UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

Curriculum Development Project: Secondary School Civic Education for the Czech Republic

ACTION: Notice—request for proposals.

SUMMARY: The Advising, Teaching, and Specialized Programs Division of the Office of Academic Programs of the United States Information Agency's Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs announces an open competition for an assistance award. Public or private non-profit organizations meeting the provisions described in IRS regulation 501(c)(3) may apply to cooperate with USIA in the administration of a one-to two-year project to support the development and implementation of new curriculum units for ninth and tenth grade civic education courses in the Czech Republic. The grantee organization will work with the Institute for Educational Development, a Czech non-profit organization affiliated with Charles University and concerned with educational reform and teacher training in the Czech Republic. The Institute works closely with the Ministry of Education of the Czech Republic on curriculum and teacher training. The program will comprise three phases: (1) Preliminary consultations in Prague with a curriculum development team of five Czech educators; (2) a three-month U.S.-based curriculum development workshop in which the team will produce draft curriculum units; and (3) follow-up consultations in the Czech Republic to assist with the training of a larger group of Czech practitioners in the implementation and review of the draft curriculum units.

Upon the successful completion of Phases I-III, additional funds may be available to the grantee organization for a fourth phase of activity to cooperate with the Institute for Educational Development and the curriculum development team in further reviewing and revising the draft materials and to provide broader training for implementation of the revised curriculum units with Czech teachers and administrators.

USIA solicits detailed proposals from U.S. educational institutions and public and private non-profit organizations to develop and administer this project. The cooperation with USIA will include regular consultation with USIA and with USIS officers in the Czech Republic with regard to program implementation, direction, and assessment. Proposals should demonstrate an understanding of the issues confronting education in the Czech Republic as well as expertise in civic education and curriculum development. The funding authority for the program cited above is provided through the Support for East European Democracies Act (SEED). Programs and projects must conform with Agency requirements and guidelines outlined in the Solicitation Package. USIA projects and programs are subject to the availability of funds.
