permanent installation. Industrial ceiling fans are defined as ceiling fans that meet six or more of the following criteria in any combination: a maximum speed of greater than 280 revolutions per minute (RPMs); a minimum air delivery capacity of 8000 cubic feet per minute (CFM); no reversible motor switch; controlled by wall-mounted electronic switch; no built-in motor controls; no decorative features; not light adaptable; fan blades greater than 52 inches in diameter; metal fan blades; downrod mounting only-no hugger mounting capability; three fan blades; fan blades mounted on top of motor housing; single-speed motor.

The Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS) subheading under which ceiling fans are classifiable is 8414.51.0030. Although the HTS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, our written description of the scope of these proceedings is dispositive.

This changed circumstance administrative review covers all manufacturers/exporters of ceiling fans from the PRC.

Initiation and Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, and Intent To Revoke Order

Pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), the Department may revoke an antidumping duty order if the Department determines, based on a review under section 751(b)(1) of the Act, that changed circumstances exist sufficient to warrant revocation. Section 751(b)(1) of the Act requires a changed circumstances administrative review to be conducted upon receipt of a request containing sufficient information concerning changed circumstances.

The Department's regulations at 19 CFR  $353.\overline{25}$ (d)(2) permits the Department to conduct an administrative review under section 353.22(f) based upon an affirmative statement of no interest from the petitioner in the proceeding. Section 353.25(d)(1)(i) further provides that, if the Department determines that the order under review is no longer of interest to domestic interested parties, the Department may revoke the antidumping duty order. In addition, in the event the Department concludes that expedited action is warranted, section 353.22(f)(4) of the regulations permits the Department to combine the notices of initiation and preliminary results.

Therefore, in accordance with sections 751 (b)(1) and (c) of the Act and 19 CFR 353.25(d) and 353.22(f), based on an affirmative statement of no interest in the proceeding by Lasko, the Department is initiating this changed circumstances administrative review. Further, based on the representation made by Lasko that other U.S. producers and potential producers of this merchandise have no interest in the order, we have determined that expedited action is warranted, and we have preliminarily determined that the order no longer is of interest to domestic interested parties. Because the Department concludes that expedited action is warranted, the Department is combining these notices of initiation and preliminary results. The Department determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe that the requirement for revocation based on the changed circumstance that the order no longer is of interest to domestic interested parties has been met. Therefore, we are hereby notifying the public of our intent to revoke the antidumping duty order on ceiling fans from the PRC.

In the event that this revocation is made final, the effective date of revocation will be June 5, 1991, which is the first day that liquidation of entries was suspended. No administrative review has been completed nor have automatic assessment instructions been issued for any companies.

If final revocation occurs, we intend to instruct the U.S. Customs Service to liquidate without regard to antidumping duties and to refund any estimated antidumping duties collected for all unliquidated entries of subject merchandise made on or after the above effective date of revocation, in accordance with 19 CFR 353.25(d)(5). We will also instruct Customs to refund with interest estimated antidumping duties collected for entries made on or after December 9, 1991, in accordance with section 778 of the Act. The current requirement for a cash deposit of estimated antidumping duties will continue until publication of the final results of this changed circumstances review.

Color Television Receivers, Except for Video Monitors, From Taiwan; Court Decision and Suspension of Liquidation

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of court decision and suspension of liquidation.

SUMMARY: On October 21, 1994, in the case of Zenith Electronics Corporation v. United States, Slip Op. 94-170 (Zenith), the United States Court of International Trade (the Court) affirmed the Department of Commerce's (the Department's) third results of redetermination on remand and prior remand determinations of the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on color television receivers, except for video monitors (CTVs), from Taiwan to the extent that they were not subsequently modified by the Court. The Court also vacated its July 29, 1991, order to the extent that the order held that "no assessment rate cap may be applied in liquidating the subject entries unless the importer paid a cash duty for an estimated dumping duty." As a result, the Court ordered the Department to apply the assessment rate cap to all subject imports entered between the publication dates of the Department's preliminary affirmative determination of sales at less than fair value (LTFV) and the International Trade Commission's (ITC's) final affirmative injury
