INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: Despite numerous attempts to end the killing, war continues to ravage the former Yugoslavia. The United Nations, the U.S. and its allies propose peace plans, draw up new boundaries and even threaten air attacks, all to no avail. By year's end, only small pockets of Muslim resistance remain while Serbs and Croats control the majority of Bosnia and Herzegovina and continue their "ethnic cleansing." After decades of fighting, Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) secretly negotiate an agreement to end their disputes. At a White House ceremony on September 13, a Declaration of Principles is signed by Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat. Carrying out a mission on October 3 designed to capture Somalia's fugitive warlord, General Mohammed Farrah Aidid, U.S. Army Rangers are surrounded by mobs of armed Somalis, who shoot down three helicopters. Before help arrives, 14 U.S. soldiers are killed, 77 wounded and one taken prisoner. When President Boris Yeltsin disbands the Russian legislature and calls for new elections, hard-line communists revolt and take over the parliament building. On October 4, the Russian army, still loyal to Yeltsin, assaults the building in an effort to restore order. As a result, 170 people are killed, 900 wounded and over a thousand are arrested. Signaling the end of apartheid, equal rights are granted to all South African people including the black majority on November 18.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: The threat of terrorism in the United States becomes a reality on February 26 as six people are killed and more than 1,000 injured when a bomb explodes at the World Trade Center in New York City. Authorities arrest four Muslim fundamentalists responsible for the blast and, in June, capture five more conspirators plotting further bombings. What started with the murders of four federal agents on February 28, becomes a 51-day standoff at the Branch Davidian religious compound near Waco, Texas. On April 19, the heavily armed cult members, led by David Koresh, apparently set the compound on fire as federal agents storm the building with armored vehicles. Koresh and over 70 of his followers, including 17 children, die in the huge blaze that follows. The worst flooding in U.S. history strikes eight Midwestern states during the summer as a number of rivers, including the Mississippi, crest five to 20 feet over flood stage. The high water claims 50 lives, leaves 70,000 people homeless and causes $12 billion in damage. President Clinton spends his first year in the Oval Office. Congress passes the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) which eliminates most trade barriers with Canada and Mexico. Wildfires burn 200,000 acres in California during November causing $1 billion damage. Investigators later determine that arsonists started many of the fires.

SPORTS: The Dallas Cowboys return to glory with a lopsided 52-17 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXVII. North Carolina wins the college basketball championship with a 77-71 triumph over Michigan. The top-rated female tennis player in the world, Monica Seles, is sidelined indefinitely after being stabbed in the back by an on-court attacker. For the third straight year, the Chicago Bulls win the NBA championship with a four games to two victory over the Phoenix Suns. The team is stunned a few months later when their star player, Michael Jordan, retires from the team shortly after his father is murdered. For the second year in a row, the Toronto Blue Jays are baseball's world champions after an exciting six-game World Series triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

MOVIES: Steven Spielberg is the big winner at the Academy Awards as his film Schindler's List wins seven Oscars including Best Picture and Best Director. For his performance in Philadelphia, Tom Hanks wins the Oscar for Best Actor and Holly Hunter is named Best Actress for her role in The Piano. The year's most successful films at the box office are Jurassic Park, The Fugitive, The Firm, Sleepless In Seattle, and Indecent Proposal.

TELEVISION: After spending over a decade at NBC, talk-show host David Letterman takes his popular late-night program to CBS. Controversy surrounds the new ABC police drama NYPD Blue as the prime-time show features partial nudity and some vulgar language. The top-rated shows according to the Nielsen ratings for the 1993 fall season are Home Improvement, 60 Minutes, Seinfeld, Roseanne, and Grace Under Fire.
