3. SPANISH the easy way

TPRS (Teaching Proficiency through Reading and Storytelling) Spanish for beginner/advanced adult learners and serious younger ones

an INTENSIVE one-week Spanish class

Saturday 9 Aug, Wed 13 Aug, Thursday 14 Aug, Friday 15 Aug, and Sat 16 Aug, each day 0900-1300

near University of Maryland, College Park (1 mile), 2303 Metzgerott Road, Adelphi, MD 20783

I am a bilingual public school Spanish teacher (credentials in MD, PA and CA). I want to keep up my skills by offering adults an August intensive Spanish course.

We will practice through hearing and responding to humorous stories and through reading. And we will have the help of Susan Gross, a national TPRS trainer from Colorado. (We will also write and students will advance to telling their own brief stories.)

$150 for all five days

For questions and to register, call Dr. Carol Nezzo, PhD. tprsspanish@gmail.com 301-864-5267

--CLA will soon be holding elections. Please think about running for (1) deputy chairman (new term, replacing presidential-elect--you automatically become the chairman after a year); (2) secretary; and (3) member-at-large. Contact me [redacted] if you are interested. I am keeping a list.

--CLA is looking for a SPEAKER for this fall's annual dinner. We probably can pay more this year. Please keep in mind that said person must be accessible, i.e., reachable, by us.

5. International Flag of Language

As part of the International Year of Languages festivities, the National Museum of Language (NML) expects to create the world's first International Flag of Language this fall. A flag design will be solicited and determined by a team of judges coming from the National Capital Language Resource Center, American Council on Teaching Foreign Languages, (hopefully) the National Joint Committee on Languages, the ABC Museum, NML itself, the Chesapeake Bay Vexillological Association and (hopefully) UNESCO. Stay tuned as we would like to have a winning design by the end of the year.
