capacity where the Department of Justice is representing or considering representation of the employee, or (d) the United States where EPA determines that the litigation is likely to affect the Agency. Such disclosures include, but are not limited to, those made in the course of presenting evidence, conducting settlement negotiations, and responding to requests for discovery.

9. In response to a subpoena from another Federal agency having the power to issue subpoenas to EPA.

10. To EPA and other Federal agency contractors, grantees, or volunteers who have been engaged to assist the Government in the performance of a contract, grant, cooperative agreement, or other activity related to this system of records and who need to have access to the records in order to perform the activity. Recipients are required to maintain the records in accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act.

11. To the public, upon request, and to publishers of computerized legal research systems, but such disclosures shall be limited to interim or final decisions and settlement agreements.

12. To a member of Congress or a Congressional office in response to an inquiry from that member or office made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains.

13. To representatives of GSA and the National Archives and Records Administration who are conducting records management inspections under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, RETAINING AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

Paper records in file folders; microfiche, discs, computers and other electronic media.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records are retrieved by name of the firm or individual and by file number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Records are accessible only by authorized EPA employees and are secured in file cabinets in areas which are locked during non-duty hours. Access to data in computers is restricted to suspension and debarment personnel and other EPA employees with an official need for such information.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records are retained in accordance with EPA's Assistance and Interagency Agreement Records Schedule, NC1– 412–85–25/7. This schedule was developed under EPA Records Management Guidelines established pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 3101 et seq. Investigative and advocacy files are destroyed after the issuance of a final determination or entry of a compliance agreement. Audit files are retained throughout the term of the relevant compliance agreement. The official administrative record is retained in the office until three months after the period of debarment or voluntary exclusion expires, or all provisions of the compliance agreement have been completed. The official administrative record is then transferred to the Federal Records Center (FRC) for storage. Files relating to cases closed without action are also transferred to the FRC three months after the decision to close the matter. The records transferred to the FRC are destroyed when they are 6 years and 3 months old.

SYSTEM MANAGER AND ADDRESSES:

Director, Office of Grants and Debarment, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Mail Code 3901F, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, DC, 20460.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

To obtain notification on whether this system contains information on you, contact the System Manager at the above address. Proof of identity will be required prior to disclosure of the records sought. If records pertaining to you are located outside of the Office of Grants and Debarment, the System Manager will direct you to the appropriate office.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

See Notification Procedures. Please specify the particular records requested.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

See Notification Procedures. Your written inquiry should identify the record(s) to be corrected, the corrective action sought, including any requested amendment to the records, and any supporting documentation you consider relevant to EPA's consideration of your request.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

EPA and other Federal officials, state and local officials, private parties, businesses and other entities who may have information relevant to an inquiry, and individuals who have been suspended, proposed for debarment or debarred, and their legal representatives. SYSTEMS EXEMPTED FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ACT:

None.
