SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The CDWSP is administered by the Office of University Partnerships under the Assistant Secretary for Policy Development and Research. The Office of University Partnerships administers HUD's ongoing grant programs to institutions of higher education and creates initiatives through which colleges and universities can bring their traditional missions of teaching, research, service, and outreach to bear on the pressing local problems in their communities.

The CDWSP was enacted in the Housing and Community Development Act of 1988. (Earlier versions of the program were funded by the Community Development Block Grant Technical Assistance Program from 1982 through 1987 and the Comprehensive Planning Assistance Program from 1969 through 1981.) Eligible applicants include institutions of higher education having qualifying academic degrees, and States and areawide planning organizations who apply on behalf of such institutions. The CDWSP provides funds for tuition support (up to $3,000 per year for an undergraduate student and $3,500 per year for a graduate student), a work stipend (up to $6,000 per year for an undergraduate and $9,000 for a graduate student, for internship-type work in community development and related fields), additional support (for books and travel related to the academic program, up to $1,000 per year for an undergraduate student and $1,500 per year for a graduate student), and an administrative allowance (to grantees to offset some of the administrative costs of the program, fixed at $1,000 per year for each participating student). Each participating institution is funded for a minimum of three students and a maximum of ten students under the CDWSP.

On January 20, 1995, HUD published a Notice of Funding Availability announcing the availability of $3 million in FY 1995 funds for the CDWSP (60 FR 4338). The Department reviewed, evaluated and scored the applications received based on the criteria in the NOFA. As a result, HUD has funded the applications announced below, and in accordance with Section 102(a)(4)(C) of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Reform Act of 1989 (Pub. L. 101-235, approved December 15, 1989), the Department is publishing details concerning the recipients of funding awards, as set forth below.
