

Transwestern states that the above-referenced tariff sheets are being filed in compliance with the Commission's October 17th Order and set forth revisions to Section 24, "Purchase Gas Adjustment Alternate Rate Recovery Mechanism (PGAR Mechanism)," of the General Terms and Conditions of Transwestern's FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1.

Specifically, Transwestern has revised three subsections. First, Section 24.1(b) has been revised to provide for the following order of discounting: (1) GRI demand surcharge; (2) base reservation charge; and (3) PGAR reservation surcharge. Second, Section 24.1(c) has been revised to provide that the estimated interest for the period beginning June 1, 1994 shall be CFR 154.67(c)(2)(iii)(A).1 Third, Section 24.3, which was set forth in Pro Forma Sheet No. 84 (filed with Transwestern's Initial Comments) and which included a true-up mechanism, has been revised to delete such true-up mechanism, and to provide for the following: (i) Termination of the PGAR surcharge upon recovery of total PGAR Costs, plus interest, including possible early termination prior to October 31, 1996; (ii) Transwestern's payment of any refunds, plus interest; and (iii) Transwestern's submitting a report demonstrating compliance with the order of discounting set forth in Section 24.1(b).

Transwestern states that copies of the filing were served on its gas utility customers, interested state commissions, and all parties to this proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC, 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Pursuant to Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations, all such protests must be filed no later than 12 days after the date of the filing noted above. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
