DECLASSIFIED BY SP-6 R. R. [unclear]
ON 4/18/83

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the teletype to the Bureau dated August 2, 1946 with reference to developing a highly confidential source of information with access to the business office of Dr. A. B. WEINSTEIN while he was in Canada over the weekend of August 2, 1946. For the information of the Bureau the following facts have been taken into consideration by this office in regard to developing such an informant:

Dr. A. B. WEINSTEIN maintains his office at 20 East 53rd Street. This is a seven story building that was formerly occupied solely and exclusively by doctors and dentists. Within the past two years architects and other professional men have become tenants in this building but in the main it is still occupied by doctors and dentists. Dr. WEINSTEIN occupies the entire sixth floor of this building. He employs twenty to twenty-five employees and in fact seven other dentists, who are employed by him.

At the outset of this investigation the superintendent of the building at 20 East 53rd Street was contacted in an effort to develop a highly confidential source of information with access to the business office of Dr. A. B. WEINSTEIN. The superintendent was contacted under suitable pretext but it was found impossible to develop such an informant at that time. No opportunity has presented itself to develop such an informant through this superintendent since that time.

Furthermore, the owner of this building, ~~MOSES DICKMAN~~, who is Russian born though a citizen of the United States, was contacted and again under suitable pretext it was found not advisable for security reasons to develop such a confidential informant at that time or at the present time through the assistance of the owner of this building.

Since Dr. WEINSTEIN is professionally and socially known to many individuals in industry and the theatre, it has been deemed advisable to proceed cautiously in developing such an informant. Efforts are continuing by agents of this office to develop such an informant. The Bureau will be immediately advised if an opportunity presents itself that will be considered secure from the security angle and at that time permission will be requested to develop such an informant.

to identification of most of ELSON's contacts, most of whom are Communists. It has assisted materially in conduct of physical surveillances. It has set forth dates and locations of meetings between ELSON and GREGORY.

On one occasion ELSON called JACK GOLDMAN, who it is believed may be identical with the unidentified "JACK" in instant investigation, and asked to borrow $50, which transaction took place immediately following a luncheon date with GREGORY on May 24, 1946. On July 15, 1946, ELSON called GOLDMAN and asked him to sign an affidavit to certify that they, the ELSONs, are married and that their name is ELSON and that JOSEPH ELSON's real name is ISRAELSON. This was in compliance with a request from the Veterans Administration. During the same conversation, GOLDMAN, after agreeing to the affidavit, told ELSON that he had spent the weekend of July 4th at Kinderland (ph), New York, with the Polish Delegation. This may possibly be the Polish Delegation of UN.

b2 b7D

[redacted] will report a tentative date when GOLDMAN will come to ELSON's for dinner. ELSON also has conversations with MILTON KEMNITZ of WFCL, where ELSON was formerly employed. On July 13, 1946, KEMNITZ told ELSON that he had just returned from a trip to the midwest and Washington D.C., and reported organizing new branches of Civil Rights in midwest cities.

12. Recommendation by Assistant Director:

Inasmuch as Alexander Koral is a known contact of Nathan Gregory Silvermaster whom he has met under suspicious circumstances in the past, it is highly desirable for the New York Field Division to develop a highly confidential source of information within Koral's residence. It is believed that the technical surveillance will materially assist the New York Office in developing such an informant and will further be used as a security measure in the event such an informant is developed since it will reveal the exact whereabouts of all members of Koral's family. This surveillance also will assist the New York Office in determining the current contacts of Koral in New York City.

for Muncie, Indiana, after subletting their apartment until December. She advised that Mr. ANTHONY had only recently been given an honorable discharge from the United States Army where he had been stationed at Camp Lee, Virginia. According to ~~Mr.~~ ABERNATHY he had secured a good position with some welfare group whose headquarters are in Washington and he is at the present time working in Muncie, Indiana. She stated that Mrs. ANTHONY is the secretary to Congressman GEORGE E. OUTLAND of California and that she has accompanied her husband to Muncie where she will stay for awhile and she will then continue on to California to assist Congressman OUTLAND in his re-election campaign.

She advised that the ANTHONY's had sublet their apartment to persons whom she did not know until December. She stated, however, that the ANTHONY's might return early in the Fall.

The records of the Anacostia Post Office, at Anacostia, S. W. Washington, D. C. reflected the following change of address made on August 8, 1946, by Mr. and Mrs. DANIEL S. ANTHONY from 153 Ivanhoe Street, N.W. to 405 South Walnut Street, Muncie, Indiana, until December, 1946.

The records of the Credit Bureau at Washington contain a report dated October 6, 1944, regarding DANIEL S. ANTHONY and his wife, JOANNE ELIZABETH of 153 Ivanhoe Street, N.W. Washington, D. C.:-

She is described as being approximately 23 years of age, white, married March 1944, with no dependents. They have resided at the above address since March, 1944, renting an apartment in Bellview Gardens. Her maiden name was JOANNE ELIZABETH OTTE. She formerly resided at 1445 Ogden Street, N.W. and previously at 2006 "N" Street, N.W. She came to Washington from Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio. He came to Washington from Easton, Pennsylvania, where he lived with his mother. JOANNE is employed by the Alien Property Custodian as an economist, previously employed by O.P.A. from October 22, 1942, to January 20, 1943.

She also worked four months in the Office of Lend-Lease. He is a Lieutenant in the U. S. Army on duty at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas. He entered the service in 1940 from his former employment as a salesman and personnel manager with the American Research Company of Easton, Pennsylvania. Her father is Captain F. R. OTTE on duty over-seas with the U. S. Army. Her father was born in China. Her mother is in charge of American Red Cross at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

The Metropolitan Police Department records failed to reflect any information regarding JOANNE ELIZABETH ANTHONY nee OTTE or DANIEL S. ANTHONY.

Reference is made to the attached letter from the Washington Field Office dated June 18, 1946, indicating that Philip Olin Keeney, a Research Specialist presently in Japan under War Department auspices, had written to his wife, Mary Jane Keeney, under date of May 27, 1946, and in discussing the labor situation in the United States wrote the following:

"If UPWA gets a federal blast, it is going to be tough. We don't want anything to disturb the disturbing status quo; hence, the FBI et al may undertake anything. The C. S. (Civil Service) for the moment seems somewhat out of the picture but not J. Edgar."

Philip Olin Keeney's overseas address is GHQ, SCAP, CIE, APO 500, Tokyo, Japan. Until December, 1945, he was employed at the Library of Congress and in that month left for Japan on a nine months' assignment. Keeney is a known contact of Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, William Ludwig Ullmann, Robert Talbot Miller, III, and Maurice Halperin, all important subjects in the instant case.

Mary Jane Keeney, 215 B Street N.E., Washington, D. C., was on the staff of the Allied Commission of Reparations in Europe until March, 1946, when she returned to the United States. Immediately upon her arrival, she was met by Jules Korchein, a Communist Party member and a subject in this case, and proceeded with him to the apartment of Ursula Wasserman in New York City, a suspected Soviet agent who is known to have in her personal address book the name of Arthur Alexandrovich Adams, likewise a known Soviet espionage agent. Mary Jane Keeney delivered on the date of her arrival from Europe, an envelope to Joseph Bernstein in New York City, a contact of Philip Jaffee. Bernstein was later known to have passed a similar envelope to Alexander Trachtenberg, head of International Publishers, the Communist publishing house in New York City.

DONALD NIVEN WHEELER

Under date of June 12, 1946, in the letter directed to Seattle captioned as above, the Washington Field Division advised WHEELER, his wife, child, and MARGARET JEAN DANIELSON and her daughter NANCY were contemplating a motor tour from Washington D. C. to the West Coast and return. On the return trip the WHEELERS had indicated that they would visit with Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD WATT, 138 Woodland, Winnetka, Illinois.

A review of the indices of this office fails to develop any information concerning the WATTS and investigation to date has been made with negative results. The address at 138 Woodland, Winnetka, is a two-story house owned by Mrs. MARY STEVENSON. Mrs. STEVENSON still resides at this address. She is a widow and has two daughters, KATHLEEN and MARY JANE, both of whom are said to be married and residing elsewhere. Their married names are unknown. There is no information at the Winnetka Police Department, Credit Bureau, or Chamber of Commerce regarding RICHARD WATT, and to date it has not been deemed advisable to contact Mrs. STEVENSON directly.

It is requested therefore, that a check be made of the Bureau indices and the indices of the New York Field Division for any information they might have concerning RICHARD WATT inasmuch as it would appear that WATT has only recently moved to Winnetka.

Investigation of WATT will continue in this Field Division.

JOHN DIERKES
Mrs. JOHN DIERKES nee
CYNTHIA WATERS

CONF. INFT. The DIERKES first appeared in the SILVERMASTER case through [redacted] b2 b7D who reported in a conversation between Mrs. BOB MILLER and an unknown woman named ANNE on December 6, 1945, Mrs. MILLER stated when DIERKES went off last summer in June or July BOB asked him if he was going to the cold country. He said possibly, that if there were the slightest chance he would. Mrs. MILLER stated having heard that DIERKES might make this trip she called him up and asked him if he would take a pair of stockings (apparently to a friend) if he did go there, and DIERKES said yes, he would. A u

Mrs. MILLER continued saying the other day her husband BOB received a Christmas card addressed to the State Department with a little note that the stockings had been delivered. Mrs. MILLER then inquired of ANNE what DIERKES' wife's name is, and ANNE said it was CYNTHIA. Mrs. MILLER advised she would call her and thank her for the favor her husband had done for Mrs. MILLER. Mrs. MILLER went on to say that her husband ascertained Mrs. DIERKES was from Boston, and that a brother of hers is an old friend of BOB MILLER, that they went to school together. A (u)

On December 19, 1945, [redacted] b2 b7D advised that MILLER in a conversation with his wife stated he would call the DIERKES and invite them out to their home for an evening together. A (u)

when he was employed by the TAKAMINE LABORATORY. It was reported that Dr. WAKSMAN was the individual who had discovered the streptomycin serum. The informant advised that in the August 18, 1945, issue of Colliers Magazine there was a lengthy article concerning "Magic Germ Killer" which dealt with Dr. WAKSMAN'S activity in discovering this drug. It was also reported that Dr. WAKSMAN had frequently worked with Army and Navy authorities on various scientific projects. 11

The informant was unable to recall many of these inasmuch as he stated from his recollection that there were men from these Departments visiting WAKSMAN "at least once a week." He did recall that at one time he was working with the Navy in research concerning the elimination of plant fungi which destroyed ship bottoms. On another occasion he recalled Dr. WAKSMAN having worked with Army authorities on tropical deterioration.

The informant stated that Dr. WAKSMAN has been invited to go to Moscow and that it was his opinion that WAKSMAN had two reasons for accepting this invitation. The first reason was WAKSMAN'S desire to further American-Soviet relations and the second reason was to visit his relatives in Russia.

The informant stated that he had no information which would lead him to question Dr. WAKSMAN'S loyalty and patriotism, however, he stated Dr. WAKSMAN was very liberal in his thinking. He also advised that WAKSMAN was in very poor health, having a particularly bad heart condition and there had been speculation among faculty members at Rutgers that he will not survive this trip.

The Newark Field Division advised that in the 1944-45 issue of "Whose Who in America" the following information was obtained:

His full name is SELMAN ABRAHAM WAKSMAN. He is a professor at the New Jersey State Agricultural Experimental Station, New Brunswick, New Jersey. He was born July 2, 1888, in Priluka, Russia. His father's name was JACOB and his mother's name FRODIA LONDON. He came to the United States in 1910 and was naturalized in 1915. On August 5, 1916 he married BERTHA D. MITNIK. They have one son BYRON H. WAKSMAN. He attended Rutgers University receiving a Bachelor of Science Degree in 1915 and Master of Science Degree in 1916 and a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in 1918. He specialized in the field of Soil Microbiology. From 1915 to 1916 he was Assistant Soil Microbiologist at Rutgers and since 1918 has been Microbiologist at Rutgers. From 1918 to 1924 he was a lecturer in Soil Microbiology at Rutgers and became an associate professor in 1924. In 1930 he became a full professor.

The book "American Men of Science" published by the Science Press, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, in 1944, contained the following additional information regarding Dr. WAKSMAN:

In the year 1917 and 1918 he was a Research Biochemist at the Cutter Laboratories and from 1919 to 1920 Bacteriologist at Takamine Laboratories. Since 1931 he has been connected with the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute as a Marine Bacteriologist. He has also been connected with several scientific publications and is a member of many scientific organizations. Among these it is noted that he is an honorary member of the Leningrad Microbiological Society.

The indices of the Newark Field Division reveal that Dr. WAKSMAN was one of several individuals who was invited to a Science Jubilee in Moscow by the Soviet Embassy in 1945. These indices also reveal that Professor WAKSMAN was a member of the Executive Committee of the Science Committee of the National Council of American Soviet Friendship, Inc. as of June 27, 1944.

The Newark files also contain a reference to Dr. WAKSMAN in a case concerning RALPH JOHNSTON HERVEY, also known as RALPH J. HERVEY. This is a Hatch Act case on this individual, who was an employee of the United States Department of Agriculture in 1942. Information was developed by the Salt Lake City Field Division that HERVEY was considered radical and very interested in the Russian form of government. It was also ascertained that HERVEY had allegedly lost his position under Dr. S. A. WAKSMAN, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, due to radical tendencies. Dr. WAKSMAN was interviewed by an Agent of the Newark office on July 31, 1942, concerning HERVEY and he stated at that time that HERVEY had worked and studied as a student assistant to him in Marine Bacteriology from 1937 to 1938.

WAKSMAN stated that he could not question HERVEY'S American loyalty and added that HERVEY was a great talker, idealist and a sort of "homespun philosopher" but, according to WAKSMAN, he knew of no radical or Communist connections on the part of HERVEY. He added that HERVEY was dismissed because he was not a capable scientist and for no other reason.

was back in town in the same Division, perhaps meaning the Department of Agriculture. LEVITT also asked for ~~KAY STEWART~~ and ~~REUSIS LIKERT~~, head of the Division of Program Surveys, Agriculture Department. LEVITT inquired as to the whereabouts of ~~HAROLD H. YOUNG~~, solicitor for the Department of Commerce. After making these inquiries, LEVITT then drifted into a conversation in which he stated to GOLD, "You realize we are going to have another war with Russia." (u)

The indices of the Washington Field Division reflect that BILL LEVITT was employed by the Department of Agriculture as a Social Science Analyst from May 16, 1941 to July 2, 1942.

"Nothing new here about a car, although I must admit to having been too busy to do much chasing. It might be a good idea, if it is a second hand car you are looking for to chase one up here rather than in the Washington area, and, with that in mind, suppose I contact some of the dealers around New Rochelle. Let me know if you want me to work on it at angle. There is one dealer in particular I might have some luck with, but, since with commodities you have to be ready to buy when you see, it would be best to know definitely before I look.

"Your last letter was particularly welcome in its reference to Edna and myself. I knew when I last wrote you that there was nothing to fear from you and Leffie, but it helps getting the added assurance and knowing the friendship.

"Is there any way you know of getting time to move much faster and of getting things set into what you pretty well know they will be set later? As a kid, I used to be afraid of what might happen, since I felt so little control. Now, I sort of have to keep my pants on tight for fear of running out of them in the eagerness to hurry things along. All of which sounds a bit stupid, I'm sure, but we're getting close to the time of moving into the new house, and it has me, at the moment, just a trifle ragged. But no fear; the shirt will stay on, except for a short layoff for laundering now and then.

It will be noted that under postmark of January 5, 1946, JOSEPH GREGG received a letter from Suite 406, 13 Astor Place, New York, New York. By report of Special Agent JOHN T. [June 16, 1946] (u)

An unidentified man named MARSHALL conferred with JOSEPH GREGG at which time he stated that he had been talking to ENRIQUE (ph). He stated that he (MARSHALL) is leaving town on Tuesday morning on a trip to New York City, before he goes to Williamstown (Mass.). He further stated that he has been invited to dinner at BRUCE WAYBUR'S. GREGG and MARSHALL discussed the publication of a book which MARSHALL has prepared and the fact that the publishers are skeptical about it inasmuch as it is written in dialogue. MARSHALL further explained that one character becomes a mouthpiece for LOZAR DISMO (ph). (u)

JOSEPH GREGG contacted the Fiscal Section of the State Department to advise that his temporary address in Washington, D. C. will be 941 I Street, N. W. care of WOOD (MINTIE WOOD of the State Department). (u)

[June 18, 1946] (u)

JOSEPH GREGG contacted MAURICE HALPERIN at which time HALPERIN supplied the following data about his new position with the AMERICAN JEWISH CONFERENCE. He stated the Conference was set up two or three years ago and contains independent organizations and groups of "almost any color." It acts as a coordinating head for these groups and represents most of the important Jewish organizations in the United States. He stated that the one exception to this representation is the AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE, which is a group that thinks of Jews purely on a religious angle. According to HALPERIN Judge SAM ROSENMAN and the ROSENWALDS are the leading figures in the AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE. HALPERIN continues by relating that his organization contains everything from Zionists to unions and is a "clearing house" or "National front" with the object of speaking for all its member organizations on foreign relations and international affairs. HALPERIN stated his job will be "secretary for United Nations affairs", the performance of which will consist of lobbying in the commissions, conferences, etc. HALPERIN will also draft material. He stated the New York Office has a staff of fifteen individuals.

including secretaries. This staff releases monthly and weekly bulletins. The head of the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Conference is LOUIS LIPSKY (ph), whereas the Executive Secretary is KENAN, who has been with the organization for approximately a year and a half. He described KENAN as being a Cleveland newspaperman and stated there are three co-chairmen of the conference, namely Rabbi WISE, MUNSKY (ph), the head of B'Nai Brith, and he believes Rabbi SILVER. GREGG inquired as to whether Rabbi WISE'S son, J. WATERMAN, was mixed up with the organization to which inquiry HALPERIN replied in the negative. (u)

HALPERIN stated the problems of the organization are mostly elementary and "we can work together in this pretty well." GREGG maintains there is never a dull moment in this business as "If it gets a little dull BEVIN comes out with a brilliant remark." (u)

HALPERIN said he will give GREGG the full details about his job when he sees him later in New York City. GREGG advised that there is nothing new in connection with his job-hunting project, but he has "those guys sizzling in the pan on the radio deal" (Metropolitan Broadcasting Company, Washington, D. C.). HALPERIN advised that after he has gotten settled in his job for about six months he will attempt to see if he can't give GREGG an opportunity to prove his purity. GREGG doubts that this would work out inasmuch as they might look in his background too far and find out that an Arab got mixed up with a Jew way back in his family. (u)

HALPERIN believes he will get a house at Croton-on-the-Hudson, New York, as there is a little colony of friends there, including the BODKINS. (u)

JOSEPH GREGG conferred with ED BRECHER of the Metropolitan Broadcasting Company. BRECHER informed him that CARL GREEN has been hired as the publicity man for the Radio Company. (u)

GREGG made an appointment for lunch at the Press Club at 1:00 P. M. with HARRY MURKLAND of New York City, who is registered at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington. (u)

GREGG informed ROBERT MILLER, a subject of instant case, that he will leave Washington, D. C. the following week. MILLER advised that FRANK JELLINECK has gotten in touch with DUNCAN AIKMAN, but he did not buy the list (Hemisphere Club mailing list). JELLINECK has returned to Mexico City and MILLER is glad to forget the whole thing. MILLER further advised his ceramics business is not amounting to much (probably CAROL JANEWAY'S products). MILLER and GREGG agreed to get together for lunch. (u)

GREGG regrets that he may not be able to see CARL before he goes to Canada. EDITH inquired concerning GREGG'S prospects for a job and asked whether he has seen KAHN or CONN (ph). GREGG stated that his prospects are "fair to middling" and he will see KAHN next week. GREGG further advised that he is leaving Washington for good, whereupon EDITH inquired as to whether he intends to write any articles while he is in Canada. GREGG maintains he is not the type to write. In reply to this EDITH advised that CARL believes he could do a very good job of writing. (u)

EDITH and CARL will miss the GREGGS but will keep in touch with them. GREGG then asked "What's cooking with CARL?" She replied, "Oh, probably Win the Peace," (National Committee to Win the Peace) stating that he will probably leave (the State Department) in a month or so when he has settled a few things. (u)

GREGG has given his proxy to CARL MARZANI and requested him to take care of his interests in the property ownership. (u)

EDITH then referred to her employment with the National Committee on Atomic Information by advising that the Executive Committee of this organization likes the new developments. She stated the Executive Committee thinks BERNARD BARUCH is a fine upstanding gentleman, whereas her immediate office (Washington, D. C. office) thinks "it stinks." She clarified this by stating that her office is a step ahead of the Executive Board, which is just "about one eighth of an inch ahead of nobody." (u)

ROSE GREGG later conferred with MARGARET FAIRLEY who advised that her house guests JOHNNY and HENRY COLLINS will leave on June 28, 1946. Mrs. FAIRLEY added that she is glad she was able to obtain ROSE GREGG'S maid. She further related that COLEMAN ROSENBERG, who works for the "Post" (Washington Post) had read some of her poems and urges her to do something with them. Mrs. GREGG inquired whether Mrs. FAIRLEY could put her and her daughter up for the night. Mrs. FAIRLEY advised that they did not have room. (u)

DOROTHY SCHMIDT seized control of the municipal drama association of Oklahoma City and renamed it "Red Dust Players", which later proved to be an effective medium of propaganda among labor unions, radical organizations, and the general public. The SCHMIDTS were arrested at Guthrie, Oklahoma on October 15, 1939 for the violation of a city ordinance in that they distributed Communist literature without a peddler's license. CARLSON of the Division of Budget, State Department) about the badges and she stated that all of the names ROGERS submitted to her have been tied up, in "Security" for some time. This woman told ROGERS that from now on he would have two days with "Security" whereupon ROGERS stated "I can believe that all of them are security, for instance EVELYN BROIN, TERRY (SOROCO), and others". ROGERS further thinks the personnel files have been transferred to the State Department (from OSS) which has been affected by WOODROW BORAH. q u

ROGERS then complained the people who have done little or nothing have received recognition whereas he has received nothing in spite of the way he had slaved. HALPERIN maintains they should write a letter to General WILLIAM DONOVAN and obtain a certificate of war service. HALPERIN then bragged about the fact that DAVID WAIL recently got a raise which now gives him an income half as large as HALPERIN's. ROGERS commented on the fact HALPERIN, in his new position with the American Jewish Conference, will be able to help his friends. HALPERIN replied "I do believe come next Fall, we might be able to move in some of our people". HALPERIN advised his new office is on the fourteenth floor in the building located at 43rd Street and Fifth Avenue, New York City. He stated he was buying and selling the house at 9956 Georgia Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland and figures to make $4,000 on the deal. WALTER M. BAUMAN, real estate, is handling this transaction. q u

HALPERIN believes WOODROW BORAH will remain on the State Department payroll for some time yet. ROGERS agreed and stated that WILLMOORE KENDALL is hanging on in hopes that SPRUILLE BRADEN and ELLIS BRIGGS will leave the State Department. He clarified this remark by stating that if BRADEN and BRIGGS leave most of the opposition against KENDALL will be removed. q u

THEODORE HALPERIN attempted to make a date with BETTY AMARI (previously reported as VERY) for the weekend. BETTY AMARI is employed by the CIO National Office in Washington, D. C. under GENE COTTON and resides in McLean Gardens. BETTY was going to try to make it and advised HALPERIN there was to be a mass meeting Friday night at the Department of Interior building which would demand the continuance of OPA. BOB ROGERS was informed that HALPERIN would be leaving for Boston, Massachusetts on June 20, 1946. q u

She added that they would stop off in New York at the home of friends (DAVID BOGDANOFF, New Rochelle, New York) for several days before going to Canada. ~~SECRET~~ f u

MAURICE HALPERIN was advised by BOB ROGERS that ROGERS received an efficiency rating of "good" which was reduced from his original "excellent" rating. He stated that HARRIET WELD was reduced to "very good" as a result of action taken by the State Department Efficiency Rating Committee. ROGERS advised that he intended to call FORREST McCLUNEY and withdraw his resignation inasmuch as he would be precluded from appealing his efficiency rating once he had resigned. ROGERS stated he took this matter up with IRVING GOLDMAN, his new chief. ROGERS and HALPERIN believe HALPERIN's efficiency rating will also be lowered. WOODROW BORAH reportedly retained his "excellent" rating and ROGERS believed that WILLIAM MOORE KENDALL has been moved out of A.R.I. and is temporarily doing editing work. HALPERIN mentioned the American Jewish Conference has obtained a room for him at the Hotel 14, 14 East 60th Street, New York City. HALPERIN stated he would go to New York City on June 22 and return the 23rd. f u

ROGERS then suggested that HALPERIN read JERRY KLUTTZ's column in the Washington Post newspaper of June 19. This article refers to the privileges granted to Secretary BYRNES of the State Department to discharge any inefficient employees or those accused of harboring Communist tendencies. HALPERIN then advised he wrote to "109" (General WILLIAM DONOVAN) that day to tell him about his new position with the American Jewish Conference. HALPERIN further related "I also sent the things I had promised to send him (DONOVAN) but which I had not sent him. Also there are other documents relative to the situation described in this letter which I think he would like to see. I would like to give them to him personally since they are of a highly confidential nature. When I get to New York I will call him up and make an appointment so this will remind him of the letters he has forgotten about". ROGERS replied "Well, all that is to the good". f u

In a discussion which took place between Mrs. TERRY BORAH, wife of WOODROW BORAH, and EDITH HALPERIN, Mrs. BORAH mentioned that her husband's efficiency rating at the State Department had not been changed. She further advised that WOODROW BORAH feels this is a very clever move on the part of the War Department inasmuch as he cannot now charge them with coercion. It is further noted that Mrs. BORAH's family resides in New York City and she apparently has a brother named DOLPHO. f u

MAURICE HALPERIN informed ~~EDITH WAHL~~ that he was grateful to ~~DAVID WAHL~~ for obtaining for him a position with the American Jewish Conference. He also advised that he is going to see that WAHL is delegated more responsibility and money so that both of them can be "passing the ball back and forth" and see that things go well. BETTY ALARI informed THEODORE HALPERIN she would be unable to keep her engagement with him that weekend. They decided to get together for the OPA rally at 8:30 p.m., June 21. This rally, according to ALARI, is jointly sponsored by the AF of L and the CIO. fu

He read the letter which is as follows: "Thank you for your letter in regard to Dr. MAURICE HALPERIN. I know him personally and will be glad to be helpful in any way I can. The difficulty is that the man who now holds the position in which we might place Dr. HALPERIN is on leave of absence as Cultural Attache to one of the South American countries. THEODORE HALPERIN informed DAVID WAHL that MAURICE HALPERIN expected to return to Washington, D. C. for the coming weekend. THEODORE attempted to reach DONALD POND at the Senate Press Room. ANGUS MAC DONALD conferred with THEODORE HALPERIN at which time HALPERIN stated that MAC DONALD should read GEORGE MILBURN's article in the April issue of the "Yale Review". During the course of this discussion HALPERIN informed that he is taking BETTY MARI to a "Save OSA" rally that evening but he did not believe he would be able to convince her to come to his home for the weekend. They discussed organizing a party to take place the night of June 22 at the home of GALE RICHTER, wife of IRVING RICHTER. ~~SECRET~~ ✓

He advised GEORGE LYON who was formerly high up at O.W.I. is the head man of this staff and it is not essential employees were formerly in the service. THEODORE HALPERIN mentioned MORRIE Z. DAVID WAHL, a visitor at the HALPERINS, conferred with OSCAR GASS. These individuals discussed the employment of various people in the American Jewish Conference. WAHL mentioned he is interested in seeing that the Committee of the American Jewish Conference obtain several live-wire members. WAHL stated that DIERKES is a very old friend of BERT CRUMB. WAHL also inquired whether GASS heard from a man named LANGIER (PH) who had been with the British Information Service in San Francisco. ELIZABETH SEARLE of the Communist Party of the District of Columbia informed THEODORE she was in Baltimore on the previous night where she saw PHIL FRANKFELD. According to FRANKFELD, THEODORE is a very fine person. SEARLE stated "I wouldn't worry about your friend in 'Win the Peace' (National Committee to Win the Peace)". SEARLE further advised FRANKFELD would be in Washington on Monday so they thought THEODORE would like to come to Casey's at 8:00 p.m. as they are "going to have a little meeting". THEODORE advised that he wanted to talk to her about some other things. She stated she would call him at home about 7:00 p.m. and they might be able to get together around 8:00 that evening. q u

HELEN HORNSTEIN, secretary of DAVID WAHL, advised that MAURICE HALPERIN would arrive at the B & O, Silver Springs station, at 8:19 p.m. on June 28, 1946. HALPERIN gave her the directions to reach 9956 Georgia Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland. q u

LILLIAN DUNNLY invited THEODORE to her home. HALPERIN regretted he could not come over inasmuch as he was expecting somebody (ELIZABETH SEARLE) on business and furthermore, the GREGGS (JOSEPH and ROSE GREGG) were at his home. LILLIAN DUNNLY remarked she does not know the GREGGS. THEODORE HALPERIN stated his brother, MAURICE, would arrive in town the following night for the weekend. MAURICE HALPERIN contacted WOODROW BORAH at which time he advised he spent most of the weekend in New York City attempting to find an apartment. BORAH advised IRVING GOLDMAN wanted HALPERIN to come out for dinner, whereupon HALPERIN stated he was just going to sit around his house and take it easy. He suggested that BORAH, BOB ROGERS, TERRY SORICCO, IRVING GOLDMAN, and the rest of them drop out to see him. q u

BOB ROGERS inquired of MAURICE HALPERIN as to whether he saw the "Secretary" (HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.) in New York City. HALPERIN replied in the affirmative stating "That thing just fell down completely and flatly and all busted out". HALPERIN undoubtedly is referring to the previous plans whereby he would ghost write a book for MORGENTHAU. HALPERIN then stated MAURICE is too busy to undertake anything else at this time. With reference to this HALPERIN said he chatted with MORGENTHAU in a very pleasant manner and MORGENTHAU asked him to give his regards to a former colleague of his "who is now working with us—you know—the Colonel". HALPERIN further advised he picked up a newspaper in New York City the next day "and the man, who was doing his major opus, you know, it was announced in the papers, had accepted a position in the diplomatic corps of the United States government abroad — so the thing seems to be fairly clear now". ROGERS remarked "that ties in — he's got troubles". HALPERIN confirmed this and added "In other words that project's office is on the rocks and he has got troubles". HALPERIN believes the troubles apparently developed in the last three weeks and at first he thought "that man's (MORGENTHAU) attitude" was a reflection on him (HALPERIN); that is, that he probably checked up on HALPERIN. HALPERIN added, however, that the paper explained everything as "this guy would not leave the job he had to take a post like that". ROGERS agreed and stated "It must be that the Secretary was dissatisfied with the progress". HALPERIN maintains it is actually a load off of his mind inasmuch as he was having a hard time getting adjusted, etc. ROGERS replied "all right, so you got only one job". q u

It was decided that WOODROW BORAH and IRVING GOLDMAN would drop out to see HALPERIN on instant date whereas ROGERS and TERRY SORICCO would call on him the following day. q u

HALPERIN stated that he had advertised in the "Brooklyn Eagle" and the "New York Times" for a house as Secretary to United Nations Affairs without mentioning anything else. He also described himself as "former State Department official" inasmuch as people in New York City want to rent to individuals of supposed social standing, etc. as it makes them feel important. q u

ROGERS continued by advising that everything is all set for his departure from the State Department as FORREST McCLUNEY has granted his leave. In this connection ROGERS related that he made an amusing discovery to the effect that employees who have accumulated compensatory leave and have not been able to use it through the fault of the agency can demand cash payment for the days of overtime. He stated, however, that McCLUNEY prefers to let ROGERS take his compensatory leave as additional annual leave. ROGERS then advised that he has appealed his efficiency rating (reduced from excellent to good) and McCLUNEY agreed to arrange for a hearing on the weekend of July 15. HALPERIN inquired as to whether ROGERS would want him to be present whereupon ROGERS said it would not be necessary, as an affidavit would suffice. HALPERIN then remarked "Say, by the way, won't that be a good time to bring the photostat copy of a certain letter?" ROGERS replied "Certainly, I've already had the photostat". HALPERIN was amused and exclaimed "Boy, is that going to bowl something over". ROGERS advised "You could build a career on a letter like that" and HALPERIN explained that he does not have any such letter for himself. ROGERS remarked "Oh, you'll get one" and then stated "You have a New York forwarding address". HALPERIN then advised "Say, did you notice that he has been a little bit trampled on by the young Republicans?" fu

It would appear from the above conversation that HALPERIN and ROGERS may be referring to a letter which General WILLIAM DONOVAN may have written to BOE ROGERS during the period that the OSS was in existence. It will be noted that General DONOVAN is a candidate for the United States Senate from New York state. HALPERIN then informed ROGERS that he received his reduced efficiency rating which has been changed from "excellent" to "very good". ROGERS maintains that even though HALPERIN decides not to appeal the reduced efficiency rating he should exercise his option to look at the rating sheet. HALPERIN will talk it over with ROGERS and they will decide inasmuch as "very good" is not a complete disgrace. ROGERS stated it was "incorrect". fu

ROGERS continued by advising "Incidentally, the Department of Personnel answered the inquiry about you and gave a very fine answer." He stated that the answer listed the positions HALPERIN had held together with the salary and included "the correct information that you resigned on such and such a day, May 31". ROGERS will give HALPERIN a copy of this answer issued by the Department of Personnel. HALPERIN commented "They made it quite clear then". ROGERS was amused and stated "Hereafter you just give them as a reference". HALPERIN thought it was hilariously funny. fu

EDITH HALPERIN, temporarily in New Haven, Connecticut, conferred with MAURICE HALPERIN. HALPERIN advised her that he would be in New Haven around 10:30 p.m. on July 3, 1946. Mrs. HALPERIN was to meet him at the time. HALPERIN will spend July 1 and July 2 looking for a place to live in Brooklyn, New York. HALPERIN advised he was driving back to New York City with BOB ROGERS on the first of July and would live at the home of ROGERS' parents until he finds a place for the HALPERIN family. q u

MAURICE HALPERIN informed ROBERT T. MILLER, a subject of this case, that he was having trouble getting a place to live in New York City. He stated his wife EDITH and the children were at Martha's Vineyard and he would go up to see them on Wednesday, July 3. He added that EDITH would come back with him to Washington, D. C. on the fifth or sixth of July and they would remain in Washington until he would find a place to live in New York. HALPERIN then explained the American Jewish Conference, his employer, is a new body which was created two or three years ago. He stated this organization attempts to coordinate the activities of practically all the Jewish organization, however, it represents approximately sixty-four of them. He added that his job is to get out and present the point of view of the American Jewish organizations to the United Nations. q u

The American Jewish Conference has the status of an observer before the United Nations and has also applied for the status of consultant. The conference is also generally recognized as representing the American Jew. MILLER replied "You have all of them except the BIRKSEN (PH) outfit" whereupon HALPERIN stated that the BIRKSEN outfit is very small and does not count. HALPERIN added that the conference is composed also of the important Jewish outfits except the American Jewish Committee which has no mass following but contains most of the money bags. MILLER inquired whether this was the ROSENWALD organization and HALPERIN stated the ROSENWALD group is a "rightist splinter" and Judge PROSCOUR (PH) is related to this committee as is Judge ROSENMAN. HALPERIN added that ROSENWALD is even to the right of the American Jewish Committee. q u

HALPERIN continued by relating his organization represents almost 90% of the Jews of America who are organized, that is a little more than half of the American Jews. He estimates the membership to be approximately two and one-half million Jews. HALPERIN stated their observer is connected with the Economic and Social Council which is concerned with the Bill of Rights and trusteeship problems as well as related matters. He added that the American Jewish Conference does not do a business with the Security Council, at least not for the present, unless it is decided to raise the Palestine issue as a security problem. MILLER informed q u

HILPERIN he is no longer working on that detail, (German Embassy), but has come back to his regular job. HILPERIN ran into some of his State Department colleagues on the occasion of which the Foreign Policy Association observed the first anniversary on the founding of the United Nations. He added that the State Department sent RALPH J. BUNCHE, OTIS MULLIKEN, as well as some of the other big shots. According to HILPERIN he has not actually started his work with the United Nations as yet as he is not officially registered. He stated he has letters of introduction and probably would bring his credentials that week or the following week. HILPERIN will probably work with WINANT and in due time his job may involve a good deal of travel to Europe and even to Palestine. According to HILPERIN the Executive Secretary of the American Jewish Conference is presently in Paris lobbying at the meeting of the minister. q u

JENNY MILLER conferred with HILPERIN and he repeated a good deal of the information relative to his new employer. Mrs. MILLER stated that the American Jewish Committee is his main opposition whereupon HILPERIN replied "They're not terribly in opposition, they're the money bag group" and related to the ROSENWALD business which is the group having a tendency to think of Jews only as a religious group, that is so-called assimilationists. He stated, however, that even this group is fudging a bit on it. Mrs. MILLER replied "Listen, what's wrong with assimilation, I've tried it". (ROBERT T. MILLER apparently is not a Jew). HILPERIN replied "Nothing is wrong with assimilation but it is just a question of what is practical today." Mrs. MILLER asked whether HILPERIN's organization makes representations to the United Nations in answer to which HILPERIN replied in the affirmative and stated they tried to get various things. Mrs. MILLER interrupted with "What's that do, it doesn't do a damn thing, you, can protest". HILPERIN stated "Well, it does, what does mass pressure ever do?" Mrs. MILLER replied "Well, it holds back a little some times". HILPERIN then maintained mass pressure gets things done and there is also a question of getting the American government to do what it can. Mrs. MILLER heatedly stated "If BERNARD BARUCH would lift his little finger". MAURICE HILPERIN advised "Well, he is busy with another kind of business" and he, HILPERIN, does not believe BARUCH enters into Jewish affairs very much. According to Mrs. MILLER, RANDY FELTUS said BERNARD BARUCH is a stinker insofar as the Jews are concerned. HILPERIN agreed inasmuch as he thought BARUCH could certainly get a lot done if he wanted to. q u

According to HILPERIN, ROSENWALD's clique causes the American Jewish Conference a little trouble but not much. He informed Mrs. MILLER that he was going to stay with his friend, BOB ROGERS, who will occupy his, ROGERS, uncle's house for the summer, located in the 70's or 80's of Central Park West, in New York City. q u

Mrs. MILLER inquired whether the GREGGS stayed at HALPERIN'S house whereupon HALPERIN answered in the affirmative and stated that they were expected to stay Wednesday evening only but they also stayed Thursday and had planned to stay Friday. HALPERIN supposes they got off all right but he was too tired to see them Friday night and his brother, THEODORE, practically had to throw them out Thursday so that the HALPERIN family could return. fu

It was ascertained that THEODORE had an engagement to visit the home of BOB ROGERS during the afternoon of instant day. fu

Informant also advises IRVING RAVIN contacted MAURICE HALPERIN in this connection. RAVIN stated that he had just finished his parole and that he came out of prison last year after serving three years. HALPERIN advised that he has heard about RAVIN'S prison term, whereupon RAVIN went on to explain that a number of New Yorkers were picketing the White House, Pentagon Building, etc., against further development of the atomic bomb. He stated they were arrested for not having a permit to parade. RAVIN resides at 401 West 24th Street, New York City, Apartment 19, telephone Lockawanna 4-9621. He stated he is single and twenty-five years of age. HALPERIN will look RAVIN up when he gets back to New York. fu

In connection with the above there is set out the contents of an article which appeared in the July 1, 1946 issue of the Washington Times Herald newspaper, which is as follows:

"11 Atom Bomb Protestants Arrested as Illegal Pickets — Eleven New Yorkers who picketed the Pentagon and White House carrying signs protesting against further development of the atom bomb, were arrested at Sixth St. and Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., yesterday charged with parading without a permit.

"They were on their way to the Capitol and then to Union Station for their return to New York, they said, when they were arrested by Police Sgt. F. BERNARD and Corp. J. ... WRIGHT.

"Their protests that what they were doing was legal netted them a ride to the First precinct station where Ann Koffett, the one woman among the demonstrators and nine of the men posted $5 collateral and were released. They intend to take their case to court, they told police.

"One man, later identified by his companions as David Meeck, refused to post collateral or give his name and was booked as John Doe and put in a cell. He also was charged with not having a draft registration card.

WFO 100-17493

"Those who posted collateral gave their names as JAMES PECK, ~~SIMPSON~~, IRVING RAVIN, GERALD WILLIAMS, ALDRON MOE, ANDREW SHIG., HERBERT MULLIN, ALBON ~~ANN~~ and his brother ALEXANDER ANN.

The informant further relates that BOB ROGERS may sublet his apartment in Washington, D. C. to the ~~MAYLOR~~ COHENS.

BETTY ~~MARI~~ informed THEODORE she was at a party and could not come over that night. It was agreed that he and BETTY would have lunch or dinner the following day.

It was determined that Mr. ACHESON was busy at the time but that he could be contacted later at extension 2941 of the State Department. The informant advised in a later conversation with HISS and DOROTHY FOSDICK that HISS mentioned, concerning the discussion on health instructions which he wished to bring to the attention of DEAN ACHESON, that one would have to remember that anti-epidemic and other work would have to be dealt with in all countries regardless of what one might think of any individual country. In concluding their conversation, DOROTHY mentioned to HISS that DEAN ACHESON wished to speak to him. The conversation which ensued between ACHESON and HISS concerned the Health Conference which HISS was working on.

On June 17, 1946, the informant revealed that BOB WEISS thanked PRISCILLA HISS for thinking of him concerning an apartment. [REDACTED] has advised that PHILIP OLIN KEENEY, presently stationed with the War Department in Tokyo, Japan, has corresponded frequently with his wife, MARY JANE KEENEY. The following excerpts from correspondence from PHILIP OLIN KEENEY to his wife are being set forth. Su

In a letter dated May 15, 1946, PHILIP OLIN KEENEY said the following: Su

"I had a letter from SUZANNE written for HUGH (DE LACY ?) on April 9. SUZANNE is to help in HUGH'S campaign and is much excited. If we don't reelect HUGH and the few others of his ilk, we are sunk. SUZANNE sent me PEPPER'S speech in the Senate which means its rhetorical effects is a fine attempt to keep the 'big three' one as they were in the war. It is all pretty sordid. Last night I heard a Lieutenant Colonel complain bitterly because some USSR General had been given a home in Tokyo. The situation does not improve in any marked degree but certainly we are not in a position to begin World War III. All of this cannot amount to many hills of beans but it makes one more than a trifle disgusted. Su

"Poor KLUTZ, he seems to be sick on account of a few investigations. It is too bad he was not exposed to the full CS (Civil Service) technique." Su

By letter dated May 17, 1946, PHILIP KEENEY said the following: Su

"I had breakfast this morning with MARTIN who leaves this AM for ten days in Korea..... He thinks everything over here is at sixes and sevens but thinks the USSR will be more humble than in the past year when he says she did work with no one but opposed obstructions all along the line. His dope does not conform to my picture but you know TOSCAN better than I do." Su

In a communication dated May 24, 1946, KEENEY had the following to say to his wife:

"The mouthings of the A.F. of L. add the fuel to flames now active in the States. It is all a case of fear. TOLEDANT says A.F. of L. is stirring up labor troubles in S.A. It is doing all possible to keep world labor from presenting an organized front. S U

"If UPWA gets a Federal blast it is going to be tough. We don't want anything to disturb the disturbing status quo. Hence the F.B.I. et al may undertake anything. The C.S. (Civil Service) for the moment seems somewhat out of the picture, but not J. EDGAR." S U

On May 28, 1946, KEENEY wrote the following:

"The clippings you sent were greatly enjoyed and gave me a view of things I can get in no other way. I thought what SIMON (?) had to say about our present loan policy was very well said. What we have been doing is so obvious! Today's paper announces some hitch with French loan. Maybe we want to wait until the very eve of the election. In Italy the Pope had certainly been sounding off. The USSR has certainly taken a lot of dirt. The welcome of the Polish general is just carrying coals to Newcastle, and the Thompson stink in defense of NICHAILOVICH means more coal. This all seems part of a studied policy and it is a pleasure to see that the Soviet press is taking up cudgels against such overt bad taste. Whatever the Soviet journalists did to change the temper of things seems to be dying of malnutrition." S U

In a communication dated May 29, 1946, KEENEY related the following:

"I was glad to read HOLOTOV'S analysis of the Pans Conference. It is obvious that our 'offensive for peace' tends to be an 'offensive against the USSR.' The defeat of the CP in the German area controlled by us is not surprising. The Catholics seem to be in the saddle and this does not sound like Democracy." S U

"KLUTZ does what he can to tear FLAXEN down. The UPWA situation is not all that can be desired but it can be no worse than it was from January to June, 1941....." S U

[REDACTED] who has previously furnished information to Special Agent AVIGNONE, stated that he could furnish no information concerning DAPHNE NORTON other than the fact that she is the wife of THEODORE NORTON who is active in Communist Party activities.

J. L. STACKHOUSE, Manager of the "Easton Express," and who lives at 133 Parker Avenue, next door to the NORTONS, advised that Mrs. NORTON appears to be a very quiet woman, and rarely seems to go out evenings. During the daytime according to his wife, STACKHOUSE advised, Mrs. NORTON occupies herself with her household duties. STACKHOUSE concluded by advising that he has very rarely seen any number of automobiles in front of the NORTON home thus indicating that there was some sort of a gathering in progress.

Agent AVIGNONE then contacted TOM MARCELLUS, Easton Police Department and alumnus of Lafayette College. MARCELLUS stated that he would see some of his contacts both in town and on the campus with respect to DAPHNE NORTON's activities. Upon later contact, MARCELLUS advised that information obtained by him reflects that DAPHNE NORTON is a very quiet woman, and though of the intellectual type, does not click with the other women whose husbands are attached to the college.

There is being set out below, a summarization of the data obtained from [REDACTED] during the period of June 16 through June 30, inclusive. (u)

On June 20, CABEL PHILLIPS, in a discussion with DUNCAN LEE said he ran into a little trouble on his book and was getting too much Cloak and Dagger in it and needed some information and wonders if DUNCAN can help him in regard to how OSS was set up as an organization. DUNCAN said he could give it to him from 1942 on. PHILLIPS also wanted to know something about the intelligence set up in that he was breaking the OSS down by functions and illustrating it by incidents. DUNCAN stated that he could give him some of that also. PHILLIPS stated that he was going to New York the following week and wanted to get as much information as he could before he left. (u)

Also on June 20, one JIM FLAVER, (ph) contacted DUNCAN LEE and asked if there was anything for the luncheon that day. DUNCAN stated there was not as he had everything pretty well cleaned up except for a few people like DOUGLAS and KENNEY, who had promised to send staff in. DUNCAN stated that he had phoned them both once and it was rather embarrassing to keep calling them (to send a check?). DUNCAN said he was planning to call their secretaries once more and he was sure they would in time. JIM requested DUNCAN to give him the names and he would check to see if anything had gone in on them. DUNCAN stated they were CHARLES KENNEY of the FCC and Mr. JUSTICE DOUGLAS and also a fellow named NORMAN MEYERS, an attorney. JIM stated he would check the master list and see if there was anything on them. DUNCAN stated that he was not sure if MEYERS was on the master list and that MEYERS' wife had been active and MEYERS may have contributed through her. Also that KENNEY has a wife who is on the committee also and he may have sent his contribution through her. (u)

On June 23, BEURT SEEVASS contacted DUNCAN LEE and stated that he was still at the Raleigh Hotel, Room 1207. BEURT made a date with DUNCAN to have a drink and talk in BEURT'S room at 5:15 June 24. BEURT stated that HARRY HOLDSHIP aimed to come out and that he was going out to see him at 8:30 that evening. DUNCAN stated that HARRY is just practically around the corner from him. (u)

 The report reflects further that the names of Mr. and Mrs. ALFRED BERMAN appear on the active indices of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, and that ALFRED BERMAN was a member of the National Lawyers Guild at 521 5th Avenue, New York City. Informants described him as liberal but entirely loyal to the American form of Government. In a sworn statement he denied membership in the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, and denied ever advocating any change in the present form of Government.

The indices of the Washington Field Division were searched regarding the above communications with negative results with the exception of the communication received by the subject from Greenbaum, Wolf and Ernst dated June 14, 1946. The files of this office contain a report dated November 18, 1945 by Special Agent A. ROBERT SWANSON entitled [REDACTED]

[REDACTED SECTION]

On December 26, 1923 a certificate of corporation was filed in New York County by GREENBAUM, WOLF and ERNST, attorneys for ARCOS-America, Incorporated. It was formed for the same purpose as the Products Exchange Corporation and one of its three directors had been actively engaged in Soviet activities. On May 27, 1924, according to the records of the Clerk of the Court, New York County, New York, a certificate was filed consolidating the Products Exchange Corporation and ARCOS-America Corporation under the name of the Amtorg Trading Corporation.

The report of Special Agent JOHN T. HILSBAS dated July 2, 1946 at New York City in the instant case reflects that the former GENERAL EDWARD S. GREENBAUM of the War Department is a prominent New York lawyer a leading figure in the American Jewish Committee and an extremely close friend of the subject. It is also noted that General EDWARD S. GREENBAUM, United States Army is listed as a reference by the subject at the time he secured employment with the Board of Economic Warfare in Washington, D.C. (It is possible that former General EDWARD S. GREENBAUM is associated with the legal firm of GREENBAUM and ERNST.)

From a confidential source known to Special Agent E. HYATT BOSSBURG and Special Agent CARL VOELKER of the Washington Field Division, the following information was obtained:

Mrs. EUGENE NEWMAN who resided at 205 East 78th Street, New York City was the subject mother and his father who is now deceased, was Dr. FRITZ NEWMAN. It is noted that his mother used both the initials E and F, that is Mrs. E. NEWMAN and Mrs. F. NEWMAN. It is also noted that the subject has evidently changed the spelling of his name replacing the U in NEWMAN as spelled by his mother, with a "W". This confidential source also furnished numerous letters from Mr. and Mrs. IRVING REICHERT of 2690 Jackson Street, San Francisco, California addressed to the subject's mother. Mrs. REICHERT's first name is MADELINE. These letters were of a personal nature and they referred to Mrs. NEWMAN as "Nonna and mother". It was also observed that quite a few German phrases were used in these letters between REICHERT and Mrs. NEWMAN. The REICHERTS have two daughters ANNIE and DEBORAH (DEBBIE). The daughters frequently wrote to Mrs. NEWMAN calling her grandmother and one of these letters from DEBBIE to Mrs. E. NEWMAN in which it was noted that ANNIE had married CHESLIE SAROYAN who is related to WILLIAM SAROYAN, the author and CHESLIE was a Navy officer. The informant also furnished a letter dated June 28, 1946 from WIDGE, 192 Gulf Street, Milford, Connecticut, telephone Milford 2539J, to the subject and his wife in which WIDGE advised that all arrangements had been made for their return home in Milford and for their vacation and that she expected them about July 1, 1946. She mentioned that she was getting the current issue of the New Republic paper that has an article concerning the subject. She also mentioned that NEWMAN should send her mail c/o LEVY Box 307, Redfield, Connecticut. (u)

The informant also furnished a copy of a letter dated September 23, 1943 from ELSIE PALMER, Post Office Box 1585 Hollywood Station, California addressed to ROBERT J. ELLSBERG, 565 Fifth Avenue, New York City regarding the case of NEWMAN vs. NEWMAN. A perusal of this letter reflects that ELSIE PALMER is a former wife of the subject and is writing her attorney requesting him to contact NEWMAN and ask NEWMAN to send her possessions of hers. She advised in this letter that she was questioning again and made mention of the fact that there was some question as to the legality of her Nevada divorce of 1940. With the above letter the informant also furnished a letter dated September 20, 1943 from ROBERT J. ELLSBERG, counselor at law, 565 5th Avenue, telephone Wickersham 2-1148 to the subject addressed to the American Embassy, APO 887, Postmaster, New York. (u)

In this letter ELIZABERG who signed himself BOB, advised the subject that he had delayed the execution of the trust agreement for several reasons, one because he had not seen ADOLF for sometime and secondly because he would probably be drafted within the next few months and there would be no point in his acting as trustee. BOB advised the subject that the subject's mother seemed quite worried about his welfare and the thought of air-raids. BOB stated that they had not heard from subject's wife RUTH but assumed that she was rather lonesome without the subject. (u)

The indices of this office contain no information concerning ELSIE PALMER or ROBERT J. ELLSBERG.

The informant also furnished a typed letter which is unsigned with a typed signature of OSCAR SZEMERE of 1260 North Hayworth Avenue, Hollywood, California. The informant believed that this letter was formerly in the possession of the subject. The indices of this office (u)

Informant also furnished a letter dated May 10, 1943 which was written by Colonel D. W. WINHOUSE, Army of the United States dated May 10, 1943 to Professor J. L. BRIBERLY, All Souls College, Oxford, England in which WINHOUSE advised that the bearer of this note who was the subject, was a friend of his and would be in London for sometime and that WINHOUSE (u)

desired that NEWMAN meet BRIERLY. WAINHOUSE stated that NEWMAN had distinguished himself in Mathematics and economics. The indices of this office contain no information concerning Professor J. L. BRIERLY, a D. WAINHOUSE is listed in the Dies indices. (u)

The informant was furnished several letters written by the subject to his mother prior to her death in which there is some background information of significance which is being set forth below. (u)

In one letter to his mother written on Thursday, no date given, subject advised that he had a new job, that BOB NATHAN had been made Director of Reconversion under VINSON and that NATHAN had asked the subject to go with him. The subject stated "I could not refuse and looked forward to it beside. NATHAN and VINSON both called PATTERSON (of the War Department) and he made a big fuss about what a blow it was to lose me. He asked me to promise to write a speech for him now and then which I agreed to do. Even General GREENBAUM shed bitter tears and said my going was an irreplaceable loss but I took all that with a grain of salt. I felt like ROOSEVELT, as soon as I was going my stock jumped 50 degrees and it was agreed that there would always be a job for me in the War Department. My new office is the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion." (u)

In a letter dated May 8, 1945 written by the subject to his mother he remarks that VE Day in Washington seemed to him to be just another work day, and that the people of Washington regarded VE Day in a very sophisticated manner. He states "It is finished, the worst part we may be thankful for that and must work hard to finish off the rest and make a better future for our children. I don't feel cheerful but on the other hand it is not hopeless and only by working for the right things can we expect to build our own chance. I hope my son does not have to fight but I am not sure." "The War has taken much out of all of us. Even we here in America who have suffered nothing except self-pity." (u)

The following surveillance was conducted on the subject on June 27, 1946 by Special Agent E. HYATT MOSSBURG from 11 AM to 5 PM. The surveillance was begun at 11 AM at the Federal Loan Agency Building, Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D.C., subject's place of employment. At 12.15 PM the subject was observed leaving the Federal Loan Agency Building alone and he walked to 1726 I Street, NW the New Medical Building and entered Room 814 occupied by Doctors ALEXANDER and WILLIAM CHASE.

At 1.15 PM the subject was observed leaving the New Medical Building and walked to the intersection of Vermont Avenue and I Street, NW where he met Mr. BYRON S. MILLER (background information regarding this individual has previously been set forth in this case). They entered a taxicab at 1.25 PM and arrived at the NE Ground Entrance of the United States Capitol and entered. At 1.28 PM the subject and MILLER were observed in the Senate Cafeteria lunch room line waiting to obtain their lunch. At 2 PM, subject and MILLER were observed leaving the Senate Cafeteria and entering the Office of Senator BRYAN McMAHON. At 5 PM neither the subject or MILLER were observed leaving the Capitol and at 5 PM the surveillance was discontinued. SECRET

On July 1, 1946 the following surveillance was conducted on the subject:

From 9 AM to 3.15 PM: the surveillance was begun at 9 AM at the subject's residence and it was observed that the subject's car was not parked in front of his house. It was noted that the subject's house was open and a maid was observed in and around the front part of the house. At 10.30 AM a surveillance was begun at the Federal Loan Agency Building, the place of subject's employment. He was not observed leaving this building for lunch. At 1.30 PM a spot check of subject's residence to ascertain if his car was parked in front of his home disclosed that the subject's car was not there but that a 1942 Cadillac sedan bearing California license C-14 and Congressional tag 401 was parked in front of his residence. It was determined through the records of the Metropolitan Police Department that the Congressional tag 401 is listed in the name of Congresswoman HELEN GARRIGAN DOUGLIS. (it is noted that Mrs. DOUGLIS is a friend of the subject and his wife. this information being set forth in a previous report in this case.)

An unidentified woman left the rear of this car and entered the subject's residence. An unidentified man possible the chauffeur opened the rear trunk and took in two large pieces of tan airplane luggage. The woman is described as 5' 4", age 30-35, dark hair and eyes and wore very bushy bobbed hair, horned rim glasses, dark suit, no hat, Jewish appearance and weight approximately 130 lbs.

At 1.45 PM the car belonging to Mrs. DOUGLIS left with the Chauffeur driving and the unidentified woman remaining in the subject's residence. The surveillance of the subject's residence was conducted on July 2, 1946. At 6.45 PM the surveillance was begun. It was noted that the subject's car was not in front of his residence instead the same Cadillac, seen on the previous day belonging to HELEN GARRIGAN DOUGLIS was parked there and another car bearing Connecticut license 8/G-153 parked in front of his house. At 7 PM both of these cars drove away and it was impossible at that moment to continue the surveillance. The surveillance was maintained at the subject's residence from 7 PM to 11 PM. All lights were out and no activity observed and at 11.30 PM the surveillance was discontinued.

A surveillance was conducted of the subject's residence on July 3, 1946. It was begun at 8.20 AM and the subject's car was not observed in front of his house. However the car belonging to HELEN G. HOGAN DOUGLAS which had been seen on July 1st and 2nd, 1946 in front of the residence was still parked in front of his house. A surveillance was maintained from 8.20 AM to 10.45 AM at which time it was discontinued. A pretext telephone call made to the subject's residence to an unidentified man, later identified through the Post Office as JOHN HOGAN, revealed that the subject and his wife and family left Washington on July 1, 1946 for two months vacation at #4 New Haven Avenue, Milford, Connecticut. HOGAN advised that the subject would return to Washington September 1, 1946 and that he, Mr. HOGAN, had sublet his house for that period. A telephone call to the subject's office revealed the same information as related by Mr. HOGAN plus the additional information that the subject would return to his employment on September 1, 1946 at the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

Other officers elected were ROBERT WILLIAMSON, vice chairman; HAROLD BORGER, secretary; and MELVIN BURRS, treasurer. The article reflected ROTHENBERG, WILLIAMSON, and ROBERT PHILLIPS were delegates to the recent AVC convention at Des Moines, Iowa.

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent LAMBERT G. ZANDER dated April 15, 1946, in this case under the heading BERNARD S. REDMONT in which a mail cover reflects mail received from Mrs. HUGH BUTLER (teacher), 1559 44th Street, N. W. The records of the Credit Bureau in Washington, D. C., reflect that HUGH D. This school was held in the Democratic National Committee Headquarters at the Mayflower Hotel. The Newark Field Office indices were checked for information concerning this individual with the following results.

One LEO KOLODOY, Stelton, New Jersey, signed a Communist Nominating Petition in 1933. This petition was filed on May 11, 1933. No further information appears in the Newark files.

Mr. GIBBONS, assistant county clerk, Middlesex County, New Brunswick, New Jersey, was interviewed, and he advised the petitions had been destroyed for the years prior to 1939 and therefore were not available for examination.

It is believed possible the individual appearing in the Newark indices is identical with LEO KOLODNY since North Stelton is actually a part of Stelton, New Jersey, and it is noted from the above that LEO KOLODNY has resided in this community since at least 1930.

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent ZANDER dated April 15, 1946, in this case which reflects REDMONT received mail from 1731 Hoban Road, N. W., which the City Directory lists to JOHN C. McCLINTOCK.

On June 18, 1946, ERNA ROSENBERG, wife of subject, was in conversation with BETTY whose name has appeared in previous reports in this case. She is identified as Mrs. ELIZABETH SUMNER MARCUS. ERNA invited BETTY and SUMNER to come over to her house on the following evening. BETTY made the appointment for Sunday instead. X u

On June 19, 1946, DAVE REIN spoke to ALLAN ROSENBERG who told him he would listen to the fight that evening between BILLY CONN and JOE LOUIS. ALLAN said he had called up everyone to say the executive meeting had been cancelled. (Presumably this is an executive meeting of the National Lawyers Guild.) DAVE said ALLAN must have missed HARRY PLOTKIN because HARRY had called him and mentioned ALLAN had not notified him of the cancellation of the meeting. X u

On June 24, 1946, JUST LUNNING tried to get in touch with ALLAN ROSENBERG without success. ERNA ROSENBERG's mother spoke to him. LUNNING asked if she were a relative of Mrs. SALLAM (phonetic). He was told she was a first cousin of JOSIE SALLAM, and that she was acquainted with WALTER and AARON SALLAM. JUST stated he had lived in the same house with WALTER SALLAM in Cambridge, Massachusetts, fifteen years ago. X u

Dr. A. G. SILVERMAN	Suite 1009 185 Devonshire Boston, Massachusetts	6/24/46

From June 16 to 30, 1946, [REDACTED] furnished the following information concerning subject's activities. CONF. INFT b2 b7D fu

On June 17, 1946, an individual known to the informant only as LESLIE contacted GEORGE SILVERMAN and advised him a man by the name of FRAZENCHIC (phonetic), who is economic adviser for the secretary of the treasurer of Yugoslavia, would like to talk with SILVERMAN and HARRY WHITE. SILVERMAN agreed to take FRAZENCHIC to see HARRY WHITE, and GEORGE made an appointment with LESLIE to meet him for lunch the following day at the Duet Restaurant. According to LESLIE, FRAZENCHIC's mission here was to find out first what are private trade prospects, second what are the ropes for taking practical steps for arranging projects on credit loans from private companies. GEORGE mentioned he would like to take a retainer and become FRAZENCHIC's adviser. However, LESLIE did not think much of this idea. fu

On the same date CHRIS WAGNER contacted SILVERMAN and mentioned he and his wife FLORENCE had become very angry over a deal that JOE GOULD had been discussing with CHARLOTTE SLAVITT. Apparently the WAGNERS were mad because they were not consulted on this deal. fu

On June 20, 1946, JOE SILVERMAN contacted his brother GEORGE at which time GEORGE mentioned he had been up to HARRY WHITE's office that day. They then discussed the stock market. JOE mentioned having heard from home and agreed to get together on the following Sunday. fu

On June 21, 1946, CHRIS WAGNER discussed with GEORGE SILVERMAN a sugar deal they have been working on the past several months, and CHRIS fu mentioned the papers were going into the Chase National Bank on the sugar, and that 5,000 tons was a small part of what they hoped to obtain, and they were just waiting for a cable from France to determine how much they were going to get. They also discussed a deal which they were trying to work out on 100,000 parachutes and containers which were apparently being handled through CHARLOTTE SLAVITT. GEORGE said he gets one half of SLAVITT's commission. fu

On June 22, 1946, DOROTHY KAPLAN contacted SARA SILVERMAN and invited the SILVERMANS to her home that evening and mentioned her husband IRVING would pick them up. fu

Later on the same day SARA SILVERMAN was in contact with DOROTHY KAPLAN, and DOROTHY advised her IRVING would call for them between 7:30 and 8 that evening. She also mentioned IRVING was to contact the SILVERMASTERS that evening. fu

On June 24, 1946, CHRIS WAGNER advised GEORGE SILVERMAN of a private concern who wanted to ship 460,000 bushels of wheat and barley flour to Greece; however, he was afraid the Department of Agriculture would frown on such a deal. GEORGE agreed to inquire concerning the details. CHRIS mentioned that the Austin Cook firm, which was a front for BOB HANNEGAN, was handling the deal. They then discussed the routine that would have to be gone through before they could receive permission to ship the wheat out of the country. WAGNER wanted to know if LAUCHLIN CURRIE had gotten in touch with GEORGE concerning the steel. GEORGE said he would like some of this business for CURRIE, but CHRIS was of the opinion that CURRIE's outfit was not large enough to handle it. fu

On June 26, 1946, CHARLOTTE SLAVITT attempted to contact GEORGE SILVERMAN and left word for him to get in touch with her the following morning. fu

On June 29, 1946, DOROTHY KAPLAN was in contact with SARA SILVERMAN at which time DOROTHY mentioned she was now going to school at the Willard Hotel, apparently the political school being conducted by PAC. SARA agreed to meet DOROTHY at the lobby of the Willard Hotel at 4 p.m. fu

On June 30, 1946, JOE SILVERMAN was in contact with his brother GEORGE at which time GEORGE mentioned he was going on his vacation within the next several weeks and intended to go to Cambridge, Massachusetts, and stay with his son DICK and also mentioned the money that JOE owes him, and they agreed to meet for lunch the following Tuesday. fu

"Dear ELENA (HELEN) ~~RETROVNA~~,

"Right from the start you will probably not believe that this letter is from me! I almost never write by hand, but my typewriter is being repaired and consequently I have to scribble with a pen. First of all many many thanks for the beautiful scarf. In the second place, for what reason did you send it to me? Now I feel very much embarrassed. I didn't even send you a greeting at Easter. But to tell the truth I simply forgot about its being a holiday. I spent that Sunday doing various things about the house. I washed, ironed, etc. During the last few years I have not celebrated holidays with anything special. It's easier that way when all the days are the same.

"Did you go to the seashore? How did you pass the time? How is everybody in general? I have nothing to boast about. The last three weeks I have been feeling miserably. I think my blood pressure has gone up again. At work I have to rush around so, and it's hard for me to take it. I don't know how I can work for a year or for two or for five when I already notice now that I don't have the strength. The thing that kills me is haste. I just cannot hurry.

"They continue to invite me to go to Shanghai. Probably I'll make up my mind and go in August. I have begun to take steps to obtain a passport. Things are very bad in China, but what can you do--there is no solution. It is not easy here alone, at times even very difficult.

"Did I write or didn't I that SERGEI 'made the newspapers'? I was very much surprised to come upon his physiognomy in the local 'Detroit News.' It appears that he was 'rewarded' a medal for his work in China in restoring the mines. His picture was quite bad, and I cannot understand how that notice got into the newspapers (2). SERGEI didn't write me about that.

"SHURA is still hanging around Berlin, and it seems that he is not so bad off there. It may be that he will stay there for a few more months. SERGEI, it seems, is going to transfer to UNRRA. I don't know yet for sure. That's all the news I have.

"I still have to write two letters to Senators about CPA. We were all very much concerned about Congress' behavior. It's simply beyond comprehension the things that are being done. I hope it won't be too difficult for you to make something out of my scribbling.

"Again I want to thank you for the scarf. It goes very well with my new black coat! I just renovated it today. But you spend money uselessly. Until next time,

Your V.

Greetings to the family. How do they feel?"

"I received your letter and also had a good laugh. But I have not seen MASHA (MARIA) yet. She managed a honeymoon; ARKAOY told me they went to Palm Springs. way. I would willingly get married myself if only to get away from here. Between us, I am so sick and tired of those Tasems--you have no idea. They are fine people, but I have nothing in common with them. When I see Mme. TASEM (you know those people who came to you by mistake), she talks about nothing but herself or about her family or about mine-- you cannot imagine how it bores me. In my opinion they know more about my family than I do. HUGO is leaving his job on Feb. 10 (i.e., in their store). He wants to go to San Francisco to see someone and perhaps start to do something else. We are stagnating in this hole, and have got to get out quickly. But we'll keep the hotel for the time being until something comes up. ZHAKA (perhaps nickname for JACQUELINE) left her job, wants to go to Mexico for awhile. I would be very glad to have her go. The atmosphere is not very good for her here in this little city. She ought to see entirely different people.

"Yes, my dear, I have to take a lot. I never thought that this would happen in America. I don't know when I'll ever find peace. HUGO cut off a piece of his finger the other day. Thank God it is healing now, but he will not get the piece back. Well, enough about myself. How are things with you? How is GREG? Thank God he feels better. How I would like to see ANATOLI and hear him play! It is obvious how capable and talented he is if he can play that way in such a short time.

He was advised that HELEN SILVERMASTER and ULLMANN enjoyed a very nice week-end at the beach (Harvey Cedars, New Jersey). They had returned from there on that day. DICK SASULY agreed to meet LUDWIG ULLMANN at ULLMANN's office on the following day in order to discuss a few recent problems regarding his book. u

On June 17, 1946, informant advised GREGORY SILVERMASTER was in contact with his wife HELEN at which time he advised he was enjoying his stay in Arizona and anticipated returning to Washington soon, but before doing so, he would go to San Francisco by way of Los Angeles. u

On June 18, 1946, HELEN SILVERMASTER conversed with GILDA FRANK and informant advised GILDA FRANK, an employee in GREGORY SILVERMASTER's office, is from Wilmington, Delaware. HELEN SILVERMASTER and GILDA FRANK mentioned ISADORE SALKIND who is from the same city. u

On June 18, 1946, an individual identified only as VASICH BURAKOFF contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER and advised he was now out of the Army and has been traveling on the east coast but expects to return to New York shortly. HELEN SILVERMASTER expressed some concern at his wishing to live in this country and not planning on going back." She further expressed an opinion that perhaps it would be better since he is now a citizen. The BORIS WITTES were discussed, and it is apparent that VASICH BURAKOFF is well acquainted with them. HELEN advised BORIS WITTE returned here from Alaska because his wife EVA could not stand the climate. There is some further indication that BORIS WITTE married EVA about a year and a half ago shortly after he divorced VERA. VERA intends to go to China in August to work for UNRRA. eu

HELEN also mentioned SERGE is in China and is doing a very good job with UNRRA. BURAKOFF in reply to HELEN's query as to the well being of his partner ISAACS indicated they are making a good living and are now doing business as the "Boris Sign Company," that they intend buying a place in New York City. eu

On June 19, 1946, MARGARET HATFIELD contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER at which time she indicated she was attempting to dispose of her home, that she is very interested in purchasing a house on Long Beach Island where the SILVERMASTERS have been spending their week-ends. eu

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent LAMBERT G. ZANDER in this case dated July 8, 1946, at page 153 where it was noted one MARGARET HATFIELD contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER on June 9, 1946. The indices of the Washington Field Office indicate that a MARGARET HATFIELD, also known as Mrs. ALBERT C. SHIRE, who is probably identical with the individual who contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER on these occasions, is an alleged member of communist front organizations and is listed in the membership files of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action and League of Women Shoppers. She is also listed as an active member of the Washington Bookshop Association. eu

On June 19, 1946, LUDWIG ULLMANN contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER and inquired whether she has SETH's address (JOSEPH GAER). HELEN advised she did not, that SETH had recently moved whereupon ULLMANN stated he has obtained the material from LARRY LEONARD that SETH wanted and wished to send it to him. HELEN advised she would obtain the address but they probably would see SETH shortly in any event. eu

On June 26, 1946, LUDWIG ULLMANN contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER and advised HENRIETTA, apparently HENRIETTA KLOTZ, had just advised him her mother had died, and that HERMAN's (KLOTZ) mother is also very ill. HENRIETTA expressed a desire to join the SILVERMASTERS at their beach home soon. eu

There is some indication at this time that ANATOLE WOLKOV, HELEN's son, together with some friends of his from Chapel Hill, is attending the PAC school at the Willard Hotel.

On June 26, 1946, MARY JANE KEENEY contacted HELEN SILVERMASTER and advised she was unable to call upon her at evening as had been previously arranged, as she had a caller who delayed her, that she would arrange to see her at an early date. ku

On June 28, 1946, HELEN SILVERMASTER contacted CYNTHIA DIERKES, and arrangements were completed for CYNTHIA and her husband JOHN to spend sometime at the SILVERMASTER beach home. ku

By letter dated June 18, 1946, the Phoenix Field Office furnished the following information regarding subject NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER.

Investigation by that office reflected SILVERMASTER registered at the Westward Ho Hotel, Phoenix, Arizona, at 1:46 a.m., June 15, 1946. One WENDELL W. WEESNER registered at the Westward Ho Hotel at the same time as subject and apparently they arrived in Phoenix in a 1942 Chevrolet Sedan. This car is a four-door model, black in color, bearing U. S. Government license 49527. On each of the front doors of this automobile are U. S. Government shields approximately three inches high containing the notations "For Official Use." At the rear of the right front fender skirt of this automobile the number 417 appears in white paint.

A discreet surveillance of this subject on June 15, 1946, reflected he left his room at the Westward Ho Hotel, which was No. 1012, and had several drinks with WENDELL W. WEESNER in WEESNER's room, No. 1033.

On that date the subject tried unsuccessfully on several occasions to call Phoenix telephone 4-5355 which is listed to Mrs. ROBERT K. MOSHER. The files of the Phoenix Field Office reflect no information regarding Mrs. MOSHER. However, Phoenix files indicate one ROBERT KEELER MOSHER was a conscientious objector employed at the Ordnance Depot, Bellemont, Arizona, during 1942. There is no indication as to whether ROBERT KEELER MOSHER is connected with the individual the subject attempted to call. ku

On Saturday evening, June 15, 1946, an unidentified man telephoned room 1033 and talked to an individual, presumably WENDELL W. WEESNER, who was registered in that room. The former individual asked WEESNER how he was getting along with "Doc." It is believed the individual referred to as "Doc" is subject NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER. The caller asked several other questions to which WEESNER would give only yes and no answers. With regard to how he was getting along with "Doc," the caller finally said, "O. K., if you don't want to talk, answer me one question yes or no. Is it to my best interest?" WEESNER replied, "It's for your interest." WEESNER then told the caller in response to a question that the caller was not to come up to see "Doc." The caller indicated that WEESNER would know where to reach the former if desired. eu

On June 16, 1946, in the late afternoon a telephone call was received from a Mr. STEWART (phonetic) from outside the hotel to WEESNER's room. Mr. STEWART talked to WEESNER at which time he inquired as to whether he would see WEESNER and "Doc" in the office in the morning. WEESNER replied that they would be seeing him then. Inasmuch as the reservation for subject SILVERMASTER was made by one L. L. STEWART at the Westward Ho Hotel, it is considered likely that the STEWART above referred to is the same individual. eu

On June 16, 1946, SILVERMASTER went sightseeing in the automobile referred to above. He was accompanied by WENDELL W. WEESNER.

On June 17, 1946, SILVERMASTER and WEESNER proceeded to the old aluminum plant which is located on West Van Buren Street, Phoenix, Arizona. Offices of the War Assets Administration are located at that place at the present time.

On the afternoon of June 17, 1946, SILVERMASTER and WEESNER visited the Rivers War Relocation Authority Project, Rivers, Arizona, which formerly housed a number of Japanese during the war.

At 5:30 p.m., SILVERMASTER placed a long distance telephone call to Washington, D. C., telephone Emerson 6720, and talked with a woman, apparently his wife. He spoke of being out to see the project on the desert, apparently referring to his trip to the Rivers War Relocation Authority Project, Rivers, Arizona. He said his cold was somewhat better and he would like to stay a few days more but had to go on to Los Angeles or San Diego. He made some comment about something costing too much but it was not learned to what he had reference. He stated that he would come back to Washington, D. C., soon and if his cold got worse he would go outside somewhere close by. The woman talking wanted to know whether she should call JOE and he told her that he would call JOE at 9 in the morning. eu

In connection with the above reported conversation, it may be noted that SILVERMASTER at no time while he was under observation displayed any evidence of having a cold. It may be further noted other telephone conversations subject had with individuals the topic of health and the cold was also discussed. eu

About 5:45 p.m., June 17, 1946, SILVERMASTER from his room, 1012, in the Westward Ho Hotel called Room 702 which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. eu

M. D. WEINER, 1709 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California. Mrs. WEINER answered the telephone and said that Mr. WEINER was in the lobby; that if SILVERMASTER wanted to see him he had best see WEINER alone as WEINER would not want to discuss his business in front of her. With regard to WEINER, on June 18, 1946, at 3:06 p.m., he received a telegram at room 702 as follows: eu

"FN F198 DL PD-LOS ANGELES CALIF 18 1107A

"HAVE ORDERS FOR ALL BEER BUT WILL SHIP ONE CAR IF ACCOMMODATION TO YOU HOWEVER OUR COST AT BREWERY IS 4.30 INCLUDING 25 CENTS EACH US THIS MAKES BEER INCLUDING BOTTLES COST ABOUT 5.30 PHOENIX WE CAN ONLY HANDLE IF BUYER APPOINTS US HIS PURCHASING AGENT SUPPLIES FUNDS FOR US TO DISBURSE-

"FRANK P. DOW CO."

Also on the evening of June 17, 1946, subject from room 1012 tried to call room 533 in which a Mr. R. D. BARTLETT of Phoenix, Arizona, is registered. Being unable to get any response to the phone in room 533, SILVERMASTER then called room 733 which is occupied by Mrs. B. P. BARTLETT, the mother of R. D. BARTLETT. eu

It was learned that Mrs. BARTLETT and her son have recently given up a Phoenix residence of long standing and are temporarily residing at the Westward Ho. The BARTLETTS are Phoenix, Arizona, people and BARTLETT is considered a drinking companion whom subject SILVERMASTER met at the Westward Ho Bar. eu

On Saturday, June 15, 1946, subject and WENDELL W. WEESNER were first seen with a Miss NETTA BRUMER, 121 Williams Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, who had checked into the Westward Ho Hotel at 11:25 p.m., June 14, 1946, some two hours ahead of subject and WEESNER. Miss BRUMER was first assigned room 1022. On June 15, 1946, Miss NETTA BRUMER changed from room 1022 to room 1034 which adjoined the room occupied by WENDELL W. WEESNER (1033). It may be noted that both of these rooms have a common hallway and an outer door which may be closed off and the two rooms can be converted into a suite. It is known from telephone calls made to room service that at times WEESNER was in room 1034 and at other times NETTA BRUMER was in room 1033. eu

It may be further noted that on the night of June 15, 1946, WEESNER and subject walked to the San Carlos Hotel where they had dinner, and at the time the pair were under the influence of liquor. On Sunday night, SILVERMASTER accompanied by WEESNER and Miss NETTA BRUMER drove in the government car to the Mexican Cafe located in the 1700 block on East

Van Buren where they had dinner and then returned to the Westward Ho Hotel and continued drinking in the bar of the Westward Ho Hotel. On Monday evening, June 17, 1946, the same trio again in the government car ate dinner at the Steak House located on North Central Avenue and returned to the hotel about 11:30 p.m.

On June 18, 1946, the subject and WEESNER drove to the offices of the War Assets Administration, Phoenix, Arizona, about 8:40 a.m. They remained there for two hours after which WEESNER drove SILVERMASTER to the offices of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. SILVERMASTER then obtained accommodations leaving Phoenix at 8:40 p.m., June 18, 1946, on train No. 43 of the Southern Pacific in lower 5, Car No. 437, to Los Angeles, California. He will leave Los Angeles, California, at 9 p.m., June 19, 1946, via train No. 75, Car No. 754, bedroom I, with destination San Francisco, California.

On the evening of June 18, 1946, WENDELL W. WEESNER checked out of room 1033, Westward Ho Hotel, at approximately 6 p.m. and made several efforts to secure plane reservations on American Airlines to Los Angeles but was unsuccessful. WEESNER remained in the hotel the majority of the evening in company with Miss NETTA BRUMER. Subject also remained at the hotel but he had previously made arrangements to hold his room until an hour later than the checking out hour in view of his contemplated departure by train at 8:40 p.m. S u

At 7:45 p.m., SILVERMASTER checked out of his room and his bags were brought to the first floor. However, he did not leave the hotel until 10:45 p.m. inasmuch as the train he was taking from Phoenix was reported late in arriving.

During the evening WENDELL W. WEESNER made inquiry at the Michener Garage, right across from the Westward Ho Hotel, in an effort to secure a ride to Los Angeles stating he had to be to work the next morning. He was unsuccessful in securing such a ride.

At 10:45 p.m., subject, accompanied by WENDELL W. WEESNER, proceeded to the Union Station, Phoenix, Arizona, in Yellow Cab No. 84. Subject and WEESNER continued in earnest conversation from the time of their arrival at the depot and the train departure at 11:40 p.m. WEESNER, who had no reservation up until the time he arrived at the depot, boarded the train as it departed from Phoenix, and he was observed standing in the vestibule of Car No. 437 which was the car occupied by subject SILVERMASTER.

By letter dated June 25, 1946, the San Francisco Field Office advised subject SILVERMASTER arrived at San Francisco on June 20, 1946.

HELEN TENNEY

During the period of this report June 16-30, 1946, inclusive, the following information concerning the activities of HELEN TENNEY was obtained from ██████████ CONF. INFT. qu b2
b7D

On June 22, 1946, BEATRICE HOWELL told HELEN TENNEY her brother JOHN HOWELL was coming to Washington to start business with the State Department. BEATRICE said she would visit RUTH CHERIN. (The telephone directory indicates that WILLIAM B. CHERIN, presumably the husband of RUTH, resides at 1519 35th Street, N. W.) qu

Later on this same day, BEATRICE HOWELL told HELEN TENNEY she had not in touch with her brother JOHN. Apparently he and his wife were staying at the Roger Smith Hotel in Washington. qu

BEATRICE HOWELL also got in touch with one OTTO who has a wife named ANN. He spoke with a distinct accent, possibly German or Austrian. BEATRICE broke a dinner engagement she had with OTTO owing to the arrival of her brother and his family in Washington. qu

██████████ indicated that RUTH CHERIN was moving from her home, and that her husband was confined to the hospital owing to a nervous condition. BEATRICE HOWELL and HELEN TENNEY offered to assist RUTH in transferring her luggage. ██████████ indicated that JOHN HOWELL and his wife ELEANOR arrived by boat from Casablanca docking at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the day before with their children. ██████████ deemed it possible that ELEANOR and the children would go to visit BEATRICE HOWELL's mother in Connecticut. qu b2

On June 23, 1946, BEATRICE HOWELL told HELEN TENNEY that WILLIAM CHERIN would be coming home from the hospital that day. qu

In a conversation with HELEN TENNEY, RUTH CHERIN stated she had tried to get in touch with Mrs. ALTMAN (phonetic) in order to get her to call HELEN. RUTH CHERIN promised to call Mrs. ALTMAN and to tell her all about HELEN TENNEY. She would then have Mrs. ALTMAN get in touch with HELEN. HELEN observed even her own office did not know she was leaving her position at the State Department. qu

This conversation indicated that RUTH would not move that week-end since WILLIAM her husband would be coming home from Emergency Hospital. RUTH mentioned her family doctor was Dr. LEON GORDON. qu

██████████ b2 b7D indicated that WILLIAM CHERIN was connected with the State Department since RUTH spoke of his unsettled circumstances in New York and his possible transfer to Australia. qu

WFO 100-17493

On the same day, HELEN TENNEY spoke to an unknown woman who told her SCOTT would be at her place for a little while that afternoon. It is believed this SCOTT referred to is SCOTT LOCKWOOD of whom HELEN TENNEY has professed to be enamored. qu

On this same day HELEN TENNEY spoke to a Mrs. NESLEY (phonetic), apparently a fellow employee. HELEN indicated on the following day she would refuse to accept a lower grade and would resign her position with OSS. qu

HELEN was also in conversation with INEZ, an elderly woman. She promised to bring her an eggplant after which she would go to Arlington and would finally return to INEZ's about 6:30 p.m. for supper. qu

On June 26, 1946, HELEN TENNEY spoke to her mother about the sending of some pictures, vases, and a suitcase of clothing to HELEN. HELEN said she was not sure she would be in Washington, that she was "in a constant turmoil. It's incredible like all cases, you have to find out for yourself every regulation as nobody seems to know." HELEN wanted her mother to send a copy of the Martinique study which she did for the Rockefeller office as she is dickering with the Public Health Authority, an information and public relations job, and needs to produce examples of her work for this woman. HELEN said she planned to go to New York on the following Saturday morning, obtain samples of her work, mail them back, and stay in New York on the following week. HELEN said SCOTT had not returned home yet. GRAHAM ERDMAN would come to Washington on the following day to "take the girl up and start her for Wisconsin on Friday." qu

On June 28, 1946, a man believed to be JIM DUMMER told HELEN he was in the process of doing "those things" for Mrs. LAURA McCULLAUGH. He was using HELEN's typewriter. qu

On June 29, 1946, HELEN TENNEY spoke to an unknown woman believed to be BEATRICE HOWELL. She stated she would go to the office for awhile and would leave for New York City by Tuesday evening, July 2, at the latest and will stay there over the week-end. qu

On June 30, 1946, HELEN spoke to JEAN LEWINSON, wife of PAUL LEWINSON. HELEN asked the name of a man who worked for PAUL. JEAN said it was PHILIP BOWER (phonetic). HELEN said a relative of BEATRICE HOWELL had just returned from Casablanca where he had been with the State Department, and he wanted to meet someone from TVA as he had formerly worked there. PHILIP BOWER's brother HARRY BOWER was formerly with TVA and is now an assistant librarian at the University of Oregon at Portland, Oregon. HARRY would be in Washington soon on a vacation. JEAN and PAUL LEWINSON promised to visit HELEN at her apartment on the following night. qu

~~SECRET~~Physical Surveillance

On the evening of June 20, 1946, Special Agent GEORGE G. MCKENNA conducted a surveillance of HELEN TENNEY. At 5:15 p.m., her blue Plymouth sedan was observed parked at its usual place at 26th and Water Streets outside her place of employment. At 5:38 p.m., HELEN TENNEY, JIM DUMMER, and a girl came out of Temporary Building Q and got into the car.

HELEN drove to her home at 2038 I Street, N. W. The girl, apparently a co-worker of HELEN, who received a lift to the bus stop walked from I Street some few yards to Pennsylvania Avenue. HELEN TENNEY entered her house and JIM DUMMER went down Pennsylvania Avenue.

At 6:58 p.m., HELEN TENNEY and another woman left HELEN's house, walked a block to the Little Vienna Restaurant on Pennsylvania Avenue and 21st Street where they had dinner. At 7:50 p.m., they left the Little Vienna, boarded a streetcar, and rode to 14th and F Streets. Agent MCKENNA boarded this streetcar also and had an excellent opportunity to observe the women closely. HELEN's companion was described as follows:

Age:	45
Height:	5' 7" (about 3 inches taller than HELEN TENNEY)
Weight:	130
Race:	Anglo-Saxon
Build:	slender
Hair:	cut very short, mannishly, reaching only to the middle of the ear, graying considerably
Forehead:	average height

This woman answers the description of BEATRICE HOWELL. As HELEN TENNEY has been described in detail in previous reports, she is not being described here. It may be stated, however, she wore a navy blue suit and a plain dark blue brimmed hat.

The agent followed HELEN and BEATRICE to the National Theater where "Voice of the Turtle" was being performed. They entered at 8:15 p.m.

On June 23, 1946, Agent McKENNA conducted a spot surveillance of the subject. At 2:05 p.m., he observed her Plymouth parked outside her house at 2038 I Street, N. W. At 2:50 p.m., HELEN TENNEY and JIM DUMMER left the house and got into the car. DUMMER, apparently having forgotten something, returned to the house for three minutes. HELEN then drove with him to 2231 California Street, N. W., which is an apartment house. While JIM DUMMER waited outside in the car, HELEN went in.

(In apartment 109 of 2231 California Street, N. W., lives INES MUNOZ. Unquestionably HELEN visited this apartment for [redacted] had advised b2 b7D that HELEN TENNEY intended to bring one INES an eggplant on that day. INES MUNOZ was a reference given by HELEN TENNEY in applying for her position. It is interesting to know that JOSEPH GREGG, another subject in instant case, visited INES MUNOZ on the evening of June 12, 1946, and stated he enjoyed talking to her very much. GREGG, who recently left Washington, made arrangements before his departure to receive his mail at the address of INES MUNOZ.)

At 3:15 p.m., HELEN after remaining in the apartment house about five minutes returned to the car and drove to Rock Creek Park where she let JIM DUMMER out. DUMMER took off his shirt and reclined on the grass while HELEN drove off.

At 3:45 p.m., she arrived at Park Fairfax, Virginia, parked the car, and entered the house at 1611 Mount Eagle Place. This is the home of BUTCH; that is, Mrs. EUGENE PORTER MUSSETT. At 4:10 p.m., the surveillance was discontinued.

The following are the results of a mail cover maintained on subject's residence, 2038 I Street, N. W. fu

[redacted] advised on June 15, 1946, subject WILLIAM ULLMANN received a communication from WALTER W. OSTROW which is herein set out in detail: du

"Bern, Switzerland
4 June 1946

"Dear Lud,

"Larry Leonard was here for a few days and I gave him the four watches which were the subject of my preceding letter in which I enclosed a check for the unused balance. Larry will forward the watches to you by someone who may be returning to the Treasury. I hope you won't have to wait long.

"Frank or Harold may have told you that I telephoned from Zurich yesterday. I am being recalled and that's a good thing if only because it puts an end to all the uncertainty to which Harry and I have been subjected in recent months.

"Jim wants me to stay on awhile until he returns from a vacation and in order to help break in the two new men. But I too need a rest badly and my physician suggested four weeks at a mountain health resort. Frank approved the requested leave. This means that it will take about two months before I am ready to return. If your plans for another trip to Europe should materialize, you may still find me here. It will be a pleasure to show you--in your car--the beauty of Switzerland in the summer. Everything looks all different now. I am sure you would like it.

"If it would not be an indiscretion, perhaps you could drop me a hint as to what assignment Frank has in store for me, that is, whether I would be put back to work on Germany or in some other field. If your trip should not materialize, let me know in time what Harry and I could do for you, though I am useful only as a procurement agent for watches.

Subject ULLMANN was in receipt of another communication from the same individual which is also being set out herein in detail:

Legation of the United States
Bern, Switzerland
26 May 1946

"Dear Lud,

"This is in reply to your letter of 8 May which was delayed (I mean the reply) until I could get together all the watches which you ordered. I have them all now: 1. the lady's Rolex perpetual which you left here; 2. the plain Rolex for the lady who requires a sweep second; 3. the Bristling Chronomat, and 4. a man's self-winding Rolex perpetual oyster. Either Larry or Del are expected to come here soon and I shall turn these watches over to them. If they don't come, it may be possible to send the watches to Paris by Catherine O'Connell, Jim Mann's secretary. She asked me for a week's leave as she intends to fly to Paris about the middle of the first week in June.

"You have paid for item No. 1. The prices of the other three watches are as follows:

"Lady's 17 jewels silvered dial, sweep second and expanding bracelet,	144.00 ($33.58)
"Men's 18 jewels oyster perp. sweep second and expanding bracelet	189.00 ($44.07)
"Bristling Chronomat	166.40 ($38.80)
Total	$116.45

S U

"On April 16 you deposited to my account $45 and on 8 May $90 making a total of $135 leaving a balance in your favor of $18.55. A check for this amount is enclosed, and I do hope the watches reach you in good shape. S U

"The price of the man's perpetual oyster requires some explanation. For the watches you get here they charged me 204 frs each. These watches, I was told, were with silvered dials and raised figures. Hence the difference of 15 frs. S U

"The magazines you mentioned in your letter arrived in the pouch 3 days ago, and Harry is in bed now reading one of them. I hope that the work of collecting these magazines did not put you to undue trouble. For us they are a real treat.

"Many thanks for the little tid-bits about the goings-on in the Treasury and particularly in the Division. By imparting such information to me you help make me feel that I am still a part of the division. It is difficult to get even a reply to a direct inquiry from Treasury but I didn't want to go into that--

"Harry is grateful for the magazines and joins me in sending regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Reference is made to a report of this case dated July 8, 1946, wherein mention was made of HALPERIN A. FIERST. RE: HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE

SECRET

Reference is made to reports of Special Agent Lambert G. Zander dated May 17, 1946 and June 5, 1946, which set forth that on April 20, 1946, MADELINE WEIR (ph) contacted ANN REMINGTON and invited them to dinner. At the WEIR residence at 1024 North Montana Street, Arlington, Virginia, further investigation reflected that MADELINE WEIR'S correct name was MANETTE WARE and her husband is HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE. U

HENRY WARE obtained a military furlough from the Department of Commerce October 2, 1943 and on October 15, 1945, he was discharged from the Army with the rank of Captain. [REDACTED] refer

From an article dated October 14, 1943, taken from the Washington Evening Star and on file at the Stone Mercantile Agency, Washington, D. C. was the following: "Called to active duty a few days ago was Captain HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE, 1731 New Hampshire Avenue Northwest. He had been in the European Division of the Department of Commerce for the past year and a half. Captain WARE is a graduate of Pomona College in California. He constructed at Allegheny College in Pennsylvania before coming to Washington. He is a native of Mont Claire, New Jersey." U

The credit bureau's records of November 3, 1945 on HENRY H. WARE reflected the following: Resided at 1724 - 17th Street Northwest, No. 3, for two years, formerly lived at 1731 New Hampshire Avenue Northwest for one and one-half years. Mrs. ALICE WARE, mother, lives at 310 Riverside Drive, New York, New York. Temporarily employed at Department of Commerce, commencing December 3, 1941. Appointed as Assistant Economic Analyst March 17, 1942. Military leave of one and one-half years. Discharged ten days ago and will return to the Commerce Department in a few days. Purchased home in Westover, Virginia, address 1024 North Montana Street, Westover, Virginia. U

[REDACTED] <sup>b2 b7D</sup> advised that on April 17, 1946, HENRY WARE received a call from ANN REMINGTON on extension 20307 at the Commerce Department and answered "Russian Unit". Telephone information at the Commerce Department was contacted and advised that HENRY H. WARE is in the Russian Unit, room 2311 in the main Commerce building. U

The Newark Field Division indices were checked for the name of HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE with the following results: In September of 1943, Mr. F. J. SCHLINK of the Consumers Research, Incorporated, Washington, New Jersey, advised the Newark office that there was being conducted at Cornell, New Jersey, a summer school program which included a class in Russian-American understanding. Mr. SCHLINK had listed a number of outstanding professors who were known to have Communistic tendencies. According to Mr. SCHLINK, the class began July 5, 1943 and continued until October 23, 1943. He stated that the class was opened to special qualified students and required a tuition of $200, although some scholarships were given. Mr. SCHLINK got a list with background information concerning it. This list was transmitted to the Bureau by letter from the Newark office dated September 18, 1943. Included on this list was the name of HENRY H. WARE, described by Mr. SCHLINK as follows: "Economic Analyst, European Unit, Department of Commerce. Studied at Plekhanov Institution of National Economy in Moscow for three years". U

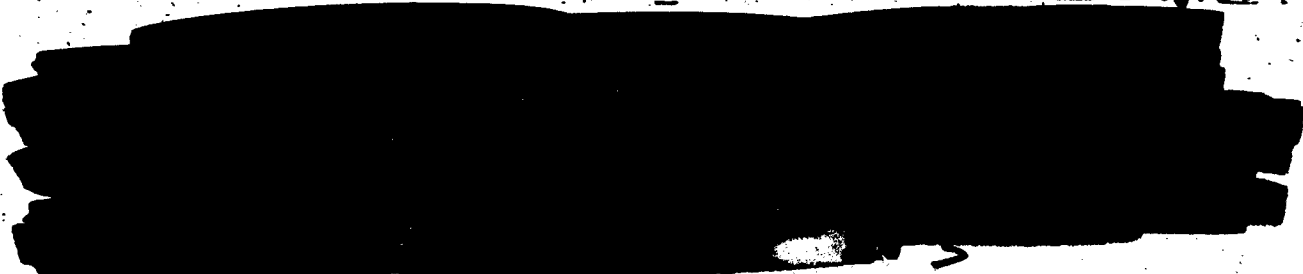

Mr. SCHLINK was contacted on June 14, 1946 by Special Agent C. E. Kleinkauf of the Newark Office and at the time, advised that he had no further information to furnish concerning HENRY WARE. He was unable to state the source of information he had previously furnished, although it was believed these facts were derived from a review of publications furnished to him. Mr. SCHLINK recalled that both the Army and Navy Intelligence Service had contacted him concerning HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE. U

At the Newark Public Library, Newark New Jersey, the 1940 District of Columbia directory was examined and found to contain information that one HENRY H. WARE was an analyst with the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Washington, D. C. It is believed that the individual appearing in the Newark Field Division indices under the name of HENRY H. WARE is identical with HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE inasmuch as he allegedly is employed in the Department of Commerce. It is noted that information appearing in the files concerning this individual in the Newark Office, reflects that in the spring of 1945, WILLIAM WALTER REMINGTON had gone to England as an Assistant to the American Minister of Economics in that country. According to Mrs. GAYTRELL, 246 Mountain Avenue, Ridgewood, New Jersey, a neighbor of the REMINGTONS, it is possible that REMINGTON became acquainted with WARE during this employment. U

Reference is made to a letter dated June 20, 1946 from the Newark Field Division captioned as above which sets forth the following information on WARE: In an effort to ascertain the identity of WARE, contact was had with Mrs. WINSLOW, Dean of Women, at the Montclair High School, Montclair, New Jersey. She advised from her records that one HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE was a student at this high school for one year in 1922. From these records she stated that this person was born July 11, 1909, place not given. He was described as an American citizen; his father's name was furnished as E. T. WARE. She reported that this individual's marks for the one year were below average. These records reflected that WARE'S address at the time was 26 Fairfield Street, Montclair, New Jersey.

At the Board of Health, Montclair, New Jersey, the record for the birth of HENRY HOLDSHIP WARE was examined. This record stated that this person was born July 11, 1908 in Montclair, New Jersey. His father's name was EDWARD TIRCHELL WARE, 90 Porter Place, Montclair, who was born in Atlanta, Georgia. His mother's name was given as ALICE HOLDSHIP WARE, same address and was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. His father was 34 years of age at the time and the mother was then 35 years old. The father's occupation was listed as minister and Henry was the second child for this family.

At the Newark Public Library, Newark, New Jersey, the city directories for Montclair were examined for 1908 on. It was determined that the first mention of this individual or his father was in the directory of 1920. In this directory, Rev. EDWARD WARE was listed as living at 26 Draper Terrace at Montclair, New Jersey. Residing with him at this address was Mrs. HENRY HOLDSHIP. The 1923 directory reflects that Rev. EDWARD T. WARE then lived at 26 Fairfield Street, Montclair, New Jersey. Living with him was Mrs. MARIA HOLDSHIP. All subsequent directories until 1927 contained this identical information. The 1927 directory stated that WARE had removed to California and that Mrs. MARIA HOLDSHIP had died on March 22, 1926 at the age of 89.

On the morning of June 16, 1946, an unidentified man visited subject WHITE for breakfast. During this time, he talked with his wife, JERRY, indicating that his sister, ANNE, had called JERRY and insisted the twins come to wedding.

The above man is presumably one SIMON, as one BILLY SIMON talked with his father at subject WHITE's home mentioning they were going to Atlantic City Saturday and Sunday, returning Monday in order to take BILLY out to his summer camp. (u)

On the same morning, WHITE contacted one GEORGE, who indicated he had been away the previous week. WHITE stated he would be out to see him about 11:30. It is believed GEORGE may be subject GEORGE SILVERMAN, as this individual was in New York early the previous week. (u)

On this date, ANNE WHITE was contacted by one BLANCA, who spoke English with difficulty. BLANCA indicated she had not contacted ANNE because she has a visitor from Mexico. She mentioned they would have five in their party Wednesday. Apparently BLANCA is one of a group of persons from the Mexican Embassy. (u)

[June 17, 1946] (u)

On the morning of June 17, 1946, ANNE WHITE spoke with HELEN, her maid, concerning five guests for dinner Wednesday night, stating they were young people from the Embassy. (u)

On the same date, FRANCES EDELSTEIN contacted ANNE, who stated Colonel GIMP COHEN is staying with the WHITES and he has returned from Germany. She described him as a doctor, short and stocky in appearance. They also mentioned one WEISBURG (phonetic) from Florida who is also short and stocky. ANNE mentioned that her brother had been in Washington Friday through Sunday. FRANCES mentioned a poem by SAMUEL BUTLER to ANNE during the conversation. (u)

[June 18, 1946] (u)

On the morning of this date, GIMP COHEN told ANNE WHITE he had gotten a room for his son, who is attending college in North Carolina, with a family having the surname COHEN. ANNE mentioned her two daughters will go to Barnard College. (u)

At 2:30 P. M. on this date, Operator 67 in New York endeavored to contact COHEN, who was not available. Subsequently, WHITE advised his wife that the Colonel had to fly to Boston, as his mother is ill. (u)

On the evening of June 18, CAMILLE GUTT contacted WHITE, stating he learned this morning that LIONEL ROBBINS was not in the running. WHITE commented this simplified CAMILLE's problem. GUTT said he had BERNSTEIN coming to see him and that BERNSTEIN had made three requests: First, that he be placed on probation for a few months and then be appointed Head of Research, which request he dropped; then, that he receive $14,000 instead of (u)

$12,000; and that instead of being Assistant Head of Research and Acting Head that he be designated simply as Acting Head. GUTT stated he did not mind the salary and was quite ready to present this to the Board as BERNSTEIN had occupied a high position in the Treasury Department. This reference is undoubtedly to Colonel BERNARD BERNSTEIN. GUTT stated he was concerned about BERNSTEIN's being Acting Head without also being designated as Assistant Head. WHITE said that whatever the Board desired he would support. WHITE commented that after all BERNSTEIN was not an old man and had not held top positions. (u)

GUTT stated the second matter was something he would like to take up with the Board immediately but not before talking with WHITE and OSMANSKY. This concerned a position also apparently, the name NETZKY or MERKSON (phonetic) being mentioned with some controversy of salary of $12,000 instead of $10,000. WHITE indicated he would support CAMILLE on any position the latter took. GUTT indicated he would contact "LOUIE", presumably OSMANSKY, the following morning. GUTT also stated that the COHEN matter was settled and he would take up duties the next day. He mentioned he had informed HORNE, who was saddened upon hearing the news. GUTT said he gave HORNE the choice between Assistant Secretary and another post. (u)

On the night of June 18, DICK GILBERT contacted WHITE, asking if he could talk freely and was reminded of the means of communication. GILBERT inquired when the presentation on the loan was made on the Hill and mentioned the expectation was that the balance of payments should amount to three billion dollars the first year. WHITE could not recall, as he has not been following the matter closely during the past month. WHITE said it would be easy to ascertain if he had the hearings before him. He suggested GILBERT look into statement of Secretary VINSON, the third statement made probably. GILBERT inquired whether FRANK had come over to him yet, apparently referring to FRANK COE, and WHITE stated he was coming over the next day. GILBERT commented that he is out of the third ring and WHITE said, "Yeah, I guess he's a deserter." They discussed reaching FRANK, as his phone has been disconnected, and WHITE indicated HAROLD GLASSER would know whether COE had moved. GILBERT stated he was considering the line and would give it a whirl. (u)

WHITE inquired how it looked and does he have to examine the thing and GILBERT stated he thought it could work and that it is "strictly along the lines we laid down." The exact significance of the last statement is not clear. It appears that GILBERT is now bitterly opposed to the loan to Britain. (u)

June 19, 1946 (u)

On the morning of this date, ANNE WHITE indicated they would be moving to Apartment 114B, Westchester Apartments, and contacted Bethesda Transfer Company concerning arrangements. (u)

~~SECRET~~

Later ANNE WHITE ascertained that WHITE had invited several persons for dinner on the night of June 21, including Mr. KOO and a Mr. CHEN, Chinese, Mr. SAUD (phonetic), Egyptian. ANNE indicated she was endeavoring to reach their Russian guest.

[ June 20, 1946 ] (u)

On the morning of June 20, Senator BOB LaFOLLETTE contacted WHITE. He mentioned WHITE's being kind enough to speak to him at that party and stated he had a man he would like to get placed, although he did not have any particular banking experience. He indicated this person is one RONALD HOBBS and WHITE suggested HOBBS call his office for an appointment the following day.

On this date, Miss COLEMAN, Kennedy-Warren Apartments, contacted ANNE to inquire if they still needed an apartment.

On the evening of June 20, WHITE was contacted by several persons interested in purchasing the WHITE home, which subject priced at $27,500. One unidentified man indicated Mrs. VICK would not leave office until 8 P. M. and the man stated he would bring Captain CONN over about 7:30. WHITE indicated he would be at home. It is believed this is one of the prospective purchasers.

[ June 21, 22, 1946 ] (u)

On these dates, no information of value was furnished by the informant.

[ June 23, 1946 ] (u)

On morning of June 23, ANNE WHITE was contacted by one HELEN, Baltimore, Maryland, who stated they got in the previous night and then would be going again the next day for the wedding. HELEN asked ANNE to stop and see them on the way to Maine.

[ June 24, 1946 ] (u)

Nothing of value was furnished on this date.

[ June 25, 1946 ] (u)

On the morning of June 25, CAMILLE GUTT advised WHITE that he had been requested to attend a discussion by the Board of Governors, that he had talked with EUGENE MEYERS advising he could not make it and requesting WHITE to substitute for him. WHITE said he had other plans but would either attend the meeting or obtain a substitute.

~~SECRET~~

On this date, ANNE WHITE indicated that they would move from their present address to the Westchester Apartments on Thursday, June 21, 1946. SECRET (u)

[June 26, 1946] (u)

On this date, ANNE WHITE was contacted by one SYKES (phonetic), whom she advised about moving to Apartment 114B, Westchester Apartments. SYKES mentioned he had just returned from Atlantic City and the name of his wife, JERRY, was mentioned. This may be the individual SIMON previously referred to. (u)

[June 27, 1946] (u)

On the morning of this date, Miss SHANAHAN, secretary, contacted WHITE advising Mrs. LIPPMAN had reported for work in the office of BERNSTEIN and the latter had stated WHITE had the material for her to work on. WHITE stated she did not know what he wanted and he would have to talk with her. He then instructed her to take the Senate and House hearings on his desk and go through them ascertaining what statements are asked and whether there are any questions dealing with whether or not member countries can buy currency— or have the right to buy, that the fund has taken the stand that the right is a qualified one and members can purchase currency on good behaviour; secondly, questions concerning what is equilibrium or fundamental equilibrium. (u)

On the same date, WHITE endeavored to contact Mr. ROSS unsuccessfully. (u)

On the same morning, WHITE was informed that his appointment with SNYDOR had been changed to 4:30 P. M. as SNYDOR had an appointment with the President. (u)

On the same date, FRANK COE conferred with WHITE stating he had spoken with GUTT on the fact that WHITE and GRAFTON SMITH might not be available Monday and he was planning on the last meeting before he went away. COE stated he assumed that WHITE had dropped those appointments they were talking about and WHITE indicated he had. COE stated he talked with VINSON's office that morning and he resigned as Governor Saturday and he was going to see SNYDOR at 2:30 P. M. WHITE inquired in what capacity COE was seeing him and COE said as prospective Governor. (u)

No further information was furnished by the informant subsequent to June 27, 1946, as [redacted] is no longer available. b2 b7D

Under date of April 17, 1946, Mr. and Mrs. HARRY D. WHITE received a communication from Grape and Company, 1105 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C. Investigation developed that a jewelry business known as the Jewel Shop is located at this address, which is operated by THEODORE S. GRAPE, 3351 Mt. Pleasant Street, N. W., who was born April 24, 1889, is married to one GRACE GRAPE and was divorced from ELLA B. GRAPE. He deals in wholesale and retail jewelry. No further investigation is being made concerning this firm. (u)

Mail cover disclosed about May 1, 1946, WHITE received a communication from China-America Council of Commerce and Industry, Incorporated, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City. Reference to the file entitled "PERCY JOSEPH CHEN; INTERNAL SECURITY - R," New York origin, disclosed that the files of the Credit Bureau in Washington indicated this is a trade membership organization incorporated under the laws of New York September 21, 1943, as a non-profit organization without capital stock. The officers were identified as prominent business executives. The organization was established to promote and insure good trade relations between the U. S. and the Republic of China and was functioning as a fact-finding body with the view of promoting relations after the war. The local office of this organization at 1604 K Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., was under the direction of Miss A. VIOLA SMITH, 2440 16th Street, N. W., Apartment 516, described as white, 50 years of age, single, no dependents. The credit record indicates she is an attorney by profession and spent about every second week in New York. The records in the Washington Field Office indicate she was a social contact of Madame V. PETROVA, secretary to the Russian Ambassador in 1942. (u)
