

(consisting of Hacienda Curubital, Inversiones Istra, and Santana Flowers) (7th review), and Velez de Monchaux e Hijos y Cia (6th review). Because there were no other requests for review for the companies and administrative review periods indicated above from any other interested parties, we are terminating these particular reviews with respect to these companies in accordance with 19 CFR 353.22(a)(5).

We are also terminating the 5th and 6th administrative reviews initiated for the Flores Colombianas Group (including Agrosuba Ltda., Flores Colombianas, Jardines de los Andes S.A., and Productos de Cartucho S.A.) and Flores Condor, because these firms were subsequently revoked from the antidumping order in an earlier review. Moreover, we are terminating the 5th and 6th administrative reviews with respect to Flores Timana Ltda., because this firm was originally excluded from the order, and these reviews should not have been initiated.

In addition, at the request of the petitioner, we initiated reviews for Agriflora (5th, 6th, and 7th reviews), Elite Farms (7th review), Emerald Farms (7th review), and Comercializadora Caribbean (7th review). The first three firms have informed us that they are flower importers, and the last firm informed us that it is a freight facilitator. Consequently, we are preliminarily terminating the reviews with respect to these four firms.

During the course of these reviews, we learned that several respondents were sufficiently related for us to collapse these firms, or group of firms, into one entity for purposes of calculating a dumping rate. The firms we considered one entity are: (1) Agricola las Cuadras and Flores de Hacaritama; (2) Agricola de la Fontana, Flores de Hunza, Flores Tibati, and Inversiones Cubivan; (3) Cultivos Miramonte S.A. and Flores Mocari S.A.; (4) Agricola Guacari S.A., Flores Altamira S.A., Flores de Exportacion S.A., Flores de Salitre, Four Farmers Inc, S.B. Talee, and Santa Helena S.A.; (5) MG Consultores, Flores Canelon, Flores la Valvanera, Flores del Hato, Agroindustrial del Riofrio, Jardines de Chia, Queen's Flowers de Colombia, and Jardines Fredonia (this group is hereinafter referred to as the "Queen's Flowers Group"). See Memorandum to File "Collapsing Related Parties": Farm Fresh Flowers Group, dated November 14, 1994; Florex Group, dated November 15, 1994, and November 21, 1994; Miramonte Group, dated November 15, 1994; and Queen's Flowers Group, dated November 17, 1994, and January

10, 1995¹. In the previous review covering the period March 1, 1990 through February 28, 1991, we also collapsed (1) Agricola Las Cuadras and Flores Hacaritama (2) Agricola Guacari S.A., Flores Altamira S.A., Flores de Exportacion S.A., Four Farmers Inc, and Santa Helena S.A., and (3) Jardines de Chia, Queen's Flowers de Colombia, and Jardines Fredonia.

Finally, we initiated reviews for a large number of firms which could not be located in spite of our requests for assistance from such diverse sources as the Floral Trade Council (the FTC), Asocolflores, the American Embassy in Bogotá, and the U.S. Customs Service. Therefore, we were unable to conduct administrative reviews for these firms, and any entries into the United States on the part of these firms will continue to be assessed duties equal to the "all others" rate of 3.10 percent from the less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigation.
