Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Application

February 17, 1995.

Take notice that Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia), a Delaware corporation, having its principal place of business at 1700
MacCorkle Avenue, S.E., Charleston,
West Virginia 25314–1599, filed on February 15, 1995, an abbreviated application pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain LNG vaporization facilities, as more fully described in the application.

Columbia requests NGA Section 7(c) authorization to provide a total of 35,000 Dth/d of increased liquefaction demand to its LNG customers, the City of Richmond (10,000 Dth/d increase), Commonwealth Gas Services, Inc. (9,585 Dth/d increase), and to Virginia Natural Gas, Inc. (15,415 Dth/d increase), and to construct and operate a new vaporization unit at its Chesapeake, Virginia LNG facility. The estimated cost of the proposed construction is $2,388,000 to be paid by the LNG customers.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before March 10, 1995, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding, or to participate as a party in any hearing therein, must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by section 7 and section 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Lois D. Cashell,

Secretary.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Refund Report

February 17, 1995

Take notice that on February 14, 1995, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing a refund report for the refund made by Columbia on November 16, 1994, pursuant to orders issued in Docket No. GP94-2. As a result of the Commission's June 23, 1994 order in that docket, Columbia was required to make an additional refund for the difference between the accrued restricted investment arrangement (RIA) interest that has been refunded and interest recalculated using the Commission-prescribed interest rates from the time the RIA refunds were received through March 2, 1993, the date the RIA was established.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington DC 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such protests should be filed on or before February 27, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of Columbia's filings are on file with the Commission and are available to public inspection.
