Self-Regulatory Organizations; Chicago Stock Exchange, Incorporated; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change Relating to Implementation of a Three-Day Settlement Standard

December 27, 1994.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),1 notice is hereby given that on November 30, 1994, the Chicago Stock Exchange, Incorporated ("CHX") filed with the Securities and exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which items have been prepared primarily by CHX. On December 14, 1994, CHX filed an amendment to the proposed rule change.² The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The purpose of this proposed rule change is to amend CHX's rules to accommodate the implementation of a three business day settlement standard for securities transactions.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

It its filing with the Commission, CHX included statements concerning the propose of and basis for the purposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. CHX has prepared summaries, set forth in sections (A), (B), and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

(A) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

On October 13, 1993, the Commission adopted Rule 15c6–1 under the Act which establishes a three-day settlement standard for most securities transactions. Rule 15c6–1 becomes effective June 7, 1995.³ CHX's proposed rule change will amend its rules relating to delivery time frames, ex-dates, and liability for erroneous reports in order to comply with Rule 15c6–1 and a three business day settlement standard.

Under Article XX, Rule 9 of CHX's rules, regular way settlement currently requires delivery five business days after the trade date ("T+5"). Under the proposal, regular way settlement will occur three business days after the trade date ("T+3"). Seller's option trades currently can settle not less than six business days nor more than sixty days following the day of the contract. Under the proposed rule change, seller's option trades can settle not less than four business days ("T+4") nor more than sixty days following the day of the contract. Trades made for next day delivery permit delivery on the next business day following the day of the contract. Currently, such trades also may specify in the contract that delivery will occur on the second, third, or fourth full business day following the day of the contract. The proposal will eliminate the ability to specify the third or fourth full business day. Rule 9 also will be amended to eliminate references to the fourth and fifth full business day preceding the final day so that only on the second and third full business day for subscription must bids and offers be made for next day settlement.

Article XXVII, Rule 1 will be amended to provide that transactions in stocks shall be ex-dividend or ex-rights on the second business day preceding the record date rather than on the fourth business day. With regard to a record date on other than a business day, transactions in stocks will be ex-dividend or ex-rights on the third preceding business day rather than on the fifth business day.

Article XXVII, Rule 2 prescribes when ex-warrant trading will begin. The exwarrant period will be changed to the second business day preceding the date of expiration of the warrants instead of the fourth business day. When warrant expiration occurs on other than a business day, the ex-warrant period will begin on the third business day preceding the expiration date instead of on the fifth business day.

Article XXX, Rule 15 applies to erroneous comparisons and other errors. All claims which involve erroneous comparisons will need to be made within two business days of the original trade date rather than within three business days. Claims which concern the omission of a report which was properly due will need to be made
