

1977

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: Egyptian President Anwar Sadat visits Israel in an unprecedented gesture toward peace. President Carter makes human rights the focus of U.S. foreign policy, bringing about the release of many political prisoners in South America. Fifteen nations, including the U.S. and the Soviet Union, sign an agreement to curb the spread of nuclear weapons.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: President Carter pardons Vietnam draft resisters. Budget director Bert Lance resigns after revelations of his past financial affairs. The Son of Sam murders terrorize New York City. A critical shortage of natural gas makes energy conservation a big national concern. Gary Gilmore is the first American to be executed in ten years. Thousands of Americans line up to view the treasures in the tomb of Egypt's King Tut. Elvis Presley dies at age 42.

FADS AND FASHIONS: The exercise market is booming with a new fitness craze. Posters enjoy a giant resurgence in popularity, led by the sale of nearly three million posters of Farrah Fawcett-Majors. Skateboarding is in the midst of a new wave of popularity.

SPORTS: Reggie Jackson slams three consecutive home runs in the final game of the World Series as the New York Yankees conquer the Los Angeles Dodgers. Rod Carew's .388 is baseball's highest batting average in 20 years. The Oakland Raiders top the Minnesota Vikings in the Super Bowl. Bill Walton leads the Portland Trail Blazers to the NBA title. In tennis, Guillermo Vilas wins a record 56 matches in a row, including victory at the U.S. Open. Tom Watson emerges as golf's new superstar by winning the Masters and the British Open.

MOVIES: George Lucas' space-age extravaganza Star Wars establishes new standards for box office moneymaking. Other big movies of the year include Close Encounters Of The Third Kind, Saturday Night Fever, Smokey And The Bandit, and The Goodbye Girl. Woody Allen's Annie Hall is honored as best picture.

TELEVISION: Alex Haley's epic Roots becomes the most extraordinary television mini-series hit of all time. The end of one classic series, The Mary Tyler Moore Show, leads to the debut of another, Lou Grant. It is a big year for comedy series as LaVerne & Shirley, Happy Days, and Three's Company lead the Nielsen parade, followed by Charlie's Angels and 60 Minutes.

THEATER: Annie is the year's biggest new Broadway musical.
