epidemiological investigation has confirmed that the disease has not spread from the herd, and all reactor cattle and bison have been destroyed. However, if tuberculosis is detected in two or more herds in the State within 48 months, the State's accredited-free status is revoked.

Before publication of this interim rule, Wisconsin was designated in § 77.1 of the regulations as an accredited-free State. However, because tuberculosis has recently been confirmed in one herd within the State, the Administrator has determined that Wisconsin no longer meets the criteria for designation as an accredited-free State, but instead meets the criteria for designation as an accredited-free (suspended) State. Therefore, we are amending the regulations by removing Wisconsin from the list of accredited-free States in § 77.1 and adding it to the list of accreditedfree (suspended) States in that section.

Immediate Action

The Administrator of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has determined that there is good cause for publishing this interim rule without prior opportunity for public comment. Immediate action is necessary to change the regulations so that they accurately reflect the current tuberculosis status of Wisconsin as an accredited-free (suspended) State. This will provide prospective cattle and bison buyers with accurate and up-to-date information.

Because prior notice and other public procedures with respect to this action are impracticable and contrary to the public interest under these conditions, we find good cause under 5 U.S.C. 553 to make it effective upon publication in the Federal Register. We will consider comments that are received within 60 days of publication of this rule in the Federal Register. After the comment period closes, we will publish another document in the Federal Register. It will include a discussion of any comments we receive and any amendments we are making to the rule as a result of the comments.

Executive Order 12866 and Regulatory Flexibility Act

This rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12866. For this action, the Office of Management and Budget has waived its review process required by Executive Order 12866.

Wisconsin has approximately 61,000 cattle herds containing 3.85 million cattle and bison. An estimated 98 percent of these herds are owned by small businesses. Changing the status of Wisconsin may affect the marketability of cattle and bison from the State, since some prospective cattle and bison buyers prefer to buy cattle and bison from accredited-free States. This may result in a small detrimental economic impact on some small entities. We anticipate that this action will not have a significant effect on marketing patterns in Wisconsin and will therefore not have a significant effect on those small entities affected by this action.

Under these circumstances, the Administrator of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has determined that this action will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Executive Order 12372

This program/activity is listed in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance under No. 10.025 and is subject to Executive Order 12372, which requires intergovernmental consultation with State and local officials. (See 7 CFR part 3015, subpart V.)

Executive Order 12778

This rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12778, Civil Justice Reform. This rule: (1) Preempts all State and local laws and regulations that are in conflict with this rule; (2) has no retroactive effect; and (3) does not require administrative proceedings before parties may file suit in court challenging this rule.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule contains no information collection or recordkeeping requirements under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION

16 CFR Part 1512

Requirements for Bicycles

AGENCY: Consumer Product Safety Commission.

ACTION: Revocation of rules.

SUMMARY: The Commission revokes two labeling rules applicable to bicycles introduced into interstate commerce between May 11, 1976, and May 11, 1978. The Commission is revoking these rules because no bicycles offered for sale at this time are subject to their requirements.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 8, 1995. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Allen F. Brauninger, Attorney, Office of the General Counsel, Consumer Product Safety Commission, Washington, DC 20207; telephone (301) 504–0980, extension 2216.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

In 1976, the Commission published regulations prescribing safety requirements for bicycles under the authority of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act (FHSA) (15 U.S.C. 1261 et seq.), to become effective on May 11, 1976. (See the Federal Register notice of January 28, 1976; 41 FR 4144.) These regulations are codified at 16 CFR Part 1512, and include requirements for the design, performance, and labeling of bicycles.

The regulations are applicable to bicycles introduced into interstate commerce on and after May 11, 1976. Bicycles introduced into interstate commerce before that date are not subject to their requirements. Consequently, on the effective date of the regulations, bicycles introduced into interstate commerce before May 11, 1976, could be sold without violating the regulations or the FHSA.

B. Issuance of Temporary Labeling Requirements

To help consumers identify bicycles manufactured to comply with the regulations, the Commission included a requirement in the regulations that bicycles introduced into interstate
