The actual amount available for awards and their allocation may vary, depending on unanticipated program requirements and the volume and quality of applications. FY 1995 funds for substance abuse treatment services and demonstration programs are appropriated by the Congress under Public Law 103–333. SAMHSA's policies and procedures for peer review and Advisory Council review of grant and cooperative agreement applications were published in the Federal Register (Vol. 58, No. 126) on July 2, 1993.

The Public Health Service (PHS) is committed to achieving the health promotion and disease prevention objectives of Healthy People 2000, a PHS-led national activity for setting priority areas. The Center's treatment improvement services and demonstration activities address issues related to Healthy People 2000 objectives: promoting the physical, social, psychological and economic well-being of individuals recovering from alcohol and other drug dependencies; promoting outreach to drug abusers, IV drug users using uncontaminated paraphernalia, testing for HIV infection; increasing access to treatment programs; promoting the collaboration of primary care, mental health and substance abuse treatment and fostering closer coordination between the criminal justice and public health systems to collaboratively address issues related to alcohol and other drug-related crime and violence; managing health care for communitybased offender populations and designing cost-effective programming that is responsive to today's health care issues. Potential applicants may obtain a copy of Healthy People 2000 (Full Report: Stock No. 017-001-00474-0) or Summary Report: Stock No. 017-001-00473-1) through the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402-9325 (Telephone: 202-783-3238).

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS: Applicants for grants must use application form PHS 5161–1 (Rev. 7/92). The Application Kit
