

be corrected retroactively, and a bill showing the correct permit fee shall be sent to the holder for the period covered by the original bill. Errors in fee determinations include but are not limited to those based on misrepresentation of amounts, arithmetic or typographical mistakes, or variation from generally accepted accounting principles, the "Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice," or the "Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisitions." Any changes in fee determinations resulting from amendment or replacement of the ski area permit fee system shall be made prospectively.

D. Updating of Appraisals. As needed, the Forest Service may update the site-specific appraisals used to establish the permit fee under Clause VI. If a new permit fee is determined by an updated site-specific appraisal, the new permit fee shall become effective on the first day of the holder's business year immediately following the date of the Forest Service review appraisal report on the updated appraisal report.

E. Permit Fee Payments. Permit fee payments shall be due within 30 days of receipt of a bill and shall be submitted to the Collection Officer, United States Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, at the address provided by the authorized officer. Checks or money orders shall be made payable to the United States Department of Agriculture, Forest Service.

F. Interest and Penalties.

1. Under 31 U.S.C. 3717 and 7 CFR Part 3, Subpart B, or subsequent changes to those authorities, interest shall be charged on any permit fee payment that is not received on the date it is due.

2. Interest shall be assessed using the higher of (1) The most current rate prescribed by the United States Department of the Treasury Financial Manual (TFM-6-8025.40) or (2) the prompt payment rate prescribed by the United States Department of the Treasury under Section 12 of the Contract Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. 611). Interest shall accrue from the date the permit fee payment is due.

3. Administrative charges may be assessed to cover processing and handling of delinquent permit fee payments.

4. A penalty of 6 percent per year shall be assessed on any permit fee payment that is more than 90 days overdue and shall accrue from the date the fee payment is due. This penalty is in addition to any interest and other charges assessed under Clauses VI.F.1-3.

5. Delinquent permit fee payments, interest, penalties, and any other charges assessed under Clause VI.F shall be subject to all the rights and remedies afforded the United States under federal law and implementing regulations (31 U.S.C. 3711 et seq.).

G. Consequences of Nonpayment. The holder's failure to make timely payment of any permit fees, interest, penalties, or other charges assessed under Clause VI.F shall be grounds for revocation of this permit. This permit terminates when any payments owed under Clause VI are more than 90 days overdue.

H. Accounting Records. The holder shall follow generally accepted accounting principles or other comprehensive bases of accounting acceptable to the Forest Service in recording financial transactions and in reporting results to the authorized officer. When requested by the authorized officer, the holder at its expense shall have its annual accounting reports audited or prepared by a licensed independent accountant acceptable to the Forest Service. When requested by the authorized officer, the holder at its expense shall prepare and maintain any special records and accounts that may be specified by the authorized officer. The holder shall require sublessees and franchises to comply with these same requirements.

I. Financial Statements. Within 3 months of the last day of the holder's business year, the holder shall provide financial statements representing the holder's financial condition as of the last day of the holder's business year and the results of the holder's operation for that year. When requested by the authorized officer, the holder shall require sublessees to comply with this requirement.

J. Replacement of Permit Fee System. The system requiring ski area permit fees to be determined by site-specific appraisal may be replaced in its entirety by the Chief of the Forest Service with a new permit fee system if it applies to all holders of permits issued under the National Forest Ski Area Permit Act. The new permit fee system shall become effective on the first day of the holder's business year immediately following implementation of the new system.
