A Litany of Lies, Part 3

The greatest and most dangerous lie that the Jewish establishment injects into our minds is the lie of human racial equality. This "equality" lie is dangerous because it leads, ultimately, to racial mixture and racial mixture leads to the extinction of our people (and indeed of any people who practice it). The idea of racial equality has been made by the Jewish media into a kind of religion, a dogma that is only questioned by the "evil" and the "immoral," and in many countries it is actually a crime to question it. The Jewish-sponsored "hate crime" laws are a step toward such thought crime laws here in America.

It is tragic that, to many White people today, the idea of racial equality has been drummed into their heads almost from birth to the point where it is accepted as an axiom, an assumed part of the nature of reality. Racial equality is thought of as being so obvious that only the most ignorant uncivilized yahoos would ever question it. White people who believe in this lie of racial equality don't realize that they have been conditioned to believe in it unquestioningly, religiously, specifically so that they will not reason about it—because the lie of racial equality cannot stand the light of day, and a few minutes' reflection will suffice to show how utterly absurd a lie it is, just as absurd as the other Jewish lies I've exposed in earlier programs in this series.

Racial equality is a fantastic delusion, belief in which is equivalent to belief in leprechauns. There is not a whit of evidence for it. It is essentially a religion. Not only are races and individuals manifestly not equal, but equality of any kind is quite rare in the real world when we get above the molecular level. Race is omnipresent. Equality is non-existent.

The "equality" faith can take several forms, though its worshipers, realizing that exact definitions are abhorrent to what they "know in their hearts," usually gloss over the differences:

Variation 1. The belief that all human beings, and all races, are actually "equal," and that only the naughty environment and wicked "racism" make it seem not to be so. If only we could make everyone's environment precisely equal, and enslave or kill all evil "racists" and other noticers of facts, everyone's blessed "equality" would finally shine through. (One would think that the mammalian brain could do better than this—but apparently not.)

Variation 2. A slightly less nutty variant is the belief that, while it is admitted that races and individuals are not equal, there is some "moral good" in attempting to make them so, and in pretending that they are in fact so, and in punishing those who refuse to pretend.

Variation 3. If type one is the stupidest variation on the "equality" faith, then this is the craziest: the belief that although we see evidence of individual and racial inequality all around us every day-in some unseen, "higher," or "spiritual" sense we are all "equal." This seems to posit some undiscoverable, unmeasurable, and possibly magical "something" which exists in some other dimension or "plane" of existence, and which is believed, oddly enough, to inhabit all humans, even the most degraded or defective, yet is possessed not at all by other animals. Though no one has ever seen this magical "something," the believers "know in their hearts" or "just feel" that it "must be true."

Race is omnipresent. Equality is non-existent.

The equality religion is truly insane. And its insanity infects other religions and also particularly infects those who falsely believe that they have liberated themselves from religion.

The really interesting question is: how long of a run will this particular faith have in the West? The real test will come probably decades hence, when the consequences of multiracialism will cause the Jewish billionaire media elite to lose much of its current power to indoctrinate and persecute. Personally, I don't think the "equality" nuttiness has enough staying power to survive even a generation of hard reality away from the daily indoctrination of the emotion-box called television.

One of the most moronic assertions made by "equality" believers is that the only difference between the races is skin color. How utterly absurd. Imagine Whoopi Goldberg painted white. Would she look like a White woman? Hardly. Imagine Apollo painted Black. Would he look like a Negro? Ridiculous. Skin color has very little to do with it.

An anthropologist specializing in human bone structure would identify the Jew Alan Greenspan as being of central Asian origins. Note that the forehead slopes sharply back immediately above the eyebrows.

Silhouettes of the major races, in which skin color cannot be distinguished, are easily identifiable.

Negroes and Bushmen and Australian Aborigines are different racially, but their skin colors are essentially the same.

The lightest Japanese and some Europeans have similar skin colors, but are quite different racially. The American Indians and modern Egyptians have similar skin colors, but belong to totally different races. Many Hindus and Latinos are indistinguishable as far as skin color is concerned, but they certainly don't belong to the same race.

Forensic anthropologists are able to make racial identifications based on only a few bone fragments. Skin color has little to do with it.

Not too many years ago, the "equality" worshipers were claiming that not only were the races genetically different, but also they were different enough so that interracial crossings invariably produced what is called "hybrid vigor." "Hybrid vigor" is a concept useful to plant breeders, who noticed that the first generation of crosses between plant subspecies often had longer lives and greater stamina than the parent plants. Despite the fact that this effect has never been noted in humans, the concept was hijacked and used to tell the boobs, in effect: "See, race-mixing is good for you! Racially-mixed offspring will be smarter and stronger and longer-lived than racially pure children! 'Hybrid vigor' means that we should mix the races because of the genetic difference between the races!"

But now the Jewish media claim that the "hybrids" weren't hybrids at all since "race does not exist" and, in their own words, "the genetic differences between individuals are greater than those between 'races." They claim that race is purely a human mental construct, an idea with no physical reality at all. If race does not exist, as they now claim, where in Hell did the "hybrid vigor" come from? Of course, both the vigor claim and the "there is no such thing as race" claim are blatant lies, so why should they be consistent as long as the dupes have short memories?

The fact that their successive positions are absolutely contradictory does not even embarrass them. Perhaps, like religious zealots, they do not even notice the paradox and, even if they did, would dismiss it since reason and logic and even truth are irrelevant when one is fighting for "moral good," as many of the "equality" believers sincerely though stupidly believe themselves to be doing. But the Jewish authors of the lie know it is a lie. They are not stupid enough to believe in the equality religion that they created for us, unless, as Revilo Oliver pointed out, they have a mentality in which "truth" is defined as "whatever is good for the Jewish people." Their race is "chosen." Their race is "holy." Their Forensic anthropologists can determine the race of a long dead human just by studying facial and other bones. The men profiled here are the Reverend Al Sharpton, Senator Carl Levin, and former President Bill Clinton. Is it any wonder that the media avoids showing the profiles of non-Whites?

Silhouettes of the major races, in which skin color cannot be distinguished, are easily identifiable.

race needs exclusive living space. Stop being a dupe.

Stop believing Jewish lies. Our race needs exclusive living space too. Race is omnipresent. Equality is non-existent.

Actually, the words race and subspecies are synonymous. Without the branching of species into races, and the eventual branching of the races into separate species, life as we know it could never have developed on this planet. It is ridiculous to assert that this process has not happened to humans, or that it has somehow magically ceased to happen.

Some with an ideological axe to grind, or a stain in their own background, will make much of the fact that the boundaries of the races are not hard-edged. This is true, but irrelevant.

The boundaries between pre-man and man were also not hard-edged when we were diverging from our pre-human ancestors. That racial division led to a very significant speciation indeed.

And I am sure that few would assert, because the Earth's atmosphere possesses no hard-edged boundary with the emptiness of interplanetary space, that the atmosphere does not exist or that it is identical to a vacuum.

Race is omnipresent. Equality is nonexistent. Every species, plant and animal, that exists or has ever existed on this planet has developed through racial variation, and therefore it is abundantly evident that races exist. Every case of speciation necessarily begins with very small variations, some barely noticeable, which eventually become more numerous and/or pronounced with the passage of many generations, until a new race is produced. Over time, racial differences increase and a new species may be born. Without such racial variation, speciation and therefore the development of life itself could never have happened.

This certainly applies to humans who are no more exempt from these natural laws of race-formation than we are from the natural laws which guarantee that a fall from 10,000 feet onto hard rock will occur at a certain velocity and will certainly be fatal. These laws of raceformation and racial inequality would be true even if humans did not exist and no one had ever bothered to ponder where the subspecies boundaries lie (a necessarily arbitrary point on what is really a continuum) or even think of the concepts or the words "race" and "subspecies." Race is omnipresent. Equality is non-existent.

Since the existence of races and their inequality predate not only the existence of the human mind but also predate the evolution of animal life on this planet, the Jewish assertion that they are purely human mental constructs is ridiculous. Race is omnipresent. Equality is non-existent.

Without the existence of measurable differences between races in bone structure, many murder investigations would grind to a halt. Listen to the words of a forensic anthropologist:

Physical Anthropology is the study of man as animal, and is mainly concerned with human variation and evolution. Forensic human Anthropology is that branch of Physical Anthropology which, for forensic purposes, deals with the identification of more or less skeletonized remains known to be, or suspected of being, human. The identification process undertakes to provide opinions regarding race, sex, age, stature, and such other characteristics of each individual.

But it is quite recent that Forensic Anthropology has developed as an area of specialization. It was not until just after World War II that there was more than an occasional demand for the services of the expert in the field of skeletal identification. With the massive programs for the repatriation of U.S. dead from World War II and the Korean War, anthropologists were employed full time in the identification of human remains.

In recent years, human exchanges among nations have become more and more brisk in Japan. Under this situation, some foreigners are involved in murder cases or accidents. Therefore, race identification is a most important subject. In my lectures, the racial characteristics of the caucasoid, mongoloid and negroid and the differentiation between Japanese, Chinese and Koreans observed on the skeleton are presented."

Lest you think I am quoting the words of some horrible "White racist," may I point out to you that those are the words of Masatsugu Hashimoto, Ph.D, a lecturer on racial identification through skeletal and dental remains at Tokyo Dental College.

And Dr. George Gill, a professor of anthropology at the University of Wyoming and a forensic anthropologist at the Wyoming State Crime Laboratory states:

First, I have found that forensic anthropologists attain a high degree of accuracy in determining geographic racial affinities (white, black, American Indian, etc.) by utilizing both new and traditional methods of bone analysis. Many wellconducted studies were reported in the late 1980s and 1990s that test methods objectively for percentage of correct placement. Numerous individual methods involving midfacial measurements, femur traits, and so on are over 80 percent accurate alone, and in combination produce very high levels of accuracy.

What about the Jewish assertion that there is more variation within races than there is between races, and therefore there's no such thing as race? That's a very good example of a Jewish lie, since it seems plausible on the surface, yet in reality it is a hypocritical trick.

It's also true that there is more variation among men in almost every physical characteristic than there is average variation between men and women. So therefore sex is a human mental construct and there's no such thing as sex.

It's also true that the average difference in height between corn plants and sequoias is less than the difference between the shortest and tallest sequoias, so therefore it's wicked to say that corn plants and sequoias are different in height.

And it's the same logic that says that the difference in intelligence between the smartest White person and the dumbest White person is far more than the average difference in intelligence between Blacks and Whites. So therefore there is no difference; the races are equal; and race does not exist! Can you see how you have been tricked? Stop believing the Jewish lies that are killing you. Race is omnipresent. Equality is non-existent.

Each race has unique characteristics that ought not to be lost in a general chaos of crossbreeding, which is apparently what the Jews want for all non-Jews.

The European race produces geniuses at higher rates than even some races which have slightly higher average IQs. It produces highly superior intellects at roughly ten times the rate, and morons at a tenth of the rate, of the lowest races. It has an excellent historical record of creativity and civilization-building. Even the other races would lose immeasurably should the White race be crossbred or outbred out of existence.

Jerry Springer is a prominent Jewish television personality. Despite his blond hair and light skin tone, his alien facial features reveal his non-European origins.

There's no sin against the environment or against Life worse than that of eradicating this unique and beautiful creation of Nature, which is exactly what our current "equality" mania and its promoters are doing.

There's also a humanitarian argument against multiracialism. What we're doing now with mass immigration and forced association laws is quite similar to forcing grizzlies, polar bears, and black bears to live together in an enclosed area. A lot of the bears are going to kill or eat each other. Some of them are going to mate with the other types and create hybrids which will encourage more mixing. The hybrids will inherit conflicting instincts and inclinations, and even the remaining original bears will suffer stresses from the extremely unnatural situation they are in. (At least the poor bears probably can't be propagandized into thinking that their predicament is somehow "morally good.")

The end result, if all the populations of these bears were so treated (essentially how all formerly White nations are being treated these days), would be loss of the unique characteristics of each bear type—a tragic extinction.

It would be an obscene cruelty to do this to bears—and it is an intolerable crime to do it to our children.

Actually, considering that the founding race of Western Civilization has now touched the face of the Moon—an act possibly comparable to the first emergence of proto-amphibians from the sea—the question of whether the speciation of the human races shall be terminated or allowed to continue may well determine the future of Life in the universe.

So what are we left with when dealing with these toxic Jewish lies, lies specifically crafted to kill us?

The Jews' cries of oppression are usually false: they are powerful and united and have survived as a dictinct people for millennia.

The Jews' claims of holiness are founded on fraud. Not only are they not especially righteous, but their entire existence is predicated on exploitation of their host peoples, whom they deceive with lies. Their claims to unmixed descent from "holy" tribes is also highly suspect. (See Kevin Strom's broadcast The Oldest Story available in the Free Speech section of the natvan.com web site.)

And their lies about race are expressly designed to result in the genocide of our race because Jews perceive that that would be of benefit to them. Thus they are themselves guilty of the murderous intent and acts which they falsely attribute to others.

Stop believing Jewish lies. From this moment forward, start really living. Start thinking independently. Turn off your television. And join with the men and women of the National Alliance in making the future safe for White children.

Taxpayers Against Terrorism Protest

by Kevin Alfred Strom

My wife and I attended the Taxpayers Against Terrorism protest in Washington on August 24th, 2002, and let me tell you something: It was inspiring. It was inspiring to see a column of racially conscious White people marching from Union Station to the Capitol, a line so long that it spanned several large city blocks, a line so long that it was difficult to see the end if you were marching near the front as we were, a line so long that the chants from the rear literally could not be heard at the head of the line. It was inspiring to stand amid the neo-classical monuments to Euro-American greatness -the Capitol, the Washington Monument, the magnificent sculptures and raise our banners high to demand freedom and self-determination for our people and for all peoples oppressed by Jewish power.

The number of our marchers was at least 500, based on my own count and those of others who were there. That number is conservative: Chief Terrance W. Gainer of the U.S. Capitol Police said there were as many as 1,000.

What is certain is that National Alliance members and supporters far outnumbered the opposition, a ragtag collection of about 150 Jewish, communist, and anarchist fanatics who had vowed that we "would not pass," but only succeeded in throwing two rocks, one at the police and one that landed at my feet. These filthy and "diverse" counterprotestors, wearing masks, flaunting their sexual perversions, displaying and shouting communist slogans and the foulest obscenities imaginable, made quite a contrast to the decent and disciplined marchers on our side – a difference that I am sure was not lost on the spectators there or on those who read the alternative media, where the march was presented in a fairly balanced fashion.

The Jewish-controlled media, of course, twisted the facts to suit their agenda. With very few exceptions, they failed to show the frenzied rage, hatred, and threats of violence from the anti-White side. With very few exceptions, they did not report in their articles on the protest, that earlier that morning a band of anti-White thugs viciously attacked a group of Alliance members and supporters at a hotel in Baltimore, assaulting the patriots with hockey sticks, pipes, knives, boards with nails, steel pipes, skate boards, baseball bats, and tire irons. The results of the pro-Jewish thugs' criminal attacks were these: the White people defended themselves, all 40 attackers were arrested (many of them hiding in the hotel after being repulsed), the march went on successfully as scheduled, and numerous anti-White thugs now find themselves justly charged with serious felonies.

The Jewish media concentrated their photos and coverage of our march almost exclusively on the few protestors who chose Third Reich garb and symbols. Watching the Jewish lie-machines, one could never see the rally the way it really was: A sea of intelligent, attractive White faces from all age groups and social classes, united in demanding an end to Jewish control of our destiny; a field of the bright and beautiful Life Rune flags of the National Alliance interspersed with American flags, flying high and proud; and, above all, the smiles, the handshakes, the embraces, the laughter, the words of love and support, and the camaraderie of the men and women who have pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor to the only Cause that really matters.

To every reader of the alternative media and every spectator who was there, however, the twisted news reports were obvious lies—lies which will become ever more difficult to maintain as increasing numbers of the more intelligent and independent awaken to the reality of Jewish criminality, Jewish oppression of our people, and Jewish lies.

The Life Rune is the symbol of the National Alliance.

Real Homeland Security

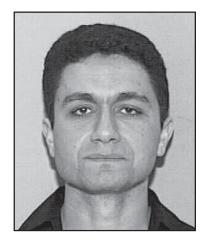

When I went to a major metropolitan airport a few weeks ago, I was impressed by the security measures that had been put in place since the September 11th terror attacks last year. I was impressed not by the increase in security precautions, which were mildly in evidence, but mainly by the fact that very little had changed. The security personnel were as blasé as ever, as scruffy, poorly uniformed, and as Third World as ever.

The crowd of passengers that was going through security that day was a fairly White crowd, with a few prosperous Blacks and Asian tourists thrown in; but the vast majority having their luggage and shoes electronically scanned looked like White Americans and Europeans, with familiar, friendly faces, hardly the sort that you'd expect to brandish box cutters and fly a plane into the side of a skyscraper.

You couldn't say the same for the security personnel—only a small minority of them were White Americans or any kind of White anything. Quite a few looked like they could be Mohammed Atta's cousins. You've probably read in the press that the security systems at our airports would be federalized and staffed by highly-trained, highly-paid experts. Perhaps a vision of guys looking like senior Secret Service men or Marine Corps officers flashed into your head. Think again. All those promises meant was that the same people who failed before would take some extra courses and get bigger paychecks signed by someone else. Let me tell you something: training can't turn foreigners into loyal, dedicated White Americans.

With people like this guarding the portals to the 747s, it's not surprising that airport security is far less effective than the government promised it would be. A recent investigation performed by the government itself showed that our airport security measures are failing miserably. The Inspector General of the U.S. Transportation Department conducted a number of tests in which undercover agents attempted to smuggle knives, weapons, and simulated explosives through security at 32 separate airports. They found that 30 percent of the guns, 70 percent of the knives, and 60 percent of the bombs made it onto the planes without any trouble at all. And if you think that these screeners even know who is getting on your flight, you're wrong about that too. Back in February, a reporter for CBS bought a fake driver's license for $150 and made it through security at every airport she tried. The fake license was looked at over 20 times, she said, and never once questioned.

Quite a few airport security personnel look like they could be this man's cousins. He is Mohammed Atta, a suspected ringleader of the September 11 attacks. The FBI believes he piloted the first plane that struck the World Trade Center.

In fact, the government is so wedded to the idea of racial "equality" that it even refuses to give additional scrutiny to young Middle Eastern males traveling on our nation's airlines. That, you see, would be "racial profiling," and we all know that even noticing that someone is of a different race, even if individuals of that race are known to be criminals at a much higher rate than Whites—or to be nationals of countries that for all practical purposes are at war with us, is "racism." And we should be willing to cut off all our limbs and let our children and brothers and sisters and parents die in terror attacks before we would ever do anything that smacks of "racism." So "racial profiling" is out and White grandmothers from Iowa, and blondhaired Boy Scouts, and freckle-faced moms flying with their children will be selected for so-called "random checks," while Jews, Arabs, and other Middle Easterners flying on the same flight will be spared. If ever there was a sign that the belief in racial equality is insane, this is it.

Never mind that all of the terrorists implicated in the September 11th attacks were Middle Easterners, in this case Arabs striking at what they saw as a center of Jewish power in the U.S. Never mind that all of those involved in the 1998 bombings of the American embassies in Kenya and Tanzania were Middle Easterners, too. Never mind that all of those arrested in December for planning the bombings of a Mosque and the office of a U.S. Congressman in California were of Middle Eastern descent, in this case Jews planning to kill other Middle Easterners in this country. Never mind that all of those implicated in the bombing at the World Trade Center in 1993 were Middle Easterners, in this case Moslems who some say may have had contacts with Israeli intelligence. Never mind that Robert Goldstein, the man charged in August with plotting to bomb dozens of schools and houses of worship in Florida was of Middle Eastern descent, in this case a Jew plotting to kill other Middle Easterners: Arabs and other Moslems living in the U.S.

Does anyone notice a pattern here? Does anyone notice that there's a war between two groups of aliens, two groups of Middle Easterners, Jews and Arabs, and that they've brought their war to our shores and thereby caused the deaths of thousands of Americans? Does anyone seriously think that it's unreasonable to look with greater scrutiny on Middle Easterners when it comes to security, when it comes to protecting our lives and the lives of American women and children?

But the ideology of multiracialism is not reasonable. It is the epitome of unreason. So naturally, we're all supposed to believe that checking the bags of Middle Eastern Moslems with extra care would be "racism" and therefore evil, and any extra scrutiny of Israelis or other Jews

Dr. Robert Goldstein, a Seminole Florida podiatrist, was arrested during a routine domestic disturbance call on 22 August 2002. Evidence indicates he planned to bomb Islamic mosques and cultural centers in Florida, and he possessed a list of 50 of them.

He had a large arsenal of bombs and guns including: 37 destructive devices and other explosives and components used in making bombs, two .50 caliber machineguns, two light anti-tank rockets, and 38 other firearms. A single one of his bombs could destroy an entire townhouse.

A member of Goldstein's gang said Robert Goldstein targeted the Islamic Center in St. Petersburg "to retaliate against Arabs and Muslims." Goldstein allegedly described his objective in notes the police seized: "OBJECTIVE: Kill all 'rags' at this Islamic Education Center—ZERO residual presence—maximum effect."

Goldstein, 37, a Jew, is charged with possession of non-registered destructive devices and attempting to use an explosive to damage and destroy the Islamic centers.

When taken into court Dr. Goldstein sobbed and gagged into a tissue paper and he, appearing dazed, stared straight ahead.

would be "anti-Semitism" and therefore "morally wrong."

Racial profiling is exactly what we need. But far more important than the question of allowing rational racial profiling at our airport security checkpoints is this question: Why are these Middle Easterners allowed to immigrate to our country at all? Why are they allowed to man our security checkpoints and have access to our military and commercial secrets? Why are they allowed to come here and bring their ancient hatreds and wars with them, putting the American people at risk? Why is the most obnoxious tribe from the Middle East, the Jews, allowed to come here and buy out American businesses, own or control almost all of our major media corporations, and use their money and media ownership to control our politicians and guide both the Democrats and the Republicans, the Left and the Right into "Israel First" policies and programs?

It's natural that all of these aliens would work to keep our borders open, so that they have access to American money, American secrets, and, in the case of the most dangerous of these alien groups, the Jews, the ability to control our media and hence keep the flow of American arms, money, and blood flowing to Israel and Israel's endless wars. In the case of the Moslems who are the primary victims of these wars, they'd agree with the Jews on keeping our borders open since that makes it easier for them to strike back at the Jews' janissaries (their loyal guards that's us) and at the Jewish power structure in America, killing thousands (or perhaps in the future, millions) of Americans in the process.

Of these aliens, the Moslems have little influence over American foreign policy. Jewish media control and Jewish money make sure that almost all American politicians fear the Jews and take the Israeli side, even to the point of sacrificing American lives. It's Jews who pushed for war against Iraq in 1991, strikes against Libya and Sudan, war against Afghanistan this year, and war against Iraq or even Saudi Arabia tomorrow. It's Jews who take over $10 million every day from American taxpayers for their war against the Palestinians.

The Jewish establishment does not care that these wars create hatred for America among the endless millions in the Moslem world who have lost a father or a sister or a brother or a child in these wars. They don't care that every new offensive raises up yet another generation of millions dedicated to our death and our destruction. As they prepare the "hate Iraq" propaganda designed to make the average White working man hate Iraq and think that killing people in a country he couldn't locate on a map a few months ago is a necessity, the Jewish-controlled press are routinely referring to those young men that they intend to use as cannon fodder in the most contemptuous terms.

watchdog group called resistingdefamation.org has documented case after case of these self-chosen elitists referring to rural White Americans—the same young people they plan to ask to sacrifice their lives in Iraq—as "hillbillies," "rednecks," "hicks," "bubbas," "toothless poor white trash," from the "hookworm belt," and worse. How much more evidence do you need to prove to you that Jews aren't White, that those in this country don't consider themselves to be White Americans, and that their real agenda revolves around putting their race —and their state in the Middle East—first, and what happens to America be damned?

Stepping back from the situation a bit, consider what our policies are regarding the people and issues that put America at risk from terrorism. Domestically, we have an "open borders" policy, which actually favors the immigration of non-Whites, including non-White Middle Easterners who hate us and hate each other. This policy makes it relatively easy for them to come here and do what they do.

Internationally, we have a foreign policy that is virtually dictated to us by Israel under which we fund Israel's murder of Palestinians and occupation of Arab lands, and under which we ourselves make war on the Moslems who never did America any harm—the ones who stayed at home and left us alone.

We let millions of Middle Easterners in. And we aggressively bomb and kill their brothers overseas. In other words, we have a government policy which is precisely the reverse of what it should be. We have a policy which encourages and facilitates terrorism against America.

To make America safe and secure against terrorism we need to return to a sane immigration policy, similar to the one we had for all of American history prior to 1965, when the Jews opened the floodgates of non-White immigration. We need an immigration policy that would have stopped Mohammed Atta at the border and said "America is a White country. You cannot live here. You cannot attend our flight schools. Go back where you came from." And we need an immigration policy that would have stopped the ancestors of the William Kristols and Jacob Schiffs and Michael Eisners and Ari Fleischers and told them "America is a White country. You cannot live here. You cannot buy our broadcast networks or film studios or newspapers. Go back where you came from." Without the racial agenda of the Jews bringing America into these wars, and without colonies of the belligerents themselves within our borders, America would be a much safer place.

Involving ourselves in the Jews' endless wars of conquest and domination in the Middle East is certainly not in the best interests of the United States. Our repeated insane crusades to attack Moslem nations that have never threatened America just increases the hatred of those nations for us, and solidifies the determination of Moslem peoples to avenge the deaths of their brothers and sisters by fighting against America. There is no rational reason for us to be in conflict with the nations of the Middle East, as long as they stay in their corner of the world and don't threaten us or our kindred in Europe.

When we couple our bombings and our funding of the Jews' bombings of innocent Moslems with our acceptance of millions of them as they colonize large parts of the United States, you have a policy which is almost guaranteed to bring terror and death to America.

Do you put your faith in Bush's socalled "War On Terrorism"? If you do, you're very foolish. It's just a new name for the same old game of killing when the Jewish lobby says "kill." And where has American military intervention on behalf of the Jews, or their internationalist agenda, gotten us? I'm sure you've noticed that since we deposed Manuel Noriega in Panama that all those drugs have stopped flowing in from Central America. And since we imposed Jean-Bertrand Aristide on Haiti, that country is now a paradise, and Haitian immigration to the U.S. has stopped because no one wants to leave there now. Our shelling of the Lebanese and our sending of so-called "peace-keeping" forces there in the 1980s sure put those nasty Arabs in their places, didn't it? And Bush senior's war on Iraq in 1991 was very successful in bringing peace to the Middle East and preventing terrorism, wasn't it? If only we could repeat such marvelous successes until the last American dollar is spent and the last American soldier is dead, what a wonderful world it would be!

We need an American government again. We need a White government again. We need to remain neutral in the Middle East, we need to stop funding Israeli atrocities and supporting her wars. And we need America to become American again, and stop the influx of potential terrorists and bombers and alien media manipulators—Jewish and Arab alike—at our borders.

The FBI arrested Irv Rubin, the chairman of the Jewish Defense League on 11 December 2001 for preparing to bomb the King Fahd Mosque in the Los Angeles suburb of Culver City and the office of U.S. Representative Darrell Issa, of Lebanese Christian descent.

Rubin and fellow Jew Earl Krugel were arrested with sufficient material to fully construct several powerful bombs and with a machinegun.

Rubin often exaggerated: bragging, for example, that he had been arrested 40 times and that the JDL had 13,000 members in the U.S.

The Jewish Defense League was originally formed by Meir Kahane and gained notoriety when its members were linked to bombings, most of them aimed at Soviet targets in the U.S. The JDL was considered by the FBI to be a terrorist organization.

When Kahane abandoned the JDL and fled to Israel, a power struggle ensued with Rubin gaining control of a radical faction and declaring himself chairman in 1985.

The JDL boasted that Dr. Baruch Goldstein was one of its charter members. Goldstein an Israeli army MD murdered 29 Arabs and wounded over 100 who were praying in a Hebron mosque in 1994.

Rubin once waved five $100 bills and offered the $500 to anyone who "kills, maims or seriously injures" a member of the American Nazi Party. For this act he was charged with soliciting murder, but he was never convicted.

The FBI investigated the JDL in connection with the 1985 murder of Alex Odeh, an Arab-American. Rubin crowed that Odeh had gotten "exactly what he deserved." However, Rubin was not indicted.

While awaiting trail on the 2001 mosque bombing charges, Rubin's mental condition deteriorated and he was reported to be very despondent. On 4 November 2002 Rubin slashed his throat with a prison-issued razor blade and tumbled 18 feet over a guard rail to his death.

The huge World Trade Center towers were the foremost symbol of global, Jewish-dominated banking and trading power. The Arab commandos attacked it on 26 February 1993 with an explosives-packed van bomb, specifically because they considered it a Jewish target. The massive publicity generated from that attempt to destroy the towers was so great that the WTC became the target of choice. On 11 September 2001, the Arab terrorists finally accomplished their "mission impossible" by totally destroying the WTC and several surrounding building.

TERROR-FREE ZONE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS the attack on September 11th came in response to our government's diplomatic, economic and military support for Israel in its wars against the Arabs and Moslems:

WHEREAS these wars and proposed wars in the Middle East are the result of pressure by the powerful Jewish lobby; and these wars and proposed wars are in direct conflict with America's best interests;

WHEREAS the vast majority of the population does not support these policies and wars; and therefore should not be targeted for reprisals;

THEREFORE, the citizens of OUR COMMUNITY are requesting that the federal government not use our tax money, troops, or diplomatic pressure to support Israel's depredations.

WE ASK that this resolution be given the widest possible circulation, and we ask specifically that it be forwarded internationally to all nations of the Middle East, belligerents and neutrals alike, with the request that because of the issuance of this statement, OUR COMMUNITY not be targeted for reprisals and that it be declared a Terror-Free Zone.

Whites Abandoning Cincinnati Since Riots

Whites are abandoning Cincinnati at an accelerating rate since the April 2001 Black riots.

The Cincinnati Enquirer gave two examples of collapsing house prices. One $90,000 house is now worth only $43,000, while another fell from $80,000 to $30,000.

Police, now under the supervision of the Federal government and judges, have been unable to stop the tidal wave of Black crime in the aftermath of the riots.

In 2000 Cincinnati reported 40 murders; in 2001 it rose to 58; and in 2002 it further rose to 63. Almost all the killers in all three years were Black.

Whites visiting downtown restaurants are harassed by Black protestors, who claim they are protesting police shootings of Blacks. But when interviewed these Black agitators soon turn the subject to the grants and other payments they demand.

Professors, police commanders, and the media blame the crime wave on guns and drugs. However, our readers know: Guns don't kill and drugs don't kill. Only people kill. And in Cincinnati and everyplace where Blacks live, Blacks kill far out of proportion to their numbers.

Black "activists" invade Cincinnati city council chambers. Police chief (seated) ties to ignore screaming Black.

White Men in Suits

Financial scandals, corporate fraud, the looting of billions in pension funds, and the collapse of the stock market bubble are much in the news these days. And, again and again, the controlled media manage to put a spin on these things to the detriment of White people. The Jewish-controlled mass media can't resist putting another knife in the corpse of White America by portraying the financial criminals as "White men in suits," the last vestige of the old White establishment, insufficiently diverse, exploitative, and not in tune with the "caring" multiracial world the media masters have planned for us.

It really takes what the Jews call chutzpah to audaciously lie like that. To characterize the current state of capitalism in America as anything but Jewish in spirit and practice, and increasingly in personnel, is totally off the mark. And the list of financial criminals who also "happen" to be Jews is a long one, though the Jewish connection is de-emphasized in the media even more than the "White men in suits" image is stressed.

Let's take a look at some of these swindlers:

Marc Rich

Marc Rich, whom President Clinton pardoned in the last hours of his presidency, was one of the richest and most prominent commodities traders in the world, and was involved in one of the biggest cases of tax fraud in American history. Rich conspired to defraud the U.S. Government of $48 million in taxes. In 1983 he fled the country with his partner and fellow Jew, one Pincus Green. What did our dearest "friend" Israel do? They granted him citizenship after turning down an extradition request from our government. Once out of the country, Rich then brokered the sale of North Korean arms to Iran and did several deals involving gold, grain, nickel and tin with the "Russian Mafia," which is actually largely Jewish and is one of the largest and most notorious criminal enterprises in the world.

Marc Rich-billionaire tax evader, arms merchant, commodities trader. Mossad spy, racketeer-remains a fugitive despite Bill Clinton's pardon and George Bush's unwillingness to try to overturn it.

To get Clinton to pardon this paragon of virtue, Jewish officials in the U.S. and Israel lobbied the White House in a mostly underground campaign on Rich's behalf. The list of his supporters reads like a who's who in Israel's political, cultural, and social hierarchy. None other than then prime minister Ehud Barak requested a Presidential pardon for Rich, as did the former head of the Mossad. No wonder: In keeping with the racial loyalty which most Jews have, Israel seems to have been Rich's favorite country. He once said: "I am a Jew, and Jews are important to me. I always thought the state of Israel was very important to Jews and to the whole world in general." [Los Angeles Times, Feb. 18, 20011

In America, the head of the "United States Holocaust Memorial Museum," a person actually named Yitz Greenberg, wrote to Clinton on museum stationery imploring him to perform "one of the most Godlike actions that anyone ever can do"-pardon Rich. And of course Abe Foxman, director of the Jewish Anti-Defamation League, sent a letter to Clinton in support of clemency, saying that Rich was "a profoundly generous man who despite his misfortunes has worked tirelessly for the good of others." [Washington Jewish Week, February 22, 20011

Martin Frankel

Martin Frankel was that paragon of probity who masterminded the largest insurance fraud in American history. He, too, fled the country. When finally captured in Germany he portrayed himself as a victim, saying he had been brought low by his charitable nature and his tendency to trust others too much! From inside a Hamburg jail he said, "Probably the main reason that I'm here is that I love people too much." [New York Times, May 12, 2000, C1]

Love people too much! Now that is chutzpah! When Frankel disappeared in 1999, he left behind his three million dollar Connecticut mansion, ransacked and nearly empty except for piles of documents still smoldering in the fireplaces. Among those smoking documents were a to-do list including the instruction "launder money," and a receipt from a Los Angeles diamond broker for $10 million. He left behind his victims, who were really the ones who trusted too much, who had been defrauded of literally hundreds of millions of dollars, and he left behind the body of a 22-year-old woman who was found hanged in an adjacent home, the $15,000 monthly rent for which was paid by Frankel.

Frankel used front men in an attempt to make his criminal enterprises look legitimate—and also to make them look non-Jewish. His schemes involved the illegal use of insurance companies in the Southern "Bible Belt," where Frankel no doubt thought he could find a rich lode of Gentile suckers. He also hired two corrupt priests to front for a con game Frankel called the "St. Francis of Assisi Foundation," which few people would initially suspect of being a Jewish swindle. Frankel even used the name of establishment news hack Walter Cronkite without permission in order to lend credibility to one of his "charity" rip-offs. Mississippi's Insurance Commissioner, George Dale, recalls a phone call from a man using one of Frankel's many aliases, asking that Mississippi insurance regulations be waived so that large sums could be transferred to Frankel's charity to "help the poor." Dale, his suspicions aroused, met with two of Frankel's front men who, he said, started talking to each other "in a language no one recognized." When Dale gave them a week to account for the money, the moving vans started arriving at Frankel's mansion within days.

Martin Frankel spent $200 million that he stole from insurance companies for a harem where he kept women who answered ads for kinky sex. One perversion he did not accomplish before the Feds moved in on him was to have sex with a child, according to Alicia Walters, a self-described former "sex slave" of Frankel's who testified in a related January 2003 trial.

According to investigators, Frankel would sometimes travel down South to wow an especially wealthy "Bible Belt" mark by embellishing his tales of being an "investment genius" with claims that he had a "genealogy dating back to King David." [USA Today, June 28, 1999] Wow! He just loved people too much, don't you see?

Gary Winnick

And then there is Gary Winnick. Winnick was a well-trained protege of fellow Jewish criminal and junk-bond king Michael Milken, and he was the chairman of Global Crossing. Winnick forced thousands of employees and shareholders into financial ruin while he shuttled hundreds of millions of dollars out of the company before it filed for bankruptcy. The New York Observer, while not noting the Jewish connection, states: "As an example of callous, coldblooded greed, Gary Winnick is hard to match. He misled employees and shareholders while he stuffed his own pockets, not caring whose lives he destroyed as he enriched himself in a sickening display of gluttony and venal avarice." He ruined the retirement portfolios of 9,000 middle-class mostly White folks who were struggling to keep up the mortgage payments and orthodontics bills. Promised severance payments were never made. Promised insurance benefits were not forthcoming. The "investments" Winnick had made with their retirement money were worthless. What Winnick did was worse than what burglars and muggers do: After all, the mugger doesn't pretend he's your friend and claim he is actually helping you, nor does he ask you to invest years of your life in his operations. All told, Winnick's crimes are among the worst possibly the worst — in corporate history.

Jack Grubman

Also in the financial news recently is another Jew, Jack Grubman. Back in the 1990s he was one of the most influential and highest-paid stock analysts—being paid $20 million dollars a year while hyping the soon-to-beworthless stock of his Jewish friend Gary Winnick, among others.

Grubman recommended overpriced stock of Global Crossing and other telecommunications firms to clueless investors who didn't know that Grubman's firm was also paid to "handle things"—like keeping the stock price inflated and investors hyped and in the dark about their real financial standingfor those same firms. Always knowing that it pays to have politicians on your side, since the politicians influence regulators and investigators and make the laws they must live by, the day Grubman was summoned to testify before a Congressional committee he wrote a check for $100,000 to the Democratic Party.

Sam Waksal

Another Jewish culprit is Sam Waksal. Sam and his brother dumped $100 million of ImClone stock on unsuspecting investors after receiving insider information that his firm's cancer drug would not receive approval from the Food and Drug Administration. Waksal also informed a small circle of friends and urged them to sell before the news broke.

Jack Grubman, a former stock market analyst for Salomon Smith Barney, escaped lightly from the authorities. He agreed to pay back only $15 million and to a lifetime ban from the securities industry. WorldCom, whose stock he hyped, filed bankruptcy in July 2002. Its investors lost more than $7.5 billion.

When the bubble burst, Waksal was secure with his pile of ill-gotten cash, while investors had lost some $4 billion. Waksal is accused of shredding critical phone records relating to the sale of the stock, as well as bank fraud and forgery. He is accused of forging his attorney's signature to secure a bank loan of $44 million. All of this carries a possible prison sentence of 30 years. Waksal likes to court the friendship—and naturally, secure the assistance—of other influential Jews. At a huge Christmas party that he threw last year, in attendance were Mort Zuckerman, the Daily News owner, Abe Rosenthal, former New York Times executive editor, and others. Of course, influential Gentiles are useful, too: He invited Clinton and Gore to that party, but they couldn't make it. Waksal is friends with Denise Rich, the ex-wife of Marc Rich, and two years ago managed to get an invitation to the White House with her. He was also friends with the recently deceased Harvard biologist and major player in selling the false idea of "racial equality" to laymen, Stephen Jay Gould; and is a tennis buddy with another virtuous financier, corporate raider Carl Icahn who is now being sued for conspiracy, violations of federal law and denial of constitutional rights by employees cheated out of the pensions they were promised. [Class Action Lawsuit filed May 15, 2002 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia] Needless to say, Waksal has been sued for fraud and other financial crimes; and, needful to say, he is also a big supporter of Israel. As in the case of Marc Rich, though, any vocal support of the United States or even respect for its laws from him has been notably absent. Waksal and friends even hosted an intimate dinner party for former Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak. Barak then directly interceded with Clinton for Rich's pardon, as did a former head of the Mossad, the Israel intelligence and assassination agency. "Sam aspires to be a big Jew," said a friend who declined to be identified. [New York Observer, April 22, 2002]

Waksal could receive a prison sentence of 65 years. Perhaps he will use the Holocaust Defense, since his parents were, you guessed it, "Holocaust survivors." His daughter ran unsuccessfully for New York City Council, and once mentioned 3 times in a 10-minute interview that she was the granddaughter of "Holocaust survivors." By the way, her husband's grandfather was Victor Posner, the corporate raider who was involved in the scams that sent Michael Milken and Ivan Boesky to jail. As a result he and Posner's father were barred from ever trading securities again. It does make you wonder if all of these guys are genetically predisposed to commit financial crime.

The "Holocaust defense" has been used often in the past to justify Jewish crimes, both their con-games and hoaxes, and their murderous violence. For example, in 1995 retired Israeli brigadier general Arieh Biro spoke of Egyptian prisoners taken by his unit in 1956. "We did not know what to do with them. There was no choice but to kill them. This is not such a big deal if you take into consideration that I slept well after having escaped the crematories of Auschwitz." [New York Times, August 21, 1995, A5]

The pattern that emerges from all of this is not the "White men in suits" image of financial criminals that the controlled media have carefully crafted for us. With a little investigation, one can see quite another picture: the Jewish financier who makes huge quantities of money, more in one hour than the average White man

Dr. Sam Waskal pleaded guilty to 13 counts in October of 2002. He has evaded sentencing by refusing to turn over documents to the probation department. He could receive a sentence of up to 65 years, but is lobbying for probation.

Michael Milken (pictured) was co-leader of the all-Jewish Boskey-Milken insider trading gang. This gang only recruited Jews. For example, Robert Wilkis recruited Dennis Levine at a party with the line, "What's a nice Jewish boy like you doing in a place like this?" Wilkis and Levine had nothing in common except their Jewish heritage and greed.

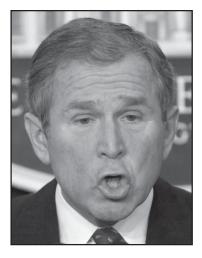

Milken was sentenced to prison in 1990, but served only a short time, as did Boesky, Levine, Reich, Wilkis, Freeman, Siegel and the rest. How many billions these Jews stole can never be computed but their fines alone were over $1 billion dollars. They emerged from prison rich men.

would earn in twenty lifetimes, in all kinds of shady business deals, the Jewish financier who tries to circumvent the laws of the land and then attempts desperately to escape the long arm of that law.

For eight years Jews such as Rich funded and supported the Clinton Administration, and Jews are if anything even more closely tied to the Bush White House. Jewish officials in the United States, Israel and Europe lobbied the White House relentlessly in a mostly underground campaign on Rich's behalf—and it wasn't only Rich they were pimping for: 25% of the convicted criminals whose sentences Clinton commuted were Jews! That's fifty times what one would expect, since Jews constitute just one half of one percent of the prison population. [Washington Jewish Week, Feb. 22, 2001, p. 21] For many of these Jews, tax evasion and financial chicanery are scarcely outside the norm—even financial fraud and thievery seem to be OK.

All of this sheds light on the nature of the moral values of these powerful Jews. What kind of people are the Jews when leading Israelis such as Ehud Barak become lobbyists for a person who grossly sidestepped our laws? And, if you listen to the major media, also under George Bush is even more the Jewish organgrinders' monkey on a string than was Bill Clinton.

Jewish control, we are told again and again that Israel is our best friend! We are even asked to die for them, and finance their invasion and oppression of other peoples' lands.

And Israel seems to be running an open-door asylum for financial criminals. We already mentioned that Israel would not extradite Marc Rich when he was wanted in the United States. An Israeli newspaper said that "In Israel, tax evasion is scarcely outside the norm—even financial fraud and thievery can be smoothed away, as long as the culprit can get off without going to jail." [Ha'aretz, Feb. 21, 2001] These people clearly come from a very different culture and have a very different mentality from Europeans who value forthright talk, square dealing, and honesty.

As they never tire of telling us, Jews are used to hatred from Gentile society. Throughout their history in the West, they were known for engaging in practices which caused them to be resented, such as money lending and tax collecting. Disliked for millennia, they developed a thick skin and an allegiance to their own personal and racial survival as their highest values, caring little about the survival of the society in which they lived. They pay loud lip service at times to the countries in which they plant their colonies, but their real loyalty is to their own nation within. They have a deceitful, alien mentality. Even when they live in a society that welcomes them with open arms, many Jews hate the majority culture: Witness their endless "deconstructions" of the "socially constructed White race" and their endless satires and critiques of the old "whitebread" America and the evil "racism" and "oppression" of the times when the White race, the Washingtons and Jeffersons, ran America instead of the Zuckermans and the Perles. Honestly, I think the Jews hate the Old America even more than they hate Germany, and I think they care less about American laws or American lives than they do their discarded fingernail clippings.

Ariel Sharon, that mass murderer whom President Bush recently called a "man of peace," not long ago referred to a national instinct in Israel to skirt rules and regulations. He talked of Israelis who smirk at what they see as the American Gentiles' obsession with being "square" and doing things by the book. Sharon said they see these citizens as suckers. [New York Times, May 31, 2001] That seems to be the way the Grubmans and Riches and the Waksals view us. And, you know, they really do have a point. As long as we put up with their depredations and impostures, we are suckers and we will continue to get what's coming to us.

White Americans, like our Europeandescended cousins overseas, are naïve and trusting. That seems to go with our honesty. It takes a lot of convincing to make us see another people as inherently treacherous and dangerous. But the Jewish establishment, both here and in Israel, is doing all it can to provide us with unmistakable proof of exactly that. And, since the advent of the Internet, the Jews aren't able to completely censor the news as they were able to do in the last century. The proof is piling up, and even those who normally avert their eyes are beginning to notice it. Their "White men in suits" image of the bad guy is wearing thin. And their time is running short.

And White Americans are slow to anger. But when they realize how they have been lied to—how their sons have died for ignoble causes—how their birthright has been stolen—and how their hidden enemy has planned their eventual extermination—their anger will sweep over the Earth like an unstoppable tidal wave.

Jewish Ex-Congressman Gets 6-Year Sentence for 12-Year Crime Spree

U.S. District Judge Stewart Dalzell sentenced Edward M. Mezvinsky, once a U.S. congressman from Iowa, to 6 years in prison for defrauding business associates and friends of millions of dollars. For many months prior to his September 2002 guilty plea, he had avoided trial and remained free on bond by feigning mental illness and changing lawyers several times.

Conman Mezvinsky pleaded guilty to 31 felonies and was sentenced in January 2003. Many other felonies were dropped in the September plea bargain. Prosecutors had asked for a sentence of 9 to 11 years but Jewish Judge Stewart Dalzell decided to be lenient.

Edward M. Mezvinsky

Mezvinsky's crime spree took place over 12 years, and he claims his crooked schemes were necessary to pay Nigerians who defrauded him. He ran a classic pyramiding scam where he borrowed from one party to pay off another party, all the while promising big profits to all his investors. However, he usually would not pay anyone back unless they threatened to take him to court.

Mezvinsky stole more than $10 million, and he is required to pay all the money back as restitution. However none of the victims is likely to see a dime as the government can't locate any of his assets. Further, both he and his wife Marjorie Margolies-Mezvinsky, also a former U.S. representative, have filed for bankruptcy

Zimbabwe "Intervenes" in the Congo: Diamonds, Atrocities, and Cannibalism

Robert Mugabe's Zimbabwean army continues to fight its four-year war in the Congo, where the prize is a vast fortune in gold and diamonds. The Congo's government is fighting four rebel groups. At least six other Black African countries have forces in the Congo fighting on one side or another. As many as 3.5 million people have died in this essentially intertribal fighting. This total dwarfs the genocidal slaughters in Uganda and Cambodia.

The diamonds are said to be flowing from the warring parties to the Jewish diamond monopoly, to al-Quaida, and to other terrorist groups. Mugabe uses his loot to fund the war and to build palaces and buy fleets of limousines.

Since 1998 he has spent over $100 billion on the war. He has bought fighter planes, bombs, guns, and rockets from Switzerland, China, and other arms suppliers. Zimbabwe is not a poor country, but Mugabe prefers to spend his riches for war rather than for food for his people.

Mugabe's forces still control vast riches in the Congo but he has lost several major battles, where his forces panicked and abandoned tanks, vehicles, antiaircraft guns, and rocket launchers on the battlefield.

The competing Black armies are committing atrocities almost beyond belief. Although they are armed with the latest automatic rifles, they prefer using machetes and axes when slaughtering unarmed villagers. In some village attacks, they decapitate or hack to death the adults and gang rape girls as young as seven. In others the Black soldiers order captured villagers to go out and hunt game; if the villagers return empty handed, the soldiers may eat the unsuccessful hunters, and force other villagers to eat their own kinsmen.

Freedom is not free, free men are not equal, and equal men are not free.

The Killing of Whites Has Begun: Zimbabwe

On March 18th, 2002, a White farmer named Terry Ford was at his farm, cleaning up the farmhouse because he expected his son to arrive from New Zealand the next day. Ford was a tall 55year-old cancer survivor who had spent much of his life caring for an aged aunt who had lived with him at his place, called Gowrie Farm, until her recent death. His neighbors respected him and had given him the nickname "the gentle giant." Terry Ford was a White farmer, with a White family and White values. He was one of us. But Terry Ford lived in Zimbabwe. March 18th was going to be the last day of Terry Ford's life. In Zimbabwe, the killing of Whites has begun.

White farmer Terry Ford, know locally as the "the gentle giant," was murdered by Robert Mugabe's "war veterans" on 18 March 2002.

In recent weeks Terry had had to take a job in town because Black gangs of so-called "war veterans," supported and encouraged by Zimbabwe's Black president-for-life Robert Mugabe, had harassed him and squatted on his land, making planting impossible. But today was a special day. His son was coming to see him tomorrow. And so, accompanied by his faithful old Jack Russell terrier named Squeak, Terry Ford drove out to Gowrie Farm for the last time. Little Squeak had been Terry's constant companion for fourteen years.

A large mob of Blacks, so-called "war veterans," arrived at the farm about 10 pm. Terry was alone, and he locked himself and his dog in an upstairs bedroom. He could hear drawers and closets being opened downstairs as his home was ransacked by the Blacks, who had been encouraged to seize White farms by the Mugabe regime. Terry telephoned a neighbor, warning him to be on the alert. He called the police—which are also Black-run in Zimbabwe—several times, each time asking them to come as the looting continued. The police refused, giving as their only excuse the fact that their duty driver was "asleep." Eventually the sounds of the mayhem ceased, and Terry thought he was safe. He made a final call to his neighbor at around 2 am, telling him that he thought the Blacks had left, but to be wary at his place. He sounded optimistic, his neighbor said. That was the last time anyone heard from Terry Ford.

Terry Ford's body was found at 7 am by an arriving cook, with Squeak still faithfully by his side, guarding his lifeless, battered corpse.

The facts of his death have been reconstructed from the physical evidence, and they are these:

After Terry phoned his neighbor, he heard his truck being started outside. He ran downstairs in his shorts, followed by Squeak. He was vastly outnumbered by the Black mob, but he did have a gun. He tried to stop the "vets" from taking his truck by grabbing the steering wheel. But as it was raining, he slipped in the mud and fell to the ground. He got up and again tried to prevent the group from taking his truck. The driver of the truck then rammed Terry against the fence with the vehicle, and it is believed he dropped his weapon at this point. Wounded and helpless by this time, Terry Ford was then held against the fence and rammed repeatedly by the truck until he collapsed. He was then dragged over to a tree and tied to the tree with ropes. There were signs of torture. Terry Ford was then shot through the head with his own gun, and the "war veterans" fled. The police, who refused to answer Terry Ford's repeated calls for help, did arrive to pick up his body.

Marxist President Robert Mugabe decreed that White farms in Zimbabwe were to be seized and divided among his Black "war veterans."

Terry Ford's case is not unique. All over that country, Whites are being driven off their farms, and those who resist are often killed, their girls and women raped, their bodies horribly mutilated. In Zimbabwe, the killing of Whites has begun.

Who are these "war veterans," and what gave them the power to occupy Gowrie Farm?

Terry Ford first encountered them in November 2000, after the announcement by the Black Marxist president of Zimbabwe, Robert Mugabe, that White farms were to be seized and awarded to Black militiamen loyal to Mugabe. Mugabe had been installed in 1980 by

The body of Terry Ford was found lying in a pool of his own blood. He had been beaten, tied up, tortured, and shot in the head. Earlier he had telephoned the police, but they refused to come to his rescue.

Western governments that, in accordance with Jewish wishes, had opposed the civilized White government of Ian Smith with sanctions and boycotts and isolation. Western nations, and of course you and I because we are taxpayers, also supported Mugabe's communist insurgents with copious supplies of money.

When Mugabe took over, the country's name was changed from Rhodesia to Zimbabwe, and all the wonderful "democracy" spread around by the "hero" Mugabe made the journalists wear out their typewriter ribbons with praise. Zimbabwe's main income and only means of feeding its people had been the White farmers, whose homes and productive fields were coveted by the savages whose only skills were murder and mayhem. Hero Mugabe announced that his guerrillas and militiamen—called "war veterans" even today though many of them weren't even alive in 1980would be rewarded by confiscating White farms and giving them to Blacks. Initially, one third of the farms were to be seized. But when the squatters and thugs proved to be no more adept at farming than they are at mathematics or table manners, and the seized farms lay in ruin, devastating the economy and creating a famine, Mugabe knew that he had to do something before his own gunmen decided they needed a new maximum leader. He raised the percentage of White farms to be seized to 100 per cent.

On that day in November 2000, Terry Ford was surprised by the arrival of a large Mercedes sedan followed by a seven ton truck carrying about forty Blacks, all singing and dancing as they disembarked and proceeded to occupy his farm. Out of the elegant German car emerged none other than Sabina Mugabe, sister of the great hero of the revolution against Whites, whom Terry knew because she use to sell second-hand clothes in the area before her brother's rise to power. The "sistah" announced imperiously that she and her "war veteran" accomplices would be taking over the farm soon under her brother's "fast track land reform" program, and she wanted to have a look around before taking over. She warned Terry not to remove any furniture when he left, and then drove off.

One of the "war vets" who calls himself "Wamba," continued to press the claim for Gowrie Farm after Terry Ford refused to give up. Arriving with a small army of what the papers describe as "unemployed youths," Wamba ordered Ford to stop planting his crops, corn and wheat, or his farm machinery and tractors would be burned. Later the Blacks forcibly occupied the house formerly used by Ford's late aunt, and the harassment became so intense that farming became impossible and Terry Ford was forced to find employment in the capital city of Harare, some 25 miles away. A few weeks later his life was ended. "Wamba" is nowhere to be found. No one lives at Gowrie Farm now. And in the shops of what was once Rhodesia, the breadbasket of Africa, corn and bread cannot be found. In Zimbabwe, the killing of Whites has begun. [Sydney Morning Herald, March 23, 2002]

Zimbabwe, formerly the highly civilized land of Rhodesia when it was built and ruled by Whites, is now a pesthole of death, disease, and horror for almost all its citizens. The "enlightened" media masters promised us bright glories of freedom and prosperity once the "racist" White regime was overthrown. Further, only vile "nazis" predicted a return to savagery and terror after the civilizing hand of the White man was removed from control. In a monumental irony, Robert Mugabe is proving every day that the media Jews are liars and the so-called "racists" were telling the truth all along.

Little Squeak, Terry Ford's terrier, guards Terry's body, which has been covered by a bed spread.

The Mugabe government, in a land where millions are near starvation, openly uses scarce food as a political weapon. Those with membership cards from Mugabe's political party get food, much of it paid for involuntarily by you and me, and those without the right credentials get sent to the back of the line or end up dead.

Robert Mugabe's "militias" routinely take young girls from families accused of being opponents of the regime, gang-rape them, and then use them as travelling sex slaves as they rampage and murder over the countryside. London's Daily Telegraph for August 25, 2002 reports that rape is being used as a weapon of "systematic political cleansing" of the population. "War veterans" and "youth militias," with the support and approval of anti-racist hero Mugabe, rape the young girls, beat them and others suspected of opposition tendencies almost to death, burn their genitals with iron rods, and then, in a land haunted by famine, urinate on their meager food supplies. [Daily Telegraph, August 25, 2002, "Mugabe men 'use rape as revenge"]

And, of course, the taxpaying sheep of America are also Mugabe's slaves in the sense that we have to work for him. According to the U.S. Agency for International Development, Mugabe got $9.3 million from the United States in 1999, $12.6 million in 2000, and $13.7 million in 2001. Killing Whites pays fairly well, doesn't it? It's easy to see how supporting Mugabe and his bands of killers advances the interests of the American people too. After all, what's the life of a White man or woman or child, when compared to all the wonderful "democracy" and "equality" that's being promoted in Zimbabwe? All kidding aside, a future like that is awaiting us right here in America if we don't straighten out our thinking and change the path we're on.

Professor Noel Ignatiev, of Harvard University, calls openly for the "abolition" of the White race.

Last month, a sneering Jew calling himself Noel Ignatiev, who has managed to install himself at once-respected Harvard University, called openly for the "abolition" of the White race. Ignatiev would undoubtedly smile and approve of Mugabe's terror and murder of Whites, and I'm sure he concurs with the statement of Zimbabwe's Vice President, a creature who calls himself Msika, who said in August that "Whites are not human beings." Mugabe himself recently stated that he "positively shudders" in the presence of White people. Members of Ignatiev's tribe certainly aren't giving much publicity to those statements or to the plight of Whites in Zimbabwe, even though they were the main cheerleaders for bringing Mugabe to power.

If White people controlled the American media, we'd never hear the end of this story. The grisly photographs of the White dead in Zimbabwe would be on the front pages of the newspapers and in the lead stories of the network newscasts for months on end. The pressure on the politicians wouldn't end until a total boycott of the Mugabe regime was instituted and the White people of a New Rhodesia were free and independent again, even if that meant armed intervention to depose the Marxist animal and send his "war veterans" and rapist "militia" scurrying back to the jungle from whence they came. Our people's interests would come first.

But White people do not control the media in America. Our media are controlled by a very different people, the Jews. And the Jews agitated for years decades—to end White rule in Rhodesia. and to end White rule in South Africa. They exaggerated the sufferings of the Blacks under "colonialism" and "apartheid," and they made it fashionable for nitwits and indispensable for politicians to demand that Whites hand over power to Blacks in Africa. They never let us forget how horrible were the Whites who actually wanted a government of their own and who were so wicked that they brought sanitation, medical care, education, literacy, science, scholarship, modern agriculture, and all the rest of European civilization to Africa. They made films and published novels showing the saint-like nobility of Marxist Black terrorists like Mandela and Mugabe. Southern Africa and its "evil" White rulers were shoved in our faces many times every week by the Jewish media. Jews pushed for the imposition of sanctions and boycotts to topple the White governments.

And they succeeded. Now that their promised paradise has turned into a Hell on Earth, even for the hapless Blacks who were supposed to somehow "benefit" from the destruction of the only civilized rulers they had ever had, where are the Jewish media now?

Now, the Jews' media aren't focusing on Southern Africa anymore, because they have other enemies to destroy, like Iraq and Saudi Arabia and White Americans who would prefer not to be supervised by Jews. Their errand boys Mugabe and Mandela did exactly what the Jews knew that they would do, and their task is more or less completed. The racially-conscious White governments were destroyed, lots of White people were rendered powerless, tortured, and killed; and that was what really mattered to the Jews. They don't care about the White farmers being slaughtered in Zimbabwe; and they don't care about the White women being raped and mutilated there; and they don't care about starving White children there any more than they care about the human rights of the Palestinians they slaughter daily.

To them, naturally, the interests of the Jews come first. They see themselves as a distinct and separate group from Whites, and that is really all you need to know. They see Whites as a competing group, and they do all that they can to undermine our solidarity and power and even the consciousness of our identity as White people. Allowing Jews to run our media and control our government has led directly to the murder and rape spree now taking place in Zimbabwe against our kinsmen.

J. Miska, vice president of Zimbabwe, said in August of 2002: "Whites are not human beings."

Allowing Jewish media control to continue will bring savagery and death and murder here, too. Allowing Jewish media control to continue will ensure that non-Whites will enter America and Europe in ever-greater numbers. Allowing Jewish media control to continue will ensure a future of violence and death and destruction of everything we know as great and beautiful. Savagery is already starting to take over our land. You can see it in the music and in the Judeo-Negroid gang-banger lifestyle and fashions that are being promoted to our young people. You can see it in the Third World invasion and birth rate that increases every day, every hour. You can see it in the criminals that increasingly prey on our innocents and elderly people. Allowing Jewish media control to continue will ensure that America and Europe will become more and more like South Africa and Zimbabwe. Allowing Jewish media control to continue will ensure that your children's lives will be Hell on Earth and that your sons and daughters will curse you for having given them life as you gave away the land and freedom that once was yours.

But it doesn't have to be like that. The men and women of the National Alliance are building new media—our media—so that the facts are available to our people before it is too late to fight back. And we are building a professional and serious organization, the National Alliance, to reclaim our freedom and our children's future. We will not compromise and we must not fail. I hope that you will join with us today in this great undertaking.

Zimbabwe Updates

Sabina Mugabe & Sons

In January 2003 the London Sunday Telegraph reported that the sons of Sabina Mugabe, President Robert Mugabe's sister, were seizing White farms for their personal use. These nephews of Mugabe, Robert and Patrick Zhuwau, are just a few of the Mugabe relatives, cronies, and senior members of his military that have been stealing the homes and lands of Whites.

American Killed

In November 2002, a Zimbabwe border guard shot and killed a U.S. citizen, Dick Gilman, 58, after an argument over his travel papers. Gilman from Torrington, Connecticut, was in Zimbabwe to help his brother's school obtain food for children. The U.S. made only a mild protest and his death was only briefly mentioned in the media. Shortly before he was killed he told his family that he was safe in Zimbabwe and would be home in America for Thanksgiving.

Later that month, a U.S. embassy employee on a humanitarian aid mission was beaten and robbed of official documents and personal property by Mugabe's ruling party militants. He suffered serious injuries during a hostile interrogation. Again the U.S. made a half-hearted protest but took no action.

Civilization Collasping

The economy of Zimbabwe is collapsing and essential services are deteriorating rapidly. Zimbabwe's currency is undergoing hyperinflation, despite Zimbabwe's theft of billions of dollars of the Congo's diamonds and gold. Unemployment exceeds 60%.

The capital Harare now has water shortages and serious quality problems; some residents are now drinking water from polluted streams and wells.

President Mugabe admits that 2.2 million people in Zimbabwe have AIDS and there are 700,000 AIDS orphans.

Census officials can find only 11.6 million of Zimbabwe's estimated 14.5 million people. Officials claim as many as 600,000 may have gone to Britain; an even larger number has swarmed into South Africa.

The Killing of Whites Continues: South Africa

In the previous article, I told you about the state-sanctioned ethnic cleansing of Whites that is going on in Zimbabwe, and the farm invasions and the murders of White men and women who refuse to leave their farms there. The slaughter of Whites and the theft of their land in Zimbabwe is horrifying, and the fact that the Jewish media say almost nothing about it is quite telling. This article concerns another country where Whites are being slaughtered at an even higher rate: Zimbabwe's southern neighbor, South Africa.

South Africa has three times the population of Zimbabwe, and 13 times the White population: almost 6 million Whites live there. As with Zimbabwe, the media silence about the murder of Whites there is almost total; and in South Africa's case, even human rights groups are largely silent, perhaps because the Black takeover there was so recent and so many "liberals" have an emotional investment in the ANC/Communist regime they helped to power. Whatever the reason for the blackout, I'm here to break it.

In 1994, after decades of propaganda in the media and sentimental whimpering from the churches. South African Whites were finally persuaded to hand power over to Black Communists, who, with the decisive help of the Jews, installed an ANC ("African National Congress")/ Communist government that, for some strange reason, failed to follow Marxist ideology when it came to expropriating the business interests of the Jewish Oppenheimer family, who dominate South Africa's economy. They did succeed, however, in making South Africa into a multiracial sewer with one of the highest violent crime, murder, rape, and AIDS infection rates in the world. The media made a saint of Nelson Mandela, a convicted terrorist who had been imprisoned by the White government there, and when the Whites capitulated he was made President.

After the media's announcement that their long campaign of sanctions, boycotts, and intimidation had finally succeeded in bringing "equality" and "democracy" to what had previously been one of the few outposts of White civilization on the African continent, the media coverage of that country almost ceased, and one seldom hears about South Africa today in the mass media. The reason is that South Africa, exactly as predicted by the National Alliance and other horrible bigots and "racists," is rapidly descending into crime, disease, filth, and savagery.

Since the Black takeover in 1994, 1,368 White farmers have been murdered in farm invasions and attacks that number in the multiple thousands. More than half of the White farmers have given up and left their farms permanently, contributing to the region's looming famine. And yet this is not an issue in the Jewish media. South African farmers now suffer the highest murder rate in the world—274 per 100,000. And yet this is not an issue in the Jewish media. In a study commissioned by a leading South African bank, Nedbank, it was revealed that the Black attackers are:

'deliberately targeting specific homesteads to kill the [White] Afrikaner victims': robbery was not the prime motivation, in fact in 85% of last year's farm attacks, nothing had been 'robbed.'

In other words, killing the White man, raping and killing the White woman, raping and killing the White child are the real motivations. And yet this is not an issue in the Jewish media.

Let me give you a few examples:

On June 15th of this year, sugar farmer Robert Dent and his wife Allison, both 59, were killed in front of their twelve-year-old son Nicholas Dent. A Black invader entered the Dent home between two and three AM that Saturday morning, armed with a military-style rifle. He bludgeoned the unarmed couple, who were surprised in their sleep, and then, in the presence of their son, shot them to death at point-blank range in the farmhouse bathroom. The terrified Nicholas was then forced to drive the killer in his parents' car about three miles away, where the killer escaped.

I have the figures in front of me for just this month, September 2002, and though the month isn't over, nine farmers have been killed, including four children and an elderly farm couple, George and Albertina Lewis, whose dog was also killed. The police report on the Lewis's murder says "no motive."

In August, a farmer's wife was attacked in a firebombing, and Johan Viljoen, a Zevenfontein cheese farmer, was torched to death along with one of his workers. Christo Olivier and Jan Kempdorp of Vryburg were tortured to death and then buried in a shallow grave. The two Blacks who were arrested for this crime were granted bail. On the 7th, the headless torso of what police reports call an "ethnic-European male" was found on Mpumalanga farm. And Johannes Maree, 62, of Randfontein, was found bludgeoned to death on August 1st.

In June and July, Johan Steyn, 65, was shot dead in the Cullinan area; smallholder Roy Murley was tortured to death; Johannes Lake and Johnny Scheepers were shot to death; dairy farmer George Siemens, 62, was killed; and Cheryl van Houten, 51, was hacked to death.

In April and May, Ben Vorster, 67, was murdered by an armed Black gang; Andre Pienaar, 56, was shot dead; Mona Sawyer, 78, served food to a Black caller at her home in Magaliesberg and was then stabbed to death; Rita Mans, a 31-year-old farmer's wife was shot to death in Ottosdal; 70-year-old Iris du Preez was murdered on her small farm; Dickson Pillay, 36, and his brother Sandy Pillay of Glendale Farm homestead were burned to death when Blacks torched their farm.

In the first three months of this year, more than thirty farm murders occurred, including the killing of classical musician Felicity Gale, 58, of Port Jackson-her husband, Rodney, 67, survived the attack; Marius and Lillian Delport, 50 and 54, of a smallholding near De Deur were shot and nothing was stolen; Rudi Schmidt, 51, of a farm near Pontdrift was stabbed to death; 21-year-old Catherine Watkins of Potchefstroom was found with her windpipe torn out; Estelle Burger, 27, a farmers wife, was kidnapped and then shot; John de Lange, 66, a smallholder in Mount Pleasant was shot to death, his wife, Evelin de Lange, 60, was raped and garroted; and Arthur Smith, 63, and his wife Isobel, were found with their throats slit and their bodies severely beaten on their farm in Sundra.

I'm just giving you the highlights here, by the way, and just from the last few months. The grisly details and the horrifying numbers can be found in the reports of Crimebusters South Africa and the excellent data assembled by Adriana Stuijt and her "Journalism During Apartheid" site. These farm massacres are occurring at a reported rate of about one every other day. The horror on these White farms has been steadily climbing since 1994. And yet this is not an issue in the Jewish media.

Unlike Zimbabwe, the government in South Africa does not have an officiallyannounced policy of supporting these farm invasions and massacres. But they do have a policy of looking the other way and doing next to nothing about it, a policy which encourages Black violence against Whites. Their attitude is perhaps best expressed by Peter Mokaba, until recently South Africa's Deputy Minister of Environmental Affairs and Tourism, who whined recently that "The high crime rate is seriously affecting tourism and an alternative image of South Africa needed to be promoted. We want to encourage people to come here and see that crime does not dominate." Really? What Mr. Mokaba did not tell you was that he himself is famous for the slogans he invented and uttered again and again when he was a leader in the ANC/ Communist war against the White government of South Africa: "Kill the Boer! Kill the farmer!" and "One settler, one bullet."

Kill the Boer, kill the farmer. And it is to such a government that White farmers must appeal for protection.

Even the ANC government admits that, under Black rule, crime and murder are out of control. The South African Police Service report entitled Attacks on Farms and Smallholdings 1/99 stated: "Violence seems to have become an endemic feature of South African life. According to the comparative crime statistics for 1996 released by Interpol, the country tops the list internationally as far as the incidence of murder and rape is concernedthe fact that attacks on the residents of farms and smallholdings are escalating at a rate out of proportion to the general increase in crime figures observed in South Africa is indeed cause for serious concern."

Such, I suppose, are the wonderful benefits of "multiracial democracy." Such are the results of succumbing to Jewish propaganda, of giving up your rights as White men and women to control your own territory in a delusional attempt to be "fair" and "nice" to Blacks. All I can say is don't fall for these Jewish tricks, this Jewish moral blackmail any more. Don't let what happened to South Africa happen to Europe or Australia or America. Work every day of your life for a White future.

The murders I've been describing here are just the farm murders. The murder rate in the cities is even higher, for Johannesburg alone it is 500 per month. Many of the victims are White, and the attackers Black and racially motivated, though the Jewish media, which sobbed about Nelson Mandela's imprisonment for three decades, never mention them.

And South Africa is also the rape capital of the world. A woman is reported raped every 23 seconds in South Africa. A small child is reported raped every thirty minutes. And remember, these are the reported and admitted rapes. This dismal record is partly due to the

Peter Mokaba

"Kill the Boer, kill the farmer," was the battle cry of Peter Mokaba. He died 9 June 2002 at age 43 of acute pneumonia.

Before the government of South Africa was turned over to the Blacks, Mokoba had been arrested and convicted twice of felonies but the liberal court system of White South Africa released him after short sentences.

After the Blacks took control of the government, Mokaba was elected to parliament where he served until 1999, and held two positions in the cabinet. He was a close associate of Winnie Mandela.

His position on the AIDS crisis in South Africa gained him worldwide attention.

"H.I.V.? It doesn't exist," Mr. Mokaba said. "The kind of stories that they tell that people are dying in droves? It's not true. It's not borne out by any facts. Where the science has not proved anything, we cannot allow our people to be guinea pigs." He stated that AIDS drugs were poisons invented not to help, but only to make the big pharmaceutical companies rich.

Not only did he claim that H.I.V. does not exist, but also that it cannot be spread through sexual intercourse. He stated that the whole AIDS/H.I.V. talk was just to terrorize the public with lies about AIDS.

The late Mr. Mokoba is not alone in his skepticism. For example, President Thabo Mbeki does not believe in H.I.V./AIDS testing.

One in four South African Adults is H.I.V. positive, and one in four pregnant women in South Africa is H.I.V. positive.

Congoids' innate savagery when released from the control of civilized men, and partly due to the Black folk belief that raping a virgin will cure AIDS, which is rampant in that country. [Jackie Loffell, Johannesburg Child Welfare Society, 13th International Congress on Child Abuse and Neglect in Durban.]

On May 24, 2000, the beaten, battered and nearly frozen body of a young Polish woman was found, clad only in a soaked t-shirt, along the road to South Africa's Sterkfontein Dam. Her body was so cold it was actually blue. Her hair was wet and she was covered with bruises, open wounds, deep scratches, and mud. She was curled in a fetal position. She was still alive. To students of rape in South Africa she was another digit in the statistics. To Americans and Europeans who get their news from the major media, she didn't even exist.

She was a 27-year-old newlywed on her honeymoon, a honeymoon that ended when three Blacks murdered her husband in front of her eyes and then brutally raped her, beat her, attempted to kill her and left her for dead. The bruise marks around her neck indicated that her rapists had tried to strangle her. At the treatment center she was immediately given AZT by Polish Consulate authorities (treatment refused her by the South African government) in the hope that it would prevent the transfer of HIV, since two of her three attackers tested positive for the virus.

She testified that after her attackers murdered her husband, they forced her in the trunk of their car, and went to a secluded spot where each of the Blacks raped her in turn. They then attempted to drown her by stamping their feet on her head in an attempt to keep her head underwater. The woman has returned to her native Poland and refuses to set foot in South Africa again, even to testify.

As reported by investigator Jack Galt, on November 17th of the same year, a 14-year-old White girl was cruelly raped by a gang of five blacks in her home in Pretoria. According to her counselors, she has been traumatized for the rest of her life. Spokesmen for the White Afrikaner community, who you will not hear on CBS, NBC, or Fox News, state that this attack was a deliberate attempt to terrorize Whites.

Five heavily-armed Blacks invaded the home, and proceeded to tie up the girl's mother, father, six-year-old sister and ten-year-old brother with barbed wire in the living room.

They then grabbed the 14-year-old girl and took her to the bathroom, where they brutally gang-raped her, each of the five Blacks in turn, with the family listening nearby, helpless. Then the Blacks returned to the living room where they beat and kicked the White father in the face while he was still tied up, ransacked the home, and fled in the family's car.

South African mother Ame Brown of Elliot in the Eastern Cape recently stated: "On the 8th of October, 1998 my two children and I were overpowered by four Black men. We were robbed of everything, and before leaving the men took turns raping me in front of my two boys aged 8 and 12. They forced my boys to watch. I have since then been tested for HIV of which my tests at five months showed positive. It has not been easy coping with being raped and having HIV. But I have a fantastic husband who has stood by me through all my depression and down days and all my sleepless nights. He has been my backbone and tower of strength."

The rape situation is so bad in South Africa—the worst in the world—that British and American doctors are now advising female travelers to carry anti-AIDS drugs in their bags because of the high risk of infection from HIV-carrying rapists there. The British security magazine Intersec reports "The high number of reported rapes in the country are already a deterrent for prospective visitors-and the South African government's decision not to provide AZT to victims of rape means they are unlikely to get the drugs at local clinics." Dr. Andrew Jamieson, medical director of the British Airways Travel Clinic, said:

"The academic travel medicine community had discussed the issue for a number of years."

"About six months ago, it was decided that this would be a reasonable thing to do ... it's all about risk management. There is a real risk for travelers to this country and other countries in Africa. We do have a high HIV rate and a high incidence of rape so we cannot pretend it is not there," he said. Predictably, the South African government, which fails to protect White women from rapists, is furious at the doctors, fearing a further loss of tourism dollars.

White ingenuity and inventiveness have come up with an experimental deterrent to the Black rapist problem, however. Seventytwo-year-old Jaap Haumann, a retired anesthetist in the Free State, South Africa, has invented what he calls a "mutilator tampon" designed to lop off the end of a rapist's penis. Haumann says he designed the device after talking to rape victims, and he thinks that at least a million South African women will flock to buy it. "It became clear to me that rape has a devastating impact on the lives of women, physically and especially mentally. We all know that South Africa has the highest rape statistics in the world. With this device I believe would-be rapists would think twice before attacking any woman in this country."

Unfortunately, Dr. Haumann's invention would not solve the problem of HIV transmission.

Cape Town, South Africa has become the world capital of what is called the "sex tourism" trade. Press reports have described it as the "sleaze capital of the world," and these days that's really saying something. Perverts from all over the world go there (bringing "needed tourist dollars" to be sure) to have sex with children, many of them White sex slaves, but others imported from brothels as far away as Thailand. "Sex with children," of course, is just a euphemism for rape of the innocent. "Child Sex Tours" are even sponsored by some "entrepreneurs" while the government looks the other way.

In the bad old days of White rule and apartheid, such things weren't tolerated. But in the new "rainbow" South Africa, where can the innocent victims look for protection? The mayor of Cape Town, a Black named William Bantom, was recently discovered to be enjoying his huge personal collection of child pornography in his office while on the job. And he wasn't ousted as mayor.

Perhaps the Church will help them? Bantom is also a noted clergyman, known for his liberal views on "human rights," "democracy," and "equality."

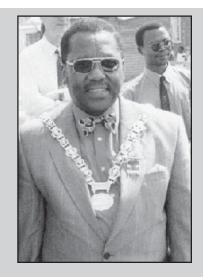

A listener in New York has written this week to ask what he and others can do to help the embattled Whites of Southern Africa. He rightly points out that even though our first priority is to build the National Alliance into a powerhouse to secure the future of our people, these White farmers need help now in their local communities, in their own countries. I can't tell you how you should help, but I can put you in touch with those who are on the front lines in those countries, and they can tell you more.

When the Jewish media, or your church, tells you that "multiracial democracy" is good for you, I want you to remember South Africa. I want you to remember Nicholas Dent being forced to watch the murder of his parents. I want you to remember Ame Brown's children forced to watch her rape ordeal. I want you to remember the sex slaves of Cape Town. Then I want you to think about the changing complexion of this country, of how our open borders and high non-White birth rates are inevitably transforming our country into a larger version of South Africa. If you're tender-hearted, and that's a White characteristic, you might want to consider if turning over the government to non-Whites, as we are gradually doing, even benefits the non-Whites. I can't think of a better example than the rapid fall of South Africa since 1994. I want you to think about those things, and then I want you to do something about them. We Whites need to build an organization for ourselves alone. The churches and the government and the media are closed to us now. Any White who stands up for his own people is locked out. But by joining our efforts and our fortunes together, we can change history.

Keep on thinking free.

Reverend William Bantom was finally forced to resign as mayor of Cape Town after repeatedly being caught watching internet child pornography where children were shown having sex with adults.

He had been a minister in the Church of the Nazarene since 1968, and a member of the New National Party, the party which ruled South Africa during the apartheid years. He was elected mayor in 1995 and was the first Black mayor of Cape Town.

The Diamond Monopoly

Since 1888 the De Beers company has held a virtual monopoly on the diamond business. Initially Cecil Rhodes, a Gentile, had total control of the firm. In 1893 he contracted to sell De Beers' entire production of diamonds to a syndicate of ten London firms. All ten firms were owned by Jewish merchants and interconnected by marriage and family ties. But the Jews' involvement with diamonds is hardly new.

Until the early 1900s, almost all diamonds came from India. The Jews had contacts in every country along the diamond caravan route, which were other Jews of course. And so they were able to move India's diamonds. The Jews were moneylenders and moneychangers and diamonds merely represented another form of money.

By 1800 the Jews controlled virtually the entire world diamond traffic. South African diamond mines were discovered in the eighteen-sixties, which was about the time that the diamond supply from India was exhausted.

Ernest Oppenheimer was an aggressive young Jew who worked in one of the ten firms mentioned above. In 1902 he moved to South Africa to run Dunkelsbuhler's small buying office in Kimberley. He was in many ways the true international Jew. He was born in Germany, held British citizenship, was loyal to his fellow Jews, and lived in South Africa.

By 1910 his goal was to establish a international monopoly on diamonds so that prices could be raised. Diamonds were being discovered in other parts of southern Africa and those mines must be brought into the monopoly.

Through a series of clever manipulations, and with the intervention of the Jewish banker Lord Rothschild, Oppenheimer became chairman of the board of De Beers in 1929. Oppenheimer was knighted and became Sir Ernest Oppenheimer.

Prior to Oppenheimer, Cecil Rhodes had run De Beers, which he had founded. Rhodes had seen the diamond monopoly as a means of extending the British power and influence. However, Ernest Oppenheimer saw it as a means to amass personal power and fortune. Oppenheimer made the diamond monopoly an international business that owed its allegiance to no single government.

Today diamonds, still under control of the Oppenheimer family monopoly, flow from the cutting centers in Europe and Israel to the main consumer markets in the United States and Japan. The diamond business is an almost exclusively a Jewish enterprise, with Jews occupying positions as diamond cutters, brokers, bankers, jewelry manufacturers, distributors, wholesalers and even diamond buyers for retail establishments.

Not only is the pipeline, from mine to final retail store, a Jewish monopoly, but also, virtually all the Jews are closely connected through family ties or longstanding business relationships. In 2001 De Beers, which had been a publicly traded firm, went private when the Oppenheimer family and their related businesses purchased the stock they did not already own. Nicky Oppenheimer is the Chairman. He said just before he took the firm private, "This deal could be said to be incestuous, but it had to be done independently; and Rothschilds is determined it should be done properly."

Thus the diamond monopoly today is not only controlled by the Oppenheimers, but also, De Beers is now a private firm operating behind closed doors and answering to no outside investors or security regulators.

Diamonds are Forever

Today people associate diamond rings and other diamond jewelry with marriage and love. This association is largely an artificial creation by the diamond monopoly.

Giving diamond rings for engagements in America started in the 1890s. But these were not expensive rings. Starting in 1938 the Oppenheimer monopoly, De Beers, started promoting diamonds as inseparable from courtship and married life.

The most powerful tool that the Jews had was Hollywood. Scenes were inserted into movies showing couples in love picking diamond rings or of the male presenting a ring while proposing.

Commercials for diamonds were run in movie theaters to influence young dating couples. For decades these commercials not only ran at many theaters, but also, they were the only commercials that most of those theaters showed. Like the newsreel they became an expected part of the theater's program.

The advertising slogan of the monopoly was "Diamonds are Forever," and a second slogan "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend" was added later.

The Jews control of newspapers and magazines gave them another powerful propaganda tool. Mention of diamond rings was planted in the society pages. The size of diamonds that celebrities presented to their women suddenly became a newsworthy item. In addition pictures of celebrity women showed them wearing large diamonds.

Within three years diamond sales were up 55% in the U.S.

The monopoly even sent lecturers to speak at high schools all across the U.S. counseling young women about diamond engagement rings.

The diamond tycoons have even sought to make us all feel like we are experts on buying diamonds by teaching us the 4 C's of diamonds: color, clarity, carat weight, and cut

The diamond monopoly did the same thing in the Japanese market starting in 1968. At that time less than 5 percent of women getting married in Japan received a diamond engagement ring. By 1972 it was 27%; by 1978 it was 50%; and by 1981 fully 60%. In thirteen years, Japan became the second largest market for diamond engagement rings.

Diamonds are only one example of how the Jews have artificially increased demand for consumer goods. Next time you see someone with ostentatious jewelry or clothing, think of her as just a sheep that was fleeced.

Cecil Rhodes

While Ernest Oppenheimer felt no allegiance to any particular country, Cecil Rhodes (pictured above) saw the diamond monopoly as a means of extending British power and influence.

Rhodes and his brother first went to South Africa in 1870. In 1871 they staked a diamond mine claim in the newly opened Kimberley fields, and in 1880, Cecil Rhodes formed the De Beers Mining Company.

In 1888 Barney Barnato (a Jew, real name Barney Isaacs) maneuvered Rhodes into a position where Rhodes was forced to consolidate his holdings with the large holdings of Barnato. The new firm, known as De Beers Consolidated Mines, essentially had a monopoly on diamonds.

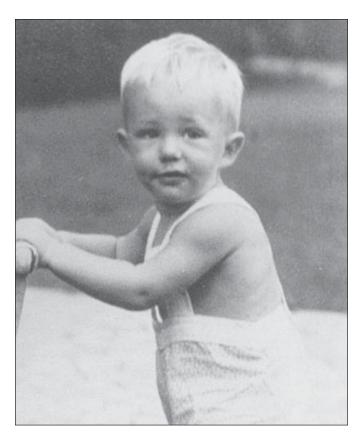

Rhodes became the virtual dictator of Cape Colony in 1890. He restricted voting to literate persons thereby reducing the vote from Blacks.

A forceful British patriot, Cecil Rhodes sided with the English against the Blacks and Boers.

Rhodesia was named after him. He gave away virtually his entire fortune.

The Oppenheimers, in sharp contrast, hold onto their fortune and train each generation of Oppenheimers to manage the business for their own profit and for the good of the Jewish tribe.

He Needs the Truth

Where Will He Find It?

On television, with its racially mixed couples and multicultural propaganda?

In Jewish-controlled Hollywood, where almost no film can be made unless it contains a Politically Correct, anti-White message?

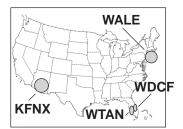

In the newspapers, where the same alien control prevails?

In the classroom, which has been converted into a neo-communist brainwashing pen?

On the streets, where he will be exposed to drug dealers and homosexuals.

We are here to make sure that more and more young people like him will have access to the truth—over the air and through the printed word. We are the men and women of the National Alliance. It's about time.
