

[Investigation No. 337-TA-369]Certain Health and Beauty Aids and Identifying Marks Thereon; Investigation

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission

ACTION: Institution of investigation pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1337.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that a complaint was filed with the U.S. International Trade Commission on December 2, 1994, under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, on behalf of Redmond Products, Inc. 18930 West 78th Street, Chanhassen, MN 55317. An amended complaint was filed on December 16, 1994, and supplementary letters were filed on December 22 and 23, 1994. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain health and beauty aids by reason of infringement of federally registered and common law trademarks incorporating the terms "Aussie" or "Australian." The complaint further alleges that there exists an industry in the United States with regard to the health and beauty aids at issue, and that the domestic industry is being injured or is threatened with injury because of the allegedly infringing articles.

The complainant requests that the Commission institute an investigation and, after a hearing, issue a permanent exclusion order and a permanent cease and desist order.

ADDRESSES: The complaint, except for any confidential information contained therein, is available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Room 112, Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-1802. Hearing-impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Thomas S. Fusco, Esq., Office of Unfair Import Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, telephone 202-205-2571.

Authority: The authority for institution of this investigation is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and in section 210.10 of the Commission's Final Rules of Practice and Procedure (59 Fed. Reg. 39022, August 1, 1994).

Scope of Investigation: Having considered the complaint, the U.S.

International Trade Commission, on January 6, 1995, Ordered That—

(1) Pursuant to subsection (b) of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, an investigation be instituted to determine:

(a) whether there is a violation of subsection (a)(1)(A) of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation or the sale within the United States after importation of certain health and beauty aids and identifying marks thereon by reason of infringement of common law rights in trademarks incorporating the terms "Aussie" or "Australian", the threat or effect of which is to destroy or substantially injure an industry in the United States; and

(b) whether there is a violation of subsection (a)(1)(C) of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation or the sale within the United States after importation of certain health and beauty aids and identifying marks thereon, by reason of infringement of certain federally registered trademarks incorporating the terms "Aussie" or "Australian," and whether there exists an industry in the United States as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337.

(2) For the purpose of the investigation so instituted, the following are hereby named as parties upon which this notice of investigation shall be served:

(a) The complainant is—Redmond Products, Inc., 18930 West 78th Street, Chanhassen, Minnesota 55317.

(b) The respondent is the following company alleged to be in violation of Section 337, and is the party upon which the complaint is to be served: Belvedere International, Inc., 5675 Keaton Crescent, Mississauga, Ontario, L5R 3G3 Canada.

(c) Thomas S. Fusco, Esq., Office of Unfair Import Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Room 401-O, Washington, D.C. 20436, who shall be the Commission investigative attorney, party to this investigation; and

(3) For the investigation so instituted, Janet D. Saxon, Chief Administrative Law Judge, U.S. International Trade Commission, shall designate the presiding Administrative Law Judge.

Responses to the complaint and the notice of investigation must be submitted by the named respondent in accordance with section 210.13 of the Commission's Final Rules of Practice and Procedure. 59 FR 39022, August 1, 1994. Pursuant to 19 CFR 201.16(d) and section 210.13(a) of the Commission's Final Rules (59 Fed. Reg. 39022, August 1, 1994), such responses will be considered by the Commission if received not later than 20 days after the date of service of the complaint. Extensions of time for submitting responses to the complaint will not be granted unless good cause therefor is shown.

Failure of the respondent to file a timely response to each allegation in the complaint and in this notice may be deemed to constitute a waiver of the right to appear and contest the allegations of the complaint and this notice, and to authorize the administrative law judge and the Commission, without further notice to the respondent, to find the facts to be as alleged in the complaint and this notice and to enter both an initial determination and a final determination containing such findings, and may result in the issuance of a limited exclusion order or a cease and desist order or both directed against such respondent.

Issued: January 9, 1995.

By order of the Commission.

Donna R. Koehnke,

Secretary.
