rationale for this amendment of the Commission's policy of rewarding superior program achievement is described in the supplementary information for the proposed rule. 60 FR 26010–11. The interim rule permits the advancement of a prisoner's presumptive release date by up to twelve months for successfully completing a residential substance abuse treatment program. This provision comports with the permissible prison term reduction identified by the Bureau of Prisons in its own interim rule on the subject. 60 FR 27695. The existing schedule of permissible reductions in paragraph (e) of § 2.60 will not limit the reward which may be granted under the interim rule for completing the residential drug abuse treatment program. Any reduction under the new policy will be in addition to any other advancement for superior program achievement in areas unrelated to participation in substance abuse treatment programs. The proposed rule included a provision that stated the Commission's intent that the normal reduction under the policy would be twelve months, with certain exceptions. The Commission decided that a precise definition of its policy should be postponed until both the Bureau of Prisons and the Commission obtain experience in the implementation of the agencies' respective rules, and therefore is publishing this rule on an interim basis, with request for further public comment. For the Parole Commission. the need is to determine whether the interim rule can be implemented consistently with the statutory criteria for parole at 18 U.S.C. 4206 (1976). If this does not appear feasible, the Commission may amend or withdraw the interim regulation.

A comment favoring adoption of the proposed rule was received from a representative of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. This comment encouraged the Commission to revise its proposal to allow the advancement of the prisoner's presumptive release date even if the prisoner had a prior history of violent offenses. The representative noted that the Commission's practice would otherwise diverge from that proposed by the Bureau of Prisons, which would be limited to the prisoner's offense of conviction as a basis for deciding whether the prisoner should be eligible for early release. The Commission did not adopt the recommended revision since the criteria it must follow in making parole decisions require it to consider the "history and characteristics" of the eligible prisoner and whether his release would jeopardize the public welfare. See 18 U.S.C. 4206(a)(2). The Commission must consider relevant information as to the prisoner's capacity for violence which the Bureau of Prisons may not be required to consider in granting prison term reductions under 18 U.S.C 3621(e). In addition, the Commission notes that the Bureau has determined that it will not consider the prisoner for early release if his prior criminal record includes a conviction for homicide, forcible rape, robbery, or aggravated assault. 60 FR 27692, 27695.

Implementation

Prisoners will be considered for advancements under the interim rule at any hearing or pre-release record review that is conducted on or after October 2, 1995. The Commission will not reopen cases for prisoners who have a release date with no further hearing or review scheduled. For prisoners who are given hearings or reviews on or after October 2, 1995, the Commission may consider an advancement of the prisoner's presumptive release date under the interim rule even if completion of a residential substance abuse treatment program occurred prior to the effective date of the rule.

Executive Order 12866 and Regulatory Flexibility Statement

The U.S. Parole Commission has determined that this interim rule is not a significant rule within the meaning of Executive Order 12866, and the rule has, accordingly, not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget. The rule will not have a significant economic impact upon a substantial number of small entities, within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 605(b).

The Amendment

Accordingly, the U.S. Parole Commission is adopting the following amendments to 28 CFR part 2.

PART 2—[AMENDED]

(1) The authority citation for 28 CFR part 2 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 18 U.S.C. 4203(a)(1) and 4204(a)(6).

(2) 28 CFR part 2, § 2.60 is amended by adding new paragraphs (g) and (h), to read as follows:

§ 2.60 Superior program achievement.

(g) Upon notification by the Bureau of Prisons that a prisoner who has a recognized problem with substance abuse, has successfully completed residential substance abuse treatment (in conformity with the criteria set forth for non-parolable prisoners in 18 U.S.C. 3621(e)), the Commission will consider such prisoner for a special advancement, by up to twelve months, of the presumptive release date previously set. Such advancement may be made even though the Schedule of Permissible Reductions in paragraph (e) of this section provides a permissible reduction of less than twelve months, and shall be in addition to any other advancement granted under this section. However, if the prisoner has already received an advancement of his presumptive parole date (or, in the case of a prisoner who has been continued to expiration, has received extra good time credit) for participation in a residential substance abuse treatment program, and the advancement (or good time credit) equals or exceeds the advancement that would be granted under this paragraph, no further advancement shall be granted.

(h) Any advancement under this section (including a special advancement for completion of residential substance abuse treatment) is subject to forfeiture, in whole or in part, whenever a presumptive parole date is rescinded pursuant to § 2.34. In the case of a special advancement under paragraph (g) of this section, the entire advancement shall be forfeited if the Commission finds that the prisoner has engaged in usage, possession, or distribution of any controlled substances subsequent to program completion.

Dated: July 27, 1995.
