

1989

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: Iran's Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini dies at age 89. Cold War tensions lessen as Communism's Iron Curtain unravels in Europe and Asia. The U.S.S.R., for the first time since 1917, grants free elections. Chinese college students take over Beijing's Tiananmen Square demanding democracy until the declaration of martial law takes an estimated 1,000 lives. East Bloc nations — Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria — dethrone their Communist governments. The stark division between East and West is symbolically destroyed with the dismantling of Germany's Berlin Wall. A madman fatally shoots 14 women at the University of Montreal. U.S. troops invade Panama when strongman General Manuel Noriega refuses to abdicate power after losing the presidential election. Romanian revolutionaries execute their Communist dictator, Nicolae Ceausescu, and his wife, Elena, on Christmas Day.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: George Bush is inaugurated as the 41st president of the United States. The Exxon Valdez tanker strikes a reef spilling 11 million gallons of oil in Alaska's Prince William Sound, the worst oil spill in U.S. history. Forty-seven sailors perish when a gun turret explodes on the battleship U.S.S. Iowa. The savings and loan bailout will cost taxpayers an estimated $166 billion over 10 years. The U.S. and Columbia battle the Medellin drug cartel. Hurricane Hugo batters the South Carolina seaboard on September 21. Three weeks later, an earthquake, measuring 7.0 on the Richter scale kills 67 people in the San Francisco Bay Area.

SPORTS: The San Francisco 49ers overshadow the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16, in the 23rd Super Bowl. The Detroit Pistons meet the Los Angeles Lakers in the final series of the 1988-89 season and win their first NBA championship, four games to zero. Adversity slugs the baseball world with Pete Rose's gambling, Wade Boggs' sex scandal and the deaths of commissioner Bart Giamatti and the oft-hired-fired former Yankee manager Billy Martin. A half hour before the opening pitch of the third game of the first Battle Of The Bay World Series, an earthquake ruptures California's Bay area. After an 11-day delay, the Oakland Athletics again face the San Francisco Giants and go on to sweep the World Series. Michigan defeats Seton Hall, 80-79, in the first overtime needed in an NCAA title game since 1963. In a dramatic recovery from hunting accident injuries suffered earlier, U.S. bicyclist Greg LeMond races to victory at the Tour de France.

MOVIES: Batmania descends on America as Batman grosses the highest box office total, to date, in its debut weekend, $42,000,000. Honey, I Shrank The Kids is one of the few non-sequels among the year's top ticket takers: Indiana Jones & The Last Crusade, Lethal Weapon II, Back To The Future II, and Ghostbusters II. Triumphant at the Academy Awards are Driving Miss Daisy and its leading lady Jessica Tandy. Daniel Day-Lewis takes home a Best Actor Oscar for his performance in My Left Foot.

TELEVISION: The Cosby Show and Roseanne tie as the season's most popular series; it is the first time in The Cosby Show's five years at the top of the ratings that it shares the #1 spot. Cheers, A Different World, and Golden Girls, all on NBC, also rank close to the top of the ratings. The budding Fox network gains huge audiences with Married...With Children.

THEATER: Musicals City Of Angels, Grand Hotel, and Gypsy sparkle on Broadway.

FASHION: Day-Glo fabrics prevail in casual attire.
