B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The interim rule may have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601 et seq., because the rule restricts agencies from soliciting offers from, awarding contracts to, or consenting to subcontracts with institutions of higher education which are determined to have a policy of denying, or effectively preventing, the Secretary of Defense from obtaining for military recruiting purposes entry to campuses, access to students on campuses, or access to directory information pertaining to students. In addition, the interim rule requires that departments and agencies shall make no further payments under existing contracts and shall initiate termination action if institutions are determined to have such a policy. A copy of the Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis has been submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration. A copy of the Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis may be obtained from Ms. Linda Holcombe, Defense Acquisition Regulations Council, 3062 Defense Pentagon, Washington, D.C. Comments are invited. Comments from small entities concerning the affected DFARS subparts will be considered in accordance with Section 610 of the Act. Such comments must be submitted separately and cite DFARS Case 94-D310 in correspondence.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the interim rule does not impose reporting or recordkeeping requirements which require the approval of OMB under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.
