

5. After the ACCA completes its review, I may request that my case be reviewed by the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces (CAAF). If my case is reviewed by that Court, I may request review by the Supreme Court of the United States. I have the same rights to counsel before those courts as I have before the ACCA.

6. If the convening authority approves no punitive discharge and approves any confinement for less than a year, my case will be examined in the Office of The Judge Advocate General for any legal errors and to determine if the sentence is appropriate. The Judge Advocate General (TJAG) may take corrective action as appropriate. This mandatory review under Article 69(a), UCMJ, will constitute the final review of my case unless TJAG directs review by the ACCA.

7. I may waive or withdraw review by the appellate courts or, if applicable, review by the Office of the Judge Advocate General at any time before completion of review. I understand that if I waive or withdraw review:

(a) My decision is final and I cannot change my mind.

(b) My case will then be reviewed by a military lawyer for legal error. It will also be sent to the general court-martial convening authority for final action.

(c) Within two (2) years after the sentence is approved, I may request The Judge Advocate General (TJAG) to take corrective action on the basis of newly discovered evidence, fraud on the court-martial, lack of jurisdiction over me or the offense, error prejudicial to my substantial rights, or the appropriateness of the sentence.

8. I have read and had my post-trial rights explained to me by counsel and I acknowledge these rights and make the elections set forth below. (Please initial where appropriate.)

BEM a. I understand my post-trial and appellate review rights.

BEM b. I would like a copy of the record of trial served on MYSELF, AND CIVILIAN COUNSEL.

BEM c. My civilian defense counsel, DAVID E. COOMBS, will submit R.C.M. 1105 matters in my case.

BEM d. If applicable, I want to be represented before the Army Court of Criminal Appeals by Appellate Defense Counsel appointed by The Judge Advocate General (TJAG) of the Army. I understand that I may contact my Appellate Defense Counsel by writing to Defense Appellate Division, U.S. Army Legal Services Agency (JALS-DA), 9275 Gunston Road, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060-5546.

BEM e. I have been informed that I have the right to retain civilian counsel at my own expense for my appeal. If I choose to hire someone to represent me on appeal, I will inform my military appellate defense counsel of this person's name and contact information.

If I later retain civilian counsel, I must provide the name and address to: Clerk of the Court, U.S. Army Judiciary (JALS-CC), 9275 Gunston Road, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060.

9. I understand that any period of confinement included in my sentence generally begins to run from the date the court martial adjudges my sentence. I may request that the convening authority defer commencement of any period of confinement; however, deferral is solely within the discretion of the convening authority.

10. I also understand that by operation of Article 58(b) of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, any sentence which includes confinement for over 6 months, or confinement for 6 months or less and a punitive discharge, will result in forfeiture of all pay and allowances, effective 14 days after my sentence is adjudged or when the convening authority takes action, whichever occurs first. Additionally, any adjudged forfeitures in my case are effective 14 days after the sentence is adjudged or when the convening authority takes final action, whichever occurs first. I may petition the convening authority to defer forfeitures until the time of final action, but such relief is solely within the discretion of the convening authority, who may withdraw deferment at any time.

11. Pending action on my case, I can be contacted or a message may be left for me at the following address:
