INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: Russian and Warsaw Pact forces move into Czechoslovakia to crush a liberal government. The U.S. spy ship Pueblo is seized by North Korea. The North Vietnamese Tet offensive shatters American conviction that there is a light at the end of the war's tunnel. There are some 55,000 U.S. troops in Vietnam, and by year's end, over 22,000 Americans have died there.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is assassinated in Memphis, triggering racial violence in 168 cities and towns. Two months later, Senator Robert F. Kennedy is fatally shot in Los Angeles after winning the California Democratic presidential primary. President Johnson decides not to seek re-election in the face of deepening national turmoil over the Vietnam War and the antiwar candidacy of Senator Eugene McCarthy. Vice President Hubert Humphrey wins the Democratic presidential nomination at a national convention in Chicago torn by violence in the streets. Richard M. Nixon wins the second-closest presidential election of the century, defeating Humphrey by only 500,000 votes out of over 73 million votes cast; George Wallace carries six southern states. The Apollo 8 flight around the moon in December provides a peaceful end to a turbulent year.

SOCIAL: Jacqueline Kennedy marries Greek multimillionaire Aristotle Onassis.

SPORTS: The Mexico City Olympics are marked by the heroics of long-jumper Bob Beamon and protests by American black athletes. American figure skater Peggy Fleming and French skier Jean-Claude Killy are the stars of the Winter Olympics. In a year of the pitch dominated by 31-game winner Denny McLain of Detroit and Bob Gibson of St. Louis, the Tigers edge the Cardinals in the World Series. Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers prevail over the Oakland Raiders in the Super Bowl. Arthur Ashe wins tennis' first U.S. Open including professionals as well as amateurs.

MOVIES: The motion picture event of the year is Stanley Kubrick's visionary 2001: A Space Odyssey. Biggest hit of the year is Funny Girl, for which its star, Barbra Streisand, will share the Best Actress Oscar with Katharine Hepburn (Lion In The Winter). Other top hits include The Odd Couple, Bullitt, and Romeo And Juliet.

TELEVISION: Rowan & Martin's Laugh-In is the new season's most popular series, followed by Gomer Pyle, U.S.M.C., Bonanza, Mayberry, R.F.D., and Family Affair. The Carol Burnett Show emerges as a classic variety/comedy series.

THEATER: Hair is a scandalous and trendsetting smash hit musical.
