program. Consequently, EPA does not view the change in roles of the SRB and the MDNR Director as a transfer of authorities between agencies under the purview of 40 CFR 271.21(c).

The third comment made by NWF is not related in any way to EO 1991–31. The commenter suggested that Michigan's program has wrongfully failed to eliminate the exemption for municipal waste combustion ash addressed in Chicago v. Environmental Defense Fund, 114 S.Ct. 1588 (1994). According to the commenter, Michigan's reorganized RCRA program is therefore not in conformance with the Federal RCRA program, and authority for it should be withdrawn pursuant to 40 CFR 271.22. In the present matter, EPA requested that Michigan submit information to EPA pursuant to 40 CFR 271.21(d) on whether any revisions occurred in Michigan's Federally authorized hazardous waste management program as a result of EO 1991-31. EPA has not requested information pertaining to any other issues regarding Michigan's hazardous waste management program. Therefore, EPA is limiting its review to the effects of EO 1991-31.

EPA appreciates the comments received on these matters, has forwarded them to Michigan, and will consider them in the context of EPA's ongoing oversight of Michigan's hazardous waste management program. If, in the course of its ongoing oversight, EPA determines that additional program revisions have occurred, EPA will take the appropriate steps as set forth at 40 CFR 271.21 to review and approve or disapprove of the revisions.

C. Decision

I conclude that Michigan's application for final authorization meets all of the statutory and regulatory requirements established by RCRA. Accordingly, Michigan is granted final authorization to operate its hazardous waste program as revised. Michigan now has responsibility for permitting treatment, storage, and disposal facilities within its borders and carrying out other aspects of the RCRA program described in its revised program application, subject to the limitations of the HSWA. Michigan also has primary enforcement responsibilities, although EPA retains the right to conduct inspections under Section 3007 of RCRA and to take enforcement actions under Sections 3008, 3013, and 7003 of RCRA.

D. Incorporation by Reference

EPA incorporates by reference authorized State programs in 40 CFR part 272 to provide notice to the public of the scope of the authorized program in each State. Incorporation by reference of these revisions to the Michigan program will be completed at a later date.
