adler,
Schlobel Adler, Schlomer Adler
U. S. Treasury Department,
Chungking, China

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent W. RAYMOND WANNALL:

On August 1, 1946, Special Agents ROBERT W. McCASLIN and VINCENT W. HUGHES conducted a surveillance on ADLER. He was observed leaving the Hotel Washington, where he was then residing, at 6:40 p.m. with a man driving a car registered to LEONARD E. ACKERMAN, previously identified in this investigation. ADLER and the driver, apparently ACKERMAN, rode to 2912 Dunbarton Street, N. W., the occupants of which address have previously been identified as Miss GENE XIRISH, an employee of the Naval Ordnance Laboratories, Miss MARJORIE LICHTENBERG, an employee of the Treasury Department, and Miss MARILYN GORE, an employee of the State Department. Both men entered this house. At 7:25 p.m. they left accompanied by an unidentified woman described as being about 30 years old, 5'7" tall, and weighing 130 pounds. She was of medium build having dark hair and wearing eyeglasses. All three individuals had dinner together at Hall's Restaurant, 7th and K Streets, S. W. They subsequently returned to 2912 Dunbarton Street.

At 10:45 p.m. ADLER and his companion, believed to be ACKERMAN, left the house carrying a wooden box, which measured approximately two feet square, and returned to the Hotel Washington. ADLER took the box to his room and the driver rode off in the car.

From a highly confidential source at the Hotel Washington, Special Agents GEORGE E. DAVIS, VINCENT W. HUGHES, and W. RAYMOND WANNALL, learned on August 2, 1946, that this box contained some used pieces of electrical equipment, including an iron, a percolator and some foodstuffs.

Special Agents BERT H. HELCOCK and JOSEPH J. KEECH on August 2, 1946, observed ADLER leaving the Treasury Department at 6:03 p.m. with an unknown man and an unknown woman. The man appeared to be between 32 and 36 years old, 5'8" tall, and weighing 165 pounds. He had a fair complexion, blue eyes, medium brown hair, and his teeth were large and stained. He had a cut scar on the right side of his face near his chin. He was wearing brown rimmed glasses, and appeared to be clean-cut and not Jewish. The woman appeared to be between 26 and 30 years old, 5'3" tall, 125 pounds in weight, light skin, blue eyes, and dark brown hair which she wore in an upsweep. She was wearing glasses with colorless rims and appeared to be of the Jewish race.

The unknown man was carrying a cardboard box which ADLER took to his hotel room in the Washington Hotel. From the above mentioned confidential source it was learned that the box contained canned foodstuffs. The man and woman proceeded by streetcar and taxi to 8425 Woodcliff Road, Silver Spring, Maryland, which appeared to be the residence of the man and woman. ADLER spent the entire evening at this address. He was observed by surveilling agents having dinner and drinks with the unknown man and woman.

On August 14, 1946, the writer learned that Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company Number SLigo 4447 is listed to ARTHUR W. STUART, 8425 Woodcliff Road. Background information concerning STUART will be obtained and set forth in a subsequent report.

The following physical surveillance was conducted by Special Agents EARL L. FUOSS and LUBREY S. BRENT on August 3, 1946:

At 10 a.m. ADLER and a Naval Officer, later identified as Lieutenant Commander HAROLD W. JACOBSON, had breakfast together in the Skyroom of the Hotel Washington. They left the Skyroom at 11:30 a.m. ADLER returned to his room and JACOBSON proceeded to the Carey Winston Realty Company, 739 - 15th Street, N. W., where he entered the office and paid rent on the apartment which it was learned he occupies at 2017 O Street, N. W. Surveilling agents were able to determine that JACOBSON rented this apartment July 1, 1946, and that his previous address was the Hotel Washington. An effort will be made to secure background information on JACOBSON to be included in the next report.

At 12:50 p.m. surveilling agents observed ADLER enter a phone booth in the lobby of the Hotel Washington and overheard him place a call to DOROTHY KAPLAN, the wife of IRVING KAPLAN, a subject in this case. ADLER arranged to meet DOROTHY KAPLAN at the F Street exit of the Hotel Washington, at 7 p.m. the same day, in order that he might take her to dinner and then meet her husband who was arriving by plane at the Washington Airport that evening.

At 12:55 p.m. ADLER met a man of Chinese nationality (believed to be S. C. WONG of the China Supply Commission) in the lobby of the hotel and had lunch with this individual at the Occidental Hotel on Pennsylvania Avenue between 14th and 15th Streets, N. W. Thereafter ADLER returned to his hotel room. At 2:30 p.m. ADLER was observed to leave the hotel and proceed by streetcar to 5410 Cathedral Avenue, the residence of HAROLD GLASSER, a subject in this case. Thereafter he was observed talking with a woman believed to be Mrs. GLASSER, and a young girl on the porch of this residence. He remained there until 6:20 p.m. at which time he returned to his hotel.

Special Agents KENNERLY R. CORBETT and EDGAR L. CARTER continued this surveillance on August 3, 1946, with the following results:

At 7:03 p.m. ADLER left the hotel and entered a car driven by Mrs.

Mrs IRVING KAPLAN. Mrs. KAPLAN and ADLER proceeded to the National Airport, where they had dinner together in the airport restaurant. At 8:15 p.m. IRVING KAPLAN and an individual later identified to be MURRAY N. LATIMER, a subject in this case, arrived by plane and joined ADLER and Mrs. KAPLAN. The four individuals left the airport in KAPLAN'S car and at 8:45 p.m. the individual determined to be LATIMER left the car at the Export-Import Bank on 15th Street. A surveillance on ADLER was then dropped in order to establish the identity of LATIMER. It had been previously reported by Confidential Informant [redacted] that ADLER was planning to spend an evening with the KAPLANS as soon as IRVING KAPLAN arrived back in town. be bid

 On August 4, 1946, Special Agents O. R. TALBURTT and JOHN T. FLYNN observed ADLER leave the Hotel Washington at 2:20 p.m. with an individual later determined to be SOL LISCHINSKY, a subject in this case. ADLER and LISCHINSKY proceeded on foot to a maroon Pontiac sedan belonging to LISCHINSKY, which was parked on Pennsylvania Avenue, and in which three men and two women were waiting. The party then proceeded to the Arlington City Hot Shoppe Restaurant across the 14th Street bridge, where they had dinner. After dinner they drove around Haines Point, finally parking on the inbound side where they were observed playing cards on the grass.

Agents DONALD CHASE and ROBERT W. McCASLIN, who relieved Agents TALBURTT and FLYNN on this surveillance, noted that ADLER and his companions left Haines Point at 4:40 p.m. and drove in LISCHINSKY'S car to 11th and F Streets, N. W., in Washington. ADLER left the party here and boarded a Falls Church, Virginia, bus in order to get to Arlington, Virginia, where he entered the house at 1918 North Roosevelt Street. At 5:50 p.m. ADLER was observed in and around this house until 11:30 p.m. when the surveillance was discontinued. It was noted that the lights in the lower part of the house went out at 11 p.m. and it appeared that ADLER was planning to spend the night there.

 The writer on August 15, 1946, ascertained from Mr. ROBERT COPELAND, Postmaster, Preston King Station, Arlington, Virginia, that FRANK COE, a Government employee, is the occupant at 1918 North Roosevelt Street. The report in this case by Special Agent LAMBERT G. ZANDER dated August 16, 1946, reflects that on July 19, 1946, ADLER entered rooms 902-903 at 1818 H Street, N. W., which had the name "Mr. COE" on the door. It is believed that FRANK COE of 1918 North Roosevelt Street, Arlington, Virginia, is identical with this person. COE is being investigated as a separate subject in this case and the results of this investigation will be reported at a later date.

On August 5, 1946, the writer observed ADLER leave his hotel at 8:40 a.m. and proceed to the Public Health Service, 4th and C Streets, S. W., where he received an injection in his arm.

On the same day Special Agents H. DUDLEY PAYNE and LUBREY S. BRENT learned from Assistant Manager HARDING of the Hotel Washington that a man of Chinese extraction and by the name of KILING asked Mr. HARDING for permission to send some packages to the hotel and take them directly to Mr. ADLER'S room rather than leave them at the desk. At approximately 5:45 p.m. Special Agent VINCENT W. HUGHES ascertained that these packages had just been delivered. He learned that they consisted of one large manila envelope and one small white envelope. One envelope was addressed to the Chinese Communications Office, Nanking, China, and bore the return address of "Chu/Chin/Wang, Chinese Supply Commission." The other was addressed to Mrs. LAURA WALKER, U. S. Embassy, Nanking, China, and bore the return address of "O'CONNELL, 8320 - 16th Street, Silver Spring, Maryland." No information is presently available concerning Mrs. LAURA WALKER or the individual named O'CONNELL.

During the evening of August 5, 1946, ADLER was surveilled by Agents PAYNE and BRENT with the following results:

Lischinsky
At 5:55 p.m. ADLER and an unknown man were observed emerging from the Treasury Building and proceeding to the Hotel Washington. It was noted that the unknown man walked up and down in the lobby apparently observing the individuals sitting therein before taking the elevator to ADLER'S room. At 8:30 p.m. ADLER, SOL LISCHINSKY, and the same unknown man emerged from the elevator in the Hotel Washington and proceeded on foot to O'Donnell's Restaurant at 12th and E Streets. The three individuals had dinner there. They left at 9:15 p.m. and walked to a parking lot in the neighborhood, where they entered LISCHINSKY'S automobile. They then proceeded to the Farmers Market, 11th and E Streets, where they purchased a watermelon. Next they proceeded to 2716 - 29th Street, S. E., where ADLER and LISCHINSKY entered the apartment building at that address and remained there for several minutes; returning to the car, they then drove to 2022 Ft. Davis Street, S.E., the residence of LISCHINSKY, where they ate the watermelon. Immediately upon their arrival at LISCHINSKY'S house ADLER was overheard by surveilling agents to make a telephone call, during which he stated that he was leaving the following morning at about 7 a.m. ADLER was heard to request the individual to whom he was speaking to thank GEORGE for everything. It was later ascertained that ADLER was talking to SARAH SILVERMAN and apparently wanted her to thank GEORGE as GEORGE was then out of town.

At 12:10 a.m. ADLER, LISCHINSKY and the unknown man together with LISCHINSKY'S wife left the house and proceeded by car to the Hotel Washington, where ADLER and the unknown man got out. The unknown man, upon leaving the car, walked from the 15th Street entrance of the hotel to the corner of 15th and F Streets. He then returned to the vicinity of the car and then walked immediately back to the corner of 15th and F Streets, where he stood around the corner of the hotel in a position where he could not be seen from the 15th Street entrance. When a Friendship Heights trolley made its appearance on 15th Street he ran to the platform and boarded the streetcar and sat in one of the extreme rear seats of the vehicle. He left the car at 25th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W. and was observed entering the apartment building at 2500 K Street, N. W. at 12:50 a.m.

On August 15, 1946, in an effort to identify the unknown man mentioned above agents PAYNE and BRENT surveilled him from the apartment house located at 2500 K Street, N. W. to a streetcar which was proceeding to 17th and Pennsylvania Avenue, S. E. Aboard the car, Special Agents CHARLES D. CHAPMAN and WILLIAM E. CLARK took over the surveillance. Later Agents observed the unknown man enter the National Metropolitan Bank, after he had looked around and observed the people outside the bank. Inside the bank he made a deposit. Agent CLARK learned from R. E. WOODYARD, the teller to whom the deposit had been made, that the unknown man was JOSEPH SILVERMAN, 2500 K Street, N. W. WOODYARD advised SILVERMAN deposited $110 in new ten dollar bills and a U. S. Treasury check in the amount of $148.80. The bank record of SILVERMAN gave his address as 1740 P Street, N.W. and his occupation as economist, U. S. Treasury Department. SILVERMAN reported that he was a citizen of the United States at the time he opened his account on October 11, 1943. The account was closed June 30, 1945, and when it was subsequently reopened (date not indicated) a new address was shown as 2500 K Street, N. W. The report of Special Agent LAMBERT G. ZANDER dated June 17, 1946, in this investigation, sets forth on Page 165 information reflecting that GEORGE SILVERMAN, a subject in this case, has a brother named JOE SILVERMAN. An effort will be made to determine if the JOSEPH SILVERMAN identified above is identical with JOE SILVERMAN, GEORGE SILVERMAN'S brother.

On August 6, 1946, Special Agents EARL L. FUOSS and W. RAYMOND WAINWALL conducted the following physical surveillance:

On December 15, 1945 Mrs. HALPERIN contacted PHILIP DUNAWAY whom she advised she is desirous of borrowing a cot inasmuch as her parents are coming to town. She mentioned that she could borrow one from DAVID WAHL but if she could get one from DUNAWAY it would be closer home. (X)u Edith

On December 30, 1945 MAURICE HALPERIN conferred with PHILIP DUNAWAY concerning international matters in O.S.S. HALPERIN asked if the orders had been issued yet and who had notified about this. DUNAWAY noted that WILLIAM LANGER might, however, JUST (phonetic) or ROSENBERG (phonetic) are not aware of the situation. HALPERIN believes the delay is significant but the orders may come through on Monday. DUNAWAY replied that the whole thing has been placed before the "big boss" and there is a choice of five features ranging from utter centralization to utter decentralization. MAURICE HALPERIN later contacted DAVID WAHL whom he advised he will call on tonight. They both regretted that the DUNAWAYS could not both be present. (X) u

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent H. DUDLEY PAYNE.

During the period from August 1 through August 15, 1946, the mail cover placed on the subject was not productive. (S) u f e t u

Confidential Informant [redacted] furnished the following information concerning FITZGERALD's activities from August 1st through August 15th. (S) u f e t u b2 b7D

On August 1, 1946, V. LEWIS BASSIE was in contact with REBECCA and EDWARD FITZGERALD, at which time REBECCA stated that she was leaving the following morning. BASSIE, who is employed in the office of Secretary WALLACE, discussed with FITZGERALD various Governmental departments and petroleum. FITZGERALD mentioned he was having a meeting at 10 AM the following morning with a man from Secretary KRUG's office, regarding a letter which was to be checked prior to being sent to Secretary WALLACE's office. (S) u f e t u

On August 5, 1946, EDWARD FITZGERALD advised his maid SARAH that he was leaving on Friday, August 9th, and would be gone for approximately 3 weeks. (S) u f e t u

On August 6, 1946, FITZGERALD made arrangements to borrow a suitcase from his maid, SARAH, as he wanted to take some "books and things" with him. (S) u f e t u

On August 7, 1946, EDWARD FITZGERALD contacted Mrs. HUTCHINSON, who is believed to be an employee in REBECCA's office, and made arrangements for her to take REBECCA's check to the Lunsey Trust Company for deposit. (S) u f e t u

On August 8, 1946, FITZGERALD's maid, SARAH, advised him she was preparing his clothes for his departure the following morning. (S) u f e t u

Under pretext, it was ascertained that FITZGERALD left Washington on the morning of August 9th, and would not return until the day after Labor Day. While FITZGERALD is away from Washington, it was reported he could be reached c/o F. LEROY SMITH, 25 Central Avenue, Wellsboro, Pennsylvania. F. LEROY SMITH is the stepfather of REBECCA FITZGERALD. (S) u f e t u

The Washington Field Office files reflected that BERTHA BLAIR, who has previously been in contact with REBECCA FITZGERALD, was a subject of a Hatch Act investigation by this office in 1942, at which time she was employed as an economist at the Railroad Retirement Board, Washington, D. C. This investigation indicated that BERTHA BLAIR was listed by the Dies Committee as a member of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, and that her name appeared in the active indices for this committee. SECRETRE: HAROLD GLASSER~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The mail cover placed on above-captioned subject from August 1 through August 15, 1946, produced negative results (e) (u) (X) (u)

On July 6, 1946, Mr. and Mrs. HAROLD GLASSER received a letter from EZEKIEL, East Blue Hill, Maine, and subsequent investigation conducted by Special Agent DARREL B. CURRIE, Boston Field Division, on July 30, 1946, disclosed the following information: (X) (u)

There was only one family named EZEKIEL in the East Blue Hill, Maine, area and that was the family of Mr. MORDECAI EZEKIAL who were living at what is known as the LINDEN Cottage in East Blue Hill. Mrs. LUCILLE EZEKIAL and her three young children arrived at the cottage about June 13, 1946, and lived there alone until Mr. EZEKIAL arrived on July 30, 1946. It is believed that he is connected with URRRA and had just arrived from Athens, Greece, by way of London. This is the first time the family has visited the Blue Hill area. Their home address is 5000 Allandale Road, Friendship Post Office, Washington, D. C. They rented the cottage for the summer through Mr. L. HARVEY POE, 1005 East Marshall Street, Richmond, Virginia. He is an agent for the owner, The National Metropolitan Bank of Washington, D. C. It is believed that the property has since been sold, however.

A sister of Mrs. EZEKIAL has been coming to East Blue Hill for several summers and it is believed that she influenced the EZEKIALS to come there this year. Her name is MAXINE FINSTERWALD and her address is 242 West 11th Street, New York City. She claims to be a free-lance writer and uses the pen name, MAXINE WOOD. She wrote a play while visiting there last summer.

Miss WOOD was observed to mail the following letters on July 30, 1946.

Miss WOOD's companion for several summers has been Miss ALICE BARRON whose address is the Abraham Lincoln School, 30 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois. It is believed that both these persons have been active in the Russian War Relief program. Both of them receive the "Daily Worker" and the "New Masses" regularly.

Since the above information concerns the only EZEKIAL family known at East Blue Hill, Maine, it is believed this is the one referred to in the reference letter.

It will be noted that the EZEKIALS described above are intimate friends of the GLASSERS and this association has been indicated in previous reports.

In a letter dated August 8, 1946, to the Washington Field Division, the Bureau advised that the President had approved the United States Delegation to the Fifth Session of the Council of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration which is scheduled to convene at Geneva, Switzerland, on August 5, 1946. The major items on the agenda of the Fifth Session are food, displaced persons, UNRRA finances, UNRRA's relations with the General Assembly of the United Nations, the Chinese program, and the future of UNRRA.

HAROLD GLASSER, Associate Director, Division of Monetary Research, Treasury Department, was listed as one of the advisors to the Council member, WILLIAM L. CLAYTON, Assistant Secretary of State.

See file 63-1101
Harold Glasser
A discreet inquiry at UNRRA failed to confirm this information. However, an appropriate pretext call to the office of HAROLD GLASSER revealed that the subject had departed for the UNRRA Convention at Geneva, Switzerland, the first week of August, 1946, and was expected to return to Washington around August 25, 1946.

On August 15, 1946, Mr. JOHN E. ELLIOTT, Assistant Superintendent, Friendship Heights Post Office, advised that Mrs. FAY GLASSER had submitted a temporary change of address card on August 13 which indicated that for seven days her address would be Vinda Bona Hotel, Braddock Heights, Maryland.

A physical surveillance of the GLASSER residence confirmed the fact that it was unoccupied.

Confidential informants of this office have furnished no further information regarding the activities of HAROLD GLASSER.

The following is the result of a mail cover placed on the above subject: (X) u

Postmark	From	To
Boston, Mass. July 30, 1946	United Business Service, 210 Newbury Street, Boston 16, Massachusetts	Michael Greenberg 4884 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D. C.

Information was received from J. E. ELLIOT, Assistant Superintendent, the Friendship Heights Station of the United States Post Office, that MICHAEL GREENBERG had given his change of address as 20 East 80th Street, New York City. Mr. ELLIOT stated that this change of address was given approximately August 1, 1946.

On August 15, 1946, it was learned through pretext from Mr. M. F. DAY, who resides at 4884 MacArthur Boulevard, Apartment 108, that the subject had moved but he was unable to say where he had gone. He further advised that the present occupant of Apartment 107, where GREENBERG formerly lived, is HOWARD DANIEL. Mr. DAY was unable to furnish further information concerning GREENBERG.

On August 16, 1946, EDITH BARBOUR, who resides at 4884 MacArthur Boulevard, NW, Apartment 106, advised, when contacted under pretext, that she knew MICHAEL GREENBERG but was unable to say where he had moved, however, she did say that she knew he had moved from Washington on or about the first of August, 1946.

Reference is made to the letter from the Baltimore Field Office to the Washington Field Office dated August 9, 1946, requesting background information on HORACE W. BYERS, 1719 O'Sullivan Building, who on April 8, 1946, mailed a letter to MICHAEL GREENBERG, Apartment 107, 4884 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D. C. The following information is set forth in the above mentioned letter:

Observation at 1719 O'Sullivan Building reflected that the occupant was "MOODY'S INVESTORS SERVICE, HORACE W. BYERS, Representative."

The Baltimore City Telephone Directory reflected one HORACE W. BYERS as a physician residing at 509 Woodlawn Road. The records of the Credit Bureau of Baltimore, Inc. reflected HORACE W. BYERS, wife SALLIE BYERS, was the local representative for MOODY'S INVESTORS SERVICE and had resided at 509 Woodlawn Road since the Spring of 1927. BYERS was indicated to be 56 to 57 years of age, the son of the late JAMES WELLINGTON BYERS of Charlotte,

North Carolina, and that he had been connected with MOODY'S INVESTORS SERVICE as local representative since 1930.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The report further indicated that BYERS had formerly been a physician, having graduated from the University of Maryland in the class of 1914, and practiced his profession with offices located in the Medical Arts Building until about 1930. The subject's credit record appeared to be in good standing and there was no explanation as to why he had given up the practice in the medical profession.

Local Selective Service Board Number 11 in Baltimore shows a record of one HORACE BYERS indicating that an enlistment notice had been received by the Board at the time he had gone into service with the Maryland National Guard.

 Mr. CHARLES LORD of the firm BAKER, WATTS & COMPANY, Investment Securities, advised that HORACE W. BYERS, the local representative for MOODY'S INVESTORS SERVICE, had been furnishing this service to BAKER, WATTS & COMPANY over a long period of time and was well regarded by the entire firm. Mr. LORD advised, however, that aside from satisfactory business deals with him nothing was known concerning BYERS personally by himself or the members of his firm. Refer

Dr. HENRY CULLENBERG, Secretary of the Maryland State Board of Medical Examiners, made available the records of that Board, which reflect that HORACE W. BYERS, who was originally from Charlotte, North Carolina, had attended Hampton Sidney College of Virginia and the University of Maryland Medical School. He was admitted to the practice of medicine in July, 1914. The records indicated that Mr. BYERS is still authorized to practice medicine in the State of Maryland, however, it was noted that he had not become a member of the Medical Association in recent years. Dr. CULLENBERG stated he himself was not familiar with this individual, although he had been Secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners since 1918. He stated that it is rather unusual for a man to cease practice in medicine, especially after having engaged in practice over a period of several years, but added there was no indication that BYERS had in any way been forced to give up practicing because of any unethical practices, or because of any type of derogatory information concerning him.

In the fall of 1941 the Washington Field Division was office of origin in an investigation entitled "JOHN HAZZARD, aka John Newbold Hazzard - Information Concerning," the results of which are set forth as follows:

[REDACTED]

Investigation reflected that HAZZARD received an AB degree from Yale 1926-1930, and an LLB degree from Harvard, 1931-1934. He received a Certificate in Soviet Law from the Moscow Juridical Institute in Moscow, 1935-1937, and a JSD degree from the University of Chicago, 1938-1939.

The following information was made available by Miss MARY O. JONES, Personnel Office, Office of Emergency Management, in September, 1941; this information was contained in an application which HAZZARD filed:

John Newbold
Susan L. Hazard
HAZZARD was born January 5, 1909, and his residence at that time was 205 East 78th Street, New York City. He was employed from September, 1934, to December, 1937, with the Institute of Current World Affairs as an associate delegate to the USSR to study Soviet law. From January, 1938, to March, 1939, he followed the same course of employment jointly with the University of Chicago at Chicago and received a remuneration from continued institute payments and also fees as a lecturer on the Soviet form of government. From July, 1939, to 1941 he was employed by Baldwin, Todd and Young as an attorney at 120 Broadway, New York City. The background of applicant's family is as follows:

applicant was born in the United States in Syracuse County, Herkules, New York. His wife was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts. His father was born at Peace Dale, Rhode Island, and his mother at Frederick, Maryland. Contained in the application is a statement by applicant that his experience had taught him the Russian language and customs and given him a thorough knowledge of the Soviet government and Soviet law, which he felt would be advantageous in dealing with the Soviet government and Soviet corporation. He stated that the experience had added to his education qualifications and had also given him administrative experience in dealing with the administration of various university departments. The experience familiarized him with practical problems in the practice of law, while practicing and acting as a specialist in Soviet law. He stated that he had made numerous contacts with Soviet officials, attorneys and commercial representatives. He stated further that he had been a lecturer at Columbia University on Soviet political institutions.

Susan L. Hazard
He gave his wife's name as SUSAN L. HAZZARD, address, 205 East 78th Street, New York City. The personnel record of the Office of Emergency Management showed that applicant in September, 1941, was then employed as a principal liaison officer, grade C.F-13, and stated that he handled all relations with Russia as to Defense Aid Reports in connection with procurement and furnishing of defense materials to Russia under Lend-Lease, and also had charge of the examination, approval and disapproval of the request of the USSR to make direct purchases, and the handling and expediting of the solution of all problems arising therein. He was reported to be the liaison man with the diplomatic representatives and Purchasing Commission of the USSR and the Amtorg.

Investigation by auxiliary offices verified HAZZARD'S education and employment and failed to develop any derogatory information concerning his loyalty, integrity and discretion. This investigation reflected that HAZZARD was the author of numerous books and articles dealing primarily with various phases of Soviet law.

The New Haven Field Division in a report of Special Agent J. C. PORTER dated October 3, 1941, set forth information which HAZZARD furnished the Yale Alumni Association concerning himself for use in compiling a bicennial class book. A letter which he wrote on the back of his questionnaire dated September 8, 1939, reads as follows:

"Left since graduation. Expect one continuous series of surprises and pleasantly unusual experiences. Nothing was ever as hard as the three years in Law School in Harvard, but nothing was ever as unusual or enjoyable as the three years in Moscow Law School. I find that I have become so thoroughly familiar with the theories of Communist writers and the goals they set, that life in the mid 20th Century takes on a good deal more meaning than otherwise might have been the case, since one of the important forces working in our society is not any longer to me some queer sort of movement about which I could learn nothing. I have developed considerable tolerance of late years. I do not get riled at Father Devine or Franklin D. Roosevelt. I thank God I am an American as I think an American has the most likelihood of leading the world out of the mess it is in and I shall be a part of that movement. I suspect that none of us would ever want to go back to the old days of what has been called the conservative way of life. We all seem to approve of liberalism and differ only on the extent and the speed of the movement along the path it represents.

"The most strikingly clear of all my impressions of the past years 'in the world' is that our college education should present economic theories so that we may leave college halls with something better than prejudice as a basis on which to do our own independent thinking on burning problems of today. The American colleges should, in my opinion, teach Fascism, Communistic and Democratic theories so that we may know what they are. We should not limit our study of these political theories to reading columns by Hugh Johnson and Dorothy Thompson as good as they may be, for the entertainment of the person who has done his background reading in text books; so here's to the College which presents fearlessly all the 'isms' for the delectation of its students, and builds thereby better men, capable, independent thinkers, to carry on American political and economic life."

On July 13, 1946, a letter from the Bureau was received by the Washington Field Office, which set forth the following information:

 The Bureau directed the Washington Field Office to conduct an immediate and discreet investigation in order to determine the activities of HAZARD individually and as far as possible [REDACTED] (c)
 It was suggested that consideration be given to the possibility of using confidential sources in order to develop the desired information concerning him, Investigation by the Washington Field Office at the Cleveland Park Post Office reflected that HAZARD submitted a change of address card to that Post Office disclosing that his future permanent mailing address would be Post Office Box 32, Skaneateles, New York. A pretext telephone call to the State Department, Division of Commercial Policies, Office of the Chief, reflected that HAZARD had resigned his position with the State Department as of August 1, 1946, and it was believed that he is presently staying at his residence in Skaneateles, New York. (u)

A review of the Bulletin of Information, Columbia University Russian Institute, reflects that JOHN N. HAZARD is a member of the staff of that university as a professor of Public Laws. Among the subjects which HAZARD will teach during the coming term are Russian Political Institutions and the Revolution, Political Institutions in the Soviet Union, and Soviet Jurisprudence.

In view of the fact that HAZARD is no longer employed at the State Department, the Bureau has been advised that the investigation requested in its letter of July 13, 1946, is not being continued.

EUGENE F. KULISCHER

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Handwritten: floor

KULISCHER first came to attention in this case when informant [redacted] advised that on August 29, 1945 Mrs. KULISCHER, wife of Doctor KULISCHER, contacted Mrs. MILLER (wife of subject ROBERT MILLER) at which time they discussed the health of each other and their husbands. Mrs. MILLER suggested a Russian doctor for DR. KULISCHER who was having some kind of urinary trouble. The doctor recommended was Doctor HELFGOTT, 1306 Rhode Island Avenue, N.W. Mrs. MILLER stated Doctor KULISCHER could speak Russian with HELFGOTT

Handwritten: b2 b7D (S) u

On August 30, 1945, Doctor HELFGOTT called Mrs. MILLER to thank her for the patient (KULISCHER). HELFGOTT stated that he and KULISCHER know a lot of friends in common in Russia. Mrs. MILLER invited all of them, the KULISCHERS and HELFGOTTS, over next weekend.

Handwritten: (S) u

On February 22, 1946, subject MILLER contacted Doctor KULISCHER by telephone which was not entirely coherent to the informant but which he believed to pertain to population movements in certain parts of Europe and the personalities in the State Department who handled that type of work. The following names were mentioned in connection therewith: WARREN; RUBEN; KINDELBERGER; LANDERS; BECKNER; and HILLER or VILLER. Some mention was made of OSS doing that type of work. MILLER stated he would call KULISCHER later.

Handwritten: (S) u

On February 26, 1946, ROBERT MILLER called his wife JENNIE and told her to call KULISCHER and tell him absolutely nothing developed on "that". KINDELBERGER said just nothing doing. On the same date, JENNIE called KULISCHER and told him "it doesn't look so good according to KINDELBERGER". She asked who he called to see and he said BECKNER. JENNIE said it seems even BECKNER will not be there long according to BOB.

Handwritten: (S) u

On April 23rd, Mrs. KULISCHER called JENNIE MILLER and said that DR. KULISCHER was in New York and that he was going to return soon and teach at American University on "his problem on population". Mrs. KULISCHER is taking a course in Government in an Americanization school. Mrs. KULISCHER said she applied for a job at the Library of Congress, as she heard they were working on an interesting Slavic project. She gave JENNIE'S name as reference.

Informant [REDACTED] advised that on June 11, 1946 Dr. KULISCHER spoke to BOB MILLER and said he was teaching at American University from June 20th until September 20th but he does not know if he will teach this fall. The doctor asked BOB and JENNIE to come over tomorrow night while NATASHA is still here. The Doctor said he would be an American citizen soon. On June 11, 1946, Doctor KULISCHER invited the MILLERS to his home for the following evening. On June 12th, Mrs. KULISCHER contacted JENNIE MILLER and JENNIE said that they could not visit tonight but that she would see NATASHA in New York.

"He further indicated that he speaks, reads, and writes Russian, French, German, and English and that he is a research scientist by occupation. In this application he stated that he intended joining his father-in-law, Mr. ARNOLD MARGOLIN, Transportation Building, Washington, D. C., and that he intended to remain permanently in the United States. The application revealed that his parents were deceased. Their names were not set out.

Eugene W. "KULISCHER filled out an Alien Registration Form on June 5, 1941, in which he gave as his citizenship, "Russian refugee". He specified that he had been a research scientist for the past five years and proposed to be a research scientist in the United States. In answer to a question whether in the past five years he had been affiliated with or active as a member, official, or worker in any organization devoted in whole or in part to influencing or furthering in the United States the political activities, public relations, or public policy of any other Government, he replied, 'Constitutional Democratic Party of Russia'. In filling out an Alien Registration Form on May 7, 1943, in answering the question last mentioned above, he stated, 'I have not'. In the last-mentioned Alien Registration Form he stated that he was a citizen of no country, 'last of Russia'. In Item 10 of the form he stated that in the last five years he engaged in research work for the French National Center of Scientific Research, Paris, France, and in research work for the International Labor Office, Montreal, Canada. He indicated that he had no Military or Naval service; that he was living in the United States with his wife and daughter; and that he had never been convicted of a crime. He received Alien Registration No. 7615614.

"KULISCHER filed Declaration of Intention No. 517962 at New York, New York, on April 7, 1942. His Declaration reflects that his last place of foreign residence was Paris, France, and that he emigrated from Lisbon, Portugal, entering the United States at New York, New York, June 30, 1941, on the SS EXETER. In connection with the arrival, there was noted a teletype, dated June 25, 1941, to Ellis Island, New York Harbor, from JOSEPH SAVORETTI, Deputy Commissioner, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D. C. The teletype read in effect that EUGENE KULISCHER and wife, OIGA, arrived on the SS EXETER June 24, 1941, and were being held for a hearing Friday. 'Teletype particulars in case and reason for delay in holding hearing.' A notation in the Immigration and Naturalization Service file indicates that the teletype was sent at the request of Mr. HARRINGTON of the State Department, 'who states OIGA KULISCHER'S father is well known in the State Department. Mr. HARRINGTON states his Department will appreciate it if the hearing is 'speeded up.' The reply teletype, dated June 25, 1941, stated that EUGENE has a visa; OLGA, a re-entry permit. Both held BSI IPC. Case may not be reached before Saturday - approximately sixty passengers arrived before KULISCHEFS now awaiting hearings. On June 25, 1941, Commissioner SAVORETTI teletyped Ellis Island to parole EUGENE and OLGA KULISCHER pending the hearing; and a second notation in the file, dated June 25, 1941, is to the effect that Mr. HARRINGTON was advised of the particulars in the case and that Ellis Island was being directed to parole the KULISCHERS.

"OLGA KULISCHER was born April 29, 1898, at Dorpat, Estonia, Russia. She resided in Germany from 1930 until July 1, 1935, and in Denmark from July 1, 1935, until August, 1935, at which time she filed an application for an immigration visa (quota) to enter the United States. In her application she indicated that she speaks, reads, and writes Russian, French, English, and German. She first arrived in the United States October 31, 1935. She stated that her mother is LISA LIUBOW MARGOLIN; that her father is ARNOLD MARGOLIN; and that she has a sister, LIEBOW MANSSEN, in Denmark. She stated that she intended going to the United States to live permanently and that her husband, EUGENE, resided in Berlin, Germany. In her Alien Registration Form, dated July 31, 1941, she revealed that she last arrived in the United States at New York, New York, June 24, 1941, on the SS EXETER of the American Export Lines. She also stated in this form that she had never been arrested. She received Alien Registration No. 5891058.

"OLGA applied for a re-entry permit February 26, 1936. She departed from New York on the SS MANHATTEN April 22, 1936. In her application she stated that she intended to visit her husband for one year in Copenhagen, Denmark. She received Re-entry Permit No. 1073198, issued at Washington, D. C., March 4, 1936, to expire March 4, 1937. She filed an application to extend this re-entry permit on August 2, 1937, giving as her reason that she was visiting her husband and intended returning to the United States probably in February of 1938. She indicated that she had visited Germany, Denmark, and France. She gave as her foreign address, 93 Avenue des Moulineaux, Boulogne i/Seine, France. She applied for a further extension January 4, 1938, because of 'personal business, visiting husband.' She apparently returned to the United States, for in an application dated April 5, 1939, to extend Re-entry Permit No. 1205015 dated May 24, 1938, she revealed that she last departed from the United States June 15, 1938, from New York, New York, on the AQUATANIA. In this application she indicated that she desired 'to stay with my husband, who has a scientific work in Paris'. She filed another application October 4, 1939, because she 'cannot leave my husband, who has a scientific work in Paris'. The permit was extended by the Immigration and Naturalization Service to May 24, 1940. She filed a third application to renew the last permit on February 26, 1940, stating, 'I am waiting on my husband, who is finishing a scientific work in Paris'. The permit was extended by Immigration and Naturalization Service to November 24, 1940. In a fourth application, dated September 23, 1940, she gave as her reason, 'Being Russian born and without nationality, the Portugal Consulate refused for the moment to grant a visa on my Certificate of Identity.' A further extension was granted to May 24, 1941. A final application for an extension was filed by her on April 11, 1941. She gave as her reason that 'The German authorities do not grant a permit to leave this country, but I will make every effort to arrive in the United States before the expiration of this permit extension.'

"On February 21, 1942, OLGA requested an Alien Registration Card from Immigration and Naturalization Service, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On April 18, 1942, in separate letters, both EUGENE and OLGA advised that they had failed to receive registration cards. They stated that their first address in the United States was 318 West 102nd Street, New York, New York. On April 25, 1942, they sent a similar letter jointly. By form letter dated July 31, 1942, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Philadelphia, advised OLGA that a Receipt Card, Alien Registration No. 5891058, had been issued and that an application for a new Receipt Card was enclosed. EUGENE filed an application for a copy of an Alien Registration Receipt Card in lieu of one lost or destroyed on August 22, 1942, in which he stated that since the date of registration he had been absent from the United States for three days, having last entered the United States at New York, New York, March 20, 1942. It did not indicate what foreign country he had visited.

"In a letter dated June 11, 1946, from ARNOLD D. MARGOLIN, attorney-at-law, Transportation Building, Washington, D. C., to the Honorable UGO CARUSI, Immigration and Naturalization Commissioner, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Mr. MARGOLIN refers to their last meeting in Washington and informs Mr. CARUSI that his daughter, OLGA KULISCHER, and her husband, Dr. EUGENE M. KULISCHER, both residing at 1611 - 31st Street, Northwest, had filed 'today' their applications for citizenship. The letter stated that during the war Dr. KULISCHER had been affiliated with Office of Strategic Services in his capacity of Population Expert and that at the present time KULISCHER has a very good chance to become affiliated with one of the Government's Departments in Washington in his capacity of Population Expert, but has to become an American citizen as a prerequisite for such an appointment. The letter further stated that Mrs. KULISCHER, who has a temporary position at the Library of Congress, will also have a good chance to be promoted to a permanent position as soon as she will become a citizen.

The letter concluded that in view of this fact, it is most important for Dr. and Mrs. KULISCHER to become citizens at the earliest date possible.

Commissioner CARUSI, by reply dated June 17, 1946, stated that the Baltimore Office of Immigration and Naturalization Service had been requested to expedite action upon the applications of Mr. MARGOLIN's daughter and her husband with a view to arranging for final hearings on their cases at the earliest possible date.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent B. W. HUGHES:

At the American University, 1901 F Street, N.W., it was ascertained that Dr. KULISCHER teaches every Friday evening from 6:30 P. M. to 9:20 P. Mr. and Mrs. WOODROW SMITH, Janitor, and his wife, at 1611 31st Street, which is the residence of Doctor KULISCHER, advised that to their knowledge the doctor is not working at the present time although his wife is employed by the Library of Congress. SMITH stated that he has worked in the KULISCHER apartment doing odd jobs from time to time and that the doctor seems to cut out many newspaper clippings.

~~SECRET~~ GERVISNA RABINOWITCH, with aliases, has been identified in a Bureau case as a Soviet Agent who received $10,000 from PAVEL MIKHAILOV, Secretary General of USSR Consulate, New York City, and forwarded same by means of an unidentified firm to another Soviet Agent in Geneva, Switzerland. RABINOWITCH at time was employed by the International Labor Office, Montreal, and was previously attached to the same organization in Geneva. She was closely connected with important Swiss organization of Red Army Intelligence. During the course of the investigation of RABINOWITCH, the records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service showed that RABINOWITCH had filed a form entitled "Application For a Certificate of Arrival" and preliminary form for "Petition of Naturalization". This was dated February 28, 1946 and reflected that RABINOWITCH was residing at 749 West End Avenue, c/o of L. P. CARLTON, New York City. Subject also listed the same address when she registered for the Alien Registration Account. (It will be observed that in the information received from the Philadelphia Field Division that Doctor KULISCHER listed his address from December 9, 1943 to August 6, 1944 as 749 West End Avenue, New York City).

From information contained in Washington Field Office file #100-17421 on subject RABINOWITCH, it was stated that LEONARD CARLTON, 749 West End Avenue, New York City, had been supplied by RABINOWITCH to the Immigration and Naturalization Service as the person to whom all mail for her should be addressed. A check of the New York telephone directory first reflected that CARLTON'S full name was LEONARD and that one EUGENE KULISCHER also had the same telephone number CARLTON had at this address. Subject RABINOWITCH was eventually interviewed and stated that he made frequent visits to New York City for the purpose of establishing a residence here so that she could meet the residence requirements for United States citizenship. For this reason she made trips to New York at least once every six months. She further advised she also maintained her residence at 749 West End Avenue in care of LEONARD CARLTON, who she stated was a friend of hers.

The records of the Federal Statistics Bureau for Manhattan reflect that on July 1, 1944 a marriage license number 17616 was issued to LEONARD CARLTON, New York City, and NATASHA KULISCHER, of 749 West End Avenue, New York City. In the personal history form required by CARLTON to fill out, he stated his father was LUDWIG LORE.

The following information was given concerning CARLTON'S bride to be:

The New York Field Division ascertained that LEONARD CARLTON is a former employee of the Office of War Information and that his real name is KARL LORE and that he is the son of the deceased LUDWIG LORE. Informant [REDACTED], of the New York Field Office, advised that he had information that LEONARD CARLTON was against the Communist System of Government and he also submitted information that CARLTON expressed a willingness to assist the MUKHAILOVICH Committee.

Concerning the background of CARLTON'S father, a review of the files of the Dies Committee reflect that LUDWIG LORE was a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party (Communist) elected at the convention of 1923-1924. The Dies files indicate that at one time LORE was a prominent Communist but that he eventually fell away from their radical ideas and was considered the leader of the right wing in the Communist Party. From a speech by C. E. RUTHENBERG, who was also a member of the Central Committee of the Workers Party, he referred to the fact that LORE had been expelled from the Party.

From an inquiry made at the office of the Knepper Management Company in New York, which organization controls the apartment dwelling at 749 West End Avenue, it was learned that Apartment QW was in the name of EUGENE KULISCHER and it was reflected LEONARD CARLTON was his son-in-law.

A review of the New York files reflected that KULISCHER was a member of the Russian Economic Institute which claimed to be a voluntary, non-partisan and non-profitable organization undertaking individual and cooperative research subjects; the firing and analyzing of specific problems or issues centering in Russian-Eurasian territories. The organization is reported to be affiliated with the Latin Russian Institute, the Institute For Social Research and the Socres Corporation. It was stated that certain officials of the Russian Economic Institute were reported to be liberal but not necessarily Communist. The file further reflected that KULISCHER was on the Research Staff of the Institute which was made up of a number of individuals including OSCAR LANGE. It was noted that KULISCHER in 1941 was listed as a member of the Research Staff and in the Manhattan 1944 telephone directory was residing at 749 West End Avenue. The files also reflected that KULISCHER was a member of the Russian Cultural Society. ALEXIS GOLDENWEISER was listed by subject RABINOWITCH as a reference on her application of intention to become a citizen of the United States. This organization was also known as the "Circle of Russian Culture" and was organized on April 1942 by former Russian lawyers, judges and professors of law. The membership was comprised of 57 in 1942 and was governed by the following board of individuals:

ALEXIS GOLDENWEISER
E. N. KULISCHER

SOPHIE VINAVER GRINBERG
LEO ZARTSEFF

It was ascertained from a confidential source that EUGENE KULISCHER was Special Assistant to the Director of radio programs at the Office of War Information as of March 17, 1943 on which date he had telephone service installed at his residence address - 749 West End Avenue.

Olga Kulischer

On April 14, 1946, subject ^{Gerviana} RABINOWITCH mailed a letter in New York which was addressed to Mrs. E. WOYTINSKY, 5036 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. This letter had the return address of G. RABINOWITCH, 536 West 112th Street, New York City. It will be noted that VLADIMIR WOYTINSKY, Chief Economist, Social Security Board, is listed as a reference by Mrs. KULISCHER in application for her job at the Library of Congress. The District of Columbia City Directory lists a WLADIMIR S. WOYTINSKY, 5036 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. (It seems apparent that the WOYTINSKY who was the addressee is the wife of the WOYTINSKY who was a reference on Mrs. KULISCHER'S application at the Library of Congress).

In summing up the interesting connections of RABINOWITCH and KULISCHER, it is pointed out that: 1. KULISCHER lived in the same house - 749 West End Avenue - as that which subject RABINOWITCH used as her address and claimed she visited regularly

2. RABINOWITCH had her mail received by KULISCHER'S son-in-law, LEONARD CARLTON.

3. Both RABINOWITCH and KULISCHER are members of the International Labor Office.

4. Both RABINOWITCH and KULISCHER apparently are friends of VLADIMIR WOYTINSKY.

The father of Mrs. KULISCHER is ARNOLD D. MARGOLIN, 2262 Cathedral Avenue, Washington, D. C., who was born in Kiev, Russia in 1877 and was naturalized as a United States citizen in December 1927. MARGOLIN is a local lawyer and has held government positions. He attended the law faculty of the University of St. Vladimir, Kiev, Russia, from 1895 to 1900 receiving the diploma of Jurist, First Degree; also attended Universities of Leipzig and Lyons. MARGOLIN held various jobs in Russia both in private enterprise and as an employee of the Government up until the year 1919. He claims to have been a justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Ukraine.

From an employee investigation conducted by the Washington Field Office in case number 77-11567, no derogatory information was learned concerning MARGOLIN and the file reflects he was a friend of the late Justice BRANDEIS and FELIX FRANKFURTER.

It has been observed that BEN and OLGA MARGOLIN, who is known to subject MILLER in this case, appears on numerous occasions in this case. Efforts will be made to learn if BEN or OLGA MARGOLIN are related to ARNOLD D. MARGOLIN.

From WFO file #77-7040, it was ascertained that NELLIE NATALIE KULISCHER CARLTON was born in Kiev, Russia on November 4, 1919; and arrived in the United States in October 1935. No derogatory information was developed in the course of the investigation of Mrs. CARLTON.

The house is a two story dwelling located on a heavily wooded lot and elevated well above street level and approached on the front by a number of steps leading up from the sidewalk. Only the second floor portion of the house is visible from the street. A narrow alley runs the length of the block parallel to Albermarle Street between 29th and 30th Streets. On July 15, 1946, RAYMOND S. BROOKS contacted the subject and advised him that he was now "working in our old territory, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, outside of Knoxville. The AEC is making the organization of the atom plants its major southern project in the new drive and I was asked to come over temporarily and start their weekly newspaper. I did about May 1st and I am enclosing a recent issue. (Informant [redacted] did not advise the contents of this paper). It won't take any prizes in journalism contests but it was a splendid form of contact between the organization and the people in the plants. It meant working fifteen hours a day because I did all the work myself but it was interesting - even when the Woods Committee came down and investigated. I left their July 1st when the Washington man who does most of the editorial work for the Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers could clean things up enough to come down and take over. Thanks very much for your note of May in reference to the Billings, Montana, job with Interior. I have never heard another word from them. I sent Assistant Commissioner W. R. [redacted] a note early in June asking him what was doing and he has never replied. (S)(u) b2 b7D

At the time of this contact BROOKS indicated that he might write a letter directly to the secretary because he wanted to hear something and he believed "they" owed him a letter. (S)(u)

Reference is made to the report in this case dated May 17, 1946, in which Confidential Informant [redacted] whose identity is known to the Bureau, had advised that MARKS had made numerous contacts. The Baltimore Field Division advised on August 7, 1946, in regard to the contacts made by MARKS as furnished by Confidential Informant [redacted] and this information is as follows:

Baltimore telephone number Lafayette 3442 was determined to be listed to Mrs. JONAS S. FRIEDENWALD, 1212 Eutaw Place. Lafayette 2390 was determined to be listed to Doctor HARRY FRIEDENWALD, 1212 Eutaw Place. Liberty 3152 was determined to be listed to Doctor HARRY FRIEDENWALD, 2412 West Rogers Avenue.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Baltimore reflected that Doctor HARRY FRIEDENWALD, home address 2412 West Rogers Avenue, with offices at 1212 Eutaw Place, had been born in 1864 and has resided at his present address since 1920, sharing the property with his son, Doctor JONAS FRIEDENWALD. It was stated that he was a widower of BIRDIE STEIN FRIEDENWALD, who died November 30, 1941, and was indicated to have been the son of the late LARON FRIEDENWALD, who had been a well-known Baltimore physician and a graduate of the University of Maryland. The credit report indicated that Doctor FRIEDENWALD is understood to have an exceptionally large practice and for thirty-seven years has been a surgeon on the staff of the Baltimore Eye, Ear, and Throat Hospital. He had been graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1886 and from 1887 to 1889 had served as Assistant Professor at Hirschberg's Eye Hospital in Berlin, Germany. From 1894 until 1902, he was Associate Professor at the College of Physicians and Surgeons; and from 1902 to 1916, he was a full professor. His professorship was retained after the merger of this institution with the University of Maryland until 1930, when Dr. FRIEDENWALD became Professor Emeritus.

A credit report on Doctor JONAS S. FRIEDENWALD reflected that he was engaged in professional practice with his father at 1212 Eutaw Place, that he was approximately 40 to 42 years of age, and that his wife's name was MARIE LOUISE. The report indicated that Doctor JONAS FRIEDENWALD and his wife reside at 1212 Eutaw Place and that the Doctor is a graduate of Johns Hopkins Medical School, served his internship at Johns Hopkins, and has been practicing since 1922, specializing in treatment of the eyes, ears, and throat.

Dr. HENRY CULLENBERG of the Maryland State Board of Medical Examiners made available the Board's files which reflected that HARRY FRIEDENWALD was licensed as a physician on May 16, 1894, having graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1886, and that he is Professor Emeritus of Ophthalmology at the University of Maryland. Doctor CULLENBERG stated that he is somewhat familiar with Doctor FRIEDENWALD and knows him to be an eye specialist and added that the Doctor was quite aged. The records of the Board of Medical Examiners likewise reflected that Doctor JONAS STEIN FRIEDENWALD, a graduate of Johns Hopkins College in 1916, and later of the Medical School, had been licensed to practice medicine on December 29, 1921. There was no derogatory information in the file concerning either of these individuals and Doctor CULLENBERG stated that he, himself, knew nothing derogatory concerning them.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A check of the files of the Baltimore Field Division reflected that an informant had advised that the name LOUIS S. FRIEDENWALD, 1212 Eutaw Place (apparently given incorrectly for JONAS S. FRIEDENWALD) appeared on a list of contacts prepared at Communist Party headquarters for the disposition of tickets for an American-Soviet Friendship Rally November 14 through November 21, 1944.

The files of the Baltimore Field Division further reflected that Mrs. JONAS FRIEDENWALD had furnished a non-specific complaint regarding a book review in a Spanish newspaper which appeared to be anti-semitic; that Doctor JONAS FRIEDENWALD had furnished a complaint regarding apparently contradictory newspaper articles in the Baltimore Sun and New York Times, it being his impression that the New York Times version was so colored as to instill anti-British feelings in the readers. The files further reflect that Mrs. JONAS S. FRIEDENWALD had signed a petition requesting that all citizens be permitted to shop in Baltimore stores without discrimination because of race or color. The files also reflect that one E. I. SCHWARTZ, a Communist Party functionary, had received a letter bearing the return address 1212 Eutaw Street; that Doctor HARRY FRIEDENWALD had requested the National Broadcasting Company in New York to furnish him with a copy of the program, "America Calling All People," which was deemed by National Broadcasting Company officials to be rather unusual. The nature of this program is not reflected in the files of the Baltimore Field Division. It is further reflected in the Baltimore files that Doctor HARRY FRIEDENWALD, 1212 Eutaw Place, has been a contributor to the Workers Defense League, having been a member since 1941, and that in December, 1942, one ELIZABETH GILMAN forwarded to the New York headquarters of this organization a check for five dollars issued by Doctor FRIEDENWALD.

Doctor HENRY CULLENBERG of the Maryland Board of Medical Examiners made available the records of the Board, which reflected that Doctor HERMAN had received his AB degree from Johns Hopkins in 1914 and graduated from Johns Hopkins Medical School in 1918, having been admitted to practice in July, 1918. Doctor CULLENBERG stated that he, himself, is somewhat acquainted with Doctor HERMAN and knows him to have been at one time the physician who attended all Johns Hopkins Medical School students. He further advised that Doctor HERMAN is an internist and allergist and stated that he at one time visited Doctor HERMAN professionally after his daughter had made an appointment without his knowledge and that he considered him to be quite capable professionally. Doctor CULLENBERG advised that no derogatory information had ever come to his attention concerning Doctor HERMAN. A check of the Baltimore Field Division indices was negative with respect to Doctor HERMAN.

Baltimore telephone number Wolfe 3167 was determined to be a pay phone located in the main lobby of the Johns Hopkins Hospital, and accordingly, no information concerning persons called at that number could be obtained.

Baltimore telephone Forest 7000 is listed to one NATHAN H. KAUFMAN, Greenspring Manor, Park Heights and Slade Avenues.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Baltimore reflect that NATHAN KAUFMAN, JR., manager of the Empire Laundry, age 29 to 31, single, has been residing at that address for about one year. KAUFMAN was indicated to be the son of NATHAN H. KAUFMAN, SR., who died March 9, 1945, and of Mrs. HILDA KAUFMAN. KAUFMAN'S father was indicated to have been the owner of the Empire Laundry and KAUFMAN had served in the capacity of assistant to his father until the time of his death at which time he took over active management of the business.

ALAN C. WOODS, age 52 to 54, was the son of a Doctor HIRAM WOODS, who had served as a Captain in the Medical Corps in World War I. He appears to have a very successful practice and is a graduate of the Johns Hopkins Medical School.

Doctor HENRY CULLENBERG, Secretary of the Maryland Board of Medical Examiners, made available records which reflected that ALLAN CHURCHILL WOODS had received his MB degree from Johns Hopkins in 1910 and was graduated from Johns Hopkins Medical School in 1914 and was admitted to practice that same year, Dr. CULLENBERG advised that Doctor WOODS was the head of the world famous Eye Clinic and his reputation was outstanding.

The files of the Baltimore Field Office further reflected that an informant of this office had furnished [REDACTED]

In a newspaper article taken from the Baltimore Evening Sun of January 19, 1946, Doctor WOODS is indicated to be one of the signers of a petition to Senator TYDINGS urging prompt action on international control of atomic energy and foreseeing the "utmost danger" in any attempt for this country and Great Britain to guard the secret. This petition, it was indicated, foresaw an atomic-armed race as a result of an effort to maintain superiority in atomic weapons and endorsed the recommendation of Mr. TRUMAN, Mr. ATTLEE, and Mr. KING that a special committee of the United Nations Organization to be created in order to set up an enforceable safeguard against the use of atomic energy for destructive purposes and that specialized information regarding the practical application of atomic energy be made freely available as soon as the safeguards are established.

On July 10, 1946, Doctor ISIAH BOWMAN, President of Johns Hopkins University, advised that he considered many of the Hopkins professors who had signed instant petition, including Doctor WOODS, to be loyal to the United States and expressed his opinion that these men, including Doctor WOODS, had no sympathy for the Communist Party or its policies. It is noted that Doctor BOWMAN at the

Baltimore telephone number Tuxedo 0115 was determined. Mrs. D. ADELYN BRESKIN, 1521 Northwick Road. The report of Special Agent JESSE F. FARR dated at Baltimore, Maryland, August 21, 1945, entitled "Eugenia Foster Whitaker, was - Internal Security - R," contains the following information in regard to Mrs. ADELYN DOHMEY BRESKIN:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mrs. BRESKIN in July of 1945 was approximately 43 to 45 years of age. She is divorced and has been living at 1521 Northwick Road, Baltimore, since November of 1939 with her three children, JEAN, DOROTHY and GLORIA. Mrs. BRESKIN is divorced from ELIAS BRESKIN, former conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. She was divorced in 1934. Her former residences are 5100 Roland Avenue, where she lived with her children for about eight years; 715 Deepdene Road; and 5024 Roland Avenue. Mrs. BRESKIN during her married life lived in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Since 1930 she has been in the employ of the Baltimore Museum of Art, Charles and 31st Streets. Previous to that time she was with the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, for about six years.

In an article by JIM GREIF entitled "Baltimore Show Women of Art" in the Baltimore Sun dated February 3, 1945, appeared a biography of ADELYN BRESKIN. At that time her position was listed as Acting Director of the Baltimore Museum of Art since 1942. Her first position with the Baltimore Museum of Art in 1930 was listed as "curator of prints and drawings." Among her duties has been that of securing exhibits from artists and collectors.

It is to be noted reference report reflects subject associated consider with PABLO O'HIGGINS and it is possible subject may have intended contacting BRESKIN in behalf of O'HIGGINS. (It is noted that the subject in this instance is EUGENIA FOSTER WHITAKER).

On one occasion ADELYN BRESKIN completed arrangements with the French Government to have exhibited at the Baltimore Museum of Art a "Beautiful Exhibit of French Drawings." It was decided to have this exhibition turned over to the "National Gallery" in Washington, D. C., and it therefore was not shown in Baltimore. The museum does not have a truck with which to pick up paintings and drawings donated from people to the museum, and Mrs. BRESKIN therefore must on occasion take long trips to various parts of the country in order to pick up gifts and exhibits for the museum.

While Mrs. BRESKIN was curator of prints at the Metropolitan Museum in New York City she met ELIAS BRESKIN, conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and married him. She toured the world with her husband during his concert trips.

From the book entitled "Maryland Women" by MARJORIE LUCKER published in 1937, the following biographical data of ADELYN BRESKIN was obtained. She was born in 1896 at Roland Park, Baltimore, Maryland, and graduated from Bryn Mawr College in 1914. For five years she studied art at the Boston School of Fine Arts. She took courses at Harvard and Boston University and received instruction at the Boston Museum and Metropolitan Museum in New York. She married ELLS BRESKIN in 1920 and was divorced from him in 1933. At present her daughter JEAN is 25 years old, DOROTHY, 23, and GLORIA, 20. Mrs. BRESKIN writes articles and occasionally gives lectures in various parts of the country. She has taught graphic arts at Johns Hopkins University College of Fine Arts and has given radio talks. Prior to 1937 she had been in Europe every summer doing research. She expected to spend the summer of 1937 in Paris and London.

An article in the Baltimore-American newspaper dated February 12, 1939, by J. M. LOUGHBOROUGH gave additional background data concerning subject. Among LOUGHBOROUGH'S comments was the fact that BRESKIN is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. DOHLE, the multi-millionaire, Dr. DOHLE being a Chemist. Mrs. BRESKIN studied under FITZ ROY CARRINGTON, curator of arts at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. She also studied under C. HOWARD WALKER of Harvard University. She taught at the Commercial School in Pittsburgh, at Bryn Mawr, and at the Friends School in Philadelphia.

Baltimore telephone Wolfe 5500 is the number of the Johns Hopkins Hospital, where Doctor ALLAN C. WOODS, mentioned above, maintains his headquarters as head of the Wilner Institute. In view of the fact that despite professional good-standing, Doctor WOODS is indicated at least to be acquainted with Communist elements in Baltimore, a direct approach to him concerning the nature of instant calls is deemed unfavorable. In view of the further fact that the Baltimore Office has no information as to the background of the individuals who made the instant calls, it is not deemed appropriate to attempt to ascertain the nature of the calls by subterfuge because of the difficulty of arranging a sufficiently credible cover story for the inquiries. In the event the Washington Field Office is of the opinion that efforts should be made to determine the exact nature of the relationship between subjects and Doctor WOODS, as well as the various other doctors, it is requested that detailed information as to the background and activities of the individuals who have contacted them be furnished, Annapolis phone Old. 4888 was determined to be listed to NORMAN R. BELL and COMPANY, 616 Third Street, Eastport, a concrete products company. This phone is dually listed to ROLAND P. BELL. A check of the Baltimore Field Office indices and of the records of the Credit Bureau of Baltimore failed to reflect any record of these individuals. In view of the fact that this phone is a business phone primarily, no further inquiries are being made unless specifically requested by the Washington Field Office.

Baltimore phone Lexington 1460 is listed to the Maryland Container Company, Inc., 1515 Russell Street. Lafayette 1520 is listed to the Columbia Fibre Box Company, 1120 North Appleton Street. South 1010 is listed to the Maryland Paper Box Company, Northwest corner of Leadenhall and Ostend Streets. A check of the Baltimore Field Office indices with respect to these firms was negative. In view of the fact that these calls were made on the same date to business phones it would appear they were purely business calls and no further inquiries will be made concerning these calls unless specifically requested by the Washington Field Office.

Reference is made to the report in this case dated July 19, 1946, in which it was set forth that through a confidential informant it was ascertained that subject received a Christmas card from ARTHUR W. GERTH, St. Louis, Missouri, in 1944. In a letter dated August 13, 1946, the St. Louis Field Division furnished the following information regarding GERTH:

The current city directory and telephone directory for the city of St. Louis contains no information as to ARTHUR W. GERTH. However, a listing was located in the St. Louis County Directory for 1943, giving his address as 809 Westwood Drive, Clayton, St. Louis County, Missouri.

Contact with all the Selective Service boards for St. Louis County, however, had disclosed that GERTH is not a registrant with any of the boards. Through the Shaw Management Corporation it was determined that ARTHUR W. GERTH is an employee of the Rural Electrification Administration and came to St. Louis from Washington, D. C. with such agency approximately three years ago. He resided at 809 Westwood Drive, Clayton, Missouri, from then until January, 1946, when he returned to Washington upon the return of the REA to the seat of government. No further information relative to GERTH is available with the Shaw Management Corporation.

ARTHUR W. GERTH'S removal to Washington, D. C. from St. Louis, Missouri, has been verified through postal authorities with whom he filed a removal notice on January 10, 1946, advising his move from 809 Westwood Drive, Clayton, Missouri, to 3513 1/2 South Stafford, Fairlington Apartments, Arlington, Virginia.

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~RE: ~~INEZ (INES) ESPERANZA MUNOZ~~

This investigation was conducted by Special Agent VINCENT W. HUGHES.

Miss MUNOZ first came to attention in this case through Informant [REDACTED] ^{b2} ^{b7D} who advised that on November 25, 1945, in a conversation between JOSEPH GREGG and OLYA MARGOLIN, OLYA asked how Miss MUNOZ was and whether or not she was being transferred with the whole division (CIAA). JOE replied that Miss MUNOZ was being transferred and her future did not look very secure because she is not a citizen, and that is the "whole business". JOE stated he would hate to see her start out on a new job because she is not a little girl any more. OLYA said she seems to have gone down quite a bit in the last six months. JOE said he had been trying to persuade her not to try to look for a full time job, but to get something else. J u

On January 8, 1946, Miss MUNOZ contacted GREGG, telling him she had been offered a part time temporary job at Pan-American Union and asked if she could not leave "with dignity" the job she now has. He said she surely could and there would be nothing said of it. She said she was going to see PAU tomorrow at 4 PM, and was then going to Connecticut for the weekend. He told her not to resign without first talking it over with him. She said she would check with him after talking with PAU. J u

On January 9, 1946, MUNOZ again contacted GREGG and told him that the job about which she had inquired is very vague, so she decided nothing about it for the time being. GREGG suggested she see the man in the State Department who had said he would recommend her to some professors in New York if he liked her work. J u

On June 12, 1946, ROSE GREGG, wife of JOSEPH GREGG, called Miss MUNOZ to ask her to take any calls which came for JOE. She stated JOE would be in about one. J u

On June 13, 1946, ROSE GREGG again called Miss MUNOZ and stated JOE had told her how much he had enjoyed his visit with MUNOZ the previous night. He said he felt like he had been back in Madrid after talking with her. ROSE said, "We will just have to go back there some day", and INEZ replied, "It doesn't look very good though." ROSE stated, "I know it," and INEZ replied, "It is those people up there in New York". INEZ requested ROSE to advise JOE that there had been no messages for him. J u

On June 23, 1946, Informant [redacted] advised that HELEN TENNEY called INEZ and said she would bring her an egg plant, and that she would come to INEZ's place for supper about 6:30 PM. (X) u b2 b7D

Informant [redacted] advised that on June 26, 1946, ROSE GREGG called the operator and stated that for the next two days she wanted all of her calls referred to the HALPERINS at Sligo 6382, for two days, and then after that date to have them referred to INEZ MUNOZ at the William Penn Apartments, De 6674. (X) u b2 b7D

On July 11, 1946, Informant [redacted] advised that HELEN TENNEY called MUNOZ and asked if Mr. PRATT had called her. INEZ said no, and HELEN said, "He wants the speed up method." HELEN recalled that INEZ had helped someone else out quickly — the person who was going to South America. (X) u b2 b7D

On October 20, 1942, the Washington Field Office received a letter from the Bureau, requesting an employee investigation of Miss MUNOZ, who was being considered for employment at the OERI. The Bureau's letter listed Miss MUNOZ address at that time as 3418 Brown Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. The position for which she was being considered was Senior Bi-lingual Clerk - OERI. The letter further stated that Miss MUNOZ was born at Madrid, Spain, November 17, 1879; that she is single and has taken out her first citizenship papers. Miss MUNOZ listed as a reference, Mrs. FRANCIS BIDDLE, 1669 31st Street, N. W., (ex-Attorney General's wife).

Under previous employment applicant stated she was employed by the Hemisphere Corporation (operating under contract to CIAA), Washington, D. C., as Assistant Librarian to J. B. GREGG, from April to August, 1942, salary $2300 per annum; as translator under ROBERT T. MILLER in New York City. (The GREGG and MILLER referred to in the above sentence are subjects GREGG and ROBERT T. MILLER, III, in this case.)

Applicant stated she was employed by the Spanish Refugee Committee, 381 4th Avenue, New York City, as Translator, from February, 1939 to February, 1940, salary $15 a week, and that she had done private tutoring and three months with Editorial Techica Unida, King Street, Brooklyn, New York, as proofreader and translator from August, 1941 to April, 1942. Applicant stated she had also been employed by the Society for Organizing Charity, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from October, 1910 to April, 1913, salary $150 per month; French "Orphelinat des Armes", U. S. Branch, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as secretary from October, 1918 to March, 1919, salary $150 per month.

The Bureau letter also stated that MUNOZ was included in the list of writers of the Federated Press. (The Federated Press, according to the files of the Washington Field Office, serves 170 labor periodicals and publications outside the labor field, including Socialist, Communist and Union organs, presently operates three bureaus, Washington, Detroit and New York City; maintains about 50 correspondents in key cities throughout the U. S., working without compensation; extreme left-wing writers predominate among correspondents, many being Communist Party members or Fellow Travellers.)

The Washington Field Office employee investigation of MUNOZ reflected no derogatory information at that time except a clipping obtained from the Daily Worker dated August 15, 1938, concerning an article on the Workers School, 35 East 12th Street, New York City. The article indicated that one INEZ MUNOZ, a journalist, graduated from said school and stated, "----- last Friday night, 40 people equipped with Marxist-Leninist teachings graduated from the first summer day school". The article went on to refer to MUNOZ as "A lady from Spain, white haired, soft accent, and remarkable vigor, graduated proudly with the others". She was INEZ MUNOZ, a journalist, who wanted to learn more in order to help more the cause of the workers in her own brave land and here as well. It was Miss MUNOZ who made the presentation of the class gift to the Workers School -- a full shelf of books to add to the ever-growing library."

On August 23, 1946, the Bureau directed a memorandum to the Washington Field Office containing a compilation of information in the Bureau's file on Miss MUNOZ, which follows.

"Reference is made to information received from a highly confidential source on August 19, 1946, to the effect that one MARJORIE THOMPSON, while contacting Mrs. JENNIE MILLER, wife of ROBERT TALBOTT MILLER, III, advised that she, MARJORIE, is employed with the American Institute of Foreign Trade at Phoenix, Arizona. Miss THOMPSON stated that she had an applicant by the name of INEZ MUNOZ who had applied for a job teaching Spanish. JENNIE referred to her as a wonderful person who is energetic and lively and who in her opinion would be an asset to the organization. It was mentioned that the teaching job would be at Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. MILLER said she knew her husband would be glad to furnish a reference. Miss THOMPSON said that INEZ would be teaching Spanish to men who intended to have Latin American business connections. ku

"It is recalled that INEZ MUNOZ is a close contact of HELEN B. TENNEY, a former employee of OSS and the State Department. INEZ MUNOZ is also a close contact of JOSEPH B. GREGG, formerly of the Office of Inter-American Affairs and the State Department. INEZ MUNOZ was an employee of JOSEPH GREGG at the Office of Inter-American Affairs. ku

"INEZ MUNOZ was one of the writers who prepared articles for the Federated Press during the period January 17, 1937, to April 5, 1938.

A highly confidential source advised that in January, 1945, Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT T. MILLER were invited to the residence of a Miss MINUOFF (phonetic) at Apartment 109, William Penn Apartments, 2231 California Street, N. W., for dinner in order to meet her niece who is an employee of the State Department in Chile. This apartment was determined to be listed to Miss I. MUNOZ, who is believed to be identical with Miss MINUOFF (phonetic) mentioned above. (A) u

"Upon GREGG's actual departure he made arrangements to have his mail forwarded to INEZ MUNOZ's apartment where she in turn would forward it to him in Canada." (A) u

From Washington Field Office File 101-1806, entitled "ETTA HIRSCHFIELD", it appears that the name of INEZ MUNOZ, Pinelands, Center Harbor, New Hampshire, was contained in the list of names and addresses maintained in a book by subject HIRSCHFIELD. HIRSCHFIELD was reported by many informants as a notorious Communist.

Mrs. WILLIAM W. ANDERSON, Resident Manager of the William Penn Apartments, 2231 California Street, N. W., was interviewed, and she advised that Miss INEZ MUNOZ had been living in Apartment 109 of her building for several years. Mrs. ANDERSON stated MUNOZ frequently visited her but that their discussions always pertained to personal matters. Mrs. ANDERSON advised that MUNOZ is exceedingly pleasant and apparently has no outside interests other than her work, and has a very small circle of friends who visit with her. Mrs. ANDERSON recalled that on one occasion Miss MUNOZ stated that if FRANCO were ousted from Spain, she would return to that country, which is her home.

Mrs. ANDERSON stated that MUNOZ resigned from her position, which she believes was with the State Department, some time in July, and at the present time she apparently is doing translation work on her own, in her apartment. Two of MUNOZ's best friends, according to Mrs. ANDERSON, are Miss ALIX REUTHER, who according to Mrs. ANDERSON has a very good job in the State Department, and Mrs. MANDA SANDVIG. Mrs. ANDERSON stated that through the intercession of MUNOZ, apartments were obtained in the William Penn Apartments for both REUTHER and SANDVIG. A

By letter dated August 5, 1943, the Bureau instructed the Seattle Field Division to conduct an employee investigation on MANDA MARGARET SANDVIG, nee POLLEY, who appears to be the same individual who was a friend of MUNOZ. SECRETRE: JAMES R. NEWMAN~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Confidential Informant [redacted] whose identity is known to the Bureau, advised on July 26, 1946, that NEWMAN had had some work done sometime previously by the Royal Typewriter Company, Inc., 1701 - 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D.C. On the same date the informant advised that Mrs. JAMES R. NEWMAN had been contacted by Bloomingdale Brothers, Inc., Lexington Avenue and 59th Street, New York City. (S)(u)

Reference is made to the report in this case dated July 19, 1946, in which information was set forth that through a confidential source it has been ascertained that NEWMAN had been in touch with an individual known as "Madge" of 192 Gulf Street, Milford, Connecticut. "Madge" had advised that all arrangements had been made for NEWMAN'S vacation in Milford. She also mentioned that NEWMAN should send her mail in care of LEVY, Box #307, Ridgefield, Connecticut. On August 13, 1946, the New Haven Office furnished the following information regarding LEVY, Post Office Box #307, Ridgefield, Connecticut: U JK

It was ascertained that P. O. Box #307 at Ridgefield, Connecticut, Post Office was rented by a Mr. B. E. LEVY, who resided at Barracks Hill Road, Ridgefield, Connecticut. A discreet neighborhood investigation reflected that BENJAMIN E. LEVY and his wife, REGINA LEVY, resided at Barracks Hill Road, Ridgefield, Connecticut, and were well regarded locally having resided in this section since 1939. Mr. and Mrs. LEVY both of French-Jewish ancestry, and he was formerly connected with the Coty Perfume Company. It was stated that he was presently retired from business, but believed to maintain a suite of rooms in the Sherry Netherland Hotel, New York City, and to maintain a bank account at the Fifth Avenue Bank, New York City. REGINA LEVY is active in social work in Ridgefield, acting as Secretary-Treasurer of the local Girl Scouts group, and having been active in the Red Cross, Office of Price Administration Ration Board, and War Bond drives in this area during the war. It was determined that regularly REGINA LEVY ships packages to France and it was ascertained that she recently shipped two packages to Madame JEAN ARON and WILLY MARTETTE at 115 Avenue Victor Hugo, Paris France.

Both Mr. and Mrs. BENJAMIN LEVY were stated to enjoy an excellent reputation in the community and had not been associated with any un-American or subversive groups although it is noted that under date of June 29, 1944, the New Canaan Connecticut advertiser newspaper reflected that a branch of the Russian War Relief had been organized at Ridgefield, Connecticut, and among the persons who had expressed a desire to prepare a clothing kit for this organization was Mrs. BENJAMIN E. LEVY.

BENJAMIN E. LEVY acted as sponsor for HELENE LEVY, ROSE GUTNAJER and CHUYA GUTNAJER, French refugees, who arrived at Baltimore, Maryland, on the SS

NYASSI during July of 1942. At that time BENJAMIN E. LEVY and his wife REGINA LEVY were interviewed and advised that these French refugees were previous acquaintances of theirs and they vouched for their character, stating that they were opposed to Communism and Fascism. Information obtained at this time was that BENJAMIN LEVY had been born at Rheims, France, in 1878 of French parents, EELIX and HENRIETTA LEVY. BENJAMIN LEVY and his family entered the United States in 1897 and resided at New York City until 1939. LEVY was naturalized at New York City in 1910, and had been chairman of the Board of Directors of Coty, Inc., a perfume company in New York City, although he was now retired. However, he still maintains offices at Room 2 E, Ritz Carlton Hotel, New York City.

REGINA LEVY advised at that time that she had come to the United States at the age of six months with her parents in the year 1882. Her parents were ADOLPH and SAR SOLOMON who were French citizens residing at Lille, France. REGINA LEVY's father was naturalized in 1895 at New York City and she lived with her parents and husband at New York City until 1939 and then her husband purchased an estate at Ridgefield, Connecticut. REGINA S. LEVY advised that they owned a winter home at 90 Rue de Courcelles, Paris, and wintered at this address from 1930 to 1939.

Reference is made to the report in this case dated July 19, 1946, in which information was set forth that a confidential informant had furnished a letter dated May 10, 1943, written by Colonel D. W. WAINHOUSE, AUS, to Professor J. L. BRIERLY, Oxford, England, introducing the subject to BRIERLY.

Confidential Informant [redacted] furnished the following information concerning PERAZICH's activities from August 1 through August 15, 1946. (C) (u) (X) (u) b2 b7D

On August 7, 1946, DOROTHY KAPLAN was in contact with AMELIA PERAZICH, during which conversation AMELIA remarked that her husband, GEORGE, was getting ready to go to Belgrade again. He was supposed to go about seven months ago but for some reason the trip was delayed. She said that GEORGE had been swamped with requests from friends to take things, such as money, clothing, and scarce articles to the starving people in Belgrade. According to AMELIA, GEORGE would go to Geneva, then to London, Paris and Belgrade. He would probably be gone for a period of two to two and a half months. (C) (u) (X) (u)

On August 13, 1946, AMELIA PERAZICH advised DOROTHY KAPLAN that GEORGE had not left yet, however, he was supposed to leave on Friday but his passport expires on Saturday. (C) (u) (X) (u)

AMELIA told DOROTHY that CARL GREEN had visited them recently and asked about her. AMELIA had accidentally met GREEN on the street car as a result of which she invited him out to their house. According to AMELIA, GREEN had been in the hospital for some time and was now working with the Metropolitan Radio Station. (C) (u) (X) (u)

DOROTHY and AMELIA made arrangements for the KAPLANS to go to the PERAZICH's house for dinner on the following Thursday. (C) (u) (X) (u)

On August 15th, DOROTHY KAPLAN advised AMELIA PERAZICH that she would see AMELIA at her house about 3:30 PM. (C) (u) (X) (u)

It was ascertained from the Pan-American Airlines that GEORGE M. PERAZICH had a reservation on Flight 100, scheduled to leave LaGuardia Field, New York, on August 10, 1946 at 2 PM, for London. (C) (u) (X) (u)

It was ascertained from a confidential source that PERAZICH's reservation on this flight was cancelled due to the State Department's refusing PERAZICH a passport. (C) (u) (X) (u)

ALLAN R. ROSENBERG

The following investigation is reported by Special Agent GEORGE G. MCKENNA for the period August 1 to 15, 1946.

On August 1, 1946, WARREN SHARFMAN spoke to ALLAN ROSENBERG. He told ALLAN he had received a letter from VERNON WILKERSON (phonetic) to the effect that their case had been consolidated by the Commission (The Federal Communications Commission is probably referred to.) with a special hearing because of the possibility of electrical interference. WARREN said he would write WILKERSON a letter bringing him up to date and reminding him that he had not yet paid the minimum fee of $400. This conversation apparently refers to an attempt on the part of one of ROSENBERG's clients to obtain a radio outlet in the Los Angeles area.

*ONE INFT. [redacted] had nothing other than this to report until August 14, 1946, concerning the activities of the ROSENBERGS in view of the fact that they departed from Washington on August 1, 1946, for a two-week vacation.

On August 14, 1946, CARL GREEN got in touch with ERNA ROSENBERG who told him they had spent their vacation with ALLAN's sister on Cape Cod. CARL GREEN said MAYNARD GERTLER and his wife, the DAVID WAHLS, and the BOWEN SMITHS had returned from their vacations. CARL said he was still working at 1822 Jefferson Place, N. W. (where the offices of ROSENBERG and SHARFMAN are located). He thought the chances of his getting out of this town were slim. CARL said ED and RUTH RECHER had not gone on a vacation. CARL mentioned SHIRLEY COTEEN (phonetic) recently gave birth to a boy named CHARLES DOUGLAS. SHIRLEY's husband's name is apparently BERNIE COTEEN.

CARL stated JACK (phonetic) was destined for Europe on a special mission for President TRUMAN. JACK would act as special legal counsel to General LUCIUS CLAY. He would leave the United States in about a week and would be gone for about a month. CARL GREEN said, "Your husband saw him and will give you a full report on that. He is taking just one or two people, but he wants them like (ALLAN) ROSENBERG." CARL stated although it has not yet been published officially, HAROLD GLASSER (a subject of instant case) is going to be director of Monetary Research. CARL said that BILL TAYLOR who is acting director told him this.

CARL mentioned the (BOWEN ?) SMITHS had got a beautiful house in Georgetown and had sold their farm. He said "your friend" JOE FITZGERALD is now unemployed and at the present time is on annual leave. He stated DAVE WAHL had vacationed in New Milford but had kept returning to New York and Washington. CARL mentioned he had not seen PHIL DUNAWAY because he (DUNAWAY ?) was having a great deal of dental work done. CARL mentioned WAY was in Washington for August 14 and 15, 1946.

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Physical Surveillance

No physical surveillance was conducted on subject ALLAN ROSENBERG during the period of this report.

Apart from the information furnished by [redacted] it should be mentioned that a highly confidential and reliable informant furnished considerable information regarding the activities and contacts of ALLAN ROSENBERG. This information is being analyzed and assembled and will be set out in a future report.

In the Washington report in instant case dated July 8, 1946, it is set forth a red Plymouth sedan bearing Maryland 1946 license plate 141-872 was observed parked outside the home of BOWEN SMITH, 2818 N Street, N. W., during the course of a party which the occupants of this car were observed to attend.

By letter dated August 8, 1946, the Baltimore Field Office advised that the registration division of the Maryland Bureau of Motor Vehicles reflected these tags were issued to one GRACE PHILLIPS CRANWELL, 1622 Park Avenue, Baltimore, for a Plymouth sedan, which in 1943 was indicated to have been a used car. The records further reflected these tags had been forwarded to 2818 N Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

A check of the Baltimore City Directory reflected that GRACE P. CRANWELL, widow of JAMES H. CRANWELL, JOHN R. CRANWELL (U. S. Army), and MARTHA T. CRANWELL reside at 1622 Park Avenue.

A search of the Baltimore Field Office indices reflected on October 3, 1939, JOHN PHILLIPS CRANWELL, who at that time was a lieutenant in the Military Intelligence Reserve, had furnished a non-specific complaint regarding several individuals he suspected of belonging to pro-German or communistic organizations. This same individual furnished a second non-specific complaint regarding a suspected pro-Nazi on May 1, 1940.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Baltimore reflected Mrs. GRACE PHILLIPS CRANWELL, age 60-62, widow of JAMES H. CRANWELL, had been residing at 1622 Park Avenue since 1921. This report further indicated she had a son, one JOHN PHILLIPS CRANWELL, a lieutenant colonel in the U. S. Army, believed to be residing at 1532 16th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. The report indicated Mrs. CRANWELL had been left an estate valued at $130,051 by her husband who died in May, 1940.

From 1941 to 1942 he was employed as an economist and technical consultant for the House Committee investigating National Defense Migration (TOLAN Committee, Washington, D. C.). His supervisor in this job was Dr. ROBERT K. LAMB, who is now legislative representative of the United Steel Workers, CIO. In this capacity he made investigations and prepared reports on war production problems particularly on the conversion of peacetime industries to military output. During the last six months with this Committee he was detailed to Senators KILGORE, PEPPER and MURRAY, assisting them in studies of war mobilization and small business problems.

From 1943 to the present time he has been employed as Chief of Investigations and Hearings, Senate Committee on War Mobilization (KILGORE Committee at Washington, D. C.). He is in charge of the staff making investigations, preparing hearings and writing reports on war mobilization and reconversion problems.

During the time in which he was employed between August of 1941 to December of 1942, making investigations and writings for the House Committee investigating National Defense Migration, he spent his time from August, 1941, to March of 1942 serving as a staff liaison with Federal Agencies and preparing legal background for the hearings: September, 1941, at Detroit, Michigan on conversion of the automobile industry; November, 1941, Hastings and Omaha, Nebraska, and St. Louis on use of capacity and labor supply of the midwest communities. He further assisted in organizing and preparing hearings of October, 1941, and December, 1941, on need and methods for all-out conversion of American Industry to war effort.

He was co-author of the Committee's second interim report "Recommendation on Full Utilization of America's Industrial Capacity and Labor Supply in the War Effort" and he was author of the Committee's third interim report on the "Need for Single Procurement Agency to Effect All-out War Production."

From February, 1942, to May of 1942, his work concerned the evacuation of enemy aliens and others from prohibited military zones. In connection with this he served as staff liaison with Washington Federal Agencies in preparation of West Coast Japanese hearings of February and March of 1942, and also participated in drafting the Committee's report on this subject in May of 1942.

From June, 1942, to September, 1942, he was active in the mobilization of manpower and in this capacity joined in organizing and preparing Committee hearings on the subject. He stated that he had formulated and drafted the PEPPER-KILGORE-TOLAN War Mobilization Bill and jointly with ROBERT K. LAMB and PALMER WEBER organized and prepared hearings for Senator PEPPER'S Subcommittee on the PEPPER-KILGORE-TOLAN Bill.

From August, 1942, to date ^{Herbert} SCHIMMEL has been engaged as the Clerk for the investigations and writings for Senate Mobilization Committee (KILGORE Committee) and as such made studies of the mobilization of scientific and technical resources in preparation for the formulation of the Science Mobilization Bill which had extensive hearings in both the 77th and 78th Congress. In this connection he also made studies for a postwar National Science Foundation.

From March of 1943 to October of 1943 his interests were centered in the mobilization of the Nation's shipping resources. His staff studies, leading to Committee Report Number 3 in October, 1943, absolved the current falacy that shipping facilities constituted a bottleneck to the opening of a full scaled United States Military Operation in Europe.

In November of 1943 and to date extensive hearings and staff studies have been conducted on the effects of monopolies and cartels. These hearings and investigations have been guided by SCHIMMEL and the Committee Report Number 4 was issued on this matter in November of 1944. This report developed a program for expanding world trade through international economic agreements and their substitution for private cartels. It also formulated an economic program with respect to Germany which had the distinction of embodying many of the points agreed on by the "Big Three" at the Crimean Conference.

SCHIMMEL was also a leading figure in the studies on reconversion to full employment which led to the formulation of the KILGORE Reconversion Bill which was introduced in March of 1944. This bill was revised and reported out by the Senate Military Affairs Committee and was eventually defeated and an emasculated version substituted for it by Senator GEORGE.

The informant further made available a list of selected writings and publications for the National Research Project which SCHIMMEL had made while employed with that organization from November, 1936, to July, 1941. This listing is set forth hereinafter:

1. The Characteristics and Role of Modern Industrial Techniques. (Part of Final Report of the National Research Project, in publication.) - Author

This final report was the concluding and summarizing study of approximately 60 studies on "The Effect of Changes in Industrial Techniques on Employment Opportunities." It consisted of four parts, of which Part I is an analytical treatment of the related scientific technical and economic factors.

2. Trends in Scale of Operation and the Economic Role of Large Capacity Equipment (Unpublished manuscript, summary of which is embodied in above final report.) - Author.
3. Industrial Instruments and Changing Technology, October 1938, co-author.
4. Technology, Employment, and Output per Man in Petroleum and Natural-Gas Production, July 1939, co-author.
5. Mechanization in the Cement Industry, December 1939, co-author.
6. Industrial Research and Changing Technology, January 1939, consultant and contributor.
7. Industrial Change and Employment Opportunity - A selected Bibliography, July 1939, consultant and contributor.

The informant also made available the following listing of sources of information which are believed to be either in the possession of the subject or available to him. These sources list information which can be gotten from the Office of Military Government in the United States, the Department of State, Military Intelligence and many other confidential sources. This list is being set out hereinafter:

home address as 616 West Westview Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and his occupation as a student. It is further to be noted that in a previous portion of this report he had stated that he had taken his secondary education at Haifa, Palestine.

INVESTIGATION AND PHYSICAL SURVEILLANCE

On July 31, 1946, the Newark Field Division and the Philadelphia Field Division were advised that HERBERT SCHIMMEL had left Washington several days previously and had left the following forwarding addresses with the Subcommittee on Scientific Research for the Senate Military Affairs Committee where he is employed as a Clerk:

1419 North Marshall Street
305 East Lavender Street

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Wildwood Crest, New Jersey.

Descriptions of SCHIMMEL and his wife and family were furnished to the above offices.

Both the Newark and Philadelphia Field Divisions were requested to immediately attempt to locate SCHIMMEL and notify this office of his whereabouts in order that this office could undertake to perform a highly confidential investigation in connection with SCHIMMEL.

By memorandum dated August 2, 1946, the Philadelphia Field Division advised that a surveillance of 1419 North Marshall Street was instituted on July 31, 1946, at 7:45 P. M. and at 10:45 P. M. Special Agent L. H. HEIDINGER telephoned from the Newark Field Office to advise that SCHIMMEL, his wife and two children had left Wildwood Crest, New Jersey, at 10:00 P. M. in a blue sedan bearing Washington, D. C. License Tags Number 108-251. SCHIMMEL told his landlord at Wildwood Crest that he was going to Philadelphia for a few days.

At 12:10 A. M., August 1, 1946, SCHIMMEL and his family arrived at 1419 North Marshall Street in the above mentioned car and at 1:05 A. M. all all lights in the North Marshall Street address were extinguished. The car was parked in the street all night and at 7:30 A. M. a woman, presumed to be Mrs. J. ZUKIN, left 1419 North Marshall Street carrying a shopping bag. She was approximately sixty years of age.

At 10:15 A. M. SCHIMMEL and his two children left 1419 North Marshall Street in the above described Chevrolet car and proceeded to Logan Square, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on a sightseeing tour. They visited Fels Planetarium, the natural history museum and the free public library, returning to 1419 North Marshall Street at 1:30 P. M.

The Philadelphia office further advised that the indices of that office reflect that [REDACTED]

On August 7, 1946, LYNN E. MOTE, a former Agent of this Bureau, who is now employed by Senator EUGENE D. MILLIKIN (R), Colorado, was interviewed by the writer and at this time he stated that SCHIMMEL had come to the attention of Senator WHERRY from Nebraska who had introduced a resolution to the effect that all names and salaries of personnel on loan from other Agencies be published and further that all such employees be returned to their own Agency by the close of the 79th Congress. MOTE stated that Senator WHERRY had become very much disturbed by the activities of SCHIMMEL on the floor of the Senate and in the cloak rooms of the Senate Office Building. MOTE said that WHERRY had denounced him on the floor and had complained of him approaching other Senators on the floor of the Senate and in the cloak rooms in an attempt to influence them on legislation.

MOTE further disclosed that Senator WHERRY had caught SCHIMMEL on various occasions eavesdropping on conversations between members of the Senate.

As a result of this discovery by Senator WHERRY he had a private investigation conducted by GEORGE E. W. SMITH for the House Minority Group into the background of HERBERT SCHIMMEL.

NOTE stated that SCHIMMEL lives in the same apartment building as he does and that he had seen him in association with both CHARLES KRAMER and SOLOMON A. LESCHINSKY who are subjects in this case. NOTE gave the following description of HERBERT SCHIMMEL:

This woman was dressed in a pale green dress, white hat, shoes, gloves and purse. This woman was later identified as being the chief telephone operator in the House Office Building, Room 211 Sub-basement, and her name was ascertained to be Mrs. NENA THOMAS, who resides in the Greenway Apartments on 119 Anacostia Road, Apartment 102. On this date SCHIMMEL drove to a point between First and Second Street on B Street and parked opposite the Congressional Shoe Repair Shop, 135 B Street. RE: ABRAHAM GEORGE SILVERMAN

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent H. D. PAYNE.

The mail cover placed on subject from August 1 to August 15 produced the following results. (A)u

From	To	Postmark
National Gypsum Company, 325 Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, New York	Mrs. Sara S. Silverman 2325 15th Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.	Buffalo, N. Y. 8-1-46

During the period from August 1 through August 15, 1946, Confidential Informant [redacted] furnished the following information concerning subject's activities. (A)u

On August 1, 1946, CHRIS WAGNER was in contact with GEORGE SILVERMAN. CHRIS mentioned that O'DWYER, apparently Mayor O'DWYER of New York, had been awfully nice to his wife, FLORENCE, and that O'DWYER had made very complimentary remarks about GEORGE. GEORGE was going to New York that weekend to spend several days with his son, DICK. (A)u

On this same date JEROME OHRBACK attempted to get in touch with GEORGE SILVERMAN and was advised by SARAH that GEORGE had taken the PM train to New York, and was going to stay at the Pennsylvania Hotel. (A)u

On August 2, 1946, FRANK CONNOLLY attempted to contact GEORGE SILVERMAN but was advised by SARAH that GEORGE was in New York and expected to go from New York to Boston to visit with DICK. FRANK wanted to know what GEORGE intended to do. SARAH replied she did not know but thought that was one of the reasons he went to New York. (A)u

On the same date an individual known only to the informant as GENE, is believed to be a friend of DICK's. GENE contacted SARAH SILVERMAN and wanted to know if she or GEORGE had seen the book he is selling, called "The Great Conspiracy Against Russia". SARAH had not read this book nor had she heard of it. GENE agreed to bring her and GEORGE a copy. (A)u

On August 2, 1946, JOE SILVERMAN conferred with SARAH, at which time SARAH advised she intended to go to Boston about August 31st for one week. JOE asked SARAH what had happened to their friend DAVE WEINTRAUB. SARAH was unable to answer, but did state that LaGUARDIA gave him three months pay. (A)u and he had two months leave. Therefore he would be paid for five months. She did say that DAVE had told GEORGE he had been offered any number of jobs. (S) u

On August 5, 1946, SOL ADLER contacted SARAH SILVERMAN and advised her he was leaving Washington the following morning, and wanted to thank her and GEORGE for "everything". (S) u

On August 8, 1946, GEORGE SILVERMAN cancelled a luncheon engagement with FRANK CONNOLLY that day, but made arrangements to see him over the following weekend. (S) u

On this same date CHRIS WAGNER conferred with GEORGE SILVERMAN concerning some surplus property, in which they were dealing, and during the conversation WAGNER mentioned he was having lunch with FRANK (believed to be FRANK CONNOLLY), the following day, whereupon SILVERMAN launched a denunciation of FRANK, saying his word was no good and he did not live up to any of his promises. From this conversation it appeared that FRANK CONNOLLY was assisting WAGNER in his surplus property deals by advising him in advance as to what property would be declared surplus. WAGNER mentioned that CONNOLLY was LITTLEJOHN's deputy. (S) u

On August 9, 1946, GEORGE SILVERMAN was in contact with DAVID WHITE, at which time they discussed a deal concerning a large quantity of barbed wire. (S) u

On August 12th, GEORGE SILVERMAN advised CHRIS WAGNER that he will officially be working for the French for another week, but actually he has not done anything for a couple of months. GEORGE also stated he was going to New York the following day. (S) u

On August 13th, SILVERMAN contacted his wife, SARAH, and advised her he had seen BILL O'DWYER who wanted him to go down the Hudson River with him to talk over certain "problems". He also wanted him to come to New York and would give him some sort of a job which would pay around $7500. He also mentioned that JERRY had offered him a job for about $7500 but he was not going to take any job unless he could have time off to take care of his own business. (S) u

On August 14, 1946, SILVERMAN had a long conversation with CHRIS WAGNER. This time they discussed various surplus property deals and SILVERMAN also told WAGNER about his meeting with O'DWYER, who was very anxious to have SILVERMAN's services. According to SILVERMAN, O'DWYER wanted to start a (S) u

On July 15th informant advised that Mayor O'DWYER's office contacted SILVERMAN and advised that the boat ride for Sunday was off, inasmuch as they could not obtain a boat swift enough. (S) u

A mail cover placed on the subject during the period of this report was unproductive. (e) u

The following information was obtained from ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ regarding activities of subject from August 1 to 15, 1946. b2 b7D

On August 2, 1946, informant advised that Madame ~~LUGUET~~, presently a house guest of the SILVERMASTERS, was planning to sail for France on the "Indo-Chinois." Madame LUGUET is the widow of General CHARLES LUGUET, former military attache at the French Embassy who died in December, 1945. It is apparent the informant advises that Mrs. LUGUET is returning to France with her furniture and automobile at the expense of the French government.

On August 6, 1946, confidential informant advised LUDWIG ULLMANN attempted to contact Dr. ISADORE ~~ALFIER~~ on several occasions without success.

On the same date LUDWIG ULLMANN contacted the Naval Medical Center requesting information regarding the admittance of a naval dischargee for treatment in an emergency case involving undulant fever. Informant suggested it is possible ULLMANN was making inquiries regarding the admittance of ANATOLE VOLKOV to the Naval Hospital inasmuch as it had been previously ascertained that ANATOLE ~~VOLKOV~~ was subjected to an attack of undulant fever while at the beach cottage of the SILVERMASTERS at Harvey Cedars, New Jersey.

On August 7, 1946, HELEN SILVERMASTER contacted GREGORY SILVERMASTER at his office advising she had just arrived home with ANATOLE and that ULLMANN had agreed to take ANATOLE to the hospital on that evening. HELEN SILVERMASTER then contacted LUDWIG ULLMANN and congratulated him on getting a place for ANATOLE at the Naval Hospital.

In a subsequent contact with DICK SASULY, HELEN SILVERMASTER advised him that ANATOLE may have both undulant fever and tuberculosis. DICK advised HELEN he may have his book completed this week. HELEN extended an invitation to SASULY to accompany them to the beach on the following weekend and if necessary he may complete his book at the beach and still take it to New York on the following Monday or Tuesday. SASULY indicated he had had several talks with ELIZABETH, his wife, in California and she is working very hard and likes it there very much.

On August 9, 1946, informant advised apparently ANATOLE VOLKOV was not receiving proper attention at the Naval Hospital and LUDWIG ULLMANN advised HELEN SILVERMASTER that EMILY KLOTZ talked with Undersecretary of the Navy SULLIVAN and ~~at that time~~ KLOTZ said he would call the hospital and ask for a report on ANATOLE and advise her. She was under the impression this expression of interest ought to get some action.

On the same date DICK SASULY advised HELEN SILVERMASTER that ISADORE SALKIND is going to marry ELEANOR DRIESEN, former wife of DANNY DRIESEN.

Informant advised HELEN SILVERMASTER contacted JENNY MILLER, wife of subject ROBERT MILLER, on August 10, 1946, and explained in great detail ANATOLE's illness and his treatment at the Bethesda Medical Center. She also expressed displeasure at the behavior of JOHN and CYNTHIA DIERKES during their visit to the SILVERMASTER beach cottage, particularly their neglect in contributing to the expenses and upkeep of the establishment. She also mentioned GREGORY SILVERMASTER is not feeling too well and has been quite unhappy these days.

Subsequently however, LUDWIG ULLMANN contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER and advised her JOHN DIERKES gave him an envelope with $200 in it, apparently a contribution to the maintenance of the beach home during their extended visit there.

POLYA HABICHT contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER on August 13, 1946, and advised she was unable to keep her appointment for a visit to the SILVERMASTERS that evening.

Informant furnished no other information of value during the period of this report.

TAYLOR while staying at the Washington Hotel called the following identified telephone numbers during the period July 5th through August 13, 1946:

Telephone Number	Subscriber
OL 3783	Colonel BERNARD BERNSTEIN 407 Battery Lane, Bethesda, Maryland
ME 2260	Dr. EDITH SEVILLE COLE Hay Adams House, Washington, D. C.
EM 9283	HAROLD GLASSER 5410 Cathedral Avenue, NW.
EM 6720	NATHAN G. SILVERMASTER 5515 30th Street, NW.

On May 18, 1946, TAYLOR while staying at the Washington Hotel made the following long distance telephone call:

"2669 ~~L. HADEN~~, ~~ETHEL~~ BROOKS, - Charlottesville, Virginia."

A check of the Charlottesville, Virginia, phone directory listed the above number to LLEWELLYN ~~P. HADEN~~, Foxden Farm. This same telephone directory listed no subscriber by the name of ETHEL BROOKS.

On July 9, 14, 21, 29 and August 4 and 12, TAYLOR, while staying at the Washington Hotel made long distance calls to 3-3608, Sacramento, California.

With reference to the foregoing E. M. BERNSTEIN, 3513 Northampton Street, NW., it is to be noted that this individual is employed as an Assistant Director of Monetary Research in the Treasury Department and is a co-worker of subject GLASSER. It is of interest to note that on February 9, 1946, a physical surveillance revealed that a car bearing D. C. License 112-19 issued to EDWARD M. ~~BERNSTEIN~~, 3513 Northampton Street, NW., arrived at the home of HAROLD GLASSER with several individuals to attend a party.

It is to be noted the above mentioned Colonel BERNARD BERNSTEIN, 407 Battery Lane, has figured prominently in this investigation.

In connection with JOSIAH E. DU BOIS, 1023 Woodside Parkway, Silver Spring, Maryland, Confidential Informant [redacted] advised on December 17, 1945 that an individual believed to be Colonel BERNARD BERNSTEIN conferred with HARRY WHITE. At that time BERNSTEIN asked WHITE if he knew JOE ~~DU BOIS~~ (ph) was back. BERNSTEIN said JOE asked about Treasury. It is further to be noted that in DREW PEARSON'S column of April 4, 1946, mention was made of Postmaster General HANAGAN'S group of young braintrusters known as "HANAGAN'S Task Forces" organized to help push President TRUMAN'S legislation through Congress. PEARSON in that article stated that JOE DUBOIS of Treasury was present at a luncheon of this group. This individual may be identical with JOSIAH E. DU BOIS who was telephoned by subject TAYLOR (S)(u)

Concerning MAYNARD GERTLER, previously mentioned, Confidential Informant [redacted] on February 1, 1946, advised that ALLEN ROSENBERG suggested to ERNA ROSENBERG that she call the GERTLERS and WAHLS and the DUNAWAYS. ERNA remarked that this would make the ROSENBERGS, the GERTLERS, the RUBENSTEINS, CARL, the DUNAWAYS and the WAHLS. b2 b7D

This same informant on February 3, 1946, indicated that ERNA ROSENBERG intended to have the GERTLERS, the GLASSERS, DAVID WAHL and others to dinner on February 3, 1946. This informant further stated on February 4, 1946, that in a conversation between ERNA ROSENBERG and EMILY SHARFMAN, ERNA spoke of a party at her home. She said a nice couple was there by the name of GERTLER and she expected to see a lot of them. She said Mr. GERTLER is from Canada and he works for the FEA under BOWEN SMITH and is terribly wealthy. His wife is a member of the R. H. MAJY STRAUSS family, has lots of money and dresses crazily. She said Mrs. GERTLER is very nice and very intellectual.

Confidential Informant [redacted] on May 27, 1946, stated that CARL GREEN told MAURICE HALPERIN that he heard through BOB that MAURICE wanted to meet a fellow who made a broadcast about a week or so ago. GREEN said the GERTLERS would be the means of contact and that MAYNARD GERTLER said it was possible and he would like to meet HALPERIN. This same informant on May 27, 1946, stated that PHIL DUNAWAY contacted MAURICE HALPERIN. MAURICE told PHIL that CARL GREEN was bringing MAYNARD GERTLER to his house and WAHL also was going to be there. b2 b7D u

Confidential Informant [redacted] stated that on May 28, 1946, Mrs. HALPERIN in a conversation with TERRY SORACCO said she met MAYNARD GERTLER and his wife on a previous evening and was very favorably impressed by them. b2 b7D u

Confidential Informant [redacted] advised that LILLIAN DUNAWAY told the HALPERINS on July 19th and August 1st that she expected to go to MAYNARD GERTLER'S farm for the weekend. (S) u b2 b7D

It is to be noted the above ANSEL F. LUXFORD, 3908 Huntington Street, NW., who was phoned by TAYLOR is the assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury. u

With regard to EMANUEL E. MINSKOFF, 3916 Kinsbury Drive, Silver Spring, Maryland, Confidential Informant [redacted] furnished the following information. On February 20, 1945, MINSKOFF contacted ELEANOR DRIESEN at the CIO Maritime Committee and they conferred regarding the obtaining of a copy of a decision of the Immigration Board of Appeals reversing the opinion of Judge SEARS. (Reference is probably made to the HARRY BRIDGES case.) b2 b7D

On February 23, 1945, Mr. MINSKOFF of the Treasury Department called ELEANOR DRIESEN and discussed the advisability of obtaining the services of a law firm to draw up a brief in the HARRY BRIDGES case. MINSKOFF said he would consult LEE PRESSMAN and then would call ELEANOR. (X) u

On February 26, 1945, ELEANOR KAHN, CIO Maritime Committee, contacted E. E. MINSKOFF, Extension 2595 at the Treasury Department. (This extension is in the General Counsel's office.) During this contact these two individuals discussed the HARRY BRIDGES case in detail. They conversed regarding the drawing up of a brief for the BRIDGES case to be presented to President ROOSEVELT through the Secretary. (X) u

The above informant further stated that MINSKOFF contacted ELEANOR DRIESEN on March 19, 1945, at which time she stated she had something for MINSKOFF and would drop by to give it to him. (X) u

Regarding ARTHUR W. STUART, the subscriber to a phone number called by TAYLOR, it is to be noted that this office conducted a Hatch Act investigation on one ARTHUR WATERS STUART who was a Senior Agricultural Economist, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Department of Agriculture, who may be identical with ARTHUR W. STUART. It is to be noted the STUART who was the subject of the Hatch Act Investigation on March 19, 1942, stated he was residing at 8418 Woodcliff Court, Silver Spring, Maryland. A review of the file in the Hatch Act Investigation in 1942 reveals that ARTHUR WATERS STUART was born September 27, 1908, at Palo Alto, California, and by virtue thereof is an American citizen. Mr. STUART was connected with the University of California from November, 1933, to June, 1934, as a Research Assistant working under the Giannini Foundation. He was employed as an Agricultural Economist by the State Emergency Relief Administration, California, from June, 1934 to May, 1935. Prior to STUART'S connection with the State of California he was employed by the Systems Sales Division of Remington-Rand, Inc., San Francisco, California, from July, 1930 to July, 1932. He began his employment with the United States Department of Agriculture on May 7, 1935, in the Division of Rural Rehabilitation Resettlement.

STUART resigned this position September 30, 1937, to accept a fellowship in the Graduate School of Public Administration, Hartford University, returning to the Department of Agriculture on July 1, 1939, as a collaborator in the Division of State and Local Planning. As of March, 1942, STUART held the position of Senior Agricultural Economist, Bureau of Agricultural Economics at $4600.00 per annum.

The basis for the Hatch Act Investigation was the listing of the name ARTHUR STUART, 1135 16th Street, NW., Washington, D. C., as a member of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action. The investigation in the case produced no evidence of un-American Activities or membership in un-American organizations by ARTHUR STUART. STUART under oath denied membership in the Washington Committee for Democratic Action. The Bureau advised that no administrative action was being taken against the subject in that investigation.
