

establishes procedures for obtaining the informal views of the OCC legal staff regarding the applicability of national banking law requirements to contemplated transactions or activities, including fiduciary activities. The OCC invites comment on whether these procedures are sufficient to accommodate meet banks that seek clarification of, or relief from, requirements in part 9, or whether the OCC should add a waiver provision specific to part 9.

This table directs readers to the provisions of the current 12 CFR part 9, if any, on which the revised 12 CFR part 9 and the amended 12 CFR part 19 are based

Regulatory Flexibility Act

It is hereby certified that this proposal will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Accordingly, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required. The proposal's requirements, for the most part, are not new to the regulation. The proposal liberalizes requirements and reduces burden for all national banks that exercise fiduciary powers, regardless of size.

Executive Order 12866

The OCC has determined that this proposal is not a significant regulatory action under Executive Order 12866.

Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

The OCC invites comment on:

(1) Whether the proposed information collection contained in this proposal is necessary for the proper performance of the OCC's functions, including whether the information has practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the OCC's estimate of the burden of the proposed information collection;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of the information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Respondents/recordkeepers are not required to respond to this collection of
