

1978

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: Signed by Egypt's President Sadat and Israeli President Prime Minister Begin, President Carter's Camp David summit achieves a historic framework for peace. Carter wins Senate approval of a treaty transferring ownership of the Panama Canal to Panama at the turn of the century and guaranteeing its neutrality. The U.S. and China agree to re-establish full diplomatic relations. Pope Paul VI dies, and after the sudden death of his successor, Pope John Paul II is selected to become the first non-Italian leader of the Catholic Church in 455 years. Rev. Jim Jones leads his Peoples Temple cult to a mass suicide of more than 900 in Guyana.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: California slashes property taxes by 60 percent through adoption of Proposition 13, leading to the reduction of state and local government services. The first baby ever conceived outside of the mother's body is born. Three Americans pilot the first balloon flight across the Atlantic. The mayor of San Francisco and a city supervisor are murdered. Atlantic City opens up its first gambling casinos.

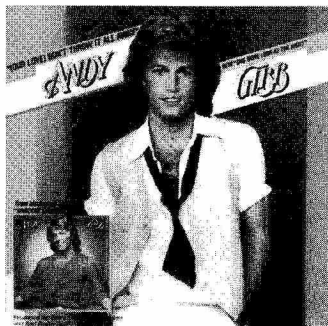

FADS AND FASHIONS: Videocassette recorders are changing American leisure schedules three years after being introduced on the market.

SPORTS: The New York Yankees, led by 25-game-winner Ron Guidry, overcome the Boston Red Sox in a dramatic pennant race, then score their second straight World Series victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dallas Cowboys whip the Denver Broncos in the Super Bowl. The Washington Bullets earn the NBA championship. Muhammad Ali loses the heavyweight boxing championship in a stunning upset by Leon Spinks, then wins it back seven months later. Bjorn Borg wins his third consecutive Wimbledon title, and Chris Evert takes her fourth straight U.S. Open.

MOVIES: Grease, Superman, National Lampoon's Animal House, and Jaws 2 are tops in ticket sales. The Deer Hunter wins the Academy Award's Best Picture.

TELEVISION: The most popular series are LaVerne & Shirley, Three's Company, Mork And Mindy, Happy Days, and The Ropers. The classic comedy Taxi debuts.
