the United States and the Virgin Islands. The Network provides the HBCU's and Predominantly Black colleges and universities with programming, orientation, and satellite technology training sessions for faculty, staff, and students on satellite technology, program development and productions, and the integration of telecommunications into the curriculum. BCSN assists the member institutions: (1) in securing funding for productions to be broadcast to other campuses; and (2) with productions and uplinking of line programs from the colleges and universities.

BCSN provides in-service workshops for the colleges and universities as well as technical assistance in telecommunications to the faculty, administration, and students. There is no other telecommunications group with a comparable record and experience, minority or otherwise. The BCSN Board consists of 18 presidents of the member universities. The Network staff has over 100 years of combined experience and service to HBCU's.

Fellowship Program in Violence Prevention for Minority Medical Students

Introduction

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the availability of fiscal year (FY) 1995 funds for a cooperative agreement for a Fellowship Program in Violence Prevention for Minority Medical Students.

The Public Health Service (PHS) is committed to achieving the health promotion and disease prevention objectives of "Healthy People 2000," a PHS-led national activity to reduce morbidity and mortality and to improve the quality of life. This announcement is related to the priority area of Violent and Abusive Behavior. (For ordering a copy of "Healthy People 2000," see the section "Where to Obtain Addition Information.")

Authority

This program announcement is authorized under sections 391(a) and 393(a), of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 280b(a), and 280b-2(a)), as amended.

Smoke-Free Workplace

PHS strongly encourages all grant recipients to provide a smoke-free workplace and to promote the non-use of all tobacco products, and Public law 103–227, the Pro-Children Act of 1994, prohibits smoking in certain facilities that receive Federal funds in which education, library, day care, health care, and early childhood development services are provided to children.

Eligible Applicants

Applications may be submitted by public and private, nonprofit and forprofit organizations, and governments and their agencies. Thus, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, other public and private organizations, State and local governments or their bona fide agents, federally recognized Indian tribal governments, Indian tribes or Indian tribal organizations are eligible to apply.

Availability of Funds

Approximately $50,000 is available in FY 1995 to fund one award. It is expected that the award will begin on or about September 30, 1995, and will be made for a 12-month budget period with a project period of 1 year.

Purpose

The purpose of this cooperative agreement is to provide minority medical students with training in violence prevention and epidemiologic research. Specifically, this award is intended to:

- A. Develop and strengthen minority physicians leadership in violence prevention;
- B. Provide education and research opportunities in violence prevention for minority medical students;
- C. Provide a model for future violence prevention training programs at the undergraduate medical school level and;
- D. Provide 8–12 week fellowships for four fellows, in rotation, to participate in epidemiologic research on violence and in violence prevention projects.

Program Requirements

Applicants must:

- 1. Demonstrate a 5-year history of developing and managing fellowship assistance and/or specialized training for minority medical students;
- 2. Demonstrate that faculty/staff committed to this project have experience supervising medical fellows and medical fellowship programs and;
- 3. Demonstrate experience in providing and managing fellowship programs which places no fewer than 30 fellows in a one year period, and which has placed no fewer than 250 fellows over the life of the program.

In conducting activities to achieve the purpose of this program, the recipient will be responsible for the activities under A. (Recipient Activities), and CDC will be responsible for the activities listed under B. (CDC Activities).

A. Recipient Activities:

Provide two fellows to participate in an 8–12 week program for each of two periods of performance, one in the fall of 1995, and the other in the winter of 1996, who will:

- 1. Review existing literature and data on violence prevention efforts and organize the information into text and table for a report;
- 2. Evaluate violence prevention strategies;
- 3. Analyze data and prepare written manuscripts for publication;
- 4. Observe technical assistance to local violence prevention projects; and
