

1. Amend KF.10 Organization. Delete in its entirety and replace it with the following:

KF.10 Organization. The Office of Child Support Enforcement is headed by a Director and consists of:

Office of the Director (KFA)
Division of Audit (KFB)
Division of Program Operations (KFC)
Division of Policy and Planning (KFD)
Division of Consumer Services (KFE)

2. Amend KF.20 Functions.

a. Delete paragraph A in its entirety, and replace it with the following:

KF.20 Functions. A. Offices of the Director. The Director is also the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families and is directly responsible to the Secretary for carrying out OCSE's mission. The Deputy Director has day-to-day operational responsibility for Child Support Enforcement programs. The Associate Deputy Director for information Systems, who is also the Director of the ACF Office of Information Systems/Child Support Systems, has responsibility for day-to-day management of child support information systems. The Deputy Director assists the Director in carrying out responsibilities of the Office and oversees day-to-day operation of OCSE's Audit, Program Operations, Policy and Planning and Consumer Services Divisions. The Associate Deputy Director assists the Deputy Director in carrying out the responsibilities of the Office.

The Office is responsible for developing regulations, guidance and standards for states to observe in locating absent parents; establishing paternity and support obligations and enforcing support obligations; maintaining relationships with Department officials, other federal departments, state and local officials, and private organizations and individuals interested in the CSE program; coordinating and planning child support enforcement activities to maximize program effectiveness; and approving all instructions, policies and publications issued by OCSE staff.

Within the Office of the Director, administrative staff assist the Director, Deputy Director and Associate Deputy Director in managing the formulation and execution of program and salaries and expense budgets; and in providing administrative, personnel and data processing support services.

b. Delete paragraph C in its entirety, and replace it with the following:

C. Division of Program Operations assesses state performance and provides information and assistance on program operations. It monitors implementation of program requirements; coordinates child support enforcement activities with regional offices; develops guides and resource materials for use by states and ACF regional offices; documents specialized program techniques for use by states and local agencies; and ensures transfer of best practices among state and local support enforcement agencies. The Division provides specialized services and operation of the Federal Parent Locator Service, the Federal Tax Refund Offset Program, Project 1099, the IRS Full Collection Project and the Parental Kidnapping Service. It develops and publishes informational materials and operates a training center on child support programs; and monitors contracts with organizations affiliated with child support enforcement programs. It provides liaison services to a variety of special interest populations concerning collections of child support.

c. Add paragraph E. Add the following to establish paragraph E:

E. Division of Consumer Services provides direction and leadership for a variety of consumer affairs activities in support of the nationwide child support enforcement program. Provides advice on strategies and approaches to be used to improve public understanding of and access to OCSE programs and policies. Promotes "best" child support practices to the public through monthly publication of the Child Support Report. Advises the Director, OCSE of the impact of child support enforcement policy and program upon consumers and provides a focal point for consumer relations and consultation.
