(4) The parties may agree to engage in an alternative dispute resolution, including informal conference, mediation, conciliation, summary trial with binding decision, minitrial, or use of a settlement judge.

(b) Additional proceedings as to disputed material facts. (1) If the suspending official finds that the respondent's submission in opposition raises a genuine dispute over facts material to the suspension, respondent(s) shall be afforded an opportunity to appear with a representative, submit documentary evidence, present witnesses, and confront any witnesses the agency presents, unless:

(i) The action is based on an indictment, conviction or civil judgment; or

(ii) A determination is made, on the basis of Department of Justice advice, that the substantial interests of the Federal Government in pending or contemplated legal proceedings based on the same facts as the suspension would be prejudiced.

The hearing officer or other official shall issue such findings within 45 days after the referral, and the suspending official shall issue a decision within 15 days after the date of such findings, unless such periods are extended for good cause.

(2) [Reserved].

The suspending official shall base the decision on the facts as found, together with any information and argument submitted by the respondent and any other information in the administrative record.

(2) The suspending official may refer matters involving disputed material facts to another official for findings of fact. The suspending official may reject any such findings, in whole or in part, only after specifically determining them to be arbitrary or capricious or clearly erroneous.

(3) The suspending official may refer disputed material facts and issues of law to a hearing officer for findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(i) No appeal to the Secretary may be taken under §§ 26.24 through 26.26 of this title with respect to any order or decision by a hearing officer or other official.
