

eligible dwelling unit, and an HA-owned unit is freely selected by the family, without HA pressure or steering;

(ii) The unit is not ineligible housing;

(iii) During assisted occupancy, the family does not benefit from any form of housing subsidy prohibited under paragraph (c) of this section;

(iv) The initial contract rent (for a certificate program unit) and the initial rent to owner (for a voucher program unit) has been approved by HUD before execution of the HAP contract and commencement of the assisted lease term; and

(v) Any adjustment of the contract rent (for a certificate program unit) and any changes in the rent to owner (for a voucher program unit) is approved in advance by HUD.

(2) The HA as owner is subject to the same program requirements that apply to other owners in the program.

(c) Prohibition against other housing subsidy. A family may not receive the benefit of tenant-based assistance while receiving the benefit of any of the following forms of other housing subsidy, for the same unit or for a different unit:

(1) Public or Indian housing assistance;

(2) Other Section 8 assistance (including other tenant-based assistance);

(3) Assistance under former Section 23 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (before amendment by the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974);

(4) Section 101 rent supplements;

(5) Section 236 rental assistance payments;

(6) Tenant-based assistance under the HOME Program;

(7) Rental assistance payments under Section 521 of the Housing Act of 1949 (a Farmers Home Administration program);

(8) Any local or State rent subsidy; or

(9) Any other duplicative federal, State, or local housing subsidy, as determined by HUD. For this purpose, "housing subsidy" does not include the housing component of a welfare payment, a social security payment received by the family, or a rent reduction because of a tax credit.

§ 982.353 Where family can lease a unit with tenant-based assistance.

(a) Assistance in the initial HA jurisdiction. The family may receive tenant-based assistance to lease a unit located anywhere in the jurisdiction (as determined by State and local law) of the initial HA.

(b) Portability: Assistance outside the initial HA jurisdiction. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the family may receive tenant-based assistance to lease a unit outside the initial HA jurisdiction:

(1) In the same State as the initial HA;

(2) In the same metropolitan statistical area (MSA) as the initial HA, but in a different State;

(3) In an MSA that is next to the same MSA as the initial HA, but in a different State; or

(4) In the jurisdiction of an HA anywhere in the United States that is administering a tenant-based program.

(c) Nonresident applicants. (1) This paragraph (c) applies if neither the household head or spouse of an assisted family already had a "domicile" (legal residence) in the jurisdiction of the initial HA at the time when the family first submitted an application for participation in the program to the initial HA.

(2) During the 12 month period from the time when the family is admitted to the program, the family does not have any right to lease a unit outside the initial HA jurisdiction. During this period, the family may lease a unit located anywhere in the jurisdiction of the initial HA.

(3) If both the initial HA and a receiving HA agree, the family may lease a unit outside the HA jurisdiction under portability procedures.

(d) Income eligibility. (1) For admission to the certificate or voucher program, a family must be income eligible in the area where the family initially leases a unit with assistance in the certificate or voucher program.

(2) A portable family transferring between the certificate and voucher programs must be income-eligible for the new program in the area where the family leases an assisted unit. This requirement applies if the family is either:

(i) Transferring from the initial HA certificate program to the receiving HA voucher program; or

(ii) Transferring from the initial HA voucher program to the receiving HA certificate program.

(3) If a portable family was already a participant in the initial HA certificate or voucher program, income eligibility is not redetermined unless the family transfers between the programs.

(e) Leasing in-place. If the dwelling unit is approvable, a family may select the dwelling unit occupied by the family before selection for participation in the program.

(f) Freedom of choice. Except as provided in part 982 (e.g., prohibition on use of ineligible housing, housing not meeting HQS, or housing for which the contract rent (certificate program) or rent to owner (voucher program) exceeds a reasonable rent, the HA may not directly or indirectly reduce the family's opportunity to select among available units.

§ 982.354 Portability: Administration by initial HA outside the initial HA jurisdiction.

(a) When a family moves under portability (in accordance with § 982.353(b)) to an area outside the initial HA jurisdiction, the initial HA must administer assistance for the family if:

(1) The unit is located within the same State as the initial HA, in the same metropolitan statistical area (MSA) as the initial HA (but in a different State), or in an MSA that is next to the same MSA as the initial HA (but in a different State); and

(2) No other HA with a tenant-based program has jurisdiction in the area where the unit is located.

(b) In these conditions, the family remains in the program of the initial HA. The initial HA has the same responsibilities for administration of assistance for the family living outside the HA jurisdiction as for other families assisted by the HA, within the HA jurisdiction. For the purpose of permitting HA administration of program assistance for the family in the area outside of the HA jurisdiction as defined by State and local law (and thereby to satisfy the family's right to portability under federal law), the federal law and this regulation preempt limits on the HA jurisdiction under State and local law.

(c) The initial HA may choose to use another HA, a private management entity or other contractor or agent to help the initial HA administer assistance outside the HA jurisdiction as defined by State and local law.

§ 982.355 Portability: Administration by receiving HA.

(a) When a family moves under portability (in accordance with § 982.353(b)) to an area outside the initial HA jurisdiction, another HA (the "receiving HA") must administer assistance for the family if an HA with a tenant-based program has jurisdiction in the area where the unit is located.

(b)(1) In these conditions, an HA with jurisdiction in the area where the family wants to lease a unit must issue the family a certificate or voucher. If there is more than one such HA, the initial HA may choose the receiving HA.

(2) The receiving HA has the choice of assisting the family under either the certificate program or the voucher program. If the family was receiving assistance under the initial HA
