22. The Washington Water Power Co.

[Docket No. ER95-966-000]

Take notice that on April 27, 1995, The Washington Water Power Company (WWP), tendered for filing an unsigned offer setting forth principles for the purchase of scheduling and dispatch services from WWP in instances where WWP does not provide any associated transmission or wholesale power service.

WWP requests that the services described be ruled non-jurisdictional when the service is offered to a power marketer who is not purchasing, selling, or transmitting power associated with the scheduling services from or to WWP. WWP states that they are exploring the possibility of providing these services to power marketers, but only if the service is non-jurisdictional such that WWP may limit the service to use of its existing personnel to the extent that they have the time available for that purpose.
