other transaction which is subject to the Export Administration Regulations, if the person denied export privileges may obtain any benefit or have any interest in, directly or indirectly, any of these transactions.

D. As authorized by Section 788.17(b) of the Regulations, the denial period shall be suspended for a period of two years and nine months beginning on June 1, 1995, and shall thereafter be waived, provided that, during the period of suspension, Teledyne Wah Chang commits no violation of the Act or any regulation, order or license issued thereunder. During the period between June 1, 1995 and March 1, 1996, Teledyne Wah Chang's authority to use general license G-NSG is suspended. Teledyne Wah Chang is eligible to apply for individual validated export licenses for any export that would ordinarily be eligible for export under general license G-NSG during the period that its authority to use general license G–NSG is suspended. Further, for the last two years of the denial period, Teledyne Wah Chang shall report periodically to the Office of Export Enforcement, Bureau of Export Administration, United States Department of Commerce (OEE), all exports made by Teledyne Wah Chang under the authority of general license G-NSG during the previous three months. The first such report shall be provided to OEE on July 1, 1996 and shall cover any exports by Teledyne Wah Chang under the authority of general license G-NSG between March 1, 1996 and May 30, 1996. Subsequent reports shall be made to OEE every three months thereafter. Each report shall include the following information: the date of each general license G-NSG shipment made during that quarter; the country of ultimate destination; the name and address of the ultimate consignee; and a description of the commodities, the quantity, and the value of the commodities included in each shipment.

Third, the timely payment of the civil penalty set forth above is hereby made a condition to the granting, restoration, or continuing validity of any export license, permission, or privilege granted, or to be granted, to Teledyne Wah Chang. Accordingly, if Teledyne Wah Chang should fail to pay in a timely manner the civil penalty set forth above, the undersigned will enter an Order denying all of Teledyne Wah Chang's export privileges for a period of one year from the date of entry of this Order.

Fourth, that the proposed Charging Letter, the Consent Agreement and this Order shall be made available to the public. Copies of this Order shall be served on Teledyne Wah Chang and published in the Federal Register.

This Order, which constitutes the final agency action in this matter, is effective immediately.

Entered this 26th day of January, 1995. John Despres,

Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement. [FR Doc. 95–2635 Filed 2–2–95; 8:45 am] BILLING CODE 3510–DT–M

Intent to Revoke Antidumping Duty Orders and Findings and to Terminate Suspended Investigations

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of Intent to Revoke Antidumping Duty Orders and Findings and to Terminate Suspended Investigations.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is notifying the public of its intent to revoke the antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate the suspended investigations listed below. Domestic interested parties who object to these revocations and terminations must submit their comments in writing no later than the last day of February 1995.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 3, 1995.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Department may revoke an antidumping duty order or finding or terminate a suspended investigation if the Secretary of Commerce concludes that it is no longer of interest to interested parties. Accordingly, as required by § 353.25(d)(4) of the Department's regulations, we are notifying the public of our intent to revoke the following antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate the suspended investigations for which the Department has not received a request to conduct an administrative review for the most recent four consecutive annual anniversary months:

If no interested party requests an administrative review in accordance with the Department's notice of opportunity to request administrative review, and no domestic interested party objects to the Department's intent to revoke or terminate pursuant to this notice, we shall conclude that the antidumping duty orders, findings, and suspended investigations are no longer of interest to interested parties and shall proceed with the revocation or termination.

Opportunity to Object

Domestic interested parties, as defined in § 353.2(k)(3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Department's regulations, may object to the Department's intent to revoke these antidumping duty orders and findings or to terminate the suspended investigations by the last day of February 1995. Any submission to the Department must contain the name and case number of the proceeding and a statement that explains how the objecting party qualifies as a domestic interested party under § 353.2(k)(3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Department's regulations.

Seven copies of such objections should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room B–099, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230. You must also include the pertinent certification(s) in accordance with § 353.31(g) and § 353.31(i) of the Department's regulations.

In addition, the Department requests that a copy of the objection be sent to Michael F. Panfeld in Room 4203. This
