Drug Enforcement Administration [Docket No. 93–73]

Mukand Lal Arora, M.D.; Revocation of Registration

On July 29, 1993, the Deputy Assistant Administrator (then Director), Office of Diversion Control, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), directed an Order to Show Cause to Mukand Lal Arora, M.D. (Respondent), proposing to revoke his DEA Certificate of Registration, AA9610850, as a practitioner under 21 U.S.C. 824(a) (2) and (4), and to deny any pending applications under 21 U.S.C. 823(f). The Order to Show Cause alleged that Respondent had been convicted of a felony related to controlled substances and that his continued registration would be inconsistent with the public interest.

Respondent, through counsel, requested a hearing on the issues raised in the Order to Show Cause. The matter was docketed before Administrative Law Judge Paul, A. Tenney. Following prehearing procedures, a hearing was held in Houston, Texas on April 20, 1994.

On August 9, 1994, Judge Tenney issued his findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommended ruling in which he recommended that the respondent's registration be revoked. Neither party filed exceptions to this opinion, and on September 9, 1994, the administrative law judge transmitted the record of the proceedings to the Deputy Administrator.

The Deputy Administrator has considered the record in its entirety and, pursuant to 21 CFR 1316.67, enters his final order in this matter, based on findings of fact and conclusions of law as hereinafter set forth.

Judge Tenney found that Respondent completed medical school in New Delhi, India, and subsequently completed a residency and internship in Staten Island, New York, and four years of psychiatric training in Austin, Texas. In 1980, Respondent started a private medical practice in Houston, Texas. Respondent's primary language is Indian-Punjabi, but he was taught English in a professional school in India. Respondent is licensed to practice medicine in Texas, is primarily engaged in a pediatric practice, and has never had his medical license suspended or been previously disciplined.

Judge Tenney found that in 1991, DEA received information from local pharmacists regarding Respondent's prescribing practices. DEA initiated an investigation using a Houston Police Department officer in an undercover capacity. In May 1991, the undercover officer visited Respondent's medical office and requested a prescription for either Vicodin or Tylenol #4 with codeine, Schedule III controlled substances. The visit was monitored and tape-recorded by DEA investigators. The undercover officer told Respondent that he needed the medication "just to mellow out at the end of the day". Respondent asked the undercover officer if he was addicted, to which the officer replied, "no". Respondent asked the undercover officer whether the prescription was for backache, to which the officer replied, "no". Although Respondent did check the undercover officer's blood pressure and chest, he did not pursue the nature of the undercover officer's complaint. The undercover officer was given a prescription for 30 Vicodin tablets. The undercover officer made two subsequent visits to Respondent's office in July 1991, each time receiving another prescription for 30 Vicodin tablets without giving an indication of any medical purpose and denying any physical complaint. During these visits, the undercover officer indicated that he loaded trucks for a local newspaper.

The administrative law judge found that on November 9, 1992, Respondent was convicted in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, of the felony offense of prescribing a controlled substance without a legitimate medical purpose, arising out of one of the aforementioned undercover operations. Respondent was sentenced to two years probation, fined, and was given a deferred adjudication.

Respondent contended that the Government transcripts of the undercover visits were unreliable. The administrative law judge found that although segments of the transcripts of the undercover visits indicated that some parts of the conversations were "inaudible", the Government presented persuasive and credible testimony that the transcripts accurately represented the conversations monitored at Respondent's medical office. Neither party offered in evidence the tapes themselves, which were available at the hearing.

In his testimony, Respondent asserted that he considered the nature of the undercover officer's work—specifically, loading trucks for a newspaper—in evaluating the officer's condition and prescribing controlled substances. Respondent further stated that he based the diagnosis of backache on his visual observation of the undercover officer's movement, and that he had not conducted a physical examination because the patient was not cooperative.
