

(1) That a significant number of proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-30,659; Johnson Controls Battery Group, Inc., Owosso, MI

TA-W-30,591; Pigeon Manufacturing, Bad Axe, MI

In the following cases, the investigation revealed that the criteria for eligibility have not been met for the reasons specified.

TA-W-30,656; Becton Dickinson & Co., Franklin Lakes, NJ

Under the terms of the Trade Act of 1974, employment declines in activities supporting export sales cannot be used as the basis for certification.

TA-W-30,617; Shaw Pipe, Inc., Highspire, PA

The workers' firm does not produce an article as required for certification under Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-30,589; Fenestra Corp., Erie, PA

The investigation revealed that criterion (2) and criterion (3) have not been met. Sales or production did not decline during the relevant period as required for certification. Increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have not contributed importantly to the separations or threat thereof, and the absolute decline in sales or production.
