The only thing that I've posted was the thing on facebook. The other thing had nothing to do with the situation at hand.

Also, you got involved by posting two things (or more) when you clearly should have known better.
Do not post anything about this, as we have instructed you.
This is not negotiable. Your public and personal posts cannot involve this work issue in any way.

I know you are doing everything you can at this point to try and solve the issue at hand, but I have to say I'm starting to get really scared. I'm to the point where as I drive to work I'm looking behind me to notice a car falling me or an unknown car in the parking lot. I'm starting to get scared for my life and I don't know where to go from here. Please give me a call on my personal phone so I can discuss the situation. Thank you
