I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The NASD is proposing to amend Sections 43(e) and 44(e) of the Code of Arbitration Procedure ("Code") to modify the non-refundable filing fee for industry parties when submitting claims, disputes or controversies which do not involve, disclose or specify monetary relief.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule

In its filing with the Commission, the NASD included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The NASD has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections (A), (B), and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

(A) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

The Code presently provides in Section 43(a) that an industry claimant whose dispute, claim or controversy involves, discloses or specifies a money claim, regardless of the amount, must submit a non-refundable claim filing fee of $500. However, the Code also provides in Sections 43(e) and 44(e) that any party, including public customers and industry parties, whose dispute, claim or controversy does not involve, disclose or specify monetary damages shall submit a non-refundable filing fee of only $250.

The NASD has determined that there have been situations in which industry parties have purposely not disclosed the monetary amount of their claim in order to reduce the non-refundable fee from $500 to $250. Therefore, the NASD is proposing to amend Sections 43(e) and 44(e) of the Code to require that a uniform, non-refundable $500 filing fee be assessed against all industry parties. regardless of whether the dispute, claim or controversy involves, discloses or specifies a money claim. However, Section 43(e) will retain the current claim-filing fee of $250 for public customers whose dispute, claim or controversy does not involve, disclose, or specify a money-claim.

The NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(5) 1 of the Act, which require that the rules of the Association provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members, and the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act, which require that the rules of the Association be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts, promote just and equitable principles of trade, and protect investors and the public interest, in that the proposed rule clarifies that the correct filing fee for industry parties in an arbitration case, regardless of whether an amount of claim is stated, is $500, which prevents industry parties from unfairly and improperly avoiding the proper amount of fees to be assessed when filing a claim under the Code.

(B) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

(C) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective upon filing pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act and subparagraph (e) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder in that it constitutes a due, fee or other charge.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of a rule change pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act, the Commission may summarily abrogate the rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the authority, 17 CFR 200.30-3(a)(12).
