

1975

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: The collapse of the South Vietnamese government leads to the evacuation of over 100,000 refugees to the United States. After the U.S. freighter Mayaguez is seized by Cambodia, crewmen are rescued in an operation by the Navy and Marines, 38 of whom are killed. U.S. astronauts and Soviet cosmonauts link up in earth orbit.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: President Ford escapes two assassination attempts within 17 days. New York City narrowly staves off financial collapse. Unemployment and industrial production reach their worst levels since the Depression. Three of former President Nixon's top confidants — H.R. Haldeman, John Ehrlichman and John Mitchell — are convicted of conspiracy in the Watergate cover-up. Separate investigations by a presidential commission and a Senate committee report on illegal CIA domestic spying and alleged foreign assassination plots.

FADS: Pet rocks are the unlikely Christmas-time best sellers.

SPORTS: In one of the most exciting World Series in baseball history, the Cincinnati Reds outduel the Boston Red Sox. Muhammad Ali survives the Thriller in Manila against Joe Frazier. The Pittsburgh Steelers defeat the Minnesota Vikings in the Super Bowl. Oklahoma is the nation's #1 college football team for the second straight year. The Golden State Warriors win the NBA championship. Arthur Ashe scores a stunning upset over Jimmy Connors at Wimbledon. Jack Nicklaus wins the Masters and the PGA championship. American professional soccer receives a giant boost with the arrival of Brazilian superstar Pele.

MOVIES: Jaws is the blockbuster hit of the summer. Other leading box office winners include Oscar-sweeper One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest, Shampoo, and Dog Day Afternoon.

TELEVISION: Pay cable is making its first significant challenge to the networks a year after offering their first major Hollywood movies to subscribers. The fall season's top network hits are All In The Family, Rich Man, Poor Man, LaVerne & Shirley, Maude, and The Bionic Woman. NBC's Saturday Night Live is a late-night comedy smash.

THEATER: A Chorus Line begins its reign as Broadway's longest-running musical ever.
