

1972

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: It is a year of summity as President Nixon travels to China to end nearly a quarter-century of hostility between that nation and the U.S., and also to the Soviet Union to sign a strategic arms limitation agreement. The Olympic Games in Munich are torn by tragedy when Palestinian terrorists murder eleven Israeli athletes. American troops continue to withdraw from Vietnam, but the U.S. air war escalates further.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: Richard Nixon rolls to an overwhelming re-election victory over Senator George McGovern, who defeats Hubert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie for the Democratic presidential nomination. However, the Watergate scandal looms in the background as the Washington Post uncovers a secret campaign of political spying and sabotage that traces back to the White House. Alabama Governor George Wallace is shot and paralyzed from the waist down during his presidential primary campaign. Clifford Irving's bogus autobiography of Howard Hughes is an epic hoax. The Equal Rights Amendment is approved by Congress, but fails to be ratified by enough states to become a part of the Constitution. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover dies, ending a reign of some 47 years.

FADS AND FASHION: Photography is hotter than ever, aided by the revolutionary introduction this year of new compact cameras. There is a new national boom in backpacking. T-shirts with a message are increasingly popular.

SPORTS: Swimmer Mark Spitz wins a record seven gold medals at the Munich Olympics. The Dallas Cowboys defeat the Miami Dolphins in the Super Bowl. The Oakland Athletics top the Cincinnati Reds in the World Series. The Los Angeles Lakers are the NBA champions. In a classic duel of veteran champions, Ken Rosewall overcomes Rod Laver for the World Championship of Tennis. Bobby Fischer becomes the first American to win the world chess championship.

MOVIES: The Godfather (starring Marlon Brando) is both the top box office hit and the big Oscar winner of the year. It is followed in popularity by The Poseidon Adventure, What's Up, Doc?, Deliverance, and Jeremiah Johnson.

TELEVISION: Most popular series are All In The Family, Sanford And Son, Hawaii Five-O, Maude, and Bridget Loves Bernie. *M*A*S*H* makes its television debut. Brian's Song is a classic TV movie.

BOOKS: Jonathan Livingston Seagull by Richard Bach is one of the biggest sellers ever.
