

references to Guarantee Mutual and The Guarantee Life Companies Inc. In this regard, Guarantee Mutual notes that Representations 10 (c), (d) and (h) of the Summary of Facts and Representations refer to "State Mutual" but not to "Guarantee Mutual." Therefore, Guarantee Mutual requests that these references be corrected. Further, Guarantee Mutual explains that the reference to "The Guarantee Companies, Inc." in Section I of the proposed exemption should be modified by deleting the comma after the word "Companies."

Finally, it is noted that Guarantee Mutual did not comply with the notice to interested persons requirement within the time frame stated in the exemption application. By letter dated May 25, 1995, Guarantee Mutual certifies that it extended the comment period until June 5, 1995 by mailing postcards to the same group of Eligible Policyholders it had previously notified of the proposed exemption. Other than the two comments that were submitted by the Plan policyholders of Guarantee Mutual and the comment submitted by Guarantee Mutual, no additional comments were received by the Department.

The Department does not object to any of the clarifications or modifications to the proposed exemption. After giving full consideration to the entire record, including the written comments that were submitted, the Department has decided to grant the exemption as described and revised above. The comment letters have been included as part of the public record of the exemption application. The complete application file, including all supplemental submissions received by the Department, is made available for public inspection in the Public Documents Room of the Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, Room N-5638, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.

For a more complete statement of the facts and representations supporting the Department's decision to grant this exemption, refer to the notice of proposed exemption published on April 14, 1995 at 60 FR 19096.

(2) the pooling and servicing agreement is provided to, or described in all material respects in the prospectus or private placement memorandum provided to, investing plans before they purchase certificates issued by the trust.⁴

³ For purposes of this exemption, each plan participating in a commingled fund (such as a bank collective trust fund or insurance company pooled separate account) shall be considered to own the same proportionate undivided interest in each asset of the commingled fund as its proportionate interest in the total assets of the commingled fund as calculated on the most recent preceding valuation date of the fund.
