

1997

INTERNATIONAL HEADLINES: After nearly 20 years in power, Chinese leader Deng Xiaoping dies in February at the age of 93. The world watches the skies as the Hale-Bopp comet reappears 4,200 years after its last passage of Earth. Researchers in Scotland announce the first successful cloning of an adult mammal, a sheep named Dolly. The British government ends 156 years of colonial rule by returning Hong Kong to China. The world is shocked after Britain's Princess Diana and her companion, Dodi Fayed, are killed when their car slams into a concrete divider in a Paris tunnel on August 31. Billions of people in mourning tune in to watch her funeral proceedings in London's Westminster Abbey. Religious humanitarian Mother Teresa succumbs to heart failure on September 5 at the age of 87. At the end of the year, tensions rise in the Persian Gulf as Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein prevents United Nations weapons inspectors from entering certain areas of the country, thereby violating terms of the peace treaty signed after the 1991 Gulf War.

NATIONAL HEADLINES: In late March, 39 members of the Heaven's Gate religious cult are found dead after committing mass suicide in Rancho Santa Fe, California. Timothy McVeigh is convicted and sentenced to death for the 1995 bombing of a federal office building in Oklahoma City. After a safe landing, NASA's Mars Pathfinder spacecraft sends out its Sojourner rover to explore the red planet's terrain and beams back spectacular images to scientists on Earth. World renowned fashion designer Gianni Versace is gunned down in Miami Beach. His killer, Andrew Cunanan, is found dead eight days later of a self-inflicted gunshot. British au pair Louise Woodward is convicted of second-degree murder in the death of a Massachusetts infant. One week later, after several pleas on her behalf, the judge reduces the charge to manslaughter and Woodward has her sentence reduced to time served. Iowans Bobbi and Kenny McCaughey become parents of the first set of septuplets in the world to survive after birth.

SPORTS: The Green Bay Packers return to glory in Super Bowl XXXI by beating the New England Patriots, 35-21. Arizona defeats Kentucky, 84-79, for the NCAA men's basketball title. The Detroit Red Wings sweep the Philadelphia Flyers to claim the Stanley Cup. The Chicago Bulls beat the Utah Jazz in six games to win their fifth NBA title in seven years. Twenty-one-year-old Tiger Woods caps off his remarkable year by winning the PGA's prestigious Masters golf tournament. Boxer Mike Tyson makes headlines when he takes a bite out of Evander Holyfield's right ear and is disqualified in their September heavyweight title rematch. The upstart Florida Marlins win their first World Series in a thrilling Game 7 against the favored Cleveland Indians.

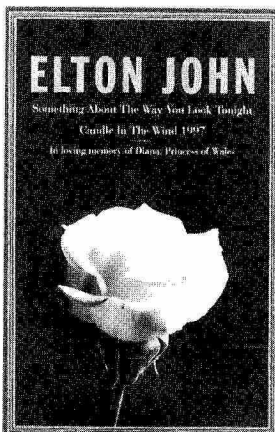

MOVIES: The force is with Hollywood as the Star Wars trilogy is re-released to theaters with new footage and enhanced special effects. The year's top moneymakers include Men In Black, The Lost World: Jurassic Park, Liar Liar, Air Force One, and Jerry Maguire. Released in December, Titanic later sails into the record books as the highest-grossing movie of all time. The movie also earns 11 Oscars including Best Picture and Best Director (James Cameron). For their roles in As Good As It Gets, Jack Nicholson picks up his third Best Actor Oscar and Helen Hunt wins Best Actress.

TELEVISION: Prime-time Nielsen ratings winners include ER, Seinfeld, Veronica's Closet, Friends, Touched By An Angel, NFL Monday Night Football, and Home Improvement.
