

1991

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: Eighteen hours after the UN Security Council's deadline of January 15, Operation Desert Shield becomes Operation Desert Storm as US-led coalition forces, representing 37 countries, launch an air attack against Iraqi forces in response to Iraq's refusal to withdraw from Kuwait. The Coalition demonstrates its military superiority throughout the Persian Gulf War, and, after a 100-hour ground war, Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein agrees to the terms of a ceasefire on February 27. The political maps of the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe change dramatically with the end of the Cold War, the dissolution of the Warsaw Pact and the restructuring of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). A coup d'etat of Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev by Communist party hardliners fails after three days, under the weight of popular resistance rallied by Russian President Boris Yeltsin. Shortly after his return to the Kremlin, Gorbachev resigns his presidency. Precipitated by a faltering economy and massive public protests, the Soviet Union crumbles into 15 separate republics.

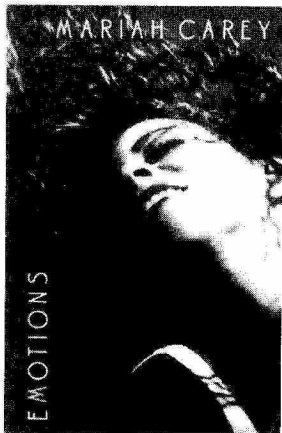

NATIONAL HEADLINES: Concerns of the recession, the national budget deficit, the Savings and Loan failures, the BCCI scandal and rising health care costs confound national economic woes. Serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer of Milwaukee confesses to the dismemberment of 17 males. The confirmation hearings of Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas bring the issue of sexual harassment to the forefront with testimony by a former co-worker of Thomas's, professor Anita Hill, of his alleged sexual misconduct.

SPORTS: In January's Super Bowl XXV, the New York Giants are narrow victors over the Buffalo Bills, 20-19. The Duke Blue Devils take their first NCAA championship with a victory over the Kansas Jayhawks. Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen lead the Chicago Bulls to their first NBA championship, defeating the Los Angeles Lakers four games to one. The last-placed teams of 1990, the Atlanta Braves and the Minnesota Twins, win their way to the 1991 World Series; in the 10-inning seventh game, the Twins come out on top, 1-0. Testing positive with the AIDS-causing virus HIV, superstar Magic Johnson ends his spectacular 12-year basketball career with the Los Angeles Lakers.

MOVIES: Terminator 2, Robin Hood: Prince Of Thieves, City Slickers, Silence Of The Lambs, Hook, Addams Family, Sleeping With The Enemy, and Beauty & The Beast generate the year's highest box office receipts.

TELEVISION: Cable news channel CNN keeps the world glued to its sets with its 24-hour live coverage of the Persian Gulf War. Riding at the top of the Nielsen ratings are 60 Minutes, Roseanne, Murphy Brown, Cheers, and Home Improvement. For an hour every Thursday night, high schoolers nationwide take in the lifestyles of the rich and glamorous teens of Fox's supersmash Beverly Hills 90210.
