

1973

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: A cease-fire in Vietnam ends the direct involvement of U.S. troops in Indochina; the final American death toll there is over 45,000. More than 20,000 die in the Yom Kippur War after Egyptian and Syrian forces attack Israel. An Arab oil embargo helps bring about a worldwide economic recession. A violent coup in Chile overthrows President Salvador Allende, who is replaced by a military junta that ends democratic government there.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: The Watergate scandal becomes a national spectator sport as millions watch the Senate Watergate hearings, led by Sam Ervin, on television. President Nixon has Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox fired for seeking the release of Watergate-related White House tape recordings. The House begins to move toward impeachment proceedings against Nixon. Vice President Agnew resigns after pleading no contest to tax evasion charges, avoiding trial on bribery allegations. The Supreme Court rules that states may not prohibit abortions during the first six months of pregnancy. Soaring food prices and an emerging energy crisis cause economic alarm.

FADS AND FASHION: The CB radio craze begins to spread nationwide.

SPORTS: The Miami Dolphins complete an unequalled 17-0 season by defeating the Washington Redskins in the Super Bowl. O.J. Simpson becomes the first NFL player to rush for 2,000 yards in a season. Reggie Jackson and the Oakland A's repeat as World Series champions by defeating the New York Mets. The New York Knicks prevail in the NBA finals. UCLA, led by Bill Walton, wins its seventh consecutive NCAA college basketball championship. George Foreman knocks out Joe Frazier to win the heavyweight boxing crown. In the classic case of sport as theater, Billie Jean King routs Bobby Riggs in tennis' battle of the sexes. Secretariat is the first horse in 25 years to win the triple crown.

MOVIES: The Exorcist, leading moneymaking film of the year, terrorizes moviegoers. Less frightening box office winners include The Sting (the Academy Award's Best Picture), American Graffiti, Papillon, and The Way We Were. Last Tango In Paris is the year's most controversial film.

TELEVISION: All In The Family is again the most popular series, followed by The Waltons, Sanford And Son, *M*A*S*H*, and Hawaii Five-O.

BOOKS: David Halberstam's The Best And The Brightest is the year's most influential book.
